THE Figures annexed to this Volume, were left by the Reverend Mr. Law, and by him intended for Publication. They contain an ILLUSTRATION of the deep Principles of Jacob Behmen, in which the Mysteries of Nature and Grace are unfolded. And as He and Mr. Law were raised up by God, and highly qualified as Instructors of Mankind in Divine Wisdom; so all who with them are Followers of Christ in Simplicity of Heart, who in the true Spirit of Prayer and Resignation to God, desire that his Will may be done on Earth as it is in Heaven, and seek only God and the Salvation of their Souls in Sincerity and Truth, will find in their Writings every Thing relating to their essential Happiness, and a Preservative from all Delusions. They contain their own best Defence. And all the Efforts of Human Wisdom, Wit, and Learning to depreciate and suppress them, however specious, can be but like sounding Brass, or a tinkling Cymbal.

I F we consider the great and wonderful Structure of the Heaven, and of the Earth, and observe their Motions, and contemplate the manifold Operations of their Powers and Properties, and the great variety of the Bodies of Creatures, how they are hard and soft, gross and subtil, obscure and glistering, thick and clear, heavy and light, we then find the Twofold Origin of the Manifestation of God, the Dark-ness and the Light, which out of all their Powers and Wonders have breathed forth, formed, and made themselves visible with the Firmament, Stars, and Elements, and all the palpable Creatures, wherein all Things, Life, and Death, Good and Evil, are together. This is the third Life, (besides the two that are hid,) and is called Time in the strife of Vanity.

Here appears the Wisdom, in which the Holy Ghost has manifested the divine Powers every where, through Sun, Moon, and Stars, through Gold, Silver, and precious Stones, through pleasant Colours and Odours, and through all the good Part in all the Creatures, and especially through Man, in his Understanding, Skill, and Knowledge of God, his Justice, Love and Benevolence, his Meekness, Chastity, Modesty, and Virtue

Here also the dark hellish Property manifests itself in the Earth, and through Harshness, Blackness, Frost, Poison, and Stink in all Creatures; and in Man, through hatred, Malice, Anger, Folly, Impiety, Lewdness, Brutality, and all Vice.

So this World stands in a mixed Temporal Life, betwixt Light and Dark-ness, as being actually a Mirror of them both, in which the Wonders of Eternity, in Figures and Forms of Time, are manifested through the WORD, as St. John says, All Things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made; as the deep Declaration of it in the divine Light, may be seen in this Book of the Threefold Life.

 BEING a high and deep Searching of the Threefold Life of Man, through the Three Principles.

Wherein is clearly shown that which is Eternal; and also that which is Mortal.

And why God, who is the highest Good, has brought all things to light.

Also why one thing is contrary to another, and destroys it: and then what is right [or true, and what is evil] or false, and how the one ^b separates itself from the other.

^b Or, distinguishes.

Wherein especially the Three Principles are founded, which are the only original or Fountain whence all Things flow and are generated.

Whereby the Multitude of Meanings and Opinions about Faith and Religion may be known: and what is the cause of the multitude of Opinions among Men, concerning the Essence and Will of God; also what is best for Man to do, that he may attain the highest and eternal Good.

And then concerning the End and event of all Things; why all Things have appeared in such a Property and Essence as they have had; for the Comfort of the poor wounded sick Soul of Man, and for the Rebuilding or Edification of the true Christian Religion; wherein the Antichrist stands quite naked and revealed.

Set down for a Remembrance to curself, and for a support to uphold us in these distracted miserable Times.

A HIGH

HIGH and DEEP SEARCH

CONCERNING THE

THREEFOLD LIFE of MAN.

The First Chapter.

1. HEN we consider the beginning of our Life, and compare the same with the Eternal Life, which we have in the promise, we cannot say nor find that we are at home in this life. For we see the beginning and the end of the outward life, as also the total decay and final corruption of our bodies; and besides we see or know of no returning into this [outward] life, neither have we any promise of it from the high and eternal Good.

2. Seeing then there is a Life in us which is Eternal and Incorruptible, wherewith we strive after the highest Good; and a life (from this world) which is finite and corruptible, and also a life in which the source and original cause of Life standeth, wherein the highest danger of Eternal Perdition, misery, and calamity doth consist; therefore it is of necessity that we consider the beginning of Life, from whence all these things proceed and have their original.

3. So now when we consider the life, what it is, then we find that it is a burning Fire, which consumeth, and when it hath no more [fuel] to feed upon, it goeth out; as may be seen in all Fires. For the life hath its nourishment from the body, and the body from the food; for when the body hath no more food, then it is consumed by the fire of the life, so that it fadeth and perisheth, as a fair flower, when it hath no water, withereth.

4. But seeing there is in Man a life which is Eternal and Incorruptible, which is the soul, which is also a Fire, and hath need of nutriment as well as the Elementary life hath, therefore we ought to consider the property and food of that life, what that is which continually feedeth it, so that it never goeth out in Eternity.

5. And thirdly we find in the life of our souls, that there is in it a greater hunger after another higher and better life, viz. after the highest Good, which is called the Divine Life; insomuch that the soul is not contented with its own food, but it desireth, with great longing and panting, the highest and best Good, not only for a pleasant habitation, but in a hunger for a food.

6. And so now we perceive, in our very great and true knowledge, that every life desireth its [own] Mother, (out of which the life is generated) for a food; as the Wood, which is the Mother of the Fire, that the Fire desireth to have, and if it be severed from its Mother it goeth out. In like manner, the Earth is the Mother of all Trees and herbs, and they desire it; and the water (with the other Elements) is the Mother of the Earth, or else it would be dead [or barren], and there would grow neither metals, trees, herbs, nor grafs out of it.

7. We see especially, that the Elementary life consisteth in a boiling, and is a [kind of] seething, and when it leaveth boiling it goeth out: also we know that the Constellations kindle the Elements, and the Stars are the Fire of the Elements, and the Sun kindleth the Stars, so that there is a boiling and seething amongst them: but the Elementary life is finite and corruptible, and the life of the soul is Eternal.

8. Now seeing it is Eternal, therefore it must also be from the Eternal; as the dear Moses hath written very rightly of it, That God breathed into Man the living breath, and so Man is become a living soul.

9. Yet we cannot say, though indeed Man standeth in a Threefold Life, that each life is apart in a severall form; but we find that they are in one another, and yet each life hath its own working in its dominion, viz. in its Mother: for as God the Father is all, because all cometh from him, and he is present every where, and is the fulness of every thing, and the thing doth not comprehend him; also the thing is not God, nor his Spirit, nor the true Divine Essence; so that it cannot be said of any comprehensible thing, that it is God, or that God is here present more than in other places, and yet he is really present, he containeth the thing, and the thing containeth not him; he comprehendeth the thing, and the thing comprehendeth not him; for he dwelleth not in the thing, but in himself, in another Principle.

10. So also is the soul of Man breathed in from God; it dwelleth in the body, and is environed with the Spirit of the Stars and Elements, not only as a Garment covereth the body, but it is infected with the Spirit of the Stars and Elements, as the Pestilence or other [infectious] disease infecteth the Elementary Spirit, so that it poisoneth its body, and so it decayeth and dieth, and then the source [or property] of the Stars also breaketh itself off from the soul, and consumeth itself: whereby the Elementary Mother breaketh off, and so the Spirit of the Stars hath no more food, and therefore consumeth itself, but the soul remaineth ^a naked, because it liveth by another food.

11. Understand us here in this manner; though the soul be thus captivated with the Spirit of the Stars and Elements, so that the source [or property] thereof dwelleth in the soul, yet the soul hath another food, and liveth in another Principle, and is another [thing or] ^b being.

12. For its Essences [or the faculties or powers of its substance] are not from the Constellation, but have their beginning and corporeal union out of the Eternal Band, out of the Eternal Nature, which is God's, the Father's, before the light of his Love, wherein he entereth into himself, and maketh to himself the second Principle in his Love, out of which he continually generateth his Eternal Word and Heart, from Eternity to Eternity; where the holy name of God continually ariseth [or discovereth itself] and holdeth its Divine Nature, as a Spirit in the second Principle, in itself, and dwelleth in nothing else, but merely in itself.

13. For although the band of the Eternal Nature is in it, yet the Divine Spirit is not subjected under that Band; for the Spirit kindleth that Band, so that it becometh enlightened and ^c springing with the virtue of the Light in the Love, in the life of the Word and Heart of God, so that it is a holy habitation and Paradise of that Spirit, which is called God.

14. So also the soul of Man is out of the band of the Eternal Original, Eternally standing therein, and desireth in itself, in the second Principle, to press into God, and to satiate itself in the Power of God; but because it cannot with its whole being (with its own Essences) enter into the light and power of God, as little as the Eternal Nature can press into the Light of God, so that it may have the light for its own in its own power, but the Light shineth out of the Love in its own Principle in the Eternal Nature, so that the Light remaineth Lord in the Eternal Nature, because the Eternal Nature doth not comprehend it, but rejoiceth in the Light, and bringeth forth its wonders in the power and understanding of the Light, where then they are revealed. Thus also the soul cannot in its Essences press into the Light of God, and over-master it, but must in itself, in another Principle, press into God, into his Love.

^a Or crude, empty, or feeble, or faint.

^b Being or substance.

^c Or sprouting.

15. For you must here understand another new Birth in the soul: For it must not only press forth out of the Life of the Stars and Elements, but also out of its own source [or property] of life, and incline its will into the Life of God, endeavouring to be therein: this [inclined or] created will is received of God, and God dwelleth in that will, and so cometh the Divine Life and Light into the soul, and so it is a child of God: for it standeth in its source [or property] and life, as God the Father himself [doth] in the source [or property] of the Eternal Nature.

16. And here we understand, that ^d without the Divine Light (which is the second Principle) in the Eternal Nature there is an anguishing source [or property]: for the band of life stands in the Fire; but when that fire is ^e inspired and captivated by the Divine Love, then the life in itself goeth forwards forth into another source [or property]: for another Principle is broken open for it, wherein it liveth, and that Life is in God; even as God dwelleth in himself, and yet is really all himself, all is come from his Nature: yet you must understand not as from the Eternal Nature, only the souls and the Angelical Spirits [are so]; but from his ^f created will, which hath a beginning, viz. from the External; and therefore every thing of this [outward] world is transitory. And herein we find the great and terrible Fall of our soul in our first Parents, that it is entered into the Spirit of this world, into a strange lodging, and hath forsaken the Divine Light, wherein it was an Angel and Child of God; therefore it must go forth again out of the Spirit of the Stars and Elements, and [pass] in a New Birth, into the Life of God.

17. But because that was not possible for the soul to do, therefore the Life of God came to us, out of Love and Grace, into the Flesh, and took our human soul again in it into the Divine Life in the power of the Light, that we might here be able to press into the same life to God in a New Birth. For, as we went wholly with the soul of Adam out from the life of God, (for the children of Adam have inherited [all] from their Parents soul, being sprung wholly [from them] as from a Tree) so also hath the life of God in Christ regenerated us again, so that we can enter again, in the life of Christ, into the life of God. And thus now our soul standeth in the Band of the Eternal Original, infected with the spirit of this world, and captivated by the wrath of the original, in the life of the eternal fire, viz. in the Eternal Nature; therefore we must, every one of us by ourselves, press with our soul in the life of Christ, to God, into the New Regeneration in the life and spirit of Christ: and here no hypocrisy, appearing holiness, or any meritorious works, will avail any thing, for the poor soul can no other way be helped, except it enter into itself (in a new created will) with stedfast earnest purpose and resolution, into the life of Christ; and then it will be received, with very great ^g Glory by God and his children, in the second Principle; and the noble precious Treasure (viz. the Light of the Eternal Life) will be given to it, which enlighteneth the source [or property] of the soul in the first Principle, wherein it standeth substantially with its Essences for ever, and turneth the anguish into love, and the rising and burning own property into an humble lovely mirth in meek joy.

18. And thus the soul is a joyful habitation in the Divine Life, as if I should liken it to a kindled Light, when the wick of the Candle burneth, and casteth a pleasant light, [or shineth bright] and hath no pain in the shining, but a lightsome pleasantness, and yet the wick continueth burning: yet you must understand, that there is in the burning wick no pain or woe, but that there is only a cause of the glance of life; for no fire is comparable to the Divine [fire].

^b Inspired or irrested.

ⁱ Or perceived.

^k That which is Eternal.

^m Being or substance.

19. For the Divine Nature, out of which the Divine fire of life burneth, is ^b filled with the Love of God, so that the light of God maketh another Principle in itself, wherein Nature is not ⁱ felt, for it is the end of Nature; therefore the soul cannot comprehend, in its own Essences, the light of God to possess it. For the soul is a fire in the Eternal Nature, and doth not reach the end of Nature: for it continueth in Nature as a creature created out of the Eternal Nature, which yet hath no comprehensibility, but is a Spirit in a seven-fold form: whereas yet in the Originality there are not seven, but only four forms known, which uphold the Eternal Band, and those [four] are the source [or property] in the Anguish, wherein ^k the Eternal consisteth; and out of them the other forms are wholly generated, wherein God and the Kingdom of Heaven consist; and in the four forms the Anguish and Torment consist, if they are singly alone, and therein we understand Hell-fire [to consist], and the Eternal wrath of God: and although we do not know the Originality of the Essence of God, yet we know the Eternal ^l Birth, which never had any beginning. And seeing it had no beginning, therefore it is the same this day that ever it was from Eternity: and therefore we may well comprehend what we see and know this day in the Light of God.

20. None ought to account us ignorant, because God hath given us to know his own ^m Essence, which we cannot and must not deny, upon pain of the loss of the Divine Light, and of our eternal salvation; for it is impossible for any man to have it, except it be given him out of Grace in the Love of God: and when that is given to a Man, then that soul standeth in the knowledge in the Wonders of God, which [soul] then speaketh not of things strange and afar off, but of the things wherein it standeth, and of itself; for it becometh seeing in the Light of God, so that it can know itself.

21. Now that this can be, consider, that the Essences of the soul stand in the Original in the first Principle, and that the Divine Light shineth in itself, and maketh the second Principle, and so there are two of them; and the soul seeth into the high knowledge of the light of the Second Principle, which shineth in it: why then should it not speak of its native Country, wherein it liveth? and how wilt thou, mad world (in the third Principle in the Spirit [or wisdom] of the Stars and Elements) forbid that to it, whereas thou art blind as to God, and liest captivated in the Eternal Wrath, in the source [or property] of the Original?

22. Now seeing it is so, we will therefore set down the Ground of the Eternal Band, to be a looking Glass for him that desireth to see; though it be true indeed, that he cannot learn it of us, unless he himself enter into the New Birth into the life of Christ, that the Divine Light itself may shine in him, or else ⁿ we are but as a History to him, and shall not be understood by him.

^a That which is here written will be but as a History, without understanding of the mysterious Wisdom couched under it.

^o Astringent or attractive.

^p Or to create the Wonders.

^q Or a vacuum.

23. But when we speak of the source [or original] of the fire, and of its kindling (we mean concerning the Fire of Life) we know for certain, that in its Original, before the kindling of the fire, it consists only in two forms, and hath but one Mother, which is ^o harsh, and draweth to her, and yet there is nothing in herself, but a willing of the Eternal Father in the Eternal Nature which he hath appointed in himself to reveal, and to declare his wonders.

24. Now that Will is Eternal, and is not stirred up by any thing but by itself; and if that were not, all were nothing, neither darkness nor light: therefore seeing there is somewhat, it must needs be the Eternal Will, and that is astringent, and desirous ^p of the Wonders of the Creation. Therefore seeing there is a Desire, the Desire attracteth to itself, and that which is attracted in the Desire maketh the Will full, so that the Desire is fulfilled; for the Will is as thin [or empty] as ^q a. Nothing, and that which is attracted into the Will maketh the Will thick [or gross and full] and that is its Darknes; and the Eternal Desire standeth in the Darknes.

25. Now when the Will in the Desire doth attract, that attracting is a sting [^r puncture or Goad] of the stirring; for the Will is thin as a Nothing, and is quiet and still, as [if it were] Nothing: but the Will being an Eternal Desiring, therefore it attracteth to itself Eternally; and, having nothing to attract, it attracteth itself, and impregnateth [or filleth] itself, and so the Nothing cometh to be a Darknes, and the attracting ^r maketh the sting of the first Essences, so that there is a stirring and original of Mobility.

^r Pricking or spurring to Motion.

^r Is the spur to the beginning of the being of a thing.

26. Now the will cannot endure the attracting and impregnation, for it would be free, and yet cannot, because it is Desirous; and seeing it cannot be free, it entereth with the attracting into itself, and taketh [or conceiveth] in itself another Will, which is, to go out from the Darknes into itself, and that other conceived Will is the Eternal Mind, and entereth into itself as a sudden flash [of lightening] and dissipateth the Darknes, and goeth forth into itself, and dwelleth in itself, and maketh to itself another [or second] Principle of another Quality [source or condition], for the sting of the stirring remaineth in the Darknes.

27. Therefore now we should speak of the forms of the four [or astringent] dark Nature. For we understand that the Darknes hath a longing after the Light, which eternally ^r standeth before it, but in another Principle.

^r Or is presented to it.

28. For the two Forms, the four and the bitter stinging, are the Original of All things, and the Eternal Will is the Mother [or Matrix] wherein they are Generated: and we are to know that the ^v sourness always attracteth with the conception of the Will, and that attracting is the stinging of the stirring, which the ^w sourness cannot well endure: for the attracting sourness desireth the four strong spitting up in Death, and the stinging bitterness is the Opener, and yet it were a nothing in itself without the Will.

^v Astringency: or attracting.
^w Or harshness.

29. Now when the sourness attracteth so strongly, it cannot endure the stinging, viz. the sourness's own attracting, but stirreth much more; and the sourness may not endure the stirring neither, for it desireth the still Death. And thus it is a Chain and Band, which ever maketh itself, and hath no [other] Maker.

30. Now these entering into one another so swiftly, like a sudden thought, the sting would fain get out from the sourness, but cannot, for the sourness generateth and maintaineth it; and not being able to get the upper hand [or get loose] it turneth round like a wheel, and so breaketh asunder the attracted sourness, and maketh a continual ^x hurlyburly and mixture, in which the ^y breaking or woe doth consist; yet there is no feeling here, but [they are] only Forms of Nature: for it is no ^z Material, but [it is] the Original of the Spirit or Eternal Nature in the Eternal Will.

^x Or stirring up and down.
^z Materia.

31. For the four desiring attracteth and maketh penetration, and the bitterness breaketh it asunder in the turning wheel, and so there ariseth multiplicity of Essences, and it is as it were a furiousness, or as I may say in a similitude, a Confusion of the Eternal Mobility, a cause of the Essences: and this the Eternal Will must suffer [to be] in itself, and therefore it conceiveth or taketh to itself another Will, to fly out from this wheel, and yet cannot do it, for it is its own substance; and seeing it cannot, and yet cannot leave its eternal desire and longing, it holdeth and attracteth to itself; so that the Essences are continually generated, and yet (without the desiring) they are nothing; and thus the whole form standeth in the ^a noise, and is called MAR: and seeing the Will cannot be free, it falleth into a great anguish, to speak according to Man's understanding, that the Reader may comprehend the sense and depth of it.

^a Or sound.

32. For the Will is the conception, and that which is conceived in the Will is its Darknes, and the desiring is the Essence, and the contrary will is the wheel of the multiplicity of Essences, so that they are numberless, but the multitude is according to the Mobility. These two forms are the Eternal Essences, and the Eternal Band, which maketh itself, and cannot do otherwise.

33. For the vast infinite space desireth narrowness and inclosure [or comprehension] wherein it may manifest itself, for else in the wide stillness there would be no manifestation; therefore there must be an attraction and inclosing, out of which the manifestation appeareth; and therefore also there must be a contrary Will; for a transparent and quiet will is as nothing, and generateth nothing: but if a Will must Generate, then it must be in somewhat, wherein it may form, and may generate in that thing; for Nothing is nothing but a stillness without any stirring, where there is neither darkness nor light, neither life nor death.

34. Now since we clearly perceive, that there is both light and darkness, and moreover an eternal stirring and forming, which is not only in the place of this world as far as our senses reach, but without end and number, where the Angelical world shineth clearly, and yet not in the inclosure of the Darkness; therefore we should raise our ^b thoughts towards the Angelical world, which yet is not without this place [of this world]; but it is in another Property, and in the Eternal Light, and yet there could be no Light except there were a Genetrix [or Matrix] to bring it forth.

^b Or senses.

^c Attract, frame, or Create.

35. Now if it shine out of the Genetrix [or Matrix], then it must come forth out of the Genetrix. For the Genetrix is a Darkness, and yet that were nothing neither, if the Eternal Word (which ^c maketh the Eternal Will) were not there. And in the making or creating is the Birth of the Eternal Being; of which John saith, In the beginning was the Word, which was in the beginning with God, all things were made by it, and without it was nothing made that was made.

36. Consider here my beloved Mind, whence Light and Darkness come, also joy and heaviness, love and hate; as also the Kingdom of Heaven and the Kingdom of Hell, good and evil, life, and the shutting up in death.

^d Canons and Ordinances.

37. Thou sayest, God hath created it; very well: but why art thou blind, and dost not acknowledge it, whereas thou art indeed the similitude of God? Why speakest thou more of God than thou knowest, and is revealed or manifested to thee? Wherefore dost thou make ^d Laws concerning the will of God, of which thou knowest nothing, seeing thou dost not know Him? Or why dost thou shut up thy life in death, whereas thou mightest well live, and know God who dwelleth in thee? for thou hearest it also from St. John, that all things are made by the Word.

38. Seeing then God is the Word which hath made all things, he must therefore be in all things: for a Spirit is not a made thing, but a generated thing in itself, which hath the Center of its Birth in itself, or else it would be corruptible: therefore now the Center must stand in the Eternal Maker, or else it were transitory: for there is nothing from Eternity but the Word, and the Word was God: and therefore it must needs be its own Eternal Maker of itself; and itself must express itself as a Word out of itself, as out of its own Maker.

^e Quality or Property.

39. For where there is a Word, there also is a speaker to speak it. Now since it is the Father that speaketh it, and the Word which is spoken out of the Center of the Father is the Son thereof; and seeing the Father in his Center calleth himself a Consuming Fire, and yet the Son (the Word) is a Light of Love, humility, meekness, purity, and holiness, and that the Father of the Word is so also called and acknowledged throughout the holy Scripture, therefore we should consider the ^e source of the Fire in the Center of the Father, seeing the Father and the Word is one, and yet in two [distinct] forms: and that also the Wrath and the Anger, together with the Abyss of Hell, stand in the Center of the Father.

40. For St. John saith, Of and through it are all things, and without it was nothing made: for when the Word desired to make [or create], and the Father through the Word, then there was no Matter for him to make it of; for All was [as it were] nothing, neither Good nor Evil, neither Light nor Darkness, but the Center stood there: for the Will is his Heart, Son, and Word, which only is the Eternal Being, and the Band which maketh itself, and yet the Deity may not thus be comprehended, because a Being affordeth a [distinct difference or] divisibility, and appeareth in two Principles.

41. Therefore we will lay before you the Ground, as we certainly know it: and our purpose in writing is to the end that you might see how blind you are, and how without knowledge you meddle, when you make such large ^f Expositions of the Writings of the Saints, about the Essence and Will of God, and yet know him not.

^f Comments, Sermons, or Glosses upon the Scriptures.

42. You persecute, despise, and disgrace one another; you raise wars, uproars, and Tumults, and make desolate Countries and Nations, about [what is] the true knowledge of God and his will, and yet you are as blind as a stone concerning God: you do not know your own selves, and yet you are so furiously mad, that you contend about [your knowing of] God, who is the maker, preserver, and upholder of all things; who is the Center in all things: so also you strive about his Light, which yet did never appear in wrath and malice or wickedness, but in friendly meek humility and in love his Center springeth up: and you are so furious and mad, and yet suppose that you have it upon your Tongue in your ^g malicious contention: you have it not, but you have merely the history of the Saints, who have had the light shining forth out of their Center; and therefore they have spoken from the Holy Ghost, which proceedeth out of the Light. But you take their words, and the Center of your Heart is fast shut, you run galloping in the four Forms of wickedness or malice, [viz. in Pride, Covetousness, Envy, and Anger.]

^g Wicked.

43. Therefore I will show you the Ground of the two Eternal Principles [that spring] out of one Center, that you might yet see how you run on in the Kingdom of the Devil, to try whether you will yet turn and leave off your pride, and enter into yourself, and so you might attain the highest Eternal Good.

44. Therefore I will show you what we are in soul and body, also what God, Heaven, and Hell are; do not take it to be a ^h fiction, [opinion or conceit], for it demonstrates itself in all things, there is nothing so small but it stands manifest therein, and do not blindfold yourselves in your base pride, in your conceitedness, but search the Ground of Nature, and then you shall ⁱ understand all things, and do not run on so furiously upon the bare letter of the History, do not make Laws according to your own conceits and opinions so blindly, by which you persecute [vex and prosecute] one another; in this you are blinder than the Heathens.

^h Or a Fancy;

ⁱ Learn or find all things experimentally.

45. Search after the Heart, and after the Spirit of the Scriptures, that it might be born in you, and that you might open the Center of the Love of God, and so you might know God, and rightly speak of him. For from the History none should take upon him to be a Master, or call himself a knower of the Essence of God, but from the Holy Ghost, which appeareth in another Principle (in the Center of Man's life) unto those that seek it in true earnestness, as we are commanded by Christ to knock and seek for it of his Father (viz. in the Center of the Life) with true earnest desirous humility, and we shall find it.

46. For none can know or rightly seek or find God his Lord without the Holy Ghost, which springeth forth from the Heart of the humble seeker, and enlighteneth the Mind, so that the ^k senses are enlightened, and the desire is turned to God; that person only findeth the dear Virgin, the wisdom of God, which leadeth in the right way, and bringeth to the fresh waters of Eternal life, and quickeneth the soul, and so the New Body groweth on the soul in Christ, of which we will, hereafter following, write according to its high and precious worth.

^k Inward senses or thoughts.

47. We advise the seeking Reader, that loveth God, to consider concerning God; and that he do not collect in his mind and thoughts, and seek for the pure Deity only aloft above the Stars, dwelling there only in Heaven, thinking that he doth rule and govern only by his Spirit and power in this world, as the Sun standeth aloft in the Deep, and worketh by his beams all over the whole world: no.

48. The pure Deity is in all places and all corners, and present every where all over: the Birth of the holy Trinity in one Essence is every where: and the Angelical world reacheth to every part, wherever you can think, even in the midst of the Earth, Stones, and Rocks: as also Hell and the Kingdom of God's wrath is every where all over.

49. For the severe Kingdom in the Anger of the Darknes is in the Center, and keepeth its Source and Dominion in the Darknes; and the Deity goeth forth (in the Center) in itself, and maketh a habitation [of joy] in itself, but unsearchably or incomprehensibly to the Darknes, because it openeth another Principle: for the Eternal Word is the Eternal Will, and a cause of the Eternal Nature; and the Eternal Nature is the Eternal Father, wherein all things are created by the Word, you must understand, in the Eternal Nature: And if the Eternal Will did not create in itself [another or] a second Will, to go forth, (as a shining light flameth forth from a Candle and departeth not away from the Candle) the Father would be alone, and be only an austere Darknes: also this world (viz, the Third Principle) could not have been created.

50. But the Father containeth in him the Eternal Nature in his own Essence, and is the Eternal Will itself, and generateth out of himself [another or] a second Will, which, in the first Eternal Will (which is the Father) openeth the Principle of the Light, in which the Father (with the Eternal Essences in his Eternal Original Will) becometh amiable, friendly, mild, pure, and Gentle; and so the Father is not in the source [or quality] of Darknes: for the recomprehended Will (which goeth forth out of the Center, and dispelleth the Darknes) is his Heart, and dwelleth in itself, and enlighteneth the Father [or is the glance and light or lustre of the Father], and that will is the Word of the Eternal Father, which is generated out of the Eternal Essences, and is rightly another Person; for he dwelleth in the Father's Essences [or Essential powers] in himself, and is the Light of the Father, and this Word (or Will) hath created all things, (understand out of the Essences of the Father) for it [the Word] is the Eternal Omnipotency, because it cannot be comprehended by the Eternal Essences; for it breaketh asunder the Eternal Essences, and dwelleth in itself, and shineth out of the Essences, and yet it cannot depart from the Essences, as little as the glance or light departeth from the fire.

The Second Chapter.

• Begetters, pregnant Mother, or womb of the Conception of the Birth.

I.  E E I N G we have mentioned such a ground to you, we will show you further the ground of the Genetrix [or Matrix], for we see it clearly in this world, in the Dominion of the Elements: (and yet much more in ourselves, in our Minds, whence the senses [or thoughts] arise, whereby they walk, converse, and direct all their actions) that there is a Genetrix, which doth afford so much; and if there be a Genetrix, then there must be a Center or Circle of life, wherein the Genetrix hath its Dominion: for the nothing doth not move nor stir; but if there be a stirring, that moveth every life, that must not be a strange [or Heterogeneous] thing, because it is in every thing that thing's own spirit and life, as well in the vegetative and insensible as in the sensitive living [things].

2. And let not the dissemblers and hypocrites mislead you, who are mere Book-learned in the History, and boast and vapour with strange Languages, and would be respected for it, whereas they understand them not in the least: they understand not their Mother Tongue; if they understood that right (together with the Spirits of the Letters) then they would know Nature therein.

3. It is mere Pride that forbiddeth you to search or seek, that you should not find, and that (the Pride) with her crowned [or cornered] Cap may domineer (like a proud woman) woman) over the Wonders of God; for so the Devil would have it, that he might not be known: they are more blind than the simple Laity.

4. If you desire to seek, then knock, that the right door may be opened for you, and seek in the fear and the love of God, and you shall find well enough; let not the calumnies of the proud divert you: For if the right door be opened to you, then you shall see how very blind^a they are: their pride hath blinded the whole world, so that every one looketh merely at their eloquence, [fine Language, or good expressions] and upon their [several] strange Languages, and think they understand very well. Thus they domineer over Men's souls, whereas their knowing is altogether doubtful, as may be seen by their Disputations and Contentions.

^b Those that call themselves the Clergy, or Divines.

5. Therefore I say still, none should trust their soul with such hypocrites and dissembling men: for the soul standeth not in this world, but in the Original of the Essence of all Essences, and it is in the Center of the Eternal Band, wherein God, and the Kingdom of Heaven and Hell standeth, and if it [the soul] attaineth the love of God in the Light, (which dwelleth in the Ground of the soul) it may well see the Eternal Nature, as also God, and the Kingdom of Heaven, and of Hell: if it do not suffer itself to be blinded: it is not hard or difficult: it is but to go about the new Birth, or Regeneration out of the Darkness into the Light, without which you cannot reach the Depth in the Center.

6. And now if we will speak of the Center, or the Circle of the Life, we must consider the Genetrix [or Matrix] which is the Center, and the Essence of all Essences. All things are Generated out of the Center, and out of that which is Generated all things are created which are in Being. And we have cleared to you the Ground, how the Eternal Word was in the beginning (as in the Center) and the Word is God's, and the Eternal Will is that Word. For the Eternal God hath that will in him, and that is his heart, and in that recomprehended will (in the Eternal Father of all things) the Eternal Deity hath its Name GOD.

7. For we cannot say, that God hath a Maker, as also the Will hath no Maker; for he maketh himself from Eternity to Eternity continually, whereas it is not a making neither, but an Eternal^c Generation. The Word in the Father, and the Spirit which goeth forth from the Power, is the Life of the Deity. ^c Or Birth.

8. But now we see that the Mark standeth in the Center: for God is also an Angry Zealous or jealous God, and a consuming Fire; and in that source [or quality] standeth the Abyss of Hell, the anger and malice of all the Devils, as also the^d Poison of all Creatures: and it is found that without poison and^e eagerness there is no Life: and from thence ariseth all contrariety and strife: and it is found, that the strongest and most eager, is the most useful and profitable: for it maketh all things, and is the only cause of all mobility and life. ^d Venom or the corruption. ^e Fierceness or stinging sharpness.

9. For as is mentioned before; The Eternal Word (viz. the Eternal Will of the Father) is the Creator of all things, and the Eternal Father, is the Being of the Will, out of which the Word hath created all things. Now the Essences are the being which causeth the Will: for here you must understand, that there are two Wills in one Being, and they cause two Principles: One is the Love and the other is the Anger or the Source [or property] of Wrath. The first Will is not called God, but Nature: the second Will is called A and O, the beginning and the End, from Eternity to Eternity: and in the first Will, Nature could not be manifest, the second Will [it is that] maketh Nature manifest, for the second Will is the virtue in the strength, and the one would be nothing without the other.

10. Seeing then, that the Will of the Father in the Eternity, is the first, therefore also he is the first Person in the Ternary, viz. the Center itself. So now the Will or the Center is. to desire to Generate the Word or Heart: for it is nothing else, and it can be called nothing else, but the desiring in the Will.

11. Thus we search in a deep sense in the Mind; and find, that the desiring is eager and attractive: for it is the strong might: not in one point only, but every where all over, contracting the wideness into narrowness, to manifest itself [therein]. For else there would be nothing in the whole Deep, and there would appear nothing, but all would be still and quiet.

12. But now the desiring attracteth, and yet it hath nothing there but itself: and that which is attracted is the impregnation of the desiring, and maketh the desire full, and yet is nothing but a darkness, for that which is attracted is thicker than the will, and therefore it is the darkness of the thin Will.

13. For the will is as thin [or empty] as [if it were] nothing, and very still and quiet: but the desiring maketh it full, and the going forth in the desiring is the Essences, viz. a sting of sensibility, (which is against the sensibility) which the desiring also cannot endure, but attracteth the more vehemently to it, and so the sting or puncture is the greater, and rageth against the attracting, and yet cannot get out of it, for the desiring generateth it, and yet cannot endure it, for it is such an Enmity as [is between] heat and cold.

14. And so the desiring, which in itself is an earnest longing, by its longing doth awaken such a raging (which doth so sting in that will) that the longing becometh very sour and strongly attracting, that it might hold the sting fast, whereby the sting as a stirring life, affordeth mobility, in which the longing attaineth the first crack [or shriek] of trembling, from whence ariseth a contrary Anguish: for in the Anguish of the longing (in the hard attracting) is caused a sharp coldness: and the attraction is eager, bitter and stinging, so that it affordeth a terrible strong Power, which the sting cannot endure, but would fain break away, and yet it cannot: For its own Mother that generateth it, holdeth it, and so seeing it cannot get away upwards, it runneth round like a wheel, and breaketh asunder the contraction, from whence the Essences of multiplicity arise.

^f Or perception.

15. And this is the right Center: for in the wheel existeth the nature of Mobility and of the Essences: and it is a Band of the Spirit, though without ^f feeling or understanding: but in this Form, it is only called the Center: for it is the Circle of life, which the desiring hath shut up, out of the still wideness, into narrowness: although it is not comprehensible, but every where merely spirit and form of Nature.

16. Seeing then that the Raver maketh such a stinging bitter wheel (in the sharp cold) therefore the Center is so terrible, like a great Anguish, where the life is continually broken, [or destroyed] and by the Essences is also built [again] in such a manner, and is like to Life and Death.

17. The Philosophers and high ^g knowers of Nature, write, that Nature consisteth in three things, viz. in ^h Sulphur, Mercury, and Salt, which is very right: but the simple will understand nothing therein: and although the apprehension of it was open to the wise [so that they understood it] yet at this present time, very few understand the Center, but they have it in the History, as also [they have] the Divinity or Theology from the mouth of the Apostles, which at present is also no other than a History, without the power and the living Spirit, (which was among the Apostles) as is clearly testified by their contentious disputations, lip labour and dead Letter [in their Teachings].

18. Now seeing we have through the Divine Grace attained the Light, and are able to know the Center, which is the Birth of our life: we have power to demonstrate it, and show what is comprized and understood in the three words, Sulphur, Mercury, and Salt: not that we thereby despise the ignorant blindness: but as a Christian we would willingly afford and show them the Light. And although our speech seemeth simple, yet our knowledge, meaning, and apprehension is very Deep: none should be offended at the simple speech: as if we had not the deep apprehension. Let him but read it with a true earnestness, and consider seriously of it, in the fear of God, and he shall find well enough what Spirit's child we are in this writing, but we would have him faithfully warned, concerning the scorers and hypocrites.

19. As is mentioned concerning the Sulphur, the Center is and may very well be called PHUR: but if the Light be generated, the light that shineth out of the PHUR is called SUL, for it is the soul thereof. And as I say of the dark Center, wherein the Divine Light is generated, the same I say also of Nature: though indeed they are one: but we must so speak, that we might bring it into the thoughts of the Reader, that he might incline his mind to the Light, and so attain it.

20. For the two Forms; viz. sharp cold, and bitter stinging, which are generated by the longing in the Eternal Will; they hold the Center, and make the wheel of the Essences, whence the ¹ senses, as also perception and mobility continually arise Eternally.

21. Now these two forms are in very great and terrible anguish, in themselves, without the other forms that are generated out of them. For the attracting sharp sourness is like to hard stones, and the sting of the attracting is the breaker of the astringency: and so it is like a wheel, and may well be called PHUR: as the Language of Nature in that syllable doth declare.

22. Therefore though the two forms enter so terribly in themselves into the Will, and hold the Will in the darkness, yet the will cannot be captivated, for its own propriety is to be meek and quiet, and that propriety it cannot lose in the two Forms, for it is incomprehensible; and yet it must be in the two Forms, and dwelleth in the sting, and is the flash thereof: for the two Forms are dark in themselves, but the Will is not [so], for it is free in itself: but the two Forms take it into their property: for it is their Father, and it sharpeneth itself in their properties, so that it shineth as a flash [of lightening].

23. For the four astringency maketh dark; and the bitter sting (in the wheel) dissipateth the Darkness: and so the liberty of the still will shineth in the wheel in the whirling as a flash [of lightening]: for the will so sharpeneth itself from the four astringency, that it becometh very strong, for it is as when steel and a stone are knocked one against another to strike fire.

24. For there is understood to be in the Fire, two things; viz. the liberty ^k without Nature, and the four strongness of Nature; as you have an Example in a stone, out of which you strike Fire. For when you strike upon the sharp [Part] of the stone, the bitter sting of Nature sharpeneth itself, and is ^l stirred in the highest Degree. For Nature is dissipated or ^m broken asunder in the sharpness, so that the liberty shineth as a flash [of lightening]: and that you may here see to be true: for as soon as the liberty shineth, it consumeth the Darkness, and thence it cometh, that the sharpness of God the Father is a consuming Fire. For as soon as the flash in the sharpness seizeth on any thing that is essential, it consumeth it instantly, so that there is no nature more left.

^m Shivered to pieces.

25. And the cause of the flash going out so suddenly, is that the sharpness cannot retain it: for the flash is free from Nature, and is only seen in the breaking.

26. And we give you to understand, that this liberty without the Nature, is God the Father: and the Nature is thus generated in him, so that he is Omnipotent over Nature, even as the mind of Man is above the senses; for it hath all one Original, as we will show you hereafter following.

27. Further concerning the Birth of Nature, we give you to understand this by way of similitude: When the flash shineth thus in the four anguish, then there is a very great crack, which the fourness captivateth, and terrifieth much more, for its dark propriety in the four Death is killed in a moment, so that it loseth its four propriety and sinketh back, and can no more attract so strongly; and then the flash goeth directly through the sting of the raging of the whirling wheel: where the sting must spread forth on each side, and the flash goeth through the midst; and so the wheel cometh to be a Cross, and can no more whirl about, but standeth shivering in the sharp Might of the Will of the Eternal Liberty, which is God the Father.

28. And now when the strong fourness hath captivated the flash of the Liberty, that it loseth its propriety; then the fourth form (viz. the Salt-Spirit) is generated: for the stern harshness becometh pliant from the fire and the crack; and yet retaineth the sharpness: and so this form is like a sharp Water-Spirit: and the flash (viz. the crack) is the third form, and maketh in itself in the four killed-anguish a Brimstone-Spirit.

29. For if the stern sourness loseth its first dry propriety, it must be soft, and yet it cannot, for it is terribly sharp: and here is the ^a Mark of the Eternal Death: for the desire out of the free will cannot attract so any more: for it standeth in the anguish of the Crack, and yet retaineth its propriety in the attracting.

30. For every anguish hath a desire to go forth from the source [or pain]: and it is the natural right of the anguish to expel from itself, and yet it cannot, but the pain is thereby more stirred and greater: as may be understood in a raging swelling sore, where the Member in the ^o Essences laboureth to be rid of the pain, and by the labouring of the Essences the sore becometh bigger, and the source (in the Brimstone-Spirit) is swelled up: and the more the ^o Essences strive, the greater is the wheel of the Anguish.

31. Thus I propose Nature to you, to be considered of, which if you consider it well, cannot be spoken against: for it appeareth in all things, and it hath its Birth just so. And Nature standeth thus in four Forms.

32. First, in a four and strong attracting, which is called ^f Harshness, and maketh in itself sharp coldness.

33. And then, secondly, the attracting is its ^s sting, which rageth in the sourness, and breaketh the hardness, and maketh the wheel of the innumerable Essences, wherein the Wonders are generated.

34. But the flash of the Liberty of the Eternal Will, which sharpeneth itself in the sourness, and turneth to consuming Fire, breaketh its wheel, wherein as a flash it penetrateth through in a moment, and terrifieth its Mother, the sourness, which loseth her hard propriety, and is changed into a sharp nature like Salt; and in this sharpness, the sting also loseth its own right and becometh bitter: for it hath in it two Forms, viz. the raging, and also the flash of the Fire, which are like Brimstone, and it is the might of the kindling of the Fire, for the source [or property] of the Fire standeth therein.

35. Understand us right thus: the flash of fire out of the sharpness maketh the third form in Nature: for it maketh in the sourness, and out of the Rager (the bitter sting in the tart anguish) a Brimstone-Spirit, wherein the flash standeth, and is the soul (or the Eternal Life) of the four Forms. For the anguish maketh in itself again a desire to fly out from the anguish, and yet there is nothing that can fly away, but so it is in the Center, and is called the Center no more.

36. The fourth Form is the changing of the hard sourness, viz. the Crack of the flash: The dark hardness perceiving that it is feeble, and as [it were] dead and overcome; and it is then turned into SAL, and yet retaineth the propriety of the four attracting.

37. Thus the four Forms of Nature, are no more called the Center, though indeed they have the Center in them, and in their Original, but [are called] Sulphur, Mercurius, and Sal. For the Brimstone-Spirit is the Soul of the four Forms: for it hath the fire in it, and the anguish in it maketh another Will, so that the four Forms have an Eternal will in them, which is their own: for that will is to fly aloft out of the four Forms, above Nature, and to ⁱ kindle Nature in the Fire, and so to be in a horrible might, as may be [discerned and] considered in the Devils, who live in such a Will as this, as we shall show afterwards.

^r Kindle the Fire in Nature.

^t Or Philosophers.

38. Thus understand us rightly, what the ^t Wisemen of old have understood by the three words, Sulphur, Mercurius, and Sal: though they all could not apprehend the high Light; yet they understood it well enough in the light of this world, viz. in the third Principle, all which hath one and the same understanding and meaning; only they understood not the three Principles; or else they had known God; and so they remained in the light of this world as Heathens with their understanding. For they have found the soul of the four Forms in the light of the virtue of the Sun, and the second Principle was no further revealed to them.

39. There the soul standeth in the Eternal Band, and there, in the Crofs of Nature, out of the Original Eternal Will, is the Eternal Word Generated, which is the Maker and Creator in Nature, and this hath been hidden to them, even to this very day: but the Time discovereth it, where it standeth as a 'Banner: of which [shall be spoken] in 'To be seen. its place.

40. And deep confiderate Reason hath it very clearly in our description, what Sulphur, Mercurius, and Sal are: for SUL is the soul, and is a Brimstone-Spirit, which hath the flash of fire with all Forms in it: but if the power and light of the Sun operate therein (seeing the soul standeth in flesh and blood) the Sun with its friendly beams, maketh out of the four Salt-Spirit, an Oil, and kindleth the Fire: and so the Brimstone-Spirit burneth, and is a Light in the Essences: and out of the anxious Will cometh the Mind: and out of the wheel of the Essences come the thoughts: for the virtue of the Sun hath also the Mind, so that it doth not stand in the Anguish, but rejoiceth in the virtue of the Light.

41. Thus SUL is the soul, in an herb it is the Oil, and in Man also, according to the Spirit of this world in the third Principle, which is continually generated out of the anguish of the Will in the Mind, and the Brimstone-Worm is the Spirit, which hath the Fire and burneth: PHUR is the four wheel in itself which causeth that.

42. Mercurius comprehendeth all the four Forms, even as the life springeth up, and yet hath not its beginning in the Center as the PHUR hath, but after the flash of fire, when the four dark form is terrified, where the hardness is turned into pliant sharpness, and where the second will (viz. the will of Nature, which is called the Anguish) ariseth, there Mercurius hath its Original. For MER is the shivering wheel, very horrible, sharp, venomous, and hostile; which assimulateth it, thus in the sourness in the flash of fire, where the four wrathful life ariseth. The syllable CU is the pressing out, of the Anxious will of the Mind, from Nature: which is climbing up, and willeth to be out aloft. RI is the comprehension of the flash of Fire, which in MER giveth a clear Sound and Tune. For the flash maketh the tune, and it is the Salt-Spirit which ^u foundeth, and its form [or quality] is gritty like sand, and herein arise noises, sounds, and voices, and thus CU comprehendeth the flash, and so the presture is as a Wind that thrusteth upwards, and giveth a Spirit to the flash, so that it liveth and burneth. Thus the syllable US is called the burning Fire, which with the Spirit continually driveth itself forth: and the syllable CU presteth continually upon the flash.

^u Or knocketh.

43. And the third word SAL is the Salt-Spirit; because the ancient ^w Wisemen saw, how Nature is thus divided into many parts, and that every Form of Nature hath a particular Matter in this world, as may be seen in the Earth: and that the Salt-Spirit especially is the greatest in corporeal ^x things, (for it preserveth the Body that it doth not decay) therefore they have rightly set down this Gate only; which is the Mother of Nature. For out of this form, in the Creation, Earth, stones, water, and all forts of Minerals were made, yet with the mixture of the other Forms; as you shall see hereafter: My beloved Reader, understand us thus according to our own sense, meaning, and apprehension.

^x Or substances.

44. The four Forms in themselves are the Anger and the Wrath of God in the Eternal nature: and they are in themselves nothing else but such a source [or property] as standeth in the Darknes, and is not material, but an Originality of the Spirit, without which there would be nothing.

45. For, the four Forms are the cause of all things, as you may perceive, that every life hath poison, yea the poison itself is the life: and therefore many creatures are so venomous, because they proceed from a poisonous Original. And you must know, (though these be the chief causes of Nature) that Nature consisteth in very many more other Forms : for this maketh the wheel of the Essences, which maketh innumerable Essences : where every Essence is again a Center : so that a whole Birth of quite another Form may appear.

46. Therefore the Power of God is unsearchable : and our writing is not to that end, that we should search out the ground of the Deity in the Eternal Nature [and lay it before any] : no, that cannot be : but we will direct the blind the way that himself must go : we cannot go with his feet, but (as a Christian) we would fain lead him, and impart to him what we have ; not out of boasting in our selves, but that we might help to plant the great body [consisting] of the Members in Christ ; of which we will make mention hereafter : to which end these very high things are mentioned, that we might show you the right mark in the Original : that yourself might see, and learn to understand the course of the world, and how blind all are concerning God, and what the cause and end of ^s it is.

47. We tell you this, that you might rightly consider it ; for, these four Forms are in all things : yet in this world (as in the third Principle) they are not understood [to be] in their ^r very eager Essences. For the virtue of the Sun, in the Elements, tempereth all things, so that the Essences stand not in such a wrathful source [or property ;] but are as a pleasant friendly life : as the Light out of the second Principle, (which is the Light out of the Word and Heart of God the Father) doth enlighten the four Forms in the Center of the Angelical Spirits, so that they are in their own Center, friendly, lovely, and very pleasant.

48. And you should well consider the Fall of the Devils, who have lost the Light of the Heart of God, and must now stand in the four Forms of the Original, in such an anxious source [or condition] as was above mentioned.

49. Thus is the soul of Man also together, out of this Eternal Band breathed into Man, and enlightened from the light of God : but in the fall of Adam it is gone out from the Eternal Light of the Heart of God, into the light of this world : and it hath now to expect (if it have not entered again into the light of God, when the light of this world doth break off from it) that it must then remain in the four Forms (without the light) in the first Birth of the life, with the Devils.

^a Or breaking.

50. For the four Forms (without the Eternal Light) are the Abyss, the Anger of God, the Hell, and the horrible flash of fire in the wheel of ^a Corruption in the flying up of Mercury [or the terrible cracking noise]. Their light is in the Brimstone-Spirit, which they must awaken in themselves : or else their Spirit standeth in Eternal Darknes, and its living Form of the Abyss is a Dominion of a severe [eager property or] source, which climbeth up in the flash of Fire [willing to be] above God and the Kingdom of Heaven, and yet cannot reach, nor feel, nor see them : for ^b it is a Principle, which comprehendeth neither this world nor the Angelical world : and yet is not severed, [but is] in [one and the same] Place.

^b The Eternal Darknes.

51. For we offer to your consideration : that as we Men with our [Earthly] eyes which we have from this world, cannot see God and the Angels, which yet are every moment present to us ; and the Deity itself is in us, and yet we are not able to comprehend it, except we ^c put our imagination and earnest will into God, and then God appeareth to us in the Will, and filleth the Mind ; where we feel God and see him with our eyes, [viz. the eyes of our Mind.]

^c Set all our thoughts and resolutions upon God and Goodness.

52. So also if we put our imagination and will into evil [and wickedness], then we receive the source of Hell in the Wrath : and the Devil layeth fast bold on our very Heart in the Anger of God, yet we see him not with these eyes, only the Mind and poor soul in the Eternal source of the Original, understand it and tremble at the Wrath : so that many a soul despaireth, and casteth itself into the source of the Original, and driveth the body to death, by sword, the rope, or the water, that it may thereby suddenly be rid of the torment, or source, in this life, which is from the Third Principle. For that soul standeth between the Kingdom of Heaven and the kingdom of this world, in scorn, and therefore maketh haste to the Abyfs.

53. Also we give you very earnestly to consider: that God did not create a peculiar Hell and place of Torment, on purpose to plague the Creatures, viz. Angels and Men; because he is a God that willeth not Evil, and doth himself forbid it: and hath therefore suffered his heart to become Man, that he might redeem Man out of the Eternal anguishing source [or torment] of the Abyfs, which endureth for ever.

54. And therefore as soon as the Devils went away from the light of God, and would domineer in the Might of the Fire, over the Meekness of the Heart of God, they were immediately in the same hour and moment in the Abyfs of Hell, and were held by it: for there was no peculiar source [or place of Torment] made for them: but they remained without God, in the four Forms of the Eternal Nature.

55. So also it is with the souls of Men, if they do not attain the Light of God; which yet with great longing standeth before the soul, and it is hidden in the very ground of the soul. And the soul is to do no more, but put its will, (as a sprout out of the four Forms) again into the Light of God, where then it is regenerated anew in the Will, and in the Life of God.

56. We give the Courteous Reader to understand: that the [Hellish] creatures, which are the Devils and the damned souls, have not only four Forms in the Band of their life; but their Forms are infinite, like the thoughts of Men: and they can turn themselves into the Forms of all Creatures: but there are only four Forms manifest to them, as also in the Abyfs of Hell: but they may bring forth every form out of the Matrix, except the light, the Fire is their right life, and the four astringency of the Darkeness, is their right food.

57. For one Essence nourisheth the other, so that it is an Eternal Band: and so the Devils and damned souls are only living Spirits in the ^d Essences of the Eternal Original: ^d Or essential out of which they are also created: for the Matrix is the original Genetrix, which conti² powers. nually generateth itself out of the Eternal Will.

58. And in that respect, [or according to this form or property] God calleth himself a Zealous [or Jealous] Angry God, and a Consuming fire; for the fire of this Original is consuming, for it is the Center of the Eternal Band. Therefore if it be kindled in the four sharpness, it consumeth all whatsoever appeareth Essentially in the four Forms, (you must understand, all that which is not generated out of their source [or property,] for the Devils are from the same source or property, it cannot consume them, for they are crude [that is] without a body, as may be seen by the sacrifices of Moses and the children of Israel. which the fire devoured, as also by Elias and the two Captains over fifties, in that the fire of God twice devoured fifty, when Israel was led in the source of the Father by the Word: [when Israel was disobedient to the light and Word, and thereby were given up to the Wrath of God.]

59. And now I will further show you the form of the Deity, that you may search through the Ground of the Eternal Life, and learn to understand what the Eternal Good; and what the Eternal Evil is; as also that which is ^e Mortal in this world: and that you may learn to search and know the Will of the highest Good: as also what God, Heaven, Hell, the Devil, and this world is, and what is to be done therein. ^e Or Translatory.

60. John the Evangelist writeth very well, also deeply and clearly, that in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was God, and all things were made by it: for the Word revealeth the Deity, and generateth the Angelical World [which is] a Principle in itself: which is to be understood as follows.

61. The first Eternal Will is God the Father, and it is, to generate his Son, viz. his Word; not out of any thing else but out of himself: and we have already informed you about the Essences, which are generated in the Will, and also how the will in the Essences is set in Darknes, and how the Darknes (in the wheel of the Anxiety) is broken asunder by the flash of fire, and how the will cometh to be in four forms, whereas in the Original all four are but one, but in the flash of fire appear in four forms: as also how the flash of fire doth exist, in that the first will doth sharpen itself in the eager hardnes, so that the liberty of the will shineth in the flash. Whereby we have given you to understand, that the first will shineth in the flash of the fire, and is consuming by reason of the anxious sharpnes, where the will continueth in the sharpnes, and comprehendeth the other Will in itself, (understand in the Center of the sharpnes,) ^f which is, to go out from the sharpnes, and to dwell in itself in the Eternal Liberty without pain or source.

^f Which other or second Will.

62. Therefore we now also give you to understand; that the other re-comprehended Will, to go out from the sharpnes, is free from Nature, viz. from its wrathfulness: for it stands in the Center, in itself, and retaineth all the virtue and form of the [first] Center, out of all Essences in itself: for it is the virtue and power of the first will, and is generated in the first will, and maketh (in the Liberty of the first will) a Center of an Out-birth [or procreation], incomprehensible by the four forms in the first will. And this other generated will in the first will, is the Heart of the first will, and is in the first will as a Word, which moveth in itself, and remaineth Eternally in the Birth of the first will; for it is his Son or Heart: and is severed [or distinct] from the first will, in that it hath a several Center in itself.

63. Now the Father, viz. the first will, expresseth all things, by this Word (as out of the Center of the Liberty); and that which proceedeth from the Father by the Word (viz. the Spirit and power of the Father in the Word) formeth that which is expressed, after a spiritual manner, so that it appeareth as a Spirit.

64. For, in the four Matrix (viz, in the Fiat) all is comprehended, and the Spirit of the Word formeth it in the Center of that Essence, wherein the Father moveth and expresseth by the Word, so that it is, and remaineth to be an Essence. For whatsoever is formed out of the Eternal, is Spirit, and is Eternal, as the Angels and souls of Men are.

65. But because it may happen that we should be as one that is dumb to you, and hard to be understood, in this description, (for the understanding and apprehension of it is not in the subtil spirit of this outward world;) we will therefore show how the other Three Heavenly Forms are Generated [being together with the four fore-mentioned forms, the seven forms or Spirits of Nature] in which [three forms] especially, God, the Kingdom of Heaven, Paradise, and the Angelical world, is understood; to try whether it might be brought into the mind of the Reader.

66. You must not understand it, as if the Deity had a beginning, or were subject to any alteration, no; but I write in what manner it may be learnt and understood, what the Divine Essence is: for we can bring no Angelical words: and though we could use them, yet they would appear in this world no other than Creaturely, and Earthly to the earthly Mind. For we are but a part of the whole, and cannot speak ^g the total, but in part, which the Reader ought to consider.

^g That which is perfect.

67. For the Divine Mind in the Heart of God, that is only total [or perfect], but else there is nothing total, for without that, all stand in the Essences, and God only is Free, and nothing else; and therefore we speak but in part, and comprehend the total in the Mind: for we have no tongue to express it, we only bring the Reader to a ^h Ladder, [he must go up himself.]

^h Which reacheth to heaven.

68. If we will rightly speak or write of God, we must speak of the Light, and of the flame of Love, for therein is God rightly understood.

69. We cannot say, that the source of the fire is Light, we see it only shine out of the Fire. Thus now we have informed you concerning the Original of the Fire, how it it is generated in the wheel of the Essences, in the hard anxious sharpness, and receiveth its shining out of the Eternal Liberty, where the liberty is driven on in Nature, so that the liberty becometh a source [or property,] which is Fire.

70. So also we have mentioned, how the flash instantly preffeth through the wheel of the Essences, and maketh a Cross, and then the wheel of the Essences turneth round no more; but standeth wavering in the sound [of the crack,] and all Essences receive their virtue and strength in the flash of the Cross: for the flash preffeth right through, and divideth the Essences of the wheel: and the Essences press through ¹ flatly upon the flash: for the flash is their Spirit, which in the four astringency maketh a Brimstony Form.

each side.

71. Thus the birth standeth square like a Cross, and hath beneath the Center of the Birth, which driveth up the flash aloft, and so the whole Birth is as a sprout, where the fire driveth up, and the Essences hasten after the Fire-Spirit, as their own spirit, which attracteth and desireth them, for they are its food and nourishment, and it is their life, and one is not without the other.

72. Now understand us concerning the Crack of the Fire, for it is horrible and consuming, and overcome all the Forms of all the Essences: for as soon as the twinkling beginneth, all the forms of the Darknes are consumed, and the dark four astringency (viz. the stern Death) trembleth at the life, and falleth back as dead and overcome, and of hard becometh feeble and weak; and so becometh heavy, as being impotent and not ^k fixt in itself; and thence cometh weight in Nature. For the four astringent Matrix becometh thin and light, and a Water-Spirit, from whence the Water is Generated.

subsist.

73. And now this Crack of the four astringency in the Dark Death, is a Crack of Great Joy, for of dark it becometh light: and now when the flash twinkleth in the four astringency of the sting, the sting is terrified much more than its mother the four astringency, and yet it is no hostile crack or terrifying, but a very joyful crack or terror of exulting, that its mother is so thin, pliant, and soft, whereby the sting loseth its fiery propriety, and in the Liberty of the Eternal Will (in the Center) becometh white, clear, light, amiable, and joyful; and herewith springeth up the fifth form of Nature, viz. the friendly Love.

74. For there the flash desireth with great longing to have its mother for its food, and here is the true original of Life; for it is the kindling of the Light in the four astringent Matrix, where the severe tartness is turned into meekness: and you should rightly understand it here, that it is not so, wholly in the Center of its being; but (as I may say in a similitude) it is as if Oil were generated in the Meekness, out of which the Light shineth constantly, and remaineth for ever, in which the flash loseth its propriety, and so out of its form a shining and light is produced, wherein there is a ¹ distinct Center, out of which the Great Joy springeth up; and yet the first four forms keep their own Center to themselves: for the Darknes remaineth as an inclosed thing, and the Light shineth in the Darknes, and the Darknes comprehendeth it not.

75. Thus there are two Principles; which are therefore two, because the Meekness existeth out of the first Eternal Will, which [Will] is free from the Matrix [or Nature] and is as thin as if it were nothing, and is still and quiet. Now that which is still and without a being in itself, that hath no darknes in it, but is merely a still clear light Joy, without Essence; and that is the Eternity which is without any thing, and is called God, above all other things, for there is nothing Evil in it, and it is without a Being.

76. Understand us thus; God the Father is so in himself, but without a Name, for he is in himself the light clear bright Eternity without a Being, if we speak merely of the Light of God.

77. But since he will not be without a Being, therefore we consider his will, which he conceiveth in himself, out of nothing, but merely out of and in himself; and we understand the desire [is] in his will, and [that] in the desire [there is] the Center of the Genetrix, wherein the Being is Generated.

78. Now the Eternal Genetrix desireth nothing but the Word, which doth create in the Genetrix: for the Eternal still and light Joy, createth nothing, but is merely still and light; for where there is no darknes, there is mere light without alteration; but the Genetrix in the desire maketh the attraction, so that there is a Darknes, which is Eternal, wherein Nature is Generated; as is mentioned before.

79. And now the Eternal Genetrix, in the first longing, desireth the Liberty, (viz. God, and not the Darknes, in itself: for he willeth not her, but the Word which createth in the longing of the Genetrix: and yet there can be no Genetrix without the attracting, which impregnateth itself in the will, in which impregnation the Center of the Nature doth consist: and there would be no Word, if there were no Nature.

80. For the Word taketh its original in Nature: and we here give you highly and dearly to understand that two words are Generated in Nature: one is the first Center of the Genetrix, in the stern Wrath, to express the strong might of the Mother of the first four wrathfulness in the fire: which is here called the Nature of God the Father, which he thus generateth in his still Joy, in the conception of his will, without touching the Liberty of the Light.

^a God the Father.

^b Or ariseth out of Nature.

81. And the other Word, [is that] which ^a he generateth out of Nature, out of the Meekness; understand [that] wherein the Eternal Liberty of the Light is which is called God, which is ^b out of Nature, and so the dark nature disappeareth, [which is] still in the fire of the sharpness, as is mentioned before, and yet the four astringency (in its own dark propriety) is terrified, and loseth its eager propriety.

^c Extra Naturam.

82. For the flash maketh the dark stern Might thin again, and so a sprout springeth up therein out of the innumerable Effences, and this is the virtue or power of the second Center: for in this springing up there is a Love-desire, and the Eternal Light catcheth hold of the Liberty ^c without Nature; so that the Liberty ^c without Nature kindleth in this Love, and becometh a burning Light, wherein the Glance or brightness ariseth.

83. For there is no Glance ^c without Nature, though indeed there is a light pleasant habitation: but the Glance ariseth first from the sharpness: and yet in the springing up of Love there is no sharpness that is perceptible, though indeed it is really; and so it is a Birth of Joy, and a right fulfilling of the first Will, which is God's, which he putteth into desiring, and so Generateth Nature, and out of Nature [he generateth] the sprout [or word] of Love.

^e The Love.
^f Or Expresseth its Essential Word.

84. Thus the second Sprout (or Word) of Love dwelleth in the First Will, and is its right fulfilling which it ^d desireth: for ^e it is meek, pleasant and friendly, and is the virtue and heart of the first Will, from whence the Eternal Desire continually ^f is sprouting and subsisting.

85. And thus the Light breaketh open the Gates of Darknes, and the loving Sprout [or second Word, which is the heart of God] springeth up out of the Dark Nature, and dwelleth in the Eternal Stillness of the Father, and is called his Son: for the Father Generateth him out of his Eternal Will; and herein is the Glance [Lustre, Glory, or Majesty] of the Father manifested, which otherwise (in the first Will in the Dark Nature) appeareth only in Fire; but in the second Center, [it appeareth] in the Love in the Light; and here Love and Enmity ought to be considered, and how they oppose one another.

86. For Love is Death to Wrathfulness, and by its shining taketh away the Power of the Wrathfulness. And here the Power of God in Love and Anger, is rightly to be considered.

87. But that the Love may thus be Generated, is caused by the first Will from the still habitation; for the still and clear habitation, which is without a source, desireth no fierceness, and yet causeth fierceness: and if the fierceness were not, there would be no sharpness; and so the second Center (of Love) would not be generated, out of which the supernatural light shineth, where then the Name of God the Father and of God the Son existeth.

88. For if the Eternal Liberty did not Generate the Being of Nature, there would be no Father, but a mere nothing: but since it doth generate the Being of Nature, therefore the Generator, whence it is Generated, is called Father.

89. Thus the Light shineth in the Darknes, and the Darknes comprehendeth it not, as John saith; and thus Light and Darknes are opposite one to another, and so the Light is Lord over the Darknes: and it is an Eternal Band, where one would not be without the other: and here we are rightly to consider the Enmity against the virtue of the Light of God, how each of them taketh its original.

90. For the Darknes holdeth in its Center, four fierceness; stinging Anguish in the Brimstone-Spirit; woe in the flash of fire; great fire in the Breaking Wheel; ascending of the Essences in the flash of the Might of the fire: and yet there is no flying out, but it causeth such a will [of flying out, or flying away,] and that is a Spirit, and it is the Band of Nature, which God the Father Generateth in his Will, wherewith he manifesteth himself in the Eternal Stillness: whereas otherwise there would be nothing: and herein is God the Father (with his Might and fiery sharpness) an angry Zealous Jealous God, and a Consuming Fire.

91. Let this be shown you, O ye Philosophers, which (from the Counsel of God) is opened to you in the Seventh Seal, in ^f Ternario Sancto.

92. Thus the fountain of Love is a clasping and keeping in of the fierce wrathfulness, yea an overcoming of the fierce Might: for the Meekness taketh away the property of the fierce four hard Might of the Fire; and the Light of the Meekness holdeth the Darknes captive, and dwelleth in the Darknes, [without being comprehended by the Darknes.]

93. And thus the fierce might willeth nothing else but the fierceness, and the ^t shutting in of Death; for the fierce founness is the shutter up in Death: and the Meekness presseth forth as a sprout, and groweth out of Death, and overcometh it: and maketh the Eternal Life, and turneth Enmity into Love.

94. Let this be a Light unto you, O ye Theologists [or Divines:] and consider the writings of the Saints better, and behold the Wonders of God with other Eyes. Consider what God is, in Love and Anger: and observe how two Principles stand open, where each is desiring; desirt from the Natural Wisdom of this world, and consider the Eternal Nature, and so you shall find God and the Kingdom of Heaven. Your ^u Laws will not do it: if you would know God, another manner of Earnestness [or Zeal] must be used [than to make Conclusions in Counsels and Synods;] you must go out from ^w Babel, that you may attain the Center of the Son of God: and so you shall be born [or Generated] in Meekness and in Love: and then you may feed the sheep of Christ: otherwise you are Thieves and Murderers, and step into the Center of the fierce Wrath, where you do nothing else, but devour the sheep of Christ, with your blowing up of hellish Fire. O how falsely do you deal against Love: how will you appear, when the Sun riseth, and when you shall stand in the Light; it shall hereafter be set before your eyes.

The Third Chapter.

1.  ND now if we will dive into the blessed Birth of Love, and search how it is Generated, and where it hath its Original, we must search the Center inwardly, and set the Sixth form of Nature before us, viz. Mercury, wherein the sound [sound or noise] is Generated: and so we shall find, (in the Generating of the Love,) the tune, sound and song, as also the five Senses, Seeing, Hearing, Smelling, Tasting and Feeling; wherein the Life is understood; as also Pain and Torment, Joy and Love; desire to Good, and desire to Evil; though in itself in nature nothing is to be rejected, [or is in vain,] both must be, else God would not be manifested, and all would be as a still nothing: and the whole Being is together in the Eternal God; none hath made or Generated any thing for him: he alone, in his Eternal Will (which is himself) maketh the ^x Genetrix; he only is the Eternal beginning, and compriseth the Center to the Genetrix, which maketh the Eternal Mother of the Genetrix of the ^y Essence of all Essences.

^y Being of all Beings.
Ens Entium.
^z Groundless, or bottomless.

2. For God hath no beginning, and there is nothing sooner than he [or before him,] but his Word hath an ^z unsearchable beginning in him, and an Eternal ^z unsearchable end: which yet is not called End rightly, but Person, viz. the Heart of the Father: for it is Generated in the Eternal Center, not as a Form of the Center (which belongeth to the Center) but as a sprout of another Center out of the first Eternal [Center.]

^a Barmberzigkeit, Mercifulness.

3. Therefore he is the Son of the First; and is rightly the flame of Love, and the Glance of the Father in the Eternal Will, and the second Mother [or Matrix] of the Genetrix, viz. the Angelical World out of himself, is a Principle, which is called the ^a Mercy of God: out of which Center goeth forth the Virgin of the Eternal Wisdom of God, by which God hath created this World, viz. the Third Principle, (with all Creatures and things) out of the First [Principle.]

4. And we would have the Reader faithfully warned, that he should not seek our meaning in the Wisdom of this world; but in the Light of the Eternal Nature, whither we would have him directed also, (viz. into the new Regeneration in the life of Christ) else we are but dumb to him, and not to be understood: and without that [New Birth] he should leave these writings uncensured; or else he eateth the food of the first Center; and his scorn will gnaw him in the Center of his own life.

5. We will readily vouchsafe him the Light; and for that end this hand hath set down the Deep ^b Mysteries, not for any advantage that can be expected, but for the ^c Lillies sake, and for the sake of the Angelical world.

6. Here mark exactly: you will see that which you have not seen since the heavy fall of Adam: and thereby consider what it signifieth, and what appeareth with it; and tread not in the footsteps of the proud Pharisees, who Crucified Christ, and remained blind in the Day-light, or else the same will happen unto you.

^d Ground or Foundation.

7. And look not upon the Hand of this Pen, it can do nothing; but upon the ^e Center, out of which the light shineth; it shineth not only out of this Hand, but in the whole world, as an opened Seal in the Eternal Center: every one may apprehend it, it is not only without him, but in him: and there is no more to be said, but to fly open, and spring with Jesus Christ, and put forth a flower out of this world into the Angelical world: of which we will here speak, and show you the Eternal Being.

8. We have showed you above, the Birth of the four forms of the Eternal Nature, and thereby have signified how they are Generated out of the Eternal unchangeable Will of the Liberty of God: where we have declared to you also how the Eternal Liberty without Nature is a still light habitation, yet without Glance [or Lustre;] also how the Eternal Light Liberty, is sharpened in the four hard fierceness, so that it appeareth as a flash of Fire, where then it dissipateth the Darknes, and taketh away the power of the fierceness, and so getteth a consuming Glance, or fiery splendor, by reason of the terrible sharpness; where then the four Matrix becometh an anxious Genetrix: and being feeble, (by the flash's taking away its power,) it becometh Essential: and the flash catcheth hold of its Essential Form in the Anguish, (that is, the Brimstone-Spirit) which is the body of the Flash, out of which it burneth and shineth.

9. And then [we have shown also] how the Wheel of the Essences, with the flash of the four overcoming, is ^e upheld: and how the Center is like that of a ^f Cross-wheel, and how all standeth in the founding of the Essences, like a Sprout: where then the wheel driveth only upwards: and therefore it is that the source of the Fire flieth upwards, for all the forms of Nature fly after the Fire; and the fire flieth from them; for it willeth to be free, being it is originally proceeded out of the Eternal Liberty, but yet it cannot [be free,] because nature withholdeth it, by the sharpness which subsisteth in Nature.

^f A wheel with four spokes a-crofs.

10. And then also we have shown you, how the Crack of the fire killeth the fierce property of the four Matrix, whereby it is overcome, and falleth back; from whence cometh ^g weight in Nature, and the matter of every thing. And then, how the flash in the overcoming twinkleth [or loseth its strength] where then (in the Meekness) it is so terrified, that it loseth its fiery property, and becometh clear or bright, which is the shining of its light, where the Glance taketh its Original. And how the Eternal still Liberty taketh the Glance as its own; and how the first Will is herein satisfied (according to its desire) with that which it would have in the Original in its desire.

^g Or Ponderosity.

11. And so when the first desire, (together with the Generated Essences) is filled with the Glance of the Light, then all the Essences (which have laid hold on the Light) stand in the first desiring will, and the will thereby becometh triumphant, and full of joy, that the child of Light is generated in it: And here the second Center flieth open in the Joy, where the Love is the ^h fire of the Center; and the Love-desire of the first will, attracteth the Joy, and the Light shineth out of the Joy: And so this precious Holy Birth remaineth upon the ⁱ Cross-wheel, where the Wheel of the Essences moveth ^k in the Cross; and the Joy (viz. the source of the Fire) flieth upward, and the Center retaineth it.

^h Its Central Fire.

12. And so there the New-born Will goeth forth with power and ^l Wonders; and establisheth the first will of the Liberty of the Father, with the Center of the Love-Birth of the Son: for this Birth is the Word of the Heart of the Father, which he speaketh out of his ^m Essences: and that which goeth forth out of the Love, is the Holy Spirit of the Word, which formeth the ⁿ Essences; and this is together the Ternary in one Essence [or Trinity in Unity.]

^k Or in the Center of the Cross.

^m The flowing Essential powers or faculties.

13. And so now, when the Center in the Word flieth open in the virtue of the Light out of the love; then one form embraceth the other with very friendly desire: for the first will is desiring, and maketh the Center, as is declared before concerning the Wrath, so also it is here with the Love ^o; and instead of the striving contrary will, there is nothing herein but an embracing and acceptable relish: For when the Wheel of the Essences is founding, the sixth form is Generated.

^o It makes its own Center too.

14. For the sourness retaineth its fierce might well enough in the sharpness of the Love; but indeed it is very soft; and in the sixth form maketh voices, tunes and sounds, so that in the founding, the Essences hear one another: and with the Essences of the wheel in the assimilation [infection or mixture] they taste one another; and in the desirous Love they smell one another: and with the breaking through of the source, they feel one another: and in the Light, they see one another: and so there is a living form of the Spirit, which goeth forth as a life, in all forms, and it [the Spirit] is the stirring of the voices in the Essences, which make the ^p senses, or stars.

15. Thus the true ^p insuperable Love-desire, springeth up in the first will, which is called Father; for in the Center of the Son, out of the Father's sharpness, the Glance is Generated, which is a very friendly desire, to turn the Wrath of the Father into Love: For when the Essences of the Father taste the meekness in the ^s Light, then they are all stirred, and it is a mere lovely desire, pleasing relish, and friendly well doing; and the form Mercurius is indeed the Word: which in the dark Center, is a poisonous woe and anguish; but in the virtue of the Light it is the source of Joy: and affordeth voices, tunes, and sounds, but not like the ^r sound in the fire in the First Center.

^s Or Love.

^r Or Noise.

16. Thus, my dear Mind that readest this, understand, and take our meaning right, and consider, what we mean in this Description. We mean not two Gods, that are one against another, but one only God in Ternary, or Trinity of Subsistence, in his Eternal Birth, or Geniture.

17. In the word Ternarius, is to be understood in the Language of Nature rightly the Divine Birth in the six forms in Nature, which are the six seals of God.

18. But when I say Ternarius Sanctus, then I have therein the number Three in Seven Forms, wherein the Angelical world is comprehended, which standeth in the seventh Birth. Not according to the [pronunciation of] the Latin Tongue, but according to the [pronunciation of] the Language of Nature, from whence all things have taken their Names, which our Philosophers, in the Schools of the Third Principle of this world, do not understand; [but the Theosophers of the School of Pentecost understand it well.]

19. For when I speak of the Wrath and of the Anger of God, I mean not any thing that is without God; neither do I mean thereby the pure Deity which is unchangeable, and in Eternity is nothing else but Good; and is not Nature: but the Word is generated out of the Nature of the Father, as another or second sprout, which is not comprehended in Nature; and therefore it is even another Person, and yet is Generated out of the First.

20. Understand, that the first will, which is without Nature, is free from Nature, but Nature is Generated in its desire: and now therefore the second will (which goeth forth out of the first, out of Nature as a proper Center of its own) is also free from Nature: for it dwelleth in the first Will, which is called Father, in the light Eternity, and it is the Glance, [or brightness] power, strength, and being of the light Eternity; or else there would be therein no being, but a light still habitation, without being or ^r operation.

communion,
tion.

21. But since it would be manifested, it must needs create a will which is desirous, and yet there was nothing to be desired but the powerful Word: and yet that was not in the still Eternity neither: and therefore the seven Forms of the Eternal Nature must be Generated; which are the seven seals of the Son of God, as the ^r Apocalypse witnesseth, and thence from Eternity the powerful Word is Generated; which is the power and virtue, the heart, the life, and being of the still Eternity.

tion of John.

22. And since it is generated out of the seven seals or Forms of Nature, therefore it is the Maker and Creator of all things out of the being of Nature: for there is nothing else that can overpower the Nature, but only the effectual powerful Word in the Light, that only can overcome the Wrath. (He only hath the Key that can open and break the seven Seals of the wrathful Nature of the Father, and open the Book of life of him that sitteth upon the Eternal Throne. Read Apocalypse 1. it is just so.) For as soon as the wrath twinkleth, that is a dissipating of the Darkness, and taketh away the power of the fierce wrathful anguish, and is rightly called the mercy [the ^s Barmbertzigkeit] of God.

heartedness.

23. For Barm is the light twinkling in the Center, out of the light Eternity; where the Glimpse captivateth the stern hard sour or harsh bitter anguish, and terrifieth it with the Glimpse, and taketh away the power of the fierceness, and turneth it into meekness: Hertz is the flash, that hath captivated the four forms, where the Glimpse of the Eternity is sharpened, and thence forward hath the four forms in it, which [Glimpse] moveth upon the Cross in the Center, and maketh another Center in itself: ig is the converting of the flash into the light of the Glance or Brightness, wherein the fifth and sixth forms are Generated, viz. the Love, and the Joy, wherein the ^v Potency of whole Nature doth consist: and without these two forms, Nature would be a wrathful, harsh, and cruel Death: but the light maketh the Love, and also the desire of the sixth Form; wherein consisteth the life, with the understanding: Keit is the Eternal Entrance, and the ascending over the Nature of the four Forms; and an Eternal inhabiting of the still Eternity; and a satiating or fulfilling of the first will, which is called Father.

^v Ability, or Possibility.

24. Thus the second Birth is called the Son of God, the Word of God, the Power of God, the Love of God, the Life of God, the Wonder of God: and is itself the Essence that manifesteth every Essence [or thing.]

25. My beloved seeking Mind, I would willingly write it in thy Heart if I could. Behold! all is but one only God. But you ask then, whence cometh Evil? therefore you have an information concerning that, in this high description: for you see in all Creatures, evil, poison, and bitterness, as also Love, and ^x Desire: therefore consider now ^x Or Delight. how Nature is such an earnest [or eager] thing.

26. But as the Heart of God allayeth the fierceness of the Father in his Nature, and maketh it kind and friendly; so also doth the Light of the Sun to all things in this world, which all have their original out of the Eternal Nature.

27. For if the fierceness were not Generated in the Eternal Will, there would be no Nature, also there would not, in the Eternity, be generated any heart and power of God, but it would be an Eternal Stillness: But since the Eternity doth desire the Life, it cannot be generated any other way: and being it is thus generated, it is therefore most beloved Eternally: and therefore the earnest strong Birth may not, nor cannot cease in all Eternity, in respect of the life, which is the Spirit of God.

28. Therefore behold thy self and all Creatures, and consider thy self, consider also Heaven and Hell in the anger and wrath of God: and thou shalt find it thus, and no otherwise. Though indeed here we need an Angelical Tongue, and thou an Angelical Light in the Mind, and then we should well understand one another; this world apprehendeth it not.

Concerning the seventh Form of the Eternal Nature.

The Revealed Gate of the Essence of all Essences.

29. MY beloved Reader, if you would understand the High Mysteries, you need not first put on an ^v Academy upon your Nose, nor use any [such] Speſtacles, nor ^v Or University. read the Books of many Artists and Scholars: for the High Mysteries are not to be sought after, searched out, and found, only in the High Schools or Universities: whatsoever Reason seeketh in the Art of this world, without the divine understanding, is vain and fictitious; it findeth nothing but this world, and not half of that neither; it always goeth round about in seeking, and findeth in the end only Pride and hypocrisy, in finding the Wisdom of the World.

30. Seek you nothing else but the Word and Heart of God, (which is Incarnate, or become Man) in the Crib among the Oxen in the Stable, in the dark Night: if you find it, you find Christ (viz. the Word, in the Father) together with the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: Moreover, the Eternal Nature, also the Angelical World and Paradise: and then you will find your Reason (which hath so long led you reeling, as a drunken Man) to be very blind. You need not break your Mind with high thoughts, for with such high fancies and conceits you will not find the Ground: do but only incline your Mind and Thoughts, with your whole Reason, into the Love and Mercy [the Barmbertzigkeit] of God, so that you be born out of the Word and Heart of God in the Center of your Life, so that his light shine in the light of your life, that you be one with him.

31. For Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Eternal Word in the Father (who is the Glance, or Brightness, and the power of the Light Eternity) must become Man, and be born in you, if you will know God: otherwise you are in the dark Stable, and go about groaping and feeling, and look always for Christ at the right hand of God, supposing that he is a great way off; you cast your Mind aloft above the Stars and seek God, as the Sophisters teach you, who represent God, as one afar off, in Heaven.

32. But as the Devil would (in his fiery source [or property]) fly up above the Heart of God, and yet remaineth still in the four forms in the Eternal Nature in the Darknets, so it is also with blind Reason, which sitteth in the dark, and seeketh God in the Darknets.

33. If you would find him, seek him in his source or property, which is every where; all is full of God, and he shineth in the Darknets; God is in your dark Heart, though in another Principle: knock, and it shall be opened unto you; the Holy Spirit of God is the Key in the Center: go out from the desire of the Flesh, in a true earnest Repentance, and put all your will, reason, and thoughts into the Mercy [the Barmhertzigkeit] of God; and so the Word of God (viz. his beloved Heart) will get a form in you: and then you stand before the Crib where Jesus is born: and then incline yourself towards the Child, and offer him your heart, and Christ will be born in you.

34. And then you must first go into Jordan: and the Holy Ghost will baptize you: and there the Heaven standeth open to you, and the Holy Ghost hovereth over you: but you must go into the Wilderness, and be Tempted of the Devil (understand it right: the Devil will make attempts upon you, and will often lead you into the Wilderness of the world, and pass before thy soul into thy fleshly Heart, and bar it up.) And then great Earnestness is required, to break asunder the Center of the Devil: you shall many times not see Christ, the Devil will deny him to you, [insinuating] that he is not become Man in you: for you stand thus, as a Light in the Center, begirt with Darknets, and you are a Sprout in the Light of God, [sprung] out of the dark stern Nature.

35. Therefore consider; look to it; and stand fast; as Christ did: Do not as Adam did, who suffered himself to be brought into lust, by the Spirit of this world, and brought us into the fleshly Darknets.

• Or: do Miracles.

36. You must with Christ, be persecuted, scorned, and contemned, if you will [•] move in the Wonders of God: and if you continue in him, he continueth in you: and then you may seek what you will, you will find whatsoever you desire: else you seek in the Deity in vain; and when you have brought things to the highest, you find only that which is in this world. Take this, that is set down for a warning, and so you will seek, find and know, that which is hereafter written, concerning the seven Seals of God and of the Lamb.

• Note.

37. But because we may be hardly understood by the Reader (though very easily understood by those that are Eern of God) and our intention being no other than to show the way to the blind: [•] therefore we will show you the Revelation of John (which is the Revelation of Jesus Christ) with the Seven Spirits, and Seven Seals of God: wherein the whole Deity (in the Humanity) hath revealed itself; and together with the Person of the Wisdom, hath shown the Essence of the Number Three in Ternario Sancto: whereby the Deity is seen not only in Ternario, but also in the Angelical world.

38. And those that be born of God, will here have their eyes rightly opened: therefore let none be wilfully blind: for the time cometh, and is already, wherein the seven Seals are broken open, and the Book of him that sitteth upon the Throne is opened, which the Lamb of the House of Israel hath broke open, which was slain, and liveth Eternally.

39. And although hitherto the Revelation hath continued sealed, and hath not been understood in the ground, by any Man; yet none should conceive and think, that such a thing hath been in the power of Man; for it is the Revelation of God, and it hath Seven Seals, which were sealed up, till the anger of God was accomplished: and they are the seven Spirits of God the Father, as is mentioned before, concerning the forms of the Birth of the Eternal Nature, which is God's.

40. And now this world, with all that belong to it, as well as man, is created as an Out-birth, out of the Eternal Nature; understand, out of the seven Seals of the Eternal Nature: and God hath created this world for no other cause, but that he would, in his Eternal Wisdom, manifest the Wonders, which are in the Eternal Nature; for they must come to Essence, and appear in the light, to his joy, honour, and glory, not only in this time of Secrecy, [or hidden mysteriouness,] but after this Time also.

41. For this Time [from the beginning of the world to the end] is as the soil, [or ground,] and is the Seventh Seal of the Eternal Nature, wherein the six Seals, with their Powers and Wonders, disclose themselves, and pour forth their wrath: from whence were Generated and found out, in this world, the Natural Wisdom, voices, thunders, and strife: wherein men have always sought the Heart of God, and yet found the Wonders, out of which have arisen strife and ^b compulsion [of conscience,] where one Seal hath been opened after another: but human Reason hath not understood the powers of the Seals.

^b Or force and wars.

42. For when, after the Times of the Apostles, men departed from the true Love and Humility towards God, and ^c fought after Wisdom for their own Ends, and made of the Kingdom of Christ, a Kingdom of Pomp, Might, and the Glory of this world; then the Candlesticks withdrew from these men, that is, went (in the Father's Nature) into the Seven Seals of God, and forsook the seven Golden Candlesticks, the seven Seals of the Heart of God, which are the seven Seals of the Lamb, which shine bright out of the Father's Nature; for ^d they were in the hand of the Son of God, who was become Man: as may be discerned by the Image in the Revelation, that the Man Jesus Christ hath seven Stars in his hand, and standeth between the seven Golden Candlesticks.

^c Went a whoring after their own Inventions.

^d The seven Seals.

43. The seven Stars are the seven Spirits of God the Father, which are bidden seals; as I have shown you before, how one form is continually generated from another; and that one form would not be without the other; and yet one Seal openeth itself after another, and they have the seven Thunders, whose ^e speech is sealed up, for they are in the Center of the Spirit, but the seven Seals are in the Essence: [or in the Center of the Corporeity:] for they are manifested through the humanity of Christ, therefore the Spirit of God demonstrateth them in the form of Seven Golden Candlesticks, and they give light in the Father out of the Center of the Son.

^e That which the Thunders declare.

44. For you see, that there is a Glassy Sea before the Throne of the Ancient [of Days,] who is God the Father, and the Sea is the seventh seal, but opened and not sealed; for therein standeth the Angelical World: but the six seals are the Birth of the Eternal Nature, which are Generated in the first Will of the Father, out of which the Heart or Word of God is from Eternity continually generated, as a peculiar Center of its own, in the Center of the seven Spirits of God; and although the seventh seal also, is in the Father, and belongeth to the Center, yet it is brought to ^f Essence, by the Word, for therein consisteth the Angelical world.

^f Being or substance.

45. Therefore, my beloved Reader, thou art to know, that whatsoever is written or spoken of God, is Spirit, for God is Spirit, but in himself should not be manifest, except the seven Forms make him manifest: and therein the Creation of the Angelical world is brought to pass, and is called Ternarius Sanctus: for the number Three [or Trinity] is incomprehensible; but the Word maketh the Glassy Sea, wherein the comprehensibility is understood: and it is clearly represented to you, in the figure of the Image, in the Revelations.

46. For you see, that the Image standeth in the midst of the seven Candlesticks, which are the seven Spirits of the Deity; and it hath seven Stars in its right hand, which are also the seven Spirits of the Deity in the Center of the Father, and the Word hath them in his power, in that it changeth the fierceness and consuming nature into a meek habitation in the Glassy Sea, wherein God's Light of the Word shineth out of the Word: and then the seven Spirits of God stand in the Center of the Word in form like unto seven burning Torches: and hereby the Deity is pourtrayed unto you, in the Image in the Revelations.

47. And we give you also to understand further (as is mentioned above) that the Word (or Heart of the Father) in its seven shining Spirits, is in the Father (in the Center of the Father) as his Heart; and hath the seven Stars (viz. the seven Forms of the Eternal Nature) under its power, and therefore the Image hath them in its Hand.

48. But since all things (that should come to have an Essence) must come forth out of the Father's Nature, and we know also that Moses witnesseth as much, that God the Father made all things by the ^a Word Fiat, as by the Word Spoken, and the speaking stood in the Fiat; and the Fiat is the four Matrix in the first will of the Father, which comprehendeth and holdeth the Nature, which the Spirit (that is Generated ex Mercurio) formeth, which is the Spirit of God: And since all Creatures stand in the Father, and that he is therefore called Father, being a father of every thing; as also we Men are his Children; and yet we with Adam, being departed from the virtue of the ^b seventh Spirit of the Word, and with our Imagination are gone into the Out-birth of the Father, viz. into the Spirit of this world, which cloaths us with corruptible flesh and blood, and holdeth us captive; therefore we are now in the virtue or power of the seven Stars, or seven Spirits, of the Father's Nature, which bring their Wonders in us to the Light.

49. For we are the ^c Representation of the Deity, in which the Spirit of God openeth his Wonders: and be you rightly informed, God the Father hath begotten us again in Christ, that we should with our Imaginations enter again into the Word, viz. into the Center of the light flaming Heart, that the Holy Ghost might proceed from us again with power and ^d works of Wonder, as may be seen by the Apostles of Christ.

50. But since we have suffered ourselves to be held, by the seven fierce Spirits of the Father's Nature, out of his Center; and are not with our Immanuel, gone forth from our own reason and knowledge, and pressed into the life of Christ, that the Word in us might ^e become Man; therefore also all the six Spirits of the wrathful Nature, have shown their Might and Wonders in us, and have let us go astray in Babel, so that we have not walked in the Love of the Word, in the Life of Christ, but after our own Inventions in a forged hypocritical seeming holy conceit, about the Will of God; and have not walked in the Spirit of Christ, but in Pride.

51. And because the Seekers in the Father's Nature) have found out Arts, therefore they have trodden simple Humility under foot: and because, in their own Inventions, they have departed from the Heart of God, and so have erected an Earthly Kingdom for their voluptuousness, therefore all the six Spirits of Wrath, have justly produced their effect upon them.

52. For though the Heart of God hath founded a Trumpet with a Spirit out of its Center, and called upon people to Repent, yet they had always rather take delight in their tender flesh, [and delicate life,] and had rather follow the Devil, who hath always from the Anger of God founded a Trumpet contrary to it, [viz. contrary to Repentance,] and hath stirred up Wars and blood-shedding, of which the Revelation testifieth in a Figure: And the Spirit of God hath therefore declared the Revelation, as a clear Glass.

53. And mark what the Angel said; Seal what the Seven Thunders have spoken. The voices of the seven Thunders out of the stern Essences, would be well enough hidden from us, if we did not ^f put our Imagination into them, and open them in us: for in the Center of the Son (in the meek Love) they are not manifested or revealed.

^f O. employ our senses, passions, and imaginations in the same things.

54. But seeing the Word, or Heart of God, is ^a become Man, and that in him it hath ^b Or incarnate. assumed a human soul, to bring us again out of the wrathful Nature, into the Glassy Sea, viz. into the Angelical world, to the wonders of the seven Golden Candlesticks; and because we yet lay bidden in the seven Seals of the Father, therefore the ^c Word of God, ^d Verbum Dei, with its assumed humanity, must enter again into the stern Matrix, into the sharpness of Death and of the Anger: And there the Man Christ hath broken the seven Seals in the soul of Man.

55. For the ^e Word of God, or the Heart of God, which became Man, and the ^f Verbum Dei human soul, which out of the seven Spirits of God was breathed into Man, from the Spirit Mercurius, (that is, the Spirit of the seven Seals, which in the Word, is called the Holy Ghost, and yet from the Center of the Father, [is called] the Spirit Mercurius, viz. out of the sharp Essences, out of the fiery wheel, as is mentioned before; but in the Out-birth of the Father, through the Meekness of the Love in the Word, in this world, viz. in the third Center, is called Air;) hath broken the fierce might in the Center of the soul.

56. For, when the soul of Adam went forth out of the Word, and entered into the Third Center, (viz. into the Spirit of this world) then the Center of the soul was Eternally Sealed up in the Matrix of the Wrath, in the seven Forms of the wrathful Nature of the Father: and there was none in heaven, in the Glassy Sea, nor in this world, that was able to break open these seven Seals: there was nothing else in the soul, but the Eternal Death in the horrible Anguish, and in the Darknets.

57. And there the Mercy [or Barmhertzigkeit] broke forth out of the Heart of the Father, and entered into the human soul, and broke the seven Seals of the fierce wrath, and kindled the Light (which overcometh the Death and the Anger) in the soul.

58. Not that the soul was rent out from the Father's Essences, as if it were no more in the seven Spirits of Nature; no, that cannot be; all standeth, in the seven Spirits of the Father's Nature, yea even the Heart of God itself [standing therein;] only, the seals of Death, in the fierce wrath, are broke open, by the Light of the Heart of God, in the Center of the human soul.

59. For which, we thank God the Father in Jesus Christ, who became Man, and Regenerated us in him to the Light, and Redeemed us from the fierce wrathful source [or torment] in the zeal of the Anger, in Eternity.

60. But because we men did not ^g acknowledge such great grace and light, neither did ^h esteem it, but were pleased with the flesh of Adam and the lust of this world, (and though indeed we saw, that God, in the Man Christ, as also in his Disciples, and in all those that earnestly clave to him, in the New Regeneration, did great Wonders and Miracles; yet we ourselves put away our Candlestick, and lived in hypocrisy, and in our own seeming holiness, and in tyranny, and persecuted Christ) therefore he left us also sealed up, so that we knew his Light no more, but we sought out for ourselves ways to God, and would by our own contrived opinions come to God. The Kingdom of this world ⁱ was ^j Pleased us better. more acceptable to us, than the Kingdom of God: we practised before him nothing but hypocrisy, and our heart was far from him: Therefore we must also, in the Nature of the Father, remain under the seals, till the Spirit Mercurius [that is, the wrathful spirit in the Anger of God, according to which God calleth himself a Consuming Fire] hath manifested all its Wonders in us.

61. And the Revelation showeth very clearly, how the Spirit Mercurius hath opened one Seal after another, and hath poured forth all plagues and abominations ^k in us, and hath ^l Upon or amongst us. brought forth mere contention, wars and malice, mere cunning crafty subtlety, deceit, and falshood, with wonders and powers in us, as indeed he very finely portrayeth us, as an abominable Beast, like a Dragon with seven Heads and ten Horns, and upon his Horns ten Crowns, and our formal demure † Spirituality, sitteth aloft upon the Dragon, nicely and stately trimmed and adorned with a Crown.

† Clergy, Ministry, or such as have received Ordination: and are therefore called Divines and Preachers.

62. And there you may behold yourself, you fair Bride upon the Dragon, do but see what you ride upon: is that Christ's Ass in lowliness, or is it the Devil from the Abyss? Your own authority, and the climbing up of your Tyrannical Power (which you yourself have erected) is your Beast; in that you have set up a wicked compulsion, forcing and oppressing of poor people; and have lived only in Pomp, State and Pride: your ipiritual Heart is the beautiful glittering Bride upon the Beast.

63. Behold, I must tell it you! behold yourself, you dainty Bride, full of abominations and defolations; since you account yourself so fair: behold, what have you built? Great glistering Houses of Stone, into which you enter, and there practise whoredom, hypocrisy, and dissimulation: you give God fine words, and your heart hangeth to the Dragon: you devour the fat of the Earth, and your Hypocrites must fall down before your Beast and Dragon, viz. your tyrannical Power, and worship you, or else your Dragon will devour them: whatsoever you † set up must be accounted Divine.

‡ Ordain, Preach, Teach, or Dict.

64. O how finely are you deciphered: do but behold yourself, it is high time: do you not see, how the Angel throweth you, together with the Dragon, into the Abyss, into the Lake of [Fire and] Brimstone; or do you not know your self yet?

65. Do you not know, that we must be born of God, in Christ, and live in the conversation of Jesus Christ? Do you not know that the Word is become Man? We must be new-born in Christ, that so the soul may be a Member of Christ: we must all be generated out of one body, which is Christ; or else we cannot behold the seven Candlesticks [or Lights] of God in us.

‡ Jus Divinum.

66. To what purpose do you so much play the Hypocrites with your seeming holiness; why do you usurp ‡ Divine power in your seeming holiness; you have it not, you have nothing else but the power of the Dragon, your Antichristian Idol: if you desire to have ‡ Divine Power, you must be (in the life of Christ) in God, and so you receive Divine Power, to work in those who lift up their heart to Christ in God; there you have the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven in the Angelical world.

67. Your Laws, Councils, Decrees, Canons, and your singular Articles or Opinions, are but mere deceit: the Spirit of Christ in God, will not be bound to any Laws. Whatsoever you teach concerning your own Power in Heaven, which you appropriate and usurp to yourselves (without the New Birth in Christ) is all false and lies, and the power thereof belongeth to the Dragon [or your own power consisteth in the Tyranny of Rulers.]

68. None have any Power in God, except he be born of God in Christ Jesus, and such a one can open the seven seals to the inclined heart (which inclineth itself to God in Christ Jesus) by his voice and word (which foundeth from God,) and can sound the Trumpet into the desiring Mind.

69. Therefore behold yourself in the Revelation, in that Representation or Image of your riding upon the Dragon. How bravely ride you on Earth, as the Dragon, the old Devil, doth in the seven Seals, (which would always ride over the heart of God in the might of the Fire, and yet remaineth sealed up in the seven Seals, in the dark Abyss of the Eternity in the original of Nature, in the wrathful Matrix) and so you ride also.

70. And though the seals in the soul of Man are broken in the Death of Christ, yet the Anger of God, with the Spirit of this world, hath sealed you up, and driveth you on, that it may accomplish all its wonders in you.

71. Behold, you proud Whore upon the Beast! what have you sought after, since the Times of the Apostles, who walked in the life of Christ, and not according to the lust of the fierce Spirit in the original of Nature, as you do; behold your brave Kingdom that you have erected in the world, in which you go about to compel men to turn away from God, and to reverence and worship your laws.

72. Christ ^{*} worshipped his Father; his soul pressed in verbum Domini, into the Word ^{*} Or prayed of the Lord, in the seven Golden Candlesticks, which are the burning Love-Spirit of the ^{to.} Heart of God, in the Father, in the still Eternity; there, in the source of the Father, Christ wrought great ⁷ Wonders: for he opened the seals of the hidden Mystery, and ⁷ Miracles. did drive the unclean Spirits out of the wrathful source of the souls, and founded with his Word in the Center of the poor captive souls, so that they stirred all Seals, and in the life of Christ pressed into God: and there the Devil could not dwell, for he is a Spirit of Darkness, as we will hereafter show him to be.

73. But you take and usurp the Kingdom and power of Christ, with fair hypocrisy and deceit: where are your Wonders, while you make Divine Laws, only for your worldly honour and deceit, only that you might rule over silver and gold, and the souls of Men?

74. O you Babylonish Whore! you are she of whom the Prophets have spoken, who have prophesied (in the hidden seals) of the Wonders, which were hidden in the Eternal Nature, in you the Wonders are brought to Light: But you spoil the Tree of Life, therefore you must go into the Lake which burneth with Brimstone: and therefore the Spirit saith in the Revelation; Go out of her, my People, that you be not partakers of her source [plagues or Torment.]

75. Now since you are grown forth of yourself, in the fierce Might of the Anger of God, and are a devourer, and have ² set up the Wonders of God, in pride, for the honour ² Or used. of your Beast; therefore the seals in you are ^a sealed up, till the time that the Anger hath ^a Or hidden shown its Might upon you, and that you devour yourself. ^{to you.}

76. For you have despised the Angel's founding of the Trumpet, and persecuted those that were sent from God: you esteem your belly God, and glory most of all, and love flattery.

77. The Bride of the Beast saith: I am your God, set me upon you, ride on how you will: I will cry aloud and say; the fatness of the Earth is yours, and men shall worship you in me; fear and horror be upon all those that disesteem us; Thus I ride over the bended knees, and over the souls of men, where can there be such a Kingdom as we have? [for we are exalted more than Princes and Kings, and we are honoured and revered by them, and placed above them.]

78. But the Spirit Mercurius, which goeth forth out of the burning Torches (which is the Spirit of God's Bride) declareth in the Apocalypse; that when the seventh seal shall be opened, then shall the hidden Mystery of the Kingdom of God be accomplished.

79. For the Lamb which was slain, did (at the time of the seven Seals) take the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the Throne, and opened the Seals thereof: and the four and twenty Elders fell down before the Lamb, and said, Thou hast opened the book, and broken open the Seals: Praise and Honour and Glory to God and the Lamb, which was worthy to take the Book, and to break open the Seals thereof: and the Whore together with the Dragon was cast into the Lake of Fire. If you understand not this, you are under the Seals.

80. Behold! when the seventh seal shall be opened, then the Arch-Shepherd will feed his sheep himself, in his green Pasture: he leadeth them to the springing Waters, and refresheth their souls, and bringeth them into his right Path, and is a good Shepherd, and the sheep follow him, and he giveth them Eternal Life.

81. ^b At that time, Babel, that Great City on Earth, breaketh in the Wonders; and all ^b Note. the souls of those that are written in the Book of Life, in the Glassy Sea [or Angelical ^c Or habita- world;] all those that are born of God, go cut from her: and that is the ^c Tabernacle tion.

of God with Men; for he that seduced them is sealed up, the Light driveth him away.

82. Therefore hearken, you that are drowsy and awake, the Day breaketh, it is high time; that you may not be captivated by the Anger in Babel: there is great earnestness [or severity] at hand: leave off your contention about the Cup of Christ, else you will be found to be but fools in the presence of God: your Decrees avail nothing, when you assemble together, and make results and conclusions, saying, thus we will have it, this is the Confession of Faith, thus we will believe, and then the Church of God will be upheld; and another party gainsayeth; and they call one another Heretics, and so you lead the blind laity captive in your Devilish Contention, in your Pride.

83. You bind the true meaning [of the Scriptures] to your Art: he that hath not been a Student, or Scholar in that, can have no understanding in the hidden Mysteries of God, you say. O you proud blind Men, how you suffer yourselves to be seduced, by ^d human Traditions, without the Spirit of God; how will you stand in the Day of the Judgment of God, with your confounded Sheep, which you have thus led along in blindness? You have filled them full of reproach, and blasphemies; and have ridden up and down upon the Dragon, in mere hypocrisy, covetousness, high-mindedness, and false Teaching: outwardly you have made a fair show, and inwardly you have been full of the Devil.

84. Where is your Apostolical Heart? Have you Christ [in you?] Wherefore then do you dispute and contend about him? and make the common Lay-people contend also, who know not what they do; they play upon your Musick, [and dance after your pipe,] and would rather lose their lives, than leave your follies, and enter into the Life of Christ.

85. O simple ^e Devotion! Wherefore do you not take Christ (your true Shepherd) to be your Shepherd, and let the Wolves go? you need not be contentious about the Kingdom of Christ; neither have the Wolves any power to give it you, or take it away from you: you need not ask where is Christ? is he in the Baptism, or is he in the Supper? is he in the Hearing of the Preacher, or Ministry, as is so hard pressed upon people now adays?

86. Do but mark, and incline your heart, mind, and thoughts unto Christ, that Christ may be born in you; and then you have Christ, the Baptism, ^f Sacrament, and the Holy Ghost in all Places; you have him in the hearing of the ^g Divine Word.

87. The Covenant and ^h Testaments of Christ have indeed been long used, without faith, and therefore are but bidden seals: but if you be once born in Christ, then they become opened seals in your heart, in your soul, all is yours; Christ is in the Father; and you in Christ are also in the Father; and the Holy Ghost goeth forth from the Father in Christ, and also in you: the word of Life is always in you, what do you then seek after for salvation? When you hear teaching of God, then the Spirit also teacheth from your heart, and there is one Love, one Christ, one salvation in all places; wheresoever you are, there is the Gate of Heaven; it is not only in the Churches of stone, where men glisten in Pride, but where there are penitent people together, in true sorrow, who with earnest desire long after God's Mercy [Barmhertzigkeit,] who willingly speak of Love, and of the Wonders of God, [there is the Gate of Heaven.]

88. Hear, O thou blind Babel! should the Holy Ghost work powerfully in your words? When you stand before the Congregation, and despise your forefathers or Predecessors for their blindness, in their opened seal, whereas you yourself are a false malicious Adler, and teachest nothing but sedition, contention, and scorn? You do not pour the Holy Ghost into your Hearers, as you boast, but you drive into them the spirit of contention: you teach scorn, and not love. What doth the Layman know of those ^f Supper of the Lord.

^g That Word is near, that is, in thy heart.

^h Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

God, and not in your power? you judge and condemn many that are in the Angelical world, should then the Holy Ghost, in your false judging, be preached into the hearts of Men [by you?] you preach not the Spirit of Christ, but the Spirit of the Devil into their hearts, insomuch that they rely and depend upon your fables, and let go the highly precious word of Christ.

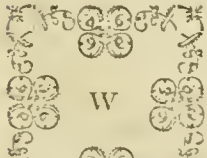

89. Look ^k into the Acts of the Apostles, when they were together very unanimously, with great desire of the Kingdom of God, and spoke of the Works and Wonders of God, and of his Love towards Men, how the Earth moved under them, and the Holy Ghost also moved the Earthly Center for great Joy. But had they sat together to deride the Pharisees, and scorned and made a play-game of them, the Holy Ghost would not have been so powerful among them. ^k Or upon the doings of the Apostles.

90. Therefore open your Eyes (ye children of God) and go into the Temple of Christ; and hang no more to the Temple of dissimulation, to the Hypocrites and Murderers. Yet I do not hereby prohibit the Stone Churches, but I teach [that] the Temple of Christ [is] in all places: indeed, the greatest Pomp is exercised in the Churches.

91. But if you desire to go into the Temple of Christ, you must bring an humble, contrite, and broken heart with you, which earnestly longeth after the Kingdom of God; it must not consist in hypocrisy, where they show themselves in a holy and devout Posture, but the poor soul is left without the Temple of Christ, in the seven Spirits of Darkness, where only the mouth is a Christian, and the heart is in doubt, or else in mere voluptuousness of the Flesh.

92. O you blind Sophisters! what have I to do with you, that I must thus write of your ^l Wonders? I have not sought your ways, but [I have sought] the Heart of God, that I might hide myself in Christ. I desired only with the Virgin in the Revelation, (which standeth upon the Moon;) to fly into the Wilderness from the Dragon; and yet I myself must now show the Dragon. LORD! thou doest whatsoever thou wilt, thy ways are mere Wonders. ^l Or Doings.

The Fourth Chapter.

1. HEN we thus show you the way of the Light, the Spirit is pleased, not to speak barely as in a History, but to set forth the Light in its deepest Depth, in its Wellspring or Fountain, that you may look as through an opened Seal, in Ternarum Sanctum, into the holy Ternary. [or the External Essentiality.]

2. For seeing the hidden Mystery of the Kingdom of God shall be revealed in the seventh Seal, and the Lamb himself shall be Shepherd over the sheep, therefore it must not be sealed up: for we have known the voice of the Trumpet of the seventh Seal in Ternario Sancto, in the holy Ternary, and therefore we may well speak of our native Country, to which our Labour [or Journey] tendeth.

3. None should suppose us to be ignorant, in that we write so very deeply; for if we did not see and know it, we must be silent: it is a common saying, What the heart is full of, that the mouth speaketh. This [which we have written] was not sought by this Hand: But it is written, I am found of them that sought me not, neither did they enquire after me.

4. I was as simple concerning the hidden Mysteries, as the meanest of all; but my Virgin of the Wonders of God taught me, so that I must write of his wonders: though indeed my purpose is to write this for a Memorandum for myself, and yet I shall speak as for many, which is known to God.

5. And now being to speak of the seventh form of Nature, we see that the Corporeity especially subsisteth therein, for a Spirit is void [or crude] without a body : whereas there is no understanding without a body: and, moreover, the Spirit itself doth not subsist without a body. For a form in the Spirit, is a hunger, and a longing desire, of one form after another.

6. For all things stand in the will, and are driven on in the will ; for if I have [or ^m Or purpose conceive^m] no will to go, my body standeth still ; therefore my will carries me ; and if not. I have no desire towards a place, then there is also no will in me ; but if I desire any ⁿ The Work thing, then that is the will of the ⁿ Essences.

7. And yet the Essences desire nothing but preservation and sustenance of the body, for the body is food : and the whole Essence of all Essences, is a continual hunger and fatiating [or fulfilling,] and a regeneration or propagation from its fulness : as may be seen, that each form of the Spirit desireth the other in its hunger, and when that is attained, another, or second form, ariseth out of it ; and yet the first doth not vanish, but the other, or second, formeth itself in the first, into another source or property : and yet both keep one in another, each in its own property : as we have written concerning Nature, in six forms ; how one proceedeth from the other, and how one causeth the other, that it be generated, and yet each keepeth its property in the other ; and there now they stand in six forms one in another.

8. And so there is no place of rest, but there is a constant desire of all the six forms, as a hunger out of which the will is continually Generated: and yet there is nothing wherein rest can be, but the still Eternity : and yet also this cannot be apprehended or found in the Wheel of the fiery Essences : and therefore the hungry Nature seeketh in its Mother, (viz. in the desire of the founes,) and the founes catcheth hold of the desire of the Essences, and holdeth it fast : and thus all Essences of the hunger are held in the four Mother, for she is their only rest, which they fill again with that which is in them, that is, with themselves.

9. And herein consisteth the Dominion of a Spirit : for Nature doth consist not only in seven forms, but there may (out of every desire) again a will be generated, wherein the Essences subsist again, but alterably, according to the desire of that will, where there is no number found, as you may see in the Creation of the World.

10. But seeing the Eternal Essence doth desire a certain ^o bound or limit, further and ^cMark or bound of circ- more than which, or to go higher, or ^cum- scription. to be other, it desireth not ; therefore the heart generateth itself, which is the end of Nature ; and the heart is the fulfilling of the Eternal [Being, Essence, or Substance.]

11. And the heart is not comprehensible by Nature, but Nature remaineth in the darkness in itself, and the heart remaineth in itself in the light : and neither would be manifest without the other ; and yet there is a continual hunger in them both, for both have wrought from Eternity, viz. Light and Darkness.

12. Now thus we see, in the Angelical world, as also in this world, that the seventh ^p Or Essential. Form of Nature, is a ^p substantial Form, out of which is proceeded the Being of Corporeity, per verbum Fiat, by the word Fiat ; and we have searched the ground, and find, ^q The Corpo- that the ^q same standeth also in two forms, one in the Darkness, the other in the Light ; reity. and yet they belong not to the Birth of the Darkness and of the Light, but they are the Body, or Comprehensibility.

The most Mighty Gate in the Center, highly to be Considered.

13. ^r Begirteth. THIS we demonstrate to you in Light and Darkness ; for we cannot say that the Darkness is the source [or property,] but the Darkness ^r encompasseth the source [or property,] and causeth that a source of Anguish of the longing and desiring, is [generated] in it; for the Darknes has no desiring, but the desiring is generated in it, and the Darknes causeth the desiring, viz. that there is conceived a desire to be free from the Darknes; and therefore the desiring laboureth so eagerly after the liberty, till the Anguish in the sharp desiring, [†] discovereth the liberty in itself; and yet there it is not [rightly called] the Liberty, but it standeth in the sharpness of the Anguish, and is called [†] Fire, where the desiring then can go no higher, but must be stifled in itself, and must sink down into the source. ^{† Espies, or attaineth.}

14. And the sharpness of the flash of the fire, in the Liberty of the sharpness, holdeth its right, like a still source [or property] standing in the sharpness of the Liberty: and the sinking of the Anguish is as it were a Death, out of which the Life is generated, which Death, affordeth [†] weight: for it is (being compared with the fire of the Liberty) [†] like a sinking down in itself, and in its sinking, the Anguish becometh material, so that in that Death, the whole form of the source [or property] may be found, as I may say, palpably, or [†] sensibly; and the sensibility, is the Corporeity of the Darknes; and the [†] fire of the Liberty in the fierce flash, is its Spirit and Life. ^{† Ponderosity, Or feelingly.}

15. And hereby you are advised to enter into yourselves, and you may see, that the fire causeth the feeling [or sensibility] in the sharpness of the dead Corporeity: for without fire there is no body, that hath any sensibility [or feeling,] as you may see by the Earth and Stones.

16. Now therefore it is here further declared to you, that the body, or substantiality, is not so dead a thing, that it is altogether useless, and fit for nothing: for the stifling driveth its property or source downwards, and affordeth weight, and the fire driveth upwards, and giveth Spirit, Life, and Mobility. And now between these two, in the midst, is the Center of the desiring Anguish, which is a cause of that which is uppermost, that is, the fire; and also of that which is nethermost, that is, the substantiality: and if the Center cannot get upwards nor downwards, and yet driveth with its desiring, then it driveth forth sideways, and the whole form or figure of it is as a Growing Tree; for it appeareth in the Center like a [†] Cross, out of which the Essences of the desiring spring forth, like a [†] Tree or Sprout (as I may so say) and yet is not a Sprout, but like a driving forth in itself, like a kindling in the dead [†] Essentiality. [†]

17. And hereby we give you earnestly to understand, that the source or property in the Center (out of which the fire goeth forth upwards in the Essentiality, and where the Death sinketh downwards, and the Essence sideways) generateth another Will, which hath a desire to put the Death, as also the fire in the sharpness, with the Essences of the Will, into the Liberty: and the Will attaineth the Liberty, in the fire; and maketh the fire shine bright, and maketh the Joy, and this second or re-comprehended Will is called the Tincture. ^{† Or Substantiality.}

18. For it is a glance or splendour in the darknes, and hath the power of life, and sprouteth through the Death of the Essentiality; and quieteth the Anguish: yet it hath no Essences in itself, but it is the Ornament and Virtue of the Essences, it is the joy and habitation of the Life, it cannot depart from the anxious or painful sharpness, and yet the sharpness retaineth it not; for it is free and a blossom of Life, it is not soft nor sweet, but it is like burning Brimstone, where the fire attaineth a Glance, which otherwise, in the Center in the Anguish, is black and dark.

19. Thus we distinguish to you, the substance in the darknes; and though we are very hard to be understood by you, and though also little belief may be afforded to it, we yet have a very convincing proof of it, not only in the created [†] Heaven, but also in the Center of the Earth, as also in the whole Principle of this world, which would be too long to set down here; but we will discuss, and set down a few things, to open the understanding of the Reader. ^{† Gassin, Constellation, or firmament, aliter Geistera Spirits.}

20. Consider the Center of the Earth, which God hath created by his Word, even out of the Center of the Deep Eternity, out of the Darkness, out of the Center of the desirous Will; but not out of any separate Place, but out of the space and Depth, so far as the Word hath yielded itself unto the ⁷ Ether, there hath the Center been every where, and is so now, and remaineth so in Eternity; for it hath been so from Eternity.

21. And this is the beginning, that the Word hath created [or conceived] a Will in the Darkness, to manifest the Darkness with all its forms, of the Wonders of God the Father, in his Nature, which he generateth in his Eternal Will: and we demonstrate it to you thus: Behold the Earth, Stones, and Metals, which are all of them as it were dead and afford weight; and also they are dark, [opaque,] and yet have in them the light, viz. the Noble Tincture, which is their light and life; wherein the Ore [or Mineral] stone doth grow, in which the Tincture is strong.

8 Or find.
9 Mixture or Copulation.

22. Thus you see also, how the Brimstone Fire is the Overcomer of Nature, in which the Tincture doth exist, and so through the Death of Nature springeth up, in Stones and Metals; and in Nature bringeth forth the substantiality of the shining and glance, or brightness, which may be seen in gold, silver, and all glistering Metals. Wherein also we ⁸ see the poisonous anguish of the Darkness, as also the four Death of the Darkness, and the strong matter of ⁹ Conjunction; as they understand, who work and deal therein.

23. Also we see how the Tincture can bring that which is lowest in the Death, to its highest Ornament or Glory, (viz. an inferior Metal into Gold,) and all that, in respect of the great power of the Eternity. And therefore also the Tincture is bidden from the Alchymists, because it is originally out of the Eternity, and they seek only that which is Earthly; if they did rightly seek, they should well find it, as we have found in the Spirit.

10 Or changing.

24. But we have yet a greater knowledge of this, in the many materials or kinds of Earth, which we know to be created out of the Eternal Essences, as an Out-birth, and so are in substance as an Image of the Essences; where we may see ¹⁰ the altering of the Will in the Essences, and the Great Wonders of the Omnipotence of God.

25. For all things, which are come to an Essence, proceeded out of the Eternal Genetrix, not at several times, but all at once, yet stood [or were manifested] in several times, in the forming of the Essence or Substance (in the wrestling of the Center) in the Figure, and were seen by the Heart of God in the Light, which at length created it; where the Time took its beginning.

26. For the Deity hath had a longing to see the Wonders of the Eternal Nature, and of the innumerable Essences, in substance, and in corporeal things; and we give you to understand this highly and exactly, that God hath created all for the Light, and not the Darkness.

11 Being, Ef-
stance.

27. For he hath awakened the Tincture, to the Death in the Center (viz. to the Body or Corporeal substance of the Earth) and that is its Luster and Light, wherein its life doth consist. And, to the Deep above the Center, he hath given the Sun, which is a Tincture of the Fire, and reaches with its virtue into the Liberty, beyond Nature, wherein also it retaineth its Glance and Luster; and it [the Sun] is the Life of the whole wheel of the Stars, and an Opener of Death, in the Chamber of Anguish, [or in the wrathful Nature.] For all the Stars are its Children, not that they have their Essences from it, but it is their life, and in the beginning, they proceeded from its Center: it is the Center of the uppermost in the Liberty of the Life, and the Earth is the Center of the nethermost in the Death; and yet there is no dying in either of them, but an altering of one ¹¹ thing into another.

28. For this World dieth not, but it shall be changed into such a substance, as it was not before; (understand its Essences :) but the shadow of all things remain standing forever, as a figure to the honour, joy, [and manifestation] of God's works of wonder.

The Figure of the Wheel of Nature.

of the Threefold Life.

29. And further we give you to understand, that the Spirits also were all created unto the Light; for they are the Essences [or proceeding powers] out of the Life; not out of the Corporeity of the Death, but out of the Center of the Essences in the Original of the Tincture, which reacheth the Liberty of God the Father, which is light, joy, or a habitation of Eternity, wherein the Word with the Angelical world hath its dominion. They all are created out of the sharpness of the twinkling in the wheel of the Essences; and they stand in the Liberty before the Heart of God, and they are the Wonders in the divine delight, which are ^d discovered by the Heart, in the Wonders of the Power, and therefore it set the Will in the Fiat, and created them.

^d Beheld, or aspected.

30. And we understand by the word, [Schuff, which signifieth] Created, [and in the Language of Nature signifieth] a Separation of the Essences, in the Center, in the four Matrix: and therefore there is also such great diversity in the Spirits, as there is great diversity in the will of the Essences; whereof we have an Example and similitude in the will [and purpose] of our Mind, out of which spring so many various thoughts, where every thought hath again a Center to a Will: that so out of a ^e conceived thought, a substance may be [produced.] [For Example, a Woman with child can with her thoughts set a mark, or make some monstrous alteration in the fruit of her womb, which is a substantial thing.]

^e Or an Imagination.

31. In such a manner are all Spirits created out of the Eternal Mind, and therefore they are also Eternal; for all whatsoever is generated out of the Eternal Mind, is Eternal.

32. For before God had conceived the Fiat, the wheel of the Eternal Essences went forth without substance, into the Wonders: but when God set the will in the Fiat, then the wheel of the Eternal Essences went forth into a substance, and there the Time had its beginning, which was not from Eternity.

33. And we give you highly to understand, the heavy fall of Lucifer; which [was that] he put his will back again into the Matrix of the Fire, in the Center, and turned away from the will of the Eternal Mind, which tendeth only to the Heart of God, and would domineer in the Tincture of the Root (viz. in the Matrix of the Fire) over the Heart of God: for the fierce power of the Fire delighted him more, than the Meekness in the still habitation; and therefore he was thrust back also, (into the dark Matrix, into the anguishing Mind) in the sinking down of Death.

34. But to satisfy the high enquiring mind, and to fill its apprehension, concerning what moved Lucifer to this, we offer the Matrix of the Genetrix to be considered; and there you find all the Forms, which can be found in the whole Nature.

35. For you find there the four, bitter, dark, tart, stinging, envious [properties or forms,] which stand all in the Center of the Genetrix, before the kindling of the Light.

36. But when God set his will in the Fiat, and desired to create Spirits, it was no other than as when God said to the Matrix [or womb] of the Third Principle, of this world; Bring forth all sort of Beasts, Fowls, Fishes, and Worms, every one after its kind: understand, that their body is according to the kind or quality of their Essences, and so is the Substance or Essence in the body, which is their Spirit; and so also it is with the high Spirits: there went forth out of the Eternal Matrix, Spirits, out of all Essences, which are innumerable, to our account.

37. And as we have shown you already, concerning the seven forms of the Center of the Eternal Nature, where every form is a several wellspring of Nature; in like manner, out of every form, out of every wellspring, go forth Spirits, according to the multiplicity of Essences and properties, every one according to its kind.

38. And the uppermost Principal Dominion proceedeth from the Head-source, which is the cause of the multiplicity therein, as the mind is a cause of the senses [or various thoughts ;] and we intreat you to consider the Matrix earnestly ; wherein you shall quickly know the Conceived Will of Lucifer, what it is in its Original, how the Creature hath imagined into the Matrix, and suffered itself to be withheld there ; and yet God created all Spirits ^f in the Light.

^f To or for.

39. For the Tincture of the friendly habitation shined out of them all, and the Heart of God shined to them, [like the Lamb in the New Jerusalem,] and they should put their Imagination into it, and form their will and power in verbo Domini, in the Word of the Lord.

40. But as they saw, that the Verbum Domini, the Word of the Lord, in the Center, was as another [or second] birth out of the Center ; and that they were generated out of the Effences of the great fountain, which is the Nature of Eternity ; they despised the humility, out of which the Love and Light is generated, and would domineer (in the fierce power, in the source of the Fire) over the Humility: for the Matrix of the Fire desired to have the Dominion.

41. For we cannot know any otherwise, than that Lucifer was created in the fourth form of the Matrix: for there stand the Anger and Love in opposition, and this is the strife and overcoming, where the Light overcometh and holdeth the Darkness captive. [The Fourth form is in the midst of the seven forms, and may turn itself to the Three in the Anger, or to the Three in the Love of God, and is severally drawn and desired by each of the Three.]

or fallen Angels.
^h Or Original.

42. Also the Wrath and Zeal of the Eternal Nature of God, desired to be creaturely, and to show forth its wonders ; and therefore ^e they were held in the fountain of their own ^h Nature ; and they have kindled the Matrix of the fierceness of the Anger and Envy, so that now it is their Eternal Habitation.

43. The Tincture (in their Conceived Will) is become false, because they would domineer (out of their Pride) over the humility of the Heart of God : and therefore they were cast out of the uppermost Center into the nethermost, viz. into Death, where is nothing but mere Darkness, and they cannot reach the Light of God.

comprehension.

44. For, to the Light of God, there belongeth a ⁱ Comprehension of Humility, wherein the desire of Love is Generated, which apprehendeth the Heart of God ; and this Lucifer hath not, but mere anger, envy, and high-mindedness, and a continual desire to fly up above the Heart of God, and to domineer in the stern Might: and therefore he is thrust out from the Divine Principle, into the Center of Darkness; and that is his Eternal Kingdom.

called divines.

45. And here is clearly shown to the ^k Theologists, who undertake to preach of the Will of God, that their devices, about ways to God, are mere Fables, when they make Laws, and set down things, as the means whereby the Light of God may be attained: For it only consisteth in this, and it lies in our ^l Imagination, that we form our will into Humility, wherein the Love is generated, which penetrateth to the Heart of God, as into that which is its own, where the human soul is then born in God, so that it embraceth the will of God, to do that which is the will of God.

fixed resolution.

^m Or Folly,
human Tradition, or Invention.

46. For All men's doings without the will of God, are nothing else but ^m Graven Images of natural skill, which remain in the Anguish of the Center: and it is a seeking, where nothing is to be found ; like one, that maketh a costly piece of work, which himself taketh pleasure in.

47. So also sub works stand before God, as a figure, which yet remain in the figure Eternally ; but, to the true Regeneration, to the attaining of the Heart of God, there belongeth only an earnest will, and submission, where Reason lets go all that it hath invented and contrived, and dependeth merely on the Word of the Lord, viz. on the Heart of God, and so the Spirit is conceived and born in the Love of God.

48. And we have already clearly shown you, that every thing is generated out of the Will, and every thing hath its propagation again in the Will; for the Will is the Master [Artificer] of every work: for it hath its first Original to Nature, from God the Father, and passeth through Nature to his Heart, which is the end of Nature, which dwelleth there in the still Eternal Liberty without Nature, and is in Nature as a peculiar Principle of its own in itself.

49. Thus the Original of Nature hath the second Principle, out of which proceed those things or substances, that may be altered, but the Principle of the Heart of God doth not [alter or change.]

50. Therefore I still say, and it is the very truth; that whatsoever is built, invented, and taught, concerning the way to God, (if it proceed not out of the Humility of Love, and goeth on to the comprehending [or purpose] of the Will, to the Heart of God) is only an ⁿ Invented work, in the Wonders of God: whereby the Wonders of God, which stand in the hidden seals, are brought to light: and the builders [or contrivers] are but labourers in the Wonders of God, in the great building, to the Glory of God, which [building] shall appear in the Wonders, at the change of Time, when all things shall enter into the ^o Eiber.

ⁿ Or Graven Image, trifle, or Folly.

^o Receptacle, or devourer.

51. Yet we do not judge, nor condemn, the desirous seeker, who seeketh in blindness, and knows not what he does; seeing he labours in the building of the Great Wonders of God, [with a blind Zeal.] For he shall find his reward in the end, in as much as he has had a will to press into God, and yet sticketh in the building.

52. And when the building shall appear before God, at the end of Time, then the Artificer or Workmaster shall also appear before God. But do we alone say this? Doth not the Scripture in the Revelation of Jesus Christ say; That our works shall follow us; where every one shall reap what he hath sown?

53. Therefore leave off your calumnies and blasphemies, and your fine contrived ways to God; and forsake the covetousness and high-mindedness of the Devil, and enter into the way of Love, which consisteth in Humility (towards the Heart of God) in Christ Jesus, who hath opened again the hidden seals, wherewith we in Adam were sealed in the Eternal Death; and then you are in Christ, born in God, and attain the Divine Will.

54. We give you further to understand, according to our apprehension and knowledge, in the Wonders of God (because every thing that liveth and moveth, is created for the honour [the manifestation] of God's works of Wonder) that there are many Spirits in shape and ^p figure, which have not their original out of the Eternal Wellspring, but out of the ^q beginning will; such as are in the Water, the Air, the Earth, and the Fire; especially under the Firmament, those Ascendants, of which there are multitudes in great Hosts, and have also their Government; yet they are mutable, but their shadow remains; and there are several pure Spirits which do not propagate out of themselves, but are generated at several Times, by the working of Nature, by the Tincture of Heaven; understand, the superior [Spirits]

^q Inceptive Will, alias Anxious will.

55. But the Terrestrial have their Center from the Inferior Globe; and the watery, out of the Matrix of the Water; and they have several Heavens for their Government, yet they all ^r pass away at their Time, and stand to the [manifestation of the] Wonders of God.

^r Perish or v. nish.

56. And we give you to understand, that before the Time of the Angelical world, from Eternity there has been such a Government; where the knowledge and understanding was only in God, but by the Angelical world is also come into the Creatures.

† Into the holy Ternary or Trinity.

The Gate † in Ternarium Sanctum.

57. NOW having shown this concerning the Corporeity, (and indeed the Spirits are creaturely and substantial, though incomprehensible to us,) therefore we will further show you the Kingdom of Heaven, with its Spirits and forms, and after that, the human Kingdom: whereby the Great Wonders of God shall be brought to Light. Let none be wilfully blind, it may be demonstrated in every thing, in whatever you look upon; especially in Man, for he is the Image and similitude of every thing, and therefore is called the Similitude of God.

58. There is no Creature, either in Heaven, or in this world, wherein all the Three Principles stand open, as in Man: and if his soul be born in God, he excelleth the Angels, in the Wonders, as I will show you hereafter.

59. But if this Text [or Matter] happen to be difficult for the Reader to understand, we would have him admonished, to read it patiently and diligently: and though he be not able to comprehend it [presently,] yet it will be very useful to him hereafter, when the Threefold Life of Man shall be written of, and then first rightly come into his understanding, so that he himself will then esteem it as a Great Jewel.

60. For the Mind does not leave off searching, till it comes to the Innermost Ground, which is here shown. But if it reach not the Ground, it sinketh down in the Ground, and cannot apprehend it, and then cometh doubting, unbelief, and contempt, into the Mind, [as if this writing were not worth the troubling one's head about it,] therefore we would have the Reader admonished, not to jest with the high hidden Mysteries; for thereby the Spirit of God is blasphemed.

61. And it is with the Mind, as with Lucifer. When he saw the greatest hidden Mysteries of the Deity stand in such humility, he took offence at it, and entered into the fierce Might of the Fire, and would domineer with his own self, wit, and reason, over [the Heart of] God, he would that God should be in subjection under him, he would be the Former and Creator in Nature, and therefore he became a Devil.

62. For in the meekness and lowliness, consisteth the Kingdom of Heaven, with the Angelical world, and the virtue of the Heart of God.

63. For the Light consisteth in meekness: and though it has its Original out of the Center of the Fire, viz. out of the sharpness of God, yet it placeth its Center in very great Meekness; for the Liberty without Nature is the End of Nature: and the Light dwelleth in the Liberty, as a Glance or brightness of a still † Joy; and the Word [proceeding] out of the powers of Nature, is the Fire of the Light, out of which the shining goes forth, and enlightens the whole Deep of the Father; so that it is one Essence together, but with three Distinctions, where every Distinction hath a Center, and may be called a Person.

† Habitation.

64. For, the Father generateth the Nature out of the Eternal still Liberty, which is himself, and yet in the stillness is not called Father; but in that he is desiring [or Generating,] and † comprehendeth a Will in himself, to [have] the Genetrix of Nature [to be,] there he is known to be a Father, from whom all things proceed, as out of his first Will through all Wills.

† Conceiveth, frameth, or
purposeth.

65. Even as the Mind of Man is but one only will, which is desiring, and yet conceiveth in it, out of the Eternal Will, innumerable Wills, and one always goes forth out of the other. Whereby we see and find, that the first Will is Master, and the other comprehended Wills lead to Light and Darkness, to joy and sorrow, according as they conceive any thing good or evil in them, as Reason can discern. So it is also in the Father, in Nature, but not in the Liberty, for there, there is nothing in himself, but the Light Eternity.

66. Seeing then a twofold comprehension thus proceedeth out of one will, as to joy and sorrow, love and hatred, therefore each has its birth to ^w will again, out of one into many: Nature has its will to the sharpness of its stern Generating: and the first will of the Father, (which ariseth out of the Light Eternity,) to the still meekness: even as the still Eternity is, in itself, a still soft joy, without substance.

^w Or to a contrary will, out of one and the same point.

67. Thus there is a twofold driving in one only substance, and therefore also two Centers are generated, the one tendeth to meekness, and the other to fierceness, and yet are not separated: for the fierceness in Nature is the first, and out of the fierceness is the meekness generated, which is the other, and one without the other, would be only a still Eternity.

68. Therefore now, the Meekness is the Son of God, which dwelleth in the still Eternity, and ^x mitigates the Wrath, and is therefore called the Son, because he is Generated out of the Father's Nature; and is called the Word of the Father, because he is with the Glance of the Eternal Liberty, [proceeding] out of the Eternal Liberty (out of the Wheel of the Essences, out of the Forms of Nature, as the life of Nature) expressed in the Liberty of the Father; and is called a Person, because he is a self-subsisting ^y Essence, which does not belong to the Birth of Nature, but is the life and understanding of Nature; and is called the Heart of the Father, because he is the virtue and power in the Center of Nature; and he is in Nature, as the Heart in the Body, which gives strength and understanding to its Members; and is called the Light of God, because the Light is kindled in him, and taketh its original in him; and is called the Glance [or brightness,] because, in the Eternal still Liberty, he maketh a Glance [or Luster,] which takes its original out of the sharpness of the Eternal Nature, as is mentioned before. And he is called the Love of the Father, because the first Will of the Father, to the Genetrix of Nature, desireth only this his most beloved Heart, and this (in the Will of the Father) is the best beloved above Nature, and yet is his Essence: And is called Wonder, because he is the Creator of all things, by whom all things, out of the Center of the Essences of the Father, are brought to light, and being; so that the Nature of the Father standeth in Great Wonders.

^y Substance, being, or thing.

69. And this is the diversity, [and the cause] that the Father and the Son are called two Persons, and yet are but one God in one only Essence, that is, the Father is the Generator of Nature, because it is Generated by his Will, out of the desire; and because his Heart separateth itself from Nature, and is not comprehended by Nature, and exerciseth a several Center, viz. the Love; and the Father exerciseth the Center of Wrath. In the sharpness of the Father, is the Fire, and in the sharpness of the Son, is the Light, and yet they are in one another, as Fire and Light.

70. But as the Fire will be free (or else it is smothered) and yet it burneth out of the dark sappy wood, so is the Divine Nature also free from the inward wrathful darkness: and though the fire burns out of diversity of materials, yet it affordeth but one kind of source or property, viz. heat and light. And in the same manner also you must understand us, concerning the Deity.

71. The Son is in Light Eternity of the Father, (and in his comprehended will) in his Nature, but one only source, which burneth in Love and Light, and is the Glance of the Glory of the Father, and cannot be separated or disunited from the Father; for there is but one will in him, which is called the desire of Mercy [Barmhertzigkeit,] and that is attractive of whatsoever inclineth towards it.

72. And the Holy Ghost is the Third Person, which I formerly called the Spirit Mercurius, in the Divine Nature, in respect of its Property: For you see that every Will in itself, is still, and every Light is still, and the noise maketh the Will manifest, which then standeth before the Will, and maketh another Center. For the noise or sound is comprehended and carried forth, but the Will is not so; which you may perceive by a word, how that is comprehended and carried forth, which is generated in the noise. And you know also, how the noise has its beginning in the Heart, and goes forth out of the Essences of the Will, and is comprised in the Mouth, and yet presseth forth out of the Heart, and soundeth out from the whole Person, and declareth what is in the Will.

ficer.

73. And we find also, that the noise is the awakener of the Life, also the ² framer of the senses, reason, and understanding; for it is the hearing, and bringeth one Essence into another, from whence the smell and taste arise: also it is the cause of the feeling, by bringing one Essence into another, where then they feel one another: also it causeth the senses: for the Essences [or the out-flowing faculties] comprehend the noise, so that every Essence is a will, and again in the will, is the introduced Center, to a Genetrix of many wills.

³ Or Sound.

74. And secondly, we perceive, that the Air which presseth forth from the Heart, comprehendeth the ² noise, and in the mouth maketh a Center, where the will formeth the Word, and the will, which thrusteth forth from the heart, bringeth the noise of the will, in the conceived Center, which existeth in the mouth, out from the Center of the mouth: and that noise is sharp, and penetrateth through the heart, mind, and senses: for it is gone forth out of the Center, into another [Thing or] Essence, as into another mind, and bringeth with its sharpness that [mind or Essence] into its will: and if that will [or the other mind] pleases it not, it breaks that will, and destroys it, viz. punisheth that mind, which is not ^o one with its will.

75. Thus, my beloved, seeking, and desiring Mind, consider thy self, search thy self, and find thy self; thou art the Similitude, Image, Essence, and proper portion of God; and as thou art, so is the Eternal Birib in God; for God is a Spirit, and the ^c government in thy body, is also a Spirit, and that is proceeded and created out of God's Government.

^c Or that which go-

76. For God hath manifested himself in the spirit of Man, both in Love and in Anger, both the Centers are in it; and the Third [Center] with the Exit of the Spirit is the omnipotence, if the Spirit of this world, (viz. the Third Principle) had not set its bar in Adam, which is broken by the Birth of Christ, and is made a Wonder; being born as a Great Wonder, and shown in the presence of God.

77. Thus in like manner we acknowledge a Third Person in the Deity, which proceedeth from the Father and the Son. For he is the Spirit of the mouth of God, and hath not his original in Nature, but is the spirit of the first will to Nature, yet he getteth his sharpness in Nature: and therefore he is the former and framer in Nature, as most powerful and omnipotent.

78. For he manageth the sword of Omnipotence, [as may be seen by the Image in the Revelation] he is the bringer forth, the Conductor, and the Director; also the destroyer of malice and wickedness, and the opener of the bidden Mysteries; he existeth in the Father from Eternity without beginning: for the Father, without him, would be only an Eternal stillness without ^d Essence.

79. He is the Essence of the Will, as is mentioned concerning the Fire, out of which the Air ariseth, which goeth forth from the Fire: and as you see that the human life, and its understanding, consisteth in the Air, and that the Air governs the life: so you must understand us concerning the Spirit of God; which is the out-going and flowing virtue out of the Heart and Word of God.

80. For the Heart is the Word; and the Spirit is the former of the Word; not that he maketh the Word, but he is the self subsisting Essence: when the wheel of the Essences in the Center of the Father, goes on in Triumph as a Genetrix, then he is in the wheel, in the appearing [or shining] of the Liberty, and opens the Genetrix in the Darknes, and causeth the longing of the other [or second] Will, to the Center of the Word.

81. He is the Key, in the shining of the Will in the Essences, and opens the Matrix of the Genetrix. He is not comprehended by the Essences, nor by the Center of the Word; but he closeth with the Word and Heart, and opens the Heart to the ° pressure; ° Or representation. that so the will of the Father may impress in the Heart, and then he is in that which is impressed, and formeth in his own Center, in that which is impressed, and goeth forth with the virtue of the Word, out from the Heart, and [expresseth or] bringeth forth the Thoughts of the Will.

82. For the Thoughts are the bidden seals in the seven Forms: and they open the Spirit, that it may come to the Will, that so out of one form of the Genetrix, many wills may come, and go forth, without number infinitely, but yet in the opening and driving of the Spirit: and all Wonders without number stand in the opening of the Spirit: he it is, that manifesteth the Deity in Nature: he spreadeth forth the Glance of the Majesty, so that it is seen in the Wonders of Nature. He himself is not the Glance, but the power of the Glance, and leadeth the Glance of the Majesty of God in Triumph: he is the joy of the Deity, and maketh the Holy sport, with his opening, in the hidden seals of the Essences.

83. I give you a similitude of this, in the spirit and life of Man: you see the Body, which is in itself, a dark [opaque] thing, void of understanding: it hath indeed the Essences, but from the opening of the Spirit, which openeth the Essences, and bringeth them to the will, or else the body would be dead, still, and senseless.

84. So you see also, that the Spirit is not the Body, but it hath a Government of its own: and when it departeth from the body, the body perisheth, for the Essences [or the flowing faculties] remain in the dark Death, and there is no understanding: for it is the Spirit which openeth the thoughts, [and bringeth them forth] out of the Essences.

85. And you see moreover, that the Spirit is not the light itself, for the light hath its original in the Tincture, which is the blossom of the Fire, but the Spirit is the blower up of the Fire, as you see by the Air, which bloweth up the Human Fire: and we may understand it well enough in our selves, if we do but open and know our selves, by our spirit, which shall as follows be showed us.

86. Understand us here rightly concerning the number Three [or Trinity] of the Deity: we mean but one God in three Persons, of one Essence and Will. But we give you to understand concerning the Ternary, that there are Three Centers therein, which are known in the Eternal Nature, but are not known without [or beyond] Nature: for without the Nature, the Deity is called Majesty, but in Nature, it is called Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; Wonder, Counsel, Power.

87. For whatsoever is without Nature, could not help me, I could not in Eternity, either see, feel, or find it, because I am in Nature, and generated from it.

88. But because the Majesty hath generated the Nature, and so hath manifested itself therein in Three Persons, therefore I rejoice in that manifestation, as being a Creature inhabiting therein, in Eternity.

89. And seeing then that I am generated out of the Nature of God, therefore is it my Mover, and the food of my soul; and my soul is the food of God: for I am his praise [and glory] which he receiveth from my spirit: for my soul openeth his wonders, through his working, and so is a joy[†] in Ternario Sancto.

90. I speak not only of myself, but of all men and Creatures, wherein his wonders stand open, both in his love and anger. For the Devils themselves stand in the Wonders of God: for they open the Scals of the Anger: and all standeth to the Joy and Glory of God.

† In the Holy Ternary, or Trinity.

The Fifth Chapter.

Of the precious and most Noble Virgin, the Wisdom of God: and of the Angelical World.

The two Gates in Ternarium Sanctum, highly to be Considered.

1.  HOU Sophister, I know thou wilt accuse me of Pride, because I (being a mean simple man in this world) soar so high into the Deep. But it is said, that you look only upon the wisdom of this world; I do not esteem or care for it, for it affords me no joy at all. But I rejoyce at this, that my soul moveth in the Wonders, to the praise of God, so that I know his wondrous works, in which my soul delighteth as in its Mother. Now every Spirit speaketh of its own Mother, whose food it eateth, and in whose source [or property] it liveth.

2. Now since I know the Wonders, shall I be silent? Am I not born to it, as also all the Creatures, that they should open the Wonders of God? Therefore now I labour in my [employment,] and another in his, and thou proud Sophister in thine.

^a Pious or godly.

3. We stand all in God's field, and we grow to God's glory, and to his works of wonder, as well the wicked as the ^e virtuous; but every fruit groweth in its own property: when the Mower shall cut it down, then every fruit shall come into its own Barn, and every property receiveth that which is its own; and then the field in its Essences (out of which we are grown) shall be manifested: for there are two Centers in the Eternity, and each Center shall bring in its own Crop.

^a Or Kindled.

4. Therefore consider, O Man, what you judge, that you fall not upon the sword of the Spirit of God, and that your work be not ^b blown up in the Fire of Wrath: for look upon the Image in the Revelation, which beareth the sword in its Mouth: surely it signifieth the Spirit of God, concerning which Christ said, When he cometh he shall reprove the world of sins, of righteousness, and of judgment.

5. Of Sins, because they live in hypocrisy, and are not obedient to the Spirit of God, nor believed in him, that he might manifest heavenly wonder in them, but they continue under the wrath in the first Center, and will not be regenerated, and open [or manifest] no other wonders, but such as are in the Wrath in mere hypocrisy.

6. And of Righteousness, Christ saith, Because I go to the Father; He hath destroyed Death, and opened the heavenly Gate for the soul, and is gone again to his Father, and hath called us to him; but the dissembling hypocrite will not come, he taketh more delight in his pride: therefore the Spirit reproveth him, and rebuketh him to his face, and layeth all his false ways open to the light, that he might see, and beware.

7. But he striketh down the Wonders of the Reproof to the Ground, till the Spirit reproveth him of Judgment, because the Prince of this world (who held men captive) is judged: And thou Sophister runnest on wittingly (for thy own profit, transitory voluptuousness, and honour's sake) to the Devil, and canst not see the open Gate, which the Spirit showeth thee, therefore he reproveth thee, and showeth it to thy face.

8. And if you will not, for all that, then it is as was said; We have piped unto, but you have not danced; we have called you, but you are not come to us; I have been hungry after you, but you have not fed me; you are not grown in my Garden of Roses, therefore you are none of my food; your heart hath not been found in my praise; therefore you are not my food. And this Bridegroom passeth by; and then cometh the other, and gathereth, what he findeth, into his Barn; you should consider that.

[Further Information touching the holy Trinity.]

9. Now since we speak of the Holy Trinity, as of one only God, in one only Essence; therefore we say, that the Holy Spirit goeth forth from the Father and the Son. And seeing God is every where, and himself filleth all things in the whole Deep, therefore the mind asketh, Whither doth the Spirit go forth, seeing it is in the mouth of God, and also remaineth only in God, as a spirit in a body?

10. Here see Apocalypse the fourth, there appeareth before the Throne of the Ancient [of Days] a glassy Sea, wherein stand the seats of the twenty-four Elders, with the Lamb, which was slain and liveth Eternally: and the Ancient [of Days] sitting upon the Throne, hath the Book with seven seals, which the Lamb that was slain took out of his hand, and broke open the seals.

11. There you see, the seventh Spirit of the Divine Nature, which is the joy of the Majesty of God, wherein the Trinity manifesteth itself; and you see the true Angelical world: For the Sea is the Water-Spirit, which in the Original of Nature, is the fierce founness, but it getteth a shriek [or aspect] from the light of God, where this form departeth: and the crack or shriek, in the darkness, turneth to be a sinking down into Death; where yet the captivated shriek in the light (which is now called joy) is also a sinking down, and is turned into Meekness, wherein the light shineth: And it is like unto a Glassy Sea.

12. But it is the ⁱ Corporeity of the Divine Nature; and herein the seven Spirits of ⁱ Body or substance. God, viz. the seven burning Torches, are revealed, which the Angel in the Revelation biddeth to be written; but the seven Thunders in the dark Matrix in the fierce Nature, he biddeth to be sealed, and not written: for they would be opened one after another, and pour forth their wonders, which none should know, till they are past, till the seventh seal in Ternario sancto is opened, and then shall the hidden Mystery of the Kingdom of God be finished, when the seventh Angel foundeth his Trumpet.

13. And here we give you to understand what Moses saith; God created the Heaven out of the midst of the Waters. Behold, thou seeking Mind! this Glassy Sea (which is the Water-Spirit in the presence of God) is the Matrix, out of which the word Fiat created the Element of Water: for the Element of water in this world, is an Out-birth out of the Matrix of the Heaven.

14. For they use to say, God dwelleth in Heaven, and it is true; and that Heaven is the Comprehension of God, wherein God hath manifested himself through the Creatures, viz. the Angels and the souls of Men: for in this seventh Form (viz. in the Glassy Sea) the Nature of the Father standeth revealed in great Holiness, not in the Fire; but the word is the Fire of this source [or property,] and the Holy Spirit here goeth forth through the Word, in the Angelical world, and formeth every thing that groweth and liveth; for he is the Spirit of life, in this source [or property.]

15. Behold, thou seeking Mind! I show it to you yet more deeply and clearly; thus Nature is generated out of the Father's first will, which is in itself only a Spirit, and a Darkness, and yet is driven so far by the will, as into seven Forms, and out of seven infinitely: But the cause of Nature consisteth in the first four Forms, viz. in four or harsh desiring; in the bitter sting; in the flash of Fire, where the life taketh its original; and the fourth in the crack or shriek of the Matrix before the Fire; where the sinking of the heavy Death downwards, and the going of the Fire-life upwards, is generated, where

v. the Center then standeth in the midst, as a heart in the body; out of which the Tincture
 VI. (as the fifth Form of fire) ariseth, which is the Love-desire: and that desire is a penetrat-
 VII. ing noise [or sound] in the sixth Form; and the life of the Tincture penetrateth through the sinking down of Death, where then we understand the Meekness of the Tincture, which maketh the sinking down corporeal, which is the seventh Form: out of which corporeity in the beginning of this world, the Earth, Stones, Metals, and the whole Center of the Globe of the Earth, were generated; and in the six forms of Nature standeth the Globe of the Earth, with its Regimen, and the seventh Form, is the Comprehensibility, or palpability, as is in Earth and Stones, and it is the body of the six Forms, wherein they perform their work, as a spirit in the body. And the upper Globe in the Deep above the Earth, hath just such a Regimen in seven Forms, where then the four Elements keep the upper Center; and the Constellations [keep] the wheel of the Essences of the Will; and the Sun the Tincture of Fire, wherein every life in this [outward] world consisteth.

16. And just so also is the inward Regimen in Ternario sancto, not separated from this world, but this [world] is separated only by a Principle: for there is no corner or place in this world, where the inward Regimen is not.

17. For this world is become corporeal out of the Father's Nature, out of the Wrath, out of the seventh Form, where the Tincture of the Sun maketh it lovely and pleasant again.

18. And therefore the Devil is called a Prince of this world, for he is the Prince in the Wrath of the Father's Nature: and the Angelical world is the Son's Nature, in great love, joy, pleasantness, and Humility: for the Word (or the Heart of God) is the Center therein.

19. And the Flash (where Light and Darkness separate) maketh the Principle, and separates it into two Kingdoms: where one Center burneth in the Fire [or Anger,] and the other in Love, out of which the clear Light shineth. And you must know, that the fierce Flash, is the mark or limit of separation: for that is the crack or shriek to Life and to Death, where Wrath and Love part; which I will explain to you hereafter.

20. Thus we give you to understand concerning the Angelical world. The Father's property is no darkness, but the darkness is generated in the stern desire; and the Father's property is the light, clear, free Eternity, which hath a will to Nature, and that light will, in the Nature, is the flash of the Essences, and sharpeneth itself, in the stern hard wrath, and driveth itself on, to the fourth form, where the flash of the liberty in the sharpness shineth like Fire: and there the flash of the liberty divideth itself into two Principles: one forward from it, with the strong might of the Fire; the other in itself, in the free light Eternity, and it giveth the ^k Glance to the light Liberty.

^k Or Bright-

21. And in this separation, the flash maketh the ^l Cross, where it presseth so terribly through the dark Wrath. And so the fierceness, with its Center, flieth upwards, for the fire driveth upwards: and the Matrix of the sourness sinketh (as a thing that is killed, by the shriek) down into Death; and the flash upon the Cross standeth still Essentially:
 for it hath discovered the Matrix, and the Matrix hath infected it, and holdeth it captive: and the fierce flash in the Matrix turneth to meekness: for the flash in the terrified and overcome Matrix, getteth a terror or crack also, as when water is cast upon fire:
 where yet there is no water, but spirit [to be understood.]

22. Thus the fierceness of the fire is quenched upon the Cross, and the blossom of the Noble Tincture springeth up upon the Cross, as is mentioned before; and the blossom of the life in the Tincture (as a pleasing fire) springeth up like a sprout; and the crack or shriek sinketh down as a faintness and weakness, though there is no parting asunder, but the forms of the Divine Nature are in such a manner; and that sinking down, is as a joy, and is not the spirit in the six Forms, which are incomprehensible; for the sinking is comprehensible by the spirit: and the ^m Joy hath all the forms of the Spirit, and is the food and satiating of the Spirit; for it hath its original out of the four Matrix, and so every life eateth of its own Matrix [or Mother.] ⁿ Or habitation.

23. And although we have no tongue here, that can (according to our [outward] Language) bring these hidden Mysteries to the understanding, yet we speak as a Child of its Mother. For the Mother hath taken up our mind, and our sense sinketh down into her bosom; where then we see in the light, and know our Mother, and speak thus of our Mother's house, and of her food [which we live upon.]

24. And though we cannot well speak the Language, yet we know it in the sense very well: and the cause why we have not that Language, is because (according to the outward Man) we are altogether a stranger in our Mother's house, for the outward man doth not belong to that house, and therefore it hath not the Mother's Tongue, [or Language,] but speaketh with the sense of the inward Man, which reacheth to the Mother.

25. Therefore here we shall be as it were dumb, to those which are not born of God; for (according to the outward Man) we are in this world, and according to the inward Man, we are in God: therefore the sense of the mind speaketh of the Kingdom of Heaven, and the outward Spirit, (which is generated from the Principle of this world) speaketh ⁿ of this world, and the inward [Spirit] (born of God) speaketh ⁿ of the inward ⁿ Or from World.

26. Since then we are generated out of both worlds, therefore we speak in two Languages: and so we must be understood also by two Languages, one whereof will despise this [work,] and the other will highly believe and love it, for every spirit taketh its own, [the Spider poison, the Bee honey; the corrupt Adam (in Ismael) loveth scorning; the true Man (in Christ) with Isaac, loveth obedience.]

27. But seeing we are with our soul (in this world) in a strange lodging, and yet we certainly know, that we must travel, either into Heaven to God, or into Hell to the Devil; and since we like not the Devil, we should do well to seek after the Kingdom of Heaven, and to cast our mind and thoughts upon it; for thereby we gain the precious Crown of Pearls, instead of the Crown of this world, which the Devil hath set upon us, through sin, wherewith we go about in this world, with brave shows, in hypocrisy, in high-mindedness, and in our own authority and power: and therefore we will let them go, and speak of our Mother's Crown in our Native Country.

28. We have sufficient understanding of it, if we know our selves aright: and we find it in our body and soul, as also in the form and shape of the body, but especially in the Mind: but the Spirit of this world knoweth not itself, except another light shineth in it, wherein the mind can see and know itself.

29. For the Spirit born of God, (which goeth forth from God in the Divine sense [or understanding]) openeth to the mind the understanding and knowledge, so that man seeth himself in the Bands of this world; yet he seeth not his Glory, but he looketh in Ternarium Sanctum, [into the Holy Ternary,] into the Angelical world, which he laboureth for, with great longing, and there is a continual restlessness in him.

30. For he is attracted by two, viz. by the Spirit of God, and by the Devil, in whose bands also he is tied, according to the outward sinful Man: and his Center standeth directly upon the Cross, and he is in this world like a Balance, whereof one part goeth suddenly up, and then suddenly down again: and we are here only in a valley of misery, anguish, and perplexity.

31. Now seeing God is so near us, yea in our selves, therefore let us seek him: and if we would find him, we must turn away from this world, and become like a little Infant, that is without understanding, which only hangeth to the breast of its Mother:

and we must be new born in God, with our mind and thoughts, or else we cannot see him : and Christ himself teacheth us the same, [saying] that his light shineth in us.

32. We must wholly reject our own Reason, and not regard the dissembling flattering Art of this world, it is not available to help us to that Light; but it is a mere leading astray, and keeping of us back.

33. This we intimate to the Reader, that he may know [what it is which] he readeth : [it is] not the writing of a Man of understanding, but of a Child ; as a child [newly born] from the Mother, is a stranger to this world, [and hath no understanding of it.]

34. Therefore we speak of our Child-like Birth in God, for our beginning is upon the Cross : we are created upon the Cross as to our soul, therefore the Body also is a Cross : and the Center, (viz. the Heart) is in the midst of the Cross : and we are with Adam, gone forth from the Image of the Cross, into the Image of the Serpent : But the Son of the Virgin hath regenerated us again on the Cross to a Heavenly Image.

35. Therefore we will speak, what we see and know in the Ground, and not be silent ; for a Cross-birth keepeth its Center in Ternario sancto [in the Holy Ternary,] understand it right, in the holy number Three, but not in the Majesty, which is without Essence, but in the distinction of the Trinity, where the Deity is called Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, where the two Principles part, the Holy and the Wrathful ; and there it is that the flash maketh a Cross, and upon the Cross, the Heart of God is generated, [from Eternity to Eternity,] and standeth as a Heart in the body, or as God the Father's word in his Center, and so maketh another Center in itself, [as the Light maketh another Center than the Fire, and yet they are not parted asunder.] For it entereth into itself, into the Light of the Liberty of the Father.

36. Therefore it is the Heart of God, for it is the power of the Majesty, and affordeth the ^o Luster, power, and glory of the Majesty.

^o Glance or Brightness.

37. Out of this Word, the Father speaketh forth his Spirit, [as the fire sendeth forth the Air through the Light,] which Spirit goeth forth from the Word, into the meekness of the Word, and bringeth with him the Glance of the Majesty ; for the meekness taketh its beginning with the Flash [of lightning] which is the separating mark of the two Principles : where the Wrath goeth upwards, and the Meekness downwards : and are both the substance of the Corporeity.

38. For although the wrath in the flash inclineth upwards, and also ^p side-ways, yet the sinking down of death is in it also : for the flash killeth the hard strong might, as it is seen how it dissipareth the darkness, and yet the sting of the wrathfulness remaineth in it, where no death is perceived, but substantiality without understanding : as also in the sinking of the captivated meekness in the Light, there is no understanding neither, but substantiality, and yet it hath the Tincture, which springeth in the substantiality, and is like a growing : and the understanding remaineth merely in the Center on the Cross in the ^s Number Three.

^s Or Trinity.

39. Thus we say the Holy Ghost goeth forth from the Father and the Son [as the Air from the Fire and the Light :] But whither does he go ? Into the substantiality, with the Glance of the Majesty wherein the Deity standeth revealed. This Gate is called by me in all my Writings, Ternarius Sanctus ; for I mean the Number Three [or Trinity] in the substantiality, (viz. in the Angelical World) where the Three Persons have revealed themselves.

^t The Holy Ternary.

40. Now therefore we say very right, that the Son is the Word of the Father, which the Father speaketh ; but now the Deep Mind asketh, Whither doth he speak it ? [or into what doth he speak it forth ?] Behold ! the Word is the Heart, and soundeth in the Essences [or working powers] of the Father ; and the Heart speaketh it in the mouth of the Father, and in the mouth, the Holy Spirit of the Father comprehendeth it, in his

Center, and so goeth with it forth, from the Father and the Son, into the substantiality, where it standeth with the Glance of the Majesty, as a Virgin of the Wisdom of God, in Ternario Sancto [in the Holy Ternary.]

41. This which is spoken forth, is an Image of the Holy ^f Number Three, and a ^f Trinity, Virgin, but without substance, yet a similitude of God. In this Virgin, the Holy Ghost openeth the Great Wonders of God the Father, which are in his hidden seals.

42. ^t Moreover the Holy Ghost manifesteth the opened seals of the Heart of God in the Glance of the Majesty, which stand in the light, and are called the seven Spirits of God. ^t Alias not that.

43. Thus the Image of the Wisdom of God standeth in substance among the seven burning Spirits, which burn in the Light of God, (for they are the Divine Nature:) and it hath the seven Stars (of the hidden seals, which stand in the Anger of the Father in his Center) in its hand: for the Heart of God is the might of the number Three, as the Apocalypse showeth you in the first Chapter.

The highly precious Gate for Man to Consider of.

44. This Wisdom of God, is an Eternal Virgin, not a ^u Woman, but the Chastity and Purity without blemish, and is as an Image of God: She is a representation of the number Three, which generateth nothing; but in her stand the great Wonders, which the Holy Ghost discovereth, and the Word of the Father createth, through the four Matrix, viz. the Fiat; and she is the wonderful Wisdom without number, in her hath the Holy Ghost discovered the Image of Angels, as also the Image of Man, which the ^w Verbum Fiat hath created. ^u Or Wife.

45. She is the Great secret Mystery in the Counsel of God, and goeth ^x into the first Principle, viz. into the Anger of the Father, and openeth the Wonders in the hidden seals or forms of Nature in the wrath, and is comprehended by nothing; for she is an Image without substance of Generating: the Holy Ghost hath, through her, discovered the Third Principle, which the word Fiat hath made corporeal, out of both the Matrixes, (out of both the Mothers,) of the substantiality: and he hath discovered a limit to that substance in the Center of the Seven Forms, where they shall go into their Ether with the corporeal substance: and yet both the Mothers [or Matrixes] shall stand in the substantiality, (before the Virgin of the Wisdom, before the number Three [or holy Trinity]) in the Eternal Figure, to God's glory, and ^y his works of Wonder. ^w The Word which giveth being. ^x Alias, in the second Principle.

46. Therefore consider, O ye Philosophers, how God created this world in Six Days: for each Day's work is a Creation [or Creature] of a Spirit in Ternario sancto: and the Seventh Day is the Rest of the Sabbath of God, in the Seventh Spirit of God, wherein the Virgin of the Wisdom of God standeth; and therein is no more any working of Anxiety, but the Eternal Perfection of Rest. ^y The manifestation of his miraculous deeds.

47. For the six Spirits must shed forth their operations of what is in their seals; and are not known before, till they have powered forth the virtue [or power] of their Vials in the Principle of this world, which Men and [the other] Creatures bring to substance and ^z act, [or eff. &c.] as a building to [the manifestation of] God's Works of Wonder. ^z Work.

48. And when this shall be accomplished, then the hidden Spirits of God (under the seals) enter again into the Ether, viz. into their Center: and then the Time of the seventh Seal beginneth, in the substantiality, in the presence of God, and the hidden Mystery of the Kingdom of God is accomplished, as is mentioned in the Revelation of Jesus Christ, and as we have known in Ternario sancto, [in the Holy Ternary.]

49. This Wisdom of God (which is the Virgin of Glory and Beautiful Ornament, and an Image of the number Three) is (in her figure) an Image, like Angels and Men, and she taketh her Original in the Center on the Cross, like a blossom of a branch, out of the Spirit of God.

^a Or Essentiality.

50. For she is the ^a Substantiality of the Spirit, which the Spirit of God putteth on as a Garment, whereby he manifesteth himself, or else his form would not be known: for she is the Spirit's Corporeity, and though she is not a corporeal palpable substance, like us Men, yet she is substantial and visible, but the Spirit is not substantial.

51. For we Men can, in Eternity, see no more of the Spirit of God, but only the Glance of the Majesty: and his glorious power we feel in us, for it is our life, and conducteth us.

52. But we know the Virgin in all her heavenly Similitudes or Images; whereas she giveth a body to all fruits, she is not the Corporeity of the fruit, but the Ornament and Luster.

^b Or Vegetation.

53. The Corporeity goeth forth out of the Substantiality, which is not the Spirit, but an impotency, in comparison of the Spirit, in which the number Three dwelleth; and that Substantiality is the Element of God, for there is a life therein, (but without understanding,) in which the Paradise of God consisteth; for the seven Spirits of God work therein, and it is as a ^b growing; and herein consist the Great Wonders of God, according to all Essences infinitely.

54. For every form of the Essences bringeth forth its fruit, which by the wrestling of the Wheel attaineth its highest Ornament and Power, and yet passeth away as being overcome, for all is herein as a wrestling, where one is now uppermost and mighty, and then is overcome again, and another riseth up which hath other Essences: and so it is a holy sport, a joy or fruit of Angels, a fulfilling of the will of every life.

55. Here again we need an Angel's Tongue; for the Mind ever asketh; How and where? for when the Deep is spoken of, which is without comprehension and number, [or measure,] the mind always understandeth some corporeal thing.

56. But when I speak of the Virgin of the Wisdom of God, I mean not a thing, that is [confined, or circumscribed] in a place; as also when I speak of the number Three; but I mean the whole Deep of the Deity without end and number [or measure.]

57. But every Divine Creature (as are the Angels and souls of Men) hath the Virgin of the Wisdom of God, as an Image in the Light of Life; understand, in the Substantiality of the Spirit, wherein is the number Three, dwelling in itself.

^c Externally.

58. For we comprehend (before us) the number Three in the Image, viz. in the Virgin of the Wisdom of God; understand, ^c without our Person, we see only the Majesty of the Deity, for the Creature comprehendeth not the number Three, in the appearance to the eye; but the Spirit of the soul (which standeth in the Divine Center) seeth it, but not perfectly.

^d Total.

^e Various, distinct, and different.

^f Of different qualities and properties.

59. For the Spirit of a soul, is out of one form of Nature, and yet can bring forth in itself all forms of Nature. Seeing then there is nothing ^d whole and perfect, but only the number Three [or the Trinity,] therefore other [things] are ^e several, [or divided,] as there are various ^f sorts of Angels.

60. And so the Essences of the Center in God, [as to, or] with the Angelical Spirits, stand all in the Wonder, and God is manifested in a Creaturely Form, by the Angelical world; for they are all out of the Being of God.

61. We speak thus only concerning the Distinction of the Great Wonders in God. The spirits of Angels are not generated out of the substantiality which is without understanding; but out of the Center of the seven forms (or Spirits) of the Eternal Nature; out of each Form a Throne [Angel:] and out of the Throne [Angel] his Angels (or Ministers:) and therefore a whole ^g Dominion is fallen with Lucifer.

^g Or Hierarchy.

^h Worldly Dominion.

ⁱ Government.

62. And the Kingly and Princely Dominions [or Governments] of this world, have their original here; for seeing ^h it hath a principle of its own, therefore it hath all forms of the heavenly ⁱ: and though the flattering Hypocrites, the High Spirituality (as they call call themselves, who lift up themselves above Kings and Princes) will not believe it, yet it is true.

63. For the fierce Might of the Principle [of this world]. driveth its ^k order according to the Heavenly Form. And although the fierce Spirits (of the hidden seals) pour forth their Vials of anger herein, [in the Dominions and Governments of the Principle of this world,] and that the Devil getteth great Prey in it, what is that to the [heavenly] Ordinance [of Government?] Have we not Life and Death before us, and may chuse and take which we will? Who can blame God then? Every one may go whither he will, To whom he giveth himself a servant in obedience, his servant he is: and in that Kingdom he shall ever be, whether he be Prince or Servant. ^k Ordinance of Govern-ment.

64. And though one be a superior Leader and Ruler in this [worldly] Principle, yet he hath not [therefore] ^l Divine Authority, but in that Condition he is a Steward of the Principle, and is under the seals, which under his Government bring their Wonders to light. ^l Jus Divinum.

65. A Prince is as often a servant in obedience to the Devil, as a miserable Herdsmen is, and there is no difference between them, but in the Office they bear, which he beareth for God, and not ^m for himself.

66. For in the Courts of Kings and Princes, the Vials of wrath, of the hidden Seals (or Spirits) are poured forth; from whence come the Thundering, Lightning, and Wars, Contention and Strife upon Earth: which the flattering Hypocrites of the great Whore in Babel (which ride, as a God, upon the Beast, the might of Princes) continually blow up, by their sounding of their Trumpets: which Princes should take heed of, if they will prevent their going with the Whore into the Lake of Brimstone, of the wrath of God; as may be seen in the Apocalypse. ⁿ To.

The Gate of the Distinction between the Substantiality and the ⁿ Element. Also between Paradise and ^o Heaven. ⁿ The one-pure Element. ^o The Eternal Heaven.

Every substance hath its Form, which the Reader should understand to be one of these four, and we will show him the Distinction.

67. The Heaven standeth in the Matrix of the fountains, which in the Meekness is called the Water-spirit; and is the outward Inclosure [or Firmament] which parteth the Principles.

68. The substantiality is in the Heaven, and is the virtue or Corporeity of the seven Spirits of God, and is called the Body of God, which our hands are not able to comprehend or feel, and yet it is in substance, and comprehensible by the Spirit, for it is the Body of the Spirit; also the body of our soul if we be new-born in God: for it is Christ's body, which he giveth us in the Faith, to eat, as is to be seen in his Testaments: And the [one] Element leadeth the Principle therein as a moveable Life, which indeed is not the Spirit of God itself, but the Spirit of God hath this life and substantiality in him, as a body, and he is the first Spirit of understanding and of omnipotence.

69. For Paradise is the springing up out of the Essences in the Divine Center: which [Paradise] ^p goeth through all Forms, it goeth through the [one] Element, and through the substantiality, and also through the Heaven, as a springing of a pleasant Garden; therefore Adam, even in this world, was in Paradise. ^p Or Sprout-eth.

70. O dear Children, if ye understood this, how would you tread under foot the Contentions of the Sophisters. Much consisteth herein, which shall hereafter be shown you, so far as we ought: let none be wilfully blinded, nor be offended with the simplicity of this hand.

71. For if we will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, we must be children, and not cunning, and wise, in the understanding of this world; we must depart from our own Reason, and enter into obedience to our [Eternal] first Mother, and so we shall receive the spirit and life of our Mother, and then also we shall know her habitation.

72. No wit of our own attaineth the Crown of the mystery of God, it is indeed revealed in the Scriptures of the Saints, but the Spirit of this world apprehendeth it not. Herein no Doctors (though they have studied ever so much) have any ability in their own wit, to attain the Crown of God's secret Mysteries.

73. No one can in his own power apprehend any thing of the Depths of God, and teach it to another; but they are all children, and Scholars in their A. B. C. And though we write and speak highly thereof, yet the understanding is not our own, but the Spirit is of the Mother, which speaketh out of its children, what it will; it revealeth itself in ^a many forms, in one otherwise than in another, for its wondrous wisdom is a Deep without number, and you ought not to marvel, that the children of God have not one ^r manner of speech and word, for every one speaketh out of the wisdom of the Mother, whose number is without ground and infinite.

and manners.

74. But the limit is the Heart of God, they all run thither, and that is the Trial [or Touchstone] whereby you shall know, whether the Spirit speaketh from God, or from the Devil: for the Devil hath also his Matrix, and his children therein, who also speak out of the spirit of their Mother.

75. Here behold the flattering Hypocrites, the proud vain-glorious Boasters, who account themselves Masters, and sufficient able expounders of the Scriptures of the Saints, who say, we have studied in the mysteries of the Scriptures of the Saints, and we understand them sufficiently; and moreover [we have studied and taken our degrees in the University and] can make conclusions, and determine, thus we will believe, thus we will have the Scripture to be understood. And they Decree strict Laws, and severe punishment, against those that will not stick to their Laws, which they execute under the shelter and protection of a worldly power.

76. Is not this lifting up himself, in his own lust and glory, above God, as the Prophet Daniel speaketh concerning the hypocritical Antichrist: Take heed of those, ye Children of God; they speak from themselves, and not from the Spirit of God, they have not the Children's filial spirit of humility (in obedience and love) towards their Mother, much less towards her children: They devour the Children's Bread, and get their living with deceit.

77. They are the true murderers and Wolves, who in their conceived Opinions, and proud Conceits, stir up Wars and bloodshed, and set up all manner of wickedness and abominations: they are the great proud Whore of Babel, who ride in the Hearts of Princes; through them is poured out the vials of the wrath of God; and yet they call themselves the Lambs and sheep of Christ.

78. O ye Wolves! where is your ^r child's Garment? if you have sufficiently learned the hidden Mysteries of God, you are no children and Scholars [that go to School:] but [if you have] then live in the Wonders of the Mother, in her humility and purity in God's works of wonder, and we will believe you: Put off your proud Robe and Gown, and receive us poor A. B. C. Scholars into the Bosom of our Mother, and teach us ^r our Mother Tongue, and then we shall live together in unity as Brethren. But what shall they say of you? The Spirit of the Mother declareth concerning you, that you are the proud Whore of Babel, riding upon the Dragon, in the Revelation of Jesus Christ; there is your Looking-glass.

^r The Garment of our Mother's child.

^r The Language of our Mother.

The Gates of this World;
 [Also concerning the Language of Nature.]

79. Reason always asketh, Out of what is the Earth and Stones, also the Elements and ^a Stars, generated? We cannot know this in the Reason and Art of this world, neither can the Books of the Doctors teach it, we know it only in our Dear Mother, we see it in the Light of the Mother: but in this world we are blind concerning it, neither can we learn it of any body.

^a Or Constellations.

80. The Writings of the Saints and the Children of God tell us, that God created the World by his Wisdom, and by the Spirit of his Mouth; and it is so, neither have we any other knowledge, than that God hath revealed himself in his wisdom.

81. But this world is not his wisdom: but it is a Figure [come] out of his wisdom: it hath not the wisdom of God palpably, but the ^w Wonders of the Wisdom: and this world is only a similitude of the Deity, according to Love and Anger, in Nature and ^x without Nature.

^w Or Works.
^x Extra Naturam.

82. For behold the ^y Wheel of the Stars, and the seven Planets; and also the four Elements; ^z Fire, ^a Air, ^b Water, and ^c Earth; and then you shall find the ground, that it is all really an out-birth out of the Eternal Nature, where the Deity hath revealed itself comprehensibly [or palpably.]

^y Starry Sphere.

83. For the Spirit of God hath discovered the Image of God in the Virgin of his wisdom, and the Verbum Fiat hath created it: The Form of this world was from Eternity in the Nature of God, but invisible and immaterial.

84. * Then saith Reason: What was God's Creating? The word Schuff [which signifies Created] hath it in its own meaning, according to the Language of Nature: and if you would understand that Language, observe in your mind, how each word from the heart is framed in the mouth, and what the Mouth and the Tongue do with it, before the Spirit sendeth it forth.

[•] Note; Concerning the Language of Nature.

85. If you did apprehend this, you should understand every thing in its Name, why each thing is called as it is: it would be thus understood in the Language of every Nation, every one in their own Mother-tongue. And in this place lieth the heavy fall of Adam, in which we lost what we had in the [state of] Innocence; but in the Regeneration of Jesus Christ (according to the Inward Man) we have attained it again.

86. You must have the understanding of the Three Principles, for [the attaining of] the Language of Nature: for there are Three of them, that ^d form the Word, viz. Soul, Spirit, and Body. Behold! and observe whether it be so or no, as I tell you, concerning the Language of Nature; Try and consider of it, not only in the ^e word Schuff, [which signifies Created,] but in all Words and Names that are in every Language of every Nation, every one according to its own understanding [and meaning.]

^d Or Frameth the Word, as in an Image.
^e Or Syllable.

87. (Indeed it is not good that man should have known it, but since he is gone out of the Inward into the Outward, and standeth now in the Seeking, therefore he must enter again into the Inward, where, in this hidden Mystery, he beholdeth the mystery of the Creation.)

88. When you say Schuff, [which signifies Created,] the ^f Spirit formeth itself in the Mouth, and shutteth the Teeth together, and hisseth through the Teeth, as a kindled Fire that burneth, but openeth the Lips, and keepeth them open, and then goeth the pressure from the Heart, and the upper Teeth lean upon the under Lip, and the Tongue draweth back, and leaneth upon the lower Gums, and the spirit [or breath] thrusteth the syllable Schuff forth through the Teeth, and the word of distinction, which the syllable

^f Or Breath.

Schuff thrusteth forth, remaineth in its seat in the Heart, and doth not awaken the four Mother in the strong Might, so that it kindleth no Fire. [The R is the Character of the fire-source, for every Letter is a Spirit, and is a form of the Center, although by the transposing and turning of the word they alter, yet every Letter hath a meaning or understanding in the Center, but it is wonderful, and yet is apprehended in the sense when the Light is shining in the Center.]

^z Or from the Center of the Cross.

89. Behold! Man is the similitude of God: for his soul is ^z out of the Center upon the Cross, where the Eternal Word is Generated, comprehended by the Spirit of God, there the Spirit hath comprehended all the Three Principles, and brought them into a body; as we see, that the Spirit liveth from the inward and from the outward, viz. from the Spirit of the Center, as also from the Spirit of this world, viz. from the Air.

^h Alias, one and the same Center.

90. Now as the Spirit of Eternity hath formed and framed all things, so also the spirit of Man formeth them in his Word, for all ariseth from ^h his Center: for the human spirit is a form, figure, and similitude of the Number Three of the Deity; whatsoever God is in his Nature, that the Spirit of Man is in itself: and therefore he giveth every Thing its Name, according to the spirit and form of every thing, for the inward speaketh forth the outward.

91. And as this world was from Eternity hidden in the Nature of God, and stood in the Wisdom, and, as it may be said, hath a beginning and end from the Word of the Center, spoken forth from the outgoing spirit of the Center; (understand, out of the Substantiality of Nature, into a comprehensible substance, where this world appeareth as a Principle, having its own source and Government;) so also the Name and similitude of God, viz. this world, is in the Spirit of Man, and it speaketh them forth with its word in the same manner as they were spoken in the Nature of God, from the Spirit of God in the Wisdom, where then they were seen in the Light of God.

92. Observe it rightly, accurately, and deeply: the human spirit in its Threefold Form hath all the Three Principles in it, viz. the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Hell, and the Kingdom of this world; and it speaketh forth from itself, from the source, and form, of every Being, whether it be Heavenly, Earthly, or Hellish, as it hath been spoken forth [or expressed] by the Spirit of God from Eternity, in the invisible substance of the Eternal Nature, as a figure or spirit of the Word of God; and was without substance, till the A and O, and in the A and O, in the beginning and end: so also the spirit of Man speaketh it forth in beginning and end without substance, for the substance was once Created in the Creature.

ⁱ Enlightened by God.

93. And observe us thus further, concerning the Language of Nature, when we say: Im Anfang Schuff Gott Himmel und Erden [in the Beginning God Created Heaven and Earth] then we name [or express] all that, out of which Heaven and Earth was Created, and this the Mind ⁱ in the Light of God only understandeth.

^k Or of.

94. For as the form of this world was seen in the Light of God, before the substance [was,] so also the Mind in the Light of God seeth it in the Creation, as it is brought into Essence or Substance; for Nature in the spirit of Man, and Nature in the Spirit of God, according to the Three Principles, is of one [and the same] Essence or Substance, the human spirit is a perfect Sparkle ^k from it.

95. But you must know; that as the Eternal Nature has not the Glimpse and Might of the Majesty in its own power, so that it can comprehend the Number Three in Ternario Sancto, (although indeed the Number Three dwelleth in Nature, and yet there is a difference between the Seven Forms of Nature and the Number Three;) so there is also a distinction between the soul's spirit of Nature, and the Number Three of God, so that the spirit of the soul, when it imagineth back into Nature, into the Center of the Wrath, loseth the Majesty, and in the Wrath flieth out above the Majesty, and then may be called a Reprobate Devil [or cast-away.]

96. The Mind may understand the Word, and the forming of the Word, thus: Observe, when the Three-fold Spirit of Man saith Schuff, [which signifies Created,] then the Mind may observe the form of the Generation of the Word; first, the spirit [or breath] frameth the Word in the Mouth, and not in the Heart, and closeth the Teeth together, and hisseth through the Teeth, like a kindled fire, which denoteth the Comprehension: for the Lips open, and the hissing is the fire from whence goes the Air: understand it thus.

97. Before Time [was,] the world was in God, but without Substance: Now Lucifer, the Great Prince out of the Center of Nature, awakened and kindled the wrath and fire, which was not known in the Eternity; for he would domineer in the Might of the Fire, above God, and therefore the source of Fire became his Habitation.

98. And we mean here the stern Fiat, (viz. the Mother of Nature,) the sourness and hardness, which was kindled in its stern Might, and hath in the Center of Nature attracted together the substantiality of the stern Matrix out of the Numberless Essences, whence Earth, Stones, and Metals, have come to be.

99. For the Center was ¹ Sulphur, Mercurius, and Sal, and it [the Center] was but a ¹ Spirit, but in the stern Fiat (in the stern fierce attraction) it came to be such hard Stones, Metals, and Earth, all according to the Forms of the Essences: It is all become material: that which [before the Time] in the Nature of the dark wrathful substantiality ^m, was only as a raised dust, became in the attraction wholly gross, dry, and hard; and God would not have it so particularly before the Majesty, to speak in a Creaturely manner; and therefore it was suddenly in that instant together ⁿ Created to a proper Center of its own.

100. And here ariseth the Distinction of the Three Principles, which before was not known: for they were in one only Being, and were only known in the ^o Wisdom, before the Majesty, with their Distinction.

101. Observe the meaning right: as the Mouth formeth the word Schuff, [which signifies Created,] just so was the Creation formed: for the Lips open, and the upper Gums with the Teeth touch the under Lip, and the spirit [or breath] hisseth through the Teeth: and it is thus; As the Lips (viz. the outward inclosure) open, so hath the Matrix of the Genetrix opened itself, viz. in the Kindling: The hissing is the Fire, and out of the Fire [goes] the Air, as a spirit of the Matrix, which was now awakened, and was not before in the Center, but only in the Wisdom of the Number Three.

102. The Air [wind or breath] is not the spirit of the Number Three, but the awakened spirit out of the Matrix, viz. out of the Center of Nature: for the spirit of the Number Three is a cause of Nature, and hath in it the wisdom; but this [Spirit of the Air] is without understanding as the substantiality is.

103. And as the Fire hath its original from the Eternal Liberty, wherein it attaineth the sharpness of the wrathfulness; so also the Air-spirit, from the Holy Spirit, which giveth life and mobility to Nature; so Nature again sendeth forth the spirit, viz. the Air, out of its virtue, viz. out of the ^p inanimate substantiality, and hath its original in the Fire.

104. And observe further; how in the word Schuff, [which signifies Created,] the spirit [or breath] thrusteth the impression or pressure from the Heart, which overtaketh the kindled fire, and holdeth it captive: and so the Water-source overtaketh the fire, and holdeth it captive.

105. For the Water ariseth from the substantiality, and from the being overcome; and the ' Fire, ' Air, ' Water, and ' Earth, are all gone forth out of the Center of Nature, and before the kindling, were all in one being, but with the kindling were known in four forms, which are called four Elements, and yet are in one another as one, and there is no more but one; there are not four Elements in Heaven, but one: yet all the four forms lie hidden therein, and with the kindling they become active, and now they stand in the outward substance, comprehensible to the Creatures.

106. Observe also further; that as the under Lip toucheth the upper Teeth, and the Spirit stays in the Mouth, and thrusteth the word Sebuff through the Teeth, where the Tongue draws back towards the lower Gums, and will not frame the word Sebuff, but letteth the Spirit thrust it through the Teeth: So observe, the Spirit of God hath driven forth the four Elements, which are the four forms, which appeared in the substance, ex Ternario sancto, out of the Holy Ternary, into the outward, and made an inclosure therein [or a Firmament] which is called Heaven: and the Holy Spirit stays in Heaven, and leaveth the four forms to their own Dominion, and then they appear as a Principle having power of their own.

^o Or Typifies, denotes, or betokens.

107. For the Tongue ^o signifieth the Spirit of God, and the four Elements [signify] the Spirit of the Center, together with the Center itself.

108. Thus we understand here in the Word, Three Principles; whereas in the Original there is but one: for we understand by the kindling, the Center of Nature, in the Center of the Globe of the Earth, and that in the Matrix of the Genetrix, there is a very earnest stern Dominion, out of which Earth and Stones are proceeded, and therein one Principle consists.

^w Or closure.

^z Essence, Being, or Thing.

109. And then, secondly, we understand, that there is a Dominion of Meekness, which overcomes the Wrath, and holds it captive, as we see in the source [or property] of Water, that it captivates the Fire, and yet the property of the Fire remaineth therein, with its whole Dominion of all forms of the dry hunger, wherein consisteth the Abyfs of Hell in the Anger of God. Also we understand, that there is the ^w Firmament (between these two Principles) which is called Heaven, by the shut Mouth, both in the Word and in the outward ^z Substance. For the Spirit, the Air, giveth Life to the outward meek water, as it goeth forth with the pressure from the Heart through the Teeth in the Word, and so there is a Dominion and Life Externally, which yet ariseth from the Internal, and yet the outward captivates the Inward.

110. And thus the Spirits of the Darkness lie in the Abyfs, captivated in the [property, or] source of the Anger, and have no power of their own in this world; and here the subtlety of the Devil in the Might of the fire is cast down to the Ground, in the sinking.

111. Open the Eyes of your Minds, you Seekers, and seek here the Abyfs, wherein the Devils dwell in the Elements, and not afar off, as if they were far absent, as ye have done hitherto. Mark this.

112. And we understand, that there is the Third Principle in the Word, and also in the power of Creating: for the Tongue inclineth to the lower Gums, and lets the two Dominions go away through the Teeth, and holdeth its Dominion without any awakening of the Heart.

^y Scope or meaning.

^x The second.

113. Thus observe the ^y Ground; the second Principle, (viz. the Kingdom of God,) is in the midst in both the Principles, that is, is not awakened or enkindled with the kindling: for it remaineth as it was from Eternity, and is not altered therein, neither increased nor diminished; in the Creation there is nothing added nor taken away from it: and ^z this Principle has the right spirit of wisdom and of understanding; which has severed the fierce wrathful and the meek [Principle asunder,] and each of them has its life awakened in it.

114. And we give you to understand, that it is neither captivated nor shut up by the inward or the outward : It sprouteth in both, for it is the Might of both : In the Inward it sprouteth in angry ^a Zeal, with great wonders and powers, where all forms are working, and therefore in those Creatures stick all wit and cunning, craft and subtlety, as in the Devils, who bring ^b to pass all Wonders in the wrathful Matrix : as the Histories in the world, concerning the Children of Wrath, testify.

^b Or to being.

115. And in the Outward it Sprouteth through the Meekness with the power [and virtue] of Life, which goes forth from the Heart of God, through the Spirit of God ; and that sprouting [or vegetation] is called Paradise, and is a sprout in the Children of God, together with which, the soul also sprouteth : for in this sprouting the new body of the soul grows in the [one] Element, in the substantiality, before the Number Three in Ternario sancto.

116. And here we give you to understand in a true Ground, as we certainly know it, that the Paradise is in this world, and also without this world, and that God dwelleth in this world, and yet is every where ; and the source [or property] only ^c maketh the difference.

^c Or is.

117. For the Angelical World is manifested in the Paradise, but it is apprehended only in the paradisaical source [or property,] viz. in the [one] Element, and not in the going forth, in the Dominion of the four Elements.

118. For the Four Elements are in another Principle of another property [or source,] also have another Light, viz. the Sun. But in the Pure Element, the ^d things of this world is only as a figure, which is not palpable, and there the four distinctions are in one, and that maketh no Darkness. And there the Liberty of God without Nature shineth in the Glance of the Majesty, but in the four Out-births there is a Darkness, for the Things [thereof] are gross and palpable.

^d Substance or beings.

119. For the Heaven, which is a distinction between the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of this world, is a Firmament with all forms of Corporeity, and is the veil on our Eyes, for we have Firmamental Eyes, and therefore we cannot see the Kingdom of God.

120. And that is the heavy Fall of Adam, that his Eyes and Spirit entered into the Outward, into the four Elements, into the palpability, viz. into Death, and there they were blind as to the Kingdom of God.

121. For the outward, in the four Out-births out of the [pure] Element, (viz. the Substance of the four Elements,) hath a beginning and end, and is corruptible : and therefore all things that live in it must corrupt.

122. For the Principle of the Outward World passeth away again ; for it hath a Limit, so that it goeth into its Ether again, and the four Elements into One again, and then God is manifested, and the virtue and power of God springeth up as a Paradise again in the [One] ^e only Element ; and there the multiplicity or variety of things come into one again ; but the figure of every thing remaineth standing in the [one] only Element.

123. For all things are come to a corporeal substance (to [the manifestation of] God's works of wonder) that they might be seen Eternally by the Creatures, viz. Angels and Men : which, before the time of the world, were manifested only in the Wisdom of God, and now shall stand in substantiality in the presence of God.

124. Ye dear children of God (in Christ Jesus) open the eyes of your Mind : raise your mind up out of this world into the Element before God, [that is, into the glassy sea, or Angelical world :] and the Creation shall be rightly shown to you here, and let not the Sophisters and Jugglers befool you, and lead you astray.

