Job 42:7 After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite: "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.
Job 42:8 Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done."
Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what the LORD had told them; and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.
Job 42:10 And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.
Job 42:11 Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.
Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys.
Job 42:13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.
Job 42:14 He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch.
Job 42:15 In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.
Job 42:16 After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations.
Job 42:17 And Job died, old and full of days.
Psa 1:1 Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers;
Psa 1:2 but their delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law they meditate day and night.
Psa 1:3 They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper.
Psa 1:4 The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.
Psa 1:5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;
Psa 1:6 for the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.
Psa 2:1 Why do the nations conspire, and the peoples plot in vain?
Psa 2:2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and his anointed, saying,
Psa 2:3 "Let us burst their bonds asunder, and cast their cords from us."
Psa 2:4 He who sits in the heavens laughs; the LORD has them in derision.

Psa 2:5 Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury, saying,
Psa 2:6 "I have set my king on Zion, my holy hill."
Psa 2:7 I will tell of the decree of the LORD: He said to me, "You are my son; today I have begotten you.
Psa 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession.
Psa 2:9 You shall break them with a rod of iron, and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
Psa 2:10 Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth.
Psa 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear, with trembling
Psa 2:12 kiss his feet, or he will be angry, and you will perish in the way; for his wrath is quickly kindled. Happy are all who take refuge in him.
Psa 3:1 <A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.> O LORD, how many are my foes! Many are rising against me;
Psa 3:2 many are saying to me, "There is no help for you in God." Selah
Psa 3:3 But you, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.
Psa 3:4 I cry aloud to the LORD, and he answers me from his holy hill. Selah
Psa 3:5 I lie down and sleep; I wake again, for the LORD sustains me.
Psa 3:6 I am not afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around.
Psa 3:7 Rise up, O LORD! Deliver me, O my God! For you strike all my enemies on the cheek; you break the teeth of the wicked.
Psa 3:8 Deliverance belongs to the LORD; may your blessing be on your people! Selah
Psa 4:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.> Answer me when I call, O God of my right! You gave me room when I was in distress. Be gracious to me, and hear my prayer.
Psa 4:2 How long, you people, shall my honor suffer shame? How long will you love vain words, and seek after lies? Selah
Psa 4:3 But know that the LORD has set apart the faithful for himself; the LORD hears when I call to him.
Psa 4:4 When you are disturbed, do not sin; ponder it on your beds, and be silent. Selah
Psa 4:5 Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the LORD.
Psa 4:6 There are many who say, "O that we might see some good! Let the light of your face shine on us, O LORD!"
Psa 4:7 You have put gladness in my heart more than when their grain and wine abound.
Psa 4:8 I will both lie down and sleep in peace; for you alone, O LORD, make me lie down in safety.
Psa 5:1 <To the leader: for the flutes. A Psalm of David.> Give ear to my words, O LORD; give heed to my sighing.
Psa 5:2 Listen to the sound of my cry, my King and my God, for to you I pray.
Psa 5:3 O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice; in the morning I plead my case to you, and watch.
Psa 5:4 For you are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil will not sojourn with you.
Psa 5:5 The boastful will not stand before your eyes; you hate all evildoers.
Psa 5:6 You destroy those who speak lies; the LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful.
Psa 5:7 But I, through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house, I will bow down toward your holy temple in awe of you.
Psa 5:8 Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies; make your way straight before me.
Psa 5:9 For there is no truth in their mouths; their hearts are destruction; their throats are open graves; they flatter with their tongues.
Psa 5:10 Make them bear their guilt, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; because of their many transgressions cast them out, for they have rebelled against you.
Psa 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy. Spread your protection over them, so that those who love your name may exult in you.
Psa 5:12 For you bless the righteous, O LORD; you cover them with favor as with a shield.
Psa 6:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments; according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.> O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger, or discipline me in your wrath.
Psa 6:2 Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am languishing; O LORD, heal me, for my bones are shaking with terror.
Psa 6:3 My soul also is struck with terror, while you, O LORD-- how long?
Psa 6:4 Turn, O LORD, save my life; deliver me for the sake of your steadfast love.
Psa 6:5 For in death there is no remembrance of you; in Sheol who can give you praise?
Psa 6:6 I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; I drench my couch with my weeping.
Psa 6:7 My eyes waste away because of grief; they grow weak because of all my foes.
Psa 6:8 Depart from me, all you workers of evil, for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.
Psa 6:9 The LORD has heard my supplication; the LORD accepts my prayer.
Psa 6:10 All my enemies shall be ashamed and struck with terror; they shall turn back, and in a moment be put to shame.

Psa 7:1 <A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjaminite.> O LORD my God, in you I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers, and deliver me,

Psa 7:2 or like a lion they will tear me apart; they will drag me away, with no one to rescue.

Psa 7:3 O LORD my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands,

Psa 7:4 if I have repaid my ally with harm or plundered my foe without cause,

Psa 7:5 then let the enemy pursue and overtake me, trample my life to the ground, and lay my soul in the dust.

Selah

Psa 7:6 Rise up, O LORD, in your anger; lift yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake, O my God; you have appointed a judgment.

Psa 7:7 Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered around you, and over it take your seat on high.

Psa 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

Psa 7:9 O let the evil of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous, you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God.

Psa 7:10 God is my shield, who saves the upright in heart.

Psa 7:11 God is a righteous judge, and a God who has indignation every day.

Psa 7:12 If one does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and strung his bow;

Psa 7:13 he has prepared his deadly weapons, making his arrows fiery shafts.

Psa 7:14 See how they conceive evil, and are pregnant with mischief, and bring forth lies.

Psa 7:15 They make a pit, digging it out, and fall into the hole that they have made.

Psa 7:16 Their mischief returns upon their own heads, and on their own heads their violence descends.

Psa 7:17 I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

Psa 8:1 <To the leader: according to The Gittith. A Psalm of David.> O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.

Psa 8:2 Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

Psa 8:3 When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established;

Psa 8:4 what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?

Psa 8:5 Yet you have made them a little lower than God, and crowned them with glory and honor.

Psa 8:6 You have given them dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet,

Psa 8:7 all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,

Psa 8:8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Psa 8:9 O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Psa 9:1 <To the leader: according to Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.> I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

Psa 9:2 I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

Psa 9:3 When my enemies turned back, they stumbled and perished before you.

Psa 9:4 For you have maintained my just cause; you have sat on the throne giving righteous judgment.

Psa 9:5 You have rebuked the nations, you have destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name forever and ever.

Psa 9:6 The enemies have vanished in everlasting ruins; their cities you have rooted out; the very memory of them has perished.

Psa 9:7 But the LORD sits enthroned forever, he has established his throne for judgment.

Psa 9:8 He judges the world with righteousness; he judges the peoples with equity.

Psa 9:9 The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

Psa 9:10 And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

Psa 9:11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion. Declare his deeds among the peoples.

Psa 9:12 For he who avenges blood is mindful of them; he does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

Psa 9:13 Be gracious to me, O LORD. See what I suffer from those who hate me; you are the one who lifts me up from the gates of death,

Psa 9:14 so that I may recount all your praises, and, in the gates of daughter Zion, rejoice in your deliverance.

Psa 9:15 The nations have sunk in the pit that they made; in the net that they hid has their own foot been caught.

Psa 9:16 The LORD has made himself known, he has executed judgment; the wicked are snared in the work of their own hands. Higgaion. Selah

Psa 9:17 The wicked shall depart to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.

Psa 9:18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.

Psa 9:19 Rise up, O LORD! Do not let mortals prevail; let the nations be judged before you.

Psa 9:20 Put them in fear, O LORD; let the nations know that they are only human. Selah

Psa 10:1 Why, O LORD, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

Psa 10:2 In arrogance the wicked persecute the poor-- let them be caught in the schemes they have devised.

Psa 10:3 For the wicked boast of the desires of their heart, those greedy for gain curse and renounce the LORD.

Psa 10:4 In the pride of their countenance the wicked say, "God will not seek it out"; all their thoughts are, "There is no God."

Psa 10:5 Their ways prosper at all times; your judgments are on high, out of their sight; as for their foes, they scoff at them.

Psa 10:6 They think in their heart, "We shall not be moved; throughout all generations we shall not meet adversity."

Psa 10:7 Their mouths are filled with cursing and deceit and oppression; under their tongues are mischief and iniquity.

Psa 10:8 They sit in ambush in the villages; in hiding places they murder the innocent. Their eyes stealthily watch for the helpless;

Psa 10:9 they lurk in secret like a lion in its covert; they lurk that they may seize the poor; they seize the poor and drag them off in their net.

Psa 10:10 They stoop, they crouch, and the helpless fall by their might.

Psa 10:11 They think in their heart, "God has forgotten, he has hidden his face, he will never see it."

Psa 10:12 Rise up, O LORD; O God, lift up your hand; do not forget the oppressed.

Psa 10:13 Why do the wicked renounce God, and say in their hearts, "You will not call us to account"?

Psa 10:14 But you do see! Indeed you note trouble and grief, that you may take it into your hands; the helpless commit themselves to you; you have been the helper of the orphan.

Psa 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and evildoers; seek out their wickedness until you find none.

Psa 10:16 The LORD is king forever and ever; the nations shall perish from his land.

Psa 10:17 O LORD, you will hear the desire of the meek; you will strengthen their heart, you will incline your ear

Psa 10:18 to do justice for the orphan and the oppressed, so that those from earth may strike terror no more.

Psa 11:1 <To the leader. Of David.> In the LORD I take refuge; how can you say to me, "Flee like a bird to the mountains;

Psa 11:2 for look, the wicked bend the bow, they have fitted their arrow to the string, to shoot in the dark at the upright in heart.

Psa 11:3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?"

Psa 11:4 The LORD is in his holy temple; the LORD's throne is in heaven. His eyes behold, his gaze examines humankind.

Psa 11:5 The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked, and his soul hates the lover of violence.

Psa 11:6 On the wicked he will rain coals of fire and sulfur; a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.

Psa 11:7 For the LORD is righteous; he loves righteous deeds; the upright shall behold his face.

Psa 12:1 <To the leader: according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.> Help, O LORD, for there is no longer anyone who is godly; the faithful have disappeared from humankind.

Psa 12:2 They utter lies to each other; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

Psa 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts,

Psa 12:4 those who say, "With our tongues we will prevail; our lips are our own-- who is our master?"

Psa 12:5 "Because the poor are despoiled, because the needy groan, I will now rise up," says the LORD; "I will place them in the safety for which they long."

Psa 12:6 The promises of the LORD are promises that are pure, silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.

Psa 12:7 You, O LORD, will protect us; you will guard us from this generation forever.

Psa 12:8 On every side the wicked prowl, as vileness is exalted among humankind.

Psa 13:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

Psa 13:2 How long must I bear pain in my soul, and have sorrow in my heart all day long? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

Psa 13:3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God! Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death,

Psa 13:4 and my enemy will say, "I have prevailed"; my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.

Psa 13:5 But I trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

Psa 13:6 I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Psa 14:1 <To the leader. Of David.> Fools say in their hearts, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds; there is no one who does good.

Psa 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on humankind to see if there are any who are wise, who seek after God.

Psa 14:3 They have all gone astray, they are all alike perverse; there is no one who does good, no, not one.

Psa 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call upon the LORD?

Psa 14:5 There they shall be in great terror, for God is with the company of the righteous.

Psa 14:6 You would confound the plans of the poor, but the LORD is their refuge.

Psa 14:7 O that deliverance for Israel would come from Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will rejoice; Israel will be glad.

Psa 15:1 <A Psalm of David.> O LORD, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy hill?

Psa 15:2 Those who walk blamelessly, and do what is right, and speak the truth from their heart;

Psa 15:3 who do not slander with their tongue, and do no evil to their friends, nor take up a reproach against their neighbors;

Psa 15:4 in whose eyes the wicked are despised, but who honor those who fear the LORD; who stand by their oath even to their hurt;

Psa 15:5 who do not lend money at interest, and do not take a bribe against the innocent. Those who do these things shall never be moved.

Psa 16:1 <A Mikdam of David.> Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

Psa 16:2 I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you."

Psa 16:3 As for the holy ones in the land, they are the noble, in whom is all my delight.

Psa 16:4 Those who choose another god multiply their sorrows; their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names upon my lips.

Psa 16:5 The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot.

Psa 16:6 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; I have a goodly heritage.

Psa 16:7 I bless the LORD who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me.

Psa 16:8 I keep the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Psa 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also rests secure.

Psa 16:10 For you do not give me up to Sheol, or let your faithful one see the Pit.

Psa 16:11 You show me the path of life. In your presence there is fullness of joy; in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Psa 17:1 <A Prayer of David.> Hear a just cause, O LORD; attend to my cry; give ear to my prayer from lips free of deceit.

Psa 17:2 From you let my vindication come; let your eyes see the right.

Psa 17:3 If you try my heart, if you visit me by night, if you test me, you will find no wickedness in me; my mouth does not transgress.

Psa 17:4 As for what others do, by the word of your lips I have avoided the ways of the violent.

Psa 17:5 My steps have held fast to your paths; my feet have not slipped.

Psa 17:6 I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God; incline your ear to me, hear my words.

Psa 17:7 Wondrously show your steadfast love, O savior of those who seek refuge from their adversaries at your right hand.

Psa 17:8 Guard me as the apple of the eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings,

Psa 17:9 from the wicked who despoil me, my deadly enemies who surround me.

Psa 17:10 They close their hearts to pity; with their mouths they speak arrogantly.

Psa 17:11 They track me down; now they surround me; they set their eyes to cast me to the ground.

Psa 17:12 They are like a lion eager to tear, like a young lion lurking in ambush.

Psa 17:13 Rise up, O LORD, confront them, overthrow them! By your sword deliver my life from the wicked, Psa 17:14 from mortals-- by your hand, O LORD-- from mortals whose portion in life is in this world. May their bellies be filled with what you have stored up for them; may their children have more than enough; may they leave something over to their little ones.

Psa 17:15 As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness; when I awake I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

Psa 18:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:> I love you, O LORD, my strength.

Psa 18:2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

Psa 18:3 I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, so I shall be saved from my enemies.

Psa 18:4 The cords of death encompassed me; the torrents of perdition assailed me;
Psa 18:5 the cords of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me.
Psa 18:6 In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I cried for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him reached his ears.
Psa 18:7 Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations also of the mountains trembled and quaked, because he was angry.
Psa 18:8 Smoke went up from his nostrils, and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him.
Psa 18:9 He bowed the heavens, and came down; thick darkness was under his feet.
Psa 18:10 He rode on a cherub, and flew; he came swiftly upon the wings of the wind.
Psa 18:11 He made darkness his covering around him, his canopy thick clouds dark with water.
Psa 18:12 Out of the brightness before him there broke through his clouds hailstones and coals of fire.
Psa 18:13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice.
Psa 18:14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; he flashed forth lightnings, and routed them.
Psa 18:15 Then the channels of the sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
Psa 18:16 He reached down from on high, he took me; he drew me out of mighty waters.
Psa 18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
Psa 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity; but the LORD was my support.
Psa 18:19 He brought me out into a broad place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.
Psa 18:20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.
Psa 18:21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
Psa 18:22 For all his ordinances were before me, and his statutes I did not put away from me.
Psa 18:23 I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.
Psa 18:24 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.
Psa 18:25 With the loyal you show yourself loyal; with the blameless you show yourself blameless;
Psa 18:26 with the pure you show yourself pure; and with the crooked you show yourself perverse.
Psa 18:27 For you deliver a humble people, but the haughty eyes you bring down.
Psa 18:28 It is you who light my lamp; the LORD, my God, lights up my darkness.
Psa 18:29 By you I can crush a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall.
Psa 18:30 This God-- his way is perfect; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all who take refuge in him.
Psa 18:31 For who is God except the LORD? And who is a rock besides our God?--
Psa 18:32 the God who girded me with strength, and made my way safe.
Psa 18:33 He made my feet like the feet of a deer, and set me secure on the heights.
Psa 18:34 He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
Psa 18:35 You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your right hand has supported me; your help has made me great.
Psa 18:36 You gave me a wide place for my steps under me, and my feet did not slip.
Psa 18:37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them; and did not turn back until they were consumed.
Psa 18:38 I struck them down, so that they were not able to rise; they fell under my feet.
Psa 18:39 For you girded me with strength for the battle; you made my assailants sink under me.
Psa 18:40 You made my enemies turn their backs to me, and those who hated me I destroyed.
Psa 18:41 They cried for help, but there was no one to save them; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.
Psa 18:42 I beat them fine, like dust before the wind; I cast them out like the mire of the streets.
Psa 18:43 You delivered me from strife with the peoples; you made me head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.
Psa 18:44 As soon as they heard of me they obeyed me; foreigners came cringing to me.
Psa 18:45 Foreigners lost heart, and came trembling out of their strongholds.
Psa 18:46 The LORD lives! Blessed be my rock, and exalted be the God of my salvation,
Psa 18:47 the God who gave me vengeance and subdued peoples under me;
Psa 18:48 who delivered me from my enemies; indeed, you exalted me above my adversaries; you delivered me from the violent.
Psa 18:49 For this I will extol you, O LORD, among the nations, and sing praises to your name.
Psa 18:50 Great triumphs he gives to his king, and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.

Psa 19:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork.

Psa 19:2 Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge.

Psa 19:3 There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard;

Psa 19:4 yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In the heavens he has set a tent for the sun,

Psa 19:5 which comes out like a bridegroom from his wedding canopy, and like a strong man runs its course with joy.

Psa 19:6 Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them; and nothing is hid from its heat.

Psa 19:7 The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the decrees of the LORD are sure, making wise the simple;

Psa 19:8 the precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eyes;

Psa 19:9 the fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

Psa 19:10 More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb.

Psa 19:11 Moreover by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

Psa 19:12 But who can detect their errors? Clear me from hidden faults.

Psa 19:13 Keep back your servant also from the insolent; do not let them have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression.

Psa 19:14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

Psa 20:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> The LORD answer you in the day of trouble! The name of the God of Jacob protect you!

Psa 20:2 May he send you help from the sanctuary, and give you support from Zion.

Psa 20:3 May he remember all your offerings, and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices. Selah

Psa 20:4 May he grant you your heart's desire, and fulfill all your plans.

Psa 20:5 May we shout for joy over your victory, and in the name of our God set up our banners. May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

Psa 20:6 Now I know that the LORD will help his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with mighty victories by his right hand.

Psa 20:7 Some take pride in chariots, and some in horses, but our pride is in the name of the LORD our God.

Psa 20:8 They will collapse and fall, but we shall rise and stand upright.

Psa 20:9 Give victory to the king, O LORD; answer us when we call.

Psa 21:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> In your strength the king rejoices, O LORD, and in your help how greatly he exults!

Psa 21:2 You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah

Psa 21:3 For you meet him with rich blessings; you set a crown of fine gold on his head.

Psa 21:4 He asked you for life; you gave it to him-- length of days forever and ever.

Psa 21:5 His glory is great through your help; splendor and majesty you bestow on him.

Psa 21:6 You bestow on him blessings forever; you make him glad with the joy of your presence.

Psa 21:7 For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.

Psa 21:8 Your hand will find out all your enemies; your right hand will find out those who hate you.

Psa 21:9 You will make them like a fiery furnace when you appear. The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath, and fire will consume them.

Psa 21:10 You will destroy their offspring from the earth, and their children from among humankind.

Psa 21:11 If they plan evil against you, if they devise mischief, they will not succeed.

Psa 21:12 For you will put them to flight; you will aim at their faces with your bows.

Psa 21:13 Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength! We will sing and praise your power.

Psa 22:1 <To the leader: according to The Deer of the Dawn. A Psalm of David.> My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?

Psa 22:2 O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer; and by night, but find no rest.

Psa 22:3 Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

Psa 22:4 In you our ancestors trusted; they trusted, and you delivered them.

Psa 22:5 To you they cried, and were saved; in you they trusted, and were not put to shame.

Psa 22:6 But I am a worm, and not human; scorned by others, and despised by the people.
Psa 22:7 All who see me mock at me; they make mouths at me, they shake their heads;
Psa 22:8 "Commit your cause to the LORD; let him deliver-- let him rescue the one in whom he delights!"
Psa 22:9 Yet it was you who took me from the womb; you kept me safe on my mother's breast.
Psa 22:10 On you I was cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me you have been my God.
Psa 22:11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.
Psa 22:12 Many bulls encircle me, strong bulls of Bashan surround me;
Psa 22:13 they open wide their mouths at me, like a ravening and roaring lion.
Psa 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast;
Psa 22:15 my mouth is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death.
Psa 22:16 For dogs are all around me; a company of evildoers encircles me. My hands and feet have shriveled;
Psa 22:17 I can count all my bones. They stare and gloat over me;
Psa 22:18 they divide my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.
Psa 22:19 But you, O LORD, do not be far away! O my help, come quickly to my aid!
Psa 22:20 Deliver my soul from the sword, my life from the power of the dog!
Psa 22:21 Save me from the mouth of the lion! From the horns of the wild oxen you have rescued me.
Psa 22:22 I will tell of your name to my brothers and sisters; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
Psa 22:23 You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him; stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!
Psa 22:24 For he did not despise or abhor the affliction of the afflicted; he did not hide his face from me, but heard when I cried to him.
Psa 22:25 From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will pay before those who fear him.
Psa 22:26 The poor shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the LORD. May your hearts live forever!
Psa 22:27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD; and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.
Psa 22:28 For dominion belongs to the LORD, and he rules over the nations.
Psa 22:29 To him, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, and I shall live for him.
Psa 22:30 Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord,
Psa 22:31 and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that he has done it.
Psa 23:1 <A Psalm of David.> The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.
Psa 23:2 He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters;
Psa 23:3 he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.
Psa 23:4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff-- they comfort me.
Psa 23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD my whole life long.
Psa 24:1 <Of David. A Psalm.> The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it;
Psa 24:2 for he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.
Psa 24:3 Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place?
Psa 24:4 Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false, and do not swear deceitfully.
Psa 24:5 They will receive blessing from the LORD, and vindication from the God of their salvation.
Psa 24:6 Such is the company of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. Selah
Psa 24:7 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
Psa 24:8 Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle.
Psa 24:9 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
Psa 24:10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah
Psa 25:1 <Of David.> To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
Psa 25:2 O my God, in you I trust; do not let me be put to shame; do not let my enemies exult over me.
Psa 25:3 Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame; let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.
Psa 25:4 Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths.
Psa 25:5 Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long.

Psa 25:6 Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.
Psa 25:7 Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for your goodness' sake, O LORD!
Psa 25:8 Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.
Psa 25:9 He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.
Psa 25:10 All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.
Psa 25:11 For your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my guilt, for it is great.
Psa 25:12 Who are they that fear the LORD? He will teach them the way that they should choose.
Psa 25:13 They will abide in prosperity, and their children shall possess the land.
Psa 25:14 The friendship of the LORD is for those who fear him, and he makes his covenant known to them.
Psa 25:15 My eyes are ever toward the LORD, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.
Psa 25:16 Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.
Psa 25:17 Relieve the troubles of my heart, and bring me out of my distress.
Psa 25:18 Consider my affliction and my trouble, and forgive all my sins.
Psa 25:19 Consider how many are my foes, and with what violent hatred they hate me.
Psa 25:20 O guard my life, and deliver me; do not let me be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.
Psa 25:21 May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.
Psa 25:22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all its troubles.
Psa 26:1 <Of David.> Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity, and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
Psa 26:2 Prove me, O LORD, and try me; test my heart and mind.
Psa 26:3 For your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in faithfulness to you.
Psa 26:4 I do not sit with the worthless, nor do I consort with hypocrites;
Psa 26:5 I hate the company of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.
Psa 26:6 I wash my hands in innocence, and go around your altar, O LORD,
Psa 26:7 singing aloud a song of thanksgiving, and telling all your wondrous deeds.
Psa 26:8 O LORD, I love the house in which you dwell, and the place where your glory abides.
Psa 26:9 Do not sweep me away with sinners, nor my life with the bloodthirsty,
Psa 26:10 those in whose hands are evil devices, and whose right hands are full of bribes.
Psa 26:11 But as for me, I walk in my integrity; redeem me, and be gracious to me.
Psa 26:12 My foot stands on level ground; in the great congregation I will bless the LORD.
Psa 27:1 <Of David.> The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
Psa 27:2 When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh-- my adversaries and foes-- they shall stumble and fall.
Psa 27:3 Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war rise up against me, yet I will be confident.
Psa 27:4 One thing I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.
Psa 27:5 For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will set me high on a rock.
Psa 27:6 Now my head is lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.
Psa 27:7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud, be gracious to me and answer me!
Psa 27:8 "Come," my heart says, "seek his face!" Your face, LORD, do I seek.
Psa 27:9 Do not hide your face from me. Do not turn your servant away in anger, you who have been my help. Do not cast me off, do not forsake me, O God of my salvation!
Psa 27:10 If my father and mother forsake me, the LORD will take me up.
Psa 27:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies.
Psa 27:12 Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen against me, and they are breathing out violence.
Psa 27:13 I believe that I shall see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.
Psa 27:14 Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!
Psa 28:1 <Of David.> To you, O LORD, I call; my rock, do not refuse to hear me, for if you are silent to me, I shall be like those who go down to the Pit.
Psa 28:2 Hear the voice of my supplication, as I cry to you for help, as I lift up my hands toward your most holy sanctuary.
Psa 28:3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with those who are workers of evil, who speak peace with their neighbors, while mischief is in their hearts.

Psa 28:4 Repay them according to their work, and according to the evil of their deeds; repay them according to the work of their hands; render them their due reward.

Psa 28:5 Because they do not regard the works of the LORD, or the work of his hands, he will break them down and build them up no more.

Psa 28:6 Blessed be the LORD, for he has heard the sound of my pleadings.

Psa 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts; so I am helped, and my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

Psa 28:8 The LORD is the strength of his people; he is the saving refuge of his anointed.

Psa 28:9 O save your people, and bless your heritage; be their shepherd, and carry them forever.

Psa 29:1 <A Psalm of David.> Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

Psa 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name; worship the LORD in holy splendor.

Psa 29:3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD, over mighty waters.

Psa 29:4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

Psa 29:5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

Psa 29:6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young wild ox.

Psa 29:7 The voice of the LORD flashes forth flames of fire.

Psa 29:8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

Psa 29:9 The voice of the LORD causes the oaks to whirl, and strips the forest bare; and in his temple all say, "Glory!"

Psa 29:10 The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD sits enthroned as king forever.

Psa 29:11 May the LORD give strength to his people! May the LORD bless his people with peace!

Psa 30:1 <A Psalm. A Song at the dedication of the temple. Of David.> I will extol you, O LORD, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.

Psa 30:2 O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.

Psa 30:3 O LORD, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

Psa 30:4 Sing praises to the LORD, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

Psa 30:5 For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Psa 30:6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."

Psa 30:7 By your favor, O LORD, you had established me as a strong mountain; you hid your face; I was dismayed.

Psa 30:8 To you, O LORD, I cried, and to the LORD I made supplication:

Psa 30:9 "What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the Pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it tell of your faithfulness?"

Psa 30:10 Hear, O LORD, and be gracious to me! O LORD, be my helper!"

Psa 30:11 You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,

Psa 30:12 so that my soul may praise you and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

Psa 31:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> In you, O LORD, I seek refuge; do not let me ever be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me.

Psa 31:2 Incline your ear to me; rescue me speedily. Be a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me.

Psa 31:3 You are indeed my rock and my fortress; for your name's sake lead me and guide me,

Psa 31:4 take me out of the net that is hidden for me, for you are my refuge.

Psa 31:5 Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God.

Psa 31:6 You hate those who pay regard to worthless idols, but I trust in the LORD.

Psa 31:7 I will exult and rejoice in your steadfast love, because you have seen my affliction; you have taken heed of my adversities,

Psa 31:8 and have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy; you have set my feet in a broad place.

Psa 31:9 Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eye wastes away from grief, my soul and body also.

Psa 31:10 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my misery, and my bones waste away.

Psa 31:11 I am the scorn of all my adversaries, a horror to my neighbors, an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street flee from me.

Psa 31:12 I have passed out of mind like one who is dead; I have become like a broken vessel.

Psa 31:13 For I hear the whispering of many-- terror all around!-- as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life.

Psa 31:14 But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, "You are my God."
Psa 31:15 My times are in your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors.
Psa 31:16 Let your face shine upon your servant; save me in your steadfast love.
Psa 31:17 Do not let me be put to shame, O LORD, for I call on you; let the wicked be put to shame; let them go dumbfounded to Sheol.
Psa 31:18 Let the lying lips be stilled that speak insolently against the righteous with pride and contempt.
Psa 31:19 O how abundant is your goodness that you have laid up for those who fear you, and accomplished for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of everyone!
Psa 31:20 In the shelter of your presence you hide them from human plots; you hold them safe under your shelter from contentious tongues.
Psa 31:21 Blessed be the LORD, for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me when I was beset as a city under siege.
Psa 31:22 I had said in my alarm, "I am driven far from your sight." But you heard my supplications when I cried out to you for help.
Psa 31:23 Love the LORD, all you his saints. The LORD preserves the faithful, but abundantly repays the one who acts haughtily.
Psa 31:24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the LORD.
Psa 32:1 <Of David. A Maskil.> Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
Psa 32:2 Happy are those to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
Psa 32:3 While I kept silence, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.
Psa 32:4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.
Selah
Psa 32:5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD," and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah
Psa 32:6 Therefore let all who are faithful offer prayer to you; at a time of distress, the rush of mighty waters shall not reach them.
Psa 32:7 You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with glad cries of deliverance. Selah
Psa 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you.
Psa 32:9 Do not be like a horse or a mule, without understanding, whose temper must be curbed with bit and bridle, else it will not stay near you.
Psa 32:10 Many are the torments of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds those who trust in the LORD.
Psa 32:11 Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart.
Psa 33:1 Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous. Praise befits the upright.
Psa 33:2 Praise the LORD with the lyre; make melody to him with the harp of ten strings.
Psa 33:3 Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts.
Psa 33:4 For the word of the LORD is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness.
Psa 33:5 He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.
Psa 33:6 By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and all their host by the breath of his mouth.
Psa 33:7 He gathered the waters of the sea as in a bottle; he put the deeps in storehouses.
Psa 33:8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
Psa 33:9 For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.
Psa 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.
Psa 33:11 The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
Psa 33:12 Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage.
Psa 33:13 The LORD looks down from heaven; he sees all humankind.
Psa 33:14 From where he sits enthroned he watches all the inhabitants of the earth--
Psa 33:15 he who fashions the hearts of them all, and observes all their deeds.
Psa 33:16 A king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.
Psa 33:17 The war horse is a vain hope for victory, and by its great might it cannot save.
Psa 33:18 Truly the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love,
Psa 33:19 to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
Psa 33:20 Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and shield.
Psa 33:21 Our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.
Psa 33:22 Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you.
Psa 34:1 <Of David, when he feigned madness before Abimelech, so that he drove him out, and he went away.> I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
Psa 34:2 My soul makes its boast in the LORD; let the humble hear and be glad.
Psa 34:3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

Psa 34:4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.
Psa 34:5 Look to him, and be radiant; so your faces shall never be ashamed.
Psa 34:6 This poor soul cried, and was heard by the LORD, and was saved from every trouble.
Psa 34:7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
Psa 34:8 O taste and see that the LORD is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.
Psa 34:9 O fear the LORD, you his holy ones, for those who fear him have no want.
Psa 34:10 The young lions suffer want and hunger, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
Psa 34:11 Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
Psa 34:12 Which of you desires life, and covets many days to enjoy good?
Psa 34:13 Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking deceit.
Psa 34:14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.
Psa 34:15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry.
Psa 34:16 The face of the LORD is against evildoers, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
Psa 34:17 When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears, and rescues them from all their troubles.
Psa 34:18 The LORD is near to the brokenhearted, and saves the crushed in spirit.
Psa 34:19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD rescues them from them all.
Psa 34:20 He keeps all their bones; not one of them will be broken.
Psa 34:21 Evil brings death to the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
Psa 34:22 The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.
Psa 35:1 <Of David.> Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me!
Psa 35:2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise up to help me!
Psa 35:3 Draw the spear and javelin against my pursuers; say to my soul, "I am your salvation."
Psa 35:4 Let them be put to shame and dishonor who seek after my life. Let them be turned back and confounded who devise evil against me.
Psa 35:5 Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them on.
Psa 35:6 Let their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
Psa 35:7 For without cause they hid their net for me; without cause they dug a pit for my life.
Psa 35:8 Let ruin come on them unawares. And let the net that they hid ensnare them; let them fall in it-- to their ruin.
Psa 35:9 Then my soul shall rejoice in the LORD, exulting in his deliverance.
Psa 35:10 All my bones shall say, "O LORD, who is like you? You deliver the weak from those too strong for them, the weak and needy from those who despoil them."
Psa 35:11 Malicious witnesses rise up; they ask me about things I do not know.
Psa 35:12 They repay me evil for good; my soul is forlorn.
Psa 35:13 But as for me, when they were sick, I wore sackcloth; I afflicted myself with fasting. I prayed with head bowed on my bosom,
Psa 35:14 as though I grieved for a friend or a brother; I went about as one who laments for a mother, bowed down and in mourning.
Psa 35:15 But at my stumbling they gathered in glee, they gathered together against me; ruffians whom I did not know tore at me without ceasing;
Psa 35:16 they impiously mocked more and more, gnashing at me with their teeth.
Psa 35:17 How long, O LORD, will you look on? Rescue me from their ravages, my life from the lions!
Psa 35:18 Then I will thank you in the great congregation; in the mighty throng I will praise you.
Psa 35:19 Do not let my treacherous enemies rejoice over me, or those who hate me without cause wink the eye.
Psa 35:20 For they do not speak peace, but they conceive deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.
Psa 35:21 They open wide their mouths against me; they say, "Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it."
Psa 35:22 You have seen, O LORD; do not be silent! O Lord, do not be far from me!
Psa 35:23 Wake up! Bestir yourself for my defense, for my cause, my God and my Lord!
Psa 35:24 Vindicate me, O LORD, my God, according to your righteousness, and do not let them rejoice over me.
Psa 35:25 Do not let them say to themselves, "Aha, we have our heart's desire." Do not let them say, "We have swallowed you up."
Psa 35:26 Let all those who rejoice at my calamity be put to shame and confusion; let those who exalt themselves against me be clothed with shame and dishonor.
Psa 35:27 Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad, and say evermore, "Great is the LORD, who delights in the welfare of his servant."

Psa 35:28 Then my tongue shall tell of your righteousness and of your praise all day long.

Psa 36:1 <To the leader. Of David, the servant of the LORD.> Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in their hearts; there is no fear of God before their eyes.

Psa 36:2 For they flatter themselves in their own eyes that their iniquity cannot be found out and hated.

Psa 36:3 The words of their mouths are mischief and deceit; they have ceased to act wisely and do good.

Psa 36:4 They plot mischief while on their beds; they are set on a way that is not good; they do not reject evil.

Psa 36:5 Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

Psa 36:6 Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your judgments are like the great deep; you save humans and animals alike, O LORD.

Psa 36:7 How precious is your steadfast love, O God! All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

Psa 36:8 They feast on the abundance of your house, and you give them drink from the river of your delights.

Psa 36:9 For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.

Psa 36:10 O continue your steadfast love to those who know you, and your salvation to the upright of heart!

Psa 36:11 Do not let the foot of the arrogant tread on me, or the hand of the wicked drive me away.

Psa 36:12 There the evildoers lie prostrate; they are thrust down, unable to rise.

Psa 37:1 <Of David.> Do not fret because of the wicked; do not be envious of wrongdoers, Psa 37:2 for they will soon fade like the grass, and wither like the green herb.

Psa 37:3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so you will live in the land, and enjoy security.

Psa 37:4 Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Psa 37:5 Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act.

Psa 37:6 He will make your vindication shine like the light, and the justice of your cause like the noonday.

Psa 37:7 Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for him; do not fret over those who prosper in their way, over those who carry out evil devices.

Psa 37:8 Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath. Do not fret-- it leads only to evil.

Psa 37:9 For the wicked shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the land.

Psa 37:10 Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look diligently for their place, they will not be there.

Psa 37:11 But the meek shall inherit the land, and delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

Psa 37:12 The wicked plot against the righteous, and gnash their teeth at them;

Psa 37:13 but the LORD laughs at the wicked, for he sees that their day is coming.

Psa 37:14 The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows to bring down the poor and needy, to kill those who walk uprightly;

Psa 37:15 their sword shall enter their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

Psa 37:16 Better is a little that the righteous person has than the abundance of many wicked.

Psa 37:17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.

Psa 37:18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will abide forever;

Psa 37:19 they are not put to shame in evil times, in the days of famine they have abundance.

Psa 37:20 But the wicked perish, and the enemies of the LORD are like the glory of the pastures; they vanish-- like smoke they vanish away.

Psa 37:21 The wicked borrow, and do not pay back, but the righteous are generous and keep giving;

Psa 37:22 for those blessed by the LORD shall inherit the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off.

Psa 37:23 Our steps are made firm by the LORD, when he delights in our way;

Psa 37:24 though we stumble, we shall not fall headlong, for the LORD holds us by the hand.

Psa 37:25 I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

Psa 37:26 They are ever giving liberally and lending, and their children become a blessing.

Psa 37:27 Depart from evil, and do good; so you shall abide forever.

Psa 37:28 For the LORD loves justice; he will not forsake his faithful ones. The righteous shall be kept safe forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

Psa 37:29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and live in it forever.

Psa 37:30 The mouths of the righteous utter wisdom, and their tongues speak justice.

Psa 37:31 The law of their God is in their hearts; their steps do not slip.

Psa 37:32 The wicked watch for the righteous, and seek to kill them.

Psa 37:33 The LORD will not abandon them to their power, or let them be condemned when they are brought to trial.

Psa 37:34 Wait for the LORD, and keep to his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land; you will look on the destruction of the wicked.

Psa 37:35 I have seen the wicked oppressing, and towering like a cedar of Lebanon.

Psa 37:36 Again I passed by, and they were no more; though I sought them, they could not be found.

Psa 37:37 Mark the blameless, and behold the upright, for there is posterity for the peaceable.
Psa 37:38 But transgressors shall be altogether destroyed; the posterity of the wicked shall be cut off.
Psa 37:39 The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; he is their refuge in the time of trouble.
Psa 37:40 The LORD helps them and rescues them; he rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, because they take refuge in him.
Psa 38:1 <A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.> O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger, or discipline me in your wrath.
Psa 38:2 For your arrows have sunk into me, and your hand has come down on me.
Psa 38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin.
Psa 38:4 For my iniquities have gone over my head; they weigh like a burden too heavy for me.
Psa 38:5 My wounds grow foul and fester because of my foolishness;
Psa 38:6 I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; all day long I go around mourning.
Psa 38:7 For my loins are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.
Psa 38:8 I am utterly spent and crushed; I groan because of the tumult of my heart.
Psa 38:9 O Lord, all my longing is known to you; my sighing is not hidden from you.
Psa 38:10 My heart throbs, my strength fails me; as for the light of my eyes-- it also has gone from me.
Psa 38:11 My friends and companions stand aloof from my affliction, and my neighbors stand far off.
Psa 38:12 Those who seek my life lay their snares; those who seek to hurt me speak of ruin, and meditate treachery all day long.
Psa 38:13 But I am like the deaf, I do not hear; like the mute, who cannot speak.
Psa 38:14 Truly, I am like one who does not hear, and in whose mouth is no retort.
Psa 38:15 But it is for you, O LORD, that I wait; it is you, O Lord my God, who will answer.
Psa 38:16 For I pray, "Only do not let them rejoice over me, those who boast against me when my foot slips."
Psa 38:17 For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever with me.
Psa 38:18 I confess my iniquity; I am sorry for my sin.
Psa 38:19 Those who are my foes without cause are mighty, and many are those who hate me wrongfully.
Psa 38:20 Those who render me evil for good are my adversaries because I follow after good.
Psa 38:21 Do not forsake me, O LORD; O my God, do not be far from me;
Psa 38:22 make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation.
Psa 39:1 <To the leader: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.> I said, "I will guard my ways that I may not sin with my tongue; I will keep a muzzle on my mouth as long as the wicked are in my presence."
Psa 39:2 I was silent and still; I held my peace to no avail; my distress grew worse,
Psa 39:3 my heart became hot within me. While I mused, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:
Psa 39:4 "LORD, let me know my end, and what is the measure of my days; let me know how fleeting my life is.
Psa 39:5 You have made my days a few handbreadths, and my lifetime is as nothing in your sight. Surely everyone stands as a mere breath. Selah
Psa 39:6 Surely everyone goes about like a shadow. Surely for nothing they are in turmoil; they heap up, and do not know who will gather.
Psa 39:7 "And now, O Lord, what do I wait for? My hope is in you.
Psa 39:8 Deliver me from all my transgressions. Do not make me the scorn of the fool.
Psa 39:9 I am silent; I do not open my mouth, for it is you who have done it.
Psa 39:10 Remove your stroke from me; I am worn down by the blows of your hand.
Psa 39:11 "You chastise mortals in punishment for sin, consuming like a moth what is dear to them; surely everyone is a mere breath. Selah Psa 39:12 "Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry; do not hold your peace at my tears. For I am your passing guest, an alien, like all my forebears.
Psa 39:13 Turn your gaze away from me, that I may smile again, before I depart and am no more."
Psa 40:1 <To the leader. Of David. A Psalm.> I waited patiently for the LORD; he inclined to me and heard my cry.
Psa 40:2 He drew me up from the desolate pit, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure.
Psa 40:3 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the LORD.
Psa 40:4 Happy are those who make the LORD their trust, who do not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after false gods.
Psa 40:5 You have multiplied, O LORD my God, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can compare with you. Were I to proclaim and tell of them, they would be more than can be counted.
Psa 40:6 Sacrifice and offering you do not desire, but you have given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required.

Psa 40:7 Then I said, "Here I am; in the scroll of the book it is written of me.

Psa 40:8 I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."

Psa 40:9 I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation; see, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O LORD.

Psa 40:10 I have not hidden your saving help within my heart, I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation.

Psa 40:11 Do not, O LORD, withhold your mercy from me; let your steadfast love and your faithfulness keep me safe forever.

Psa 40:12 For evils have encompassed me without number; my iniquities have overtaken me, until I cannot see; they are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me.

Psa 40:13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me; O LORD, make haste to help me.

Psa 40:14 Let all those be put to shame and confusion who seek to snatch away my life; let those be turned back and brought to dishonor who desire my hurt.

Psa 40:15 Let those be appalled because of their shame who say to me, "Aha, Aha!"

Psa 40:16 But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation say continually, "Great is the LORD!"

Psa 40:17 As for me, I am poor and needy, but the Lord takes thought for me. You are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God.

Psa 41:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> Happy are those who consider the poor; the LORD delivers them in the day of trouble.

Psa 41:2 The LORD protects them and keeps them alive; they are called happy in the land. You do not give them up to the will of their enemies.

Psa 41:3 The LORD sustains them on their sickbed; in their illness you heal all their infirmities.

Psa 41:4 As for me, I said, "O LORD, be gracious to me; heal me, for I have sinned against you."

Psa 41:5 My enemies wonder in malice when I will die, and my name perish.

Psa 41:6 And when they come to see me, they utter empty words, while their hearts gather mischief; when they go out, they tell it abroad.

Psa 41:7 All who hate me whisper together about me; they imagine the worst for me.

Psa 41:8 They think that a deadly thing has fastened on me, that I will not rise again from where I lie.

Psa 41:9 Even my bosom friend in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread, has lifted the heel against me.

Psa 41:10 But you, O LORD, be gracious to me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.

Psa 41:11 By this I know that you are pleased with me; because my enemy has not triumphed over me.

Psa 41:12 But you have upheld me because of my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.

Psa 41:13 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

Psa 42:1 <To the leader. A Maskil of the Korahites.> As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

Psa 42:2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?

Psa 42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

Psa 42:4 These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

Psa 42:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help

Psa 42:6 and my God. My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

Psa 42:7 Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your cataracts; all your waves and your billows have gone over me.

Psa 42:8 By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

Psa 42:9 I say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why must I walk about mournfully because the enemy oppresses me?"

Psa 42:10 As with a deadly wound in my body, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

Psa 42:11 Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

Psa 43:1 Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; from those who are deceitful and unjust deliver me!

Psa 43:2 For you are the God in whom I take refuge; why have you cast me off? Why must I walk about mournfully because of the oppression of the enemy?

Psa 43:3 O send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

Psa 43:4 Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy; and I will praise you with the harp, O God, my God.

Psa 43:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

Psa 44:1 <To the leader. Of the Korahites. A Maskil.> We have heard with our ears, O God, our ancestors have told us, what deeds you performed in their days, in the days of old:

Psa 44:2 you with your own hand drove out the nations, but them you planted; you afflicted the peoples, but them you set free;

Psa 44:3 for not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm give them victory; but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your countenance, for you delighted in them.

Psa 44:4 You are my King and my God; you command victories for Jacob.

Psa 44:5 Through you we push down our foes; through your name we tread down our assailants.

Psa 44:6 For not in my bow do I trust, nor can my sword save me.

Psa 44:7 But you have saved us from our foes, and have put to confusion those who hate us.

Psa 44:8 In God we have boasted continually, and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah

Psa 44:9 Yet you have rejected us and abased us, and have not gone out with our armies.

Psa 44:10 You made us turn back from the foe, and our enemies have gotten spoil.

Psa 44:11 You have made us like sheep for slaughter, and have scattered us among the nations.

Psa 44:12 You have sold your people for a trifle, demanding no high price for them.

Psa 44:13 You have made us the taunt of our neighbors, the derision and scorn of those around us.

Psa 44:14 You have made us a byword among the nations, a laughingstock among the peoples.

Psa 44:15 All day long my disgrace is before me, and shame has covered my face

Psa 44:16 at the words of the taunters and revilers, at the sight of the enemy and the avenger.

Psa 44:17 All this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten you, or been false to your covenant.

Psa 44:18 Our heart has not turned back, nor have our steps departed from your way,

Psa 44:19 yet you have broken us in the haunt of jackals, and covered us with deep darkness.

Psa 44:20 If we had forgotten the name of our God, or spread out our hands to a strange god,

Psa 44:21 would not God discover this? For he knows the secrets of the heart.

Psa 44:22 Because of you we are being killed all day long, and accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

Psa 44:23 Rouse yourself! Why do you sleep, O Lord? Awake, do not cast us off forever!

Psa 44:24 Why do you hide your face? Why do you forget our affliction and oppression?

Psa 44:25 For we sink down to the dust; our bodies cling to the ground.

Psa 44:26 Rise up, come to our help. Redeem us for the sake of your steadfast love.

Psa 45:1 <To the leader: according to Lilies. Of the Korahites. A Maskil. A love song.> My heart overflows with a goodly theme; I address my verses to the king; my tongue is like the pen of a ready scribe.

Psa 45:2 You are the most handsome of men; grace is poured upon your lips; therefore God has blessed you forever.

Psa 45:3 Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one, in your glory and majesty.

Psa 45:4 In your majesty ride on victoriously for the cause of truth and to defend the right; let your right hand teach you dread deeds.

Psa 45:5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; the peoples fall under you.

Psa 45:6 Your throne, O God, endures forever and ever. Your royal scepter is a scepter of equity;

Psa 45:7 you love righteousness and hate wickedness. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions;

Psa 45:8 your robes are all fragrant with myrrh and aloes and cassia. From ivory palaces stringed instruments make you glad;

Psa 45:9 daughters of kings are among your ladies of honor; at your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

Psa 45:10 Hear, O daughter, consider and incline your ear; forget your people and your father's house,

Psa 45:11 and the king will desire your beauty. Since he is your lord, bow to him;

Psa 45:12 the people of Tyre will seek your favor with gifts, the richest of the people

Psa 45:13 with all kinds of wealth. The princess is decked in her chamber with gold-woven robes;

Psa 45:14 in many-colored robes she is led to the king; behind her the virgins, her companions, follow.

Psa 45:15 With joy and gladness they are led along as they enter the palace of the king.

Psa 45:16 In the place of ancestors you, O king, shall have sons; you will make them princes in all the earth.

Psa 45:17 I will cause your name to be celebrated in all generations; therefore the peoples will praise you forever and ever.

Psa 46:1 <To the leader. Of the Korahites. According to Alamo. A Song.> God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Psa 46:2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;

Psa 46:3 though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult. Selah

Psa 46:4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

Psa 46:5 God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved; God will help it when the morning dawns.

Psa 46:6 The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice, the earth melts.

Psa 46:7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Psa 46:8 Come, behold the works of the LORD; see what desolations he has brought on the earth.

Psa 46:9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear; he burns the shields with fire.

Psa 46:10 "Be still, and know that I am God! I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth."

Psa 46:11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Psa 47:1 <To the leader. Of the Korahites. A Psalm.> Clap your hands, all you peoples; shout to God with loud songs of joy.

Psa 47:2 For the LORD, the Most High, is awesome, a great king over all the earth.

Psa 47:3 He subdued peoples under us, and nations under our feet.

Psa 47:4 He chose our heritage for us, the pride of Jacob whom he loves. Selah

Psa 47:5 God has gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

Psa 47:6 Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our King, sing praises.

Psa 47:7 For God is the king of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm.

Psa 47:8 God is king over the nations; God sits on his holy throne.

Psa 47:9 The princes of the peoples gather as the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God; he is highly exalted.

Psa 48:1 <A Song. A Psalm of the Korahites.> Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God. His holy mountain, Psa 48:2 beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.

Psa 48:3 Within its citadels God has shown himself a sure defense.

Psa 48:4 Then the kings assembled, they came on together.

Psa 48:5 As soon as they saw it, they were astounded; they were in panic, they took to flight;

Psa 48:6 trembling took hold of them there, pains as of a woman in labor,

Psa 48:7 as when an east wind shatters the ships of Tarshish.

Psa 48:8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God, which God establishes forever. Selah

Psa 48:9 We ponder your steadfast love, O God, in the midst of your temple.

Psa 48:10 Your name, O God, like your praise, reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is filled with victory.

Psa 48:11 Let Mount Zion be glad, let the towns of Judah rejoice because of your judgments.

Psa 48:12 Walk about Zion, go all around it, count its towers,

Psa 48:13 consider well its ramparts; go through its citadels, that you may tell the next generation

Psa 48:14 that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will be our guide forever.

Psa 49:1 <To the leader. Of the Korahites. A Psalm.> Hear this, all you peoples; give ear, all inhabitants of the world,

Psa 49:2 both low and high, rich and poor together.

Psa 49:3 My mouth shall speak wisdom; the meditation of my heart shall be understanding.

Psa 49:4 I will incline my ear to a proverb; I will solve my riddle to the music of the harp.

Psa 49:5 Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of my persecutors surrounds me,

Psa 49:6 those who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches?

Psa 49:7 Truly, no ransom avails for one's life, there is no price one can give to God for it.

Psa 49:8 For the ransom of life is costly, and can never suffice

Psa 49:9 that one should live on forever and never see the grave.

Psa 49:10 When we look at the wise, they die; fool and dolt perish together and leave their wealth to others.

Psa 49:11 Their graves are their homes forever, their dwelling places to all generations, though they named lands their own.

Psa 49:12 Mortals cannot abide in their pomp; they are like the animals that perish.

Psa 49:13 Such is the fate of the foolhardy, the end of those who are pleased with their lot. Selah

Psa 49:14 Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd; straight to the grave they descend, and their form shall waste away; Sheol shall be their home.

Psa 49:15 But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. Selah
Psa 49:16 Do not be afraid when some become rich, when the wealth of their houses increases.
Psa 49:17 For when they die they will carry nothing away; their wealth will not go down after them.
Psa 49:18 Though in their lifetime they count themselves happy-- for you are praised when you do well for yourself--
Psa 49:19 they will go to the company of their ancestors, who will never again see the light.
Psa 49:20 Mortals cannot abide in their pomp; they are like the animals that perish.
Psa 50:1 <A Psalm of Asaph.> The mighty one, God the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
Psa 50:2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.
Psa 50:3 Our God comes and does not keep silence, before him is a devouring fire, and a mighty tempest all around him.
Psa 50:4 He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his people:
Psa 50:5 "Gather to me my faithful ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!"
Psa 50:6 The heavens declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge. Selah
Psa 50:7 "Hear, O my people, and I will speak, O Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God.
Psa 50:8 Not for your sacrifices do I rebuke you; your burnt offerings are continually before me.
Psa 50:9 I will not accept a bull from your house, or goats from your folds.
Psa 50:10 For every wild animal of the forest is mine, the cattle on a thousand hills.
Psa 50:11 I know all the birds of the air, and all that moves in the field is mine.
Psa 50:12 "If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world and all that is in it is mine.
Psa 50:13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
Psa 50:14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.
Psa 50:15 Call on me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me."
Psa 50:16 But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to recite my statutes, or take my covenant on your lips?
Psa 50:17 For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you.
Psa 50:18 You make friends with a thief when you see one, and you keep company with adulterers.
Psa 50:19 "You give your mouth free rein for evil, and your tongue frames deceit.
Psa 50:20 You sit and speak against your kin; you slander your own mother's child.
Psa 50:21 These things you have done and I have been silent; you thought that I was one just like yourself. But now I rebuke you, and lay the charge before you.
Psa 50:22 "Mark this, then, you who forget God, or I will tear you apart, and there will be no one to deliver.
Psa 50:23 Those who bring thanksgiving as their sacrifice honor me; to those who go the right way I will show the salvation of God."
Psa 51:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David, when the prophet Nathan came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.> Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.
Psa 51:2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
Psa 51:3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.
Psa 51:4 Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are justified in your sentence and blameless when you pass judgment.
Psa 51:5 Indeed, I was born guilty, a sinner when my mother conceived me.
Psa 51:6 You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.
Psa 51:7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
Psa 51:8 Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have crushed rejoice.
Psa 51:9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
Psa 51:10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.
Psa 51:11 Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me.
Psa 51:12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit.
Psa 51:13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you.
Psa 51:14 Deliver me from bloodshed, O God, O God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of your deliverance.
Psa 51:15 O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
Psa 51:16 For you have no delight in sacrifice; if I were to give a burnt offering, you would not be pleased.
Psa 51:17 The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
Psa 51:18 Do good to Zion in your good pleasure; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, Psa 51:19 then you will delight in right sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

Psa 52:1 <To the leader. A Maskil of David, when Doeg the Edomite came to Saul and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."> Why do you boast, O mighty one, of mischief done against the godly? All day long Psa 52:2 you are plotting destruction. Your tongue is like a sharp razor, you worker of treachery.

Psa 52:3 You love evil more than good, and lying more than speaking the truth. Selah

Psa 52:4 You love all words that devour, O deceitful tongue.

Psa 52:5 But God will break you down forever; he will snatch and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah

Psa 52:6 The righteous will see, and fear, and will laugh at the evildoer, saying,

Psa 52:7 "See the one who would not take refuge in God, but trusted in abundant riches, and sought refuge in wealth!"

Psa 52:8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.

Psa 52:9 I will thank you forever, because of what you have done. In the presence of the faithful I will proclaim your name, for it is good.

Psa 53:1 <To the leader: according to Mahalath. A Maskil of David.> Fools say in their hearts, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they commit abominable acts; there is no one who does good.

Psa 53:2 God looks down from heaven on humankind to see if there are any who are wise, who seek after God.

Psa 53:3 They have all fallen away, they are all alike perverse; there is no one who does good, no, not one.

Psa 53:4 Have they no knowledge, those evildoers, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call upon God?

Psa 53:5 There they shall be in great terror, in terror such as has not been. For God will scatter the bones of the ungodly; they will be put to shame, for God has rejected them.

Psa 53:6 O that deliverance for Israel would come from Zion! When God restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will rejoice; Israel will be glad.

Psa 54:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, "David is in hiding among us."> Save me, O God, by your name, and vindicate me by your might.

Psa 54:2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

Psa 54:3 For the insolent have risen against me, the ruthless seek my life; they do not set God before them. Selah

Psa 54:4 But surely, God is my helper; the Lord is the upholder of my life.

Psa 54:5 He will repay my enemies for their evil. In your faithfulness, put an end to them.

Psa 54:6 With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to you; I will give thanks to your name, O LORD, for it is good.

Psa 54:7 For he has delivered me from every trouble, and my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Psa 55:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.> Give ear to my prayer, O God; do not hide yourself from my supplication.

Psa 55:2 Attend to me, and answer me; I am troubled in my complaint. I am distraught

Psa 55:3 by the noise of the enemy, because of the clamor of the wicked. For they bring trouble upon me, and in anger they cherish enmity against me.

Psa 55:4 My heart is in anguish within me, the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

Psa 55:5 Fear and trembling come upon me, and horror overwhelms me.

Psa 55:6 And I say, "O that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest;

Psa 55:7 truly, I would flee far away; I would lodge in the wilderness; Selah

Psa 55:8 I would hurry to find a shelter for myself from the raging wind and tempest."

Psa 55:9 Confuse, O Lord, confound their speech; for I see violence and strife in the city.

Psa 55:10 Day and night they go around it on its walls, and iniquity and trouble are within it;

Psa 55:11 ruin is in its midst; oppression and fraud do not depart from its marketplace.

Psa 55:12 It is not enemies who taunt me-- I could bear that; it is not adversaries who deal insolently with me-- I could hide from them.

Psa 55:13 But it is you, my equal, my companion, my familiar friend,

Psa 55:14 with whom I kept pleasant company; we walked in the house of God with the throng.

Psa 55:15 Let death come upon them; let them go down alive to Sheol; for evil is in their homes and in their hearts.

Psa 55:16 But I call upon God, and the LORD will save me.

Psa 55:17 Evening and morning and at noon I utter my complaint and moan, and he will hear my voice.

Psa 55:18 He will redeem me unharmed from the battle that I wage, for many are arrayed against me.

Psa 55:19 God, who is enthroned from of old, Selah will hear, and will humble them-- because they do not change, and do not fear God.

Psa 55:20 My companion laid hands on a friend and violated a covenant with me
Psa 55:21 with speech smoother than butter, but with a heart set on war; with words that were softer than oil, but in fact were drawn swords.
Psa 55:22 Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved.
Psa 55:23 But you, O God, will cast them down into the lowest pit; the bloodthirsty and treacherous shall not live out half their days. But I will trust in you.
Psa 56:1 <To the leader: according to The Dove on Far-off Terebinths. Of David. A Miktam, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.> Be gracious to me, O God, for people trample on me; all day long foes oppress me;
Psa 56:2 my enemies trample on me all day long, for many fight against me. O Most High,
Psa 56:3 when I am afraid, I put my trust in you.
Psa 56:4 In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I am not afraid; what can flesh do to me?
Psa 56:5 All day long they seek to injure my cause; all their thoughts are against me for evil.
Psa 56:6 They stir up strife, they lurk, they watch my steps. As they hoped to have my life,
Psa 56:7 so repay them for their crime; in wrath cast down the peoples, O God!
Psa 56:8 You have kept count of my tossings; put my tears in your bottle. Are they not in your record?
Psa 56:9 Then my enemies will retreat in the day when I call. This I know, that God is for me.
Psa 56:10 In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise,
Psa 56:11 in God I trust; I am not afraid. What can a mere mortal do to me?
Psa 56:12 My vows to you I must perform, O God; I will render thank offerings to you.
Psa 56:13 For you have delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling, so that I may walk before God in the light of life.
Psa 57:1 <To the leader: Do Not Destroy. Of David. A Miktam, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.> Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in you my soul takes refuge; in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge, until the destroying storms pass by.
Psa 57:2 I cry to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me.
Psa 57:3 He will send from heaven and save me, he will put to shame those who trample on me. Selah God will send forth his steadfast love and his faithfulness.
Psa 57:4 I lie down among lions that greedily devour human prey; their teeth are spears and arrows, their tongues sharp swords.
Psa 57:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. Let your glory be over all the earth.
Psa 57:6 They set a net for my steps; my soul was bowed down. They dug a pit in my path, but they have fallen into it themselves. Selah
Psa 57:7 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast. I will sing and make melody.
Psa 57:8 Awake, my soul! Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn.
Psa 57:9 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations.
Psa 57:10 For your steadfast love is as high as the heavens; your faithfulness extends to the clouds.
Psa 57:11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. Let your glory be over all the earth.
Psa 58:1 <To the leader: Do Not Destroy. Of David. A Miktam.> Do you indeed decree what is right, you gods? Do you judge people fairly?
Psa 58:2 No, in your hearts you devise wrongs; your hands deal out violence on earth.
Psa 58:3 The wicked go astray from the womb; they err from their birth, speaking lies.
Psa 58:4 They have venom like the venom of a serpent, like the deaf adder that stops its ear,
Psa 58:5 so that it does not hear the voice of charmers or of the cunning enchanter.
Psa 58:6 O God, break the teeth in their mouths; tear out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD!
Psa 58:7 Let them vanish like water that runs away; like grass let them be trodden down and wither.
Psa 58:8 Let them be like the snail that dissolves into slime; like the untimely birth that never sees the sun.
Psa 58:9 Sooner than your pots can feel the heat of thorns, whether green or ablaze, may he sweep them away!
Psa 58:10 The righteous will rejoice when they see vengeance done; they will bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.
Psa 58:11 People will say, "Surely there is a reward for the righteous; surely there is a God who judges on earth."
Psa 59:1 <To the leader: Do Not Destroy. Of David. A Miktam, when Saul ordered his house to be watched in order to kill him.> Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; protect me from those who rise up against me.
Psa 59:2 Deliver me from those who work evil; from the bloodthirsty save me.
Psa 59:3 Even now they lie in wait for my life; the mighty stir up strife against me. For no transgression or sin of mine, O LORD,
Psa 59:4 for no fault of mine, they run and make ready. Rouse yourself, come to my help and see!

Psa 59:5 You, LORD God of hosts, are God of Israel. Awake to punish all the nations; spare none of those who treacherously plot evil. Selah

Psa 59:6 Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city.

Psa 59:7 There they are, bellowing with their mouths, with sharp words on their lips-- for "Who," they think, "will hear us?"

Psa 59:8 But you laugh at them, O LORD; you hold all the nations in derision.

Psa 59:9 O my strength, I will watch for you; for you, O God, are my fortress.

Psa 59:10 My God in his steadfast love will meet me; my God will let me look in triumph on my enemies.

Psa 59:11 Do not kill them, or my people may forget; make them totter by your power, and bring them down, O Lord, our shield.

Psa 59:12 For the sin of their mouths, the words of their lips, let them be trapped in their pride. For the cursing and lies that they utter,

Psa 59:13 consume them in wrath; consume them until they are no more. Then it will be known to the ends of the earth that God rules over Jacob. Selah

Psa 59:14 Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city.

Psa 59:15 They roam about for food, and growl if they do not get their fill.

Psa 59:16 But I will sing of your might; I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning. For you have been a fortress for me and a refuge in the day of my distress.

Psa 59:17 O my strength, I will sing praises to you, for you, O God, are my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love.

Psa 60:1 <To the leader: according to the Lily of the Covenant. A Miktam of David; for instruction; when he struggled with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and when Joab on his return killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.> O God, you have rejected us, broken our defenses; you have been angry; now restore us!

Psa 60:2 You have caused the land to quake; you have torn it open; repair the cracks in it, for it is tottering.

Psa 60:3 You have made your people suffer hard things; you have given us wine to drink that made us reel.

Psa 60:4 You have set up a banner for those who fear you, to rally to it out of bowshot. Selah

Psa 60:5 Give victory with your right hand, and answer us, so that those whom you love may be rescued.

Psa 60:6 God has promised in his sanctuary: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem, and portion out the Vale of Succoth.

Psa 60:7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet; Judah is my scepter.

Psa 60:8 Moab is my washbasin; on Edom I hurl my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph."

Psa 60:9 Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psa 60:10 Have you not rejected us, O God? You do not go out, O God, with our armies.

Psa 60:11 O grant us help against the foe, for human help is worthless.

Psa 60:12 With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes.

Psa 61:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments. Of David.> Hear my cry, O God; listen to my prayer.

Psa 61:2 From the end of the earth I call to you, when my heart is faint. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I;

Psa 61:3 for you are my refuge, a strong tower against the enemy.

Psa 61:4 Let me abide in your tent forever, find refuge under the shelter of your wings. Selah

Psa 61:5 For you, O God, have heard my vows; you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

Psa 61:6 Prolong the life of the king; may his years endure to all generations!

Psa 61:7 May he be enthroned forever before God; appoint steadfast love and faithfulness to watch over him!

Psa 61:8 So I will always sing praises to your name, as I pay my vows day after day.

Psa 62:1 <To the leader: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.> For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation.

Psa 62:2 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall never be shaken.

Psa 62:3 How long will you assail a person, will you batter your victim, all of you, as you would a leaning wall, a tottering fence?

Psa 62:4 Their only plan is to bring down a person of prominence. They take pleasure in falsehood; they bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse. Selah

Psa 62:5 For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him.

Psa 62:6 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

Psa 62:7 On God rests my deliverance and my honor; my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.

Psa 62:8 Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah

Psa 62:9 Those of low estate are but a breath, those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath.

Psa 62:10 Put no confidence in extortion, and set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

Psa 62:11 Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God,
Psa 62:12 and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord. For you repay to all according to their work.
Psa 63:1 <A Psalm of David, when he was in the Wilderness of Judah.> O God, you are my God, I seek you, my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.
Psa 63:2 So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory.
Psa 63:3 Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you.
Psa 63:4 So I will bless you as long as I live; I will lift up my hands and call on your name.
Psa 63:5 My soul is satisfied as with a rich feast, and my mouth praises you with joyful lips
Psa 63:6 when I think of you on my bed, and meditate on you in the watches of the night;
Psa 63:7 for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I sing for joy.
Psa 63:8 My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.
Psa 63:9 But those who seek to destroy my life shall go down into the depths of the earth;
Psa 63:10 they shall be given over to the power of the sword, they shall be prey for jackals.
Psa 63:11 But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall exult, for the mouths of liars will be stopped.
Psa 64:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint; preserve my life from the dread enemy.
Psa 64:2 Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked, from the scheming of evildoers,
Psa 64:3 who whet their tongues like swords, who aim bitter words like arrows,
Psa 64:4 shooting from ambush at the blameless; they shoot suddenly and without fear.
Psa 64:5 They hold fast to their evil purpose; they talk of laying snares secretly, thinking, "Who can see us?
Psa 64:6 Who can search out our crimes? We have thought out a cunningly conceived plot." For the human heart and mind are deep.
Psa 64:7 But God will shoot his arrow at them; they will be wounded suddenly.
Psa 64:8 Because of their tongue he will bring them to ruin; all who see them will shake with horror.
Psa 64:9 Then everyone will fear; they will tell what God has brought about, and ponder what he has done.
Psa 64:10 Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him. Let all the upright in heart glory.
Psa 65:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David. A Song.> Praise is due to you, O God, in Zion; and to you shall vows be performed,
Psa 65:2 O you who answer prayer! To you all flesh shall come.
Psa 65:3 When deeds of iniquity overwhelm us, you forgive our transgressions.
Psa 65:4 Happy are those whom you choose and bring near to live in your courts. We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, your holy temple.
Psa 65:5 By awesome deeds you answer us with deliverance, O God of our salvation; you are the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas.
Psa 65:6 By your strength you established the mountains; you are girded with might.
Psa 65:7 You silence the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples.
Psa 65:8 Those who live at earth's farthest bounds are awed by your signs; you make the gateways of the morning and the evening shout for joy.
Psa 65:9 You visit the earth and water it, you greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; you provide the people with grain, for so you have prepared it.
Psa 65:10 You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth.
Psa 65:11 You crown the year with your bounty; your wagon tracks overflow with richness.
Psa 65:12 The pastures of the wilderness overflow, the hills gird themselves with joy, Psa 65:13 the meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.
Psa 66:1 <To the leader. A Song. A Psalm.> Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
Psa 66:2 sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise.
Psa 66:3 Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds! Because of your great power, your enemies cringe before you.
Psa 66:4 All the earth worships you; they sing praises to you, sing praises to your name." Selah
Psa 66:5 Come and see what God has done: he is awesome in his deeds among mortals.
Psa 66:6 He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot. There we rejoiced in him,
Psa 66:7 who rules by his might forever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations-- let the rebellious not exalt themselves. Selah
Psa 66:8 Bless our God, O peoples, let the sound of his praise be heard,
Psa 66:9 who has kept us among the living, and has not let our feet slip.
Psa 66:10 For you, O God, have tested us; you have tried us as silver is tried.

Psa 66:11 You brought us into the net; you laid burdens on our backs;
Psa 66:12 you let people ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water; yet you have brought us out to a spacious place.
Psa 66:13 I will come into your house with burnt offerings; I will pay you my vows,
Psa 66:14 those that my lips uttered and my mouth promised when I was in trouble.
Psa 66:15 I will offer to you burnt offerings of fatlings, with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams; I will make an offering of bulls and goats. Selah
Psa 66:16 Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for me.
Psa 66:17 I cried aloud to him, and he was extolled with my tongue.
Psa 66:18 If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.
Psa 66:19 But truly God has listened; he has given heed to the words of my prayer.
Psa 66:20 Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me.
Psa 67:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.> May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, Selah
Psa 67:2 that your way may be known upon earth, your saving power among all nations.
Psa 67:3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.
Psa 67:4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. Selah
Psa 67:5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.
Psa 67:6 The earth has yielded its increase; God, our God, has blessed us.
Psa 67:7 May God continue to bless us; let all the ends of the earth revere him.
Psa 68:1 <To the leader. Of David. A Psalm. A Song.> Let God rise up, let his enemies be scattered; let those who hate him flee before him.
Psa 68:2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away; as wax melts before the fire, let the wicked perish before God.
Psa 68:3 But let the righteous be joyful; let them exult before God; let them be jubilant with joy.
Psa 68:4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides upon the clouds-- his name is the LORD-- be exultant before him.
Psa 68:5 Father of orphans and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation.
Psa 68:6 God gives the desolate a home to live in; he leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious live in a parched land.
Psa 68:7 O God, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, Selah
Psa 68:8 the earth quaked, the heavens poured down rain at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
Psa 68:9 Rain in abundance, O God, you showered abroad; you restored your heritage when it languished;
Psa 68:10 your flock found a dwelling in it; in your goodness, O God, you provided for the needy.
Psa 68:11 The Lord gives the command; great is the company of those who bore the tidings:
Psa 68:12 "The kings of the armies, they flee, they flee!" The women at home divide the spoil,
Psa 68:13 though they stay among the sheepfolds-- the wings of a dove covered with silver, its pinions with green gold.
Psa 68:14 When the Almighty scattered kings there, snow fell on Zalmon.
Psa 68:15 O mighty mountain, mountain of Bashan; O many-peaked mountain, mountain of Bashan!
Psa 68:16 Why do you look with envy, O many-peaked mountain, at the mount that God desired for his abode, where the LORD will reside forever?
Psa 68:17 With mighty chariotry, twice ten thousand, thousands upon thousands, the Lord came from Sinai into the holy place.
Psa 68:18 You ascended the high mount, leading captives in your train and receiving gifts from people, even from those who rebel against the LORD God's abiding there.
Psa 68:19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation. Selah
Psa 68:20 Our God is a God of salvation, and to GOD, the Lord, belongs escape from death.
Psa 68:21 But God will shatter the heads of his enemies, the hairy crown of those who walk in their guilty ways.
Psa 68:22 The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan, I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,
Psa 68:23 so that you may bathe your feet in blood, so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from the foe."
Psa 68:24 Your solemn processions are seen, O God, the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary--
Psa 68:25 the singers in front, the musicians last, between them girls playing tambourines:
Psa 68:26 "Bless God in the great congregation, the LORD, O you who are of Israel's fountain!"
Psa 68:27 There is Benjamin, the least of them, in the lead, the princes of Judah in a body, the princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.

Psa 68:28 Summon your might, O God; show your strength, O God, as you have done for us before.
Psa 68:29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem kings bear gifts to you.
Psa 68:30 Rebuke the wild animals that live among the reeds, the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples. Trample under foot those who lust after tribute; scatter the peoples who delight in war.
Psa 68:31 Let bronze be brought from Egypt; let Ethiopia hasten to stretch out its hands to God.
Psa 68:32 Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; sing praises to the Lord, Selah
Psa 68:33 O rider in the heavens, the ancient heavens; listen, he sends out his voice, his mighty voice.
Psa 68:34 Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel; and whose power is in the skies.
Psa 68:35 Awesome is God in his sanctuary, the God of Israel; he gives power and strength to his people. Blessed be God!

Psa 69:1 <To the leader: according to Lilies. Of David.> Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck.
Psa 69:2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold; I have come into deep waters, and the flood sweeps over me.
Psa 69:3 I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched. My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God.
Psa 69:4 More in number than the hairs of my head are those who hate me without cause; many are those who would destroy me, my enemies who accuse me falsely. What I did not steal must I now restore?
Psa 69:5 O God, you know my folly; the wrongs I have done are not hidden from you.
Psa 69:6 Do not let those who hope in you be put to shame because of me, O Lord GOD of hosts; do not let those who seek you be dishonored because of me, O God of Israel.
Psa 69:7 It is for your sake that I have borne reproach, that shame has covered my face.
Psa 69:8 I have become a stranger to my kindred, an alien to my mother's children.
Psa 69:9 It is zeal for your house that has consumed me; the insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.
Psa 69:10 When I humbled my soul with fasting, they insulted me for doing so.
Psa 69:11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.
Psa 69:12 I am the subject of gossip for those who sit in the gate, and the drunkards make songs about me.
Psa 69:13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD. At an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of your steadfast love, answer me. With your faithful help
Psa 69:14 rescue me from sinking in the mire; let me be delivered from my enemies and from the deep waters.
Psa 69:15 Do not let the flood sweep over me, or the deep swallow me up, or the Pit close its mouth over me.
Psa 69:16 Answer me, O LORD, for your steadfast love is good; according to your abundant mercy, turn to me.
Psa 69:17 Do not hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress-- make haste to answer me.
Psa 69:18 Draw near to me, redeem me, set me free because of my enemies.
Psa 69:19 You know the insults I receive, and my shame and dishonor; my foes are all known to you.
Psa 69:20 Insults have broken my heart, so that I am in despair. I looked for pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.
Psa 69:21 They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
Psa 69:22 Let their table be a trap for them, a snare for their allies.
Psa 69:23 Let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and make their loins tremble continually.
Psa 69:24 Pour out your indignation upon them, and let your burning anger overtake them.
Psa 69:25 May their camp be a desolation; let no one live in their tents.
Psa 69:26 For they persecute those whom you have struck down, and those whom you have wounded, they attack still more.
Psa 69:27 Add guilt to their guilt; may they have no acquittal from you.
Psa 69:28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; let them not be enrolled among the righteous.
Psa 69:29 But I am lowly and in pain; let your salvation, O God, protect me.
Psa 69:30 I will praise the name of God with a song; I will magnify him with thanksgiving.
Psa 69:31 This will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.
Psa 69:32 Let the oppressed see it and be glad; you who seek God, let your hearts revive.
Psa 69:33 For the LORD hears the needy, and does not despise his own that are in bonds.
Psa 69:34 Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and everything that moves in them.
Psa 69:35 For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah; and his servants shall live there and possess it;
Psa 69:36 the children of his servants shall inherit it, and those who love his name shall live in it.

Psa 70:1 <To the leader. Of David, for the memorial offering.> Be pleased, O God, to deliver me. O LORD, make haste to help me!
Psa 70:2 Let those be put to shame and confusion who seek my life. Let those be turned back and brought to dishonor who desire to hurt me.
Psa 70:3 Let those who say, "Aha, Aha!" turn back because of their shame.

Psa 70:4 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. Let those who love your salvation say evermore, "God is great!"

Psa 70:5 But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God! You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not delay!

Psa 71:1 In you, O LORD, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame.

Psa 71:2 In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me and save me.

Psa 71:3 Be to me a rock of refuge, a strong fortress, to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.

Psa 71:4 Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and cruel.

Psa 71:5 For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust, O LORD, from my youth.

Psa 71:6 Upon you I have leaned from my birth; it was you who took me from my mother's womb. My praise is continually of you.

Psa 71:7 I have been like a portent to many, but you are my strong refuge.

Psa 71:8 My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all day long.

Psa 71:9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age; do not forsake me when my strength is spent.

Psa 71:10 For my enemies speak concerning me, and those who watch for my life consult together.

Psa 71:11 They say, "Pursue and seize that person whom God has forsaken, for there is no one to deliver."

Psa 71:12 O God, do not be far from me; O my God, make haste to help me!

Psa 71:13 Let my accusers be put to shame and consumed; let those who seek to hurt me be covered with scorn and disgrace.

Psa 71:14 But I will hope continually, and will praise you yet more and more.

Psa 71:15 My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all day long, though their number is past my knowledge.

Psa 71:16 I will come praising the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD, I will praise your righteousness, yours alone.

Psa 71:17 O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.

Psa 71:18 So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to all the generations to come. Your power

Psa 71:19 and your righteousness, O God, reach the high heavens. You who have done great things, O God, who is like you?

Psa 71:20 You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth you will bring me up again.

Psa 71:21 You will increase my honor, and comfort me once again.

Psa 71:22 I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

Psa 71:23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you; my soul also, which you have rescued.

Psa 71:24 All day long my tongue will talk of your righteous help, for those who tried to do me harm have been put to shame, and disgraced.

Psa 72:1 <Of Solomon.> Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to a king's son.

Psa 72:2 May he judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.

Psa 72:3 May the mountains yield prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness.

Psa 72:4 May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the needy, and crush the oppressor.

Psa 72:5 May he live while the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

Psa 72:6 May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.

Psa 72:7 In his days may righteousness flourish and peace abound, until the moon is no more.

Psa 72:8 May he have dominion from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Psa 72:9 May his foes bow down before him, and his enemies lick the dust.

Psa 72:10 May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles render him tribute, may the kings of Sheba and Seba bring gifts.

Psa 72:11 May all kings fall down before him, all nations give him service.

Psa 72:12 For he delivers the needy when they call, the poor and those who have no helper.

Psa 72:13 He has pity on the weak and the needy, and saves the lives of the needy.

Psa 72:14 From oppression and violence he redeems their life; and precious is their blood in his sight.

Psa 72:15 Long may he live! May gold of Sheba be given to him. May prayer be made for him continually, and blessings invoked for him all day long.

Psa 72:16 May there be abundance of grain in the land; may it wave on the tops of the mountains; may its fruit be like Lebanon; and may people blossom in the cities like the grass of the field.

Psa 72:17 May his name endure forever, his fame continue as long as the sun. May all nations be blessed in him; may they pronounce him happy.

Psa 72:18 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.

Psa 72:19 Blessed be his glorious name forever; may his glory fill the whole earth. Amen and Amen.
Psa 72:20 The prayers of David son of Jesse are ended.
Psa 73:1 <A Psalm of Asaph.> Truly God is good to the upright, to those who are pure in heart.
Psa 73:2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled; my steps had nearly slipped.
Psa 73:3 For I was envious of the arrogant; I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
Psa 73:4 For they have no pain; their bodies are sound and sleek.
Psa 73:5 They are not in trouble as others are; they are not plagued like other people.
Psa 73:6 Therefore pride is their necklace; violence covers them like a garment.
Psa 73:7 Their eyes swell out with fatness; their hearts overflow with follies.
Psa 73:8 They scoff and speak with malice; loftily they threaten oppression.
Psa 73:9 They set their mouths against heaven, and their tongues range over the earth.
Psa 73:10 Therefore the people turn and praise them, and find no fault in them.
Psa 73:11 And they say, "How can God know? Is there knowledge in the Most High?"
Psa 73:12 Such are the wicked; always at ease, they increase in riches.
Psa 73:13 All in vain I have kept my heart clean and washed my hands in innocence.
Psa 73:14 For all day long I have been plagued, and am punished every morning.
Psa 73:15 If I had said, "I will talk on in this way," I would have been untrue to the circle of your children.
Psa 73:16 But when I thought how to understand this, it seemed to me a wearisome task,
Psa 73:17 until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I perceived their end.
Psa 73:18 Truly you set them in slippery places; you make them fall to ruin.
Psa 73:19 How they are destroyed in a moment, swept away utterly by terrors!
Psa 73:20 They are like a dream when one awakes; on awaking you despise their phantoms.
Psa 73:21 When my soul was embittered, when I was pricked in heart,
Psa 73:22 I was stupid and ignorant; I was like a brute beast toward you.
Psa 73:23 Nevertheless I am continually with you; you hold my right hand.
Psa 73:24 You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will receive me with honor.
Psa 73:25 Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire other than you.
Psa 73:26 My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
Psa 73:27 Indeed, those who are far from you will perish; you put an end to those who are false to you.
Psa 73:28 But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, to tell of all your works.
Psa 74:1 <A Maskil of Asaph.> O God, why do you cast us off forever? Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?
Psa 74:2 Remember your congregation, which you acquired long ago, which you redeemed to be the tribe of your heritage. Remember Mount Zion, where you came to dwell.
Psa 74:3 Direct your steps to the perpetual ruins; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary.
Psa 74:4 Your foes have roared within your holy place; they set up their emblems there.
Psa 74:5 At the upper entrance they hacked the wooden trellis with axes.
Psa 74:6 And then, with hatchets and hammers, they smashed all its carved work.
Psa 74:7 They set your sanctuary on fire; they desecrated the dwelling place of your name, bringing it to the ground.
Psa 74:8 They said to themselves, "We will utterly subdue them"; they burned all the meeting places of God in the land.
Psa 74:9 We do not see our emblems; there is no longer any prophet, and there is no one among us who knows how long.
Psa 74:10 How long, O God, is the foe to scoff? Is the enemy to revile your name forever?
Psa 74:11 Why do you hold back your hand; why do you keep your hand in your bosom?
Psa 74:12 Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the earth.
Psa 74:13 You divided the sea by your might; you broke the heads of the dragons in the waters.
Psa 74:14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan; you gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.
Psa 74:15 You cut openings for springs and torrents; you dried up ever-flowing streams.
Psa 74:16 Yours is the day, yours also the night; you established the luminaries and the sun.
Psa 74:17 You have fixed all the bounds of the earth; you made summer and winter.
Psa 74:18 Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy scoffs, and an impious people reviles your name.
Psa 74:19 Do not deliver the soul of your dove to the wild animals; do not forget the life of your poor forever.
Psa 74:20 Have regard for your covenant, for the dark places of the land are full of the haunts of violence.
Psa 74:21 Do not let the downtrodden be put to shame; let the poor and needy praise your name.
Psa 74:22 Rise up, O God, plead your cause; remember how the impious scoff at you all day long.
Psa 74:23 Do not forget the clamor of your foes, the uproar of your adversaries that goes up continually.
Psa 75:1 <To the leader: Do Not Destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.> We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks; your name is near. People tell of your wondrous deeds.

Psa 75:2 At the set time that I appoint I will judge with equity.

Psa 75:3 When the earth totters, with all its inhabitants, it is I who keep its pillars steady. Selah

Psa 75:4 I say to the boastful, "Do not boast," and to the wicked, "Do not lift up your horn;

Psa 75:5 do not lift up your horn on high, or speak with insolent neck."

Psa 75:6 For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up;

Psa 75:7 but it is God who executes judgment, putting down one and lifting up another.

Psa 75:8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup with foaming wine, well mixed; he will pour a draught from it, and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

Psa 75:9 But I will rejoice forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

Psa 75:10 All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Psa 76:1 <To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.> In Judah God is known, his name is great in Israel.

Psa 76:2 His abode has been established in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion.

Psa 76:3 There he broke the flashing arrows, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war. Selah

Psa 76:4 Glorious are you, more majestic than the everlasting mountains.

Psa 76:5 The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil; they sank into sleep; none of the troops was able to lift a hand.

Psa 76:6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse lay stunned.

Psa 76:7 But you indeed are awesome! Who can stand before you when once your anger is roused?

Psa 76:8 From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still

Psa 76:9 when God rose up to establish judgment, to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

Psa 76:10 Human wrath serves only to praise you, when you bind the last bit of your wrath around you.

Psa 76:11 Make vows to the LORD your God, and perform them; let all who are around him bring gifts to the one who is awesome,

Psa 76:12 who cuts off the spirit of princes, who inspires fear in the kings of the earth.

Psa 77:1 <To the leader: according to Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A Psalm.> I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, that he may hear me.

Psa 77:2 In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord; in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying; my soul refuses to be comforted.

Psa 77:3 I think of God, and I moan; I meditate, and my spirit faints. Selah

Psa 77:4 You keep my eyelids from closing; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Psa 77:5 I consider the days of old, and remember the years of long ago.

Psa 77:6 I commune with my heart in the night; I meditate and search my spirit:

Psa 77:7 "Will the Lord spurn forever, and never again be favorable?

Psa 77:8 Has his steadfast love ceased forever? Are his promises at an end for all time?

Psa 77:9 Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his compassion?" Selah

Psa 77:10 And I say, "It is my grief that the right hand of the Most High has changed."

Psa 77:11 I will call to mind the deeds of the LORD; I will remember your wonders of old.

Psa 77:12 I will meditate on all your work, and muse on your mighty deeds.

Psa 77:13 Your way, O God, is holy. What god is so great as our God?

Psa 77:14 You are the God who works wonders; you have displayed your might among the peoples.

Psa 77:15 With your strong arm you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

Psa 77:16 When the waters saw you, O God, when the waters saw you, they were afraid; the very deep trembled.

Psa 77:17 The clouds poured out water; the skies thundered; your arrows flashed on every side.

Psa 77:18 The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind; your lightnings lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook.

Psa 77:19 Your way was through the sea, your path, through the mighty waters; yet your footprints were unseen.

Psa 77:20 You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psa 78:1 <A Maskil of Asaph.> Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Psa 78:2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old,

Psa 78:3 things that we have heard and known, that our ancestors have told us.

Psa 78:4 We will not hide them from their children; we will tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

Psa 78:5 He established a decree in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach to their children;

Psa 78:6 that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and rise up and tell them to their children,

Psa 78:7 so that they should set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;

Psa 78:8 and that they should not be like their ancestors, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose heart was not steadfast, whose spirit was not faithful to God.

Psa 78:9 The Ephraimites, armed with the bow, turned back on the day of battle.

Psa 78:10 They did not keep God's covenant, but refused to walk according to his law.

Psa 78:11 They forgot what he had done, and the miracles that he had shown them.

Psa 78:12 In the sight of their ancestors he worked marvels in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

Psa 78:13 He divided the sea and let them pass through it, and made the waters stand like a heap.

Psa 78:14 In the daytime he led them with a cloud, and all night long with a fiery light.

Psa 78:15 He split rocks open in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as from the deep.

Psa 78:16 He made streams come out of the rock, and caused waters to flow down like rivers.

Psa 78:17 Yet they sinned still more against him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert.

Psa 78:18 They tested God in their heart by demanding the food they craved.

Psa 78:19 They spoke against God, saying, "Can God spread a table in the wilderness?"

Psa 78:20 Even though he struck the rock so that water gushed out and torrents overflowed, can he also give bread, or provide meat for his people?"

Psa 78:21 Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of rage; a fire was kindled against Jacob, his anger mounted against Israel, Psa 78:22 because they had no faith in God, and did not trust his saving power.

Psa 78:23 Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven;

Psa 78:24 he rained down on them manna to eat, and gave them the grain of heaven.

Psa 78:25 Mortals ate of the bread of angels; he sent them food in abundance.

Psa 78:26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens, and by his power he led out the south wind;

Psa 78:27 he rained flesh upon them like dust, winged birds like the sand of the seas;

Psa 78:28 he let them fall within their camp, all around their dwellings.

Psa 78:29 And they ate and were well filled, for he gave them what they craved.

Psa 78:30 But before they had satisfied their craving, while the food was still in their mouths,

Psa 78:31 the anger of God rose against them and he killed the strongest of them, and laid low the flower of Israel.

Psa 78:32 In spite of all this they still sinned; they did not believe in his wonders.

Psa 78:33 So he made their days vanish like a breath, and their years in terror.

Psa 78:34 When he killed them, they sought for him; they repented and sought God earnestly.

Psa 78:35 They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God their redeemer.

Psa 78:36 But they flattered him with their mouths; they lied to him with their tongues.

Psa 78:37 Their heart was not steadfast toward him; they were not true to his covenant.

Psa 78:38 Yet he, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them; often he restrained his anger, and did not stir up all his wrath.

Psa 78:39 He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes and does not come again.

Psa 78:40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert!

Psa 78:41 They tested God again and again, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

Psa 78:42 They did not keep in mind his power, or the day when he redeemed them from the foe;

Psa 78:43 when he displayed his signs in Egypt, and his miracles in the fields of Zoan.

Psa 78:44 He turned their rivers to blood, so that they could not drink of their streams.

Psa 78:45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them.

Psa 78:46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar, and the fruit of their labor to the locust.

Psa 78:47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamores with frost.

Psa 78:48 He gave over their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to thunderbolts.

Psa 78:49 He let loose on them his fierce anger, wrath, indignation, and distress, a company of destroying angels.

Psa 78:50 He made a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death, but gave their lives over to the plague.

Psa 78:51 He struck all the firstborn in Egypt, the first issue of their strength in the tents of Ham.

Psa 78:52 Then he led out his people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

Psa 78:53 He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

Psa 78:54 And he brought them to his holy hill, to the mountain that his right hand had won.

Psa 78:55 He drove out nations before them; he apportioned them for a possession and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

Psa 78:56 Yet they tested the Most High God, and rebelled against him. They did not observe his decrees, Psa 78:57 but turned away and were faithless like their ancestors; they twisted like a treacherous bow.

Psa 78:58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places; they moved him to jealousy with their idols.

Psa 78:59 When God heard, he was full of wrath, and he utterly rejected Israel.

Psa 78:60 He abandoned his dwelling at Shiloh, the tent where he dwelt among mortals,

Psa 78:61 and delivered his power to captivity, his glory to the hand of the foe.

Psa 78:62 He gave his people to the sword, and vented his wrath on his heritage.

Psa 78:63 Fire devoured their young men, and their girls had no marriage song.

Psa 78:64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation.

Psa 78:65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a warrior shouting because of wine.

Psa 78:66 He put his adversaries to rout; he put them to everlasting disgrace.

Psa 78:67 He rejected the tent of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;

Psa 78:68 but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loves.

Psa 78:69 He built his sanctuary like the high heavens, like the earth, which he has founded forever.

Psa 78:70 He chose his servant David, and took him from the sheepfolds;

Psa 78:71 from tending the nursing ewes he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel, his inheritance.

Psa 78:72 With upright heart he tended them, and guided them with skillful hand.

Psa 79:1 <A Psalm of Asaph.> O God, the nations have come into your inheritance; they have defiled your holy temple; they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

Psa 79:2 They have given the bodies of your servants to the birds of the air for food, the flesh of your faithful to the wild animals of the earth.

Psa 79:3 They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.

Psa 79:4 We have become a taunt to our neighbors, mocked and derided by those around us.

Psa 79:5 How long, O LORD? Will you be angry forever? Will your jealous wrath burn like fire?

Psa 79:6 Pour out your anger on the nations that do not know you, and on the kingdoms that do not call on your name.

Psa 79:7 For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his habitation.

Psa 79:8 Do not remember against us the iniquities of our ancestors; let your compassion come speedily to meet us, for we are brought very low.

Psa 79:9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.

Psa 79:10 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of your servants be known among the nations before our eyes.

Psa 79:11 Let the groans of the prisoners come before you; according to your great power preserve those doomed to die.

Psa 79:12 Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbors the taunts with which they taunted you, O Lord!

Psa 79:13 Then we your people, the flock of your pasture, will give thanks to you forever; from generation to generation we will recount your praise.

Psa 80:1 <To the leader: on Lilies, a Covenant. Of Asaph. A Psalm.> Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock! You who are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth Psa 80:2 before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh. Stir up your might, and come to save us!

Psa 80:3 Restore us, O God; let your face shine, that we may be saved.

Psa 80:4 O LORD God of hosts, how long will you be angry with your people's prayers?

Psa 80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in full measure.

Psa 80:6 You make us the scorn of our neighbors; our enemies laugh among themselves.

Psa 80:7 Restore us, O God of hosts; let your face shine, that we may be saved.

Psa 80:8 You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.

Psa 80:9 You cleared the ground for it; it took deep root and filled the land.

Psa 80:10 The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches;

Psa 80:11 it sent out its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the River.

Psa 80:12 Why then have you broken down its walls, so that all who pass along the way pluck its fruit?

Psa 80:13 The boar from the forest ravages it, and all that move in the field feed on it.

Psa 80:14 Turn again, O God of hosts; look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine,

Psa 80:15 the stock that your right hand planted.

Psa 80:16 They have burned it with fire, they have cut it down; may they perish at the rebuke of your countenance.

Psa 80:17 But let your hand be upon the one at your right hand, the one whom you made strong for yourself.

Psa 80:18 Then we will never turn back from you; give us life, and we will call on your name.
Psa 80:19 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; let your face shine, that we may be saved.
Psa 81:1 <To the leader: according to The Gittith. Of Asaph.> Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob.
Psa 81:2 Raise a song, sound the tambourine, the sweet lyre with the harp.
Psa 81:3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our festal day.
Psa 81:4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
Psa 81:5 He made it a decree in Joseph, when he went out over the land of Egypt. I hear a voice I had not known:
Psa 81:6 "I relieved your shoulder of the burden; your hands were freed from the basket.
Psa 81:7 In distress you called, and I rescued you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah
Psa 81:8 Hear, O my people, while I admonish you; O Israel, if you would but listen to me!
Psa 81:9 There shall be no strange god among you; you shall not bow down to a foreign god.
Psa 81:10 I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.
Psa 81:11 "But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would not submit to me.
Psa 81:12 So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels.
Psa 81:13 O that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!
Psa 81:14 Then I would quickly subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their foes.
Psa 81:15 Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him, and their doom would last forever.
Psa 81:16 I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."
Psa 82:1 <A Psalm of Asaph.> God has taken his place in the divine council; in the midst of the gods he holds judgment:
Psa 82:2 "How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah
Psa 82:3 Give justice to the weak and the orphan; maintain the right of the lowly and the destitute.
Psa 82:4 Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked."
Psa 82:5 They have neither knowledge nor understanding, they walk around in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
Psa 82:6 I say, "You are gods, children of the Most High, all of you;
Psa 82:7 nevertheless, you shall die like mortals, and fall like any prince."
Psa 82:8 Rise up, O God, judge the earth; for all the nations belong to you!
Psa 83:1 <A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.> O God, do not keep silence; do not hold your peace or be still, O God!
Psa 83:2 Even now your enemies are in tumult; those who hate you have raised their heads.
Psa 83:3 They lay crafty plans against your people; they consult together against those you protect.
Psa 83:4 They say, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation; let the name of Israel be remembered no more."
Psa 83:5 They conspire with one accord; against you they make a covenant--
Psa 83:6 the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites,
Psa 83:7 Gebal and Ammon and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;
Psa 83:8 Assyria also has joined them; they are the strong arm of the children of Lot. Selah
Psa 83:9 Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera and Jabin at the Wadi Kishon,
Psa 83:10 who were destroyed at En-dor, who became dung for the ground.
Psa 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,
Psa 83:12 who said, "Let us take the pastures of God for our own possession."
Psa 83:13 O my God, make them like whirling dust, like chaff before the wind.
Psa 83:14 As fire consumes the forest, as the flame sets the mountains ablaze, Psa 83:15 so pursue them with your tempest and terrify them with your hurricane.
Psa 83:16 Fill their faces with shame, so that they may seek your name, O LORD.
Psa 83:17 Let them be put to shame and dismayed forever; let them perish in disgrace.
Psa 83:18 Let them know that you alone, whose name is the LORD, are the Most High over all the earth.
Psa 84:1 <To the leader: according to The Gittith. Of the Korahites. A Psalm.> How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of hosts!
Psa 84:2 My soul longs, indeed it faints for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.
Psa 84:3 Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.
Psa 84:4 Happy are those who live in your house, ever singing your praise. Selah
Psa 84:5 Happy are those whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.
Psa 84:6 As they go through the valley of Baca they make it a place of springs; the early rain also covers it with pools.

Psa 84:7 They go from strength to strength; the God of gods will be seen in Zion.

Psa 84:8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah

Psa 84:9 Behold our shield, O God; look on the face of your anointed.

Psa 84:10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than live in the tents of wickedness.

Psa 84:11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield; he bestows favor and honor. No good thing does the LORD withhold from those who walk uprightly.

Psa 84:12 O LORD of hosts, happy is everyone who trusts in you.

Psa 85:1 <To the leader. Of the Korahites. A Psalm.> LORD, you were favorable to your land; you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

Psa 85:2 You forgave the iniquity of your people; you pardoned all their sin. Selah

Psa 85:3 You withdrew all your wrath; you turned from your hot anger.

Psa 85:4 Restore us again, O God of our salvation, and put away your indignation toward us.

Psa 85:5 Will you be angry with us forever? Will you prolong your anger to all generations?

Psa 85:6 Will you not revive us again, so that your people may rejoice in you?

Psa 85:7 Show us your steadfast love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.

Psa 85:8 Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, to his faithful, to those who turn to him in their hearts.

Psa 85:9 Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in our land.

Psa 85:10 Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet; righteousness and peace will kiss each other.

Psa 85:11 Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from the sky.

Psa 85:12 The LORD will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.

Psa 85:13 Righteousness will go before him, and will make a path for his steps.

Psa 86:1 <A Prayer of David.> Incline your ear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.

Psa 86:2 Preserve my life, for I am devoted to you; save your servant who trusts in you. You are my God;

Psa 86:3 be gracious to me, O Lord, for to you do I cry all day long.

Psa 86:4 Gladden the soul of your servant, for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Psa 86:5 For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call on you.

Psa 86:6 Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; listen to my cry of supplication.

Psa 86:7 In the day of my trouble I call on you, for you will answer me.

Psa 86:8 There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours.

Psa 86:9 All the nations you have made shall come and bow down before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name.

Psa 86:10 For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God.

Psa 86:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth; give me an undivided heart to revere your name.

Psa 86:12 I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever.

Psa 86:13 For great is your steadfast love toward me; you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

Psa 86:14 O God, the insolent rise up against me; a band of ruffians seeks my life, and they do not set you before them.

Psa 86:15 But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

Psa 86:16 Turn to me and be gracious to me; give your strength to your servant; save the child of your serving girl.

Psa 86:17 Show me a sign of your favor, so that those who hate me may see it and be put to shame, because you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psa 87:1 <Of the Korahites. A Psalm. A Song.> On the holy mount stands the city he founded;

Psa 87:2 the LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

Psa 87:3 Glorious things are spoken of you, O city of God. Selah

Psa 87:4 Among those who know me I mention Rahab and Babylon; Philistia too, and Tyre, with Ethiopia-- "This one was born there," they say.

Psa 87:5 And of Zion it shall be said, "This one and that one were born in it"; for the Most High himself will establish it.

Psa 87:6 The LORD records, as he registers the peoples, "This one was born there." Selah

Psa 87:7 Singers and dancers alike say, "All my springs are in you."

Psa 88:1 <A Song. A Psalm of the Korahites. To the leader: according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.> O LORD, God of my salvation, when, at night, I cry out in your presence, Psa 88:2 let my prayer come before you; incline your ear to my cry.

Psa 88:3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.
Psa 88:4 I am counted among those who go down to the Pit; I am like those who have no help,
Psa 88:5 like those forsaken among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, like those whom you remember no more, for they are cut off from your hand.
Psa 88:6 You have put me in the depths of the Pit, in the regions dark and deep.
Psa 88:7 Your wrath lies heavy upon me, and you overwhelm me with all your waves. Selah
Psa 88:8 You have caused my companions to shun me; you have made me a thing of horror to them. I am shut in so that I cannot escape;
Psa 88:9 my eye grows dim through sorrow. Every day I call on you, O LORD; I spread out my hands to you.
Psa 88:10 Do you work wonders for the dead? Do the shades rise up to praise you? Selah
Psa 88:11 Is your steadfast love declared in the grave, or your faithfulness in Abaddon?
Psa 88:12 Are your wonders known in the darkness, or your saving help in the land of forgetfulness?
Psa 88:13 But I, O LORD, cry out to you; in the morning my prayer comes before you.
Psa 88:14 O LORD, why do you cast me off? Why do you hide your face from me?
Psa 88:15 Wretched and close to death from my youth up, I suffer your terrors; I am desperate.
Psa 88:16 Your wrath has swept over me; your dread assaults destroy me.
Psa 88:17 They surround me like a flood all day long; from all sides they close in on me.
Psa 88:18 You have caused friend and neighbor to shun me; my companions are in darkness.
Psa 89:1 <A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.> I will sing of your steadfast love, O LORD, forever; with my mouth I will proclaim your faithfulness to all generations.
Psa 89:2 I declare that your steadfast love is established forever; your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens.
Psa 89:3 You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to my servant David:
Psa 89:4 'I will establish your descendants forever, and build your throne for all generations.'" Selah
Psa 89:5 Let the heavens praise your wonders, O LORD, your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones.
Psa 89:6 For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD,
Psa 89:7 a God feared in the council of the holy ones, great and awesome above all that are around him?
Psa 89:8 O LORD God of hosts, who is as mighty as you, O LORD? Your faithfulness surrounds you.
Psa 89:9 You rule the raging of the sea; when its waves rise, you still them.
Psa 89:10 You crushed Rahab like a carcass; you scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
Psa 89:11 The heavens are yours, the earth also is yours; the world and all that is in it-- you have founded them.
Psa 89:12 The north and the south-- you created them; Tabor and Hermon joyously praise your name.
Psa 89:13 You have a mighty arm; strong is your hand, high your right hand.
Psa 89:14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before you.
Psa 89:15 Happy are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O LORD, in the light of your countenance;
Psa 89:16 they exult in your name all day long, and extol your righteousness.
Psa 89:17 For you are the glory of their strength; by your favor our horn is exalted.
Psa 89:18 For our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.
Psa 89:19 Then you spoke in a vision to your faithful one, and said: "I have set the crown on one who is mighty, I have exalted one chosen from the people.
Psa 89:20 I have found my servant David; with my holy oil I have anointed him;
Psa 89:21 my hand shall always remain with him; my arm also shall strengthen him.
Psa 89:22 The enemy shall not outwit him, the wicked shall not humble him.
Psa 89:23 I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.
Psa 89:24 My faithfulness and steadfast love shall be with him; and in my name his horn shall be exalted.
Psa 89:25 I will set his hand on the sea and his right hand on the rivers.
Psa 89:26 He shall cry to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation!'
Psa 89:27 I will make him the firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.
Psa 89:28 Forever I will keep my steadfast love for him, and my covenant with him will stand firm.
Psa 89:29 I will establish his line forever, and his throne as long as the heavens endure.
Psa 89:30 If his children forsake my law and do not walk according to my ordinances,
Psa 89:31 if they violate my statutes and do not keep my commandments,
Psa 89:32 then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with scourges;
Psa 89:33 but I will not remove from him my steadfast love, or be false to my faithfulness.
Psa 89:34 I will not violate my covenant, or alter the word that went forth from my lips.
Psa 89:35 Once and for all I have sworn by my holiness; I will not lie to David.

Psa 89:36 His line shall continue forever, and his throne endure before me like the sun.
Psa 89:37 It shall be established forever like the moon, an enduring witness in the skies." Selah
Psa 89:38 But now you have spurned and rejected him; you are full of wrath against your anointed.
Psa 89:39 You have renounced the covenant with your servant; you have defiled his crown in the dust.
Psa 89:40 You have broken through all his walls; you have laid his strongholds in ruins.
Psa 89:41 All who pass by plunder him; he has become the scorn of his neighbors.
Psa 89:42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes; you have made all his enemies rejoice.
Psa 89:43 Moreover, you have turned back the edge of his sword, and you have not supported him in battle.
Psa 89:44 You have removed the scepter from his hand, and hurled his throne to the ground.
Psa 89:45 You have cut short the days of his youth; you have covered him with shame. Selah
Psa 89:46 How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself forever? How long will your wrath burn like fire?
Psa 89:47 Remember how short my time is-- for what vanity you have created all mortals!
Psa 89:48 Who can live and never see death? Who can escape the power of Sheol? Selah
Psa 89:49 Lord, where is your steadfast love of old, which by your faithfulness you swore to David?
Psa 89:50 Remember, O Lord, how your servant is taunted; how I bear in my bosom the insults of the peoples,
Psa 89:51 with which your enemies taunt, O LORD, with which they taunted the footsteps of your anointed.
Psa 89:52 Blessed be the LORD forever. Amen and Amen.
Psa 90:1 <A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.> Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.
Psa 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
Psa 90:3 You turn us back to dust, and say, "Turn back, you mortals."
Psa 90:4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.
Psa 90:5 You sweep them away; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning;
Psa 90:6 in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.
Psa 90:7 For we are consumed by your anger; by your wrath we are overwhelmed.
Psa 90:8 You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
Psa 90:9 For all our days pass away under your wrath; our years come to an end like a sigh.
Psa 90:10 The days of our life are seventy years, or perhaps eighty, if we are strong; even then their span is only toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away.
Psa 90:11 Who considers the power of your anger? Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you.
Psa 90:12 So teach us to count our days that we may gain a wise heart.
Psa 90:13 Turn, O LORD! How long? Have compassion on your servants!
Psa 90:14 Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
Psa 90:15 Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil.
Psa 90:16 Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.
Psa 90:17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands-- O prosper the work of our hands!
Psa 91:1 You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty,
Psa 91:2 will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust."
Psa 91:3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence;
Psa 91:4 he will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.
Psa 91:5 You will not fear the terror of the night, or the arrow that flies by day,
Psa 91:6 or the pestilence that stalks in darkness, or the destruction that wastes at noonday.
Psa 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.
Psa 91:8 You will only look with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.
Psa 91:9 Because you have made the LORD your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place,
Psa 91:10 no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent.
Psa 91:11 For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
Psa 91:12 On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.
Psa 91:13 You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.
Psa 91:14 Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name.
Psa 91:15 When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honor them.
Psa 91:16 With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.
Psa 92:1 <A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath Day.> It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
Psa 92:2 to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night,
Psa 92:3 to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.

Psa 92:4 For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy.
Psa 92:5 How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are very deep!
Psa 92:6 The dullard cannot know, the stupid cannot understand this:
Psa 92:7 though the wicked sprout like grass and all evildoers flourish, they are doomed to destruction forever,
Psa 92:8 but you, O LORD, are on high forever.
Psa 92:9 For your enemies, O LORD, for your enemies shall perish; all evildoers shall be scattered.
Psa 92:10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox; you have poured over me fresh oil.
Psa 92:11 My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies; my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants.
Psa 92:12 The righteous flourish like the palm tree, and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
Psa 92:13 They are planted in the house of the LORD; they flourish in the courts of our God.
Psa 92:14 In old age they still produce fruit; they are always green and full of sap,
Psa 92:15 showing that the LORD is upright; he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.
Psa 93:1 The LORD is king, he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed, he is girded with strength. He has established the world; it shall never be moved;
Psa 93:2 your throne is established from of old; you are from everlasting.
Psa 93:3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their roaring.
Psa 93:4 More majestic than the thunders of mighty waters, more majestic than the waves of the sea, majestic on high is the LORD!
Psa 93:5 Your decrees are very sure; holiness befits your house, O LORD, forevermore.
Psa 94:1 O LORD, you God of vengeance, you God of vengeance, shine forth!
Psa 94:2 Rise up, O judge of the earth; give to the proud what they deserve!
Psa 94:3 O LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked exult?
Psa 94:4 They pour out their arrogant words; all the evildoers boast.
Psa 94:5 They crush your people, O LORD, and afflict your heritage.
Psa 94:6 They kill the widow and the stranger, they murder the orphan,
Psa 94:7 and they say, "The LORD does not see; the God of Jacob does not perceive."
Psa 94:8 Understand, O dullest of the people; fools, when will you be wise?
Psa 94:9 He who planted the ear, does he not hear? He who formed the eye, does he not see?
Psa 94:10 He who disciplines the nations, he who teaches knowledge to humankind, does he not chastise?
Psa 94:11 The LORD knows our thoughts, that they are but an empty breath.
Psa 94:12 Happy are those whom you discipline, O LORD, and whom you teach out of your law,
Psa 94:13 giving them respite from days of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.
Psa 94:14 For the LORD will not forsake his people; he will not abandon his heritage;
Psa 94:15 for justice will return to the righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.
Psa 94:16 Who rises up for me against the wicked? Who stands up for me against evildoers?
Psa 94:17 If the LORD had not been my help, my soul would soon have lived in the land of silence.
Psa 94:18 When I thought, "My foot is slipping," your steadfast love, O LORD, held me up.
Psa 94:19 When the cares of my heart are many, your consolations cheer my soul.
Psa 94:20 Can wicked rulers be allied with you, those who contrive mischief by statute?
Psa 94:21 They band together against the life of the righteous, and condemn the innocent to death.
Psa 94:22 But the LORD has become my stronghold, and my God the rock of my refuge.
Psa 94:23 He will repay them for their iniquity and wipe them out for their wickedness; the LORD our God will wipe them out.
Psa 95:1 O come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
Psa 95:2 Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!
Psa 95:3 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
Psa 95:4 In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.
Psa 95:5 The sea is his, for he made it, and the dry land, which his hands have formed.
Psa 95:6 O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
Psa 95:7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. O that today you would listen to his voice!
Psa 95:8 Do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness,
Psa 95:9 when your ancestors tested me, and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work.
Psa 95:10 For forty years I loathed that generation and said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray, and they do not regard my ways."
Psa 95:11 Therefore in my anger I swore, "They shall not enter my rest."
Psa 96:1 O sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth.
Psa 96:2 Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.
Psa 96:3 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.

Psa 96:4 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be revered above all gods.
Psa 96:5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
Psa 96:6 Honor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
Psa 96:7 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
Psa 96:8 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts.
Psa 96:9 Worship the LORD in holy splendor; tremble before him, all the earth.
Psa 96:10 Say among the nations, "The LORD is king! The world is firmly established; it shall never be moved. He will judge the peoples with equity."
Psa 96:11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
Psa 96:12 let the field exult, and everything in it. Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy
Psa 96:13 before the LORD; for he is coming, for he is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.
Psa 97:1 The LORD is king! Let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad!
Psa 97:2 Clouds and thick darkness are all around him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
Psa 97:3 Fire goes before him, and consumes his adversaries on every side.
Psa 97:4 His lightnings light up the world; the earth sees and trembles.
Psa 97:5 The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth.
Psa 97:6 The heavens proclaim his righteousness; and all the peoples behold his glory.
Psa 97:7 All worshipers of images are put to shame, those who make their boast in worthless idols; all gods bow down before him.
Psa 97:8 Zion hears and is glad, and the towns of Judah rejoice, because of your judgments, O God.
Psa 97:9 For you, O LORD, are most high over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.
Psa 97:10 The LORD loves those who hate evil; he guards the lives of his faithful; he rescues them from the hand of the wicked.
Psa 97:11 Light dawns for the righteous, and joy for the upright in heart.
Psa 97:12 Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!
Psa 98:1 <A Psalm.> O sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things. His right hand and his holy arm have gotten him victory.
Psa 98:2 The LORD has made known his victory; he has revealed his vindication in the sight of the nations.
Psa 98:3 He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel. All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.
Psa 98:4 Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises.
Psa 98:5 Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre, with the lyre and the sound of melody.
Psa 98:6 With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD.
Psa 98:7 Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; the world and those who live in it.
Psa 98:8 Let the floods clap their hands; let the hills sing together for joy
Psa 98:9 at the presence of the LORD, for he is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.
Psa 99:1 The LORD is king; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!
Psa 99:2 The LORD is great in Zion; he is exalted over all the peoples.
Psa 99:3 Let them praise your great and awesome name. Holy is he!
Psa 99:4 Mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
Psa 99:5 Extol the LORD our God; worship at his footstool. Holy is he!
Psa 99:6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel also was among those who called on his name. They cried to the LORD, and he answered them.
Psa 99:7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud; they kept his decrees, and the statutes that he gave them.
Psa 99:8 O LORD our God, you answered them; you were a forgiving God to them, but an avenger of their wrongdoings.
Psa 99:9 Extol the LORD our God, and worship at his holy mountain; for the LORD our God is holy.
Psa 100:1 <A Psalm of thanksgiving.> Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth.
Psa 100:2 Worship the LORD with gladness; come into his presence with singing.
Psa 100:3 Know that the LORD is God. It is he that made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Psa 100:4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name.
Psa 100:5 For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.
Psa 101:1 <Of David. A Psalm.> I will sing of loyalty and of justice; to you, O LORD, I will sing.
Psa 101:2 I will study the way that is blameless. When shall I attain it? I will walk with integrity of heart within my house;

Psa 101:3 I will not set before my eyes anything that is base. I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not cling to me.

Psa 101:4 Perverseness of heart shall be far from me; I will know nothing of evil.

Psa 101:5 One who secretly slanders a neighbor I will destroy. A haughty look and an arrogant heart I will not tolerate.

Psa 101:6 I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, so that they may live with me; whoever walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me.

Psa 101:7 No one who practices deceit shall remain in my house; no one who utters lies shall continue in my presence.

Psa 101:8 Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, cutting off all evildoers from the city of the LORD.

Psa 102:1 <A prayer of one afflicted, when faint and pleading before the LORD.> Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry come to you.

Psa 102:2 Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress. Incline your ear to me; answer me speedily in the day when I call.

Psa 102:3 For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like a furnace.

Psa 102:4 My heart is stricken and withered like grass; I am too wasted to eat my bread.

Psa 102:5 Because of my loud groaning my bones cling to my skin.

Psa 102:6 I am like an owl of the wilderness, like a little owl of the waste places.

Psa 102:7 I lie awake; I am like a lonely bird on the housetop.

Psa 102:8 All day long my enemies taunt me; those who deride me use my name for a curse.

Psa 102:9 For I eat ashes like bread, and mingle tears with my drink,

Psa 102:10 because of your indignation and anger; for you have lifted me up and thrown me aside.

Psa 102:11 My days are like an evening shadow; I wither away like grass.

Psa 102:12 But you, O LORD, are enthroned forever; your name endures to all generations.

Psa 102:13 You will rise up and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to favor it; the appointed time has come.

Psa 102:14 For your servants hold its stones dear, and have pity on its dust.

Psa 102:15 The nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth your glory.

Psa 102:16 For the LORD will build up Zion; he will appear in his glory.

Psa 102:17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their prayer.

Psa 102:18 Let this be recorded for a generation to come, so that a people yet unborn may praise the LORD:

Psa 102:19 that he looked down from his holy height, from heaven the LORD looked at the earth,

Psa 102:20 to hear the groans of the prisoners, to set free those who were doomed to die;

Psa 102:21 so that the name of the LORD may be declared in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem,

Psa 102:22 when peoples gather together, and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

Psa 102:23 He has broken my strength in midcourse; he has shortened my days.

Psa 102:24 "O my God," I say, "do not take me away at the mid-point of my life, you whose years endure throughout all generations."

Psa 102:25 Long ago you laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

Psa 102:26 They will perish, but you endure; they will all wear out like a garment. You change them like clothing, and they pass away;

Psa 102:27 but you are the same, and your years have no end.

Psa 102:28 The children of your servants shall live secure; their offspring shall be established in your presence.

Psa 103:1 <Of David.> Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Psa 103:2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and do not forget all his benefits--

Psa 103:3 who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

Psa 103:4 who redeems your life from the Pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

Psa 103:5 who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Psa 103:6 The LORD works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.

Psa 103:7 He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel.

Psa 103:8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Psa 103:9 He will not always accuse, nor will he keep his anger forever.

Psa 103:10 He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

Psa 103:11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;

Psa 103:12 as far as the east is from the west, so far he removes our transgressions from us.

Psa 103:13 As a father has compassion for his children, so the LORD has compassion for those who fear him.

Psa 103:14 For he knows how we were made; he remembers that we are dust.

Psa 103:15 As for mortals, their days are like grass; they flourish like a flower of the field;
Psa 103:16 for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more.
Psa 103:17 But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children,
Psa 103:18 to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.
Psa 103:19 The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.
Psa 103:20 Bless the LORD, O you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding, obedient to his spoken word.
Psa 103:21 Bless the LORD, all his hosts, his ministers that do his will.
Psa 103:22 Bless the LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul.
Psa 104:1 Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty,
Psa 104:2 wrapped in light as with a garment. You stretch out the heavens like a tent,
Psa 104:3 you set the beams of your chambers on the waters, you make the clouds your chariot, you ride on the wings of the wind,
Psa 104:4 you make the winds your messengers, fire and flame your ministers.
Psa 104:5 You set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be shaken.
Psa 104:6 You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.
Psa 104:7 At your rebuke they flee; at the sound of your thunder they take to flight.
Psa 104:8 They rose up to the mountains, ran down to the valleys to the place that you appointed for them.
Psa 104:9 You set a boundary that they may not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.
Psa 104:10 You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills,
Psa 104:11 giving drink to every wild animal; the wild asses quench their thirst.
Psa 104:12 By the streams the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches.
Psa 104:13 From your lofty abode you water the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work.
Psa 104:14 You cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for people to use, to bring forth food from the earth,
Psa 104:15 and wine to gladden the human heart, oil to make the face shine, and bread to strengthen the human heart.
Psa 104:16 The trees of the LORD are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.
Psa 104:17 In them the birds build their nests; the stork has its home in the fir trees.
Psa 104:18 The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the coney.
Psa 104:19 You have made the moon to mark the seasons; the sun knows its time for setting.
Psa 104:20 You make darkness, and it is night, when all the animals of the forest come creeping out.
Psa 104:21 The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.
Psa 104:22 When the sun rises, they withdraw and lie down in their dens.
Psa 104:23 People go out to their work and to their labor until the evening.
Psa 104:24 O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
Psa 104:25 Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.
Psa 104:26 There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.
Psa 104:27 These all look to you to give them their food in due season;
Psa 104:28 when you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.
Psa 104:29 When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
Psa 104:30 When you send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the ground.
Psa 104:31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD rejoice in his works--
Psa 104:32 who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke.
Psa 104:33 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.
Psa 104:34 May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.
Psa 104:35 Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD!
Psa 105:1 O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples.
Psa 105:2 Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wonderful works.
Psa 105:3 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
Psa 105:4 Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his presence continually.
Psa 105:5 Remember the wonderful works he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,
Psa 105:6 O offspring of his servant Abraham, children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

Psa 105:7 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.
Psa 105:8 He is mindful of his covenant forever, of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,
Psa 105:9 the covenant that he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac,
Psa 105:10 which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant,
Psa 105:11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."
Psa 105:12 When they were few in number, of little account, and strangers in it,
Psa 105:13 wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people,
Psa 105:14 he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account,
Psa 105:15 saying, "Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm."
Psa 105:16 When he summoned famine against the land, and broke every staff of bread,
Psa 105:17 he had sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
Psa 105:18 His feet were hurt with fetters, his neck was put in a collar of iron;
Psa 105:19 until what he had said came to pass, the word of the LORD kept testing him.
Psa 105:20 The king sent and released him; the ruler of the peoples set him free.
Psa 105:21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his possessions,
Psa 105:22 to instruct his officials at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom.
Psa 105:23 Then Israel came to Egypt; Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham.
Psa 105:24 And the LORD made his people very fruitful, and made them stronger than their foes,
Psa 105:25 whose hearts he then turned to hate his people, to deal craftily with his servants.
Psa 105:26 He sent his servant Moses, and Aaron whom he had chosen.
Psa 105:27 They performed his signs among them, and miracles in the land of Ham.
Psa 105:28 He sent darkness, and made the land dark; they rebelled against his words.
Psa 105:29 He turned their waters into blood, and caused their fish to die.
Psa 105:30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.
Psa 105:31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.
Psa 105:32 He gave them hail for rain, and lightning that flashed through their land.
Psa 105:33 He struck their vines and fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.
Psa 105:34 He spoke, and the locusts came, and young locusts without number;
Psa 105:35 they devoured all the vegetation in their land, and ate up the fruit of their ground.
Psa 105:36 He struck down all the firstborn in their land, the first issue of all their strength.
Psa 105:37 Then he brought Israel out with silver and gold, and there was no one among their tribes who stumbled.
Psa 105:38 Egypt was glad when they departed, for dread of them had fallen upon it.
Psa 105:39 He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light by night.
Psa 105:40 They asked, and he brought quails, and gave them food from heaven in abundance.
Psa 105:41 He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it flowed through the desert like a river.
Psa 105:42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham, his servant.
Psa 105:43 So he brought his people out with joy, his chosen ones with singing.
Psa 105:44 He gave them the lands of the nations, and they took possession of the wealth of the peoples,
Psa 105:45 that they might keep his statutes and observe his laws. Praise the LORD!
Psa 106:1 Praise the LORD! O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 106:2 Who can utter the mighty doings of the LORD, or declare all his praise?
Psa 106:3 Happy are those who observe justice, who do righteousness at all times.
Psa 106:4 Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people; help me when you deliver them;
Psa 106:5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory in your heritage.
Psa 106:6 Both we and our ancestors have sinned; we have committed iniquity, have done wickedly.
Psa 106:7 Our ancestors, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your wonderful works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled against the Most High at the Red Sea.
Psa 106:8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake, so that he might make known his mighty power.
Psa 106:9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry; he led them through the deep as through a desert.
Psa 106:10 So he saved them from the hand of the foe, and delivered them from the hand of the enemy.
Psa 106:11 The waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left.
Psa 106:12 Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.
Psa 106:13 But they soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel.
Psa 106:14 But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness, and put God to the test in the desert;
Psa 106:15 he gave them what they asked, but sent a wasting disease among them.
Psa 106:16 They were jealous of Moses in the camp, and of Aaron, the holy one of the LORD.
Psa 106:17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the faction of Abiram.

Psa 106:18 Fire also broke out in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.
Psa 106:19 They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast image.
Psa 106:20 They exchanged the glory of God for the image of an ox that eats grass.
Psa 106:21 They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,
Psa 106:22 wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.
Psa 106:23 Therefore he said he would destroy them-- had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him, to turn away his wrath from destroying them.
Psa 106:24 Then they despised the pleasant land, having no faith in his promise.
Psa 106:25 They grumbled in their tents, and did not obey the voice of the LORD.
Psa 106:26 Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness,
Psa 106:27 and would disperse their descendants among the nations, scattering them over the lands.
Psa 106:28 Then they attached themselves to the Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices offered to the dead;
Psa 106:29 they provoked the LORD to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
Psa 106:30 Then Phinehas stood up and interceded, and the plague was stopped.
Psa 106:31 And that has been reckoned to him as righteousness from generation to generation forever.
Psa 106:32 They angered the LORD at the waters of Meribah, and it went ill with Moses on their account;
Psa 106:33 for they made his spirit bitter, and he spoke words that were rash.
Psa 106:34 They did not destroy the peoples, as the LORD commanded them,
Psa 106:35 but they mingled with the nations and learned to do as they did.
Psa 106:36 They served their idols, which became a snare to them.
Psa 106:37 They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons;
Psa 106:38 they poured out innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.
Psa 106:39 Thus they became unclean by their acts, and prostituted themselves in their doings.
Psa 106:40 Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he abhorred his heritage;
Psa 106:41 he gave them into the hand of the nations, so that those who hated them ruled over them.
Psa 106:42 Their enemies oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their power.
Psa 106:43 Many times he delivered them, but they were rebellious in their purposes, and were brought low through their iniquity.
Psa 106:44 Nevertheless he regarded their distress when he heard their cry.
Psa 106:45 For their sake he remembered his covenant, and showed compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
Psa 106:46 He caused them to be pitied by all who held them captive.
Psa 106:47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.
Psa 106:48 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. And let all the people say, "Amen." Praise the LORD!

Psa 107:1 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 107:2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, those he redeemed from trouble
Psa 107:3 and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
Psa 107:4 Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to an inhabited town;
Psa 107:5 hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.
Psa 107:6 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress;
Psa 107:7 he led them by a straight way, until they reached an inhabited town.
Psa 107:8 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to humankind.
Psa 107:9 For he satisfies the thirsty, and the hungry he fills with good things.
Psa 107:10 Some sat in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in misery and in irons,
Psa 107:11 for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High.
Psa 107:12 Their hearts were bowed down with hard labor; they fell down, with no one to help.
Psa 107:13 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress;
Psa 107:14 he brought them out of darkness and gloom, and broke their bonds asunder.
Psa 107:15 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to humankind.
Psa 107:16 For he shatters the doors of bronze, and cuts in two the bars of iron.
Psa 107:17 Some were sick through their sinful ways, and because of their iniquities endured affliction;
Psa 107:18 they loathed any kind of food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
Psa 107:19 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress;
Psa 107:20 he sent out his word and healed them, and delivered them from destruction.
Psa 107:21 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to humankind.
Psa 107:22 And let them offer thanksgiving sacrifices, and tell of his deeds with songs of joy.

Psa 107:23 Some went down to the sea in ships, doing business on the mighty waters;
Psa 107:24 they saw the deeds of the LORD, his wondrous works in the deep.
Psa 107:25 For he commanded and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea.
Psa 107:26 They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths; their courage melted away in their calamity;
Psa 107:27 they reeled and staggered like drunkards, and were at their wits' end.
Psa 107:28 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he brought them out from their distress;
Psa 107:29 he made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.
Psa 107:30 Then they were glad because they had quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.
Psa 107:31 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to humankind.
Psa 107:32 Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.
Psa 107:33 He turns rivers into a desert, springs of water into thirsty ground,
Psa 107:34 a fruitful land into a salty waste, because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.
Psa 107:35 He turns a desert into pools of water, a parched land into springs of water.
Psa 107:36 And there he lets the hungry live, and they establish a town to live in;
Psa 107:37 they sow fields, and plant vineyards, and get a fruitful yield.
Psa 107:38 By his blessing they multiply greatly, and he does not let their cattle decrease.
Psa 107:39 When they are diminished and brought low through oppression, trouble, and sorrow,
Psa 107:40 he pours contempt on princes and makes them wander in trackless wastes;
Psa 107:41 but he raises up the needy out of distress, and makes their families like flocks.
Psa 107:42 The upright see it and are glad; and all wickedness stops its mouth.
Psa 107:43 Let those who are wise give heed to these things, and consider the steadfast love of the LORD.
Psa 108:1 <A Song. A Psalm of David.> My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and make melody. Awake, my soul!
Psa 108:2 Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn.
Psa 108:3 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the peoples, and I will sing praises to you among the nations.
Psa 108:4 For your steadfast love is higher than the heavens, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
Psa 108:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and let your glory be over all the earth.
Psa 108:6 Give victory with your right hand, and answer me, so that those whom you love may be rescued.
Psa 108:7 God has promised in his sanctuary: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem, and portion out the Vale of Succoth.
Psa 108:8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet; Judah is my scepter.
Psa 108:9 Moab is my washbasin; on Edom I hurl my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph."
Psa 108:10 Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?
Psa 108:11 Have you not rejected us, O God? You do not go out, O God, with our armies.
Psa 108:12 O grant us help against the foe, for human help is worthless.
Psa 108:13 With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes.
Psa 109:1 <To the leader. Of David. A Psalm.> Do not be silent, O God of my praise.
Psa 109:2 For wicked and deceitful mouths are opened against me, speaking against me with lying tongues.
Psa 109:3 They beset me with words of hate, and attack me without cause.
Psa 109:4 In return for my love they accuse me, even while I make prayer for them.
Psa 109:5 So they reward me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
Psa 109:6 They say, "Appoint a wicked man against him; let an accuser stand on his right.
Psa 109:7 When he is tried, let him be found guilty; let his prayer be counted as sin.
Psa 109:8 May his days be few; may another seize his position.
Psa 109:9 May his children be orphans, and his wife a widow.
Psa 109:10 May his children wander about and beg; may they be driven out of the ruins they inhabit.
Psa 109:11 May the creditor seize all that he has; may strangers plunder the fruits of his toil.
Psa 109:12 May there be no one to do him a kindness, nor anyone to pity his orphaned children.
Psa 109:13 May his posterity be cut off; may his name be blotted out in the second generation.
Psa 109:14 May the iniquity of his father be remembered before the LORD, and do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
Psa 109:15 Let them be before the LORD continually, and may his memory be cut off from the earth.
Psa 109:16 For he did not remember to show kindness, but pursued the poor and needy and the brokenhearted to their death.
Psa 109:17 He loved to curse; let curses come on him. He did not like blessing; may it be far from him.
Psa 109:18 He clothed himself with cursing as his coat, may it soak into his body like water, like oil into his bones.

Psa 109:19 May it be like a garment that he wraps around himself, like a belt that he wears every day."
Psa 109:20 May that be the reward of my accusers from the LORD, of those who speak evil against my life.
Psa 109:21 But you, O LORD my Lord, act on my behalf for your name's sake; because your steadfast love is good, deliver me.
Psa 109:22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is pierced within me.
Psa 109:23 I am gone like a shadow at evening; I am shaken off like a locust.
Psa 109:24 My knees are weak through fasting; my body has become gaunt.
Psa 109:25 I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me, they shake their heads.
Psa 109:26 Help me, O LORD my God! Save me according to your steadfast love.
Psa 109:27 Let them know that this is your hand; you, O LORD, have done it.
Psa 109:28 Let them curse, but you will bless. Let my assailants be put to shame; may your servant be glad.
Psa 109:29 May my accusers be clothed with dishonor; may they be wrapped in their own shame as in a mantle.
Psa 109:30 With my mouth I will give great thanks to the LORD; I will praise him in the midst of the throng.
Psa 109:31 For he stands at the right hand of the needy, to save them from those who would condemn them to death.
Psa 110:1 <Of David. A Psalm.> The LORD says to my lord, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool."
Psa 110:2 The LORD sends out from Zion your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of your foes.
Psa 110:3 Your people will offer themselves willingly on the day you lead your forces on the holy mountains. From the womb of the morning, like dew, your youth will come to you.
Psa 110:4 The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."
Psa 110:5 The Lord is at your right hand; he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath.
Psa 110:6 He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter heads over the wide earth.
Psa 110:7 He will drink from the stream by the path; therefore he will lift up his head.
Psa 111:1 Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.
Psa 111:2 Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them.
Psa 111:3 Full of honor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.
Psa 111:4 He has gained renown by his wonderful deeds; the LORD is gracious and merciful.
Psa 111:5 He provides food for those who fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.
Psa 111:6 He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.
Psa 111:7 The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy.
Psa 111:8 They are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.
Psa 111:9 He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name.
Psa 111:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever.
Psa 112:1 Praise the LORD! Happy are those who fear the LORD, who greatly delight in his commandments.
Psa 112:2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.
Psa 112:3 Wealth and riches are in their houses, and their righteousness endures forever.
Psa 112:4 They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright; they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.
Psa 112:5 It is well with those who deal generously and lend, who conduct their affairs with justice.
Psa 112:6 For the righteous will never be moved; they will be remembered forever.
Psa 112:7 They are not afraid of evil tidings; their hearts are firm, secure in the LORD.
Psa 112:8 Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid; in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.
Psa 112:9 They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor; their righteousness endures forever; their horn is exalted in honor.
Psa 112:10 The wicked see it and are angry; they gnash their teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.
Psa 113:1 Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD; praise the name of the LORD.
Psa 113:2 Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time on and forevermore.
Psa 113:3 From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the LORD is to be praised.
Psa 113:4 The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.
Psa 113:5 Who is like the LORD our God, who is seated on high,
Psa 113:6 who looks far down on the heavens and the earth?
Psa 113:7 He raises the poor from the dust, and lifts the needy from the ash heap,

Psa 113:8 to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people.
Psa 113:9 He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children. Praise the LORD!
Psa 114:1 When Israel went out from Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
Psa 114:2 Judah became God's sanctuary, Israel his dominion.
Psa 114:3 The sea looked and fled; Jordan turned back.
Psa 114:4 The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.
Psa 114:5 Why is it, O sea, that you flee? O Jordan, that you turn back?
Psa 114:6 O mountains, that you skip like rams? O hills, like lambs?
Psa 114:7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the God of Jacob,
Psa 114:8 who turns the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of water.
Psa 115:1 Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness.
Psa 115:2 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"
Psa 115:3 Our God is in the heavens; he does whatever he pleases.
Psa 115:4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of human hands.
Psa 115:5 They have mouths, but do not speak; eyes, but do not see.
Psa 115:6 They have ears, but do not hear; noses, but do not smell.
Psa 115:7 They have hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk; they make no sound in their throats.
Psa 115:8 Those who make them are like them; so are all who trust in them.
Psa 115:9 O Israel, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.
Psa 115:10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.
Psa 115:11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.
Psa 115:12 The LORD has been mindful of us; he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron;
Psa 115:13 he will bless those who fear the LORD, both small and great.
Psa 115:14 May the LORD give you increase, both you and your children.
Psa 115:15 May you be blessed by the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
Psa 115:16 The heavens are the LORD's heavens, but the earth he has given to human beings.
Psa 115:17 The dead do not praise the LORD, nor do any that go down into silence.
Psa 115:18 But we will bless the LORD from this time on and forevermore. Praise the LORD!
Psa 116:1 I love the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my supplications.
Psa 116:2 Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
Psa 116:3 The snares of death encompassed me; the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me; I suffered distress and anguish.
Psa 116:4 Then I called on the name of the LORD: "O LORD, I pray, save my life!"
Psa 116:5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; our God is merciful.
Psa 116:6 The LORD protects the simple; when I was brought low, he saved me.
Psa 116:7 Return, O my soul, to your rest, for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
Psa 116:8 For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
Psa 116:9 I walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
Psa 116:10 I kept my faith, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted";
Psa 116:11 I said in my consternation, "Everyone is a liar."
Psa 116:12 What shall I return to the LORD for all his bounty to me?
Psa 116:13 I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD,
Psa 116:14 I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.
Psa 116:15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.
Psa 116:16 O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the child of your serving girl. You have loosed my bonds.
Psa 116:17 I will offer to you a thanksgiving sacrifice and call on the name of the LORD.
Psa 116:18 I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people,
Psa 116:19 in the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Praise the LORD!
Psa 117:1 Praise the LORD, all you nations! Extol him, all you peoples!
Psa 117:2 For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever. Praise the LORD!
Psa 118:1 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his steadfast love endures forever!
Psa 118:2 Let Israel say, "His steadfast love endures forever."
Psa 118:3 Let the house of Aaron say, "His steadfast love endures forever."
Psa 118:4 Let those who fear the LORD say, "His steadfast love endures forever."
Psa 118:5 Out of my distress I called on the LORD; the LORD answered me and set me in a broad place.

Psa 118:6 With the LORD on my side I do not fear. What can mortals do to me?
Psa 118:7 The LORD is on my side to help me; I shall look in triumph on those who hate me.
Psa 118:8 It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to put confidence in mortals.
Psa 118:9 It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.
Psa 118:10 All nations surrounded me; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!
Psa 118:11 They surrounded me, surrounded me on every side; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!
Psa 118:12 They surrounded me like bees; they blazed like a fire of thorns; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!
Psa 118:13 I was pushed hard, so that I was falling, but the LORD helped me.
Psa 118:14 The LORD is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation.
Psa 118:15 There are glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous: "The right hand of the LORD does valiantly;
Psa 118:16 the right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD does valiantly."
Psa 118:17 I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD.
Psa 118:18 The LORD has punished me severely, but he did not give me over to death.
Psa 118:19 Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD.
Psa 118:20 This is the gate of the LORD; the righteous shall enter through it.
Psa 118:21 I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation.
Psa 118:22 The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
Psa 118:23 This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.
Psa 118:24 This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.
Psa 118:25 Save us, we beseech you, O LORD! O LORD, we beseech you, give us success!
Psa 118:26 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD. We bless you from the house of the LORD.
Psa 118:27 The LORD is God, and he has given us light. Bind the festal procession with branches, up to the horns of the altar.
Psa 118:28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God, I will extol you.
Psa 118:29 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 119:1 Happy are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD.
Psa 119:2 Happy are those who keep his decrees, who seek him with their whole heart,
Psa 119:3 who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways.
Psa 119:4 You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently.
Psa 119:5 O that my ways may be steadfast in keeping your statutes!
Psa 119:6 Then I shall not be put to shame, having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.
Psa 119:7 I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous ordinances.
Psa 119:8 I will observe your statutes; do not utterly forsake me.
Psa 119:9 How can young people keep their way pure? By guarding it according to your word.
Psa 119:10 With my whole heart I seek you; do not let me stray from your commandments.
Psa 119:11 I treasure your word in my heart, so that I may not sin against you.
Psa 119:12 Blessed are you, O LORD; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:13 With my lips I declare all the ordinances of your mouth.
Psa 119:14 I delight in the way of your decrees as much as in all riches.
Psa 119:15 I will meditate on your precepts, and fix my eyes on your ways.
Psa 119:16 I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word.
Psa 119:17 Deal bountifully with your servant, so that I may live and observe your word.
Psa 119:18 Open my eyes, so that I may behold wondrous things out of your law.
Psa 119:19 I live as an alien in the land; do not hide your commandments from me.
Psa 119:20 My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.
Psa 119:21 You rebuke the insolent, accursed ones, who wander from your commandments;
Psa 119:22 take away from me their scorn and contempt, for I have kept your decrees.
Psa 119:23 Even though princes sit plotting against me, your servant will meditate on your statutes.
Psa 119:24 Your decrees are my delight, they are my counselors.
Psa 119:25 My soul clings to the dust; revive me according to your word.
Psa 119:26 When I told of my ways, you answered me; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:27 Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wondrous works.
Psa 119:28 My soul melts away for sorrow; strengthen me according to your word.
Psa 119:29 Put false ways far from me; and graciously teach me your law.
Psa 119:30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I set your ordinances before me.