125. For the Paradise, which the souls of the holy children of God go into, (when the body deceaseth) is in the very place where the body deceaseth: it is also in the Earth, it is in all the four Elements; not divided, but entirely every where.

126. For in the pure Element (out of which the four Elements proceed) is the Paradise: it is a sprouting out from the substantiality before God: its life and understanding is the Holy Spirit of the Number Three of God; its Light is the glance of the Majesty of the Number Three; the Matter only is about the Outward. When the four Elements in Man break, then is the soul already in the Paradise, or in the Abyss of the Center in the Dark Matrix, all according to that wherein the soul was grown in this [life] time upon Earth.

† Resolution
into God and Goodness.

127. If it has set its † imagination upon God, then it is grown in Paradise, and the stuffed dark body hath but covered it, during this [life] time.

128. But if it be grown in the stern wrath, in falsehood and in pride, to fly out above Paradise, then it flies in high-mindedness in the stern Matrix aloft over Paradise out, and cannot get inwards into the Meekness; and there it is in Hell with the proud Devil.

129. For after this life, there is no regeneration more; for the four Elements and the outward Principle (wherein the Genetrix stood in the working and Creating) are gone; it has no more to expect after this Time, but only (when at the end of this Time, this Principle shall go into the Ether, that the substantiality which hath been from Eternity, shall be free again) that it shall get a body again out of the property [and source] of its own Mother, where then all its works in its Mother shall appear before it.

130. For the Last Day is only to awaken again that which slept, and to break the Death which is in the four Elements: For the veil must be done away, and all that which is generated out of the Eternal, must spring up again and live.

131. But that which is Generated out of the Death, viz. out of the four Elements, as the Beasts, and every living Thing of the four Elements, attains no body any more; and if the spirit of it be generated only in the four Elements, it breaketh with the four Elements also, and the Figure only remaineth of the Elementary Substance, viz. of the four Out-births.

† Death.

132. But that which is out of the Eternal (out of the Center of the Eternal Life) is and remaineth for ever: even all words and works which are generated out of the Eternal, remain in the Substance of the Figure: but they cannot remain for ever in the Spirit and power, for a word of a † Spirit doth not proceed from the Eternity, but hath its beginning in the outward Principle.

133. And therefore every Spirit will have joy and sorrow in its works and words in Eternity, all according as it is in its place and source, or property. For, when the Spirit shall consider with itself its source [or condition,] and why it is in the place where it is, then the source or property of its words and works ascend in it; and giveth it joy or sorrow, according to the condition or source and place that it is in, every one in [that which is] its own duly.

134. But you must know, that the sins, evil works and words of the new Regenerate in Christ, sprout out from the Death of Christ, (into which the Children of Christ are again entered from their sins,) and shall receive another source [or property:] and in the beholding and considering of them, the Spirit shall make a Hymn of thanks to the praise of God's works of wonder; as Esaias saith, Though your sins were red as blood, (if you turn,) they shall be as wool, white as snow. And yet you must know, that in the life to come they shall appear in the Figure, but in another source [or property.] Mark this, ye children of God, for much is herein contained.

135. From this Ground we know, that Adam in his Innocence before his sleep, (which signifieth Death, when he had imagined into the spirit of the four Elements,) was in this world in Paradise; and yet it might well be said, not in this world; he was indeed in this world upon the face of the Earth, but in a paradisaical source [or property] in the Dominion of the [one pure] Element, and not in the four Elements.

136. But when he entered into the four Elements, he Entered into Death, and his body became like a Beast; and the Earth was cursed from the Lord, so that it bore no more Paradisaical Fruit: For Adam was driven out, into the outward Principle: and there he must eat Earthly Fruit, and open [or manifest] the Wonders of the Outward Principle, and so he instantly became Earthly.

137. For his body was from the Earth, and Created out of the Earth, but it was not Earth, [no more than Gold is Earth, though it groweth in the Earth, and proceedeth from the Earth,] for it was Ex Matrice, ex Massa; [from the Matrix, out of a Mass;] understand, out of the substantiality, out of which the Earth was originally generated and created. The pure Element is also in the Earth, as also Paradise: and it is only the source [or property] that maketh the alteration, wherein the Light of God is detained.

138. Adam would be as God in all the Three Principles; and the Serpent also persuaded Eve to it, that if she would Eat of the fruit of the Earth, she should know good and evil: indeed evil enough, care, misery, and sorrows, in the Death of the four Elements.

139. And therefore seeing the four Elements must break, thence it is, that ^b Corruption is in Man's Body; and the soul (which is taken out of the Eternal) remaineth in the Eternal: therefore there must come a heavenly body out of the pure Element again, out of the substantiality [which is] before God, out of the Matrix of the Earth, like the first Body which was in Adam, and must ⁱ receive our human soul into it, and ^k Enter into Death, and bring us out of Death on the Cross into the Element again, into the substantiality in the presence of God, in Ternarium sanctum: [into the Holy Ternary:] For Adam's soul was taken on the Cross in the Eternal Center, where the Heart of God ariseth from Eternity, and was breathed into the Created Body of Adam from the Spirit of God: and therefore the Heart of God must ^l become Man.

ⁱ Or assume our human soul.
^k Or suffer Death.

^l Or be incarnate.

140. And as Adam was entered into the Earthly Cross, into the Death of the four Elements; so must the New Adam (Christ) suffer himself to be ^m Hanged on the Earthly Cross, and enter into the Earthly Elementary Death; for Death sticketh not only in the Earth, but also in the Air, and Adam desired also with his Imagination, not [to enter] into the Earth, but into the Air: he lusted after the Spirit of the Principle of this world, and it laid hold on him: And so he fell also into the Earth.

^m Crucified.

141. For the four Elements are altogether in one another, and the Ground [or Foundation] upon which they stand, is the Fire of the fierce Anger of God, wherein the Devils dwell, as is above mentioned.

142. * And so the New Adam (Christ) must enter into the Abyfs of the four Elements, * Note. viz. into the Hellish Fire of the Wrath, and ⁿ pass through the Hell of the wrath, ⁿ Or pass. through Death, and bring the human soul again into the Paradise of God.

143. And therefore the New Adam (Christ) was [Tempted or] Tried forty Days in the Wilderness, whether he could stand in the Paradisaical source [or property,] and so eat only Paradisaical Fruit, which groweth in the source [or property] from the Essences of the Spirit of God; and there he did eat, ex verbo Domini, [of the Word of the Lord,] and not at all of the four Elements.

144. For he did bear also the Earthly Image, and there the New Heavenly must overcome the Earthly, and the soul must enter again into the new heavenly body, that the Earthly may but only hang to it: And thus also was Adam Created in the beginning.

145. He was to eat of Paradise, whose Property should rule over the Earthly ; and though he was in the four Elements, yet he was to live in the Pure Element, and then he might have continued so Eternally ; though the Outward Principle should be broken, yet he should have remained.

146. For he was in Paradise, and not in the four Elements ; but when he entered into them, he entered into Death ; and the Anger of God, in the Abyfs of Hell, captivated the soul, which Christ brought forth from thence again.

147. O ye Children of Men ! Mark what is revealed to you, do not account it a fiction and a History. It is known in Ternario Sancto, in the open seal of the Seventh Form, in the Center, therefore consider what it is.

148. Hereby is signified to you the final breaking of the outward Principle : Trim your Lamps, the Bridegroom is ready, his Trumpet soundeth, the Seventh Angel from the Throne of Heaven soundeth : The Myfteries of the Kingdom of God shall be accomplished at the time of his founding, and then there is no time more in the four Elements ; but then the Eternal Time in the Element in the Life of God, and the Time in the Abyfs, goeth on.

* Or finished.

149. Go out from the Languages in Babel : for we all speak but one only Language in Jerusalem. Babel burneth in the Fire, [or confounded Christendom is kindled in Wars, Contention, and Strife, in Famine, and Pestilence, in the Anger of God.] Amén.

The Sixth Chapter.

The Two Gates : Of the World, and also of Paradise : most highly to be considered.

Note ; more of the Language of Nature.

1. WE have shown you before, the Ground of the Language of Nature, how Adam gave Names to Every thing, and out of what God spoke to Adam, viz. out of the Life of the Birth, as we speak at this very Day : and if we consider ourselves therein, we find the whole Ground in Heaven and in this world : and we see it well enough with Earthly Bodily Eyes, that it is true : we need no other Testimony, than the Great Book, Heaven and Earth, the Stars and Elements, together with the Sun, wherein we well know the similitude of the Deity.

2. And yet a thousand times better, in ourselves, if we know and consider ourselves ; for the Spirit giveth every thing its Name, as it standeth in the Birth in itself ; and as it formed them in the beginning, in the Creation, so it also formeth our Mouth ; and as they are generated out of the Eternal Being, and are come to a substance, so the human Word goeth also forth out from the Center of the Spirit, in shape, property, and form, and it is no other, than that the Spirit maketh such a substance, as the Creation itself is, when it expresth the form of the Creation.

3. For it formeth the Word of the Name of a Thing, in the Mouth, as the Thing was in the Creation : And hereby we know that we are God's Children, and Generated of God : for as God from Eternity hath had the substance of this World in his Word, which he hath always spoken in his Wisdom, so we have ^a it in our Word also, and we speak it forth in the Wonders of his Wisdom.

4. For God is himself the ^r Being of all Beings, and we are as Gods in him, through whom he revealeth himself; we see that a Beast cannot express, [viz. it cannot give any thing its name according to its property,] which is because it comes not out from the Eternity as Man doth, it bleateth and barketh, as the form of the Out-birth of the four Elements is, and hath no higher Spirit than the Elements are, though their flitting senses [or perceptions] are from the ^t Constellations, which yet are dumb [or inarticulate,] and without ^t comprehension of any substance.

5. Now therefore we will set before you the Ground of the Heavens, the Stars and Elements, fundamentally, that you may yet see what is Heavenly, and what is Earthly; what is Transitory and Mortal, and what is Eternal and Permanent. To which end only we have purposed to ourselves to write this Book; not to boast of our high knowledge, which is in God, and is no worldly profit to us, but out of Love, in Christ, as a Servant, and Minister of Christ; to seek the lost Sheep of the House of the Israel of God.

6. For the Lord hath both the willing and the doing in his hands; we are able to do nothing; also our Earthly Reason understandeth nothing: we are yielded into our Mother's Bosom, and do as the Mother showeth us, we know not of any body else, we are not born with it, from the wisdom of this world, neither do we understand it; but what is bestowed upon us, that we bestow again; and we have no other purpose herein, neither do we know to what end [we must write these high things,] but merely what the Spirit showeth us, that we set down.

7. And thus we labour in our Vineyard, into which the ^u Master of the House hath put us, hoping also to eat of the pleasant sweet Grapes, which indeed we have very often received out of the Paradise of God. We will so speak as for [the use of] many, and yet we think we write it but for ourselves, all which is hidden in God: for the fiery driving will have it so, as if we did speak of and for Many; and yet I know nothing of it.

8. Therefore if it shall happen to be read, let none account it for a work of outward Reason; for it hath proceeded from the Inward hidden Man, according to which this hand hath written without respect of any person.

9. And therefore we exhort the Reader, that he will enter into himself, and behold himself in the Inward Man, and then we shall be very sweet and acceptable to him; this we speak seriously and faithfully.

10. When we consider ourselves rightly, in this ^v knowledge, we see clearly, that hitherto we have been locked up, and led as it were blindfold; and they are even the Wife of this world, who have shut and barred us up in their Art and Reason, so that we must [be tied to] see with their Eyes, both in Philosophy and ^x Theology.

11. And this Spirit, which hath so long led us captive, may well be called the Antichrist, I find no other Name in the Light of Nature, which I can call it by, but the Antichrist in Babel.

12. Observe it well, and you shall see it riding, it shall rightly be showed to you, you need no spectacles, or ^y Academy, [to see it withall:] It rideth over the whole world, in all Corners, Cities, Towns and Villages, over body and soul: and therefore the Angel in the Revelation bids us, Go out from it.

13. It is so proud, that it rideth aloft over Heaven and Earth, yea over the Deity: it is [like] a ^z King riding over the Principle of this World, and over Hell. But whither wilt thou ride, thou proud Woman? when this Principle breaketh, thou art then without God with all Devils. Why dost not thou stay here among the Children?

14. O Adam! if thou hadst not mounted upon the proud Beast, thou hadst remained with the Children of God in Paradise: What doth it avail thee, that thou ridest in a strange Principle, over God? Were it not better for you to be in God? What availeth your Astral wit, that you ride as you own God in Pride? you ride merely in Death: Who will bring you out from thence, if you light not off from your Beast? There is none neither in Heaven nor in this world, that can bring you out from thence, but only a lowly simple slain Lamb, who hath not the wisdom of this world. How will you get out, when you ride upon a Dragon? The Lamb fleeth before thy Beast, it will not bring thee into its Pasture.

15. If you Light off, and pull off your Dressing, and go in the form of a Child to the Lamb, then you may catch it, it goeth willingly with you, if you play like a child with it in simplicity; you must not ride upon it: But if you [offer to] ride upon it, it fleeth from you, and you find not its Pasture, neither can you light off your Beast, it will not let you, it holdeth you fast, unless you hear the bleating [or voice] of the Lamb; at which the Beast trembleth, and falleth to the Ground, and then you may flee [or go out from Babel.] If you understand not this, you are held fast by the Beast, and you ride in Babel in the Confusion.

16. My dear seeking and hungry Mind, if you would fain be released from the Beast, consider what we here shall show you; we will not push with horns, and cast you with the Dragon into the Abyss, do but light off, and incline your ear to the voice of the Lamb, go forth from your outward Man, into the Inward Man, and so you shall come to your true Native Country, into Paradise.

17. The desirous Seekers have found out many difficult things, and brought them to light, and always thought to find the Pearl of the Creation of this world, and it had been much nearer found, but that the Time of the seventh Seal or Angel was not yet come; the six Angels must first sound their Trumpets, and pour forth their Vials: therefore none should contemn ^a another, for he knoweth not under what voice every one hath been: only that is ^b come to pass, which should ^c come to pass.

23. Or do you suppose we speak without knowledge, and alone? [by ourselves?] No; the Book of the Revelation of Jesus Christ shows us, that the innermost ^k Court of the Temple shall be cast out, and given to the Heathen, who know not the Name of Christ, but press with earnestness into God, and so they come to him ignorantly.

24. And this is that which Isaiab saith; I am found of them that sought me not, neither did they enquire after me. For my Name, the ^l L O R D, was not revealed unto them: and thus they are children not in Name, but in Will: But when the Driver goeth away to his own place, then we live together as Children, with our Father Adam, (in Christ;) out of whose Loins, life, and spirit, we are all propagated, and begotten to life through Christ.

25. Or dost thou boast of thy Calling, that thou art a Christian, or a Jew? Indeed let thy Conversation be accordingly, or else thou art but a Heathen in the Will and in the Deed. He that knoweth his Master's Will and doth it not, must receive many stripes.

26. Or dost thou not know what Christ said concerning the two Sons; when the Father said to one of them, go and do such a thing, and he said he would, and the other said no; and the first went away and did it not; but the other that said no, went away and did it, and so performed the will of his Father: and the other that was under the Name of Obedience, [or who in word was obedient, or had the name to be so,] did it not.

27. And we are all such, one and other, we bear the name of Christ, and are called Christians, and are within his Covenant: we have said yes, we will do it; but they that do it not, are unprofitable servants, and live without the will of the Father.

28. But if the Turks (as also the Jews) do the Father's will, who say to Christ No, and know him not, Who is now their Judge, to thrust them out from the will of the Father? Is not the Son the Heart of the Father? and then if they honour the Father, they lay hold also on his Heart: for without, or beyond his Heart, there is no God.

29. Or dost thou suppose, that I ^m confirm them in their blindness, that they should go on as they do? No: I show thee thy blindness, O thou that bearest the name of Christ! and thou judgest others, and yet dost the same thing which thou judgest in others, and so thou wilfully bringest the judgment of God upon thyself. ^{m Or encourage.}

30. HE that saith, Love your enemies, do well to them that persecute you, doth not teach you to judge and despise, but he teacheth you the way of Meekness: you should be a Light to the world, that Heathens might see by your works that you are the Children of God.

31. If we consider ourselves according to the true man, who is a true similitude and Image of God, then we find God in us, and ourselves without God. And the only remedy consisteth herein, that we enter again into ourselves, and enter into God, in our hidden Man. If we incline our wills in true earnest singleness to God, then we go with Christ out of this world, out from the Stars and Elements, and enter into God; for in the will of Reason, we are children of the Stars and Elements, and the Spirit of this world ruleth over us.

32. But if we go out from the will of this world, and enter into God, then the Spirit of God ruleth in us, and establisheth us for his children; and then also the Garland of Paradise is set upon the soul, and then it becometh a child without understanding as to this world, for it loseth the Master [or Ruler] of this world, who formerly ruled it and led it in Reason.

33. O Man! Consider who leadeth and driveth thee; for Eternally without end, is very long: Temporal honour and Goods are but dross and dung in the sight of God: It all falleth into the Grave with thee, and cometh to nothing; but to be in the will of God, is Eternal Riches and honour: there, there is no more care, but our Mother careth for us, in whose Bosom we live as children.

34. Thy Temporal Honour is thy ⁿ Snare, and thy Misery in Divine hope [and confidence] is thy Garden of Roses: Patience is a precious herb; O how gloriously wilt thou be crowned! what is brighter than the Sun? and yet thou shalt be far brighter; thou wilt obtain a Garland in Ternario Sancto, [viz. in the Angelical World, in the Eternal Essentiality, before the Holy Trinity.] ^{n Pit-fall Trap, or Gin.}

35. Or dost thou suppose again, that we speak historically? No, We speak the very life, in our own knowledge [or Experience,] not in an Opinion from the mouth of another, but from our own Mouth: we see with our own Eyes; which we boast not of, for the Power is the Mother's; but we exhort thee, to enter into the Bosom of the Mother, and learn also to see with thy own Eyes: so long as you suffer yourselves to be rocked in a Cradle, and desire the Eyes of others [which are strange Eyes in respect of your own] you are blind. But if you rise up from the Cradle, and go to the Mother, then you shall see the Mother and her children.

o Or lulled asleep.

36. O how good it is to see with one's own Eyes. One that is blind, and seeth not the light of this world, is accounted as one that is asleep and dreameth: for he beareth of the Pomp of the World, but he knows it not: he apprehendeth it by bearsay, and many times thinks it is better, or worse, than it is, because he seeth it not, and so imagines it by that which is said; but he that seeth the light, he speaketh according to the Truth, for he apprehendeth the Thing as it is.

37. So also I say, we are all asleep in the outward Man, we lie in the Cradle, and suffer ourselves to be rocked asleep by Reason; we see with the Eyes of the dissimulation of our Hypocrites, who hang Bells and Baubles about our Ears and Cradles, that we may be lulled asleep, or at least play with their Baubles, that they may be Lords and Masters in the House.

38. O Blind Reason! Rise up from thy Cradle: art thou not a Child of the Mother, and an heir to the Goods, and moreover a Child and Lord of the House: why sufferest thou thy servants thus to use thee? Christ saith, I am the Light of the World, he that followeth me, shall have the Light of the Eternal Life. He doth not direct us to the flattering Hypocrites, Murderers, and Contenders; but only to himself: we should see (with the Inward Eyes) in his Light, and so we should see him, for he is the Light: when we see him, then we walk in the Light: He is the Morning Star, and is Generated in us, and riseth in us, and shineth in our Bodily Darknes.

39. O how great a Triumph is there in the soul, when he ariseth, then a Man seeth with his own Eyes, and knoweth that he is in a strange Lodging. Concerning which we will here write, what we see and know in the Light.

40. We are children of the Eternity: but this world is an out-birth out of the Eternal; and its palpability taketh its original in the Anger, the Eternal Nature is its Root; but that which is an Out-birth is corruptible, because it hath not been from Eternity: and it must all return into the Eternal Essences, [out of which it was born.]

p Or caused by the wresting Wheel.

41. The Stars are out of the Center of Nature, they are the Essences of the Seven Forms of Nature, and from each form there goes another [Form,] all ^p from the wrestling Wheel of Nature, and therefore they are so various and numberless in our account: Though indeed there is a certain number of them, whereby we know that they must enter again into the Ether.

42. For in the Eternal Center there is no Number, [or Measure,] but it is the Omni-potence in the springing up without number; for that which can be numbered or comprehended, is not Eternal, it hath a beginning and end: But we know that the spirit and soul of Man hath no beginning and end, nor can it be numbered [or measured:] which we understand by the Constellations of the mind, from whence so many thoughts arise, which are numberless; for out of one Thought in a while, there may go forth many more, as many as the Stars in the Firmament, wherein we highly know our Eternity, and do most highly rejoice, that we know it.

q Or observe us well here.

43. ^q Understand us right, how this world is in the Ground and foundation of it. The Eternal Center, and the Birth of Life, and the Substantiality, are every where. If you make a small Circle, as small as a little ^r Grain, [or kernel of Seed,] there is the whole Birth of the Eternal Nature, and also the Number Three in Ternario sancto [contained] therein: but you include not, nor comprife the Eternal Nature, much lefs the Number Three, but you comprehend the Out-birth of the Center: the Eternal Nature is incomprehensible, as God also is.

^r As small as a Mite, Point, or Atom.

44. When I take up any thing and carry it away, I do not carry away the Eternity, much lefs God: and yet the Eternity is in that very thing, but the thing is ^r out-born, and stirreth not the Eternity; and that which is out-born comprehendeth not the Eternity, but the Eternity comprehendeth that which is out-born thoroughly without stirring; for the Eternity, as also the Deity, is in one place as well as in another, [every where:] for there is no place [in the Eternity,] but the out-birth maketh a place and room. Therefore God saith, I am A and O, the Beginning and the End.

45. This world maketh a beginning, and God in the Number Three [not without it] is the beginning, and it also maketh an end, and that is the Eternity, and also God: For before [the time of] this world there was nothing but God from Eternity; and after this world, there will be nothing but God in Eternity: but the cause why we comprehend not this, is because there is no comprehensibility in God. For where there is a Comprehensibility [as there is in the Trinity] there is beginning and end. And therefore we are shut up in darkness, that we might labour and manifest God, as we have mentioned to you concerning the Seven Forms of Nature, what an Eternal labour there is therein, so that one form generateth another, till they are all brought to Light, and so the Eternal is manifest in a Threefold Form, which otherwise would not be known.

46. And we declare unto you, that the Eternal Being, and also this world, is like Man: The Eternity generateth nothing but that which is like itself, for there is nothing in it but is like it, and it is unchangeable, or else it would ^r pass away, or it would come to be some other thing, and that cannot be.

^r Or cease to be.

47. And as you find Man to be, just so is the Eternity: consider Man in body and soul, in good and evil, in joy and sorrow, in light and darkness, in power and weakness, in life and death: All is in Man, both Heaven and Earth, Stars, and Elements; and also the Number Three of the Deity; neither can there be any thing named that is not in Man; all Creatures, (both in this world, and in the Angelical world,) are in Man. All of us, together with the whole Essence of all Essences, are but one body, having many members, each member whereof is a Total: and each member hath but one ^v several work.

^v Peculiar, singular, individual faculty or Office.

48. O Man! seek thyself, and thou shalt find thyself. Behold! thy whole Man [consisteth of] Three Principles, one whereof is not without the other, one of them is not beside or above the other, but they are in one another as one, and they are but one thing; but according to the Creation they are Three.

49. You will say, how can that be? Adam's soul was out of the Eternal will, out of the Center of Nature, upon the Cross of the Number Three, where light and darkness part; understand, he was not a divided sparkle, as a piece of the whole, for he is no piece, but totally all, as there is a Total in ^w every Punctum.

^w Point or Atom.

50. Now the Eternal Center maketh the Eternal substantiality, (viz. the sinking down and springing up, whence the stirring of the Elements ariseth, as also penetration and multiplication, whereas there is only such a kind of Spirit;) and the substantiality is the body, and a weakness, for it is a sinking down, and the Spirit is the springing up.

51. Now the Spirit created the Substantiality into an Image, like the Cross of the Number Three, and breathed in the Spirit of the Number Three, viz. himself, and so the Image ^x Existed: and then instantly out of the Substantiality of the Image sprung up the bloffom of the Effences, which is called Paradise: and thus stood the Image in the Angelical World.

52. And so there is nothing less in the Image, than in the Center of Nature, viz. the original of sourness, wrathfulness, and of fire, also all the forms of Nature; whatsoever was seen from Eternity in the Wisdom, that was all in this Image, also the power to light and darkness; and the Wisdom stood in the light of the Image, wherein stand all the Eternal Wonders, even the Image of every Creature, in the sinking down of Death, and in the source [or property] of the Paradisical Life.

53. This we understand to be the Matrix of the Genetrix in the darkness; viz. that out of which Angels and Devils come to be, as is above mentioned. This ^y source was wholly in the Image, for it was a whole similitude of the Eternal Being; as Moses writeth concerning it, that God made Man ^z his Image: so that it may be said, (if one did see Man standing in Paradise,) here is the whole Eternity manifested in an Image, to speak in a creaturely Manner of it; and yet it is so truly and rightly in the understanding.

^z According to, for, or to be his Image.

54. Now, as Lucifer by his flying out, in the source of the Fire, imagined beyond the still meek Number Three above the Cross in the Majesty, and so awakened to himself the Matrix of the Fire in himself, and kindled the Matrix of Nature; which kindling became corporeal, and was instantly together created by the Verbum Fiat, where also the second form of the Matrix, viz. the Meekness of the substantiality, was kindled together with it, out of which water came to be, which was ^a made an Heaven, (by which the Fire was captivated,) out of which the Stars were Generated; so you must understand also, that ^b the Image of God thus ^c Imagined after the awakened life, viz. after the awakened spirit of the Air, indeed the Air was together breathed into him, but the ^d spirit of the Center should over-rule it, as the Holy Spirit over [ruleth] this world: for he should live in the power ^e of God, and be a Lord over the four Elements, but in the fall they became his Lord. And now if he would live in God, he must enter into himself again, and likewise leave the Old Body to the four Elements, and must in himself be born in God. And so he was instantly also captivated by the Air of the Out-birth, and then the Stars, Elements, Heaven, Hell, Death, and Life, wrought together in him.

55. But seeing there is a Firmament created, between God and the Dominion of this world, by the Spirit of God, therefore man is composed of Three Parts, (viz. Three Principles.) One is the hidden Deity, which standeth in the Firmament of Heaven in itself as a Principle of its own; the Second is the Dominion of this world, viz. the Stars and Elements; and the Third is the Abyss of the Image, and also the Abyss of this world, viz. the Wrath, or the Matrix of Nature, out of which All things are proceeded.

56. And now the Image, viz. Man, is in the Midst, viz. between the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of Hell; between Love and Anger: and to which of these two Spirits he yieldeth, its [servant] he is.

57. And though Man casteth himself into the Anger, yet the Deity loveth nothing; for the first Breathing in, viz. the Spirit of God itself, hath its principle to itself, and is not touched by the Anger; just as the Number Three dwelleth in the midst of the Anger, and yet the Anger stirreth it not, nor knoweth it, therein is neither feeling nor seeing.

58. For the Image stirreth the source of the Anger: and the first in-breathed Spirit, springeth up in the Image, in the fierceness of Pride; according as it hath built up itself in this [life] Time; and yet the first in-breathed Form loveth nothing. For that source [or property] is not in the Image; but it goeth back again into its Principle, with the Beauteous virgin of wisdom: and the Image of Man cometh to be the Image of the Serpent.

59. For

59. For as the Spirit is, so is the Body; and in what will the Spirit lies in such a form and source [or property] it figures the body also.

60. So we know now, that all cometh out of one only fountain, and that the palpable substance of this world has had a beginning, and therefore it is also ^f Mortal; for whatsoever is not from Eternity is mortal.

61. But that the Image of Man might subsist, (which also hath a beginning as to the body,) therefore God is become Man, and dwelleth again in the soul, and the soul attaineth again the first Image without this world; yet those only, who with the Spirit of the Soul incline themselves to God: and here it may be said, We must be Born a-new, or be lost Eternally in Hell, and [thrust out] from God.

62. Thus we say with [good] Ground, that the starry Heaven, viz. the Third Principle of this world, was created also as a Total ^g Body, having a ^h Circumscription, and standeth ⁱ just like the Center of Nature; whatsoever thou seest in this Great Circumference, the same is also in the smallest ^k Circle: and the whole Principle of this world outwardly, is only a manifestation and discovery of the Eternity in God. It hath its rising, ^l station, and generating, like the Eternal Nature; and as the Eternal Nature doth always generate itself, and hath its original from Eternity to Eternity, just so is this visible Dominion of this world Generated and Created.

63. For it hath a high round Circumference like a Circle, and there stand the ^m Constellations: and after that, the great Deep, which resembles the Eternal Liberty of God: now the seven Planets are in the Deep, which resemble the seven Spirits of Nature, and the Stars [resemble the Effects or] Essences proceeding out of the Spirits of Nature: and the Sun is in the midst of the Planets, which maketh the four quarters of the World, and it standeth in the Point, as in a ⁿ Cross, and resembles the Heart of God: Its Luster ⁿ + in the Deep resembles the Majesty of God, where God dwelleth in himself, and is comprehended by nothing: and there is nothing of him seen but the Majesty, where the Center of Nature is known in all Heavenly Images out of the Eternal.

^m Or fixed Stars.

64. The Earth resembles the sinking down of the Eternal Death in the Dark Matrix: and yet there is no Death therein, but a springing up of the fierce Essences: and thus it resembles a form in the Center, and a peculiar Self-dominion, and is a figure [or Type] of Hell: as a hidden Dominion in the Darkness

65. And as the Earth, in Comparison of the upper Dominion, is counted as a Death, so the fierce Matrix of the Anger, is as a Death in comparison of God: and yet there is no Death in either, but an Eternal Life in a twofold source, [or property; viz. the Life in Eternal Joy, and the Life in Eternal Torment.]

66. And now we see that the Sun maketh the Great Deep above the Earth lovely, friendly, pleasant, and delightful; or else there would be no other [Rule, influence, or] Dominion, in the Deep, than is in the Earth: for if the Sun should ^o go out, there would be an Eternal Darkness, and the fierce four astringency would make all hard, rough, and harsh, and there would be an Eternal Coldness. And although every thing did move together like a wheel, yet there would be nothing seen but a flash of fire.

67. Thus we give you to understand concerning the Abyss of Hell, that it is in this world: and the Sun only is the cause of the Waters, which are the Heaven in the Deep. Moreover, by the Sun, the Heart of God may be understood, out of which the Light of the Majesty shineth: for the whole Center of the Eternity would be dark, if the light from the Heart of God did not shine therein.

68. But it is not so with the Heart of God, as with the Sun, that it should be a Globe standing in one place only: No, it hath no Circumscription, [Circumference,] or Place; also it hath no beginning, and yet is like a round Globe, yet not a round Circle, but it is

69. For the whole Cross is its parting, and yet it is whole; but the Center of Nature, (viz. the Word of the Lord, Verbum Domini, the Word of the Father,) is there the Center of the Cross. The Cross every where signifieth the Number Three: where then beneath blue appeareth, which signifieth the substantiality; in the middle appeareth Red, which signifieth the Father in the Glance of Fire; next which appeareth Yellow, which signifieth the Light and Luster of the Majesty of God the Son; and the Dusky Brown, with the Mixture of all Forms, signifieth the other Kingdom of Darkness in the Fire, in which Lucifer did ^t soar aloft above God, and did not lay hold on the Majesty and Heart of God.

70. And upon such a Bow will Christ the Son of Man appear at the last Judgment; for so he sitteth in the Majesty of the Number Three in Ternario Sancto: understand the Angelical world [in the Eternal Substantiality] and Paradise.

71. Thus know, that all this is not divided, nor is it thus in one place alone; but this Form [or manner] appeareth in its Principle Every where. If thou conceivest a small minute Circle, as small as a Grain of Mustard-seed, yet the Heart of God is wholly and perfectly therein: and if thou art born in God, then there is, in thyself, (in the Circle of thy Life,) the whole Heart of God undivided: and the Son of Man (Christ) sitteth thus (in the Circle of thy life, upon the Rainbow in Ternario Sancto) at the Right Hand of God: and thus thou art his child, whom he hath regenerated in him [in Christ]; as also Christ's Member and Body, wherein he dwelleth; his Brother, his Flesh, and Spirit; and a Child of God the Father in him, God in thee, and thou in God; Power, Might, Majesty, Heaven, Paradise, Element, Stars, and Earth, all is thine. Thou art in (Christ) ^u over Hell and Devils.

72. But in this world, with thy Earthly Life, thou art under Heaven, Stars, and Elements, also under Hell and Devils; all Rule in thee, and over thee.

73. Therefore consider thyself, and go forth [from thyself:] it is of high concernment; we speak what we know, and what we must speak, for we ought not to speak otherwise of the Eternity, unless we should speak as if it had a beginning, whereas there is none in the Eternity.

74. And do not think that Mankind hath such a beginning, as we must say of ourselves, according to the Creation: no, the Image hath appeared in God from Eternity in the virgin of wisdom; but not in substance [or distinction;] it was no Woman, nor Man, but it was Both; as Adam was both, before Eve was, which [divided distinction] signifieth the Earthly, and also the Bestial Man; for nothing subsisteth in Eternity, unless it has been from Eternity.

^v Or Incarnate.

75. O ye children of God, open the eyes of your Inward Man, and see rightly: If you be new born in God, then you put on that very Eternal Image, and the Man Christ is ^v become Man in that very Image, viz. in the Eternal Virgin; for no mortal virgin is pure; and he was conceived by the Holy Spirit in a pure virgin, and in respect of our soul which he should assume, he is also [become Man] in the mortal virgin: for Mary had all the Three Principles in her: and the Image of the Eternal Virgin consisted in the Divine and Eternal substantiality; it was indeed without substance; but in the Man Christ, it came to be a substance.

76. We do not say concerning the Outward Virgin Mary, that she was not the Daughter of Joachim and Anna; as the Ancients have Erred, to whom the Light of God hath not so shined, because they sought their own profit therein.

77. For Mary was begotten of the Seed of Joachim and Anna, like other Persons; but she was the blessed among Women: in her the Eternal virgin in Ternario sancto, which was from Eternity, discovered itself: not that it entered into her from without; no, it is quite otherwise. Here God and Man became one again: What Adam lost, was here revived again; understand it right: The Word of the Lord, Verbum Domini, the Word of the Father on the Cross, came into Mary, understand into the Earthly Mary.

78. Now, where the Word is, there is [also] the virgin [or Wisdom of God;] for the Word is in the Wisdom: and the one is not without the other, or else the Eternity would be divided.

79. And now when the Word in Mary, in her flesh and blood, entered into her Matrix, then the Fiat was in the Matrix, but it did not in one moment create a complete Earthly Man, nor a Heavenly neither; but it began the Incarnation [or becoming Man;] for the Divine Nature is neither augmented nor diminished, but is always complete.

80. But know this, that the Eternal virgin, that was without substance, gave in itself together with the becoming Man [or Incarnation,] and the true soul of Christ was out of Mary's Essences, conceived in the Eternal virgin: and in the Eternal virgin God became Man, and so the Eternal virgin came into substantiality, for it got the human soul into it. Thus the human soul of Christ stood in the Earthly Essences, as also in the virgin of the Eternal Wisdom in Ternario Sancto, in the Trinity of God: for the Word of the Lord was in * it, and God and Man became one Person.

81. In this Person [which was God and Man] were all the Three Principles open, undivided; the Virgin, in Ternario Sancto, giveth the Heavenly Body, and Mary the Earthly [Body:] and the Word was in the Center upon the Cross, in the Number Three; whereas we say that the Word is become Flesh, and it is so.

82. Behold! the virgin of Eternity hath no Flesh, nor has had any from Eternity, (except in Adam before the Fall, which afterwards came to be Earthly,) but it took human flesh upon it: understand [it thus,] the Word together with the whole Deity was in the virgin: For without the Word there were no understanding in the Eternal virgin.

83. For the Spirit of God was in the Word, and he was the understanding, but the Word was as a Heavenly Figure, a figure of the Number Three; but not in the working; as indeed the Flesh worketh not, but the Spirit in the Flesh [worketh.]

84. And the Living Word which dwelleth in the Eternal virgin, attracted to it the Flesh of Mary; understand it thus, the Word attracted the Flesh, (viz. the Essences [or faculties] out of the Body of Mary) into the Eternal Virgin: and so in Nine Months there was a complete Man, with soul, spirit, and Flesh.

85. And thus the perished soul of Adam in the Body of Mary was again set in the Eternal Humanity, for the Word dwelt in Christ's flesh, and assumed the soul in him.

86. Not that the soul and the Word is one and the same Substance: No, the soul is out of the Center of Nature, generated out of the Essences, and it belongeth to the body: for it goes forth from the Essences of the Body, and it attracteth Corporeity to it: But the Word is out of the Center of the Majesty, and attracteth Majesty to it.

87. The Word is without substance, and the soul is out of the substance, it is the Spirit of the substance, out of the Center of the Father; or else it could not in Adam have gone forth from the Word; not that the word and the soul stand by another like two persons; No, the Word penetrateth through the soul: and out of the Word, the Majesty shineth, viz. the Light of Life: And the soul is free of itself, for it is a Creature.

88. I give you an Earthly similitude of this. Behold a bright flaming piece of Iron, which of itself is dark and black, and the fire so penetrateth and shineth through the Iron, that it gives Light. Now, the Iron doth not cease to be; it is Iron still: and the source [or property] of the Fire retaineth its own propriety: it doth not take the Iron

y Being, or Thing.

into it, but it penetrateth [and shineth] through the Iron; and it is Iron then as well as before, free in itself: and so also is the source [or property] of the Fire: in such a manner is the soul set in the Deity: the Deity penetrateth through the soul, and dwelleth in the soul, yet the soul doth not comprehend the Deity, but the Deity comprehendeth the soul, but doth not alter it [from being a soul,] but only gives it the Divine source [or property] of the Majesty.

89. And so if the soul inclines itself to the Divine source [or property,] then it stayeth in the Majesty of God, for the source [or property] betokens the Word, and the Glance [betokens] the Majesty: and that which proceedeth from the source [or property,] as heat out of the Fire, that betokens the Holy Spirit.

90. But now, if the flaming Iron be cast, or fall into the water, then the property of the fire, the Glance and the heat which proceed from it, are all quenched together; thus it is also with Adam: he cast himself out from the Majesty of God (with his will) into the Spirit of this world, and so he went from God.

² Or was extinguished.
^a The Glance, Luster, or Majesty.

91. Not that God ² went out in him, like the flaming of the Iron: No, that cannot be; ^a It shineth Eternally: God continueth in his Principle, and Adam went out from it: If Adam's will had continued in God, he should have continued the child of God, and God would have continued in his will, and so the Majesty would have shined through the will.

92. But he went out from the will of God, into this world, and so was captivated by the World, Death, Devils, and Hell, and they dwelt in Adam.

93. Adam was in this world, dwelling in the Elements, and God breathed the Air also into his Nostrils: but he should not have put his will into it, to eat of Earthly fruit, which maketh earthly flesh. That was his Fall, that he did Eat Earthly Fruit; and therefore his Essences also became Earthly; and the soul became captivated by the Earthly Dominion.

94. And there the Word of the Lord said to the soul, Adam, where art thou? and his body did hide itself; so very much ashamed was the poor soul: And Adam said, I am naked; the precious heavenly virgin (which he was clothed withal) was lost, as also, the Light of the Majesty; and Adam was without the Word.

95. O how terrible is it to those that understand it, the soul trembleth at it, and it may well be afraid of this captivity, when the poor soul must be captivated by the Devil, and must swim in [the Lake of] God's Anger. And this is the cause why God became Man, that he might bring us again in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Angelical World.

96. And as we are all with Adam, gone out from God, for we have all Adam's soul and flesh, so God hath regenerated us all in Christ, and in Christ the divine Kingdom standeth open, every one that will may enter in, whosoever putteth his will away from himself, and putteth it into Christ, and letteth all worldly Reason go, though it has never so fair a Luster, shall be regenerated in Christ: and his soul attaineth the Eternal Flesh again, in which God became Man, an incomprehensible Flesh, of Eternal substantiality.

^a Or Mortal Flesh.

97. The old Adamical ^b flesh of Death cometh not to be heavenly flesh: No, it belongeth to the Earth, to Death; but the Eternal Flesh is bidden in the Old Earthly Man, and it is in the Old Man, as the Fire in the Iron, or as the Gold in the [dark] Stone.

98. This is the Noble Precious Stone, (Lapis Philosophorum,) the Philosopher's Stone, which the Magi [or Wise Men] find, which tinctureth Nature, and Generateth a New son in the Old. He who findeth that, esteemeth more highly of it, than of this [Outward] World. For the Son is many thousand times Greater than the Father.

99. O thou bright Crown of Pearl, art thou not brighter than the Sun? There is nothing like thee; thou art so very manifest, and yet so very secret, that among many thousand in this world, thou art scarcely rightly known of any one; and yet thou art carried [about] in many that know thee not.

100. Christ saith, Seek, and thou shalt find. ° It will be sought for, a lazy Person findeth it not, and though he carrieth it about with him, yet he knoweth it not. To whomsoever it *revalet*h itself, he hath all joy therein; for there is no end of its virtue [or Glory:] He that hath it doth not give it away: and if he doth impart it to any, yet it is not profitable to him that is lazy, for he diveth not into its virtue, to learn that.

° The Noble Stone.

101. But the seeker findeth the Stone, and its virtue and benefit together, and when he findeth it, and knows that he is certain of it, there is greater joy in him than the world is able to apprehend, which no pen can describe, nor any tongue express, in an Adamicall manner.

102. It is accounted the *Meane*st of all Stones in the Adamicall eyes, and is trodden under foot, for it affordeth no luster to the sight; if a man lights upon it, he casteth it away as an unprofitable thing; none enquire after it, though it be so very much sought for in this world. There is none on Earth but desires it. All the Great ones and the Wise seek it: Indeed they find one, and think it is the right: but they miss of it: they ascribe power and virtue to it: and think they have it, and will keep it: but it is not that: It needeth no virtue to be ascribed to it. All virtue lies bidden in it.

103. He who has it, and knows it, if he seeks, he may find all things whatsoever are in Heaven and in Earth. It is the Stone which is rejected of the Builders, and is the Chief corner Stone; upon whatsoever it falleth, it grindeth to powder, and kindles a fire therein. All ^d Universities seek it, but find it not by their seeking; sometimes it is found by one that seeks it rightly. But others [that seek it in itself, and for their own Gain] despise it, and cast it away, and so it remains bidden still.

^d High Schools or Academies.

The Seventh Chapter.

1.  T most of all concerns us Men, in this world, to seek that which is lost. And therefore if we would seek, we must not seek without ourselves, we need no flattering Hypocrites, nor such as tickle our ears to comfort us, and promise us many Golden Mountains if we will but run after them, and make much of them, and reverence them.

2. If I should sit and bear Sermons preached all my life long, and hear them always preach of the Kingdom of Heaven and the New Birth, with their singing and Repetitions, and stay there and go no further, I should be never the nearer. If a stone be cast into the water, and then taken out again, it is a hard stone as it was before, and retains its ° quality: But if it be cast into the fire, then it gets another quality in itself; so also thou, O Man, though thou runnest to Church, and wouldst seem to be a Minister of Christ, that is not enough; if you rest there, you are never the better.

° Form, Condition, or Nature.

3. Also, it is not enough, that you learn all Books, to rehearse them without Book, and did yearly and daily read all Writings, and could say the whole Bible without book, yet you are not a hair's breadth the better in the sight of God, than a keeper of swine, who all that while did nothing but feed the swine; or than a poor Prisoner in a dark Dungeon, who all that while has not seen the Day-light.

4. Talking availeth nothing, nor that you know how to speak much of God, and despisest the simple, as the flattering Hypocrites upon the Antickristian Beast do, who forbid the Light to them that see, as hath been done to this hand. But it is as Christ saith, Except you turn, and become as one of these Children; you shall not see the Kingdom of Heaven in Eternity: you must be born a-new, if you would see the Kingdom of God: that is the right means.

5. There needs no Art or Eloquence about it, you need neither books nor cunning: a Shepherd is as fit for it as a learned Doctor, and very much fitter: for he goes forth from his own Reason into the ^f Mercy of God, he hath no great, wise, [or deep] Reason, therefore he does not go to that for Counsel, but he goeth simply with the poor Publican, into the Temple of Christ: whereas, on the contrary, the high and learned first set the ^z University before their eyes, and study first with what Opinion they will enter into the Temple of Christ. They first set Men's Opinions before them, and will seek God in this or that Opinion, one in the ^h Pope's Opinion, another in ⁱ Luther's, a third in ^k Calvin's, a fourth in ^l Schwenckfeld's, &c. There is no end of Opinions.

6. And thus the poor soul stayeth without the Temple of Christ, standing in doubt: it knocketh and seeketh, and continually doubteth that it is not in the right way.

7. O thou poor foeverd soul in Babel, what dost thou do? Leave off all Opinions, by what name soever they are called in this world, they are all no other than the contention of Reason: the New-Birth and the Noble Stone is to be found in no contention, neither in any Wisdom of Reason: you must forsake all in this world (let it be as Glistening as it will) and enter into yourself, and only gather all your sins (which have captivated you) together on a heap, and cast them into the Mercy of God, and fly to God, and pray to him for forgiveness, and the Illumination of his Spirit: there needs no long disputing but earnestness, and then Heaven must break asunder, and Hell tremble; it comes just so to pass; you must set aside all your sins, and Reason, and whatsoever comes in the way, and resolve, that you will not let him go, except he blefs you, as Jacob wrestled with God the whole night.

^m Or Mind.

ⁿ Thought and Purposes.

8. Though thy ^m Conscience should say, No, God will have none of thee; yet do thou say, I will have him, I will not leave him, till I am carried to my Grave: Let my will be as thy will, O Lord, I will as thou wilt: and though all the Devils encompassed thee round about, and should say, Hold, it is enough at once; thou must say, No; my ⁿ mind and will shall not depart from God, they shall be Eternally in God: his Love is Greater than all my sins: Although thou Devil, and thou world, have the Mortal Body in your Prison, yet I have my Saviour and Regenerator in my soul: He will give me a heavenly Body, which will remain Eternally.

9. Try this, and thou shalt find Wonders, thou shalt soon get one in thee, who will help thee to wrestle, fight and pray: And though thou canst not use many words, it is no matter, though you can say no more than the Publican: O God, be merciful to me, a sinner. When thy Will and all thy Reason is once placed upon God, with a Resolution not to leave him, though body and soul should be broken asunder, then thou holdest God [fast,] and breakest through Death, Hell, and Heaven, and goest into the Temple of JESUS CHRIST, in spite of all the Opposition of the Devil: The Anger of God cannot withhold thee, how great and powerful soever it is in thee; and though body and soul did burn in the Anger, and stood in the midst of Hell with all the Devils; yet thou wouldst break forth, and come into the Temple of Christ; and there thou wouldst get the Garland of Pearl, adorned with the Noble and highly Precious Stone, That

10. But you must know, that the Kingdom of Heaven is thus sown in thee, and is small as a Grain of Mustard-seed, yet thou hast great joy with this Angelical Garland; but look to it, and set it not upon the Old Adam, else it will go with thee as it did with Adam; keep what thou hast; necessity or want is an evil Guest.

11. At length a young Plant groweth to be a Tree, if it stands in good Ground, but many a rough and cold wind bloweth upon a young Plant before it comes to be a Tree; it is unsteady: Thou must be brought before the Tree of Temptation, and also into the Wilderness of Contempt and Scorn in this world; if thou dost not hold out, thou hast nothing: If thou rootest up thy Plant, thou dost as Adam did, thou wilt more hardly set it again than at first, and yet it groweth in the ^p valley of Roses, hidden to the Old Adam.

^p Or the Par-
fence.

12. For it was a long time from Adam till the humanity of Christ, in which [time] the Tree of Pearl grew hidden under the vail of Moses, and yet in its time it came forth as a Tree with fair fruits.

13. Therefore, if thou hast fallen, and hast lost the fair Garland; do not despair, seek, knock, and come again, do as thou didst at first, and then thou wilt find by Experience, from what Spirit this Pen and Hand hath written: thou wilt afterwards get a Tree instead of thy Plant: And then thou wilt say, Is my Plant, during my sleep, become a Tree? Then you will begin to know the ^q Philosopher's Stone; observe it.

^q The Stone of the Wise Men.

The Gates of the Firmamental Heaven, with the Stars and Elements. Also of the Threefold Life of Man. The Noble Stone rightly brought forth into the Light, Spiritually, for the Magi, [or those that are wise.]

14. If we will speak of the Noble Stone, and bring it forth into the Light to be known, we must first show the Darkness and deformity of the Stone, which hinder that it is not known. For, since we know that the Noble Stone lies hidden in this world, and may be had everywhere, and yet is not known, we should therefore seek to know the cause why it is so hidden.

15. Reason saith, if this [outward] world be so dangerous for Man, Why hath God set him therein? or, Why hath he created it? And thus he judgeth also concerning the Devil; [saying,] Why hath not God turned the Devil into Nothing again since his fall?

16. Yes, beloved Reason, thou hast found the Stone, and with it thou buildest a house of Stone to dwell in. The Noble Stone lies in the Eternity: that which is eternal breaketh not, but that which hath a beginning breaketh. The Devils are Eternal, and therefore they break not; they were not in the ^r form of a spirit from Eternity, but their Essences are Eternal.

dition.

17. And they have put their Will into their Essences, and their will is eternal: as the Center of Nature [viz.] of the stern Matrix, is Eternal, into which their will is entered, so now they are Eternal Spirits therein, [viz. in the stern Matrix:] Also they are as a Looking-Glass for the other Angels, and for the souls of Men.

18. But that God should cast away the Third Principle, [that is, the Created World,] for Man's sake, and put it into its Ether before the accomplishment of its Time, that cannot be; for the Wonders that were foreseen from Eternity in the Wisdom without Substance, they must come to have a substance, and so in time must the forms of Nature also.

19. For God is Threefold in Persons, and would also move himself Three Times, according to the property of each Person, and no more at all in Eternity.

20. First, The Center of the Father's Nature, moved itself to the Creation of Angels, and further, of this World.

21. Secondly, The Son's Nature moved itself; where the Heart of God became Man, which shall never be done more in Eternity: and where it is now done, [viz. where men become united with the Heart of God, as branches on their vine,] it is done by that only (Man) who is God, through many, and in many.

22. And, Thirdly, The Holy Ghost's Nature will move itself at the End of the World, when the World shall enter into its Ether again, and the Dead shall rise again: Where the Holy Ghost will be the Mover, and will set the Great Wonders (which shall have been done in this world) all in the Eternal Substantiality, to the glory and manifestation of God's Deeds of Wonder, and to the Joy of the Creatures, [viz. Angels and Men.] He will be the Eternal Mover of the Creatures, (viz. Angels and Men,) for through him Paradise springeth up again, which we here have lost. Thus you must know, that the great Wonders of this World, which must have been done, and must pass away, lie in our way.

23. This world is a great Wonder; but it would not have been known in the Wisdom of God by the Angels: and therefore the Father's Nature moved itself to the Creation of a ^c Being, that the great Wonders might be manifested; and then, [when they shall all once be manifested and become substantial,] it will be known in Eternity, by Angels and Men, what power and virtue every thing hath had.

24. Also the Image of the Number Three, [or Trinity,] (viz. the Eternal Virgin, which stood in Ternario sancto, in the Eternal Wisdom, in the Substantiality, as a Figure,) ^c should not have been known in Eternity by the Angels, if the Heart of God had not become Man; there the Angels saw the ^u Glory of the Majesty in a living Image, wherein the whole Trinity was included.

25. So also the Center of Nature should not in Eternity have been manifested to the Angels, much less the ^w Government of the Holy Ghost, if this World, with the Stars and Elements, had not been Created; but so [by this means] the Angels and we Men (also) know the Eternal Being, and all forms, ^x by this [created] world; and therefore God has placed the Image of the Number Three (viz. Man) in this world, that he should open all Wonders, and know the Eternal God.

26. But the Image doated on it, and put its Imagination into it, as Lucifer did into the wrathful Matrix of Nature, and so it was also captivated: for Adam was to be a Lord over the Stars and Elements, nothing should ^y touch him, he had power over them all, he could have removed Mountains with a word, he was Lord over ^z Fire, ^a Air, ^b Water and ^c Earth.

27. For there was no death in him, the light shone in him, he was in Paradise, Paradisical fruit grew for him, he was one [single] Man, and not two, he was the Man, and also the Woman, and he should have propagated an Angelical kingdom out of himself, and that was possible. For he had no such flesh and blood as after the Fall, whereof he was ashamed before the Majesty of God: he had flesh and blood that was heavenly, his Essences [or faculties] were holy: he could bring forth out of himself (without rending of his body) an Image like himself.

28. For he was a Virgin without the feminine form, after the Form of the Eternal [Sophia,] with a pure modest mind, and chaste, without the least desire of lust: his desire was only to have his like out of himself ; he placed his will upon himself, and in him was God : so his will was in God, and God in him, and he in Paradise.

29. But he saw in himself two ^d forms of the Divine Being : one without himself belonging to this world, and the other within him belonging to the Paradisical world, which he also had with full satisfaction to himself [as his Own,] and therefore came the Commandment and said ; Eat not of the mixed fruit, (Good and Evil,) else ye shall die. But he ^e Imagined so long, till he was captivated : he still thought he would eat of both, [viz. of the Paradisical and of the forbidden fruit,] and so live for ever ; and so he continued forty Days, as the second Adam in the Wilderness was [so long] tempted : and Moses was [so long] upon the Mount, where Israel was tempted, to try if it were possible to live in the obedience and will of the Father : and so long he went on till he sunk down into a sleep.

^d Natures, conditions, or qualities.

^e Or set his Imagination.

30. For Moses saith, God suffered a deep sleep to fall on him ; and then God saw that it was not possible for him [to continue in perfect obedience,] (for the Lust had captivated him,) and so he suffered him to fall into a sleep, (which signifieth Death,) where the Woman was made out of him ; and the Spirit of this world formed Adam into a Man, (such a one as we are at this day,) and Eve into a Woman : which when they awaked they saw not : for they were yet in Paradise, till they had eaten the Earthly fruit ; and then the Spirit of this world took the soul captive, and its Essences became instantly Earthly, and its flesh and blood Bestial, at which they were ashamed, and took notice of their Bestial form in their Masculine and Feminine Members.

31. And so they were driven out of Paradise ; and the Word of the Lord, Verbum Domini, (with a Promise of a Treacher upon the Serpent,) set itself in the Light of their Life, (which before dwelt and ruled in him [viz. in Adam,]) that remained now in its own Principle, and the Image remained in the Outward Principle, and was captivated by the Spirit of the Stars and Elements : The Regimen [or Rule and Dominion] of this world dwelt now in these Persons, and they became Earthly.

32. Whereupon God curst the Earth also for Man's sake, so that no Paradisical fruit grew any more. All was gone save only the Grace and Mercy of God, which was still left ; for they now stood (as to the Ground of the world) in the Abyss of Hell with all Devils, and they lived in weakness as we do now at this day.

33. They begat their Children in two Kingdoms, [viz. in the Kingdom of Wrath, and in the Kingdom of Love,] for the Anger of God had taken hold of them, and desired to show its wonders in them : so also the Treacher upon the Serpent had taken hold of them in the Light of Life, and desired also to show its wonders in them.

34. So there was strife and disquietness, as may be discerned by their Children : the first that was born of Woman, became a wicked Murderer, and strove to suppress the Kingdom of God ; and the second was a holy virtuous Man : In brief, you see this throughout the Holy Scripture, especially by Cain and Abel, by Isaac and Ismael, also by Esau and Jacob, who, while they were yet in their Mother's womb, strove ^f for the Kingdom of God, and ^f for the Kingdom of Hell ; and therefore said God, Jacob have I loved, and Esau have I hated.

^f Or about.

35. And from hence arose the Predestination or Election of the Children that cleave to him ; the other make but a mockery and scorn of that which is spoken concerning the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Heaven, and they find not the Precious Stone of the Philosophers ; for they seek it not rightly. They are mere Hypocrites, [such as make a show of Holiness,] like the Devil in the form of an Angel.

36. But Abel, Isaac, and Jacob, found it indeed. Jacob wrestled for it a whole Night ; and Isaac carried the fuel of the fire, [to burn] himself [with,] and readily yielded that the darkness and dross of his Stone should be burnt away : for he had attained the [Noble] Stone in his Mother's womb. 38. Look upon Moses, what Miracles he did by this Stone: Look upon the Prophet Elijah, who shut Heaven for three years and six months: He brought forth fire in the Anger of God, so that it devoured an hundred Men.

39. Look upon all Prophets, what Miracles they wrought with it, they knew things to come in the virtue of this Stone, they healed the Sick, and raised the Dead.

^m Or sacrificed.

43. For we are with Adam shut up in the Anger, which holdeth us captive: and yet the Grace also is presented to us, and that desireth to have us also, and so there is a hard strife in us. This you may see in the Writings of Moses, in that God commanded, that all the first-born of the Males should be ^m offered to him.

ⁿ Samuel.

44. But you see the vehement opposition of his Anger; how it hath penetrated [and prevailed,] and many times taken away the first Birth; as may be seen by Cain and Abel, by Esau and Jacob, also by the Children of Jacob, and throughout the whole Scripture, that the Stone would rest, not upon the first Adam, but upon the second.

45. We have a great Example in the Children of Jesse; when the ⁿ Prophet thought the Eldest should be King, yet the Election fell upon the youngest, because he had that Stone.

46. This Election was not thus from Eternity in God: for Adam was Good and Perfect, also Pure, but he yielded himself to be overcome. For the Anger stood in the Abyss, and was covered with the Principle of this world.

47. And know, that the Tree of Adam's Tempting in Paradise, (which yet stood only in the Abyss,) grew out of the source of the Anger: and Adam was tempted, to try whether he would with his will cleave to God.

49. And so it befalleth us at this Day, we are captivated by the Abyss of the Anger; and so the Devil sets before us the ^p flattering Hypocrisy and Bravery of this World, viz. Statelines, Arts, and Riches, at which we bite, [as a fish at the bait which the angle is covered with, and so is caught and pulled out from its livelihood;] and so we also are driven out of Paradise, and lose the Noble Stone.

^q Or Laver.

50. Christ hath instituted Baptism as a ^q Bath, to wash away the Anger, and hath put into us the ^r Noble Stone, viz. the Water of Eternal Life, for an ^r Earnest-Penny, so that instantly in our Childhood we might be able to ^r escape the Wrath.

51. But the Serpent presents itself to us, [as he did to Eve,] so that we Imagine after [or set our Mind upon] the Tree of Temptation, as we see by experience, that as soon as young Children grow up a little, they creep up in Pride, and flattering hypocritical arrogance, and set the Paradisical Garland [viz. the blossom of their youth] upon the head of the Serpent; and thus the Serpent playeth with them, and teacheth them all manner of ^r wantonness, and leadeth them out of Paradise into this world, into finery and pride, which require covetousness and deceit to maintain them.

52. And then the Noble Stone cometh to be contemned: if they see a Man who carrieth that Stone in him, he must be a fool with them; which is, because they have the wit, and subtlety of the Serpent; and they that have the Stone are simple without wit and cunning, like a child; their ^r Play in this world they act in care, sorrow, want, contempt and misery: but it is written; They pass away, weeping and sorrowful, but they carry Noble seed with them, [or their Employment is sowing in Tears, but they shall reap in Joy.] Eternal Joy is far better than a ^r momentary ^r Pleasure of the Eye, and after that ^r Eternal Lamentation.

53. Seeing then we know and fundamentally understand, that we lie thus captivated in a close Prison, therefore we will reveal that ground and the Prison also, to try whether any will take notice what condition they are in.

54. We will not relate a History, but speak what we know in ourselves, in soul and body, also what we see in the Ground or foundation of the World, from our ^r own Light which we have from Grace: we will speak from that, and not from a ^r supposition, as doubting whether it be true or no.

55. They say, that which the Eyes see, the Heart believeth, it is good to see with our own Eyes: but he that seeth with the Eyes of another, or he that depends upon another's words, is always in doubt whether the Spirit be true or false.

56. Therefore it is good to have the Noble Stone, [which Abraham, Moses, the Prophets and Apostles had,] that giveth assurance, and pointeth at the false ^r Magi, such as are ^r Magi in the History only, which they strut about withal, in state like a whore that would be accounted a Maid, and yet is big with child.

57. And so they are big with Darknes and wrath, and yet they always cry out, Here is the [true] Church, here is Christ, flock all hither! yes indeed, run after the whore of Babel, who is big with stately Pride; give something towards her child-bed, that she may fatten her whorish stomach, and satisfy her ^r Hypocritical stinking Pride.

58. They are like whores, who (when they are said to be whores) will not endure it, but curse and rail: and so also when the Spirit of Truth layeth them open, then they cry, O Heretick, O Heretick, fire and faggot! O run away, begone all of you, the Devil is in him: thus they miscall the Spirit of God, because they do not know ^r it.

59. We do not write this out of a desire to condemn them, for we know the great misery of our captivity, but we write it, to the end that the simple, (who cleave so very fast to their words, and believe all that the Devil poureth forth in wrath,) might every one of them enter into themselves, and try whether it be Truth or no, and that men might not be so zealous in blindness, with anger and envy, without knowledge whether it hath any Ground of Truth.

60. We have too much experience of this, that many times the Holy Ghost is called a Devil, and the Devil called a good Spirit, which happeneth out of Ignorance: for the flattering Hypocrites do so fill the Ears of the Laity with their Eloquence in their Sermons, and drawing the Scriptures to their desire [and meaning.]

61. O what horrible ^d Blasphemy it is, that the Spirit of God must be thus slandered by the Image of God, though we do not say that the Image itself doth it, but the Serpent in the Image: so soon as the Mind is turned away from God, the Serpent taketh hold of it, and then ruleth it, and pouretb forth blasphemies against God, and his Children. Therefore observe this following Text.

[Here the Author again sheweth the Eternal Being.]

62. As God the Father himself is All; he is the Number Three of the Deity; he is the Majesty; he is the still Eternity; he is the Nature, and in it he is the Love and the Anger: the Anger is a cause of his Strength and Might; as also a cause of Life, and of all Mobility, as the Poison [or Gall] in Man is: and the Love is a cause of the Heart of his Majesty, and a cause of the Number Three, and of the Three Principles.

63. And as we know and have mentioned before, that the Fire is a cause of the Light, for without fire there would be no Light, so there would be no Love without Light; the Light is Love [or pleasantness,] for it is kind and amiable, and we see that the Light and the fire have two severall [properties or] sources; the fire is biting, wrathful, devouring and consuming; and the Light is pleasant, sweet, and desirous of a Body; the Love desireth a Body; and the fire also desireth a Body for its nourishment, but devoureth it quite; and the Light ^e raiseth it up, and desireth to fill it; it taketh nothing away from the Body, but ^e quickens it, and makes it friendly.

64. So you must understand us concerning the Eternal Being. The Eternal Being is so, and if it were not so, all would be as nothing, but an Eternal Stillness without Being; and that we find to be so in every thing.

65. Thus we may consider with ourselves, whence it ariseth that there is a wrathful and a good will: For you see the Fire hath two Spirits, one is that which proceedeth from the Heat, and the other that which proceedeth from the Light: Now the Heat is Nature, and the Light is the Eternal Liberty without [or beyond] Nature: for Nature comprehendeth not the Light.

66. And so you must understand us concerning the two sorts of wills in God, the one is Nature, and is not called God, and yet is God's, for he is angry, severe, sharp as a sting, consuming, attracting all things to himself, and devouring them, always striving, to fly up above the Light, [which is the other will,] and yet cannot; as the fire doth, which the higher it flieth, the higher goeth the Light, and so they may well be called two Principles.

67. For the Light desireth substantiality, and preserveth the substantiality, and doth not consume it: but the fire desireth to devour all things, and turn them to nothing; and when it hath turned all to nothing, it becomes a darkness.

68. And therefore God hath moved himself in the Light of Meekness, and attracted the Meekness, so that the Light hath a substantiality, and that is Water, or in Ternario sancto the Water Spirit which holdeth the fire captive, so that the fire is a darkness, and is not known except it be kindled, and it standeth in itself in the hunger, in the Eternal Darkness, and so is a continual Desire.

69. Out of such an Original came the Devils, for it is the fierce wrath of God, and whatsoever is false and evil, hath its original thus out of this ^f Matrix, as also all the Creatures of this world, let it be Heaven, the Stars, the Earth, or what it will; they have all a twofold source, viz. the fire and the water: in those two consist all bodies, Heavenly and Earthly; the heavenly consist in the Matrix of the Water, and they have the fire hidden in them.

^f Or womb.
^g Through and through.

70. For the watry Matrix (which is only a Spirit of a soft property) holdeth the fire captive, and so the Majesty shineth in the Meekness ^g transparently.

71. And the Earthly [Bodies] consist in the palpable substance; for the water becometh material in the kindling; which matter is drawn together by the wrath in the Fiat, part to Stones, and part to Earth, all according as Nature is in its seven forms: and the Water hath quenched the Fire, so that the wrath is in the Darknes, like a hidden Fire.

72. And where the Matrix continued, and was not so quenched by the comprehensible water, there it is created into Stars; for a Star is only Fire and Water [concrete together:] but seeing the fire [in them] burneth not, and that the water [in them] doth not quench the fire, thereby we understand that that water is not material, but is as an Oil, in which the Light burneth, which is not [such] water as putteth out the Light, but preserveth a continual burning Light without any great source, [or fierce consuming property.]

73. Thus the Stars are a ^h Quinta Essentia, a fifth form [distinct] from the Elements, as the fat in a Creature is a cause that the fountain of life burneth: So the Quinta Essentia is a cause that the Stars burn: yet the Stars have in them also all the Causes of every thing that is in this world, all that live and move, are stirred up from their properties, and brought to life.

74. For they are not only fire and water, (though the fire and the water be the chief in them,) but also they have in them hardness, softness, darkness, bitterness, sourness, sweetness, and all the ⁱ powers of Nature; they have whatsoever the Earth hath contained in it. For every Star hath a several property, all according to the ^k Essences of the Eternal Center of Nature.

ⁱ Virtues.
^k Effects, operations, predominance.

75. All is comprehended in the Creation, and come to a being, so far as their properties at the same time stood open in the wheel of Nature, when the Eternity moved itself to the Creation.

76. And the Air is the Spirit which is mixed with all sorts of Forms, and as the heat goeth forth from the Fire, so also the Air goeth forth with all powers continually from the fire, and therefore it is unconstant; suddenly the Air awakeneth one form in the Center of Nature, suddenly another; and so there is continually a wrestling and overcoming, suddenly a being above, and then a being under again.

77. The whole Deep between the Earth and the Stars, is like the Mind of a Man, where the Eyes suddenly behold a thing, and conceive or frame a will [or desire] therein, and bring it ^l to substance; some things they behold only with cursory thoughts, and some things in a perfect ^m being, so that the mouth and hands go about it [to bring it to pass:] Thus the Deep also is like the Mind, suddenly it is intent upon one Star, suddenly upon another, and the Sun is the King, and the Heart of the Deep, which shineth and worketh in the Deep; and the other six Planets make the senses and understanding in the Deep; so that all together is as a living Spirit.

^m Resolution or purpose.

78. Which you may understand by a Beast, which formeth his Spirit herein, also in the Fowls, and also in us Men, according to the Adamical Man: but this Government [or Dominion] and spirit hath not divine wit and understanding: for it hath beginning and end; and that which hath beginning and end is not spiritual (or Divine,) but it is Natural and Transitory; as you may see by the Wind, how suddenly it is raised in one place, and suddenly laid again, and then suddenly raised in another Place, and so on.

79. So also the Constellation is a cause of all sorts [of outward worldly] ⁿ Wisdom, Arts, and Policy; also a cause of the Ordering of every Government [or Dominion] of this world amongst Men after the Fall; also among the Beasts and Fowls; also it is the cause and bringer forth of all herbs, plants, and metals, and of Trees, that they grow.

ⁿ Or wit,

80. For that which the Constellation containeth in it, lies all in the Earth, and the Constellation kindleth the Earth: and it is all one Spirit and one Dominion, which I call the third Principle. For it is the Third Life in God, the awakened Life, and not an Eternal Life; for in this Third Life, shall only the Great Wonders (which lie in the Center of the Eternal Nature) be brought into a visible substance, whose figures remain for ever, but not in the Essences, they all return again into the Ether; as it was before the Creation, so will it be again at the End.

81. But all of this world remaineth standing in the Eternal Nature, with its colours and figures, like a ° Picture, else the Creatures, as Angels and Men, which are Eternal, should have no Joy. Thus they shall P enjoy all; and yet there will be a springing, blossoming, and growing, but without feeling of any fierceness, or of the Fire: for the Essences are no more a substance, and therefore afford no fire; the fire is an Eternal darkness and gnawing in itself, and that is called the Eternal Death, concerning which the Scripture witnesseth throughout. Do not account this a fiction: for it is true, we speak faithfully what we know [and understand] in the bosom of our Mother, [viz. in the Mercy and Eternal Wisdom of God.]

The Eighth Chapter.

I.  OW as there is a Life, and Spiritual Government, in the Deep of the World in all places, so that all Creatures are included as it were in one Body, which affordeth them life, nourishment, wit, wisdom and Art, in all kinds of them, in Men, Beasts, Fowls, Fishes, Worms, Trees, and Herbs, ever one according to the kind of their Essences; so there is also a life in the Eternity within this world, which the Spirit of this world comprehendeth not, which hath all the properties of this world in it, but in no such kindled Essences.

2. For it hath no Fire, though indeed it hath a mighty Fire, but it burneth in another source [or property,] viz. in the desiring: It is soft, delicate or pleasant, without pain; also it consumeth nothing; but its Spirit is Love and joy: its fire maketh Majesty and brightness; and that hath always been from Eternity; it hath no ground, it hath its springing up and blossoming, but not out of such Earth as we walk upon, and yet it is Earth, which in my whole Book I call Substantiality, for it is the Eternal Body, without any defect: There is no want in it, nor sorrow, nor misery; no such thing is known there at all; there is no Death, Devil, nor Anger, known in it; but such things stand altogether in the Darkness [or in Eternal oblivion] hidden in the first Principle.

3. And this Angelical World [or Eternal Substantiality] we call Ternarius Sanctus; and that very rightly, though the Latin Tongue understandeth only the ° Number Three thereby; yet the Language of Nature comprehendeth it together as one only Body.

4. For as this Principle of this [outward] World, is together as one Body; so God, the Kingdom of Heaven, Angels, Men, Paradise, with all Heavenly and Divine † things and Properties, are all but one Body, and together are called God, Majesty, and Eternity.

5. For the Majesty is the Light of that Body, and the Holy Ghost is its Air and Spirit of Life; but the Creatures [viz. Angels and Men] have their own Spirit of life from themselves.

6. For Every Angel and Man is like the Total God, he hath in him the Number Three, and the Holy Ghost proceedeth forth in him also; of which you have a similitude in a † flaming piece of Iron: The Iron resembles the Creature, the fire resembles the Deity, the heat of the Iron resembles the Creature's own Spirit, the Air which goeth forth from the Heat, which hath no source [or painful quality,] resembles the Holy Ghost.

† A Red Hot

7. In this manner, we give you in simplicity sufficiently to understand these high things. If any will now be blind, God help them! and we can thus with good ground set you down, what Man was before the Fall, and what he came to be in the Fall: what he is in the New Birth again, and what he shall be after this Life. For we know what he is in Death, and what he is in Life, we know also what he is in Hell; and that not from our own wisdom, (as if that were greater than any Man's Living) but [we understand it] in the bosom of the Mother, in the Mother's Spirit.

8. I am dead and as nothing [as to my own self] when I speak and write thus, also I write not from myself, but from the Mother, out of her knowing and seeing: and yet I live in anguish, cares, and labour, in fear and trembling, and in affliction like all other Men; for I am also clothed with Adam's skin, and yet live also in the Hope of Israel.

9. Know therefore upon this description, that our Father Adam in Paradise was in the Divine Body, and is gone out from it into the Body of this World, into the Dominion of the Stars and Elements, which have now captivated the [Adamical] Body and Spirit, 'so far as to the poor soul, which is in the root of this world between Heaven and Hell: and Hell and the Anger have bound it fast to the Darknes and to the source [or property] of the Anger, with a strong Chain, which is called Centrum Nature, [the Center of Nature.]

10. And God is come to help it again, and is become Man, and hath received the human soul again into his heavenly Body, and hath bound it fast to him (" in Christ) again. Thus the soul standeth in the midst, [being] beneath in the Hellish Fire, and above in God in Heaven: and so whithersoever it casteth its will, and into what it yieldeth itself, there it is, and is a servant to that; there is no recalling out of Hell.

11. Thou Great Whore of Babel, if thou hast " Divine power, help us and thyself: Behold thyself here with thy Dreams; if thou canst, then break this chain, viz. the Center of Nature, in sunder: But we are told, we must be born a-new: the Divine Fire must be kindled in you like a flaming Iron; for, as the workman will not touch it with his bare hand, no more can the Devil touch the soul; for it burneth him, he is in Darknes, and if he should come to the Light, his evil envious tricks would be discerned, which he is ashamed at, and  slideth* back into the Darknes, as Adam and Eve crept behind the Trees; he doth not relish this bit [of the New Birth,] he doth not love to smell such [Divine] Fire: for it is Poison to him: if he knew but of one such spark of fire in his Habitation, he would not endure it there, but would run away from it; as indeed he must fly away from Man, when the Divine Fire with the New Birth cometh into him.

12. O how cowardly and faint is he when the soul beginneth to storm his Fort! How many hundred thousand tricks doth he study to keep the soul off from storming! O how he fawneth, and streweth sugar before the soul, and ascribeth great holiness to it, as if it had Divine Power, that it is no sinner any more, that he might by any means bring it to the top of the Pinnacle of the Temple, that it might elevate itself: O how busy is he! what good companions doth he bring to it! till the good companions [or hypocrites] begin to play with their own holiness and ability, as the Antichristian church has done for a long while.

13. All the while, [that the soul goeth on in its own security,] the Devil is at quiet, none storm his Hell: and he gets good fat venison, which he sendeth to St. Peter with good Passports [or absolutions;] and if Peter be in the Abyss, he will read them well enough; but if he be not there, then the Great Prince Lucifer will read them, they will please him very well.

14. O dear Children, see but in what misery we lie captivated, in what lodging we are; for we are captivated by the Spirit of this [outward] world; it is our life, for it nourisheth and bringeth us up, it ruleth in our Marrow and Bones, in our Flesh and Blood; it hath made our flesh Earthly, so that we lie captivated in Death.

15. We swim in water up to our very lips, (as the Prophet and King David saith: The water reacheth up to my soul: Great Bulls have compassed me round about; I dwell among Serpents and Dragons;) O thou lamentable, miserable and toilsome life, how dead art thou! thou swimmest in the water in a handful of Blood, and yet art so proud and lofty.

16. What is thy Beauty, thy state, honour, and riches? Do but consider thyself, seek and find thyself; go forth from this dangerous life of Adders and Serpents, into the Eternal: you have it fully in your power.

17. Whosoever teacheth otherwise, teacheth from the Devil, who will not allow that it lieth in Man's ^z power to turn to be a child of God, though the Scripture saith: That God hath given Man power (in Christ) to become the Children of God: And God willeth that all men should be saved: Also, Thou art not a God that wiltest evil, or dost delight in wickedness. And in Ezekiel it is written; As I live, I desire not the Death of a sinner, but that he turn and live.

18. For God hath no other will but to save that which is lost: therefore must none despair: for if the Spirit of the soul lift up itself earnestly, it is stronger than God, and overcometh God, (for the Anger belongeth unto God, and is God's Greatest Might, which it overcometh;) It is stronger than the Abyss of Hell: It can remove Mountains without any ^a stir, only with its will. For by the will, God created Heaven and Earth; and such a Mighty Will is hidden also in the soul.

19. But now it swimmeth in misery and much weakness, in the sinking down of Death: it is tied and drawn up and down as a poor captive Creature from one filthy puddle into another, and the Devil rolleth it presently in this mire, and presently in that mire again, and so it is like a filthy Rag, all mire and dirt: All Stars dart their Poison into ^b the Body, and defile the poor soul: It must endure to be defiled by the Beasts, for the body feedeth upon the flesh of Beasts, wherewith the poor soul is ^c clad. Dost thou know why God did forbid the Jews to eat of some sort of flesh? * Kindle their fat, and consider their property, and thou shalt discern it.

20. The poor soul is a kindled fire, and so when such a property cometh into the soul, dost thou suppose that God will dwell therein? And therefore Christ taught us, saying, Be sober and temperate in eating and drinking; watch and pray; for your adversary the Devil goeth about like a roaring Lion, and seeketh whom he may devour.

21. Thus you see how we stand in a Threefold Life: the soul standeth upon the Abyss between two Principles, and is tied to them both; and the body merely in the spirit of this world; and therefore that seeketh only after eating and drinking, power and honour, for it belongeth to the Earth, and careth little for the poor soul which cometh out of the Eternity, [and belongeth to the Eternity.]

22. Therefore we ought to tame the Body, and not give way to it, but to damp [or kill] its desire, and not ^d satisfy it when it pleaseth, but for necessity only; that it may not grow wanton, and invite the Devil to lodge in it.

23. The poor soul must watch and pray, and ^e continually put its will into God's will, it must not give way to the body in any thing, except it hath yielded itself to God first: the soul must not please itself at all in its own power; but cast itself merely upon God, as being itself weak and able to do nothing, (though it be strong,) and so continually go out from itself; from its natural will, and so fall into the will of God, and then the Devil cannot meddle with it.

24. Indeed it is irksome and troublesome to the Body to be broken of its will; but that is no matter, Eternity is very long: the body hath but a short time of continuance, and then it returneth to its Mother [the Earth:] and you know not in what moment Death will come, when the body must be gone into its Mother; and then it lets the poor soul go whither it can: it is a very ^f unconstant Neighbour to the soul.

A True Open Gate. [Showing] How a Man may seek and find himself. [From whence he hath his beginning: and what he shall be in the End.]

25. Behold, O Man! and Consider thyself, what thou art from thy beginning, and what thou shalt be again in the End: and then thou wilt certainly find what home thou art in, in what lodging thou liest captive, and thou wilt find that thou art both a Man, and also a Beast; thou wilt well see the heavy Fall, if there be but a spark of God's light in thee.

26. For no Beast is able to apprehend it, because a Beast hath its Original only from the Life of this world; and therefore we know that there is another Manner of Life in us, in that we know the Ground of this world.

27. For if we were only from the Clay and Earth of this world, we should be but Clay and Earth like a Beast which hath no understanding, we should not be able to know the ground of this world. For a Pot knoweth not the Potter; nor doth a piece of work know its workmaster: and so a Beast knoweth not its Master, it has no desire after him, for it knoweth nothing of him.

28. The desire of a Beast is only to fill its Belly, to nourish and multiply itself, (as the Center of Nature in itself is [such a desire,]) and hath no understanding of any higher thing: for it hath its own spirit, whereby it liveth and groweth, and then again consumeth itself, and doth it as well at one time as at another: for such a thing is the Band of Eternity, which is called Nature.

29. But we that are Men have a higher apprehension and knowledge, for we can see into the heart of every thing, and see what manner of thing it is, and what property it hath. So also we have quite another longing and desire, after another thing and life, which is not ^e bestial, nor Transitory, nor desireth any Elementary Earthly food.

30. Thereby we know, that every life desireth its own Mother, whence it hath its Original, and wherein it subsisteth; as also we must understand, that every life desireth the best [thing] that is in its Center; viz. the Heart or Oil wherein the fire burneth, and wherein the life is opened that it is Living.

31. For every living life is a fire: and yet the proper source of the Fire is not the right life, but the Tincture which proceedeth from the Fire, is a pleasant Joy, and it is the Liberty of Nature, [which is the right life.] For Nature standeth in great Anguish, and reacheth with a strong desire after the Liberty till it attains it: and so Nature is a sharpness in the Liberty, and desireth continually to swallow it up into itself, that it might come totally to be the Liberty, and cannot; but the more eager it is, and raised up after the Liberty, the greater is the Tincture of the Liberty.

32. Thus Nature continueth to be a Fire, and the Liberty continueth to be a Light; what the Tincture buildeth up, the fire devoureth; for the Tincture maketh Substantia-lity, its Center is meek, and is a sinking down [of Humility,] as the fire is a rising up [of Pride.]

33. But as the Light (viz. the Tincture) maketh substantiality in its sinking down, so that there is in the Light a substance like water, and yet is no water, but such a spirit and property; so the fire swalloweth up the same Substantiality into itself, and therewith quenched its wrath, and ascendeth in the Substantiality, and burneth like ^b kindled Oil; and this is the right Natural life of all Creatures, and is called the Tincture.

34. But this life is ⁱ fragil, and consisteth only in four forms; viz. in Fire, Air, Water, and in Substantiality [or Earth] which is its Body. And we show you this one thing more in this Tincture-Life, (as you see naturally,) that out of every fire there goeth forth a source [or virtue] viz. Air, which is after this manner; when the fire strongly attracteth and swalloweth the Substantiality into itself, then the Substantiality flieth strongly again out of the source of the Fire.

^k Or flying away.

35. For it is so subtle, that the Fire cannot hold it, and so is an attracting and ^k recoiling again. For the Fire willeth eagerly to have that again which is flying forth, and so there is perpetual strife.

36. Thus you see it very plainly and openly, that the life of the fire letteth go the Air: for it will not stay in the source [or property] of the fire: for it flieth eagerly, and the source [or ^l property] of the fire continually attracteth the same back again into it: And so the fire is blown up, or else it would be smothered, and become dark: and for that cause it reacheth thus after the Substantiality, viz. after the Air.

37. For no ^m source desireth the shutting up in Death; and that is also called Death, when the Life is shut up; besides that, there is no Death.

38. For in the Eternity there was never any death at all, nor shall be ever; but that which is called the Eternal Death, is a shutting up of the Tincture, where the Tincture goeth away like a ⁿ shadow, and so the Center (viz. the source [or fountain] of the Fire) remaineth in the Darknefs, and floweth in mere wrath in itself; and would very fain reach the Tincture again, and yet it hath no power to do so, for the Tincture only is the power, which bloweth up the Fire.

39. Consider here what Hell and the Eternal Death is, for it is just so; and know, that the Devils have lost the Tincture of Meekness, who now are a wrathful fire-source without substantiality, for they have no Body.

40. Secondly, Consider also the Element of Water, and as you know that it hath its original in the spirit of the Creature; so also it hath its original in the Deep of the World, which is also a Spirit, and hath such a life as other Creatures have.

41. And, Thirdly, Consider, that there are two sorts of Fires, a Hot and a Cold: For, as the Heat ^o contracteth together, so doth the Cold, which turneth Water into Ice, and maketh a ^p strange body out of the Substantiality [or Water] which is not its own.

^p Heterogeneous body.

42. By this we give you clearly to understand, the Fall of Lucifer, who thus reached into the Center of Nature, into the harsh Matrix, and awakened it, so that it concreted the Substantiality, and so Earth and Stones came to be.

^q The fall of Lucifer.

43. You will say, Why did God suffer ^r it? [The Answer is:] He was a Prince and Throne-Angel, and was created with the first Creation: and therefore since he was a cause of the Third Principle, (understand of the Out-Birth,) therefore Christ called him also a Prince of this World; for he had also a Free will, like us Men. We oftentimes ^r do works which are contrary to God, only for our State and Honour, as is seen in Forts, Castles, and ^s Sumptuous Great Houses.

^r Or make.

44. So Lucifer also would be as a God and Creator, all which might have been well enough, for that was not his Fall, [no more than it was Adam's Fall, that he Imagined, whereupon God suffered the Tree of Temptation to Grow,] but it was his Fall, that he awakened the Matrix of the Fire, and would domineer over the Meekness of the Heart of God.

45. That [awakened Matrix of the Fire] is now his Hell: and God hath captivated that Hell, with the Heaven, viz. the Matrix of the Water. For [Lucifer would fain that] the Place of this World ^t should burn in the Fire for him [to domineer in;] and therefore God moved himself to the Creation, and did create; and so there was Water, which captivated his wrathful Hell, [as the Pleasant Sun shutteth up the Astringent Cold, and turneth Ice into Water, whereby Fishes and other Creatures grow and Live.]

46. And the Cause of the Sea and of the Great Deep Waters, whose bottom cannot be fathomed, is, that the Matrix of Nature was in ^t those places so far enkindled in the Fire.

47. And here we give you an Example of this. Consider Sodom and Gomorrah, when their sins became Great, and that the Devil dwelt there, and would have a Kingdom there for himself; God permitted that the Prince of this world should burn those five Kingdoms (wherein the Devil intended to dwell) with Fire and Brimstone. But when the Devil thought to be Lord, and to have his Habitation there, then God broke his Pride and Stoutness, and caused Water to come upon that Place, and allayed his Pride.

48. And in this we have an Excellent Example of God's care for his children which depend on him: for when he saw the ^u Wrath, he brought forth Lot out of Sodom. And further, you have herein a full Example, that when the Wrath of God begins to be kindled, he maketh it known to his Children before hand, that they might flee from it, as he told it to Abraham and Lot, and commanded him to flee from it; and so he hath done from the beginning of the World. For the Prophets were for no other end but to declare the Anger of God, and to command the children of God to flee from it; as may be seen by what was done to Jerusalem and the Jewish Nation, and hath been always done to all People from the beginning of the world to this Time. [For when no Punishments or Judgments more can be expected, then Prophefying shall cease.]

49. Therefore let none blindfold themselves, but consider * what such a Warning and Revelation signifieth, which at present is propounded to the World. This is the Time of the overthrow of the Dragon with the Whore of Babel, which shall go down into the Abyss. Now, he that will not fly, yet let him have warning of it. He that will bring the Whore's marks forth into the Light, will have great ignominy and reproach by it; we speak what we ought: The Day dawneth, the Sun will suddenly arise, account it not for a Fiction, it is concluded and known in Ternario Sancto: Look into the Scripture in the Revelation, which the Sophisters had rather it were cast out of the Bible; but the understanding of it will soon bud forth: and then the Pedlars of the Beast and of the Whore will stand in great shame, and none will buy their ware any more. No sword destroyeth the Whore, but her own Mouth choaketh her; for there are nothing but Lies and Blasphemies in it, and yet she seemeth as if she were God. Therefore say we, let every one look to his own Doing: Lift up your heads, as Christ saith, for the time of your Redemption draweth near; you are baptized with water, but he that will baptize with the Holy Ghost, and with the Fire of his Wrath, is already on his way; be not wilfully blind.

50. Thus understand us right concerning the Life of Man as we have now mentioned: This last forementioned Life, is ^w singly in the Beasts, for it hath its Original only in the Principle of this world, in the Matrix of Nature, which is every where such a Spirit, and such a Life in itself.

51. And in Man, the life is two-fold: for Man hath also the life of this [outward] Principle in him: but he desireth also another Life, which is higher and better than this.

^f For the place of this world would have burnt in the Fire for Lucifer.

^t Where the Great Waters are.

^u Or that the Anger was kindled.

* Note.

^w Solely.

52. And now, where there is a Desire, there is a Mother, which is the Desire itself; for no Desire can make itself, it must arise out of a will, and the will must come out of the Tincture, which is the Life of the Will.

53. Thus we know, and have searched out, that in the Tincture of the Principle of this world, viz. in the life of this World, there is also another Tincture which we have an apprehension of in ourselves. If there were not another Tincture, the Life would desire nothing more.

54. Yet we cannot say, that the outward Life desireth any thing more: It desireth nothing else but its own Mother, viz. the Principle of this world, for it is only a Spirit therein; for no Principle desireth another, a Principle is a peculiar life, and hath its Center to Nature; and therefore we call it a Principle, because there is a Total Dominion in it, as there is in the Eternity; which Dominion desireth nothing more nor higher, but only that which may be generated in its own Center; as you may easily perceive it by the Kingdom of Heaven and the Kingdom of Hell; for the Kingdom of Heaven desireth nothing but the Divine Being: but Hell [desireth] that which is wrathful, murderous, fiery, sour, soaring, Astringent, and whatsoever is in the Property of Anger in the Fire.

55. Now, there being in us a desire after the highest Good, and after the Eternity, that desire must needs proceed out of the Eternal and highest Will, out of the highest Being, and its life is also out of the highest Tincture: for where there is a Desire, there is Fire; for the Fire desireth substantiality, that it may have whereon to feed, and yet itself can make no substantiality, but it maketh the Tincture, and the Tincture maketh the substantiality, as is above mentioned.

56. Now, the Tincture is a Creature, for it hath a Body: [as may be seen in the Tincture (or colour) of Gold;] though it be not palpable, yet it is ³ substantial; and the understanding is in the Tincture, for it is a wrestling with the Fire, and lieth before the Fire, and yet it cannot fly away, because the Fire ⁷ generateth it, and continually attracteth it again into itself, and it still striveth to get out from the fire with the substantiality, and is after the manner, as a Man fetcheth Breath.

57. Therefore we give you now rightly to understand it thus: you see that the Tincture shineth, and in the shining there is no stirring, but a constant Luster; and yet in the Luster there is all power, as in the Tincture: and it is an Eternal Stillness, and the Tincture is the stirring, and also the life. Understand us rightly and deeply, for it is the deepest Ground, and foundation in Heaven.

58. The other Desire in Man after the Highest Good, is the soul, which standeth in the Eternal Mother: for every desire hath its original out of its own Mother: therefore this is a desire of the Eternity; and not the Eternity [itself,] but the Tincture of the Eternity, and the Majesty, viz. the glance in the Still Habitation, as is now mentioned.

59. Now, if a Spirit be in its own Mother, it desireth not to go out from her again; [as the Air-spirit doth not desire to go away from the Body;] neither doth it desire any thing more than what is in its Mother, and in its Center.

60. But yet we find and understand it in our mind, that the soul willeth to be out of this [Earthly] Mother, in which it standeth at present: and not only so, [but] it desireth the house of its own Mother, viz. its own Tincture, and the Majesty, also the Eternal Rest out of the Tincture.

61. And so we search and find, and have it in true knowledge, that the poor soul in the Spirit and in the Tincture [or life] of this [outward] world, lieth captive in a strange Lodging, and hath not its Light of the Majesty, for if it had that, it would be at Rest, and desire nothing more.

62. Also we find, that it lieth captive in Death in much weaknes: for if it had its [right] Tincture, then should the Majesty, wherein it is a child of God, shine in it.

63. Therefore we say, that the poor soul of Adam was captivated by the Spirit and Principle of this world, and received the Tincture of this world into it; and then instantly the Majesty and brightness of God remained standing in its [own] Principle: for the soul put its will and desire into the Spirit of this world, and itself entered into it.

64. Thus God shut up the Heaven in the soul, so that it knew its Majesty no more; and there was perplexity and great misery, that an Eternal Creature should come to be in another Principle in another Center. Here the seven Seals to the Book of the Eternal Life were shut to the soul, for the Center of its Life was shut up and captivated in the Eternal Death, it could no more stir any form in the Center of its Life, it lay in Hell like dead^z Bones, the Dragon had it in his Jaws.

^z As a dead Corpse in the Grave.

65. For it was in the house of misery, there was none that could help it, no Angel, no Throne-Prince, no Creature, neither could the Center of the soul help it: for its fire was extinguished, the spirit of this world had swallowed it up [as the water devoureth the brightness of the flaming Iron:] For the will of the soul was entered into the Spirit [of this world,] and had married [or joined] itself thereto, ^a it was in another Mother as it ^a The Will. is now at this Day.

66. And so now, if the Mother of this world had been broken (as it doth break [indeed]) then the soul should have stood in the Eternal Death in the Darknes. Here ^b Counsel was at an end, the fair Creature was captivated by the Kingdom of Hell, which triumphed over it. ^b Or Remedy.

The highly Precious Gate.

67. Here was no Counsel in the whole Deity, unless the Eternal Word and Heart of God did become Man, and did enter into the Third Principle into human flesh and blood, and assume a human Soul, and go into Death to the poor soul, and did take away the Power of Death (which held the soul captive) and the wrathful sting of Hell, which it had stuck into the soul, and did lead the poor soul out of Death, and out of Hell, ^c in himself. ^c In, by, or through.

68. And here we see, that after the Word became Man, that Man suffered himself to be hanged on the Cross, and entered into Death on the Cross: Understand here, the New Living Man born of God, went into the Abyss, and broke Death in the soul, and opened the Center of the soul: He broke all the seven Seals of the Center of Nature, so that the soul came to have its own powers again; for he kindled the Divine fire in the soul again, so that the soul again reached the Eternal Tincture out of its own fire.

69. And thus it came again into its first Mother, in power and Majesty: and the Old Adam hung to the Cross as a Curse, to the scorn of all Devils, there they might do as far as they could with it, as indeed they were busy with the Sophisters, and Antichrists, the Pharisees.

70. There the Devils ran with other subtlety and Tricks into ^d holes, and hid [covered and concealed] the Resurrection, through the Ministers of the Dragon, the Pharisees, which yet pretended to be the Ministers of God, but they served the Devil in his lies, as is done now a-days, where the Death and power of Christ is closed up and denied. ^d Corners and secret places.

71. This hanging on the Cross is nothing else, but that as the soul hath its original upon the Cross in the Center of Nature, (out of the Word of the Lord, ex verbo Domini,) where the Name of the Number Three standeth, there hath the Word of the Father moved itself, and is entered into the Humanity, as is heretofore mentioned concerning the Virgin, and is become Man on the Cross, in the Eternal and in the Earthly Virgin; and hath been made a speſtacle on the Croſs, to the Old Adamical Man and all Devils, and their lofty Pride; and hath ſlain Death on the Croſs, and thereby broke through it, and ſo brought the Adamical Man (with fleſh and blood) as a ſpeſtacle into Death; and hath caſt away from him all Earthlineſs, and brought him powerfully through Death into Life.

72. Thus he is new Born in God, and ſiteth upon the Rainbow, on the Subſtanciality and Colours of the Eternity, in the power of the Maſteſty, and is a Lord of Heaven and of this world, and a Judge of Hell, and a ^c Conqueſt over Death.

^c Or Power.

73. Of this you have a true ground, ye that are Regenerated in Chriſt, that as Chriſt brought his body, both the Heavenly and the Earthly, (which he received in his Mother Mary,) out from Death again, and caſt away from him nothing elſe but the Earthly ſource [or property,] viz. the Spirit of this [outward] world.

74. So alſo muſt our Bodies in the power of the ſouls that are in him, (that is, in his Word and Heart, which is every where,) come forth again at the Laſt [Judgment] Day, and caſt away no more from them, but this ſource and ſpirit [of the outward World;] for none riſe again in the intire corrupt Body, but in the fleſh and blood of Chriſt.

75. But the corrupted Spirit (which remaineth in the Earthly Matrix in its Tincture) muſt appear before the Judgment of God at the End of Days; and there ſhall the ſentence and Judgment of the Judge Chriſt be pronounced; and then after the pronouncing all goeth into the ^f Ether: and then the Spirit of God, which Created the World, will execute that ſentence.

^f Receptacle or Devourer.

76. But that I may not meet with falſe Interpreters that may miſtake this Text, as the Spirit ſhoweth me, therefore you muſt know, that when the ſoul is Born a-new in the Word and in the Spirit of Chriſt (in this [life] Time,) then alſo the firſt Subſtanciality (viz. the inward Body of the ſoul, which Adam had in Paradise) out of the Eternal Virgin (wherein he was created Man) becometh new born, and getteth the fleſh of Chriſt.

77. This new Body, in which the New Regenerate ſoul ſticketh, ſicketh in the old corrupt fleſh, and is incomprehenſible and immortal: But the Old Man [which is] conceived from the Spirit of this World, muſt perish in the Earth: It goeth into its Mother, who muſt bring it forth, and preſent it at the Laſt [Judgment] day: but after the Sentence of Chriſt, it goeth into the Ether, and is only as a Figure ^z to the Eternal New Man; for in that Figure all a Man's works follow him.

^z For or before.

78. So alſo they that be alive at the hour of the laſt Judgment, the Old Man will fall away from them, with the perishing of the World, and paſs into the Ether: For all the Bodies of the wicked ſhall be preſented there in the Mother, viz. in the Spirit of this world, and the ſouls ſhall hear the Sentence: and then their Bodies alſo paſs away with the Mother, and ſtand as a Figure: and their Works follow them into the Abyſs.

The Ninth Chapter.

Concerning the Threefold Life. Also of the ^b Inclination and ^b Driving or Impulsion whole Government of Man in this World. Highly to be Considered.

1.  T is shown to me, what the Devil's Intention is, how he will endeavour to smother these High and precious Writings: therefore be watchful, ye children of God, believe not the Sophisters too much, who cry out, Heretick! Heretick! To the fire with them. That is not the voice of the Holy Ghost, but the voice of the Antichrist, and of the Dragon: for these Writings will exceedingly discover the Devil's smoking Pit; and not only so, but they show also the Whore of Babylon very plainly, like a whore ⁱ put to open shame.

2. But (because the Men of the Spirit of this world take care only for their Belly, and are loth to lose their honour, credit, reputation and Goods, but had rather part with God and the Kingdom of Heaven) we shall be persecuted by the Whore through the instigation of the Devil: therefore be watchful, ye children of God, and look not upon that which is high, and hath great authority; but regard the welfare of your souls. This we leave you for the last [farewel.]

3. Christ saith, No one kindleth a light, and setteth it under a cover, or under a Busbel, but setteth it upon a Table, that all that are in the house may see by the light thereof. Thus must we also do, and must not bury our Talent (which is so dearly bestowed upon us) in the Earth; for we must give an account thereof at the Day of the Judgment of God, as the Spirit of the Mother intimateth to us.

4. If this knowledge [or understanding] of this Spirit, shall happen to fall upon any, they will be then certain what it is ^k. We need no Letters of Commendation; Christ is our Letter of Commendation, which is sufficient for us. None ought to call themselves after my Name: All of us that know Christ, put on him, and are members of his Body: we call ourselves Christians and children of God, and brethren and sisters one of another.

5. Therefore now when we consider the Dominion [or Course] of our Life, we find a powerful strife therein, which the Devil hath with the soul, and also which the Spirit of this world hath with the soul. For there is a knowledge in the spirit of this world; indeed there is no divine understanding in it, but there is an apprehension planted in the Matrix, viz. in the Center of Nature.

6. For this world, before the Creation, stood from Eternity in the Eternal Wisdom, as an invisible Figure, and is now created as a proper Principle of its own, to the end that it might bring all its wonders and works into Essence, that they may appear in their figure after the Time [of this world.]

7. And so there is a natural strife with man therein, for no creature but Man can bring the Wonders of the world to light; and therefore also the Spirit of this world hath so very much longed after Man, and hath drawn him to it, that it might show forth its Wonders in him, that Man should produce all Arts and Languages in ^l it; moreover, ^l The Spirit of this world, the Spirit and Heart out of Earths and Metals, viz. that Precious Stone, the Philosopher's Stone, which indeed, since Solomon's Time, hath been found by few, but now at the End shall be found more clearly, as we know and understand.

ⁱ Am Pranger.

^k Which is here written.

^l The Spirit of this world.

[^] Note.

8. * For he that rightly understandeth our Writings concerning the Center of Nature, and its progress to the Number Three upon the Cross, and to the Glance of the Majesty, may well find it in Metals, it is not difficult; if he learn but the right entrance, he hath the end at hand, of which we shall not here make mention; for it belongeth to the Magi, which are born Magically: we speak only of the Ground of Nature, and of the Spirit of this world.

9. And we declare unto you, that the Spirit of this world is created with such an inclination, and that it hath a natural will to reveal itself and all its Mysteries, as we see before our eyes by what it hath built or brought forth, how it hath erected a Dominion and Kingdom upon Earth.

^m Course.

10. Do but look upon the doings of Man, from the highest to the lowest: the Spirit of this world hath thus built the whole ^m Order of them, and God had permitted it. For God is not a destroyer, but a preserver of that which his power buildeth up, and accounteth it for his Ordinance: for there is nothing brought forth which hath not stood in the Eternity.

ⁿ Or soil.

11. But you must understand it right; Hell and the Anger are the Abyss which mingleth its Wonders also therein, as we see where there is good ⁿ ground, and that the Sower also soweth good seed, yet thistles and thorns grow up amongst it; according as Christ hath given us a similitude of the Sower: and as it is in the mind of Man, so it is also in the Spirit of this world.

^o Or formed its Image.

12. You are to know, that all weeds, as Thistles and Thorns, also Serpents, Toads, evil Beasts and Worms, have their original from the Wrathful Matrix: For in the time of the Creation, all, both good and evil, came forth, every thing according to its kind and property: there is good and evil in every thing, and the Kingdom of Anger hath also wholly ^o imprinted itself therein; and therefore the fruit is Good and Evil, and Adam should not have eaten of it.

13. I give you to understand, by the fruits of the Earth, how good and evil are in one another, and have each of them their usefulness, the evil as well as the good: All serve to manifest God's deeds of Wonder; and each is serviceable to the Spirit of this world; what the one hurteth, the other healeth, and that also is a wonder.

14. Further, we see the Mysterium Magnum, the Great Mystery, in the Trees; though indeed they are different and mixt, yet we discern the Paradise form [or condition in them;] for they bear their fruit upon Twigs, and the fruit is a thing different from the Tree: The tree is bitter, and the fruit is sweet: And we give you to understand, that the Trees and fruit we have now a-days were Paradise, if the Curse did not stick in them: the Paradise is flown from them, and now all fruit is but such as the Apple was from which Eve did eat Death. And you are to know, that the Kingdom of Anger did also press into the Garden of Eden, which brought forth a Tree that did bear such fruit, as all the Trees now a-days which we feed upon.

15. Only we are to consider, that the fruits for Man do not grow of themselves, he must plant and dress them, as you see in all Trees, both in the wood and stalks of them: and Man desireth not willingly [to eat of] the [first] Essences of the Earth; except it be a very ^p pleasant herb, but he desireth the second Birth out of the Earth, viz. the kernel [seed or fruit;] which is indeed the second Birth out of the Earth, whereby we understand our high descent; but before the Fall, Paradise sprung up through all Trees, and through all the fruits which God created for Man.

16. But when the Earth was cursed, the Curse entered into all fruits, and then all was Evil and Good; Death and ^q Corruption was in them all, which before was but in that one Tree only, which was named [the Tree of] Good and Evil; and therefore it is that we Eat Death in all the fruits, and the Spirit [^r of] Evil and Good ruleth in us. The Spirit

Spirit of this world ruleth in us, and so doth the Devil with the Spirit of Anger; and each of them show forth their wonders in and by Man.

17. There is a great Strife about Man's Image, each Kingdom would have it: Hell in the Anger faith, It is mine by the right of Nature, it is generated out of my Root. Also the Spirit of the world faith, I have it in my body, and I give it life and nourishment, I bring it up, and give it all my powers and wonders; it is mine. And the Kingdom of God faith also, I have set my heart upon it, and have regenerated it, it is proceeded out of my Kingdom, I have fought and found it again, it is mine, it must reveal my Wonders.

18. Thus there is a vehement Strife in and about Man: Look upon his Conversation and Doings; his Desire standeth especially in Three Things, and they are Three Kingdoms which rule him: and into which of them he falleth, there he lieth.

19. First, He desireth power, honour, and glory, that all might fear and honour him. This is even the Poison of the Devil, who hath also such an intention, which he satisfieth by doing as much as he can.

20. Secondly, He desireth riches, goods, and money, much eating and drinking, and careth not by what means he cometh by it; it is the Spirit of this world which desireth only shelter and fullness as a Beast doth.

21. And, Thirdly, He desireth the Kingdom of Heaven also, he desireth and panteth after that, but in much weakness, and is always in doubt [thinking] he is a Sinner, [and that] God desireth not to have him: yet he sigheth and panteth after it, and would fain be saved: he prayeth and yet doubteth, he hopeth and yet feareth, he hopeth for amendment and deliverance from one day to another, and always supposeth it will be well to-morrow, to-morrow thou wilt have power to go from this [course of] life and enter into another: thus it is always with him.

22. This we do not speak concerning the Swine-like Men, who lie wallowing in the Mire, who never seek for any amendment: but we speak concerning the poor sinners that are between Heaven and Hell, who have incitements to both of them, and yet are held back.

23. Yet observe what Man doth: He followeth all these three [desires;] he continually seeketh power and honour till his end; he continually hunts after covetousness, money, and goods, to eat and drink; and though he have superfluity, yet in his covetousness he hath not enough; he doth as if he were to live here for ever; and then, thirdly, he hath also panted [after the Kingdom of Heaven,] for the poor soul is very much perplexed, and is ever afraid of the Devil, and the Anger of God, and would fain be released; but the first two Kingdoms do press it down, and bar it up in their Prison, in-somuch that many a poor soul casteth itself away into the Abyfs, and despaireth of the Kingdom of God.

24. They say, The Devil cometh to Man in the form of an Angel, and it is true: Observe what he doth, that he is accounted an Angel, and is accounted good; when the poor soul is thus disquieted, and many times presenteth to the Body Death and the Anger of God, he hinders not that; he often lets the poor soul run with the Body to the Houses of Stone, [to the Churches,] or whither it will: He puts it on most willingly of all to go to the Stone Churches, and there faith to the soul, Now thou art Godly and Devout, thou goest diligently to Church.

25. But what does he then? when any teach of the Temple of Christ, and of the New Birth, then he soweth other thoughts into the Spirit of this world in Man: Sometimes Covetousness; sometimes he sets the Eyes upon Pride, State, and Beauty; sometimes he catcheth the Spirit with the Lust and Imagination towards Men or Women, according to their sex, and tickles the Heart with wanton Lust; sometimes they are lulled fast asleep.

26. But when the Preacher is a Sophister, and a malicious slanderer or railer; or perhaps many times in performance of his Office, and from a good meaning, he rebuketh men according to their deserts; there the Devil sets open every Door and Gate, and tickles the Hearts [of the Hearers] therewith; and the Heart wisheth still more and more of that, that is very fine [to keep them from falling asleep.]

27. And when such people go from Church, they can repeat every word very readily, and that best of all which tends to the disgrace of others: With that they feast themselves the whole week long; it is more acceptable to them than the Word of God.

28. Behold, this is a Devil in an Angelical form; when they suppose, that if they do but run to Church together, then such are very good Christians. But if they have learnt no more but to scorn, mock, and deride others, and bring it home to their families, it had been better they had all that time been wallowing in the mire, or that they had been fast asleep, and then the Devil should not have defiled their souls in the Church of stone with wantonness and scorn: O how happy a sleep it is in the Church, when the Preacher invites the Devil into the Heart for a Guest! It is better to sleep, than to Imagine Wantonness, or to fill the heart with revilings and scorn.

29. O you Sophisters! that fill your sermons with reviling of your forefathers that are dead long ago; you that out of Envy often revile honest hearts according to your own pleasure; how will you be able to stand with your Lambs? whereas you should have led them into fresh green pastures, into the ways of Christ, viz. into love, chastity, and humility, but you have filled them with revilings; it were better you were in a stable or hog's sty with your revilings, than in a Pulpit, and there you would seduce no body.

30. I speak not this out of a desire [to reproach any body,] but I do only what I ought to do, I despise none, I only discover the smoky Pit of the Devil, that it may be seen what is in Man, as well in one as in another, unless he be regenerated a-new, and then he resisteth the Spirit of the Devil, and thrusteth it away from him.

31. The other Devil is more crafty and cunning than this, but is also a Glistering Angel with ¹ cloven feet; when he seeth that the poor soul is afraid, and desireth to repent and amend, then he saith, Pray, and be devout; Repent for once and away; but when the soul goes about to pray, he slippeth into its heart, and taketh away the understanding of the heart, and putteth the heart into mere doubting, as if God did not hear it: he represents Sin before the Heart, and saith, To-morrow it will be better, leave off, you will not now be heard.

32. Thus the Heart standeth and repeateth over the words of a Prayer, as if it were learning somewhat without Book; and the Devil taketh away the virtue and efficacy of them out of the Heart, so that the soul cannot reach the Center of Nature: as Christ saith, The Devil taketh the Word out of your hearts, that you may not believe and be saved.

33. Then again the soul standeth and saith, it hath Prayed, but it hath not prayed, it hath only rehearsed words, not in the Spirit of the soul in the Center where the fire is to be struck, [or ¹ kindled,] but in the Mouth, in the Spirit of this world, and they vanish in the Air, or else as words wherewith God's Name is taken in vain: But here this should be observed, Thou shalt not use the Name of God in vain, and unprofitably in thy mouth, for God will not leave him unpunished that useth his Name in vain.

34. There belongeth great Earnestness to prayer: for Praying is calling upon God: to intreat him, to speak with him, and to go out of the house of sin, and enter into the house of God: and if the Devil offers to hinder it, then storm his Hell: Set thyself against him, as he setteth himself against thee, and then thou shalt find what it is which is here told thee: if he opposes strongly, then oppose thou the more strongly; thou hast, in Christ, far greater Power than he.

35. And if you doubt of the Grace of God, you sin greatly, for he is always ^u Merciful, and there is no other will in him at all but to be Merciful: He cannot do otherwise, ^u Barbarous. ^z g. His Arms are spread abroad Day and Night towards a poor Sinner. And when any cometh [with the lost Son to the Father,] and so stormeth Hell, Then there is amongst the Angels of God, greater Joy for such a-one, than for Ninety Nine righteous that need not that; as Christ himself Teacheth us.

36. With such a Devil as ^w covereth the Heart of Man, there is no better course to be taken with him, than not to dispute with him at all about the multitude of sins; but to wrap up all sins on a heap, (though they were as many as the sand on the Sea-shore) and throw them on the Devil's shoulders, and to say in his heart, Behold, thou Devil, thou art the Cause of all this Evil, I leave my sins to thee, but I take the Mercy of God, and the Death of Christ to myself, therein will I roll [involve] myself, devour me if thou canst. ^w Or taketh him off from an earnest purpose or resolution of amendment.

37. Do but fix thy trust and confidence upon the Promise of Christ: and let your Storming be always grounded in the Death of Christ, in his sufferings and wounds, and in the Love of Christ: Dispute no further about your sins, for the Devil involves himself therein, and upbraideth thee for thy sins, that thou mightest despair.

38. Make trial in this manner, and you will quickly see and feel another Man, with another ^x sense and will [in you:] We speak as we know, and have found by Experience: We speak not by way of Opinion, or as an Historical Relation, but that which we have ^x Thoughts and understanding. a ground for, for a soldier knows how it is in the wars: but he that has not tried and been present; always thinketh otherwise than it is. This we mention out of Love for your Learning and Instruction, as ^y a Spirit which speaketh how it hath gone with it, for an Example to others, to try if any would follow us, and then they should find how true it is. ^y One in Spirit.

The Gates of the Deep Ground concerning Man.

39. Since the beginning of the world there has been a Controversy about this: because these Gates were ^z shut with Adam, and we have been held captive in Darknes: but seeing God hath favoured us, and opened them to us, and also hath given us an earnest will to write it down, we shall therefore do it, and give thanks for it to God the Father in Christ Jesus in Eternity, who hath redeemed us out of the Darknes of Death. ^z Sunk by Adam.

40. Therefore when we would know what Man is, and why there is so great difference and variety amongst Men, so that one does not as another does, and that one differs in Form and Feature from another; we must set before us the most inward Ground of his [Incarnation or] becoming Man, and consider it, and then we shall find all.

41. For when a Man that is Regenerated in God, so that he seeth the Light, begins to search out his original, then the Spirit of the soul searcheth in all the Three Principles, what ^a he is in each of them; for we know it, and cannot say otherwise, than that we, in the Image of the Spirit, and also of the Body, in all the Three Principles, have but one ^a rule [or Dominion] in us; but that Dominion is in three Sources [or qualities:] the Spirit and the Body is driven according to each Principle, and what Principle it is which getteth the upper hand in Man, so that Man with his will inclineth to it, according to that he performeth his work, and the other [Principles] do but cleave to it, not having sufficient power.

42. But when we will speak of the Image, we must see what it is in the Ground of it. ^b Or womb. For we are sown as a seed in a field, into the ^b Matrix: Now, consider what precedeth that: Nothing but a longing will and desire of Man and Woman to Copulate, and yet the fruit is not always desired, of which we have an Example in Whores and Whoremongers, also indeed in the State of Marriage.

43. Now the Question is, What is that which provoketh [to copulation] in the male and female of all kinds, as also in Man? Behold, in the Eternity all hath been in one Being, viz. the Tincture, which is the Center and cause of Life, as hath been mentioned at large before; and also the Substantiality, which is generated out of the Tincture, which hath also all the forms of the Center, yet without Fire, for ^c it is a sinking down, and cannot kindle the Life in it, it is corporeal, and affordeth Body, but not life; for the fire affordeth life. ^c The Substantiality.

44. And we give you to understand, in the Copulation, that the Man hath the Tincture, and the Woman the Substantiality, viz. the Matrix, which is generated out of the Tincture: Now observe, in the Eternity they were in one another, and this world stood therein as a Figure; for the Wisdom had overshadowed the Tincture, and received it into itself as the Body doth the Spirit; and this could not be brought to a substance visible to the Angels, unless God did move the Eternity, for the Angels are in a substance.

45. Now when God, viz. the Number Three, moved himself, there was moved therewith also the Center of Nature in the Eternity, whereby all became Essential, Substantial: The Tincture became substantial, and prevailed; and the Substantiality became material, and yet was not divided, for that cannot be, it is one only ^d substance. ^d Or thing.

46. And now when God placed the Fiat in the Material Substantiality, or, as I may better say, did awaken [the Fiat therein,] so that the Word in the Substantiality said, Let there come forth all sorts of Beasts, according to their kind; then there went forth out of the Material Substantiality two ^e kinds, and that Corporeally; for through the ^f Word of the Lord, the Tincture took on it substantiality, and the Spirit of the Substantiality took also to it ^g a body, and so there were two sexes or kinds. The body of the Tincture had in it the Center of the Life; and the Body of the Substantiality had not the Center to the Striking up of the Fire; indeed it had the life, but an ^h impotent life. ^e Male and Female. ^f Verbum Domini. ^g Corpus.

47. This we demonstrate thus, that you may rightly understand it: Look upon a ⁱ flaming Iron, which sendeth two spirits forth from itself, one hot one, which hath the Center, and can kindle and awaken another fire; and one airy one, from which water proceedeth, which hath also all powers of the Fire; yet the Tincture therein is not fire, but it is an Eternal Bar that no fire can be therein, and yet is the Spirit of the Fire, which hath its source out of the Fire, and its life like to the Fire, for in the Eternity there is no Death. Therefore in the female kind, no life can proceed out of their Tinctures, but the Matrix must get the Tincture from the seed of the Male. ^h Or faint, weak. ⁱ Red hot.

48. Thus we declare unto you also the Ground of the difference between the Male and the Female kind: for when God created the Material Substance, there went forth the kinds of all Essences in the Center of Nature, according to all the Properties: for as you see the Stars, that one hath a property different from the other, which all are created out of the Center of Nature, according to the material Substantiality; and so all Essences stood in the Material Substantiality, and the Fiat attracted all towards the Created Earth.

49. And every form of the Tincture, and of the Spirit of the several kinds, has figured, every one its own body, according to its Properties, as to be Beasts, Fowls, Worms, Fishes, Trees and Herbs, also to be Metals and Earth, all according as the life was in them. And this you may well perceive by the difference of each Day's work [of the Creation.]

50. For on the first Day, God Created the Material Water, (which hath an impotent life, and is a Bar upon the Fire of the Anger, and upon the Devils smoky Pit, where he thought in the burning Fire to domineer over God,) Also [he then created] the Earth and the Stones, and so the * Gros part was separated, which consisted in mortal and fierce Effences, whereby Lucifer supposed to be King and Creator therein. ^k Dross.

51. When this was done, God said, Let there be light, (let the Light of the Tincture open itself,) and there was Light: then God separated the Light from the Darknes. Understand this rightly. He [God] shut up the fierce fire which Lucifer had kindled (which takes its Source out of the Darknes,) and let the Tincture in the Quintessence burn, as in the fat of the Water spirit, as in a Beast [the fire of its life burneth.]

52. Thus the life did burn in the Tincture, and turned the fat, viz. the Oil, into a Quintessence, viz. Blood, and so that life did burn in the Blood; for therein standeth the Noble Tincture: and God hath reserved in his own power the Center of the Fire: for he hath shut it up in the Darknes, as it hath stood from Eternity in the Darknes: and so every Life standeth in his hand: for if he let the Fire come into the Tincture, then the Spirit is in the hellish Fire.

53. Now, when the light did shine out of the Tincture, he divided the Tincture into two parts, even as it divideth itself, viz. into the Fire-life, and into the Light-life, as has been mentioned before, and created the two lives, the Fire-life to be a Heaven and a firmament between the Holy Meeknes, viz. the Heart of God, and the impotent Air-Spirit: and yet the Air goeth forth from its Mother, the Tincture of the Fire spirit, and God dwelleth between them both.

54. The Fire-spirit of the Tincture hath the Eternity ^l in its Root, and the Air-spirit ^l For. hath the material life, which sourced forth with the awakened Substantiality, and ruleth the outward Bestial Life: for it is the Bestial life of every Creature, also [it is the life] of Trees, Herbs and Grasse; it hath also a Tincture, but not strong enough.

55. Thus you see how the Life standeth in the Water, and hath two Dominions, viz. Fire and Air; and you see whence the Blood hath its original, which maketh a Creature [that hath blood] more Noble than one that hath not blood in it; for that Creature hath a false Tincture, and is proceeded from the Will of the Devil, as you see in Vipers and venomous Worms, they have not the Noble Tincture [or the Noble Life.]

56. But when the Devil intended to be Lord in the Tincture, and would Create, he awakened such a life in his will, which yet is not all his [life:] he is indeed of the same Effences, and the Devil's Bodies are figured also in Hell into such Serpents, venomous Worms, and ^m ugly Beasts: for they cannot in their own form be otherwise; although ^m Loathsome, indeed they have not a Body from the Divided Tincture from its Substantiality, but [they deformed. have a body] out of the Center of Nature, out of the fierce Matrix, out of the Eternal Substantiality, out of the Darknes, which is a Spiritual Body.

57. Now when God had Created the Earth, the water was over the whole Earth, which God separated, that the Earth became dry, and called the Water Sea, Méér, which in the Language of Nature signifieth a covering, and holding fast the fierceness of the Devil, a true reproach to the Devil, that his power was drowned: To expound this, very acute Writings are requisite, and ⁿ Man could hardly be able to apprehend it. ⁿ The natural Man.

58. Thus the Earth sprung ^o in its own Effences and Tincture, which were also ^p comprehended in the First Creation. ^o Put forth its own virtue. ^p Or conceived.

59. It shall also be rightly expounded to you what Moses saith, God separated the Water above the Firmament from the Water under the Firmament; that is, into the Water and Blood of the [living] Creatures; for the Water above the Firmament is Blood, and therein standeth the ^a Tincture, which separateth the Heaven from the water beneath the Firmament, viz. from the Elementary water; as we see that each of them hath its own habitation and Dominion: of which may be spoken more at large in another place.

^a Or life.

60. Only we understand therein two Kingdoms, viz. the soul dwelleth in the Blood in the Tincture, and in the Water dwelleth the Air-spirit, which is corruptible, for it had a beginning, but the soul had none; for the Tincture is from Eternity, and therefore the figures of all kinds must remain in Eternity; account it not for an opinion, it is really so.

^a Or senses.

61. Now, when Heaven, Earth, and the Elements were thus formed, then the fiery Tincture was as a shining Light, and was a Firmament, called Heaven: for this world had no other Light: And then God iuffered the Center of Nature to open itself in the Created Substantiality, (for this whole Principle became but one body,) and there broke forth its Heart, [viz. the Heart of this Principle] with its own proper will and ^f faculties out of the Essences; that is, the Sun and the Stars are its Essences, and the six Planets are the Spirits at the Center of the Heart, and the Sun is their Heart: all just as the Deity hath been from Eternity.

^f Senses.

^e Or Spirit of the Air.

62. Thus there came a true life and understanding, with reason and ^f perception, yet a Bestial one into the outward Tincture and the ^e Air-spirit, and so the Great Wonders stood there manifest; for God had manifested himself in a figurative form: And you see that it is true; do but consider what we have written before concerning the Center of Nature, and so on to the Light of the Majesty, and concerning the Number Three, and you will find here in this world a figurative similitude [of Him.]

Consider of the Planets.

63. Saturn, the first and highest, is astringent, cold, dusky, and maketh the desiring and attracting: for it is the sharpness. If you will have a right understanding of this, you must ^u transpose the Planets.

64. First, take the uppermost [Planet] and unto it the undermost, for in the wheel every where is uppermost and undermost: understand in the Wheel of Life, and it wheeleth the upper part undermost when it turneth round; which is only to be understood concerning fond conceited Men, and Beasts, with whom the wheel of Nature falleth a turning; for the Cross stayeth it. Therefore observe well: Saturn attracteth the Moon, which is beneath, and causeth in the Matrix of the Creature the ^x Corporising, viz. that there be flesh; for Saturn and the Moon make Sulphur [or Corporeity.]

^x Or Corporeity.

65. Now Saturn desireth only to shut up, it seizeth upon and holdeth fast; as [in turning] Liquor into a Sulphur. But Saturn hath not ful; for ful is from the Liberty, but Saturn hath a willing, and the will hath ful, for it originally proceedeth out of the Majesty.

66. Consider now, beneath Saturn standeth Jupiter, which is proceeded out of the virtue of Sol [or the Sun] as the Heart of Saturn, (else there would be no desiring, no Saturn;) for Nature desireth only the Heart and Sol, [or the Sun;] yet Jupiter is not Sol, but is the brain.

^f Representeth or revealeth.

67. And observe it, the wheel of Nature windeth itself from without inwards into itself; for the Deity dwelleth innermost in itself, and hath such a Figure [as follows.] Not that it can be delineated; it is only a natural similitude; Even as God^v pourtrayeth himself in the Figure of this world. For God is every where Total and perfect, and dwelleth thus in himself.

68. Observe; The outward Wheel is the Zodiac, with the Constellations, and then the Seven Planets follow to Sol, after Sol standeth Fire, after Fire Tincture, after Tincture Majesty, after Majesty the Number Three, with the Cross.

69. And observe it, the desiring goeth inwards into itself towards the Heart, which is God, as you may conceive by such a Figure : for the Regeneration goeth also into itself to the Heart of God.

70. Observe it also well, for it is the Center [or the Ground] of the outward Birth. In the Eighth Circumference [next] after the Zodiac is the Globe of the Earth ; after that, right against it, about on the wheel is ^z Saturn, and going about the wheel there is the ^{*} Moon, and again about on the wheel is ^a Jupiter, and again about on the wheel is ^b Mercury, and about again is ^c Mars, and then ^d Venus, and ^e Sol in the midst, and after Sol, the Fire which Sol affordeth, and after the fire the other World, viz. the Heavenly Tincture, and after the Heavenly Tincture the Number Three, viz. the Eternal Heart, and that is the Eternal Center of Nature, and in the Eternal Center is the whole Power of the Majesty of God throughout, held or shut up by nothing, and is of no substance or Nature [imaginable,] even as the shining of the Sun.

71. You may well perceive what we set before you, thus : The Zodiac, with the Constellations, belong to the Mind, as well in the Deep of the World, as also in the Creature, the Twelve Signs are the twelve parts which the Cross in the Center maketh ; from which the Upper Dominion is divided into twelve Parts, as also the Mind is : For the six Forms in the Center, besides Sol, each of them divide themselves into two Parts ([Sol divideth not itself but only into the Number Three, or into the splendour Fire and Tincture,]) one according to the Tincture that hath Life [in it,] the other according to the Tincture of the Air, which hath spirit [in it,] and yet maketh no Life.

72. Thus the Signs are Twelve, which divide themselves into two Governments, viz. into a Heavenly, according to the Tincture, and into an Earthly according to the Spirit of this world, viz. the Air ; and the two Kingdoms are also twofold, viz. in the Tincture of the Fire there is an Angelical Kingdom, and ^f backwards a Hellish ; and the Kingdom in the Spirit of the Air is also twofold : for the inward [Kingdom]-is the Spirit of God, and the outward is the Spirit of the Creatures ; as David saith, The LORD rideth upon the wings of the Wind ; that is, the Spirit of God which cometh to succour and relieve his work.

73. So also the Tincture Kingdom in God maketh also six forms ; and that of the Spirit, out of the Tincture, which is the Heart and life, and is the Spirit of God, maketh also six in Number, and they are together Twelve in Number : These the Woman in the Revelation, which the Dragon would devour, weareth upon her head, being twelve Stars ; for one Number six she received from the Spirit of this world, wherein the Holy Ghost ^g keepeth the Eternal Life ; and the other number six she hath from the Eternal Tincture out of the Eternal Center out of the Word : for she weareth the Angelical Zodiac, and also the Human.

74. And each Center hath six in Number, which make together the number Twelve : the seventh number of the Center is Substantiality, and the [Dominion or] Kingdom ; for God became Man, and brought the two Kingdoms into one : for Men and Angels are in one Kingdom in God.

75. And so the Image ^h in the Revelation hath twelve Stars upon the Crown : for the Image ⁱ representeth God ; it is the similitude of God, in which he revealeth himself, and wherein he dwelleth. The Crown signifieth the Power of the Majesty of God, as a King weareth a Crown, which signifieth Dominion and Majesty.

76. But that the Image weareth a Crown, with twelve Stars upon the Crown, it signifieth that the Deity is above the Humanity, and that Mary is not God himself ; but the Crown signifieth God, and the Stars [signify] the Spirits of God : six in the Deity, and six in the Humanity : for God and Man are become one Person : Therefore Mary also weareth all [the twelve Stars,] for we are God's Children.

77. Seeing then, that the number Twelve containeth two Kingdoms in the Doubled Number [of six,] viz. an Angelical and a Human, each in the Number of six, which

80. The Seven Spirits, wherein the Son of Man consisteth, in the Revelation, are the seven Spirits of Nature; one of them is the Kingdom, and the six are the Center of Nature, (viz. the) Heavenly: if this be set down according to the ^a Human Number, it maketh the number Twelve, and according to the two Kingdoms, viz. the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of this world, out of ^o which the Faithful are Generated, then there are Four and Twenty Spirits, which are the Elders before the Throne of God, who worship God, and the slain Lamb: consider it well.

81. We further intimate, concerning this world's Center of Nature, thus: The Birth of Life windeth itself like a wheel inwards into itself, and when it cometh to the innermost point, then it attaineth the Liberty, yet not [the Liberty] of God, but only the Tincture out of which the Life burneth.

82. For that which will ^p catch hold of God must pass through the Fire; for no substantiality reacheth God, unless it subsist in the Fire: understand in a peculiar Fire: If that should kindle, the world would melt away. We mean not the Fire of the Out-birth, which is no Fire, but only a sharp fierceness, which consumeth the outward Substantiality which springeth from the water, viz. Wood and Flesh, but doth not stir the Inward Fire in Stone.

83. Therefore observe it; the Liberty, ^q without the Nature of this world, is only the Eternity without substance. Now, as the Eternal Center generateth itself out of the Desiring of the Eternal willing, as is mentioned before; so hath also the other Center of the Third Principle, (through the Word Fiat in the Out-birth, out of the Eternal,) generated itself [in like manner.]

84. For from the first Creation of the first Day, the Outward Center of Nature had wound itself Thrice about, (understand before the Sun and Stars were corporeally created,) and had attained Six Forms, Three superior, and Three inferior; and there are always Twelve of them that belong to one Form of the Center, where there is always a Sign; understand the ^r Signs in the Eighth Sphere (in the Crown.)

85. ^s Saturn, with his harsh, strong, attracting and cold, is one Form and Spirit in the Center, which shutteth up the Abyſs, and maketh darkness in the Deep, and attracteth the Substantiality of the Outward power of this Principle, and the Center windeth about like a wheel; and that which is concrete standeth over again Saturn, as in a wheel, and and is called Mond, [the ¹ Moon,] in respect of its property, which would be too large to set down in writing.

86. Then the wheel windeth further Inwards into itself, and maketh ^u Jupiter: For Saturn, with its attracting, desireth the Liberty of the Divine Substance, but he maketh Hirn, [the Brain;] for it catcheth with its desire the power of the Liberty, and not the Liberty of the Divine Majesty itself, which is without substance.

87. But because there is understanding in the Power, and yet the Power cannot in its own might awaken the understanding, therefore Jupiter desireth a Life in the Power, and that is about on the wheel ^w Mercury: for the wheel is always winding about, and Mercury is a stirrer, a maker of a sound and a noise, and yet hath not the life, for ^x that existeth in the Fire; and therefore it desireth the fierce stormy Turbulence, which striketh up the Fire; and that about on the wheel is ^y Mars, which is a rager, stormer, and striker up of the Fire.

88. But now the Four Forms cannot subsist in the Fire: for they have Substantiality, and the Fire desireth Substantiality, (for the Fire itself subsisteth not, if it has not fuel to feed upon,) which Substantiality desireth Meekness, and that about on the wheel is ^z Venus: for it is the Meekness of the outward Nature, and maketh Love; for it is that which the other five Forms desire: for every Form windeth itself inwards and desireth the Liberty of God, which is meek stillness, and as nothing, and yet is All: and if they have the Meekness, which also maketh water [to be,] then the water is Thick, and is like a duskiness which desireth Light, and becometh pregnant with it, so that the Meekness, viz. Venus, hath a luster of its own above all the Stars in the Firmament; for the desiring catcheth the Light.

89. Now the Light is without substance, and only still and meek, which desireth life and spirit, and yet can produce no life nor spirit out of the Water and Meekness; therefore Venus desireth with its Meekness and Light the Heart; that is, the power and virtue of all Forms, and so it catcheth the Heart, which about on the wheel, in the point, is the ^a Sun, which is the Heart of all the six Forms, and they are the forms of their Heart, which together is a life. Now, if that were unsteadfast, it should ^b pass away, so often as the wheel windeth once about; and though it would be long, it would endure but a Seculum Age, or Term of Twenty-nine years.

90. Now the seven Forms desire Fire, [being the Eighth Number,] and the Eighth Number desireth a life,] which may continue, for the Heart is not alive without Fire, and [therefore] the Heart catcheth hold of the Fire: and that Fire is fierce and consuming, and consumeth all the seven Forms of the Center with their Substantiality.

[The Heart standeth between two Worlds.]

91. Thus the Heart is in Anguish, vexed within and without, for it hath nothing more in the substantial life outwardly; though it seeketh, yet it findeth nothing, and yet seeketh with anxious longing, and penetrateth through all forms, and seeketh mitigation of the Fire, and yet cannot so find it neither.

92. Thus all the six forms of the Heart receive the virtue of the Sun: for it penetrateth mightily into all the six Forms, and seeketh rest and ease, and if it find not that, then it presseth in itself forth from itself through the Fire, and desireth the Eternal Liberty, and attaineth the Liberty through desiring, and yet cannot be Free, for the sharpness of the Fire is in its desiring. But the Liberty attracteth itself in the desiring in the Fire; for the desiring presseth into it [viz. the Liberty.]

93. Thus the Liberty sharpeneth itself in the Fire, and appeareth through the Fire as a flash [of Lightning,] that is, the Glance and shining of the Sun, and that sharpened

Liberty desireth its Eternal Delight, viz. its meek still virtue, and presseth inwardly into itself into the virtue: and that Eternal virtue in the Liberty is the ^c Eternal Word, and that Word is generated out of the Eternal Heart, and in the Heart is the ^d Cross of the Number Three, and is the End of ^e Nature; and in the End is the Virtue and Glance of the Liberty, which is generated out of the Eternal Center, out of the Heart upon the Cross, and is called the divine Majesty of the Eternal ^f Substance.

94. Now consider, as the outward Desiring of the outward Nature goeth inwards into itself towards the Eternal Heart, which is God; (for the outward Nature longeth again after the substance of the Liberty, to be as it was before the Creation, that it might be delivered from the vanity, viz. the fierce Wrath;) so also the inward Heart longeth after the outward Nature, and would fain manifest itself outwardly in figurative ^e similitudes, and thus the inward desireth the outward for a figure, and the inward catcheth the outward in its Desiring.

95. For the similitude of the Eternal Center was indeed already before the Creation of the Sun and Stars in the outward Substantiality: but it was not figured and kindled, [as a Limner before he draweth a Picture hath an Image in his Mind, but not framed exactly.]

96. Thus God's Heart of the Number Three puts its will into the astringent Fiat, into the Matrix of Nature, into the Heart of the Out-birth, into the Firmamental Heart, viz. into the Place of the Sun, and Created with the Spirit of his Mouth [the spirit of the soul] through the Fiat round about on the wheel, the ^h seven Forms of the Center of Nature, for as the wheel turneth and windeth, so went the Fiat also Magically, in the midst, in the willing of the wheeling.

[Mars is Poison and Anger, and denoteth the fierceness of the Fire, as is mentioned before concerning the Center; it is the bitter raging Form in the Wheel, and causeth the Essences in the flash of the Fire: It is a cause of the Life. The Sun and Mars have together the Tincture-Life; and Venus with Mercury and the Sun have the Spirit-life, viz. the Air; that is, the Feminine Life; understand the Matrix, viz. a female Life of all kinds.]

99. And above Mars standeth Jupiter, which is the power and virtue of the Heart, (to which Mars giveth its fire-life, which it receiveth out of the Heart of the Sun,) that maketh the Brain, wherein Mars can dwell.

100. And above that, standeth Saturn, which attracteth the virtue, and maketh for the spirit a house, viz. the ^l Brainpan, and maketh the Substantiality, as the skin upon the Body; thus the Outward life upwards from the Sun, [or Heart,] is the Head, a house for the Spirit, which taketh its original in the Heart in the Fire, and dwelleth in the Head in the five senses in the Air-Life.

101. And under the Sun downwards, is Venus, which taketh its original from the presing forth out of the Fire, out of the Tincture, and therefore hath its peculiar luster, it maketh Water and Love, and is a sinking down, for it is a cause of the Sun's Substanti-ality, and a beginner of the Inferior ^m Body; also it hath the Tincture, and is a cause and ^m Alias, Life.
 beginner of the Seed to another Center to Propagation; for it strengthneth itself with the superior power and virtue, and receiveth therewith the form of the Spirit, both from the Heart, and from the Brain: for all Forms desire to have it, and mingle with it: for it is Love and ⁿ Meekness. Thus it hath the power and virtue of all Forms, and is a ⁿ Kindness.

102. And below Venus is Mercury, to whom Venus giveth its virtue, together with its sinking, and therefore Mercury is so pleasant, and loveth to talk of all the ^q Ingenuities of Nature, it is a nimble sudden awakener of the Seed which Venus giveth to it: for it will [needs] awaken the Body, [or bring the body into being:] and because it hath much skill, therefore it will ^r wander into every thing, and giveth speech to the Body, and awakeneth the Body, and giveth it senses, especially in the Brain, and in the Matrix of the Seed. ^r Or converse and meddle in every thing.

103. Under Mercury standeth the Moon, and there the sinking standeth still, and is a substance mixed of all: it affordeth the Carcass, and all that belongeth thereto: it taketh all to it, and maketh the whole Image as a Beast; it is the Corporeity: Venus congealeth in it; it retaineth all; for it letteth nothing sink down, and it standeth always in fear of falling, in respect of the Earth, which standeth under it; for it feeleth the Anger in the Earth, and therefore is afraid, and doth not sink down, but runneth and maketh haste about, as if it were fugitive: It is a false thing, for it desireth both that which is superior and that which is inferior, and flattereth with the Center of the Earth, and with the Center of the Sun.

104. And as this Dominion or Government in itself is, so is the Dominion in every Creature, also their life standeth thus: and you see how the Wheel turneth round, as [in] the Center, and the body with the Essences standeth still.

105. The six Planets run round about the Sun, as about their Heart, and afford virtue to it, and draw virtue from ^t the Sun: so also the life windeth itself thus about the Heart, ^t Alias, in the Sun.
 and penetrateth into the Heart; for the Spirit-life penetrateth to the soul, which burneth as a light out of the Heart, out of the Tincture of the Heart, and windeth itself inwards thereinto, and they always drive forth one another: and so this form is as a turning Wheel: for the Life of the Spirit is thus in its Original.

106. They who say, that the Sun ^u goeth forth, speak as the blind do of colours, and have never knowen the Center [of Nature;] yet they are not to be blamed for that: for it was reserved [or sealed] till the Seal of the Sun opened itself at the seventh sounding of the Trumpet. Observe ^v this, it is no fiction or boasting: It does concern you all, or else you will die in blindness, for which God is not to be blamed. ^v Note.

107. The World, after the Fall, hath but one Eye, for it hath lived under the six Seals; understand, under the six Planets, with its knowledge: but you ^w shall see the seventh Seal with the Eye of Sol; we here speak what we know. ^w You shall see with solar eyes in the time of the seventh Seal.

108. Understand us aright, thus, we will give light to those that hardly apprehend it: Behold, and observe: The whole Government of this world, in every life, cometh from the Constellations, good and evil; and they are also the cause, that the four Elements, Fire, Air, Water, and Earth, were stirred up: else all in this world would be still.

109. And so now you see the upper Government, especially in the seven Planets: for they are the Government or Dominion of the Spirit, and that is twofold: They have the Tincture-Government, viz. the Fire-life, and also the Air-government, viz. the Water-life : The Three Planets above the Sun, together with the Sun, manage the Fire-life and Government : and the Three beneath the Sun, are the going forth of the Fire's Tincture, and are a sinking down, and together with the Sun manage the Air-government, and have the female kind, for they have the Substantiality of the Matrix, and the Tincture of the Upper Matrix ; the Tincture retaineth the soul, and the lower Matrix of Venus [retaineth] the Spirit.

110. Thus the Upper desireth the Lower, and the Lower desireth the Upper, and is indeed but one body : for Sol is the Heart, and hath the Luster of the Majesty of this [outward Third] Principle.

^y Of Sexes.

111. Thus you understand the Two ^v kinds, the Male and the Female : The [Male or] Man is the Head, and hath in him the Upper Government, with the Fire of the Tincture, and he hath in his Tincture the soul, which is desirous of Venus, which is the Corporeal Matrix : for the soul will have spirit and also body, and that hath the Matrix of the [Female or] Woman.

^x The Moon.

^z Or Thing.

112. And the Lower Government is the [Female or] Woman, and her Government consisteth in the Moon : for Sol affordeth it Heart, and Venus [affordeth it] Tincture, and yet hath no fiery, but a watery [Tincture:] and therefore ^x it affordeth the Air-spirit, and her Tincture doth not stand in the ^y Wisdom, and therefore the Man must rule her : for the Tincture of the Fire is the sharp Trial of every ^z Substance.

^b Moon.

113. Mercury is the stirrer up of ^a their Tincture : and therefore they are so talkative ; and the Moon hath ^b their Matrix, which is out of all the Planets, and is afraid of the Earth, and therefore maketh such haste, and taketh virtue and power in the wheel, from all the Planets and Stars, wherever it can : It desireth Sol vehemently, and therefore draweth also his Luster to itself ; and, as the Moon longeth after the Sun, for itself is of an earthly quality, and desireth the Heavenly Heart, so also the Feminine Matrix longeth after the Heart of the Man, and after his Tincture, viz. after the soul ; for the soul is the Eternal Good.

^c Or Sex.

114. Thus Nature longeth after the Eternal, and would fain be delivered from the vanity. And thus the vehement desire in the Feminine and Masculine ^c Gender of all Creatures doth arise, so that one longeth after the other for Copulation. For the Body understandeth it not, nor the Spirit of the Air, only the Two Tinctures, the Masculine and the Feminine understand it, for a Beast knoweth not what it does, only the Tinctures know it, which drive it thus.

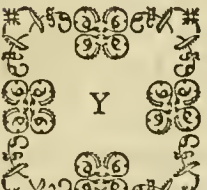

^d The two Tinctures.

115. For the Fiat sticketh in ^d them, they must manifest the great Wonders of God : For the Spirit of God moveth upon the Water of the Matrix in Venus, and in the Matrix of Jupiter, (viz. in the Matrix of the Brain,) and leadeth the Fiat.

116. For the Heart hath the Matrix of Venus, and the Brain hath the Matrix of Jupiter ; thus the Spirit of God rideth upon the wings of the Wind in his own Principle, and yet goeth forth from the Father and the Son in the [continual] Creation, and openeth the Wonders which were seen from the Eternity in the Wisdom : and therefore he is the Workmaster of Every Being, and is sent of God to that purpose.

The Tenth Chapter.

Further of the Creation of every Being : And how a Man may seek and find himself : Also how he may find all Mysteries, even to the Ninth Number, and no Higher.

1.  OUR seeking in the Stars and Elements, supposing to find the Mysteries of Nature, is but labour in vain, you find no more but one Eye, and see with but one Eye, and when you suppose you have found Sol, you have scarce found Luna, but only a Glance of Sol, and are far from the Heart, and do but run with the Moon about the Center.

2. There is but one way, which you must go, if you will find the Great Mystery, Mysterium Magnum, for if you should seek in Luna all your life long, it would be wholly in vain; your desire would remain to be but Luna: If you should take great and hard labour and pains in Mercury, and suppose the Stone lieth therein, your Alchymy would prove but dung and dross.

3. When you come into Venus, you suppose you have Sol, and that it is Gold, but it is the Woman, [or female,] and hath only a watery Tincture, her life is Air, and so you vainly labour ^o in the Body: but if you take the Spirit of the Tincture, then indeed you go in a way in which many have found Sol; but they have followed on the way to the Heart of Sol, where the Spirit of the heavenly Tincture hath laid hold on them, and brought them into the Liberty, into the Majesty, where they have known the Noble Stone, Lapis Philosophorum, the Philosopher's Stone, and have stood amazed at a Man's blindnes, and seen their labouring in vain.

^o Or upon the Body.

4. Would you fain find the Noble Stone? behold we will show it you plain enough, if you be a Magus, and worthy, else you shall remain blind still: therefore fall to work thus; for it hath no more but Three Numbers. First, tell from One till you come to the ^f Cross, which is Ten, and is a Cross Number, (from one to Ten is one Number :) but you have power only over the Number Nine, you must stay at the Tenth, for it is the End of Nature, which the Creature ought not to search into: If the Creature stay under the Cross, it remaineth in the conceived will of God, and then it hath * Ten times Ten, that is an hundred, and † Ten times an Hundred is a Thousand: and there lieth the Stone without any great pains-taking, for it is pure, and is not defiled with any Earthly Nature: Make it thus, as I have written above [in the ninth Chapter] concerning the Center: Transpose the Planets that are about the wheel; and take always one Masculine, and then one Feminine, one for the Spirit of the soul, and the other for the Air-spirit, you need not take care for the body: for each Planet maketh a body to itself well enough, according as its desire is: Begin with Saturn, (for he is the first to the Fire-Life to the Noble Tincture;) and then go about the wheel to Luna; for you must always take one Planet for the Life of the Tincture, and then one for the Spirit of the Air, for the one subsisteth not without the other, or else you get a Spirit without a Body, a fire-spirit, which burneth in a Lanthorn like a kindled Fire, but it yieldeth nothing, it is only a mere Pride, willing to be without a Body.

6. We give this to the Seeker: for none findeth the Stone in Luna, unless he comes upon the Cross into the Tenth Number: and then if he longs further to seek this world, and would fain have the splendor of this world, and desireth the Stone of this world, viz. in Metals, let him go thus from the inward into the outward; let him go into Luna, and divide or break it into a Thousand Parts, and give it a little of Sol; but if its ^l covetousness be great, then give it a seventh part of Sol, and then it is ^m complete.

7. For all the Planets and Stars run after the Heart, every one of them taketh strength and virtue from the Heart, and maketh to itself its own Body; for Luna is out of all the six Planets, and hath even Sol, but not the Heart; for it hath Sol only in Desire: as you see that it shineth with ⁿ Sol, and not with a splendor of its own: and therefore the Spirit of the Heart must be added to it, which was pure before, and then all the Planets resort to it, each of them desireth the pure child, and each ^o buildeth its house therein: But look to it, have a care of Venus, that it may not by tattling bring its feminine Tincture into it: for it appeareth bright and fair: but it is a Woman, and maketh a dark Body, and quickly devoureth Sol: Keep black Saturn in Mars's heat, and so at length bounteous Jupiter will appear, who is courteous and kind, and hath the superior House, the House of the Spirit of the Tincture; when it is come out from black Saturn, then that is the Metalline Stone.

^r The Number 1000 is the Number of the Crown: The Number 100 is the Number of a Man.

8. Trouble not yourself so very much and long with Fire, it affordeth no more than it is able; or else you Number back again into loss; indeed not into perdition, but yet in Solem Hungariae, into the Sol of Hungaria: Venus exulteth the more, but your covetous hope and expectation is disappointed and taken away: Although indeed you ought justly to rest satisfied in the Tenth Number: for the riches of this world are but dung [and dross,] and if you attain to the Tenth Number with your former preparation, you need not take so great care about the Number Thousand: It standeth upon the Crown of the Virgin, in which are set Twelve Stars: six [of them] Divine, and six Human: ^p The Crown hath the Number Thousand, and the Virgin the [Number] Hundred.

9. Christ saith, Seek first the Kingdom of God, and all other things will be added to you. All lies in the willing, for the willing maketh the desiring, and the desiring receiveth where nothing is, though indeed there is something there; yet it is hidden to us Men, unless a Man hath attained the Stone upon the Cross, and then he findeth where Reason saith there is nothing; for that which hath not been from Eternity is not at all, and thereof we know nothing, we know only of that which is, and hath ever been, though indeed not manifested to us Men, but yet is of God in his Wisdom, from Eternity to Eternity.

10. Therefore, although we speak of two Kingdoms, viz. of the Kingdom of God, and of the Kingdom of this World, in that manner as if we saw them with bodily eyes, let it not seem a wonder; if God reveals himself in Man, then he is in two Kingdoms, and seeth with twofold Eyes, and yet this way is not so hard and difficult, as Reason's seeking in outward things: It lies all in the willing; the outward willing must enter into the inward, it must deny itself, as if it were dead to the outward, and had no life in the outward, and yet liveth: As God liveth, and is in the outward, and the outward is dead to him, so that it cannot apprehend him, so also thou, O Man, thou art with thy soul in the inward; but thy soul's will hath turned itself about with Adam into the outward; therefore, if thou wilt behold God and the Eternity, turn thyself about with thy will into the inward, and then thou art as God himself; for thou wert thus created in the beginning, and thus thou livest according to the inward will unto God, and according to the outward [will thou livest] in this world, and hast both Kingdoms; thy own, and art indeed rightly an Image and Similitude of God; thou searchest out things, and findest that which laid hidden in secret; for thou findest that in the Eternal and beholdest it standing backward in the Out-birth, in the Figure.

11. The Ground of the Creation of this world is much easier to be known in the Inward Man, in the Will of God, than visible things to the outward [Man:] The outward knoweth less, that which he seeth with his eyes, and taketh hold of with his hands, heareth with his ears, smelleth with his nose, and tasteth with his mouth, than the inward doth the Ground and the Existence of the outward: The inward sees indeed the Creature in the Ground of it; but is as it were dead to the outward, and yet liveth therein; and in that he liveth to the outward, he liveth to God in regard of his works of Wonder, in that he manifesteth, and bringeth into Being that which standeth hidden in the Figure.

12. And yet we say still, that the Eternal standeth in the willing, and the will maketh desiring, and in the desiring standeth the Figure of the willing. Thus it was before the Time of this world: But when God moved himself in his willing, he so created the desiring, that it stood in a Being, and other than this very thing we know nothing.

13. Therefore, now, the desiring is another thing than the willing, for the willing is without Being [or Substance,] and the desiring maketh Being; and so out of the Eternal Nothing is come whatsoever is: and before there was nothing but only a willing, which was a Virgin without Image, and yet was a figure of an Image in the willing; and this figure hath discovered the Spirit, and created it into a Being [or Substance,] as we perceive in the Form of this World: The Figure hath caused the Spirit, that it hath ^a Expressed the Wonders in Figure, and that is the Matrix of the Genetrix, and that is the Spirit of this world: for the Spirit could ^a express nothing but a similitude of itself; for there was nothing else.

14. Therefore we demonstrate the Creation to you thus; for to create signifieth to comprehend in the willing, whatsoever standeth in the figure in the willing: for when a Carpenter will build an House, he must first Frame a Model of it in his willing, how he will build it, and then he buildeth it according to the Model of his willing.

15. Thus also hath the Spirit of God framed in his will a Model after his likeness, and so created that Model; for you see in this world, that when the Spirit through the word Fiat (upon the First Day) created the Out-birth in the Wrath, viz. Water and Earth, he comprehended the Figure in the Will; and that was the Heaven which he created on the Second Day, and tried the Work on the Third Day, and suffered to proceed out of the Earth Forms and Images out of the Essences, viz. Trees, Herbs, and Grasse, which were Images of the Essences of the desiring; but the Image of the Spirit remained still hidden, and yet was in Being even unto the Fourth Day. (Here understand) a Day without the Sun, is one turning about of the wheel of Nature in the desiring of the willing, and the Inward Will hath the Number Six, according to the six Spirits, and the outward [Will] in the desiring of the Figure hath also the Number Six, according to the similitude of the Spirit; and the two Kingdoms, [viz. the inward and the outward] make with their Number Sixes ^r four and twenty; which divide themselves into four parts, viz. six before noon, and six after noon, six before mid-night, and six after mid-night, till the beginning or morning again.

^r The 24 hours in 4 Quarters, Morning, Noon, Evening, Midnight.

16. And according to this, the Spirit in the desiring did set a sign, and a Reckoning, whence Times and Years proceed, which were not before; for Every Number [of the] Twelve, which is Heavenly, Divine, and Earthly, Human or Bestial, hath a sign in the Firmament, which the Spirit created into a visible Being, together with the Crown of the Center, which is the ^f Circumference of the Constellations. And we give you notice, that the Creating of the Spirit, is a going forth out of itself into the outward. For in Loco Solis, in the place of the Sun, is the Point where the Spirit created the similitude; for the word Fiat stood there, and went forth from the inward Number Ten as a Body, and that is Luna, and in such a comprehension was the manner and form of the Deep apprehended: and the Spirit went forth, and drove the Essences of the Center even to the Crown, and there ^t comprehended them with the Signs, and all Forms of the Image, which stood in the Virgin in the Figure in the Willing, and they are the Stars, and created them as a Circumference [or Sphere] of the Spirit, and they are all together a Body of that Spirit, which is called Sol: for there the Eternal Spirit hath comprehended or conceived the similitude of the Spirit [of this world:] and it goeth thus forth out of the Natural Body of this World, as a Spirit; even as the Eternal Spirit [goeth forth] out of the Eternal Center of Nature, out of the Number Ten. And as they have ordered themselves with their Revolution in the Three Days, understand, before the Sun [was,] so they also remained standing in the Fiat in that ^u Order, and are not material or palpable, though as to the Eternity it is a material being, but not as to Us, but they are Powers; an Out-birth out of the Eternal hidden and secret Center, and a similitude of the Eternal, and have power and strength to shape and figure Bodies and Images, according to all the properties of Every Star.

^f Or Sphere.

^t Or framed them into the Signs.

^w Uppermost Stars.

17. Understand us thus: Out of the Place of the Sun, Ex loco solis, goes forth the Manifestation of all the Stars and Elements, and all the Stars are the Sun's Children, even unto Saturn, which is the house of the Sixfold Spirit: for the Planets are the Spirit, and the Crown, which is the ^w Uppermost, [is] the Body; and is in that Manner as we have mentioned before concerning the Center of Nature, and concerning the Thrones of the Angels. Very great things are herein contained, which we justly conceal, because of the wickedness of the World, which if they knew them, they would misuse the powers of Nature to their covetousness and falsehood.

18. Therefore we tell you, that those to whom the Number Ten is opened, have it also given them into their will to speak no more than what is requisite and necessary for the World, and that at all times as need requires, and is known in God.

19. Thus we give you to understand, how God on the Fourth Day created the Sun, and with that Leading Spirit the Stars also; and what they are, being together nothing else but a life according to the similitude of God, wherein the Eternity hath manifested itself in a Being.

20. On the Fifth Day God moved this Being and Life, and set the Fiat therein, and created out of the Matrix all kinds of similitudes, according to every form in the Spirit; and in this Creation now hath the Third Kingdom, viz. the Kingdom of Anger, pressed hard in with it, and there went forth all manner of Beasts, Fowls, Fishes, Worms, and whatsoever moveth and liveth; all went forth out of the outward Matrix, and stood upon the Earth: and in the Deep went forth all sorts of Spirits of Fire, (such as are the Ascendents and Phœnix;) and in the Air also all Sorts of Spirits, according to the Substantiality of the Air; and in the Water, and in the Earth, all sorts of Spirits, every one according to the Property of its ^x Mother; and the whole Deep between the Constellations, so far as the World gave itself in unto the Creation, is nothing but a Life and stirring of Spirits.

^x Or Genetrix.

21. Now Reason asketh, seeing the Devil dwelleth in this world, and hath his Princely Dominion there, whereabouts does he then dwell? Behold, O Man! Consider this well. There are in the whole Deep no more than seven^y Revolutions, which roll and turn about like a wheel, or as the Life windeth itself about the soul; and the Heart, as the Center, standeth still in the midst, that is, the^{*} Sun, and the Revolutions about the Sun, are the six Planets, as Spirits of the Center, and the seventh Revolution is the Earth, which turneth itself once about in four and twenty hours, and runneth along in the course of the Planets, once a year, and besides carrieth the Moon with it about the Sun, as the others do also, but some in shorter and some in much longer Time: as first^z Saturn in Twenty-nine years, in respect of his large Course. But the^a Moon, which runneth back, does it every Month, Twelve times in a Year, and passeth^b somewhat on yet further [in a Thirteenth Revolution.]

^z $\frac{1}{2}$ in 29 years.

22. Now this together maketh the wheel of the Birth; wherein standeth the Verbum Fiat, which hath driven the Devil out from this Circle, and so he dwelleth without this Circle, and there is a great Darknes about the Crown of Stars in the Firmament; so that many Stars in the Firmament are not seen because of the Darknes; and that otherwise hath a great signification as to Men, which we would indeed make mention of, if the world were not so mad, and suffered the Devil to drive it, who derideth all manner of Revelations, that thereby he may blindfold Men: It shall in the Last Time stand manifest to the Children, which see with both Eyes, [viz. with the Eye that seeth into the Eternity, and the Eye that seeth into that which is Temporary.]

23. Thus the Devil dwelleth near us, and yet hath a Princely Dominion much deeper, nearer towards the Constellations, in the midst [amongst them,] where it is darkest: for he^c may not come near the shining Luster of the Stars: and so is a Prisoner, and dares not Touch the seven Governments of the word Fiat, and hath no power therein, and so is the poorest creature in the Crown.

^c Dares not, or likes not.

24. This cannot be described by a Circle, for the Sun standeth innermost in the most inward Circle, and the other [Planets] always further outwards, even to the Crown which includeth the outwardmost Heaven: and it cannot be understood [by outward Reason,] but the Spirit understandeth it in itself; for, as^{*} it is, so is this Circle also: neither can it be set down in writing, for the Life windeth itself inwards to the Sun: and so also the Spirit of Life in Man windeth itself inwards into the soul, as you may consider concerning the Three Principles, where the outermost is also the innermost, which the outward spirit of our reason cannot conceive, for it is but One and not Three in Number. But the Spirit of the soul, if it be turned about, so that it looketh with its own eyes into the innermost, and with the Eyes of this world into the outermost, understandeth it: for this is the Vision in Ezekiel, of the Spirit^d with inward and outward Eyes, where the Spirit goes right forward wheresoever it goes.

^{*} The Spirit.

^d Having eyes within and without.

25. Although the wise Magi and Mathematicians have made a Sphere, and described the Wheel, yet that is not enough: It is indeed a help to the unskilful to consider of the Mysterium Magnum, the Great Mystery: but the wheel hath a much more subtle understanding, and cannot be made in any Circle after this manner: for it goes into itself towards the Heart of the Sun, and out from itself towards the figure of the Substantiality; it driveth upwards and downwards; for the Spirit of the Tincture, viz. the right fire-life, driveth upwards inwards towards the Liberty of God, and yet desireth the Spirit of the Substantiality, which driveth downwards, for without that the fire-life doth not subsist: Thus the fire-spirit turneth itself about, as it were side-ways, and always reacheth after the spirit of the Substantiality, and the spirit of the Substantiality flieth from the Fire; but since it is generated out of the Fire-life, and cannot be severed from it, therefore it is wheeled about with the fire-spirit: For when the fire-spirit wheeleth to the right side, and reacheth after the spirit of the Substantiality, then the spirit of the Substantiality wheeleth also on the left side upwards, and that maketh a wheeling round, and one maketh haste after the other; for the substantiality flieth from the Fire, and yet it comes out of the Fire, as you see that out of the Fire goes Air, and ^e out of the Air Water, which is the substantiality.

26. Thus the Fire, which is an Anguish, desireth meekness, and the Liberty, which is without source, [or pain,] and reacheth after the Water-source: and the Meekness, viz. the Water-source, desireth a Body, and that it may be free from the fire and covered, and the Fire runneth always after the Water, and the Water flies from the Fire; for if the fire should go away upwards, and the water go away downwards, there would then be a great separation between them, and each [both the fire and the water] would die and come to nothing. But seeing the Fire inclineth towards the Water, and refresheth itself therein, it so preserveth itself, and can send forth the Spirit of the Air again from itself, so that the life subsisteth.

^f Or according to.
^g The 8th Number, or Form.

27. Thus we show you the Great Mystery, Mysterium Magnum, that you might learn to understand how far you should go, and where your Number and End is; for the Fire, (^f after the seven Spirits of Nature,) is the ^g Eighth Number, and is a cause of the seven Spirits. Now, no creature subsisteth in the Fire, for the Fire consumeth the substantiality, wherein the Natural life standeth; but yet the Fire maketh Tincture; and that Two-fold: One reaching inward into itself after the Eternal Liberty, after the still Meekness [that is] without being; and the other reaching forth out from itself, after the outward substantiality, viz. after the Oil, which cometh out from the Water, which is from Venus, and wherein its outward splendor and shining spring up: and in the inward Tincture, in the desiring of the Eternal Liberty, the Majesty of the Liberty springeth up.

^h The 8th Number, or Form.
ⁱ The 9th Number, or Form.
^k The 10th Number or Form in the Eternal Fire.

28. Understand us rightly thus: The Fire has the ^h Eighth Number, and the inward Tincture has the ⁱ Ninth Number; and so far [only] we ought to go, for the ^k Tenth Number is the Eternal Fire of God, and holdeth in the midst of its Birth the Cross, which separates the Center of the Eternal Nature into two Kingdoms, of which we have made mention formerly: and what creature soever will go back through it, that creature cometh through the Kingdom of God back again into the outermost out from God, and out from this world back into the Center of the Fire, as into an Eternal Darkness, where the Fire is black, and a perpetual Hunger: The kindling of the Light of the Fire standeth only under the Cross, in the Meekness, in the Ninth Number, which is a ^l single Number; the Tenth Number is a Two-fold Number, and belongeth to Angels and Men, but they ought not to reach further into the Center of the Cross, but must stand there before the Cross of the Number Three, and cast their Minds down into the Tincture of Humility backwards into the Ninth Number, and look forward into the Tenth Number, but with a ^m Timorous Mind, not desiring to create and have [any thing] in the Tenth Number, viz. to go back into the Center of the Fire of God; but highly rejoice before the Tenth Number Eternally, and with their songs of Praise and Hallelujahs, sing, Holy! Holy! Holy! is our God the Lordⁿ of Hosts; and that song is a food to the Divine Fire, from whence goeth forth, in the Divine Essences, the Wonder, Paradise, the Element, and Heavenly Substantiality, and it standeth before the Number Three as a Virgin of the Eternal knowledge of God; and that is the Wisdom of God; for in the Wisdom appeareth the substantiality of all Divine Essences, which to write of here we have no more Pen nor Tongue.

1. Units.
2. Tens.
3. Hundreds.
4. Thousands.
ⁿ Fearing God.
^o Zeboath.

29. Only we show you, how far you should search into such a Revelation: for in the Ninth Number you see all things, for it is the Tincture of the Heavenly Life; you see

[in the Ninth Number] the ° Hundredth Number of the Virgin of Wisdom, and also the † Thousandth Number of the Crown of the Majesty.

30. But you must not search further into the Tenth Number, there to search and dive into the Abyss, else you go out from God as Lucifer did, who would fain be a Creator in the Tenth Number, and fought [to have] the fire of the Eternal Original, and therein he must remain as in the Death, in the Darkness Eternally.

31. Therefore let the Reader be warned, not to dive further into these very deep Writings, nor plunge his will deeper, than [so far] as he apprehendeth: he should always rest satisfied with his apprehension: for in the apprehension he standeth yet in the † Substantiality, and there he * erreteth not, how deep soever the Spirit leadeth him: for to one more will be given than to another: And this only is the Mark [to be aimed at,] that every one continues steadfast in Humility towards God, and submits himself to God, that he may make the Will and the Deed as he pleaseth. When you do that, you are in yourself as dead: for you desire nothing but God's will, and the will of God is your Life, which goes inward even to the Thousandth Number, and searcheth into the Deep of the Deity with all Wonders: He leadeth your will, submitted to him, into the Virgin of his Wisdom, so that you may behold all Wonders: But you must not leave him, and imagine into the Wonders; so soon as you do so, you go quite out from God's will, which is the Eternal Liberty, and are captivated in your Imagination: Mark this; for Every Imagination maketh Substantiality, and therein you stand, and must go out from that again, or else you shall not see God.

† Or Matter.
* Note.

32. Therefore Christ teacheth us Humility, Love, Pureness of Heart, and to be Merciful; and calleth upon us to seek after the will of God, and to submit ourselves to it: For in God's will we are able to do ALL; our own Nature must not do it; but God himself is Zealous in Us, and he is our doing if we work any † Wonder: For no human soul should say or think, I will do Wonders: No, that cannot be: for the wonders above the outward Nature, go forth only from the Center of the Eternal Nature out of the Tenth Number, which the Creature cannot [do:] but if it be yielded up into the will of God, then God in the creature does the Wonder: for it is his delight to manifest himself in the weak; for the strong is stiff in his own will, and will not submit it unto God: He relies upon his own Wit and Reason. Thus his will is out from God, and is able to do nothing; and then if he speaketh from himself concerning God's Being and Will, he is an ignorant liar, he speaketh not from God's Spirit and Will, but from himself, from his own Opinion, in which there is mere doubt; and from thence ariseth the Contention about [Matters of] Faith [and Religion,] about Divine knowledge, so that Men seek God in their own willing and knowing: Men will think to find God in their own willing, and he is not therein; for he dwelleth merely and barely in that willing, which yieldeth itself with all its reason and knowing wholly to him, and to that he giveth knowledge and power to understand his Being.

† Or Miracle.

33. Therefore lift up your Heads and observe this; the will of God is not in any strife and contention, but Man's will and the Devil's, it is the will of the Wrath of God; let not the flattering Hypocrites seduce you, who enter in, boasting of the History, and say, We have the Will of God by us, we are his Ministers, look upon us, we are God's Officers, and though we be wicked, yet we rightly Bear the Office, and [dispense the] will [of God.] O Cursed Generation of Cain and Judas, you are neither born nor known in God: Why then Boast you of the will of God? How can you say that you † Bear the Great Mystery of God, whereas you are without God, in a strange will, and in yourself you carry not the Mysterium Magnum? But a poor Sinner, who converteth, but is captivated by the Devil, and is in strife against the Devil, he that panteth, sigheth, and crieth after God, he runneth in sorrow and abstinence to the Office of the ¹ Great Mystery, which Christ hath given to his Disciples and Children, who are in the will of God, and they have the True ^u Key to Heaven and Hell.

* Bindeth and loofeth.

34. But you, Sophister, bear not the Office while you are without the will of God ; but the poor Repentant Man bringeth the Mysterium Magnum, the Great Mystery, with him to you, and renders himself up to the Apostolical Power, which you have not, but the Church or Congregation of Christ, which is in the will of God, [hath it :] and so One Faith receiveth the other, and the Church, or Congregation of Christ, Absolveth the repentant sinner, and not you, Sophister, who have neither virtue nor power, nor knowledge of the Kingdom of God, but are yourself the Devil's captive ; and you sit in the Anger of God, and are only the Proud Whore of Babel, and swim aloft upon the office of the Great Mystery, and are incapable of it, unless you be in the will of God, and then you are Christ's Apostle, and wear the Garment of Aaron, and God ^w openeth and shutteth by your Mouth, but your natural will does it not, that should always be dead, or else you are not capable of the Office ; also in your own will, you sit not in the Office of Christ, upon Peter's Chair, but upon the Stool of Pestilence, and are the Antichrist, as we have known you in the Number Seventy Two, which you bear : for you are in Contention about the Cup of Christ, and you have it not in your Power, but the Church or Congregation of Christ, which is submitted to the will of God, has it : The Ark of the Covenant is with them at Shilo, and not in your [contentious] Schismatical Sectarian Jerusalem, which you have made full of abominable Blasphemies.

35. But what shall the Spirit Judge more concerning you, seeing you are an adulterous Woman, and have lost your Faith and Fidelity ? He hath given you time to Repent, and you do not Repent, but lie in Whoredom day and night, and therefore he will spew you out in the Wine-press, and Babel shall burn up itself. Thus Christ saith, O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how oft would I have gathered thy Children together, as a Hen gathereth her Chickens under her wings, but thou wouldest not : Behold your dwelling houses shall be left unto you Desolate. And so he saith to you now, you desolate Jerusalem in Babel, The Time cometh that the children of Christ will go out from you, and it is already, and you shall perish in your whoredom. Behold, your Merchants will stand afar off, and say, Behold ! Babel, in which we became rich and fat, is become Desolate.

The Eleventh Chapter.

Of the True Knowledge concerning Man.

1.  WE have shown you, what the Essence of all Essences is, and what its Life and Spirit is, and what the Matrix of the Genetrix is, viz. that it standeth in the Eternal willing, and in that Eternal willing is the Center of Nature, and therein is the Number Three, which is the Heart, which manifesteth the Eternity in Creatures, Figures, and Similitudes ; especially in Three Kingdoms ; viz. the Heavenly Angelical ; and then the Hellish fiery Diabolical ; and thirdly, the Substantial Kingdom of the Out-birth, viz. this world.

2. Now you know very well that the Dear Man Moses saith in his first Book, [called Genesis,] That on the Fifth Day, God created all the living Creatures at once : which you are to understand thus ; that in one Revolution of the Earth, God created, (out of the Earthly Great Mystery, out of the Matrix of the Spirit of the Earthly Property, as an Out-birth out of the Eternal Property,) all living Creatures, that they should be Images and Similitudes of the Eternal ^x Being [Essence or Substance.]

^y Or Lunar.

3. Now they are indeed created out of the Earthly Mysterium Magnum, but yet the Spirit there is not so wholly Earthly ; for it is yet ^y Luna, as we see that the Earth standeth next the Moon, and [in the Circle about] from the Moon, and as every Circle is, so also is the Spirit in its own Inclination, and the property of the Wheel in that ^z Circumference.

^z Orb.

4. Thus the Circle between the Moon and the Earth, is both Earthly and Lunar ; for the Moon has the properties of all the Stars, and is as a sack or container of all the properties of the Stars, which it continually poureth forth in its Circle : for the Earth longeth vehemently after the Moon, and therefore attracteth the shining and Glance of the Moon, as also the shining and splendor of the Sun : for all things long after the Heart, and desire the Liberty, that so they may be freed from the vanity.

5. Thus the Earth in its longing Desire has attracted the Spirit of the sevenfold Wheel, and holdeth that in it as its peculiar Matrix of Nature, and would always fain awaken in itself the wheel of Life ; and therefore it ^a wheeleth itself about, for it has both fires, the hot and the cold ; and the nethermost always striveth upward towards the Sun, for it receiveth virtue and spirit from the Sun : and therefore it is so ^b Rolled about ; for the Fire wheeleth it about : it would fain be kindled, that it might have a life of its own, but though it must remain in Death, yet it has a longing after the upper Life, and attracteth the upper Life to it, and continually openeth wide its Center ^c after the Sun's Tincture and Fire.

^c Or for.

6. Thus from the longing after the Sun, springeth forth the budding and growing out of the Earthly Matrix : for the Essences of the Earth climb forth (with the captivated life of the upper Center) always upward out of the Earth, and spread forth themselves into a Great Tree and Stalk : and you see very well, that upon the Tree and Stalk there grows a Mixt fruit, half Earthly, and half according to the Upper Center : and the fruit never comes into a joy [or to perfection,] unless it be satiated with the upper [part,] and then it is Ripe, for it has attained Venus's Body. But as Venus's Body is unfixed, and would soon fade, if the Sun did not stay it with the virtue of Saturn, so also [it is with the ripe fruit,] it is not durable, but soon turns to rottenness : It cannot be preserved [long,] because the Paradise is out of it.

7. And thus we give you to understand, that all creatures have been created out of the nethermost and uppermost Life : The Matrix of the Earth afforded Body, and the Constellations [afforded] Spirit, and their Life reacheth not up into the Sun ; for the Earth has attracted the Sun's virtue into its Matrix, and so all the Creatures that dwell upon the Earth, have attained the virtue of the Sun and of the Stars : but the Body of the Fowls is out of the Deep above the Earth, and therefore they delight most to fly in their own Matrix ; and you see also how all Beasts put their face and head forwards and downwards, and look after their Matrix, and desire only the food of it : for every life desireth its own Mother, as you may soon perceive in the Fowls which are near of quality to the Earth, that they Eat flesh and are Birds of prey ; for they proceeded from two Mothers in the Creation, viz. out of the Upper [Mother,] and out of the Earth.

8. The Earth is a peculiar Center, and therefore was created ^d severally on the First Day, and is an out-birth out of the Eternal Substantiality, a corrupted Matrix, [corrupted by the Fall of Lucifer :] in the Eternity was therein known the Virgin of God's Wife.

^d Apart by itself.

^e In the Wisdom.
^f Discovered or beheld.

^g In the Probability.

dom, ^e wherein all the Wonders of God are ^f seen : And in the Creation, and afterwards, even till Adam's Fall, Paradise sprung up through the Earth, and so the Upper Center of Nature, viz. the Sun's Heart, drew forth Paradisical fruit out of the Earth, which indeed was not eaten after an Angelical manner by any Creature, but only Man, though indeed he had not eaten thereof neither, for the longing of the Twofold Life caught hold of him suddenly, and there he stood till his sleep in ^g trial, whether his will would continue in God, and [whether] he [would] Eat after an Angelical manner : But the Beginning showeth how he stood, which we must ruminare upon, and must therefore eat Earth, and at last must become food for the Earth.

9. Thus, if you consider it, you may see the Creation of God, and how God created the other Creatures before Man, and you see how the life of all Creatures standeth only in the Matrix, out of which they were created.

10. Now you know what Moses saith, That God consulted in himself to create a similitude of his Essence, an Image of himself, that should rule over all the Creatures of this world, over Beasts, Fishes, and Fowls, and over all that liveth and moveth, and saith, God said, Let us make Man according to our Image : and he Created Man to be his Image, yea to the Image of God Created be him : But Reason asketh, out of what ? and Moses saith, God made Man's Body of a piece of Clay.

11. Beloved Reason, behold ! open both your eyes, and look not with one eye only into the hidden Mystery of the Humanity, as has been used for a long while hitherto. Do you hear what Moses saith ? God placed Man in the Garden of Eden, which he had made, that he should till and keep it, and the Paradise was therein. Do you now understand the hidden Mystery of Man ? He was in Paradise in the Creation, and was created in [and for] Paradise ; for Paradise grew up through the Earth ; and of that Paradisical Earth, wherein the Heavenly ^h property was, the Body of Adam was created ; for so it must be, seeing he was to be a Lord over the Earth, and All that was Earthly, and was to open the wonders of the Earth, else God had instantly given him an Angelical Body : But then the palpable substance, with its wonders, would not have been manifested, therefore he thus gave him a Palpable Body, but not so dark a rugged and Bestial one as ours are, but a Paradisical one.

* Note, The Virgin of Wisdom.

12. You must understand it thus : The Eternal * Virgin of Wisdom, stood in Paradise as a Figure, in which all the Wonders of God were known, and was in its Figure an Image in itself, but without substance like to Man : and in that Virgin God created the Matrix of the Earth, so that it was a visible palpable Image in substance, wherein Heaven, Earth, Stars, and Elements, stood in substance, and all whatsoever liveth and moveth was in this one Image. The Matrix of the Earth could not overpower it, [viz. the Image Man,] much less could the outward Elements do it ; because it was higher in degree than them all : It had received the never-fading Substantiality with the Virgin : The Virgin was not brought into the Image ; but the Matrix of the Earth was brought into the Virgin-like Image ; for the Virgin is Eternally uncreated and ungenerated : It is the Wisdom of God and a [reflection, Anti-type, and] Image of the Deity in Ternario Sancto, in the Holy Ternary, according to the Number Three, and all the Eternal Wonders of the Eternal Center of Nature, and is known in the Majesty in the Wonders of God ; for it is that which bringeth forth to Light the hidden Things of the Deep of the Deity : Thus, belovedⁱ Man, you see what you are.

ⁱ Note here, all People, even all Mankind.

13. Now, saith Moses, And God breathed into him the Living Breath into his Nostrils, and then Man became a living soul. This is the Ground, O you Universities, and high Schools ! dance about this as much as you can, show yourselves here Doctors, Masters, or Batchelors [in Arts :] If you are what you please to conceit yourselves to be, why then are you blind in this ? Why will you be called Doctors, when in the Ground you are yet scarce School-boys? What do you understand by that [inspiration or] breathing-in? Does not Moses tell you, that God breathed into Man the^k Breath of Life? What do you ^k Or Living understand here? Do you understand it to be only Air? That is not solely the breath of breath. God: for he breathed the Air into his Nostrils: but the Breath of God cannot be breathed in from without, for God himself is the fullness of all things, and is present there already before-hand, where any outward thing comes [to pass.]

14. Now therefore, that you may rightly and fundamentally, and also ^l certainly come ^l Affuredly, to understand it, look upon what we have before mentioned; viz. How God longed after the visible substance of his similitude and Image; and the Image of the Virgin, wherein his wonders stood, has thus caused it, so that the one imagination embraced and conceived the other; though indeed God is without substance and ^m longing; [for his ^m Or Lustful longing is only Majesty and Liberty:] But the Center of Nature, upon the Cross of the wonders, ⁿ longed after the Image which was beheld in the Virgin, where the Spirit of ⁿ Or Lusted. God goes forth ^o into the Wisdom, so that the Wisdom causeth Substantiality. ^o Or in.

15. Behold! God's breathing-in us was thus: The Spirit of God moveth on the Waters, and rideth on the wings of the Wind, as the Scripture speaketh: that [Spirit] had then comprehended the Dominion of this world with the word Fiat, and breathed it into Adam's Nostrils: Now, the Spirit breathed in the Air from without, and itself forth from within into the Center of the Heart; for it dwelleth not outwardly, but in the Center of Nature, and goes forth from within out of the Deity into the outward, and ^p openeth ^p Or manifest-eth in a Being. [or discloseth] an Image according to itself; understand, according to the Center of Nature.

16. We have told you before, how the Wheel of the outward Nature windeth itself inwards, even to the Sun, and further through the Fire into the Liberty of God, where then it keepeth its ^q station: and the inward Longing of the Eternal Center presseth ^q Condition. with the Spirit of God forth into the Heart of the Sun, which is the Great Life and Fire, which melteth away Stone and Earth, wherein the Eternal Tincture is known within in the Ninth Number.

17. You must also understand the Breathing-in thus: The outward Dominion of the Spirit of this world, which reacheth even into the Sun, was breathed into him from without, as an outward Life; and the Inward Dominion out of the Inward Fire in the Eighth Number was from within breathed into the Heart; for that was out of the Eternal Fire, which reacheth into the Ninth Number, towards the Cross, after its own Tincture which goes towards the Number Three, viz. into the Eternal Liberty; and there Man became a Living soul, with spirit and soul; for the soul has its original a degree deeper than the Sun, out of the Eternal Fire which burneth in the Eternal willing, which willing is, to generate the Heart of God, and to exalt the Majesty in the Wonders.

18. Understand us right, thus: God's Holy Spirit has awakened the living soul, out of the Center of the Eternal Nature upon the Cross, as a peculiar Center of its own; not out of the Number three, but out of the Eternal Nature, out of the fire of the Center of Nature, in the Fifth Form of the Center, where the two Kingdoms, viz. God's Love and Anger part: There hath the Spirit of God awakened the soul, and brought it forth from within, outwards into the Tincture of the outward Spirit, into the blood of the Heart, through himself, and this is the soul: Master Doctor, understand it aright, and do not vaunt so proudly, stately, and insultingly, for the soul is the child of God: Its will should always be inclined into the will of God in the Tenth Number, and then it is an Angel, and liveth in God, and eateth of the Word of God, of the virtue and life of God: It should not turn back into the Spirit of this world, into the fire of the Out-Birth, but into the fire of the Number Three, in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Holy Ternary.

19. And thus thou mayest understand what thou art, and what thou wast before the Fall, for thou couldst rule over the Sun and the stars, all was in thy power; the Fire, the Air, and the Water, together with the Earth, could not compel thee: no outward fire could burn thee, no Water could drown thee, no Air could suffocate or stifle thee, every living thing feared before thee, thou hadst thy own food of the Paradisical fruit to give to the outward life, and the Verbum Domini to the inward life of the soul: thou hadst lived Eternally without woe, or feeling of any sickness or disease, in mere joy and delight, and besides without care and toil: Thy mind was as the mind of a child that plays with his father's wonders [or workmanship,] no knowledge of any evil will was in thee: No covetousness, no pride, no envy, no anger, but all a sport of Love.

20. Now behold, that you may once apprehend this: God took to himself a particular Day's work about Man; if he would have had him to have been Earthly, Bestial, and Mortal, he would have created him on the Fifth Day with the other Beasts: And that yet you may well apprehend this, He created but one Man, with the * whole Cross in the Brainpan, which signifieth the Number-Three: He was both Man and Woman, yet you are not to understand any woman, but a virgin wholly pure and chaste; he had in him the Spirit of the Tincture of the Fire, and also the Spirit of the Tincture of the Water, viz. of Venus: He loved himself, and through himself [he loved] God: he could generate Virgin-like (out of his will, out of his Essences without pain, without tearing or dividing [his body]) such a Man as himself was; for he had all Three Centers in him: and as the Center of the Eternal Nature was not torn nor divided, when the Spirit of God conceived his soul upon the Cross, and brought it into the Wisdom, also as the Spirit of this world was not torn nor divided, when the Spirit of God breathed into him the spirit of this world, as an outward life, so he also was not torn or divided: for he had a Body that could go through Trees and Stones: If he had instantly gone on in the will of God, then had he brought H I M, [viz. God,] with him into the Great Wonders.

Adam had the whole Cross in the Brainpan of his skull. But now the Man and the Woman have each of them only one half of the Cross; thus,

21. The Noble Philosopher's Stone was as easy to be found by him as any other † stone, and then he might have adorned the outward life with gold, silver, and precious Stones, Jewels and Pearls, all to his own joy, and to [the manifestation of] God's deeds of wonder: He would not have had Occasion for Bestial Clothing; for he went naked, yet clothed with the Heavenly Tincture: He had no such Members as he might be ashamed of, as his Fall demonstrateth. † This was his Fall: His soul Imagined after the outward Fire of the Out-birth, after the spirit of this world, and turned himself away from God, and desired to live in his own property [or self,] and to be Lord; his will turned itself out from God's will, and was disobedient to God, and desired the Earthly fruit, out of the Earthly Essences, and caused God to suffer the Tree of Temptation to grow, that he might try what his Image would do; and he forbad him that Tree.

22. But his Lust was instantly gone after the Earthly Essences, Good and Evil, which the Devil did eagerly help forward, (as he does still,) till Adam was overcome, and went forth from the will of God, and suffered himself to be wholly captivated by the spirit of this world; and then all was done with him: The Heavenly Image became Earthly: The soul became captivated in the fire of God's Anger: It had the heavenly Tincture no more, and could not eat of the Verbum Domini any more; it had turned itself away into the spirit of this world, and was gone out from God's will into the Lust of this world; and so also, at the instant of the Fall, the spirit of this world made the body wholly Earthly: The Paradise, with all Heavenly † knowledge, retired into itself [and so departed from Adam,] and the Dear Virgin of Wisdom remained standing in Grief, till the Word of the Lord came again, and looked upon † her again with the promise of the Seed of the Woman, and then † she passed into the light of Life, and now warneth Men of their ungodly ways ; concerning which we have mentioned at large in our former Writing, and also concerning " his Wife ; therefore we here forbear to write any further of it, and only further show you our Propagation as to body and soul.

23. We have " formerly mentioned, how the provocation between both kinds, Masculine and Feminine, to copulate, existeth ; viz. out of two Governments [or Dominions] of one [only] * substance : for when Adam could not subsist, then God let a sleep fall upon him, and took the one Dominion, viz. the Tincture of the Spirit from him, and left him [the other, viz.] the Tincture of the soul, and framed a Woman out of him : But that she might have a soul also, God took a Rib from his Body, with his flesh and blood, and comprized the soul therein, but without power of further Propagation, [of itself,] for her soul remained in Venus, being desirous of the Man's soul, even as the lower Dominion of the Three Planets under the Sun, which make Spirit and Flesh, desire the Three Uppermost for their Life, as is before mentioned : so also is the Dominion in the Man and the Woman : for the Man hath the Tincture of the Fire wherein the soul consisteth, in his Seed ; and the Woman hath in her the Tincture of the spirit of this world, viz. of Venus, naturally so called, in her seed and Matrix. If it were not for the scoffers, I could exactly demonstrate it in the Members of their Copulation : You would indeed wonder rightly why each are as they are : ' It shall be set down in a Paper by itself, for there is nothing without cause. Nature hath its own mouth, if it desires to have any thing, it maketh itself a mouth fit for it, and giveth a Form to that thing which it desireth, that it may fit the mouth according as Nature liketh best. Observe this.

24. Now, when the Seed is sown, then not only the sower soweth, but the Ground also affordeth its Essences [or virtue] to it : The Man soweth soul, and the Woman soweth spirit, and both of them afford Body, and not the one without the other : The Tincture of the Fire hath indeed a Body, but it became very small in this corruption : and therefore the Nature of the Water (in Venus) must give a soft spirit to it ; for the Man and the Woman are one Body, and St. Paul saith, If the Man have an unbelieving Woman [to his wife,] and the Woman have an unbelieving Man [to her husband,] let not the one forsake the other : for the Man knoweth not whether he shall save the Woman, or the Woman the Man. Even as Adam saved his [wife] Eve, who first eat the bit [of the forbidden fruit,] for she was a part of the Life out of his flesh and blood : and the same spirit and the same soul which Adam had, and which Eve got from Adam, is now also in us in both kinds [or sexes.]

25. Therefore ground your Judgment thus : When the Man soweth his seed, he soweth flesh and blood, and the Noble Tincture of the soul, and the Woman receiveth that into her Matrix, and instantly affordeth to the Man's seed her Tincture of Venus, wherein standeth the Elementary Spirit, and that assumeth Saturn, and bringeth it round on the wheel about to Sol, and there the Natural Life with the life of the soul is disclosed ; for Saturn giveth it to the Moon, which breedeth it, and in a Circuit of all the Stars, maketh Essences therein : and then the Essences exist, and wind themselves about to Mars, which striketh up the Fire ; and there count the Signs in the Heavens, how many hours each of them hath, and double that with two Kingdoms, and then you have the Ground of the Incarnation [or becoming Man,] and what is done every hour with the Sulphur, [viz. with the substance which cometh to be Man,] for Man hath yielded himself over to the spirit of this world, and is fallen home to it : and so now that Spirit maketh an Earthly Elementary Child according to the Stars and their Dominion.

26. If God had not become Man [or been Incarnate,] we had remained Beasts, according to the Body, and according to the soul, Devils : and if we go not forth out of the house of our sins, we are such.

27. And therefore God has made his Covenant with us in Christ, that we should be new born again in Christ: for he hath given up his life into Death for us, and hath brought our soul again quite through the Eternal Fire, and turned it about, that so we may see into the Tenth Number again.

28. Christ saith [through the Apostle Paul,] All shall be tried by the Fire: let every one have a care that his works burn not, for so he shall suffer loss. And know this, that at the End, (when this world shall pass again into the Ether,) God will awaken the Fire in the Center, which is the Eternal [Fire,] and will purge this floor: Understand, it is the soul's Fire: and so then if the soul has been turned into the will of God, then the Holy Ghost with the Divine Tincture shall burn forth from the soul, and the Tincture of the soul shall be taken into the Majesty of God; which the soul attracteth again into itself, and that will be its refreshing and quenching, and so it will be able to subsist in the fire: But that soul which is turned back into this world, and that the substance of this world cometh to be in the fire, then the soul will be without God, for in the Abyss of this world is the hellish fire, and into that it must go, and there eat what it had Cooked here: for every one's works follow him.

29. And then they will say to the Wise Virgins; O give us some of your Oil: but the wise Virgins will say; O no, lest we should want as well as you, and perish with you: Go to the Merchants of this world, to the Sophisters, and buy Oil for yourselves. But before they shall bethink themselves how the Oil is to be bought, and where it is to be had, the Gates of Heaven and Hell shall be shut: and upon that followeth the Eternity, and this Being [of this Created World] passeth away. Consider this, for there is no dallying with the Spirit of this Revelation: It concerneth body and soul: he that will see, let him see, but he that will not, yet he is warned.

The Gates of the Great Misery and Lamentation, [showing] How the Image in the Mother's Womb, while it is yet a Sulphur, [viz. an inanimate Lump or Mass,] is ^a destroyed: so that many an Image, according to the spirit, is a Beast, also a Toad, and a Serpent; which afterwards appeareth plain enough by its ^a Condition, Will, and Conversation; and if it should not be helped again by God in Christ, so that it is new-born again, it must remain so Eternally in its Figure.

^a Substance.

30. Dear children in Christ, our purpose in revealing this, is not thereby to reproach Mankind: It is the very Truth, we have highly known it: Moreover, Christ, the Mouth of Truth itself, saith so, who calleth Herod a Fox, and the Pharisees a Generation of Vipers and Serpents: and the Scripture here and there calleth the Tyrants, Lions, Bears, Wolves, and cruel Beasts; and the Revelation of Jobn, also Daniel, and the other Prophets, have decyphered the Potent Rulers of this World, by evil, fierce, and cruel Beasts; truly they have not meant thereby the Image of God, for that were not right, that God should compare his Image, which is Angelical, to such abominable Beasts: and yet he is the Truth itself, and out of his Mouth proceedeth no deceit or falshood, nor any untruth: and seeing he hath called the Rulers of this World so, therefore it is [spoken] concerning their Governments; for they raise Wars, Murders, and all Mischief in their Dominions: and are those devouring Wolves, Lions, Bears, Foxes, Vipers, and Serpents; for they appear so in the presence of God: though outwardly they have the Image of Man, yet the Spirit of their soul is such a Beast: and upon that followeth God's ^b Predestination: ^b Election. although God willeth that all Men should be ^c helped, yet he knoweth very well who are ^c Or saved. desirous and capable of any Help.

31. We do not here shut up the Grace of God from those that turn and become New-born out of this Bestial Condition: for Christ is therefore become Man on purpose to help us, that we may come again into the similitude of God: and HE hath therefore brought our human soul into the fire of the Anger of God, as into the Abyss of the Center into Hell, and into Death, where our souls lay shut up, and out of Death and Hell again, into the Tenth Number, into the Eternal Tincture of God, upon the Cross, from whence the soul Existed from Eternity, which appeared before the time of this World, in his Wisdom.

32. And you are to know, that every soul, while it is yet in the Seed, is no ^{} creature, ^{} Living Creature. but is in the Fire, or a Fire of the Tincture, and is a Will of the Creature; and it standeth yet in the power of the Parents, either to ^d quicken or destroy the Creature, which [to destroy] runs opposite against the order of the Creation, and is an abomination in the sight of God: and hereby is showed you, that such as the Tree is, such is the Fruit that groweth out from it: yet the compulsion is not ^e wholly perfect, for the two Kingdoms, ^e Or by necessity. viz. Love and Anger, stand presently in the wrestling one against another: For God hath brought his love in Christ again into the Humanity: and so it standeth in strife against the Anger.

33. But you must know, that a false wicked seed may well be forsaken: and if that comes to be so, then the nature of the fire often figureth the spirit of the soul in a horrible form, which is not known in the outward Image, but only in the ^f Evil Conversation and Will; as is seen that every one's conversation is from his Abyss, and the Spirit of his soul is so in figure: for the Inward goeth outward, whatsoever the will in the Abyss is, that the body does; and though he dares not do it openly, because of disgraceful punishment, yet he does it secretly, and hath continually a will to it, neither does he account it any vice: for he knoweth not himself, but he himself does that which he judgeth [to be evil in another.] ^f Or false.

34. And then, secondly, we give you to understand, that the outward Dominion (viz. the Spirit of this world) is also in the seed, while it is yet a Sulphur, [that is, matter without form or life,] and in that [Spirit] hath the Constellation its Dominion, and it draweth also with it inwards the Constellation of the Stars, as they have ^g influence, and infect or poison a thing, and also make it Lovely, according as the Imagination is at all times: for every Star is a seeking; a desiring (viz. of the ^h Wonders) according to its property: ^g Or aspects. ^h Or to operate according to its property. Each of them desireth a Life, and the Elementary Sulphur, which is also desirous, longeth after the desiring of the Stars, and attracteth, or letteth that into it, and becomes pregnant therewith.

35. Now, in the Stars, there are all the properties of this world, whatsoever all the creatures are, that the Stars are, every one of them helpeth towards life, and to the Revelation of the wonders of God: for therefore they are brought into Being, because God would open all forms of Nature: and many of them make a property of a Dog in the outward Spirit of this world; many of a Wolf, a Bear, a Lion, a Fox, a Hare, a Bull, a Peacock, a Cock, also of a Toad, a Serpent, and so on, after the Condition of all sorts of Creatures; and so if such a Star be fixed, so that it has received the virtue of the Sun through the introducing of the Spirit; then it is powerful, and its Imagination presseth along in the seed, whereby a creature getteth such a property in the Elementary life and spirit, as well in Men as in Beasts.

36. And such an Evil property many times covers the soul, and enticeth it from the will of God, so that it goes out from God's will; for it often comes to pass, that the Image of God is in the soul (which desireth [or longeth after] God) and is captivated with such an outward spirit, which plagueth and tormenteth it; this you see and may know, by such as many times fall into foul and beinous sins and wickedness, (for the outward spirit casteth them headlong thereinto,) and then suddenly they fall into such great sorrow and repentance upon it, that they sigh and turn and go on towards abstinence [or amendment;] and that is a strong Combat of the soul against the Spirit of this world: for it often does a thing that it never had in its mind or thought, much less in the purpose to do it, and yet is so suddenly entangled [and overcome.]

37. For when a man is secure, and does not always stand in fear and trembling before the anger of God, then the Devil slippeth into the Spirit, and looketh narrowly when there is in a Man any evil Constellation of his property and Stars, and so casteth a Man headlong into an unexpected fall, into Wrath, Murder, Whoredom, Theft, Poisoning, and Death: This is * his Art, which he is most diligent in.

38. For the outward life is fallen quite under the power of the Stars, and if thou wilt withstand them, thou must enter into God's will, and then they are but as a shadow, and cannot bring that to effect which they have in their power: neither do they desire it, but the Devil only desireth it: For the whole Nature boweth itself before the will of God: For the Image of God in Man is so powerful and mighty, that when it wholly casteth itself into the will of God, it overpowereth Nature, so that the Stars are obedient to it, and do rejoice themselves in the Image: for their will is that they may be freed from the vanity, and thus are kindled in Meekness in the Image, at which the Heaven rejoiceth, and so the Anger of God in the Government of this world is quenched; for when that is burning, Man's wickedness is guilty of it, in that Men kindle it in the Spirit of this world.

39. For a false wicked malicious Man kindles the Elements, for he casteth his evil power and falshood into them, which the Wrath of the Abyss devoureth, and thereby groweth stirring and working; which otherwise the Love, in the meek life, would keep back: But if the Wrath of God be strong, then it overpowereth this world, and then saith the Prophet from the Spirit of God, I will let my Wrath come upon you, which will devour and destroy you.

40. For God is nothing but Goodness, and willeth not the Evil: He warneth Man before-hand, that he should still the Wrath, by turning and going out from the Anger; but when this is not done, then he suffereth that to come which Man hath awakened, viz. Wars, Famine, Pestilence: Now God doth not this, but Man himself, which maketh Wars, and the Heaven withdraweth its fruitfulness, and the Spirit of this world kindleth itself in the hellish Poison and Wrath, and so Diseases and the Pestilence come forth, which God is not guilty of, but Man hath awakened them, and they devour him: for thereby the Anger is sharpened, and getteth a Longing to devour: for Men awaken it in their Wickedness and Malice, and kindle it, whereas otherwise it would be at Rest.

41. You must understand it thus; Adam hath left it us for an Inheritance: If he had continued in the will of God, the Anger had not touched him to Eternity; and then the Devil had been shut up in the Wrath; and therefore he hath wrestled with Man, and thrown him into sin, so that he hath awakened the Anger in the spirit of this world, in which the Devil is the Great Prince, and increaseth his Kingdom with the Souls of Men: and thus the Devil is a Prince of this world, or else he could not touch a fly, or move a leaf, if Man had not kindled the property [and working] of the Anger, even as he is altogether void of strength in a time when Men are virtuous and honest; and therefore he driveth Men so eagerly to unchastity, for he knoweth well what he getteth by that, and what ability it hath in the Incarnation, [or Man's coming to be,] and what fine Spirit is begotten out of a false will [and unchastity,] to which [Spirit] he hath a Great Access and Power.

42. And then, thirdly, we give you to understand, from a true ground, what the Great secret Myſtery of the Anger, and of the Devil is, for we demonſtrate it to you thus: There are two ſorts of Dominions in Man, even while he lies in the ſeed, incloſed in the Mother's womb, as in two Tinctures; one out of the Eternal Matrix, as the Tincture of the ſoul; and the other out of the Center of this world, as from the ſpirit and life of this world; ſo that often a whole false ſoul is figured (according to the Devil's will,) and ſo is captivated by the Anger; and then alſo the Spirit of this world, (if it be in a good Conſtellation at the time of the Spirit's awakening,) oftentimes figureth a very friendly, lovely, outward Spirit, which can give good words cheap enough, and yet its ſoul is a Devil: He giveth ſweet words with his mouth, and the ſpirit of his heart is Poiſon, and he thinketh only how to do evil or miſchief, and that with a pretence of fair carriage to hide it; and ſuch a one dwelleth in two Kingdoms, viz. in this world, and with the Devil: He does not believe in any God at all, for he accounts himſelf a God; and although he liveth in the Hiſtory as an Hypocrite, as if he were the child of God, that he does for a ſhow; and ſo the Devil tickleth his Heart, ſo that he ſuppoſeth the Kingdom of God conſiſteth in an Hiſtorical knowledge; if he can tell that there is one God in Three Perſons, and that God became Man, and has turned his Grace and favour towards us, then he is a Chriſtian, and the child of God [enough.]

43. Some aſcribe to the Sophiſter ⁱ power and authority to forgive ſins: but he that is a Sophiſter, and attributeth ſuch a power and authority to himſelf, without the will of God, without entering with his will into God, he is the Devil's and Antichriſt's Prieſt, as well as the Hypocrite which hangeth on the Hiſtory, and accounteth the knowledge [of that] for Faith: No, Righteouſneſs and Truth muſt follow Faith; and although the Devil, in the outward Spirit, (being Evil in reſpect of its Conſtellation,) aſſaulteth Man, and often overthrows him, yet the Heart ſuddenly deſireth righteouſneſs and truth again, and is at variance with the Devil concerning the ſin committed.

44. But a false wicked ſoul careth not for righteouſneſs: If it can but cover its ſin, then it is well enough: It ſeeketh merely to deceive under an outward appearance, which it carrieth about in the hypocritical ſpirit of this world: Its holineſs is a mere outward ſhow, and knoweth not the will of God at all; but it ſuppoſeth the will of God conſiſteth in Ceremonies; but the Ceremonies are ^k of this world, and are but ſigns, that the ſimple Laity ^k [or common people] might conſider what God has to do with Man.

45. The Covenants of the moſt precious Teſtament, which the Hypocrite uſeth for a ſhow, are no benefit to him: He does but provoke God to Anger, in that he will go about to make God a diſſembler, to cover his own wickedneſs.

46. O thou Antichriſtian World, what Miſchief haſt thou done with thy Ceremonies, in that thou haſt ſet them in the place of God? If thou haſt declared to ſinners God's Anger and Punishment, and the Devil's false Luſt, and how a ſinner muſt go forth from his ſins into the will of God, and with true ſorrow and Repentance, in a right truſt and confidence, be born again in God, and that God only ſeeketh and would have the Abyſs of the Heart, viz. the ſoul, and that all false and wicked luſts and deſires muſt be removed out of the Heart, ⁱ O how well haſt thou taught!

47. But the ^{*} Councils have been brought in, only that thou mighteſt be Lord over Silver and Gold, and over the Souls, Minds, and Conſciences of Men; and ſo thou art indeed the Antichriſt in thy hypocriſy, and appearing holineſs: Thou haſt inſtituted Ceremonies, and Glittereſt in Imitation of Aaron, but why do you not live in the obedience of Aaron towards God? Every one looketh upon the fine hypocritical performance of the work, and his heart is carried away towards the hypocriſy, and ſuppoſeth, that when it keeps or celebrates the Ceremonies, that it is an atonement of the Anger of God ; but it is Idolatry, and that which entangles the Heart, and leadeth it captive in the hypocrisy : It were better to use no Ceremonies, but barely to perform the exprefs command of God, which he hath left us in his Covenant and Testament : The Congregation of Christ can well sound forth, and sing of God's Deeds of Wonder, but best of all in the ⁿ Mother Tongue, which every one understandeth, and can lift up his heart and soul therein, and so the whole Church or Congregation of Christ, as one Body, exulteth in God, and singeth of the Wonders of God, which does stir up attention and consideration, which in a strange, or foreign Language, is but hypocrisy and ostentation, whereby Pride will vaunt itself, for it always appears very willingly in a seeming Divine posture in hypocrisy : for the Devil is such an Idol, for he mocketh God his Creator therewith, and so painteth forth the Antichrist before the face of God, that God should see what a potent Lord and Prince he is, who can shine as the Majesty of God shineth, and so he maketh such a Glistering in mockery to God, and bringeth the souls of Men into the Glistering [hypocritical show of Holiness.]

48. O thou Proud and Covetous Antichrist, what hast thou done that thou hast thus brought thyself and many thousand souls away from God to thy own Glistering Pomp ? How wilt thou be able to subsist when the Bright Countenance of God appeareth ? Where will thy poor soul turn away in thy Glistering Hypocrisy when the Day of Judgment shall come ? Seeing all must pass through the Fire, where will your own appearing holiness remain ? Will it not remain in the Fire ? For no soul can reach God, unless it be turned into the will of God, and be Regenerated in God, else there is no subsisting in the Fire.

49. For the soul must be tried through the Fire, and must not be turned in any where, but into great humility, unto the Love and ⁿ Mercy of God, in the Humility of Jesus Christ ; it must bring Christ's Body, and stand in the wisdom of God, that must be its Body, else it will not be acknowledged for God's Child : for it must be as pure as it was when it was Created upon the Cross : It must be Regenerated upon the Cross of Christ, and enter with Christ in the flesh and blood of Christ, through the Death of Christ, through the Anger of God, into the Ninth Number, as into the Tincture of the Eternal Divine Fire, and there it standeth as a Creature before the Tenth Number, as before the Holy Number Three, and humbleth itself before the Number Three, and the Majesty of the Number Three embraceth it as a dear child : So the Humility is the food and strength of the Majesty, out of which the Brightness goeth forth from Eternity to Eternity.

50. Where wilt thou, Hypocrite, remain with thy Glistering Luster, which is generated out of Covetousness and Pride ? O ye Children of God, Go out from this Whore ! She standeth on the Devil's Stage, and is carried in a show of Triumph to God's disgrace and contempt.

The Great Open Gate of the Antichrist.

51. Hearken and see, thou poor soul, we will show thee the very Antichrist who domineereth over the whole world ; whom God has made known to us that thou mightest see him : for thou hast hitherto accounted him a God ; but now his shame must come to light : for he is so secret, that none know him, unless they be born of God, so that they apprehend God's Essence and Will, otherwise he remaineth hidden in every Man ; for there is none but has him, and carries him in his Heart ; yea, if one be a child of God, and yet hath not the deep knowledge of God, he ^o hangeth still to him : for the Devil hath insinuated himself in the form of an Angel into him : Therefore mark what here follows, for it is the Number of the Seventh Seal, and ^p declareth the Eternal Day.

* Depends still on him.

52. Observe it, ye children of God, for I myself formerly, before the time of my high knowledge, did thus reverence and honour him, and supposed it was according to God's will: for I was taught no otherwise, and the whole world is in the same conceit; though that does not hurt the Ignorant, but that he may be saved in his simplicity well enough, yet God will reveal him in this last time. For here the Devil will lose his Sting in the Children of God, into whose hearts this knowledge shall spring up: for it is the Right Steel wherewith God's Love-fire is Struck, and whereby the Soul receiveth Christ's Body, and is born in God: for the soul needeth no other Birth, but a returning and entering into God.

53. Behold! thou poor wounded soul, thou standest and Prayest thus, O God, forgive me my sins, let thy Anger cease, and receive me into thy Grace; and it is very well done; but thou understandest not how God receiveth a poor sinner: Thou supposedst it is as when thou comest before the Prince or Judge of the Land, and hast forfeited thy life, and prayest him, and he [¶] forgives thee thy misdeed of grace, and so thou art quit and freed: But thy sins fly in thy face, and thy heart accuseth thee, that thou art yet guilty of the Punishment: And just thus you come also before God: and so many hypocrites are thereby generated: You suppose God in his Essence and Spirit taketh your sins away from you: Do you not know what the Scripture saith, that all our works shall follow us? And if it shall happen, as aforesaid, then God must move himself upon every one's will and purpose to call upon him, and cast away his sins from him, and yet from Eternity God hath moved himself no more but twice; once with the Creation of the World and all Creatures; and a second time in Christ's [¶] becoming Man, and there [¶] Or Incarnation. the Heart of God moved itself. [Note, The Third Time God will move himself in the power of the Holy Ghost through the Mouth of Christ at the Last Judgment Day, when all shall return again into the Ether: The first Moving is according to the Father; the second according to the Son; and the third according to the Holy Ghost; otherwise he moveth himself no more in Eternity.]

54. Behold! when God forgiveth thee thy sins, when thou callest upon him, he taketh nothing away from thee, neither doth he fly down from Heaven into thee, for he is from Eternity in thy soul, but in his own Principle; thy soul as to him is only gone out from his Principle; understand, out from the Holy Will in the Majesty into the Anger. Now, in the Anger, thou wert in the Eternal Death, and the Man Christ, who is God and Man, hath made a passage through the Death and Anger to the Majesty of God; you need only to turn, and go through that passage, through the Death of Christ, through the Anger into the Majesty, and so you will be embraced as the most beloved Angel; that never committed any sin: also no sin will be known in thee but God's deeds of Wonder only, which must be opened in the Anger: for the Love hath nothing to do with that fire, [viz. the Love cannot open the Wonders of the Anger,] neither doth it mix itself with the [¶] Fire, but flieth from it.

55. Now, therefore, when you Pray thus, O God! forgive me; you always doubt, because of your sins, whether God will hear you, and come into your heart. Behold! do not doubt, for by your doubting you despise and condemn the Majesty: It is also a sin; but cast all your sins in general upon a heap, and come [¶] confidently with your [¶] Or earnest-firing soul, in humility, to God, and enter into him: Do but turn your soul out from [¶] ly.
the will of this world into the will of God: cast yourself, with your whole Reason, and all your Thoughts, into the will of God; and although your Heart and the Devil say utterly, No; yet make your outward Reason dead, and enter in with force, and continue stedfast: Look not back, as Lot's wife did, who was turned again into Sulphur, and into a Pillar of Salt, but stand fast: Let the Devil, and the Spirit of this World, and also thy heart, with flesh and blood, struggle [what they will,] yet give no place to reason; when it saith, thou art without God, then say, No, I am in God, I am in Heaven in Him, I will not in Eternity depart from him : The Devil may keep my Sins, and the World this Body, yet I live in the will of God ; his life shall be also my life, and his will shall be my will : I will be dead as to my Reason, that HE may live in Me : All my doing shall be his doing : Give thyself up to him in all thy purposes : Whatsoever thou takest in hand, commit it to his pleasure and government, that all may be done ^u in his will : Behold ! if thou dost thus, all evil lusts will depart from thee ; for thou standest fast in the presence of God, and the Virgin of his wisdom leads thee, and ^v opens to thee the way to Eternal life, she warneth thee of the evil or false ways, she always driveth thee on to abstinence or amendment, and submission or resignation.

56. But, that you have so great obstacles and hindrances of doubting in this way, is [caused by] the strife of the soul against the Devil, who lays himself in the way as a filthy swine ; therefore cast thy sins upon his neck, and do not doubt ; and if thou canst not leave that [doubting,] then reach with thy soul into God, for God is in thee : Christ hath opened the Gates into his Father ; do but enter in. let nothing keep thee back ; and though Heaven and Earth, and all the Creatures, should say, thou canst not, believe them not, go forward, and thou wilt suddenly get in ; and as soon as thou comest in, thou gettest a new Body on to the soul, that is, the body of Christ, which is God and Man, and thou wilt afterwards have ease and refreshment in thy heart ; thou wilt get one that will draw thee, and set the falshood of the World before thy eyes, and warn thee of it.

57. Therefore observe, there are many that think with themselves, saying, I will pray to God to take away my sins from me, that I may be released of my old sins : and when it cometh to pass that they attain the Love of God, they think the old sins are passed away and forgiven ; [saying,] I may now sin a-new, I will afterwards Repent once again, and cast the abomination away from me : Indeed that were a good way, if the purpose were at hand : But hear, when thou goest out from the Love of God, then thou hast all thy sins, which thou hast committed all thy life long, upon thy neck again : for thou turnest back again into the house of sin, and forsakest God ; thou goest out from God into the Kingdom of the Devil, and thy Works follow thee whithersoever thou goest : The Purpose cannot help you, unless you go on in your Purpose.

58. Or do we alone say this ? Does not Christ say, When the unclean Spirit goeth out from a Man, he walketh through dry Places, seeking rest and finding none ; and then he returneth again into his house, and when he cometh there, he findeth it swept and trimmed ; and then he goeth and taketh with him seven other Spirits, which are worse than himself, and entereth in, and dwelleth there, and so the last [condition] of that Man is worse than the first ? Do you understand this [similitude ?] You have driven out Satan, and have cleansed your Heart, and have well swept your house of sin, and trimmed it ; and now, when you are secure and careless, then cometh the Devil with all the seven forms of Nature, and slippeth in, and thrusteth the old worldly Lusts into thy Heart again, out of which all wickedness and blasphemies are generated ; for he dwelleth in those seven Spirits, and tickleth thy Heart therewith, and deceiveth thee seven times more, and so thou yieldest to him, and fallest from one sin into another ; and then he bindeth the poor soul fast to the sin, and lets it not run after abstinence or amendment, but bringeth it into fleshly Lusts ; and when the soul beginneth to stir [or struggle,] he saith, To-morrow, to-morrow, so long till he get the Venison.

59. Therefore it is said, We must stand still and watch ; for the Devil goeth about as a roaring Lion, seeking whom he may devour : He cometh at all hours before the Door of thy Heart, to see whether he can get in or no : for it is his beloved Lodging : He hath no rest in Hell, but in the soul of Man he hath joy and pleasure : he can therein open his malicious Wonders, wherewith he may sport himself after this time also, wherein he taketh his pleasure ; for Hell and the Anger of God desire that.

60. Again, you see how the Great Whore of Babel hath set herself up in this her ply of forgiving [sins:] She boasteth of the Keys of Absolution, that she can forgive sins, and boasteth of the Apostolical Keys, and maketh sale of sins for money, and usurps that from Christ's words, Whose sins ye remit, &c.

61. Now I would fain know, how the sins of the Repentant sinner, who casteth himself into God's will, and who goes forth from this world's Reason into God's Mercy, can have his sins retained? And much more would I fain know, how one sinful Man can fetch another out of Hell into the Kingdom of Heaven, when he cannot get in himself, and goes about only to make the Devil proud with his covetousness, in that he selleth the Forgiveness of sins for money? Whereas all sins are drowned only in Christ's New Body, in Christ's flesh and blood: And Isaiab saith in the Person of Christ, I tread the Wine-press alone: and I alone blot out your sins, and none besides me. But if it were true, which Antichrist boasteth of, then one Devil must drive away another; and then, what would become of the New Regeneration in Christ's flesh and blood, whereby our souls are brought into God?

62. If it could possibly have been that God might have taken away Adam's sin in such a manner, God had not [needed to] become Man, and so have brought us into God again: He might rather have forgiven Adam his sin, as a Prince pardons a Murderer, and grants him his life: No, you yourself must go out from sin, and enter into the will of God; for God does not stand by as a King, and forgive sins with words: It must be power: You must go out from the Fire into the Light; for God is no Image for us to stand before, and give good words to, but he is a Spirit, and penetrates through the Heart and Reins, that is, Soul and Spirit: He is the Fire of Love, and his Center of Nature is the Fire of Anger; and if you were in Hell among all the Devils, yet then you are in God, for the Anger is also his, it is his Abyss; and therefore when you go out from that, you go into the Love of God, into the Liberty that is without source [or pain.]

63. There is no other forgiveness [to be] understood, but that thou goest out from [the will of] this world, and of thy flesh also, from the Devil's will, into God's will, and then God's will receiveth thee, and so thou art freed from all sins, for they remain in the Fire, and thy will in the Tincture of God, which the Majesty enlightens: All is near thee; thy sins are near thee, but they touch thee not; for, as we have mentioned to thee before, the Still Eternity is a Liberty; but yet do not think that it will take away thy sins from thee into itself, as also thy abominations and wickedness; but they belong to the Anger of God, there they must swim, and be bestowed on the Devil; but they stand beneath thee in the Center, and thou art as a fair sprout [and fruit] which springeth up forth through the Anger, to the Love [fire,] and to God's Deeds of Wonder; and yet the Anger is not in God, but in the Abyss; and when the Devil lifted himself above God, then he went into the Abyss, and became God's Footstool.

64. The Text in Matthew, Chap. 16. ver. 18, 19. has another understanding in it: The Temple of Christ (viz. Christ's children) is Christ's Bride, he has adorned her with his fairest Ornament; and, as he hath loved us, and brought us through himself into God, his Father, so we should love one another: And when a sorrowful Repentant Man comes, which will yield himself into the Congregation of Christ, and desires Christ, him the Congregation should receive, for Christ hath received him; and so we are all one body in Christ: And as one Member preserveth and loveth the other, so we should receive the poor converted sinner into our Congregation, and in the Place of God make known to him the forgiveness of his sin, and lay our hands upon him, and make him partaker of our Body and Congregation ; and so our spirit, and virtue or power, will rest upon him, as is to be seen by the Apostles of Christ.

65. And when we receive him into the Congregation of Christ, then he is [become] our Brother : When we say, thy sins are forgiven thee, then they are drowned in the Blood and Death of Christ, and he is a Member of us : We take not away his sins from him, but Christ, in us, drowneth them in his blood, through our, and his ^x Faith : When we lay our hands upon him, and pray over him, then we, with our will, which is [given up] into God, penetrate into his Will ; and bring him into our will, as into one [and the same] Body in Christ, to the Father : His will becometh our will ; for he gives up himself through Christ into the Bride, as into our Will, which is also God's will ; and we receive him with good cause into our Love, into our Will, and sink ourselves down in him through Christ into God : Thus we forgive him his sins ; for we are the Congregation and Bride of Christ, whom he loveth, and what we do, that does Christ in us, and God in Christ : It is all one, Christ is ours, and God is Christ's ; and the converted sinner is ours and Christ's, and also God's : We live in one body, and have one Spirit, and are one flesh ; and as we enter into the Will of God, so we also take our Brother along with us : We cast the sins away behind us into the Fire of Anger, but we live and flourish in God : We have the Key of Heaven and of Hell : When we make known to a sinner his sins, and he will not be converted, then we bind him up in the Abyss ; for we pass through and shut it up, and then he must swelter in his sins, and then the Devil buffeteth him : When we draw him no longer with our word, which hath power, then the Devil draws him, but if he turns at length, then we have power to take him away from the Devil again, (and through our Spirit) in Christ to bring him into God.

66. Behold ! such a Power Christ's Bride only hath, and none else ; and if it was so, that a Man was in a Wilderness where he never could meet or see any Man, and turned himself away from sin into Christ, and desired and longed after our society, when he could not possibly come to us, and though we did never know of him, yet nevertheless, since he casteth himself into our society [by his desire,] we take him along with us through Christ to the Father, and thrust his sins quite away behind him, and spring up with ^y him out of one and the same ^y ground, for Christ's body is the Ground of our souls, wherein he grows and bears fair fruit in Ternarium Sanctum.

The Highly Precious Gate.

67. Now, faith Reason, How can Christ's Body be our Body ? Is he a Creature ? How can we dwell in the Body of Christ ?

68. Behold, O Man ! Adam was our Father, and also our Mother : Now, we have all of us Adam's flesh, soul, and spirit, for we are all begotten out of one and the same flesh, soul, and spirit, and are all of us Members of him, (as the branches are Members of the Tree,) and he brought us into Death.

69. He had the fair Virgin of the Wisdom of God in him, which is every where, and is the fullness of all things, as God himself is, which he lost : He should have left it us as an Inheritance, yet he went out from it : But the second Adam, Christ, came forth from God, and was the Heart of God, and had the fair Virgin in him : He took our flesh and soul into his Virgin, and that became flesh, soul, and spirit ; flesh of our flesh, and soul of our soul, and yet remained God : Our Flesh stood in Christ, in Ternario Sancto, ^z be received from us, ^z in the Virgin of God, the Eternal, and also the Earthly Flesh, though indeed it was only the Earthly source [and property,] for nothing that is corruptible enters into God.

^z Or into.

70. When the Word^a came into the Flesh, it then became Heavenly, as in Adam it was become Earthly; for the flesh of Christ was in the Eternal Will brought into the Word, so that the flesh and the Word was one undivided Person: Now,^b the business is done in the Eternal Will, out of which Adam was gone away, and God brought us, in the soul of Christ, into that will again.

^a Became, or was made.

^b Or the matter is about the Eternal Will.

71. Now Christ's soul is our soul, for it is Adam's soul; and Christ's flesh is our flesh, for he took it on him from our Humanity, and the fair Virgin of God in Christ is our Virgin, for Christ hath put the same into our souls; and so now if we give up ourselves wholly into Christ, then Christ liveth in us, and we in him: though the outward mortal Body hangs to us, yet Christ liveth in us, and will at the End of the world present us wholly pure, without blemish, in his flesh.

72. Thus we are one body in him, for he is our body in God, and Adam is our body in this world: There is no such gross untoward body in God, but a body in power, with heavenly flesh and blood; where our will is, there is our heart also: God is in us, and when we enter into his Will, then we put his wisdom on to us, and in the Wisdom Christ is a Man. Thus we enter into his humanity, and are a New Man in the life of Christ, in the soul of Christ, in Christ's flesh, in the Tincture of Christ, in the Majesty of Christ, and Christ is in his Father, and his Father is the Eternity, and the End of Nature.

73. And whither wilt thou go further, thou poor Man? Let not the Devil and Antichrist befool thee: No Man has any power in God, unless he be in the Will of God, in God's Love in Christ, and then he has the soul and flesh of Christ; but if he has that, then he is not a covetous wretch, nor a flattering hypocrite, and one that sells the Kingdom of Heaven for money, as Simon Magus offered to give Money to St. Peter, that he would give him the power, that on whomsoever he laid hands, they should receive the Holy Ghost: Then, saith Peter, Be thou accursed with thy Money: Dost thou suppose that the Gifts of God will be sold for Money?

74. And where then have you your Power and Authority, ye Sophisters, to sell the Kingdom of Heaven, and usurp it into your power? Ye are not Christ's disciples, but the disciples of Antichrist, the Whore of Babel: No Priest is capable of the office, unless he be in the will of God, his Absolution is no Absolution; but the Congregation of Christ, to whom he gives up himself, absolves him: The Sophister is as useful to the Church, as a fifth Wheel is to a Waggon.

75. Thou Sophister, how wilt thou impart the Mysterium Magnum, which thou hast not? The Congregation or Church has it, and the Repentant sinner that cometh to thee has it, and thou art a Sophister, and art fitter to be in a stall of Oxen, than in the Church: How can the Devil absolve a sorrowful Sinner? And thou only serve thy ^c Idol, the Belly.

^c Belly-God.

76. O thou blind world, how art thou blinded? Thou supposest thou oughtest not to dare to meddle with the ^d Mysterium Magnum, and that thou art not capable of it, and that the ^e Priest only is capable of it; but if thou art in Christ, thou hast All free [unto thee,] thou hast his Covenant, [together] with the Baptism and Sacrament, and the Body and Blood of Christ therein; but the Covenant belongeth to the Believers, and not to the Sophisters; Christ's disciples, and again their disciples, and successors, have baptized; and the Believing Church or Congregation have broken bread in Houses, and where they could, and have fed upon the body and blood of Christ: The Temple of God was every where, wherefoever Christians were met together.

^d The Great Mystery, the office of the Ministry.

^e Those that call themselves Divine and Ministers.

77. We do not mention this, for the pulling down of Churches, in which Christ's office is Exercised; but we show you the Hypocrites, who bind you wholly to them, that you may go out from them, and go to the Congregation of Christ, into the Temple of Christ, and that you may not rest satisfied merely with the Church of Stone walls, for they are only a heap of Stones, which is a dead thing; but Christ's Temple is Living.

78. You are all agreed about the Church, and go diligently there, but none will enter into the Temple of Christ: But pray go into the Temple of Christ, and then of dead you will become Living: There is no other Remedy, neither in Heaven, nor in this world: It must be so, or else you remain in Darkness.

79. Not that we judge so rigorously, for the will of God standeth open for All Men, by what name soever they are called: A Heathen may be saved, if he turns to the Living God, and with true reliance yields himself up to the will of God, for then he cometh into the will of God, though he knows not what the Kingdom of Christ is; and in the will of God, there is the Heart of God, and Christ has the Heart of God in him, for such a one does truly Believe: Yea, one that is Dumb and Deaf is saved, that never heard of God at all, if he inclines his Imagination unto obedience, into the will and righteousness of God.

80. Who will judge such a one? Wilt thou, Sophister, do it? Thou who makest [Articles of] Faith out of opinions? What need opinions? Opinions are not the Spirit of Christ, which is a quickening Spirit; but Christ's Spirit testifies to our Spirits, that we are the children of God: It is in us; what need we then seek so long after Opinions? We say, that in all [sorts of] opinions there is Heresy, as also Antichrist. But if you have the Words of Christ, cleave to them sincerely, not only to the Letter, but to the Living Word, which is God and Man, that is the Scripture which you should read and preach out of Christ's Spirit, and not out of conjecture: but if you cannot apprehend that, why then do you teach so much, and contrive Opinions? Do you suppose God to be a liar, as you are, that he should hold your invented Opinions to be his Word, whereas you are but dead to God? He that has an Opinion whether a thing be or no, he is in doubt: Now doubting is not Believing, but is a dangerous way to go.

81. But now the troubled soul, which is thus tossed to and fro from one conceit and opinion to another, when it perceives every one to cry out, Here is Christ, here is Christ; follow me: The other party are Heretics, and speak from a false Spirit: The soul then asketh, To what party shall I turn and apply myself? Where shall I go, that I may hear the right Gospel preached? Where shall I find Christ? They all curse and judge one another, and yet I hear them all speak from the Bible, and confirm their Doctrine from thence, and teach the way of God: What shall I do, for I find them to be so spiteful and bitter one against another, and they ride up and down in the Hearts of Princes, and stir up wars and persecutions for the cause of Faith and Religion, and ^f deliver one another up to the Devil, and say one of another, that the Devil speaks out of this and that Man, he is a Heretic, fly away from him?

^f Or Excommunicate one another.

The Gate of IMMANUEL.

82. Behold, dear soul, how faithfully Christ warneth us concerning these times, concerning which we have been hitherto blind: For these false erected Priests will cry out and say, Christ is in the Wilderness: Another of them will say, he is not in the Wilderness, he is in the Chamber, or he is in the field; and another again will say, No, he is here or there, or he is in the Supper, or in the Baptism; and another will say he is not in them, they are only signs and symbols: But Christ saith, Believe them not, and go not forth; for as the Lightning shineth from the East to the West, so also shall the coming of the Son of Man be; for where the Carcase is, thither the Eagles gather together.

83. Christ saith, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, none cometh to the Father, but by me: I am the Door to the Sheepfold, and am a Good Shepherd; but all that came before me in their own Name, of themselves, are Thieves and Murderers, and seek only to rob and steal; for they seek their own honour, but I seek not my own honour, but my Father honoureth me, and they dishonour me: I am the Light of the world, whosoever followeth me, shall have the Light of the Eternal Life; my Father will give the Holy Ghost to them that pray unto him for it; when he shall come, he shall lead you unto all truth, for he shall receive of mine, and make it known to you: Take no care of your life, for my Father careth for you: for where your heart is, there is your treasure also. [Therefore let your heart and mind be in the will of God, and then your treasure is there also.]

84. Which is as much as to say, Run not after the self-erected Teachers, who teach from the History without the Spirit of God: If they can speak a little in a strange Language, then they will be Teachers, and teach out of Art and vain-glory to exercise their Eloquence, wherein one flattering Hypocrite helpeth forward the other, especially where much money and honour may be gotten in the Office. Christ said, I seek not my own honour; my kingdom is not of this world: But they teach that Christ's kingdom is in the History, [viz. in Art, in Eloquence, in the Universities, in Synods and Councils.] But Christ said to his Disciples, The Holy Ghost will receive of mine, and make it known unto you, and bring into your mind all whatsoever I have spoken.

85. Thus, dear Children of Christ, let none run after contentions, controversies, and disputations, they all say the truth one of another; for they are all grown out of one and the same Tree, and they are at variance about the Booty and ² Prey of Antichrist, whose End is at hand: Turn away your heart and mind from all contention, and go in very simply and humbly at the door of Christ, into Christ's sheepfold; seek that in your Heart; you need not much disputation: Pray to God the Father, in the Name of Jesus Christ, upon his promise, that he would open your heart through his holy Spirit, turn with all diligence into him, let all go whatsoever makes a fine glittering holy show in the heaps of Stone, and enter into the Temple of Christ, and there the Holy Ghost will meet you: Yield yourself entirely up unto him, and he will open your Heart, and bring into your mind all the merits and benefits of Christ; he will open your understanding, and bring into your mind whatsoever Christ has spoken, for he shall receive from Christ, and make it known unto you.

86. Neither trouble yourself with taking care where the best Place is for him to open it in, [whether in a Cloister, College, or Wilderness; in this or that Office, Ministry, or Opinion;] for, as the Sun riseth in the East, and shineth to the West, so Christ shineth in every corner and chink of his Incarnation, or being Man, even to Eternity: Seek not after one place more than after another, he is every where; for where the Carcase is, thither the Eagles gather together: Christ is every where, and his children can come to him every where, and when we enter into Christ, then we are with our Carcase, and satiate ourselves with his flesh, and drink of his blood; for he said, My flesh is the true food, and my blood is the true drink, they that eat of my flesh, and drink of my blood, continue in Me, and I in them. Also, [he saith,] Father, I will that those whom thou hast given me, may be where I am; they were thine, and thou hast given them unto me, and I give them the Eternal Life; and I will raise them up at the Last Day: if you continue in me, then my words continue in you.

87. Now therefore, when you see that the world contendeth about the Kingdom of Christ, then know that they have lost the keys, the Mysterium Magnum, and are not in Christ, for there is no contention in Christ, but love and humility, and a desire to walk before his neighbour in righteousness; wheresoever we are, there we are in Christ: Whosoever we meet together, we should all bring his will with us into the Congregation, viz. the desire of Christ: And when we desire him, we receive him, and become one body in him: He feeds us with his body and blood: When we use his Testaments, with the Last Supper, then he feeds us with his flesh, and gives us his blood to drink, he Baptizes us with the Baptism, to be one body in him : Why then are we so long a searching ? for as the Sun-shine filleth the whole world, so does the body and blood of Christ also : His Substance is the Eternity, where there is no space nor place : He is shut up in nothing, for he is in the Father, and the Father is in him, and the Holy Ghost goeth forth from the Father and the Son : Now, every Being [or all whatsoever is brought into a being] is created out of the Father, and the Father is in All [things,] and upholdeth and preserveth All [things,] He giveth to all things Life and Being : And the Son is in the Father, and giveth to all things virtue and Light : He is our Light ; without him we know not God : How can we then speak rightly of him ? If we will speak rightly of him, we must speak from his Spirit, for that testifieth of God ; but if we speak from Art and History, we speak from ourselves, and not from God, and so we are Thieves and Murderers, and not Shepherds of Christ : A Thief cometh but to rob and steal, and so the Disputers come but in their own Name only, in that they desire to have great respect, and many rich friends ; and such cry out, here is Christ ! and there are Heretics !

88. Dear children of Christ, stop your Ears from these blaspheming Wolves, for they scandalize not only one another, but the Congregation of Christ, which is every where, in all Countries where there are Repenting Men, who turn from their sins unto God : They are in Christ, though they be Turks : There is no respect of Persons or of Names and Opinions with God ; he seeketh the ^b Abyss of the Heart.

^b Or Bottom of the Heart.

89. Antichrist is the cause of the Turks falling into Peculiar Opinions of their own ; for there was no End in Controversies and Disputations, which was a stumbling-block of Offence to the Asians, Assyrians, Egyptians, Moors, Grecians, and Africans : The Indians lead a more ⁱ Divine Life, in their plain simplicity, than Antichrist, though indeed not all of them ; yet nevertheless there are many Customs among them that are more Pious than the Pride of the Whore.

ⁱ Godly and Pious.

90. The Whore hinders the Kingdom of Christ, so that all people are scandalized and stumble at it, and say, How can those be God's people, who are only Tyrants, Proud, Covetous, Obstinate, Stubborn, Blood-thirsty People, which practise only how to get away that which is another's, and seek after power and honour ? The very Heathen are not so malicious : We will not make ourselves partakers with them : God dwells every where, he is as well with us as with them : We will lead an honest, virtuous, and pious life, and call upon the only true God, who has created all things, and go out from their Contentious Disputations : We will continue in one sort of Opinion, and then our Country will continue in Peace ; when we all believe in one God, then there is no strife, but then we have all one and the same will, and may live in Love one among another.

91. See here, beloved Christian, this is that which has so advanced the Turk, and brought him to that Great Strength, so that their Might is climbed up into the Number Thousand : They rule in one Opinion and Love ^k towards the whole world ; for they are a Tree of Nature, which standeth also in the presence of God ; but it grows no higher than to the Number Thousand, for then its wild Heart gets a countenance, having Eyes, [or he will then come to see.]

^k Or over.

92. Thou Antichrist shalt not devour him with thy Dragon's Mouth, as may be seen in the Revelation : He possesseth his Kingdom to the End : but when thou shalt be gone down into the Pit, and that Christ himself shall feed his Lambs, then will he come to be [of the fold] of the Lambs, when thy murdering sword is broken ; thou shalt not be broken with Spears, or ^l weapons of war, thou Hypocrite, but thy lies shall stifle thee.

^l Pikes.

93. He that goes about to slay Antichrist, is Antichrist's Beast, upon which he rides : he will be but the more potent in Contention ; for the Hearts of people turn away from the truth, and go out from God into Contention : and there every one looks after the Wonders of the Contention, and runs after the eloquent Sermons, and so comes out from Christ into Opinions, and seeks ways in the Darknes, wherein there is no light: thus the Devil rules in the Antichrist, and leads the children astray into by-ways of Human Invention, so that they see no more in the light of Christ.

94. Thus it happened also to the mighty countries, over which the Alcoran rules, where they departed from Christ, and fell into Opinions, and then there grew to them a Tree out of Nature in their heart, and they fell upon one opinion, and so lived in that Wild Tree.

95. But the Antichristian Kingdom lives in many Trees; they run from one to another, and know not which is the best; for they are gone forth from the Paradise of Christ, they boast of the doctrine of Christ, and deny the power of it, and thereby they testify that Christ is not in them: nay, they desire not to have him in them: they thrust him, with his body and blood, with his Humanity out of the Congregation, they will have a sign from him, whereby they may in their Pride possess his place, and so keep up their rich fat Bellies: Christ, in this outward Life upon Earth, was poor, and had not whereon to lay his head: But they in Christ's place will be rich and fat: they say, He is in Heaven, we will therefore erect a stately glorious pompous Kingdom to his honour, that we may enjoy good Times, and Honour in his Office. We are the highest in this world, for we are God's ^m Stewards, we manage the Office of Christ, and have the Mysterium Magnum: How dare any speak against us? we will quickly make them hold their peace.

96. O beloved children of Christ, open your Eyes, and see; do not run so after the Devil; do you not see? pray learn to see! do you not see how all is done for Money? if one gives them store of Money, they praise him for a gracious Christian, who is beneficial and bountiful to the Church: If one dies, though all his Life long he was an unjust false Ufurer, Whoremonger, Thief, and Murtherer, and they knew it very well, if he or his bestow much upon the Church, [Colleges or learned Men,] O how is he applauded for a blessed and glorious Man! What great ⁿ Sermons do they make for him, that other unrighteous men may hear and consider, and follow their example to do the like? But stay, does the Kingdom of Christ consist in such [giving of] Money, and in the mouth of the Priest? No, it shall not prosper; here the Wine-press yieldeth much blood, as the Revelation of John speaketh.

ⁿ And Monuments, Epitaphs, and Poems.

97. And thus the innocent are seduced, [or the poor souls hereby fall into despair,] for he that gives not to them much, or has it not to give, is no honest man with them: He is not beneficial to the Ministry: if but the least mote is found amiss in his life, Oh how they divulge it, and make a great matter of it, how is he trodden underfoot! however at length they devoutly send a good wish after him, and say, God forgive him. Open your Eyes, ye children of Christ, this is the Antichrist, go not a whoring after him: Many such have been sinners, and have turned from their sins, and have entred into Christ, and their soul is in Christ, an Angel of God; and therefore how dare you, proud Antichrist, according to your own pleasure, despise one that is the Angel of God? O thou blind Man, dost thou not see this? Art thou the Shepherd and Minister of Christ, and Steward of God? Hast thou the Mysterium Magnum about thee? Is thy office the office of Christ, as thou boastest? Why then art thou a Liar, in applauding the wicked for Money? Have Christ and his Apostles done so?

98. Harken, thou opposer of Christ, look into the Acts of the Apostles; Where one sold his Possessions, and laid a part of the Price of the Money at the Apostle's feet: And Peter asked him, saying, Have you sold the field for so much? and he said yea; and had a false, doubtful [and deceitful] Mind: then said Peter, thou hast lied unto the Holy Ghost; behold the feet of them that stand at the door, they shall carry you away out of the Congregation of Truth: what think you now of yourself? seeing this has happened to the Hearers of Peter, what would have been done to Peter himself, if he had thus lied for greediness of Money, and so blasphemed the Holy Ghost? But thou art he that dost so: thou applaudest the unrighteous, that thou mayest but get money; but thou regardest not his soul, neither dost thou regard how thou broachest thy lies in the Congregation. How many times do some stand and bewail the wickedness and deceit of those thou praisest, wherewith they unjustly oppressed and wronged the needy, and also bewail thy flattering hypocrisy and lies?

99. Hearken! Is not the Name of Christ blasphemed thereby; and the Congregation of Christ scandalized? When they say, The Priest tells lies in the Pulpit for Money, if it were a sin, he would not do it: and so in like manner, when any lie and deceive people to get money, goods, and honour, if they can but cover it with a fine pretence, what matter is it? for [they think] if it was so great a sin, the Priest would not do it; they think they will once repent of it, and the Priest has Grace enough in store for them.

100. Behold, thou false and wicked Antichrist, thus thou liest to the Holy Ghost (in Christ's office) who trieth the Heart; and thou liest to the Congregation of Christ, and dost scandalize it therewith; it were a great deal better, they had never heard thy lies, and then their hearts would not have been so filled with lies.

101. How canst thou say, that thou executest the office of Christ, seeing thou art a liar and mocker of Christ? thou art not born of Christ, but of lies; and when thou speakest lies, thou speakest from thy Beast, on which thou ridest, in the Revelation; thou speakest of thy own; from the Spirit which is in thee, and yet wilt [take upon thee] to feed the sheep of Christ; thou shouldst feed them in a green meadow, in the fat pasture of Jesus Christ, and tell them the Truth; but thou feedest them upon the Devil's Rocks, and the Mountains of the Abyss, in his lustful Grass.

102. If you be the Minister of Christ, then serve him in Spirit and Truth; reprove sins without any respect of Persons; spare not; lift up your voice like a Trumpet; reprove all wickedness of all persons, both superior and inferior; teach the way of Christ rightly; praise [or sooth] none, for his money and honour's sake: for Christ praised none of the potentates for gain sake; neither did he reprove any of them out of Envy of their Greatness and Honour; for he commendeth order and saith, Give to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's: but he reproveth the Hypocrites, the Pharisees, in that they made long prayers, and stood in the streets, making a devout show, and would be seen of people, and sought only after Praise; and such a one is the Antichrist also: and therefore the Spirit in the Revelation of Christ saith, Go out from her my People, that you be not made partakers of her sins; for he that allows of sin, is one spirit with the sin; he that for favour confirms the lie of a Liar, he is guilty of that lie, and of the wickedness of it.

• Or Gates.

• Or consents to it.

• The life of Christ imprinted in us.

103. God the Father has regenerated us in Christ, out of the Truth, therefore we should not be the servants of lies; for when we enter into Lies, we go out from Christ, and are with the Devil, who is the Father of Lies; and so is the Antichrist also, and all that depend on him, and serve him; it were better to be far absent, and to have Christ formed in the Heart, than to hear Lies in the Antichristian office [of the ministry.]

104. I know, thou Evil Beast wilt cry out upon me for an envious Person, as if I did grudge what good people give thee; no, that is not my ground [or meaning;] for Christ saith, Whosoever ministreth the Gospel, should live of the Gospel; you must not muffle the mouth of the Ox that treadeth out the Corn, it must feed: they cleave not all to the Antichrist; we have only set forth the wicked Antichrist, who rideth in the hearts of Men; we despise none for their good Conscience: Only the Antichrist shall stand Naked for a Witness to All people: He rideth over the face of the Earth in all Countries and Nations.

Nations. [Note, wheresoever Pride, Covetousness, Envy, and Wrath, are predominant in falshood, deceit, self-seeking, and an hypocritical show of holiness; there is the Greatest Antichrist of all.]

105. People now suppose they have rooted him out, and are now in strife and contention about him; every one will slay him: O thou blind simplicity, thou slayest him not; do but go out from him, and enter into the Temple of Christ, and let Antichrist's houses stand, and then he will fall of himself, and at length be ashamed of his own abominations and whoredom: only do not ^r worship him; do not bow the knee before him; ^r Or pray to, but ^r worship God.

106. Do but open your Eyes, the whole world is full of God, the whole matter [of Conversion] is about the outward Life, in the Inward God dwelleth in himself; and the outward Life is also God's; but the abyss is in it, viz. the Center of Nature, in which the severe, stern life is; which is the cause of this warning

107. There are Three Principles, (Three Kingdoms,) two are Eternal, and one has a beginning, and is transitory: Each of them is desirous of Man: for Man is an Image of All Three: and the Being of all Beings; is a longing, seeking, and desiring, which existeth out of the Eternal Will, and the will is the Eternity.

108. In God there is no Dominion, but in the Three Principles, in their Creatures: There is in God no more but one only Spirit, which comes to succour his whole Being in the Water and in the Fire, out of which every thing exists; he is no destroyer, but preserver of a thing; and if any thing perishes, the fault lies in the ^r Dominion of Nature; but that which is out of the Eternal, cannot perish, but only changes into another property; for which [cause] we give you warning: and all the Teaching and seeking in this world, is only that you may be warned of the severe source or property of the Fire; there is indeed a Life in it, and no Creature can subsist, without it has that life: but we that are Men, are not created for that life, and therefore God would have every Creature in that property wherein he created it, that his Eternal Will may stand stedfast, and not be broken.

109. Every thing has Free-Will, and therein its inclination to its property; the whole Being of this world, and of the Angelical world, also of the Hellish world, is merely a wonder in the presence of God: He has set light and darkness before every one, thou mayest embrace which thou wilt; thou wilt not thereby move God in his Being; his Spirit goes forth from Him, and meets all those that seek him, it is God's seeking, in which God desireth the Humanity, for ^r it is his Image, which he has created according to ^r the Humanity, his whole Being, wherein he will see and know himself: yea he dwells in Man, why then are we so long a seeking? let us but seek to know ourselves; and when we find ourselves, we find all; we need run no where to seek God, for we can thereby do him no service; if we ourselves did but seek and love one another, then we love God; what we ourselves do to one another, that we do to God; whosoever seeketh and findeth his brother and sister, hath sought and found God: In him we are all one Body of many members, every one having its own Office, Government and work; and that is the wonder of God.

110. Before the time of this world, we were known in his wisdom, and he created us into a Being, that there might be a sport in him. Children are our Schoolmasters, (in all our wit and cunning we are but fools to them;) when they are born, their first lesson is to learn to play with themselves, and when they grow bigger, they play one with another: thus hath God from Eternity (in his wisdom, in our hidden childhood,) played with us: but when he created us in knowledge and skill, we should then have played one with another, but the Devil grudged us that, and made us fall out at our sport; and therefore it is that we are still at variance, in contention, but we have nothing to contend about but our sport; when that is at an end, we lie down to our rest, and go to our own Place; and then come others to play, and strive and contend also till the Evening, till they go to sleep into their own Country, out of which they are come: for we were in the Land of Peace, but the Devil persuaded us to go into his unpeaceable Country.

111. Dear children, what do we mean, that we are so obedient to the Devil? why do we so contend about a Tabernacle which we have not made? Nay, this Country is not ours; nor this Government ours; it is our Mother's, and the Devil has defiled it; let us pull it off and go to our Mother, that she may put us on a fair, pure Garment again, and then we need not contend about the defiled Garment: here we contend about a Garment, because one brother has a fairer Garment than another; and yet the Mother puts every one's own Garment upon them; and why therefore do we contend with our Mother, who has brought us forth? are we not all her children? Let us be obedient children, and then she will purchase a new Garment for every one of us, and then we shall rejoice, we shall all forget the defiled one.

112. We go into the Garden of Roses, and there are Lilies and Flowers enough; we will make a Garland for our sister, and then she will rejoice with us; we have a Round to dance, and we will all hold hands together; let us be very joyful; there is no more might to hurt us, our Mother taketh care for us: we will go under the fig-tree, how abundant is its fruit! How fair are the Pine-Trees in Lebanon! Let us be glad and rejoice, that our Mother may have joy of us.

113. We will sing a song of the Driver [or Oppressor] who hath set us at variance. How is he captivated! Where is his power? He is not here to be found; neither hath he gotten the defiled Garment, which we contended about, the Mother hath it in her keeping. How poor he is! He domineered over us, but now he is bound! O Great Power, how art thou thus brought to scorn! thou that didst fly aloft above the Cedars, art now laid under foot, and so art void of Power: Rejoice ye Heavens, and ye Children of God; for he that was our Driver [Oppressor, and Persecutor,] who plagued us day and night, is captivated: Rejoice ye Angels of God, for Men are delivered, and malice and wickedness taken captive.

The Twelfth Chapter.

Of the [true] Christian Life and Conversation. What Man is to do in this Valley of Misery, that he may work the works of God, and so attain the Eternal highest Good.

^a Or business he undertakes. What he gets or acquires.

1.  HERE is nothing more necessary and profitable to Man in the valley of Misery upon Earth, than for him to learn to know what he is, from whence he is, and whither he tends, what ^a course he takes, and whither he goes when he dies: There is nothing more profitable than to know these things; for the outward conversation remains in this world, but what the heart conceives, that a Man takes with him: The will of the spirit of the soul is Eternal, that which is comprehended in the will of the spirit of the soul, that the soul carries with it when the soul and body part. Therefore it is necessary for us to labour for something that is Good, wherein the soul may accomplish its Eternal sport, and have its joy therein; for the works of the soul follow after us; and the works of our hands, and of the outer spirit, remain in this world: for the soul is in the Eternity, whatsoever it makes and imagines here, that stands always before it; unless it breaks that again, and then it is as a broken work, which it has no more to do withall, for it is gone out from that; for the Eternal cutteth an Eternal Model, and the corruptible and * inceptive cutteth a cor-ruptible Model; for after this time every thing will stand in its own Model; for that which the Eternal Will conceives, that gets an incorruptible form, if itself does not break it.

* Or Inchoative.

2. Therefore it is good for Man to choose in this life that which is best, in which he may have joy Eternally; for when thou chooseth Beauty, Bravery, and Honour or Riches, then thou art thereby made ^b unbeneficial to thy brother and sister, who are in Misery in this world; for the Bravery of the world despiseth the mean and simple; and Riches wring away the sweat from the poor, [or grind the Faces of the Poor;] and great Power and Authority press and oppress the low and miserable; Great honour despiseth the simple, and will not condescend to the needy; seeing therefore in the other life, the souls of many that have been simple, miserable, and in this world contemned, poor, oppressed, and dejected, will appear; and seeing it is certain, that in their form will not be comprehended much highness, bravery, desire of might and honour; for their souls have, in this valley of misery, only shut up themselves into the meek Love of God, and yielded themselves into simplicity and lowliness, and have not dared to have communion with might, pomp, and great honour, for such things have had no affinity with them.

^b Useless,

3. And seeing it is so, that the souls in the other life shall have joy one with another, and enjoy the gifts and virtues one of another; and seeing then the souls will have their substance, which they have taken herein and conceived, and appear in their Eternal Will as a Figure, therefore we ought very highly and heartily to consider it, that we do not in this world conceive, and let into our hearts, Pride and Stoutness, also covetousness and oppression of the miserable; for with these we cannot enter into the Congregation of Christ, they receive us not into their society, for it is a contrariety to them.

4. For in the Kingdom of heaven there is nothing but Love and Concord: every one inclines his love and favour to the other, and every one rejoices in the gifts, power, and ^c beauty of the other, which they have obtained from the Majesty of God: and they all give thanks to God the Father in Christ Jesus, that he hath chosen and received them to be Children: for the mighty power of the strong, [who have been mighty in faith, and in the Wonders of God,] rejoice for the weak, that the Spirit of God is in them, and that they also are in the Wonders in the Eternal Will.

^c Luster or brightness.

5. Therefore, dear children and brethren in Christ, let us, in this world, inclose our hearts, minds and wills, in humility into one Love, that we may be one in Christ: If thou art highly advanced to power, authority, and honour, then be bumble, despise not the simple and miserable, but consider that in the other life they shall be in one highness with thee; squeeze not the oppressed; afflict not the afflicted, that they may not take it to ^d heart, and bar up the Gates of Heaven against thee: if thou art fair, beautiful and comely of body, be not proud, nor do thou despise those that are not like thee, that thy simple brother's and sister's soul may not loath thee, and reject thee out of their mind: Be humble, that thy brother and sister may rejoice in thee, and present thy beauty to the praise of God, who hath created so Beautiful a Chaste and Humble Creature; be ^e modest and friendly in words and works.

^d Or conceive it in their heart.

6. Thou that art Rich, let thy streams flow into the houses of the miserable, that their soul may bless thee: Thou that art in Authority, bow not the right to please the ^e Courteous.

Mighty, that the oppressed may bless thee in thy Righteousness; and then thou also art in the Congregation of Christ: If thou art exalted to high dignity, give not place to thy mind to fly [aloft,] humble thyself in the Congregation of Christ, and then the Congregation will bless thee, and will receive thee into their Love.

^f Desires all happiness to them.

7. O how well is it with the Rich and Potent, when the mean and simple Congregation of Christ loves and ^f blesses them: O how well is it with a Teacher and Preacher, who is a right Minister of Christ, who gives the meat and drink of Christ to the Lambs that are committed to his trust, and refreshes them therewith, so that they yield their souls into his obedience, and heartily love him, and desire all welfare to him! O how happy and shining is he in Christ! How glorious a Shepherd is he, for his Lambs follow him, and he brings them to the chief Shepherd!

^g Or Stone.

8. O how ill a condition is he in whom they curse according to his true deserts! The bright Garment will be taken away from him, and he puts on the wizard of wickedness: But he that is cursed for righteousness sake, he presses forth as the Gold out of the ^g ore, and puts on Christ's Crown of Martyrdom, wherein all the holy souls at the Last Day will highly rejoice, in that he has continued the stedfast Disciple of Christ, who has not looked upon honour, power, money or goods, but has rightly fed the sheep of Christ.

9. Dear Brethren and Sisters in the Congregation of Christ, bear with us: Let us a little rejoice one with another: We bear a hearty love towards you, and speak from the Spirit of our Mother, out of the Spirit of the Eternal Wisdom of God, [viz. from the Spirit of humility.].

^h That is, in the way from Jerusalem, falling among Thieves.

10. We will speak friendly with you concerning our Mother, and concerning our native Country. We will speak of Great Wonders, how things go with us all, and so we will comfort ourselves, for we are in a strange Country: We will persuade one another, and agree, and will go home into our own Country, to our Mother: O how will she rejoice when she sees her children [come to her into the Eternity:] We will tell her of the Great afflictions which we underwent in ^h Jericho, we will speak of the great danger we were in among many evil Beasts: We will speak of the Driver or Oppressor, who held us so long captive, and we will speak how we were freed from him: Let us be unanimous, that our Mother be not grieved and offended with us.

11. Rejoice ye Heavens with us, and let the Earth be glad, for the Praise of the LORD goeth over all Mountains and Hills: He openeth the Doors for us, that we may go to our Mother: Let us rejoice and be glad, for we were born blind, and now we are come to see: Open the Gates of the LORD ye servants of God, that the Virgins with their Music may go in; for that is the Dance wherein we shall rejoice and be glad with the Virgin, saith the Spirit of the LORD of LORDS.

12. O beloved Children of Men, even all that have proceeded and been generated from Adam, in every Island and Country, wherefoever you dwell, by what name soever you are called: Observe, The God of Heaven and Earth, who has created us all, and begotten us out of one Body, who giveth us life and breath, who preserves our body and soul: He calls us all into one Love: You have gone astray a long while, for you have followed human inventions and opinions, and the Devil has deceived you, so that you hate, persecute, and murder one another, and are utter enemies one against another. Open your Eyes, and see: Have we not all one and the same breath, and are Generated from one and the same soul? We have all of us one God, whom we honour and worship; that very one God has created us all: Moreover, we have one and the same Heaven, which is God's, and God dwells therein: We shall all meet together at the Last Day who have trusted in God, why therefore do we so long dispute about God and his Will?

13. If we lift up our Hearts unto him, and yield ourselves to him in obedience, then we are all in his will: None can thrust us out of it. We all stand in this life, in a field, and are growing: The Stars and the Elements are the field wherein we grow: God has sown us therein: Adam is the first ⁱ Grain that God himself did sow, and out of that Grain we all grow, we are all from one seed, we are all ^k Brothers and Sisters.

14. But the Devil has sown weeds amongst us; he has sown no Man, (for that he cannot do in Eternity,) but he hath blinded us, and has sown Pride, Envy, Anger, Covetousness, and Evil will, [or Malice,] into our Mind, therewith to destroy us, for he grudged us the prerogative to be Children of God in the place he was in: He is fallen away from God, through Anger, Pride, and Envy, and has turned himself away from God, and therefore he will deceive us, that his own kingdom may be great.

15. O dear Children, trust him not; for where God sows his good seed, the Devil follows and sows weeds among it. This you see in the Doctrine of Moses, and the Prophets, also in Christ's doctrine: They all preached the way of God in one and the same love, and directed us unto the living God, and that we should go out from our evil fleshly Lusts, (from lying and falsehood, from uncleanness, from covetousness, from murder, and theft,) and enter into a pure chaste humble life in the fear of God, and wholly put our Trust in him as his children, and acknowledge him for our Father, and then he will give us rain and blessing to our body and soul, and will after this life take us to himself into his kingdom, where we shall all be Eternally freed from our afflictions. This, and no other, is the Doctrine of Moses, of the Prophets, and of Christ, that we should love one another, as one [and the same] Life, and God in Us.

16. But observe what the Antichristian Devil has sown into it: He has sown Pride and self-honour, with state and pomp into it: He hath set himself in the chair of Moses, and of the Prophets, as also upon the Authority of Christ, and has led us astray, so that we have made a ⁱ Rent and division amongst us: He has erected a Predestination, and of the Spirit of God, which has often shown itself forth in Man with wonders and mighty works, has gone about to make an envious Malice, as if he loved one People, and hated another, as if he chose one Generation; and not another; whereby He (who is called the Devil's Christ and Satan) sitteth only in honour and voluptuousness. He has raised wars among the People, so that People are at variance, and set up Opinions, and have stirred up the Anger of God, for they are gone away from God with their Opinions, and so the Anger of God has ruled over them, and oftentimes destroyed them; for that which has no Good in it, God will never endure it in his Country, but gives it up to the Anger, though indeed itself runs headlong into it, and whetteth the sword, so that one People devours another: From the beginning of the world to this Time, all Contentions, Disputations and Wars, as also Envy and Malice, have risen from Antichrist, who will be honoured as a God in the form of an Angel, and the Devil dwelleth in him.

17. Which Antichrist is plainly to be discerned by Cain and Abel, in that Cain slew his Brother for Faith [and Religion's] sake, for Abel had set his Heart upon God, and had committed himself to God, ^m which God loved, and accepted his sacrifice; and ^m Whom, Cain had set his heart upon this world, and would be a Lord upon Earth, and his Mouth gave God good words, but his Heart stuck fast in an Earthly conceit [and opinion:] He loved the Spirit of the Mammon of this world, and the Devil slyt into it, and so his Sacrifice was not acceptable to God, but the smoke fell down to the Earth, and the Devil accepted his Sacrifice, and so he slew his Brother by the Devil's instigation, and in his false Conceit and Opinion: He desired the glory, honour, and power of this world, and Abel desired the Love and Grace of God.

18. Thus, dear People, all over the Earth, you see that you are all of one flesh, but that you have divided yourselves one from another, which the Devil in the Antichrist has brought to pass: Your fear of God has many times been great, and you have done great honour and reverence to Men, even from a good meaning out of your Love, as thankful People towards the Government of the Holy Ghost: But because you have given such honour to Men as belongs to God, (though God was contented, so long as they continued in the love of God in humility,) therefore they are fallen off from ⁿ what they were, into lust after temporal honour, and have fallen into a Lust to domineer with cunning and deceit, over your Goods and Souls, and are become a snare unto you; for the Antichristian Devil is slipt into them, and the Spirit of God is departed from them, and they have no more spoke from the Spirit of God, but from their Pride and Art: Strange Languages must do the work, and must be the bringers forth of the Mysterium Magnum.

ⁿ From being endued with the power of God, and his true Ordinance.

19. But behold, dear brethren, how very Thievishly they have dealt with you, they have set themselves up over the Earth, and have ^o drawn to themselves all Power, might, and honour, and ascribe all authority to themselves, and have blinded you with flattering Hypocrisy, and have led you from God into Opinions, and there you go astray; they have stirred you up to Contention and Wars, so that you have murdered one another, and wasted your Native Countries: They have bereaved you of body and soul, also of your goods and wits, and made you believe you did God good service in it, when you became Enemies to those that are not of your Opinion; and yet you are all thus blind, [even on both sides.]

^p That have Cure of souls, Beneficed Ministers that have Livings.

20. Behold! these are the ^p Curates over your souls, your Spirituality, the Clergy: Look upon Popery, whence has that sprung? From the Devil at Rome: He has caused Asia, Africa, Assyria, Persia, and Greece, to depart from his deceit; for the Antichristian Priest-devil has blinded the whole world, and brought them into vain Traditions and Opinions, and turned them away from that unanimous Love: He has placed more holiness in one Order and Opinion than in another, and has sold the highest Degree of ^a Orders for Money: That Order which had much, and rich Livings and Revenues, must give much to the Chief Devil, that he might be fat and a Lord upon Earth: The simple Lay-people were persuaded these Orders were Holiness, and so worshipped before the Dragon in the Revelation, and sought for Pardon, Absolution, and forgiveness of Sins from thence: O how the Common people were tied to them! Whosoever spoke against it, was accounted a Heretic, and the People burnt them with Fire: Thus did the simple People do, and were persuaded they did God good service in it.

^a Such as the Orders or Ordinations of Deacons, and the several Orders of Priests or Presbyters, and of Bishops, Primates, Archbishops, Cardinals, &c.

^f Communion and fellowship.

21. O thou simple ^r Holiness! Thou art not guilty in so doing, neither shall it be imputed or accounted to you at the Last Day, (for you went on blindly in it;) and though on that day the holy Martyrs shall be set before your eyes, yet you have been Zealous for God in Blindness: The Blessed Martyrs (who have seen the Light of God) will not therefore cast you out of their ^r Congregation, seeing you knew not [what you did,] but were blindly led on to do it.

^{*} Or Miracles.

22. Yet, behold and observe what a Zealous Will, or Earnest Desire can do, if one enters into the will of God with his whole desire; and although he knows not what he does, and is Zealous in a strange Opinion, and yet his heart is directed into God, and believes in ignorance very stedfastly that it is pleasing to God, in such an Opinion many Great ^{*} Wonders and Works have been done in the midst of the Antichristian Kingdom, for there is not any thing impossible to a strong faith.

^t Tenets, or Sects and Orders of Religion.

23. Into these Wonders has Antichrist insinuated himself, and has made almost as many ^t Opinions as there are Days in the Year, among which, in the believers, who have so in blindness believed in their Opinion, even Wonders and Miracles have been done, and the Antichrist has ascribed it to the Opinion; whereas the Opinion could not make a fly to stir, but the firm and strong Faith which went out of the Opinion into God, that has awakened ^u the Wonders; for the Spirit of God is in the Faith, and not in the Opinion, and the Faith is from God, for the soul inclines itself in the Opinion into God, and lays hold on the Spirit of God: The Opinion is the Fire, but the soul stays not in the Fire, but presses out from thence into God; it blossoms out of the Fire as a fair flower [out of the Earth.]

24. The Opinions have been tolerable enough in God, and God rejected them not, so long as the soul sought God through the Opinion; and so long also the church of Christ ^x stood in a Government; but when the Devil crept into it, and made a stately Glistering Kingdom of it, when the Priests sought only honour, covetousness, and voluptuousness in it, and led men away from God merely into their ^y Works, the Opinions became altogether blind; for they themselves went out from God into the works of their hands, in forged and invented ways, therefore God let them go, seeing they would not be directed by his Spirit.

25. And Asia, Africa, and Greece, are to be accounted happy, in that they are gone out from the Works of Men into the One only God again: Although indeed they have been blind concerning the Kingdom of Christ, yet their Mind continued in the One only God, and in concord one among another, and have not so vehemently scandalized and reproached one another about the dear Name of Christ, as these have done who have been led blindfold in the darkness of their works; for these have not only hated those that departed from them, but they themselves have reproached and snarled at one another in their Opinions, as Dogs about a Bone, and have led the Laity ^z astray, who go groping in the dark, and know not which Opinion is the best.

26. Thus you hang to Opinions, and are perfidious to God, so that when a simple Man comes to die, he knows not whither his soul shall Enter: He hangs to his works and ^a Opinion, and forsakes the Will of God, and so remains without God: And where now do you suppose the poor soul remains, when it is ^b without God's will? Behold we will tell you, for we know certainly, for the Spirit of our Mother opens it to us, so that we see with both Eyes.

27. Behold, Christ saith, Where your Treasure is, there is your Heart also. Behold, the soul is involved in the Opinion, and so runs with it to the Patron [or author of it] who has so taught it, and seeketh him, and if it finds him not, then it becomes sorrowful, and has no rest, and so hovers between Heaven and Hell, and would fain ^c escape the Devil; therefore it happens that many times the poor souls have appeared again in the Congregation, or else in houses, fields, and churches, and have cried to the Congregation for help with their Prayers, and have submitted themselves to the Orders, and supposed to find Ease, from whence Purgatory was framed; for that soul has the Purgatory indeed, if it cannot attain the will of God; and in such fervent casting itself down in the Opinion, it is sunk down through the Opinion, and at length come into the Still Eternity, but we understand here those souls, which in their Opinions have Imagined [or sought] after the Kingdom of God, and not the souls of the Deceivers, who have sought their profit and pleasure therein; those are quite gone a whoring with Antichrist, for they are bound to him with an Oath; and though they sit in hell-fire a whoring with him, yet they flatter him with their hypocrisy, and reproach God as if he had dealt unjustly with them; for what the soul does here in this [life] time, into which it involves itself, and takes it into its will, that it takes with it in its will, and after the ending of the Body cannot be freed from it: for afterwards it has nothing else but that, and when it goes into that and kindles it, and seeks with diligence, that is but an unfolding of the same ^d thing, and the poor soul must content itself with that: Only in the time of the Body it can break off that thing which it has wrapped up in its will, and that stands afterwards as a broken wheel, which is broken and useles, and no soul enters into it any more, neither does it seek any more therein.

^x Or had a true Government.

^z Or Common People.

^a Or Profession of Religion.

^b Extra Dei voluntatem.

^c Or get away from the Devil.

^d Being, Essence, or Substance of the work it has wrought here in this life.

28. Thus we say unto you, that the Antichristian souls, after the breaking of the body, seek no more for the Door of Christ, for they know nothing of it; they know only of what they here conceived or took in, and the souls sink down in that Opinion into the deepest Ground, much deeper than they here conceived; for that which was known in many of them of the same Opinion, what any or all of them know in the same Opinion, that one soul alone knows, for it is one Body with all those that are of the same Opinion, and they have one Heart in many Members, wherein every one manages their business, which stands so till the Judgment of God, which afterwards shall make separation, where then all kindreds upon Earth shall howl and lament, when they shall know that Judge whom they vera so despised.

29. Hearken you accursed Antichrist, what answer will you give, in that you have led astray the People from faith in God, and from the Justification of the Passion and dying of Jesus Christ, into thy deceitful hypocrisy in Opinions, only for thy pride, honour, and covetousness sake? You have persuaded them so, that many of them in their youth and ignorance have sworn and vowed to you: What have you done? Even the same that Christ said to the Pharisees, Woe unto you Pharisees, who compass Sea and Land, till you have made a Jew and Profelyte, and when you have made him so, then you make him twofold more the child of Hell then yourselves; and this also the Antichrist does.

30. In Germany they suppose they are now gone out from Antichrist with their Contentions, but it is not so yet: for they which now curse Antichrist, and lay his shame open, are even grown out from the Tree of Antichrist, and are the Wolves and Bears of Antichrist, which suck from him, and devour him; for the Spirit of this Principle has commanded them so, they must do it; for they are one Trumpet among the seven Angels in the Revelation; but they all wind one Horn, and sound so, that the Earth shaketh with it: But when the Thunder of it shall follow, then will the Mystery of the Kingdom of God be revealed again, and our Door of Grace in Christ be opened again, which Antichrist had sealed up, for he shall be thrown down into the Abyss: Observe this.

31. The Opinions about the Cup and Person of Christ, which are frequent now in Germany, are also sprung from the Antichristian Tree, and they are the Children of Antichrist, which he introduces very finely and subtilly: O what a cunning Artist is the Devil! If you will not open your Eyes, it will continue so to the End: It is told to the simple, and they are directed to open their Eyes, and not to regard Opinions: There stick mere Heresies in Opinions: And though they be zealous in their Opinions, and in the Opinion press into God, and so attain God and the kingdom of Heaven, yet they have the Tail of Antichrist hanging on them, for they are zealous against others, and reproach and persecute them, who are not of their Opinion.

32. Mark this, ye Princes, Rulers, and Magistrates, suffer not yourselves to be seduced, drive the Teachers into the Churches, and command them to teach the Will of God in his Love, give them not Lordly Power, and do not put any Authority into their hands to make Canons and Constitutions, else they will hang to Covetousness, and Antichrist sticketh in all Covetousness; and so do what you can, you will have him on your Neck.

33. Look to it ye Princes, and regard to hear those Men that are Born of God, and not of Art only; for where there is great Art, and not an humble heart inclined to God, that seeketh not its own honour and Covetousness, there is Antichrist most assuredly; for in Art stick Pride and self-honour, which would fain rule the World, and desire to get much Gain to themselves; trust not these, they are not Christ's Shepherds: If you will not follow what is revealed to you, then the last Antichrist will be worse than the first, and it will come to that pass, that the world will be constrained to cast them headlong together on a heap into the Abyss, which Daniel and the Revelation show them plain enough, and as we have known it that it will so befall them, for they are now a Besom and ^f Rod ^f Or scourge, upon the old Antichrist their Grandfather; but there is one Coming, who will Gird them also, and set the Truth before their face.

34. Observe it, you Children of God, this is a sign of the last Antichrist: In his Kingdom and Opinions, they deny the Body and Blood of Christ, in which we are born in God: Lift up your heads, and behold, for your Redemption draweth near: Be not so led astray, and lulled asleep, look not with strange Eyes, but open your own Eyes, and fly from Antichrist into the Spirit of Christ: There are no more ways but one to enter into the Kingdom of Christ, which is set down thus, [as follows].

A Gate, [showing] which Way we must walk through this world, into the Kingdom of God.

35. You must go out from your Reason out of the fleshly Spirit, and bring your heart, mind, and thoughts, wholly into the Obedience of God, and yield your will into God's will; and do not feign ways of your own Reason, or ask Where is Christ? Direct your way into Christ, and know for certain that Christ is in your Heart: Submit yourself to him in great humility, cast all your purposes and doings into his will and pleasure, and consider that you always stand before the clear countenance of God, and that Christ sitteth on the Rainbow at the right hand of God in you, and consider that you stand Every moment before the Holy Number Three, and that God the Holy Number Three always examines, and sees the Abyss of your Heart, and take heed that you enter into no deep Thought or searching, but merely into his Love and ^e Mercy, and resolve never to go out from it any more, but ever to continue therein. ^e Barmberzigkeit.

36. And then, secondly, consider that you do what is pleasing in the sight of God the Most High, when you seek with your love your Brethren and Sisters in this world, whosoever they are, and by what name soever they are called, and what Opinion soever they are of. Embrace them in your Heart, help to pray for them, and help them to wrestle against the Devil, and as far as is possible instruct them with all humility; but if they will not receive it, then put on the Garment of Christ, and be a good example unto them, be serviceable and helpful to them, forgive them when they hurt and wrong you: When they curse you, do you bless them; when they do you injury, if you cannot turn it into Good and avoid them, let it pass, and consider you are but a Pilgrim here: Withdraw your Love from none, for your God, in whom you live, withdraws himself from none that do but seek him; be readily yielding to your adversary, if he once offers to turn his mind: In all your affairs and conversation, love Righteousness, and always have a care that you do your work for God: We must in this World, in this troublesome valley of Misery, compass our affairs with labour and pains: We should not go into Holes, Cloisters, Cells and Corners; for Christ saith, Let your Light shine before Men, that your Father may have praise in your works: Do all things from a ^b sincere heart, in a pure mind, and consider you do it to Christ, and that the Spirit of Christ does it in you: Be always ready, expecting the Bridegroom: Let your Heart have no leave to meditate and search into any other opinion: It is not profitable for you to know much: Let every one learn to do his own work, wherewith he may have sustenance for his body, whether he be ⁱ Magistrate, or ^k Lay Person. ^b Heartily, from the bottom of your heart. ⁱ Superior. ^k Inferior.

37. Let the Magistrate learn righteousness, and to distinguish the false from the pure, for he is the Officer of God: What he does and judges, that he judges for God, and God through him. Let the Laity be humble * and mannerly before the Ordinance of God: If any wrong be done him with a high hand, and that it cannot be otherwise, let him consider that he suffers wrong for the truth's sake, and that it is a great honour for him in Christ, in the presence of God.

38. In all your matters, conversation, dealing, and actions, always set the judgment of God before your Eyes, and have a care that you live blameless here, for this [life] time is short; and we stand here in a field a growing: Therefore see that you be good fruit for God, at which all the Angels and Hosts of Heaven may be pleased, and rejoice: Bear malice to none, for that invites the Devil to a Lodging: Be sober and Temperate: Let not the desire of this world persuade you, and though it happens sometimes, do not go on in it: Go every hour out of Death into Life: Crucify yourselves in true Repentance and Conversion from Evil.

39. When you are reproached for your fearing God, and evil spoken of, and it is false and untrue, then rejoice most of all, that you are become worthy to suffer reproach for the Doctrine and Honour of Christ: When you are in Affliction, be not dismayed, consider you are in the will of God, he will suffer no more to be laid upon you than you shall be able to bear.

40. Turn away your Eyes from covetousness, from high-mindedness and state, and do not readily look after such things, that you be not captivated, for the Devil catches his birds with state and high-mindedness, but go not into his net: Be always watchful, never be secure; for that fowler goes constantly about to see where he can catch any one: Where honest people are mocked and scorned, go not thither, make not yourselves partakers of such wickedness, let it not enter into your Ears, that the Devil may not tickle your Heart with that foolish Laughter, and so you become infected with it.

41. Summarily, commit yourselves to God in Christ, and pray to God the Father in the Name and upon the promise of Christ, for his holy Spirit; desire it upon the promise of Christ, and so you will receive it; for he is faithful who has promised it: He will not deny it you: You will receive it most certainly; only give yourself wholly up to him, that is the greatest and chiefest [thing:] Commit all to his will, and when you have it, that will teach you sufficiently what you are to do: He teacheth you to speak: He gives you a mind and knowledge and understanding how to behave to yourselves: Be not careful after what manner you should do a thing when you are to deal with Men; but commit all your doings to him, he will do that in you well enough which is well pleasing to God; and though you should be in a burning Zeal, and should bring fire from Heaven from the Lord of Lords upon the wicked, yet it is acceptable to him, for the wicked have awakened and kindled it.

42. But go on in the Power of God, and then all your doing is well pleasing to God; for, that any defends himself against his Enemy, upon necessity, without any other intent or desire, that is not against God; for he who has his house on fire may quench it; yea, God has given leave to Israel to defend themselves.

43. But he that causes and begins a war, he is the Devil's Officer; for all wars are driven on by the Anger of God, wherein the Devil dwells: God has not been the Author of wars, for he created us in Love, that we should dwell together in Paradise in friendly Love, as loving Children, but the Devil grudged us that, and led us into the spirit of this world, which has awakened all wars and mischief in the Anger of God, so that we hate and murder ourselves.

44. Seeing then we are thus begirt with Enemies in this valley of Misery, so that we grow among thorns and thistles, therefore we ought to watch; for we must watch also over the Enemy which we carry in our Bosom, viz. our mind and thoughts, for that is the worst Enemy; also the Devil has his ¹ Den of Thievery therein, and there is required great labour and toil to cast out that Devil: He slips many times into our Mind, and leads us on in smooth delightful hypocritical ways, so that we suppose we are in God, and that our ways are Right: There we should constantly have our Touchstone with us, which is the Blessed Love towards God and Man: We should not take pleasure in ourselves, but we should be of such a Conversation, that God and Man may take pleasure in us for our virtue; [self-seeking must be quenched, and true Resignation and self-denial must grow and flourish.]

45. And when we thus converse in the Love and the Righteousness of God, and in the Obedience of Faith, then we put on Christ, who setteth the fair orient Crown of Pearls upon us, viz. the Crown, the Mysterium Magnum: He crowns us with his wisdom, so that we know his Wonders, which we were blind in before, as it has happened to this Hand, which before the time of the Tenth Number, when it was yet in the unit, was as simple in the Mystery as the meanest of all; but, as the Gold must be tried in the Fire, so also it happened to this hand: Corruption and Putrefaction was not wanting: Every one would needs tread the simple child under foot; where was the first time that a Garland was set upon it: O what great labour and toil did the Devil take that he might fully it! O how busy was he, which, when I think upon, I very much wonder and thank God who has preserved me! O how he bestirred himself, that he might tear the Garland in pieces! O how eager was he with Antichrist, in putting him on to persecute this hand, that every one might abominate it! But it happened to the Devil, as about Christ, when he so set on the Pharisaical Antichrist, that they crucified Christ, then thought the Devil, he is gone now, I shall be quiet enough, and not be troubled with his Doctrine, which destroyed my Kingdom; so also here; but he thereby awaked the first storm: Christ stormed his Hell, and took him captive in the Anger, and so his Den of Robbery was first opened by this hand, which he shall never be able to shut up again, but it shall stand open till his judgment: This we write for an Example to the Reader, that he may know what he must expect in this way, even nothing else but scorn and reproach.

46. But be of good courage, you dear Children of God, do but help to wrestle faithfully and valourously, for we all wrestle in this life for an Angelical Crown, which Lord Lucifer had upon his head. And how can he be but angry, who has lost his Country and Kingdom, when another comes and takes his Crown, and throws him to the Ground, and holds him Captive?

47. But wrestle courageously, you dear Children of God, it is but for a little while, and then we shall get the Scepter and Crown: It is better to be a Lord than a captive slave and servant: The sufferings of this world, if they cannot be avoided, are not worthy to be called sufferings in respect of the great Glory, which shall be manifested on us.

48. We stand here between Heaven and Hell, in a field, and there grows either an Angel, or a Devil out of us: Now, therefore, if any one has a Love to the Kingdom of Heaven, and would fain be an Angel, he ought to look well to himself: It is soon done with a Man: Thou hast free will, whithersoever thou inclinest, there thou art: What thou sowest, that thou shalt also reap: Let this be told thee [for a warning.]

Of Christ's most precious * Testaments, that Fair Garland of Pearls of the Noble Highly Precious Stone ^a of The Great Mystery, and Philosopher's Stone, which the Antichristian Church dances about, and is ever seeking it, but not in the Right Ground and Place.

1.  N this Stone there lies hidden, whatsoever God and the Eternity, also Heaven, the Stars, and Elements contain, and are able to do : There never was from Eternity any thing better or more precious than this, and it is offered by God, and bestowed upon Man ; every one may have it that does but desire it ; it is in a simple form, and has the power of the whole Deity in it.

2. Christ saith, I have the water of Eternal Life, whosoever thirsteth let him come to me and drink of it for nothing, it shall flow in him into a fountain of Eternal Life, and whosoever drinketh thereof shall never thirst any more : Christ gives us his flesh for food, and his blood for drink : We should eat his flesh and drink his blood, and then he will continue in us, and we shall continue in him ; where he is, there shall we be also, both here and there [in the other Life ;] * for he will be with us always unto the end of the world : He will not let us his children want ; as a father cares for his children, so He careth for us ; and though a father perhaps should forsake his children, yet he will never forsake us : for he has imprinted us in his hands struck through with nails, and received us into the ^b wound of his side, out of which did run water and blood ; we should believe and trust him, as his precious Word has told us, he is the mouth of truth, and cannot lie.

3. Hear, thou dear Christianity, open thy Mind, and let not Reason, which is without God, lead thee astray : Consider this well : We will show you the right ground and scope, without conceits and opinions : We will set it before you wholly pure, without spot or blemish, and only show you what Christ is : We will bring no conceit of human Invention to please any Man's Opinion ; neither will we take it from that which the World sets forth, as in their Glosses, but we will speak that which is revealed to us out of the Mouth of Christ, and what his Testaments are in ^b reality.

4. For this is the Jewel, the Noble Stone, which the Church of Babel dances about, and about which she raises wars and persecutions : How many very scandalous and scurrilous Books and Pamphlets have been written about it ?

5. This is the true Jewel of the Congregation of Christ ; when the Church of Rome lost it, then it became a Babel, and the Spirit of God departed from her, and the most potent Countries towards the East, South, and West, turned away from her : For the Revelation told them, saying, If thou continuest not in my Love, I will come to thee, and take away thy Candlestick from thee ; which came to pass thus :

6. Europe kept the Name of the Jewel, and Asia the Colour of it ; but the virtue of it remained sealed to them both, for they were both departed from it : They grew fat, proud, and stately, and would be Lord over the Jewel : They only fought ^d good days, great honour and glory by it ; they built them upon it a brave Glistering Earthly Kingdom, as is to be seen by the Romish Babel, which they do as Hypocrites, that they may be honoured by the Congregation, and had in great esteem. That which Paul and the Apostles left [behind them,] viz. That the Congregation should abide in reverence and in Love, and that the Elders which behaved themselves well, should be accounted worthy of double honour, (which was right in the Congregation, to do it to them that behaved themselves well,) this they usurp to themselves, into their own Power in [a way of] Compulsion: Men must perform it to them, though they be no way worthy of it; and because they could not handsomely use any other sword, therefore they made to themselves a false sword, viz. the * Curse [of Excommunication,] and that should make Men reverence their holiness, that they might not seem to be bloody Executioners themselves, just as the Pharisees did, who delivered Christ up to Pilate; so these also, they are so devout in show and appearance, [they will shed no blood with their own hands,] but their heart is a Devil: They stir up the Magistrates upon their Devilish * Curse of Excommunication, who must be their Executioners to execute what their Devilish Heart has concluded upon.

* Censure.

7. O dear Princes, open your Eyes; your Office, if you do that which is right, is indeed grounded in Nature; but their fictions and conceits are not; therefore be not Executioners under them: See with your own Eyes, you shall, and must, at the last Day, give an account of your Office; be not led about without Eyes, blindfold; you should see with your own Eyes: You are the true Heads of the Congregation: The Lambs of Christ are committed to your trust; the Priests are but Elders in the Congregation, if they walk rightly before them, and give good Example to the Congregation by their good Doctrine, Life, and Conversation, and then honour and respect should be given to them as Elders of the Congregation of Christ; not that they are Lords over the Congregation, but servants of the Congregation: They should have the Spirit of Christ, and bless the Congregation, and the Congregation should give themselves up with them into one Love, into one Will, and so pray and sing, and speak together of God's Love and Wonders, that so there may be one Spirit, one Heart, in one Will, and so the weak may be helped by the Prayer and Faith of the strong.

8. The Congregation should incline their Ear to the speech of the Elders, who are strong and powerful in the Spirit, and should receive the Word of the Spirit with earnest desire: The Elders should teach with meekness, and deal with the Congregation as with their own Children, they should instruct them in their teaching and reproving with modest admonition: They should not bring bitter Hearts into the Congregation, in sending forth reproaches against the weak children, that the feeble be not quite ^e discouraged.

* Afraid and disheartened, or daunted.

9. But he that despises the Congregation of Christ, and departs from the Christian-way, they should privately warn and admonish such a one: If he will not regard, then they have the Curse [or Excommunication] of the Spirit to bind him in Hell in the Anger of God, that Satan may ^f vex his Heart, till he turns and repents: For the Congregation hath in Christ Great Power, they have the Key to open and shut; but, as is mentioned before, the Priest alone has not the Power: No, he has it not alone, for he is but the servant of the Congregation: The meanest of them all, if he is ^g faithful, has as much authority in the Curse or Excommunication as the greatest; for we are all Members of the Body of Christ: If the meanest of all shut any out of the Congregation in the Curse of Excommunication, if the party is guilty, then he is in [or under] the Curse or Excommunication; but if the party has wrong done him, then he is in the Curse or Excommunication who has done him the wrong, who has belied him: Therefore look to it, you Elders, consider what you do, and do not make the Congregation of Christ, which Christ has dearly purchased with his blood, to ^h scandalize one another, else you yourselves are in [or under] the Curse of Excommunication, and are without the Congregation of Christ.

ⁱ Search and consider before-hand ere you judge, what Spirit's child he is whom you judge: Try his Spirit before-hand, for many are zealous out of Ignorance, whom you should ^{*} instruct and receive: You know not what God's Spirit gives to every one; for he hath many and sundry Gifts: Judge all in the way of Love; be not rigid, be not furious, stern and obstinate: Instruct the simple in meekness, that he may place his delight in the Congregation; for such were Christ's Apostles, your Predecessors: They taught in such a manner, and instructed the Congregation by good Example, Doctrine, and Life.

[Concerning the Lord's Supper.]

10. When they met together, and made known the Wonders of the LORD, and sat together with a fervent Spirit; then after Exhortation one of another, they distributed the Lord's Last Supper, as he had commanded them: They took Bread and brake it, and eat of it, and thereby, and therewith, have Commemorated the Lord's Death; in like manner also they took the Cup, and drank of it, and Commemorated the shedding of his blood; saying one to another, Take, and eat the Lord's Body, which was given for us on the Cross.

11. So also they did with the Cup, they took it in their hand, and drank of it; for the uppermost of the Congregation began and said to the other, Take the Cup and drink the Blood of Christ our Lord, which he hath shed for us on the Cross for the Remission of sins, and commemorate his Death, and the shedding of his Blood, until he comes again to Judgment, and brings us into himself.

12. This, dear Children, was the true Apostolical practice, and the Last Supper of Christ was even so; for, when Christ had instructed and taught his Disciples, he began (after Supper, when they had Eaten the ^l Paschal Lamb,) the right Eating of the Paschal Lamb, and gave them that Paschal Lamb to eat, of which the first instituted by Moses was but an Image and a ^m Shadow; for he gave them his heavenly body to eat, and his heavenly blood to drink, which he had introduced into Mary's Womb in the Eternal beginningless Heavenly Virgin of God, in the Pure Chaste Immaterial [Virginity,] without spot or blemish, and had assumed it from his Earthly Mother.

^l Or Easter Lamb, or Passover.

ⁿ Deeply, or accurately.

13. You ought ⁿ highly to understand this: He gave not his Disciples the Earthly substance, which did but hang to Christ's Body, in which he suffered Death, which was despised, buffeted, spit upon, scourged, and slain, for then he had given them the mortal flesh; but he gave them his holy Body, his holy flesh, which hung also on the Cross in the mortal substance, and his holy blood which was shed together with the mortal, as an immortal flesh and blood which the Disciples received into their Body, which was put on to the soul as a new body out of Christ's body, whereby the Disciples were capable of [receiving] Christ, and became Members of his Body.

14. You must not understand it thus, that Christ's Disciples took a piece of the outward Body of Christ, viz. of his Earthly Body, and put it in their mouths, and chewed it with their outward Earthly Teeth, and so swallowed it down into their Bellies: No, this is apparent, in that he sat with them at the Table, and did not divide his outward Body.

^{*} Note.

15. ^{*} But Note, As the Deity had conceived in its will the Image which God created in his Virgin of his Wonders and Wisdom, and brought the flesh and blood together with the Eternal Tincture, in which the soul lives, (viz. the Eternal Fire which reaches into the Deity after the substance of the Majesty, and allays, fills, and strengthens itself therewith,) out of Mary in the Virgin into the Holy Ternary, into which the Word gave itself, (as a life in the Tincture of the Eternity,) and became the spirit, life, and virtue of that flesh, which sprouteth out of the Tincture of that fire of the soul; for the Spirit was in the Word, and the Word was the Power or Virtue, and out of the virtue shone the Light of the Majesty, and the Kingdom, with the power of this world, hung to ° it also as its proper own, which was generated out of the Virgin of its Wonders and Wisdom out of the Eternal Center of Nature, wherein also Mary stood, with the outward virtue and life; with the outward flesh and blood: So also in such a manner as this, has Christ the true Son of God, [and] our Brother, given to his Disciples, his body to eat, and his blood to drink. ° The Spirit.

16. And as God, in his heavenly Virgin, (out of which the heavenly Substantiality is discovered, and attaineth substance in the Tincture of the Fire) is a substance; which substance, God (with the Word and Heart, with the receiving in of the Tincture out of Mary's blood, in which the soul dwelt) did with the word Fiat, as with the Eternal astringent Matrix, comprehend, and let them together become flesh and blood after a human way and manner; (understand, as the Eternal Substantiality, with the wisdom, viz. the Eternal Virginity, has given itself into the perished Tincture and Matrix of Mary, wherein was the Promised Word, which gave itself also in the Eternal Substantiality into the perished Tincture, [or life,] and so became a New Man, being strange and unknown to the Earthly Man,) so this New Body of Christ, (understand the inward ^P Christ, which the outward Man which was mortal covered,) gave itself under Bread and Wine, as an Outward [thing,] into the Tincture of the Souls of the Apostles, and became Man in the Apostles in the Tincture of the soul; and that is the New Body which Christ hath brought us from Heaven; [of which he said, None goeth to Heaven; but he that is come from Heaven;] so that when we wholly yield up ourselves to him in Obedience, and with our old will go out from ourselves into his Will, and so come into Christ's Congregation, and desire his flesh and blood, with all his benefits, then he giveth us this body and blood to eat and to drink, which the inward Man born of God receives: for the Body of Christ is ^q every where present in Substance: it containeth the Second Principle: [that is, the Angelical world, according to which God is called Merciful, and the Eternal good.] ^P Christus, ^q Omnipræfens & Omni subsistens Corpus,

17. For, to say that Christ feedeth the Soul with Spirit without Body, is not true; the Holy Ghost makes not a Principle, but the Eternal Substantiality in which the Holy Ghost dwells, and goes out from thence in a form of many thousand innumerable Essences, even that which is so gone forth; is the Virgin of Chastity, viz. the Eternal Wisdom, in which all the Wonders of this world were beheld from Eternity.

18. Understand us right, according to its high and precious worth; That Substantiality wherein the Virgin of God consisteth, Adam had on him: for the Spirit of this world was given him, and breathed into him therein; but the Essences were Paradisical, and sprung up through the [one pure] Element, which the Substantiality contains, and that Substantiality, the Spirit of this world in Adam, took into itself, into its Power, [as the Water takes the Light (in a flaming red hot Iron) into it, and quenches it.]

19. First the Heavenly Substantiality had the Power [or predominancy,] but afterwards, when Adam went back with his lust into the Earthly [Substantiality,] then the Earthly [Substantiality] got the Power and Predominancy, and that is the cause that our perished heavenly Substantiality is become Earthly: and therefore must God with the heavenly substantiality in us become Man, and in the Heavenly Virgin and in the Earthly, God is become Man, and has put on upon our souls the heavenly Substantiality again, viz. his heavenly body: yet our Earthly must pass away, but the Heavenly remains standing for ever.

20. And yet, nevertheless, we are captivated poor sinners with the old Adam, into which the Devil has an entrance, and we go many times out from the fair Image, understand, the soul turns its will often into the Outward Man; and therefore God has appointed this Testament, so that when we turn again to him, he then gives our soul the New Garment again, viz. the New Body, and renews and feeds it,

* The Lord's

21. He that once getteth the Body of Christ, it departs not from him, unless he spoils it as Adam did; it is only covered with the old Adam, and moreover passeth into the Mystery; and it is very possible for the soul to go out from it, therefore the soul should not be secure or careless, but watchful.

22. Therefore know, that Christ gave his Disciples his True All-present Eternal Divine Body to eat, and his Blood to drink, out of which the Holy Ghost proceedeth; and the Inward Mouth which received it was the desirous willing of their souls; for the soul of Man hungers and thirsts continually since the heavy fall, after such flesh and blood, and puts the same on as the Garment of God; for the soul in itself is a Spirit, and has need of a Body, and there it attains a body, a new Eternal incorruptible body into the old Adamical Body.

23. Thus, you are to know, the bread which Christ gave to his Disciples, was that which the outward Mouth took, and gave to the belly; but the word, whereof Christ said, Eat, this is my Body, that same word was the Eternal body of Christ, and had heavenly flesh and blood in it, and that the soul received, as a New body; and thus there was at once, in the hand of Christ, two Kingdoms, viz. a Heavenly and an Earthly.

24. But, you must know, that the Heavenly cannot be comprehended or carried forth by the Earthly; for the heavenly Man, viz. the heavenly Body of Christ, which was in the outward Christ, that all at once, and in Eternity, also filled the Angelical world, viz. the second Principle of God; so that without that same bodily substance God is not known at all, for the power of the Deity has manifested itself therein, and yet the outward Image remains standing; * so that in Heaven Men see the Human Nature palpably and apprehensively standing in that form it was in here upon Earth: Thou see'st nothing else in it but the Majesty of the Clarity of the Brightness, which filleth the Angelical world; and wheresoever now the Majesty is, there is the Substantiality of Christ; for the Heart and Word of God has united it in the Substantiality: As we consider that the Word is every where, so is the Substantiality (the body of the Word) [every where,] though indeed without Image; for the Creature has only the [formation or] Image.

* Note.

25. Behold, I give you a similitude: Consider, all things are created out of the Water, and in the Water was all Power and virtue; for you find that all things have Water, though it be a very Stone, or Flesh, or whatsoever it is; but the Sulphur is therein with the power of Nature, which forms the Substantiality.

26. Now, behold, in the whole Deep, there is nothing but Water, Air, and Fire, out of which there is the Substance, viz. the Body or the Earth [come to be.]

27. Now, you see very well, that the Sun (being but one) causeth that, and is also the virtue and majesty in this Elementary Substance: It all belongs to the Sun, and all desires the Sun, and the Sun with its virtue affords the Dominion [or Government of every thing in the Universe.]

28. See, and consider this in a similitude: God is the Eternal Sun in the second Principle: Understand the Heart, Splendor, Virtue, and Majesty; and the Elements, Fire, Water, and Earth, are (spoken by way of similitude) [as it were] God the Father: Now the Sun standeth there as a Body, as indeed it is, which resembles the Creature Christ; and the whole substance of the four Elements resembles the Substantiality of the Creature, wherein the splendor of the Sun shineth: The Sun resembles the Word and the Majesty; and the four Elements resemble the virtue of the Body, and the Father, out of which the Son shineth.

29. Therefore know, that in Heaven, every where all over, is the Father's virtue or power, and in the virtue the Word; and the Word has the substantiality, which belongs all to the Person of Christ; for Christ standeth in the Father [as] an Image, as the Sun in the Elements.

30. If God should once open himself, the whole world would be mere Sun; for the Deep receives the splendor of the Sun; or else if there was no such thing in the Deep as the Sun is, the Deep could not receive the Light; but thus it desires its like: And thus it is also in Heaven: The Son is every where in the Father, and is become Man: The Total Holy Number Three without end and substance, has manifested itself in an Image in substance, and that is Christ, and we are his Members: We are God's, if we continue in him; he is our Fountain, our Light, and we are his Stars: He gives us his Body and Virtue, and his splendor for [our] Light.

31. Thus he feedeth us here upon Earth in the Supper, and when we desire it, with the virtue of his Body, and with the spirit which proceeds from that virtue, (for that is the spirit and life of the virtue or power,) then we receive the Total Holy [†] Number Three: [†] Or Trinity. The substantiality has Sulphur, understand the Body of Christ, that is the Father, and the Sulphur has the virtue or power; and in the virtue is the Light of life as another Person, and out of the virtue in the Light goes forth the smell and spirit of the virtue, and is not comprizable or detainable by the virtue, and yet it goes forth from the virtue, and is the Holy Ghost.

32. Understand us right thus: We receive not in the Supper another Creature, with a new soul; No, but we receive on to our Soul, the Body of Christ, which filleth Heaven, and is already [before-hand] the Eternal Creature: The soul Eateth Christ's flesh, and drinketh his blood, which filleth Heaven; and out of that which the soul receives and eats, there grows a body to the soul, and in that body it is in the hand of God, and can at the End of the world go with that Body through the Fire of the Anger of God, without feeling [of it;] and as the fire cannot lay hold on Christ in the Number Three, so not of us neither; for the fire receives the meekness [or allay] from God's meekness and ours, and becomes in us changed into a rising up of the desire of Love, so that our fire and burning in us is a mere Love-desire; for it comes to be a brightness of the Majesty, and thus we are in God, and the Children of God, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.

33. And after such a manner is it with the Baptism of Children, the soul consisting in two things, viz. in Fire and Water; for the blood has two forms, viz. sulphur and water: Sulphur gives Tincture and life, for it gives light, which is the burning out from the sulphur, and that is life. The Pbur is fire, and the Sul is Light, and out of the Light goes the Meekness, which draws the Pbur to it again, and quenches its fierceness therewith, and that attracting makes the meekness substantial, which is water; and Mercury makes therein the Great Life, viz. a life in the water, and the Heavenly Luna breeds it, that it turns to a liquor and to blood, wherein is the Center of Nature with seven forms.

34. Now observe, When the Seed to the child is sown, then the Tincture of the Fire, viz. the Man's Tincture, is sown into the Tincture of Venus, out of which proceeds a Twofold Life, viz. a fire-life of the soul, and in Venus a water-life of the Spirit, [or a Water-Spirit Life,] which spring up together, and become a Man. And thus now both Tinctures in Adam are corrupted.

35. The Tincture of the soul was captivated by the Eternal Anger of God, wherein the Devil sat, and the Tincture of the Spirit was captivated by the Spiritus Majoris Mundi, the Spirit of the Great World, the Spirit of this world, and they had both remained captivated by the Devil, if the Verbum Domini, the Word of the Lord, which at length became flesh, had not interposed in the midst [as a Mediator.]

36. Therefore has God, through Christ, instituted Two Testaments, one [Testament] (for little Children) in the Holy Ghost, who performs the Office, who chiefly manages the office in the Baptism, and makes in the water of the soul a water of life in his virtue; and one [other Testament] (for poor sinners that are more in years, to understand it) in the Word of Life, as in Flesh and Blood, where the Word, viz. the Heart of God chiefly manages the Office, and feeds with his body, and gives his blood for drink; which Testament with Flesh and Blood belongs to the Tincture of the fire-life to the soul; and the Testament of water belongs to the Spirit-life, viz. to the other Tincture, and yet is but one Man: But before the Birth of Christ, the Devil used great Treachery, and wrought much mischief with Man, in that he spiritually possessed them, [as may be read concerning the Idol Oracles,] and here [in the Baptism] his trade and handicraft was laid aside; for Christ erected for the Children a Laver of Regeneration in the Holy Ghost, (for a Child hath not faith as yet, also there are very few that learn [or are taught] what Faith is,) that there might be one Testament that might preserve poor ignorant Man.

37. Not that the Holy Ghost alone baptizes, indeed he chiefly manages the Office, and takes the virtue of the Number Three wherewith he Baptizes; and so when the Baptizer saith, I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; then the Holy Ghost takes hold in the Number Three, and Baptizes in the Water of the Soul, in the Water of Life, which is in the blood of the Tincture, which contains the Spirit-life, viz. the second Center of Nature; and so the spirit of the soul receives the virtue ^a and Office of the Holy Ghost, and here lies the Mysterium Magnum, [the Great Mystery.]

^a Of the Office.

38. Dear Brethren in Babel, do not so dance about on the outside of the Mystery, enter in, or else you are not the Ministers of Christ; if you cannot apprehend this, yet continue in the Faith on the Word: But when you say Christ's Testaments are only signs and not substance, then you are the Antichrist, and deny the Deity, and are not capable of the Office: You cannot baptize the Child, but the Congregation of God, (which hath the Faith,) Baptizes it: A ^z keeper of sheep, or a keeper of swine, that simply believes that baptism is a Great hidden Mystery, wherein the Holy Number Three Baptizes, and that himself is but the Servant, Minister, or Instrument, which performs only the outward work, he in his simplicity baptizes much better than you do.

^z A Shepherd, or Swincherd.

39. You great School Rabbies and Masters, that sit aloft, let this be told you: There is one a-coming who will baptize you with the fire of Wrath, because you deny his power and virtue: You have a hard bit [to chew] of Christ's Testaments: If you will not go forth from your Councils into the Temple of Jesus Christ, you must be quite cast away.

40. In times of old you were very many of you; for you propagated yourselves, and not the office of Christ: But you are now become very thin in Germany; where you were a thousand, you are now scarce a hundred of you: If you will not leave off your human Wit and your own Inventions, God will so cast you away, that where you are now a hundred, there shall not remain ten of you, nor a less number. Awake from your sleep, lest you thus go down into perdition into the Abyss.

41. You say we laugh you to scorn : It may be you think so, for there is one that laugheth you to scorn whom we know, who shows it to us: He will suddenly awake, be not so secure and careless: Consider of it; for none taketh any thing to himself, unless it be given him of God; neither will this be spoken in vain.

42. ^y O beloved and worthy Christendom, observe it well : Do not say, if our Teachers ^y Note lead us not aright, let them look to it : O no, it concerns your very self, it will cost the loss of your body and soul. Dear Christendom is departed from all the Apostolical Ordinances, Virtue, and Power, into human Inventions and Institutions; and instead of Christ's Kingdom, there is a Pompous, Stately, Hypocritical one set up, by Baptism and the [Lord's] Supper.

43. Men set up Ceremonies : O! if they had kept the true Faith, and had shown people the Divine Way into the New Regeneration: If they had shown them the clear Countenance of God, then people had departed from their sins into a ^z Divine Life. ^z Godly or Pious.

44. But thy wit and subtlety, O thou Whore, has blinded all : If my Eyes had not been opened by God, how should I have known thee? I should indeed have still worshipped thee : The world shall seek thee, and at length find thee; and then Europe shall be a Crown, and Asia the ^a Man, and Africa the Country, and a simple Shepherd shall lead us to Pasture : If thou didst understand this, thou wouldst enter into thyself; but thou wilt be blind till thou art recompensed : As thou hast poured forth affliction, so thou shalt drink up misery and torment, for thou hast made it so very great as it is, and art a wild Tree, and shalt be broken off: There is no remedy, thy own wrath casteth thee to the ground; for thou art weighed in a Balance, and art found too light, saith the Spirit of the Great Wonders. ^a Or husband.

The Magia out of the Wonders.

45. A thing which grows out of a beginning, has beginning and end, and grows no higher than that thing has in its Number out of which it grows; but that which in the ^b One Number is incorruptible, for it is but one and no more, there is nothing in it ^b Or Unit Number. that can break it; for, not any thing that is one, is at enmity with itself; but when there are two things in one, there is plain contrariety and strife; for that which is one strives not against itself, but draws into itself, and out of itself, and remains one, and though it seeks more in itself, yet it finds no more, and that can never be at odds with itself; for it is one thing, whithersoever it goes, it goes in one will; for where there are two wills, there is division or separation; for one will often goes inward, and the other goes outward; and then, if that thing has a Body, then that Kingdom or Government in that Body is at odds: And so if one enters into the other with Enmity, there that is a contrary will which goes in against the other, and then therein dwells the Third Number; and the third Number is a Mixed Essence out of the first two, and is against them both, and will be its own, and yet has also two wills in itself from the first two, one whereof tends to the right hand, and the other to the left.

46. Thus the thing rises up from two into many, and every one has its own will, and if it be in one [only] Body, then it is at odds with itself, for it has many wills, and needs a Judge to part them, and keep the wills in awe; but if the wills be strong, and will not be kept under in awe by the Judge, but go out aloft, then of one ^c Government there becomes two, for that which is flown out judges or rules itself according to its own will, and hates the first, because that is not in its will, and so there is a strife, one desiring to ^d keep down the other, and so it elevates itself alone in one substance, and if it cannot ^d keep down the other, (though it makes never so much opposition,) then each of them increases ^d Quash.

in itself to its ^h highest ^e Number, and is always in strife against the other: And if it comes to pass, that it be grown to its highest Number, that it can go no further, then it enters into itself, and views itself to see why it can grow no further, and so it sees the End of the Number, and sets its will in the End of the Number, and desires to break the band or limit asunder, and in that will, (which it puts into the End of the Number, wherewith it will break it,) the Prophet is born, and he is its own Prophet, and ^f prophesies of the Errors in the Will, that they cannot go further, and of the breaking of them, for he is born in the highest Number of the Crown, at the End of the Limit, and speaks of the ^g Turba in its Kingdom, how it shall have an End, and what the cause is that it cannot go beyond its own Number, and then he prophesies of a New [Kingdom or Government,] which shall be again generated out of the Breaking; for he [the Prophet] is the Mouth of that Kingdom, [or Government,] and points at the contrary Will, how it is grown from one will, and how with its own desire, it is gone out of itself into many wills, and discovers the Pride of the Kingdom, [or Government,] and the Covetousness and Envy of it, and in that the Kingdom had but one Root out of which it was grown, therefore he shows the Evil Twigs or Branches which are grown out of the Root, which are the distraction and disturbance, or Turba of the Kingdom, which destroy the old Tree, and take away its virtue and sap, so that it must wither away.

47. And then he shows also the falsehood of the Twigs and Branches, which have taken away the virtue of the Tree, and thrown it to the Ground. They say they are a new Tree, and a good Kingdom, [or Government,] and vaunt it as if they were strange Guests, with great wit and seeming Devotions, and yet they are grown out of the old Tree, and are its Children, and so devour their own Father: And therefore saith the Prophet, they are no children, but Wolves, they are come to murder and devour, and to set up themselves instead of the Old Tree; which Pride of theirs thus also driveth on till the limit, and then it will again be devoured by their Children.

48. This is their own Prophet which is grown upon their Crown; for he declares the Evils of the Root out of which the first Tree was grown: He shows the Poison wherewith the root was poisoned, so that out of one will many wills are grown, out of which the strife and malice is sprung.

49. And so then, if the Turba in a thing be grown up with it, which of one maketh many, where the Multiplicity is at Enmity to itself, then the Turba also breaks the Multiplicity; for the first will to a thing, desires only that one thing which is its Body and delight: But the Multiplicity in a Thing makes Enmity: for the one will always rise up above the other; and yet the other will not endure it, and thence comes envy and falsehood, out of which grow Anger and Strife, so that one desires to break off, and throw down the other; and although the first will be Judge, yet the Turba is also sprung up in all the Twigs and Branches, which destroys Obedience, and so each will go its own way, and will not be judged or ruled, but takes upon itself, and contemns the Father, and all the [other] Children, which yet are its brothers and sisters, and saith itself alone is the Tree and the virtue of it, whereas it is but a broken self-willed proud Murderer, which opposes itself against the first will, viz. the Root.

50. And now when the Father sees his evil disobedient child, he seeks a Remedy, to heal that which is broken, and pours Oil into the wounds: but he finds that the Oil is poison to them, for they have turned away their will from the first will, as from the Root, out of which the Oil flows, and the Turba has generated another Oil in them: so that there is no Remedy to heal this ^h Kingdom: it must be devoured in and by itself as an evil ^h kingdom: and yet it grows in its highest Number, as to the Number Thousand, till the End: for the Crown has the Number Thousand, and then there is no Remedy more; for then it will be wholly one with itself again, and go into the first will again, and give itself into obedience, and become one thing again; and then it begins to Number again, yet it is good at first, so long as it remains in ⁱ paucity: but that which has a great deal of room is not easily quashed; but that which is squeezed into a narrow room, and shut up close, will always strive to get out above its limit, and easily surmises that its neighbour's dwelling does also belong to it, and will always break the Reins and Bounds. And although, thus out of one thing there grows another, yet being not agreeable to the first will, out of which it is grown Originally, therefore it is not its true son, but is a wild ^k Twig, which is opposite to ^l the Mother, and loves not the Mother: for it grows up in its malice, and therefore the Mother takes it not again into her first will, that it may subsist Eternally, but lets it run on to its Limit [or End.]

ⁱ Or a small or little thing.

^k Or Branch.

51. But when the Mother sees that all her children thus break off from her, forsake her, and become strange to her, she falls into sorrow and lamentation, she hopes for amendment, and yet it comes not, and then she herself seeks the Turba [or destruction:] for she turns her will again into herself, and seeks the Genetrix: and there she finds a new Child in the ^l Lily Twig and gives the Apostate children to the Turba, so that they themselves devour and murder one another; also she pours forth their own Turba and Poison upon them, that they may be divided and taken out of the way; that she may bring up her young son that may continue in her house, wherein she may have joy.

^l The Purity.

52. Thus it is spoken to thee, thou Great and Broad Tree [of the Generation of Adam,] who in the beginning wast a little Branch, thou wast created in one will only, all thy Twigs should have that will of thine, but the Devil grudged thee that, and strewed poison into thy will out of which the Turba grew: and so thou hast spoiled all thy Children and Twigs therewith, so that the Turba is grown up also into every little Twig: Thou didst enter into Pride, and wentest forth from the first will, which God gave thee, into the Great Wonders of the great Turba, [or Uproars, and Commutations, Contention and Destruction in the four Elementary Worlds,] wherewith all thy Children were enamoured, and left ^m thee.

53. Therefore saith the ⁿ Mother of the Genetrix, I am in Anguish, I had planted me a little Tree, and desired to eat of its good fruit; but it has borne much wild fruit, which I have no mind to Eat of; I will conceive, and bring forth a young son in my old age, which may continue in my house, and do my will, that I may have joy at last; since all my children leave me, I will take comfort in my young son, and he shall remain in my house while I live, and Satan shall not tempt him. I will put a child's Garment upon him, and he shall dwell with me in a total childish simplicity: behold! I will generate him out of the first Root, and will break the Turba: for ^o its number in the Crown is accomplished.

ⁿ The eternal Nature.

54. What seek you so much, you wild Branches? you say, you are above the Mother, [above the Spirit of God;] you have Art, Knowledge, and Learning; what delight hath the Mother in your Wit and Art? she desires no Art and Wit; for she is altogether simple, and counts but [the Number] one; if you would please the Mother, you must go from the Multiplicity into One again, not through Art and Wit, but you must go forth out of your proud Turba, out of self, into simple humility; you must leave the bravery and hypocrisy of your own wit that proceeds from the Turba, and become as children, else you are not acceptable to your first Mother, but the Turba taketh you up; and then consider where you shall remain, when God shall judge the secrets of Mankind, when all shall pass through the fire of his wrath, saith the Spirit of the Great Wonders.

^o The highest pitch of the Apostate children.

55. Mother Eve said, when she brought forth the first Child; Behold! I have the Man, the Lord; he shall Effect the breaking of the Serpent's head, and possess the Kingdom, but it was Cain the murtherer.

56. And thus also you now say, we have found the Lord: now we will possess the kingdom; for we have found the true Doctrine, we will teach thus and thus, and then we are God's Children; but hearken! You have indeed found the true Doctrine; but you are Cain, you look after the Kingdom, and not the power and virtue of Abel's sacrifice: you desire only to continue in fleshly pleasure, and retain only the shell of God's Word, which has no virtue or power: You retain the History, (and contend about it, and so destroy your Country and People,) but you deny the power of it: you say, we are near to the Kingdom of God, and are yet far from it, which your End will testify.

¶ Contentious
putations.

57. What does your knowledge avail? The Devil knows as much as you, but he does it not, no more do you: and therefore the Kingdom of God remains bidden from you both: your knowledge is the snare that catcheth you: if you were simple, you would not be so proud: what does the simple know concerning the false, subtle, cunning deceit, if he learns it not from the wit of the Turba? Do you say, that you have God's Will and teach it? Are you not Cain that murders Abel every day? Consider yourself well, you are he indeed: Abel lies at your Feet, and beseeches you, but you are that Evil Beast, that treadeth Abel under scot, you ride over the bended knee, and account the poor and simple, to be but dirt and dung, and yet devour his sweat and labour, and fill yourself with deceit without measure: How dare you then say, Here is the Church of Christ? O you are Babel, that city of whoredom and falshood.

58. Thou knowest the Will of God, and yet dost only thine own will, and sayest moreover, We are gone out from Babel: we have the True Teaching [or Doctrine] amongst us: indeed if you had the spirit of righteousness, and truth, and would content yourself with a little, then the Mother would always give you enough, you should want nothing: but your Pride and Haughtiness do not trust God, therefore you trust only in Covetousness, and are greedy to devour the fat of the Earth; you take it by force and not of right; the right you produce, claim, and plead, has only been invented by your covetous heart, you live only in deceit: you persuade and deceive yourself to your own loss: if you had wit and understanding, you would have respect to your End, and what will follow hereafter: but you blindfold yourself with Pride, and say, Behold! here are Golden Times; many have desired to see what we see, and to hear what we hear, and have not seen or heard it: Harken! indeed that shall be a witness against you, and will make your Judgment the heavier; you have not hitherto been the better for it, but the worse, therefore know that what is declared to you [by the Reformation,] is by your own Prophet, who has called you back again from your Pride into your Mother Humility: but you are become worse and worse; you have broken the sword of the Spirit, that you may do what you list: but he has left you, and given you up to the Turba, which shall devour you, as was done of old to Israel: there is no Council or Remedy to help: Your Covenants are all Nothing, while you rely upon the Arm of flesh, and so God also is departed from you, and leaves you to devour yourself.

59. Or wherefore do you take the Covenant of God into your mouth, seeing you hate to be reformed, and thirst after Covetousness? Do you suppose God to be a false hypocrite, and liar as you are? leave off your Clamouring, you are not acceptable to God, except you turn, and go out from your falshood.

60. It is with you now according to the Turba's driving, which takes its recreation, in accomplishing the Anger of God, and to devour what is grown in its Kingdom, and you are blind concerning it, and see it not: why are you so covetous? go but out from it, do you not see, how the^a Noble Tincture has raised up itself? it is near its blossoming, and then you will have Silver and Gold enough. ^a The Blossom of Life.

61. But what shall we say? you have committed whoredom till you have fallen asleep: you go down alive into the Abyfs, rather than you will forsake the whore; and therefore it shall be unto you, as your own Prophet Telphes, who has long called you by his Trumpet; you wait for [deliverance by] the fiery sword, which will also cut you in pieces.

62. Or do you suppose us to be mad, in that we speak thus? Indeed we are born out of you; we see and understand the Complaint of our Mother, which reproves her children; for she declares the wrath in the Turba, which is grown up into the fierce wrath of God.

63. We speak what is given to us, which we know in the Zeal of the Lord: what have we to do with ^r Babel? we speak to ourself, and to the fellow-members of our body, and those that dwell in the Courts of God, with those who at present mourn with us, whose Mourning shall be turned into joy. ^r Confusion, strife, and jangling.

The Fourteenth Chapter.

Of the Broad Way in this World, which leadeth us into the Abyfs; and of the Narrow Way [that leadeth] into the Kingdom of God.

1.  EAR Children of God, let us heartily and seriously consider, from whence we are, and whither we are to go, and what we do and purpose, that we may not lose the eternal and highest Good; wherefore do we so very much labour after temporary pleasure and voluptuousness, after Honour, Money, and Goods? are we not in this world strange Guests, and Pilgrims, which should continually expect when this life shall end? we are not created for the pleasure and lust of this life, but for Paradisical Joy, and to lead a simple child-like life; we should not know of any pomp, state, or haughtiness, but live together as children in a loving sport of Joy: we are gone out from our true, pure, paradisical Mother, wherein we should live in her as dear and loving children.

2. We are shut up in the Mother, [the Temporary Nature,] which generates the Evil Beast; and we have received bestial Properties; we do no otherwise than as Evil Beasts, we have given up ourselves to a strange Mother, which educates us and leads us captive in her bands: and we must at length leave the outward Man to the Earthly Mother, we cannot get away from her, for she has captivated us in flesh and blood; she breeds us, and brings us up in herself, and keeps us for her children: But yet we have a very precious Jewel hidden therein, with which we are God's children: with that let us endeavour after the highest Good, that we may attain it.

3. Dear Children, our strife about the highest Good consists not in the sword, in killing and slaying, that we should make wars and fight for the cause of God and his kingdom, and so persecute and murder one another: neither does it consist in much knowing, but merely in a simple, child-like obedience, that we should go out from the will of our flesh, which is Besid, wherein the Devil dwells, and enter into the will of God: it lies in no man's opinion or knowledge, ^c for the spirit of God gives knowledge to every one out of the Wonders, out of which he is born.

^d Or into.

^e Or Body.

^f Of the spirit of the outward world.

4. You see how we are put under subjection to the spirit of this world: for when a child is sown ^d in its mother's ^e womb, that Spirit is there ready, and forms it according to the wheel of the outward Nature, that gives condition, will, and disposition to it; that shows it the wonders of its secret Mystery, and opens to it the way of the will ^f thereof, that leads it into the entrance into its Mother, and out of its Mother through this world: that gives its body to the Earth, and its soul to Hell.

^g A Godly or Divine Life.

5. Therefore, since we know this, we ought to lift up the Spirit of our soul, and make war only against that evil Earthly Spirit, and oppose it with our soul and body, and not against our brethren and sisters; we cannot overcome the Devil with disputing and knowing much; neither can we maintain God's Word with wars and the sword, but with the simple obedient ^g life of God, that we be contented with that little which we have, and depart from the Evil lust after Pride, into an humble, child-like life, wherein every one should with all diligence perform his work, for the benefit and profit of his brethren and sisters, endeavouring thereby to serve God his Creator, and to pleasure his brother; not seeking his own honour, but with a desire to do so well, that his brother and sister may sincerely love him, and wish all happiness and welfare to him.

^h Or Body.

ⁱ Or naked.

6. If you will serve God, give offence to none, that your good and benefit be not hindered; Let not Satan have power over your heart to sift [or prevail with] you; Put away all evil thoughts, insigations, and influxes [of the mind:] for Satan insinuates himself in the influxes from the spirit of this world, and possesses your mind; be continually watchful, and strive against him; cast those false and evil influxes upon his head, and send him away with them; and consider that you walk upon a very narrow path between Heaven and Hell in very great danger; be at no time secure or careless, for you know not when the Spirit of this world will take away from you its own, for your limit was set in your Mother's ^h womb, which you cannot pass, neither do you know the day and hour, wherein the Spirit of this world will leave you, and then your poor soul will stand quite naked, hungry, and ⁱ empty, and then if it has not Christ's Body on it, it will be captivated by the Devil.

7. Dear Children, it is a very strait, narrow way that leadeth into God's kingdom; he that will walk therein in this life, must [submit and] prepare himself for affliction; for every thing is against him; the Devil is altogether against him; his own flesh and blood set themselves earnestly against him; for the Spirit of this world, in flesh and blood, seeks only the Matters and Dominion of this world: the Devil continually sets on his children and servants against him: he that [walks towards Heaven] must be trampled upon and despised: he is not in this world acknowledged to be a child of God.

^k Or Knowledge.

8. Dear Children, look well to yourselves in this world: at present men lead you on in hypocritical ways: they Boast much of Faith, and lead people on in an Historical Faith, which is but mere ^k Notion, they teach you the ^k Notion, and he that does not stick to that is accounted an Heretic: O how dead is the present Faith! It stays at the Knowledge or the Notion; they suppose that when People know how to speak much of God, of Christ's merits, sufferings and death for mankind, and comfort themselves therewith, that it is the way to eternal life.

9. O no, all that avails nothing, that thou knowest and ticklest thyself with it: True Faith in Christ is quite another thing; it lies not barely in the History, and in the Letter: [the bare] Letter is not the Word, it is but a leader and director to the Word: the word is Living, and hath the Spirit; ^l the right Faith is the right will, which enters into the Living Word.

10. If you comfort yourself never so long with the sufferings of Christ, and yet your will and purpose remain in deceit and wickedness, then the spirit which proceeds out of your will, is a thief and a murderer; you teach one thing, and do another: God desires no flattering Hypocrisy, but an Earnest [sincere purpose and] will, which enter into him by obedience, and this is right ^c Believing in the Holy Ghost; and therein is the Word and Death of Christ fruitful indeed.

11. Christ saith, You must turn and be as little children, who are not yet conscious of any falshood, deceit, or wickedness, and in Christ, through Christ's death, be born of his flesh and blood, if you will see the Kingdom of Heaven; for he that eateth not the flesh of the Son of Man, and drinketh not his blood, has no part in him.

12. Dear Brethren, it consists not in the ^a Host only which you deliver to the people, and in the Cup or ^c Chalice: No, but when the soul converteth, and brings the body under subjection, and gives itself up wholly in obedience unto God, and into his will, and desires to go in at Christ's Entrance to the Father; then it goes out from the Life of this world, and goes with Christ into the Father, who gives it Christ's flesh and blood; for it eateth of the Word of the Lord at God's Table, and gets Christ's flesh for its body, and Christ's blood for its refreshment and habitation; for the soul dwells in the Heart, and burns out of the Heart-blood as a kindled light; and has its principal Dominion in the Head, in the Brains, and there it has ^f five open Gates, in which it governs with the spirit of its life.

^d Host which the Priest delivers for Holy Bread.
^e The Chalice, or Cup, wherein they carry the Host.

^f The five Senses.

13. And therefore if the Tincture in the Soul in the Heart-blood be entered into Christ's will, then that Will governs the spirit of the soul in the Head; and though it has many obstacles and hindrances from the Earthly bestial Spirit, as also from the Devil, who infests the Earthly spirit, (so often as the soul is secure or careless,) and brings it into fleshly lust; yet nevertheless, when the soul does but reject the Earthly bestial thoughts and influences, or instigations, then it remains in Christ still; for the body of Christ, which the soul hath, is too hard a bit for the Devil to overcome; and yet a harder bit it is for the soul to turn away from the spirit of this world, and enter into the Obedience of God.

14. Dear Brethren, it is not a handful of Historical Faith that will do it, for men to set the Merits of Christ aloft: It must be sincere and earnest: You must earnestly enter through Death, and Hell of the Devils into the Merits of Christ: You must overcome the spirit of this world: Your will must press itself with all its reason and thoughts into the will of God, and then you will see how little the Historical knowledge can do.

15. If you will not drive the Devil out of your Heart, then he will not let you enter into God's will: If you will keep the iniquity of falshood in your heart, and so fight with the merits and satisfaction of Christ against him, then you will be bindered; for the Devil opposes it strongly: He strives against the soul as long as he can: He lets not the soul go before it heaps all Earthliness upon his neck, and departs from it; when the soul does so, then it departs out of his Country, and then he is overcome: But O how does he continually lay that [as a Net] before it, and goes always about like a Fowler; and if he can possibly, he will cast the Earthly Garment on to it again.

16. O how hard a Combat must the poor soul hold out against the Devil; but therein the sufferings, merit, satisfaction, and death of Christ, are available, when the Devil has insnared the poor soul again, and will not let it go, but goes down with it into the Abyss into despair: There the soul must take with it the sufferings and death of Christ, and walk with the Devil through Hell into the Death of Christ, and out of Christ's death spring up with Christ into God again; and then it is the Lily which the Devil does not like to smel upon.

17. But for you to depend wholly on the History, and so to apply the merit, suffering, and death of Christ, and will still keep the Devil lodging in your soul, that is a procurable to Christ: What does it avail you to pray, that God would forgive you for Christ's sake, when you forgive not all others? Your heart sticketh full of revenge and robbery.

18. You go to Church, into the Congregation of Christ, and you bring a false hypocrite, liar, a covetous, angry, adulterous, proud person and soul in with you, and the same you bring out with you again, what benefit have you thereby? You go into the Congregation to the Supper of Christ, and desire Christ's flesh and blood, and yet keep the black Devil in you for a Guest: What mean you? You receive nothing but the severe Anger of God: How will you feed upon Christ's flesh and blood, if your soul be not inclined with all earnestness and sincerity into God? Do you suppose that Christ's body and blood dwell so in the Earthly Element, that you can chew it with your Teeth? No, friend, it is a more pure and subtle thing; the soul must apprehend it, the mouth of the soul must receive it: But how shall it receive Christ, if the Devil be still lodging in the soul? The soul must be in the will of God, if it will feed upon God: Indeed it can continually eat of Christ's flesh, if it lives in the flesh of Christ, for every Spirit ^e eats of its own body.

19. This Testament is ordained to that End, that in the Congregation we should there eat the Flesh of Christ, and drink his Blood; that we should thereby commemorate his Death, and teach the same to our children, and tell them what Christ has done for us, that we might be preserved in one mind and will, and that we should be one body in Christ, and walk together in one Love; and therefore we should eat of one and the same Bread, and drink of one and the same Cup, and acknowledge that Christ has begotten us again to one Body in himself, and that he has, through his death, brought us again through Hell and the fire of God's wrath, into his Father in himself, that we might wholly put our wills into his will, and love one another, and make one another rejoice in him, and sing, speak of, and declare his marvellous Deeds and Benefits, and thereby renounce the old Devil who has held us captive, and tread him under foot in our Mind.

20. This is the right Catholic way of true Faith: He that teaches and lives otherwise, is not appointed for a Shepherd by Christ, but is a Shepherd sprung up of himself from his own Art and Reason, which, in the Kingdom of Christ, according to the Outward Man, should be continually dead, that Christ in us may live: None is a true Shepherd over Christ's sheep, unless he has the Spirit of Christ; if he has not that, then he has not the true ^b Apostolical power and authority of Excommunication: He must in Christ's Spirit have the Key to Heaven and to Hell, else he is but a wizard and Image without Life: How can such a one who is captivated by the Devil, judge in the Congregation of Christ? Can the Word and Commandment of such a one be the Word of God, whereas he speaks but from a false Spirit?

^b The true Jus Divinum.

21. O you false Bishops [come] from the Universities, how has the Devil of Pride blinded you, that you set Shepherds over the Lambs of Christ, according to your own favour and respect! St. Paul teaches you, do but read it, what an heavy Account you are to give: Nothing avails with you but Art; and in the Kingdom of Christ Art is but drois and dung: God leadeth a pure heart by his own Spirit; if one inclines towards him, and submits unto his will, to such a one he teaches heavenly Art.

22. The Congregation of Christ should be in one will, and the Shepherds thereof should have the spirit and ^c will of the Congregation: It is not so slight a matter to put on the Garment of Christ, as many suppose, who seek only covetousness and honour therein, and they find nothing but the Anger of God therein.

^c Or Consent.

23. Or, what shall we say? The Priest-Devil has blindfolded the Kingdom of Christ, so that the Congregation of Christ is stark blind, where Men suppose they are Gods, and that they teach from the Hebly Ghost, whereas their own honour and covetousness are merely sought after in deceit and falshood : Men see how great mischief they have caused in the world : How many Countries have they caused to be laid waste, and murdered many hundred thousand persons with their false Opinions, and have only served the Devil in the Garment of Christ ? If the Congregation did but discern it, they would presently consider it ; but all this comes to pass, in that they afford not honour to the Spirit of Christ : Men will choose Shepherds themselves, whereas the Devil is in all mere human Elections, when it concerns the honour and doctrine of God.

24. The ^k Bishops that are grown up of themselves, and chosen for favour without ^k Or Pastors. the Spirit of God, are as profitable to the world as a fifth wheel to a waggon : Indeed they do but little, except it be to make the Congregation go astray, slander, jangle, and dispute, as their scandalous Pamphlets testify, in many of which there is as much of the fear of God, and love to their Neighbour, as the Devil in Hell has : Bloody provocations are the Devil's Drums and Trumpets, by which he reproaches the simple Congregation of Christ.

25. O dear Children, open your eyes wide, go out from the Priest's Contentions, and enter into Combat against the Devil, against your voluptuous flesh and blood : A Christian is not a wrathful Soldier or Warrior, who desires the Kingdom of this world : For Christ saith, My kingdom is not of this world, else my servants would contend for it. St. Paul saith, Seek that which is above, where Christ is ; we are called by Christ out of this world, that so we might serve God with the soul, and be in Christ, but with the body in this world, that we may have maintenance and sustenance for it : Therefore the Earthly life ought to labour and maintain its body, but the soul should be Lord and Governor, and rule the Body ; it should not suffer the Starry-Spirit to practise any falshood, and fill itself with lies and deceit, for such things are so brought into the soul.

26. The poor soul is here in this life in very great danger, where the Jaws of Hell continually reach to its lips, for it is infected with the Spirit of the Stars and Elements, which fight against it day and night : Consider thyself now, thou dear Mind, and think in what vessel thy soul, viz. thy best Treasure, lies, and thou wilt surely awake out of the sleep of the bestial Life, and consider what will follow hereafter, when the Spirit of the Stars and Elements will leave thee, where then, thy best Jewel, (which thou thyself art,) will remain, in what condition thou wilt be for ever without end ; for we know that the soul dwells in the Heart : Its own substance is the Center of the seven Spirits of Nature : The six Spirits are the Government of the Life, and the seventh is the Tincture of the Substantiality, for its Substantiality is blood and flesh which makes the Tincture, though the Tincture is not blood and flesh, but a virgin without Generating ; yet the six Spirits in the Tincture continually generate one another, as is mentioned before concerning the Center of Nature ; but the brightness of the Noble Pearl of the soul, is especially known in the Tincture, for therein it attains God's power and Spirit ; and there gets its right Name, [Seel,] SOUL ; for, as God is above Nature, which cannot comprehend him, so the virgin in the Tincture is a spirit above the spirits of Nature, which belong to the Center : and yet the virgin, without the spirits of Nature, would not be ; even as the Number Three of God, without the Eternal Nature, would not be known, so also the soul.

27. The six Spirits of Nature contain the Eternal Center, in which the Darkness and Anger of God is comprehended, for the Original of Mobility consists therein ; for the fire exists therein, though indeed it stands but in four forms, and in the fifth form springs up the true Life, and in the sixth the understanding ; and then first, there is in the seventh another Spirit, which is not the Center in the Anguish-source, [or property ;] for in the seventh form there is another source [or property :] Indeed the first six forms rule therein, and are the life of the source, and a cause of the life; but they make together one Spirit, which lives in the Blood, Water, and Air.

28. And though it be so, that we are, through the heavy fall of Adam, brought into the outward Dominion, so that the soul swims in the palpable [or visible water,] yet the Eternal Water, viz. the Mother of the Water, is hidden in the outward, in which the soul is an Angel: We give you to understand, that the Soul is a Spirit, as God the Holy Ghost is, who goes forth from the Father and the Son, and is the Mobility of the Deity, for the Father standeth still, and has moved himself but once, viz. in the Creation; but the Spirit has the Word of the Father, and performs all things through the Word.

* Viz. the soul.

29. And thus, also, the soul is a spirit generated out of the Eternal Center of Nature, out of its own spirits of its own Nature, not strange ones, * which hath the word, which comprizes itself in the six forms of Nature upon the wheel of the Cross, and performs all things through the Word; for it is the Spirit and Life of the Word, and moves upon the Wings of the Wind as a flash or blaze, it forms the Word, and produces it, and the Six Spirits are its Counsellors, though there are but five, for the sixth is the form of the Word itself, but the five contain the five senses.

* Or Tempts.

30. Where we woefully find, and have great cause to lament it, how our father Adam has here introduced the evil, poisonous, Earthly Dominion, so that the poor soul is thus wholly captivated by the Spirit of this world, which flows forth, and works powerfully in the soul, so that often and hourly there breaks forth out of the Word of the soul, the Evil of the Abyss, in which the Devil mingles himself, and possesses our hearts outwardly, and then also most inwardly, viz. in the first four forms of Nature, and turns us away from the Will of God, into all abominations and wickedness which are in him: And as he now observes how Man is qualified, viz. what spirit is predominant according to the Dominion of his Body, [whether it be pride, covetousness, envy, wrath, unchastity, wantonness, voluptuousness, and such like,] accordingly he * assaults him continually, and effects such great wickedness with the Soul, as no Tongue can express; for in the outward Dominion there are also seven Forms, viz. the seven Planets, which rule the outward Man, and reach into the bottom of the soul, if without ceasing it does not resist, and reject the Evil malignant ¹ influences: In the same the Devil has a powerful access to the soul, but yet he has not that Dominion, nor any complete power therein, unless the Turba Magna in the Anger of God be kindled, [as in Judgments, Pestilence, Thunder, and the like Plagues and Punishments,] and there he is the Executioner; but he has the inward Dominion of the four Forms to the Fire-life, these he can possess, as often as the soul plunges itself thereinto: If he gets it there, O how fast he holds it, and will quite down with it, for that is his Kingdom, [viz. the Abyss of the four Forms.]

31. And observe it, according to its precious depth: The Four Forms contain in them the Original of Nature; where first, (in the desiring, willing,) the Darknes with the attracting enters into a desire; and so the desiring becomes strong, ⁿ harsh, hard, and cold; and the desiring makes an attraction and stirring in the strong harshness, which are two Forms, and the third Form is the great Anguish, in that the Desiring would be free, which stirs the anxious wheel of Nature, and in the End [stirs up] the flash of fire, which is the fourth Form, as is at large mentioned before.

32. And so that harsh attraction makes in the desiring of the will, in the outward Nature of this world, a great Covetousness, so that the Mind would attract all to itself, and possess it alone; and though it cannot devour it, yet will possess it, and would not willingly afford any thing to any other; and this is one Root of the Abyss of Hell, wherein the Devil vehemently assaults the soul, that it might not go out, and come to the Light of God.

33. The second Root is the bitterness of Nature, which in the harshness is an enmitious sting, and will not endure to be subdued: The more it is resisted, the greater is its sting: This is the second form, which makes in the outward Nature, an enmitious, stinging, envious bitter Mind, whereinto also the Devil winds himself, and kindles the Word of the soul, with a despiteful, stinging, enviousⁿ subject, so that the will continually burns in envy, and never speaks any Good, but mere vanity and wantonness, which is serviceable to the Devil; whence proceed liars, slanderers, backbiters, false hearts: God have mercy upon us in our great misery, into which we are plunged!

ⁿ Matter, or substance.

34. The third Root is the Anxious Wheel of the Mind, whence the^o Senses arise and are generated, which contains in it especially the miserable house of^p sadness, and yet is the House of the springing up of Life; this is chiefly the dwelling place of the Devil, within which he seats himself: It is his seat, and he continually raises up that house of sadness, so that the soul grows timorous and doubts of the Grace of God, and of the Light of Eternal Life: He continually casteth in the two first forms, viz. covetousness and envy, and with that poison winds the wheel of the Mind about, and makes a hurlyburly in the Essences of the thoughts: He continually mixes Covetousness and Envy together, that he may retain his seat; and so when the poor soul would go out aloft and be gone, then he bars it up into the Chamber of Anguish, and straitens it, that it might and should despair; for the Chamber of Anguish is always in Darkness, and there he casts it down, that it may not get aloft on the wheel, lest it should^q discover the fire, and so he would be known.

^o Or Thoughts.
^p Or Mourning and Lamentation.

^q Or cause the fire to appear.

35. The fourth Root is the fire-flash; and when the Devil cannot detain the soul still in the house of sadness, but that it reaches after the flash of the Light of the Liberty of God, then he slips into the flash, and brings the thoughts in the word of the soul out aloft above the Cross in high-mindedness, [as Men that through Learning strive after the Light of God, and having attained it, little think how the Devil slips into it, and brings them into high-mindedness, to be proud of themselves, esteeming themselves as Clergymen to be better than the Laity,] so that the soul thus flies out aloft, and elevates itself above the Meekness, as the Devil himself did.

36. For (as we have mentioned before) Nature gets, in the kindling of the Fire, two Kingdoms, [or two Principles, as may be seen in a Candle, out of which (in the kindling) arises the Consuming fire, and the pleasant refreshing Light,] viz. one in the fierceness of the fire, which flies out aloft above the Center, with the four wrathful severe forms; and the other in the Light of the Meekness, which remains standing immoveably, and has also all the power of the Center, in which power the Spirit of the Deity and of the Majesty is known; wherein standeth the [Rain] bow with the Cross of the Number Three; for the Majesty is here the Brightness of the Deity; and here the Eternal Liberty^r without [or beyond] Nature, (which has but one only will) gets the strength, power, majesty, and glory; for the Eternity is thus^s revealed, which otherwise would be as it were a still nothing, in the Creature's esteem and account.

37. Above this still soft humility, the Devil leads the soul of Man in its will out aloft in the fire-flash; for herein, according to the spirit of this world, consists the Dominion of the Sun, which gives might and strength to the Outward Man, and also the light and power of the outward senses, so that Reason comes to see; and the outward spirit gets great outward skill and wisdom, according to the Dominion of this world.

38. Also herein all subtilties of the Essences and Senses disclose themselves, which the Devil very well observes: If any in the upper Dominion, according to the spirit of this world, be a child of the Sun, then he, in the Center of Nature without ceasing, slips into the fire-flash of the soul, where the fire and heat exist, and always brings in with him the other three poisonous forms in the Original: He brings the soul out aloft over the

Cross above the Meekness of the Majesty, in the wrathful fire flash, so that it grows proud, lascivious, and fierce; he makes it to contemn meekness and humility, and so it flies forth in its own wit, in the fierceness of the flash, above God and the Kingdom of Heaven, [and scorns all that belongs to God and to Eternal Life.]

39. And all this, (dear Brethren in Babel,) proceeds from hence; that you are void of the Divine wit and understanding, so that you fly above the wheel of Nature in your own wit, you should stay in the Cross in humility, and your soul should be inverted and inclined into the meek Majesty of God; but now you fly upon the wheel of the fire in your pride, aloft over the Deity; and this the Devil does to you in subtle craftiness, that he may thus lead you, that thereby the Kingdom of God might not be known; you seek the Kingdom of God in Art; but Art has the six Forms of the wheel of Nature; the Deity has another Center in the Cross; for the Divine Spirit separates itself from the fire, and yet is not quite asunder from it; but it makes another Principle, which consists in Meekness, in mere Love and Joy, the forms of Nature are therein a mere Power of Love; for it is an ^u accomplishment of the Eternal Will, out of which Nature exists, and the wrathful kingdom is an accomplishment of the Eternal hunger and thirst, which cannot be otherwise in Eternity, for the ^x Essence of all Essences is thus.

* Or fulfilling.

^z Being of Things, Substance of Substances.

40. For it is sufficiently known to us (seeing God is merely Good, that he created nothing Evil; for that which was not from Eternity, was not in the Creation.

41. God created no Hell, nor any Devils, but Angels: Only Lucifer has turned himself away from the Meekness, and is flown out above the Cross of the Number Three, and has himself awakened the fire of Anger in the flash, which had from Eternity remained hidden in secret, which is now his Hell and Habitation, he can now be no otherwise than Covetous, Envious, Anxious and Wrathful; there is no other ^v property or source in him; for his own Mother, out of which he was brought forth and created, boldeth him now, so that he is a Devil with all his Legions.

^y Quality, or living faculty.

42. Therefore, dear Children, since we know that we are thus environed with Hell and the Devils, in the Anger of God, it is very necessary for us to fly into Humility; and therefore Christ teaches us so very earnestly to study Meekness, Love, and Mercy, that we should Love one another, and should not so eagerly endeavour after the Spirit of this world; for the Devil slips into it, and seduces us; We should watchfully take heed of Pride, for the Devil flies into it; and of Anger, for that is the Devil's sword, wherewith he commits all Murders.

43. O how lamentable a thing it is, that the poor soul is thus blinded, that it knows not the heavy shackles and bands wherein it lies captive! The fire of Hell rises up to its very lips, the whole world is full of snares which the Devil has laid to catch the poor soul: If the Eyes of the outward Man should be opened, he would be terribly affrighted: All whatsoever Man does but touch or look upon, there is a Net and Snare of the Devil in it; and if the Verbum Domini, the Word of the Lord, which is ^z become Man, was not in the Middle, so that the hidden Eternal substantiality of the Word is a Body, there would none be saved; the Devil would catch and devour all souls.

44. I therefore, dear Children, Christ has well told us, That the Kingdom of God in us, is small as a Grain of Mustard-seed; but he that endeavours seriously, and strives after it, to him it grows great as a Tree, and the Devil must needs let it alone; and though he often breaks off a Twig, yet the stock stands still.

45. Christ warned the Rich young Man to beware of Covetousness, and told him, that a Camel would easier go through the Eye of a Needle, than a rich Man enter into the Kingdom of heaven; and the Cause of all this is, that the soul enters into lust, and into the Dominion of this world: for if the soul wholly gives up itself into the lust, pleasure, and Dominion of this world, then the Devil does not ^{*} sift it so strongly, but ear-ries it in his ^a Triumphant Chariot, from one abomination and wickedness to another : ^a Or Bride-Chariot. His Chariot is Venus, viz, the Love of the flesh, wherein the soul continually endeavours after Temporary Power, Authority, and Honour, after Riches, Beauty, and the Desires of the Flesh, after Bestial inordinate Copulation ; though indeed the soul does not so eagerly desire it, unless it be totally infected : but it is only from hence, that the soul in Adam has lusted after it, and is captivated therewith ; and the Devil continually makes it stirring, he continually tickles the soul therewith, that it might confidently and freely eat of the forbidden fruit.

46. We find that the Human Life is Threefold, with Three Spirits together in one, as if it were but one Spirit, and it is indeed but one Life ; but it has Three Dominions, each of which has its own mother, which affords or generates it ; the Center of Nature, with its forms [or properties] is the Eternal life ; for it is the fire-life ; and the spirit which is generated and goes forth out of the Center of Nature, which dwells in the Tincture, is the eternal ^b life of the soul ; and the Air-spirit, with the qualities ^b Soul Life. or properties of the Dominion of the Stars, is the beginning, ending, and Transitory Life, which is the Bestial Life, [the Animal Life which we have in common with Beasts.]

47. Now the soul is generated only out of the first two, and the Third is breathed into it ; not that it should enter into it, and give up itself thereto, as Adam has done, but that the soul should mightily rule over it, and therein open the great Wonders of God, which from Eternity were beheld in the Wisdom of God ; for the Third Dominion is generated and created out of the first ; and the second Dominion should continue in its own place (in the Noble Tincture) in Paradise, and should open the great Wonders in the Third : And therefore Man was made Lord over all things ; he had the Tincture [or life] of the Earth in his own hand [or power,] and Gold and Silver were as easy for him to find, as any other visible thing : The Tincture of the Earth was his Ornament and Sport, altogether child-like, without Covetousness ; he needed no other cloathing ; and as the Gold was pure without dross, so was his child-like Mind also.

48. But the Devil awakened unto him the Sulphur [or Gross Matter] therein, and has set the Bestial spirit in the superior dominion in him ; that which Man should have ruled over, rules over him, and that is his Fall.

49. Thus now the Devil has gotten power, inasmuch as the Outward Dominion is generated out of the Inward, [viz. the Center of Nature,] and that he dwells in the most innermost, and so he slides out of the innermost into the outermost, and kindles the outermost in the Mind ; from whence arise false lusts and inclinations, and evil Concupiscence, so that two Dominions [viz. the inward and the outward] strive against the soul ; and so the poor soul is in the midst between the Dominion of this world, and the Dominion of the Hellish source [or quality,] and there it stands before the Gate of heaven in a very great Deep in great Danger ; its Root is the Anger of God and Hell-Fire ; and its superior or predominant spirit is the Dominion of this world ; and there it stands in the Tincture of the Fire, in the midst ; and whithersoever it inclines, there it enters ; if it goes into the lust and pleasure of this world, then it stands therein, and is captivated by the Devil ; but if it enters into itself inwards into God, then the Devil will buffet it, for then it is in his country.

50. But when it gets the flesh of Christ for a new Body, then it is not in his country : that is a Tree before him, which is poison and death to him ; at which he is vexed, and loath to touch it : But he stirs up his Servants and Ministers against the outward Body, that must bear ^c reproach and scorn, that thereby he may cover and hide this Tree, that it may not be known ; else it might bring forth more branchs, whereupon at last, Hell ^c Shame and Disgrace. would be too narrow for him ; therefore he will prevent it as long as he can.

Snares.

51. And so now when the poor soul breaks away from him, and with its dear Bridegroom Christ turns to the Love of God, so that through earnest Repentance and turning into God, it enters into the Will of God; yet then the Devil has seven^d cords still, with each of which he holds it fast, before he will let it go; and then it must get itself through all the seven, and leave his cords wholly to himself. [These seven Bands are the seven spirits of Nature hereafter mentioned.]

52. And Eighthly, it must go through the Fire, and there is the earnest severe Proba, or hard trial; and when it is come through, it gets the heavenly Tincture in the Ninth Number: and in the Tenth Number, upon the Cross, it gets the Body of Christ, and so is an Angel in Heaven, and a Stranger and Pilgrim upon Earth in this Tabernacle.

53. The seven snares wherewith it is entangled, are the seven spirits of the outward nature of the Dominion of this world: these it must wind through, and press quite through them, and cast them all behind it; and in the Eighth Number standeth Moses with his Law; and there is first read to the soul, what a * fine Fowl it was; and there comes the Devil with^e his Register or Catalogue, and reads what it is, and shows his right to it: and there it is directed to bow down and lay hold on the Wounds and Passion of Christ: and here it is necessary that the poor soul take hold on the Merits and Death of Christ, and wrap itself fast therein, for out of these swaddling Bands the Devil cannot pull the soul, nay he dares not touch them: and here the Devil must leave the soul, for Christ standeth in the fire of the Father's Anger, and is the accomplishment of obedience; and there the soul is brought into the Ninth Form, into the Tincture of the Eternal Life: and there it is surrounded with the Majesty of God; and the fair blessed Virgin (the Wisdom of God) meets it with her Garland of pearls, and crowns the soul as a heavenly Conqueror.

54. What Joy is here to the Angels of God, and what Joy the soul attains there, we have no pen to describe it, nor in this world any tongue to express it; only we wish to the Reader, and all men, that they might themselves have experience of it, for which cause we set about this Writing with much toil and deep labour.

55. For we write what we ourselves have known, and have seen with spiritual eyes; we speak it not to our own boasting, but that the Reader may know, that if he will follow us, what he is to expect from it; seeing he perceives how the World makes a Gazing stock of the children of God: But we shall after this short Life have full recompence: and moreover this Garland is more delicious than this whole world: and though it be often covered and hidden from us, yet it dies not.

56. For as the rough winter hides the budding and flourishing of the Earth, so that reason says all is Dead; but when the spring comes, then it begins to bud and blossom again; so also it is with the noble and fair Garland of Christ; when that springs again, then it produces Lilies without Number; and every Spring, when the Mind is renewed in Christ, it multiplies Tensfold.

Of the Company and Assistance of the Holy Angels.

57. As we that are Men in this world, if we be the children of God, assist and help one another in necessity and distress, and readily deliver one another from misery and trouble; thus also it is in heaven, concerning the children of God, while the soul belongs to the fellowship of Angels; they affect the company of honest, virtuous, and chaste Men, that fear God, and stand by them in necessity: for the Scripture saith, They are all Ministering spirits, sent forth for the service of those that are to inherit the Kingdom of God; they often avert the fiery darts of wickedness: what mischief would the Devil often do, if he were not opposed and hindered by the Throne-Princes of the Legions? how often would he terrify and cast men down headlong to the ground?

58. But the Angels are our servants and keepers, if we be Christians, and not Beasts; though indeed the Devil sets upon Christians most of all; how often would many be drowned and killed by a fall, who yet receive wonderful deliverance from Angels: they are ready about people, who sing and speak of God; they have great delight among little Infants, so that they many times manifest themselves to an Infant, and play with it, if it be the child of God.

59. How many Examples are there in the Scripture, of the Angels leading and conducting the Children of God; especially the Example of Tobiah: though our School-Rabbies will rather have it cast out of the Bible [than believe it:] but consider of the Three Angels with Abraham, and the two Angels with Lot: also how they have plainly foretold and declared the Conception of highly worthy men, [as of Isaac, Jacob, Samuel, Samson, &c.] especially of John [the Baptist,] and of CHRIST: consider what was done at his Birth [to the Shepherds in the field,] and to the ^f Wisemen of the East: and at length to Joseph [how he was directed] to go with Mary and the Babe into Egypt: whereby we may sufficiently perceive their great carefulness about us; for they are God's Ministers; he sends them to conduct us, [through this valley of misery, through this world of Thistles and Thorns,] and to defend us from the Devil: O how great joy they have for one poor soul, when it is delivered from the snares of the Devil, yea more than for Ninety-Nine righteous, as Christ saith.

^f Or Magi.

60. Therefore we should not so suddenly ^e despair in adversity, when we are in ^h necessity, when we often suppose, that the whole world is against us, yet the Choir or Host of Angels, and the Spirit of God, are with us; it is often with us, as with the Canaanitish Woman, so that we cannot find the Countenance of God; but we must wait for the proof, and trial must pass over the soul; the more Gold is Purified, the finer it is; so also the soul, the more it is brought into Trial, if it holds out, the fairer and brighter it is: and God's aim is to have fair and lovely children, and such as are of understanding, and learn to discover [the deceits of] the old Devil.

61. But you must know, that the Angels are very pure, chaste, modest Spirits, also humble and friendly, and are like to Infants, who know of no deceit or iniquity, but what is ⁱ innate in them.

62. Now whosoever will enjoy the company and assistance of Angels, must not be a Lustful Bull or Heifer, or a lascivious wanton Venus, or have a false wicked mind, which day and night studies nothing but cunning tricks and deceit, how to get money and wealth: neither must always dabble and swim in the world's back-biting, scoffing jests and conceits, and tickle and feed the soul with them, in which the world uses to provoke one another, and to ^k take exceptions one at another: No, No Angel will stay with such Men, but the black Devil, who possesses the Hearts of these Men, so that they take pleasure in wickedness.

ⁱ Or generated.

^k Or find fault and stir up malice.

63. Whosoever will have the Assistance of Angels, need not call upon them, or pray to them; for they accept not of that honour, they give all honour to God; but [he] ought only to turn away from uncleanness of heart, and enter through true Repentance into God's will, and continually put away evil thoughts and ^l influences; he must continually incline his Will to God [and Goodness,] and pray to God for the guidance of his holy Spirit.

64. And though the Devil holds fast, and will not let go, and lays open his uncleanness before him; there is no better course to be taken, than to leave all his uncleanness and filthiness upon the Devil's neck, and wind himself out from it, in spite of all [Carnal] reason, and cast himself in humility into God's will, and commit himself to it, and leave all doubting to the Devil, (for that is his lodging,) and he must consider that is a great Sin to continue in doubting; he should consider, that doubting is the Devil's Band wherewith he holds the soul fast: When any Man's uncleanness meets him and represents itself before him, so that the soul can receive no strength, that is not God's hardening [of the heart,] but the Devil wraps himself about the soul, and will not let the soul come to the light, that it may receive strength and virtue; and there the words and promises of Christ, with his blood-shedding, suffering and death, are a sovereign Medicine; when the soul wraps itself up in them, and leaves all its uncleanness upon the Devil's neck, that is poison to the Devil, which makes him faint and feeble; and so the soul then presses forth into the Light of God, and receives strength and virtue; and there it most earnestly enters into humility, and then it treads upon the Devil's Head, and destroys his Hell; and then the Angels associate with that Man, and have great Joy that the Devil is overcome, who intended to be God and Creator in the soul.

65. But a soul in Christ must be a continual ^m Warrior, and although the Devil cannot get possession of the soul, yet he still holds it before the unclean forbidden Tree, that it should taste of unchastity, iniquity, lies and deceit, of Anger and Envy: and if he can bring it to pass, that the soul lets in the evil lust and desire into itself, O how does he hide and cover it! how does he strew sugar upon it! and if he should once draw it into Venus's Heaven, he will spare no pains to get his ⁿ fortress again. For the Devil is never better at ease, than in Man, for there he can be Lord of this world, and perform his work, and accomplish his will; which he cannot ^o do in the spirit of this world, without Man; for his Kingdom is not in the outward Dominion of this world, but in the inward, in the Root in the Abyss.

66. He can do nothing in this world, in the External [part,] unless the Turba Magna in the wrath of God be kindled, and there he is busy, especially when the Elements are kindled [or inflamed] with Tempestuous storms [of thunder and lightning;] and then if the Anger of God burns therein, there he is a busy Executioner; if he could ruin the whole world, he would do it; but he has no further room, than the fierce wrath in the Turba affords him; The ^p Turba is his Master, he is but a Juggler and Destroyer, so far as the Anger in the Turba is kindled.

geance, and Destruction.

67. Know also, that the Devil often strives and fights with the Angels; and when the soul is careless and secure, he sets upon it strongly: but he is held off, that he cannot do what he will; but so soon as the soul imagines, and is captivated by the Lust, [like Adam and Eve,] then the Devil overcomes; but then again so soon as the soul casts away that evil Lust, [and enters into Repentance,] then he is driven away by the Angels.

68. And there is a continual strife about the soul of Man; God desires to have it; the Devil also would have it; and the Cause of this is, that the two Kingdoms part in the Cross: the one is the Love of God, the Kingdom in Ternario Sancto, viz. the Angelical one: and the other is the fierce wrath out of the Center of Nature, which is the Anger and ^r Severity of God.

ness.

69. And therefore it is, that God manifests his will to us, and sets before Man Light and Darkness; he may endeavour after which he will: And that we might know, that God would have the soul into his holy Kingdom, he affords us Teaching and Instruction, and shows us the way to Life, [or Light;] he stirs up by his Spirit highly worthy Teachers, who are the Light of the world, that Men might beware of his Anger and fierce Wrath, and not ^r awaken it in themselves.

^r Or stir it up.

70. For the Anger must indeed be in every Life, [as the Gall in living Creatures;] but where the love and meekness prevail over it, it is not manifested in Eternity, but is only a Cause of the Life; for in the Love, the Anger makes great exulting Joy and Paradise. The Anger [or Mar's] in the Kingdom of God is the Great Wonderful Joy, where nothing of the Anger is perceived. As Weeping and Laughing come from one place, and the Weeping is turned into Joy; after such a manner is it with the Love and Anger of God.

71. Therefore it is, that Christ so earnestly teaches us Love, Humility, and Mercifulness; and the cause why God is become Man, is for our Salvation and happiness sake, that we should not turn back from his Love: God has spent his Heart, that we might be his children, and remain so Eternally; when there was no Remedy neither in Heaven, nor in this world, then he moved himself for Man's sake, that he might be delivered from the Devil, and from his Anger, [into which he was fallen in Adam.]

72. Therefore, dearly beloved Children, do not so reject and cast from you the Love and Grace of God; else you will lament it in Eternity; for after this Time [of the Temporary Life] there is no more Remedy or help. Pray learn Divine Wisdom, and learn to know what God is; and do not imagine or set any Image of any Thing before you, thinking God to be an Image any way but in Christ: We live and are in God, we are of his [Essence or] substance [or Being:] We have Heaven and Hell in ourselves. What we make of ourselves, that we are: If we make of ourselves an Angel in the Light and Love of God in Christ, we are so; but if we make of ourselves a fierce, angry, false and wicked, haughty, flying Devil, which flies aloft above all Love and Meekness, in mere Covetousness, greedy hunger and thirst, then also we are so; for after this Life, it is otherwise with us there than here; what the soul here embraces, that it has there; and so, though the outward breaks in Death, yet the will retains that embraced thing in its source [or property,] and that is its * sustenance; but how that will subsist before the Paradisical source and dominion of God, and before his Angels, you yourself may consider: We would have it faithfully set before you †, as it is given to us [for that purpose.]

The Fifteenth Chapter.

Of the mixed World, and its wickedness, as it now stands, and as it Exercises its Dominion at present. A Glass wherein Every one may see himself; and may try what Spirit's Child he is; out of the Seal of the Wonders.

CHRIST saith, Matth. 23. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! How often would I have gathered thy Children together as a ¹ Hen gathereth her Chickens under her wings, and you would not: O Jerusalem, thou that killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, &c. Also, we have piped unto you, and you have not danced, &c. What should I do more to this stiff-necked People, who will not suffer my spirit to reprove them? Also, their Mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; the Poison of ² Ad- ders is under their Lips; they speak mere deceit, and their hearts are never at unity. O how fain would I eat of the best Grapes; but I am as a Vine-dresser that Gleaneth: I had planted

2. Thus the Mother then complained of the wicked children of Men ; but what shall she now do in these present times ? She standeth yet in great sorrow and lamentation, and has turned away her countenance from those wicked Children, and will not have any of them that are in ^u that Garment : She crieth, and no one heareth : She standeth in great mourning and lamentation over the wickedness of those false unruly and perverse Children : Every one runs after the covetous Whore, who is full of Blasphemies, and Abominations ; both the ^x Shepherd and the Sheep do so : It is a most Lamentable Time, and if it should not be shortened, no man should be saved.

3. It is a Time which all the Prophets have prophesied of, and thou supposest it to be a Golden Time ; but consider thyself, thou blind Man, Whither art thou gone ? Dost thou suppose that this wickedness and falshood which thou practisest is the Ordinance of God ? Wait but a while, and you will soon see. It is the Time of the last Seal, wherein the Anger of God hath poured forth its Vials, so that the Wonders of Hell come to Light, [that they may be known.] Let this be told you, we have known it in Ternario Sancto ; [or understood it in the Angelical world, in the Heavenly Substantiality.]

^y This wicked time or generation.

4. For the Mother has rejected ^y it, and will have none of those Abominations any more : She is big with child, and brings forth a son in her old age, which shortens the Days of wickedness. Let this be told you ; whosoever perseveres and goes on in wickedness, shall have great shame thereof.

^z Mocker or Scoffer.

5. Is not the little boy (which runs up and down in his childish sport) very full of the poison, venom, and wickedness of the Devil ? And do not all vices and abominations stick in him ? He is a ^z scerner, and blasphemer of God, a swearer, curser, liar and deceiver, very fit and apt to serve the Devil in all manner of shameful filthiness : Scurrility and obsceneness are his best Latin and Eloquence, he knows how to mock, disgrace, and lay all manner of asperisions upon the simple : All manner of thievery, cheating tricks and cozenage, are fine Arts with him : Deceit, over-reaching, and circumvention, are his Glorious Boasting : They mock and deride poor people without any cause : He that fears God, is by them accounted a fool, and set as an Owl to be wondered at. This, Parents and Ancient People see, and take delight and pleasure in it, that their children are so dextrous and witty in their wantonness and waggery : They are tickled at the heart with it when they unhappily jest at honest People ; that which old Old folks dare not do for shame, that they teach the Children, that thereby the lust of their hearts may be brought to pass : All this the Devil teaches them, and so rides in their hearts as Lord over body and soul.

6. If any can but cozen and cheat his neighbour, despise, slander, and find fault with him, and bereave him of his honour and goods, these are the satisfying of their Lusts : All immodest wanton words and manners are held the best Art and Courtship : He that can laugh and jeer his neighbour out of countenance, is Master upon the Place : All these are the Devil's Pranks and Tricks ; and thus he leads the poor soul in his string, and Man understands it not.

7. Youth, both of the Male and Female Sex, learn first the Devil's Trade, before they take any thing else in hand : Disdainful malicious wantonness, is the first work they learn ; and the Parents encourage their children in it, and hold it for a necessary worldly fashionable accomplishment.

8. When they are grown up a little, then the desire of bestial unchastity is the second work they learn, which they call a trick of youth, and allure one another to it : Thus youths give room to the Devil, at the first blossoming, to enter into the Heart, so that the Devil makes his nest therein, and so catches one with the abominations of another, the male with the female, and the female with the male.

9. If any one sends his son to the University to learn somewhat that is Good, that he may be serviceable to God, and useful ^a in the world; then he learns wantonness, bravery, pride, subtlety, how to deceive the simple of their own, and bereave them of their sweat, and contrive a cloak for it, saying, it is ^b his right by Law; but that cloak is the Devil's, and the false deceitful heart is his Minister. If he can speak a little Latin, or foreign Language, then no simple Man is good enough for his company: His high-mindedness flies aloft, the stinking Carcase [which is but meat for Worms] must be trimmed with Ribands and Baubles; to go a-whoring, and deflouring Maids, is Courtship: There are people that can behave themselves so finely, till they awake the gnawing worm of Conscience in the heart of many a Mother's daughter.

10. And such are advanced in the Churches and Universities, and set up for ^c Shepherds of Christ, and yet they have the Devil lodging in their heart; and so also they are promoted to worldly Government [or the Civil Magistracy,] and then they govern as their Guest in their heart will have it: Thus the Superior or Magistrate works the greatest abominations, and the Inferior learns of him: He inventeth ^d tricks how he may, with the appearance of Law, Justice, and Equity, get the Goods or Estate of the Inferior to himself: He makes Constitutions, Orders, and Statutes, and says they are for the public Good: He constrains the poor and miserable to do hard service, that he may satisfy his Pride and State: He crusheth the simple with harsh, cruel Language, he takes away his sweat, and torments his body: He makes him his very slave, and though he has no more but one soul of his own, [no more than others,] and is but a Stranger and Pilgrim in this world, [yet he thinks] the needy must spend his sweat wholly in his service; there is no pity nor release to be had from him: His Dog has a better life than the poor needy soul under his roof, and this he accounts his Right and ^e Prerogative; whereas it is not at all grounded in Nature, but only in the Abyss, where one form or property plagues, vexes, and torments the other, where the Life is its own Enemy; [and there it is grounded.]

11. This the Inferior learns from the Superior, and so gets his living also with subtlety and deceit, covetousness and knavery; for, if he does not use these things, he can hardly fill his belly in righteousness; and therefore Reason persuades him that necessity forces him, that he must enhance his labour and commodities, and must wrest from his neighbour his sweat again, without love and righteousness, that he may but fill his belly: He learns from his Superior to gluttonize and pamper his body, and live a bestial Life. What the Superior spends in a Courtly stately Fashion, that the Inferior spends in a beastly, swinish fashion, and manner of life: Thus one wickedness effects another, and the Devil remains Prince on Earth over body and soul.

12. How wilt thou be able to subsist, when God in his Zeal or Jealousy shall judge the secrets of Mankind, when the cause of every thing will appear, why that or the other Thing came to be Evil? And there every soul will cry out of those that lead it astray, and curse them: Every thing will have its cause appear before it, and the soul will feel it in its conscience: Where then will you Superior remain, when your Inferior shall cry out and say, Woe be to you, in that you have forced him to such wicked courses, and that you have bereaved him of his sweat, and consumed his goods and labours in Idleness and Wantonness? How will you give an account of your Office into which you are put, wherein you should stop unrighteousness, and hold the wicked in awe by Reproof and Punishment? And you have not regarded his wicked courses, that you might prevent and hinder them, but have only looked after your covetousness, how you might bereave him of his sweat: You have not sought his soul's Good, but his sweat and labour: He might else do what he would : And besides, you have given an evil Example to him, so that he has looked upon your courses, and made them his Pattern. Cursing, blaspheming, threatening, daring * surlinefs, have been your fashion, and that he has learned of you, and has so constantly reproached the Name of God, which you have not regarded ; you have only looked after his money, and not after his soul.

13. And now, when the severe Judgment of God shall appear, and that every work shall be manifested in the fiery Essences, where then all shall be tried in the fire, what think you ? Shall not all such works remain in the Eternal fire ? And there will the poor soul cry out upon your ungodly cursed deeds, words and works : And one will curse and wish all Evil to the other, for being the cause of such Evil to him, and the source and property of falshood and wickedness will rise up in the soul, and gnaw it, that, for so short and empty a vanity, voluptuousness and false lust, it has fooled away such great Eternal Glory.

14. All manner of reproaches, all slanders, all scoffings, all covetousness, pride, and deceit shall rise up in the soul, and one source [or property] shall continually kindle and gnaw the other, which has given cause to the stirring up of the other, and the soul will think, if these abominations were not in thee, thou mightest attain Grace ; and when it shall behold and consider itself, it will find how one abomination has generated another, and will see that itself is a mere stinking abomination in the presence of God ; and there it will cast itself down in the source of anguish into the Center of Nature, and curse God that he has made it a Soul ; and the deeper it desires to plunge itself, the deeper it falls, and yet must continue in the place of its abominations : It cannot go from thence, for the hellish Matrix holds it, and it must thus feed itself with anguish, cursing, abominations, and bitterness, and even with that which its heart has done here [in this life,] wherein at length it despairs, and that is its Eternal food.

15. All earthly food and lust pass away at the End of Days, and return again into the Ether ; but the will remains standing Eternally, and the Desire in the will.

‡ Or at its End.

16. Therefore, you Parents, and Children, you Superiors and Inferiors, observe, you have filled the Mother of Nature full with abominations, the fierce Anger of God is at hand, the Last Judgment is at the Door, God will purge the Earth with fire, and give every one his wages : The Harvest comes, this Garment will remain no longer, every † thing will be gathered into its Barn : He that will not take counsel, let him take his course, he will find by woeful Experience, what the Seventh Seal ‡ at the Center brings with it.

17. When Reason looks all about and considers, it saith, I see not yet that it is otherwise than it was in former Times : Moreover, the world was always good and bad, as Histories relate : Also a man must take such Courses, else he will be accounted a Fool and an Owl in the world, and must starve and perish for hunger.

18. If I do not give my children leave to learn the manners and fashions of the world, then they would be despised and scorned of every body : And if I myself did not carry it out with state, loftiness, and stoutness, I should not be regarded : And if I must have credit, I must use some cunning to get it ; for with truth, love, and righteousness, I shall not attain it : I must therefore do as other People do, and then I may be able to live amongst them : Must I needs be made the fool of all the world ? Though indeed I commit Sin, yet God is Gracious and Merciful ; and hath not Christ slain Sin and Death on the Cross, and taken away the Power of the Devil ? I shall one Day repent well enough, and be saved.

§ Pastor.

19. This is the Rule of the world which the Superior and Inferior go by ; also § the Shepherd and the Sheep : Christ's sufferings must be a cover for their wickedness : Every one will be a Christian under the Cover of Christ, when the poor soul sits a-whoring with the Devil: If one does but say with the mouth he is a Christian, and yet covers his wickedness with the purple Mantle of Christ, all is well: Thus we are brave Lip-Christians under the Mantle of Christ; but in the heart we have the Antichristian Whore sitting as a Guest.

20. O you false Shepherds of Christ, who go into the sheepfold at your thievish back-door, why do you cover your wickedness with Christ's sufferings and death? Do you think Christ was wicked? Seek the Center of Nature, and show people the Abyss that is in their heart: Show them the snares of the Devil, wherewith we lie bound, that they may not esteem cursed worldly things; but that they may learn to strive against flesh and blood, against the Devil, and against the hypocritical life and conversation, that they may go forth from the devil's high-mindedness into righteousness, into Love and Humility.

21. The suffering of Christ is profitable to none, unless they turn from their false evil purposes, and repent, and enter into the Covenant of God.; and to these it is very Effectual. Hypocrites use this for a show, and that they may be called Christians; but thereby they take the Name of God in vain, and must give a strict account thereof.

22. O you Antichristian Shepherds of the ⁱ New Order, who use the suffering of Christ with false Hypocrisy to please Men, for their favour, and for your Idol the Belly's sake, to cover over the hypocrite and false ^k deceiver, who is but a show-Christian: How will you be able to answer it, when Christ will require his sheep at your hands, and you have wittingly and willingly, under his purple Mantle, covered Wolves, in whom the Devil dwells? Why do you not crack the Nut-shell, wherein the Kernel and Heart lies, and tell the Superior as well as the Inferior of his abominations? Are you Christ's Shepherds? Why do you not then as Christ did, who set the Truth before the eyes of every one? He reprov'd and healed, not for Man's favour and respect, but according to the will of his Father; and so ought Christ's Shepherds to do also.

23. O dear Reason, thou walkest wisely in the Paths of this world, in what concerns the outward Body: But where lies the poor soul? The soul is not at home in this body, that is not its Eternal ^l Native Country, what will it avail thee to enjoy Pleasure for a little while, with Eternal shame and torment? Or, why dost thou suffer thy children to have their wills to follow fashions and finery, for a little while in this world, and takest delight therein when they scorn the miserable and the needy, and shalt lose them hereafter Eternally? Thou thinkest thou lovest them, and dost well for them: When the world commends their cunning and bravery, falshood and wickedness, that commendation delights thee, but the Devil accepts and receives it as belonging to him, and thou art the Murderer of thy children: Thou art their greatest Enemy; for children look upon their Parents, and when their untoward tricks please their Parents, then they follow them the more, and grow the more ^m audacious in them. At the Last Judgment-day, they will cry out of their Parents, that they have not rebuked their wantonness and ungodly life, and brought them up in modesty and in the fear of God.

24. If you love your life, and your Children, then lose them as to the wickedness of this world, that they may not be nor converse therein; and then you shall find them, together with your life, in Heaven again; as Christ teaches us, saying, He that loveth ⁿ his life shall lose it; but he that loseth his life, goods and honour, for my sake, shall find it in the Kingdom of Heaven: Also, when the world despiseth, persecuteth, and hateth you for my sake: Then rejoice, for your recompence is great in the Kingdom of Heaven. Also, What will it profit a Man to have all temporal honour and pleasure, and lose his own soul? Whereas this life continues but for a Moment, in comparison of the Eternity.

25. Dear children in Christ, let every one have a care in what soil he grows: You must not expect any better time of life to repent in, but to-day, while the voice of God foundeth, let every one enter into himself, and search himself, let none regard the broad way of this world, for it leads into the Abyss to all Devils, but the way to the Kingdom of Heaven is very narrow and strait: He that will set into it, must not defer nor linger out the time till the Devil bars up the door: He must not regard the course of the world, he must go directly into himself, and * seek himself: The time will come that he will think, that he is alone in this way, but God has always his seven Thousand with Elijab, whom he knows not of.

* Or search.

26. For a sincere Christian does not wholly know himself, he sees nothing but his vices, in which the Devil strives against him, they are continually before him; but in this world he knows not his ^p Sanctity; for Christ hideth such people under his Cross, so that the Devil does not see them. Therefore be watchful and sober, and resist the subtile Devil, that you may live Eternally.

The Sixteenth Chapter.

Of Praying and Fasting, and due Preparation to the Kingdom of God. What Praying is, and brings to Effect: What the Power of it is, and what the final use and benefit of it is.

1.  OR the Instruction and Comfort of the sincere simple Christianity, and for a constant awakening of ourselves, that we might be found worthy to bear the voice of the Noble Bridegroom, who calleth his Bride, and will bring her home!

A very lovely Gate.

2. A hungry Spirit that is weary and faint, is desirous of the Still Meekness and Rest, that it may go forth from the ^s source of the Driver, and may satiate itself with meekness and stillness, and so with that which is the desire of its Life, whereby it may sustain its body.

s Force, or power.

3. Thus, my dearly beloved Mind, thou art generated out of the Eternal Still meekness, and wert (before the time of this world) in the Wisdom of God, [in the Eternal Virgin;] the Meekness of the Love of God was thy source [or property,] and thou wast a fruitful ^r Rain in thy still Eternal Mother, [the Eternal Nature,] where thou wast not yet created a Spirit: Consider thyself, how great unquietness thou art now in: Thou art immeasurably hungry, thou always thirstest after the food, and source [or property] of thy Mother: O that the Time of Refreshment were come: This does the poor soul wish and pant after: One day crieth to another, the Morning crieth to the Evening, and the Night longeth after the Day, and there is no place nor rest (from the ^r Driver) for the poor soul, the Driver takes hold of its very Throat; and though it hides itself, yet it finds no place nor rest free from the source [or property] of its Driver: He drives it further and further, till it finds the bosom of its Mother, where it lays down itself, and is as one that is escaped in * a great Battle, who dares not lift up his head for fear of the Enemy.

4. My dear Children in Christ, and all you that have given up yourselves in Christ, to the Kingdom of Heaven, you Elect in Christ, thus it is with our souls: Our souls stick in such great unquietness; and as it is with a Soldier in a fight, who is continually in expectation of Death, where the Enemies press upon him on every side, and strike at him, and continually desire his Death; or, as it is with one that is fallen into a deep Sea, and swims there, and sees no shore, and continually expects Death, where the Water goes into his Mouth, who sighs and desires help from above; or, like one that is falling into a Deep Pit, where no help is discerned, who also expects help from above.

5. So it is also with the poor soul, it is fallen into a dark Dungeon, and swims in a dangerous and deep water, where it is encompassed with Enemies on every side, who all strike at it: Every one would murder it, and it sees no help about it; if it searches through its body, through its flesh and blood, also through marrow and bones, it finds they all are its Enemies, which lead it unto the Abyss.

6. The spirit of this world (in flesh and blood) draws it, and bows it down to the ground, in the Deep of the waters, and continually desires to drown it; for it would only maintain and pamper the Bestial Life.

7. So also the Devil draws it mightily down into the Abyss, and would fain throw it into the Eternal aking source [or Torment] of Hell; and if it resists, he strikes at it with the Anguish of Hell, that it should despair, and throw itself into the Abyss; and there it has no helper with it, nor about it, nor can it discover any to appear, till it raises itself upwards into the Love and Mercy of God, where then it must leave and forsake all whatsoever is in its house, and must wind quite through from it, as a spirit without substance; that is, it must go forth with its will from all its Thoughts, and out from all its mind, into the Mercy of God, into the first Original ' Mother, where it was only a seed before the Creation of the World.

8. And when it comes there, it finds that the same Word, which Created it, is become Man; into which it casts itself, and eats of that humanity, as of a pure and new body, in which there is no source [or property] of Enmity, but only a meek, pure, desirous love; and there its will is accepted of God, and the Holy Ghost enters into its will, and brings to the poor captive soul Heavenly Refreshment and Comfort, so that it feeds on the flesh of the Eternal Word of its Original Mother, and drinks of the Water of Eternal Life, wherein, before the world, it was only a seed.

9. There it finds the place of its Rest, and cools its flames therewith, and resteth in the bosom of its Mother, for it enters into the Land of the Living, and the Holy Ghost leads it out of Prison, and it eats at God's Table, and sitteth among the children of Love. O how humble it is that the Holy Ghost has delivered it from the Strife of Battle! and then God has a true obedient and humble child of it. And thus it is with the souls, which press forth out of this Sea of Misery, into God, or which with the Deliverance from the Earthly Life enter into God, and so are released from the Driver, [the Devil.]

10. Since therefore it is certainly thus, and that we have found out the way, we will speak what we know, and testify the Truth: For Christ said; My Father will give the Holy Ghost to them that ask him for it: No son asketh the Father for an Egg, and he offers him a Scorpion instead of it: or for Bread, and he gives him a Stone; or for Fish, and he gives him a Serpent: Ask and ye shall receive, knock and it shall be opened unto you, saith Christ.

11. When the heart and mind, and all the senses or thoughts, resolve into a will and purpose, that the soul will enter into the Mercy of God, and repent of its misdeeds, and is resolved to seek after Love and Mercy, then it is said, Before they call, I have heard them; as may be seen by Daniel, when the Angel said to him, When thou chastizedst thyself, and didst intend to pray for thine own sins, and the sins of the People, I brought thy Prayer before God, and this command went forth. Read the History of Tobiah, what Praying and Fasting, and due Preparation for the Kingdom of God, are able to effect: briefly, the whole Scripture is full of such examples.

^a Awakened from Death.

12. Consider the Prayer of Christ; how his human soul in God the Father called, and awakened the Verbum Domini in him, when he would do Great Wonders, [or Miracles,] especially about Lazarus, whom ² he raised from the Dead: then he sighed to his Father, and awakened the Center of Nature, and the word in the Center of Nature on the Cross of the Number Three: There the Holy Ghost, and the Word which the Holy Ghost then awakened, went forth in his soul: and then the soul of Christ thanked his Father who had heard him, and said in the power of the Word to Dead Lazarus; Lazarus, come forth; and there they saw the power of the Word in the soul, that the Dead must arise; which power the soul of Christ had opened and awakened with his knocking.

13. You must know that Lazarus was awakened from within; and we shall all at the Last Day hear the Voice of God ^a from within in the Center of the soul: for the Word, with the Number Three, dwelleth within it, in the Center on the Cross, and that foundeth forth outwards, and raises up the Body of the Essences: For the souls of Men are all, as it were, one soul; for they are all propagated out of one only soul; and therefore they will all hear the voice of the Human soul in Christ, and arise with their Bodies.

14. So then when we pray to God, God hears our soul in the Center in ourselves; that is, the soul presses forth with its repenting will, out of the Center of Anguish, out of the Abyss of Hell, and also out of the Spirit of this world, into the second Principle into God, which is also in the soul; for all the Three Principles are in the soul, viz. the two Eternal, and the Corruptible, which makes the Death of this world.

^v Or manifests, or reveals.

15. Understand us accurately, according to its high worth, thus; God the Father moves not himself, [when thou Prayest,] the Holy Ghost only moves himself: though that indeed avails us not neither. But the Word which has created our soul is become Man, and that has the Holy Ghost in it, and he goes forth from the Father in the Word, and meets the calling Mind and Will, and ^b opens himself from within outwards into the soul: For the outward Bestial Body, is not worthy of the Holy Ghost, that he should open himself in it, though sometimes it happened so to the Saints, that he went forth of the soul into the outward Principle; and then the Body Triumphs, and for very joy knows not what has happened to it: but in the New body of the soul in Christ, when the soul attains the body of Christ, in that the Holy Ghost dwells.

16. And so when the Devil comes, and will set upon the soul from beneath, in the first Principle, in the Center of the first four Forms to the source of the Fire, then the will of the soul presses into the flesh of Christ, into the second Principle, inwards into itself, and there it is refreshed and released, and the Devil must go down; for that life does not relish with him: yet he is so furious, that he sets upon the soul, so often as he perceives it to be secure and careless, or never so little burdens itself with falsehood and wickedness: he always seeks an opportunity wherein he might find his Nest open [for him.]

17. Therefore, dear children, when ye pray, think not that God dwells afar off from you, and so neither hears you, nor sees you; that is a false Conceit and Opinion. Indeed those, who will not enter into God, those that stick fast in their Malice and Iniquity, and retain wickedness in their soul, those indeed are not heard. He that cries to God that he would outwardly accept his words from him, and yet retains the Evil one in his soul, he mocketh God: God dwells not outwardly; for the outward is the Bestial Starry Spirit: he dwells inwardly in himself; the outward substance is only a figure and similitude of God: Indeed it is of God, and generated out of the inward Center, and expressed [or spoken forth] through the Verbum fiat: but it is not the substance of the Number Three, which is a Substance and Spirit in the Trinity, above Nature, and yet dwells in Nature in itself; incomprehensible to Nature, as the Wind and the Light is not comprehended by the Fire, and yet are the spirit, brightness, and life of the Fire.

18. Therefore, when you will pray, put away the Abominations out of your soul, and enter into yourself; that is, you must loath the Abominations, and frame a will and purpose in your soul, that you will not let such abominations into you any more; also you must not suffer your will to stick in any ^c abomination and despair; for when you despair, you sink yourself down into the Abyss. ^c Lusts and unchastity.

19. But consider, that it is the precious will and pleasure of God, that you press earnestly and strongly through, and leave the Abominations to the Devil upon his neck, and come very humbly, praying as a sinful child to God: he is the Father of the Lost son, you have vainly rioted and spent your beauty and righteousness with the Devil, and with the Antichristian Whore, you are amongst the swine at Babel; and having lost your Goods, you eat grains and husks with the swine; you are naked and torn, and are not worthy to be called his son: Consider and imagine this in yourself, for it is true, and so come with true Conversion out of the filth and mire of the swine to our Ancient Loving Father, and pray for his Grace and Favour, that he would but make thee as one of his hired servants in his Court: acknowledge to him thy evil deeds, and that thou art not worthy to be called his son. Behold, dear soul, observe it, it is the very precious truth.