Psa 119:31 I cling to your decrees, O LORD; let me not be put to shame.
Psa 119:32 I run the way of your commandments, for you enlarge my understanding.
Psa 119:33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes, and I will observe it to the end.
Psa 119:34 Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart.
Psa 119:35 Lead me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in it.
Psa 119:36 Turn my heart to your decrees, and not to selfish gain.
Psa 119:37 Turn my eyes from looking at vanities; give me life in your ways.
Psa 119:38 Confirm to your servant your promise, which is for those who fear you.
Psa 119:39 Turn away the disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good.
Psa 119:40 See, I have longed for your precepts; in your righteousness give me life.
Psa 119:41 Let your steadfast love come to me, O LORD, your salvation according to your promise.
Psa 119:42 Then I shall have an answer for those who taunt me, for I trust in your word.
Psa 119:43 Do not take the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, for my hope is in your ordinances.
Psa 119:44 I will keep your law continually, forever and ever.
Psa 119:45 I shall walk at liberty, for I have sought your precepts.
Psa 119:46 I will also speak of your decrees before kings, and shall not be put to shame;
Psa 119:47 I find my delight in your commandments, because I love them.
Psa 119:48 I revere your commandments, which I love, and I will meditate on your statutes.
Psa 119:49 Remember your word to your servant, in which you have made me hope.
Psa 119:50 This is my comfort in my distress, that your promise gives me life.
Psa 119:51 The arrogant utterly deride me, but I do not turn away from your law.
Psa 119:52 When I think of your ordinances from of old, I take comfort, O LORD.
Psa 119:53 Hot indignation seizes me because of the wicked, those who forsake your law.
Psa 119:54 Your statutes have been my songs wherever I make my home.
Psa 119:55 I remember your name in the night, O LORD, and keep your law.
Psa 119:56 This blessing has fallen to me, for I have kept your precepts.
Psa 119:57 The LORD is my portion; I promise to keep your words.
Psa 119:58 I implore your favor with all my heart; be gracious to me according to your promise.
Psa 119:59 When I think of your ways, I turn my feet to your decrees;
Psa 119:60 I hurry and do not delay to keep your commandments.
Psa 119:61 Though the cords of the wicked ensnare me, I do not forget your law.
Psa 119:62 At midnight I rise to praise you, because of your righteous ordinances.
Psa 119:63 I am a companion of all who fear you, of those who keep your precepts.
Psa 119:64 The earth, O LORD, is full of your steadfast love; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:65 You have dealt well with your servant, O LORD, according to your word.
Psa 119:66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in your commandments.
Psa 119:67 Before I was humbled I went astray, but now I keep your word.
Psa 119:68 You are good and do good; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:69 The arrogant smear me with lies, but with my whole heart I keep your precepts.
Psa 119:70 Their hearts are fat and gross, but I delight in your law.
Psa 119:71 It is good for me that I was humbled, so that I might learn your statutes.
Psa 119:72 The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.
Psa 119:73 Your hands have made and fashioned me; give me understanding that I may learn your commandments.
Psa 119:74 Those who fear you shall see me and rejoice, because I have hoped in your word.
Psa 119:75 I know, O LORD, that your judgments are right, and that in faithfulness you have humbled me.
Psa 119:76 Let your steadfast love become my comfort according to your promise to your servant.
Psa 119:77 Let your mercy come to me, that I may live; for your law is my delight.
Psa 119:78 Let the arrogant be put to shame, because they have subverted me with guile; as for me, I will meditate on your precepts.
Psa 119:79 Let those who fear you turn to me, so that they may know your decrees.
Psa 119:80 May my heart be blameless in your statutes, so that I may not be put to shame.
Psa 119:81 My soul languishes for your salvation; I hope in your word.
Psa 119:82 My eyes fail with watching for your promise; I ask, "When will you comfort me?"
Psa 119:83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, yet I have not forgotten your statutes.
Psa 119:84 How long must your servant endure? When will you judge those who persecute me?
Psa 119:85 The arrogant have dug pitfalls for me; they flout your law.
Psa 119:86 All your commandments are enduring; I am persecuted without cause; help me!
Psa 119:87 They have almost made an end of me on earth; but I have not forsaken your precepts.

Psa 119:88 In your steadfast love spare my life, so that I may keep the decrees of your mouth.
Psa 119:89 The LORD exists forever; your word is firmly fixed in heaven.
Psa 119:90 Your faithfulness endures to all generations; you have established the earth, and it stands fast.
Psa 119:91 By your appointment they stand today, for all things are your servants.
Psa 119:92 If your law had not been my delight, I would have perished in my misery.
Psa 119:93 I will never forget your precepts, for by them you have given me life.
Psa 119:94 I am yours; save me, for I have sought your precepts.
Psa 119:95 The wicked lie in wait to destroy me, but I consider your decrees.
Psa 119:96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commandment is exceedingly broad.
Psa 119:97 Oh, how I love your law! It is my meditation all day long.
Psa 119:98 Your commandment makes me wiser than my enemies, for it is always with me.
Psa 119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your decrees are my meditation.
Psa 119:100 I understand more than the aged, for I keep your precepts.
Psa 119:101 I hold back my feet from every evil way, in order to keep your word.
Psa 119:102 I do not turn away from your ordinances, for you have taught me.
Psa 119:103 How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
Psa 119:104 Through your precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.
Psa 119:105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
Psa 119:106 I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to observe your righteous ordinances.
Psa 119:107 I am severely afflicted; give me life, O LORD, according to your word.
Psa 119:108 Accept my offerings of praise, O LORD, and teach me your ordinances.
Psa 119:109 I hold my life in my hand continually, but I do not forget your law.
Psa 119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, but I do not stray from your precepts.
Psa 119:111 Your decrees are my heritage forever; they are the joy of my heart.
Psa 119:112 I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.
Psa 119:113 I hate the double-minded, but I love your law.
Psa 119:114 You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in your word.
Psa 119:115 Go away from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God.
Psa 119:116 Uphold me according to your promise, that I may live, and let me not be put to shame in my hope.
Psa 119:117 Hold me up, that I may be safe and have regard for your statutes continually.
Psa 119:118 You spurn all who go astray from your statutes; for their cunning is in vain.
Psa 119:119 All the wicked of the earth you count as dross; therefore I love your decrees.
Psa 119:120 My flesh trembles for fear of you, and I am afraid of your judgments.
Psa 119:121 I have done what is just and right; do not leave me to my oppressors.
Psa 119:122 Guarantee your servant's well-being; do not let the godless oppress me.
Psa 119:123 My eyes fail from watching for your salvation, and for the fulfillment of your righteous promise.
Psa 119:124 Deal with your servant according to your steadfast love, and teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:125 I am your servant; give me understanding, so that I may know your decrees.
Psa 119:126 It is time for the LORD to act, for your law has been broken.
Psa 119:127 Truly I love your commandments more than gold, more than fine gold.
Psa 119:128 Truly I direct my steps by all your precepts; I hate every false way.
Psa 119:129 Your decrees are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them.
Psa 119:130 The unfolding of your words gives light; it imparts understanding to the simple.
Psa 119:131 With open mouth I pant, because I long for your commandments.
Psa 119:132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your custom toward those who love your name.
Psa 119:133 Keep my steps steady according to your promise, and never let iniquity have dominion over me.
Psa 119:134 Redeem me from human oppression, that I may keep your precepts.
Psa 119:135 Make your face shine upon your servant, and teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:136 My eyes shed streams of tears because your law is not kept.
Psa 119:137 You are righteous, O LORD, and your judgments are right.
Psa 119:138 You have appointed your decrees in righteousness and in all faithfulness.
Psa 119:139 My zeal consumes me because my foes forget your words.
Psa 119:140 Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it.
Psa 119:141 I am small and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts.
Psa 119:142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and your law is the truth.
Psa 119:143 Trouble and anguish have come upon me, but your commandments are my delight.
Psa 119:144 Your decrees are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.
Psa 119:145 With my whole heart I cry; answer me, O LORD. I will keep your statutes.
Psa 119:146 I cry to you; save me, that I may observe your decrees.

Psa 119:147 I rise before dawn and cry for help; I put my hope in your words.
Psa 119:148 My eyes are awake before each watch of the night, that I may meditate on your promise.
Psa 119:149 In your steadfast love hear my voice; O LORD, in your justice preserve my life.
Psa 119:150 Those who persecute me with evil purpose draw near; they are far from your law.
Psa 119:151 Yet you are near, O LORD, and all your commandments are true.
Psa 119:152 Long ago I learned from your decrees that you have established them forever.
Psa 119:153 Look on my misery and rescue me, for I do not forget your law.
Psa 119:154 Plead my cause and redeem me; give me life according to your promise.
Psa 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.
Psa 119:156 Great is your mercy, O LORD; give me life according to your justice.
Psa 119:157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries, yet I do not swerve from your decrees.
Psa 119:158 I look at the faithless with disgust, because they do not keep your commands.
Psa 119:159 Consider how I love your precepts; preserve my life according to your steadfast love.
Psa 119:160 The sum of your word is truth; and every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.
Psa 119:161 Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words.
Psa 119:162 I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil.
Psa 119:163 I hate and abhor falsehood, but I love your law.
Psa 119:164 Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous ordinances.
Psa 119:165 Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble.
Psa 119:166 I hope for your salvation, O LORD, and I fulfill your commandments.
Psa 119:167 My soul keeps your decrees; I love them exceedingly.
Psa 119:168 I keep your precepts and decrees, for all my ways are before you.
Psa 119:169 Let my cry come before you, O LORD; give me understanding according to your word.
Psa 119:170 Let my supplication come before you; deliver me according to your promise.
Psa 119:171 My lips will pour forth praise, because you teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:172 My tongue will sing of your promise, for all your commandments are right.
Psa 119:173 Let your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts.
Psa 119:174 I long for your salvation, O LORD, and your law is my delight.
Psa 119:175 Let me live that I may praise you, and let your ordinances help me.
Psa 119:176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek out your servant, for I do not forget your commandments.

Psa 120:1 <A Song of Ascents.> In my distress I cry to the LORD, that he may answer me:
Psa 120:2 "Deliver me, O LORD, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue."
Psa 120:3 What shall be given to you? And what more shall be done to you, you deceitful tongue?
Psa 120:4 A warrior's sharp arrows, with glowing coals of the broom tree!
Psa 120:5 Woe is me, that I am an alien in Meshech, that I must live among the tents of Kedar.
Psa 120:6 Too long have I had my dwelling among those who hate peace.
Psa 120:7 I am for peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

Psa 121:1 <A Song of Ascents.> I lift up my eyes to the hills-- from where will my help come?
Psa 121:2 My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
Psa 121:3 He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.
Psa 121:4 He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
Psa 121:5 The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade at your right hand.
Psa 121:6 The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.
Psa 121:7 The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
Psa 121:8 The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.

Psa 122:1 <A Song of Ascents. Of David.> I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD!"
Psa 122:2 Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.
Psa 122:3 Jerusalem-- built as a city that is bound firmly together.
Psa 122:4 To it the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
Psa 122:5 For there the thrones for judgment were set up, the thrones of the house of David.
Psa 122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May they prosper who love you."
Psa 122:7 Peace be within your walls, and security within your towers."
Psa 122:8 For the sake of my relatives and friends I will say, "Peace be within you."
Psa 122:9 For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Psa 123:1 <A Song of Ascents.> To you I lift up my eyes, O you who are enthroned in the heavens!
Psa 123:2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, until he has mercy upon us.

Psa 123:3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us, for we have had more than enough of contempt.

Psa 123:4 Our soul has had more than its fill of the scorn of those who are at ease, of the contempt of the proud.

Psa 124:1 <A Song of Ascents. Of David.> If it had not been the LORD who was on our side-- let Israel now say--

Psa 124:2 if it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when our enemies attacked us,

Psa 124:3 then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their anger was kindled against us;

Psa 124:4 then the flood would have swept us away, the torrent would have gone over us;

Psa 124:5 then over us would have gone the raging waters.

Psa 124:6 Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as prey to their teeth.

Psa 124:7 We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken, and we have escaped.

Psa 124:8 Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Psa 125:1 <A Song of Ascents.> Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever.

Psa 125:2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people, from this time on and forevermore.

Psa 125:3 For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land allotted to the righteous, so that the righteous might not stretch out their hands to do wrong.

Psa 125:4 Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts.

Psa 125:5 But those who turn aside to their own crooked ways the LORD will lead away with evildoers. Peace be upon Israel!

Psa 126:1 <A Song of Ascents.> When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

Psa 126:2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then it was said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."

Psa 126:3 The LORD has done great things for us, and we rejoiced.

Psa 126:4 Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the watercourses in the Negeb.

Psa 126:5 May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.

Psa 126:6 Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves.

Psa 127:1 <A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.> Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD guards the city, the guard keeps watch in vain.

Psa 127:2 It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives sleep to his beloved.

Psa 127:3 Sons are indeed a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward.

Psa 127:4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the sons of one's youth.

Psa 127:5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them. He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate.

Psa 128:1 <A Song of Ascents.> Happy is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways.

Psa 128:2 You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be happy, and it shall go well with you.

Psa 128:3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table.

Psa 128:4 Thus shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD.

Psa 128:5 The LORD bless you from Zion. May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

Psa 128:6 May you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel!

Psa 129:1 <A Song of Ascents.> "Often have they attacked me from my youth"-- let Israel now say--

Psa 129:2 "often have they attacked me from my youth, yet they have not prevailed against me.

Psa 129:3 The plowers plowed on my back; they made their furrows long."

Psa 129:4 The LORD is righteous; he has cut the cords of the wicked.

Psa 129:5 May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward.

Psa 129:6 Let them be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up,

Psa 129:7 with which reapers do not fill their hands or binders of sheaves their arms,

Psa 129:8 while those who pass by do not say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you! We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

Psa 130:1 <A Song of Ascents.> Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD.

Psa 130:2 Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

Psa 130:3 If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

Psa 130:4 But there is forgiveness with you, so that you may be revered.
Psa 130:5 I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope;
Psa 130:6 my soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning.
Psa 130:7 O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is great power to redeem.
Psa 130:8 It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.
Psa 131:1 <A Song of Ascents. Of David.> O LORD, my heart is not lifted up, my eyes are not raised too high; I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me.
Psa 131:2 But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; my soul is like the weaned child that is with me.
Psa 131:3 O Israel, hope in the LORD from this time on and forevermore.
Psa 132:1 <A Song of Ascents.> O LORD, remember in David's favor all the hardships he endured;
Psa 132:2 how he swore to the LORD and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob,
Psa 132:3 "I will not enter my house or get into my bed;
Psa 132:4 I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids,
Psa 132:5 until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."
Psa 132:6 We heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of Jaar.
Psa 132:7 "Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool."
Psa 132:8 Rise up, O LORD, and go to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.
Psa 132:9 Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your faithful shout for joy.
Psa 132:10 For your servant David's sake do not turn away the face of your anointed one.
Psa 132:11 The LORD swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne.
Psa 132:12 If your sons keep my covenant and my decrees that I shall teach them, their sons also, forevermore, shall sit on your throne."
Psa 132:13 For the LORD has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his habitation:
Psa 132:14 "This is my resting place forever; here I will reside, for I have desired it.
Psa 132:15 I will abundantly bless its provisions; I will satisfy its poor with bread.
Psa 132:16 Its priests I will clothe with salvation, and its faithful will shout for joy.
Psa 132:17 There I will cause a horn to sprout up for David; I have prepared a lamp for my anointed one.
Psa 132:18 His enemies I will clothe with disgrace, but on him, his crown will gleam."
Psa 133:1 <A Song of Ascents.> How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!
Psa 133:2 It is like the precious oil on the head, running down upon the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down over the collar of his robes.
Psa 133:3 It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion. For there the LORD ordained his blessing, life forevermore.
Psa 134:1 <A Song of Ascents.> Come, bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of the LORD!
Psa 134:2 Lift up your hands to the holy place, and bless the LORD.
Psa 134:3 May the LORD, maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.
Psa 135:1 Praise the LORD! Praise the name of the LORD; give praise, O servants of the LORD,
Psa 135:2 you that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.
Psa 135:3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing to his name, for he is gracious.
Psa 135:4 For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel as his own possession.
Psa 135:5 For I know that the LORD is great; our Lord is above all gods.
Psa 135:6 Whatever the LORD pleases he does, in heaven and on earth, in the seas and all deeps.
Psa 135:7 He it is who makes the clouds rise at the end of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain and brings out the wind from his storehouses.
Psa 135:8 He it was who struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both human beings and animals;
Psa 135:9 he sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.
Psa 135:10 He struck down many nations and killed mighty kings--
Psa 135:11 Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan--
Psa 135:12 and gave their land as a heritage, a heritage to his people Israel.
Psa 135:13 Your name, O LORD, endures forever, your renown, O LORD, throughout all ages.
Psa 135:14 For the LORD will vindicate his people, and have compassion on his servants.
Psa 135:15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands.
Psa 135:16 They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see;
Psa 135:17 they have ears, but they do not hear, and there is no breath in their mouths.

Psa 135:18 Those who make them and all who trust them shall become like them.
Psa 135:19 O house of Israel, bless the LORD! O house of Aaron, bless the LORD!
Psa 135:20 O house of Levi, bless the LORD! You that fear the LORD, bless the LORD!
Psa 135:21 Blessed be the LORD from Zion, he who resides in Jerusalem. Praise the LORD!
Psa 136:1 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 136:2 O give thanks to the God of gods, for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 136:3 O give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:4 who alone does great wonders, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:5 who by understanding made the heavens, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:6 who spread out the earth on the waters, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:7 who made the great lights, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:8 the sun to rule over the day, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:9 the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:10 who struck Egypt through their firstborn, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:11 and brought Israel out from among them, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:12 with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:13 who divided the Red Sea in two, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:14 and made Israel pass through the midst of it, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:15 but overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:16 who led his people through the wilderness, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:17 who struck down great kings, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:18 and killed famous kings, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:19 Sihon, king of the Amorites, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:20 and Og, king of Bashan, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:21 and gave their land as a heritage, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:22 a heritage to his servant Israel, for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 136:23 It is he who remembered us in our low estate, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:24 and rescued us from our foes, for his steadfast love endures forever;
Psa 136:25 who gives food to all flesh, for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 136:26 O give thanks to the God of heaven, for his steadfast love endures forever.
Psa 137:1 By the rivers of Babylon-- there we sat down and there we wept when we remembered Zion.
Psa 137:2 On the willows there we hung up our harps.
Psa 137:3 For there our captors asked us for songs, and our tormentors asked for mirth, saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"
Psa 137:4 How could we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land?
Psa 137:5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand wither!
Psa 137:6 Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth, if I do not remember you, if I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy.
Psa 137:7 Remember, O LORD, against the Edomites the day of Jerusalem's fall, how they said, "Tear it down! Tear it down! Down to its foundations!"
Psa 137:8 O daughter Babylon, you devastator! Happy shall they be who pay you back what you have done to us!
Psa 137:9 Happy shall they be who take your little ones and dash them against the rock!
Psa 138:1 <Of David.> I give you thanks, O LORD, with my whole heart; before the gods I sing your praise;
Psa 138:2 I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness; for you have exalted your name and your word above everything.
Psa 138:3 On the day I called, you answered me, you increased my strength of soul.
Psa 138:4 All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O LORD, for they have heard the words of your mouth.
Psa 138:5 They shall sing of the ways of the LORD, for great is the glory of the LORD.
Psa 138:6 For though the LORD is high, he regards the lowly; but the haughty he perceives from far away.
Psa 138:7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve me against the wrath of my enemies; you stretch out your hand, and your right hand delivers me.
Psa 138:8 The LORD will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.
Psa 139:1 <To the leader. Of David. A Psalm.> O LORD, you have searched me and known me.
Psa 139:2 You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away.
Psa 139:3 You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.
Psa 139:4 Even before a word is on my tongue, O LORD, you know it completely.
Psa 139:5 You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

Psa 139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.
Psa 139:7 Where can I go from your spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence?
Psa 139:8 If I ascend to heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
Psa 139:9 If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea,
Psa 139:10 even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me fast.
Psa 139:11 If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light around me become night,"
Psa 139:12 even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day, for darkness is as light to you.
Psa 139:13 For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb.
Psa 139:14 I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.
Psa 139:15 My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.
Psa 139:16 Your eyes beheld my unformed substance. In your book were written all the days that were formed for me, when none of them as yet existed.
Psa 139:17 How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!
Psa 139:18 I try to count them-- they are more than the sand; I come to the end-- I am still with you.
Psa 139:19 O that you would kill the wicked, O God, and that the bloodthirsty would depart from me--
Psa 139:20 those who speak of you maliciously, and lift themselves up against you for evil!
Psa 139:21 Do I not hate those who hate you, O LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you?
Psa 139:22 I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them my enemies.
Psa 139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my thoughts.
Psa 139:24 See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.
Psa 140:1 <To the leader. A Psalm of David.> Deliver me, O LORD, from evildoers; protect me from those who are violent, Psa 140:2 who plan evil things in their minds and stir up wars continually.
Psa 140:3 They make their tongue sharp as a snake's, and under their lips is the venom of vipers. Selah
Psa 140:4 Guard me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; protect me from the violent who have planned my downfall.
Psa 140:5 The arrogant have hidden a trap for me, and with cords they have spread a net, along the road they have set snares for me. Selah
Psa 140:6 I say to the LORD, "You are my God; give ear, O LORD, to the voice of my supplications."
Psa 140:7 O LORD, my Lord, my strong deliverer, you have covered my head in the day of battle.
Psa 140:8 Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked; do not further their evil plot. Selah
Psa 140:9 Those who surround me lift up their heads; let the mischief of their lips overwhelm them!
Psa 140:10 Let burning coals fall on them! Let them be flung into pits, no more to rise!
Psa 140:11 Do not let the slanderer be established in the land; let evil speedily hunt down the violent!
Psa 140:12 I know that the LORD maintains the cause of the needy, and executes justice for the poor.
Psa 140:13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name; the upright shall live in your presence.
Psa 141:1 <A Psalm of David.> I call upon you, O LORD; come quickly to me; give ear to my voice when I call to you.
Psa 141:2 Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice.
Psa 141:3 Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD; keep watch over the door of my lips.
Psa 141:4 Do not turn my heart to any evil, to busy myself with wicked deeds in company with those who work iniquity; do not let me eat of their delicacies.
Psa 141:5 Let the righteous strike me; let the faithful correct me. Never let the oil of the wicked anoint my head, for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.
Psa 141:6 When they are given over to those who shall condemn them, then they shall learn that my words were pleasant.
Psa 141:7 Like a rock that one breaks apart and shatters on the land, so shall their bones be strewn at the mouth of Sheol.
Psa 141:8 But my eyes are turned toward you, O GOD, my Lord; in you I seek refuge; do not leave me defenseless.
Psa 141:9 Keep me from the trap that they have laid for me, and from the snares of evildoers.
Psa 141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I alone escape.
Psa 142:1 <A Maskil of David. When he was in the cave. A Prayer.> With my voice I cry to the LORD; with my voice I make supplication to the LORD.
Psa 142:2 I pour out my complaint before him; I tell my trouble before him.
Psa 142:3 When my spirit is faint, you know my way. In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me.

Psa 142:4 Look on my right hand and see-- there is no one who takes notice of me; no refuge remains to me; no one cares for me.

Psa 142:5 I cry to you, O LORD; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

Psa 142:6 Give heed to my cry, for I am brought very low. Save me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

Psa 142:7 Bring me out of prison, so that I may give thanks to your name. The righteous will surround me, for you will deal bountifully with me.

Psa 143:1 <A Psalm of David.> Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my supplications in your faithfulness; answer me in your righteousness.

Psa 143:2 Do not enter into judgment with your servant, for no one living is righteous before you.

Psa 143:3 For the enemy has pursued me, crushing my life to the ground, making me sit in darkness like those long dead.

Psa 143:4 Therefore my spirit faints within me; my heart within me is appalled.

Psa 143:5 I remember the days of old, I think about all your deeds, I meditate on the works of your hands.

Psa 143:6 I stretch out my hands to you; my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Selah

Psa 143:7 Answer me quickly, O LORD; my spirit fails. Do not hide your face from me, or I shall be like those who go down to the Pit.

Psa 143:8 Let me hear of your steadfast love in the morning, for in you I put my trust. Teach me the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

Psa 143:9 Save me, O LORD, from my enemies; I have fled to you for refuge.

Psa 143:10 Teach me to do your will, for you are my God. Let your good spirit lead me on a level path.

Psa 143:11 For your name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life. In your righteousness bring me out of trouble.

Psa 143:12 In your steadfast love cut off my enemies, and destroy all my adversaries, for I am your servant.

Psa 144:1 <Of David.> Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle;

Psa 144:2 my rock and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues the peoples under me.

Psa 144:3 O LORD, what are human beings that you regard them, or mortals that you think of them?

Psa 144:4 They are like a breath; their days are like a passing shadow.

Psa 144:5 Bow your heavens, O LORD, and come down; touch the mountains so that they smoke.

Psa 144:6 Make the lightning flash and scatter them; send out your arrows and rout them.

Psa 144:7 Stretch out your hand from on high; set me free and rescue me from the mighty waters, from the hand of aliens,

Psa 144:8 whose mouths speak lies, and whose right hands are false.

Psa 144:9 I will sing a new song to you, O God; upon a ten-stringed harp I will play to you,

Psa 144:10 the one who gives victory to kings, who rescues his servant David.

Psa 144:11 Rescue me from the cruel sword, and deliver me from the hand of aliens, whose mouths speak lies, and whose right hands are false.

Psa 144:12 May our sons in their youth be like plants full grown, our daughters like corner pillars, cut for the building of a palace.

Psa 144:13 May our barns be filled, with produce of every kind; may our sheep increase by thousands, by tens of thousands in our fields,

Psa 144:14 and may our cattle be heavy with young. May there be no breach in the walls, no exile, and no cry of distress in our streets.

Psa 144:15 Happy are the people to whom such blessings fall; happy are the people whose God is the LORD.

Psa 145:1 <Praise. Of David.> I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever.

Psa 145:2 Every day I will bless you, and praise your name forever and ever.

Psa 145:3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; his greatness is unsearchable.

Psa 145:4 One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.

Psa 145:5 On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate.

Psa 145:6 The might of your awesome deeds shall be proclaimed, and I will declare your greatness.

Psa 145:7 They shall celebrate the fame of your abundant goodness, and shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

Psa 145:8 The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Psa 145:9 The LORD is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.

Psa 145:10 All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your faithful shall bless you.

Psa 145:11 They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom, and tell of your power,

Psa 145:12 to make known to all people your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Psa 145:13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. The LORD is faithful in all his words, and gracious in all his deeds.

Psa 145:14 The LORD upholds all who are falling, and raises up all who are bowed down.
Psa 145:15 The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season.
Psa 145:16 You open your hand, satisfying the desire of every living thing.
Psa 145:17 The LORD is just in all his ways, and kind in all his doings.
Psa 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.
Psa 145:19 He fulfills the desire of all who fear him; he also hears their cry, and saves them.
Psa 145:20 The LORD watches over all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy.
Psa 145:21 My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and all flesh will bless his holy name forever and ever.
Psa 146:1 Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD, O my soul!
Psa 146:2 I will praise the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God all my life long.
Psa 146:3 Do not put your trust in princes, in mortals, in whom there is no help.
Psa 146:4 When their breath departs, they return to the earth; on that very day their plans perish.
Psa 146:5 Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD their God,
Psa 146:6 who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps faith forever;
Psa 146:7 who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets the prisoners free;
Psa 146:8 the LORD opens the eyes of the blind. The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down; the LORD loves the righteous.
Psa 146:9 The LORD watches over the strangers; he upholds the orphan and the widow, but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.
Psa 146:10 The LORD will reign forever, your God, O Zion, for all generations. Praise the LORD!
Psa 147:1 Praise the LORD! How good it is to sing praises to our God; for he is gracious, and a song of praise is fitting.
Psa 147:2 The LORD builds up Jerusalem; he gathers the outcasts of Israel.
Psa 147:3 He heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.
Psa 147:4 He determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names.
Psa 147:5 Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.
Psa 147:6 The LORD lifts up the downtrodden; he casts the wicked to the ground.
Psa 147:7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make melody to our God on the lyre.
Psa 147:8 He covers the heavens with clouds, prepares rain for the earth, makes grass grow on the hills.
Psa 147:9 He gives to the animals their food, and to the young ravens when they cry.
Psa 147:10 His delight is not in the strength of the horse, nor his pleasure in the speed of a runner;
Psa 147:11 but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.
Psa 147:12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!
Psa 147:13 For he strengthens the bars of your gates; he blesses your children within you.
Psa 147:14 He grants peace within your borders; he fills you with the finest of wheat.
Psa 147:15 He sends out his command to the earth; his word runs swiftly.
Psa 147:16 He gives snow like wool; he scatters frost like ashes.
Psa 147:17 He hurls down hail like crumbs-- who can stand before his cold?
Psa 147:18 He sends out his word, and melts them; he makes his wind blow, and the waters flow.
Psa 147:19 He declares his word to Jacob, his statutes and ordinances to Israel.
Psa 147:20 He has not dealt thus with any other nation; they do not know his ordinances. Praise the LORD!
Psa 148:1 Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights!
Psa 148:2 Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his host!
Psa 148:3 Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all you shining stars!
Psa 148:4 Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens!
Psa 148:5 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for he commanded and they were created.
Psa 148:6 He established them forever and ever; he fixed their bounds, which cannot be passed.
Psa 148:7 Praise the LORD from the earth, you sea monsters and all deeps,
Psa 148:8 fire and hail, snow and frost, stormy wind fulfilling his command!
Psa 148:9 Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars!
Psa 148:10 Wild animals and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds!
Psa 148:11 Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth!
Psa 148:12 Young men and women alike, old and young together!
Psa 148:13 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven.
Psa 148:14 He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his faithful, for the people of Israel who are close to him. Praise the LORD!
Psa 149:1 Praise the LORD! Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Psa 149:2 Let Israel be glad in its Maker; let the children of Zion rejoice in their King.
Psa 149:3 Let them praise his name with dancing, making melody to him with tambourine and lyre.
Psa 149:4 For the LORD takes pleasure in his people; he adorns the humble with victory.
Psa 149:5 Let the faithful exult in glory; let them sing for joy on their couches.
Psa 149:6 Let the high praises of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands,
Psa 149:7 to execute vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,
Psa 149:8 to bind their kings with fetters and their nobles with chains of iron,
Psa 149:9 to execute on them the judgment decreed. This is glory for all his faithful ones. Praise the LORD!
Psa 150:1 Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty firmament!
Psa 150:2 Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his surpassing greatness!
Psa 150:3 Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp!
Psa 150:4 Praise him with tambourine and dance; praise him with strings and pipe!
Psa 150:5 Praise him with clanging cymbals; praise him with loud clashing cymbals!
Psa 150:6 Let everything that breathes praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!

Pro 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:
Pro 1:2 For learning about wisdom and instruction, for understanding words of insight,
Pro 1:3 for gaining instruction in wise dealing, righteousness, justice, and equity;
Pro 1:4 to teach shrewdness to the simple, knowledge and prudence to the young--
Pro 1:5 Let the wise also hear and gain in learning, and the discerning acquire skill,
Pro 1:6 to understand a proverb and a figure, the words of the wise and their riddles.
Pro 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.
Pro 1:8 Hear, my child, your father's instruction, and do not reject your mother's teaching;
Pro 1:9 for they are a fair garland for your head, and pendants for your neck.
Pro 1:10 My child, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
Pro 1:11 If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood; let us wantonly ambush the innocent;
Pro 1:12 like Sheol let us swallow them alive and whole, like those who go down to the Pit.
Pro 1:13 We shall find all kinds of costly things; we shall fill our houses with booty.
Pro 1:14 Throw in your lot among us; we will all have one purse"--
Pro 1:15 my child, do not walk in their way, keep your foot from their paths;
Pro 1:16 for their feet run to evil, and they hurry to shed blood.
Pro 1:17 For in vain is the net baited while the bird is looking on;
Pro 1:18 yet they lie in wait-- to kill themselves! and set an ambush-- for their own lives!
Pro 1:19 Such is the end of all who are greedy for gain; it takes away the life of its possessors.
Pro 1:20 Wisdom cries out in the street; in the squares she raises her voice.
Pro 1:21 At the busiest corner she cries out; at the entrance of the city gates she speaks:
Pro 1:22 "How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple? How long will scoffers delight in their scoffing and fools hate knowledge?
Pro 1:23 Give heed to my reproof; I will pour out my thoughts to you; I will make my words known to you.
Pro 1:24 Because I have called and you refused, have stretched out my hand and no one heeded,
Pro 1:25 and because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof,
Pro 1:26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when panic strikes you,
Pro 1:27 when panic strikes you like a storm, and your calamity comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.
Pro 1:28 Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently, but will not find me.
Pro 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD,
Pro 1:30 would have none of my counsel, and despised all my reproof,
Pro 1:31 therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way and be sated with their own devices.
Pro 1:32 For waywardness kills the simple, and the complacency of fools destroys them;
Pro 1:33 but those who listen to me will be secure and will live at ease, without dread of disaster."

Pro 2:1 My child, if you accept my words and treasure up my commandments within you,
Pro 2:2 making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding;
Pro 2:3 if you indeed cry out for insight, and raise your voice for understanding;
Pro 2:4 if you seek it like silver, and search for it as for hidden treasures--
Pro 2:5 then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.
Pro 2:6 For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;
Pro 2:7 he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk blamelessly,
Pro 2:8 guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of his faithful ones.
Pro 2:9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path;
Pro 2:10 for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;

Pro 2:11 prudence will watch over you; and understanding will guard you.
Pro 2:12 It will save you from the way of evil, from those who speak perversely,
Pro 2:13 who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,
Pro 2:14 who rejoice in doing evil and delight in the perverseness of evil;
Pro 2:15 those whose paths are crooked, and who are devious in their ways.
Pro 2:16 You will be saved from the loose woman, from the adulteress with her smooth words,
Pro 2:17 who forsakes the partner of her youth and forgets her sacred covenant;
Pro 2:18 for her way leads down to death, and her paths to the shades;
Pro 2:19 those who go to her never come back, nor do they regain the paths of life.
Pro 2:20 Therefore walk in the way of the good, and keep to the paths of the just.
Pro 2:21 For the upright will abide in the land, and the innocent will remain in it;
Pro 2:22 but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.
Pro 3:1 My child, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments;
Pro 3:2 for length of days and years of life and abundant welfare they will give you.
Pro 3:3 Do not let loyalty and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.
Pro 3:4 So you will find favor and good repute in the sight of God and of people.
Pro 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight.
Pro 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.
Pro 3:7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.
Pro 3:8 It will be a healing for your flesh and a refreshment for your body.
Pro 3:9 Honor the LORD with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce;
Pro 3:10 then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.
Pro 3:11 My child, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof,
Pro 3:12 for the LORD reproves the one he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.
Pro 3:13 Happy are those who find wisdom, and those who get understanding,
Pro 3:14 for her income is better than silver, and her revenue better than gold.
Pro 3:15 She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her.
Pro 3:16 Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.
Pro 3:17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.
Pro 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; those who hold her fast are called happy.
Pro 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding he established the heavens;
Pro 3:20 by his knowledge the deeps broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.
Pro 3:21 My child, do not let these escape from your sight: keep sound wisdom and prudence,
Pro 3:22 and they will be life for your soul and adornment for your neck.
Pro 3:23 Then you will walk on your way securely and your foot will not stumble.
Pro 3:24 If you sit down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
Pro 3:25 Do not be afraid of sudden panic, or of the storm that strikes the wicked;
Pro 3:26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.
Pro 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.
Pro 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"-- when you have it with you.
Pro 3:29 Do not plan harm against your neighbor who lives trustingly beside you.
Pro 3:30 Do not quarrel with anyone without cause, when no harm has been done to you.
Pro 3:31 Do not envy the violent and do not choose any of their ways;
Pro 3:32 for the perverse are an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.
Pro 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the abode of the righteous.
Pro 3:34 Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he shows favor.
Pro 3:35 The wise will inherit honor, but stubborn fools, disgrace.
Pro 4:1 Listen, children, to a father's instruction, and be attentive, that you may gain insight;
Pro 4:2 for I give you good precepts: do not forsake my teaching.
Pro 4:3 When I was a son with my father, tender, and my mother's favorite,
Pro 4:4 he taught me, and said to me, "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live.
Pro 4:5 Get wisdom; get insight: do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
Pro 4:6 Do not forsake her, and she will keep you; love her, and she will guard you.
Pro 4:7 The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever else you get, get insight.
Pro 4:8 Prize her highly, and she will exalt you; she will honor you if you embrace her.
Pro 4:9 She will place on your head a fair garland; she will bestow on you a beautiful crown."
Pro 4:10 Hear, my child, and accept my words, that the years of your life may be many.
Pro 4:11 I have taught you the way of wisdom; I have led you in the paths of uprightness.

Pro 4:12 When you walk, your step will not be hampered; and if you run, you will not stumble.
Pro 4:13 Keep hold of instruction; do not let go; guard her, for she is your life.
Pro 4:14 Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of evildoers.
Pro 4:15 Avoid it; do not go on it; turn away from it and pass on.
Pro 4:16 For they cannot sleep unless they have done wrong; they are robbed of sleep unless they have made someone stumble.
Pro 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
Pro 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day.
Pro 4:19 The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know what they stumble over.
Pro 4:20 My child, be attentive to my words; incline your ear to my sayings.
Pro 4:21 Do not let them escape from your sight; keep them within your heart.
Pro 4:22 For they are life to those who find them, and healing to all their flesh.
Pro 4:23 Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life.
Pro 4:24 Put away from you crooked speech, and put devious talk far from you.
Pro 4:25 Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.
Pro 4:26 Keep straight the path of your feet, and all your ways will be sure.
Pro 4:27 Do not swerve to the right or to the left; turn your foot away from evil.
Pro 5:1 My child, be attentive to my wisdom; incline your ear to my understanding,
Pro 5:2 so that you may hold on to prudence, and your lips may guard knowledge.
Pro 5:3 For the lips of a loose woman drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil;
Pro 5:4 but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.
Pro 5:5 Her feet go down to death; her steps follow the path to Sheol.
Pro 5:6 She does not keep straight to the path of life; her ways wander, and she does not know it.
Pro 5:7 And now, my child, listen to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.
Pro 5:8 Keep your way far from her, and do not go near the door of her house;
Pro 5:9 or you will give your honor to others, and your years to the merciless,
Pro 5:10 and strangers will take their fill of your wealth, and your labors will go to the house of an alien;
Pro 5:11 and at the end of your life you will groan, when your flesh and body are consumed,
Pro 5:12 and you say, "Oh, how I hated discipline, and my heart despised reproof!
Pro 5:13 I did not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.
Pro 5:14 Now I am at the point of utter ruin in the public assembly."
Pro 5:15 Drink water from your own cistern, flowing water from your own well.
Pro 5:16 Should your springs be scattered abroad, streams of water in the streets?
Pro 5:17 Let them be for yourself alone, and not for sharing with strangers.
Pro 5:18 Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth,
Pro 5:19 a lovely deer, a graceful doe. May her breasts satisfy you at all times; may you be intoxicated always by her love.
Pro 5:20 Why should you be intoxicated, my son, by another woman and embrace the bosom of an adulteress?
Pro 5:21 For human ways are under the eyes of the LORD, and he examines all their paths.
Pro 5:22 The iniquities of the wicked ensnare them, and they are caught in the toils of their sin.
Pro 5:23 They die for lack of discipline, and because of their great folly they are lost.
Pro 6:1 My child, if you have given your pledge to your neighbor, if you have bound yourself to another,
Pro 6:2 you are snared by the utterance of your lips, caught by the words of your mouth.
Pro 6:3 So do this, my child, and save yourself, for you have come into your neighbor's power: go, hurry, and plead with your neighbor.
Pro 6:4 Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber;
Pro 6:5 save yourself like a gazelle from the hunter, like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
Pro 6:6 Go to the ant, you lazybones; consider its ways, and be wise.
Pro 6:7 Without having any chief or officer or ruler,
Pro 6:8 it prepares its food in summer, and gathers its sustenance in harvest.
Pro 6:9 How long will you lie there, O lazybones? When will you rise from your sleep?
Pro 6:10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,
Pro 6:11 and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want, like an armed warrior.
Pro 6:12 A scoundrel and a villain goes around with crooked speech,
Pro 6:13 winking the eyes, shuffling the feet, pointing the fingers,
Pro 6:14 with perverted mind devising evil, continually sowing discord;
Pro 6:15 on such a one calamity will descend suddenly; in a moment, damage beyond repair.
Pro 6:16 There are six things that the LORD hates, seven that are an abomination to him:
Pro 6:17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

Pro 6:18 a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that hurry to run to evil,
Pro 6:19 a lying witness who testifies falsely, and one who sows discord in a family.
Pro 6:20 My child, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake your mother's teaching.
Pro 6:21 Bind them upon your heart always; tie them around your neck.
Pro 6:22 When you walk, they will lead you; when you lie down, they will watch over you; and when you awake, they will talk with you.
Pro 6:23 For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life,
Pro 6:24 to preserve you from the wife of another, from the smooth tongue of the adulteress.
Pro 6:25 Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes;
Pro 6:26 for a prostitute's fee is only a loaf of bread, but the wife of another stalks a man's very life.
Pro 6:27 Can fire be carried in the bosom without burning one's clothes?
Pro 6:28 Or can one walk on hot coals without scorching the feet?
Pro 6:29 So is he who sleeps with his neighbor's wife; no one who touches her will go unpunished.
Pro 6:30 Thieves are not despised who steal only to satisfy their appetite when they are hungry.
Pro 6:31 Yet if they are caught, they will pay sevenfold; they will forfeit all the goods of their house.
Pro 6:32 But he who commits adultery has no sense; he who does it destroys himself.
Pro 6:33 He will get wounds and dishonor, and his disgrace will not be wiped away.
Pro 6:34 For jealousy arouses a husband's fury, and he shows no restraint when he takes revenge.
Pro 6:35 He will accept no compensation, and refuses a bribe no matter how great.
Pro 7:1 My child, keep my words and store up my commandments with you;
Pro 7:2 keep my commandments and live, keep my teachings as the apple of your eye;
Pro 7:3 bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart.
Pro 7:4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call insight your intimate friend,
Pro 7:5 that they may keep you from the loose woman, from the adulteress with her smooth words.
Pro 7:6 For at the window of my house I looked out through my lattice,
Pro 7:7 and I saw among the simple ones, I observed among the youths, a young man without sense,
Pro 7:8 passing along the street near her corner, taking the road to her house
Pro 7:9 in the twilight, in the evening, at the time of night and darkness.
Pro 7:10 Then a woman comes toward him, decked out like a prostitute, wily of heart.
Pro 7:11 She is loud and wayward; her feet do not stay at home;
Pro 7:12 now in the street, now in the squares, and at every corner she lies in wait.
Pro 7:13 She seizes him and kisses him, and with impudent face she says to him:
Pro 7:14 "I had to offer sacrifices, and today I have paid my vows;
Pro 7:15 so now I have come out to meet you, to seek you eagerly, and I have found you!
Pro 7:16 I have decked my couch with coverings, colored spreads of Egyptian linen;
Pro 7:17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
Pro 7:18 Come, let us take our fill of love until morning; let us delight ourselves with love.
Pro 7:19 For my husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey.
Pro 7:20 He took a bag of money with him; he will not come home until full moon."
Pro 7:21 With much seductive speech she persuades him; with her smooth talk she compels him.
Pro 7:22 Right away he follows her, and goes like an ox to the slaughter, or bounds like a stag toward the trap
Pro 7:23 until an arrow pierces its entrails. He is like a bird rushing into a snare, not knowing that it will cost him his life.
Pro 7:24 And now, my children, listen to me, and be attentive to the words of my mouth.
Pro 7:25 Do not let your hearts turn aside to her ways; do not stray into her paths.
Pro 7:26 for many are those she has laid low, and numerous are her victims.
Pro 7:27 Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers of death.
Pro 8:1 Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice?
Pro 8:2 On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand;
Pro 8:3 beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
Pro 8:4 "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live.
Pro 8:5 O simple ones, learn prudence; acquire intelligence, you who lack it.
Pro 8:6 Hear, for I will speak noble things, and from my lips will come what is right;
Pro 8:7 for my mouth will utter truth; wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
Pro 8:8 All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them.
Pro 8:9 They are all straight to one who understands and right to those who find knowledge.
Pro 8:10 Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold;
Pro 8:11 for wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her.

Pro 8:12 I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I attain knowledge and discretion.
Pro 8:13 The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate.
Pro 8:14 I have good advice and sound wisdom; I have insight, I have strength.
Pro 8:15 By me kings reign, and rulers decree what is just;
Pro 8:16 by me rulers rule, and nobles, all who govern rightly.
Pro 8:17 I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me.
Pro 8:18 Riches and honor are with me, enduring wealth and prosperity.
Pro 8:19 My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold, and my yield than choice silver.
Pro 8:20 I walk in the way of righteousness, along the paths of justice, Pro 8:21 endowing with wealth those who love me, and filling their treasuries.
Pro 8:22 The LORD created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.
Pro 8:23 Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
Pro 8:24 When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.
Pro 8:25 Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth--
Pro 8:26 when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.
Pro 8:27 When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
Pro 8:28 when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep,
Pro 8:29 when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
Pro 8:30 then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
Pro 8:31 rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.
Pro 8:32 And now, my children, listen to me: happy are those who keep my ways.
Pro 8:33 Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it.
Pro 8:34 Happy is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors.
Pro 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD;
Pro 8:36 but those who miss me injure themselves; all who hate me love death."
Pro 9:1 Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn her seven pillars.
Pro 9:2 She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine, she has also set her table.
Pro 9:3 She has sent out her servant-girls, she calls from the highest places in the town,
Pro 9:4 "You that are simple, turn in here!" To those without sense she says,
Pro 9:5 "Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed.
Pro 9:6 Lay aside immaturity, and live, and walk in the way of insight."
Pro 9:7 Whoever corrects a scoffer wins abuse; whoever rebukes the wicked gets hurt.
Pro 9:8 A scoffer who is rebuked will only hate you; the wise, when rebuked, will love you.
Pro 9:9 Give instruction to the wise, and they will become wiser still; teach the righteous and they will gain in learning.
Pro 9:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.
Pro 9:11 For by me your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life.
Pro 9:12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; if you scoff, you alone will bear it.
Pro 9:13 The foolish woman is loud; she is ignorant and knows nothing.
Pro 9:14 She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the high places of the town,
Pro 9:15 calling to those who pass by, who are going straight on their way,
Pro 9:16 "You who are simple, turn in here!" And to those without sense she says,
Pro 9:17 "Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant."
Pro 9:18 But they do not know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.
Pro 10:1 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise child makes a glad father, but a foolish child is a mother's grief.
Pro 10:2 Treasures gained by wickedness do not profit, but righteousness delivers from death.
Pro 10:3 The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.
Pro 10:4 A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich.
Pro 10:5 A child who gathers in summer is prudent, but a child who sleeps in harvest brings shame.
Pro 10:6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
Pro 10:7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.
Pro 10:8 The wise of heart will heed commandments, but a babbling fool will come to ruin.
Pro 10:9 Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever follows perverse ways will be found out.
Pro 10:10 Whoever winks the eye causes trouble, but the one who rebukes boldly makes peace.
Pro 10:11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
Pro 10:12 Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all offenses.
Pro 10:13 On the lips of one who has understanding wisdom is found, but a rod is for the back of one who lacks sense.

- Pro 10:14 The wise lay up knowledge, but the babbling of a fool brings ruin near.
- Pro 10:15 The wealth of the rich is their fortress; the poverty of the poor is their ruin.
- Pro 10:16 The wage of the righteous leads to life, the gain of the wicked to sin.
- Pro 10:17 Whoever heeds instruction is on the path to life, but one who rejects a rebuke goes astray.

Pro 15:33 The fear of the LORD is instruction in wisdom, and humility goes before honor.
Pro 16:1 The plans of the mind belong to mortals, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.
Pro 16:2 All one's ways may be pure in one's own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirit.
Pro 16:3 Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established.
Pro 16:4 The LORD has made everything for its purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble.
Pro 16:5 All those who are arrogant are an abomination to the LORD; be assured, they will not go unpunished.
Pro 16:6 By loyalty and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one avoids evil.
Pro 16:7 When the ways of people please the LORD, he causes even their enemies to be at peace with them.
Pro 16:8 Better is a little with righteousness than large income with injustice.
Pro 16:9 The human mind plans the way, but the LORD directs the steps.
Pro 16:10 Inspired decisions are on the lips of a king; his mouth does not sin in judgment.
Pro 16:11 Honest balances and scales are the LORD's; all the weights in the bag are his work.
Pro 16:12 It is an abomination to kings to do evil, for the throne is established by righteousness.
Pro 16:13 Righteous lips are the delight of a king, and he loves those who speak what is right.
Pro 16:14 A king's wrath is a messenger of death, and whoever is wise will appease it.
Pro 16:15 In the light of a king's face there is life, and his favor is like the clouds that bring the spring rain.
Pro 16:16 How much better to get wisdom than gold! To get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
Pro 16:17 The highway of the upright avoids evil; those who guard their way preserve their lives.
Pro 16:18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
Pro 16:19 It is better to be of a lowly spirit among the poor than to divide the spoil with the proud.
Pro 16:20 Those who are attentive to a matter will prosper, and happy are those who trust in the LORD.
Pro 16:21 The wise of heart is called perceptive, and pleasant speech increases persuasiveness.
Pro 16:22 Wisdom is a fountain of life to one who has it, but folly is the punishment of fools.
Pro 16:23 The mind of the wise makes their speech judicious, and adds persuasiveness to their lips.
Pro 16:24 Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the body.
Pro 16:25 Sometimes there is a way that seems to be right, but in the end it is the way to death.
Pro 16:26 The appetite of workers works for them; their hunger urges them on.
Pro 16:27 Scoundrels concoct evil, and their speech is like a scorching fire.
Pro 16:28 A perverse person spreads strife, and a whisperer separates close friends.
Pro 16:29 The violent entice their neighbors, and lead them in a way that is not good.
Pro 16:30 One who winks the eyes plans perverse things; one who compresses the lips brings evil to pass.
Pro 16:31 Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life.
Pro 16:32 One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and one whose temper is controlled than one who captures a city.
Pro 16:33 The lot is cast into the lap, but the decision is the LORD's alone.
Pro 17:1 Better is a dry morsel with quiet than a house full of feasting with strife.
Pro 17:2 A slave who deals wisely will rule over a child who acts shamefully, and will share the inheritance as one of the family.
Pro 17:3 The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, but the LORD tests the heart.
Pro 17:4 An evildoer listens to wicked lips; and a liar gives heed to a mischievous tongue.
Pro 17:5 Those who mock the poor insult their Maker; those who are glad at calamity will not go unpunished.
Pro 17:6 Grandchildren are the crown of the aged, and the glory of children is their parents.
Pro 17:7 Fine speech is not becoming to a fool; still less is false speech to a ruler.
Pro 17:8 A bribe is like a magic stone in the eyes of those who give it; wherever they turn they prosper.
Pro 17:9 One who forgives an affront fosters friendship, but one who dwells on disputes will alienate a friend.
Pro 17:10 A rebuke strikes deeper into a discerning person than a hundred blows into a fool.
Pro 17:11 Evil people seek only rebellion, but a cruel messenger will be sent against them.
Pro 17:12 Better to meet a she-bear robbed of its cubs than to confront a fool immersed in folly.
Pro 17:13 Evil will not depart from the house of one who returns evil for good.
Pro 17:14 The beginning of strife is like letting out water; so stop before the quarrel breaks out.
Pro 17:15 One who justifies the wicked and one who condemns the righteous are both alike an abomination to the LORD.
Pro 17:16 Why should fools have a price in hand to buy wisdom, when they have no mind to learn?
Pro 17:17 A friend loves at all times, and kinsfolk are born to share adversity.
Pro 17:18 It is senseless to give a pledge, to become surety for a neighbor.

Pro 17:19 One who loves transgression loves strife; one who builds a high threshold invites broken bones.
Pro 17:20 The crooked of mind do not prosper, and the perverse of tongue fall into calamity.
Pro 17:21 The one who begets a fool gets trouble; the parent of a fool has no joy.
Pro 17:22 A cheerful heart is a good medicine, but a downcast spirit dries up the bones.
Pro 17:23 The wicked accept a concealed bribe to pervert the ways of justice.
Pro 17:24 The discerning person looks to wisdom, but the eyes of a fool to the ends of the earth.
Pro 17:25 Foolish children are a grief to their father and bitterness to her who bore them.
Pro 17:26 To impose a fine on the innocent is not right, or to flog the noble for their integrity.
Pro 17:27 One who spares words is knowledgeable; one who is cool in spirit has understanding.
Pro 17:28 Even fools who keep silent are considered wise; when they close their lips, they are deemed intelligent.

Pro 18:1 The one who lives alone is self-indulgent, showing contempt for all who have sound judgment.
Pro 18:2 A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing personal opinion.
Pro 18:3 When wickedness comes, contempt comes also; and with dishonor comes disgrace.
Pro 18:4 The words of the mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a gushing stream.
Pro 18:5 It is not right to be partial to the guilty, or to subvert the innocent in judgment.
Pro 18:6 A fool's lips bring strife, and a fool's mouth invites a flogging.
Pro 18:7 The mouths of fools are their ruin, and their lips a snare to themselves.
Pro 18:8 The words of a whisperer are like delicious morsels; they go down into the inner parts of the body.
Pro 18:9 One who is slack in work is close kin to a vandal.
Pro 18:10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous run into it and are safe.
Pro 18:11 The wealth of the rich is their strong city; in their imagination it is like a high wall.
Pro 18:12 Before destruction one's heart is haughty, but humility goes before honor.
Pro 18:13 If one gives answer before hearing, it is folly and shame.
Pro 18:14 The human spirit will endure sickness; but a broken spirit-- who can bear?
Pro 18:15 An intelligent mind acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
Pro 18:16 A gift opens doors; it gives access to the great.
Pro 18:17 The one who first states a case seems right, until the other comes and cross-examines.
Pro 18:18 Casting the lot puts an end to disputes and decides between powerful contenders.
Pro 18:19 An ally offended is stronger than a city; such quarreling is like the bars of a castle.
Pro 18:20 From the fruit of the mouth one's stomach is satisfied; the yield of the lips brings satisfaction.
Pro 18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruits.
Pro 18:22 He who finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor from the LORD.
Pro 18:23 The poor use entreaties, but the rich answer roughly.
Pro 18:24 Some friends play at friendship but a true friend sticks closer than one's nearest kin.

Pro 19:1 Better the poor walking in integrity than one perverse of speech who is a fool.
Pro 19:2 Desire without knowledge is not good, and one who moves too hurriedly misses the way.
Pro 19:3 One's own folly leads to ruin, yet the heart rages against the LORD.
Pro 19:4 Wealth brings many friends, but the poor are left friendless.
Pro 19:5 A false witness will not go unpunished, and a liar will not escape.
Pro 19:6 Many seek the favor of the generous, and everyone is a friend to a giver of gifts.
Pro 19:7 If the poor are hated even by their kin, how much more are they shunned by their friends! When they call after them, they are not there.
Pro 19:8 To get wisdom is to love oneself; to keep understanding is to prosper.
Pro 19:9 A false witness will not go unpunished, and the liar will perish.
Pro 19:10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, much less for a slave to rule over princes.
Pro 19:11 Those with good sense are slow to anger, and it is their glory to overlook an offense.
Pro 19:12 A king's anger is like the growling of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.
Pro 19:13 A stupid child is ruin to a father, and a wife's quarreling is a continual dripping of rain.
Pro 19:14 House and wealth are inherited from parents, but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
Pro 19:15 Laziness brings on deep sleep; an idle person will suffer hunger.
Pro 19:16 Those who keep the commandment will live; those who are heedless of their ways will die.
Pro 19:17 Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the LORD, and will be repaid in full.
Pro 19:18 Discipline your children while there is hope; do not set your heart on their destruction.
Pro 19:19 A violent tempered person will pay the penalty; if you effect a rescue, you will only have to do it again.
Pro 19:20 Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom for the future.
Pro 19:21 The human mind may devise many plans, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will be established.
Pro 19:22 What is desirable in a person is loyalty, and it is better to be poor than a liar.
Pro 19:23 The fear of the LORD is life indeed; filled with it one rests secure and suffers no harm.

Pro 19:24 The lazy person buries a hand in the dish, and will not even bring it back to the mouth.
Pro 19:25 Strike a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; reprove the intelligent, and they will gain knowledge.
Pro 19:26 Those who do violence to their father and chase away their mother are children who cause shame and bring reproach.
Pro 19:27 Cease straying, my child, from the words of knowledge, in order that you may hear instruction.
Pro 19:28 A worthless witness mocks at justice, and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.
Pro 19:29 Condemnation is ready for scoffers, and flogging for the backs of fools.
Pro 20:1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise.
Pro 20:2 The dread anger of a king is like the growling of a lion; anyone who provokes him to anger forfeits life itself.
Pro 20:3 It is honorable to refrain from strife, but every fool is quick to quarrel.
Pro 20:4 The lazy person does not plow in season; harvest comes, and there is nothing to be found.
Pro 20:5 The purposes in the human mind are like deep water, but the intelligent will draw them out.
Pro 20:6 Many proclaim themselves loyal, but who can find one worthy of trust?
Pro 20:7 The righteous walk in integrity-- happy are the children who follow them!
Pro 20:8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment winnows all evil with his eyes.
Pro 20:9 Who can say, "I have made my heart clean; I am pure from my sin"?
Pro 20:10 Diverse weights and diverse measures are both alike an abomination to the LORD.
Pro 20:11 Even children make themselves known by their acts, by whether what they do is pure and right.
Pro 20:12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye-- the LORD has made them both.
Pro 20:13 Do not love sleep, or else you will come to poverty; open your eyes, and you will have plenty of bread.
Pro 20:14 "Bad, bad," says the buyer, then goes away and boasts.
Pro 20:15 There is gold, and abundance of costly stones; but the lips informed by knowledge are a precious jewel.
Pro 20:16 Take the garment of one who has given surety for a stranger; seize the pledge given as surety for foreigners.
Pro 20:17 Bread gained by deceit is sweet, but afterward the mouth will be full of gravel.
Pro 20:18 Plans are established by taking advice; wage war by following wise guidance.
Pro 20:19 A gossip reveals secrets; therefore do not associate with a babbler.
Pro 20:20 If you curse father or mother, your lamp will go out in utter darkness.
Pro 20:21 An estate quickly acquired in the beginning will not be blessed in the end.
Pro 20:22 Do not say, "I will repay evil"; wait for the LORD, and he will help you.
Pro 20:23 Differing weights are an abomination to the LORD, and false scales are not good.
Pro 20:24 All our steps are ordered by the LORD; how then can we understand our own ways?
Pro 20:25 It is a snare for one to say rashly, "It is holy," and begin to reflect only after making a vow.
Pro 20:26 A wise king winnows the wicked, and drives the wheel over them.
Pro 20:27 The human spirit is the lamp of the LORD, searching every inmost part.
Pro 20:28 Loyalty and faithfulness preserve the king, and his throne is upheld by righteousness.
Pro 20:29 The glory of youths is their strength, but the beauty of the aged is their gray hair.
Pro 20:30 Blows that wound cleanse away evil; beatings make clean the innermost parts.
Pro 21:1 The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the LORD; he turns it wherever he will.
Pro 21:2 All deeds are right in the sight of the doer, but the LORD weighs the heart.
Pro 21:3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
Pro 21:4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart-- the lamp of the wicked-- are sin.
Pro 21:5 The plans of the diligent lead surely to abundance, but everyone who is hasty comes only to want.
Pro 21:6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a snare of death.
Pro 21:7 The violence of the wicked will sweep them away, because they refuse to do what is just.
Pro 21:8 The way of the guilty is crooked, but the conduct of the pure is right.
Pro 21:9 It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a contentious wife.
Pro 21:10 The souls of the wicked desire evil; their neighbors find no mercy in their eyes.
Pro 21:11 When a scoffer is punished, the simple become wiser; when the wise are instructed, they increase in knowledge.
Pro 21:12 The Righteous One observes the house of the wicked; he casts the wicked down to ruin.
Pro 21:13 If you close your ear to the cry of the poor, you will cry out and not be heard.
Pro 21:14 A gift in secret averts anger; and a concealed bribe in the bosom, strong wrath.
Pro 21:15 When justice is done, it is a joy to the righteous, but dismay to evildoers.
Pro 21:16 Whoever wanders from the way of understanding will rest in the assembly of the dead.

Pro 21:17 Whoever loves pleasure will suffer want; whoever loves wine and oil will not be rich.
Pro 21:18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous, and the faithless for the upright.
Pro 21:19 It is better to live in a desert land than with a contentious and fretful wife.
Pro 21:20 Precious treasure remains in the house of the wise, but the fool devours it.
Pro 21:21 Whoever pursues righteousness and kindness will find life and honor.
Pro 21:22 One wise person went up against a city of warriors and brought down the stronghold in which they trusted.
Pro 21:23 To watch over mouth and tongue is to keep out of trouble.
Pro 21:24 The proud, haughty person, named "Scoffer," acts with arrogant pride.
Pro 21:25 The craving of the lazy person is fatal, for lazy hands refuse to labor.
Pro 21:26 All day long the wicked covet, but the righteous give and do not hold back.
Pro 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when brought with evil intent.
Pro 21:28 A false witness will perish, but a good listener will testify successfully.
Pro 21:29 The wicked put on a bold face, but the upright give thought to their ways.
Pro 21:30 No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel, can avail against the LORD.
Pro 21:31 The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD.
Pro 22:1 A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold.
Pro 22:2 The rich and the poor have this in common: the LORD is the maker of them all.
Pro 22:3 The clever see danger and hide; but the simple go on, and suffer for it.
Pro 22:4 The reward for humility and fear of the LORD is riches and honor and life.
Pro 22:5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; the cautious will keep far from them.
Pro 22:6 Train children in the right way, and when old, they will not stray.
Pro 22:7 The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender.
Pro 22:8 Whoever sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of anger will fail.
Pro 22:9 Those who are generous are blessed, for they share their bread with the poor.
Pro 22:10 Drive out a scoffer, and strife goes out; quarreling and abuse will cease.
Pro 22:11 Those who love a pure heart and are gracious in speech will have the king as a friend.
Pro 22:12 The eyes of the LORD keep watch over knowledge, but he overthrows the words of the faithless.
Pro 22:13 The lazy person says, "There is a lion outside! I shall be killed in the streets!"
Pro 22:14 The mouth of a loose woman is a deep pit; he with whom the LORD is angry falls into it.
Pro 22:15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a boy, but the rod of discipline drives it far away.
Pro 22:16 Oppressing the poor in order to enrich oneself, and giving to the rich, will lead only to loss.
Pro 22:17 The words of the wise: Incline your ear and hear my words, and apply your mind to my teaching;
Pro 22:18 for it will be pleasant if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.
Pro 22:19 So that your trust may be in the LORD, I have made them known to you today-- yes, to you.
Pro 22:20 Have I not written for you thirty sayings of admonition and knowledge,
Pro 22:21 to show you what is right and true, so that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?
Pro 22:22 Do not rob the poor because they are poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate;
Pro 22:23 for the LORD pleads their cause and despoils of life those who despoil them.
Pro 22:24 Make no friends with those given to anger, and do not associate with hotheads,
Pro 22:25 or you may learn their ways and entangle yourself in a snare.
Pro 22:26 Do not be one of those who give pledges, who become surety for debts.
Pro 22:27 If you have nothing with which to pay, why should your bed be taken from under you?
Pro 22:28 Do not remove the ancient landmark that your ancestors set up.
Pro 22:29 Do you see those who are skillful in their work? they will serve kings; they will not serve common people.
Pro 23:1 When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you,
Pro 23:2 and put a knife to your throat if you have a big appetite.
Pro 23:3 Do not desire the ruler's delicacies, for they are deceptive food.
Pro 23:4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich; be wise enough to desist.
Pro 23:5 When your eyes light upon it, it is gone; for suddenly it takes wings to itself, flying like an eagle toward heaven.
Pro 23:6 Do not eat the bread of the stingy; do not desire their delicacies;
Pro 23:7 for like a hair in the throat, so are they. "Eat and drink!" they say to you; but they do not mean it.
Pro 23:8 You will vomit up the little you have eaten, and you will waste your pleasant words.
Pro 23:9 Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, who will only despise the wisdom of your words.
Pro 23:10 Do not remove an ancient landmark or encroach on the fields of orphans,
Pro 23:11 for their redeemer is strong; he will plead their cause against you.
Pro 23:12 Apply your mind to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge.

Pro 23:13 Do not withhold discipline from your children; if you beat them with a rod, they will not die.
Pro 23:14 If you beat them with the rod, you will save their lives from Sheol.
Pro 23:15 My child, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad.
Pro 23:16 My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.
Pro 23:17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always continue in the fear of the LORD.
Pro 23:18 Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.
Pro 23:19 Hear, my child, and be wise, and direct your mind in the way.
Pro 23:20 Do not be among winebibbers, or among gluttonous eaters of meat;
Pro 23:21 for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe them with rags.
Pro 23:22 Listen to your father who begot you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.
Pro 23:23 Buy truth, and do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.
Pro 23:24 The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who begets a wise son will be glad in him.
Pro 23:25 Let your father and mother be glad; let her who bore you rejoice.
Pro 23:26 My child, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.
Pro 23:27 For a prostitute is a deep pit; an adulteress is a narrow well.
Pro 23:28 She lies in wait like a robber and increases the number of the faithless.
Pro 23:29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaining? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?
Pro 23:30 Those who linger late over wine, those who keep trying mixed wines.
Pro 23:31 Do not look at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly.
Pro 23:32 At the last it bites like a serpent, and stings like an adder.
Pro 23:33 Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind utter perverse things.
Pro 23:34 You will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea, like one who lies on the top of a mast.
Pro 23:35 "They struck me," you will say, "but I was not hurt; they beat me, but I did not feel it. When shall I awake? I will seek another drink."
Pro 24:1 Do not envy the wicked, nor desire to be with them;
Pro 24:2 for their minds devise violence, and their lips talk of mischief.
Pro 24:3 By wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established;
Pro 24:4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
Pro 24:5 Wise warriors are mightier than strong ones, and those who have knowledge than those who have strength;
Pro 24:6 for by wise guidance you can wage your war, and in abundance of counselors there is victory.
Pro 24:7 Wisdom is too high for fools; in the gate they do not open their mouths.
Pro 24:8 Whoever plans to do evil will be called a mischief-maker.
Pro 24:9 The devising of folly is sin, and the scoffer is an abomination to all.
Pro 24:10 If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength being small;
Pro 24:11 if you hold back from rescuing those taken away to death, those who go staggering to the slaughter;
Pro 24:12 if you say, "Look, we did not know this"-- does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it? And will he not repay all according to their deeds?
Pro 24:13 My child, eat honey, for it is good, and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
Pro 24:14 Know that wisdom is such to your soul; if you find it, you will find a future, and your hope will not be cut off.
Pro 24:15 Do not lie in wait like an outlaw against the home of the righteous; do no violence to the place where the righteous live;
Pro 24:16 for though they fall seven times, they will rise again; but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
Pro 24:17 Do not rejoice when your enemies fall, and do not let your heart be glad when they stumble,
Pro 24:18 or else the LORD will see it and be displeased, and turn away his anger from them.
Pro 24:19 Do not fret because of evildoers. Do not envy the wicked;
Pro 24:20 for the evil have no future; the lamp of the wicked will go out.
Pro 24:21 My child, fear the LORD and the king, and do not disobey either of them;
Pro 24:22 for disaster comes from them suddenly, and who knows the ruin that both can bring?
Pro 24:23 These also are sayings of the wise: Partiality in judging is not good.
Pro 24:24 Whoever says to the wicked, "You are innocent," will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by nations;
Pro 24:25 but those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will come upon them.
Pro 24:26 One who gives an honest answer gives a kiss on the lips.
Pro 24:27 Prepare your work outside, get everything ready for you in the field; and after that build your house.
Pro 24:28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.
Pro 24:29 Do not say, "I will do to others as they have done to me; I will pay them back for what they have done."

Pro 24:30 I passed by the field of one who was lazy, by the vineyard of a stupid person;
Pro 24:31 and see, it was all overgrown with thorns; the ground was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.
Pro 24:32 Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction.
Pro 24:33 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,
Pro 24:34 and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want, like an armed warrior.
Pro 25:1 These are other proverbs of Solomon that the officials of King Hezekiah of Judah copied.
Pro 25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out.
Pro 25:3 Like the heavens for height, like the earth for depth, so the mind of kings is unsearchable.
Pro 25:4 Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel;
Pro 25:5 take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.
Pro 25:6 Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great;
Pro 25:7 for it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put lower in the presence of a noble. What your eyes have seen
Pro 25:8 do not hastily bring into court; for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame?
Pro 25:9 Argue your case with your neighbor directly, and do not disclose another's secret;
Pro 25:10 or else someone who hears you will bring shame upon you, and your ill repute will have no end.
Pro 25:11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a setting of silver.
Pro 25:12 Like a gold ring or an ornament of gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear.
Pro 25:13 Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest are faithful messengers to those who send them; they refresh the spirit of their masters.
Pro 25:14 Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts of a gift never given.
Pro 25:15 With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue can break bones.
Pro 25:16 If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, or else, having too much, you will vomit it.
Pro 25:17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, otherwise the neighbor will become weary of you and hate you.
Pro 25:18 Like a war club, a sword, or a sharp arrow is one who bears false witness against a neighbor.
Pro 25:19 Like a bad tooth or a lame foot is trust in a faithless person in time of trouble.
Pro 25:20 Like vinegar on a wound is one who sings songs to a heavy heart. Like a moth in clothing or a worm in wood, sorrow gnaws at the human heart.
Pro 25:21 If your enemies are hungry, give them bread to eat; and if they are thirsty, give them water to drink;
Pro 25:22 for you will heap coals of fire on their heads, and the LORD will reward you.
Pro 25:23 The north wind produces rain, and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.
Pro 25:24 It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a contentious wife.
Pro 25:25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
Pro 25:26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain are the righteous who give way before the wicked.
Pro 25:27 It is not good to eat much honey, or to seek honor on top of honor.
Pro 25:28 Like a city breached, without walls, is one who lacks self-control.
Pro 26:1 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.
Pro 26:2 Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, an undeserved curse goes nowhere.
Pro 26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.
Pro 26:4 Do not answer fools according to their folly, or you will be a fool yourself.
Pro 26:5 Answer fools according to their folly, or they will be wise in their own eyes.
Pro 26:6 It is like cutting off one's foot and drinking down violence, to send a message by a fool.
Pro 26:7 The legs of a disabled person hang limp; so does a proverb in the mouth of a fool.
Pro 26:8 It is like binding a stone in a sling to give honor to a fool.
Pro 26:9 Like a thornbush brandished by the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.
Pro 26:10 Like an archer who wounds everybody is one who hires a passing fool or drunkard.
Pro 26:11 Like a dog that returns to its vomit is a fool who reverts to his folly.
Pro 26:12 Do you see persons wise in their own eyes? There is more hope for fools than for them.
Pro 26:13 The lazy person says, "There is a lion in the road! There is a lion in the streets!"
Pro 26:14 As a door turns on its hinges, so does a lazy person in bed.
Pro 26:15 The lazy person buries a hand in the dish, and is too tired to bring it back to the mouth.
Pro 26:16 The lazy person is wiser in self-esteem than seven who can answer discreetly.
Pro 26:17 Like somebody who takes a passing dog by the ears is one who meddles in the quarrel of another.
Pro 26:18 Like a maniac who shoots deadly firebrands and arrows,
Pro 26:19 so is one who deceives a neighbor and says, "I am only joking!"
Pro 26:20 For lack of wood the fire goes out, and where there is no whisperer, quarreling ceases.

Pro 26:21 As charcoal is to hot embers and wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.
Pro 26:22 The words of a whisperer are like delicious morsels; they go down into the inner parts of the body.
Pro 26:23 Like the glaze covering an earthen vessel are smooth lips with an evil heart.
Pro 26:24 An enemy dissembles in speaking while harboring deceit within;
Pro 26:25 when an enemy speaks graciously, do not believe it, for there are seven abominations concealed within;
Pro 26:26 though hatred is covered with guile, the enemy's wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.
Pro 26:27 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it, and a stone will come back on the one who starts it rolling.
Pro 26:28 A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.
Pro 27:1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.
Pro 27:2 Let another praise you, and not your own mouth-- a stranger, and not your own lips.
Pro 27:3 A stone is heavy, and sand is weighty, but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.
Pro 27:4 Wrath is cruel, anger is overwhelming, but who is able to stand before jealousy?
Pro 27:5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
Pro 27:6 Well meant are the wounds a friend inflicts, but profuse are the kisses of an enemy.
Pro 27:7 The sated appetite spurns honey, but to a ravenous appetite even the bitter is sweet.
Pro 27:8 Like a bird that strays from its nest is one who strays from home.
Pro 27:9 Perfume and incense make the heart glad, but the soul is torn by trouble.
Pro 27:10 Do not forsake your friend or the friend of your parent; do not go to the house of your kindred in the day of your calamity. Better is a neighbor who is nearby than kindred who are far away.
Pro 27:11 Be wise, my child, and make my heart glad, so that I may answer whoever reproaches me.
Pro 27:12 The clever see danger and hide; but the simple go on, and suffer for it.
Pro 27:13 Take the garment of one who has given surety for a stranger; seize the pledge given as surety for foreigners.
Pro 27:14 Whoever blesses a neighbor with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, will be counted as cursing.
Pro 27:15 A continual dripping on a rainy day and a contentious wife are alike;
Pro 27:16 to restrain her is to restrain the wind or to grasp oil in the right hand.
Pro 27:17 Iron sharpens iron, and one person sharpens the wits of another.
Pro 27:18 Anyone who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and anyone who takes care of a master will be honored.
Pro 27:19 Just as water reflects the face, so one human heart reflects another.
Pro 27:20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and human eyes are never satisfied.
Pro 27:21 The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, so a person is tested by being praised.
Pro 27:22 Crush a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, but the folly will not be driven out.
Pro 27:23 Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds;
Pro 27:24 for riches do not last forever, nor a crown for all generations.
Pro 27:25 When the grass is gone, and new growth appears, and the herbage of the mountains is gathered,
Pro 27:26 the lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats the price of a field;
Pro 27:27 there will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household and nourishment for your servant-girls.
Pro 28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
Pro 28:2 When a land rebels it has many rulers; but with an intelligent ruler there is lasting order.
Pro 28:3 A ruler who oppresses the poor is a beating rain that leaves no food.
Pro 28:4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law struggle against them.
Pro 28:5 The evil do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.
Pro 28:6 Better to be poor and walk in integrity than to be crooked in one's ways even though rich.
Pro 28:7 Those who keep the law are wise children, but companions of gluttons shame their parents.
Pro 28:8 One who augments wealth by exorbitant interest gathers it for another who is kind to the poor.
Pro 28:9 When one will not listen to the law, even one's prayers are an abomination.
Pro 28:10 Those who mislead the upright into evil ways will fall into pits of their own making, but the blameless will have a goodly inheritance.
Pro 28:11 The rich is wise in self-esteem, but an intelligent poor person sees through the pose.
Pro 28:12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory, but when the wicked prevail, people go into hiding.
Pro 28:13 No one who conceals transgressions will prosper, but one who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.
Pro 28:14 Happy is the one who is never without fear, but one who is hard-hearted will fall into calamity.
Pro 28:15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people.
Pro 28:16 A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor; but one who hates unjust gain will enjoy a long life.
Pro 28:17 If someone is burdened with the blood of another, let that killer be a fugitive until death; let no one offer assistance.

Pro 28:18 One who walks in integrity will be safe, but whoever follows crooked ways will fall into the Pit.

Pro 28:19 Anyone who tills the land will have plenty of bread, but one who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

Pro 28:20 The faithful will abound with blessings, but one who is in a hurry to be rich will not go unpunished.

Pro 28:21 To show partiality is not good-- yet for a piece of bread a person may do wrong.

Pro 28:22 The miser is in a hurry to get rich and does not know that loss is sure to come.

Pro 28:23 Whoever rebukes a person will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.

Pro 28:24 Anyone who robs father or mother and says, "That is no crime," is partner to a thug.

Pro 28:25 The greedy person stirs up strife, but whoever trusts in the LORD will be enriched.

Pro 28:26 Those who trust in their own wits are fools; but those who walk in wisdom come through safely.

Pro 28:27 Whoever gives to the poor will lack nothing, but one who turns a blind eye will get many a curse.

Pro 28:28 When the wicked prevail, people go into hiding; but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Pro 29:1 One who is often reprov'd, yet remains stubborn, will suddenly be broken beyond healing.

Pro 29:2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

Pro 29:3 A child who loves wisdom makes a parent glad, but to keep company with prostitutes is to squander one's substance.

Pro 29:4 By justice a king gives stability to the land, but one who makes heavy exactions ruins it.

Pro 29:5 Whoever flatters a neighbor is spreading a net for the neighbor's feet.

Pro 29:6 In the transgression of the evil there is a snare, but the righteous sing and rejoice.

Pro 29:7 The righteous know the rights of the poor; the wicked have no such understanding.

Pro 29:8 Scoffers set a city aflame, but the wise turn away wrath.

Pro 29:9 If the wise go to law with fools, there is ranting and ridicule without relief.

Pro 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate the blameless, and they seek the life of the upright.

Pro 29:11 A fool gives full vent to anger, but the wise quietly holds it back.

Pro 29:12 If a ruler listens to falsehood, all his officials will be wicked.

Pro 29:13 The poor and the oppressor have this in common: the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

Pro 29:14 If a king judges the poor with equity, his throne will be established forever.

Pro 29:15 The rod and reproof give wisdom, but a mother is disgraced by a neglected child.

Pro 29:16 When the wicked are in authority, transgression increases, but the righteous will look upon their downfall.

Pro 29:17 Discipline your children, and they will give you rest; they will give delight to your heart.

Pro 29:18 Where there is no prophecy, the people cast off restraint, but happy are those who keep the law.

Pro 29:19 By mere words servants are not disciplined, for though they understand, they will not give heed.

Pro 29:20 Do you see someone who is hasty in speech? There is more hope for a fool than for anyone like that.

Pro 29:21 A slave pampered from childhood will come to a bad end.

Pro 29:22 One given to anger stirs up strife, and the hothead causes much transgression.

Pro 29:23 A person's pride will bring humiliation, but one who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.

Pro 29:24 To be a partner of a thief is to hate one's own life; one hears the victim's curse, but discloses nothing.

Pro 29:25 The fear of others lays a snare, but one who trusts in the LORD is secure.

Pro 29:26 Many seek the favor of a ruler, but it is from the LORD that one gets justice.

Pro 29:27 The unjust are an abomination to the righteous, but the upright are an abomination to the wicked.

Pro 30:1 The words of Agur son of Jakeh. An oracle. Thus says the man: I am weary, O God, I am weary, O God. How can I prevail?

Pro 30:2 Surely I am too stupid to be human; I do not have human understanding.

Pro 30:3 I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the holy ones.

Pro 30:4 Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of the hand? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is the person's name? And what is the name of the person's child? Surely you know!

Pro 30:5 Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

Pro 30:6 Do not add to his words, or else he will rebuke you, and you will be found a liar.

Pro 30:7 Two things I ask of you; do not deny them to me before I die:

Pro 30:8 Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that I need,

Pro 30:9 or I shall be full, and deny you, and say, "Who is the LORD?" or I shall be poor, and steal, and profane the name of my God.

Pro 30:10 Do not slander a servant to a master, or the servant will curse you, and you will be held guilty.

Pro 30:11 There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.

Pro 30:12 There are those who are pure in their own eyes yet are not cleansed of their filthiness.

Pro 30:13 There are those-- how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift!

Pro 30:14 There are those whose teeth are swords, whose teeth are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mortals.

Pro 30:15 The leech has two daughters; "Give, give," they cry. Three things are never satisfied; four never say, "Enough":

Pro 30:16 Sheol, the barren womb, the earth ever thirsty for water, and the fire that never says, "Enough."

Pro 30:17 The eye that mocks a father and scorns to obey a mother will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley and eaten by the vultures.

Pro 30:18 Three things are too wonderful for me; four I do not understand:

Pro 30:19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a snake on a rock, the way of a ship on the high seas, and the way of a man with a girl.

Pro 30:20 This is the way of an adulteress: she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, "I have done no wrong."

Pro 30:21 Under three things the earth trembles; under four it cannot bear up:

Pro 30:22 a slave when he becomes king, and a fool when glutted with food;

Pro 30:23 an unloved woman when she gets a husband, and a maid when she succeeds her mistress.

Pro 30:24 Four things on earth are small, yet they are exceedingly wise:

Pro 30:25 the ants are a people without strength, yet they provide their food in the summer;

Pro 30:26 the badgers are a people without power, yet they make their homes in the rocks;

Pro 30:27 the locusts have no king, yet all of them march in rank;

Pro 30:28 the lizard can be grasped in the hand, yet it is found in kings' palaces.

Pro 30:29 Three things are stately in their stride; four are stately in their gait:

Pro 30:30 the lion, which is mightiest among wild animals and does not turn back before any;

Pro 30:31 the strutting rooster, the he-goat, and a king striding before his people.

Pro 30:32 If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil, put your hand on your mouth.

Pro 30:33 For as pressing milk produces curds, and pressing the nose produces blood, so pressing anger produces strife.

Pro 31:1 The words of King Lemuel. An oracle that his mother taught him:

Pro 31:2 No, my son! No, son of my womb! No, son of my vows!

Pro 31:3 Do not give your strength to women, your ways to those who destroy kings.

Pro 31:4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to desire strong drink;

Pro 31:5 or else they will drink and forget what has been decreed, and will pervert the rights of all the afflicted.

Pro 31:6 Give strong drink to one who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress;

Pro 31:7 let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.

Pro 31:8 Speak out for those who cannot speak, for the rights of all the destitute.

Pro 31:9 Speak out, judge righteously, defend the rights of the poor and needy.

Pro 31:10 A capable wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels.

Pro 31:11 The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain.

Pro 31:12 She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.

Pro 31:13 She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands.

Pro 31:14 She is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from far away.

Pro 31:15 She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and tasks for her servant-girls.

Pro 31:16 She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

Pro 31:17 She girds herself with strength, and makes her arms strong.

Pro 31:18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night.

Pro 31:19 She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.

Pro 31:20 She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy.

Pro 31:21 She is not afraid for her household when it snows, for all her household are clothed in crimson.

Pro 31:22 She makes herself coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Pro 31:23 Her husband is known in the city gates, taking his seat among the elders of the land.

Pro 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them; she supplies the merchant with sashes.

Pro 31:25 Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

Pro 31:26 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

Pro 31:27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Pro 31:28 Her children rise up and call her happy; her husband too, and he praises her:

Pro 31:29 "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all."

Pro 31:30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Pro 31:31 Give her a share in the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the city gates.

Ecc 1:1 The words of the Teacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecc 1:2 Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.
Ecc 1:3 What do people gain from all the toil at which they toil under the sun?
Ecc 1:4 A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains forever.
Ecc 1:5 The sun rises and the sun goes down, and hurries to the place where it rises.
Ecc 1:6 The wind blows to the south, and goes around to the north; round and round goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns.
Ecc 1:7 All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they continue to flow.
Ecc 1:8 All things are wearisome; more than one can express; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, or the ear filled with hearing.
Ecc 1:9 What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; there is nothing new under the sun.
Ecc 1:10 Is there a thing of which it is said, "See, this is new"? It has already been, in the ages before us.
Ecc 1:11 The people of long ago are not remembered, nor will there be any remembrance of people yet to come by those who come after them.
Ecc 1:12 I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem,
Ecc 1:13 applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with.
Ecc 1:14 I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.
Ecc 1:15 What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.
Ecc 1:16 I said to myself, "I have acquired great wisdom, surpassing all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge."
Ecc 1:17 And I applied my mind to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is but a chasing after wind.
Ecc 1:18 For in much wisdom is much vexation, and those who increase knowledge increase sorrow.
Ecc 2:1 I said to myself, "Come now, I will make a test of pleasure; enjoy yourself." But again, this also was vanity.
Ecc 2:2 I said of laughter, "It is mad," and of pleasure, "What use is it?"
Ecc 2:3 I searched with my mind how to cheer my body with wine-- my mind still guiding me with wisdom-- and how to lay hold on folly, until I might see what was good for mortals to do under heaven during the few days of their life.
Ecc 2:4 I made great works; I built houses and planted vineyards for myself;
Ecc 2:5 I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees.
Ecc 2:6 I made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees.
Ecc 2:7 I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house; I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem.
Ecc 2:8 I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and of the provinces; I got singers, both men and women, and delights of the flesh, and many concubines.
Ecc 2:9 So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me.
Ecc 2:10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil.
Ecc 2:11 Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had spent in doing it, and again, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.
Ecc 2:12 So I turned to consider wisdom and madness and folly; for what can the one do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.
Ecc 2:13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.
Ecc 2:14 The wise have eyes in their head, but fools walk in darkness. Yet I perceived that the same fate befalls all of them.
Ecc 2:15 Then I said to myself, "What happens to the fool will happen to me also; why then have I been so very wise?" And I said to myself that this also is vanity.
Ecc 2:16 For there is no enduring remembrance of the wise or of fools, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. How can the wise die just like fools?
Ecc 2:17 So I hated life, because what is done under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind.
Ecc 2:18 I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me
Ecc 2:19 -- and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity.

Ecc 2:20 So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun,
Ecc 2:21 because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.
Ecc 2:22 What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun?
Ecc 2:23 For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.
Ecc 2:24 There is nothing better for mortals than to eat and drink, and find enjoyment in their toil. This also, I saw, is from the hand of God;
Ecc 2:25 for apart from him who can eat or who can have enjoyment?
Ecc 2:26 For to the one who pleases him God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy; but to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and heaping, only to give to one who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.
Ecc 3:1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
Ecc 3:2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
Ecc 3:3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
Ecc 3:4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
Ecc 3:5 a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
Ecc 3:6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
Ecc 3:7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
Ecc 3:8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
Ecc 3:9 What gain have the workers from their toil?
Ecc 3:10 I have seen the business that God has given to everyone to be busy with.
Ecc 3:11 He has made everything suitable for its time; moreover he has put a sense of past and future into their minds, yet they cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end.
Ecc 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live;
Ecc 3:13 moreover, it is God's gift that all should eat and drink and take pleasure in all their toil.
Ecc 3:14 I know that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has done this, so that all should stand in awe before him.
Ecc 3:15 That which is, already has been; that which is to be, already is; and God seeks out what has gone by.
Ecc 3:16 Moreover I saw under the sun that in the place of justice, wickedness was there, and in the place of righteousness, wickedness was there as well.
Ecc 3:17 I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for he has appointed a time for every matter, and for every work.
Ecc 3:18 I said in my heart with regard to human beings that God is testing them to show that they are but animals.
Ecc 3:19 For the fate of humans and the fate of animals is the same; as one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and humans have no advantage over the animals; for all is vanity.
Ecc 3:20 All go to one place; all are from the dust, and all turn to dust again.
Ecc 3:21 Who knows whether the human spirit goes upward and the spirit of animals goes downward to the earth?
Ecc 3:22 So I saw that there is nothing better than that all should enjoy their work, for that is their lot; who can bring them to see what will be after them?
Ecc 4:1 Again I saw all the oppressions that are practiced under the sun. Look, the tears of the oppressed-- with no one to comfort them! On the side of their oppressors there was power-- with no one to comfort them.
Ecc 4:2 And I thought the dead, who have already died, more fortunate than the living, who are still alive;
Ecc 4:3 but better than both is the one who has not yet been, and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.
Ecc 4:4 Then I saw that all toil and all skill in work come from one person's envy of another. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.
Ecc 4:5 Fools fold their hands and consume their own flesh.
Ecc 4:6 Better is a handful with quiet than two handfuls with toil, and a chasing after wind.
Ecc 4:7 Again, I saw vanity under the sun:
Ecc 4:8 the case of solitary individuals, without sons or brothers; yet there is no end to all their toil, and their eyes are never satisfied with riches. "For whom am I toiling," they ask, "and depriving myself of pleasure?" This also is vanity and an unhappy business.
Ecc 4:9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.
Ecc 4:10 For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help.

Ecc 4:11 Again, if two lie together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone?

Ecc 4:12 And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecc 4:13 Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king, who will no longer take advice.

Ecc 4:14 One can indeed come out of prison to reign, even though born poor in the kingdom.

Ecc 4:15 I saw all the living who, moving about under the sun, follow that youth who replaced the king;

Ecc 4:16 there was no end to all those people whom he led. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecc 5:1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God; to draw near to listen is better than the sacrifice offered by fools; for they do not know how to keep from doing evil.

Ecc 5:2 Never be rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be quick to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven, and you upon earth; therefore let your words be few.

Ecc 5:3 For dreams come with many cares, and a fool's voice with many words.

Ecc 5:4 When you make a vow to God, do not delay fulfilling it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Fulfill what you vow.

Ecc 5:5 It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not fulfill it.

Ecc 5:6 Do not let your mouth lead you into sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake; why should God be angry at your words, and destroy the work of your hands?

Ecc 5:7 With many dreams come vanities and a multitude of words; but fear God.

Ecc 5:8 If you see in a province the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and right, do not be amazed at the matter; for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them.

Ecc 5:9 But all things considered, this is an advantage for a land: a king for a plowed field.

Ecc 5:10 The lover of money will not be satisfied with money; nor the lover of wealth, with gain. This also is vanity.

Ecc 5:11 When goods increase, those who eat them increase; and what gain has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

Ecc 5:12 Sweet is the sleep of laborers, whether they eat little or much; but the surfeit of the rich will not let them sleep.

Ecc 5:13 There is a grievous ill that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owners to their hurt,

Ecc 5:14 and those riches were lost in a bad venture; though they are parents of children, they have nothing in their hands.

Ecc 5:15 As they came from their mother's womb, so they shall go again, naked as they came; they shall take nothing for their toil, which they may carry away with their hands.

Ecc 5:16 This also is a grievous ill: just as they came, so shall they go; and what gain do they have from toiling for the wind?

Ecc 5:17 Besides, all their days they eat in darkness, in much vexation and sickness and resentment.

Ecc 5:18 This is what I have seen to be good: it is fitting to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of the life God gives us; for this is our lot.

Ecc 5:19 Likewise all to whom God gives wealth and possessions and whom he enables to enjoy them, and to accept their lot and find enjoyment in their toil-- this is the gift of God.

Ecc 5:20 For they will scarcely brood over the days of their lives, because God keeps them occupied with the joy of their hearts.

Ecc 6:1 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy upon humankind:

Ecc 6:2 those to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honor, so that they lack nothing of all that they desire, yet God does not enable them to enjoy these things, but a stranger enjoys them. This is vanity; it is a grievous ill.

Ecc 6:3 A man may beget a hundred children, and live many years; but however many are the days of his years, if he does not enjoy life's good things, or has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.

Ecc 6:4 For it comes into vanity and goes into darkness, and in darkness its name is covered;

Ecc 6:5 moreover it has not seen the sun or known anything; yet it finds rest rather than he.

Ecc 6:6 Even though he should live a thousand years twice over, yet enjoy no good-- do not all go to one place?

Ecc 6:7 All human toil is for the mouth, yet the appetite is not satisfied.

Ecc 6:8 For what advantage have the wise over fools? And what do the poor have who know how to conduct themselves before the living?

Ecc 6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire; this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecc 6:10 Whatever has come to be has already been named, and it is known what human beings are, and that they are not able to dispute with those who are stronger.

Ecc 6:11 The more words, the more vanity, so how is one the better?

Ecc 6:12 For who knows what is good for mortals while they live the few days of their vain life, which they pass like a shadow? For who can tell them what will be after them under the sun?

Ecc 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death, than the day of birth.

Ecc 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for this is the end of everyone, and the living will lay it to heart.

Ecc 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by sadness of countenance the heart is made glad.

Ecc 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

Ecc 7:5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than to hear the song of fools.

Ecc 7:6 For like the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of fools; this also is vanity.

Ecc 7:7 Surely oppression makes the wise foolish, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

Ecc 7:8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning; the patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit.

Ecc 7:9 Do not be quick to anger, for anger lodges in the bosom of fools.

Ecc 7:10 Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For it is not from wisdom that you ask this.

Ecc 7:11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance, an advantage to those who see the sun.

Ecc 7:12 For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to the one who possesses it.

Ecc 7:13 Consider the work of God; who can make straight what he has made crooked?

Ecc 7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; God has made the one as well as the other, so that mortals may not find out anything that will come after them.

Ecc 7:15 In my vain life I have seen everything; there are righteous people who perish in their righteousness, and there are wicked people who prolong their life in their evildoing.

Ecc 7:16 Do not be too righteous, and do not act too wise; why should you destroy yourself?

Ecc 7:17 Do not be too wicked, and do not be a fool; why should you die before your time?

Ecc 7:18 It is good that you should take hold of the one, without letting go of the other; for the one who fears God shall succeed with both.

Ecc 7:19 Wisdom gives strength to the wise more than ten rulers that are in a city.

Ecc 7:20 Surely there is no one on earth so righteous as to do good without ever sinning.

Ecc 7:21 Do not give heed to everything that people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you;

Ecc 7:22 your heart knows that many times you have yourself cursed others.

Ecc 7:23 All this I have tested by wisdom; I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me.

Ecc 7:24 That which is, is far off, and deep, very deep; who can find it out?

Ecc 7:25 I turned my mind to know and to search out and to seek wisdom and the sum of things, and to know that wickedness is folly and that foolishness is madness.

Ecc 7:26 I found more bitter than death the woman who is a trap, whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are fetters; one who pleases God escapes her, but the sinner is taken by her.

Ecc 7:27 See, this is what I found, says the Teacher, adding one thing to another to find the sum,

Ecc 7:28 which my mind has sought repeatedly, but I have not found. One man among a thousand I found, but a woman among all these I have not found.

Ecc 7:29 See, this alone I found, that God made human beings straightforward, but they have devised many schemes.

Ecc 8:1 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? Wisdom makes one's face shine, and the hardness of one's countenance is changed.

Ecc 8:2 Keep the king's command because of your sacred oath.

Ecc 8:3 Do not be terrified; go from his presence, do not delay when the matter is unpleasant, for he does whatever he pleases.

Ecc 8:4 For the word of the king is powerful, and who can say to him, "What are you doing?"

Ecc 8:5 Whoever obeys a command will meet no harm, and the wise mind will know the time and way.

Ecc 8:6 For every matter has its time and way, although the troubles of mortals lie heavy upon them.

Ecc 8:7 Indeed, they do not know what is to be, for who can tell them how it will be?

Ecc 8:8 No one has power over the wind to restrain the wind, or power over the day of death; there is no discharge from the battle, nor does wickedness deliver those who practice it.

Ecc 8:9 All this I observed, applying my mind to all that is done under the sun, while one person exercises authority over another to the other's hurt.

Ecc 8:10 Then I saw the wicked buried; they used to go in and out of the holy place, and were praised in the city where they had done such things. This also is vanity.

Ecc 8:11 Because sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the human heart is fully set to do evil.

Ecc 8:12 Though sinners do evil a hundred times and prolong their lives, yet I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they stand in fear before him,

Ecc 8:13 but it will not be well with the wicked, neither will they prolong their days like a shadow, because they do not stand in fear before God.

Ecc 8:14 There is a vanity that takes place on earth, that there are righteous people who are treated according to the conduct of the wicked, and there are wicked people who are treated according to the conduct of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

Ecc 8:15 So I commend enjoyment, for there is nothing better for people under the sun than to eat, and drink, and enjoy themselves, for this will go with them in their toil through the days of life that God gives them under the sun.

Ecc 8:16 When I applied my mind to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on earth, how one's eyes see sleep neither day nor night,

Ecc 8:17 then I saw all the work of God, that no one can find out what is happening under the sun. However much they may toil in seeking, they will not find it out; even though those who are wise claim to know, they cannot find it out.

Ecc 9:1 All this I laid to heart, examining it all, how the righteous and the wise and their deeds are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hate one does not know. Everything that confronts them

Ecc 9:2 is vanity, since the same fate comes to all, to the righteous and the wicked, to the good and the evil, to the clean and the unclean, to those who sacrifice and those who do not sacrifice. As are the good, so are the sinners; those who swear are like those who shun an oath.

Ecc 9:3 This is an evil in all that happens under the sun, that the same fate comes to everyone. Moreover, the hearts of all are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Ecc 9:4 But whoever is joined with all the living has hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecc 9:5 The living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing; they have no more reward, and even the memory of them is lost.

Ecc 9:6 Their love and their hate and their envy have already perished; never again will they have any share in all that happens under the sun.

Ecc 9:7 Go, eat your bread with enjoyment, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has long ago approved what you do.

Ecc 9:8 Let your garments always be white; do not let oil be lacking on your head.

Ecc 9:9 Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life that are given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun.

Ecc 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your might; for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

Ecc 9:11 Again I saw that under the sun the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to the intelligent, nor favor to the skillful; but time and chance happen to them all.

Ecc 9:12 For no one can anticipate the time of disaster. Like fish taken in a cruel net, and like birds caught in a snare, so mortals are snared at a time of calamity, when it suddenly falls upon them.

Ecc 9:13 I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me.

Ecc 9:14 There was a little city with few people in it. A great king came against it and besieged it, building great siegeworks against it.

Ecc 9:15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man.

Ecc 9:16 So I said, "Wisdom is better than might; yet the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heeded."

Ecc 9:17 The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouting of a ruler among fools.

Ecc 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one bungler destroys much good.

Ecc 10:1 Dead flies make the perfumer's ointment give off a foul odor; so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

Ecc 10:2 The heart of the wise inclines to the right, but the heart of a fool to the left.

Ecc 10:3 Even when fools walk on the road, they lack sense, and show to everyone that they are fools.

Ecc 10:4 If the anger of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your post, for calmness will undo great offenses.

Ecc 10:5 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, as great an error as if it proceeded from the ruler:

Ecc 10:6 folly is set in many high places, and the rich sit in a low place.

Ecc 10:7 I have seen slaves on horseback, and princes walking on foot like slaves.

Ecc 10:8 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a snake.

Ecc 10:9 Whoever quarries stones will be hurt by them; and whoever splits logs will be endangered by them.

Ecc 10:10 If the iron is blunt, and one does not whet the edge, then more strength must be exerted; but wisdom helps one to succeed.

Ecc 10:11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage in a charmer.

Ecc 10:12 Words spoken by the wise bring them favor, but the lips of fools consume them.

Ecc 10:13 The words of their mouths begin in foolishness, and their talk ends in wicked madness;
Ecc 10:14 yet fools talk on and on. No one knows what is to happen, and who can tell anyone what the future holds?
Ecc 10:15 The toil of fools wears them out, for they do not even know the way to town.
Ecc 10:16 Alas for you, O land, when your king is a servant, and your princes feast in the morning!
Ecc 10:17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is a nobleman, and your princes feast at the proper time-- for strength, and not for drunkenness!
Ecc 10:18 Through sloth the roof sinks in, and through indolence the house leaks.
Ecc 10:19 Feasts are made for laughter; wine gladdens life, and money meets every need.
Ecc 10:20 Do not curse the king, even in your thoughts, or curse the rich, even in your bedroom; for a bird of the air may carry your voice, or some winged creature tell the matter.
Ecc 11:1 Send out your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will get it back.
Ecc 11:2 Divide your means seven ways, or even eight, for you do not know what disaster may happen on earth.
Ecc 11:3 When clouds are full, they empty rain on the earth; whether a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.
Ecc 11:4 Whoever observes the wind will not sow; and whoever regards the clouds will not reap.
Ecc 11:5 Just as you do not know how the breath comes to the bones in the mother's womb, so you do not know the work of God, who makes everything.
Ecc 11:6 In the morning sow your seed, and at evening do not let your hands be idle; for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.
Ecc 11:7 Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.
Ecc 11:8 Even those who live many years should rejoice in them all; yet let them remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity.
Ecc 11:9 Rejoice, young man, while you are young, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth. Follow the inclination of your heart and the desire of your eyes, but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.
Ecc 11:10 Banish anxiety from your mind, and put away pain from your body; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.
Ecc 12:1 Remember your creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come, and the years draw near when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them";
Ecc 12:2 before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened and the clouds return with the rain;
Ecc 12:3 in the day when the guards of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent, and the women who grind cease working because they are few, and those who look through the windows see dimly;
Ecc 12:4 when the doors on the street are shut, and the sound of the grinding is low, and one rises up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song are brought low;
Ecc 12:5 when one is afraid of heights, and terrors are in the road; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along and desire fails; because all must go to their eternal home, and the mourners will go about the streets;
Ecc 12:6 before the silver cord is snapped, and the golden bowl is broken, and the pitcher is broken at the fountain, and the wheel broken at the cistern,
Ecc 12:7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the breath returns to God who gave it.
Ecc 12:8 Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher; all is vanity.
Ecc 12:9 Besides being wise, the Teacher also taught the people knowledge, weighing and studying and arranging many proverbs.
Ecc 12:10 The Teacher sought to find pleasing words, and he wrote words of truth plainly.
Ecc 12:11 The sayings of the wise are like goads, and like nails firmly fixed are the collected sayings that are given by one shepherd.
Ecc 12:12 Of anything beyond these, my child, beware. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.
Ecc 12:13 The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for that is the whole duty of everyone.
Ecc 12:14 For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every secret thing, whether good or evil.
Sol 1:1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.
Sol 1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth! For your love is better than wine,
Sol 1:3 your anointing oils are fragrant, your name is perfume poured out; therefore the maidens love you.
Sol 1:4 Draw me after you, let us make haste. The king has brought me into his chambers. We will exult and rejoice in you; we will extol your love more than wine; rightly do they love you.

Sol 1:5 I am black and beautiful, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.
Sol 1:6 Do not gaze at me because I am dark, because the sun has gazed on me. My mother's sons were angry with me; they made me keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard I have not kept!
Sol 1:7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you pasture your flock, where you make it lie down at noon; for why should I be like one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?
Sol 1:8 If you do not know, O fairest among women, follow the tracks of the flock, and pasture your kids beside the shepherds' tents.
Sol 1:9 I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.
Sol 1:10 Your cheeks are comely with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.
Sol 1:11 We will make you ornaments of gold, studded with silver.
Sol 1:12 While the king was on his couch, my nard gave forth its fragrance.
Sol 1:13 My beloved is to me a bag of myrrh that lies between my breasts.
Sol 1:14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of En-gedi.
Sol 1:15 Ah, you are beautiful, my love; ah, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves.
Sol 1:16 Ah, you are beautiful, my beloved, truly lovely. Our couch is green;
Sol 1:17 the beams of our house are cedar, our rafters are pine.
Sol 2:1 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.
Sol 2:2 As a lily among brambles, so is my love among maidens.
Sol 2:3 As an apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among young men. With great delight I sat in his shadow, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
Sol 2:4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his intention toward me was love.
Sol 2:5 Sustain me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I am faint with love.
Sol 2:6 O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!
Sol 2:7 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the wild does: do not stir up or awaken love until it is ready!
Sol 2:8 The voice of my beloved! Look, he comes, leaping upon the mountains, bounding over the hills.
Sol 2:9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look, there he stands behind our wall, gazing in at the windows, looking through the lattice.
Sol 2:10 My beloved speaks and says to me: "Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;
Sol 2:11 for now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
Sol 2:12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
Sol 2:13 The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.
Sol 2:14 O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.
Sol 2:15 Catch us the foxes, the little foxes, that ruin the vineyards-- for our vineyards are in blossom."
Sol 2:16 My beloved is mine and I am his; he pastures his flock among the lilies.
Sol 2:17 Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle or a young stag on the cleft mountains.
Sol 3:1 Upon my bed at night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer.
Sol 3:2 "I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves." I sought him, but found him not.
Sol 3:3 The sentinels found me, as they went about in the city. "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
Sol 3:4 Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.
Sol 3:5 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the wild does: do not stir up or awaken love until it is ready!
Sol 3:6 What is that coming up from the wilderness, like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?
Sol 3:7 Look, it is the litter of Solomon! Around it are sixty mighty men of the mighty men of Israel,
Sol 3:8 all equipped with swords and expert in war, each with his sword at his thigh because of alarms by night.
Sol 3:9 King Solomon made himself a palanquin from the wood of Lebanon.
Sol 3:10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple; its interior was inlaid with love.
Daughters of Jerusalem,
Sol 3:11 come out. Look, O daughters of Zion, at King Solomon, at the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, on the day of the gladness of his heart.
Sol 4:1 How beautiful you are, my love, how very beautiful! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.

Sol 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes that have come up from the washing, all of which bear twins, and not one among them is bereaved.

Sol 4:3 Your lips are like a crimson thread, and your mouth is lovely. Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.

Sol 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built in courses; on it hang a thousand bucklers, all of them shields of warriors.

Sol 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.

Sol 4:6 Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, I will hasten to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of frankincense.

Sol 4:7 You are altogether beautiful, my love; there is no flaw in you.

Sol 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride; come with me from Lebanon. Depart from the peak of Amana, from the peak of Senir and Hermon, from the dens of lions, from the mountains of leopards.

Sol 4:9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride, you have ravished my heart with a glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.

Sol 4:10 How sweet is your love, my sister, my bride! how much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils than any spice!

Sol 4:11 Your lips distill nectar, my bride; honey and milk are under your tongue; the scent of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.

Sol 4:12 A garden locked is my sister, my bride, a garden locked, a fountain sealed.

Sol 4:13 Your channel is an orchard of pomegranates with all choicest fruits, henna with nard,

Sol 4:14 nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all chief spices--

Sol 4:15 a garden fountain, a well of living water, and flowing streams from Lebanon.

Sol 4:16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind! Blow upon my garden that its fragrance may be wafted abroad. Let my beloved come to his garden, and eat its choicest fruits.

Sol 5:1 I come to my garden, my sister, my bride; I gather my myrrh with my spice, I eat my honeycomb with my honey, I drink my wine with my milk. Eat, friends, drink, and be drunk with love.

Sol 5:2 I slept, but my heart was awake. Listen! my beloved is knocking. "Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one; for my head is wet with dew, my locks with the drops of the night."

Sol 5:3 I had put off my garment; how could I put it on again? I had bathed my feet; how could I soil them?

Sol 5:4 My beloved thrust his hand into the opening, and my inmost being yearned for him.

Sol 5:5 I arose to open to my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, upon the handles of the bolt.

Sol 5:6 I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned and was gone. My soul failed me when he spoke. I sought him, but did not find him; I called him, but he gave no answer.

Sol 5:7 Making their rounds in the city the sentinels found me; they beat me, they wounded me, they took away my mantle, those sentinels of the walls.

Sol 5:8 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, tell him this: I am faint with love.

Sol 5:9 What is your beloved more than another beloved, O fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you thus adjure us?

Sol 5:10 My beloved is all radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.

Sol 5:11 His head is the finest gold; his locks are wavy, black as a raven.

Sol 5:12 His eyes are like doves beside springs of water, bathed in milk, fitly set.

Sol 5:13 His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding fragrance. His lips are lilies, distilling liquid myrrh.

Sol 5:14 His arms are rounded gold, set with jewels. His body is ivory work, encrusted with sapphires.

Sol 5:15 His legs are alabaster columns, set upon bases of gold. His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

Sol 5:16 His speech is most sweet, and he is altogether desirable. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Sol 6:1 Where has your beloved gone, O fairest among women? Which way has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Sol 6:2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

Sol 6:3 I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine; he pastures his flock among the lilies.

Sol 6:4 You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

Sol 6:5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they overwhelm me! Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.

Sol 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, that have come up from the washing; all of them bear twins, and not one among them is bereaved.

Sol 6:7 Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.

Sol 6:8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, and maidens without number.

Sol 6:9 My dove, my perfect one, is the only one, the darling of her mother, flawless to her that bore her. The maidens saw her and called her happy; the queens and concubines also, and they praised her.

Sol 6:10 "Who is this that looks forth like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army with banners?"

Sol 6:11 I went down to the nut orchard, to look at the blossoms of the valley, to see whether the vines had budded, whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

Sol 6:12 Before I was aware, my fancy set me in a chariot beside my prince.

Sol 6:13 Return, return, O Shulammite! Return, return, that we may look upon you. Why should you look upon the Shulammite, as upon a dance before two armies?

Sol 7:1 How graceful are your feet in sandals, O queenly maiden! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of a master hand.

Sol 7:2 Your navel is a rounded bowl that never lacks mixed wine. Your belly is a heap of wheat, encircled with lilies.

Sol 7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Sol 7:4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, overlooking Damascus.

Sol 7:5 Your head crowns you like Carmel, and your flowing locks are like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.

Sol 7:6 How fair and pleasant you are, O loved one, delectable maiden!

Sol 7:7 You are stately as a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.

Sol 7:8 I say I will climb the palm tree and lay hold of its branches. Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of your breath like apples,

Sol 7:9 and your kisses like the best wine that goes down smoothly, gliding over lips and teeth.

Sol 7:10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is for me.

Sol 7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the fields, and lodge in the villages;

Sol 7:12 let us go out early to the vineyards, and see whether the vines have budded, whether the grape blossoms have opened and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

Sol 7:13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance, and over our doors are all choice fruits, new as well as old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Sol 8:1 O that you were like a brother to me, who nursed at my mother's breast! If I met you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me.

Sol 8:2 I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother, and into the chamber of the one who bore me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of my pomegranates.

Sol 8:3 O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!

Sol 8:4 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, do not stir up or awaken love until it is ready!

Sol 8:5 Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? Under the apple tree I awakened you. There your mother was in labor with you; there she who bore you was in labor.

Sol 8:6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, passion fierce as the grave. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a raging flame.

Sol 8:7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it. If one offered for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly scorned.

Sol 8:8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister, on the day when she is spoken for?

Sol 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build upon her a battlement of silver; but if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Sol 8:10 I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers; then I was in his eyes as one who brings peace.

Sol 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he entrusted the vineyard to keepers; each one was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.

Sol 8:12 My vineyard, my very own, is for myself; you, O Solomon, may have the thousand, and the keepers of the fruit two hundred!

Sol 8:13 O you who dwell in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice; let me hear it.

Sol 8:14 Make haste, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of spices!

Isa 1:1 The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Isa 1:2 Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth; for the LORD has spoken: I reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me.

Isa 1:3 The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's crib; but Israel does not know, my people do not understand.

Isa 1:4 Ah, sinful nation, people laden with iniquity, offspring who do evil, children who deal corruptly, who have forsaken the LORD, who have despised the Holy One of Israel, who are utterly estranged!

Isa 1:5 Why do you seek further beatings? Why do you continue to rebel? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Isa 1:6 From the sole of the foot even to the head, there is no soundness in it, but bruises and sores and bleeding wounds; they have not been drained, or bound up, or softened with oil.

Isa 1:7 Your country lies desolate, your cities are burned with fire; in your very presence aliens devour your land; it is desolate, as overthrown by foreigners.

Isa 1:8 And daughter Zion is left like a booth in a vineyard, like a shelter in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

Isa 1:9 If the LORD of hosts had not left us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom, and become like Gomorrah.

Isa 1:10 Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

Isa 1:11 What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats.

Isa 1:12 When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more;

Isa 1:13 bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation-- I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.

Isa 1:14 Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them.

Isa 1:15 When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

Isa 1:16 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil,

Isa 1:17 learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

Isa 1:18 Come now, let us argue it out, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.

Isa 1:19 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land;

Isa 1:20 but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isa 1:21 How the faithful city has become a whore! She that was full of justice, righteousness lodged in her-- but now murderers!

Isa 1:22 Your silver has become dross, your wine is mixed with water.

Isa 1:23 Your princes are rebels and companions of thieves. Everyone loves a bribe and runs after gifts. They do not defend the orphan, and the widow's cause does not come before them.

Isa 1:24 Therefore says the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel: Ah, I will pour out my wrath on my enemies, and avenge myself on my foes!

Isa 1:25 I will turn my hand against you; I will smelt away your dross as with lye and remove all your alloy.

Isa 1:26 And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city.

Isa 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed by justice, and those in her who repent, by righteousness.

Isa 1:28 But rebels and sinners shall be destroyed together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

Isa 1:29 For you shall be ashamed of the oaks in which you delighted; and you shall blush for the gardens that you have chosen.

Isa 1:30 For you shall be like an oak whose leaf withers, and like a garden without water.

Isa 1:31 The strong shall become like tinder, and their work like a spark; they and their work shall burn together, with no one to quench them.

Isa 2:1 The word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Isa 2:2 In days to come the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; all the nations shall stream to it.

Isa 2:3 Many peoples shall come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Isa 2:4 He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Isa 2:5 O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD!

Isa 2:6 For you have forsaken the ways of your people, O house of Jacob. Indeed they are full of diviners from the east and of soothsayers like the Philistines, and they clasp hands with foreigners.

Isa 2:7 Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures; their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.

Isa 2:8 Their land is filled with idols; they bow down to the work of their hands, to what their own fingers have made.

Isa 2:9 And so people are humbled, and everyone is brought low-- do not forgive them!

Isa 2:10 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust from the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty.

Isa 2:11 The haughty eyes of people shall be brought low, and the pride of everyone shall be humbled; and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

Isa 2:12 For the LORD of hosts has a day against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up and high;

Isa 2:13 against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up; and against all the oaks of Bashan;

Isa 2:14 against all the high mountains, and against all the lofty hills;

Isa 2:15 against every high tower, and against every fortified wall;

Isa 2:16 against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all the beautiful craft.

Isa 2:17 The haughtiness of people shall be humbled, and the pride of everyone shall be brought low; and the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.

Isa 2:18 The idols shall utterly pass away.

Isa 2:19 Enter the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, from the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

Isa 2:20 On that day people will throw away to the moles and to the bats their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship,

Isa 2:21 to enter the caverns of the rocks and the clefts in the crags, from the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

Isa 2:22 Turn away from mortals, who have only breath in their nostrils, for of what account are they?

Isa 3:1 For now the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and staff-- all support of bread, and all support of water--

Isa 3:2 warrior and soldier, judge and prophet, diviner and elder,

Isa 3:3 captain of fifty and dignitary, counselor and skillful magician and expert enchanter.

Isa 3:4 And I will make boys their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

Isa 3:5 The people will be oppressed, everyone by another and everyone by a neighbor; the youth will be insolent to the elder, and the base to the honorable.

Isa 3:6 Someone will even seize a relative, a member of the clan, saying, "You have a cloak; you shall be our leader, and this heap of ruins shall be under your rule."

Isa 3:7 But the other will cry out on that day, saying, "I will not be a healer; in my house there is neither bread nor cloak; you shall not make me leader of the people."

Isa 3:8 For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their deeds are against the LORD, defying his glorious presence.

Isa 3:9 The look on their faces bears witness against them; they proclaim their sin like Sodom, they do not hide it. Woe to them! For they have brought evil on themselves.

Isa 3:10 Tell the innocent how fortunate they are, for they shall eat the fruit of their labors.

Isa 3:11 Woe to the guilty! How unfortunate they are, for what their hands have done shall be done to them.

Isa 3:12 My people-- children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, your leaders mislead you, and confuse the course of your paths.

Isa 3:13 The LORD rises to argue his case; he stands to judge the peoples.

Isa 3:14 The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and princes of his people: It is you who have devoured the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

Isa 3:15 What do you mean by crushing my people, by grinding the face of the poor? says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isa 3:16 The LORD said: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty and walk with outstretched necks, glancing wantonly with their eyes, mincing along as they go, tinkling with their feet;

Isa 3:17 the Lord will afflict with scabs the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will lay bare their secret parts.

Isa 3:18 In that day the Lord will take away the finery of the anklets, the headbands, and the crescents;

Isa 3:19 the pendants, the bracelets, and the scarfs;

Isa 3:20 the headdresses, the armllets, the sashes, the perfume boxes, and the amulets;

Isa 3:21 the signet rings and nose rings;

Isa 3:22 the festal robes, the mantles, the cloaks, and the handbags;

Isa 3:23 the garments of gauze, the linen garments, the turbans, and the veils.

Isa 3:24 Instead of perfume there will be a stench; and instead of a sash, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a rich robe, a binding of sackcloth; instead of beauty, shame.

Isa 3:25 Your men shall fall by the sword and your warriors in battle.

Isa 3:26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; ravaged, she shall sit upon the ground.

Isa 4:1 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes; just let us be called by your name; take away our disgrace."

Isa 4:2 On that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and glory of the survivors of Israel.

Isa 4:3 Whoever is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who has been recorded for life in Jerusalem,

Isa 4:4 once the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning.

Isa 4:5 Then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over its places of assembly a cloud by day and smoke and the shining of a flaming fire by night. Indeed over all the glory there will be a canopy.

Isa 4:6 It will serve as a pavilion, a shade by day from the heat, and a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

Isa 5:1 Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

Isa 5:2 He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

Isa 5:3 And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

Isa 5:4 What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

Isa 5:5 And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

Isa 5:6 I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

Isa 5:7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting; he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry!

Isa 5:8 Ah, you who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is room for no one but you, and you are left to live alone in the midst of the land!

Isa 5:9 The LORD of hosts has sworn in my hearing: Surely many houses shall be desolate, large and beautiful houses, without inhabitant.

Isa 5:10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield but one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield a mere ephah.

Isa 5:11 Ah, you who rise early in the morning in pursuit of strong drink, who linger in the evening to be inflamed by wine,

Isa 5:12 whose feasts consist of lyre and harp, tambourine and flute and wine, but who do not regard the deeds of the LORD, or see the work of his hands!

Isa 5:13 Therefore my people go into exile without knowledge; their nobles are dying of hunger, and their multitude is parched with thirst.

Isa 5:14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure; the nobility of Jerusalem and her multitude go down, her throng and all who exult in her.

Isa 5:15 People are bowed down, everyone is brought low, and the eyes of the haughty are humbled.

Isa 5:16 But the LORD of hosts is exalted by justice, and the Holy God shows himself holy by righteousness.

Isa 5:17 Then the lambs shall graze as in their pasture, fatlings and kids shall feed among the ruins.

Isa 5:18 Ah, you who drag iniquity along with cords of falsehood, who drag sin along as with cart ropes,

Isa 5:19 who say, "Let him make haste, let him speed his work that we may see it; let the plan of the Holy One of Israel hasten to fulfillment, that we may know it!"

Isa 5:20 Ah, you who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isa 5:21 Ah, you who are wise in your own eyes, and shrewd in your own sight!

Isa 5:22 Ah, you who are heroes in drinking wine and valiant at mixing drink,

Isa 5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of their rights!

Isa 5:24 Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will become rotten, and their blossom go up like dust; for they have rejected the instruction of the LORD of hosts, and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 5:25 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he stretched out his hand against them and struck them; the mountains quaked, and their corpses were like refuse in the streets. For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 5:26 He will raise a signal for a nation far away, and whistle for a people at the ends of the earth; Here they come, swiftly, speedily!

Isa 5:27 None of them is weary, none stumbles, none slumbers or sleeps, not a loincloth is loose, not a sandal-thong broken;

Isa 5:28 their arrows are sharp, all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs seem like flint, and their wheels like the whirlwind.

Isa 5:29 Their roaring is like a lion, like young lions they roar; they growl and seize their prey, they carry it off, and no one can rescue.

Isa 5:30 They will roar over it on that day, like the roaring of the sea. And if one look to the land-- only darkness and distress; and the light grows dark with clouds.

Isa 6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple.

Isa 6:2 Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.

Isa 6:3 And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory."

Isa 6:4 The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

Isa 6:5 And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

Isa 6:6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.

Isa 6:7 The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out."

Isa 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Isa 6:9 And he said, "Go and say to this people: 'Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.'

Isa 6:10 Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed."

Isa 6:11 Then I said, "How long, O Lord?" And he said: "Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate;

Isa 6:12 until the LORD sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land.

Isa 6:13 Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled." The holy seed is its stump.

Isa 7:1 In the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel went up to attack Jerusalem, but could not mount an attack against it.

Isa 7:2 When the house of David heard that Aram had allied itself with Ephraim, the heart of Ahaz and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind.

Isa 7:3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller's Field,

Isa 7:4 and say to him, Take heed, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint because of these two smoldering stumps of firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah.

Isa 7:5 Because Aram-- with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah-- has plotted evil against you, saying,

Isa 7:6 Let us go up against Judah and cut off Jerusalem and conquer it for ourselves and make the son of Tabeel king in it;

Isa 7:7 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass.

Isa 7:8 For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. (Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered, no longer a people.)

Isa 7:9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you do not stand firm in faith, you shall not stand at all.

Isa 7:10 Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying,

Isa 7:11 Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven.

Isa 7:12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test.

Isa 7:13 Then Isaiah said: "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary mortals, that you weary my God also?"

Isa 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.

Isa 7:15 He shall eat curds and honey by the time he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good.

Isa 7:16 For before the child knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land before whose two kings you are in dread will be deserted.

Isa 7:17 The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on your ancestral house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah-- the king of Assyria."

Isa 7:18 On that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is at the sources of the streams of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

Isa 7:19 And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the pastures.

Isa 7:20 On that day the Lord will shave with a razor hired beyond the River-- with the king of Assyria-- the head and the hair of the feet, and it will take off the beard as well.

Isa 7:21 On that day one will keep alive a young cow and two sheep,

Isa 7:22 and will eat curds because of the abundance of milk that they give; for everyone that is left in the land shall eat curds and honey.

Isa 7:23 On that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand shekels of silver, will become briars and thorns.

Isa 7:24 With bow and arrows one will go there, for all the land will be briars and thorns;

Isa 7:25 and as for all the hills that used to be hoed with a hoe, you will not go there for fear of briars and thorns; but they will become a place where cattle are let loose and where sheep tread.

Isa 8:1 Then the LORD said to me, Take a large tablet and write on it in common characters, "Belonging to Maher-shalal-hash-baz,"

Isa 8:2 and have it attested for me by reliable witnesses, the priest Uriah and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah.

Isa 8:3 And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz;

Isa 8:4 for before the child knows how to call "My father" or "My mother," the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.

Isa 8:5 The LORD spoke to me again:

Isa 8:6 Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and melt in fear before Rezin and the son of Remaliah;

Isa 8:7 therefore, the Lord is bringing up against it the mighty flood waters of the River, the king of Assyria and all his glory; it will rise above all its channels and overflow all its banks;

Isa 8:8 it will sweep on into Judah as a flood, and, pouring over, it will reach up to the neck; and its outspread wings will fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.

Isa 8:9 Band together, you peoples, and be dismayed; listen, all you far countries; gird yourselves and be dismayed; gird yourselves and be dismayed!

Isa 8:10 Take counsel together, but it shall be brought to naught; speak a word, but it will not stand, for God is with us.

Isa 8:11 For the LORD spoke thus to me while his hand was strong upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying:

Isa 8:12 Do not call conspiracy all that this people calls conspiracy, and do not fear what it fears, or be in dread.

Isa 8:13 But the LORD of hosts, him you shall regard as holy; let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

Isa 8:14 He will become a sanctuary, a stone one strikes against; for both houses of Israel he will become a rock one stumbles over-- a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Isa 8:15 And many among them shall stumble; they shall fall and be broken; they shall be snared and taken.

Isa 8:16 Bind up the testimony, seal the teaching among my disciples.

Isa 8:17 I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him.

Isa 8:18 See, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are signs and portents in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isa 8:19 Now if people say to you, "Consult the ghosts and the familiar spirits that chirp and mutter; should not a people consult their gods, the dead on behalf of the living, Isa 8:20 for teaching and for instruction?" Surely, those who speak like this will have no dawn!

Isa 8:21 They will pass through the land, greatly distressed and hungry; when they are hungry, they will be enraged and will curse their king and their gods. They will turn their faces upward,

Isa 8:22 or they will look to the earth, but will see only distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be thrust into thick darkness.

Isa 9:1 But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

Isa 9:2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined.

Isa 9:3 You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.

Isa 9:4 For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Isa 9:5 For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

Isa 9:6 For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isa 9:7 His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Isa 9:8 The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it fell on Israel;

Isa 9:9 and all the people knew it-- Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria-- but in pride and arrogance of heart they said:

Isa 9:10 "The bricks have fallen, but we will build with dressed stones; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."

Isa 9:11 So the LORD raised adversaries against them, and stirred up their enemies,

Isa 9:12 the Arameans on the east and the Philistines on the west, and they devoured Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger has not turned away; his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 9:13 The people did not turn to him who struck them, or seek the LORD of hosts.

Isa 9:14 So the LORD cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed in one day--

Isa 9:15 elders and dignitaries are the head, and prophets who teach lies are the tail;

Isa 9:16 for those who led this people led them astray, and those who were led by them were left in confusion.

Isa 9:17 That is why the Lord did not have pity on their young people, or compassion on their orphans and widows; for everyone was godless and an evildoer, and every mouth spoke folly. For all this his anger has not turned away, his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 9:18 For wickedness burned like a fire, consuming briars and thorns; it kindled the thickets of the forest, and they swirled upward in a column of smoke.

Isa 9:19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land was burned, and the people became like fuel for the fire; no one spared another.

Isa 9:20 They gorged on the right, but still were hungry, and they devoured on the left, but were not satisfied; they devoured the flesh of their own kindred;

Isa 9:21 Manasseh devoured Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, and together they were against Judah. For all this his anger has not turned away; his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 10:1 Ah, you who make iniquitous decrees, who write oppressive statutes,

Isa 10:2 to turn aside the needy from justice and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be your spoil, and that you may make the orphans your prey!

Isa 10:3 What will you do on the day of punishment, in the calamity that will come from far away? To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth,

Isa 10:4 so as not to crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain? For all this his anger has not turned away; his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 10:5 Ah, Assyria, the rod of my anger-- the club in their hands is my fury!

Isa 10:6 Against a godless nation I send him, and against the people of my wrath I command him, to take spoil and seize plunder, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Isa 10:7 But this is not what he intends, nor does he have this in mind; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off nations not a few.

Isa 10:8 For he says: "Are not my commanders all kings?"

Isa 10:9 Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria like Damascus?

Isa 10:10 As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols whose images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

Isa 10:11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols what I have done to Samaria and her images?"

Isa 10:12 When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, he will punish the arrogant boasting of the king of Assyria and his haughty pride.

Isa 10:13 For he says: "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I have understanding; I have removed the boundaries of peoples, and have plundered their treasures; like a bull I have brought down those who sat on thrones.

Isa 10:14 My hand has found, like a nest, the wealth of the peoples; and as one gathers eggs that have been forsaken, so I have gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved a wing, or opened its mouth, or chirped."

Isa 10:15 Shall the ax vaunt itself over the one who wields it, or the saw magnify itself against the one who handles it? As if a rod should raise the one who lifts it up, or as if a staff should lift the one who is not wood!

Isa 10:16 Therefore the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, will send wasting sickness among his stout warriors, and under his glory a burning will be kindled, like the burning of fire.

Isa 10:17 The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and briars in one day.

Isa 10:18 The glory of his forest and his fruitful land the LORD will destroy, both soul and body, and it will be as when an invalid wastes away.

Isa 10:19 The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child can write them down.

Isa 10:20 On that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on the one who struck them, but will lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

Isa 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

Isa 10:22 For though your people Israel were like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness.

Isa 10:23 For the Lord GOD of hosts will make a full end, as decreed, in all the earth.

Isa 10:24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: O my people, who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians when they beat you with a rod and lift up their staff against you as the Egyptians did.

Isa 10:25 For in a very little while my indignation will come to an end, and my anger will be directed to their destruction.

Isa 10:26 The LORD of hosts will wield a whip against them, as when he struck Midian at the rock of Oreb; his staff will be over the sea, and he will lift it as he did in Egypt.

Isa 10:27 On that day his burden will be removed from your shoulder, and his yoke will be destroyed from your neck. He has gone up from Rimmon,

Isa 10:28 he has come to Aiath; he has passed through Migron, at Michmash he stores his baggage;

Isa 10:29 they have crossed over the pass, at Geba they lodge for the night; Ramah trembles, Gibeah of Saul has fled.

Isa 10:30 Cry aloud, O daughter Gallim! Listen, O Laishah! Answer her, O Anathoth!

Isa 10:31 Madmenah is in flight, the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.

Isa 10:32 This very day he will halt at Nob, he will shake his fist at the mount of daughter Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

Isa 10:33 Look, the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, will lop the boughs with terrifying power; the tallest trees will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.

Isa 10:34 He will hack down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon with its majestic trees will fall.

Isa 11:1 A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

Isa 11:2 The spirit of the LORD shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Isa 11:3 His delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear;

Isa 11:4 but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.

Isa 11:5 Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins.

Isa 11:6 The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them.

Isa 11:7 The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

Isa 11:8 The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den.

Isa 11:9 They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Isa 11:10 On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

Isa 11:11 On that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Ethiopia, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

Isa 11:12 He will raise a signal for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

Isa 11:13 The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, the hostility of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not be hostile towards Ephraim.

Isa 11:14 But they shall swoop down on the backs of the Philistines in the west, together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put forth their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

Isa 11:15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt; and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching wind; and will split it into seven channels, and make a way to cross on foot;

Isa 11:16 so there shall be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that is left of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

Isa 12:1 You will say in that day: I will give thanks to you, O LORD, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, and you comforted me.

Isa 12:2 Surely God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid, for the LORD GOD is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation.

Isa 12:3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Isa 12:4 And you will say in that day: Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known his deeds among the nations; proclaim that his name is exalted.

Isa 12:5 Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth.

Isa 12:6 Shout aloud and sing for joy, O royal Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 13:1 The oracle concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw.

Isa 13:2 On a bare hill raise a signal, cry aloud to them; wave the hand for them to enter the gates of the nobles.

Isa 13:3 I myself have commanded my consecrated ones, have summoned my warriors, my proudly exulting ones, to execute my anger.

Isa 13:4 Listen, a tumult on the mountains as of a great multitude! Listen, an uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathering together! The LORD of hosts is mustering an army for battle.

Isa 13:5 They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens, the LORD and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole earth.

Isa 13:6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty!

Isa 13:7 Therefore all hands will be feeble, and every human heart will melt,

Isa 13:8 and they will be dismayed. Pangs and agony will seize them; they will be in anguish like a woman in labor. They will look aghast at one another; their faces will be aflame.

Isa 13:9 See, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger, to make the earth a desolation, and to destroy its sinners from it.

Isa 13:10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be dark at its rising, and the moon will not shed its light.

Isa 13:11 I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will put an end to the pride of the arrogant, and lay low the insolence of tyrants.

Isa 13:12 I will make mortals more rare than fine gold, and humans than the gold of Ophir.

Isa 13:13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the LORD of hosts in the day of his fierce anger.

Isa 13:14 Like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with no one to gather them, all will turn to their own people, and all will flee to their own lands.

Isa 13:15 Whoever is found will be thrust through, and whoever is caught will fall by the sword.

Isa 13:16 Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered, and their wives ravished.

Isa 13:17 See, I am stirring up the Medes against them, who have no regard for silver and do not delight in gold.

Isa 13:18 Their bows will slaughter the young men; they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; their eyes will not pity children.

Isa 13:19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the splendor and pride of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them.

Isa 13:20 It will never be inhabited or lived in for all generations; Arabs will not pitch their tents there, shepherds will not make their flocks lie down there.

Isa 13:21 But wild animals will lie down there, and its houses will be full of howling creatures; there ostriches will live, and there goat-demons will dance.

Isa 13:22 Hyenas will cry in its towers, and jackals in the pleasant palaces; its time is close at hand, and its days will not be prolonged.

Isa 14:1 But the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land; and aliens will join them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob.

Isa 14:2 And the nations will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess the nations as male and female slaves in the LORD's land; they will take captive those who were their captors, and rule over those who oppressed them.

Isa 14:3 When the LORD has given you rest from your pain and turmoil and the hard service with which you were made to serve,

Isa 14:4 you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon: How the oppressor has ceased! How his insolence has ceased!

Isa 14:5 The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers,

Isa 14:6 that struck down the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger with unrelenting persecution.

Isa 14:7 The whole earth is at rest and quiet; they break forth into singing.

Isa 14:8 The cypresses exult over you, the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you were laid low, no one comes to cut us down."

Isa 14:9 Sheol beneath is stirred up to meet you when you come; it rouses the shades to greet you, all who were leaders of the earth; it raises from their thrones all who were kings of the nations.

Isa 14:10 All of them will speak and say to you: "You too have become as weak as we! You have become like us!"

Isa 14:11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, and the sound of your harps; maggots are the bed beneath you, and worms are your covering.

Isa 14:12 How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low!

Isa 14:13 You said in your heart, "I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God; I will sit on the mount of assembly on the heights of Zaphon;

Isa 14:14 I will ascend to the tops of the clouds, I will make myself like the Most High."

Isa 14:15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the Pit.

Isa 14:16 Those who see you will stare at you, and ponder over you: "Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms,

Isa 14:17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities, who would not let his prisoners go home?"

Isa 14:18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb;

Isa 14:19 but you are cast out, away from your grave, like loathsome carrion, clothed with the dead, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the Pit, like a corpse trampled underfoot.

Isa 14:20 You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, you have killed your people. May the descendants of evildoers nevermore be named!

Isa 14:21 Prepare slaughter for his sons because of the guilt of their father. Let them never rise to possess the earth or cover the face of the world with cities.

Isa 14:22 I will rise up against them, says the LORD of hosts, and will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, offspring and posterity, says the LORD.

Isa 14:23 And I will make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction, says the LORD of hosts.

Isa 14:24 The LORD of hosts has sworn: As I have designed, so shall it be; and as I have planned, so shall it come to pass:

Isa 14:25 I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him under foot; his yoke shall be removed from them, and his burden from their shoulders.

Isa 14:26 This is the plan that is planned concerning the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.

Isa 14:27 For the LORD of hosts has planned, and who will annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

Isa 14:28 In the year that King Ahaz died this oracle came:

Isa 14:29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken, for from the root of the snake will come forth an adder, and its fruit will be a flying fiery serpent.

Isa 14:30 The firstborn of the poor will graze, and the needy lie down in safety; but I will make your root die of famine, and your remnant I will kill.

Isa 14:31 Wail, O gate; cry, O city; melt in fear, O Philistia, all of you! For smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in its ranks.

Isa 14:32 What will one answer the messengers of the nation? "The LORD has founded Zion, and the needy among his people will find refuge in her."

Isa 15:1 An oracle concerning Moab. Because Ar is laid waste in a night, Moab is undone; because Kir is laid waste in a night, Moab is undone.

Isa 15:2 Dibon has gone up to the temple, to the high places to weep; over Nebo and over Medeba Moab wails. On every head is baldness, every beard is shorn;

Isa 15:3 in the streets they bind on sackcloth; on the housetops and in the squares everyone wails and melts in tears.

Isa 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard as far as Jahaz; therefore the loins of Moab quiver; his soul trembles.

Isa 15:5 My heart cries out for Moab; his fugitives flee to Zoar, to Eglath-shelishiyah. For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of destruction;

Isa 15:6 the waters of Nimrim are a desolation; the grass is withered, the new growth fails, the verdure is no more.
Isa 15:7 Therefore the abundance they have gained and what they have laid up they carry away over the Wadi of the Willows.
Isa 15:8 For a cry has gone around the land of Moab; the wailing reaches to Eglaim, the wailing reaches to Beer-elim.
Isa 15:9 For the waters of Dibon are full of blood; yet I will bring upon Dibon even more-- a lion for those of Moab who escape, for the remnant of the land.
Isa 16:1 Send lambs to the ruler of the land, from Sela, by way of the desert, to the mount of daughter Zion.
Isa 16:2 Like fluttering birds, like scattered nestlings, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.
Isa 16:3 "Give counsel, grant justice; make your shade like night at the height of noon; hide the outcasts, do not betray the fugitive;
Isa 16:4 let the outcasts of Moab settle among you; be a refuge to them from the destroyer." When the oppressor is no more, and destruction has ceased, and marauders have vanished from the land,
Isa 16:5 then a throne shall be established in steadfast love in the tent of David, and on it shall sit in faithfulness a ruler who seeks justice and is swift to do what is right.
Isa 16:6 We have heard of the pride of Moab-- how proud he is!-- of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence; his boasts are false.
Isa 16:7 Therefore let Moab wail, let everyone wail for Moab. Mourn, utterly stricken, for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.
Isa 16:8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vines of Sibmah, whose clusters once made drunk the lords of the nations, reached to Jazer and strayed to the desert; their shoots once spread abroad and crossed over the sea.
Isa 16:9 Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vines of Sibmah; I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; for the shout over your fruit harvest and your grain harvest has ceased.
Isa 16:10 Joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field; and in the vineyards no songs are sung, no shouts are raised; no treader treads out wine in the presses; the vintage-shout is hushed.
Isa 16:11 Therefore my heart throbs like a harp for Moab, and my very soul for Kir-heres.
Isa 16:12 When Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself upon the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he will not prevail.
Isa 16:13 This was the word that the LORD spoke concerning Moab in the past.
Isa 16:14 But now the LORD says, In three years, like the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt, in spite of all its great multitude; and those who survive will be very few and feeble.
Isa 17:1 An oracle concerning Damascus. See, Damascus will cease to be a city, and will become a heap of ruins.
Isa 17:2 Her towns will be deserted forever; they will be places for flocks, which will lie down, and no one will make them afraid.
Isa 17:3 The fortress will disappear from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus; and the remnant of Aram will be like the glory of the children of Israel, says the LORD of hosts.
Isa 17:4 On that day the glory of Jacob will be brought low, and the fat of his flesh will grow lean.
Isa 17:5 And it shall be as when reapers gather standing grain and their arms harvest the ears, and as when one gleans the ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.
Isa 17:6 Gleanings will be left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten-- two or three berries in the top of the highest bough, four or five on the branches of a fruit tree, says the LORD God of Israel.
Isa 17:7 On that day people will regard their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel;
Isa 17:8 they will not have regard for the altars, the work of their hands, and they will not look to what their own fingers have made, either the sacred poles or the altars of incense.
Isa 17:9 On that day their strong cities will be like the deserted places of the Hivites and the Amorites, which they deserted because of the children of Israel, and there will be desolation.
Isa 17:10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the Rock of your refuge; therefore, though you plant pleasant plants and set out slips of an alien god,
Isa 17:11 though you make them grow on the day that you plant them, and make them blossom in the morning that you sow; yet the harvest will flee away in a day of grief and incurable pain.
Isa 17:12 Ah, the thunder of many peoples, they thunder like the thundering of the sea! Ah, the roar of nations, they roar like the roaring of mighty waters!
Isa 17:13 The nations roar like the roaring of many waters, but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far away, chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind and whirling dust before the storm.
Isa 17:14 At evening time, lo, terror! Before morning, they are no more. This is the fate of those who despoil us, and the lot of those who plunder us.

Isa 18:1 Ah, land of whirring wings beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,

Isa 18:2 sending ambassadors by the Nile in vessels of papyrus on the waters! Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide.

Isa 18:3 All you inhabitants of the world, you who live on the earth, when a signal is raised on the mountains, look! When a trumpet is blown, listen!

Isa 18:4 For thus the LORD said to me: I will quietly look from my dwelling like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

Isa 18:5 For before the harvest, when the blossom is over and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the shoots with pruning hooks, and the spreading branches he will hew away.

Isa 18:6 They shall all be left to the birds of prey of the mountains and to the animals of the earth. And the birds of prey will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.

Isa 18:7 At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide, to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

Isa 19:1 An oracle concerning Egypt. See, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt; the idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence, and the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

Isa 19:2 I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will fight, one against the other, neighbor against neighbor, city against city, kingdom against kingdom;

Isa 19:3 the spirit of the Egyptians within them will be emptied out, and I will confound their plans; they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead and the ghosts and the familiar spirits;

Isa 19:4 I will deliver the Egyptians into the hand of a hard master; a fierce king will rule over them, says the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts.

Isa 19:5 The waters of the Nile will be dried up, and the river will be parched and dry;

Isa 19:6 its canals will become foul, and the branches of Egypt's Nile will diminish and dry up, reeds and rushes will rot away.

Isa 19:7 There will be bare places by the Nile, on the brink of the Nile; and all that is sown by the Nile will dry up, be driven away, and be no more.

Isa 19:8 Those who fish will mourn; all who cast hooks in the Nile will lament, and those who spread nets on the water will languish.

Isa 19:9 The workers in flax will be in despair, and the carders and those at the loom will grow pale.

Isa 19:10 Its weavers will be dismayed, and all who work for wages will be grieved.