20. When you thus enter into yourself, and search out your abominations, and the husks of the Devil, and of the world, which you have so long devoured, and consider of God and his Mercy, then turn not again into the hogsty; and say not I am ashamed to come before my good old Father; I dare not come into his sight, for great shame and abomination; for I was a glorious Son, and now am a naked Swineherd, but consider, that your Father taketh more care about you who are his lost Prodigal son, than you do about his favour and love, which you have wilfully trifled away.

21. Frame but a loving, humble, submissive, obedient, will and purpose, and come, come away from the Swine, leave the husks to the world, let the Swine devour them and feed themselves fat: but enter you into yourself, and knock at your evil Heart: break in through the Doors and Gates: and though all swine cry, and Devils should howl for their ^d Keeper, yet come you to your Father with any humble demeanour and words, you need not trouble yourself about the adorning them with accurate Eloquence; ^d Or Herd-man. for though you have no more words than the Poor Publican, it is no matter, it lies not in them, but in an Earnest constant purpose without ceasing: and though Hell should break in pieces, and body and soul part asunder, yet stand still, and go not forth again out of the Doors of the Father.

22. For as soon as you will open the Door in your soul, and will go out of the Mire, towards the Ancient Father, that he does but perceive that it is you his son, and that you are returned to him, then he saith; This is my son which was Lost, for whom my heart was troubled, and is entered into the Humanity, into this world, and hath sought him, and now I have found him.

23. And there he sendeth the Holy Ghost to meet him, and falleth kindly about his Neck, and receives him with Joy, and for a token of his love, he puts the Seal and the Ring of the Holy Trinity, in the suffering and death of Christ, on to the Hand of the soul: and there he brings the blessed Virgin of his Wisdom, the New Angelical Garment (viz. the flesh of Christ) and puts it on to the soul; and all the servants of God, (viz. the Holy Angels in the House of the Father,) must rejoice and be merry with the lost Son; and there the Ancient Father slays the fatted Calf, and feeds his son at his Table, (of the Heavenly Substantiality,) with the power and with the flesh of his Obedient Son Christ, and gives him to drink of the Water of Eternal life, in the Blood of Christ, in the first Mother, out of which the soul has been created; and there is Joy in Heaven among the Ninety-Nine Angels, or holy souls, which are with God, that a dear brother is come into their society.

24. And although the own [Invented] works of Holiness, (viz. the Elder son, who has always been busy at home in the Antichristian house,) murmur and grumble at it, (and boasts of his Obedience, Labour and Toil which he had taken in Hypocrisy,) the Father regards not that; the New son pleases him better, than he that had continued in the House: He thought that he alone was heir, that the Kingdom of Heaven belonged to him: he had merited it, and has not gone out of the house; to him belong the Keys of the Treasure; the other is but a Swineheard: All this does not divert the Father, but he is merry with his servants the Angels and holy souls, and lets him that was Angry (who would not rejoice with his brother) go down into the wretched Pit of the Devil; and he is merry with his children. But seeing the Hypocrite is Angry, and despises the Supper of the Father, therefore he does not taste of the Heavenly Joy.

g Or Caesar.

25. Hearken you Roman Pope, and you Roman^e Emperor, why are you angry with us poor lost sons in Germany, who go into our first true Father? Would he not fain have us? Are you not our brother? wherefore then do you grumble? Are you Pope in the House? then have a care that you be the Father's obedient son, and rejoice with the lost son, when he goes out from Antichrist, to the Father: If you will not do so, you must Eternally be angry, and shall have no Joy with us [once] Lost, but [now] again living children, to Eternity.

f That the Contentions, Janglings, and Disputations may cease.

26. O you Antichristian Wolf, why are you Angry, when the Father receives a Swineheard for a dear Child, and gives him the Seal-Ring, the Mysterium Magnum? do you think you do right in it? though indeed you are born of an Academy, [or from an University,] and the Swineherds [are born] in the field among the swine as you account them, yet in them the greatest Wonders are awakened [or manifested] above your Hypocritical reason: look to it, Rule well in the house of your Academy, we heard a Watchman say^f leave off; The City Babel is fallen; see that you be not taken in Babel: for it burns in the Fire: the Turba Magna will spew it out, there is no other Remedy or Counsel, but for all to go together with the Swineheard, to the Father, and pray to him for Grace; else you will be forced to try by woeful Experience, what this Pen has written, and out of what Spirit it flowed, and was revealed.

27. When Christ drove the Devil out of the Lunatic that was possessed, his Disciples said to him, Master, why could we not drive him out? Then said Christ, This kind does not go out but by Fasting and Prayer.

h Or Highest Age.

28. Dear Children, Brethren and Sisters, be advised, for the kind Love of God the Father in his heart, (which for our sakes is become Man,) has lifted up himself in the^h Crown of the Spirit of this World, and calletb us: It grieves his Mercy that we are fallen home to the Wrath of the Turba Magna; he now sendeth you many Messengers, and calls you in their voice, and he will send more unto you: why do you despise them and kill them? Try them whether their Spirit be born of God or no; or whether they seek their own way of their Belly in Antichrist: Surely it is time to awake from sleep: No jesting matter will follow: you should not dare to jest so with the Keys of the Holy Ghost, and make Conclusions of Faith, according to your own Opinions, Tenets and Conceits: Faith will not be begotten by Conclusions and Canons, but is awakened by true sincerity, by being obedient children of Christ.

29. Saint Paul did not say to his Disciple, Dispute of the Mysteries of God; but he said, Awaken or stir up the Gifts that are in thee: No man's own wit can do it; much less the Pride of the High Schools [or Universities,] which yet they cloak with hypocrisy, and hide it under the Mantle of the Holy Ghost: why do you make Conclusions about the Body and the Person of Christ? Have you power and authority to do so? Is it not a Mystery to you; and you understand nothing in it, unless you be new born again in Christ; Does he not say, Behold I am with you even to the End of the World? Is he with you? Why then do you set yourselves upon his Throne, and deny his Presence? Are you not Pilate who sentences Christ; from whom have you the might and authority, to make Conclusions and Articles? Are you his Lords? then you are not children: have a care you prove not the Eldest son in the House, who strives about the Inheritance, and about the Power and Authority, and yet continues to be a proud angry Murmurer against the Father? Dear children, it avails nothing to go such a way: Christ said to his Disciples, when he drove the Devil out of the Lunatic that was possessed, which the Disciples could not do in their own Reason, This kind goeth not out but by Fasting and Prayer.

30. Dear Brethren, you will not [be able to] drive the Devil out of us, if you have not Christ with you; your Art and Conclusions of Reason will do nothing else, but cause people to go out from God into their own self-will: We must fast and pray, that we fall not into Temptation, and into the Nets and Snares of the Devil in our Reason; for the Devil always holds his Net before Reason, and he that falls into it, supposes he is caught in Christ's fishing Net: but he is taken in Antichrist's ^b Net: Reason comprehends nothing of the Kingdom of God, but the Husk; the virtue and power of it remains hidden to Reason, unless it be born in God, and then Reason goes forth as a burning Fire in the Spirit of God; but the Spirit lets it not fly aloft, but bows it to the Earth [in humility,] for he knows the ^c Warrior that fights against Reason. ^d Satan.

31. A watchful Life is requisite, which is chastened and not overflown with the fleshly voluptuous spirit of this world, and not a Life always drunken and full: for as soon as the soul is inflamed with the vigour and power of the Earthly Spirit, then God's Spirit passes into its own Principle; and the soul is captivated by the Spirit of this world, and the Devil gains an access to it; and then its former wit and understanding (known in God) is changed into outward Reason, and then Man supposes still, that it is God's Spirit.

32. O no friend! the ^e Constellation, which should rest in the Spirit of Christ, lusteth ^f Or Configuration of the Stars in us. also to possess such a heart and soul, where the Spirit of God has been sitting; for every Creature longs after the virtue and power of God: but the Constellation, though it comes into the Temple of God, drives on its own matters, that lie in its power, it knows nothing of divine Wisdom: it has wisdom, and ^g constitutes the Spirit of this world: indeed it has great Art and Learning: for the Earthly and Elementary Mysteries ^h Makes. Magnum lies therein: but it has not the Key to the Principle of the Liberty of God without and beyond Nature; for it has a Beginning and End, and looks no further; it makes and seeks only an Hypocritical Bestial Life.

33. Therefore let us not be ⁱ proud and secure, nor rely upon Art and Learning, ^j Sit ut, furly. much less upon the Letter: for the spirit thereof is hidden to us, without the Spirit of God: we have the will of God in the Holy Scripture: yet without the Spirit of God we have but the Husk and the dead Word (except God's Spirit first awakens the Living Word in us, that we may understand the Letter and the written word ;) which is plain enough, in that the Learned in Arts are but Learned in the Letter, and not ⁿ learned in God, otherwise they would not contend and wrangle about Christ's Honour and Doctrine, nor so dispute about the Cup of Christ.

34. Though there were a Thousand men ⁿ Learned in God, who are born in the Spirit of Christ, and were together, and had each of them a special gift and knowledge in God, yet they would all be but one in the Root of Christ, and would every one desire only the Love of God in Christ : what Disciple or Scholar will exalt himself above his Master ? We are one Body in Christ, why then should one member contend with the other about the food ? When the desirous Mouth feedeth, then all the Members receive strength and virtue ; every Member has its own Office or Work, in opening the Wonders of God : we do not all bring one and the same words, but one Spirit in Christ, every one has that which is his own imparted to him, what he shall open in God, that the Great Mysteries of God may be made manifest, and the Wonders which have been foreseen from Eternity in his wisdom, might be revealed : to which End the soul was created of God.

* Or Examine.

35. I know, and the Spirit shows it to me, that thou Antichristian Sophister wilt object against me, that even among the Apostles there has been strife and contention about the words of Christ : It is true indeed, and it was Satan's Master-piece to sift Christ Diciples, and the Disciples of those Disciples, so soon as they became secure : for they were Men as well as we, and one was stronger in Spirit than the Other, according as they did * search themselves, and raise up themselves in God : for they lived among Evil Men, and many times must apply themselves to the world, and must give the Weak Milk to drink, at which others many times stumbled in their Reason, and grew hot and zealous, and reproved one another for it ; as may be seen about Cornelius, when Peter went in to the Heathens, and the other Apostles supposed, that the Kingdom of God belonged only to Israel.

36. But you are to know, that the Love of God is so ° humble, that when it has kindled the soul with itself, itself is subject to the soul ; but no soul will enjoy that, but those that are humbled in the Love of God, and constantly go forth from their desires, that the Spirit of God may live in them, and that they may have an eye unto him : the soul is permitted to be zealous, but it does better to live in Meekness, in which it enters into the Majesty [of God,] and is a totally beloved child ; what does it avail me that I pour out fire upon my brother, and so burn myself therein ? It is more blessed to continue under the Cross in Patience and in Meekness, than to bring fire from Heaven.

37. Christ is come to seek and to save that which was Lost ; not to awaken his Anger against us, but that he might help us out of the Jaws of the Devil ; and he has regenerated us in himself to be a living Creature in God, and has brought us quite through the fire of his Father's Anger. He has broken the Bands, that we might follow him in Love and Meekness, as children should follow their Parents : Therefore he Teaches us faithfully what we should do, and how we should Pray.

38. The Prayer which he has Taught us, is an Instruction and Teaching of all whatsoever we should do and leave undone ; and what we should ask and expect from God : and is always rightly to be understood according to the Three Principles, which we will here make a short ° Introduction to, though it cannot be ° confined or concluded, for the Spirit in the Prayer comprehends in it the whole Eternity, also Nature and Every Thing; so that No Tongue can sufficiently Explain it. The more it is Considered, the more is found in it. Yet we will venture upon it, and give the Reader an Introduction; not to tie or limit the Spirit: for it rises up in Every one's soul, as virtue and power is given from the Wonders of God. And so it is also with the Gospel, that is not tied to any Exposition: The more any search into it, the more they find therein: for the Spirit of God itself teaches us to pray aright, and also presents us to God. For we know not what we should say; our whole business of Praying and Conversion consists only in the Will and Purpose, that we give ourselves up into God; God the Holy Ghost himself makes the springing and growing up through himself in God, he drives forth the blossom of the New Body of the soul, out from the Divine Center forth through the soul, so that the fruit of Eternal Life springeth forth out of the Soul's body, with many Branches and fair fruit, and stands as a glorious Tree in the Kingdom of God; so that when we pray, our soul eats of many heavenly fruits, which are all grown out of the Body of the soul, as out of a heavenly soil or ground: and the soul eats of them again in Prayer, and they are its food on the Table of God: Thus it eateth ex verbo Domini, of the Word of the Lord; concerning which Christ saith; Man lives not by Bread only, but by every word which proceedeth out of the Mouth of God.

39. The Lord's Prayer affords a very high and excellent understanding in the Language of Nature: for it expresth the Eternal Birth, also all the three Principles, also the Lamentable Fall of Man, and shows him the Regeneration in Christ: it shows him what he should do, and how he should behave himself, that he may come again into the Divine Union, and shows him how kindly the Spirit of God meets him.

[Here follows a Summary Explanation of the LORD's Prayer, how it is to be understood in the Language of Nature from syllable to syllable, as it is Expressed in the words of the High Dutch Tongue, which was the Author's Native Language; but because the Language of Nature is not yet clearly understood by the Translator, therefore he cannot transfer it to the English Tongue: but must set it down in the syllables of the High Dutch words, and interline the English under it. Whosoever desires to see more concerning the Language of Nature, let him read in the fifth Chapter of this Book, verse the 85th, upon the word Schuff, and elsewhere in his other Writings.]

Unser Vatter im Himmel.
Our Father [which art] in Heaven.

41. When we say, Unser Vatter im Himmel, then the soul raises up itself in all the Three Principles, and gives itself up into that out of which it is created; which we understand, in the Language of Nature, very exactly and accurately. For Un is God's Eternal Will to Nature, ser comprehends in it the first four forms of Nature; where- in the first Principle consists.

42. Vatter gives the two distinctions of the two Principles; for va- is the Matrix upon the Cross, -tter is Mercury in the Center of Nature; and they are the two Mothers in the Eternal Will, out of which all things are come to be; the one severs itself into Fire, and the other into the Light of Meekness, and into Water: for va- is the Mother of the Light, which affords Substantiality, and -tter is the Mother of the fire's Tincture, which affords the great and strong Life: and Vatter is both of them.

43. When we say im, we understand the innermost, viz. the Heart, from which the Spirit goes forth: for the syllable im goes forth from the Heart, and soundeth through the Lips, and the Lips keep the Heart in the innermost unawakened.

44. When we say Him, we understand the Creation of the soul. The syllable -mel is the Angelical soul itself, which the Heart on the Cross in the Center between the two Mothers has comprehended; and with the word Him, framed it into a Creature, viz. into mel: for Him is the Habitation of mel: therefore the soul is created in Heaven, that is, in the loving Matrix [or Mother.]

The First Petition.

Dein Name werde geheiligt.

Thy Name be ² hallowed.

² Or sanctified.

45. When we say Dein, we understand how the poor soul swims in the water of this world; and how it casts itself with its will into the Principle of God, it goes with the syllable Dein into the voice of God.

46. In the syllable Nab- it inclines inwards, and in the syllable -me it comprehends the Heavenly Substantiality: and this is done in the Will of the soul.

47. And when we say wer-, then the whole Creature goes along in the will: for wer has the whole Center, and with the syllable -de, it lays itself down in Obedience in the Meekness, and will not kindle the wer- in the fire, as Lucifer had done.

48. And when we say ge, then the soul goes into the Heavenly Substantiality, as a quiet child without Anger, and then -bei- is the powerful entering upon the Cross, into the Number Three, where the soul will press into the Majesty, into the Light of God; with the syllable -li-, the soul's will has comprehended the Holy Ghost. [In the syllable] -get, there the soul will go forth with the Holy Ghost: for the brightness of the Majesty shines in the will, and the Holy Ghost goes along in the Glance of the Majesty upon the Chariot of the soul; for the will is the soul's ² Wedding Chariot, with which it rides in Ternarium Sanctum into the Holy Ternary, wherein the Holy Ghost sitteth with the brightness of the Deity.

² Or Triumphant Chariot.

The Second Petition.

Dein Reich komme.

Thy Kingdom come.

49. Dein, there the poor soul gives itself up again into the will of God, as God's child.

50. Reich, here the soul gives itself into the virtue and power of the Angelical world, and desires to come out of the Deep of the waters into the power of God.

51. Komme, in the syllable Kom-, it goes into the virtue and power, and apprehends it: and with the syllable -me, it makes the Heaven be open, and goes forth with the apprehended power into the Kingdom, as a sprout: for the -me makes the Lips be open, and lets the sprout of the Will go forth, and lets it grow softly by degrees.

The Third Petition.

Dein Willen geschehe wie im Himmel also auch auff Erden.
 Thy Will be done as in Heaven so also on Earth.

52. Dein, here the soul does with its will, as in the first and second Petition: it casts itself into God's will.

53. Wil- is its desire to will the same with the Holy Ghost: -len, with this syllable, it takes in the Spirit with the Will into the Center, as into the Heart, and willeth that its will in the Holy Ghost should ^b flow up in the Heart.

^b Or boil up.

54. Ge-, with this syllable it goes into the will: sche-, with this syllable it worketh the work of God: for there it does what the Counsel of the Father is, what the Heart of God wills: as the soul of Christ suffered itself to be hanged on the Cross, and as we in misery bow down under the Cross: -be, in this syllable it takes patiently what God works; it ^c bows itself as a child.

^c Yields or submits.

55. Wie, there it goes again into the voice of the high Majesty. Im is the Heart of God, out of which the Spirit goes forth: In which will it would be. Him- is ^d again the Creating of the Creatures; mel is the soul, that is, it wills to act in the will of God, like the Angels, who do that which God's will accepts.

56. Al-, there it comprehends that will, and drives it on, with the syllable so, out of its Center into this world, into the outward Principle. Auch, there it affords all whatsoever it has in itself out into the outward, out from itself into this world.

57. Auff, with this syllable it apprehends the same again, and desires that its substance should not be dissipated: for it only lets the will of the substance go forth through the closed Lips to the Teeth, and desires that the form of the will should remain as a figured substance Eternally.

58. Er-, with this syllable it brings its substance into the Spirit of this world upon the Earth, and there the Will shall work ^e wonders, as in the Kingdom of the Angels in the Power of God: the will must manifest the hidden Secrets of God: -den, with this syllable it shows that they must not be done in the fire of the Anger, in which the Devil dwells: for this syllable does not break up the Center: they should be done in meek Love, and yet be taken out of the Er. The soul shall mightily rule in all hidden secrets: but it must not let in the Devil.

^e Or Miracles.

59. Here our want is very much, the Heavy Fall presses us hard. O there is very much herein hidden, which would be too long to describe. For the Will of God should be done, and not the Will of the Flesh, and of the Devil. * And therefore it is that we are so doubtful in Prayer, because the poor soul runs on in the Will of the Flesh, and of the Devil. If it did live in Innocence, we should have this skill perfect, and there would be no doubting in our Prayers, but an acting and accomplishment of them: [This the Apostles of Christ wanted, when they asked, why they could not cast out the dumb Devil?] we do really swim here in misery, which the Spirit of the Wonders shows us.

* Note.

The Fourth Petition.

Gieb uns unser taglich Brodt heut.
 Give us our Daily Bread to Day.

60. Gieb, there the will sticketh in the Heart, and presses outwards, and the Mouth catcheth it; that is, the soul would be fed: what the Word gives forth, that the soul takes; for that belongs to it, it will have that.

61. Uns, with this syllable the soul desires food for all its [fellow] members, viz. for all souls, as if they were but one Tree with many Branches, whereof every branch must have sap and virtue from the stock: and so it desires to have this in common out of the virtue of God, for the life of all souls: for it attracts that with all its desire to it, and in all [others,] as a loving brother; it wills to have it in common, and not alone to itself in Covetousness, as the Devil did.

62. Un-, with this syllable the will of the soul goes into the Eternal Wisdom, wherein, before the Creation in the seed, it was discerned in the Eternal Will: -fer, with this syllable it takes the Original of Nature in the Will, where one form in the Original generates, fills, and preserves the other: and that is the Band of the soul, whereby it Eternally lives and subsists: and that the will of the soul desires, else it would be dissolved. For a Spirit desires no more, than to retain its Band, and to fill it with virtue, that it may flow forth.

63. And here lies the Key of the Greatest hidden Secret of the Being of all Beings. Beloved Doctors, if you were Learned, you would seek here; and if you understand nothing here, nor will to understand, then you are not learned, but are only tellers of stories, which the simple, if he did use himself to it, would perform as well as you: This is the true Doctorship in the Holy Ghost: the outward [in the Learning of the School of Reason] is but a foppery, and puffeth up into a high mind.

64. Tag-, with this syllable the heavenly Number is understood, as wherein the Spirit on the Cross in the Holy Matrix comprehends the Genetrix in the Multiplication, where the Will of the Spirit recreates, confirms, and strengthens itself: -lich, in this syllable the soul's will quickens itself in the light and virtue of the Majesty of God; and strengthens the soul with the heavenly Number, which springs up out of the Majesty infinitely: and herein the soul is acknowledged for an Angel, and lives in the Hand of God.

65. Brodt, here the Corporeal substance springs up, and our misery: for Brodt [Bread] is generated out of the Center of Nature, although the last letter in the syllable Brodt ^f Expresses that it is paradisaical Bread: for the Cross + in its Character [T] in the Language of Nature, carries the severe Name of God; [GOTTES;] which if Men will rightly expound, and understand it according to the Language of Nature, ^g may be understood powerfully, and in its highest depth, in the word ^h Tetragrammaton [Jehovah;] for that word comprehends all the Three Principles; and in the word ^h Adonai, God is understood as in one Principle, viz. in the Angelical world; which may be expounded in a Treatise by itself. We set down this, that this syllable might be considered of; for Brodt [Bread] is the food of the Body; and is to be understood concerning the fierce wrath, that it has mixed itself in it, and signifies the house of Lamentation and Mourning: But since we must have this food, therefore the soul reaches after it for the maintenance of its Beſial Body.

66. Heut-, this syllable signifies the Eternal Bread of the soul, the New Body, viz. the Heavenly Substantiality: for the Will goes forth out of the Bread into the Heu, that is, the Eternal Substantiality, viz. the Bread of God, Christ's flesh: -te, this syllable confirms that it affords and frames the severe Name [Gottes] of God; for the soul desires a twofold Bread, one for the Belly, and the other for its holy Heavenly Body.

יְהוָה *
 = Θ Ε Ο Σ.
 DEUS.
 GOTT.
 GOD.
 אֲדֹנָי ^h

The Fifth Petition.

Und verlass uns unser Schuld, als wir verlassen unser Schuldigern.
 And forgive us our Debts, as we forgive our Debtors.

ⁱ Or Trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.
^{*} Vegetable.

67. Und, this syllable is that, wherein the will of the soul awakens the Love of God; for the will sticks fast in the word und, as in the meekness; it fatiates the ver-, viz. the anger, and springs with the und [or Meekness] up, as a budding, * growing Substance, like a blossom out of the ver-, and yet they remain one in another: for ver- is the Center of the Life, it has the fire of the wrath, and the und belongs to the second Principle: -lasse or -lass is the cleansing of that which is generated out of the ver-, of which Isaiab saith; Were your sins red as blood, if you turn, they shall be as wool, white as snow. In the syllable -lasse, is the Bath or Laver, wherein the ver- must be washed, or else it cannot subsist in the kingdom of God.

68. Uns is the union again, where the will of the soul, viz. the Communion or Fraternity, that is, all souls, in one will, desire to be washed.

69. Un, there the will yields itself into the Love of God, and ^k washes the Evil Child, ^k Or cleanses, -fer; and thereby confesses all Evil and Wickedness [for all in common,] as if they were but one only soul.

70. Schuld, this is the true Catalogue or Register, which the Anger has brought into the soul, which Catalogue the will desires to cast away altogether: But the Mouth catches the syllable again as a flash, to signify, that our works shall stand Eternally to the wonders of God; and we need only wash them, that they might not be comprised in the fierce wrath of God, and inflamed; else they belong to the Abyfs, ^l to ^l Or into, the dark Principle.

71. Als, in this syllable the will of the soul comprises together, all whatsoever is called Soul, and speaks of Many, as if they were but One.

72. Wir, in this syllable the will complains against the Anguish of the source of disquietness in the soul, where one soul often ^m hurts another, and therefore the will comprises together the Turba of All souls, and says [as follows.] ^m Offends or wrongs.

73. Ver-, that is, the will [of the soul] desires that the fierce wrath of all souls might be thrust downward upon a heap, into the Abyfs: -lass-, that is, to ⁿ let it go, and not know it more in the fierceness of the Anger: for the syllable -fer retains the form of the wonder: but it must be washed in the Lassen [or ^o letting it go] for Lassen is the Laver or Bath [to wash it in.] ⁿ Put it away, or remit it.
^o Or scowring it away.

74. Un-, this syllable yet again presses into the Love of God, and desires to bring, the washed souls into the Love: -fern, this syllable, in the presence of God, shows the Evil child, which is now washed in the Love, and there puts it among the Wonders of God, for it sets forth whatsoever is come to be a wonder in the Tincture of the fire in the soul.

75. Schul-, this syllable shows the unprofitable [or vain] works, which one soul has wrought towards another out of the ^p Tincture of the Fire, and is a setting forth of the Evil, which the soul in the will itself has washed and cleansed again: -di-, this syllable puts the union again into the Majesty, and into the Holy Ghost, where there is no contrary will any more: -gern is the Evil Child, which now stands before God, to God's deeds of wonder; from whence the will took its ^q fall, and desires that the Holy Ghost will take it in as a wonder into the Majesty. ^p Or Fierce wrathful L. e.
^q Pravity or Vileness and Iniquity.

The Sixth Petition.

Und führe uns nicht im Versuchungh.
 And lead us not into Temptation.

76. Und is once more an injection into the loving meekness of God, where the will of the soul in the Majesty humbles itself before the Number Three [or Trinity.]

77. Füh, there the will goes along with the Holy Ghost: -re, there the will would not go through the fierce wrath; for it is afraid of the Prison of the fierce wrath; for the will should always be stedfastly inclined into God, that it may pass through the Fire without molestation, and also through the outward Principle, viz. through this world, and yet should not catch at, or offer to lust after any thing: but seeing the soul knows that it stood not out in the first Temptation, when it was brought into the spirit of this world, when the Verbum Fiat breathed it into the Image, therefore it flies now to the Holy Ghost, entreating, that he would not enter with its will into the Temptation, Proba, or Trial, for it trusts not in itself that it shall stand stedfastly against the Devil, when he shall sift it: as Christ said to Peter; The Devil hath desired to sift thee; but I have prayed for thee that thy Faith fail not: that is, I have enclosed thee in the Word, and have not given the Devil any leave, but I have in my Prayer brought thee into the will of God, that thou shouldst be preserved by the Holy Ghost; else thou shouldst have been sifted by the Devil, through the Anger and through the Spirit of this world.

78. Uns, this syllable once again comprises the Brotherly union, as in one will in the Majesty, and flies into the Spirit.

79. Nicht, in this syllable the will rends itself quite out from the root of the Anger, and retains a peculiar Government^{*} without the Anger, and then the soul burneth forth from the fire, and is the true Life without the Fire in the Light flaming Tincture in Air, and Virtue or Power.

80. Im, there it stands as a found and substance of its own, as if it were the Center itself: ver-, there it must with the will go through the fierce wrath, and mitigate or satiate it, and must cool it, that it might not inflame its meek Life: -such-, with this syllable it presses through the fierce wrath with its love-Tincture, viz. through the Center of Nature, and quenches the fierce wrath after a Divine manner, and drives the subtlety of the Devil out of the fire-source out of the Original, where otherwise he would have an access into the soul: -ungh, there the soul takes the virtue out of the seven forms of its Nature with it, as a Spirit, and sets itself mightily over the Center, and rules over it as a King over his Kingdom; for now it has overcome [or cooled] the Center with its Love, and will now let in the Tempter no more.

The Seventh Petition.

Sondern erlohse uns vom Vbel.
 But deliver us from Evil.

^{*} The Soul.

81. Son, in this syllable^{*} it appears in the Majesty with its virtue, power and brightness over the Center of the heart, and has a principle of its own in the Majesty: -dern, there it commands the fierce wrath in the Center, and rules over it, and tames it with its will [as may be seen by Moses, when the fierce wrath said; Let me alone, that I may consume Israel!]

82. Er-, there it brings a blossom and sprout out of the Center, and opens the Wonders of God; for it here goes about with the Center, as it will, for it has overcome: -lch-, that is the sprout, which grows out of the fierce wrath out of Nature, and is now lovely, good, and useful in the Kingdom of God: -se, there it continues to be fruit upon God's Table, free from the Anger.

83. Uns, there it once again takes the union of all souls with it, and lays it open there, that it was a root in the Kingdom of God before its Creation, and has now brought forth many, that is, it is a Tree, and has put forth many Branches, and presents them there as in a Tree.

84. Vom, that is the Great Wonder that God has made of one two, and yet it remains but one: It shows this; for you see that the Root in the Earth is another thing than the Stalk which grows out of the Root; so you must understand it also concerning the true holy soul; that grows as a Stalk out of the Root, out of the Center of Nature, and is another thing than the Center; and yet the Center generates it, and it moves in full Omnipotence over the Center, and rules over it as God rules over Nature, and yet there the Name of the Number Three in the Eternal Nature arises: And as God is free from Nature, and yet Nature is of his Essence or Substance, and unseparated from God, so is the soul also; it is free from Nature, and is a Lord of Nature, for it is one Spirit with God, and yet blossoms or sprouts out of Nature. Indeed God is not wholly to be likened to the soul; for God's Eternal will is a cause and beginning of Nature, but [the soul is to be likened] to the Majesty of God, whose brightness arises out of the sharpness of the Eternal Nature, and yet arises before Nature, like the flash of the Eternal Liberty, from whence Nature, in its sharp generating, receives the Luster, and elevates it in the fire, to a Triumphant high Light: for which cause sake, the Eternal Liberty without Nature longs after Nature, because it desires to be manifested in wonders, and will have Majesty in Glory and Power.

85. For, if there were no Nature, there would be no Glory, nor Power, much less Majesty; also there would be no Spirit, but only a Stillness without Substance [Essence or Being:] But thus in Nature there appear Power and Virtue, Might, Glory, Majesty, Number Three, [Trinity,] and Being, [Essence or Substance,] and are the Manifestation of the Eternal Being. Now, since the Soul, as a Spirit, is discovered and taken out of this Being, it has therefore two forms, one is Nature, and the other is the Divine Blossom, or the Sprout out of Nature, which is above Nature, and is a Spirit in itself, as God is a Spirit in himself, as you may see this by the Fire: The Fire is the Nature, and the Flame with the Air [or Vapour] which goes forth out of the Fire, is a Spirit with all the Power of the Fire's Nature, and yet is above the Fire's Nature, for the Fire's Nature cannot comprehend it; and so also the Fire's Nature could not subsist, if the Spirit of ^{Or rule it.} the Air did not blow up the Fire again.

86. Thus the Fire generates the Spirit with the Luster, and longs earnestly again after the Spirit, and attracts it continually into itself, and yet retains it not; for it is the life of the Fire, and the Glance or Luster is out of the sharpness of the Fire, yet there is no feeling in the Glance or Luster, and yet the Glance has the virtue or power, and not the Fire; for, from the virtue of the Luster there springs up and grows a sprout, and not from the Fire, as you may perceive by the [Sun-shine or] Luster of the Sun.

87. Now, seeing the poor soul in the heavy fall of Adam was captivated by two fires, viz. by that fire through which the Spirit of this world has comprised it in itself, under which lies the fire of the Original; therefore it would be again free with its Spirit-Life, in which it is an Angel, and the Image of God, and goes with its will vom [from,] that is, as a sprout out from Nature, and also out from the Spirit of this world out of the Wonders of God, forth from them; and stands rightly quite vom, [from,] that is, it:

has now the Virtue of Nature and Mercury, in the virtue and power of the Majesty, which is another Principle, and yet has also the severe fiery [Principle,] but not manifested; for the Holy Principle in the Majesty changes the fierce wrath into Love.

88. And if the severe Principle should be awakened again, it would be fire, and the first four forms of Nature would flow forth; and therefore God is become Man, that the Love-Spirit [might] have a Body.

89. Therefore it flies, (if it be yet unregenerated, and so sticks only in the Earthly Body) and saith, Erlöse uns vom Ubel, [deliver us from Evil:] It desires to be released from the Anger; for v-, and -bel, are two wills in one Substance: v- is the fire-child, and -bel has also two Principles; for the first letter -b- has the outward Dominion, and the other two, viz. -e- and -l- that is, -el, has the Angel, the will to be delivered from both, [viz. from the child of the fire, and the Spirit of the outward world,] not presently separated, (for it is the counsel of God that they dwell in one another;) but the Angel's will would be free from the falsehood; it would rule over the Vbel or Evil: He desires to be in the will of God, and the Vbel or Evil shall stand, the one [part] (according to the Spirit of this world) to the Wonders of God, and the other [part] (according to the source of the fierce wrath) to the Wonders of the Anger of God.

90. For both the Mothers are stirring, and desire to open their Wonders; yet the will of the soul would not go into the Anger; for it knows the Devil, that he is haughty, and flying aloft over the Love and Meekness of God, at which the soul is amazed; so also it would not willingly work in the Spirit of this world, for that hides also God's Light from it, and therefore it goes forth with its will from them both, and would be free in its will: The Spirit of this world may awaken its Wonders in the flesh, but it casteth its will into God's Spirit, he shall govern it; and he will not let the Vbel [or Evil] enter into its will: It desires [with its will] to be dead ^t in this world, that it may live in the Holy Ghost; so also it will not awaken the Abyss, and therefore it hides or shelters itself under the Cross, and lets the roaring Devil pass by; also it lets the Spirit of this world, viz. the fleshly Life, pass by, it does as if it were dead: It suffers, yet not in God, but in the Vbel [or Evil,] which the soul of Adam has left it as an inheritance; it holds not that Vbel [or Evil] for its own, but for the Wonders of God.

^t Or 10.

91. Therefore it remains patient, as a sufferer, (and yet also not a sufferer) under the Cross of Patience, till Christ shall settle it again upon the Cross, in the Rain-bow, [in the Eternal Substantiality, or in the Eternal Covenant:] For he sitteth on the Rainbow, and his body, his substance, is the fullness of Heaven, [or the Heaven is full of his substance.]

92. The three Colours in the Rain-bow, are the Three Principles, the fourth [colour] is his body in Ternario Sancto; [or in the Inward heavenly working power in the Angelical world, in the Eternal Substantiality, wherein the Divine Trinity worketh.]

93. O how great are the Wonders! he that comprehends them has great Joy thereon, there can nothing be named that is like those hidden secret Mysteries, no Tongue can express them: for what is better than to have God for his Spouse, to be in God with one's will; and after this [life] time, to be wholly in substance a heavenly body, and a Clarified or Glorified soul?

94. O Great Depth, why art thou so hidden to Men? It comes from hence, because they love the Devil, and the haughty proud fierceness, more than thee; and therefore they are not able thus with fierceness to enter into thee: O mercy of God! bring again the Tree which thou hast planted: Why should thy wrath boast, that it has borne more fruit upon thy Tree, than thy Love? Build again the ruined City Jerusalem, that thy Kingdom may come, and thy Will be done, who will give thee thanks in Hell?

Draw us yet in with thy Spirit, into thy Praise [or Temple, where they sing of thy praise.] How long shall Hell drop with fatness? Behold! it has opened its Jaws, and would devour us all: Come yet, and build the City of thy Court, that we may dwell near thee, that thy Wonders may leap for Joy, when thy Love-spirit^u Judges: Tarry not, O Lord, for thy Tree is become old for sorrow; [that is, the Number of virtuous people is small:] Bring yet forth the new green Branches, which against the Devil's will spring up through his Kingdom: Let the day break forth: Wherefore shall the night of the Anger keep back the Lily-Twig? O Lord, thy Tree grows through the whole world; therefore awaken us, O Lord, that we may eat of its fruit.

Of the Amen.

So be it.

And * Close [of the Prayer in the Language of Nature.]

95. A is the first Letter, and presses forth out of the Heart, and has no Nature [or fierceness in the pronunciation;] but we clearly understand herein, the seeking, longing, or attracting of the Eternal Will without Nature, wherein Nature is generated, which has been from Eternity. For the Will desires the Heart, and the Heart desires the Will, they are Father and Son, and the virtue which goes forth from them, is the Spirit of the Eternal Life, of which we^y formerly made mention.

96. Now, as the A is generated out of the Heart, viz. out of the Eternal Will, and thrust forth out of the Will, so out of A afterwards comes the whole Alphabet with four and twenty^z Numbers; for the A begins to number, and comprizes the whole Number in the [syllable] -men: These are the Wonders and Works of God, which appear in the spirit above Nature, viz. in the brightness of the Majesty; which you may understand thus: We are with our soul in a strange Inn, viz. in the spirit of this world, which holds it captive, and so it could not come into God, if God was not become Man, who has brought our soul into the Word, as into the Living Power of God, in himself; but now we are branches on that Tree, and must attract the sap of the Tree into us, if we would spring from the Tree; else if we only Imagine, [and reach] after the Air and Sun, then our Branch withers: Our Will must be put or grafted into the Tree, and that is^a Prayer.

97. When we Pray, then the will goes into the Tree, and attracts the sap of the Tree into the hungry, thirsty and dry soul, and then there grows out of that sap a Body, and then says the soul with great joy, -men, that is, it is mine, that is to say, yes, it is done, take what thy^b will desires: This is Faith, and not [the knowledge or] the History which Babel makes a stir about; for Prayer has two things in it; one is the Earnest Will, which presses forth out of the miserable smoky house of the Heart, out of the soul in great humility, and gives itself up into the Heart of God, which became Man, as into the Tree of Life.

98. And that is called^c Glau- [^d bele-:] and then the Will eateth of the Divine power, and that [is the other, and] is called^c -ben [^d f:] for the Spirit of the soul apprehends it, and holds it with the Tongue to the Teeth; understand it according to the Language of Nature; and lets the Holy Ghost go forth out of the virtue and power which the will introduces into the soul, out of the virtue and power which the soul has apprehended; even as it mightily goes forth out of the heart through the apprehended virtue and power through the Teeth; for in the virtue and power of God nothing consumes: The more the will apprehends, and the soul Eats, the more is the virtue and power, and the mightier and more joyful is the Body of God, that is, the Body of Christ; not that it is greater at one time than at another : No, for it is always greater than all ; only the virtue and power in the Great Wonders of Joy, climb up out of Eternity into Eternity, [or from Eternity to Eternity.]

99. Understand us accurately, according to its precious Depth, thus : When we pray, we do not only speak before God ; indeed the Will bows itself before God ; but it enters into God, and there is filled with the power and virtue of God, and brings that into the soul : The soul eateth at the Table of God, and this is that of which Christ said, Man liveth by Every word of God.

^e Introduction.

100. The Lord's Prayer is God's Word, and has seven Petitions, and an ^e Entrance, and Amen, or Conclusion, which together are Nine in Number, and the Tenth is God himself : With the Entrance of the Lord's Prayer, the will of the soul enters into the Father ; and with the seven Petitions it receives whatsoever is the Father's, for thereby it becomes an Angel again ; for in the seven Petitions it attains the Heavenly and Divine Center of Nature ; and in the Amen it comprises all together, and dwells therein ; for it is the body of the soul, it is the flesh of Christ, the body of God ; that is, the Ninth Number in Ternario Sancto ; herein is the Tincture Heavenly and Divine ; and the Tenth Number holds the Cross, into which no creature can go, the will of the soul only goes into it : The will of the soul is as subtle as the Spirit of God, and God's Spirit rideth also in the will of the soul ; it is his Chariot which he loves to have.

101. Understand us thus : The mere Deity is Spirit, and as thin as a will ; but it is ^f become Man, and the thin Spirit of God dwells in the Humanity, so that our souls may well come to God ; and so when the soul thus eateth of the body of God, then it gets also the body of God on to it, and is the child of God : God in Christ is the Tree, and our souls, in its holy Body, are the boughs and branches of it.

^l Or virtue.

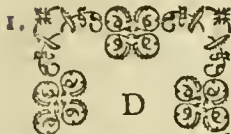

103. And so now, when we speak of the ⁱ Conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, we find that ^k He is the Tenth Number ; for it is said, Dein ist das Reich, und die Krafft, und die Herrlichkeit in Ewigkeit : Thine is the Kingdom, and the ^l Power, and the Glory in Eternity. That is, God himself in his Number Three, [or Trinity ;] for, understand it right, thus : The Kingdom is the Father's, he is it All ; and the virtue or power is the Son's, who is also All in the Kingdom ; and the Holy Ghost is the glory, for he possesses All in the Kingdom, and is the Life in the Kingdom.

104. And this Trinity is of the Eternal Liberty, and remains Eternally to be the Liberty. There is one God, one Will, one Spirit, one Lord, which together is called Wonder, Counsel, Power, and is become Man ; who is called the Prince of Peace, Saviour, and Conqueror ; and it is done to the End, that his Dominions may be great, and that Peace may have no End, saith Isaiab the Prophet of God.

The Seventeenth Chapter.

Concerning God's Blessing in this World. A very good and necessary ^m Revelation for those that are weak in Faith.

^m Or discovery.

1.  E A R Children, if we be converted from our Reason, and ^a give ^a Or submit. up ourselves into the will of God, that he may do with us, and make us, what he will, then when we put our trust in him, we go in to our true Father, and are his children.

2. And now, as a father cares for his children, so also God our Father does for us, as Christ hath faithfully taught us, saying, First endeavour after the kingdom of God, and the righteousness thereof, and then all other things shall be^o afforded you. Also, Behold the Fowls of Heaven, ^o Or added to you. they sow not, neither do they spin, neither do they gather into the Barn; yet your heavenly Father feeds them; and are you not more worth than these, O ye of little Faith?

3. The soul knows that this Garment (of Earthly flesh and blood) is a strange Garment, wherein it is heartily and deeply ashamed before the Majesty of God, and ^{} therefore it does so much doubt of God's Grace, when it prays; it always thinks its sins are so many, that it cannot reach into the Majesty of God. ^{} Note.

4. And such pain the Devil puts it to, who always opens his smoky Pit, with the Anger, and draws the smoke into the will of the soul, that it keeps back, and is afraid of God: The Devil always presents God as a severe Judge.

5. Thus the poor soul keeps back, and enters into the Spirit of this world, and seeks a livelihood and maintenance: It thinks God lets things go as they will, and that things prosper with those that build upon, and trust in themselves. For, when the soul thus sticks in Reason without God, it supposes that it must use carking and caring to bring it to pass, it thinks there is no other way, it must be done thus, the Labour of the Hands (or else cunning and subtlety) must do it; from whence so many ^p potent Evils arise. ^p Strong Delusions.

6. Dear Children, be rightly informed. The outward Earthly life is fallen home to the Spirit of this world, the Belly needs Earthly food, and the Body Earthly Clothing, and a ^q house to dwell in, after these things the outward Spirit must endeavour: It should labour and take pains; for in the sweat of thy face shalt thou (Earthly Man) eat thy Bread, till thou returnest to Earth from whence thou wast taken, saith God in Moses. ^q Tent or Tabernacle.

7. For the Body was taken from the Matrix of the Earth, and has Imagined [or put its Mind] into the Earth, and the Earth has captivated that again, so that it has eaten Earthly fruit; and so it is turned to Earth, from whence it was taken.

8. For God took it from the Earth, that is, [he took] a Mesch, a Mass or Concretion of † Red Earth, [^{*} Adam from † Adamah,] from the Fire's Center, and from the Water's Center, viz. from both the Mothers of Nature, and breathed into it the breath from without by the Spirit of the great World, and the soul from within out of the second Principle into the Heart. אָדָם *

9. The soul does not dwell quite in the outward, only it is captivated with the outward: Its will is entered into the outward, and there is impregnated with the outward Dominion, and so the outward Dominion is come into the soul.

10. And this was that which God did forbid to Man, that he should not lust after Earthly fruit, power, and virtue; neither was there any necessity that drove him to it, for he was in Paradise, and had Paradisical food without Want and Death; and as God dwells in the Earth, and yet the Earth knows him not, and apprehends him not; so also Man; he could have dwelt in the Matrix of the Earth, and yet have been with the soul in God, and the Will of the soul had brought divine food to the soul: but now being turned away, the soul eats of the Center of Nature, and the outward Spirit eats of the Earth: but if the soul turns, and goes with its will into the Love of God, then it eats of God's word, and the outward Body eats of the Blessing of God.

11. For when the soul is blessed, then God blesses the Body also, for the soul carries an heavenly Body in the old Adamical one: And so his meat and drink is blessed, and all that the whole Man does and has: he obtains a wonderful blessing which his reason cannot apprehend: he must labour and traffick, for therefore he is created into the outward world, that he should manifest God's wonders with his Skill and ^f Trading.

^f Or Handicraft and business.

12. All Trades, Business, and Conditions, are God's Ordinances; every one works the Wonders of God: and so now if the soul stands in the hand of God in his Love, then the body is in God's works of Wonder; and God has no displeasure at its Business or ^l Doings, whatsoever it does, whereby it gets its food and living.

^l Or Matters.

13. The outward Life consists in Three parts: one is the Dominion of the Stars; the second is the [one] Element divided into four parts, as into the four forms of Fire, Air, Water, and Earth; the third is the Dominion of God; for the Spirit of God moves upon the Water, upon the ^u Capsula, upon the Matrix. What Man soever puts his trust in God, and does not wholly set his heart upon his Reason, has the Spirit of God for a Creator; which Spirit of God has the Verbum Fiat, and creates continually: it blesses him in body and soul, in the house and in the field, in the work of his hands, his business and trading; whatsoever he does, the Spirit of God is continually in it, and creates, [or effects it.]

^u Or surface of the water.

14. How should it be otherwise? the soul has the Body of the Spirit of God; how can the Spirit of God then forsake the outward Body, which must open its Wonders?

15. Man does well enough, in every thing that is not false or wicked, and if it is not contrary to God, and the Love of Mankind: If a man did only cast stones into the Sea (if his brother is pleased with it, and that he get his Living by it) then he is as acceptable to God, as a Preacher in a Pulpit: for what cares God for ^z the labour? he has not any need of that.

^v Choice or Liberty.

16. Man has free will; he may recreate himself upon Earth, in what work he will; let him do whatsoever he will, it all stands in the Wonders of God. A Swineherd is as acceptable to God (as a Doctor;) if he be honest, and trusts only in God's will; the simple is as profitable to him as the wise; for with the wise he rules and governs, and with the simple he builds and tills the Ground; they are all his Labourers in his works of Wonder.

^z Height, Exaltation, or highest degree or measure.

17. Every one has an Employment [or Calling] wherein he spends his Time; all are alike to him; only the Spirit of this world hath its ^z pitch, which it distributes in its might, as the Spirit of God does in Heaven; there are great distinctions and degrees there also, as the spirit or soul is endued with divine power and virtue, so accordingly is its degree of Exaltation in Heaven, also its Beauty and Clarity, or Glory, but all in one Love.

18. Every Angel and Soul has Joy in another's Power and Beauty: as the flowers of the Earth do not grudge at one another, though one is more beautiful and fuller of virtue than another; but they stand kindly one by another, and enjoy one another's virtue: and as a Physician puts many sorts of herbs together, and every one of them affords its virtue, and all benefit the sick, so we all please God, if we give up ourselves into his will; we stand all in his field.

19. And as the Thorns and Thistles grow out of the Earth, and choak and spoil many a good herb or flower; so also does the wicked, who trusts not in God, but builds upon himself, and thinks with himself; I have my God in my Chest: I will covet and leave my children great treasure behind me, that they also may sit in my place of honour and dignity, that is the best way; and thereby he spoils many a good heart, and makes it take base and wicked courses, and thinks that to be the only way to get happiness; and so, if they have riches, honour and power, then they have goods indeed; but if any consider it, it is no better with these than others, and besides the poor soul is lost thereby.

20. For the Dainties of the Rich relish not so well with them, as a Bit of Bread does to the Hungry: There is every where, care, sorrow, vexation, fear, sickness, and at last Death: All in this world, is but mere foppery: The ^a Mighty sit in the Dominion of the Spirit of this world; and they that fear God sit in the Dominion of the Divine Power and Wisdom: The Dominion of this world takes its End with the Dying of the Body; and the Dominion in the Spirit of God continues standing Eternally.

Rulers and Magistrates.

21. It is a very lamentable thing, that Man runs so eagerly after that, which would run after Man, if he was righteous and honest: he runs after cares and sorrows, and they run after him; he is as if he was continually Mad; he makes disquiet to himself; if he would be contented, he should have rest and quiet enough. He puts an ^b eating Worm into his heart that plagues and torments him, and causes an Evil conscience that gnaws him, and he is a mere fool with all this: for he leaves his goods to others, and takes the gnawing Worm in the Evil Conscience with him from this world; and that which plagues him Eternally, that he holds for his Treasure. There cannot be a greater folly found under the Sun than this, that Man, who is the Noblest and most Rational Creature in this world, should in Covetousness be the greatest fool of all, to hunt and press so eagerly after that which he has no need of; for every one has his sufficient portion given him from the Spirit of this world, if he would but be contented with it.

^b Or Canker.

22. Thus one Man is a Devil to another; and they torment one another; and all the business is but about a handful of Earth, or for a Stone, of which the Earth has enough; and must not that be a Wonder indeed? Does not the fierce hellish Spirit accomplish its Wonders according to its wish in Man? As the Book of the Revelation witnesses; where one Seal of Anger has been opened after another, and Men are become the Servants and Ministers of wrath; they have willfully entered upon it with their Blood and ^c Goods, and thought they did God good service in it.

^c Or Estate.

23. O Blind Man! how art thou captivated in the Anger? what dost thou do, or where art thou? why dost thou suffer the Devil to befool thee? Heaven and Earth is wholly thine, God will give it thee all: He has given thee all: thou hast a Natural Right and Propriety in it; the Sun and the Stars are thine, thou art Lord of all; let now thy foolish will go: why dost thou give thyself up into Covetousness and Haughtiness? Does not the kingdom of God consist in Love and Humility?

24. Or dost thou suppose it is so good to dwell in the wrath? Behold when the light of thy Eyes does cease, then thou goest into Darkness, and takest thy folly, to which thou hast here addicted thyself, along with thee: Is then the Darkness better than the Eternal Light? Ask the Night whether it is better than the Day? or dost thou suppose that we are mad that we speak thus? we speak what we see, and testify what we know, and thou art blind.

25. Thus art thou blinded by the Babylonish Whore, which the Covetous Devil brought forth, when Men were secure and careless, when they lothed the Word and Spirit of God, as the Revelation of John testifies, saying; I will come and take away thy Candle- stick from thee: And Paul saith; God shall suffer powerful Errors to fall among them, that they shall believe the Spirit of Lying, which speaketh Lies in Hypocrisy and Deceit; [So that] they will stick ^a close to the Devils. But in the Last Time (saith the Prophet David) shall the word of the Lord spring up like grass upon the Earth: open the Gates in the World wide, and set open the Doors, that the Lord may enter in: Who is the Lord? he is the Champion in the battle; all swords and spears shall be turned into plowshares and sickles (saith the Prophet of God,) and it shall be done: whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

* Cleave or hang to Devils.

26. Therefore it is Good to trust in God; and though the Earthly Body should always lie in Dung, it is but for a little while, and no one knows what hour his Time in this world is out, and then follows the judgment according to his life: Therefore desist from Covetousness, it is the Eternal Root of all Evil, and of all Folly. A Covetous Man is the Greatest Fool on Earth, for he devours himself, and causes disquietness to himself, and so brings Evil upon himself by it: He knows not what Man it will be, who shall possess his Covetousness; and many times it is shamefully consumed in Whoring: That wherewith one has destroyed his soul, with the same another is frolic, in another foolery: For it must all come to its Effect. But he that trusts in God has continually enough: whatsoever he has, he is contented with it, and so he is much richer than the foolish covetous [person,] who oppresses the miserable for Money, which cannot prolong his life from Death, nor preserve him from Hell.

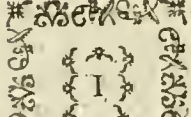

27. The Honest and Virtuous gathers treasure in Heaven, he gets a New Body, wherein there is neither hunger nor thirst, nor frost nor heat, and he has rest in his Conscience, and will Eternally rejoice in his Treasure: And the Covetous fool gathers an Earthly Treasure, which he must leave to others, and an Evil Conscience, and a Treasure in the Abyss, which will gnaw and eat him Eternally.

28. God's Blessing never leaves any that sincerely trust in God, and lets that go which will not stay: God has Wonderful ways, wherewith he feeds and nourishes his children; as Daniel in the Lions Den; and Elijah under the Juniper Tree; and the Widow of Sarepta in the Famine. He that trusts in God, has built sure in Heaven and on Earth.

The Eighteenth Chapter.

Of Death, and of Dying. How Man is when he Dies.; and how it is with him in Death. A Great Gate of Wonders.

* Or undergone it.

1.  Know that Reason will say: thou hast never ^e tried it, and thou art yet in this world in the outward Life, how then canst thou know this? Indeed, dear Reason, according to my outward Man, I must say so too, and I say the Truth as to the outward Man.

* Or determines.

2. But seeing we can Live both in God and in this world together; and seeing the soul, if it will know God, must with Christ press into God through a narrow strait Gate, through Death and Hell; therefore we have power to write of the way, and will set it down for a Memorial, since we are yet in this world: For God is wonderful, who ^f judges in a thing, and yet the Judgment is not executed in the thing at that instant : and so, though we are in the Earthly Life, we shall yet speak of the Life in Death, which we well know [and understand.]

3. For there is no knowledge incomprehensible to the Matrix of Nature, if the Spirit rides upon its wings, it goes through the three Principles, and if it rides upon its Triumphant Chariot, may it not then ride through Death and Hell? who can hinder it? And may not a soul thus behold the wonders of God, especially when this is the Time wherein all wonders shall be revealed, [or made manifest?]

4. We speak not of ourselves alone : The ^g Star is appeared which has broke the Seal : why dost thou long stand gazing? Observe it, the Time is come, there is no preventing of it more. ^g The Star of the sixth Seal.

5. All that has a beginning, has an end, that which is included in Time goes with Time again into the Ether : if we had lived in this world without necessity, and without Death, in a pure Body without spot or blemish, yet the outward Kingdom at the end should have departed from us, and so we should have remained in the Heavenly Substantiality, after the manner of Enoch and Elijab, as also Moses ; yet Moses entered through death, into the Paradisical Life : But Enoch and Elijab were taken up without Dying ; and there the outward Dominion with the spirit of this world was taken from them without Dying ; which will also be done at the Last Trumpet ; upon which will follow an Eternal Life, and an Eternal Death.

6. The true Man in the heavenly Image has no Time ; his Time is like a round Crown, or a whole Rain-bow, which has no beginning nor an end : for the Image, which is the similitude of God, has neither Beginning nor Number : it has stood from Eternity in the Wisdom of God as a Virgin without ^h bringing forth, or without willing ; for God's willing was the willing in her ; she has ⁱ appeared in the Holy Ghost with all the Wonders which we have brought to Essence and Light in this world. ^h Or Generating. ⁱ Or shone forth.

7. But she was without Body, without Substance, without Essences ; the Essences were out of the Eternal Center in her made stirring with their Creation, as in Three Mothers, according to the three Principles : That God would be manifested in all the Three Principles, was the Creation ; and that the Dominion of the Image did not continue in its ^k Order and Appointment, was the Death, in that the Middle gave itself into the outward, and the outward into the Middle, which is not the ^l Ordinance of the Eternity : and therefore there happened a Breaking : for the outward in the Middle has a Beginning, and a Number, and therefore it goes to the End, and must break itself off from the Middle again, and this the Longing-Desire has done, it has set the Middle (wherein there is an Eternal Life) outward, and let in the outward into the Middle. ^k Or Ordinance. ^l Order or Law.

8. Thus the Life consists in three Parts ; as first, the Inward, which is God's Eternal hidden Mystery in the fire, from whence the Life exists : And secondly, the Middle, which has stood from Eternity as an Image or Similitude of God in the Wonders of God, without substance, in which God's desire was to see himself in an image ; and just as a Man seeth himself in a Glass, so was this also : And so thirdly, this Image in the Creation has again got a Glass to see itself in, which was the Spiritus Majoris Mundi, the Spirit of the great World, viz. the outward Principle, which is also a figure of the Eternal [Principle.]

9. And on this [outward] figure the Image has so gazed, that it has imagined and received in the outward Image, which must now break off again : but seeing it is bound with its Bond to the Eternal Center of Nature, therefore it happens to be very painful to break off, as to that bond ; for there one Life is broken off.

10. And when the Air ceases, then the fire must be smothered, and go into its Ether, and that is Death: for the Outward Principle and the Inward break off one from another; for the Outward has a beginning, and the Inward not; and therefore the Outward must break off.

11. The outward consists only in the Sun's Tincture, and its Dominion are the Planets and Stars, who always drive on their Dominion to the Limit, [or Period of their course,] for Every Planet has its Limit in that Place it stood in at the Creation, and that is its Period, and its seculum, or course: and when it comes to that place or point, then all whatsoever it was wholly Lord over, breaks: for it begins a new course or seculum.

* Or Zodiack of the twelve signs.

° The Lord of its Ascendant.

◦ Note, the Calculation of Nativities.

12. But you must understand it aright [thus,] Every one [of the Planets] has not the Tincture of Life: Saturn, Mars, and Jupiter have the Great Life; Saturn separates whatsoever he gets in his Limit, he does it not [actually,] but he leaves the Life, and then it has no Leader, but breaks of itself, and so it is with the other [Planets.] But its limit or period must reach to the ^m Crown of the Stars, in that sign and point in which the Planet has its Limit and Period.

13. And therefore many a young Child, even in its Mother's womb, is old enough for Death, for its ⁿ Lord is at his Period, and leaves its child; and the cause why we cannot [easily] search out our End is, that we do not properly and exactly know the Limit of our ^o Leader: for we must know its Number or Period, and the Number or Period of the sign, if we will hit the Point of our Limit or End.

° Note.

14. Behold now in what Danger we are, according to the outward Life, neither are we at home in this Life, and yet we are quickened and awakened, through the outward Life, and so a soul comes to be generated: though indeed the outward life cannot generate a soul; * for the seed is sown with [or in] all the three Principles, and there are Three Mothers, each of which hatches its Chicken.

15. This Might was given to Man: though indeed the Image of God did not stand thus: For Adam before his Eve [was made,] was a chaste Virgin, not Man nor Woman: he had both the Tinctures, that in the Fire, and that in the Spirit of Meekness, and could of himself have brought forth after a heavenly manner, without dividing or rending of himself, if he had stood out the Trial; and then one Man had been generated from another, after that manner, as Adam in his Virgin-like manner was Man, and the Image of God.

° Or to Express.

16. For that which is out of the Eternal has also an Eternal manner of generating; its substance must go wholly out of the Eternal, else it subsists not in Eternity. But having no Tongue, to ^p bring to Light how one is in Death, when he is Dead, though indeed we understand it, therefore we must show it in similitudes.

17. A Dead Man has no breath, neither hath he any fire in his body: the Body has no feeling, for it breaks [or corrupts] altogether: its Essences go into the Earth: its Elementary Spirit, viz. the Air, goes into the Air, and vanishes in a vapour: the water and blood is received by the Water and Earth, and then there remains nothing of the outward Man: he is quite gone, for he has Beginning and End, all his Essences are gone.

18. Understand us after this manner: As the Image stood in a form from Eternity, and yet it had no certain form, but was a Wonder, like one that Dreams of a Sight or Image; and so it has been foreseen in the wisdom of God, with all wonders.

19. Also observe this; when God the Father once moved himself to the Creation, then he awakened (in the Image) Essences, which stood hidden in the Center of Nature; and these Essences are out of the Eternal Liberty, they should work their wonders in or according to the will of God; they should form no other will, for that which they should do and open, should stand Eternally, for it was out of the Eternal, and should work in the fragile or corruptible, and bring its similitudes into the Wonders.

20. For the fragile or corruptible has in the inward an Eternal Mother; and seeing now that the Eternal Image has let the corruptible into its Will, therefore has the Root of the Corruptible (which is also Eternal) wrought in the Image, and put its Wonders therein, * which continue now standing Eternally as a figure, seeing they are generated out of the Eternal: and so they stand in the Will, in the Desire of the soul, when it is departed from the Body. * Note.

21. And though it happens, that the Will (in the time of this Life, viz. in the time of the Body) goes forth out of falshood and wickedness, yet the Will [Purpose and Intentions] remains as a figure, which follows the will as a shadow, for it is generated out of the Eternal, the soul, in its Eternal Essences, has made that; for the soul works by its will in the Center, and the Starry Spirit works in the Body, in the flesh and blood, and hangs on to the soul, and makes the soul to long and lust, that it also may do as the Starry Spirit does. † The representation of the Thought.

22. * And so now what the soul does, it does in its Principle, in the Eternal, and all that follows the soul in the deceasing of the Body; only in the time of the Body, it has Ability to draw its will out from it: and when the will is renewed, then also the substance, which the will has made in the Center, is renewed; and though it had been Evil, yet it becomes Good, and so stands in the Center, to the manifestation of God's works of wonder. * Note. † Or subject matter.

23. Thus also we give you to consider, how the condition of the wicked soul is, which thus in Covetousness, Haughtiness, in Tyranny, and mere Falshood and Wickedness, departs from the Body, when all that sticks still in the will of the soul unconverted from it, in those very works the soul must Eternally swim, for that is its substance which it has here made [to itself;] neither does it desire any other: And though it offers to hate it, and seeks in the Center for abstinence [to avoid it,] yet it awakens but the fire-Root thereby, which kindles and increases this substance; for the Meekness [viz. the Water of Eternal Life] is not in its will, whereby it might quench the fire, and turn itself from the Evil into the will of God: and though it seeks for that, yet there is no finding of it. † Or swelter.

24. Then comes sorrow and lamentation upon it, and kindles the Evil substance many hundred times more, so that the soul desires to cast itself down headlong, and yet falls continually deeper into the Center of the Abyfs.

25. It is with that soul, as with one that Dreams, that he is in great Torment and Anguish, and seeks help every where, and yet cannot find it, and so in the End despairs and gives himself over to the Driver, [or Tormentor,] when he sees no remedy, to do what he will with him: And thus the poor soul falls into the Devil's Arms, and neither dares nor cannot go any further: but what he does, that it must do also.

26. It must be God's Enemy, and in high-mindedness, in its falshood and wickedness which it committed here, fly out in the fire above the Princely Thrones of Angels; and that is its recreation in its foolish sport; and seeing it has constantly (here on Earth in the Body) made itself a fool, there also it remains to be a Fool and a Juggler.

27. For every Damned soul goes forth (in its here practised false wicked Matters) in the Anger of God, as a Stout, Proud Devil; that which it has here acted, that it does there also; for that very Matter of Folly is its Treasure, and therein is its Will also, and its Heart, as Christ saith. † Note here the Treasure of the soul.

28. But those souls which at the End narrowly escape the Devil, and but then first enter into the Will of God, when the Body is deceasing, they are as one that is escaped.

from a fight, for they are quite Naked, and have little of the Body of the heavenly Substantiality; and they are very humble, and love to lie down in Rest, and so in the Stillness wait for the Last Judgment, hoping with the Clarification [Transfiguration or Renovation] of the Heavens to have Joy with all the souls: and although they have Joy with them, yet they see their substance under them, and are very humble in the Majesty: for their dwelling and delight is only Paradise, viz. in the one Element, but not Majesty; for the Clarification or Glory is different, all according as the Holiness and Love is.

29. But the Zealous souls in the Wonders of God, which here under the Cross wrought the Wonders of God in Obedience to his will, which are mighty in the Power of God, which have put on the Body of God, that is, Christ's Body, and walked therein in Righteousness, and Truth, all their ^o Doings also follow them in their strong Will and Desire; and they have unspeakable Joy in the Love ^x and Mercifulness of God.

[▪] Works, Matters, or Essences.
^{} Barmbert-zigkeit.

30. For the meek Love of God embraces them continually: all the Wonders of God are their food; and they are continually in such Glory, Power, Might, Majesty, and Wonder, as no Tongue can express; for they are God's Children, God's Wonder, God's Power and Virtue, God's Strength, God's Honour and Glory; they are his Praise, they sing his Song of Praise or Hallelujah in Paradise, in the Element, and in the Center of Nature; there is no awakening of the Wrath [there] in Eternity; but every Spirit in Nature is a Love-desire: they there know no Devil, Anger, nor Hell; there is Eternal Perfection: whatsoever the will desires, that is there, and all in Power.

^f Matter or Thing.

31. It is written, The kingdom of God consists in Power, and not in the Earthly ^y substance, for this Earthly substance is not from Eternity, therefore also it will not be to Eternity; if you will conceive of the Heavenly Substance, you must have a care that you bring a heavenly Mind to it, and then the Spirit of God will well show the Heavenly Substance, it is much easier for the Enlightened to conceive of the Heavenly Substance, than of the Earthly: Let not the Reader Imagine the thing so difficult.

32. But in the Thoughts of his own Reason he cannot reach to it; let him leave off, for thereby he attains only a Glimpse, even as Antichrist has but a Glimpse of the Word of God, and of the Doctrine of Christ, and yet strongly supposes that he has apprehended the Word; but it is a mere foppery, their Crying and Roaring is mere Juggling.

33. If you have not the right hammer, you cannot strike the Clock that awakens the poor captive soul; Heaven and Earth and Every Thing lie in Man, you need but to use the right Hammer, if you will strike his Clock and awaken him out of his sleep: your Crying aloud will not do it, you will not be able to beat the Divine sound into him, if you yourself have it not: But those that have the right Hammer, they awaken him indeed: therefore all Teachers without God's Hammer, are but Jugglers, Hammers for the Belly, Hammers for the Ear, and no Hammers for the soul.

34. The soul dwells not in the outward Spirit; indeed the outward Spirit has insinuated itself as an Evil ^z Companion into the soul, but has not the Principle in it, wherein the soul dwells, but is only a cover and binderance to it.

35. And so also the Antichrist is but a binderance to the poor soul; for if the poor soul was not so fast-tied and bound to the Crying, which only fills people's Ears in Sermons, it would enter into itself, and seek itself, it would endeavour after amendment and abstinence from sin; but now it supposes that to be Holiness which enters in at the Ear, and yet many times there is nothing but Dross, Filth, and Reproach against Love and Concord in it.

36. What shall a Man say? Is not all quite blindfolded and full of Hypocrisy; every one endeavours after nothing but for the Belly; both the Shepherd, and the Sheep, the Superior [or Magistrate,] and the Inferior [or Subject;] the Spirit of God is very scarce and rare among them, and though they boast much of it, yet it is but a show of holiness and hypocrisy, where the Heart knows little of the Spirit of God, it is a mere Notional Conjectural knowledge, and a matter without spirit.

37. O thou worthy Christianity, behold thyself: O Europe, Asia, and Africa, open your Eyes and look upon yourself; do but ^b seek yourself. Let every one seek himself, or else it will not be well with him: There is a strong Bow bent: Fall into the Arms of the Archer, and be converted, and find thyself, or else thou wilt be shot away [as an arrow out of a Bow.] Be not rocked asleep by children, but rise and walk upon thy own feet: It is high Time, the sleep is at an End: The Angel has sounded his Trumpet, do not draw back: Consider what the Revelation of Jesus Christ saith, That those which hang to the Whore of Babel, [that is, to the Confusion,] will go along with her into the Lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; [viz. the Lake of God's Anger, which burneth with Judgment, Famine, and Pestilence, which will sweep the whole Earth.]

^a Or Thing, or confused Medley.
^b Or Examine.

38. For the Whore will not be converted, she must ^c drink of the Dregs of that Cup which she has filled; therefore let every one himself open his own Eyes, for God is Great, who will Judge her: She will continue, and go on in her sins, and at length Despair: She cries, Mordio, [Murder, Murder,] and yet none hurts her, but it is her own Evil that plagues and torments her, viz. the Hypocrisy, supposed Holiness, High-mindedness, and Covetousness: She has Wolves that bite and tear her, yet they are but Wolves that do so, and are none of the sheep.

^c What measure she hath meted to others, shall be meted to her.

39. Therefore it is necessary to awake, not in much searching after Opinions and Fooleries, but in seeking thyself; for much searching, without Conversion from Evil, is mere deceit, and seduction from this way: And though thou shouldst read this a thousand Times without Conversion of thy will, thou wouldst understand as much of it, as the Ass does of the ^d Psalms; and just thus it is with the Belly-Priests, the Antichrist.

40. Do you suppose it a slight matter, to set an Ass upon a kingly Throne? How then shall the Belly-Ass stand before God, who sets himself with an Ass's Heart in the Throne of Christ, which is the dwelling place of the Holy Ghost, only for the sake of Gain, Honour, and Esteem, and is merely a Teller of Stories, or Relator of a History, without any knowledge; and besides is full of blasphemy and wickedness? Or, dost thou suppose thou art fit enough to sit in the Throne of Christ, when thou hast studied some Arts and foreign Languages? Pray consider! Look upon God's choice, upon Abraham, and the Patriarchs, also upon Moses and the Shepherds, also upon the Prophets and Apostles, and thou wilt soon see whom God chuses, and whether he chuses Art or Spirit.

41. Therefore be warned, let every one consider the state and condition he is in: He that worketh, worketh the Wonders of God, and goes in simplicity with his will into God's will, and hangs as a child to God: He has but two ways to go, one in his work, wherewith he may sustain his body, the other in the will of God, and so puts his trust in God, let him make and do with him what he will; and wheresoever he is, or whatsoever he is going about, he saith, Lord, it is my Employment, or Calling, thy Will be done, give me what is good for me; and such go on very rightly in God's works of Wonder.

42. But he that is chosen by Nature to be a Ruler, Governor, or ^e Leader, especially in a spiritual state and condition, he ought well to have a care of his Doings, that he does not go without his Weapons, or Armour; for he leads the flock of Christ: He is a ^f Shepherd, the Wolf is continually about him.

^e Or Captain.

^f Or Pastor.

43. If he is watchful, and considers that he has Christ's sheep under his keeping, and feeds them right as a faithful Shepherd; then the Shepherd's Crook shall be a Great Glory to him in the Eternity : But if he seeks only the Wool, viz. his own Honour and Esteem, Might, Power, and Authority, Pomp, State, Glory, and Voluptuousness, and spends or consumes the Sheep's Pasture, and does not give them food and drink, but is a lazy sleeper, snoring in fleshly Lust and Pleasure, while one Sheep is going astray here, and another there, being scattered, and liable to be devoured by Wolves; and such as will not go in by the Door of the Sheepfold, but climb up on the outside, and only contrive how they may by cunning, subtlety, and crafty tricks, steal away their food, and ⁸ shear off their wool : All such are of the Number of Wolves, and have not the Shepherd's Crook of Christ; but they have and use the Devil's Shears, and must hereafter howl with the Wolves.

⁸ Or fleece them.

44. How may any call himself a Shepherd of Christ, who is not chosen to be a Shepherd by the Spirit of Christ? Or may a Wolf make a Shepherd over the Sheep? Are they not ^{*} both Wolves? or, do we speak from conjecture? It is not so in the Order of Nature, for an evil Thing cannot produce a good thing out of itself, but one evil Thing generates another.

^{*} He that makes, and he that is made a Shepherd or Pastor.

⁹ Every word that is spoken by any, whatsoever they are.

45. How then can one wrathful Soldier ^h appease another furious Soldier, who fully purposes to kill, slay, and murder? Or how wilt thou awaken the Holy Ghost in Man, seeing there is only the Spirit of this world in thy voice? That cannot be, unless it were already awakened in the Hearer, who bears the voice of the Holy Ghost in ⁱ all words which are spoken of the wonders [or works] of God.

46. And, if an Ass could speak, and should speak of God's Word, the Hammer of the Awakener would then strike in the soul which is in God: Whosoever is of God, heareth God's Word, saith Christ; ye therefore hear not, because you are not of God, but of the Devil, and of the spirit of this world.

47. In some there is no Word or Spirit of God at all to be awakened; for the wrathful Matrix has captivated them; which is plain and manifest in some to whom Christ himself spoke: He had the Hammer indeed, but his Spirit enters not into the malicious obstinate soul, but into those, who would fain be virtuous, honest, and godly, if they could: And when once the Hammer thus awakens the Spirit of the soul, that the soul turns and casts itself into God, then it can.

^{*} The Old Adam.

48. The ^k Old Man should not have the Dominion, but the Spirit of God should have it; else there is no ability, but a keeping back by the Wrath; for there is a Twofold Longing or seeking in the soul: One is the fire's greedy covetous fierce Longing, which always seeks after Earthly Matters; and the other is from the Spirit, which is brought forth out of the Fire, wherein the right Life of the soul in the Image of God is understood, that is, God's Longing, which seeks the Kingdom of Heaven.

49. And so when the right Hammer (viz. the Spirit of God) strikes in it, then that Longing is so strong, that it overcomes the Fire-source and Longing, and makes it meek, so that it desires the Longing of Love, viz. the Longing of the Soul's Spirit; and there is good to be done: Such a Soul is easy to be awakened, so as to subdue the outward Dominion, especially when the Hammer of the Holy Ghost sounds through the Ears into the Heart, then the Tincture of the soul receives it instantly; and there it goes forth through the whole soul, through both the Longings, for it casts itself into one will; for two wills do not subsist in Eternity, there must be but one; one of them must be impotent, or of no Might, and the other Omnipotent, or Almighty, or else there is disunion, and no agreement.

50. For that is the right [or true property] of Eternity, and of the Eternal subsistence, to have but one only will: If it had two, one would break or destroy the other, and so there would be strife: Indeed the Eternity consists in many Powers and Wonders, but its Life is merely and only the Love, out of which go forth Light and Majesty: All Creatures in Heaven have but one will, and that is inclined into the Heart of God, and goes into God's Spirit, even into the Center of Multiplicity in the springing and blossoming; but God's Spirit is the Life in Every Thing.

51. The Center of Nature affords the substance, and the Majesty affords power; and the Holy Ghost is the bringer forth: He has the Predominancy, and it has been so from Eternity but in an Invisible substance ¹ before the Creatures: There is nothing New in Hea- ¹ Or to. ven that was not before, but only that the substance is become palpable and comprehensible: God himself has shown forth himself in Similitudes and Images, else all had been but merely and only God: The Devil is God's; he is his wrath or fierceness in the most inward Center, which is also the most outward, for his kingdom is the Darkness in Nature, as is before mentioned.

52. Therefore Man should have a care of himself, and endeavour to ^m propagate or put forth himself, for he is a root in the soil of God, and has gotten the Spirit of understanding: He must ^m bring forth fruit out of the spirit of the soul, in the power of the Holy Ghost, not according to the form and manner of Darkness, but out of the Power of the Light; for whatsoever grows out of the Power of the Light, that belongs to God's Table; and whatsoever grows out from Darkness, which remains a fruit in Darkness, belongs to the Darkness in the Abyss in the Wrathful Matrix, [or in the fierce Genetrix.] ^m Bring forth or regenerate himself.

53. After this [Life] time there is no recalling; for, as an Herb is sprung up and grown, so it remains, and so it relishes, and is afterwards desired for food only of those that are of the same essences [or quality;] but those that have not the same essences, desire it not for food, neither do they gather it into their Barns.

54. Therefore, let every soul try and examine itself, and consider what kind of fruit it is: It is good converting while we are here in this Life, and to prune off [the Evil] Branch, and to send forth a better from its root: But when the Great Reaper comes, he cuts off all, one and other, and then the weeds and evil branches are bound in Bundles, and cast into the fire; but the good herbs are set upon God's Table.

55. We have very faithfully opened this according to our Gifts, and whosoever is hungry let him eat, and whosoever thirsteth let him drink; they may have it without money, that our Joy in God may be full, and that we also may have to eat in the ⁿ other ⁿ The world to come. world. Hallelujah. Amen.

8.	How the soul attains the Flesh of Christ even in this Life-time	76	13.	The Author asks whether Christendom thinks him mad or no	62
11.	The Author shuts not up the Grace from any, but writes why Christ is born	31	6.	The vain Boasting of the Name Christian or Jew	25
11.	Reason asks how we can be in the Body of Christ	68	15.	How a sincere Christian knows not himself	26
11.	Men must enter into the Temple of Christ, else they stay in Darknes	79	6.	The Christians say yea, in the Parable of the two sons	27
11.	How Christ warns us, his appearing is as the Lightning	83	6.	The Christians judge and condemn that in others, which they themselves do	29
11.	Christ is the Way, the Door, and a good Shepherd	84	6.	Christians should not be Judges, but Lights to the world	30
11.	It is not necessary to chuse any place to find Christ in, he is every where. Christ is our Carcase, to whom we fly as Eagles	87		Church. Churches.
13.	How Christ will be with us, and take care for us	2	7.	He that rests contented with mere going to Church, is as well before as after he comes there	2
13.	Christ gave his Disciples no Earthly Transitory thing	13	7.	The false Magus cries, here is the Church of Christ, but it is the Whore	57
13.	The Apostles did not eat the outward Flesh of Christ	14	9.	For whom it is best to stay from Church	28
13.	A plain (though to Reason a high) similitude of eating the Body of Christ	15	11.	How one may be alone in a Wilderness, and yet in the Congregation or Church of Christ at the same time	67
13.	Another similitude of eating that Body of Christ which is every where	16	11.	The Church of Christ is every where. A Repentant Turk is in Christ	89
13.	Christ feeds not the soul with Spirit, but with Body	17	11.	What it is the Antichrist scandalizes the Church of Christ with	100
13.	How the once received Body of Christ departs not from us, except we ourselves like Adam spoil it	21	12.	The Author declares his hearty love to the Church or Congregation of Christ	9
13.	How there were in the hand of Christ two Kingdoms at once	23	13.	When the Romish Church lost the Jewel, it became Babel	5
13.	How Christ standeth in the Father, as the Sun in the Elements	29	14.	How the Priest-Devil has made the Church and Congregation of Christ stark blind	23
14.	How Christ is reproached	17	9.	The Devil most readily drives the distressed soul into the stone Churches	24
14.	It is no slight Matter to put on the Garment of Christ	22	11.	The author would not have the stone Churches destroyed; but he shows the Hypocrites; and shows also the living Temple of Christ	73

Chap.	Circle.	Verse.	Chap.	Created.	Verse.
11.	How each Circle in the wheel of Nature gives its own inclination to its Creature	3	14.	Admonition to consider whence we are, and to what End we were Created	1
11.	Of the Circle between the Moon and the Earth: also of the property of the Moon and of the Earth	4	5.	The Author will rightly show the Creation, to the Children of God	124
	Clergy.		6.	As all things were formed in the Creation, so our Mouth forms them	2
5.	The worldly Governments have their Original from the heavenly, which the spirituality or Clergy believe not	62	6.	Why the Seekers have not found the Pearl of the Creation	17
12.	The Clergy have Thievishly dealt with the Congregation of Christ	19	7.	Without the Creation of the world, the wonders of this world had not been known to the Angels	23
15.	How the appearing holy Clergy have the predominancy in the world	19	7.	How the Eternity has moved itself to Creation	75
16.	By the Elder Son in the Parable, the appearing holy Clergy are decyphered	24	10.	The Ground of the Creation is clearly to be understood by the inward Man	11
	Conceits.		10.	Of the Creation of the Fifth Day; also the Creation of the Elementary spirits	20
4.	All Conceits are Graven images in the Wonders of God	50	11.	How God on the Fifth Day created all Living Creatures	2
	Contrariety.		11.	The Life of the Creatures consists in the Matrix, out of which they are Created	9
2.	Whence Contrariety, Anguish, and Cold arise	14		Cross.
	Conversion. Convert.		8.	What the hanging on the Cross was	71
18.	Reading without Conversion is as Beneficial as a Psalter to an Ass	39		Damned.
8.	It is good to Convert in this Life-time	54	2.	The several kinds and Conditions of the Damned are not only four, but infinite: they have all forms but the Light	56
	Corporeity.		18.	The Fooleries acted here are the Treasure of the Damned soul	27
4.	The seventh Form is a substantial Form, out of which Corporeity proceeds, which consists also of two Forms, Light and Darknes	12		Dark. Darknes.
	Corruptibility. Corruptible. Corruption.		1.	Of the Forms in the Dark Nature: the Darknes longs after the Light	27
18.	Of the Corruptibility	10	2.	Of Darknes: according to which God is said to be a consuming Fire	90
18.	How that which is Corruptible, has an Eternal Mother; also wherefore the wonders shall continue eternally	20	5.	Out of what Darknes is generated; also of the Father's property	20
1.	Whence Corruption and Torment arise	30	5.	How the Flesh expels the Darknes	38
	Covenant.		6.	God is not guilty of any one's remaining in Darknes	18
11.	Why God made his Covenant with us in Christ	27		Day.
	Covetous. Covetousness.		17.	It is asked whether the Night or the Day is best	24
17.	The wicked Covetous Person has his God in his Chest	19		Death.
17.	An admonition to depart from Covetousness	26	2.	How Death trembles at the Life	72
	Councils.		8.	What is, and is called Death	37

	Deity.		5.	Why the Devil is called a Prince of this World	18
1.	The pure Deity, the Birth of the Trinity, and the Angelical world, are every where present	48	5.	A Prince does as readily serve the Devil, as a poor Shepherd does; yet each of them bears his Office for God	65
2.	The Author will show the Form of the Deity	59	8.	When it is that the Devil stands in fear	12
2.	The Deity is subject to no alteration	66	9.	The Devil and this world strive with the soul	5
4.	Without and beyond Nature, the Deity is called Majesty; and in Nature is called Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Wonder, Counsel, Power	86	9.	The Tricks of the Devil when the soul bears any thing taught concerning the New Birth	25
16.	Of the Pure Deity; also how the soul attains the Body of God, and becomes the child of God	101	9.	The Tricks of the Devil when the Teacher slanders, and when he reproves fully according to his Duty	26
	Deliverance.		9.	The Devil has kindled the Life of the Evil Beasts in himself: Also in what Forms the Devils shape their Bodies in Hell	56
3.	Of the Deliverance of the soul	57	10.	The Devil dwells near us: He hates the Light, and is the poorest Creature in the Croton	23
3.	In what manner the soul has Deliverance	58	14.	Of our Misery; of the Great Assaults of Satan against Man: Also where it is that the Devil has Power	30
	Departs.		14.	How the Devil has gotten Power in the outward Dominion: Also how the poor soul is between two Dominions in the Deep	49
18.	How the soul is, that Departs from the Body without Conversion	23	14.	How the soul is released from the Devil	50
	Desire.		14.	Of the seven cords of the Devil, with which he holds the soul fast	51
2.	What the Desire is, and what it works	11	14.	How those must do, (to whom the Devil sets all the sins they have committed before their Eyes,) that the Devil may be faint and weak	64
2.	What the Impregnation of the Desire is, whereby it generates	12	14.	How the Devil betrays the soul. Man is the Devil's best beloved Lodging	65
7.	Of the Desire of the Light, and of the Desire of the Fire	67	14.	Where it is that the Devil has power outwardly	66
8.	How the Desire makes not itself, but is made	52	16.	How the Devil overwhelms the soul terribly	7
8.	Whence our Desire after the highest Good proceeds, and whence it has its sustenance	55	16.	In what Manner the Devil assaults the soul in its security	16
9.	The first Desire of Man, is for Power, Honour, and Glory	19	17.	One Man is a Devil to another	22
9.	The second Desire, is for Riches, Plenty, and Voluptuousness	20	2.	How the Devils lost the Light of God, and now are in the four Forms	48
9.	The Third Desire, is for the Kingdom of Heaven	21
9.	How the Desire goes inwards into itself to God	69
10.	All lies in the Will: the Desire assumes where nothing is	9
10.	The Desire and the Will are two distinct things.	13

4.	The Devils stand in the Wonders of God	90	17.	How the Devil brings Doubting into the Soul, and makes a severe Judgment of God	4
7.	Why the Devils are not transitory	16		Driver.
7.	How the Devils are Eternal Spirits in the fierce Matrix, and are a Looking-Glass for Angels and Men	17	11.	A Song concerning the Fall of the Driver, who has set us at odds	114
7.	Whence the Original of the Devils is, wherein all Corporeity does consist	69		Die. Dies. Dying.
8.	How the Devils have lost the Tincture of Meekness: They have no palpable Body	39	18.	How a child in the Mother's womb is at first old enough to Die. Our Limit is hidden in us	13
10.	Where the Devils dwell: How the world scorns all Revelation	22	18.	The Author must speak by way of similitude, how one is when he Dies	16
11.	Of the Great Mystery of the Anger, and of the Devils: Also of the two Dominions in Man: Also of the Totally false Soul's Figuration, outwardly courteous, and inwardly a Devil, which so betrays itself	42	12.	How the simple Dying Man knows not whither his soul shall go	26
	Divines.		12.	Where the simple Dying Man's soul remains; whence Purgatory is framed; where the souls of the Deceivers-remain. Note, it is wonderful	27
2.	Physicians now understand not the Center of Sulphur, Mercury, and Sal; nor do the Divines understand the Spirit of the Holy Scriptures	17		Earth.
	Doctrine.		5.	Out of what the Earth, Stones, and Metals come	98
12.	Of the seed which the Antichristian Devil has sown into the Doctrine of Christ	16	6.	What the Earth signifies	64
	Doings.		9.	How the Earth springs in its own Life	58
17.	All our Doings are acceptable to God, if they are not false or wicked.	15	10.	Where the Devils dwell; also of the wheeling of the Globe of the Earth, and of the other Planets	21 &c.
	Doubt. Doubtful. Doubting.		11.	Of the longing of the Earth, why it wheels, or is wheeled about	5
7.	How the soul is kept in Doubt by leaning to Opinion	6	11.	How the budding forth of the Earth springs towards the Sun; also of the indurability of the fruits of the Earth	6
7.	It is good to see with our own Eyes, other's Eyes make us but Doubt	55	11.	Of the Matrix of the Earth, being a Corrupted Matrix; what it was before the Fall	8
9.	It is a great sin to Doubt of the Grace of God	35	12.	Whence the Divisions among all people of the Earth have arisen	18
13.	That Men should not Doubt in Prayer: plain instruction	56		Eat.
11.	How poor souls fall into distrust and Doubt	98	18.	He that hungers, let him Eat; and he that thirsts, let him drink without Money	55

Chap.	Man.	Men.	Verse.	Chap.	Man.	Verse.
1.	Man belongs not to the outward World		1		and the Kingdom of God; all Three strive about Man	17
1.	Man has a Threefold Life		2	9.	The Desire of Man stands in Three things or Dominions	18
1.	How Man may know God, and rightly speak of him.		45	9.	How Man follows all three Desires	23
4.	The Three Principles stand open in no Creature but in Man		58	9.	The Gate of the deep ground of Man was barred up by Adam, and opened to the Author	39
4.	How God in Love and Anger hath manifested himself in Man, and how the Omnipotence of Man was barred up through Adam		76	9.	What we must do to know what Man is	40
5.	According to the outward Man we are strangers in our Mother's House, and therefore understand not the Mother Tongue		24	9.	The Author begins to handle the Image of Man, how Man comes to be, or is incarnate	42
5.	How Man is drawn by two, and is in this world as a Balance		30	10.	How Man sees in two Kingdoms with a twofold Eye; the inward will should be Lord: What Man must do to be like God, and to find all things	10
5.	When the four Elements in Man break, then the Soul is either in Paradise or in the Abyss		126	11.	How God created Man to his Image; and Out of what he is created	10
6.	We wholly sleep in the outward Man		37	11.	Man's ability before the Fall, and his condition	19
6.	When it is that Man sees with his own Eyes		39	11.	Why God Created Man in a seventh Day by himself, and not that day that the Beasts were created: Also why he created but one Man	20
6.	Man cannot carry the Eternity up and down, much less the Deity; what that is that makes Locality, and why God is A and O		44	11.	How the Man sows soul and the Woman spirit: How Adam saved Eve, and Eve Adam	24
6.	All whatsoever can be named is in Man		47	11.	Of the Devil's practice in Man's carelessness and evil constellations	37
6.	The whole Man consists of Three Principles, and how that can be		48, 49	18.	How Heaven and Earth and all things lie in Man; also of the true Heaven	33
6.	How Man was constituted of Three Principles, and which they are		55	7.	What concerns us Men most of all	1
6.	How Man stands between the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of Hell, and is the servant of that to which he yields		56	9.	Men can better remember the slanders than that which concerns the soul	27
6.	The Fall of Man touches not God. How the number Three dwells in the Anger		57		Mary.
6.	How Mankind is without beginning		74	6.	The Error of the Ancients that supposed Mary was one come from Heaven, and not of Earthly Parents	76
6.	How the Eternal Flesh is hidden in the Earthly Man which must perish		97	6.	Of the Blessing of Mary, and how God and Man became one	77
7.	The soul must not set the Garland of Pearls upon the old Man		10	6.	How the Word became Man in Mary	79
7.	How children are begotten in two Kingdoms: Also of the strife about Man		33		Meekness.
8.	A Description of Man before the Fall, in the Fall, in the Regeneration, and after this Life		7	4.	Of the two Centers, the one thirsting after Meekness, the other after Fierceness. The Meekness is generated out of the Fierceness	67
9.	Hell in the Anger, the spirit of this world,			5.	How the Fierceness is changed into Meekness	21

CATALOGUE of the BOOKS

Written by J A C O B B E H M E N,

The Teutonic Theosopher.

1. A N N O 1612. he wrote the Aurora, or the Dawning of the Day; or Morning Redness in the Rising of the Sun: Containing, the Root of Theology, Philosophy, and Astral Science, from the true Ground. Dated June 2, Anno Ætatis 37. It had afterwards Notes added, with his own Hand, in 1620. Having been summoned, on Account of the Aspersions of the Superintendent of Gorlitz, and accused as Author of this Book, it was laid up by the Magistrates of that Place; and he was commanded (as being a simple Layman) to desist from writing of Books. Upon this, he abstained for seven Years. But being afterwards stirred up by the instigation of the Divine Light, he proceeded to write the rest, as follows.

2. Anno 1619. The Three Principles of the Divine Essence: Of the Eternal Dark, Light, and Temporary World. With an Appendix of the Threefold Life of Man.

3. Anno 1620. The High and Deep Searching of the Threefold Life of Man through, or according to the Three Principles.

4. An Answer to Forty Questions concerning the Soul, proposed by Doctor Balthasar Walter. In the Answer to the First Question, is the Philosophic Globe, or Wonder-Eye of Eternity, or Looking-Glass of Wisdom, (which in itself contains all Mysteries,) with an Explanation of it.

5. The Treatise of the Incarnation. In Three Parts. Dated in May.

Part the First, Of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ.

The Second, Of the Suffering, Dying, Death, and Resurrection of Christ.

The Third, Of the Tree of Faith.

6. The Great Six Points, containing the Deep Ground of the Great Mystery, and of the Three Worlds; and a brief Explanation of six others, or the small Six Points.

7. Of the Heavenly and Earthly Mystery. Dated May 8.

8. Of the Last Times; being two Letters: The First, to Paul Keym, dated August 14; and the Second, to the same, dated November 23; both concerning the Thousand Years Sabbath, and of the End of the World. They are in the Collection of his Letters.

9. Anno 1621. Signatura Rerum: or, The Signature of All Things: Showing the Sign and Signification of the several Forms, Figures, and Shape of Things in the Creation; and what the Beginning, Ruin, and Cure of every Thing is; comprising all Mysteries.

10. Of the Four Complexions: A Treatise of Consolation, or Instruction, in Time of Temptation. Dated in March.

11. Two Apologies to Balthasar Tylcken.

The First, in Two Parts, concerning the Aurora.

The Second, in Two Parts. Dated July 3.

Part the First, concerning Predestination.

The Second, concerning the Person of Christ, and the Virgin Mary; which he had wrote of in the Treatise of the Incarnation.

Catalogue of Jacob Behmen's Books.

12. Considerations upon Esaiah Stiefel's Book, dated April 8, concerning the Three-fold State of Man, and the New Birth; and of the last Sion, or New Jerusalem.
13. Anno 1622. Of the Errors of the Sects of Ezekiel Meths, or an Apology to Esaiah Stiefel concerning Perfection. Dated April 6.

I F we knew the precious nature and value of our own souls, we should acknowledge with an inward sensibility, the answer to Christ's Question, when he said; *What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own Soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? The soul is so precious, that nothing can truly be valued at so high a Rate. To save it is the greatest gain, to lose it is the greatest loss: then who will not highly prize the study and understanding of the way to save it? Christ saith, He that will save his soul shall lose it, and he that will lose his soul shall save it: But who understands this? We know it is the desire of every soul to be saved, and to be happy and glorious, but the way is very unknown to us poor fallen souls, for we can hardly suppose, that losing will be the saving of ourselves: Christ also taught, that the way to Glory was through many Tribulations and Death; this way he entered into Glory, and so have all the blessed from the beginning of the world, and can no otherwise to the end of it. But how shall a soul know the way to lose and deny itself, so that it may assuredly attain Eternal Salvation? Let it listen, in its Heart and Conscience, inwardly to that Teacher, which it shall find there, who is God himself: we have the Testimony of Moses for this, who told the Israelites, *The Word, the Commandment is nigh thee, in thy heart and in thy mouth, not the outward, but the Inward heart and mouth; as also the Apostle Paul saith to the Romans, that Christ the Eternal Essential word of God, the word of Faith which they, the Apostles, preached, is nigh us, in our hearts and in our mouths; and in another place he saith, Do you not know that Christ is in you, except you be past reproof, ἀδοκίμοι improbi? And the Apostle John saith, that God is Love, and he that loveth, God dwelleth in him, and he in God, which we all perceive is true, for in him, we live, and move, and have our being. And this may be known, though the Apostle Paul had not said it, for one of the Poets of old spoke what he knew, and said, We are all his Offspring, as the Apostle mentions it: Nay we all know, that he that doth well is the servant of God, but he that doth evil is the servant of the Devil who ruleth in his heart: and though there is none that doth good, no not one, nor can do of himself, yet through Christ in him, he can desire to do well, and be sorry when he has been drawn away to do evil by the lusts of his own heart, by which the Devil tempts us to do evil; but if we will resist the PREFACE to the READER.

Devil, he will fly from us ; if we will leave off to do evil, and desire, try, and learn to do well, without doubt we shall be able, through God that dwelleth in us ; and then he will teach us all things, and lead us into all truth by his Spirit. All this we shall fully understand, and all Mysteries, when God shall manifest himself in us, if we earnestly desire it with all humility, self-denial, losing of our souls, and being nothing in ourselves ; for then God will be All in All, and nothing is impossible with God : All this, and much more, has the Author of this Answer to these Questions concerning the soul found true ; and out of his inward Mystery he has manifested many things in this, and other Writings, the knowledge of which will be exceeding useful in promoting the salvation of every soul. But as he is so deep in his writings, so we have need to desire that our souls may be put into such a condition as his was in, else they cannot be fully understood ; but the same God that satisfied his desires, will satisfy ours, if we cast ourselves upon him in our souls, and let him do with us what he pleases.

Thus our troubled doubting Souls may receive much comfort leading to that inward Peace which passeth all understanding ; and all the disturbing Sects and Heresies arising from the Darkness and Malice of Men and Devils, will be made to vanish, and cease by that understanding, which may be kindled in them from it. They that rule, will understand how to effect all their good purposes, to the joy and happiness of those that are subjected to their government ; and Subjects will learn to obey. So God shall be glorified by all men's love to one another, and peace flourish over all the Earth.

If some should think it so hard to attain the understanding of this Author, when they read the answer to the first Question (which is far more difficult than any of the other, because it contains the sum of them all) as to forbear taking so much pains as they suppose is requisite ; let them consider, if it should prove more difficult than other writings, the Profit will compensate the Pains with a hundred-fold advantage ; for all may receive according to their vast or narrow capacity ; only let not the Calumny and Misreport of others, hinder them from so great a Benefit.

THE Author wrote this Answer to these Questions, chiefly for his friend's sake that sent them to him, as also for the benefit of all such as love the knowledge of Mysteries: this friend of his was Dr. Balthasar Walter, who travelled for Learning and hidden Wisdom, and in his return home, happened to hear of this Author in the City of Gorlitz; and when he had obtained acquaintance with him, he rejoiced, that at last he had found at home, in a poor Cottage, that which he had travelled for so far, and not received satisfaction: then he went to the several Universities in Germany, and there collected such Questions concerning the Soul, as were thought and accounted impossible to be resolved fundamentally and convincingly; which he made this Catalogue of, and sent to this Author, from whom he received these answers according to his desire, wherein he and many others that saw them, received full satisfaction.

When they were first printed in English, they were presented to King Charles the First. And about a month after, being desired to say what he thought of the Book, he answered, that the Publisher in English seemed to say of the Author, that he was no Scholar; and if he was not, he believed that the Holy Ghost was now in Men; but if he was a Scholar, it was one of the best Inventions that ever he read.

Dr. BALTHASAR WALTER.

1.  Beloved Sir, and my good friend, it is impossible for Reason to answer these your Questions, for they contain the chiefest and greatest Mysteries, which are alone known to God.

2. Hence saith ^a Daniel to King Nebuchadnezar: That which the King ^a Dan. 2. 26-- asketh and desireth of the Learned Chaldeans, Astrologians, and Wise men, is not in their ^{30.} And such power. The God of Heaven only can reveal secret things: it is not in my Reason to answer ^{an answer Jo-} the King; but that the King may perceive the thoughts of his heart, God hath revealed it, ^{seph gave to} not that my Reason is greater than any man's living. ^{the King of}

3. So likewise I say to you: you shall be answered, not that my reason is greater than any man's living, but only that you may perceive the thoughts, the earnest seeking and desire of your heart, it is given me to answer you.

4. And you should not ^b, in such a Way, so anxiously seek after these things; they are in no outward reason: But to the Spirit of God, nothing is impossible: seeing we are the children of God, and in Christ new born of God, the son sees very well what the father does in his house, and also learns his Art and Work. ^b According to the Reason of the outward man.

5. Seeing, also, we are the mystery of God, we ought not to suppose, that we must not so much as look upon, nor meddle with such mysteries, as Antichrist teacheth; for none taketh unto himself any thing of God's Mysteries, unless it be given him: and St. James saith ^c, ^c James 1. 17. Every good and perfect gift cometh from above, from the father of lights, with whom there is no change nor alteration.

6. And seeing you seek so eagerly after such things, you become thereby even the cause of finding them; for God gives his mysteries both by means, and also without means; but that no man might boast, he often makes use of very mean people about them, that it might be acknowledged that they come from his hand.

The AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

7. You shall be answered with a very sound and deep answer, yet briefly comprised, not according to outward reason, but according to the spirit of knowledge.

8. And although I could sufficienly show and demonstrate these things in a larger description; yet seeing they are all described, and explained at large in my other Writings, at present I set them down but briefly for the ease and delight of the Reader, and that it may serve for a short memorial of the great mysteries.

9. But he that desires to know these things fully and fundamentally, let him seek them in my former Writings, especially in the ^a third part, and there he has the whole ground of the Divine Essence; and also of the creation of all things; of that which is eternal, and of that which is corruptible; and how every thing was made, and is come to be as it is, and act as it does, and what it shall be in the end.

fold life.

10. And therein also lies the Key of the Mysterium magnum, the great Mystery, so far as a creature is able to comprehend or bear, and thither we refer you for further explanation; and so I commend me to you, into the brotherly love in Christ. Anno 1620.

Jacob Behmen.

Forty Questions concerning the SOUL.

Question the First.

Whence proceeded the Soul Originally at the beginning of the World?

1. WE have, both in our second and third Book, sufficiently laid open the mysteries of the Soul, according to the three Principles of the Divine Essence; where also we have set down, by many Circumstances, the eternal Center of the eternal Nature; and also the Ternary of the Divine Essence; and moreover, what Eternity has ever been, and how the beginning of the Creation ^a was brought forth; and what an Angel, and what a Soul is: Also we have laid open the heavy fall of Lucifer; and moreover, both the Mothers which have so brought it forth, the one ^b procreating the heavenly Essentiality, and the other the Hellish, where also we have written of Light and Darknes.

^b Generating.

2. Therefore we shall not be very well understood by the Reader, in this Treatise, unless he has read over, and well ^c comprehended, ^d the third part of our Writings.

^c Or understood.

3. Although that apprehension is not in human power, yet the way thereto is very faithfully shown him; so that if he longs to attain it, he shall obtain a ^e Guide and Director (if he follows our counsel) who will show him the key of the Mysterium magnum, the great Mystry, leading to that precious Philosopher's stone, and to all Mysteries: let none think this impossible, for with God all things are possible: He that findeth God, findeth all things with and in Him.

^d Or book.

^e Leader, or the Holy Ghost.

4. Now you know, ^f according to Reason, that all things are originally sprung and derived from Eternity: This also the holy Scripture tells you: in God are all things; in him we live and move, and have our being, and we are his offspring.

^f In or by. Rom. 11. 16. 2 Cor. 5. 18. Acts 17. 28.

5. And although men cannot say of God, that the pure Deity is Nature, but that it is the Majesty in the Ternary, yet we must say that God is in Nature, although Nature can as little reach or comprehend him, as the Air can comprehend the Sunshine: However, we must say, that Nature is born in his will, and that it is a SEEKING, produced out of Eternity; for where there is no Will, there is also no Desire.

^g Glance or Luster, or brightness of his Glory.

^h Or seeking.

6. But in God there is an eternal Will (which is himself) to beget or generate his ⁱ Heart or Son; and this Will maketh the ^h stirring or proceeding out of the will of the Heart, which is a Spirit; so that the Eternity consisteth in ^j three Eternal Forms, which are commonly called Persons, as we have very accurately ^k explained it in our third Book.

ⁱ 1 Will; Father.

^j Heart; Son.

^k Proceeding, or Efflux;

Holy Ghost.

^l Declared.

7. Then if we discern and know that there is not only Light and Majesty, but also Darknes, as is plain, it concerns us to know whence Darknes arises.

8. For in the Eternity beyond Nature there can be no Darknes, for there is nothing to bring it forth: we must only look into the Will and the Desiring; for a desiring is attracting.

The First Question Answered.

9. And whereas in the Eternity it has nothing but only itself; it draws itself into the Will, and makes the Will full, and that is its darkness; whereas otherwise, if it was not desiring, it were a Nothing, ¹ but an eternal Stillness without ^m Essence.

^m Or Being.

ⁿ Moveableness.

^o Astringency.

^p Acidity.

10. Thus the Attraction makes ⁿ Mobility and Essences, which otherwise could not be in the stillness; and so also this makes ^o harshness, hardness, and drought, together with ^p sharpness.

11. Neither can we say that the Darkness swallows up the Light, as the Eternal Liberty; for that which is Eternal, cannot be altered nor changed: but yet we must say that Light and Darkness are in one another.

^q Or power.

12. Now the Light is good, and has ^q virtue; but the Darkness has the harshness, hardness and coldness: and the desire of the Will makes Essences and attracting, which is a stirring in the hardness; and if that which is attracted stirs by the drawing, then it causes a ^r jarring, whereby Light and Darkness are mingled together in the sharpness.

^r Whirling.

13. And we must consider how the free Light is sharpened in the Essence in the sharp stirring, whereby we come to understand the ^s fire-flash, and the eagerness; and yet we cannot say that there is any rending.

^s Lightening.

14. For that which is Eternal, without beginning, admits no severing, but stands as ^t a wheel, which begetteth itself in itself: whereof you have a similitude in the Mind of Man, where, indeed, there is a Will of a rising and running, but no removing: the greater the Will is, the greater also is the ^u Essence, and the more strongly it is sharpened.

^t Or Orb, or Globe, or Sphere.

^u Or Being.

15. Thus the Still Liberty, which is neither Darkness nor Light, is sharpened in the sharp Desiring and attracting, so that it appears as a flash which shineth.

16. Also, we cannot say that the Liberty holds or captivates the flash; for from Eternity it has had Nothing: but we can well say, that the Light and Splendour shines in the Liberty.

^w Or astringency.

17. For that which is free, lets in the Light; but that which is not free (as the ^v harshness which makes Darkness, and is material, to speak in a Spiritual sense) that does not receive the Light.

^x Mild or fluid.

18. This we can truly say, that whatsoever is transparent, and ^x not of a gross Nature, takes in the Light, as appears by the water which takes in the Light, and the harsh Earth does not.

19. Moreover in Fire you have a sufficient manifestation of the Essence of all Essences; for you see that the Fire burns in an harsh dry matter; for it is the harsh Desire which enters into itself like a great anguish, and reaches after the Liberty; where also it receives the Liberty, like a flash, and it kindles by the flash that it burns.

20. And although it must be understood that there is no such fire in the Eternal Essence, as that is which appears externally, yet it is internally in the harsh Desire, and externally it remains dark: Therefore the Eternal Fire is externally dark; and internally, as it is in itself in the Will of the Eternal Liberty, it is a Light which shines in the Still Eternity.

21. Now then, we understand, that in Fire there are ten ^y Forms, all which are born in the Will, and all belong properly to the Eternal Will; therefore we rightly say, that the Eternal Will is God's Will; and that the Liberty which has the Will, is God himself; for it is the Eternity, and nothing else.

The First Form.

22. First, there is the Eternal Liberty, which has the Will, and is itself the Will: now every Will has a ^z seeking to do, or to desire something; and herein it beholds itself, and sees in the Eternity what itself is; it makes to itself a glass of its own likeness, for it sees what itself is; and so finding nothing but itself, it desires itself.

^z Or longing.

The Second Form.

23. The second Form is the Desiring, and yet it has nothing but itself, thereupon its desire seeks a model of its own Will in itself, and makes itself pregnant, so that a darkness or overshadowing comes to be in the Will, which the Will would not have; but the Desire, the seeking causes it; and yet there is Nothing that is able to consume or expel the Desire.

24. For that which is before the Desire, beyond the seeking, is Free and a Nothing, and yet it is: yet if it were a thing that could be perceived, it were an Essence, and must subsist in that Essence which brought it forth: but seeing it is without Essence, it is the Eternity, viz. Good: For it is no source, and has also no Mutability, but it is a Rest and an Eternal Peace.

25. But seeing the immense Space is bottomless, therein being neither number nor end, and also no beginning, therefore it is like a Glass; it is All things, and yet as a Nothing: it beholdeth itself, and yet findeth nothing but an A, which is its Eye.

A A

26. AV: That is, the Eternal Original that something is; for it is the Eternal Beginning, and the Eternal End. Thus the Abyss seeth in itself, and findeth itself.

27. The A is below, and the V is above; and the O is AVge, the Eye, and yet is in itself no Substance; but thus is the Original of Substance: there is neither below nor above, only its Looking-Glass in the AV is thus a seeing.

* In the Text, AVge, which in the German Language signifies an Eye.

* As the sight of the Eye.

28. But whereas there is no ground, therefore its Glass is such an Eye as this ○; for God himself saith in the Revelations, ^b I am A and O, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

29. Consider us according to its precious depth; for we speak not here according to Nature in a ^c Form, but according to the Spirit above Nature in the ^d Divine Character T.

30. The ○ is the Eye of God, the Eye of Eternity: This makes, and is a Glass, and it is a round circle like a Globe ○, not like a Ring ○; for we cannot describe it otherwise. Hereby we mean the Globe of Eternity, wherein lies the foundation of Heaven and Earth, of the Elements, and also of the Starry ^e Sphere,

31. For it is a Globe ○ like an Eye, and it is ^f the Eye of God's Wonders, wherein every thing was seen from Eternity, yet without Essence, as in a Glass or Eye, for it is the Eye of the Abyss; concerning which we have no Pen, Tongue, nor Utterance, either to write or speak, only the Spirit of Eternity leads the Eye of the Soul thereinto; and so we see it, else it must remain in Silence; and this hand could not describe any thing of it.

32. Now seeing that in the Eternity there is such an Eye, which is God himself (and yet is not called God, but Eternity; and according to the Eye, he is called A and ○, before the A there is Nothing, and in the ○ there is All, and in the A and ○

Beginning and End) hence we find, that there is a Will in the \odot , and the Will is ^z Drawing or longing, or attracting. the \odot itself, which maketh the A, (viz. the Eternal beginning of the ^z Seeking,) so that the Abyfs beholds itself, and makes a Form in itself like a Globe.

33. For the Eye finding no bottom, it closes itself, and becomes like a round Globe of Glass; and so it is the similitude of Eternity, in that it can find itself: for there is no finding in the Abyfs, because there is no place or limit, but the meer Abyfs: and when it finds itself in the Eye, yet it finds nothing but the Eye, which is the Globe.

^b Or an Eternal Will. 34. Now the Eye makes the Globe, and it is the Globe, and all put together is a Will to seek itself, and so to see what the Eternity is, which is made manifest in the Eye.

35. For the Eye makes a Beginning and an End; and because there is nothing that can give it, it gives itself, and it is from Eternity to Eternity, the Eternity itself; it touches Nothing; for it is a Nothing in itself.

ⁱ Holding or retaining. 36. Then if there be a Will, which is the Eye, and which keepeth the Eye, that keeping is the Desire of the Eye; and so the Desire causes an attraction in the Eye, yet nothing is there but the Eye: and the Desire only attracts itself in the Eye, and impregnates the Eye with that which is attracted, so that it becomes full; and yet also nothing is there but a darkening of the Free Eye; yet the Eye is not dark, but the Desire in the Eye is impregnated in itself.

37. For the Will of the Eye is still, and the Desire of the Will makes itself full, and the Eye continues free in itself: For it is free in and from Eternity; and this we call the Eternal Liberty in all our Writings.

The Third Form.

38. Now a Desire is sharp and attractive, and that makes the third Form, viz. a moving in itself, and it is the Original of the Essences; and hence come the Essences in the Eye and in the Will, and yet the Will may not suffer itself to be attracted.

39. For its peculiar right is to be still, and to hold the Eye in the Circle in the Globe, and yet it cannot defend itself from the drawing and filling, for it has nothing wherewith it can defend itself, but the desire.

40. And here ariseth the Eternal Enmity and contrary will; the Will will not be dark, and its Desire makes it dark; the Will would suffer the Motion willingly, because it is its manifestation; but the drawing in, and darkening, pleases it not, though indeed the Will is not attracted nor darkened, but the Desire in the Will impregnates itself:

41. Now when the Desire thus sticks fast in the Darknes, there is a great anguish, for it is troubled and attracted, and also darkened, and brings anxiety to itself in itself, and desires liberty; and drawing so strongly at the liberty, would fain draw itself into the Liberty, and so it makes itself more eager; rough and hard, and the Darknes is like an horrible consuming sharpnes.

42. For it snatches the Liberty into itself; but it is so sharp, that it appears in the Liberty as a flash of lightening, which consumes the darknes with its eagernes: and hence ^{*} Deut. 4. 24. it is that God saith, I am a ^b consuming fire.

ⁱ Materia. 43. Hereby understand, how every ⁱ matter consists in the power of the true Fire, and how the floor shall one day be purged: for it is the Original of the Fire which has all power; for it consumes whatsoever the Desiring has made, whether it be stone or mineral, for it is the sharpnes of the Eternal Liberty, and makes the ^m Center of Nature.

^m Centra u Nature. 44. But that you may search yet deeper, know, that the Fire Originally consisteth in three Forms, viz. in the Desire; and then in the matter of that which is attracted, viz.

In the darkness, in which Essentiality proceeds from the Attraction; and thirdly, the Anguish source.

The Fourth Form.

45. And the fourth Form makes itself, that is, the flash, for the Liberty causes that, and is the kindler of the Anguish source. For the Desire in the Darkness would have nothing else but the Liberty, and the Liberty is a light without shining, it is like a very deep blue colour mixed with green, so that it is not known what colour it is, for all colours are in it; and the Desire in itself, in its eager anguish and sharpness, breaks the colours, and makes an horrible consuming flash in itself, and changes it according to the anguish, that it becomes Red.

46. Now the Liberty in the Desire suffers itself not to be bound or captivated, but changes itself from the Red flash into Light, into a ⁿ glance of the Majesty, and it is an exulting great Joy in the Liberty.

47. For the Eye is made manifest in the Light, and the ^o Essentiality is made manifest in the Will, and then it is known what Light or Darkness is: also thus the Eternity is known, and so God's Holiness always arises in the wonders from Eternity, and it has neither limit nor beginning, for it is an Eternal beginning comprehended in Nothing but only in the Wonders, which are its own Essence, where there is neither limit nor ^p number.

48. And thus nothing is known in the still Eternity, but the glance of the Majesty, and the Spirit which is born in the Will, and the Majesty has the ^q Dominion.

49. Beloved Sir and Friend, understand the sense right: we mean not, that the Birth apprehends the Liberty without, but within itself, in its Center, it apprehends itself in itself, and maketh Majesty in itself, and yet there is no including there, but it is, as when life arises from Death or from Nothing, which ^r dwells only in itself, and this is called a ^r Principle: and that wherein it dwells is called Nature, which has seven Spirits and Forms, as is to be seen in our ^r second and ^u third Book.

50. Yet this Principle has but one Spirit, which is the life of that Principle, and it has but one will neither, which is the ^x fulfilling of the Eternity with the glance of the Majesty.

51. For this principle is the Power proceeding from the will of Eternity, and the entrance, or the Eternal beginning of the Power, is the Life and the Spirit of the power, which thrusteth forth the Essences of the Genetrix, and opens the Original of the Majesty.

52. And the whole Eye (which has thus ^y made itself a Glass in the A and O) is all things, it is the Eternity, and in itself in the Eye it begetteth the Majesty, which is the Heart and Power of the Eye; and also the Spirit, which proceeds from the Power in the Heart, even from the fiery Light-flaming Essences.

53. Thus understand the Holy Ternary in one Essence: The Father is the Eternity without Ground, which is Nothing, and yet all things; and in the Eye of his glance he sees that he is all things: and in the Power of the Majesty he seeleth, tasteth and finelleth that he is ^z Good, that is, that he is ^z God: although the ^b T, (viz. the ^c harshness) arises in the Center.

54. And in the Spirit is the moving of the Power, and the Multiplicity without ground and number, wherein consists an Eternal unsearchable multiplicity, and all in Power.

55. For that which has no ground, has no number, nor is there any shutting up or comprehension therein, and that which is within itself, cannot be known ^d externally, but it may be felt by the Spirit: Thus the Internal drives out from itself, and manifests itself in Figures, or else God could not be known.

56. Thus God is together one Spirit; and is from Eternity in three beginnings and ends, and that only in himself: There is no place found in his sight; and he has nothing in himself, that may be compared to him; also there is nothing which can search and manifest any thing further than his Spirit; which always manifests itself from Eternity to Eternity.

57. He is an Eternal seeker and finder of himself in the great Wonders; and that which he finds, he finds in the Power: He is the Opener of the Power: Nothing is like him, neither does any thing find him, but that which yields itself to be his own, that enters into him: That which denies itself to be, in that thing the Spirit of God is all things; for it is one only Will in the Eternal Nothing; and yet it is in all things as God's Spirit itself is.

58. And this, my beloved Sir, is the Highest Mystery: Therefore if you would find it, seek it not in me, but in yourself, though not in your Reason neither, which must be as ^{† Phil. 2. 13.} dead, and your Desire and Will must be in God: and so God becomes the will and the deed in you: also the Spirit of God brings your will into himself, and then you may well see what God is, and what Spirit's child this hand is, and from what kind of Spirit it writes.

59. And I brotherly exhort you, that you seek not with such eagerness, you will not reach the bottom of it with such searching, although you are known and beloved of God; and therefore we give you this for a Rule; yet externally I have no power to give it you.

60. But follow my counsel, leave off your laborious searching in Reason, and enter into the will of God, into God's Spirit, and cast outward Reason away, and then your will is God's will, and God's Spirit will seek you within you.

61. And if he finds your will in him, then he manifests himself in your will, as in his own propriety. For if you quit that will, then it is His, who is all things: and when he moves, go you with him, for you have Divine Power, and then whatsoever you search, he is in it, and then nothing is hid from the will: thus you see in his Light, and are his.

62. And let no fear terrify you, there is nothing can take it away but your own imagination; let not that enter into your will, and so you shall work the wonders of God in his Spirit, and acknowledge me your brother in him, else I shall be but as one that is dumb to you: This I tell you for good will.

63. And seeing we write of the Eternity, to the end to satisfy your will, concerning the soul, (our purpose herein being according to the will of God,) we will therefore first show you the ground of the soul, and then its Original; and so open your eyes, that you may be freed from your laborious searching.

64. For you have now to your old age laboured in this kind, and so far as I understand, you have not yet found that deep Mystery in the Spirit: But seeing it is God's will that you should know it, and have it given you for a reward of your so great labour, therefore have a care that you receive it right; and then that you cast not the Pearl before swine, which are not worthy of it, nor will be worthy of it to Eternity.

65. For that which shall be revealed to you here, belongs to the Children of God, therefore be faithful, and employ it according to the Spirit, and not according to human reason.

66. For it is so sublime, that it will not endure earthliness which proceeds from Covetousness, Pride, Self-glory, and Arrogance, although you be not such; but look well into whom you pour oil, for it is poison to many: let others themselves seek as you have done; but give the Children bread, that they may eat, and praise Our Father which is in Heaven, for to that end it is given you.

The Fifth Form of Fire in the Eternal Will.

67. As we have opened an entrance and a glafs to you of the Eternal Original, from whence the Eternal fire proceeds, and what it is, so it is also necessary, that we show you further according to the highest depth, what the Eternal Nature is, in its propagation.

68. Wherein we must understand two Kingdoms, the one good and pleasant, the other an evil, wrathful, and ever envious sad one: of which the Philosophers from the beginning of the world have treated, and sought after it, but the time of finding it was not then.

69. But now it is at hand, that the hidden ^f thing should be found, not only by me, ^f Or secret Mystery. but also by many that will be faithful, and humble themselves in God, and seek in his Spirit and Will; it will be found in the Eye of God only, and no where else; therefore let none dive deeper in searching elsewhere, or he will find the Devil.

70. Seeing then the Eternity is thus, which yet is Nothing, and yet there is Light and Darkness, Life and Spirit, which are all things; and so there is a seeking (that, is a desire) in both, to find itself, though there is Nothing that can be ^g found but the Spirit. ^g Or that can find anything.

71. Now seeing it has nothing that it can find, and yet the Desire goes on Eternally forward, therefore the Desire is a figure of the seeking will, the similitude of the Eye of God, and it is as a glafs of the Eternal Eye, which is called God.

72. Now this is in two manner of ways, one according to the Light, and the other according to the Darkness: for the seeking is in both; and yet there is no departing of the one from the other; the Light is in the Internal, and the Darkness in the External, and yet that which is most Internal is also most External, but the Light is the middlemost.

73. For it is in the Nothing; therefore it cannot be the most internal, for it has no Place nor Limit; it is its own finding, which the Darkness findeth not, but the will in the Darkness, which desires the Light, goes out from the Darkness, and remains Eternally in the Light.

74. Now the Desire of the Light presents a Model like itself, wherein the Eternity is manifest; that is, all whatsoever the Spirit, in the Eternal power of God, finds in itself from Eternity to Eternity.

75. This Model is not God, the Eternity itself; for it takes its beginning in the Spirit, and it is the wonder of the Spirit which it seeks and finds from Eternity; and it is in the Eye of God as ^h a figure, and all the wonders of the Abyss of Eternity are therein, and are beheld in the Light of the Majesty, as one wonder in many Endless wonders. ^h The Model.

76. Also it is an Image of God, a Virgin full of purity and chastity, and no Genetrix, for the Holy Spirit only opens the Wonders in the Power.

77. Yet this Virgin is the similitude of God, his Wisdom, wherein the Spirit ⁱ discerns itself, and always, and in Eternity opens the wonders therein: and the more is opened, the more is in it. ⁱ Erblicket. Discovers itself.

78. For she ^k is without ground and number, and as unmeasurable as the Eye of God himself is; there is nothing like her, also nothing can be found, that may be likened to her, for she is the only similitude of the Deity, and the Spirit of God is her Essence therein. ^k The Wisdom.

79. She is a Circle and Model, which so opens our mind, that we see her, and God in her; for our will is cast into her, and she is in our Will: Therefore we speak of God, and see him in her, as in our Own propriety, according to the hiddenness of the Humanity; this ¹ sight is exceeding precious.

80. We must speak somewhat also of ^m Darknes: It is in itself an inclosing, though there is nothing which bars it up, but it shuts itself up, and begets itself, and is its own Enemy to itself; for it makes its own source, without Ground and number; and has no giver that can bestow this but the Darknes's own Form.

^o Or attri-
gent.

81. It arises from the first Desiring, when the Desiring contracts ⁿ itself and impregnates itself; so that it becomes a very stinging, bitter, ^o harsh, hard, cold, wrathful, Fire-Spirit: For the Desire causes harshness by the Attracting in the will, yet the drawing is stinging, and the suffering bitter: which the Will wills not, and therefore goes forth from the stinging, and enters into itself, and makes a peculiar Principle, wherein the Majesty appears.

82. Thus the great Anguish arises in the bitter suffering: and yet nothing is there neither that can suffer, but it is thus in itself, and it is its own Life: and if this was not, the ^p splendour of the Majesty would not be, the one is the cause of the other, for the flash is in the Darknes, and the Light with the Majesty is in the Liberty.

83. And this only is the ^q divorce, that the Liberty is a still Nothing, which receives the Light into it, and makes the Darknes material; and yet there is no comprehensible ^r Essence, but a dark Spirit and Power, a filling of the Liberty in itself, that is within the desire, and not without it: for without it is the Liberty.

84. Therefore God is the most hidden, and the most manifest, and that is the ^s Great Mystery, and the Abyss is hidden and yet manifest; as the Darknes is to our sight: But the source is unsearchable, till the Will sinks down into it, and then it will be found and felt, when the Will loses its ^t Light: And herein lies the Ground of True Faith: let this be told you, you Teachers in Babel.

85. Seeing then there is an Abyss, which in regard of the impression of the darknes is called Ground, wherein the source is a cause of the life, (for the wrathful flash is the awakening of the life, although it is nothing there but in itself;) therefore it is also a Desiring, and that desiring is a seeking, and yet it can find nothing but a glass, and a similitude of the dark wrathful source, wherein Nothing is.

88. As there is a Threefold source in every thing, and each is always the Glass, begetter and cause of the other, nothing excepted, all things are according to the Essence of the Ternary.

89. Seeing then there is a Glass in the Abyss, in which the source beholds itself; so it is also a Figure and Image of the source, which stands before the source, and does or brings forth nothing, but is a Virgin of the source, wherein the wrathfulness of the Flash ^y discerns itself infinitely without number; and always opens its wonders therein, by the bitter Spirit of the stirring Essences.

91. And in this Spirit of the Fire-flash consists the Great Almighty Life, for it is consuming; as the flash consumes the Darkness, and as the Fire consumes all things, and yet remains a Life in itself; yet it is an Hunger and Thirst, and must have Essentiality, or else it remains a dark Hungry Fire; a will to devour and to enjoy nothing, a will to rage and sting, and to find nothing but itself; whence Essentiality (viz. the water) and also Sulphur is generated, and generates itself from Eternity to Eternity.

95. But do not you seek, as Babel, that great City of confusion upon Earth, has sought; which we blame not for any thing but her negligence and carelessness, and for seeking her Own Glory and Power, and by that means has ensnared herself in the wrathful Anger of God; which has a long time subjected her under its wonders, and drawn many souls into its source. Consider this.

96. In the third Book of our writings, this is set down at large, and that book is somewhat easier to be understood than this is; but in this is the deepest ground of Eternity, so far as a spirit can conceive, for it cannot bear more, yet it may be described more largely, but not more deeply, for it is comprehended in the Abyss in both the Principles, for the soul arises in the Abyss in both Principles, and in the spiritual will, in the Eternity.

^f Threefold Life.

97. And yet if it be not wary and circumspect, the Devil may easily ride in its Chariot, viz. in its Will; but if it be circumspect, and casts itself into the Will of the Majesty of God, then the Holy Ghost rides in its Will, and it is his Chariot.

98. And herein you may now finely search the Ground of Heaven and Hell, of Angels and Devils, of Evil and Good, of Life and Death, if you seek, as we shall further direct you.

The Sixth Form of Fire.

99. Seeing then, two Principles are so in one Essence, (as no man with Reason can speak against it, for every life consists in Poison and in Light, each in its own principle, and according as it has the source, so has it also its Light,) therefore we must search what that is which sustains the life, that it be not starved, and what drives forth its source, that it can subsist eternally.

100. This now also has two distinctions, for the Light-life has its own source and driving, and the Fire-life also its source and driving, each in itself: but the Fire-life is the cause of the Light-life, and the Light-life is Lord of the Fire-life, and herein lies the Great Mystery.

^g Mysteries Magnum.

101. For if there were no Fire, there would be no Light, and also no Spirit; and if there were no Spirit to blow up the Fire, it would be smothered, and Darkness would be, and the one would be a Nothing without the other; therefore they belong both together, and yet divide themselves one from another, but without any flying away, and yet there is a flying of the Spirit.

^h Or removing.

102. You may understand it by this: Look upon the glowing Fire; first there is the Matter from whence it burns, viz. the harsh attracted bitter substance, which has an Anguish source, and is a ¹ dark Body, whether it be wood or any such thing.

103. Now when it comes to be kindled, you see Three Principles, first the wood, in the Darkness with the External ^k source of this world, which also has its own Life, or else it would not take fire.

104. Now the Fire has a wrathful, harsh, strong, bitter desiring ¹ source, which begetteth thirst, a devouring and consuming, and the great bitterness is its right Spirit, an Enrager and Awakener, which has all Essences of the Life in it, and it is the power of the life and of the driving, otherwise there would be no burning.

105. That makes the great anguish-seeking after the Liberty, and in the Fire it attains the Liberty; for it consumes the darkness in the fierce wrath, and also the Matter of the Fire, from which it burns.

106. And thereby we know that one Spirit, which divides itself into two Principles, into two Spirits, but not ^m severally, and yet fleeing one before another, and the one catches or apprehends not the other, and the one is the life and cause of the other.

107. And therefore they are two Principles, seeing they have a twofold source and life, and yet there is but one root from whence they proceed, and one of them affords life, and the other affords food for that life: This is a wonder, and yet no wonder, for there is nothing that can wonder at it, for itself is All things in one only Essence.

108. Now the fire in itself is first a seeking to draw into itself, and that is the substantiality, the Phur, for the seeking makes it in the Desiring by its attraction, or else there were Nothing; and the Attraction is the bitter sting, a destroyer, which the substantiality cannot endure, and will not suffer, and that not willing to suffer is an anguish, a will to overcome the substantiality with the bitter sting, and the anguish pierces into itself, and catches at the Liberty; and the Liberty is a light in comparison of Darkness.

109. Now the Anguish is an horrible sharpness, and thus the Liberty is taken and sharpened, so that it becomes a fire-flash, and the Anguish-will, in the sharpness of the bitter-flash, consumes the substantiality, be it wood or any other thing.

110. Now when this has consumed it, then the Anguish is a Darkness again, and the flash remains hidden in itself again; and is an Extinguishing, and the Anguish is in the darkness as at first, before the flashing of the Fire, and it remains only in a terrible source, where the bitterness is always made more terrible, by the rough attraction.

111. Now this is thus according to the Outward Principle of this world, as we see undeniably by experience: seeing then there is an always enduring Essence in the Eternity, we therefore demonstrate it thus; behold and consider it deeply, and read this with diligence.

112. The sinking of the anguish in the Eternal darkness, is an Eternal hunger, and an Eternal thirst, and an Eternal Desiring; and the darkness in itself attains nothing in the ⁿ Eternity, that it can satiate itself withall, out of the ^o Eternity, therefore it is rightly and truly the hunger and thirst of the Abyss of Hell and of the Anger of God.

^r Or Liberty.
^o Understand by this the sinking of the hunger and thirst of Hell, and of Anger.

113. But the will in the anguish (because it can attain or find nothing) therefore it makes a figure and a similitude to itself in the desiring with the eager attraction; and the eager, harsh, bitter dark Essence, is the Material similitude in itself, it eateth itself, and is itself the matter of the Fire, that so the Eternal flash may always continue; and the wrath is always an Eternally continuing burning, and burns Eternally, out of the Darkness, and has its own Life in itself, viz. the bitter sting of the Anguish, which rages and raves, and is the stirring and original of the Life, and that is ^p A Principle.

^r Or Principium.

114. And understand hereby the Eternal desiring seeking, an Eternal Coveting, and yet having nothing but itself, an Eternal Envious Enmity, a seeking of the Essences.

when the innumerable and unsearchable multiplicity is always born in the Will; and an Eternal craftiness, a continual rising in the hunger, an Eternal finding of the similitude of its own desire, the similitude of the Essences, in the Will, and this is manifest in the flash; for the flash elevates itself ever above the darkness; and the Essences are in the flash, and are continually brought into the Will.

115. Thus the Fire-will is a seeking of the high swelling Pride, and a Contempt of the darkness; it contemns its own root; it is covetous, and would devour more than it has, or more than it should; it has all lusts; for the desiring Essences are manifest in the Fire, and thence it comes to pass, that in each Will each Essence is again a Center of a whole substance.

116. And this is the cause of the Creation of this world, viz. that the Model has appeared from Eternity as in a Glass, and was in the Eternal Essences in the figure, as in a virgin without bringing forth, and was seen in the light of God: and hence comes the Matter of the Earth, Stars and Elements, also All arts, wit and subtilty, deceit, falsehood, covetousness, haughtiness, in the Creatures of this world.

117. For this world is a Material seeking, comes from the Eternal, and is become material and perceptible in the Creation, viz. in the word 'Fiat, by the Heaven of the waters, as may be seen in Earth and Stones: and the Firmament, together with the Elements, is yet this seeking, and still it seeks the Earthy; for it cannot reach back again into the Eternal.

118. For all substances go forward in their progress so long, till the End finds the Beginning, and then the Beginning swallows up the End again, and is as it ever was; except that the Model remains, for the Model proceeds from the Eternal, from which the Creation came forth into a substance; as The Eye of God's wonders.

119. You must know also, that the Spirit of the Air proceeds from the bitter Eternal Fire-spirit, which also goes forward after the Wonders, in the will of the seeking of the Essences, which are the Stars: and therefore it makes whirlings, and comes from many places; as from above, from beneath, and sideways, and many times round about like a wheel, all according as the Fire-seeking is kindled by the Essences of the Stars.

120. This is wholly like the wheel of the Mind, and it has its own Spirit, and a proper Life of its own, and a proper Will of its own: and therefore it is a Principle, and continues so long, till the End finds the Beginning, then the Beginning takes the End into itself, and makes the Middle, which manifests what is done between both Beginning and End therein, which ye will consider further of, unless ye be foolish Virgins.

121. Also this Dominion continues no longer, than it can remain in the number of the Creation: For every day of the Creation is a Circle of a Revolution in the Eye, and has its number, whereof Ten is the highest number: and Man has ten times ten, viz. a hundred, for his number: and in the Crown of Paradise he has the number Thousand; but in the Eternal Essentiality, in the Divine Center of the Majesty, he has no Number, O.

122. Now look narrowly, with very clear Eyes: God created this world with every substance, in six days, and they were finished about the middle of the sixth Day, somewhat after noon towards the Evening, and then the Rest, and the Sabbath of the seventh Day, began on the sixth Day: And so the Eternal Rest found the beginning of the Creation on the sixth Day after noon; this was the End, then came the Beginning and the End together in One again, and it was manifest what God had made in the Days.

123. Seeing then Man by his Imagination has destroyed the heavenly Angelical Body, and has brought it into a corruptible number, that is, into the outward Principle, and therefore he is in it; for he has lost the Paradisical number, and is placed in the hundredth number, wherein he is also now given up to the Outward Life, as to his Leader, that is, he has given himself up to this Leader, so that his number, to be fulfilled in the Circle of the Outward Principle, is clearly known to us.

^f Or Judgment Day. 124. If we knew certainly the hour of the sixth Day wherein the Creation was finished, we could then set you down the year and day, (we mean the ^f last Day,) for it goes not a minute further, it has its limit hidden in the inward Circle.

125. Therefore know for certain that the time is near; for in the sixth Day afternoon the Rest of the Eternal Day began, and therefore God instituted the Sabbath of the seventh Day for a Rest, and an everlasting Remembrance.

^g Working, viz. the Wonders. ^h Which Spirit. 126. And as the Rest began on the sixth Day towards the Evening, and the Entrance to the manifestation of the ^g works of the Creation, (the End then taking in the Beginning again, and the six Days stood thus in the Circle as a wonder,) so know, that you were created in Paradise, and yet are gone out from it into the Spirit of Wrathfulness into Death; ^h which has now wrought its wonders in you these 5500 years and upwards.

127. And now the End has found the Beginning again, and you shall see, also feel and find, what Paradise has been, even every one of them that shall be born in God.

128. For (to speak after the manner of Reason, and not according to God) Paradise is born again, but you shall not escape mortality, nor the wrath in the Flesh, but Paradise is now already manifest in the Mind, in the Soul of the Children of God, and they have the true taste of the Power.

129. And no subtilty nor power can hinder it, no subtilty can suppress it, nor can any Devil destroy it; for the End has found the Beginning, there can be no hindrance of it; the Power of falshood breaks, and then remains nothing but a waiting for the bridegroom; for the Children of God shall be found in Paradise, when the Turba in the Wrath shall be swallowed up. We speak high things, yet we understand and know them certainly in the Wonders.

ⁱ Or attraction. ^k Cunning or Policy. ^l Or Wit. 130. Thus, as is mentioned above (if you understand us aright) there is born out of the Wrathfulness of the Anger, out of the Eternal Center, (out of which this world was produced and created, which is a ⁱ seeking of the Eternal,) in the Spirit of this world, (in this Principle wherein we now live,) and there will always be born falshood, covetousness, subtilty, deceit, enmity in the Will; Lying, Murder, Pride, desire of honour, Self-Power, Art^k, Wit, the wisdom of this world proceeding from Reason, they all come from this root, and remain in the wonders of God's Anger, and though Reason and self ^l prudence be never so fine, yet it is in the Anger of God, and springs from the Abyfs.

131. And here behold thy self, thou fair world; it is no Fable, as thou holdest it to be, it is known in Ternario Sancto, and he that cannot get within the limit of that, he is captivated by Anti-christ, and belongs at last to that Lake from whence he sprung; it is no time to linger now, but the doors stand open, and whatsoever has grown in the Turba, shall be swallowed up with it.

132. So also consider the Eternal Fire further, and take a similitude from all sorts of fire in this world; for that which is a Spirit, in the Eternity, is a substance in this world. You see also that fire in itself is an anguishing wrathful rising bitter Essence and Source, and yet you see nothing else in the proper Form of Fire, but the flash which shines, you see not the source, you can only feel that.

^m Threefold Life. 133. You see also that the fire when it burns, sends up from itself a Smoke, in which there is water, whence soot comes which sticks to the sides, especially where the fire is inclosed and not free, then the soot is seen as in a chimney; and the soot and water are in one another, and thus the Material Earth comes originally from the Eternal fire; which Lucifer kindled: Then in the wrathfulness Time began, and the Creation was after that manner, which is mentioned in the ^m Third Book.

134. Understand the ⁿ Great Mystery further: you see that every Fire gives light, ^a Mysterium and you see also that Air goes forth from the source of the Fire, and you know very ^{Magnum.} well that if the fire had no Air to blow it up, it would be smothered, as all fires are smothered when they have no Air, and yet they produce Air.

135. The Air is the life of the fire, and the Air has its Original from the Anguishing bitter stirring source of the Essences, out of the Will: Now you see also very well, that fire must have fuel to burn, or else it is a Darknes, and although it devours itself, (by its eager attraction,) yet that fire is nothing but a source in the Darknes, which we understand to be the Abyss of the Anger of God, which is not manifest in God, but is only as a cause of the Life in the Kingdom of God.

136. You see that all fire must have ^o matter, or else it will not burn; understand it ^o Substance. thus: the fire produces Air, and in the Air water, and it mightily attracts the Air with the water into itself again, whereby the source of the fire is so allayed, that it shines.

137. For without water no fire shines; if no water can be procured in a thing, in that thing the fire will not shine, but glimmer; as for example, in ^p a red-hot stone, ^p Glowing. which has the source of the fire, and no shining but a glimmering, and hardly that; but in Iron it shines, wherein the fire has water; and therefore Iron at length comes to be consumed and getteth Rust, but a stone does not: This is thus according to the Outward Principle of this World; but according to the inward (viz. the Kingdom of God) it is as follows; observe it.

138. The Eternal fire burns Eternally, yet it is a Spirit, but not manifested according to the wrathfulness in the Kingdom of God: understand it thus: the flash makes a shining, which arises from the fire, and yet it dwells not in the wrath of the Fire, but satiates the fire wholly, and gives light also out from the fire, and is not comprehended nor retained by the fire, but carries with it another source of its own, viz. ^q Meekness, ^q Amiable-ness, or Friendliness, and yet has the Power, ^r Wisdom and Art of the Fire, for in the Light, the Essences of the Source of the fire are first manifested. ^r Wit, reason, or knowledge.

139. Now the light makes no ^r source, but it enters into itself into a Meekness, and yet is desiring, which proceeds from the source of the Fire; and its desiring is an attraction of the Meekness and Power into itself, and so it makes itself pregnant with ^r Or pain. Meekness.

140. For the Light is a Fire also, a very yearning fire, a desiring fire, and a perpetual finding Fire, which always finds what is generated in the Original.

141. All the Power which arises in the wrathful fire, is manifested in the Light, and the Light desires it in meekness; for the wrathfulness of the Fire, and the shining of the Light, are two Principles, of a twofold source, each dwelling in itself, and one comprehends not the others to Eternity, and yet the one is the life and the cause of the other.

142. And we must understand it thus: we must consider that an horrible anguishing ^r source makes a sinking into itself, like Death, wherein the limit of Separation is, and ^r Or pain. yet the Anguish keeps its source in itself: but the sinking into itself as it were into Death enters into its ^a Æther, wherein the life of the Anguish is no more known; for ^a Sky, or receptacle. the sinking breaks forth from the anguish source, as a dying, and it is a dying, and yet in the Eternity there is no dying, but a kind of entering into another world, of another Principle, of another Source.

143. For the sinking enters into the still Eternity, viz. into the Liberty; and as the source of the wrathful Fire remained in itself, in its life, so the sinking is a going quite out from the fire-life; and yet it proceeds from the fire-life, but it has not the source thereof; for it is broken off from that in Death: and the limit of the Separation is a Death; so that the sinking Life pierces through Death, and sprouts through Death forth in another world, and has another Substantiality, (viz. another water,) wherein the Light shines; and therein is no wrathfulness.

144. For in the Eternity there is no Death to detain any thing with, but there is a kind of entering into several Conditions: for that which has no beginning, has also no End nor ^z ground: and thus the Light arises from the source of the fire.

^z Foundation or bottom.

145. For the Light dwells in the Fire, and yet not in the Fire; it is another world, and it is another Fire, called Love, Power, Wonder, sweet, mild, pure; and it is no substance, also it is not Nature, but ^y beyond Nature in another Principle.

^y Extra, without.

146. It is nothing but a Light-flaming Powerful Majesty, and it has its own Spirit, which brings the sinking through Death, and which sinking out of the Anguish through Death, makes the sprouting forth through the Death.

^z The Spirit.

147. ^z It is free in itself both from the Fire, and from the Light; and it is not held or captivated by either of them both, (any more than the Fire detains the Air :) It proceeds from the Light, from the power of the Light; and opens all whatsoever is either in the source of the Fire, or in the source of the Light.

148. Yet it has no feeling of the Fire in it; but it is a blower up of the Fire of Light, a producer of the Essences of Love in the desiring Power, and an Opener of the Essences of Love.

149. And that we might be understood, (speaking of the Essences of Love, as of another Fire,) let it be observed: behold when the light is so brought forth through the wrathfulness, that one fire goes forth through the other, then the fire of Light desires the wrathfulness no more, for it is dead to the wrathfulness, and it is a peculiar Fire in itself, and it sends forth its life out of itself, which is a sprouting: for it is both desiring and attracting, whence Essences proceed, and it has all forms in it, as the fire-life has, also such a rising.

^z Or Virtue.

150. And yet the Essences are born out of the ^a power of the Light; and when they fully taste one another, there is a mere Desire and Satiety, and yet there is nothing that the Desire of Love can draw into itself, but it attracts itself into itself, and makes itself pregnant with the Power of the Majesty; so that this Will becomes satiate, and yet it is nothing but this Power, which is an Image of the Wonders: It is a similitude of the Birth; and it is the power itself: it is the Essence of the Spirit from whence the Spirit has its food, it goes forth from the Image, and ^b floats as the Air in this world does.

^b Moves, waves.

^c Without itself.

151. Now the Spirit finding nothing like ^c itself, and so not finding itself but in the Power, therefore it is desiring; for it dwells in the Ground of the Power, and yet is not the Power itself, therefore its desiring makes a similitude of itself.

^d Viz. The Desiring.

152. For a desiring is a seeking, and the figure of the seeking is in the seeking; the figure makes the Seeking manifest: Thus the Spirit also dwells in its own Figure, in the Power, and in the Light of the Majesty; and ^d it is an Image according to the property of the Spirit.

153: The Spirit is not the Image, but the seeking and its desiring is the Image, for it dwells in itself, in its seeking; and in its figure it is another Person than the figure of the Power, and according to this Essence God is said to be Threefold in Persons.

154. But that we may open your Eyes wide, that you may see the whole ground of the Deity, (for now it both shall and must be made manifest,) you must look upon the Great wonders, which we lost by going forth from Paradise, where now we must labour in the six working days of this world; therefore consider now what and where we are, and you shall here find such a thing as was hidden even to Nature.

155. Behold, when you will speak of the Trinity, then look upon the first Number, upon the A, upon the Eternal beginning, which is the Father; and then look upon the O, in the middle, viz. the Son; and then look upon the V, which is the proceeding of the Holy Ghost, which in himself goes with the sinking through the sharp wrathfulness into the second Principle, which hath E, and goes forth through the power, as a light flaming flash which hath I.

A.O.V.E.I.
I.E.O.V.A.

156. Now put thereto the swift going of the flaming flash, that is T, the omnipotence of the Eternal God, which consumes in the wrathfulness as a flash, but in the Love in the I, as an exceeding loving God, Exalteth, pierceth through, and powerfully Exulteth: Now if you put the L thereinto, then you have the Matter of the Divine Essence; in the power it is an Angel, and in the out-birth out of the Center, it is Gold.

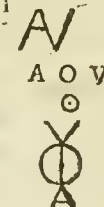

GOLT.

157. The World is Covetous and Ambitious, (especially those that will be counted Masters of Arts,) and say they know Gold, and are blind people; why do you not then seek it? perhaps you will ask, how should you seek it? Go with the outward life into Death, there the outward life must die, and in the anguish yield itself up into the Number of the Crown, viz. into the Thousand number, 1000, and there the End is, and the Death arises to a glorious life with a new fair body; you need afford nothing to it but the soul, which will then bring forth much fruit, and then thou hast an Angel which is free from the wrathfulness, for it is wholly pure; seek it, and you shall find it.

158. But thou supposest, perhaps, to find it thus in thy Old Garment: no, friend, we will now teach you another A, B, C; learn that first, then seek, if you will then have a love to it, if not, leave it; for the O is much nobler and more precious than the L.

GOTT,
GOD.
GOLT,
Gold.

159. Observe, take the A, viz. the Beginning of the AVge, Eye, with the V, which is the Spirit's mark, and go with it through the O; then you will make a stroke, and mark through the O, thus, .

160. Now part the Two Principles one from another, seeing they part themselves, and set one by another, each with a half O like a Rainbow, thus, ; for so they stand in the Figure. Set the fierce Wrath at the left O, and the Light at the right C, for otherwise a Man cannot describe them so exactly, but they are One Globe .

161. And † take the Spirit, which is generated in the Fire, and go with it out from the fierce Wrath, into the sinking down, through Death, into the other half Eye, viz. into the second Principle, then will you see this Figure, which standeth thus, .

The Explanation of the Philosophic GLOBE or EYE of both the Threefold¹ Circles, which signify especially the two Eternal Principles; the^m Third being also clearly understood therein, and how it must be understood.

 cles.
^m Third Principle.

162.  HOSE Circles should be like Round Globes through which a Cross should go, for it is the Eye of Eternity, which cannot be pourtrayed; it Represents the Eye of the Essence of all Essences; the Eye of God, which is the Glass of wisdom, wherein all wonders have been seen from Eternity; and hereby is described how it is entered into an Essence, for the Reader of this book to consider of.

163. Not as if it could be described or pourtrayed, for the Mind only apprehends it, ^o That Mind. and only ⁿ that which can walk in the Divine Mystery; not by Art or Reason, but by that understanding which the Spirit of God opens to the human Spirit of the soul in the Great Mystery, otherwise it cannot be apprehended.

164. The Reader should observe the Numbers, and also what stands within or without a Circle, and where every word in a circle begins and ends; all of it has its peculiar signification and meaning, for every word stands in its due place.

165. That which is without the Circle and Wheel, signifies the Liberty of the Abyfs
^o Extra Prin-cipium. ^o without the Principle.

Number 1. Abyfs.

166. The Great Mystery of the Abyfs, wherein the Eternal Divine Essence, in the ^o Or Center. Glass of Wisdom, brings itself forth in the ^p Ground, is marked with the Number 1. and the Number 2 stands close by it; which is so to be understood round about that whole Circle.

Of the Three Circles.

167. The Three Circles drawn about one another, signify the Eternal Birth of the Divine Essence; and All Eternal Mysteries both within Nature and without, viz. the Original of All Essences, as it is here described.

Of that half of the Threefold Circle at the Left Hand, and of Number 2.

168. The threefold Circle at the left hand, (where also there stands without the Circle, ^o Extra Natu-
 ram. at Number 2, the Mystery ^a without Nature,) signifies how the Abyfs brings itself into a Ground; that is, how the Eye of Eternity, viz. the First will, (which is called the Father of Eternity and of all Beginnings,) brings itself in the wisdom into Trinity, into an Eternal Ground, and dwells in itself, and possesses itself; and how it brings itself into Nature; also how Essence arises, as also perceptibility and perception.

The Figure of the Philosophic Globe, or Eye of the Wonders of Eternity, or Looking-Glass of Wisdom.

Of that half of the Threefold Circle at the Right Hand.

169. The other Threefold Circle at the Right Hand, signifies the Divine Essence of the Holy Trinity, and the Angelical world, which arises from the Great Mystery of Eternity, and is manifested by the Principle of Fire.

What the Cross signifies.

170. The Cross [whose Arms go] through both the Threefold Circles, signifies the Persons of the Deity; and how they part themselves in the Eternal Unigeniture, as is further mentioned hereafter, according to the Numbers. † Or semicircles, or half Globes.

Of the Eye in the Circle.

Of the Heart in the Angle of the +.

172. The Heart in the angle of the Cross, signifies the Ground or Center of the Deity: Not as if it was separated, and possessed a Place, (for itself is the Place or Ground of the Deity, and is the midst every where,) but that men might learn to distinguish God from Nature; and that Christians may learn to understand the Regeneration, viz. how God has Regenerated us in Christ, out of his Heart upon the Cross: Therefore this Figure is thus delineated, that the Reader might further consider it; for this Figure comprehends all whatsoever God and the Eternity is.

The Explanation of the Circle at the Left Hand, Number 3, 4, 5.

173. The three Characters A, O, V, marked with 3, 4, 5, signify the Mystery of the Holy Deity: " without Nature, and how it manifests itself in Nature. † Or Letters.
" Or beyond.

Of the A, Number 3; and of the Tincture, Number 6.

174. A signifies the first Eternal* unsearchable Will; which is called Father; go * Or Abyssal. round that Circle to the under point, where Tincture stands at Number 6, which is the Ens of the Will, and the first Beginning of Nature: for the Divine Mystery of the Trinity stands above, and the Mystery of Nature beneath; each Circle signifies a Person of the Deity in the first Mystery.

Of the O, Number 4; and of Principle and of Fire, Number 7.

175. The O at Number 4, signifies the Ground of the Mystery, viz. the Birth of the Heart or Word of God, which the first Will (viz. the A) in the Glass of Wisdom receives and holds in itself as a Ground of its Essence: For the O signifies also the Eye of the Glass of Wisdom; for the Eternal word is ^r comprehended in the wisdom, and manifests itself in the Light world by the Principle of Fire: go round from the O, and you will find Principle and Fire beneath, at Number 7.

^r Conceived, or formed.

Of V, Number 5; and of Essence, Number 8.

^a Or beyond. 176. The V at Number 5, signifies the Spirit of the Mystery ^z without Nature, viz. the Spirit of the First Eternal ^a unsearchable will; it arises out of the will in the Power of the Word in the great Mystery, and proceeds from the Will and Word, and its Exit makes Essence, viz. wonders of the Power, Colours and Virtue; where yet in the Mystery of the Abyfs without Nature, no colours are ^b discerned; for they lie all hid in one, which is a Glimpse of a Great Wonder, and it is called an Essence of the Wonders: Go about in the Circle from V and you shall find beneath, near Number 8, Essence; which signifies that the Essence of All things is under the Spirit of the ^c Ternary, and that we must always distinguish Essence from Deity.

^p Or Abyfsal.

^c Or Number Three.

^d Absque.

^f Or Idea.

177. For in the Essence, Nature with its seven Forms arises; for the Ternary is but a Spirit in the Essence, and yet there is no Essence ^d without the Ternary: for the desire of the Ternary is the Eternal ^e Magic, and it makes Essence; it brings [things] into a Ground, according to the ^f Model which the Spirit opens in the wisdom; out of it the Creation came forth, according to the Model in the Glass of the ^g Virgin-like Wisdom.

A further Explanation of the first Principle, and of the Mystery of the Beginning in the Creation, also of the Dark World; and how the Angle or Line of the Cross, and Number 9, at the Left Hand, with its upper and under Space, must be understood.

Of F A T H E R; Number 9.

^k Or Angle. 178. AT Numb. 9, FATHER stands before the ^b Point of the Cross, and Abyfs before that; which signifies the Mystery of the Father without Nature: For Nature begins at the Point of the Cross. The First and Greatest Mystery is the Abyfs; wherein the Nothing brings itself into a will, which is called Father, or the Original to something: The Creation is risen out of the Mystery of the Father through Nature; hereby this Mystery, the Eternal Nature, with its seven Forms, is ⁱ understood.

Soul; Number 10.

^k Or Angle. 179. At the ^k point of the line, Numb. 10, Soul stands; which signifies the Original of the Eternal Spirits, viz. of Angels and Souls of Men; for the ^l point signifies the Center in Nature, where the threefold Spirit manifests itself by Nature, which again signifies the Magic Fire in the Father's Property, from whence the Angels have their Original, and also the Souls of Men.

180. We must here understand the Ground and Original of an Eternal Spirit; for Nothing is Eternal, except it has its Original from the Eternal Magic Fire: the Original is not to be taken for the true Spirit, but for the Center, viz. the Cause of the Spirit.

The Soul's Will; Number 11.

181. Every right Spirit is understood in the Light of Life ^m with the understanding; for no right understanding can be in the fire, but in the Desire of the Light; and therefore the fiery Will must bend and incline towards the heart of God, that is, towards the Power of the Light and Understanding, as may be seen here, where the Soul's Will stands upon the line of the Cross, marked with the Number 11, and there receives power from the Heart of God, and so it becomes an understanding Spirit. ^{m Or, and so is the understanding.}

Will, Number 12; and Soul, Number 13.

182. For it receives the Power of the Light, in the meekness and humility, and goes with the Spirit of its Will, (that is, with the Noble Image and Similitude of God,) through the Power of the Heart, into the second Principle; that is, into the Light World, as may be seen in the other ⁿ Circle at the Right Side of the Heart, where, Numb. 12, Will standeth, and Soul, Numb. 13, which signifies, that the soul goes out of the source of the Fire, which is the Father's property, and enters into the Son's property, and dwells in the Divine Power in the Light World. ^{n Or half Globe.}

HOLY GHOST; Number 14.

183. ^o Without the Point of the Cross, Numb. 14, HOLY GHOST stands, signifying the Holy GHOST, who arises from Eternity in the Will of the Father at Numb. 9, before the ^p point at the left hand, and brings himself through Nature, along through the Heart and Divine Power at the right hand, out ^q from Nature, and also through the power of Angels, or of the Spirit of the Soul, quite out, and dwells in the Liberty in the Glance of the Power and Majesty; and is in Nature, yet not comprehended by Nature, but in the property of the Divine Power only. ^{o Or beyond. p Or point of the Cross. q Or beyond.}

Image; Number 15.

184. Beyond the Word HOLY GHOST, Numb. 15, Image stands also without Nature, which signifies that the Noble Image grows out of the Fire of the Soul, as a flower grows out of the Earth, and has no feeling of the fiery property; for the fire is, as it were, swallowed up in it, and yet it is there, but in another source, (viz. in the Desire of Love) a light flaming fire in the Divine Property.

Abyfs; Number 16.

185. After Image, standeth Abyfs, Numb. 16, signifying that the true Image standeth in the Abyfs ^r beyond all source, and dwells in Nothing, viz. in itself only, and through it God dwelleth; therefore there is nothing but the Divine Power, that can find, move, or destroy it; for it is not in Nature, although it arises from Nature in its Root, yet it is quite another thing, as an Apple differs from the ^s Tree; though it be upon the Tree, and receives virtue from the Tree, yet the Sun also gives virtue to it, and so the Divine Sun (viz. the Majesty) gives virtue to the Image. ^{r Extra, without. s The tree it grows upon.}

Of the Word Omnipotence, Number 17; and Wrath, Number 18.

186. Further, at the left hand, Numb. 17, standeth Omnipotence, and it stands without ^the Circle of Nature also, which signifies the Father's Mystery, which brings itself by ^the Magia, (that is, by the Desire,) into Wrath, wherein the strong founding life and strength is understood in the entrance of Nature in the first three forms, viz. Astringency, Bitterness, and Anguish; and therefore the word Wrath stands in the space under the line, ^u Numb. 18, which signifies, that the Wrath touches not the Angle of the Ternary, but is born in the Desire.

^u Or number Three.

^x Or Subtilty.

 Craft; Number 19.*

187. Craft standeth at Numb. 19, under the Word Omnipotence, which signifies the Essence coming out of the Glass of the Mystery; which Craft, in the second Principle, is changed into a right understanding, and here in the Magic Fire it is but Craft; for it is subtle and sharp, and a cause of the understanding.

Devil; Number 20.

188. Overagainst Craft, Devil standeth, Numb. 20, in the space of the dark world, which signifies the Malice of the Devil, in that he is departed from the point of the Ter-nary, and has put his Will into Wrath and Craft, on purpose to Domineer over the Meekness of God thereby, and to use the strength and power of the Fire and Wrath.

Devil's Art; Number 21, 22.

189. Under the Word Craft, standeth Devil's Art, Numb. 21, 22. Devil standeth without the Circle of Nature, and Art standeth within the Circle of Nature, which signifies, that the Devil was created out of the Mystery of the Father, upon the line or stroke of the Cross in the Eternal Nature, as well as the other Angels: But he got his Art, Numb. 22, in the Magic seeking of Nature in the Center of the dark world, whereas he should have gotten it in the power of the Heart of God, and that is the cause of his Fall and of his Envy.

^y Or Attraction.

Will; Number 23.

190. Above the line, Number 23, standeth Will; signifying, that the Devil has raised up himself from the Divine Line, (upon which he was created,) as a proud Spirit, who would fain have been his own Lord, and have ruled by his own Art and Wit.

Darkness; Number 24.

191. As also the Pride and Subtilty of Men do now; who in the same manner raise themselves up from the Line of God, from Obedience, in own selfhood, in which the Will cannot reach the Divine power and light, but falls into itself, into the dark anguishing Magic Fire; as above, over the word Will, is noted with Number 24, and first into Darkness; for Reason loses the Divine Understanding, and the Divine Desire, wherein it can receive the Essence of God, and so, impregnate itself with a power from God.

^z Or fill.
^a Virtue.

Fire; Number 25.

192. And then ^b it kindles the Magic Fire of Covetousness, so that it wills to have ^b Or Reason. ^c much, and never has enough, as here, Number 25. ^c Or more.

Anguish; Number 26.

193. And when it has filled itself with Covetousness, then the Magic Fire in the Anguish begins to burn, Numb. 26; for that which is thrown into the Fire by Covetousness, is fuel for the Magic Fire, wherein the fire burns: and there Death is born; which must separate what Covetousness has brought in.

Death; Number 27.

194. And herein also consists the Grievous Fall of Adam, who has imagined as the Devil did, and desired to have the variety of this world as his own: He would be cunning, and get much ^d skill, and even the Earthly and Hellish source in the skill. ^d Or Wit. Had he continued upon the stroke in the Line of God, he had not been Earthy, for the Spirit of his Will should have dwelt in God, and have brought Divine Food into the body; but now he is in the Anguish, Numb. 26, and must again go through the Principle into Death, Numb. 27, where his body must be consumed in the Mystery.

195. And if he does not, in the time of this Life, turn his Will into the Cross of Christ, (as is to be seen in this Figure,) then he is reserved in the Mystery for the Judgment of God, where he shall be tried in the fire, whether the Spirit of his Will has any Divine ^e Power in it or not, or whether he can subsist in the fire, and there his proud ^e Power or Earthly Works will be burned up; and if the Soul remains in the Dark Magic Fire of ^e Virtue. the Will, (for itself is a Magic Fire, when the Divine Light-fire is not in it,) then one Magic Fire receives the other, and then there is no remedy to help out from thence.

Will; Number 28. Light; Number 29. Spirit; Number 30.
Man; Number 31.

196. But the Soul, which in the Time of this Life turned again, and did yield itself up with its Will into the Death of Christ, at the Line of the Cross, Numb. 27, that Soul is then sunk down from its proud and ^f wicked works, and become free in that same ^f Or evil. Will; and is entered into the Death of Christ, and sprouteth forth with the Spirit of its Will, Numb. 28, in the Divine Power from the Death of Christ, through the second Principle, where the Spirit of the Will (viz. the Image) ^g obtaineth the Divine Light again, ^g Or reaches. Numb. 29, and the ^h Image, Numb. 30, standeth again in the Divine Man, Numb. 31. ^h Or Spirit.

Image; Number 32. God; Number 33.

197. For when the Spirit of the Will enters into Death at the Cross, then it puts on ⁱ Or substance the Divine ⁱ Essentiality (that is, Christ's Flesh) into itself again, and brings it with itself ⁱ tiality. into the Light World, where the Divine Life springeth forth again in the Holy Body, and the Image is free again, as here, Numb. 32, is to be seen, and it dwells in God, Numb. 33, and eats of God's Word or Essence; for the Image here is ^k without Nature, in the ^k Or beyond. liberty, but the Humanity is in Nature, as it is here set down.

The First Question Answered.

198. But for those souls which abide in their proud covetous works in the Anguish, Numb. 26, they abide indeed in the Magic Fire of Anguish, and their works are fuel for that fire.

199. But if the Spirit of the Will at length does yet incline itself towards the death of Christ, and yet is hard bound to the wrath, then it hangs, as it were, by a thread to the death of Christ.

The Ninth number ; Number 34.

^l Or washed, cleansed, or purged.

^m Or substance.

200. This Soul must needs burn thus a while, till the Spirit of the Will can enter into the Death of Christ, and till its sydereal fuel be burnt up: when the Earthly body dies, the Image must be ^l bathed, which this present too-wise world scorneth, but shall be forced to try it in Death, where that little Spark (which did hang but as by a thread) must wrap itself quite into the Death of Christ; for it has lost both Body and Essence, and remains naked without Divine ^m Essence or Body in God's Mercy in the Divine Tincture, viz: in the Ninth number, Numb. 34, and waits for the last Judgment, wherein God will restore in the Tincture all that which Adam lost: But the works which it has done here, will not pass through the fire, but the Dark Magic fire has swallowed them up into its Mystery in the Dark World; let this be told thee, O Man.

Soul's Eternal Habitation ; Number 35.

ⁿ Or here.

201. After the Ninth number stands the Soul's Eternal Habitation, noted with the Numb. 35; which signifies that these escaped Souls are yet in God, in the Angelical world, but without their works; and they cannot so highly attain the Glance of the Majesty, as those which ⁿ in this life have clothed themselves with the power of God. The word Habitation enters into the Liberty, without Nature, as also above it the word Image does. For the Soul must stand in Nature, but the habitation of the Image is without Nature in the Divine Liberty.

Angelical World ; Number 36.

^o Or place.
^p Thrones or principalities.
^s Or apprehended.

202. Beyond the word Habitation stands Angelical World, Numb. 36, signifying the whole ^o Court of Angels or ^p Princely Thrones in the Liberty of the Divine Majesty; whereas their root is in Nature, but is not ^s felt.

Proud Devil ; Number 37. Will of the Devil Lucifer ; Number 38.

^r Or Strokes.

203. At the left hand, in the upper Space, Numb. 37, stands Proud Devil, with two ^r lines; one reaching to be upon the Character O, Numb. 4, and the other reaching up above the Great Mystery of the Ternary, where stands Will of the Devil Lucifer, Numb. 38. Here the Devil's fall is to be considered.

^t Or Reason, or in Wit, Craft, and Fury.
^u Or inflame.

204. He has driven his proud will from the line of the Cross upwards, and would domineer over the Mystery of the Divine Wisdom by ^t cunning subtilty and wrath, in the power of Fire, and ^u kindle the Mystery of the Ternary, that he might be Lord, (as indeed he did kindle the Essence in the Mystery, from whence Earth and Stones proceed) and would fain have flown out above the Mystery of the Ternary, Numb. 38, as still at this very day he desires to fly out above the highest Thrones of Angels.

205. And hence it followed, that he was thrust out from the Divine Mystery, from the highest Thrones, into the Dark Magic Fire, and is thrown down beneath, (viz. into the Abyfs of the Dark World, Numb. 39,) where he must dwell without the Principle in the^u horror of Fire; (that is, in the first three forms^w of Fire) in the Anguish: And there he has his Hell, as below, Numb. 40, is to be seen; and there also do the damned Souls fall, where to Eternity they cannot see God.

^u Fire-crack.
^w Or to fire, or before the fourth form, which is fire itself.

The other line of the Cross upwards.

206. Over that line Numb. 1, at Abyfs, stands Eternity, signifying the Liberty without the Principle, and thereby is^x meant the Mystery of the Eternity, wherein every Creature stands in its own source, in its own fire, whether in Darknefs or in Light, and has no other light but what shines^y in itself, and it also comprehends that light^z without itself: Both Worlds, viz. the Light and Dark World, are in one another; but the Light is not attained, except a creature be capable^a of it.

^a Or to receive it.

207. There are Angelical Thrones, which we know nothing of; our knowledge reaches only^b unto the place of this world, so far as the kindling in the Creation did reach; and^c therefore this wheel is made with the Cross in it.

^b In Locum, or the space, or bounds.

^c For a resemblance of it.

SON; Number 41: and of the Heart.

208. Over the upright line stands SON, Numb. 41, and at the left Angle or Point, Numb. 9, FATHER; and at the right line, Numb. 14, HOLY GHOST; signifying the Persons and Birth of the Holy Trinity: The  in the Cross is the Center, and signifies the Eternal Band of the^d Trinity.

^d Or Ternary.

209. The word SON, Numb. 41, signifies the Word, which the Eternal FATHER always speaks from Eternity in the Light and Dark World, according to the property of each source.

210. But the Three Persons are free from the Cross, and touch not the line, which signifies that God is free from Nature, and is not comprehended^e in Nature; but he dwells in himself, and indeed also in Nature, but is not comprehended by that which does not^f yield itself into him.

^e Or by.

^f Give up himself to him.

Of the Heart in the Cross.

211. The Heart in the Cross signifies, first, that the Heart of God has manifested itself in Nature^g by the Principle of Fire, whence the Majestic Light arises: secondly, it^h signifies the Manifestation in the Humanity, wherein the Heart of God has manifested itself with a Human Heart; and how that human Heart has obtained the comprehension of the Holy Trinity, as it is the Center in the Cross, where we must understand the Inward Man, viz. the Inward Heart.

^g Or with,

212. And we may see that the HOLY GHOST at the Right Line, Numb. 14, goes forth from the Heart in the Light World; which signifies that the HOLY GHOST dwells in the New-born Heart, (viz. in the Image,) and continually brings the Will of the Image into the Divine Light World: and as this Heart in the Cross is united ^h to the Holy Trinity, so must the Human Heart (understand the Inward Man) be united ⁱ to the Deity, that God may be all in all in him, both will and deed.

213. But the word SON, Number 41, standing above over the line of the Cross separated from the Heart, signifies that the Man Christ is become Lord ^k of All, and is King over this whole Circle: For God has manifested himself in the Humanity, and this Man comprehends the whole Divine ^l Essence in him; for there is one and the same fulness, one God and Divine Essence, in him and without him: we can ^m find God nowhere else but in the ⁿ Essence of Christ, therein ^o is the whole fulness of the ^p God-head bodily.

Heaven; Number 42.

214. The word Heaven, upon the upright line of the Cross, Number 42, signifies, first, that Heaven is in the Man Christ, and also in us, and that we must enter by his Cross and Death into him, in his Heaven, which is himself; for upon the Cross, Heaven is opened again, and born anew ^a in us. Secondly, it signifies, that the true Divine Heaven is an Habitation of the Divine Desire, viz. of the Divine Magia; therefore it cannot be said that we enter into it, but that we are begotten ^r in it, ^s out of God's Fire in the Divine ^t Essentiality, and no otherways but upon the Cross, viz. through and in the Birth of the Holy Trinity.

Pure Element; Number 43.

215. The words Pure Element, Number 43, upon the upper line of the Cross, signify the internal world, out of which the Externaal, with the four Elements, is brought forth, and its ^u Essence standeth in the internal root.

Holy Ghost; Number 44. Son; Number 45.

216. Moreover it is to be noted, how ^x those words stand, begin and end; for they begin at the outward Circle at the Left hand, where above, Number 5, the Holy Ghost's Character V standeth, and below, Number 8, ^y Essence; and they go through the two Circles at the Right hand, to the ^z second space, which signifies the Original of the pure Divine Element, the Habitation and ^a Essence whence it arises, viz. from the Spirit of the Eternal Mystery in the Divine Essentiality, viz. in the Essence of the Great Mystery: and yet it is manifest only in the second Principle, viz. in the Essence of the Son and Holy Ghost, as above at the Circle on the Right hand may be seen, Number 44 and 45.

^x Viz. pure Element.

^y Or Being or Substance.

^z Viz. the space between the second Circle and the third.

Father; Number 46. Holy Spirit of Divine Wit, Wisdom, and Understanding; Number 47.

217. The Pure Element is the working in the True Heaven, and it shuts itself in and out with the Cross; it is the springing or stirring in the Fire and in the Heaven of Light, whence the Divine Essentiality (understand the Essence, and not the Spirit of God) is a life: for it reaches not into the Essence of the Father, Number 46, below which Circle there there standeth Divine Wit or Wisdom: for the Element gives not Divine Wit [Reason or Understanding;] but the Holy Spirit, Number 47, gives Divine ^b Wisdom and ^c Under-

Humanity; Flesh; Number 48.

220. Moreover we must know, that in Adam we have turned ourselves away from the Cross, and are above the Cross with our Lust and Desire, Number 23, and gone with our will into ⁱ a Self-Government, and now Death has captivated us in itself: We must therefore sink down from Death upon the Cross, upon the line of Christ, into the Heart again, and be born a-new in the Heart, or else Death retains us captive: For Death stands now upon the line of the Cross; but at the Judgment it shall be given to the Dark World: For our will must now enter into Rest through the Death on the Cross; but the outward Cross shall be done away, and then Death shall be made a scorn.

221. Thirdly it signifies, that the life of God in Christ made Death a ^k spectacle upon the Cross, when Death was destroyed on the Cross ^l by the Dying of Christ, where life grew up through Death, and the Heart yielded itself into the Middle (viz. into the Center) as a Conqueror of Death.

Paradise; Number 49.

^m Or Place.

Divine ⁿ Essentiality; Number 50.

223. For in this Place, out of this Essentiality, was Adam's Body (understand the outward Body) created according to the third Principle, and the Inward Body (understand the Body of the Image) out of the heavenly part in the Light World, out of the Divine Essentiality, as it is set down at the right hand near Paradise, Number 50.

Christ's Flesh; Number 51, 52.

224. That Divine Essence (understand Essence, not Spirit) is inclosed in the wisdom of God, and the Heavenly Tincture is in it: For this Essence brought God's word (which became Man, ° in Mary) into her Essentiality, (viz. in the Body of the Image) which was inclosed in Death; and in ° it God and Man became one person: For this Flesh is Christ's Flesh, according to the Heavenly Part; therefore after Essentiality stands Christ's Flesh, Number 51, 52.

° Into.

° Viz. the Essentiality, or substantiality.

225. Christ had such Flesh in the Inward Man, as Adam had before Eve [was taken out of him,] when he stood in the Divine Image in Purity; and therefore none can enter into Paradise, except they obtain that Flesh again that Adam had before the Fall, and Christ in his Incarnation: Therefore we must all be ° born a-new out of the Heart upon the Cross, and put on Christ.

° Regenerated.

Mystery; Number 53.

° The Earth.

° Or substance.

227. For the body is a Mystery taken out of the inward and outward world, from above and beneath; understand out of the Matrix of the Earth: This is the Matrix of the Earth; out of this ° Principle ° it is created, and we see that it was created out of the inward and outward ° Essence, (that is, out of the Dark and Light world) and is mixed with Evil, (that is, with Wrath) and also with Good.

Wonder, Number 54; Angel, Number 55; Spirit, Number 56.

228. But Man was created out of the Mystery an Image and Similitude of God, for ° a Divine Wonder: Therefore at the right hand, Number 54, there standeth Wonder; for he was a Wonder of all Essences, a Lord of all Essences, taken out of all Essences; and he was an Angel in the Inward Image: As next the word Wonder there standeth Angel in the Liberty, Number 55; for his Spirit dwelt in the Liberty of God, that is, in the Majesty: As after the word Angel there standeth Spirit, Number 56, which signifies every true Man, viz. the first before the Fall, and the second in Christ, into whom he must enter again, or else he remains separated from God.

° Or a wonder of God.

Four Elements; Number 57.

229. Under the word Mystery there standeth, at Number 57, ° Four Elements, which arise at the outward Circle on the left hand, and go to the right hand through the Cross, and through two Circles; which signifies the outward world, which arises as an ° Effluence out of the inward Essence of the outward Circle, and brings its wonders into the Mystery, first into the second Principle into the first two Circles; for it should not go with its Essence through the third Circle at the right hand, into the Liberty, but in the Principle pass into the Mystery, and be ^a tried in the Principle, viz. in the Fire; for there is the limit of Separation. ^a Or refined, or purified.

The Soul's Joy ^a in Ternario Sancto; Number 58.

230. Above, at the second Circle on the right hand, Number 45, standeth Son, who is the Judge and ^b Arbitrator; and below, at the same Circle, standeth Soul's Joy in Ternario Sancto; signifying, that the Soul shall have Joy in its works, which it has brought into the inward Mystery in the Angelical World, and which it has wrought in the four Elements to the praise of God; for the four Elements stand with their root in the Great Mystery. ^a In the Holy Ternary, or Trinity. ^b Or Separation.

231. And was not the ^c Earth come into such a corrupt state and condition, and if the poison of the Devil and his kindling had not procured it, it had been one Essence in the other three Elements, as in the Heavenly Essence it now is. ^c Angelical Earth.

Spiritual Body's Habitation; Number 59.

232. Adam has swallowed this morsel, and thereby lost his Angelical form: For the four Elements should be hidden in him, and he should live but in the one Element in Divine Power, and know nothing of Evil, as at the right hand in the Liberty, Number 59, there standeth the Spiritual Body's Habitation; and there should the body of the Image (that is, the body of the Soul) dwell, but it was hindered, it must go under the Earth, and be shut up in the Earth.

Earth; Number 60.

233. Under the words Four Elements, standeth Earth, Number 60, signifying, that Earth is wholly slipt out, or fallen off from the inward world; for the word Earth touches neither the left nor the right Circle; it is, as it were, dead; but the Cross goes through it, signifying its Restoration; that the Human Earth is Regenerated on the Cross, and that the Heavenly Divine Essence shall be separated from the Essence of the Dark World by the Divine Fire, where then there shall be new Earth in a Heavenly source, form, essence and property; and that which is in the Earth hidden, shall spring up again in the heavenly part: and here the Resurrection of Man is to be considered; and further it is to be considered, that the Earth is placed thus in the Abyss, for it reaches no Principle, therefore it must vanish.

Earthly Man; Number 61.

234. Under the word Earth, standeth Number 61, Earthly Man, there the Cross is between the words, which signify the fallen Earthly Man; that is, fallen under, and into the Earth; that is, he is fallen ^d to be the Earth's; and the Cross parts the words Earthly and Man, for Man shall be separated from the Earth again, and enter into his Eternal part, whether it be into the Light or Dark World. ^d Or to the Earth as to his own home, or to be subjected to it.

Wonder; Number 62.

235. Under the line of the Cross, standeth Number 62, Wonder; which signifies, that the Evil Wonders, and also the Evil part of the Earth, shall ^e, at the Judgment of ^e Or is.

Babel; Number 63.

236. Next to that word Wonder, standeth Number 63, Babel, signifying, that Babel is only a Wonder of the Abyfs, and she worketh only Wonders in the Abyfs.

^h Or Self-reason.

^h Own Reason in Babel; Number 64.

ⁱ Dissembling

^k Or good.

237. A little above, under the Circle at the right hand, after Earthly Man, Number 64, standeth Own Reason in Babel, which goes about the Circle of the second Principle, and goes along in its own Power under the Divine world; it supposes itself to be in God, and that it serves God, and yet it is without God in itself, and teaches and does its own Matters only: it rules the outward world according to its own Reason, without the Spirit and Will of God, even according to its own self-will only; therefore it goes about the Light world ⁱ flattering, and gives God ^k fair words, but remains without God still in the Abyfs, and enters into it.

Wonder of the Great Folly; Number 65.

^l Or Inventions.
^m Cunning deceit, fallacies.
ⁿ Feats or Tricks.
^o Or Being of all Beings.

238. Under Own Reason, Number 65, standeth Wonder of the Great Folly, signifying Babel, which has found all ^l Arts, ^m Subtilties, and ⁿ Devices, and lost itself: it seeks Gold and loses God; it takes Earth for Gold, Death for Life, and that is the greatest folly that can be found in the ^o Essence of all Essences, as is enough demonstrated in other places.

The Conclusion.

^p Or converse.

239. Thus we see where our home is; not in this world, but in the two inward worlds; in which of them we ^p labour here in this life, into the same we enter when we die; we must leave the outward; we must be new-born only on the Cross.

240. Babel has wholly turned itself away from the Cross; which signifies proud men wedded to their own Wit and Reason, who rule themselves by their witty folly.

241. The Earthly Man upon the Cross, Number 61, signifies that simple flock of people, which yet hang to the Cross of Christ, and are at length regenerated through the Cross.

^q By taking its own pleasure, and making Laws according to its own power, that against right.

242. But Reason has also rent itself off from the Cross, ^q by own pleasure, own power, and laws, and that is the Wonder of Folly, which the very Devils scorn and deride.

243. The Reader should consider this further, for there lies much under it, it has the understanding of all the three worlds; behold thyself therein, it is a most true Glass; for the Ternary is a Cross, and it has two Kingdoms in one, which part themselves by sinking through Death.

244. Therefore the Devil would be above God; and therefore God became Man, that he might bring the soul out of the wrath, through death, into another life, into another world, which yet remaineth in the first, but it turneth the back to it, as this Figure is; and the Cross stands between the two Principles, and goes from the Fire-life into the Life of Light.

245. Understand us thus, my beloved friend: the soul has its original in the fire-life, (for no Spirit subsists ^r without the source of the fire:) and it goes out from itself with its own will through Death: it accounts itself as dead, and sinks itself down as dead, and so falls with its will through the Principle of Fire, into the Divine-light Eye, and there it is the Chariot of the Holy Ghost, whereon he rides. <sup>r Or sine, abs-

246. But when it will go [of] itself, then it continues in its own Fire-nest, in the original, wherein it was awakened, as Lucifer did: for it is awakened at the beginning of the Cross at the left hand, as is to be seen in this Figure, and that is its original, as shall be further mentioned hereafter.

247. ^r It is a whole Figure of the Cross: according to the outward Image of the body, it resembles a Cross-Tree; the body having two Arms, signifying two Principles, and the body in the midst, which is a whole Person: The Heart is the first Principle, and the Brain is the second; the Heart has the Soul ^r, and the Brain the Spirit of the Soul: and it is a new child, and yet not a new one neither; the stock is from eternity, but the branches grow out of the stock. <sup>r The soul.

248. And though it has not been a Soul from Eternity, yet it has been known from Eternity in the Virgin of the Divine Wisdom upon the Cross; and in the Root it belongs to God the Father, in the Soul to God the Son, and in the Will to God the Holy Ghost.

249. Seeing then its Will could not stand in the Father, (but would rule and domineer, and so it fell into the fire of Wrathfulness,) therefore the Father gave it to the Son, and the Son took it into himself, and became Man in it, and brought it by the ^u word Fiat into the Majesty, into the Light again: for the Son brings it through the Anger and Death into the Eye of Holiness again, at the right hand; into another world, in God, to the Angels, whereof there shall be further mention made hereafter. ^{u Verbum Fiat.}

Now we come again to the Sixth Form of Fire.

250. Know then, wherefore we have set the Cross here; the ^{} Cross is otherwise the Number ten, when we number in the order of ^x Reason: But according to the two Principles, where the Eye appears parted, the Cross should be between the fifth and sixth form, where Light and Darkness part. ^{ +. 251. But you must know, that God is both the beginning and the end, and therefore we put the Cross at the end, according to Reason: for there we go through Death into Life; it is our Resurrection. <sup>x Outward

252. Again, the Number ^v Ten, is the first, and also the last, and through it is Death, and after Death, Hell, viz. the Wrath of the Darkness, which is ^z without the Cross, for it falls again into the A, and the Creator is in the A, into which Lucifer would fain have insinuated himself, but he is driven out into Darkness, which is his Kingdom in the source. <sup>z Or Extra

253. You must understand, that we mean by the two-fold Eye, a Round Globe cut in two, wherein the Cross stood from Eternity: it cannot be drawn in any portraiture, because the halves are so in one another, they are one, and yet two: the Spirit only understands this: and whosoever does not enter through Death upon the Cross, into Regeneration, (that is, into the Divine Body,) he understands not this: and let him leave it ^a uncensured, or else he will be ^b a workman and censurer for the Devil: we would have the Reader faithfully admonished, for it is most certain. <sup>a Or uncon-nothing, but in the Magic is all, each Glaſs is a Center, but yet its own, for the firſt pleaſure ^z ſeeking, and deſiring, brings it forth; it is the Model of the firſt.

262. For when I ſearch to the beginning of the Eſſence, then I find the Eye, which

266. And this together is the Essence born out of all forms, it is ^f Matter, Essentiality, Corporality, the Divine Body, Christ's heavenly flesh, and it is the full satiating of the Spirit in the O; also it is the Rest, and the manifestation of the Deity; it subsists in the Virgin of Wisdom.

^f Materia, Substantiality

267. The Cross is its ^g limit; and it is the Essentiality, which by sinking enters into Death, as is mentioned before, where the Wrath remains in Death; and it is ^h still as a Death or a Nothing, and the life sprouteth up out of it, in another Principle.

268. Itself is not the Principle, but the Principle is born in it, all Glasses of the ⁱ Magic are manifested in it, and all the wonders of the ^k Genetrix; it contains the Mysterium Magnum, and out of it the Spirit opens the Wonders of Eternity: the Spirit gives it the Essences, for it is the food for the hunger of the Spirit.

^k Or Ecater.

269. It is an Essence of Wonders, without Number and End; also it has no Beginning, for the Spirit in the Desire makes it begin from Eternity, and it continues ^l to Eternity: it is ^m the Body of the Ternary, (which is called God,) and the body of Angels; so that the Spirit subsists in an Image, or else it would not be known.

270. Thus it knows itself in the Image, and seeks the best ⁿ Magic, and it finds what it seeks, and eats it, and thereby gives its will to the Divine Body, so that there is an Unity in the Holy Principle.

ⁿ Magia,

Unity.

271. For the wonders rise in the will of the corporeal Spirit; which wonders take hold of the Spirit of Eternity, viz. of the Holy Ghost, and thus there is a sound and song proceeding from the eternal wonders, for the Will of the corporeal Spirit is therein.

272. And in these seven Forms, the Joy of the Deity is increased and perfected, for it is a satiating of the eternal desire, and it is the eternal food.

273. But seeing all essences rise from fire, therefore we will clearly set before you the Mysterium Magnum, and show you Paradise; if any to whom this is told and discovered, will be blind, let him adventure it ^o with Babel.

^o To perish.

274. You know that every life consists in ^p fire and ^q water, and the Essentiality is its Body, and the Body proceeds from the power of the Spirit; for it is the food of the Spirit, and the Spirit again is the food of the body, and the highest and greatest ^r nutriment is itself; for the outward body could not sustain it, if the true life was not in itself.

^r Or Nourishment.

275. Now then Fire is the first cause of life; and Light is the second cause; and the Spirit the third cause; and yet there is but one Essence, which closes itself in one only Body, and manifests itself, and so findeth by seeking.

276. And every Essence ^s consists ^t of two Essences, viz. of an inward and an outward, one seeks and finds the other; the outward is Nature, the inward is Spirit above Nature; and yet there is no separation, but in that which is included in a Time; there the Time parts the limit, so that the end finds the beginning.

277. Thus you see, also, how the true Essentiality rises from the Light; for it is the satiating of the will: the water rises from the meekness of the Light, for the Desire takes hold of the meekness, and keeps it, because it has a good ^u relish: and so the meekness becomes essential, and it is an Essence of the Fire, a satiating of the de-firing Wrath, a quenching of the Wrath, and a corporality of the Fire: for when the body is dead ^u, then its spirit is in the beginning, in that which gave a beginning to it, it is in that Glas.

278. Now then, as the source is two-fold, so also the water is two-fold, viz. an outward and an inward; the one belongs to the Spirit, the other to the outward Life; the outward is, as it were, a death, and the inward is the life of the outward; for the outward stands between Wrath and Paradise, in the ^v insunken Death, and the inward is Paradise itself, for the Spirit grows up therein out of the Eternity.

279. You may very well see that this is true, as follows. Observe the Summer and Winter, Heat and Cold, and your eyes will soon be opened, if you be born not externally only but internally, with a true Magic Will to find God; for it is very ^x plain.

280. For the water in the deep arises from the fire, not from the wrath, but from the light; for the light proceeds from the fire, and has a ^y seeking of its own; it seeks a Glas to behold itself in, and it seeks an Habitation, and draws it ^z by its desire into itself, and dwells therein, and that which is drawn in is water, which receives the light; else if the light did not dwell in the water, the deep of the world could not comprehend the light: The water is the satiating of the Desire of the light.

281. And the water again seeks the Glas, and would have a House to dwell in, and that is flesh; as you see, the water receives the shadow of all bodily substances, so that the body may be seen in the water, and that is, because the seeking of the water has captivated it.

^a Looking-Glas.

282. Further, you see herein the End of Nature; for the Eye finds its Life in the water, and so goes back into the seventh Form, and sees its body in the water: The Outward desires no more; this body desires no other body more in the Outward, but it looks back after its Mother, of which a ^a Glas is a true Example, which is water and fire, and it receives the Image very clearly.

^b Or outwardly.

283. And thus you see, that the end goes back again and seeks the beginning, and no further ^b in the outward. For this world has a limit, and is included in Time, and hastens to the limit, and there the end finds the beginning, and this world is as a Model or Glas in the beginning: By this you may find somewhat of the Mystery, and remit yourselves well into the beginning, that you may be found to be a wonder in the Love of God.

^c Or Form.

284. And know that the second ^c kind of water is in the Spirit: it is the Glas of its father, of its maker, which dwells in the Spirit, and is found only by its maker; itself finds not itself: for so long as a thing goes forward externally, there is no finding in the inward; but the Spirit which dwells in the inward, that finds itself in the outward.

285. Yet the outward life finds not the inward, unless it has the Spirit of the inward; and then it finds by the inward Spirit, and so the outward life speaks of the inward, and knows it not; but the inward Spirit fills the outward, so that the outward is as it were a mouth, and the inward has, and produces the Word, and so the inward kingdom is manifest in the outward by the found; which is a Wonder.

286. The inward is a Prophet, and the outward apprehends it not; but if it apprehends it, it has the Essentiality of God in it, that is, the Divine flesh, Christ's flesh, the flesh of the Virgin; and yet the Prophet is in the Spirit, but that flesh receives its power and virtue, and assures the outward Man that he does nothing but what his Maker will have done; and such a condition this pen is in, and no otherwise.

^e Or Idea, or Instance.

287. And thus we know the ^d Ground of this world, that it is a figure of the inward according to both the Mothers, that is, according to both the Fires, viz. according to the fire of Wrath, and according to the fire of Light: The Sun is a ^e Model or Glas of the Light of Eternity; and the outward Fire is a Glas of the Wrath; and the Essentiality tiality of them both is Water and Earth: The ¹ Earth is the Essentiality of Wrath; and the ² Water, of the Light; and the ³ Air, of the Eternal Spirit, which is called God the Holy Ghost.