Isa 19:11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give stupid counsel. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am one of the sages, a descendant of ancient kings"?

Isa 19:12 Where now are your sages? Let them tell you and make known what the LORD of hosts has planned against Egypt.

Isa 19:13 The princes of Zoan have become fools, and the princes of Memphis are deluded; those who are the cornerstones of its tribes have led Egypt astray.

Isa 19:14 The LORD has poured into them a spirit of confusion; and they have made Egypt stagger in all its doings as a drunkard staggers around in vomit.

Isa 19:15 Neither head nor tail, palm branch or reed, will be able to do anything for Egypt.

Isa 19:16 On that day the Egyptians will be like women, and tremble with fear before the hand that the LORD of hosts raises against them.

Isa 19:17 And the land of Judah will become a terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom it is mentioned will fear because of the plan that the LORD of hosts is planning against them.

Isa 19:18 On that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One of these will be called the City of the Sun.

Isa 19:19 On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the center of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.

Isa 19:20 It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; when they cry to the LORD because of oppressors, he will send them a savior, and will defend and deliver them.

Isa 19:21 The LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians; and the Egyptians will know the LORD on that day, and will worship with sacrifice and burnt offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and perform them.

Isa 19:22 The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing; they will return to the LORD, and he will listen to their supplications and heal them.

Isa 19:23 On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

Isa 19:24 On that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,

Isa 19:25 whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my heritage."

Isa 20:1 In the year that the commander-in-chief, who was sent by King Sargon of Assyria, came to Ashdod and fought against it and took it--

Isa 20:2 at that time the LORD had spoken to Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loose the sackcloth from your loins and take your sandals off your feet," and he had done so, walking naked and barefoot.

Isa 20:3 Then the LORD said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Ethiopia,

Isa 20:4 so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as captives and the Ethiopians as exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

Isa 20:5 And they shall be dismayed and confounded because of Ethiopia their hope and of Egypt their boast.

Isa 20:6 In that day the inhabitants of this coastland will say, 'See, this is what has happened to those in whom we hoped and to whom we fled for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! And we, how shall we escape?'"

Isa 21:1 The oracle concerning the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the Negeb sweep on, it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

Isa 21:2 A stern vision is told to me; the betrayer betrays, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, O Elam, lay siege, O Media; all the sighing she has caused I bring to an end.

Isa 21:3 Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pangs have seized me, like the pangs of a woman in labor; I am bowed down so that I cannot hear, I am dismayed so that I cannot see.

Isa 21:4 My mind reels, horror has appalled me; the twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling.

Isa 21:5 They prepare the table, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink. Rise up, commanders, oil the shield!

Isa 21:6 For thus the Lord said to me: "Go, post a lookout, let him announce what he sees.

Isa 21:7 When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, riders on donkeys, riders on camels, let him listen diligently, very diligently."

Isa 21:8 Then the watcher called out: "Upon a watchtower I stand, O Lord, continually by day, and at my post I am stationed throughout the night.

Isa 21:9 Look, there they come, riders, horsemen in pairs!" Then he responded, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the images of her gods lie shattered on the ground."

Isa 21:10 O my threshed and winnowed one, what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I announce to you.

Isa 21:11 The oracle concerning Dumah. One is calling to me from Seir, "Sentinel, what of the night? Sentinel, what of the night?"

Isa 21:12 The sentinel says: "Morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire; come back again."

Isa 21:13 The oracle concerning the desert plain. In the scrub of the desert plain you will lodge, O caravans of Dedanites.

Isa 21:14 Bring water to the thirsty, meet the fugitive with bread, O inhabitants of the land of Tema.

Isa 21:15 For they have fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the stress of battle.

Isa 21:16 For thus the Lord said to me: Within a year, according to the years of a hired worker, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end;

Isa 21:17 and the remaining bows of Kedar's warriors will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

Isa 22:1 The oracle concerning the valley of vision. What do you mean that you have gone up, all of you, to the housetops,

Isa 22:2 you that are full of shoutings, tumultuous city, exultant town? Your slain are not slain by the sword, nor are they dead in battle.

Isa 22:3 Your rulers have all fled together; they were captured without the use of a bow. All of you who were found were captured, though they had fled far away.

Isa 22:4 Therefore I said: Look away from me, let me weep bitter tears; do not try to comfort me for the destruction of my beloved people.

Isa 22:5 For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of tumult and trampling and confusion in the valley of vision, a battering down of walls and a cry for help to the mountains.

Isa 22:6 Elam bore the quiver with chariots and cavalry, and Kir uncovered the shield.

Isa 22:7 Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the cavalry took their stand at the gates.

Isa 22:8 He has taken away the covering of Judah. On that day you looked to the weapons of the House of the Forest,

Isa 22:9 and you saw that there were many breaches in the city of David, and you collected the waters of the lower pool.

Isa 22:10 You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall.

Isa 22:11 You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who did it, or have regard for him who planned it long ago.

Isa 22:12 In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called to weeping and mourning, to baldness and putting on sackcloth;

Isa 22:13 but instead there was joy and festivity, killing oxen and slaughtering sheep, eating meat and drinking wine. "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

Isa 22:14 The LORD of hosts has revealed himself in my ears: Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isa 22:15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: Come, go to this steward, to Shebna, who is master of the household, and say to him:

Isa 22:16 What right do you have here? Who are your relatives here, that you have cut out a tomb here for yourself, cutting a tomb on the height, and carving a habitation for yourself in the rock?

Isa 22:17 The LORD is about to hurl you away violently, my fellow. He will seize firm hold on you,

Isa 22:18 whirl you round and round, and throw you like a ball into a wide land; there you shall die, and there your splendid chariots shall lie, O you disgrace to your master's house!

Isa 22:19 I will thrust you from your office, and you will be pulled down from your post.

Isa 22:20 On that day I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah,

Isa 22:21 and will clothe him with your robe and bind your sash on him. I will commit your authority to his hand, and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

Isa 22:22 I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David; he shall open, and no one shall shut; he shall shut, and no one shall open.

Isa 22:23 I will fasten him like a peg in a secure place, and he will become a throne of honor to his ancestral house.

Isa 22:24 And they will hang on him the whole weight of his ancestral house, the offspring and issue, every small vessel, from the cups to all the flagons.

Isa 22:25 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, the peg that was fastened in a secure place will give way; it will be cut down and fall, and the load that was on it will perish, for the LORD has spoken.

Isa 23:1 The oracle concerning Tyre. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for your fortress is destroyed. When they came in from Cyprus they learned of it.

Isa 23:2 Be still, O inhabitants of the coast, O merchants of Sidon, your messengers crossed over the sea

Isa 23:3 and were on the mighty waters; your revenue was the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile; you were the merchant of the nations.

Isa 23:4 Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the fortress of the sea, saying: "I have neither labored nor given birth, I have neither reared young men nor brought up young women."

Isa 23:5 When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish over the report about Tyre.

Isa 23:6 Cross over to Tarshish-- wail, O inhabitants of the coast!

Isa 23:7 Is this your exultant city whose origin is from days of old, whose feet carried her to settle far away?

Isa 23:8 Who has planned this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

Isa 23:9 The LORD of hosts has planned it-- to defile the pride of all glory, to shame all the honored of the earth.

Isa 23:10 Cross over to your own land, O ships of Tarshish; this is a harbor no more.

Isa 23:11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea, he has shaken the kingdoms; the LORD has given command concerning Canaan to destroy its fortresses.

Isa 23:12 He said: You will exult no longer, O oppressed virgin daughter Sidon; rise, cross over to Cyprus-- even there you will have no rest.

Isa 23:13 Look at the land of the Chaldeans! This is the people; it was not Assyria. They destined Tyre for wild animals. They erected their siege towers, they tore down her palaces, they made her a ruin.

Isa 23:14 Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for your fortress is destroyed.

Isa 23:15 From that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the lifetime of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song about the prostitute:

Isa 23:16 Take a harp, go about the city, you forgotten prostitute! Make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered.

Isa 23:17 At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre, and she will return to her trade, and will prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.

Isa 23:18 Her merchandise and her wages will be dedicated to the LORD; her profits will not be stored or hoarded, but her merchandise will supply abundant food and fine clothing for those who live in the presence of the LORD.

Isa 24:1 Now the LORD is about to lay waste the earth and make it desolate, and he will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants.

Isa 24:2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the slave, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor.

Isa 24:3 The earth shall be utterly laid waste and utterly despoiled; for the LORD has spoken this word.

Isa 24:4 The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers; the heavens languish together with the earth.

Isa 24:5 The earth lies polluted under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.

Isa 24:6 Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt; therefore the inhabitants of the earth dwindled, and few people are left.

Isa 24:7 The wine dries up, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted sigh.

Isa 24:8 The mirth of the timbrels is stilled, the noise of the jubilant has ceased, the mirth of the lyre is stilled.

Isa 24:9 No longer do they drink wine with singing; strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

Isa 24:10 The city of chaos is broken down, every house is shut up so that no one can enter.

Isa 24:11 There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine; all joy has reached its eventide; the gladness of the earth is banished.

Isa 24:12 Desolation is left in the city, the gates are battered into ruins.

Isa 24:13 For thus it shall be on the earth and among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleaning when the grape harvest is ended.

Isa 24:14 They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; they shout from the west over the majesty of the LORD.

Isa 24:15 Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea glorify the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

Isa 24:16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One. But I say, I pine away, I pine away. Woe is me! For the treacherous deal treacherously, the treacherous deal very treacherously.

Isa 24:17 Terror, and the pit, and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth!

Isa 24:18 Whoever flees at the sound of the terror shall fall into the pit; and whoever climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.

Isa 24:19 The earth is utterly broken, the earth is torn asunder, the earth is violently shaken.

Isa 24:20 The earth staggers like a drunkard, it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, and will not rise again.

Isa 24:21 On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven in heaven, and on earth the kings of the earth.

Isa 24:22 They will be gathered together like prisoners in a pit; they will be shut up in a prison, and after many days they will be punished.

Isa 24:23 Then the moon will be abashed, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders he will manifest his glory.

Isa 25:1 O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

Isa 25:2 For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt.

Isa 25:3 Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you.

Isa 25:4 For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm,

Isa 25:5 the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled.

Isa 25:6 On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

Isa 25:7 And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations;

Isa 25:8 he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

Isa 25:9 It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Isa 25:10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain. The Moabites shall be trodden down in their place as straw is trodden down in a dung-pit.

Isa 25:11 Though they spread out their hands in the midst of it, as swimmers spread out their hands to swim, their pride will be laid low despite the struggle of their hands.

Isa 25:12 The high fortifications of his walls will be brought down, laid low, cast to the ground, even to the dust.

Isa 26:1 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; he sets up victory like walls and bulwarks.

Isa 26:2 Open the gates, so that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.
Isa 26:3 Those of steadfast mind you keep in peace-- in peace because they trust in you.
Isa 26:4 Trust in the LORD forever, for in the LORD GOD you have an everlasting rock.
Isa 26:5 For he has brought low the inhabitants of the height; the lofty city he lays low. He lays it low to the ground, casts it to the dust.
Isa 26:6 The foot tramples it, the feet of the poor, the steps of the needy.
Isa 26:7 The way of the righteous is level; O Just One, you make smooth the path of the righteous.
Isa 26:8 In the path of your judgments, O LORD, we wait for you; your name and your renown are the soul's desire.
Isa 26:9 My soul yearns for you in the night, my spirit within me earnestly seeks you. For when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
Isa 26:10 If favor is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness they deal perversely and do not see the majesty of the LORD.
Isa 26:11 O LORD, your hand is lifted up, but they do not see it. Let them see your zeal for your people, and be ashamed. Let the fire for your adversaries consume them.
Isa 26:12 O LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for indeed, all that we have done, you have done for us.
Isa 26:13 O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but we acknowledge your name alone.
Isa 26:14 The dead do not live; shades do not rise-- because you have punished and destroyed them, and wiped out all memory of them.
Isa 26:15 But you have increased the nation, O LORD, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land.
Isa 26:16 O LORD, in distress they sought you, they poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them.
Isa 26:17 Like a woman with child, who writhes and cries out in her pangs when she is near her time, so were we because of you, O LORD;
Isa 26:18 we were with child, we writhed, but we gave birth only to wind. We have won no victories on earth, and no one is born to inhabit the world.
Isa 26:19 Your dead shall live, their corpses shall rise. O dwellers in the dust, awake and sing for joy! For your dew is a radiant dew, and the earth will give birth to those long dead.
Isa 26:20 Come, my people, enter your chambers, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until the wrath is past.
Isa 26:21 For the LORD comes out from his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; the earth will disclose the blood shed on it, and will no longer cover its slain.
Isa 27:1 On that day the LORD with his cruel and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan the twisting serpent, and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea.
Isa 27:2 On that day: A pleasant vineyard, sing about it!
Isa 27:3 I, the LORD, am its keeper; every moment I water it. I guard it night and day so that no one can harm it;
Isa 27:4 I have no wrath. If it gives me thorns and briers, I will march to battle against it. I will burn it up.
Isa 27:5 Or else let it cling to me for protection, let it make peace with me, let it make peace with me.
Isa 27:6 In days to come Jacob shall take root, Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots, and fill the whole world with fruit.
Isa 27:7 Has he struck them down as he struck down those who struck them? Or have they been killed as their killers were killed?
Isa 27:8 By expulsion, by exile you struggled against them; with his fierce blast he removed them in the day of the east wind.
Isa 27:9 Therefore by this the guilt of Jacob will be expiated, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin: when he makes all the stones of the altars like chalkstones crushed to pieces, no sacred poles or incense altars will remain standing.
Isa 27:10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness; the calves graze there, there they lie down, and strip its branches.
Isa 27:11 When its boughs are dry, they are broken; women come and make a fire of them. For this is a people without understanding; therefore he that made them will not have compassion on them, he that formed them will show them no favor.
Isa 27:12 On that day the LORD will thresh from the channel of the Euphrates to the Wadi of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, O people of Israel.
Isa 27:13 And on that day a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost in the land of Assyria and those who were driven out to the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.
Isa 28:1 Ah, the proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim, and the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of those bloated with rich food, of those overcome with wine!

Isa 28:2 See, the Lord has one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail, a destroying tempest, like a storm of mighty, overflowing waters; with his hand he will hurl them down to the earth.

Isa 28:3 Trampled under foot will be the proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim.

Isa 28:4 And the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of those bloated with rich food, will be like a first-ripe fig before the summer; whoever sees it, eats it up as soon as it comes to hand.

Isa 28:5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be a garland of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the remnant of his people;

Isa 28:6 and a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

Isa 28:7 These also reel with wine and stagger with strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, they are confused with wine, they stagger with strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in giving judgment.

Isa 28:8 All tables are covered with filthy vomit; no place is clean.

Isa 28:9 "Whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from milk, those taken from the breast?

Isa 28:10 For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little."

Isa 28:11 Truly, with stammering lip and with alien tongue he will speak to this people,

Isa 28:12 to whom he has said, "This is rest; give rest to the weary; and this is repose"; yet they would not hear.

Isa 28:13 Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them, "Precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little;" in order that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

Isa 28:14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.

Isa 28:15 Because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have an agreement; when the overwhelming scourge passes through it will not come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and in falsehood we have taken shelter";

Isa 28:16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, See, I am laying in Zion a foundation stone, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: "One who trusts will not panic."

Isa 28:17 And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet; hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the shelter.

Isa 28:18 Then your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overwhelming scourge passes through you will be beaten down by it.

Isa 28:19 As often as it passes through, it will take you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be sheer terror to understand the message.

Isa 28:20 For the bed is too short to stretch oneself on it, and the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in it.

Isa 28:21 For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim, he will rage as in the valley of Gibeon; to do his deed-- strange is his deed! and to work his work-- alien is his work!

Isa 28:22 Now therefore do not scoff, or your bonds will be made stronger; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord GOD of hosts upon the whole land.

Isa 28:23 Listen, and hear my voice; Pay attention, and hear my speech.

Isa 28:24 Do those who plow for sowing plow continually? Do they continually open and harrow their ground?

Isa 28:25 When they have leveled its surface, do they not scatter dill, sow cummin, and plant wheat in rows and barley in its proper place, and spelt as the border?

Isa 28:26 For they are well instructed; their God teaches them.

Isa 28:27 Dill is not threshed with a threshing sledge, nor is a cart wheel rolled over cummin; but dill is beaten out with a stick, and cummin with a rod.

Isa 28:28 Grain is crushed for bread, but one does not thresh it forever; one drives the cart wheel and horses over it, but does not pulverize it.

Isa 28:29 This also comes from the LORD of hosts; he is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

Isa 29:1 Ah, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the festivals run their round.

Isa 29:2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be moaning and lamentation, and Jerusalem shall be to me like an Ariel.

Isa 29:3 And like David I will encamp against you; I will besiege you with towers and raise siegeworks against you.

Isa 29:4 Then deep from the earth you shall speak, from low in the dust your words shall come; your voice shall come from the ground like the voice of a ghost, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

Isa 29:5 But the multitude of your foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of tyrants like flying chaff. And in an instant, suddenly,

Isa 29:6 you will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.

Isa 29:7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, all that fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision of the night.

Isa 29:8 Just as when a hungry person dreams of eating and wakes up still hungry, or a thirsty person dreams of drinking and wakes up faint, still thirsty, so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.

Isa 29:9 Stupefy yourselves and be in a stupor, blind yourselves and be blind! Be drunk, but not from wine; stagger, but not from strong drink!

Isa 29:10 For the LORD has poured out upon you a spirit of deep sleep; he has closed your eyes, you prophets, and covered your heads, you seers.

Isa 29:11 The vision of all this has become for you like the words of a sealed document. If it is given to those who can read, with the command, "Read this," they say, "We cannot, for it is sealed."

Isa 29:12 And if it is given to those who cannot read, saying, "Read this," they say, "We cannot read."

Isa 29:13 The Lord said: Because these people draw near with their mouths and honor me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me, and their worship of me is a human commandment learned by rote;

Isa 29:14 so I will again do amazing things with this people, shocking and amazing. The wisdom of their wise shall perish, and the discernment of the discerning shall be hidden.

Isa 29:15 Ha! You who hide a plan too deep for the LORD, whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?"

Isa 29:16 You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay? Shall the thing made say of its maker, "He did not make me"; or the thing formed say of the one who formed it, "He has no understanding"?

Isa 29:17 Shall not Lebanon in a very little while become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be regarded as a forest?

Isa 29:18 On that day the deaf shall hear the words of a scroll, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.

Isa 29:19 The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the neediest people shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 29:20 For the tyrant shall be no more, and the scoffer shall cease to be; all those alert to do evil shall be cut off--

Isa 29:21 those who cause a person to lose a lawsuit, who set a trap for the arbiter in the gate, and without grounds deny justice to the one in the right.

Isa 29:22 Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: No longer shall Jacob be ashamed, no longer shall his face grow pale.

Isa 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

Isa 29:24 And those who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will accept instruction.

Isa 30:1 Oh, rebellious children, says the LORD, who carry out a plan, but not mine; who make an alliance, but against my will, adding sin to sin;

Isa 30:2 who set out to go down to Egypt without asking for my counsel, to take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh, and to seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt;

Isa 30:3 Therefore the protection of Pharaoh shall become your shame, and the shelter in the shadow of Egypt your humiliation.

Isa 30:4 For though his officials are at Zoan and his envoys reach Hanes,

Isa 30:5 everyone comes to shame through a people that cannot profit them, that brings neither help nor profit, but shame and disgrace.

Isa 30:6 An oracle concerning the animals of the Negeb. Through a land of trouble and distress, of lioness and roaring lion, of viper and flying serpent, they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people that cannot profit them.

Isa 30:7 For Egypt's help is worthless and empty, therefore I have called her, "Rahab who sits still."

Isa 30:8 Go now, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, so that it may be for the time to come as a witness forever.

Isa 30:9 For they are a rebellious people, faithless children, children who will not hear the instruction of the LORD;

Isa 30:10 who say to the seers, "Do not see"; and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us what is right; speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions,

Isa 30:11 leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel."

Isa 30:12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel: Because you reject this word, and put your trust in oppression and deceit, and rely on them;

Isa 30:13 therefore this iniquity shall become for you like a break in a high wall, bulging out, and about to collapse, whose crash comes suddenly, in an instant;

Isa 30:14 its breaking is like that of a potter's vessel that is smashed so ruthlessly that among its fragments not a sherd is found for taking fire from the hearth, or dipping water out of the cistern.

Isa 30:15 For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength. But you refused Isa 30:16 and said, "No! We will flee upon horses"-- therefore you shall flee! and, "We will ride upon swift steeds"-- therefore your pursuers shall be swift!

Isa 30:17 A thousand shall flee at the threat of one, at the threat of five you shall flee, until you are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like a signal on a hill.

Isa 30:18 Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise up to show mercy to you. For the LORD is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.

Isa 30:19 Truly, O people in Zion, inhabitants of Jerusalem, you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry; when he hears it, he will answer you.

Isa 30:20 Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself any more, but your eyes shall see your Teacher.

Isa 30:21 And when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left, your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it."

Isa 30:22 Then you will defile your silver-covered idols and your gold-plated images. You will scatter them like filthy rags; you will say to them, "Away with you!"

Isa 30:23 He will give rain for the seed with which you sow the ground, and grain, the produce of the ground, which will be rich and plenteous. On that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures;

Isa 30:24 and the oxen and donkeys that till the ground will eat silage, which has been winnowed with shovel and fork.

Isa 30:25 On every lofty mountain and every high hill there will be brooks running with water-- on a day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

Isa 30:26 Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, like the light of seven days, on the day when the LORD binds up the injuries of his people, and heals the wounds inflicted by his blow.

Isa 30:27 See, the name of the LORD comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke; his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is like a devouring fire;

Isa 30:28 his breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck-- to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads them astray.

Isa 30:29 You shall have a song as in the night when a holy festival is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one sets out to the sound of the flute to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

Isa 30:30 And the LORD will cause his majestic voice to be heard and the descending blow of his arm to be seen, in furious anger and a flame of devouring fire, with a cloudburst and tempest and hailstones.

Isa 30:31 The Assyrian will be terror-stricken at the voice of the LORD, when he strikes with his rod.

Isa 30:32 And every stroke of the staff of punishment that the LORD lays upon him will be to the sound of timbrels and lyres; battling with brandished arm he will fight with him.

Isa 30:33 For his burning place has long been prepared; truly it is made ready for the king, its pyre made deep and wide, with fire and wood in abundance; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

Isa 31:1 Alas for those who go down to Egypt for help and who rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult the LORD!

Isa 31:2 Yet he too is wise and brings disaster; he does not call back his words, but will rise against the house of the evildoers, and against the helpers of those who work iniquity.

Isa 31:3 The Egyptians are human, and not God; their horses are flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out his hand, the helper will stumble, and the one helped will fall, and they will all perish together.

Isa 31:4 For thus the LORD said to me, As a lion or a young lion growls over its prey, and-- when a band of shepherds is called out against it-- is not terrified by their shouting or daunted at their noise, so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight upon Mount Zion and upon its hill.

Isa 31:5 Like birds hovering overhead, so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver it, he will spare and rescue it.

Isa 31:6 Turn back to him whom you have deeply betrayed, O people of Israel.

Isa 31:7 For on that day all of you shall throw away your idols of silver and idols of gold, which your hands have sinfully made for you.

Isa 31:8 "Then the Assyrian shall fall by a sword, not of mortals; and a sword, not of humans, shall devour him; he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be put to forced labor.

Isa 31:9 His rock shall pass away in terror, and his officers desert the standard in panic," says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isa 32:1 See, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule with justice.

Isa 32:2 Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a covert from the tempest, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.

Isa 32:3 Then the eyes of those who have sight will not be closed, and the ears of those who have hearing will listen.

Isa 32:4 The minds of the rash will have good judgment, and the tongues of stammerers will speak readily and distinctly.

Isa 32:5 A fool will no longer be called noble, nor a villain said to be honorable.

Isa 32:6 For fools speak folly, and their minds plot iniquity: to practice ungodliness, to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink.

Isa 32:7 The villainies of villains are evil; they devise wicked devices to ruin the poor with lying words, even when the plea of the needy is right.

Isa 32:8 But those who are noble plan noble things, and by noble things they stand.

Isa 32:9 Rise up, you women who are at ease, hear my voice; you complacent daughters, listen to my speech.

Isa 32:10 In little more than a year you will shudder, you complacent ones; for the vintage will fail, the fruit harvest will not come.

Isa 32:11 Tremble, you women who are at ease, shudder, you complacent ones; strip, and make yourselves bare, and put sackcloth on your loins.

Isa 32:12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine,

Isa 32:13 for the soil of my people growing up in thorns and briars; yes, for all the joyous houses in the jubilant city.

Isa 32:14 For the palace will be forsaken, the populous city deserted; the hill and the watchtower will become dens forever, the joy of wild asses, a pasture for flocks;

Isa 32:15 until a spirit from on high is poured out on us, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is deemed a forest.

Isa 32:16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness abide in the fruitful field.

Isa 32:17 The effect of righteousness will be peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trust forever.

Isa 32:18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

Isa 32:19 The forest will disappear completely, and the city will be utterly laid low.

Isa 32:20 Happy will you be who sow beside every stream, who let the ox and the donkey range freely.

Isa 33:1 Ah, you destroyer, who yourself have not been destroyed; you treacherous one, with whom no one has dealt treacherously! When you have ceased to destroy, you will be destroyed; and when you have stopped dealing treacherously, you will be dealt with treacherously.

Isa 33:2 O LORD, be gracious to us; we wait for you. Be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

Isa 33:3 At the sound of tumult, peoples fled; before your majesty, nations scattered.

Isa 33:4 Spoil was gathered as the caterpillar gathers; as locusts leap, they leaped upon it.

Isa 33:5 The LORD is exalted, he dwells on high; he filled Zion with justice and righteousness;

Isa 33:6 he will be the stability of your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is Zion's treasure.

Isa 33:7 Listen! the valiant cry in the streets; the envoys of peace weep bitterly.

Isa 33:8 The highways are deserted, travelers have quit the road. The treaty is broken, its oaths are despised, its obligation is disregarded.

Isa 33:9 The land mourns and languishes; Lebanon is confounded and withers away; Sharon is like a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

Isa 33:10 "Now I will arise," says the LORD, "now I will lift myself up; now I will be exalted.

Isa 33:11 You conceive chaff, you bring forth stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.

Isa 33:12 And the peoples will be as if burned to lime, like thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire."

Isa 33:13 Hear, you who are far away, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might.

Isa 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless: "Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting flames?"

Isa 33:15 Those who walk righteously and speak uprightly, who despise the gain of oppression, who wave away a bribe instead of accepting it, who stop their ears from hearing of bloodshed and shut their eyes from looking on evil,

Isa 33:16 they will live on the heights; their refuge will be the fortresses of rocks; their food will be supplied, their water assured.

Isa 33:17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will behold a land that stretches far away.

Isa 33:18 Your mind will muse on the terror: "Where is the one who counted? Where is the one who weighed the tribute? Where is the one who counted the towers?"

Isa 33:19 No longer will you see the insolent people, the people of an obscure speech that you cannot comprehend, stammering in a language that you cannot understand.

Isa 33:20 Look on Zion, the city of our appointed festivals! Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, an immovable tent, whose stakes will never be pulled up, and none of whose ropes will be broken.

Isa 33:21 But there the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor stately ship can pass.

Isa 33:22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our ruler, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

Isa 33:23 Your rigging hangs loose; it cannot hold the mast firm in its place, or keep the sail spread out. Then prey and spoil in abundance will be divided; even the lame will fall to plundering.

Isa 33:24 And no inhabitant will say, "I am sick"; the people who live there will be forgiven their iniquity.

Isa 34:1 Draw near, O nations, to hear; O peoples, give heed! Let the earth hear, and all that fills it; the world, and all that comes from it.

Isa 34:2 For the LORD is enraged against all the nations, and furious against all their hoards; he has doomed them, has given them over for slaughter.

Isa 34:3 Their slain shall be cast out, and the stench of their corpses shall rise; the mountains shall flow with their blood.

Isa 34:4 All the host of heaven shall rot away, and the skies roll up like a scroll. All their host shall wither like a leaf withering on a vine, or fruit withering on a fig tree.

Isa 34:5 When my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens, lo, it will descend upon Edom, upon the people I have doomed to judgment.

Isa 34:6 The LORD has a sword; it is sated with blood, it is gorged with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

Isa 34:7 Wild oxen shall fall with them, and young steers with the mighty bulls. Their land shall be soaked with blood, and their soil made rich with fat.

Isa 34:8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of vindication by Zion's cause.

Isa 34:9 And the streams of Edom shall be turned into pitch, and her soil into sulfur; her land shall become burning pitch.

Isa 34:10 Night and day it shall not be quenched; its smoke shall go up forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; no one shall pass through it forever and ever.

Isa 34:11 But the hawk and the hedgehog shall possess it; the owl and the raven shall live in it. He shall stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plummet of chaos over its nobles.

Isa 34:12 They shall name it No Kingdom There, and all its princes shall be nothing.

Isa 34:13 Thorns shall grow over its strongholds, nettles and thistles in its fortresses. It shall be the haunt of jackals, an abode for ostriches.

Isa 34:14 Wildcats shall meet with hyenas, goat-demons shall call to each other; there too Lilith shall repose, and find a place to rest.

Isa 34:15 There shall the owl nest and lay and hatch and brood in its shadow; there too the buzzards shall gather, each one with its mate.

Isa 34:16 Seek and read from the book of the LORD: Not one of these shall be missing; none shall be without its mate. For the mouth of the LORD has commanded, and his spirit has gathered them.

Isa 34:17 He has cast the lot for them, his hand has portioned it out to them with the line; they shall possess it forever, from generation to generation they shall live in it.

Isa 35:1 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus

Isa 35:2 it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

Isa 35:3 Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

Isa 35:4 Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you."

Isa 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped;

Isa 35:6 then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert;

Isa 35:7 the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes.

Isa 35:8 A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray.

Isa 35:9 No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there.

Isa 35:10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isa 36:1 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

Isa 36:2 The king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem, with a great army. He stood by the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

Isa 36:3 And there came out to him Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder.

Isa 36:4 The Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you base this confidence of yours?"

Isa 36:5 Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?

Isa 36:6 See, you are relying on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

Isa 36:7 But if you say to me, 'We rely on the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?

Isa 36:8 Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.

Isa 36:9 How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

Isa 36:10 Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."

Isa 36:11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

Isa 36:12 But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the people sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

Isa 36:13 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!

Isa 36:14 Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you.

Isa 36:15 Do not let Hezekiah make you rely on the LORD by saying, The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

Isa 36:16 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make your peace with me and come out to me; then everyone of you will eat from your own vine and your own fig tree and drink water from your own cistern,

Isa 36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

Isa 36:18 Do not let Hezekiah mislead you by saying, The LORD will save us. Has any of the gods of the nations saved their land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Isa 36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

Isa 36:20 Who among all the gods of these countries have saved their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should save Jerusalem out of my hand?"

Isa 36:21 But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."

Isa 36:22 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isa 37:1 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

Isa 37:2 And he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

Isa 37:3 They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

Isa 37:4 It may be that the LORD your God heard the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."

Isa 37:5 When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,

Isa 37:6 Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.

Isa 37:7 I myself will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land; I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."

Isa 37:8 The Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

Isa 37:9 Now the king heard concerning King Tirhakah of Ethiopia, "He has set out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Isa 37:10 "Thus shall you speak to King Hezekiah of Judah: Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Isa 37:11 See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered?

Isa 37:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my predecessors destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezepth, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

Isa 37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?"

Isa 37:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.

Isa 37:15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying:

Isa 37:16 "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who are enthroned above the cherubim, you are God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.

Isa 37:17 Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

Isa 37:18 Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands,

Isa 37:19 and have hurled their gods into the fire, though they were no gods, but the work of human hands-- wood and stone-- and so they were destroyed.

Isa 37:20 So now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are the LORD."

Isa 37:21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying: "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning King Sennacherib of Assyria, Isa 37:22 this is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: She despises you, she scorns you-- virgin daughter Zion; she tosses her head-- behind your back, daughter Jerusalem.

Isa 37:23 Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

Isa 37:24 By your servants you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, 'With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I came to its remotest height, its densest forest.

Isa 37:25 I dug wells and drank waters, I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.'

Isa 37:26 Have you not heard that I determined it long ago? I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should make fortified cities crash into heaps of ruins,

Isa 37:27 while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded; they have become like plants of the field and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops, blighted before it is grown.

Isa 37:28 I know your rising up and your sitting down, your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.

Isa 37:29 Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

Isa 37:30 "And this shall be the sign for you: This year eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs from that; then in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

Isa 37:31 The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward;

Isa 37:32 for from Jerusalem a remnant shall go out, and from Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Isa 37:33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city, shoot an arrow there, come before it with a shield, or cast up a siege ramp against it.

Isa 37:34 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return; he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.

Isa 37:35 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."

Isa 37:36 Then the angel of the LORD set out and struck down one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; when morning dawned, they were all dead bodies.

Isa 37:37 Then King Sennacherib of Assyria left, went home, and lived at Nineveh.

Isa 37:38 As he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. His son Esar-haddon succeeded him.

Isa 38:1 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover."

Isa 38:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD:

Isa 38:3 "Remember now, O LORD, I implore you, how I have walked before you in faithfulness with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

Isa 38:4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah:

Isa 38:5 "Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of your ancestor David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life.

Isa 38:6 I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and defend this city.

Isa 38:7 "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has promised:

Isa 38:8 See, I will make the shadow cast by the declining sun on the dial of Ahaz turn back ten steps." So the sun turned back on the dial the ten steps by which it had declined.

Isa 38:9 A writing of King Hezekiah of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

Isa 38:10 I said: In the noontide of my days I must depart; I am consigned to the gates of Sheol for the rest of my years.

Isa 38:11 I said, I shall not see the LORD in the land of the living; I shall look upon mortals no more among the inhabitants of the world.

Isa 38:12 My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me like a shepherd's tent; like a weaver I have rolled up my life; he cuts me off from the loom; from day to night you bring me to an end;

Isa 38:13 I cry for help until morning; like a lion he breaks all my bones; from day to night you bring me to an end.

Isa 38:14 Like a swallow or a crane I clamor, I moan like a dove. My eyes are weary with looking upward. O Lord, I am oppressed; be my security!

Isa 38:15 But what can I say? For he has spoken to me, and he himself has done it. All my sleep has fled because of the bitterness of my soul.

Isa 38:16 O Lord, by these things people live, and in all these is the life of my spirit. Oh, restore me to health and make me live!

Isa 38:17 Surely it was for my welfare that I had great bitterness; but you have held back my life from the pit of destruction, for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

Isa 38:18 For Sheol cannot thank you, death cannot praise you; those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.

Isa 38:19 The living, the living, they thank you, as I do this day; fathers make known to children your faithfulness.

Isa 38:20 The LORD will save me, and we will sing to stringed instruments all the days of our lives, at the house of the LORD.

Isa 38:21 Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs, and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover."

Isa 38:22 Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

Isa 39:1 At that time King Merodach-baladan son of Baladan of Babylon sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

Isa 39:2 Hezekiah welcomed them; he showed them his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armory, all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

Isa 39:3 Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?" Hezekiah answered, "They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon."

Isa 39:4 He said, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

Isa 39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

Isa 39:6 Days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your ancestors have stored up until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

Isa 39:7 Some of your own sons who are born to you shall be taken away; they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

Isa 39:8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my days."

Isa 40:1 Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God.

Isa 40:2 Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

Isa 40:3 A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Isa 40:4 Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

Isa 40:5 Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

Isa 40:6 A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field.

Isa 40:7 The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the LORD blows upon it; surely the people are grass.

Isa 40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever.

Isa 40:9 Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

Isa 40:10 See, the Lord GOD comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

Isa 40:11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Isa 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?

Isa 40:13 Who has directed the spirit of the LORD, or as his counselor has instructed him?

Isa 40:14 Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?

Isa 40:15 Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust.

Isa 40:16 Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt offering.

Isa 40:17 All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

Isa 40:18 To whom then will you liken God, or what likeness compare with him?

Isa 40:19 An idol?-- A workman casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts for it silver chains.

Isa 40:20 As a gift one chooses mulberry wood-- wood that will not rot-- then seeks out a skilled artisan to set up an image that will not topple.

Isa 40:21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

Isa 40:22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in;

Isa 40:23 who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.

Isa 40:24 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

Isa 40:25 To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One.

Isa 40:26 Lift up your eyes on high and see: Who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them, calling them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing.

Isa 40:27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God"?

Isa 40:28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable.

Isa 40:29 He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless.

Isa 40:30 Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted;

Isa 40:31 but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Isa 41:1 Listen to me in silence, O coastlands; let the peoples renew their strength; let them approach, then let them speak; let us together draw near for judgment.

Isa 41:2 Who has roused a victor from the east, summoned him to his service? He delivers up nations to him, and tramples kings under foot; he makes them like dust with his sword, like driven stubble with his bow.

Isa 41:3 He pursues them and passes on safely, scarcely touching the path with his feet.

Isa 41:4 Who has performed and done this, calling the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD, am first, and will be with the last.

Isa 41:5 The coastlands have seen and are afraid, the ends of the earth tremble; they have drawn near and come.

Isa 41:6 Each one helps the other, saying to one another, "Take courage!"

Isa 41:7 The artisan encourages the goldsmith, and the one who smooths with the hammer encourages the one who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good"; and they fasten it with nails so that it cannot be moved.

Isa 41:8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham, my friend;

Isa 41:9 you whom I took from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest corners, saying to you, "You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you off";

Isa 41:10 do not fear, for I am with you, do not be afraid, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand.

Isa 41:11 Yes, all who are incensed against you shall be ashamed and disgraced; those who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.

Isa 41:12 You shall seek those who contend with you, but you shall not find them; those who war against you shall be as nothing at all.

Isa 41:13 For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, "Do not fear, I will help you."

Isa 41:14 Do not fear, you worm Jacob, you insect Israel! I will help you, says the LORD; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 41:15 Now, I will make of you a threshing sledge, sharp, new, and having teeth; you shall thresh the mountains and crush them, and you shall make the hills like chaff.

Isa 41:16 You shall winnow them and the wind shall carry them away, and the tempest shall scatter them. Then you shall rejoice in the LORD; in the Holy One of Israel you shall glory.

Isa 41:17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue is parched with thirst, I the LORD will answer them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

Isa 41:18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

Isa 41:19 I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive; I will set in the desert the cypress, the plane and the pine together,

Isa 41:20 so that all may see and know, all may consider and understand, that the hand of the LORD has done this, the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Isa 41:21 Set forth your case, says the LORD; bring your proofs, says the King of Jacob.

Isa 41:22 Let them bring them, and tell us what is to happen. Tell us the former things, what they are, so that we may consider them, and that we may know their outcome; or declare to us the things to come.

Isa 41:23 Tell us what is to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods; do good, or do harm, that we may be afraid and terrified.

Isa 41:24 You, indeed, are nothing and your work is nothing at all; whoever chooses you is an abomination.

Isa 41:25 I stirred up one from the north, and he has come, from the rising of the sun he was summoned by name. He shall trample on rulers as on mortar, as the potter treads clay.

Isa 41:26 Who declared it from the beginning, so that we might know, and beforehand, so that we might say, "He is right"? There was no one who declared it, none who proclaimed, none who heard your words.

Isa 41:27 I first have declared it to Zion, and I give to Jerusalem a herald of good tidings.

Isa 41:28 But when I look there is no one; among these there is no counselor who, when I ask, gives an answer.

Isa 41:29 No, they are all a delusion; their works are nothing; their images are empty wind.

Isa 42:1 Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.

Isa 42:2 He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street;

Isa 42:3 a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice.

Isa 42:4 He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

Isa 42:5 Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it:

Isa 42:6 I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations,

Isa 42:7 to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Isa 42:8 I am the LORD, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols.

Isa 42:9 See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

Isa 42:10 Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the end of the earth! Let the sea roar and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants.

Isa 42:11 Let the desert and its towns lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits; let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy, let them shout from the tops of the mountains.

Isa 42:12 Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the coastlands.

Isa 42:13 The LORD goes forth like a soldier, like a warrior he stirs up his fury; he cries out, he shouts aloud, he shows himself mighty against his foes.

Isa 42:14 For a long time I have held my peace, I have kept still and restrained myself; now I will cry out like a woman in labor, I will gasp and pant.

Isa 42:15 I will lay waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbage; I will turn the rivers into islands, and dry up the pools.

Isa 42:16 I will lead the blind by a road they do not know, by paths they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.

Isa 42:17 They shall be turned back and utterly put to shame-- those who trust in carved images, who say to cast images, "You are our gods."

Isa 42:18 Listen, you that are deaf; and you that are blind, look up and see!

Isa 42:19 Who is blind but my servant, or deaf like my messenger whom I send? Who is blind like my dedicated one, or blind like the servant of the LORD?

Isa 42:20 He sees many things, but does not observe them; his ears are open, but he does not hear.

Isa 42:21 The LORD was pleased, for the sake of his righteousness, to magnify his teaching and make it glorious.

Isa 42:22 But this is a people robbed and plundered, all of them are trapped in holes and hidden in prisons; they have become a prey with no one to rescue, a spoil with no one to say, "Restore!"

Isa 42:23 Who among you will give heed to this, who will attend and listen for the time to come?

Isa 42:24 Who gave up Jacob to the spoiler, and Israel to the robbers? Was it not the LORD, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they would not walk, and whose law they would not obey?

Isa 42:25 So he poured upon him the heat of his anger and the fury of war; it set him on fire all around, but he did not understand; it burned him, but he did not take it to heart.

Isa 43:1 But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.

Isa 43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

Isa 43:3 For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you.

Isa 43:4 Because you are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for your life.

Isa 43:5 Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you;

Isa 43:6 I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth--

Isa 43:7 everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

Isa 43:8 Bring forth the people who are blind, yet have eyes, who are deaf, yet have ears!

Isa 43:9 Let all the nations gather together, and let the peoples assemble. Who among them declared this, and foretold to us the former things? Let them bring their witnesses to justify them, and let them hear and say, "It is true."

Isa 43:10 You are my witnesses, says the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me.

Isa 43:11 I, I am the LORD, and besides me there is no savior.

Isa 43:12 I declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you; and you are my witnesses, says the LORD.

Isa 43:13 I am God, and also henceforth I am He; there is no one who can deliver from my hand; I work and who can hinder it?

Isa 43:14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I will send to Babylon and break down all the bars, and the shouting of the Chaldeans will be turned to lamentation.

Isa 43:15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

Isa 43:16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters,

Isa 43:17 who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

Isa 43:18 Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old.

Isa 43:19 I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

Isa 43:20 The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people,

Isa 43:21 the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Isa 43:22 Yet you did not call upon me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel!

Isa 43:23 You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, or wearied you with frankincense.

Isa 43:24 You have not bought me sweet cane with money, or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices. But you have burdened me with your sins; you have wearied me with your iniquities.

Isa 43:25 I, I am He who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins.

Isa 43:26 Accuse me, let us go to trial; set forth your case, so that you may be proved right.

Isa 43:27 Your first ancestor sinned, and your interpreters transgressed against me.

Isa 43:28 Therefore I profaned the princes of the sanctuary, I delivered Jacob to utter destruction, and Israel to reviling.

Isa 44:1 But now hear, O Jacob my servant, Israel whom I have chosen!

Isa 44:2 Thus says the LORD who made you, who formed you in the womb and will help you: Do not fear, O Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen.

Isa 44:3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring.

Isa 44:4 They shall spring up like a green tamarisk, like willows by flowing streams.

Isa 44:5 This one will say, "I am the LORD's," another will be called by the name of Jacob, yet another will write on the hand, "The LORD's," and adopt the name of Israel.

Isa 44:6 Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god.

Isa 44:7 Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be.

Isa 44:8 Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

Isa 44:9 All who make idols are nothing, and the things they delight in do not profit; their witnesses neither see nor know. And so they will be put to shame.

Isa 44:10 Who would fashion a god or cast an image that can do no good?

Isa 44:11 Look, all its devotees shall be put to shame; the artisans too are merely human. Let them all assemble, let them stand up; they shall be terrified, they shall all be put to shame.

Isa 44:12 The ironsmith fashions it and works it over the coals, shaping it with hammers, and forging it with his strong arm; he becomes hungry and his strength fails, he drinks no water and is faint.

Isa 44:13 The carpenter stretches a line, marks it out with a stylus, fashions it with planes, and marks it with a compass; he makes it in human form, with human beauty, to be set up in a shrine.

Isa 44:14 He cuts down cedars or chooses a holm tree or an oak and lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest. He plants a cedar and the rain nourishes it.

Isa 44:15 Then it can be used as fuel. Part of it he takes and warms himself; he kindles a fire and bakes bread. Then he makes a god and worships it, makes it a carved image and bows down before it.

Isa 44:16 Half of it he burns in the fire; over this half he roasts meat, eats it and is satisfied. He also warms himself and says, "Ah, I am warm, I can feel the fire!"

Isa 44:17 The rest of it he makes into a god, his idol, bows down to it and worships it; he prays to it and says, "Save me, for you are my god!"

Isa 44:18 They do not know, nor do they comprehend; for their eyes are shut, so that they cannot see, and their minds as well, so that they cannot understand.

Isa 44:19 No one considers, nor is there knowledge or discernment to say, "Half of it I burned in the fire; I also baked bread on its coals, I roasted meat and have eaten. Now shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?"

Isa 44:20 He feeds on ashes; a deluded mind has led him astray, and he cannot save himself or say, "Is not this thing in my right hand a fraud?"

Isa 44:21 Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant; I formed you, you are my servant; O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

Isa 44:22 I have swept away your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like mist; return to me, for I have redeemed you.

Isa 44:23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and will be glorified in Israel.

Isa 44:24 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the LORD, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who by myself spread out the earth;

Isa 44:25 who frustrates the omens of liars, and makes fools of diviners; who turns back the wise, and makes their knowledge foolish;

Isa 44:26 who confirms the word of his servant, and fulfills the prediction of his messengers; who says of Jerusalem, "It shall be inhabited," and of the cities of Judah, "They shall be rebuilt, and I will raise up their ruins";

Isa 44:27 who says to the deep, "Be dry-- I will dry up your rivers";

Isa 44:28 who says of Cyrus, "He is my shepherd, and he shall carry out all my purpose"; and who says of Jerusalem, "It shall be rebuilt," and of the temple, "Your foundation shall be laid."

Isa 45:1 Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him-- and the gates shall not be closed:

Isa 45:2 I will go before you and level the mountains, I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron,

Isa 45:3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that it is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who call you by your name.

Isa 45:4 For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me.

Isa 45:5 I am the LORD, and there is no other; besides me there is no god. I arm you, though you do not know me,

Isa 45:6 so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me; I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isa 45:7 I form light and create darkness, I make weal and create woe; I the LORD do all these things.

Isa 45:8 Shower, O heavens, from above, and let the skies rain down righteousness; let the earth open, that salvation may spring up, and let it cause righteousness to sprout up also; I the LORD have created it.

Isa 45:9 Woe to you who strive with your Maker, earthen vessels with the potter! Does the clay say to the one who fashions it, "What are you making"? or "Your work has no handles"?

Isa 45:10 Woe to anyone who says to a father, "What are you begetting?" or to a woman, "With what are you in labor?"

Isa 45:11 Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker: Will you question me about my children, or command me concerning the work of my hands?

Isa 45:12 I made the earth, and created humankind upon it; it was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host.

Isa 45:13 I have aroused Cyrus in righteousness, and I will make all his paths straight; he shall build my city and set my exiles free, not for price or reward, says the LORD of hosts.

Isa 45:14 Thus says the LORD: The wealth of Egypt and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, tall of stature, shall come over to you and be yours, they shall follow you; they shall come over in chains and bow down to you. They will make supplication to you, saying, "God is with you alone, and there is no other; there is no god besides him."

Isa 45:15 Truly, you are a God who hides himself, O God of Israel, the Savior.

Isa 45:16 All of them are put to shame and confounded, the makers of idols go in confusion together.

Isa 45:17 But Israel is saved by the LORD with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity.

Isa 45:18 For thus says the LORD, who created the heavens (he is God!), who formed the earth and made it (he established it; he did not create it a chaos, he formed it to be inhabited!): I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isa 45:19 I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, "Seek me in chaos." I the LORD speak the truth, I declare what is right.

Isa 45:20 Assemble yourselves and come together, draw near, you survivors of the nations! They have no knowledge-- those who carry about their wooden idols, and keep on praying to a god that cannot save.

Isa 45:21 Declare and present your case; let them take counsel together! Who told this long ago? Who declared it of old? Was it not I, the LORD? There is no other god besides me, a righteous God and a Savior; there is no one besides me.

Isa 45:22 Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other.

Isa 45:23 By myself I have sworn, from my mouth has gone forth in righteousness a word that shall not return: "To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear."

Isa 45:24 Only in the LORD, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength; all who were incensed against him shall come to him and be ashamed.

Isa 45:25 In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall triumph and glory.

Isa 46:1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops, their idols are on beasts and cattle; these things you carry are loaded as burdens on weary animals.

Isa 46:2 They stoop, they bow down together; they cannot save the burden, but themselves go into captivity.

Isa 46:3 Listen to me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne by me from your birth, carried from the womb;

Isa 46:4 even to your old age I am he, even when you turn gray I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.

Isa 46:5 To whom will you liken me and make me equal, and compare me, as though we were alike?

Isa 46:6 Those who lavish gold from the purse, and weigh out silver in the scales-- they hire a goldsmith, who makes it into a god; then they fall down and worship!

Isa 46:7 They lift it to their shoulders, they carry it, they set it in its place, and it stands there; it cannot move from its place. If one cries out to it, it does not answer or save anyone from trouble.

Isa 46:8 Remember this and consider, recall it to mind, you transgressors,

Isa 46:9 remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like me,

Isa 46:10 declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, "My purpose shall stand, and I will fulfill my intention,"

Isa 46:11 calling a bird of prey from the east, the man for my purpose from a far country. I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have planned, and I will do it.

Isa 46:12 Listen to me, you stubborn of heart, you who are far from deliverance:

Isa 46:13 I bring near my deliverance, it is not far off, and my salvation will not tarry; I will put salvation in Zion, for Israel my glory.

Isa 47:1 Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter Babylon! Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter Chaldea! For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

Isa 47:2 Take the millstones and grind meal, remove your veil, strip off your robe, uncover your legs, pass through the rivers.

Isa 47:3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered, and your shame shall be seen. I will take vengeance, and I will spare no one.

Isa 47:4 Our Redeemer-- the LORD of hosts is his name-- is the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 47:5 Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter Chaldea! For you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

Isa 47:6 I was angry with my people, I profaned my heritage; I gave them into your hand, you showed them no mercy; on the aged you made your yoke exceedingly heavy.

Isa 47:7 You said, "I shall be mistress forever," so that you did not lay these things to heart or remember their end.

Isa 47:8 Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me; I shall not sit as a widow or know the loss of children"--

Isa 47:9 both these things shall come upon you in a moment, in one day: the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the great power of your enchantments.

Isa 47:10 You felt secure in your wickedness; you said, "No one sees me." Your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray, and you said in your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me."

Isa 47:11 But evil shall come upon you, which you cannot charm away; disaster shall fall upon you, which you will not be able to ward off; and ruin shall come on you suddenly, of which you know nothing.

Isa 47:12 Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, with which you have labored from your youth; perhaps you may be able to succeed, perhaps you may inspire terror.

Isa 47:13 You are wearied with your many consultations; let those who study the heavens stand up and save you, those who gaze at the stars, and at each new moon predict what shall befall you.

Isa 47:14 See, they are like stubble, the fire consumes them; they cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame. No coal for warming oneself is this, no fire to sit before!

Isa 47:15 Such to you are those with whom you have labored, who have trafficked with you from your youth; they all wander about in their own paths; there is no one to save you.

Isa 48:1 Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and who came forth from the loins of Judah; who swear by the name of the LORD, and invoke the God of Israel, but not in truth or right.

Isa 48:2 For they call themselves after the holy city, and lean on the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Isa 48:3 The former things I declared long ago, they went out from my mouth and I made them known; then suddenly I did them and they came to pass.

Isa 48:4 Because I know that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead brass,

Isa 48:5 I declared them to you from long ago, before they came to pass I announced them to you, so that you would not say, "My idol did them, my carved image and my cast image commanded them."

Isa 48:6 You have heard; now see all this; and will you not declare it? From this time forward I make you hear new things, hidden things that you have not known.

Isa 48:7 They are created now, not long ago; before today you have never heard of them, so that you could not say, "I already knew them."

Isa 48:8 You have never heard, you have never known, from of old your ear has not been opened. For I knew that you would deal very treacherously, and that from birth you were called a rebel.

Isa 48:9 For my name's sake I defer my anger, for the sake of my praise I restrain it for you, so that I may not cut you off.

Isa 48:10 See, I have refined you, but not like silver; I have tested you in the furnace of adversity.

Isa 48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it, for why should my name be profaned? My glory I will not give to another.

Isa 48:12 Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I called: I am He; I am the first, and I am the last.

Isa 48:13 My hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I summon them, they stand at attention.

Isa 48:14 Assemble, all of you, and hear! Who among them has declared these things? The LORD loves him; he shall perform his purpose on Babylon, and his arm shall be against the Chaldeans.

Isa 48:15 I, even I, have spoken and called him, I have brought him, and he will prosper in his way.

Isa 48:16 Draw near to me, hear this! From the beginning I have not spoken in secret, from the time it came to be I have been there. And now the Lord GOD has sent me and his spirit.

Isa 48:17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you for your own good, who leads you in the way you should go.

Isa 48:18 O that you had paid attention to my commandments! Then your prosperity would have been like a river, and your success like the waves of the sea;

Isa 48:19 your offspring would have been like the sand, and your descendants like its grains; their name would never be cut off or destroyed from before me.

Isa 48:20 Go out from Babylon, flee from Chaldea, declare this with a shout of joy, proclaim it, send it forth to the end of the earth; say, "The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob!"

Isa 48:21 They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he split open the rock and the water gushed out.

Isa 48:22 "There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

Isa 49:1 Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away! The LORD called me before I was born, while I was in my mother's womb he named me.

Isa 49:2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away.

Isa 49:3 And he said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

Isa 49:4 But I said, "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my cause is with the LORD, and my reward with my God."

Isa 49:5 And now the LORD says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the LORD, and my God has become my strength--

Isa 49:6 he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

Isa 49:7 Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, "Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

Isa 49:8 Thus says the LORD: In a time of favor I have answered you, on a day of salvation I have helped you; I have kept you and given you as a covenant to the people, to establish the land, to apportion the desolate heritages;

Isa 49:9 saying to the prisoners, "Come out," to those who are in darkness, "Show yourselves." They shall feed along the ways, on all the bare heights shall be their pasture;

Isa 49:10 they shall not hunger or thirst, neither scorching wind nor sun shall strike them down, for he who has pity on them will lead them, and by springs of water will guide them.

Isa 49:11 And I will turn all my mountains into a road, and my highways shall be raised up.

Isa 49:12 Lo, these shall come from far away, and lo, these from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Syene.

Isa 49:13 Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; break forth, O mountains, into singing! For the LORD has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his suffering ones.

Isa 49:14 But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me, my Lord has forgotten me."

Isa 49:15 Can a woman forget her nursing child, or show no compassion for the child of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you.

Isa 49:16 See, I have inscribed you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me.

Isa 49:17 Your builders outdo your destroyers, and those who laid you waste go away from you.

Isa 49:18 Lift up your eyes all around and see; they all gather, they come to you. As I live, says the LORD, you shall put all of them on like an ornament, and like a bride you shall bind them on.

Isa 49:19 Surely your waste and your desolate places and your devastated land-- surely now you will be too crowded for your inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

Isa 49:20 The children born in the time of your bereavement will yet say in your hearing: "The place is too crowded for me; make room for me to settle."

Isa 49:21 Then you will say in your heart, "Who has borne me these? I was bereaved and barren, exiled and put away-- so who has reared these? I was left all alone-- where then have these come from?"

Isa 49:22 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will soon lift up my hand to the nations, and raise my signal to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

Isa 49:23 Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. With their faces to the ground they shall bow down to you, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for me shall not be put to shame.

Isa 49:24 Can the prey be taken from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant be rescued?

Isa 49:25 But thus says the LORD: Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken, and the prey of the tyrant be rescued; for I will contend with those who contend with you, and I will save your children.

Isa 49:26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with wine. Then all flesh shall know that I am the LORD your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isa 50:1 Thus says the LORD: Where is your mother's bill of divorce with which I put her away? Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? No, because of your sins you were sold, and for your transgressions your mother was put away.

Isa 50:2 Why was no one there when I came? Why did no one answer when I called? Is my hand shortened, that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? By my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a desert; their fish stink for lack of water, and die of thirst.

Isa 50:3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and make sackcloth their covering.

Isa 50:4 The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he awakens-- awakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

Isa 50:5 The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward.

Isa 50:6 I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

Isa 50:7 The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

Isa 50:8 he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

Isa 50:9 It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Isa 50:10 Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant, who walks in darkness and has no light, yet trusts in the name of the LORD and relies upon his God?

Isa 50:11 But all of you are kindlers of fire, lighters of firebrands. Walk in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that you have kindled! This is what you shall have from my hand: you shall lie down in torment.

Isa 51:1 Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug.

Isa 51:2 Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many.

Isa 51:3 For the LORD will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Isa 51:4 Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples.

Isa 51:5 I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope.

Isa 51:6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be forever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

Isa 51:7 Listen to me, you who know righteousness, you people who have my teaching in your hearts; do not fear the reproach of others, and do not be dismayed when they revile you.

Isa 51:8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my deliverance will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.

Isa 51:9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD! Awake, as in days of old, the generations of long ago! Was it not you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the dragon?

Isa 51:10 Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to cross over?

Isa 51:11 So the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isa 51:12 I, I am he who comforts you; why then are you afraid of a mere mortal who must die, a human being who fades like grass?

Isa 51:13 You have forgotten the LORD, your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. You fear continually all day long because of the fury of the oppressor, who is bent on destruction. But where is the fury of the oppressor?

Isa 51:14 The oppressed shall speedily be released; they shall not die and go down to the Pit, nor shall they lack bread.

Isa 51:15 For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar-- the LORD of hosts is his name.

Isa 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth, and hidden you in the shadow of my hand, stretching out the heavens and laying the foundations of the earth, and saying to Zion, "You are my people."

Isa 51:17 Rouse yourself, rouse yourself! Stand up, O Jerusalem, you who have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath, who have drunk to the dregs the bowl of staggering.

Isa 51:18 There is no one to guide her among all the children she has borne; there is no one to take her by the hand among all the children she has brought up.

Isa 51:19 These two things have befallen you-- who will grieve with you?-- devastation and destruction, famine and sword-- who will comfort you?

Isa 51:20 Your children have fainted, they lie at the head of every street like an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God.

Isa 51:21 Therefore hear this, you who are wounded, who are drunk, but not with wine:

Isa 51:22 Thus says your Sovereign, the LORD, your God who pleads the cause of his people: See, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering; you shall drink no more from the bowl of my wrath.

Isa 51:23 And I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, who have said to you, "Bow down, that we may walk on you"; and you have made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on.

Isa 52:1 Awake, awake, put on your strength, O Zion! Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; for the uncircumcised and the unclean shall enter you no more.

Isa 52:2 Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter Zion!

Isa 52:3 For thus says the LORD: You were sold for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money.

Isa 52:4 For thus says the Lord GOD: Long ago, my people went down into Egypt to reside there as aliens; the Assyrian, too, has oppressed them without cause.

Isa 52:5 Now therefore what am I doing here, says the LORD, seeing that my people are taken away without cause? Their rulers howl, says the LORD, and continually, all day long, my name is despised.

Isa 52:6 Therefore my people shall know my name; therefore in that day they shall know that it is I who speak; here am I.

Isa 52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns."

Isa 52:8 Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the LORD to Zion.

Isa 52:9 Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.

Isa 52:10 The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Isa 52:11 Depart, depart, go out from there! Touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of it, purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of the LORD.

Isa 52:12 For you shall not go out in haste, and you shall not go in flight; for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Isa 52:13 See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.

Isa 52:14 Just as there were many who were astonished at him-- so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals--

Isa 52:15 so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

Isa 53:1 Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

Isa 53:2 For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

Isa 53:3 He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account.

Isa 53:4 Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted.

Isa 53:5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed.

Isa 53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isa 53:7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

Isa 53:8 By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people.

Isa 53:9 They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Isa 53:10 Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper.

Isa 53:11 Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Isa 53:12 Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isa 54:1 Sing, O barren one who did not bear; burst into song and shout, you who have not been in labor! For the children of the desolate woman will be more than the children of her that is married, says the LORD.

Isa 54:2 Enlarge the site of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched out; do not hold back; lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes.

Isa 54:3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left, and your descendants will possess the nations and will settle the desolate towns.

Isa 54:4 Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed; do not be discouraged, for you will not suffer disgrace; for you will forget the shame of your youth, and the disgrace of your widowhood you will remember no more.

Isa 54:5 For your Maker is your husband, the LORD of hosts is his name; the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer, the God of the whole earth he is called.

Isa 54:6 For the LORD has called you like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, like the wife of a man's youth when she is cast off, says your God.

Isa 54:7 For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

Isa 54:8 In overflowing wrath for a moment I hid my face from you, but with everlasting love I will have compassion on you, says the LORD, your Redeemer.

Isa 54:9 This is like the days of Noah to me: Just as I swore that the waters of Noah would never again go over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you and will not rebuke you.

Isa 54:10 For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but my steadfast love shall not depart from you, and my covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

Isa 54:11 O afflicted one, storm-tossed, and not comforted, I am about to set your stones in antimony, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

Isa 54:12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of jewels, and all your wall of precious stones.

Isa 54:13 All your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the prosperity of your children.

Isa 54:14 In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.

Isa 54:15 If anyone stirs up strife, it is not from me; whoever stirs up strife with you shall fall because of you.

Isa 54:16 See it is I who have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and produces a weapon fit for its purpose; I have also created the ravager to destroy.

Isa 54:17 No weapon that is fashioned against you shall prosper, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication from me, says the LORD.

Isa 55:1 Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Isa 55:2 Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food.

Isa 55:3 Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.

Isa 55:4 See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples.

Isa 55:5 See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Isa 55:6 Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near;

Isa 55:7 let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Isa 55:8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

Isa 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Isa 55:10 For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,

Isa 55:11 so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

Isa 55:12 For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Isa 55:13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Isa 56:1 Thus says the LORD: Maintain justice, and do what is right, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed.

Isa 56:2 Happy is the mortal who does this, the one who holds it fast, who keeps the sabbath, not profaning it, and refrains from doing any evil.

Isa 56:3 Do not let the foreigner joined to the LORD say, "The LORD will surely separate me from his people"; and do not let the eunuch say, "I am just a dry tree."

Isa 56:4 For thus says the LORD: To the eunuchs who keep my sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant,

Isa 56:5 I will give, in my house and within my walls, a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

Isa 56:6 And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, all who keep the sabbath, and do not profane it, and hold fast my covenant--

Isa 56:7 these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Isa 56:8 Thus says the Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, I will gather others to them besides those already gathered.

Isa 56:9 All you wild animals, all you wild animals in the forest, come to devour!

Isa 56:10 Israel's sentinels are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all silent dogs that cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

Isa 56:11 The dogs have a mighty appetite; they never have enough. The shepherds also have no understanding; they have all turned to their own way, to their own gain, one and all.

Isa 56:12 "Come," they say, "let us get wine; let us fill ourselves with strong drink. And tomorrow will be like today, great beyond measure."

Isa 57:1 The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, while no one understands. For the righteous are taken away from calamity,

Isa 57:2 and they enter into peace; those who walk uprightly will rest on their couches.

Isa 57:3 But as for you, come here, you children of a sorceress, you offspring of an adulterer and a whore.

Isa 57:4 Whom are you mocking? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not children of transgression, the offspring of deceit--

Isa 57:5 you that burn with lust among the oaks, under every green tree; you that slaughter your children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?

Isa 57:6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they, are your lot; to them you have poured out a drink offering, you have brought a grain offering. Shall I be appeased for these things?

Isa 57:7 Upon a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed, and there you went up to offer sacrifice.

Isa 57:8 Behind the door and the doorpost you have set up your symbol; for, in deserting me, you have uncovered your bed, you have gone up to it, you have made it wide; and you have made a bargain for yourself with them, you have loved their bed, you have gazed on their nakedness.

Isa 57:9 You journeyed to Molech with oil, and multiplied your perfumes; you sent your envoys far away, and sent down even to Sheol.

Isa 57:10 You grew weary from your many wanderings, but you did not say, "It is useless." You found your desire rekindled, and so you did not weaken.

Isa 57:11 Whom did you dread and fear so that you lied, and did not remember me or give me a thought? Have I not kept silent and closed my eyes, and so you do not fear me?

Isa 57:12 I will concede your righteousness and your works, but they will not help you.

Isa 57:13 When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you! The wind will carry them off, a breath will take them away. But whoever takes refuge in me shall possess the land and inherit my holy mountain.

Isa 57:14 It shall be said, "Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstruction from my people's way."

Isa 57:15 For thus says the high and lofty one who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with those who are contrite and humble in spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

Isa 57:16 For I will not continually accuse, nor will I always be angry; for then the spirits would grow faint before me, even the souls that I have made.

Isa 57:17 Because of their wicked covetousness I was angry; I struck them, I hid and was angry; but they kept turning back to their own ways.

Isa 57:18 I have seen their ways, but I will heal them; I will lead them and repay them with comfort, creating for their mourners the fruit of the lips.

Isa 57:19 Peace, peace, to the far and the near, says the LORD; and I will heal them.

Isa 57:20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea that cannot keep still; its waters toss up mire and mud.

Isa 57:21 There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.

Isa 58:1 Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins.

Isa 58:2 Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God.

Isa 58:3 "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers.

Isa 58:4 Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high.

Isa 58:5 Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD?

Isa 58:6 Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?

Isa 58:7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin?

Isa 58:8 Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

Isa 58:9 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil,

Isa 58:10 if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

Isa 58:11 The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

Isa 58:12 Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

Isa 58:13 If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs;

Isa 58:14 then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isa 59:1 See, the LORD's hand is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear.

Isa 59:2 Rather, your iniquities have been barriers between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you so that he does not hear.

Isa 59:3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness.

Isa 59:4 No one brings suit justly, no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, conceiving mischief and begetting iniquity.

Isa 59:5 They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web; whoever eats their eggs dies, and the crushed egg hatches out a viper.

Isa 59:6 Their webs cannot serve as clothing; they cannot cover themselves with what they make. Their works are works of iniquity, and deeds of violence are in their hands.

Isa 59:7 Their feet run to evil, and they rush to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, desolation and destruction are in their highways.

Isa 59:8 The way of peace they do not know, and there is no justice in their paths. Their roads they have made crooked; no one who walks in them knows peace.

Isa 59:9 Therefore justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us; we wait for light, and lo! there is darkness; and for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

Isa 59:10 We grope like the blind along a wall, groping like those who have no eyes; we stumble at noon as in the twilight, among the vigorous as though we were dead.

Isa 59:11 We all growl like bears; like doves we moan mournfully. We wait for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.

Isa 59:12 For our transgressions before you are many, and our sins testify against us. Our transgressions indeed are with us, and we know our iniquities:

Isa 59:13 transgressing, and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, talking oppression and revolt, conceiving lying words and uttering them from the heart.

Isa 59:14 Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands at a distance; for truth stumbles in the public square, and uprightness cannot enter.

Isa 59:15 Truth is lacking, and whoever turns from evil is despoiled. The LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.

Isa 59:16 He saw that there was no one, and was appalled that there was no one to intervene; so his own arm brought him victory, and his righteousness upheld him.

Isa 59:17 He put on righteousness like a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in fury as in a mantle.

Isa 59:18 According to their deeds, so will he repay; wrath to his adversaries, requital to his enemies; to the coastlands he will render requital.

Isa 59:19 So those in the west shall fear the name of the LORD, and those in the east, his glory; for he will come like a pent-up stream that the wind of the LORD drives on.

Isa 59:20 And he will come to Zion as Redeemer, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, says the LORD.

Isa 59:21 And as for me, this is my covenant with them, says the LORD: my spirit that is upon you, and my words that I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouths of your children, or out of the mouths of your children's children, says the LORD, from now on and forever.

Isa 60:1 Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

Isa 60:2 For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you.

Isa 60:3 Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Isa 60:4 Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.

Isa 60:5 Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

Isa 60:6 A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Isa 60:7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall be acceptable on my altar, and I will glorify my glorious house.

Isa 60:8 Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?

Isa 60:9 For the coastlands shall wait for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from far away, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

Isa 60:10 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in my wrath I struck you down, but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

Isa 60:11 Your gates shall always be open; day and night they shall not be shut, so that nations shall bring you their wealth, with their kings led in procession.

Isa 60:12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; those nations shall be utterly laid waste.

Isa 60:13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will glorify where my feet rest.

Isa 60:14 The descendants of those who oppressed you shall come bending low to you, and all who despised you shall bow down at your feet; they shall call you the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 60:15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you majestic forever, a joy from age to age.

Isa 60:16 You shall suck the milk of nations, you shall suck the breasts of kings; and you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isa 60:17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver; instead of wood, bronze, instead of stones, iron. I will appoint Peace as your overseer and Righteousness as your taskmaster.

Isa 60:18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders; you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

Isa 60:19 The sun shall no longer be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you by night; but the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

Isa 60:20 Your sun shall no more go down, or your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.

Isa 60:21 Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever. They are the shoot that I planted, the work of my hands, so that I might be glorified.

Isa 60:22 The least of them shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the LORD; in its time I will accomplish it quickly.

Isa 61:1 The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners;

Isa 61:2 to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn;

Isa 61:3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion-- to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, to display his glory.

Isa 61:4 They shall build up the ancient ruins, they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

Isa 61:5 Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, foreigners shall till your land and dress your vines;

Isa 61:6 but you shall be called priests of the LORD, you shall be named ministers of our God; you shall enjoy the wealth of the nations, and in their riches you shall glory.

Isa 61:7 Because their shame was double, and dishonor was proclaimed as their lot, therefore they shall possess a double portion; everlasting joy shall be theirs.

Isa 61:8 For I the LORD love justice, I hate robbery and wrongdoing; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Isa 61:9 Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the LORD has blessed.

Isa 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Isa 61:11 For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Isa 62:1 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch.

Isa 62:2 The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.

Isa 62:3 You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Isa 62:4 You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.

Isa 62:5 For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Isa 62:6 Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels; all day and all night they shall never be silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest, Isa 62:7 and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth.

Isa 62:8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink the wine for which you have labored;

Isa 62:9 but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather it shall drink it in my holy courts.

Isa 62:10 Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples.

Isa 62:11 The LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to daughter Zion, "See, your salvation comes; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him."

Isa 62:12 They shall be called, "The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD"; and you shall be called, "Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken."

Isa 63:1 "Who is this that comes from Edom, from Bozrah in garments stained crimson? Who is this so splendidly robed, marching in his great might?" "It is I, announcing vindication, mighty to save."

Isa 63:2 "Why are your robes red, and your garments like theirs who tread the wine press?"

Isa 63:3 "I have trodden the wine press alone, and from the peoples no one was with me; I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath; their juice spattered on my garments, and stained all my robes.

Isa 63:4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year for my redeeming work had come.

Isa 63:5 I looked, but there was no helper; I stared, but there was no one to sustain me; so my own arm brought me victory, and my wrath sustained me.

Isa 63:6 I trampled down peoples in my anger, I crushed them in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."

Isa 63:7 I will recount the gracious deeds of the LORD, the praiseworthy acts of the LORD, because of all that the LORD has done for us, and the great favor to the house of Israel that he has shown them according to his mercy, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

Isa 63:8 For he said, "Surely they are my people, children who will not deal falsely"; and he became their savior

Isa 63:9 in all their distress. It was no messenger or angel but his presence that saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

Isa 63:10 But they rebelled and grieved his holy spirit; therefore he became their enemy; he himself fought against them.

Isa 63:11 Then they remembered the days of old, of Moses his servant. Where is the one who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is the one who put within them his holy spirit,

Isa 63:12 who caused his glorious arm to march at the right hand of Moses, who divided the waters before them to make for himself an everlasting name,

Isa 63:13 who led them through the depths? Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble.

Isa 63:14 Like cattle that go down into the valley, the spirit of the LORD gave them rest. Thus you led your people, to make for yourself a glorious name.

Isa 63:15 Look down from heaven and see, from your holy and glorious habitation. Where are your zeal and your might? The yearning of your heart and your compassion? They are withheld from me.

Isa 63:16 For you are our father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us; you, O LORD, are our father; our Redeemer from of old is your name.

Isa 63:17 Why, O LORD, do you make us stray from your ways and harden our heart, so that we do not fear you? Turn back for the sake of your servants, for the sake of the tribes that are your heritage.

Isa 63:18 Your holy people took possession for a little while; but now our adversaries have trampled down your sanctuary.

Isa 63:19 We have long been like those whom you do not rule, like those not called by your name.

Isa 64:1 O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence--

Isa 64:2 as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil-- to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence!

Isa 64:3 When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.

Isa 64:4 From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him.

Isa 64:5 You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed.

Isa 64:6 We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

Isa 64:7 There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.

Isa 64:8 Yet, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand.

Isa 64:9 Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

Isa 64:10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

Isa 64:11 Our holy and beautiful house, where our ancestors praised you, has been burned by fire, and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

Isa 64:12 After all this, will you restrain yourself, O LORD? Will you keep silent, and punish us so severely?

Isa 65:1 I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, "Here I am, here I am," to a nation that did not call on my name.

Isa 65:2 I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices;

Isa 65:3 a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks;

Isa 65:4 who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine's flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels;

Isa 65:5 who say, "Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you." These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long.

Isa 65:6 See, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps

Isa 65:7 their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together, says the LORD; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions.

Isa 65:8 Thus says the LORD: As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, "Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it," so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all.

Isa 65:9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall settle there.

Isa 65:10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down, for my people who have sought me.

Isa 65:11 But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny;

Isa 65:12 I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter; because, when I called, you did not answer, when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my sight, and chose what I did not delight in.

Isa 65:13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be put to shame;

Isa 65:14 my servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you shall cry out for pain of heart, and shall wail for anguish of spirit.

Isa 65:15 You shall leave your name to my chosen to use as a curse, and the Lord GOD will put you to death; but to his servants he will give a different name.

Isa 65:16 Then whoever invokes a blessing in the land shall bless by the God of faithfulness, and whoever takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of faithfulness; because the former troubles are forgotten and are hidden from my sight.

Isa 65:17 For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind.

Isa 65:18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight.

Isa 65:19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress.

Isa 65:20 No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.

Isa 65:21 They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isa 65:22 They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

Isa 65:23 They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the LORD-- and their descendants as well.

Isa 65:24 Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear.

Isa 65:25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent-- its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the LORD.

Isa 66:1 Thus says the LORD: Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool; what is the house that you would build for me, and what is my resting place?

Isa 66:2 All these things my hand has made, and so all these things are mine, says the LORD. But this is the one to whom I will look, to the humble and contrite in spirit, who trembles at my word.

Isa 66:3 Whoever slaughters an ox is like one who kills a human being; whoever sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; whoever presents a grain offering, like one who offers swine's blood; whoever makes a memorial offering of frankincense, like one who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and in their abominations they take delight;

Isa 66:4 I also will choose to mock them, and bring upon them what they fear; because, when I called, no one answered, when I spoke, they did not listen; but they did what was evil in my sight, and chose what did not please me.

Isa 66:5 Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: Your own people who hate you and reject you for my name's sake have said, "Let the LORD be glorified, so that we may see your joy"; but it is they who shall be put to shame.

Isa 66:6 Listen, an uproar from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD, dealing retribution to his enemies!

Isa 66:7 Before she was in labor she gave birth; before her pain came upon her she delivered a son.

Isa 66:8 Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be delivered in one moment? Yet as soon as Zion was in labor she delivered her children.

Isa 66:9 Shall I open the womb and not deliver? says the LORD; shall I, the one who delivers, shut the womb? says your God.

Isa 66:10 Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her--

Isa 66:11 that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom.

Isa 66:12 For thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees.

Isa 66:13 As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

Isa 66:14 You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies.

Isa 66:15 For the LORD will come in fire, and his chariots like the whirlwind, to pay back his anger in fury, and his rebuke in flames of fire.

Isa 66:16 For by fire will the LORD execute judgment, and by his sword, on all flesh; and those slain by the LORD shall be many.

Isa 66:17 Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following the one in the center, eating the flesh of pigs, vermin, and rodents, shall come to an end together, says the LORD.

Isa 66:18 For I know their works and their thoughts, and I am coming to gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and shall see my glory,

Isa 66:19 and I will set a sign among them. From them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud-- which draw the bow-- to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations.

Isa 66:20 They shall bring all your kindred from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring a grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

Isa 66:21 And I will also take some of them as priests and as Levites, says the LORD.

Isa 66:22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, says the LORD; so shall your descendants and your name remain.

Isa 66:23 From new moon to new moon, and from sabbath to sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before me, says the LORD.

Isa 66:24 And they shall go out and look at the dead bodies of the people who have rebelled against me; for their worm shall not die, their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.

Jer 1:1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiyah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,

Jer 1:2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

Jer 1:3 It came also in the days of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, and until the end of the eleventh year of King Zedekiah son of Josiah of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

Jer 1:4 Now the word of the LORD came to me saying,

Jer 1:5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations."

Jer 1:6 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy."

Jer 1:7 But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a boy'; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you.

Jer 1:8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD."

Jer 1:9 Then the LORD put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth.

Jer 1:10 See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

Jer 1:11 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

Jer 1:12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to perform it."

Jer 1:13 The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see a boiling pot, tilted away from the north."

Jer 1:14 Then the LORD said to me: Out of the north disaster shall break out on all the inhabitants of the land.

Jer 1:15 For now I am calling all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD; and they shall come and all of them shall set their thrones at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all its surrounding walls and against all the cities of Judah.

Jer 1:16 And I will utter my judgments against them, for all their wickedness in forsaking me; they have made offerings to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

Jer 1:17 But you, gird up your loins; stand up and tell them everything that I command you. Do not break down before them, or I will break you before them.

Jer 1:18 And I for my part have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall, against the whole land-- against the kings of Judah, its princes, its priests, and the people of the land.

Jer 1:19 They will fight against you; but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you.

Jer 2:1 The word of the LORD came to me, saying:

Jer 2:2 Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD: I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.

Jer 2:3 Israel was holy to the LORD, the first fruits of his harvest. All who ate of it were held guilty; disaster came upon them, says the LORD.

Jer 2:4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

Jer 2:5 Thus says the LORD: What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves?

Jer 2:6 They did not say, "Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that no one passes through, where no one lives?"

Jer 2:7 I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things. But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

Jer 2:8 The priests did not say, "Where is the LORD?" Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit.

Jer 2:9 Therefore once more I accuse you, says the LORD, and I accuse your children's children.

Jer 2:10 Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing.

Jer 2:11 Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit.

Jer 2:12 Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the LORD,

Jer 2:13 for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water.

Jer 2:14 Is Israel a slave? Is he a homeborn servant? Why then has he become plunder?

Jer 2:15 The lions have roared against him, they have roared loudly. They have made his land a waste; his cities are in ruins, without inhabitant.

Jer 2:16 Moreover, the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

Jer 2:17 Have you not brought this upon yourself by forsaking the LORD your God, while he led you in the way?

Jer 2:18 What then do you gain by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Nile? Or what do you gain by going to Assyria, to drink the waters of the Euphrates?

Jer 2:19 Your wickedness will punish you, and your apostasies will convict you. Know and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the LORD your God; the fear of me is not in you, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Jer 2:20 For long ago you broke your yoke and burst your bonds, and you said, "I will not serve!" On every high hill and under every green tree you sprawled and played the whore.

Jer 2:21 Yet I planted you as a choice vine, from the purest stock. How then did you turn degenerate and become a wild vine?

Jer 2:22 Though you wash yourself with lye and use much soap, the stain of your guilt is still before me, says the Lord GOD.

Jer 2:23 How can you say, "I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baals"? Look at your way in the valley; know what you have done-- a restive young camel interlacing her tracks,

Jer 2:24 a wild ass at home in the wilderness, in her heat sniffing the wind! Who can restrain her lust? None who seek her need weary themselves; in her month they will find her.

Jer 2:25 Keep your feet from going unshod and your throat from thirst. But you said, "It is hopeless, for I have loved strangers, and after them I will go."

Jer 2:26 As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel shall be shamed-- they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets,

Jer 2:27 who say to a tree, "You are my father," and to a stone, "You gave me birth." For they have turned their backs to me, and not their faces. But in the time of their trouble they say, "Come and save us!"

Jer 2:28 But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them come, if they can save you, in your time of trouble; for you have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah.

Jer 2:29 Why do you complain against me? You have all rebelled against me, says the LORD.

Jer 2:30 In vain I have struck down your children; they accepted no correction. Your own sword devoured your prophets like a ravaging lion.

Jer 2:31 And you, O generation, behold the word of the LORD! Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a land of thick darkness? Why then do my people say, "We are free, we will come to you no more"?

Jer 2:32 Can a girl forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me, days without number.

Jer 2:33 How well you direct your course to seek lovers! So that even to wicked women you have taught your ways.

Jer 2:34 Also on your skirts is found the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking in. Yet in spite of all these things

Jer 2:35 you say, "I am innocent; surely his anger has turned from me." Now I am bringing you to judgment for saying, "I have not sinned."

Jer 2:36 How lightly you gad about, changing your ways! You shall be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria.

Jer 2:37 From there also you will come away with your hands on your head; for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper through them.

Jer 3:1 If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man's wife, will he return to her? Would not such a land be greatly polluted? You have played the whore with many lovers; and would you return to me? says the LORD.

Jer 3:2 Look up to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? By the waysides you have sat waiting for lovers, like a nomad in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your whoring and wickedness.

Jer 3:3 Therefore the showers have been withheld, and the spring rain has not come; yet you have the forehead of a whore, you refuse to be ashamed.

Jer 3:4 Have you not just now called to me, "My Father, you are the friend of my youth--

Jer 3:5 will he be angry forever, will he be indignant to the end?" This is how you have spoken, but you have done all the evil that you could.

Jer 3:6 The LORD said to me in the days of King Josiah: Have you seen what she did, that faithless one, Israel, how she went up on every high hill and under every green tree, and played the whore there?

Jer 3:7 And I thought, "After she has done all this she will return to me"; but she did not return, and her false sister Judah saw it.

Jer 3:8 She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce; yet her false sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the whore.

Jer 3:9 Because she took her whoredom so lightly, she polluted the land, committing adultery with stone and tree.

Jer 3:10 Yet for all this her false sister Judah did not return to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense, says the LORD.

Jer 3:11 Then the LORD said to me: Faithless Israel has shown herself less guilty than false Judah.

Jer 3:12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say: Return, faithless Israel, says the LORD. I will not look on you in anger, for I am merciful, says the LORD; I will not be angry forever.

Jer 3:13 Only acknowledge your guilt, that you have rebelled against the LORD your God, and scattered your favors among strangers under every green tree, and have not obeyed my voice, says the LORD.

Jer 3:14 Return, O faithless children, says the LORD, for I am your master; I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

Jer 3:15 I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Jer 3:16 And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall no longer say, "The ark of the covenant of the LORD." It shall not come to mind, or be remembered, or missed; nor shall another one be made.

Jer 3:17 At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD, and all nations shall gather to it, to the presence of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they shall no longer stubbornly follow their own evil will.

Jer 3:18 In those days the house of Judah shall join the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors for a heritage.

Jer 3:19 I thought how I would set you among my children, and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful heritage of all the nations. And I thought you would call me, My Father, and would not turn from following me.

Jer 3:20 Instead, as a faithless wife leaves her husband, so you have been faithless to me, O house of Israel, says the LORD.

Jer 3:21 A voice on the bare heights is heard, the plaintive weeping of Israel's children, because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God:

Jer 3:22 Return, O faithless children, I will heal your faithlessness. "Here we come to you; for you are the LORD our God.

Jer 3:23 Truly the hills are a delusion, the orgies on the mountains. Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

Jer 3:24 "But from our youth the shameful thing has devoured all for which our ancestors had labored, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

Jer 3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our ancestors, from our youth even to this day; and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

Jer 4:1 If you return, O Israel, says the LORD, if you return to me, if you remove your abominations from my presence, and do not waver,

Jer 4:2 and if you swear, "As the LORD lives!" in truth, in justice, and in uprightness, then nations shall be blessed by him, and by him they shall boast.

Jer 4:3 For thus says the LORD to the people of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns.

Jer 4:4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, remove the foreskin of your hearts, O people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or else my wrath will go forth like fire, and burn with no one to quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

Jer 4:5 Declare in Judah, and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say: Blow the trumpet through the land; shout aloud and say, "Gather together, and let us go into the fortified cities!"

Jer 4:6 Raise a standard toward Zion, flee for safety, do not delay, for I am bringing evil from the north, and a great destruction.

Jer 4:7 A lion has gone up from its thicket, a destroyer of nations has set out; he has gone out from his place to make your land a waste; your cities will be ruins without inhabitant.

Jer 4:8 Because of this put on sackcloth, lament and wail: "The fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us."

Jer 4:9 On that day, says the LORD, courage shall fail the king and the officials; the priests shall be appalled and the prophets astounded.

Jer 4:10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD, how utterly you have deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'It shall be well with you,' even while the sword is at the throat!"

Jer 4:11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse--

Jer 4:12 a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them.

Jer 4:13 Look! He comes up like clouds, his chariots like the whirlwind; his horses are swifter than eagles-- woe to us, for we are ruined!

Jer 4:14 O Jerusalem, wash your heart clean of wickedness so that you may be saved. How long shall your evil schemes lodge within you?

Jer 4:15 For a voice declares from Dan and proclaims disaster from Mount Ephraim.

Jer 4:16 Tell the nations, "Here they are!" Proclaim against Jerusalem, "Besiegers come from a distant land; they shout against the cities of Judah.

Jer 4:17 They have closed in around her like watchers of a field, because she has rebelled against me, says the LORD.

Jer 4:18 Your ways and your doings have brought this upon you. This is your doom; how bitter it is! It has reached your very heart."

Jer 4:19 My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain! Oh, the walls of my heart! My heart is beating wildly; I cannot keep silent; for I hear the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

Jer 4:20 Disaster overtakes disaster, the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my curtains in a moment.

Jer 4:21 How long must I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

Jer 4:22 "For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good."

Jer 4:23 I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light.

Jer 4:24 I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro.

Jer 4:25 I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled.

Jer 4:26 I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the LORD, before his fierce anger.

Jer 4:27 For thus says the LORD: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

Jer 4:28 Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Jer 4:29 At the noise of horseman and archer every town takes to flight; they enter thickets; they climb among rocks; all the towns are forsaken, and no one lives in them.

Jer 4:30 And you, O desolate one, what do you mean that you dress in crimson, that you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, that you enlarge your eyes with paint? In vain you beautify yourself. Your lovers despise you; they seek your life.

Jer 4:31 For I heard a cry as of a woman in labor, anguish as of one bringing forth her first child, the cry of daughter Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands, "Woe is me! I am fainting before killers!"

Jer 5:1 Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, look around and take note! Search its squares and see if you can find one person who acts justly and seeks truth-- so that I may pardon Jerusalem.

Jer 5:2 Although they say, "As the LORD lives," yet they swear falsely.

Jer 5:3 O LORD, do your eyes not look for truth? You have struck them, but they felt no anguish; you have consumed them, but they refused to take correction. They have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to turn back.

Jer 5:4 Then I said, "These are only the poor, they have no sense; for they do not know the way of the LORD, the law of their God.

Jer 5:5 Let me go to the rich and speak to them; surely they know the way of the LORD, the law of their God." But they all alike had broken the yoke, they had burst the bonds.

Jer 5:6 Therefore a lion from the forest shall kill them, a wolf from the desert shall destroy them. A leopard is watching against their cities; everyone who goes out of them shall be torn in pieces-- because their transgressions are many, their apostasies are great.

Jer 5:7 How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I fed them to the full, they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of prostitutes.

Jer 5:8 They were well-fed lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife.

Jer 5:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; and shall I not bring retribution on a nation such as this?

Jer 5:10 Go up through her vine-rows and destroy, but do not make a full end; strip away her branches, for they are not the LORD's.

Jer 5:11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly faithless to me, says the LORD.

Jer 5:12 They have spoken falsely of the LORD, and have said, "He will do nothing. No evil will come upon us, and we shall not see sword or famine."

Jer 5:13 The prophets are nothing but wind, for the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them!

Jer 5:14 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts: Because they have spoken this word, I am now making my words in your mouth a fire, and this people wood, and the fire shall devour them.

Jer 5:15 I am going to bring upon you a nation from far away, O house of Israel, says the LORD. It is an enduring nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor can you understand what they say.

Jer 5:16 Their quiver is like an open tomb; all of them are mighty warriors.

Jer 5:17 They shall eat up your harvest and your food; they shall eat up your sons and your daughters; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees; they shall destroy with the sword your fortified cities in which you trust.

Jer 5:18 But even in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a full end of you.

Jer 5:19 And when your people say, "Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?" you shall say to them, "As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours."

Jer 5:20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, proclaim it in Judah:

Jer 5:21 Hear this, O foolish and senseless people, who have eyes, but do not see, who have ears, but do not hear.

Jer 5:22 Do you not fear me? says the LORD; Do you not tremble before me? I placed the sand as a boundary for the sea, a perpetual barrier that it cannot pass; though the waves toss, they cannot prevail, though they roar, they cannot pass over it.

Jer 5:23 But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart; they have turned aside and gone away.

Jer 5:24 They do not say in their hearts, "Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives the rain in its season, the autumn rain and the spring rain, and keeps for us the weeks appointed for the harvest."

Jer 5:25 Your iniquities have turned these away, and your sins have deprived you of good.

Jer 5:26 For scoundrels are found among my people; they take over the goods of others. Like fowlers they set a trap; they catch human beings.

Jer 5:27 Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of treachery; therefore they have become great and rich,

Jer 5:28 they have grown fat and sleek. They know no limits in deeds of wickedness; they do not judge with justice the cause of the orphan, to make it prosper, and they do not defend the rights of the needy.

Jer 5:29 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD, and shall I not bring retribution on a nation such as this?

Jer 5:30 An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land:

Jer 5:31 the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule as the prophets direct; my people love to have it so, but what will you do when the end comes?

Jer 6:1 Flee for safety, O children of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise a signal on Beth-haccherem; for evil looms out of the north, and great destruction.

Jer 6:2 I have likened daughter Zion to the loveliest pasture.

Jer 6:3 Shepherds with their flocks shall come against her. They shall pitch their tents around her; they shall pasture, all in their places.

Jer 6:4 "Prepare war against her; up, and let us attack at noon!" "Woe to us, for the day declines, the shadows of evening lengthen!"

Jer 6:5 "Up, and let us attack by night, and destroy her palaces!"

Jer 6:6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Cut down her trees; cast up a siege ramp against Jerusalem. This is the city that must be punished; there is nothing but oppression within her.

Jer 6:7 As a well keeps its water fresh, so she keeps fresh her wickedness; violence and destruction are heard within her; sickness and wounds are ever before me.

Jer 6:8 Take warning, O Jerusalem, or I shall turn from you in disgust, and make you a desolation, an uninhabited land.

Jer 6:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Glean thoroughly as a vine the remnant of Israel; like a grape-gatherer, pass your hand again over its branches.

Jer 6:10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? See, their ears are closed, they cannot listen. The word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn; they take no pleasure in it.

Jer 6:11 But I am full of the wrath of the LORD; I am weary of holding it in. Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the gatherings of young men as well; both husband and wife shall be taken, the old folk and the very aged.

Jer 6:12 Their houses shall be turned over to others, their fields and wives together; for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD.

Jer 6:13 For from the least to the greatest of them, everyone is greedy for unjust gain; and from prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely.

Jer 6:14 They have treated the wound of my people carelessly, saying, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace.

Jer 6:15 They acted shamefully, they committed abomination; yet they were not ashamed, they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown, says the LORD.

Jer 6:16 Thus says the LORD: Stand at the crossroads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way lies; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls. But they said, "We will not walk in it."

Jer 6:17 Also I raised up sentinels for you: "Give heed to the sound of the trumpet!" But they said, "We will not give heed."

Jer 6:18 Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation, what will happen to them.

Jer 6:19 Hear, O earth; I am going to bring disaster on this people, the fruit of their schemes, because they have not given heed to my words; and as for my teaching, they have rejected it.

Jer 6:20 Of what use to me is frankincense that comes from Sheba, or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor are your sacrifices pleasing to me.

Jer 6:21 Therefore thus says the LORD: See, I am laying before this people stumbling blocks against which they shall stumble; parents and children together, neighbor and friend shall perish.

Jer 6:22 Thus says the LORD: See, a people is coming from the land of the north, a great nation is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

Jer 6:23 They grasp the bow and the javelin, they are cruel and have no mercy, their sound is like the roaring sea; they ride on horses, equipped like a warrior for battle, against you, O daughter Zion!

Jer 6:24 "We have heard news of them, our hands fall helpless; anguish has taken hold of us, pain as of a woman in labor.

Jer 6:25 Do not go out into the field, or walk on the road; for the enemy has a sword, terror is on every side."

Jer 6:26 O my poor people, put on sackcloth, and roll in ashes; make mourning as for an only child, most bitter lamentation: for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

Jer 6:27 I have made you a tester and a refiner among my people so that you may know and test their ways.

Jer 6:28 They are all stubbornly rebellious, going about with slanders; they are bronze and iron, all of them act corruptly.

Jer 6:29 The bellows blow fiercely, the lead is consumed by the fire; in vain the refining goes on, for the wicked are not removed.

Jer 6:30 They are called "rejected silver," for the LORD has rejected them.

Jer 7:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jer 7:2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah, you that enter these gates to worship the LORD.

Jer 7:3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your doings, and let me dwell with you in this place.

Jer 7:4 Do not trust in these deceptive words: "This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD."

Jer 7:5 For if you truly amend your ways and your doings, if you truly act justly one with another,

Jer 7:6 if you do not oppress the alien, the orphan, and the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own hurt,

Jer 7:7 then I will dwell with you in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your ancestors forever and ever.

Jer 7:8 Here you are, trusting in deceptive words to no avail.

Jer 7:9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, make offerings to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known,

Jer 7:10 and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, "We are safe!"-- only to go on doing all these abominations?

Jer 7:11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your sight? You know, I too am watching, says the LORD.

Jer 7:12 Go now to my place that was in Shiloh, where I made my name dwell at first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

Jer 7:13 And now, because you have done all these things, says the LORD, and when I spoke to you persistently, you did not listen, and when I called you, you did not answer,

Jer 7:14 therefore I will do to the house that is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place that I gave to you and to your ancestors, just what I did to Shiloh.

Jer 7:15 And I will cast you out of my sight, just as I cast out all your kinsfolk, all the offspring of Ephraim.

Jer 7:16 As for you, do not pray for this people, do not raise a cry or prayer on their behalf, and do not intercede with me, for I will not hear you.

Jer 7:17 Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jer 7:18 The children gather wood, the fathers kindle fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Jer 7:19 Is it I whom they provoke? says the LORD. Is it not themselves, to their own hurt?

Jer 7:20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: My anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on human beings and animals, on the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; it will burn and not be quenched.

Jer 7:21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the flesh.

Jer 7:22 For in the day that I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to them or command them concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Jer 7:23 But this command I gave them, "Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk only in the way that I command you, so that it may be well with you."

Jer 7:24 Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but, in the stubbornness of their evil will, they walked in their own counsels, and looked backward rather than forward.

Jer 7:25 From the day that your ancestors came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have persistently sent all my servants the prophets to them, day after day;

Jer 7:26 yet they did not listen to me, or pay attention, but they stiffened their necks. They did worse than their ancestors did.

Jer 7:27 So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall call to them, but they will not answer you.

Jer 7:28 You shall say to them: This is the nation that did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, and did not accept discipline; truth has perished; it is cut off from their lips.

Jer 7:29 Cut off your hair and throw it away; raise a lamentation on the bare heights, for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation that provoked his wrath.

Jer 7:30 For the people of Judah have done evil in my sight, says the LORD; they have set their abominations in the house that is called by my name, defiling it.

Jer 7:31 And they go on building the high place of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire-- which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind.

Jer 7:32 Therefore, the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when it will no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter: for they will bury in Topheth until there is no more room.

Jer 7:33 The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the air, and for the animals of the earth; and no one will frighten them away.

Jer 7:34 And I will bring to an end the sound of mirth and gladness, the voice of the bride and bridegroom in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for the land shall become a waste.

Jer 8:1 At that time, says the LORD, the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be brought out of their tombs;

Jer 8:2 and they shall be spread before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and served, which they have followed, and which they have inquired of and worshiped; and they shall not be gathered or buried; they shall be like dung on the surface of the ground.

Jer 8:3 Death shall be preferred to life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

Jer 8:4 You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD: When people fall, do they not get up again? If they go astray, do they not turn back?

Jer 8:5 Why then has this people turned away in perpetual backsliding? They have held fast to deceit, they have refused to return.

Jer 8:6 I have given heed and listened, but they do not speak honestly; no one repents of wickedness, saying, "What have I done!" All of them turn to their own course, like a horse plunging headlong into battle.

Jer 8:7 Even the stork in the heavens knows its times; and the turtledove, swallow, and crane observe the time of their coming; but my people do not know the ordinance of the LORD.

Jer 8:8 How can you say, "We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us," when, in fact, the false pen of the scribes has made it into a lie?

Jer 8:9 The wise shall be put to shame, they shall be dismayed and taken; since they have rejected the word of the LORD, what wisdom is in them?

Jer 8:10 Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to conquerors, because from the least to the greatest everyone is greedy for unjust gain; from prophet to priest everyone deals falsely.

Jer 8:11 They have treated the wound of my people carelessly, saying, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace.

Jer 8:12 They acted shamefully, they committed abomination; yet they were not at all ashamed, they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time when I punish them, they shall be overthrown, says the LORD.

Jer 8:13 When I wanted to gather them, says the LORD, there are no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree; even the leaves are withered, and what I gave them has passed away from them.

Jer 8:14 Why do we sit still? Gather together, let us go into the fortified cities and perish there; for the LORD our God has doomed us to perish, and has given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

Jer 8:15 We look for peace, but find no good, for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.

Jer 8:16 The snorting of their horses is heard from Dan; at the sound of the neighing of their stallions the whole land quakes. They come and devour the land and all that fills it, the city and those who live in it.

Jer 8:17 See, I am letting snakes loose among you, adders that cannot be charmed, and they shall bite you, says the LORD.

Jer 8:18 My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.

Jer 8:19 Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: "Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not in her?" ("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?")

Jer 8:20 "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

Jer 8:21 For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Jer 8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

Jer 9:1 O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Jer 9:2 O that I had in the desert a traveler's lodging place, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a band of traitors.

Jer 9:3 They bend their tongues like bows; they have grown strong in the land for falsehood, and not for truth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me, says the LORD.

Jer 9:4 Beware of your neighbors, and put no trust in any of your kin; for all your kin are supplanters, and every neighbor goes around like a slanderer.

Jer 9:5 They all deceive their neighbors, and no one speaks the truth; they have taught their tongues to speak lies; they commit iniquity and are too weary to repent.

Jer 9:6 Oppression upon oppression, deceit upon deceit! They refuse to know me, says the LORD.

Jer 9:7 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: I will now refine and test them, for what else can I do with my sinful people?

Jer 9:8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit through the mouth. They all speak friendly words to their neighbors, but inwardly are planning to lay an ambush.

Jer 9:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; and shall I not bring retribution on a nation such as this?

Jer 9:10 Take up weeping and wailing for the mountains, and a lamentation for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are laid waste so that no one passes through, and the lowing of cattle is not heard; both the birds of the air and the animals have fled and are gone.

Jer 9:11 I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair of jackals; and I will make the towns of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

Jer 9:12 Who is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken, so that they may declare it? Why is the land ruined and laid waste like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

Jer 9:13 And the LORD says: Because they have forsaken my law that I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, or walked in accordance with it,

Jer 9:14 but have stubbornly followed their own hearts and have gone after the Baals, as their ancestors taught them.

Jer 9:15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am feeding this people with wormwood, and giving them poisonous water to drink.

Jer 9:16 I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.

Jer 9:17 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider, and call for the mourning women to come; send for the skilled women to come;

Jer 9:18 let them quickly raise a dirge over us, so that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids flow with water.

Jer 9:19 For a sound of wailing is heard from Zion: "How we are ruined! We are utterly shamed, because we have left the land, because they have cast down our dwellings."

Jer 9:20 Hear, O women, the word of the LORD, and let your ears receive the word of his mouth; teach to your daughters a dirge, and each to her neighbor a lament.

Jer 9:21 "Death has come up into our windows, it has entered our palaces, to cut off the children from the streets and the young men from the squares."

Jer 9:22 Speak! Thus says the LORD: "Human corpses shall fall like dung upon the open field, like sheaves behind the reaper, and no one shall gather them."

Jer 9:23 Thus says the LORD: Do not let the wise boast in their wisdom, do not let the mighty boast in their might, do not let the wealthy boast in their wealth;

Jer 9:24 but let those who boast boast in this, that they understand and know me, that I am the LORD; I act with steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight, says the LORD.

Jer 9:25 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will attend to all those who are circumcised only in the foreskin:

Jer 9:26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, and all those with shaven temples who live in the desert. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.

Jer 10:1 Hear the word that the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.

Jer 10:2 Thus says the LORD: Do not learn the way of the nations, or be dismayed at the signs of the heavens; for the nations are dismayed at them.

Jer 10:3 For the customs of the peoples are false: a tree from the forest is cut down, and worked with an ax by the hands of an artisan;

Jer 10:4 people deck it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it cannot move.

Jer 10:5 Their idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field, and they cannot speak; they have to be carried, for they cannot walk. Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, nor is it in them to do good.

Jer 10:6 There is none like you, O LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might.

Jer 10:7 Who would not fear you, O King of the nations? For that is your due; among all the wise ones of the nations and in all their kingdoms there is no one like you.

Jer 10:8 They are both stupid and foolish; the instruction given by idols is no better than wood!

Jer 10:9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz. They are the work of the artisan and of the hands of the goldsmith; their clothing is blue and purple; they are all the product of skilled workers.

Jer 10:10 But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King. At his wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

Jer 10:11 Thus shall you say to them: The gods who did not make the heavens and the earth shall perish from the earth and from under the heavens.

Jer 10:12 It is he who made the earth by his power, who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

Jer 10:13 When he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and he brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Jer 10:14 Everyone is stupid and without knowledge; goldsmiths are all put to shame by their idols; for their images are false, and there is no breath in them.

Jer 10:15 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

Jer 10:16 Not like these is the LORD, the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Jer 10:17 Gather up your bundle from the ground, O you who live under siege!

Jer 10:18 For thus says the LORD: I am going to sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and I will bring distress on them, so that they shall feel it.

Jer 10:19 Woe is me because of my hurt! My wound is severe. But I said, "Truly this is my punishment, and I must bear it."

Jer 10:20 My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken; my children have gone from me, and they are no more; there is no one to spread my tent again, and to set up my curtains.

Jer 10:21 For the shepherds are stupid, and do not inquire of the LORD; therefore they have not prospered, and all their flock is scattered.

Jer 10:22 Hear, a noise! Listen, it is coming-- a great commotion from the land of the north to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a lair of jackals.

Jer 10:23 I know, O LORD, that the way of human beings is not in their control, that mortals as they walk cannot direct their steps.

Jer 10:24 Correct me, O LORD, but in just measure; not in your anger, or you will bring me to nothing.

Jer 10:25 Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the peoples that do not call on your name; for they have devoured Jacob; they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

Jer 11:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jer 11:2 Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jer 11:3 You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed be anyone who does not heed the words of this covenant,

Jer 11:4 which I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron-smelter, saying, Listen to my voice, and do all that I command you. So shall you be my people, and I will be your God,

Jer 11:5 that I may perform the oath that I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then I answered, "So be it, LORD."

Jer 11:6 And the LORD said to me: Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

Jer 11:7 For I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, warning them persistently, even to this day, saying, Obey my voice.

Jer 11:8 Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone walked in the stubbornness of an evil will. So I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not.

Jer 11:9 And the LORD said to me: Conspiracy exists among the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jer 11:10 They have turned back to the iniquities of their ancestors of old, who refused to heed my words; they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant that I made with their ancestors.

Jer 11:11 Therefore, thus says the LORD, assuredly I am going to bring disaster upon them that they cannot escape; though they cry out to me, I will not listen to them.

Jer 11:12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they make offerings, but they will never save them in the time of their trouble.

Jer 11:13 For your gods have become as many as your towns, O Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to shame, altars to make offerings to Baal.

Jer 11:14 As for you, do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer on their behalf, for I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their trouble.

Jer 11:15 What right has my beloved in my house, when she has done vile deeds? Can vows and sacrificial flesh avert your doom? Can you then exult?

Jer 11:16 The LORD once called you, "A green olive tree, fair with goodly fruit"; but with the roar of a great tempest he will set fire to it, and its branches will be consumed.

Jer 11:17 The LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done, provoking me to anger by making offerings to Baal.

Jer 11:18 It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds.

Jer 11:19 But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!"

Jer 11:20 But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Jer 11:21 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the people of Anathoth, who seek your life, and say, "You shall not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will die by our hand"--

Jer 11:22 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: I am going to punish them; the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

Jer 11:23 and not even a remnant shall be left of them. For I will bring disaster upon the people of Anathoth, the year of their punishment.

Jer 12:1 You will be in the right, O LORD, when I lay charges against you; but let me put my case to you. Why does the way of the guilty prosper? Why do all who are treacherous thrive?

Jer 12:2 You plant them, and they take root; they grow and bring forth fruit; you are near in their mouths yet far from their hearts.

Jer 12:3 But you, O LORD, know me; You see me and test me-- my heart is with you. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter.

Jer 12:4 How long will the land mourn, and the grass of every field wither? For the wickedness of those who live in it the animals and the birds are swept away, and because people said, "He is blind to our ways."

Jer 12:5 If you have raced with foot-runners and they have wearied you, how will you compete with horses? And if in a safe land you fall down, how will you fare in the thickets of the Jordan?

Jer 12:6 For even your kinsfolk and your own family, even they have dealt treacherously with you; they are in full cry after you; do not believe them, though they speak friendly words to you.

Jer 12:7 I have forsaken my house, I have abandoned my heritage; I have given the beloved of my heart into the hands of her enemies.

Jer 12:8 My heritage has become to me like a lion in the forest; she has lifted up her voice against me-- therefore I hate her.

Jer 12:9 Is the hyena greedy for my heritage at my command? Are the birds of prey all around her? Go, assemble all the wild animals; bring them to devour her.

Jer 12:10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled down my portion, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

Jer 12:11 They have made it a desolation; desolate, it mourns to me. The whole land is made desolate, but no one lays it to heart.

Jer 12:12 Upon all the bare heights in the desert spoilers have come; for the sword of the LORD devours from one end of the land to the other; no one shall be safe.

Jer 12:13 They have sown wheat and have reaped thorns, they have tired themselves out but profit nothing. They shall be ashamed of their harvests because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jer 12:14 Thus says the LORD concerning all my evil neighbors who touch the heritage that I have given my people Israel to inherit: I am about to pluck them up from their land, and I will pluck up the house of Judah from among them.

Jer 12:15 And after I have plucked them up, I will again have compassion on them, and I will bring them again to their heritage and to their land, everyone of them.

Jer 12:16 And then, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, "As the LORD lives," as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they shall be built up in the midst of my people.

Jer 12:17 But if any nation will not listen, then I will completely uproot it and destroy it, says the LORD.

Jer 13:1 Thus said the LORD to me, "Go and buy yourself a linen loincloth, and put it on your loins, but do not dip it in water."

Jer 13:2 So I bought a loincloth according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

Jer 13:3 And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying,

Jer 13:4 "Take the loincloth that you bought and are wearing, and go now to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock."

Jer 13:5 So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

Jer 13:6 And after many days the LORD said to me, "Go now to the Euphrates, and take from there the loincloth that I commanded you to hide there."

Jer 13:7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and I took the loincloth from the place where I had hidden it. But now the loincloth was ruined; it was good for nothing.

Jer 13:8 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jer 13:9 Thus says the LORD: Just so I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

Jer 13:10 This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who stubbornly follow their own will and have gone after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be like this loincloth, which is good for nothing.

Jer 13:11 For as the loincloth clings to one's loins, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, says the LORD, in order that they might be for me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory. But they would not listen.

Jer 13:12 You shall speak to them this word: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Every wine-jar should be filled with wine. And they will say to you, "Do you think we do not know that every wine-jar should be filled with wine?"

Jer 13:13 Then you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: I am about to fill all the inhabitants of this land-- the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem-- with drunkenness.

Jer 13:14 And I will dash them one against another, parents and children together, says the LORD. I will not pity or spare or have compassion when I destroy them.

Jer 13:15 Hear and give ear; do not be haughty, for the LORD has spoken.

Jer 13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings darkness, and before your feet stumble on the mountains at twilight; while you look for light, he turns it into gloom and makes it deep darkness.

Jer 13:17 But if you will not listen, my soul will weep in secret for your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

Jer 13:18 Say to the king and the queen mother; "Take a lowly seat, for your beautiful crown has come down from your head."

Jer 13:19 The towns of the Negeb are shut up with no one to open them; all Judah is taken into exile, wholly taken into exile.

Jer 13:20 Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?

Jer 13:21 What will you say when they set as head over you those whom you have trained to be your allies? Will not pangs take hold of you, like those of a woman in labor?

Jer 13:22 And if you say in your heart, "Why have these things come upon me?" it is for the greatness of your iniquity that your skirts are lifted up, and you are violated.

Jer 13:23 Can Ethiopians change their skin or leopards their spots? Then also you can do good who are accustomed to do evil.

Jer 13:24 I will scatter you like chaff driven by the wind from the desert.

Jer 13:25 This is your lot, the portion I have measured out to you, says the LORD, because you have forgotten me and trusted in lies.

Jer 13:26 I myself will lift up your skirts over your face, and your shame will be seen.

Jer 13:27 I have seen your abominations, your adulteries and neighings, your shameless prostitutions on the hills of the countryside. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! How long will it be before you are made clean?

Jer 14:1 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

Jer 14:2 Judah mourns and her gates languish; they lie in gloom on the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem goes up.

Jer 14:3 Her nobles send their servants for water; they come to the cisterns, they find no water, they return with their vessels empty. They are ashamed and dismayed and cover their heads, Jer 14:4 because the ground is cracked. Because there has been no rain on the land the farmers are dismayed; they cover their heads.

Jer 14:5 Even the doe in the field forsakes her newborn fawn because there is no grass.

Jer 14:6 The wild asses stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail because there is no herbage.

Jer 14:7 Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you.

Jer 14:8 O hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night?

Jer 14:9 Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us!

Jer 14:10 Thus says the LORD concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

Jer 14:11 The LORD said to me: Do not pray for the welfare of this people.

Jer 14:12 Although they fast, I do not hear their cry, and although they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I do not accept them; but by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence I consume them.

Jer 14:13 Then I said: "Ah, Lord GOD! Here are the prophets saying to them, 'You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you true peace in this place.'"

Jer 14:14 And the LORD said to me: The prophets are prophesying lies in my name; I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own minds.

Jer 14:15 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name though I did not send them, and who say, "Sword and famine shall not come on this land": By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed.

Jer 14:16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and sword. There shall be no one to bury them-- themselves, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. For I will pour out their wickedness upon them.

Jer 14:17 You shall say to them this word: Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter-- my people-- is struck down with a crushing blow, with a very grievous wound.

Jer 14:18 If I go out into the field, look-- those killed by the sword! And if I enter the city, look-- those sick with famine! For both prophet and priest ply their trade throughout the land, and have no knowledge.

Jer 14:19 Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.

Jer 14:20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.

Jer 14:21 Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonor your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us.

Jer 14:22 Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O LORD our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Jer 15:1 Then the LORD said to me: Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my heart would not turn toward this people. Send them out of my sight, and let them go!

Jer 15:2 And when they say to you, "Where shall we go?" you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: Those destined for pestilence, to pestilence, and those destined for the sword, to the sword; those destined for famine, to famine, and those destined for captivity, to captivity.

Jer 15:3 And I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers, says the LORD: the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the air and the wild animals of the earth to devour and destroy.

Jer 15:4 I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what King Manasseh son of Hezekiah of Judah did in Jerusalem.

Jer 15:5 Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem, or who will bemoan you? Who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

Jer 15:6 You have rejected me, says the LORD, you are going backward; so I have stretched out my hand against you and destroyed you-- I am weary of relenting.

Jer 15:7 I have winnowed them with a winnowing fork in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them, I have destroyed my people; they did not turn from their ways.

Jer 15:8 Their widows became more numerous than the sand of the seas; I have brought against the mothers of youths a destroyer at noonday; I have made anguish and terror fall upon her suddenly.

Jer 15:9 She who bore seven has languished; she has swooned away; her sun went down while it was yet day; she has been shamed and disgraced. And the rest of them I will give to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD.

Jer 15:10 Woe is me, my mother, that you ever bore me, a man of strife and contention to the whole land! I have not lent, nor have I borrowed, yet all of them curse me.

Jer 15:11 The LORD said: Surely I have intervened in your life for good, surely I have imposed enemies on you in a time of trouble and in a time of distress.

Jer 15:12 Can iron and bronze break iron from the north?

Jer 15:13 Your wealth and your treasures I will give as plunder, without price, for all your sins, throughout all your territory.

Jer 15:14 I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled that shall burn forever.

Jer 15:15 O LORD, you know; remember me and visit me, and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance do not take me away; know that on your account I suffer insult.

Jer 15:16 Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts.

Jer 15:17 I did not sit in the company of merry-makers, nor did I rejoice; under the weight of your hand I sat alone, for you had filled me with indignation.

Jer 15:18 Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail.

Jer 15:19 Therefore thus says the LORD: If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth. It is they who will turn to you, not you who will turn to them.

Jer 15:20 And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD.

Jer 15:21 I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Jer 16:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Jer 16:2 You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place.

Jer 16:3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning the mothers who bear them and the fathers who beget them in this land:

Jer 16:4 They shall die of deadly diseases. They shall not be lamented, nor shall they be buried; they shall become like dung on the surface of the ground. They shall perish by the sword and by famine, and their dead bodies shall become food for the birds of the air and for the wild animals of the earth.

Jer 16:5 For thus says the LORD: Do not enter the house of mourning, or go to lament, or bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says the LORD, my steadfast love and mercy.

Jer 16:6 Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, and no one shall lament for them; there shall be no gashing, no shaving of the head for them.

Jer 16:7 No one shall break bread for the mourner, to offer comfort for the dead; nor shall anyone give them the cup of consolation to drink for their fathers or their mothers.

Jer 16:8 You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink.

Jer 16:9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to banish from this place, in your days and before your eyes, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

Jer 16:10 And when you tell this people all these words, and they say to you, "Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? What is our iniquity? What is the sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?"

Jer 16:11 then you shall say to them: It is because your ancestors have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have gone after other gods and have served and worshiped them, and have forsaken me and have not kept my law;

Jer 16:12 and because you have behaved worse than your ancestors, for here you are, every one of you, following your stubborn evil will, refusing to listen to me.

Jer 16:13 Therefore I will hurl you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your ancestors have known, and there you shall serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.

Jer 16:14 Therefore, the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when it shall no longer be said, "As the LORD lives who brought the people of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,"

Jer 16:15 but "As the LORD lives who brought the people of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the lands where he had driven them." For I will bring them back to their own land that I gave to their ancestors.

Jer 16:16 I am now sending for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they shall catch them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.

Jer 16:17 For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my presence, nor is their iniquity concealed from my sight.

Jer 16:18 And I will doubly repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable idols, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations.

Jer 16:19 O LORD, my strength and my stronghold, my refuge in the day of trouble, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth and say: Our ancestors have inherited nothing but lies, worthless things in which there is no profit.

Jer 16:20 Can mortals make for themselves gods? Such are no gods!

Jer 16:21 "Therefore I am surely going to teach them, this time I am going to teach them my power and my might, and they shall know that my name is the LORD."

Jer 17:1 The sin of Judah is written with an iron pen; with a diamond point it is engraved on the tablet of their hearts, and on the horns of their altars,

Jer 17:2 while their children remember their altars and their sacred poles, beside every green tree, and on the high hills,

Jer 17:3 on the mountains in the open country. Your wealth and all your treasures I will give for spoil as the price of your sin throughout all your territory.

Jer 17:4 By your own act you shall lose the heritage that I gave you, and I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled that shall burn forever.

Jer 17:5 Thus says the LORD: Cursed are those who trust in mere mortals and make mere flesh their strength, whose hearts turn away from the LORD.

Jer 17:6 They shall be like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see when relief comes. They shall live in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land.

Jer 17:7 Blessed are those who trust in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD.

Jer 17:8 They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit.

Jer 17:9 The heart is devious above all else; it is perverse-- who can understand it?

Jer 17:10 I the LORD test the mind and search the heart, to give to all according to their ways, according to the fruit of their doings.

Jer 17:11 Like the partridge hatching what it did not lay, so are all who amass wealth unjustly; in mid-life it will leave them, and at their end they will prove to be fools.

Jer 17:12 O glorious throne, exalted from the beginning, shrine of our sanctuary!

Jer 17:13 O hope of Israel! O LORD! All who forsake you shall be put to shame; those who turn away from you shall be recorded in the underworld, for they have forsaken the fountain of living water, the LORD.

Jer 17:14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved; for you are my praise.

Jer 17:15 See how they say to me, "Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come!"

Jer 17:16 But I have not run away from being a shepherd in your service, nor have I desired the fatal day. You know what came from my lips; it was before your face.

Jer 17:17 Do not become a terror to me; you are my refuge in the day of disaster;

Jer 17:18 Let my persecutors be shamed, but do not let me be shamed; let them be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of disaster; destroy them with double destruction!

Jer 17:19 Thus said the LORD to me: Go and stand in the People's Gate, by which the kings of Judah enter and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem,

Jer 17:20 and say to them: Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates.

Jer 17:21 Thus says the LORD: For the sake of your lives, take care that you do not bear a burden on the sabbath day or bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.

Jer 17:22 And do not carry a burden out of your houses on the sabbath or do any work, but keep the sabbath day holy, as I commanded your ancestors.

Jer 17:23 Yet they did not listen or incline their ear; they stiffened their necks and would not hear or receive instruction.

Jer 17:24 But if you listen to me, says the LORD, and bring in no burden by the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but keep the sabbath day holy and do no work on it,

Jer 17:25 then there shall enter by the gates of this city kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their officials, the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall be inhabited forever.

Jer 17:26 And people shall come from the towns of Judah and the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the Shephelah, from the hill country, and from the Negeb, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the LORD.

Jer 17:27 But if you do not listen to me, to keep the sabbath day holy, and to carry in no burden through the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates; it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem and shall not be quenched.

Jer 18:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jer 18:2 "Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words."

Jer 18:3 So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel.

Jer 18:4 The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him.

Jer 18:5 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jer 18:6 Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

Jer 18:7 At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it,

Jer 18:8 but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it.

Jer 18:9 And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it,

Jer 18:10 but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it.

Jer 18:11 Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD:

Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

Jer 18:12 But they say, "It is no use! We will follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of our evil will."

Jer 18:13 Therefore thus says the LORD: Ask among the nations: Who has heard the like of this? The virgin Israel has done a most horrible thing.

Jer 18:14 Does the snow of Lebanon leave the crags of Sirion? Do the mountain waters run dry, the cold flowing streams?

Jer 18:15 But my people have forgotten me, they burn offerings to a delusion; they have stumbled in their ways, in the ancient roads, and have gone into bypaths, not the highway,

Jer 18:16 making their land a horror, a thing to be hissed at forever. All who pass by it are horrified and shake their heads.

Jer 18:17 Like the wind from the east, I will scatter them before the enemy. I will show them my back, not my face, in the day of their calamity.

Jer 18:18 Then they said, "Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah-- for instruction shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, let us bring charges against him, and let us not heed any of his words."

Jer 18:19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and listen to what my adversaries say!

Jer 18:20 Is evil a recompense for good? Yet they have dug a pit for my life. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.

Jer 18:21 Therefore give their children over to famine; hurl them out to the power of the sword, let their wives become childless and widowed. May their men meet death by pestilence, their youths be slain by the sword in battle.

Jer 18:22 May a cry be heard from their houses, when you bring the marauder suddenly upon them! For they have dug a pit to catch me, and laid snares for my feet.

Jer 18:23 Yet you, O LORD, know all their plotting to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity, do not blot out their sin from your sight. Let them be tripped up before you; deal with them while you are angry.

Jer 19:1 Thus said the LORD: Go and buy a potter's earthenware jug. Take with you some of the elders of the people and some of the senior priests,

Jer 19:2 and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom at the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I tell you.

Jer 19:3 You shall say: Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to bring such disaster upon this place that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

Jer 19:4 Because the people have forsaken me, and have profaned this place by making offerings in it to other gods whom neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah have known; and because they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent,

Jer 19:5 and gone on building the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or decree, nor did it enter my mind.

Jer 19:6 Therefore the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when this place shall no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter.

Jer 19:7 And in this place I will make void the plans of Judah and Jerusalem, and will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. I will give their dead bodies for food to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth.

Jer 19:8 And I will make this city a horror, a thing to be hissed at; everyone who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters.

Jer 19:9 And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and all shall eat the flesh of their neighbors in the siege, and in the distress with which their enemies and those who seek their life afflict them.

Jer 19:10 Then you shall break the jug in the sight of those who go with you,

Jer 19:11 and shall say to them: Thus says the LORD of hosts: So will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, so that it can never be mended. In Topheth they shall bury until there is no more room to bury.

Jer 19:12 Thus will I do to this place, says the LORD, and to its inhabitants, making this city like Topheth.

Jer 19:13 And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled like the place of Topheth-- all the houses upon whose roofs offerings have been made to the whole host of heaven, and libations have been poured out to other gods.

Jer 19:14 When Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, he stood in the court of the LORD's house and said to all the people:

Jer 19:15 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am now bringing upon this city and upon all its towns all the disaster that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks, refusing to hear my words.

Jer 20:1 Now the priest Pashhur son of Immer, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

Jer 20:2 Then Pashhur struck the prophet Jeremiah, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper Benjamin Gate of the house of the LORD.

Jer 20:3 The next morning when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, The LORD has named you not Pashhur but "Terror-all-around."

Jer 20:4 For thus says the LORD: I am making you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies while you look on. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon; he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword.

Jer 20:5 I will give all the wealth of this city, all its gains, all its prized belongings, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies, who shall plunder them, and seize them, and carry them to Babylon.

Jer 20:6 And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, shall go into captivity, and to Babylon you shall go; there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.

Jer 20:7 O LORD, you have enticed me, and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me.

Jer 20:8 For whenever I speak, I must cry out, I must shout, "Violence and destruction!" For the word of the LORD has become for me a reproach and derision all day long.

Jer 20:9 If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name," then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

Jer 20:10 For I hear many whispering: "Terror is all around! Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" All my close friends are watching for me to stumble. "Perhaps he can be enticed, and we can prevail against him, and take our revenge on him."

Jer 20:11 But the LORD is with me like a dread warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they will not prevail. They will be greatly shamed, for they will not succeed. Their eternal dishonor will never be forgotten.

Jer 20:12 O LORD of hosts, you test the righteous, you see the heart and the mind; let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Jer 20:13 Sing to the LORD; praise the LORD! For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hands of evildoers.

Jer 20:14 Cursed be the day on which I was born! The day when my mother bore me, let it not be blessed!

Jer 20:15 Cursed be the man who brought the news to my father, saying, "A child is born to you, a son," making him very glad.

Jer 20:16 Let that man be like the cities that the LORD overthrew without pity; let him hear a cry in the morning and an alarm at noon,

Jer 20:17 because he did not kill me in the womb; so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb forever great.

Jer 20:18 Why did I come forth from the womb to see toil and sorrow, and spend my days in shame?

Jer 21:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malchiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, saying,

Jer 21:2 "Please inquire of the LORD on our behalf, for King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon is making war against us; perhaps the LORD will perform a wonderful deed for us, as he has often done, and will make him withdraw from us."

Jer 21:3 Then Jeremiah said to them:

Jer 21:4 Thus you shall say to Zedekiah: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I am going to turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands and with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the walls; and I will bring them together into the center of this city.

Jer 21:5 I myself will fight against you with outstretched hand and mighty arm, in anger, in fury, and in great wrath.

Jer 21:6 And I will strike down the inhabitants of this city, both human beings and animals; they shall die of a great pestilence.

Jer 21:7 Afterward, says the LORD, I will give King Zedekiah of Judah, and his servants, and the people in this city-- those who survive the pestilence, sword, and famine-- into the hands of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, into the hands of their enemies, into the hands of those who seek their lives. He shall strike them down with the edge of the sword; he shall not pity them, or spare them, or have compassion.

Jer 21:8 And to this people you shall say: Thus says the LORD: See, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death.

Jer 21:9 Those who stay in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but those who go out and surrender to the Chaldeans who are besieging you shall live and shall have their lives as a prize of war.

Jer 21:10 For I have set my face against this city for evil and not for good, says the LORD: it shall be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

Jer 21:11 To the house of the king of Judah say: Hear the word of the LORD, Jer 21:12 O house of David! Thus says the LORD: Execute justice in the morning, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor anyone who has been robbed, or else my wrath will go forth like fire, and burn, with no one to quench it, because of your evil doings.

Jer 21:13 See, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, O rock of the plain, says the LORD; you who say, "Who can come down against us, or who can enter our places of refuge?"

Jer 21:14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD; I will kindle a fire in its forest, and it shall devour all that is around it.

Jer 22:1 Thus says the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, Jer 22:2 and say: Hear the word of the LORD, O King of Judah sitting on the throne of David-- you, and your servants, and your people who enter these gates.

Jer 22:3 Thus says the LORD: Act with justice and righteousness, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor anyone who has been robbed. And do no wrong or violence to the alien, the orphan, and the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place.

Jer 22:4 For if you will indeed obey this word, then through the gates of this house shall enter kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their servants, and their people.

Jer 22:5 But if you will not heed these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

Jer 22:6 For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are like Gilead to me, like the summit of Lebanon; but I swear that I will make you a desert, an uninhabited city.

Jer 22:7 I will prepare destroyers against you, all with their weapons; they shall cut down your choicest cedars and cast them into the fire.

Jer 22:8 And many nations will pass by this city, and all of them will say one to another, "Why has the LORD dealt in this way with that great city?"

Jer 22:9 And they will answer, "Because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them."

Jer 22:10 Do not weep for him who is dead, nor bemoan him; weep rather for him who goes away, for he shall return no more to see his native land.

Jer 22:11 For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum son of King Josiah of Judah, who succeeded his father Josiah, and who went away from this place: He shall return here no more,

Jer 22:12 but in the place where they have carried him captive he shall die, and he shall never see this land again.

Jer 22:13 Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his upper rooms by injustice; who makes his neighbors work for nothing, and does not give them their wages;

Jer 22:14 who says, "I will build myself a spacious house with large upper rooms," and who cuts out windows for it, paneling it with cedar, and painting it with vermilion.

Jer 22:15 Are you a king because you compete in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him.

Jer 22:16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Is not this to know me? says the LORD.

Jer 22:17 But your eyes and heart are only on your dishonest gain, for shedding innocent blood, and for practicing oppression and violence.

Jer 22:18 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah: They shall not lament for him, saying, "Alas, my brother!" or "Alas, sister!" They shall not lament for him, saying, "Alas, lord!" or "Alas, his majesty!"

Jer 22:19 With the burial of a donkey he shall be buried-- dragged off and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

Jer 22:20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry out, and lift up your voice in Bashan; cry out from Abarim, for all your lovers are crushed.

Jer 22:21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, "I will not listen." This has been your way from your youth, for you have not obeyed my voice.

Jer 22:22 The wind shall shepherd all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity; then you will be ashamed and dismayed because of all your wickedness.

Jer 22:23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, nested among the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come upon you, pain as of a woman in labor!

Jer 22:24 As I live, says the LORD, even if King Coniah son of Jehoiakim of Judah were the signet ring on my right hand, even from there I would tear you off

Jer 22:25 and give you into the hands of those who seek your life, into the hands of those of whom you are afraid, even into the hands of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jer 22:26 I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where you were not born, and there you shall die.

Jer 22:27 But they shall not return to the land to which they long to return.

Jer 22:28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken pot, a vessel no one wants? Why are he and his offspring hurled out and cast away in a land that they do not know?

Jer 22:29 O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!

Jer 22:30 Thus says the LORD: Record this man as childless, a man who shall not succeed in his days; for none of his offspring shall succeed in sitting on the throne of David, and ruling again in Judah.

Jer 23:1 Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD.

Jer 23:2 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD.

Jer 23:3 Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

Jer 23:4 I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD.

Jer 23:5 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jer 23:6 In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

Jer 23:7 Therefore, the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when it shall no longer be said, "As the LORD lives who brought the people of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,"

Jer 23:8 but "As the LORD lives who brought out and led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the lands where he had driven them." Then they shall live in their own land.

Jer 23:9 Concerning the prophets: My heart is crushed within me, all my bones shake; I have become like a drunkard, like one overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of his holy words.

Jer 23:10 For the land is full of adulterers; because of the curse the land mourns, and the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Their course has been evil, and their might is not right.

Jer 23:11 Both prophet and priest are ungodly; even in my house I have found their wickedness, says the LORD.

Jer 23:12 Therefore their way shall be to them like slippery paths in the darkness, into which they shall be driven and fall; for I will bring disaster upon them in the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

Jer 23:13 In the prophets of Samaria I saw a disgusting thing: they prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

Jer 23:14 But in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a more shocking thing: they commit adultery and walk in lies; they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns from wickedness; all of them have become like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah.

Jer 23:15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: "I am going to make them eat wormwood, and give them poisoned water to drink; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land."

Jer 23:16 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you; they are deluding you. They speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.

Jer 23:17 They keep saying to those who despise the word of the LORD, "It shall be well with you"; and to all who stubbornly follow their own stubborn hearts, they say, "No calamity shall come upon you."

Jer 23:18 For who has stood in the council of the LORD so as to see and to hear his word? Who has given heed to his word so as to proclaim it?

Jer 23:19 Look, the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jer 23:20 The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind. In the latter days you will understand it clearly.

Jer 23:21 I did not send the prophets, yet they ran; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.

Jer 23:22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people, and they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

Jer 23:23 Am I a God near by, says the LORD, and not a God far off?

Jer 23:24 Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them? says the LORD. Do I not fill heaven and earth? says the LORD.

Jer 23:25 I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, "I have dreamed, I have dreamed!"

Jer 23:26 How long? Will the hearts of the prophets ever turn back-- those who prophesy lies, and who prophesy the deceit of their own heart?

Jer 23:27 They plan to make my people forget my name by their dreams that they tell one another, just as their ancestors forgot my name for Baal.

Jer 23:28 Let the prophet who has a dream tell the dream, but let the one who has my word speak my word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat? says the LORD.

Jer 23:29 Is not my word like fire, says the LORD, and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?

Jer 23:30 See, therefore, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who steal my words from one another.

Jer 23:31 See, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who use their own tongues and say, "Says the LORD."

Jer 23:32 See, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says the LORD, and who tell them, and who lead my people astray by their lies and their recklessness, when I did not send them or appoint them; so they do not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

Jer 23:33 When this people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, "What is the burden of the LORD?" you shall say to them, "You are the burden, and I will cast you off, says the LORD."

Jer 23:34 And as for the prophet, priest, or the people who say, "The burden of the LORD," I will punish them and their households.

Jer 23:35 Thus shall you say to one another, among yourselves, "What has the LORD answered?" or "What has the LORD spoken?"

Jer 23:36 But "the burden of the LORD" you shall mention no more, for the burden is everyone's own word, and so you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.

Jer 23:37 Thus you shall ask the prophet, "What has the LORD answered you?" or "What has the LORD spoken?"

Jer 23:38 But if you say, "the burden of the LORD," thus says the LORD: Because you have said these words, "the burden of the LORD," when I sent to you, saying, You shall not say, "the burden of the LORD,"

Jer 23:39 therefore, I will surely lift you up and cast you away from my presence, you and the city that I gave to you and your ancestors.

Jer 23:40 And I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace and perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

Jer 24:1 The LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD. This was after King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon had taken into exile from Jerusalem King Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim of Judah, together with the officials of Judah, the artisans, and the smiths, and had brought them to Babylon.

Jer 24:2 One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they could not be eaten.

Jer 24:3 And the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "Figs, the good figs very good, and the bad figs very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten."

Jer 24:4 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jer 24:5 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans.

Jer 24:6 I will set my eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down; I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

Jer 24:7 I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

Jer 24:8 But thus says the LORD: Like the bad figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten, so will I treat King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who live in the land of Egypt.

Jer 24:9 I will make them a horror, an evil thing, to all the kingdoms of the earth-- a disgrace, a byword, a taunt, and a curse in all the places where I shall drive them.

Jer 24:10 And I will send sword, famine, and pestilence upon them, until they are utterly destroyed from the land that I gave to them and their ancestors.

Jer 25:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah (that was the first year of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon),

Jer 25:2 which the prophet Jeremiah spoke to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem:

Jer 25:3 For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah, to this day, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken persistently to you, but you have not listened.

Jer 25:4 And though the LORD persistently sent you all his servants the prophets, you have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear

Jer 25:5 when they said, "Turn now, everyone of you, from your evil way and wicked doings, and you will remain upon the land that the LORD has given to you and your ancestors from of old and forever;

Jer 25:6 do not go after other gods to serve and worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm."

Jer 25:7 Yet you did not listen to me, says the LORD, and so you have provoked me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

Jer 25:8 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not obeyed my words,

Jer 25:9 I am going to send for all the tribes of the north, says the LORD, even for King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; I will utterly destroy them, and make them an object of horror and of hissing, and an everlasting disgrace.

Jer 25:10 And I will banish from them the sound of mirth and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

Jer 25:11 This whole land shall become a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

Jer 25:12 Then after seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, says the LORD, making the land an everlasting waste.

Jer 25:13 I will bring upon that land all the words that I have uttered against it, everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.

Jer 25:14 For many nations and great kings shall make slaves of them also; and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.

Jer 25:15 For thus the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: Take from my hand this cup of the wine of wrath, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.

Jer 25:16 They shall drink and stagger and go out of their minds because of the sword that I am sending among them.

Jer 25:17 So I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink it:

Jer 25:18 Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a desolation and a waste, an object of hissing and of cursing, as they are today;

Jer 25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his officials, and all his people;

Jer 25:20 all the mixed people; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of the Philistines-- Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

Jer 25:21 Edom, Moab, and the Ammonites;

Jer 25:22 all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastland across the sea;

Jer 25:23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who have shaven temples;

Jer 25:24 all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed peoples that live in the desert;

Jer 25:25 all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

Jer 25:26 all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another, and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the face of the earth. And after them the king of Sheshach shall drink.

Jer 25:27 Then you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink, get drunk and vomit, fall and rise no more, because of the sword that I am sending among you.

Jer 25:28 And if they refuse to accept the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD of hosts: You must drink!

Jer 25:29 See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name, and how can you possibly avoid punishment? You shall not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of hosts.

Jer 25:30 You, therefore, shall prophesy against them all these words, and say to them: The LORD will roar from on high, and from his holy habitation utter his voice; he will roar mightily against his fold, and shout, like those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

Jer 25:31 The clamor will resound to the ends of the earth, for the LORD has an indictment against the nations; he is entering into judgment with all flesh, and the guilty he will put to the sword, says the LORD.

Jer 25:32 Thus says the LORD of hosts: See, disaster is spreading from nation to nation, and a great tempest is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth!

Jer 25:33 Those slain by the LORD on that day shall extend from one end of the earth to the other. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall become dung on the surface of the ground.

Jer 25:34 Wail, you shepherds, and cry out; roll in ashes, you lords of the flock, for the days of your slaughter have come-- and your dispersions, and you shall fall like a choice vessel.

Jer 25:35 Flight shall fail the shepherds, and there shall be no escape for the lords of the flock.

Jer 25:36 Hark! the cry of the shepherds, and the wail of the lords of the flock! For the LORD is despoiling their pasture, Jer 25:37 and the peaceful folds are devastated, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jer 25:38 Like a lion he has left his covert; for their land has become a waste because of the cruel sword, and because of his fierce anger.

Jer 26:1 At the beginning of the reign of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, this word came from the LORD:

Jer 26:2 Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah that come to worship in the house of the LORD; speak to them all the words that I command you; do not hold back a word.

Jer 26:3 It may be that they will listen, all of them, and will turn from their evil way, that I may change my mind about the disaster that I intend to bring on them because of their evil doings.

Jer 26:4 You shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law that I have set before you,

Jer 26:5 and to heed the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you urgently-- though you have not heeded--

Jer 26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse for all the nations of the earth.

Jer 26:7 The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

Jer 26:8 And when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, "You shall die!

Jer 26:9 Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?'" And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

Jer 26:10 When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD.

Jer 26:11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and to all the people, "This man deserves the sentence of death because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

Jer 26:12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, saying, "It is the LORD who sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard.

Jer 26:13 Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will change his mind about the disaster that he has pronounced against you.

Jer 26:14 But as for me, here I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you.

Jer 26:15 Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will be bringing innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

Jer 26:16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve the sentence of death, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

Jer 26:17 And some of the elders of the land arose and said to all the assembled people,

Jer 26:18 "Micah of Moresheth, who prophesied during the days of King Hezekiah of Judah, said to all the people of Judah: 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.'

Jer 26:19 Did King Hezekiah of Judah and all Judah actually put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and entreat the favor of the LORD, and did not the LORD change his mind about the disaster that he had pronounced against them? But we are about to bring great disaster on ourselves!"

Jer 26:20 There was another man prophesying in the name of the LORD, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words exactly like those of Jeremiah.

Jer 26:21 And when King Jehoiakim, with all his warriors and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard of it, he was afraid and fled and escaped to Egypt.

Jer 26:22 Then King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Achbor and men with him to Egypt,

Jer 26:23 and they took Uriah from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim, who struck him down with the sword and threw his dead body into the burial place of the common people.

Jer 26:24 But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah so that he was not given over into the hands of the people to be put to death.

Jer 27:1 In the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD.

Jer 27:2 Thus the LORD said to me: Make yourself a yoke of straps and bars, and put them on your neck.

Jer 27:3 Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon by the hand of the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to King Zedekiah of Judah.

Jer 27:4 Give them this charge for their masters: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: This is what you shall say to your masters:

Jer 27:5 It is I who by my great power and my outstretched arm have made the earth, with the people and animals that are on the earth, and I give it to whomever I please.

Jer 27:6 Now I have given all these lands into the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, my servant, and I have given him even the wild animals of the field to serve him.