288. Yet you must know, that this world is not the Essence of Eternity, but a Figure, or a Glass of it; therefore it is said to be a peculiar ¹ Principle, because it has its own life, and yet consists only in the Magic seeking of the inward.

289. The ² Word Fiat, is the ¹ Master of the outward; for it keeps the outward in its conceived Glass: The outward is not the Glass, but it is a similitude in which its Spirit ^m expresses itself, in works of Wonder; that it might see the Wonders of both fires, viz. of the Wrath, and of the Light; and so continually brings the end of all Essences into the beginning: Therefore this world ⁿ turns round; for the end continually seeks the beginning; and when it finds the Wonders, then the end gives the Wonders to the beginning; and this is the cause of the Creation of this world.

290. The life of every Creature was a Wonder before the beginning; for the Abyss knew nothing of it: and the beginning of the Eye findeth all, and sets the Model in itself; so that it has an eternal number, and recreates itself in the number of the Wonders.

The Eighth Form of Fire.

291. Seeing then there is one Essence in two Forms, the one of which takes an ^o unsearchable beginning into itself, and keeps it Eternally; and the other of them is the Model of the Eternal, ^p framed, and the body of it included in a limit: therefore the Turba must be considered, which destroys the included, framed life again, and sets the Model of the framed Wonders in the beginning again, and presents such a thing to the beginning as was not from Eternity, but only in the ¹ framed Time.

292. My beloved friend, such things as these are shown to you, and such as you are, who seek the beginning: for your Mind is our Mystery; you should seek it in Us, not in me; I (the outward Man) have it not; but the Inward in the Virgin (wherein God dwells) has it, which ^r speaks of itself in the plural number.

293. My outward Man is not worthy of the Mystery; but God has so prepared it, that he might reveal himself to you by that means, that you should know him by some other means, and not say, it is from my own wit and understanding.

294. Because you are a very learned person, therefore you shall know that God also loves the simple, and such as are contemned of the world, if they seek God as I have done; and you shall know also, that the true Invention consists not in Art, but in the Spirit and Will of God.

295. For this Hand is simple and accounted foolish in the Eye of the world, as you know; and yet there lies such a ¹ secret therein, as is incomprehensible to Reason.

296. Therefore have a care, and pour Oil into the wounds that require healing; and consider what Christ ¹ saith: How hard it is for that man to enter into the Kingdom of God, who is entangled with ² worldly cares, having great power and honour.

297. You shall not find this plant in the Highness and Exaltation of the world; for ³ you cannot, you are a Mystery to them: the Spirit itself seeketh the beginning: look to it, ⁴ play not the Hypocrite; (for the beginning is Paradisical;) that the impure enter not into the pure, and at last the Serpent beguile Eve again.

298. Let no ⁵ dissimulation be in you, but ⁶ plain dealing, yea and no: and fear not, for that which is eternal will continue; and the distemper is nothing else but the Turba, which as a destroyer always insinuates itself; beware of that, (for the Old Serpent is subtle,) and have a care, that you may be pure both in the beginning and in the end.

299. For this work endures no dissembling, it has a clear ground; also it belongs not to the Turba, but to the beginning of the ^b Glory: therefore, beware of those that are born with a wolfish disposition, whose Spirit is a subtle Serpent: we speak freely to you.

300. Every thing that has a beginning, is sought by the beginning; for the beginning seeketh through the Deep, and would find the Ground: and if the beginning finds the Ground, and that there is a limit in a thing, then the beginning proceeds to the limit, and leaves the ^c first, and seeks further till it finds the Abyfs; and then it must remain in itself, and it can go no further, for there is nothing beyond.

301. But if the beginning leaves the first, then it is under the power of the Turba, which destroys it, and makes it to be as it was in the beginning.

302. Then when the thing is destroyed, the Turba is naked without a body, and yet seeks itself, and finds itself, but without ^d Essence; and then it enters into itself, and seeks itself till it comes into the Abyfs, and then the first Eye is found, whence it proceeded.

303. But seeing it is naked, and without Essence, therefore it belongs to the Fire, for it puts itself into it; and in the fire is a Desire to seek its own body again, and so the ^e Fire of the beginning is awakened.

304. And herein we know the last Judgment in the Fire, and the Resurrection of the Flesh; for the Turba desires the body which it had before, though destroyed in the limit, and the desire of the soul was the life of the body.

305. But seeing there are two fires, therefore the Turba is known in a two-fold ^f manner; in an incorruptible, and in a corruptible body, viz. the one in the fire of Wrath, and the other in the fire of Light, ^g wherein we understand the Divine Body; and in the Wrathful fire the Earthly body, which the Turba destroys, for the Turba finds the limit of it.

306. Now the Eternal fire in the Eye of God, is ^h both the fire of Wrath, and also the light-fire of Love: and you must understand, that the spirit without a body must remain in the wrathful fire, for it has lost its ⁱ Essentiality; the Turba in the fire has swallowed it up.

307. But the spirit which has a body, which the Turba could not devour, remains forever in the Essentiality, in the Divine Body, wherein his Spirit is, which is the body in the love of God, which is the hidden Man, in the old Adamical man, which has Christ's flesh in the corruptible body.

308. And thus we understand the soul to be a life awakened out of the Eye of God, its original is in the fire, and the fire is its life; but if it goes not forth out of the fire with its will and imagination into the Light, (viz. through the wrathful Death into the second Principle, into the fire of Love,) then it remains in its own original fire, and has nothing for a body but the Turba, viz. the ^k harsh wrath in the desire in the fire, a consuming, and a hunger, and yet an Eternal seeking, which is an eternal Anguish.

309. But the soul, which with its desiring will enters into itself, and sinks down in its Reason, (viz. in its Desire,) and seeks not itself, but the Love of God, its own fire is as it were dead; for its will which the fire awakened is dead to the Fire-life, and is gone forth out of itself into the fire of Love, that soul is fully in the fire of Love: it has also the body of the fire of Love, for it is entered into it, and is a great Wonder in the Divine Body, and it is no more in itself, for it has mortified its will: and therefore the Turba also is as it were dead, and the will of love does wholly satiate the Original fire, and therein it lives eternally.

310. But the souls which have awakened the Turba, they have lost the Image; for the Turba has devoured it: and therefore such souls get bestial Images in the Wrath, and in Hell, according as the Turba is in them; as Lucifer got the Image of a Serpent: as the Will was figured here in this life, it remains then ^l naked as it is.

311. For the wrathful Turba always seeks the Image, but finds it not, and therefore it figures the Image according to the Will; for the Earthly Desires stick in the Will: and that Image remains in the Wonders of God, in the Eye of the wrathful Principle.

312. And here we understand that the eighth Form is the Turba, which seeks the Image; and if it finds the limit of it, it destroys it, and enters into the limit, and seeks further in itself, and finds at last the Abominations of that which the soul has wrought in this Life.

313. And also we understand here the Fire (which at last shall purge the ^m floor) and the severe Judgment; and we understand that every fire shall receive its Essence from the Turba; and also what that Turba is. ^m Or threshing floor. Matt. 3. 12.

314. Where then the fire will devour the Earth, and draw the Elements with the wonders in them into the Beginning; where that which was at first will be again, and the Elements become one; and every thing will represent its own Wonders, every thing in that fire whereinto its will entered.

315. Hearken to this, you children of men, it concerns you; for no beast proceeds from the Eternal beginning, but from the Model of the Eternal; and its Spirit attains not the Eternal, as the soul of man does.

316. Also the corruptible body cannot possess the Eternal; it belongs to the Turba: But the new man, born of God, shall possess the Eternal; for he is departed from the corruptible, and has put on God in Christ; he has the Divine Body in the Old Body.

317. The Turba takes away the Earthly source; the outward body from the Earth remains in the Earth; but the will takes its works along with itself, for they are in the new body, and follow it; therefore let a man consider what he does whilst he is here in this life.

The Ninth Form of Fire, the great ⁿ Earnestness.

ⁿ Severity.

318. Seeing then we understand, that all things proceeded from the Beginning, and that one thing thus proceeds always out of another; and seeing we understand, that the Fire is a cause of the Life, and that the life divides itself into two parts, and yet does not corrupt; only the outward life is that which corrupts; it falls into the Turba, which destroys it: we are now, therefore, to consider, wherein the inward Eternal life consists, and what upholds it, that the body ^o fades not, seeing Essentiality has a beginning; and yet we can say with good ground, that it has no End; for it must have a ^p ground, or else the Turba will have it, and that finds the limit.

^o Corrupts or breaks not.
^p Or sure foundation to uphold it.

319. The Eternal Body must not have a limit, but be free in the Abyss in the Eternal nothing, or else another Essence would again be in that Essence, which would divide it, and make a limit.

320. We have told you before, that all which shall endure for ever, must pass quite through the Fire, for the Turba takes that which remains in the Fire; now no Spirit is created ^q for the fire, that it should remain in it.

^q I.e.

321. Only the Turba has captivated many of them, but not from the Will of God; for God's Will is only Love, but the Turba is the Will of his Wrath, which by its vehement hunger has got a great Dominion, wherein it has manifested its Wonders, viz. the Devils and wicked souls of men.

322. But the Eternal life consists in Meekness, and has no Death or Turba in it; therefore we must say, that the Soul and Spirit are not in the Turba, especially the ^r body of ^s O: Image the soul; if it was, the Turba would destroy it.

323. This is only to be understood, as it is mentioned before, that the will in the anguish source, in the fire, (understand the will of the soul,) sinks down in itself as into ^t Death, and ^u should not live in the fire, and so ^v it falls into another world, viz. ^w ^x ^y ^z ^{aa} ^{ab} ^{ac} ^{ad} ^{ae} ^{af} ^{ag} ^{ah} ^{ai} ^{aj} ^{ak} ^{al} ^{am} ^{an} ^{ao} ^{ap} ^{aq} ^{ar} ^{as} ^{at} ^{au} ^{av} ^{aw} ^{ax} ^{ay} ^{az} ^{ba} ^{bb} ^{bc} ^{bd} ^{be} ^{bf} ^{bg} ^{bh} ^{bi} ^{bj} ^{bk} ^{bl} ^{bm} ^{bn} ^{bo} ^{bp} ^{bq} ^{br} ^{bs} ^{bt} ^{bu} ^{bv} ^{bw} ^{bx} ^{by} ^{bz} ^{ca} ^{cb} ^{cc} ^{cd} ^{ce} ^{cf} ^{cg} ^{ch} ^{ci} ^{cj} ^{ck} ^{cl} ^{cm} ^{cn} ^{co} ^{cp} ^{cq} ^{cr} ^{cs} ^{ct} ^{cu} ^{cv} ^{cw} ^{cx} ^{cy} ^{cz} ^{da} ^{db} ^{dc} ^{dd} ^{de} ^{df} ^{dg} ^{dh} ^{di} ^{dj} ^{dk} ^{dl} ^{dm} ^{dn} ^{do} ^{dp} ^{dq} ^{dr} ^{ds} ^{dt} ^{du} ^{dv} ^{dw} ^{dx} ^{dy} ^{dz} ^{ea} ^{eb} ^{ec} ^{ed} ^{ee} ^{ef} ^{eg} ^{eh} ^{ei} ^{ej} ^{ek} ^{el} ^{em} ^{en} ^{eo} ^{ep} ^{eq} ^{er} ^{es} ^{et} ^{eu} ^{ev} ^{ew} ^{ex} ^{ey} ^{ez} ^{fa} ^{fb} ^{fc} ^{fd} ^{fe} ^{ff} ^{fg} ^{fh} ^{fi} ^{fj} ^{fk} ^{fl} ^{fm} ^{fn} ^{fo} ^{fp} ^{fq} ^{fr} ^{fs} ^{ft} ^{fu} ^{fv} ^{fw} ^{fx} ^{fy} ^{fz} ^{ga} ^{gb} ^{gc} ^{gd} ^{ge} ^{gf} ^{gg} ^{gh} ^{gi} ^{gj} ^{gk} ^{gl} ^{gm} ^{gn} ^{go} ^{gp} ^{gq} ^{gr} ^{gs} ^{gt} ^{gu} ^{gv} ^{gw} ^{gx} ^{gy} ^{gz} ^{ha} ^{hb} ^{hc} ^{hd} ^{he} ^{hf} ^{hg} ^{hh} ^{hi} ^{hj} ^{hk} ^{hl} ^{hm} ^{hn} ^{ho} ^{hp} ^{hq} ^{hr} ^{hs} ^{ht} ^{hu} ^{hv} ^{hw} ^{hx} ^{hy} ^{hz} ^{ia} ^{ib} ^{ic} ^{id} ^{ie} ^{if} ^{ig} ^{ih} ⁱⁱ ^{ij} ^{ik} ^{il} ^{im} ⁱⁿ ^{io} ^{ip} ^{iq} ^{ir} ^{is} ^{it} ^{iu} ^{iv} ^{iw} ^{ix} ^{iy} ^{iz} ^{ja} ^{jb} ^{jc} ^{jd} ^{je} ^{jf} ^{jj} ^{jk} ^{jl} ^{jm} ^{jn} ^{jo} ^{jp} ^{jq} ^{jr} ^{js} ^{jt} ^{ju} ^{kv} ^{kw} ^{kx} ^{ky} ^{kz} ^{la} ^{lb} ^{lc} ^{ld} ^{le} ^{lf} ^{lg} ^{lh} ^{li} ^{lj} ^{lk} ^{ll} ^{lm} ^{ln} ^{lo} ^{lp} ^{lq} ^{lr} ^{ls} ^{lt} ^{lu} ^{lv} ^{lw} ^{lx} ^{ly} ^{lz} ^{ma} ^{mb} ^{mc} ^{md} ^{me} ^{mf} ^{mg} ^{mh} ^{mi} ^{mj} ^{mk} ^{ml} ^{mm} ^{mn} ^{mo} ^{mp} ^{mq} ^{mr} ^{ms} ^{mt} ^{mu} ^{mv} ^{mw} ^{mx} ^{my} ^{mz} ^{na} ^{nb} ^{nc} nd ^{ne} ^{nf} ^{ng} ^{nh} ⁿⁱ ^{nj} ^{nk} ^{nl} ^{nm} ⁿⁿ ^{no} ^{np} ^{nq} ^{nr} ^{ns} ^{nt} ^{nu} ^{nv} ^{nw} ^{nx} ^{ny} ^{nz} ^{oa} ^{ob} ^{oc} ^{od} ^{oe} ^{of} ^{og} ^{oh} ^{oi} ^{oj} ^{ok} ^{ol} ^{om} ^{on} ^{oo} ^{op} ^{oq} ^{or} ^{os} ^{ot} ^{ou} ^{ov} ^{ow} ^{ox} ^{oy} ^{oz} ^{pa} ^{pb} ^{pc} ^{pd} ^{pe} ^{pf} ^{pg} ^{ph} ^{pi} ^{pj} ^{pk} ^{pl} ^{pm} ^{pn} ^{po} ^{pp} ^{pq} ^{pr} ^{ps} ^{pt} ^{pu} ^{pv} ^{pw} ^{px} ^{py} ^{pz} ^{qa} ^{qb} ^{qc} ^{qd} ^{qe} ^{qf} ^{qg} ^{qh} ^{qi} ^{qj} ^{qk} ^{ql} ^{qm} ^{qn} ^{qo} ^{qp} ^{qq} ^{qr} ^{qs} ^{qt} ^{qu} ^{qv} ^{qw} ^{qx} ^{qy} ^{qz} ^{ra} ^{rb} ^{rc} rd ^{re} ^{rf} ^{rg} ^{rh} ^{ri} ^{rj} ^{rk} ^{rl} ^{rm} ^{rn} ^{ro} ^{rp} ^{rq} ^{rr} ^{rs} ^{rt} ^{ru} ^{rv} ^{rw} ^{rx} ^{ry} ^{rz} ^{sa} ^{sb} ^{sc} ^{sd} ^{se} ^{sf} ^{sg} ^{sh} ^{si} ^{sj} ^{sk} ^{sl} sm ^{sn} ^{so} ^{sp} ^{sq} ^{sr} ^{ss} st ^{su} ^{sv} ^{sw} ^{sx} ^{sy} ^{sz} ^{ta} ^{tb} ^{tc} ^{td} ^{te} ^{tf} ^{tg} th ^{ti} ^{tj} ^{tk} ^{tl} tm ^{tn} ^{to} ^{tp} ^{tq} ^{tr} ^{ts} ^{tt} ^{tu} ^{tv} ^{tw} ^{tx} ^{ty} ^{tz} ^{ua} ^{ub} ^{uc} ^{ud} ^{ue} ^{uf} ^{ug} ^{uh} ^{ui} ^{uj} ^{uk} ^{ul} ^{um} ^{un} ^{uo} ^{up} ^{uq} ^{ur} ^{us} ^{ut} ^{uu} ^{uv} ^{uw} ^{ux} ^{uy} ^{uz} ^{va} ^{vb} ^{vc} ^{vd} ^{ve} ^{vf} ^{vg} ^{vh} ^{vi} ^{vj} ^{vk} ^{vl} ^{vm} ^{vn} ^{vo} ^{vp} ^{vq} ^{vr} ^{vs} ^{vt} ^{vu} ^{vv} ^{vw} ^{vx} ^{vy} ^{vz} ^{wa} ^{wb} ^{wc} ^{wd} ^{we} ^{wf} ^{wg} ^{wh} ^{wi} ^{wj} ^{wk} ^{wl} ^{wm} ^{wn} ^{wo} ^{wp} ^{wq} ^{wr} ^{ws} ^{wt} ^{wu} ^{wv} ^{ww} ^{wx} ^{wy} ^{wz} ^{xa} ^{xb} ^{xc} ^{xd} ^{xe} ^{xf} ^{xg} ^{xh} ^{xi} ^{xj} ^{xk} ^{xl} ^{xm} ^{xn} ^{xo} ^{xp} ^{xq} ^{xr} ^{xs} ^{xt} ^{xu} ^{xv} ^{xw} ^{xx} ^{xy} ^{xz} ^{ya} ^{yb} ^{yc} ^{yd} ^{ye} ^{yf} ^{yg} ^{yh} ^{yi} ^{yj} ^{yk} ^{yl} ^{ym} ^{yn} ^{yo} ^{yp} ^{yq} ^{yr} ^{ys} ^{yt} ^{yu} ^{yv} ^{yw} ^{yx} ^{yy} ^{yz} ^{za} ^{zb} ^{zc} ^{zd} ^{ze} ^{zf} ^{zg} ^{zh} ^{zi} ^{zj} ^{zk} ^{zl} ^{zm} ^{zn} ^{zo} ^{zp} ^{zq} ^{zr} ^{zs} ^{zt} ^{zu} ^{zv} ^{zw} ^{zx} ^{zy} ^{zz}

ⁱ Into the Holy Ternary.

331. You know from Reason, that where there is a root, there is a desiring will, which is the Noble Tincture that drives upwards, out of itself, and seeks a similitude of its Form.

ⁱ Not one that is a Bearer or bringer forth.

332. The Tincture is a Virgin, and is known in the Wisdom of God in the Wonders: it is ^l no Genetrix; but an opener of the Wonders which are in the wisdom; it seeks no Glass, but merely opens the Essences, that a whole similitude may bring forth itself out of the Essences; it drives the twig out of the Tree.

333. This we understand of Angels and the soul: they proceed from God's Essences, from the whole Tree; the Angels from two Principles; and the soul with the body of the outward life from three Principles, and therefore Man is higher than the Angels, if he continues in God.

^m Form.

334. And in the ^k tenth Number upon the Cross, the Angels and Souls are ^l awakened, and incorporated into the Heavenly Essentiality; though you must understand, that the tenth Number belongs to the place between the fifth and sixth ^m, as in a Globe, and the Heart is in the midst in the Center; which is the Heart of God, viz. the Word of God.

ⁿ Speaks out of all, &c.

335. The Power in the whole Tree (viz. the Pith in the wood) has the Essences of the whole Tree; and thus God is a Spirit, and the Word is his Heart, which he ⁿ sounds forth from all Powers and Wonders: Therefore Isaiah calls it a ° Wonder, Counsellor, ° Isa. 9. 6. and Power, the Prince of Peace, as a Pacifier of the Wrath, and an Eternal Power of the Wonders; a Counsellor of the Genetrix,

336. For the Word upholds the Center of Nature, and is the Heart and Lord of Nature; it is the Genetrix in the Eye of God; a giver of Power, and it is the strength of the Omnipotence; it holds the Center of the fire captive with the Love-fire; so that the fire must be dark in itself, and the Word only has the Light-life.

337. We cannot find, but that the tenth Number is a Cross; and it is the Original of the Essence of all Essences, which Essence divides itself into three beginnings, as is mentioned before; each of which has its Essence, and they are all in one another, and have no more but one Spirit.

338. And in the middle of the point is the Center, which is the cause of the Life, and in the Center is the Light of the Majesty, out of which the Life proceeds, viz. the second Principle; and out of it the Tree of the Eternal Life always grew from Eternity, and the twigs grow out of the Tree.

339. These twigs are the spirits of Angels, which indeed were not corporeal from Eternity; but the Essences were in the Tree, and their Image appeared in the Virgin of Wisdom from Eternity; for they were a figure from Eternity in the Tincture, not corporeal, but only essential without corporality.

340. And therefore this is the Greatest Wonder that the Eternity has wrought; that it has ^p made the Eternal a Corporeal Spirit; which thing no reason can comprehend, nor any sense find out, and it is ^q unfathomable to us.

341. For no Spirit can sound itself: It sees well its deep even into the Abyfs, but it comprehends not its ^r Maker; it beholds him indeed, and dives into him, even to the Abyfs; but it knows not its ^s Making, this is only hidden to it, and nothing else.

342. For a child knows its Father and Mother well, but it knows not how its Father made it; it is also as ^t highly graduated as its Father; but it is hidden to it, how it was in the seed: and though it sounds that, yet it knows not the time and place; for it was in the seed, in the wonders, and in the life a spirit in the wonders: And here we are commanded to leave off diving any further, and to be silent.

343. For we are a Creature, and should speak but so far as belongs to a Creature to know, in the inward and outward; in body and soul, in God, Angels, Men, and Devils; also in beasts, fowls, worms, in plants and grass, in Heaven and Hell; all this we are able to sound, but not our own Making.

344. And yet we know and find the first Fiat in ^u that; though indeed we know not that which first moved God to create: we know well the making of the Soul, but how that which ^v was in its Essence from Eternity is become moveable, we know no Ground of that, for it has nothing that could awaken that; and it has an Eternal Will, which is without beginning, and unchangeable.

345. But if we should say, the Angels and souls have been from Eternity in the Spirit, the propagation of the soul will not permit that, as we see by experience: Therefore this is only God's Mystery; and the Creature should continue in humility and obedience under God, and not soar higher, for it is not God.

346. God is a Spirit from Eternity without ground and beginning; but the Spirit of the Soul and of Angels has a beginning, and stands in God's hand: the Ternary has the ^x casting shovel, which will purge the ^y floor.

347. We must only have patience and humility in Obedience, here in this life, or else our proceeding from God avails nothing; the Devil indeed was an Angel, but his Pride threw him into Darkness: Let none climb ^z above the Cross, or if he does, he will fall into Hell to the Devil.

348. God will have children near him, and not ^a Lords; he is Lord, and none else: We have received of his fulness, we are born out of his Essences, we are his true children, not step-children out of a strange Glas; also not a similitude only, but children; the body is a similitude, and the Spirit is a similitude of God's Spirit, but the ^b true Soul is a child born out of God.

349. ^c God's Spirit witnesseth to our Spirits, that we are the children of God, not in that manner which ^d Babel teaches, who would so willingly be God upon Earth; but our Souls are children begotten of God's seed; our heavenly body, which the heavenly soul ^e wears, comes out of the divine body, and is hidden from the Devil, and the Old Adam.

350. Therefore, my beloved brother in the divine body, know this clearly; and it is our Answer to your first Question, Whence the Soul proceedeth? It proceeds from God out of Eternity without ground and number, and endures in its own Eternity; but the beginning to the moving of the Creature which is done in God, that should be mentioned no further.

351. Only we give you to understand this, that the Ternary longed to have children like itself out of itself, and has manifested itself in Angels, and in the Soul of Adam, and is become an Image; like a Tree which brings forth Fruit, and bears a Twig out of itself; for that is the right manner of Eternity, and no other.

352. It is no strange Glas; but indeed one Glas out of the other, and one Essence out of the other, and all seek the beginning; and it is all a Wonder.

¶ Answered.

353. This is the Entrance; and now we will answer the rest of the Questions; but briefly, for you see already in this description all your Questions ^f. But for your longing's sake, and to satisfy the simple, who have not our knowledge, we will go through with them.

The Second Question.

What are the Essences, Substance, Nature, and Property of the Soul?

1.  HE Essences of the Soul come out of the Center of Nature, out of the Fire, with all forms of Nature: All the three Principles lie in the Soul: All that God has, and can do, and that God is in his ^a Ternary, that the Soul is in its Essences, as the Virtue of a Tree is in the Twig that grows out of it.

2. The substance of the Soul is heavenly, created out of the heavenly divine Essentiality; yet the will of it is free either to demerise itself, and esteem itself Nothing; and so to eat of the Love of God, as a Twig feeds upon a Tree; or to rise up in its Fire, and be a Tree of itself; and of which soever it eats, of that it gets ^b Essentiality, viz. ⁱ a creaturely Body.

3. The Nature of the soul is the ^k Center itself, having seven spirits to propagate itself with; it is a whole substance come out of all substances, and a similitude of the ^l Ternary, if it dwells in God; if not, then it is a similitude of Lucifer and all Devils, as its Property is.

^a Or Trinity.

^b Or substantiality.

ⁱ Or the body of the Creature.

^k The same with the Center of Nature in the whole Nature.

^l Number Three or Trinity.

4. The Property of the first Soul was created according to both Mothers, and thereupon came the ^m Temptation; and therefore it was commanded not to eat of Good and Evil, but of heavenly Paradisical Fruit, having the Will and Property of it obedient to God. ^m Proba, or Trial.

5. But all properties lie in it, it may awaken and let in what it will; and whatsoever it awakens and lets in, is pleasing to God, if its will be in the Love of God, in humility and obedience; and then it may do what ⁿ Miracles it will, for then they all make ^a Wonders for the Glory of God.

The Third Question.

How is the Soul created the Image of God?

1.  HIS has been satisfied already. The ^o Ternary, and all the three Principles, longed to have a whole similitude in Essence and Property, of the Essence of all Essences. ^o Trinity, or Number Three.

2. And this longing was awakened in the Heart of God as a great Wonder.

3. And the awakening was thus; the ^p Astringent Fiat, (viz. the Desiring attraction,) contracted all into One; and this was an Image of the similitude of God, of Heaven, of this world, and of the world of Anger: The whole Fiat in the ^a Word of the Lord created all things out of the Kingdom of God, and out of the Kingdom of Anger. ^p Harsh. ^a In verbo Domini. ^r Of the Eternal Essences that proceeded from God; or the Divine powers of the Deity.

4. And as there is nothing higher than the soul, so there is nothing that can destroy it, for it has all things under it, and in it; it is a child of the ^r whole Essence of All Essences. Thus it was created.

The Fourth Question.

What was the Breathing in of the Soul, and when?

1.  VERY Spirit without a body, is ^t empty; and knows not itself, and therefore every Spirit desires a Body for its food and for its habitation. ^t Crude, raw, void, naked, or feeble.

2. And God having created the third Principle (which is a Glas of the Deity) before the soul was created; and so that Glas clave already to the Eternal ^r, for it was born out of the Eternal: ^r Wonders, and so was created; and therefore the third Principle would not leave the soul free, seeing it also was created out of the Wonders of God, and stood in the beginning as a figure in the wisdom of God, and desired (seeing itself was material) to have a material similitude in the soul; and therefore (in the creation of the soul) it stirred up its own spirit also together in the Fiat. ^r Glas.

3. Hence the outward Image, according to the Spirit of this world, with the outward Fiat, was ^u conceived, and a body was created out of the ^v Matrix of the Earth, a ^w Mass of Red Earth consisting of fire and water.

4. And the Heavenly Matrix also longed after the soul, and would that the soul should bear its Image, and took its own Fiat, in the Creation of the Body, and did create therewith before the Earthly Fiat did create: it was first; for out of the Center of the Word, the Fiat went out ^y with the Word: and thus the third Principle was created in the second.

5. The Virgin of the wisdom did encompass the Spirit of the soul, first with heavenly Essentiality, with heavenly Divine flesh, and the Holy Ghost gave it the heavenly Tincture, which maketh heavenly blood in the water, as is mentioned at large in our third Book.

6. And thus the inward Man was in heaven, and his Essences were Paradisical: his ^z Glance in the inward Eye was Majesty, an incorruptible Body, which could speak the Language of God, and of Angels, and the Language of Nature; as we see in Adam ^a, that he could give names to all the Creatures, to every one according to its Essence and Property; he was also in the outward Image, and yet knew not the outward Image, as indeed the body has no apprehension.

7. And in this two-fold body which was created on the sixth Day, in the sixth hour of the Day, ^{*} in the same hour in which Christ was hanged on the Cross, after the body was finished, the ^b Royal soul was breathed in from within, by the Holy Ghost into the heart, in the Holy Man, into its principle, like an awakening of the Deity.

8. The ^c Ternary moved itself with the Creation, and breathing-in of the soul, for it was in the Center of the seed, as a bud ^d growing from the Essences, and thus it was breathed into the Inward Center, into the Inward Man, into the heavenly heart-blood, into the water of the Eternal life, with both the inward Principles.

9. And the outward Spirit, (viz. the Air,) and the whole outward Principle, with the Stars and Elements, did cleave to the inward; and the outward Spirit breathed its life ^e in the same manner with the soul, through the nostrils into the Heart, into the outward Heart, into the ^f Earthly flesh, which was not then so Earthy, for it came from the Matrix, from the ^g seeking, from which the Earth became corporeal.

10. And thus the Holy Ghost was carried upon the Chariot of the soul, upon the inward Majestic Will, and moved upon the water: for the water comprehended him not, and therefore he moved upon it, and in it, it is all one; and the soul burned out from the blood of the Heart, as a light does from a candle, and went through all the Three Principles, as a King through his Dominions.

11. And it could rule powerfully over the outward Principle, if its will were entered again into the Heart of God, into the Word of the Lord.

12. But the ^h source of the Wrath also insinuated itself with the breathing in, viz. with the Original of the soul.

13. So that the soul could not remain God's Image, unless it remained in humility and obedience, and yielded its will into God's will, (wherein it was an Angel, and the Child of God,) or else it was very ⁱ difficult for a Creature ^k to rule such two Principles, as the wrathful and the outward are; the outward being also born out of the wrathful.

14. Therefore its Temptation was not the mere biting of an Apple, nor did it continue only for some few hours, but forty days, just so long as Christ was tempted in the wilderness, and that also by all the three Principles; and so were the Children of Israel in the Wilderness, while Moses was forty days in the Mount, when they stood not, but made a Calf.

The Fifth Question.

How is the Soul peculiarly fashioned, and what is its Form?

1.  HEN a twig grows out of a Tree, the form of it is like the Tree; indeed it is not the stock and the root, but yet the form of it is like the Tree: so also when a Mother brings forth a Child, it is an Image of her.

2. And this cannot be otherwise; for there is nothing else that can make it otherwise, unless it belongs to the Turba, which many times awakens a Monster according to the Spirit of this world, according to its ¹ inceptive Maker, as in the ^m Menstrua, the Fiat maketh a ⁿ Menstruous Monster in the Turba.

3. So we must understand that the soul is in the form of a Round Globe, according to the Eye of God, through which the Cross goes, and which divides itself into two parts, viz. into two Eyes, standing back to back, as we have made the figure before with two ^o Rainbows, the Cross going through them both, and with one point reaching upwards in the midst between the bows, which ^p resembles a sprouting through the fire, through the Anguish as through Death, and yet it is no Death, but a ^q going forth out of itself into another source; standing thus in the midst between the two bows, as a sprout springing out of the Cross.

4. And the Arm of the Cross at the right hand, signifies the Spirit of the soul, which enters into the Majesty of the Light, and clothes the soul (viz. the Center) with Divine Essentiality.

5. The Arm at the left hand of the Cross, signifies its original in the fire, and contains in it the first Principle, and so belongs to the Father, and stands in the Original Eye, in the strong and eager power, as a Lord and Ruler over Nature.

6. And the lower part of the Cross represents water, viz. Humility or Death; signifying that it should not domineer in the Fire, and enflame itself, but should sink down in itself, and under itself, before the Majesty of God, and be as it were dead in its will, that God may live in it, and the Holy Ghost lead and govern it; so that it may not do what the Turba in the fire willeth, but what the Will in ^r Light willeth.

7. Therefore its will should sink down into soft humility, in the presence of God, and so it goes out from the Turba of the Fire, for its will is not in it; and then there can be no Imagination which can bring forth such a Glass, as in which it may behold itself in the Fire, and find that it is a Lord, and so be proud, and rule itself by its own Might, as Lucifer did, and Adam in Paradise.

8. We mean thus: the soul in itself is a Globe with a Cross, and two Eyes, an Holy Divine one, and a wrathful, hellish one in the Fire; this it should shut and ^s secretly reign therewith, through the Anguish (viz. through Death) in the second Principle in Love.

9. And if Love embraces it, then the wrathful fire is as it were dead, and not perceived, but it becomes the joyful life of Paradise; otherwise there would be no life nor Dominion in the Meekness, if the fire did not put itself into it; but the still Eternity would remain without Essence; for all Essences arise in the Fire.

10. And then thirdly, as to the whole Body, with all its members, the soul is formed as follows.

¹ The Imagination, or longing, or lusting of a woman with child, ⁿ Makes a Mond Monstrum, a Moon Monster,

Monstrum Lunare, or a Lust-monster; such a Child, as is deformed by the Mother's wanting of her longing.

^p Or signifies.

^q An Exit.

^r Or Love.

^s Or hiddenly

The Fifth Question Answered.

11. The soul is the stock or root, resembling the Center of the Ternary, which is like an Eye, a Globe, a Cross, and its will (which proceeds from the Eternal will) is a Spirit, which hath the true soul in its power.

12. And this Spirit opens the Essences in the fire and water, so that its whole form seems like a Tree, having many twigs and branches, being distributed into all the Branches of its Tree, which must be understood as follows.

13. The Spirit distributes itself into the whole body, (we mean in the Tincture,) into all the Members; they are all of them its branches: The Spirit of the Soul resembles the whole Man, with every member.

14. And herein it is the true Image of God also, for the Holy Ghost dwells in the Spirit of it, if it be faithful; if not, then the Devil dwells in it: to which of these it gives itself, either to covetousness and haughtiness, or to love and humility, to that it belongs.

15. But if it persists in † wickedness, and so loses God, then it loses the Cross, and its Eye is a Hellish Eye; and its Turba introduces the Form and ‡ Model of an horrible Beast into the Eye, and into the Will and Spirit.

16. Therefore Christ called the Pharisees, * Serpents, and Generation of Vipers; for so the figure of their spirit in their pride and covetous will appeared to him, for they would be Lords of themselves, and not the servants of God in love and humility.

17. And so the figure of Antichrist in Babel appears, in the presence of God, as a Dragon with seven Heads, which are seven Spirits, upon which its hypocritical spirit rides in the Image of Man in the Abyss; † it will be accounted an Angel, and yet is a Monster in respect of a true child of God; it bears the name, but its heart is that beast, Apocalyps 12. It would have God, and also the Devil; therefore it is such a Monster, as is like a Man, and yet hides the Devil under it.

18. O child of Man, fly away, the door is open, the Turba is come, it will destroy this Image; if you fly not, you must go with it; there is no other ‡ remedy or help, but to seek the true Image in Love, or else there remains nothing but Tribulation and Death, faith the Spirit of Wonders.

19. And this is now our direct Answer to this Question: That the soul in the first Principle, according to the Original, has the form of an Eye, and yet twofold like a Heart, wherein there is a Cross.

20. And in the second Principle, it is a Spirit, and a whole Image, as the outward Man is.

21. And in the third Principle, it is a Glass of the whole world; all whatsoever is contained in Heaven and Earth, every property of every creature lies therein; for that Glass is like the firmament and stars.

22. This is such a Crown, as in which the • number of the end of the life of the outward Man is contained, and all whatsoever Prosperity and Adversity can happen outwardly from the Spirit of this world.

The Sixth Question.

What is the Power and Ability of the Soul?

1. We know, that whatsoever comes out of the Abyfs, and is the ground of itself, can in itself do all things, for it is its ^b own Essence, it makes itself.

^b Or subsists from itself.

2. But though the soul be a twig out of this Tree, yet now it is ^c become a creature, and is its ^d own; it is an Image of the whole, and a Child of the whole; for when a child is born, then the mother and the child are two, they are two persons; but so long as it is in the seed in the mother, so long the seed is the mother's, and the mother governs it.

^c Or entered into the condition of a Creature.

^d Or sui Juris, or a thing of itself.

3. But when the Child is born, then it has its own life in itself, and hath the ^e Center of Nature in its own ^f power: it governeth not only in itself, but also without itself in whatsoever is feed.

4. Understand us right, thus: God's Spirit, and the Spirit of the Soul, are two Persons; each is free from the other, and yet both stand in the first beginning; each has its own will.

5. Now it is but right, that the Child should be obedient to his Father, upon forfeiture of the Father's inheritance: For the Holy Ghost is the ^g Maker of the Soul, he created it, and therefore the Spirit of the Soul should be obedient to the Holy Ghost, upon loss of the Inheritance of the Holy Ghost, viz. the Deity.

^g A work-master, or builder.

6. And though we have much to say here, yet it is very dangerous to say it, in regard of the false Magia; for when the false Spirit knows it, it practises Witchcraft with it.

7. Yet we will speak, so that the Children may understand us, and reserve the full speaking of it for them; for it is not good to write such things, not knowing who shall be the readers.

8. But to the wicked we say, that they belong to the Devil, and shall have no part in our writings; we shut them out with a thick wall and strong enclosure, that they may be blind, and not know our Spirit, for we will not set the Serpent in ^h it; our will is gone out from them, and therefore they shall not ⁱ know us, though they should carry us in their hands: there is a fast seal upon it.

^h Viz. in our Spirit.

ⁱ Or understand us.

9. Christ said, If ye ^k have Faith as a grain of Mustard-seed, then you might say to the Mountain, be removed, and cast into the sea: this is no vain word without Truth or Effect.

^k Mat. 17. 20.

The First Power of the Will of the Soul.

10. The Will (^l that goes strongly forward) is Faith. It frames its own form in the Spirit; it has also such ^m Power, that it can frame another Image in the Spirit, out of the Center of Nature; it can ⁿ give another form to the body, according to the outward Spirit; for the inward is Lord of the outward, the outward must be obedient to it: It can change the outward into another Image, but not permanent.

11. For Adam's soul has let in the Turba of this world, so that ^o if the Turba sees a strange child, it rises against it instantly, and destroys it: It continues only so long as the inward Spirit can subdue and overpower the outward.

^m Or might. ⁿ Change the Body into another shape.

12. And this ^o Form is called Necromancy, a Transmutation, where the inward overpowers the outward, for it is natural; and we understand, that when ^p we shall all be changed, that change will be made thus by the same Turba, which has the first Fiat in it.

13. For the body is Sulphur, and sticks in the Tincture, and the Spirit drives forth the Tincture: now if the first ground, viz. the soul, wholly consenteth to it, then the soul can make another ^a manner of Image in the Sulphur, but the Devil readily mingles himself therewith, for it is the Wonder of the Abyfs, over which he is Lord.

^a Form.

^{*} Note, the power of the Will.

14. You must understand, that the earnest ^{*} will (which otherwise is called Faith) can do great things with the Spirit; the Will can change the Spirit itself into another form, as follows.

The Second Power of the Will of the Soul.

15. If the Spirit were an Angel, the Similitude of God, yet the will can make it ^r a proud stubborn Devil; and also make a Devil an ^r Angel, if it sinks itself into Death, into Humility under the Cross, and casts itself into the Spirit of God, and so submits to his government, then it sinks into the Eternity, out of the Source into the still Nothing, which is yet All; and so it is in the beginning again where God created it, and the Word Fiat, which keeps the Image of God, receives it again.

^r A Child of God. Book of the three Principles, cap. 15. v. 64.

The Third Power of the Spirit, or Will of the Soul.

16. And then also, thirdly, the Spirit of the Soul has power to enter into another Man, into his marrow and bones, viz. into the Sulphur; and to introduce the Turba into him if he be ^t false, so far as every one is not armed with the Spirit of God, but is found naked in the Spirit of this world, as may be seen by ^u Witches.

^t Or wicked.

^u Or the bewitching Whores, and Sorcerers.

The Fourth Power of the Will of the Soul.

17. And fourthly, it has such power, if it be the child of God, that it can lead the Turba captive, and can pour it out upon the house of the wicked, as Elias did the Fire, and Moses before Pharaoh; for it can throw down Mountains and break Rocks.

^x Or liable to the Turba.

18. This you must understand to be, so far as that thing is ^x capable of the Turba, by awakening the wrath, then it is possible; but if not, and that the Spirit of God be in a thing, then it cannot be, for it would pour water upon the Turba of the Fire, which would then be as it were dead, and its power would lie in derision.

19. And therefore Heaven is a Middle between God and Hell, viz. between Love and Anger, and was created out of the midst of the waters, so that the Devil cannot rule with his Turba, the water turneth his purpose into derision, as the false Magic and blinding ^y Or nullified. Inchantments are ^y drowned in the water.

The Fifth Power of the Will, or Spirit of the Soul.

20. And fifthly, the Spirit of the Soul has such power, that it may and can seek all Wonders that are in Nature, viz. all Arts, Languages, Building, Planting, Destruction, Knowledge: It can command the starry Heaven, as Joshua, when he commanded the ^z Sun, and it stood still; and Moses the Sea, and it stood up; also he commanded the Darkness, and it came: it can make an Earthly Life, as Moses made the Lice and Frogs, also Serpents and other Wonders.

21. It has Death in its power, so that it can overpower that; if it rides in the ^a Chariot of the Bride. It can bridle and overcome the Devil, if ^b it be in God: there is nothing can be named that it cannot subdue.

22. Only understand it right, the soul has such a power from its original, and it had still had ability to ^c send forth such a Spirit out of itself, if it had not let in the Great

Turba* into itself, which now gives the stop; unless the Holy Ghost rides upon its Chariot, as it did in Moses and Elias, and in all the Prophets, also in Christ and his Disciples, and always still in the * Holy Children of God; they all have this Power; they can raise the Dead and heal the Sick, and expel all Diseases; it is natural, the Spirit only rules therewith over the Turba.

^d Turba Magna.

* Note, the Soul must now feel this power in Jesus Christ.

23. But it has this for an objection, that the soul knows well, whether it has made any compact with the Devil, and whether he has any thing to do with it; it will not go naked, except the Spirit of God drives it, and except it has him for a shield, lest the subtilty of the Devil should insinuate itself.

24. It does no ^e Wonder, except the Spirit of God ^f stirs it up; it attributes the power to God, and gives him the Glory; it does as an humble Child, and standeth still under the Cross, and lets the Devil go rushing away over it; but it sprouteth forth in humility and meekness, through Death into Eternal Life, and brings forth much fruit in patience.

^e Or Miracles.
^f Or awakens it.

25. And so the Devil can do nothing to it, it is as it were dead ^g to him; he may make a stir and racket with his Turba in the Earthly Life, with his helpers the wicked men; but this he hath as a scorn in the sight of God: for he is a proud Spirit, and would be above the Wonders of God, but an humility can ^h bind him.

^g Or before.

^h Or subdue.
ⁱ Or Magus.

26. After this manner every man may escape the false ⁱ Magician, and also the Necromancer; for no Power can touch Him in whom God dwelleth: and as Christ in his Death overcame Death and the Devil, so also can we in Christ, for the Word which became man dwelleth in us, and in the Word we can rule over the Devil and Hell; nothing can hinder us.

27. And thus we give you for an Answer to this Question, that the Soul in its Original is greatly powerful, it can do much; but its Power is only in that Principle wherein it is, for the Devil cannot rule over God.

28. Its Power is not given to it, as a King giveth Favour and Power to a Man, but it consists in a Natural Right; therefore we are Children of the Omnipotence of God, and inherit his Goods in the Omnipotence.

The Seventh Question.

Whether is the Soul Corporeal, or not Corporeal?

THAT thing which comes from no beginning, has also nothing: But if it be somewhat, then it seeks its beginning in itself; for every Spirit dwells in the deepest Abyss of its ^k Essence: And if it must make the Essence to itself, then it can dwell in nothing that is strange to it, but in itself, in its own Essence.

^k Or Being.

2. When God created the Soul, then the Holy Ghost ^l clothed it with the Tincture; for one part of the Soul consisted in the Tincture; it was naked of itself, as the glowing Fire is ^m naked, and is clothed when it has the Tincture.

^l Or encompassed.

^m Without a body, raw or red.

3. But you understand, that the growing proceeds from the warmth; that is the driver forth of the Tincture, it drives the twig out of its root, viz. out of its own Fire, be it cold or hot Fire.

4. For Darknes has the cold Fire so long, till it attains the Anguish, and then it

- ^p Or Source. kindles itself in the Heat, as you see in an Herb, if it comes into another ^l Property.
5. And thus we give you to understand, that the Tincture is the true Body of the Soul; for the Soul is Fire, and the Tincture arises from the Fire; the Fire draws it again into itself, and allays itself with it; so that the wrathful source is quenched, and then the Tincture subsists in meekness.
- ^o Might or ability. 6. For it has no Essence nor ^o Power in itself, but the Water is its Power; for Water proceeds from the meekness of the Tincture.
7. For the Fire is desirous; and where there is a desiring of the Original, there is also a finding of the Original: Thus the Fire finds the Water in the Tincture, and turns it into Sulphur, according to the power of all the seven Spirits of Nature; and this is ^p a Water of Life.
- ^o Or the. 8. For the Tincture springs up in the water like a sprout, and the fire in the Abyss causes it; and so the water in the Sulphur of the seven Spirits is turned into the Mystery; for the Great ^a Secret, what God and the Eternity can do, lies therein.
- ^o Arcanum 9. And thus the Mystery contains two forms, viz. fire and water, and changes itself according to them both, viz. according to fire into Red, and according to the Tincture into White: this is a splendor or glance of the fire, by which the Life may see and know itself, from whence reason and the senses arise; and the Mind is in the wheel of the Anguish in the fire, out of which the Essences exit.
- ^o This white. 10. And so we see what the blood is, viz. a house of the soul, but the Tincture is its body.
- ^o Or an Habitation. 11. The true soul has no comprehensible body, which may be called soul; but the body grows in the Tincture, in the Sulphur out of Sulphur; that is, each Spirit of the seven Spirits of Nature desires Essentiality, and that concrete Essentiality is Sulphur.
12. For Sul is the virtue of the Light, and Phur is the virtue of the four Forms of the Original of Nature; as is mentioned at large in the third Book.
- ^o Misch, mixture, or concretion. 13. And thus the Phur desires flesh, that is, a ^l Mass of fire and water, and it is conceived and born in the Tincture.
14. And the Tincture is the sprouting of the body, and the fire is an Original of the Spirit, through the Tincture; for the Spirit of the soul takes its Original in the Tincture, which then figures the true Image according to the Image of God, that is, according to all the three Principles: For in the Fire, the soul is no similitude of God; but in the Spirit, it is the Image of God.
15. For the first soul was incorporated with the Divine Essentiality together in the Tincture, so that it had the Divine Body in the Virgin of Wisdom, in which the Tincture standeth, which is the Angelical Image.
16. And so we answer you, that as to the soul only, besides the Spirit, it is a Globe of Fire, with a Fire-eye, and a Light-eye, which turn Back to Back, one within another, as the wheel in Ezekiel, that could go on all sides; though Babel has contrived another meaning about it, but a blind one without Spirit.
- ^o The Soul. ^o Run out. 17. But as to its Tincture proceeding from the Light, which exists out of the Fire and Light, ^o it is a Spirit, in which the Original of the Soul, and of the Spirit, cannot part asunder in Eternity: It is an Eternal band, and when the blood ^o is gone, and the body dies, then that band remains in Eternity.
- ^o Inheritance, or Possession. 18. As to the Soul only, the body belongs not to the Essence of the soul, they are two several Essences; for the body is the Looking-Glass and the dwelling house of the Soul, also its ^o proper portion; and it is also a cause, that the meer Soul alters the Spirit according to the lust of the body, or of the Spirit of this world.
19. Whereby the Image in the Spirit is altered, altogether according to what is contained in the Will, which the Soul has ² brought out of the Center of Fire, also out of the Wrath into the Light, and all according to the Imagination.

20. And we give you to understand, that the Spirit, ³ while it stays here in the body, can alter itself; which is done without its knowledge by the Imagination, viz. by the desire of ^b Lust, so that the Desiring figures such a form in the Will of the Soul, as the Lust is either to evil or good.

21. And we further say, that the meer Soul is not corporeal, but in its Tincture a body grows, whether it be a heavenly or a hellish body; and yet it is not a body which can be comprehended outwardly, but a virtual body, the Divine body, Christ's heavenly body, the heavenly flesh, which he giveth us to eat in his ^c Testament.

22. It is such a body as the Turba cannot touch or apprehend, it is immortal and incorruptible, comprised in nothing but only in the Noble Tincture, which is without ^d Essence, or Materiality; and this body is incomprehensible to the outward flesh.

23. But the outward Spirit, (if the soul does not hinder it, but lets it in,) brings its Imagination into it, and spoils it, so that another strange Image comes to be in the Spirit; in the Tincture, according to the contents of the Lust: as the Covetous comes to be a Wolf, the Envious a Dog, the Proud a Horse, Peacock, or other Beast; also Toads, Adders, Serpents, and other Worms, and creeping things: Now God's Spirit receives not their Images, so long as they continue such.

24. And therefore Christ said, You must be born anew of Water and of the Spirit, if you would see the Kingdom of God: and therefore God became Man, and brought the Divine Image again into the Tincture of the Soul, when it was spoiled in Adam; so that now we must be born anew in Christ, if we will see God.

25. And this is done by the Imagination, or Faith, for Faith is an eating of the Divine Body; and every body grows by eating.

26. And the New Birth is not at all after such a manner as Babel teaches, her matters are only as it were a Looking-Glass of the true way to God; but that Glass must be broken, for Moses's vail is gone; we shall see henceforward with clear Paradisical Eyes; we mean the Children of God.

The Eighth Question.

After what Manner does the Soul come into the Body of Man?

1.  Y beloved friend; I understand this Question to be meant concerning its Propagation; for Moses tells you how it came into Adam, and we have declared that before: But if you ask concerning its Propagation, how it comes into a child in the ^e Mother's womb, ^f we must put on another habit.

^e Or body of the Mother.

^f Or change our manner.

2. You know what is written in our third Book, very punctually and at large, with many Circumstances concerning its Propagation; how Adam was created one Image, he was both Man and Woman before Eve, he had both the Tincture of the fire, and of the water, that is, Soul and Spirit, and he should have brought forth his similitude out of himself, an Image ^g of himself, out of himself, by his Imagination and his own Love; and that he was able to do, without rending of the body.

3. For, as we have mentioned before, the Soul had ^b power to change the body into another form; and so also it had power to bring forth a Twig out of itself, according to its property, if Adam had stood out in the ⁱ Trial.

4. But when he imagined ^k according to the Omnipotence, and let in the Spirit of this World into the Soul, and the Serpent into the Tincture, and took a longing in himself after the Earthly Fruit, to eat of evil and good, then also his Tincture conceived such an Image as was half Earthly, viz. a Monster, into which also the Turba then instantly insinuated itself, and fought the limit.

5. And so the Noble Image was found in the Earthly, and then Destruction and Death began, and Adam could not ^l bring forth, for his Omnipotence was lost.

6. And would indeed have ever been lost, if the Heart of God had not instantly turned itself, with the word of the Promise, into Adam's Soul; which so preserved it, that its Image must perish, and the Soul must sink down with the Heavenly body through death into the new Life, where its Spirit will be renewed again.

7. And thus Adam in ^m impotence fell asleep, and then the second Creation began; for God took the Tincture of the Water, as a twig out of Adam's Soul, and a Rib out of Adam, and half of the Cross that was in Adam, and ⁿ made a woman of them.

8. As you know that the Woman has the one half Cross in her ^o Head, and the Man the other; for in the Head, in the Brain, dwelleth the Soul's Spirit, out of which God hath taken a Branch, viz. a Child out of Adam's Soul's Spirit, and given it to the Woman.

9. And he has given the Tincture of the water to her, that she should not bring forth Devils; and the Man has the Tincture of Fire, viz. the true Original of Life.

10. And therefore the woman has gotten the Matrix, viz. the Tincture of Venus, and the Man has the Tincture of Fire: understand, the woman has the Tincture of Light, which cannot awaken Life; the Life rises in the Tincture of Fire.

11. And so it cannot be otherwise now, but that they must propagate as Beasts do, in two seeds, the Man soweth Soul, and the Woman soweth Spirit; and being sown in an Earthly Field, it is also brought forth after the manner of all Beasts.

12. Yet nevertheless all the three Principles are in the seed, but the inward cannot be known by the outward: For in the seed the ^{*} Soul is not living; but when the two Tinctures come together, then it is a whole ^p Essence: For the Soul is Essential in the seed, and in ^q the Conception becomes substantial.

13. For so soon as the Fire is ^r struck upon by Vulcan, the soul is wholly perfect in the Essence, and the Spirit goes instantly out of the soul into the Tincture, and attracts the outward ^t Dominion to itself, viz. the Stars, together with the Air.

14. And then it is an Eternal Child, and has the corruptible spirit also with the Turba hanging to it, which Adam took in by his Imagination.

15. Then instantly the Turba seeks the ^s limit in the Spirit of this world, and will enter into the limit; and so soon as the soul has its life, the body is old enough to die: Also many a soul perishes in the Essence, while it is in the Sulphur in the seed.

16. But that you may perceive that the Man has the Tincture of the Fire, and the Woman the Tincture of the Light in the Water, viz. the Tincture of Venus, you must observe the eager Imagination of both towards one another; for the seed in the Essence eagerly seeks the life, the ^u Man's in the ^v Woman's in Venus, and the Woman's in the Fire, in the Original of Life; as we have very clearly demonstrated it in the third Book, and therefore we refer the Reader thither.

17. And we answer here, that the Soul comes not at all into the Body, or is breathed into it ^w from without, but the three Principles have each of them its own ^z Artificer; one^a worketh Fire in the Center, and the other makes Tincture and Water, and the third makes the Earthly^b Mysterium Magnum.

18. And yet it is not any new thing, but the very seed of Man and Woman, and is only^c conceived in the mixture, and so only a Twig grows out of the Tree.

^c Or bred forth.

The Ninth Question.

Which Way does the Soul unite itself with the Body?

1.  T is explained before, that all the three Principles are in one another, and they generate a Child according to their similitude, and are all in one another, till the Turba destroys the body; and then the soul is in the inward body, viz. in the Divine body; or if it be false, in the Turba, which gives a body to it, according to the Imagination; all according to the abominations it has committed.

2. The Soul stands in the blood of the Heart, there it has its Seat and Original; the outward water and blood mingle themselves, but it does not wholly receive the water of the blood, but it is captivated by the Imagination.

3. It receives indeed naturally the inward water, but it receives not the Majesty with the Tincture of the Light, but only by the Imagination; therefore many times a Child is more^d blessed than one that is old, who^e has the Devil for his Guest.

4. But there are not many born^f Holy, except only from good seed; and yet many times a wrathful Turba insinuates itself, according to some powerful Constellation; as it is seen, that honest parents many times have^g wicked Children, but God knows who are his.

The Tenth Question.

Whether is the Soul Ex Traduce, and propagated after a human bodily Manner; or every Time new created, and breathed in from God?

1.  VERY much wonder what kind of Understanding and Philosophy the world now has, that it cannotⁱ resolve this; yet I do not blame you; for I know such questions are agitated by those, that account themselves learned Doctors in the Schools and Universities, who make great disputations about it. I cannot but wonder at the proud blindness, that there is no knowledge at all of God in^k Reason.

ⁱ Greater.

2. Now therefore, ye wise men, behold yourselves what you are, and what you understand; you understand even nothing of the Mystery, how will you then be teachers?

^k Reason of the outward Man.

It were better for you to carry a Shepherd's Crook in your hand, than to put on the garment of Christ.

3. O! you shall give an account for your seducing of the world; and yet you vaunt yourselves, as if ye were God, and arrogate Divine¹ Power to yourselves: Take heed what you do; you shall see against whom you have^m kicked: I fear you are for the most part of you in Babel; awake, it is Day.

4. To you, my beloved friend, I give this Answer: That the Soul is not every time new created and breathed in, but is propagated after a human manner, as aⁿ branch grows out of a Tree, or, as I may better render it, as a man sets or sows corn or seed, and so a Spirit and Body grows out of it.

5. And this only is the Difference; that the three Principles are always in^o strife about Man, each would fain have him; so that many times a wonderful Turba is introduced, while yet he remains in the seed.

6. But if the Parents, both Father and Mother, have their Souls clothed with Christ's flesh, the Divine Essentiality, then it cannot be: For Christ saith, ^p a good Tree cannot bring forth evil Fruit; yet the Turba in time can enter in^q with the Reason.

7. So also^r an evil Tree cannot bring forth good Fruit; that is, if both the Parents be evil, and held captive by the Devil, then an evil Soul is sown; but the Principles cannot yet judge it, nor the Turba neither: It is indeed an evil Child, yet if it turns, it may, with the Imagination, enter into the^t Word of the Lord.

8. But it is rare, and seldom comes to pass, that a black Raven becomes white; but where there is but^t half in half, there it may more easily be done; but however it is possible, it may very well be: God casteth no Soul away, unless it casts itself away; every Soul is its own Judgment.

9. Consider this, ye evil Parents; you gather^v money for your Children; get them good Souls, that is more necessary for them.

The Eleventh Question.

How and where is the Soul seated in Man?

^x Or without Ground.

^y Forming, or making, compaction, or comprehension.

^z Or resemblance.

^a Or formed.

^b Or Son, or Word.

^c Or splendor.

1. THING which^x is unsearchable, and yet seeks and makes^z a ground in itself, that has its Original and Seat in its first^y Conception, where it conceiveth itself in itself, therein is its limit, viz. in the most innermost, and it goes forth out of itself, and seeketh forwards, where then it always makes one^z Glass according to the other, until it finds the first again, viz. the unsearchable limit.

2. Thus also is the Soul; it is in God^a conceived in the^b Heart, and the Word which comprised it was in the Heart, viz. in the Center; and so it continued in the Figure and in the Seat, as it was comprehended by the Fiat; and so it is still at this Day.

3. It dwells in three Principles, but the Heart is its Original; it is the inward Fire in the Heart, in the inward blood of the Heart; and the Spirit of it, which has a^c glance from the Fire, is in the Tincture; for it is clothed with the Tincture, and burns in the Heart.

4. And the Spirit moves upon the Heart in the^d bosom of the Heart, where both Principles part themselves; and it burns in the Tincture as a brimstone Light, and diffuses itself abroad into all the members of the whole body; for the Tincture goes through all the members.

5. But the true ° Fire-Smith in the Center sitteth in the Heart, and governs with the Spirit in the Head, where it hath its Counsel-house, viz. the mind and ¹ senses; also the five chief Counsellors, viz. the ² five senses, which exist out of the five Spirits of the Original, as we have declared in our ^h third Book, and in our ^l second, and also in our ^k first.

^r Or outward senses.
^s Threefold Life.
^t Three Principles.

6. The soul is indeed seated in the inward Principle, but it rules also in the outward, viz. in the Stars and Elements; and if it be not an Ape, and suffers itself to be captivated, it has power enough to rule them; and if the soul sinks itself down into God, the outward must be obedient to it.

7. And if it comes again into the outward, riding upon the Chariot of the Bride, and so has the Holy Ghost for an assistant, no assault of the Devil is of any consequence, it destroys his nest, and drives him out, and he must stand in scorn and shame.

8. And this is our Answer to this Question; it must not be so understood, as if when a man is beheaded, and so his blood gushes out, and the outward Life perishes, that this reaches the soul and kills that; no, it loses ¹ one Principle indeed, but not the ^m Essence of that Principle; that follows it in the Tincture, in the Spirit, as a shadow.

^m Or outward Works.

9. For the outward Essence reacheth not the inward in the soul, but only by the imagination: there is nothing else in this world, no fire, nor sword, that can touch the soul, or put it to Death, but only the Imagination; that is its poison.

10. For it originally proceeded from the Imagination, and remains in it eternally.

The Twelfth Question.

How is the Soul enlightened, and what is the Illumination of it?

1.                E. must consider, that if the Sun was taken away out of this world, that all things would be in Darkness, and then outward Reason would say, we are in dark Death and in the ⁿ wrathfulness of the cold; and it were so indeed.

2. Now observe, my beloved mind, and consider with thyself, when thy body perishes, and so thy spirit loses the ° Sun; how canst thou then enjoy the Light? and wherewith wilt thou see? In simplicity we put thee in mind of this, that thou mayest consider it.

ⁿ Or bitterness.
^o Viz. the light of the Sun.

3. That thing which consists in the Eternal Liberty, if it always enters again into the Eternal Liberty, it has no darkness, for it dwells in Nothing that ^p affords darkness: it is free as the Eye of God, which beholds itself through a ^q substance.

4. When that imagineth after any thing, in Lust, then the will entereth into that thing, which the Desiring Lust itself makes; and this receives the will into itself, and overshadows it, so that it dwells in darkness, and can have no light, unless it goes forth again out of that thing into the Liberty.

^r Or sacrifice to our own net. Hab. 1. 16.

5. Thus we give you earnestly to understand, that we have no Light in all our ^s affairs and works, if we let our will enter into that which we have wrought, by setting our heart and ^t will upon the work of our own hands, in Covetousness; then the soul is wholly blind, and we have no light in us, but only the outward Light of the Sun, which gives light to the outward body; and when that perishes, then the soul is imprisoned by that thing¹.

Note, the cause of our spiritual blindness.

¹ It was set upon.

² Cave, or hole.

³ Void of Light.

⁴ Or reach.

6. You must here understand the spirit and will of the soul; for the prison of the soul is a dark² vale, ³ having no Light; and although it elevates itself, and inflames itself, yet it becomes only a wrathful flash of fire, and is like the Devil, and cannot⁴ attain the Divine Light in itself.

7. The cause is, it has brought abominations into its will and spirit, which darken the Spirit, and hold it captive with the Turba: for God's Light goes not backwards, but forwards into the Eternity.

⁵ Or in two halves, or parts.

8. And therefore God's Eye is ⁵ twofold, standing back to back, as before in the figure; one part goes forwards into the still Eternity, into the Eternal Nothing, viz. into the Liberty.

9. And the other part goes backwards into the Desire, and makes darkness and the Center of Nature therein, and drives it to the greatest anguish and sharpness.

10. And then the will again sinks out of the anguish through the darkness, into the still Liberty, and brings the wrathfulness of the mobility and earnest sharpness out of the anguish with it.

⁶ Or shut up.

11. In which sharpness, the Liberty (when the will brings the sharpness into it) becomes a highly triumphing Majestic Light, which is called God's Light, which shines for ever, and cannot be ⁶ smothered by any thing, for it giveth Light in the Eternal Liberty, and desires no more.

Note, Pride is the fiery life, and the reflection of Covetousness as in a Glass.

12. And if (as thou Earthly man perhaps dost suppose) God would receive thy spirit into his Majestic Light, while thou lettest in thy Abomination (viz. Covetousness, which has brought forth Pride, which is the fiery life of Covetousness) into thy will, so that thy will sticketh wholly in Earthliness; thou wouldst darken God's Majesty, and thy spirit and will would nevertheless stick in Covetousness, and burn out with the fiery source of the soul, as a Reflexion in a Glass, viz. in Pride, and thou shouldst not be able to reach the Majesty of God.

⁷ Or Trinity.

13. Nay, if thou shouldst sit in the Cross of the Holy⁷ Ternary, and wast encompassed with all the Holy Angels, yet thou shouldst sit but in the Darkness, and thy Spirit should shine but in the Glass of that Essence, which thou thyself hast brought into the Spirit.

⁸ Looking-Glass, also as a sport.

14. But if now the soul with its spirit, in its Image will see God, and behold the Eternal Light in God's Majesty, then it must go in a twofold way in this world; and then it shall obtain the Eternal body, viz. the Image of God, and also sustain the outward Life with the Earthly body, and then it shall bring all the Wonders (for which God created it in an outward Life, which wonders also it ought to awaken in the outward Life) into the inward Life, and eternally rejoice itself in them, and have them as a⁸ Glass; and this is the right way as follows.

⁹ Or Gate of the Day spring from on high.

15. Behold, thou beloved Soul, if thou wilt attain the light of God, and see with the Eye of God, and wilt also enjoy the light of this world, and sustain thy body, and seek the wonders of God, then do it as God himself does it.

¹⁰ In Resignation.

¹¹ In Selfhood.

16. Thou hast in thy soul two Eyes, which are set together back to back; the¹⁰ one looks into Eternity, the¹¹ other looks backward into Nature, and proceeds forth always, and seeks in the Desire, and always makes one Glass after another: let it be so, it should be so, God will have it so.

17. But turn not this ² other Eye back into the Longing, but with the Right Eye always draw the Left backwards to thee; and let not ^h this Eye with the will of the Wonders go from thee, viz. from that Eye which is turned into the Liberty, but draw to thee its wonders which it has manifested and wrought.

18. Let this Eye seek food for the Earthly body, but let it not enter into the food, that is, into Covetousness, but draw it close to the seeing Eye, and let it not go.

19. But let the hands labour and get food; and let the Eye draw the Wonders to it, but not ^l Matter; else that which is drawn in will be darkness to thee.

^l Covetousness, Envy, Pride, or Anger.

20. Let the Devil roar at thee, making a noise before thy left Eye: he cannot get in, unless thou sufferest thine Eye to receive in ^k Matter.

^k Somewhat wherein it trusts.

21. Thus, when thy Earthly body perishes, thou shalt see with the right Eye all the Wonders ^l in the left Eye, which thou hast wrought and found out here; and when the Earthly life is gone, then thy left Eye is free from the ^m Nature of Wrath.

^l Or which are in the Eye of Nature.

22. And although it has Nature, (for it is Nature itself which awakens and retains the Wonders,) yet then it is with the Wonders, in the Eternal Liberty: seeing it hath taken in nothing of Matter, therefore it is free.

^m Ephes. 2. 3- τέκνα φύσει ὀργῆς.

23. And Nature with its Wonders, is a fiery sharpness, and takes hold of the Eternal Liberty, and so maketh Majesty in the Liberty in the Wonders; whence the Right Eye (which is as it were dead here in this life) becomes enlightened, and ⁿ rejoices with the Left Eye for ever, in the exceeding joyful Majesty, and sees God with both Eyes eternally.

ⁿ Or solaces itself.

24. This is one Gate. He that sees and knows this rightly in the Spirit, he sees all that God is, and can do; he sees also therewith, through Heaven, Hell, and Earth, and through the Essence of all Essences: also it ^o is the whole Scripture, whatsoever has been written from the beginning of the world hitherto; but this is a rare and precious ^p seeing; the Old Adam knows it not, he sees it not, only the New Man that is born in God.

^o Or the understanding of the whole Scripture is contained in it.

25. But seeing the weak Mind will so hardly understand us, therefore we will set it down more plainly. Behold! if thou wilt see God's Light in thy soul, and would be enlightened from God, then do thus.

^p Sight, or Vision.

26. Thou art in the world: hast thou an honest ^q calling void of Deceit? continue in it, work, labour, finish thy business, as necessity requires; seek out Wonders, both in the Earth and other Elements; let the Art be what it will, it is all the work of God: seek Silver and Gold in the Earth, and make Artificial works of them: build and plant: All serves to manifest God's works of Wonder.

27. Thou must not give thy spirit leave to enter into, and fill itself therewith, and so make a Mammon of it, and ^t set itself therein, as in a Darkness, else it is but a fool in the sight of God, and the Devil's Ape, and its will is wholly fix'd therein; and so thy noble Image is altered according to thy Imagination in the Spirit, and according to thy will, which sticks in Covetousness, and so thou lovest God's Image.

^t Or make its Nest therein.

28. For that is Magical, it is as subtle as a spirit, yea much more subtle; it is much more subtle and thin than the soul itself; it is as God, who dwelleth in the Eternal Liberty unapprehended by any thing; for it is thinner than any thing. and so is thy Noble Image.

29. And yet it consisteth ^u in heavenly flesh and blood, and is an Essentiality come out of the Divine Body; it is Christ's flesh and blood, and thy soul dwells therein; ^v it is the fire of the Majesty therein.

^u Or of:
^v The Soul.

30. And the Holy Ghost sitteth in the Heart of the Image, and proceedeth from the Image with voices, languages, wonders, sounds, and songs.

^x Faithful, and sincere. 31. If thou art ^x upright, thou bringest thy wonders into this Image; and do it thus: Set thy left will upon the work which thou doest, and consider that thou art God's servant in the vineyard of God, and labour faithfully.

32. And direct thy right will upon God, and that which is Eternal, and think not thyself secure at any time; think that thou art but at thy day-labour, and must always listen for the voice, when thy Master shall bid thee come home.

^z Or leave. 33. Give Reason no ^y room to say, this is my treasure, it is mine, I have enough, I will gather much, that I may get honour in the world, and leave much to my Children.

34. But consider, that thy Children are God's Children, and thou God's servant; that thy work is God's work, and that thy Money, Goods, Mind, and Blood are in God's hand; he may do what he will with them: When he calls thee home to thine own Country, then he may take thy labour and give it to another.

^z Or leave. 35. And give thy heart no ^z room to suffer the spirit of thy will to bring in haughtiness into the Image, but cast down thy will continually in humility before God; and so thy Image always enters with thy will in humility into the Majesty of God; and thy Image is continually enlightened with the high Triumphant Light of God.

^a Or perceives. ^b Or friendly. 36. O! how cheerful is the soul, when its anguish source of fire ^a tasteth God's Light; how exceeding ^b courteous is it! O! how it bows itself before God!

37. Thus the Soul and the Image in the Spirit are all three in one another, for they are one Essence according to the Holy Trinity: My beloved brother, we answer to this Question of yours thus, that the soul cannot be any other way enlightened than thus, its Illumination is only after this manner.

38. The soul is in this world, and also in God; here in this life it is a servant of God's Wonders, which it should open with one Eye, and with the other bring them into the beginning before God, and set and cast all its doings into God's will, and by no means say of any thing in this world, this is mine, I am Lord of this, for it lies if it says so.

39. All is God's, thou art a servant, and shouldst walk in Love and Humility towards God, and thy Brother: for thy brother's soul is a fellow-member with thy soul, thy brother's joy in Heaven with God is also thy joy, his Wonders are also thy Wonders.

40. For in Heaven God is All in All, he filleth all, the Holy Ghost is the Life in All; there is mere joy, there is no sorrow, there all is God's; also all belong to the Image of God; all things are common; one rejoiceth at the power, brightness, and beauty of another; there is no malice or envy, for all that remains in Death and Hell.

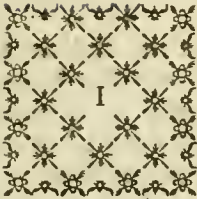

^e Strong, or loud sounding voice. 41. Therefore ye Elect Children of God, who are born again in Christ, take it into Consideration, depart from Covetousness and Self-will: you have been a long time led blindfold in Babel; go out from her, you are called with a ^c shrill voice, it will shortly raise the Dead; let it be a promotion to you, that you may obtain Eternal Joy in God.

^d Viz. the eternal Word. 42. The Spirit shows plainly, that whatsoever will not grow forth, together with the new sprout which grows in the ^d Mother, shall and must be cast into the Lake of Brimstone, with the Dragon's Whore in Babel.

43. There is a time of earnestness at hand; and though thou seest it not with earthly Eyes, yet it will certainly come upon thee: thou wilt see well enough in thy Death, what kind of Judgment this is, and in what time, and under what Turba thou hast lived; we speak in good earnest, as we ought.

The Thirteenth Question.

How does the Soul feed upon the Word of God?

1.  F the Soul enters thus (as above mentioned) into the Light of the Majesty, and receives the Light of God, then it has wholly a longing and lusting, and continually attracts in its Desire the Divine Power, viz. the Divine Body, into itself; and the Holy Ghost is the Power of God's Spirit, and so it obtains the Body and Spirit of God, and eats at God's Table: All that the Father hath is the Son's, and whatever the Son hath, that belongs to his Image.

2. It eateth God's Flesh, Christ's Flesh, and by this eating the Divine Body does also grow ^e in it, so that it thus gets the Divine Body, and so becomes God's Child, not only a similitude, but a Child born in God out of his Essences, and lives in God.

3. When it hears God's Children teach and speak God's * word, (even in this world,) it receives it, and eats it.

4. The outward Man eats earthly Bread, and the Soul eats the Bread of God; of which Christ said, that he gives his Body for Meat, and his ^f Testaments are nothing else.

5. Indeed we eat not Spirit without Body; for the Soul is Spirit already, and desires to have a Body, and so it gets both Body and Spirit.

6. Let this be spoken to thee, O Babel, and see how thou managest Christ's Testaments, and what thou teachest; when thou sayest Christ's Testaments are Spirit without Body, thou believest God, and deniest God's Substantiality, Christ's heavenly Body, which is greater than all things, which is the fulness of all things, but in its own Principle.

7. O earthly mouth, thou shalt not chew it with teeth: the Soul has another Mouth, which receives it under the outward Element: the outward receives the outward, and the inward receives the inward.

8. The Supper of Christ with his Disciples was so: the outward is a Remembrance; the inward is the substance; for the Kingdom of God consisteth in Power, it is Magical; not as a thought; but Essential, substantial.

9. The Magia makes substance: for in the Eternal Nothing there is Nothing; but the Magia creates ^g where nothing is.

10. Now in God there is not only Spirit, but Nature, Substance, Flesh and Blood, Tincture, and All: this world outwardly is a similitude of the inward world.

11. We tell you, we speak what we feel, see, taste, and know, and not a Fiction or Opinion, and that not for ourselves only, but for your sake, as one member is bound to do for another, that so our Joy may be in you, and we also may enjoy you again, as brethren together in one Essence: He that desires to know further of this, let him read our ^h third Book, and there he shall find the Circumstances, concerning the ^a Soul's Meal, and Christ's Testaments.

ⁱ See Messie, the Food, Meis, Supper, or eating of the Soul.

The Fourteenth Question.

Whether is such a new Soul without Sin? We understand here, the propagated Soul in a Child newly born.

^k Sublime, acute, or subtle.

1. ^k Y beloved friend, this is a very ^k deep Question, yet you shall be answered; for the time of the manifestation is born, the Day breaks, the Night is past; therefore eternal praise and thanks be given to God, that has again begotten us to light, and to an inheritance that never fades away, and has received us for his beloved Children.

2. My beloved friend, you know well the heavy fall of Adam, as we have shown you copiously in all our writings, viz. that the soul has turned itself away with the right Eye from God into the Spirit of this world, and is become disobedient to God, and has wholly depraved its Noble Image, and changed it into a monstrous Image, and has let in the Spirit of this world; whereas it should have powerfully ruled over it with the will, and not have let the soul eat of evil and good at all.

3. But now it has plainly transgressed God's ^l Command, and has put its Imagination into the Earthly Spirit, where the Turba, which brought the Earthly Monster into its Noble Image, instantly took it captive, and so the Turba instantly sought, and found the Limit, in which the Image perished; and if the Word had not ^m mediated, or interposed itself, it would have continued so for ever.

ⁿ Set itself in the midst.

4. And so, now the Turba is once seated in the Earthly Abyfs, and has captivated both body and soul, it always drives the body to the limit, and there destroys it, and casts it away, and then the poor soul remains ⁿ Naked without a Body.

^r Raw.

5. And except it turns with its Right Eye again into the Word, and acquires again a body born out of God, it is but naked, and has the Turba in it, which stirs up the fire in its great Anguish; for ^o it is an eager hunger, a seeker, and a finder.

^o Viz. the Turba.

6. Now it is thoroughly known to us, that our Soul is fast bound to the Spirit of this world, for the Turba holds us captive in the Wrath of the Anger of God.

^p The Turba.

7. And although our soul goes forth, and becomes new-born in God, yet ^p it possesses the outward body still, and consumes it, for it pierces through it even to the Abyfs, and there it finds that it is only a Looking-Glass of the Eternal; and then it goes forth from the Eternal, and lets the body lie in the Nothing.

^q Phur is power, matter, or substance.

8. Also you know well, that the soul, with the body in the seed, is half Earthly; for it is Sulphur, that is, ^q Phur and ^r Sul together, and the Turba is in it, which has ability enough to destroy the seed.

^r Sul is Spirit, or Light.

9. How then can a soul be born pure? It cannot be; it brings the Turba with it into the world, and is sinful in the Mother's ^s womb.

^s In one another.

10. But know that God is become Man, and the Word Fiat has again put itself into the seed; and although the Turba be now in the Earthly Part, so that the seed is not altogether free, yet the matter stands thus with the soul.

^t Or body.

11. The soul is not wholly forsaken of God, so far as the Father and Mother are ^u honest, and in God; for it proceeds from the soul of the Father and of the Mother: And although a Child dies in the Mother's womb without ^w Baptism, yet it is baptized with the spirit of the Father, and of the Mother, viz. with the Holy Ghost which dwells in them, and the Turba is destroyed in Death; for the ^x Faith's part preffeth through to God.

^u Or virtuous.

^w External Baptism.

^x That which belongeth to Faith.

12. But the matter is far otherwise with wicked Parents: If the Child dies in the Mother's womb^y, the soul of it falls into the Turba, and reaches not God to Eternity: ⁷ Vide Question 19. ver. 12. It also knows nothing of him, but it is a life according to the Essence, and property of the Parents.

13. And yet it doth not by this reach to the inflammation, for that soul itself has not yet committed ^z sin; but it is a spirit in the source, quite void of self-desire, and wonders; it is like the Flame of Brimstone, like the ³ Ignes Fatui, and cannot reach God, but remains between Heaven and Hell in the Mystery, until the Judgment of God, which shall at last gather in its harvest, and put every thing in its own place.

14. Although ^b Mr. Sophister may herein have other ^c Philosophy; but we care not for his Art, we have Eyes and he has Art; we speak what we see.

15. Thus we give you to understand, that no soul is born into this world without sin, how honest soever the Parents be; for it is ^d conceived in the Earthly seed, and brings the Turba of the body with it, which also hath surrounded the soul.

16. Therefore God made a Covenant with Children in the Old Testament, in the Circumcision, and bound them in that Covenant to have their blood shed, and so drown the Turba of the soul therewith.

17. And in the New Testament there is the Baptism; wherein the Holy Ghost washeth away the Turba of the water of the Soul with the water of Life, that it may ^e draw near to God and be his Child.

18. But if any will say, that those who have not Baptism (as Jews and Turks, and other People who have not the knowledge thereof among them, nor the Candlestick,) are all rejected of God, (although in their Doctrine, Life, and Deeds, they do earnestly strive to enter into the Love of God,) they speak fantastically, and without knowledge, like Babel.

19. Blessedness lies not only in the outward Word, but in Power: Who shall cast out him that enters into God?

20. Is not this Babel, which has confounded the whole World, so that People have divided themselves in Opinions, and yet in the Will they go but one Way? What caused this but only the Antichrist, when he ^f drew the Kingdom of God into his own Jurisdiction, and made a mere fable of the New Birth, which the very Children will be ashamed of, when it shall be day?

21. We can say, with good ground, that Antichrist's teaching is but ^g beating of the Air, a slight of the Serpent which continually beguiles Eve.

22. Thus we know, that no Soul comes into the world without sin, every one brings the ^h Turba with it; for if it was without sin, then it must also dwell in a body wholly pure, having no evil will in it, and in which is no Earthly ⁱ Desire.

23. Now body and soul are thus ^k bound together, until the Turba finds the ^l Limit of the body, and then it seeks the works of the body.

The Fifteenth Question.

How cometh Sin into the Soul, seeing it is the Work and Creature of God?

^m Seeking, or longing.
ⁿ Verbum Domini.

1. S it is mentioned before, so it is, the Turba with the Earthly^m Desire came together into this world, and so the soul is strongly drawn by two, viz. by theⁿ Word of the Lord, which mediated or interposed itself, which out of Love is become Man; this draws the soul continually into the Kingdom of God, and plainly shows the soul the Turba; so that the soul sees in Nature what falshood and sin is, and if it suffers itself to be drawn, then it becomes born again, and so comes to be God's Image.

2. Secondly, the Turba also mightily draws the soul with its band, and continually brings the Earthly Desire into it, especially in the youth, when the Earthly Tree sticks full of green sprouting Essences and Poison; then the Turba does so mightily insinuate itself, that many a soul is not freed to Eternity.

3. In a thing which has its rise from two beginnings, being of equal weight, one part will sink down, if weight be added to it, be it either good or evil that is added.

4. Sin makes not itself, but the will makes it, it comes from the Imagination into the Spirit; for the Spirit enters into a thing, and is infected by that thing, and so the Turba of that thing comes into the Spirit, and first destroys the Image of God.

5. And the Turba proceeds further, and searches deeper, and so it finds the Abyss, viz. the soul; and it seeks the soul, and so finds the wrathful Fire, by which it mingles itself with the thing that is so introduced into the Spirit; and thus at length sin is wholly born. Now, therefore, whatsoever desires to bring that which is outward into the Will, that is sin.

6. The will ought to incline to nothing but to meekness and love, as if it were a Nothing, or Dead; we should only desire to live to God, so that God may work in us, and whatsoever we do besides, our will must be directed so, that we do it to God.

^o Covetousness, or earthly desire, viz. pride, Goods, Power, and Honour.
^p Or Body.

7. But if we set our will upon the^o Essence, then we bring the Essence into the Spirit, and that takes possession of our Heart; and then the Turba is born, and the soul is captivated by the thing.

8. And therefore we Answer, that no soul comes pure from the Mother's^p womb, whether it is begotten by holy or unholy parents.

9. And as the Abyss and the Anger of God, and also the earthly world, depend wholly on God the Father, and yet cannot comprehend and touch his Heart and Spirit; so it is also with the Child in the Mother's womb, if it is begotten by godly Parents, then each Principle^q stands in its own part.

^q Or has a part or share in it.

10. When the Turba takes the Earthly Body, then the Heaven takes the Spirit, and the Majesty fills the Spirit; and then the soul is in God, it is free from pain.

11. But while the soul remains in the Earthly Life, it is not free; because the Earthly Spirit does, with its Imagination, always bring its Abomination into it; and the Spirit must continually stand in strife against the Earthly Life.

The Sixteenth Question.

How is the Soul kept in such Union, both in the Adamical and Regenerate Body?

1.  WE have mentioned before, that there are three Principles, which are all three in the soul already, and are in one another, as one thing: and you must understand, that the strife in the soul begins before, in the seed, while it lies hidden in both Sexes, in the Man and Woman; when also the Turba stirs up itself before, in that it drives the Essence of the seed to a false Imagination, to a false Desire.

2. Though the Spirit tames the body, yet it imagines, and this the Turba causes in the seed; and no man can well deny, but that many times this Imagination is offensive to him, and where there is a right Spirit, it wishes it anathematised: And you must know, that the spirit of the soul sticks thus in a miserable strait, and cannot be loosed, till the Turba takes the body.

^f Banished from him.

3. Now there is never any union between the outward, and the Regenerate Man; the outward man would always devour the Regenerate, for they are in one another, but each has its own Principle, so that the outward cannot overpower the Inward, if the Spirit does but continue ^f in strife.

^f In the Combat.

4. They may very well depend on one another; for all three set forth God's works of Wonder, if they continue in due Order, each keeping its own Principle.

5. For the soul hath the Government of the Fire, and it is the cause of the life of all * three: and the [†] Spirit has the Government of the Light, in which the Noble heavenly Image consists with the Divine Love: and the outward Spirit has the Government of the Earthly Life; this should seek and manifest the Wonders, and the Inward Spirit should give it understanding to do it; and the soul should manifest the Abyss (viz. the highest secret) to [‡] it.

* Note, three bear rule in Man.

[†] The Spirit of the Soul.

[‡] The outward Spirit.

[‡] Or hiddenness.

6. The Soul is the Pearl, and the Spirit of the Soul is the finder of the Pearl, and the Earthly Spirit is the seeker: the Earthly body is the [¶] Mystery, wherein the [§] secret of Greatest [‡] abstruseness lies: for the Deity has manifested itself in the earthliness, viz. in a comprehensible Essence; and therefore now three Seekers belong to it.

7. But you must not suppose, that we undervalued the outward life, for it is most profitable to us, as to the Wonders of God: there is nothing more profitable to the whole man, than to stand still in his threefold Dominion, and not go back with the outward into the inward, but with the inward into the outward.

8. For the outward is a Beast, and belongs not to the inward; but its Wonders which it has brought forth out of the Inward, and which it has opened in the comprehensible Essence, they belong in their Figure (not in their Essence) to the Inward: the Inward Spirit must receive these, (which are God's works of Wonders,) for they shall be the joy of it for ever.

9. And thus we say, that the soul may be kept very well in the New Man, if the Spirits of its Tincture do but hinder its [‡] Longing and Imagination; and though the outward Spirit be bestial, yet the Inward understanding [Spirit] is able to keep in, and subdue the outward, for it is Lord over it: But he that suffers the Bestial Spirit to be Lord, he is a Beast, and has also a Bestial Image in the inward Figure in the Tincture.

[‡] Seeking, or Desire.

[¶] Substantial, or Devil incarnation.

10. And he that letteth the Fire-Spirit, viz. the Turba, be Lord, he is an [‡] Essential

Devil in the Inward Image; therefore here it is necessary, that the outward Spirit pour ^b water into the fire, that it may hold that ^c strong Spirit captive; whereas, whilst it will not be God's Image, it is a Beast, according to the Inward Image.

^b Viz. humili-
lity.

11. Now if we consider ourselves in the ^d union, the outward Spirit is very profitable to us; for many souls would perish, if the Bestial Spirit were not, which holds the Fire captive, and sets before the Fire-Spirit earthly bestial Labour and Joy, wherein it may busy itself, till it be able by the ^e Wonders in the Imagination to discover somewhat of its Noble Image, that it may seek itself again.

^f Or of.

12. My beloved Children, who are born in ^f God, I tell it to you, that it was not done without cause, that God breathed the outward Spirit (viz. the outward Life) into Adam's nostrils; for great danger attended this Image.

^g Magia or Desire.

13. God knew how it went with Lucifer, and also what the great Eternal ^g Magia could do: yea, Adam might have been a Devil; but the outward Looking-Glass hindered that, for where Water is, it quenches the Fire.

^h Or the an Eye.

14. Also many a soul by its wickedness would become a Devil in a ^h moment, if the outward life did not hinder it, so that the soul cannot wholly inflame itself.

ⁱ Or malice, and wickedness.

15. How many are there that are so full of poison and ⁱ evil, that they would murder and commit villany? but this their Fire has Water, or else they were past remedy; as you see in gall, which is a fiery poison, but it is mingled with water, and so the violence of the fire is allayed.

16. Thus it is also with the Inward Essence: the Spirit of this world has wound itself into the Abyfs of the soul, and in its source has mortal water, wherewith it often moistens the soul, when it would spit Fire.

17. Moreover, the outward Spirit could not have life without this Fire, seeing it has fire in all Creatures; but this Fire is only the wrath of the Inward fire.

^k Or kindled.

18. The Inward fire consumes earth and stones, also the body and blood, yea, even the Noble Image, if it be ^k inflamed in the Will: But there the water is a Medicine for it, which allays its aspiring force, whereby it labours to get above the meekness of God, as Lucifer did.

The Seventeenth Question.

Whence, and wherefore is the Contrariety between the Spirit and the Flesh?

MY beloved friend, you know well, that fire and water are contrary;
for the fire is Life, and the water is its Death; and you see plainly, that when Water is poured upon the Fire, the source of the Fire goes out, and so the Fire is dead.

2. And though in Man [the fire] is not wholly dead, because of the Light, which continually causes fire, yet there is an enmity; as there is an enmity between God and Hell; and yet Hell, or the Fire of Wrath, is God's.

3. And God's Majesty would not be manifested, if his Anger were not, which sharpens the divine obscure hiddenness of the Eternity, by the wrath of Nature, so that it is changed into Fire, whence the high Light in the free Eternity is brought forth, which makes a Majesty in the meek source.

4. And yet the Fire is the only cause, that there is a ^l source in the Light, in the Meekness; for the Light proceeds from the Glance of the fire, and hath in it the source of the Fire.

^l Or life, or working.

5. But the Will (as is mentioned before) sinks down in the Anguish, even into Death, and springeth forth again into the Liberty; and this is the Light which has the ^m source of the Fire; but yet it has another Principle in it, for the Anguish is become Love.

^m Or property.

6. After this manner also it is in the Body, where the flesh strives against the Spirit: the Life of the outward flesh is a Looking-Glass of the most Inward fire-life, viz. of the life of the soul; and the life of the Spirit of the Soul, with the Light of the Tincture, is the middlemost Life, and yet it is born out of the soul.

7. But understand our depth right: the Spirit of the Soul, wherein the Divine Image stands, arises in the fire, and is first of all the will to the Fire; but when the ⁿ wrath in the fire is sharpened and inflamed, then the Will comes into a great anguish, like a dying, and sinking down in itself, out of the wrath into the Eternal Liberty; and yet there is no dying, but ^o another world thus comes out of the first.

ⁿ Or wrathful desire, and indignation of the fire.

^o Or second.

^p Or Aking

property.

^q Or feeling.

^r Or springing virtues.

8. For then the Will springs up in the other world, as a sharpness out of the fire; yet it is without any such ^p Anguish source in the Eternal Liberty: and it is a moving, a driving and an ^q acknowledging of the Anguishing Nature; it has all the ^r Essences, which in the first sharp fire-world are brought forth in the Anguish; but they are like one that goes out of fire into water, and so the Anguish of the fire is left in the water.

9. You must understand, that this Life is the Life of the Spirit of the Soul: the Soul is the Center of Nature, and the Spirit is the precious and noble Image, which God created for his Image; herein stands the High, ^r Royal, and precious Image of God; for God is thus, he is comprehended in the same source of Life.

^r Or Kingly.

10. The Spirit is not parted from the soul; no: as you see Fire and Light are not parted, and yet are not one, they have a twofold ^s Source: the Fire is wrathful, the Light is meek and lovely: in the Light is the Life, and in the Fire, the cause of the Life.

^s Or Quality.

11. And thus without much seeking, you may find the cause of the Contrariety, that is between the flesh and the spirit: for the inward Spirit has the ^t Divine Body from the meek Essentiality; and the outward Spirit has the Body of the Glass of the wrathful Fire, viz. the body of the Looking-Glass of the soul, which would always awaken the ^v wrathfulness, viz. the great Wonders which lie in the ^y Arcanum, in the ^z eagerness of the soul; but that the inward Spirit of Love hinders it, lest it should elevate itself, and inflame the soul, and so it would lose the ^a fruition of Love and the Image, and the wrathfulness of the soul would destroy it; and thus contrariety arises.

^t Or God's body.

^v Vehemency or fierceness.

^y In the secret, or hidden Mystery of Eternity.

^z Sternness or fierceness, or strength.

^a The habitation, or sweet taste.

^b Seeking, or longing.

12. The Inward Spirit would be Master, for it subdues the outward; and so also the outward would be Master, for it saith, I have the Great Wonders, and the Arcanum: thus it brags of the Mystery, and yet it is but a Glass of the Mystery.

13. It is not the Essence of the Mystery, but a ^b Desire, a comprehensible Glass, in which the Mystery is beheld; but it would be Master, seeing it has attained a Principle, and is a Life of itself; but it is a fool in respect of the Mystery.

14. Therefore, beloved Brother, if you would seek the Mystery, seek it not in the outward Spirit, you will be deceived, and attain nothing, but a glimpse of the Mystery: enter in even to the Cross, then seek Gold^d and you will not be deceived; you must seek in another world for the pure Child that is without spot: in this world you find only the drossy Child, that is altogether imperfect; but go about it in a right manner.

15. Go back from the Cross into the fourth form, and there you have ^c Sol and Luna together, bring that in Anguish into Death, and drive on that composed Magical body body.

16. It is a ^e longing in the Eternal Longing, and would fain have a body, therefore give it Sol, viz. the Soul, ^f that it may have a body, and then it will soon make a body according to the Soul; for the Will springeth up in Paradise, with fair heavenly fruit without blemish.

17. There you have the Noble Child; ye covetous gripers, we must indeed tell this to you, seeing it is born with the time, but those only that are ours will understand us.

^g Or Similitude, Figure, or Parable.
^h Or Cow's Eyes.

18. For we mean not here a ^g Glass or Heaven, but Gold wherewith you vaunt, which for so long a time has been your Idol God; and your blind ^h Owl-eyes are so quite put out, that you see less than before: But the Children shall see, eat and be satisfied, that they may praise God.

ⁱ Ordirection.

19. We speak here wonderfully, yet we speak nothing but what we must speak: Let none marvel, that he knows the Mystery, who has not learnt it from any man; does not an herb grow without your ⁱ Counsel? neither does it inquire for your Art: yea the Mystery is grown also without your Art, it has its own school; like the Apostles on the Day of Pentecost, who spoke with many Languages and Tongues without premeditation and Art; and so is this simplicity in like manner.

^k That you may be warned of it.
^m Wrangling, Malice, and Tyranny.

20. And this foretels thy Fall, O Babel, ^k that thou mayest know it: no Wrath nor Anger will help you; the Star is born which leads the ^l wisemen out of the East-Country: but seek thou only where thou art, and find thyself; and cast the ^m Turba from thee, and then thou shalt live with the Children: this we tell thee in good earnest, there is no other Remedy; thy Anger is thy fire, which will destroy thyself.

ⁿ Or: trade,

21. Or dost thou think that we are blind? If we saw nothing, we would still be silent; what pleasure would a lie be to God? yea we should be found in the Turba, which searches through all human Essences and Works: or do we this piece of service for Wages? is it our ⁿ living? why do we not mind our bread only according to outward Reason?

^o Matt. 20. 8.

22. But seeing it is our Day-labour, we must do what the Father will have us, for ^o we must give an account of it in the evening; this we speak seriously, and in good earnest.

23. Thus you may well understand the Contrariety of Flesh and Spirit, and apprehend very well that two Spirits are in one another, one striving against the other; for one desires God, the other desires Bread, and both are profitable and good.

^p 2 Tim. 4. 7.

24. But thou Child of Man, let this be spoken to thee: Lead thy life circumspectly, and let the Spirit of thy Soul be Lord, and thou wilt ^p have fought here a good Fight, for this time is but short.

25. We all stand here in the field and grow; let every one have a care what fruit he bears, for at the end of the Harvest every work shall be put into its own Granary.

26. It is better to labour a little while with toil and care in the vineyard, and to expect the great wages and refreshment, than to be a King here for a little time, and afterwards to be a Lion, a Wolf, a Dog, a Cat, a Toad, Serpent or Worm, in ^q Or shape.

^t Gal. 6. 7, 8.

34, 35.

27. O child of Man! think upon this, be yet warned; we speak very seriously, out of a wonderful Eye, you shall very shortly find it by experience; there is yet but a little time, for the beginning has already found the end: this is a little ^r Rose out of the beginning; see yet, and put covetousness out of your ^s Eyes, or else you shall wail and lament, and none will pity you; ^t for what a man sows, that he must also reap; what will Pomp and Honour avail when it leaves you?

28. Here you are very potent, but afterwards you shall be impotent; ^u ye are Gods, and yet you run on headlong to the Devil; take pity on your own Life, and on your fair heavenly Image.

29. Pray be the Children of God, and be not the Devil's; let not the Hypocrites keep you back by their ^x flattery; they do it for their bellies, for their honour's, and for money's sake; they are the servants of the Great Babel. ^x Or Example.

30. Examine yourselves, ask your Conscience whether it be in God? that will blame you, and bid you drive the Hypocrites from you, and seek the clear countenance of God, and look not through ^y a Glass. ^y Or Spectacles.

31. God is for you, he is in you, confess to him, come to him with the lost Son; there is no other can take the Turba from you; you cannot enter but through Death into the other world, whither your Hypocrisy can never come, otherwise there is no forgiveness of sin; and although you should give all to your Hypocrites, yet then you would be as much captivated in the Turba as you were before.

32. It is no such matter, as that one should stand by and take away the Turba from you when you give him good words; no, no, it is a Magical thing: You must be born again, as Christ saith, or else you cannot come to God; do what you will, All Hypocrisy is deceit.

33. If you would serve God, you must do it in the New Man, the Earthly Adam can do him no acceptable service; let him sing, ring, roar, call, confess, pray, cry, and do whatever he will, all is but fighting with a shadow; the Will must be in it, the Heart must wholly resign itself up into it, else it is but conjecture, and a fable of Antichrist's, wherewith the whole Earth is filled.

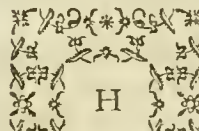

34. The will is greater and more powerful than much crying; it is able to destroy the Turba, and to enter into the Image of God; it has power to be the child of God; it can throw down Mountains and raise the Dead, if it be born in God, and if the Holy Spirit gives it leave.

35. For a man must walk in obedience in great humility, and only cast his will into God's will, that God may be both the will and the deed in him: This is the way to Salvation and to the Kingdom of Heaven, and no other; let the Pope or Doctors preach what they will to the contrary, all is but lying, and mere Hypocritical juggling.

The Eighteenth Question.

How does the Soul depart from the Body at the Death of a Man?

1.  E R E we would have the world invited for a Guest, especially Babel the Whore, and see whether she can be made a true child; for Death is a terrible Guest, he throws the proud Rider and his Horse to the ground.

2. My beloved friend, this is a very ^z hard Question, and requires the Eyes of all the three Principles to see it well; they must not die in Death that would enter in and behold this; they must be poison to Death, and a pestilence to Hell; they must take Death captive if they will see it; no man's understanding can otherwise find it out, except he comes into Death himself, and then he will feel indeed what Death is; he shall surely taste what it is, when one Principle (viz. the life) perishes. ^z Or Deep.

3. You understood before, that all ^a Essences are ^b Magical, and that one is always ^c ... ^a Things of substances. ^b See the Book of the small six Points. ^c ...

^c Or Refemblance.

the ^c Glas of the other, and that in this Glas the Desire of the first Looking-Glas is opened, and comes to be an Essence; and then also that the Turba is in every Essence, which destroys all [till it comes] to the first Essence, and that is alone, and has no Destroyer.

4. For there is nothing more; it cannot be broken, it stands in itself, and out of itself, and goes whither it will: and thus it is every where in no place, for it is in the Abyſs, where there is no place of Rest, it must only rest in itself.

^d Or retired.

5. Now seeing all Essences have proceeded from one, therefore the beginning is also in the last Essence; for the last is ^d gone back into the first, and seeks the first, and finds it in itself; and when it finds the first, it lets all the other go, and dwells in the Limit, and there it can be without ^e source.

^e Or pain.

6. For there is nothing that can give it a ^e source: It is itself the matter of the first Essence; and though it be another thing, yet it is but the twig of itself, and its own will and nothing else; for there is nothing that can give it another will.

7. Thus we give you to understand what dying is: the beginning seeks the Limit; and when it finds it, then it casts away the seeking, viz. the Earthly Life, that shall be cast away, it must break off itself.

8. For the beginning (viz. the soul) continues in the Limit, and lets the body perish; there is no complaining about it, neither doth the soul desire it any more: it must go into its limit, viz. into the Wonders of that which it has been.

^f Or dies, or falls away.

^g Substance, or Drofs.

^h Substantiality, the Glance of the Majesty; the glorified body of Christ; and Adam's body before he slept; Sophia's wedding Garment.

9. For the Spirit of the Soul grieves not when the body ^f perishes, but the Fire-Life grieves, because the matter of the Fire, which the fire has produced, that also perishes, but only in the Substance.

10. The figure continues still in the will, for the will cannot be destroyed: and thus the soul must continue in the will, and it takes the figure instead of matter, and burns in the will; for the first glowing of the fire does not pass away, but it is quite deprived of the matter of the Earthly Life, viz. of the ^g Phur.

11. And thus the fire becomes impotent, and passes into Darknes, unless the Spirit has heavenly ^h Essentiality, viz. the Divine Body; and then the Fire (viz. the true soul) receives that meek body for a ⁱ Sulphur, and so the soul burns in the Love-fire, and is quite gone out from the first ^k Fire-life.

ⁱ Or glorified body.

^k Viz. the Elementary fire of the outward Nature.

^l The fire of the wrath of the outward Life.

^m Or made one again.

ⁿ Or parting of the Soul from the Body.

^o Or middle, between the beginning and the end.

^p Or receptacle.

12. It is now in God's Principle: the first ^l wrathful Fire cannot touch it in Eternity, for it has received another Source, and is truly born again, and knows no more of the first Life, for it is swallowed up in the Magia.

13. The Turba remains in the Earthly Body, and is again become that which it was before the body was, viz. a Nothing, a Magia, wherein all its Essences stand in the Figure as in a Glas, but not corporeally, but after the manner of Eternity; as we know that all the Wonders before this world stood in a Mystery, viz. in the Virgin of wisdom, but without substance.

14. Therefore we here understand, that this Mystery has been so manifested in its parting, that it cannot be ^m extinguished in Eternity; but it remains eternally in Distinction and Partition, and is beheld in the Magia, in the separation, in that manner as it formed itself here.

15. Thus we may perceive what the ⁿ Separation is, that the Turba has found the Limit of the Essence; for sickness to death is nothing else, but that the Turba has inflamed itself, and will destroy the Essence; it is at the Limit, and will cast away that which is introduced ^o between.

16. And this is also the cause that the body dies; the Turba passes into itself into the fire, and so the outward Life is extinguished; for it withdraws the fire of the soul, and so it passes into its own ^p Æther, and is at its Limit.

17. And if the fire of the soul has not the Divine body in the Spirit, nor in the Will in the Desire, then it is a dark fire, which burns in anguish and great horror; for it has nothing but the first four forms of Nature in Anguish.

18. And if the will is quite void of the power of humility, then there is no sinking down, or into itself, through Death into Life, but it is like a ^q tormenting furious wheel, which would continually fly aloft, and yet it goes downwards on the other side; it has the condition of Fire, but not the burning of Fire.

^q Anxious, mad, senseless, giddy wheel.

19. For the Turba is the exceeding strong ^r harshness and bitterness: and the bitterness continually seeketh the Fire, and would strike it up, but the Astringency holds it captive; so that it is only an horrible Anguish, and continually turneth itself like a wheel, and imagines, but finds nothing but itself: it draws itself into itself, and impregnates itself: it devours itself, and is its own substance.

^r Or Astringency.

20. It has no other substance, but that which the Spirit of the soul continually ^f has made in the outward life, viz. covetousness, pride, cursing, swearing, reviling, backbiting, flandering, ^l murder, hatred, ^u wrath, anger, falsehood; this is its food, sport, and ^x pastime; for the Turba in the will takes the substance with it: Its works follow it.

^f Or did, or wrought.

^u Rage, or fullness.

21. And though it has done some good, yet that is done only in ^y a glittering show and appearance, from an ambitious mind; and afterwards it continues thus, in its aspiring, always endeavouring to climb up, it always elevates itself, it would continually be above the Meekness, and yet it neither knows it nor sees it; it is an incessant elevation above God, and yet an Eternal Depression; it seeks a ground, and there is none: This is its Life.

^x Work, or business.
^y Or Hypocry.

22. Yet if it had comprehended any purity of Love in its will, (as many a one that is converted at last in his end,) then it thus sinks into itself through the Anguish; for the humble spark falleth down through death into life, and then the ^z source of the soul ends: but it is a small twig budding forth into the Kingdom of God.

^z Or pain.

23. It cannot sufficiently be described, what refining the soul has, and how it is hindered and plagued by the Devil, before it can get this spark into itself. But this wise world will not believe this, it is too wise, and yet it is so stark blind, it understands Nothing, but hangs continually to the Letter: O! that none might feel this by Experience, we would willingly be silent.

24. We speak not here of any strange ^a source, but only of that which is in the Turba, and also of no other Power of the Devil over the poor soul, but its own horror and ^b abominable suggestions, by which the Imagination of the soul is so tormented.

^a Or pain.
^b Or wicked.

25. The condition of Hell is far otherwise than Babel teaches; the faith that the Devil ^c beats and torments the soul; but this is spoken in mere blindness; the Devil is not at odds with his own Children; they must all do his will; the anguish and horror of Hell plague every one of them sufficiently in their own abominations; every one has his own Hell; there is nothing but his own poison that apprehends him.

^c Whips.

26. The four Forms of the Original of Nature, are the common plague which every one feels according to his own Turba, but one different from another: the covetous has frost; the angry, fire; the envious, bitterness; the proud, an high aspiring, and yet an Eternal sinking and falling into the Abyss; the ^d scorner swallows down the Turba of those abominations which he here belched forth; the false deceitful heart has the fourth form, viz. the great ^e Anguish.

^d Or blasphemer.

^e Or aking.

27. For the Turba stands in the Circle of the Fire, viz. in the heart of the soul; and false-speaking, lying, and ^f untruths, are an abomination and gnawing, and make it curse itself.

^f Idle words, unfaithfulness, or jeering.

28. A Potentate who has oppressed the poor, and consumed his ^g sweat in pride, he rides in the curses of the poor in the height of Fire; for all the ^h necessities of the poor sicken in him.

^g Or labour
^h Or miserie

29. He has no Rest, his pride always climbs up, he behaves himself just as he did here; he continually seeketh, and yet wanteth all things; what he had too much of, that he has too little of there; he continually desires to devour his own Essence, but he has none, for he is Magical.

Or right.

30. He has lost his ¹ true Image; he has the Image, as it were, of a proud-prancing Horse, or of what else he has been delighted with; whatsoever he took with him in his will, that is his Image; where his Heart is, there is his treasure also, and that in its Eternity.

31. But hearken, friend, what the last Judgment will bring with it! then all things shall pass through the Fire, and the floor shall be swept clean, and every one shall go into his own place; at this the very Devils themselves tremble.

The Nineteenth Question.

How is the Soul Mortal, and how Immortal?

1.  Thing which has an Eternal beginning, has also an Eternal end, and so has the Essence of the soul.

2. As to what concerns the Image which God created, and which has a Temporal beginning, that is born out of the Eternal, and will be set in the Eternal Essence without ^k source.

^k Or pain, or working property, or Nature.

3. And where there is no ^k source, there is also no Death; and though there be a source, (as there is a source in Heaven,) yet it is but in one only will, and that has its foundation in the Eternity; and as nothing is there that can find it, so there is nothing that can come into it.

4. But where there is one will only, (as in God, who is All in All,) there is nothing that can find the will; there is no Turba there; for the will desires nothing but itself only, and its ¹ twigs, which all stand in one tree, in one Essence; the Tree is its own beginning, and its own end.

5. The soul has proceeded out of the Mouth of God; and when the body dies, it goes again into the Mouth of God: It is in the Word, the Essence; and in the Will, the Deed.

6. Now who will condemn that which he has in his own body? now the soul is in the Divine body, it is hidden in God from all evil; and who can find it? none but the Spirit of God, and one soul another, and the Communion of Angels.

7. But the wicked souls have lost their Image in the Limit, for it is entered into a Limit, and that Limit is the End of the Image; the Turba destroys the first Image, and attracts the ^m Essences of the will for an Image; and this is also immortal, for the Eternal Nature dies not, because it had no beginning.

^m Or works.

8. If the Eternal Nature in the fire of Anger should die, then also God's Majesty would be extinguished, and the Eternal Something would again become an Eternal Nothing; and that cannot be, but whatsoever is from Eternity, that continues Eternally.

9. The false soul cannot awaken any other source, but that only which stood from Eternity in the Eye of Anger, viz. in the Center of Nature.

ⁿ Figurales Spiritus.

10. All things have been from Eternity, but essentially in the Essence, not in the Substance of the Essence, not substantial Spirits, but Spirits ⁿ in Figure, without Corporality; they have been from Eternity as in a Magia, one has swallowed up the other in the Magia.

11. And a third is come out of these two, according to the form of these two; there has been a Wrestling from Eternity, and a figured substance: the Creation hath placed all in the ° Wonders, so that now in Eternity all things stand thus in the Eternal Magia in the Wonders.

° Or Works of Wonder.

12. Now if the wicked souls had * brought no substance into their wills, then they should have no pain, there would be no perception but Magia; but the substance is an Image, and that is the Turba, and so there is a source that may be felt.

* Note, the condition of the evil souls of such Infants as die in their Mothers womb, before they commit sin actually.

13. There is a dying, and yet no dying, but a will of dying, viz. an anguish in that substance which was introduced into the will.

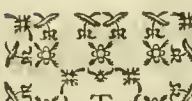

14. And that causes that all things long or pant after God, and yet are not able to reach him; and this causes anguish and sorrow for the introduced evil, when the soul continually thinks, hadst thou not done this, or that, then thou mightest have attained the Grace of God; and the evil substance causes the Eternal Despair.

15. And thus we say no soul is mortal, whether it be in God or in Hell; and its substance remains for ever to God's Wonders.

The Twentieth Question.

How does the Soul return to God again?

1.  HIS has been already sufficiently explained; that it was ^p spoken out of the Mouth of God, and created by the Holy Ghost into the Image of God.

^p Or breath- ed.

2. Now if it so continues, then, when it leaves this Earthly Life, it is already in the Mouth of God; for it is in the Divine Body, no ^a Source can touch it.

^a Evil, pain, or hurt can come at it.

The Twenty-first Question.

Whither goes the Soul when it departs from the Body; be it saved, or not saved?

1.  E that rightly understands the three Principles, has no occasion to ask this Question; for the soul departs not out at the mouth, for it did not come in at the mouth; but it only passes out of the Earthly Life; the Turba breaks off the Earthly Life, and then the soul remains in its own Principle.

2. For the body retains it not, no wood, no stone, can retain it; it is thinner than the Air; and if it has the Divine Body, then it goes direct as a Conqueror through the Turba, viz. through the Anger of God, and quite through Death; and when it is through, then it is in God's ^f Essence.

^f Compre- hend, inclose, keep, or with- hold it.

3. It remains in its ^g Wonders and Essences which it wrought here; it beholds the Majesty of God, and the Angels, face to face.

^g Or substance, Deeds.

4. Wheresoever it is, it is in the Abyssal World, where there is no End nor Limit. ^b Matt. 24. 28. Whither should it go? ^b Where the Carcase is, there the Eagles gather together: It is in Christ's Flesh and Blood, with Christ its Shepherd. Luke 17. 37.

5. Though it should go a thousand miles off, yet it would be in the same place from whence it went; for in God there is no Limit, near and far off is all one in him.

6. It is as swift as a Thought, it is Magical, it dwells in its Wonders, they are its House.

7. The Essentiality that is without it, is Paradise, a springing, blossoming, and growing of all manner of fair heavenly fruits; just as we have all kinds of fruit here in this world, which we eat after an Earthly manner, so also there are all manner of fruits in Paradise, which the soul may eat; they have colours and virtues in the substance, and not like a thought: though they be as thin and subtle as a Thought, but substantial, comprehensible, and palpable to the soul, virtual and full of the sap of the water of Life, and all this from the heavenly substantiality.

8. For the heavenly body of the Soul is from the pure Element, (whence the four Elements are brought forth,) and that gives flesh, and the Tincture gives blood: the heavenly man has flesh and blood, and Paradise is the Power of the substantiality; it is heaven Earth, incomprehensible to our outward Reason.

^x Or Lesson. 9. But we will again teach you another ^x A. B. C. All in this world have not Christ's flesh in them, hidden in the Old Adam; indeed among very many, scarce one, but the Regenerate, who are departed from their own will into God's will, in whom the Noble Grain of Mustard-seed is sown, out of which a Tree is grown.

^y The small thread of Faith. 10. Most souls depart from the body without Christ's body, yet they hang as by a ^y thread; and are at last in their Faith entered into the will; these souls indeed are in the Image in the Spirit, but not in the Flesh.

11. Such as these wait for the last Day; when the Image, (viz. the Body,) shall come forth out of the Grave, out of the first Image, for God will raise it up by the voice of Christ, even that Image which Adam had in his Innocence, which has sprouted with or by Christ's Blood.

^z Or works. 12. But the Earthly Body shall not touch it, that must come before the Judgment in the Turba; but after the Sentence of the Judgment, the Turba shall swallow it up, and the ^z Wonders [of it] shall only remain.

^a Or Source. 13. You must understand us right: These souls that must wait till the last Day for their Bodies, they remain with their bodies in the still Rest, till the last day, without feeling any ^a pain, but in another Principle.

14. They have neither Darknes, nor Majesty, in the Earth, but are at rest without pain, in the Eternal still Liberty, without touching the Body.

^b Or works. ^c Gulf, or distance. 15. Yet they see their ^b Wonders, but they perform nothing in them, for they wait upon God, and are in Humility; for they are sunk down through Death, and are in another world, yet there is a great ^c Space between them, and the holy souls that are in Christ's flesh and blood; but not a Principle, they are in one and the same Principle.

^d Or Power. 16. But a Spirit without a Body has not that ^d might, which the Spirit in the Body has; therefore they are in rest, and are under the Altar of God.

^e Rev. 6. 9, 10, 11. 17. When the last Day shall come, then shall they come forth, and eat of the Bread of God, and put on the Divine Body; as is mentioned in the ^e Revelation of John; where the souls under the Altar, clothed in White, say, Lord, when wilt thou avenge our Blood? and it was answered them, that they should rest a little while, till their brethren were accomplish'd, which should be killed for the witness of Jesus.

18. But the souls of the wicked have another place, viz. in the most ^f innermost, which also is the most outermost in the Darknes; they dare go no whither; they remain merely with the body, in their ^e substance, yet not in this world, neither do they touch the Earth.

^f The innermost is the utter Darknes.

19. They have, indeed, power enough over the Earth; they can open it without ^h substance and perceptibility: But they have not the outward Principle; they have not power enough over the outward Spirit; yet it can for a time make ⁱ Apparitions in the ^h sdyereal Spirit.

^e Essence or works.

^h Essence and feeling.

ⁱ Show juggling tricks.

20. As many appear again in the Astral Spirit, and seek ^l Abstinence, and make many afraid, with causing disturbances in houses; all which they do by the Astral Spirit, till that be consumed, and then their ^m tricks lie in the Darknes; and they expect the last Judgment.

^k Or Spirit of the Air.

^l Or Rest.

^m Or Pomp, and Show.

21. Our Babel says, it is the Devil which goes up and down in the shape of the soul; indeed the damned soul has enough of the Devil, but it is not the very Devil; he is in the Abyfs, and torments the soul in the time of the body willingly, in the Abyfs of the soul.

22. Neither does he altogether want a cloak for his hypocritical deceit, for he can put on an outward garment, to seduce or terrify men in.

23. But this complaint we have against Babel, that she is so extreme blind, and has so little knowledge of God, she has cast away the true Magia and Philosophy, and received Antichrist; now she has lost her understanding, she has a kind of Art still, but her understanding quite fails her, she has broken the Looking-Glass, and sees with Spectacles.

24. What shall we say? The world is blind-folded, it is drawn into a snare, and taken captive, and it sees it not, yet it were at liberty if it did but see it; the snare wherewith it is bound is malicious knavish cunning; thou shalt soon be made to see: It is broad day-light, only awake, thou Keeper of Israel.

25. Thus, my beloved friend, know that there is a difference of places where souls are, according to that whereinto the soul is entered; if it be Holy and Regenerate, then it has a ⁿ body which expects only the ^o Wonders of the body at the last Judgment-Day; it has ^p comprehended them already in the Will, but at the last Day they must stand before the Judgment.

ⁿ The body of Christ.

^o Or works.

^p Conceived, or formed.

26. All souls, good and bad, shall every one receive their Sentence and Reward: The Holy shall be set in the presence of the wicked, that they may see and ^q feel the cause of their ^r pain.

^q Or taste.

27. If any should conceit a peculiar Residence, or place where they should consort or sit together, that contradicts the Rule of the Magia: Every soul is in its own country, and not bound to the place of the body, but it may be where it will; wherefoever it is, it is either in God, or in Darknes.

^r Or source and torment.

28. God is every where, and Darknes is every where; the Angels also are every where, each in its own Principle, and in its own ^s Property.

^s Or source.

29. The Fiction of outward Reason, without the knowledge of the Principles, is ^t as a fighting with a shadow: If I should ask a thousand times, and should always be told something concerning God, and yet were but in flesh and blood, I should look upon it as Babel does; which supposes that the soul flies into a Heaven above the Stars; I know nothing yet of that Heaven, and I can well forbear being there.

^t Or a false Glass, a conceit.

30. Heaven is indeed above; but there are the Angelical Principalities and Thrones: This ^u Eye of the ^v Æther is our Principality and Kingdom.

^u Or Globe.

31. The same is with them above which is with us, but our Creation and Essence is in our Æther: A soul may come to them if it earnestly desires, and the Angels of God will lovingly entertain it.

^v Skies, Mansions, or Spheres.

22. For the same Essence of God, which is with us, is with them; this only is the difference, that they have among them Angelical works, wholly pure without blemish, and we have the great wonders, and therefore they long to be with us; and besides, they are our ministring servants, during the life of the body, and resist the Devil.

23. Now if the Angels be in this world, in the Holy Principle, whither then shall the soul fly first? Perhaps into Pride, as Lucifer did, might Babel think. O no! they continue in humility, and look ^x upon God's Wonders; as God's Spirit moves, so do they.

^y What God does.

The Twenty-second Question.

What does every Soul departed? Does it rejoice till the last Judgment-Day?

^z Or Triumphant.

I. HIS Question contains the exceeding joyful Gate of Glory, leading to the knowledge of the ^y victorious Garland of the soul.

2. When a Darling Son travels afar off into a strange Country, for Art and Honour, he often thinks of home, and of the time when he shall enjoy his Parents and Friends; he rejoices at the thought of that Day, and expects it with inward Joy and Longing: also he applies himself to his business, that he may get Arts and Skill, wherewith he may rejoice his Parents, Kindred, and Friends.

3. Think of this similitude, and take it into consideration. It is just so with the soul; the souls without the body have a great inward joy, and wait for the last Day with great inward Desire, when they shall again receive its fair and Holy Body with its ^z Wonders.

^z Or works, which it did here.

4. Also their Rest is in their will, where they behold their works after the manner of the Eternal Abyssal Magic, which they shall then first receive at the last Day, in the Figure, with the New Body out of the Old.

^a Or fully.

5. Also we know and ^a highly perceive, yet in the Spirit only, according to its knowledge, that the blessed souls rejoice in the labour which they took here, and exceedingly recreate themselves in their wonders which they see Magically: for they that have led many to Righteousness, they have their Reward in the Magia, in the will before their Eyes.

^b Or Crown of Victory.

6. They that have suffered much Persecution for the Truth's sake, they see their bright ^b Triumphant Garland, which at the last Day they shall set upon the New Body.

7. They that have done much Good, they see that plainly shining in the will.

8. They who have been scorned, contemned, persecuted, and slain for Christ's Doctrine, Honour, and Truth's sake, they see the Triumphant Victory, like one that has overcome his Enemy in a fight, and then represents the Victory to his Prince or King; for which he has exceeding great Glory, when his King receives him with great joy, and keeps him with him for his faithful assistant.

9. We have no Pen that can write what exceeding joy is in them; only this we know, that those for the most part have put on the Divine Body in this world, and so have greater perfection than the other: they expect the last Day with great joy and glory, when their works shall be presented to them, and set before their Eyes in heavenly figures; and the wicked shall see them, ^c against whom they have kicked.

10. Every soul rejoices before the face of God, in great hope of that which it shall receive again, for it knows its Reward; but without the body it cannot receive it: for it hath wrought its works in the Body, and therefore it will get that again, which will follow it in the New body.

^c Or whom they have tyrannized over.

11. For though the exceeding precious Holy Souls have put on Christ's body in this world, so that they stand in Heaven, viz. in the Image of God; yet all their works were wrought in the Old Body, which was God's Looking-Glass: and in the Resurrection they shall be presented to them in the true heavenly Figure in that ^d body.

^d Or old body.

12. For the first Image which Adam was before the fall, is Regenerated in Christ; and shall again, with its Wonders, be put upon the soul; and although it had the Divine Body before, yet the ^e Wonders stand in the first Image.

^e Or works.

13. But the Turba, with the outward Kingdom of the outward Source, is gone, for ^f it was a Glass, and is now become a Wonder; it lives without Spirit as a Wonder, and shall be put upon the soul in great ^g Glory, which it shall have from the Light of God; at which the holy souls exceedingly rejoice, and expect it with great longing.

^f The first Image.
^g Clarity, Transfiguration, or brightness.

14. You must know, that every blessed soul trims its Lamp, so that it willingly meets its Bridegroom at the last Day: it always renews its will, and thinks how it shall rejoice with all holy men and Angels, in its new Body in the Wonders: there is a continual springing up of Joy in them, when they think of that which is to come, each as its virtues are.

15. And as their works have been different upon Earth, so also is their hope: for a Day-labourer, who has wrought much, rejoices at his wages, so also here; there is a friendly Effence among them, and in them.

16. All the scorn and disgrace which was put upon them, that were innocent, is a great Triumphant Glory to them, in that they have suffered in Innocence, and put on Patience in Hope, which they have still on them; Death cannot take it away, nor put it off, but the soul takes that with it which it has ^h conceived.

^h Or wrought.

17. Its many hearty prayers, wishes, and good deeds in love to its neighbour, are its food which it eats, and it rejoices itself, till its New Body shall eat Paradisical fruit.

18. But they who have put on the Divine Body here, they eat at God's Table without ceasing; yet the Paradisical fruit belongs to the body of the Wonders, which shall arise out of the Grave, and which was created in Paradise; for it was made out of the Beginning, and it brings the End with the ⁱ Wonders into the Beginning again.

ⁱ Or works.

19. But wonder not, nor think that we understand it so, though we seem to speak of two bodies of the Holiest Saints; for they are not two, but one: But consider, that God's Essentiality filleth all, and that is the Divine Body, which is put upon the ^k Holy Souls, even in this life.

^k The great Holy Souls.

20. For they cast their will into God's will, and so they receive the Divine Body which filleth all things: their will dwells in the Divine Body, and eats of God's word, of God's fruit, of God's ^l virtue, in the Divine Body; and Christ is in God; God is become Christ.

^l Or Power.

^m Or are clothed with.

21. And so they ^m carry about them Christ's Body in God, and yet wait for their first Adamical holy Body, with the ⁿ Wonders, which shall be put upon them with Paradisical ^o property.

ⁿ Viz. the works and deeds which were done by the Elementary Body, during the whole life.

22. For God's purpose must stand; he created the first Body ^p for Paradise; it should have continued there Eternally, and it must go thither again: and the soul must remain upon the Cross of the Ternary, in the Mouth of God, whence it came: and yet the whole Person continues with body and soul in one another; but God filleth All in All.

^o Or quality.

^p Or in.

23. O! that we had but a human Pen, and were able to write it in the Spirit of your Soul, according to our knowledge: O! how many would then return out of Sodom and Gomorrhah, out of Babel, out of the covetous, proud valley of Misery, which is but anguish and pain, full of fear, vexation and horror!

24. And here we shall let you know, that you may deeply consider it, what is the lamentable and miserable condition of the damned souls, and what they have to expect, and but briefly, seeing the following Question does it at large.

25. Their expectation is like that of an imprisoned Malefactor, who continually listens when any thing stirs, when the Executioner should come and execute Judgment, and give him his Reward: so also they.

26. They have a false Conscience, which gnaws them; their sins are set continually before them: they also see their works Magically; they see all their unrighteousness and vanities, their unmeasurable pride and haughtiness; they see the oppression of the poor; their scorning and domineering over them.

27. Their false confidence flies from them, their Hypocrisy was only a deceitful Glass; it reached not the Heart of God; it stands visibly before them in the Magic, viz. in their will; but when they search therein, they stir up the Turba, of the fire, which will always consume the Looking-Glass, and then they are in fear and horror.

28. For they see and know that all must be tried at the last Day, by the Eternal fire of God's Anger; and they feel very well, that their works will stay in the fire.

29. The Devils also exceedingly tremble when they consider their fall, which rests in God's Judgment what he will do; of which the Holy Scripture tells us plainly enough, especially the Judge Christ himself.

30. Thus know, that the totally miserable condition of the damned is, that when they should trim their Lamps to meet the Bridegroom at his Coming, they tremble, and their works wound them, which the Turba nevertheless sets before their Eyes.

31. But now those that are souls highly damned, are presumptuously bold, they renounce God, and curse him, and are his most malicious Enemies.

32. They hold their cause to be just, they oppose God with daring impudence, and think, Is there fire? so are we fire: Is there ^r source? then we will climb up above God, and Heaven in the source of the fire; what care we for humility, we will have the strength and might of the fire, we will be above God, and do wonders by our Power.

33. We have the root, God has but the Glance: let us be Lords, God shall be Servant; our ^r Mother is his life, we will overthrow his strong Tower at once.

34. They have the mind of soldiers, that scale Forts and Walls, and think the City is theirs, though indeed they lose their lives and never get it.

35. You must understand, that Hell is against Heaven, and the Inhabitants thereof against the Inhabitants of Heaven; and this in God is also a great Wonder; all makes for his Glory.

^r Or Quality.
^r The wrath of the Eternal Nature.

The Twenty-third Question.

Whether do the Souls of the Wicked, without Difference, (for so long a Time before the Day of Judgment,) find any Mitigation, or Refreshment?

1.  THING which goes into an Eternal Entrance, is also in the Eternal End: Who can put any thing into his Hand that is afar off, and not present where it is to be done? he must give it only into his hand that is near to receive it; and that thing, which with its will is gone forth out of itself, can receive nothing within itself, because it desires nothing within itself.

2. Thus it is with the Wicked in this world; he is gone with his will out of himself into Covetousness, Pride and Voluptuousness, into Blasphemy, Gluttony and Drunkenness, Whoredom and Wantonness: his will is continually bent to despise the Poor, and in scorn and disgrace to plague the Righteous, and to tread him down by Authority.

3. He has corrupted Judgment with lies and bribes, and continually swallowed down unrighteousness, as a Cow drinketh water; all that has come from him has been ' bitter ^{Or cruel.} Anger, which he esteemed to be his might and power; his will has been mere wilfulness, he hath done what he listed; he hath danced after the Devil's Pipe, and has wholly entered into Covetousness; he has accounted his money and goods his treasure, and his will has continually entered into it.

4. He has never retired into himself, and sought after Love, much less humility; he has looked upon the needy as his footstool, he has oppressed without measure; he has counted it his Art and Wit when he has been able to circumvent the simple, and deprive him of his labour.

5. He has supposed that he had found out the finest policy, who could contrive his business so sure that he might do what he would; then he thought himself very cunning, and that he had great Wisdom.

6. All this, yea and much more, he has conceived in his will, and therewith the Image of the Spirit of the soul has been filled, and all this stands in his figure; and whenever the body^u dies, then the Turba comprises all this in the Spirit.

7. And then if the Spirit would now enter into itself, the Turba goes with it and seeks the ground, viz. the Root of the soul, and so the fire is but * kindled by it. ^{Or returns to Earth.}

8. And you must know, that the souls of the wicked have no mitigation, their best ease and joy is when they climb up in the will, in their^y works which they did here, and continually desire to do them more; it grieves them, that they did not afflict the honest more than they did; their will is just as it was here. ^{Inflamed.} ^{Employment or Office.}

9. They are Spirits of Pride like the Devil, also of Covetousness, and so they swallow down their abominations which they committed here; their joy is only to think how they will condemn God and be their own Lords; this is their recreation and refreshment, and no other.

10. For how should they receive any other refreshment? They dare not for shame lift up their Eyes to God, nor dare they fly to the Saints, whom they have here scorned; they are ashamed to do that, for their falshood continually smiteth them on the face, and their malice and falshood rise up from Eternity to Eternity.

11. When but the least thought of the last Day comes into their minds, then fear and horror stir in them; they had rather let that thought alone, and recreate themselves in haughtiness.

* Or an Image of Love.
 * Or mad, senseless Image of Anger, and Wrath.
 † The Eye of Love, and the Eye of Wrath.
 ‡ Or Jaws.

12. And this is also a Wonder, and the greatest Wonder of all, that an ² Angel should become such a furious ³ Devil; and so the Power of God's Anger comes to be manifested: for God has manifested himself according to both ^b Eyes, in Love and Anger; and it is left free to Man, he may go into which of them he will; God throws none into wrath, the soul casts itself into it.

13. But you must know, that the wrath has set its ^c throat wide open, and draws mightily, and desires to devour All; for it is the Covetousness and the Pride insulting over humility.

14. And so also Love and Humility have opened their Mouth, and draw with all their Powers, and would draw Man into Love, into Heaven.

15. Now into which of these the soul enters, in that it remains and grows, whether in Love or Anger; in that Tree it stands, and there is no Deliverance in Eternity from thence; here in this Life the soul stands in a Balance in the Angle, and may (though it has been evil) be born again in Love, but when the Balance breaks, then it is gone; it is afterwards in its own Country, in its Principle.

16. Who shall break that which is Eternal, where no breaker can be found? for it is its own Maker: Whence then shall another Turba come, when a thing is in the Eternity where no Limit is?

17. But that you may yet see, that God willeth not evil, he makes his will known unto you; he sends you Prophets and Teachers, and gives them his Spirit, that they may give you warning: Now if you refuse to obey, then you stay still willingly in the Anger, which is your ^d Wages and Kingdom.

^d Dwelling, or Prison.
^e Sends you Crosses.

18. God ^e afflicts you to break you off from your own will, from your voluptuous, proud, and dissolute Life: But if you go on, you shall hereafter surely taste the hellish Dregs.

19. We teach you the Cross, and the Devil teaches you pleasure: Now you may take which you will, and that you shall have, whether it be Love or Wrath.

20. We labour for you, but you contemn us; what should we do more for you? we are even your very slaves; if you will not accept us, be it at your peril, and get you away with that which is yours, and we will take that which is ours, and so we are parted for ever.

21. We will still work in our Day-labour, and do what is commanded us; at the Harvest we shall appear before one another, and then you will know us, and do that to yourselves there which you have here done to us; we will not hide this from you, but speak what we see.

The Twenty-fourth Question.

Whether do Men's Wishes ^f profit them at all?

^f Do them any good.

^g Or Gulf.
 Luke 16. 26.

1.  Y beloved friend, look upon the Rich Man and poor Lazarus; so you shall find that there is a great ^g Space between them and us, so that those that would reach them with their prayers and wills cannot, neither can they come to us; there is a Principle between.

^h Or deliverance.

2. The Prayer and Wish of the Righteous penetrates into Heaven, and not into Hell: the Scripture also tells you, out of Hell there is no ^h Redemption; they lie in Hell as dead bones, they call, and no man heareth them, no praying avails them.

3. And though many men should pray for the damned souls, yet their Prayers remain in their own Principle, and pass into Heaven, and not into Hell; there is no calling back again out of Hell, saith the Scripture.

4. You know what Christ said to his seventy Disciples, ⁱ When ye enter into an House, greet the House, and if the Child of Peace be in that House, then your greeting and wish shall rest upon it; if not, your wish returneth to you again: and so it is also here. ⁱ Matt. 10. 12.

5. No good wish enters into Hell: But if the Wicked leaves behind him much falshood and deceit, so that the Hellish Torment is wished to him in the Grave, such wishes come to the wicked soul, those wishes come where they are; for that soul must swallow down its abominations which it committed here, and that is its food which the living send after it.

6. But it is altogether wrong, and does not become the Children of God at all; for thereby they sow into Hell, into the Anger of God: they had need beware, lest they also reap that which they sow; most certainly, if they do not recall themselves and repent, it will fall out no otherwise.

7. Further, we give you to understand, according to our knowledge in the Spirit, (not according to the opinion and conceit of the outward Man, but according to our Gift) that those souls, which, as it were, hang by a ^k thread, and but at last enter into Repentance, and so lay hold of the Kingdom of Heaven, as it were, by a thread, so that Doubting and Faith are mixed, are in such a condition, that a hearty Prayer and Wish redound to their profit, and pierce into the poor captive soul, into its ^l source, if it be made with all Earnestness.

^k The thread of Faith, which is small and weak.
^l Condition, or property, or misery.

8. For it is neither in Hell, nor in Heaven, but in the Gate, in the midst, in the source of the Principle, where fire and light sever themselves, and is held by its Turba, that always seeks ^m the fire: But then this small twig which it has ⁿ conceived, viz. the weak Faith, deeply demerses itself, and earnestly reaches after the Mercy of God, and yields itself patiently into the Death of that sinking down out from the Anguish, and that sinks down from the ^o pain into the meekness of Heaven.

^m Or to devour it.
ⁿ Or comprehended.
^o Or source.
^p Or tedious while.

9. And although many a soul is held a ^p sufficient while, yet the Anger cannot devour that small Faith, but must at last let it go.

10. But I leave it to him, to try what this is, who wilfully persists in sin till his End, and then first desires to be saved: and then the ^q Priest, forsooth, must save him: he shall find it by woeful experience.

^q Pfaff.

11. We say, that a man's hearty fervent prayer stands such a one in stead; for a zealous, earnest, faithful Prayer has power to break open the Gates of the Deep, it breaks open a whole Principle, and seeks; and if there be any thing there, that is capable of its will, that takes hold of it, viz. the poor soul in its source of sin receives the earnest Divine Will of its loving Brother, and so is strengthened; and in its brother's Spirit and Will is able to sink down out of the Anguish, through Death, and attain the Kingdom of God.

12. But into its glorification it cannot help it; for it shines forth out of its own Essence and Will: The soul of a Neighbour goes no further than death with it, (yet it is not the Soul, but the Spirit and Will of his Soul that does this,) and there the Anger parts, and then it is released from the wrath; and then the Spirit enters again into its own soul.

13. In Popery, much juggling has been invented about this, with ^r Masses for souls, and that for money only: but this has been a great cheat of the ^s Priests of Babel; for there is earnestness required to strive with the Anger of God, and overcome it.

^t Pfaffen.

14. Yet we confess, and acknowledge readily, that the Church of Christ has great power to ransom such a soul, if with fervency and earnestness it does it, as it was done in the Primitive Church, when they had holy people, and Holy ^t Priests, who performed their Ministry in real Earnestness.

^t Priester.

15. They indeed effected somewhat, but not in such a way as the Pope boasteth of; saying, that he hath the Key, and that he can let out a soul with his ^u blessing when he will, if a man will but give him money: This is a lie.

16. If he be Holy, then he bears the ^x Great Mystery, and is a Shepherd of Christ over his Lambs: but then he must, with the Congregation, in great earnestness, press into God in great Humility, and come to the place of the poor soul, but not for money.

17. There is always covetousness in Money, and it never reaches the earnest ^y Principle; the Prayer of the Covetous goes into his chest: we say, that all service which is done in the Church of Christ for Money, belongs to Antichrist in Babel, for ^z their hearts depend upon it: It were better men gave them meat and drink, and necessaries, but no money; and then they should not set their hearts so much upon it.

18. What can a Spirit seek and find in the Mystery, when itself is not in the Mystery? O! there is a great deceit in that; when it is Day, you will see that it is so: you are still in darkness in the Mystery, so egregiously has Babel blinded you.

19. And it only is (because you have regarded Art and Favour, and not the Spirit of God) therefore notorious delusions are seized upon you, so that you believe lying Spirits, who speak Delusions in ^a Hypocrisy; on these you depend, and stick to them, and commit Hypocrisy with Error: Observe well what the Revelations of John and Daniel tell you; It is Day; the Reward will shortly follow.

20. You have Teachers now, that wholly ^b suppress the Spirit of the Primitive Church; try them, and you shall find them to be the Whore's Wolves, which at first sprung up in the Primitive Church, when men slept; and these are they that will devour the Whore themselves.

21. But try them, they are Wolves sent from the ^c Turba; they must do it; God permits it so to come to pass, and will have it so, that he may sweep out one besom with another: yet they are besoms, and after the accomplishment of the ^d Wonders of the Anger, they shall both be delivered to the ^e Turba together.

22. Let this Spirit tell you this: it is your own Prophet; he is born out of your ^f Turba upon the ^g Crown: Awake, or else you must be devoured by one another.

23. For it is no stranger that consumes you, but your own ^h Turba, which is come to the Limit. O! boast not so much as you do of a golden time; it is a time of Wonders.

The Twenty-fifth Question.

What is the Hand of God, and the Bosom of Abraham?

1.  T has been sufficiently explained already, that it is the Essential Omnipresence of God, but in its own Principle: as the Rich man who was in Hell, could not obtain that Abraham should send Lazarus to him, with one drop of cold water to cool his tongue in those flames: Abraham said, there was a great Gulf between them; that is, a whole Principle.

2. But the bosom of Abraham is to be understood thus: Abraham was the Father of the Faithful; and God gave him the Promise, that in his seed all people should be blessed; this was to be understood of the Messiah Christ, who would become man in the ⁱ Faithful; and as he became man in Abraham's seed, so also he would be born anew in the Children of the faithful, and bless them.

ⁱ Or Believers.

3. Now this is the Holy Christian Church, born in Christ, and that is the bosom of Abraham, for we are All one Body in Christ; and the Promise was made to Abraham: He was the Patriarch; we are all born in the same Promise; understand, in the New Birth in Christ, and are in the same bosom which receives us.

4. And when by earnest Repentance, we enter into the Promise of Abraham, then we go into the bosom of Abraham, viz. ^k into our Promise, and Christ is born in us, in the bosom of Faith; this is the fulfilling [of the Promise.]

5. And thus, in Humility, we are with Lazarus in the bosom of Abraham; for Christ is Abraham: Christ was promised to Abraham, and now he hath him, and we with him; and so we come into Abraham's bosom, and are his Children in the Promise, and Christ is the fulfilling of it; and we in the fulfilling are in the bosom of Abraham, and are the seed of Abraham, according to the Spirit.

6. Here, O ye blind Jews, open your Eyes: what was meant by Abraham's Circumcision? nothing else but that sin should be drowned in the blood and death of Christ, who shed his blood for the Children of the Faith of Abraham, and be regenerated in this blood, as in a heavenly Tincture.

7. Abraham and his Children drowned sin in their blood by Faith in Christ, who should become Man in their blood, and now it is fulfilled; and therefore God has set the seal of Faith^l in the substance; and now we are and should be regenerated in the true blood of Christ.

8. The blood of Christ takes away the Turba wholly from us; and so we (viz. the New Man out of the Old Adam)^m stand up in Christ's blood, and bear Christ's image, Christ's flesh and blood in us, in our image, if we are children of Abraham, and not Ismaels.

9. For to Isaac belong the goods of the image of the body of Christ; the Circumcision is Ismael's, for he is conversant about works; but the goods are Isaac's: yet Ismael shall dwell in Isaac's Tents at last; for Japhet shall dwell in the Tents of Sem, but the Kingdom belongs to Sem.

10. We have the goods of Isaac, not by the merit of works, but from Grace, from the Love of God: we cannot attain them by works, but in Faith, in the Will, in the Deed, and in entering [into the promised Inheritance.]

11. He that enters intoⁿ a Dominion, that is not his own by right of Nature, he enters into it by the favour of the Donor: why is a servant in the house angry, that his Lord is so bountiful to give a stranger the Dominion?

12. We were strangers, and the work is in his house; but the Lord hath given us the promise in Paradise, that he would again freely, out of Grace, give us his Kingdom: He rejected Cain's offering, but he gave the Kingdom of grace to Abel; for Abel sought it in the Spirit, and Cain in the Work.

13. Thus understand, that God's Kingdom is Magical; for the first will attains it, and not the Will in the^o Essence; for that Will remains in the Essence; but he that is at liberty, he finds Eternity and the Kingdom of Grace therein, and the Promise also, together with the Essence; and so the work dwells in the Will, and is the Will's household servant.

14. Thus you understand, if you have your sight, all the Old Testament; this is the only ground, though comprised but in brief; if we write upon Moses, you shall find it wholly there; and thus we have shown you the true ground of the bosom of Abraham, and of the true Christian Religion.

15. He that teaches otherwise is of Eabel; beware of him, he has not Christ's Spirit, but he is Ismael, and seeketh but in his own Conceit.

16. O! thou dear Christendom, do but open thine Eyes, or else it will no more shine so clearly to thee; go yet to Lazarus in the bosom of Abraham.

^k Into the Promise that is made to us by the Trinity.

^l That is, in the Essence, or in the water.
^m Or rise again.

ⁿ Herschafft.

^o Or work.

The Twenty-sixth Question.

Whether do the Souls of the Dead take care for Men, Children, Friends, and Goods? And whether do they know, see, approve, or disapprove their Purposes and Undertakings?

I.  MY beloved friend, this Question is beyond the reach of all human Reason and Knowledge, according to outward Reason; but seeing we are Abraham's Children, we have also Abraham's Spirit in Christ; and as Abraham looked back upon the Promise in Paradise, and then also forward to the fulfilling of the Promise, so that he saw in the whole Body of Christ what was yet to be brought to pass in the ^p middle, ^q and saw Christ afar off; so also we.

^p Or the time between the Beginning and the End.
^q John 3. 56.

2. Now seeing you so vehemently long after the great Mysteries, and seek them with so earnest a Desire, giving God the Glory, accounting yourself unworthy in your high Art, and so humble yourself before God; therefore God gives you them, though by so mean and poor an Instrument, who esteems himself much more unworthy of them, but yet would not willingly strive against his Will; and so you are the cause that this hand finds and attains them.

3. For this hand knew nothing of the Mystery; it sought only for the Faith of Abraham, but the understanding of Abraham was also given unto it, which you have caused by your seeking.

4. Now see that you also obtain the Spirit of Abraham, which has written in the knowledge of this hand, we will impart it to you as a brother; for we are not your Lord in the Mytery, but your servant.

5. Apprehend us right; we are Lazarus, and you may be accounted Abraham, in comparison of us; you have laboured much more than we, but we are fallen into your Harvest; not of merit, but by the Grace of the Giver, that no tongue might boast in the sight of God, and say, this has my understanding done.

^r We. in his own Reason.

6. You propose a deep Question; ^r I understand it not: for if I should understand it, then I should dwell in the separated soul, and must have the very same spirit, and knowledge of that soul.

7. But now seeing we are one body in Christ, we have all of us Christ's Spirit; therefore in Christ we all see out of one Spirit, and have one knowledge; for he is become man in us, and all holy souls are our fellow members; all begotten out of one: and we all have one Will in Christ, in the true bosom of Abraham.

^s In part, or in imperfection.

8. And now we have obtained strength to reveal to you this hidden thing in Christ; for our soul sees in their souls; not as if they came to us, but we go to them; for they are in perfection, and we but ^s in part.

9. And now we are able to answer you, not from the reason of the outward world, but from the Image in Christ, and from his and our Spirit.

10. You ask, whether the separated souls take care of human matters, and approve, or disapprove them? Now this you must understand to be in three different manners, concerning three several sorts of souls.

^t Or stay in that condition.

11. First, those souls which have yet not attained Heaven, and so stick in the source, in the principle, in the birth, they have yet the human Essence, with the works in them; they diligently search out the cause of their ^t retention.

12. And therefore many of them come again with the Astral Spirit, and wander up and down in their houses and places of abode, and appear in a human Shape, and desire this and that, and often take care about their Wills or Testaments, and think to procure the blessing of the Saints, that they may rest; and if their Earthly affairs still flick in them, they take care many times also about their Children and Friends.

13. This condition of theirs continues so long, till they fall into their Rest, so that their Astral Spirit be consumed; then all such doings, cares and perplexities, are at an end, and they also have no more knowledge thereof, but that they see them merely in the Wonders, in the Magia.

14. But they touch not the Turba, neither seek what is in this world: for they being once passed through Death from the Turba, they desire such things no more; they also take no further care, for care stirs up the Turba, and then the will of the Soul should be forced to enter with its Spirit into earthly things; but it had rather let such things alone, because it hardly got rid of them before: It will no more entertain the Earthly will.

15. This is an Answer concerning this first sort; and we tell you plainly, and in Truth, that this sort, after they are once received into Grace, take no more care purposely about human Earthly ^u matters, but they behold the heavenly matters, which are brought to them by the Spirit of man, and rejoice in them; but there is something still behind, which is this.

16. A living man hath such Power, that he is able with his Spirit to go into Heaven to the separated souls, and stir them up about some Question by a hearty Desire; but it must be earnest, it must be Faith that can break open a Principle.

17. And this we see in Samuel the Prophet, whom the ^x King of Israel raised up, that ^x Saul he might make his will known to him: though some look upon it otherwise; of whom we may well say, that they are blind and void of knowledge, for they speak but their own scholastic conceits, and form Opinions about that they have no knowledge of in the Spirit, and that is Babel.

18. Now secondly, the other sort, which sink into Death without a ^y body, they are wholly in one and the same place of the Principle, in which the first sort are, which did afterwards sink down in themselves: All these take no evil affairs upon them, where- in the Turba sticks. ^y Or the body of Christ.

19. But when the honest souls which are alive send them their works, with their Spirit and Will, they rejoice in them, and are so friendly and ready, that they appear to men magically in sleep, and show them good ways, and many times reveal Arts which lie in ^z secret, viz. in the Abyss of the Soul.

20. For seeing the Earthly Spirit thrusteth its Mystery before the Soul, and keepeth the Soul captive in that Mystery, therefore the Spirit of the Soul cannot always attain the deepest ^a secret; but after the departure of the body, the soul is naked, and especially if it be without a New Body; then it beholds itself, and also its Wonders: and it can very well show one that is living, somewhat in the sleeping Magia, if he be honest and has not stirred up the Turba; for Dreams are wholly Magical, and the soul without a Body is in the Magia of God. ^z In Arcana, in the most inward Mystery. ^a Or Arcanum of the Soul.

21. Thus know that no soul separated from the body enters into any wicked matter, unless it be a damned soul, which indeed enters in Magically, and has its joy therein, and teaches great Master-pieces of Wickedness in Dreams, for it is a servant of the Devil.

22. And whatsoever a wicked man desires, that the Devil readily helps him to; for he can do it better by the soul of a man than of himself, for he is too crude, and ^b terrifies the Magia, so that the Elementary Spirit is astonished, and ^c awakens the body. ^b Causes horror in the Magia. ^c Or raises up.

^c Stirring up. 23. Also you must know this, that all is done Magically in the will, without ^d awakening of the source: no soul stirs up its Essences of its own accord to please Man; unless a man awakens, and disturbs them himself.

24. There are many Pieces of wickedness in Necromancy, which can many times vex and torment the Spirits of men; but they do so to no soul, that is clothed with Christ's Essentiality, for that soul is free.

25. The third sort of separated souls, are those which are in Abraham's bosom in Christ, having the heavenly Essentiality; none can stir them, except they will themselves, as when they bear a favour to a soul that is like themselves: they take no Earthly thing upon them, unless it makes for the Glory of God, and then they are restless to reveal something in a Magical manner.

26. But they let no Turba into them; neither do they intercede with God for us; but whatsoever comes to them, they rejoice in it, with the Angels: ^e for the Angels rejoice at a sinner that repents; then much more the Souls.

27. Why should they pray to God for us? It lies not in their Prayer, but in man's entering into God; when he strongly turns his will to God, then God's Spirit helps him without ^f their Prayers.

28. For his Arms are stretched forth day and night to help Man; what need is there then of their Prayers? It is the will of God, that man should come to him.

29. Shall then a ^g soul be so presumptuous as to make God so severe a Judge, as not to be willing to receive a returning sinner? Surely no true knowledge of God were in this: But when they see the soul press in with its Spirit to God, it is great joy to them that God's Kingdom is enlarged.

30. The heavenly soul has God's will: what God willeth, that it willeth also; but it is God's Spirit itself that will help the converted sinner.

31. The souls see well how God's Spirit penetrates into the soul, if the will of the soul does but give way to it: there is no need of the Prayers of any ^h Angel, they all wish that God's Kingdom may come into us, and God's will be done; but in the Dominion they give God the Glory.

32. That men in Popery have invocated great Saints that are dead, and that they also have appeared to men, and wrought ⁱ Wonders, we acknowledge it, and it is true; and although it be now taught against it, it is by those that are indeed quite ignorant in it: It has another A. B. C. which all of them on both sides do not at all understand.

33. The Faith of one receives the Faith of another; the Faith of the living laid hold of the Faith of the Saints departed, and the ^k Faith has wrought Wonders.

34. Yea it is so powerful, that it can remove Mountains! Shall then the pure Faith of the Saints in the Faith of the living be able to do nothing? Indeed it could even ^l dissolve the whole world, if God would suffer it.

35. As he has permitted it to work so far sometimes, that the Heathen have been converted by such means, when they have seen such Wonders wrought at the ^m Death of the Saints.

36. Should not a soul in heaven be willing to put forth its faith for the glory of God, and the working of wonders for him? This is done by the Holy Ghost, who has wrought the Wonders by the Faith of both parties; and they are only the Wonders of God, and of his Children.

37. But this is wholly thrown to the ground; and now there is so learned a school, that it contemns all God's ⁿ Wonders: but it is Babel, and not the Spirit of God: it is envious pride; they stand up and cry, Come ye all to me; here is Christ, here is the Gospel:

Gospel: Indeed there is Pride, Covetousness, Ambition, and Self-seeking and Vain-glory, an exaltation of proud Babel.

38. It is even the old Antichrist, and they are young twigs sprung out of the old Tree; and they have stirred up the Turba with their strong wrathful sap; which Turba shall root up the whole Tree, for God has cursed it: it is wholly evil, and wormeaten; it must fall.

39. For it is a young Tree grown out of the Root, out of the old Root, which shall discover what the old Tree has been in its Wonders.

40. Yet we would not despise any, but only speak of our Wonders, and say, that the servant shall enter into the House, and be free; for the time is at hand, that he should eat with the Son, and be merry and rejoice with him.

41. Thus we answer this your Question summarily, that indeed the holy souls certainly know of our holy works, and approve of them; but they do not at all regard false works; for they dwell in another Principle, into which no evil work can come, neither do they look upon, or regard it; they do not enquire after that which belongs to the Devil, they know nothing but that which reaches to their Principle.

42. Children, Parents, Friends, and Strangers, are all alike to them; for in Heaven we are all Brethren: They take no greater care of Parents or Children, than they do of others, unless they serve God; and then their service of God is acceptable and joyful to them, but they enter not into their Turba.

43. For after the last Day, honest Parents shall know nothing of their Children which are in Hell; therefore it is sufficiently and plainly known to us, that they now also take no care about wicked matters.

° The evil which they do, or suffer justly.

The Twenty-seventh Question.

Whether do the Souls departed know and understand this, or that Art or Occupation; whereof, while they were in the Body, they had sufficient Skill?

I.  His is as in the following Question: all their works appear to them in their will after a Magical manner: they see them, but the figure of them shall then first be given them at the Day of Restoration, so that they shall be able rightly to behold their works; for they must first be tried by the Fire, and whatsoever is false, must remain with its Turba in the Fire, according to the words of ¹ Christ.

2. But it is strange that men should ask, whether they know Arts or no? Without question they know all Arts, how deeply so ever they are grounded, but they dare not awaken them, that they should appear in their Spirit; for Arts are born in the Center of Nature, out of those Essences wherein the Wonders lie, which they sought in this world, so far as has been opened to them in the Mystery.

3. A soul that is without the Divine body, does not willingly enter into the Mystery for Art; it stands still in its rest; it fears the Turba; it gives God the glory.

4. But those souls that are highly enlightened, who have heavenly Essentiality in their Spirit, they have the skill and knowledge of heavenly things, and of whatsoever lies hid in the Mystery; especially those who have been conversant with the Mystery in this Life: the other search not into the Mystery.

Or Employment.

5. For every one continues in his calling, in that which he delighted in here; though there be no such working, yet they have their joy in it; for in Heaven there is an humble simple Children's Life.

6. Why then should they search after Art, when the whole Mystery of God standeth open; God filleth All in All; there is only a mere Wonder, they All live in Wonders, and are all of them the Art of God; they have great knowledge, but in a Paradisical simple Children's Life.

The Twenty-eighth Question.

Whether has the Soul any more Knowledge of Divine, Angelical, Earthly, and Diabolical Things? And whether can it get more certain Experience and Knowledge of them, than it had in the Body?

1. CONCERNING Divine and Angelical Knowledge, certainly it has much more of that, for it is in the Principle of God; the Son sees very well what the Father does in his House, and so likewise the Soul sees what is in Heaven.

2. Their knowledge is different; for the highest knowledge is in the Majesty; and therefore most souls must wait till the last Day, when they shall receive their new Body.

3. But the highly enlightened souls, which are in the Divine Body and Power, they have superabundant understanding and knowledge of God, and of the Angels; for they continue in the Wonders of God, till their own Wonders shall be presented also to them.

4. The souls that are without a body are in Heaven, in God, as it were Magically; they awaken no Wonders, but are under God's Altar, and expect the Wonders at the Day of Appearing.

No holy soul.

5. They take no care about devilish matters; it belongs to the Angels to strive with the Devils, and to defend man; no soul imagines into Hell, it is Enamity to it.

The Twenty-ninth Question.

What is the Soul's Rest, Awakening, and Glorification?

1. HIS is already sufficiently explained; their Rest is without Essence in the stillness, where they are in God's hand, and no source touches them; they have no feeling of any source, but they are as one that lies in a sweet sleep and resteth very quietly.

2. Their glorification, during this time, is when they consider of the Joy to come; then the Spirit enters into the Majesty of God, and receives Joy and Clarity; and so all this time they trim their

The Thirtieth Question.

What is the Difference between the Resurrection of the Flesh and of the Soul, both of the Living and of the Dead?

1.  H R I S T faith concerning this, that there shall be a great difference; therefore we remit you to the Scripture, for it shall come to pass just according to the Holy Scripture.

2. Seeing that human Reason cannot search or find it out, how should I answer you more than the Scripture speaks of? Yet seeing you so earnestly desire and long to know these things, you even become the Finder in your seeking, and I am but the Instrument.

3. And though it be given and opened to me, yet it is not a thing that consists in my understanding or knowledge; but the knowledge stands in the Spirit of Christ; according to which this hand calls itself twofold, for it speaks from two Persons; and two Persons say, not I, but we, and speaks of two, as a Lord who speaks of his Person, and of his ^f Dominion.

4. Thus also the children and servants of God ought not to say the knowledge is mine, the understanding is mine, but give God the glory: and in their manifestation of the Wonders of God, should speak of two, viz. of the Giver and Receiver.

^f Office, Authority, Power, or Jurisdiction.

5. Neither should any understand this our manner of writing, so as if the hand did glory, or boast itself of its human authority and worthiness; though indeed we are worthy in Christ: but as to the outward Man, we will have no honour or renown, for the renown is God's.

6. We are Children of the Father, and must do as he will have us, and not ^g bury the Talent which he gives us in the Earth, for the Father will require it with increase; and if there be no increase of it, he takes away that which he has given, and gives it to him who has gained much: which would be a very miserable taking away from me; for me to know and enjoy God, and then to lose him again, it were much better for me to lose the whole world, and the outward Life, than God and the Kingdom of Heaven. ^g Matt. 25. 28.

7. Neither is it a light matter to be disobedient to God: see what befel Corah, Dathan, and Abiram about Moses: we say the same shall come upon the disobedient and scorners.

8. Indeed the scorner sees not his punishment instantly, but his ^h Turba takes it in; if he has in derision been a scorner and reviler, and now would fain be delivered from his ⁱ Turba, then he must bewail it in bitter lamentation and sorrow in the sight of God, or else he will carry his scorn with him into the Fire of Anger, and then it will gnaw him for ever: we would have this spoken for a warning. ^h Viz. his perturbation, malice, and wickedness make a figure of it.

10. And because we are to set down the Resurrection of the Dead, we must write the manner of it, what it is, and by what power this world shall ^m perish, and the dead arise; it will be earnest, account it no jesting matter; we shall speak of the very ground of it.

11. 14. The last Judgment belongs to the Judge Christ and the Holy Ghost; for here the Center of the Eternal Spirit will stir up itself, having also divided itself into three Principles, whereof one is the Spirit of Anger, and the other the Divine Spirit of Love, and the third is the Air-Spirit of the outward world.

16. And as he was the ^a Work-master of all Essences, so also it is he that shall give every thing its own Mansion, and gather every thing into its Granary.

17. For he has many helpers, viz. the Angels; they shall sever and part all asunder; and then the Father, ^b cum verbo Domini, pronounces the Sentence by the Mouth of Christ, and then the world begins to burn, and every thing enters into its own Granary and Reservatory.

18. For the Reservatories will be divers, not only two, viz. the two Principles, yet in two Principles, but with much difference, every thing according to its ^c virtue.

^c Or power.

19. For every work stands in its Magical Principle, wherein it is contained, as a several distinct Wonder both in Heaven and Hell, every thing according to its Spirit; as it has been good or evil, so will its form appear; and so also will its virtue be, like the flowers of the field in their varieties: And in this manner also shall the glorification and joy of Man be, all according to the ^d Essence which he brought forth here.

^e His works which he wrought here.

20. But we understand here the Essence of Faith, which is the virtue in the Essence of Love, and not of the outward work; for all shall be represented in the figure, in the Wonders, and that both as to the beginning and circumstances.

21. When the last Day shall dawn, then the Deity manifests itself once more, and that is the third time, in all Forms, in Love and Anger; and then all things together at once shall be plainly manifested, and visibly set forth in the sight of all Creatures, in the manner following.

22. The beginning of the Creation in the Word Fiat has inclosed this World in itself as a Model, and ^e founded the limit wherein now the Wonders are contained, which should be manifested in the middle, in the time, and brought to Essence, which were foreseen from Eternity in the wisdom, in the Magia of God, and will be all in the Essence then, and then the ^f limit is nigh at hand, and there will be no time of seeking more, for then all is finished; whatsoever God had in his Eternal Counsel, he has conceived and manifested in time.

24. But the ^e middle with the ^h Wonders which were manifested in the time, continues for evermore in the beginning and in the end, as an Eternal middle, with its Wonders, viz. with the Angels and Men, and their Essences; as also the figures of all Creatures, and all whatever has been Essential at any time; the Earth with its Metals, and Stones, and all material substances, as Trees and Herbs, all these stand in the figure, in the middle, and in the Wonders, but quite void of such Essences and Life [as they have had here.]

25. For no Beast cometh again, but its figure continues in the Magia, for it arose out of the Eternal Looking-Glass; so that now, when the outward Earthly Glass breaks, it must remain in the Eternal as a Wonder, to God's honour and glory for ever.

26. And these Essences belong all to Paradise; for they shall be the Holy Paradise, wherein the heavenly Essences shall bear essential palpable fruit.

27. And as here in this Life we account the fruits of the Earth, proceeding from its Essence, as ⁱ dead things without ^k understanding, so also the Bestial and Earthly Image of this world shall appear as a dead Essence, and so shall the Essence of all Creatures, they shall remain as a shadow.

30. For the Spirit stirs the Turba of all Essences in all the three Principles; and then in one hour all will stand manifested, whatever is in Heaven, Hell, or in this World.

31. For the Turba stirs up all Essences and all Creatures, and all whatever is in Heaven and Hell, will be made visible, and every one shall see the works of his own Heart, be they good or evil.

32. In this hour also the Judge Christ will appear upon the Bow of the Ternary, as upon a Rainbow; according to the Principles of this world it is a natural Rainbow, but according to the Principles of God it is the Ternary, the Cross with a twofold Rainbow, having one part turned into the Internal Principle, that is, in the Abyss of the Anger, and there he sits upon the Anger of God: This the Devils and all wicked men shall see.

piercing through Spirit and Flesh, through Marrow and Bones; for the soul in the Turba, by the moving of God, is stirred up already beforehand in the fierce wrath.

37. And then they will fall to the ground for very Anguish, and some of them will bite or gnaw their blasphemous tongues; and the proud will say, "O ye Mountains fall on us, and ye Hills cover us from the Eye of this wrathfulness: they will creep into the Caves, and Clefts of the Rocks, and endeavour to bury themselves in the Mountains: they would willingly kill themselves, but there is no more Death; they will endeavour to deprive themselves of Life with Weapons, yet there is no dying, but Wrath and Anger left.

38. In this horror, all the buildings in the world will fall down; for the Earth will tremble, as if it were shaken with Thunder; and the horror will be in all living things, in every thing according to its * Source; a Beast has no such source as the soul has, only it is afraid of the Turba.

39. And in this elevation and commotion, all waters will rise above the height of all mountains, so that there will be no ^y breathing upon the Earth; they will rise so high, that they will be as it were consumed: All things will be so comprehended in the Anger, in the Turba, that there will be nothing but mere Anguish in the Elements.

40. All high Mountains and Rocks will crumble and fall down; the Stars will fall to the Earth with their strong influence and virtue: All this will be brought to pass in several days; for, as the world was created, so it shall have its End; for the ^z longing of the Earth in its Anguish will draw the Stars to it, as it has always done ^a in this time; so that the earthly body has drawn the ^b seeking of the Stars to it.

41. For the Stars are a Magical seeking, which has awakened Life; therefore, now when the Earth is awakened in the great Turba, it will then become so thirsty and hungry, that it will draw down the Stars to it, there will be such an Anguish upon the Earth.

42. But the Children of God shall lift up their eyes and hands to Christ, and rejoice, that the Day of their Deliverance is at hand; for the Anguish does not touch them.

43. And in those days (but how many are appointed for it, are only known to God; for in six days the world, and all its hosts were created; but this is now hidden from us) the water will return again to its own place, and fill all the Deeps more than before.

44. For now Death comes with it; and in that hour, all Creatures, except Man, shall die: and all men that have crept into the Rocks and Mountains, shall come forth, but with anguish of their Conscience; though now the Turba has permitted, that the horror stands in Death, for the falling of the water captivates the Turba.

45. And then the voice of the Holy Ternary will open itself according to all the three Principles, and say by the Mouth of Christ the Judge: Arise, ye Dead, and come to Judgment.

46. This voice is the original Eternal Spirit, which upholds every life, and which also has always ruled in all the three Principles; for it is that Spirit, whence the life of every thing has existed, and in which it stands to Eternity: It has been the life and motion of all things, in which the beginning, and also the end of every life has stood, and the Eternity; for it is from Eternity, and the Creator of all things.

47. It has two Eternal beginnings, viz. one in the Fire, and one in the Light; and the third beginning has been a ^c Glass of the Eternal, viz. the Spirit of this World; it hath been as a Wonder in this world, and the Wonders have been made manifest by it, and that which possesses it, is the last Judgment, its motion is the last.

48. For in the Creation it moved the Father; and in the Incarnation of the Word, the Son, and now the last moving, and the Judgment, is its own; it will reduce every thing to its Eternal abode; and this is done by the voice of the word proceeding from the Mouth of Christ.

49. For the Spirit goes forth in two Principles in God; that is, in the Anger or Fire, it goes forth as the earnest wrath of the Fire-life; in the light of the Love it goes forth as a flame of the Divine Majesty; and in the Spirit of this world, it goes forth as a Wonder of Life; and all this is undeniable.

50. And if perhaps some person would arrogate such exceeding high Learning to himself, as to deny it, to him we offer to demonstrate it in every thing, we will except nothing in this world; every thing will afford an evident Testimony of it, let him come to us when he will: he ought not to forbear, and say, we are mad; for if these words will not satisfy him, we will so evidence it to him, that he himself shall find, and see who himself is: and though the Devil himself should burst for very Anger, yet we would set it down plainly before his eyes.

51. Now seeing this Spirit has the word Fiat, viz. God's word, and the Center of Nature, whence it has its Eternal Original; and as the Spirit of the Center has a twofold Effluence, the first being in the Fire in the Essences of the Original of Life, in the ground of the Original of the Soul; and the second in the light of the Fire, which is the second^d source, which buds afresh through Death, and is called the Kingdom of God; where also in the Light it is a flame of Love, and in the Fire it is a flame of Anger.

53. 54. All the words which the Mouth has spoken, which the Air has received into it, andⁱ has served for the making of the words, these the Air shall again^k bring forth; for it is the Looking-Glass of the Eternal Spirit, the Spirit sees them in the Glass.

55. And so man shall be judged according to his heart, mind and thoughts, for the Turba is in all malice or wickedness, which is contrary to Love; here will be no making of excuse, for every one will accuse himself, his own Turba will accuse him.

56. And thus you must understand the Spirit, which is All in All, will raise up every Life which has been immortal, and by the Fiat give it to the body; for the Fiat draws the body to the soul, with all its deeds and wonders; all that it has done in this life by word or deed; all that has reached the^l Abyss of the soul must come forth.

57. For in the still Eternity there shall be no Turba more; and therefore every Essence shall be^m refined by the Fire, and theⁿ Turba shall remain in the Fire, and all whatever is evil and capable of the Turba, unless it was washed away in the water of life, by the conversion of the soul here in this life, must remain in the Fire.

58. Now^o if any man has sown in the Fire, he shall suffer loss, as the Scripture tells us, that the works of the wicked shall remain in the fire, and he shall suffer loss.

59. But you must understand us right; the body which has been here upon Earth, that evil corruptible body which has devoured the noble and excellent Image of Paradise, shall come, and stand forth with its precious Image in it; it must give an account of the Image of God.

60. Now blessed are they that have Christ's Spirit, they have their first Image in the word Fiat, which must restore it again to the soul, and that in the Adamical Body.

61. But they that have not Christ's Spirit, shall stand forth in the evil body; but their soul will have lost their true Image, and they shall have such an Image in the Spirit of the Soul, as their wills have been here : as their daily lust has been, so shall their Image be.

62. And in that hour also the wrathful Fiat of the Darknes shall bring forth the Devils, who shall then receive their Wages and Habitation : at the hearing of which they tremble.

63. Thus all the Dead, both good and evil, will arise, every one in his ^p twofold body, and will have the soul with the Spirit in the body.

64. One will have the outward Earthly ^a Life, and therein a bestial Image in the Spirit of the Soul ; and in the Inward Image he will have the Essentiality of the wrathful Anger.

65. Another will have the outward body, and Christ's Image therein, and the Divine Spirit of Love will shine in the Spirit of his Soul ; which the word Fiat clothes again with the true, and pure Adamical Image.

66. For the pure Image has been hidden in God, in the Word which became Man : and now when the Soul comes to the Limit, it obtains that again, and also the fair and excellent ^t Virgin of the Wisdom of God.

^r See the book of the three Principles, ch. 12. ver. 53.

^t In the Resurrection.

68. For the woman shall receive the Tincture of the Fire, in the Divine Fire, so that she shall be as Adam was, neither Man nor Woman : but a Virgin full of Chastity, without the ^t shape or members of man or woman.

^t Form, or distinction.

69. And then they shall no more say, thou art my husband, or thou art my wife, but they are brethren : indeed there shall some remaining tokens of the difference be in the Divine Magical Wonders, but none will regard that ; for they are all of them merely the Children of God, living the life of Children in the delighting sport of love.

70. All this will be done before the Sentence, for the trial will be the first, and the sentence the last Day of Judgment ; and those that are then alive shall not die, but shall be presented with the other by the voice of God before the ^u Judgment of God.

71. The word Fiat will bring all thither, and all shall be presented in their own order by the Fiat ; as first, Emperors and Kings, and then their Subjects over whom they reigned, Princes, Noblemen, Governors, Magistrates, and Superiors ; every one in his ^x Condition.

72. Or whether they have been ^a servants, or Ministers to their own Bellies ? And here the Spirit will make enquiry into their calling, whether they have entered into the sheepfold by his Election and Power, or by man's favour without the Spirit and Election of God ?

74. Kings and Princes shall be constrained to give an account of their Subjects ; how they have ruled and protected them ; what kind of Government they have used ; why they have taken away the lives of many by Tyranny, and why they have shed innocent blood ; also, why they have made war for their Covetousness, and their Pleasures sake.

75. In like manner, all other Superiors will be called to an account, why they have intruded themselves into Office, and made themselves Lords over the simple, and afflicted, oppressed, and squeezed them, and taken away their sweat, and spent it in Pride?

76. Here the root of every thing will be inquired after, whence it comes, and out of what it is grown; whether it bears the ^d Ordinance of God, and whether it has its Original ^d Or flamy in the Heavenly Fiat. or in the Hellish Fiat from the Anger? There every one must give an account of his ^e Condition; whether he has thrust himself into Office, out of Covetousness and Pride, and made himself a Magistrate, or whether his Government be ordained of God? ^e Or Stat

77. Therefore, ye Rulers and Potentates of the world, look to it, and see whether you be the Ordinance of God, and are placed in the Right, Divine Order? 78. For there one will cry out and accuse the other, saying, that he has caused me to commit such abominations, and will curse him; the Inferior his Superiors, and the Superiors their Superiors: the Prince will accuse his false Counsellors, and his Counsellors the Priests, because they did not reprove their Courses, but soothed and flattered them for ambition and honour's sake.

85. For Moses and Elias, and all those exceeding precious teachers of the Law, bear the fiery Sword, and require God's Justice; and those at the Right hand, God's Mercy.

86. And in this hour is the very last Day of the Judgment; when the Judge shall say, ¹ Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the Beginning; for I was hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, and in Prison, and you have administred to me.

¹ Matt. 25. 34, 35, 36. 87. And to the wicked company: ¹ Go, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, I know you not; for I have been hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, and in Prison, and you administred not to me.

¹ Or Ground. 89. And here the Spirit of God will first move himself to Justice in all the three Principles, and stir up the ¹ Center of Nature, so that it shall burn in the fire of Anger; for all, both Heaven and Earth, and the Firmament, will be set on Fire together.

¹ Viz. All whatsoever grew, was born, made, or done, by word or deed, from the beginning of the world to the End. 90. And the Turba will swallow up the Earthly World in the Fire, and restore it to that which it was before the Creation, only the ² Wonders remain standing in two Principles; the third Principle passeth quite away, all but the Wonders, which shall be brought into the beginning.

91. And then the Earthly Life and the Earthly Body will fall away, and the Fire will consume them.

92. And the glorious bright Paradisical Body of the Righteous shall pass through the Fire, with its own Wonders, which shall follow it, and whatsoever is false shall remain in the Fire.

¹ The fire of Wrath. ¹ Or operations. 93. And so they shall be carried through the Fire in the twinkling of an Eye, and the Fire comprehends them not; for as little as the Fire can retain the Light or Wind, so little can ² it retain the Light of the Holy Men; for they can dwell in the Fire without feeling any pain.

¹ Or Vizard. ¹ God has foreseen the Good according to his Love, according to which he is called God; and according to his wrath, or nature, according to which he is called an Angry, Jealous God, and a consuming Fire, he has foreseen the evil, but not ordained it. 95. There is no Day or Night there; for the Sun passeth away, and the Stars pass away, but their ¹ Wonders only stand in the Great ² Magia, to the Glory of God; thus they sever themselves.

96. The wicked also must go into the Fire, and their Earthly Life will also fall away, and their ² monstrous Image will appear in the Spirit, according to the shape of all hideous abominable Beasts, like the Devils.

97. For they dwell in one and the same Principle, and Lucifer is their great Prince, whom indeed they served here, though they depended on their Hypocrites for a false Paradise.

98. Thus, my beloved friend, you have a brief description and information of the last Judgment-Day; for whatsoever is of this world shall pass away.

99. The Earth, and all stony Rocks and Elements, will melt away, and that only will remain which God would have, and for the sake of which he created this world.

100. Both the good and the evil were clearly ¹ foreseen in Eternity, and were only made Essential in this world, that they might be a Wonder; and hereafter they remain so to Eternity.

The Thirty-first Question.

What Kind of New glorified Bodies shall the Holy Souls have ?

1.  HIS hath been already sufficiently declared ; for as every one shall be clothed with the Power of Love, Righteousness, and Purity, and as his excellent works of Faith have been, so shall he gloriously shine.

2. Yet there will be very much difference, for the works of many will all remain in the Fire, and he himself will hardly escape ; he will not shine as the ^c Saints.

3. For, as the Scripture says, ^d they shall excel one another as the Stars of Heaven ; but there will be no ^e grudging, but every one will rejoice at the Excellence of the other ; for there is no other light there than ^f God, filling All in All.

4. And so every one, as his ^g Power is capable of the Light, shall receive the brightness of the Majesty of God ; for after this Life there is no bettering, but every thing remains as it returns home.

5. For there the Judge ^h Christ will deliver up the Kingdom to his Father, and then we shall no more need any Teachers and Conductors ; but he is our King and Brother, there is no Intercession, but we are with him as a Child with the Father ; whatsoever we do, it is good, for all falshood is done away.

The Thirty-second Question.

What shall the Form, Condition, Joy, and Glory of the Soul be, in the Life to come ?

1.  ERE we must consider Paradise ; for this outward world, with its fruits and colours, has been a Figure of Paradise ; for Paradise was in us, and the outward Spirit deprived us of it, and drew us into itself ; for when Adam lusted after it, his own lust took him captive.

2. But we shall now enter into it again, and eternally solace ourselves in the excellent beautiful flourishing of all manner of Flowers, and Forms, both of Trees, and Plants, and all Kinds of Fruits, but they will not be so Earthly, gross and palpable.

3. For then our bodies shall not be so ; how then can that Essence be so ? all things there will be Angelical : the Fruits are more ⁱ pure and fine, than are now in the outward Elements, for they make no impurity when we have eaten them.

4. We shall have no stomach or entrails, which we shall need to fill, as we do here this devouring stomach, but all there is in Power ; we shall eat in the Mouth, and not receive into the Belly ; we shall need no teeth to chew withal ; there is mere Power, and yet in a true natural form and manner, with shining colours.

5. And so ^k the Kingdom of Heaven consists not in eating and drinking, but in Peace and ⁱ Clear, subtle, transparent, bright, and shining.

The Thirty-second Question Answered.

Joy in the Holy Ghost, with singing and showing forth God's Deeds of Wonder concerning the corporeity of Paradise.

6. We shall lead a life like children, who rejoice and are very merry in their Sports; for there will be no sadness in our hearts, or fear of any thing, but a delightful ¹ Recreation with the Angels.

7. This world will be no more thought upon or regarded; for all earthly knowledge and cogitations shall remain in the Turba of the Earthly Body in the Fire.

8. We shall have no knowledge more of our Parents, Children, or Friends, who are in Hell.

9. We shall all know one another by Name that are together; though the Earthly Name shall remain in the Turba; we shall have a Name according to our first Name, in the Language of Angels; which here in this life we do not understand: In the Language of Nature we understand somewhat of it; but here we have no tongue to express it with.

10. None shall say to another, thou art my husband, thou art my wife, thou art my daughter, thou art my son, my servant, or my handmaid; all are alike there; we are all children; there is neither husband, nor wife; neither child, man-servant or maid-servant, but all are free; every one is all: There is but one Sex, viz. Heavenly Virgins full of Modesty, Chastity and Purity.

11. We are all God's Spouse, and he is our Husband; He sows his power into us, and we bring forth to him Praise and Glory.

12. There is such a kind of dancing and singing, as children use when they take hold of hands, and sing and dance around.

^m Enjoyed the great hidden Wisdom, Understanding; and Art.

13. All Arts will not be regarded: But you must know, that they who have ^m borne the Mystery, and to whom it has been revealed, they shall have far greater wisdom and knowledge than others, and much excel others.

14. Indeed not in Contention and Doctrine, but their wisdom will begin all manner of Exercise in the heavenly Mystery, to the stirring up of Joy; for as Children flock together when one beginneth a sport, so also here.

15. Little Children are our Schoolmasters, till evil stir in them, and so they embrace the Turba Magna; but they bring their sport from the Mother's womb, which is a Remnant of Paradise; else all is lost, till we attain it again.

16. A King avails no more there than a Beggar: if he has ruled well, then his virtue follows him, and he shall have the Glory of it in the Majesty; for he obtains a bright glorification, like a Shepherd over his flock.

ⁿ The thread of Faith at the last.

^o In the Kingdom of Heaven.

17. But if he has been evil, and yet at last converted and entered in as by a ⁿ thread, then his Kingly works remain in the Fire, and he will be accounted of ^o here, no more than a Beggar who has been honest; nay, he will not be so glorious.

18. Every one will be known by his works, what he has been, when they shall present their Merchandise in the heavenly Magia, as Children do in their sport.

19. And yet you must know, that it shall not be a Kingdom of Sport only, but we shall speak of the Wonders and Wisdom of God, and of the great Mysteries of the Heavenly Magia: the ^p song of the ^q great Hunter will continue there to the Reproach of the Devil, and to the Glory of God.

^p Rev. 15. 3. ^q Persecutor, oppressor.

20. We shall have some knowledge of Hell, but see nothing of it, save only in the Magia, in the Mystery; for the Devils must dwell in the Darkness: the wrathful fire which is in them, is their Light; they have eyes of Fire to see withal; all Fire besides is gone, for the Majesty has ^r swallowed it up, that it may burn in Love.

^r Or allayed it

^s Matt. 8. 12. ^t More frost than fire.

21. Though indeed there is fire in the Center from which the Majesty rises; but this will not be allowed to the Devils; they shall be ^t thrust out into Darkness, where there is bowling and gnashing of Teeth; where there is more ^t cold than heat.

The Thirty-third Question.

What Kind of Matter shall our Bodies have in the Life to come?

1.  Y beloved friend, this is a ^a hard Question; the outward man must let ^u Or strong, it alone, and not meddle with it at all, for he is not worthy of it.
2. You know that God is become Man, and has taken our flesh and blood, and soul upon him: Now Christ said, ^x I am from above: ^x John 8. 23. ^y None goeth into Heaven but the Son of Man which is come from Heaven, and is in Heaven. ^y John 3. 13.
3. Do you understand this, that he said, he is in Heaven? He spoke not only of his Deity, that is, of the Word, but of the Son of Man, even of that Word which was Flesh; and this we are now to consider of, for in that Flesh and Blood we must live Eternally, and we must have Christ's body if we will subsist in God.
4. Yet we know of no other body that we shall have, but our ^z own body, growing ^z Job 19. 26, 27. out of the Old body, as a sprout grows from a kernel; and such a body Adam had in the Creation, but he was captivated by the ^a Kingdom of this world, and so became Earthly; this was his Fall, and this caused God to take a part of Adam, and make a woman of it, as we have written at large in our ^b third Book. ^a Or by the working property of this world of four Elements.
5. Now we know well that Adam was a chaste Virgin before his sleep, and before Eve was made, but afterwards became a Man, ^c having Deformity like a Beast, of which we are yet ashamed at this very day in the sight of God, because we have earthly bestial members for propagation. ^b Of the three-fold Life. ^c That is, a bestial, animal, mortal man.
6. Now Adam had the Virgin of Divine Wisdom in him, but when he fell, then it continued immoveable in its own Principle, and Adam ^d departed from it. ^d Or forsook it.
7. But know that Christ became Man in that Virgin [which was] in the Earthly Mary, for the word of the Lord brought that with it into the body of Mary.
8. And here you must understand, that Christ became flesh in the water of Eternal Life, ^e which flesh the whole Deity filleth, and also in the ^f Essences of the Earthly Mary. ^e Coloff. 2. 9. ^f Substance, or properties.
9. But Mary was blessed with the Heavenly Virgin, and so Christ became man in a pure vessel, and the Earthly man hung to him.
10. For it was for the sake of the soul which he was to receive from ^g Mary, that he must receive Mary's flesh, yet in the blessing, in the Heavenly Virgin only. ^g From the soul of Mary.
11. The Tincture of the blood in the Heavenly Virgin was Heavenly; for the ^b Earthly had not been able to pass through the wrath of God, and through Death, much less would it have had power to rise out of the grave. ^b The Earthly Tincture.
12. That word which became Flesh had the water of Eternal Life, which proceeded from the Divine Majesty, and yet it was in Mary's blood: and here for further information we direct you to our third Book, where it is described at large.
13. And thus we tell you, we shall have a body consisting of flesh and blood, such a body as Christ had; for Christ by his Incarnation is ⁱ become Man in us. ⁱ Or born in us Men.
14. When we are new born of Water, and of the Spirit, then in Christ's Spirit we are new born of Christ's flesh and blood, we put on Christ.
15. Christ is born in the converted sinner, and he in Christ becomes the Child of God; this is the body we shall have in Heaven.
16. No gross bestial flesh, as we have in the Old Adam, but subtle flesh and blood, such ^k John 20. 19. flesh as can pass through wood and stone, unhurt by the stone, ^k as Christ came in to his Disciples, the door being shut : It is such a body as hath no Turba or fragility ; Hell cannot retain it, it is like Eternity ; and yet it is real flesh and blood, which our heavenly ^l hands ¹ John 20. 27. shall touch and feel, and take hold of ; also a visible body, as here in this world. ¹ John 1. 1.

17. Now consider, how is it possible that such a body as we carry about us here, can be ^m capable of the Divine Majesty ? It must certainly be such a body as is like the Majesty, that the Majesty can shine forth from it out of the Tincture and Water of Eternal Life.

18. Here indeed we are as it were ⁿ dumb to the apprehension of Reason, yet we are well enough understood by our Brethren ; this belongeth to the ^o Children. A Wolf desires to fill his mouth with such a piece of flesh as will fill his belly ; we speak not of such flesh, but such as Christ has given us in his Testament, and left for a Remembrance, and as an Earnest ^p that he will remain for ever with us ; we in him, and he in us.

19. Therefore we say that we shall have God's body and Christ's body, which filleth Heaven ; not that we shall stick in that which is his Creature, but be joined one to another as members, brethren, and children.

20. There is but one Life in us all ; there is nothing mortal, All proceeds from the Eternal one ; there is nothing that begins, but the Wonders only, one Essentiality is come out of the Eternal : we are as Gods, we are true Children of God, proceeding from his Essences in body and soul.

The Thirty-fourth Question.

What is the miserable and horrible Condition of the Damned Souls ?

1.  T is sufficiently declared already ; for God's wrath in the Darkness is their Dwelling Place ; their Light is that which shines from their fiery Eyes, like the glimmering of a flash of fire ; they have no Light at all but that, for they dwell in that which is ^q outermost, and so ascend in haughtiness above the Thrones like strong Champions ; and yet they have different qualifications among them, as their Spirits differ.

^q As in utmost, or utter darkness.

2. For a Dog acts like a Dog, a Wolf like a Wolf, and so a Horse, a Fowl, a Toad, a Serpent, every one after their Manner ; but they are all flying and swift as a thought.

3. They have their joy in their abominations, and their chiefest joy is to scorn God ; in that they are fiery Spirits, and God a Spirit of Light.

4. Their boast is always of their strong, fiery might ; they are as a Dragon that spitteth fire, they seek perdition, and find abominations.

5. They have also fruit growing out of their own Principle, all according to the abominations of their wills.

6. They have a sport like such as play with fireworks, as Rockers, and Balls of fire, spitting fire out of their mouths ; ^r fooling, and juggling is their pastime ; though indeed there is no time ; nor is there any fear of any other Torment, after the last Judgment-Day ; but their whole life is a continual fear, horror, terror and lamentation : every one has his work, which he did here while he lived in the Figure ; and then it awakens the Turba, and rides in the Fire.

^r Jestings, jear- ing, scoffing, and deriding in strange apish gestures of face, and body.

7. The soul has no feeling, for it is without the Fire, but the Turba plagues it with those Abominations which it introduced; there is an Eternal despairing in them, and therefore they are God's Enemies.

8. To blaspheme God is their chiefest Power; they devour Hellish Brimstone and Abominations, for their fruits are a kind of matter that is outwardly fair, but inwardly mere^f wrathfulness; such Hypocrites as they have been upon Earth, such bread does their Heaven afford them to eat.

^f Strong Abominations, malice, or wickedness.

9. They are at Liberty, and shut up by nothing, they may descend as deep as they will, for the Abyss and Darkness is every where, and yet they are but in their first place; the deeper they desire to throw themselves, the deeper they fall, and yet they find no end or bottom.

10. Their ^l number is not the number of any human time, their ^u delight is a mere stink of Fire and Brimstone; when they consider themselves in their Abominations, that they were once Angels and now Devils, then presently the gnawing worm ariseth, which devours and torments them.

^l Their time not the time of Man.
^u Refocillation.

11. To what end should their wickedness be described? They are evil, unclean Beasts; that which they practised on Earth, that follows them, and that they desire to do there also; they swallow down abomination and cursing without measure.

12. Their ^x Government is no way better to be known than in the Antichristian ^y horse and scornful men, who rave with cursing and blaspheming; yet this is but a ^z Glass of the Hellish Abominations; we will not mention them any further, for they are not worthy to be named.

^x Or Dominion.
^y Cr Beast.
^z Shadow, or Resemblance.

The Thirty-fifth Question.

What is the Enochian Life; and how long does it continue?

1.  HIS is also above human Reason, no outward Reason can comprehend it; but seeing ^a it is born, it must be made manifest: For there are such Mysteries couched in it, as the world is not able to conceive, and we shall not mention them at large, for they have their ^b limit how far they shall go; for in this Time wonders shall be done upon the Earth, for which cause, our speech is taken from us, that we must be silent.

^a The Enochian life is brought forth.
^b Bounds, or appointed time.

2. Yet we shall shew what kind of life it is, or whither Enoch is gone, as also Elias and Moses: it is no Fiction, we declare only what is given us; we shall further be silent, and not believe Reason, for it is a fool herein.

^c Or come.
^d Or prophesy.
^e Or the Sword.

3. But we may well speak something of it, for the time is ^c born, for ^d Enoch to speak, and ^e Elias to work again; which Babel shall find by experience: for Moses hath ^f horns, and yet he is a patient Lamb.

^f Or Beams, or Rays, which with their light shall contend with darkness.

4. O how wouldst thou rejoice if thou wouldst go among Moses's Flock, for he has a good Message: Rejoice O Heaven, and be merry O Earth! for Enoch is in the Field, and keeps his Flock.

5. What will Elias do? for he is clothed with a white Garment, and was with Christ on the Mount, and spoke of the consummation of man's Redemption; he spoke also of the entering into Paradise, and of the final deliverance from the ^g Hunter.

^g Or driver, or persecutor.

6. He that is born blind, sees nothing: How can a lame man get the prize, or a deaf man distinguish Languages? does not the Sun shine daily, and yet the Mole remains blind? shall Babel come to see? we know she is a scorner, and therefore she must be blind, though the Sun shines clearly to her.

7. How can he behold two worlds, that always lives but in one? nor is it art and wit, that has understanding able to search out the deep Gates; but they pass away, as a wind which brings forth nothing, though it maketh such a Bluster; and so does Babel.

8. When we will speak of the Enochian Life, we must consider the Scripture, and see who Enoch was, and what life he led; and then we may soon find where he is, and what his Translation was.

^h Gen. 5. 13.
ⁱ See the Mysterium Mag- norum, ch. 32.
ver. 19, 20.

9. You know that the ^h Scripture saith his Father's name was ¹ JARED; if you understood the Language of Nature, you had the whole ground.

10. And Enoch begat Methusalab, who attained the highest age of Man; and after he had begotten him, he continued in a Divine Life, till the Lord took him into his own Principle.

11. But we must not understand it, as if he were wholly perfect in the Light of the Divine Majesty, and should not appear at the day of Judgment. Indeed he is in God without Death, or want of any thing; he is in God's Love, but in the birth of the Divine Principle, for he had also Adam's flesh.

12. And you know well, that the outward Kingdom, with the Earthly flesh, belongs to the Turba; though it is clear, that he had the body of the Wonders of God, in the outward body, in which Divine body of the Wonders he was taken away into the Mystery; so that the outward body was, as it were, swallowed up by the Mystery.

^k Substance, or Essence.

13. But now the Mystery must give up all whatever it has swallowed up; as you know, that at the end, the outward body must appear, with all its ^k works, before the Judgment: and thus the Turba is in the outward body with the Wonders, which shall be made manifest and tried in the Fire.

^m In the in-

hiddenness.

14. Now then, if Enoch be thus taken up, both body and soul, with both the bodies, then the outward body is in the ^l Mysterium, and the Inward body in the ^m Arcanum, and heavenly Mystery, and so he lives in two Mysteries, being invisible and incomprehensible to the outward world: and thus we give you to understand, that Paradise is yet present and unperished, though seeming to be, as it were, devoured by the curse of God; and it lies yet as a Mystery, uncorrupted in the curse.

ⁿ Or Arcanum.

15. For we can say with good ground of Truth, that Paradise is still upon the Earth; yet we are not in it, but Enoch is in it; but he has still the body of the Turba in the Mystery, and in the Heavenly ⁿ Mystery he has the Divine body; a Paradisical Body which is capable of Paradise: and thus he is as a Wonder, and is a Prophet in the Crown at the ^o Limit of the Wonders.

^o Or End.

16. For you know that the Scripture saith, that after he had begotten Methusalab, viz. the Man of the greatest Age, he continued afterward in a Divine Life; and this has a deep meaning.

17. Methusalab signifies the end of the Wonders of this world; and Enoch, remaining in his Divine Life three hundred years after the birth of Methusalab, signifies the manifestation of the Wonders, and an open Ministry, viz. a preaching of Righteousness, whereby the Turba of every one shall be shown him, and the End of the Wonders of this world shall be declared, viz. the Vengeance of God, and his Reward to the good.

18. And the time after Enoch, wherein Methusalab lived to the Number of the Crown, when Enoch and his preaching was taken up, signifies, that the Enochian Light, which shined in his time, will enter again into its Principle, and seek out the Earthly body which Enoch had, and will find that the Turba is in it still; and then there will be no further further seeking, for the Turba is found in the Limit, and worketh to the Fire and Judgment.

19. And thus the end of the world is as the dregs, and it works in the Turba to the blowing up of the Fire and the Judgment; for the outward world was produced out of the Turba, and took its beginning in the Turba, and the Turba is its propriety: thus the beginning seeks the end again in the wrath.

20. And as this world is become corporeal in the wrath, so the beginning at the end will have the Spirit again in the wrath, for the Beginning and the End is one; and you plainly perceive, that in the Beginning, the Turba devoured Adam, and brought him into the Anger, and murdered Abel.

21. Therefore, ye Elect, let none of you desire to live to the time of the end, after Enoch's taking up; but behold, when Enoch preaches, then the Sun shines, and then go out from Babel; it is a golden time: but your Turba is the cause that Enoch shall be taken up.

22. Enoch is not gone out of this world, he is entered into the ^p Mystery in the Wonders, for he is God's Preacher; and after the Turba has overcome the world, he must be silent till the six Seals have ended their Wonders, and till the Angels of the Turba have poured out their Viols, then the ^a Wonders of the Anger are finished.

23. Then Enoch comes out of the Mystery again, and enters into the ^r Ministry, and relates what hath been done, and punishes the world because of the ^t Turba, for suffering ^u Abominations to enter into them, without resisting.

24. And after the world becomes fat and wanton in the golden years, and ^u seeketh Sodom and Gomorrab again, then also its Turba will be fat and wanton, and seek the Wrath and the Limit; then the golden days are done, and will be devoured by the Turba; and then Metbusalab, the oldest man, dies, and suddenly the Deluge of Fire approaches: consider it, for it will be in earnest.

25. We do not say that you shall feel Enoch with your Hands; no: Enoch did not preach from the Spirit of the Earthly Life, but from that which is a Prophet, which introduced the outward man into the Principle; and so you shall not feel the outward Enoch, but you shall hear the Prophet which speaks from Enoch, from the Mystery.

26. Babel mocks and scorns at this, and contemns ^x Enoch for a while, and then Enoch calleth ^y Noah; but they call him old fool, for preaching so of the downfall of Babel.

27. But Noah passes into the other world through the ^z water, and calls ^a Moses with his Wonders, and he comes; for he has the Wonders of God.

28. For he passed through Death, and brought his body through Death, when the Turba desired to consume it; and the Devil contended for it, and would have the Turba which was in Moses, because he had been an angry man, and brought the ^b Turba on many.

29. But it was told the Devil, that the Turba in the Fire did not belong to him, for it served to the Majesty of God, and contained the Wonders; and the Turba in the Darknes of the Wrath only belonged to him, who is without the City, and must not dwell in the City, in the Principle, but without it.

30. For God did not create him ^c in the Fire; let him remain, therefore, in his own awakened Fire-life: he hath nothing to do with Moses's body; for his Wonders in the Anger belong not to his ^d Turba; he is a very out-cast, a cast-away.

31. And Moses's body is passed through Death; his unfadable Body, which had the Wonders, has swallowed up that which was Earthly in the Turba, and yet not consumed it to putrefaction, but it also is in the Mystery: and his ^e Turba, which killed the first-born in Egypt, drowned Pharaoh in the water, slew them that worshipped the Calf, and swallowed up Corah, Dathan, and Abiram into the Earth, continued in Death.

34. Now seeing Moses is gone with righteousness from the strife of the Turba, and of the Devil, into the Mystery, and yet hath his first unfadable body on him, which, though it be delivered from the Turba, must yet be tried in the Fire at the end of the Days; therefore his Prophet is in the Mystery.

35. And since he is become a Lamb, after the Turba, he has sent his people many Prophets to preach the Mystery: as indeed there are not only laws and works contained in the Mystery, but also the Lamb Christ, into whom he is also entered, and has brought his ^g Law to be a servant in the ^h Family of the Lamb, that so his Wonders may be in the sheepfold of the Lamb.

37. Babel is not able to endure ^k this; for so her Pomp and Pride will be taken away: she sets herself against ^l Moses and ^m Enoch, and persecutes them; she would murder them; but Moses is already dead, and Enoch is taken up, and neither of them is in the outward life with her: she saith, where is Enoch and Moses? show us their Wonders! but she is blind and cannot see them; and so she raves against Moses and Enoch, and falls into Contention.

38. Then Moses calls for ⁿ Elias, who went out of this world in the Divine Fire, into the Abyss of the Principle with body and soul, who also dwells in the Principle with mighty Power: Now when he comes and perceives the cry, that ^o Babel stands in the Fire, then he kindles the Turba, wherein the great Fire burns, which consumes flesh and blood, also stones and the elements: then Babel must drink her last ^p draught.

39. After this, ^q Enoch has peace awhile, and then is the golden Age, till my ^r beloved grows voluptuous and wanton, having fatted her Turba, so that it seeks the Limit, and then comes the End of all time.

40. Do not wonder at it; we will stay in the mean time with ^s Noah, till ^t Moses and ^u Elias come, then all the Children of God will find it true.

41. Yet it will remain hidden to the wicked, till the Turba devours them; for they look upon this, as the Jews did upon Christ, and the first world upon Noah: what does the Mystery profit a scorner? he looks after nothing but eating and drinking, and taketh care how to satisfy his haughty mind, that he may ride with Pomp in Babel.

42. Thus, my beloved friend, we have given you a short Hint of the Enochian Life, and what his Office and Condition is; also of Moses and Elias: as a wise man, consider further of it; for we dare not speak otherwise of it, our understanding and will is driven into such a way of speech: neither have we leave in this place, at this time, to write more at large, or more fundamentally, in plain words.

43. But if God shall please to grant, that we may write something upon the first; and also upon the second Book of Moses, more may be opened; for the Names of the Fathers before the Flood, which are there set down, belong all to the Mystery, and they contain great Wonders in them: when it is Day, you shall by them clearly know the whole course of the world.

The Thirty-sixth Question.

What is the Soul of the Messiah, or Christ?

1.  E have sufficiently explained this in our third Book of the threefold Life of man; but seeing every one that reads this has not that at hand, and in regard of the Question itself, we must answer something more here, and therefore I set this down; for you ask in the following Question about Christ's Spirit, which was ^{*}willing, and which he commended to his Father.

2. Here the ^y old and sick Adam shall be comfortably refreshed, he shall have a ^z Medicine against Death, and be ^a quickened again; for his Mother shall bring forth a young son, who shall live in her bosom, and shall exceedingly rejoice at it.

3. If we would consider the soul of Christ, we need only seek and find ourselves; for Christ's soul is a human soul, conceived in Mary the ^b twofold Virgin.

4. Yet we do not acknowledge the outward mortal Life in Mary for a pure Virgin; for that which is mortal has the Anger, and the Turba which corrupts all Purity, so that no pure Virgin is born of Eve, but are all daughters of her.

5. And Eve herself was but half a Virgin, for Adam was the other half, according to the two Tinctures, in which man saw himself to be wholly a Virgin in pure Love, and so saw God through himself; that is, through the Creature he saw the Original, which produced those two out of himself.

6. And thus also in one ^c whole person, there is one pure Love and Chastity; for it seeks no other Conjunction, itself is the Conjunction of both Tinctures, viz. the Tincture of the Soul, and the Tincture of the Spirit; and its power was such, that it could bring forth a Spirit out of the fiery Tincture, which is [called] a Soul and Spirit.

7. Which Adam ^d lost, when he suffered the Earthly Life to take him captive, and therefore he must be divided, and a woman be made out of him, which must set her Love, ^e Desire, and Imagination, upon the Adamical fiery Tincture, if she would be pregnant with a Soul.

8. Thus none can say, that Eve was a pure and chaste Virgin before the contact of Adam; for as soon as Adam awaken'd from sleep, he saw her standing by him, and presently set his ^f Imagination upon her, and took her to him and said, ^g this is flesh of my flesh, and bone of my bone; she shall be called Woman, because she is taken from Man.

9. And she (Eve) instantly set her Imagination upon Adam, and so both were mutually kindled with the Desire of each other.

10. Where is now the pure Chastity and Modesty? Is it not bestial? Is not the outward Image become a Beast? as is to be seen plain enough in the Will and ^h Essence, that Man does as a Beast, and more foolishly, for he has Reason, and yet runs on against Reason, as if he was void of Sense.

11. But that he might be restored, and the Image reduced into Unity, that word which spoke the Soul out of the Mouth of God, and breathed it from the Holy Ghost into the Image, is become Man, and is entered into the Earthly Image, viz. into the Turba of Destruction.

Fire of the Deity, and out of the Fire [it has] the Tincture of the Deity, and in the Tincture the Spirit of God, which proceeds from the Mouth of God; and in the proceeding forth, the ¹ glance of the Majesty is made manifest in the operation of the Spirit.

13. This word which is in the Virgin of the Wisdom of God, and surrounded with the Wonders of Eternity, is now in Humility and great Love towards our Image, which was lost in Adam, come again into us, and is in Mary (understand the Earthly Mary, but in the Benediction) become Man.

14. The Benediction was, that the soul of Mary was adorned with the heavenly Virgin of the wisdom of God, which Adam had lost; therefore the Angel called her

15. No woman, from Adam to this Day, was ever clothed with the heavenly Virgin, but this Mary; therefore by the blessing she became chaste and full of Purity; for the Holy Ghost goes not into that which is Earthly, he mixeth himself not with the ¹ Glafs, for it cannot be that the Looking-Glass should be as the Life itself.

¹ Similitude
blance.

16. Understand our high and precious depth thus: The soul of Man proceeds from God, and is from the Eternal, and the body of Man is but a Glafs of the Eternal; and so God clothed the soul of Mary with the Divine Virgin, in the Principle of the soul; not in the Earthly flesh, as if she had been deified; no, she must die as well as all other people.

17. And in this Virgin God's word, out of the Heart of God the Father, assumed the seed of the Woman, viz. the seed of the soul, and the seed of the first Image, which for so long a time stood hidden in the Mystery.

18. But now at length the Life of God entered into it, and made it a whole Image again; for the water of Eternal Life, proceeding from the Heart of God, mixed itself with the water of the Spirit of the soul; for the Spirit takes its Original from the water, and the soul is Fire.

19. Thus the word received the Tincture of the soul, and the Holy Ghost the Tincture of the Spirit, viz. the Tincture of the water, and both became one soul; and yet the Creature remained distinct from God's Spirit, though God's Spirit dwelt therein: and of God's Water and Tincture, and of the seed of Mary, from her Tincture and Water, in the high benediction, a flesh and blood was produced, so that an Heavenly Man in the Earthly was incarnate at once.

20. So that it may be said, this is the Son of the Woman, viz. the very corporeal and natural Son of Mary, with soul and body, with flesh and blood, and all that belongs unto Man; and also the very Son of God, which was born from Eternity, out of God's Eternal Essence, before the foundation of the world was laid, who stood both in the Majesty of the Holy Ternary, and also in the ^m body of Mary at once.

21. And the soul of Christ belongs half to the Principle of this world, and half to the Holy Spirit; for the soul of Christ made use of the Spirit of the Air and Stars, with the virtue of the Elements, and also the Word of God and the Divine Food; for such a man was Adam in Innocence.

22. Thus God has regenerated us in Christ; and so we are regenerated in Christ out of God's Word and Spirit, by the water of Eternal Life, and thus we are God's Children in Christ; and if we resign ourselves up to Christ, departing from our Reason and Will, then we are indued with Christ's body, and our Will and Spirit lives from Christ, who is in us, and we in him.

23. Hence you may understand what the Temptation of Christ was, viz. The Regenerate Man was to endure Adam's Temptation [to try] whether his soul could stand steadfast in God; and therefore he was proved in the Turba [to see] whether he could stand stedfast in three Principles, and rule over the outward Life; and therefore food was withdrawn from the outward Life, and the inward must overpower the outward, and eat of the word of the Lord, and sustain the outward in its own Power and full Omnipotency, and also keep Death captive, that it might not be able to destroy the outward Life: this must needs be a hard combat!

24. And the other two Temptations were these, viz. he was tempted [to try] whether man would live in ⁿ full obedience, and suffer God to work in him; or whether he would exalt himself again, and be free from God, as Lucifer did; therefore the Devil must tempt him, seeing this man was to possess his Royal Throne. <sup>n Or compleat.</sup>

25. The Devil complained that he could not stand, because the Mother of wrathfulness drew him too hard, and therefore he was permitted to try this man, and to set before him that which was set before himself; and if this man stood, then he should judge the Devil, who was found to be a liar.

26. For he fully tried him in the second and third temptation, whether he would ascend on high, in his own power, as himself had done, and so stirred up the Anger; or whether he would place his trust and affiance in God only, and live to him both in will and deed, as a child in obedience to the Father; and this he urged upon him, just so long as Adam stood in the Temptation before he fell asleep.

27. And now we also must continually be so tempted and proved, and we are able to get the victory in Christ, who has overcome; for his soul is our soul, and his flesh is our flesh, if we trust in him, and give up ourselves wholly to him, as Christ gave himself up to his Father.

28. And thus, my beloved friend, you understand what Christ's soul and body is, viz. that it is our soul and body if we adhere to God; but if we do not, then we are rent off; and in the outward life we belong to the Spirit of this world, viz. to the lost and perished Adam; and in the soul we belong to the Devil in the Anger of God: But look for these things more at large in our other writings, where you shall find the whole ground of Heaven, and of this world.

The Thirty-seventh Question.

What is the Spirit of Christ which was ^o willing, and which he com- ^o Or obedient, mended into his Father's Hands?

1. HIS is that great and excellent ^p Jewel; and we exceedingly re- ^p Treasure, joice that we know it, so that we are able to know ourselves what Gem, or we are, and it is more worth to us than all the world; for it is that Pearl.
T Pearl of which Christ said, ^q that one sold all that he had and bought ^q Matt. 13. 46.
that Pearl. ^r Or the Philosopher's
Stone.

2. For it is more profitable to a man than the whole world; it is ^r Great My-more precious than the Sun, for the ^r noble stone of the wise men ^r Or trusting lies therein; it has the Heavenly and Earthly ^r Mysterium Magnum; and there is no- ^r in God, and thing in the world to be compared to it but ^r sincere simplicity, which is quiet, and ^r enduring brings forth or stirs up no Turba; and that has the Jewel hidden in it. ^r whatsoever he

^b Or respect of persons.

4. Therefore we may say upon good ground, that a simple ^y plain man, who in simplicity, without multiplicity of science, depends on God, has the Mysterium Magnum better and surer, and less decayed, than a high-learned ^z Doctor, who soars aloft in Reason, and ^a spoils the Jewel and sets it in Babel; this will not be well relished, but that is nothing to us, we must speak the Truth without ^b partiality.

5. Now when we speak of Christ's Spirit, Reason thinketh it is the soul, or else the Spirit of the outward Life, which consists in the virtue and operation of the Stars and Elements; but it is not so, it is another thing wherein the Image of God standeth; the outward Spirit belongs not to the Deity, but to the Wonders.

6. We have spoken somewhat of it already; but because this Question puts us in mind of it again, mentioning, that when he died he commended it to his Father, therefore we must speak of it how it was done.

^c Centrum Nature.

7. You sufficiently perceive in what manner the soul is the ^c Center of Nature, the Original of Life and Mobility, viz. God's Fire, which should be continually converted into the Eternal Will of God, wherein it is originally born from the Magical Desire, and is a great Secret come out of the Eternal Nothing, wherein all things are contained, even the Deity with all the three Principles, and every ^d Being that can be named.

^d Thing, Essence, or Substance.

8. And you perceive that the Light and Spirit of the Air proceed from the Fire, and also that the Fire does again draw the Spirit of the Air into itself, and so always blows itself up; and so with the Light, Air, and ^e Source of the Fire, it is its own Life.

^e Or property.

9. And further, we have spoke before of the Noble Tincture which rises in the Light, in which the meekness of the Light consists, and it comes forth from the Anguish, which is as a mortification, and springs forth afresh through the mortifying Anguish, as a life having another ^f property, where the property of the Fire is a Kind of Tincture, like the driving forth of a Spirit; and yet it is desiring, and thereby it attracts the Virtue of the Light into itself, and makes it an Essence, viz. Water.

^f Or Source.

10. And therein are two Forms: One according to the source of Fire, which is red, and therein the virtue, viz. Sulphur; and the other, which is like a thin meekness, yet having Essentiality, is Water; which the desiring Tincture contracts into one, and changes it into Blood.

11. Now the Original in the Blood, viz. Fire, which is a warmth, that is, a Tincture, is a Life; and in the virtue of the Tincture, the thin water of the Life proceeds, one ^g virtue proceeding forth from ^h another; and the virtue always re-assumes that which goes forth: and that which is gone forth, is free from the Fire, and also from the virtue; for it is gone forth, and yet it rose from the virtue.

^g The outward.
^h The inward.

12. And this is the true Spirit which is born out of the soul, wherein the Image of God with the Divine virgin of God's wisdom consists; for all understanding and knowledge lies in this Spirit; it has the senses, and the noble life which unites itself with God: this Spirit is so subtle, that it can, and may enter into God.

ⁱ Reason, subtlety, or wit.

13. If this Spirit resigns itself to God, and casts away the ostentation and ⁱ cunning of the fire of its own soul, then it attains the image of God, the Divine body; for it puts its will into God, and dwells in God with Power: thus it is clothed with the Divine Essentiality, and is without this world in the Life of God.

14. But seeing this Spirit rises first out of the Center of Nature, that is, out of the Life of Fire, though it is not the Life of the Fire, but the Spirit of it; and the Life of the Fire stands originally in the Abyss, in the source of God's Anger; therefore Christ did not commend this Spirit of his to the Fiery-Life, but into the hands of his Father.

15. His hands are the Love-Desire, wherewith he embraces our Spirit when we enter into him, and commend ourselves to him.

16. For when his body was to die on the Cross, and his Soul was to pass through Hell, through the Anger of God, there the Devils waited, and thought with themselves, we will surely keep the soul in our Turba in the Fire; and then Christ commended the Spirit into the Love of God.

17. And so the soul of Christ, with the Spirit, came into God's hand, being encompassed with the Fire of Anger and Death; and Death would have held it there; but Death was destroyed and confounded.

18. For Death smothered the outward [Spirit,] viz. the outward Life, and then thought, now surely the soul must remain in the Turba: but there was one stronger in the soul, viz. the word of God, which took death captive, and destroyed the Anger, and quenched the wrath with the Love in the Spirit of Christ.

19. It was a poison to Hell for the Love of God to come into it, and smother it in the soul; also a Plague, Death and Destruction to Death; Death must now suffer an Eternal Life to grow up in it.

20. Thus the Spirit of Christ took the Devil captive, and drove him out of the Fire of the Soul, and cast him into Darknes, and shut him up under Darknes, out from the Fire of the Soul, and out from God's Fire, into the wrathful harshness and bitterness in cold: there let him warm himself, lest he freeze with cold.

21. Consider the first four forms of Nature, and you will understand what the Devil's Mansion is; for, before Christ [came,] he kept the soul captive in the Turba, with the Fire; and though he had not the Spirit of the Soul, yet he had the root of it in the Turba: but then he was commanded to cease, and he was thrown out, and driven into Darknes; and thus his malice was destroyed by Christ's descending into Hell, and Christ became his Judge.

22. Thus we have in brief described what the Spirit of Christ, and our Spirit, is, viz. not the outward Spirit, but the Spirit of the Soul; not the Soul itself, but the Spirit of its Life.

23. As in God the Holy Ternary is distinct, being three Persons in one Essence, and yet but one only God: where the Son hath the Spirit, viz. the Life, proceeding out of his Heart and Mouth; and the Heart is the flame of Love; and the Father the ^k source of Anger, which is allayed by the Son in the Love; so that in God there is but one only Will and Essence.

24. Thus it is also in Man, and no otherwise in the least; whatsoever God in Christ is, that we also are in Christ, in God; his true Children: Therefore let us also commend our Spirit into his hands, and so we may be able to pass through Death into Life, with Christ in God.

25. Therefore be not led about, and deluded with ^l toys and trifles, as hitherto ye have been in Babel; where this and that has been ^m disputed about the Soul and its Spirit; one this way, and another that way; there is no ground among them, but mere Fiction and Opinion.

26. Understanding is born in God, not in the Schools from Art; yet we despise it not; for Art, if it be born in God, is a tenfold Mystery, for it always attaineth the ⁿ tenth Number in. ^o Reason, much better than a ^p plain Man; for it can of many Numbers make ^q one.

27. But it standeth not in self-ability; no: one must enter in by the Cross as well as the other, let him be a Doctor, or a ^r mean Man; God's secrets will admit no Doctors, but Scholars into them; yet a Learned ^s Scholar may go very far.

28. Had but this hand the High Art, and also those High Gifts, you would well see it; but God will have it as it is: It is indeed his pleasure, to ^r make the wisdom of this world foolishness, and to give his Power to the weak, that all ^u may bow down before him, and acknowledge, that he only is the Lord that does whatsoever he will.

The Thirty-eighth Question.

What are the Things that shall come to pass at the End of the World?

1.  Eloved friend, it is not fit for me to answer this your Question; neither is it in my own power; and besides, it is not fit for any to ask it, for it is the secret Counsel of God: none should esteem himself to be equal with God, and to foreknow all things.

2. Our knowledge consists in the Spirit and Will of God; when that moves, then go on in the Heavenly Magia, and enter into the Wonders of the Earthly: Now is the Prophet born, for he standeth upon the ^x Crown, and speaketh Magically of the Beginning of the Wonders, and their Turba; and shows how they shall come to an End, and be destroyed, and brought again into the first.

^a Or at the end of a Time, or in Ages.

3. For all Prophets speak from the Turba; they discover that which is false, and declare what is better, which enters into the will of God.

4. Therefore be pleased not to urge us with this Question, for we shall be captivated in the Turba by it: you may understand enough in all the Questions, what is to be done hereafter; we have hinted it to you clearly enough.

^y Or by way of similitude, or in Parables.

5. We dare not speak any otherwise, than ^y in a Magical manner, of things to come; because the Wonders to come are all seen in the Turba: now when the Spirit sees them, then it declares clearly and plainly how the Turba is loaden with evil or good.

6. But it sees that all things are mixed; for God is become Man, and sets his Mercy every where in the Anger, and hinders Perdition; therefore the Prophet must speak magically, and not in express and plain terms: for it often comes to pass, that, though a thing be evil in its ^z Essence, yet there ^a soon groweth a sprout out of it, which destroys the ^b Turba, and causes a Conversion.

^z Or work.
^a As at Nineveh, in Jonah's time.
^b Or keepeth back vengeance.

7. Therefore God admonishes you to subdue the firmamental Heaven, and to oppose it; and so the evil which the firmamental Heaven pours forth, is many times turned into that which is better.

8. Otherwise, if all should of necessity come to pass, which the firmamental Heaven has, then we should need no teaching, for that would be a certain, constant, and perpetual Calendar.

9. You know well, what Daniel, Ezekiel, and David say in their Prophecies; especially the Revelation of Jesus Christ: In them lies all that shall hereafter come to pass; and they also spoke ^c Magically of things to come.

^c In mystical terms, which outward Reason could not comprehend.

10. But in our writings you have them more clearly, for the time is now nearer the end; and therefore it appears the more plainly what shall be done at the end.

11. And I would have you directed to our other writings, and there you shall find enough of this, for the wicked world is not worthy of an open, plain, and manifest discovery, covery, because thereby the great Secret, which belongs only to the Children of God, would be ^a defiled; for God will not have us ^c cast Pearls before Swine, but give them to the Children for their Delight; and thus do you also.

12. There is no need that the Mystery should lie under worldly Protection; that is a folly, and God is dishonoured by it, as if he was not able to protect it.

13. You should not look for the Mystery among the mighty, and ^f rely upon them more than others, for the ^g Turba presently enters in with a Law, and so the Spirit of God is as it were bound, and so an Antichrist is brought forth.

14. Look upon Israel; when they rejected Samuel and their Judges, and thought that if their Doctrine was but under a worldly Arm, and that they had but a King, then they would keep their Law; but it is known how they did: Did not their Kings introduce the ^h Turba, and make Calves to be worshipped, and compel the people to adore their Idols? this is mentioned out of my affection and good will.

15. But we give you no particular resolution of this Question, you shall find enough of it in the other Questions, and we dare not write any plainer.

The Thirty-ninth Question.

What, and where is Paradise, with its Inhabitants?

1.  WE have hinted, in the Enochian Life, that it is in this world, yet as it were swallowed up in the Mystery; but it is not altered in itself, it is only withdrawn from our Sight and our ⁱ Source; for if our Eyes were opened, we should see it.

2. Nay God in his Ternary is with us; how then should Paradise be lost? We have lost its ^k source and fruit in the outward Life, as the Devil lost God, when he wilfully exalted himself as an haughty Spirit, and would be Lord; so it is with us.

3. When Adam eat of the Earthly Fruit of good and evil, then he also got an Earthly Life, good and evil, and was driven out of the fair Garden of Paradise, where Heavenly Fruit grew, into this Earthly Life.

4. Many have written very strangely of Paradise, but now their blindness appears in the Day-light, whom yet we condemn not, for they were Seekers. Every ^l Age has had its Seekers, who have sought the ^m Mysterium; but it has been a long time very dark in Babel.

5. Now for these two hundred years it has begun to open itself again, and men have begun to storm Babel on one side, but her strong ⁿ Tower stands firm still; indeed the Whore has been somewhat discovered, but her ^o Beast has but grown the more lusty.

6. Therefore there is yet a wonderful time near at hand, which shall change all: ^p many great Mountains and Hills shall be made plain; and a Fountain shall flow out of Zion, wherein the afflicted and distressed shall drink and be refreshed.

7. And they shall be led to the fresh pasture with a Staff, and the Shepherd will rejoice with the Sheep, that God is so gracious.

8. At that time Silver and Gold shall be as common as in Solomon's time, and his Wisdom shall govern the whole Earth: this is a Wonder.

The Fortieth Question.

Whether is Paradise mutable, and what shall it be afterwards ?

1.  S little as God is mutable, so little is Paradise mutable, for it is a part of the Deity; and when this outward Dominion shall pass away, in the very place where the world now stands, there will be mere Paradise; for the Earth will be of an Heavenly Essentiality, so that we shall be able to dwell any where, and be able to pass through and through it.

3. For there will be no cold, nor heat any more, also no night: we shall be able every where to pass quite through the Heavenly Earth without Interruption, and then it will be Paradise, and the Tabernacle of God with Man; for it is written, ' Behold I make all things New, a New Heaven, and a New Earth, and the Old shall be no more remembered.

4. This Earth will be ^r like a Chrystalline Sea, and all the Wonders of the world will be seen ^u wholly perspicuously; and then the ^w brightness of God shall be the light thereof; and the Holy Jerusalem, the great City of God, shall be therein, where they shall offer up the calves of their lips; there shall the bright City of God with the Wonders and Wisdom be established; and the Temple of God, the ^x New Jerusalem, shall be prepared upon the New Earth, which is adorned from the Power and Wonders of God.

5. All whatever the Prophets have written shall be there fulfilled; for God's Word and Wonders shall flourish as Grass upon the New Earth.

^r Rev. 21. 4.

6. There is no ^r Death any more, also no fear, no sorrow, no sickness, no Superior, but only Christ, who will dwell with us: we shall have one Communion with the Angels, we shall have fruit grow according to our desire and wish.

7. There will be no Old Age; but one of an hundred years will be as a new-born child, and we shall live in mere delight of Love.

8. All whatever is joyful will be sought after; and there the Will of all will be inclined to make one another rejoice.

9. We shall lead a Holy Priestly Life, and we shall all speak of God's Wisdom and Eternal Wonders, for the Divine Magia has infinite and innumerable Wonders; the more it is sought, the more there is in it; and this is the encreasing of the will of God.

10. To this end God has made himself manifest in Images, viz. in Angels and Men, that so he might have joy in himself, and eternally rejoice with the Essences of his Life. Hallelujah.

11. Thus, my beloved Friend, we have set down, according to our gifts, a round Answer to your Questions; and we exhort you as a brother not to despise us, in respect of our simple speech and ^z incongruity.

1. THE Soul is an Eye in the Eternal Abyfs, a fimilitude of Eternity, a perfect Figure and Image of the first Principle, and reſembles God the Father in his Perſon, as to the Eternal Nature.

2. The Eſſence and Subſtance of it, merely as to what it is purely in itſelf, is firſt the wheel of Nature, with the firſt four Forms.

3. For the Word of the Lord ^c compris'd the ſoul, by the Eternal Fiat in the Eternal will of the Father, in the Center of the Eternal Nature, and opened it with the Holy Ghoſt, or blew it up as a fire, which lay hid in the Eternity, and wherein all forms of the Eternal Nature ſtood from Eternity, and ^d is alone known in the wiſdom, in the Divine Magia as a Figure, or Image without ſubſtance.

^c Or formed, fashioned, or created.

^d The ſoul, or the forms.

4. Yet that ^e thing has not been ſubſtantial, but Eſſential, and has been known in the Principle, in the flaſh, where the fire riſes; but the ſhadow of it hath, from Eternity in a figurative Image, figured itſelf in the Deſiring will of God, and has ſtood ^f before the Ternary of God in the Magia, in the wiſdom of God, as a fimilitude of the Holy Trinity, in which God has manifeſted himſelf as in a Glaſs.

^e Or being.

^f Or in the preſence of the Ternary.

5. The ſubſtance and Image of the ſoul may be reſembled to the Earth, having a fair flower growing out of it, and alſo to the Fire and Light: as we ſee that Earth is a ^g Center, but no Life; yet it is Eſſential: and a fair flower grows out of it, which is not like Earth, neither has it the ſmell and taſte of the Earth, much leſs the figure of it, and yet the Earth is the Mother of the flower.

^g Ground, foundation, or ſoil, or the Mother of that which grows upon it.

6. And ſo the ſoul alſo ^h appeared out of the Eternal Center of Nature, out of the Eternal Eſſence, with the word Fiat in the will of God; and was held in the Fiat, ſo that it ^h appeared as a fiery Eye, and fimilitude of the firſt Principle, in a creaturely form and ſubſtance.

^h Shone.

7. And from this Eye went the Glance of its Fire, as Light does from Fire; and in this Glance of its own Fire, the Eternal Image, which is in the wiſdom of God, was ſeen and conceived by the will of the Heart of God in the ſecond Principle; that is, by the word

Fiat of the second Principle, in the Love and Power of the Holy Trinity, whence the Holy Ghost proceeds.

8. And thus the soul was a whole similitude and Image of the Holy Trinity: here we must take the soul for the Center of Nature, and its fiery Life for the first Principle; but the sprout, or the Image of the soul, which is a similitude of God, buds forth from the soul, as a flower from the Earth, and is comprised by the Holy Ghost; for it is his Mansion.

^l Or property. 9. Now if the soul puts its Imagination out from itself, (we mean out from its ⁱ source of fire,) into the Light of God, then it receives the Light, as the Moon does the glance of the Sun; and so its Image stands in the Majesty of God, and the Soul in the Light of God, and its fiery Property is changed into meekness and fervent Love; and then it is known to be the child of God.

^k The soul. 10. But seeing the soul is Essential, and its own substance a Desire, it is plain that it consists in two Fiats; one of them is its corporeal propriety, and the other is the second Principle, proceeding from God's will which is in the soul, in which God desires to have ^k it his Image and similitude.

^l Pleasure, will, or desire. 11. To which End, God's desiring is as a Fiat in the Center of the soul, and continually draws the will of the soul towards the Heart of God: for the ⁱ Longing of God would have the soul; and, on the contrary, the Center in the power of the Fire would have it.

12. For the life of the soul has its original in the Fire, and that makes the striving for the Image of the soul: and which of these two Forms, whether it be the Fire, or meekness of Love that overcomes, that will be the quality of the soul; and as the quality of the will of the soul is, such an Image will the soul have.

^m Quality, or property. 13. And we must know, that if the will of the soul changes itself, then its Form will be also changed; for if the ^m source of the soul be fiery, then it has also a fiery Image.

ⁿ Or harshness. 14. But if the soul turns its Imagination into the Center, into the strong ⁿ Astringency and bitterness, then its fair Image is also captivated in the dark astringency, and infected with the astringent wrath.

^o Quality, or property. 15. And then this wrath is a Turba, which possesses the Image, and destroys the similitude of God; for in God there is Love, Light, and Meekness: but in this Image there is Darkness, astringency, and bitterness, and the Essential ^o source is fire, proceeding from the Essences of wrath; and then this Image belongs not to the Kingdom of God, so long as it continues in this ^p source and form in the Darkness.

^q Quality, condition, or property. 16. Further, Fire is a similitude of the soul; the soul is an Essential Fire, and the flash of the Fire is the Life of it: The soul resembles a Globe, or an Eye of Fire.

17. The burning Fire in the source signifies the first Principle and the Life, yet the Fire is not the Life; but the Spirit of the source which arises from the Fire, and proceeds from the fire-like Air, that is the true Spirit of the source of the Life of the Fire, which continually blows the fire up again, and makes it burn.

18. Now the fire shines, and gives Light out of the source, and dwells in the source where it shines, and the source comprehends not the Light; and this signifies the second Principle, wherein God dwells.

^r Or Virtue. 19. For we know that the ^q Power is in the Light, and not in the Fire; the fire only gives Essences to the Light and the Life, or the Light produces meekness and substantiality, viz. water.

^s Or amiable, loving. 20. Now we understand, that there is a ^r meek Life in the Light, without ^s source, and yet itself is an imperceptible source; it is nothing but a Longing, or desire of Love.

^t Or pain. 21. Which Source we account a Tincture, in which the budding and blossoming has its Original; yet the Fire is the cause of it, and the meekness is a cause of the substantiality.

for the Desire of Love in the Light attracts it, and keeps it, so that it becomes a substance; but the Desire of Fire consumes the substantiality.

22. Also we must conceive, that as the soul is purely and alone in the Center, it is an Essential Fire in the Eye of Eternity; and yet that Eye desires a Figure and Image of the Wisdom of God.

23. And the Image is in its desire, in its Imagination; for the word Fiat has comprehended it, that it might be a similitude of the Eternal wisdom of God, wherein he dwells, and wherein he may manifest himself by his Spirit, and whatever has been in his Eternal Counsel.

24. Thus the Majesty of God flames in the Image, in the Essential Fire, if the Essential Fire puts its desire into the Majesty; but if not, then the Image is raw and naked without God, and the Tincture is false.

^u Wheel, Orb, Sphere, or Globe.
^x Void, or empty.

25. For the Image stands in the Tincture, and has its original in the Tincture, in the Light, not in the source of the Fire: and as the Heart or Word of God has its Original in the Light of the Majesty, in the Eternal Tincture of the fire of the Father, so has the Image of the soul.

26. The Image dwells in the fire of the soul, as Light dwells in the Fire; but it has another Principle, as the Light is such a source as is different from Fire.

27. And so the true Image of God dwells in the Light of the Fire of the Soul; which Light the fiery soul must create in the fountain of the Love of God, in the Majesty, by putting and yielding its Imagination into it.

28. And if the soul does not so, but puts its Imagination into itself, into its wrathful form of the source of the fire, and not into the fountain of Love, into the Light of God, then its own source of sourness, astringency, and bitterness rises up; and the Image of God becomes a Turba, and swallows up the Image of God in the wrath.

^y Sternness, sharpness, or eagerness.

29. And then the Astringent Fiat, in the fiery Essence of the soul, figures for the soul an Image of the Imagination that is in its will: whatsoever the Essential fire of the soul desires, that will be figured in the soul, viz. Earthly Figures: that which the will of the Heart casts itself into, that Image the Fiat of the soul will make; that is, as far as the third Principle, and the Spirit of the Stars and Elements have power.

30. So that if the will of the soul casts itself into the Kingdom of this world, then the outward Kingdom has power to bring its Imagination into the inward Principle; and if the inward Fiat perceives that in the fire of the soul, then it becomes pregnant with it, and retains it.

31. And then the soul has the Image of a Beast in the third Principle, and that cannot be destroyed for ever, except the will of the soul returns again out of the earthly Lust, and pierces into the Love of God again, and then it gets the Image of God again, which may be done only in this life, while the soul is Essentially in its Æther, in the growing of its Tree; but after this Life it cannot be done.

^z Ground, or soil, or bed of Earth.

32. Thus you may understand what the Soul, Spirit, Image, and Turba are. The soul dwells in itself, and is an Essential Fire; and its Image standeth in itself, in the Imagination in the Light of the soul, if it cleaves to God; if not, then it is in Anxiety in the wrath of darkness, and is an abominable Image, or an Image of the Devil.

^a Vizard, or Monster.

33. The Turba of the soul, which destroys the Divine Image, is the Essential wrathfulness; and it is caused by the Imagination, or false Love and Representation, and therefore all lies in the Imagination: the Image consists in that which we permit to come into our Desire.

^b Or Imaging.

34. It is very necessary for us to strive continually against the Earthly Reason of flesh and blood, and to yield the Spirit of our wills into the Mercy and Love of God, and always cast ourselves into the will of God, and not account Earthly goods and pleasures

^c Or profit.

^d Or to conclude.
^e Matt. 6. 21.
^f Rom. 2. 16.

35. ^d To sum up all: Christ said, ^e where your treasure is, there will your Heart be also; according to which ^f God will judge the secrets of Mankind, and sever the clean from the unclean; and give that which is false to the Turba of the Fire to be devoured; and that which is Holy, which is entered into God, he will introduce into his Kingdom. ¶ * * * * * ¶ T is an Eminent Text, Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testify of ME, and ye will not come unto ME that ye might have Life, Joh. 5. 39, 40. which are the words of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ to the Jews at Jerusalem, in the days of his Conversation upon Earth in Mortal Flesh: They thought to have Eternal life in the Scriptures, and were present with Christ outwardly, yet would not come unto Him, though the Scriptures are they that testify of Him; by which it may appear, that the coming to Christ must be inwardly, in Coming to be like him in their Hearts, in becoming meek and lowly of Heart: such only, and no other come unto him, in any Age or Place of this World, or in Eternity: nor can any other possibly have life.

The Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the written word of God; penned by the Holy Prophets and Apostles, who spoke as they were inspired by the Holy Ghost, whose words are some of them recorded in the Holy Writings, the Bible.

But if we seriously consider it, can we think that the Eternal Ever-living word, CHRIST JESUS, by which all things were Created, and which is God himself; who has spoken by his Word in all his Holy Ones, that have spoke forth the Things, mentioned in the Scriptures, and there recorded by the Command of the same word; can it enter into our Hearts to think, that this powerful word, which is God, would only have the Scriptures to be called the word of God, and the living power to be slightly passed by as not observed, or those Texts that speak of it, to be interpreted of the Holy Scriptures only, as if there was no such thing besides? Whereas, for the sake of that they were wrote, the holy Men spoke, and God has wrote all things by, and for it, to his own Glory.

Should the writing be preferred, before the thing that is written of in it, and which caused the writing, and dictated it? as it is by those that think the word is not that, which filleth all Things, calling in the Hearts of All, though not regarded.

The P R E F A C E.

The Holy Scripture says, The word is in the Heart; and yet it is not by some conceived to have been there, before the word was known to be written by Man, or spoke by human voice, neither of which could have been, unless first directed by the same Eternal Word.

And then they think, that the Word is in the Hearts of those only that have heard or read the Scriptures, or the Word vocally pronounced by Man.

And at length they have come to imagine, that the Word is only the Scriptures of the Bible, in their Hearts, by and after the hearing or reading it, and remembering what it mentions in Words, according to their own Notions or Apprehensions of the Things in their Minds, though perhaps not understood by them; as indeed they cannot be, but by the Spirit of understanding; awakened and revived in Man, by the power of the Living Word in the Heart, filling the Soul with understanding and believing, in those who are obedient to the Instigations and Dictates of it in the Mind; and this may be, though they never read or learned it from any outward word or writing at all; of which, there are many Examples in the Holy Scriptures.

It is strange that the Scriptures, which mention the word of Life, should be taken to be that very word of Life itself, and that the Thing which is so called in the Scriptures, should be thought to be the Scriptures only; and no further search or inquiry made, what that thing is, or where it is, and how to find the very thing itself; as if that was impossible, or not the principal Matter to be looked after: Whereas God himself saith, Am not I he that filleth all things? And in him are all Things: Cannot HE then be found? And whosoever findeth him, can he miss of finding ALL THINGS? This is strange that it should enter into the Heart of any Man; and that we should be so tied up to former Apprehensions and Conclusions fixed in our Minds, that a further consideration cannot easily take Place or obtain Admission.

But if we pause a while, and examine what may be the cause of it, we may observe, that commonly our disposition is such, that we love not to hear a different apprehension of others; lest we should thereby be lead to think and believe that which is contrary to our former once framed Ground of Opinion; and this because all Conclusions raised upon it, when that is once removed, do fall to the ground, and so we lose our former Labour, and must be put to work a-fresh upon that new Foundation; and then we fear, if that should be shaken, there must be another labour, with the like hazard of unprofitable Success, which is so great a discouragement to any Mind, that it brings it at length to be languishing, and as it were dead, especially if an assured, infallible, immoveable internal Ground be not presented to it, that it may go on cheerfully to build, with hope to enjoy its fruit, and behold the beauty of its Superstructure: But when it is thus dead in itself, it is most capable of being taught by the quickening Spirit of Truth, that lies hidden in it, under its former supposed Truths.

To deny, that the Holy Scriptures are the written Word of God, or the Word of God expressed in writing, is, besides the opposing of certain and manifest Truth, to undervalue that precious help of knowing and understanding, what that Word was, by which it was written, which is the very end for which it was committed to writing, and continued to us, and is one of the most Excellent fruits of the wisdom remaining in Letters, which that Eternal Word has produced in this outward visible transitory World.

But the esteeming that fruit, and looking after it more, than the Root, and setting it up instead of, and above the hidden Word in all things, is what has been attempted in the Hearts of Men, by the suggestion of the Arch-enemy of all Mankind; who knows well enough, that if the inward Word be once choaked and killed at the Root, so that it comes not to be felt, known, and obeyed, he will soon cause in Evil Minds, that Most precious literal Word to be used only as a pretence, thereby to cover all Sin and Hypocrisy, causing the Word in the Heart not to be so much as thought of or observed. Whereas on the contrary, he that highly esteems the Word, the Commandment, Christ in the Heart, that word of Faith, by which the heart itself comes originally to have its very being, cannot in the least fail of esteeming the powerful working thereof in the inexpressible various wisdom, dwelling in the Heart, and appearing from the Mouth or Pen of any Man whatsoever.

Therefore peruse this Treatise, which will inform us how the Eternal Word became Man, and how the Man JESUS CHRIST, who in the fulness of time was born of the Virgin Mary, and lived upon Earth, was crucified, died, was buried, rose again, and ascended into Heaven; how he was this Eternal Word, which was, is, and Ever shall be, God, and Christ, the Eternal Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the word of Faith; that very Word which is in our Hearts, the word of Life, the inserted or ingrafted Word, the word of Grace, the Spirit of Life, the Bread which came down from Heaven, and which always is in Heaven, not the outward, though in the outward Bread, for we live not by bread alone, but by every word which proceedeth out of the Mouth of God, this is the Bread of Life, Our ^a Daily Bread; and so how he is both God and Man: Also how we that are Men, may here in this Life be rightly partakers of him, according to the sayings of the Scriptures, also of his Sufferings, Death and Resurrection; and how or in what manner it is, that he is like unto us in all things, Sin only excepted, and yet he took our Sins upon him, and he that knew no Sin, became Sin for us, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him: All this will be clearly discerned in this Treatise of the Incarnation of JESUS CHRIST, or his Becoming Man. Reason cannot tell us what a Birth and Person it is, that the unmeasurable Word, the Creator of all things, is born to this World, a Son of Man. It is the highest mystery of God, and was declared by a Star to the Women from the east, and by an Angel in the Night to the simple Shepherds in the field, that it is the Saviour of all the world; and when he came to his Manly Age, and reached the mystery of his thirty years, then must the world see the Light, by the power of his Word and mighty Works, when the blind were made to see, the deaf to hear, the lame to walk, the dumb to speak, the sick were cured, the Devil departed from the possessed, and entered into the swine, the dead were raised to life, and innumerable more the like Things were effected.

 Matt. 6. 11.

Why dispute the great Chaldeans, and learned Doctors about this Divine Prince of Peace, whom they have not? He is at Bethlehem, and not in Babel; in the womb of the earthly Virgin Mary, and at the same time in the Circle of the divine infinite Sophia, in the Center of the +, of the Ternary, where he has his eternal Seat, which he has also in a contrite Spirit and broken Heart, but not in their Books and Intellects. Man should have ruled over all the Beasts upon earth, and not have lusted after their Life. But he suffered himself to be infatuated, and his light was extinguished, his power and strength were taken away, and he came to be swallowed up in Behemoth's belly: Then all his young ones came forth from their dens and nests, and would devour him; enraged bears, insatiable wolves, angry lions, proud horses and peacocks, envious dogs, voracious swine, lascivious goats, cunning serpents, raging dragons, poisonous toads, stinging spiders, killing vipers, gross oxen, brutish asses, timorous hares, rapacious hawks, carnivorous eagles and vultures, all the worms of the earth, and all the insects flying in the air, had got power over him; there were none of them which did know, or would spare him, for he was a stranger in their Forest.

Then Divine Love transformed itself, to redeem and restore him to his Dignity; the heart of God, in the sweet name JESUS, formed himself a meek innocent Lamb of God, that he might deliver us through his Blood from sin, death, and hell.

The P R E F A C E.

Had Man, in Child-like simplicity and obedience, kept himself to the Word, and to the contemplation of Divine Wisdom in Paradise, Faith and Hope would have remained secret, and Love alone would have been manifest. But since we are gone out into the Starry region, which has smothered and suppressed the amiable light-flame of Love, we must now believe and hope what we cannot see and feel, till the Love of God re-kindles again our dead love, and renews it to life in himself. Therefore Faith, as a secret flame, rises upwards out of astral reason, through the Death of Christ, to work out the fruits of Love and of the Spirit, and below it takes root in humility, and grows in hope. But this hope lays not hold on earthly things, but raises her wings by faith upwards to God. Thus the new Growth, which is out of God, presses through hell, and nature, and reason, till it is transplanted into the right field of the heavenly body; then Faith and Hope enter into the mystery of the new Spirit, which is born in God, is manifest in Love, and united with God; and they are no more called Faith, but Intuition, nor Hope, but Possession and Enjoyment of Life, in the peace and joy of the Holy Ghost, as is taught in this Treatise.

By the perusal and contemplation of it, the Holy Bible will appear assuredly, to be as much the Word of God, as a writing by the hand of Man can be, and the words there, once spoken by the Prophets, Christ, the Apostles, and other holy Men, as much the word of God, as words and voices of Men can be.

Yet the writing, the Words, and sense or meaning, proceeding from Creaturely Instruments, are creaturely, whereas the Thing properly called the word of God, which inwardly frames the Meaning, and formeth all things whatsoever, both visible and invisible, is not a Creature, for it is the Creator, the creating Word, which is God himself, who formeth all things in himself. He creates the Creature, and dwells therein, yet the Creature is not, nor ever can be Him; and so that word of his which is produced and manifested externally by the Creature, is God's Word, but is not God the Word; but the inward Word in the Heart, that word of Faith, even Christ the Word, that Word is God.

The Things recorded in the Holy Scriptures, would have been true, though they had not been spoken of in them. Was not the Word God, though John the Apostle had not said so? Were not the pure in Heart blessed? Should we not through Patience possess our Souls? Is not God himself Light? And if we walk in the Light, as he is in the Light, does not the Blood of Jesus Christ cleanse us from all Sin? The Kingdom of Heaven is within us; and does it not consist in Peace, Righteousness, and Joy in the Holy Ghost; and then, must not all needs be in us?

How many thousand endless Mysteries are treasured up in the hidden wisdom of God in Christ, and in him in us? When we find him and partake of him, in him we have them all, and from his fulness receive Grace for Grace: How strictly therefore should we search and observe the exact words of the Scripture, which as surely as an Index, point us to these invaluable things, and use that powerful word in our Hearts, by which inward bearing comes, and direction and power of understanding those things, not only which are expressed inwardly or outwardly, but even whatsoever is bidden in Christ, in whom all fulness dwells. And then, can any thing be impossible to be apprehended or known by a Soul that has the very Thing in itself, where nothing can be hid from its inward Eyes?

Since God works in us both to will and to do, why refuse we to will and to do? This comes by hearkening and yielding to the Lusts of our own Hearts, being Servants in Obedience to the Evil, and not of God, who is likewise in us with his Grace and fulness, and quenching the Spirit, the manifestation whereof is given to every one to profit withall.

Though the Most Holy Man born of the fleshly Seed of Father and Mother, of himself is not able to think a good Thought, yet there is none so wicked, except he is become altogether a mere Devil, but does, at some time or other in his life, think a good Thought, which testifies the good work of God in his heart and soul, and is the stirring of the Divine Word therein, in which is Light; but Men love Darkness rather than Light, though it has ever shone in the Darkness, and is the very light of their life in them, and that because their Deeds are Evil; and they will not proceed to will and do according to it, which is the Obedience to the divine Light in them, though God has given even his whole self unto them to Convert them, wherein they are able to do all things through Christ that strengthens them, and yet they will not, but neglect so great Salvation. These Things are certain, and are all of them to be discerned, known, and thoroughly understood in the Things themselves, by and in every Soul; but our deficiency is that we seek not.

The Consideration of which should move us earnestly to labour, to understand more and more, where and how that word is to be found, felt, seen, and known, as this Book does exceedingly help us, that we may infallibly, experimentally, and with clear understanding, testify unto the Truth of the Holy Scriptures by the thorough Examination of the Things it speaks of, seeing the Scripture directs to that which is to be understood no way but in the Things themselves, as all that is recorded is to be known experimentally, whether it be Natural or Divine, solely by comparing the writing by, and with the Things, else all is but a notional and imaginary Supposition or Opinion, without understanding. But by the knowledge of Things, we should by degrees cease from Contention, and rightly, certainly, and infallibly know God, and the Wonders he has wrought, and can and will work in all things, especially in the Souls of holy Men; some of whom, out of the good hidden treasure of the living word in the Heart, have committed to writing those things contained in the Scriptures, which are few in respect of the infinite Depths of the Deity. And proceeding forward from Grace to Grace, from Knowledge to Knowledge, we may attain to the measure of the fulness of the stature of a Man in Christ; and not be always Children in understanding, but even strong Men in Christ.

The Apostle John saith, If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves; for of this mortal corruptible Flesh, which dies and remains in Corruption in the Grave, and will not be changed till the general Resurrection of all the Dead at the last Day, of that it may be always said, as the Apostle Paul says of himself, after he was wrapt into the Third Heaven, I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: And that is it in which Evil was present with him, when he would do good; for with his flesh he served the law of Sin: Can any serve God with his Flesh? but with the Mind he can, and does when he willeth the good.

Yet why are the Mysteries of the Bible so little understood, but because we apprehend not, that God and Christ and the Holy Spirit, and all Graces, as also sin, are inwardly in every soul, the Flesh lusting against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the Flesh? And so the love and wrath of God are in all things either hidden or manifested, which, if it was considered, we should find what all things are, for they are to be found within our souls, and with our inward Eyes, and may be plainly seen, discerned, and known; and so the Holy Scriptures, as we come to a greater measure of the knowledge of the Things, not only that they are, but what and how they are, as this Author teaches, would come to be understood, as to all those Mysteries of the Gospel of Christ's Eternal Redemption and Salvation which he has purchased for all Mankind, with which there is nothing equally desirable to be known by any of the Sons of Men, which are fundamentally and particularly explained in this Treatise of the Author's, wherein such Mysteries are discovered, as before could not have been believed. And if all the Jews, Turks, Heathens, and others, not yet true Christians, should perceive the Things therein written, they would instantly, with willing and ready Hearts, believe in God aright, and worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth; and know the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom he hath sent, and then be filled with Joy in the Holy Ghost, and love, embrace, and highly esteem the understanding of the Scriptures.

The Ground of all Mysteries is here laid open, which being apprehended, may bring us at length to the full understanding of all that the Scriptures contain, except what the spirit of God will conceal, as what the seven Thunders in the Revelation sounded forth, which yet will be made known to that soul, what those things are that the Spirit will not yet reveal, but the Father will reserve in his own power, till the thing is near to be accomplished, though it may be understood by some or other holy soul in the Nature of the Thing, with a Command not to publish it to others. But though we understand things never so perfectly in our Spirits, Souls, and heavenly Bodies, in our Inward Man, yet we enjoy them inwardly only, in assured hope, but not as we shall do, neither do we see them as we shall hereafter, when we shall enjoy them as we do now this world with this outward Body, both which will be changed together at the End; and though this body is ^b sown in weakness, at the resurrection of it, it will be raised in power, a spiritual, incorruptible immortal body, made conformable to Christ's Glorious Body, to such as have been partakers of him in this Life. This will be in that World, where all Evil shall be done away, first from adhering to us as now in and by our outward Man in this life, and then also all corruption being done away, as at the change of this world and resurrection of the Body, that will be also released from those Clogs of imperfection which now hang on us Outwardly, and on this whole now visible world, as it will do till all Things are separated by the Fire at the last day, and then every thing shall go to its own Place. Then Corruption shall put on Incorruption, and God shall be all in all.

In the mean Time, we may attain Perfection in our souls, spirits, and new heavenly Bodies, being therein truly members of Christ in us; but we should keep under our body, and bring it into subjection, and daily mortify our Members that are on the Earth, and learn to know how every one of us may justly account ourselves even the chief of sinners, finding sin to be out of measure sinful, and striving with Godly sorrow and Indignation against it: But though sin dwells, yet we should not let it reign in our mortal Bodies, to obey it in the Lusts thereof; and if by the spirit we thus mortify the deeds of the body, we shall live, for then we bring forth the fruits of the Spirit.

As this Treatise will so exceedingly further us in these several divine Considerations, let the Reader, for his own Benefit, peruse it seriously, and he will find more than he could have conceived before he read it.

PART I. Of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, the Son of God; that is, concerning the Virgin Mary, what she Was from her Original, and what kind of Mother she came to be in the Conception of her Son Jesus Christ; and how the Eternal Word is become Man.

The First Chapter.

Why the Incarnation of Jesus Christ has not hitherto been rightly understood. Also of the two Eternal Principles, and of the Temporary Principle.

1. W HEN Christ asked his Disciples, ^a Whom do the people say that the Son of Man is? They answered, ^b Some say thou art Elijah, some, that thou art John the Baptist, or one of the Prophets. ^a Mat: 16. 13.
^b 14.
2. ^c He asked them, and said, Whom say ye then that I am? ^c 15.
3. ^d Then Peter answered him, Thou art Christ the Son of the living God. ^d 16.
4. ^e And he answered them, and said, Of a Truth, Flesh and Blood has not revealed it unto thee, but my Father in Heaven: ^f And upon this, he made known unto them his Suffering, ^f Dying, and Resurrection. ^e 17.
^f 21.
5. To signify, that self-reason, in the wit and wisdom of this world, could not in its own Reason know nor apprehend this Person, who was both God and Man.

6. But he would for the most part be rightly known, only by those that would wholly yield up themselves to him, and for his name-sake suffer the Cross, Tribulation, and Persecution, who would earnestly cleave to him.

7. As indeed it so came to pass then also, that even while he conversed visibly amongst us in this world, he was least known by the Wife in Reason.

8. And though he went up and down in divine Wonders, doing Miracles, yet outward Reason was so blind and void of understanding, that those great wonders were, by the wisest in the Arts and Sciences of Reason, ascribed to the Devil.

9. And as at the time when he walked visibly in this world, he remained unknown by the wife in their own Reason, so he still remains unknown to outward Reason.

10. From hence is so much contention, disputation and strife risen about his Person; in that outward Reason supposes it can reach, fathom, and search out what God and Man is, and how God and Man can be one Person.

11. Which strife has filled the circuit and face of the Earth, Self-Reason continually supposing it has found and gotten the Pearl; withal not considering that God's Kingdom is not of this world, and that Flesh and Blood cannot know or apprehend it.

12. Therefore now it concerns every one, that will speak or teach of the Divine Mysteries, that he hath the spirit of God, and knows in the Light of God those Matters which he will give forth for true; and not suck or draw them from his own Reason; and so without divine knowledge run upon the bare Letter in his opinion, and drag the Scripture by the Hair of the Head, to prove it, as is usually done by Reason.

13. From this, so exceeding many errors are risen, in that the divine knowledge has been sought in men's own Wit and Art; and so men are drawn from the truth of God to their own Reason; so that the Incarnation of Christ has been accounted a strange work and thing.

14. Whereas, yet we must all, in that Incarnation, be born of God again, if we will ever escape the wrath of the Eternal Torment or Nature.

15. But seeing it is a familiar, intimate, and native innate work to the children of God, wherewith they should exercise themselves daily and hourly, and should always enter into the Incarnation of Christ, and go forth from the earthly Reason, and so in this miserable life must be born in the birth and Incarnation of Christ, if they intend to be the children of God in Christ.

16. I have therefore undertaken to write this high mystery, according to my knowledge and gifts, for a memorial, that so I may have cause also heartily to be refreshed and quickened with my Immanuel.

17. Seeing I also, together with others, the children of God and Christ, stand in this birth; that I may have a remembrancer, and support or stay, if the dark earthly Flesh and Blood, together with the Devil's Poison, should surprize me, or prevail over me, and obscure and darken my Image.

18. Therefore I have undertaken it as an exercise of Faith, whereby my Soul may thus, as a branch or twig in its Tree Jesus Christ, quicken itself from his Sap and virtue.

19. And that not with wise and high eloquence of Art, or from the Reason of this world, but according to the knowledge which I have from my Tree Christ; that my little sprout in the Tree and Life of God, together with others, may grow and flourish.

20. And though I search sublimely and deep, and shall set it down very clearly; yet this must be said to the Reader, that without the Spirit of God it will be a Mystery to him, and hidden from him.

21. Therefore let every one take heed how he judges, that he fall not into the judgment of God, and be captivated by his own Turba, and that his own Reason cast him not down headlong. This I say out of good-will, and give it to the Reader to ponder of.

22. When we will write of the Incarnation, and Birth of JESUS CHRIST, the Son of God, and speak rightly of them, then we must consider the cause, and what it is that moved God to become Man, seeing he needed not that to the accomplishment or perfection of his Being or Substance.

23. Neither can we by any means say, that his own Being or Substance has altered itself in the Incarnation.

24. For God is unchangeable, and yet is become what he was not, though his property notwithstanding remains unaltered: that which was only aimed at, was the salvation of fallen Man, that he might bring him into Paradise again.

25. And here we are to consider of the first Man, how he was before his fall, for whose sake the Deity has moved itself; which ought highly to be considered by US Men.

26. We know what Moses saith, That ^g God Created man according to his similitude, in an Image of or according to him; understand it thus: That God, who is a Spirit, beheld himself in an Image, as in a similitude. g Genes. 1.
26, 27.
5. & 1.
9. & 6.

27. Nevertheless he has also created this World, that so he might manifest the Eternal Nature in substantiality, also in living Creatures and Figures, that all this might be a Similitude and Out-birth or express Image, out of the Eternal Nature of the first Principle.

28. Which Similitude, before the time of the world stood in the wisdom of God as a hidden ^h Magia, and was beheld in the wisdom by the Spirit of God.

29. Who in the time of the beginning of this world moved the Eternal Nature, and opened and brought forth the similitude of the hidden divine world.

30. For the Fiery world stood as it were swallowed up or bidden in the light of God; in that the light of the Majesty ruled alone in itself.

31. And yet we must not think that the fiery world was not then; it was then; but it severed itself in, or into its own Principle, and was not manifested in the Light of God's Majesty.

32. As we may observe in the Fire and Light, that the Fire is indeed a cause of the Light, and yet the Light dwells in the Fire, unapprehended by the Fire, and bears or has another source or quality than the Fire.

33. For the fire is fierceness and consumes, and the light is meekness; and out of its virtue or power, comes Substantiality, viz. Water, or the Sulphur of a thing, which the Fire attracts into itself, and uses it to its strength and life, and so is an eternal Band.

34. This Fire and divine Light, have each stood still in itself from Eternity, each standing in its order, in its own principle, and having neither Ground nor Beginning.

35. For the Fire has in itself, for its source or quality, its own Form, viz. the De-firing; out of which, and in which, all Forms of Nature are generated; one being continually a cause of the other, as is mentioned expressly at large in the other writings.

36. And we find in the Light of Nature, that the Fire, in its own Essence, has been as in an astringent desirous source or quality, a darkness in itself, which, in the Meekness of God, has stood as it were swallowed up; so that it has not been qualifying, or producing its Quality, but Essentially in itself, and not kindled.

37. And though it has as it were burned, yet that has been as a Principle of its even, in itself only perceptible.

^h Or Desire.

38. For there have been only two Principles from Eternity ; the one in itself, the Fiery world ; the other also in itself, the Light-flaming world.

39. And yet they were not parted asunder, as the Fire and Light are not parted asunder, and the Light dwells in the Fire, unapprehended by the Fire.

40. And thus we are to understand two Spirits, one in another, viz. 1. One fiery, according to the Essence of the astringent and stern Nature out of the hot and cold stern Essential Fire, which is understood to be God's wrath-spirit and source or quality, and belongs to the Father's property, according to which he calls himself an angry ¹ jealous God, and ^k a consuming fire, in which the first Principle is understood.

Exod. 20. 4.
* Heb. 12. 29.

41. And 2. The other a Meek Light-flaming Spirit, which from Eternity conceives its variation or transmutation in the Center of the Light ; for it is in the first Principle, in the Father's Property, a Fiery Spirit ; and in the second Principle, in the light, a meek light-flaming spirit, and is only one, and not two ; but is understood to be in two sources or qualities, viz. in Fire and Light, according to the property of each source or quality.

42. As is sufficiently to be understood by us, in every outward Fire, wherein the Fire-source or quality gives a wrathful fierce spirit, which is consuming ; and the source or quality of the light gives a meek amiable Air-Spirit, and yet is Originally but one Spirit.

43. In like manner we are to conceive of the Being or Substance of Eternity, viz. the holy Trinity, which in the Light we apprehend to be the Deity ; and in the Fire to be the Eternal Nature ; as is sufficiently cleared in the other writings.

44. For the Omnipotent Spirit of God with both the Principles, has been from Eternity All itself, there is nothing before it ; it is itself the Ground or Byss, and the Abyss.

45. And yet the Holy Divine Being or Substance is especially observed to be a Being or Substance of its own, in itself, and dwells without or beyond the fiery or firing Nature and property, in the Light's property, and is called ¹ GOD, not from the Fire's property, but from the Light's property.

46. Though indeed both properties are unseparated, as we may understand by this world, wherein there lies a hidden Fire in the Deep of Nature, and hidden in all beings or substances and things, else no outward fire could be brought forth.

47. And we see that the Meekness of the water holds that hidden fire captive in itself, that it cannot manifest itself ; for it is as it were swallowed up in the Water, and yet is, though not substantially, yet essentially ; and in the awakening is made known, and operative or qualifying, and all were a Nullity or Nothing and an Abyss without the Fire.

48. Thus we understand also, that the Third Principle, viz. the source or quality, and the Spirit of this world stood, from Eternity, bidden in the Nature of the Father's property, and was known by the Light-flaming Holy Spirit, in the Holy Magic, viz. in the divine wisdom, in the Divine Tincture.

49. For the sake of which, the Deity has moved itself, according to the Nature of the Genetrix, and generated the great Mystery, wherein then ALL lay, whatsoever the Eternal Nature was able to do.

50. And it has been only a Mystery ; and has not been as a Creature, but as a Chaos, Quintessence, Mist, or Mixture together.

51. Wherein the wrathful or fierce Nature has generated a dark Mist or Cloud ; and the light-flaming Nature, in its property, has generated the Flame in the Majesty, and the Meekness ; which has been the Water-source or quality, and the cause of the Divine substantiality from Eternity.

52. And it is only Virtue or Power, and Spirit, which has been of no Similitude ; and and there are no footsteps of any Thing therein, but the Spirit of God in a two-fold source, quality and form, viz. a hot and a cold stern fire-source, or quality; and then a Meek love-source, or quality, according to the kind of the Fire and of the Light.

53. These have, as a Mystery, gone one into another, and yet the one has not comprehended the other, but they have stood as it were in two Principles.

54. Wherein then the Astringency, viz. the Father of Nature, has continually comprehended or compacted the Substantiality in the Mystery; where then it has formed itself as it were into an Image, and yet has been no Image, but as a Shadow of an Image.

55. All this in the mystery has thus indeed continually had an Eternal beginning, of which a man cannot say, that there is any thing, which has not had its figure as a Shadow in the great Eternal Magia.

56. But it had no Being or Substance, but a spiritual or divine Scene or sport one in another, and is the Magia of the great Wonders of God, whence there is continually what was not, or where there was nothing but only an Abyss; and that is now, in the Nature of the Fire and Light, come into a Ground.

57. And yet it is out of or from Nothing, but only out of the Spirit of the source or quality, which is also no Being or Substance, but a source or quality which generates itself in itself in, or into two Properties, and also separates itself into two Principles.

58. It has no ^m separator or maker, but is itself the cause, as is particularly mentioned at large in the other writings, that the Abyss introduces and generates itself into a Ground. ^m Former or Fashioner.

59. Thus now we may conceive of the Creation of this World, as also of the Creation of Angels, also of Man, and all other Creatures. All is Created out of the great Mystery.

60. For the third Principle has stood before God, as a Magia; and was not, or has not been wholly manifested or revealed.

61. Also God has had no similitude, wherein he could discover his own Being or Substance, but only the wisdom that has been his longing delight, and has stood in his will with his Being or Substance, as a great wonder, in the light-flaming divine Magia of the spirit of God.

62. For it has been the habitation of the spirit of God, and is no Genetrix, but the manifestation or revelation of God, a virgin, and a cause of the divine substantiality.

63. For in it stood the light-flaming divine Tincture to the heart of God, viz. to the word of life of the Deity; and it has been the revelation or manifestation of the Holy Trinity.

64. Not that, from its own Ability and Production, it manifests or reveals God; but the divine Center out of God's heart, or being and substance, manifests itself in it: It is a Looking-Glass of the Deity.

65. For every Looking-Glass standeth still, or quiet and steady, and generates no Image, but receives the Image: and thus the Virgin of wisdom is a Looking-Glass of the Deity, wherein the spirit of God sees itself, as also all wonders of the Magia, which with the creation of the Third Principle are come into Being or Substance, and are all created out of the great Mystery.

66. And this Virgin of the wisdom of God stood in the Mystery; and in it the spirit of God has discovered the formation of the Creatures; for it is the out-spoken or express Image of whatsoever God the Father has spoken forth out of his Center of the light-flaming divine Property, out of the Center of his Heart, out of the word of the Deity, by his Holy Spirit.

67. It stands before the Deity as a Glance or Looking-Glass, wherein the Deity sees itself; and in it stands the divine Kingdom of Joy of the divine Will and Pleasure; viz. the great wonders of Eternity, which have neither beginning, nor end, nor number.

68. But it is all an Eternal Beginning, and an Eternal End, and is together as it were an "EYE, which sees where there is nothing in the Seeing or in Sight: but the seeing arises out of the Essence of the Fire and Light.

69. Understand in the Fire's Essence, the Father's Property, and the first Principle; and in the Light's quality or source and property, the Son's Nature, viz. the second Principle; and the driving Spirit out of both properties, understand to be the spirit of God, which in the first Principle is fierce or wrathful, stern, astringent, bitter, cold, and fiery, and is the driving spirit in the Anger.

70. And therefore it rests not in the fierce Wrath and Anger, but is thrusting forth, and blowing forth of the Essential fire, in that it unites itself again in the Essence of the Fire: for the wrathful Essences draw it again into them; for it is their source or quality and life, and yet goes in the kindled fire into the Light forth from the Father into the Son, and opens the fiery Essences in the source or quality of the light.

71. Where then the fiery Essences in the great desire of the burning Love, and the first stern source or quality, in the Light's quality or source, are not known; but the fierceness of the fire is only thus a cause of the light-flaming Majesty, and of the desiring Love.

72. And thus we are to understand the Being or Substance of the Deity, and also the Eternal Nature; and we understand always the Divine Being or Substance, in the light of the Majesty; for the meek light makes the stern nature of the Father meek, lovely, and merciful.

73. And is called the Father of Mercy, according to his heart or Son; for the Property of the Father stands in the Nature of Fire and Light, and is himself the Being of all Beings, or Substance of all Substances.

74. He is the Abyss and the Byss or ground, and parts himself in the Eternal Birth into Three Properties, as into Three Persons; also into Three Principles.

75. Whereas yet in the Eternity, there are but Two in Being or Substance, and the Third is as a Looking-Glass of the first Two; out of which this-world, as a comprehensible or palpable Being or Substance, is created in a Beginning and End.

The Second Chapter:

Of the Revelation or Manifestation of the Mystery: How out of the Eternal Spiritual Mystery, the Temporary Mystery is flown forth.

1.  E E I N G then there has thus been a Mystery from Eternity; therefore now its manifestation, or revelation is to be considered; for we can speak no otherwise of the Eternity, than as, of a Spirit.
2. For it has all been only a Spirit, and yet from Eternity has generated itself into Being or Substance, and that through Desiring and Longing.
3. Neither can it be said at all, that in the Eternity there has not been Being or Substance; for no Fire subsists without Being or Substance.

4. Also there is no Meekness without the Generating of Being or Substance; for the Meekness generates Water, and the Fire swallows up the water, and makes it in itself, one part Heaven and Firmament, and the other part Sulphur.

5. In which the fire Spirit, by its Essential wheel, makes a Mercury, and further awakens the Vulcan; that is, strikes up the Fire, that so the Third Spirit, viz. the Air, becomes generated.

6. Where then the noble Tincture stands in the Midst, as a ° Glance with the Colours, and originally arises out of the Wisdom of God.

° Transparency or Reflection.

7. For the Colours arise from the source or quality: Every Colour stands with its Substantiality, in the meekness of the quality or source of the water, excepting the Black, which does not so, that has its Original out of the harsh astringent fierceness; ° they all receive their colours from the source or quality.

° The Forms of Nature.

8. Thus now every form longs after the other, and from the Desirous Longing every form is impregnated from the other; and the one brings the other to Being or Substance; so that the Eternity stands in a perpetual enduring Magia, wherein Nature stands in a sprouting, springing, and wrestling; and the fire consumes that, and affords or gives it also, and so is an Eternal Band.

9. Only the light of the Majesty, and Trinity of God, is unchangeable: for the Fire cannot comprehend it; and it dwells Free in itself.

10. And yet it is perceptible and known to Us, that the light of the Love is desirous, viz. of the wonders and figures in the wisdom.

11. In which desiring, this world, as a Model, has been known from Eternity in the wisdom, in the Deep hidden Magia of God; for the Desiring of the Love searches into or predominates in the Ground, or Byss, and Abyss.

12. Therein has also, from Eternity, the Desire of the fierce wrath and harsh stern source or quality, in the Father's Nature and Property, together mingled itself.

13. And so the Image of Angels and Men have been from Eternity discovered in the Divine property in God's wisdom; as also, in the property of the fierce wrath, the Devil has been, but not in the holy Light-flaming property.

14. But yet in no Image, or Being and Substance, but in the Way or Manner, as in a deep sense, a thought darts up, and is brought before its own Looking-Glass of the Mind; where in the Mind often a thing appears, ° that is not in Being or Substance.

° Or that comes not to Being or Substance.

15. Thus have the two Genetrixes, viz. the fierce wrath in the Fire, and also the Love in the Meekness or Light, set their Model ° in the wisdom.

° Or figure.

16. Where then the Heart of God in the Love has longed to Create this Model into an Angelical Image, out of the Divine substantiality, that it should be a Similitude and Image of the Deity, and should dwell in the wisdom of God, to fulfill the longing of the Deity, and to the Eternal rejoicing of the Divine Kingdom of Joy.

17. And now we are to conceive or apprehend of the Word Fiat, that it has comprised or caught this, and brought it into a Substance and Corporeal Being: for the will to this Image has existed out of the Father, out of the Father's property in the word or heart of God from Eternity, as a desirous will to the Creature, and to the Manifestation of the Deity.

18. But seeing it had not moved itself from Eternity, till at the Creation of the Angels, therefore there was no Creation performed, till the Creation of the Angels.

19. But the Ground and Cause thereof, we are not to know, and God has reserved it to his own Power and Might, how it came to pass, that God has once moved himself; seeing, or notwithstanding, he is an unchangeable God: and we shall here search no further, for this troubles us.

20. Only of the Creation we have ability to speak, for it is a Work in the Being or Substance of God: and we understand that the Will of the Word, or Heart of God, comprehended or comprised the astringent Fiat in the Center of the Father's Nature, together with the Seven Spirits and Forms of the Eternal Nature, and that in the Form and Manner of the Thrones.

21. Where then the harsh Fiat stood, not as a Maker, but as a Creator in the property of each Essence, ¹ all in the Great Wonders of the Wisdom.

22. As the Figures were from Eternity discovered in the " Wisdom, so they now became comprehended by the Fiat, in the Will-Spirit of God.

23. Not out of strange Matter, but out of God's Essences, out of the Father's Nature, and became introduced by God's Will-Spirit into the light of the Majesty.

24. Where then they were Children, and not strange guests; generated and created out of the Father's Nature and Property, and their will-spirit was inclined or directed into the Son's Nature and Property.

25. They could and should Eat of God's love-substantiality, in the Light of the Majesty; where then their fierce wrathful property out of the Father's Nature became changed into Love and Joy.

26. And that they all did, besides or except one Throne and Kingdom, and that turned itself away from the light of Love, and would rule and domineer in the stern Nature of the Fire, above God's meekness and love.

27. And was therefore driven out from the Father's Property, from its own Creaturely Place, into the Eternal Darkness, into the Abyss of the stern Fiat, and there must stand in its own Eternity; and thus the fierce wrath of the Eternal Nature is here also filled.

28. But yet we are not to think, that King Lucifer also could not have stood: He had the light of the Majesty ^{*} for himself, as well as the other Thrones of Angels: If he had Imagined thereinto, or according to it, he had continued an Angel.

^{*} Or belonging to him.

29. But he drew himself out of God's Love into the Anger, and so he is now an Enemy of the love of God, and of all the Holy Angels.

30. We are here to consider further, of the Enimittitious kindling of the Extruded Spirits, while they were yet in the Father's property; how they with their Imagination kindled the Nature of the substantiality, so that out of the Heavenly Substantiality, Earth and Stones are come to be: and the meek Spirit of the water is come to be a burning Firmament in the fire's source or quality; whereupon the Creation of this world, viz. of the Third Principle, followed.

31. And for the Place of this World there was another Light awakened, viz. the SUN, that so the Devil's pomp might be withdrawn from him; and he was thrust out, and shut up as a Prisoner in the Darkness, between the Kingdom of God and of this world.

32. Where then in this world he hath no further to Rule, but only in the Turba, in the fierce wrath and anger of God; where that is awakened, there he is Executioner; and is a continual Liar, promoting of mischief, a Betrayer and Cheater of the Creatures.

33. He turns all Good into Evil, so far as he is permitted room to do it; whatsoever is Terrible and Pompous, there he shows his might, and willeth continually to be above God.

34. But the Heaven which is Created out of the midst of the Waters, as a Meek Firmament, allays his Pomp, so that he is not Chief Great Prince in this world, but [†] Prince of wrath.

[†] Or Anger-Prince.

35. Now when the Devil was thrust out of his Place, this Place or Throne thereupon stood without its Angelical Host, in great desire and longing after its Prince; but he was thrust out.

36. So now God Created for it another Prince, Adam the first Man, who was also a Throne-Prince before God: and here we are rightly to consider his Creation, as also his Fall; for the sake of whom, the Heart of God moved itself, and became Man.

37. It is not so slight or trivial a thing or matter, about the Creation of Man, for whose Fall's sake God became Man, that he might Help him again.

38. So also his Fall was not the meer Biting of an Apple: also his Creation was not in that manner, as outward Reason supposes, which understands the first Adam in his Creation, to be only a meer Clod of Earth.

39. No, my dear Mind, God is not become Man for the sake of a Clod of Earth: neither was the matter merely one disobedient Act, for which God was so enraged, that his wrath could not be pacified, except it be revenged on the Son of God, and slay him.

40. To Us Men indeed, since the losing of our Paradisical Image, this Mystery has continued hidden, except to some who have attained the Heavenly Mystery again: to them somewhat thereof has been opened, according to the Inward Man.

41. For in Adam we are, dead as to Paradise, and must Sprout and Grow again, through Death and the Corruption of the Body, into Paradise, as into another world, in the life of God, into the Heavenly Substantiality and Corporeity.

42. And though it be so in some, that they attain the Substantiality of God, viz. Christ's Body, again, on the soul; yet the Perished Earthly Adam has covered the Holy and Pure Mystery, so that the Great secret Mystery has continued bidden to Reason.

43. For God dwells not in this world in the Outward Principle, but in the Inward: he dwells indeed in the Place of this world, but this world apprehends him not: how then will the Earthly Man apprehend the secret Mysteries of God?

44. And if a Man apprehends them, he apprehends them according to the Inward Man, which is born of God again.

45. But seeing the Divine Mystery will now more and more henceforth be laid so wholly open, and be so very perceptibly given to Man, that he will very clearly apprehend the hidden secret, therefore it ought by him to be well considered what it signifies; even the Harvest of this world, for the Beginning has found the End, and the Middle is set into the separation.

46. Let this be told to you, ye Children, who would inherit the Kingdom of God: there is a time of great earnestness or severity at Hand: The Floor shall be purged, Evil and Good shall be separated one from another: The Day Dawneth, this is highly known.

47. When we will speak of Man, and rightly understand out of what he is made, we must consider of the Deity, together with the Being of All Beings, or Substance of all Substances; for Man was created according to the similitude of God, out of all the Three Principles; a total Image and Similitude, according to all Beings or Substances.

48. He must not be an Image of this world only; for this world's Image is Bestial; and for the sake of no Bestial Image, is God become Man.

49. For neither did God create Man to live thus in a Bestial Property, as we now live in after the Fall, but in the Paradisical, in the Eternal Life.

50. Man had no such bestial Flesh, but heavenly Flesh; but in the Fall ² it became ² His Flesh, earthly and bestial.

51. Neither are we to understand it in such a sense, that he had nothing of this world in him: He had the Kingdom and Dominion of this world in him; but the Four Elements ruled not in him; but the Four Elements were in one, and the Earthly Dominion laid hidden in him.

52. He should live in the heavenly Source or Quality; and though all was stirring in him, yet he should rule with the Heavenly Source or Quality of the second Principle over the Earthly; and the Kingdom, and the Source or Quality of the Stars and Elements, should be under the Paradisical Source or Quality.

53. No Heat nor Frost, no Sickness, nor Mishap or Mischief, also no Fear should touch him or terrify him, his body could go through Earth and Stone, uninterrupted by any thing.

54. For that would be no Eternal Man, which Earthlinefs could limit, which were thus fragile.

55. Therefore we should rightly confider of Man: It is not Sophiftry or Opinion that will do it, but knowing and underftanding in the Spirit of God.

56. It is of Necessity you must be born again, if you will fee the Kingdom of God again, out of which you are departed.

57. Art will not do it; but God's Spirit, which fets open the Doors of Heaven to the Image of Man, fo that he can fee with Three Eyes.

58. For Man ftands in a Threefold Life, if fo be he is God's Child; if not, he ftands only in a Twofold Life.

59. And it is fufficiently known to us, that Adam is, with the right Holy Image, which was the fimilitude according to the holy Trinity, gone forth out of the Divine Being or Substance, and has imagined in or according to the Earthlinefs, and has brought the earthly Kingdom into the divine Image, and darkned or obscured it, and made it perish, whereupon alfo we loft our Paradifical Seeing.

60. Alfo God has withdrawn Paradife from Us, whereupon we became then weak, faint, and feeble; and instantly the four Elements, together with the Constellations or Astrum in us, became strong and mighty, fo that we are with Adam fallen home to them.

61. Which alfo is the Cause of the Woman, that God divided Adam, when he could not stand, and parted him into two Tinctures, viz. according to the Fire and Water, as shall be mentioned hereafter, the one affording foul, the other spirit.

62. And after the Fall Man became a bestial Being or Substance, who must propagate after a bestial property or kind; and then the Heaven and Paradife, as alfo the Deity, became a Mystery to Him.

63. Whereas yet the Eternal continued in Man, viz. the Noble foul, but covered with an Earthly Garment, and darkened and infected with the earthly source or quality, and poisoned by the false or evil Imagination; fo that it was no more known to be God's Child.

64. For the sake of which, God became Man, that he might deliver it from the Dark Earthlinefs again, and bring it again into Heavenly Substantiality, in Christ's Flesh and Blood, which fills the Heaven.

The Third Chapter.

The Gate or Opening of the Creation of Man; and of the Breathing in of the Soul and of the Spirit.

1.  ALTHOUGH this has been cleared enough in the other Writings, yet because every one has them not ready at hand, therefore it is necessary to set down a brief recital, or round description of the Creation of Man; whereby Christ's Incarnation may be the better understood afterward.

2. Alfo for the sake of the Pearl, which continually more and more happens, and comes to be given and opened to Man in his seeking; which is a singular Joy to me, thus to delight myself with God.

3. The Creation of Man is effected or performed in all the Three Principles, viz. in the Father's Eternal Nature and Property; and in the Son's Eternal Nature and Property; and in this world's Nature and Property.

4. And into the Man, which the word Fiat Created, was the Threefold Spirit, out of the Three Principles and sources or qualities, breathed in to be his life; viz. he was Created by a Threefold Fiat: understand the Corporeity or Substantiality; and the will of the Heart of God introduced the Spirit into him, according to all the Three Principles: understand it as follows.

5. Man was created totally after the similitude of God, God manifested himself in the Humanity in an Image, which should be as himself.

6. For God is A L L; and All is proceeded from him; and yet all is not called God, for this Reason, because all is not Good.

7. For as far as concerns the Pure Deity, God is a light-flaming Spirit, and dwells in Nothing, but only in himself; Nothing is like him.

8. But as far as concerns the Property of Fire, out of which the Light is generated, we apprehend that the Property of the Fire is Nature, which is a Cause of the Life, moving, and of the Spirit; else there would be no Spirit, also no Light, nor Being or Substance, but an Eternal Stillness, neither Colour nor Virtue, but all would be an Abyss without Being or Substance.

9. Though yet the light of the Majesty dwells in the Abyss, and is not apprehended by the fiery Nature and Property; for as to the Fire and Light, we are to understand as follows.

10. The Fire has and makes a terrible and consuming source and quality or torment: now in the source or quality and torment, there is a sinking down like a dying, or free yielding up itself.

11. That free yielding up itself falls into the liberty, without or beyond the source or quality, or torment, as into Death; and yet is no Death, but it goes a degree deeper down into itself, and becomes free from the source or quality, or torment of the fire's Anguish; and yet has the sharpness of the Fire, yet not in the Anguish, but in ^b the ^b liberty.

12. And then the Liberty and the Abyss is a Life, and becomes a Light in itself; for it gets the Flash of the Anguish, Source or Quality, or Torment, and becomes desirous, viz. of the Substantiality.

13. And the Desiring impregnates itself with substantiality out of the Liberty and Meekness: For in that the Anguish, Source, or Quality, or Torment, sinks, or enters in, it rejoices, that it is free from the Anguish, and draws the Joy into itself, and goes with its will out from itself, which is the Life and ^c Spirit of Joy.

14. For which, here we had need of an Angel's Tongue: yet hereby we will give to the Reader that loves God, a short Explanation to consider of, for the understanding of the Heavenly Substantiality.

15. For in God, All is Power, Spirit and Life; but whatsoever is Being or Substance, that is not Spirit; but that which sinks down from the Fire, as into Inability, that is Being or Substance.

16. For the Spirit rises in the Fire, but it separates itself into two Sources or Qualities; as one into the Fire, and one in the sinking down into the Liberty, into the Light.

17. This is called God; for it is meek and lovely, and has in itself the Kingdom of Joy; and the Angelical world is understood in the Liberty of the Substantiality.

18. Therefore when we were gone out from the Liberty of the Angelical Substantiality, into the dark source or quality, whose Abyss was the Fire, then there was no Remedy, unless the Light's power and word, as a word of Divine Life, became a

^a Vacuum, void, cessation, privation, or Negation.

^b Or Joy.

^c The Holy Spirit.

Man, and brought us out of the darkness, through the fire-source or quality, through the Death in the Fire, again into the Liberty of the divine Life, into the divine Substantiality.

* Note.

19. And thêrefore must Christ die, and with the soul-spirit go through the Fire of the Eternal Nature, viz. through * Hell and the fierce wrath of the Eternal Nature, and enter into the Divine Substantiality; and break open a way for our souls through the Death and Anger, through which we may with, and in him, enter through Death into the Eternal Life.

20. But concerning the divine Substantiality, viz. concerning the divine Corporeity, we are to understand as follows.

21. We understand that the Light gives Meekness, viz. Love: Now the fire's anguish desires Meekness, that it may quench its great Thirst; for the fire is desirous, and the Meekness is giving, for it gives itself.

2. Wesenheit.

22. Thus in the desiring of Meekness, comes to be substance or Being, viz. a substantial^d Essentiality: which is sunk down from the fierce wrath, which gives its own Life freely, and that is Corporeity; for or out of the power in the Meekness it becomes substantial, and is, by the Astringency, as by the Eternal Fiat, attracted, or put on and retained.

23. And it is therefore called Substantiality, or Corporeity; because it is sunk down from the fire-source or quality and spirit, and is, in respect of the spirit, as mute or inanimate, Dead and Impotent; whereas yet, it is an Essential Life.

24. Understand us right thus: When God created the Angels, there were only Two Principles manifested, and in-Being or Substance; viz. that in the Fire, and that in the Light; viz. one in the fierce wrathful Substantiality, in the stern astringent Fiat, with the forms of the fire's Nature.

25. And then that in the Heavenly substantiality, out of the Holy Power, with the water-source or quality of Meekness of the Life of Joy; in which the divine Sulphur, as in the Love and Meekness, was generated; its Fiat was God's desiring will.

26. Out of this divine Substantiality, viz. out of God's Nature, the Angels as Creatures were created, and the source or quality of their Spirit and Life rises in the Fire.

27. For without Fire no Spirit does subsist; and if it goes out of the Fire into the Light, there it obtains the love-source or quality, and the fire becomes only a cause of its Life: but the fire's fierceness comes to be quenched with the Love in the Light.

28. But Lucifer despised this, and continued in the Fire-Spirit, and so Elevated himself also, and kindled the substantiality in his Place, out of which Earth and Stone came to be, and he was thrust out; and so the Third Corporeity and the Third Principle began, together with the Kingdom of this world.

29. So when the Devil was thrust out into the Darkness, then God Created another Image, according to his similitude, in this Place.

30. But if it must be God's similitude according to all the Three Principles; then must it also be taken out of all the Three, and out of all Beings or Substances of this place, or of this Deep, as far as the Fiat had, with Lucifer's Principality, given itself into the Ether to the Creation.

31. For Man came in the stead of Lucifer: and hence rises also the Envy of the Devils, that they cannot allow Man that Honour, but lead him continually into the Evil way of perdition, whereby they may but increase their Kingdom; and they do it as a spite against the Meekness, viz. the love of God, supposing, that seeing they live in the fierce strong Might, they are higher than the Spirit of God in the Love and Meekness.

32. Understand it thus: God's Will-Spirit, viz. the Holy Spirit, has comprised the Twofold Fiat in two Principles, viz. in the Angelical world, the inward, and in this this outward world, the outward, and created $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{den Mensch oder Menschheit,} \\ \text{The Mixture or Man,} \end{array} \right\}$ as a Mixt person; for he should be an Image according to the inward and outward world, but should with the inward source or quality rule over the outward: Thus he should have been the similitude of God. c Or Man.

33. For the outward Substantiality hung to the inward, and the Paradise grew through the Earth, and Man in this world upon the Face of the Earth was in Paradise; for Paradical fruit grew for him, till the Fall, when the Lord curfed the Earth.

34. Then Paradise passed into the Mystery, and became a Mystery or hidden secrecy to Man; whereas yet if he is born of God again according to the inward Man, he dwells in Paradise, but according to the outward, he dwells in this world.

35. We are further to consider the Beginning and original of Man thus: God has created his Body out of the ^f Matrix of the Earth, out of which the Earth was Created. f The Quiet-essence or Mother.

36. All was together one in another, and yet parted itself into Three Principles of a Threefold Substantiality; and yet that in the fierce wrath was not known.

37. Now, if Adam had continued in Innocence, he had lived the whole time of this world only in Two Principles, and had ruled with one over all; and the fierce wrathful Kingdom had not been known or manifested in Him, though indeed he had it in him.

38. And we are to understand further, that Adam's Body was created out of the Inward Element, wherein the Inward Firmament and Heaven, together with the Heavenly Effences lie, as to one Part, by the inward Fiat.

39. And, as the other Part, he was created by the outward Fiat, out of the outward Four Elements, and out of the Constellation or Astrum; for in the Matrix of the Earth, they stood one among another: The Paradise was therein, and the Body was created also in Paradise.

40. Understand us right: He had divine and also Earthly Substantiality on him, but the Earthly was impotent, and as it were swallowed up in the Divine.

41. The Substance or matter out of which the Body was created, was a Mass or lump of fire and water, together with the ^e Effences of both those principles, although the first also lay therein, but not stirring. e Out-going substantial working powers and properties.

42. Every principle should continue in its seat, and should not mix, even as is done in God, and then Man were a Total Image according to God's Being or Substance.

Of the Breathing-in of the Soul, and of the Spirit.

43. The Body is a similitude according to God's substantiality: The Soul and Spirit are a similitude according to the Holy Trinity.

44. God gave the Body his substantiality out of the Three Principles; and the Spirit, together with the Soul, out of the fountain of the Threefold Spirit of the All-existing All-substantial Deity.

45. And thus we are to understand, that the soul, with its Image, and with its outward Spirit, is proceeded out of the Three Principles, and breathed and introduced into the Body, as Moses witnesses, ^b God breathed into Man the living Breath into his Nostrils, and so Man became a living soul. b Gen. 2. 7

46. But now the Breath and Spirit of God is Threefold, viz. in a Threefold Source or Quality.

47. In the first Principle it is a fiery Breath and Spirit, which is the true cause of the Life, and stands in the Father's source or quality, viz. in the Center of the fierce wrathful Nature.

48. And then in the second Principle God's Breath, or Spirit, is the light-flaming love-spirit, viz. the true spirit of the True Deity, which is called God the Holy Ghost.

49. And in the Third Principle, as in the similitude of God, God's breath is the Air-spirit upon which the Holy Ghost rides, as David saith, ⁱ The Lord rideth upon the wings of the Wind: and Moses saith, ^k The Spirit of God moved upon the Waters; that is, upon the Capsula, or Inclosure, where the Air rises.

ⁱ Psal. 18. 10.
^k Gen. 1. 2.

50. Now this Threefold Spirit has the total God, out of all the Three Principles, introduced and breathed-in into the Created Image.

51. Viz. First, the Fire-spirit he has introduced into him from within, and not at the Nostrils, but in the Heart in the Twofold Tincture of the inward and outward blood; although the Outward was not known or discerned, but was a Mystery, but the inward was stirring, and had Two Tinctures, viz. one out of the Fire, and one out of the Light.

52. This Fire-spirit is the true Essential soul, for it has the Center of Nature with its four forms for its fiery might: It strikes up the fire itself, and itself makes the wheel of the Essences, as in the ^l Second and ^m Third book is mentioned at large.

^l The Three Principles.
^m The Three-fold Life.

53. And thou art to know, that the Essential Soul's fire is not the true Image, according to the Deity: It is no Image, but a Magical perpetual enduring Fire.

54. It has had no Beginning; also it will have no End.

55. And understand, that God has introduced the Eternal beginningless Fire, which has been from Eternity in itself in the Eternal Magia, as in the willing of God in the desiring of the Eternal Nature, as an Eternal Center of the Genetrix; for this Image should be a Similitude of, or according to him.

56. And secondly, in like manner it is with the Essential soul's fire, the holy Spirit has introduced the light-flaming Love-spirit out of itself, and that even in the second Principle, wherein the Deity is understood.

57. Not in the Nostrils, but as Fire and Light hang one to another, and are One, but in two sources or qualities: Thus was the Good Love-spirit, together with the Essential Fire-spirit, introduced into his Heart.

58. And each source or quality, brought its own Tincture along with it as a peculiar Life of its own; and in the Love-tincture the right true Spirit is understood; which is the Image of God, which is a similitude according to the clear true Deity, which respects the whole Man properly, also fills the whole Man, but in its own Principle.

59. The soul, as to what purely belongs to it, is a Fire-eye, or a Fire-looking Glass, wherein the Deity has manifested itself according to the first Principle, viz. according to Nature, for it is a Creature, and yet created in no similitude.

60. But its Image, which it brings forth out of its Fire-eye into the Light, that is the true Image or Creature, for the sake of which God became Man, and introduced it again out of the fierce wrath of the Eternal Nature, in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Holy Ternary.

61. And we are to understand further thus, concerning the soul and its Image: It is indeed together a Spirit; but the Soul is a hungry fire, and must have substantiality, else it will be a hungry Dark valley, as the Devils are come to be such.

62. Thus the soul makes Fire and Life; and the meekness of the Image makes Love and heavenly substantiality; thus the soul's fire becomes meekened and satiated with Love.

63. For the Image has water out of God's fountain, which flows into Eternal life, the same is Love and Meekness, and it receives that out of the Majesty of God, as is to be seen in a kindled Fire; that the fire in itself is a fierce wrathful source or quality, and the Light is a meek amiable Source and Quality ; and that in the deep of this world, out of Light and Air, water comes to be ; this is thus also in a similitude.

64. Thirdly, God has in like manner, at once, breathed in the Spirit of this world, with the source or quality of the Stars and Elements, viz. the Air, into Man, into his Nostrils, that should be a ruler in the outward Kingdom, and open the wonders of the outward World ; to which End also God created Man in the outward Life.

65. But the Outward Man should not reach into the Image.

66. And the Image of God should not lodge the outward Spirit in itself, and suffer that to rule over it.

67. For its food was from the Word and power of God ; and the outward Body had paradisaical food, not from the Sack of Worms, for it had not that.

68. Also he had neither the form nor shape of Masculine or Feminine, for he was both ; and had both Tinctures, viz. of the soul, and of the Spirit of the soul ; of the Fire, and of the Light.

69. And he should have generated another Man out of himself according to his Similitude : He was a chaste Virgin in one only pure Love : He should have loved and impregnated himself through the Imagination ; and so also ^a was his Propagation.

^a Or should have been.

70. He was a Lord over the Stars and Elements, a similitude of God ; as God dwells in the Stars and Elements, and they apprehend not him : He rules over all : Thus was Man created also.

71. The Earthly source was not wholly stirring in him : He had indeed the Air-spirit, but the Heat and Cold should not touch him, for the substantiality of God pressed through all : As the Paradise pressed and sprouted through the Earth ; so sprouted the Heavenly substantiality in the outward Being or Substance of his Body, and outward Spirit. In God, that was very possible, which to us, in the earthly Life, seemeth strange.

72. Fourthly, Thus Adam, with the introducing of his fair Heavenly Image into the spirit of God, has together received the Living word of God, which was the food of his soul and image : That living Word was surrounded with the divine Virgin of wisdom.

73. And you are to know, that the soul's Image stood in the Virgin-like Image, which was discovered in the Deity from Eternity.

74. And the pure Image of Adam was out of the wisdom of God, for God would thus behold and manifest himself in an Image, and that was the similitude according to God ; understand, according to God's Spirit ; according to the Number Three ; a Total chaste Image like the Angels of God.

75. And in this Image Adam was the child of God ; not a similitude only, but a Child. He was, I say, born of God, out of the Being of all Beings, or Substance of all Substances.

76. Thus we have briefly acquainted you, and offered to your understanding, what kind of Image Adam was before his Fall, and how God has created him ; for the better understanding why God's Word is become Man, how it was brought about, and what it has caused, or produced and effected.

The Fourth Chapter.

Of the Paradisical Life, Being, or Substance, and Dominion:
How it would have been if Man had continued in Innocence.

I. * * * * * ANY Objections has the Devil framed, whereby he would excuse himself, saying, God has created him thus as he is, whereas his Angelical form which he once had, always *convince*s him that he is a Liar.

2. And thus he always does to the poor fallen Man, he introduces always the Earthly Kingdom with its power and ability into him, that so he may have a constant Looking-Glass before him, that he also may blame God, as if he had created him earthly and evil.

3. But he leaves out the best, viz. First, the Paradise in which Man was created: And then, Secondly, God's Omnipotence; that Man liveth not by bread only, but also from the Power and Word of God: And Thirdly, that Paradise, with its source or quality, ruled over the Earthly Quality.

4. He shows Man only his Hard miserable fleshly Naked form or Condition; but the Form or Condition in Innocence, wherein Adam knew not that he was naked, he covers or conceals that to seduce Man.

5. And so he would have this very much concealed from us poor Children of Eve; and though the Earthly Sack is not worthy to know it, yet it is very necessary for our Minds to know it.

6. So it is also necessary for us to fly to the True Door-keeper, who has the Key to open it, to pray to him, and yield up ourselves wholly to him, desiring him that he will yet vouchsafe to open to us the Paradisical Gate in the Inward Center of our Image, that the Paradisical Light might shine to us in our Minds, that so we might become longing to dwell with our IMMANUEL again, with the Inward and New Man in Paradise.

7. For, without this Opening, we understand nothing of Paradise, and of our Image which we had in Innocence.

8. But seeing Christ the Son of God has generated us again to the Paradisical Image, we should not be so remiss to rely upon Art and earthly Reason; for so we find not Paradise and Christ, who must become Man in us, if we will ever see God: In our Reason it is all but dead and blind.

9. We must go out from Reason, and enter into the Incarnation of Christ, and then we shall be taught of God; and then we have power to speak of God, Paradise, and of the Kingdom of Heaven.

10. And in the Earthly Reason, which only proceeds from the Constellation or Astrum, we are but Fools in the presence of God, if we will speak of the Heavenly Mystery; for we speak of a thing which we have not seen or known.

11. But even a Child knows its Mother, so also every one that is born of God again, knows his Mother, not with earthly Eyes, but with divine, with the Eyes of the Mother from whom he is born: This we present to the true-hearted Reader to consider what he is to do; and from what mind and apprehension, or understanding, we will write.

12. Reason of the outward world will needs hold, that God created Man in the outward Dominion, in the source or quality of the fiery Stars and four Elements; but if that were so, then he was created in the Anguish and Death.

13. For the starry Heaven has its limit, when it attains that, it leaves the Creature, of which it was a leader; and then that Dominion, and Being or Substance of the Creature, passes away, which was subject to the outward Heaven.

14. And we see very well how we fall away and die when the outward Heaven with the Elements leaves us; so that even a Child in the Mother's womb is plainly old enough to die, oftentimes also it perishes while it is yet without Life, and in the Fiat of the outward Dominion, is coming to be a Body before the Center of Nature strikes up the Fire of the soul.

15. And thus by Adam's fall, we clearly know the Dying and Death; that Adam, as soon as he became Earthly, died as to Paradise, and was dead to the Kingdom of God: the Regeneration was therefore necessary for us, else we could not become living again.

16. But seeing God did forbid Adam the Earthly fruit, which was mixt, not to touch it, and also created only one Man with Masculine and Feminine Properties, with both Tinctures, as of the Fire, and of the Light in the Love, and brought him instantly into Paradise, yea he was created in Paradise; therefore we cannot give way to Reason, which, by the Devil's Infection or Instigation, saith, that Man was created Earthly.

17. For whatsoever was solely created from the earthly Life, or from the Earthly source or quality, that is Bestial, it has Beginning and End, and reaches not the Eternity, for it is not out of the Eternity.

18. And that now which is not out of the Eternity, that is transitory, and only a Looking-Glass, wherein the eternal Wisdom has beheld itself as in a Figure and Similitude.

19. There remains nothing of it else but a shadow without source or quality, and being or substance: It passes away as a wind which has raised itself, and then lies down again.

20. For such a Creature's sake, the word of God is not become Flesh: The Eternal is not for the sake of the Transitory entered into the transitory substantiality.

21. Also it is not therefore entered into the Earthly, that it would raise and introduce the Earthly Transitory into the Power of the Majesty, but for the sake of that which was proceeded out of the Power of the Majesty, but was become evil and earthly, and as it were extinguished in Death, that it might make it living again, and awaken and lift it up into the power of the Majesty, into that state it was in before it was a Creature.

22. And we are to understand otherwise than we have hitherto done concerning Man, having accounted him bestial: Indeed he became Bestial, according to the property of this World, when he died in Adam; from thenceforward he lived to this world, and not to God.

23. But if he entered with his will-spirit into God, then the will-spirit would attain the Noble Image again, and according to the Image, would live in God, and according to the Bestial property, would live to this world.

24. Thus he was in Death, and yet was living; and therefore God's word became Man, that it might unite him into God again, that he might be totally born again in God.

25. We are to conceive of the Paradisical Image thus: We say, and apprehend, that Adam was created good, pure, and immaculate; as were also Lucifer and his Hosts.

26. He had pure eyes, and that Twofold; for he had both Kingdoms in him, viz. God's Kingdom, and the Kingdom of this world.

27. But as God is Lord over all, so should Man also in the power of God be Lord over this world; for, as God rules in all, and presses through all, imperceptibly to the Thing, so could the hidden divine Man press into all, and see all.

¶ Man.
¶ World.

28. Indeed the outward ¶ was in the Outward ¶, but he was Lord over the outward, it was under him, it could not subdue him, he could break the Rocks without any prejudice to him.

29. The Tincture of the Earth was wholly known to him, he should have found out all the Wonders of the Earth; for to that end was he also created in the outward, that he should manifest in Figures, and produce into work what was seen in the eternal Wisdom, for he had the Virgin Wisdom in him.

30. Gold, Silver, and precious Metals, are indeed also out of the Heavenly Magic, thus inclosed and shut up by, or with the kindling: They are another thing than Earth: Man loves that well, and uses it for his maintenance; but he knows not its ground and original: It is not in vain loved by the Mind: It has a high Original, if we would consider of it.

31. But we are justly silent of it here; seeing Man, without that, loves it too much, and thereby withdraws himself from the spirit of God.

32. One should not love the Body more than the Spirit, for the Spirit is the Life: This we give you to understand in a similitude, and are silent of the Matter, with the ground and original thereof.

33. But know this, that it was given to Man for his sport and ornament, he had it by the right of Nature: It was his; understand the outward Body's; for the outward Body, with its Tincture, and the Metalline Tincture, are near of Kin.

34. But when the Tincture of the outward body was destroyed by the Devil's evil Longing, then the Metalline Tincture hid itself also from the Humane, and became an enemy to it; for it is purer than the perished in the outward Man.

35. Let this be manifested to you, ye Seekers of the Metalline Tincture, if you would find the Philosopher's Stone, then apply yourselves to the New Birth in Christ, else it will be hard for you to apprehend it; for it has a great agreement with the Heavenly Substantiality, which, if it were released from the fierce wrath; would be very well seen.

36. Its luster signifies somewhat, so that, if we had paradisical eyes, we should well apprehend it: The Mind shows it us indeed, but the understanding and full knowledge is dead as to Paradise.

37. Therefore seeing we use that noble Thing to the dishonour of God, and to the destruction of ourselves, not to honour God thereby, and to enter with our Spirit into the Spirit of God, but leave the Spirit, and cleave to the Substantiality; therefore is the Metalline Tincture become a Mystery, for we are become strangers to it.

38. Man was created, that he should be a Lord of the Tincture, and it was subjected to him, and he became its servant, and also strange to it, therefore now he seeks in Gold, and findeth Earth.

39. Because he forsook the Spirit, and went with his Spirit into the Substantiality, therefore the Substantiality has captivated him, and shut him up in death; so that, as the Tincture of the Earth lies shut up in the fierce wrath till the Judgment of God, so also the spirit of Man lies shut up in the Anger, unless he goes forth, and becomes generated in God.

40. For the Devil would be chief great Prince, with his fierce wrath in his heavenly substantiality, therefore it was shut up from him, and became Earth and Stone, so that he is not Prince, but a Captive in the Anger, and the substantiality profits not him, for he is Spirit.

41. He contemns the Heavenly Substantiality, and kindles the Mother of Nature, viz. the Astringency or Fiat, which instantly made all palpable and corporeal, which God's Spirit ¶ created or compacted together.

¶ Or concret-
c.l.

42. And yet it was well or easy to be known to Man, he could well release the Tincture, and bring forth the Pearl to his Sport or Scene and Joy, and to the Manifestion of God's Glory and Deeds of wonder, if he had continued in Innocence.

43. As to Man's eating and drinking, whereby he should give his Fire nourishment and substantiality, it was thus :

44. He had a twofold fire in him, viz. the Soul's fire, and the outward fire of the Sun and Constellations or Astrum : Now every fire must have Brimstone, or Being and Substance, or else it subsisteth not ; that is, it does not burn ; concerning which we have sufficient understanding in the Divine Being or Substance, what the nourishment of Man was.

45. For, as is mentioned above, the soul's fire is fed with God's Love, Meekness, and Substantiality, together with whatsoever the Word, viz. the Divine Center, bringeth forth.

46. For the soul is out of the eternal Magic Fire, which must also have Magic food, viz. by or with the Imagination.

47. If it has God's Image, then it imagines in God's Love, in the divine substantiality, and eateth of God's food, of the food of the Angels.

48. But if not, then it eateth of whatsoever it imagines in, or of whatsoever the Imagination enters into, whether it be of the earthly, or hellish source or quality, and into that Matrix also it falls ; indeed not with its substance, but is filled therewith, and that begins to qualify, or operate in itself, as poison does in the flesh.

49. Also it is sufficiently to be known by us in the food of the outward Body thus : The outward Man was indeed, yet he was as it were half swallowed up by the Inward, the Inward ruled throughout ; and thus every life took of its own food :

50. Viz. the Image of God, or the Soul's Spirit and Image did eat of the Divine heavenly substantiality ; the outward Body did eat of the Paradisical fruit in the mouth, and not into the body ; for, as the outward body stood half swallowed up in the inward, so was also the fruit of Paradise.

51. The divine Substantiality sprouted through the earthly, and had half swallowed up the earthly in the Paradisical fruit, so that the fruit was not known to be earthly ; and therefore it was called Paradise, as a sprouting through the Anger, where the love of God sprouted through the Anger, and bore fruit, as the Language of Nature clearly understands the same, without any Explanation or far-fetched Meaning.

52. And thus we are further to understand, how God dwells in this world, and the world is as it were swallowed up in him ; it is impotent in him, and he Omnipotent : Thus was Man also, and thus he did eat, his earthly eating was heavenly.

53. As we know that we must be born again, so the Paradisical fruit was born again out of the Anger into the heavenly essentiality.

54. Or, as we see, that a good sweet herb grows out of the bitter earth, which the Sun qualifies, or causes to be otherwise, than the earth had qualified or caused to be ; so the holy man qualified the Paradisical fruit in his mouth, so that the earthliness was swallowed up as Nothing, and stirred not Man at all.

55. Or, as we know that the Earth shall at the End be swallowed up, and be no more a * palpable body. so was also Man's outward eating, he did eat the fruit in the Mouth, * Note. and needed no Teeth for that, for there was the dividing of the Power.

56. There were two Centers of the power in Adam's mouth, each took its own : The Earthly was changed into a Heavenly source or quality ; as we know that we shall be ¹ 1 Cor. 15. changed as to our Bodies, and be turned into a heavenly powerful Body ; thus also was ² 51, 52. the transmutation in the mouth.

57. And the Body received the Power, for ³ the Kingdom of God consisteth in Power, and ⁴ 1 Cor. 4. thus Man stood clearly in the Kingdom of God, for he was immortal and a child of God. ⁵ 20.

58. But if he should have eaten thus into the Guts, and have had such a Stink in his Body, as we now have; I will ask a Reason whether that were Paradise, and whether God's Spirit dwells in that; whereas God's Spirit was to dwell in Adam, as in the Creature of God.

59. His labour in Paradise upon the Earth was Child-like, but with heavenly Wit or Ingenuity, Understanding and Skill: He might plant Trees, and other Plants, all according to his pleasure: In all there would grow to him Paradisical fruit, and all would be pure to him; he did what he would, and did all right.

60. He had no Law, but only the Law of the Imagination or longing, pleasure and delight; that he was to place with or by his Spirit in God, and so he should have continued Eternally.

61. And although God had changed the Earth, yet he had continued without necessity and death; all would have been but changed into heavenly substantiality.

62. So also is to be understood concerning his drinking; the inward Man drank the Water of Eternal Life, out of God's Being or Substance, and the outward drank the Water upon the Earth.

63. But, as the Sun and the Air suck up the Water, and yet are not filled with it, so it was also in Man's Mouth, it separated itself in the Mystry.

64. As we conceive, and certainly know, and it is the whole Truth, that God made all Things out of Nothing, but only out of his Power; so all whatsoever was Earthly, should, in Man's Mouth, go again into that which it was before the Creation of the World.

65. The Spirit and Power thereof belonged to Man, but not an Earthly Body; for God had once created him a Body which was Eternal, and wanted no Creating more.

66. He, understand Adam, was a Princely Throne made out of Heaven, Earth, Stars, and the Elements, as also out of God's Being or Substance: A Lord of the World, and a Child of God.

67. Observe this, ye Philosophers, it is the true Ground, and highly known: Mingle no School fictions with it: It is clear enough: Opinion does it not, but the true Spirit born of God knows it right.

68. All Opinion, without Knowledge, is an Earthly folly, and here understands Earth and the four Elements; but God's Spirit understands the one Element only, wherein the four lie hidden.

69. Not four should rule in Adam, but the one over the four, the heavenly Element over the four Elements of this world; and thus we must be again, if we will possess Paradise; for which thing's sake God is become Man.

70. Let this be told you, ye School Disputers or Wranglers, you go about the Circle, and enter not within, as the Cat about the scalding broth, which is afraid of the burning Heat, so are you afraid and ashamed before the fire of God.

71. And as little as the Cat eateth the scalding broth, but goes about smelling at the Edge of it, so little also does Man eat the Paradisical fruit, unless he goes out from Adam's skin, which the Devil has defiled, and enters again into the regeneration of Christ.

72. He must enter within the Circle, and cast away the skin of Reason: and then he attains human Wit or Ingenuity, and Understanding, and divine Skill and Knowledge: No learning does it, but to be born or regenerated in it.

The Fifth Chapter.

Of the Lamentable and Miserable Fall of Man.

1.  F we will rightly describe the Incarnation of JESUS CHRIST, it is necessary that we should set down the Cause, why God is become Man.

2. It is no small cause, or for nothing; as the Jews and the Turks look upon it; the Christians also are half dumb concerning it: for indeed it must needs be a great Cause, that the unchangeable God has moved himself: Therefore observe this, we will set you down the Cause.

3. Adam was ^{} a Man, and ^{} an Image of God, ^{} a whole similitude according to God; although ^{} God is no Image, he is the Kingdom, the Power, also the Glory and the Eternity; All in All. ^{} Or One. ^{} Note.

4. Yet the Deep without ground longed, or pleased to manifest itself in Similitudes, as indeed there were such Manifestations, which were done from Eternity in the wisdom of God, as in a Virgin-like Figure.

5. Which yet was no Genetrix, but a Looking-Glass of the Deity, and of the Eternity, in the Ground or Byss, and in the Abyss, an Eye of the Glory of God.

6. And according to that Eye, and in that Eye the Thrones of Princes became Created; viz. the Angels, and in the end, Man; he had again the Throne in himself, as being Created out of the Eternal Magia, out of God's Being or Substance, out of the nothing into something, out of the Spirit into Body.

7. And as the Eternal Magia Generated him out of itself, into an Eye of the Wonders and Wisdom of God; so he should and could generate another Man out of himself, after a Magical manner, without dividing or rending of his Body.

8. For he was conceived in God's longing pleasure or delight, and the Desire of God had generated him, and brought him forth; and so he had also that same longing, to his own impregnating of himself.

9. For Venus's Tincture is the Matrix which was Impregnated with the substantiality, viz. with Sulphur in the Fire, which yet in Venus's water comes to Being or Substance.

10. The Fire's Tincture gives Soul; and the Light's Tincture gives Spirit; and the Water, viz. the substantiality, gives Body; and Mercurius, viz. the Center of Nature, gives the Wheel of the Essences, and the great life in the Fire and Water, heavenly and earthly; and the Sal, or Salt, heavenly and earthly, holds it in the Being or substance, for it is the Fiat.

11. For as Man has the Outward Constellation or Astrum in him, which is his Wheel of the outward world's Essences and Cause of the Mind; so also he has the Inward Constellation or Astrum of the Center of the fiery Essences; as also, in the second Principle, he has the Light Flaming Divine Essences.

12. He had the whole Magia of the Being of all Beings, or Substance of all Substances, in him; it was the possibility in him, he could generate magically, for he loved himself and desired his likeness again out of his Center; as he was Conceived from God's desire, and brought forth by the Genetrix in the Fiat, so should he also have brought forth his Angelical or Human Host.

13. But whether they should all have been generated out of One, viz. out of that one Princely Throne, or successively all one out of another, is not needful to be known, for the limit is broken : we have enough in the Knowledge, in that we know what we are, and what our Kingdom is.

14. Indeed I find in the Deep in the Center, that one should have proceeded out of the other : for the Heavenly Center has its Minutes, as well as the Earthly, which always strike ; where the wheel with all the Three Principles always goes, and always one wonder opens itself after another.

15. Thus was Man's Image also found and contrived, wherein the wonders lie without number : they should be opened by the Human Host.

16. And it is evident, in Time, one Greater Wonder is opened in one than in another ; all according to the Heavenly and Earthly Birth, and wonderful Variation or Alteration : as is done also at this very day ; that in One more Art and Understanding of the Wonders lie, than in another.

17. Therefore I conclude, that one man should have been generated and proceeded from another ; for the sake of the Great Wonders, and for the pleasure, delight, and joy of Man, wherein a Man would have brought forth his like.

18. Thus should the Human Generations have stood in the Generating, till God had set the Third Principle of this World again in its own Ether.

19. For it is a Globe with Beginning and End, for the beginning reaches to the end, that the last may pass into the first ; thus all is finished and entire.

20. And then will the Middle again be cleared, and go again into that which it was before the Times of this world, even all but the Wonders, which continue in God's wisdom in the great Magia, standing as a shadow of this World.

21. Now seeing Adam was so Glorious an Image ; and moreover stood in the stead and place of extruded Lucifer ; the Devil would not allow or afford him that, but Envyed it vehemently, and set his Vizard and Imagination always before Adam : he slipt also with his Imagination into the Earthliness of the fruit, and imagined or represented before Adam, as if Great Glory did stick in his enkindled Earthliness.

22. Though indeed Adam did not know him, for he came not in his own Form, but the Form of the Serpent, as in the form of a Sumptuous Beautiful Cunning Beast, and managed his Apish Sport like a Fowler, who deceives the Fowls, and so catches them.

23. So did he also, he infected the Earthly Kingdom with his disease and venom of Pride, and half killed it, as is to be seen in Earth and Stones, which though so very much diseased, venomed, and full of vanity, yet would very ^v sain be loosed from the vanity.

24. And when ^{22.} it found that Adam was a Child of God, and had the Glory and the Power, then it imagined or longed vehemently after Adam, together with the Kindled Anger of God, that also imagined or longed after Adam, to delight itself in this living Image.

25. All drew Adam, and would have him ; the Kingdom of Heaven would have him, for he was created for it.

26. Also the Earthly Kingdom would have him, for it had one Part in him ; it would be his Lord, seeing he was but a Creature.

27. Also the fierce wrath set open its Jaws, and would be creaturely and substantial, to satiate its great fierce hunger.

28. And thus stood Adam in the Trial or Proba for forty Days, so long as Christ was tempted in the Wilderness, and Israel on Mount Sinai, when God gave them the Law, to see whether it was possible, that this people could, in the Father's source or quality in the Law, stand before God.

29. And whether Man could have continued in Obedience, so as to have set his Imagination ^a upon God, so that God should not have needed to become Man ; for which cause God did such wonders in Egypt, that Man might see that there is a God, and so love and fear him.

^a Or into ;
that is, imagine or think like God.

30. But the Devil was a liar and deceiver, and seduced Israel, so that they made a Calf, and worshipped it for God; now seeing it was not possible for Israel to stand, therefore Moses came from the Mountain with the Tables upon which the Law was written, and broke them, and slew the worshippers of the Calf.

31. So also must not Moses bring this People into the promised Land, it could not be; JOSHUA, and lastly JESUS must do it, who stood in the Temptation before the Devil and the Anger of God, who overcame the Anger, and broke Death in pieces, as Moses did the Tables of the Law.

32. The first Adam now could not stand, though the Kingdom of God stood before his Eyes, and he in Paradise; yet God's Anger was so very much inflamed, that it drew Adam; for he was too much kindled in the earth, through the Devil's Imagination and strong willing.

33. Now says Reason, had the Devil so great Might? yes, dear Man: Man had it also, he can throw down Mountains, if he enters strongly with his Imagination.

34. The Devil was also out of the great Magia of God, and a Prince or King of this Throne, and entered into the strongest Might of the Fire, in a will and intention to be a Lord over all the Host of Heaven.

35. Thus the Magia became kindled, and the Great Turba generated, that had wrestled with Adam, to try, whether he would be strong enough to possess the Devil's Kingdom, and to rule in the same with other Sources or Qualities.

36. This Adam's rational Spirit did not understand, but the Magic Essences strove against one another, whence the whole Lust and the Will did exist, till Adam began and imagined after the Earthliness, and would have earthly fruit.

37. There all was done: then his Noble Image, which should eat only of the word of the Lord, became infected and obscured.

38. And so then instantly grow the Earthly Tree of Temptation; for Adam had desired it, and given way for it.

39. Then Adam must be tempted, to try whether he could stand, for the stern Commandment came from God.

40. And God said: Thou shalt Eat of every Tree in Paradise, but of the Tree of knowledge of Good and Evil thou shalt not eat: for the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the Death; that is, die to the Kingdom of Heaven, and become Earthly.

41. And Adam knew the Commandment well, and also did not eat thereof; but he imagined thereinto, and was captivated in his Imagination, also quite powerless, and faint and weak, till he was overcome; then he fell down and slept.

42. Thus he fell home to the Magia, and his Glory was at an End; for the sleep signifies Death and a being overcome; for the Earthly kingdom had overcome him, it would rule over him.

43. The Kingdom of the Stars would have Adam, and bring forth its Wonders by him, for there was no other Creature so highly graduated and dignified as Man, which could attain the Kingdom of the Stars.

44. Therefore Adam was drawn, and rightly tempted, to try whether he could be a Lord and King over the Stars and Elements.

45. The Devil was busy, he supposed he should overthrow Man, and bring him into his power, whereby this Throne would at last remain to be his Kingdom.

46. For he knew well, that if Man should go forth from God's will, that he would be Earthly; and he knew also well, that the Abyss of Hell stood in the Earthly Kingdom, and therefore he was now so busy.

47. For if Adam had generated Magically, then he had continued in Paradise upon Earth, and that the Devil did not like, he was not able to endure that, it did not relish with him in his kingdom; for it did not smell like brimstone and fire, but like Love and Sweetness : Then thought the Devil, if thou Eatest not of that Plant, then I myself shall not continue a fiery Lord.

48. Thus the Fall of Adam stuck wholly in the Earthly Essence, and lost the heavenly Essence, out of which the divine Love flows, and he attained the earthly Essence, out of which wrath, malice, poison, venom, sickness, and misery flow ; and lost the Heavenly Eyes.

49. Also, he could no more eat after a Paradisical Manner, but he imagined after the forbidden fruit, wherein Evil and Good were mixed, as at this day all fruits on Earth are mixed.

50. Thus the four Elements became stirring and qualifying, or working in him ; for his will with its Imagination took the Earthly Kingdom in the Soul's fire for a Lodging.

51. Thus he went away from the Spirit of God into the Spirit of the Stars and Elements that received him, and rejoiced itself in him, for it was now living and mighty in him ; before it must be in subjection and servitude, but now it got the Dominion.

52. There the Devil made merry and derided God ; but he knew not what lay behind ; he knew not at all of the Crusher of the Serpent, who should take away his Throne, and break his Kingdom in pieces.

53. Thus Adam sunk down into sleep in the Magia, for God saw that he could not stand ; therefore he said ;

• Gen. 2. 18. 54. ^b It is not Good that this Man is alone, we will make a help for him, that may be with him, through whom he may propagate and multiply.

55. For he saw the Fall, and came to Help him, in another way ; for he would not that his Image should perish.

Reason's Objection.

56. Reason says : First, Why did God suffer the Tree to grow, by which Adam was tempted ? therefore sure it must needs be his Will that Adam should be tempted.

57. Secondly : Thus will Reason also impute it to God's will, and supposes that God willed that Adam should Fall ; thirdly, that God wills to have some Men to be in Heaven, and some to be in Hell, else he could have hindered the Evil, and have kept Adam, so that he had continued Good and in Paradise.

58. Thus also the present World judges ; for it says, if God had not made Evil, nothing had been Evil ; seeing all has proceeded from him, and he alone is the Creator, who has made all, and so he has made Evil and Good, else it would not be so ; this will reason strictly maintain.

59. Also, it thinks, if that had not been which the Devil and Man have looked upon and gazed at, and are become Evil, then the Devil had continued an Angel, and Man in Paradise.

Answer.

60. Yes, dear Reason, now thou hast hit the white and the mark right ; thou canst not fail, if thou art not blind.

61. Hearken ! Why dost thou not say to the Light, Why sufferest thou the Fire to be ? How pleasant wouldst thou be, if thou didst not dwell in the Fire ? I would pitch my Tent with thee, but thou dwellest in the Fire, and so I cannot.

62. Say now to the Light, go out from the Fire, and then thou wilt be good and pleasant : and if the Light follows your direction, you will find a great Treasure : O how would you rejoice, if you could dwell in the Light, and the Fire not burn you.

63. Thus far goes Reason; but look upon it right, with Magic Eyes, understand with Divine, and also with Natural Eyes; then this shall be shown you, unless you are altogether Blind and Dead.

64. Behold I offer it to your understanding, in a similitude: seeing Reason is ^{c d} foolishness, and understands Nothing of the Spirit of God, I will so set it down, as if I had power, and were able to take away the Light from the Fire, which yet cannot be, and see what would follow upon it.

65. Behold, if I take away the Light from the Fire; then, First, the Light would lose its ^c Essence, out of which it shines. Secondly, it would lose its Life, and be impotent. Thirdly, it would be captivated by the Darkness, and overpowered, and be extinguished in itself, and become nothing; for it is the Eternal Liberty, and an Abyss; while it shines, it is good; and when it extinguishes, it is nothing.

66. Now behold further; what would remain of the Fire, if I should take away the Light and Lustre from the Fire? Nothing but a dry hunger and a darkness; it loses the Essence, and source or quality, it hungers, and yet is nothing; the Sulphur which it had is a Death; it consumes itself while there is any Essence left; and when there is no more, it becomes Nothing, an Abyss, wherein there are not the least footsteps, or remainder of any thing.

67. Now, dear seeking Mind, conceive of it but thus; God is the Eternal Light; his power, and source or quality, dwells in the Light; the Light causes Meekness, and out of the Meekness, comes Being or Substance; that Being or Substance is God's Being or Substance, and the Source or Quality of the Light is the Spirit of God, which there is the ^e understanding; there is no other God than this: in the Light is the Power, and the Power is the Kingdom.

68. But now the Light and the Power have only a Love-will; it desires not Evil; indeed it desires Being or Substance, but from or out of its own Essence: understand out of the love and sweetness, for that is conformable to the Light.

69. But yet the Light rises from the Fire, and without the fire it would be Nothing; without that, it would have no Essence: the Fire makes Life and Mobility, and is Nature. Yet it has another will than the Light, for it is covetous, and wills only to consume, it takes and receives only, and climbs up aloft in Pride.

70. The Light receives not, but gives, that the Fire may be preserved; the source or quality of the Fire is fierce wrath; its Essences are Bitter, its Sting is envenomed and unpleasant.

71. It is an Enmity in itself, it consumes itself, and if the Light did not come to help it, it would devour itself, so that out of it would be Nothing: Dear seeking Mind, consider of this, and thou wilt soon come to the Limit to Rest.

72. God is from Eternity, the Power and the Light, and he is called God according to the Light, and according to the Power of the Light, according to the Spirit of the Light.

73. Not according to the Fire-spirit, for that is called his fierce wrath, his anger, and is not called God, but the consuming fire of the Might and Strength of God.

74. The Fire is called Nature; the Light is not called Nature: it has indeed the fire's property; but changes it out of fierce wrath into Love, out of devouring consuming, into generating, out of enmity and hatred, and bitter woe and torment, into meek well doing, pleasant amiable desiring, and a perpetual satisfying and fulfilling.

75. For the Love-desire draws the Meekness of the Light into itself, and is an impregnated Virgin, viz. with the Wit, Ingenuity, or Knowledge and Wisdom of the power of the Deity.

76. Thus it is highly known to Us what God and Nature is, as also the ^g Byss and Abyss, also the deep of Eternity; thus we apprehend, that the Eternal Fire is Magical, and is generated in the desiring Will, as is mentioned in the Second and Third Book.

^c A foolish Virgin.

^d 1 Cor. 2. 14.

^e Or root.

^f Original.

^g Or the Ground.

77. Now seeing the Eternal Abyss is Magical, therefore that is Magical also, whatsoever is generated out of the Eternal; for out of the Desiring, all things are come to be: Heaven and Earth are Magical, and the Mind with the Senses or Thoughts are Magical, if we will but once know or understand ourselves.

78. Now what can the Light do, if the Fire lays hold of somewhat and devours it, seeing the Thing that is apprehended by the Fire is also Magical.

79. Seeing then it has a Life, and the Power and Understanding of the Light, why does it then run into the Fire?

80. The Devil was indeed an Angel, and Adam an Image of God; they had both the Fire and the Light, as also divine Wit, Ingenuity, or Understanding in them: Why did the Devil imagine according to the Fire, and Adam according to the Earth? They were Free.

81. The Light and Power drew not the Devil into the Fire, but the fierce wrath of Nature; Why did the Spirit assent to be willing?

82. Whatsoever the Magia makes itself, that it has; the Devil made himself Hell, and that he has; and Adam made himself Earth, and that he is.

83. God is no Creature, also no Maker, but a Spirit and an Opener. When the Creation was, we are to conceive and apprehend of it thus.

84. The Fire and Light had together at once awakened themselves in the pleasure, delight and longing, and desired a Looking-Glass or Image according to the Eternity.

85. Moreover we have it in true knowledge, that the fierce wrath, viz. the Nature of the Fire, is no Maker, that has made Nothing out of itself that is Substantial, for besides, that cannot be; but it has made Spirit and Source or Quality.

86. But yet no Creature stands solely and barely in the Essence; if a Creature be, it must be out of a Substance, viz. out of the power of Sulphur; it must subsist in the Spiritual Sal or Salt; and then out of the Fire Source or Quality comes a Mercury, and true Essential Life: Moreover, it must have a Glance or Luster, if it is to have understanding or knowledge in it.

^hOr Substance.

87. Thus we know, that all Creatures stand in Spiritual Sulphur, Mercurius, and Sal; and must not be only Spirit, but it must be ^h Sulphur; wherein the Fiat stands, viz. the four Matrix to the Center of Nature, wherein the Spirit is preserved.

88. That is, it must be Substance; for where there is no Substance, there is also no Creating; whereas yet a Creaturely Spirit is no palpable Substance, but it must draw in Substance into itself through its Imagination, else it would not subsist.

89. So then if the Devil drew fierce Wrathfulness into him, and Man Earthliness, what could the Love of the Substantiality of God do to that? The Devil had indeed the Love and Meekness of God, with the divine Substance set before him, and offered to him, as also it was to Man; who will blame God now?

90. But the fierce wrathful Essence was too strong, so that it overcame the Love-Essence; what can God do to that? if a good branch is planted and perishes, what can the Earth do to that? it gives thereto Sap and Virtue, why does not the Branch draw the same to it?

91. Thou wilt say, its Essences are too weak; but what can the Earth do to that, and he also, who hath planted that branch? His will is to produce a good Tree for his pleasure and delight, and would eat of its fruit; but if he knew that the branch would perish, he would never plant it.

92. Thus we are to apprehend, that the Angels are created, not as one that sets a Tree, but with the Moving of God, with both the Principles, as Light and Darkness; in which the Fire lay hidden; yet the Fire did not burn in the Creating and in the Moving, as yet at this day it does not burn, for it has a principle of its own.

93. Why did Lucifer kindle That? The will existed out of his Creature, and not without or beyond him; he would be a Lord over Fire and Light, he would extinguish the Light, and condemn the Meekness, and would be a Fire Lord.

94. And when he despised the Light, and his Birth in Meekness, then he was justly thrust out: thus he lost Fire and Light, and must dwell in the Abyss in the darkness; if he will have fire, he must strike it up for himself, and kindle it with his ^l Malice or Malignity, in the Imagination.

^l Or Evil.

95. Which yet does not burn rightly to him, but only in the essential fierce wrathful source or quality, as the four forms in the Center of Nature produce in themselves:

96. Viz. Astringent, hard, rough and cold, is one form; bitter, stinging, enmititious, is the second form in the Center; Anguish, Woe, and Tormenting source or quality, is the third; and with the Anguish, as in the stirring and Life, he strikes up the fire, in the hard astringency, between the hard and bitter sting, so that it appears like Lightening, that is the fourth Form.

97. Now if there be no meekness, or substance of Meekness, then it gives no Light, but only a Flash; for the Anguish wills to have the Liberty, but it is too sharp, and gets it only as a Flash, that is, Fire, and yet has no Stability or Ground.

98. Thus the Devil must dwell in the Darkness, and has only the fierce wrathful Flash in him, also the whole form or Condition in his dwelling, is only a fierce wrathful Flash; ^k as if it did continually Thunder and Lighten: Thus the Hellish property sets

^k As if it sent forth Thunderbolts.

99. Thus we are to understand also in a Similitude, concerning the Tree of Temptation, which Adam stirred up by his Imagination; he desired, and so the Matrix of Nature set that before him which he desired.

100. But God did forbid him it, and commanded that he should not touch it; God would not have him do it; but the earthly Matrix would have Adam; for it knew in Adam the divine Power.

101. And seeing it was by the Devil's Kindling become earthly, but not quite dead, therefore it ^l groaned after that which it was before, viz. after the Liberty; to be freed ¹ Rom 8. 20. from the vanity; and in Adam was the Liberty; therefore it drew Adam so, that he ²² Imagined.

102. And thus Adam Lusted against the Command and Will of God, this is as Paul saith; ^m The Flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the Flesh. ^m Gal. 5. 17.

103. Adam's flesh was half Earthly and half Heavenly; thus has Adam's Spirit also by the Imagination brought a Power into the Earth, and so the Matrix of Nature gave him what he would have.

104. He must be Tempted, to try whether he would stand an Angel in the stead of Lucifer; and therefore God Created him not barely an Angel, so that if he should fall and not stand, he might help him.

105. So that he might not perish in the fierce wrath, as Lucifer did, therefore he was Created out of Matter, and his Spirit was introduced into the Matter, viz. into a Sulphur of water and fire, that God might again generate from out of it a New Life unto him, as a fair pleasant smelling blossom springs out of the Earth.

106. Thus also was the purpose of God, seeing he knew that he would not stand; concerning which Paul also saith; ⁿ We were foreseen or elected in Christ Jesus, before the ⁿ Eph. 1. 4, 5. foundation of the world was laid:

107. That is, when Lucifer fell, then was not the foundation of this world yet laid, and yet then was Man clearly foreseen in the wisdom of God.

108. But seeing he should be made out of Three Principles, there was imminent danger in respect of the kindled Sulphur of the Matter; and though indeed he was Created above the Earth, yet he was extracted out of the Sulphur of the Earthly Matrix, as a fair blossom out of the Earth, and there was plainly danger.

109. And therein had the amiable blessed saving Name JESUS together co-imagined itself as a Saviour and Regenerator; for MAN is the greatest Arcanum or secret Mystery that God Ever wrought.

110. He has the Figure, and is the Similitude, showing how the Deity has generated itself from Eternity, out of the fierce wrath, out of the Fire, by the sinking through Death into another Principle, of another Source or Quality.

111. For thus is he also generated out of Death again, and grows out of Death again into another Principle, of another source or quality, and virtue or power; wherein he is quite free from the Earthliness.

112. And it is very good, that we are with the Earthly part fallen home to the Earth, inasmuch as we also retain the divine part.

* Note.

113. For so we are wholly pure, and come wholly * perfect, without any lust, suggestion, or infection of the Devil, into the Kingdom of God again; and are a much greater Arcanum or secret Mystery than the Angels.

114. We shall also, as to the heavenly Substantiality, excel them, for they are flames of fire, thoroughly illustrated with the Light, but we attain the Great source or quality of the Meekness and Love, which flows forth in God's holy Substantiality.

115. Therefore they do very wrongfully and falsely who say, God wills not to have all Men in Heaven * He wills that all should be saved or helped: the fault is in Man himself, that he will not suffer himself to be saved or helped.

† Propensity or Complexion.

116. And although many are of an Evil † inclination, that proceeds not from God, but from the Mother of Nature; if thou layest the blame on God, thou liest; God's Spirit withdraws itself from no Man.

117. Cast away your evil or wickedness, and enter into the Meekness; press into the Truth, into Love, and yield thyself up to God, and so thou wilt be saved or helped; for therefore is JESUS born, in that he wills to save or help.

118. Thou wilt say, I am kept back, that I cannot: yes, indeed that is right; thou willest to have it so; the Devil also would have it so.

‡ Or Soldier.

119. Art thou a ‡ Champion? why dost thou not strive or fight against the Evil? but if thou strivest or fightest against the Good, thou art an Enemy of God: dost thou suppose that God will set an Angel's Crown upon the Devil?

120. Art thou an Enemy? then thou art no friend; if thou wilt be a friend, then forsake thy enmity and hatred, and go to the Father; and so thou art a Son.

121. Therefore whosoever lays the blame on God, is a liar and a murderer, as well as the Devil.

§ Of an Evil Complexion.

122. Art thou the Maker of thine own self? Why dost thou make thyself Evil? and though indeed thou art † Evil Matter, yet God has bestowed his heart and spirit upon thee; take that to you in your making, and you make yourself Good.

123. But if thou takest Covetousness and High-mindedness, as also Voluptuousness and Pleasure of the Earthly Life; what should God do with that? should God now sit in thy scornful high mind? O no! that is not his source or quality.

124. But if thou sayest, I am of an Evil source or quality, and cannot, I am kept back.

125. Very well: Let the Evil source or quality be as it is; but go thou with thy will-spirit into God's love-spirit, and give up thyself into his mercy: thou wilt once well be freed from the Evil source or quality.

126. The Evil source or quality is out of or from the Earth; if the Earth gets the Body, then it may take away its Evil, but thou art and remainest to be one Spirit with, and in the will of God, in his Love.

127. Let the Evil Adam be gone, there will a good and new one Sprout forth out of the Old, as a fair blossom springs out of the stinking Dung; only have a care thou retainest the Spirit in God.

128. Con-

128. Concerning the Evil Body, which sticks full of Evil Affections, there is not much to be done; if it is inclined to Evil, do it the less good; give it no occasion to wantonness.

129. To keep it in subjection, is a good Remedy; to be full and frolick, is at length to make the Ass entirely to wallow in the Mire, where it defiles itself sufficiently like a Swine.

130. To be sober, and to lead a Temperate life, is a Good purgation for the Evil Ass; not to give it that it lusteth after, to let it fast often, so that it may not hinder Prayer, that is good for it; it is not willing, but the understanding must be Lord; for it bears God's Image.

131. This ^f Latin does not relish well to the Rational World, in the Lust of the Flesh; but seeing that relishes it not, but draws into the place thereof mere vain earthly Voluptuousness and Pleasure, and swallows them into itself, therefore is the Anger stirring in them; that draws them continually with Adam out of Paradise, and with Lucifer into the Abyss; and there wilt thou swallow and devour to the full, what thou hast here willingly drawn into thyself.

^f Doctrine or Instruction.

132. But thou shouldst not lay the blame on God; if thou dost, thou art a Liar, and an Enemy of the Truth; God wills no Evil, also there is no Evil Thought in him: he has only one source or quality, and that is Love and Joy.

133. But his fierce wrath, viz. Nature, has many Sources or Qualities; therefore let every one have a care what he does, every Man is his own God, and his own Devil: that source or quality which he inclines himself, or yields himself up into, that leads and drives him; and he is the Work-master of it.

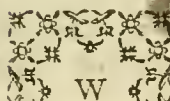

134. It is a great Misery, that Man is so blind, that he cannot know what God is, notwithstanding that [†] he lives in God.

[†] Acts 17. 18.

135. And yet there are Men that forbid such a thing, and say, that Man should not search what God is, and yet will be Teachers of and for God: verily such are even Teachers of and for the Devil, that he may not be known.

The Sixth Chapter.

Of Adam's Sleep: How God made a Woman out of him; and how he became quite Earthly; also how God by the Curse has withdrawn Paradise from him.

1. HEN Man became weary and tired, he fell into a sleep, viz. into the Magia; it was with him as if he were not in this world; for all his Senses or Thoughts ceased, the wheel of the Essences passed into a Rest.

2. He was as it were Essential, Not Substantial, he was altogether like the Magia; for he knew nothing of his Body; he lay as dead, but was not Dead, but the ^u Spirit stood still.

3. And then the Essences have their Effect, and the Spirit of the soul only sees or discerns; and there is pourtrayed in the sydereal Spirit, all whatsoever the starry heaven brings forth.

^u The Spirit of the Body.

^a Or is overcome with Gazing.
^r Qualify or operate.

4. And he stood Magically in the Mind, as a Looking-Glass, on which the Spirit of this world ^a Gazes; and conveys whatsoever it sees in the Looking-Glass into the Essences; and the Essences ^r flow therein, as if they did perform the work in the Spirit, and pourtray it in the Spirit: which are Dreams and Representations, or Figures.

5. Thus we are to know, that when the Earthliness wrestled with Adam, and that he imagined therein, he became instantly infected thereby, and in his Mind became dark and stern.

6. For the Earthliness began to qualify or operate like water that begins to seeth by the fire: the source or quality of the Stars became stirring, and they were now Lord of the Body.

^a Gen. 2. 21.

7. And now Moses saith very right, ^a God suffered a Deep sleep to fall upon him; that is, his Will-spirit Imagined after Earthliness, God let him fall down; for he brought with the Imagination earthliness into the heavenly Substantiality, and that the Spirit of God, which is a Spirit of Light, would not have.

8. For Adam's Spirit was a Creature, and proceeded forth out of God's Love-spirit; and therefore indeed it did not willingly leave him; but the Earthliness had already captivated him.

9. And when that left him, then he sunk down in impotency, and fell home to the Third Principle, viz. to the Stars and the Four Elements; thus he laid in the Earthly Magia, and was not yet wholly Earthly.

10. He laid in the Mystery, between the Kingdom of God and of this world, where both the Fiats, viz. the divine and the earthly, were stirring in him; and now the Two Kingdoms, viz. of God and of Hell, were first in strife about Man.

^a Or imaged.
^b Matt. 12. 40.

11. And so now, if the dear Name JESUS had not been ^a incorporated in Adam even before his Creation, as in the substantiality of God, wherein the Virgin of Wisdom stood, wherein Adam was created, he would indeed have slept still, and have been in the Earthly Death.

12. And this is the cause, why the Second Adam ^b Christ must rest till the third Day in the Earth, in the first sleep of Adam; and awaken or raise up again the First Adam out of the Earthliness.

13. For Christ had also a soul and spirit out of Adam, and the precious dear word of the Deity, together with God's Spirit, awakened and raised up again, in Christ's flesh, the dead substantiality of the Sulphur, viz. the Body, which in Adam was dead; and put it again into the power of the Majesty of God, and therewith, US all.

14. All those which with their Faith and Imagination, in Christ's flesh and blood, in his Death and Rest, go into the Earth; they sprout all, with their Spirit and Will, forth in the divine substantiality, and are a fair Blossom in the Majesty of God.

15. And God, the Eternal word and power, will at the last Day awake and raise up in himself, with his spirit, the dead Body, which with Adam is fallen home to the Earth.

16. For Christ's Soul and Flesh, which is also our Soul and Flesh; understand it right; that part which Adam received out of the divine Substantiality, has God, through and in the Death of Christ, separated from the Earthly source or quality, and has awakened and raised it up, and introduced it into the divine substantiality again, as it was before the Time of the World, and Us in and with him.

17. And we are only wanting in our giving up ourselves into it, in that we suffer the Devil to with-hold us: for our Death is broken, our sleep is become a Life; and that in Christ, and through Christ, in God, and through God, in the Eternity, with our Byss or Ground, in the Abyss, viz. in the Majesty without or beyond the fiery Nature.

18. O Blindness, that we know not ourselves! O thou Noble Man, if thou knewest thyself who thou art, how wouldst thou rejoice? How wouldst thou give the Devil his Errand to be gone, who Day and Night endeavours to make our Mind Earthly, that we should not know our true Native Country, out of which we are gone forth.

19. O miserable Corrupted Reason, if thou knewest but one little spark of thy first Glory, how wouldst thou pant after it!

20. How very amiable and blessed is but the glimpse of the divine substantiality! How sweet is the Water of the Eternal Life out of God's Majesty!

21. O most worthy Light! draw us into thee again, we are now, with Adam, fallen asleep into the Earthly source or quality: O come thou most worthy Word! and awake or raise us up in Christ!

22. O thou most worthy Light! for thou hast indeed appeared, destroy and break now the Devil's Power, which holds us captive; break the power and might of the Antichrist and of Covetousness, and deliver us from the Evil one.

23. Awaken and raise us up, O Lord! for we have long slept in the Devil's Net in the Earthly source or quality; let us yet once see thy salvation.

24. Bring forth the New Jerusalem; It is Day: why should we sleep in the Day?

25. O come, thou Breaker through Death, thou Powerful Saviour and Conqueror, and break in pieces the Devil's Kingdom upon Earth: Give us, poor sick Adam, yet a Cordial draught out of Sion, that we may refresh us, and go into our true native Country.

26. ° Behold all Mountains and Hills, together with the Vallies, are full of the glory of the Lord; it springeth up as a sprout, who will hinder it? Hallelujah. ° The Spirit's answer.

27. Now when Adam was fallen asleep, he lay in the Mystery, as in God's Wonder; what it did with him, that was done.

28. Thus the incorporated or imaged Name JESUS moved the Fiat again in two Forms, viz. in both the Tinctures, of the Fire and of the Water.

29. For this first Image was now fallen home to the Name JESUS in the word of Life; and so now the word of Life was the Second Creator; understand, with the incorporated or imaged Name JESUS, which would become Man, that separated the two Tinctures one from another, viz. the Tincture of the Fire, and of the Light.

30. Yet not wholly in the power, but in the substantiality; for in the substantiality of the Tincture of the Light, was the Sulphur of Venus of the Love, in which Adam should and could impregnate himself: The Fire's Tincture gave soul, and the Light's Tincture gave Spirit:

31. Viz. an Image according to the outward Image, the Fire-Life imagined after the Light-life; and the Light-life after the Fire-life, viz. after the Essential power, out of which the Light shines.

32. This was in Adam, but One, for he was Man and ° Wife.

° Or Woman.

33. And the word of Life took the Tincture of Venus, with the heavenly and earthly Fiat from Adam, also a Rib or Bone out of his Side, as also the half-cross in the Head.

34. Which is the Character of the Holy Trinity, marked by the word of Life, viz. with the severe Name of GOD, ° GOTTES, which bears such a Character. T. ° SoTTes.

35. T, signifying the Cross of Christ, on which he should suffer Death, and new regenerate Adam again, and, in the Name JESUS, introduce him in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Holy Ternary.

36. All these the Fiat took into itself, together with all Essences of the Human property, as also the property of the soul's Fire, but in Venus's Tincture, not according to the might and strength of the Center, and separated it into the whole Form of Man.

37. Thus was the Woman built with all the Members of the feminine properties, as they still have them: For the Spirit of the great World, Spiritus Majoris Mundi, had now the strongest Fiat, and figured the woman in such a form, as it could in possibility.

38. For the Angelical Form was gone: the propagation must now be in a bestial manner.

39. And so also there was given to Adam, seeing he was fallen home to the Earthly Magia, a bestial form and shape of Masculine Members, and Adam's generating was given to the Fiat, and that makes a similitude of him, out of him.

40. If he had continued heavenly Minded, then he had himself generated heavenly; but now the earthly Fiat did it; and his outward body became a Beast; he lost also the heavenly wit or understanding, and the Power of the Omnipotence.

41. Beloved Reader, thus thou art to know, that the Second Adam Christ has not in vain suffered himself to be Crucified, and with a Spear to be pierced in his side, nor has in vain shed his blood; here lies the Key.

42. Adam was broken in the Side by the Rib for the Woman; into that very Side must Longinus's Spear with God's fierce wrath come; for it was come into Adam, and out of Mary's Earthliness, into Christ's Side also.

43. And the Blood of Christ must drown the fierce wrath, and take it away from the First Adam; for the Second Adam had also Heavenly blood, that must drown the Earthly Turba, that the first Adam might be whole again.

44. Let this be told you, ye Children of Men; for it is become known in Ternaria Sancto, in the Holy Ternary; and not in Supposition or Opinion: it concerns both Soul and Body; take heed what you do.

45. Thus now the human propagation began in a bestial manner; for Adam retained the Limbus; and his Eve the Matrix of Venus; for the Tinctures were divided.

Whole.

46. So now each Tincture is an entire or total Magia, viz. a desirous longing, wherein the Center of Nature is generated, and that in the Sulphur.

47. Thus then in the Sulphur, is again the desirous Magia, together with the Tincture; and yet it cannot come to Life, except the Tincture of Fire come into Venus's Tincture; and Venus's Tincture can awaken no Life; it is too weak, so that life cannot be therein.

48. And both the Tinctures desire also the Life; and so the vehement Imagination of Man and Wife begins, so that the one desires to mix with the other.

49. For the power of the Essences wills to be living; and the Tincture drives on that, and desires the same.

50. For the Tincture is from or out of the Eternal Life, and yet is shut in with the Substantiality; and in that respect it wills to live as it has done from Eternity.

51. And therefore the Man longs after the Matrix of the Wife, and the Wife after the Limbus of the Man.

52. The Woman has a Watery Tincture, and the Man a fiery, the Man sows Soul, and the Woman Spirit; and both sow flesh, viz. Sulphur: Therefore is Man and Wife but one Body, and make together a Child.

53. And therefore they ought to continue together, if they once mix, for they are become one Body; and whosoever mixes with another, and separates from the other, he breaks the order or Ordinance of Nature, and such a one is like a Brute Beast, and considers not that in his seed the eternal Tincture lies, wherein the divine Substantiality lies hid; and in that regard will one day, in the wrath-part, be awakened.

54. Also that is a work which will follow after Man in the Shadow, and its Source or Quality will one day be made stirring in the Conscience.

55. For the Tincture in the Seed arises out of Eternity, it is not transitory: It appears in the Spirit's form, and passes into the Magia of Man; out of which it has generated and produced Man.

56. Mark this, ye Whores and Whoremongers, what you work in private Corners many times with great falshood and wickedness, that passes into your Consciences, and becomes to you an evil gnawing Worm.

57. The Tincture is an eternal Substance, and it would fain be in the Love of God, but if ye cast it into a false or impure Vessel in abomination and inordinateness, then it will hardly attain God's Love, and then it passes with its Imagination again into the first Place, viz. into you.

58. If it is come to be false in a false Vessel, so that it cannot rest, then it will gnaw you indeed, and also pass into the hellish Abyss in the Conscience.

59. It is no Fiction or jesting Matter; be not so bestial; for a Beast has its Tincture merely from this world, but you not so, ye have it out of the Eternity, and that which is Eternal dies not.

60. Though indeed you destroy the Sulphur, yet the Will-spirit in the Sulphur, with the Noble Tincture, passes into the Mystery, and each Mystery takes that which is its own, and that Mystery at the last Day, when the Spirit of God will move itself in all the Three Principles, will be manifested, and there you will see your fair Works.

^f Fine, or goodly.

61. Thus the great Mercy of God over all the generations of Mankind, is highly known to us, that God would help Man thus: else if God had desired the bestial property, he would at the same instant have created a Man and a Woman; he would not have made one alone with both the Tinctures.

62. But God knew well the Fall of Man, as also the Treachery of the Devil, which thus with or by Eve was brought to derision: The Devil supposed thus when Adam fell down into a Sleep: Now I am Lord and Prince upon Earth, but the seed of the Woman bindered that.

63. We are to understand the awakening of Adam out of his sleep: He slept in the Heavenly World, and awaked to the Earthly World, the Spirit of the Great World awakened and raised him up.

64. Then he saw the Woman, and knew her, ^a that she was his Flesh and his Bone, for ^b Gen. 2. 23, the Virgin of the Wisdom of God was yet in him; and he looked upon her, and imagined into her, for she had gotten his Matrix, as also the Tincture of Venus; and so instantly the one Tincture received the other by the Imagination; therefore Adam took her to him, and said, ^c Man shall call her Woman, because she is taken out of Man. ^d Gen. 2. 23.

65. Also Eve is known to be no pure immaculate Virgin, as also all her Daughters. The Turba has destroyed the Virginity, and made the pure Love Earthly: The Earthly Imagination destroys the right Virginity.

66. For God's Wisdom is a pure Virgin, in which Christ was conceived, and in a right Virgin-like Vessel became Man, as hereafter will follow.

67. Thus also could not the Earthly Virgin continue in Paradise; though they were yet in Paradise; also they had both of them the Paradisical Source or Quality, but mixed with Earthly longing.

68. ^e They were naked, and had the bestial Members for propagation, and knew it ^f Gen. 2. 25. not, also they were not ashamed, for the Spirit of the Great World had not yet the dominion over them till they did eat the Earthly fruit, and then ^g their eyes were opened; for ^h Gen. 3. 7. the Heavenly Virgin of God's wisdom departed from them, and then they first felt the Kingdom of the Stars and the Elements.

69. When the Spirit of God withdrew, then the Earthly Spirit, with the fierce wrathful source or quality, attracted in them, and there the Devil got an entrance and infected them, and brought them into the fierce Wrath, and evil Malice, or Malignity; as it is still at this day.

70. For the wrath of God out of the eternal Nature, which the Devil has kindled and awakened, sticks in the Earthly Center: Also, no life can be generated, unless the Center be awakened, for the Principle stands in the Fire, wherein all Life standeth; and the Center of Nature has fierce wrathfulness in its forms.

71. Therefore it is this only that will do it: Stoop and submit thyself, and enter into Meekness, and let thy Life be right and just.

72. For the Life is Fire, and the Life's Image, which is the similitude of God, that is in the Light, viz. in the Love-fire.

73. But the Love-fire does not afford or give the Center of Nature, and therefore the Devil always supposes that he is a greater Lord than the Creatures in the Love-fire.

74. Indeed he is more strong or stern, but he lives in the darkness, and devours the strong or stern Substantiality into himself, and therefore also he is an Enemy to the Love.

75. And we are to know, that the Devil is in fault, and the Cause, that Man was created in his stead; also we are to know, that he is guilty of Man's Fall.

76. Although Adam and his Eve (when God had divided Adam) could not stand; they were indeed in Paradise, and should have eaten Paradisical fruit, after an Angelical manner; but they have not eaten of it, for the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil was more acceptable to them.

77. And Eve, as soon as she was made, imagined into, or longed after the Tree of Temptation: And though Adam did open the Commandment, and made it known to her, yet the Lusting or Longing was only after the Tree.

78. For the Earthly Essences were not yet manifested in Adam and Eve, they were yet captivated, *therefore*¹ they drove so on into the Lust, for they would needs be Lord.

79. And this came to pass through the Infection of the Devil, through his ascendent false or wicked Imagination; and therefore he laid himself in the form of a Serpent at the ^m Gen. 3. 5. 6.

Tree, and praised the fruit to Eve^m, that it maketh wise or cunning.

80. Yes, wise and cunning indeed, to know evil and good, misery enough, for a Twofold source or quality to rule in one only Creature: The not knowing it were better.

ⁿ Gen. 3. 5. 6.

81. He tells them Lies and Truths togetherⁿ, they shall be cunning or wise, and their Eyes shall be opened.

82. Yes, sufficiently, they quickly saw, that with the earthly source or quality they were fallen home to the Spirit of this world, so that they were naked, and knew their earthly Members; they came to have entrails in the Body, and a stinking^o Sack of Worms, full of Woe and Misery, in Anguish and Toil, as is mentioned in the Book of the Three Principles; and so we see now before our eyes what manner of Paradisical Angels we are, and how we must generate and^p nourish ourselves in Anxiety, Care, and Misery, which should have been done after another manner.

^o Or Carcase.

^p Or get our living.

83. Thus we sufficiently know Adam's Fall, and why he could not continue in Paradise, and what Paradise was, which is still to this very day, only it bears not Paradisical fruit, and we have not the Paradisical Source or Quality, and Eyes, and so we see it not.

^q Gen. 3. 17.

84. For God hath^q curst the Earth for Man's sake, so that Paradise springs no more through the Earth, for it is become a^r Mystery, and yet is continually there.

^r Locus Beatorum.

85. And into that Mystery the souls of the Saints depart, when the Earthly body separates itself from the soul.

86. It is in this World, and yet is out of this World; for this World's quality or source touches it not.

87. The whole World would have continued to be Paradise, if Adam had continued in Innocence, but when God pronounced the curse, then Paradise departed.

88. For God's curfing is fleeing: It is a fleeing, not departing away, but going into another Principle, viz. into himself.

89. For the Spirit of God proceeds forth from God into the Substantiality, but when this Substantiality became Earthly, and that the Devil dwelt therein, who was God's Enemy, then the Spirit of God passed into its own Principle, viz. into the Love, and departed out of the Earthliness, and there it stands now presented to Man in the Light of Life.

90. So that whosoever now desires to enter into the Love of God, let him go with his Will-spirit into Paradise; and then Paradise will spring up again into; or in his Will-spirit, and he will receive upon his Image again the heavenly Substantiality, in which the Holy Spirit rules.

91. Let this be a Pearl to you, ye Children of Men, for it is the true Ground; whosoever seeks and finds it, he has meer Joy therein: It is ' the Pearl which lies hid in the field, for which one sold all his goods and bought the Pearl, of which Christ speaketh. ' Matth. 13.
45, 46.

92. Thus also we may know ' the Cherubin which drove Adam and Eve out of Paradise, viz. the stern or strong Angel, which signifies the Cutter off of the Earthly life from Paradise, where Body and Soul must part afunder. ' Gen. 3. 24.

93. It is indeed known to us, that Adam and Eve were driven away out of the place, where the Tree of Temptation stood; for Paradisical fruit stood there; which they should no more see or eat, for the Heavenly belongs not to the Earthly.

94. Also the Beasts were driven out in respect of the evil Tree, for they could not eat of the Paradisical fruit; but of this Tree every beast could eat, for it was earthly.

95. Thus must they leave Paradise, for God had clothed them, through the Spirit of the Great World " with the skins of Beasts, instead of the heavenly Clothing of clarity " Gen. 3. 21. and brightness.

96. And he had pronounced their Sentence, what they should do and suffer in this World, what they should thenceforward eat, and how they should nourish themselves, or x get their living in Care and Misery, till they should return altogether to the Earth from x Gen. 3. 17, 18, 19. whence they were extracted as to one Part.

The Seventh Chapter.

Of the promised Seed of the Woman, and Bruiser of the Serpent.

1.  O W then, Adam and Eve, standing thus as Man and Wife, in Paradise, and having yet the heavenly source or quality and joy, though mixed, the Devil could not endure that, for his Envy was too great.

2. Seeing he had overthrown Adam, and brought down his Angelical form, he looked now upon Eve, viz. the Woman out of Adam, and thought she might conceive Children in Paradise, and remain in Paradise; he would therefore seduce her, that she might eat of the forbidden fruit, and so she would become Earthly, and then he might reach into her heart, and bring his Imagination into her, and so get her into his Kingdom, and continue still Prince in the Third Principle upon Earth.

⁷ Gen. 3. 6. 3. Which he then also did, and persuaded her to the evil fruit, so that ⁷ she laid hold on the Tree, and broke off an Apple, and did eat, and gave also to Adam.

4. Now, when Adam saw that Eve did not instantly fall down and die, he did eat also, for the Lust was in both of them.

² Gen. 3. 24. ¹ Or Circum-
Gizer. 5. This is the Bit-upon which Heaven and Paradise departed, where the ² Cberubin, viz. the ³ Cutter off, with the Naked Sword, came and stood before the Door, and suffered them no more to come into Paradise.

6. His Sword was that of the destroying Angel, which now cutteth Men with heat, cold, sickness, necessity, and death; and at last cuts off the Earthly Life from the Soul.

^b Matth. 27. 7. When this Sword was to be broken in the Death of Christ, then ^b the Earth trembled, and the ^c Sun lost its shining Light, and the Rocks cleft in sunder before the strong

^c Luke 23. 15. ^d Matth. 27. 52. ^e Luke 10. 30. ^f By the word Woman, understand the divided Body. See the Three Principles, Chap. 13. v. 1. ^g Virginal.

Might of God, which thus broke Death in pieces.

8. ^d Thus also the Graves of the Saints opened; and their Bodies went out from Death again, for the Sword was broken, and the Angel, which guarded Paradise, was removed; and the Bodies of the Saints went into Paradise again.

9. But here, when Adam and Eve eat the Earthly fruit, they ^e fell among Murderers, who wounded them and cast them out, and let them lie half dead.

10. Their going forth out of Paradise, is the going from Jerusalem to Jericho, for they went out of Heaven into this evil corrupt World, into the house of Sin.

11. Where instantly, in their Minds, in the Center of Nature, the Wheel of the Senses or Thoughts began to qualify or operate in the Earthly source or quality, where one sense or thought was against, and contrary to the other, where Envy, Pride, Covetousness, Anger, and contrary opposite Will, sufficiently flowed forth on heaps.

12. For the noble Light of Love was extinguished, which makes the fierce wrathful source or quality, amiable, friendly, and meek, in which the Spirit of God works, and the fair Virgin of God's Wisdom rests; they went out from the fair Wisdom.

13. God had created Adam in the chaste Virgin of his Wisdom, but he became, in the presence and stead thereof, an evil Earthly opposite ^f Woman, with which he must live in this bestial form in mere care, anxiety, and necessity.

14. And out of his fair Garden of pleasure which he had in him, there came an opposite Thorny and Thistle Garden; whence yet he somewhat fought the ^g Virgin-like fruit.

15. But it went with him as with a Thief, who has been in a fair Garden to keep it; but is for his Theft cast out from it, and yet would fain eat the fruit of it, but cannot get in, but goes round about the outside, and reaches over with his hand after the fruit, which yet the Gardener snatches out of his hand again, and he must go away lamenting, and cannot satisfy his Lust or Longing.

16. Thus it goes also with him concerning the Woman, when he was in God's Love, and the Woman in him a chaste Virgin, in God's Sweetness and Wisdom; then he did eat of her fruit, and could very well refresh or delight himself with his own Love in the Matrix of Venus.

17. For the Fire-Tincture has a great joyful recreating delight in the Light's Tincture, and that he had in himself, he was Man and Wife.

18. But now he must go round without that Garden, and touch the Tincture of Venus but with one Member, whereas yet the inward Tinctures in the Seeds receive one another, and labour to produce a Life.

19. But the outward Body is not worthy, that it should enjoy the inward joyful qualifying or operation, wherein the soul's Life is sown.

20. The inward Essences only enjoy that; for they are out of the Eternal; but the outward Bestial Ass brings or affords only a bestial Longing or Lust.

21. He knows nothing of the Joy of the Essences, when one Tincture comes into the other, and what is done then, where there is yet somewhat of Paradise; but the Earthly Essence mixes itself suddenly therein, and it is but a joyful Glimpse.

22. Wherein the will to Life becomes generated, which afterwards drives on and impregnates itself with Sulphur, till it may reach the Principle, and strike up fire in the Center, wherein then there is a true Life, and again a Soul is generated.

23. Now when the fair Image thus departed away from God's Love, then it knew itself, that it was come into another Source or Quality: then began fear and terror before the fierce wrath of God, for it began to qualify or operate in them; they looked one upon another and perceived their Bestial form, and ^h that they were Naked.

24. And then sure the Devil danced, and God was derided, for ⁱ they were afraid, and crept behind the Trees, and took leaves from the Fig Trees ^k and wreathed them together, and held them before their shame.

25. For the heavenly Virgin was gone, they knew the fall and were ashamed; that is, the Soul, which is out of the Eternal, was ashamed of the ^l beastliness, as it is at this day, when we are ashamed of our bestial Members.

26. And hence it is, that the Woman Clothed herself with a white ^m covering before her shame: that the Spirit of the Soul, which glances forth at the Eyes, be not disturbed, for it knows the Matrix of Venus, which also as suddenly in the Man or Masculine begins to imagine upon it, or lust after it.

27. Which if the Woman Clothes herself with Black, and Covers her Eyes, is not easily Effected; but only by imagining or lusting.

28. But else instantly both the Tinctures of the Man and Wife catch one the other in the Eyes, where the Spirit glances forth.

29. Now when Adam and Eve stood thus in terror, before the Anger of God, ⁿ God ^o Gen. 3, 9, called Adam, and said, Adam, where art thou? and he said, Here I am: I was afraid, for ^{10.} I am Naked.

30. ^o And he said, Who has told thee that thou art naked? Hast thou not eaten of the Tree, ^o Ver. 11, 12, that I forbid thee? and he said, the Woman gave unto me, and I did Eat.

31. And he said to the Woman, Why didst thou that? she said, The Serpent beguiled me, ^p Verse 13, so that I did Eat.

32. Here we understand the great Love of God, in that God called Adam again, that he should know and seek and find himself, and turn again to God.

33. For Adam had been in God; but he was gone out from the Love out of the Second Principle into the Third.

34. Wherefore God said, Where art thou, Adam? dost thou not see thou art no more in Heaven? He turned his friendly Countenance again to one Part in Adam; understand in that Part, which he had received out of the heavenly substantiality, and glanced upon it again with his Spirit.

35. And he ^q said to the Serpent, the Old Devil; Seeing thou hast done this, cursed art thou. ^q Gen. 3. 14.

36. And to the Creaturely Serpent, which must now be a Creature; for the Devil had turned himself into the Form of a Serpent, therefore must the Serpent also continue; to that he said, Thou shalt go upon thy Belly, and eat Earth.

37. Seeing it had seduced Man, so that he was become Earthly, therefore should also the Devil's Image be Earthly, and devour the fierce wrathful earthly source or quality, viz. Poison; that should now be its source or quality.

^h Gen. 3. 7.ⁱ Verse 8.^k Or braided the Stalks of the Leaves together.^l Or Bestial Kind.^m Or white Apron.ⁿ Gen. 3, 9, ^{10.}^o Ver. 11, 12.^p Verse 13.^q Gen. 3. 14.

38. And here we are to know, that the Devil figured or framed to himself the Serpent's Image from the Constellations and Elements, through his Imagination; for he had great Power, till the Lord wholly cursed him, and set the Dear name JESUS for a Mark, or Limit of Separation; and there his great power was laid.

Gen. 3. 15. 39. For he said to Adam and Eve, ' The Seed of the Woman shall bruise the Serpent's head, and Thou, understand the Serpent, shalt sting him in the heel; that is, in God's fierce wrath thou wilt slay him.

40. But he shall sprout forth out of Death, and Crush thy Head; that is, take away thy power, and overcome the Wrath with the Love.

41. And here, in this place, has the word of the Promise, of the Seed of the Woman, which was the Dear Name IHESUS, with its Character, Imaged itself in the Light of the Life.

IHS

42. And likewise in that Character has Imaged the highly-precious Virgin of God's wisdom, in which Christ, as the destroyer of Death, should become a true Man, and take away the power of Death, and destroy the Devil's sting.

Rev. 19. 15. 43. Which there should ' tread the Winepress of the fierce wrath and anger, and enter into the Anger, viz. into the Center of the Fire, and quench the Fire with his heavenly Blood, and with the water of Meekness out of the fountain of the Heart of God.

44. And know assuredly, that if the Word of the Promise had not Imaged itself in the Light of Life, when Adam and Eve fell into the Earthly source or quality, then would the Spirit of the soul have become a fierce wrathful Devil; and the Body an evil Beast, as indeed it is now; and if the Elementary Water did not allay the insolence of the Fierce wrath; Men would well see, how many a one would be a devouring Devil.

45. Thus now we are to consider and conceive, that the world, before Christ's Incarnation, was saved in this imaged or imprinted Word and Name.

46. Those who have put their will into God, they have received that word of Promise, for the soul was received thereinto.

47. For the whole Law of Moses, concerning the Sacrifices, is throughout nothing else but a Type of the Humanity of Christ, of what Christ in his Humanity did perform by his Sacrifice; that which he did perform with his Blood and with his Love, in drowning the Anger of God, that Moses performed with the Sacrifice with the Blood of Beasts.

48. For the word of the Promise was in the Covenant, and God for the Time represented the figure, and permitted himself to be attoned or reconciled in the Covenant, with or by a Similitude.

49. For the Name Jesus was in the Covenant, and that attoned or reconciled, through Imagination, the anger and fierce wrath of the Father's Nature.

50. The Jews indeed understood not that, but the Covenant understood it well; for the Bestial Man was not worthy to know it, till Christ was born, and then went the sound forth.

51. Which yet, after a short time, was covered again by the Antichrist in Babel; for the Bestial Man of wickedness, malignity, or malice, is not worthy of the most precious Name JESUS.

52. Also it does not belong to the Bestial part, but to the divine part; the Beast must remain in the wild Earth; and at the last Judgment Day be consumed through God's Fire; but the heavenly part shall be introduced into the divine power.

53. Therefore it is an abomination to God, that Man should so pride himself with the Beast.

54. The Beast is not the Image; as the Sacrifice of Moses was not the attonement or reconciliation; but the Covenant of Grace, and the word of Life in the Covenant.

55. The Circumcision of the Jews, that they were to circumcise the Male Children only, contains rightly in itself, as follows:

56. Adam was the one only Man that God created, and in him was God's Image; Eve, his wife, God would not Create, generation was to be out of one only.

57. But seeing he fell, so that God must make him a wife, then came the Covenant and Promise again upon One only; that all should again be regenerated and new born out of one only, viz. out of the Second Adam; not out of the Virgin Mary, but out of Christ the Heavenly Adam.

58. For the First Man's Blood, that is Adam's, which he received out of the Substantiality of God, was to ^a avail; and not the Earthly blood of the Woman, in that Adam was become Earthly, and a Woman must be contrived for him; therefore also was ^a only the Masculine Kind Circumcised. To do the thing.

59. And Christ must take upon him the Masculine Form, though inwardly he stood in a Virgin-like Image, that the purpose of God might stand.

60. For the Man's property, viz. the Fire's, must rule; and the Woman's property, viz. the Light's, must allay his Fire, and bring it into the Meek Image of God.

61. The Woman's blood could not have attoned or pacified the Anger of God; the Man's blood only must do it; for the Woman belongs unto, or to be in, the Man; and in the Kingdom of God is to be a Masculine Virgin, as Adam was; Not a Woman.

62. The Woman comes to be saved in the Covenant of the Man: For the Covenant was made for the Man's, viz. the Masculine Virgin's sake, that it may be reconciled again.

63. Therefore saith Paul ^a, The Woman comes to be saved through bearing of Children; and not only so, but also in the Covenant of the Man, for she is a part of Adam; therefore ^a should every Woman be subject to the Man or Husband, and he should be Lord. 1 Tim. 2. 14, 15.
1 Pet. 3. 1, 5.

64. God gives also to the Man the Virgin-like wisdom; he should govern the Woman, not as a Tyrant, but ^z as his own Life or Body; for she is his Body and his Flesh, an Image of or out of him, his help, and his Rose-Garden, though indeed she be Earthly and weak; yet he must know, that he himself is the cause, and necessary thereto; and he must bear with her, and not give way to his wrath to destroy her. z Eph. 5. 25. 28.

65. Also the Woman must know, that she is to be saved in the Covenant and Blood of the Man, and that she is Adam's and the Man's Rib and Tincture, and the Man's own, belonging to him.

66. She should be Humble: As a Member serves the Body, so should the Woman serve the Man, and love him as her self.

67. Her Love should solely be ^a cast into him, for, so doing, she attains the Heavenly Virgin, together with divine wit, or understanding and Skill, as also the Spirit of the Covenant. a Or injected.

68. But to the single, or unmarried Virgins, and Men without wives, as also to the Widows, it is said, that they have Christ's Covenant for a spouse, therefore should they be Chaste and Humble.

69. For Christ is the Man's Bride, and his chaste Virgin which Adam Lost.

70. And he is also the Bridegroom of the unmarried Virgins and Widows; for his Masculine nature is their Masculine nature, so that thus they every one appear before God as Masculine Virgins.

71. For our Image now becomes generated in Willing and Believing. Now ^b where ^b our Heart and Will is, there is also our Treasure and Image. b Math. 6. 21.

72. Wherefore, beware of Whoredom, and false or wrong Love, for thereby the right Image comes to be disturbed.

73. Whoredom is the Greatest abomination, that Man worketh in himself. Other ^c things ^c go into a Figure without ^d him, the Whore standing in him; for he works or effects ^d Extra.

* Note, ye wanton lecherous unchaste Children of Men. † Heaven.

a false Image, in which the Image or Virgin of God is not known, but a Bestial one.

74. * Let this be said to thee, O Man, there sticks so great Abomination behind it, at which Heaven itself with its Imagination is amazed.

75. † It enters not easily into the Bestial Imagination; whereupon, also, so very Many Beast-Men are Born, as at this Day may be demonstrated.

The Eighth Chapter.

Of the Virgin Mary, and of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

‡ Or Daughter.

1. ANY have attempted to write of the Virgin Mary, and supposed that she was not an Earthly Maid: to them indeed has been presented a Glimpse of the Eternal virginity; but the right Mark they have hitherto failed of.

2. For many have merely supposed, that she was not the Daughter of Joachim and Anna, because Christ is called the Seed of the Woman, and is so too.

§ John 8. 23.

3. Also he himself witnesseth, that he is from above, that he is come from Heaven; and therefore he must sure also be born of a Total heavenly Virgin.

4. But that would little benefit us poor children of Eve, that are become Earthly, and carry our souls in Earthly Vessels; where should our poor souls come, if the word of Eternal Life had not received it into itself?

¶ Gen. 3. 15.

5. If Christ had brought a soul from Heaven, what should then become of our soul, and the Covenant with Adam and Eve, viz. that the Seed of the Woman should Crush the Serpent's Head?

* Eph. 1. 4.

6. If Christ would have come and been born totally from Heaven, he should not have needed to have been born a Man upon Earth, and what then would have become of the Covenant, in which the Name JESUS, or the Promise, did incorporate itself, in the Light of Life, that is, in the Tincture of the soul, instantly in Paradise when Adam fell, yea indeed before Adam was Created? as Paul saith; * We are Elected in Christ, before the foundation of the World was laid.

7. For God, in his wisdom, knew the Fall, therefore the Name JESUS did so instantly incorporate itself into the word of Life, environed with the Virgin of Wisdom, in Adam's Image, with the Cross.

8. For the soul itself is even a Cross-Birth: As when the Soul-Fire kindles itself, then it makes in the flash a Cross; that is, an Eye with a Cross, with Three Principles, with the Character of the Holy Trinity; as in the Third Book or Part, concerning the Threefold Life of Man, is declared, and yet further in the Fourth Part, the forty Questions of the Soul.

9. We are to understand, that Mary, in whom Christ became Man, was truly the Daughter of Joachim and Anna, according to the Outward Flesh, and was extracted out of the Seed of Joachim and Anna, according to the Outward Man.

10. But, according to the will, she was a Daughter of the Covenant of Promise, for she was the Mark, to which it pointed.

11. In her stood the Center in the Covenant; and therefore she was, by the Holy Ghost in the Covenant, highly ¹ blessed among and above all women Ever since Eve; for the [!] Luke 1. 42. Covenant opened itself in her.

12. You must understand it right, according to its high precious worth: The word, together with the Promise, which with the Jews stood in the Type or Prefiguration, as in a Looking-Glass, wherein God the Angry Father Imagined, and thereby quenched his Anger, that moved itself Now after an Essential manner, which from Eternity had not been done before.

13. For, when Gabriel the Prince brought her the Message, that she should be impregnated or with Child, and that she consented thereto, and said, ^m Be it unto me as thou ⁿ Luke 1. 38. hast said, then the Center of the Holy Trinity moved itself, and opened the Covenant; that is, the Eternal Virginity, which Adam lost, became opened in her in the word of Life.

14. For the Virgin of God's Wisdom enviored the word of Life, viz. the Center of the Holy Trinity: thus the Center became moved, and the Heavenly Vulcan struck up the Fire of Love; so that the Principle in the Love-flame became generated.

15. Understand this right: In Mary's Essences, in the Virgin-like Essences, which perished in Adam, out of which he was to generate a Virgin-like Image, according to the Wisdom of God, the divine fire came to be struck up, and the Principle of Love kindled.

16. You are to understand, that in the seed of Mary, when she became impregnate with the Soul-Spirit, that is, with the Tincture of Venus; for in the Tincture of Venus, that is, in the Source or Quality of Love, Adam's first Fire came to be struck up in the word of Life.

17. And in the Child Jesus were both Tinctures perfect, just as in Adam; and the word of Life in the Covenant, understand in the Holy Trinity, was the Center; and the Principle appeared, as in or to the Father's part.

18. Christ became Man in GOD, and also in MARY, in all the THREE Principles; and together therewith also in the EARTHLY world.

19. ⁿ He took the form of a Servant upon him, that he might be able to overcome Death ^a Phil. 2. 7. and the Devil.

20. For he was to be a Prince, in the place or space of this world, in the Angelical Prince-Throne, viz. upon the seat, and in the authority, of the late Angel and Prince Lucifer, over all the Three Principles.

21. Now then, First: If he must be Lord over this outward World, then he must also dwell in the outward World, and have its essence and property.

22. In like manner, Secondly: If he must be God's Son, then he must also be generated out of God.

23. And Thirdly: If he must quench the Father's Anger, then he must of necessity be also in the Father.

24. And Fourthly: If he must be the Son of Man, then he must also of necessity be of Man's Essence and Substance: And Fifthly, must have a human Soul, and a human Body, as we all have.

25. It is known to us, that Mary, his Mother, as also Christ, from or of his Mother, were both of the human Essence, with Body, Soul, and Spirit; and that Christ received a Soul out of Mary's Essence, yet without Masculine Seed.

26. Only the great Secret Arcanum of God was there opened; and the first Man, with his Secret Mystery, which fell into Death, was here generated to Life again; understand, in the Principle of God.

27. For, because of this, the Deity moved itself, and struck up the Fire in the Father's Principle; and so the deadened Sulphur, which died in Adam, became living again.

28. For the word had in itself heavenly Substantiality, and opened itself in the Heavenly Substantiality, in the Virgin-like Image of the Deity; this is the pure chaste Virgin, wherein the Word of Life became Man.

* Luke 1. 42.

29. And so the Outward Mary came to be adorned and * blest with the Highly blest heavenly Virgin, among all Women of this World.

30. In her, that which was dead and shut up of the Humanity became living again; and so she became as highly graduated or dignified as the first Man before the Fall, and became a Mother of the Throne-Prince.

31. This came not out of her ability, but out of God's ability: Unless the Center of God had moved itself in her, she would have been no otherwise than all Eve's daughters.

32. But, in this place, the word of Life had fixed the Mark; as also the Covenant of Promise; and therefore she is the blest among all Women, and above all Eve's Children.

† Luke 1. 34.

33. Not that she is a Goddess, which Men should honour as God; for she is not the Mark; for she said, † How shall that come to pass, since I know not of any Man?

34. But the word of Life, in the Center of the Father, which gave in itself, with the Moving of the Deity, into the Humanity, and opened itself in the Human Essence, that is the Mark, that is the Goal, that we must run to, in the Regeneration.

35. This is a greater wonder then in the first Adam; for the first Adam was created out of Three Principles, and his Spirit was introduced into him through the Spirit of God; and the Heart of God needed not to move itself in an especial manner; for God's Spirit did only move itself out of God's Heart.

36. But now the Center or Heart of God moved itself, which had rested from Eternity, and the Divine Fire was there struck up, and kindled or awakened, as a Man may Express it.

The Dear or Precious Gate.

37. We should rightly understand, the Incarnation of Christ the Son of God, thus: he is not become Man in the Virgin Mary only, so that his Deity, or divine Substantiality, did sit bolted up or fixed therein; No, O Man, it is in another Manner.

‡ Col. 2. 9.

‡ Particle.

38. Let not Reason fool thee; we understand somewhat else: as little as God dwells alone in one only place, but is ‡ the Fineness of all things, so little also has God moved himself in one † Sparkle.

39. For God is not divisible, but Total every where: where he manifests himself, there he is Totally manifest.

§ Extra.

40. Also, he is not measurable; for him is no place found, unless he makes a place for himself in a Creature; yet he is totally near the Creature, † without or beyond the Creature.

41. When the Word moved itself to the opening of Life, then it opened itself in the divine Substantiality in the water of Eternal Life, it entered in and became Sulphur, that is, Flesh and Blood.

42. It made heavenly Tincture, which the Deity closed about and filled, wherein the wisdom of God stands Eternally, together with the divine Magia.

43. Understand it right: The Deity has longed to become Flesh and Blood; and although the pure clear Deity continues Spirit, yet it is become the Spirit and Life of Flesh, and works in the Flesh; so that we may say, when we, with our imagination, enter into God, and wholly give up ourselves unto him, we enter into God's Flesh and Blood, and live in God.

44. For the Word is become Man, and God is the Word.

45. We do not thus take away the Creature of Christ, that he should not be a Creature: we will give you a similitude thereof in the Sun and its Luster; and take it thus:

46. We liken the Sun to the Creature of Christ in a similitude, which is indeed a Body; and we liken the whole Deep of this world, to the Eternal word in the Father.

47. Now we see plainly, that the Sun shines in the whole Deep, and gives it Warmth and Power.

48. But now we cannot say, that in the Deep, without or beyond the Body of the Sun, there is not also the power of the Sun; if that was not there, then would the Deep also not receive the Power and Luster of the Sun; it is only thus, one Power and one Luster receives the other; the Deep with its Luster is hidden.

49. If God would please, the whole deep would be a mere Sun: it were but only to be kindled, that the Water might be swallowed up, and come to be a Spirit; then would the Luster of the Sun shine every where, if the Fire's Center should but kindle, as it is in the Place of the Sun.

50. Know also, that we understand, that the Heart of God hath rested from Eternity; but with the moving and entering into the wisdom, it is become manifest in all Places.

51. Though yet in God there is neither Place nor Mark, but merely in the Creature of Christ, there has the Total holy Trinity manifested itself in a Creature, and so through the Creature through the whole Heaven.

52. He is gone thither, and ' has prepared the place for us, where we shall see his Light, ¹ John 14. 2. and dwell in his wisdom, and eat of his divine Substantiality: * his Substantiality fills * Note. the Heaven and Paradise.

53. Were we not, in the beginning, made out of God's Substantiality? why should we not also stand therein?

54. As the Air and the Water fill this world, and all of us enjoy them; so in the hiddenness is the divine Substantiality, which we enjoy, if with earnest imagining and with the will we give up ourselves into it.

55. And this now is Christ's flesh and blood in the divine power; for the Flesh and Blood of the Creature of Christ stands therein, one Being, one Power, one Spirit, one God, one Fulness, altogether undivided by any place, yet in its own Principle.

56. A swinish man will here say: O how we will devour him! O thou Afs, first come so far, that you may reach him; for thou shalt not devour him with thy Earthly Mouth.

57. He is a Principle Deeper, and yet is ¹ the Outward; He was in the Virgin Mary, and also as to his Birth in this world: and ² will also appear at the last day, in all the Three Principles, before all Men and Devils. ³ Or of the ² Matt. 24. ³ 30.

58. He has truly ¹ taken upon him the Earthly source or quality, but in his Death, when he overcame Death, the divine source swallowed up the Earthly, and took away its Dominion. ¹ Matt. 8. 17.

59. Not in that manner; as if Christ had laid off somewhat, but the outward Source or Quality was overcome, and as it were swallowed up, and in that he now liveth, he liveth in God.

60. Thus was Adam also to be, but stood not; and therefore must the Word be generated and become Man, and give itself up into the Substantiality, that we might receive power to be able to live in God.

61. Thus hath Christ restored or brought back again, what Adam lost, and much more; for the Word is every where become Man.

62. Understand; it is every where opened in the divine Substantiality, wherein our Eternal Humanity consists.

63. For in that Bodily Substance shall we stand in Eternity, wherein the Virgin of God stands.

64. We must put on God's Virgin; for Christ has put it on, he is become Man in the Eternal virgin, and in the Earthly virgin.

65. Though the Earthly was no right Virgin, but the Heavenly divine made it to be a Virgin in the bleffing, that is, in the opening of the Word and Covenant; for that part in Mary, which she inherited from Adam, out of the heavenly Substantiality, which Adam made Earthly, that became blessed.

66. Thus the Earthly part in her only died, the other lives Eternally, and came to be a chaste modest virgin again, not in the Death, but in the Blessing.

67. When God opened himself in her, then she put on the virgin of God, and became a Masculine virgin in the Heavenly part.