Jer 27:7 All the nations shall serve him and his son and his grandson, until the time of his own land comes; then many nations and great kings shall make him their slave.

Jer 27:8 But if any nation or kingdom will not serve this king, Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, then I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, says the LORD, until I have completed its destruction by his hand.

Jer 27:9 You, therefore, must not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who are saying to you, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon.'

Jer 27:10 For they are prophesying a lie to you, with the result that you will be removed far from your land; I will drive you out, and you will perish.

Jer 27:11 But any nation that will bring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave on its own land, says the LORD, to till it and live there.

Jer 27:12 I spoke to King Zedekiah of Judah in the same way: Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

Jer 27:13 Why should you and your people die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, as the LORD has spoken concerning any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

Jer 27:14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are telling you not to serve the king of Babylon, for they are prophesying a lie to you.

Jer 27:15 I have not sent them, says the LORD, but they are prophesying falsely in my name, with the result that I will drive you out and you will perish, you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.

Jer 27:16 Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who are prophesying to you, saying, "The vessels of the LORD's house will soon be brought back from Babylon," for they are prophesying a lie to you.

Jer 27:17 Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a desolation?

Jer 27:18 If indeed they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, then let them intercede with the LORD of hosts, that the vessels left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem may not go to Babylon.

Jer 27:19 For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, the sea, the stands, and the rest of the vessels that are left in this city,

Jer 27:20 which King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon did not take away when he took into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon King Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim of Judah, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem--

Jer 27:21 thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem:

Jer 27:22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there they shall stay, until the day when I give attention to them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.

Jer 28:1 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying, Jer 28:2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Jer 28:3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, which King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon.

Jer 28:4 I will also bring back to this place King Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim of Judah, and all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon, says the LORD, for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

Jer 28:5 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD;

Jer 28:6 and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles.

Jer 28:7 But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.

Jer 28:8 The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms.

Jer 28:9 As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet."

Jer 28:10 Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, and broke it.

Jer 28:11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: This is how I will break the yoke of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon from the neck of all the nations within two years." At this, the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

Jer 28:12 Sometime after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 28:13 Go, tell Hananiah, Thus says the LORD: You have broken wooden bars only to forge iron bars in place of them!

Jer 28:14 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put an iron yoke on the neck of all these nations so that they may serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and they shall indeed serve him; I have even given him the wild animals.

Jer 28:15 And the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, and you made this people trust in a lie.

Jer 28:16 Therefore thus says the LORD: I am going to send you off the face of the earth. Within this year you will be dead, because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD."

Jer 28:17 In that same year, in the seventh month, the prophet Hananiah died.

Jer 29:1 These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jer 29:2 This was after King Jeconiah, and the queen mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the artisans, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.

Jer 29:3 The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiyah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah sent to Babylon to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. It said:

Jer 29:4 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:

Jer 29:5 Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce.

Jer 29:6 Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease.

Jer 29:7 But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Jer 29:8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let the prophets and the diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that they dream,

Jer 29:9 for it is a lie that they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the LORD.

Jer 29:10 For thus says the LORD: Only when Babylon's seventy years are completed will I visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place.

Jer 29:11 For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.

Jer 29:12 Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you.

Jer 29:13 When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart,

Jer 29:14 I will let you find me, says the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.

Jer 29:15 Because you have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,"--

Jer 29:16 Thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who live in this city, your kinsfolk who did not go out with you into exile:

Jer 29:17 Thus says the LORD of hosts, I am going to let loose on them sword, famine, and pestilence, and I will make them like rotten figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten.

Jer 29:18 I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, and will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of cursing, and horror, and hissing, and a derision among all the nations where I have driven them,

Jer 29:19 because they did not heed my words, says the LORD, when I persistently sent to you my servants the prophets, but they would not listen, says the LORD.

Jer 29:20 But now, all you exiles whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon, hear the word of the LORD:

Jer 29:21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying a lie to you in my name: I am going to deliver them into the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he shall kill them before your eyes.

Jer 29:22 And on account of them this curse shall be used by all the exiles from Judah in Babylon: "The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,"

Jer 29:23 because they have perpetrated outrage in Israel and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken in my name lying words that I did not command them; I am the one who knows and bears witness, says the LORD.

Jer 29:24 To Shemaiah of Nehelam you shall say:

Jer 29:25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: In your own name you sent a letter to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests, saying,

Jer 29:26 The LORD himself has made you priest instead of the priest Jehoiada, so that there may be officers in the house of the LORD to control any madman who plays the prophet, to put him in the stocks and the collar.

Jer 29:27 So now why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who plays the prophet for you?

Jer 29:28 For he has actually sent to us in Babylon, saying, "It will be a long time; build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat what they produce."

Jer 29:29 The priest Zephaniah read this letter in the hearing of the prophet Jeremiah.

Jer 29:30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 29:31 Send to all the exiles, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah of Nehelam: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and has led you to trust in a lie,

Jer 29:32 therefore thus says the LORD: I am going to punish Shemaiah of Nehelam and his descendants; he shall not have anyone living among this people to see the good that I am going to do to my people, says the LORD, for he has spoken rebellion against the LORD.

Jer 30:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jer 30:2 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you.

Jer 30:3 For the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the LORD, and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their ancestors and they shall take possession of it.

Jer 30:4 These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

Jer 30:5 Thus says the LORD: We have heard a cry of panic, of terror, and no peace.

Jer 30:6 Ask now, and see, can a man bear a child? Why then do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labor? Why has every face turned pale?

Jer 30:7 Alas! that day is so great there is none like it; it is a time of distress for Jacob; yet he shall be rescued from it.

Jer 30:8 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will break the yoke from off his neck, and I will burst his bonds, and strangers shall no more make a servant of him.

Jer 30:9 But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

Jer 30:10 But as for you, have no fear, my servant Jacob, says the LORD, and do not be dismayed, O Israel; for I am going to save you from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and no one shall make him afraid.

Jer 30:11 For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you; I will make an end of all the nations among which I scattered you, but of you I will not make an end. I will chastise you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

Jer 30:12 For thus says the LORD: Your hurt is incurable, your wound is grievous.

Jer 30:13 There is no one to uphold your cause, no medicine for your wound, no healing for you.

Jer 30:14 All your lovers have forgotten you; they care nothing for you; for I have dealt you the blow of an enemy, the punishment of a merciless foe, because your guilt is great, because your sins are so numerous.

Jer 30:15 Why do you cry out over your hurt? Your pain is incurable. Because your guilt is great, because your sins are so numerous, I have done these things to you.

Jer 30:16 Therefore all who devour you shall be devoured, and all your foes, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you I will make a prey.

Jer 30:17 For I will restore health to you, and your wounds I will heal, says the LORD, because they have called you an outcast: "It is Zion; no one cares for her!"

Jer 30:18 Thus says the LORD: I am going to restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob, and have compassion on his dwellings; the city shall be rebuilt upon its mound, and the citadel set on its rightful site.

Jer 30:19 Out of them shall come thanksgiving, and the sound of merrymakers. I will make them many, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be disdained.

Jer 30:20 Their children shall be as of old, their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them.

Jer 30:21 Their prince shall be one of their own, their ruler shall come from their midst; I will bring him near, and he shall approach me, for who would otherwise dare to approach me? says the LORD.

Jer 30:22 And you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Jer 30:23 Look, the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jer 30:24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind. In the latter days you will understand this.

Jer 31:1 At that time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

Jer 31:2 Thus says the LORD: The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; when Israel sought for rest, Jer 31:3 the LORD appeared to him from far away. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

Jer 31:4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall take your tambourines, and go forth in the dance of the merry-makers.

Jer 31:5 Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit.

Jer 31:6 For there shall be a day when sentinels will call in the hill country of Ephraim: "Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God."

Jer 31:7 For thus says the LORD: Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations; proclaim, give praise, and say, "Save, O LORD, your people, the remnant of Israel."

Jer 31:8 See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labor, together; a great company, they shall return here.

Jer 31:9 With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back, I will let them walk by brooks of water, in a straight path in which they shall not stumble; for I have become a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

Jer 31:10 Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away; say, "He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd a flock."

Jer 31:11 For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

Jer 31:12 They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall become like a watered garden, and they shall never languish again.

Jer 31:13 Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry. I will turn their mourning into joy, I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

Jer 31:14 I will give the priests their fill of fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty, says the LORD.

Jer 31:15 Thus says the LORD: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.

Jer 31:16 Thus says the LORD: Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for there is a reward for your work, says the LORD: they shall come back from the land of the enemy;

Jer 31:17 there is hope for your future, says the LORD: your children shall come back to their own country.

Jer 31:18 Indeed I heard Ephraim pleading: "You disciplined me, and I took the discipline; I was like a calf untrained. Bring me back, let me come back, for you are the LORD my God.

Jer 31:19 For after I had turned away I repented; and after I was discovered, I struck my thigh; I was ashamed, and I was dismayed because I bore the disgrace of my youth."

Jer 31:20 Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he the child I delight in? As often as I speak against him, I still remember him. Therefore I am deeply moved for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

Jer 31:21 Set up road markers for yourself, make yourself guideposts; consider well the highway, the road by which you went. Return, O virgin Israel, return to these your cities.

Jer 31:22 How long will you waver, O faithless daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing on the earth: a woman encompasses a man.

Jer 31:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Once more they shall use these words in the land of Judah and in its towns when I restore their fortunes: "The LORD bless you, O abode of righteousness, O holy hill!"

Jer 31:24 And Judah and all its towns shall live there together, and the farmers and those who wander with their flocks.

Jer 31:25 I will satisfy the weary, and all who are faint I will replenish.

Jer 31:26 Thereupon I awoke and looked, and my sleep was pleasant to me.

Jer 31:27 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals.

Jer 31:28 And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD.

Jer 31:29 In those days they shall no longer say: "The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge."

Jer 31:30 But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge.

Jer 31:31 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

Jer 31:32 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt-- a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD.

Jer 31:33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Jer 31:34 No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Jer 31:35 Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for light by day and the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar-- the LORD of hosts is his name:

Jer 31:36 If this fixed order were ever to cease from my presence, says the LORD, then also the offspring of Israel would cease to be a nation before me forever.

Jer 31:37 Thus says the LORD: If the heavens above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth below can be explored, then I will reject all the offspring of Israel because of all they have done, says the LORD.

Jer 31:38 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when the city shall be rebuilt for the LORD from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

Jer 31:39 And the measuring line shall go out farther, straight to the hill Gareb, and shall then turn to Goah.

Jer 31:40 The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Wadi Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be sacred to the LORD. It shall never again be uprooted or overthrown.

Jer 32:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

Jer 32:2 At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah,

Jer 32:3 where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him. Zedekiah had said, "Why do you prophesy and say: Thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

Jer 32:4 King Zedekiah of Judah shall not escape out of the hands of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye;

Jer 32:5 and he shall take Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall remain until I attend to him, says the LORD; though you fight against the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed?"

Jer 32:6 Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me:

Jer 32:7 Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours."

Jer 32:8 Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

Jer 32:9 And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver.

Jer 32:10 I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales.

Jer 32:11 Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy;

Jer 32:12 and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard.

Jer 32:13 In their presence I charged Baruch, saying,

Jer 32:14 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time.

Jer 32:15 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Jer 32:16 After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying:

Jer 32:17 Ah Lord GOD! It is you who made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm! Nothing is too hard for you.

Jer 32:18 You show steadfast love to the thousandth generation, but repay the guilt of parents into the laps of their children after them, O great and mighty God whose name is the LORD of hosts, Jer 32:19 great in counsel and mighty in deed; whose eyes are open to all the ways of mortals, rewarding all according to their ways and according to the fruit of their doings.

Jer 32:20 You showed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and to this day in Israel and among all humankind, and have made yourself a name that continues to this very day.

Jer 32:21 You brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and outstretched arm, and with great terror;

Jer 32:22 and you gave them this land, which you swore to their ancestors to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

Jer 32:23 and they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey your voice or follow your law; of all you commanded them to do, they did nothing. Therefore you have made all these disasters come upon them.

Jer 32:24 See, the siege ramps have been cast up against the city to take it, and the city, faced with sword, famine, and pestilence, has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What you spoke has happened, as you yourself can see.

Jer 32:25 Yet you, O Lord GOD, have said to me, "Buy the field for money and get witnesses"-- though the city has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jer 32:26 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 32:27 See, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is anything too hard for me?

Jer 32:28 Therefore, thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hands of the Chaldeans and into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, and he shall take it.

Jer 32:29 The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city shall come, set it on fire, and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs offerings have been made to Baal and libations have been poured out to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Jer 32:30 For the people of Israel and the people of Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; the people of Israel have done nothing but provoke me to anger by the work of their hands, says the LORD.

Jer 32:31 This city has aroused my anger and wrath, from the day it was built until this day, so that I will remove it from my sight

Jer 32:32 because of all the evil of the people of Israel and the people of Judah that they did to provoke me to anger-- they, their kings and their officials, their priests and their prophets, the citizens of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jer 32:33 They have turned their backs to me, not their faces; though I have taught them persistently, they would not listen and accept correction.

Jer 32:34 They set up their abominations in the house that bears my name, and defiled it.

Jer 32:35 They built the high places of Baal in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to offer up their sons and daughters to Molech, though I did not command them, nor did it enter my mind that they should do this abomination, causing Judah to sin.

Jer 32:36 Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, "It is being given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence":

Jer 32:37 See, I am going to gather them from all the lands to which I drove them in my anger and my wrath and in great indignation; I will bring them back to this place, and I will settle them in safety.

Jer 32:38 They shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Jer 32:39 I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for all time, for their own good and the good of their children after them.

Jer 32:40 I will make an everlasting covenant with them, never to draw back from doing good to them; and I will put the fear of me in their hearts, so that they may not turn from me.

Jer 32:41 I will rejoice in doing good to them, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul.

Jer 32:42 For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great disaster upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good fortune that I now promise them.

Jer 32:43 Fields shall be bought in this land of which you are saying, It is a desolation, without human beings or animals; it has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jer 32:44 Fields shall be bought for money, and deeds shall be signed and sealed and witnessed, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, of the hill country, of the Shephelah, and of the Negeb; for I will restore their fortunes, says the LORD.

Jer 33:1 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still confined in the court of the guard:

Jer 33:2 Thus says the LORD who made the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it-- the LORD is his name:

Jer 33:3 Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known.

Jer 33:4 For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that were torn down to make a defense against the siege ramps and before the sword:

Jer 33:5 The Chaldeans are coming in to fight and to fill them with the dead bodies of those whom I shall strike down in my anger and my wrath, for I have hidden my face from this city because of all their wickedness.

Jer 33:6 I am going to bring it recovery and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security.

Jer 33:7 I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first.

Jer 33:8 I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me.

Jer 33:9 And this city shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them; they shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

Jer 33:10 Thus says the LORD: In this place of which you say, "It is a waste without human beings or animals," in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without inhabitants, human or animal, there shall once more be heard

Jer 33:11 the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: "Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!" For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

Jer 33:12 Thus says the LORD of hosts: In this place that is waste, without human beings or animals, and in all its towns there shall again be pasture for shepherds resting their flocks.

Jer 33:13 In the towns of the hill country, of the Shephelah, and of the Negeb, in the land of Benjamin, the places around Jerusalem, and in the towns of Judah, flocks shall again pass under the hands of the one who counts them, says the LORD.

Jer 33:14 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

Jer 33:15 In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jer 33:16 In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

Jer 33:17 For thus says the LORD: David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,

Jer 33:18 and the levitical priests shall never lack a man in my presence to offer burnt offerings, to make grain offerings, and to make sacrifices for all time.

Jer 33:19 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 33:20 Thus says the LORD: If any of you could break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night would not come at their appointed time,

Jer 33:21 only then could my covenant with my servant David be broken, so that he would not have a son to reign on his throne, and my covenant with my ministers the Levites.

Jer 33:22 Just as the host of heaven cannot be numbered and the sands of the sea cannot be measured, so I will increase the offspring of my servant David, and the Levites who minister to me.

Jer 33:23 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 33:24 Have you not observed how these people say, "The two families that the LORD chose have been rejected by him," and how they hold my people in such contempt that they no longer regard them as a nation?

Jer 33:25 Thus says the LORD: Only if I had not established my covenant with day and night and the ordinances of heaven and earth,

Jer 33:26 would I reject the offspring of Jacob and of my servant David and not choose any of his descendants as rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes, and will have mercy upon them.

Jer 34:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth and all the peoples under his dominion were fighting against Jerusalem and all its cities:

Jer 34:2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to King Zedekiah of Judah and say to him:

Thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

Jer 34:3 And you yourself shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be captured and handed over to him; you shall see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face; and you shall go to Babylon.

Jer 34:4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O King Zedekiah of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: You shall not die by the sword;

Jer 34:5 you shall die in peace. And as spices were burned for your ancestors, the earlier kings who preceded you, so they shall burn spices for you and lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have spoken the word, says the LORD.

Jer 34:6 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem,

Jer 34:7 when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left, Lachish and Azekah; for these were the only fortified cities of Judah that remained.

Jer 34:8 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to make a proclamation of liberty to them,

Jer 34:9 that all should set free their Hebrew slaves, male and female, so that no one should hold another Judean in slavery.

Jer 34:10 And they obeyed, all the officials and all the people who had entered into the covenant that all would set free their slaves, male or female, so that they would not be enslaved again; they obeyed and set them free.

Jer 34:11 But afterward they turned around and took back the male and female slaves they had set free, and brought them again into subjection as slaves.

Jer 34:12 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jer 34:13 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I myself made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying,

Jer 34:14 "Every seventh year each of you must set free any Hebrews who have been sold to you and have served you six years; you must set them free from your service." But your ancestors did not listen to me or incline their ears to me.

Jer 34:15 You yourselves recently repented and did what was right in my sight by proclaiming liberty to one another, and you made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name;

Jer 34:16 but then you turned around and profaned my name when each of you took back your male and female slaves, whom you had set free according to their desire, and you brought them again into subjection to be your slaves.

Jer 34:17 Therefore, thus says the LORD: You have not obeyed me by granting a release to your neighbors and friends; I am going to grant a release to you, says the LORD-- a release to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine. I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Jer 34:18 And those who transgressed my covenant and did not keep the terms of the covenant that they made before me, I will make like the calf when they cut it in two and passed between its parts:

Jer 34:19 the officials of Judah, the officials of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf

Jer 34:20 shall be handed over to their enemies and to those who seek their lives. Their corpses shall become food for the birds of the air and the wild animals of the earth.

Jer 34:21 And as for King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials, I will hand them over to their enemies and to those who seek their lives, to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you.

Jer 34:22 I am going to command, says the LORD, and will bring them back to this city; and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. The towns of Judah I will make a desolation without inhabitant.

Jer 35:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah:

Jer 35:2 Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak with them, and bring them to the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers; then offer them wine to drink.

Jer 35:3 So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

Jer 35:4 I brought them to the house of the LORD into the chamber of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was near the chamber of the officials, above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum, keeper of the threshold.

Jer 35:5 Then I set before the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Have some wine."

Jer 35:6 But they answered, "We will drink no wine, for our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab commanded us, 'You shall never drink wine, neither you nor your children;

Jer 35:7 nor shall you ever build a house, or sow seed; nor shall you plant a vineyard, or even own one; but you shall live in tents all your days, that you may live many days in the land where you reside.'

Jer 35:8 We have obeyed the charge of our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, ourselves, our wives, our sons, or our daughters,

Jer 35:9 and not to build houses to live in. We have no vineyard or field or seed;

Jer 35:10 but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed and done all that our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.

Jer 35:11 But when King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon came up against the land, we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and the army of the Arameans.' That is why we are living in Jerusalem."

Jer 35:12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 35:13 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Can you not learn a lesson and obey my words? says the LORD.

Jer 35:14 The command has been carried out that Jonadab son of Rechab gave to his descendants to drink no wine; and they drink none to this day, for they have obeyed their ancestor's command. But I myself have spoken to you persistently, and you have not obeyed me.

Jer 35:15 I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them persistently, saying, 'Turn now everyone of you from your evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall live in the land that I gave to you and your ancestors.' But you did not incline your ear or obey me.

Jer 35:16 The descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have carried out the command that their ancestor gave them, but this people has not obeyed me.

Jer 35:17 Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem every disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them and they have not listened, I have called to them and they have not answered.

Jer 35:18 But to the house of the Rechabites Jeremiah said: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab, and kept all his precepts, and done all that he commanded you,

Jer 35:19 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab son of Rechab shall not lack a descendant to stand before me for all time.

Jer 36:1 In the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jer 36:2 Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until today.

Jer 36:3 It may be that when the house of Judah hears of all the disasters that I intend to do to them, all of them may turn from their evil ways, so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

Jer 36:4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on a scroll at Jeremiah's dictation all the words of the LORD that he had spoken to him.

Jer 36:5 And Jeremiah ordered Baruch, saying, "I am prevented from entering the house of the LORD;

Jer 36:6 so you go yourself, and on a fast day in the hearing of the people in the LORD's house you shall read the words of the LORD from the scroll that you have written at my dictation. You shall read them also in the hearing of all the people of Judah who come up from their towns.

Jer 36:7 It may be that their plea will come before the LORD, and that all of them will turn from their evil ways, for great is the anger and wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

Jer 36:8 And Baruch son of Neriah did all that the prophet Jeremiah ordered him about reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

Jer 36:9 In the fifth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the towns of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD.

Jer 36:10 Then, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

Jer 36:11 When Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,

Jer 36:12 he went down to the king's house, into the secretary's chamber; and all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials.

Jer 36:13 And Micaiah told them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people.

Jer 36:14 Then all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cushi to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.

Jer 36:15 And they said to him, "Sit down and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.

Jer 36:16 When they heard all the words, they turned to one another in alarm, and said to Baruch, "We certainly must report all these words to the king."

Jer 36:17 Then they questioned Baruch, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words? Was it at his dictation?"

Jer 36:18 Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll."

Jer 36:19 Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no one know where you are."

Jer 36:20 Leaving the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the secretary, they went to the court of the king; and they reported all the words to the king.

Jer 36:21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the secretary; and Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials who stood beside the king.

Jer 36:22 Now the king was sitting in his winter apartment (it was the ninth month), and there was a fire burning in the brazier before him.

Jer 36:23 As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a penknife and throw them into the fire in the brazier, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.

Jer 36:24 Yet neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words, was alarmed, nor did they tear their garments.

Jer 36:25 Even when Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

Jer 36:26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son and Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest the secretary Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah. But the LORD hid them.

Jer 36:27 Now, after the king had burned the scroll with the words that Baruch wrote at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jer 36:28 Take another scroll and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which King Jehoiakim of Judah has burned.

Jer 36:29 And concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah you shall say: Thus says the LORD, You have dared to burn this scroll, saying, Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off from it human beings and animals?

Jer 36:30 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah: He shall have no one to sit upon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat by day and the frost by night.

Jer 36:31 And I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity; I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the people of Judah, all the disasters with which I have threatened them-- but they would not listen.

Jer 36:32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the secretary Baruch son of Neriah, who wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words of the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

Jer 37:1 Zedekiah son of Josiah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made king in the land of Judah, succeeded Coniah son of Jehoiakim.

Jer 37:2 But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD that he spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

Jer 37:3 King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to the prophet Jeremiah saying, "Please pray for us to the LORD our God."

Jer 37:4 Now Jeremiah was still going in and out among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.

Jer 37:5 Meanwhile, the army of Pharaoh had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

Jer 37:6 Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah:

Jer 37:7 Thus says the LORD, God of Israel: This is what the two of you shall say to the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me, Pharaoh's army, which set out to help you, is going to return to its own land, to Egypt.

Jer 37:8 And the Chaldeans shall return and fight against this city; they shall take it and burn it with fire.

Jer 37:9 Thus says the LORD: Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely go away from us," for they will not go away.

Jer 37:10 Even if you defeated the whole army of Chaldeans who are fighting against you, and there remained of them only wounded men in their tents, they would rise up and burn this city with fire.

Jer 37:11 Now when the Chaldean army had withdrawn from Jerusalem at the approach of Pharaoh's army,

Jer 37:12 Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to receive his share of property among the people there.

Jer 37:13 When he reached the Benjamin Gate, a sentinel there named Irijah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah arrested the prophet Jeremiah saying, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans."

Jer 37:14 And Jeremiah said, "That is a lie; I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah would not listen to him, and arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

Jer 37:15 The officials were enraged at Jeremiah, and they beat him and imprisoned him in the house of the secretary Jonathan, for it had been made a prison.

Jer 37:16 Thus Jeremiah was put in the cistern house, in the cells, and remained there many days.

Jer 37:17 Then King Zedekiah sent for him, and received him. The king questioned him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" Jeremiah said, "There is!" Then he said, "You shall be handed over to the king of Babylon."

Jer 37:18 Jeremiah also said to King Zedekiah, "What wrong have I done to you or your servants or this people, that you have put me in prison?"

Jer 37:19 Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you and against this land'?"

Jer 37:20 Now please hear me, my lord king: be good enough to listen to my plea, and do not send me back to the house of the secretary Jonathan to die there."

Jer 37:21 So King Zedekiah gave orders, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard; and a loaf of bread was given him daily from the bakers' street, until all the bread of the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Jer 38:1 Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah was saying to all the people,

Jer 38:2 Thus says the LORD, Those who stay in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but those who go out to the Chaldeans shall live; they shall have their lives as a prize of war, and live.

Jer 38:3 Thus says the LORD, This city shall surely be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon and be taken.

Jer 38:4 Then the officials said to the king, "This man ought to be put to death, because he is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, and all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm."

Jer 38:5 King Zedekiah said, "Here he is; he is in your hands; for the king is powerless against you."

Jer 38:6 So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guard, letting Jeremiah down by ropes. Now there was no water in the cistern, but only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

Jer 38:7 Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. The king happened to be sitting at the Benjamin Gate,

Jer 38:8 So Ebed-melech left the king's house and spoke to the king,

Jer 38:9 "My lord king, these men have acted wickedly in all they did to the prophet Jeremiah by throwing him into the cistern to die there of hunger, for there is no bread left in the city."

Jer 38:10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, "Take three men with you from here, and pull the prophet Jeremiah up from the cistern before he dies."

Jer 38:11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went to the house of the king, to a wardrobe of the storehouse, and took from there old rags and worn-out clothes, which he let down to Jeremiah in the cistern by ropes.

Jer 38:12 Then Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Just put the rags and clothes between your armpits and the ropes." Jeremiah did so.

Jer 38:13 Then they drew Jeremiah up by the ropes and pulled him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Jer 38:14 King Zedekiah sent for the prophet Jeremiah and received him at the third entrance of the temple of the LORD. The king said to Jeremiah, "I have something to ask you; do not hide anything from me."

Jer 38:15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell you, you will put me to death, will you not? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

Jer 38:16 So King Zedekiah swore an oath in secret to Jeremiah, "As the LORD lives, who gave us our lives, I will not put you to death or hand you over to these men who seek your life."

Jer 38:17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If you will only surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then your life shall be spared, and this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.

Jer 38:18 But if you do not surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city shall be handed over to the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand."

Jer 38:19 King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Judeans who have deserted to the Chaldeans, for I might be handed over to them and they would abuse me."

Jer 38:20 Jeremiah said, "That will not happen. Just obey the voice of the LORD in what I say to you, and it shall go well with you, and your life shall be spared.

Jer 38:21 But if you are determined not to surrender, this is what the LORD has shown me--

Jer 38:22 a vision of all the women remaining in the house of the king of Judah being led out to the officials of the king of Babylon and saying, 'Your trusted friends have seduced you and have overcome you; Now that your feet are stuck in the mud, they desert you.'

Jer 38:23 All your wives and your children shall be led out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand, but shall be seized by the king of Babylon; and this city shall be burned with fire."

Jer 38:24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not let anyone else know of this conversation, or you will die.

Jer 38:25 If the officials should hear that I have spoken with you, and they should come and say to you, 'Just tell us what you said to the king; do not conceal it from us, or we will put you to death. What did the king say to you?'

Jer 38:26 then you shall say to them, 'I was presenting my plea to the king not to send me back to the house of Jonathan to die there.'"

Jer 38:27 All the officials did come to Jeremiah and questioned him; and he answered them in the very words the king had commanded. So they stopped questioning him, for the conversation had not been overheard.

Jer 38:28 And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

Jer 39:1 In the ninth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it;

Jer 39:2 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city.

Jer 39:3 When Jerusalem was taken, all the officials of the king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate: Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon.

Jer 39:4 When King Zedekiah of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled, going out of the city at night by way of the king's garden through the gate between the two walls; and they went toward the Arabah.

Jer 39:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and when they had taken him, they brought him up to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, at Riblah, in the land of Hamath; and he passed sentence on him.

Jer 39:6 The king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah at Riblah before his eyes; also the king of Babylon slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.

Jer 39:7 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters to take him to Babylon.

Jer 39:8 The Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

Jer 39:9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard exiled to Babylon the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to him, and the people who remained.

Jer 39:10 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jer 39:11 King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, saying,

Jer 39:12 "Take him, look after him well and do him no harm, but deal with him as he may ask you."

Jer 39:13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon sent Jer 39:14 and took Jeremiah from the court of the guard. They entrusted him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan to be brought home. So he stayed with his own people.

Jer 39:15 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was confined in the court of the guard:

Jer 39:16 Go and say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to fulfill my words against this city for evil and not for good, and they shall be accomplished in your presence on that day.

Jer 39:17 But I will save you on that day, says the LORD, and you shall not be handed over to those whom you dread.

Jer 39:18 For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but you shall have your life as a prize of war, because you have trusted in me, says the LORD.

Jer 40:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he took him bound in fetters along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon.

Jer 40:2 The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God threatened this place with this disaster;

Jer 40:3 and now the LORD has brought it about, and has done as he said, because all of you sinned against the LORD and did not obey his voice. Therefore this thing has come upon you.

Jer 40:4 Now look, I have just released you today from the fetters on your hands. If you wish to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take good care of you; but if you do not wish to come with me to Babylon, you need not come. See, the whole land is before you; go wherever you think it good and right to go.

Jer 40:5 If you remain, then return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed governor of the towns of Judah, and stay with him among the people; or go wherever you think it right to go." So the captain of the guard gave him an allowance of food and a present, and let him go.

Jer 40:6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

Jer 40:7 When all the leaders of the forces in the open country and their troops heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been taken into exile to Babylon,

Jer 40:8 they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah-- Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, Jezaniah son of the Maacathite, they and their troops.

Jer 40:9 Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan swore to them and their troops, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Stay in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall go well with you.

Jer 40:10 As for me, I am staying at Mizpah to represent you before the Chaldeans who come to us; but as for you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and store them in your vessels, and live in the towns that you have taken over."

Jer 40:11 Likewise, when all the Judeans who were in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in other lands heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan as governor over them,

Jer 40:12 then all the Judeans returned from all the places to which they had been scattered and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah; and they gathered wine and summer fruits in great abundance.

Jer 40:13 Now Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces in the open country came to Gedaliah at

Mizpah

Jer 40:14 and said to him, "Are you at all aware that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them.

Jer 40:15 Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah at Mizpah, "Please let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one else will know. Why should he take your life, so that all the Judeans who are gathered around you would be scattered, and the remnant of Judah would perish?"

Jer 40:16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Do not do such a thing, for you are telling a lie about Ishmael."

Jer 41:1 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, of the royal family, one of the chief officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. As they ate bread together there at Mizpah, Jer 41:2 Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan with the sword and killed him, because the king of Babylon had appointed him governor in the land.

Jer 41:3 Ishmael also killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldean soldiers who happened to be there.

Jer 41:4 On the day after the murder of Gedaliah, before anyone knew of it,

Jer 41:5 eighty men arrived from Shechem and Shiloh and Samaria, with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and their bodies gashed, bringing grain offerings and incense to present at the temple of the LORD.

Jer 41:6 And Ishmael son of Nethaniah came out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he came. As he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam."

Jer 41:7 When they reached the middle of the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them, and threw them into a cistern.

Jer 41:8 But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have stores of wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the fields." So he refrained, and did not kill them along with their companions.

Jer 41:9 Now the cistern into which Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men whom he had struck down was the large cistern that King Asa had made for defense against King Baasha of Israel; Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled that cistern with those whom he had killed.

Jer 41:10 Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who were left at Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had committed to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

Jer 41:11 But when Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him heard of all the crimes that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done,

Jer 41:12 they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They came upon him at the great pool that is in Gibeon.

Jer 41:13 And when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him, they were glad.

Jer 41:14 So all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan son of Kareah.

Jer 41:15 But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

Jer 41:16 Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him took all the rest of the people whom Ishmael son of Nethaniah had carried away captive from Mizpah after he had slain Gedaliah son of Ahikam-- soldiers, women, children, and eunuchs, whom Johanan brought back from Gibeon.

Jer 41:17 And they set out, and stopped at Geruth Chimham near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt

Jer 41:18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

Jer 42:1 Then all the commanders of the forces, and Johanan son of Kareah and Azariah son of Hoshai, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached Jer 42:2 the prophet Jeremiah and said, "Be good enough to listen to our plea, and pray to the LORD your God for us-- for all this remnant. For there are only a few of us left out of many, as your eyes can see.

Jer 42:3 Let the LORD your God show us where we should go and what we should do."

Jer 42:4 The prophet Jeremiah said to them, "Very well: I am going to pray to the LORD your God as you request, and whatever the LORD answers you I will tell you; I will keep nothing back from you."

Jer 42:5 They in their turn said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to everything that the LORD your God sends us through you.

Jer 42:6 Whether it is good or bad, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, in order that it may go well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

Jer 42:7 At the end of ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

Jer 42:8 Then he summoned Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest,

Jer 42:9 and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your plea before him:

Jer 42:10 If you will only remain in this land, then I will build you up and not pull you down; I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I am sorry for the disaster that I have brought upon you.

Jer 42:11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, as you have been; do not be afraid of him, says the LORD, for I am with you, to save you and to rescue you from his hand.

Jer 42:12 I will grant you mercy, and he will have mercy on you and restore you to your native soil.

Jer 42:13 But if you continue to say, 'We will not stay in this land,' thus disobeying the voice of the LORD your God

Jer 42:14 and saying, 'No, we will go to the land of Egypt, where we shall not see war, or hear the sound of the trumpet, or be hungry for bread, and there we will stay,'

Jer 42:15 then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you are determined to enter Egypt and go to settle there, Jer 42:16 then the sword that you fear shall overtake you there, in the land of Egypt; and the famine that you dread shall follow close after you into Egypt; and there you shall die.

Jer 42:17 All the people who have determined to go to Egypt to settle there shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; they shall have no remnant or survivor from the disaster that I am bringing upon them.

Jer 42:18 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Just as my anger and my wrath were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You shall become an object of execration and horror, of cursing and ridicule. You shall see this place no more.

Jer 42:19 The LORD has said to you, O remnant of Judah, Do not go to Egypt. Be well aware that I have warned you today

Jer 42:20 that you have made a fatal mistake. For you yourselves sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and whatever the LORD our God says, tell us and we will do it.'

Jer 42:21 So I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything that he sent me to tell you.

Jer 42:22 Be well aware, then, that you shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go and settle."

Jer 43:1 When Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all these words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them,

Jer 43:2 Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the other insolent men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling a lie. The LORD our God did not send you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to settle there';

Jer 43:3 but Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us, to hand us over to the Chaldeans, in order that they may kill us or take us into exile in Babylon."

Jer 43:4 So Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD, to stay in the land of Judah.

Jer 43:5 But Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to settle in the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been driven--

Jer 43:6 the men, the women, the children, the princesses, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan; also the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch son of Neriah.

Jer 43:7 And they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they arrived at Tahpanhes.

Jer 43:8 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes:

Jer 43:9 Take some large stones in your hands, and bury them in the clay pavement that is at the entrance to Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes. Let the Judeans see you do it,

Jer 43:10 and say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to send and take my servant King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, and he will set his throne above these stones that I have buried, and he will spread his royal canopy over them.

Jer 43:11 He shall come and ravage the land of Egypt, giving those who are destined for pestilence, to pestilence, and those who are destined for captivity, to captivity, and those who are destined for the sword, to the sword.

Jer 43:12 He shall kindle a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them and carry them away captive; and he shall pick clean the land of Egypt, as a shepherd picks his cloak clean of vermin; and he shall depart from there safely.

Jer 43:13 He shall break the obelisks of Heliopolis, which is in the land of Egypt; and the temples of the gods of Egypt he shall burn with fire.

Jer 44:1 The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Judeans living in the land of Egypt, at Migdol, at

Tahpanhes, at Memphis, and in the land of Pathros,

Jer 44:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You yourselves have seen all the disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Look at them; today they are a desolation, without an inhabitant in them,

Jer 44:3 because of the wickedness that they committed, provoking me to anger, in that they went to make offerings and serve other gods that they had not known, neither they, nor you, nor your ancestors.

Jer 44:4 Yet I persistently sent to you all my servants the prophets, saying, "I beg you not to do this abominable thing that I hate!"

Jer 44:5 But they did not listen or incline their ear, to turn from their wickedness and make no offerings to other gods.

Jer 44:6 So my wrath and my anger were poured out and kindled in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they became a waste and a desolation, as they still are today.

Jer 44:7 And now thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves, to cut off man and woman, child and infant, from the midst of Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant?

Jer 44:8 Why do you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, making offerings to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have come to settle? Will you be cut off and become an object of cursing and ridicule among all the nations of the earth?

Jer 44:9 Have you forgotten the crimes of your ancestors, of the kings of Judah, of their wives, your own crimes and those of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jer 44:10 They have shown no contrition or fear to this day, nor have they walked in my law and my statutes that I set before you and before your ancestors.

Jer 44:11 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am determined to bring disaster on you, to bring all Judah to an end.

Jer 44:12 I will take the remnant of Judah who are determined to come to the land of Egypt to settle, and they shall perish, everyone; in the land of Egypt they shall fall; by the sword and by famine they shall perish; from the least to the greatest, they shall die by the sword and by famine; and they shall become an object of execration and horror, of cursing and ridicule.

Jer 44:13 I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence,

Jer 44:14 so that none of the remnant of Judah who have come to settle in the land of Egypt shall escape or survive or return to the land of Judah. Although they long to go back to live there, they shall not go back, except some fugitives.

Jer 44:15 Then all the men who were aware that their wives had been making offerings to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, all the people who lived in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah:

Jer 44:16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we are not going to listen to you.

Jer 44:17 Instead, we will do everything that we have vowed, make offerings to the queen of heaven and pour out libations to her, just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials, used to do in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. We used to have plenty of food, and prospered, and saw no misfortune.

Jer 44:18 But from the time we stopped making offerings to the queen of heaven and pouring out libations to her, we have lacked everything and have perished by the sword and by famine."

Jer 44:19 And the women said, "Indeed we will go on making offerings to the queen of heaven and pouring out libations to her; do you think that we made cakes for her, marked with her image, and poured out libations to her without our husbands' being involved?"

Jer 44:20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, men and women, all the people who were giving him this answer:

Jer 44:21 "As for the offerings that you made in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your ancestors, your kings and your officials, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them? Did it not come into his mind?

Jer 44:22 The LORD could no longer bear the sight of your evil doings, the abominations that you committed; therefore your land became a desolation and a waste and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is to this day.

Jer 44:23 It is because you burned offerings, and because you sinned against the LORD and did not obey the voice of the LORD or walk in his law and in his statutes and in his decrees, that this disaster has befallen you, as is still evident today."

Jer 44:24 Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who are in the land of Egypt,

Jer 44:25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have accomplished in deeds what you declared in words, saying, 'We are determined to perform the vows that we have made, to make offerings to the queen of heaven and to pour out libations to her.' By all means, keep your vows and make your libations!

Jer 44:26 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who live in the land of Egypt: Lo, I swear by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no longer be pronounced on the lips of any of the people of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'As the Lord GOD lives.'

Jer 44:27 I am going to watch over them for harm and not for good; all the people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall perish by the sword and by famine, until not one is left.

Jer 44:28 And those who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have come to the land of Egypt to settle, shall know whose words will stand, mine or theirs!

Jer 44:29 This shall be the sign to you, says the LORD, that I am going to punish you in this place, in order that you may know that my words against you will surely be carried out:

Jer 44:30 Thus says the LORD, I am going to give Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, into the hands of his enemies, those who seek his life, just as I gave King Zedekiah of Judah into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life."

Jer 45:1 The word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah:

Jer 45:2 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:

Jer 45:3 You said, "Woe is me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest."

Jer 45:4 Thus you shall say to him, "Thus says the LORD: I am going to break down what I have built, and pluck up what I have planted-- that is, the whole land.

Jer 45:5 And you, do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for I am going to bring disaster upon all flesh, says the LORD; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in every place to which you may go."

Jer 46:1 The word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the nations.

Jer 46:2 Concerning Egypt, about the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish and which King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah:

Jer 46:3 Prepare buckler and shield, and advance for battle!

Jer 46:4 Harness the horses; mount the steeds! Take your stations with your helmets, whet your lances, put on your coats of mail!

Jer 46:5 Why do I see them terrified? They have fallen back; their warriors are beaten down, and have fled in haste. They do not look back-- terror is all around! says the LORD.

Jer 46:6 The swift cannot flee away, nor can the warrior escape; in the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen.

Jer 46:7 Who is this, rising like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge?

Jer 46:8 Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge. It said, Let me rise, let me cover the earth, let me destroy cities and their inhabitants.

Jer 46:9 Advance, O horses, and dash madly, O chariots! Let the warriors go forth: Ethiopia and Put who carry the shield, the Ludim, who draw the bow.

Jer 46:10 That day is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of retribution, to gain vindication from his foes. The sword shall devour and be sated, and drink its fill of their blood. For the Lord GOD of hosts holds a sacrifice in the land of the north by the river Euphrates.

Jer 46:11 Go up to Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter Egypt! In vain you have used many medicines; there is no healing for you.

Jer 46:12 The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for warrior has stumbled against warrior; both have fallen together.

Jer 46:13 The word that the LORD spoke to the prophet Jeremiah about the coming of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon to attack the land of Egypt:

Jer 46:14 Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol; proclaim in Memphis and Tahpanhes; Say, "Take your stations and be ready, for the sword shall devour those around you."

Jer 46:15 Why has Apis fled? Why did your bull not stand?-- because the LORD thrust him down.

Jer 46:16 Your multitude stumbled and fell, and one said to another, "Come, let us go back to our own people and to the land of our birth, because of the destroying sword."

Jer 46:17 Give Pharaoh, king of Egypt, the name "Braggart who missed his chance."

Jer 46:18 As I live, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, one is coming like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea.

Jer 46:19 Pack your bags for exile, sheltered daughter Egypt! For Memphis shall become a waste, a ruin, without inhabitant.

Jer 46:20 A beautiful heifer is Egypt-- a gadfly from the north lights upon her.

Jer 46:21 Even her mercenaries in her midst are like fatted calves; they too have turned and fled together, they did not stand; for the day of their calamity has come upon them, the time of their punishment.

Jer 46:22 She makes a sound like a snake gliding away; for her enemies march in force, and come against her with axes, like those who fell trees.

Jer 46:23 They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it is impenetrable, because they are more numerous than locusts; they are without number.

Jer 46:24 Daughter Egypt shall be put to shame; she shall be handed over to a people from the north.

Jer 46:25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, said: See, I am bringing punishment upon Amon of Thebes, and Pharaoh, and Egypt and her gods and her kings, upon Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

Jer 46:26 I will hand them over to those who seek their life, to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and his officers. Afterward Egypt shall be inhabited as in the days of old, says the LORD.

Jer 46:27 But as for you, have no fear, my servant Jacob, and do not be dismayed, O Israel; for I am going to save you from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and no one shall make him afraid.

Jer 46:28 As for you, have no fear, my servant Jacob, says the LORD, for I am with you. I will make an end of all the nations among which I have banished you, but I will not make an end of you! I will chastise you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

Jer 47:1 The word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

Jer 47:2 Thus says the LORD: See, waters are rising out of the north and shall become an overflowing torrent; they shall overflow the land and all that fills it, the city and those who live in it. People shall cry out, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.

Jer 47:3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his stallions, at the clatter of his chariots, at the rumbling of their wheels, parents do not turn back for children, so feeble are their hands,

Jer 47:4 because of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper that remains. For the LORD is destroying the Philistines, the remnant of the coastland of Caphtor.

Jer 47:5 Baldness has come upon Gaza, Ashkelon is silenced. O remnant of their power! How long will you gash yourselves?

Jer 47:6 Ah, sword of the LORD! How long until you are quiet? Put yourself into your scabbard, rest and be still!

Jer 47:7 How can it be quiet, when the LORD has given it an order? Against Ashkelon and against the seashore-- there he has appointed it.

Jer 48:1 Concerning Moab. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Alas for Nebo, it is laid waste! Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken; the fortress is put to shame and broken down;

Jer 48:2 the renown of Moab is no more. In Heshbon they planned evil against her: "Come, let us cut her off from being a nation!" You also, O Madmen, shall be brought to silence; the sword shall pursue you.

Jer 48:3 Hark! a cry from Horonaim, "Desolation and great destruction!"

Jer 48:4 "Moab is destroyed!" her little ones cry out.

Jer 48:5 For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping bitterly; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distressing cry of anguish.

Jer 48:6 Flee! Save yourselves! Be like a wild ass in the desert!

Jer 48:7 Surely, because you trusted in your strongholds and your treasures, you also shall be taken; Chemosh shall go out into exile, with his priests and his attendants.

Jer 48:8 The destroyer shall come upon every town, and no town shall escape; the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD has spoken.

Jer 48:9 Set aside salt for Moab, for she will surely fall; her towns shall become a desolation, with no inhabitant in them.

Jer 48:10 Accursed is the one who is slack in doing the work of the LORD; and accursed is the one who keeps back the sword from bloodshed.

Jer 48:11 Moab has been at ease from his youth, settled like wine on its dregs; he has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, nor has he gone into exile; therefore his flavor has remained and his aroma is unspoiled.

Jer 48:12 Therefore, the time is surely coming, says the LORD, when I shall send to him decanters to decant him, and empty his vessels, and break his jars in pieces.

Jer 48:13 Then Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

Jer 48:14 How can you say, "We are heroes and mighty warriors"?

Jer 48:15 The destroyer of Moab and his towns has come up, and the choicest of his young men have gone down to slaughter, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Jer 48:16 The calamity of Moab is near at hand and his doom approaches swiftly.

Jer 48:17 Mourn over him, all you his neighbors, and all who know his name; say, "How the mighty scepter is broken, the glorious staff!"

Jer 48:18 Come down from glory, and sit on the parched ground, enthroned daughter Dibon! For the destroyer of Moab has come up against you; he has destroyed your strongholds.

Jer 48:19 Stand by the road and watch, you inhabitant of Aroer! Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping; say, "What has happened?"

Jer 48:20 Moab is put to shame, for it is broken down; wail and cry! Tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

Jer 48:21 Judgment has come upon the tableland, upon Holon, and Jahzah, and Mephaath,

Jer 48:22 and Dibon, and Nebo, and Beth-diblathaim,

Jer 48:23 and Kiriathaim, and Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon,

Jer 48:24 and Kerioth, and Bozrah, and all the towns of the land of Moab, far and near.

Jer 48:25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD.

Jer 48:26 Make him drunk, because he magnified himself against the LORD; let Moab wallow in his vomit; he too shall become a laughingstock.

Jer 48:27 Israel was a laughingstock for you, though he was not caught among thieves; but whenever you spoke of him you shook your head!

Jer 48:28 Leave the towns, and live on the rock, O inhabitants of Moab! Be like the dove that nests on the sides of the mouth of a gorge.

Jer 48:29 We have heard of the pride of Moab-- he is very proud-- of his loftiness, his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart.

Jer 48:30 I myself know his insolence, says the LORD; his boasts are false, his deeds are false.

Jer 48:31 Therefore I wail for Moab; I cry out for all Moab; for the people of Kir-heres I mourn.

Jer 48:32 More than for Jazer I weep for you, O vine of Sibmah! Your branches crossed over the sea, reached as far as Jazer; upon your summer fruits and your vintage the destroyer has fallen.

Jer 48:33 Gladness and joy have been taken away from the fruitful land of Moab; I have stopped the wine from the wine presses; no one treads them with shouts of joy; the shouting is not the shout of joy.

Jer 48:34 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out; as far as Jahaz they utter their voice, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah. For even the waters of Nimrim have become desolate.

Jer 48:35 And I will bring to an end in Moab, says the LORD, those who offer sacrifice at a high place and make offerings to their gods.

Jer 48:36 Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a flute, and my heart moans like a flute for the people of Kir-heres; for the riches they gained have perished.

Jer 48:37 For every head is shaved and every beard cut off; on all the hands there are gashes, and on the loins sackcloth.

Jer 48:38 On all the housetops of Moab and in the squares there is nothing but lamentation; for I have broken Moab like a vessel that no one wants, says the LORD.

Jer 48:39 How it is broken! How they wail! How Moab has turned his back in shame! So Moab has become a derision and a horror to all his neighbors.

Jer 48:40 For thus says the LORD: Look, he shall swoop down like an eagle, and spread his wings against Moab;

Jer 48:41 the towns shall be taken and the strongholds seized. The hearts of the warriors of Moab, on that day, shall be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Jer 48:42 Moab shall be destroyed as a people, because he magnified himself against the LORD.

Jer 48:43 Terror, pit, and trap are before you, O inhabitants of Moab! says the LORD.

Jer 48:44 Everyone who flees from the terror shall fall into the pit, and everyone who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the trap. For I will bring these things upon Moab in the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

Jer 48:45 In the shadow of Heshbon fugitives stop exhausted; for a fire has gone out from Heshbon, a flame from the house of Sihon; it has destroyed the forehead of Moab, the scalp of the people of tumult.

Jer 48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh have perished, for your sons have been taken captive, and your daughters into captivity.

Jer 48:47 Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD. Thus far is the judgment on Moab.

Jer 49:1 Concerning the Ammonites. Thus says the LORD: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad, and his people settled in its towns?

Jer 49:2 Therefore, the time is surely coming, says the LORD, when I will sound the battle alarm against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it shall become a desolate mound, and its villages shall be burned with fire; then Israel shall dispossess those who dispossessed him, says the LORD.

Jer 49:3 Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth, lament, and slash yourselves with whips! For Milcom shall go into exile, with his priests and his attendants.

Jer 49:4 Why do you boast in your strength? Your strength is ebbing, O faithless daughter. You trusted in your treasures, saying, "Who will attack me?"

Jer 49:5 I am going to bring terror upon you, says the Lord GOD of hosts, from all your neighbors, and you will be scattered, each headlong, with no one to gather the fugitives.

Jer 49:6 But afterward I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites, says the LORD.

Jer 49:7 Concerning Edom. Thus says the LORD of hosts: Is there no longer wisdom in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished?

Jer 49:8 Flee, turn back, get down low, inhabitants of Dedan! For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time when I punish him.

Jer 49:9 If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? If thieves came by night, even they would pillage only what they wanted.

Jer 49:10 But as for me, I have stripped Esau bare, I have uncovered his hiding places, and he is not able to conceal himself. His offspring are destroyed, his kinsfolk and his neighbors; and he is no more.

Jer 49:11 Leave your orphans, I will keep them alive; and let your widows trust in me.

Jer 49:12 For thus says the LORD: If those who do not deserve to drink the cup still have to drink it, shall you be the one to go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished; you must drink it.

Jer 49:13 For by myself I have sworn, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become an object of horror and ridicule, a waste, and an object of cursing; and all her towns shall be perpetual wastes.

Jer 49:14 I have heard tidings from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: "Gather yourselves together and come against her, and rise up for battle!"

Jer 49:15 For I will make you least among the nations, despised by humankind.

Jer 49:16 The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Although you make your nest as high as the eagle's, from there I will bring you down, says the LORD.

Jer 49:17 Edom shall become an object of horror; everyone who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters.

Jer 49:18 As when Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors were overthrown, says the LORD, no one shall live there, nor shall anyone settle in it.

Jer 49:19 Like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan against a perennial pasture, I will suddenly chase Edom away from it; and I will appoint over it whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who can summon me? Who is the shepherd who can stand before me?

Jer 49:20 Therefore hear the plan that the LORD has made against Edom and the purposes that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the little ones of the flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

Jer 49:21 At the sound of their fall the earth shall tremble; the sound of their cry shall be heard at the Red Sea.

Jer 49:22 Look, he shall mount up and swoop down like an eagle, and spread his wings against Bozrah, and the heart of the warriors of Edom in that day shall be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Jer 49:23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath and Arpad are confounded, for they have heard bad news; they melt in fear, they are troubled like the sea that cannot be quiet.

Jer 49:24 Damascus has become feeble, she turned to flee, and panic seized her; anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in labor.

Jer 49:25 How the famous city is forsaken, the joyful town!

Jer 49:26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed in that day, says the LORD of hosts.

Jer 49:27 And I will kindle a fire at the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-hadad.

Jer 49:28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated. Thus says the LORD: Rise up, advance against Kedar! Destroy the people of the east!

Jer 49:29 Take their tents and their flocks, their curtains and all their goods; carry off their camels for yourselves, and a cry shall go up: "Terror is all around!"

Jer 49:30 Flee, wander far away, hide in deep places, O inhabitants of Hazor! says the LORD. For King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has made a plan against you and formed a purpose against you.

Jer 49:31 Rise up, advance against a nation at ease, that lives secure, says the LORD, that has no gates or bars, that lives alone.

Jer 49:32 Their camels shall become booty, their herds of cattle a spoil. I will scatter to every wind those who have shaven temples, and I will bring calamity against them from every side, says the LORD.

Jer 49:33 Hazor shall become a lair of jackals, an everlasting waste; no one shall live there, nor shall anyone settle in it.

Jer 49:34 The word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning Elam, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah.

Jer 49:35 Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am going to break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might;

Jer 49:36 and I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven; and I will scatter them to all these winds, and there shall be no nation to which the exiles from Elam shall not come.

Jer 49:37 I will terrify Elam before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; I will bring disaster upon them, my fierce anger, says the LORD. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them;

Jer 49:38 and I will set my throne in Elam, and destroy their king and officials, says the LORD.

Jer 49:39 But in the latter days I will restore the fortunes of Elam, says the LORD.

Jer 50:1 The word that the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by the prophet Jeremiah:

Jer 50:2 Declare among the nations and proclaim, set up a banner and proclaim, do not conceal it, say: Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is dismayed. Her images are put to shame, her idols are dismayed.

Jer 50:3 For out of the north a nation has come up against her; it shall make her land a desolation, and no one shall live in it; both human beings and animals shall flee away.

Jer 50:4 In those days and in that time, says the LORD, the people of Israel shall come, they and the people of Judah together; they shall come weeping as they seek the LORD their God.

Jer 50:5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with faces turned toward it, and they shall come and join themselves to the LORD by an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

Jer 50:6 My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains; from mountain to hill they have gone, they have forgotten their fold.

Jer 50:7 All who found them have devoured them, and their enemies have said, "We are not guilty, because they have sinned against the LORD, the true pasture, the LORD, the hope of their ancestors."

Jer 50:8 Flee from Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be like male goats leading the flock.

Jer 50:9 For I am going to stir up and bring against Babylon a company of great nations from the land of the north; and they shall array themselves against her; from there she shall be taken. Their arrows are like the arrows of a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.

Jer 50:10 Chaldea shall be plundered; all who plunder her shall be sated, says the LORD.

Jer 50:11 Though you rejoice, though you exult, O plunderers of my heritage, though you frisk about like a heifer on the grass, and neigh like stallions,

Jer 50:12 your mother shall be utterly shamed, and she who bore you shall be disgraced. Lo, she shall be the last of the nations, a wilderness, dry land, and a desert.

Jer 50:13 Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited, but shall be an utter desolation; everyone who passes by Babylon shall be appalled and hiss because of all her wounds.

Jer 50:14 Take up your positions around Babylon, all you that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

Jer 50:15 Raise a shout against her from all sides, "She has surrendered; her bulwarks have fallen, her walls are thrown down." For this is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance on her, do to her as she has done.

Jer 50:16 Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the wielder of the sickle in time of harvest; because of the destroying sword all of them shall return to their own people, and all of them shall flee to their own land.

Jer 50:17 Israel is a hunted sheep driven away by lions. First the king of Assyria devoured it, and now at the end King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has gnawed its bones.

Jer 50:18 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I punished the king of Assyria.

Jer 50:19 I will restore Israel to its pasture, and it shall feed on Carmel and in Bashan, and on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead its hunger shall be satisfied.

Jer 50:20 In those days and at that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and none shall be found; for I will pardon the remnant that I have spared.

Jer 50:21 Go up to the land of Merathaim; go up against her, and attack the inhabitants of Pekod and utterly destroy the last of them, says the LORD; do all that I have commanded you.

Jer 50:22 The noise of battle is in the land, and great destruction!

Jer 50:23 How the hammer of the whole earth is cut down and broken! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

Jer 50:24 You set a snare for yourself and you were caught, O Babylon, but you did not know it; you were discovered and seized, because you challenged the LORD.

Jer 50:25 The LORD has opened his armory, and brought out the weapons of his wrath, for the Lord GOD of hosts has a task to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

Jer 50:26 Come against her from every quarter; open her granaries; pile her up like heaps of grain, and destroy her utterly; let nothing be left of her.

Jer 50:27 Kill all her bulls, let them go down to the slaughter. Alas for them, their day has come, the time of their punishment!

Jer 50:28 Listen! Fugitives and refugees from the land of Babylon are coming to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, vengeance for his temple.

Jer 50:29 Summon archers against Babylon, all who bend the bow. Encamp all around her; let no one escape. Repay her according to her deeds; just as she has done, do to her-- for she has arrogantly defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Jer 50:30 Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed on that day, says the LORD.

Jer 50:31 I am against you, O arrogant one, says the Lord GOD of hosts; for your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

Jer 50:32 The arrogant one shall stumble and fall, with no one to raise him up, and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour everything around him.

Jer 50:33 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The people of Israel are oppressed, and so too are the people of Judah; all their captors have held them fast and refuse to let them go.

Jer 50:34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name. He will surely plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, but unrest to the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jer 50:35 A sword against the Chaldeans, says the LORD, and against the inhabitants of Babylon, and against her officials and her sages!

Jer 50:36 A sword against the diviners, so that they may become fools! A sword against her warriors, so that they may be destroyed!

Jer 50:37 A sword against her horses and against her chariots, and against all the foreign troops in her midst, so that they may become women! A sword against all her treasures, that they may be plundered!

Jer 50:38 A drought against her waters, that they may be dried up! For it is a land of images, and they go mad over idols.

Jer 50:39 Therefore wild animals shall live with hyenas in Babylon, and ostriches shall inhabit her; she shall never again be peopled, or inhabited for all generations.

Jer 50:40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors, says the LORD, so no one shall live there, nor shall anyone settle in her.

Jer 50:41 Look, a people is coming from the north; a mighty nation and many kings are stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

Jer 50:42 They wield bow and spear, they are cruel and have no mercy. The sound of them is like the roaring sea; they ride upon horses, set in array as a warrior for battle, against you, O daughter Babylon!

Jer 50:43 The king of Babylon heard news of them, and his hands fell helpless; anguish seized him, pain like that of a woman in labor.

Jer 50:44 Like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan against a perennial pasture, I will suddenly chase them away from her; and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who can summon me? Who is the shepherd who can stand before me?

Jer 50:45 Therefore hear the plan that the LORD has made against Babylon, and the purposes that he has formed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the little ones of the flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

Jer 50:46 At the sound of the capture of Babylon the earth shall tremble, and her cry shall be heard among the nations.

Jer 51:1 Thus says the LORD: I am going to stir up a destructive wind against Babylon and against the inhabitants of Leb-qamai;

Jer 51:2 and I will send winnowers to Babylon, and they shall winnow her. They shall empty her land when they come against her from every side on the day of trouble.

Jer 51:3 Let not the archer bend his bow, and let him not array himself in his coat of mail. Do not spare her young men; utterly destroy her entire army.

Jer 51:4 They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and wounded in her streets.

Jer 51:5 Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD of hosts, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.

Jer 51:6 Flee from the midst of Babylon, save your lives, each of you! Do not perish because of her guilt, for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he is repaying her what is due.

Jer 51:7 Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand, making all the earth drunken; the nations drank of her wine, and so the nations went mad.

Jer 51:8 Suddenly Babylon has fallen and is shattered; wail for her! Bring balm for her wound; perhaps she may be healed.

Jer 51:9 We tried to heal Babylon, but she could not be healed. Forsake her, and let each of us go to our own country; for her judgment has reached up to heaven and has been lifted up even to the skies.

Jer 51:10 The LORD has brought forth our vindication; come, let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

Jer 51:11 Sharpen the arrows! Fill the quivers! The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose concerning Babylon is to destroy it, for that is the vengeance of the LORD, vengeance for his temple.

Jer 51:12 Raise a standard against the walls of Babylon; make the watch strong; post sentinels; prepare the ambushes; for the LORD has both planned and done what he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jer 51:13 You who live by mighty waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, the thread of your life is cut.

Jer 51:14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself: Surely I will fill you with troops like a swarm of locusts, and they shall raise a shout of victory over you.

Jer 51:15 It is he who made the earth by his power, who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

Jer 51:16 When he utters his voice there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and he brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Jer 51:17 Everyone is stupid and without knowledge; goldsmiths are all put to shame by their idols; for their images are false, and there is no breath in them.

Jer 51:18 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

Jer 51:19 Not like these is the LORD, the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Jer 51:20 You are my war club, my weapon of battle: with you I smash nations; with you I destroy kingdoms;

Jer 51:21 with you I smash the horse and its rider; with you I smash the chariot and the charioteer;

Jer 51:22 with you I smash man and woman; with you I smash the old man and the boy; with you I smash the young man and the girl;

Jer 51:23 with you I smash shepherds and their flocks; with you I smash farmers and their teams; with you I smash governors and deputies.

Jer 51:24 I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea before your very eyes for all the wrong that they have done in Zion, says the LORD.

Jer 51:25 I am against you, O destroying mountain, says the LORD, that destroys the whole earth; I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the crags, and make you a burned-out mountain.

Jer 51:26 No stone shall be taken from you for a corner and no stone for a foundation, but you shall be a perpetual waste, says the LORD.

Jer 51:27 Raise a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations; prepare the nations for war against her, summon against her the kingdoms, Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; appoint a marshal against her, bring up horses like bristling locusts.

Jer 51:28 Prepare the nations for war against her, the kings of the Medes, with their governors and deputies, and every land under their dominion.

Jer 51:29 The land trembles and writhes, for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

Jer 51:30 The warriors of Babylon have given up fighting, they remain in their strongholds; their strength has failed, they have become women; her buildings are set on fire, her bars are broken.

Jer 51:31 One runner runs to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to tell the king of Babylon that his city is taken from end to end:

Jer 51:32 the fords have been seized, the marshes have been burned with fire, and the soldiers are in panic.

Jer 51:33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come.

Jer 51:34 "King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel, he has swallowed me like a monster; he has filled his belly with my delicacies, he has spewed me out.

Jer 51:35 May my torn flesh be avenged on Babylon," the inhabitants of Zion shall say. "May my blood be avenged on the inhabitants of Chaldea," Jerusalem shall say.

Jer 51:36 Therefore thus says the LORD: I am going to defend your cause and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea and make her fountain dry;

Jer 51:37 and Babylon shall become a heap of ruins, a den of jackals, an object of horror and of hissing, without inhabitant.

Jer 51:38 Like lions they shall roar together; they shall growl like lions' whelps.

Jer 51:39 When they are inflamed, I will set out their drink and make them drunk, until they become merry and then sleep a perpetual sleep and never wake, says the LORD.

Jer 51:40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.

Jer 51:41 How Sheshach is taken, the pride of the whole earth seized! How Babylon has become an object of horror among the nations!

Jer 51:42 The sea has risen over Babylon; she has been covered by its tumultuous waves.

Jer 51:43 Her cities have become an object of horror, a land of drought and a desert, a land in which no one lives, and through which no mortal passes.

Jer 51:44 I will punish Bel in Babylon, and make him disgorge what he has swallowed. The nations shall no longer stream to him; the wall of Babylon has fallen.

Jer 51:45 Come out of her, my people! Save your lives, each of you, from the fierce anger of the LORD!

Jer 51:46 Do not be fainthearted or fearful at the rumors heard in the land-- one year one rumor comes, the next year another, rumors of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.

Jer 51:47 Assuredly, the days are coming when I will punish the images of Babylon; her whole land shall be put to shame, and all her slain shall fall in her midst.

Jer 51:48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall shout for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come against them out of the north, says the LORD.

Jer 51:49 Babylon must fall for the slain of Israel, as the slain of all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.

Jer 51:50 You survivors of the sword, go, do not linger! Remember the LORD in a distant land, and let Jerusalem come into your mind:

Jer 51:51 We are put to shame, for we have heard insults; dishonor has covered our face, for aliens have come into the holy places of the LORD's house.

Jer 51:52 Therefore the time is surely coming, says the LORD, when I will punish her idols, and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

Jer 51:53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify her strong height, from me destroyers would come upon her, says the LORD.

Jer 51:54 Listen!-- a cry from Babylon! A great crashing from the land of the Chaldeans!

Jer 51:55 For the LORD is laying Babylon waste, and stilling her loud clamor. Their waves roar like mighty waters, the sound of their clamor resounds;

Jer 51:56 for a destroyer has come against her, against Babylon; her warriors are taken, their bows are broken; for the LORD is a God of recompense, he will repay in full.

Jer 51:57 I will make her officials and her sages drunk, also her governors, her deputies, and her warriors; they shall sleep a perpetual sleep and never wake, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Jer 51:58 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The broad wall of Babylon shall be leveled to the ground, and her high gates shall be burned with fire. The peoples exhaust themselves for nothing, and the nations weary themselves only for fire.

Jer 51:59 The word that the prophet Jeremiah commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, when he went with King Zedekiah of Judah to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah was the quartermaster.

Jer 51:60 Jeremiah wrote in a scroll all the disasters that would come on Babylon, all these words that are written concerning Babylon.

Jer 51:61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah: "When you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words,

Jer 51:62 and say, 'O LORD, you yourself threatened to destroy this place so that neither human beings nor animals shall live in it, and it shall be desolate forever.'

Jer 51:63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it, and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates,

Jer 51:64 and say, 'Thus shall Babylon sink, to rise no more, because of the disasters that I am bringing on her.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Jer 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

Jer 52:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

Jer 52:3 Indeed, Jerusalem and Judah so angered the LORD that he expelled them from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Jer 52:4 And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and they laid siege to it; they built siegeworks against it all around.

Jer 52:5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

Jer 52:6 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine became so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

Jer 52:7 Then a breach was made in the city wall; and all the soldiers fled and went out from the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They went in the direction of the Arabah.

Jer 52:8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered, deserting him.

Jer 52:9 Then they captured the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

Jer 52:10 The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and also killed all the officers of Judah at Riblah.

Jer 52:11 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and the king of Babylon took him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

Jer 52:12 In the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month-- which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon-- Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard who served the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem.

Jer 52:13 He burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.

Jer 52:14 All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

Jer 52:15 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest of the people and the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the artisans.

Jer 52:16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to be vinedressers and tillers of the soil.

Jer 52:17 The pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all the bronze to Babylon.

Jer 52:18 They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the ladles, and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service.

Jer 52:19 The captain of the guard took away the small bowls also, the firepans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the ladles, and the bowls for libation, both those of gold and those of silver.

Jer 52:20 As for the two pillars, the one sea, the twelve bronze bulls that were under the sea, and the stands, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weighing.

Jer 52:21 As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, its circumference was twelve cubits; it was hollow and its thickness was four fingers.

Jer 52:22 Upon it was a capital of bronze; the height of the one capital was five cubits; latticework and pomegranates, all of bronze, encircled the top of the capital. And the second pillar had the same, with pomegranates.

Jer 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates encircling the latticework numbered one hundred.

Jer 52:24 The captain of the guard took the chief priest Seraiah, the second priest Zephaniah, and the three guardians of the threshold;

Jer 52:25 and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the soldiers, and seven men of the king's council who were found in the city; the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found inside the city.

Jer 52:26 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

Jer 52:27 And the king of Babylon struck them down, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile out of its land.

Jer 52:28 This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadnezzar took into exile: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Judeans;

Jer 52:29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he took into exile from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons;

Jer 52:30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile of the Judeans seven hundred forty-five persons; all the persons were four thousand six hundred.

Jer 52:31 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, King Evil-merodach of Babylon, in the year he began to reign, showed favor to King Jehoiachin of Judah and brought him out of prison;

Jer 52:32 he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

Jer 52:33 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes, and every day of his life he dined regularly at the king's table.

Jer 52:34 For his allowance, a regular daily allowance was given him by the king of Babylon, as long as he lived, up to the day of his death.

Lam 1:1 How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal.

Lam 1:2 She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies.

Lam 1:3 Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

Lam 1:4 The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter.

Lam 1:5 Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

Lam 1:6 From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Lam 1:7 Jerusalem remembers, in the days of her affliction and wandering, all the precious things that were hers in days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the foe, and there was no one to help her, the foe looked on mocking over her downfall.

Lam 1:8 Jerusalem sinned grievously, so she has become a mockery; all who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; she herself groans, and turns her face away.

Lam 1:9 Her uncleanness was in her skirts; she took no thought of her future; her downfall was appalling, with none to comfort her. "O LORD, look at my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!"

Lam 1:10 Enemies have stretched out their hands over all her precious things; she has even seen the nations invade her sanctuary, those whom you forbade to enter your congregation.

Lam 1:11 All her people groan as they search for bread; they trade their treasures for food to revive their strength. Look, O LORD, and see how worthless I have become.

Lam 1:12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which was brought upon me, which the LORD inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

Lam 1:13 From on high he sent fire; it went deep into my bones; he spread a net for my feet; he turned me back; he has left me stunned, faint all day long.

Lam 1:14 My transgressions were bound into a yoke; by his hand they were fastened together; they weigh on my neck, sapping my strength; the Lord handed me over to those whom I cannot withstand.

Lam 1:15 The LORD has rejected all my warriors in the midst of me; he proclaimed a time against me to crush my young men; the Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter Judah.

Lam 1:16 For these things I weep; my eyes flow with tears; for a comforter is far from me, one to revive my courage; my children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed.

Lam 1:17 Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her; the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbors should become his foes; Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

Lam 1:18 The LORD is in the right, for I have rebelled against his word; but hear, all you peoples, and behold my suffering; my young women and young men have gone into captivity.

Lam 1:19 I called to my lovers but they deceived me; my priests and elders perished in the city while seeking food to revive their strength.

Lam 1:20 See, O LORD, how distressed I am; my stomach churns, my heart is wrung within me, because I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.

Lam 1:21 They heard how I was groaning, with no one to comfort me. All my enemies heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it. Bring on the day you have announced, and let them be as I am.

Lam 1:22 Let all their evil doing come before you; and deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my transgressions; for my groans are many and my heart is faint.

Lam 2:1 How the Lord in his anger has humiliated daughter Zion! He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel; he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

Lam 2:2 The Lord has destroyed without mercy all the dwellings of Jacob; in his wrath he has broken down the strongholds of daughter Judah; he has brought down to the ground in dishonor the kingdom and its rulers.

Lam 2:3 He has cut down in fierce anger all the might of Israel; he has withdrawn his right hand from them in the face of the enemy; he has burned like a flaming fire in Jacob, consuming all around.

Lam 2:4 He has bent his bow like an enemy, with his right hand set like a foe; he has killed all in whom we took pride in the tent of daughter Zion; he has poured out his fury like fire.

Lam 2:5 The Lord has become like an enemy; he has destroyed Israel; He has destroyed all its palaces, laid in ruins its strongholds, and multiplied in daughter Judah mourning and lamentation.

Lam 2:6 He has broken down his booth like a garden, he has destroyed his tabernacle; the LORD has abolished in Zion festival and sabbath, and in his fierce indignation has spurned king and priest.

Lam 2:7 The Lord has scorned his altar, disowned his sanctuary; he has delivered into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; a clamor was raised in the house of the LORD as on a day of festival.

Lam 2:8 The LORD determined to lay in ruins the wall of daughter Zion; he stretched the line; he did not withhold his hand from destroying; he caused rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

Lam 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has ruined and broken her bars; her king and princes are among the nations; guidance is no more, and her prophets obtain no vision from the LORD.

Lam 2:10 The elders of daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth; the young girls of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

Lam 2:11 My eyes are spent with weeping; my stomach churns; my bile is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of my people, because infants and babes faint in the streets of the city.

Lam 2:12 They cry to their mothers, "Where is bread and wine?" as they faint like the wounded in the streets of the city, as their life is poured out on their mothers' bosom.

Lam 2:13 What can I say for you, to what compare you, O daughter Jerusalem? To what can I liken you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter Zion? For vast as the sea is your ruin; who can heal you?

Lam 2:14 Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions; they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but have seen oracles for you that are false and misleading.

Lam 2:15 All who pass along the way clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their heads at daughter Jerusalem; "Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth?"

Lam 2:16 All your enemies open their mouths against you; they hiss, they gnash their teeth, they cry: "We have devoured her! Ah, this is the day we longed for; at last we have seen it!"

Lam 2:17 The LORD has done what he purposed, he has carried out his threat; as he ordained long ago, he has demolished without pity; he has made the enemy rejoice over you, and exalted the might of your foes.

Lam 2:18 Cry aloud to the Lord! O wall of daughter Zion! Let tears stream down like a torrent day and night! Give yourself no rest, your eyes no respite!

Lam 2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord! Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

Lam 2:20 Look, O LORD, and consider! To whom have you done this? Should women eat their offspring, the children they have borne? Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

Lam 2:21 The young and the old are lying on the ground in the streets; my young women and my young men have fallen by the sword; in the day of your anger you have killed them, slaughtering without mercy.

Lam 2:22 You invited my enemies from all around as if for a day of festival; and on the day of the anger of the LORD no one escaped or survived; those whom I bore and reared my enemy has destroyed.

Lam 3:1 I am one who has seen affliction under the rod of God's wrath;

Lam 3:2 he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light;

Lam 3:3 against me alone he turns his hand, again and again, all day long.

Lam 3:4 He has made my flesh and my skin waste away, and broken my bones;

Lam 3:5 he has besieged and enveloped me with bitterness and tribulation;

Lam 3:6 he has made me sit in darkness like the dead of long ago.

Lam 3:7 He has walled me about so that I cannot escape; he has put heavy chains on me;

Lam 3:8 though I call and cry for help, he shuts out my prayer;

Lam 3:9 he has blocked my ways with hewn stones, he has made my paths crooked.

Lam 3:10 He is a bear lying in wait for me, a lion in hiding;

Lam 3:11 he led me off my way and tore me to pieces; he has made me desolate;

Lam 3:12 he bent his bow and set me as a mark for his arrow.

Lam 3:13 He shot into my vitals the arrows of his quiver;

Lam 3:14 I have become the laughingstock of all my people, the object of their taunt-songs all day long.

Lam 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

Lam 3:16 He has made my teeth grind on gravel, and made me cower in ashes;

Lam 3:17 my soul is bereft of peace; I have forgotten what happiness is;

Lam 3:18 so I say, "Gone is my glory, and all that I had hoped for from the LORD."

Lam 3:19 The thought of my affliction and my homelessness is wormwood and gall!

Lam 3:20 My soul continually thinks of it and is bowed down within me.

Lam 3:21 But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

Lam 3:22 The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;

Lam 3:23 they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Lam 3:24 "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him."

Lam 3:25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

Lam 3:26 It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Lam 3:27 It is good for one to bear the yoke in youth,

Lam 3:28 to sit alone in silence when the Lord has imposed it,

Lam 3:29 to put one's mouth to the dust (there may yet be hope),

Lam 3:30 to give one's cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults.

Lam 3:31 For the Lord will not reject forever.

Lam 3:32 Although he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

Lam 3:33 for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.
Lam 3:34 When all the prisoners of the land are crushed under foot,
Lam 3:35 when human rights are perverted in the presence of the Most High,
Lam 3:36 when one's case is subverted-- does the Lord not see it?
Lam 3:37 Who can command and have it done, if the Lord has not ordained it?
Lam 3:38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that good and bad come?
Lam 3:39 Why should any who draw breath complain about the punishment of their sins?
Lam 3:40 Let us test and examine our ways, and return to the LORD.
Lam 3:41 Let us lift up our hearts as well as our hands to God in heaven.
Lam 3:42 We have transgressed and rebelled, and you have not forgiven.
Lam 3:43 You have wrapped yourself with anger and pursued us, killing without pity;
Lam 3:44 you have wrapped yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can pass through.
Lam 3:45 You have made us filth and rubbish among the peoples.
Lam 3:46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us;
Lam 3:47 panic and pitfall have come upon us, devastation and destruction.
Lam 3:48 My eyes flow with rivers of tears because of the destruction of my people.
Lam 3:49 My eyes will flow without ceasing, without respite,
Lam 3:50 until the LORD from heaven looks down and sees.
Lam 3:51 My eyes cause me grief at the fate of all the young women in my city.
Lam 3:52 Those who were my enemies without cause have hunted me like a bird;
Lam 3:53 they flung me alive into a pit and hurled stones on me;
Lam 3:54 water closed over my head; I said, "I am lost."
Lam 3:55 I called on your name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit;
Lam 3:56 you heard my plea, "Do not close your ear to my cry for help, but give me relief!"
Lam 3:57 You came near when I called on you; you said, "Do not fear!"
Lam 3:58 You have taken up my cause, O Lord, you have redeemed my life.
Lam 3:59 You have seen the wrong done to me, O LORD; judge my cause.
Lam 3:60 You have seen all their malice, all their plots against me.
Lam 3:61 You have heard their taunts, O LORD, all their plots against me.
Lam 3:62 The whispers and murmurs of my assailants are against me all day long.
Lam 3:63 Whether they sit or rise-- see, I am the object of their taunt-songs.
Lam 3:64 Pay them back for their deeds, O LORD, according to the work of their hands!
Lam 3:65 Give them anguish of heart; your curse be on them!
Lam 3:66 Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the LORD's heavens.
Lam 4:1 How the gold has grown dim, how the pure gold is changed! The sacred stones lie scattered at the head of every street.
Lam 4:2 The precious children of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold-- how they are reckoned as earthen pots, the work of a potter's hands!
Lam 4:3 Even the jackals offer the breast and nurse their young, but my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
Lam 4:4 The tongue of the infant sticks to the roof of its mouth for thirst; the children beg for food, but no one gives them anything.
Lam 4:5 Those who feasted on delicacies perish in the streets; those who were brought up in purple cling to ash heaps.
Lam 4:6 For the chastisement of my people has been greater than the punishment of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, though no hand was laid on it.
Lam 4:7 Her princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies were more ruddy than coral, their hair like sapphire.
Lam 4:8 Now their visage is blacker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets. Their skin has shriveled on their bones; it has become as dry as wood.
Lam 4:9 Happier were those pierced by the sword than those pierced by hunger, whose life drains away, deprived of the produce of the field.
Lam 4:10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became their food in the destruction of my people.
Lam 4:11 The LORD gave full vent to his wrath; he poured out his hot anger, and kindled a fire in Zion that consumed its foundations.
Lam 4:12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did any of the inhabitants of the world, that foe or enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.
Lam 4:13 It was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous in the midst of her.

Lam 4:14 Blindly they wandered through the streets, so defiled with blood that no one was able to touch their garments.

Lam 4:15 "Away! Unclean!" people shouted at them; "Away! Away! Do not touch!" So they became fugitives and wanderers; it was said among the nations, "They shall stay here no longer."

Lam 4:16 The LORD himself has scattered them, he will regard them no more; no honor was shown to the priests, no favor to the elders.

Lam 4:17 Our eyes failed, ever watching vainly for help; we were watching eagerly for a nation that could not save.

Lam 4:18 They dogged our steps so that we could not walk in our streets; our end drew near; our days were numbered; for our end had come.

Lam 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles in the heavens; they chased us on the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

Lam 4:20 The LORD's anointed, the breath of our life, was taken in their pits-- the one of whom we said, "Under his shadow we shall live among the nations."

Lam 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter Edom, you that live in the land of Uz; but to you also the cup shall pass; you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.

Lam 4:22 The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter Zion, is accomplished, he will keep you in exile no longer; but your iniquity, O daughter Edom, he will punish, he will uncover your sins.

Lam 5:1 Remember, O LORD, what has befallen us; look, and see our disgrace!

Lam 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to aliens.

Lam 5:3 We have become orphans, fatherless; our mothers are like widows.

Lam 5:4 We must pay for the water we drink; the wood we get must be bought.

Lam 5:5 With a yoke on our necks we are hard driven; we are weary, we are given no rest.

Lam 5:6 We have made a pact with Egypt and Assyria, to get enough bread.

Lam 5:7 Our ancestors sinned; they are no more, and we bear their iniquities.

Lam 5:8 Slaves rule over us; there is no one to deliver us from their hand.

Lam 5:9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the wilderness.

Lam 5:10 Our skin is black as an oven from the scorching heat of famine.

Lam 5:11 Women are raped in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.

Lam 5:12 Princes are hung up by their hands; no respect is shown to the elders.

Lam 5:13 Young men are compelled to grind, and boys stagger under loads of wood.

Lam 5:14 The old men have left the city gate, the young men their music.

Lam 5:15 The joy of our hearts has ceased; our dancing has been turned to mourning.

Lam 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head; woe to us, for we have sinned!

Lam 5:17 Because of this our hearts are sick, because of these things our eyes have grown dim:

Lam 5:18 because of Mount Zion, which lies desolate; jackals prowl over it.

Lam 5:19 But you, O LORD, reign forever; your throne endures to all generations.

Lam 5:20 Why have you forgotten us completely? Why have you forsaken us these many days?

Lam 5:21 Restore us to yourself, O LORD, that we may be restored; renew our days as of old--

Lam 5:22 unless you have utterly rejected us, and are angry with us beyond measure.

Eze 1:1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the exiles by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

Eze 1:2 On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin),

Eze 1:3 the word of the LORD came to the priest Ezekiel son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was on him there.

Eze 1:4 As I looked, a stormy wind came out of the north: a great cloud with brightness around it and fire flashing forth continually, and in the middle of the fire, something like gleaming amber.

Eze 1:5 In the middle of it was something like four living creatures. This was their appearance: they were of human form.

Eze 1:6 Each had four faces, and each of them had four wings.

Eze 1:7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze.

Eze 1:8 Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. And the four had their faces and their wings thus:

Eze 1:9 their wings touched one another; each of them moved straight ahead, without turning as they moved.

Eze 1:10 As for the appearance of their faces: the four had the face of a human being, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of an ox on the left side, and the face of an eagle;

Eze 1:11 such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above; each creature had two wings, each of which touched the wing of another, while two covered their bodies.

Eze 1:12 Each moved straight ahead; wherever the spirit would go, they went, without turning as they went.

Eze 1:13 In the middle of the living creatures there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving to and fro among the living creatures; the fire was bright, and lightning issued from the fire.

Eze 1:14 The living creatures darted to and fro, like a flash of lightning.

Eze 1:15 As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, one for each of the four of them.

Eze 1:16 As for the appearance of the wheels and their construction: their appearance was like the gleaming of beryl; and the four had the same form, their construction being something like a wheel within a wheel.

Eze 1:17 When they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without veering as they moved.

Eze 1:18 Their rims were tall and awesome, for the rims of all four were full of eyes all around.

Eze 1:19 When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose.

Eze 1:20 Wherever the spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Eze 1:21 When they moved, the others moved; when they stopped, the others stopped; and when they rose from the earth, the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Eze 1:22 Over the heads of the living creatures there was something like a dome, shining like crystal, spread out above their heads.

Eze 1:23 Under the dome their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another; and each of the creatures had two wings covering its body.

Eze 1:24 When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the sound of mighty waters, like the thunder of the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the sound of an army; when they stopped, they let down their wings.

Eze 1:25 And there came a voice from above the dome over their heads; when they stopped, they let down their wings.

Eze 1:26 And above the dome over their heads there was something like a throne, in appearance like sapphire; and seated above the likeness of a throne was something that seemed like a human form.

Eze 1:27 Upward from what appeared like the loins I saw something like gleaming amber, something that looked like fire enclosed all around; and downward from what looked like the loins I saw something that looked like fire, and there was a splendor all around.

Eze 1:28 Like the bow in a cloud on a rainy day, such was the appearance of the splendor all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Eze 2:1 He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you.

Eze 2:2 And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me.

Eze 2:3 He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day.

Eze 2:4 The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD."

Eze 2:5 Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

Eze 2:6 And you, O mortal, do not be afraid of them, and do not be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns surround you and you live among scorpions; do not be afraid of their words, and do not be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 2:7 You shall speak my words to them, whether they hear or refuse to hear; for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 2:8 But you, mortal, hear what I say to you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you.

Eze 2:9 I looked, and a hand was stretched out to me, and a written scroll was in it.

Eze 2:10 He spread it before me; it had writing on the front and on the back, and written on it were words of lamentation and mourning and woe.

Eze 3:1 He said to me, O mortal, eat what is offered to you; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.

Eze 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

Eze 3:3 He said to me, Mortal, eat this scroll that I give you and fill your stomach with it. Then I ate it; and in my mouth it was as sweet as honey.

Eze 3:4 He said to me: Mortal, go to the house of Israel and speak my very words to them.

Eze 3:5 For you are not sent to a people of obscure speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel--

Eze 3:6 not to many peoples of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you.

Eze 3:7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me; because all the house of Israel have a hard forehead and a stubborn heart.

Eze 3:8 See, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads.

Eze 3:9 Like the hardest stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not fear them or be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 3:10 He said to me: Mortal, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart and hear with your ears;

Eze 3:11 then go to the exiles, to your people, and speak to them. Say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD"; whether they hear or refuse to hear.

Eze 3:12 Then the spirit lifted me up, and as the glory of the LORD rose from its place, I heard behind me the sound of loud rumbling;

Eze 3:13 it was the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, that sounded like a loud rumbling.

Eze 3:14 The spirit lifted me up and bore me away; I went in bitterness in the heat of my spirit, the hand of the LORD being strong upon me.

Eze 3:15 I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who lived by the river Chebar. And I sat there among them, stunned, for seven days.

Eze 3:16 At the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 3:17 Mortal, I have made you a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

Eze 3:18 If I say to the wicked, "You shall surely die," and you give them no warning, or speak to warn the wicked from their wicked way, in order to save their life, those wicked persons shall die for their iniquity; but their blood I will require at your hand.

Eze 3:19 But if you warn the wicked, and they do not turn from their wickedness, or from their wicked way, they shall die for their iniquity; but you will have saved your life.

Eze 3:20 Again, if the righteous turn from their righteousness and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before them, they shall die; because you have not warned them, they shall die for their sin, and their righteous deeds that they have done shall not be remembered; but their blood I will require at your hand.

Eze 3:21 If, however, you warn the righteous not to sin, and they do not sin, they shall surely live, because they took warning; and you will have saved your life.

Eze 3:22 Then the hand of the LORD was upon me there; and he said to me, Rise up, go out into the valley, and there I will speak with you.

Eze 3:23 So I rose up and went out into the valley; and the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory that I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

Eze 3:24 The spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me and said to me: Go, shut yourself inside your house.

Eze 3:25 As for you, mortal, cords shall be placed on you, and you shall be bound with them, so that you cannot go out among the people;

Eze 3:26 and I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be speechless and unable to reprove them; for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 3:27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD"; let those who will hear, hear; and let those who refuse to hear, refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 4:1 And you, O mortal, take a brick and set it before you. On it portray a city, Jerusalem;

Eze 4:2 and put siegeworks against it, and build a siege wall against it, and cast up a ramp against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around.

Eze 4:3 Then take an iron plate and place it as an iron wall between you and the city; set your face toward it, and let it be in a state of siege, and press the siege against it. This is a sign for the house of Israel.

Eze 4:4 Then lie on your left side, and place the punishment of the house of Israel upon it; you shall bear their punishment for the number of the days that you lie there.

Eze 4:5 For I assign to you a number of days, three hundred ninety days, equal to the number of the years of their punishment; and so you shall bear the punishment of the house of Israel.

Eze 4:6 When you have completed these, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the punishment of the house of Judah; forty days I assign you, one day for each year.

Eze 4:7 You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and with your arm bared you shall prophesy against it.

Eze 4:8 See, I am putting cords on you so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

Eze 4:9 And you, take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred ninety days, you shall eat it.

Eze 4:10 The food that you eat shall be twenty shekels a day by weight; at fixed times you shall eat it.

Eze 4:11 And you shall drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; at fixed times you shall drink.

Eze 4:12 You shall eat it as a barley-cake, baking it in their sight on human dung.

Eze 4:13 The LORD said, "Thus shall the people of Israel eat their bread, unclean, among the nations to which I will drive them."

Eze 4:14 Then I said, "Ah Lord GOD! I have never defiled myself; from my youth up until now I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by animals, nor has carrion flesh come into my mouth."

Eze 4:15 Then he said to me, "See, I will let you have cow's dung instead of human dung, on which you may prepare your bread."

Eze 4:16 Then he said to me, Mortal, I am going to break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; they shall eat bread by weight and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure and in dismay.

Eze 4:17 Lacking bread and water, they will look at one another in dismay, and waste away under their punishment.

Eze 5:1 And you, O mortal, take a sharp sword; use it as a barber's razor and run it over your head and your beard; then take balances for weighing, and divide the hair.

Eze 5:2 One third of the hair you shall burn in the fire inside the city, when the days of the siege are completed; one third you shall take and strike with the sword all around the city; and one third you shall scatter to the wind, and I will unsheathe the sword after them.

Eze 5:3 Then you shall take from these a small number, and bind them in the skirts of your robe.

Eze 5:4 From these, again, you shall take some, throw them into the fire and burn them up; from there a fire will come out against all the house of Israel.

Eze 5:5 Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the center of the nations, with countries all around her.

Eze 5:6 But she has rebelled against my ordinances and my statutes, becoming more wicked than the nations and the countries all around her, rejecting my ordinances and not following my statutes.

Eze 5:7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you are more turbulent than the nations that are all around you, and have not followed my statutes or kept my ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are all around you;

Eze 5:8 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I, I myself, am coming against you; I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations.

Eze 5:9 And because of all your abominations, I will do to you what I have never yet done, and the like of which I will never do again.

Eze 5:10 Surely, parents shall eat their children in your midst, and children shall eat their parents; I will execute judgments on you, and any of you who survive I will scatter to every wind.

Eze 5:11 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations-- therefore I will cut you down; my eye will not spare, and I will have no pity.

Eze 5:12 One third of you shall die of pestilence or be consumed by famine among you; one third shall fall by the sword around you; and one third I will scatter to every wind and will unsheathe the sword after them.

Eze 5:13 My anger shall spend itself, and I will vent my fury on them and satisfy myself; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my jealousy, when I spend my fury on them.

Eze 5:14 Moreover I will make you a desolation and an object of mocking among the nations around you, in the sight of all that pass by.

Eze 5:15 You shall be a mockery and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations around you, when I execute judgments on you in anger and fury, and with furious punishments-- I, the LORD, have spoken--

Eze 5:16 when I loose against you my deadly arrows of famine, arrows for destruction, which I will let loose to destroy you, and when I bring more and more famine upon you, and break your staff of bread.

Eze 5:17 I will send famine and wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children; pestilence and bloodshed shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Eze 6:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 6:2 O mortal, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

Eze 6:3 and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I, I myself will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

Eze 6:4 Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense stands shall be broken; and I will throw down your slain in front of your idols.

Eze 6:5 I will lay the corpses of the people of Israel in front of their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars.

Eze 6:6 Wherever you live, your towns shall be waste and your high places ruined, so that your altars will be waste and ruined, your idols broken and destroyed, your incense stands cut down, and your works wiped out.

Eze 6:7 The slain shall fall in your midst; then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 6:8 But I will spare some. Some of you shall escape the sword among the nations and be scattered through the countries.

Eze 6:9 Those of you who escape shall remember me among the nations where they are carried captive, how I was crushed by their wanton heart that turned away from me, and their wanton eyes that turned after their idols. Then they will be loathsome in their own sight for the evils that they have committed, for all their abominations.

Eze 6:10 And they shall know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten in vain to bring this disaster upon them.

Eze 6:11 Thus says the Lord GOD: Clap your hands and stamp your foot, and say, Alas for all the vile abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

Eze 6:12 Those far off shall die of pestilence; those nearby shall fall by the sword; and any who are left and are spared shall die of famine. Thus I will spend my fury upon them.

Eze 6:13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountain tops, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak, wherever they offered pleasing odor to all their idols.

Eze 6:14 I will stretch out my hand against them, and make the land desolate and waste, throughout all their settlements, from the wilderness to Riblah. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 7:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 7:2 You, O mortal, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

Eze 7:3 Now the end is upon you, I will let loose my anger upon you; I will judge you according to your ways, I will punish you for all your abominations.

Eze 7:4 My eye will not spare you, I will have no pity. I will punish you for your ways, while your abominations are among you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 7:5 Thus says the Lord GOD: Disaster after disaster! See, it comes.

Eze 7:6 An end has come, the end has come. It has awakened against you; see, it comes!

Eze 7:7 Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land. The time has come, the day is near-- of tumult, not of reveling on the mountains.

Eze 7:8 Soon now I will pour out my wrath upon you; I will spend my anger against you. I will judge you according to your ways, and punish you for all your abominations.

Eze 7:9 My eye will not spare; I will have no pity. I will punish you according to your ways, while your abominations are among you. Then you shall know that it is I the LORD who strike.

Eze 7:10 See, the day! See, it comes! Your doom has gone out. The rod has blossomed, pride has budded.

Eze 7:11 Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, not their abundance, not their wealth; no pre-eminence among them.

Eze 7:12 The time has come, the day draws near; let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, for wrath is upon all their multitude.

Eze 7:13 For the sellers shall not return to what has been sold as long as they remain alive. For the vision concerns all their multitude; it shall not be revoked. Because of their iniquity, they cannot maintain their lives.

Eze 7:14 They have blown the horn and made everything ready; but no one goes to battle, for my wrath is upon all their multitude.

Eze 7:15 The sword is outside, pestilence and famine are inside; those in the field die by the sword; those in the city-- famine and pestilence devour them.

Eze 7:16 If any survivors escape, they shall be found on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning over their iniquity.

Eze 7:17 All hands shall grow feeble, all knees turn to water.

Eze 7:18 They shall put on sackcloth, horror shall cover them. Shame shall be on all faces, baldness on all their heads.

Eze 7:19 They shall fling their silver into the streets, their gold shall be treated as unclean. Their silver and gold cannot save them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. They shall not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it. For it was the stumbling block of their iniquity.

Eze 7:20 From their beautiful ornament, in which they took pride, they made their abominable images, their detestable things; therefore I will make of it an unclean thing to them.

Eze 7:21 I will hand it over to strangers as booty, to the wicked of the earth as plunder; they shall profane it.

Eze 7:22 I will avert my face from them, so that they may profane my treasured place; the violent shall enter it, they shall profane it.

Eze 7:23 Make a chain! For the land is full of bloody crimes; the city is full of violence.

Eze 7:24 I will bring the worst of the nations to take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the arrogance of the strong, and their holy places shall be profaned.

Eze 7:25 When anguish comes, they will seek peace, but there shall be none.

Eze 7:26 Disaster comes upon disaster, rumor follows rumor; they shall keep seeking a vision from the prophet; instruction shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.

Eze 7:27 The king shall mourn, the prince shall be wrapped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land shall tremble. According to their way I will deal with them; according to their own judgments I will judge them. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 8:1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, with the elders of Judah sitting before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.

Eze 8:2 I looked, and there was a figure that looked like a human being; below what appeared to be its loins it was fire, and above the loins it was like the appearance of brightness, like gleaming amber.

Eze 8:3 It stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the gateway of the inner court that faces north, to the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy.

Eze 8:4 And the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I had seen in the valley.

Eze 8:5 Then God said to me, "O mortal, lift up your eyes now in the direction of the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, in the entrance, was this image of jealousy.

Eze 8:6 He said to me, "Mortal, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel are committing here, to drive me far from my sanctuary? Yet you will see still greater abominations."

Eze 8:7 And he brought me to the entrance of the court; I looked, and there was a hole in the wall.

Eze 8:8 Then he said to me, "Mortal, dig through the wall"; and when I dug through the wall, there was an entrance.

Eze 8:9 He said to me, "Go in, and see the vile abominations that they are committing here."

Eze 8:10 So I went in and looked; there, portrayed on the wall all around, were all kinds of creeping things, and loathsome animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel.

Eze 8:11 Before them stood seventy of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had his censer in his hand, and the fragrant cloud of incense was ascending.

Eze 8:12 Then he said to me, "Mortal, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each in his room of images? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.'"

Eze 8:13 He said also to me, "You will see still greater abominations that they are committing."

Eze 8:14 Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD; women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

Eze 8:15 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O mortal? You will see still greater abominations than these."

Eze 8:16 And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD; there, at the entrance of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east, prostrating themselves to the sun toward the east.

Eze 8:17 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O mortal? Is it not bad enough that the house of Judah commits the abominations done here? Must they fill the land with violence, and provoke my anger still further? See, they are putting the branch to their nose!

Eze 8:18 Therefore I will act in wrath; my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; and though they cry in my hearing with a loud voice, I will not listen to them."

Eze 9:1 Then he cried in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Draw near, you executioners of the city, each with his destroying weapon in his hand."

Eze 9:2 And six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his weapon for slaughter in his hand; among them was a man clothed in linen, with a writing case at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

Eze 9:3 Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub on which it rested to the threshold of the house. The LORD called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case at his side;

Eze 9:4 and said to him, "Go through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of those who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it."

Eze 9:5 To the others he said in my hearing, "Pass through the city after him, and kill; your eye shall not spare, and you shall show no pity.

Eze 9:6 Cut down old men, young men and young women, little children and women, but touch no one who has the mark. And begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the house.

Eze 9:7 Then he said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go!" So they went out and killed in the city.

Eze 9:8 While they were killing, and I was left alone, I fell prostrate on my face and cried out, "Ah Lord GOD! will you destroy all who remain of Israel as you pour out your wrath upon Jerusalem?"

Eze 9:9 He said to me, "The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city full of perversity; for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see.'

Eze 9:10 As for me, my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity, but I will bring down their deeds upon their heads."

Eze 9:11 Then the man clothed in linen, with the writing case at his side, brought back word, saying, "I have done as you commanded me."

Eze 10:1 Then I looked, and above the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim there appeared above them something like a sapphire, in form resembling a throne.

Eze 10:2 He said to the man clothed in linen, "Go within the wheelwork underneath the cherubim; fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." He went in as I looked on.

Eze 10:3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the house when the man went in; and a cloud filled the inner court.

Eze 10:4 Then the glory of the LORD rose up from the cherub to the threshold of the house; the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of the LORD.

Eze 10:5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

Eze 10:6 When he commanded the man clothed in linen, "Take fire from within the wheelwork, from among the cherubim," he went in and stood beside a wheel.

Eze 10:7 And a cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, took some of it and put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and went out.

Eze 10:8 The cherubim appeared to have the form of a human hand under their wings.

Eze 10:9 I looked, and there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one beside each cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like gleaming beryl.

Eze 10:10 And as for their appearance, the four looked alike, something like a wheel within a wheel.

Eze 10:11 When they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without veering as they moved; but in whatever direction the front wheel faced, the others followed without veering as they moved.

Eze 10:12 Their entire body, their rims, their spokes, their wings, and the wheels-- the wheels of the four of them-- were full of eyes all around.

Eze 10:13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing "the wheelwork."

Eze 10:14 Each one had four faces: the first face was that of the cherub, the second face was that of a human being, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

Eze 10:15 The cherubim rose up. These were the living creatures that I saw by the river Chebar.

Eze 10:16 When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels at their side did not veer.

Eze 10:17 When they stopped, the others stopped, and when they rose up, the others rose up with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

Eze 10:18 Then the glory of the LORD went out from the threshold of the house and stopped above the cherubim.

Eze 10:19 The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose up from the earth in my sight as they went out with the wheels beside them. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the house of the LORD; and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Eze 10:20 These were the living creatures that I saw underneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.

Eze 10:21 Each had four faces, each four wings, and underneath their wings something like human hands.

Eze 10:22 As for what their faces were like, they were the same faces whose appearance I had seen by the river Chebar. Each one moved straight ahead.

Eze 11:1 The spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the house of the LORD, which faces east. There, at the entrance of the gateway, were twenty-five men; among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur, and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, officials of the people.

Eze 11:2 He said to me, "Mortal, these are the men who devise iniquity and who give wicked counsel in this city;

Eze 11:3 they say, 'The time is not near to build houses; this city is the pot, and we are the meat.'

Eze 11:4 Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, O mortal."

Eze 11:5 Then the spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said to me, "Say, Thus says the LORD: This is what you think, O house of Israel; I know the things that come into your mind.

Eze 11:6 You have killed many in this city, and have filled its streets with the slain.

Eze 11:7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: The slain whom you have placed within it are the meat, and this city is the pot; but you shall be taken out of it.

Eze 11:8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 11:9 I will take you out of it and give you over to the hands of foreigners, and execute judgments upon you.

Eze 11:10 You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 11:11 This city shall not be your pot, and you shall not be the meat inside it; I will judge you at the border of Israel.

Eze 11:12 Then you shall know that I am the LORD, whose statutes you have not followed, and whose ordinances you have not kept, but you have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are around you."

Eze 11:13 Now, while I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord GOD! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

Eze 11:14 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 11:15 Mortal, your kinsfolk, your own kin, your fellow exiles, the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those of whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, "They have gone far from the LORD; to us this land is given for a possession."

Eze 11:16 Therefore say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Though I removed them far away among the nations, and though I scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary to them for a little while in the countries where they have gone.

Eze 11:17 Therefore say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

Eze 11:18 When they come there, they will remove from it all its detestable things and all its abominations.

Eze 11:19 I will give them one heart, and put a new spirit within them; I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh,

Eze 11:20 so that they may follow my statutes and keep my ordinances and obey them. Then they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Eze 11:21 But as for those whose heart goes after their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their deeds upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 11:22 Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Eze 11:23 And the glory of the LORD ascended from the middle of the city, and stopped on the mountain east of the city.

Eze 11:24 The spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the spirit of God into Chaldea, to the exiles. Then the vision that I had seen left me.

Eze 11:25 And I told the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

Eze 12:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 12:2 Mortal, you are living in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see but do not see, who have ears to hear but do not hear;

Eze 12:3 for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, mortal, prepare for yourself an exile's baggage, and go into exile by day in their sight; you shall go like an exile from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house.

Eze 12:4 You shall bring out your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go out yourself at evening in their sight, as those do who go into exile.

Eze 12:5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry the baggage through it.

Eze 12:6 In their sight you shall lift the baggage on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you may not see the land; for I have made you a sign for the house of Israel.

Eze 12:7 I did just as I was commanded. I brought out my baggage by day, as baggage for exile, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my own hands; I brought it out in the dark, carrying it on my shoulder in their sight.

Eze 12:8 In the morning the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 12:9 Mortal, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, "What are you doing?"

Eze 12:10 Say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel in it."

Eze 12:11 Say, "I am a sign for you: as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity."

Eze 12:12 And the prince who is among them shall lift his baggage on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go out; he shall dig through the wall and carry it through; he shall cover his face, so that he may not see the land with his eyes.

Eze 12:13 I will spread my net over him, and he shall be caught in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, yet he shall not see it; and he shall die there.

Eze 12:14 I will scatter to every wind all who are around him, his helpers and all his troops; and I will unsheathe the sword behind them.

Eze 12:15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

Eze 12:16 But I will let a few of them escape from the sword, from famine and pestilence, so that they may tell of all their abominations among the nations where they go; then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 12:17 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 12:18 Mortal, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness;

Eze 12:19 and say to the people of the land, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, because their land shall be stripped of all it contains, on account of the violence of all those who live in it.

Eze 12:20 The inhabited cities shall be laid waste, and the land shall become a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 12:21 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 12:22 Mortal, what is this proverb of yours about the land of Israel, which says, "The days are prolonged, and every vision comes to nothing"?

Eze 12:23 Tell them therefore, "Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to this proverb, and they shall use it no more as a proverb in Israel." But say to them, The days are near, and the fulfillment of every vision.

Eze 12:24 For there shall no longer be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.

Eze 12:25 But I the LORD will speak the word that I speak, and it will be fulfilled. It will no longer be delayed; but in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and fulfill it, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 12:26 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 12:27 Mortal, the house of Israel is saying, "The vision that he sees is for many years ahead; he prophesies for distant times."

Eze 12:28 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word that I speak will be fulfilled, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 13:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 13:2 Mortal, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying; say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination: "Hear the word of the LORD!"

Eze 13:3 Thus says the Lord GOD, Alas for the senseless prophets who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

Eze 13:4 Your prophets have been like jackals among ruins, O Israel.

Eze 13:5 You have not gone up into the breaches, or repaired a wall for the house of Israel, so that it might stand in battle on the day of the LORD.

Eze 13:6 They have envisioned falsehood and lying divination; they say, "Says the LORD," when the LORD has not sent them, and yet they wait for the fulfillment of their word!

Eze 13:7 Have you not seen a false vision or uttered a lying divination, when you have said, "Says the LORD," even though I did not speak?

Eze 13:8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have uttered falsehood and envisioned lies, I am against you, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 13:9 My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations; they shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Eze 13:10 Because, in truth, because they have misled my people, saying, "Peace," when there is no peace; and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets smear whitewash on it.

Eze 13:11 Say to those who smear whitewash on it that it shall fall. There will be a deluge of rain, great hailstones will fall, and a stormy wind will break out.

Eze 13:12 When the wall falls, will it not be said to you, "Where is the whitewash you smeared on it?"

Eze 13:13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: In my wrath I will make a stormy wind break out, and in my anger there shall be a deluge of rain, and hailstones in wrath to destroy it.

Eze 13:14 I will break down the wall that you have smeared with whitewash, and bring it to the ground, so that its foundation will be laid bare; when it falls, you shall perish within it; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 13:15 Thus I will spend my wrath upon the wall, and upon those who have smeared it with whitewash; and I will say to you, The wall is no more, nor those who smeared it--

Eze 13:16 the prophets of Israel who prophesied concerning Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for it, when there was no peace, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 13:17 As for you, mortal, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own imagination; prophesy against them

Eze 13:18 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the women who sew bands on all wrists, and make veils for the heads of persons of every height, in the hunt for human lives! Will you hunt down lives among my people, and maintain your own lives?

Eze 13:19 You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, putting to death persons who should not die and keeping alive persons who should not live, by your lies to my people, who listen to lies.

Eze 13:20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am against your bands with which you hunt lives; I will tear them from your arms, and let the lives go free, the lives that you hunt down like birds.

Eze 13:21 I will tear off your veils, and save my people from your hands; they shall no longer be prey in your hands; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 13:22 Because you have disheartened the righteous falsely, although I have not disheartened them, and you have encouraged the wicked not to turn from their wicked way and save their lives;

Eze 13:23 therefore you shall no longer see false visions or practice divination; I will save my people from your hand. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Eze 14:1 Certain elders of Israel came to me and sat down before me.

Eze 14:2 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 14:3 Mortal, these men have taken their idols into their hearts, and placed their iniquity as a stumbling block before them; shall I let myself be consulted by them?

Eze 14:4 Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Any of those of the house of Israel who take their idols into their hearts and place their iniquity as a stumbling block before them, and yet come to the prophet-- I the LORD will answer those who come with the multitude of their idols, Eze 14:5 in order that I may take hold of the hearts of the house of Israel, all of whom are estranged from me through their idols.

Eze 14:6 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Repent and turn away from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

Eze 14:7 For any of those of the house of Israel, or of the aliens who reside in Israel, who separate themselves from me, taking their idols into their hearts and placing their iniquity as a stumbling block before them, and yet come to a prophet to inquire of me by him, I the LORD will answer them myself.

Eze 14:8 I will set my face against them; I will make them a sign and a byword and cut them off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 14:9 If a prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

Eze 14:10 And they shall bear their punishment-- the punishment of the inquirer and the punishment of the prophet shall be the same--

Eze 14:11 so that the house of Israel may no longer go astray from me, nor defile themselves any more with all their transgressions. Then they shall be my people, and I will be their God, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 14:12 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 14:13 Mortal, when a land sins against me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out my hand against it, and break its staff of bread and send famine upon it, and cut off from it human beings and animals,

Eze 14:14 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job, these three, were in it, they would save only their own lives by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 14:15 If I send wild animals through the land to ravage it, so that it is made desolate, and no one may pass through because of the animals;

Eze 14:16 even if these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would save neither sons nor daughters; they alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate.

Eze 14:17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, 'Let a sword pass through the land,' and I cut off human beings and animals from it;

Eze 14:18 though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would save neither sons nor daughters, but they alone would be saved.

Eze 14:19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath upon it with blood, to cut off humans and animals from it;

Eze 14:20 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would save neither son nor daughter; they would save only their own lives by their righteousness.

Eze 14:21 For thus says the Lord GOD: How much more when I send upon Jerusalem my four deadly acts of judgment, sword, famine, wild animals, and pestilence, to cut off humans and animals from it!

Eze 14:22 Yet, survivors shall be left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out; they will come out to you. When you see their ways and their deeds, you will be consoled for the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, for all that I have brought upon it.

Eze 14:23 They shall console you, when you see their ways and their deeds; and you shall know that it was not without cause that I did all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 15:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 15:2 O mortal, how does the wood of the vine surpass all other wood-- the vine branch that is among the trees of the forest?

Eze 15:3 Is wood taken from it to make anything? Does one take a peg from it on which to hang any object?

Eze 15:4 It is put in the fire for fuel; when the fire has consumed both ends of it and the middle of it is charred, is it useful for anything?

Eze 15:5 When it was whole it was used for nothing; how much less-- when the fire has consumed it, and it is charred-- can it ever be used for anything!

Eze 15:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Eze 15:7 I will set my face against them; although they escape from the fire, the fire shall still consume them; and you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

Eze 15:8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have acted faithlessly, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 16:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 16:2 Mortal, make known to Jerusalem her abominations,

Eze 16:3 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite.

Eze 16:4 As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you, nor rubbed with salt, nor wrapped in cloths.

Eze 16:5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you out of compassion for you; but you were thrown out in the open field, for you were abhorred on the day you were born.

Eze 16:6 I passed by you, and saw you flailing about in your blood. As you lay in your blood, I said to you, "Live!

Eze 16:7 and grow up like a plant of the field." You grew up and became tall and arrived at full womanhood; your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown; yet you were naked and bare.

Eze 16:8 I passed by you again and looked on you; you were at the age for love. I spread the edge of my cloak over you, and covered your nakedness: I pledged myself to you and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord GOD, and you became mine.

Eze 16:9 Then I bathed you with water and washed off the blood from you, and anointed you with oil.

Eze 16:10 I clothed you with embroidered cloth and with sandals of fine leather; I bound you in fine linen and covered you with rich fabric.

Eze 16:11 I adorned you with ornaments: I put bracelets on your arms, a chain on your neck,

Eze 16:12 a ring on your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head.

Eze 16:13 You were adorned with gold and silver, while your clothing was of fine linen, rich fabric, and embroidered cloth. You had choice flour and honey and oil for food. You grew exceedingly beautiful, fit to be a queen.

Eze 16:14 Your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect because of my splendor that I had bestowed on you, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 16:15 But you trusted in your beauty, and played the whore because of your fame, and lavished your whorings on any passer-by.

Eze 16:16 You took some of your garments, and made for yourself colorful shrines, and on them played the whore; nothing like this has ever been or ever shall be.

Eze 16:17 You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and my silver that I had given you, and made for yourself male images, and with them played the whore;

Eze 16:18 and you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set my oil and my incense before them.

Eze 16:19 Also my bread that I gave you-- I fed you with choice flour and oil and honey-- you set it before them as a pleasing odor; and so it was, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 16:20 You took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. As if your whorings were not enough!

Eze 16:21 You slaughtered my children and delivered them up as an offering to them.

Eze 16:22 And in all your abominations and your whorings you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, flailing about in your blood.

Eze 16:23 After all your wickedness (woe, woe to you! says the Lord GOD),

Eze 16:24 you built yourself a platform and made yourself a lofty place in every square;

Eze 16:25 at the head of every street you built your lofty place and prostituted your beauty, offering yourself to every passer-by, and multiplying your whoring.

Eze 16:26 You played the whore with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, multiplying your whoring, to provoke me to anger.

Eze 16:27 Therefore I stretched out my hand against you, reduced your rations, and gave you up to the will of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behavior.

Eze 16:28 You played the whore with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; you played the whore with them, and still you were not satisfied.

Eze 16:29 You multiplied your whoring with Chaldea, the land of merchants; and even with this you were not satisfied.

Eze 16:30 How sick is your heart, says the Lord GOD, that you did all these things, the deeds of a brazen whore;

Eze 16:31 building your platform at the head of every street, and making your lofty place in every square! Yet you were not like a whore, because you scorned payment.

Eze 16:32 Adulterous wife, who receives strangers instead of her husband!

Eze 16:33 Gifts are given to all whores; but you gave your gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from all around for your whorings.

Eze 16:34 So you were different from other women in your whorings: no one solicited you to play the whore; and you gave payment, while no payment was given to you; you were different.

Eze 16:35 Therefore, O whore, hear the word of the LORD:

Eze 16:36 Thus says the Lord GOD, Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your whoring with your lovers, and because of all your abominable idols, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to them,

Eze 16:37 therefore, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved and all those you hated; I will gather them against you from all around, and will uncover your nakedness to them, so that they may see all your nakedness.

Eze 16:38 I will judge you as women who commit adultery and shed blood are judged, and bring blood upon you in wrath and jealousy.

Eze 16:39 I will deliver you into their hands, and they shall throw down your platform and break down your lofty places; they shall strip you of your clothes and take your beautiful objects and leave you naked and bare.

Eze 16:40 They shall bring up a mob against you, and they shall stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords.

Eze 16:41 They shall burn your houses and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; I will stop you from playing the whore, and you shall also make no more payments.

Eze 16:42 So I will satisfy my fury on you, and my jealousy shall turn away from you; I will be calm, and will be angry no longer.

Eze 16:43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have enraged me with all these things; therefore, I have returned your deeds upon your head, says the Lord GOD. Have you not committed lewdness beyond all your abominations?

Eze 16:44 See, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb about you, "Like mother, like daughter."

Eze 16:45 You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Eze 16:46 Your elder sister is Samaria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you, is Sodom with her daughters.

Eze 16:47 You not only followed their ways, and acted according to their abominations; within a very little time you were more corrupt than they in all your ways.

Eze 16:48 As I live, says the Lord GOD, your sister Sodom and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done.

Eze 16:49 This was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy.

Eze 16:50 They were haughty, and did abominable things before me; therefore I removed them when I saw it.

Eze 16:51 Samaria has not committed half your sins; you have committed more abominations than they, and have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations that you have committed.

Eze 16:52 Bear your disgrace, you also, for you have brought about for your sisters a more favorable judgment; because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. So be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

Eze 16:53 I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and I will restore your own fortunes along with theirs,

Eze 16:54 in order that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done, becoming a consolation to them.

Eze 16:55 As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former state, Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, and you and your daughters shall return to your former state.

Eze 16:56 Was not your sister Sodom a byword in your mouth in the day of your pride,

Eze 16:57 before your wickedness was uncovered? Now you are a mockery to the daughters of Aram and all her neighbors, and to the daughters of the Philistines, those all around who despise you.

Eze 16:58 You must bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.

Eze 16:59 Yes, thus says the Lord GOD: I will deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath, breaking the covenant;

Eze 16:60 yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish with you an everlasting covenant.

Eze 16:61 Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed when I take your sisters, both your elder and your younger, and give them to you as daughters, but not on account of my covenant with you.

Eze 16:62 I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD,

Eze 16:63 in order that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I forgive you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 17:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 17:2 O mortal, propound a riddle, and speak an allegory to the house of Israel.

Eze 17:3 Say: Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle, with great wings and long pinions, rich in plumage of many colors, came to the Lebanon. He took the top of the cedar,

Eze 17:4 broke off its topmost shoot; He carried it to a land of trade, set it in a city of merchants.

Eze 17:5 Then he took a seed from the land, placed it in fertile soil; a plant by abundant waters, he set it like a willow twig.

Eze 17:6 It sprouted and became a vine spreading out, but low; its branches turned toward him, its roots remained where it stood. So it became a vine; it brought forth branches, put forth foliage.

Eze 17:7 There was another great eagle, with great wings and much plumage. And see! This vine stretched out its roots toward him; it shot out its branches toward him, so that he might water it. From the bed where it was planted

Eze 17:8 it was transplanted to good soil by abundant waters, so that it might produce branches and bear fruit and become a noble vine.

Eze 17:9 Say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Will it prosper? Will he not pull up its roots, cause its fruit to rot and wither, its fresh sprouting leaves to fade? No strong arm or mighty army will be needed to pull it from its roots.

Eze 17:10 When it is transplanted, will it thrive? When the east wind strikes it, will it not utterly wither, wither on the bed where it grew?

Eze 17:11 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 17:12 Say now to the rebellious house: Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them: The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and its officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon.

Eze 17:13 He took one of the royal offspring and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath (he had taken away the chief men of the land),

Eze 17:14 so that the kingdom might be humble and not lift itself up, and that by keeping his covenant it might stand.

Eze 17:15 But he rebelled against him by sending ambassadors to Egypt, in order that they might give him horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Can one escape who does such things? Can he break the covenant and yet escape?

Eze 17:16 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king resides who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant with him he broke-- in Babylon he shall die.

Eze 17:17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in war, when ramps are cast up and siege walls built to cut off many lives.

Eze 17:18 Because he despised the oath and broke the covenant, because he gave his hand and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

Eze 17:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, I will surely return upon his head my oath that he despised, and my covenant that he broke.

Eze 17:20 I will spread my net over him, and he shall be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there for the treason he has committed against me.

Eze 17:21 All the pick of his troops shall fall by the sword, and the survivors shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken.

Eze 17:22 Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

Eze 17:23 On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind.

Eze 17:24 All the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken; I will accomplish it.

Eze 18:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 18:2 What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, "The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge"?

Eze 18:3 As I live, says the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel.

Eze 18:4 Know that all lives are mine; the life of the parent as well as the life of the child is mine: it is only the person who sins that shall die.

Eze 18:5 If a man is righteous and does what is lawful and right--

Eze 18:6 if he does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor's wife or approach a woman during her menstrual period,

Eze 18:7 does not oppress anyone, but restores to the debtor his pledge, commits no robbery, gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

Eze 18:8 does not take advance or accrued interest, withholds his hand from iniquity, executes true justice between contending parties,

Eze 18:9 follows my statutes, and is careful to observe my ordinances, acting faithfully-- such a one is righteous; he shall surely live, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 18:10 If he has a son who is violent, a shedder of blood,

Eze 18:11 who does any of these things (though his father does none of them), who eats upon the mountains, defiles his neighbor's wife,

Eze 18:12 oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not restore the pledge, lifts up his eyes to the idols, commits abomination,

Eze 18:13 takes advance or accrued interest; shall he then live? He shall not. He has done all these abominable things; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon himself.

Eze 18:14 But if this man has a son who sees all the sins that his father has done, considers, and does not do likewise,

Eze 18:15 who does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor's wife,

Eze 18:16 does not wrong anyone, exacts no pledge, commits no robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

Eze 18:17 withholds his hand from iniquity, takes no advance or accrued interest, observes my ordinances, and follows my statutes; he shall not die for his father's iniquity; he shall surely live.

Eze 18:18 As for his father, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people, he dies for his iniquity.

Eze 18:19 Yet you say, "Why should not the son suffer for the iniquity of the father?" When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has been careful to observe all my statutes, he shall surely live.

Eze 18:20 The person who sins shall die. A child shall not suffer for the iniquity of a parent, nor a parent suffer for the iniquity of a child; the righteousness of the righteous shall be his own, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be his own.

Eze 18:21 But if the wicked turn away from all their sins that they have committed and keep all my statutes and do what is lawful and right, they shall surely live; they shall not die.

Eze 18:22 None of the transgressions that they have committed shall be remembered against them; for the righteousness that they have done they shall live.

Eze 18:23 Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, says the Lord GOD, and not rather that they should turn from their ways and live?

Eze 18:24 But when the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity and do the same abominable things that the wicked do, shall they live? None of the righteous deeds that they have done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which they are guilty and the sin they have committed, they shall die.

Eze 18:25 Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is unfair." Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Eze 18:26 When the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity, they shall die for it; for the iniquity that they have committed they shall die.

Eze 18:27 Again, when the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is lawful and right, they shall save their life.

Eze 18:28 Because they considered and turned away from all the transgressions that they had committed, they shall surely live; they shall not die.

Eze 18:29 Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the Lord is unfair." O house of Israel, are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Eze 18:30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, all of you according to your ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions; otherwise iniquity will be your ruin.

Eze 18:31 Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel?

Eze 18:32 For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, says the Lord GOD. Turn, then, and live.

Eze 19:1 As for you, raise up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
Eze 19:2 and say: What a lioness was your mother among lions! She lay down among young lions, rearing her cubs.
Eze 19:3 She raised up one of her cubs; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured humans.
Eze 19:4 The nations sounded an alarm against him; he was caught in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.
Eze 19:5 When she saw that she was thwarted, that her hope was lost, she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.
Eze 19:6 He prowled among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured people.
Eze 19:7 And he ravaged their strongholds, and laid waste their towns; the land was appalled, and all in it, at the sound of his roaring.
Eze 19:8 The nations set upon him from the provinces all around; they spread their net over him; he was caught in their pit.
Eze 19:9 With hooks they put him in a cage, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into custody, so that his voice should be heard no more on the mountains of Israel.
Eze 19:10 Your mother was like a vine in a vineyard transplanted by the water, fruitful and full of branches from abundant water.
Eze 19:11 Its strongest stem became a ruler's scepter; it towered aloft among the thick boughs; it stood out in its height with its mass of branches.
Eze 19:12 But it was plucked up in fury, cast down to the ground; the east wind dried it up; its fruit was stripped off, its strong stem was withered; the fire consumed it.
Eze 19:13 Now it is transplanted into the wilderness, into a dry and thirsty land.
Eze 19:14 And fire has gone out from its stem, has consumed its branches and fruit, so that there remains in it no strong stem, no scepter for ruling. This is a lamentation, and it is used as a lamentation.
Eze 20:1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, certain elders of Israel came to consult the LORD, and sat down before me.
Eze 20:2 And the word of the LORD came to me:
Eze 20:3 Mortal, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: Why are you coming? To consult me? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be consulted by you.
Eze 20:4 Will you judge them, mortal, will you judge them? Then let them know the abominations of their ancestors,
Eze 20:5 and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day when I chose Israel, I swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob-- making myself known to them in the land of Egypt-- I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God.
Eze 20:6 On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands.
Eze 20:7 And I said to them, Cast away the detestable things your eyes feast on, every one of you, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.
Eze 20:8 But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; not one of them cast away the detestable things their eyes feasted on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.
Eze 20:9 But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, in whose sight I made myself known to them in bringing them out of the land of Egypt.
Eze 20:10 So I led them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.
Eze 20:11 I gave them my statutes and showed them my ordinances, by whose observance everyone shall live.
Eze 20:12 Moreover I gave them my sabbaths, as a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I the LORD sanctify them.
Eze 20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not observe my statutes but rejected my ordinances, by whose observance everyone shall live; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to make an end of them.
Eze 20:14 But I acted for the sake of my name, so that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.
Eze 20:15 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land that I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands,
Eze 20:16 because they rejected my ordinances and did not observe my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.
Eze 20:17 Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I did not destroy them or make an end of them in the wilderness.

Eze 20:18 I said to their children in the wilderness, Do not follow the statutes of your parents, nor observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

Eze 20:19 I the LORD am your God; follow my statutes, and be careful to observe my ordinances,

Eze 20:20 and hallow my sabbaths that they may be a sign between me and you, so that you may know that I the LORD am your God.

Eze 20:21 But the children rebelled against me; they did not follow my statutes, and were not careful to observe my ordinances, by whose observance everyone shall live; they profaned my sabbaths. Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the wilderness.

Eze 20:22 But I withheld my hand, and acted for the sake of my name, so that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Eze 20:23 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries,

Eze 20:24 because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes and profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were set on their ancestors' idols.

Eze 20:25 Moreover I gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances by which they could not live.

Eze 20:26 I defiled them through their very gifts, in their offering up all their firstborn, in order that I might horrify them, so that they might know that I am the LORD.

Eze 20:27 Therefore, mortal, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In this again your ancestors blasphemed me, by dealing treacherously with me.

Eze 20:28 For when I had brought them into the land that I swore to give them, then wherever they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices and presented the provocation of their offering; there they sent up their pleasing odors, and there they poured out their drink offerings.

Eze 20:29 (I said to them, What is the high place to which you go? So it is called Bamah to this day.)

Eze 20:30 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will you defile yourselves after the manner of your ancestors and go astray after their detestable things?

Eze 20:31 When you offer your gifts and make your children pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be consulted by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be consulted by you.

Eze 20:32 What is in your mind shall never happen-- the thought, "Let us be like the nations, like the tribes of the countries, and worship wood and stone."

Eze 20:33 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you.

Eze 20:34 I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out;

Eze 20:35 and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

Eze 20:36 As I entered into judgment with your ancestors in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 20:37 I will make you pass under the staff, and will bring you within the bond of the covenant.

Eze 20:38 I will purge out the rebels among you, and those who transgress against me; I will bring them out of the land where they reside as aliens, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 20:39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go serve your idols, everyone of you now and hereafter, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts and your idols.

Eze 20:40 For on my holy mountain, the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land; there I will accept them, and there I will require your contributions and the choicest of your gifts, with all your sacred things.

Eze 20:41 As a pleasing odor I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will manifest my holiness among you in the sight of the nations.

Eze 20:42 You shall know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the country that I swore to give to your ancestors.

Eze 20:43 There you shall remember your ways and all the deeds by which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves for all the evils that you have committed.

Eze 20:44 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, or corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 20:45 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 20:46 Mortal, set your face toward the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest land in the Negeb;

Eze 20:47 say to the forest of the Negeb, Hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you and every dry tree; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from south to north shall be scorched by it.

Eze 20:48 All flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.

Eze 20:49 Then I said, "Ah Lord GOD! they are saying of me, 'Is he not a maker of allegories?'"

Eze 21:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 21:2 Mortal, set your face toward Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel

Eze 21:3 and say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD: I am coming against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you both righteous and wicked.

Eze 21:4 Because I will cut off from you both righteous and wicked, therefore my sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh from south to north;

Eze 21:5 and all flesh shall know that I the LORD have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not be sheathed again.

Eze 21:6 Moan therefore, mortal; moan with breaking heart and bitter grief before their eyes.

Eze 21:7 And when they say to you, "Why do you moan?" you shall say, "Because of the news that has come. Every heart will melt and all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint and all knees will turn to water. See, it comes and it will be fulfilled," says the Lord GOD.

Eze 21:8 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 21:9 Mortal, prophesy and say: Thus says the Lord; Say: A sword, a sword is sharpened, it is also polished;

Eze 21:10 it is sharpened for slaughter, honed to flash like lightning! How can we make merry? You have despised the rod, and all discipline.

Eze 21:11 The sword is given to be polished, to be grasped in the hand; it is sharpened, the sword is polished, to be placed in the slayer's hand.

Eze 21:12 Cry and wail, O mortal, for it is against my people; it is against all Israel's princes; they are thrown to the sword, together with my people. Ah! Strike the thigh!

Eze 21:13 For consider: What! If you despise the rod, will it not happen? says the Lord GOD.

Eze 21:14 And you, mortal, prophesy; strike hand to hand. Let the sword fall twice, thrice; it is a sword for killing. A sword for great slaughter-- it surrounds them;

Eze 21:15 therefore hearts melt and many stumble. At all their gates I have set the point of the sword. Ah! It is made for flashing, it is polished for slaughter.

Eze 21:16 Attack to the right! Engage to the left!-- wherever your edge is directed.

Eze 21:17 I too will strike hand to hand, I will satisfy my fury; I the LORD have spoken.

Eze 21:18 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 21:19 Mortal, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both of them shall issue from the same land. And make a signpost, make it for a fork in the road leading to a city;

Eze 21:20 mark out the road for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites or to Judah and to Jerusalem the fortified.

Eze 21:21 For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the way, at the fork in the two roads, to use divination; he shakes the arrows, he consults the teraphim, he inspects the liver.

Eze 21:22 Into his right hand comes the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to call out for slaughter, for raising the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up ramps, to build siege towers.

Eze 21:23 But to them it will seem like a false divination; they have sworn solemn oaths; but he brings their guilt to remembrance, bringing about their capture.

Eze 21:24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have brought your guilt to remembrance, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your deeds your sins appear-- because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in hand.

Eze 21:25 As for you, vile, wicked prince of Israel, you whose day has come, the time of final punishment,

Eze 21:26 thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the turban, take off the crown; things shall not remain as they are. Exalt that which is low, abase that which is high.

Eze 21:27 A ruin, a ruin, a ruin-- I will make it! (Such has never occurred.) Until he comes whose right it is; to him I will give it.

Eze 21:28 As for you, mortal, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; say: A sword, a sword! Drawn for slaughter, polished to consume, to flash like lightning.

Eze 21:29 Offering false visions for you, divining lies for you, they place you over the necks of the vile, wicked ones-- those whose day has come, the time of final punishment.

Eze 21:30 Return it to its sheath! In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you.

Eze 21:31 I will pour out my indignation upon you, with the fire of my wrath I will blow upon you. I will deliver you into brutish hands, those skillful to destroy.

Eze 21:32 You shall be fuel for the fire, your blood shall enter the earth; you shall be remembered no more, for I the LORD have spoken.

Eze 22:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 22:2 You, mortal, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then declare to it all its abominable deeds.

Eze 22:3 You shall say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A city! Shedding blood within itself; its time has come; making its idols, defiling itself.

Eze 22:4 You have become guilty by the blood that you have shed, and defiled by the idols that you have made; you have brought your day near, the appointed time of your years has come. Therefore I have made you a disgrace before the nations, and a mockery to all the countries.

Eze 22:5 Those who are near and those who are far from you will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

Eze 22:6 The princes of Israel in you, everyone according to his power, have been bent on shedding blood.

Eze 22:7 Father and mother are treated with contempt in you; the alien residing within you suffers extortion; the orphan and the widow are wronged in you.

Eze 22:8 You have despised my holy things, and profaned my sabbaths.

Eze 22:9 In you are those who slander to shed blood, those in you who eat upon the mountains, who commit lewdness in your midst.

Eze 22:10 In you they uncover their fathers' nakedness; in you they violate women in their menstrual periods.

Eze 22:11 One commits abomination with his neighbor's wife; another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; another in you defiles his sister, his father's daughter.

Eze 22:12 In you, they take bribes to shed blood; you take both advance interest and accrued interest, and make gain of your neighbors by extortion; and you have forgotten me, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 22:13 See, I strike my hands together at the dishonest gain you have made, and at the blood that has been shed within you.

Eze 22:14 Can your courage endure, or can your hands remain strong in the days when I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.

Eze 22:15 I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the countries, and I will purge your filthiness out of you.

Eze 22:16 And I shall be profaned through you in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 22:17 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 22:18 Mortal, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them, silver, bronze, tin, iron, and lead. In the smelter they have become dross.

Eze 22:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

Eze 22:20 As one gathers silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a smelter, to blow the fire upon them in order to melt them; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will put you in and melt you.

Eze 22:21 I will gather you and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted within it.

Eze 22:22 As silver is melted in a smelter, so you shall be melted in it; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath upon you.

Eze 22:23 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 22:24 Mortal, say to it: You are a land that is not cleansed, not rained upon in the day of indignation.

Eze 22:25 Its princes within it are like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured human lives; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows within it.

Eze 22:26 Its priests have done violence to my teaching and have profaned my holy things; they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean, and they have disregarded my sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

Eze 22:27 Its officials within it are like wolves tearing the prey, shedding blood, destroying lives to get dishonest gain.

Eze 22:28 Its prophets have smeared whitewash on their behalf, seeing false visions and divining lies for them, saying, "Thus says the Lord GOD," when the LORD has not spoken.

Eze 22:29 The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery; they have oppressed the poor and needy, and have extorted from the alien without redress.

Eze 22:30 And I sought for anyone among them who would repair the wall and stand in the breach before me on behalf of the land, so that I would not destroy it; but I found no one.

Eze 22:31 Therefore I have poured out my indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath; I have returned their conduct upon their heads, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 23:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 23:2 Mortal, there were two women, the daughters of one mother;
Eze 23:3 they played the whore in Egypt; they played the whore in their youth; their breasts were caressed there, and their virgin bosoms were fondled.
Eze 23:4 Oholah was the name of the elder and Oholibah the name of her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.
Eze 23:5 Oholah played the whore while she was mine; she lusted after her lovers the Assyrians, warriors
Eze 23:6 clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all of them handsome young men, mounted horsemen.
Eze 23:7 She bestowed her favors upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and she defiled herself with all the idols of everyone for whom she lusted.
Eze 23:8 She did not give up her whorings that she had practiced since Egypt; for in her youth men had lain with her and fondled her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her.
Eze 23:9 Therefore I delivered her into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of the Assyrians, for whom she lusted.
Eze 23:10 These uncovered her nakedness; they seized her sons and her daughters; and they killed her with the sword. Judgment was executed upon her, and she became a byword among women.
Eze 23:11 Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt than she in her lusting and in her whorings, which were worse than those of her sister.
Eze 23:12 She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and commanders, warriors clothed in full armor, mounted horsemen, all of them handsome young men.
Eze 23:13 And I saw that she was defiled; they both took the same way.
Eze 23:14 But she carried her whorings further; she saw male figures carved on the wall, images of the Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion,
Eze 23:15 with belts around their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers-- a picture of Babylonians whose native land was Chaldea.
Eze 23:16 When she saw them she lusted after them, and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.
Eze 23:17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their lust; and after she defiled herself with them, she turned from them in disgust.
Eze 23:18 When she carried on her whorings so openly and flaunted her nakedness, I turned in disgust from her, as I had turned from her sister.
Eze 23:19 Yet she increased her whorings, remembering the days of her youth, when she played the whore in the land of Egypt
Eze 23:20 and lusted after her paramours there, whose members were like those of donkeys, and whose emission was like that of stallions.
Eze 23:21 Thus you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your bosom and caressed your young breasts.
Eze 23:22 Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: I will rouse against you your lovers from whom you turned in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side:
Eze 23:23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, governors and commanders all of them, officers and warriors, all of them riding on horses.
Eze 23:24 They shall come against you from the north with chariots and wagons and a host of peoples; they shall set themselves against you on every side with buckler, shield, and helmet, and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their ordinances.
Eze 23:25 I will direct my indignation against you, in order that they may deal with you in fury. They shall cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors shall fall by the sword. They shall seize your sons and your daughters, and your survivors shall be devoured by fire.
Eze 23:26 They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your fine jewels.
Eze 23:27 So I will put an end to your lewdness and your whoring brought from the land of Egypt; you shall not long for them, or remember Egypt any more.
Eze 23:28 For thus says the Lord GOD: I will deliver you into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those from whom you turned in disgust;
Eze 23:29 and they shall deal with you in hatred, and take away all the fruit of your labor, and leave you naked and bare, and the nakedness of your whorings shall be exposed. Your lewdness and your whorings
Eze 23:30 have brought this upon you, because you played the whore with the nations, and polluted yourself with their idols.
Eze 23:31 You have gone the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.
Eze 23:32 Thus says the Lord GOD: You shall drink your sister's cup, deep and wide; you shall be scorned and derided, it holds so much.
Eze 23:33 You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow. A cup of horror and desolation is the cup of your sister Samaria;

Eze 23:34 you shall drink it and drain it out, and gnaw its sherds, and tear out your breasts; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 23:35 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, therefore bear the consequences of your lewdness and whorings.

Eze 23:36 The LORD said to me: Mortal, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominable deeds.

Eze 23:37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands; with their idols they have committed adultery; and they have even offered up to them for food the children whom they had borne to me.

Eze 23:38 Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary on the same day and profaned my sabbaths.

Eze 23:39 For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, on the same day they came into my sanctuary to profane it. This is what they did in my house.

Eze 23:40 They even sent for men to come from far away, to whom a messenger was sent, and they came. For them you bathed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments;

Eze 23:41 you sat on a stately couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed my incense and my oil.

Eze 23:42 The sound of a raucous multitude was around her, with many of the rabble brought in drunken from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on the arms of the women, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

Eze 23:43 Then I said, Ah, she is worn out with adulteries, but they carry on their sexual acts with her.

Eze 23:44 For they have gone in to her, as one goes in to a whore. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, wanton women.

Eze 23:45 But righteous judges shall declare them guilty of adultery and of bloodshed; because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

Eze 23:46 For thus says the Lord GOD: Bring up an assembly against them, and make them an object of terror and of plunder.

Eze 23:47 The assembly shall stone them and with their swords they shall cut them down; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses.

Eze 23:48 Thus will I put an end to lewdness in the land, so that all women may take warning and not commit lewdness as you have done.

Eze 23:49 They shall repay you for your lewdness, and you shall bear the penalty for your sinful idolatry; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Eze 24:1 In the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 24:2 Mortal, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

Eze 24:3 And utter an allegory to the rebellious house and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Set on the pot, set it on, pour in water also;

Eze 24:4 put in it the pieces, all the good pieces, the thigh and the shoulder; fill it with choice bones.

Eze 24:5 Take the choicest one of the flock, pile the logs under it; boil its pieces, seethe also its bones in it.

Eze 24:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city, the pot whose rust is in it, whose rust has not gone out of it! Empty it piece by piece, making no choice at all.

Eze 24:7 For the blood she shed is inside it; she placed it on a bare rock; she did not pour it out on the ground, to cover it with earth.

Eze 24:8 To rouse my wrath, to take vengeance, I have placed the blood she shed on a bare rock, so that it may not be covered.

Eze 24:9 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile great.

Eze 24:10 Heap up the logs, kindle the fire; boil the meat well, mix in the spices, let the bones be burned.

Eze 24:11 Stand it empty upon the coals, so that it may become hot, its copper glow, its filth melt in it, its rust be consumed.

Eze 24:12 In vain I have wearied myself; its thick rust does not depart. To the fire with its rust!

Eze 24:13 Yet, when I cleansed you in your filthy lewdness, you did not become clean from your filth; you shall not again be cleansed until I have satisfied my fury upon you.

Eze 24:14 I the LORD have spoken; the time is coming, I will act. I will not refrain, I will not spare, I will not relent. According to your ways and your doings I will judge you, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 24:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 24:16 Mortal, with one blow I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes; yet you shall not mourn or weep, nor shall your tears run down.

Eze 24:17 Sigh, but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your sandals on your feet; do not cover your upper lip or eat the bread of mourners.

Eze 24:18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And on the next morning I did as I was commanded.

Eze 24:19 Then the people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are acting this way?"

Eze 24:20 Then I said to them: The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 24:21 Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and your heart's desire; and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword.

Eze 24:22 And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your upper lip or eat the bread of mourners.

Eze 24:23 Your turbans shall be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you shall not mourn or weep, but you shall pine away in your iniquities and groan to one another.

Eze 24:24 Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; you shall do just as he has done. When this comes, then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Eze 24:25 And you, mortal, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes and their heart's affection, and also their sons and their daughters,

Eze 24:26 on that day, one who has escaped will come to you to report to you the news.

Eze 24:27 On that day your mouth shall be opened to the one who has escaped, and you shall speak and no longer be silent. So you shall be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 25:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 25:2 Mortal, set your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

Eze 25:3 Say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Because you said, "Aha!" over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and over the house of Judah when it went into exile;

Eze 25:4 therefore I am handing you over to the people of the east for a possession. They shall set their encampments among you and pitch their tents in your midst; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.

Eze 25:5 I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a fold for flocks. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 25:6 For thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the malice within you against the land of Israel,

Eze 25:7 therefore I have stretched out my hand against you, and will hand you over as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and will make you perish out of the countries; I will destroy you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 25:8 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Moab said, The house of Judah is like all the other nations,

Eze 25:9 therefore I will lay open the flank of Moab from the towns on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim.

Eze 25:10 I will give it along with Ammon to the people of the east as a possession. Thus Ammon shall be remembered no more among the nations,

Eze 25:11 and I will execute judgments upon Moab. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 25:12 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Edom acted revengefully against the house of Judah and has grievously offended in taking vengeance upon them,

Eze 25:13 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against Edom, and cut off from it humans and animals, and I will make it desolate; from Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword.

Eze 25:14 I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall act in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 25:15 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because with unending hostilities the Philistines acted in vengeance, and with malice of heart took revenge in destruction;

Eze 25:16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the rest of the seacoast.

Eze 25:17 I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful punishments. Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance on them.

Eze 26:1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 26:2 Mortal, because Tyre said concerning Jerusalem, "Aha, broken is the gateway of the peoples; it has swung open to me; I shall be replenished, now that it is wasted,"

Eze 26:3 therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: See, I am against you, O Tyre! I will hurl many nations against you, as the sea hurls its waves.

Eze 26:4 They shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down its towers. I will scrape its soil from it and make it a bare rock.

Eze 26:5 It shall become, in the midst of the sea, a place for spreading nets. I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

It shall become plunder for the nations,

Eze 26:6 and its daughter-towns in the country shall be killed by the sword. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 26:7 For thus says the Lord GOD: I will bring against Tyre from the north King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, king of kings, together with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a great and powerful army.

Eze 26:8 Your daughter-towns in the country he shall put to the sword. He shall set up a siege wall against you, cast up a ramp against you, and raise a roof of shields against you.

Eze 26:9 He shall direct the shock of his battering rams against your walls and break down your towers with his axes.

Eze 26:10 His horses shall be so many that their dust shall cover you. At the noise of cavalry, wheels, and chariots your very walls shall shake, when he enters your gates like those entering a breached city.

Eze 26:11 With the hoofs of his horses he shall trample all your streets. He shall put your people to the sword, and your strong pillars shall fall to the ground.

Eze 26:12 They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise; they shall break down your walls and destroy your fine houses. Your stones and timber and soil they shall cast into the water.

Eze 26:13 I will silence the music of your songs; the sound of your lyres shall be heard no more.

Eze 26:14 I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for spreading nets. You shall never again be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 26:15 Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when slaughter goes on within you?

Eze 26:16 Then all the princes of the sea shall step down from their thrones; they shall remove their robes and strip off their embroidered garments. They shall clothe themselves with trembling, and shall sit on the ground; they shall tremble every moment, and be appalled at you.

Eze 26:17 And they shall raise a lamentation over you, and say to you: How you have vanished from the seas, O city renowned, once mighty on the sea, you and your inhabitants, who imposed your terror on all the mainland!

Eze 26:18 Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall; the coastlands by the sea are dismayed at your passing.

Eze 26:19 For thus says the Lord GOD: When I make you a city laid waste, like cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you, and the great waters cover you,

Eze 26:20 then I will thrust you down with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of long ago, and I will make you live in the world below, among primeval ruins, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you will not be inhabited or have a place in the land of the living.

Eze 26:21 I will bring you to a dreadful end, and you shall be no more; though sought for, you will never be found again, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 27:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 27:2 Now you, mortal, raise a lamentation over Tyre,

Eze 27:3 and say to Tyre, which sits at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, Thus says the Lord GOD: O Tyre, you have said, "I am perfect in beauty."

Eze 27:4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders made perfect your beauty.

Eze 27:5 They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

Eze 27:6 From oaks of Bashan they made your oars; they made your deck of pines from the coasts of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.

Eze 27:7 Of fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail, serving as your ensign; blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was your awning.

Eze 27:8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; skilled men of Zemer were within you, they were your pilots.

Eze 27:9 The elders of Gebal and its artisans were within you, caulking your seams; all the ships of the sea with their mariners were within you, to barter for your wares.

Eze 27:10 Paras and Lud and Put were in your army, your mighty warriors; they hung shield and helmet in you; they gave you splendor.

Eze 27:11 Men of Arvad and Helech were on your walls all around; men of Gamad were at your towers. They hung their quivers all around your walls; they made perfect your beauty.

Eze 27:12 Tarshish did business with you out of the abundance of your great wealth; silver, iron, tin, and lead they exchanged for your wares.

Eze 27:13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged human beings and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

Eze 27:14 Beth-togarmah exchanged for your wares horses, war horses, and mules.

Eze 27:15 The Rhodians traded with you; many coastlands were your own special markets; they brought you in payment ivory tusks and ebony.

Eze 27:16 Edom did business with you because of your abundant goods; they exchanged for your wares turquoise, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

Eze 27:17 Judah and the land of Israel traded with you; they exchanged for your merchandise wheat from Minnith, millet, honey, oil, and balm.

Eze 27:18 Damascus traded with you for your abundant goods-- because of your great wealth of every kind-- wine of Helbon, and white wool.

Eze 27:19 Vedan and Javan from Uzal entered into trade for your wares; wrought iron, cassia, and sweet cane were bartered for your merchandise.

Eze 27:20 Dedan traded with you in saddlecloths for riding.

Eze 27:21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your favored dealers in lambs, rams, and goats; in these they did business with you.

Eze 27:22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; they exchanged for your wares the best of all kinds of spices, and all precious stones, and gold.

Eze 27:23 Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you.

Eze 27:24 These traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in carpets of colored material, bound with cords and made secure; in these they traded with you.

Eze 27:25 The ships of Tarshish traveled for you in your trade. So you were filled and heavily laden in the heart of the seas.

Eze 27:26 Your rowers have brought you into the high seas. The east wind has wrecked you in the heart of the seas.

Eze 27:27 Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your mariners and your pilots, your caulkers, your dealers in merchandise, and all your warriors within you, with all the company that is with you, sink into the heart of the seas on the day of your ruin.

Eze 27:28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots the countryside shakes,

Eze 27:29 and down from their ships come all that handle the oar. The mariners and all the pilots of the sea stand on the shore

Eze 27:30 and wail aloud over you, and cry bitterly. They throw dust on their heads and wallow in ashes;

Eze 27:31 they make themselves bald for you, and put on sackcloth, and they weep over you in bitterness of soul, with bitter mourning.

Eze 27:32 In their wailing they raise a lamentation for you, and lament over you: "Who was ever destroyed like Tyre in the midst of the sea?

Eze 27:33 When your wares came from the seas, you satisfied many peoples; with your abundant wealth and merchandise you enriched the kings of the earth.

Eze 27:34 Now you are wrecked by the seas, in the depths of the waters; your merchandise and all your crew have sunk with you.

Eze 27:35 All the inhabitants of the coastlands are appalled at you; and their kings are horribly afraid, their faces are convulsed.

Eze 27:36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more forever."

Eze 28:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 28:2 Mortal, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because your heart is proud and you have said, "I am a god; I sit in the seat of the gods, in the heart of the seas," yet you are but a mortal, and no god, though you compare your mind with the mind of a god.

Eze 28:3 You are indeed wiser than Daniel; no secret is hidden from you;

Eze 28:4 by your wisdom and your understanding you have amassed wealth for yourself, and have gathered gold and silver into your treasuries.

Eze 28:5 By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your wealth, and your heart has become proud in your wealth.

Eze 28:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you compare your mind with the mind of a god,

Eze 28:7 therefore, I will bring strangers against you, the most terrible of the nations; they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and defile your splendor.

Eze 28:8 They shall thrust you down to the Pit, and you shall die a violent death in the heart of the seas.

Eze 28:9 Will you still say, "I am a god," in the presence of those who kill you, though you are but a mortal, and no god, in the hands of those who wound you?

Eze 28:10 You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 28:11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 28:12 Mortal, raise a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD: You were the signet of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

Eze 28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, carnelian, chrysolite, and moonstone, beryl, onyx, and jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and emerald; and worked in gold were your settings and your engravings. On the day that you were created they were prepared.

Eze 28:14 With an anointed cherub as guardian I placed you; you were on the holy mountain of God; you walked among the stones of fire.

Eze 28:15 You were blameless in your ways from the day that you were created, until iniquity was found in you.

Eze 28:16 In the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned; so I cast you as a profane thing from the mountain of God, and the guardian cherub drove you out from among the stones of fire.

Eze 28:17 Your heart was proud because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor. I cast you to the ground; I exposed you before kings, to feast their eyes on you.

Eze 28:18 By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade, you profaned your sanctuaries. So I brought out fire from within you; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all who saw you.

Eze 28:19 All who know you among the peoples are appalled at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more forever.

Eze 28:20 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 28:21 Mortal, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it,

Eze 28:22 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Sidon, and I will gain glory in your midst.

They shall know that I am the LORD when I execute judgments in it, and manifest my holiness in it;

Eze 28:23 for I will send pestilence into it, and bloodshed into its streets; and the dead shall fall in its midst, by the sword that is against it on every side. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 28:24 The house of Israel shall no longer find a pricking brier or a piercing thorn among all their neighbors who have treated them with contempt. And they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Eze 28:25 Thus says the Lord GOD: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and manifest my holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall settle on their own soil that I gave to my servant Jacob.

Eze 28:26 They shall live in safety in it, and shall build houses and plant vineyards. They shall live in safety, when I execute judgments upon all their neighbors who have treated them with contempt. And they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

Eze 29:1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 29:2 Mortal, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt;

Eze 29:3 speak, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon sprawling in the midst of its channels, saying, "My Nile is my own; I made it for myself."

Eze 29:4 I will put hooks in your jaws, and make the fish of your channels stick to your scales. I will draw you up from your channels, with all the fish of your channels sticking to your scales.

Eze 29:5 I will fling you into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your channels; you shall fall in the open field, and not be gathered and buried. To the animals of the earth and to the birds of the air I have given you as food.

Eze 29:6 Then all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD because you were a staff of reed to the house of Israel;

Eze 29:7 when they grasped you with the hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and made all their legs unsteady.

Eze 29:8 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: I will bring a sword upon you, and will cut off from you human being and animal;

Eze 29:9 and the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste. Then they shall know that I am the LORD. Because you said, "The Nile is mine, and I made it,"

Eze 29:10 therefore, I am against you, and against your channels, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia.

Eze 29:11 No human foot shall pass through it, and no animal foot shall pass through it; it shall be uninhabited forty years.

Eze 29:12 I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among desolated countries; and her cities shall be a desolation forty years among cities that are laid waste. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries.

Eze 29:13 Further, thus says the Lord GOD: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered;

Eze 29:14 and I will restore the fortunes of Egypt, and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin; and there they shall be a lowly kingdom.

Eze 29:15 It shall be the most lowly of the kingdoms, and never again exalt itself above the nations; and I will make them so small that they will never again rule over the nations.

Eze 29:16 The Egyptians shall never again be the reliance of the house of Israel; they will recall their iniquity, when they turned to them for aid. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Eze 29:17 In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 29:18 Mortal, King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon made his army labor hard against Tyre; every head was made bald and every shoulder was rubbed bare; yet neither he nor his army got anything from Tyre to pay for the labor that he had expended against it.

Eze 29:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will give the land of Egypt to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon; and he shall carry off its wealth and despoil it and plunder it; and it shall be the wages for his army.

Eze 29:20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his payment for which he labored, because they worked for me, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 29:21 On that day I will cause a horn to sprout up for the house of Israel, and I will open your lips among them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 30:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 30:2 Mortal, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Wail, "Alas for the day!"

Eze 30:3 For a day is near, the day of the LORD is near; it will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

Eze 30:4 A sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain fall in Egypt, and its wealth is carried away, and its foundations are torn down.

Eze 30:5 Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all Arabia, and Libya, and the people of the allied land shall fall with them by the sword.

Eze 30:6 Thus says the LORD: Those who support Egypt shall fall, and its proud might shall come down; from Migdol to Syene they shall fall within it by the sword, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 30:7 They shall be desolated among other desolated countries, and their cities shall lie among cities laid waste.

Eze 30:8 Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set fire to Egypt, and all who help it are broken.

Eze 30:9 On that day, messengers shall go out from me in ships to terrify the unsuspecting Ethiopians; and anguish shall come upon them on the day of Egypt's doom; for it is coming!

Eze 30:10 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt, by the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon.

Eze 30:11 He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

Eze 30:12 I will dry up the channels, and will sell the land into the hand of evildoers; I will bring desolation upon the land and everything in it by the hand of foreigners; I the LORD have spoken.

Eze 30:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will destroy the idols and put an end to the images in Memphis; there shall no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt; so I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

Eze 30:14 I will make Pathros a desolation, and will set fire to Zoan, and will execute acts of judgment on Thebes.

Eze 30:15 I will pour my wrath upon Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the hordes of Thebes.

Eze 30:16 I will set fire to Egypt; Pelusium shall be in great agony; Thebes shall be breached, and Memphis face adversaries by day.

Eze 30:17 The young men of On and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword; and the cities themselves shall go into captivity.

Eze 30:18 At Tehaphnehes the day shall be dark, when I break there the dominion of Egypt, and its proud might shall come to an end; the city shall be covered by a cloud, and its daughter-towns shall go into captivity.

Eze 30:19 Thus I will execute acts of judgment on Egypt. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 30:20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 30:21 Mortal, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; it has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage, so that it may become strong to wield the sword.

Eze 30:22 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong arm and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

Eze 30:23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the lands.

Eze 30:24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him with the groans of one mortally wounded.

Eze 30:25 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon. He shall stretch it out against the land of Egypt, Eze 30:26 and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 31:1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 31:2 Mortal, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes: Whom are you like in your greatness?

Eze 31:3 Consider Assyria, a cedar of Lebanon, with fair branches and forest shade, and of great height, its top among the clouds.

Eze 31:4 The waters nourished it, the deep made it grow tall, making its rivers flow around the place it was planted, sending forth its streams to all the trees of the field.

Eze 31:5 So it towered high above all the trees of the field; its boughs grew large and its branches long, from abundant water in its shoots.

Eze 31:6 All the birds of the air made their nests in its boughs; under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth to their young; and in its shade all great nations lived.

Eze 31:7 It was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its roots went down to abundant water.

Eze 31:8 The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor the fir trees equal its boughs; the plane trees were as nothing compared with its branches; no tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.

Eze 31:9 I made it beautiful with its mass of branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God.

Eze 31:10 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because it towered high and set its top among the clouds, and its heart was proud of its height,

Eze 31:11 I gave it into the hand of the prince of the nations; he has dealt with it as its wickedness deserves. I have cast it out.

Eze 31:12 Foreigners from the most terrible of the nations have cut it down and left it. On the mountains and in all the valleys its branches have fallen, and its boughs lie broken in all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth went away from its shade and left it.

Eze 31:13 On its fallen trunk settle all the birds of the air, and among its boughs lodge all the wild animals.

Eze 31:14 All this is in order that no trees by the waters may grow to lofty height or set their tops among the clouds, and that no trees that drink water may reach up to them in height. For all of them are handed over to death, to the world below; along with all mortals, with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 31:15 Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day it went down to Sheol I closed the deep over it and covered it; I restrained its rivers, and its mighty waters were checked. I clothed Lebanon in gloom for it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it.

Eze 31:16 I made the nations quake at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who go down to the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that were well watered, were consoled in the world below.

Eze 31:17 They also went down to Sheol with it, to those killed by the sword, along with its allies, those who lived in its shade among the nations.

Eze 31:18 Which among the trees of Eden was like you in glory and in greatness? Now you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the world below; you shall lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are killed by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his horde, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 32:1 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 32:2 Mortal, raise a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him: You consider yourself a lion among the nations, but you are like a dragon in the seas; you thrash about in your streams, trouble the water with your feet, and foul your streams.

Eze 32:3 Thus says the Lord GOD: In an assembly of many peoples I will throw my net over you; and I will haul you up in my dragnet.

Eze 32:4 I will throw you on the ground, on the open field I will fling you, and will cause all the birds of the air to settle on you, and I will let the wild animals of the whole earth gorge themselves with you.

Eze 32:5 I will strew your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your carcass.

Eze 32:6 I will drench the land with your flowing blood up to the mountains, and the watercourses will be filled with you.

Eze 32:7 When I blot you out, I will cover the heavens, and make their stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light.

Eze 32:8 All the shining lights of the heavens I will darken above you, and put darkness on your land, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 32:9 I will trouble the hearts of many peoples, as I carry you captive among the nations, into countries you have not known.

Eze 32:10 I will make many peoples appalled at you; their kings shall shudder because of you. When I brandish my sword before them, they shall tremble every moment for their lives, each one of them, on the day of your downfall.

Eze 32:11 For thus says the Lord GOD: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come against you.

Eze 32:12 I will cause your hordes to fall by the swords of mighty ones, all of them most terrible among the nations. They shall bring to ruin the pride of Egypt, and all its hordes shall perish.

Eze 32:13 I will destroy all its livestock from beside abundant waters; and no human foot shall trouble them any more, nor shall the hoofs of cattle trouble them.

Eze 32:14 Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their streams to run like oil, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 32:15 When I make the land of Egypt desolate and when the land is stripped of all that fills it, when I strike down all who live in it, then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 32:16 This is a lamentation; it shall be chanted. The women of the nations shall chant it. Over Egypt and all its hordes they shall chant it, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 32:17 In the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 32:18 Mortal, wail over the hordes of Egypt, and send them down, with Egypt and the daughters of majestic nations, to the world below, with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:19 "Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down! Be laid to rest with the uncircumcised!"

Eze 32:20 They shall fall among those who are killed by the sword. Egypt has been handed over to the sword; carry away both it and its hordes.

Eze 32:21 The mighty chiefs shall speak of them, with their helpers, out of the midst of Sheol: "They have come down, they lie still, the uncircumcised, killed by the sword."

Eze 32:22 Assyria is there, and all its company, their graves all around it, all of them killed, fallen by the sword.

Eze 32:23 Their graves are set in the uttermost parts of the Pit. Its company is all around its grave, all of them killed, fallen by the sword, who spread terror in the land of the living.

Eze 32:24 Elam is there, and all its hordes around its grave; all of them killed, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised into the world below, who spread terror in the land of the living. They bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:25 They have made Elam a bed among the slain with all its hordes, their graves all around it, all of them uncircumcised, killed by the sword; for terror of them was spread in the land of the living, and they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit; they are placed among the slain.

Eze 32:26 Meshech and Tubal are there, and all their multitude, their graves all around them, all of them uncircumcised, killed by the sword; for they spread terror in the land of the living.

Eze 32:27 And they do not lie with the fallen warriors of long ago who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war, whose swords were laid under their heads, and whose shields are upon their bones; for the terror of the warriors was in the land of the living.

Eze 32:28 So you shall be broken and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are killed by the sword.

Eze 32:29 Edom is there, its kings and all its princes, who for all their might are laid with those who are killed by the sword; they lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:30 The princes of the north are there, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down in shame with the slain, for all the terror that they caused by their might; they lie uncircumcised with those who are killed by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:31 When Pharaoh sees them, he will be consoled for all his hordes-- Pharaoh and all his army, killed by the sword, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 32:32 For he spread terror in the land of the living; therefore he shall be laid to rest among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword-- Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 33:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 33:2 O Mortal, speak to your people and say to them, If I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take one of their number as their sentinel;

Eze 33:3 and if the sentinel sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people;

Eze 33:4 then if any who hear the sound of the trumpet do not take warning, and the sword comes and takes them away, their blood shall be upon their own heads.

Eze 33:5 They heard the sound of the trumpet and did not take warning; their blood shall be upon themselves. But if they had taken warning, they would have saved their lives.

Eze 33:6 But if the sentinel sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, so that the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any of them, they are taken away in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at the sentinel's hand.

Eze 33:7 So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

Eze 33:8 If I say to the wicked, "O wicked ones, you shall surely die," and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand.

Eze 33:9 But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways, and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Eze 33:10 Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have said: "Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?"

Eze 33:11 Say to them, As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?

Eze 33:12 And you, mortal, say to your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not save them when they transgress; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, it shall not make them stumble when they turn from their wickedness; and the righteous shall not be able to live by their righteousness when they sin.

Eze 33:13 Though I say to the righteous that they shall surely live, yet if they trust in their righteousness and commit iniquity, none of their righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in the iniquity that they have committed they shall die.

Eze 33:14 Again, though I say to the wicked, "You shall surely die," yet if they turn from their sin and do what is lawful and right--

Eze 33:15 if the wicked restore the pledge, give back what they have taken by robbery, and walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity-- they shall surely live, they shall not die.

Eze 33:16 None of the sins that they have committed shall be remembered against them; they have done what is lawful and right, they shall surely live.

Eze 33:17 Yet your people say, "The way of the Lord is not just," when it is their own way that is not just.

Eze 33:18 When the righteous turn from their righteousness, and commit iniquity, they shall die for it.

Eze 33:19 And when the wicked turn from their wickedness, and do what is lawful and right, they shall live by it.

Eze 33:20 Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is not just." O house of Israel, I will judge all of you according to your ways!

Eze 33:21 In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, someone who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen."

Eze 33:22 Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the fugitive came; but he had opened my mouth by the time the fugitive came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened, and I was no longer unable to speak.

Eze 33:23 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 33:24 Mortal, the inhabitants of these waste places in the land of Israel keep saying, "Abraham was only one man, yet he got possession of the land; but we are many; the land is surely given us to possess."

Eze 33:25 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat flesh with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood; shall you then possess the land?

Eze 33:26 You depend on your swords, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife; shall you then possess the land?

Eze 33:27 Say this to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and those who are in the open field I will give to the wild animals to be devoured; and those who are in strongholds and in caves shall die by pestilence.

Eze 33:28 I will make the land a desolation and a waste, and its proud might shall come to an end; and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that no one will pass through.

Eze 33:29 Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations that they have committed.

Eze 33:30 As for you, mortal, your people who talk together about you by the walls, and at the doors of the houses, say to one another, each to a neighbor, "Come and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD."

Eze 33:31 They come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but they will not obey them. For flattery is on their lips, but their heart is set on their gain.

Eze 33:32 To them you are like a singer of love songs, one who has a beautiful voice and plays well on an instrument; they hear what you say, but they will not do it.

Eze 33:33 When this comes-- and come it will!-- then they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Eze 34:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 34:2 Mortal, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel: prophesy, and say to them-- to the shepherds: Thus says the Lord GOD: Ah, you shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep?

Eze 34:3 You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep.

Eze 34:4 You have not strengthened the weak, you have not healed the sick, you have not bound up the injured, you have not brought back the strayed, you have not sought the lost, but with force and harshness you have ruled them.

Eze 34:5 So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and scattered, they became food for all the wild animals.

Eze 34:6 My sheep were scattered, they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with no one to search or seek for them.

Eze 34:7 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Eze 34:8 As I live, says the Lord GOD, because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild animals, since there was no shepherd; and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep;

Eze 34:9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Eze 34:10 Thus says the Lord GOD, I am against the shepherds; and I will demand my sheep at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the sheep; no longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, so that they may not be food for them.

Eze 34:11 For thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.

Eze 34:12 As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness.

Eze 34:13 I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land.

Eze 34:14 I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

Eze 34:15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 34:16 I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Eze 34:17 As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats:

Eze 34:18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture? When you drink of clear water, must you foul the rest with your feet?

Eze 34:19 And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have fouled with your feet?

Eze 34:20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

Eze 34:21 Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide,

Eze 34:22 I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

Eze 34:23 I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd.

Eze 34:24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Eze 34:25 I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild animals from the land, so that they may live in the wild and sleep in the woods securely.

Eze 34:26 I will make them and the region around my hill a blessing; and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing.

Eze 34:27 The trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase. They shall be secure on their soil; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke, and save them from the hands of those who enslaved them.

Eze 34:28 They shall no more be plunder for the nations, nor shall the animals of the land devour them; they shall live in safety, and no one shall make them afraid.

Eze 34:29 I will provide for them a splendid vegetation so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the insults of the nations.

Eze 34:30 They shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 34:31 You are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture and I am your God, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 35:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 35:2 Mortal, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,

Eze 35:3 and say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, Mount Seir; I stretch out my hand against you to make you a desolation and a waste.

Eze 35:4 I lay your towns in ruins; you shall become a desolation, and you shall know that I am the LORD.
Eze 35:5 Because you cherished an ancient enmity, and gave over the people of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment;
Eze 35:6 therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed shall pursue you.
Eze 35:7 I will make Mount Seir a waste and a desolation; and I will cut off from it all who come and go.
Eze 35:8 I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses those killed with the sword shall fall.
Eze 35:9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall never be inhabited. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.
Eze 35:10 Because you said, "These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will take possession of them,"-- although the LORD was there--
Eze 35:11 therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will deal with you according to the anger and envy that you showed because of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among you, when I judge you.
Eze 35:12 You shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all the abusive speech that you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying, "They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour."
Eze 35:13 And you magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and multiplied your words against me; I heard it.
Eze 35:14 Thus says the Lord GOD: As the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.
Eze 35:15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will deal with you; you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.
Eze 36:1 And you, mortal, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say: O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.
Eze 36:2 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy said of you, "Aha!" and, "The ancient heights have become our possession,"
Eze 36:3 therefore prophesy, and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they made you desolate indeed, and crushed you from all sides, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you became an object of gossip and slander among the people;
Eze 36:4 therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the deserted towns, which have become a source of plunder and an object of derision to the rest of the nations all around;
Eze 36:5 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am speaking in my hot jealousy against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who, with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, took my land as their possession, because of its pasture, to plunder it.
Eze 36:6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, to the watercourses and valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am speaking in my jealous wrath, because you have suffered the insults of the nations;
Eze 36:7 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I swear that the nations that are all around you shall themselves suffer insults.
Eze 36:8 But you, O mountains of Israel, shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they shall soon come home.
Eze 36:9 See now, I am for you; I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown;
Eze 36:10 and I will multiply your population, the whole house of Israel, all of it; the towns shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt;
Eze 36:11 and I will multiply human beings and animals upon you. They shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited as in your former times, and will do more good to you than ever before. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.
Eze 36:12 I will lead people upon you-- my people Israel-- and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance. No longer shall you bereave them of children.
Eze 36:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they say to you, "You devour people, and you bereave your nation of children,"
Eze 36:14 therefore you shall no longer devour people and no longer bereave your nation of children, says the Lord GOD;
Eze 36:15 and no longer will I let you hear the insults of the nations, no longer shall you bear the disgrace of the peoples; and no longer shall you cause your nation to stumble, says the Lord GOD.
Eze 36:16 The word of the LORD came to me:
Eze 36:17 Mortal, when the house of Israel lived on their own soil, they defiled it with their ways and their deeds; their conduct in my sight was like the uncleanness of a woman in her menstrual period.
Eze 36:18 So I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for the idols with which they had defiled it.

Eze 36:19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries; in accordance with their conduct and their deeds I judged them.

Eze 36:20 But when they came to the nations, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name, in that it was said of them, "These are the people of the LORD, and yet they had to go out of his land."

Eze 36:21 But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they came.

Eze 36:22 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came.

Eze 36:23 I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when through you I display my holiness before their eyes.

Eze 36:24 I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land.

Eze 36:25 I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

Eze 36:26 A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.

Eze 36:27 I will put my spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances.

Eze 36:28 Then you shall live in the land that I gave to your ancestors; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Eze 36:29 I will save you from all your uncleannesses, and I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you.

Eze 36:30 I will make the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field abundant, so that you may never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations.

Eze 36:31 Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your dealings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves for your iniquities and your abominable deeds.

Eze 36:32 It is not for your sake that I will act, says the Lord GOD; let that be known to you. Be ashamed and dismayed for your ways, O house of Israel.

Eze 36:33 Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the towns to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt.

Eze 36:34 The land that was desolate shall be tilled, instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by.

Eze 36:35 And they will say, "This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined towns are now inhabited and fortified."

Eze 36:36 Then the nations that are left all around you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted that which was desolate; I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

Eze 36:37 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also let the house of Israel ask me to do this for them: to increase their population like a flock.

Eze 36:38 Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed festivals, so shall the ruined towns be filled with flocks of people. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 37:1 The hand of the LORD came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones.

Eze 37:2 He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry.

Eze 37:3 He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord GOD, you know."

Eze 37:4 Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

Eze 37:5 Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live.

Eze 37:6 I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

Eze 37:7 So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

Eze 37:8 I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them.

Eze 37:9 Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live."

Eze 37:10 I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

Eze 37:11 Then he said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.'

Eze 37:12 Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

Eze 37:13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people.

Eze 37:14 I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken and will act, says the LORD."

Eze 37:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 37:16 Mortal, take a stick and write on it, "For Judah, and the Israelites associated with it"; then take another stick and write on it, "For Joseph (the stick of Ephraim) and all the house of Israel associated with it";

Eze 37:17 and join them together into one stick, so that they may become one in your hand.

Eze 37:18 And when your people say to you, "Will you not show us what you mean by these?"

Eze 37:19 say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am about to take the stick of Joseph (which is in the hand of Ephraim) and the tribes of Israel associated with it; and I will put the stick of Judah upon it, and make them one stick, in order that they may be one in my hand.

Eze 37:20 When the sticks on which you write are in your hand before their eyes,

Eze 37:21 then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from every quarter, and bring them to their own land.

Eze 37:22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all. Never again shall they be two nations, and never again shall they be divided into two kingdoms.

Eze 37:23 They shall never again defile themselves with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. I will save them from all the apostasies into which they have fallen, and will cleanse them. Then they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Eze 37:24 My servant David shall be king over them; and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall follow my ordinances and be careful to observe my statutes.

Eze 37:25 They shall live in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, in which your ancestors lived; they and their children and their children's children shall live there forever; and my servant David shall be their prince forever.

Eze 37:26 I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will bless them and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forevermore.

Eze 37:27 My dwelling place shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Eze 37:28 Then the nations shall know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary is among them forevermore.

Eze 38:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Eze 38:2 Mortal, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Prophesy against him

Eze 38:3 and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal;

Eze 38:4 I will turn you around and put hooks into your jaws, and I will lead you out with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company, all of them with shield and buckler, wielding swords.

Eze 38:5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Put are with them, all of them with buckler and helmet;

Eze 38:6 Gomer and all its troops; Beth-togarmah from the remotest parts of the north with all its troops-- many peoples are with you.

Eze 38:7 Be ready and keep ready, you and all the companies that are assembled around you, and hold yourselves in reserve for them.

Eze 38:8 After many days you shall be mustered; in the latter years you shall go against a land restored from war, a land where people were gathered from many nations on the mountains of Israel, which had long lain waste; its people were brought out from the nations and now are living in safety, all of them.

Eze 38:9 You shall advance, coming on like a storm; you shall be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, and many peoples with you.

Eze 38:10 Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil scheme.

Eze 38:11 You will say, "I will go up against the land of unwalled villages; I will fall upon the quiet people who live in safety, all of them living without walls, and having no bars or gates";

Eze 38:12 to seize spoil and carry off plunder; to assail the waste places that are now inhabited, and the people who were gathered from the nations, who are acquiring cattle and goods, who live at the center of the earth.

Eze 38:13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all its young warriors will say to you, "Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your horde to carry off plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to seize a great amount of booty?"

Eze 38:14 Therefore, mortal, prophesy, and say to Gog: Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day when my people Israel are living securely, you will rouse yourself

Eze 38:15 and come from your place out of the remotest parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army;

Eze 38:16 you will come up against my people Israel, like a cloud covering the earth. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me, when through you, O Gog, I display my holiness before their eyes.

Eze 38:17 Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I spoke in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel, who in those days prophesied for years that I would bring you against them?

Eze 38:18 On that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, my wrath shall be aroused.

Eze 38:19 For in my jealousy and in my blazing wrath I declare: On that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

Eze 38:20 the fish of the sea, and the birds of the air, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the ground, and all human beings that are on the face of the earth, shall quake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the cliffs shall fall, and every wall shall tumble to the ground.

Eze 38:21 I will summon the sword against Gog in all my mountains, says the Lord GOD; the swords of all will be against their comrades.

Eze 38:22 With pestilence and bloodshed I will enter into judgment with him; and I will pour down torrential rains and hailstones, fire and sulfur, upon him and his troops and the many peoples that are with him.

Eze 38:23 So I will display my greatness and my holiness and make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 39:1 And you, mortal, prophesy against Gog, and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal!

Eze 39:2 I will turn you around and drive you forward, and bring you up from the remotest parts of the north, and lead you against the mountains of Israel.

Eze 39:3 I will strike your bow from your left hand, and will make your arrows drop out of your right hand.

Eze 39:4 You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples that are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every kind and to the wild animals to be devoured.

Eze 39:5 You shall fall in the open field; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 39:6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the coastlands; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Eze 39:7 My holy name I will make known among my people Israel; and I will not let my holy name be profaned any more; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Eze 39:8 It has come! It has happened, says the Lord GOD. This is the day of which I have spoken.

Eze 39:9 Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and make fires of the weapons and burn them-- bucklers and shields, bows and arrows, handpikes and spears-- and they will make fires of them for seven years.

Eze 39:10 They will not need to take wood out of the field or cut down any trees in the forests, for they will make their fires of the weapons; they will despoil those who despoiled them, and plunder those who plundered them, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 39:11 On that day I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the Valley of the Travelers east of the sea; it shall block the path of the travelers, for there Gog and all his horde will be buried; it shall be called the Valley of Hamon-gog.

Eze 39:12 Seven months the house of Israel shall spend burying them, in order to cleanse the land.

Eze 39:13 All the people of the land shall bury them; and it will bring them honor on the day that I show my glory, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 39:14 They will set apart men to pass through the land regularly and bury any invaders who remain on the face of the land, so as to cleanse it; for seven months they shall make their search.

Eze 39:15 As the searchers pass through the land, anyone who sees a human bone shall set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog.

Eze 39:16 (A city Hamonah is there also.) Thus they shall cleanse the land.

Eze 39:17 As for you, mortal, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every kind and to all the wild animals: Assemble and come, gather from all around to the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you, a great sacrificial feast on the mountains of Israel, and you shall eat flesh and drink blood.

Eze 39:18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth-- of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

Eze 39:19 You shall eat fat until you are filled, and drink blood until you are drunk, at the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you.

Eze 39:20 And you shall be filled at my table with horses and charioteers, with warriors and all kinds of soldiers, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 39:21 I will display my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them.

Eze 39:22 The house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day forward.

Eze 39:23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they dealt treacherously with me. So I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword.

Eze 39:24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions, and hid my face from them.

Eze 39:25 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name.

Eze 39:26 They shall forget their shame, and all the treachery they have practiced against me, when they live securely in their land with no one to make them afraid,

Eze 39:27 when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them from their enemies' lands, and through them have displayed my holiness in the sight of many nations.

Eze 39:28 Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God because I sent them into exile among the nations, and then gathered them into their own land. I will leave none of them behind;

Eze 39:29 and I will never again hide my face from them, when I pour out my spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on that very day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me there.

Eze 40:2 He brought me, in visions of God, to the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, on which was a structure like a city to the south.

Eze 40:3 When he brought me there, a man was there, whose appearance shone like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring reed in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway.

Eze 40:4 The man said to me, "Mortal, look closely and listen attentively, and set your mind upon all that I shall show you, for you were brought here in order that I might show it to you; declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

Eze 40:5 Now there was a wall all around the outside of the temple area. The length of the measuring reed in the man's hand was six long cubits, each being a cubit and a handbreadth in length; so he measured the thickness of the wall, one reed; and the height, one reed.

Eze 40:6 Then he went into the gateway facing east, going up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed deep. There were

Eze 40:7 recesses, and each recess was one reed wide and one reed deep; and the space between the recesses, five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the vestibule of the gate at the inner end was one reed deep.

Eze 40:8 Then he measured the inner vestibule of the gateway, one cubit.

Eze 40:9 Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and its pilasters, two cubits; and the vestibule of the gate was at the inner end.

Eze 40:10 There were three recesses on either side of the east gate; the three were of the same size; and the pilasters on either side were of the same size.

Eze 40:11 Then he measured the width of the opening of the gateway, ten cubits; and the width of the gateway, thirteen cubits.

Eze 40:12 There was a barrier before the recesses, one cubit on either side; and the recesses were six cubits on either side.

Eze 40:13 Then he measured the gate from the back of the one recess to the back of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits, from wall to wall.

Eze 40:14 He measured also the vestibule, twenty cubits; and the gate next to the pilaster on every side of the court.

Eze 40:15 From the front of the gate at the entrance to the end of the inner vestibule of the gate was fifty cubits.

Eze 40:16 The recesses and their pilasters had windows, with shutters on the inside of the gateway all around, and the vestibules also had windows on the inside all around; and on the pilasters were palm trees.

Eze 40:17 Then he brought me into the outer court; there were chambers there, and a pavement, all around the court; thirty chambers fronted on the pavement.

Eze 40:18 The pavement ran along the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.

Eze 40:19 Then he measured the distance from the inner front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court, one hundred cubits.

Eze 40:20 Then he measured the gate of the outer court that faced north-- its depth and width.

Eze 40:21 Its recesses, three on either side, and its pilasters and its vestibule were of the same size as those of the first gate; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:22 Its windows, its vestibule, and its palm trees were of the same size as those of the gate that faced toward the east. Seven steps led up to it; and its vestibule was on the inside.

Eze 40:23 Opposite the gate on the north, as on the east, was a gate to the inner court; he measured from gate to gate, one hundred cubits.

Eze 40:24 Then he led me toward the south, and there was a gate on the south; and he measured its pilasters and its vestibule; they had the same dimensions as the others.

Eze 40:25 There were windows all around in it and in its vestibule, like the windows of the others; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:26 There were seven steps leading up to it; its vestibule was on the inside. It had palm trees on its pilasters, one on either side.

Eze 40:27 There was a gate on the south of the inner court; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, one hundred cubits.

Eze 40:28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it was of the same dimensions as the others.

Eze 40:29 Its recesses, its pilasters, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and there were windows all around in it and in its vestibule; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:30 There were vestibules all around, twenty-five cubits deep and five cubits wide.

Eze 40:31 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its pilasters, and its stairway had eight steps.

Eze 40:32 Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gate; it was of the same size as the others.

Eze 40:33 Its recesses, its pilasters, and its vestibule were of the same dimensions as the others; and there were windows all around in it and in its vestibule; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:34 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its pilasters, on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

Eze 40:35 Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it; it had the same dimensions as the others.

Eze 40:36 Its recesses, its pilasters, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and it had windows all around. Its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:37 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its pilasters, on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

Eze 40:38 There was a chamber with its door in the vestibule of the gate, where the burnt offering was to be washed.

Eze 40:39 And in the vestibule of the gate were two tables on either side, on which the burnt offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering were to be slaughtered.

Eze 40:40 On the outside of the vestibule at the entrance of the north gate were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables.

Eze 40:41 Four tables were on the inside, and four tables on the outside of the side of the gate, eight tables, on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered.

Eze 40:42 There were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, and one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high, on which the instruments were to be laid with which the burnt offerings and the sacrifices were slaughtered.

Eze 40:43 There were pegs, one handbreadth long, fastened all around the inside. And on the tables the flesh of the offering was to be laid.

Eze 40:44 On the outside of the inner gateway there were chambers for the singers in the inner court, one at the side of the north gate facing south, the other at the side of the east gate facing north.

Eze 40:45 He said to me, "This chamber that faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple,

Eze 40:46 and the chamber that faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar; these are the descendants of Zadok, who alone among the descendants of Levi may come near to the LORD to minister to him."

Eze 40:47 He measured the court, one hundred cubits deep, and one hundred cubits wide, a square; and the altar was in front of the temple.

Eze 40:48 Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured the pilasters of the vestibule, five cubits on either side; and the width of the gate was fourteen cubits; and the sidewalls of the gate were three cubits on either side.

Eze 40:49 The depth of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the width twelve cubits; ten steps led up to it; and there were pillars beside the pilasters on either side.

Eze 41:1 Then he brought me to the nave, and measured the pilasters; on each side six cubits was the width of the pilasters.

Eze 41:2 The width of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance were five cubits on either side. He measured the length of the nave, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

Eze 41:3 Then he went into the inner room and measured the pilasters of the entrance, two cubits; and the width of the entrance, six cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance, seven cubits.

Eze 41:4 He measured the depth of the room, twenty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits, beyond the nave. And he said to me, This is the most holy place.

Eze 41:5 Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick; and the width of the side chambers, four cubits, all around the temple.

Eze 41:6 The side chambers were in three stories, one over another, thirty in each story. There were offsets all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that they should not be supported by the wall of the temple.

Eze 41:7 The passageway of the side chambers widened from story to story; for the structure was supplied with a stairway all around the temple. For this reason the structure became wider from story to story. One ascended from the bottom story to the uppermost story by way of the middle one.

Eze 41:8 I saw also that the temple had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers measured a full reed of six long cubits.

Eze 41:9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits; and the free space between the side chambers of the temple

Eze 41:10 and the chambers of the court was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side.

Eze 41:11 The side chambers opened onto the area left free, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south; and the width of the part that was left free was five cubits all around.

Eze 41:12 The building that was facing the temple yard on the west side was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its depth ninety cubits.

Eze 41:13 Then he measured the temple, one hundred cubits deep; and the yard and the building with its walls, one hundred cubits deep;

Eze 41:14 also the width of the east front of the temple and the yard, one hundred cubits.

Eze 41:15 Then he measured the depth of the building facing the yard at the west, together with its galleries on either side, one hundred cubits. The nave of the temple and the inner room and the outer vestibule

Eze 41:16 were paneled, and, all around, all three had windows with recessed frames. Facing the threshold the temple was paneled with wood all around, from the floor up to the windows (now the windows were covered),

Eze 41:17 to the space above the door, even to the inner room, and on the outside. And on all the walls all around in the inner room and the nave there was a pattern.

Eze 41:18 It was formed of cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces:

Eze 41:19 a human face turned toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion turned toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple all around;

Eze 41:20 from the floor to the area above the door, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall.

Eze 41:21 The doorposts of the nave were square. In front of the holy place was something resembling

Eze 41:22 an altar of wood, three cubits high, two cubits long, and two cubits wide; its corners, its base, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that stands before the LORD."

Eze 41:23 The nave and the holy place had each a double door.

Eze 41:24 The doors had two leaves apiece, two swinging leaves for each door.

Eze 41:25 On the doors of the nave were carved cherubim and palm trees, such as were carved on the walls; and there was a canopy of wood in front of the vestibule outside.

Eze 41:26 And there were recessed windows and palm trees on either side, on the sidewalls of the vestibule.

Eze 42:1 Then he led me out into the outer court, toward the north, and he brought me to the chambers that were opposite the temple yard and opposite the building on the north.

Eze 42:2 The length of the building that was on the north side was one hundred cubits, and the width fifty cubits.

Eze 42:3 Across the twenty cubits that belonged to the inner court, and facing the pavement that belonged to the outer court, the chambers rose gallery by gallery in three stories.

Eze 42:4 In front of the chambers was a passage on the inner side, ten cubits wide and one hundred cubits deep, and its entrances were on the north.

Eze 42:5 Now the upper chambers were narrower, for the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and middle chambers in the building.

Eze 42:6 For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the outer court; for this reason the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and the middle ones.

Eze 42:7 There was a wall outside parallel to the chambers, toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, fifty cubits long.

Eze 42:8 For the chambers on the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those opposite the temple were one hundred cubits long.

Eze 42:9 At the foot of these chambers ran a passage that one entered from the east in order to enter them from the outer court.

Eze 42:10 The width of the passage was fixed by the wall of the court. On the south also, opposite the vacant area and opposite the building, there were chambers

Eze 42:11 with a passage in front of them; they were similar to the chambers on the north, of the same length and width, with the same exits and arrangements and doors.

Eze 42:12 So the entrances of the chambers to the south were entered through the entrance at the head of the corresponding passage, from the east, along the matching wall.

Eze 42:13 Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers opposite the vacant area are the holy chambers, where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings; there they shall deposit the most holy offerings-- the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering-- for the place is holy.

Eze 42:14 When the priests enter the holy place, they shall not go out of it into the outer court without laying there the vestments in which they minister, for these are holy; they shall put on other garments before they go near to the area open to the people."

Eze 42:15 When he had finished measuring the interior of the temple area, he led me out by the gate that faces east, and measured the temple area all around.

Eze 42:16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Eze 42:17 Then he turned and measured the north side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Eze 42:18 Then he turned and measured the south side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Eze 42:19 Then he turned to the west side and measured, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Eze 42:20 He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to make a separation between the holy and the common.

Eze 43:1 Then he brought me to the gate, the gate facing east.

Eze 43:2 And there, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east; the sound was like the sound of mighty waters; and the earth shone with his glory.

Eze 43:3 The vision I saw was like the vision that I had seen when he came to destroy the city, and like the vision that I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

Eze 43:4 As the glory of the LORD entered the temple by the gate facing east,

Eze 43:5 the spirit lifted me up, and brought me into the inner court; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

Eze 43:6 While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me out of the temple.

Eze 43:7 He said to me: Mortal, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will reside among the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their whoring, and by the corpses of their kings at their death.

Eze 43:8 When they placed their threshold by my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they were defiling my holy name by their abominations that they committed; therefore I have consumed them in my anger.

Eze 43:9 Now let them put away their idolatry and the corpses of their kings far from me, and I will reside among them forever.

Eze 43:10 As for you, mortal, describe the temple to the house of Israel, and let them measure the pattern; and let them be ashamed of their iniquities.

Eze 43:11 When they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the plan of the temple, its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, and its whole form-- all its ordinances and its entire plan and all its laws; and write it down in their sight, so that they may observe and follow the entire plan and all its ordinances.

Eze 43:12 This is the law of the temple: the whole territory on the top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. This is the law of the temple.

Eze 43:13 These are the dimensions of the altar by cubits (the cubit being one cubit and a handbreadth): its base shall be one cubit high, and one cubit wide, with a rim of one span around its edge. This shall be the height of the altar:

Eze 43:14 From the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits, with a width of one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits, with a width of one cubit;

Eze 43:15 and the altar hearth, four cubits; and from the altar hearth projecting upward, four horns.

Eze 43:16 The altar hearth shall be square, twelve cubits long by twelve wide.

Eze 43:17 The ledge also shall be square, fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide, with a rim around it half a cubit wide, and its surrounding base, one cubit. Its steps shall face east.

Eze 43:18 Then he said to me: Mortal, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances for the altar: On the day when it is erected for offering burnt offerings upon it and for dashing blood against it,

Eze 43:19 you shall give to the levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who draw near to me to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a bull for a sin offering.
Eze 43:20 And you shall take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of the altar, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the rim all around; thus you shall purify it and make atonement for it.
Eze 43:21 You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place belonging to the temple, outside the sacred area.
Eze 43:22 On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering; and the altar shall be purified, as it was purified with the bull.
Eze 43:23 When you have finished purifying it, you shall offer a bull without blemish and a ram from the flock without blemish.
Eze 43:24 You shall present them before the LORD, and the priests shall throw salt on them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.
Eze 43:25 For seven days you shall provide daily a goat for a sin offering; also a bull and a ram from the flock, without blemish, shall be provided.
Eze 43:26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and cleanse it, and so consecrate it.
Eze 43:27 When these days are over, then from the eighth day onward the priests shall offer upon the altar your burnt offerings and your offerings of well-being; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD.
Eze 44:1 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut.
Eze 44:2 The LORD said to me: This gate shall remain shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it; therefore it shall remain shut.
Eze 44:3 Only the prince, because he is a prince, may sit in it to eat food before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gate, and shall go out by the same way.
Eze 44:4 Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; and I looked, and lo! the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.
Eze 44:5 The LORD said to me: Mortal, mark well, look closely, and listen attentively to all that I shall tell you concerning all the ordinances of the temple of the LORD and all its laws; and mark well those who may be admitted to the temple and all those who are to be excluded from the sanctuary.
Eze 44:6 Say to the rebellious house, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: O house of Israel, let there be an end to all your abominations
Eze 44:7 in admitting foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, to be in my sanctuary, profaning my temple when you offer to me my food, the fat and the blood. You have broken my covenant with all your abominations.
Eze 44:8 And you have not kept charge of my sacred offerings; but you have appointed foreigners to act for you in keeping my charge in my sanctuary.
Eze 44:9 Thus says the Lord GOD: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the people of Israel, shall enter my sanctuary.
Eze 44:10 But the Levites who went far from me, going astray from me after their idols when Israel went astray, shall bear their punishment.
Eze 44:11 They shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the temple, and serving in the temple; they shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall attend on them and serve them.
Eze 44:12 Because they ministered to them before their idols and made the house of Israel stumble into iniquity, therefore I have sworn concerning them, says the Lord GOD, that they shall bear their punishment.
Eze 44:13 They shall not come near to me, to serve me as priest, nor come near any of my sacred offerings, the things that are most sacred; but they shall bear their shame, and the consequences of the abominations that they have committed.
Eze 44:14 Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the temple, to do all its chores, all that is to be done in it.
Eze 44:15 But the levitical priests, the descendants of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall attend me to offer me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD.
Eze 44:16 It is they who shall enter my sanctuary, it is they who shall approach my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge.
Eze 44:17 When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall wear linen vestments; they shall have nothing of wool on them, while they minister at the gates of the inner court, and within.
Eze 44:18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and linen undergarments on their loins; they shall not bind themselves with anything that causes sweat.
Eze 44:19 When they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall remove the vestments in which they have been ministering, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, so that they may not communicate holiness to the people with their vestments.

Eze 44:20 They shall not shave their heads or let their locks grow long; they shall only trim the hair of their heads.

Eze 44:21 No priest shall drink wine when he enters the inner court.

Eze 44:22 They shall not marry a widow, or a divorced woman, but only a virgin of the stock of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest.

Eze 44:23 They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

Eze 44:24 In a controversy they shall act as judges, and they shall decide it according to my judgments. They shall keep my laws and my statutes regarding all my appointed festivals, and they shall keep my sabbaths holy.

Eze 44:25 They shall not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; for father or mother, however, and for son or daughter, and for brother or unmarried sister they may defile themselves.

Eze 44:26 After he has become clean, they shall count seven days for him.

Eze 44:27 On the day that he goes into the holy place, into the inner court, to minister in the holy place, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 44:28 This shall be their inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no holding in Israel; I am their holding.

Eze 44:29 They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.

Eze 44:30 The first of all the first fruits of all kinds, and every offering of all kinds from all your offerings, shall belong to the priests; you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, in order that a blessing may rest on your house.

Eze 44:31 The priests shall not eat of anything, whether bird or animal, that died of itself or was torn by animals.

Eze 45:1 When you allot the land as an inheritance, you shall set aside for the LORD a portion of the land as a holy district, twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand cubits wide; it shall be holy throughout its entire extent.

Eze 45:2 Of this, a square plot of five hundred by five hundred cubits shall be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits for an open space around it.

Eze 45:3 In the holy district you shall measure off a section twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide, in which shall be the sanctuary, the most holy place.

Eze 45:4 It shall be a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and approach the LORD to minister to him; and it shall be both a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

Eze 45:5 Another section, twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide, shall be for the Levites who minister at the temple, as their holding for cities to live in.

Eze 45:6 Alongside the portion set apart as the holy district you shall assign as a holding for the city an area five thousand cubits wide, and twenty-five thousand cubits long; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

Eze 45:7 And to the prince shall belong the land on both sides of the holy district and the holding of the city, alongside the holy district and the holding of the city, on the west and on the east, corresponding in length to one of the tribal portions, and extending from the western to the eastern boundary

Eze 45:8 of the land. It is to be his property in Israel. And my princes shall no longer oppress my people; but they shall let the house of Israel have the land according to their tribes.

Eze 45:9 Thus says the Lord GOD: Enough, O princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression, and do what is just and right. Cease your evictions of my people, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 45:10 You shall have honest balances, an honest ephah, and an honest bath.

Eze 45:11 The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, the bath containing one-tenth of a homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; the homer shall be the standard measure.

Eze 45:12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall make a mina for you.

Eze 45:13 This is the offering that you shall make: one-sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley,

Eze 45:14 and as the fixed portion of oil, one-tenth of a bath from each cor (the cor, like the homer, contains ten baths);

Eze 45:15 and one sheep from every flock of two hundred, from the pastures of Israel. This is the offering for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and offerings of well-being, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 45:16 All the people of the land shall join with the prince in Israel in making this offering.

Eze 45:17 But this shall be the obligation of the prince regarding the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the festivals, the new moons, and the sabbaths, all the appointed festivals of the house of Israel: he shall provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the offerings of well-being, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

Eze 45:18 Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish, and purify the sanctuary.

Eze 45:19 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and the posts of the gate of the inner court.

Eze 45:20 You shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who has sinned through error or ignorance; so you shall make atonement for the temple.

Eze 45:21 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall celebrate the festival of the passover, and for seven days unleavened bread shall be eaten.

Eze 45:22 On that day the prince shall provide for himself and all the people of the land a young bull for a sin offering.

Eze 45:23 And during the seven days of the festival he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven young bulls and seven rams without blemish, on each of the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

Eze 45:24 He shall provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull, an ephah for each ram, and a hin of oil to each ephah.

Eze 45:25 In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month and for the seven days of the festival, he shall make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, and grain offerings, and for the oil.

Eze 46:1 Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall remain closed on the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

Eze 46:2 The prince shall enter by the vestibule of the gate from outside, and shall take his stand by the post of the gate. The priests shall offer his burnt offering and his offerings of well-being, and he shall bow down at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be closed until evening.

Eze 46:3 The people of the land shall bow down at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons.

Eze 46:4 The burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish;

Eze 46:5 and the grain offering with the ram shall be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs shall be as much as he wishes to give, together with a hin of oil to each ephah.

Eze 46:6 On the day of the new moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish, and six lambs and a ram, which shall be without blemish;

Eze 46:7 as a grain offering he shall provide an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wishes, together with a hin of oil to each ephah.

Eze 46:8 When the prince enters, he shall come in by the vestibule of the gate, and he shall go out by the same way.

Eze 46:9 When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed festivals, whoever enters by the north gate to worship shall go out by the south gate; and whoever enters by the south gate shall go out by the north gate: they shall not return by way of the gate by which they entered, but shall go out straight ahead.

Eze 46:10 When they come in, the prince shall come in with them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

Eze 46:11 At the festivals and the appointed seasons the grain offering with a young bull shall be an ephah, and with a ram an ephah, and with the lambs as much as one wishes to give, together with a hin of oil to an ephah.

Eze 46:12 When the prince provides a freewill offering, either a burnt offering or offerings of well-being as a freewill offering to the LORD, the gate facing east shall be opened for him; and he shall offer his burnt offering or his offerings of well-being as he does on the sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out the gate shall be closed.

Eze 46:13 He shall provide a lamb, a yearling, without blemish, for a burnt offering to the LORD daily; morning by morning he shall provide it.

Eze 46:14 And he shall provide a grain offering with it morning by morning regularly, one-sixth of an ephah, and one-third of a hin of oil to moisten the choice flour, as a grain offering to the LORD; this is the ordinance for all time.

Eze 46:15 Thus the lamb and the grain offering and the oil shall be provided, morning by morning, as a regular burnt offering.

Eze 46:16 Thus says the Lord GOD: If the prince makes a gift to any of his sons out of his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons, it is their holding by inheritance.

Eze 46:17 But if he makes a gift out of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall revert to the prince; only his sons may keep a gift from his inheritance.

Eze 46:18 The prince shall not take any of the inheritance of the people, thrusting them out of their holding; he shall give his sons their inheritance out of his own holding, so that none of my people shall be dispossessed of their holding.

Eze 46:19 Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, to the north row of the holy chambers for the priests; and there I saw a place at the extreme western end of them.

Eze 46:20 He said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, in order not to bring them out into the outer court and so communicate holiness to the people."

Eze 46:21 Then he brought me out to the outer court, and led me past the four corners of the court; and in each corner of the court there was a court--

Eze 46:22 in the four corners of the court were small courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; the four were of the same size.

Eze 46:23 On the inside, around each of the four courts was a row of masonry, with hearths made at the bottom of the rows all around.

Eze 46:24 Then he said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who serve at the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people."

Eze 47:1 Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple; there, water was flowing from below the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east); and the water was flowing down from below the south end of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar.

Eze 47:2 Then he brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gate that faces toward the east; and the water was coming out on the south side.

Eze 47:3 Going on eastward with a cord in his hand, the man measured one thousand cubits, and then led me through the water; and it was ankle-deep.

Eze 47:4 Again he measured one thousand, and led me through the water; and it was knee-deep. Again he measured one thousand, and led me through the water; and it was up to the waist.

Eze 47:5 Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross, for the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed.

Eze 47:6 He said to me, "Mortal, have you seen this?" Then he led me back along the bank of the river.

Eze 47:7 As I came back, I saw on the bank of the river a great many trees on the one side and on the other.

Eze 47:8 He said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah; and when it enters the sea, the sea of stagnant waters, the water will become fresh.

Eze 47:9 Wherever the river goes, every living creature that swarms will live, and there will be very many fish, once these waters reach there. It will become fresh; and everything will live where the river goes.

Eze 47:10 People will stand fishing beside the sea from En-gedi to En-eglaim; it will be a place for the spreading of nets; its fish will be of a great many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea.

Eze 47:11 But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they are to be left for salt.

Eze 47:12 On the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing."

Eze 47:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: These are the boundaries by which you shall divide the land for inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions.

Eze 47:14 You shall divide it equally; I swore to give it to your ancestors, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

Eze 47:15 This shall be the boundary of the land: On the north side, from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath, and on to Zedad, Eze 47:16 Berothah, Sibraim (which lies between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

Eze 47:17 So the boundary shall run from the sea to Hazar-enon, which is north of the border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This shall be the north side.

Eze 47:18 On the east side, between Hauran and Damascus; along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This shall be the east side.

Eze 47:19 On the south side, it shall run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, from there along the Wadi of Egypt to the Great Sea. This shall be the south side.

Eze 47:20 On the west side, the Great Sea shall be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo-hamath. This shall be the west side.

Eze 47:21 So you shall divide this land among you according to the tribes of Israel.

Eze 47:22 You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who reside among you and have begotten children among you. They shall be to you as citizens of Israel; with you they shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Eze 47:23 In whatever tribe aliens reside, there you shall assign them their inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 48:1 These are the names of the tribes: Beginning at the northern border, on the Hethlon road, from Lebo-hamath, as far as Hazar-enon (which is on the border of Damascus, with Hamath to the north), and extending from the east side to the west, Dan, one portion.

Eze 48:2 Adjoining the territory of Dan, from the east side to the west, Asher, one portion.

Eze 48:3 Adjoining the territory of Asher, from the east side to the west, Naphtali, one portion.

Eze 48:4 Adjoining the territory of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, Manasseh, one portion.

Eze 48:5 Adjoining the territory of Manasseh, from the east side to the west, Ephraim, one portion.

Eze 48:6 Adjoining the territory of Ephraim, from the east side to the west, Reuben, one portion.

Eze 48:7 Adjoining the territory of Reuben, from the east side to the west, Judah, one portion.

Eze 48:8 Adjoining the territory of Judah, from the east side to the west, shall be the portion that you shall set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and in length equal to one of the tribal portions, from the east side to the west, with the sanctuary in the middle of it.

Eze 48:9 The portion that you shall set apart for the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and twenty thousand in width.

Eze 48:10 These shall be the allotments of the holy portion: the priests shall have an allotment measuring twenty-five thousand cubits on the northern side, ten thousand cubits in width on the western side, ten thousand in width on the eastern side, and twenty-five thousand in length on the southern side, with the sanctuary of the LORD in the middle of it.

Eze 48:11 This shall be for the consecrated priests, the descendants of Zadok, who kept my charge, who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did.

Eze 48:12 It shall belong to them as a special portion from the holy portion of the land, a most holy place, adjoining the territory of the Levites.

Eze 48:13 Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites shall have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width. The whole length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits and the width twenty thousand.

Eze 48:14 They shall not sell or exchange any of it; they shall not transfer this choice portion of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

Eze 48:15 The remainder, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand in length, shall be for ordinary use for the city, for dwellings and for open country. In the middle of it shall be the city;

Eze 48:16 and these shall be its dimensions: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred.

Eze 48:17 The city shall have open land: on the north two hundred fifty cubits, on the south two hundred fifty, on the east two hundred fifty, on the west two hundred fifty.

Eze 48:18 The remainder of the length alongside the holy portion shall be ten thousand cubits to the east, and ten thousand to the west, and it shall be alongside the holy portion. Its produce shall be food for the workers of the city.

Eze 48:19 The workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.

Eze 48:20 The whole portion that you shall set apart shall be twenty-five thousand cubits square, that is, the holy portion together with the property of the city.

Eze 48:21 What remains on both sides of the holy portion and of the property of the city shall belong to the prince. Extending from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the holy portion to the east border, and westward from the twenty-five thousand cubits to the west border, parallel to the tribal portions, it shall belong to the prince. The holy portion with the sanctuary of the temple in the middle of it,

Eze 48:22 and the property of the Levites and of the city, shall be in the middle of that which belongs to the prince. The portion of the prince shall lie between the territory of Judah and the territory of Benjamin.

Eze 48:23 As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west, Benjamin, one portion.

Eze 48:24 Adjoining the territory of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, Simeon, one portion.

Eze 48:25 Adjoining the territory of Simeon, from the east side to the west, Issachar, one portion.

Eze 48:26 Adjoining the territory of Issachar, from the east side to the west, Zebulun, one portion.

Eze 48:27 Adjoining the territory of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, Gad, one portion.

Eze 48:28 And adjoining the territory of Gad to the south, the boundary shall run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, from there along the Wadi of Egypt to the Great Sea.

Eze 48:29 This is the land that you shall allot as an inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, says the Lord GOD.

Eze 48:30 These shall be the exits of the city: On the north side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure,

Eze 48:31 three gates, the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi, the gates of the city being named after the tribes of Israel.

Eze 48:32 On the east side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan.

Eze 48:33 On the south side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure, three gates, the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar, and the gate of Zebulun.

Eze 48:34 On the west side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naphtali.

Eze 48:35 The circumference of the city shall be eighteen thousand cubits. And the name of the city from that time on shall be, The LORD is There.

Dan 1:1 In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

Dan 1:2 The Lord let King Jehoiakim of Judah fall into his power, as well as some of the vessels of the house of God. These he brought to the land of Shinar, and placed the vessels in the treasury of his gods.

Dan 1:3 Then the king commanded his palace master Ashpenaz to bring some of the Israelites of the royal family and of the nobility,

Dan 1:4 young men without physical defect and handsome, versed in every branch of wisdom, endowed with knowledge and insight, and competent to serve in the king's palace; they were to be taught the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

Dan 1:5 The king assigned them a daily portion of the royal rations of food and wine. They were to be educated for three years, so that at the end of that time they could be stationed in the king's court.

Dan 1:6 Among them were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, from the tribe of Judah.

Dan 1:7 The palace master gave them other names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

Dan 1:8 But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the royal rations of food and wine; so he asked the palace master to allow him not to defile himself.

Dan 1:9 Now God allowed Daniel to receive favor and compassion from the palace master.

Dan 1:10 The palace master said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king; he has appointed your food and your drink. If he should see you in poorer condition than the other young men of your own age, you would endanger my head with the king."

Dan 1:11 Then Daniel asked the guard whom the palace master had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

Dan 1:12 "Please test your servants for ten days. Let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Dan 1:13 You can then compare our appearance with the appearance of the young men who eat the royal rations, and deal with your servants according to what you observe."

Dan 1:14 So he agreed to this proposal and tested them for ten days.

Dan 1:15 At the end of ten days it was observed that they appeared better and fatter than all the young men who had been eating the royal rations.

Dan 1:16 So the guard continued to withdraw their royal rations and the wine they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

Dan 1:17 To these four young men God gave knowledge and skill in every aspect of literature and wisdom; Daniel also had insight into all visions and dreams.

Dan 1:18 At the end of the time that the king had set for them to be brought in, the palace master brought them into the presence of Nebuchadnezzar,

Dan 1:19 and the king spoke with them. And among them all, no one was found to compare with Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they were stationed in the king's court.

Dan 1:20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

Dan 1:21 And Daniel continued there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Dan 2:1 In the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed such dreams that his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him.

Dan 2:2 So the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be summoned to tell the king his dreams. When they came in and stood before the king,

Dan 2:3 he said to them, "I have had such a dream that my spirit is troubled by the desire to understand it."

Dan 2:4 The Chaldeans said to the king (in Aramaic), "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will reveal the interpretation."

Dan 2:5 The king answered the Chaldeans, "This is a public decree: if you do not tell me both the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins.

Dan 2:6 But if you do tell me the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

Dan 2:7 They answered a second time, "Let the king first tell his servants the dream, then we can give its interpretation."

Dan 2:8 The king answered, "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see I have firmly decreed:

Dan 2:9 if you do not tell me the dream, there is but one verdict for you. You have agreed to speak lying and misleading words to me until things take a turn. Therefore, tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can give me its interpretation."

Dan 2:10 The Chaldeans answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can reveal what the king demands! In fact no king, however great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean.

Dan 2:11 The thing that the king is asking is too difficult, and no one can reveal it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with mortals."

Dan 2:12 Because of this the king flew into a violent rage and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed.

Dan 2:13 The decree was issued, and the wise men were about to be executed; and they looked for Daniel and his companions, to execute them.

Dan 2:14 Then Daniel responded with prudence and discretion to Arioch, the king's chief executioner, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon;

Dan 2:15 he asked Arioch, the royal official, "Why is the decree of the king so urgent?" Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel.

Dan 2:16 So Daniel went in and requested that the king give him time and he would tell the king the interpretation.

Dan 2:17 Then Daniel went to his home and informed his companions, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

Dan 2:18 and told them to seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his companions with the rest of the wise men of Babylon might not perish.

Dan 2:19 Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

Dan 2:20 Daniel said: "Blessed be the name of God from age to age, for wisdom and power are his.

Dan 2:21 He changes times and seasons, deposes kings and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

Dan 2:22 He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with him.

Dan 2:23 To you, O God of my ancestors, I give thanks and praise, for you have given me wisdom and power, and have now revealed to me what we asked of you, for you have revealed to us what the king ordered."

Dan 2:24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will give the king the interpretation."

Dan 2:25 Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said to him: "I have found among the exiles from Judah a man who can tell the king the interpretation."

Dan 2:26 The king said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me the dream that I have seen and its interpretation?"

Dan 2:27 Daniel answered the king, "No wise men, enchanters, magicians, or diviners can show to the king the mystery that the king is asking,

Dan 2:28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has disclosed to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen at the end of days. Your dream and the visions of your head as you lay in bed were these:

Dan 2:29 To you, O king, as you lay in bed, came thoughts of what would be hereafter, and the revealer of mysteries disclosed to you what is to be.

Dan 2:30 But as for me, this mystery has not been revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any other living being, but in order that the interpretation may be known to the king and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

Dan 2:31 "You were looking, O king, and lo! there was a great statue. This statue was huge, its brilliance extraordinary; it was standing before you, and its appearance was frightening.

Dan 2:32 The head of that statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its middle and thighs of bronze,

Dan 2:33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

Dan 2:34 As you looked on, a stone was cut out, not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and broke them in pieces.

Dan 2:35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, were all broken in pieces and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

Dan 2:36 "This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation.

Dan 2:37 You, O king, the king of kings-- to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the might, and the glory,

Dan 2:38 into whose hand he has given human beings, wherever they live, the wild animals of the field, and the birds of the air, and whom he has established as ruler over them all-- you are the head of gold.

Dan 2:39 After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over the whole earth.

Dan 2:40 And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron; just as iron crushes and smashes everything, it shall crush and shatter all these.

Dan 2:41 As you saw the feet and toes partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but some of the strength of iron shall be in it, as you saw the iron mixed with the clay.

Dan 2:42 As the toes of the feet were part iron and part clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle.

Dan 2:43 As you saw the iron mixed with clay, so will they mix with one another in marriage, but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay.

Dan 2:44 And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall this kingdom be left to another people. It shall crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever;

Dan 2:45 just as you saw that a stone was cut from the mountain not by hands, and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. The great God has informed the king what shall be hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation trustworthy."

Dan 2:46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, worshiped Daniel, and commanded that a grain offering and incense be offered to him.

Dan 2:47 The king said to Daniel, "Truly, your God is God of gods and Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery!"

Dan 2:48 Then the king promoted Daniel, gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

Dan 2:49 Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king's court.

Dan 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden statue whose height was sixty cubits and whose width was six cubits; he set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

Dan 3:2 Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent for the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to assemble and come to the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Dan 3:3 So the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, assembled for the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. When they were standing before the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up,

Dan 3:4 the herald proclaimed aloud, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,

Dan 3:5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble, you are to fall down and worship the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

Dan 3:6 Whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire."

Dan 3:7 Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Dan 3:8 Accordingly, at this time certain Chaldeans came forward and denounced the Jews.

Dan 3:9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!

Dan 3:10 You, O king, have made a decree, that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble, shall fall down and worship the golden statue,

Dan 3:11 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire.

Dan 3:12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon:

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These pay no heed to you, O king. They do not serve your gods and they do not worship the golden statue that you have set up."

Dan 3:13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought in; so they brought those men before the king.

Dan 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods and you do not worship the golden statue that I have set up?

Dan 3:15 Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble to fall down and worship the statue that I have made, well and good. But if you do not worship, you shall immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire, and who is the god that will deliver you out of my hands?"

Dan 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to present a defense to you in this matter.

Dan 3:17 If our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire and out of your hand, O king, let him deliver us.

Dan 3:18 But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods and we will not worship the golden statue that you have set up."

Dan 3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was so filled with rage against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face was distorted. He ordered the furnace heated up seven times more than was customary,

Dan 3:20 and ordered some of the strongest guards in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

Dan 3:21 So the men were bound, still wearing their tunics, their trousers, their hats, and their other garments, and they were thrown into the furnace of blazing fire.

Dan 3:22 Because the king's command was urgent and the furnace was so overheated, the raging flames killed the men who lifted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

Dan 3:23 But the three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down, bound, into the furnace of blazing fire.

Dan 3:24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up quickly. He said to his counselors, "Was it not three men that we threw bound into the fire?" They answered the king, "True, O king."

Dan 3:25 He replied, "But I see four men unbound, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the fourth has the appearance of a god."

Dan 3:26 Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!" So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire.

Dan 3:27 And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men; the hair of their heads was not singed, their tunics were not harmed, and not even the smell of fire came from them.

Dan 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who trusted in him. They disobeyed the king's command and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God.

Dan 3:29 Therefore I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that utters blasphemy against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins; for there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way."

Dan 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Dan 4:1 King Nebuchadnezzar to all peoples, nations, and languages that live throughout the earth: May you have abundant prosperity!

Dan 4:2 The signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked for me I am pleased to recount.

Dan 4:3 How great are his signs, how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his sovereignty is from generation to generation.

Dan 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living at ease in my home and prospering in my palace.

Dan 4:5 I saw a dream that frightened me; my fantasies in bed and the visions of my head terrified me.

Dan 4:6 So I made a decree that all the wise men of Babylon should be brought before me, in order that they might tell me the interpretation of the dream.

Dan 4:7 Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners came in, and I told them the dream, but they could not tell me its interpretation.

Dan 4:8 At last Daniel came in before me-- he who was named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and who is endowed with a spirit of the holy gods-- and I told him the dream:

Dan 4:9 "O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that you are endowed with a spirit of the holy gods and that no mystery is too difficult for you. Hear the dream that I saw; tell me its interpretation.

Dan 4:10 Upon my bed this is what I saw; there was a tree at the center of the earth, and its height was great.

Dan 4:11 The tree grew great and strong, its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the ends of the whole earth.

Dan 4:12 Its foliage was beautiful, its fruit abundant, and it provided food for all. The animals of the field found shade under it, the birds of the air nested in its branches, and from it all living beings were fed.

Dan 4:13 "I continued looking, in the visions of my head as I lay in bed, and there was a holy watcher, coming down from heaven.

Dan 4:14 He cried aloud and said: 'Cut down the tree and chop off its branches, strip off its foliage and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from beneath it and the birds from its branches.

Dan 4:15 But leave its stump and roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. Let him be bathed with the dew of heaven, and let his lot be with the animals of the field in the grass of the earth.

Dan 4:16 Let his mind be changed from that of a human, and let the mind of an animal be given to him. And let seven times pass over him.

Dan 4:17 The sentence is rendered by decree of the watchers, the decision is given by order of the holy ones, in order that all who live may know that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdom of mortals; he gives it to whom he will and sets over it the lowliest of human beings.'

Dan 4:18 "This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now you, Belshazzar, declare the interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are unable to tell me the interpretation. You are able, however, for you are endowed with a spirit of the holy gods."

Dan 4:19 Then Daniel, who was called Belshazzar, was severely distressed for a while. His thoughts terrified him. The king said, "Belshazzar, do not let the dream or the interpretation terrify you." Belshazzar answered, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation for your enemies!"

Dan 4:20 The tree that you saw, which grew great and strong, so that its top reached to heaven and was visible to the end of the whole earth,

Dan 4:21 whose foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and which provided food for all, under which animals of the field lived, and in whose branches the birds of the air had nests--

Dan 4:22 it is you, O king! You have grown great and strong. Your greatness has increased and reaches to heaven, and your sovereignty to the ends of the earth.

Dan 4:23 And whereas the king saw a holy watcher coming down from heaven and saying, 'Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the grass of the field; and let him be bathed with the dew of heaven, and let his lot be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him'--

Dan 4:24 this is the interpretation, O king, and it is a decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king:

Dan 4:25 You shall be driven away from human society, and your dwelling shall be with the wild animals. You shall be made to eat grass like oxen, you shall be bathed with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High has sovereignty over the kingdom of mortals, and gives it to whom he will.

Dan 4:26 As it was commanded to leave the stump and roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be re-established for you from the time that you learn that Heaven is sovereign.

Dan 4:27 Therefore, O king, may my counsel be acceptable to you: atone for your sins with righteousness, and your iniquities with mercy to the oppressed, so that your prosperity may be prolonged."

Dan 4:28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar.

Dan 4:29 At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon,

Dan 4:30 and the king said, "Is this not magnificent Babylon, which I have built as a royal capital by my mighty power and for my glorious majesty?"

Dan 4:31 While the words were still in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven: "O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: The kingdom has departed from you!"

Dan 4:32 You shall be driven away from human society, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass like oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High has sovereignty over the kingdom of mortals and gives it to whom he will."

Dan 4:33 Immediately the sentence was fulfilled against Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven away from human society, ate grass like oxen, and his body was bathed with the dew of heaven, until his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers and his nails became like birds' claws.

Dan 4:34 When that period was over, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me. I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored the one who lives forever. For his sovereignty is an everlasting sovereignty, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation.

Dan 4:35 All the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and he does what he wills with the host of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth. There is no one who can stay his hand or say to him, "What are you doing?"

Dan 4:36 At that time my reason returned to me; and my majesty and splendor were restored to me for the glory of my kingdom. My counselors and my lords sought me out, I was re-established over my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me.

Dan 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are truth, and his ways are justice; and he is able to bring low those who walk in pride.

Dan 5:1 King Belshazzar made a great festival for a thousand of his lords, and he was drinking wine in the presence of the thousand.

Dan 5:2 Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar commanded that they bring in the vessels of gold and silver that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.

Dan 5:3 So they brought in the vessels of gold and silver that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.

Dan 5:4 They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

Dan 5:5 Immediately the fingers of a human hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the wall of the royal palace, next to the lampstand. The king was watching the hand as it wrote.

Dan 5:6 Then the king's face turned pale, and his thoughts terrified him. His limbs gave way, and his knees knocked together.

Dan 5:7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners; and the king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever can read this writing and tell me its interpretation shall be clothed in purple, have a chain of gold around his neck, and rank third in the kingdom."

Dan 5:8 Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king the interpretation.

Dan 5:9 Then King Belshazzar became greatly terrified and his face turned pale, and his lords were perplexed.

Dan 5:10 The queen, when she heard the discussion of the king and his lords, came into the banqueting hall. The queen said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts terrify you or your face grow pale.

Dan 5:11 There is a man in your kingdom who is endowed with a spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father he was found to have enlightenment, understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners,

Dan 5:12 because an excellent spirit, knowledge, and understanding to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

Dan 5:13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel, "So you are Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?"

Dan 5:14 I have heard of you that a spirit of the gods is in you, and that enlightenment, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you.

Dan 5:15 Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me to read this writing and tell me its interpretation, but they were not able to give the interpretation of the matter.

Dan 5:16 But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and tell me its interpretation, you shall be clothed in purple, have a chain of gold around your neck, and rank third in the kingdom."

Dan 5:17 Then Daniel answered in the presence of the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, or give your rewards to someone else! Nevertheless I will read the writing to the king and let him know the interpretation.

Dan 5:18 O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar kingship, greatness, glory, and majesty.

Dan 5:19 And because of the greatness that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed those he wanted to kill, kept alive those he wanted to keep alive, honored those he wanted to honor, and degraded those he wanted to degrade.

Dan 5:20 But when his heart was lifted up and his spirit was hardened so that he acted proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and his glory was stripped from him.

Dan 5:21 He was driven from human society, and his mind was made like that of an animal. His dwelling was with the wild asses, he was fed grass like oxen, and his body was bathed with the dew of heaven, until he learned that the Most High God has sovereignty over the kingdom of mortals, and sets over it whomever he will.

Dan 5:22 And you, Belshazzar his son, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this!

Dan 5:23 You have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven! The vessels of his temple have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines have been drinking wine from them. You have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know; but the God in whose power is your very breath, and to whom belong all your ways, you have not honored.

Dan 5:24 "So from his presence the hand was sent and this writing was inscribed.

Dan 5:25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN.

Dan 5:26 This is the interpretation of the matter: MENE, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end;

Dan 5:27 TEKEL, you have been weighed on the scales and found wanting;

Dan 5:28 PERES, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

Dan 5:29 Then Belshazzar gave the command, and Daniel was clothed in purple, a chain of gold was put around his neck, and a proclamation was made concerning him that he should rank third in the kingdom.

Dan 5:30 That very night Belshazzar, the Chaldean king, was killed.

Dan 5:31 And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Dan 6:1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, stationed throughout the whole kingdom,

Dan 6:2 and over them three presidents, including Daniel; to these the satraps gave account, so that the king might suffer no loss.

Dan 6:3 Soon Daniel distinguished himself above all the other presidents and satraps because an excellent spirit was in him, and the king planned to appoint him over the whole kingdom.

Dan 6:4 So the presidents and the satraps tried to find grounds for complaint against Daniel in connection with the kingdom. But they could find no grounds for complaint or any corruption, because he was faithful, and no negligence or corruption could be found in him.

Dan 6:5 The men said, "We shall not find any ground for complaint against this Daniel unless we find it in connection with the law of his God."

Dan 6:6 So the presidents and satraps conspired and came to the king and said to him, "O King Darius, live forever!"

Dan 6:7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counselors and the governors are agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an interdict, that whoever prays to anyone, divine or human, for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into a den of lions.

Dan 6:8 Now, O king, establish the interdict and sign the document, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be revoked."

Dan 6:9 Therefore King Darius signed the document and interdict.

Dan 6:10 Although Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he continued to go to his house, which had windows in its upper room open toward Jerusalem, and to get down on his knees three times a day to pray to his God and praise him, just as he had done previously.

Dan 6:11 The conspirators came and found Daniel praying and seeking mercy before his God.

Dan 6:12 Then they approached the king and said concerning the interdict, "O king! Did you not sign an interdict, that anyone who prays to anyone, divine or human, within thirty days except to you, O king, shall be thrown into a den of lions?" The king answered, "The thing stands fast, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked."

Dan 6:13 Then they responded to the king, "Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the interdict you have signed, but he is saying his prayers three times a day."

Dan 6:14 When the king heard the charge, he was very much distressed. He was determined to save Daniel, and until the sun went down he made every effort to rescue him.

Dan 6:15 Then the conspirators came to the king and said to him, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no interdict or ordinance that the king establishes can be changed."

Dan 6:16 Then the king gave the command, and Daniel was brought and thrown into the den of lions. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you faithfully serve, deliver you!"

Dan 6:17 A stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.

Dan 6:18 Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; no food was brought to him, and sleep fled from him.

Dan 6:19 Then, at break of day, the king got up and hurried to the den of lions.

Dan 6:20 When he came near the den where Daniel was, he cried out anxiously to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you faithfully serve been able to deliver you from the lions?"

Dan 6:21 Daniel then said to the king, "O king, live forever!"

Dan 6:22 My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths so that they would not hurt me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no wrong."

Dan 6:23 Then the king was exceedingly glad and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

Dan 6:24 The king gave a command, and those who had accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the den of lions-- they, their children, and their wives. Before they reached the bottom of the den the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

Dan 6:25 Then King Darius wrote to all peoples and nations of every language throughout the whole world: "May you have abundant prosperity!"

Dan 6:26 I make a decree, that in all my royal dominion people should tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: For he is the living God, enduring forever. His kingdom shall never be destroyed, and his dominion has no end.

Dan 6:27 He delivers and rescues, he works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth; for he has saved Daniel from the power of the lions."

Dan 6:28 So this Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Dan 7:1 In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream:

Dan 7:2 I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea,

Dan 7:3 and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

Dan 7:4 The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then, as I watched, its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a human being; and a human mind was given to it.

Dan 7:5 Another beast appeared, a second one, that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one side, had three tusks in its mouth among its teeth and was told, "Arise, devour many bodies!"

Dan 7:6 After this, as I watched, another appeared, like a leopard. The beast had four wings of a bird on its back and four heads; and dominion was given to it.

Dan 7:7 After this I saw in the visions by night a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth and was devouring, breaking in pieces, and stamping what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that preceded it, and it had ten horns.

Dan 7:8 I was considering the horns, when another horn appeared, a little one coming up among them; to make room for it, three of the earlier horns were plucked up by the roots. There were eyes like human eyes in this horn, and a mouth speaking arrogantly.

Dan 7:9 As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne, his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

Dan 7:10 A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgment, and the books were opened.

Dan 7:11 I watched then because of the noise of the arrogant words that the horn was speaking. And as I watched, the beast was put to death, and its body destroyed and given over to be burned with fire.

Dan 7:12 As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

Dan 7:13 As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him.

Dan 7:14 To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Dan 7:15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me.

Dan 7:16 I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter:

Dan 7:17 "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth.

Dan 7:18 But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever-- forever and ever."

Dan 7:19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrifying, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet;

Dan 7:20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and concerning the other horn, which came up and to make room for which three of them fell out-- the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke arrogantly, and that seemed greater than the others.

Dan 7:21 As I looked, this horn made war with the holy ones and was prevailing over them,

Dan 7:22 until the Ancient One came; then judgment was given for the holy ones of the Most High, and the time arrived when the holy ones gained possession of the kingdom.

Dan 7:23 This is what he said: "As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth that shall be different from all the other kingdoms; it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

Dan 7:24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them. This one shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

Dan 7:25 He shall speak words against the Most High, shall wear out the holy ones of the Most High, and shall attempt to change the sacred seasons and the law; and they shall be given into his power for a time, two times, and half a time.

Dan 7:26 Then the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and totally destroyed.

Dan 7:27 The kingship and dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them."

Dan 7:28 Here the account ends. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly terrified me, and my face turned pale; but I kept the matter in my mind.

Dan 8:1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me at first.

Dan 8:2 In the vision I was looking and saw myself in Susa the capital, in the province of Elam, and I was by the river Ulai.

Dan 8:3 I looked up and saw a ram standing beside the river. It had two horns. Both horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up second.

Dan 8:4 I saw the ram charging westward and northward and southward. All beasts were powerless to withstand it, and no one could rescue from its power; it did as it pleased and became strong.

Dan 8:5 As I was watching, a male goat appeared from the west, coming across the face of the whole earth without touching the ground. The goat had a horn between its eyes.

Dan 8:6 It came toward the ram with the two horns that I had seen standing beside the river, and it ran at it with savage force.

Dan 8:7 I saw it approaching the ram. It was enraged against it and struck the ram, breaking its two horns. The ram did not have power to withstand it; it threw the ram down to the ground and trampled upon it, and there was no one who could rescue the ram from its power.

Dan 8:8 Then the male goat grew exceedingly great; but at the height of its power, the great horn was broken, and in its place there came up four prominent horns toward the four winds of heaven.

Dan 8:9 Out of one of them came another horn, a little one, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the beautiful land.

Dan 8:10 It grew as high as the host of heaven. It threw down to the earth some of the host and some of the stars, and trampled on them.

Dan 8:11 Even against the prince of the host it acted arrogantly; it took the regular burnt offering away from him and overthrew the place of his sanctuary.

Dan 8:12 Because of wickedness, the host was given over to it together with the regular burnt offering; it cast truth to the ground, and kept prospering in what it did.

Dan 8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the one that spoke, "For how long is this vision concerning the regular burnt offering, the transgression that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and host to be trampled?"

Dan 8:14 And he answered him, "For two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary shall be restored to its rightful state."

Dan 8:15 When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I tried to understand it. Then someone appeared standing before me, having the appearance of a man,

Dan 8:16 and I heard a human voice by the Ulai, calling, "Gabriel, help this man understand the vision."

Dan 8:17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I became frightened and fell prostrate. But he said to me, "Understand, O mortal, that the vision is for the time of the end."

Dan 8:18 As he was speaking to me, I fell into a trance, face to the ground; then he touched me and set me on my feet.

Dan 8:19 He said, "Listen, and I will tell you what will take place later in the period of wrath; for it refers to the appointed time of the end.

Dan 8:20 As for the ram that you saw with the two horns, these are the kings of Media and Persia.

Dan 8:21 The male goat is the king of Greece, and the great horn between its eyes is the first king.

Dan 8:22 As for the horn that was broken, in place of which four others arose, four kingdoms shall arise from his nation, but not with his power.

Dan 8:23 At the end of their rule, when the transgressions have reached their full measure, a king of bold countenance shall arise, skilled in intrigue.

Dan 8:24 He shall grow strong in power, shall cause fearful destruction, and shall succeed in what he does. He shall destroy the powerful and the people of the holy ones.

Dan 8:25 By his cunning he shall make deceit prosper under his hand, and in his own mind he shall be great. Without warning he shall destroy many and shall even rise up against the Prince of princes. But he shall be broken, and not by human hands.

Dan 8:26 The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been told is true. As for you, seal up the vision, for it refers to many days from now."

Dan 8:27 So I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for some days; then I arose and went about the king's business. But I was dismayed by the vision and did not understand it.

Dan 9:1 In the first year of Darius son of Ahasuerus, by birth a Mede, who became king over the realm of the Chaldeans--

Dan 9:2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years that, according to the word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah, must be fulfilled for the devastation of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

Dan 9:3 Then I turned to the Lord God, to seek an answer by prayer and supplication with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

Dan 9:4 I prayed to the LORD my God and made confession, saying, "Ah, Lord, great and awesome God, keeping covenant and steadfast love with those who love you and keep your commandments,

Dan 9:5 we have sinned and done wrong, acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from your commandments and ordinances.

Dan 9:6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our ancestors, and to all the people of the land.

Dan 9:7 "Righteousness is on your side, O Lord, but open shame, as at this day, falls on us, the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those who are near and those who are far away, in all the lands to which you have driven them, because of the treachery that they have committed against you.

Dan 9:8 Open shame, O LORD, falls on us, our kings, our officials, and our ancestors, because we have sinned against you.

Dan 9:9 To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him,

Dan 9:10 and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by following his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

Dan 9:11 "All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. So the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out upon us, because we have sinned against you.

Dan 9:12 He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our rulers, by bringing upon us a calamity so great that what has been done against Jerusalem has never before been done under the whole heaven.

Dan 9:13 Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us. We did not entreat the favor of the LORD our God, turning from our iniquities and reflecting on his fidelity.

Dan 9:14 So the LORD kept watch over this calamity until he brought it upon us. Indeed, the LORD our God is right in all that he has done; for we have disobeyed his voice.

Dan 9:15 "And now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made your name renowned even to this day-- we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

Dan 9:16 O Lord, in view of all your righteous acts, let your anger and wrath, we pray, turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because of our sins and the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people have become a disgrace among all our neighbors.

Dan 9:17 Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his supplication, and for your own sake, Lord, let your face shine upon your desolated sanctuary.

Dan 9:18 Incline your ear, O my God, and hear. Open your eyes and look at our desolation and the city that bears your name. We do not present our supplication before you on the ground of our righteousness, but on the ground of your great mercies.

Dan 9:19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, listen and act and do not delay! For your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people bear your name!"

Dan 9:20 While I was speaking, and was praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God on behalf of the holy mountain of my God--

Dan 9:21 while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen before in a vision, came to me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice.

Dan 9:22 He came and said to me, "Daniel, I have now come out to give you wisdom and understanding.

Dan 9:23 At the beginning of your supplications a word went out, and I have come to declare it, for you are greatly beloved. So consider the word and understand the vision:

Dan 9:24 "Seventy weeks are decreed for your people and your holy city: to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal both vision and prophet, and to anoint a most holy place.

Dan 9:25 Know therefore and understand: from the time that the word went out to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the time of an anointed prince, there shall be seven weeks; and for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with streets and moat, but in a troubled time.

Dan 9:26 After the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off and shall have nothing, and the troops of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war. Desolations are decreed.

Dan 9:27 He shall make a strong covenant with many for one week, and for half of the week he shall make sacrifice and offering cease; and in their place shall be an abomination that desolates, until the decreed end is poured out upon the desolator."

Dan 10:1 In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, who was named Beltshazzar. The word was true, and it concerned a great conflict. He understood the word, having received understanding in the vision.

Dan 10:2 At that time I, Daniel, had been mourning for three weeks.

Dan 10:3 I had eaten no rich food, no meat or wine had entered my mouth, and I had not anointed myself at all, for the full three weeks.

Dan 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river (that is, the Tigris),

Dan 10:5 I looked up and saw a man clothed in linen, with a belt of gold from Uphaz around his waist.

Dan 10:6 His body was like beryl, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the roar of a multitude.

Dan 10:7 I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; the people who were with me did not see the vision, though a great trembling fell upon them, and they fled and hid themselves.

Dan 10:8 So I was left alone to see this great vision. My strength left me, and my complexion grew deathly pale, and I retained no strength.

Dan 10:9 Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a trance, face to the ground.

Dan 10:10 But then a hand touched me and roused me to my hands and knees.

Dan 10:11 He said to me, "Daniel, greatly beloved, pay attention to the words that I am going to speak to you. Stand on your feet, for I have now been sent to you." So while he was speaking this word to me, I stood up trembling.

Dan 10:12 He said to me, "Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.

Dan 10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me twenty-one days. So Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, and I left him there with the prince of the kingdom of Persia,

Dan 10:14 and have come to help you understand what is to happen to your people at the end of days. For there is a further vision for those days."

Dan 10:15 While he was speaking these words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless.

Dan 10:16 Then one in human form touched my lips, and I opened my mouth to speak, and said to the one who stood before me, "My lord, because of the vision such pains have come upon me that I retain no strength.

Dan 10:17 How can my lord's servant talk with my lord? For I am shaking, no strength remains in me, and no breath is left in me."

Dan 10:18 Again one in human form touched me and strengthened me.

Dan 10:19 He said, "Do not fear, greatly beloved, you are safe. Be strong and courageous!" When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

Dan 10:20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I must return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I am through with him, the prince of Greece will come.

Dan 10:21 But I am to tell you what is inscribed in the book of truth. There is no one with me who contends against these princes except Michael, your prince.

Dan 11:1 As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him.

Dan 11:2 "Now I will announce the truth to you. Three more kings shall arise in Persia. The fourth shall be far richer than all of them, and when he has become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece.

Dan 11:3 Then a warrior king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion and take action as he pleases.

Dan 11:4 And while still rising in power, his kingdom shall be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to the dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted and go to others besides these.

Dan 11:5 "Then the king of the south shall grow strong, but one of his officers shall grow stronger than he and shall rule a realm greater than his own realm.

Dan 11:6 After some years they shall make an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to ratify the agreement. But she shall not retain her power, and his offspring shall not endure. She shall be given up, she and her attendants and her child and the one who supported her. "In those times

Dan 11:7 a branch from her roots shall rise up in his place. He shall come against the army and enter the fortress of the king of the north, and he shall take action against them and prevail.

Dan 11:8 Even their gods, with their idols and with their precious vessels of silver and gold, he shall carry off to Egypt as spoils of war. For some years he shall refrain from attacking the king of the north;

Dan 11:9 then the latter shall invade the realm of the king of the south, but will return to his own land.

Dan 11:10 "His sons shall wage war and assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall advance like a flood and pass through, and again shall carry the war as far as his fortress.

Dan 11:11 Moved with rage, the king of the south shall go out and do battle against the king of the north, who shall muster a great multitude, which shall, however, be defeated by his enemy.

Dan 11:12 When the multitude has been carried off, his heart shall be exalted, and he shall overthrow tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail.

Dan 11:13 For the king of the north shall again raise a multitude, larger than the former, and after some years he shall advance with a great army and abundant supplies.

Dan 11:14 "In those times many shall rise against the king of the south. The lawless among your own people shall lift themselves up in order to fulfill the vision, but they shall fail.

Dan 11:15 Then the king of the north shall come and throw up siegeworks, and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not stand, not even his picked troops, for there shall be no strength to resist.

Dan 11:16 But he who comes against him shall take the actions he pleases, and no one shall withstand him. He shall take a position in the beautiful land, and all of it shall be in his power.

Dan 11:17 He shall set his mind to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he shall bring terms of peace and perform them. In order to destroy the kingdom, he shall give him a woman in marriage; but it shall not succeed or be to his advantage.

Dan 11:18 Afterward he shall turn to the coastlands, and shall capture many. But a commander shall put an end to his insolence; indeed, he shall turn his insolence back upon him.

Dan 11:19 Then he shall turn back toward the fortresses of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.

Dan 11:20 "Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an official for the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he shall be broken, though not in anger or in battle.

Dan 11:21 In his place shall arise a contemptible person on whom royal majesty had not been conferred; he shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom through intrigue.

Dan 11:22 Armies shall be utterly swept away and broken before him, and the prince of the covenant as well.

Dan 11:23 And after an alliance is made with him, he shall act deceitfully and become strong with a small party.

Dan 11:24 Without warning he shall come into the richest parts of the province and do what none of his predecessors had ever done, lavishing plunder, spoil, and wealth on them. He shall devise plans against strongholds, but only for a time.

Dan 11:25 He shall stir up his power and determination against the king of the south with a great army, and the king of the south shall wage war with a much greater and stronger army. But he shall not succeed, for plots shall be devised against him

Dan 11:26 by those who eat of the royal rations. They shall break him, his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall slain.

Dan 11:27 The two kings, their minds bent on evil, shall sit at one table and exchange lies. But it shall not succeed, for there remains an end at the time appointed.

Dan 11:28 He shall return to his land with great wealth, but his heart shall be set against the holy covenant. He shall work his will, and return to his own land.

Dan 11:29 "At the time appointed he shall return and come into the south, but this time it shall not be as it was before.

Dan 11:30 For ships of Kittim shall come against him, and he shall lose heart and withdraw. He shall be enraged and take action against the holy covenant. He shall turn back and pay heed to those who forsake the holy covenant.

Dan 11:31 Forces sent by him shall occupy and profane the temple and fortress. They shall abolish the regular burnt offering and set up the abomination that makes desolate.

Dan 11:32 He shall seduce with intrigue those who violate the covenant; but the people who are loyal to their God shall stand firm and take action.

Dan 11:33 The wise among the people shall give understanding to many; for some days, however, they shall fall by sword and flame, and suffer captivity and plunder.

Dan 11:34 When they fall victim, they shall receive a little help, and many shall join them insincerely.

Dan 11:35 Some of the wise shall fall, so that they may be refined, purified, and cleansed, until the time of the end, for there is still an interval until the time appointed.

Dan 11:36 "The king shall act as he pleases. He shall exalt himself and consider himself greater than any god, and shall speak horrendous things against the God of gods. He shall prosper until the period of wrath is completed, for what is determined shall be done.

Dan 11:37 He shall pay no respect to the gods of his ancestors, or to the one beloved by women; he shall pay no respect to any other god, for he shall consider himself greater than all.

Dan 11:38 He shall honor the god of fortresses instead of these; a god whom his ancestors did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.

Dan 11:39 He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god. Those who acknowledge him he shall make more wealthy, and shall appoint them as rulers over many, and shall distribute the land for a price.

Dan 11:40 "At the time of the end the king of the south shall attack him. But the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. He shall advance against countries and pass through like a flood.

Dan 11:41 He shall come into the beautiful land, and tens of thousands shall fall victim, but Edom and Moab and the main part of the Ammonites shall escape from his power.

Dan 11:42 He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

Dan 11:43 He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall follow in his train.

Dan 11:44 But reports from the east and the north shall alarm him, and he shall go out with great fury to bring ruin and complete destruction to many.

Dan 11:45 He shall pitch his palatial tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with no one to help him.

Dan 12:1 "At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book.

Dan 12:2 Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Dan 12:3 Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

Dan 12:4 But you, Daniel, keep the words secret and the book sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be running back and forth, and evil shall increase."

Dan 12:5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and two others appeared, one standing on this bank of the stream and one on the other.

Dan 12:6 One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was upstream, "How long shall it be until the end of these wonders?"

Dan 12:7 The man clothed in linen, who was upstream, raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven. And I heard him swear by the one who lives forever that it would be for a time, two times, and half a time, and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things would be accomplished.

Dan 12:8 I heard but could not understand; so I said, "My lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?"

Dan 12:9 He said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are to remain secret and sealed until the time of the end.

Dan 12:10 Many shall be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked shall continue to act wickedly. None of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand.

Dan 12:11 From the time that the regular burnt offering is taken away and the abomination that desolates is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days.

Dan 12:12 Happy are those who persevere and attain the thousand three hundred thirty-five days.

Dan 12:13 But you, go your way, and rest; you shall rise for your reward at the end of the days."

Hos 1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri, in the days of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah, and in the days of King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel.

Hos 1:2 When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the LORD."

Hos 1:3 So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

Hos 1:4 And the LORD said to him, "Name him Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

Hos 1:5 On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

Hos 1:6 She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the LORD said to him, "Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel or forgive them.

Hos 1:7 But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the LORD their God; I will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by war, or by horses, or by horsemen."

Hos 1:8 When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

Hos 1:9 Then the LORD said, "Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not my people and I am not your God."

Hos 1:10 Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, "You are not my people," it shall be said to them, "Children of the living God."

Hos 1:11 The people of Judah and the people of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint for themselves one head; and they shall take possession of the land, for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Hos 2:1 Say to your brother, Ammi, and to your sister, Ruhamah.

Hos 2:2 Plead with your mother, plead-- for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband-- that she put away her whoring from her face, and her adultery from between her breasts,

Hos 2:3 or I will strip her naked and expose her as in the day she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and turn her into a parched land, and kill her with thirst.

Hos 2:4 Upon her children also I will have no pity, because they are children of whoredom.

Hos 2:5 For their mother has played the whore; she who conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, "I will go after my lovers; they give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink."

Hos 2:6 Therefore I will hedge up her way with thorns; and I will build a wall against her, so that she cannot find her paths.

Hos 2:7 She shall pursue her lovers, but not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them. Then she shall say, "I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better with me then than now."

Hos 2:8 She did not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the wine, and the oil, and who lavished upon her silver and gold that they used for Baal.

Hos 2:9 Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my wine in its season; and I will take away my wool and my flax, which were to cover her nakedness.

Hos 2:10 Now I will uncover her shame in the sight of her lovers, and no one shall rescue her out of my hand.

Hos 2:11 I will put an end to all her mirth, her festivals, her new moons, her sabbaths, and all her appointed festivals.

Hos 2:12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, of which she said, "These are my pay, which my lovers have given me." I will make them a forest, and the wild animals shall devour them.

Hos 2:13 I will punish her for the festival days of the Baals, when she offered incense to them and decked herself with her ring and jewelry, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, says the LORD.

Hos 2:14 Therefore, I will now allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her.

Hos 2:15 From there I will give her her vineyards, and make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. There she shall respond as in the days of her youth, as at the time when she came out of the land of Egypt.

Hos 2:16 On that day, says the LORD, you will call me, "My husband," and no longer will you call me, "My Baal."

Hos 2:17 For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, and they shall be mentioned by name no more.

Hos 2:18 I will make for you a covenant on that day with the wild animals, the birds of the air, and the creeping things of the ground; and I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land; and I will make you lie down in safety.

Hos 2:19 And I will take you for my wife forever; I will take you for my wife in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love, and in mercy.

Hos 2:20 I will take you for my wife in faithfulness; and you shall know the LORD.

Hos 2:21 On that day I will answer, says the LORD, I will answer the heavens and they shall answer the earth;

Hos 2:22 and the earth shall answer the grain, the wine, and the oil, and they shall answer Jezreel;

Hos 2:23 and I will sow him for myself in the land. And I will have pity on Lo-ruhamah, and I will say to Lo-ammi, "You are my people"; and he shall say, "You are my God."

Hos 3:1 The LORD said to me again, "Go, love a woman who has a lover and is an adulteress, just as the LORD loves the people of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes."

Hos 3:2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer of barley and a measure of wine.

Hos 3:3 And I said to her, "You must remain as mine for many days; you shall not play the whore, you shall not have intercourse with a man, nor I with you."

Hos 3:4 For the Israelites shall remain many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or pillar, without ephod or teraphim.

Hos 3:5 Afterward the Israelites shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; they shall come in awe to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

Hos 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O people of Israel; for the LORD has an indictment against the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or loyalty, and no knowledge of God in the land.

Hos 4:2 Swearing, lying, and murder, and stealing and adultery break out; bloodshed follows bloodshed.

Hos 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who live in it languish; together with the wild animals and the birds of the air, even the fish of the sea are perishing.

Hos 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

Hos 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night, and I will destroy your mother.

Hos 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Hos 4:7 The more they increased, the more they sinned against me; they changed their glory into shame.

Hos 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people; they are greedy for their iniquity.

Hos 4:9 And it shall be like people, like priest; I will punish them for their ways, and repay them for their deeds.

Hos 4:10 They shall eat, but not be satisfied; they shall play the whore, but not multiply; because they have forsaken the LORD to devote themselves to Hos 4:11 whoredom. Wine and new wine take away the understanding.

Hos 4:12 My people consult a piece of wood, and their divining rod gives them oracles. For a spirit of whoredom has led them astray, and they have played the whore, forsaking their God.

Hos 4:13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and make offerings upon the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is good. Therefore your daughters play the whore, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

Hos 4:14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the whore, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go aside with whores, and sacrifice with temple prostitutes; thus a people without understanding comes to ruin.

Hos 4:15 Though you play the whore, O Israel, do not let Judah become guilty. Do not enter into Gilgal, or go up to Beth-aven, and do not swear, "As the LORD lives."

Hos 4:16 Like a stubborn heifer, Israel is stubborn; can the LORD now feed them like a lamb in a broad pasture?

Hos 4:17 Ephraim is joined to idols-- let him alone.

Hos 4:18 When their drinking is ended, they indulge in sexual orgies; they love lewdness more than their glory.

Hos 4:19 A wind has wrapped them in its wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their altars.

Hos 5:1 Hear this, O priests! Give heed, O house of Israel! Listen, O house of the king! For the judgment pertains to you; for you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor, Hos 5:2 and a pit dug deep in Shittim; but I will punish all of them.

Hos 5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me; for now, O Ephraim, you have played the whore; Israel is defiled.

Hos 5:4 Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. For the spirit of whoredom is within them, and they do not know the LORD.

Hos 5:5 Israel's pride testifies against him; Ephraim stumbles in his guilt; Judah also stumbles with them.

Hos 5:6 With their flocks and herds they shall go to seek the LORD, but they will not find him; he has withdrawn from them.

Hos 5:7 They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD; for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon shall devour them along with their fields.

Hos 5:8 Blow the horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah. Sound the alarm at Beth-aven; look behind you, Benjamin!

Hos 5:9 Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of punishment; among the tribes of Israel I declare what is sure.

Hos 5:10 The princes of Judah have become like those who remove the landmark; on them I will pour out my wrath like water.

Hos 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was determined to go after vanity.

Hos 5:12 Therefore I am like maggots to Ephraim, and like rotteness to the house of Judah.

Hos 5:13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king. But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.

Hos 5:14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I myself will tear and go away; I will carry off, and no one shall rescue.

Hos 5:15 I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face. In their distress they will beg my favor:

Hos 6:1 "Come, let us return to the LORD; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up.

Hos 6:2 After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him.

Hos 6:3 Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth."

Hos 6:4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early.

Hos 6:5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light.

Hos 6:6 For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

Hos 6:7 But at Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me.

Hos 6:8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood.

Hos 6:9 As robbers lie in wait for someone, so the priests are banded together; they murder on the road to Shechem, they commit a monstrous crime.

Hos 6:10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim's whoredom is there, Israel is defiled.

Hos 6:11 For you also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed. When I would restore the fortunes of my people, Hos 7:1 when I would heal Israel, the corruption of Ephraim is revealed, and the wicked deeds of Samaria; for they deal falsely, the thief breaks in, and the bandits raid outside.

Hos 7:2 But they do not consider that I remember all their wickedness. Now their deeds surround them, they are before my face.

Hos 7:3 By their wickedness they make the king glad, and the officials by their treachery.

Hos 7:4 They are all adulterers; they are like a heated oven, whose baker does not need to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

Hos 7:5 On the day of our king the officials became sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with mockers.

Hos 7:6 For they are kindled like an oven, their heart burns within them; all night their anger smolders; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

Hos 7:7 All of them are hot as an oven, and they devour their rulers. All their kings have fallen; none of them calls upon me.

Hos 7:8 Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

Hos 7:9 Foreigners devour his strength, but he does not know it; gray hairs are sprinkled upon him, but he does not know it.

Hos 7:10 Israel's pride testifies against him; yet they do not return to the LORD their God, or seek him, for all this.

Hos 7:11 Ephraim has become like a dove, silly and without sense; they call upon Egypt, they go to Assyria.

Hos 7:12 As they go, I will cast my net over them; I will bring them down like birds of the air; I will discipline them according to the report made to their assembly.

Hos 7:13 Woe to them, for they have strayed from me! Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against me! I would redeem them, but they speak lies against me.

Hos 7:14 They do not cry to me from the heart, but they wail upon their beds; they gash themselves for grain and wine; they rebel against me.

Hos 7:15 It was I who trained and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.

Hos 7:16 They turn to that which does not profit; they have become like a defective bow; their officials shall fall by the sword because of the rage of their tongue. So much for their babbling in the land of Egypt.

Hos 8:1 Set the trumpet to your lips! One like a vulture is over the house of the LORD, because they have broken my covenant, and transgressed my law.

Hos 8:2 Israel cries to me, "My God, we-- Israel-- know you!"

Hos 8:3 Israel has spurned the good; the enemy shall pursue him.

Hos 8:4 They made kings, but not through me; they set up princes, but without my knowledge. With their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction.

Hos 8:5 Your calf is rejected, O Samaria. My anger burns against them. How long will they be incapable of innocence?

Hos 8:6 For it is from Israel, an artisan made it; it is not God. The calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces.

Hos 8:7 For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no heads, it shall yield no meal; if it were to yield, foreigners would devour it.

Hos 8:8 Israel is swallowed up; now they are among the nations as a useless vessel.

Hos 8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass wandering alone; Ephraim has bargained for lovers.

Hos 8:10 Though they bargain with the nations, I will now gather them up. They shall soon writhe under the burden of kings and princes.

Hos 8:11 When Ephraim multiplied altars to expiate sin, they became to him altars for sinning.

Hos 8:12 Though I write for him the multitude of my instructions, they are regarded as a strange thing.

Hos 8:13 Though they offer choice sacrifices, though they eat flesh, the LORD does not accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins; they shall return to Egypt.

Hos 8:14 Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour his strongholds.

Hos 9:1 Do not rejoice, O Israel! Do not exult as other nations do; for you have played the whore, departing from your God. You have loved a prostitute's pay on all threshing floors.

Hos 9:2 Threshing floor and wine vat shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail them.

Hos 9:3 They shall not remain in the land of the LORD; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and in Assyria they shall eat unclean food.

Hos 9:4 They shall not pour drink offerings of wine to the LORD, and their sacrifices shall not please him. Such sacrifices shall be like mourners' bread; all who eat of it shall be defiled; for their bread shall be for their hunger only; it shall not come to the house of the LORD.

Hos 9:5 What will you do on the day of appointed festival, and on the day of the festival of the LORD?

Hos 9:6 For even if they escape destruction, Egypt shall gather them, Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess their precious things of silver; thorns shall be in their tents.

Hos 9:7 The days of punishment have come, the days of recompense have come; Israel cries, "The prophet is a fool, the man of the spirit is mad!" Because of your great iniquity, your hostility is great.

Hos 9:8 The prophet is a sentinel for my God over Ephraim, yet a fowler's snare is on all his ways, and hostility in the house of his God.

Hos 9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah; he will remember their iniquity, he will punish their sins.

Hos 9:10 Like grapes in the wilderness, I found Israel. Like the first fruit on the fig tree, in its first season, I saw your ancestors. But they came to Baal-peor, and consecrated themselves to a thing of shame, and became detestable like the thing they loved.

Hos 9:11 Ephraim's glory shall fly away like a bird-- no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!

Hos 9:12 Even if they bring up children, I will bereave them until no one is left. Woe to them indeed when I depart from them!

Hos 9:13 Once I saw Ephraim as a young palm planted in a lovely meadow, but now Ephraim must lead out his children for slaughter.

Hos 9:14 Give them, O LORD-- what will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

Hos 9:15 Every evil of theirs began at Gilgal; there I came to hate them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house. I will love them no more; all their officials are rebels.

Hos 9:16 Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, I will kill the cherished offspring of their womb.

Hos 9:17 Because they have not listened to him, my God will reject them; they shall become wanderers among the nations.

Hos 10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit. The more his fruit increased the more altars he built; as his country improved, he improved his pillars.

Hos 10:2 Their heart is false; now they must bear their guilt. The LORD will break down their altars, and destroy their pillars.

Hos 10:3 For now they will say: "We have no king, for we do not fear the LORD, and a king-- what could he do for us?"

Hos 10:4 They utter mere words; with empty oaths they make covenants; so litigation springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

Hos 10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria tremble for the calf of Beth-aven. Its people shall mourn for it, and its idolatrous priests shall wail over it, over its glory that has departed from it.

Hos 10:6 The thing itself shall be carried to Assyria as tribute to the great king. Ephraim shall be put to shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his idol.

Hos 10:7 Samaria's king shall perish like a chip on the face of the waters.

Hos 10:8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed. Thorn and thistle shall grow up on their altars. They shall say to the mountains, Cover us, and to the hills, Fall on us.

Hos 10:9 Since the days of Gibeah you have sinned, O Israel; there they have continued. Shall not war overtake them in Gibeah?

Hos 10:10 I will come against the wayward people to punish them; and nations shall be gathered against them when they are punished for their double iniquity.

Hos 10:11 Ephraim was a trained heifer that loved to thresh, and I spared her fair neck; but I will make Ephraim break the ground; Judah must plow; Jacob must harrow for himself.

Hos 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap steadfast love; break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain righteousness upon you.

Hos 10:13 You have plowed wickedness, you have reaped injustice, you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your power and in the multitude of your warriors,

Hos 10:14 therefore the tumult of war shall rise against your people, and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle when mothers were dashed in pieces with their children.

Hos 10:15 Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness. At dawn the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off.

Hos 11:1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

Hos 11:2 The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals, and offering incense to idols.

Hos 11:3 Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them up in my arms; but they did not know that I healed them.

Hos 11:4 I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love. I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them.

Hos 11:5 They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me.

Hos 11:6 The sword rages in their cities, it consumes their oracle-priests, and devours because of their schemes.

Hos 11:7 My people are bent on turning away from me. To the Most High they call, but he does not raise them up at all.

Hos 11:8 How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion grows warm and tender.

Hos 11:9 I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and no mortal, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come in wrath.
Hos 11:10 They shall go after the LORD, who roars like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west.
Hos 11:11 They shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria; and I will return them to their homes, says the LORD.
Hos 11:12 Ephraim has surrounded me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit; but Judah still walks with God, and is faithful to the Holy One.
Hos 12:1 Ephraim herds the wind, and pursues the east wind all day long; they multiply falsehood and violence; they make a treaty with Assyria, and oil is carried to Egypt.
Hos 12:2 The LORD has an indictment against Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways, and repay him according to his deeds.
Hos 12:3 In the womb he tried to supplant his brother, and in his manhood he strove with God.
Hos 12:4 He strove with the angel and prevailed, he wept and sought his favor; he met him at Bethel, and there he spoke with him.
Hos 12:5 The LORD the God of hosts, the LORD is his name!
Hos 12:6 But as for you, return to your God, hold fast to love and justice, and wait continually for your God.
Hos 12:7 A trader, in whose hands are false balances, he loves to oppress.
Hos 12:8 Ephraim has said, "Ah, I am rich, I have gained wealth for myself; in all of my gain no offense has been found in me that would be sin."
Hos 12:9 I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again, as in the days of the appointed festival.
Hos 12:10 I spoke to the prophets; it was I who multiplied visions, and through the prophets I will bring destruction.
Hos 12:11 In Gilead there is iniquity, they shall surely come to nothing. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls, so their altars shall be like stone heaps on the furrows of the field.
Hos 12:12 Jacob fled to the land of Aram, there Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he guarded sheep.
Hos 12:13 By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet he was guarded.
Hos 12:14 Ephraim has given bitter offense, so his Lord will bring his crimes down on him and pay him back for his insults.
Hos 13:1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling; he was exalted in Israel; but he incurred guilt through Baal and died.
Hos 13:2 And now they keep on sinning and make a cast image for themselves, idols of silver made according to their understanding, all of them the work of artisans. "Sacrifice to these," they say. People are kissing calves!
Hos 13:3 Therefore they shall be like the morning mist or like the dew that goes away early, like chaff that swirls from the threshing floor or like smoke from a window.
Hos 13:4 Yet I have been the LORD your God ever since the land of Egypt; you know no God but me, and besides me there is no savior.
Hos 13:5 It was I who fed you in the wilderness, in the land of drought.
Hos 13:6 When I fed them, they were satisfied; they were satisfied, and their heart was proud; therefore they forgot me.
Hos 13:7 So I will become like a lion to them, like a leopard I will lurk beside the way.
Hos 13:8 I will fall upon them like a bear robbed of her cubs, and will tear open the covering of their heart; there I will devour them like a lion, as a wild animal would mangle them.
Hos 13:9 I will destroy you, O Israel; who can help you?
Hos 13:10 Where now is your king, that he may save you? Where in all your cities are your rulers, of whom you said, "Give me a king and rulers"?"
Hos 13:11 I gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.
Hos 13:12 Ephraim's iniquity is bound up; his sin is kept in store.
Hos 13:13 The pangs of childbirth come for him, but he is an unwise son; for at the proper time he does not present himself at the mouth of the womb.
Hos 13:14 Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from Death? O Death, where are your plagues? O Sheol, where is your destruction? Compassion is hidden from my eyes.
Hos 13:15 Although he may flourish among rushes, the east wind shall come, a blast from the LORD, rising from the wilderness; and his fountain shall dry up, his spring shall be parched. It shall strip his treasury of every precious thing.
Hos 13:16 Samaria shall bear her guilt, because she has rebelled against her God; they shall fall by the sword, their little ones shall be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women ripped open.

Hos 14:1 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.
Hos 14:2 Take words with you and return to the LORD; say to him, "Take away all guilt; accept that which is good, and we will offer the fruit of our lips.
Hos 14:3 Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; we will say no more, 'Our God,' to the work of our hands. In you the orphan finds mercy."
Hos 14:4 I will heal their disloyalty; I will love them freely, for my anger has turned from them.
Hos 14:5 I will be like the dew to Israel; he shall blossom like the lily, he shall strike root like the forests of Lebanon.
Hos 14:6 His shoots shall spread out; his beauty shall be like the olive tree, and his fragrance like that of Lebanon.
Hos 14:7 They shall again live beneath my shadow, they shall flourish as a garden; they shall blossom like the vine, their fragrance shall be like the wine of Lebanon.
Hos 14:8 O Ephraim, what have I to do with idols? It is I who answer and look after you. I am like an evergreen cypress; your faithfulness comes from me.
Hos 14:9 Those who are wise understand these things; those who are discerning know them. For the ways of the LORD are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.
Joe 1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel son of Pethuel:
Joe 1:2 Hear this, O elders, give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or in the days of your ancestors?
Joe 1:3 Tell your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.
Joe 1:4 What the cutting locust left, the swarming locust has eaten. What the swarming locust left, the hopping locust has eaten, and what the hopping locust left, the destroying locust has eaten.
Joe 1:5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep; and wail, all you wine-drinkers, over the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.
Joe 1:6 For a nation has invaded my land, powerful and innumerable; its teeth are lions' teeth, and it has the fangs of a lioness.
Joe 1:7 It has laid waste my vines, and splintered my fig trees; it has stripped off their bark and thrown it down; their branches have turned white.
Joe 1:8 Lament like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth.
Joe 1:9 The grain offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD. The priests mourn, the ministers of the LORD.
Joe 1:10 The fields are devastated, the ground mourns; for the grain is destroyed, the wine dries up, the oil fails.
Joe 1:11 Be dismayed, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers, over the wheat and the barley; for the crops of the field are ruined.
Joe 1:12 The vine withers, the fig tree droops. Pomegranate, palm, and apple-- all the trees of the field are dried up; surely, joy withers away among the people.
Joe 1:13 Put on sackcloth and lament, you priests; wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, pass the night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God! Grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.
Joe 1:14 Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.
Joe 1:15 Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is near, and as destruction from the Almighty it comes.
Joe 1:16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
Joe 1:17 The seed shrivels under the clods, the storehouses are desolate; the granaries are ruined because the grain has failed.
Joe 1:18 How the animals groan! The herds of cattle wander about because there is no pasture for them; even the flocks of sheep are dazed.
Joe 1:19 To you, O LORD, I cry. For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flames have burned all the trees of the field.
Joe 1:20 Even the wild animals cry to you because the watercourses are dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.
Joe 2:1 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near--
Joe 2:2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness! Like blackness spread upon the mountains a great and powerful army comes; their like has never been from of old, nor will be again after them in ages to come.
Joe 2:3 Fire devours in front of them, and behind them a flame burns. Before them the land is like the garden of Eden, but after them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.
Joe 2:4 They have the appearance of horses, and like war-horses they charge.
Joe 2:5 As with the rumbling of chariots, they leap on the tops of the mountains, like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

Joe 2:6 Before them peoples are in anguish, all faces grow pale.

Joe 2:7 Like warriors they charge, like soldiers they scale the wall. Each keeps to its own course, they do not swerve from their paths.

Joe 2:8 They do not jostle one another, each keeps to its own track; they burst through the weapons and are not halted.

Joe 2:9 They leap upon the city, they run upon the walls; they climb up into the houses, they enter through the windows like a thief.

Joe 2:10 The earth quakes before them, the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joe 2:11 The LORD utters his voice at the head of his army; how vast is his host! Numberless are those who obey his command. Truly the day of the LORD is great; terrible indeed-- who can endure it?

Joe 2:12 Yet even now, says the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;

Joe 2:13 rend your hearts and not your clothing. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing.

Joe 2:14 Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

Joe 2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly;

Joe 2:16 gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the aged; gather the children, even infants at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her canopy.

Joe 2:17 Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep. Let them say, "Spare your people, O LORD, and do not make your heritage a mockery, a byword among the nations. Why should it be said among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"

Joe 2:18 Then the LORD became jealous for his land, and had pity on his people.

Joe 2:19 In response to his people the LORD said: I am sending you grain, wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied; and I will no more make you a mockery among the nations.

Joe 2:20 I will remove the northern army far from you, and drive it into a parched and desolate land, its front into the eastern sea, and its rear into the western sea; its stench and foul smell will rise up. Surely he has done great things!

Joe 2:21 Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things!

Joe 2:22 Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

Joe 2:23 O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before.

Joe 2:24 The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

Joe 2:25 I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you.

Joe 2:26 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Joe 2:27 You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Joe 2:28 Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joe 2:29 Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

Joe 2:30 I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke.

Joe 2:31 The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Joe 2:32 Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Joe 3:1 For then, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

Joe 3:2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat, and I will enter into judgment with them there, on account of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations. They have divided my land,

Joe 3:3 and cast lots for my people, and traded boys for prostitutes, and sold girls for wine, and drunk it down.

Joe 3:4 What are you to me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something? If you are paying me back, I will turn your deeds back upon your own heads swiftly and speedily.

Joe 3:5 For you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my rich treasures into your temples.

Joe 3:6 You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, removing them far from their own border.

Joe 3:7 But now I will rouse them to leave the places to which you have sold them, and I will turn your deeds back upon your own heads.

Joe 3:8 I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far away; for the LORD has spoken.

Joe 3:9 Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare war, stir up the warriors. Let all the soldiers draw near, let them come up.

Joe 3:10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears; let the weakling say, "I am a warrior."

Joe 3:11 Come quickly, all you nations all around, gather yourselves there. Bring down your warriors, O LORD.

Joe 3:12 Let the nations rouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the neighboring nations.

Joe 3:13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Go in, tread, for the wine press is full. The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.

Joe 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Joe 3:15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joe 3:16 The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shake. But the LORD is a refuge for his people, a stronghold for the people of Israel.

Joe 3:17 So you shall know that I, the LORD your God, dwell in Zion, my holy mountain. And Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall never again pass through it.

Joe 3:18 In that day the mountains shall drip sweet wine, the hills shall flow with milk, and all the stream beds of Judah shall flow with water; a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD and water the Wadi Shittim.

Joe 3:19 Egypt shall become a desolation and Edom a desolate wilderness, because of the violence done to the people of Judah, in whose land they have shed innocent blood.

Joe 3:20 But Judah shall be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem to all generations.

Joe 3:21 I will avenge their blood, and I will not clear the guilty, for the LORD dwells in Zion.

Amo 1:1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of King Uzziah of Judah and in the days of King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

Amo 1:2 And he said: The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds wither, and the top of Carmel dries up.

Amo 1:3 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron.

Amo 1:4 So I will send a fire on the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-hadad.

Amo 1:5 I will break the gate bars of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitants from the Valley of Aven, and the one who holds the scepter from Beth-eden; and the people of Aram shall go into exile to Kir, says the LORD.

Amo 1:6 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they carried into exile entire communities, to hand them over to Edom.

Amo 1:7 So I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, fire that shall devour its strongholds.

Amo 1:8 I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod, and the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord GOD.

Amo 1:9 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they delivered entire communities over to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of kinship.

Amo 1:10 So I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, fire that shall devour its strongholds.

Amo 1:11 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity; he maintained his anger perpetually, and kept his wrath forever.

Amo 1:12 So I will send a fire on Teman, and it shall devour the strongholds of Bozrah.

Amo 1:13 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of the Ammonites, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have ripped open pregnant women in Gilead in order to enlarge their territory.

Amo 1:14 So I will kindle a fire against the wall of Rabbah, fire that shall devour its strongholds, with shouting on the day of battle, with a storm on the day of the whirlwind;

Amo 1:15 then their king shall go into exile, he and his officials together, says the LORD.

Amo 2:1 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because he burned to lime the bones of the king of Edom.

Amo 2:2 So I will send a fire on Moab, and it shall devour the strongholds of Kerioth, and Moab shall die amid uproar, amid shouting and the sound of the trumpet;

Amo 2:3 I will cut off the ruler from its midst, and will kill all its officials with him, says the LORD.

Amo 2:4 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have rejected the law of the LORD, and have not kept his statutes, but they have been led astray by the same lies after which their ancestors walked.

Amo 2:5 So I will send a fire on Judah, and it shall devour the strongholds of Jerusalem.

Amo 2:6 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they sell the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals--

Amo 2:7 they who trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth, and push the afflicted out of the way; father and son go in to the same girl, so that my holy name is profaned;

Amo 2:8 they lay themselves down beside every altar on garments taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink wine bought with fines they imposed.

Amo 2:9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of cedars, and who was as strong as oaks; I destroyed his fruit above, and his roots beneath.

Amo 2:10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

Amo 2:11 And I raised up some of your children to be prophets and some of your youths to be nazirites. Is it not indeed so, O people of Israel? says the LORD.

Amo 2:12 But you made the nazirites drink wine, and commanded the prophets, saying, "You shall not prophesy."

Amo 2:13 So, I will press you down in your place, just as a cart presses down when it is full of sheaves.

Amo 2:14 Flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not retain their strength, nor shall the mighty save their lives;

Amo 2:15 those who handle the bow shall not stand, and those who are swift of foot shall not save themselves, nor shall those who ride horses save their lives;

Amo 2:16 and those who are stout of heart among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, says the LORD.

Amo 3:1 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

Amo 3:2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

Amo 3:3 Do two walk together unless they have made an appointment?

Amo 3:4 Does a lion roar in the forest, when it has no prey? Does a young lion cry out from its den, if it has caught nothing?

Amo 3:5 Does a bird fall into a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing?

Amo 3:6 Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid? Does disaster befall a city, unless the LORD has done it?

Amo 3:7 Surely the Lord GOD does nothing, without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets.

Amo 3:8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken; who can but prophesy?

Amo 3:9 Proclaim to the strongholds in Ashdod, and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on Mount Samaria, and see what great tumults are within it, and what oppressions are in its midst."

Amo 3:10 They do not know how to do right, says the LORD, those who store up violence and robbery in their strongholds.

Amo 3:11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: An adversary shall surround the land, and strip you of your defense; and your strongholds shall be plundered.

Amo 3:12 Thus says the LORD: As the shepherd rescues from the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the people of Israel who live in Samaria be rescued, with the corner of a couch and part of a bed.

Amo 3:13 Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob, says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts:

Amo 3:14 On the day I punish Israel for its transgressions, I will punish the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar shall be cut off and fall to the ground.

Amo 3:15 I will tear down the winter house as well as the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall come to an end, says the LORD.

Amo 4:1 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan who are on Mount Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their husbands, "Bring something to drink!"

Amo 4:2 The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness: The time is surely coming upon you, when they shall take you away with hooks, even the last of you with fishhooks.

Amo 4:3 Through breaches in the wall you shall leave, each one straight ahead; and you shall be flung out into Harmon, says the LORD.

Amo 4:4 Come to Bethel-- and transgress; to Gilgal-- and multiply transgression; bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days;

Amo 4:5 bring a thank offering of leavened bread, and proclaim freewill offerings, publish them; for so you love to do, O people of Israel! says the Lord GOD.

Amo 4:6 I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places, yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amo 4:7 And I also withheld the rain from you when there were still three months to the harvest; I would send rain on one city, and send no rain on another city; one field would be rained upon, and the field on which it did not rain withered;

Amo 4:8 so two or three towns wandered to one town to drink water, and were not satisfied; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amo 4:9 I struck you with blight and mildew; I laid waste your gardens and your vineyards; the locust devoured your fig trees and your olive trees; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amo 4:10 I sent among you a pestilence after the manner of Egypt; I killed your young men with the sword; I carried away your horses; and I made the stench of your camp go up into your nostrils; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amo 4:11 I overthrew some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a brand snatched from the fire; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amo 4:12 Therefore thus I will do to you, O Israel; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel!

Amo 4:13 For lo, the one who forms the mountains, creates the wind, reveals his thoughts to mortals, makes the morning darkness, and treads on the heights of the earth-- the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name!

Amo 5:1 Hear this word that I take up over you in lamentation, O house of Israel:

Amo 5:2 Fallen, no more to rise, is maiden Israel; forsaken on her land, with no one to raise her up.

Amo 5:3 For thus says the Lord GOD: The city that marched out a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which marched out a hundred shall have ten left.

Amo 5:4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: Seek me and live;

Amo 5:5 but do not seek Bethel, and do not enter into Gilgal or cross over to Beer-sheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nothing.

Amo 5:6 Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.

Amo 5:7 Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground!

Amo 5:8 The one who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns deep darkness into the morning, and darkens the day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, the LORD is his name,

Amo 5:9 who makes destruction flash out against the strong, so that destruction comes upon the fortress.

Amo 5:10 They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.

Amo 5:11 Therefore because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.

Amo 5:12 For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins-- you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate.

Amo 5:13 Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time.

Amo 5:14 Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said.

Amo 5:15 Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Amo 5:16 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord: In all the squares there shall be wailing; and in all the streets they shall say, "Alas! alas!" They shall call the farmers to mourning, and those skilled in lamentation, to wailing;

Amo 5:17 in all the vineyards there shall be wailing, for I will pass through the midst of you, says the LORD.

Amo 5:18 Alas for you who desire the day of the LORD! Why do you want the day of the LORD? It is darkness, not light;

Amo 5:19 as if someone fled from a lion, and was met by a bear; or went into the house and rested a hand against the wall, and was bitten by a snake.

Amo 5:20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, not light, and gloom with no brightness in it?

Amo 5:21 I hate, I despise your festivals, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

Amo 5:22 Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals I will not look upon.

Amo 5:23 Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps.

Amo 5:24 But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Amo 5:25 Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings the forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

Amo 5:26 You shall take up Sakkuth your king, and Kaiwan your star-god, your images, which you made for yourselves;

Amo 5:27 therefore I will take you into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

Amo 6:1 Alas for those who are at ease in Zion, and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria, the notables of the first of the nations, to whom the house of Israel resorts!

Amo 6:2 Cross over to Calneh, and see; from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Or is your territory greater than their territory,

Amo 6:3 O you that put far away the evil day, and bring near a reign of violence?

Amo 6:4 Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory, and lounge on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the stall;

Amo 6:5 who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp, and like David improvise on instruments of music;

Amo 6:6 who drink wine from bowls, and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!

Amo 6:7 Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile, and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

Amo 6:8 The Lord GOD has sworn by himself (says the LORD, the God of hosts): I abhor the pride of Jacob and hate his strongholds; and I will deliver up the city and all that is in it.

Amo 6:9 If ten people remain in one house, they shall die.

Amo 6:10 And if a relative, one who burns the dead, shall take up the body to bring it out of the house, and shall say to someone in the innermost parts of the house, "Is anyone else with you?" the answer will come, "No."

Then the relative shall say, "Hush! We must not mention the name of the LORD."

Amo 6:11 See, the LORD commands, and the great house shall be shattered to bits, and the little house to pieces.

Amo 6:12 Do horses run on rocks? Does one plow the sea with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood--

Amo 6:13 you who rejoice in Lo-debar, who say, "Have we not by our own strength taken Karnaim for ourselves?"

Amo 6:14 Indeed, I am raising up against you a nation, O house of Israel, says the LORD, the God of hosts, and they shall oppress you from Lebo-hamath to the Wadi Arabah.

Amo 7:1 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: he was forming locusts at the time the latter growth began to sprout (it was the latter growth after the king's mowings).

Amo 7:2 When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said, "O Lord GOD, forgive, I beg you! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!"

Amo 7:3 The LORD relented concerning this; "It shall not be," said the LORD.

Amo 7:4 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: the Lord GOD was calling for a shower of fire, and it devoured the great deep and was eating up the land.

Amo 7:5 Then I said, "O Lord GOD, cease, I beg you! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!"

Amo 7:6 The LORD relented concerning this; "This also shall not be," said the Lord GOD.

Amo 7:7 This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand.

Amo 7:8 And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "See, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by;

Amo 7:9 the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

Amo 7:10 Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the very center of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words.

Amo 7:11 For thus Amos has said, 'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.'

Amo 7:12 And Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there;

Amo 7:13 but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom."

Amo 7:14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees,

Amo 7:15 and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'

Amo 7:16 "Now therefore hear the word of the LORD. You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

Amo 7:17 Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be parceled out by line; you yourself shall die in an unclean land, and Israel shall surely go into exile away from its land."

Amo 8:1 This is what the Lord GOD showed me-- a basket of summer fruit.

Amo 8:2 He said, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me, "The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass them by.

Amo 8:3 The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day," says the Lord GOD; "the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!"

Amo 8:4 Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land,

Amo 8:5 saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practice deceit with false balances, Amo 8:6 buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat."

Amo 8:7 The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

Amo 8:8 Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt?

Amo 8:9 On that day, says the Lord GOD, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amo 8:10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

Amo 8:11 The time is surely coming, says the Lord GOD, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

Amo 8:12 They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the LORD, but they shall not find it.

Amo 8:13 In that day the beautiful young women and the young men shall faint for thirst.

Amo 8:14 Those who swear by Ashimah of Samaria, and say, "As your god lives, O Dan," and, "As the way of Beer-sheba lives"-- they shall fall, and never rise again.

Amo 9:1 I saw the LORD standing beside the altar, and he said: Strike the capitals until the thresholds shake, and shatter them on the heads of all the people; and those who are left I will kill with the sword; not one of them shall flee away, not one of them shall escape.

Amo 9:2 Though they dig into Sheol, from there shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down.

Amo 9:3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, from there I will search out and take them; and though they hide from my sight at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the sea-serpent, and it shall bite them.

Amo 9:4 And though they go into captivity in front of their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it shall kill them; and I will fix my eyes on them for harm and not for good.

Amo 9:5 The Lord, GOD of hosts, he who touches the earth and it melts, and all who live in it mourn, and all of it rises like the Nile, and sinks again, like the Nile of Egypt;

Amo 9:6 who builds his upper chambers in the heavens, and founds his vault upon the earth; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the surface of the earth-- the LORD is his name.

Amo 9:7 Are you not like the Ethiopians to me, O people of Israel? says the LORD. Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir?

Amo 9:8 The eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth-- except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, says the LORD.

Amo 9:9 For lo, I will command, and shake the house of Israel among all the nations as one shakes with a sieve, but no pebble shall fall to the ground.

Amo 9:10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, "Evil shall not overtake or meet us."

Amo 9:11 On that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen, and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old;

Amo 9:12 in order that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name, says the LORD who does this.

Amo 9:13 The time is surely coming, says the LORD, when the one who plows shall overtake the one who reaps, and the treader of grapes the one who sows the seed; the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and all the hills shall flow with it.

Amo 9:14 I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit.

Amo 9:15 I will plant them upon their land, and they shall never again be plucked up out of the land that I have given them, says the LORD your God.

Oba 1:1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom: We have heard a report from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: "Rise up! Let us rise against it for battle!"

Oba 1:2 I will surely make you least among the nations; you shall be utterly despised.

Oba 1:3 Your proud heart has deceived you, you that live in the clefts of the rock, whose dwelling is in the heights. You say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?"

Oba 1:4 Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, from there I will bring you down, says the LORD.

Oba 1:5 If thieves came to you, if plunderers by night-- how you have been destroyed!-- would they not steal only what they wanted? If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

Oba 1:6 How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures searched out!

Oba 1:7 All your allies have deceived you, they have driven you to the border; your confederates have prevailed against you; those who ate your bread have set a trap for you-- there is no understanding of it.

Oba 1:8 On that day, says the LORD, I will destroy the wise out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau.

Oba 1:9 Your warriors shall be shattered, O Teman, so that everyone from Mount Esau will be cut off.

Oba 1:10 For the slaughter and violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off forever.

Oba 1:11 On the day that you stood aside, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you too were like one of them.

Oba 1:12 But you should not have gloated over your brother on the day of his misfortune; you should not have rejoiced over the people of Judah on the day of their ruin; you should not have boasted on the day of distress.

Oba 1:13 You should not have entered the gate of my people on the day of their calamity; you should not have joined in the gloating over Judah's disaster on the day of his calamity; you should not have looted his goods on the day of his calamity.

Oba 1:14 You should not have stood at the crossings to cut off his fugitives; you should not have handed over his survivors on the day of distress.

Oba 1:15 For the day of the LORD is near against all the nations. As you have done, it shall be done to you; your deeds shall return on your own head.

Oba 1:16 For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, all the nations around you shall drink; they shall drink and gulp down, and shall be as though they had never been.

Oba 1:17 But on Mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall take possession of those who dispossessed them.

Oba 1:18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor of the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken.

Oba 1:19 Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

Oba 1:20 The exiles of the Israelites who are in Halah shall possess Phoenicia as far as Zarephath; and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the towns of the Negeb.

Oba 1:21 Those who have been saved shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

Jon 1:1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying,

Jon 1:2 "Go at once to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before me."

Jon 1:3 But Jonah set out to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid his fare and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

Jon 1:4 But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and such a mighty storm came upon the sea that the ship threatened to break up.

Jon 1:5 Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. Jonah, meanwhile, had gone down into the hold of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep.

Jon 1:6 The captain came and said to him, "What are you doing sound asleep? Get up, call on your god! Perhaps the god will spare us a thought so that we do not perish."

Jon 1:7 The sailors said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this calamity has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

Jon 1:8 Then they said to him, "Tell us why this calamity has come upon us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"

Jon 1:9 "I am a Hebrew," he replied. "I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."

Jon 1:10 Then the men were even more afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them so.

Jon 1:11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea was growing more and more tempestuous.

Jon 1:12 He said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great storm has come upon you."

Jon 1:13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them.

Jon 1:14 Then they cried out to the LORD, "Please, O LORD, we pray, do not let us perish on account of this man's life. Do not make us guilty of innocent blood; for you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you."

Jon 1:15 So they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging.

Jon 1:16 Then the men feared the LORD even more, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

Jon 1:17 But the LORD provided a large fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Jon 2:1 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, Jon 2:2 saying, "I called to the LORD out of my distress, and he answered me; out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and you heard my voice.

Jon 2:3 You cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the flood surrounded me; all your waves and your billows passed over me.

Jon 2:4 Then I said, 'I am driven away from your sight; how shall I look again upon your holy temple?'

Jon 2:5 The waters closed in over me; the deep surrounded me; weeds were wrapped around my head

Jon 2:6 at the roots of the mountains. I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me forever; yet you brought up my life from the Pit, O LORD my God.

Jon 2:7 As my life was ebbing away, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came to you, into your holy temple.

Jon 2:8 Those who worship vain idols forsake their true loyalty.

Jon 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Deliverance belongs to the LORD!"

Jon 2:10 Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it spewed Jonah out upon the dry land.