68. Thus Christ became born of a right, pure, chaste, heavenly Virgin; for she received in the blessing, the Limbus of God into her Matrix, in her Seed.

69. She received no strange thing, only the Limbus opened itself in her, in God's Power, wherein Adam was dead, that in God's moving became living.

70. And God's Essence in the Word of Life entered in, into her Limbus; wherein the soul's Center became opened, so that Mary became impregnated of a Soul, and also of a Spirit, both heavenly and earthly.

71. And this was a Right Image of God, a Similitude according to, and in the Holy Trinity, out of all the Three Principles.

The Ninth Chapter.

Of Mary's Virginitie, what she was before the Blessing, and what she came to be in the Blessing.

1.  T is highly necessary for Us poor Children of Eve to know this for, our eternal salvation lies therein; it is the Gate of Immanuel, and the whole Christian Faith standeth therein; and it is also the Gate of the Greatest Secret Arcanum.
2. For herein lies inclosed the Secrecy of Man, in that he is the Similitude and Image of God; for our whole Religion consists in Three Parts, which we urge and teach.

3. As First, concerning the Creation; what Essence, Substance and Property Man is, whether he be Eternal, or not Eternal, and how that is possible; what properly the human Original is, from which he proceeded in the Beginning.

4. Secondly, Seeing there is so much spoken and taught concerning his Fall, and that we see, that we are come to be Mortal, because of the Fall, moreover, subjected to Evil, and to the fierce wrathful source; what then properly his Fall hath been.

5. Thirdly, Seeing God will receive us to Grace again; and for whose sake also he hath given the Law and Teaching, also confirmed them with Deeds of Wonder or Miracles; what therefore properly, the new Regeneration is.

6. And as we see that we must die; in what Power and Spirit we can be new regenerated again, and rise again from Death.

7. All this we find pourtrayed in these two Images, viz. in the Eternal Holy, and then also in the Earthly corruptible Virginitie; and find also the New Regeneration in the Image of Christ very clear and bright.

8. For in the Eternal Virginitie, in God's wisdom, wherein the Image and Similitude of of God is seen as in a Looking-Glas from Eternity, and known by the Spirit of God, was Adam the first Man Created.

9. He had the Virginitie for his own, viz. the true Love-Tincture, in the Light, which is desirous of the Fire's Tincture, that it might be a burning Life in Power and Glory; and in the Fire's Essence, might be a Genetrix, which in the Light's Essence without the Fire cannot be.

10. And thus we acknowledge a Virginitie in the Wisdom of God, from Eternity, in the desirous Will of the divine Substance.

11. Not a Woman which generates, but a Figure in the Looking-Glas of God's Wisdom; a pure chaste Image without Substance, yet in the Essence, but not manifested in the Fire's Essence, but in the Light's quality or source.

12. This Image God has Created into a Substance, and that out of all the three Principles; so that it is a Similitude according to the Deity and Eternity, as a total Looking-Glas of the Byss or Ground, and of the Abyss; of the Spirit and also of the Substance; and was created out of the Eternal, not to the corruptibility or frailty.

13. But seeing the earthly and corruptible hangs to the eternal, so thereby has the earthly Lust introduced itself into the eternal heavenly Property, and infected the heavenly Property; for it would dwell in the eternal, and yet was destroyed in the fierce Wrath of God.

14. Thus the earthly Source or Quality destroyed the heavenly, and became the Turba of the heavenly, as we know and perceive by Earth and Stones, which assuredly have their Original out of the eternal, but are perished in the fierce Wrath and Fire-Source or Quality; and the Fiat has made Earth and Stones out of the heavenly Substantiality.

15. For the sake of which, a Day of Separation is appointed, wherein every thing shall enter again into its own Ether, and be preserved or purified by the Fire.

16. Thus also was Man created in the Virginitie in God's Wisdom, but was apprehended by the fierce Wrath and Anger of God, and therefore became so suddenly perished and earthly.

17. And as the Earth must pass away, and be tried or purified in the Fire, and go again into that which it was before; so also Man shall go again into the Virginitie *wher*in he was created.

18. But, in that, it was not possible for Man, that he should rise from the fierce wrathful Death, and enter into a New Birth, for his Virginitie was shut up together in Death, for which cause God made a Woman out of him, therefore the Deity must move itself, and open that which was shut up, and make it living again; and that was done in Mary, the included shut-up Virgin.

19. Understand, in the Virginitie which Adam inherited out of God's Wisdom; not out of the earthly Part of the third Principle, but out of the heavenly holy Part of the second Principle, which became included and shut up in the earthly Death in the Anger of God, with the earthly Imagination and yielding up thereinto, and was as it were dead; even as the Earth also appears as dead.

20. And therefore has the Heart of God moved itself, destroyed Death, and generated the Life again.

21. Thus now to us the Birth and Incarnation of Christ is a ² powerful and very weighty Matter, that the Total abyssal Heart of God hath moved itself, and so ² Or Joyful with the heavenly Substantiality, which was shut up in Death, is become living again.

22. So that we may now say with good ground, God himself hath withstood his Anger, in that, with the Center of his Heart, which filleth the Eternity without ground and limit, he has again opened himself, taken away the Power of Death, and broke the Sting of the fierce Wrath and Anger, inasmuch as the Love and Meekness has opened itself in the Anger, and quenched the Power of the Fire.

23. And still much more is it a great Joy to us Men, that God has opened himself, in our mortified and dead Virginity, and so proceeded on thoroughly and totally.

24. But that the Word, or the Power of God's Life, has given in itself again into the Humanity, viz. into the dead and as it were disappeared virginity, and opened again the Virgin-like Life; at that we Rejoice, and go with our Imagination into the Center, wherein God hath opened himself in the humanity, viz. into his Son's Incarnation.

25. And so in our Imagination, which we introduce into his Incarnation, we become impregnated of his opened Word, and power of the heavenly and divine Substantiality; not at all with that which is strange, yet it seems strange to the earthliness.

26. The Word has opened itself every where, even in every Man's light of life; and there is wanting only this, that the Soul-spirit give itself up thereinto; and so it putteth the Eternal Virginity on again; not as a Garment, but as from its own Essence: And in that Soul-Spirit God becomes Generated or Born.

27. For Mary together with all Eve's Daughters were generated or become earthly; but the Covenant of God's Love showed in their Essence, that God would therein open the Life again.

28. And we cannot say throughout, concerning Mary's Virginity, as to the earthly Life before the Blessing, before God's Heart moved itself, that she was then a Totally perfect Virgin, according to the first, before the Fall; but she was a natural Daughter of Eve.

29. But this we say with good ground, that in Mary, as also in all Adam's Children, the eternal Virginity in the Covenant of Promise has lain shut up, as it were in Death, yet, in God, not faded.

30. For the Name JESUS, in the Center or Heart of God, has from Eternity together Imaged itself, in the Virgin of God's Wisdom, as in a Looking-Glass, and has stood against the Center of the Father, viz. the Center of the Fire and fierce Wrath: Not in the fierce Wrath of the Essence, but in the Light, in the Light's Essence.

² Eph. 1. 4. 31. And Man was ² foreseen also in that Essence, in the Name JESUS, before the Foundation of the World was laid; wherein Adam then was in a heavenly Essence, without a natural and creaturely Substance.

32. For in the Wisdom, the Fall was known, before Man became a Creature, and that according to the Fire's property; not in the Light's property, but according to the first Principle.

33. And thus now, according to our deep Knowledge we say of Mary, that, before the time of opening the Message of the Angel, she was such a Virgin as Eve was, when she went out of Paradise.

34. Before Adam knew her, then indeed she was a Virgin, but the right Virginity was perished in her, and infected with the earthly Longing; and the bestial property was manifested on her.

35. For the earthly Imagination destroyed the heavenly Property, so that she was a Woman, and was not a chaste pure Immaculate Virgin.

36. For she was but one Part of the heavenly Virgin, the other Part was Adam.

37. And so there has been no right pure Virgin generated from Eve, which was total or entire in Substance; the Turba destroyed the Virginity in all, till the Saviour or Champion in the Battle came, who was a total masculine Virgin in God's Wisdom, according to the heavenly Substance, and the earthly hung to him: but the heavenly ruled over the earthly; for so should Adam also have been, but he stood not.

38. Therefore we say with good ground, that Mary was the Daughter of Joachim and Anna; and has, according to the Earthly part, their Substantiality essentially in her.

39. And then we say, that she was the Daughter of God's Covenant, and that God has fixed the Mark of Regeneration in her; so that the whole Old Testament has looked into that Mark, and all Prophets have Prophefied concerning that Mark, that God would open the Eternal Virginity again, and that that Mark was blessed.

40. For God had given himself with his Mercy, with the Covenant of Promise, into this Mark, and the word of the Promise stood in the Covenant, in the Light of Life, against the Anger.

41. And the first world before the Deluge or Flood, and after, became saved in that Covenant which God set before himself as a Virgin-like Looking-Glass; for the Eternal Virgin appeared in the Covenant, as in God's Looking-Glass; and the ^b Deity delighted itself therein.

^b Or had a longing delight to it.

42. For if Israel had kept the Covenant, and performed the work of the Covenant, then that had been acceptable to God, as if the Humanity had been in the Looking-Glass of wisdom; and though indeed Israel were Earthly and Evil, yet, nevertheless, God dwelt in Israel in his Covenant in the Wisdom, according to his Love and Mercy.

43. Thus the Works of the Law were a ^c Looking-Glass before God, till the Life became generated or born out of the Covenant, till the fulfilling came, and there the Works in the Looking-Glass Ceased; and the work of the fulfilling in the flesh and blood in the Heavenly Substantiality began to rise again.

^c Or in a Looking-Glass.

44. For in Mary was the beginning, when the Angel brought the Message; and she said, ^d Be it done unto me as thou hast said; there instantly the Center of Life, in the Word of God, viz. in the Heart of God, moved in her dead heavenly seed.

^d Luke 1. 38.

45. For all the Three Principles of the Deity became stirring, and caught hold of the divine Tincture, in the dead heavenly Substantiality.

46. Not that God stood without Substance, but Man was dead in the heavenly Substance; and now came the Heart of God with living divine Substantiality into Death, and awakened or raised up the Dead Substantiality.

47. It did not at this time take away the Earthly source or quality, but entered into the Earthly source or quality, as a Lord and Conqueror of the source or quality.

48. For the right Life should be introduced, through Death and the Anger of God; which was done on the Cross, where Death was destroyed, and the fierce wrath captivated, and was quenched and vanquished with the Love.

49. And thus we understand now, what Mary with the fulfilling was come to be, viz. a right pure Virgin according to the heavenly Part: for when the Heart of God moved itself, and that the Day broke forth in her, then shone in her the Light of the clarity or brightness and purity of God; for her dead virginity, viz. God's wisdom, became opened and living.

50. For she became filled with the divine virginity, viz. with God's wisdom.

51. And in that wisdom and divine substantiality, as also in the dead and now living substantiality, ^e the Word became flesh, a Sulphur, with the Center of Nature out of the Father's Essence, and out of Mary's Essence, a Life out of Death, a fruit with both the Tinctures perfectly, whereas both the Tinctures were but one.

^e Joh. 1. 14.

52. And as Adam was become a Man, so Christ became a Man also according to the outward World

53. For not Eve's Image in the Woman's Tincture was to remain, but Adam's Image was to remain, as he was a Man and also a Woman.

54. But yet seeing one of the Marks must appear according to the might and power of the outward Fiat, and that also the Champion in the Battle would be fixed and presented in all the Three Principles, therefore the Champion in the Battle got Masculine Marks of distinction.

55. For the Man has the Fire's Tincture, viz. of the Father's property; so now the Father is the strength and might of all things, and the Son is his Love.

56. Thus the Word became Man in the feminine Essence, but became a Man, that his love might quench the anger and fierce wrath in the Father.

57. For Venus's Tincture has the Water-source or quality, and the Woman has Venus's Tincture: Thus must the Fire become quenched by the Water of Eternal Life; and the Father's burning Essence in the Fire become quenched again.

58. Now we know that Mary the Mother of Christ, according to Flesh, Soul, and Spirit, in the Blessing, is a pure chaste Virgin; for that is her Blessing that God has opened in her.

59. She has carried the Word of Life in her Body; that has moved itself in her.

60. She has not moved the Word, but the Word has moved her, both the fruit which she did bear, and her Soul, as also that part of her dead Substantiality; so that her Soul instantly became environed with the divine living Substantiality.

61. Not according to the Earthly part, viz. according to the Third Principle, but according to the Second Principle, so that thus the Earthly did but hang upon her.

62. For her Soul should also, with the word of Life, which in her became Man, together enter through Death and the Anger of the Father, into the heavenly divine source or quality.

63. And therefore must her outward Man die away from the Earthly source or quality, that it may ^b live to God.

^f Her outward Man.

64. And, therefore, in that she was blessed, and did bear the Mark in the Covenant, her Body was not vanished, departed or dissolved, for the heavenly has swallowed up the earthly, and holds that Eternally captive, to the honour of God and the manifestation of his deeds of Wonder; it shall never be forgotten in Eternity, that God is become Man in her.

^g Or intransitory.

65. But that some say, she remained totally in death, and quite vanished or corrupted; their Reason might well discern otherwise, for that which is highly blessed, is ^f incorruptible, or cannot vanish away.

66. Her heavenly part of the divine substantiality, which she had in her blessed, that is intransitory; else it must follow, that God's substantiality in the Blessing was yet once more fallen and dead, as was done in Adam, for the sake of which dying indeed, God became Man, that he might bring it to life again.

^b Or Life.

67. Indeed, according to the Outward Life, viz. according to the outward source or quality, she died, but she lives, according to the Blessing, in God's Substantiality, and also in her own Substantiality, not in the Four Elements, but in the root of the Four Elements, viz. in the One Element, which holds the Four Elements shut up in itself in the Paradise, in the pure Element in the Divine Substantiality in the Body ^b of God.

68. Therefore we say, that Mary was greater in dignity, than ever any Daughter of or from Adam, in that God has fixed the Mark of his Covenant in her, and that she alone, among all Eve's Daughters, has attained the Blessing, viz. the pure Virgin-like chastity, which in all Eve's Daughters was perished.

ⁱ Or By, or as to her.

69. But ⁱ with her stood the Virginity in the Covenant, till the word of Life highly blessed her, and then she became a right chaste Virgin, in which God became Generated.

70. For Christ said also to the Jews, I am from above; but ye are from beneath; I am not of this world.

71. If he were become Man in an Earthly Vessel, and not in a pure modest chaste heavenly Virgin, he had of necessity been of this world.

72. But thus he became Man in the Heavenly Virgin, and the Earthly source or quality did but hang to him, for the Essence of the Soul was in us poor Children of Men become infected.

73. And he was to introduce our Soul in the heavenly Essence in himself, through the fire of God, in Ternarium Sanctum, into the holy Ternary.

74. For it was for the Soul's sake that all was done; seeing it had been taken out of the Eternal, therefore also God would not forsake it.

Question.

75. Therefore, if it be asked, what kind of Matter it was, whereinto God's Word and Heart has given itself, and made itself a Body? whether it be strange Matter come from Heaven? or, whether it was of Mary's Essence and Seed?

Answer.

76. This is our Answer: That God's Heart was never without Substance; for its Dwelling is from Eternity in the Light, and the power in the Light is the Heart or Word, which God has spoken from Eternity.

77. And the Speaking was the Holy Spirit of God, which with the Speaking goes forth out of the power of the Light, out of the spoken Word.

78. And that which is out-spoken is God's Wonder and Wisdom, and this has in it the divine Looking-Glass of the Wisdom, whereinto the Spirit of God looketh, and wherein it opens the Wonders.

79. Thus understand, that the word, which out of, or from the Heart of God the Father, was environed with the heavenly chaste Virgin of Wisdom, dwells in the heavenly Substantiality, and has in like manner opened itself in Mary's Essence and Substantiality, viz. in her own seed, understand in the human seed; and has taken into itself Mary's seed, dead and blind as to God, and awakened or raised it to Life again.

80. The living Substantiality came together in the half dead, to a Body, not to a transitory, which should cease or vanish, but to an Eternal, which should remain Eternally; for here the Eternal Life became generated again.

81. Thus the Substantiality of the Eternity in God, of his Deep, without Ground, and the Substantiality of the dead Adam in the Humanity, became one Substantiality, totally or entirely one Substance; so that the Creature Christ, with his Substantiality, in like manner at once filled the whole Father, which is without bounds, limit or ground.

82. Yet the Creaturely Soul continues, and is a Creature; and according to the Third Principle, viz. as to the Creature, this Christ is a Creature, and King of Men; as also, according to the second Principle, a Child of the Abyssal Father.

83. Whatsoever the Father is in his Abyssal Deep, that the Son is in his Creature; for the power and virtue in the Creature, is with the power without or beyond the Creature, one Power, one Substantiality, in which the Angels and Men dwell.

84. But in the Humanity, it gives also ^k flesh and blood, and therefore also it is ^k Heavenly. and remains a Creature, but ^l uncreated, yet generated, as to one part, out of God from ^l Note, Created and Generated are two things. Eternity, as to the other part, out of the Humanity.

85. And God and Man is become one Person, one Christ, one God, one holy Trinity, in the Humanity, and also in like manner Every where; so that when we see Christ, we see the Holy Trinity in one only Image.

86. His Creature is an Image, and out of, or from us Men; our High-Priest and King ; our Brother ; his power and virtue is our power and virtue ; if we are indeed generated of God again, in the faith to him.

87. He is not strange or terrible to Us, but is our Love-Tincture : He is with his power, the quickening of our Souls, our life, and our Souls delightful habitation.

88. When we find him, we find our help or salvation ; as in like manner Adam should have found him, but he suffered himself to be seduced, and found at length a Woman.

ⁿ Gen. 2. 23. 89. Then said he ; ^m She is Flesh of my Flesh, and Bone of my Bone, and took her to him for a Companion ; so also when our Soul finds him, it says, this is my Virgin, which I had lost in Adam, when an Earthly Woman came to be out of it.

90. I have now again found my Love-Virgin out of my Love : I will now never let it go from me again, it is Mine, my flesh and blood, my strength, virtue and power, which I lost in Adam ; this will I keep.

91. O, it is a friendly keeping, a friendly qualifying or co-working beauty, brightness, fruit, power and virtue.

ⁿ The Virgin Sophia, or Christ in us. 92. Thus the poor Soul finds its lost Light's Tincture, and its Love-Virgin, and in this ⁿ Spouse, or Wife, the Noble Bridegroom comes to be found.

93. For it has longed after the Matrix of Venus, but has found only a Masculine Sulphur, and must have suffered itself to be impregnated with Earthly seed.

94. Here it attains the right Fire's and Man's Tincture ; so that thus it is also a right Masculine Virgin as Adam was in his Innocence.

The Tenth Chapter.

Of the Birth or Incarnation of Jesus Christ, the Son of God ; and how he laid Nine Months, as all the Children of Men, shut up in his Mother's Body or Womb ; and how properly his Incarnation is.

1.  EN have had much disputing about Christ's Incarnation, but very blindly, and have made many Opinions concerning it ; and so Men have been turned about with Opinion, and have left and let the right Incarnation lie still, upon which our Eternal Salvation depends.

2. Of which all the Cause has been, that Men have sought it in outward Wit or Understanding and Art, and not as the right Mark, Aim or Place.

3. If a Man was entered into Christ's Incarnation, and was born of, or out of God, it would need no disputing ; for the Spirit of God opens to every one the Incarnation even in himself ; and without this there is no finding it.

4. For how will we find, in this World's Reason, that which is not in this World ; we find in the outward Reason scarce any Glimspe of it ; but in God's Spirit is the right finding.

5. The Incarnation of Christ is such a Mystery, as the Outward Reason knows Nothing of, for it is done in all the Three Principles ; and cannot be searched out, unless a Man knows the first Man in his Creation before the Fall.

6. For Adam was to generate the second Man with the Character of the Holy Trinity out of himself, in which the Name JESUS was Imaged or Incorporated.

7. But that could not be, and therefore must another Adam come, in whom it was possible: for Christ is the Virgin-like Image, with the Character of the Holy Trinity; he is conceived in God's Love, and generated in this World.

8. Adam had divine Substantiality, and his Soul was out of the first Principle out of the Father's Property, and that should have with its Imagination inclined itself into the Father's Heart, viz. into the Word and Spirit of Love and Purity, and have eaten of the Substantiality of Love, and then it had retained God's Substance in the Word of Life in itself, and would have been Impregnated with the Power out of the Heart of God.

9. Whence then it should have imagined out of itself into its Substantiality, and itself have Impregnated its Substantiality; so that a whole Similitude, according to the first Image, would have Existed, through the Imagination and the yielding up of the Soul into it, and have been Conceived in the Power of the Substantiality.

10. But seeing this could not be done in Adam, because of the earthliness which clave to him, therefore it was done in the second Adam Christ, who was in such a manner conceived through God's Imagination and entering into the Image of the first Adam.

11. And it is known to us, that seeing the first Adam had fixed his Imagination in the earthliness, he is become earthly; and that was done against the Purpose of God, yet the Purpose of God must stand.

12. For here God set his Purpose in Adam's Child, and brought his Imagination into the perished Image, and Impregnated the same with his divine Power and Substantiality, and Converted the Soul's Will out of the earthliness into God; so that thus Mary became Impregnated with such a Child, as Adam should have been impregnated with.

13. Which Self-Ability could not effect, but sunk down into Sleep, viz. into the Magia, where then the Woman was made out of Adam, which should not have been made, but Adam should himself have impregnated in Venus's Matrix, and have generated Magically.

14. But seeing that might not be, therefore was Adam divided, and his own Will of great Might and Power was broken in him, and shut up in Death.

15. And seeing he would not set his Imagination into the Spirit of God, therefore must his great Might and Power in Death stand still, and let the Spirit of God set his Imagination into it, and do with it what he will.

16. Therefore God's Spirit awakened the Life to him out of that Death, and became the Spirit of that Life, that the Image and Similitude according to God, which was known from Eternity in God's Wisdom, might yet be generated and subsist.

17. For it stood before the Time of the World, and from Eternity in the Virgin-Looking-Glass in the Wisdom of God, and that in two Forms:

18. Viz. according to the first Principle of the Father in the Fire; and in the second Principle of the Son, in the Light; and yet was only manifest in the Light, and in the Fire as it were in a Magia, viz. in a possibility.

19. As the Starry Heaven models to Man a Figure in Sleep in his Mind according to its Ability or ^P Possibility, so also has the Image in the Center of the Fire's Nature ^P Or Capacity, appeared altogether Invisibly.

20. But in the Wisdom in the Looking-Glass of the Deity, it has appeared as an Image, like a Sbadow, yet without material Substance; and yet has been in the Essence of that Spirit.

21. Which if it had discerned itself in the Looking-Glass of the Wisdom, it would have known and seen this Image, and would once have set its Will thereinto, to bring it into Substantiality, that God might have an Image or Similitude in Substance; where it might not need any more to see itself as in a Looking-Glass, but ^a find itself in Substance.

22. Therefore seeing the first Image imagined into the stern Might and Power, and thereupon became earthly and dead, God's Spirit brought its Will and Life into Death, and took to itself again the first Life out of Death, that the first Life might stand in full Obedience before it, and that it alone may be the Will and the Deed.

23. Thus it is known to us, that God has entered into the Half dead Image, understand into Mary, and even into that Virgin-like Form, which lay shut up in Death; wherein Adam should have become impregnated, and generated an Image of himself in the Virgin-like Chastity.

24. In this shut-up Virgin-like half dead Matrix, is God's Word or Heart, viz. the Center of the Holy Trinity, become a Human Image, without hurt to his Substance.

25. And whereas the first living Virgin-like Matrix in Adam would not be Obedient to God, yet now, when it was again awakened and raised out of Death, it became Obedient, and gave itself totally, humbly and willingly, into God's Will: And thus now the right Virgin-like Image became figured into the Obedience of God again.

26. For the first Will must remain in Death, which Imagined against God's Will, and a pure Obedient Will became awakened, which might remain in the heavenly Meekness, which would no more suffer the Image in the Fire, in the Father's Part, to flow up in itself, but would remain in one Source or Quality.

27. Even as the Deity bringeth its Life but into ONE only Source or Quality, viz. into the Light, into the Holy Spirit, and yet carries on his Dominion over all the three Principles.

28. Also we are to understand concerning Christ's Incarnation, that when God's Spirit awakened again the Virgin-like Life in Mary, which in the earthly Essence lay shut up in Death and fierce Wrath, then that Life henceforward turned itself only into the ONE only will, viz. into God's Love, and gave itself up to the Spirit of God.

29. Thus that Life became Impregnated of a right Virgin-like Image, which should have been with Adam, but was not done.

30. For the one Imagination received the other; God's Imagination received the Imagination in Death, and brought it to Life again; that Life Imagined again into God, and became Impregnated with God, and became, out of the Deity and Humanity, ONE Person.

31. The Deity hung to the heavenly Substantiality, which has ever been from Eternity with the Kingdom, Power, and Glory, viz. the Kingdom of Paradise, and the Angelical World, viz. the Spirit and the seven Forms in the Center of Nature; as in the third Part or Book of the Threefold Life is mentioned, with all Circumstances.

32. And the Humanity hung to the Kingdom of this World, but when the Will of the Humanity gave itself up into the Deity, then this Virgin-like Image in Christ Jesus came to be only a Guest in this World, and his Deity was a Lord over this World.

* Note.

33. For thus it was to be in Adam also, that * the lesser and Impotent should be subject to the greater and Omnipotent.

34. But Adam's Will went into the less and Impotent, and therefore he became altogether Impotent, and fell down into Sleep, and home again to the Creator.

35. But with Christ, this Image remained standing in the divine Wisdom, and the earthly Source or Quality hung to it in the Office and Manner of a Servant; but now no more as a Lord, as it was over Adam, and Mary his Mother before the high Blessing and Opening of the Deity, but as a Servant; for this Image became now, in God's Spirit and Might, a Lord over the third Principle of this World.

Question.

36. Now says Reason, How is it come to pass in this Incarnation? Was then the Life so suddenly with the Point of Conception become stirring above the Natural Course, so that that Part of Mary, viz. the Woman's seed, instantly lived?

Answer.

37. No; for it was an Essential seed, and became in its Natural Time stirring, with Soul and Spirit, as all Adam's Children.

38. But that part of the Deity, environed with divine Substantiality and Wisdom, lives from Eternity to Eternity.

39. The Deity went not to nor fro: what it was, that it remained to be; and what it was not, that it came to be.

40. It gave itself with Divine Substantiality into the Essence and Substantiality of Mary; and Mary's Essence and God's Essence became one ^r Son.

^r Or Person.

41. But Mary's Essences were Mortal, but God's Essences were Immortal.

42. Therefore must Mary's Essences die on the Cross, and go through Death into Life; to which God's Essences helped, else it had been impossible.

43. Thus God's Essence helped us, and still always helpeth us through Christ into God's Essence and Life again.

44. Thus we know the Incarnation of Christ to be natural, as of all the Children of Men; for the heavenly divine Substantiality has given itself, with its Life, into the earthly half-dead Substantiality.

45. The Lord gave himself to be under the Servant, that the Servant might become living, and is in like manner, in Nine Months, become a perfect Man, and also continues a true God; and is also, after the manner and way of all Adam's Children, become born into this World, through that very way and passage as all Men are.

46. And that therefore, Not that he needed it, he could have been born Magically, but he would not, and should not: for he was to heal our impure Birth or Geniture, and Entrance into this Life.

47. He should enter into our Entrance into this World, and introduce us out of this World, into God's Entrance, and bring us out of the Earthly source or quality.

48. For if he had been generated or born Magically after a divine Manner, then he had not been Naturally in this World; for the heavenly Substantiality must have swallowed up the Earthly source or quality; and then he had not been ^r like us.

^r Heb. 4. 15.

49. How then would he have suffered Death, have entered into Death, and destroyed it? but therefore it was not so.

50. He is truly and really the Woman's Seed, and is entered into this World the Natural way like all Men; but yet also is gone forth through death the divine way of the divine Might and Substantiality.

51. He is a divine living Substantiality, which subsisted in Death, and destroyed and despised death, and brought the half dead humanity through Death into Eternal Life.

52. For the Earthly part, which he took to himself out of his Mother Mary, that is, to or upon the divine Substance, died away on the Cross from the Earthly source or quality.

53. Thus was the Soul, in the Substantiality of God, and as a victorious Conquering Prince went into the Hell of Devils, that is, into God's Anger, and quenched it with ^r God's love and meekness of the divine Love substantiality.

54. For the Love-fire came into the Anger-fire, and drowned the Anger, wherein the Devil would be God.

Or by.

55. Thus was the Devil taken captive ^u with the darknes, and lost his Dominion; for the Sting and the Sword of the Cherubim, the slaying Angel, was here destroyed.

56. And this was the Cause that God became Man, viz. that he might introduce us out of Death, into the Eternal Life, and quench the Anger which burned in Us with the Love.

57. For you must understand us right, how God's Anger became quenched; not with the Mortal Blood of Christ which he shed, upon which the Jews despised him;

58. But with the Blood of the Eternal Life, out of God's substance which was immortal, which had in it the fountain of the Water of Eternal Life, that was shed upon the Cross with and under the outward Blood; and when the outward fell to the Earth, then fell the Heavenly with it, but yet it was immortal.

^x Mat. 27. 51.

59. Thus ^x the Earth received Christ's Blood, whence it Trembled and Quaked, for the fierce wrath of God in it was now overcome, and the living Blood came into it which was come out of God's Substantiality, from Heaven.

^y Mat. 27.

60. That ^y Opened the Graves of the Saints, and Opened Death, and made a Path through Death, ^z so that Death was made a show of in Triumph.

52, 53.

^x Col. 2. 14.

15.

61. For when Christ's Body rose from Death, then he bore Death as a Spectacle or Show on his Body, for its Might was broken or destroyed.

The Eleventh Chapter.

Of the great Utility, or what Profit the Incarnation and Geniture or Birth of Jesus Christ the Son of God is to us poor Children of Eve.

The Most rich and lovely Gate of all.

1.  E poor Children of Eve were all Dead in Adam; and though we did as it were Live, yet we lived only to this World, and Death waited for us, and continually devoured One after another; and there was no remedy for us, if God had not generated us again out of his Substance.

2. We should not in Eternity as to the Body have returned again, but our Soul would have Eternally continued in God's anger, source or quality, with all Devils.

3. But the Incarnation of Jesus Christ is become a powerful Substance or Matter to us; for, for our sakes is God become Man, that he might bring our humanity out of death into himself again, and redeem or release our Soul out of the fire of God's Anger.

4. For the Soul in itself is a Fire-source or quality, and contains in itself the First Principle, the harsh astringency, which in itself labours only to ^a the Fire.

^a Or towards.

5. But if the Love and Meekness of God come to be withdrawn from this Soul's

Birth or Geniture, or become infected with a total stern Matter, then it continues a source or quality in the Darknes, a total stern roughness, devouring itself, and yet also, in the hunger of the will, always thus generating itself again.

6. For a thing that has no beginning nor ground, that has also no end, but itself is its Ground, it generates itself.

7. And yet we will not say, that the Soul has no Beginning; it has a Beginning, but only according to the Creature, not according to the Essence, its Essence is from Eternity.

8. For the divine Fiat has comprised it in the Center of the Eternal Nature, and brought it into a substantial Substance; moreover, with the whole Cross, with the Character of the Holy Trinity, as a Similitude of the Threefold Spirit of the Deity, wherein God dwells: now whether it be done in Love or Anger, it is in Light or Fire; for in which of them soever it Imagines, of that it becomes impregnated; for it is a Magic Spirit, a source or quality in itself.

9. Thus it is the Center of the Eternity, a fire of the Deity in the Father, yet not in the Father's Liberty, but in the Eternal Nature.

10. It is not ^b come before the Substance, but in the Substance.

^b Come to be.

11. But God's Liberty is ^c without or beyond the Substance, but dwells in the Substance; for in the Substance God becomes manifest.

^c Extra.

12. And there would be No God without the Substance, but an Eternal stillness, without source or quality.

13. But in the source or quality the Fire becomes generated, and out of the Fire, the Light, where then two Substances separate themselves, and drive on a Twofold source or quality; viz. a fierce wrathful hungry thirsty one in the Fire, and a meek lovely yielding giving one in the Light.

14. For the Light gives, and the Fire takes away; the Light gives Meekness, and out of the Meekness, Substantiality, that is, the Fire's food, or else it were a dark fierce wrathful hunger in itself.

15. As indeed a Spirit is, if it has not the substance of the Light, like a loathsome poison.

16. But if it attains substance of Meekness, then it attracts that in itself, and dwells therein, and uses it for food, and also for the Body; for it affects or infects itself therewith, and impregnates itself; for its substance is its satiating or fulfilling, and thus the hunger comes to be stilled.

17. We are to conceive of the human Soul thus; it was taken out of the Center of Nature, not out of the ^d Looking-Glass of the Eternal, viz. out of the source or quality of this world, but out of the Eternal Essence of the Spirit, or out of the first Principle of the Father's property, as to, or according to Nature.

^d Or the four Element.

18. Not from Substance or from somewhat, but the Spirit of the Deity breathed into it the Life, understand the Image, into Adam's self, out of all the three Principles: It has breathed into him the Center of Nature, viz. the fire source or quality to Life.

19. Also the Meekness of the Love out of the Substance of the Deity, as the second Principle with divine heavenly Substantiality:

20. As also the Spirit of this World, as the Looking-Glass, or Prototype or Prefiguration of God's wisdom with the Wonders.

21. But now the Spirit of this World is by the Devil's kindling and poison, which he hath darted thereinto, become perished, for the Devil dwells in this world, and is a continual infecter of the outward Nature and Property; though in the fierce wrath only, viz. in the harsh astringent desire, he is Mighty powerful.

22. But he puts his Imagination, with his false Tincture, also into the Love, and poisons the Soul's best Jewel, and has infected Adam's soul, with its Imagination, with his Evil hunger-spirit, so that Adam's soul lusted after the Earthly source or quality, from which Lust it became impregnated with the Earthly source or quality; so that the outward Kingdom became introduced into the inward, whence the Light of the first Principle extinguished, and his divine Substantiality, wherein he should live Eternally, became shut up in the Earthly Death.

23. Thus, for this Image, and also Soul, there was no remedy more, unless then the Deity moved itself according to the second Principle, viz. according to the Light of Life in it, and kindled the Substantiality, which was shut up in Death, again with the Love-Glance, which was done in the Incarnation of Christ.

24. And this is the greatest Wonder that God has wrought, in that he has moved himself with the Center of the Holy Trinity in the Woman's Seed.

25. For God's Heart would not reveal or manifest itself in the Fire, viz. in the Man's Tincture, but in the Spirit's Tincture, viz. in Venus, in the Love of the Life, that the Fire in the Man's Tincture might be apprehended with the Meekness and Love of God.

26. For the Eternal Life should, and must spring again out of the shut-up Death; for ^e Numb. 17. here has the Root Jesse, and ^c the true Rod of Aaron budded, and borne fair fruit.

8. 27. For in Adam the Paradise was shut up in Death, when he became Earthly, but in Christ that springeth again out of death.

28. From Adam we have all inherited Death, but from Christ we inherit the Eternal Life.

29. Christ is that Virgin-like Image which Adam should have generated out of himself with both the Tinctures.

^f Gen. 49. 10. 30. But seeing he could not, therefore he was divided, and so it must be done through Two Bodies ^f till Shiloh came, that is the Son of the Virgin, which became generated out of God and Man.

^g Isa. 53. 2. 31. He is the Breaker through, of which the Prophets spoke, saying, ^g He shooteth up like a Plant or Sprout, he sprouteth as a Juniper Tree, in God's Substance.

32. He has, with his entrance into the human half dead Essence, broke or destroyed Death, for he sprouted at once both in the human and divine Essence.

33. He brought to us, along with him in our Humanity, the Virgin-like Chastity of the Wisdom of God, he environed our Soul's Essence with Heavenly Substantiality.

34. He was the Champion or Saviour in the Battle, where the two Kingdoms lay together in strife, viz. God's Anger, and God's Love: He gave himself willingly up into the Anger, and quenched it with his Love; understand in the human Essence.

35. He came out of God into this World, and assumed our Soul into himself, that he might introduce us, out of the Earthliness of this World, again in himself into God.

36. He generated us again anew in himself, that we might be capable to live in God.

^h James 1. 18. 37. Out ^h of his Will begat he, or generated he us, that we should put our Will into him; and then he brings us in himself to the Father, into our native Country again, viz. into Paradise, out of which Adam went forth.

38. He is become our Fountain, his Water springs up in us: He is our Spring, and we are Drops in him; he is become the fulness of our substantiality, that we in him may live in God.

39. For God is become Man, he has introduced his abyssal immensurable substance into the Humanity: His Substance which filleth the Heaven, has he manifested in the Humanity.

40. Thus the human substance, and God's substance, are become one substance, one fulness of God; our substance is his moving in his Heaven.

41. We are his Children, his Wonder, his moving in his abyssal Body.

42. He is Father, and we his Children in him: We *dwel*l in him, and he in us: We are his Instruments, wherewith he seeks and makes what he will.

43. He is the Fire, and also the Light, together with all substance, or every thing. He is hidden, and the Work makes him manifest.

44. Thus we know that God is a Spirit, and his eternal Will is magical, that is, desirous: He always maketh substance out of Nothing, and that in a twofold source, viz. according to the Fire and Light.

45. Out of the fire comes fierce Wrath, climbing up, Pride, willing not to unite itself with the Light, but a fierce wrathful eager earnest Will, according to which he is not called God, but a fierce wrathful consuming Fire.

46. This Fire also becomes not manifest in the pure Deity, for the Light has swallowed up the Fire into itself, and gives to the Fire its Love, its Substantiality, its Water, so that in God's substance there is only Love, Joy, and a pleasant habitation, and no fire known.

47. But the Fire is only a Cause of the desirous Will and of the Love, as also of the Light and of the Majesty, else there would be no substance, as it has been largely explained in the former writings.

48. And now it is known to Us, wherein our New Regeneration standeth, even while we are yet in this world, covered with the Earthly Tent or Tabernacle, and are fallen home to the Earthly life, viz. merely in the Imagination, that we with our Will enter into God's Will, and wholly unite and give up ourselves into Him, which is called Faith or Believing.

49. For the Word Faith, or $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Glauben,} \\ \text{Believing,} \end{array} \right\}$ is not Historical, but it is a receiving out of God's Substance, to eat of God's Substance, to introduce God's Substance, with the Imagination, into the Soul's Fire, to still its hunger therewith, and so to put on the Substance of God.

50. Not as a Garment, but as a Body of the Soul; the Soul must have God's Substance in its Fire, it must eat the Bread of God, if it will be a Child.

51. Thus also it becomes New born in God's Spirit and Substance, which Spirit it transplanteth out of the soil of the fierce Wrath and Anger, into the soil of Love, Meekness, and Humility of God, and blossoms forth with a new blossom in God's soil or field.

52. And that blossom which grows in God's Love, is the right true Image of the Deity, which God desired when he created Adam to, or in his likeness, that now has God's and Man's Son regenerated to us again.

53. For his Regeneration out of God, and out of our Substance, is our Regeneration: His Power, Life, and Spirit, are all ours.

54. And we need do no more to it, but that we only and merely enter with our Will-spirit through him into God's Substance, and so our Will comes to be generated in God's Will, and receives divine Power and Substance.

55. Not strange Substance, but our first, with which we with Adam entered into Death; and that awakens and raises up again to us the first born out of the Dead, which is Christus, Christ.

56. He is God, but yet is generated or born out of us, that he might make us living from or out of the Death.

57. Nor any strange Life which we have not had in this World, but our own Life; for God's purpose must stand.

58. The fair Blossom and Image must grow out of the corrupted soil, and not only so, but also out of the pure soil.

59. We must be generated or born of, or out of the Virgin, not out of the Man of the Anger, out of the Fire's Tincture, but out of the Light's Tincture.

60. We put on the Virgin of Christ, with our giving up ourselves thereinto.

61. We herewith become the Virgin of Modesty and Chastity and Purity in Ternario Sancto, in the Holy Ternary, in the Angelical World; a Looking-Glass of the Holy Trinity, wherein God beholds himself, and which he has taken to him for his Spouse.

62. He is our Husband or Man, to whom we in Christ have been betrothed, married, and incorporated.

63. And we are now Mary in the Covenant of Grace, out of which God and Man became generated or born.

64. Mary was the first in the high blessing, for in her was the Mark at which the Covenant aimed or pointed.

65. She was known in God in the highly precious Name JESUS, before the foundation of the World was laid.

66. Not that she brought the Life out of Death, but that God, in her, would bring the Life out of Death, and therefore she became highly blessed; and the pure Virgin Modesty was put on to her.

67. And out of that Virginity, out of which Christ became generated or born, we all must be generated or born, for we must become ¹ Virgins, and follow after the Lamb of God, else we shall not see God; for Christ saith, ² Ye must be generated, or born anew, if ye will see the Kingdom of God, through Water, and the Holy Spirit.

68. The Water is the Virginity, for the Virgin brings the Light's and Water's Tincture, viz. Love and Meekness.

69. And the Spirit, out of which we must become generated or born, is that which gave itself into the Woman's seed with the moving of the Deity, which broke or destroyed Death, which out of the Water bringeth forth a Light-flaming Blossom, wherein is the spirit and life of the blossom.

70. Not according to the Fire Source or Quality of the fierce Wrath, but according to the Quality of the Light in the Meekness and Humility.

The Twelfth Chapter.

Of the Pure Immaculate Virginity. How we poor Children of Eve must be conceived out of the pure Virgin-like Modesty or Chastity in the Incarnation of Christ, and be new born in God, or else we shall not see God.

1.  E poor Children of Eve find in us no pure Virgin-like thoughts; for  Mother Eve, which was a Woman, has made us all Feminine and Masculine.
2. We are in Adam and Eve all become Men and Women, except we enter into the heavenly Virginity with our desiring Will, in which God has generated us out of Christ to be Virgins again.

3. Not according to the Earthly Life, in which there is no Modesty, Chastity, and Purity, but according to the Life of the Heavenly Virgin, in which Christ became a Man, and which with the overshadowing of the Holy Ghost came to be put on to Mary, which is without ground, limit, and end, which every where standeth before the Deity, which is a Looking-Glass and Representation or ¹express Image of the Deity.

4. Into this Virgin, wherein the Holy Trinity dwells, wherein we were discerned or discovered before the times of the world by the Spirit of God, and were known in the Name of JESUS, we must enter with our Will-spirit.

5. For our true Image, in which we are the similitude of God, is with Adam and Eve extinguished to us, and become Earthly.

6. Which is done through Lust or Imagination, and so God's clear Countenance became covered, for we lost the Heavenly Modesty or Chastity.

7. But seeing God, for us, hath out of his Favour and Love opened his clear Countenance towards us again in the Incarnation of Christ, so now it lieth in this, that as we in Adam have imagined into the earthly longing, whence we are become Earthly, so we now set our desiring Will in the Heavenly Virgin, and bring our longing thereinto, and then our Image goes out from the Earthly Woman, and conceives the Virgin-like Essence and Property, wherein God dwells, wherein the soul's Image may attain the Countenance of God again.

8. Outward Reason says, how may that come to pass, that we might be born again out of the Virgin, out of which Christ was born? It understands solely Mary; but we understand not the Mary which is a creaturely Virgin.

9. For, as we also in the immaterial Virgin-like Modesty, or Chastity, became Creaturely Virgins, so if we enter into the Incarnation of Christ, not according to the outward Life in the four Elements, but according to the Inward in the one Element, where the Fire of God swallows up the four Elements into itself, and yet in his Light, viz. in the second Principle, wherein the outward Man and Woman must go through Death in Christ's resurrection, as a Virgin in the one Element, wherein all the four lie hidden, we then grow forth and spring in the right Virgin-like Wisdom of God.

10. We must die away from the Man and the Woman, and crucify the corrupt Adam: He must die with Christ, and be cast into the Father's Anger.

11. That swallows up the Earthly Man and the Earthly Woman, and gives to the soul, out of the Incarnation of Christ, a Virgin-like Image, wherein the Man and the Woman is but one only Image, with one only Love.

12. Now the Man sets his Love in, or upon the Woman, and the Woman in, or upon the Man; but if both the Loves be turned into one, there is then no desire of Co-mixture any more in the one only Image, but the Image loves itself.

13. But now, the Image in the beginning was created in the Virgin-like Wisdom of God, viz. out of the divine substantiality:

14. And now, because the substance was become Earthly and fallen into death, therefore the Word which became Man awakened and raised it up again; and so the earthly source or quality remains with death in the anger, and the raised remains in the Word of Life, in the Virgin-like Modesty or Chastity.

15. And so we bear here in this World a twofold Man in one Person, viz. a Virgin-like Image born out of the Incarnation of Christ, and an Earthly Image, Masculine and Feminine, shut up in Death and in the Anger of God.

16. The Earthly must bear the Cross, and suffer itself to be scorned, persecuted, and afflicted in the Anger, and comes at length to be given to death; and then the Anger swallows it up into the source or qualifying fire of God.

17. And so, if the Word of Life, which in Mary became Man, is together in the Earthly Image, then Christ, who wrought the Word of Life out of God, rises up from Death, and brings the Essence of the source or qualifying fire, understand the human Essence, out forth from Death.

18. For he is risen out from Death, and lives in God, and his Life is become our life, and his Death our death, we are buried in his death, and sprout forth in his resurrection and victory in his Life.

19. But understand the meaning right. Adam was the Virgin-like Image, he had peculiar Love of his own; for the Spirit of God had breathed it into him; for what else can the Spirit of God breathe out of itself than what itself is?

20. But now that is All, and yet all sources or qualities are not called God; but in all sources or qualities, there is but one only Spirit, which is God, viz. according to the second Principle in the Light, yet there is no Light without Fire.

21. But in the fire he is not the Love-spirit, or Holy Ghost, but the fierce wrath of Nature, and a cause of the Holy Spirit, an Anger and a consuming Fire.

22. For in Fire is the Spirit of Nature Free; and yet the Essential fire also giveth or affordeth Nature, and is itself Nature.

23. And yet we understand but one holy Spirit in the Light; though indeed all is but one substance, yet we understand that the Matter which is generated out of the Meekness of the Light, is as it were impotent and obscure, which the fire draws and swallows up into itself.

24. But it gives forth, out of the material source or quality out of the fire, a mighty potent Spirit, which is free from the Matter, and also from the fire; and though the fire retains it, yet it apprehends not its source or quality.

25. As we see that the Light dwelleth in the Fire, and yet has not the source or quality of the Fire, but a meek love-source or quality; which also would not be, if the Matter were not d. ad and consumed in the Fire.

* Note.

26. Thus we consider and conceive of the first Adam: He was contrived or * imagined out of the Light's Essence and Substantiality, but seeing he was to go into a Creature, and was to be a total or entire Similitude of God, according to all Substances, according to all the Three Principles, therefore he became also apprehended with the Word Fiat in all Substances of all the Three Principles, and was brought into a Creature.

27. Now certainly, all the three Principles were free in him, and stood one in another, each in its Order, and so he was a right total or entire Similitude of God, according to, and out of the Substance of all Substances.

28. But we are to know and observe, how the third Principle, viz. the source or quality of this World in the kindling of Lucifer, became totally fierce, wrathful, thirsty and base, or Evil, and instantly in Adam thirsted after the second Principle, viz. after the heavenly matter, whence the longing in Adam existed; for the source or quality of the pure Love, out of the Holy Spirit, had ^m refused that.

^m Or occasined.

29. But when the Love entered into the Earthly source or quality to satisfy it in its kindled thirst, then the pure material Love conceived, or received the desirous Earthly perished corrupt Longing.

30. And then the second Principle extinguished, not as a Death, as if it was become a Nothing, but it became captivated in the fierce wrathful thirst.

31. Now then, seeing God is a Light, the pure love-source or quality stood as shut up in Death, without the Light of God.

32. And now the Image was perished and captivated in the fierce wrath of God, and the own self-love lest its might and strength, for it was shut up in the perished corrupt Earthliness, and loved Earthliness.

33. Thus a Woman or Wife must be made out of this Image, and the Two Tinctures, viz.

viz. the fire's Essence, and the Matrices watery Essence, must be parted, viz. into a Man and a Woman.

34. Whereas yet the Love thus became moving in a twofold Source or Quality, and so one Tincture loved and desired the other, and mingled together, whence the Generation was to be propagated and maintained.

35. But now this Generation of Men, thus in the earthly Source or Quality, could not know or see God, for the pure Immaculate Love was shut up in the earthly thirsty Source or Quality, and was shut up and captivated in the fierce Wrath of the eternal Nature, which Lucifer had kindled: for the fierce Wrath had attracted the love with the earthliness into itself.

36. Thus now, in that captivated Love, stood the Virgin-like Modesty or Chastity of the Wisdom of God, which to Adam was with the second Principle, with the heavenly Substantiality, together Incorporated to his Body, and much more the Spirit of the meek Substantiality, through the Breathing in of the Holy Spirit, which was breathed into Adam.

37. And so now there was no Remedy, unless the Deity awakened itself, in the divine Virgin, according to the second Principle, in the Virginity which was shut up in Death; and that another Image came to be out of the first.

38. Thus it is sufficiently known and understood by us, that the first Image must be given to the fierce Wrath, wherewith it might Quench its Thirst, and must go into Consumption, as into the essential Fire; whereas yet the Essence dies not, nor consumes.

39. For which cause, God has appointed a Day, wherein he will bring the Essence of the Old and first Adam, through the Fire, that it might be delivered or loosed from the vanity, viz. from the Longing of the Devil, and of the Anger of the eternal Nature.

40. And we understand further, that God has again brought into US the Life of his eternal Substance, when he moved himself, with his own Heart and Word, or Power of the divine Life in the Virginity which was shut up in Death, viz. in the true pure Love, and kindled that again; and introduced his heavenly Substantiality, with the pure Virginity, into the Virginity which was shut up in Death; and has out of the heavenly, and out of the Virginity that was shut up in Death and Anger, generated a new Image.

41. And then, Thirdly, we understand that this new Image must, through Death and the fierce Wrath of the Fire, be introduced again into the heavenly divine Substantiality, in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Holy Ternary.

42. For the earthly longing, which the Devil had possessed, must remain in the Fire, and was given to the Devil for Food; therein he should be a Prince, according to the fierce wrathful Source or Quality of the eternal Nature.

43. For the Devil is the Food of the fierce Wrath, and the fierce Wrath is the Food of the Devil.

44. Seeing then, that the Word of eternal Life has again moved itself in our cold Love and Virginity, which was shut up in Death, and assumed to himself our perished corrupted Virginity, and is become an Inward and Outward Man, and has introduced the Center, viz. our Soul's Fire, into his Love, therefore we know and acknowledge his Love and Virginity, introduced into us, for our own Virginity.

45. For his Love and Virginity has Esposued itself with our cold Love and Virginity, and given itself thereinto, that God and Man should be eternally one Person.

Question.

46. Now faith Reason; that was done in Mary, as in one only Person; but what shall become of me? Christ is not Generated or Born in Me also.

Answer.

47. O! our great Misery and Blindness, that we will not understand! How altogether has the earthly palpable Longing blinded us! and the Devil, through and with the abominable Antichrist in Babel, seduced us, that we will have no Sense at all!

48. Do but see, thou miserable and lamentable Reason, what thou art, even nothing else but a whorish Woman or Wife, as to God; how should I call thee otherwise, seeing thou art, as to the pure Virginity of God, treacherous and perfidious, or perjured?

49. Hast thou not Adam's Flesh, Soul, and Spirit, and art thou not proceeded from Adam? Art thou not sprung out of Adam's Water and Fire? Thou art undeniably Adam's Child; make thyself what thou wilt, thou must be Silent, thou swimmeest in Adam's Mystery, both in Life, and in Death.

50. And therefore is the Word of God become Man, in Adam's Virginity shut up in Death; the Heart of God has awakened itself in Adam's Virginity, and introduced it out of Death, through God's Fire, into the divine Source or Quality.

51. Christ is become Adam; not the divided, but the Virgin-like Adam, which Adam was before his Sleep.

52. He has introduced the perished corrupted in Death into God's Fire, and has brought forth the pure Virgin-like out of Death through the Fire; whose Son thou art, if thou dost not remain lying in Death, as rotten Wood which cannot Qualify or Operate, which in the Fire gives no Essence, but becomes dark or black Cinder or Ashes.

Question.

53. Now faith Reason; how comes it then, seeing I am Christ's Member and God's Child, that I do not find nor feel him?

Answer.

54. Here indeed sticks the Matter; dear defiled Piece of Wood, smell into thy Bosom, what is it thou stinkest of? Even of hellish Lust and Longing, viz. of bellish voluptuous Pleasure, Covetousness, Honour, and Power.

55. Hearken, these are the Devil's Garments; pluck off the Hide or Skin, and cast it away; put thy Desire into Christ's Life, Spirit, Flesh and Blood; Imagine thereinto, as thou hast imagined into the earthly Longing, and so thou wilt put on Christ in thy Body; and in thy Flesh and Blood, thou wilt become Christ; his becoming Man or Incarnation will instantly unite itself in thee, and thou wilt become born or generated in Christ.

56. For the Deity or the Word, which moved itself in Mary and became Man, that became Man also in like Manner in all Men that had died from Adam to that Time; who had given up and commended their Spirits into God, or into the Promised Messiah.

57. And it passed upon all those which were yet to be Born out of the corrupted perished Adam, who would but suffer that Word to awaken them, or rise in them, for the first Man comprehends also the last

58. Adam is the Stock, we all are his Branches, but Christ is become our Sap, Virtue, and Life.

59. Now if a Branch on the Tree withers, what can the Virtue, and the Sap of the Tree do to it? It gives its Virtue to all Branches, why then does not the Branch draw the Sap and Virtue into it?

60. The Fault is, that Man draws devilish Virtue or Power, and Essence or Sap, instead of divine Essence, into himself, and lets the Devil seduce him into Longing and Lust of earthly Desires.

61. For the Devil knows the Branch, which in the Country that was his is grown up to him, and still grows; and therefore, as he was a Murderer and Liar at the Beginning, so he is still, and infects or poisons Men.

62. Seeing he knows, that they are fallen to the outward Dominion of the Stars into his Magic Longing, therefore he is a continual Poisoner of the Complexions; and where he smells but a Crum that serves his turn, that he always sets before Man; and if a Man Imagines into it, he will suddenly infect him. ^a Or Constellations.

63. Therefore it is said: ^o Watch, Pray, be Sober, lead a temperate Life; for the Devil, your Adversary, goes about as a roaring Lion, and seeketh whom he may devour. ^o 1 Pet. 4. 7. and 5. 8.

64. Seek not so after Covetousness, Riches, Money, Goods, Might and Honour; for we are, in Christ, not of this World.

65. For therefore Christ ^p went to the Father, viz. into the divine Substance, that we should with our Hearts, Minds, Thoughts and Wills, follow after him: and so ^a he will be with us all the Days to the End of the World, but not in the Source or Quality of this World. ^p Joh. 16. 16. ^a Mat. 28. 20.

66. We should Press forth out of the Source or Quality of this World, out from the earthly Man, and give up our Wills into his Will, and introduce our Imagination and Longing into him; and so we in his Virginity, which he has stirred up again in us, become Impregnated, and Conceive the Word, which makes itself stirring in him, in our Virginity shut up in Death, and become Born in Christ in ourselves.

67. For as Death through Adam pressed upon us all, so the Word of Life out of or from Christ presses upon us all.

68. For the Moving of the Deity in the Incarnation of Christ, has continued moveable, and stands open to all Men; the deficiency is only in the Entering in, that Man suffers the Devil to detain him.

69. Christ needs not first depart from his Place, and enter into us, when we become new born in him; for the divine Substance, wherein he became born or generated, has in all Places and Corners the second Principle in it; and where a Man may say, there is God present, there a Man may say, the Incarnation of Christ is present also; for it became opened in Mary, and so qualifies or operates backward again even into Adam, and forward even into the last Man.

70. Now faith Reason: ^r Faith alone attains it: very right; in the right Faith the ^r Impregnation proceeds. ^r Rom. 3. 28;

71. For Faith is Spirit, and desires Substance, and that Substance is nevertheless in all Men, and that which is wanting is, that it apprehends the Spirit of Faith.

72. And if it be apprehended, then the fair Lily Blossoms out of it: not only a Spirit, but the Virgin-like Image, becomes generated or born out of Death into Life.

73. The Rod of Aaron, which is dry, sprouteth forth out of the dry Death, and takes its Body out of Death; the fair new Virgin-like Life out of the Half dead Virginity.

74. And this the dry Rod of Aaron signified; as also old Zachary; also Abraham with his old Sarah; who according to the outward World were all as it were dead, and no more fruitful.

75. But the Promise in the new Regeneration must do it, the Life must sprout out of Death.

76. The old Adam which became earthly must not be Lord; nor Eſau the first born, to whom formerly the Inheritance had belonged, if Adam had continued standing; but the second Adam, Christ, who sprouted forth through Death out of the first, must remain Lord.

77. Not the Man or the Woman shall possess the Kingdom of God, but the Virgin, which becomes generated or born out of the Man's and Woman's Death, must be Queen of Heaven.

78. One only Generation or Sex, not two; one only Tree, not many; Christ was the Stock, seeing he was the Root of the new Body which Sprouteth out of Death, which brought forth the dead Virgin again as a fair Branch out of Death.

79. And we all are his Sprouts, and stand all upon one Stock, which is Christ.

80. Thus we are Christ's Sprouts, his Branches, his Children, and God is the Father of us all, and also of Christ; ¹ In him we live and move and exist.

81. We bear Christ's Flesh and Blood in us, if we do but come to the New Birth; for we become regenerated in Christ's Spirit.

82. That in Mary became a living Man in the dead Humanity, without the touching of a Man, and that also becomes a Man in ourselves, in our dead Virginitie.

83. And henceforward that which is wanting is this, that we cast the Old Adam, viz. the Husk, into Death, that the earthly life's Quality or Source may depart from us, and so we go forth from the Devil, out of his Country.

84. And not only this; for the Old Adam must not be so totally cast away, but the Husk only, viz. the Shell, wherein the Seed or Kernel lies.

85. Out of the Old Essence must the New Man in God's Blessing sprout forth, as the Blade out of the Grain, or Corn, as Christ teaches us.

* Note,

86. * Therefore must the Essence be Injected into God's Anger; must be persecuted, afflicted, plagued, scorned, and lie under the Cross: for the New Man must sprout forth out of God's Anger Fire, he must be Tried in the Fire.

87. We were fallen home to the Anger's Essence; but the Love of God set itself in the Anger, and quenched the Anger with the Love in the Blood of the heavenly Substantiality, in the Death of Christ.

88. Thus the Anger retained the Husk, viz. the perished corrupt Man, understand the earthly Source or Quality, and the Love retained the New Man.

89. Therefore can no Man besides shed heavenly Blood, but the earthly Mortal Blood only; for Christ, who was conceived without Man and Woman, he only could do it; for in his heavenly Substantiality there was no earthly Blood.

90. But yet he shed his heavenly Blood under or among the earthly, that he might deliver us poor earthly Men from the fierce Wrath.

91. For his heavenly Blood must, in its Blood shedding, mix itself together with the earthly, that the Turba in the earthliness in us, which held us Captive, might be drowned; and that the Anger might be quenched with the Love of the heavenly Blood.

92. He gave his Life for us into Death, he went for us into Hell, into the Source or Quality of the Father's Fire, and out of Hell again into God; that he might break or destroy Death, and drown the Anger, and make way for us.

93. Therefore now the whole Matter depends on this, that we follow after him: he has indeed broke and destroyed Death, and quenched the Anger; yet if we will be ² conformable to his Image, then we must follow him into his Death, ³ take his Cross upon us, suffer Persecution, be Scorned, Despised, and Slain.

94. For the old Husk belongs to the Anger of God, it must be purged.

95. For it is not the old Man that must live in us, but the New: the old is to be given up to the Anger, for the new Man Blossoms out of the Anger, as the Light shines out of the Fire.

96. Thus the old Adam must be Wood or Fuel for the Fire, that the new may sprout forth in the Light of the Fire; for it must subsist in the Fire.

97. That is not Eternal which cannot subsist in the Fire, and which arises not out of the Fire.

98. Our Soul is out of God's Fire, and the Body out of the Light's Fire.

99. But understand always by the Body, an inanimate Substantiality, which is no Spirit, but an Essential Fire.

100. The ^u Spirit is much higher; for its Original is the Fire of the fierce Wrath, of the fierce wrathful Source or Quality, and its right Life or Body, which it has in itself, is the Light of the Meekness; that dwells in the Fire, and gives to the Fire its meek Sustenance or Body, else the Fire would not subsist; it will have somewhat to Consume. ^u The Spirit of the Soul.

101. For God the Father saith also; I am an angry, zealous, jealous or fierce wrathful God, a consuming Fire; and yet calls himself also ^x a merciful loving God, according to his Light, according to his ^x Deut. 4. 31.
Jer. 3. 12.

Hertz, } and therefore he saith, { Warm-hertz-ig.
Heart, } { Warm-heart-ed, or Merciful.

102. For in the Light the Water of eternal Life becomes Generated, which quenches the Fire and the fierce Anger of the Father.

The Thirteenth Chapter.

Of the twofold Man, viz. of the Old and New Adam, as of two Sorts of Men: How the Old and Evil behaves itself towards the New: What Religion, Faith and Life each of them exercises, and what each of them understands.

1.  LL whatsoever, concerning Christ, is in the old Adam taught, written, preached, or spoken, be it from Art, or how it will, it is out of or from Death, and has neither Understanding nor Life, for the Old Adam without Christ is dead.

2. It must be the New, which becomes generated out of the Virgin, that must do it; that only understands the Word of Regeneration, and ^y enters into the Sheepfold at the Door of Christ. ^y John 10. 2.

3. The Old Adam will climb up into it through Art and Searching or Speculation; it supposes Christ may sufficiently be apprehended in the Letter; that he who has learned Arts and Languages, and has read much, is called and Instituted by Christ to teach; the Spirit of God must speak through his Preaching, though, likely, he is but the perished corrupt Old Adam only.

4. But Christ saith; ^z They are Thieves and Murderers, and come only to Rob and Steal: ^z John 10. 1. he who goes not in at the Door of the Sheepfold, but Climbeth up some other Way, he is a Thief and a Murderer.

5. Further he saith; ^a I am the Door to the Sheep, he that enters in through me, shall ^a John 10 7. 9. find Pasture, and the Sheep will follow him: ^b for whosoever is not with me, is against me. ^b Mat 12 30.

6. A Teacher should and must be generated from, or born of Christ, or else he is a ^c Or a Living Thief and a Murderer; and stands there to Preach only for a ^c Bellyful; he does it for Money and Honour sake; he teaches his own Word, not God's Word.

7. But if he be regenerated out of Christ, then he teaches Christ's Word; for he stands in the Tree of Christ, and gives his Sound out of the Tree of Life wherein he stands.

8. Therefore it is, that there is so much strife and opposition upon Earth, because ^d 2 Tim. 4. 3. Men ^d heap up Teachers to themselves, according as their Ears do Itch, after what the Old Evil Adam delights to hear, after what serves to his climbing up, and fleshy pleasure and voluptuousness, what serves to his Might and Pomp.

9. O ye Devil's Teachers, how will you subsist before the Anger of God?

^e Jer. 23. 21. 10. Why do you teach, when you ^e are not sent from God? you are sent from Babel, from the Great Whore, from the Mother of the Great Whoredoms upon Earth; you are not born of the Virgin, but of the perfidious adulterous Woman.

^f Col. 2. 8. 11. For you not only ^f Teach human traditions and fictions, but you also persecute the Teachers that are sent, which are born of Christ.

^g 1 Cor. 12. 4. 12. You strive about Religion, and yet there is no strife at all in Religion: ^g There are manifold Gifts, yet it is but one Spirit that speaketh.

13. As a Tree has many Branches, and the fruit many several Forms, and one does not look altogether like another; also as the Earth bears manifold herbs and blossoms, and the Earth is the only Mother to them; thus it is also with those who speak out of, or from God's Spirit.

14. Every one speaketh out of the Wonders of his Gifts, yet their Tree and Soil upon which they stand, is Christ in God.

15. And you Spirit-Binders will not endure that, you will stop the Mouth of your Christ, whom yet yourselves Teach with your earthly Tongue, unknown, from the pulpit, and bind him to your Laws.

16. O! alas! the true Church of Christ has no Law: Christ is the Temple or Church, into which we must enter.

17. The Heaps of stone make no New Men; but the Temple, Christ, wherein God's Spirit teaches, that awakens and raises up the half dead Image, that it begins to sprout forth.

18. They avail all alike: God asketh not after Art, nor fine Eloquent Expressions: but whosoever cometh to him, he will not thrust him away or reject him.

^h 1 Tim. 1. 15. 19. ^h Christ is come into this world, to call and save poor sinners. And Isaiab saith, ⁱ Isai. 42. 19. ⁱ Who is so simple as my Servant?

20. Therefore the wit and wisdom of this World does it not, it makes only Pride and Puff-up Reason, it will fly out aloft, and desires to rule and domineer.

^j Matt. 10. 37. ^k Luke 14. 26. 21. But Christ saith; ^k He that leaveth not House and Land, Goods, Money, Wife, and Child for my name's sake, is not worthy of me. All whatsoever is in this world must not be so loved, as the dear highly precious Name JESUS.

22. For all whatsoever this World hath, is Earthly; but the Name JESUS is heavenly; and out of the Name JESUS we must become Regenerated out of the Virgin.

^l Rev. 12. 1. 5. 23. Therefore the Child of the Virgin stands against the Old Adam, he presents or shows forth himself, with or by desires of temporal pleasures and voluptuousness, honour, power, might, and authority, and is a fierce wrathful Dragon, which only wills to devour, as the Revelation of John represents him to be a cruel horrible Dragon.

^m Six heavenly and six Earthly. See the Threefold Life, chap. 9. verse 73. 24. ^l The Virgin Child stands upon the Moon. and wears a Crown with ^m Twelve Stars; for it treads the Earthly, viz. the Moon, under its feet: It is sprouted out from the Earthly Moon, as a Blossom out of the Earth, and therefore the Virgin-like Image stands upon the Moon.

25. ^a Against which, the fierce wrathful Dragon casts forth his streams of Water, and ^b Rev. 12. 15. would fain continually drown the Virgin-like Image; ^c but the Earth cometh to help the ^d Rev. 12. 16. Woman, and swallows up the stream and flood of water, and bringeth the Woman into Agypt:

26. That is, the Virgin like Image must suffer itself to be put into Agypt, into bondage and servitude; and the Earth, viz. the fierce wrath of God, covers the Virgin-like Image, it devours the streams of the Dragon.

27. Although the Dragon with his abominations overwhelms the Virgin-like Image, and reproaches, slanders, and despises it, yet that hurts not the Virgin's Child; for the fierce wrath takes the reproach and slander, which is cast forth upon the Child, to itself; for the Earth always signifies the fierce wrath of God.

28. Thus the Virgin's Child standeth upon the Earth, as upon the Earthly Moon, and must continually fly into Agypt before the Dragon; it must here be only under the Bondage and Servitude of Pharaoh.

29. But it stands upon the Moon, not under the Moon; the Prince Joshua, or JESUS, brings it through Jordan into Jerusalem: it must only through Death go into Jerusalem, and leave the Moon.

30. It is but a Guest in this World, a Stranger and Pilgrim; it must wander through the Dragon's Country; and when the Dragon casteth forth his streams upon it, it must bow down and pass under the Cross; and then the Anger of God receives the Dragon's fire to it.

31. It is known to us, that the Old Adam knows and understands Nothing of the New; it understands all things in an Earthly manner: it knows not where nor what God is; it flatters itself, and ascribes honesty and holiness to it.

32. It supposes it serves God, and yet serves but the Old Dragon; it offers Sacrifice, and yet its heart hangs to the Dragon; it will suddenly be honest, and with the Earthliness go into heaven.

33. And yet it despises the Children of Heaven, whereby it declares that it is a stranger in Heaven; it is only a Lord upon Earth, and Devil in Hell.

34. Among such Thorns and Thistles must God's Children grow; they are not known in this World, for the Anger of God covers them.

35. A Child of God also ^{} knows not himself aright; he sees only the Old Adam, ^{} Note. which hangs to him, which will always drown the Virgin-child.

36. But if the Virgin-child conceives a glimpse in the ^p Holy Ternary, then it knows ^p The Mercy of God, viz. the Holy Earth, the Eternal substantiality, the Body of Christ. itself; when the noble fair Garland or Crown of Victory is set upon it, there must the Old Adam first look back, and knows not what is done to him.

37. He is indeed very joyful like one that dances to an Instrument of Musick; when that ceases sounding, his Joy has an End, and he remains to be the Old Adam; for he belongs to the Earth, and not to the Angelical World.

38. So soon as it comes so far with a Man, that the virgin-like Image begins to sprout forth out of the Old Adam, so that a Man gives up his Soul and Spirit into the Obedience of God, then the strife with him begins; then the Old Adam in the Anger of God strives with the New Adam.

39. The Old will be Lord in flesh and blood; also the Devil cannot endure the virgin-like Branch, for he dares not to touch it: but the Old Adam may touch, infect, and possess it.

40. Because his own dwelling in the Darkness of the Abyss pleases him not, therefore he would fain dwell in Man, for he is an Enemy to God, and has ^q without Man ^q Extra, no authority.

41. Therefore he possesses Man, and leads him according to his pleasure into the Anger and fierce wrath of God, wherewith he scorns God's Love and Meekness; for he supposes still, seeing he is a fierce wrathful fire-source or quality, that he is higher than the Humility, seeing he can go so terribly.

* Note.

42. But as he dares not touch the virgin-like Branch, therefore he uses sublime subtle craft, knavery and wickedness; and destroys it, so that it is * not known or acknowledged in this world: else too-many such little branches might grow in his supposed Country, for he is wrath and an Enemy to them, he brings his proud Ministers or Officers, and Plagues, with scorn, upon that Man, so that he is persecuted, despised, and held for a Fool.

43. And this he does through the Reason-learned wise world, through those who call themselves Shepherds or Pastors of Christ, upon whom the world looks; that so the Holy Lily Branch, may not be known: else Men might observe it, and too many such Branches might grow for him; and then he should lose his Dominion among Men.

44. But the Noble Lily Twig or Branch grows in Patience and Meekness, and takes its essence, power and smell out of the soil of God, as also out of Christ's Incarnation; for Christ's Spirit is its Essence; God's Substance is its Body.

45. Not out of any strange or heterogeneous property, but out of its own included and shut-up in Death, and in Christ's iprouing Essence grows the virgin-like Lily Twig or Branch: It seeks not nor desires the fairness or excellency of this world, but of the Angelical world.

46. For it also grows, not in this world in the Third Principle, but in the Second Principle in the Paradistical world; and therefore there is great strife in flesh and blood in the outward Reason.

* Note.

47. * The Old Adam knows not the New, and perceives that it withstands and opposes him; it wills not what the Old wills; it continually leads the Old to abstinence; which causes woe to the Old: The Old wills only to have pleasure, voluptuousness and temporal honour; it cannot endure the Cross and Contempt.

* Mahlzeichen.

† Rom. 8. 29.

48. But the New is well pleased, that it should bear the Marks † or Prints of the wounds of Christ, † That it should become conformable to the Image of Christ.

49. Therefore the Old goes often very mournfully about, when it sees it must be a fool, and yet knows not how it befalls him, for he knows not God's will.

50. He has only the will of this World; what there has a flattering appearance, he wills to have that; he would fain be Lord continually, before whom Men must bow or stoop.

51. But the New bows itself before its God, and desires nothing, also wills nothing, but it pants after its God, as a Child after its Mother; it casts itself into the Bosom of its Mother, and gives its body up to its heavenly Mother into the Spirit of Christ.

52. It desires the food and drink of its Eternal Mother, and it eats in the bosom of the Mother, as a child in the body or womb of the Mother eats of its Mother.

53. For so long as it is covered in the Old Adam, so long it is yet in the Incarnation; but when the Old dies, then the New becomes generated or born out of the Old.

54. It leaves the Vessel, wherein it lay, and became a virgin-like child to the Earth, and to the Judgment of God, but it becomes born or brought forth as a bloffom in the Kingdom of God.

† Note.

Rev. 14. 13.

55. And then when the Day of Restoration shall come, all his † Works which he has wrought that are Good, within the Old Adam, shall follow after him; and the Evil or Malignity of the Old Adam shall be burnt up in God's fire, and be given to the Devil for food.

56. Now saith Reason, seeing the New Man in this world, in the Old, is only in the Incarnation, then it is not perfect.

57. This is no otherwise than as with a child, where the seed with two Tinctures, viz. the Masculine and Feminine, is sown, the one in the other, and a Child comes out of it.

58. * For as soon as a Man converts and turns himself to God "with heart, mind, thoughts and will, and goes out from his wicked ways, and gives himself up wholly, sincerely and earnestly into God, then, in the fire of the soul in the old perished or corrupted Image, the Impregnation begins.

* Note.
" Matt. 22. 37.
Luke 18. 27.

59. And the Soul apprehends in itself the Word that moved itself in Mary, in the Center of the Holy Trinity, which in Mary, with the modest highly blessed heavenly Virgin, the wisdom of God, gave in itself into the half dead Virgin, and became a True Man.

60. That very Word which in Mary, in the Center of the Holy Trinity, moved, or ruined itself, which united or espoused itself with the half dead shut-up virginity, apprehends the Soul's Fire; and then instantly in the Soul's Image, viz. in the Soul's Light, in the Meekness, viz. in the shut-up virgin-like wisdom, the Impregnation begins.

61. For Man's Love-Tincture apprehends God's Love-Tincture; and the Seed is sown in the Holy Spirit in the Soul's Image; as in our Book of the Threefold Life of Man is written at large.

62. Now behold! when the virgin-like Marks, in God's Love, appear, then may this twig or branch be born; for in God all is perfect.

63. But seeing it sticks covered in the Old Adam, and stands only as it were in the Essence as a seed, therefore there is great danger concerning it; for many attain this Twig or Branch first, at their last End.

64. And though indeed he has brought it along with him out of his Mother's body or womb, yet it becomes perished or corrupt, and broken, and made earthly by many.

65. Thus it goes also with the poor sinner, when he repents, but afterwards becomes an Evil Man; it goes with him as befell Adam, who was a fair glorious Image, Created and highly Enlightened from God.

66. But when he suffered Lust to overcome him, he became Earthly, and his fair Image became captivated in the Earthly source or quality in the Anger of God; and thus it goes continually.

67. But this we say, according as we have received illumination in the Grace of God, and have wrestled much for the Garland, that they that in the earnest striving continue stedfast or constant, till their Twig or Branch gets a Bud or little Blossom, their Twig or Branch will not easily be broken in one or more Storms; for that which is weak, has also a weak life.

68. We speak not thus as concerning the Deity; but Naturally it is thus, and indeed also all is done Naturally; for the Eternal has also its Nature, and the one does but proceed out of the other.

69. If this world had not been poisoned by the Malignity and fierce Wrath of the Devil, then Adam had continued in this world in Paradise, and there would have been no such fierce wrath in the Stars and Elements.

70. For the Devil was a King and Great Lord in the Place of this world, and he has awakened the fierce wrath.

71. God therefore created the Heaven out of the midst of the Waters, that the fiery Nature, viz. the fiery Firmament, might be captivated with the water-heaven, that its fierce wrath might be quenched.

72. Else, if the water should be gone or pass away, Men would plainly see, what would be in this world, nothing else but a cold stern harsh astringent and fery burning; yet only Dark, for there could be no Light; for the Light subsists merely in the Meekness: so there can also be no shining fire, except it has meek substantiality.

73. Therefore it is known to US, that God has turned the heavenly substantiality into water, which was done Naturally.

74. When God the Father moved himself, and the Devil fell, who would be a Fire-Lord over the Meekness, then there was such a Bolt thrust in before his poisoned Malignity; so that now he is God's Ape or Mimic, and not Lord, a raver and fulfiller in the Anger-source or quality.

75. Therefore seeing we know this, that we are environed with the Anger, we should have a care of ourselves, and not so slightly and meanly Esteem ourselves; for we are not only from this world, but also, in like manner, from the divine World, which stands hidden in this world, and is near us.

76. We can live and be in Three Worlds at once, if we sprout forth with the virgin-like Image out of the Evil life.

77. For we live in the first Principle, in the fire-world in the fire, as to the Essential-soul, viz. as to the fire-source or quality in the Center of Nature of Eternity.

78. And then with a right pure Virgin Image, we live in the Light-flaming Paradiscal world, though in the place of this world the same is not manifest, yet in the Virgin-Image in the Holy Spirit, and in the word that dwells in the virgin-like Image, it becomes known.

79. And then, Thirdly, with the Old Adam, we live in this corrupted sickly World with the Devil in his kindled Sickness or Longing: Therefore it is said, * Be watchful, or circumspect.

80. Christ saith, † Be simple as Doves, and subtle as Serpents, take heed to your selves.

81. In God's Kingdom we need no subtlety, we are only Children in the bosom of the Mother; but in this World we must be watchful, or circumspect, or look to ourselves.

82. We carry the noble Treasure in an earthly Vessel; it is soon effected to lose God, and the Kingdom of Heaven, which after this time is no more to be attained.

83. We are here in the soil and in the seed: We stand here in the growing, if it falls out that the Stalk be once broken, yet the root is there still, so that another stalk may grow.

84. Here the Door of Grace stands open to Man; there is no Sinner so great, but if he converts, he may be regenerated, or new-born out of the evil malignity.

85. But whosoever wilfully and obstinately casts his root into the Devil's mire, and as to his growing or sprouting out again, despairs or * resolves against it; who will help him, that will not himself be helped? Also God will not have him, who himself will not.

86. But if in his will he converts to God, then God will have him; for he who willeth in God's Anger, him will God's Anger have; but he who willeth in the Love, him will God's Love have.

87. Paul saith, † To whom you give yourselves as Servants in Obedience; either of sin to Death, or of the Obedience of God to Righteousness: His servants ye are.

88. The wicked is to God an acceptable † favour in the Anger, and the Holy or Saint is an acceptable favour in his Love.

89. But can a Man make of himself what he will? He has both before him the Fire and the Light. Will he be an Angel in the Light? then God's Spirit in Christ helpeth him to the Society of the Angelical Choir.

90. † But will he be a Devil in Fire? then God's Anger and fierce wrath helps him, and draws him into the Abyss to the Devil: He gets his † Ascendant, which he has a Longing or Lust unto.

* Engel'schaar.
† Note, ye dispute about Fire-will.

91. But if he breaks the first Longing or Lust, and enters into another, then he gets another ^d Ascendant, but the first hangs exceedingly to him, it will continually to have him again. ^d Or mind, inclination, or propensity.

92. Therefore must the noble Grain often stand in great pinchings, it must suffer itself to be pricked with Thorns, for ^e the Serpent continually stings the Woman's seed, viz. the Virgin-child in the Heel; the sting of the Serpent sticks in the Old Adam, it continually stings the Virgin-child in the Mother's Body or ^{*} Womb, in the Heel. ^e Gen. 3. 15. ^{*} Note.

93. Therefore the life in this world is with us poor captive Men a valley of Misery, full of Anguish, Crosses, Cares, sorrow and troubles: We are here strange Guests, and are in the Path of our Pilgrimage.

94. We must wander through great dismal wild desert Corners, and are environed with evil Beasts, with Adders, Serpents, Wolves, and very horrible Beasts, and the [†] most evil Beast we carry in our Bosom. [†] Note.

95. Our fair little Virgin stands in that evil desert Den or Stable of Beasts, as a lodging.

96. But we know and say this with good ground, that when the Noble Twig or Branch grows and becomes strong, then in that Man the Old Adam must be Servant, must go behind, and often do what it wills not: He must often suffer the Cross, Scorn, Reproach, and Death, and that he does not willingly.

97. But the Virgin-like Image in Christ subdues him, for it will readily and with Joy follow after Christ its Bridegroom, and be conformable to him in the Cross and Tribulation.

98. And we may well say this also, that indeed none becomes crowned with the Virgin-like ^f Crown, which the Woman, in the Revelation of John, wears with Twelve Stars, ^f Rev. 12. 1. viz. with the six Spirits of Nature heavenly, and with the six Spirits Earthly, unless he stands in the streams of the Dragon, and flies along into Ægypt, viz. under the Cross in the Plagues of Ægypt.

99. ^{} He must ^{} bear Christ's Cross, and put on Christ's Thorny Crown, suffer himself to be mocked, abused and scorned, if he will put on Christ's and the Virgin's Crown; he must first bear the Thorny Crown, if he will put on the Heavenly. ^{*} Note. [‡] Luke 14. 17.

100. We present to the enlightened still a secret Arcanum to be known, that when the Pearl becomes sown, he then first puts on the Crown in the Holy Ternary, with very great Joy and Honour before God's Angels and all ^{*} holy Virgins, and there is very great Joy therein. ^{*} Note.

101. But that Crown hideth itself again; for in that Place God becomes Man: How then can there be but great Joy?

102. The Old Adam dances for Company, but as an Ass after the Harp; but the Crown is laid by in the Incarnation.

103. Wilt thou now be a Conqueror? then thou must in the footsteps of Christ fight with the Old Ass, also against the Devil.

104. If thou overcomest, and wilt be acknowledged and received for a victorious Child of God, then will the Woman's Crown with the Twelve Stars be set upon thee, thou shalt wear that, till the Virgin be born out of the Woman out of thy Death, or with thy Death, that shall put on the [†] Threefold Crown of the great Honour and Glory in [†] Note. the Holy Ternary.

105. For while the Virgin-like Image lies yet shut up in the Old Adam, it attains not the Angel's Crown, for it stands yet in great danger and hazard.

106. But when it is born, with the dying of the Old Adam, and crept forth out of the husk or shell, then it is an Angel, and can perish ^{*} no more, and then the right Crown, ^{*} Note. laid by wherein God became Man, will be set upon it.

Or Ensign.

107. But it retains the Crown of Twelve Stars also for an eternal ^h Mark, for it shall not be forgotten in Eternity, that God in the Earthly Woman has again unshut the Virginity, and is become Man.

108. The six Earthly Marks shall stand for an Eternal Wonder, and be an Eternal Song of Praise, that God has delivered us out of Necessity and Death.

109. And the six heavenly Marks shall be our Crown and Honour or Glory, that we with the Heavenly have overcome the Earthly.

110. Thus shall the Marks of Victory remain standing in Eternity, in which it shall be known, what God has had to do with the Humanity, and how Man is the greatest Wonder in Heaven, at which the Angels highly rejoice.

The Fourteenth Chapter.

Of the New Regeneration: In what Substance, Essence and Property, the New Regeneration, viz. the Virgin-child stands; while it yet sticks in the Old Adam.

1.  SEEING we swim in this miserable Sea, in this Earthly flesh and blood, and are come to be of an Earthly Source or Quality, wherein we lie shut up in the dimness in the glimmering, therefore let not the noble Mind cease to search concerning its true native Country, into which it is to go.

ⁱ The New Man.

2. It continually saith, Where is thy God, or when shall it come to pass that I may see the Countenance of God? Where is my noble Pearl? Where is the Virgin's Child? I see it not yet. How is it with me, that I am so anxious about that which yet I cannot see?

3. I find indeed the great longing and desire after it; but cannot see where my heart might rest.

4. I am yet continually as a Woman, which would fain bring forth: How fain would I see my fruit which is promised me from my God.

^k Psal. 19. 2.

5. There is a continual longing for the Birth: ^k One day calleth another, the Morning to the Evening, and the Night to the Day again; and hopes in the Abstinence for the time when once the clear Morning Star will arise, which will give rest to the Mind.

6. And it is with it as with a Woman that labours for the Birth, that continually hopes for the discovery, and waits for it with longing and groaning.

7. Thus, my beloved Children of God, it goes with us: We suppose that we are far off from it; yet thus we stand in the Birth: We generate thus in great Groaning and Anguish, and know not the Seed which we generate, for it lies shut up.

8. We generate not as to this World; how shall we then see the fruit with the Eyes of this World? Neither does the fruit belong to this World.

9. But seeing we have attained the true knowledge of this Matter, not as to the outward Man, but as to the Inward, therefore we will pourtray it in a similitude for the Reader's sake, and for our refreshment.

10. If we would consider ourselves, how we are Twofold, with a Twofold Mind, Thoughts, Senses and Will, we cannot better come to the knowledge thereof, than by considering the Creature or Creation.

11. We see a rude Stone lying on the Ground, and in many of them there is the best Gold, and we see plainly how the Gold glisters in the Stone, but the Stone is inanimate, and knows not that it has such noble precious Gold in it.

12. So also we: We are Earthly Sulphur, but we have a Heavenly Sulphur in the Earthly, wherein each is its own by itself.

13. Indeed, during this life-time, they are one among another, but they qualify or operate not together, one with the other, the one is the * Container and dwelling-house * Note. of the other.

14. As we see in Gold, that the rude drossy Stone is not the Gold, but is only its receptacle that contains it; also its rude drossiness does not afford the Gold, but the Tinctura solis, or Tincture of Sol affords it in the rude Stone.

15. But the rude Stone is the Mother, and Sol is the Father; for Sol impregnates the rude Stone, because it has the Center of Nature, out of which Sol has its Original.

16. If we would go on into the Center, we would set it down, but seeing it is sufficiently explained in the other writings, we let it alone here.

17. But so it is also with Men, the Earthly Man is signified by the rude drossy Stone: Sol signifies the Word which became Man, which impregnates the corrupted perished Man.

18. The cause is this: The corrupted perished Man is indeed Earthly, he hath the Eternal Center of Nature, he longs after God's¹ Sol, for in his Creation God's Sol was taken along to his Substance.

19. But now the rude Stone has overgrown the Gold, and has swallowed it up into itself, so that the Gold is intermixed with the rude drossy Sulphur, and cannot escape the rude Sulphur, unless it be cleansed in the fire, so that the rude drossiness be melted away, and then Sol remains alone.

20. Understand this, of dying and consuming; therein the rude drossy Earthly Flesh is melted away, and then the Virgin-like spiritual flesh remains alone.

21. Understand us right, what we mean: We speak the precious and sublime Truth, as we know and understand it.

22. The new Man is not only a Spirit, he is even Flesh and Blood, as the Gold in the Stone is not only Spirit, it has a Body, but not such a one as the rude drossy Stone is, but a Body which subsists in the Center of Nature in the Fire.

23. Whose Body the Fire cannot consume, and that because the Gold has another Principle.

24. Dost thou know this, thou Earthly Man? No; it justly remains mute in silence, for the Earth is not worthy of the Gold, though indeed it carries it, and also generates it.

25. So also the Earthly Man is not worthy of the Jewel, which he carries; and though indeed he helps to generate it, yet he is but dark or dusky Earth, in respect of the Virgin Child born of God.

26. And as the Gold has a true Body, which lies hidden and captive in the rude drossy Stone, so also the Virgin-like Tincture in the Earthly Man has a true real Heavenly divine Body in Flesh and Blood.

27. But not in such Flesh and Blood as the Earthly: It can subsist in the Fire, it goes through Stone and Wood, and is not apprehended, as the Gold presses through the rude Stone and breaks it not, neither does it break or destroy itself.

28. Thus it is also with the Earthly Man; when he conceives the Word of Life which became Man in Christ, then he conceives it in the perished Sulphur of his Flesh and Blood, in the Virgin-like Center which was shut up in Death, wherein Adam was a Vir- gin-like Image, wherein the wild Earth involved his Gold of the clear divine Substantiality; so that the heavenly must stand in Death in the Center of the Fire, in that very Center.

29. And in that very Center the Word of Life moved itself, which became Man in Mary, and therein the Substantiality, shut up in Death, attained a living Tincture.

• Note.

30. And then the noble Gold, viz. the heavenly Substantiality in Death, began to sprout forth, and had instantly in itself the Holy Spirit in the Word of Life, which * there proceeds from the Father and the Son, and makes the Wisdom, viz. the heavenly Virgin, as a Looking-Glass of the express Image of the Deity, as a pure Sulphur for itself, a pure Flesh and Blood wherein it dwells.

31. Not Earthly Essence, but divine Essence, out of the heavenly Substantiality.

• Note, John
6. 54.

32. This is ^m the true real Flesh and Blood of Christ; for it grows in Christ's Spirit in the Word of Life, which became Man, which broke, or destroyed Death, wherein the divine Tincture sprouted again, and generated Substance out of itself.

33. For all is generated and proceeded out of God's desiring; but if God be a fire and also a Light, then it is sufficiently knowable to us, out of what every thing is proceeded.

34. Yet we cannot by any means say otherwise, then that out of the good and richly amiable, Good is proceeded.

• Note.

35. For a good-desiring will conceives in its * Imagination its like; it makes that through the hunger of its desiring, like itself.

• Or longed.

36. Thus it is capable of being known by us, that seeing the Deity has ⁿ pleased to have a Looking-Glass, an Image of its like; that the divine longing Pleasure, or Placet, would also in its impregnating have the good and most lovely to be generated in its desirous Will, a right Similitude according to the Good, according to the clear bright Deity.

37. But that the Earthly has intermixed itself therewith, that is the fault of the desirous Anger, viz. of the Fire, the fault of the Devil, who with his Imagination kindled it.

* Note.

38. Thus also it is highly known to us, that God * would not forsake his own, his very best and loveliest of all, which he created to his likenefs, into a Creaturely Substance.

39. He rather became himself such a one as he had created, that he might generate or bring forth the perished or corrupted out of perdition or corruption again, and put or change it into the best, wherein he might eternally dwell.

40. And we say with good ground, that God himself dwells truly subsisting in the New Man, not through a Glimpse or a strange Glance or Appearance, but Substantiality, yet in his own Principle.

41. The outward Man touches or apprehends him not.

† Note.

42. Also the Flesh and Blood of the New Man † is not God: It is heavenly Substantiality: God is Spirit: God does not perish or corrupt, though plainly the Substance perishes or corrupts: Thus God remains in himself.

43. He requires no going away, for he uses also no going or entering in.

44. But he manifests himself in Flesh and Blood; it is his longing pleasure to possess a similitude.

45. And thus, if we rightly know ourselves, and go according to it, we then find that Man, understand the whole Man, is a right similitude of, or according to God.

46. For according to the Earthly Life and Body, he is of, or from this World; and according to the Virgin-like Life and Body, he is from heaven.

47. For the Virgin-like Essence has heavenly Tincture, and makes heavenly Flesh, in which God dwells.

48. As the Gold in the Stone has another Tincture than the rude drossy Stone, and that very Tincture has another Body: Every Body comes to be out of its own Tincture.

49. As therefore we know that the Earth is become generated from the fierce Wrath out of the Center of the harsh astringent hellish Fire, viz. of the cold Fire, out of the Sulphur of the stern severity in the Anguish to Fire, as is mentioned in the Book of the Three Principles.

50. Thus also a good Corpus, or Body, comes out of a Good Essence, for the Essence * makes the Life, and yet itself is not the Life: The Life arises in the Principle as in the Fire, be it in the cold or in the hot, or in the light Fire, each is a Principle of its own, and yet is not separated. * Note.

51. Thus we will now with good ground of Truth speak and say, concerning the Humanity, with clear, plain, and unvailed Words, not from Supposition or Opinion, but from our own true Knowledge in the illumination given us from God.

52. First, that the New regenerate Man, which lies bidden in the Old, as the Gold in the Stone, has a heavenly Tincture, and has divine heavenly flesh and blood on it.

53. And that the Spirit of that Flesh is no strange Spirit, but its own, generated out of its own Essence.

54. Secondly, And then we also clearly know and say, that the Word which in Mary became Man, is the first ground to the beginning Tincture in the Sulphur, and plainly know, that Christ's Spirit which fills Heaven in all Places, dwells in that very Tincture.

55. Thirdly, We manifestly know that this heavenly Flesh is Christ's Flesh, in which the Holy Trinity dwells undivided.

56. Fourthly, We clearly know, that it is possible that that very flesh and blood, in the time of the Old Adam, can through Imagination become perished or corrupted again, as came to pass in Adam.

57. Fifthly, We say that the Deity, in the perishing or corrupting, does not depart, or go away; also is touched with no Evil.

58. For that which loses the Love of God, that falls home to the Anger; what falls out from the Light, that catches the fire; and the Spirit of God remains to itself unperished, or uncorrupt.

59. Sixthly, That the possibility to the New Birth is in all Men, else God were divided, and not in one Place as he is in another.

60. And herein we exactly know that Man is drawn by the Fire and the Light; to which he inclines with the Beam of the Balance, into that he falls; and yet he may in his life-time raise up the Tongue of his Angle or Beam aloft again.

61. Also, that the holy clear Deity willeth no Evil, it also willeth no Devil, it has desired none, much less to have any Man be in Hell in the Anger of God.

62. But seeing there is no Light without Fire, therefore it is sufficiently known to us, how the Devil has through Imagination gazed or reflected himself on the Anger-fire; as also all Men that will become damned, they will not suffer themselves to be remedied, but they themselves fulfill the greedy Fire-source or quality; they suffer themselves to be drawn, and yet can well stand.

63. Seventhly, We say, that the True Temple, wherein the Holy Ghost preaches, is in the New Birth.

64. That all is dead, crooked, and lame, which teaches not out of God's Spirit.

65. That the Holy Spirit mixes not itself in the sound of the mouth of the wicked: That no wicked Man is Christ's Shepherd.

66. For, although in the Holy, or Saints, the Clock comes to be struck with, or by the voice of the wicked, it would indeed be done by the Cry of a Beast, if its noise were intelligible, and did sound the most precious Name of God.

67. For as soon as the Name of God is mentioned, and gives a sound, then instantly the other sound catches it, viz. in that place wherein it is sounded, as in the holy Soul.

68. But no wicked Person awakens or raises up another that is wicked out of Death, for that cannot be, they are both in the Anger of God, and lie yet shut up in Death.

69. Had we ourselves been able to have risen up out of Death, then there had been no Necessity for God's heart to have become Man.

* Note.

70. Therefore we say with certain ground, * that only that very Word which there is become Man, awakens or raises up the poor sinner out of his Death, and generates him to Repentance, and to a new Life.

† Note.

71. Therefore all Preachers or Criers that are wicked, or ungodly, are not profitable in the Temple of Christ; but those that have Christ's spirit, † they are his Shepherds.

72. We clearly know and say, that all Teachers which give out themselves for Christ's Servants, and Church Ministers, and that for their Belly's and Honour sake, and yet are unregenerate, are the Antichrist, and the Woman in the Revelation of John upon the Dragon.

73. We say that all Tyranny and self-usurped Power and Authority, wherewith the miserable are squeezed, oppressed, drunk up, vexed and tormented, is that abominable horrible cruel Beast, upon which Antichrist rides.

* Note.

74. We know and say, that the * Time is near, and the Day dawns or breaks, where-
 • Rev. 19. 20. in ° this evil Beast, with the Whore, shall go into the Abyss.

Amen. Hallelujah. Amen.

PART II. Of Christ's Suffering, Dying, Death, and Resurrection; and how we must enter into Christ's Suffering, Dying, and Death, and arise with and through him, out of his Death, and become conformable to his Image, and live eternally in him.

The First Chapter.

Of the eternal Beginning, and of the eternal End.

Reason's Objection.

1.  Utward Reason saith; Was it not sufficient that God became Man in US? for what reason must Christ suffer and die?
 2. Could not God then thus introduce Man into Heaven with the New Birth? Is not God Omnipotent enough to do what he will?
 3. What Pleasure has God in Death and dying; that he has not only suffered his Son to die on the Cross, but that we all must die also?
4. If then God has by the dying of his Son redeemed us, and paid a Ransom for us, why then must we also die and perish, or be consumed? Thus Reason runs on.

Answer.

5. To this Looking-Glass we will have the Antichrist, who calls himself Christ's Minister, Pastor, or Shepherd, invited for a Guest; and all the high Schools or Universities of this World, with their Disputations and Laws; as also all the Children of Christ, who bear Christ's Cross; they shall all see the true Ground.

6. Not with this intention, to condemn any in his Ignorance, but for the true Teaching and Instruction, that every one might seek and find himself.

7. For it will be a very earnest Matter, and concerns Man, it costs Body and Soul.

8. He ought not at all to slight it; for he that has this Knowledge given him, he has prepared his Trumpet; * it concerns all Mankind; ^a every one should trim his Lamp.
9. There will be a great Two-fold King come out of two Gates; he is but one only, and yet two; he has ^b Fire and Light; he draws in both, on Earth and also in Heaven: let this be a Wonder to thee.
10. Dear Children of Christ, when we consider of Death, how we must go through Death into Life, then we find altogether another kind of Life, which comes out of Death.
11. And we find Instantly, why Christ must have died; and why we must also die in Christ's Death, and rise again in him; and with him, and through him, enter into God's Kingdom.
12. If now we would find this, we must then consider the eternity in the Ground and Abyss, else there is no finding of it; we must only find it where it is.
13. For out of the eternal Ground have we, with the Image of God, our Original, viz. with the Soul and its Image.
14. But we are become introduced into the Temporary and Corruptible, viz. into the Source or Quality thereof.
15. But now the eternity, viz. the Abyss, is a Liberty ^c without Source or Quality, and therefore we must go again into the Liberty through dying.
16. Yet we cannot say, that there is no Life therein; it is the right Life, which there subsists eternally without Source or Quality.
17. And we give you it in a true real Similitude to meditate and consider of; which indeed is a Similitude according to the Kingdom of this World; but if we ^d take the divine World to it, or along with it, then it is the Substance itself.
18. You know that our Life consists in Fire, for without warmth we live not.
19. Now the Fire has its own Center, its own Maker in its Circle, or Circumference and Extent, viz. the seven Forms or Spirits of Nature.
20. And yet only the first four Forms are acknowledged and accounted to be Nature, viz. the springing Source or Quality, wherein the Fire becomes awakened and struck up, that there is a Principle and Life's Circle or Center there, wherein the ^e Matter of the burning makes itself, in the Spirits or Forms, and is also continually consumed in the Fire.
21. And the Fire gives forth, out of the Consumptibility, another that is better than the first, which makes the Fire.
22. For the Fire kills or mortifies and devours the Substance which the Fire itself makes; understand the Essential Fire, in the Forms to Fire: it consumes that, and gives out of the Death a much nobler and better, which it cannot Consume.
23. And that is demonstrated to you in Fire and Light; which is not only the true Similitude, but it is the Substance itself; only a Man is to distinguish the Principles; it is indeed all a Fire, but distinguishes itself according to the Source or Quality.
24. If we will present this to be understood, it is necessary that we mention the Fire's Original; but seeing we have elsewhere, viz. in the Book of the three Principles, and in others described it at large, with all Circumstances, therefore here we will set down a brief Description, and direct the Reader to the other Writings, if he would thoroughly search out the seven Forms of Nature.
25. The Fire has especially three Forms in it to the Center; and the fourth Form is the Fire itself, and gives the Principle, viz. the Life, together with the Spirit; for in the first three Forms there is no right Spirit, they are only Essences:
26. Viz. First, the harsh Astringency, that is the desirous Will; that is the first and chiefest Form.

* Note.

^a Matt. 25. 7.^b Punishment and Grace.^c Extra, without or beyond.^d Or apply in our Mind and Thoughts.^e See the twelfth Question of the Soul. Verses 19, 20, and 22.

27. Secondly, the bitter Stinging, that is the second Form, a Cause of the Essences.

28. Thirdly, after that, the Anguish, viz. the Circle or Center of Life, the turning-Wheel, which catches or apprehends the Senses or Thoughts, viz. the bitter Essences, in itself, and swallows them up as it were into Death, and gives forth out of the Anxious Chamber, viz. out of Death, the Mind, viz. another Center.

29. Now understand this, thus; * in the eternity, viz. in the Abyss without or * Note, beyond Nature, is nothing but a stilness without Substance; it has also nothing that gives or affords any thing; it is an eternal Rest, and like Nothing, an Abyss without Beginning and End; it is also no Limit, Circumscription, or Place, no seeking, or finding, nor any thing in possibility there.

30. That Abyss is like an ⁱ Eye, for it is its own Looking-Glass; it has no Moving, ⁱ AVge. also neither Light nor Darknes.

31. It is especially a * Magia, and it has a Will, after which we should not dive or * Note. search, for it troubles us.

32. With or by this very will, we understand the Ground of the Deity, which is of no Original, for it apprehends itself in itself; concerning which we are justly Mute or Silent, for it is without or beyond Nature.

33. And seeing we are in Nature, we know it not ^z in eternity, for in the Will the ^z Or to. Deity itself is All, and the eternal Original of its own Spirit, and of all and every Substance.

34. ^b In that very Will it is Omnipotent and Omniscient; but in that Will it is not called or known to be God, for it is therein neither Good nor Evil. ^bNote, where- in God is Omnipotent and Omniscient.

35. It is a desirous Will, which there is the Beginning and also the End; for the End makes also the Beginning of this Will, and the Beginning the End.

36. And thus we find that all Substances are shut up in an Eye, AVge, and that is as a Looking-Glass, wherein the Will ⁱ beholdeth itself what it is. ⁱ AVge.

37. And in that ^k beholding, it becomes desirous of that Substance which itself is.

38. And the desiring is a drawing in, and yet there is nothing that can there be drawn, but the Will draws itself in the desiring itself, and models it in its desiring, for what it is. ^k Or aspect.

39. ⁱ That very Model is the Looking-Glass, wherein the Will sees what it is, for it is a Similitude of or according to the willing. ⁱ Note, the Introduction of the eternal Will into Substance.

40. And we know that very Looking-Glass, wherein the Will sees or beholds itself, to be the eternal Wisdom of God.

41. For it is an eternal Virgin without Substance, and yet is the Looking-Glass of all Substances, in which all things have been foreseen from eternity whatsoever there should or could be.

42. But now also this Looking-Glass is not the seeing itself, but the Will, which is desirous; that is the outgoing longing Pleasure of the Will, which goes forth out of the Will, and that is a Spirit, and makes, in the longing Pleasure of the desiring, the Looking-Glass.

43. The Spirit is the Life, the Looking-Glass is the Manifestation or Revelation of the Life, else the Spirit would not know itself; for the Looking-Glass, viz. the Wisdom, is its ground and retainer or preserver.

44. It is the Invention, or that which is found by the Spirit, where the Spirit finds itself in the Wisdom.

45. The Wisdom without the Spirit, is no Substance; and the Spirit without the Wisdom, is not manifest to itself; and one without the other were an Abyss.

46. Thus the ^m Wisdom, viz. the Looking-Glass of the Spirit of the Deity, is, for or as to itself, Mute, Inanimate, or Silent, and is the Deity's, viz. the Spirit's Body, wherein the Spirit dwells. ^m Note, the Wisdom is the Body of the Spirit.

47. It is a Virgin-like Matrix, wherein the Spirit opens itself, and is the substantiality of God, viz. a holy divine Sulphur, ^a apprehended in the Imagination, of, from or by the Spirit of the Abyfs of eternity.

^a Formed or Figured. ^o Note, what A, and O, are. Rev. 1. 8. 48. ^o And this Looking-Glass, or Sulphur, is the eternal first Beginning, and the eternal first End, and is every where like an Eye, AVge, wherewith the Spirit sees what it is therein, and what it would open or manifest.

49. This Looking-Glass or Eye, AVge, is without Ground or Limit, as indeed the Spirit has no Ground but only in this Eye, AVge.

^p Extra. ^q Unus Circulus Tinctura est Sapientie Ornamentum. 50. It is every where altogether totally Entire undivided; as we know that the Abyfs cannot be divided, for there is nothing that there divides, there is no moving ^p without or beyond the Spirit. Thus it is knowable to us, what the ^q eternal Spirit in the Wisdom is, and what the eternal Beginning and the eternal End is.

The Second Chapter.

The true and highly-worthy and precious Gate of the Holy Trinity.
The ^r Eye of the eternal Life, or the Luster of Life.

^r AVge.

1.  We understand, that the eternal Beginning in the Abyfs, is an eternal Will in itself, whose Original in itself, no Creature shall ever know.

2. Yet we are to know, and are given to know in the Spirit, its ground, which it makes to itself, wherein it rests.

3. For a will is Thin or Obscure, as it were Nothing; therefore it is desirous, it willeth to be somewhat, that it might be Manifest in itself.

4. For the Nothing causes the willing, that it is desirous; and the Desiring is an Imagination.

5. Wherein the Will, in the Looking-Glass of Wisdom, discovers itself, and so it Imagines out of the Abyfs into itself, and makes to itself, in the Imagination, a ground in itself, and Impregnates itself with the Imagination out of the Wisdom, viz. out of the Virgin-like Looking-Glass, which there is a Mother without Generating, without willing.

^s Or Spirit. 6. The Impregnation is not performed in the ^s Looking-Glass, but in the willing, in the Imagination of the willing.

7. The Looking-Glass remains eternally a Virgin, without generating; but the Will becomes Impregnated with the Glimpse of the Looking-Glass.

8. For the Will is Father, and the Impregnation in the Father, viz. in the Will, is Heart, or Son; for it is the Will's, viz. the Father's Ground, wherein the Spirit of the willing stands in the Ground, and out of the willing in the Ground goes forth into the Virgin-like Wisdom.

9. Thus the Imagination of the willing, viz. the Father's, attracts the Aspect, Form, or Representation of the Looking-Glass, viz. the Wonder of the Power, Colours, and Virtue, into itself, and so becomes Impregnated with the Glance of the Wisdom, with the Power and Virtue: This is the Will's, viz. the Father's Heart, wherein the Abyssal Will attains a Ground in itself, through and in the eternal Imagination.

10. Thus we know the Father's Impregnation to be the Center of the Spirit of the Eternity, wherein the eternal Spirit continually apprehends itself.

11. For the Will is the beginning; and the moving or drawing into the Imagination, viz. to the Looking-Glass of Wisdom, is the Eternal Abyssal Spirit, which arises in the Willing, and apprehends itself in the Center of the Heart, in the power of the attracted Wisdom; and is the Heart's Life and Spirit.

12. Now then, seeing the Eternal Abyssal will in itself is as it were inanimate, mute, or silent, therefore that which is apprehended or conceived out of the Wisdom, which is called Heart or Center, is the word of the willing, for it is the sound or the power, and is the Mouth of the willing which manifests the willing.

13. For the will, viz. the Father, speaks with the moving of the Spirit the Power forth in the Looking-Glass of the Wisdom.

14. And with the speaking forth the Spirit goes out from the willing out of the Word of the Mouth of God, viz. out of the Center of the Heart, forth into that which is out-spoken, viz. into the Virgin-like Looking-Glass, and opens the word of Life in the Looking-Glass of Wisdom, so that the Threefold substance of the Deity in the Wisdom becomes manifest.

15. Thus we acknowledge an eternal abyssal divine substance, and therein Three Persons, whereas one is not the other:

16. Viz. the Eternal Will, which is the Cause of all and every substance, that is the first Person, yet is not the substance itself, but the cause of substance, and is free from substance, for it is the Abyss.

17. There is nothing before it that can give it, but it gives itself, of which we have no knowledge.

18. It is All, and yet also thus but ONE only, in itself without substance, a Nothing.

19. And in this One only willing, arises the Eternal Beginning through * Imagination * Note, or Desiring.

20. And in the Desiring the willing impregnates itself out of the Eye, AVgr, of Wisdom, which with the willing is in like or equal Eternity, without ground and beginning, as is mentioned above.

21. That very impregnation is the ground of the willing, and of the substance of all substances, and is the Son of the willing.

22. For the will generates this Son from eternity in eternity, perpetually, for it is its † Heart, or its Word, viz. a sound or revelation, or manifestation of the Abyss of the still Eternity, and is the Mouth or understanding of the willing, and is justly called another Person than the Father, for it is the Father's revelation or manifestation, his ground and substance. † Note:

23. For a Will is no Substance, but the Imagination of the willing maketh Substance.

24. Thus the second Person is the substance of the Deity, understand the substance of the Holy Trinity, the mouth of the manifestation or Revelation of the substance of all substances, and the power of the life of all and every life.

25. The Third Person is the Spirit, which with the apprehension of the willing through the imagination out of the power of the speaking, goes forth out of the mouth of the Father into the Eye, AVgr, viz. into the Looking-Glass of Wisdom, that is clearly free from the willing, and also from the Word.

26. And though indeed the Will out of the Word gives it, yet it is free, as the Air is free from the Fire; as Men see that the Air is the Fire's spirit and Life, and yet is another thing than the Fire, and yet is given forth from the Fire.

27. And as Men see that the Air gives forth a living and moving Heaven, which is shining and moveable, so also is the Holy Spirit, the Spirit and Life of the Deity, and is another Person than the Father and Son.

28. It bears also another Office, it opens the Wisdom of God, so that the Wonders appear; as the Air opens all the Life of this World, that all live and grow.

29. Thus this is a short explanation of the Deity in the Abyss, how God dwells in himself, and is himself the Center of the Genetrix.

30. But now the human Mind rests not satisfied with this: It asks or enquires after Nature, after that out of which this World is become born or generated, and all created: Therefore now the Text concerning the Principle follows further; to which we have invited Reason for a Guest.

The Third Chapter.

How God, without the Principle of Fire, would not be manifested or revealed: Also concerning the Eternal Substance; and concerning the Abyssal Will, together with the very severe earnest Gate.

1.  We have by this Description shown you, what the Deity without, or beyond Nature is, wherein it is to be understood, that the Deity, as concerning the Three Persons, together with the Eternal Wisdom, are free from Nature, and that the Deity has yet a deeper Ground than the Principle in the Fire.

2. But now the Deity, without the Principle, were not, or would not be manifest.

3. And understand the Deity without, or beyond the Principle, to be a Glimpse of the Great Wonder, which none knows, nor can know what it is, wherein all Colours, Power, and Virtue, appear in a very terrible substance, which yet seems like no substance, but a terrible Wonder-AVge, or Eye of Wonders; so that neither Fire, Light, nor Darknefs, may be discerned, but a Glimpse of such a Spirit, in a high, deep, blue green, and mixed Colour, wherein all Colours lie, and yet none may be known from the other, but resembles a Flash which is terrible, whose Glimpse disturbs and consumes all.

4. Thus we are to know concerning the Eternal Substance, viz. the Eternal Spirit, without the Fire and Light; for it is a desirous Will, which thus makes itself a Spirit.

5. This Spirit is the Eternal Potentiality of the Abyss, wherein the Abyss brings itself into a Ground, whence all substance rises.

6. For every Form in the Spirit is an Imagination, a desirous Will, and desires to manifest or reveal itself.

7. Every Form impregnates its Imagination, and every form also desires to manifest itself; and therefore is the Looking-Glass of the Glimpse a Wonder of the substance of all substances, and of the Wonder there is neither Number, Ground, nor End.

8. It is a mere Wonder, whose comprehension cannot be written; for only the soulish Spirit, which arises out of this Wonder, that alone understands it.

9. And then we understand how this Abyssal will is, from Eternity in Eternity, perpetually desirous, v.z. to manifest itself, and to search or fathom itself, what it is, to bring the Wonder into a Substance, and to manifest itself in the Wonders.

10. The desiring is an Imagination, wherein the willing draws into itself, and impregnates itself, and * overshadows itself with the Imagination, that so out of the free willing a contrary or opposite will exists, to be free from the overshadowing, viz. from the Darkness.

† The first ground of the dark world.

11. For that which is drawn in, is the Darkness of the free Willing, whereas otherwise, without the Imagination, it would be free: Yet also in itself, without the Imagination, it would be a Nothing.

12. Thus there arises together in the first willing in the Desiring, a contrary or opposite Willing; for the desiring is drawing in, and the first Will is quiet or still, and in itself without substance.

13. But it impregnates itself with the desiring, so that it is full of Substance, viz. of the Wonder and Power which overshadow it, and make a Darkness of it, or out of it.

14. Whereas then in the attracted powers another Will apprehends itself, to go out from the dark power into the liberty.

15. That other, or second Will, is the Will of the Heart or Word; for it is a cause of the Principle, that the anxious Wheel kindles the Fire.

16. So then it goes through the Anguish, viz. through the Fire, forth with the shining or luster of the Light, viz. the Majesty, wherein then the Substance of the Holy Trinity becomes manifest, and conceives or assumes here the dear and precious Name G O D, Ω Δ Ε.

17. Understand this further thus: The first Will, viz. God the Father, that is and remains Eternally free from the anxious source or quality, as to what the Willing in itself is; but its desiring becomes impregnated, and in the desiring arises Nature, with the Forms; and Nature dwells in the Will, viz. in God, and the Will in Nature.

18. And yet there is no Mingling, for the Will is so very thin, it is as it were a Nothing, and therefore it is not apprehensible; it is not comprehended by Nature, else if it might be comprehended, there would in the Deity be but O N E Person.

19. It is indeed the cause of Nature, but yet it is, and remains in Eternity another World, and Nature remains also another world in itself, for it stands in the power of the Essence, out of which the Principle arises.

20. For the clear bright Deity in the Majesty stands not in the Essence, or in the Principle, but in the Liberty without or beyond Nature.

21. But the shining Light without, or beyond the Principle, makes the Incomprehensible or Abyssal Deity manifest, it gives the Shining or Luster of the Majesty, and yet has it not in itself, but it comprehends or conceives it out of the Looking-Glass of the Virgin-like Wisdom, out of the Liberty of God.

22. For if the Looking-Glass of Wisdom were not, then could no Fire or Light be generated, it all takes its Original from the Looking-Glass of the Deity; that is now to be understood in this manner following.

23. God in himself is the Abyss, viz. the first World, of which no Creature knows any thing at all, † for it stands solely and alone with Spirit and Body in the Byss or Ground.

‡ Viz. the Creature.

24. Thus also God himself in the Abyss would not be manifest to himself, but his Wisdom is from Eternity become his Ground or Byss.

25. After which therefore the Eternal Willing of the Abyss of the Deity has pleased to long, from whence the divine Imagination has existed, so that the Abyssal Will of the Deity has thus from Eternity, in the Imagination, with the power of the Aspect, or form of the Looking-Glass of Wonders, impregnated itself.

26. Now, in this Impregnation of the Eternal Original, are two Principles to be understood, viz. First, the Eternal Darkness, out of which the Eternal World originates, and the Substantiality of the fierce wrath in the Darknes, wherein we understand God's Anger and the Abyss of Nature, and thus we know and acknowledge the fiery World to be the great Life.

27. And then also, Secondly, we understand, First, How out of the Fire, the Light becomes generated: And, Secondly, How between the fiery and light World, Death is.

28. Thirdly, How the Light shines out of Death: And, Fourthly, How the Light-flaming World is another principle, source, or quality, in itself than the Fire-world; and yet neither is separated from the other, neither can the one comprehend the other.

29. Fifthly, We understand how the Light-world fills the Eternal Liberty, viz. the first Willing, which is called Father.

30. Sixthly, Thus we understand also herein earnestly, and fundamentally, how that Natural life, which will dwell in the Light-flaming world, must go through death, and must become generated or born out of Death.

31. Seventhly, Yet we understand or mean that Life which originally arises out of the Darknes, viz. out of the Effence of the dark substantiality, viz. as the soul of Man, which had out of the Fire-world turned itself into the dark substantiality in Adam. Eighthly, Therefore then we fundamentally and exactly understand, why God, viz. the Heart of God, is become Man.

32. And Ninthly, Why he must of necessity die, and enter into Death, and break his Life in Death, and afterwards bring it through the fiery World into the Light-flaming World. And Tenthly, why we must thus follow him.

33. And in the Eleventh Place, we understand further, why many souls remain and continue in the Fire-world, and cannot go through Death into the Light-world. Twelfthly, what Death is. And, in the Thirteenth Place, also what the Soul is. This is now as follows.

34. When we consider what the Life is, we find that it especially consists in Three Parts, viz. First, in the Desiring: Secondly, in the Mind: Thirdly, in the Senses or Thoughts.

35. Now, if we search further, what that is which gives or affords that; then we ^z Or Vulcanus. find the Center, viz. the Essential Wheel, which has the ^{*} Fire-smith in itself.

36. And then, if we consider further whence that Essential Fire exists, we find that it takes its original in the Desiring of the Eternal Abyssal Willing, which, with the Desiring, makes to itself a Ground.

37. For every desiring is attractive, or harsh and astringent, of that which the Will ^y Or before it. desires, and yet there is nothing ^y for it that it may desire, but only itself, that is the Great Wonder-Eye, Wonder-AVgr, without limit and ground, wherein all lies.

38. And yet also it is a Nothing, unless it be in the desiring Will made something, which is done by Imagination, wherein it becomes a Substance, whereas yet it is a Nothing, for it is only an overshadowing of the Free-willing.

39. Which substance overshadows the Liberty, viz. the thin unsearchable Willing, so that two Worlds come to be: First, One which in itself is incomprehensible and inconceivable, an Abyss and Eternal Liberty: And, Secondly, one which comprehends, and makes itself a Darknes.

40. And yet neither is separated from the other, only this is the difference or distinction, that ^z the Darknes cannot comprehend the Liberty, for ^a it is too thin, and dwells ^y also in itself, as also the Darknes dwells in itself.

^z John 1. 5.
^a The Liberty.

The very Earnest Gate.

41. Here now we understand, First, how the Father's second Will, which in the Looking-Glass of Wisdom he sharpens to his Heart's Center, becomes impregnated with the substantiality in the Father's Imagination.

42. And Secondly, That the same impregnation, in respect of the liberty of the first Will, which is called Father, is a Darknes: And Thirdly, How in the Darknes, or Substantiality, all Powers, Colours and Virtues, lie in the Imagination; moreover, all Wonders.

43. And Fourthly, We understand how the Powers, Wonders and Virtues, must be manifested through the Fire, viz. in the Principle, wherein all passes into its Essence, for in the Principle the Essence originally arises.

44. And Fifthly, We understand very earnestly and exactly, that in the Principle, before the Fire arises, there is a dying, viz. the great anguish Life.

45. Which yet is no dying, but a harsh astringent, stern, dying source or quality, out of which the great and strong Life arises, viz. the Fire-life: And Sixthly, then out of the deadened quality, the Light-life, with the power of the Love.

46. Which Light-life, with the Love, dwells in the Eternal Liberty, viz. in the first willing, which is called Father; for that the Father, in his own Willing, which is himself, desires, and nothing more.

47. That now understand thus: You see and know that there is no Light without Fire, and there is no Fire without the earnest source or quality, which source or quality is like a Dying, and the Substantiality out of which the Fire burns must thus also die, and be consumed.

48. Out of the consuming consists two great Principles of two great Lives: One in the source or quality, which is called Fire; and one out of the vanquished quality, viz. out of the Death, which is called Light, which is immaterial and without source or quality, and yet has all source or qualities in it, but not the source of the fierce wrath.

49. For the fierce wrath remains in Death, and the Light-life grows out of the Dying as a fair blossom out of the Earth, and is no more apprehended by the dying.

50. Thus then you see how the Light dwells in the Fire, and the fire cannot move it; and besides that, there is nothing that can move the Light, for it is like the Eternal Liberty, and dwells in the Liberty.

51. Here you understand how the Son is another Person than the Father, for he is the Light-world, and yet dwells in the Father, and the Father generates him in his willing, and he is rightly the Father's Love, also ^b Wonder, Council, and Power.

^b Isa. 9. 6.

52. For the Father generates him in his Imagination in himself, and brings him through his own fire, viz. through the Principle, forth through Death, so that the Son makes, and is another World, viz. another Principle in the Father, than the Fire-world in the darkness is.

53. Thus you understand also, how the Father's Eternal Spirit divides itself into Three Worlds. The First is the Exit out of the Imagination of the first willing of the Abyss, which is called Father, in which with the outgoing it opens the Wisdom, and dwells in the Wisdom, and wears it upon itself, as its Garment of the Great Wonders.

54. Secondly, It is the Cause of the drawing-in of the Substantiality of the darkness, viz. of the other world, and is the cause and the spirit to the original of the Essential Fire; it is itself the source or quality in the Anguish of the Principle, and also of the fiery world, viz. of the Great Life.

55. And then, Thirdly, It is itself also, that which the power in the dying of the Principle bringerh forth out of the Fire, wherein the Power out of the Anguish, out of the Dying, severs itself from the Dying, goes into the Liberty, dwells in the Liberty, and makes the Light-world, and so it is the flame of the Love in the Light-world.

• Maub. 28
19.

• Viz. the eternal Spirit of the Father.

56. Here in this place arises the dear ^o Name of God, of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

57. For in the Fire-world ^d it is not called the Holy Spirit or God, but God's Anger, God's fierce wrath, wherein, as to this, God calls himself a consuming Fire.

58. But in the Light-world, viz. in the Son of God, it is the flame of Love, and the power of the Holy divine Life, wherein it is called God the Holy Spirit.

59. And in the Light-world is called the Wonder, Council, and Power of the Deity, which the Holy Spirit opens, for it is the Life therein.

60. And it is altogether as far as our Heart and Mind or Thought can reach: Nothing but only these Three Worlds, it ALL standeth therein:

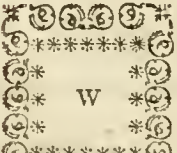

61. Viz. First, There is the Eternal Liberty, and therein the light, with the power in the Looking-Glass of Wisdom, which is called God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

62. Secondly, There is the dark Substantiality in the Imagination, in the harsh astringent desirous Willing, the impregnation of the desiring, wherein all stands in the Darknes, viz. in the anxious death.

63. Thirdly, There is the fiery World, viz. the first Principle, which standeth in the Anguish, viz. the great strong omnipotent Life, wherein the Light-world dwells, but unapprehended by the Fire.

The Fourth Chapter.

Of the Principle and the Original of the Fire-world; and of the Center of Nature: And how the Light severs itself from the Fire; so that from Eternity in Eternity, two Worlds are one in another.

1.  E will not write in a mute or dumb manner, so as not to be understood; but demonstratively with good Evidence: We perceive and know, that every Life does originate itself out of the Anguish, as in Venom or Poison, which is a dying, and yet is also the Life itself; as it is plainly to be perceived in Men, and all Creatures.

2. For without the Anguish, or Poison, there is no Life, as is very well to be seen in all Creatures, especially in Man, which exists in Three Principles.

3. As First, One in the Fire, wherein the Great Life standeth, to which a dying Poison, viz. the Gall, belongs, which Poison makes the Anguish-chamber, wherein the Fire-life originally arises.

4. And Secondly, Out of the Fire-life, the second Principle, viz. the Light-life, out of which the noble Mind, with the Senses or Thoughts, exists, wherein we bear and understand our noble Image; for the Fire-life in the Heart originally arises from the Death of the ^o Gall.

• The Gall is the dying source, or quality.

5. Thirdly, We understand the Third Principle in the other Anguish-chamber, viz. in the Stomach or Entrails, whereinto we stuff the four Elements, with the constellation or Astrum, where then the other Anguish-chamber, viz. the third Center, is, viz. the Kingdom of this World, a House of Stink, and evil Source or Qualities, wherein the third Life, viz. the Starry and Elementary Life, becomes generated, and through the outward Body governs with the Reason of the third Principle.

6. Now we understand very well, that in the Heart, viz. in the Center, there stands another World hidden, which is incomprehensible to the House of the starry and elementary source or quality, for the Heart sighs or pants after that World.

7. And the Spirit which becomes generated out of the death of the Heart's Poison, possesses that other World, for it is free from the Poison which kindles the Fire, and yet dwells in the Fire of the Heart.

8. But * with its Imagination it conceives or comprehends the other world of the Liberty, in the Imagination, and dwells in the Liberty, without or beyond the Fire-source or quality; but that only so far, as it brings or bears a longing pleasure to, or into God. * Note.

9. Now then, seeing there is such a Threefold dominion in Man, sure it is much more so without or beyond Man; for if it was not, it could not possibly have come into Man, for where there is nothing, there also nothing comes to be; but if something comes to be, it comes out of that which is there: Every Imagination models only its like in itself, and manifests itself in the Similitude.

10. Seeing then that the † Substance of all Substances is an eternal Wonder in Three Principles, therefore it brings also forth only Wonders, every Principle according to its Property, and every Property again out of its Imagination, whereby we know that the Eternal is a mere Wonder. † Note.

11. Therefore now we are to think upon these Wonders, and to consider the kind and property of the Eternal Genetrix, for there can be no property, unless it has a Mother that gives or affords it.

12. Therefore we understand now, First, in this great Wonder of all Wonders, which is God and the Eternity, together with Nature, especially seven Mothers, out of which the Substance of all Substances originally arises; and yet they are all seven but one only Substance, none of them is the first or the last, they are all seven alike eternal without beginning, their beginning is the opening of the Wonders of the ONE only eternal Willing, which is called God the Father.

13. And then, Secondly, the seven Wonders could not be manifested or revealed, if the ONE only Eternal Will, which is called Father, was not desirous.

14. But if it is desirous, then it is an imagining in itself, and is a longing Pleasure to find itself.

15. And it finds itself also in the Imagination; it finds especially † Three Forms in itself, whereof none is the other, and also none is without the other, but every one generates the other; and if the one was not, the other would not be; but the Will remains an eternal Nothing without Substance, also without shining or luster. † Seven;

16. So now, if the Will is desirous, it is an attraction of that which is in the Imagination, wherein yet there is nothing, and so it draws itself, and impregnates itself in the Imagination, and not in the Willing, for the Will is as thin as Nothing.

17. But now every desiring is harsh or astringent, for it is its property, and that is the first Mother.

18. And the attraction of the Willing in the desiring, is the other, or second Mother; for these are two forms which are contrary or opposite one to the other, for the Will is quiet or still as a Nothing, and it is harsh or astringent, like a still Death, and the attraction is its stirring or rousing.

19. And that the still Will in the harsh astringency cannot endure, and thereupon draws in itself much more vehemently, and yet does but only sharpen its own Willing in the drawing, and will with its stern attraction shut in and retain the attraction; and in such a manner it does but only awaken or raise it up.

20. The harder the harsh astringency contracts itself to hold the Sting, the greater only is the Sting, the raging, and the breaking; for the Sting will not suffer itself to be subdued, and yet is so strongly held by its Mother, that it cannot get away.

21. It will be above, and the Mother beneath, for the harsh astringency draws into itself, and makes itself hard; and it is a sinking downwards, and makes in the Sulphur the Phur, and in the Mercurius the Sul.

22. And the Sting maketh, in the Sal, Phur, or makes to itself further the bitter Form, viz. the Woe, an Enmity in the Astringent Harshness, and wills continually to force itself forth out of the Astringency, but yet cannot.

• Rota. Cen-
trum Eternæ Naturæ, & re-rum Omnium.

23. Thus one climbs upwards, and the other tends downwards, and so if it cannot, it becomes winding as a ^e Wheel, and wheels itself continually inwards into itself; and this now is the third Form, from whence the Essence originally ariseth, and the Wonder of Multiplicity without Number and Ground.

24. In this Wheel, understand the Wonder or Power, which the Will, understand the first Abyssal will out of the Looking-Glass of the Abyss, draws into itself to its Center or Heart, that is here the will of the Power and Wonder.

25. In this Wheel of the great Anguish, originally arises the other or second Will, viz. the Son's Will, to go forth out of the Anguish into the still Liberty of the first Abyssal willing.

26. For the Wheel maketh Nature; for so Nature originally arises; it is the Center and the breaking of the still Eternity, that kills the Nothing, but it makes the great Life.

27. But that we speak of killing, it is to be understood in this manner: it is no killing, but it is the perceptibility.

28. For the Life, before the Fire, is Mute or Silent or Inanimate, and without feeling; it is only a Hunger after the Life, as the Material World is only a Hunger after the Life, and in its Hunger so very eagerly or strongly labours after the Principle, that it may reach the Fire; wherein then the Life of this World originally arises.

29. And it cannot be otherwise, unless it breaks the first Matrix, viz. the harsh Astringent desiring; this is the Wheel of the first three Forms, viz. harsh Astringency; and the drawing of the harsh Astringency makes the Anguish, and Substance of the Source or Quality.

30. For it is a terrifying in itself; in that it should be so, that the Nothing should come into perceptibility; for that is the Poison-source or Quality, whence the fierce Wrath, and all Evil, Malignity or Malice, originally arises, and yet is the right Original of the perceptible Life.

• 1 Cor. 15. 36.

31. The Life finds itself thus, viz. in the Anguish Source or Quality; as we see it in all Creatures, that the Life takes its Original in the stifled Blood, in the Anguish; both the creaturely Life, and also the essential Life; as in stinking Dung in the rottenness, where, in the ^h dying of the Corn or Grain, the great Life springs up.

32. Whereas yet, in the Essence, no dying is understood, but an Anguishing Source or Quality, wherein the Mother must spring forth; which is a mute or silent or inanimate Substantiality, as is to be perceived in Corn, where the essential Life grows out of the Corruption.

• Δ

33. In like manner, it is held with the Center of Nature; the Anguish-source or Quality is the right Center, and makes the ⁱ Triangle in Nature.

34. And the Fire-flash, viz. the fourth Form of Nature, makes of the Triangle a * Cross; for there is the Principle, and it becomes severed into two Worlds, of two Principles, viz. into a twofold Source or Quality and Life: one Source abides or remains, and is the Fire or Anguish-life; the other, or second Source, exists in the breaking or corrupting of the Anguish, which understand as follows.

35. The first Form of the Substantiality, viz. the harsh Astringency in the desirous inconceivable or impalpable willing, must give itself wholly up to the Anguish, Source or Quality in the Wheel of Nature, for the Sting is too strong; thus the harsh Astringency sinks down as a Death, and yet is no Death, but a dying Source or Quality.

36. For the Sting becomes Lord, and changes the harsh Astringency into its Property, viz. into a raging Flash, into an Anguish, Source or Quality, which from the Sting and the harsh Astringency is bitter; as is the kind and manner of Poison.

37. For the Poison or the dying has especially three Forms, viz. harsh Astringency, Bitterness, and Anguish; it makes itself thus in itself, and has no Maker, but only the strong Will in the great Life in the Fire.

38. Understand us right thus: the Abyss has no Life; but in such a Property the great eternal Life becomes generated; the Abyss has no Mobility or Feeling.

39. Thus the Mobility or Feeling generates itself; and thus the Nothing finds itself in the eternal Willing; whose * ground we know not, also should not search, for it * Note. troubles or disturbs us.

40. And yet this is only an essential Life without understanding, like the Earth, and the Death or dying, wherein really there is a Source or Quality in itself, but in the Darkness without Understanding; for the harsh Astringent Anguish draws into itself, and that which is drawn in makes Darkness, so that the Anguish Life stands in the Darkness.

41. For every Substance is in itself dark, unless it has the Light's Tincture in itself.

42. For thus the Tincture is a Liberty or Freedom from the Darkness, and is not comprehended by the Anguish Source, or Quality, for it is in the Light-World; and though indeed it sticks in the Substantiality, viz. in a dark Body, yet is out of the Substance of the Light-World, where no ¹ Comprehension is.

¹ Begriff.

43. We have mentioned above, First, concerning the Looking-Glass of the Wisdom of the Wonder of all Substances; and Secondly, concerning the Ternary or Number Three of the Substance of all Substances; how they Originally arise out of one only willing, which is called the Father of all Substances.

44. And Thirdly, how it creates another will in itself; to manifest or find itself in itself; or as you may say, to find what and how it is.

45. And then, Fourthly, how that second re-created Magic-will to find itself, is its Heart and own Seat of Possession.

46. And Fifthly, how the first abyssal Will Impregnates itself with the Imagination itself, out of the Looking-Glass of the Wonder, which in the Light-World is called the Wisdom.

47. And then, Sixthly, as we have mentioned, how that first abyssal Will, together with the Impregnation, and also the Looking-Glass of the Wonder or Wisdom, in such a Property, before the Principle of Fire, is no divine Substance rightly called, but much rather a Mystery of the Wonder of all Substances.

48. Which Mystery takes its Partition in the Fire, into infinite endless Parts or Substances, and yet remains also but ONE Substance.

49. Thus we give you now further to understand concerning the other or second Will, which the first Will in its Imagination, or Impregnation, creates, which is the great Mystery, Mysterium Magnum, wherein the first Will, which is called Father, seeks, finds, and feels itself, as a Light in the Heart: How that very other, or second Will, is the

* Note.

* Mother of the Genetrix, in the attracted impregnation, impressed or conceived in the Imagination.

* Heb. 2. 14.

50. It is that which causes originally the seven Forms of Nature; and it is also that which causes the Anguish-wheel, viz. the harsh astringency; it is also that which in the Anguish goes forth through Death into the Liberty, which breaks or destroys ⁱⁿ death, and gives or affords the Life, which kindles the Fire, and in fire takes the Glance of the Majesty into itself, and in the Light of the Majesty dwells in the fire, unapprehended by the Fire, as one that feels nothing which died away from the source or quality, and brings another source or Quality into itself, which feels not, nor finds the first from which it has died away.

51. And that we may briefly, and yet fundamentally and properly, or exactly, distinguish the fire's Original, know, that we perceive in the Deep, opened to us out of God's Grace, that the fire in its Original stands in two Causes.

52. The first cause is the Willing-spirit of the Heart, understand the Father's Second will, viz. the Son's property.

* Materia.

53. And the Second Cause is the ⁿ Matter of the willing, viz. of the wonders of the Wheel of the Essential Life, viz. the Anguish-chamber.

* Rom. 8. 22.

54. The anguish sighs or ^o groans after the willing of the Liberty, and the will longs or groans after the Manifestation or Revelation; for the willing cannot in the still liberty, in itself, manifest or reveal itself, without the Essential fire, which in the anguish, viz. in the dying, comes to the Manifestation or Revelation, and to the Great Life.

* Note.

55. Thus the will is in the dark Anguish, and the Anguish is the darkness itself.
56. Now then seeing the anguish thus vehemently ^{*} groans or pants after the willing of the Liberty, so it conceives or receives the willing of the Liberty as a flash, as a great Crack, as when a Man pours water into the Fire.

57. And here the right dying is Effected; for the very fierce wrathful dark anguish shrieks or trembles before the flash, viz. the darkness before the light; for the darkness is killed and vanquished; and the Terror or Crack is a Crack of great Joy.

58. There the harsh astringent fierce wrathful Poison sinks down into Death, and becomes impotent or weak, for it loses the Sting, and yet is no Death; but thus the right life of the feeling and panting comes to be kindled.

† Note.

59. For this is just as if a Man did strike † Steel and a Stone together; for they are two Great hungers of the willing after the substantiality, and of the substantiality after the Life.

60. The will gives or affords Life; and the substantiality gives or affords the Manifestation or Revelation of the Life; as fire burns out of a Candle, so burns the will of the Essential substantiality.

‡ Note, Fire is the Principle. The white Fire is the divine Love-fire.

61. ‡ The will is not the Light itself, but the Spirit of the Light, or of the Fire; the Light arises out of the Essence, and the Essence again out of the willing.

62. The anxious Essential Fire is the Matter to the shining Fire; and the will kindles itself in the Essential Fire, and gives or affords the white amiable fire that dwells in the hot fire without feeling.

63. The will takes its feeling from the fierce wrath of the Essential fire (in the fourth form) that it is manifest in itself, and yet remains free from the fierce wrath; for the source or quality becomes in the kindling changed into a meek Love-source or quality.

64. And here the other or second will receives its Name, Spirit; for out of the Essential fire, it attains the property of all wonders, also the right life of the power and might over the Essential fire-life; for from Nature it takes the power into itself, and brings also the Liberty into itself.

65. Thus the Liberty is a stillness without substance; and so the still Liberty gives itself into the substance of the Anguish, and the Anguish receives that same liberty without source or quality, whence it becomes so richly full of joy, that out of the Anguish Love comes to be.

66. For the will, which had given itself into the Anguish, becomes thus delivered from the death of the Anguish, and therefore it finds itself in the Liberty, and goes forth from the fierce wrath of the Anguish.

67. For here death is broken or destroyed, and yet remains a death in itself; but the Willing-Spirit, viz. the right holy Life, goes with the breaking open forth out of the Anguish.

68. And it is now also a fire, but a fire in the Liberty, and burns in the Love-source or quality; as a Man may see this in Fire and Light, how the Essential fire is a burning woe or pain, and the Light an amiable richly Joyful delight and habitation, without sensible pain, source or quality.

69. And yet it has all sources or qualities and properties of fire in it, yet in another Essence, viz. a friendly munificent well-doing Essence; a right Glimpse of the rich Kingdom of Joy; and the fire a Glimpse of Terror and of Anguish; and yet one dwells in the other, but the one finds not the other in the Essence.

70. Thus there are two Worlds one in another, whereof neither comprehends or apprehends the other; and nothing can go into the Light-world, but only through Dying; and on account of, or in the Dying, must the Imagination first lead the Way.

71. The anxious Will must ^a groan or pant after the Liberty of the power of the ^a Light, and totally give itself thereinto, and with the desirous Imagination conceive or comprehend the power of the Liberty; and thus the strong will goes through the death of the darkness, quite through the Essential fire, and falls into the Light-world, and dwells in the fire, without source, pain or quality, in the Kingdom of Joy: This is the Gate in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Holy Ternary; and into Glauben, Faith or Believing in the Holy Ghost.

72. Dear Children of Man, here understand the Fall of the Devil, who turned his will-spirit only into the Essential Fire, and thereby would needs domineer over the Light.

73. Understand here also the Fall of Man, who turned his Imagination into the Material Essential Substantiality, and is gone forth out of the Light.

74. For which cause the will of the Love out of the light-world is again entered into the Material Substantiality in the humanity, and has again espoused or united itself to the Essential fire-spirit in Man, viz. of the soul, and given itself into it, and has introduced the same quite through Death and the Fire, into the Light-world in Ternarium Sanctum, into the Holy Ternary, viz. in the willing of the Holy Trinity.

75. Let this be a finding and knowing to you, and despise it not on account of the great Depth, which will not be every Man's comprehension; the Cause is the darkness wherein Man plunges himself.

76. Else every one might very well find it, if the Earthly way was once broken through, and that the Adamical evil malignant or malicious flesh was  not so dearly loved*, which is ^{*} Note. the hinderance.

The Fifth Chapter.

Of the Principle in itself, what it is.

1.  E ought further to consider the first four Forms of Nature, and so we shall find what a Principle is.

2. For that is properly a Principle, when a thing becomes what it never was before; where out of nothing, a source or quality comes to be; and out of the source or quality, a right life with understanding and senses or thoughts.

3. And yet we know the right Principle to be in the fire's Original, in the fire-source or quality, which breaks the substantiality, and also the darkness.

4. Thus we acknowledge and understand, First, the Essence and Property of the Fire for a Principle; for it makes and gives the Original of Life and of all mobility, also the strong might of the fierce wrath.

5. Secondly, We understand and acknowledge that also for a Principle, which, First, can dwell in the fire, unapprehended by the fire; Secondly, which can take away the might of the fire; and Thirdly, can change the fire's quality or source into a Meek love; Fourthly, which is omnipotent over all; Fifthly, which hath the understanding to break the Root of the fire, and out of the fire to make Darkness, and a dry hunger and thirst, without finding any ease or refreshment, as the Hellish quality or source is.

c Choaked or made faint with thirst and hunger.

6. This is the Abyss wherein the substance is ^r spoiled; where death domineers with its sting, as a spoiled Poison.

7. Wherein really there is an Essential Life, but it bates and is at enmity with itself; where the right fire's kindling is not attained, but only appears as a flash without blazing.

8. And thus we give you to understand, that in the Eternal there are no more but two Principles, viz. one is the burning or blazing fire, which comes to be filled with the Light; the Light gives it its property; so that out of the burning source or quality, an high Kingdom of Joy comes to be.

9. For the Anguish attains the Liberty, and so the burning fire continues only to be a cause of finding the Life and the Light of the Majesty.

10. The fire takes into itself the Light's property, viz. the meekness, and the light takes into itself the fire's property, viz. the Life, and to find itself; and the second Principle is understood in the Light, or to be the Light.

11. But the Essential substantiality, out of which the Fire burns, continues Eternally a Darkness, and a source or quality of fierce wrath, wherein the Devil dwells.

12. As you see plainly, that the fire is another thing than that out of which the fire burns.

13. Thus the Principle consists in Fire, and not in the Essential source or quality of the Substantiality.

14. The Essential source or quality is the Center of Nature, the Cause of the Principles; but it is dark, and the fire shining.

15. And here is rightly shown you how the breaking of the fierce wrath, viz. of the Death, and the Eternal Liberty out of Nature, both together are the Cause of the shining.

16. For therefore is the Wonder-spirit of the Abyss desirous, viz. that it might become shining; and therefore it brings itself into source or quality, that it may perceive ceive and find itself, and that it may manifest or reveal its wonder in the source or quality; for without source or quality there can be no manifestation or revelation.

17. Now understand us further, thus: The source or quality, viz. the fierce wrath, has no right substantiality, but the harsh fierce wrath is the substantiality of the sling, wherein it sticks or stings.

18. And the Anguish, together also with the fire, are or make also no right substantiality, but only such a Spirit; yet the one must be thicker than the other, else there would be no finding.

19. The harsh astringency makes thick and dark, and so the bitter sling finds the Anguish, in the harsh dark property, as in Matter; for if there was no Matter, there would be no spirit or finding. In einer Materia.

20. The Abyss finds itself in the harsh astringent darkness, but it breaks open the darkness, and goes forth out of the harsh darkness, as a spirit which has found itself in the anguish-source or quality.

21. But it leaves that hard Matter of the darkness, wherein it found itself, and goes into itself again into the Liberty, viz. into the Abyss, and dwells in itself; thus must the source or quality be its sharpness and finding, and it is to it also a kindling of its Liberty, viz. of the Light, wherein it sees itself, what it is.

22. And thus now it desires no more for itself but the source or quality, but models itself, and seeks or sees itself according to all Forms.

23. And every form is desirous to find, and to manifest or reveal itself; and thus also every form finds itself in itself, but yet goes with the desiring out of itself, and sets itself there represented as a figure or spirit; and that is the Eternal wisdom, in the Colours, Wonders and Virtues, and yet is not particular, but all totally, universally, yet in infinite forms.

24. These forms have with the moving of the first willing, which is called Father, incorporated or corporified themselves into Spirits, viz. into Angels, that so the hidden Substance might perceive, and find and see itself in Creatures, and that there might be an Eternal sport or scene in the wonders of God's wisdom.

25. And thus we understand further the substantiality of the Light-world, which really is a right substantiality; for no right Substance can consist in Fire, but the Spirit only of the Substance.

26. But the fire causes the substance, for it is a hunger, an earnest desiring; it must have substance, or it extinguishes.

27. Understand this as follows: The meekness gives, and the fire takes; the Meekness is a going forth out of itself, and gives a substance of its likeness to every form out of itself.

28. And the fire devours that, yet it gives the Light out of it; it gives that which is more Noble than what it had devoured, it gives Spirit for substance.

29. For it devours the Meek munificence or well-doing, that is, 'the water of Eternal Life'; but it gives the spirit of Eternal Life. As you see that the Wind goes out of the fire, as also the Air, viz. the right spirit out of the fire-life. 'Rev. 21. 6; and 22. 1. 17.'

30. Thus understand our Mind right: God the Father is in himself, the Liberty without or beyond Nature, but makes himself manifest in Nature through the fire; the fiery Nature is his property.

31. But he is in himself the Abyss, wherein there is no feeling of any source, quality or pain.

32. But yet he brings his desirous willing into source or quality, and Creates to himself in the source or quality another or second willing to go out of the source or quality again into the Liberty, without or beyond the source or quality.

33. That second will is his Son, which he generates out of his own Eternal willing from Eternity.

34. Which he brings through the breaking open of the source or quality of Death, viz. through the Earnest severity of his fierce wrath, forth through the Fire.

35. That very second will, viz. the Son of God the Father, is that which breaks or destroys Death, viz. the stern dark source or quality, which kindles the fire, and goes forth through the Fire as a shining Luster or Glance of the fire, and fills or satiates the first willing, which is called Father.

36. For the Glance is also as thin as a Nothing, or as the Will which is called Father, and therefore it can dwell in the Liberty, viz. in the Father's Willing, and makes the Father light, clear, bright, amiable, friendly, for it is the Father's Hertz; oder Warmhertzigkeit, Heart or Mercifulness.

37. It is the Father's substantiality, it fills or satiates the Father in all Places, though indeed there is no place in him, no beginning nor end.

38. Understand us further, thus: The Father's Fire devours the Meek substance, viz. the Water-source or quality of Eternal Life into itself, into the fire's own Essence, and makes itself meek therewith.

39. There must the substantiality in the fire as it were die, for the fire devours it into itself and consumes it.

* Note.

40. And it gives forth, out of its consuming power, * a living richly joyful spirit, and that is the Holy Spirit; which thus goes forth from the Father and the Son, into the Great Wonder of the holy substantiality, and opens the same perpetually and Eternally.

41. Thus the Deity is an Eternal Band, which cannot cease or pass away; and thus it generates itself from Eternity, and the first is continually also the last, and the last again the first.

42. And thus understand the Father to be the fery world; the Son, the Light and power-world; and the holy spirit, to be the life of the Deity; viz. to be the outgoing driving Power; and yet all is but One God.

43. As the Fire and the Light together with the Air are but one only Substance, but yet divides itself into Three parts, and none can subsist without the other; for the fire is not the Light, also not the Air, which goes forth out of the Fire.

44. Each has its office, and each has its own Substance in itself; and yet each is the other's life, and a cause of the other's life.

45. For the wind blows the fire up, else it would be stifled in its fierce wrath, so that it would fall into the dark death; even as the stifling is the true real death, wherein the fire of Nature extinguishes, and no more draws substance into it.

46. Of all this you have a good similitude in the outward World, in all Creatures, showing how every Life, viz. the Essential Fire-life, draws substance to it, and that is its food to Eat.

47. And the fire of its life consumes the Substance, and gives forth the spirit of the power out of that which is consumed; and that is the Life of the Creature.

• The Shell.

48. And you see doubtless very rightly, how the Life arises out of Death; it becomes no Life, unless it breaks that " out of which the Life should proceed; it must also go into the Anguish-Chamber into the Center, and must reach to attain the fire-flash in the Anguish, else there is no Kindling.

49. Although the fire is manifold, and so also the Life, yet out of the greatest Anguish exists also the greatest Life, as out of a right fire.

▼ Proposed Desigu.

50. Thus, dear Children of God in Christ, we give you our knowledge and " intent to ponder on. We mentioned in the beginning, that we would show you concerning the Death of Christ; First, why Christ must have died; and Secondly, why we must die also; and Thirdly, rise again in Christ.

51. This you see now in this Description very clearly, and understand our great Misery, that it has been necessary for us, that the Word or Life of the Holy Light-world is become a Man, and has generated us anew in himself: whosoever understands nothing here, he is not generated or born of God.

52. Do but see into what Lodging, Adam has introduced us; he was an extract of all the three Principles, a total Similitude according to all the Three-Worlds, and had in his Mind and Spirit the angelical Property in him.

53. He was introduced into the holy Power and Substantiality, viz. into Paradise, that is, the divine Substantiality; he should have eaten of divine Substantiality, and have drunk the Water of eternal Life after an angelical Manner; as in the Book of the Threefold Life has been mentioned at large.

54. But he lost the divine Substantiality, and the angelical Property, and Imagined into the Out-birth, viz. into the Kingdom of the earthly Source or Quality, which the Devil had kindled in his Fall: he turned his Eyes out from God into the ^x earthly ^x Or Ruler. God, out from the divine Light, into the Light of this World.

55. Thus he became captivated, and remained in the earthly Source or Quality; and so he fell into the earthly corruptible Source or Quality, which rules in him, and fills him; it puts a Body on to him, and breaks or destroys it again, and swallows it up into its own Essence, into its Essential Fire.

56. But seeing the Soul was Breathed in, out of the Spirit of God, viz. out of the Eternal, into Man, so that the Soul is an Angel, therefore has God assumed the same to himself again.

57. And the Power of the holy Light-World, viz. the Heart of God, is entered into the human Essence, which laid shut up in Death, into the Anguish-Chamber of our Misery.

58. He has gotten into himself a Soul out of our Essence, he has taken our Mortal Life into himself, and introduced the Soul through Death, through the earnest severe Fire of God the Father, into the Light-World; he has broken or destroyed Death which held us Captive, and opened the Life.

59. Now it may not, nor cannot be otherwise; whosoever will possess the Light-World, must enter in through the same Path which he has made: he must enter into the Death of Christ, and so in Christ's Resurrection he enters into the Light-World.

60. Even as we know, that the eternal Word of the Father, which is the Father's Heart, becomes generated from Eternity to Eternity, out of the fierce Wrath of the Death of Darknefs, through the Father's Fire, and is in himself the right Center of the Holy Trinity; and is out of himself, together with the Holy Spirit which proceeded forth, the Light-flaming Majesty, or Light-World.

61. Thus also in like Manner and Property must we, with our Hearts, Senses, or Thoughts, and Minds, go forth out of the harsh Astringent, Stern and Evil, or Malignant earthliness, out of ourselves, out of the perished or corrupted Adamical Man, and with our earnest severe willing and doing slay him.

62. We must take upon us the Old Adam's Cross, which hangs to us, while we live, and must upon and in the ¹ Cross go into the Center of Nature, into the ² Tri- y angle, and be born a new again out of the anxious Wheel, if we will be Angels. ² †

63. But seeing we were not able to do this, therefore has Christ given himself into that very Center of the fierce Wrath, and broken the fierce Wrath and extinguished it with his Love. ² △

64. For he brought heavenly divine Substantiality into that very fierce Wrath, into the Center of the Anguish-Chamber, and extinguished the Soul's Anguish-fire, viz. ² Or into the Bottom of Wrath. the fierce Wrath of the Father of the fiery World in the Soul; so that thus now, we fall no more ² home to the fierce Wrath.

65. But when we give up ourselves into the Death of Christ, and go forth out of ourselves, out of the Evil earthly Adam, then we fall in Christ's Death into the Path or Way, which he has made or prepared for us; we fall into ^b the Bosom of Abraham, that is, into Christ's Arms, who receives us into himself.

^b Luke 16. 22, 23.

* Note.

66. For the Bosom of Abraham is the * opened light World in the Death of Christ; it is the Paradise, wherein God created us.

67. And now the Matter lies in this, not that we be Lip-Christians, or Mouth-Christians, and pourtray and represent Christ's Death before us, and remain wicked in Heart, Spirit, and Soul, but that we very earnestly with Mind and Thoughts, with willing and doing, go forth out of the evil Inclinations or Injections, and strive and fight against them.

68. And though they evidently cleave and hang to us, yet we must daily and hourly slay that evil Adam, as to his willing and doing; we must do that which we would not willingly do.

^d Matt. 11. 12.

69. We ^c must deny our earthly evil Life itself, and put on Christ's Life in us, and then ^d the Kingdom of Heaven suffers Violence, and the Violent take it to themselves, as Christ said.

^e Even while we are alive in this Body.

70. Thus we become Impregnated with the Kingdom of Heaven, and enter thus into Christ's Death ^e with the living Body, and receive the Body of Christ, viz. the divine Substantiality; we carry the Kingdom of Heaven in Us.

71. And thus we are Christ's Children, Members, and Heirs in God's Kingdom, and the express reflex Image of the holy divine World, which is God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and the same Holy Trinity's Substantiality.

72. All whatsoever is generated and opened out of the Wisdom or Substantiality, is our Paradise; and nothing dies to or in us, but only the dead Adam, the earthly Evil one, whose willing we here nevertheless have continually broken and destroyed, to whom we are become Enemies.

^f Note, what departs from us in our Death.

^g Note, what rises again at our Resurrection.

^h Or for.

* Note.

73. ^f Our Enemy only departs from us, he must go into the Fire, understand into the essential Fire, viz. into the four Elements, and into the Mystery, and must, at the End of this Time, be tried through the Fire of God; and our ^g Wonders and Works must be presented to us there again; whatsoever the earthly Mystery has devoured and swallowed up into itself, that it must give up again into the Fire of God.

74. And yet not such an Evil [one, or Substance,] ^h but the Fire of God devours * the Evil, and gives us such a one for it, as we here in our Anxious seeking have fought or desired.

75. For as the Fire devours the Substantiality, but gives Spirit for Substance; so shall our Works in the Spirit and Joy out of the Fire of God be presented, and set before us as a clear fair Looking-Glass, like the Wonders and Wisdom of God.

76. Let this be manifested or revealed to you, dear Children, for it is become highly known; suffer not yourselves to be so merely amused with Christ's Death, and to Pourtray or Paint the same before you as a Work done, and that it is enough for us, when we know and believe that it is done for us.

77. What does it avail me, that I know a Treasure lies hid deep, and that I dig it out? it avails nothing to comfort and flatter in hypocrisy, and with the Mouth to give good Words and fine Babbling, but yet retain Wickedness in the Soul.

ⁱ John 3. 3. 5. 7.

^k Matt. 18. 3.

78. Christ saith, ⁱ Ye must become born anew, or else ye will not see the Kingdom of God: ^k we must Convert and become as a Child in the Mother's Body, or Womb, and be Generated or Born out of divine Substantiality.

79. We must put a New Garment on to our Soul, viz. the Mantle of Christ, the Humanity of Christ; for no flattering Hypocrisy avails.

80. It is all Lying which the Mouth-cry saith, which pourtrays Christ before our Eyes, as that he has done it for us, and that we should only Comfort ourselves with it, and thereupon walk in the old Adam, in Covetousness, High-mindedness, and Fallhood, in the Lusts of Evil and Maliciousness; it is the Antichristian deceit of the false Spirituality or Clergy, of whom the Revelation warneth us.

81. It all avails nothing, that we flatter ourselves, and amuse ourselves with Christ's Suffering and Death: we must enter into it, and be like or ¹ conformable to his Image, ¹ Rom. 8. 29. and then is Christ's Suffering and Death profitable to us.

82. ^m We must take his Cross upon us, and follow him, quench the evil Lusts and ^m Mat. 16. 24. slay them, and always readily and earnestly will and desire that which is well; and then we shall plainly see what Christ's Footsteps are.

83. When we shall strive and ⁿ fight against the Devil, the old Adam, and the ⁿ James 4. 7. evil World, against earthly Reason which desires only Pleasure and Voluptuousness, then Christ's Cross becomes rightly laid upon us; for the Devil is that, the World is that, and our evil Adam is that, which we must fight against; all these are our Enemies.

84. And there must the new Man stand as a Champion, and Fight in the Footsteps of Christ.

85. O how innumerable many Enemies will he there awaken and stir up, which will all fall upon him: and this may indeed be called fighting for the thorny victorious Garland or Crown of Christ, as a Conqueror, and yet only be continually despised, as ^o one that is not worthy to live upon the Earth. ^o Acts 22. 22.

86. This may indeed be called standing in the Battle, and Faith or Believing; ^{Hebrews 11.} where the outward Reason saith clearly no, there it is good to set Christ's Suffering and Death in the fore-front, and to present, and set it before the Devil, the World, and Death, together with the earthly Reason, and not ^{36-38.}  Despair*, or give over as a ^{* Note.} desperate Coward.

87. For here it is for an Angel's Crown, either to be an Angel or a Devil.

88. We must in Trouble and Affliction become new born, for it costeth much to Wrestle with God's Anger, and to Vanquish the Devil: if we had not there Christ by and with us, we should lose the Battle.

89. A small Portion of Skill and Knowledge will not do it, that we know this, and amuse ourselves with God's Grace, and make God a Cover for our Sins, that so we may stick and finely Cover the Wickedness and Vizard of the Devil under the Sufferings of Christ.

90. O no! The wicked one must be destroyed in Christ's Sufferings and Death; he must not be a wicked one; if he will be a Child, he must become an Obedient Son, he must Labour in the Sufferings of Christ, and walk in the Footsteps of the Truth, Righteousness, and Love; he must do, not know only.

91. The Devil knows it also well, what does that avail him? The Practice must follow, else it is but Falseness and Deceit.

92. Hypocritical dissembling Reason saith, Christ has done it, we cannot do it: very right; he has done that which we could not do, he has broken and destroyed Death, and brought or restored Life again; what will that avail me, if I enter not into him?

93. He is in Heaven, and I in this World, I must enter into him in his Way and Passage that he has made for us, else I remain without.

94. For he saith; ^p Come to me all that are weary and heavy Laden, I will refresh or ^p Matt. 11. 28, quicken you; take my Yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly of Heart, 29. and so you shall find Rest to your Souls.

95. In his Path or Passage we must enter into him; we must ^q do Good for Evil, ^q Rom. 12. 21.

¹ Gal. 2. 20. and love one another, ² as he did us, and gave his Life for us: if we do thus, then we ¹ Tim. 2. 6. quench God's Anger also in our Neighbour.

96. We must give good Example; not in Crafty Subtlety, Artifice and Designs, ² 2 Cor. 1. 12. but ³ in Simplicity, with a good Will and Heart.

97. Not as a dissembling hypocritical Whore, which saith; I am a Virgin, and dissembles in outward Modesty, but yet is a Whore in her Heart: all must be in very earnest Sincerity.

⁴ Note. 98. Rather have no Money nor Goods, also lose temporal Honour, Reputation; and Power, than God's Kingdom. He that ⁵ findeth God, has found all: He that loseth him, has lost all: He has lost himself.

⁶ Joyful Ac- 99. O how very hardly does it come to pass to break the earthly Will; comequisition. but to this 'Dancing Ring, thou wilt afterwards no more need to ask after the Footsteps of Christ, thou wilt see them very well.

100. Thou wilt well feel the Cross of Christ; thou wilt well feel God's Anger, which otherwise rests securely and sleeps in the old Adam, till thou finely fattenest him with Dignities; and then he gives thee thy Kingdom of Heaven which thou hast here sought after.

The Sixth Chapter.

Of our Death, why we must die; notwithstanding Christ died for us, and of the new Man.

⁷ Summons,
 or warning.

CITATIO PRIMA. The First ⁸ Citation.

1.  Dear flattering hypocritical Reason, come hither to this Feast. Hither we have invited you all, both the Knowing and the Ignorant, all you that would see God: it is a hard Seal and a fast Lock to open, think upon it, it concerns you all.

Reason's Objection.

2. Reason saith; Was not God Omnipotent enough, to forgive Adam his Sin, but that first God must become Man, suffer, and permit himself to be put to Death? What Pleasure has God in Death?

3. Or if he would needs redeem us in such a way, seeing Christ has redeemed us, why must we then also die?

Answer.

4. Dance here, dear Reason; Guess till thou hittest it; be a Doctor here, and know nothing, be Learned, and also Dumb or Mute. Wilt thou not? but thou must, unless thou comest to this School; understand the School of the Holy Spirit.

⁹ Rev. 5. 7. 5. Who is here that can open this? Is it not that ¹⁰ closed or shut Book of him that sitteth upon the Throne or Seat in the Revelation of Jesus Christ?

6. Then saith the Hypocrite, we know it well; therefore say I, I have not heard it from them, nor read it in their Writings; they have also forbidden me this seeing; and have shot a Sin-Bolt upon it, and esteemed or accounted it as Sin in them that seek such things, or desire to know them.

7. Hereby has the fair Woman continued finely covered : O how has Antichrist been able to Sport and act its Scene under this Covering !

8. But it shall stand open, against the Will of the Devil and of Hell ; for the time is born ; the Day of the bringing again or Restauration breaks, that it may be found what Adam lost.

9. The Scripture saith ; ^x We are Dust and Ashes : that is very right ; we are Dust ^{Gen. 3. 19.} and Earth. ^{and 18. 27.}

10. But now it may be asked, Whether God made Man out of Earth ? That Reason will maintain, and prove it out of Moses, whom yet they understand not ; neither does the Proof afford it, but affordeth much more, that Man is a Limus, that is, an Extract out of all the three Principles.

11. If he is to be a Similitude of God's Substance, then he must needs be proceeded out of God's Substance ; for that which is not out of the Eternal, that is not permanent.

12. All that which begins, belongs to that out of which it is gone forth ; so that if it be proceeded forth barely out of the Earth, then we are of the Earth ; what then can blame us that we do so as the Earth's property drives and willeth us ?

13. But if there is ^y a Law in us, that blames, checks, or accuses us, that we live ^{Rom. 2. 24.} earthly, then that itself is not earthly ; but it is out of or from that, to which it directs ^{and 7. 23.} and draws us, viz. out of the Eternal, whither it also draws us ; and ^z our own Con- ^{Rom. 2. 15.} sciences blame or accuse us before the Eternal, that we make and do that which is against the Eternal.

14. But if we give ourselves up to that which draws us into the Eternal, then must the other that draws us into the earthly break or corrupt, and enter into that into which it willeth, viz. into the Earth, into which it draws us ; and that willing which we give up into the Eternal, that the Eternal receives in.

15. Seeing God has created Man in a Substance, to be therein eternally, viz. in Flesh and Blood ; therefore, of necessity, to that willing which gives itself up into the Eternal, must such Flesh and Blood be put on ; as it was, when God created it in Paradise in the Eternal.

16. Whereby then we clearly know, that God has not created us in such Flesh and Blood as we now bear upon us, but in such Flesh and Blood as is put on to the willing in the New birth.

17. Else it would instantly before the Fall have been earthly and corruptible : what should my Conscience blame or accuse me for that, wherein God had created me ? Or what should it desire more than what it was in its own Substance ?

18. Thus of necessity we find it clear, that there is yet another Substance in our Flesh, which Groans, Sighs, and Pants after that, which yet now is not.

19. Seeing then that it Sighs and Pants after that which yet now is not, therefore it must needs have been so in the Beginning of its Being and Substance, else there would be no sighing or longing in it after another thing.

20. For we know that every Substance sighs after that, out of which it had its first Original ; and so our Will sighs after such a Flesh as God created, which may subsist in God ; not after an earthly transitory one, in Source and Quality, but after a permanent one without Source or Quality.

21. Whereby we clearly understand, that we are gone forth out of the eternal into the corruptible, that we have attracted or contrasted the Matter to the ^a Limus, and ^{is not of all the three Principles.} are become Earth, whereas yet God had extracted us out thereof as a Mass, and introduced his Spirit therinto with the Eternal.

22. For Adam's Imagination has drawn the Earthly source or quality of the Stars and four Elements into the Limus, and the Stars and Elements have drawn in the longing Malady of the Earth; and thus the heavenly Matter of the heavenly Flesh became Earthly.

23. For the Spirit of God which was breathed in from the Word Fiat into the Limus, out of God's Heart, which had heavenly substantiality, had heavenly flesh and blood on it, that should rule Adam according to the heavenly divine property.

24. But seeing the Devil, when he sat in Heaven, had infected the Limus, so now he did to it also this wickedness, and infected it with his Imagination, so that it began to Imagine, or long after the perished Malady, or seeking of the Earthly source or quality, whence he became captivated by the Kingdom of this perished world, which attracted the Limus as a Lord.

25. And Now the Image of God became perished, and fell into the Earthly source or quality.

^b The Sulphur and Limus are near of the same import.

26. But seeing the heavenly Spirit was in the perished Earthly ^b Sulphur, the heavenly glance of the divine Fire could not so subsist in the burning; for the Eternal fire's Light subsists in the Liberty without or beyond the source or quality.

27. But seeing the water of the Liberty, which was the food of the Eternal Fire, became Earthly, that is, filled with Earthliness, and that the Meek love became infected with the Earthly evil Longing and Malady, therefore could not the Eternal fire burn, nor give any Light; but it ^c Glowed thus in the Earthly flesh, as a damped Fire, that cannot burn for Moisture.

^c Flowed or qualified.
 ^{Qual.}
 ^{*} Note.

28. That very fire ^{*} gnarvs us now, it always blames or accuses us, and would fain burn and receive heavenly Substantiality, therefore it must devour and swallow up the Earthly source or quality into itself, viz. the Earthly Imagination, wherein the Devil's longing Malady mixes itself.

29. Thus it also becomes Evil, and draws us continually to the Abyss, into the Center of Nature, into the Anguish-Chamber, out of which it went forth in the Beginning.

30. Thus thou seest O Man what thou art; and whatsoever thou further makest out of thyself, that thou wilt be in Eternity; and thou seest wherefore thou must break, corrupt and die, for the Kingdom of ^d this world passes away.

^d 1 John 2. 16, 17.

31. Yet thou art not in thy outward Substance so potent to continue in that Kingdom, even to its Eternity; but thou art impotent or weak therein, and liest merely therein, in a Constellation or Astrum, which has the Configuration or Course; wherein thou in flesh and blood, of the Earthly substance in the Mother's Body or Womb, art flown forth.

32. Thou art so impotent or weak in the outward life, that thou canst not prevent thy Constellation or Astrum; thou must go into the Corruption or breaking of thy Body, when the Constellation leaves thee.

^e Gen. 3. 19.

33. And there thou seest undeniably what ^e thou art, viz. Dust of the Earth: Earth full of stinking rottenness, even whilst thou livest; a dead Carcase, while thou yet livest.

^f Aspects.

34. Thou livest to the ^f Configuration and Elements; they rule and drive thee according to their property; they give thee employment and art; and when their Seculum, Time, or Season or Period, is run about, that thy Constellation under which thou wert conceived and born to this world is finished, then they let thee fall away.

35. And then thy body falls home to the four Elements, and thy spirit which leads thee, to the Mystery, out of which the Astrum or Configuration became generated, and wilt be there referred to the Judgment of God, where God will prove and try all through the fire of his Might.

36. Thus

36. Thus thou must Moulder away and become Earth, and a Nothing, all but the spirit which is proceeded out of the Eternal, which God introduced into the Limus: therein consider what thou art, even a handful of Earth, and a source or qualifying house or tormenting Workhouse of the Stars and Elements.

37. Wilt thou not have thy soul, or Eternal Spirit, which is given thee from the Eternal highest Good, here in this Time kindled again in the Light of God, so that it becomes born again in the Light out of the divine Substantiality? then it falls in the Mystery to the Center of Nature, viz. Home again to the first Mother into the Anguish-Chamber of the first four forms of Nature.

38. There it must be a Spirit in the dark anguish-source or quality, with all Devils, and devour that which it has in this World introduced into itself; that will be its food and life.

39. But seeing God would not have it thus with man, his similitude and image, therefore he himself is become that, which poor Man was come to be after that he was fallen out of the divine Substantiality out of Paradise, that he might help him again; so that Man has in himself the Gate of Regeneration, that he can in the soul's fire be born again in God; and that the same soul's fire may draw into itself divine ^{John 3. 3. 5.} substantiality again, and fill itself with the divine Love-source, from which the divine Kingdom of Joy becomes born again; and that the soul's fire bring forth the Holy Spirit again, as is aforementioned, which went forth out of the soul's fire; and that the Adamic flesh might draw back the ungodly willing, so that the poor soul might not be filled again with the Earthly and Devilish longing Malady.

The Gate of the New Man.

40. This is now to be understood thus: God is become Man, and has introduced our human soul into the divine substantiality, again in Christ: that eats again of the divine substantiality, viz. of the Love and Meekness, and drinks of the water-spirit of Eternal Life, out of the Eternal wisdom, which is the fountain of divine substantiality.

41. That same soul of Christ has gotten divine heavenly flesh and blood on it, together with the word, which is the Center of the Light-world, which therein imagines or longs after the poor Captive Souls; that very word dwells in the divine Substantiality, and in the virgin of Wisdom.

42. But it ^h came into Mary, and took our own Flesh and Blood into the divine Sub- ^h John 1. 14. stantiality, and broke and destroyed the Power, which held us captive in the anger of Death and of the fierce wrath, on the Cross, viz. in the Center of Nature of the Original in the Father's Eternal willing to Nature, out of which our Soul was taken.

43. And it kindled in that same Essence, viz. in the soul's dark fire, the burning Light-fire again, and brought the other or second willing of the soul through the fire of God, viz. quite forth out of the Original, into the burning white clear bright Light.

44. And when Nature in the Soul found this, it became richly full of Joy, it broke Death in pieces, and sprouted with God's power forth into the Light-world, and made out of the fire a Love-desire, so that in Eternity no fire more is perceived or known, but a great and strong will in the Love, after its sprouts and branches, viz. after our souls.

45. And this is that which we say; God thirsts after our souls: ⁱ He is become our ⁱ John 15. 5. stock, we are his sprouts and branches.

46. As a stock always gives its sap to the Branches, so that they live and bear fruit, to the Glory of the whole Tree; so does also to us our ^{*} stock the Lord JESUS CHRIST, ^{*} Or Tree.

in the Light-world, who has manifested himself in our souls, he will have our souls viz. * bis Branches.

* Note.

47. He is entered into Adam's place or stead, who has destroyed us; he is become Adam in the Regeneration.

48. Adam brought our souls into this world, into the Death of the fierce wrathfulness; and he brought our Soul out of Death, through the Fire of God, and kindled it in the Fire again, so that it attained the shining Light again, whereas else it had continued in the Dark Death, in the Anguish source or quality.

† Note.

49. And now at present it lies only † in our own entering in, that we only follow after in the same way which he has made.

50. We need only to cast our Imagination and Total willing into Him, which is called Glauben, Believing or Faith, and to oppose the Old Earthly willing, and so we conceive or receive the Spirit of Christ out of the Regeneration, which draws heavenly substance into our souls, ¹ viz. Christ's heavenly Flesh and Blood.

51. When the Soul tastes that, then it breaks through the dark Death in itself, and kindles the Fire of Eternity in itself, out of which the shining Light of the Meekness burns.

52. That same very Meekness draws the soul again into itself, viz. the soul's Fire, and swallows the same up into itself, and gives forth out of the Death the Life and Spirit of Christ.

53. Thus that same Spirit, which goes forth out of the Eternal Fire, dwells in the Light-world with God, and is the right Image of the Holy Trinity.

^m According to the right Image, our conversation is in Heaven.

54. ^m It dwells not in this world, the body apprehends it not; but the Noble Mind, wherein the Soul is a fire, that apprehends it, yet not palpably.

55. Indeed the Noble Image dwells in the soul's fire of the Mind; but it hovers therein, as the light in the Fire.

ⁿ The Soul.

56. For while the Earthly Man lives, the soul is continually in Hazard or danger; for the Devil has Enmity with ⁿ it, who continually casts forth his streams, with false and wicked Imaginations, into the starry and Elementary spirit, and reaches or grasps therewith after the soul's fire, and wills continually to infect the same with the Earthly diabolical longing and malady.

57. There must the Noble Image defend itself against the soul's fire, and there it costs striving and fighting for the Angel's Garland; there rises up often, in the Old Adam, anguish, doubting and unbelief, when the Devil sets upon the soul.

58. O thou Cross of Christ, how heavy art thou oftentimes? how does the heaven hide itself? but so the Noble Grain is sown; when that is sprung up, then it brings forth much fair fruit in Patience: thus every little sprout grows in the soul out of the divine wisdom.

59. It must all press forth out of the Anguish-Chamber, as a sprout out of the root of the Tree, it is all generated in the anguish.

^o Note, ye children of the Noble Sophia.

60. ^o If a Man will have divine knowledge, he must very many times go into the Anguish-Chamber into the Center; for every Sparkle of the Divine Ingenium, wit, skill, or understanding out of God's Wisdom, must become generated out of the Center of Nature, else it is not permanent or Eternal.

61. It must, out of the Eternal Ground, stand upon the Eternal Root, and so it is a Sprout in God's Kingdom out of Christ's Tree.

62. Thus we understand the Dying, what it is, and wherefore Christ must have died, and why we must all die in Christ's Death, if we will possess bis Glory.

^p Cor. 2. 13

63. The Old Adam cannot do that, he must go again into that out of which he is gone forth, he ^p shall be tried through the fire of God, and give up the wonders again, which he has swallowed up.

64. * They must come again to Man, and appear to Man according to his will, so far * Note. as he has here made them in God's willing; but so far as to God's dishonour, so they belong to the Devil in the Abyss.

65. Therefore let every one look to it, what they here do and make, with what Mind and Conscience he speaks, does and converses; it shall be all tried through the fire.

66. And what is capable of the fire, that it shall devour, and give it to the Abyss in the Anguish; ¹ of that a Man shall have loss and hurt, and shall want it in the ¹ 1 Cor. 3. 15; other world.

67. Instead of having Joy that he was a ¹ Labourer in the Vineyard of God, he will be ¹ Matt. 20. 1. found to be a ¹ sluggish servant. ¹ Matt. 25. 26.

68. Therefore will also the power, might, clarity and brightness in the wonders of the divine wisdom in the other world, be very unlike and different.

69. Many is here a King, but in ¹ the world to come a swineherd shall be preferred ¹ Matt. 12. 32. before him in the clarity, brightness and wisdom; the Cause is, his wonders will be given ¹ Eph. 1. 21. to the Abyss, seeing they were Evil.

70. Behold, ye dear Men, I show you a similitude of the Angelical world, behold the flowery blossoming surface of the earth, or the star, and constellations, how ¹ one Star, ¹ 1 Cor. 15. 41. also one Herb, excels another in power, virtue and beauty, also in the Ornament of its form; so also the Angelical World.

71. For we shall be presented in a spiritual Flesh and Blood, not in such a ¹ form or ¹ Or Condition. manner, as here.

72. The spiritual Body can go through Earthly stone, so subtle is it, else it were not capable of the Deity.

73. For God dwells without or beyond the palpable source or quality, in the quiet still Liberty; his own Substance is the Light and power of the Majesty.

74. Thus we must also have a power-body, but truly and really in Flesh and Blood; but therein is a Glance of the Tincture; for the Spirit is so very thin, that it is unapprehensible by the Body, and yet is palpable in the liberty, Else it were a Nothing.

75. And the Body is much thicker than the spirit, that so the Spirit may lay hold of it and eat it; whence it maintains the Spirit-Life in the Fire, and gives forth out of the Fire the Light of the Majesty, and out of the Light again the Meekness in flesh and blood, so that there is an Eternal substance.

76. Now if we thus find and know ourselves, then we see, know and understand * what * Note. God is and can do; and what the Substance of all Substances is.

77. And we thus find how altogether blindly we are led astray Erroneously, in that Men tell us very much of God's will, and represent the Deity continually as some foreign or strange substance, which is far off from us, as if God were some strange thing, and did bear only some inclinable will towards Us, and did forgive sin out of Favour, as a King pardons one his Life, who had forfeited it.

78. But no! hearken; It is not hypocritical Flattery and seeming Holiness, and to continue and abide wicked, that is called for; but it is said, we must become born out of God, or be lost from God Eternally.

79. For true Faith and Will must do it; the will must earnestly enter into God, it must attain heavenly Substance, else neither singing, ringing, crying, or flattering, or whatsoever it may be called, will avail.

80. God needs no service or ministry: we should serve and minister one to another, and love one another, and give thanks to the Great God; that is, to lift up ourselves in one Mind and Consent into God, and make known his wonders; to call upon his Name, and praise him ; that is the Joy in Ternario Sancto, in the Holy Ternary, where the Eternal Wisdom, out of the Praise, gives forth Wonders, Powers, and Sprouts.

^y Matth. 6.
^{10.} Luke 11.
2.

81. Thus the Devil's Kingdom becomes destroyed, and ^y God's Kingdom comes to us, and his Will is done ; else all is but human Inventions, Traditions and Doings, in the sight of God, an unprofitable thing, a Flattery or Hypocrisy, and makes no attonement or reconciliation, but only leads a Man away from God.

^z Matth. 22.

82. God's Kingdom must come in us, and his will be done in us, and so we serve him right, when we ^z love him from our whole heart, soul, and all our powers, and our Neighbour as ourselves : This is the whole service of God, which he accepteth of us.

83. What need we flatter ourselves ; are we righteous ? Then we ourselves are Gods in the Great God ; and what we do then, God does it in and through us.

84. If his Spirit be in us, why do we so very long take care about God's service ? If he will do any thing, we should be willing and ready servants, he must be the Workmaster, if a Work is to please God.

85. Whatsoever is besides that, is Earthly, built in the Spirit of this world ; we build that for the outward Heaven, for the Stars and Elements, which have their productions and wonders in us, and for the dark Devil, whom we serve with Works without the spirit of God.

86. Let this be said to you, it is highly known : No work pleases God, except it proceeds ² from Faith in God : Flatter how thou wilt, yet thou labourest only in this world, thou sowest in an Earthly field.

^b Gal. 6. 7, 8.

87. But if ^b thou wilt reap heavenly fruit, then thou must sow heavenly seed ; and if it comes not to root in a strange field, then thy seed comes to thee again, and grows in thy own field, and thou wilt enjoy the fruit thyself.

The Seventh Chapter.

Of Divine or Spiritual Sight or Vision : How in this World Man can have Divine and Heavenly Substantiality, or Skill and Knowledge ; so that he can rightly speak of God ; and how his Sight or Vision is.

or warning.

CITATIO SECUNDA, The Second ^c Citation ; or, Invitation of the outward Reason of this World, in the outward Flesh and Blood.

Question.

1.  Outward Reason saith, How may a Man in this world see into God, viz. into another World, and declare what God is ? That cannot be : It must needs be a ^d Fancy wherewith the Man amuses and deceives himself.

^d Representation, or Imagination.

Answer.

2. Thus far it comes : It cannot search further, that it might rest ; and if I stuck in that same Art, then would I also say the same; for he who sees nothing, says nothing is there; what he sees, that he knows, and further he knows of nothing, but that which is before his Eyes.

3. But I would have the Scornor, and total Earthly Man, asked, Whether the Heaven is blind, as also Hell, and God himself?

4. Or whether there is also any seeing in the divine World? Whether also the Spirit of God sees both in the Love-light World, and in the fierce Wrath in the Anger-world in the Center?

5. Does he say there is a seeing therein? as indeed it is very true, * then he should look to it, that he does not often see with the Devil's Eyes in his purposed Malice and Wickedness, when he long before models and ° frames a thing to himself in his Imagination in false evil Maliciousness to bring it to pass, and sees before-hand how he may and will effect his Wickedness. * Note. ° Or purposes, and contrives.

6. Can he there see the wicked Malice before-hand? Why sees he not also his Wages and Recompence before-hand?

7. O no, the Devil sees with his Eyes, and covers the Punishment, that he may bring the evil Wickedness to pass.

8. If he would drive the Devil out, then he would see his great folly which the Devil has prompted him to.

9. He lets him see the Evil, and lends him Eyes to do it with, though the thing be far off, and long before it is done, and yet he is so blinded, that he knows not that he sees with the Devil's Eyes.

10. In like manner, the Holy Man, or Saint, sees with God's Eyes; what God purposes, that the Spirit of God in the New Regeneration sees out of the right human Eyes, out of the Image of God.

11. It is to the Wise a seeing, and also a Doing, not to the Old Adam; that must be a servant to it, that must ^f transact in the Work that which the New Man sees in God. ^f Put in execution.

12. Yet Christ saith, ^g The Son of Man does Nothing, but what he sees the Father do, ^g Job 5. 19. and that he does also.

13. Now therefore is the Son of Man become our ^h House, into which we are entered; he is become our Body, and his Spirit is our Spirit. ^h Or Habitation.

14. Should we then in Christ be blind as to God? The Spirit of Christ sees through, and in us, what he will; and whatsoever he wills, that we see and know in him, and without him we know nothing of God.

15. He does divine Works, and sees what and when he Will; not when Adam will, when Adam would fain shed abroad his malignant Wickedness with high-mindedness, to be looked upon.

16. O no, there he hides himself: He sees not in us in the light of Joy in God, but in the Cross and Tribulation, in Christ's suffering and dying, in Christ's persecution and contempt, in great sorrow and lamentation; into these he sees, and lets the Old Afs crouch and bear the Cross, that is, its Office.

17. But in the Way through the Death of Christ, the New Man sees into the Angelical World; it is to him much easier and clearer to apprehend than the Earthly World; it is done naturally.

18. Not with Imagining, but with seeing Eyes, with those Eyes which shall possess the Angelical World, viz. with the Eyes of the soul's Image, with the Spirit which goes forth out of the Soul's Fire.

19. That Spirit sees into Heaven, that beholds God and the Eternity, and no other; and that is also the noble Image, according to the similitude of God.

20. Out of, or from this seeing has this Pen written, not from other Masters, or out of Conjecture whether it be true or no.

21. Though now indeed a Creature is but a piece, and not a total consummation, so that we see only in Part, yet it is capable of being searched, and fundamental.

22. But the Wisdom of God suffers not itself to be written, for it is infinite or endless, without number and comprehension, we know only in Part.

ⁱ 1 Cor. 13.
9—12.

23. And though indeed we know much more, yet the Earthly Tongue cannot exalt itself and declare it, or bring it forth: It speaks only Words of this World, and not words of the inward World; for the Mind retains them in ^k the hidden Man.

^k 1 Pet. 3. 4.

24. And therefore one always understands otherwise than another, all according as every one is endued with the Wisdom, and so also he apprehends, and so he explains it.

* Note.

25. * Every one will not understand my writings according to my meaning and sense; indeed it may be not one, but every one according to his Gifts, for his ^l benefit, one more than another, according as the Spirit has its property in him.

^l Or improvement.

^m 1 Cor. 14.
32.

26. For the Spirit of God is often ^m subject to the Spirits of Men, if they will that which is good or well, and sees or looks after what Man wills, that his good Work be not hindered, but that every where, above all, God's will or Willing or Desire be done.

27. For the Spirit which becomes generated out of the Soul's Fire out of God's meekness and substance, that is also the Holy Spirit: It dwells in the divine Property, and takes its sight out of the divine Property.

28. What is it now that is strange to or in us, that we cannot see God? This World, and the Devil in God's Anger, are the cause that we see not with God's Eyes, else there is no hindrance.

29. Now, if one saith I see nothing divine, he should consider that Flesh and Blood, together with the subtlety and craft of the Devil, is a hindrance and cover to him oftentimes, in that he willeth in his high-mindedness for his own Honour to see God, and oftentimes in that he is filled and blinded with the Earthly Malignity.

* Note.

30. * Let him look into the footsteps of Christ, and enter into a new Life, and give himself to be under the Cross of Christ, and desire only the Entrance of Christ, through Christ's death, descension into Hell, and ascension into Heaven to the Father; what shall hinder him, but that he must needs see the Father, and his Saviour Christ, together with the Holy Spirit?

31. Should now the Holy Spirit be blind, when he dwells in Man, or write I this for my own boasting?

32. Not so, but for a rule of direction to the Reader, that he might forsake his Error and depart from the way of Wickedness and Abomination into a holy divine substance, that he also with the divine Eyes might see the Wonders of God, that so God's Will may be done.

33. To which End this Pen has written very much, and not for its own Honour, or for the sake of the Pleasure and Voluptuousness of this Life, as the Driver continually reproaches us, that we do, and yet it remains only to the Driver in the Anger of God, whom we would desire that he might have the kingdom of Heaven, if he might but be released from the Devil, and the Earthly State and proud Longing Malady, which make him blind.

34. Thus, dear Children of God, you who seek with much sighing and tears, let this be in earnest sincerity to you: Our sight and knowledge is in God: He manifests or reveals to every one in this World as much as he will, as he knows is profitable and good for him.

35. For he that sees out of or from God, he has God's Work to manage; he should and must order, teach, speak, and do that which he sees, else his sight will be taken from him; for this World is not worthy of God's vision.

36. But for the sake of the Wonders, and the Revelation of God, it is given to many to see, that the Name of God may be manifested to the World, which will also be a Witness against all the Actions of the ungodly, which pervert the Truth into Lies, and despise the Holy Spirit.

37. For ^o we are not our own, but his whom we serve in his Light.

ⁿ 1 Cor. 6 13.

38. We know nothing of God: He, God himself, is our knowing and seeing.

39. We are nothing, that he may be all in us: We should be blind, deaf, and dumb, and know no Life in us, that he may be our Life and Vision, and our Work may be his.

40. Our Tongue should not say, if we have done any thing that is good, this have we done, but this has the Lord in us done: His Name be highly praised.

41. But what does this evil World now? If any one says, this has God in me done: If it be good, then saith the World, Thou Fool! thou hast done it: God is not in thee: Thou liest: Thus the Spirit of God must be their Fool and Liar.

42. What is it then? Or who speaketh out of the Blasphemous Mouth? Even the Devil, who is an Enemy of God, that he may hide and cover the Work of God, that God's Spirit might not become known, and that he may continue Prince of the World even till the Judgment.

43. * Thus, when you see that the World fighteth against you, persecutes you, despi- • Note:
ses, slanders you, for the sake of the knowledge and Name of God, then consider that you have the black Devil before you: Then sigb, and long that God's Kingdom may come to us, and the Devil's sting may be broken or destroyed, that ^o the Man through your longing, fighting, and praying, may be released from the Devil; and then you la- ^o So inflamed bour rightly in God's Vineyard, you prevent the Devil of his Kingdom, and bring forth fruit upon God's Table. by the Devil.

44. For in Love and Meekness we become new born out of the Anger of God, in love and meekness we must strive and fight in the Devil's Thorny Bath, in this World, against him.

45. For Love is his Poison, it is a fire of Terror to him, wherein he cannot stay: If he knew the least spark of Love in himself, he would cast it away, or would burst himself on that account, that he might be rid of it.

46. Therefore is Love and Meekness our Sword, wherewith we can fight for the Noble Garland under Christ's Thorny Crown, with the Devil and the World.

47. For Love is the Fire of the second Principle, it is God's Fire; the Devil and the World are an Enemy to it.

48. The Love hath God's Eyes, and sees in God, and the Anger has the Eyes of the ferce Wrath in the Anger of God, that sees in Hell in the source or Torment and Death.

49. The World supposes merely, that a Man must see God with the Earthly and Starry Eyes; it knows not that God dwells not in the outward, but in the inward.

50. And if then it sees nothing admirable or wonderful in God's children, it says, O he is a Fool, he is an Idiot, he is melancholy; thus much it knows.