Jon 3:1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying,

Jon 3:2 "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you."

Jon 3:3 So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across.

Jon 3:4 Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"

Jon 3:5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

Jon 3:6 When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

Jon 3:7 Then he had a proclamation made in Nineveh: "By the decree of the king and his nobles: No human being or animal, no herd or flock, shall taste anything. They shall not feed, nor shall they drink water.

Jon 3:8 Human beings and animals shall be covered with sackcloth, and they shall cry mightily to God. All shall turn from their evil ways and from the violence that is in their hands.

Jon 3:9 Who knows? God may relent and change his mind; he may turn from his fierce anger, so that we do not perish."

Jon 3:10 When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Jon 4:1 But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry.

Jon 4:2 He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing.

Jon 4:3 And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

Jon 4:4 And the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

Jon 4:5 Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city.

Jon 4:6 The LORD God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush.

Jon 4:7 But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered.

Jon 4:8 When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

Jon 4:9 But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?" And he said, "Yes, angry enough to die."

Jon 4:10 Then the LORD said, "You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night."

Jon 4:11 And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?"

Mic 1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Kings Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Mic 1:2 Hear, you peoples, all of you; listen, O earth, and all that is in it; and let the Lord GOD be a witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

Mic 1:3 For lo, the LORD is coming out of his place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.

Mic 1:4 Then the mountains will melt under him and the valleys will burst open, like wax near the fire, like waters poured down a steep place.

Mic 1:5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what is the high place of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

Mic 1:6 Therefore I will make Samaria a heap in the open country, a place for planting vineyards. I will pour down her stones into the valley, and uncover her foundations.

Mic 1:7 All her images shall be beaten to pieces, all her wages shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay waste; for as the wages of a prostitute she gathered them, and as the wages of a prostitute they shall again be used.

Mic 1:8 For this I will lament and wail; I will go barefoot and naked; I will make lamentation like the jackals, and mourning like the ostriches.

Mic 1:9 For her wound is incurable. It has come to Judah; it has reached to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

Mic 1:10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all; in Beth-leaphrah roll yourselves in the dust.

Mic 1:11 Pass on your way, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame; the inhabitants of Zaanan do not come forth; Beth-ezel is wailing and shall remove its support from you.

Mic 1:12 For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, yet disaster has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

Mic 1:13 Harness the steeds to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish; it was the beginning of sin to daughter Zion, for in you were found the transgressions of Israel.

Mic 1:14 Therefore you shall give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath; the houses of Achzib shall be a deception to the kings of Israel.

Mic 1:15 I will again bring a conqueror upon you, inhabitants of Mareshah; the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

Mic 1:16 Make yourselves bald and cut off your hair for your pampered children; make yourselves as bald as the eagle, for they have gone from you into exile.

Mic 2:1 Alas for those who devise wickedness and evil deeds on their beds! When the morning dawns, they perform it, because it is in their power.

Mic 2:2 They covet fields, and seize them; houses, and take them away; they oppress householder and house, people and their inheritance.

Mic 2:3 Therefore thus says the LORD: Now, I am devising against this family an evil from which you cannot remove your necks; and you shall not walk haughtily, for it will be an evil time.

Mic 2:4 On that day they shall take up a taunt song against you, and wail with bitter lamentation, and say, "We are utterly ruined; the LORD alters the inheritance of my people; how he removes it from me! Among our captors he parcels out our fields."

Mic 2:5 Therefore you will have no one to cast the line by lot in the assembly of the LORD.

Mic 2:6 "Do not preach"-- thus they preach-- "one should not preach of such things; disgrace will not overtake us."

Mic 2:7 Should this be said, O house of Jacob? Is the LORD's patience exhausted? Are these his doings? Do not my words do good to one who walks uprightly?

Mic 2:8 But you rise up against my people as an enemy; you strip the robe from the peaceful, from those who pass by trustingly with no thought of war.

Mic 2:9 The women of my people you drive out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my glory forever.

Mic 2:10 Arise and go; for this is no place to rest, because of uncleanness that destroys with a grievous destruction.

Mic 2:11 If someone were to go about uttering empty falsehoods, saying, "I will preach to you of wine and strong drink," such a one would be the preacher for this people!

Mic 2:12 I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob, I will gather the survivors of Israel; I will set them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in its pasture; it will resound with people.

Mic 2:13 The one who breaks out will go up before them; they will break through and pass the gate, going out by it. Their king will pass on before them, the LORD at their head.

Mic 3:1 And I said: Listen, you heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel! Should you not know justice?--

Mic 3:2 you who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin off my people, and the flesh off their bones;

Mic 3:3 who eat the flesh of my people, flay their skin off them, break their bones in pieces, and chop them up like meat in a kettle, like flesh in a caldron.

Mic 3:4 Then they will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer them; he will hide his face from them at that time, because they have acted wickedly.

Mic 3:5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray, who cry "Peace" when they have something to eat, but declare war against those who put nothing into their mouths.

Mic 3:6 Therefore it shall be night to you, without vision, and darkness to you, without revelation. The sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them;

Mic 3:7 the seers shall be disgraced, and the diviners put to shame; they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God.

Mic 3:8 But as for me, I am filled with power, with the spirit of the LORD, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.

Mic 3:9 Hear this, you rulers of the house of Jacob and chiefs of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert all equity, Mic 3:10 who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with wrong!

Mic 3:11 Its rulers give judgment for a bribe, its priests teach for a price, its prophets give oracles for money; yet they lean upon the LORD and say, "Surely the LORD is with us! No harm shall come upon us."

Mic 3:12 Therefore because of you Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

Mic 4:1 In days to come the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills. Peoples shall stream to it,

Mic 4:2 and many nations shall come and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Mic 4:3 He shall judge between many peoples, and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away; they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more;

Mic 4:4 but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig trees, and no one shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

Mic 4:5 For all the peoples walk, each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.

Mic 4:6 In that day, says the LORD, I will assemble the lame and gather those who have been driven away, and those whom I have afflicted.

Mic 4:7 The lame I will make the remnant, and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion now and forevermore.

Mic 4:8 And you, O tower of the flock, hill of daughter Zion, to you it shall come, the former dominion shall come, the sovereignty of daughter Jerusalem.

Mic 4:9 Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pangs have seized you like a woman in labor?

Mic 4:10 Writhe and groan, O daughter Zion, like a woman in labor; for now you shall go forth from the city and camp in the open country; you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be rescued, there the LORD will redeem you from the hands of your enemies.

Mic 4:11 Now many nations are assembled against you, saying, "Let her be profaned, and let our eyes gaze upon Zion."

Mic 4:12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD; they do not understand his plan, that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor.

Mic 4:13 Arise and thresh, O daughter Zion, for I will make your horn iron and your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples, and shall devote their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Mic 5:1 Now you are walled around with a wall; siege is laid against us; with a rod they strike the ruler of Israel upon the cheek.

Mic 5:2 But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

Mic 5:3 Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

Mic 5:4 And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth;

Mic 5:5 and he shall be the one of peace. If the Assyrians come into our land and tread upon our soil, we will raise against them seven shepherds and eight installed as rulers.

Mic 5:6 They shall rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword; they shall rescue us from the Assyrians if they come into our land or tread within our border.

Mic 5:7 Then the remnant of Jacob, surrounded by many peoples, shall be like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass, which do not depend upon people or wait for any mortal.

Mic 5:8 And among the nations the remnant of Jacob, surrounded by many peoples, shall be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, with no one to deliver.

Mic 5:9 Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.

Mic 5:10 In that day, says the LORD, I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots;

Mic 5:11 and I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds;

Mic 5:12 and I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you shall have no more soothsayers;

Mic 5:13 and I will cut off your images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands;

Mic 5:14 and I will uproot your sacred poles from among you and destroy your towns.

Mic 5:15 And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance on the nations that did not obey.

Mic 6:1 Hear what the LORD says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

Mic 6:2 Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.

Mic 6:3 "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

Mic 6:4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

Mic 6:5 O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD."

Mic 6:6 "With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Mic 6:7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

Mic 6:8 He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Mic 6:9 The voice of the LORD cries to the city (it is sound wisdom to fear your name): Hear, O tribe and assembly of the city!

Mic 6:10 Can I forget the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accused?

Mic 6:11 Can I tolerate wicked scales and a bag of dishonest weights?

Mic 6:12 Your wealthy are full of violence; your inhabitants speak lies, with tongues of deceit in their mouths.

Mic 6:13 Therefore I have begun to strike you down, making you desolate because of your sins.

Mic 6:14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied, and there shall be a gnawing hunger within you; you shall put away, but not save, and what you save, I will hand over to the sword.

Mic 6:15 You shall sow, but not reap; you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil; you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.

Mic 6:16 For you have kept the statutes of Omri and all the works of the house of Ahab, and you have followed their counsels. Therefore I will make you a desolation, and your inhabitants an object of hissing; so you shall bear the scorn of my people.

Mic 7:1 Woe is me! For I have become like one who, after the summer fruit has been gathered, after the vintage has been gleaned, finds no cluster to eat; there is no first-ripe fig for which I hunger.

Mic 7:2 The faithful have disappeared from the land, and there is no one left who is upright; they all lie in wait for blood, and they hunt each other with nets.

Mic 7:3 Their hands are skilled to do evil; the official and the judge ask for a bribe, and the powerful dictate what they desire; thus they pervert justice.

Mic 7:4 The best of them is like a brier, the most upright of them a thorn hedge. The day of their sentinels, of their punishment, has come; now their confusion is at hand.

Mic 7:5 Put no trust in a friend, have no confidence in a loved one; guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your embrace;

Mic 7:6 for the son treats the father with contempt, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; your enemies are members of your own household.

Mic 7:7 But as for me, I will look to the LORD, I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

Mic 7:8 Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.

Mic 7:9 I must bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he takes my side and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light; I shall see his vindication.

Mic 7:10 Then my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who said to me, "Where is the LORD your God?" My eyes will see her downfall; now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

Mic 7:11 A day for the building of your walls! In that day the boundary shall be far extended.

Mic 7:12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria to Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

Mic 7:13 But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their doings.

Mic 7:14 Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock that belongs to you, which lives alone in a forest in the midst of a garden land; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.

Mic 7:15 As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt, show us marvelous things.

Mic 7:16 The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall lay their hands on their mouths; their ears shall be deaf;

Mic 7:17 they shall lick dust like a snake, like the crawling things of the earth; they shall come trembling out of their fortresses; they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God, and they shall stand in fear of you.

Mic 7:18 Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of your possession? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in showing clemency.

Mic 7:19 He will again have compassion upon us; he will tread our iniquities under foot. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Mic 7:20 You will show faithfulness to Jacob and unswerving loyalty to Abraham, as you have sworn to our ancestors from the days of old.

Nah 1:1 An oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh.

Nah 1:2 A jealous and avenging God is the LORD, the LORD is avenging and wrathful; the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries and rages against his enemies.

Nah 1:3 The LORD is slow to anger but great in power, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty. His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Nah 1:4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and he dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither, and the bloom of Lebanon fades.

Nah 1:5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt; the earth heaves before him, the world and all who live in it.

Nah 1:6 Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the heat of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and by him the rocks are broken in pieces.

Nah 1:7 The LORD is good, a stronghold in a day of trouble; he protects those who take refuge in him,

Nah 1:8 even in a rushing flood. He will make a full end of his adversaries, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

Nah 1:9 Why do you plot against the LORD? He will make an end; no adversary will rise up twice.

Nah 1:10 Like thorns they are entangled, like drunkards they are drunk; they are consumed like dry straw.

Nah 1:11 From you one has gone out who plots evil against the LORD, one who counsels wickedness.

Nah 1:12 Thus says the LORD, "Though they are at full strength and many, they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

Nah 1:13 And now I will break off his yoke from you and snap the bonds that bind you."

Nah 1:14 The LORD has commanded concerning you: "Your name shall be perpetuated no longer; from the house of your gods I will cut off the carved image and the cast image. I will make your grave, for you are worthless."

Nah 1:15 Look! On the mountains the feet of one who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace! Celebrate your festivals, O Judah, fulfill your vows, for never again shall the wicked invade you; they are utterly cut off.

Nah 2:1 A shatterer has come up against you. Guard the ramparts; watch the road; gird your loins; collect all your strength.

Nah 2:2 (For the LORD is restoring the majesty of Jacob, as well as the majesty of Israel, though ravagers have ravaged them and ruined their branches.)

Nah 2:3 The shields of his warriors are red; his soldiers are clothed in crimson. The metal on the chariots flashes on the day when he musters them; the chargers prance.

Nah 2:4 The chariots race madly through the streets, they rush to and fro through the squares; their appearance is like torches, they dart like lightning.

Nah 2:5 He calls his officers; they stumble as they come forward; they hasten to the wall, and the mantelet is set up.

Nah 2:6 The river gates are opened, the palace trembles.

Nah 2:7 It is decreed that the city be exiled, its slave women led away, moaning like doves and beating their breasts.

Nah 2:8 Nineveh is like a pool whose waters run away. "Halt! Halt!"-- but no one turns back.

Nah 2:9 "Plunder the silver, plunder the gold! There is no end of treasure! An abundance of every precious thing!"

Nah 2:10 Devastation, desolation, and destruction! Hearts faint and knees tremble, all loins quake, all faces grow pale!

Nah 2:11 What became of the lions' den, the cave of the young lions, where the lion goes, and the lion's cubs, with no one to disturb them?

Nah 2:12 The lion has torn enough for his whelps and strangled prey for his lionesses; he has filled his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

Nah 2:13 See, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall be heard no more.

Nah 3:1 Ah! City of bloodshed, utterly deceitful, full of booty-- no end to the plunder!

Nah 3:2 The crack of whip and rumble of wheel, galloping horse and bounding chariot!

Nah 3:3 Horsemen charging, flashing sword and glittering spear, piles of dead, heaps of corpses, dead bodies without end-- they stumble over the bodies!

Nah 3:4 Because of the countless debaucheries of the prostitute, gracefully alluring, mistress of sorcery, who enslaves nations through her debaucheries, and peoples through her sorcery,

Nah 3:5 I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face; and I will let nations look on your nakedness and kingdoms on your shame.

Nah 3:6 I will throw filth at you and treat you with contempt, and make you a spectacle.

Nah 3:7 Then all who see you will shrink from you and say, "Nineveh is devastated; who will bemoan her?" Where shall I seek comforters for you?

Nah 3:8 Are you better than Thebes that sat by the Nile, with water around her, her rampart a sea, water her wall?

Nah 3:9 Ethiopia was her strength, Egypt too, and that without limit; Put and the Libyans were her helpers.

Nah 3:10 Yet she became an exile, she went into captivity; even her infants were dashed in pieces at the head of every street; lots were cast for her nobles, all her dignitaries were bound in fetters.

Nah 3:11 You also will be drunken, you will go into hiding; you will seek a refuge from the enemy.

Nah 3:12 All your fortresses are like fig trees with first-ripe figs-- if shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nah 3:13 Look at your troops: they are women in your midst. The gates of your land are wide open to your foes; fire has devoured the bars of your gates.

Nah 3:14 Draw water for the siege, strengthen your forts; trample the clay, tread the mortar, take hold of the brick mold!

Nah 3:15 There the fire will devour you, the sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the locust. Multiply yourselves like the locust, multiply like the grasshopper!

Nah 3:16 You increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens. The locust sheds its skin and flies away.

Nah 3:17 Your guards are like grasshoppers, your scribes like swarms of locusts settling on the fences on a cold day-- when the sun rises, they fly away; no one knows where they have gone.

Nah 3:18 Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria; your nobles slumber. Your people are scattered on the mountains with no one to gather them.

Nah 3:19 There is no assuaging your hurt, your wound is mortal. All who hear the news about you clap their hands over you. For who has ever escaped your endless cruelty?

Hab 1:1 The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

Hab 1:2 O LORD, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you "Violence!" and you will not save?

Hab 1:3 Why do you make me see wrongdoing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise.

Hab 1:4 So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous-- therefore judgment comes forth perverted.

Hab 1:5 Look at the nations, and see! Be astonished! Be astounded! For a work is being done in your days that you would not believe if you were told.

Hab 1:6 For I am rousing the Chaldeans, that fierce and impetuous nation, who march through the breadth of the earth to seize dwellings not their own.

Hab 1:7 Dread and fearsome are they; their justice and dignity proceed from themselves.

Hab 1:8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, more menacing than wolves at dusk; their horses charge. Their horsemen come from far away; they fly like an eagle swift to devour.

Hab 1:9 They all come for violence, with faces pressing forward; they gather captives like sand.

Hab 1:10 At kings they scoff, and of rulers they make sport. They laugh at every fortress, and heap up earth to take it.

Hab 1:11 Then they sweep by like the wind; they transgress and become guilty; their own might is their god!

Hab 1:12 Are you not from of old, O LORD my God, my Holy One? You shall not die. O LORD, you have marked them for judgment; and you, O Rock, have established them for punishment.

Hab 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to behold evil, and you cannot look on wrongdoing; why do you look on the treacherous, and are silent when the wicked swallow those more righteous than they?

Hab 1:14 You have made people like the fish of the sea, like crawling things that have no ruler.

Hab 1:15 The enemy brings all of them up with a hook; he drags them out with his net, he gathers them in his seine; so he rejoices and exults.

Hab 1:16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net and makes offerings to his seine; for by them his portion is lavish, and his food is rich.

Hab 1:17 Is he then to keep on emptying his net, and destroying nations without mercy?

Hab 2:1 I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint.

Hab 2:2 Then the LORD answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it.

Hab 2:3 For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.

Hab 2:4 Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

Hab 2:5 Moreover, wealth is treacherous; the arrogant do not endure. They open their throats wide as Sheol; like Death they never have enough. They gather all nations for themselves, and collect all peoples as their own.

Hab 2:6 Shall not everyone taunt such people and, with mocking riddles, say about them, "Alas for you who heap up what is not your own!" How long will you load yourselves with goods taken in pledge?

Hab 2:7 Will not your own creditors suddenly rise, and those who make you tremble wake up? Then you will be booty for them.

Hab 2:8 Because you have plundered many nations, all that survive of the peoples shall plunder you-- because of human bloodshed, and violence to the earth, to cities and all who live in them.

Hab 2:9 "Alas for you who get evil gain for your houses, setting your nest on high to be safe from the reach of harm!"

Hab 2:10 You have devised shame for your house by cutting off many peoples; you have forfeited your life.

Hab 2:11 The very stones will cry out from the wall, and the plaster will respond from the woodwork.

Hab 2:12 "Alas for you who build a town by bloodshed, and found a city on iniquity!"

Hab 2:13 Is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labor only to feed the flames, and nations weary themselves for nothing?

Hab 2:14 But the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

Hab 2:15 "Alas for you who make your neighbors drink, pouring out your wrath until they are drunk, in order to gaze on their nakedness!"

Hab 2:16 You will be sated with contempt instead of glory. Drink, you yourself, and stagger! The cup in the LORD's right hand will come around to you, and shame will come upon your glory!

Hab 2:17 For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you; the destruction of the animals will terrify you-- because of human bloodshed and violence to the earth, to cities and all who live in them.

Hab 2:18 What use is an idol once its maker has shaped it-- a cast image, a teacher of lies? For its maker trusts in what has been made, though the product is only an idol that cannot speak!

Hab 2:19 Alas for you who say to the wood, "Wake up!" to silent stone, "Rouse yourself!" Can it teach? See, it is gold and silver plated, and there is no breath in it at all.

Hab 2:20 But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him!

Hab 3:1 A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk according to Shigionoth.

Hab 3:2 O LORD, I have heard of your renown, and I stand in awe, O LORD, of your work. In our own time revive it; in our own time make it known; in wrath may you remember mercy.

Hab 3:3 God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

Hab 3:4 The brightness was like the sun; rays came forth from his hand, where his power lay hidden.

Hab 3:5 Before him went pestilence, and plague followed close behind.

Hab 3:6 He stopped and shook the earth; he looked and made the nations tremble. The eternal mountains were shattered; along his ancient pathways the everlasting hills sank low.

Hab 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan under affliction; the tent-curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

Hab 3:8 Was your wrath against the rivers, O LORD? Or your anger against the rivers, or your rage against the sea, when you drove your horses, your chariots to victory?

Hab 3:9 You brandished your naked bow, sated were the arrows at your command. Selah You split the earth with rivers.

Hab 3:10 The mountains saw you, and writhed; a torrent of water swept by; the deep gave forth its voice. The sun raised high its hands;

Hab 3:11 the moon stood still in its exalted place, at the light of your arrows speeding by, at the gleam of your flashing spear.

Hab 3:12 In fury you trod the earth, in anger you trampled nations.

Hab 3:13 You came forth to save your people, to save your anointed. You crushed the head of the wicked house, laying it bare from foundation to roof. Selah

Hab 3:14 You pierced with their own arrows the head of his warriors, who came like a whirlwind to scatter us, gloating as if ready to devour the poor who were in hiding.

Hab 3:15 You trampled the sea with your horses, churning the mighty waters.

Hab 3:16 I hear, and I tremble within; my lips quiver at the sound. Rottenness enters into my bones, and my steps tremble beneath me. I wait quietly for the day of calamity to come upon the people who attack us.

Hab 3:17 Though the fig tree does not blossom, and no fruit is on the vines; though the produce of the olive fails, and the fields yield no food; though the flock is cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls,

Hab 3:18 yet I will rejoice in the LORD; I will exult in the God of my salvation.

Hab 3:19 GOD, the Lord, is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, and makes me tread upon the heights. To the leader: with stringed instruments.

Zep 1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi son of Gedaliah son of Amariah son of Hezekiah, in the days of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah.

Zep 1:2 I will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the earth, says the LORD.

Zep 1:3 I will sweep away humans and animals; I will sweep away the birds of the air and the fish of the sea. I will make the wicked stumble. I will cut off humanity from the face of the earth, says the LORD.

Zep 1:4 I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal and the name of the idolatrous priests;

Zep 1:5 those who bow down on the roofs to the host of the heavens; those who bow down and swear to the LORD, but also swear by Milcom;

Zep 1:6 those who have turned back from following the LORD, who have not sought the LORD or inquired of him.

Zep 1:7 Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests.

Zep 1:8 And on the day of the LORD's sacrifice I will punish the officials and the king's sons and all who dress themselves in foreign attire.

Zep 1:9 On that day I will punish all who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and fraud.

Zep 1:10 On that day, says the LORD, a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, a wail from the Second Quarter, a loud crash from the hills.

Zep 1:11 The inhabitants of the Mortar wail, for all the traders have perished; all who weigh out silver are cut off.

Zep 1:12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts, "The LORD will not do good, nor will he do harm."

Zep 1:13 Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them.

Zep 1:14 The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there.

Zep 1:15 That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

Zep 1:16 a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements.

Zep 1:17 I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the LORD, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.

Zep 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath; in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Zep 2:1 Gather together, gather, O shameless nation,

Zep 2:2 before you are driven away like the drifting chaff, before there comes upon you the fierce anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the LORD's wrath.

Zep 2:3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his commands; seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the LORD's wrath.

Zep 2:4 For Gaza shall be deserted, and Ashkelon shall become a desolation; Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted.

Zep 2:5 Ah, inhabitants of the seacoast, you nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines; and I will destroy you until no inhabitant is left.

Zep 2:6 And you, O seacoast, shall be pastures, meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

Zep 2:7 The seacoast shall become the possession of the remnant of the house of Judah, on which they shall pasture, and in the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening. For the LORD their God will be mindful of them and restore their fortunes.

Zep 2:8 I have heard the taunts of Moab and the revilings of the Ammonites, how they have taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.

Zep 2:9 Therefore, as I live, says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Moab shall become like Sodom and the Ammonites like Gomorrah, a land possessed by nettles and salt pits, and a waste forever. The remnant of my people shall plunder them, and the survivors of my nation shall possess them.

Zep 2:10 This shall be their lot in return for their pride, because they scoffed and boasted against the people of the LORD of hosts.

Zep 2:11 The LORD will be terrible against them; he will shrivel all the gods of the earth, and to him shall bow down, each in its place, all the coasts and islands of the nations.

Zep 2:12 You also, O Ethiopians, shall be killed by my sword.

Zep 2:13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and he will make Nineveh a desolation, a dry waste like the desert.

Zep 2:14 Herds shall lie down in it, every wild animal; the desert owl and the screech owl shall lodge on its capitals; the owl shall hoot at the window, the raven croak on the threshold; for its cedar work will be laid bare.

Zep 2:15 Is this the exultant city that lived secure, that said to itself, "I am, and there is no one else"? What a desolation it has become, a lair for wild animals! Everyone who passes by it hisses and shakes the fist.

Zep 3:1 Ah, soiled, defiled, oppressing city!

Zep 3:2 It has listened to no voice; it has accepted no correction. It has not trusted in the LORD; it has not drawn near to its God.

Zep 3:3 The officials within it are roaring lions; its judges are evening wolves that leave nothing until the morning.

Zep 3:4 Its prophets are reckless, faithless persons; its priests have profaned what is sacred, they have done violence to the law.

Zep 3:5 The LORD within it is righteous; he does no wrong. Every morning he renders his judgment, each dawn without fail; but the unjust knows no shame.

Zep 3:6 I have cut off nations; their battlements are in ruins; I have laid waste their streets so that no one walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without people, without inhabitants.

Zep 3:7 I said, "Surely the city will fear me, it will accept correction; it will not lose sight of all that I have brought upon it." But they were the more eager to make all their deeds corrupt.

Zep 3:8 Therefore wait for me, says the LORD, for the day when I arise as a witness. For my decision is to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms, to pour out upon them my indignation, all the heat of my anger; for in the fire of my passion all the earth shall be consumed.

Zep 3:9 At that time I will change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve him with one accord.

Zep 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, my scattered ones, shall bring my offering.

Zep 3:11 On that day you shall not be put to shame because of all the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain.

Zep 3:12 For I will leave in the midst of you a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the LORD--

Zep 3:13 the remnant of Israel; they shall do no wrong and utter no lies, nor shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths. Then they will pasture and lie down, and no one shall make them afraid.

Zep 3:14 Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem!

Zep 3:15 The LORD has taken away the judgments against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more.

Zep 3:16 On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak.

Zep 3:17 The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing

Zep 3:18 as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.

Zep 3:19 I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

Zep 3:20 At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Hag 1:1 In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

Hag 1:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts: These people say the time has not yet come to rebuild the LORD's house.

Hag 1:3 Then the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying:

Hag 1:4 Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?

Hag 1:5 Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared.

Hag 1:6 You have sown much, and harvested little; you eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and you that earn wages earn wages to put them into a bag with holes.

Hag 1:7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared.

Hag 1:8 Go up to the hills and bring wood and build the house, so that I may take pleasure in it and be honored, says the LORD.

Hag 1:9 You have looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because my house lies in ruins, while all of you hurry off to your own houses.

Hag 1:10 Therefore the heavens above you have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its produce.

Hag 1:11 And I have called for a drought on the land and the hills, on the grain, the new wine, the oil, on what the soil produces, on human beings and animals, and on all their labors.

Hag 1:12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of the prophet Haggai, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared the LORD.

Hag 1:13 Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke to the people with the LORD's message, saying, I am with you, says the LORD.

Hag 1:14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

Hag 1:15 on the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month.

Hag 2:1 In the second year of King Darius, in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying:

Hag 2:2 Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, and say,

Hag 2:3 Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing?

Hag 2:4 Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the LORD; work, for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts, Hag 2:5 according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit abides among you; do not fear.

Hag 2:6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land;

Hag 2:7 and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasure of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with splendor, says the LORD of hosts.

Hag 2:8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of hosts.

Hag 2:9 The latter splendor of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the LORD of hosts.

Hag 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying:

Hag 2:11 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask the priests for a ruling:

Hag 2:12 If one carries consecrated meat in the fold of one's garment, and with the fold touches bread, or stew, or wine, or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy? The priests answered, "No."

Hag 2:13 Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered, "Yes, it becomes unclean."

Hag 2:14 Haggai then said, So is it with this people, and with this nation before me, says the LORD; and so with every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

Hag 2:15 But now, consider what will come to pass from this day on. Before a stone was placed upon a stone in the LORD's temple,

Hag 2:16 how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty.

Hag 2:17 I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight and mildew and hail; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Hag 2:18 Consider from this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider:

Hag 2:19 Is there any seed left in the barn? Do the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still yield nothing? From this day on I will bless you.

Hag 2:20 The word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month:

Hag 2:21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth,

Hag 2:22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms; I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and overthrow the chariots and their riders; and the horses and their riders shall fall, every one by the sword of a comrade.

Hag 2:23 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel my servant, son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and make you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you, says the LORD of hosts.

Zec 1:1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, saying:

Zec 1:2 The LORD was very angry with your ancestors.

Zec 1:3 Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts.

Zec 1:4 Do not be like your ancestors, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, Return from your evil ways and from your evil deeds." But they did not hear or heed me, says the LORD.

Zec 1:5 Your ancestors, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

Zec 1:6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your ancestors? So they repented and said, "The LORD of hosts has dealt with us according to our ways and deeds, just as he planned to do."

Zec 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo; and Zechariah said,

Zec 1:8 In the night I saw a man riding on a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in the glen; and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

Zec 1:9 Then I said, "What are these, my lord?" The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they are."

Zec 1:10 So the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, "They are those whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth."

Zec 1:11 Then they spoke to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, "We have patrolled the earth, and lo, the whole earth remains at peace."

Zec 1:12 Then the angel of the LORD said, "O LORD of hosts, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which you have been angry these seventy years?"

Zec 1:13 Then the LORD replied with gracious and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

Zec 1:14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, Proclaim this message: Thus says the LORD of hosts; I am very jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion.

Zec 1:15 And I am extremely angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was only a little angry, they made the disaster worse.

Zec 1:16 Therefore, thus says the LORD, I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion; my house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and the measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.

Zec 1:17 Proclaim further: Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall again overflow with prosperity; the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.

Zec 1:18 And I looked up and saw four horns.

Zec 1:19 I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

Zec 1:20 Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths.

Zec 1:21 And I asked, "What are they coming to do?" He answered, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no head could be raised; but these have come to terrify them, to strike down the horns of the nations that lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter its people."

Zec 2:1 I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

Zec 2:2 Then I asked, "Where are you going?" He answered me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

Zec 2:3 Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and another angel came forward to meet him,

Zec 2:4 and said to him, "Run, say to that young man: Jerusalem shall be inhabited like villages without walls, because of the multitude of people and animals in it.

Zec 2:5 For I will be a wall of fire all around it, says the LORD, and I will be the glory within it."

Zec 2:6 Up, up! Flee from the land of the north, says the LORD; for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven, says the LORD.

Zec 2:7 Up! Escape to Zion, you that live with daughter Babylon.

Zec 2:8 For thus said the LORD of hosts (after his glory sent me) regarding the nations that plundered you: Truly, one who touches you touches the apple of my eye.

Zec 2:9 See now, I am going to raise my hand against them, and they shall become plunder for their own slaves. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

Zec 2:10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter Zion! For lo, I will come and dwell in your midst, says the LORD.

Zec 2:11 Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD on that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in your midst. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Zec 2:12 The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

Zec 2:13 Be silent, all people, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.

Zec 3:1 Then he showed me the high priest Joshua standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

Zec 3:2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, O Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is not this man a brand plucked from the fire?"

Zec 3:3 Now Joshua was dressed with filthy clothes as he stood before the angel.

Zec 3:4 The angel said to those who were standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes." And to him he said, "See, I have taken your guilt away from you, and I will clothe you with festal apparel."

Zec 3:5 And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with the apparel; and the angel of the LORD was standing by.

Zec 3:6 Then the angel of the LORD assured Joshua, saying

Zec 3:7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in my ways and keep my requirements, then you shall rule my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you the right of access among those who are standing here.

Zec 3:8 Now listen, Joshua, high priest, you and your colleagues who sit before you! For they are an omen of things to come: I am going to bring my servant the Branch.

Zec 3:9 For on the stone that I have set before Joshua, on a single stone with seven facets, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the guilt of this land in a single day.

Zec 3:10 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, you shall invite each other to come under your vine and fig tree."

Zec 4:1 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as one is wakened from sleep.

Zec 4:2 He said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it; there are seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it.

Zec 4:3 And by it there are two olive trees, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

Zec 4:4 I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

Zec 4:5 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

Zec 4:6 He said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

Zec 4:7 What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring out the top stone amid shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'"

Zec 4:8 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

Zec 4:9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Zec 4:10 For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. "These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range through the whole earth."

Zec 4:11 Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?"

Zec 4:12 And a second time I said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which pour out the oil through the two golden pipes?"

Zec 4:13 He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

Zec 4:14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Zec 5:1 Again I looked up and saw a flying scroll.

Zec 5:2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits."

Zec 5:3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to the writing on the other side.

Zec 5:4 I have sent it out, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of anyone who swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in that house and consume it, both timber and stones."

Zec 5:5 Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said to me, "Look up and see what this is that is coming out."

Zec 5:6 I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is a basket coming out." And he said, "This is their iniquity in all the land."

Zec 5:7 Then a leaden cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the basket!

Zec 5:8 And he said, "This is Wickedness." So he thrust her back into the basket, and pressed the leaden weight down on its mouth.

Zec 5:9 Then I looked up and saw two women coming forward. The wind was in their wings; they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and sky.

Zec 5:10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they taking the basket?"

Zec 5:11 He said to me, "To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it; and when this is prepared, they will set the basket down there on its base."

Zec 6:1 And again I looked up and saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains-- mountains of bronze.

Zec 6:2 The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot black horses,

Zec 6:3 the third chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled gray horses.

Zec 6:4 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

Zec 6:5 The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of heaven going out, after presenting themselves before the Lord of all the earth.

Zec 6:6 The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white ones go toward the west country, and the dappled ones go toward the south country."

Zec 6:7 When the steeds came out, they were impatient to get off and patrol the earth. And he said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth.

Zec 6:8 Then he cried out to me, "Lo, those who go toward the north country have set my spirit at rest in the north country."

Zec 6:9 The word of the LORD came to me:

Zec 6:10 Collect silver and gold from the exiles-- from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah-- who have arrived from Babylon; and go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah.

Zec 6:11 Take the silver and gold and make a crown, and set it on the head of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak;

Zec 6:12 say to him: Thus says the LORD of hosts: Here is a man whose name is Branch: for he shall branch out in his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD.

Zec 6:13 It is he that shall build the temple of the LORD; he shall bear royal honor, and shall sit upon his throne and rule. There shall be a priest by his throne, with peaceful understanding between the two of them.

Zec 6:14 And the crown shall be in the care of Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah son of Zephaniah, as a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

Zec 6:15 Those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. This will happen if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Zec 7:1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu.

Zec 7:2 Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech and their men, to entreat the favor of the LORD,

Zec 7:3 and to ask the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, "Should I mourn and practice abstinence in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?"

Zec 7:4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me:

Zec 7:5 Say to all the people of the land and the priests: When you fasted and lamented in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted?

Zec 7:6 And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink only for yourselves?

Zec 7:7 Were not these the words that the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, along with the towns around it, and when the Negeb and the Shephelah were inhabited?

Zec 7:8 The word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying:

Zec 7:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy to one another;

Zec 7:10 do not oppress the widow, the orphan, the alien, or the poor; and do not devise evil in your hearts against one another.

Zec 7:11 But they refused to listen, and turned a stubborn shoulder, and stopped their ears in order not to hear.

Zec 7:12 They made their hearts adamant in order not to hear the law and the words that the LORD of hosts had sent by his spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

Zec 7:13 Just as, when I called, they would not hear, so, when they called, I would not hear, says the LORD of hosts,

Zec 7:14 and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations that they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and a pleasant land was made desolate.

Zec 8:1 The word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying:

Zec 8:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.

Zec 8:3 Thus says the LORD: I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts shall be called the holy mountain.

Zec 8:4 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand because of their great age.

Zec 8:5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.

Zec 8:6 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Even though it seems impossible to the remnant of this people in these days, should it also seem impossible to me, says the LORD of hosts?

Zec 8:7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: I will save my people from the east country and from the west country;

Zec 8:8 and I will bring them to live in Jerusalem. They shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness.

Zec 8:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong-- you that have recently been hearing these words from the mouths of the prophets who were present when the foundation was laid for the rebuilding of the temple, the house of the LORD of hosts.

Zec 8:10 For before those days there were no wages for people or for animals, nor was there any safety from the foe for those who went out or came in, and I set them all against one other.

Zec 8:11 But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts.

Zec 8:12 For there shall be a sowing of peace; the vine shall yield its fruit, the ground shall give its produce, and the skies shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Zec 8:13 Just as you have been a cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you and you shall be a blessing. Do not be afraid, but let your hands be strong.

Zec 8:14 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Just as I purposed to bring disaster upon you, when your ancestors provoked me to wrath, and I did not relent, says the LORD of hosts, Zec 8:15 so again I have purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah; do not be afraid.

Zec 8:16 These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another, render in your gates judgments that are true and make for peace,

Zec 8:17 do not devise evil in your hearts against one another, and love no false oath; for all these are things that I hate, says the LORD.

Zec 8:18 The word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying:

Zec 8:19 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be seasons of joy and gladness, and cheerful festivals for the house of Judah: therefore love truth and peace.

Zec 8:20 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Peoples shall yet come, the inhabitants of many cities;

Zec 8:21 the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, "Come, let us go to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I myself am going."

Zec 8:22 Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

Zec 8:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men from nations of every language shall take hold of a Jew, grasping his garment and saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you."

Zec 9:1 An Oracle. The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus. For to the LORD belongs the capital of Aram, as do all the tribes of Israel;

Zec 9:2 Hamath also, which borders on it, Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

Zec 9:3 Tyre has built itself a rampart, and heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the dirt of the streets.

Zec 9:4 But now, the Lord will strip it of its possessions and hurl its wealth into the sea, and it shall be devoured by fire.

Zec 9:5 Ashkelon shall see it and be afraid; Gaza too, and shall writhe in anguish; Ekron also, because its hopes are withered. The king shall perish from Gaza; Ashkelon shall be uninhabited;

Zec 9:6 a mongrel people shall settle in Ashdod, and I will make an end of the pride of Philistia.

Zec 9:7 I will take away its blood from its mouth, and its abominations from between its teeth; it too shall be a remnant for our God; it shall be like a clan in Judah, and Ekron shall be like the Jebusites.

Zec 9:8 Then I will encamp at my house as a guard, so that no one shall march to and fro; no oppressor shall again overrun them, for now I have seen with my own eyes.

Zec 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zec 9:10 He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war-horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Zec 9:11 As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

Zec 9:12 Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Zec 9:13 For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will arouse your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword.

Zec 9:14 Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow go forth like lightning; the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet and march forth in the whirlwinds of the south.

Zec 9:15 The LORD of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour and tread down the slingers; they shall drink their blood like wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar.

Zec 9:16 On that day the LORD their God will save them for they are the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land.

Zec 9:17 For what goodness and beauty are his! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.

Zec 10:1 Ask rain from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, who gives showers of rain to you, the vegetation in the field to everyone.

Zec 10:2 For the teraphim utter nonsense, and the diviners see lies; the dreamers tell false dreams, and give empty consolation. Therefore the people wander like sheep; they suffer for lack of a shepherd.

Zec 10:3 My anger is hot against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; for the LORD of hosts cares for his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them like his proud war-horse.

Zec 10:4 Out of them shall come the cornerstone, out of them the tent peg, out of them the battle bow, out of them every commander.

Zec 10:5 Together they shall be like warriors in battle, trampling the foe in the mud of the streets; they shall fight, for the LORD is with them, and they shall put to shame the riders on horses.

Zec 10:6 I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them; for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

Zec 10:7 Then the people of Ephraim shall become like warriors, and their hearts shall be glad as with wine. Their children shall see it and rejoice, their hearts shall exult in the LORD.

Zec 10:8 I will signal for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as numerous as they were before.

Zec 10:9 Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and they shall rear their children and return.

Zec 10:10 I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria; I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon, until there is no room for them.

Zec 10:11 They shall pass through the sea of distress, and the waves of the sea shall be struck down, and all the depths of the Nile dried up. The pride of Assyria shall be laid low, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

Zec 10:12 I will make them strong in the LORD, and they shall walk in his name, says the LORD.

Zec 11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedars!

Zec 11:2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, for the glorious trees are ruined! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been felled!

Zec 11:3 Listen, the wail of the shepherds, for their glory is despoiled! Listen, the roar of the lions, for the thickets of the Jordan are destroyed!

Zec 11:4 Thus said the LORD my God: Be a shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter.

Zec 11:5 Those who buy them kill them and go unpunished; and those who sell them say, "Blessed be the LORD, for I have become rich"; and their own shepherds have no pity on them.

Zec 11:6 For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD. I will cause them, every one, to fall each into the hand of a neighbor, and each into the hand of the king; and they shall devastate the earth, and I will deliver no one from their hand.

Zec 11:7 So, on behalf of the sheep merchants, I became the shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter. I took two staves; one I named Favor, the other I named Unity, and I tended the sheep.

Zec 11:8 In one month I disposed of the three shepherds, for I had become impatient with them, and they also detested me.

Zec 11:9 So I said, "I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die; what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let those that are left devour the flesh of one another!"

Zec 11:10 I took my staff Favor and broke it, annulling the covenant that I had made with all the peoples.

Zec 11:11 So it was annulled on that day, and the sheep merchants, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

Zec 11:12 I then said to them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." So they weighed out as my wages thirty shekels of silver.

Zec 11:13 Then the LORD said to me, "Throw it into the treasury"-- this lordly price at which I was valued by them. So I took the thirty shekels of silver and threw them into the treasury in the house of the LORD.

Zec 11:14 Then I broke my second staff Unity, annulling the family ties between Judah and Israel.

Zec 11:15 Then the LORD said to me: Take once more the implements of a worthless shepherd.

Zec 11:16 For I am now raising up in the land a shepherd who does not care for the perishing, or seek the wandering, or heal the maimed, or nourish the healthy, but devours the flesh of the fat ones, tearing off even their hoofs.

Zec 11:17 Oh, my worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock! May the sword strike his arm and his right eye! Let his arm be completely withered, his right eye utterly blinded!

Zec 12:1 An Oracle. The word of the LORD concerning Israel: Thus says the LORD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the human spirit within:

Zec 12:2 See, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of reeling for all the surrounding peoples; it will be against Judah also in the siege against Jerusalem.

Zec 12:3 On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it shall grievously hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth shall come together against it.

Zec 12:4 On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But on the house of Judah I will keep a watchful eye, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

Zec 12:5 Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, "The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God."

Zec 12:6 On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot on a pile of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour to the right and to the left all the surrounding peoples, while Jerusalem shall again be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.

Zec 12:7 And the LORD will give victory to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be exalted over that of Judah.

Zec 12:8 On that day the LORD will shield the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, at their head.

Zec 12:9 And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Zec 12:10 And I will pour out a spirit of compassion and supplication on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that, when they look on the one whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn.

Zec 12:11 On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

Zec 12:12 The land shall mourn, each family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zec 12:13 the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shimeites by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zec 12:14 and all the families that are left, each by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zec 13:1 On that day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

Zec 13:2 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more; and also I will remove from the land the prophets and the unclean spirit.

Zec 13:3 And if any prophets appear again, their fathers and mothers who bore them will say to them, "You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD"; and their fathers and their mothers who bore them shall pierce them through when they prophesy.

Zec 13:4 On that day the prophets will be ashamed, every one, of their visions when they prophesy; they will not put on a hairy mantle in order to deceive,

Zec 13:5 but each of them will say, "I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the soil; for the land has been my possession since my youth."

Zec 13:6 And if anyone asks them, "What are these wounds on your chest?" the answer will be "The wounds I received in the house of my friends."

Zec 13:7 "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my associate," says the LORD of hosts. Strike the shepherd, that the sheep may be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones.

Zec 13:8 In the whole land, says the LORD, two-thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one-third shall be left alive.

Zec 13:9 And I will put this third into the fire, refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, "They are my people"; and they will say, "The LORD is our God."

Zec 14:1 See, a day is coming for the LORD, when the plunder taken from you will be divided in your midst.

Zec 14:2 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses looted and the women raped; half the city shall go into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

Zec 14:3 Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle.

Zec 14:4 On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives, which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley; so that one half of the Mount shall withdraw northward, and the other half southward.

Zec 14:5 And you shall flee by the valley of the LORD's mountain, for the valley between the mountains shall reach to Azal; and you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

Zec 14:6 On that day there shall not be either cold or frost.

Zec 14:7 And there shall be continuous day (it is known to the LORD), not day and not night, for at evening time there shall be light.

Zec 14:8 On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea; it shall continue in summer as in winter.

Zec 14:9 And the LORD will become king over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

Zec 14:10 The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft on its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

Zec 14:11 And it shall be inhabited, for never again shall it be doomed to destruction; Jerusalem shall abide in security.

Zec 14:12 This shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh shall rot while they are still on their feet; their eyes shall rot in their sockets, and their tongues shall rot in their mouths.

Zec 14:13 On that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will seize the hand of a neighbor, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other;

Zec 14:14 even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations shall be collected--gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

Zec 14:15 And a plague like this plague shall fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the donkeys, and whatever animals may be in those camps.

Zec 14:16 Then all who survive of the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the festival of booths.

Zec 14:17 If any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain upon them.

Zec 14:18 And if the family of Egypt do not go up and present themselves, then on them shall come the plague that the LORD inflicts on the nations that do not go up to keep the festival of booths.

Zec 14:19 Such shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to keep the festival of booths.

Zec 14:20 On that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "Holy to the LORD." And the cooking pots in the house of the LORD shall be as holy as the bowls in front of the altar;

Zec 14:21 and every cooking pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be sacred to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and use them to boil the flesh of the sacrifice. And there shall no longer be traders in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

Mal 1:1 An oracle. The word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

Mal 1:2 I have loved you, says the LORD. But you say, "How have you loved us?" Is not Esau Jacob's brother? says the LORD. Yet I have loved Jacob

Mal 1:3 but I have hated Esau; I have made his hill country a desolation and his heritage a desert for jackals.

Mal 1:4 If Edom says, "We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins," the LORD of hosts says: They may build, but I will tear down, until they are called the wicked country, the people with whom the LORD is angry forever.

Mal 1:5 Your own eyes shall see this, and you shall say, "Great is the LORD beyond the borders of Israel!"

Mal 1:6 A son honors his father, and servants their master. If then I am a father, where is the honor due me? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. You say, "How have we despised your name?"

Mal 1:7 By offering polluted food on my altar. And you say, "How have we polluted it?" By thinking that the LORD's table may be despised.

Mal 1:8 When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that not wrong? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that not wrong? Try presenting that to your governor; will he be pleased with you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 1:9 And now implore the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. The fault is yours. Will he show favor to any of you? says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 1:10 Oh, that someone among you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hands.

Mal 1:11 For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 1:12 But you profane it when you say that the Lord's table is polluted, and the food for it may be despised.

Mal 1:13 "What a weariness this is," you say, and you sniff at me, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD.

Mal 1:14 Cursed be the cheat who has a male in the flock and vows to give it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished; for I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is revered among the nations.

Mal 2:1 And now, O priests, this command is for you.

Mal 2:2 If you will not listen, if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse on you and I will curse your blessings; indeed I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart.

Mal 2:3 I will rebuke your offspring, and spread dung on your faces, the dung of your offerings, and I will put you out of my presence.

Mal 2:4 Know, then, that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may hold, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 2:5 My covenant with him was a covenant of life and well-being, which I gave him; this called for reverence, and he revered me and stood in awe of my name.

Mal 2:6 True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in integrity and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.

Mal 2:7 For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

Mal 2:8 But you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your instruction; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts,

Mal 2:9 and so I make you despised and abased before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways but have shown partiality in your instruction.

Mal 2:10 Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

Mal 2:11 Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

Mal 2:12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob anyone who does this-- any to witness or answer, or to bring an offering to the LORD of hosts.

Mal 2:13 And this you do as well: You cover the LORD's altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor at your hand.

Mal 2:14 You ask, "Why does he not?" Because the LORD was a witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

Mal 2:15 Did not one God make her? Both flesh and spirit are his. And what does the one God desire? Godly offspring. So look to yourselves, and do not let anyone be faithless to the wife of his youth.

Mal 2:16 For I hate divorce, says the LORD, the God of Israel, and covering one's garment with violence, says the LORD of hosts. So take heed to yourselves and do not be faithless.

Mal 2:17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "All who do evil are good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them." Or by asking, "Where is the God of justice?"

Mal 3:1 See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight-- indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 3:2 But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap;

Mal 3:3 he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness.

Mal 3:4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Mal 3:5 Then I will draw near to you for judgment; I will be swift to bear witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired workers in their wages, the widow and the orphan, against those who thrust aside the alien, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 3:6 For I the LORD do not change; therefore you, O children of Jacob, have not perished.

Mal 3:7 Ever since the days of your ancestors you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you say, "How shall we return?"

Mal 3:8 Will anyone rob God? Yet you are robbing me! But you say, "How are we robbing you?" In your tithes and offerings!

Mal 3:9 You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me-- the whole nation of you!

Mal 3:10 Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in my house, and thus put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts; see if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.

Mal 3:11 I will rebuke the locust for you, so that it will not destroy the produce of your soil; and your vine in the field shall not be barren, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 3:12 Then all nations will count you happy, for you will be a land of delight, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 3:13 You have spoken harsh words against me, says the LORD. Yet you say, "How have we spoken against you?"

Mal 3:14 You have said, "It is vain to serve God. What do we profit by keeping his command or by going about as mourners before the LORD of hosts?"

Mal 3:15 Now we count the arrogant happy; evildoers not only prosper, but when they put God to the test they escape."

Mal 3:16 Then those who revered the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD took note and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who revered the LORD and thought on his name.

Mal 3:17 They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, my special possession on the day when I act, and I will spare them as parents spare their children who serve them.

Mal 3:18 Then once more you shall see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

Mal 4:1 See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.

Mal 4:2 But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall.

Mal 4:3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 4:4 Remember the teaching of my servant Moses, the statutes and ordinances that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

Mal 4:5 Lo, I will send you the prophet Elijah before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Mal 4:6 He will turn the hearts of parents to their children and the hearts of children to their parents, so that I will not come and strike the land with a curse.

Mat 1:1 An account of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

Mat 1:2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,

Mat 1:3 and Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Aram,

Mat 1:4 and Aram the father of Aminadab, and Aminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Mat 1:5 and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse,

Mat 1:6 and Jesse the father of King David. And David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah,

Mat 1:7 and Solomon the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of

Asaph,

Mat 1:8 and Asaph the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah,

Mat 1:9 and Uzziah the father of Jotham, and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

Mat 1:10 and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amos, and Amos the father of Josiah,

Mat 1:11 and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

Mat 1:12 And after the deportation to Babylon: Jechoniah was the father of Salathiel, and Salathiel the father of Zerubbabel,

Mat 1:13 and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor,

Mat 1:14 and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud,

Mat 1:15 and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob,

Mat 1:16 and Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah.

Mat 1:17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the deportation to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the deportation to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

Mat 1:18 Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit.

Mat 1:19 Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly.

Mat 1:20 But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

Mat 1:21 She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins."

Mat 1:22 All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

Mat 1:23 "Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God is with us."

Mat 1:24 When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife,

Mat 1:25 but had no marital relations with her until she had borne a son; and he named him Jesus.

Mat 2:1 In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem,

Mat 2:2 asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage."

Mat 2:3 When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him;

Mat 2:4 and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.

Mat 2:5 They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

Mat 2:6 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'"

Mat 2:7 Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared.

Mat 2:8 Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage."

Mat 2:9 When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was.

Mat 2:10 When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.

Mat 2:11 On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Mat 2:12 And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Mat 2:13 Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him."

Mat 2:14 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt,

Mat 2:15 and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, "Out of Egypt I have called my son."

Mat 2:16 When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men.

Mat 2:17 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah:

Mat 2:18 "A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more."

Mat 2:19 When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said,

Mat 2:20 "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child's life are dead."

Mat 2:21 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel.

Mat 2:22 But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee.

Mat 2:23 There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, "He will be called a Nazorean."

Mat 3:1 In those days John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness of Judea, proclaiming,

Mat 3:2 "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

Mat 3:3 This is the one of whom the prophet Isaiah spoke when he said, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.'"

Mat 3:4 Now John wore clothing of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Mat 3:5 Then the people of Jerusalem and all Judea were going out to him, and all the region along the Jordan,

Mat 3:6 and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Mat 3:7 But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

Mat 3:8 Bear fruit worthy of repentance.

Mat 3:9 Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Mat 3:10 Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Mat 3:11 "I baptize you with water for repentance, but one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Mat 3:12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

Mat 3:13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him.

Mat 3:14 John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?"

Mat 3:15 But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented.

Mat 3:16 And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him.

Mat 3:17 And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Mat 4:1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

Mat 4:2 He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished.

Mat 4:3 The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread."

Mat 4:4 But he answered, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Mat 4:5 Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple,

Mat 4:6 saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Mat 4:7 Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Mat 4:8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor;

Mat 4:9 and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

Mat 4:10 Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! for it is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

Mat 4:11 Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Mat 4:12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee.

Mat 4:13 He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali,

Mat 4:14 so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

Mat 4:15 "Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles--

Mat 4:16 the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned."

Mat 4:17 From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

Mat 4:18 As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea-- for they were fishermen.

Mat 4:19 And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fish for people."

Mat 4:20 Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Mat 4:21 As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them.

Mat 4:22 Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Mat 4:23 Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Mat 4:24 So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought to him all the sick, those who were afflicted with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, and paralytics, and he cured them.

Mat 4:25 And great crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Mat 5:1 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.

Mat 5:2 Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

Mat 5:3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 5:4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Mat 5:5 "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Mat 5:6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Mat 5:7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Mat 5:8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Mat 5:9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Mat 5:10 "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 5:11 "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Mat 5:12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Mat 5:13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

Mat 5:14 "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid.

Mat 5:15 No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.

Mat 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

Mat 5:17 "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill.

Mat 5:18 For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished.

Mat 5:19 Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 5:20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 5:21 "You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not murder'; and 'whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.'

Mat 5:22 But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, 'You fool,' you will be liable to the hell of fire.

Mat 5:23 So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you,

Mat 5:24 leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift.

Mat 5:25 Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison.

Mat 5:26 Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.

Mat 5:27 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.'

Mat 5:28 But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Mat 5:29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

Mat 5:30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell.

Mat 5:31 "It was also said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'

Mat 5:32 But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Mat 5:33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.'

Mat 5:34 But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God,

Mat 5:35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

Mat 5:36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black.

Mat 5:37 Let your word be 'Yes, Yes' or 'No, No'; anything more than this comes from the evil one.

Mat 5:38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'

Mat 5:39 But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also;

Mat 5:40 and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well;

Mat 5:41 and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile.

Mat 5:42 Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you.

Mat 5:43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.'

Mat 5:44 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

Mat 5:45 so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous.

Mat 5:46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?

Mat 5:47 And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same?

Mat 5:48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Mat 6:1 "Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

Mat 6:2 "So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward.

Mat 6:3 But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

Mat 6:4 so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Mat 6:5 "And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward.

Mat 6:6 But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Mat 6:7 "When you are praying, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

Mat 6:8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Mat 6:9 "Pray then in this way: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Mat 6:10 Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Mat 6:11 Give us this day our daily bread.

Mat 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

Mat 6:13 And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.

Mat 6:14 For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you;

Mat 6:15 but if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Mat 6:16 "And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward.

Mat 6:17 But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face,

Mat 6:18 so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Mat 6:19 "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal;

Mat 6:20 but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Mat 6:21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Mat 6:22 "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light;

Mat 6:23 but if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

Mat 6:24 "No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

Mat 6:25 "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?

Mat 6:26 Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?

Mat 6:27 And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?

Mat 6:28 And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin,

Mat 6:29 yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

Mat 6:30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you-- you of little faith?

Mat 6:31 Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?'

Mat 6:32 For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

Mat 6:33 But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Mat 6:34 "So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.

Mat 7:1 "Do not judge, so that you may not be judged.

Mat 7:2 For with the judgment you make you will be judged, and the measure you give will be the measure you get.

Mat 7:3 Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye?

Mat 7:4 Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' while the log is in your own eye?

Mat 7:5 You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.

Mat 7:6 "Do not give what is holy to dogs; and do not throw your pearls before swine, or they will trample them under foot and turn and maul you.

Mat 7:7 "Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Mat 7:8 For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

Mat 7:9 Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for bread, will give a stone?

Mat 7:10 Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake?

Mat 7:11 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Mat 7:12 "In everything do to others as you would have them do to you; for this is the law and the prophets.

Mat 7:13 "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road is easy that leads to destruction, and there are many who take it.

Mat 7:14 For the gate is narrow and the road is hard that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Mat 7:15 "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

Mat 7:16 You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles?

Mat 7:17 In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit.

Mat 7:18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.

Mat 7:19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Mat 7:20 Thus you will know them by their fruits.

Mat 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

Mat 7:22 On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many deeds of power in your name?'

Mat 7:23 Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; go away from me, you evildoers.'

Mat 7:24 "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock.

Mat 7:25 The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock.

Mat 7:26 And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

Mat 7:27 The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell-- and great was its fall!"

Mat 7:28 Now when Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astounded at his teaching,

Mat 7:29 for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

Mat 8:1 When Jesus had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him;

Mat 8:2 and there was a leper who came to him and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean."

Mat 8:3 He stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I do choose. Be made clean!" Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

Mat 8:4 Then Jesus said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

Mat 8:5 When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, appealing to him

Mat 8:6 and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible distress."

Mat 8:7 And he said to him, "I will come and cure him."

Mat 8:8 The centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only speak the word, and my servant will be healed.

Mat 8:9 For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and the slave does it."

Mat 8:10 When Jesus heard him, he was amazed and said to those who followed him, "Truly I tell you, in no one in Israel have I found such faith.

Mat 8:11 I tell you, many will come from east and west and will eat with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven,

Mat 8:12 while the heirs of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Mat 8:13 And to the centurion Jesus said, "Go; let it be done for you according to your faith." And the servant was healed in that hour.

Mat 8:14 When Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever;

Mat 8:15 he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him.

Mat 8:16 That evening they brought to him many who were possessed with demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and cured all who were sick.

Mat 8:17 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah, "He took our infirmities and bore our diseases."

Mat 8:18 Now when Jesus saw great crowds around him, he gave orders to go over to the other side.

Mat 8:19 A scribe then approached and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

Mat 8:20 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

Mat 8:21 Another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

Mat 8:22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Mat 8:23 And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him.

Mat 8:24 A windstorm arose on the sea, so great that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep.

Mat 8:25 And they went and woke him up, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

Mat 8:26 And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a dead calm.

Mat 8:27 They were amazed, saying, "What sort of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

Mat 8:28 When he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two demoniacs coming out of the tombs met him. They were so fierce that no one could pass that way.

Mat 8:29 Suddenly they shouted, "What have you to do with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?"

Mat 8:30 Now a large herd of swine was feeding at some distance from them.

Mat 8:31 The demons begged him, "If you cast us out, send us into the herd of swine."

Mat 8:32 And he said to them, "Go!" So they came out and entered the swine; and suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water.

Mat 8:33 The swineherds ran off, and on going into the town, they told the whole story about what had happened to the demoniacs.

Mat 8:34 Then the whole town came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood.

Mat 9:1 And after getting into a boat he crossed the sea and came to his own town.

Mat 9:2 And just then some people were carrying a paralyzed man lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven."

Mat 9:3 Then some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming."

Mat 9:4 But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?"

Mat 9:5 For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up and walk'?

Mat 9:6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"-- he then said to the paralytic-- "Stand up, take your bed and go to your home."

Mat 9:7 And he stood up and went to his home.

Mat 9:8 When the crowds saw it, they were filled with awe, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to human beings.

Mat 9:9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

Mat 9:10 And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples.

Mat 9:11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

Mat 9:12 But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick."

Mat 9:13 Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

Mat 9:14 Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?"

Mat 9:15 And Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them, can they? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast."

Mat 9:16 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak, for the patch pulls away from the cloak, and a worse tear is made.

Mat 9:17 Neither is new wine put into old wineskins; otherwise, the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins are destroyed; but new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved."

Mat 9:18 While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

Mat 9:19 And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples.

Mat 9:20 Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak,

Mat 9:21 for she said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well."

Mat 9:22 Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly the woman was made well.

Mat 9:23 When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion,

Mat 9:24 he said, "Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him.

Mat 9:25 But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

Mat 9:26 And the report of this spread throughout that district.

Mat 9:27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, crying loudly, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

Mat 9:28 When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

Mat 9:29 Then he touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith let it be done to you."

Mat 9:30 And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly ordered them, "See that no one knows of this."

Mat 9:31 But they went away and spread the news about him throughout that district.

Mat 9:32 After they had gone away, a demoniac who was mute was brought to him.

Mat 9:33 And when the demon had been cast out, the one who had been mute spoke; and the crowds were amazed and said, "Never has anything like this been seen in Israel."

Mat 9:34 But the Pharisees said, "By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons."

Mat 9:35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness.

Mat 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Mat 9:37 Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few;

Mat 9:38 therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Mat 10:1 Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

Mat 10:2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John;

Mat 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

Mat 10:4 Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

Mat 10:5 These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans,

Mat 10:6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Mat 10:7 As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.'

Mat 10:8 Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Mat 10:9 Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts,

Mat 10:10 no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food.

Mat 10:11 Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave.

Mat 10:12 As you enter the house, greet it.

Mat 10:13 If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

Mat 10:14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town.

Mat 10:15 Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

Mat 10:16 "See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

Mat 10:17 Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues;

Mat 10:18 and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles.

Mat 10:19 When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time;

Mat 10:20 for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

Mat 10:21 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death;

Mat 10:22 and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Mat 10:23 When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

Mat 10:24 "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master;

Mat 10:25 it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

Mat 10:26 "So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known.

Mat 10:27 What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.

Mat 10:28 Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Mat 10:29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father.

Mat 10:30 And even the hairs of your head are all counted.

Mat 10:31 So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Mat 10:32 "Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven;

Mat 10:33 but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

Mat 10:34 "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

Mat 10:35 For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

Mat 10:36 and one's foes will be members of one's own household.

Mat 10:37 Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;

Mat 10:38 and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

Mat 10:39 Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

Mat 10:40 "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

Mat 10:41 Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous;

Mat 10:42 and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple-- truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

Mat 11:1 Now when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and proclaim his message in their cities.

Mat 11:2 When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples

Mat 11:3 and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?"

Mat 11:4 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see:

Mat 11:5 the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them.

Mat 11:6 And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

Mat 11:7 As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

Mat 11:8 What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces.

Mat 11:9 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Mat 11:10 This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.'

Mat 11:11 Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Mat 11:12 From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force.

Mat 11:13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John came;

Mat 11:14 and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come.

Mat 11:15 Let anyone with ears listen!

Mat 11:16 "But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another,

Mat 11:17 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.'

Mat 11:18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon';

Mat 11:19 the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

Mat 11:20 Then he began to reproach the cities in which most of his deeds of power had been done, because they did not repent.

Mat 11:21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Mat 11:22 But I tell you, on the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Mat 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades. For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Mat 11:24 But I tell you that on the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom than for you."

Mat 11:25 At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants;

Mat 11:26 yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.

Mat 11:27 All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Mat 11:28 "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.

Mat 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Mat 11:30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Mat 12:1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath; his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.

Mat 12:2 When the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath."

Mat 12:3 He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Mat 12:4 He entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him or his companions to eat, but only for the priests.

Mat 12:5 Or have you not read in the law that on the sabbath the priests in the temple break the sabbath and yet are guiltless?

Mat 12:6 I tell you, something greater than the temple is here.

Mat 12:7 But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless.

Mat 12:8 For the Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."

Mat 12:9 He left that place and entered their synagogue;

Mat 12:10 a man was there with a withered hand, and they asked him, "Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?" so that they might accuse him.

Mat 12:11 He said to them, "Suppose one of you has only one sheep and it falls into a pit on the sabbath; will you not lay hold of it and lift it out?

Mat 12:12 How much more valuable is a human being than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the sabbath."

Mat 12:13 Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and it was restored, as sound as the other.

Mat 12:14 But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him.

Mat 12:15 When Jesus became aware of this, he departed. Many crowds followed him, and he cured all of them,

Mat 12:16 and he ordered them not to make him known.

Mat 12:17 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

Mat 12:18 "Here is my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved, with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

Mat 12:19 He will not wrangle or cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

Mat 12:20 He will not break a bruised reed or quench a smoldering wick until he brings justice to victory.

Mat 12:21 And in his name the Gentiles will hope."

Mat 12:22 Then they brought to him a demoniac who was blind and mute; and he cured him, so that the one who had been mute could speak and see.

Mat 12:23 All the crowds were amazed and said, "Can this be the Son of David?"

Mat 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons, that this fellow casts out the demons."

Mat 12:25 He knew what they were thinking and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand.

Mat 12:26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand?

Mat 12:27 If I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your own exorcists cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

Mat 12:28 But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Mat 12:29 Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his property, without first tying up the strong man? Then indeed the house can be plundered.

Mat 12:30 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

Mat 12:31 Therefore I tell you, people will be forgiven for every sin and blasphemy, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Mat 12:32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Mat 12:33 "Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit.

Mat 12:34 You brood of vipers! How can you speak good things, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

Mat 12:35 The good person brings good things out of a good treasure, and the evil person brings evil things out of an evil treasure.

Mat 12:36 I tell you, on the day of judgment you will have to give an account for every careless word you utter;

Mat 12:37 for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

Mat 12:38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you."

Mat 12:39 But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Mat 12:40 For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so for three days and three nights the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth.

Mat 12:41 The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

Mat 12:42 The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here!

Mat 12:43 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it wanders through waterless regions looking for a resting place, but it finds none.

Mat 12:44 Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' When it comes, it finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

Mat 12:45 Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there; and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So will it be also with this evil generation."

Mat 12:46 While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and his brothers were standing outside, wanting to speak to him.

Mat 12:47 Someone told him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you."

Mat 12:48 But to the one who had told him this, Jesus replied, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

Mat 12:49 And pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers!

Mat 12:50 For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Mat 13:1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea.

Mat 13:2 Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach.

Mat 13:3 And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow.

Mat 13:4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up.

Mat 13:5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil.

Mat 13:6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away.

Mat 13:7 Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.

Mat 13:8 Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Mat 13:9 Let anyone with ears listen!"

Mat 13:10 Then the disciples came and asked him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

Mat 13:11 He answered, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

Mat 13:12 For to those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Mat 13:13 The reason I speak to them in parables is that 'seeing they do not perceive, and hearing they do not listen, nor do they understand.'

Mat 13:14 With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah that says: 'You will indeed listen, but never understand, and you will indeed look, but never perceive.

Mat 13:15 For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes; so that they might not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn-- and I would heal them.'

Mat 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.

Mat 13:17 Truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.

Mat 13:18 "Hear then the parable of the sower.

Mat 13:19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path.

Mat 13:20 As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;

Mat 13:21 yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away.

Mat 13:22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing.

Mat 13:23 But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

Mat 13:24 He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field;

Mat 13:25 but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away.

Mat 13:26 So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well.

Mat 13:27 And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?'

Mat 13:28 He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' The slaves said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?'

Mat 13:29 But he replied, 'No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them.

Mat 13:30 Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Mat 13:31 He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field;

Mat 13:32 it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

Mat 13:33 He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened."

Mat 13:34 Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing.

Mat 13:35 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet: "I will open my mouth to speak in parables; I will proclaim what has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

Mat 13:36 Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field."

Mat 13:37 He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man;

Mat 13:38 the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one,

Mat 13:39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

Mat 13:40 Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age.

Mat 13:41 The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers,

Mat 13:42 and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Mat 13:43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Mat 13:44 "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Mat 13:45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls;

Mat 13:46 on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Mat 13:47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind;

Mat 13:48 when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad.

Mat 13:49 So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous

Mat 13:50 and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Mat 13:51 "Have you understood all this?" They answered, "Yes."

Mat 13:52 And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Mat 13:53 When Jesus had finished these parables, he left that place.

Mat 13:54 He came to his hometown and began to teach the people in their synagogue, so that they were astounded and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these deeds of power?

Mat 13:55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

Mat 13:56 And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all this?"

Mat 13:57 And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor except in their own country and in their own house."

Mat 13:58 And he did not do many deeds of power there, because of their unbelief.

Mat 14:1 At that time Herod the ruler heard reports about Jesus;

Mat 14:2 and he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and for this reason these powers are at work in him."

Mat 14:3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,

Mat 14:4 because John had been telling him, "It is not lawful for you to have her."

Mat 14:5 Though Herod wanted to put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Mat 14:6 But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company, and she pleased Herod

Mat 14:7 so much that he promised on oath to grant her whatever she might ask.

Mat 14:8 Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter."

Mat 14:9 The king was grieved, yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he commanded it to be given;

Mat 14:10 he sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

Mat 14:11 The head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who brought it to her mother.

Mat 14:12 His disciples came and took the body and buried it; then they went and told Jesus.

Mat 14:13 Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns.

Mat 14:14 When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick.

Mat 14:15 When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

Mat 14:16 Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat."

Mat 14:17 They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish."

Mat 14:18 And he said, "Bring them here to me."

Mat 14:19 Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Mat 14:20 And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.

Mat 14:21 And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Mat 14:22 Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Mat 14:23 And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,

Mat 14:24 but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them.

Mat 14:25 And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea.

Mat 14:26 But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear.

Mat 14:27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Mat 14:28 Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

Mat 14:29 He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus.

Mat 14:30 But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

Mat 14:31 Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

Mat 14:32 When they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

Mat 14:33 And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Mat 14:34 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

Mat 14:35 After the people of that place recognized him, they sent word throughout the region and brought all who were sick to him,

Mat 14:36 and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Mat 15:1 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said,

Mat 15:2 "Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands before they eat."

Mat 15:3 He answered them, "And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?"

Mat 15:4 For God said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must surely die.'

Mat 15:5 But you say that whoever tells father or mother, 'Whatever support you might have had from me is given to God,' then that person need not honor the father.

Mat 15:6 So, for the sake of your tradition, you make void the word of God.

Mat 15:7 You hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied rightly about you when he said:

Mat 15:8 'This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me;

Mat 15:9 in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.'"

Mat 15:10 Then he called the crowd to him and said to them, "Listen and understand:

Mat 15:11 it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles."

Mat 15:12 Then the disciples approached and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard what you said?"

Mat 15:13 He answered, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.

Mat 15:14 Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit."

Mat 15:15 But Peter said to him, "Explain this parable to us."

Mat 15:16 Then he said, "Are you also still without understanding?"

Mat 15:17 Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer?

Mat 15:18 But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles.

Mat 15:19 For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander.

Mat 15:20 These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile."

Mat 15:21 Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon.

Mat 15:22 Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon."

Mat 15:23 But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, "Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us."

Mat 15:24 He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

Mat 15:25 But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me."

Mat 15:26 He answered, "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."

Mat 15:27 She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."

Mat 15:28 Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed instantly.

Mat 15:29 After Jesus had left that place, he passed along the Sea of Galilee, and he went up the mountain, where he sat down.

Mat 15:30 Great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the maimed, the blind, the mute, and many others. They put them at his feet, and he cured them,

Mat 15:31 so that the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

Mat 15:32 Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they might faint on the way."

Mat 15:33 The disciples said to him, "Where are we to get enough bread in the desert to feed so great a crowd?"

Mat 15:34 Jesus asked them, "How many loaves have you?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

Mat 15:35 Then ordering the crowd to sit down on the ground,

Mat 15:36 he took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Mat 15:37 And all of them ate and were filled; and they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full.

Mat 15:38 Those who had eaten were four thousand men, besides women and children.

Mat 15:39 After sending away the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Mat 16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and to test Jesus they asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

Mat 16:2 He answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.'

Mat 16:3 And in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

Mat 16:4 An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah." Then he left them and went away.

Mat 16:5 When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread.

Mat 16:6 Jesus said to them, "Watch out, and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

Mat 16:7 They said to one another, "It is because we have brought no bread."

Mat 16:8 And becoming aware of it, Jesus said, "You of little faith, why are you talking about having no bread?"

Mat 16:9 Do you still not perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?

Mat 16:10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?

Mat 16:11 How could you fail to perceive that I was not speaking about bread? Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!"

Mat 16:12 Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Mat 16:13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

Mat 16:14 And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Mat 16:15 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Mat 16:16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

Mat 16:17 And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven.

Mat 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

Mat 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

Mat 16:20 Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Mat 16:21 From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

Mat 16:22 And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you."

Mat 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Mat 16:24 Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Mat 16:25 For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

Mat 16:26 For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

Mat 16:27 "For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done.

Mat 16:28 Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Mat 17:1 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves.

Mat 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Mat 17:3 Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

Mat 17:4 Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

Mat 17:5 While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!"

Mat 17:6 When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.

Mat 17:7 But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid."

Mat 17:8 And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

Mat 17:9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Mat 17:10 And the disciples asked him, "Why, then, do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

Mat 17:11 He replied, "Elijah is indeed coming and will restore all things;

Mat 17:12 but I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but they did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands."

Mat 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

Mat 17:14 When they came to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him,

Mat 17:15 and said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly; he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

Mat 17:16 And I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."

Mat 17:17 Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him here to me."

Mat 17:18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was cured instantly.

Mat 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

Mat 17:20 He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you."

Mat 17:21

Mat 17:22 As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands, Mat 17:23 and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised." And they were greatly distressed.
Mat 17:24 When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the temple tax?"
Mat 17:25 He said, "Yes, he does." And when he came home, Jesus spoke of it first, asking, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tribute? From their children or from others?"
Mat 17:26 When Peter said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the children are free.
Mat 17:27 However, so that we do not give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook; take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a coin; take that and give it to them for you and me."
Mat 18:1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"
Mat 18:2 He called a child, whom he put among them,
Mat 18:3 and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.
Mat 18:4 Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
Mat 18:5 Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.
Mat 18:6 "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.
Mat 18:7 Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom the stumbling block comes!
Mat 18:8 "If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life maimed or lame than to have two hands or two feet and to be thrown into the eternal fire.
Mat 18:9 And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into the hell of fire.
Mat 18:10 "Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven.
Mat 18:11
Mat 18:12 What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?
Mat 18:13 And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray.
Mat 18:14 So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.
Mat 18:15 "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one.
Mat 18:16 But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses.
Mat 18:17 If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.
Mat 18:18 Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.
Mat 18:19 Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.
Mat 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."
Mat 18:21 Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?"
Mat 18:22 Jesus said to him, "Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.
Mat 18:23 "For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves.
Mat 18:24 When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him;
Mat 18:25 and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made.
Mat 18:26 So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'
Mat 18:27 And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt.
Mat 18:28 But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.'
Mat 18:29 Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.'
Mat 18:30 But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt.
Mat 18:31 When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place.

Mat 18:32 Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.

Mat 18:33 Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?'

Mat 18:34 And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt.

Mat 18:35 So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Mat 19:1 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.

Mat 19:2 Large crowds followed him, and he cured them there.

Mat 19:3 Some Pharisees came to him, and to test him they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?"

Mat 19:4 He answered, "Have you not read that the one who made them at the beginning 'made them male and female,'

Mat 19:5 and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'?

Mat 19:6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

Mat 19:7 They said to him, "Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?"

Mat 19:8 He said to them, "It was because you were so hard-hearted that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

Mat 19:9 And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another commits adultery."

Mat 19:10 His disciples said to him, "If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry."

Mat 19:11 But he said to them, "Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those to whom it is given.

Mat 19:12 For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by others, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone accept this who can."

Mat 19:13 Then little children were being brought to him in order that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples spoke sternly to those who brought them;

Mat 19:14 but Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs."

Mat 19:15 And he laid his hands on them and went on his way.

Mat 19:16 Then someone came to him and said, "Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?"

Mat 19:17 And he said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments."

Mat 19:18 He said to him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said, "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness;

Mat 19:19 Honor your father and mother; also, You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Mat 19:20 The young man said to him, "I have kept all these; what do I still lack?"

Mat 19:21 Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

Mat 19:22 When the young man heard this word, he went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Mat 19:23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 19:24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

Mat 19:25 When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astounded and said, "Then who can be saved?"

Mat 19:26 But Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible."

Mat 19:27 Then Peter said in reply, "Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?"

Mat 19:28 Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Mat 19:29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life.

Mat 19:30 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.

Mat 20:1 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

Mat 20:2 After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard.
Mat 20:3 When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace;
Mat 20:4 and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went.
Mat 20:5 When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same.
Mat 20:6 And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?'
Mat 20:7 They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.'
Mat 20:8 When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.'
Mat 20:9 When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage.
Mat 20:10 Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage.
Mat 20:11 And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner,
Mat 20:12 saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.'
Mat 20:13 But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?
Mat 20:14 Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you.
Mat 20:15 Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?'
Mat 20:16 So the last will be first, and the first will be last."
Mat 20:17 While Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and said to them on the way,
Mat 20:18 "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death;
Mat 20:19 then they will hand him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified; and on the third day he will be raised."
Mat 20:20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favor of him.
Mat 20:21 And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom."
Mat 20:22 But Jesus answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We are able."
Mat 20:23 He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."
Mat 20:24 When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers.
Mat 20:25 But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.
Mat 20:26 It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant,
Mat 20:27 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave;
Mat 20:28 just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."
Mat 20:29 As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him.
Mat 20:30 There were two blind men sitting by the roadside. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"
Mat 20:31 The crowd sternly ordered them to be quiet; but they shouted even more loudly, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!"
Mat 20:32 Jesus stood still and called them, saying, "What do you want me to do for you?"
Mat 20:33 They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened."
Mat 20:34 Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they regained their sight and followed him.
Mat 21:1 When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,
Mat 21:2 saying to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me.
Mat 21:3 If anyone says anything to you, just say this, 'The Lord needs them.' And he will send them immediately. "
Mat 21:4 This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,
Mat 21:5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey."

Mat 21:6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them;

Mat 21:7 they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them.

Mat 21:8 A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Mat 21:9 The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Mat 21:10 When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, "Who is this?"

Mat 21:11 The crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

Mat 21:12 Then Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who were selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

Mat 21:13 He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer'; but you are making it a den of robbers."

Mat 21:14 The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he cured them.

Mat 21:15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the amazing things that he did, and heard the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became angry

Mat 21:16 and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read, 'Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise for yourself?'"

Mat 21:17 He left them, went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

Mat 21:18 In the morning, when he returned to the city, he was hungry.

Mat 21:19 And seeing a fig tree by the side of the road, he went to it and found nothing at all on it but leaves. Then he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" And the fig tree withered at once.

Mat 21:20 When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, saying, "How did the fig tree wither at once?"

Mat 21:21 Jesus answered them, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will be done.

Mat 21:22 Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive."

Mat 21:23 When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?"

Mat 21:24 Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

Mat 21:25 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'"

Mat 21:26 But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet."

Mat 21:27 So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

Mat 21:28 "What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.'

Mat 21:29 He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went.

Mat 21:30 The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go.

Mat 21:31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.

Mat 21:32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.

Mat 21:33 "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.

Mat 21:34 When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce.

Mat 21:35 But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another.

Mat 21:36 Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way.

Mat 21:37 Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

Mat 21:38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.'

Mat 21:39 So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

Mat 21:40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

Mat 21:41 They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time."

Mat 21:42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes?'"

Mat 21:43 Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom.

Mat 21:44 The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls."
Mat 21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them.
Mat 21:46 They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.
Mat 22:1 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying:
Mat 22:2 "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son.
Mat 22:3 He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come.
Mat 22:4 Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.'
Mat 22:5 But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business,
Mat 22:6 while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them.
Mat 22:7 The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.
Mat 22:8 Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy.
Mat 22:9 Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.'
Mat 22:10 Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.
Mat 22:11 "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe,
Mat 22:12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless.
Mat 22:13 Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'
Mat 22:14 For many are called, but few are chosen."
Mat 22:15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted to entrap him in what he said.
Mat 22:16 So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality.
Mat 22:17 Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?"
Mat 22:18 But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites?
Mat 22:19 Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius.
Mat 22:20 Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?"
Mat 22:21 They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's."
Mat 22:22 When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.
Mat 22:23 The same day some Sadducees came to him, saying there is no resurrection; and they asked him a question, saying,
Mat 22:24 "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies childless, his brother shall marry the widow, and raise up children for his brother.'
Mat 22:25 Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married, and died childless, leaving the widow to his brother.
Mat 22:26 The second did the same, so also the third, down to the seventh.
Mat 22:27 Last of all, the woman herself died.
Mat 22:28 In the resurrection, then, whose wife of the seven will she be? For all of them had married her."
Mat 22:29 Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God.
Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.
Mat 22:31 And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God,
Mat 22:32 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is God not of the dead, but of the living."
Mat 22:33 And when the crowd heard it, they were astounded at his teaching.
Mat 22:34 When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together,
Mat 22:35 and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.
Mat 22:36 "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"
Mat 22:37 He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'
Mat 22:38 This is the greatest and first commandment.
Mat 22:39 And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'

Mat 22:40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."
Mat 22:41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question:
Mat 22:42 "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David."
Mat 22:43 He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,
Mat 22:44 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet" '?"
Mat 22:45 If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?"
Mat 22:46 No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Mat 23:1 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples,
Mat 23:2 "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat;
Mat 23:3 therefore, do whatever they teach you and follow it; but do not do as they do, for they do not practice what they teach.
Mat 23:4 They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on the shoulders of others; but they themselves are unwilling to lift a finger to move them.
Mat 23:5 They do all their deeds to be seen by others; for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long.
Mat 23:6 They love to have the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues,
Mat 23:7 and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have people call them rabbi.
Mat 23:8 But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all students.
Mat 23:9 And call no one your father on earth, for you have one Father-- the one in heaven.
Mat 23:10 Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Messiah.
Mat 23:11 The greatest among you will be your servant.
Mat 23:12 All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted.
Mat 23:13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not go in yourselves, and when others are going in, you stop them.
Mat 23:14
Mat 23:15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cross sea and land to make a single convert, and you make the new convert twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.
Mat 23:16 "Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the sanctuary is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the sanctuary is bound by the oath.'
Mat 23:17 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the sanctuary that has made the gold sacred?
Mat 23:18 And you say, 'Whoever swears by the altar is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is on the altar is bound by the oath.'
Mat 23:19 How blind you are! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?
Mat 23:20 So whoever swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it;
Mat 23:21 and whoever swears by the sanctuary, swears by it and by the one who dwells in it;
Mat 23:22 and whoever swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by the one who is seated upon it.
Mat 23:23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. It is these you ought to have practiced without neglecting the others.
Mat 23:24 You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel!
Mat 23:25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.
Mat 23:26 You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may become clean.
Mat 23:27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful, but inside they are full of the bones of the dead and of all kinds of filth.
Mat 23:28 So you also on the outside look righteous to others, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.
Mat 23:29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous,
Mat 23:30 and you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.'
Mat 23:31 Thus you testify against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets.
Mat 23:32 Fill up, then, the measure of your ancestors.
Mat 23:33 You snakes, you brood of vipers! How can you escape being sentenced to hell?
Mat 23:34 Therefore I send you prophets, sages, and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town,
Mat 23:35 so that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

Mat 23:36 Truly I tell you, all this will come upon this generation.

Mat 23:37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!

Mat 23:38 See, your house is left to you, desolate.

Mat 23:39 For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Mat 24:1 As Jesus came out of the temple and was going away, his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple.

Mat 24:2 Then he asked them, "You see all these, do you not? Truly I tell you, not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down."

Mat 24:3 When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

Mat 24:4 Jesus answered them, "Beware that no one leads you astray.

Mat 24:5 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Messiah!' and they will lead many astray.

Mat 24:6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not alarmed; for this must take place, but the end is not yet.

Mat 24:7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places:

Mat 24:8 all this is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Mat 24:9 "Then they will hand you over to be tortured and will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of my name.

Mat 24:10 Then many will fall away, and they will betray one another and hate one another.

Mat 24:11 And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.

Mat 24:12 And because of the increase of lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold.

Mat 24:13 But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Mat 24:14 And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world, as a testimony to all the nations; and then the end will come.

Mat 24:15 "So when you see the desolating sacrilege standing in the holy place, as was spoken of by the prophet Daniel (let the reader understand),

Mat 24:16 then those in Judea must flee to the mountains;

Mat 24:17 the one on the housetop must not go down to take what is in the house;

Mat 24:18 the one in the field must not turn back to get a coat.

Mat 24:19 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days!

Mat 24:20 Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a sabbath.

Mat 24:21 For at that time there will be great suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be.

Mat 24:22 And if those days had not been cut short, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

Mat 24:23 Then if anyone says to you, 'Look! Here is the Messiah!' or 'There he is!'-- do not believe it.

Mat 24:24 For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce great signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Mat 24:25 Take note, I have told you beforehand.

Mat 24:26 So, if they say to you, 'Look! He is in the wilderness,' do not go out. If they say, 'Look! He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.

Mat 24:27 For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Mat 24:28 Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

Mat 24:29 "Immediately after the suffering of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven will be shaken.

Mat 24:30 Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see 'the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven' with power and great glory.

Mat 24:31 And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Mat 24:32 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

Mat 24:33 So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Mat 24:34 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.

Mat 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Mat 24:36 "But about that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Mat 24:37 For as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Mat 24:38 For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark,

Mat 24:39 and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Mat 24:40 Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left.

Mat 24:41 Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left.

Mat 24:42 Keep awake therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming.

Mat 24:43 But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into.

Mat 24:44 Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.

Mat 24:45 "Who then is the faithful and wise slave, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give the other slaves their allowance of food at the proper time?

Mat 24:46 Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives.

Mat 24:47 Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.

Mat 24:48 But if that wicked slave says to himself, 'My master is delayed,'

Mat 24:49 and he begins to beat his fellow slaves, and eats and drinks with drunkards,

Mat 24:50 the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know.

Mat 24:51 He will cut him in pieces and put him with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Mat 25:1 "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.

Mat 25:2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

Mat 25:3 When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them;

Mat 25:4 but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps.

Mat 25:5 As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept.

Mat 25:6 But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'

Mat 25:7 Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps.

Mat 25:8 The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

Mat 25:9 But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.'

Mat 25:10 And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut.

Mat 25:11 Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.'

Mat 25:12 But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.'

Mat 25:13 Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

Mat 25:14 "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them;

Mat 25:15 to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

Mat 25:16 The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents.

Mat 25:17 In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents.

Mat 25:18 But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

Mat 25:19 After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.

Mat 25:20 Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.'

Mat 25:21 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

Mat 25:22 And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.'

Mat 25:23 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

Mat 25:24 Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed;

Mat 25:25 so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.'

Mat 25:26 But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter?'

Mat 25:27 Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest.

Mat 25:28 So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents.

Mat 25:29 For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Mat 25:30 As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Mat 25:31 "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory.

Mat 25:32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats,

Mat 25:33 and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left.

Mat 25:34 Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;

Mat 25:35 for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me,

Mat 25:36 I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.'

Mat 25:37 Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink?'

Mat 25:38 And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing?'

Mat 25:39 And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?'

Mat 25:40 And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.'

Mat 25:41 Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels;

Mat 25:42 for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink,

Mat 25:43 I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.'

Mat 25:44 Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?'

Mat 25:45 Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.'

Mat 25:46 And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Mat 26:1 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples,

Mat 26:2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

Mat 26:3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

Mat 26:4 and they conspired to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him.

Mat 26:5 But they said, "Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people."

Mat 26:6 Now while Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,

Mat 26:7 a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table.

Mat 26:8 But when the disciples saw it, they were angry and said, "Why this waste?'

Mat 26:9 For this ointment could have been sold for a large sum, and the money given to the poor."

Mat 26:10 But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? She has performed a good service for me.

Mat 26:11 For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me.

Mat 26:12 By pouring this ointment on my body she has prepared me for burial.

Mat 26:13 Truly I tell you, wherever this good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her."

Mat 26:14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

Mat 26:15 and said, "What will you give me if I betray him to you?" They paid him thirty pieces of silver.

Mat 26:16 And from that moment he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

Mat 26:17 On the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

Mat 26:18 He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is near; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'"

Mat 26:19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover meal.

Mat 26:20 When it was evening, he took his place with the twelve;

Mat 26:21 and while they were eating, he said, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me."

Mat 26:22 And they became greatly distressed and began to say to him one after another, "Surely not I, Lord?"

Mat 26:23 He answered, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.

Mat 26:24 The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born."

Mat 26:25 Judas, who betrayed him, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?" He replied, "You have said so."

Mat 26:26 While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body."

Mat 26:27 Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you;

Mat 26:28 for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Mat 26:29 I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

Mat 26:30 When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mat 26:31 Then Jesus said to them, "You will all become deserters because of me this night; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

Mat 26:32 But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee."

Mat 26:33 Peter said to him, "Though all become deserters because of you, I will never desert you."

Mat 26:34 Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."

Mat 26:35 Peter said to him, "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you." And so said all the disciples.

Mat 26:36 Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

Mat 26:37 He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be grieved and agitated.

Mat 26:38 Then he said to them, "I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and stay awake with me."

Mat 26:39 And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet not what I want but what you want."

Mat 26:40 Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "So, could you not stay awake with me one hour?"

Mat 26:41 Stay awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

Mat 26:42 Again he went away for the second time and prayed, "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done."

Mat 26:43 Again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

Mat 26:44 So leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words.

Mat 26:45 Then he came to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mat 26:46 Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand."

Mat 26:47 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; with him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people.

Mat 26:48 Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him."

Mat 26:49 At once he came up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him.

Mat 26:50 Jesus said to him, "Friend, do what you are here to do." Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him.

Mat 26:51 Suddenly, one of those with Jesus put his hand on his sword, drew it, and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

Mat 26:52 Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword.

Mat 26:53 Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels?"

Mat 26:54 But how then would the scriptures be fulfilled, which say it must happen in this way?"

Mat 26:55 At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me.

Mat 26:56 But all this has taken place, so that the scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Mat 26:57 Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas the high priest, in whose house the scribes and the elders had gathered.

Mat 26:58 But Peter was following him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest; and going inside, he sat with the guards in order to see how this would end.

Mat 26:59 Now the chief priests and the whole council were looking for false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death,

Mat 26:60 but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward

Mat 26:61 and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.'"

Mat 26:62 The high priest stood up and said, "Have you no answer? What is it that they testify against you?"

Mat 26:63 But Jesus was silent. Then the high priest said to him, "I put you under oath before the living God, tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God."

Mat 26:64 Jesus said to him, "You have said so. But I tell you, From now on you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

Mat 26:65 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? You have now heard his blasphemy.

Mat 26:66 What is your verdict?" They answered, "He deserves death."

Mat 26:67 Then they spat in his face and struck him; and some slapped him,

Mat 26:68 saying, "Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Who is it that struck you?"

Mat 26:69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant-girl came to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean."

Mat 26:70 But he denied it before all of them, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about."

Mat 26:71 When he went out to the porch, another servant-girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth."

Mat 26:72 Again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man."

Mat 26:73 After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Certainly you are also one of them, for your accent betrays you."

Mat 26:74 Then he began to curse, and he swore an oath, "I do not know the man!" At that moment the cock crowed.

Mat 26:75 Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said: "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

Mat 27:1 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people conferred together against Jesus in order to bring about his death.

Mat 27:2 They bound him, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate the governor.

Mat 27:3 When Judas, his betrayer, saw that Jesus was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders.

Mat 27:4 He said, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? See to it yourself."

Mat 27:5 Throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed; and he went and hanged himself.

Mat 27:6 But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are blood money."

Mat 27:7 After conferring together, they used them to buy the potter's field as a place to bury foreigners.

Mat 27:8 For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

Mat 27:9 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of the one on whom a price had been set, on whom some of the people of Israel had set a price,

Mat 27:10 and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."

Mat 27:11 Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said, "You say so."

Mat 27:12 But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he did not answer.

Mat 27:13 Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many accusations they make against you?"

Mat 27:14 But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Mat 27:15 Now at the festival the governor was accustomed to release a prisoner for the crowd, anyone whom they wanted.

Mat 27:16 At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Jesus Barabbas.

Mat 27:17 So after they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you, Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Messiah?"

Mat 27:18 For he realized that it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over.

Mat 27:19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for today I have suffered a great deal because of a dream about him."

Mat 27:20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.

Mat 27:21 The governor again said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas."

Mat 27:22 Pilate said to them, "Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?" All of them said, "Let him be crucified!"

Mat 27:23 Then he asked, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified!"

Mat 27:24 So when Pilate saw that he could do nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took some water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it yourselves."

Mat 27:25 Then the people as a whole answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!"

Mat 27:26 So he released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

Mat 27:27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's headquarters, and they gathered the whole cohort around him.

Mat 27:28 They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him,

Mat 27:29 and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on his head. They put a reed in his right hand and knelt before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

Mat 27:30 They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head.

Mat 27:31 After mocking him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

Mat 27:32 As they went out, they came upon a man from Cyrene named Simon; they compelled this man to carry his cross.

Mat 27:33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull),

Mat 27:34 they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it.

Mat 27:35 And when they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by casting lots;

Mat 27:36 then they sat down there and kept watch over him.

Mat 27:37 Over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews."

Mat 27:38 Then two bandits were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

Mat 27:39 Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads

Mat 27:40 and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

Mat 27:41 In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking him, saying,

Mat 27:42 "He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.

Mat 27:43 He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he wants to; for he said, 'I am God's Son.'"

Mat 27:44 The bandits who were crucified with him also taunted him in the same way.

Mat 27:45 From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Mat 27:46 And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Mat 27:47 When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, "This man is calling for Elijah."

Mat 27:48 At once one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink.

Mat 27:49 But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him."

Mat 27:50 Then Jesus cried again with a loud voice and breathed his last.

Mat 27:51 At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split.

Mat 27:52 The tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised.

Mat 27:53 After his resurrection they came out of the tombs and entered the holy city and appeared to many.

Mat 27:54 Now when the centurion and those with him, who were keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were terrified and said, "Truly this man was God's Son!"

Mat 27:55 Many women were also there, looking on from a distance; they had followed Jesus from Galilee and had provided for him.

Mat 27:56 Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

Mat 27:57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus.

Mat 27:58 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus; then Pilate ordered it to be given to him.

Mat 27:59 So Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth

Mat 27:60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock. He then rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb and went away.

Mat 27:61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

Mat 27:62 The next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate

Mat 27:63 and said, "Sir, we remember what that impostor said while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise again.'

Mat 27:64 Therefore command the tomb to be made secure until the third day; otherwise his disciples may go and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He has been raised from the dead,' and the last deception would be worse than the first."

Mat 27:65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers; go, make it as secure as you can."

Mat 27:66 So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone.

Mat 28:1 After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

Mat 28:2 And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it.

Mat 28:3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.

Mat 28:4 For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men.

Mat 28:5 But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified.

Mat 28:6 He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay.

Mat 28:7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you."

Mat 28:8 So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples.

Mat 28:9 Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

Mat 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

Mat 28:11 While they were going, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened.

Mat 28:12 After the priests had assembled with the elders, they devised a plan to give a large sum of money to the soldiers,

Mat 28:13 telling them, "You must say, 'His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.'"

Mat 28:14 If this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble."

Mat 28:15 So they took the money and did as they were directed. And this story is still told among the Jews to this day.

Mat 28:16 Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

Mat 28:17 When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted.

Mat 28:18 And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Mat 28:19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

Mat 28:20 and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Mar 1:1 The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Mar 1:2 As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, "See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way;

Mar 1:3 the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,'"

Mar 1:4 John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mar 1:5 And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Mar 1:6 Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

Mar 1:7 He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals.

Mar 1:8 I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Mar 1:9 In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

Mar 1:10 And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him.

Mar 1:11 And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Mar 1:12 And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness.

Mar 1:13 He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him.

Mar 1:14 Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God,

Mar 1:15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

Mar 1:16 As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea-- for they were fishermen.

Mar 1:17 And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people."

Mar 1:18 And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Mar 1:19 As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets.

Mar 1:20 Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Mar 1:21 They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught.

Mar 1:22 They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Mar 1:23 Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit,

Mar 1:24 and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God."

Mar 1:25 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!"

Mar 1:26 And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

Mar 1:27 They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching-- with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."

Mar 1:28 At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Mar 1:29 As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

Mar 1:30 Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once.

Mar 1:31 He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

Mar 1:32 That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons.

Mar 1:33 And the whole city was gathered around the door.

Mar 1:34 And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Mar 1:35 In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed.

Mar 1:36 And Simon and his companions hunted for him.

Mar 1:37 When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you."

Mar 1:38 He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do."

Mar 1:39 And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Mar 1:40 A leper came to him begging him, and kneeling he said to him, "If you choose, you can make me clean."

Mar 1:41 Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I do choose. Be made clean!"

Mar 1:42 Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean.

Mar 1:43 After sternly warning him he sent him away at once,

Mar 1:44 saying to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

Mar 1:45 But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

Mar 2:1 When he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home.

Mar 2:2 So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door; and he was speaking the word to them.

Mar 2:3 Then some people came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them.

Mar 2:4 And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic lay.

Mar 2:5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

Mar 2:6 Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts,

Mar 2:7 "Why does this fellow speak in this way? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

Mar 2:8 At once Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves; and he said to them, "Why do you raise such questions in your hearts?"

Mar 2:9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up and take your mat and walk'?

Mar 2:10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"-- he said to the paralytic--

Mar 2:11 "I say to you, stand up, take your mat and go to your home."

Mar 2:12 And he stood up, and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

Mar 2:13 Jesus went out again beside the sea; the whole crowd gathered around him, and he taught them.

Mar 2:14 As he was walking along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

Mar 2:15 And as he sat at dinner in Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were also sitting with Jesus and his disciples-- for there were many who followed him.

Mar 2:16 When the scribes of the Pharisees saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

Mar 2:17 When Jesus heard this, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

Mar 2:18 Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and people came and said to him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

Mar 2:19 Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

Mar 2:20 The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day.

Mar 2:21 "No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak; otherwise, the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear is made.

Mar 2:22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost, and so are the skins; but one puts new wine into fresh wineskins."

Mar 2:23 One sabbath he was going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain.

Mar 2:24 The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?"

Mar 2:25 And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food?

Mar 2:26 He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions."

Mar 2:27 Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath;

Mar 2:28 so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."

Mar 3:1 Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

Mar 3:2 They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him.

Mar 3:3 And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come forward."

Mar 3:4 Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent.

Mar 3:5 He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

Mar 3:6 The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Mar 3:7 Jesus departed with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed him;

Mar 3:8 hearing all that he was doing, they came to him in great numbers from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and the region around Tyre and Sidon.

Mar 3:9 He told his disciples to have a boat ready for him because of the crowd, so that they would not crush him;

Mar 3:10 for he had cured many, so that all who had diseases pressed upon him to touch him.

Mar 3:11 Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and shouted, "You are the Son of God!"

Mar 3:12 But he sternly ordered them not to make him known.

Mar 3:13 He went up the mountain and called to him those whom he wanted, and they came to him.

Mar 3:14 And he appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, to be with him, and to be sent out to proclaim the message,

Mar 3:15 and to have authority to cast out demons.

Mar 3:16 So he appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter);

Mar 3:17 James son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is,

Sons of Thunder);

Mar 3:18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean,

Mar 3:19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. Then he went home;

Mar 3:20 and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat.

Mar 3:21 When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind."

Mar 3:22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons."

Mar 3:23 And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?

Mar 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

Mar 3:25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

Mar 3:26 And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come.

Mar 3:27 But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

Mar 3:28 "Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter;

Mar 3:29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"--

Mar 3:30 for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Mar 3:31 Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him.

Mar 3:32 A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you."

Mar 3:33 And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

Mar 3:34 And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers!

Mar 3:35 Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Mar 4:1 Again he began to teach beside the sea. Such a very large crowd gathered around him that he got into a boat on the sea and sat there, while the whole crowd was beside the sea on the land.

Mar 4:2 He began to teach them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them:

Mar 4:3 "Listen! A sower went out to sow.

Mar 4:4 And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Mar 4:5 Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up quickly, since it had no depth of soil.

Mar 4:6 And when the sun rose, it was scorched; and since it had no root, it withered away.

Mar 4:7 Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain.

Mar 4:8 Other seed fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirty and sixty and a hundredfold."

Mar 4:9 And he said, "Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

Mar 4:10 When he was alone, those who were around him along with the twelve asked him about the parables.

Mar 4:11 And he said to them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside, everything comes in parables;

Mar 4:12 in order that 'they may indeed look, but not perceive, and may indeed listen, but not understand; so that they may not turn again and be forgiven.'"

Mar 4:13 And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables?

Mar 4:14 The sower sows the word.

Mar 4:15 These are the ones on the path where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them.

Mar 4:16 And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: when they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy.

Mar 4:17 But they have no root, and endure only for a while; then, when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away.

Mar 4:18 And others are those sown among the thorns: these are the ones who hear the word,

Mar 4:19 but the cares of the world, and the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it yields nothing.

Mar 4:20 And these are the ones sown on the good soil: they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold."

Mar 4:21 He said to them, "Is a lamp brought in to be put under the bushel basket, or under the bed, and not on the lampstand?

Mar 4:22 For there is nothing hidden, except to be disclosed; nor is anything secret, except to come to light.

Mar 4:23 Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

Mar 4:24 And he said to them, "Pay attention to what you hear; the measure you give will be the measure you get, and still more will be given you.

Mar 4:25 For to those who have, more will be given; and from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away."

Mar 4:26 He also said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground,

Mar 4:27 and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how.

Mar 4:28 The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

Mar 4:29 But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

Mar 4:30 He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it?

Mar 4:31 It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth;

Mar 4:32 yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

Mar 4:33 With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it;

Mar 4:34 he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Mar 4:35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side."

Mar 4:36 And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him.

Mar 4:37 A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped.

Mar 4:38 But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"

Mar 4:39 He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm.

Mar 4:40 He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?"

Mar 4:41 And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Mar 5:1 They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes.

Mar 5:2 And when he had stepped out of the boat, immediately a man out of the tombs with an unclean spirit met him.

Mar 5:3 He lived among the tombs; and no one could restrain him any more, even with a chain;

Mar 5:4 for he had often been restrained with shackles and chains, but the chains he wrenched apart, and the shackles he broke in pieces; and no one had the strength to subdue him.

Mar 5:5 Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always howling and bruising himself with stones.

Mar 5:6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him;

Mar 5:7 and he shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me."

Mar 5:8 For he had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

Mar 5:9 Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "My name is Legion; for we are many."

Mar 5:10 He begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country.

Mar 5:11 Now there on the hillside a great herd of swine was feeding;

Mar 5:12 and the unclean spirits begged him, "Send us into the swine; let us enter them."

Mar 5:13 So he gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out and entered the swine; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea.

Mar 5:14 The swineherds ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came to see what it was that had happened.

Mar 5:15 They came to Jesus and saw the demoniac sitting there, clothed and in his right mind, the very man who had had the legion; and they were afraid.

Mar 5:16 Those who had seen what had happened to the demoniac and to the swine reported it.

Mar 5:17 Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their neighborhood.

Mar 5:18 As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him.

Mar 5:19 But Jesus refused, and said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you."

Mar 5:20 And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed.

Mar 5:21 When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea.

Mar 5:22 Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet
Mar 5:23 and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live."
Mar 5:24 So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him.
Mar 5:25 Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years.
Mar 5:26 She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse.
Mar 5:27 She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak,
Mar 5:28 for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well."
Mar 5:29 Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.
Mar 5:30 Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?"
Mar 5:31 And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'"
Mar 5:32 He looked all around to see who had done it.
Mar 5:33 But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.
Mar 5:34 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."
Mar 5:35 While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?"
Mar 5:36 But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe."
Mar 5:37 He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.
Mar 5:38 When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.
Mar 5:39 When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping."
Mar 5:40 And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.
Mar 5:41 He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!"
Mar 5:42 And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement.
Mar 5:43 He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.
Mar 6:1 He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.
Mar 6:2 On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!"
Mar 6:3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him.
Mar 6:4 Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house."
Mar 6:5 And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them.
Mar 6:6 And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching.
Mar 6:7 He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.
Mar 6:8 He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts;
Mar 6:9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics.
Mar 6:10 He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place.
Mar 6:11 If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them."
Mar 6:12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent.
Mar 6:13 They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.
Mar 6:14 King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him."
Mar 6:15 But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."
Mar 6:16 But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."
Mar 6:17 For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her.

Mar 6:18 For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
Mar 6:19 And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not,
Mar 6:20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him.
Mar 6:21 But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee.
Mar 6:22 When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it."
Mar 6:23 And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom."
Mar 6:24 She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer."
Mar 6:25 Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter."
Mar 6:26 The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her.
Mar 6:27 Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison,
Mar 6:28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother.
Mar 6:29 When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.
Mar 6:30 The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught.
Mar 6:31 He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.
Mar 6:32 And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.
Mar 6:33 Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.
Mar 6:34 As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.
Mar 6:35 When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late;
Mar 6:36 send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat."
Mar 6:37 But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?"
Mar 6:38 And he said to them, "How many loaves have you? Go and see." When they had found out, they said, "Five, and two fish."
Mar 6:39 Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass.
Mar 6:40 So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties.
Mar 6:41 Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all.
Mar 6:42 And all ate and were filled;
Mar 6:43 and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish.
Mar 6:44 Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men.
Mar 6:45 Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd.
Mar 6:46 After saying farewell to them, he went up on the mountain to pray.
Mar 6:47 When evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land.
Mar 6:48 When he saw that they were straining at the oars against an adverse wind, he came towards them early in the morning, walking on the sea. He intended to pass them by.
Mar 6:49 But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out;
Mar 6:50 for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."
Mar 6:51 Then he got into the boat with them and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded,
Mar 6:52 for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.
Mar 6:53 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat.
Mar 6:54 When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him,
Mar 6:55 and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was.
Mar 6:56 And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Mar 7:1 Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him,
Mar 7:2 they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them.
Mar 7:3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders;
Mar 7:4 and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.)
Mar 7:5 So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?"
Mar 7:6 He said to them, "Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me;
Mar 7:7 in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.'
Mar 7:8 You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition."
Mar 7:9 Then he said to them, "You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition!
Mar 7:10 For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must surely die.'
Mar 7:11 But you say that if anyone tells father or mother, 'Whatever support you might have had from me is Corban' (that is, an offering to God)--
Mar 7:12 then you no longer permit doing anything for a father or mother,
Mar 7:13 thus making void the word of God through your tradition that you have handed on. And you do many things like this."
Mar 7:14 Then he called the crowd again and said to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand:
Mar 7:15 there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile."
Mar 7:16
Mar 7:17 When he had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about the parable.
Mar 7:18 He said to them, "Then do you also fail to understand? Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile, Mar 7:19 since it enters, not the heart but the stomach, and goes out into the sewer?" (Thus he declared all foods clean.)
Mar 7:20 And he said, "It is what comes out of a person that defiles.
Mar 7:21 For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder,
Mar 7:22 adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, folly.
Mar 7:23 All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person."
Mar 7:24 From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice,
Mar 7:25 but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet.
Mar 7:26 Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.
Mar 7:27 He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."
Mar 7:28 But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."
Mar 7:29 Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go-- the demon has left your daughter."
Mar 7:30 So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.
Mar 7:31 Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis.
Mar 7:32 They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him.
Mar 7:33 He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue.
Mar 7:34 Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."
Mar 7:35 And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.
Mar 7:36 Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.
Mar 7:37 They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."
Mar 8:1 In those days when there was again a great crowd without anything to eat, he called his disciples and said to them,

Mar 8:2 "I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat.

Mar 8:3 If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way-- and some of them have come from a great distance."

Mar 8:4 His disciples replied, "How can one feed these people with bread here in the desert?"

Mar 8:5 He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven."

Mar 8:6 Then he ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves, and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to his disciples to distribute; and they distributed them to the crowd.

Mar 8:7 They had also a few small fish; and after blessing them, he ordered that these too should be distributed.

Mar 8:8 They ate and were filled; and they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full.

Mar 8:9 Now there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away.

Mar 8:10 And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

Mar 8:11 The Pharisees came and began to argue with him, asking him for a sign from heaven, to test him.

Mar 8:12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, "Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation."

Mar 8:13 And he left them, and getting into the boat again, he went across to the other side.

Mar 8:14 Now the disciples had forgotten to bring any bread; and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

Mar 8:15 And he cautioned them, saying, "Watch out-- beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

Mar 8:16 They said to one another, "It is because we have no bread."

Mar 8:17 And becoming aware of it, Jesus said to them, "Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened?

Mar 8:18 Do you have eyes, and fail to see? Do you have ears, and fail to hear? And do you not remember?

Mar 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?" They said to him, "Twelve."

Mar 8:20 "And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?" And they said to him, "Seven."

Mar 8:21 Then he said to them, "Do you not yet understand?"

Mar 8:22 They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him.

Mar 8:23 He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village; and when he had put saliva on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, "Can you see anything?"

Mar 8:24 And the man looked up and said, "I can see people, but they look like trees, walking."

Mar 8:25 Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again; and he looked intently and his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.

Mar 8:26 Then he sent him away to his home, saying, "Do not even go into the village."

Mar 8:27 Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?"

Mar 8:28 And they answered him, "John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."

Mar 8:29 He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah."

Mar 8:30 And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Mar 8:31 Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

Mar 8:32 He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

Mar 8:33 But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Mar 8:34 He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Mar 8:35 For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.

Mar 8:36 For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life?

Mar 8:37 Indeed, what can they give in return for their life?

Mar 8:38 Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Mar 9:1 And he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see that the kingdom of God has come with power."

Mar 9:2 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them,

Mar 9:3 and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them.

Mar 9:4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

Mar 9:5 Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

Mar 9:6 He did not know what to say, for they were terrified.

Mar 9:7 Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!"

Mar 9:8 Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

Mar 9:9 As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Mar 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

Mar 9:11 Then they asked him, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

Mar 9:12 He said to them, "Elijah is indeed coming first to restore all things. How then is it written about the Son of Man, that he is to go through many sufferings and be treated with contempt?"

Mar 9:13 But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written about him."

Mar 9:14 When they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

Mar 9:15 When the whole crowd saw him, they were immediately overcome with awe, and they ran forward to greet him.

Mar 9:16 He asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?"

Mar 9:17 Someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought you my son; he has a spirit that makes him unable to speak;

Mar 9:18 and whenever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they could not do so."

Mar 9:19 He answered them, "You faithless generation, how much longer must I be among you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him to me."

Mar 9:20 And they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth.

Mar 9:21 Jesus asked the father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.

Mar 9:22 It has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you are able to do anything, have pity on us and help us."

Mar 9:23 Jesus said to him, "If you are able!-- All things can be done for the one who believes."

Mar 9:24 Immediately the father of the child cried out, "I believe; help my unbelief!"

Mar 9:25 When Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You spirit that keeps this boy from speaking and hearing, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!"

Mar 9:26 After crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead."

Mar 9:27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he was able to stand.

Mar 9:28 When he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

Mar 9:29 He said to them, "This kind can come out only through prayer."

Mar 9:30 They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it;

Mar 9:31 for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again."

Mar 9:32 But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Mar 9:33 Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?"

Mar 9:34 But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest.

Mar 9:35 He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all."

Mar 9:36 Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them,

Mar 9:37 "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Mar 9:38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us."

Mar 9:39 But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me.

Mar 9:40 Whoever is not against us is for us.

Mar 9:41 For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

Mar 9:42 "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea.

Mar 9:43 If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire.

Mar 9:44

Mar 9:45 And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell.

Mar 9:46

Mar 9:47 And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell,

Mar 9:48 where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.

Mar 9:49 "For everyone will be salted with fire.

Mar 9:50 Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Mar 10:1 He left that place and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan. And crowds again gathered around him; and, as was his custom, he again taught them.

Mar 10:2 Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

Mar 10:3 He answered them, "What did Moses command you?"

Mar 10:4 They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her."

Mar 10:5 But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you.

Mar 10:6 But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.'

Mar 10:7 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,

Mar 10:8 and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Mar 10:9 Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

Mar 10:10 Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter.

Mar 10:11 He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her;

Mar 10:12 and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Mar 10:13 People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them.

Mar 10:14 But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Mar 10:15 Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it."

Mar 10:16 And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Mar 10:17 As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Mar 10:18 Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Mar 10:19 You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'"

Mar 10:20 He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth."

Mar 10:21 Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

Mar 10:22 When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Mar 10:23 Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!"

Mar 10:24 And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

Mar 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

Mar 10:26 They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?"

Mar 10:27 Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible."

Mar 10:28 Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you."

Mar 10:29 Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news,

Mar 10:30 who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age-- houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions-- and in the age to come eternal life.

Mar 10:31 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

Mar 10:32 They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them; they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was to happen to him,

Mar 10:33 saying, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death; then they will hand him over to the Gentiles;

Mar 10:34 they will mock him, and spit upon him, and flog him, and kill him; and after three days he will rise again."

Mar 10:35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."

Mar 10:36 And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?"

Mar 10:37 And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."

Mar 10:38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

Mar 10:39 They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;

Mar 10:40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

Mar 10:41 When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John.

Mar 10:42 So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.

Mar 10:43 But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,

Mar 10:44 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.

Mar 10:45 For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Mar 10:46 They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.

Mar 10:47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Mar 10:48 Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Mar 10:49 Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you."

Mar 10:50 So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.

Mar 10:51 Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again."

Mar 10:52 Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Mar 11:1 When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples

Mar 11:2 and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it.

Mar 11:3 If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.'"

Mar 11:4 They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it,

Mar 11:5 some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?"

Mar 11:6 They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it.

Mar 11:7 Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it.

Mar 11:8 Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields.

Mar 11:9 Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Mar 11:10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Mar 11:11 Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Mar 11:12 On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry.

Mar 11:13 Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see whether perhaps he would find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

Mar 11:14 He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it.

Mar 11:15 Then they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling and those who were buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves;

Mar 11:16 and he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple.

Mar 11:17 He was teaching and saying, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers."

Mar 11:18 And when the chief priests and the scribes heard it, they kept looking for a way to kill him; for they were afraid of him, because the whole crowd was spellbound by his teaching.

Mar 11:19 And when evening came, Jesus and his disciples went out of the city.

Mar 11:20 In the morning as they passed by, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots.

Mar 11:21 Then Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered."

Mar 11:22 Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God.

Mar 11:23 Truly I tell you, if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and if you do not doubt in your heart, but believe that what you say will come to pass, it will be done for you.

Mar 11:24 So I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Mar 11:25 "Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses."

Mar 11:26

Mar 11:27 Again they came to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to him

Mar 11:28 and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority to do them?"

Mar 11:29 Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

Mar 11:30 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin? Answer me."

Mar 11:31 They argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?'

Mar 11:32 But shall we say, 'Of human origin?'-- they were afraid of the crowd, for all regarded John as truly a prophet.

Mar 11:33 So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

Mar 12:1 Then he began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a pit for the wine press, and built a watchtower; then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.

Mar 12:2 When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants to collect from them his share of the produce of the vineyard.

Mar 12:3 But they seized him, and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Mar 12:4 And again he sent another slave to them; this one they beat over the head and insulted.

Mar 12:5 Then he sent another, and that one they killed. And so it was with many others; some they beat, and others they killed.

Mar 12:6 He had still one other, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

Mar 12:7 But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'

Mar 12:8 So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mar 12:9 What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others.

Mar 12:10 Have you not read this scripture: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;

Mar 12:11 this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes?'"

Mar 12:12 When they realized that he had told this parable against them, they wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowd. So they left him and went away.

Mar 12:13 Then they sent to him some Pharisees and some Herodians to trap him in what he said.

Mar 12:14 And they came and said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality, but teach the way of God in accordance with truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?"

Mar 12:15 Should we pay them, or should we not?" But knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, "Why are you putting me to the test? Bring me a denarius and let me see it."

Mar 12:16 And they brought one. Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "The emperor's."

Mar 12:17 Jesus said to them, "Give to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were utterly amazed at him.

Mar 12:18 Some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, saying,

Mar 12:19 "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no child, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother.

Mar 12:20 There were seven brothers; the first married and, when he died, left no children;

Mar 12:21 and the second married her and died, leaving no children; and the third likewise;

Mar 12:22 none of the seven left children. Last of all the woman herself died.

Mar 12:23 In the resurrection whose wife will she be? For the seven had married her."

Mar 12:24 Jesus said to them, "Is not this the reason you are wrong, that you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God?"

Mar 12:25 For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

Mar 12:26 And as for the dead being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the story about the bush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?

Mar 12:27 He is God not of the dead, but of the living; you are quite wrong."

Mar 12:28 One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?"

Mar 12:29 Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one;

Mar 12:30 you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'

Mar 12:31 The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Mar 12:32 Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other';

Mar 12:33 and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself,'-- this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Mar 12:34 When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

Mar 12:35 While Jesus was teaching in the temple, he said, "How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David?

Mar 12:36 David himself, by the Holy Spirit, declared, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet.'"

Mar 12:37 David himself calls him Lord; so how can he be his son?" And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

Mar 12:38 As he taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces,

Mar 12:39 and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets!

Mar 12:40 They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

Mar 12:41 He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums.

Mar 12:42 A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny.

Mar 12:43 Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury.

Mar 12:44 For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Mar 13:1 As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!"

Mar 13:2 Then Jesus asked him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down."

Mar 13:3 When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

Mar 13:4 "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?"

Mar 13:5 Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray.

Mar 13:6 Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray.

Mar 13:7 When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come.

Mar 13:8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Mar 13:9 "As for yourselves, beware; for they will hand you over to councils; and you will be beaten in synagogues; and you will stand before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them.

Mar 13:10 And the good news must first be proclaimed to all nations.

Mar 13:11 When they bring you to trial and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say; but say whatever is given you at that time, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

Mar 13:12 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death;

Mar 13:13 and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Mar 13:14 "But when you see the desolating sacrilege set up where it ought not to be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains;

Mar 13:15 the one on the housetop must not go down or enter the house to take anything away;

Mar 13:16 the one in the field must not turn back to get a coat.

Mar 13:17 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days!

Mar 13:18 Pray that it may not be in winter.

Mar 13:19 For in those days there will be suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, no, and never will be.

Mar 13:20 And if the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he has cut short those days.

Mar 13:21 And if anyone says to you at that time, 'Look! Here is the Messiah!' or 'Look! There he is!'-- do not believe it.

Mar 13:22 False messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, the elect.

Mar 13:23 But be alert; I have already told you everything.

Mar 13:24 "But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,

Mar 13:25 and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

Mar 13:26 Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory.

Mar 13:27 Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

Mar 13:28 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

Mar 13:29 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Mar 13:30 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.

Mar 13:31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Mar 13:32 "But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Mar 13:33 Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come.

Mar 13:34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch.

Mar 13:35 Therefore, keep awake-- for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn,

Mar 13:36 or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly.

Mar 13:37 And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

Mar 14:1 It was two days before the Passover and the festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him;

Mar 14:2 for they said, "Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people."

Mar 14:3 While he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

Mar 14:4 But some were there who said to one another in anger, "Why was the ointment wasted in this way?

Mar 14:5 For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor." And they scolded her.

Mar 14:6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; why do you trouble her? She has performed a good service for me.

Mar 14:7 For you always have the poor with you, and you can show kindness to them whenever you wish; but you will not always have me.

Mar 14:8 She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for its burial.

Mar 14:9 Truly I tell you, wherever the good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her."

Mar 14:10 Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.

Mar 14:11 When they heard it, they were greatly pleased, and promised to give him money. So he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

Mar 14:12 On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

Mar 14:13 So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him,

Mar 14:14 and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'

Mar 14:15 He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."

Mar 14:16 So the disciples set out and went to the city, and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

Mar 14:17 When it was evening, he came with the twelve.

Mar 14:18 And when they had taken their places and were eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me."

Mar 14:19 They began to be distressed and to say to him one after another, "Surely, not I?"

Mar 14:20 He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the bowl with me.

Mar 14:21 For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born."

Mar 14:22 While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body."

Mar 14:23 Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it.

Mar 14:24 He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.

Mar 14:25 Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Mar 14:26 When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mar 14:27 And Jesus said to them, "You will all become deserters; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'

Mar 14:28 But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee."

Mar 14:29 Peter said to him, "Even though all become deserters, I will not."

Mar 14:30 Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, this day, this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times."

Mar 14:31 But he said vehemently, "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you." And all of them said the same.

Mar 14:32 They went to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

Mar 14:33 He took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be distressed and agitated.

Mar 14:34 And he said to them, "I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and keep awake."

Mar 14:35 And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

Mar 14:36 He said, "Abba, Father, for you all things are possible; remove this cup from me; yet, not what I want, but what you want."

Mar 14:37 He came and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep awake one hour?"

Mar 14:38 Keep awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

Mar 14:39 And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words.

Mar 14:40 And once more he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to say to him.

Mar 14:41 He came a third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come; the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mar 14:42 Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand."

Mar 14:43 Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; and with him there was a crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.

Mar 14:44 Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard."

Mar 14:45 So when he came, he went up to him at once and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed him.

Mar 14:46 Then they laid hands on him and arrested him.

Mar 14:47 But one of those who stood near drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

Mar 14:48 Then Jesus said to them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit?"

Mar 14:49 Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But let the scriptures be fulfilled."

Mar 14:50 All of them deserted him and fled.

Mar 14:51 A certain young man was following him, wearing nothing but a linen cloth. They caught hold of him,

Mar 14:52 but he left the linen cloth and ran off naked.

Mar 14:53 They took Jesus to the high priest; and all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes were assembled.

Mar 14:54 Peter had followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the guards, warming himself at the fire.

Mar 14:55 Now the chief priests and the whole council were looking for testimony against Jesus to put him to death; but they found none.

Mar 14:56 For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony did not agree.

Mar 14:57 Some stood up and gave false testimony against him, saying,

Mar 14:58 "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another, not made with hands.'"

Mar 14:59 But even on this point their testimony did not agree.

Mar 14:60 Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it that they testify against you?"

Mar 14:61 But he was silent and did not answer. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

Mar 14:62 Jesus said, "I am; and 'you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power,' and 'coming with the clouds of heaven.'"

Mar 14:63 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "Why do we still need witnesses?"

Mar 14:64 You have heard his blasphemy! What is your decision?" All of them condemned him as deserving death.

Mar 14:65 Some began to spit on him, to blindfold him, and to strike him, saying to him, "Prophecy!" The guards also took him over and beat him.

Mar 14:66 While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came by.

Mar 14:67 When she saw Peter warming himself, she stared at him and said, "You also were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth."

Mar 14:68 But he denied it, saying, "I do not know or understand what you are talking about." And he went out into the forecourt. Then the cock crowed.

Mar 14:69 And the servant-girl, on seeing him, began again to say to the bystanders, "This man is one of them."

Mar 14:70 But again he denied it. Then after a little while the bystanders again said to Peter, "Certainly you are one of them; for you are a Galilean."

Mar 14:71 But he began to curse, and he swore an oath, "I do not know this man you are talking about."

Mar 14:72 At that moment the cock crowed for the second time. Then Peter remembered that Jesus had said to him, "Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." And he broke down and wept.

Mar 15:1 As soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate.

Mar 15:2 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "You say so."

Mar 15:3 Then the chief priests accused him of many things.

Mar 15:4 Pilate asked him again, "Have you no answer? See how many charges they bring against you."

Mar 15:5 But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed.

Mar 15:6 Now at the festival he used to release a prisoner for them, anyone for whom they asked.

Mar 15:7 Now a man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection.

Mar 15:8 So the crowd came and began to ask Pilate to do for them according to his custom.

Mar 15:9 Then he answered them, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

Mar 15:10 For he realized that it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed him over.

Mar 15:11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead.

Mar 15:12 Pilate spoke to them again, "Then what do you wish me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?"

Mar 15:13 They shouted back, "Crucify him!"

Mar 15:14 Pilate asked them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Crucify him!"

Mar 15:15 So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

Mar 15:16 Then the soldiers led him into the courtyard of the palace (that is, the governor's headquarters); and they called together the whole cohort.

Mar 15:17 And they clothed him in a purple cloak; and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on him.

Mar 15:18 And they began saluting him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

Mar 15:19 They struck his head with a reed, spat upon him, and knelt down in homage to him.

Mar 15:20 After mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

Mar 15:21 They compelled a passer-by, who was coming in from the country, to carry his cross; it was Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus.

Mar 15:22 Then they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull).

Mar 15:23 And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh; but he did not take it.

Mar 15:24 And they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, casting lots to decide what each should take.

Mar 15:25 It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him.

Mar 15:26 The inscription of the charge against him read, "The King of the Jews."

Mar 15:27 And with him they crucified two bandits, one on his right and one on his left.

Mar 15:28

Mar 15:29 Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, Mar 15:30 save yourself, and come down from the cross!"

Mar 15:31 In the same way the chief priests, along with the scribes, were also mocking him among themselves and saying, "He saved others; he cannot save himself.

Mar 15:32 Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now, so that we may see and believe." Those who were crucified with him also taunted him.

Mar 15:33 When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Mar 15:34 At three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Mar 15:35 When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, "Listen, he is calling for Elijah."

Mar 15:36 And someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down."

Mar 15:37 Then Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

Mar 15:38 And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.

Mar 15:39 Now when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was God's Son!"

Mar 15:40 There were also women looking on from a distance; among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

Mar 15:41 These used to follow him and provided for him when he was in Galilee; and there were many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

Mar 15:42 When evening had come, and since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

Mar 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council, who was also himself waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Mar 15:44 Then Pilate wondered if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead for some time.

Mar 15:45 When he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the body to Joseph.

Mar 15:46 Then Joseph bought a linen cloth, and taking down the body, wrapped it in the linen cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

Mar 15:47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where the body was laid.

Mar 16:1 When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him.

Mar 16:2 And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb.

Mar 16:3 They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

Mar 16:4 When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back.

Mar 16:5 As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

Mar 16:6 But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him.

Mar 16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you."

Mar 16:8 So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mar 16:9 Now after he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.

Mar 16:10 She went out and told those who had been with him, while they were mourning and weeping.

Mar 16:11 But when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they would not believe it.

Mar 16:12 After this he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking into the country.

Mar 16:13 And they went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them.

Mar 16:14 Later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were sitting at the table; and he upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen.

Mar 16:15 And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation.

Mar 16:16 The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned.

Mar 16:17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: by using my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

Mar 16:18 they will pick up snakes in their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Mar 16:19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

Mar 16:20 And they went out and proclaimed the good news everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by the signs that accompanied it.

Luk 1:1 Since many have undertaken to set down an orderly account of the events that have been fulfilled among us,

Luk 1:2 just as they were handed on to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word,

Luk 1:3 I too decided, after investigating everything carefully from the very first, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,

Luk 1:4 so that you may know the truth concerning the things about which you have been instructed.

Luk 1:5 In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

Luk 1:6 Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord.

Luk 1:7 But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

Luk 1:8 Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty,

Luk 1:9 he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense.

Luk 1:10 Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside.

Luk 1:11 Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

Luk 1:12 When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him.

Luk 1:13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John.

Luk 1:14 You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth,

Luk 1:15 for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Luk 1:16 He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God.

Luk 1:17 With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

Luk 1:18 Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know that this is so? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years."

Luk 1:19 The angel replied, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.

Luk 1:20 But now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will become mute, unable to speak, until the day these things occur."

Luk 1:21 Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondered at his delay in the sanctuary.

Luk 1:22 When he did come out, he could not speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept motioning to them and remained unable to speak.

Luk 1:23 When his time of service was ended, he went to his home.

Luk 1:24 After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said,

Luk 1:25 "This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people."

Luk 1:26 In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, Luk 1:27 to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

Luk 1:28 And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you."

Luk 1:29 But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.
Luk 1:30 The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.
Luk 1:31 And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus.
Luk 1:32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David.
Luk 1:33 He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."
Luk 1:34 Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?"
Luk 1:35 The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God.
Luk 1:36 And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren.
Luk 1:37 For nothing will be impossible with God."
Luk 1:38 Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.
Luk 1:39 In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country,
Luk 1:40 where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.
Luk 1:41 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit
Luk 1:42 and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
Luk 1:43 And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me?
Luk 1:44 For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy.
Luk 1:45 And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."
Luk 1:46 And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord,
Luk 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
Luk 1:48 for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
Luk 1:49 for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.
Luk 1:50 His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.
Luk 1:51 He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
Luk 1:52 He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly;
Luk 1:53 he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.
Luk 1:54 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy,
Luk 1:55 according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."
Luk 1:56 And Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.
Luk 1:57 Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son.
Luk 1:58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.
Luk 1:59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him Zechariah after his father.
Luk 1:60 But his mother said, "No; he is to be called John."
Luk 1:61 They said to her, "None of your relatives has this name."
Luk 1:62 Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him.
Luk 1:63 He asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And all of them were amazed.
Luk 1:64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began to speak, praising God.
Luk 1:65 Fear came over all their neighbors, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea.
Luk 1:66 All who heard them pondered them and said, "What then will this child become?" For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him.
Luk 1:67 Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke this prophecy:
Luk 1:68 "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has looked favorably on his people and redeemed them.
Luk 1:69 He has raised up a mighty savior for us in the house of his servant David,
Luk 1:70 as he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,
Luk 1:71 that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.
Luk 1:72 Thus he has shown the mercy promised to our ancestors, and has remembered his holy covenant,
Luk 1:73 the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham, to grant us
Luk 1:74 that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear,
Luk 1:75 in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.
Luk 1:76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,

Luk 1:77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins.

Luk 1:78 By the tender mercy of our God, the dawn from on high will break upon us,

Luk 1:79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

Luk 1:80 The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day he appeared publicly to Israel.

Luk 2:1 In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered.

Luk 2:2 This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria.

Luk 2:3 All went to their own towns to be registered.

Luk 2:4 Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David.

Luk 2:5 He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.

Luk 2:6 While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child.

Luk 2:7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Luk 2:8 In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Luk 2:9 Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

Luk 2:10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people:

Luk 2:11 to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.

Luk 2:12 This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger."

Luk 2:13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

Luk 2:14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

Luk 2:15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us."

Luk 2:16 So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

Luk 2:17 When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child;

Luk 2:18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them.

Luk 2:19 But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

Luk 2:20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Luk 2:21 After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Luk 2:22 When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

Luk 2:23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"),

Luk 2:24 and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Luk 2:25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him.

Luk 2:26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah.

Luk 2:27 Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law,

Luk 2:28 Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

Luk 2:29 "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word;

Luk 2:30 for my eyes have seen your salvation,

Luk 2:31 which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

Luk 2:32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."

Luk 2:33 And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him.

Luk 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed Luk 2:35 so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed-- and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

Luk 2:36 There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage,

Luk 2:37 then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day.

Luk 2:38 At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luk 2:39 When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

Luk 2:40 The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Luk 2:41 Now every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover.

Luk 2:42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up as usual for the festival.

Luk 2:43 When the festival was ended and they started to return, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it.

Luk 2:44 Assuming that he was in the group of travelers, they went a day's journey. Then they started to look for him among their relatives and friends.

Luk 2:45 When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him.

Luk 2:46 After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

Luk 2:47 And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

Luk 2:48 When his parents saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in great anxiety."

Luk 2:49 He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

Luk 2:50 But they did not understand what he said to them.

Luk 2:51 Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

Luk 2:52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.

Luk 3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene,

Luk 3:2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

Luk 3:3 He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins,

Luk 3:4 as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.'

Luk 3:5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth;

Luk 3:6 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

Luk 3:7 John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Luk 3:8 Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Luk 3:9 Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

Luk 3:10 And the crowds asked him, "What then should we do?"

Luk 3:11 In reply he said to them, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise."

Luk 3:12 Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

Luk 3:13 He said to them, "Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you."

Luk 3:14 Soldiers also asked him, "And we, what should we do?" He said to them, "Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages."

Luk 3:15 As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah,

Luk 3:16 John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Luk 3:17 His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

Luk 3:18 So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Luk 3:19 But Herod the ruler, who had been rebuked by him because of Herodias, his brother's wife, and because of all the evil things that Herod had done,

Luk 3:20 added to them all by shutting up John in prison.

Luk 3:21 Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened,

Luk 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Luk 3:23 Jesus was about thirty years old when he began his work. He was the son (as was thought) of Joseph son of Heli,

Luk 3:24 son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, son of Joseph,

Luk 3:25 son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai,

Luk 3:26 son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda,

Luk 3:27 son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri,

Luk 3:28 son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,

Luk 3:29 son of Joshua, son of Eliezer, son of Jorim, son of Matthat, son of Levi,

Luk 3:30 son of Simeon, son of Judah, son of Joseph, son of Jonam, son of Eliakim,

Luk 3:31 son of Melea, son of Menna, son of Mattatha, son of Nathan, son of David,

Luk 3:32 son of Jesse, son of Obed, son of Boaz, son of Sala, son of Nahshon,

Luk 3:33 son of Amminadab, son of Admin, son of Arni, son of Hezron, son of Perez, son of Judah,

Luk 3:34 son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, son of Terah, son of Nahor,

Luk 3:35 son of Serug, son of Reu, son of Peleg, son of Eber, son of Shelah,

Luk 3:36 son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad, son of Shem, son of Noah, son of Lamech,

Luk 3:37 son of Methuselah, son of Enoch, son of Jared, son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan, Luk 3:38 son of Enos, son of Seth, son of Adam, son of God.

Luk 4:1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness,

Luk 4:2 where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished.

Luk 4:3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread."

Luk 4:4 Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Luk 4:5 Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.

Luk 4:6 And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please.

Luk 4:7 If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours."

Luk 4:8 Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

Luk 4:9 Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here,

Luk 4:10 for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,'

Luk 4:11 and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Luk 4:12 Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Luk 4:13 When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Luk 4:14 Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country.

Luk 4:15 He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

Luk 4:16 When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read,

Luk 4:17 and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

Luk 4:18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, Luk 4:19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

Luk 4:20 And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.

Luk 4:21 Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Luk 4:22 All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?"

Luk 4:23 He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.'"

Luk 4:24 And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown."

Luk 4:25 But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land;

Luk 4:26 yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon.

Luk 4:27 There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

Luk 4:28 When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage.

Luk 4:29 They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff.

Luk 4:30 But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Luk 4:31 He went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and was teaching them on the sabbath.

Luk 4:32 They were astounded at his teaching, because he spoke with authority.

Luk 4:33 In the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,

Luk 4:34 "Let us alone! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God."

Luk 4:35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down before them, he came out of him without having done him any harm.

Luk 4:36 They were all amazed and kept saying to one another, "What kind of utterance is this? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and out they come!"

Luk 4:37 And a report about him began to reach every place in the region.

Luk 4:38 After leaving the synagogue he entered Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked him about her.

Luk 4:39 Then he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. Immediately she got up and began to serve them.

Luk 4:40 As the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various kinds of diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on each of them and cured them.

Luk 4:41 Demons also came out of many, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

Luk 4:42 At daybreak he departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowds were looking for him; and when they reached him, they wanted to prevent him from leaving them.

Luk 4:43 But he said to them, "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose."

Luk 4:44 So he continued proclaiming the message in the synagogues of Judea.

Luk 5:1 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God,

Luk 5:2 he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.

Luk 5:3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

Luk 5:4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

Luk 5:5 Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets."

Luk 5:6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break.

Luk 5:7 So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

Luk 5:8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

Luk 5:9 For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken;

Luk 5:10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people."

Luk 5:11 When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Luk 5:12 Once, when he was in one of the cities, there was a man covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean."

Luk 5:13 Then Jesus stretched out his hand, touched him, and said, "I do choose. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left him.

Luk 5:14 And he ordered him to tell no one. "Go," he said, "and show yourself to the priest, and, as Moses commanded, make an offering for your cleansing, for a testimony to them."

Luk 5:15 But now more than ever the word about Jesus spread abroad; many crowds would gather to hear him and to be cured of their diseases.

Luk 5:16 But he would withdraw to deserted places and pray.

Luk 5:17 One day, while he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting near by (they had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem); and the power of the Lord was with him to heal.

Luk 5:18 Just then some men came, carrying a paralyzed man on a bed. They were trying to bring him in and lay him before Jesus;

Luk 5:19 but finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the middle of the crowd in front of Jesus.

Luk 5:20 When he saw their faith, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you."

Luk 5:21 Then the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, "Who is this who is speaking blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

Luk 5:22 When Jesus perceived their questionings, he answered them, "Why do you raise such questions in your hearts?"

Luk 5:23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Stand up and walk'?

Luk 5:24 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"-- he said to the one who was paralyzed-- "I say to you, stand up and take your bed and go to your home."

Luk 5:25 Immediately he stood up before them, took what he had been lying on, and went to his home, glorifying God.

Luk 5:26 Amazement seized all of them, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

Luk 5:27 After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me."

Luk 5:28 And he got up, left everything, and followed him.

Luk 5:29 Then Levi gave a great banquet for him in his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others sitting at the table with them.

Luk 5:30 The Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

Luk 5:31 Jesus answered, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick;

Luk 5:32 I have come to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance."

Luk 5:33 Then they said to him, "John's disciples, like the disciples of the Pharisees, frequently fast and pray, but your disciples eat and drink.

Luk 5:34 Jesus said to them, "You cannot make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?"

Luk 5:35 The days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."

Luk 5:36 He also told them a parable: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and sews it on an old garment; otherwise the new will be torn, and the piece from the new will not match the old.

Luk 5:37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new wine will burst the skins and will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.

Luk 5:38 But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.

Luk 5:39 And no one after drinking old wine desires new wine, but says, 'The old is good.'"

Luk 6:1 One sabbath while Jesus was going through the grainfields, his disciples plucked some heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate them.

Luk 6:2 But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?"

Luk 6:3 Jesus answered, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Luk 6:4 He entered the house of God and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and gave some to his companions?"

Luk 6:5 Then he said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."

Luk 6:6 On another sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there whose right hand was withered.

Luk 6:7 The scribes and the Pharisees watched him to see whether he would cure on the sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against him.

Luk 6:8 Even though he knew what they were thinking, he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come and stand here." He got up and stood there.

Luk 6:9 Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to destroy it?"

Luk 6:10 After looking around at all of them, he said to him, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored.

Luk 6:11 But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Luk 6:12 Now during those days he went out to the mountain to pray; and he spent the night in prayer to God.

Luk 6:13 And when day came, he called his disciples and chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles:

Luk 6:14 Simon, whom he named Peter, and his brother Andrew, and James, and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew,

Luk 6:15 and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Simon, who was called the Zealot,
Luk 6:16 and Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.
Luk 6:17 He came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon.
Luk 6:18 They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured.
Luk 6:19 And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them.
Luk 6:20 Then he looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.
Luk 6:21 "Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.
Luk 6:22 "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man.
Luk 6:23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.
Luk 6:24 "But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.
Luk 6:25 "Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. "Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.
Luk 6:26 "Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.
Luk 6:27 "But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
Luk 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.
Luk 6:29 If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.
Luk 6:30 Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again.
Luk 6:31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.
Luk 6:32 "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
Luk 6:33 If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
Luk 6:34 If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
Luk 6:35 But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.
Luk 6:36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.
Luk 6:37 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven;
Luk 6:38 give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."
Luk 6:39 He also told them a parable: "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?
Luk 6:40 A disciple is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully qualified will be like the teacher.
Luk 6:41 Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye?
Luk 6:42 Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Friend, let me take out the speck in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.
Luk 6:43 "No good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit;
Luk 6:44 for each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush.
Luk 6:45 The good person out of the good treasure of the heart produces good, and the evil person out of evil treasure produces evil; for it is out of the abundance of the heart that the mouth speaks.
Luk 6:46 "Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I tell you?
Luk 6:47 I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them.
Luk 6:48 That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built.
Luk 6:49 But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against it, immediately it fell, and great was the ruin of that house."
Luk 7:1 After Jesus had finished all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.
Luk 7:2 A centurion there had a slave whom he valued highly, and who was ill and close to death.
Luk 7:3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and heal his slave.
Luk 7:4 When they came to Jesus, they appealed to him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy of having you do this for him, Luk 7:5 for he loves our people, and it is he who built our synagogue for us."

Luk 7:6 And Jesus went with them, but when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof;

Luk 7:7 therefore I did not presume to come to you. But only speak the word, and let my servant be healed.

Luk 7:8 For I also am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and the slave does it."

Luk 7:9 When Jesus heard this he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, he said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith."

Luk 7:10 When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

Luk 7:11 Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him.

Luk 7:12 As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town.

Luk 7:13 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, "Do not weep."

Luk 7:14 Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, rise!"

Luk 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

Luk 7:16 Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us!" and "God has looked favorably on his people!"

Luk 7:17 This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Luk 7:18 The disciples of John reported all these things to him. So John summoned two of his disciples

Luk 7:19 and sent them to the Lord to ask, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?"

Luk 7:20 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?'"

Luk 7:21 Jesus had just then cured many people of diseases, plagues, and evil spirits, and had given sight to many who were blind.

Luk 7:22 And he answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news brought to them.

Luk 7:23 And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

Luk 7:24 When John's messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

Luk 7:25 What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who put on fine clothing and live in luxury are in royal palaces.

Luk 7:26 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Luk 7:27 This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.'

Luk 7:28 I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

Luk 7:29 (And all the people who heard this, including the tax collectors, acknowledged the justice of God, because they had been baptized with John's baptism.

Luk 7:30 But by refusing to be baptized by him, the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves.)

Luk 7:31 "To what then will I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like?

Luk 7:32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not weep.'

Luk 7:33 For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon';

Luk 7:34 the Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

Luk 7:35 Nevertheless, wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

Luk 7:36 One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table.

Luk 7:37 And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment.

Luk 7:38 She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment.

Luk 7:39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him-- that she is a sinner."

Luk 7:40 Jesus spoke up and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." "Teacher," he replied, "Speak."

Luk 7:41 "A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

Luk 7:42 When they could not pay, he canceled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?"

Luk 7:43 Simon answered, "I suppose the one for whom he canceled the greater debt." And Jesus said to him, "You have judged rightly."

Luk 7:44 Then turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

Luk 7:45 You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet.

Luk 7:46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.

Luk 7:47 Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little."

Luk 7:48 Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

Luk 7:49 But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

Luk 7:50 And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Luk 8:1 Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him,

Luk 8:2 as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,

Luk 8:3 and Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.

Luk 8:4 When a great crowd gathered and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable:

Luk 8:5 "A sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell on the path and was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up.

Luk 8:6 Some fell on the rock; and as it grew up, it withered for lack of moisture.

Luk 8:7 Some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it.

Luk 8:8 Some fell into good soil, and when it grew, it produced a hundredfold." As he said this, he called out, "Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

Luk 8:9 Then his disciples asked him what this parable meant.

Luk 8:10 He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to others I speak in parables, so that 'looking they may not perceive, and listening they may not understand.'

Luk 8:11 "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

Luk 8:12 The ones on the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.

Luk 8:13 The ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe only for a while and in a time of testing fall away.

Luk 8:14 As for what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear; but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.

Luk 8:15 But as for that in the good soil, these are the ones who, when they hear the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance.

Luk 8:16 "No one after lighting a lamp hides it under a jar, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light.

Luk 8:17 For nothing is hidden that will not be disclosed, nor is anything secret that will not become known and come to light.

Luk 8:18 Then pay attention to how you listen; for to those who have, more will be given; and from those who do not have, even what they seem to have will be taken away."

Luk 8:19 Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd.

Luk 8:20 And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

Luk 8:21 But he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

Luk 8:22 One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they put out,

Luk 8:23 and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A windstorm swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.

Luk 8:24 They went to him and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm.

Luk 8:25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

Luk 8:26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

Luk 8:27 As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs.

Luk 8:28 When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me"--

Luk 8:29 for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.)

Luk 8:30 Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him.

Luk 8:31 They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Luk 8:32 Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission.

Luk 8:33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

Luk 8:34 When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country.

Luk 8:35 Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

Luk 8:36 Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed.

Luk 8:37 Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned.

Luk 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying,

Luk 8:39 "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Luk 8:40 Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.

Luk 8:41 Just then there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house,

Luk 8:42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying. As he went, the crowds pressed in on him.

Luk 8:43 Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her.

Luk 8:44 She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped.

Luk 8:45 Then Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you."

Luk 8:46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out from me."

Luk 8:47 When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed.

Luk 8:48 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."

Luk 8:49 While he was still speaking, someone came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer."

Luk 8:50 When Jesus heard this, he replied, "Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved."

Luk 8:51 When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter, John, and James, and the child's father and mother.

Luk 8:52 They were all weeping and wailing for her; but he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping."

Luk 8:53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

Luk 8:54 But he took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!"

Luk 8:55 Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he directed them to give her something to eat.

Luk 8:56 Her parents were astounded; but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Luk 9:1 Then Jesus called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases,

Luk 9:2 and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal.

Luk 9:3 He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money-- not even an extra tunic.

Luk 9:4 Whatever house you enter, stay there, and leave from there.

Luk 9:5 Wherever they do not welcome you, as you are leaving that town shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them."

Luk 9:6 They departed and went through the villages, bringing the good news and curing diseases everywhere.

Luk 9:7 Now Herod the ruler heard about all that had taken place, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead,

Luk 9:8 by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the ancient prophets had arisen.

Luk 9:9 Herod said, "John I beheaded; but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he tried to see him.

Luk 9:10 On their return the apostles told Jesus all they had done. He took them with him and withdrew privately to a city called Bethsaida.

Luk 9:11 When the crowds found out about it, they followed him; and he welcomed them, and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured.

Luk 9:12 The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place."

Luk 9:13 But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish-- unless we are to go and buy food for all these people."

Luk 9:14 For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each."

Luk 9:15 They did so and made them all sit down.

Luk 9:16 And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

Luk 9:17 And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Luk 9:18 Once when Jesus was praying alone, with only the disciples near him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

Luk 9:19 They answered, "John the Baptist; but others, Elijah; and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has arisen."

Luk 9:20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Messiah of God."

Luk 9:21 He sternly ordered and commanded them not to tell anyone,

Luk 9:22 saying, "The Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

Luk 9:23 Then he said to them all, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.

Luk 9:24 For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will save it.

Luk 9:25 What does it profit them if they gain the whole world, but lose or forfeit themselves?

Luk 9:26 Those who are ashamed of me and of my words, of them the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Luk 9:27 But truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

Luk 9:28 Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray.

Luk 9:29 And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Luk 9:30 Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him.

Luk 9:31 They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Luk 9:32 Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him.

Luk 9:33 Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"-- not knowing what he said.

Luk 9:34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud.

Luk 9:35 Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!"

Luk 9:36 When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Luk 9:37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.

Luk 9:38 Just then a man from the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child.

Luk 9:39 Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him.

Luk 9:40 I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

Luk 9:41 Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

Luk 9:42 While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

Luk 9:43 And all were astounded at the greatness of God. While everyone was amazed at all that he was doing, he said to his disciples,

Luk 9:44 "Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands."

Luk 9:45 But they did not understand this saying; its meaning was concealed from them, so that they could not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

Luk 9:46 An argument arose among them as to which one of them was the greatest.

Luk 9:47 But Jesus, aware of their inner thoughts, took a little child and put it by his side,

Luk 9:48 and said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me; for the least among all of you is the greatest."

Luk 9:49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us."

Luk 9:50 But Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him; for whoever is not against you is for you."

Luk 9:51 When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem.

Luk 9:52 And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him;

Luk 9:53 but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.

Luk 9:54 When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

Luk 9:55 But he turned and rebuked them.

Luk 9:56 Then they went on to another village.

Luk 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

Luk 9:58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

Luk 9:59 To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

Luk 9:60 But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

Luk 9:61 Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home."

Luk 9:62 Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Luk 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.

Luk 10:2 He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

Luk 10:3 Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves.

Luk 10:4 Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.

Luk 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!'

Luk 10:6 And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.

Luk 10:7 Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Luk 10:8 Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you;

Luk 10:9 cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

Luk 10:10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,

Luk 10:11 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.'

Luk 10:12 I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

Luk 10:13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Luk 10:14 But at the judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Luk 10:15 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades.

Luk 10:16 "Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

Luk 10:17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!"

Luk 10:18 He said to them, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.

Luk 10:19 See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you.

Luk 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

Luk 10:21 At that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.

Luk 10:22 All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

Luk 10:23 Then turning to the disciples, Jesus said to them privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!

Luk 10:24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it."

Luk 10:25 Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Luk 10:26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"

Luk 10:27 He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

Luk 10:28 And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

Luk 10:29 But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Luk 10:30 Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

Luk 10:31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

Luk 10:32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

Luk 10:33 But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity.

Luk 10:34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

Luk 10:35 The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.'

Luk 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

Luk 10:37 He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Luk 10:38 Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

Luk 10:39 She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying.

Luk 10:40 But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me."

Luk 10:41 But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things;

Luk 10:42 there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

Luk 11:1 He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples."

Luk 11:2 He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come.

Luk 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread.

Luk 11:4 And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial."

Luk 11:5 And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread;

Luk 11:6 for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.'

Luk 11:7 And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.'

Luk 11:8 I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

Luk 11:9 "So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Luk 11:10 For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

Luk 11:11 Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish?

Luk 11:12 Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion?

Luk 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

Luk 11:14 Now he was casting out a demon that was mute; when the demon had gone out, the one who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were amazed.

Luk 11:15 But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons."

Luk 11:16 Others, to test him, kept demanding from him a sign from heaven.

Luk 11:17 But he knew what they were thinking and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself becomes a desert, and house falls on house.

Luk 11:18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand?-- for you say that I cast out the demons by Beelzebul.

Luk 11:19 Now if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your exorcists cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

Luk 11:20 But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out the demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Luk 11:21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his castle, his property is safe.

Luk 11:22 But when one stronger than he attacks him and overpowers him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted and divides his plunder.

Luk 11:23 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

Luk 11:24 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it wanders through waterless regions looking for a resting place, but not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'

Luk 11:25 When it comes, it finds it swept and put in order.

Luk 11:26 Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there; and the last state of that person is worse than the first."

Luk 11:27 While he was saying this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts that nursed you!"

Luk 11:28 But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it!"

Luk 11:29 When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation; it asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

Luk 11:30 For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be to this generation.

Luk 11:31 The queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here!

Luk 11:32 The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

Luk 11:33 "No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar, but on the lampstand so that those who enter may see the light.

Luk 11:34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. If your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light; but if it is not healthy, your body is full of darkness.

Luk 11:35 Therefore consider whether the light in you is not darkness.

Luk 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be as full of light as when a lamp gives you light with its rays."

Luk 11:37 While he was speaking, a Pharisee invited him to dine with him; so he went in and took his place at the table.

Luk 11:38 The Pharisee was amazed to see that he did not first wash before dinner.

Luk 11:39 Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

Luk 11:40 You fools! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

Luk 11:41 So give for alms those things that are within; and see, everything will be clean for you.

Luk 11:42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and herbs of all kinds, and neglect justice and the love of God; it is these you ought to have practiced, without neglecting the others.

Luk 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love to have the seat of honor in the synagogues and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces.

Luk 11:44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without realizing it."

Luk 11:45 One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us too."

Luk 11:46 And he said, "Woe also to you lawyers! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not lift a finger to ease them.

Luk 11:47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your ancestors killed.

Luk 11:48 So you are witnesses and approve of the deeds of your ancestors; for they killed them, and you build their tombs.

Luk 11:49 Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,'

Luk 11:50 so that this generation may be charged with the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world,

Luk 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation.

Luk 11:52 Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering."

Luk 11:53 When he went outside, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile toward him and to cross-examine him about many things,

Luk 11:54 lying in wait for him, to catch him in something he might say.

Luk 12:1 Meanwhile, when the crowd gathered by the thousands, so that they trampled on one another, he began to speak first to his disciples, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, that is, their hypocrisy.

Luk 12:2 Nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known.

Luk 12:3 Therefore whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops.

Luk 12:4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more.

Luk 12:5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him!

Luk 12:6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten in God's sight.

Luk 12:7 But even the hairs of your head are all counted. Do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Luk 12:8 "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God;

Luk 12:9 but whoever denies me before others will be denied before the angels of God.

Luk 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Luk 12:11 When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say;

Luk 12:12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what you ought to say."

Luk 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me."

Luk 12:14 But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?"

Luk 12:15 And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions."

Luk 12:16 Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly.

Luk 12:17 And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?'

Luk 12:18 Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

Luk 12:19 And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'

Luk 12:20 But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

Luk 12:21 So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

Luk 12:22 He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear.

Luk 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.

Luk 12:24 Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds!

Luk 12:25 And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?

Luk 12:26 If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest?

Luk 12:27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

Luk 12:28 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you-- you of little faith!

Luk 12:29 And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying.

Luk 12:30 For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

Luk 12:31 Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

Luk 12:32 "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Luk 12:33 Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

Luk 12:34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Luk 12:35 "Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit;

Luk 12:36 be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks.

Luk 12:37 Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them.

Luk 12:38 If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

Luk 12:39 "But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

Luk 12:40 You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

Luk 12:41 Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?"

Luk 12:42 And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and prudent manager whom his master will put in charge of his slaves, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

Luk 12:43 Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives.

Luk 12:44 Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.

Luk 12:45 But if that slave says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and if he begins to beat the other slaves, men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk,

Luk 12:46 the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and put him with the unfaithful.

Luk 12:47 That slave who knew what his master wanted, but did not prepare himself or do what was wanted, will receive a severe beating.

Luk 12:48 But the one who did not know and did what deserved a beating will receive a light beating. From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.

Luk 12:49 "I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

Luk 12:50 I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed!

Luk 12:51 Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

Luk 12:52 From now on five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three;

Luk 12:53 they will be divided: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

Luk 12:54 He also said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, 'It is going to rain'; and so it happens.

Luk 12:55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat'; and it happens.

Luk 12:56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Luk 12:57 "And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?

Luk 12:58 Thus, when you go with your accuser before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle the case, or you may be dragged before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in prison.

Luk 12:59 I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny."

Luk 13:1 At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

Luk 13:2 He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans?

Luk 13:3 No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did.

Luk 13:4 Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them-- do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem?

Luk 13:5 No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did."

Luk 13:6 Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none.

Luk 13:7 So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?'

Luk 13:8 He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it.

Luk 13:9 If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

Luk 13:10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

Luk 13:11 And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight.

Luk 13:12 When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment."

Luk 13:13 When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God.

Luk 13:14 But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day."

Luk 13:15 But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water?

Luk 13:16 And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?"

Luk 13:17 When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Luk 13:18 He said therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what should I compare it?"

Luk 13:19 It is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in the garden; it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches."

Luk 13:20 And again he said, "To what should I compare the kingdom of God?"

Luk 13:21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened."

Luk 13:22 Jesus went through one town and village after another, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem.

Luk 13:23 Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" He said to them, Luk 13:24 "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able.

Luk 13:25 When once the owner of the house has got up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us,' then in reply he will say to you, 'I do not know where you come from.'

Luk 13:26 Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.'

Luk 13:27 But he will say, 'I do not know where you come from; go away from me, all you evildoers!'

Luk 13:28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrown out.

Luk 13:29 Then people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God.

Luk 13:30 Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Luk 13:31 At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you."

Luk 13:32 He said to them, "Go and tell that fox for me, 'Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work.

Luk 13:33 Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.'

Luk 13:34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!

Luk 13:35 See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Luk 14:1 On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

Luk 14:2 Just then, in front of him, there was a man who had dropsy.

Luk 14:3 And Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, "Is it lawful to cure people on the sabbath, or not?"

Luk 14:4 But they were silent. So Jesus took him and healed him, and sent him away.

Luk 14:5 Then he said to them, "If one of you has a child or an ox that has fallen into a well, will you not immediately pull it out on a sabbath day?"

Luk 14:6 And they could not reply to this.

Luk 14:7 When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable.

Luk 14:8 "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host;

Luk 14:9 and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place.

Luk 14:10 But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.

Luk 14:11 For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

Luk 14:12 He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid.

Luk 14:13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

Luk 14:14 And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Luk 14:15 One of the dinner guests, on hearing this, said to him, "Blessed is anyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

Luk 14:16 Then Jesus said to him, "Someone gave a great dinner and invited many.

Luk 14:17 At the time for the dinner he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for everything is ready now.'

Luk 14:18 But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land, and I must go out and see it; please accept my regrets.'

Luk 14:19 Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please accept my regrets.'

Luk 14:20 Another said, 'I have just been married, and therefore I cannot come.'

Luk 14:21 So the slave returned and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.'

Luk 14:22 And the slave said, 'Sir, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.'

Luk 14:23 Then the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the roads and lanes, and compel people to come in, so that my house may be filled.'

Luk 14:24 For I tell you, none of those who were invited will taste my dinner."

Luk 14:25 Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them,

Luk 14:26 "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple.

Luk 14:27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

Luk 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it?

Luk 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him,

Luk 14:30 saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.'

Luk 14:31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand?

Luk 14:32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace.

Luk 14:33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Luk 14:34 "Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored?

Luk 14:35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; they throw it away. Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

Luk 15:1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him.

Luk 15:2 And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

Luk 15:3 So he told them this parable:

Luk 15:4 "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it?

Luk 15:5 When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices.

Luk 15:6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.'

Luk 15:7 Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Luk 15:8 "Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?

Luk 15:9 When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.'

Luk 15:10 Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Luk 15:11 Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons.

Luk 15:12 The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them.

Luk 15:13 A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living.

Luk 15:14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need.

Luk 15:15 So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs.

Luk 15:16 He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything.

Luk 15:17 But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger!

Luk 15:18 I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you;

Luk 15:19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."

Luk 15:20 So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.

Luk 15:21 Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

Luk 15:22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe-- the best one-- and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

Luk 15:23 And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate;

Luk 15:24 for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!" And they began to celebrate.

Luk 15:25 "Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

Luk 15:26 He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on.

Luk 15:27 He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.'

Luk 15:28 Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him.

Luk 15:29 But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends.

Luk 15:30 But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!'

Luk 15:31 Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

Luk 15:32 But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"

Luk 16:1 Then Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property.

Luk 16:2 So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.'

Luk 16:3 Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.

Luk 16:4 I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.'

Luk 16:5 So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

Luk 16:6 He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.'

Luk 16:7 Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.'

Luk 16:8 And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light.

Luk 16:9 And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

Luk 16:10 "Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much.

Luk 16:11 If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches?

Luk 16:12 And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own?

Luk 16:13 No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

Luk 16:14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all this, and they ridiculed him.

Luk 16:15 So he said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of others; but God knows your hearts; for what is prized by human beings is an abomination in the sight of God.

Luk 16:16 "The law and the prophets were in effect until John came; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone tries to enter it by force.

Luk 16:17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one stroke of a letter in the law to be dropped.

Luk 16:18 "Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and whoever marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

Luk 16:19 "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.

Luk 16:20 And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, Luk 16:21 who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

Luk 16:22 The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

Luk 16:23 In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side.

Luk 16:24 He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.'

Luk 16:25 But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony.'

Luk 16:26 Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.'

Luk 16:27 He said, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house--

Luk 16:28 for I have five brothers-- that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.'

Luk 16:29 Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.'

Luk 16:30 He said, 'No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

Luk 16:31 He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

Luk 17:1 Jesus said to his disciples, "Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to anyone by whom they come!

Luk 17:2 It would be better for you if a millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea than for you to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

Luk 17:3 Be on your guard! If another disciple sins, you must rebuke the offender, and if there is repentance, you must forgive.

Luk 17:4 And if the same person sins against you seven times a day, and turns back to you seven times and says, 'I repent,' you must forgive."

Luk 17:5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

Luk 17:6 The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

Luk 17:7 "Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'?

Luk 17:8 Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'?

Luk 17:9 Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded?

Luk 17:10 So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

Luk 17:11 On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee.

Luk 17:12 As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance,

Luk 17:13 they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

Luk 17:14 When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean.

Luk 17:15 Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice.

Luk 17:16 He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan.

Luk 17:17 Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they?"

Luk 17:18 Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?"

Luk 17:19 Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Luk 17:20 Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, "The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed;

Luk 17:21 nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!' For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you."

Luk 17:22 Then he said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

Luk 17:23 They will say to you, 'Look there!' or 'Look here!' Do not go, do not set off in pursuit.

Luk 17:24 For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day.

Luk 17:25 But first he must endure much suffering and be rejected by this generation.

Luk 17:26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so too it will be in the days of the Son of Man.

Luk 17:27 They were eating and drinking, and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed all of them.

Luk 17:28 Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot: they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building,

Luk 17:29 but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed all of them

Luk 17:30 -- it will be like that on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

Luk 17:31 On that day, anyone on the housetop who has belongings in the house must not come down to take them away; and likewise anyone in the field must not turn back.

Luk 17:32 Remember Lot's wife.

Luk 17:33 Those who try to make their life secure will lose it, but those who lose their life will keep it.

Luk 17:34 I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

Luk 17:35 There will be two women grinding meal together; one will be taken and the other left."

Luk 17:36

Luk 17:37 Then they asked him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather."

Luk 18:1 Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.

Luk 18:2 He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people.

Luk 18:3 In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.'

Luk 18:4 For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone,

Luk 18:5 yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'"

Luk 18:6 And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says.

Luk 18:7 And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them?"

Luk 18:8 I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Luk 18:9 He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:

Luk 18:10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Luk 18:11 The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

Luk 18:12 I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.'

Luk 18:13 But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'

Luk 18:14 I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Luk 18:15 People were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they sternly ordered them not to do it.

Luk 18:16 But Jesus called for them and said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Luk 18:17 Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it."

Luk 18:18 A certain ruler asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Luk 18:19 Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Luk 18:20 You know the commandments: 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honor your father and mother.'"

Luk 18:21 He replied, "I have kept all these since my youth."

Luk 18:22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "There is still one thing lacking. Sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

Luk 18:23 But when he heard this, he became sad; for he was very rich.

Luk 18:24 Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!

Luk 18:25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

Luk 18:26 Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

Luk 18:27 He replied, "What is impossible for mortals is possible for God."

Luk 18:28 Then Peter said, "Look, we have left our homes and followed you."

Luk 18:29 And he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God,

Luk 18:30 who will not get back very much more in this age, and in the age to come eternal life."

Luk 18:31 Then he took the twelve aside and said to them, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished.

Luk 18:32 For he will be handed over to the Gentiles; and he will be mocked and insulted and spat upon.

Luk 18:33 After they have flogged him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise again."

Luk 18:34 But they understood nothing about all these things; in fact, what he said was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

Luk 18:35 As he approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging.

Luk 18:36 When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

Luk 18:37 They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by."

Luk 18:38 Then he shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Luk 18:39 Those who were in front sternly ordered him to be quiet; but he shouted even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Luk 18:40 Jesus stood still and ordered the man to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him,

Luk 18:41 "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, let me see again."

Luk 18:42 Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has saved you."

Luk 18:43 Immediately he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

Luk 19:1 He entered Jericho and was passing through it.

Luk 19:2 A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich.

Luk 19:3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature.

Luk 19:4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way.

Luk 19:5 When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today."

Luk 19:6 So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him.

Luk 19:7 All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner."

Luk 19:8 Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much."

Luk 19:9 Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham.

Luk 19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Luk 19:11 As they were listening to this, he went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately.

Luk 19:12 So he said, "A nobleman went to a distant country to get royal power for himself and then return.

Luk 19:13 He summoned ten of his slaves, and gave them ten pounds, and said to them, 'Do business with these until I come back.'

Luk 19:14 But the citizens of his country hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to rule over us.'

Luk 19:15 When he returned, having received royal power, he ordered these slaves, to whom he had given the money, to be summoned so that he might find out what they had gained by trading.

Luk 19:16 The first came forward and said, 'Lord, your pound has made ten more pounds.'

Luk 19:17 He said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because you have been trustworthy in a very small thing, take charge of ten cities.'

Luk 19:18 Then the second came, saying, 'Lord, your pound has made five pounds.'

Luk 19:19 He said to him, 'And you, rule over five cities.'

Luk 19:20 Then the other came, saying, 'Lord, here is your pound. I wrapped it up in a piece of cloth,

Luk 19:21 for I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man; you take what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'

Luk 19:22 He said to him, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! You knew, did you, that I was a harsh man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow?

Luk 19:23 Why then did you not put my money into the bank? Then when I returned, I could have collected it with interest.'

Luk 19:24 He said to the bystanders, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'

Luk 19:25 (And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten pounds!')

Luk 19:26 'I tell you, to all those who have, more will be given; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Luk 19:27 But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them-- bring them here and slaughter them in my presence."

Luk 19:28 After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

Luk 19:29 When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, Luk 19:30 saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Luk 19:31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'"

Luk 19:32 So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them.

Luk 19:33 As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

Luk 19:34 They said, "The Lord needs it."

Luk 19:35 Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it.

Luk 19:36 As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road.

Luk 19:37 As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen,

Luk 19:38 saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!"

Luk 19:39 Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop."

Luk 19:40 He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Luk 19:41 As he came near and saw the city, he wept over it,

Luk 19:42 saying, "If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

Luk 19:43 Indeed, the days will come upon you, when your enemies will set up ramparts around you and surround you, and hem you in on every side.

Luk 19:44 They will crush you to the ground, you and your children within you, and they will not leave within you one stone upon another; because you did not recognize the time of your visitation from God."

Luk 19:45 Then he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling things there;

Luk 19:46 and he said, "It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer'; but you have made it a den of robbers."

Luk 19:47 Every day he was teaching in the temple. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people kept looking for a way to kill him;

Luk 19:48 but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people were spellbound by what they heard.

Luk 20:1 One day, as he was teaching the people in the temple and telling the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came with the elders

Luk 20:2 and said to him, "Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Who is it who gave you this authority?"

Luk 20:3 He answered them, "I will also ask you a question, and you tell me:

Luk 20:4 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?"

Luk 20:5 They discussed it with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why did you not believe him?'

Luk 20:6 But if we say, 'Of human origin,' all the people will stone us; for they are convinced that John was a prophet."

Luk 20:7 So they answered that they did not know where it came from.

Luk 20:8 Then Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

Luk 20:9 He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, and leased it to tenants, and went to another country for a long time.

Luk 20:10 When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants in order that they might give him his share of the produce of the vineyard; but the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Luk 20:11 Next he sent another slave; that one also they beat and insulted and sent away empty-handed.

Luk 20:12 And he sent still a third; this one also they wounded and threw out.

Luk 20:13 Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.'

Luk 20:14 But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, 'This is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.'

Luk 20:15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luk 20:16 He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "Heaven forbid!"

Luk 20:17 But he looked at them and said, "What then does this text mean: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone'?

Luk 20:18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls."

Luk 20:19 When the scribes and chief priests realized that he had told this parable against them, they wanted to lay hands on him at that very hour, but they feared the people.

Luk 20:20 So they watched him and sent spies who pretended to be honest, in order to trap him by what he said, so as to hand him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

Luk 20:21 So they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are right in what you say and teach, and you show deference to no one, but teach the way of God in accordance with truth.

Luk 20:22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?"

Luk 20:23 But he perceived their craftiness and said to them,

Luk 20:24 "Show me a denarius. Whose head and whose title does it bear?" They said, "The emperor's."

Luk 20:25 He said to them, "Then give to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's."

Luk 20:26 And they were not able in the presence of the people to trap him by what he said; and being amazed by his answer, they became silent.

Luk 20:27 Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him

Luk 20:28 and asked him a question, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother.

Luk 20:29 Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless;

Luk 20:30 then the second

Luk 20:31 and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless.

Luk 20:32 Finally the woman also died.

Luk 20:33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her."

Luk 20:34 Jesus said to them, "Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage;

Luk 20:35 but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.

Luk 20:36 Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.

Luk 20:37 And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Luk 20:38 Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive."

Luk 20:39 Then some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you have spoken well."

Luk 20:40 For they no longer dared to ask him another question.

Luk 20:41 Then he said to them, "How can they say that the Messiah is David's son?

Luk 20:42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, Luk 20:43 until I make your enemies your footstool.'"

Luk 20:44 David thus calls him Lord; so how can he be his son?"

Luk 20:45 In the hearing of all the people he said to the disciples,

Luk 20:46 "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets.

Luk 20:47 They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

Luk 21:1 He looked up and saw rich people putting their gifts into the treasury;

Luk 21:2 he also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins.

Luk 21:3 He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them;

Luk 21:4 for all of them have contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on."

Luk 21:5 When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said,

Luk 21:6 "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down."

Luk 21:7 They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?"

Luk 21:8 And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them.

Luk 21:9 "When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately."

Luk 21:10 Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom;

Luk 21:11 there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

Luk 21:12 "But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name.

Luk 21:13 This will give you an opportunity to testify.

Luk 21:14 So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance;

Luk 21:15 for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict.

Luk 21:16 You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death.

Luk 21:17 You will be hated by all because of my name.

Luk 21:18 But not a hair of your head will perish.

Luk 21:19 By your endurance you will gain your souls.

Luk 21:20 "When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.

Luk 21:21 Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those inside the city must leave it, and those out in the country must not enter it;

Luk 21:22 for these are days of vengeance, as a fulfillment of all that is written.

Luk 21:23 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress on the earth and wrath against this people;

Luk 21:24 they will fall by the edge of the sword and be taken away as captives among all nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

Luk 21:25 "There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves.

Luk 21:26 People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Luk 21:27 Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory.

Luk 21:28 Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

Luk 21:29 Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees;

Luk 21:30 as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near.

Luk 21:31 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

Luk 21:32 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place.

Luk 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Luk 21:34 "Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly,

Luk 21:35 like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth.

Luk 21:36 Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

Luk 21:37 Every day he was teaching in the temple, and at night he would go out and spend the night on the Mount of Olives, as it was called.

Luk 21:38 And all the people would get up early in the morning to listen to him in the temple.

Luk 22:1 Now the festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was near.

Luk 22:2 The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to put Jesus to death, for they were afraid of the people.

Luk 22:3 Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve;

Luk 22:4 he went away and conferred with the chief priests and officers of the temple police about how he might betray him to them.

Luk 22:5 They were greatly pleased and agreed to give him money.

Luk 22:6 So he consented and began to look for an opportunity to betray him to them when no crowd was present.

Luk 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

Luk 22:8 So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover meal for us that we may eat it."

Luk 22:9 They asked him, "Where do you want us to make preparations for it?"

Luk 22:10 "Listen," he said to them, "when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house he enters

Luk 22:11 and say to the owner of the house, 'The teacher asks you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'"

Luk 22:12 He will show you a large room upstairs, already furnished. Make preparations for us there."

Luk 22:13 So they went and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

Luk 22:14 When the hour came, he took his place at the table, and the apostles with him.

Luk 22:15 He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

Luk 22:16 for I tell you, I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

Luk 22:17 Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves;

Luk 22:18 for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

Luk 22:19 Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Luk 22:20 And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.

Luk 22:21 But see, the one who betrays me is with me, and his hand is on the table.

Luk 22:22 For the Son of Man is going as it has been determined, but woe to that one by whom he is betrayed!"

Luk 22:23 Then they began to ask one another, which one of them it could be who would do this.

Luk 22:24 A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest.

Luk 22:25 But he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors.

Luk 22:26 But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves.

Luk 22:27 For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

Luk 22:28 "You are those who have stood by me in my trials;

Luk 22:29 and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom,

Luk 22:30 so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luk 22:31 "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, Luk 22:32 but I have prayed for you that your own faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."

Luk 22:33 And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death!"

Luk 22:34 Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me."

Luk 22:35 He said to them, "When I sent you out without a purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "No, not a thing."

Luk 22:36 He said to them, "But now, the one who has a purse must take it, and likewise a bag. And the one who has no sword must sell his cloak and buy one.

Luk 22:37 For I tell you, this scripture must be fulfilled in me, 'And he was counted among the lawless'; and indeed what is written about me is being fulfilled."

Luk 22:38 They said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." He replied, "It is enough."

Luk 22:39 He came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him.

Luk 22:40 When he reached the place, he said to them, "Pray that you may not come into the time of trial."

Luk 22:41 Then he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, knelt down, and prayed,

Luk 22:42 "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me; yet, not my will but yours be done."

Luk 22:43 Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength.

Luk 22:44 In his anguish he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

Luk 22:45 When he got up from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping because of grief,

Luk 22:46 and he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not come into the time of trial."

Luk 22:47 While he was still speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him;

Luk 22:48 but Jesus said to him, "Judas, is it with a kiss that you are betraying the Son of Man?"

Luk 22:49 When those who were around him saw what was coming, they asked, "Lord, should we strike with the sword?"

Luk 22:50 Then one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

Luk 22:51 But Jesus said, "No more of this!" And he touched his ear and healed him.

Luk 22:52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple police, and the elders who had come for him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a bandit?

Luk 22:53 When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness!"

Luk 22:54 Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest's house. But Peter was following at a distance.

Luk 22:55 When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

Luk 22:56 Then a servant-girl, seeing him in the firelight, stared at him and said, "This man also was with him."
Luk 22:57 But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him."
Luk 22:58 A little later someone else, on seeing him, said, "You also are one of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"
Luk 22:59 Then about an hour later still another kept insisting, "Surely this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean."
Luk 22:60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about!" At that moment, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed.
Luk 22:61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times."
Luk 22:62 And he went out and wept bitterly.
Luk 22:63 Now the men who were holding Jesus began to mock him and beat him;
Luk 22:64 they also blindfolded him and kept asking him, "Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?"
Luk 22:65 They kept heaping many other insults on him.
Luk 22:66 When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they brought him to their council.
Luk 22:67 They said, "If you are the Messiah, tell us." He replied, "If I tell you, you will not believe;
Luk 22:68 and if I question you, you will not answer.
Luk 22:69 But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."
Luk 22:70 All of them asked, "Are you, then, the Son of God?" He said to them, "You say that I am."
Luk 22:71 Then they said, "What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips!"
Luk 23:1 Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate.
Luk 23:2 They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king."
Luk 23:3 Then Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He answered, "You say so."
Luk 23:4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for an accusation against this man."
Luk 23:5 But they were insistent and said, "He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place."
Luk 23:6 When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.
Luk 23:7 And when he learned that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time.
Luk 23:8 When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some sign.
Luk 23:9 He questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer.
Luk 23:10 The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.
Luk 23:11 Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then he put an elegant robe on him, and sent him back to Pilate.
Luk 23:12 That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.
Luk 23:13 Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people,
Luk 23:14 and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him.
Luk 23:15 Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death.
Luk 23:16 I will therefore have him flogged and release him."
Luk 23:17
Luk 23:18 Then they all shouted out together, "Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!"
Luk 23:19 (This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.)
Luk 23:20 Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again;
Luk 23:21 but they kept shouting, "Crucify, crucify him!"
Luk 23:22 A third time he said to them, "Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him."
Luk 23:23 But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed.
Luk 23:24 So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted.
Luk 23:25 He released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished.
Luk 23:26 As they led him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus.

Luk 23:27 A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him.

Luk 23:28 But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

Luk 23:29 For the days are surely coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.'

Luk 23:30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.'

Luk 23:31 For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

Luk 23:32 Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him.

Luk 23:33 When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left.

Luk 23:34 Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing.

Luk 23:35 And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!"

Luk 23:36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine,

Luk 23:37 and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"

Luk 23:38 There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

Luk 23:39 One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!"

Luk 23:40 But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?"

Luk 23:41 And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong."

Luk 23:42 Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Luk 23:43 He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Luk 23:44 It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon,

Luk 23:45 while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

Luk 23:46 Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." Having said this, he breathed his last.

Luk 23:47 When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, "Certainly this man was innocent."

Luk 23:48 And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts.

Luk 23:49 But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Luk 23:50 Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph, who, though a member of the council,

Luk 23:51 had not agreed to their plan and action. He came from the Jewish town of Arimathea, and he was waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God.

Luk 23:52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Luk 23:53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid it in a rock-hewn tomb where no one had ever been laid.

Luk 23:54 It was the day of Preparation, and the sabbath was beginning.

Luk 23:55 The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how his body was laid.

Luk 23:56 Then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Luk 24:1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared.

Luk 24:2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

Luk 24:3 but when they went in, they did not find the body.

Luk 24:4 While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them.

Luk 24:5 The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.

Luk 24:6 Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee,

Luk 24:7 that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again."

Luk 24:8 Then they remembered his words,

Luk 24:9 and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

Luk 24:10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles.

Luk 24:11 But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

Luk 24:12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Luk 24:13 Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem,

Luk 24:14 and talking with each other about all these things that had happened.

Luk 24:15 While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them,

Luk 24:16 but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

Luk 24:17 And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad.

Luk 24:18 Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?"

Luk 24:19 He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, Luk 24:20 and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him.

Luk 24:21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

Luk 24:22 Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning,

Luk 24:23 and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive.

Luk 24:24 Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him."

Luk 24:25 Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared!

Luk 24:26 Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?"

Luk 24:27 Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

Luk 24:28 As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on.

Luk 24:29 But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them.

Luk 24:30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

Luk 24:31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight.

Luk 24:32 They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

Luk 24:33 That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together.

Luk 24:34 They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!"

Luk 24:35 Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Luk 24:36 While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

Luk 24:37 They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost.

Luk 24:38 He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?"

Luk 24:39 Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have."

Luk 24:40 And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

Luk 24:41 While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

Luk 24:42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish,

Luk 24:43 and he took it and ate in their presence.

Luk 24:44 Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you-- that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled."

Luk 24:45 Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures,

Luk 24:46 and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day,

Luk 24:47 and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Luk 24:48 You are witnesses of these things.

Luk 24:49 And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

Luk 24:50 Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them.

Luk 24:51 While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven.

Luk 24:52 And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy;

Luk 24:53 and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Joh 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Joh 1:2 He was in the beginning with God.

Joh 1:3 All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being

Joh 1:4 in him was life, and the life was the light of all people.

Joh 1:5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

Joh 1:6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

Joh 1:7 He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him.

Joh 1:8 He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light.

Joh 1:9 The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

Joh 1:10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him.

Joh 1:11 He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him.

Joh 1:12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God,

Joh 1:13 who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

Joh 1:14 And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

Joh 1:15 (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'")

Joh 1:16 From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

Joh 1:17 The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Joh 1:18 No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

Joh 1:19 This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

Joh 1:20 He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, "I am not the Messiah."

Joh 1:21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No."

Joh 1:22 Then they said to him, "Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

Joh 1:23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'" as the prophet Isaiah said.

Joh 1:24 Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.

Joh 1:25 They asked him, "Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

Joh 1:26 John answered them, "I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, Joh 1:27 the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal."

Joh 1:28 This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.

Joh 1:29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

Joh 1:30 This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'

Joh 1:31 I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel."

Joh 1:32 And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him.

Joh 1:33 I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'

Joh 1:34 And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

Joh 1:35 The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples,

Joh 1:36 and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!"

Joh 1:37 The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.

Joh 1:38 When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?"

Joh 1:39 He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon.

Joh 1:40 One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

Joh 1:41 He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed).

Joh 1:42 He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

Joh 1:43 The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me."

Joh 1:44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

Joh 1:45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth."

Joh 1:46 Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

Joh 1:47 When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!"

Joh 1:48 Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you."

Joh 1:49 Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

Joh 1:50 Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these."

Joh 1:51 And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Joh 2:1 On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

Joh 2:2 Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

Joh 2:3 When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Joh 2:4 And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come."

Joh 2:5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Joh 2:6 Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

Joh 2:7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim.

Joh 2:8 He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it.

Joh 2:9 When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom

Joh 2:10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now."

Joh 2:11 Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Joh 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they remained there a few days.

Joh 2:13 The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Joh 2:14 In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

Joh 2:15 Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

Joh 2:16 He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!"

Joh 2:17 His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

Joh 2:18 The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?"

Joh 2:19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

Joh 2:20 The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?"

Joh 2:21 But he was speaking of the temple of his body.

Joh 2:22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Joh 2:23 When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing.

Joh 2:24 But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people

Joh 2:25 and needed no one to testify about anyone; for he himself knew what was in everyone.

Joh 3:1 Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews.

Joh 3:2 He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God."

Joh 3:3 Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above."

Joh 3:4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?"

Joh 3:5 Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit.

Joh 3:6 What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Joh 3:7 Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.'

Joh 3:8 The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

Joh 3:9 Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?"

Joh 3:10 Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?"

Joh 3:11 "Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony.

Joh 3:12 If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?

Joh 3:13 No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man.

Joh 3:14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,

Joh 3:15 that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

Joh 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

Joh 3:17 "Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Joh 3:18 Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

Joh 3:19 And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil.

Joh 3:20 For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed.

Joh 3:21 But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

Joh 3:22 After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean countryside, and he spent some time there with them and baptized.

Joh 3:23 John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim because water was abundant there; and people kept coming and were being baptized

Joh 3:24 -- John, of course, had not yet been thrown into prison.

Joh 3:25 Now a discussion about purification arose between John's disciples and a Jew.

Joh 3:26 They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the one who was with you across the Jordan, to whom you testified, here he is baptizing, and all are going to him."

Joh 3:27 John answered, "No one can receive anything except what has been given from heaven.

Joh 3:28 You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, 'I am not the Messiah, but I have been sent ahead of him.'

Joh 3:29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. For this reason my joy has been fulfilled.

Joh 3:30 He must increase, but I must decrease."

Joh 3:31 The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is above all.

Joh 3:32 He testifies to what he has seen and heard, yet no one accepts his testimony.

Joh 3:33 Whoever has accepted his testimony has certified this, that God is true.

Joh 3:34 He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure.

Joh 3:35 The Father loves the Son and has placed all things in his hands.

Joh 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever disobeys the Son will not see life, but must endure God's wrath.

Joh 4:1 Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard, "Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John"

Joh 4:2 -- although it was not Jesus himself but his disciples who baptized--

Joh 4:3 he left Judea and started back to Galilee.

Joh 4:4 But he had to go through Samaria.

Joh 4:5 So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

Joh 4:6 Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

Joh 4:7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."

Joh 4:8 (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.)

Joh 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.)

Joh 4:10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

Joh 4:11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?"

Joh 4:12 Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?"

Joh 4:13 Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,

Joh 4:14 but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life."

Joh 4:15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Joh 4:16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back."

Joh 4:17 The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband';

Joh 4:18 for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!"

Joh 4:19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet.

Joh 4:20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem."

Joh 4:21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

Joh 4:22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.

Joh 4:23 But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him.

Joh 4:24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

Joh 4:25 The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us."

Joh 4:26 Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you."

Joh 4:27 Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?"

Joh 4:28 Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people,

Joh 4:29 "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?"

Joh 4:30 They left the city and were on their way to him.

Joh 4:31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, eat something."

Joh 4:32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

Joh 4:33 So the disciples said to one another, "Surely no one has brought him something to eat?"

Joh 4:34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work.

Joh 4:35 Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting.

Joh 4:36 The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.

Joh 4:37 For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.'

Joh 4:38 I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

Joh 4:39 Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done."

Joh 4:40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.

Joh 4:41 And many more believed because of his word.

Joh 4:42 They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world."

Joh 4:43 When the two days were over, he went from that place to Galilee

Joh 4:44 (for Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in the prophet's own country).

Joh 4:45 When he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, since they had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the festival; for they too had gone to the festival.

Joh 4:46 Then he came again to Cana in Galilee where he had changed the water into wine. Now there was a royal official whose son lay ill in Capernaum.

Joh 4:47 When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

Joh 4:48 Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe."

Joh 4:49 The official said to him, "Sir, come down before my little boy dies."

Joh 4:50 Jesus said to him, "Go; your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and started on his way.

Joh 4:51 As he was going down, his slaves met him and told him that his child was alive.

Joh 4:52 So he asked them the hour when he began to recover, and they said to him, "Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him."

Joh 4:53 The father realized that this was the hour when Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." So he himself believed, along with his whole household.

Joh 4:54 Now this was the second sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

Joh 5:1 After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Joh 5:2 Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes.

Joh 5:3 In these lay many invalids-- blind, lame, and paralyzed.

Joh 5:4

Joh 5:5 One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

Joh 5:6 When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?"

Joh 5:7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me."

Joh 5:8 Jesus said to him, "Stand up, take your mat and walk."

Joh 5:9 At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Joh 5:10 So the Jews said to the man who had been cured, "It is the sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your mat."

Joh 5:11 But he answered them, "The man who made me well said to me, 'Take up your mat and walk.'"

Joh 5:12 They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take it up and walk'?"

Joh 5:13 Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had disappeared in the crowd that was there.

Joh 5:14 Later Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, "See, you have been made well! Do not sin any more, so that nothing worse happens to you."

Joh 5:15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Joh 5:16 Therefore the Jews started persecuting Jesus, because he was doing such things on the sabbath.

Joh 5:17 But Jesus answered them, "My Father is still working, and I also am working."

Joh 5:18 For this reason the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because he was not only breaking the sabbath, but was also calling God his own Father, thereby making himself equal to God.

Joh 5:19 Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.

Joh 5:20 The Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing; and he will show him greater works than these, so that you will be astonished.

Joh 5:21 Indeed, just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes.

Joh 5:22 The Father judges no one but has given all judgment to the Son,

Joh 5:23 so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

Joh 5:24 Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life.

Joh 5:25 "Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

Joh 5:26 For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself;

Joh 5:27 and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

Joh 5:28 Do not be astonished at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice

Joh 5:29 and will come out-- those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.

Joh 5:30 "I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek to do not my own will but the will of him who sent me.

Joh 5:31 "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.

Joh 5:32 There is another who testifies on my behalf, and I know that his testimony to me is true.

Joh 5:33 You sent messengers to John, and he testified to the truth.

Joh 5:34 Not that I accept such human testimony, but I say these things so that you may be saved.

Joh 5:35 He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

Joh 5:36 But I have a testimony greater than John's. The works that the Father has given me to complete, the very works that I am doing, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me.

Joh 5:37 And the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. You have never heard his voice or seen his form,

Joh 5:38 and you do not have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe him whom he has sent.

Joh 5:39 "You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf.

Joh 5:40 Yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

Joh 5:41 I do not accept glory from human beings.

Joh 5:42 But I know that you do not have the love of God in you.

Joh 5:43 I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; if another comes in his own name, you will accept him.

Joh 5:44 How can you believe when you accept glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the one who alone is God?

Joh 5:45 Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope.

Joh 5:46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.

Joh 5:47 But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?"

Joh 6:1 After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias.

Joh 6:2 A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick.

Joh 6:3 Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples.

Joh 6:4 Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.

Joh 6:5 When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?"

Joh 6:6 He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.

Joh 6:7 Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little."

Joh 6:8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him,

Joh 6:9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?"

Joh 6:10 Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all.

Joh 6:11 Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted.

Joh 6:12 When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost."

Joh 6:13 So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets.

Joh 6:14 When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world."

Joh 6:15 When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

Joh 6:16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,

Joh 6:17 got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

Joh 6:18 The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing.

Joh 6:19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified.

Joh 6:20 But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid."

Joh 6:21 Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

Joh 6:22 The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there. They also saw that Jesus had not got into the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone.

Joh 6:23 Then some boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

Joh 6:24 So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

Joh 6:25 When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

Joh 6:26 Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves.

Joh 6:27 Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal."

Joh 6:28 Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?"

Joh 6:29 Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

Joh 6:30 So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing?"

Joh 6:31 Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

Joh 6:32 Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven.

Joh 6:33 For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

Joh 6:34 They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always."

Joh 6:35 Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

Joh 6:36 But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe.

Joh 6:37 Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away;

Joh 6:38 for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

Joh 6:39 And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day.

Joh 6:40 This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day."

Joh 6:41 Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

Joh 6:42 They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

Joh 6:43 Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves.

Joh 6:44 No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day.

Joh 6:45 It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.

Joh 6:46 Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.

Joh 6:47 Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.

Joh 6:48 I am the bread of life.

Joh 6:49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

Joh 6:50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.

Joh 6:51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

Joh 6:52 The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Joh 6:53 So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

Joh 6:54 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day;

Joh 6:55 for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.

Joh 6:56 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.

Joh 6:57 Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me.

Joh 6:58 This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever."

Joh 6:59 He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

Joh 6:60 When many of his disciples heard it, they said, "This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?"

Joh 6:61 But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, "Does this offend you?

Joh 6:62 Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?

Joh 6:63 It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life.

Joh 6:64 But among you there are some who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him.

Joh 6:65 And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father."

Joh 6:66 Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him.

Joh 6:67 So Jesus asked the twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?"

Joh 6:68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life.

Joh 6:69 We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

Joh 6:70 Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve? Yet one of you is a devil."

Joh 6:71 He was speaking of Judas son of Simon Iscariot, for he, though one of the twelve, was going to betray him.

Joh 7:1 After this Jesus went about in Galilee. He did not wish to go about in Judea because the Jews were looking for an opportunity to kill him.

Joh 7:2 Now the Jewish festival of Booths was near.

Joh 7:3 So his brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea so that your disciples also may see the works you are doing;

Joh 7:4 for no one who wants to be widely known acts in secret. If you do these things, show yourself to the world."

Joh 7:5 (For not even his brothers believed in him.)

Joh 7:6 Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always here.

Joh 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify against it that its works are evil.

Joh 7:8 Go to the festival yourselves. I am not going to this festival, for my time has not yet fully come."

Joh 7:9 After saying this, he remained in Galilee.

Joh 7:10 But after his brothers had gone to the festival, then he also went, not publicly but as it were in secret.

Joh 7:11 The Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, "Where is he?"

Joh 7:12 And there was considerable complaining about him among the crowds. While some were saying, "He is a good man," others were saying, "No, he is deceiving the crowd."

Joh 7:13 Yet no one would speak openly about him for fear of the Jews.

Joh 7:14 About the middle of the festival Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach.

Joh 7:15 The Jews were astonished at it, saying, "How does this man have such learning, when he has never been taught?"

Joh 7:16 Then Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not mine but his who sent me.

Joh 7:17 Anyone who resolves to do the will of God will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own.

Joh 7:18 Those who speak on their own seek their own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and there is nothing false in him.

Joh 7:19 "Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you looking for an opportunity to kill me?"

Joh 7:20 The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who is trying to kill you?"

Joh 7:21 Jesus answered them, "I performed one work, and all of you are astonished.

Joh 7:22 Moses gave you circumcision (it is, of course, not from Moses, but from the patriarchs), and you circumcise a man on the sabbath.

Joh 7:23 If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath in order that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because I healed a man's whole body on the sabbath?

Joh 7:24 Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment."

Joh 7:25 Now some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, "Is not this the man whom they are trying to kill?"

Joh 7:26 And here he is, speaking openly, but they say nothing to him! Can it be that the authorities really know that this is the Messiah?

Joh 7:27 Yet we know where this man is from; but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from."

Joh 7:28 Then Jesus cried out as he was teaching in the temple, "You know me, and you know where I am from. I have not come on my own. But the one who sent me is true, and you do not know him.

Joh 7:29 I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

Joh 7:30 Then they tried to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.

Joh 7:31 Yet many in the crowd believed in him and were saying, "When the Messiah comes, will he do more signs than this man has done?"

Joh 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering such things about him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent temple police to arrest him.

Joh 7:33 Jesus then said, "I will be with you a little while longer, and then I am going to him who sent me.

Joh 7:34 You will search for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come."

Joh 7:35 The Jews said to one another, "Where does this man intend to go that we will not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?"

Joh 7:36 What does he mean by saying, 'You will search for me and you will not find me' and 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"

Joh 7:37 On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me,

Joh 7:38 and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water.'"

Joh 7:39 Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Joh 7:40 When they heard these words, some in the crowd said, "This is really the prophet."

Joh 7:41 Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some asked, "Surely the Messiah does not come from Galilee, does he?"

Joh 7:42 Has not the scripture said that the Messiah is descended from David and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?"

Joh 7:43 So there was a division in the crowd because of him.

Joh 7:44 Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.

Joh 7:45 Then the temple police went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why did you not arrest him?"

Joh 7:46 The police answered, "Never has anyone spoken like this!"

Joh 7:47 Then the Pharisees replied, "Surely you have not been deceived too, have you?"

Joh 7:48 Has any one of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed in him?"

Joh 7:49 But this crowd, which does not know the law-- they are accursed."

Joh 7:50 Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus before, and who was one of them, asked,

Joh 7:51 "Our law does not judge people without first giving them a hearing to find out what they are doing, does it?"

Joh 7:52 They replied, "Surely you are not also from Galilee, are you? Search and you will see that no prophet is to arise from Galilee."

Joh 7:53 Then each of them went home,

Joh 8:1 while Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

Joh 8:2 Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them.

Joh 8:3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them,

Joh 8:4 they said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery.

Joh 8:5 Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?"

Joh 8:6 They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground.

Joh 8:7 When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

Joh 8:8 And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground.

Joh 8:9 When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

Joh 8:10 Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"

Joh 8:11 She said, "No one, sir." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again."

Joh 8:12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

Joh 8:13 Then the Pharisees said to him, "You are testifying on your own behalf; your testimony is not valid."

Joh 8:14 Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid because I know where I have come from and where I am going, but you do not know where I come from or where I am going.

Joh 8:15 You judge by human standards; I judge no one.

Joh 8:16 Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is valid; for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent me.

Joh 8:17 In your law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is valid.

Joh 8:18 I testify on my own behalf, and the Father who sent me testifies on my behalf."
Joh 8:19 Then they said to him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."
Joh 8:20 He spoke these words while he was teaching in the treasury of the temple, but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.
Joh 8:21 Again he said to them, "I am going away, and you will search for me, but you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come."
Joh 8:22 Then the Jews said, "Is he going to kill himself? Is that what he means by saying, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"
Joh 8:23 He said to them, "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world.
Joh 8:24 I told you that you would die in your sins, for you will die in your sins unless you believe that I am he."
Joh 8:25 They said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Why do I speak to you at all?
Joh 8:26 I have much to say about you and much to condemn; but the one who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from him."
Joh 8:27 They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.
Joh 8:28 So Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will realize that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own, but I speak these things as the Father instructed me.
Joh 8:29 And the one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what is pleasing to him."
Joh 8:30 As he was saying these things, many believed in him.
Joh 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples;
Joh 8:32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."
Joh 8:33 They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?"
Joh 8:34 Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin.
Joh 8:35 The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever.
Joh 8:36 So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.
Joh 8:37 I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you look for an opportunity to kill me, because there is no place in you for my word.
Joh 8:38 I declare what I have seen in the Father's presence; as for you, you should do what you have heard from the Father."
Joh 8:39 They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did,
Joh 8:40 but now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did.
Joh 8:41 You are indeed doing what your father does." They said to him, "We are not illegitimate children; we have one father, God himself."
Joh 8:42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now I am here. I did not come on my own, but he sent me.
Joh 8:43 Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot accept my word.
Joh 8:44 You are from your father the devil, and you choose to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies.
Joh 8:45 But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me.
Joh 8:46 Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?
Joh 8:47 Whoever is from God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear them is that you are not from God."
Joh 8:48 The Jews answered him, "Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"
Joh 8:49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.
Joh 8:50 Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is one who seeks it and he is the judge.
Joh 8:51 Very truly, I tell you, whoever keeps my word will never see death."
Joh 8:52 The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and so did the prophets; yet you say, 'Whoever keeps my word will never taste death.'
Joh 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets also died. Who do you claim to be?"
Joh 8:54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, he of whom you say, 'He is our God,'
Joh 8:55 though you do not know him. But I know him; if I would say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him and I keep his word.

Joh 8:56 Your ancestor Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day; he saw it and was glad."
Joh 8:57 Then the Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"
Joh 8:58 Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, before Abraham was, I am."
Joh 8:59 So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple.
Joh 9:1 As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth.
Joh 9:2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"
Joh 9:3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God's works might be revealed in him.
Joh 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work.
Joh 9:5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."
Joh 9:6 When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man's eyes,
Joh 9:7 saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see.
Joh 9:8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?"
Joh 9:9 Some were saying, "It is he." Others were saying, "No, but it is someone like him." He kept saying, "I am the man."
Joh 9:10 But they kept asking him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"
Joh 9:11 He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight."
Joh 9:12 They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."
Joh 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind.
Joh 9:14 Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.
Joh 9:15 Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see."
Joh 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?" And they were divided.
Joh 9:17 So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened." He said, "He is a prophet."
Joh 9:18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight
Joh 9:19 and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"
Joh 9:20 His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;
Joh 9:21 but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself."
Joh 9:22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue.
Joh 9:23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."
Joh 9:24 So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner."
Joh 9:25 He answered, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."
Joh 9:26 They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"
Joh 9:27 He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"
Joh 9:28 Then they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.
Joh 9:29 We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from."
Joh 9:30 The man answered, "Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes.
Joh 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will.
Joh 9:32 Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.
Joh 9:33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."
Joh 9:34 They answered him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?" And they drove him out.
Joh 9:35 Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"
Joh 9:36 He answered, "And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him."

Joh 9:37 Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he."
Joh 9:38 He said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped him.
Joh 9:39 Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind."
Joh 9:40 Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?"
Joh 9:41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains.
Joh 10:1 "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit.
Joh 10:2 The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.
Joh 10:3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.
Joh 10:4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.
Joh 10:5 They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers."
Joh 10:6 Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.
Joh 10:7 So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep.
Joh 10:8 All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them.
Joh 10:9 I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.
Joh 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.
Joh 10:11 "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
Joh 10:12 The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away-- and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.
Joh 10:13 The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep.
Joh 10:14 I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me,
Joh 10:15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep.
Joh 10:16 I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.
Joh 10:17 For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.
Joh 10:18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."
Joh 10:19 Again the Jews were divided because of these words.
Joh 10:20 Many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is out of his mind. Why listen to him?"
Joh 10:21 Others were saying, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"
Joh 10:22 At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter,
Joh 10:23 and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon.
Joh 10:24 So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."
Joh 10:25 Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me;
Joh 10:26 but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep.
Joh 10:27 My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me.
Joh 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.
Joh 10:29 What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand.
Joh 10:30 The Father and I are one."
Joh 10:31 The Jews took up stones again to stone him.
Joh 10:32 Jesus replied, "I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you going to stone me?"
Joh 10:33 The Jews answered, "It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you, but for blasphemy, because you, though only a human being, are making yourself God."
Joh 10:34 Jesus answered, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'?"
Joh 10:35 If those to whom the word of God came were called 'gods'-- and the scripture cannot be annulled--
Joh 10:36 can you say that the one whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world is blaspheming because I said, 'I am God's Son'?"
Joh 10:37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me.

Joh 10:38 But if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father."

Joh 10:39 Then they tried to arrest him again, but he escaped from their hands.

Joh 10:40 He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing earlier, and he remained there.

Joh 10:41 Many came to him, and they were saying, "John performed no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true."

Joh 10:42 And many believed in him there.

Joh 11:1 Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

Joh 11:2 Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill.

Joh 11:3 So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, "Lord, he whom you love is ill."

Joh 11:4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

Joh 11:5 Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus,

Joh 11:6 after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

Joh 11:7 Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

Joh 11:8 The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

Joh 11:9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world.

Joh 11:10 But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them."

Joh 11:11 After saying this, he told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him."

Joh 11:12 The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right."

Joh 11:13 Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep.

Joh 11:14 Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead.

Joh 11:15 For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

Joh 11:16 Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

Joh 11:17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

Joh 11:18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away,

Joh 11:19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother.

Joh 11:20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home.

Joh 11:21 Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

Joh 11:22 But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him."

Joh 11:23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

Joh 11:24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

Joh 11:25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, Joh 11:26 and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

Joh 11:27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

Joh 11:28 When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you."

Joh 11:29 And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him.

Joh 11:30 Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

Joh 11:31 The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

Joh 11:32 When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

Joh 11:33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved.

Joh 11:34 He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

Joh 11:35 Jesus began to weep.

Joh 11:36 So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"

Joh 11:37 But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Joh 11:38 Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.

Joh 11:39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days."

Joh 11:40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

Joh 11:41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me.

Joh 11:42 I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me."

Joh 11:43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

Joh 11:44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Joh 11:45 Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

Joh 11:46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what he had done.

Joh 11:47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council, and said, "What are we to do? This man is performing many signs.

Joh 11:48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation."

Joh 11:49 But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all!

Joh 11:50 You do not understand that it is better for you to have one man die for the people than to have the whole nation destroyed."

Joh 11:51 He did not say this on his own, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation,

Joh 11:52 and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the dispersed children of God.

Joh 11:53 So from that day on they planned to put him to death.

Joh 11:54 Jesus therefore no longer walked about openly among the Jews, but went from there to a town called Ephraim in the region near the wilderness; and he remained there with the disciples.

Joh 11:55 Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves.

Joh 11:56 They were looking for Jesus and were asking one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? Surely he will not come to the festival, will he?"

Joh 11:57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where Jesus was should let them know, so that they might arrest him.

Joh 12:1 Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

Joh 12:2 There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him.

Joh 12:3 Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

Joh 12:4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said,

Joh 12:5 "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?"

Joh 12:6 (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.)

Joh 12:7 Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial.

Joh 12:8 You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

Joh 12:9 When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

Joh 12:10 So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well,

Joh 12:11 since it was on account of him that many of the Jews were deserting and were believing in Jesus.

Joh 12:12 The next day the great crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

Joh 12:13 So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord-- the King of Israel!"

Joh 12:14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it; as it is written:

Joh 12:15 "Do not be afraid, daughter of Zion. Look, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!"

Joh 12:16 His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written of him and had been done to him.

Joh 12:17 So the crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify.

Joh 12:18 It was also because they heard that he had performed this sign that the crowd went to meet him.

Joh 12:19 The Pharisees then said to one another, "You see, you can do nothing. Look, the world has gone after him!"

Joh 12:20 Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks.

Joh 12:21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

Joh 12:22 Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

Joh 12:23 Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

Joh 12:24 Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

Joh 12:25 Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

Joh 12:26 Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

Joh 12:27 "Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say-- 'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour.

Joh 12:28 Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."

Joh 12:29 The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

Joh 12:30 Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.

Joh 12:31 Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out.

Joh 12:32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself."

Joh 12:33 He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Joh 12:34 The crowd answered him, "We have heard from the law that the Messiah remains forever. How can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?"

Joh 12:35 Jesus said to them, "The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness may not overtake you. If you walk in the darkness, you do not know where you are going.

Joh 12:36 While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become children of light." After Jesus had said this, he departed and hid from them.

Joh 12:37 Although he had performed so many signs in their presence, they did not believe in him.

Joh 12:38 This was to fulfill the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "Lord, who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

Joh 12:39 And so they could not believe, because Isaiah also said,

Joh 12:40 "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, so that they might not look with their eyes, and understand with their heart and turn-- and I would heal them."

Joh 12:41 Isaiah said this because he saw his glory and spoke about him.

Joh 12:42 Nevertheless many, even of the authorities, believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, for fear that they would be put out of the synagogue;

Joh 12:43 for they loved human glory more than the glory that comes from God.

Joh 12:44 Then Jesus cried aloud: "Whoever believes in me believes not in me but in him who sent me.

Joh 12:45 And whoever sees me sees him who sent me.

Joh 12:46 I have come as light into the world, so that everyone who believes in me should not remain in the darkness.

Joh 12:47 I do not judge anyone who hears my words and does not keep them, for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

Joh 12:48 The one who rejects me and does not receive my word has a judge; on the last day the word that I have spoken will serve as judge,

Joh 12:49 for I have not spoken on my own, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment about what to say and what to speak.

Joh 12:50 And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I speak, therefore, I speak just as the Father has told me."

Joh 13:1 Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

Joh 13:2 The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper

Joh 13:3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God,

Joh 13:4 got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself.

Joh 13:5 Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him.

Joh 13:6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

Joh 13:7 Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand."
Joh 13:8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me."
Joh 13:9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"
Joh 13:10 Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you."
Joh 13:11 For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."
Joh 13:12 After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?"
Joh 13:13 You call me Teacher and Lord-- and you are right, for that is what I am.
Joh 13:14 So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.
Joh 13:15 For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.
Joh 13:16 Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them.
Joh 13:17 If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.
Joh 13:18 I am not speaking of all of you; I know whom I have chosen. But it is to fulfill the scripture, 'The one who ate my bread has lifted his heel against me.'
Joh 13:19 I tell you this now, before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe that I am he.
Joh 13:20 Very truly, I tell you, whoever receives one whom I send receives me; and whoever receives me receives him who sent me."
Joh 13:21 After saying this Jesus was troubled in spirit, and declared, "Very truly, I tell you, one of you will betray me."
Joh 13:22 The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he was speaking.
Joh 13:23 One of his disciples-- the one whom Jesus loved-- was reclining next to him;
Joh 13:24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask Jesus of whom he was speaking.
Joh 13:25 So while reclining next to Jesus, he asked him, "Lord, who is it?"
Joh 13:26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot.
Joh 13:27 After he received the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "Do quickly what you are going to do."
Joh 13:28 Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him.
Joh 13:29 Some thought that, because Judas had the common purse, Jesus was telling him, "Buy what we need for the festival"; or, that he should give something to the poor.
Joh 13:30 So, after receiving the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.
Joh 13:31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.
Joh 13:32 If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once.
Joh 13:33 Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'
Joh 13:34 I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.
Joh 13:35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
Joh 13:36 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow me now; but you will follow afterward."
Joh 13:37 Peter said to him, "Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."
Joh 13:38 Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? Very truly, I tell you, before the cock crows, you will have denied me three times.
Joh 14:1 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me.
Joh 14:2 In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?
Joh 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.
Joh 14:4 And you know the way to the place where I am going."
Joh 14:5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?"
Joh 14:6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.
Joh 14:7 If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him."
Joh 14:8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied."
Joh 14:9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?

Joh 14:10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works.

Joh 14:11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves.

Joh 14:12 Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.

Joh 14:13 I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

Joh 14:14 If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

Joh 14:15 "If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

Joh 14:16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever.

Joh 14:17 This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

Joh 14:18 "I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you.

Joh 14:19 In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live.

Joh 14:20 On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

Joh 14:21 They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them."

Joh 14:22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

Joh 14:23 Jesus answered him, "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.

Joh 14:24 Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

Joh 14:25 "I have said these things to you while I am still with you.

Joh 14:26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you.

Joh 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

Joh 14:28 You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I.

Joh 14:29 And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.

Joh 14:30 I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me;

Joh 14:31 but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us be on our way.

Joh 15:1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower.

Joh 15:2 He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit.

Joh 15:3 You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you.

Joh 15:4 Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me.

Joh 15:5 I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

Joh 15:6 Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

Joh 15:7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

Joh 15:8 My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

Joh 15:9 As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love.

Joh 15:10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.

Joh 15:11 I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

Joh 15:12 "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

Joh 15:13 No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.

Joh 15:14 You are my friends if you do what I command you.

Joh 15:15 I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.

Joh 15:16 You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name.

Joh 15:17 I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Joh 15:18 "If the world hates you, be aware that it hated me before it hated you.
Joh 15:19 If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own. Because you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world-- therefore the world hates you.
Joh 15:20 Remember the word that I said to you, 'Servants are not greater than their master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also.
Joh 15:21 But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they do not know him who sent me.
Joh 15:22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.
Joh 15:23 Whoever hates me hates my Father also.
Joh 15:24 If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not have sin. But now they have seen and hated both me and my Father.
Joh 15:25 It was to fulfill the word that is written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'
Joh 15:26 "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf.
Joh 15:27 You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.
Joh 16:1 "I have said these things to you to keep you from stumbling.
Joh 16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, an hour is coming when those who kill you will think that by doing so they are offering worship to God.
Joh 16:3 And they will do this because they have not known the Father or me.
Joh 16:4 But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you.
Joh 16:5 But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?'
Joh 16:6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts.
Joh 16:7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.
Joh 16:8 And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment:
Joh 16:9 about sin, because they do not believe in me;
Joh 16:10 about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer;
Joh 16:11 about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.
Joh 16:12 "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.
Joh 16:13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.
Joh 16:14 He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you.
Joh 16:15 All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.
Joh 16:16 "A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me."
Joh 16:17 Then some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by saying to us, 'A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me'; and 'Because I am going to the Father'?"
Joh 16:18 They said, "What does he mean by this 'a little while'? We do not know what he is talking about."
Joh 16:19 Jesus knew that they wanted to ask him, so he said to them, "Are you discussing among yourselves what I meant when I said, 'A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me'?"
Joh 16:20 Very truly, I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice; you will have pain, but your pain will turn into joy.
Joh 16:21 When a woman is in labor, she has pain, because her hour has come. But when her child is born, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy of having brought a human being into the world.
Joh 16:22 So you have pain now; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.
Joh 16:23 On that day you will ask nothing of me. Very truly, I tell you, if you ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.
Joh 16:24 Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.
Joh 16:25 "I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures, but will tell you plainly of the Father.
Joh 16:26 On that day you will ask in my name. I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf;
Joh 16:27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

Joh 16:28 I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and am going to the Father."

Joh 16:29 His disciples said, "Yes, now you are speaking plainly, not in any figure of speech!

Joh 16:30 Now we know that you know all things, and do not need to have anyone question you; by this we believe that you came from God."

Joh 16:31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?

Joh 16:32 The hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each one to his home, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me.

Joh 16:33 I have said this to you, so that in me you may have peace. In the world you face persecution. But take courage; I have conquered the world!"

Joh 17:1 After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you,

Joh 17:2 since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him.

Joh 17:3 And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

Joh 17:4 I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do.

Joh 17:5 So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

Joh 17:6 "I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.

Joh 17:7 Now they know that everything you have given me is from you;

Joh 17:8 for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me.

Joh 17:9 I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours.

Joh 17:10 All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them.

Joh 17:11 And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

Joh 17:12 While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled.

Joh 17:13 But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

Joh 17:14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

Joh 17:15 I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.

Joh 17:16 They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

Joh 17:17 Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.

Joh 17:18 As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

Joh 17:19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.

Joh 17:20 "I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word,

Joh 17:21 that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

Joh 17:22 The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one,

Joh 17:23 I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

Joh 17:24 Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

Joh 17:25 "Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me.

Joh 17:26 I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Joh 18:1 After Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.

Joh 18:2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples.

Joh 18:3 So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

Joh 18:4 Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them, "Whom are you looking for?"

Joh 18:5 They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus replied, "I am he." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.

Joh 18:6 When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground.

Joh 18:7 Again he asked them, "Whom are you looking for?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Joh 18:8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go."

Joh 18:9 This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken, "I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me."

Joh 18:10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus.

Joh 18:11 Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Joh 18:12 So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him.

Joh 18:13 First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.

Joh 18:14 Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people.

Joh 18:15 Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest,

Joh 18:16 but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in.

Joh 18:17 The woman said to Peter, "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not."

Joh 18:18 Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

Joh 18:19 Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

Joh 18:20 Jesus answered, "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret.

Joh 18:21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said."

Joh 18:22 When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying, "Is that how you answer the high priest?"

Joh 18:23 Jesus answered, "If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?"

Joh 18:24 Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Joh 18:25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him, "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not."

Joh 18:26 One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

Joh 18:27 Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed.

Joh 18:28 Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover.

Joh 18:29 So Pilate went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

Joh 18:30 They answered, "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you."

Joh 18:31 Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law." The Jews replied, "We are not permitted to put anyone to death."

Joh 18:32 (This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die.)

Joh 18:33 Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Joh 18:34 Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?"

Joh 18:35 Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?"

Joh 18:36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here."

Joh 18:37 Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Joh 18:38 Pilate asked him, "What is truth?" After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, "I find no case against him."

Joh 18:39 But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

Joh 18:40 They shouted in reply, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a bandit.

Joh 19:1 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.

Joh 19:2 And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe.

Joh 19:3 They kept coming up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and striking him on the face.

Joh 19:4 Pilate went out again and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him."

Joh 19:5 So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!"

Joh 19:6 When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him."

Joh 19:7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God."

Joh 19:8 Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever.

Joh 19:9 He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

Joh 19:10 Pilate therefore said to him, "Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?"

Joh 19:11 Jesus answered him, "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

Joh 19:12 From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor."

Joh 19:13 When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha.

Joh 19:14 Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews, "Here is your King!"

Joh 19:15 They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but the emperor."

Joh 19:16 Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus;

Joh 19:17 and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.

Joh 19:18 There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them.

Joh 19:19 Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews."

Joh 19:20 Many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

Joh 19:21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'"

Joh 19:22 Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

Joh 19:23 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top.

Joh 19:24 So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it." This was to fulfill what the scripture says, "They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots."

Joh 19:25 And that is what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

Joh 19:26 When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son."

Joh 19:27 Then he said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

Joh 19:28 After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture), "I am thirsty."

Joh 19:29 A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth.

Joh 19:30 When Jesus had received the wine, he said, "It is finished." Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Joh 19:31 Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed.

Joh 19:32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him.

Joh 19:33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

Joh 19:34 Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out.

Joh 19:35 (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.)

Joh 19:36 These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, "None of his bones shall be broken."

Joh 19:37 And again another passage of scripture says, "They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

Joh 19:38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body.

Joh 19:39 Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds.

Joh 19:40 They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews.

Joh 19:41 Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid.

Joh 19:42 And so, because it was the Jewish day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Joh 20:1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

Joh 20:2 So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."

Joh 20:3 Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb.

Joh 20:4 The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

Joh 20:5 He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in.

Joh 20:6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there,

Joh 20:7 and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Joh 20:8 Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed;

Joh 20:9 for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Joh 20:10 Then the disciples returned to their homes.

Joh 20:11 But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb;

Joh 20:12 and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet.

Joh 20:13 They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him."

Joh 20:14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

Joh 20:15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

Joh 20:16 Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher).

Joh 20:17 Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

Joh 20:18 Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Joh 20:19 When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

Joh 20:20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Joh 20:21 Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

Joh 20:22 When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

Joh 20:23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Joh 20:24 But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

Joh 20:25 So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

Joh 20:26 A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

Joh 20:27 Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe."

Joh 20:28 Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

Joh 20:29 Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Joh 20:30 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

Joh 20:31 But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Joh 21:1 After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way.

Joh 21:2 Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples.

Joh 21:3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Joh 21:4 Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

Joh 21:5 Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No."

Joh 21:6 He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish.

Joh 21:7 That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea.

Joh 21:8 But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

Joh 21:9 When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread.

Joh 21:10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught."

Joh 21:11 So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn.

Joh 21:12 Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord.

Joh 21:13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

Joh 21:14 This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Joh 21:15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs."

Joh 21:16 A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep."

Joh 21:17 He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

Joh 21:18 Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go."

Joh 21:19 (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

Joh 21:20 Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; he was the one who had reclined next to Jesus at the supper and had said, "Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?"

Joh 21:21 When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about him?"

Joh 21:22 Jesus said to him, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!"

Joh 21:23 So the rumor spread in the community that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?"

Joh 21:24 This is the disciple who is testifying to these things and has written them, and we know that his testimony is true.

Joh 21:25 But there are also many other things that Jesus did; if every one of them were written down, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

Act 1:1 In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning

Act 1:2 until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

Act 1:3 After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

Act 1:4 While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. "This," he said, "is what you have heard from me;

Act 1:5 for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

Act 1:6 So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?"

Act 1:7 He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority.

Act 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

Act 1:9 When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

Act 1:10 While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them.

Act 1:11 They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

Act 1:12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away.

Act 1:13 When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.

Act 1:14 All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Act 1:15 In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said,

Act 1:16 "Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus--

Act 1:17 for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry."

Act 1:18 (Now this man acquired a field with the reward of his wickedness; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out.

Act 1:19 This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

Act 1:20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his homestead become desolate, and let there be no one to live in it'; and 'Let another take his position of overseer.'

Act 1:21 So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

Act 1:22 beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us-- one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection."

Act 1:23 So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias.

Act 1:24 Then they prayed and said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen Act 1:25 to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place."

Act 1:26 And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Act 2:1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

Act 2:2 And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

Act 2:3 Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

Act 2:4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Act 2:5 Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.

Act 2:6 And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Act 2:7 Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?"

Act 2:8 And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?"

Act 2:9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

Act 2:10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

Act 2:11 Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power."

Act 2:12 All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?"

Act 2:13 But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

Act 2:14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.

Act 2:15 Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning.

Act 2:16 No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

Act 2:17 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Act 2:18 Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

Act 2:19 And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

Act 2:20 The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Act 2:21 Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Act 2:22 "You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know--

Act 2:23 this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law.

Act 2:24 But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power.

Act 2:25 For David says concerning him, 'I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;

Act 2:26 therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope.

Act 2:27 For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption.

Act 2:28 You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.'

Act 2:29 "Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

Act 2:30 Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne.

Act 2:31 Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, 'He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.'

Act 2:32 This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.

Act 2:33 Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you both see and hear.

Act 2:34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, Act 2:35 until I make your enemies your footstool.'"

Act 2:36 Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Act 2:37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

Act 2:38 Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Act 2:39 For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him."

Act 2:40 And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."

Act 2:41 So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Act 2:42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Act 2:43 Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles.

Act 2:44 All who believed were together and had all things in common;

Act 2:45 they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need.

Act 2:46 Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts,

Act 2:47 praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Act 3:1 One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

Act 3:2 And a man lame from birth was being carried in. People would lay him daily at the gate of the temple called the Beautiful Gate so that he could ask for alms from those entering the temple.

Act 3:3 When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked them for alms.

Act 3:4 Peter looked intently at him, as did John, and said, "Look at us."
Act 3:5 And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them.
Act 3:6 But Peter said, "I have no silver or gold, but what I have I give you; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, stand up and walk."
Act 3:7 And he took him by the right hand and raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong.
Act 3:8 Jumping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.
Act 3:9 All the people saw him walking and praising God,
Act 3:10 and they recognized him as the one who used to sit and ask for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.
Act 3:11 While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's Portico, utterly astonished.
Act 3:12 When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?
Act 3:13 The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him.
Act 3:14 But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you,
Act 3:15 and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses.
Act 3:16 And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.
Act 3:17 "And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.
Act 3:18 In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer.
Act 3:19 Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out,
Act 3:20 so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus,
Act 3:21 who must remain in heaven until the time of universal restoration that God announced long ago through his holy prophets.
Act 3:22 Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you from your own people a prophet like me. You must listen to whatever he tells you.
Act 3:23 And it will be that everyone who does not listen to that prophet will be utterly rooted out of the people.'
Act 3:24 And all the prophets, as many as have spoken, from Samuel and those after him, also predicted these days.
Act 3:25 You are the descendants of the prophets and of the covenant that God gave to your ancestors, saying to Abraham, 'And in your descendants all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'
Act 3:26 When God raised up his servant, he sent him first to you, to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."
Act 4:1 While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came to them,
Act 4:2 much annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming that in Jesus there is the resurrection of the dead.
Act 4:3 So they arrested them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening.
Act 4:4 But many of those who heard the word believed; and they numbered about five thousand.
Act 4:5 The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem,
Act 4:6 with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family.
Act 4:7 When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?"
Act 4:8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders,
Act 4:9 if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed,
Act 4:10 let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.
Act 4:11 This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.'
Act 4:12 There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."
Act 4:13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed and recognized them as companions of Jesus.
Act 4:14 When they saw the man who had been cured standing beside them, they had nothing to say in opposition.

Act 4:15 So they ordered them to leave the council while they discussed the matter with one another.

Act 4:16 They said, "What will we do with them? For it is obvious to all who live in Jerusalem that a notable sign has been done through them; we cannot deny it.

Act 4:17 But to keep it from spreading further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to anyone in this name."

Act 4:18 So they called them and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

Act 4:19 But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in God's sight to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge;

Act 4:20 for we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard."

Act 4:21 After threatening them again, they let them go, finding no way to punish them because of the people, for all of them praised God for what had happened.

Act 4:22 For the man on whom this sign of healing had been performed was more than forty years old.

Act 4:23 After they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them.

Act 4:24 When they heard it, they raised their voices together to God and said, "Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and everything in them,

Act 4:25 it is you who said by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant: 'Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine vain things?

Act 4:26 The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers have gathered together against the Lord and against his Messiah.'

Act 4:27 For in this city, in fact, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, Act 4:28 to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place.

Act 4:29 And now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness,

Act 4:30 while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

Act 4:31 When they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.

Act 4:32 Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common.

Act 4:33 With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

Act 4:34 There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold.

Act 4:35 They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Act 4:36 There was a Levite, a native of Cyprus, Joseph, to whom the apostles gave the name Barnabas (which means "son of encouragement").

Act 4:37 He sold a field that belonged to him, then brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Act 5:1 But a man named Ananias, with the consent of his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property;

Act 5:2 with his wife's knowledge, he kept back some of the proceeds, and brought only a part and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Act 5:3 "Ananias," Peter asked, "why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the proceeds of the land?

Act 5:4 While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, were not the proceeds at your disposal? How is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You did not lie to us but to God!"

Act 5:5 Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard of it.

Act 5:6 The young men came and wrapped up his body, then carried him out and buried him.

Act 5:7 After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

Act 5:8 Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you and your husband sold the land for such and such a price." And she said, "Yes, that was the price."

Act 5:9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

Act 5:10 Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came in they found her dead, so they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

Act 5:11 And great fear seized the whole church and all who heard of these things.

Act 5:12 Now many signs and wonders were done among the people through the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico.

Act 5:13 None of the rest dared to join them, but the people held them in high esteem.

Act 5:14 Yet more than ever believers were added to the Lord, great numbers of both men and women,
Act 5:15 so that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mats, in order that Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he came by.
Act 5:16 A great number of people would also gather from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.
Act 5:17 Then the high priest took action; he and all who were with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), being filled with jealousy,
Act 5:18 arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison.
Act 5:19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, brought them out, and said,
Act 5:20 "Go, stand in the temple and tell the people the whole message about this life."
Act 5:21 When they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and went on with their teaching. When the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the council and the whole body of the elders of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
Act 5:22 But when the temple police went there, they did not find them in the prison; so they returned and reported,
Act 5:23 "We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside."
Act 5:24 Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed about them, wondering what might be going on.
Act 5:25 Then someone arrived and announced, "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"
Act 5:26 Then the captain went with the temple police and brought them, but without violence, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.
Act 5:27 When they had brought them, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them,
Act 5:28 saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us."
Act 5:29 But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority.
Act 5:30 The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree.
Act 5:31 God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.
Act 5:32 And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."
Act 5:33 When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them.
Act 5:34 But a Pharisee in the council named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, respected by all the people, stood up and ordered the men to be put outside for a short time.
Act 5:35 Then he said to them, "Fellow Israelites, consider carefully what you propose to do to these men.
Act 5:36 For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him; but he was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and disappeared.
Act 5:37 After him Judas the Galilean rose up at the time of the census and got people to follow him; he also perished, and all who followed him were scattered.
Act 5:38 So in the present case, I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone; because if this plan or this undertaking is of human origin, it will fail;
Act 5:39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them-- in that case you may even be found fighting against God!" They were convinced by him,
Act 5:40 and when they had called in the apostles, they had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
Act 5:41 As they left the council, they rejoiced that they were considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.
Act 5:42 And every day in the temple and at home they did not cease to teach and proclaim Jesus as the Messiah.
Act 6:1 Now during those days, when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of food.
Act 6:2 And the twelve called together the whole community of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should neglect the word of God in order to wait on tables.
Act 6:3 Therefore, friends, select from among yourselves seven men of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this task,
Act 6:4 while we, for our part, will devote ourselves to prayer and to serving the word."
Act 6:5 What they said pleased the whole community, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

Act 6:6 They had these men stand before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

Act 6:7 The word of God continued to spread; the number of the disciples increased greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

Act 6:8 Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.

Act 6:9 Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and others of those from Cilicia and Asia, stood up and argued with Stephen.

Act 6:10 But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.

Act 6:11 Then they secretly instigated some men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."

Act 6:12 They stirred up the people as well as the elders and the scribes; then they suddenly confronted him, seized him, and brought him before the council.

Act 6:13 They set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops saying things against this holy place and the law;

Act 6:14 for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and will change the customs that Moses handed on to us."

Act 6:15 And all who sat in the council looked intently at him, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Act 7:1 Then the high priest asked him, "Are these things so?"

Act 7:2 And Stephen replied: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God of glory appeared to our ancestor Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,

Act 7:3 and said to him, 'Leave your country and your relatives and go to the land that I will show you.'

Act 7:4 Then he left the country of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, God had him move from there to this country in which you are now living.

Act 7:5 He did not give him any of it as a heritage, not even a foot's length, but promised to give it to him as his possession and to his descendants after him, even though he had no child.

Act 7:6 And God spoke in these terms, that his descendants would be resident aliens in a country belonging to others, who would enslave them and mistreat them during four hundred years.

Act 7:7 'But I will judge the nation that they serve,' said God, 'and after that they shall come out and worship me in this place.'

Act 7:8 Then he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

Act 7:9 "The patriarchs, jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt; but God was with him,

Act 7:10 and rescued him from all his afflictions, and enabled him to win favor and to show wisdom when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him ruler over Egypt and over all his household.

Act 7:11 Now there came a famine throughout Egypt and Canaan, and great suffering, and our ancestors could find no food.

Act 7:12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors there on their first visit.

Act 7:13 On the second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh.

Act 7:14 Then Joseph sent and invited his father Jacob and all his relatives to come to him, seventy-five in all;

Act 7:15 so Jacob went down to Egypt. He himself died there as well as our ancestors,

Act 7:16 and their bodies were brought back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

Act 7:17 "But as the time drew near for the fulfillment of the promise that God had made to Abraham, our people in Egypt increased and multiplied Act 7:18 until another king who had not known Joseph ruled over Egypt.

Act 7:19 He dealt craftily with our race and forced our ancestors to abandon their infants so that they would die.

Act 7:20 At this time Moses was born, and he was beautiful before God. For three months he was brought up in his father's house;

Act 7:21 and when he was abandoned, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son.

Act 7:22 So Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in his words and deeds.

Act 7:23 "When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his relatives, the Israelites.

Act 7:24 When he saw one of them being wronged, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian.

Act 7:25 He supposed that his kinsfolk would understand that God through him was rescuing them, but they did not understand.

Act 7:26 The next day he came to some of them as they were quarreling and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong each other?'

Act 7:27 But the man who was wronging his neighbor pushed Moses aside, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?'

Act 7:28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'

Act 7:29 When he heard this, Moses fled and became a resident alien in the land of Midian. There he became the father of two sons.

Act 7:30 "Now when forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush.

Act 7:31 When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight; and as he approached to look, there came the voice of the Lord:

Act 7:32 'I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses began to tremble and did not dare to look.

Act 7:33 Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Act 7:34 I have surely seen the mistreatment of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to rescue them. Come now, I will send you to Egypt.'

Act 7:35 "It was this Moses whom they rejected when they said, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' and whom God now sent as both ruler and liberator through the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

Act 7:36 He led them out, having performed wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

Act 7:37 This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, 'God will raise up a prophet for you from your own people as he raised me up.'

Act 7:38 He is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors; and he received living oracles to give to us.

Act 7:39 Our ancestors were unwilling to obey him; instead, they pushed him aside, and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt,

Act 7:40 saying to Aaron, 'Make gods for us who will lead the way for us; as for this Moses who led us out from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.'

Act 7:41 At that time they made a calf, offered a sacrifice to the idol, and reveled in the works of their hands.

Act 7:42 But God turned away from them and handed them over to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets: 'Did you offer to me slain victims and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?'

Act 7:43 No; you took along the tent of Moloch, and the star of your god Rephan, the images that you made to worship; so I will remove you beyond Babylon.'

Act 7:44 "Our ancestors had the tent of testimony in the wilderness, as God directed when he spoke to Moses, ordering him to make it according to the pattern he had seen.

Act 7:45 Our ancestors in turn brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations that God drove out before our ancestors. And it was there until the time of David,

Act 7:46 who found favor with God and asked that he might find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob.

Act 7:47 But it was Solomon who built a house for him.

Act 7:48 Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made with human hands; as the prophet says,

Act 7:49 'Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what is the place of my rest?'

Act 7:50 Did not my hand make all these things?'

Act 7:51 "You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you are forever opposing the Holy Spirit, just as your ancestors used to do.

Act 7:52 Which of the prophets did your ancestors not persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, and now you have become his betrayers and murderers.

Act 7:53 You are the ones that received the law as ordained by angels, and yet you have not kept it."

Act 7:54 When they heard these things, they became enraged and ground their teeth at Stephen.

Act 7:55 But filled with the Holy Spirit, he gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

Act 7:56 "Look," he said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

Act 7:57 But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him.

Act 7:58 Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.

Act 7:59 While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."

Act 7:60 Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he died.

Act 8:1 And Saul approved of their killing him. That day a severe persecution began against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout the countryside of Judea and Samaria.

Act 8:2 Devout men buried Stephen and made loud lamentation over him.

Act 8:3 But Saul was ravaging the church by entering house after house; dragging off both men and women, he committed them to prison.

Act 8:4 Now those who were scattered went from place to place, proclaiming the word.

Act 8:5 Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah to them.

Act 8:6 The crowds with one accord listened eagerly to what was said by Philip, hearing and seeing the signs that he did,

Act 8:7 for unclean spirits, crying with loud shrieks, came out of many who were possessed; and many others who were paralyzed or lame were cured.

Act 8:8 So there was great joy in that city.

Act 8:9 Now a certain man named Simon had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, saying that he was someone great.

Act 8:10 All of them, from the least to the greatest, listened to him eagerly, saying, "This man is the power of God that is called Great."

Act 8:11 And they listened eagerly to him because for a long time he had amazed them with his magic.

Act 8:12 But when they believed Philip, who was proclaiming the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

Act 8:13 Even Simon himself believed. After being baptized, he stayed constantly with Philip and was amazed when he saw the signs and great miracles that took place.

Act 8:14 Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

Act 8:15 The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit

Act 8:16 (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus).

Act 8:17 Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Act 8:18 Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,

Act 8:19 saying, "Give me also this power so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

Act 8:20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain God's gift with money!

Act 8:21 You have no part or share in this, for your heart is not right before God.

Act 8:22 Repent therefore of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you.

Act 8:23 For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and the chains of wickedness."

Act 8:24 Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that nothing of what you have said may happen to me."

Act 8:25 Now after Peter and John had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, proclaiming the good news to many villages of the Samaritans.

Act 8:26 Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.)

Act 8:27 So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship

Act 8:28 and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

Act 8:29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it."

Act 8:30 So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

Act 8:31 He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him.

Act 8:32 Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth.

Act 8:33 In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth."

Act 8:34 The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?"

Act 8:35 Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus.

Act 8:36 As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?"

Act 8:37

Act 8:38 He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

Act 8:39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing.

Act 8:40 But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Act 9:1 Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

Act 9:2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

Act 9:3 Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

Act 9:4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

Act 9:5 He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.

Act 9:6 But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Act 9:7 The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one.

Act 9:8 Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

Act 9:9 For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Act 9:10 Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord."

Act 9:11 The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, Act 9:12 and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight."

Act 9:13 But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem;

Act 9:14 and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name."

Act 9:15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel;

Act 9:16 I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name."

Act 9:17 So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit."

Act 9:18 And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized,

Act 9:19 and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus,

Act 9:20 and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."

Act 9:21 All who heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem among those who invoked this name? And has he not come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?"

Act 9:22 Saul became increasingly more powerful and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

Act 9:23 After some time had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him,

Act 9:24 but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night so that they might kill him;

Act 9:25 but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.

Act 9:26 When he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple.

Act 9:27 But Barnabas took him, brought him to the apostles, and described for them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.

Act 9:28 So he went in and out among them in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

Act 9:29 He spoke and argued with the Hellenists; but they were attempting to kill him.

Act 9:30 When the believers learned of it, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

Act 9:31 Meanwhile the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and was built up. Living in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it increased in numbers.

Act 9:32 Now as Peter went here and there among all the believers, he came down also to the saints living in Lydda.

Act 9:33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, for he was paralyzed.

Act 9:34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; get up and make your bed!" And immediately he got up.

Act 9:35 And all the residents of Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

Act 9:36 Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity.

Act 9:37 At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs.

Act 9:38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay."

Act 9:39 So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them.

Act 9:40 Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up.

Act 9:41 He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive.

Act 9:42 This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

Act 9:43 Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Act 10:1 In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of the Italian Cohort, as it was called.

Act 10:2 He was a devout man who feared God with all his household; he gave alms generously to the people and prayed constantly to God.

Act 10:3 One afternoon at about three o'clock he had a vision in which he clearly saw an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius."

Act 10:4 He stared at him in terror and said, "What is it, Lord?" He answered, "Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God.

Act 10:5 Now send men to Joppa for a certain Simon who is called Peter;

Act 10:6 he is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside."

Act 10:7 When the angel who spoke to him had left, he called two of his slaves and a devout soldier from the ranks of those who served him,

Act 10:8 and after telling them everything, he sent them to Joppa.

Act 10:9 About noon the next day, as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray.

Act 10:10 He became hungry and wanted something to eat; and while it was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

Act 10:11 He saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet coming down, being lowered to the ground by its four corners.

Act 10:12 In it were all kinds of four-footed creatures and reptiles and birds of the air.

Act 10:13 Then he heard a voice saying, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat."

Act 10:14 But Peter said, "By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is profane or unclean."

Act 10:15 The voice said to him again, a second time, "What God has made clean, you must not call profane."

Act 10:16 This happened three times, and the thing was suddenly taken up to heaven.

Act 10:17 Now while Peter was greatly puzzled about what to make of the vision that he had seen, suddenly the men sent by Cornelius appeared. They were asking for Simon's house and were standing by the gate.

Act 10:18 They called out to ask whether Simon, who was called Peter, was staying there.

Act 10:19 While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Look, three men are searching for you.

Act 10:20 Now get up, go down, and go with them without hesitation; for I have sent them."

Act 10:21 So Peter went down to the men and said, "I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for your coming?"

Act 10:22 They answered, "Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear what you have to say."

Act 10:23 So Peter invited them in and gave them lodging. The next day he got up and went with them, and some of the believers from Joppa accompanied him.

Act 10:24 The following day they came to Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

Act 10:25 On Peter's arrival Cornelius met him, and falling at his feet, worshiped him.

Act 10:26 But Peter made him get up, saying, "Stand up; I am only a mortal."

Act 10:27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found that many had assembled;

Act 10:28 and he said to them, "You yourselves know that it is unlawful for a Jew to associate with or to visit a Gentile; but God has shown me that I should not call anyone profane or unclean.

Act 10:29 So when I was sent for, I came without objection. Now may I ask why you sent for me?"

Act 10:30 Cornelius replied, "Four days ago at this very hour, at three o'clock, I was praying in my house when suddenly a man in dazzling clothes stood before me.

Act 10:31 He said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God.

Act 10:32 Send therefore to Joppa and ask for Simon, who is called Peter; he is staying in the home of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.'

Act 10:33 Therefore I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. So now all of us are here in the presence of God to listen to all that the Lord has commanded you to say."

Act 10:34 Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality,

Act 10:35 but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

Act 10:36 You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ-- he is Lord of all.

Act 10:37 That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced:

Act 10:38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

Act 10:39 We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree;

Act 10:40 but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear,

Act 10:41 not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Act 10:42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead.

Act 10:43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Act 10:44 While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word.

Act 10:45 The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles,

Act 10:46 for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said,

Act 10:47 "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?"

Act 10:48 So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Act 11:1 Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God.

Act 11:2 So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him,

Act 11:3 saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?"

Act 11:4 Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying,

Act 11:5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me.

Act 11:6 As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air.

Act 11:7 I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.'

Act 11:8 But I replied, 'By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

Act 11:9 But a second time the voice answered from heaven, 'What God has made clean, you must not call profane.'

Act 11:10 This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven.

Act 11:11 At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were.

Act 11:12 The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.

Act 11:13 He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter;

Act 11:14 he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.'

Act 11:15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning.

Act 11:16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

Act 11:17 If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?"

Act 11:18 When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, "Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life."

Act 11:19 Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that took place over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, and they spoke the word to no one except Jews.

Act 11:20 But among them were some men of Cyprus and Cyrene who, on coming to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists also, proclaiming the Lord Jesus.

Act 11:21 The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number became believers and turned to the Lord.

Act 11:22 News of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

Act 11:23 When he came and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast devotion;

Act 11:24 for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were brought to the Lord.

Act 11:25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul,

Act 11:26 and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for an entire year they met with the church and taught a great many people, and it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called "Christians."

Act 11:27 At that time prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

Act 11:28 One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine over all the world; and this took place during the reign of Claudius.

Act 11:29 The disciples determined that according to their ability, each would send relief to the believers living in Judea;

Act 11:30 this they did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

Act 12:1 About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church.

Act 12:2 He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword.

Act 12:3 After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.)

Act 12:4 When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

Act 12:5 While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him.

Act 12:6 The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison.

Act 12:7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his wrists.

Act 12:8 The angel said to him, "Fasten your belt and put on your sandals." He did so. Then he said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me."

Act 12:9 Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision.

Act 12:10 After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him.

Act 12:11 Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

Act 12:12 As soon as he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose other name was Mark, where many had gathered and were praying.

Act 12:13 When he knocked at the outer gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer.

Act 12:14 On recognizing Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the gate, she ran in and announced that Peter was standing at the gate.

Act 12:15 They said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel."

Act 12:16 Meanwhile Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the gate, they saw him and were amazed.

Act 12:17 He motioned to them with his hand to be silent, and described for them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he added, "Tell this to James and to the believers." Then he left and went to another place.

Act 12:18 When morning came, there was no small commotion among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.

Act 12:19 When Herod had searched for him and could not find him, he examined the guards and ordered them to be put to death. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

Act 12:20 Now Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they came to him in a body; and after winning over Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they asked for a reconciliation, because their country depended on the king's country for food.

Act 12:21 On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat on the platform, and delivered a public address to them.

Act 12:22 The people kept shouting, "The voice of a god, and not of a mortal!"

Act 12:23 And immediately, because he had not given the glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died.

Act 12:24 But the word of God continued to advance and gain adherents.

Act 12:25 Then after completing their mission Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem and brought with them John, whose other name was Mark.

Act 13:1 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the ruler, and Saul.

Act 13:2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

Act 13:3 Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Act 13:4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

Act 13:5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John also to assist them.

Act 13:6 When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they met a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, named Bar-Jesus.

Act 13:7 He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God.

Act 13:8 But the magician Elymas (for that is the translation of his name) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

Act 13:9 But Saul, also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him

Act 13:10 and said, "You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, full of all deceit and villainy, will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?"

Act 13:11 And now listen-- the hand of the Lord is against you, and you will be blind for a while, unable to see the sun." Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he went about groping for someone to lead him by the hand.

Act 13:12 When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Act 13:13 Then Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John, however, left them and returned to Jerusalem;

Act 13:14 but they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.

Act 13:15 After the reading of the law and the prophets, the officials of the synagogue sent them a message, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, give it."

Act 13:16 So Paul stood up and with a gesture began to speak: "You Israelites, and others who fear God, listen.

Act 13:17 The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it.

Act 13:18 For about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness.

Act 13:19 After he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance

Act 13:20 for about four hundred fifty years. After that he gave them judges until the time of the prophet Samuel.

Act 13:21 Then they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years.

Act 13:22 When he had removed him, he made David their king. In his testimony about him he said, 'I have found David, son of Jesse, to be a man after my heart, who will carry out all my wishes.'

Act 13:23 Of this man's posterity God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as he promised;

Act 13:24 before his coming John had already proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

Act 13:25 And as John was finishing his work, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but one is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of the sandals on his feet.'

Act 13:26 "My brothers, you descendants of Abraham's family, and others who fear God, to us the message of this salvation has been sent.

Act 13:27 Because the residents of Jerusalem and their leaders did not recognize him or understand the words of the prophets that are read every sabbath, they fulfilled those words by condemning him.

Act 13:28 Even though they found no cause for a sentence of death, they asked Pilate to have him killed.

Act 13:29 When they had carried out everything that was written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb.

Act 13:30 But God raised him from the dead;

Act 13:31 and for many days he appeared to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, and they are now his witnesses to the people.

Act 13:32 And we bring you the good news that what God promised to our ancestors

Act 13:33 he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, 'You are my Son; today I have begotten you.'

Act 13:34 As to his raising him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he has spoken in this way, 'I will give you the holy promises made to David.'

Act 13:35 Therefore he has also said in another psalm, 'You will not let your Holy One experience corruption.'

Act 13:36 For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, died, was laid beside his ancestors, and experienced corruption;

Act 13:37 but he whom God raised up experienced no corruption.

Act 13:38 Let it be known to you therefore, my brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you;

Act 13:39 by this Jesus everyone who believes is set free from all those sins from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses.

Act 13:40 Beware, therefore, that what the prophets said does not happen to you:

Act 13:41 'Look, you scoffers! Be amazed and perish, for in your days I am doing a work, a work that you will never believe, even if someone tells you.'

Act 13:42 As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people urged them to speak about these things again the next sabbath.

Act 13:43 When the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

Act 13:44 The next sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord.

Act 13:45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy; and blaspheming, they contradicted what was spoken by Paul.

Act 13:46 Then both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you. Since you reject it and judge yourselves to be unworthy of eternal life, we are now turning to the Gentiles.

Act 13:47 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, 'I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, so that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

Act 13:48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and praised the word of the Lord; and as many as had been destined for eternal life became believers.

Act 13:49 Thus the word of the Lord spread throughout the region.

Act 13:50 But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their region.

Act 13:51 So they shook the dust off their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium.

Act 13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Act 14:1 The same thing occurred in Iconium, where Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks became believers.

Act 14:2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

Act 14:3 So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace by granting signs and wonders to be done through them.

Act 14:4 But the residents of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

Act 14:5 And when an attempt was made by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat them and to stone them,

Act 14:6 the apostles learned of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding country;

Act 14:7 and there they continued proclaiming the good news.

Act 14:8 In Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet and had never walked, for he had been crippled from birth.

Act 14:9 He listened to Paul as he was speaking. And Paul, looking at him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed, Act 14:10 said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And the man sprang up and began to walk.

Act 14:11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!"

Act 14:12 Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

Act 14:13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates; he and the crowds wanted to offer sacrifice.

Act 14:14 When the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting,

Act 14:15 "Friends, why are you doing this? We are mortals just like you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them.

Act 14:16 In past generations he allowed all the nations to follow their own ways;

Act 14:17 yet he has not left himself without a witness in doing good-- giving you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, and filling you with food and your hearts with joy."

Act 14:18 Even with these words, they scarcely restrained the crowds from offering sacrifice to them.

Act 14:19 But Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium and won over the crowds. Then they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

Act 14:20 But when the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went into the city. The next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe.

Act 14:21 After they had proclaimed the good news to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, then on to Iconium and Antioch.

Act 14:22 There they strengthened the souls of the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, "It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God."

Act 14:23 And after they had appointed elders for them in each church, with prayer and fasting they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

Act 14:24 Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.

Act 14:25 When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Act 14:26 From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had completed.

Act 14:27 When they arrived, they called the church together and related all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles.

Act 14:28 And they stayed there with the disciples for some time.

Act 15:1 Then certain individuals came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

Act 15:2 And after Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to discuss this question with the apostles and the elders.

Act 15:3 So they were sent on their way by the church, and as they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, they reported the conversion of the Gentiles, and brought great joy to all the believers.

Act 15:4 When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them.

Act 15:5 But some believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and said, "It is necessary for them to be circumcised and ordered to keep the law of Moses."

Act 15:6 The apostles and the elders met together to consider this matter.

Act 15:7 After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "My brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that I should be the one through whom the Gentiles would hear the message of the good news and become believers.

Act 15:8 And God, who knows the human heart, testified to them by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us;

Act 15:9 and in cleansing their hearts by faith he has made no distinction between them and us.

Act 15:10 Now therefore why are you putting God to the test by placing on the neck of the disciples a yoke that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear?

Act 15:11 On the contrary, we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will."

Act 15:12 The whole assembly kept silence, and listened to Barnabas and Paul as they told of all the signs and wonders that God had done through them among the Gentiles.

Act 15:13 After they finished speaking, James replied, "My brothers, listen to me.

Act 15:14 Simeon has related how God first looked favorably on the Gentiles, to take from among them a people for his name.

Act 15:15 This agrees with the words of the prophets, as it is written,

Act 15:16 'After this I will return, and I will rebuild the dwelling of David, which has fallen; from its ruins I will rebuild it, and I will set it up,

Act 15:17 so that all other peoples may seek the Lord-- even all the Gentiles over whom my name has been called. Thus says the Lord, who has been making these things

Act 15:18 known from long ago.'

Act 15:19 Therefore I have reached the decision that we should not trouble those Gentiles who are turning to

God,

Act 15:20 but we should write to them to abstain only from things polluted by idols and from fornication and from whatever has been strangled and from blood.

Act 15:21 For in every city, for generations past, Moses has had those who proclaim him, for he has been read aloud every sabbath in the synagogues."

Act 15:22 Then the apostles and the elders, with the consent of the whole church, decided to choose men from among their members and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leaders among the brothers, Act 15:23 with the following letter: "The brothers, both the apostles and the elders, to the believers of Gentile origin in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greetings.

Act 15:24 Since we have heard that certain persons who have gone out from us, though with no instructions from us, have said things to disturb you and have unsettled your minds,

Act 15:25 we have decided unanimously to choose representatives and send them to you, along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

Act 15:26 who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Act 15:27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will tell you the same things by word of mouth.

Act 15:28 For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to impose on you no further burden than these essentials:

Act 15:29 that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell."

Act 15:30 So they were sent off and went down to Antioch. When they gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.

Act 15:31 When its members read it, they rejoiced at the exhortation.

Act 15:32 Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers.

Act 15:33 After they had been there for some time, they were sent off in peace by the believers to those who had sent them.

Act 15:34

Act 15:35 But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, and there, with many others, they taught and proclaimed the word of the Lord.

Act 15:36 After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Come, let us return and visit the believers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord and see how they are doing."

Act 15:37 Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark.

Act 15:38 But Paul decided not to take with them one who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work.

Act 15:39 The disagreement became so sharp that they parted company; Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus.

Act 15:40 But Paul chose Silas and set out, the believers commending him to the grace of the Lord.

Act 15:41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Act 16:1 Paul went on also to Derbe and to Lystra, where there was a disciple named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer; but his father was a Greek.

Act 16:2 He was well spoken of by the believers in Lystra and Iconium.

Act 16:3 Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him; and he took him and had him circumcised because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

Act 16:4 As they went from town to town, they delivered to them for observance the decisions that had been reached by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem.

Act 16:5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith and increased in numbers daily.

Act 16:6 They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.

Act 16:7 When they had come opposite Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them;

Act 16:8 so, passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas.

Act 16:9 During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

Act 16:10 When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

Act 16:11 We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis,

Act 16:12 and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days.

Act 16:13 On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there.

Act 16:14 A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul.

Act 16:15 When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Act 16:16 One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling.

Act 16:17 While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation."

Act 16:18 She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

Act 16:19 But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.

Act 16:20 When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, "These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews Act 16:21 and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe."

Act 16:22 The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods.

Act 16:23 After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely.

Act 16:24 Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Act 16:25 About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

Act 16:26 Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened.

Act 16:27 When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped.

Act 16:28 But Paul shouted in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here."

Act 16:29 The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.

Act 16:30 Then he brought them outside and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

Act 16:31 They answered, "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

Act 16:32 They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.

Act 16:33 At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay.

Act 16:34 He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

Act 16:35 When morning came, the magistrates sent the police, saying, "Let those men go."

Act 16:36 And the jailer reported the message to Paul, saying, "The magistrates sent word to let you go; therefore come out now and go in peace."

Act 16:37 But Paul replied, "They have beaten us in public, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and now are they going to discharge us in secret? Certainly not! Let them come and take us out themselves."

Act 16:38 The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens;

Act 16:39 so they came and apologized to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city.

Act 16:40 After leaving the prison they went to Lydia's home; and when they had seen and encouraged the brothers and sisters there, they departed.

Act 17:1 After Paul and Silas had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

Act 17:2 And Paul went in, as was his custom, and on three sabbath days argued with them from the scriptures,

Act 17:3 explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This is the Messiah, Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you."

Act 17:4 Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women.

Act 17:5 But the Jews became jealous, and with the help of some ruffians in the marketplaces they formed a mob and set the city in an uproar. While they were searching for Paul and Silas to bring them out to the assembly, they attacked Jason's house.

Act 17:6 When they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some believers before the city authorities, shouting, "These people who have been turning the world upside down have come here also,
Act 17:7 and Jason has entertained them as guests. They are all acting contrary to the decrees of the emperor, saying that there is another king named Jesus."
Act 17:8 The people and the city officials were disturbed when they heard this,
Act 17:9 and after they had taken bail from Jason and the others, they let them go.
Act 17:10 That very night the believers sent Paul and Silas off to Beroea; and when they arrived, they went to the Jewish synagogue.
Act 17:11 These Jews were more receptive than those in Thessalonica, for they welcomed the message very eagerly and examined the scriptures every day to see whether these things were so.
Act 17:12 Many of them therefore believed, including not a few Greek women and men of high standing.
Act 17:13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Beroea as well, they came there too, to stir up and incite the crowds.
Act 17:14 Then the believers immediately sent Paul away to the coast, but Silas and Timothy remained behind.
Act 17:15 Those who conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens; and after receiving instructions to have Silas and Timothy join him as soon as possible, they left him.
Act 17:16 While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply distressed to see that the city was full of idols.
Act 17:17 So he argued in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and also in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there.
Act 17:18 Also some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers debated with him. Some said, "What does this babbling want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign divinities." (This was because he was telling the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.)
Act 17:19 So they took him and brought him to the Areopagus and asked him, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?
Act 17:20 It sounds rather strange to us, so we would like to know what it means."
Act 17:21 Now all the Athenians and the foreigners living there would spend their time in nothing but telling or hearing something new.
Act 17:22 Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way.
Act 17:23 For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.
Act 17:24 The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands,
Act 17:25 nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things.
Act 17:26 From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live,
Act 17:27 so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him-- though indeed he is not far from each one of us.
Act 17:28 For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.'
Act 17:29 Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals.
Act 17:30 While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent,
Act 17:31 because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."
Act 17:32 When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some scoffed; but others said, "We will hear you again about this."
Act 17:33 At that point Paul left them.
Act 17:34 But some of them joined him and became believers, including Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
Act 18:1 After this Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.
Act 18:2 There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them,
Act 18:3 and, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them, and they worked together-- by trade they were tentmakers.

Act 18:4 Every sabbath he would argue in the synagogue and would try to convince Jews and Greeks.

Act 18:5 When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with proclaiming the word, testifying to the Jews that the Messiah was Jesus.

Act 18:6 When they opposed and reviled him, in protest he shook the dust from his clothes and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

Act 18:7 Then he left the synagogue and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God; his house was next door to the synagogue.

Act 18:8 Crispus, the official of the synagogue, became a believer in the Lord, together with all his household; and many of the Corinthians who heard Paul became believers and were baptized.

Act 18:9 One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent;

Act 18:10 for I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to harm you, for there are many in this city who are my people."

Act 18:11 He stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

Act 18:12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the tribunal.

Act 18:13 They said, "This man is persuading people to worship God in ways that are contrary to the law."

Act 18:14 Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of crime or serious villainy, I would be justified in accepting the complaint of you Jews;

Act 18:15 but since it is a matter of questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I do not wish to be a judge of these matters."

Act 18:16 And he dismissed them from the tribunal.

Act 18:17 Then all of them seized Sosthenes, the official of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal. But Gallio paid no attention to any of these things.

Act 18:18 After staying there for a considerable time, Paul said farewell to the believers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he had his hair cut, for he was under a vow.

Act 18:19 When they reached Ephesus, he left them there, but first he himself went into the synagogue and had a discussion with the Jews.

Act 18:20 When they asked him to stay longer, he declined;

Act 18:21 but on taking leave of them, he said, "I will return to you, if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus.

Act 18:22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem and greeted the church, and then went down to Antioch.

Act 18:23 After spending some time there he departed and went from place to place through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Act 18:24 Now there came to Ephesus a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria. He was an eloquent man, well-versed in the scriptures.

Act 18:25 He had been instructed in the Way of the Lord; and he spoke with burning enthusiasm and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John.

Act 18:26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue; but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the Way of God to him more accurately.

Act 18:27 And when he wished to cross over to Achaia, the believers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. On his arrival he greatly helped those who through grace had become believers,

Act 18:28 for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, showing by the scriptures that the Messiah is Jesus.

Act 19:1 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the interior regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples.

Act 19:2 He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?" They replied, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

Act 19:3 Then he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They answered, "Into John's baptism."

Act 19:4 Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus."

Act 19:5 On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Act 19:6 When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied--

Act 19:7 altogether there were about twelve of them.

Act 19:8 He entered the synagogue and for three months spoke out boldly, and argued persuasively about the kingdom of God.

Act 19:9 When some stubbornly refused to believe and spoke evil of the Way before the congregation, he left them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

Act 19:10 This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

Act 19:11 God did extraordinary miracles through Paul,
Act 19:12 so that when the handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, their diseases left them, and the evil spirits came out of them.
Act 19:13 Then some itinerant Jewish exorcists tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims."
Act 19:14 Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this.
Act 19:15 But the evil spirit said to them in reply, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"
Act 19:16 Then the man with the evil spirit leaped on them, mastered them all, and so overpowered them that they fled out of the house naked and wounded.
Act 19:17 When this became known to all residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, everyone was awestruck; and the name of the Lord Jesus was praised.
Act 19:18 Also many of those who became believers confessed and disclosed their practices.
Act 19:19 A number of those who practiced magic collected their books and burned them publicly; when the value of these books was calculated, it was found to come to fifty thousand silver coins.
Act 19:20 So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.
Act 19:21 Now after these things had been accomplished, Paul resolved in the Spirit to go through Macedonia and Achaia, and then to go on to Jerusalem. He said, "After I have gone there, I must also see Rome."
Act 19:22 So he sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he himself stayed for some time longer in Asia.
Act 19:23 About that time no little disturbance broke out concerning the Way.
Act 19:24 A man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the artisans.
Act 19:25 These he gathered together, with the workers of the same trade, and said, "Men, you know that we get our wealth from this business.
Act 19:26 You also see and hear that not only in Ephesus but in almost the whole of Asia this Paul has persuaded and drawn away a considerable number of people by saying that gods made with hands are not gods.
Act 19:27 And there is danger not only that this trade of ours may come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be scorned, and she will be deprived of her majesty that brought all Asia and the world to worship her."
Act 19:28 When they heard this, they were enraged and shouted, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
Act 19:29 The city was filled with the confusion; and people rushed together to the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul's travel companions.
Act 19:30 Paul wished to go into the crowd, but the disciples would not let him;
Act 19:31 even some officials of the province of Asia, who were friendly to him, sent him a message urging him not to venture into the theater.
Act 19:32 Meanwhile, some were shouting one thing, some another; for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together.
Act 19:33 Some of the crowd gave instructions to Alexander, whom the Jews had pushed forward. And Alexander motioned for silence and tried to make a defense before the people.
Act 19:34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, for about two hours all of them shouted in unison, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
Act 19:35 But when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, "Citizens of Ephesus, who is there that does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the temple keeper of the great Artemis and of the statue that fell from heaven?
Act 19:36 Since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash.
Act 19:37 You have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.
Act 19:38 If therefore Demetrius and the artisans with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges there against one another.
Act 19:39 If there is anything further you want to know, it must be settled in the regular assembly.
Act 19:40 For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, since there is no cause that we can give to justify this commotion."
Act 19:41 When he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.
Act 20:1 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples; and after encouraging them and saying farewell, he left for Macedonia.
Act 20:2 When he had gone through those regions and had given the believers much encouragement, he came to Greece,
Act 20:3 where he stayed for three months. He was about to set sail for Syria when a plot was made against him by the Jews, and so he decided to return through Macedonia.

Act 20:4 He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Beroea, by Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, by Gaius from Derbe, and by Timothy, as well as by Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia.

Act 20:5 They went ahead and were waiting for us in Troas;

Act 20:6 but we sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we joined them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

Act 20:7 On the first day of the week, when we met to break bread, Paul was holding a discussion with them; since he intended to leave the next day, he continued speaking until midnight.

Act 20:8 There were many lamps in the room upstairs where we were meeting.

Act 20:9 A young man named Eutychus, who was sitting in the window, began to sink off into a deep sleep while Paul talked still longer. Overcome by sleep, he fell to the ground three floors below and was picked up dead.

Act 20:10 But Paul went down, and bending over him took him in his arms, and said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him."

Act 20:11 Then Paul went upstairs, and after he had broken bread and eaten, he continued to converse with them until dawn; then he left.

Act 20:12 Meanwhile they had taken the boy away alive and were not a little comforted.

Act 20:13 We went ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there; for he had made this arrangement, intending to go by land himself.

Act 20:14 When he met us in Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene.

Act 20:15 We sailed from there, and on the following day we arrived opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos, and the day after that we came to Miletus.

Act 20:16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; he was eager to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

Act 20:17 From Miletus he sent a message to Ephesus, asking the elders of the church to meet him.

Act 20:18 When they came to him, he said to them: "You yourselves know how I lived among you the entire time from the first day that I set foot in Asia,

Act 20:19 serving the Lord with all humility and with tears, enduring the trials that came to me through the plots of the Jews.

Act 20:20 I did not shrink from doing anything helpful, proclaiming the message to you and teaching you publicly and from house to house,

Act 20:21 as I testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus.

Act 20:22 And now, as a captive to the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there,

Act 20:23 except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and persecutions are waiting for me.

Act 20:24 But I do not count my life of any value to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the good news of God's grace.

Act 20:25 "And now I know that none of you, among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again.

Act 20:26 Therefore I declare to you this day that I am not responsible for the blood of any of you,

Act 20:27 for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.

Act 20:28 Keep watch over yourselves and over all the flock, of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God that he obtained with the blood of his own Son.

Act 20:29 I know that after I have gone, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

Act 20:30 Some even from your own group will come distorting the truth in order to entice the disciples to follow them.

Act 20:31 Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to warn everyone with tears.

Act 20:32 And now I commend you to God and to the message of his grace, a message that is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who are sanctified.

Act 20:33 I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing.

Act 20:34 You know for yourselves that I worked with my own hands to support myself and my companions.

Act 20:35 In all this I have given you an example that by such work we must support the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, for he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Act 20:36 When he had finished speaking, he knelt down with them all and prayed.

Act 20:37 There was much weeping among them all; they embraced Paul and kissed him,

Act 20:38 grieving especially because of what he had said, that they would not see him again. Then they brought him to the ship.

Act 21:1 When we had parted from them and set sail, we came by a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

Act 21:2 When we found a ship bound for Phoenicia, we went on board and set sail.

Act 21:3 We came in sight of Cyprus; and leaving it on our left, we sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, because the ship was to unload its cargo there.

Act 21:4 We looked up the disciples and stayed there for seven days. Through the Spirit they told Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

Act 21:5 When our days there were ended, we left and proceeded on our journey; and all of them, with wives and children, escorted us outside the city. There we knelt down on the beach and prayed

Act 21:6 and said farewell to one another. Then we went on board the ship, and they returned home.

Act 21:7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we greeted the believers and stayed with them for one day.

Act 21:8 The next day we left and came to Caesarea; and we went into the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven, and stayed with him.

Act 21:9 He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

Act 21:10 While we were staying there for several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

Act 21:11 He came to us and took Paul's belt, bound his own feet and hands with it, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, 'This is the way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and will hand him over to the Gentiles.'"

Act 21:12 When we heard this, we and the people there urged him not to go up to Jerusalem.

Act 21:13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

Act 21:14 Since he would not be persuaded, we remained silent except to say, "The Lord's will be done."

Act 21:15 After these days we got ready and started to go up to Jerusalem.

Act 21:16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also came along and brought us to the house of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.

Act 21:17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us warmly.

Act 21:18 The next day Paul went with us to visit James; and all the elders were present.

Act 21:19 After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

Act 21:20 When they heard it, they praised God. Then they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they are all zealous for the law.

Act 21:21 They have been told about you that you teach all the Jews living among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, and that you tell them not to circumcise their children or observe the customs.

Act 21:22 What then is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

Act 21:23 So do what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow.

Act 21:24 Join these men, go through the rite of purification with them, and pay for the shaving of their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you, but that you yourself observe and guard the law.

Act 21:25 But as for the Gentiles who have become believers, we have sent a letter with our judgment that they should abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication."

Act 21:26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having purified himself, he entered the temple with them, making public the completion of the days of purification when the sacrifice would be made for each of them.

Act 21:27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, who had seen him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd. They seized him,

Act 21:28 shouting, "Fellow Israelites, help! This is the man who is teaching everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this place; more than that, he has actually brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place."

Act 21:29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

Act 21:30 Then all the city was aroused, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut.

Act 21:31 While they were trying to kill him, word came to the tribune of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

Act 21:32 Immediately he took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. When they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

Act 21:33 Then the tribune came, arrested him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains; he inquired who he was and what he had done.

Act 21:34 Some in the crowd shouted one thing, some another; and as he could not learn the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks.

Act 21:35 When Paul came to the steps, the violence of the mob was so great that he had to be carried by the soldiers.

Act 21:36 The crowd that followed kept shouting, "Away with him!"

Act 21:37 Just as Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the tribune, "May I say something to you?" The tribune replied, "Do you know Greek?"

Act 21:38 Then you are not the Egyptian who recently stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"

Act 21:39 Paul replied, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of an important city; I beg you, let me speak to the people."

Act 21:40 When he had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people for silence; and when there was a great hush, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, saying:

Act 22:1 "Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense that I now make before you."

Act 22:2 When they heard him addressing them in Hebrew, they became even more quiet. Then he said:

Act 22:3 "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated strictly according to our ancestral law, being zealous for God, just as all of you are today.

Act 22:4 I persecuted this Way up to the point of death by binding both men and women and putting them in prison,

Act 22:5 as the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify about me. From them I also received letters to the brothers in Damascus, and I went there in order to bind those who were there and to bring them back to Jerusalem for punishment.

Act 22:6 "While I was on my way and approaching Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone about me.

Act 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

Act 22:8 I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' Then he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.'

Act 22:9 Now those who were with me saw the light but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me.

Act 22:10 I asked, 'What am I to do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Get up and go to Damascus; there you will be told everything that has been assigned to you to do.'

Act 22:11 Since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, those who were with me took my hand and led me to Damascus.

Act 22:12 "A certain Ananias, who was a devout man according to the law and well spoken of by all the Jews living there,

Act 22:13 came to me; and standing beside me, he said, 'Brother Saul, regain your sight!' In that very hour I regained my sight and saw him.

Act 22:14 Then he said, 'The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see the Righteous One and to hear his own voice;

Act 22:15 for you will be his witness to all the world of what you have seen and heard.

Act 22:16 And now why do you delay? Get up, be baptized, and have your sins washed away, calling on his name.'

Act 22:17 "After I had returned to Jerusalem and while I was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance

Act 22:18 and saw Jesus saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me.'

Act 22:19 And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you.

Act 22:20 And while the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I myself was standing by, approving and keeping the coats of those who killed him.'

Act 22:21 Then he said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

Act 22:22 Up to this point they listened to him, but then they shouted, "Away with such a fellow from the earth! For he should not be allowed to live."

Act 22:23 And while they were shouting, throwing off their cloaks, and tossing dust into the air,

Act 22:24 the tribune directed that he was to be brought into the barracks, and ordered him to be examined by flogging, to find out the reason for this outcry against him.

Act 22:25 But when they had tied him up with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen who is uncondemned?"

Act 22:26 When the centurion heard that, he went to the tribune and said to him, "What are you about to do? This man is a Roman citizen."

Act 22:27 The tribune came and asked Paul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes."

Act 22:28 The tribune answered, "It cost me a large sum of money to get my citizenship." Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

Act 22:29 Immediately those who were about to examine him drew back from him; and the tribune also was afraid, for he realized that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had bound him.

Act 22:30 Since he wanted to find out what Paul was being accused of by the Jews, the next day he released him and ordered the chief priests and the entire council to meet. He brought Paul down and had him stand before them.

Act 23:1 While Paul was looking intently at the council he said, "Brothers, up to this day I have lived my life with a clear conscience before God."

Act 23:2 Then the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near him to strike him on the mouth.

Act 23:3 At this Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting there to judge me according to the law, and yet in violation of the law you order me to be struck?"

Act 23:4 Those standing nearby said, "Do you dare to insult God's high priest?"

Act 23:5 And Paul said, "I did not realize, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a leader of your people.'"

Act 23:6 When Paul noticed that some were Sadducees and others were Pharisees, he called out in the council, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am on trial concerning the hope of the resurrection of the dead."

Act 23:7 When he said this, a dissension began between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

Act 23:8 (The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, or angel, or spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge all three.)

Act 23:9 Then a great clamor arose, and certain scribes of the Pharisees' group stood up and contended, "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

Act 23:10 When the dissension became violent, the tribune, fearing that they would tear Paul to pieces, ordered the soldiers to go down, take him by force, and bring him into the barracks.

Act 23:11 That night the Lord stood near him and said, "Keep up your courage! For just as you have testified for me in Jerusalem, so you must bear witness also in Rome."

Act 23:12 In the morning the Jews joined in a conspiracy and bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

Act 23:13 There were more than forty who joined in this conspiracy.

Act 23:14 They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have strictly bound ourselves by an oath to taste no food until we have killed Paul.

Act 23:15 Now then, you and the council must notify the tribune to bring him down to you, on the pretext that you want to make a more thorough examination of his case. And we are ready to do away with him before he arrives."

Act 23:16 Now the son of Paul's sister heard about the ambush; so he went and gained entrance to the barracks and told Paul.

Act 23:17 Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the tribune, for he has something to report to him."

Act 23:18 So he took him, brought him to the tribune, and said, "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you; he has something to tell you."

Act 23:19 The tribune took him by the hand, drew him aside privately, and asked, "What is it that you have to report to me?"

Act 23:20 He answered, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more thoroughly into his case.

Act 23:21 But do not be persuaded by them, for more than forty of their men are lying in ambush for him. They have bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink until they kill him. They are ready now and are waiting for your consent."

Act 23:22 So the tribune dismissed the young man, ordering him, "Tell no one that you have informed me of this."

Act 23:23 Then he summoned two of the centurions and said, "Get ready to leave by nine o'clock tonight for Caesarea with two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen.

Act 23:24 Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, and take him safely to Felix the governor."

Act 23:25 He wrote a letter to this effect:

Act 23:26 "Claudius Lysias to his Excellency the governor Felix, greetings.

Act 23:27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, but when I had learned that he was a Roman citizen, I came with the guard and rescued him.

Act 23:28 Since I wanted to know the charge for which they accused him, I had him brought to their council.

Act 23:29 I found that he was accused concerning questions of their law, but was charged with nothing deserving death or imprisonment.

Act 23:30 When I was informed that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, ordering his accusers also to state before you what they have against him. "

Act 23:31 So the soldiers, according to their instructions, took Paul and brought him during the night to Antipatris.

Act 23:32 The next day they let the horsemen go on with him, while they returned to the barracks.

Act 23:33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also before him.

Act 23:34 On reading the letter, he asked what province he belonged to, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia,

Act 23:35 he said, "I will give you a hearing when your accusers arrive." Then he ordered that he be kept under guard in Herod's headquarters.

Act 24:1 Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and an attorney, a certain Tertullus, and they reported their case against Paul to the governor.

Act 24:2 When Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying: "Your Excellency, because of you we have long enjoyed peace, and reforms have been made for this people because of your foresight.

Act 24:3 We welcome this in every way and everywhere with utmost gratitude.

Act 24:4 But, to detain you no further, I beg you to hear us briefly with your customary graciousness.

Act 24:5 We have, in fact, found this man a pestilent fellow, an agitator among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

Act 24:6 He even tried to profane the temple, and so we seized him.

Act 24:7

Act 24:8 By examining him yourself you will be able to learn from him concerning everything of which we accuse him."

Act 24:9 The Jews also joined in the charge by asserting that all this was true.

Act 24:10 When the governor motioned to him to speak, Paul replied: "I cheerfully make my defense, knowing that for many years you have been a judge over this nation.

Act 24:11 As you can find out, it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem.

Act 24:12 They did not find me disputing with anyone in the temple or stirring up a crowd either in the synagogues or throughout the city.

Act 24:13 Neither can they prove to you the charge that they now bring against me.

Act 24:14 But this I admit to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our ancestors, believing everything laid down according to the law or written in the prophets.

Act 24:15 I have a hope in God-- a hope that they themselves also accept-- that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

Act 24:16 Therefore I do my best always to have a clear conscience toward God and all people.

Act 24:17 Now after some years I came to bring alms to my nation and to offer sacrifices.

Act 24:18 While I was doing this, they found me in the temple, completing the rite of purification, without any crowd or disturbance.

Act 24:19 But there were some Jews from Asia-- they ought to be here before you to make an accusation, if they have anything against me.

Act 24:20 Or let these men here tell what crime they had found when I stood before the council,

Act 24:21 unless it was this one sentence that I called out while standing before them, 'It is about the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.'"

Act 24:22 But Felix, who was rather well informed about the Way, adjourned the hearing with the comment, "When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case."

Act 24:23 Then he ordered the centurion to keep him in custody, but to let him have some liberty and not to prevent any of his friends from taking care of his needs.

Act 24:24 Some days later when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him speak concerning faith in Christ Jesus.

Act 24:25 And as he discussed justice, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for the present; when I have an opportunity, I will send for you."

Act 24:26 At the same time he hoped that money would be given him by Paul, and for that reason he used to send for him very often and converse with him.

Act 24:27 After two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and since he wanted to grant the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Act 25:1 Three days after Festus had arrived in the province, he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem

Act 25:2 where the chief priests and the leaders of the Jews gave him a report against Paul. They appealed to him

Act 25:3 and requested, as a favor to them against Paul, to have him transferred to Jerusalem. They were, in fact, planning an ambush to kill him along the way.

Act 25:4 Festus replied that Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and that he himself intended to go there shortly.

Act 25:5 "So," he said, "let those of you who have the authority come down with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, let them accuse him."

Act 25:6 After he had stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.

Act 25:7 When he arrived, the Jews who had gone down from Jerusalem surrounded him, bringing many serious charges against him, which they could not prove.

Act 25:8 Paul said in his defense, "I have in no way committed an offense against the law of the Jews, or against the temple, or against the emperor."

Act 25:9 But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, asked Paul, "Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem and be tried there before me on these charges?"

Act 25:10 Paul said, "I am appealing to the emperor's tribunal; this is where I should be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you very well know.

Act 25:11 Now if I am in the wrong and have committed something for which I deserve to die, I am not trying to escape death; but if there is nothing to their charges against me, no one can turn me over to them. I appeal to the emperor."

Act 25:12 Then Festus, after he had conferred with his council, replied, "You have appealed to the emperor; to the emperor you will go."

Act 25:13 After several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to welcome Festus.

Act 25:14 Since they were staying there several days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a man here who was left in prison by Felix.

Act 25:15 When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me about him and asked for a sentence against him.

Act 25:16 I told them that it was not the custom of the Romans to hand over anyone before the accused had met the accusers face to face and had been given an opportunity to make a defense against the charge.

Act 25:17 So when they met here, I lost no time, but on the next day took my seat on the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought.

Act 25:18 When the accusers stood up, they did not charge him with any of the crimes that I was expecting.

Act 25:19 Instead they had certain points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, but whom Paul asserted to be alive.

Act 25:20 Since I was at a loss how to investigate these questions, I asked whether he wished to go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges.

Act 25:21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept in custody for the decision of his Imperial Majesty, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to the emperor."

Act 25:22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

Act 25:23 So on the next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and they entered the audience hall with the military tribunes and the prominent men of the city. Then Festus gave the order and Paul was brought in.

Act 25:24 And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all here present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish community petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.

Act 25:25 But I found that he had done nothing deserving death; and when he appealed to his Imperial Majesty, I decided to send him.

Act 25:26 But I have nothing definite to write to our sovereign about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that, after we have examined him, I may have something to write--

Act 25:27 for it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner without indicating the charges against him."

Act 26:1 Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and began to defend himself:

Act 26:2 "I consider myself fortunate that it is before you, King Agrippa, I am to make my defense today against all the accusations of the Jews,

Act 26:3 because you are especially familiar with all the customs and controversies of the Jews; therefore I beg of you to listen to me patiently.

Act 26:4 "All the Jews know my way of life from my youth, a life spent from the beginning among my own people and in Jerusalem.

Act 26:5 They have known for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that I have belonged to the strictest sect of our religion and lived as a Pharisee.

Act 26:6 And now I stand here on trial on account of my hope in the promise made by God to our ancestors,
Act 26:7 a promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship day and night. It is for this hope, your Excellency, that I am accused by Jews!
Act 26:8 Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?
Act 26:9 "Indeed, I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things against the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
Act 26:10 And that is what I did in Jerusalem; with authority received from the chief priests, I not only locked up many of the saints in prison, but I also cast my vote against them when they were being condemned to death.
Act 26:11 By punishing them often in all the synagogues I tried to force them to blaspheme; and since I was so furiously enraged at them, I pursued them even to foreign cities.
Act 26:12 "With this in mind, I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, Act 26:13 when at midday along the road, your Excellency, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and my companions.
Act 26:14 When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It hurts you to kick against the goads.'
Act 26:15 I asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The Lord answered, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.
Act 26:16 But get up and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and testify to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you.
Act 26:17 I will rescue you from your people and from the Gentiles-- to whom I am sending you
Act 26:18 to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'
Act 26:19 "After that, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,
Act 26:20 but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout the countryside of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and do deeds consistent with repentance.
Act 26:21 For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.
Act 26:22 To this day I have had help from God, and so I stand here, testifying to both small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would take place:
Act 26:23 that the Messiah must suffer, and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles."
Act 26:24 While he was making this defense, Festus exclaimed, "You are out of your mind, Paul! Too much learning is driving you insane!"
Act 26:25 But Paul said, "I am not out of my mind, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking the sober truth.
Act 26:26 Indeed the king knows about these things, and to him I speak freely; for I am certain that none of these things has escaped his notice, for this was not done in a corner.
Act 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."
Act 26:28 Agrippa said to Paul, "Are you so quickly persuading me to become a Christian?"
Act 26:29 Paul replied, "Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that not only you but also all who are listening to me today might become such as I am-- except for these chains."
Act 26:30 Then the king got up, and with him the governor and Bernice and those who had been seated with them;
Act 26:31 and as they were leaving, they said to one another, "This man is doing nothing to deserve death or imprisonment."
Act 26:32 Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to the emperor."
Act 27:1 When it was decided that we were to sail for Italy, they transferred Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan Cohort, named Julius.
Act 27:2 Embarking on a ship of Adramyttium that was about to set sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, we put to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.
Act 27:3 The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul kindly, and allowed him to go to his friends to be cared for.
Act 27:4 Putting out to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against us.
Act 27:5 After we had sailed across the sea that is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia.
Act 27:6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship bound for Italy and put us on board.
Act 27:7 We sailed slowly for a number of days and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, and as the wind was against us, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone.
Act 27:8 Sailing past it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.
Act 27:9 Since much time had been lost and sailing was now dangerous, because even the Fast had already gone by, Paul advised them,
Act 27:10 saying, "Sirs, I can see that the voyage will be with danger and much heavy loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."
Act 27:11 But the centurion paid more attention to the pilot and to the owner of the ship than to what Paul said.

Act 27:12 Since the harbor was not suitable for spending the winter, the majority was in favor of putting to sea from there, on the chance that somehow they could reach Phoenix, where they could spend the winter. It was a harbor of Crete, facing southwest and northwest.

Act 27:13 When a moderate south wind began to blow, they thought they could achieve their purpose; so they weighed anchor and began to sail past Crete, close to the shore.

Act 27:14 But soon a violent wind, called the northeaster, rushed down from Crete.

Act 27:15 Since the ship was caught and could not be turned head-on into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven.

Act 27:16 By running under the lee of a small island called Cauda we were scarcely able to get the ship's boat under control.

Act 27:17 After hoisting it up they took measures to undergird the ship; then, fearing that they would run on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and so were driven.

Act 27:18 We were being pounded by the storm so violently that on the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard,

Act 27:19 and on the third day with their own hands they threw the ship's tackle overboard.

Act 27:20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest raged, all hope of our being saved was at last abandoned.

Act 27:21 Since they had been without food for a long time, Paul then stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not have set sail from Crete and thereby avoided this damage and loss.

Act 27:22 I urge you now to keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

Act 27:23 For last night there stood by me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship,

Act 27:24 and he said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before the emperor; and indeed, God has granted safety to all those who are sailing with you.'

Act 27:25 So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.

Act 27:26 But we will have to run aground on some island."

Act 27:27 When the fourteenth night had come, as we were drifting across the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were nearing land.

Act 27:28 So they took soundings and found twenty fathoms; a little farther on they took soundings again and found fifteen fathoms.

Act 27:29 Fearing that we might run on the rocks, they let down four anchors from the stern and prayed for day to come.

Act 27:30 But when the sailors tried to escape from the ship and had lowered the boat into the sea, on the pretext of putting out anchors from the bow,

Act 27:31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."

Act 27:32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and set it adrift.

Act 27:33 Just before daybreak, Paul urged all of them to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been in suspense and remaining without food, having eaten nothing.

Act 27:34 Therefore I urge you to take some food, for it will help you survive; for none of you will lose a hair from your heads."

Act 27:35 After he had said this, he took bread; and giving thanks to God in the presence of all, he broke it and began to eat.

Act 27:36 Then all of them were encouraged and took food for themselves.

Act 27:37 (We were in all two hundred seventy-six persons in the ship.)

Act 27:38 After they had satisfied their hunger, they lightened the ship by throwing the wheat into the sea.

Act 27:39 In the morning they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, on which they planned to run the ship ashore, if they could.

Act 27:40 So they cast off the anchors and left them in the sea. At the same time they loosened the ropes that tied the steering-oars; then hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach.

Act 27:41 But striking a reef, they ran the ship aground; the bow stuck and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the force of the waves.

Act 27:42 The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none might swim away and escape;

Act 27:43 but the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and make for the land,

Act 27:44 and the rest to follow, some on planks and others on pieces of the ship. And so it was that all were brought safely to land.

Act 28:1 After we had reached safety, we then learned that the island was called Malta.

Act 28:2 The natives showed us unusual kindness. Since it had begun to rain and was cold, they kindled a fire and welcomed all of us around it.

Act 28:3 Paul had gathered a bundle of brushwood and was putting it on the fire, when a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand.

Act 28:4 When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man must be a murderer; though he has escaped from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live."

Act 28:5 He, however, shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm.

Act 28:6 They were expecting him to swell up or drop dead, but after they had waited a long time and saw that nothing unusual had happened to him, they changed their minds and began to say that he was a god.