51. O hearken, I know well what Melancholy is: I know also well what is from God: I know them both, and thee also, in thy blindness; but such knowledge is not purchased and acquired by melancholy, but a victorious wrestling.

52. For it is given to none without striving, unless he is a Limit or Mark chosen of God; otherwise he must wrestle for the Garland.

53. Indeed many a Man is chosen to it in his Mother's Body or Womb, as John the Baptist, and others more, apprehended in the Covenant of God's Promise, who are always a Limit, or Mark of a Seculum, or highest Pitch of an Age, who are born with the Time of the Great Year, and are chosen to open and disclose the Wonders which God intends or purposes.

* Note.

† Matth. 7. 7.

‡ John 6. 37.

§ John 17. 24.

54. But * not all are out of the Limit or Mark, but many of them out of their zealous seeking; for Christ saith, † Seek and you shall find, knock and so it will be opened unto you: Also ‡ Whosoever come to me, those I will not reject or cast out. Also, § Father, I will that those whom thou hast given me, be where I am; that is, that those who are born out of Christ with the New Man, be in God his Father. And, Father, I will that they see my Glory which I had before the foundation of the World.

55. Here lies the seeing out of Christ's spirit, out of God's Kingdom, in the power of the Word, of the Substance of the Deity, with the Eyes of God, and not with the Eyes of this World, and of the outward Flesh.

56. Thus, thou blind World, know wherewith we see, when we speak and write of God, and let thy false judging alone: See thou with thy Eyes, and let God's Children see with their Eyes; see out of or from thy Gifts, let another see out of or from his Gifts.

¶ 1 Cor. 7. 17.

57. † As every one is called, so let him see; and so let him walk, or converse; for we manage not all one and the same conversation, but every one according to his Gift and Calling to serve God's Honour and Wonders.

58. The Spirit of God suffers not itself so to be tied or bound up, as outward Reason supposes, with its Decrees, Canons and Councils, whereby always one Chain of Antichrist is linked to another, that Men will judge above God's Spirit, and maintain and hold their Conceits or Opinions to be God's Covenant, as if God was not at home in this world, or as if they were Gods upon Earth; and moreover what they will believe, they establish with an Oath.

59. Is not this a work of Folly, to bind and tie the Holy Spirit with his Gifts of Wonder to an Oath? he must believe what they will, and yet they know him not; also they are not born of him, and yet they make Laws what he shall do.

60. I say that all such compacts and binding is Antichrist and unbelief, let it seem or flatter how it will: God's Spirit on the contrary is unbound, he goes not into such a Compact or Obligation, but he appears freely to the seeking humble lowly Mind, according to his Gift, as he is † inclined.

62. Friendly Conference and Colloquy is very good and necessary, that one presents or imparts his Gifts to the other; but the Compacts or Institutions are a false or wicked Chain against God.

63. God has once made one Covenant with us in Christ, that is enough in Eternity; he makes no more: He has once taken Mankind into the Covenant, and made a firm Testament with or by Death and Blood; there is enough in that, we justly rest satisfied in that, and cleave to this Covenant.

67. For it avails nothing, that any knows how he should be New-born, and yet continues in the old Skin, in the Pleasure and Voluptuousness of the old Man, in Covetousness, High-mindedness, Unrighteousness, in Unchastity, Immodesty, and in a dishonest or scandalous wicked Life; ^a such a one is dead while he lives, and sticks in the Jaws of God's Anger; their Knowledge will Accuse and Condemn them at the Judgment. ^a 1 Tim. 5. 6.

68. If he receives the Word of Knowledge, and apprehends it, so that God gives him to know it, that it is the right way to Life; then he must presently be a Doer of the Word, and go forth from the Evil or Wickedness, or else he has a heavy Judgment upon him.

69. What is he better than the Devil, who ^b also knows God's Will, but yet does his own evil Will? one is as the other, neither is good, till he becomes a doer of the Word; and then he walks in God's Way, and is in the Vineyard in God's Labour. ^b James 2. 15.

70. The hypocritical Babel teaches now at present, that our Works merit nothing, Christ has delivered us from Death and Hell; we must only believe, and so we are righteous.

71. Hearken, O Babel; ^c The Servant who knows his Lord's Will, and does it not, ^c Luke 12. shall suffer many Stripes: knowing without doing, is just as a Fire which glimmers, ^c 47. but cannot burn for Moisture.

72. Wilt thou that thy divine Faith's Fire should burn, then thou must blow it up, and put off from thee the Devil's and the World's Moisture; thou must enter into the Life of Christ.

73. Wilt thou be his Child? then thou must enter into his House, and do his Work, else thou art out of it, without, and an Hypocrite, ^d who bears the Name of God in vain, or unprofitably; ^e thou teachest one thing and dost another, and testifiest thus, that God's Judgment is right concerning thee. ^d Exod. 20. 7. ^e Rom. 2. 21, &c.

74. Or what Pleasure hath God in thy knowing, when thou still continuest wicked? dost thou suppose he will accept thy Hypocrisy?

75. That thou criest to him, Lord! give me a strong Faith in the Merits of thy Son Christ, that he hath satisfied for my Sins; supposest thou, that is enough?

76. O no, hearken: ^f thou must enter into Christ's suffering and dying, and be born a second Time out of his Death; thou must become a Member in and with him; thou must constantly crucify the old Adam, and always hang upon Christ's Cross, and must become an obedient Child, that always hearkens what the Father says, and always would desire to do that. ^f Via vitæ.

77. Thou must enter into the doing, else thou art but a ^g Vizard without Life; ^g Monster or Mimic. thou must together with God Work good Works of Love towards thy Neighbour, and continually Exercise thy Faith; and always be prepared, and ready at ^h the Voice of the Lord, when he calleth thee out of the old Skin, to go home into the pure Garment. ^h Zach. 6. 15.

79. For we have an evil Guest lodging within us; to comfort oneself only does not avail, but to fight and strive against it, and continually to slay and vanquish it; without this it is ever too strong, and will have the Dominion.

80. Christ has indeed in us and for us broken and destroyed Death, and made way for us; but what does it help me, to comfort myself with that, and learn to know that, and yet continue lying shut up in the dark Anger, and captivated in the Chains of the Devil?

81. I must even enter into that very Way and Path, and walk in that Street, as a Pilgrim or Stranger, who wanders out of Death into Life.

Of the Pilgrim's Way from Death into Life; and the Gate in the Center of Nature.

CITATIO TERTIA. The third Citation.

1.  DEAR Children, let us very heartily speak one with another concerning the Ground and Foundation. Our true Life, wherewith we should see God, is as a damped Fire; in many also it is as the Fire shut up in a Stone; we must strike upon it with true earnest sincere entering and turning into God.

27, 28.

2. Look upon God's care in providing, which he has taken for us beforehand: ¹ he has regenerated us in Christ out of the Water of eternal Life, and has left us at last the same in the Covenant of Baptism for a Key; that we should therewith unlock, and therewith ^k sprinkle our Soul's Fire, that it may become capable of the divine Fire.

3. And he has ¹ given us his Body for Food, and his Blood for Drink, that we should receive it, and enter into his Covenant, and feed our Souls therewith, that they may be quickened, and awake from Death, that the divine Fire may kindle them.

4. Dear Children, it must burn, and not continue to lie shut up in Stone, or as an Ember or Tinder, which would fain glimmer, and cannot for the Devil's Moisture.

5. The historical Faith is only an Ember, which glimmers like a little Spark; it must become Kindled, we must give it Matter, wherein the Sparkle may kindle itself.

6. The Soul must press forth out of the Reason of this World into the Life of Christ, into Christ's Flesh and Blood, and so it conceives the Matter to its kindling: it must be in Earnest Sincerity.

7. For the History reaches not Christ's Flesh and Blood; Death must be broke open.

8. Although indeed Christ has broke it open, yet the earnest sincere desire must follow after, that would fain do or act, and always labour therein.

9. As a Pilgrim or Messenger who has a long dangerous Way to Travel, he always runs on towards the End, and is unwearied; though Woe and Misery befall him, yet he hopes for the End, and comes always nearer, where then he expects in hope his Wages and Refreshment, and rejoices that his fore travel and wandering will have an End.

10. Thus must a Man that will travel and wander to God, behave himself in the Way of his Pilgrimage: he must continually more and more wander or travel forth out of the earthly Reason, out from the Will of the Flesh, of the Devil, and the World.

11. Often Woe and Misery befall him, when he must forsake that which he might well have had, and could therewith have swum in temporal Honour.

12. But if he will Travel in the right Path, then he must only put on the Mantle of Righteousness, and put off the Mantle of Covetousness, and the hypocritical Life.

13. He must ^m impart his Bread to the Hungry, and give his Clothes for a Covering; ⁿ Isaiah 58. and not be an Oppressor of the Miserable, and only fill his own Sack full, squeeze ^{6, 7.} away the Sweat from the Simple, and impose Laws upon him, only for the sake of his Pride and Pleasure.

14. He is no Christian that does such Things, but he travels in the Path of this World, as the Stars and the Elements, with the Devil's Infection and Lust, drive him.

15. And though it is likely he knows the Faith of God's Mercifulness, of the Satisfaction of Christ, yet that will not help him: for ⁿ not all that say to him Lord, Lord, ⁿ Matt. 7. 21. shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but those that do the Will of his Father which is in Heaven.

16. And that will is, ^o Love thy Neighbour as thyself: ^p What thou wilt that Men ^o Matt. 22. 39. should do to thee, that do thou also. ^p Matt. 7. 12.

17. Say not in thy Heart, I sit in this Office and Lordship, of right; I have bought, purchased or inherited it; that which my Subjects do for me, they are obliged to do it.

18. Search and see, whether that has a right Original, whether it is ordained of God, or whether it takes its Original from Deceit, and Self-state and Pride, and out of Covetousness.

19. If thou findest that it is of God's ordaining, then look to it, and walk therein, according to the Commandment of Love and Righteousness: consider that therein, thou art a Servant and Minister, and not a Lord over Christ's Children.

20. And that thou sittest not therein only to draw their sweat to thee, that thou art their Judge and Shepherd, and that ^q thou shalt give an Account of the Office. ^q Luke 16. 2.

21. ^r Five Talents have been given thee, thou shouldst return them to thy Lord with Increase and Usury; thou shouldst lead thy Inferiors in the right Way, thou shouldst give them good Example in Instruction, and reprovng of Evil and Wickedness. ^r Matt. 25. 15. 27.

22. For it will be required of thee, if thou reprovest not the Wicked, and protestest not the Oppressed and Afflicted.

23. Thou art not therefore their Ruler, that thou shouldst be their Lord: not thou, but God is their Lord. Thou shouldst be their Judge, and Part them in their Quarrels, and decide their Differences.

24. Not for thy Covetousness art thou their Judge, but for their Conscience sake, that thou shouldst instruct, lead, and direct the simple, not with Squeezing of his Sweat, but with Gentleness and Meekness.

25. Thou hast a heavy Burden upon thee; thou must give an earnest severe Account of it.

26. ^s When the Miserable sighs concerning thee in his Oppression, he complains of thee before his and thy Lord; thou shalt and must stand with him before the Judgment, for the Sentence passes upon thy Soul; no hypocrisy will help. ^s Note, ye Magistrates and Superiors, Emperors, Kings, Princes, Lords, Rulers, and all Officers whatsoever.

27. Whatsoever was sown with Tears, in right earnestness, that becomes a Substance, and belongs to the Judgment of God, unless a Man converts and reconciles himself with well-doing and Benefit to the Oppressed, that they may bless him; then that Substance breaks.

28. Therefore, ye Rulers and Superiors, you ought to look narrowly to your State and Condition, whence it arises originally: the Root will shortly be narrowly sought after: ^t every one shall give an Account of his State and Condition. ^t Rom. 14. 12.

29. But have a care that therewith you ^u ride not in the hellish Fire, as the fierce ^u Or Domineer. wrathful Devil himself does, and so you be found his Servants and Ministers; as the Spirit of the Wonders shows us, that you are become the * fulfilling of the eternal Anger and fierce Wrath.

30. Say not in thy Heart, thus have my Parents, Elders, Ancestors, and Predecessors walked, I have inherited it from them: thou knowest not into what Lodging they are entered.

31. Wilt thou be a Christian and a Child of God? then thou must not look upon the way of thy Predecessors, how they have rid on in Pleasure and Voluptuousness, but look upon God's Word; that must be the Light of thy Feet.

32. For many who have done Evil, are gone into the Abyss; and thou wilt follow after them, if thou walkest in their Footsteps.

33. Suffer not the Devil to pourtray or paint before thee the hypocritical way; his Colour glisters outwardly, and in the Essence it is Poison.

34. O how dangerous a way have we to wander and travel through this World: and it were to be wished, that there were no eternal Thing in the Wicked, then they would not suffer eternal Torment, and be in the eternal Scorn and reproach.

35. As they have here in this Life been the Enemies of God's Children, so also they continue to be for ever the Enemies of God and of his Children.

36. Therefore must the Children of God take the Cross upon them, and here Sweat in the Thifly and Thorny Bath, and become Born again in Anguish; they must walk in a narrow steep Path, where Reason always says, Thou art a Fool, thou mightest live in Joy and Jollity, and be saved well enough.

37. O how often outward Reason strikes and smites the noble Image, which springs up out of the Thorny Bath, out of Tribulation! how many Sprouts become torn off from the Pearl-Tree, through Doubting and Unbelief, which bring Man into the false and wicked Way!

38. The Miserable sigh and pant after temporal Sustainance; and Curse the Oppressor, which bereaves him of his Sweat, and thinks he does right in it, yet he does but destroy himself therein; he does even as wickedly as his Driver or Oppressor.

39. Did he take to himself Patience, and consider that he walks upon the Pilgrim's Evil Path, and did he set his Hope on his Journey's End, and consider that thus under the Cross and Misery, under Oppression, he Labours in the Vineyard of Christ; O how happily and blessedly should he do.

‡ Matt. 20. 1.

40. He has cause hereby to look for another and better Life, seeing he must here swim in Anguish and Misery; if he rightly understands it, how well God intends it towards him, that so he might the more seek and hunt after him, that he might not build upon the earthly Life.

41. Though he sees that it is but a Vale of Misery, Affliction, and Oppression, and that he must spend his Days here in hard Streights, in Misery, in vain Labour, Weariness, and Care; yet he is to consider, that God lets it not pass so in vain, but that in this manner he thus giveth cause to seek the true Rest, which is not in this World.

42. Besides, he must every hour expect Death, and leave his Work to another; what is it then for a Man to build his Hope upon this World, wherein he is but only a Guest, and a Wanderer or Pilgrim, which must here wander through the Way or Passage of his Constellation?

43. If he did but assume the inward Constellation, O! how happily and blessedly would he labour in God's Work, and let the outward go, as it may or can be.

44. A Man in this World that intends to possess the Kingdom of God, he has no better Way, neither can he have any better Council and Advice, than continually to consider and conceive, that he is in the Vineyard of God with all his doings and Substance, and whatsoever he is, and to do it to or for God.

45. His Mind should in a constant Hope be looking towards God, that he shall obtain his Wages for his Labour from God; and that he labours in God's deeds of Wonder, and therefore should be diligent in the Labour which he performs.

46. And when he must oftentimes serve his driver or oppressor in weariness, without Wages, then let him but consider that he labours for God; and let him be patient in hope that God will well bestow his Wages upon him in due time.

47. For ^p the Lord of the Vineyard does not pay his Labourers at Noon-day, but in the Evening, when their day labour is done, when we go home to our Lord out of the Vale of this Tabernacle, and then every one receives his Wages. ^a Matth. 20. 8.

48. * Those then who have laboured much for a long time, have much Wages to expect. * Note.

49. But they that have been Snorers, Grunters, sluggish, lazy, and evil, murmuring, whining, pettish Labourers, in Impatience, such have done small service, and ought well to expect, moreover, to have punishment from their Lord; for they have but missed other Labourers, and have been unprofitable Labourers, and performed mere vain false and evil Work, to cheat their Lord of his Wages; they justly receive punishment for their Wages. ^b Note, ye lazy, sluggish Labourers.

The Gate in the Center of Nature.

^c Summons, or warning.

Question.

50. Reason says, Why does God let it go so, that here is nothing but vain toilsome Weariness, as also vexation and oppression, one plaguing and afflicting another? And though many have much, and want nothing, yet they have no quiet and rest; they hunt only after oppression and unquietness; and their heart is never quiet and still.

Answer.

51. See, thou locked-up Knowledge, the Ground or foundation of the World is thus; the Original of Life is also thus; in this World it may or cannot be otherwise, except a Man becomes new-born, and then he is otherwise in the New Man.

52. And yet this oppression and driving cleaves always to him in the Old Man: * This ^a is the strife of the spirit against the flesh, where the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh. * Note. ^d Gal. 5. 17.

Question.

53. Now, says Reason, whence has this its original?

Answer.

54. Behold! in the Center of Nature there is such a Thing, Being, or Substance; do but mind it.

55. The Eternal Will, which is called God, that is free; for it has in it nothing but the Light of the Majesty, and dwells in the Eternal Nothing; and therefore also Nothing can touch him.

56. But his Desiring, which makes the Center of Nature, that hath such a property; for therein is the harsh astringency, viz. the first Property of Nature, which always attracts to itself, and receives where nothing is, where it has made Nothing, and takes it, and draws it together.

57. Yet it may not eat it, also it is not profitable to it : Thus it makes to itself anguish pain, and unquietness therewith ; as covetousness in Man does.

58. The second Form, is its drawing or sting ; that is its Servant or Child, which there draws together what the desire wills ; that is the Labourer, and signifies the Inferior Man, who is evil, base, angry, raging, and stings and rages in the harsh astringency.

59. And that the astringent harshness cannot endure from the servant, but draws it the more eagerly ; and so the servant becomes more evil and base, more raging, and storms the Lord's house.

60. Thereupon will the Lord bind and hold the servant, and the servant tears from it with Malice aloft again.

61. And then seeing the Lord, viz. the harsh astringency, cannot overpower it, they struggle together in great anguish, enmity and opposition, and begin to make a whirling wheel, to worry, murder, and put to death one another.

62. This is the Third Form of Nature, whence arise Wars, fighting, strife, destroying of country and city, envy and anxious vexatious Malice and Wickedness ; whereas always one would have the other dead, willeth to devour all and draw it into itself ; it wills to have it alone, and yet there is nothing profitable to it, but hurtful.

63. It does as the fierce wrath of Nature does, that swallows itself up into itself, and consumes and breaks itself, and yet it generates itself also thus.

* Note.

64. * Whence all Evil comes : The Devil, together with all evil things or substances comes from hence ; thus they have their original.

65. As Nature in the Center does, understand without the Light, so does the Devil also, who has not the Light ; as also evil Men and Beasts, also Herbs and Grasse, and all whatsoever is odious or enmicitious.

66. For it is the poison-wheel, whence the Life arises originally, and whirls itself thus in great anguish, in stinging, raging, and breaking, till it creates another Will in itself to go out of the Anguish, and sinks itself down into Death, and gives itself free therein into Liberty.

67. So it destroys the stinging and breaking-in death, and falls into the Liberty of the first willing, which kindles the anguish of Death with the still Liberty, whence the anguish is terrified, Death breaketh, and out of the Anguish goes forth a Life of Joy.

68. Thus it goes also with Man when he is in the Anguish and Enmity, that the sting of Death and of Anger rages in him, so that he is anxious, covetous, envious, angry, and enmicitious.

69. Then he should not continue in this evil substance, condition, or doings ; else he is in the Forms of death, anger, fierce wrath, and hellish fire ; and if the water source and quality was not in him, together with Flesh and Blood, then he would instantly be a kindled Devil, and nothing else.

70. But he should consider himself, and create another will in his evil anguish, and go out from the covetous Malice into the Liberty of God, where there is continually Rest enough.

71. He should in Death sink down into Patience, and willingly give up himself into the anxious Wheel, and create a Thirst after God's quickening, which is the Liberty, and so he sinks down quite through the anxious Death, and falls into the Liberty.

72. And so when its Anguish tastes the Liberty, that it is such a still meek source or quality, then the anguish becomes terrified, and in the Terror breaks the enmicitious harsh Death; for it is a Crack or Terror of Great Joy, and a Kindling of the Life of God.

73. Thus the ^d Pearl-branch or Sprout comes to be generated; that now stands in the Trembling of Joy, but in great danger; for the death and the anguish source or quality is its Root. * A Branch on the Vine Christ.

74. And it is surrounded therewith as a fair green slip or branch grows out of a sinking dunghill out of the strong source, and attains another Essence, Smell, Substance, and Source or Quality, than its Mother has, out of which it became generated.

75. As then also the source or quality in Nature has such a property, so that out of the Evil, viz. out of the Anguish, the Great Life becomes generated.

76. And as we further know, that Nature in the Crack or Terror divides itself into two Kingdoms; the first into the Kingdom of Joy; the second into a sinking of Death into a Darkness; so also Man, when the Lily Branch to the Kingdom of Joy thus becomes generated, then its Nature divides itself into Two Wills.

77. As, First, the one rises up in the Lily, and grows in God's Kingdom: Secondly, the other sinks down in the dark death, and pants or longs after the Earth, after its Mother, which strives always against the Lily, and the Lily flies before or from the roughness.

78. As a sprout grows out of the Earth, and the Essence flies before or from the Earth, and is drawn up by the sun till it comes to be a Stalk or Tree; so also God's Sun draws Man's Lily, viz. the * New Man, always in his power, forth from the evil Essence, and * Note. draws at last out of it a Tree in God's Kingdom.

79. And then he lets the old evil Tree or Shell, under which the New did grow, fall away into the Earth into its Mother, after which it indeed longed, and out of the Earth again into the Center of Nature, at the End of the Day of Separation, wherein all must again go into its Ether.

80. Thus goes the Lily also into its Ether, viz. into the † free will, into the Light of † Note, the Majesty.

81. Understand it further, thus: When thus two Kingdoms divide themselves in the Crack or Terror of Nature, then is the Terror or Crack in itself a Flash, and Cause of the Fire, viz. of the Life's kindling.

82. Thus the Prima Materia, viz. the first Matter, which the harshness makes with its entering in, wherein the Enmity existed, divides itself into T W O Parts, one downwards into Death; this is the essential Life with the substantiality of this world, such as Earth and Stone.

83. And then the second Part severs itself out of the Terror or Crack of the Fire into the Light of the Liberty; for the Terror of the Fire kindles the Liberty, so that it also * becomes desirous; and that now in its desiring draws the Kingdom of Joy into itself, viz. the meek well-doing, and makes it also become ^f Matter. * Note.
† Or material.

84. This now is the Heavenly divine ^g substantiality, which draws the fire again into itself, and devours it in its Crack or Terror, which is the Fire's source or quality; and there the soft meekness consumes the source or quality, and brings itself into the biggest Joy; so that out of Anguish Love, and out of Fire a Love-burning comes to be. ‡ Or Corporeity.

85. And it gives out of the Burning the richly joyful spirit of the Eternal Life, which is called the Spirit of God, which arises originally in the first willing, which is called the Father, for it is the desiring of nature, and is in the fire a fire-source or quality, and in the Anguish of Death, a Sting of Death, and of fierce Wrath, and the Enmity in the substance of Nature, viz. in the Center.

86. And in the Light it is the divine Kingdom of Joy, which there in the divine substantiality, viz. in the Wisdom, which makes the colours of the virtues and powers, opens the Noble * Tincture, which is the Glance of the Heavenly Substantiality. * Note.

87. And it causes in the Substantiality the Element of the Angelical World, out of which this World is an Out-birth, but in the Anger kindled by the Devil, who is a cause that the fierce Wrath of Nature hath kindled itself, whence in the Substantiality Earth and Stone are come to be, as it is before our Eyes.

88. Which the mightiest source or quality in Verbo Fiat, in the Word Fiat, has separated into a Principle, as in the Book of the Threefold Life is expressed at large.

89. Thus understand the Fire-flash for the fourth form of Nature.

90. And the Love-birth of the Kingdom of Joy for the fifth Form.

91. And the swallowing in of substantiality, out of the Meekness into the Fire-source or quality, where the fire also attains the Kingdom of Joy, viz. the sound of the Manifestation or Revelation of the Colours, Wonders and Virtues, whence the five Senses, viz. Seeing, Hearing, Smelling, Tasting, and Feeling, exist, for the sixth Form of Nature.

92. And the Substantiality of the Light, in which the divine Element is comprehended, out of which the springing, growing, or Paradise exists for the seventh Form; and again for the Mother of all Forms, which gives substance, power, and meekness to all Forms, so that there is an Eternal Life, and an Eternal Dwelling or Delight of Life.

93. For the seventh Form holds or contains in itself the Angelical World, as also the Paradise, or right Kingdom of Heaven, wherein the Substance of the Deity is manifest, and all whatsoever the light World contains; as we have expressed in our other Books.

The Ninth Chapter.

More Circumstances of this Third Citation, highly to be considered.

1.  HUS, ye Children of Men, be here seeing, and not blind: Observe what is here manifested to you: It is done not in vain: There is somewhat more behind: Sleep not; it is high Time; do but see what the Substance of all Substances is.

^h Ground or Foundation of Nature.

2. This World is generated forth out of the Eternal: The ^h Center of Nature has ever been from Eternity; but it has not been manifested.

ⁱ Sternness, anger, or malice.

3. With this World, and with the Devil's ⁱ fierce Wrath, it is come into substance: but yet understand what the Devil is.

^k Note, the Devil was created in the divine substantiality.

4. He is a Spirit of his Legions out of the Center of Nature, ^k as one when he was created in the divine substantiality.

5. And yet he was to be proved or tried in the Fire, and to set his Imagination into the Love, but he set it into the Center of the Wrathfulness, back into the fourth form of the Anguish, and would fain domineer in the Fire over God's Meekness, as an Enemy of the Kingdom of Joy, and despised the Love, when he saw that the Fire gave strength and might.

6. And therefore he was thrust out of the fire of God into the Anguish of the Darkness, into the Center of the fourth Form; he had no more of the Fire, but the Terrible Flash, and that is his right Life.

7. But the Will of God, which however in Angels and Men longs and pants after the Life, Life, which comes to help the Life, with the Liberty, viz. with the Meekness, that has left or forsaken him, and so he cannot attain the Light in Eternity.

8. Also he can form or create no Imagination or Longing after it; for God's Will-spirit flows into him, and subdues him in the Anguish-chamber, in the first four forms of Nature; he cannot attain the fifth.

9. And though indeed he has all forms of Nature, yet all is enemicitious and opposite, or of contrary Will; for the Holy Spirit has left him, and now the source or fountain of the Anger or fierce Wrath is in him.

10. God, who is All, has opened his fierce Wrath, or the Center of the Original in him, so that it also is Creaturely, for it has also longed to manifest itself.

11. And when God once moved himself to the Creation of Angels, that all became manifest, whatsoever from Eternity in the Wonders of the Wisdom stood hidden in the Center, both in Love and Anger.

12. Seeing now we thus know what we are, and that God lets us know it, we should now look to it, and generate some Good out of us; for we have the Center of the Eternal Nature in us.

13. If we make an Angel out of us, then we are that.

14. If we make a Devil out of us, then also we are that.

15. Here we are in the Making, in the creating: We stand in the field; God's Willing in the love stands in the Center of the Life towards us.

16. God is become Man, and willeth to have us; so also his Anger in the Kingdom of the fierce Wrath willeth to have us; the Devil also willeth to have us into his society; and God's Angels also into theirs; for whichsoever we are Factors and trade in, thither we go.

17. * If we put our Imagination into the Light of God, and go with earnest sincerity * Note. into that, then we come into it, and are also with earnestness drawn into it.

18. Will we then put our Willing into the Glory of this World, and let the Eternal go? then we have to expect, that we must, with this World's fierce Wrath, enter into the first Mystery.

19. † If we have not divine Imagination, viz. Faith in us, then the divine Love will † Note. leave us, and not let us in at her Doors.

20. Affuredly, if God breaks them not open, then we come into Necessity; if thou bringest not God's spirit along with thee, thou wilt never more attain it.

21. Therefore it is good to spring, and grow forth in this life: Christ is become our field; we may without any great anguish or trouble attain it; * it is but to do this, * Note. viz. to break our Will.

22. That is the Grievance, for the old Adam will not; so also the Anger will not; the Devil also will not.

23. Behold! O Man, thou thyself art thy own Enemy, that which thou holdest to be thy friend, that is thy Enemy: Wouldst thou be saved, and see God? then thou must become the worst Enemy to that which thou esteamest thy best friend, viz. to thy outward Life.

24. Not that thou shouldst destroy it, but its will only; thou must do what thou willest not, thou must become an Enemy to thyself, or else thou canst not see God.

25. For that which thou now holdest for thy friend, is proceeded out of the Anguish-chamber, and has still the Anguish-life in it; it has the Anger-source or quality, and the Devil's sickness, longing, or Malady in it.

26. Thou must form or create a Will in God; thou must form or create a Will out of thy Soul, and with the same go forth out of Evil, Wickedness and Malice, into God; and so thou wilt be introduced into God's Fire.

27. Understand the willing-spirit; that will kindle thy soul, and so then reach after the life and spirit of Christ, and thou wilt receive it; which will new Regenerate thee, with a New willing, which will abide with thee.

28. The same is the blossom of thy soul, wherein the New Child stands in the Image of God; to that God gives Christ's flesh and blood to feed on.

29. And not to the Adamical Afs, as Babel wonderfully Dreams; as if the wicked should participate of the Body of Christ! O, No.

30. They receive the four Elements, and therein the Anger of God, and for this ¹ 1 Cor. 11. 29. Reason, ¹ because they distinguish or discern not the Lord's Body, which is every where present in Heaven, and is fed upon by that soul which attains Heaven.

31. Not as a sign, as the other fancy Dreams; not Spirit without Substance; but the substance of the spirit surrounded and inclosed with God's Wisdom, Christ's Flesh, which fills the Light-world in every Place; which the Word that became Man brought along with it into Mary.

32. That same substantiality, though indeed, in Mary, it became Opened in its ¹ John 3. 13. flesh and blood, and assumed human Essence to itself, ^m was at that very Time, while Christ lay in the body or womb of Mary, in Heaven, in the one Element in all Places.

33. It never came at any time, from any Place, many Miles off into Mary: No, but the included Center which Adam had shut up in the Anger of God in Death, that the word of the Deity did open or unlock, and introduced the divine substantiality into the Virgin-like Center shut up in Death.

34. That was done in the Body or Womb of Mary, in the Limit or Mark of the Covenant; not departing away, also not entering in, but opening, generating in, and in this world generating from it.

35. God-and-Man one Person, Heavenly; and that which was inclosed in Death, substantiality and virginity; one substantiality; one only Man in heaven and in this World.

36. And such must we also be; for the Word which became Man, is stirring in the soul, and stands in the found of the Life in all Souls.

37. Now go whither thou wilt, thou hast now the Center of the Deity in thee, in the found and stirring, and also the Center of the fierce wrath; into which thou goest, and which thou awakenest therein, stands thy Life.

38. Do what thou pleasest, thou art free, and God lets thee know it: He calls thee; if thou comest, then thou wilt be his Child; if thou goest into the Anger, then thou wilt also be taken up by that.

The Tenth Chapter.

Of God's Express Image of Man, viz. of God's similitude in Man.

1.  E cannot in this world see our Substantiality or New Body, while we are in the Earthly Body; the Outward Man knows it not; only the Spirit, which becomes generated, and goes forth out of the New Man, that knows its Body.

2. But if we would willingly have the knowledge of it, and would know whether we are in the New Birth, then we have no better proof or trial of it, than by or in the similitude of God, which we understand to be, viz. the Desiring, the sense or * thoughts, and the Mind.

3. These Things contain in them the Center of the spirit, out of which the strong will comes to be generated and brought forth; in which the right true similitude, and the Image of God with flesh and blood stands, which the outward Man knows not.

4. For that very Image is not in this world, but it has another Principle, viz. in the Angelical world, and during this Time of the Body stands in the Mystery, in the secrecy or Arcanum.

5. As the Gold in the Stone, whereas the Gold has another Tincture, another Essence, another Glance, and Luster or Shining; and the rudeness or drossiness of the stone cannot comprehend it: and the Gold also does not comprehend the rude drossiness of the Stone; and yet the rude drossiness, viz. the Anguish Center, is a Cause of the Gold; for the rude drossiness is the Mother, and the Sun or Sol is the Father.

6. Thus also is our Old Adam and Body a Cause of the New Body; for it is the Mother: out of the Old substantiality originally arises the new Body, and God's Spirit in Christ is the Father; as the Sun is the Father of the Gold, so also is God's heart the Father of the New Man.

7. But now we cannot know the New Man better than in the Center, namely, in the Desiring, Thoughts and Mind.

8. ⁿ When we find ourselves thus, viz. that our Desiring stands totally according to and towards God, that our Thoughts continually run into the will of God, and that the Mind totally gives itself up in Obedience into the will of God, and that the Imagination or Longing draws in God's power, then we may assuredly know, that the Noble Lily-Branch is generated, that the Image of God is in substance, that God in the similitude is become Man.

9. There it is necessary that the Noble Image be highly regarded and taken care of, and that the Old Adam with his Lusts have no room or space left him, but that he be continually put to Death, that the New Man may grow and be great, and become adorned with the wonders of the wisdom.

10. But now Reason asks, How is then the similitude?

11. Behold! God is Spirit; and the Mind, together with the thoughts and desire, is also Spirit. The Mind is the Wheel of Nature; the Desire is the Center, viz. the first substance to Nature; the Thoughts are the ° Essences.

12. For out of the Essences go the Senses or Thoughts; they are and have their Original out of the sting of the desire, viz. out of the harsh astringency; for they are the Bitterness, and run always into the Mind as an Anguish-wheel, and seek rest, to try whether they may attain the liberty of God.

13. They are they which strike up the fire in the Anguish-wheel, viz. in the Mind; and in the kindling in the Crack, or Terror, willingly give up themselves into Death, and thus sink down through the fire-source or quality, into the Liberty, viz. into God's Arms; and they go forth into the Liberty as a Life out of Death.

14. They are the Root of the New Taste or Relish, which penetrate into God's wisdom and wonders; they bring the Desire out of the Anguish of Death; they fill their Mother, the Mind, and give it power from God's Essence.

15. Thus is the Mind the wheel, or the right Chamber of the Life, viz. ^p the soul's ^p own House, of which itself is a Part; if the substantiality, understand the substantiality of the Tincture, be accounted to it, viz. the Fire-life.

16. For out of the Fire-life exists the Mind, and the Fire-life dwells in the Mind: but the Mind is Nobler than the Fire; for it is the Mobility of the Fire's life; it makes the understanding.

* Note.

ⁿ Note, How we may know whether the Noble Lily-Branch, viz. the Body of God's Image, be Generated in us.

° Or Branches.

^p Or dwelling of the soul.

17. The Thoughts or Senses are the Mind's Servants, and are the subtlest Messengers; they go into God, and again out of God into necessity.
18. And whereinfoever they kindle themselves, either in God, or in Necessity, viz. in falsehood or wickedness, that they bring home to the Mind.
19. Therefore must the Noble Mind often be Lord over the evil or wickedness, and stifle it in its Anguish, when the Thoughts have entertained or loaded false or evil Imaginations into the Desire.
20. Thus understand it, lastly, in this Manner; God is himself ALL and in ALL.
21. But he goes forth out of the fierce wrath, and finds the Light and power-world in himself; he himself makes them, so that the fierce wrath with all forms are only a Cause of the Life, and a finding of himself in Great Wonders.
22. He is the Ground, or Byss and Abyss; the Liberty and also the Nature, in Light and Darknes.
23. And Man also is all this, if he does but so seek and find himself as God does.
24. Our whole Writing and Teaching aims at this, how we must seek, make, and lastly, find ourselves; how we must generate or bring forth, that we may be ONE spirit with God; that God may be in US, and we in God; that God's Love-spirit in us may be the willing and the doing.
25. And that we withdraw from the Anguish source or quality, that we may introduce ourselves into the true similitude in three Worlds; that each of them may stand in their Order, and that the Light-world in us may be LORD, that that may lead the Dominion.
26. That so the Anguish-world may remain hidden in the Light-world, as it does also in God, and so be only a Cause of the Life and of God's wonders.
27. Else, if we attain not the Light-world, then is the Anguish-world in us the upper Dominion, and so we live eternally in an Enemicitious source or quality.
28. And this strife lasts so long as the Earthly Life endures; and then it goes into the Eternal Ether, either into Light or into Darknes; whence there is no release more, and therefore God's Spirit warns us, and teaches us the right way. AMEN.

Conclusion.

29. Thus Reader, who lovest God, Know that a Man is the true similitude of God, which God highly loves, and manifests himself in this similitude as in his own: God is in Man the Middlemost.
30. But he dwells only in himself: and if it be so that the spirit of Man becomes ONE spirit with HIM, then he manifests himself in the humanity, viz. in the Mind, Thoughts and Desiring; so that the Mind feels him.
31. Else in this world he is very much too subtle to be beheld by us, only the Thoughts behold him in the Spirit, understand in the will-spirit; for the will sends the Thoughts into God, and God gives himself into the Thoughts.
32. And then the Thoughts bring the Power of God to the will; and the will receives them with Joy, but with Trembling.
33. For it acknowledges itself unworthy, seeing it proceeds out of a rough Lodging, viz. out of a wavering Mind; and therefore it receives the Power in the sinking down before God.
34. Thus out of its Triumph comes a soft gentle Meekness to be; that is, God's true substance, and it apprehends that very substance.
35. And that conceived or apprehended substance is in the willing, the heavenly Body, and is called the True and right Faith, which the will has received in the power of God; the same sinks or demerfes itself into the Mind, and dwells in the Fire of the Soul.

36. Thus the Image of God is entire or total; and God sees or finds himself in such a similitude.

37. And we should not at all think or conceive of God, that he is a strange substance or foreign thing; to the wicked, indeed, he is a strange substance, for the wicked apprehends him not.

38. God is in him indeed, but not Manifest in the willing and mind of the wicked and ungodly; it is only his fierce wrath that is manifest in him, he cannot reach or attain the Light.

39. It is in him, but it is not profitable to him; his Essence conceives or apprehends it not; it shows itself before him, and is only his pain, source or torment; and he does but hate it, and is an Enemy to it, as the Devil is an Enemy to the Sun, and also to the Light of God.

40. He would be better at Ease, if he could be Eternally in the Dark, and knew that God was far from him, and then he would find no shame or reproach in him.

41. But if he knew that God is so near him, and he cannot apprehend him, that would be his greatest plague, so that he would bate himself; and it would make him an Eternal contrary will, an opposite Anguish and Despair, in that he knows that he cannot attain God's favour or gracious countenance.

42. His own falshood or wickedness plagues him; but he can create or procure no Comfort, that he might come to Grace, for he touches not God, but only the Center in the Anguish in the fierce wrath.

43. He abides in Death, and in the Dying source or torment, and cannot break through; for there comes nothing to help him, of which he can lay hold, whereby he might ground or establish himself in the Kingdom of God.

44. When he has lead a Thousand years in the Abyfs in the Deep, yet then he would be without God in the Darknes, and YET God is in him, but helps him not; also he knows him not, only he knows of him, and feels only his fierce wrath.

45. Understand it thus; just as a fire is in a stone, and the stone knows it not, it feels it not, only the fierce wrathful cause of the fire, which holds the harsh astringent Stone Captive in a Body, it feels that.

46. Thus the Devil also feels only the Cause of the Light; that very cause is the fierce wrathful Center, and holds him captive, and that he bates and cannot endure it; and yet he has nothing else that would be better for him.

47. Thus he is nothing but a fierce wrathful vehement eager Malignity or Malice, a Dying source or torment; and yet is no Dying, but a deadly loathsome poison, a hunger and thirst, but no refreshment.

48. ⁹ All that is evil, base, and envious, harsh, astringent, and bitter, whatsoever flees away from the humiliation as he has done, that is his strength, and his odious desire.

49. Whatsoever bates, and is an Enemy to God, and flies from, or curses God, that is serviceable to him; whatsoever turns or perverts the Truth into Lies, that is his will upon which he rides, and wherein he voluntarily dwells.

50. Thus also is the wicked and ungodly Man; when he loses God, then he is in the Anguish-source or torment, and has the Devil's will.

51. But know this: God has in the human soul broken and destroyed the hardness of death, and is entered into the limit, aim, or Mark of the Covenant, wherein Death becomes broke open: he has broke open the Limit or Mark in the Center of the soul, and set his light towards Man's light of Life.

⁹ Note, what the Devil rides upon. To be considered by Liars, Blasphemers, and Boasters.

52. The Light is afforded him, so long as he lives in the virtue and power of the Sun ; if he will Convert, and enter into God's Light, he will be accepted ; no Election or Predestination is concluded upon him.

53. But when he loses the Sun's Life, and has also nothing of God's Life, then all is gone and lost with him ; then he is and remains a Devil.

54. But God knows those that are his ; he knows who will turn and convert to him ; upon those goes the Election, of which the Scripture speaks ; and upon those which will not, goes the Reprobation or hardening, or the withdrawing of Light.

55. Man has undeniably both Centers in him ; and so then if he will be a Devil, shall God then cast the Pearl in the way of the Devil ? Shall he shed forth his Spirit into the ungodly or wicked desire ?

56. Indeed out of Man's willing must God's spirit become Generated, it must itself become God in the willing Spirit, or else he attains not divine Substantiality, viz. the wisdom.

57. Therefore mind and consider yourselves, dear Children, and go in at the right Door : It is not called only Forgiveness, but being generated or born anew ; and then is the right Forgiveness ; that is, Sin is then a Husk or Shell ; the New Man grows out of it, and casts the husk away, and that is called God's forgiveness.

58. God forgives and puts the Evil away from the New Man ; he gives it away from him ; it is not put away from the Body ; but the sin is given into the C E N T E R, for fuel or wood for the fire, and must thus be a cause of the fire's Principle, out of which the Light shines.

59. It must serve the Holy Man for the Best, as St. Paul saith, ' All things must serve for the Best to them that Love God, even Sin.

60. ' What say we then ? Shall we then sin, that our salvation may become generated ? that be far from us : How shall I will to enter again into that to which I have died ? Shall I go out of the Light into Darkness ?

61. But thus it must be, that the Saints of God may lose Nothing, therefore it must all serve them ; that which to Sinners is a Sting ' unto Death, that is to the Saints a Might and Power unto Life.

62. Then saith outward Reason, surely, I must sin, that my salvation may be great.

63. But we know, that whosoever goes forth out of the Light, he goes into the Darkness ; let him look to it, that he abide not in the Darkness, for he sins purposely ; stubbornly, or obstinately, in or against the Holy Spirit : " Be not deceived, God will not be mocked, nor slighted.

64. Of his Love, we are after our Fall become righteous again, through his Enterance into our Flesh

65. But he that enters designedly or obstinately into Sin, he despises and contemns the Incarnation of Christ, and takes a heavy burden upon or into himself ; he should do well to look to it ; he will more hardly be able to go again out of the purposed sin, than one to whom the way of God is not yet Manifested.

66. Therefore it is good for a Man to shun and to flee from Evil, to turn his Eye from falshood and wickedness, that the Senses or Thoughts may not enter into that which is false or wicked, and bring that afterwards to the Heart, whence Lust exists ; so that the Desire imagines, and brings it into the Mind, whence the Noble Image comes to be destroyed, and an Abomination in the presence of God.

67. We would have the Reader and Hearer, that loves God, faithfully warned from our Gifts and deep Knowledge ; and we have very earnestly and faithfully presented you the way of the Truth, and of the Light ; and we admonish you all Christianly to consider of it, and to read it diligently : It has its fruit in itself. Hallelujah. Amen.

Part III. Of the Tree of the Christian Faith, a True Instruction, how Man may be one Spirit with God, and what he must do, that he may Work the Works of God; wherein the whole Christian Doctrine and Faith is briefly comprised; also what Faith, and Doctrine is. An open Gate of the great secret Arcanum of God, out of the divine Magia through the three Principles of the divine Being or Substance.

The First Chapter.

What Faith and Believing is.

1.  CHRIST faith, ^x Seek first the Kingdom of God and the Righteousness thereof, and so shall all other things be added unto you. ^x Matt. 6. 33.
2. Also, ^y My Father will give the Holy Spirit to them that pray unto him for it: ^z when that comes, that will lead you into all Truth: ^a that will intimate to you all whatsoever I have said to you. ^y Luke 11. 13. ^z John 16. 13. ^a John 14. 26.
3. ^b For it will receive of mine, and make it known to you; ^c that will give you a Mouth and Wisdom what ye shall speak. ^b John 16. 14. ^c Matt. 10. 19. ^d Rom. 8. 26, 27.
4. And Saint Paul saith, ^d We know not what we should pray or speak; but the Spirit of God helps us mightily, according to that which is pleasing to God.
5. And so now Faith is not an historical Knowledge, for a Man to make Articles of it, and to depend only on them, and to force his Mind into the works of his Reason; but Faith is one Spirit with God; for the Holy Spirit moves in the Spirit of Faith.
6. True Faith is the Might of God, one Spirit with God; it worketh in God and with God.
7. It is free, and bound to no Articles, but only to the right and true Love, wherein it draws the Breath of its Life's Power and Strength, and lies not in human Arbitrium, Opinion, or Conjecture.

8. For as God is free from all Inclination or Deviation, so that he does what he will, and need give no Account for it, so also is the true Faith free in the Spirit of God; it has but one Inclination, viz. into the Love and Mercy of God, that it cast its willing into God's willing; and to go out from the Syderial and elementary Reason.

9. It seeks not itself in the Reason of the Flesh, but in God's Love; and so if it thus finds itself, then it finds itself in God, and co-worketh with God, not as to Reason, what that wills, but in God, what God's Spirit wills.

10. For it prizes or esteems not the earthly Life, but that it may live in God, and ^c Phil. 2. 13. that God's Spirit in it may be ^c the Willing and the Doing; it gives up itself in humility into God's Willing, sinks through Reason into Death, and yet springs with God's Spirit into the Life of God. It is as it were not, and yet is in God in all.

11. It is a Crown and Ornament of the Deity; a Wonder in the divine Magia: it makes where nothing is, and takes where nothing is made: it works, and none sees its Substance.

^f Or raises. 12. It ^f lifts up itself aloft, and yet needs no climbing up; it is very Mighty, and yet is the most lowly Humility of all; it hath all, and yet comprehends nothing more ^g Wesheit. than Meekness, and so it is free from all ^g Evil.

13. And it hath no Law, for the fierce Wrath of Nature touches it not: it subsists in eternity, for it is comprehended in no Ground; it is included or Bolted up in nothing.

14. As the Abyss of Eternity is free, and rests in nothing, but only in itself, where there is an eternal Meekness, so also is the right true Faith in the Abyss.

15. It is in itself the Substance: it liveth, and yet seeks not its own Life, but it seeks the Life of the eternal still Rest: it goes forth out of its own Life's Spirit, and possesses itself.

16. Thus it is free from the Source or Torment, and dwells thus in the eternal Liberty in God.

17. It is with, or as to the eternal Liberty, as a Nothing; and yet is in All: All comes to it, which God and the Eternity is, and can possibly do: it is apprehended by nothing, and yet is a fair Inhabiting delight in the Great Might, or Potency of God.

^h Sophia. 18. It is in Substance, and yet is or becomes apprehended by no Substance: it is a Play-fellow, and Companion, of the divine ^h Virgin of the Wisdom of God: In that stand the great Wonders of God; and yet it is free from all.

19. As the Light is free from the Fire, and yet is continually generated from the Fire, and yet the Fire-Source or Torment cannot apprehend or stir it, in like manner I present to your Understanding, that thus Faith becomes generated out of the Life's Spirit, viz. out of a continual burning Fire, and shines in that same Fire, and fills the Life's Fire, and yet is never apprehended.

20. But if it becomes apprehended, then is itself entered into Reason as into a Prison, and is no more in God, in its Liberty, but is entered into the Source, Quality or Torment.

21. It plagues itself, and yet there it may well be free; in the Reason it works the Wonders in the Fire of Nature, and in the Liberty it works the Wonders of God.

The Second Chapter.

Of the Original of Faith, and why Faith and Doubting dwell together.

1.  NOW seeing Faith is ONE Spirit with God, therefore we are to consider of its Original; for we may not say, that it is a Figure or Image of Reason,¹ but it is God's Image, God's Similitude, an eternal Figure.ⁱ Faith is God's Image.
2. And yet it may destroy or corrupt itself in the time of the Body, or transmute and alter, or change itself into the Anguish-source.
3. For in its own Substance in the Original, it is merely a Willing, and that Willing is a Seed, and that must the Fire-spirit, viz. the Soul, sow into the Liberty of God.
4. And so a Tree grows out of that Seed, of which the Soul feeds and allays or meekens its Fire-life; so that it becomes powerful, and gives its Virtue to the Root of this Tree, whence the Tree grows in the Spirit of God even into the Wonders of the Majesty of God, and springs in the Paradise of God.
5. And though it be so, that thus we are as it were dumb or mute, and may not well be understood; for Reason will needs comprehend and see all presently; yet we will set it down very clearly to the Light, why Faith and Doubting are together, and as it were bound with a Chain, so that there is a vehement Strife in Man, all the Time, while he is a Guest in ^k this Tabernacle of the earthly Life.^k 2 Cor. 5. 1.
6. Unless he so very eagerly sinks down in himself, that he can introduce the Life's Fire into the Liberty of God, and so he is in the Life of Reason as dead, and though he lives,¹ he lives to God.¹ Rom. 6. 10.
7. Which is indeed a highly precious Life of a Man, and is rarely or seldom found in any, for it is ^{} like the first Image which God created.^{} Note.
8. Though the Mortal hangs to it, yet it is as it were dead, as if a dead Image hung to him, to which Corruption belongs, wherein the true Man does not live.
9. For the right Life stands converted, and is in another World, in another Principle, and lives in another Source or Quality.
10. Understand us now therefore in this manner: You see and know the Original of the human Life, how that exists in the Mother's Womb or Body; and you see moreover wherein it qualifies or operates, and moves itself, viz. chiefly in four Forms; as, in Fire, Air, Water, and Earth or Flesh.
11. And though plainly it thus stands therein, yet it is in this no more than a bestial Life; for its Reason comes to it from the Constellations, and finds that the Sun and the Constellation make a Tincture in the four Elements, whence the Reason and Qualification, or working comes, also Pleasure and Displeasure.
12. But it is not by far yet the right human Life; for this Reason seeketh no higher, but only itself in its Wonders.
13. Yet there is in Man a Desire, and a great Longing or Panting after a higher, better, and eternal Life, wherein there is no such Source, Quality or Torment.
14. And though it be clear that Reason apprehends it not, and sees it not, yet a Mystery lies in Reason, which there tastes and knows it, whence the seeking exists.

15. Whereby we know that the same Mystery is together implanted in the first Creation, and is Man's own, and thus find that it stands in a Desiring or Longing, viz. in a Magic seeking.

16. Further we find, that with that Mystery we are in a strange Lodging for our House: that the same Mystery stands not in the Spirit of this World; for that apprehends it not, and finds it not, whereby then we know the heavy Fall of Adam.

17. For we find that Mystery in the willing of the Mind first, that it is a secret Fountain Spring, which opens itself in another Principle.

18. Secondly, we understand also, that that Mystery stands bidden in the Fire in the Anguish-Source or Quality, and opens itself through the Anguish of the Willing.

19. And then, Thirdly, we find, how that same Mystery is held Captive by the Spirit of this World.

20. The outward Life's Reason has Might or Ability to enter thereinto, and to destroy it, so that that Mystery comes not to the Light, in that it covers the same, so that the Genetrix cannot generate, and so * abides as a Mystery hidden.

* Note.

21. And so then when the Body breaks, then the willing has nothing more which can open the Mystery: and thereupon the Fire or Soul's Spirit abideth in the Darkness, and the Mystery stands eternally in it, as in another Principle.

† Note.

22. Thus we know that Mystery to be † God's Kingdom, which stands hidden in the Soul, which gives a longing Pleasure and Desire, so that it imagines in that Mystery.

23. Where then it becomes Impregnated magically in that Mystery, out of which the willing exists, to go forth out of the Fire-Life into the Mystery of God.

24. And so now if it lifts up the Willing, and casts it from it into the Mystery, then the Willing becomes Impregnated in the Mystery.

‡ Note.

25. For it is longing, and attains or comes to be the Body of the Mystery, viz. the Substance of the Mystery, which is God's Substance, which is * Incomprehensible to Nature; thus the Willing draws God's Similitude or Image on to itself.

26. So now when the Willing is generated out of the Soul's Fire, then it stands indeed also with its Root in the Soul, and so between the Willing and the Soul there is no parting or rending: but the Willing thus becomes ONE Spirit in or with God, and comes to be the Soul's Garment, so that the Soul in the Willing becomes bidden in God.

27. So that though it dwells in the Body, yet nevertheless it is with its Willing surrounded and hidden in God, and is thus in the Willing, which is the right earnest Faith, a Child of God, and dwells in another World.

28. This now is not so to be understood, like an historical Willing, whereby Reason knows that there is in itself a desire after God, and yet holds or retains that very desire Captive in Evil or Wickedness, so that the Willing cannot go out from the Soul, and enter into the Life or Mystery of God, but makes Opinions, and sets the Willing in the Conjectures.

29. Wherein then it cannot reach the Mystery, and so abides in the Conjecture, or indeed altogether hidden in the Soul, in which it is directed and pointed, or put off to a future Thing, whereby Reason holds the Will Captive in the Longing or Lust of the Flesh in the Syderial Magia, and continually says, Tomorrow thou wilt go forth and seek the Mystery of God.

§ Note, Thou must, through God in thee, know thyself.

30. Verily, there is no own or Self Ability of finding it, this Opinion deceives itself; so also the Liberty is in no Conjecture or Opinion, where the Will may enter in and behold God, that Reason need to Image or Contrive to make or do somewhat, and so therewith to be pleasing to God.

31. For there is no righter Way, than only to go with the Willing out from Reason, and not will to seek itself, but God's Love, to cast itself wholly into God's will, and to let all lie, which Reason casts in the way.

32. And though there were great sins and preceding lusts, into which the Body was Entered, yet we should go above them with the will, and Esteem God's Love greater [°] than the sordid Pleasures of sins.

° Heb. 11. 25.

33. For God is not an acceptor of sins, but an acceptor of the obedient free willing, he lets not sin into himself.

34. But a humble lowly willing, which goes forth out of the house of Sins, and wills Sins No more, but sinks itself out from Reason into its Love, as an Obedient humble Child, that he accepts, for it is pure.

35. But so long as it sticks in the Opinion and Conjecture, it is surrounded with the Opinion, and is not free.

36. But now seeing then God is free in himself from the Evil or wickedness, so must the willing also be free, and then it is God's similitude, image and propriety: for [°] What comes to him into his Liberty, he will not cast that away, as Christ Teaches us. ° John 6. 37.

° John 6. 37.

The Third Chapter.

Whence Good and Evil, Love and Anger, Life and Death, Joy and Sorrow proceed; and how the Wonders of Nature appear in the Free-will of God, and yet the Liberty of God mixes not itself with the Wonders of Nature.

1.  UNDERSTAND us further in this Manner: We apprehend and have it sufficiently made known to us, even in the Holy Scripture, as also in the light of Nature, and in All or Every thing or Substance; that from the Eternal Substance all proceeds both Good and Evil, Love and Anger, Life and Death, Joy and Sorrow.

2. Yet we cannot say, that therefore Evil and Death Come from God; for * in God is no Evil, also no Death, and in Eternity * ^{Note.} no Evil goes into Him.

3. The fierce wrath only proceeds out of the fire of Nature, where the Life stands as in a Magia, where one form desires and awakens the other, whence the Essences of Multiplicity Exist; or of which the wonders become generated; in which the Eternity reveals or manifests itself in Similitudes.

4. And yet we must say that in God's willing there is a desiring, which there causes the Magia, out of which the Multiplicity exists.

5. And yet the Multiplicity is not God's willing itself, which is free from all substance; but in the seeking or longing of the willing Nature, generates itself with all forms, where then all originally arises out of the Desiring, as out of the Eternal Magia.

6. And we are further to know, that all whatsoever there attains Life, which imagines into the seeking or longing, and sets its will into Nature, that it is the Child of Nature, and one Life with Nature.

7. But whatsoever with its willing goes forth out of the seeking or longing of Nature, into the free-willing of God, that becomes accepted and known in that free-willing, and is ONE spirit in or with GOD.

* Note. 8. And though it be Nature, as also Nature has Ever from Eternity generated itself in God's willing, yet its Spirit-life is without or beyond Nature in the free-willing, * and to the wonders stand manifested in God, and yet are not God himself.

9. And if the soul's will-spirit goes forth from the Reason of Nature into the free-willing of God, then is the Will-spirit God's Child, and the Nature-spirit God's wonder; and the Creature stands turned into itself, as God himself.

10. For the Sydereal or Reason-spirit seeks in its Magia, in itself, in its Center, the Wonders of Eternity: To which End God has created the soul, in the body of the outward Nature, though indeed it be only apprehended in the inward.

11. And the will-spirit goes into the liberty of God, where then the Holy Spirit brings it into the Free divine Mystery, so that the Deity stands manifest in the Will-spirit; and in the Reason-spirit stands the Magia of Nature with its wonders Manifest.

12. So then, seeing the soul is the Center, where the right will-spirit towards the liberty of God goes forth into the liberty of God, viz. into the Divine Mystery, yet it has the Sydereal spirit for a Band.

13. And if it tames that, so that it works not Evil, it may introduce the Sydereal Wonders, which in the Elementary Looking-Glass came to be made or brought to a Substance, and bring them before the Majesty of God into the free willing of God; that so the wonders may shine or appear in the divine Liberty, as a similitude of God's willing.

14. Not so to be understood, that the Liberty of God mixes with the Nature-wonders and with the similitude, so that they are One.

15. No, God abides Eternally Free; he dwells in the wonders as the Soul in the Body; and so little as the Body apprehends the Soul, or the Fire the Light, so little also does Nature the Deity.

16. And yet it is ONE substance, and has from Eternity parted itself into two substances, viz. the Fire and the Light.

17. Where in the Fire we understand the source or quality of Nature; and in the Light, the Mystery, the spirit of the Life without source or quality; although the Fire also is a Mystery.

18. Thus understand us; it has one and the same form or manner in Man. The Soul is the Fire of the true human life; that God out of the Eternal Nature in Adam breathed or blew up by, or with his spirit, viz. out of the Center of God.

19. And the Spirit that became generated out of the soul's fire, which God's spirit formed to its Image, that has the divine Mystery; out of which the willing towards the Love of God comes to be generated, out of which the Divine Magia or seeking Exists; that the will-spirit of God desires.

20. And so now if it lifts up itself, that is, goes forth out of the hidden Mystery into the liberty of God, then it is a branch, bud or sprout in God's Kingdom; Sprouted out of God's Mystery, and works in God's willing, and continually opens the Wonders of God's wisdom.

21. Not in that form or manner, as if in God something new was become Generated, that had not been from Eternity in God's wisdom, which has no Ground or Bottom, nor Number.

22. Only in the soul's Spirit in itself the Endless or Infinite Mystery becomes Manifest, to God's Honour and deeds of Wonder, and to the Eternal Joy of itself; understand of the Creature's self.

23. Now seeing the Earthly perished seeking or longing mixes itself together with the Starry source or quality, and that the soul in the heavy Fall of Adam has with its willing imagined into the Starry seeking, or longing, as also into the Earthly, and introduced the strange Magia into itself; therefore is the willing become broken or corrupted, and the divine Image come to be destroyed.

24. And the Heavenly divine Image of Man became Earthly, so that the right willing stands as it were reversed, or turned about in the spirit of this world in Reason, which is generated out of the Constellation.

25. Now therefore it is necessary for the right Image of God, which is thus destroyed and become Earthly, that it be ^r born again.

26. And there would be no Remedy or Council found to help this Image, if the word out of the Center of God, viz. God's own Life, did not become Man, and new regenerate the pure soul again in itself, whose Image was now perished; and there the right Image comes to be helped again, else it would Eternally have been bereaved or deprived of the Liberty and Majesty of God.

27. And so now seeing all souls are proceeded out of One, they are all therefore generated out of the perished or corrupted Root.

28. But seeing the New regenerated Life in Christ is come again into a ^s soul, ^r Or one. therefore it is necessary, that we all cast our willing into the Regeneration of Christ: for in Christ we are with our souls become generated in God again, and have in Christ attained the Image again.

29. For our Mystery in the soul stood after the fall only and barely in the Magia of Nature, which in its Center is a Fire, and the Image was turned out of the liberty of God into the outward Magia, viz. into the outward Principle.

30. So now when that breaks or corrupts in the Substance, then the poor perished Image of the soul stands as a forlorn lost child, where in its own Center it can awaken or stir up nothing, but only the fierce wrathful fire-source or quality: for it is gone out of the word of God, viz. out of God's Mystery, into a Corruptible Looking-Glass, viz. into the spirit of this world, which is inceptive and finite, or has a Beginning and End.

31. And therefore also the soul's body is wholly become Earthly, and is fallen home into Corruptibility and to Death.

32. Therefore it is necessary for us, seeing God has out of Grace turned his Love to us, and has turned in our soul, in Christ, into himself again into the Liberty, and made the divine Mystery stirring in the Image, so that the Image can dwell again in God, viz. in the Paradisical Wonders, that we break off our willing from the outward Center, viz. from the transitory Life, and introduce it into the free willing of God.

33. And to that Now belongs not a History only, or knowledge, for one to say, I believe, that is, I know it, or desire it, and yet abide with the willing in the outward Principle, viz. stand in the outward seeking or longing.

34. No, the thing is this, ^r you must become born anew of water and the Holy Spirit; ^r John 3. 3-5. 7.

35. It must be sincere or earnest; the Reason's willing must become broken: it must be a living motion of the will which breaks quite through Reason, and which strives or fights against Reason.

36. And though that indeed is not passib'e for the soul, since it is become so very perished or corrupted; yet there is no better council or remedy for it, than that it should make itself, with all its reason and thoughts, as it were dead, and incline and unite itself merely and only to God's Mercy, and give itself up into it, that there be no other Room left for Reason, but that it must be compelled and subdued.

37. And if the will does thus strike down Reason, then it is as it were dead, and yet lives there, but it becomes the right will's servant, and yet there without that will be Lord.

38. For God's willing must become Lord over Reason; if Reason would make or do any thing virtuous, which subsists before God.

39. For nothing subsists before God, unless it be generated in God's will.

40. But if the will turns itself into God, then the will-spirit becomes God's child.

† Or Works.

41. Then also the † Wonders subsist before God, which have been made or wrought by or with the Reason-spirit; for they have been made in God's will, and have been put out of the inceptive, and set in the Eternal.

42. And though indeed we cannot say, that our work or doings, or that which we have made, abides Eternally; yet the shadow or image of it abides; and though they truly and really abide in the substance, yet but in the Mystery, viz. in the divine Magia, before the wisdom of God.

43. Where only the outward Principle of it breaks or corrupts, viz. the outward Dominion in the four Elements.

44. And there yet the four will be set again into the One; where then all Colours and forms, or varieties of the Four, will become known, with all whatsoever is generated therein.

‡ 1 Cor. 3. 13.

45. Therefore then a final day of separation is appointed by God, wherein † all shall be proved or tried through the Fire, what is generated in the willing of God or not; where each Principle will reap its own.

46. And there Much of Many Men's works will abide in the fire, because they were not generated in God's willing; for nothing impure goes into God.

47. But whatsoever is generated out of another Magia, that is not Pure, of which we have the Earth for an Example, which is perished.

48. Dost thou ask, Why? Answer, The Devil with his Legions sat in his Creation, wherereally he was Created an Angel, in the Sulphur, or in the CENTER of Nature, † out of which the Earth afterwards was Created; he has awakened, or stirred up the fierce wrath in Nature.

‡ Note, out of what the Earth is Created.

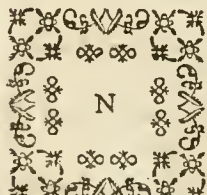

* Or Justification.

49. So that the Earth has an evil impure seeking or longing, though it is become shut up in Death, and reserved for * Putrefaction.

50. Where it shall be proved in the Eternal Fire, and come again into whatsoever it was before the Creation, viz. into the Eternal Magia of the Eternal Nature.

The Fourth Chapter.

How Man must Live, that he may attain the Liberty of God; and how the Image of God comes to be destroyed: Also of the state and condition of the wicked, after the Decease of the Body.

1.  OW then seeing all is included and shut up in God's willing, whatsoever is become generated in Nature, therefore thus we understand, that Nothing can enter into God's willing, unless it becomes generated or made in God's willing: and so we understand Clearly that it is necessary for us, that we with all our Reason and Thoughts give up ourselves into God's will.

‡ Eph. 4. 12.

2. And so we should † labour with the Hands in the world, and seek and procure food for the Belly, and yet not at all set our will into it, so as to account any earthly thing our Treasure.

3. For ^a where our will and heart is, there is also our Treasure: Is our will in God's ^a Matt. 6. 21. will? then we have the great Mystery of God, out of which this world, as a similitude, has been generated, and so have both, viz. the Eternal and the Corruptible; and yet more, we bring the wonders of our works into the Eternal Mystery, for they hang or cleave to the will-spirit.

4. But if we turn away our will from the Eternal into the Earthly Mystery, and account Money our Treasure, and the Beauty of the Body for our Luster, and honour or authority and power our Best Jewel, then our will is captivated in the same; and so now it hangs only to the Looking-Glass, and attains not the Liberty of God.

5. For the Looking-Glass, viz. the outward Kingdom, shall be tried through Fire, and the fierce wrath shall be separated from the Pure, where then the fierce wrath will be an ^a Eternal Burning.

^a Isai. 33. 14.

6. Now if Reason introduces the soul's Mind, with the willing spirit of the soul, in which the Image of God and the right true Man stands in the outward Looking-Glass, viz. into an Hypocritical seeking or longing, then indeed is the Image and right true Man captivated with it, and infected with the outward Magia, viz. with the seeking or longing of it.

7. Where then the Image puts on the outward substantiality not only as a Garment, but it is an infection and total mixture.

8. Though indeed the soul's fire mixes not itself with the outward Kingdom, yet the soul's will-spirit, which is Magical, mixes itself, and so the Image of God comes to be destroyed, and altered into an earthly, where then the soul's fire-life remains rough, and has in the will-spirit an Earthly Image.

9. So now if the body breaks and dies, then the soul retains its Image, viz. its will-spirit; and now is departed away from the Body's Image; for in the dying is a parting asunder, and then the Image appears with and in those things which it has received into itself, wherewith it is become infected; and that source or quality it has in itself.

10. What it has loved here, that has been its Treasure, whereinto the will-spirit has entered, and according to that also the Soul's Image figures itself.

11. Has any one turned his heart and mind into pride, state and courtly figure, in the time of his Life? then that very source or quality continually springs in the soul's fire into the Image; and flies forth ^b over the Love and Meekness, viz. over God's liberty, and cannot possess, or apprehend the liberty.

^b Over or above.

12. But it flows up thus in itself in such an Anguish-source or quality, and figures the will-spirit continually according to the Earthly Things, into which its will has entered, and glisters thus therewith in the soul's fire, and continually climbs up in pride and state, and will needs go forth in the fire over God's Meekness.

13. For it can form or create no other willing, for it cannot enter into the liberty of God, into the Holy Mystery, where it might create or procure another will; it lives only and barely in itself.

14. It has Nothing; and can also attain Nothing, but only that which in the outward Life it has comprehended or Conceived in itself.

15. And thus it goes also with a Covetous Person, who has in his will-spirit and Image the Magic-Covetous seeking or longing, who wills always to have much, and figures all that is in his will-spirit, wherewith he was infused in the Life of the Body.

16. But though that has left him, and that his substance is no more Earthly, yet he carries along the Earthly willing, and so plagues and torments himself with it, or he can attain nothing else.

^c The false, wicked, deceitful Man.

17. And yet it goes much worse with ^c falshood, against which the Miserable have cried out, and cursed him for his Oppression and Extortion.

18. For all whatsoever has been wrought in the Evil wickedness or malice which he has caused, follow, after him; for it has been wrought in the Mystery of the Anger, and so the perished soul falls thereinto, after the dying of the Body.

19. And there it must Bathe in those Abominations, so that if it was possible for it to unite itself with the willing into God's love, yet it would have those same Abominations and Malice on its Back, for they make it Eternally despair.

20. Where then at last the soul departs away, and renounces God, and desires only to climb up, and to live in those Abominations.

21. And this is its Joy, that it blasphemes God and his Saints or Holy ones; but yet lifts up itself in the abominations above God and the Kingdom of Heaven, and yet sees or apprehends none of them.

^d Subersicht.

22. Thus we give you to Consider, what the will and ^d aim or confidence is, viz. that it is the Master and Leader, which introduces the Image of Man both into God's Love, and also in God's Anger.

23. For in the willing, the right true Faith becomes generated, wherein the Noble Image of God stands; for in the Faith or Believing, we become again through Christ generated in God, and attain again the Noble Image, which Adam had lost, and Christ with God's life has introduced into the humanity again.

24. Thus a false or wicked will destroys the Image, for the will-spirit is the Root of the Image, for it draws the Mystery of God into itself.

^e Or brings to Light.

25. And the Spirit of that same Mystery ^e opens the fair Image and draws on to it the divine Mystery, viz. God's Substantiality, understand Christ's Heavenly Body, which became generated out of God, in the dear and fair virgin of his wisdom, which fills heaven.

26. So then if our Mind and Will is set thereinto, and that the will desires the same, then is the will Magical and goes thereinto; and if it then hungers after it, then it may eat the Bread of God.

27. And now Sprouts to it the New Body, which is the saving amiable blessed Tree of the Christian Faith; for every Body, or Corpus, loves itself.

28. And so then the soul gets God's Body, which is so sweet, saving, amiable and blessed, how then will it not love the same, which yet is given to it for its own, in which it lives and dwells, and of whose power and virtue it eats and strengthens itself?

29. Now no one should deceive himself, and remain sticking in his falshood and unrighteousness, and comfort himself with an Historical Faith, whereby he thinks, God is good and favourable, he will forgive me well enough, I will gather Treasure, and enjoy my full of it, also leave my Children much riches and honour, I will yet one day repent well enough; it is a mere deceit.

30. Thou gatherest and heapest together in falshood, and attractest into thee unrighteousness; and though it be all done in the best way that may be, yet it is but earthly; and thou hast demerited thy heart and willing down into an earthly Vessel, and clothed, and infected thy Noble Image with it.

31. Moreover thou inheritest and purchasest only pride for thy Children, so that they only Set their will-spirit also thereinto.

32. Thou Thinkest to do good to thyself, and thou dost to thyself and thy Children the worst thou canst.

^f Note.

33. Indeed the outward Life must have sustenance; and he does ^f foolishly who voluntarily gives his goods to a wicked one.

34. But much more foolishly does he, that with his goods makes himself to be a wicked one; in that he sets his heart upon them, and holds temporal transitory pleasure more in honour, than the Eternal intransitory goods which have no End.

35. ^f But he is blessed that comes to help the Miserable; for they wish all good to him, and pray to God, that he would bless him in Body and Soul. ^f Note, ye Merciful.

36. And thus their wish and blessing passes to the Donor into the Mystery, and surrounds him, and follows after him as a good Work generated in God; for he takes that Treasure along with him, and not the Earthly.

37. For when the Body Dies, then the Image passes into the Mystery; that is, it becomes manifest in the Mystery of God.

38. For in the Time of the Earthly Life, the outward Principle was a Cover before it, and that falls away with the dying of the Body, and then the divine Mystery appears in the Image, and therein all good deeds and works, which were generated in the Love, in the will of God.

39. All the prayers and wishes of the honest and virtuous Children of God stand in the Mystery, and incline themselves towards, and appropriate themselves with the Image: For the children of the Miserable, whom he came to help in their necessity and tribulation, have sent their willing in their prayer into God's Mystery, and therewith unite them to their deliverer and comforter.

40. And so when that same well-doer comes into the Mystery, so that the Earthly Life falls away, then all things become Manifest, and every one unites itself to its own, into which the willing has separated it.

41. And all this is reserved to the Judgment of God, the Holy Spirit, in the Mystery; and there ^e every one shall reap what he has here sown in his Field, there it shall all spring ^e Gal. 6. 7, 8. up, grow and blossom in a heavenly new Earth.

42. In which, Man will draw and put on to his divine Image, the Body of the perfect Mystery of God, and see before him, viz. before the bodily or corporeal Image, his righteousness standing, and why he is so fair, beautiful and bright.

43. He will know the Cause of it, and Eternally rejoice himself therein, and conceive or comprehend his Song of Praise or Hallelujah therein, to God's honour and deeds of Wonder.

44. On the Contrary, the wicked Herd, or Multitude, will have the scorn, derision, reproach, Covetousness, Pride, State, Pomp, evil Malignity, and wicked Malice, and the Curse of the Miserable, in their Mystery, gathered together into the Anger, which will also follow after them, and so they will ever continually know the Cause of their source or quality and torment, and in that regard be Eternal Enemies of God, and of his Children.

The Fifth Chapter.

Why the wicked Convert not. What the severest and sharpest Thing in Conversion is. Of the false Pastors or Shepherds. Of the Tree of Faith. How a Man must enter into the Kingdom of God. Of the Breaking of the Kingdom of Lucifer. Of the Three Forms of Life, and what we have inherited from Adam, and from Christ.

1.  LL this the wicked Multitude cannot conceive or apprehend, and the Cause is this, there is no willing in them, which desires to conceive it.

2. For the Earthly substance has captivated them, so that they can Create or Form no willing into God's Mystery; they are to God as the Dead; there is no breath of divine Life in them; also they will nothing of it, they are bolted up into God's Anger Mystery, so that they know not themselves.

3. God has not done that to them, but they are with their Will-spirit gone thereinto, and so demersed themselves, and therefore they run on like Madmen.

4. Where yet the Noble Jewel in them stands hidden in the Noble Center in the divine Principle; and they can very well with their will go forth out of the Earthly substance and malice or wickedness, into the will of God.

5. But they wilfully and obstinately let the fierce wrath hold them, for the proud, stately, self-honouring life, pleases them too well, and that holds them also.

6. But after this Time, there is no Remedy more; when the soul's Fire is merely and barely Naked, it can be quenched by or with nothing but only with God's Meekness, with the water of the Eternal Life in the Mystery of God, and that they reach not, or attain not; there is afterwards a ^b Great Cliff or Gulf between them, a whole Principle.

^b Luke 16. 26.

7. But in this Time, while the soul swims and burns in the blood, it may well be, for the spirit of God ⁱ goes upon the wings of the wind; God is become Man.

ⁱ Psal. 18. 10.

8. The spirit of God goes with the willing into the Soul; it desires the soul; it sets ^k its Magia towards the soul; the soul needs only to ^k open the Door, and so it goes voluntarily in, and opens the Noble Grain to the Tree of the Christian Faith.

^k Rev. 3. 20.

9. But this is the most sharp and severe, which enters most bitterly into Man; he must break off the Will-spirit from the Earthly Substance; he must bring forth the Will-spirit out from its Earthly Treasure, viz. out from Pride, State, Covetousness, and Envy, as also out from Anger and Falshood, towards the Spirit of God.

10. His Mouth must not be a hypocritical Flatterer, and his Heart and Will remain sticking in the Earthly Mystery, it must be sincere and earnest from the ground of the Heart, and of the Soul.

11. The Will must turn itself about into the Divine Mystery, viz. into God's Love, that the Spirit of God may have room and place in it, to blow up the divine Sparkle, else there is no Remedy, it is no flattering Hypocrisy will do it.

^{*} Note.

12. ^{*} And though one should learn all the Scriptures outwardly, without book, by rote, and should sit all his life long in the Church, and yet would abide in the soul's Image, an Earthly bestial Man, which in his Heart hunts only after falshood, deceit, and wickedness, then his flattering Hypocrisy will help him nothing.

13. A Preacher, who handles God's Mystery in the outward part externally, and yet has not God's Image in the inward, internally, but only hunts after Honour and Covetousness, be is as near to the Devil as the meanest of all; he is only a Juggler with God's Mysteries, and an Hypocrite without Power.

14. He himself has not the Mystery, and how then will he give or ^l dispense it to others? He is a false Shepherd, and ^m a Wolf among the Sheep. ^l Eph. 6. 10. ^m Matth. 7.

15. For every Man who bears the Mystery of God, that is, who has awakened or ¹⁵ stirred it up, and given himself up to it, so that God's Spirit drives him, ^{*} HE is God's Priest, for he teaches out of, or from God; none can rightly teach, unless he teaches out of or from God's Mystery. ^{*} Note.

16. But how will he teach who is without it? Will he not teach from Art and Earthly Reason? What does that concern God's Mystery?

17. Though Reason be a Noble Thing or Substance, yet without God's Spirit it is blind; for Christ saith, ⁿ Without me ye can do nothing; ^o those whom the spirit of God leads or drives, they are God's Children. ⁿ John 15. 5. ^o Rom. 8. 14.

18. But ^p he who climbs into the sheepfold, another way than through Christ's Spirit, he is a Thief, and a Murderer, and comes only to rob and steal, and to seek his own profit, he is not a Pastor or feeder of the Sheep, but a devourer, as a Wolf does. ^p John 10. 1.

19. We are to understand thus concerning the Tree of Christian Faith, it must be living, and not a dead History or Knowledge; the Word of Life must in the Image be born or generated Man, that the Soul may bear God's Image; without that he is not God's Child.

20. No flattering Hypocrisy, or deferring of Repentance upon Hope avails; so long as one bears the Earthly Image on the soul, he is without God's Mystery.

21. Thou shouldst not dare to think I will yet one day convert well enough, but I will beforehand gather enough, that I may not want, and Earthly business may not afterwards lie in the Way: No, that is the Devil's griping Talon.

22. But ^q through Persecution, the Cross, and Tribulation, through Reproach and Disgrace, must we go into the Kingdom of God. ^q Note, Acts 14. 22. ² Theff. 1. 4.

23. For the Devil manages his Dominion in the Earthly Image, and he reproaches the Children of God in his proud, stately, pompous Seat, when they would run away from him, or escape from him: Thus the wicked Multitude serve the Devil, and help to promote his work.

24. All this the Man that will go to God must not regard, he must consider that he is in a strange Country among Murderers, and is a Pilgrim, who wanders or travels into his true Native Country, and he falls among the Murderers, who vex and rob him.

25. And if he can but bring it so far, that he retains his noble Image, then he has Goods enough, for he gets the Heavenly Mystery instead thereof, wherein all lies, out of which this world is only a Looking-Glass of it.

26. And he is indeed very foolish who takes the Glimpse of a Looking-Glass for a substantial Thing or Being; for the Looking-Glass breaks, and he that loves the same, is bereaved of it.

27. And he is like one who in a great Water ^r builds his house upon the sand, and the water carries away his house; and so it is also with the Earthly Hope. ^r Matth. 7. 26.

28. O Child of Man, thou noble Creature, let ^s it not have the power; it costs thy Eternal Kingdom; seek thyself, and find thyself, but not in the Earthly Kingdom. ^s The outward Looking-Glass.

29. O how very well is it with him that finds himself in God's Kingdom, who draws on the heavenly and divine Mystery, and enters into it.

30. All the Ornament and Bravery of this World is Dung in respect of the Heavenly, and is not worth a Man's setting his Love upon it.

^t Work or Effect.

31. Though it is so, that it must yet be brought to the ^t Wonders, to which End also God hath created it, that Man, understand the outward Man, should open the Wonders of the outward Nature, viz. in the outward Mystery, both out of the Earth, and above the Earth.

32. All whatsoever the Stars can do, and the Earth has in it, should Man bring into Wonders, into Forms, and into Being and Substance, according to the Eternal Figure, which was seen in God's Wisdom, before the Times of the World.

33. But he should not set his Will in it, and esteem that for his Treasure, but for his Joy and Ornament he may use it; but with the inward Man he should labour in God's Mystery, and then God's Spirit helps him also to seek and find the outward.

34. Seeing then we are through the heavy Fall become so perished, that our Mind is turned out of the heavenly Mystery into the Earthly, as into the Looking-Glass, so that we are found as it were half dead; therefore it is highly necessary for us, that we go quite forth out of the Earthly with our Mind and Will, and seek ourselves first, before we seek the Earthly Beauty and Ornament, that we may first learn to know where we are at home, and not make our Mind Earthly.

35. For though Man stands clearly in the Image of God, yet he is in a Threefold Life; but if he loses God's Image, then he is only in a Twofold.

36. The first Life is the Soul's Life, and it originally arises in the Fire of the Eternal Nature, and stands especially in seven Forms, all according to the Spirit of Nature, as in our second and third Book is expressed and declared.

37. And the second Life stands in the Image, which is, or becomes generated out of the fountain of the Eternal Nature, viz. out of the Soul's Fire; which Image stands in the Light in another source or quality, and has its living Spirit, as you may find it in Fire and Light.

38. For the source or quality of the Light is not as the source or quality of the Fire, and yet the Light exists out of the Fire; where a Man is to understand, in the source or quality of the Light, the meek pure amiable Spirit; and in the source or quality of the Fire, the Cause of it.

39. As you see that out of the fire the Air originally arises, which is the Spirit; and the Air also is understood to be in four Forms; as First, One Day according to the fierce Wrath of the Fire; and Secondly, a moist or damp one, viz. Water from the harsh astringent attraction; and Thirdly, a meek one from the Light; and Fourthly, a swelling rising one, from the fierce Wrath of the Fire-crack.

40. Wherein we then understand, that the Light in all Forms is Master, for it has the Meekness, and is a Life which becomes generated through the fierce wrathful Death, viz. through the Anguish source or quality in the sinking down, viz. as another Principle, which subsists in the fire without feeling, and yet has its feeling in itself, viz. the laudable worthy Relish.

41. Wherein then we understand, that the Water becomes generated through the Death, through the sinking down through the Fire's Anguish; and we understand further, how yet it is no Death, and yet it is a Death.

42. But the Light makes it sprouting, so that there is a Life therein, which Life stands in the Light's power, wherein the Life sprouts out of Death.

43. And understand the Substantiality, viz. the Comprehensibility or Palpability, for, or to be the Water, which is dead in itself, but the Fire-life and the Light's Power is its Life.

44. Thus the substantiality is esteemed as it were dead, where the Life is its own therein, and possesses and generates itself in itself.

45. Wherein the Death of the substantiality must give the Body thereto, as is declared in our Third Book; where then in the Light-life, and in the Water of the Death, we understand two forms; and according to the Anguish in the Fire, the Third.

46. As, First, in the Anguish of the mortifying or killing in the fierce Wrath of the Fire, we understand a fierce wrathful Water, which in respect of the first four forms of Nature, viz. harshness, bitterness, anguish and fire, is like Poison, and is also Poison, a hellish substantiality in the fierce Wrath, according to the original of the first Principle, wherein God's Anger springs or flows up.

47. And, Secondly, we understand the other Water in the Light's Crack, in which the source or quality sinks down quite through the Mortifying, and in the Death becomes like as it were Nothing, for in the Nothing the Eternal Liberty, viz. the Eternal Abyss of the Eternity, comes to be attained.

48. And if then the incomprehensible Light, in that very sinking down into the Eternity, shines or discovers itself, and always fills the sinking down, then sprouts forth in the Light, the power of the Light, viz. the Life of the demersed Death.

49. For the fierce wrath of the Fire abides in the fierce wrathful source or quality of the fierce wrathful Water, and goes * not along into Death; also it cannot be, for the fierce wrathfulness is the stern Almighty life, that cannot die, nor attain the Eternal Liberty; for it is called, and remains in Eternity, the Nature-life. • Note.

50. And though indeed, in the Light-life, there is found also a Nature, yet it is not painful, odious or enemicitious, as that in the Original of Nature, according to which God called himself a zealous, jealous, angry God.

51. For in the Light-source or Quality, the Water, which is sunk down through Death into the Liberty, becomes a Source or Water of the Eternal Life of Joy, in which the Meekness and Love eternally flow up.

52. Where then there is no more sinking down, but a sprouting, which is called Paradise.

53. And the moving out of the Water's source is called Element, that is, the pure Element in the Angelical World.

54. And the cause of the Fire in the Light is the Eternal Firmament, wherein the Eternal Skill and Knowledge in God's Wisdom becomes opened, as we have a similitude hereof in the Firmament and Stars.

55. Thus we understand two Worlds one in another, one not comprehending the other, viz. one in the fierce Wrath of the fiery Nature, in the Water of the Poison and Anguish-source or Quality, wherein the Devil dwells.

56. And then one in the Light, wherein the Water of the Light is sunk down out of the Anguish, into the Eternal Liberty, which the Poison-water cannot apprehend or reach.

57. And yet it is not severed afunder, but only through the Death, where it divides itself into two Principles, and so severs itself into two Lives, viz. one in the Anger, and the other in the Love, which Life is known to be the right Life.

58. And herein sticks the ground, that as we with Adam went out of this Life into the outward Life, for which also God became Man, so he must introduce us through this death, through and out of the fierce wrathful source or Quality, out of the Fire Anguish-life, through the Death into the Light and Love-life again.

59. Whereas yet the Gates of Death were in the Wrathfulness shut up in the human soul, so that the soul stood in the Anguish-source or Quality, in the inward Nature, in the Fire of the Poison, viz. in the Water of the Anguish.

60. And there has the Prince Christ broke the Lock, Fort, or Bar of Death, and is with his human Soul sprouted forth through Death into the Light of God again, and so now his Light-Life leads Death Captive, and so it is become a Reproach and Scorn.

61. For with the Lock, Fort, or Bar, Lucifer thought to be a Lord and Omnipotent Prince.

62. But when the Lock, Fort, or Bar became broken, then the Power of the Deity in the Light destroyed his Kingdom; and there he became a Captive servant, for God's Light and the Water of Meekness is his Death; for the Anger becomes killed or mortified therewith.

63. Thus is the Light and the Love entered into the Anger, together with the Paradise-Element, and the Water of the Eternal Life, and God's Anger is become quenched.

64. And so now Lucifer abides in himself in an anxious fierce wrathful Fire-source, where his Body is a Poison, a Source of Poison-Water.

65. And thus he is thrust out from God's Fire, into the Matrix of the eternal Nature, viz. into the stern harshness, which generates the eternal Darkness, wherein he manages the very stern Dominion in the Anxious Mercurius, and so is as a Reproach or Outcast.

66. Who in his Original was a Prince, but now is no more than an Executioner, a base Slave, which must be there, in God's fierce Wrath, as a Hangman, who punishes the Evil, when he is commanded by his Lord to do so: he has no further Power.

67. Though yet he is a Deceiver, that he might ensnare many, and that his Kingdom may be great, that he may have many, and not stand in Reproach with so few.

68. As a Whore thinks, if there were many Whores, then I should not be a Whore alone, I am as others are; thus he also desires a great Tribe or Succession, that thereby he may reproach God.

69. For he always attributes the Blame and Fault to God that he is fallen, as that his Wrath has so drawn him, and thrust him into such a Willing of Pride and State, so that he stood not.

70. Thus he supposes, if he did draw many to him, that his Kingdom would be great, and so should get more to him, that would do as he does, and Curse God, but justify himself; that is his Strength and Pleasure in his dark harsh Anguish, where he continually stirs up the Fire in himself, and flies out above the Thrones, and so holds himself still to be a Prince and King.

71. And though he is indeed Evil, yet he is a Prince in his Legions in the Anger in his Creature, but with the Anger without his Creature, he hath not Power to Act; therein he must abide as an Impotent Captive.

72. Thus understand the Life, in two Forms, viz. one according to the Fire of Nature, and the other according to the Fire of Light, which Fire burns in the Love, wherein the noble Image of God appears or shines.

73. And we understand herein, that the Will of Man should enter into God's Will, and so he goes in Christ's Death with Christ's Soul, through Death into the eternal Liberty of God into the Light-Life; and "there he is in Christ with God.

74. And the third Form of Life is the outward created Life from or out of this World, viz. from the Sun, Stars, and Elements.

75. Which God's Spirit, with or by the Spirit of the great World,  breathed to Adam into his Nostrils*, wherein then also he became an outward Soul, which moves or swims in Blood and Water, and burns in the outward kindled Fire, viz. in the warmth.

76. That same outward Life should not press into the Image in the inward Life, also the Image should not let in that into the inward Light, which shines through Death, and sprouts with its Power into the eternal Liberty; for the outward Life is only a Similitude of the inward Life.

77. The inward Spirit should only, in the outward Looking-Glass, open the eternal Wonders, which in God's Wisdom were become discovered in the Abyss, in the divine Magia; and bring them to a figured Looking-Glass, viz. to a Looking-Glass of Wonders, to God's Honour, and to the Joy of the inward Man, generated or born out of God.

78. But its Will should not go into it, to draw in the outward Wonders into the Image; as we now with lamentable Misery know, that Man draws in and Images to himself an earthly Treasure into the Mind, and so destroys the pure Image of God in the second Principle.

79. For his Will-Spirit goes into the earthly Substance, and brings his Body, where-in the Image stands, into the earthly Substance, viz. into the earthly Treasure, into an earthly Vessel, or Comprehension.

80. And now the Image through the Imagination becomes also earthly, and goes again into Death, and loses God and the Kingdom of Heaven; for his Will-Spirit sticks with the Body in the outward Life.

81. And now the outward Life must die, and break or corrupt, that the created Image, according to the inward Kingdom, may appear and shine.

82. And thus the Will-Spirit sticks with the Body, in the outward Wonders, and brings them, in the dying of the outward Life, along with itself before * the Judgment of God. • Note.

83. And there shall the Will-Spirit go through the Fire, and the Image shall be tried through the Fire, and all that is earthly must be burned off from the Image, it must be pure and Immaculate, or without Spot.

84. As the Light subsists in the Fire, so must the Will-Spirit also subsist in God's Fire; and if there it cannot go free through the Fire of God, through Death, then will this Image be spewed out into the eternal Darkness.

85. And this is verily the Fall of Adam, that he has put his Will-Spirit into the outward Life, viz. into the outward Principle, into the false seeking or wicked longing Lust, and imagined according to, or longed after the earthly Life.

86. And so he went out of Paradise, which sprouteth forth through Death into the second Principle, into the outward; and went thus into Death, and so must die, and thus his Image became destroyed.

87. This we have Inherited from Adam, but from the second Adam Christ the Regeneration.

88. Where we must enter into Christ's Incarnation, and with him into his Death, and out of Death with him Sprout forth into the Paradise-World, into the eternal Substantiality of the Liberty of God.

The Sixth Chapter.

What Lust can do: How we are fallen in Adam, and helped again in Christ; and how it is no slight thing to become a right true Christian.

1.  THUS we understand, that it lies in Lust, that Destruction or Perdition is come out of the Lust, and yet still comes from thence continually.

2. For Lust is an Imagining, where the Imagination winds or insinuates itself into all Forms of Nature, so that they all become Impregnated with the Thing, out of which the Lust exists.

3. As then we understand, that the outward Spirit of Man, which is a Similitude of the Inward, has lusted after the fair Image, and in that regard set its Imagination into the Inward, whence the inward is become ^y infected.

^y Affected or Tinctured.

4. And seeing it did not instantly feel the Death, therefore did it give the Space and Room to the outward in its Will-Spirit, and so the outward is drawn into the Inward for a Lodging, and is at length become the Host in the House, and has obscured or dimmed the Inward, so that the fair Image is disappeared.

^z Note, these Spirits Cain was afraid of.

See Mysterium

Magnum, Ch.

29. Verse 55.

^a Luke 10.30.

5. There the Image fell among the Murderers, viz. among the stern or severe Spirits of Nature, and of the Life's Original, these held the Image Captive, and drew off from it the Paradise Garment, and committed Murder within it, ^a and left it lying Half dead.

6. And now the Samaritan Christ was needful, and that is the cause that God became Man.

7. If the Wound or hurt could have been healed by a Word speaking, or verbal Forgiveness, God would not have become Man.

8. But God and Paradise were lost, as also the noble Image was destroyed and made desolate, and must be New-Regenerated or Born again out of God.

^b John 1. 14.

9. And therefore came God with his Word, which is the Center in the Light-Life, ^b and became Flesh, so that the Soul got a divine Paradisical Habitation again, thus to be understood.

10. That as Adam's Soul had opened the Door of the Fire's Essence, and had let in the earthly Essences, whose Source or Quality had wound itself into the Paradise-Image, and made the Image earthly, so God's Heart did set open the Doors of the Light's Essences, and encompassed the Soul with heavenly Flesh, and so the Essences of the Holy Flesh Imagined after the Image, after the Soul's Essences.

11. Thus now the Soul became Impregnated again, so that it went with its Will-Spirit through the Death, into the Paradise Life.

12. And thence came the Temptation of Christ, that he was tempted to try whether the Soul would eat of the Word of the Lord, whether it could enter through Death into God's Life.

13. Which in the End became fulfilled on the Stock or Tree of the Cross, where Christ's Soul went through the Fire of the fierce Wrath, through the stern Source, through Death, and sprouted forth again into the Holy Paradise-World, in which Adam was created.

14. Thus are we Men become helped again, and it is necessary for us, that we draw away our Willing, Thoughts, and Mind, from all earthly Things, and turn them into Christ's Suffering, Dying, Death, and Resurrection.

15. So that we continually crucify the Old Adam with Christ's Death, and continually die from Sin in the Death and Dying of Christ, and continually rise again with him out of the Anguish of Death, into the new Man, and Sprout into the Life of God, else there is no Remedy.

16. We must die away to the earthly Will in our Willing, and must continually become regenerated to the new World in Faith, in the Flesh and Blood of Christ; we must be generated or born out of Christ's Flesh, if we will see God's Kingdom.

^c Or Soldier.

17. It is not so slight a Thing to be a right true Christian, it is the very hardest Thing of all; the Will must be a ^c Champion, and fight against the perished corrupt Will.

18. It must sink itself down out of the earthly Reason into the Death of Christ into God's Anger, and as a worthy Champion break the Power of the earthly Will.

19. And this must be with so hardy and bold a Courage, that it will set and hazard the earthly Life upon it, and not give over till it has broke the earthly Will, which indeed deed has been a strong Battle with me, where two Principles Strive and Fight one with the other for Victory.

20. It is no slight Matter, it must be earnest, to Fight for the victorious Crown and Garland; for no one gets that, unless he overcomes; he must break the Might of the earthly Will, which yet of his own Might he cannot do.

21. * But if he sinks himself down out of the earthly Reason into Christ's Death * Note. with his inward Willing, then he sinks down through Christ's Death, through God's fierce Wrath, and through all the Cords of the Devil that would retain him, into the Paradise-World, into the Life of Christ.

22. He must make his ^d Will as it were dead, and so he lives to God, and sinks ^d Earthly Will. down into God's Love; though there he lives in the outward Kingdom or Dominion.

23. Yet I speak of the victorious Crown or Garland which he getteth in the Paradise-World, if he once presses in; for there the noble Seed becomes sown, and he gets the highly precious Pledge or Earnest of the Holy Spirit, which afterwards leads and directs him.

24. And though he must in this World travel, or wander in a dark Valley, wherein the Devil and the World's Wickedness continually Rush and Roar tumultuously upon him, and often cast the outward Man into Abominations, and so cover ^c the noble ^c Matt. 13. 31. Grain of Mustard Seed, yet it will not suffer itself to be kept back.

25. But thence it sprouts forth, and a Tree grows out of it in God's Kingdom, against all the Raving and Raging of the Devil and his Followers and Dependants.

26. And the more the noble Pearl-Tree is sought, the more swiftly and strongly it grows, and suffers not itself to be suppressed, though it costs the outward Life.

27. Thus, my dear Mind, search right after the Tree of Christian Faith; it stands not in this World.

28. Indeed it must be in thee, but thou must with the Tree be with Christ in God, so that the World does but hang to thee, even as * it hung also to Christ. * Note.

29. Not so to understand it, as if this World were not at all useful or profitable in the Sight of God; it is the Great Mystery, Mysterium Magnum.

30. Man is therefore created in this World, as a wise Ruler or Manager of it, that he should open all Wonders, which were from eternity in the Sulphur, out of which this World with the Stars and Elements were created, and according to his Willing, bring them into Forms, Figures, and Images, all to his Joy and Glory.

31. He is created wholly free without any Law; he had no Law, but only the Nature-Law, that he should not mix one Principle in another.

32. The inward Man should let no earthly Thing into it, but should Rule with Omnipotence over the outward Principle; and so no Death nor dying would have come into him.

33. Also the outward Elements could not have touched him, neither had Heat nor Frost touched him.

34. For as the noble Image must subsist in the Fire, so also should that same noble Image rule through the whole Man, through all the three Principles, and rule and fill all with the Paradisical Source or Quality.

35. But since that cannot be at all, and that indeed the Flesh is become earthly; therefore now we must become generated in the Faith, where truly the earthly Life covers the right Life.

36. Therefore we must put on the right Garment, which is called Hope, and set our Will into the Hope, and continually Labour upon the Tree of Faith, that it may bring forth its Fruit, viz. the saving amiable and blessed † Love towards God and its † Note. Neighbour.

37. He should do Good, not for his own sake only, but also for this reason, that he may Edify and improve his Neighbour with his Example and Life.

38. He should consider, that he is a Tree in the Kingdom of God, and that he must bear fruit to God, and grow in God's field and soil, and that his fruits belong to God's Table.

39. And that he should conceive or comprise his Works and Wonders in the right true Love, and converse and walk in Love, that he may bring them into God's Kingdom.

40. For God is a Spirit, and Faith is also a Spirit, or one Spirit in him, and God is in Christ Become Man, and the Faith's Spirit is also in Christ Generated or Born Man.

41. Thus the will-spirit converses or walks in God, for it is ONE Spirit with God, and works or co-works with God divine works.

* Note.

42. And though it be so, that the Earthly Life covers it so, that * he knows not his work which he has generated or born in the Faith, yet in breaking of the Earthly Body it will be manifest.

43. For the Hope is its Chest or Cabinet, and a Mystery, wherein the Faith's work is sown and kept.

The Seventh Chapter.

To what End this World, and all Substances or Things were created. Also of the Two Eternal Mysteries. Of the Mighty Strife in Man about the Image; and wherein the Tree of Christian Faith stands, grows, and bears Fruit.

1.  SEEING then that Man stands thus in a Threefold Life, so therefore is every Life a Mystery, or hidden Arcanum to the other, and desires the other, to which End this World, with all Substances or Things are created.

2. For the divine Substantiality desires the Looking-Glass or Similitude, for this world is a similitude according to God's Being or Substance.

3. And God is manifest in an Earthly similitude, for the Wonders of the Arcanum, or hidden Secresy, might not be opened in the Angelical World, in the Love-Birth.

4. But in this World, where Love and Anger is mixed, therein is a Twofold Genetrix, and there it might be.

5. For all things originally arise out of the Fire-root, and yet were encompassed with the Water of Meekness, so that it is an amiable or lovely Substance or Being.

6. Yet thus the Fire became not known in the Angelical world, for the Center of the Genetrix stands in the Light, and is the Word of God, and so the Wonders of Nature may not otherwise, than in a spiritual Magia, become opened, that is, be seen in God's Wisdom.

7. But seeing that same is almost incomprehensible to the Angels and to the souls of Men, and yet God will be known in Angels and Men, therefore the Angelical World lusteth or longeth after the Great Wonders to know them, which have from Eternity stood in the wisdom of God.

8. And they were in the Earthly Similitude brought to Substance in Figures and Images, all according to the Eternal Essences of the Center of Nature, that the Wonders may stand Eternally.

9. Yet not essentially, but in Figures, in Images and Similitudes, in formings according to the Willing, indeed magically, but yet the Genetrix is in the Center of the Wonders.

10. For it has once become awakened or raised out of the Fire, but it will be again swallowed up into the Mystery, and stands as a hidden Life.

11. Therefore shall all substances or things become manifest as in Shadows in the Angelical World, yet * those only which in God's Will have been introduced into the My- * Note stery.

12. For the Mysteries which are Eternal are two, as one in the Love, and one in the Anger; into which soever the Will-spirit with its Wonders enters, therein stands its Work and Wonder.

13. So in like Manner we are to know, that also the outward vehemently desires the inward, for all runs after the Center, viz. after the Original, and desires the Liberty.

14. For in the Fire of Nature there is anguish and pain, or source and quality, therefore now will the imaging, or the Image of the Meekness in the source or quality of Love, be free, and yet may not in the source and quality of the fiery Essences be free so long, till the source or quality divides itself in the breaking, and there each passes into its Mystery.

15. In like manner will the fire be free from the water, for the water is also the fire's death, and it is also the Mystery to it.

16. And we see likewise hereby, how the water holds the fire captive, and yet no dying is in the fire, but it is only a Mystery in the fire.

17. As then may be seen, how it breaks forth in the water, and ^f opens itself, so that ^f Displays opens itself out of the Center of its own Genetrix, as is to be seen in the Lightning and Tempest; also in a stone, which yet is water, it may be known.

18. And yet we see especially, how all Forms of Nature desire the Light, for in that desiring the Oil becomes generated, wherein the Light becomes known, for it originally arises out of the Meekness.

19. Thus, First, we are to know our Life; that in us the Fire's Center stands open, for the Life burns in the Fire.

20. And then, Secondly, we are to ponder and consider of the desire to Love, which in the word of Life originally arises in the Angelical world, where the Heart of God with his desiring stands towards us with his Imagining, and also draws us into the divine Mystery.

21. And then, Thirdly, we are to consider the Magic Kingdom of this world, which also burns in us, and vehemently draws us into its wonders; for it wills to be manifest.

22. And Man is become Created therein to that End, that he should manifest that same Mystery, and to bring the Wonder to Light, and into forms, according to the Eternal wisdom.

23. Now then seeing he is to do this, and that thus he burns in a Threefold fire, therefore the right Spirit, in which the Angelical Image sticks, has great Weariness, and is in great danger, for it wanders upon a very small Bridge.

24. For it has two Enemies which continually draw it, each would be in the Image, and bring its source and quality into it, viz. the inward Fire, and also the outward Fire, the inward Kingdom of the fierce wrath, and also the outward earthly kingdom of the Looking-Glass; and thus the right Image sticks in the Midst in the Squeezing Press.

25. For the inward Kingdom will through the outward open the wonders.

26. But seeing it is too sharp, therefore the Outward Kingdom *flee*s away before the Inward, and grasps after the Middlemost, viz. after the Image, which stands in the Liberty of God, and so flees and slips itself into the Image, for it all grasps after the heart of God, that is, after the Center of the Kingdom of Joy.

27. Therefore now it is necessary for the Image, that it defend itself, and not let in the Earthly Guest, much less the fiery; and yet it becomes generated out of Both, viz. out of the fire, the Life, and out of the outward, the Wonder.

^e 1 Pet. 5. 8.

28. Therefore now it is highly necessary for Man's Image, that he lead ^e a sober temperate life, and not fill himself with the outward Kingdom, for else it makes an indwelling in the Noble Image.

29. And we understand herein the mighty strife in Man about the Image of God; for there are Three that strive about it; as First, the strong stern Fire-life; and then, Secondly, the divine Life; and then, Thirdly, the Earthly Life; and so the Noble Image sticks in the midst, and is drawn of Three.

30. Now it is necessary for it, that it should hide itself with the Faith in the Mystery of Hope, and stand still in that same Mystery.

31. Where then the Devil, in the inward fire-life, continually rides forth into the outward earthly life in Pride, Covetousness, and Falshood, or Wickedness, over the Noble Image, and would introduce it into the fire and anguish Life, and break or destroy it.

32. For he supposes continually, that the Place of this world is his Kingdom, he will suffer no other Image therein.

33. Now thereupon the Noble Image falls into the Cross and Tribulation, into anguish and necessity, and here belongs strife to it, to fight for the Noble victorious Crown or Garland of God's Image.

34. And hence originally arises Prayer, so that the Image continually goes forth out of the introduced Earthly Substance or Being, and also out of the proud, stately, hellish abominations, with the Prayer, and continually Enters into God's life, into his Love.

35. And thus the right Image continually kills the Earthly Adam, and also the hellish pride and state of the Devil, and must always stand as a Champion.

36. And it is most necessary of all, that it should insinuate itself into Patience, and cast itself under the Cross, and continually spring, or flow up into the Love.

37. For that is its Sword, wherewith it slays the Devil, and drives forth the Earthly substance; it has no other sword, wherewith to defend itself, than the Meek-water of the Eternal Life, and that the proud, stately, fierce wrathful Spirit relishes not; for it is his poison, and he flees before it.

38. Now if we will rightly demonstrate the Tree of Christian Faith, then we say, its Root stands in the Mystery of the Hope, its Sprouting stands in the Love, and its Body in the ^h Comprehension of Faith.

^h Or Reception.

39. That is, where the Image, through its earnest desiring, presses into the love of God, and comprehends or attracts the Substantiality of God, that is, Christ's Body, that is now the Corpus or Body, wherein the Tree stands, grows, flourishes and brings forth fruits in Patience, which all belong to the Angelical world.

40. They are the Soul's food, wherein it eats and refreshes or quickens its fiery Life, so that it is transmuted or changed into the Light or Meekness.

41. And thus the Tree grows in the Paradise of God, which the outward man ⁱ knows not, and Reason apprehends it not.

ⁱ Note, the Outward Man and Reason know not the Tree of Faith.

42. But to the Noble Image, it is very well to be known, that will then, when the outward life breaks, be manifest, and all its works follow after in the Mystery of Hope, into which it has sown.

43. Therefore should none, who will travail in the Path of God's Pilgrimage, propose to himself to have in this world good and frolic days, with worldly honour; but tribulation, scorn, reproach, and persecution attend him every hour.

44. He is here only in a vale of Misery, and must continually stand in strife, ^k for ^k 1 Pet. 5. 8. the Devil goes about as a Roaring Lion, he stirs up all his Children of Malice and Wickedness against him.

45. He is accounted as a Fool; he is ^{*} unknown to his Brethren, his Mother's house ^{*} Note. scorns and despises him.

46. He goes away and sows in Tribulation, and is anxious, but there is none, that ^l apprehends it, or into whose Heart it enters; every man supposes his Folly plagues ^l Or takes notice of it. him thus.

47. Thus he remains hidden to the World, for ^m he is with his Noble Image not ^m John 8. 23. of this world, but born of God; ⁿ He sows in Tribulation, and reaps in Joy. ⁿ Psal. 126. 5.

48. But who shall express his Glory, which will be his wages? or who shall speak of the Crown or Garland of victory which he attains?

49. Who can express the Crown of the Virgin of God's wisdom, which the Virgin of ^o God's wisdom sets upon him? where is there such a fair beauteous One? for it excels the Heaven. ^o Sophia.

50. O, Noble Image! Thou art indeed an Image of the Holy Trinity of God, in which God himself dwells! God sets upon thee his most beautiful Ornament, that thou shouldst eternally Exult in Him.

51. What is I pray the Substance of this world, seeing it breaks or corrupts, and brings a Man only into anguish, cares, incumbrances and misery, and besides into God's Anger, and breaks or destroys his fair Image, and draws a Vizard on to him?

52. ^p O how great a shame and reproach will that Man have of it, when he shall thus appear at the Judgment Day of God, in a bestial Image, besides that which follows hereafter, that he shall abide eternally therein. ^p Note, you that do wickedly, not only without doubting, but with confident, daring presumption.

53. Then Lamentation begins, there will be sighing, wailing and howling for the Lost Earnest Penny and Talents, which cannot be reached or attained again Eternally.

54. There shall the Image stand in Eternity before the Abominable Devils, and do what the Abominable Prince Lucifer will.

The Eighth Chapter.

In what manner God forgives sins; and how a Man becomes a Child of God.

1.  Y beloved seeking and desirous Mind, thou that ^q Hungerest, and Thirstest ^q Matth. 5. 6. after God's Kingdom, mark the Ground, I pray thee, what is shown to thee.

2.  It is not truly so easy a thing to become a Child of God, as Babel teaches, where Men bring Consciences into the History, and so amuse and flatter them, Courtlike, with Christ's Sufferings and Death; where Men teach forgiveness of sins Historically.

3. Like a worldly Judicatory, where a Man's faults are remitted him of Grace, though he plainly remains wicked in his heart.

4. It is quite otherwise here: God will have no dissembling Hypocrites: He takes not sin from us in such a Manner, as that we cleave to the knowledge, and comfort ourselves with the sufferings of Christ, and yet in the Conscience remain in the Abominations.

† John 3. 3.
5. 7.

5. It is said, 'Ye must be born anew, or else ye shall not see the Kingdom of God.

6. He that will amuse himself with Christ's Sufferings and Death, and appropriate the same to himself, and yet with his willing will abide unregenerated in the Adamical Man, does like one that comforts himself, that his Lord will bestow his Land upon him, without considering that he is not his Son, whereas he has promised that he will bestow it only upon his Son; so it is also here.

† Gen. 21. 10.
Gal. 4. 30.

7. Wilt thou possess the Land of thy Lord, and have it for thy proper own? then thou must become his right and true Son; 'For the Son of the Maid servant shall not inherit with the free; the Son of the History is a stranger.

† Or a Son of his body, begotten or generated.

8. Thou must be born or generated of God in Christ, that thou mayest be a 'corporeal Son; and then thou art God's child, and an heir of the Sufferings and Death of Christ.

9. And Christ's Death is thy Death, his Resurrection out of the Grave is thy Resurrection, his Ascension into Heaven is thy Ascension into Heaven, and his Eternal life's Kingdom is thy Kingdom.

* Note.

10. In that thou art his right true Son born of his flesh and blood, so thou art * an heir of all his Goods, else thou canst not be Christ's Child and Heir.

11. So long as the Earthly Kingdom sticks to thee, in thy Image, so long thou art the perished Adam's Earthly Son; no flattering Hypocrisy will help, give as many good words before God as thou wilt, yet thou art but a strange Child.

† Luke 15. 20.

* 12. And God's goods do not belong unto thee so long, till thou comest with "the lost Son to the Father again, with a right true sorrow and repentance for thy lost Goods of inheritance.

13. Thou must go forth with thy will-spirit out from the Earthly Life, and break or destroy the Earthly will, which is woeful to the Mind and will-spirit to forsake the treasure it possessed, wherein the will-spirit became generated, and must enter into God's will.

14. And there thou sowest thy Seed in God's Kingdom, and art new born in God, as fruit which grows in God's field; for thy will receives God's Power, Christ's Body, and the New Body in God grows to thee.

* Prov. 4. 11.

15. And then thou art God's Child, and Christ's Goods belong to thee; and his Merits are thy Merits, his Suffering, Death, and Resurrection, are all thine, thou art a Member of his Body, and his Spirit is thy Spirit, * He leads thee in right Paths; and all that thou doest, thou doest to God.

16. Thou sowest in this world, and reapest in the Heaven of God; thou art God's Work of Wonder, and openest in the Earthly Life his Wonders, and drawest thyself with thy will-spirit into the Holy Mystery.

17. Mark this, you Covetous, you Proud, you Envious, you false Judgers, you wicked Malicious, which introduce your will and desire into Earthly Goods, into Money and Plenty, into Pleasure and the Voluptuousness of this Life, and esteem Money and Goods to be your Treasure, and set your desire therein, and yet for all that will be God's Children.

18. You stand and dissemble before God, that he shall forgive you your Sins, but you abide with your Image in Adam's Skin, in Adam's Flesh, and so Comfort yourselves with the Sufferings of Christ, and are but dissemblers; you are not God's Children.

19. You must be born in God, if you would be his Children, else you deceive yourselves, together with your Hypocrites and Dissemblers, who paint before you a Glistening Colour.

20. They Teach, and are ^y not known of God, also not ^z sent to Teach; they do it for their Belly and for worldly Honour's sake, and are ^a the Great Whore at Babel, who flatter God with their Lips, and with the Heart and will-spirit they serve the ^b Dragon at Babel.

^z Jer. 14. 14.
23. 21. and
27. 15.
^a Rev. 17. 1.
^b Rev. 12. 3.

21. Beloved Mind, wilt thou be the Child of God? then prepare thyself for assaults and for tribulation; it is no light and soft entrance into the Child's Life, especially where Reason lies captive in the Earthly Kingdom.

22. It must be broken, and the will must go out from Reason; it must sow itself into God's Kingdom in lowly obedience, as a Grain is sown in a field or soil; it must in Reason make itself as it were dead, and give itself up to God, and so the New fruit grows in God's Kingdom.

23. Thus that Man stands in a Three-fold Life, and all belongs to God.

24. The Inward fiery Essences of the first Principle become incorporated with the New body in Christ, so that they flow up in Christ's Flesh and Blood out of God's willing, and their Fire is God's Fire, out of which the Love, meekness, and humility burn.

25. Where the Holy Spirit goes forth and helps him to stand out the Battle against the Earthly Reason, also against the perished corrupt Flesh, and the Will of the Devil, ^c his Token of the earthly will becomes lighter to him; but he must in this World remain in the strife.

^c Matt. 11. 30.

26. For to the Earthly Life belongs sustenance, that he must seek, and yet ought not to set his will and heart upon it.

27. It must trust God, and his earthly Reason passes always into doubting, it will fail him; it will needs always see God, and yet cannot, for God dwells not in the Earthly Kingdom, but in himself.

28. Thus must Reason, as it cannot see God, be compelled into Hope.

29. There then Doubting runs Counter to Faith or Believing, and would destroy the Hope, and therefore must the Earnest will with the right true Image strive and fight against the Earthly Reason: there is woe, and it often goes sadly.

30. Especially, if Reason looks after the Course of this world, and so its will spirit, as it were foolish, has respect to the Course of this World: There it is said, be sober, watch, fast, and pray; that is, that you may Tame the Earthly Reason, and make it as it were dead, that God's Spirit may find place in you.

31. If that appears, that soon overcomes the Earthly Reason, and the willing in the anguish discovers itself with its love and sweetness, where then always one fair little Branch or other becomes generated out of the Tree of Faith.

32. And ^d all tribulation, and assaults and temptations, serve for the best to the Children of God; for as often as God seems as it were distant from them, so that they are introduced into anguish and tribulation, then they always stand in the Birth of a New little branch out of the Tree of Faith.

^d Rom. 8. 28.

33. When the spirit of God appears again, then he always raises up a new sprout, at which the Noble Image very highly rejoices itself.

34. And now it is but to stand out the first earnest Encounter, that the Earthly Tree may be overcome, and the Noble Grain be sown in God's field, that Man ^e may learn to know the Earthly Man.

35. For when the will receives God's light, then ^f the Looking-Glass sees itself in itself; one Essence sees the other in the Light, and so the whole Man finds himself in himself, and knows what he is; which in the earthly Reason, he ^{*} cannot know.

^f Or Similitude.

^{*} Note.

36. Also none should Think, that the Tree of Christian Faith may be seen or known in the kingdom of this world; outward Reason knows it Not.

37. And though the fair Tree stands very clearly in the inward Man, yet the outward earthly Reason doubts notwithstanding, for the spirit of God ^{is} as foolishness to it, for it cannot apprehend it.

38. And though it is so, that often the holy spirit opens itself in the outward Looking-Glass, so that the outward life highly rejoices in it, and for great Joy becomes Trembling, and thinks, now I have attained the worthy precious Guest, now I will believe it, yet there is no perfect steadiness in it.

39. For the Spirit of God does not stay continually in the Earthly source and quality, it will have a pure vessel; and if it departs into its Principle, viz. into the right Image, then the outward Life comes to be weak and faint.

40. Therefore must the Noble Image always be in strife, and fight against the outward Reason-life; and the more it strives and fights, the greater grows the fair Tree, for it works or co-works with God.

41. For as an Earthly Tree grows in Wind, Rain, Cold and Heat; so also the Tree of God's Image grows under the cross and tribulation, and anguish and pain, in scorn and reproach, and sprouts up into God's Kingdom, and ^{brings forth} fruit in Patience.

42. Now seeing we know this, we should labour in it, and let no fear or terror keep us back, for we shall well reap and enjoy it Eternally; what we have here sown in anguish and weariness, that will comfort us Eternally. AMEN.

C L A V I S:

O R,

AN EXPLANATION of some principal POINTS and EXPRESSIONS in his WRITINGS.

By JACOB BEHMEN, the Teutonic Theosopher.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

1. I is written, the Natural Man ^a receives not the Things of the Spirit, ^a Under-stands not, nor the Mystery of the Kingdom of God, they are Foolishness unto him, neither can he know them: therefore I admonish and exhort the Christian Lover of Mysteries, if he will study these High Writings, and read, search, and understand them, that he does not read them outwardly only, with sharp Speculation and Meditation; for in so doing, he shall remain in the outward Imaginary Ground only, and obtain no more than a ^b counterfeited Colour of them.

^b Or feigned shadow of them.

2. For a Man's own Reason, without the Light of God, cannot come into the Ground [of them,] it is impossible; let his Wit be ever so high and subtle, it apprehends but as it were the Shadow of it in a Glass.

3. For Christ says, without me you can do nothing; and he is the Light of the World, and the Life of Men.

4. Now if any one would search the Divine Ground, that is, the Divine ^c Revelation, he ^c Or manifestation. must first consider with himself, for what End he desires to know such Things; whether he desires to practise that which he might obtain, and bestow it to the Glory of God and the Welfare of his Neighbour; and whether he desires to die to Earthliness, and to his own Will, and to live in that which he seeks and desires, and to be one Spirit with it.

5. If he has not a Purpose, that if God should reveal himself and his Mysteries to him, he would be one Spirit and have one Will with him, and wholly resign and yield himself up to him, that God's Spirit might do what he pleases with him, and by him, and that God might be his Knowledge, Will, and ^d Deed, he is not yet fit for such Knowledge and Understanding.

^d Or working.

6. For there are many that seek Mysteries and bidden Knowledge, merely that they might be respected and highly esteemed by the World, and for their own Gain and Profit; but they attain not this Ground, where the Spirit searches all Things, as it is written, even the deep Things of God.

7. It must be a totally resigned Will, in which God himself searches and works, and which continually pierces into God in yielding and resigned Humility, seeking nothing but his Eternal Native Country, and to do his Neighbour Service with it, and then it may be attained; and he must begin with effectual Repentance and Amendment, and with Prayer, that his Understanding might be opened from within; for then the inward will bring itself into the outward.

THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

8. But when he reads such Writings, and yet cannot understand them, he must not presently throw them away, and think it is impossible to understand them; no, but he must turn his Mind to God, beseeching him for Grace and Understanding, and read again, and then he shall see more and more in them, till at length he is drawn by the Power of God into the very Depth itself, and so comes into the supernatural and supersensual Ground, viz. into the Eternal Unity of God; where he shall hear unspeakable and effectual Words of God, which shall bring him back and outward again, by the Divine Effluence, to the very grossest and meanest Matter of the Earth, and then back and inwards to God again; then the Spirit of God searches all Things with him, and by him, and so he is rightly taught and driven by God.

9. But since the Lovers of them desire a Clavis, or Key of my Writings, I am ready and willing to pleasure them in it, and will set down a short Description of the Ground of those unusual Words; some of which are taken from Nature and ^e Sense, and some are the Words of uncommon ^f Masters, which I have tried according to Sense, and found them good and fit.

10. Reason will stumble, when it sees Heathenish Terms and Words used in the Explanation of Natural Things, supposing we should use none but Scripture Phrase (or Words borrowed from the Bible;) but such Words will not always apply and square themselves to the fundamental Explanation of the Properties of Nature, neither can a Man express the Ground with them: Also the wise Heathens and Jews have hid the deep Ground of Nature under such Words, as having well understood that the Knowledge of Nature is not for every one, but it belongs to those only, whom God ^g by Nature has chosen for it.

^g Naturally inclined to it.

11. But none need stumble at it; for when God reveals his Mysteries to any Man, he then also brings him into a Mind and Capacity how to express them, as God knows to be most necessary and profitable in every ^h Age, for the setting the confused Tongues and Opinions upon the true Ground again: Men must not think that it comes by Chance, and is done by human Reason.

C L A V I S;

O R,

An Explanation of some principal Points and Expressions.

How God is to be considered without Nature and Creature.

14.  OSES saith, the Lord our God is but one only God. In another place it is said; of him, through him, and in him are all things: in another, am not I he that filleth all things? and in another, through his Word are all things made, that are made; therefore we may say, that he is the Original of all things: He is the Eternal unmeasurable unity.

15. For example, when I think what would be in the place of this world, if the four Elements and the starry Firmament, and also Nature itself, should perish and cease to be, so that no Nature or Creature were to be found any more; I find there would remain this Eternal Unity, from which Nature and Creature have received their Original.

16. So likewise, when I think with myself what is many hundred thousand miles above the starry Firmament, or what is in that place where no Creature is, I find the Eternal unchangeable unity is there, which is that only good, which has nothing either before or after it, that can add any thing to it, or take any thing away from it, or from which this unity could have its Original: There is neither ground, time, nor place, but there is the only Eternal God, or that only Good, which a man cannot express.

A further Consideration, How this one God is Three-fold.

17. The Holy Scripture shows us, that this only God is ^m Threefold, viz. one only threefold Essence, having three manner of workings, and yet is but one only Essence, ^m Or Triune. as may be seen in the outflow Power and Virtue which is in all things, if any does but observe it: but it is especially represented to us in Fire, Light, and Air; which are three several ⁿ sorts of workings, and yet but in one only ground and substance.

18. And as we see that Fire, Light, and Air, arise from a Candle, (though the Candle is none of the three, but a cause of them,) so likewise the Eternal unity is the cause and ⁿ Subsistent Forms.

1. Father,
2. Son,
3. Holy ground of the Eternal Trinity, which manifeſts itſelf from the unity, and brings forth itſelf, Fiſt, in Deſire or Will; Secondly, Pleaſure or Delight; Thirdly, Proceeding or Outgoing.

19. The Deſire, or Will, is the Father; that is, the ſtirring, or manifeſtation of the unity, whereby the unity wills or deſires itſelf.

20. The Pleaſure, or Delight, is the Son; and is that which the Will willeth and deſireth, viz. his Love and Pleaſure, as may be ſeen at the Baptiſm of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, when the Father witneſſed, ſaying, This is my ^o beloved Son, in whom I ^p am well pleaſed; bear ye him.

^o Of Love.
^p Have pleaſure.

^q Or impreſſion of the will.

^r Or perception.

21. The Delight is the ^q compreſſion in the will, whereby the will in the unity brings itſelf into a place and working, wherewith the will willeth and worketh; and it is the ^r feeling and virtue of the will.

22. The Will is the Father, that is, the ſtirring deſire; and the Delight is the Son, that is, the virtue and the working in the will, with which the will worketh; and the Holy Ghoſt is the proceeding will through the Delight of the virtue, that is, a Life of the will, and of the virtue and delight.

23. Thus there are three ſorts of workings in the Eternal Unity, viz. the Unity is the will and deſire of itſelf; the Delight is the working ſubſtance of the will, and an Eternal joy of perceptibility in the will; and the Holy Ghoſt is the proceeding of the Power: the ſimilitude of which may be ſeen in a ^r Plant.

^r Or herb.

^t Or Loadſtone.

^u Or forms.

24. The ^t Magnet, viz. the Eſſential Deſire of Nature, that is, the will of the Deſire of Nature, ^u compreſſes itſelf into an Ens or ſubſtance, to become a Plant; and in this compreſſion of the Deſire becomes feeling, that is, working; and in that working, the Power and Virtue ariſes, wherein the Magnetical Deſire of Nature, viz. the outflown will of God, works in a natural way.

25. In this working perceptibility, the Magnetical deſiring will is elevated and made joyful, and goes forth from the working Power and Virtue; and hence comes the growing and ſmell of the Plant: and thus we ſee a representation of the Trinity of God in all ^x growing and living things.

^x Vegetables, and animate things.

26. If there was not ſuch a deſiring perceptibility, and outgoing operation of the Trinity in the Eternal unity, the unity were but an Eternal ſtillneſs, a Nothing; and there would be no Nature, nor any Colour, Shape, or Figure; likewise there would be nothing in this world; without this threefold working, there could be no world at all.

Of the Eternal Word of God.

27. The Holy Scripture ſaith, God has made all things by his Eternal word; alſo it ſaith, That word is God, John 1. which we underſtand thus:

^y Or outſpeaking.

28. The word is nothing elſe but the ^y out-breathing will, from the Power and Virtue; a various dividing of the Power into a multitude of Powers; a diſtribution and outflowing of the unity, ^z whence knowledge ariſes.

29. For in one only Subſtance, wherein there is no variation or diſviſion, but is only one, there can be no knowledge; and if there were knowledge, it could know but one thing, viz. itſelf: but if it parts itſelf, then the dividing will goes into multiplicity and variety; and each ſeparation works in itſelf.

30. Yet becauſe Unity cannot be divided and parted aſunder, therefore the ſeparation conſiſts and remains in the outbreathing will in the unity; and the ſeparation of the breathing gives the different variety, whereby the Eternal ^z will, together with the ^a Delight and ^b Proceeding, enters into the ^c knowledge, or underſtanding of infinite Forms, viz. into an Eternal perceptible working ſenſual knowledge of the Powers; where always in the division of the will, in the separation, one sense or form of the will sees, feels, tastes, smells, and hears the other; and yet it is but one sensual working, viz. the great joyous band of Love, and the most pleasant only Eternal ^d Being.

^d Essence, or substance.

Of the Holy Name J E H O V A.

31. The Ancient Rabins among the Jews have partly understood it; for they have said, that this Name is the Highest, and most Holy Name of God; ^e by which they understand the working Deity in Sense: and it is true, for in this working sense lies the true life of all things in Time and Eternity, in the Ground and Abyss; and it is God himself, viz. the Divine working Perceptibility, Sensation, ^f Invention, Science, and Love; that is, the true understanding in the working unity, from which the five senses of the true Life spring.

^e Or Jehova is the sensual Name of the operating Deity.
^f Finding, Knowledge.

32. Each Letter in this Name intimates to us a peculiar virtue and working, that is, a ^g Form in the working Power.

^g Difference, or distinction.

J

33. For I is the Effluence of the Eternal indivisible Unity, or the sweet grace and fullness of the ground of the Divine Power of becoming ^h something.

^h Egoity, or self.

E

34. E is a threefold I, where the Trinity shuts itself up in the Unity; for the I goes into E, and joineth I E, which is an outbreathing of the Unity in itself.

H

35. H is the Word, or ⁱ breathing of the Trinity of God.

ⁱ Or speaking.

O

36. O is the Circumference, or the Son of God, through which the I E and the H, or breathing, speaks forth from the compressed Delight of the Power and Virtue.

V

37. V is the joyful Effluence from the ^k breathing, that is, the proceeding Spirit of ^k Orspeaking. God.

A.

38. A is that which is proceeded from the power and virtue, viz. the wisdom; a Subject of the Trinity; wherein the Trinity works, and wherein the Trinity is also manifest.

39. This Name is nothing else but a speaking forth, or expression of the Threefold working of the Holy Trinity in the unity of God. Read further of this in the Explanation of the Table of the three Principles of the Divine Manifestation.

Of the Divine Wisdom.

40. The Holy Scripture says, the wisdom is the breathing of the Divine Power, a ray and breath of the Almighty; also it says, God has made all things by his wisdom; which we understand as follows.

41. The Wisdom is the outflowing word of the Divine Power, Virtue, Knowledge, and Holiness; a Subject and Resemblance of the infinite and unsearchable Unity; a Substance wherein the Holy Ghost works, forms, and models; I mean, he forms and models the Divine understanding in the Wisdom; for the Wisdom is the Passive, and the Spirit of God is the Active, or Life in her, as the Soul in the Body.

42. The Wisdom is the Great Mystery of the Divine Nature; for in her, the Powers, Colours, and Virtues are made manifest; in her is the variation of the power and virtue, viz. the understanding: she is the Divine understanding, that is, the Divine ¹ vision, wherein the Unity is manifest.

^m Forms, or Images.

43. She is the true Divine Chaos, wherein all things lie, viz. a Divine Imagination, in which the ^m Ideas of Angels and Souls have been seen from Eternity, in a Divine Type and Resemblance; yet not then as Creatures, but in resemblance, as when a man beholds his face in a Glass: therefore the Angelical and human Idea flowed forth from the wisdom, and was formed into an Image, as Moses says, God created Man in his Image, that is, he created the body, and breathed into it the breath of the Divine Effluence, of Divine Knowledge, from all the Three Principles of the Divine Manifestation.

² Or Great Mystery.

Of the ^a Mysterium Magnum.

44. The Mysterium Magnum is a subject of the wisdom, where the breathing word, or the working willing Power of the Divine understanding, flows forth through the wisdom, wherein also the unity of God together flows out, to its manifestation.

^o Essences, or Beings.

45. For in the Mysterium Magnum the Eternal Nature arises; and two ^o substances and wills are always understood to be in the Mysterium Magnum: the first substance is the unity of God, that is, the Divine Power and Virtue, the outflowing Wisdom.

46. The second substance is the separable will, which arises through the breathing and outspeaking word; which will has not its ground in the unity, but in the Mobility of the Effluence and breathing forth, which brings itself into one will, and into a Desire to Nature, viz. into the Properties as far as Fire and Light: in the Fire, the Natural Life is understood; and in the Light, the Holy Life, that is, a manifestation of the unity, whereby the unity becomes a Love-Fire, or Light.

^p Or zealous.

47. And in this place or working, God calleth himself a loving, merciful God, according to the sharpened fiery burning Love of the unity; and an Angry ^p Jealous God, according to the fiery Ground, according to the Eternal Nature.

48. The Mysterium Magnum is that Chaos, out of which Light and Darkness, that is, the foundation of Heaven and Hell, is flown from Eternity, and made manifest; for that foundation which we now call Hell, being a Principle of itself, is the ground and cause of the Fire in the Eternal Nature; which fire, in God, is only a burning Love; and where God is not manifested in a thing, according to the unity, there is an anguishing, painful, burning fire.

^q Or over-illumination.

49. This burning Fire is but a manifestation of the Life, and of the Divine Love, by which the Divine Love, viz. the unity, ^q kindles up, and sharpens itself for the fiery working of the Power of God.

50. This

50. This ground is called Mysterium Magnum, or a Chaos, because good and evil rise out of it, viz. Light and Darknes, Life and Death, Joy and Grief, Salvation and Damnation.

51. For it is the ground of Souls and Angels, and of all Eternal Creatures, as well evil as good; it is a ground of Heaven and Hell, also of the visible world, and all that is therein: therein have lain all things in one only ground, as an Image lies hid in a piece of wood before the Artificer carves it out and fashions it.

52. Yet we cannot say that the spiritual world has had any beginning, but has been manifested from Eternity out of that Chaos; for the Light has shone from Eternity in the Darknes, and the Darknes has not comprehended it; as Day and Night are in one another, and are two, though in one.

53. I must write distinctly, as if it had a beginning, for the better consideration and apprehension of the Divine ground of the Divine Manifestation; and the better to distinguish Nature from the Deity; also for the better understanding, from whence evil and good are come, and what the ^f Being of all Beings is.

^f Essence of all Essences.

Of the ^c Center of the Eternal Nature.

^c Centrum.

54. By the word ^c Center, we understand the first beginning to Nature, viz. the most Inward ground, wherein the self-raised will brings itself, by a reception, into ^u something, viz. into a Natural working; for Nature is but a Tool and Instrument of God, which God's Power and Virtue works with, and yet it has its own ^x Motion, from the outflown will of God: thus the Center is the Point or Ground of the self-reception to something; from whence something comes to be, and from thence the seven Properties proceed.

^u Egoity, or own propriety.
^x Or Mobility.

Of the Eternal Nature, and its Seven Properties.

55. Nature is nothing but the Properties of the Capacity and Power of receiving the own risen Desire; which Desire rises in the ^y variation of the Breathing Word, that is, of the Breathing Power and Virtue, wherein the Properties bring themselves into substance; and this substance is called a Natural substance, and is not God himself.

^y Or separation.

56. For though God dwells ^z through and through Nature, yet Nature comprehends him but so far, as the unity of God yields itself into, and communicates itself with a Natural Substance, and makes itself substantial, viz. a substance of Light, which works by itself in Nature, and pierces and penetrates Nature; or else the unity of God is incomprehensible to Nature, that is, to the desirous Receiving.

^z Or thoroughly inhabits.
Totaliter.

57. Nature ^a rises in the outflown word of the Divine perception and knowledge; and it is a continual framing and forming of Sciences and Perception: whatsoever the Word works by the Wisdom, that Nature frames and forms into Properties: Nature is like a Carpenter, who builds a House which the mind figured and contrived before in itself; so it is here also to be understood.

^a Or consists.

58. Whatsoever the Eternal mind ^b figures in the Eternal wisdom of God in the Divine Power, and brings into an Idea, that Nature frames into a Property.

^b Or models.

59. Nature, in its first ground, consists in seven Properties; and these seven divide themselves into infinite.

The First Property.

60. The First Property is the Desire which causes and makes ^c harshness, sharpness, hardness, cold, and substance.

^c Or Astringency.

The Second Property.^d Or pricking.

61. The Second Property is the stirring, or Attraction of the Desire; it makes^d stinging, breaking, and dividing of the hardness; it cuts afunder the attracted desire, and brings it into multiplicity and variety; it is a ground of the bitter pain, and also the true Root of Life; it is the ^e Vulcan that strikes fire.

^e Faber, or Smith.The Third Property.^f Grim, fierce, cruel, odious; or evil.

62. The Third Property is the perceptibility and feeling in the breaking of the harsh hardness; and it is the ground of Anguish, and of the Natural will, wherein the Eternal will desires to be manifested; that is, it will be a Fire or Light, viz. a flash, or shining, wherein the powers, colours, and virtues of the wisdom may appear: in these three first Properties consists the Foundation of Anger, and of Hell, and of all that is ^f wrathful.

The Fourth Property.^g Operation, or property.

63. The Fourth Property is the Fire, in which the Unity appears, and is seen in the Light, that is, in a burning Love; and the wrath in the ^g Essence of Fire.

The Fifth Property.

64. The Fifth Property is the Light, with its Virtue of Love, in and with which the Unity works in a Natural substance.

The Sixth Property.

65. The Sixth Property is the sound, voice, or Natural understanding, wherein the five senses work spiritually, that is, in an understanding Natural Life.

The Seventh Property.^h Extent, conclusion, comprising.

66. The Seventh Property is the Subject, or the ^h Contents of the other Six Properties, in which they work, as the Life does in the Flesh; and this Seventh Property is rightly and truly called the Ground or Place of Nature, wherein the Properties stand in one only Ground.

*The First SUBSTANCE in the Seven Properties.*ⁱ Essence, or substance.

67. We must always understand two Substances in the Seven Properties: we understand the first, according to the Abyss of these Properties, to be the Divine ⁱ Being; that is, the Divine will with the outflowing Unity of God, which together flows forth through Nature, and bringeth itself into the Receiving to sharpness, that the Eternal Love may become working and sensible thereby, and that it may have something which is passive, wherein it may manifest itself, and be known, and of which also it might be desired and beloved again, viz. the ^k Aching passive Nature, which in the Love is changed into an Eternal Joyfulness: and when the Love in the Fire manifests itself in the Light, then it inflameth Nature, as the Sun a Plant, and the Fire ^l Iron.

^k Or painful.^l A red-hot Iron.

The Second SUBSTANCE.

68. The Second Substance is Nature's own Substance, which is ^m Aching and Passive, ^m Painful, and is the Tool and Instrument of the Agent; for where no Passiveness is, there is also no desire of Deliverance, or of something better; and where there is no desire of something better, there a thing rests within itself.

69. And therefore the Eternal unity brings itself by its Effluence and Separation into Nature, that it may have an object, in which it may manifest itself, and that it may love something, and be again beloved by something, that so there may be a perception, or sensible working and will.

An Explanation of the Seven Properties of Nature.

¶ The First Property.

70.  HE First Property is a Desiring, like that of a ⁿ Magnet, viz. the ⁿ Or Load-Compression of the will; the will desires to be something, and yet ⁿ stone. it has nothing of which it may make something to itself; and therefore it brings itself into a Reception of itself, and compresses itself to something; and that something is nothing but a Magnetical Hunger, a sharpness, like a hardness, whence even hardness, cold, and substance arise.

71. This compression or attraction overshadows itself, and makes itself a Darkness, which is indeed the Ground of the eternal and temporary Darkness: At the beginning of the world, salt, stones, and bones, and all such things were produced by this sharpness.

¶ The Second Property.

72. The Second Property of the Eternal Nature arises from the First, and it is the drawing or motion in the sharpness; for the Magnet makes hardness, but the motion breaketh the hardness again, and is a continual strife in itself.

73. For that which the Desire compresses and makes to be something, the motion cuts asunder and divides, so that it comes into Forms and Images; between these two Properties arises the bitter ^o woe, that is, the sting of Perception and Feeling.

74. For when there is a motion in the sharpness, then the property is the ^p Aching, ^p Or painful. and this is also the cause of sensibility and pain; for if there was no sharpness and motion, there would be no sensibility: this motion is also a Ground of the Air in the visible world, which is manifested by the Fire, as shall be mentioned hereafter.

75. Thus we understand that the Desire is the ground of something, so that something may come out of nothing; and thus we may also conceive that the Desire has been the Beginning of this world, by which God has brought all things into substance and being; for the Desire is that by which God said, ^q Let there be. The Desire is that Fiat, which ^q Or Fiat.

has made something where nothing was, but only a Spirit; it has made the Mysterium Magnum, which is spiritual, visible, and substantial, as we may see by the Elements, Stars, and other Creatures.

Or stirring. 76. The Second Property, that is, the Motion, was in the beginning of this world the Separator, or Divider in the Powers and Virtues, by which the Creator, viz. the Will of God, brought all things out of the Mysterium Magnum into form; for it is the outward moveable world, by which the supernatural God made all things, and brought them into form, figure, and shape.

Or Images.

☉ The Third Property.

Or Velle. 77. The Third Property of the Eternal Nature is the Anguish, viz. that Will which has brought itself into the reception to Nature, and something: when the own Will stands in the sharp motion, then it comes into Anguish, that is, into sensibility; for without Nature it is not capable of it, but in the moveable sharpness it comes to be feeling.

78. And this feeling is the cause of the Fire, and also of the Mind and Senses; for the own natural will is made volatile by it, and seeketh Rest; and thus the separation of the will goes out from itself, and pierces through the Properties, from whence the taste arises, so that one Property tastes and feels the other.

79. It is also the ground and cause of the Senses, in that one property penetrates into the other, and kindles the other, so that the will knows whence the passiveness comes; for if there was no sensibility, the will could know nothing of the properties, for it would be merely alone: and thus the will receives Nature into it, by feeling the sharp motion in itself.

80. This motion is in itself like a turning wheel; not that there is such a turning and winding, but it is so in the Properties; for the Desire attracts into itself, and the motion thrusteth forwards out of itself, and so the will being in this anguish, can neither get inwards nor outwards, and yet is drawn both out of itself and into itself; and so it remains in such a Position, as would go into itself and out of itself, that is, over itself, and under itself, and yet can go no whither, but is an Anguish, and the true foundation of Hell, and of God's Anger; for this Anguish stands in the dark sharp Motion.

Form, manner, or condition.

81. In the Creation of the world, the Sulphur-Spirit, with the matter of the Sulphurous Nature, was produced out of this ground; which Sulphur-Spirit is the Natural Life of the Earthly and Elementary Creatures.

Or property.

82. The wise Heathen have in some measure understood this ground, for they say, that in Sulphur, Mercury, and Salt, all things in this world consist; wherein they have not looked upon the Matter only, but upon the Spirit, from which such Matter proceeds: for the ground of it consists not in Salt, Quicksilver, and Brimstone, they mean not so, but they mean the Spirit of such Properties; in that every thing indeed consists, whatsoever lives and grows, and has a being in this world, whether it be spiritual or material.

7 Spiritual corporality.
 2 The word, or speaking.
 2 The gross palpable corporality.
 Or marked with its own Image, or Inape.
 Desiring vegetable life.

83. For they understand by Salt, the sharp Magnetical Desire of Nature; and by Mercury, they mean the Motion and Separation of Nature, by which every thing is figured with its own signaure; and by Sulphur, they mean the perceiving [sensible] willing, and growing Life.

84. For in the Sulphur-Spirit, wherein the fiery Life burns, the Oil lies; and the Quintessence lies in the Oil, viz. the fiery Mercury, which is the true Life of Nature, and which is an Effluence from the word of the Divine Power and Motion, wherein the ground of Heaven is understood; and in the Quintessence there lies the Tincture, viz. the Paradisical ground, the outflown word of the Divine power and virtue, wherein the Properties lie in^d Equality.

85. Thus, by the Third Property of Nature, which is the Anguish, we mean the sharpness and painfulness of the fire, viz. the burning and consuming; for when the will is put into such a sharpness, it will always consume the cause of that sharpness; for it always^e strives to get to the unity of God again, which is the Rest; and the unity thrusts itself with its Effluence to this motion and sharpness; and so there is a continual conjoining for the manifestation of the Divine will, as we always find in these three, viz. in Salt, Brimstone, and Oil, an Heavenly in the Earthly; and whosoever does but truly understand it, and considers the Spirit, shall find it so.

ture or Harmony.

^e Or presses.

86. For the soul of a thing lies in the sharpness, and the true life of the sensual Nature and Property lies in the Motion, and the powerful Spirit which arises from the Tincture lies in the Oil of the Sulphur: Thus an Heavenly always lies hidden in the Earthly, for the invisible spiritual world came forth with and in the Creation.

⊙ The Fourth Property.

87. The Fourth Property of the Eternal Nature is the Spiritual Fire, wherein the Light, that is, the Unity, is made manifest; for the^f Glance of the fire rises and proceeds from the outflown unity, which hath incorporated and united itself with the Natural Desire; and the burning property of fire, viz. the Heat proceeds from the sharp devouring nature of the first three Properties; which comes to be so as follows.

^f Shining, Luster, or brightness.

88. The Eternal Unity, which I also in some of my writings call the Liberty, is the soft and still tranquillity, being amiable, and as a soft comfortable ease, and it cannot be expressed how soft a tranquillity there is without Nature in the Unity of God; but the three Properties in order to Nature are sharp, painful, and horrible.

89. In these three painful Properties the outflown Will consists, and is produced by the Word or Divine Breathing, and the Unity also is therein; therefore the will longeth earnestly for the Unity, and the Unity longeth for the Sensibility, viz. for the fiery ground: thus the one longeth for the other; and when this longing is, there is as it were a^g cracking noise or flash of Lightning, as when we strike steel and a stone together, or pour water into fire: this we speak by way of similitude.

^g Crashing.

90. In that flash the unity feels the sensibility, and the will receives the soft tranquil unity; and so the unity becomes a shining glance of fire, and the fire becomes a burning love, for it receives^h the Ens and power from the soft unity: in this kindling, the darkness of the Magnetical Compression is pierced through with the Light, so that it is no more known or discerned, although it remains in itself Eternally in the Compression.

^h Or Entity.

91. Now two Eternal Principles arise here, viz. the darkness, harshness, sharpness, and pain dwelling in itself, and the feeling power and virtue of the unity in the Light; upon which the Scripture saith, that God, that is, the Eternal unity, dwells in a Light to which none canⁱ come.

ⁱ Or approach.

92. For so the Eternal unity of God manifests itself through the Spiritual Fire in the Light, and this Light is called Majesty; and God, that is, the Supernatural Unity, is the power and virtue of it.

93. For the Spirit of this Fire receives Ens [or virtue] to shine from the unity, or else this fiery^j ground would be but a painful, horrible hunger, and pricking desire; and it is so indeed, when the will breaks itself off from the unity, and will live after its own desire, as the Devils have done, and the false soul still does.

^j Or Spirit.

94. And thus you may here perceive two Principles: the first is the ground of the burning of the Fire, viz. the sharp, moving, perceivable, painful darknes in itself; and the second is the Light of the Fire, wherein the unity comes into mobility and joy; for the Fire is an Object of the great Love of God's unity.

95. For so the Eternal Delight comes to be perceivable, and this perceiving of the unity is called Love, and is a Burning or Life in the unity of God; and according to this Burning of Love, God calls himself a merciful loving God; for the unity of God loves and pierces through the ^m painful will of the Fire, which 'at the beginning rose in the breathing of the word, or outgoing of the Divine Delight, and changes it into great Joy.

96. And in this fiery will of the Eternal Nature stands the soul of Man, and also the Angels; this is their ground and Center; therefore, if any soul breaks itself off from the Light and Love of God, and enters into its own Natural Delire, then the ground of this darknes and painful ⁿ property will be manifest in it; and this is the hellish Fire, and the Anger of God, when it is made manifest, as may be seen in Lucifer; and whatsoever can be thought to have a Being ^e any where in the Creature, the same is likewise without the Creature every where; for the Creature is nothing else but an Image and Figure of the separable and various power, and virtue of the universal Being.

97. Now understand right what the ground of Fire is, viz. Cold from the Compressure, and Heat from the Anguish; and the Motion is the ^p Vulcan; in these three the Fire consists, but the shining of the Light rises and proceeds from the conjunction of the unity in the ground of Fire, and yet the whole ground is but the outflown will.

98. Therefore in Fire and Light consists the Life of all things, viz. in the will thereof, let them be ^q insensible, vegetable, or rational things; every thing as the Fire has its ground, either from the Eternal, as the Soul, or from the Temporary, as Astral Elementary things; for the Eternal is one Fire, and the Temporary is another, as shall be shown hereafter.

☉ The Fifth Property.

99. Now the Fifth Property is the Fire of Love, or the ^r World of Power and Light; which in the Darknes dwells in itself, and the Darknes comprehends it not, as it is written, John 1. The Light shines in the Darknes, and the Darknes comprehends it not: Also, the Word is in the Light, and in the Word is the true understanding Life of Man, viz. the true Spirit.

100. But this Fire is the true Soul of Man, viz. the true Spirit, which God breathed into Man for a creaturely Life.

101. You must understand, in the spiritual Fire of the Will, the true desirous Soul out of the Eternal Ground; and in the power and virtue of the Light, the true understanding Spirit, in which the unity of God dwells and is manifest, as our Lord Christ says, 'The Kingdom of God is within you; and Paul saith, 'Ye are the Temple of the Holy Ghost, who dwells in you; this is the place of the Divine Inhabitation and Revelation.

102. Also the Soul comes to be damned thus, when the fiery will breaks itself off from the Love and Unity of God, and enters into its own Natural Propriety, that is, into its Evil Properties: this ought further to be considered.

103. O Zion, observe this ground, and thou art freed from Babel.

104. The Second Principle (viz. the Angelical World and the Thrones) is meant by the Fifth Property: for it is the motion of the unity, wherein all the Properties of the fiery Nature burn in Love.

105. An Example or similitude of this ^t ground, may be seen in a Candle that is ^t Or thing. Lighted; the Properties lie in one another in the Candle, and none of them is more manifested than another, till the Candle is lighted, and then we find Fire, Oil, Light, Air and Water from the Air: All the four Elements become manifest in it, which lay hidden before in one only Ground.

106. And so likewise it must be conceived to be in the Eternal Ground; for the temporary substance is flown forth from the Eternal, therefore they are both of the same quality; but with this difference, that one is Eternal and the other Transitory, one Spiritual and the other Corporeal.

107. When the Spiritual Fire and Light shall be kindled, which hath indeed burned from Eternity [in itself,] then shall also the Mystery of the Divine Power and Knowledge be always made manifest therein; for all the Properties of the Eternal Nature become spiritual in the Fire, and yet Nature remains as it is, inwardly in itself; and the going forth of the will becomes Spiritual.

108. For in the crack or flash of the Fire, the dark receptibility is consumed; and in that consuming, the pure bright Fire-Spirit, which is pierced through with the Glance of the Light, goes forth; in which going forth, we find three several Properties.

109. The first is the going upwards of the fiery will; the second is the going downwards, or sinking of the watery Spirit, viz. the Meekness; and the third is the proceeding forwards of the oily Spirit, in the midst, in the Center of the fiery Spirit of the will; which oily Spirit is the Ens of the unity of God, which is become a substance in the desire of Nature; yet all is but Spirit and Power: but so it appears in the figure of the Manifestation, not as if there were any separation or division, but it appears so in the Manifestation.

110. This threefold manifestation is according to the Trinity; for the Center wherein it is, is the only God according to his manifestation: the fiery flaming Spirit of Love is that which goes upwards, and the meekness which proceedeth from the Love, is that which goes downwards, and in the midst there is the Center [^u of] the circumference, ^u Or. which is the Father, or whole God, according to his manifestation.

111. And as this is to be known in the Divine manifestation, so it is also in the Eternal Nature, according to Nature's property; for Nature is but a ^x Resemblance of the Deity. ^x Picture, representation, or shadow.

112. Nature may be further considered thus: the flash of the Original of fire, is a crack, and salnitrous ground, whence Nature goes forth into infinite divisions, that is, into multitudes or varieties of Powers and Virtues; from which the multitude of Angels and Spirits, and their colours and operations, proceeded, also the four Elements in the beginning of time.

112. For the ^y temperature of Fire and Light is the holy Element, viz. the motion in the Light of the unity; and from this salnitrous ground (we mean spiritual, not earthly salnitre) the four Elements proceed, viz. in the ^z compression of the fiery Mercury, Earth and Stones are produced; and in the Quintessence of the fiery Mercury, the Fire and Heaven; and in the Motion or proceeding forth, the Air; and in the diruption or rending of the Desire by the Fire, the water is produced. ^y Temperament, or harmony. ^z Compression, or impression, in every place that follows, where that word is used.

114. The fiery Mercury is a dry water, that has brought forth Metals and Stones; but the broken or divided Mercury has brought forth moist water, by the Mortification in the Fire; and the compression has brought the gross rawness into the Earth, which is a gross salnitrous Saturnine Mercury.

115. By the word Mercury, you must understand, here in the Spirit, always the out-flown Natural working word of God, which has been the Separator, Divider, and Former of every substance; and by the word Saturn, we mean the compression.

116. In the Fifth Property, that is, in the Light, the Eternal unity is substantial; that is, an holy Spiritual Fire, an holy Light, an holy Air, which is nothing else but Spirit, also an holy water, which is the outflowing Love of the unity of God, and an

^a Ternarium
Sanctum.

^a holy Earth, which is all-powerful virtue and working.

117. This Fifth Property is the true spiritual Angelical world of the Divine joy, which is hidden in this visible world.

24 The Sixth Property.

118. The Sixth Property of the Eternal Nature, is the sound, noise, voice, or understanding; for when the Fire flashes, all the Properties together sound: the Fire is the mouth of the Essence, the Light is the Spirit, and the Sound is the Understanding, wherein all the Properties understand one another.

119. According to the Manifestation of the Holy Trinity, by the Effluence of the unity, this sound or voice is the Divine working word, viz. the understanding in the Eternal Nature, by which the supernatural knowledge manifests itself; but according to Nature and Creature, this sound or voice is the knowledge of God, wherein the Natural understanding knows God; for the Natural understanding is a Model, Resemblance, and Effluence from the Divine understanding.

120. The five Senses lie in the Natural understanding, in a Spiritual manner, and in the second Property, viz. in the motion, in the fiery Mercury, they lie in a Natural manner.

^b Articulation.

121. The sixth Property gives understanding in the voice or sound, viz. in the ^b speaking of the word; and the second property of Nature is the producer, and also the House, Tool, or Instrument of the speech or voice: in the second Property, the Power and Virtue is painful; but in the sixth Property, it is joyful and pleasant; and the difference between the second and sixth Property, is in Light and Darkness, which are in one another, as Fire and Light; there is no other difference between them.

25 The Seventh Property.

122. The Seventh Property is the Substance, that is, the subjectum, or house of the other six, in which they all are substantially as the soul in the body: by this we understand especially, as to the Light world, the Paradise or budding of the working Power.

^c Or resemblance.

123. For every Property makes unto itself a Subject, or ^c Object, by its own Effluence; and in the seventh, all the Properties are in a temperature, as in one only Substance: and as they all proceeded from the unity, so they all return again into one ground.

124. And though they work in different kinds and manners, yet here there is but one only Substance, whose power and virtue is called Tincture; that is, an holy penetrating, growing, or springing Bud.

^d Corpus, aut Substantia.
^e Or with.

125. Not that the seventh Property is the Tincture, but it is the ^d Body of it; the Power and Virtue of the Fire and Light, is the Tincture ^e in the substantial Body: but the seventh Property is the substance which the Tincture penetrates and sanctifies; we mean, that it is thus according to the power and virtue of the Divine manifestation; but as it is a Property of Nature, it is the substance of the attracted desire of all properties.

^f See the following Table.

126. It is especially to be ^f observed, that always the First and the Seventh Property are accounted for one; and the Second and Sixth; also the Third and Fifth; and the Fourth is only the dividing Mark or ^g bound.

^g Or Limit.

127. For

127. For according to the manifestation of the Trinity of God, there are but three Properties of Nature: the first is the Desire which belongs to God the Father, yet it is only a Spirit; but in the seventh Property, the Desire is substantial.

128. The second is the Divine power and virtue, and belongs to God the Son; in the second Number it is only a Spirit; but in the sixth it is the substantial Power and Virtue.

129. The third belongs to the Holy Ghost; and in the beginning of the third Property it is only a fiery Spirit; but in the fifth Property, the great Love is manifested therein.

130. Thus the Effluence of the Divine Manifestation, as to the three Properties in the first Principle before the Light^b, is Natural; but in the second Principle in the Light, it^b Appears. is Spiritual.

131. Now these are the seven Properties in one only Ground; and all seven are equally Eternal without beginning; none of them can be accounted the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, or last; for they are equally Eternal without beginning, and have also one Eternal beginning from the unity of God.

132. We must represent this in a typical way, that it may be understood how the one is born out of the other, the better to conceive what the Creator is, and what the Life and Substance of this world is.

The First Principle.

The Dark World: hence God the Father is called an Angry, Zealous, Jealous God, and a Consuming Fire.

Dark or Fire of Wrath

The Second Principle.

The Light World: hence God the Son, the Word, the Heart of God, is called a Loving and Merciful God.

Light or Fire of Love

The Third Principle.

This World of four Elements, which is produced out of the two Inward Worlds, and is a Glass of them, wherein Light and Darkness, Good and Evil are mixed, it is not Eternal, but has a Beginning and an End.

Of the Third Principle, viz. The visible World; whence that proceeded; and what the Creator is.

133.  HIS visible world is sprung from the spiritual world before mentioned, viz. from the outflown Divine Power and Virtue; and it is a Subject or Object resembling the spiritual world: the spiritual world is the Inward ground of the visible world; the visible subsists in the spiritual.

134. The visible world is only an Effluence of the seven Properties, for it proceeded out of the six working Properties; but in the seventh, (that is, in Paradise,) it is in Rest: and that is the Eternal Sabbath of Rest, wherein the Divine Power and Virtue rests.

135. Moses saith, God created Heaven and Earth, and all Creatures, in six Days, and rested on the seventh Day, and also commanded ¹ it to be kept for a Rest.

136. The understanding lies hidden and secret in those words: could not he have made all his works in one Day? neither can we properly say there was any day before the Sun was; for in the Deep there is but one Day [in all.]

137. But the understanding lies hidden in those words: he understands by each day's working, the Creation, or Manifestation of the seven Properties; for he saith, In the Beginning God created Heaven and Earth.

² The first Day.

138. In the FIRST ² Motion, the Magnetical Desire compressed and compacted the fiery and watery Mercury with the other Properties; and then the grossness separated itself from the Spiritual Nature: and the fiery became Metals and Stones, and partly Salnitre, that is, Earth: and the watery became water: then the fiery Mercury of the working became clean, and Moses calls it Heaven; and the Scripture says, God dwells in Heaven: for this fiery Mercury is the Power and Virtue of the Firmament, viz. an Image and resemblance of the Spiritual world, in which God is manifested.

139. When this was done, God said, Let there be Light; then the Inward thrust itself forth through the fiery Heaven, from which a shining power and virtue arose in the fiery Mercury, and that was the Light of the outward Nature in the Properties, wherein the ¹ vegetable Life consists.

The Second Day.

140. In the SECOND Day's work, God separated the watery and fiery Mercury from one another, and called the fiery the Firmament of Heaven, which came out of the midst of the waters, viz. of Mercury, whence arose the Male and Female ^m kind, in the Spirit of the outward world; that is, the Male in the fiery Mercury, and the Female in the watery.

^m Sex.

141. This Separation was made all over in every thing, to the end that the fiery Mercury should desire and long for the watery, and the watery for the fiery; that so there might be a Desire of Love betwixt them in the Light of Nature, from which the Conjunction arises: therefore the fiery Mercury, viz. the outflown word, separated itself according both to the fiery and to the watery nature of the Light, and thence comes both the Male and Female kind in all things, both Animals and Vegetables.

The Third Day.

142. In the THIRD Day's work, the fiery and watery Mercury entered again into Conjunction or Mixture, and embraced one another, wherein the Salnitre, viz. the Separator in the Earth, brought forth Grass, Plants, and Trees; and that was the first Generation or production between Male and Female.

The Fourth Day.

143. In the FOURTH Day's work, the fiery Mercury brought forth its fruit, viz. the fifth Essence, an higher power or virtue of Life, than the four Elements, and yet it is in the Elements: of it the Stars are made.

144. For as the compression of the Desire brought the Earth into a ^a Mass, the compression entering into itself, so the fiery Mercury thrust itself outwards by the Compression, and has inclosed the place of this world with the ^o Stars and starry Heaven.

^a Or lump.
^o Or constellations.

The Fifth Day.

145. In the FIFTH Day's work, the ^p Spiritus Mundi, that is, the ^q soul of the great world, opened itself in the fifth Essence; (we mean the Life of the fiery and watery Mercury;) therein God created all beasts, fishes, fowls, and worms; every one from its peculiar property of the divided Mercury.

^p The Spirit of the world.
^q Anima Macrocosmi.

146. Here we see how the Eternal Principles have moved themselves according to Evil and Good, as to all the seven Properties, and their Effluence and Mixture; for there are evil and good Creatures created, every thing as the Mercury (that is, the Separator) has figured and framed himself into an Ens, as may be seen in the evil and good Creatures: And yet every kind of Life has its Original in the Light of Nature, that is, in the Love of Nature; from which it is that all Creatures, in their Kind or Property, love one another according to this outflown Love.

^r Or imaged.

The Sixth Day.

147. In the SIXTH Day's work, God created Man; for in the sixth Day the understanding of Life opened itself out of the fiery Mercury, that is, out of the Inward Ground.

148. God created him in his likeness out of all the three Principles, and made him an Image, and breathed into him the understanding fiery Mercury, according to both the Inward and Outward Ground, that is, according to Time and Eternity, and so he became a living understanding soul: and in this Ground of the soul, the Manifestation of the Divine Holiness moved, viz. the living outflowing word of God, together with the Eternal knowing Idea, which was known from Eternity in the Divine Wisdom, as a Subject or Form of the Divine Imagination.

149. This ^f Idea becomes ^t clothed with the Substance of the heavenly world, and so it becomes an understanding Spirit and Temple of God; an Image of the Divine ^u vision, which Spirit is given to the soul for a Spouse: as Fire and Light are espoused together, so it is here also to be understood.

^f Or Image.
^t Inuded, or inveted.
^u Or contemplation.

150. This Divine Ground budded and pierced through soul and body; and this was the true Paradise in Man, which he lost by sin, when the ground of the dark world, with the false Desire, got the upperhand and dominion in him.

The Seventh Day.

151. In the SEVENTH Day God rested from all his works which he had made, saith Moses; yet God needs no Rest, for he has wrought from Eternity, and he is a mere working Power and Virtue; therefore the meaning and understanding here lies hidden in the Word, for Moses saith he hath commanded [us] to Rest on the seventh Day.

152. The seventh Day was the true Paradise, understand it spiritually, that is, the Tincture of the Divine Power and Virtue, which is a temperament; this pierced through all the Properties, and wrought in the seventh, that is, in the substance of all the other.

153. The Tincture pierced through the Earth, and through all Elements, and tintured All; and then Paradise was on Earth, and in Man; for evil was hidden: as the Night is hidden in the Day, so the * wrath of Nature was also hidden in the first Principle, till the fall of Man; and then the Divine working, with the Tincture, † fled into their own Principle, viz. into the Inward Ground of the Light-world.

* Or grim

† Or retired.

154. For the wrath rose aloft, and got the predominancy, and that is the Curse, where it is said, God cursed the Earth; for his cursing is to leave off and fly from his working: as when God's Power and Virtue in a thing works with the Life and Spirit of the thing, and afterwards withdraws itself with its working; then the thing is cursed, for it works in its own will, and not in God's will.

Of the Spiritus Mundi, and of the Four Elements.

155. We may very well observe and consider the hidden spiritual world, by the visible world: for we see that Fire ^z, Light, and Air, are continually begotten in the deep of this world; and that there is no Rest or Cessation from this production; and that it has been so from the beginning of the world; and yet men can find no cause of it in the outward world, or tell what the ground of it should be: but Reason says, God hath so created it, and therefore it continues so; which indeed is true in itself; but Reason knows not the Creator, which thus creates without ceasing; that is, the true ^a Archæus, or Separator, which is an Effluence out of the Invisible world, viz. the outflown word of God; which I mean and understand by the word fiery Mercury.

^z Or Water.

156. For what the invisible world is, in a spiritual working, where Light and Darkness are in one another, and yet the one not comprehending the other, that the visible world is, in a substantial working; whatsoever powers and virtues in the outflown word are to be ^b understood in the Inward Spiritual world, the same we understand also in the visible world, in the Stars and Elements, yet in another Principle of a more holy ^c Nature.

157. The four Elements flow from the Archæus of the Inward ground, that is, from the four Properties of the Eternal Nature, and were in the beginning of time so outbreathed from the Inward ground, and compressed and formed into a working substance and life; and therefore the outward world is called a Principle, and is a subject of the Inward world, that is, a Tool and Instrument of the Inward ^d Master, which Master is the Word and ^e Power of God.

^d Artificer or ^e Or virtue.

^f Or intellec-

158. And as the Inward Divine world has in it an ^f understanding Life from the Effluence of the Divine knowledge, whereby the Angels and Souls are meant; so likewise the outward world has a Rational Life in it, consisting in the outflown powers and virtues of the Inward world; which outward [Rational] Life has no higher understanding, and can reach no further than that thing wherein it dwells, viz. the Stars and four Elements.

159. The Spiritus Mundi is hidden in the four Elements, as the Soul is in the body, and is nothing else but an Effluence and working Power proceeding from the Sun and Stars; its dwelling wherein it works is spiritual, encompassed with the four Elements.

160. The Spiritual house is first a sharp Magnetical power and virtue, from the Effluence of the Inward world, from the first property of the Eternal Nature; this is the ground of all salt and powerful virtue, also of all forming and substantiality.

161. Secondly, it is the Effluence of the Inward Motion, which is outflow from the second^e form of the Eternal Nature, and consists in a fiery Nature, like a dry kind of water source, which is understood to be the ground of all Metal and Stones, for they were created of that.

162. I call it the fiery Mercury in the Spirit of this world, for it is the mover of all things, and the separator of the powers and virtues; a former of all shapes, a ground of the outward Life, as to the Motion and Sensibility.

163. The third ground is the perception in the Motion and Sharpness, which is a spiritual source of Sulphur, proceeding from the ground of the painful will in the Inward ground: Hence the Spirit with the five senses arise, viz. seeing, hearing, feeling, tasting, and smelling; and this is the true Essential Life, whereby the fire, that is, the fourth form, is made manifest.

164. The ancient wise men have called these three properties Sulphur, Mercurius, and Sal, as to their Materials which were produced thereby in the four Elements, into which this Spirit does coagulate, or make itself Substantial.

165. The four Elements lie also in this ground, and are nothing different or separate from it; they are only the manifestation of this spiritual ground, and are as a dwelling-place of the Spirit, in which this Spirit works.

166. The Earth is the grossest Effluence from this subtle Spirit; after the Earth the Water is the second; after the Water the Air is the Third; and after the Air the Fire is the fourth: All these proceed from one only ground, viz. from the Spiritus Mundi, which has its root in the Inward world.

167. But Reason will say, To what End has the Creator made this manifestation? I answer, There is no other cause, but that the spiritual world might thereby bring itself into a visible form or Image, that the Inward powers and virtues might have a form and Image: Now that this might be, the spiritual substance must needs bring itself into a material ground, wherein it may so figure and form itself; and there must be such a separation, as that this separated being might continually long for the first ground again, viz. the Inward for the Outward, and the Outward for the Inward.

168. So also the four Elements, which are nothing else Inwardly but one only Ground, must long one for the other, and desire one another, and seek the Inward Ground in one another.

169. For the Inward Element in them is divided, and the four Elements are but the Properties of that divided Element, and that causes the great anxiety and desire betwixt them; they desire continually [to get] into the first ground again, that is, into that one Element in which they may rest; of which the Scripture speaks, saying:

^a Every Creature groaneth with us, and earnestly longs to be delivered from the vanity, which it is subject to against its will.

^b Rom. 8. 20.

170. In this anxiety and desire, the Effluence of the Divine power and virtue, by the working of Nature, is together also formed and brought into figures, to the Eternal Glory and Contemplation of Angels and Men, and all Eternal Creatures; as we may see clearly in all living things, and also in vegetables, how the Divine power and virtueⁱ imprints and forms itself.

For there is not any thing substantial in this world, wherein the image, resemblance, and form of the Inward spiritual world does not stand; whether it be according to the ^k wrath of the Inward ground, or according to the good virtue; and yet in the most ^l venomous virtue or quality, in the Inward ground, many times there lies the greatest virtue out of the Inward world.

^k Or fierceness.

172. But where there is a dark Life, that is, a dark Oil, in a thing, there is little to be expected from it; for it is the foundation of the wrath, viz. a false bad Poison, to be utterly rejected.

^m Or pain.

173. Yet where Life consists in ^m venom, and has a Light or Brightness shining in the Oil, viz. in the Fifth Essence, therein Heaven is manifested in Hell, and a great virtue lies hidden in it: this is understood by those that are ours.

ⁿ Or Substance.

174. The whole visible world is a mere spermatical working ground; every ⁿ thing has an inclination and longing towards another, the uppermost towards the undermost, and the undermost towards the uppermost, for they are separated one from the other; and in this hunger they embrace one another in the Desire.

175. As we may know by the Earth, which is so very hungry after the [influence and virtue of the] Stars, and the Spiritus Mundi, viz. after the Spirit from whence it proceeded in the beginning, that it has no rest for hunger; and this hunger of the Earth consumes Bodies, that the Spirit may be parted again from the gross Elementary ^o condition, and return into its ^p Archæus again.

^o Or Property.
^p Separator, Divider, or salnitrous virtue.

176. Also we see in this hunger the Impregnation of the Archæus, that is, of the Separator, how the undermost Archæus of the Earth attracts the outermost subtle Archæus from the Constellations above the Earth; where this compacted Ground from the uppermost Archæus longs for its ground again, and puts itself forth towards the uppermost; in which putting forth, the growing of Metals, Plants and Trees, has its Original.

177. For the Archæus of the Earth becomes thereby exceeding joyful, because it tastes and feels its first ground in itself again, and in this Joy all things ^a spring out of the Earth, and therein also the growing of Animals consists, viz. in a continual Conjunction of the Heavenly and Earthly, in which the Divine power and virtue also works, as may be known by the Tincture of the Vegetables in their Inward ground.

^a Or grow.

178. Therefore Man, who is so noble an Image, having his ground in Time and Eternity, should well consider himself, and not run headlong in such blindness, seeking his Native Country afar off from himself, when it is within himself, though covered with the grossness of the Elements by their strife.

179. Now when the strife of the Elements ceases, by the Death of the gross body, then the Spiritual Man will be made manifest, whether he be born in and to Light, or Darkness; which of these [two] bears the Sway, and has the Dominion in him, the Spiritual Man has his being in it Eternally, whether it be in the foundation of God's Anger, or in his Love.

180. For the outward visible Man is not now the Image of God, it is nothing but an Image of the Archæus, that is, a house [or husk] of the Spiritual Man, in which the Spiritual Man grows, as Gold does in the ^r gross Stone, and a Plant from the wild Earth; as the Scripture says, as we have a Natural Body, so we have also a Spiritual Body: such as the Natural is, such also is the Spiritual.

^s 1 Cor. 15. 44.

181. The outward gross Body of the four Elements shall not inherit the Kingdom of God, but that which is born out of that one Element, viz. out of the Divine Manifestation and Working.

182. For this Body of the Flesh and of the Will of Man is not it, but that which is wrought by the heavenly Archæus in this gross Body, unto which this gross [Body] is a house, tool, and instrument.

183. But when the Cruft is taken away, then it fhall appear why we have here been called Men; and yet fome of us have fcarce been Beasts; nay, fome far worfe than Beasts.

184. For we fhould rightly confider what the Spirit of the outward world is; it is a houfe's hufk, and Inftrument of the Inward Spiritual world which is hidden in it, and works through it, and fo brings itfelf into Figures and Images.

185. And thus human Reafon is but a ' houfe of the true understanding of the Di-^{OrDwelling}vine knowledge: none fhould truft fo much in his reafon and fharp wit, for it is but the Conftellation of the outward Stars, and rather feduces him, than leads him to the unity of God.

186. Reafon muft wholly yield itfelf up to God, that the Inward Archæus may be revealed; and this fhall work and bring forth a true Spiritual understanding ground, uniform with God, in which God's Spirit will be revealed, and will bring the understanding to God: and then, in this Ground, ^u the Spirit fearches through all things, even the ^u 1 Cor. 2.10. *deep things of * God,* as St. Paul faith.

187. I thought good to fet this down thus briefly for the ^y Lovers, for their further ^x consideration. ^x Or of the Deity. ^y Of Myfteries.

Now follows a fhort Explanation, or ^z Description of the Divine Manifestation. ^z Formula, or Model.

188. God is the Eternal, Immense, Incomprehenfible unity, which manifests itfelf in itfelf, from Eternity in Eternity, by the Trinity; and is Father, Son, and Holy Ghof, in a threefold working, as is before mentioned.

189. The firft Effluence and manifestation of this Trinity, is the Eternal word, or outfpeaking of the Divine power and virtue.

190. The firft outfspoken Substance from that Power, is the Divine wifdom; which is a fubftance wherein the Power works.

191. Out of the wifdom flows the Power and Virtue of the breathing forth, and goes into feparability and forming; and therein the Divine Power is manifft in its virtue.

192. Thefe feparable Powers and Virtues bring themfelves into the power of reception, to their own perceptibility; and out of the perceptibility arifes own felf-will and Defire: this own Will is the Ground of the Eternal Nature, and it brings itfelf, with the Defire, into the Properties as far as Fire.

193. In the Defire, is the Original of Darknefs; and in the Fire, the Eternal unity is made manifft with the Light, in the fiery Nature.

194. Out of this fiery Property, and the property of the Light, the Angels and Souls have their Original; which is a Divine Manifftation.

195. The Power and Virtue of Fire and Light, is called Tincture; and the Motion of this Virtue, is called the holy and Pure Element.

196. The Darknefs becomes fubftantial in itfelf; and the Light becomes alfo fubftantial in the fiery Defire: thefe two make two Principles, viz. God's Anger in the Darknefs, and God's Love in the Light; each of them works in itfelf, and there is only fuch a difference between them, as between Day and Night, and yet both of them have but one only Ground; and the one is always a caufe of the other, and that the other becomes manifft and known in it, as Light from Fire.

197. The vifible world is the third Principle, that is, the third Ground and beginning: this is breathed out of the Inward Ground, viz. out of both the firft Principles, and brought into the Nature and Form of a Creature.

198. The Inward Eternal working is hidden in the visible world; and it is in every thing, and through every thing, yet not to be comprehended by any thing in the Thing's own Power; the outward Powers and Virtues are but passive, and the house in which the Inward work.

^a The common Creatures.

199. ^a All the other worldly Creatures are but the Substance of the outward World, but Man, who is created both out of Time and Eternity, out of the Being of all Beings, and made an Image of the Divine manifestation.

200. The Eternal Manifestation of the Divine Light is called the Kingdom of Heaven, and the Habitation of the Holy Angels and Souls.

201. The fiery Darknefs is called Hell, or God's Anger, wherein the Devils dwell, together with the damned Souls.

202. In the place of this World, Heaven and Hell are present every where, but according to the Inward Ground.

203. Inwardly, the Divine working is manifest in God's Children; but in the wicked, the working of the painful darknefs.

204. The place of the Eternal Paradise is hidden in this World, in the Inward Ground; but manifest in the Inward Man, in which God's Power and Virtue works.

205. There shall perish of this World only the four Elements, together with the Starry Heaven, and the Earthly Creatures, viz. the outward gross life of all things.

206. The Inward Power and Virtue of every substance remains Eternally.

^b The Great Mystery. عظيم

Another Explanation of ^b the Mysterium Magnum.

207. God has manifested the Mysterium Magnum out of the Power and Virtue of his word; in which Mysterium Magnum the whole Creation has lain essentially without forming, in Temperamento; and by which he has outspoken the Spiritual formings in Separability [or variety:] in which formings, the Sciences of the Powers and Virtues in the Desire, that is, in the Fiat, have stood, wherein every Science, in the Desire to Manifestation, has brought itself into a Corporeal Substance.

208. Such a Mysterium Magnum lies also in Man, viz. in the Image of God, and is the Essential word of the Power of God, according to Time and Eternity, by which the Living word of God speaketh forth, or expresses itself, either in Love or Anger, or in Fancy, all as the Mysterium stands in a moveable Desire to Evil or Good; according to that saying, such as the people is, such a God they also have.

209. For in whatsoever property the Mysterium in Man is awakened, such a word also utters itself from his powers: as we plainly see that nothing else but vanity is uttered by the wicked. Praise the Lord, all ye his Works. Hallelujah.

^c SCIENTZ.

Of the Word ^c SCIENCE.

210. The word Science is not so taken by me as men understand the word Scientia in the Latin Tongue; for I understand therein even the true Ground according to Sense, which, both in the Latin and all other Languages, is missed and neglected by Ignorance; for every word in its impressure, forming, and Expression, gives the true understanding of what that thing is that is so called.

211. You understand by Science some skill or knowledge, in which you say true, but do not fully express the meaning.

^d Cogitation, consideration.

212. Science is the Root to the Understanding, as to the ^d Sensibility; it is the Root to to the Center of the ^a Impreffure of nothing into something ; as when the Will of the ^c Or forming. Abyfs attracts itself into itself, to a Center of the Impreffure, viz. to the Word, then arises the true Understanding.

213. The Will is in the Separability of the Science, and there separates itself out from the Impressed Compaction ; and men first of all understand the Essence in that which is separated, in which the Separability impresses itself into a Substance.

214. For ^f Essence is a substantial power and virtue, but Science is a moving un-^f ESSENCE settled one, like the Senses ; it is indeed the Root of the Senses.

215. Yet in the Understanding, in which it is called Science, it is not the perception, but a cause of the perception, in that manner as when the Understanding impresses itself in the Mind, there must first be a cause which must give the Mind, from which the Understanding flows forth into its Contemplation : Now this Science is the Root to the fiery Mind, and it is in short the Root of all Spiritual Beginnings ; it is the true Root of Souls, and proceeds through every Life, for it is the Ground from whence Life comes.

216. I could not give it any other better Name, this does so wholly accord and agree in the Sense ; for the Science is the cause that the Divine Abyssal Will compacts and impresses itself into Nature, to the separable, [various] intelligible, and perceivable Life of understanding and difference ; for from the Impreffure of the Science, whereby the Will attracts it into itself, the Natural Life arises, and the Word of every Life Originally.

217. The distinction or separation out of the Fire is to be understood as follows : The Eternal Science in the Will of the Father draws the Will, which is called Father, into itself, and shuts itself into a Center of the Divine Generation of the Trinity, and by the Science speaks itself forth into a word of understanding ; and in the Speaking is the Separation in the Science ; and in every Separation there is the Desire to the Impression of the ^e Expression, the Impression is Essential, and is called Divine Essence. ^e Or speaking forth.

218. From this Essence the word expresses itself in the second Separation, that is, of Nature, and in that expression wherein the Natural Will separates itself in its Center, into a preception, the Separation out of the fiery ^b Science is understood ; for thence comes the Soul and all Angelical Spirits. ^b One Copy has Essence.

219. The third Separation is according to the outward Nature of the expressed formed Word, wherein the Bestial Science lies, as may be seen in the Treatise of the Election of Grace, which has a ⁱ sharp understanding, and is one of the Clearest of our Writings. ⁱ Acute, or sublime.

The Distinguishing Mark, standing in the Midst between three and three, looking with the first terrible Crack (made in the first, gross and rough Harshness) into the Dark World; and with the second joyful Crack (made in the second, soft, watery or conquered Harshness) into the Light World; and giving unto each what it is capable of, viz. Might, Strength, Terror, &c. unto the former, but Light, Splendor, Luster and Glory, unto the latter.

The three Exalted, Tinctured, or Transmuted Properties on the Right Hand. The Kingdom of Love, Light, and Glory.

The Second Principle.

The Second Temperature, or Temperature in Substantiality.

The Trinity manifested, which only now can be an Object of a created Understanding. Byfs. Wisdom. Tincture.

N U M B E R V.

The four first Figures were, in some Manner, to show (according to the deep and wonderful Manifestation of the Divine Spirit, given to Jacob Behmen) the Generation of Eternal Nature, which has a Beginning without Beginning, and an End without End.

This fifth represents now, that this great Royal Residence, or Divine Habitation of Glory, of GOD the Father, GOD the Son, and GOD the Holy Ghost, was replenished at once with innumerable Inhabitants, All Glorious Flames of Fire, All Children of GOD, and All Ministering Spirits, divided in three Hierarchies (each of such an Extent, that no Limits can be perceived, and yet not infinite) according to that Holy Number Three. But we know the Names only of two of them, which are Michael and Uriel, because only these two, with all their Hosts, kept their Habitation in the Light.

N U M B E R VI.

Here now one of those three Hierarchs, even the most glorious of them, because he was the Created Representative of GOD the Son, commits High Treason, revolts, lets his dark, proud Will-Spirit, in a false Magia, without any Occasion given him from without, out of his own Center fly up on high, above God and all the Hosts of Heaven, to be himself All in All; but he is resisted, and precipitated down, and falls through the Fire into eternal Darkness, in which he is a mighty Prince over his own Legions, but in Reality a poor Prisoner, and an infamous Executioner of the Wrath of God; and may now well be reproached, and asked, How art thou fallen from Heaven, O Lucifer, Son of the Morning? To which Question a profound, prolix, distinct, most particular and circumstantial Answer is given, in the Aurora, to his eternal Shame and Confusion, which he had hid and covered from the Beginning of the World.

N U M B E R VII.

When Lucifer by his Rebellion had brought the whole Extent of his Kingdom into such a desolate Condition, that it was, as Moses describes it, without Form and Void, and Darkneſs was upon the Face of the Deep, that whole Region was juſtly taken away from under his Dominion, and transformed into ſuch another meaner and temporary Condition, that it could no more be of any Uſe to him. And when this was fully ſettled in Six Days Time, according to the Six Active Spirits of eternal Nature, ſo that it wanted nothing more but a Prince and Ruler, inſtead of him who had forſaken his Habitation in the Light, ADAM was created in the Image and Likeneſs of GOD, an Epitome, or Compendium of the whole Univerſe, by the VERBUM FIAT, which was the Eternal Word, in Conjunction with the firſt Aſtringent Fountain-Spirit of Eternal Nature.

An Explanation of the Figures.

N U M B E R VIII.

This ADAM, though he was indeed created in a State of Innocence, Purity, Integrity and Perfection, could not yet ſtand on that Top of Perfection which he was deſigned for, and would have been drawn up into, if he had ſtood his Trial, for which there was an abſolute Neceſſity. Three Things there were that laid a Claim to Adam, and though they ſtood within him in an equal Temperature, yet did they not ſo without him, for Lucifer had made a Breach.

Theſe three Things were, (1.) above him SOPHIA, called (Mal. ii. 14.) his Companion, and the Wife of his Youth. (2.) SATAN, that uncreated dark Root in the Beginingleſs Beginning of eternal Nature. And (3.) The SPIRIT OF THIS WORLD. And herein lies the Ground of the Neceſſity of Adam's Temptation.

In this Conſideration the Devil comes not yet in, though he is not far out of the Way; nor the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil; becauſe this was but a neceſſary Conſequence of Adam's wavering, and dealing treacherouſly with the Wife of his Youth.

N U M B E R IX.

Here now is poor Adam actually fallen away from all his former Happineſs and Glory, and has loſt whatſoever was good and deſirable both in himſelf and round about him: He lies as dead, on the outmoſt Borders of the Spirit of this World. SOPHIA has forſaken him, or rather he, having dealt treacherouſly, has forſaken Her, and the Holy Band of the Marriage-Covenant that was between them is diſſolved: He is all over dark, and lies even under the Earth, over which he was to rule: All the Stars ſhoot their Influences upon him, of which the very beſt are but Death and Poiſon to that Life for which he was created: And nothing leſs could he expect, but that every Moment he ſhould be quite drawn down and ſwallowed up in the Belly of Satan. This was his State and Condition after his Tranſgreſſion, and before he heard the Word of Free Grace, that the Woman's Seed ſhould bruise the Serpent's Head.

N U M B E R X.

Here Adam, by that Word of Grace treaſured up in his Heart, whoſe Name is JESUS, is raiſed again ſo far, that he can ſtand above the Earthly Globe, upon the Baſis of a fiery Triangle  which is an excellent Emblem of his own Soul, and the Holy Name JESUS ſtands above him upon the Top of a watery Triangle  and these two Triangles, which in Adam's Fall were divorced from each other, do now touch each other again, though (in this Beginning) but in one Point; that the Soul's Desire may draw down into itself the  and that Holy Name may draw up into itself more and more the  till these two make up a compleat the most significant Character in all the Universe: For only then the Work of Regeneration and Reunion with SOPHIA will be absolved. And although, during this mortal Life, no such Perfection of the whole Man can be wrought out, yet is it attainable in the inward Part; and whatsoever seems to be an Obstruction, (even SIN NOT EXCEPTED,) must, for this very End, WORK TOGETHER FOR GOOD TO THEM THAT LOVE GOD. Praised be his Triune Holy, Holy, Holy Name, in this Time, and throughout all the Extent and Duration of Eternity.

N U M B E R XI.

Here Adam, in the same Place as before, appears again, but in Union with Christ, which is to be referred to the Person of Jesus Christ, or of the Second Adam in our Humanity upon Earth; and is to show us the absolute Necessity of his Holy Incarnation, and immaculate Sacrifice for all Mankind, without which the great Work of our Regeneration and Reunion with SOPHIA could not have been wrought out to Perfection. In his Incarnation he brought that most significant Character, which the First Adam had lost, into the Humanity again, but first in his own Human Person, although it could not be visible in him from without, whilst he was upon Earth a Man like unto us in all Things, Sins excepted. And therefore He, and even He alone, was able and sufficient to go for us into Death, to kill Death in his own Death, to break in his Passage the Hook and Sting of Satan, to enter into, and through his dark Territory, to bruise the Serpent's Head, and to ascend up on high, to take possession of his Throne, whereby the Prophecy of Micah (ch. ii. 13.) was fulfilled, which Luther most significantly translated, es wird ein Durchbrecher für ihnen herauf fahren: Arias Montanus, Ascendit Effractor: The Vulgate, Pandens iter ante eos: And the English, The Breaker is come up before them.

N U M B E R XII.

From the Time in which that Breaker, prophesied of by Micah, was come up before us, the Gate stood open, that the First Adam's Children could follow him and enter into Paradise, which could not be done by any Soul before that Time. Holy Souls, both before and after the Deluge, that lived according to the Dictates of the Word treasured up in their Hearts, could, in their Departure from this World, go so far as to the Gate of Paradise, but Entrance could not be had by any one, till the First-Born from the Dead was entered in HIS own Person.

Yet is there still a vast Difference between Souls in their Departure from this World; and this Difference wholly depends upon the real State and Condition of that significant

An Explanation of the Figures.

Character, which was spoken of before ; for those Souls that have attained it in this Life to Perfection, or in other Words, those that here have put on the Heavenly Substantiality of Jesus Christ, meet with no Obstacle in their Passage. Those in whom that Character is more or less defective, meet with more or less Impediment ; and those that have nothing at all of it, cannot go any further than into that Region, which most significantly is called the Triangle in Nature. O that there were none such at all !

N U M B E R XIII.

When the third Hierarchy, which Lucifer destroyed and depopulated, shall be completely filled again with Inhabitants from the Children of Adam, Good and Evil shall be separated, Time shall be no more, and GOD shall be All in All. This third Hierarchy, which, for good Reasons, was always hitherto represented as inferior to those of Michael and Uriel, is now here exalted again above them in the supremest Place : For as the Hierarch Jesus Christ, being the Brightness of GOD the Father's Glory, and the express Image of his Person, excels all the Angels, and has by Inheritance obtained a more excellent Name than they, who are all to worship him, and to none of whom HE ever said, as HE did to him, Sit on my Right Hand, until I make thine Enemies thy Footstool, (Heb. 1.) so also all his Subjects in this Hierarchy, surpass all the Holy Angels in this, that they are Images of GOD, as manifested in all the three Principles, when the Holy Angels are only his Images, as HE was manifested in two of them : Wherefore also they are distinguished from the Angels by this peculiar Character which is not contrived by human Speculation, but is written in the Book of Nature by the Finger of God ; for it points directly, not only at the Creation of this third Principle in six Days ; but also at fallen and divorced Adam's Reunion with the Divine Virgin SOPHIA.

To those who are more like (though not in their outward Shape) the Animals of this World than Men, nothing is to be said of these and the like Things, because they are Spiritual, and must be Spiritually discerned.