Act 28:7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who received us and entertained us hospitably for three days.

Act 28:8 It so happened that the father of Publius lay sick in bed with fever and dysentery. Paul visited him and cured him by praying and putting his hands on him.

Act 28:9 After this happened, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also came and were cured.

Act 28:10 They bestowed many honors on us, and when we were about to sail, they put on board all the provisions we needed.

Act 28:11 Three months later we set sail on a ship that had wintered at the island, an Alexandrian ship with the Twin Brothers as its figurehead.

Act 28:12 We put in at Syracuse and stayed there for three days;

Act 28:13 then we weighed anchor and came to Rhegium. After one day there a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

Act 28:14 There we found believers and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome.

Act 28:15 The believers from there, when they heard of us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage.

Act 28:16 When we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.

Act 28:17 Three days later he called together the local leaders of the Jews. When they had assembled, he said to them, "Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, yet I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans.

Act 28:18 When they had examined me, the Romans wanted to release me, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case.

Act 28:19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to the emperor-- even though I had no charge to bring against my nation.

Act 28:20 For this reason therefore I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is for the sake of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

Act 28:21 They replied, "We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken anything evil about you.

Act 28:22 But we would like to hear from you what you think, for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against."

Act 28:23 After they had set a day to meet with him, they came to him at his lodgings in great numbers. From morning until evening he explained the matter to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the law of Moses and from the prophets.

Act 28:24 Some were convinced by what he had said, while others refused to believe.

Act 28:25 So they disagreed with each other; and as they were leaving, Paul made one further statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah, Act 28:26 'Go to this people and say, You will indeed listen, but never understand, and you will indeed look, but never perceive.

Act 28:27 For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes; so that they might not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn-- and I would heal them.'

Act 28:28 Let it be known to you then that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen."

Act 28:29

Act 28:30 He lived there two whole years at his own expense and welcomed all who came to him,

Act 28:31 proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

Rom 1:2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy scriptures,

Rom 1:3 the gospel concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh

Rom 1:4 and was declared to be Son of God with power according to the spirit of holiness by resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,

Rom 1:5 through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for the sake of his name,

Rom 1:6 including yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ,

Rom 1:7 To all God's beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Rom 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the world.

Rom 1:9 For God, whom I serve with my spirit by announcing the gospel of his Son, is my witness that without ceasing I remember you always in my prayers,

Rom 1:10 asking that by God's will I may somehow at last succeed in coming to you.

Rom 1:11 For I am longing to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you--

Rom 1:12 or rather so that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

Rom 1:13 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that I have often intended to come to you (but thus far have been prevented), in order that I may reap some harvest among you as I have among the rest of the Gentiles.

Rom 1:14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish

Rom 1:15 -- hence my eagerness to proclaim the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

Rom 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Rom 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, "The one who is righteous will live by faith."

Rom 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of those who by their wickedness suppress the truth.

Rom 1:19 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Rom 1:20 Ever since the creation of the world his eternal power and divine nature, invisible though they are, have been understood and seen through the things he has made. So they are without excuse;

Rom 1:21 for though they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their senseless minds were darkened.

Rom 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools;

Rom 1:23 and they exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling a mortal human being or birds or four-footed animals or reptiles.

Rom 1:24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the degrading of their bodies among themselves,

Rom 1:25 because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

Rom 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to degrading passions. Their women exchanged natural intercourse for unnatural,

Rom 1:27 and in the same way also the men, giving up natural intercourse with women, were consumed with passion for one another. Men committed shameless acts with men and received in their own persons the due penalty for their error.

Rom 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind and to things that should not be done.

Rom 1:29 They were filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, covetousness, malice. Full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, craftiness, they are gossips,

Rom 1:30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, rebellious toward parents,

Rom 1:31 foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

Rom 1:32 They know God's decree, that those who practice such things deserve to die-- yet they not only do them but even applaud others who practice them.

Rom 2:1 Therefore you have no excuse, whoever you are, when you judge others; for in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things.

Rom 2:2 You say, "We know that God's judgment on those who do such things is in accordance with truth."

Rom 2:3 Do you imagine, whoever you are, that when you judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself, you will escape the judgment of God?

Rom 2:4 Or do you despise the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience? Do you not realize that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?

Rom 2:5 But by your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.

Rom 2:6 For he will repay according to each one's deeds:

Rom 2:7 to those who by patiently doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life;

Rom 2:8 while for those who are self-seeking and who obey not the truth but wickedness, there will be wrath and fury.

Rom 2:9 There will be anguish and distress for everyone who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek,

Rom 2:10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek.

Rom 2:11 For God shows no partiality.

Rom 2:12 All who have sinned apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.

Rom 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous in God's sight, but the doers of the law who will be justified.

Rom 2:14 When Gentiles, who do not possess the law, do instinctively what the law requires, these, though not having the law, are a law to themselves.

Rom 2:15 They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, to which their own conscience also bears witness; and their conflicting thoughts will accuse or perhaps excuse them

Rom 2:16 on the day when, according to my gospel, God, through Jesus Christ, will judge the secret thoughts of all.

Rom 2:17 But if you call yourself a Jew and rely on the law and boast of your relation to God

Rom 2:18 and know his will and determine what is best because you are instructed in the law,

Rom 2:19 and if you are sure that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

Rom 2:20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth,

Rom 2:21 you, then, that teach others, will you not teach yourself? While you preach against stealing, do you steal?

Rom 2:22 You that forbid adultery, do you commit adultery? You that abhor idols, do you rob temples?

Rom 2:23 You that boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law?

Rom 2:24 For, as it is written, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

Rom 2:25 Circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law; but if you break the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

Rom 2:26 So, if those who are uncircumcised keep the requirements of the law, will not their uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

Rom 2:27 Then those who are physically uncircumcised but keep the law will condemn you that have the written code and circumcision but break the law.

Rom 2:28 For a person is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is true circumcision something external and physical.

Rom 2:29 Rather, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly, and real circumcision is a matter of the heart-- it is spiritual and not literal. Such a person receives praise not from others but from God.

Rom 3:1 Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision?

Rom 3:2 Much, in every way. For in the first place the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God.

Rom 3:3 What if some were unfaithful? Will their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God?

Rom 3:4 By no means! Although everyone is a liar, let God be proved true, as it is written, "So that you may be justified in your words, and prevail in your judging."

Rom 3:5 But if our injustice serves to confirm the justice of God, what should we say? That God is unjust to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.)

Rom 3:6 By no means! For then how could God judge the world?

Rom 3:7 But if through my falsehood God's truthfulness abounds to his glory, why am I still being condemned as a sinner?

Rom 3:8 And why not say (as some people slander us by saying that we say), "Let us do evil so that good may come"? Their condemnation is deserved!

Rom 3:9 What then? Are we any better off? No, not at all; for we have already charged that all, both Jews and Greeks, are under the power of sin,

Rom 3:10 as it is written: "There is no one who is righteous, not even one;

Rom 3:11 there is no one who has understanding, there is no one who seeks God.

Rom 3:12 All have turned aside, together they have become worthless; there is no one who shows kindness, there is not even one."

Rom 3:13 "Their throats are opened graves; they use their tongues to deceive." "The venom of vipers is under their lips."

Rom 3:14 "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness."

Rom 3:15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood;

Rom 3:16 ruin and misery are in their paths,

Rom 3:17 and the way of peace they have not known."

Rom 3:18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

Rom 3:19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God.

Rom 3:20 For "no human being will be justified in his sight" by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

Rom 3:21 But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets,

Rom 3:22 the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction,

Rom 3:23 since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God;

Rom 3:24 they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

Rom 3:25 whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed;

Rom 3:26 it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus.

Rom 3:27 Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith.

Rom 3:28 For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

Rom 3:29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,

Rom 3:30 since God is one; and he will justify the circumcised on the ground of faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.

Rom 3:31 Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Rom 4:1 What then are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh?

Rom 4:2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

Rom 4:3 For what does the scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness."

Rom 4:4 Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due.

Rom 4:5 But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness.

Rom 4:6 So also David speaks of the blessedness of those to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

Rom 4:7 "Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered;

Rom 4:8 blessed is the one against whom the Lord will not reckon sin."

Rom 4:9 Is this blessedness, then, pronounced only on the circumcised, or also on the uncircumcised? We say, "Faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness."

Rom 4:10 How then was it reckoned to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised.

Rom 4:11 He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the ancestor of all who believe without being circumcised and who thus have righteousness reckoned to them,

Rom 4:12 and likewise the ancestor of the circumcised who are not only circumcised but who also follow the example of the faith that our ancestor Abraham had before he was circumcised.

Rom 4:13 For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

Rom 4:14 If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void.

Rom 4:15 For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

Rom 4:16 For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, Rom 4:17 as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations")— in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

Rom 4:18 Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be."

Rom 4:19 He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb.

Rom 4:20 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God,

Rom 4:21 being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

Rom 4:22 Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness."

Rom 4:23 Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone,

Rom 4:24 but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead,

Rom 4:25 who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Rom 5:1 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

Rom 5:2 through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

Rom 5:3 And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,

Rom 5:4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope,

Rom 5:5 and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Rom 5:6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

Rom 5:7 Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

Rom 5:8 But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Rom 5:9 Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God.

Rom 5:10 For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

Rom 5:11 But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Rom 5:12 Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned--

Rom 5:13 sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law.

Rom 5:14 Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

Rom 5:15 But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many.

Rom 5:16 And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification.

Rom 5:17 If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Rom 5:18 Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all.

Rom 5:19 For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Rom 5:20 But law came in, with the result that the trespass multiplied; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more,

Rom 5:21 so that, just as sin exercised dominion in death, so grace might also exercise dominion through justification leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rom 6:1 What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound?

Rom 6:2 By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it?

Rom 6:3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Rom 6:4 Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

Rom 6:5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Rom 6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

Rom 6:7 For whoever has died is freed from sin.

Rom 6:8 But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

Rom 6:9 We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Rom 6:10 The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

Rom 6:11 So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Rom 6:12 Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.

Rom 6:13 No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

Rom 6:14 For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Rom 6:15 What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Rom 6:16 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Rom 6:17 But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted,

Rom 6:18 and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.

Rom 6:19 I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

Rom 6:20 When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

Rom 6:21 So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death.

Rom 6:22 But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life.

Rom 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Rom 7:1 Do you not know, brothers and sisters-- for I am speaking to those who know the law-- that the law is binding on a person only during that person's lifetime?

Rom 7:2 Thus a married woman is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies, she is discharged from the law concerning the husband.

Rom 7:3 Accordingly, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, and if she marries another man, she is not an adulteress.

Rom 7:4 In the same way, my friends, you have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead in order that we may bear fruit for God.

Rom 7:5 While we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.

Rom 7:6 But now we are discharged from the law, dead to that which held us captive, so that we are slaves not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit.

Rom 7:7 What then should we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet, if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, "You shall not covet."

Rom 7:8 But sin, seizing an opportunity in the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law sin lies dead.

Rom 7:9 I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived

Rom 7:10 and I died, and the very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me.

Rom 7:11 For sin, seizing an opportunity in the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me.

Rom 7:12 So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.

Rom 7:13 Did what is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, working death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure.

Rom 7:14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am of the flesh, sold into slavery under sin.

Rom 7:15 I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate.

Rom 7:16 Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good.

Rom 7:17 But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

Rom 7:18 For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it.

Rom 7:19 For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.

Rom 7:20 Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

Rom 7:21 So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand.

Rom 7:22 For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self,

Rom 7:23 but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members.

Rom 7:24 Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

Rom 7:25 Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with my mind I am a slave to the law of God, but with my flesh I am a slave to the law of sin.

Rom 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Rom 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

Rom 8:3 For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh,

Rom 8:4 so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Rom 8:5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.

Rom 8:6 To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace.

Rom 8:7 For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law-- indeed it cannot,

Rom 8:8 and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

Rom 8:9 But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.

Rom 8:10 But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

Rom 8:11 If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Rom 8:12 So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh--

Rom 8:13 for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Rom 8:14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

Rom 8:15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!"

Rom 8:16 it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

Rom 8:17 and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ-- if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Rom 8:18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us.

Rom 8:19 For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God;

Rom 8:20 for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope

Rom 8:21 that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

Rom 8:22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now;

Rom 8:23 and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

Rom 8:24 For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen?

Rom 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Rom 8:26 Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words.

Rom 8:27 And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Rom 8:28 We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.

Rom 8:29 For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family.

Rom 8:30 And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

Rom 8:31 What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

Rom 8:32 He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else?

Rom 8:33 Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

Rom 8:34 Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Rom 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Rom 8:36 As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered."

Rom 8:37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

Rom 8:38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

Rom 8:39 nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Rom 9:1 I am speaking the truth in Christ-- I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit--
Rom 9:2 I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.
Rom 9:3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh.
Rom 9:4 They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises;
Rom 9:5 to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.
Rom 9:6 It is not as though the word of God had failed. For not all Israelites truly belong to Israel,
Rom 9:7 and not all of Abraham's children are his true descendants; but "It is through Isaac that descendants shall be named for you."
Rom 9:8 This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as descendants.
Rom 9:9 For this is what the promise said, "About this time I will return and Sarah shall have a son."
Rom 9:10 Nor is that all; something similar happened to Rebecca when she had conceived children by one husband, our ancestor Isaac.
Rom 9:11 Even before they had been born or had done anything good or bad (so that God's purpose of election might continue, Rom 9:12 not by works but by his call) she was told, "The elder shall serve the younger."
Rom 9:13 As it is written, "I have loved Jacob, but I have hated Esau."
Rom 9:14 What then are we to say? Is there injustice on God's part? By no means!
Rom 9:15 For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."
Rom 9:16 So it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God who shows mercy.
Rom 9:17 For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "I have raised you up for the very purpose of showing my power in you, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth."
Rom 9:18 So then he has mercy on whomever he chooses, and he hardens the heart of whomever he chooses.
Rom 9:19 You will say to me then, "Why then does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?"
Rom 9:20 But who indeed are you, a human being, to argue with God? Will what is molded say to the one who molds it, "Why have you made me like this?"
Rom 9:21 Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one object for special use and another for ordinary use?
Rom 9:22 What if God, desiring to show his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience the objects of wrath that are made for destruction;
Rom 9:23 and what if he has done so in order to make known the riches of his glory for the objects of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory--
Rom 9:24 including us whom he has called, not from the Jews only but also from the Gentiles?
Rom 9:25 As indeed he says in Hosea, "Those who were not my people I will call 'my people,' and her who was not beloved I will call 'beloved.'"
Rom 9:26 "And in the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they shall be called children of the living God."
Rom 9:27 And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, "Though the number of the children of Israel were like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved;
Rom 9:28 for the Lord will execute his sentence on the earth quickly and decisively."
Rom 9:29 And as Isaiah predicted, "If the Lord of hosts had not left survivors to us, we would have fared like Sodom and been made like Gomorrah."
Rom 9:30 What then are we to say? Gentiles, who did not strive for righteousness, have attained it, that is, righteousness through faith;
Rom 9:31 but Israel, who did strive for the righteousness that is based on the law, did not succeed in fulfilling that law.
Rom 9:32 Why not? Because they did not strive for it on the basis of faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone,
Rom 9:33 as it is written, "See, I am laying in Zion a stone that will make people stumble, a rock that will make them fall, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."
Rom 10:1 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.
Rom 10:2 I can testify that they have a zeal for God, but it is not enlightened.
Rom 10:3 For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they have not submitted to God's righteousness.
Rom 10:4 For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Rom 10:5 Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them."

Rom 10:6 But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down)

Rom 10:7 "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

Rom 10:8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim);

Rom 10:9 because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Rom 10:10 For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

Rom 10:11 The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame."

Rom 10:12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him.

Rom 10:13 For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Rom 10:14 But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him?

Rom 10:15 And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Rom 10:16 But not all have obeyed the good news; for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"

Rom 10:17 So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Rom 10:18 But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have; for "Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

Rom 10:19 Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, "I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation; with a foolish nation I will make you angry."

Rom 10:20 Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, "I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me."

Rom 10:21 But of Israel he says, "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

Rom 11:1 I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

Rom 11:2 God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

Rom 11:3 "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have demolished your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life."

Rom 11:4 But what is the divine reply to him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

Rom 11:5 So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace.

Rom 11:6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

Rom 11:7 What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened,

Rom 11:8 as it is written, "God gave them a sluggish spirit, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day."

Rom 11:9 And David says, "Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them;

Rom 11:10 let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and keep their backs forever bent."

Rom 11:11 So I ask, have they stumbled so as to fall? By no means! But through their stumbling salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous.

Rom 11:12 Now if their stumbling means riches for the world, and if their defeat means riches for Gentiles, how much more will their full inclusion mean!

Rom 11:13 Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry

Rom 11:14 in order to make my own people jealous, and thus save some of them.

Rom 11:15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead!

Rom 11:16 If the part of the dough offered as first fruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; and if the root is holy, then the branches also are holy.

Rom 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in their place to share the rich root of the olive tree,

Rom 11:18 do not boast over the branches. If you do boast, remember that it is not you that support the root, but the root that supports you.

Rom 11:19 You will say, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."

Rom 11:20 That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand only through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe.

Rom 11:21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you.

Rom 11:22 Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness toward you, provided you continue in his kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

Rom 11:23 And even those of Israel, if they do not persist in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again.

Rom 11:24 For if you have been cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree.

Rom 11:25 So that you may not claim to be wiser than you are, brothers and sisters, I want you to understand this mystery: a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.

Rom 11:26 And so all Israel will be saved; as it is written, "Out of Zion will come the Deliverer; he will banish ungodliness from Jacob."

Rom 11:27 "And this is my covenant with them, when I take away their sins."

Rom 11:28 As regards the gospel they are enemies of God for your sake; but as regards election they are beloved, for the sake of their ancestors;

Rom 11:29 for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.

Rom 11:30 Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience,

Rom 11:31 so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy.

Rom 11:32 For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

Rom 11:33 O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

Rom 11:34 "For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?"

Rom 11:35 "Or who has given a gift to him, to receive a gift in return?"

Rom 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever. Amen.

Rom 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Rom 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God-- what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Rom 12:3 For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

Rom 12:4 For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function,

Rom 12:5 so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

Rom 12:6 We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith;

Rom 12:7 ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching;

Rom 12:8 the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Rom 12:9 Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good;

Rom 12:10 love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor.

Rom 12:11 Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.

Rom 12:12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.

Rom 12:13 Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Rom 12:14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

Rom 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Rom 12:16 Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are.

Rom 12:17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.

Rom 12:18 If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

Rom 12:19 Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord."

Rom 12:20 No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads."

Rom 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Rom 13:1 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities; for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God.

Rom 13:2 Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment.

Rom 13:3 For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval;

Rom 13:4 for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain! It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer.

Rom 13:5 Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience.

Rom 13:6 For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing.

Rom 13:7 Pay to all what is due them-- taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

Rom 13:8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

Rom 13:9 The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself."

Rom 13:10 Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Rom 13:11 Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers;

Rom 13:12 the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light;

Rom 13:13 let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy.

Rom 13:14 Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Rom 14:1 Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions.

Rom 14:2 Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables.

Rom 14:3 Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them.

Rom 14:4 Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Rom 14:5 Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds.

Rom 14:6 Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God.

Rom 14:7 We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves.

Rom 14:8 If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

Rom 14:9 For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Rom 14:10 Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.

Rom 14:11 For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God."

Rom 14:12 So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

Rom 14:13 Let us therefore no longer pass judgment on one another, but resolve instead never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of another.

Rom 14:14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean.

Rom 14:15 If your brother or sister is being injured by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not let what you eat cause the ruin of one for whom Christ died.

Rom 14:16 So do not let your good be spoken of as evil.

Rom 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Rom 14:18 The one who thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and has human approval.

Rom 14:19 Let us then pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.

Rom 14:20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for you to make others fall by what you eat;

Rom 14:21 it is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that makes your brother or sister stumble.

Rom 14:22 The faith that you have, have as your own conviction before God. Blessed are those who have no reason to condemn themselves because of what they approve.

Rom 14:23 But those who have doubts are condemned if they eat, because they do not act from faith; for whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.

Rom 15:1 We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Rom 15:2 Each of us must please our neighbor for the good purpose of building up the neighbor.

Rom 15:3 For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."

Rom 15:4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope.

Rom 15:5 May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus,

Rom 15:6 so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Rom 15:7 Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

Rom 15:8 For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of the truth of God in order that he might confirm the promises given to the patriarchs,

Rom 15:9 and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will confess you among the Gentiles, and sing praises to your name";

Rom 15:10 and again he says, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people";

Rom 15:11 and again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him";

Rom 15:12 and again Isaiah says, "The root of Jesse shall come, the one who rises to rule the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles shall hope."

Rom 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Rom 15:14 I myself feel confident about you, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.

Rom 15:15 Nevertheless on some points I have written to you rather boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God

Rom 15:16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Rom 15:17 In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to boast of my work for God.

Rom 15:18 For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to win obedience from the Gentiles, by word and deed,

Rom 15:19 by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and as far around as Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the good news of Christ.

Rom 15:20 Thus I make it my ambition to proclaim the good news, not where Christ has already been named, so that I do not build on someone else's foundation,

Rom 15:21 but as it is written, "Those who have never been told of him shall see, and those who have never heard of him shall understand."

Rom 15:22 This is the reason that I have so often been hindered from coming to you.

Rom 15:23 But now, with no further place for me in these regions, I desire, as I have for many years, to come to you

Rom 15:24 when I go to Spain. For I do hope to see you on my journey and to be sent on by you, once I have enjoyed your company for a little while.

Rom 15:25 At present, however, I am going to Jerusalem in a ministry to the saints;

Rom 15:26 for Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to share their resources with the poor among the saints at Jerusalem.

Rom 15:27 They were pleased to do this, and indeed they owe it to them; for if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual blessings, they ought also to be of service to them in material things.

Rom 15:28 So, when I have completed this, and have delivered to them what has been collected, I will set out by way of you to Spain;

Rom 15:29 and I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

Rom 15:30 I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in earnest prayer to God on my behalf,

Rom 15:31 that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my ministry to Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,

Rom 15:32 so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company.

Rom 15:33 The God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

Rom 16:1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon of the church at Cenchreae,

Rom 16:2 so that you may welcome her in the Lord as is fitting for the saints, and help her in whatever she may require from you, for she has been a benefactor of many and of myself as well.

Rom 16:3 Greet Prisca and Aquila, who work with me in Christ Jesus,

Rom 16:4 and who risked their necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

Rom 16:5 Greet also the church in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who was the first convert in Asia for Christ.

Rom 16:6 Greet Mary, who has worked very hard among you.

Rom 16:7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives who were in prison with me; they are prominent among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

Rom 16:8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

Rom 16:9 Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.

Rom 16:10 Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the family of Aristobulus.

Rom 16:11 Greet my relative Herodion. Greet those in the Lord who belong to the family of Narcissus.

Rom 16:12 Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet the beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

Rom 16:13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord; and greet his mother-- a mother to me also.

Rom 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters who are with them.

Rom 16:15 Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

Rom 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

Rom 16:17 I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep an eye on those who cause dissensions and offenses, in opposition to the teaching that you have learned; avoid them.

Rom 16:18 For such people do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the simple-minded.

Rom 16:19 For while your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, I want you to be wise in what is good and guileless in what is evil.

Rom 16:20 The God of peace will shortly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Rom 16:21 Timothy, my co-worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my relatives.

Rom 16:22 I Tertius, the writer of this letter, greet you in the Lord.

Rom 16:23 Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you.

Rom 16:24

Rom 16:25 Now to God who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages

Rom 16:26 but is now disclosed, and through the prophetic writings is made known to all the Gentiles, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith--

Rom 16:27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.

1Co 1:1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

1Co 1:2 To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

1Co 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1Co 1:4 I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus,

1Co 1:5 for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind--

1Co 1:6 just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you--

1Co 1:7 so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1Co 1:8 He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1Co 1:9 God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1Co 1:10 Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose.

1Co 1:11 For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters.

1Co 1:12 What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."

1Co 1:13 Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

1Co 1:14 I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, 1Co 1:15 so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name.

1Co 1:16 (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.)

1Co 1:17 For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

1Co 1:18 For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

1Co 1:19 For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

1Co 1:20 Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

1Co 1:21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe.

1Co 1:22 For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom,

1Co 1:23 but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,

1Co 1:24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

1Co 1:25 For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

1Co 1:26 Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth.

1Co 1:27 But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong;

1Co 1:28 God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are,

1Co 1:29 so that no one might boast in the presence of God.

1Co 1:30 He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,

1Co 1:31 in order that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

1Co 2:1 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom.

1Co 2:2 For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

1Co 2:3 And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.

1Co 2:4 My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 1Co 2:5 so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

1Co 2:6 Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish.

1Co 2:7 But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory.

1Co 2:8 None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

1Co 2:9 But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him"--

1Co 2:10 these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

1Co 2:11 For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God.

1Co 2:12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

1Co 2:13 And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual.

1Co 2:14 Those who are unspiritual do not receive the gifts of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to them, and they are unable to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

1Co 2:15 Those who are spiritual discern all things, and they are themselves subject to no one else's scrutiny.

1Co 2:16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

1Co 3:1 And so, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ.

1Co 3:2 I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, 1Co 3:3 for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations?

1Co 3:4 For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely human?
1Co 3:5 What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each.
1Co 3:6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.
1Co 3:7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.
1Co 3:8 The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each.
1Co 3:9 For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.
1Co 3:10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it.
1Co 3:11 For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.
1Co 3:12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw--
1Co 3:13 the work of each builder will become visible, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done.
1Co 3:14 If what has been built on the foundation survives, the builder will receive a reward.
1Co 3:15 If the work is burned up, the builder will suffer loss; the builder will be saved, but only as through fire.
1Co 3:16 Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?
1Co 3:17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.
1Co 3:18 Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise.
1Co 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," 1Co 3:20 and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."
1Co 3:21 So let no one boast about human leaders. For all things are yours,
1Co 3:22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future-- all belong to you,
1Co 3:23 and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.
1Co 4:1 Think of us in this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God's mysteries.
1Co 4:2 Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy.
1Co 4:3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. I do not even judge myself.
1Co 4:4 I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me.
1Co 4:5 Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive commendation from God.
1Co 4:6 I have applied all this to Apollos and myself for your benefit, brothers and sisters, so that you may learn through us the meaning of the saying, "Nothing beyond what is written," so that none of you will be puffed up in favor of one against another.
1Co 4:7 For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you received it, why do you boast as if it were not a gift?
1Co 4:8 Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! Quite apart from us you have become kings! Indeed, I wish that you had become kings, so that we might be kings with you!
1Co 4:9 For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, as though sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels and to mortals.
1Co 4:10 We are fools for the sake of Christ, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute.
1Co 4:11 To the present hour we are hungry and thirsty, we are poorly clothed and beaten and homeless,
1Co 4:12 and we grow weary from the work of our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure;
1Co 4:13 when slandered, we speak kindly. We have become like the rubbish of the world, the dregs of all things, to this very day.
1Co 4:14 I am not writing this to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children.
1Co 4:15 For though you might have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers. Indeed, in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.
1Co 4:16 I appeal to you, then, be imitators of me.
1Co 4:17 For this reason I sent you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ Jesus, as I teach them everywhere in every church.

1Co 4:18 But some of you, thinking that I am not coming to you, have become arrogant.

1Co 4:19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power.

1Co 4:20 For the kingdom of God depends not on talk but on power.

1Co 4:21 What would you prefer? Am I to come to you with a stick, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

1Co 5:1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not found even among pagans; for a man is living with his father's wife.

1Co 5:2 And you are arrogant! Should you not rather have mourned, so that he who has done this would have been removed from among you?

1Co 5:3 For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present I have already pronounced judgment

1Co 5:4 in the name of the Lord Jesus on the man who has done such a thing. When you are assembled, and my spirit is present with the power of our Lord Jesus, 1Co 5:5 you are to hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

1Co 5:6 Your boasting is not a good thing. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough?

1Co 5:7 Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, as you really are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.

1Co 5:8 Therefore, let us celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1Co 5:9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral persons--

1Co 5:10 not at all meaning the immoral of this world, or the greedy and robbers, or idolaters, since you would then need to go out of the world.

1Co 5:11 But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother or sister who is sexually immoral or greedy, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or robber. Do not even eat with such a one.

1Co 5:12 For what have I to do with judging those outside? Is it not those who are inside that you are to judge?

1Co 5:13 God will judge those outside. "Drive out the wicked person from among you."

1Co 6:1 When any of you has a grievance against another, do you dare to take it to court before the unrighteous, instead of taking it before the saints?

1Co 6:2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases?

1Co 6:3 Do you not know that we are to judge angels-- to say nothing of ordinary matters?

1Co 6:4 If you have ordinary cases, then, do you appoint as judges those who have no standing in the church?

1Co 6:5 I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no one among you wise enough to decide between one believer and another, 1Co 6:6 but a believer goes to court against a believer-- and before unbelievers at that?

1Co 6:7 In fact, to have lawsuits at all with one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

1Co 6:8 But you yourselves wrong and defraud-- and believers at that.

1Co 6:9 Do you not know that wrongdoers will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived! Fornicators, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, sodomites, 1Co 6:10 thieves, the greedy, drunkards, revilers, robbers-- none of these will inherit the kingdom of God.

1Co 6:11 And this is what some of you used to be. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1Co 6:12 "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be dominated by anything.

1Co 6:13 "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food," and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

1Co 6:14 And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power.

1Co 6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never!

1Co 6:16 Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall be one flesh."

1Co 6:17 But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

1Co 6:18 Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself.

1Co 6:19 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own?

1Co 6:20 For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

1Co 7:1 Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: "It is well for a man not to touch a woman."
1Co 7:2 But because of cases of sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband.
1Co 7:3 The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband.
1Co 7:4 For the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.
1Co 7:5 Do not deprive one another except perhaps by agreement for a set time, to devote yourselves to prayer, and then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.
1Co 7:6 This I say by way of concession, not of command.
1Co 7:7 I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has a particular gift from God, one having one kind and another a different kind.
1Co 7:8 To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is well for them to remain unmarried as I am.
1Co 7:9 But if they are not practicing self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to be aflame with passion.
1Co 7:10 To the married I give this command-- not I but the Lord-- that the wife should not separate from her husband
1Co 7:11 (but if she does separate, let her remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not divorce his wife.
1Co 7:12 To the rest I say-- I and not the Lord-- that if any believer has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her.
1Co 7:13 And if any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him.
1Co 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is made holy through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy through her husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.
1Co 7:15 But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so; in such a case the brother or sister is not bound. It is to peace that God has called you.
1Co 7:16 Wife, for all you know, you might save your husband. Husband, for all you know, you might save your wife.
1Co 7:17 However that may be, let each of you lead the life that the Lord has assigned, to which God called you. This is my rule in all the churches.
1Co 7:18 Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision.
1Co 7:19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but obeying the commandments of God is everything.
1Co 7:20 Let each of you remain in the condition in which you were called.
1Co 7:21 Were you a slave when called? Do not be concerned about it. Even if you can gain your freedom, make use of your present condition now more than ever.
1Co 7:22 For whoever was called in the Lord as a slave is a freed person belonging to the Lord, just as whoever was free when called is a slave of Christ.
1Co 7:23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of human masters.
1Co 7:24 In whatever condition you were called, brothers and sisters, there remain with God.
1Co 7:25 Now concerning virgins, I have no command of the Lord, but I give my opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.
1Co 7:26 I think that, in view of the impending crisis, it is well for you to remain as you are.
1Co 7:27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
1Co 7:28 But if you marry, you do not sin, and if a virgin marries, she does not sin. Yet those who marry will experience distress in this life, and I would spare you that.
1Co 7:29 I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none,
1Co 7:30 and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions,
1Co 7:31 and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.
1Co 7:32 I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to please the Lord;
1Co 7:33 but the married man is anxious about the affairs of the world, how to please his wife,
1Co 7:34 and his interests are divided. And the unmarried woman and the virgin are anxious about the affairs of the Lord, so that they may be holy in body and spirit; but the married woman is anxious about the affairs of the world, how to please her husband.

1Co 7:35 I say this for your own benefit, not to put any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and unhindered devotion to the Lord.

1Co 7:36 If anyone thinks that he is not behaving properly toward his fiancée, if his passions are strong, and so it has to be, let him marry as he wishes; it is no sin. Let them marry.

1Co 7:37 But if someone stands firm in his resolve, being under no necessity but having his own desire under control, and has determined in his own mind to keep her as his fiancée, he will do well.

1Co 7:38 So then, he who marries his fiancée does well; and he who refrains from marriage will do better.

1Co 7:39 A wife is bound as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, only in the Lord.

1Co 7:40 But in my judgment she is more blessed if she remains as she is. And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

1Co 8:1 Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that "all of us possess knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

1Co 8:2 Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge;

1Co 8:3 but anyone who loves God is known by him.

1Co 8:4 Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "no idol in the world really exists," and that "there is no God but one."

1Co 8:5 Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth-- as in fact there are many gods and many lords--

1Co 8:6 yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

1Co 8:7 It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

1Co 8:8 "Food will not bring us close to God." We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do.

1Co 8:9 But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.

1Co 8:10 For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols?

1Co 8:11 So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed.

1Co 8:12 But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.

1Co 8:13 Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

1Co 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

1Co 9:2 If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

1Co 9:3 This is my defense to those who would examine me.

1Co 9:4 Do we not have the right to our food and drink?

1Co 9:5 Do we not have the right to be accompanied by a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?

1Co 9:6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living?

1Co 9:7 Who at any time pays the expenses for doing military service? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat any of its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not get any of its milk?

1Co 9:8 Do I say this on human authority? Does not the law also say the same?

1Co 9:9 For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain." Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

1Co 9:10 Or does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was indeed written for our sake, for whoever plows should plow in hope and whoever threshes should thresh in hope of a share in the crop.

1Co 9:11 If we have sown spiritual good among you, is it too much if we reap your material benefits?

1Co 9:12 If others share this rightful claim on you, do not we still more? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ.

1Co 9:13 Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in what is sacrificed on the altar?

1Co 9:14 In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel.

1Co 9:15 But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing this so that they may be applied in my case. Indeed, I would rather die than that-- no one will deprive me of my ground for boasting!

1Co 9:16 If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel!

1Co 9:17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission.

1Co 9:18 What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel.

1Co 9:19 For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them.

1Co 9:20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law.

1Co 9:21 To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law.

1Co 9:22 To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some.

1Co 9:23 I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

1Co 9:24 Do you not know that in a race the runners all compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win it.

1Co 9:25 Athletes exercise self-control in all things; they do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable one.

1Co 9:26 So I do not run aimlessly, nor do I box as though beating the air;

1Co 9:27 but I punish my body and enslave it, so that after proclaiming to others I myself should not be disqualified.

1Co 10:1 I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

1Co 10:2 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

1Co 10:3 and all ate the same spiritual food,

1Co 10:4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.

1Co 10:5 Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

1Co 10:6 Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did.

1Co 10:7 Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play."

1Co 10:8 We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day.

1Co 10:9 We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents.

1Co 10:10 And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

1Co 10:11 These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come.

1Co 10:12 So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall.

1Co 10:13 No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

1Co 10:14 Therefore, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols.

1Co 10:15 I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say.

1Co 10:16 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ?

1Co 10:17 Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

1Co 10:18 Consider the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar?

1Co 10:19 What do I imply then? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

1Co 10:20 No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons.

1Co 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

1Co 10:22 Or are we provoking the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

1Co 10:23 "All things are lawful," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up.

1Co 10:24 Do not seek your own advantage, but that of the other.

1Co 10:25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience,

1Co 10:26 for "the earth and its fullness are the Lord's."

1Co 10:27 If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience.

1Co 10:28 But if someone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience--

1Co 10:29 I mean the other's conscience, not your own. For why should my liberty be subject to the judgment of someone else's conscience?

1Co 10:30 If I partake with thankfulness, why should I be denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

1Co 10:31 So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

1Co 10:32 Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God,

1Co 10:33 just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, so that they may be saved.

1Co 11:1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

1Co 11:2 I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions just as I handed them on to you.

1Co 11:3 But I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the husband is the head of his wife, and God is the head of Christ.

1Co 11:4 Any man who prays or prophesies with something on his head disgraces his head, 1Co 11:5 but any woman who prays or prophesies with her head unveiled disgraces her head-- it is one and the same thing as having her head shaved.

1Co 11:6 For if a woman will not veil herself, then she should cut off her hair; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, she should wear a veil.

1Co 11:7 For a man ought not to have his head veiled, since he is the image and reflection of God; but woman is the reflection of man.

1Co 11:8 Indeed, man was not made from woman, but woman from man.

1Co 11:9 Neither was man created for the sake of woman, but woman for the sake of man.

1Co 11:10 For this reason a woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

1Co 11:11 Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man or man independent of woman.

1Co 11:12 For just as woman came from man, so man comes through woman; but all things come from God.

1Co 11:13 Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head unveiled?

1Co 11:14 Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears long hair, it is degrading to him,

1Co 11:15 but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

1Co 11:16 But if anyone is disposed to be contentious-- we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God.

1Co 11:17 Now in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse.

1Co 11:18 For, to begin with, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it.

1Co 11:19 Indeed, there have to be factions among you, for only so will it become clear who among you are genuine.

1Co 11:20 When you come together, it is not really to eat the Lord's supper.

1Co 11:21 For when the time comes to eat, each of you goes ahead with your own supper, and one goes hungry and another becomes drunk.

1Co 11:22 What! Do you not have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I commend you? In this matter I do not commend you!

1Co 11:23 For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread,

1Co 11:24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

1Co 11:25 In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

1Co 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1Co 11:27 Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord.

1Co 11:28 Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

1Co 11:29 For all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves.

1Co 11:30 For this reason many of you are weak and ill, and some have died.

1Co 11:31 But if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged.

1Co 11:32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

1Co 11:33 So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

1Co 11:34 If you are hungry, eat at home, so that when you come together, it will not be for your condemnation. About the other things I will give instructions when I come.

1Co 12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed.
1Co 12:2 You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak.
1Co 12:3 Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.
1Co 12:4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit;
1Co 12:5 and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord;
1Co 12:6 and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone.
1Co 12:7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.
1Co 12:8 To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit,
1Co 12:9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,
1Co 12:10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.
1Co 12:11 All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.
1Co 12:12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.
1Co 12:13 For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body-- Jews or Greeks, slaves or free-- and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.
1Co 12:14 Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many.
1Co 12:15 If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body.
1Co 12:16 And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body.
1Co 12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
1Co 12:18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.
1Co 12:19 If all were a single member, where would the body be?
1Co 12:20 As it is, there are many members, yet one body.
1Co 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."
1Co 12:22 On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,
1Co 12:23 and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect;
1Co 12:24 whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member,
1Co 12:25 that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another.
1Co 12:26 If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.
1Co 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.
1Co 12:28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues.
1Co 12:29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?
1Co 12:30 Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?
1Co 12:31 But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.
1Co 13:1 If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.
1Co 13:2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.
1Co 13:3 If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.
1Co 13:4 Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant
1Co 13:5 or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;
1Co 13:6 it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.
1Co 13:7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
1Co 13:8 Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end.
1Co 13:9 For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part;
1Co 13:10 but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end.

1Co 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways.

1Co 13:12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.

1Co 13:13 And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

1Co 14:1 Pursue love and strive for the spiritual gifts, and especially that you may prophesy.

1Co 14:2 For those who speak in a tongue do not speak to other people but to God; for nobody understands them, since they are speaking mysteries in the Spirit.

1Co 14:3 On the other hand, those who prophesy speak to other people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation.

1Co 14:4 Those who speak in a tongue build up themselves, but those who prophesy build up the church.

1Co 14:5 Now I would like all of you to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. One who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up.

1Co 14:6 Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you in some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching?

1Co 14:7 It is the same way with lifeless instruments that produce sound, such as the flute or the harp. If they do not give distinct notes, how will anyone know what is being played?

1Co 14:8 And if the bugle gives an indistinct sound, who will get ready for battle?

1Co 14:9 So with yourselves; if in a tongue you utter speech that is not intelligible, how will anyone know what is being said? For you will be speaking into the air.

1Co 14:10 There are doubtless many different kinds of sounds in the world, and nothing is without sound.

1Co 14:11 If then I do not know the meaning of a sound, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me.

1Co 14:12 So with yourselves; since you are eager for spiritual gifts, strive to excel in them for building up the church.

1Co 14:13 Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret.

1Co 14:14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unproductive.

1Co 14:15 What should I do then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the mind also; I will sing praise with the spirit, but I will sing praise with the mind also.

1Co 14:16 Otherwise, if you say a blessing with the spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider say the "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since the outsider does not know what you are saying?

1Co 14:17 For you may give thanks well enough, but the other person is not built up.

1Co 14:18 I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you;

1Co 14:19 nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind, in order to instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

1Co 14:20 Brothers and sisters, do not be children in your thinking; rather, be infants in evil, but in thinking be adults.

1Co 14:21 In the law it is written, "By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners I will speak to this people; yet even then they will not listen to me," says the Lord.

1Co 14:22 Tongues, then, are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is not for unbelievers but for believers.

1Co 14:23 If, therefore, the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your mind?

1Co 14:24 But if all prophesy, an unbeliever or outsider who enters is reproved by all and called to account by all.

1Co 14:25 After the secrets of the unbeliever's heart are disclosed, that person will bow down before God and worship him, declaring, "God is really among you."

1Co 14:26 What should be done then, my friends? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

1Co 14:27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret.

1Co 14:28 But if there is no one to interpret, let them be silent in church and speak to themselves and to God.

1Co 14:29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said.

1Co 14:30 If a revelation is made to someone else sitting nearby, let the first person be silent.

1Co 14:31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged.

1Co 14:32 And the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets,

1Co 14:33 for God is a God not of disorder but of peace. (As in all the churches of the saints,

1Co 14:34 women should be silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be subordinate, as the law also says.

1Co 14:35 If there is anything they desire to know, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church.

1Co 14:36 Or did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only ones it has reached?)

1Co 14:37 Anyone who claims to be a prophet, or to have spiritual powers, must acknowledge that what I am writing to you is a command of the Lord.

1Co 14:38 Anyone who does not recognize this is not to be recognized.

1Co 14:39 So, my friends, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues;

1Co 14:40 but all things should be done decently and in order.

1Co 15:1 Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand,

1Co 15:2 through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you-- unless you have come to believe in vain.

1Co 15:3 For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures,

1Co 15:4 and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures,

1Co 15:5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

1Co 15:6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died.

1Co 15:7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

1Co 15:8 Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me.

1Co 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

1Co 15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them-- though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me.

1Co 15:11 Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

1Co 15:12 Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead?

1Co 15:13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised;

1Co 15:14 and if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain and your faith has been in vain.

1Co 15:15 We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ-- whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised.

1Co 15:16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised.

1Co 15:17 If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

1Co 15:18 Then those also who have died in Christ have perished.

1Co 15:19 If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

1Co 15:20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.

1Co 15:21 For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being;

1Co 15:22 for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ.

1Co 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

1Co 15:24 Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power.

1Co 15:25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

1Co 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

1Co 15:27 For "God has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "All things are put in subjection," it is plain that this does not include the one who put all things in subjection under him.

1Co 15:28 When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who put all things in subjection under him, so that God may be all in all.

1Co 15:29 Otherwise, what will those people do who receive baptism on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf?

1Co 15:30 And why are we putting ourselves in danger every hour?

1Co 15:31 I die every day! That is as certain, brothers and sisters, as my boasting of you-- a boast that I make in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1Co 15:32 If with merely human hopes I fought with wild animals at Ephesus, what would I have gained by it? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

1Co 15:33 Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals."

1Co 15:34 Come to a sober and right mind, and sin no more; for some people have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

1Co 15:35 But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?"

1Co 15:36 Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

1Co 15:37 And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain.

1Co 15:38 But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

1Co 15:39 Not all flesh is alike, but there is one flesh for human beings, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

1Co 15:40 There are both heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing, and that of the earthly is another.

1Co 15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; indeed, star differs from star in glory.

1Co 15:42 So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.

1Co 15:43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

1Co 15:44 It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

1Co 15:45 Thus it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

1Co 15:46 But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual.

1Co 15:47 The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven.

1Co 15:48 As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven.

1Co 15:49 Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

1Co 15:50 What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

1Co 15:51 Listen, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed, 1Co 15:52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

1Co 15:53 For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality.

1Co 15:54 When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."

1Co 15:55 "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"

1Co 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

1Co 15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1Co 15:58 Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

1Co 16:1 Now concerning the collection for the saints: you should follow the directions I gave to the churches of Galatia.

1Co 16:2 On the first day of every week, each of you is to put aside and save whatever extra you earn, so that collections need not be taken when I come.

1Co 16:3 And when I arrive, I will send any whom you approve with letters to take your gift to Jerusalem.

1Co 16:4 If it seems advisable that I should go also, they will accompany me.

1Co 16:5 I will visit you after passing through Macedonia-- for I intend to pass through Macedonia--

1Co 16:6 and perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way, wherever I go.

1Co 16:7 I do not want to see you now just in passing, for I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits.

1Co 16:8 But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

1Co 16:9 for a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

1Co 16:10 If Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord just as I am;

1Co 16:11 therefore let no one despise him. Send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me; for I am expecting him with the brothers.

1Co 16:12 Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to visit you with the other brothers, but he was not at all willing to come now. He will come when he has the opportunity.

1Co 16:13 Keep alert, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong.

1Co 16:14 Let all that you do be done in love.

1Co 16:15 Now, brothers and sisters, you know that members of the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints;

1Co 16:16 I urge you to put yourselves at the service of such people, and of everyone who works and toils with them.

1Co 16:17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have made up for your absence;

1Co 16:18 for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. So give recognition to such persons.

1Co 16:19 The churches of Asia send greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, greet you warmly in the Lord.

1Co 16:20 All the brothers and sisters send greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

1Co 16:21 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand.

1Co 16:22 Let anyone be accursed who has no love for the Lord. Our Lord, come!

1Co 16:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

1Co 16:24 My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus.

2Co 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the church of God that is in Corinth, including all the saints throughout Achaia:

2Co 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2Co 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation, 2Co 1:4 who consoles us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God.

2Co 1:5 For just as the sufferings of Christ are abundant for us, so also our consolation is abundant through Christ.

2Co 1:6 If we are being afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation; if we are being consoled, it is for your consolation, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we are also suffering.

2Co 1:7 Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our consolation.

2Co 1:8 We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of the affliction we experienced in Asia; for we were so utterly, unbearably crushed that we despaired of life itself.

2Co 1:9 Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death so that we would rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead.

2Co 1:10 He who rescued us from so deadly a peril will continue to rescue us; on him we have set our hope that he will rescue us again,

2Co 1:11 as you also join in helping us by your prayers, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.

2Co 1:12 Indeed, this is our boast, the testimony of our conscience: we have behaved in the world with frankness and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God-- and all the more toward you.

2Co 1:13 For we write you nothing other than what you can read and also understand; I hope you will understand until the end--

2Co 1:14 as you have already understood us in part-- that on the day of the Lord Jesus we are your boast even as you are our boast.

2Co 1:15 Since I was sure of this, I wanted to come to you first, so that you might have a double favor;

2Co 1:16 I wanted to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and to come back to you from Macedonia and have you send me on to Judea.

2Co 1:17 Was I vacillating when I wanted to do this? Do I make my plans according to ordinary human standards, ready to say "Yes, yes" and "No, no" at the same time?

2Co 1:18 As surely as God is faithful, our word to you has not been "Yes and No."

2Co 1:19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not "Yes and No"; but in him it is always "Yes."

2Co 1:20 For in him every one of God's promises is a "Yes." For this reason it is through him that we say the "Amen," to the glory of God.

2Co 1:21 But it is God who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us, 2Co 1:22 by putting his seal on us and giving us his Spirit in our hearts as a first installment.

2Co 1:23 But I call on God as witness against me: it was to spare you that I did not come again to Corinth.

2Co 1:24 I do not mean to imply that we lord it over your faith; rather, we are workers with you for your joy, because you stand firm in the faith.

2Co 2:1 So I made up my mind not to make you another painful visit.

2Co 2:2 For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained?

2Co 2:3 And I wrote as I did, so that when I came, I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice; for I am confident about all of you, that my joy would be the joy of all of you.

2Co 2:4 For I wrote you out of much distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain, but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

2Co 2:5 But if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but to some extent-- not to exaggerate it-- to all of you.

2Co 2:6 This punishment by the majority is enough for such a person;

2Co 2:7 so now instead you should forgive and console him, so that he may not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

2Co 2:8 So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

2Co 2:9 I wrote for this reason: to test you and to know whether you are obedient in everything.

2Co 2:10 Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ.

2Co 2:11 And we do this so that we may not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs.

2Co 2:12 When I came to Troas to proclaim the good news of Christ, a door was opened for me in the Lord;

2Co 2:13 but my mind could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said farewell to them and went on to Macedonia.

2Co 2:14 But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads in every place the fragrance that comes from knowing him.

2Co 2:15 For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

2Co 2:16 to the one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?

2Co 2:17 For we are not peddlers of God's word like so many; but in Christ we speak as persons of sincerity, as persons sent from God and standing in his presence.

2Co 3:1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Surely we do not need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we?

2Co 3:2 You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, to be known and read by all;

2Co 3:3 and you show that you are a letter of Christ, prepared by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

2Co 3:4 Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God.

2Co 3:5 Not that we are competent of ourselves to claim anything as coming from us; our competence is from God,

2Co 3:6 who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

2Co 3:7 Now if the ministry of death, chiseled in letters on stone tablets, came in glory so that the people of Israel could not gaze at Moses' face because of the glory of his face, a glory now set aside, 2Co 3:8 how much more will the ministry of the Spirit come in glory?

2Co 3:9 For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, much more does the ministry of justification abound in glory!

2Co 3:10 Indeed, what once had glory has lost its glory because of the greater glory;

2Co 3:11 for if what was set aside came through glory, much more has the permanent come in glory!

2Co 3:12 Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness,

2Co 3:13 not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside.

2Co 3:14 But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside.

2Co 3:15 Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds;

2Co 3:16 but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed.

2Co 3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2Co 3:18 And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

2Co 4:1 Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart.

2Co 4:2 We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

2Co 4:3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing.

2Co 4:4 In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

2Co 4:5 For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake.

2Co 4:6 For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

2Co 4:7 But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.

2Co 4:8 We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair;

2Co 4:9 persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;

2Co 4:10 always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies.

2Co 4:11 For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh.

2Co 4:12 So death is at work in us, but life in you.

2Co 4:13 But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture-- "I believed, and so I spoke"-- we also believe, and so we speak,

2Co 4:14 because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence.

2Co 4:15 Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

2Co 4:16 So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day.

2Co 4:17 For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, 2Co 4:18 because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

2Co 5:1 For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2Co 5:2 For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling--

2Co 5:3 if indeed, when we have taken it off we will not be found naked.

2Co 5:4 For while we are still in this tent, we groan under our burden, because we wish not to be unclothed but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

2Co 5:5 He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

2Co 5:6 So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord--

2Co 5:7 for we walk by faith, not by sight.

2Co 5:8 Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

2Co 5:9 So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.

2Co 5:10 For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

2Co 5:11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences.

2Co 5:12 We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.

2Co 5:13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

2Co 5:14 For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died.

2Co 5:15 And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

2Co 5:16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way.

2Co 5:17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

2Co 5:18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation;

2Co 5:19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.

2Co 5:20 So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

2Co 5:21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2Co 6:1 As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain.

2Co 6:2 For he says, "At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you." See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation!

2Co 6:3 We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry,

2Co 6:4 but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities,

2Co 6:5 beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger;

2Co 6:6 by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love,

2Co 6:7 truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left;

2Co 6:8 in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true;

2Co 6:9 as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see-- we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed;

2Co 6:10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

2Co 6:11 We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you.

2Co 6:12 There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours.

2Co 6:13 In return-- I speak as to children-- open wide your hearts also.

2Co 6:14 Do not be mismatched with unbelievers. For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship is there between light and darkness?

2Co 6:15 What agreement does Christ have with Beliar? Or what does a believer share with an unbeliever?

2Co 6:16 What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will live in them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

2Co 6:17 Therefore come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you,

2Co 6:18 and I will be your father, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

2Co 7:1 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and of spirit, making holiness perfect in the fear of God.

2Co 7:2 Make room in your hearts for us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.

2Co 7:3 I do not say this to condemn you, for I said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.

2Co 7:4 I often boast about you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with consolation; I am overjoyed in all our affliction.

2Co 7:5 For even when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were afflicted in every way-- disputes without and fears within.

2Co 7:6 But God, who consoles the downcast, consoled us by the arrival of Titus, 2Co 7:7 and not only by his coming, but also by the consolation with which he was consoled about you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more.

2Co 7:8 For even if I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it (though I did regret it, for I see that I grieved you with that letter, though only briefly).

2Co 7:9 Now I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because your grief led to repentance; for you felt a godly grief, so that you were not harmed in any way by us.

2Co 7:10 For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation and brings no regret, but worldly grief produces death.

2Co 7:11 For see what earnestness this godly grief has produced in you, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! At every point you have proved yourselves guiltless in the matter.

2Co 7:12 So although I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong, nor on account of the one who was wronged, but in order that your zeal for us might be made known to you before God.

2Co 7:13 In this we find comfort. In addition to our own consolation, we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his mind has been set at rest by all of you.

2Co 7:14 For if I have been somewhat boastful about you to him, I was not disgraced; but just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting to Titus has proved true as well.

2Co 7:15 And his heart goes out all the more to you, as he remembers the obedience of all of you, and how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

2Co 7:16 I rejoice, because I have complete confidence in you.

2Co 8:1 We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia;

2Co 8:2 for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part.

2Co 8:3 For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means,

2Co 8:4 begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints--

2Co 8:5 and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us,

2Co 8:6 so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you.

2Co 8:7 Now as you excel in everything-- in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you-- so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

2Co 8:8 I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others.

2Co 8:9 For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

2Co 8:10 And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something--

2Co 8:11 now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means.

2Co 8:12 For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has-- not according to what one does not have.

2Co 8:13 I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between

2Co 8:14 your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.

2Co 8:15 As it is written, "The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little."

2Co 8:16 But thanks be to God who put in the heart of Titus the same eagerness for you that I myself have.

2Co 8:17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but since he is more eager than ever, he is going to you of his own accord.

2Co 8:18 With him we are sending the brother who is famous among all the churches for his proclaiming the good news;

2Co 8:19 and not only that, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us while we are administering this generous undertaking for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our goodwill.

2Co 8:20 We intend that no one should blame us about this generous gift that we are administering,

2Co 8:21 for we intend to do what is right not only in the Lord's sight but also in the sight of others.

2Co 8:22 And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found eager in many matters, but who is now more eager than ever because of his great confidence in you.

2Co 8:23 As for Titus, he is my partner and co-worker in your service; as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

2Co 8:24 Therefore openly before the churches, show them the proof of your love and of our reason for boasting about you.

2Co 9:1 Now it is not necessary for me to write you about the ministry to the saints,

2Co 9:2 for I know your eagerness, which is the subject of my boasting about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year; and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

2Co 9:3 But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you may not prove to have been empty in this case, so that you may be ready, as I said you would be;

2Co 9:4 otherwise, if some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not ready, we would be humiliated-- to say nothing of you-- in this undertaking.

2Co 9:5 So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you, and arrange in advance for this bountiful gift that you have promised, so that it may be ready as a voluntary gift and not as an extortion.

2Co 9:6 The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

2Co 9:7 Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2Co 9:8 And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work.

2Co 9:9 As it is written, "He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever."

2Co 9:10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness.

2Co 9:11 You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us;

2Co 9:12 for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God.

2Co 9:13 Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others,

2Co 9:14 while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you.

2Co 9:15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

2Co 10:1 I myself, Paul, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ-- I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when I am away!--

2Co 10:2 I ask that when I am present I need not show boldness by daring to oppose those who think we are acting according to human standards.

2Co 10:3 Indeed, we live as human beings, but we do not wage war according to human standards;

2Co 10:4 for the weapons of our warfare are not merely human, but they have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments

2Co 10:5 and every proud obstacle raised up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to obey Christ.

2Co 10:6 We are ready to punish every disobedience when your obedience is complete.

2Co 10:7 Look at what is before your eyes. If you are confident that you belong to Christ, remind yourself of this, that just as you belong to Christ, so also do we.

2Co 10:8 Now, even if I boast a little too much of our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down, I will not be ashamed of it.

2Co 10:9 I do not want to seem as though I am trying to frighten you with my letters.

2Co 10:10 For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible."

2Co 10:11 Let such people understand that what we say by letter when absent, we will also do when present.

2Co 10:12 We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another, and compare themselves with one another, they do not show good sense.

2Co 10:13 We, however, will not boast beyond limits, but will keep within the field that God has assigned to us, to reach out even as far as you.

2Co 10:14 For we were not overstepping our limits when we reached you; we were the first to come all the way to you with the good news of Christ.

2Co 10:15 We do not boast beyond limits, that is, in the labors of others; but our hope is that, as your faith increases, our sphere of action among you may be greatly enlarged,

2Co 10:16 so that we may proclaim the good news in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in someone else's sphere of action.

2Co 10:17 "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

2Co 10:18 For it is not those who commend themselves that are approved, but those whom the Lord commends.

2Co 11:1 I wish you would bear with me in a little foolishness. Do bear with me!

2Co 11:2 I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

2Co 11:3 But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by its cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

2Co 11:4 For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you submit to it readily enough.

2Co 11:5 I think that I am not in the least inferior to these super-apostles.

2Co 11:6 I may be untrained in speech, but not in knowledge; certainly in every way and in all things we have made this evident to you.

2Co 11:7 Did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed God's good news to you free of charge?

2Co 11:8 I robbed other churches by accepting support from them in order to serve you.

2Co 11:9 And when I was with you and was in need, I did not burden anyone, for my needs were supplied by the friends who came from Macedonia. So I refrained and will continue to refrain from burdening you in any way.

2Co 11:10 As the truth of Christ is in me, this boast of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia.

2Co 11:11 And why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

2Co 11:12 And what I do I will also continue to do, in order to deny an opportunity to those who want an opportunity to be recognized as our equals in what they boast about.

2Co 11:13 For such boasters are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

2Co 11:14 And no wonder! Even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

2Co 11:15 So it is not strange if his ministers also disguise themselves as ministers of righteousness. Their end will match their deeds.

2Co 11:16 I repeat, let no one think that I am a fool; but if you do, then accept me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little.

2Co 11:17 What I am saying in regard to this boastful confidence, I am saying not with the Lord's authority, but as a fool;

2Co 11:18 since many boast according to human standards, I will also boast.

2Co 11:19 For you gladly put up with fools, being wise yourselves!

2Co 11:20 For you put up with it when someone makes slaves of you, or preys upon you, or takes advantage of you, or puts on airs, or gives you a slap in the face.

2Co 11:21 To my shame, I must say, we were too weak for that! But whatever anyone dares to boast of-- I am speaking as a fool-- I also dare to boast of that.

2Co 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

2Co 11:23 Are they ministers of Christ? I am talking like a madman-- I am a better one: with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless floggings, and often near death.

2Co 11:24 Five times I have received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one.

2Co 11:25 Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I received a stoning. Three times I was shipwrecked; for a night and a day I was adrift at sea;

2Co 11:26 on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from bandits, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers and sisters;

2Co 11:27 in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, hungry and thirsty, often without food, cold and naked.

2Co 11:28 And, besides other things, I am under daily pressure because of my anxiety for all the churches.

2Co 11:29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I am not indignant?

2Co 11:30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

2Co 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus (blessed be he forever!) knows that I do not lie.

2Co 11:32 In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of Damascus in order to seize me, 2Co 11:33 but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

2Co 12:1 It is necessary to boast; nothing is to be gained by it, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2Co 12:2 I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven-- whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows.

2Co 12:3 And I know that such a person-- whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows--

2Co 12:4 was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat.

2Co 12:5 On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses.

2Co 12:6 But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, 2Co 12:7 even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated.

2Co 12:8 Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me,

2Co 12:9 but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

2Co 12:10 Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

2Co 12:11 I have been a fool! You forced me to it. Indeed you should have been the ones commending me, for I am not at all inferior to these super-apostles, even though I am nothing.

2Co 12:12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with utmost patience, signs and wonders and mighty works.

2Co 12:13 How have you been worse off than the other churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

2Co 12:14 Here I am, ready to come to you this third time. And I will not be a burden, because I do not want what is yours but you; for children ought not to lay up for their parents, but parents for their children.

2Co 12:15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for you. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

2Co 12:16 Let it be assumed that I did not burden you. Nevertheless (you say) since I was crafty, I took you in by deceit.

2Co 12:17 Did I take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you?

2Co 12:18 I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves with the same spirit? Did we not take the same steps?

2Co 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves before you? We are speaking in Christ before God. Everything we do, beloved, is for the sake of building you up.

2Co 12:20 For I fear that when I come, I may find you not as I wish, and that you may find me not as you wish; I fear that there may perhaps be quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, conceit, and disorder.

2Co 12:21 I fear that when I come again, my God may humble me before you, and that I may have to mourn over many who previously sinned and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and licentiousness that they have practiced.

2Co 13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. "Any charge must be sustained by the evidence of two or three witnesses."

2Co 13:2 I warned those who sinned previously and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again, I will not be lenient--

2Co 13:3 since you desire proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful in you.

2Co 13:4 For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God.

2Co 13:5 Examine yourselves to see whether you are living in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you?-- unless, indeed, you fail to meet the test!

2Co 13:6 I hope you will find out that we have not failed.

2Co 13:7 But we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong-- not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed.

2Co 13:8 For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

2Co 13:9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. This is what we pray for, that you may become perfect.

2Co 13:10 So I write these things while I am away from you, so that when I come, I may not have to be severe in using the authority that the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down.

2Co 13:11 Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

2Co 13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

2Co 13:13 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Gal 1:1 Paul an apostle-- sent neither by human commission nor from human authorities, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead--

Gal 1:2 and all the members of God's family who are with me, To the churches of Galatia:

Gal 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

Gal 1:4 who gave himself for our sins to set us free from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

Gal 1:5 to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gal 1:6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel--

Gal 1:7 not that there is another gospel, but there are some who are confusing you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ.

Gal 1:8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should proclaim to you a gospel contrary to what we proclaimed to you, let that one be accursed!

Gal 1:9 As we have said before, so now I repeat, if anyone proclaims to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let that one be accursed!

Gal 1:10 Am I now seeking human approval, or God's approval? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still pleasing people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Gal 1:11 For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin;

Gal 1:12 for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

Gal 1:13 You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it.

Gal 1:14 I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors.

Gal 1:15 But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased

Gal 1:16 to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with any human being,

Gal 1:17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were already apostles before me, but I went away at once into Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus.

Gal 1:18 Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him fifteen days;

Gal 1:19 but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord's brother.

Gal 1:20 In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!

Gal 1:21 Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia,

Gal 1:22 and I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea that are in Christ;

Gal 1:23 they only heard it said, "The one who formerly was persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy."

Gal 1:24 And they glorified God because of me.

Gal 2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me.

Gal 2:2 I went up in response to a revelation. Then I laid before them (though only in a private meeting with the acknowledged leaders) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure that I was not running, or had not run, in vain.

Gal 2:3 But even Titus, who was with me, was not compelled to be circumcised, though he was a Greek.

Gal 2:4 But because of false believers secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might enslave us--

Gal 2:5 we did not submit to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might always remain with you.

Gal 2:6 And from those who were supposed to be acknowledged leaders (what they actually were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)-- those leaders contributed nothing to me.

Gal 2:7 On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel for the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel for the circumcised

Gal 2:8 (for he who worked through Peter making him an apostle to the circumcised also worked through me in sending me to the Gentiles),

Gal 2:9 and when James and Cephas and John, who were acknowledged pillars, recognized the grace that had been given to me, they gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, agreeing that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

Gal 2:10 They asked only one thing, that we remember the poor, which was actually what I was eager to do.

Gal 2:11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood self-condemned;

Gal 2:12 for until certain people came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But after they came, he drew back and kept himself separate for fear of the circumcision faction.

Gal 2:13 And the other Jews joined him in this hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

Gal 2:14 But when I saw that they were not acting consistently with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

Gal 2:15 We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners;

Gal 2:16 yet we know that a person is justified not by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. And we have come to believe in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by doing the works of the law, because no one will be justified by the works of the law.

Gal 2:17 But if, in our effort to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have been found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not!

Gal 2:18 But if I build up again the very things that I once tore down, then I demonstrate that I am a transgressor.

Gal 2:19 For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ;

Gal 2:20 and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Gal 2:21 I do not nullify the grace of God; for if justification comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

Gal 3:1 You foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? It was before your eyes that Jesus Christ was publicly exhibited as crucified!

Gal 3:2 The only thing I want to learn from you is this: Did you receive the Spirit by doing the works of the law or by believing what you heard?

Gal 3:3 Are you so foolish? Having started with the Spirit, are you now ending with the flesh?

Gal 3:4 Did you experience so much for nothing?-- if it really was for nothing.

Gal 3:5 Well then, does God supply you with the Spirit and work miracles among you by your doing the works of the law, or by your believing what you heard?

Gal 3:6 Just as Abraham "believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness,"
Gal 3:7 so, you see, those who believe are the descendants of Abraham.
Gal 3:8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, declared the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "All the Gentiles shall be blessed in you."
Gal 3:9 For this reason, those who believe are blessed with Abraham who believed.
Gal 3:10 For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not observe and obey all the things written in the book of the law."
Gal 3:11 Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law; for "The one who is righteous will live by faith."
Gal 3:12 But the law does not rest on faith; on the contrary, "Whoever does the works of the law will live by them."
Gal 3:13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us-- for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"--
Gal 3:14 in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
Gal 3:15 Brothers and sisters, I give an example from daily life: once a person's will has been ratified, no one adds to it or annuls it.
Gal 3:16 Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring; it does not say, "And to offsprings," as of many; but it says, "And to your offspring," that is, to one person, who is Christ.
Gal 3:17 My point is this: the law, which came four hundred thirty years later, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.
Gal 3:18 For if the inheritance comes from the law, it no longer comes from the promise; but God granted it to Abraham through the promise.
Gal 3:19 Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring would come to whom the promise had been made; and it was ordained through angels by a mediator.
Gal 3:20 Now a mediator involves more than one party; but God is one.
Gal 3:21 Is the law then opposed to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could make alive, then righteousness would indeed come through the law.
Gal 3:22 But the scripture has imprisoned all things under the power of sin, so that what was promised through faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
Gal 3:23 Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed.
Gal 3:24 Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith.
Gal 3:25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian,
Gal 3:26 for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith.
Gal 3:27 As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.
Gal 3:28 There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.
Gal 3:29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.
Gal 4:1 My point is this: heirs, as long as they are minors, are no better than slaves, though they are the owners of all the property;
Gal 4:2 but they remain under guardians and trustees until the date set by the father.
Gal 4:3 So with us; while we were minors, we were enslaved to the elemental spirits of the world.
Gal 4:4 But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,
Gal 4:5 in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children.
Gal 4:6 And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"
Gal 4:7 So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.
Gal 4:8 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to beings that by nature are not gods.
Gal 4:9 Now, however, that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and beggarly elemental spirits? How can you want to be enslaved to them again?
Gal 4:10 You are observing special days, and months, and seasons, and years.
Gal 4:11 I am afraid that my work for you may have been wasted.
Gal 4:12 Friends, I beg you, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong.
Gal 4:13 You know that it was because of a physical infirmity that I first announced the gospel to you;
Gal 4:14 though my condition put you to the test, you did not scorn or despise me, but welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.
Gal 4:15 What has become of the goodwill you felt? For I testify that, had it been possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me.
Gal 4:16 Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?
Gal 4:17 They make much of you, but for no good purpose; they want to exclude you, so that you may make much of them.

Gal 4:18 It is good to be made much of for a good purpose at all times, and not only when I am present with you.

Gal 4:19 My little children, for whom I am again in the pain of childbirth until Christ is formed in you,

Gal 4:20 I wish I were present with you now and could change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.

Gal 4:21 Tell me, you who desire to be subject to the law, will you not listen to the law?

Gal 4:22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and the other by a free woman.

Gal 4:23 One, the child of the slave, was born according to the flesh; the other, the child of the free woman, was born through the promise.

Gal 4:24 Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One woman, in fact, is Hagar, from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery.

Gal 4:25 Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

Gal 4:26 But the other woman corresponds to the Jerusalem above; she is free, and she is our mother.

Gal 4:27 For it is written, "Rejoice, you childless one, you who bear no children, burst into song and shout, you who endure no birth pangs; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than the children of the one who is married."

Gal 4:28 Now you, my friends, are children of the promise, like Isaac.

Gal 4:29 But just as at that time the child who was born according to the flesh persecuted the child who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now also.

Gal 4:30 But what does the scripture say? "Drive out the slave and her child; for the child of the slave will not share the inheritance with the child of the free woman."

Gal 4:31 So then, friends, we are children, not of the slave but of the free woman.

Gal 5:1 For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

Gal 5:2 Listen! I, Paul, am telling you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

Gal 5:3 Once again I testify to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obliged to obey the entire law.

Gal 5:4 You who want to be justified by the law have cut yourselves off from Christ; you have fallen away from grace.

Gal 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.

Gal 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything; the only thing that counts is faith working through love.

Gal 5:7 You were running well; who prevented you from obeying the truth?

Gal 5:8 Such persuasion does not come from the one who calls you.

Gal 5:9 A little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough.

Gal 5:10 I am confident about you in the Lord that you will not think otherwise. But whoever it is that is confusing you will pay the penalty.

Gal 5:11 But my friends, why am I still being persecuted if I am still preaching circumcision? In that case the offense of the cross has been removed.

Gal 5:12 I wish those who unsettle you would castrate themselves!

Gal 5:13 For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another.

Gal 5:14 For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Gal 5:15 If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Gal 5:16 Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh.

Gal 5:17 For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want.

Gal 5:18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law.

Gal 5:19 Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness,

Gal 5:20 idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions,

Gal 5:21 envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Gal 5:22 By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness,

Gal 5:23 gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things.

Gal 5:24 And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

Gal 5:25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Gal 5:26 Let us not become conceited, competing against one another, envying one another.

Gal 6:1 My friends, if anyone is detected in a transgression, you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. Take care that you yourselves are not tempted.

Gal 6:2 Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Gal 6:3 For if those who are nothing think they are something, they deceive themselves.

Gal 6:4 All must test their own work; then that work, rather than their neighbor's work, will become a cause for pride.

Gal 6:5 For all must carry their own loads.

Gal 6:6 Those who are taught the word must share in all good things with their teacher.

Gal 6:7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow.

Gal 6:8 If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

Gal 6:9 So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.

Gal 6:10 So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.

Gal 6:11 See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand!

Gal 6:12 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised-- only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Gal 6:13 Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh.

Gal 6:14 May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Gal 6:15 For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything!

Gal 6:16 As for those who will follow this rule-- peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

Gal 6:17 From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body.

Gal 6:18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Eph 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus:

Eph 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Eph 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places,

Eph 1:4 just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love.

Eph 1:5 He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will,

Eph 1:6 to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

Eph 1:7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace

Eph 1:8 that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight

Eph 1:9 he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ,

Eph 1:10 as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

Eph 1:11 In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will,

Eph 1:12 so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory.

Eph 1:13 In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit;

Eph 1:14 this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Eph 1:15 I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason

Eph 1:16 I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers.

Eph 1:17 I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him,

Eph 1:18 so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints,

Eph 1:19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power.

Eph 1:20 God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places,

Eph 1:21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come.

Eph 1:22 And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church,

Eph 1:23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Eph 2:1 You were dead through the trespasses and sins
Eph 2:2 in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient.
Eph 2:3 All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else.
Eph 2:4 But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us
Eph 2:5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-- by grace you have been saved--
Eph 2:6 and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,
Eph 2:7 so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.
Eph 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God--
Eph 2:9 not the result of works, so that no one may boast.
Eph 2:10 For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.
Eph 2:11 So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called "the uncircumcision" by those who are called "the circumcision"-- a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands--
Eph 2:12 remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
Eph 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.
Eph 2:14 For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us.
Eph 2:15 He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace,
Eph 2:16 and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it.
Eph 2:17 So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near;
Eph 2:18 for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father.
Eph 2:19 So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God,
Eph 2:20 built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone.
Eph 2:21 In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord;
Eph 2:22 in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.
Eph 3:1 This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles--
Eph 3:2 for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you,
Eph 3:3 and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words,
Eph 3:4 a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ.
Eph 3:5 In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
Eph 3:6 that is, the Gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.
Eph 3:7 Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power.
Eph 3:8 Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ,
Eph 3:9 and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things;
Eph 3:10 so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.
Eph 3:11 This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord,
Eph 3:12 in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.
Eph 3:13 I pray therefore that you may not lose heart over my sufferings for you; they are your glory.
Eph 3:14 For this reason I bow my knees before the Father,
Eph 3:15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name.
Eph 3:16 I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit,
Eph 3:17 and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love.
Eph 3:18 I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth,

Eph 3:19 and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Eph 3:20 Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine,

Eph 3:21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Eph 4:1 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called,

Eph 4:2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,

Eph 4:3 making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Eph 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling,

Eph 4:5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

Eph 4:6 one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

Eph 4:7 But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift.

Eph 4:8 Therefore it is said, "When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people."

Eph 4:9 (When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth?)

Eph 4:10 He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.)

Eph 4:11 The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,

Eph 4:12 to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,

Eph 4:13 until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.

Eph 4:14 We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming.

Eph 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,

Eph 4:16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

Eph 4:17 Now this I affirm and insist on in the Lord: you must no longer live as the Gentiles live, in the futility of their minds.

Eph 4:18 They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of their ignorance and hardness of heart.

Eph 4:19 They have lost all sensitivity and have abandoned themselves to licentiousness, greedy to practice every kind of impurity.

Eph 4:20 That is not the way you learned Christ!

Eph 4:21 For surely you have heard about him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus.

Eph 4:22 You were taught to put away your former way of life, your old self, corrupt and deluded by its lusts,

Eph 4:23 and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds,

Eph 4:24 and to clothe yourselves with the new self, created according to the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

Eph 4:25 So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another.

Eph 4:26 Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger,

Eph 4:27 and do not make room for the devil.

Eph 4:28 Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy.

Eph 4:29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear.

Eph 4:30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption.

Eph 4:31 Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice,

Eph 4:32 and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Eph 5:1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children,

Eph 5:2 and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Eph 5:3 But fornication and impurity of any kind, or greed, must not even be mentioned among you, as is proper among saints.

Eph 5:4 Entirely out of place is obscene, silly, and vulgar talk; but instead, let there be thanksgiving.

Eph 5:5 Be sure of this, that no fornicator or impure person, or one who is greedy (that is, an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Eph 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes on those who are disobedient.

Eph 5:7 Therefore do not be associated with them.

Eph 5:8 For once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light. Live as children of light--

Eph 5:9 for the fruit of the light is found in all that is good and right and true.

Eph 5:10 Try to find out what is pleasing to the Lord.

Eph 5:11 Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them.

Eph 5:12 For it is shameful even to mention what such people do secretly;

Eph 5:13 but everything exposed by the light becomes visible,

Eph 5:14 for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, "Sleeper, awake! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

Eph 5:15 Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise,

Eph 5:16 making the most of the time, because the days are evil.

Eph 5:17 So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

Eph 5:18 Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit,

Eph 5:19 as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts,

Eph 5:20 giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Eph 5:21 Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Eph 5:22 Wives, be subject to your husbands as you are to the Lord.

Eph 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife just as Christ is the head of the church, the body of which he is the Savior.

Eph 5:24 Just as the church is subject to Christ, so also wives ought to be, in everything, to their husbands.

Eph 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her,

Eph 5:26 in order to make her holy by cleansing her with the washing of water by the word,

Eph 5:27 so as to present the church to himself in splendor, without a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind-- yes, so that she may be holy and without blemish.

Eph 5:28 In the same way, husbands should love their wives as they do their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

Eph 5:29 For no one ever hates his own body, but he nourishes and tenderly cares for it, just as Christ does for the church,

Eph 5:30 because we are members of his body.

Eph 5:31 "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."

Eph 5:32 This is a great mystery, and I am applying it to Christ and the church.

Eph 5:33 Each of you, however, should love his wife as himself, and a wife should respect her husband.

Eph 6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

Eph 6:2 "Honor your father and mother"-- this is the first commandment with a promise:

Eph 6:3 "so that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."

Eph 6:4 And, fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Eph 6:5 Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, in singleness of heart, as you obey Christ;

Eph 6:6 not only while being watched, and in order to please them, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.

Eph 6:7 Render service with enthusiasm, as to the Lord and not to men and women,

Eph 6:8 knowing that whatever good we do, we will receive the same again from the Lord, whether we are slaves or free.

Eph 6:9 And, masters, do the same to them. Stop threatening them, for you know that both of you have the same Master in heaven, and with him there is no partiality.

Eph 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power.

Eph 6:11 Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Eph 6:12 For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Eph 6:13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm.

Eph 6:14 Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness.

Eph 6:15 As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace.

Eph 6:16 With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

Eph 6:17 Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Eph 6:18 Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints.

Eph 6:19 Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel,

Eph 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

Eph 6:21 So that you also may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus will tell you everything. He is a dear brother and a faithful minister in the Lord.

Eph 6:22 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, to let you know how we are, and to encourage your hearts.

Eph 6:23 Peace be to the whole community, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Eph 6:24 Grace be with all who have an undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Phi 1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

Phi 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Phi 1:3 I thank my God every time I remember you,

Phi 1:4 constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you,

Phi 1:5 because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now.

Phi 1:6 I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.

Phi 1:7 It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

Phi 1:8 For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus.

Phi 1:9 And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight

Phi 1:10 to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless,

Phi 1:11 having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

Phi 1:12 I want you to know, beloved, that what has happened to me has actually helped to spread the gospel,

Phi 1:13 so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to everyone else that my imprisonment is for Christ;

Phi 1:14 and most of the brothers and sisters, having been made confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, dare to speak the word with greater boldness and without fear.

Phi 1:15 Some proclaim Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from goodwill.

Phi 1:16 These proclaim Christ out of love, knowing that I have been put here for the defense of the gospel;

Phi 1:17 the others proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely but intending to increase my suffering in my imprisonment.

Phi 1:18 What does it matter? Just this, that Christ is proclaimed in every way, whether out of false motives or true; and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

Phi 1:19 for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance.

Phi 1:20 It is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be put to shame in any way, but that by my speaking with all boldness, Christ will be exalted now as always in my body, whether by life or by death.

Phi 1:21 For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain.

Phi 1:22 If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer.

Phi 1:23 I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better;

Phi 1:24 but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you.

Phi 1:25 Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith,

Phi 1:26 so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Phi 1:27 Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel,

Phi 1:28 and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing.

Phi 1:29 For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well--

Phi 1:30 since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Phi 2:1 If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy,

Phi 2:2 make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Phi 2:3 Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves.

Phi 2:4 Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

Phi 2:5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,

Phi 2:6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited,

Phi 2:7 but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form,

Phi 2:8 he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross.

Phi 2:9 Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name,

Phi 2:10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

Phi 2:11 and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Phi 2:12 Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;

Phi 2:13 for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Phi 2:14 Do all things without murmuring and arguing,

Phi 2:15 so that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, in which you shine like stars in the world.

Phi 2:16 It is by your holding fast to the word of life that I can boast on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

Phi 2:17 But even if I am being poured out as a libation over the sacrifice and the offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you--

Phi 2:18 and in the same way you also must be glad and rejoice with me.

Phi 2:19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may be cheered by news of you.

Phi 2:20 I have no one like him who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare.

Phi 2:21 All of them are seeking their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

Phi 2:22 But Timothy's worth you know, how like a son with a father he has served with me in the work of the gospel.

Phi 2:23 I hope therefore to send him as soon as I see how things go with me;

Phi 2:24 and I trust in the Lord that I will also come soon.

Phi 2:25 Still, I think it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus-- my brother and co-worker and fellow soldier, your messenger and minister to my need;

Phi 2:26 for he has been longing for all of you, and has been distressed because you heard that he was ill.

Phi 2:27 He was indeed so ill that he nearly died. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, so that I would not have one sorrow after another.

Phi 2:28 I am the more eager to send him, therefore, in order that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious.

Phi 2:29 Welcome him then in the Lord with all joy, and honor such people,

Phi 2:30 because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for those services that you could not give me.

Phi 3:1 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is not troublesome to me, and for you it is a safeguard.

Phi 3:2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of those who mutilate the flesh!

Phi 3:3 For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and boast in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh--

Phi 3:4 even though I, too, have reason for confidence in the flesh. If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more:

Phi 3:5 circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee;

Phi 3:6 as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Phi 3:7 Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ.

Phi 3:8 More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ

Phi 3:9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith.

Phi 3:10 I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death,

Phi 3:11 if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Phi 3:12 Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.

Phi 3:13 Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

Phi 3:14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Phi 3:15 Let those of us then who are mature be of the same mind; and if you think differently about anything, this too God will reveal to you.

Phi 3:16 Only let us hold fast to what we have attained.

Phi 3:17 Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us.

Phi 3:18 For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears.

Phi 3:19 Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things.

Phi 3:20 But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Phi 3:21 He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself.

Phi 4:1 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

Phi 4:2 I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.

Phi 4:3 Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Phi 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.

Phi 4:5 Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near.

Phi 4:6 Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

Phi 4:7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Phi 4:8 Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Phi 4:9 Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Phi 4:10 I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned for me, but had no opportunity to show it.

Phi 4:11 Not that I am referring to being in need; for I have learned to be content with whatever I have.

Phi 4:12 I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need.

Phi 4:13 I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Phi 4:14 In any case, it was kind of you to share my distress.

Phi 4:15 You Philippians indeed know that in the early days of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you alone.

Phi 4:16 For even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me help for my needs more than once.

Phi 4:17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the profit that accumulates to your account.

Phi 4:18 I have been paid in full and have more than enough; I am fully satisfied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God.

Phi 4:19 And my God will fully satisfy every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Phi 4:20 To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Phi 4:21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The friends who are with me greet you.

Phi 4:22 All the saints greet you, especially those of the emperor's household.

Phi 4:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Col 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

Col 1:2 To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

Col 1:3 In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Col 1:4 for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints,
Col 1:5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel
Col 1:6 that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God.
Col 1:7 This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf,
Col 1:8 and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.
Col 1:9 For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,
Col 1:10 so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God.
Col 1:11 May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully
Col 1:12 giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light.
Col 1:13 He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son,
Col 1:14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.
Col 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation;
Col 1:16 for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers-- all things have been created through him and for him.
Col 1:17 He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together.
Col 1:18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything.
Col 1:19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell,
Col 1:20 and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.
Col 1:21 And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds,
Col 1:22 he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him--
Col 1:23 provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.
Col 1:24 I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church.
Col 1:25 I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known,
Col 1:26 the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints.
Col 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.
Col 1:28 It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.
Col 1:29 For this I toil and struggle with all the energy that he powerfully inspires within me.
Col 2:1 For I want you to know how much I am struggling for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not seen me face to face.
Col 2:2 I want their hearts to be encouraged and united in love, so that they may have all the riches of assured understanding and have the knowledge of God's mystery, that is, Christ himself,
Col 2:3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
Col 2:4 I am saying this so that no one may deceive you with plausible arguments.
Col 2:5 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, and I rejoice to see your morale and the firmness of your faith in Christ.
Col 2:6 As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him,
Col 2:7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.
Col 2:8 See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ.
Col 2:9 For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily,
Col 2:10 and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority.

Col 2:11 In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ;

Col 2:12 when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

Col 2:13 And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses,

Col 2:14 erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross.

Col 2:15 He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

Col 2:16 Therefore do not let anyone condemn you in matters of food and drink or of observing festivals, new moons, or sabbaths.

Col 2:17 These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the substance belongs to Christ.

Col 2:18 Do not let anyone disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without cause by a human way of thinking,

Col 2:19 and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

Col 2:20 If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the universe, why do you live as if you still belonged to the world? Why do you submit to regulations,

Col 2:21 "Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch"?

Col 2:22 All these regulations refer to things that perish with use; they are simply human commands and teachings.

Col 2:23 These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-imposed piety, humility, and severe treatment of the body, but they are of no value in checking self-indulgence.

Col 3:1 So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

Col 3:2 Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth,

Col 3:3 for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

Col 3:4 When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Col 3:5 Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry).

Col 3:6 On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient.

Col 3:7 These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life.

Col 3:8 But now you must get rid of all such things-- anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth.

Col 3:9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices

Col 3:10 and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator.

Col 3:11 In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Col 3:12 As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.

Col 3:13 Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

Col 3:14 Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Col 3:15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.

Col 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

Col 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Col 3:18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

Col 3:19 Husbands, love your wives and never treat them harshly.

Col 3:20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is your acceptable duty in the Lord.

Col 3:21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may lose heart.

Col 3:22 Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only while being watched and in order to please them, but wholeheartedly, fearing the Lord.

Col 3:23 Whatever your task, put yourselves into it, as done for the Lord and not for your masters,

Col 3:24 since you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward; you serve the Lord Christ.

Col 3:25 For the wrongdoer will be paid back for whatever wrong has been done, and there is no partiality.

Col 4:1 Masters, treat your slaves justly and fairly, for you know that you also have a Master in heaven.
Col 4:2 Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving.
Col 4:3 At the same time pray for us as well that God will open to us a door for the word, that we may declare the mystery of Christ, for which I am in prison,
Col 4:4 so that I may reveal it clearly, as I should.
Col 4:5 Conduct yourselves wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the time.
Col 4:6 Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer everyone.
Col 4:7 Tychicus will tell you all the news about me; he is a beloved brother, a faithful minister, and a fellow servant in the Lord.
Col 4:8 I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are and that he may encourage your hearts;
Col 4:9 he is coming with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything here.
Col 4:10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, as does Mark the cousin of Barnabas, concerning whom you have received instructions-- if he comes to you, welcome him.
Col 4:11 And Jesus who is called Justus greets you. These are the only ones of the circumcision among my co-workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.
Col 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you. He is always wrestling in his prayers on your behalf, so that you may stand mature and fully assured in everything that God wills.
Col 4:13 For I testify for him that he has worked hard for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis.
Col 4:14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.
Col 4:15 Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters in Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house.
Col 4:16 And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you read also the letter from Laodicea.
Col 4:17 And say to Archippus, "See that you complete the task that you have received in the Lord."
Col 4:18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.
1Th 1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.
1Th 1:2 We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly
1Th 1:3 remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.
1Th 1:4 For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you,
1Th 1:5 because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake.
1Th 1:6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit,
1Th 1:7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.
1Th 1:8 For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it.
1Th 1:9 For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God,
1Th 1:10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.
1Th 2:1 You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain,
1Th 2:2 but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition.
1Th 2:3 For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery,
1Th 2:4 but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts.
1Th 2:5 As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed;
1Th 2:6 nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others,
1Th 2:7 though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children.
1Th 2:8 So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.
1Th 2:9 You remember our labor and toil, brothers and sisters; we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

1Th 2:10 You are witnesses, and God also, how pure, upright, and blameless our conduct was toward you believers.

1Th 2:11 As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children,

1Th 2:12 urging and encouraging you and pleading that you lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

1Th 2:13 We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God's word, which is also at work in you believers.

1Th 2:14 For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you suffered the same things from your own compatriots as they did from the Jews,

1Th 2:15 who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out; they displease God and oppose everyone

1Th 2:16 by hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. Thus they have constantly been filling up the measure of their sins; but God's wrath has overtaken them at last.

1Th 2:17 As for us, brothers and sisters, when, for a short time, we were made orphans by being separated from you-- in person, not in heart-- we longed with great eagerness to see you face to face.

1Th 2:18 For we wanted to come to you-- certainly I, Paul, wanted to again and again-- but Satan blocked our way.

1Th 2:19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you?

1Th 2:20 Yes, you are our glory and joy!

1Th 3:1 Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we decided to be left alone in Athens;

1Th 3:2 and we sent Timothy, our brother and co-worker for God in proclaiming the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you for the sake of your faith,

1Th 3:3 so that no one would be shaken by these persecutions. Indeed, you yourselves know that this is what we are destined for.

1Th 3:4 In fact, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we were to suffer persecution; so it turned out, as you know.

1Th 3:5 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith; I was afraid that somehow the tempter had tempted you and that our labor had been in vain.

1Th 3:6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love. He has told us also that you always remember us kindly and long to see us-- just as we long to see you.

1Th 3:7 For this reason, brothers and sisters, during all our distress and persecution we have been encouraged about you through your faith.

1Th 3:8 For we now live, if you continue to stand firm in the Lord.

1Th 3:9 How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you?

1Th 3:10 Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

1Th 3:11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you.

1Th 3:12 And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you.

1Th 3:13 And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

1Th 4:1 Finally, brothers and sisters, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus that, as you learned from us how you ought to live and to please God (as, in fact, you are doing), you should do so more and more.

1Th 4:2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

1Th 4:3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from fornication;

1Th 4:4 that each one of you know how to control your own body in holiness and honor,

1Th 4:5 not with lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God;

1Th 4:6 that no one wrong or exploit a brother or sister in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, just as we have already told you beforehand and solemnly warned you.

1Th 4:7 For God did not call us to impurity but in holiness.

1Th 4:8 Therefore whoever rejects this rejects not human authority but God, who also gives his Holy Spirit to you.

1Th 4:9 Now concerning love of the brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anyone write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another;

1Th 4:10 and indeed you do love all the brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, beloved, to do so more and more,

1Th 4:11 to aspire to live quietly, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we directed you,

1Th 4:12 so that you may behave properly toward outsiders and be dependent on no one.
1Th 4:13 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope.
1Th 4:14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died.
1Th 4:15 For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died.
1Th 4:16 For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first.
1Th 4:17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever.
1Th 4:18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.
1Th 5:1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you.
1Th 5:2 For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.
1Th 5:3 When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape!
1Th 5:4 But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief;
1Th 5:5 for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness.
1Th 5:6 So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober;
1Th 5:7 for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night.
1Th 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation.
1Th 5:9 For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
1Th 5:10 who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him.
1Th 5:11 Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.
1Th 5:12 But we appeal to you, brothers and sisters, to respect those who labor among you, and have charge of you in the Lord and admonish you;
1Th 5:13 esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.
1Th 5:14 And we urge you, beloved, to admonish the idlers, encourage the faint hearted, help the weak, be patient with all of them.
1Th 5:15 See that none of you repays evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to all.
1Th 5:16 Rejoice always,
1Th 5:17 pray without ceasing,
1Th 5:18 give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.
1Th 5:19 Do not quench the Spirit.
1Th 5:20 Do not despise the words of prophets,
1Th 5:21 but test everything; hold fast to what is good;
1Th 5:22 abstain from every form of evil.
1Th 5:23 May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
1Th 5:24 The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.
1Th 5:25 Beloved, pray for us.
1Th 5:26 Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss.
1Th 5:27 I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all of them.
1Th 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
2Th 1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
2Th 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
2Th 1:3 We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing.
2Th 1:4 Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.
2Th 1:5 This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, and is intended to make you worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering.
2Th 1:6 For it is indeed just of God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,
2Th 1:7 and to give relief to the afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels
2Th 1:8 in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

2Th 1:9 These will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, separated from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might,

2Th 1:10 when he comes to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at on that day among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

2Th 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith,

2Th 1:12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2Th 2:1 As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, 2Th 2:2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here.

2Th 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction.

2Th 2:4 He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God.

2Th 2:5 Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

2Th 2:6 And you know what is now restraining him, so that he may be revealed when his time comes.

2Th 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but only until the one who now restrains it is removed.

2Th 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will destroy with the breath of his mouth, annihilating him by the manifestation of his coming.

2Th 2:9 The coming of the lawless one is apparent in the working of Satan, who uses all power, signs, lying wonders, 2Th 2:10 and every kind of wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2Th 2:11 For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion, leading them to believe what is false, 2Th 2:12 so that all who have not believed the truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness will be condemned.

2Th 2:13 But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth.

2Th 2:14 For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2Th 2:15 So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

2Th 2:16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, 2Th 2:17 comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

2Th 3:1 Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified everywhere, just as it is among you,

2Th 3:2 and that we may be rescued from wicked and evil people; for not all have faith.

2Th 3:3 But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.

2Th 3:4 And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will go on doing the things that we command.

2Th 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

2Th 3:6 Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us.

2Th 3:7 For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you,

2Th 3:8 and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you.

2Th 3:9 This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate.

2Th 3:10 For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat.

2Th 3:11 For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work.

2Th 3:12 Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living.

2Th 3:13 Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

2Th 3:14 Take note of those who do not obey what we say in this letter; have nothing to do with them, so that they may be ashamed.

2Th 3:15 Do not regard them as enemies, but warn them as believers.

2Th 3:16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with all of you.

2Th 3:17 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. This is the mark in every letter of mine; it is the way I write.

2Th 3:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

1Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope, 1Ti 1:2 To Timothy, my loyal child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

1Ti 1:3 I urge you, as I did when I was on my way to Macedonia, to remain in Ephesus so that you may instruct certain people not to teach any different doctrine, 1Ti 1:4 and not to occupy themselves with myths and endless genealogies that promote speculations rather than the divine training that is known by faith.

1Ti 1:5 But the aim of such instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith.

1Ti 1:6 Some people have deviated from these and turned to meaningless talk,

1Ti 1:7 desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make assertions.

1Ti 1:8 Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it legitimately.

1Ti 1:9 This means understanding that the law is laid down not for the innocent but for the lawless and disobedient, for the godless and sinful, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their father or mother, for murderers,

1Ti 1:10 fornicators, sodomites, slave traders, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to the sound teaching

1Ti 1:11 that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

1Ti 1:12 I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service,

1Ti 1:13 even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, 1Ti 1:14 and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

1Ti 1:15 The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners-- of whom I am the foremost.

1Ti 1:16 But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life.

1Ti 1:17 To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

1Ti 1:18 I am giving you these instructions, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies made earlier about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight,

1Ti 1:19 having faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have suffered shipwreck in the faith;

1Ti 1:20 among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have turned over to Satan, so that they may learn not to blaspheme.

1Ti 2:1 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone,

1Ti 2:2 for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity.

1Ti 2:3 This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 1Ti 2:4 who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

1Ti 2:5 For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human,

1Ti 2:6 who gave himself a ransom for all-- this was attested at the right time.

1Ti 2:7 For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

1Ti 2:8 I desire, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or argument;

1Ti 2:9 also that the women should dress themselves modestly and decently in suitable clothing, not with their hair braided, or with gold, pearls, or expensive clothes,

1Ti 2:10 but with good works, as is proper for women who profess reverence for God.

1Ti 2:11 Let a woman learn in silence with full submission.

1Ti 2:12 I permit no woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she is to keep silent.

1Ti 2:13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve;

1Ti 2:14 and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor.

1Ti 2:15 Yet she will be saved through childbearing, provided they continue in faith and love and holiness, with modesty.

1Ti 3:1 The saying is sure: whoever aspires to the office of bishop desires a noble task.

1Ti 3:2 Now a bishop must be above reproach, married only once, temperate, sensible, respectable, hospitable, an apt teacher,

1Ti 3:3 not a drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, and not a lover of money.

1Ti 3:4 He must manage his own household well, keeping his children submissive and respectful in every way--

1Ti 3:5 for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how can he take care of God's church?

1Ti 3:6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may be puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil.

1Ti 3:7 Moreover, he must be well thought of by outsiders, so that he may not fall into disgrace and the snare of the devil.

1Ti 3:8 Deacons likewise must be serious, not double-tongued, not indulging in much wine, not greedy for money;

1Ti 3:9 they must hold fast to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

1Ti 3:10 And let them first be tested; then, if they prove themselves blameless, let them serve as deacons.

1Ti 3:11 Women likewise must be serious, not slanderers, but temperate, faithful in all things.

1Ti 3:12 Let deacons be married only once, and let them manage their children and their households well;

1Ti 3:13 for those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and great boldness in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

1Ti 3:14 I hope to come to you soon, but I am writing these instructions to you so that,

1Ti 3:15 if I am delayed, you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and bulwark of the truth.

1Ti 3:16 Without any doubt, the mystery of our religion is great: He was revealed in flesh, vindicated in spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among Gentiles, believed in throughout the world, taken up in glory.

1Ti 4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will renounce the faith by paying attention to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, 1Ti 4:2 through the hypocrisy of liars whose consciences are seared with a hot iron.

1Ti 4:3 They forbid marriage and demand abstinence from foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

1Ti 4:4 For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, provided it is received with thanksgiving;

1Ti 4:5 for it is sanctified by God's word and by prayer.

1Ti 4:6 If you put these instructions before the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished on the words of the faith and of the sound teaching that you have followed.

1Ti 4:7 Have nothing to do with profane myths and old wives' tales. Train yourself in godliness, 1Ti 4:8 for, while physical training is of some value, godliness is valuable in every way, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

1Ti 4:9 The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance.

1Ti 4:10 For to this end we toil and struggle, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

1Ti 4:11 These are the things you must insist on and teach.

1Ti 4:12 Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.

1Ti 4:13 Until I arrive, give attention to the public reading of scripture, to exhorting, to teaching.

1Ti 4:14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders.

1Ti 4:15 Put these things into practice, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress.

1Ti 4:16 Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.

1Ti 5:1 Do not speak harshly to an older man, but speak to him as to a father, to younger men as brothers,

1Ti 5:2 to older women as mothers, to younger women as sisters-- with absolute purity.

1Ti 5:3 Honor widows who are really widows.

1Ti 5:4 If a widow has children or grandchildren, they should first learn their religious duty to their own family and make some repayment to their parents; for this is pleasing in God's sight.

1Ti 5:5 The real widow, left alone, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day;

1Ti 5:6 but the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives.

1Ti 5:7 Give these commands as well, so that they may be above reproach.
1Ti 5:8 And whoever does not provide for relatives, and especially for family members, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
1Ti 5:9 Let a widow be put on the list if she is not less than sixty years old and has been married only once;
1Ti 5:10 she must be well attested for her good works, as one who has brought up children, shown hospitality, washed the saints' feet, helped the afflicted, and devoted herself to doing good in every way.
1Ti 5:11 But refuse to put younger widows on the list; for when their sensual desires alienate them from Christ, they want to marry,
1Ti 5:12 and so they incur condemnation for having violated their first pledge.
1Ti 5:13 Besides that, they learn to be idle, gadding about from house to house; and they are not merely idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying what they should not say.
1Ti 5:14 So I would have younger widows marry, bear children, and manage their households, so as to give the adversary no occasion to revile us.
1Ti 5:15 For some have already turned away to follow Satan.
1Ti 5:16 If any believing woman has relatives who are really widows, let her assist them; let the church not be burdened, so that it can assist those who are real widows.
1Ti 5:17 Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching;
1Ti 5:18 for the scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain," and, "The laborer deserves to be paid."
1Ti 5:19 Never accept any accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.
1Ti 5:20 As for those who persist in sin, rebuke them in the presence of all, so that the rest also may stand in fear.
1Ti 5:21 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of the elect angels, I warn you to keep these instructions without prejudice, doing nothing on the basis of partiality.
1Ti 5:22 Do not ordain anyone hastily, and do not participate in the sins of others; keep yourself pure.
1Ti 5:23 No longer drink only water, but take a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments.
1Ti 5:24 The sins of some people are conspicuous and precede them to judgment, while the sins of others follow them there.
1Ti 5:25 So also good works are conspicuous; and even when they are not, they cannot remain hidden.
1Ti 6:1 Let all who are under the yoke of slavery regard their masters as worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed.
1Ti 6:2 Those who have believing masters must not be disrespectful to them on the ground that they are members of the church; rather they must serve them all the more, since those who benefit by their service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these duties.
1Ti 6:3 Whoever teaches otherwise and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that is in accordance with godliness,
1Ti 6:4 is conceited, understanding nothing, and has a morbid craving for controversy and for disputes about words. From these come envy, dissension, slander, base suspicions,
1Ti 6:5 and wrangling among those who are depraved in mind and bereft of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain.
1Ti 6:6 Of course, there is great gain in godliness combined with contentment;
1Ti 6:7 for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it;
1Ti 6:8 but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these.
1Ti 6:9 But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.
1Ti 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.
1Ti 6:11 But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness.
1Ti 6:12 Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.
1Ti 6:13 In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you
1Ti 6:14 to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ,
1Ti 6:15 which he will bring about at the right time-- he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords.
1Ti 6:16 It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

1Ti 6:17 As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.

1Ti 6:18 They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, 1Ti 6:19 thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

1Ti 6:20 Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you. Avoid the profane chatter and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge;

1Ti 6:21 by professing it some have missed the mark as regards the faith. Grace be with you.

2Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, 2Ti 1:2 To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

2Ti 1:3 I am grateful to God-- whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did-- when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day.

2Ti 1:4 Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy.

2Ti 1:5 I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you.

2Ti 1:6 For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands;

2Ti 1:7 for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

2Ti 1:8 Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God,

2Ti 1:9 who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began,

2Ti 1:10 but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

2Ti 1:11 For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher,

2Ti 1:12 and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him.

2Ti 1:13 Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

2Ti 1:14 Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

2Ti 1:15 You are aware that all who are in Asia have turned away from me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2Ti 1:16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain;

2Ti 1:17 when he arrived in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me

2Ti 1:18 -- may the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! And you know very well how much service he rendered in Ephesus.

2Ti 2:1 You then, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus;

2Ti 2:2 and what you have heard from me through many witnesses entrust to faithful people who will be able to teach others as well.

2Ti 2:3 Share in suffering like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

2Ti 2:4 No one serving in the army gets entangled in everyday affairs; the soldier's aim is to please the enlisting officer.

2Ti 2:5 And in the case of an athlete, no one is crowned without competing according to the rules.

2Ti 2:6 It is the farmer who does the work who ought to have the first share of the crops.

2Ti 2:7 Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things.

2Ti 2:8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David-- that is my gospel, 2Ti 2:9 for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

2Ti 2:10 Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

2Ti 2:11 The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him;

2Ti 2:12 if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us;

2Ti 2:13 if we are faithless, he remains faithful-- for he cannot deny himself.

2Ti 2:14 Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening.

2Ti 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

2Ti 2:16 Avoid profane chatter, for it will lead people into more and more impiety,

2Ti 2:17 and their talk will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, 2Ti 2:18 who have swerved from the truth by claiming that the resurrection has already taken place. They are upsetting the faith of some.

2Ti 2:19 But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this inscription: "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let everyone who calls on the name of the Lord turn away from wickedness."

2Ti 2:20 In a large house there are utensils not only of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for special use, some for ordinary.

2Ti 2:21 All who cleanse themselves of the things I have mentioned will become special utensils, dedicated and useful to the owner of the house, ready for every good work.

2Ti 2:22 Shun youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

2Ti 2:23 Have nothing to do with stupid and senseless controversies; you know that they breed quarrels.

2Ti 2:24 And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kindly to everyone, an apt teacher, patient,

2Ti 2:25 correcting opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant that they will repent and come to know the truth, 2Ti 2:26 and that they may escape from the snare of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.

2Ti 3:1 You must understand this, that in the last days distressing times will come.

2Ti 3:2 For people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy,

2Ti 3:3 inhuman, implacable, slanderers, profligates, brutes, haters of good,

2Ti 3:4 treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

2Ti 3:5 holding to the outward form of godliness but denying its power. Avoid them!

2Ti 3:6 For among them are those who make their way into households and captivate silly women, overwhelmed by their sins and swayed by all kinds of desires,

2Ti 3:7 who are always being instructed and can never arrive at a knowledge of the truth.

2Ti 3:8 As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these people, of corrupt mind and counterfeit faith, also oppose the truth.

2Ti 3:9 But they will not make much progress, because, as in the case of those two men, their folly will become plain to everyone.

2Ti 3:10 Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness,

2Ti 3:11 my persecutions and suffering the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them.

2Ti 3:12 Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

2Ti 3:13 But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived.

2Ti 3:14 But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it,

2Ti 3:15 and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

2Ti 3:16 All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,

2Ti 3:17 so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

2Ti 4:1 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you:

2Ti 4:2 proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching.

2Ti 4:3 For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires,

2Ti 4:4 and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths.

2Ti 4:5 As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

2Ti 4:6 As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come.

2Ti 4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

2Ti 4:8 From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

2Ti 4:9 Do your best to come to me soon,

2Ti 4:10 for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

2Ti 4:11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry.

2Ti 4:12 I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

2Ti 4:13 When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments.

2Ti 4:14 Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds.

2Ti 4:15 You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message.

2Ti 4:16 At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them!

2Ti 4:17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

2Ti 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

2Ti 4:19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

2Ti 4:20 Erastus remained in Corinth; Trophimus I left ill in Miletus.

2Ti 4:21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus sends greetings to you, as do Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers and sisters.

2Ti 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Tit 1:1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and the knowledge of the truth that is in accordance with godliness,

Tit 1:2 in the hope of eternal life that God, who never lies, promised before the ages began--

Tit 1:3 in due time he revealed his word through the proclamation with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior,

Tit 1:4 To Titus, my loyal child in the faith we share: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Tit 1:5 I left you behind in Crete for this reason, so that you should put in order what remained to be done, and should appoint elders in every town, as I directed you:

Tit 1:6 someone who is blameless, married only once, whose children are believers, not accused of debauchery and not rebellious.

Tit 1:7 For a bishop, as God's steward, must be blameless; he must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or addicted to wine or violent or greedy for gain;

Tit 1:8 but he must be hospitable, a lover of goodness, prudent, upright, devout, and self-controlled.

Tit 1:9 He must have a firm grasp of the word that is trustworthy in accordance with the teaching, so that he may be able both to preach with sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict it.

Tit 1:10 There are also many rebellious people, idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision;

Tit 1:11 they must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for sordid gain what it is not right to teach.

Tit 1:12 It was one of them, their very own prophet, who said, "Cretans are always liars, vicious brutes, lazy gluttons."

Tit 1:13 That testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, so that they may become sound in the faith,

Tit 1:14 not paying attention to Jewish myths or to commandments of those who reject the truth.

Tit 1:15 To the pure all things are pure, but to the corrupt and unbelieving nothing is pure. Their very minds and consciences are corrupted.

Tit 1:16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their actions. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work.

Tit 2:1 But as for you, teach what is consistent with sound doctrine.

Tit 2:2 Tell the older men to be temperate, serious, prudent, and sound in faith, in love, and in endurance.

Tit 2:3 Likewise, tell the older women to be reverent in behavior, not to be slanderers or slaves to drink; they are to teach what is good,

Tit 2:4 so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

Tit 2:5 to be self-controlled, chaste, good managers of the household, kind, being submissive to their husbands, so that the word of God may not be discredited.

Tit 2:6 Likewise, urge the younger men to be self-controlled.

Tit 2:7 Show yourself in all respects a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, gravity,

Tit 2:8 and sound speech that cannot be censured; then any opponent will be put to shame, having nothing evil to say of us.

Tit 2:9 Tell slaves to be submissive to their masters and to give satisfaction in every respect; they are not to talk back,

Tit 2:10 not to pilfer, but to show complete and perfect fidelity, so that in everything they may be an ornament to the doctrine of God our Savior.

Tit 2:11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all,

Tit 2:12 training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly,

Tit 2:13 while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Tit 2:14 He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Tit 2:15 Declare these things; exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one look down on you.

Tit 3:1 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work,

Tit 3:2 to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show every courtesy to everyone.

Tit 3:3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, despicable, hating one another.

Tit 3:4 But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared,

Tit 3:5 he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

Tit 3:6 This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

Tit 3:7 so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Tit 3:8 The saying is sure. I desire that you insist on these things, so that those who have come to believe in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works; these things are excellent and profitable to everyone.

Tit 3:9 But avoid stupid controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless.

Tit 3:10 After a first and second admonition, have nothing more to do with anyone who causes divisions,

Tit 3:11 since you know that such a person is perverted and sinful, being self-condemned.

Tit 3:12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

Tit 3:13 Make every effort to send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, and see that they lack nothing.

Tit 3:14 And let people learn to devote themselves to good works in order to meet urgent needs, so that they may not be unproductive.

Tit 3:15 All who are with me send greetings to you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with all of you.

Phm 1:1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker,

Phm 1:2 to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

Phm 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Phm 1:4 When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God

Phm 1:5 because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus.

Phm 1:6 I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ.

Phm 1:7 I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

Phm 1:8 For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty,

Phm 1:9 yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love-- and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

Phm 1:10 I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment.

Phm 1:11 Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me.

Phm 1:12 I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you.

Phm 1:13 I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel;

Phm 1:14 but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced.

Phm 1:15 Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back forever,

Phm 1:16 no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother-- especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

Phm 1:17 So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

Phm 1:18 If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account.

Phm 1:19 I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self.

Phm 1:20 Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ.

Phm 1:21 Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Phm 1:22 One thing more-- prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you.

Phm 1:23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you,

Phm 1:24 and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

Phm 1:25 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Heb 1:1 Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets,

Heb 1:2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds.

Heb 1:3 He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

Heb 1:4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Heb 1:5 For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are my Son; today I have begotten you"? Or again, "I will be his Father, and he will be my Son"?

Heb 1:6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, "Let all God's angels worship him."

Heb 1:7 Of the angels he says, "He makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire."

Heb 1:8 But of the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and the righteous scepter is the scepter of your kingdom.

Heb 1:9 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions."

Heb 1:10 And, "In the beginning, Lord, you founded the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands;

Heb 1:11 they will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like clothing;

Heb 1:12 like a cloak you will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will never end."

Heb 1:13 But to which of the angels has he ever said, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet"?

Heb 1:14 Are not all angels spirits in the divine service, sent to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

Heb 2:1 Therefore we must pay greater attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away from it.

Heb 2:2 For if the message declared through angels was valid, and every transgression or disobedience received a just penalty,

Heb 2:3 how can we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? It was declared at first through the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him,

Heb 2:4 while God added his testimony by signs and wonders and various miracles, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, distributed according to his will.

Heb 2:5 Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels.

Heb 2:6 But someone has testified somewhere, "What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them?

Heb 2:7 You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honor,

Heb 2:8 subjecting all things under their feet." Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them,

Heb 2:9 but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

Heb 2:10 It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

Heb 2:11 For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

Heb 2:12 saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you."

Heb 2:13 And again, "I will put my trust in him." And again, "Here am I and the children whom God has given me."

Heb 2:14 Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil,

Heb 2:15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death.

Heb 2:16 For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham.

Heb 2:17 Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people.

Heb 2:18 Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Heb 3:1 Therefore, brothers and sisters, holy partners in a heavenly calling, consider that Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

Heb 3:2 was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses also "was faithful in all God's house."

Heb 3:3 Yet Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself.

Heb 3:4 (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.)

Heb 3:5 Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that would be spoken later.

Heb 3:6 Christ, however, was faithful over God's house as a son, and we are his house if we hold firm the confidence and the pride that belong to hope.

Heb 3:7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, if you hear his voice,

Heb 3:8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, as on the day of testing in the wilderness,

Heb 3:9 where your ancestors put me to the test, though they had seen my works

Heb 3:10 for forty years. Therefore I was angry with that generation, and I said, 'They always go astray in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.'

Heb 3:11 As in my anger I swore, 'They will not enter my rest.'"

Heb 3:12 Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you may have an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

Heb 3:13 But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

Heb 3:14 For we have become partners of Christ, if only we hold our first confidence firm to the end.

Heb 3:15 As it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

Heb 3:16 Now who were they who heard and yet were rebellious? Was it not all those who left Egypt under the leadership of Moses?

Heb 3:17 But with whom was he angry forty years? Was it not those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

Heb 3:18 And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, if not to those who were disobedient?

Heb 3:19 So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

Heb 4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest is still open, let us take care that none of you should seem to have failed to reach it.

Heb 4:2 For indeed the good news came to us just as to them; but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened.

Heb 4:3 For we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said, "As in my anger I swore, 'They shall not enter my rest,'" though his works were finished at the foundation of the world.

Heb 4:4 For in one place it speaks about the seventh day as follows, "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works."

Heb 4:5 And again in this place it says, "They shall not enter my rest."

Heb 4:6 Since therefore it remains open for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience,

Heb 4:7 again he sets a certain day-- "today"-- saying through David much later, in the words already quoted, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

Heb 4:8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak later about another day.

Heb 4:9 So then, a sabbath rest still remains for the people of God;

Heb 4:10 for those who enter God's rest also cease from their labors as God did from his.

Heb 4:11 Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall through such disobedience as theirs.

Heb 4:12 Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Heb 4:13 And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Heb 4:14 Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.

Heb 4:15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin.

Heb 4:16 Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Heb 5:1 Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Heb 5:2 He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness;
Heb 5:3 and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people.
Heb 5:4 And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.
Heb 5:5 So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you";
Heb 5:6 as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."
Heb 5:7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.
Heb 5:8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;
Heb 5:9 and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him,
Heb 5:10 having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.
Heb 5:11 About this we have much to say that is hard to explain, since you have become dull in understanding.
Heb 5:12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic elements of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food;
Heb 5:13 for everyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is unskilled in the word of righteousness.
Heb 5:14 But solid food is for the mature, for those whose faculties have been trained by practice to distinguish good from evil.

Heb 6:1 Therefore let us go on toward perfection, leaving behind the basic teaching about Christ, and not laying again the foundation: repentance from dead works and faith toward God,
Heb 6:2 instruction about baptisms, laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.
Heb 6:3 And we will do this, if God permits.
Heb 6:4 For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit,
Heb 6:5 and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come,
Heb 6:6 and then have fallen away, since on their own they are crucifying again the Son of God and are holding him up to contempt.
Heb 6:7 Ground that drinks up the rain falling on it repeatedly, and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God.
Heb 6:8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and on the verge of being cursed; its end is to be burned over.
Heb 6:9 Even though we speak in this way, beloved, we are confident of better things in your case, things that belong to salvation.
Heb 6:10 For God is not unjust; he will not overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do.
Heb 6:11 And we want each one of you to show the same diligence so as to realize the full assurance of hope to the very end,
Heb 6:12 so that you may not become sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
Heb 6:13 When God made a promise to Abraham, because he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself,
Heb 6:14 saying, "I will surely bless you and multiply you."
Heb 6:15 And thus Abraham, having patiently endured, obtained the promise.
Heb 6:16 Human beings, of course, swear by someone greater than themselves, and an oath given as confirmation puts an end to all dispute.
Heb 6:17 In the same way, when God desired to show even more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it by an oath,
Heb 6:18 so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God would prove false, we who have taken refuge might be strongly encouraged to seize the hope set before us.
Heb 6:19 We have this hope, a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters the inner shrine behind the curtain,
Heb 6:20 where Jesus, a forerunner on our behalf, has entered, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Heb 7:1 This "King Melchizedek of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham as he was returning from defeating the kings and blessed him";
Heb 7:2 and to him Abraham apportioned "one-tenth of everything." His name, in the first place, means "king of righteousness"; next he is also king of Salem, that is, "king of peace."
Heb 7:3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God, he remains a priest forever.
Heb 7:4 See how great he is! Even Abraham the patriarch gave him a tenth of the spoils.

Heb 7:5 And those descendants of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment in the law to collect tithes from the people, that is, from their kindred, though these also are descended from Abraham.

Heb 7:6 But this man, who does not belong to their ancestry, collected tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had received the promises.

Heb 7:7 It is beyond dispute that the inferior is blessed by the superior.

Heb 7:8 In the one case, tithes are received by those who are mortal; in the other, by one of whom it is testified that he lives.

Heb 7:9 One might even say that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, Heb 7:10 for he was still in the loins of his ancestor when Melchizedek met him.

Heb 7:11 Now if perfection had been attainable through the levitical priesthood-- for the people received the law under this priesthood-- what further need would there have been to speak of another priest arising according to the order of Melchizedek, rather than one according to the order of Aaron?

Heb 7:12 For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is necessarily a change in the law as well.

Heb 7:13 Now the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar.

Heb 7:14 For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

Heb 7:15 It is even more obvious when another priest arises, resembling Melchizedek,

Heb 7:16 one who has become a priest, not through a legal requirement concerning physical descent, but through the power of an indestructible life.

Heb 7:17 For it is attested of him, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."

Heb 7:18 There is, on the one hand, the abrogation of an earlier commandment because it was weak and ineffectual

Heb 7:19 (for the law made nothing perfect); there is, on the other hand, the introduction of a better hope, through which we approach God.

Heb 7:20 This was confirmed with an oath; for others who became priests took their office without an oath,

Heb 7:21 but this one became a priest with an oath, because of the one who said to him, "The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, 'You are a priest forever'"--

Heb 7:22 accordingly Jesus has also become the guarantee of a better covenant.

Heb 7:23 Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office;

Heb 7:24 but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever.

Heb 7:25 Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Heb 7:26 For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

Heb 7:27 Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself.

Heb 7:28 For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Heb 8:1 Now the main point in what we are saying is this: we have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

Heb 8:2 a minister in the sanctuary and the true tent that the Lord, and not any mortal, has set up.

Heb 8:3 For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; hence it is necessary for this priest also to have something to offer.

Heb 8:4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the law.

Heb 8:5 They offer worship in a sanctuary that is a sketch and shadow of the heavenly one; for Moses, when he was about to erect the tent, was warned, "See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain."

Heb 8:6 But Jesus has now obtained a more excellent ministry, and to that degree he is the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted through better promises.

Heb 8:7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need to look for a second one.

Heb 8:8 God finds fault with them when he says: "The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

Heb 8:9 not like the covenant that I made with their ancestors, on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they did not continue in my covenant, and so I had no concern for them, says the Lord.

Heb 8:10 This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Heb 8:11 And they shall not teach one another or say to each other, 'Know the Lord,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

Heb 8:12 For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more."

Heb 8:13 In speaking of "a new covenant," he has made the first one obsolete. And what is obsolete and growing old will soon disappear.

Heb 9:1 Now even the first covenant had regulations for worship and an earthly sanctuary.

Heb 9:2 For a tent was constructed, the first one, in which were the lampstand, the table, and the bread of the Presence; this is called the Holy Place.

Heb 9:3 Behind the second curtain was a tent called the Holy of Holies.

Heb 9:4 In it stood the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which there were a golden urn holding the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant;

Heb 9:5 above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot speak now in detail.

Heb 9:6 Such preparations having been made, the priests go continually into the first tent to carry out their ritual duties;

Heb 9:7 but only the high priest goes into the second, and he but once a year, and not without taking the blood that he offers for himself and for the sins committed unintentionally by the people.

Heb 9:8 By this the Holy Spirit indicates that the way into the sanctuary has not yet been disclosed as long as the first tent is still standing.

Heb 9:9 This is a symbol of the present time, during which gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the conscience of the worshiper,

Heb 9:10 but deal only with food and drink and various baptisms, regulations for the body imposed until the time comes to set things right.

Heb 9:11 But when Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation),

Heb 9:12 he entered once for all into the Holy Place, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

Heb 9:13 For if the blood of goats and bulls, with the sprinkling of the ashes of a heifer, sanctifies those who have been defiled so that their flesh is purified,

Heb 9:14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God!

Heb 9:15 For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, because a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions under the first covenant.

Heb 9:16 Where a will is involved, the death of the one who made it must be established.

Heb 9:17 For a will takes effect only at death, since it is not in force as long as the one who made it is alive.

Heb 9:18 Hence not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood.

Heb 9:19 For when every commandment had been told to all the people by Moses in accordance with the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

Heb 9:20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that God has ordained for you."

Heb 9:21 And in the same way he sprinkled with the blood both the tent and all the vessels used in worship.

Heb 9:22 Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

Heb 9:23 Thus it was necessary for the sketches of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves need better sacrifices than these.

Heb 9:24 For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf.

Heb 9:25 Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own;

Heb 9:26 for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Heb 9:27 And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment,

Heb 9:28 so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Heb 10:1 Since the law has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered year after year, make perfect those who approach.

Heb 10:2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, since the worshipers, cleansed once for all, would no longer have any consciousness of sin?

Heb 10:3 But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sin year after year.

Heb 10:4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Heb 10:5 Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, "Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body you have prepared for me;

Heb 10:6 in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure.

Heb 10:7 Then I said, 'See, God, I have come to do your will, O God' (in the scroll of the book it is written of me)."

Heb 10:8 When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law),

Heb 10:9 then he added, "See, I have come to do your will." He abolishes the first in order to establish the second.

Heb 10:10 And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Heb 10:11 And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins.

Heb 10:12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God,"

Heb 10:13 and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet."

Heb 10:14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Heb 10:15 And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

Heb 10:16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,"

Heb 10:17 he also adds, "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more."

Heb 10:18 Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Heb 10:19 Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

Heb 10:20 by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh),

Heb 10:21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

Heb 10:22 let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Heb 10:23 Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful.

Heb 10:24 And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds,

Heb 10:25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Heb 10:26 For if we willfully persist in sin after having received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

Heb 10:27 but a fearful prospect of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries.

Heb 10:28 Anyone who has violated the law of Moses dies without mercy "on the testimony of two or three witnesses."

Heb 10:29 How much worse punishment do you think will be deserved by those who have spurned the Son of God, profaned the blood of the covenant by which they were sanctified, and outraged the Spirit of grace?

Heb 10:30 For we know the one who said, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay." And again, "The Lord will judge his people."

Heb 10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Heb 10:32 But recall those earlier days when, after you had been enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings,

Heb 10:33 sometimes being publicly exposed to abuse and persecution, and sometimes being partners with those so treated.

Heb 10:34 For you had compassion for those who were in prison, and you cheerfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you yourselves possessed something better and more lasting.

Heb 10:35 Do not, therefore, abandon that confidence of yours; it brings a great reward.

Heb 10:36 For you need endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

Heb 10:37 For yet "in a very little while, the one who is coming will come and will not delay;

Heb 10:38 but my righteous one will live by faith. My soul takes no pleasure in anyone who shrinks back."

Heb 10:39 But we are not among those who shrink back and so are lost, but among those who have faith and so are saved.

Heb 11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Heb 11:2 Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval.

Heb 11:3 By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

Heb 11:4 By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain's. Through this he received approval as righteous, God himself giving approval to his gifts; he died, but through his faith he still speaks.

Heb 11:5 By faith Enoch was taken so that he did not experience death; and "he was not found, because God had taken him." For it was attested before he was taken away that "he had pleased God."

Heb 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please God, for whoever would approach him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, warned by God about events as yet unseen, respected the warning and built an ark to save his household; by this he condemned the world and became an heir to the righteousness that is in accordance with faith.

Heb 11:8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going.

Heb 11:9 By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

Heb 11:10 For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Heb 11:11 By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old-- and Sarah herself was barren-- because he considered him faithful who had promised.

Heb 11:12 Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, "as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore."

Heb 11:13 All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth,

Heb 11:14 for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

Heb 11:15 If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return.

Heb 11:16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Heb 11:17 By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He who had received the promises was ready to offer up his only son,

Heb 11:18 of whom he had been told, "It is through Isaac that descendants shall be named for you."

Heb 11:19 He considered the fact that God is able even to raise someone from the dead-- and figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

Heb 11:20 By faith Isaac invoked blessings for the future on Jacob and Esau.

Heb 11:21 By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, "bowing in worship over the top of his staff."

Heb 11:22 By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his burial.

Heb 11:23 By faith Moses was hidden by his parents for three months after his birth, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

Heb 11:24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called a son of Pharaoh's daughter,

Heb 11:25 choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

Heb 11:26 He considered abuse suffered for the Christ to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to the reward.

Heb 11:27 By faith he left Egypt, unafraid of the king's anger; for he persevered as though he saw him who is invisible.

Heb 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

Heb 11:29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned.

Heb 11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days.

Heb 11:31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

Heb 11:32 And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets--

Heb 11:33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions,

Heb 11:34 quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

Heb 11:35 Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection.

Heb 11:36 Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.

Heb 11:37 They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented--

Heb 11:38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

Heb 11:39 Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised,

Heb 11:40 since God had provided something better so that they would not, apart from us, be made perfect.

Heb 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,

Heb 12:2 looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Heb 12:3 Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart.

Heb 12:4 In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

Heb 12:5 And you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as children-- "My child, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, or lose heart when you are punished by him;

Heb 12:6 for the Lord disciplines those whom he loves, and chastises every child whom he accepts."

Heb 12:7 Endure trials for the sake of discipline. God is treating you as children; for what child is there whom a parent does not discipline?

Heb 12:8 If you do not have that discipline in which all children share, then you are illegitimate and not his children.

Heb 12:9 Moreover, we had human parents to discipline us, and we respected them. Should we not be even more willing to be subject to the Father of spirits and live?

Heb 12:10 For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share his holiness.

Heb 12:11 Now, discipline always seems painful rather than pleasant at the time, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Heb 12:12 Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees,

Heb 12:13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed.

Heb 12:14 Pursue peace with everyone, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

Heb 12:15 See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springs up and causes trouble, and through it many become defiled.

Heb 12:16 See to it that no one becomes like Esau, an immoral and godless person, who sold his birthright for a single meal.

Heb 12:17 You know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no chance to repent, even though he sought the blessing with tears.

Heb 12:18 You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest,

Heb 12:19 and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them.

Heb 12:20 (For they could not endure the order that was given, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.")

Heb 12:21 Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I tremble with fear.")

Heb 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering,

Heb 12:23 and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect,

Heb 12:24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Heb 12:25 See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven!

Heb 12:26 At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven."

Heb 12:27 This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what is shaken-- that is, created things-- so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Heb 12:28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe;

Heb 12:29 for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Heb 13:1 Let mutual love continue.

Heb 13:2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.

Heb 13:3 Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured.

Heb 13:4 Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers.

Heb 13:5 Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you."

Heb 13:6 So we can say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?"

Heb 13:7 Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith.

Heb 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Heb 13:9 Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings; for it is well for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by regulations about food, which have not benefited those who observe them.

Heb 13:10 We have an altar from which those who officiate in the tent have no right to eat.

Heb 13:11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp.

Heb 13:12 Therefore Jesus also suffered outside the city gate in order to sanctify the people by his own blood.

Heb 13:13 Let us then go to him outside the camp and bear the abuse he endured.

Heb 13:14 For here we have no lasting city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

Heb 13:15 Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name.

Heb 13:16 Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Heb 13:17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls and will give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with sighing-- for that would be harmful to you.

Heb 13:18 Pray for us; we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things.

Heb 13:19 I urge you all the more to do this, so that I may be restored to you very soon.

Heb 13:20 Now may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant,

Heb 13:21 make you complete in everything good so that you may do his will, working among us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Heb 13:22 I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

Heb 13:23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been set free; and if he comes in time, he will be with me when I see you.

Heb 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy send you greetings.

Heb 13:25 Grace be with all of you.

Jam 1:1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greetings.

Jam 1:2 My brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of any kind, consider it nothing but joy,

Jam 1:3 because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance;

Jam 1:4 and let endurance have its full effect, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking in nothing.

Jam 1:5 If any of you is lacking in wisdom, ask God, who gives to all generously and ungrudgingly, and it will be given you.

Jam 1:6 But ask in faith, never doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind;

Jam 1:7 for the doubter, being double-minded and unstable in every way, must not expect to receive anything from the Lord.

Jam 1:8

Jam 1:9 Let the believer who is lowly boast in being raised up,

Jam 1:10 and the rich in being brought low, because the rich will disappear like a flower in the field.

Jam 1:11 For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the field; its flower falls, and its beauty perishes. It is the same way with the rich; in the midst of a busy life, they will wither away.

Jam 1:12 Blessed is anyone who endures temptation. Such a one has stood the test and will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him.

Jam 1:13 No one, when tempted, should say, "I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil and he himself tempts no one.

Jam 1:14 But one is tempted by one's own desire, being lured and enticed by it;

Jam 1:15 then, when that desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin, and that sin, when it is fully grown, gives birth to death.

Jam 1:16 Do not be deceived, my beloved.

Jam 1:17 Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.

Jam 1:18 In fulfillment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

Jam 1:19 You must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger;

Jam 1:20 for your anger does not produce God's righteousness.

Jam 1:21 Therefore rid yourselves of all sordidness and rank growth of wickedness, and welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

Jam 1:22 But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves.

Jam 1:23 For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror;

Jam 1:24 for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like.

Jam 1:25 But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act-- they will be blessed in their doing.

Jam 1:26 If any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless.

Jam 1:27 Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Jam 2:1 My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ?

Jam 2:2 For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in,

Jam 2:3 and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet,"

Jam 2:4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

Jam 2:5 Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him?

Jam 2:6 But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court?

Jam 2:7 Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

Jam 2:8 You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Jam 2:9 But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

Jam 2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it.

Jam 2:11 For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

Jam 2:12 So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty.

Jam 2:13 For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

Jam 2:14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you?

Jam 2:15 If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food,

Jam 2:16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that?

Jam 2:17 So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

Jam 2:18 But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

Jam 2:19 You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe-- and shudder.

Jam 2:20 Do you want to be shown, you senseless person, that faith apart from works is barren?

Jam 2:21 Was not our ancestor Abraham justified by works when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?

Jam 2:22 You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was brought to completion by the works.

Jam 2:23 Thus the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness," and he was called the friend of God.

Jam 2:24 You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.

Jam 2:25 Likewise, was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them out by another road?

Jam 2:26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.

Jam 3:1 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness.

Jam 3:2 For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle.

Jam 3:3 If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies.

Jam 3:4 Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs.

Jam 3:5 So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire!

Jam 3:6 And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell.

Jam 3:7 For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species,

Jam 3:8 but no one can tame the tongue-- a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

Jam 3:9 With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God.

Jam 3:10 From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so.

Jam 3:11 Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water?

Jam 3:12 Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Jam 3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom.

Jam 3:14 But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth.

Jam 3:15 Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish.

Jam 3:16 For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind.

Jam 3:17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy.

Jam 3:18 And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Jam 4:1 Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you?

Jam 4:2 You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask.

Jam 4:3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures.

Jam 4:4 Adulterers! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

Jam 4:5 Or do you suppose that it is for nothing that the scripture says, "God yearns jealously for the spirit that he has made to dwell in us"?

Jam 4:6 But he gives all the more grace; therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

Jam 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Jam 4:8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

Jam 4:9 Lament and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy into dejection.

Jam 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

Jam 4:11 Do not speak evil against one another, brothers and sisters. Whoever speaks evil against another or judges another, speaks evil against the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

Jam 4:12 There is one lawgiver and judge who is able to save and to destroy. So who, then, are you to judge your neighbor?

Jam 4:13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there, doing business and making money."

Jam 4:14 Yet you do not even know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

Jam 4:15 Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wishes, we will live and do this or that."

Jam 4:16 As it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil.

Jam 4:17 Anyone, then, who knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, commits sin.

Jam 5:1 Come now, you rich people, weep and wail for the miseries that are coming to you.

Jam 5:2 Your riches have rotted, and your clothes are moth-eaten.

Jam 5:3 Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you, and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days.

Jam 5:4 Listen! The wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

Jam 5:5 You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

Jam 5:6 You have condemned and murdered the righteous one, who does not resist you.

Jam 5:7 Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains.

Jam 5:8 You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.

Jam 5:9 Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors!

Jam 5:10 As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Jam 5:11 Indeed we call blessed those who showed endurance. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

Jam 5:12 Above all, my beloved, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your "Yes" be yes and your "No" be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

Jam 5:13 Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise.

Jam 5:14 Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord.

Jam 5:15 The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven.

Jam 5:16 Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.

Jam 5:17 Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth.

Jam 5:18 Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest.

Jam 5:19 My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another,

Jam 5:20 you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1Pe 1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 1Pe 1:2 who have been chosen and destined by God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with his blood: May grace and peace be yours in abundance.

1Pe 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1Pe 1:4 and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you,

1Pe 1:5 who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

1Pe 1:6 In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials,

1Pe 1:7 so that the genuineness of your faith-- being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire-- may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

1Pe 1:8 Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy,

1Pe 1:9 for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

1Pe 1:10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace that was to be yours made careful search and inquiry,

1Pe 1:11 inquiring about the person or time that the Spirit of Christ within them indicated when it testified in advance to the sufferings destined for Christ and the subsequent glory.

1Pe 1:12 It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in regard to the things that have now been announced to you through those who brought you good news by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven-- things into which angels long to look!

1Pe 1:13 Therefore prepare your minds for action; discipline yourselves; set all your hope on the grace that Jesus Christ will bring you when he is revealed.

1Pe 1:14 Like obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires that you formerly had in ignorance.

1Pe 1:15 Instead, as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct;
1Pe 1:16 for it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy."
1Pe 1:17 If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile.
1Pe 1:18 You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold,
1Pe 1:19 but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish.
1Pe 1:20 He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake.
1Pe 1:21 Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.
1Pe 1:22 Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart.
1Pe 1:23 You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.
1Pe 1:24 For "All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, 1Pe 1:25 but the word of the Lord endures forever." That word is the good news that was announced to you.
1Pe 2:1 Rid yourselves, therefore, of all malice, and all guile, insincerity, envy, and all slander.
1Pe 2:2 Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation--
1Pe 2:3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.
1Pe 2:4 Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and 1Pe 2:5 like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
1Pe 2:6 For it stands in scripture: "See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."
1Pe 2:7 To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner,"
1Pe 2:8 and "A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.
1Pe 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.
1Pe 2:10 Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.
1Pe 2:11 Beloved, I urge you as aliens and exiles to abstain from the desires of the flesh that wage war against the soul.
1Pe 2:12 Conduct yourselves honorably among the Gentiles, so that, though they malign you as evildoers, they may see your honorable deeds and glorify God when he comes to judge.
1Pe 2:13 For the Lord's sake accept the authority of every human institution, whether of the emperor as supreme,
1Pe 2:14 or of governors, as sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right.
1Pe 2:15 For it is God's will that by doing right you should silence the ignorance of the foolish.
1Pe 2:16 As servants of God, live as free people, yet do not use your freedom as a pretext for evil.
1Pe 2:17 Honor everyone. Love the family of believers. Fear God. Honor the emperor.
1Pe 2:18 Slaves, accept the authority of your masters with all deference, not only those who are kind and gentle but also those who are harsh.
1Pe 2:19 For it is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly.
1Pe 2:20 If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval.
1Pe 2:21 For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.
1Pe 2:22 "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."
1Pe 2:23 When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly.
1Pe 2:24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.
1Pe 2:25 For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.
1Pe 3:1 Wives, in the same way, accept the authority of your husbands, so that, even if some of them do not obey the word, they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct, 1Pe 3:2 when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.

1Pe 3:3 Do not adorn yourselves outwardly by braiding your hair, and by wearing gold ornaments or fine clothing;

1Pe 3:4 rather, let your adornment be the inner self with the lasting beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in God's sight.

1Pe 3:5 It was in this way long ago that the holy women who hoped in God used to adorn themselves by accepting the authority of their husbands.

1Pe 3:6 Thus Sarah obeyed Abraham and called him lord. You have become her daughters as long as you do what is good and never let fears alarm you.

1Pe 3:7 Husbands, in the same way, show consideration for your wives in your life together, paying honor to the woman as the weaker sex, since they too are also heirs of the gracious gift of life-- so that nothing may hinder your prayers.

1Pe 3:8 Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for one another, a tender heart, and a humble mind.

1Pe 3:9 Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse; but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing. It is for this that you were called-- that you might inherit a blessing.

1Pe 3:10 For "Those who desire life and desire to see good days, let them keep their tongues from evil and their lips from speaking deceit;

1Pe 3:11 let them turn away from evil and do good; let them seek peace and pursue it.

1Pe 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

1Pe 3:13 Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good?

1Pe 3:14 But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated,

1Pe 3:15 but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you;

1Pe 3:16 yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame.

1Pe 3:17 For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil.

1Pe 3:18 For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit,

1Pe 3:19 in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison,

1Pe 3:20 who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water.

1Pe 3:21 And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you-- not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

1Pe 3:22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

1Pe 4:1 Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same intention (for whoever has suffered in the flesh has finished with sin),

1Pe 4:2 so as to live for the rest of your earthly life no longer by human desires but by the will of God.

1Pe 4:3 You have already spent enough time in doing what the Gentiles like to do, living in licentiousness, passions, drunkenness, revels, carousing, and lawless idolatry.

1Pe 4:4 They are surprised that you no longer join them in the same excesses of dissipation, and so they blaspheme.

1Pe 4:5 But they will have to give an accounting to him who stands ready to judge the living and the dead.

1Pe 4:6 For this is the reason the gospel was proclaimed even to the dead, so that, though they had been judged in the flesh as everyone is judged, they might live in the spirit as God does.

1Pe 4:7 The end of all things is near; therefore be serious and discipline yourselves for the sake of your prayers.

1Pe 4:8 Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins.

1Pe 4:9 Be hospitable to one another without complaining.

1Pe 4:10 Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.

1Pe 4:11 Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

1Pe 4:12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you.

1Pe 4:13 But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed.

1Pe 4:14 If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

1Pe 4:15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, a criminal, or even as a mischief maker.

1Pe 4:16 Yet if any of you suffers as a Christian, do not consider it a disgrace, but glorify God because you bear this name.

1Pe 4:17 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God; if it begins with us, what will be the end for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

1Pe 4:18 And "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinners?"

1Pe 4:19 Therefore, let those suffering in accordance with God's will entrust themselves to a faithful Creator, while continuing to do good.

1Pe 5:1 Now as an elder myself and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you

1Pe 5:2 to tend the flock of God that is in your charge, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion but willingly, as God would have you do it-- not for sordid gain but eagerly.

1Pe 5:3 Do not lord it over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock.

1Pe 5:4 And when the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away.

1Pe 5:5 In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you must clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

1Pe 5:6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time.

1Pe 5:7 Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.

1Pe 5:8 Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour.

1Pe 5:9 Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering.

1Pe 5:10 And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you.

1Pe 5:11 To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

1Pe 5:12 Through Silvanus, whom I consider a faithful brother, I have written this short letter to encourage you and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

1Pe 5:13 Your sister church in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings; and so does my son Mark.

1Pe 5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2Pe 1:1 Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have received a faith as precious as ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2Pe 1:2 May grace and peace be yours in abundance in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

2Pe 1:3 His divine power has given us everything needed for life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.

2Pe 1:4 Thus he has given us, through these things, his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may escape from the corruption that is in the world because of lust, and may become participants of the divine nature.

2Pe 1:5 For this very reason, you must make every effort to support your faith with goodness, and goodness with knowledge,

2Pe 1:6 and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with endurance, and endurance with godliness,

2Pe 1:7 and godliness with mutual affection, and mutual affection with love.

2Pe 1:8 For if these things are yours and are increasing among you, they keep you from being ineffective and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2Pe 1:9 For anyone who lacks these things is nearsighted and blind, and is forgetful of the cleansing of past sins.

2Pe 1:10 Therefore, brothers and sisters, be all the more eager to confirm your call and election, for if you do this, you will never stumble.

2Pe 1:11 For in this way, entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly provided for you.

2Pe 1:12 Therefore I intend to keep on reminding you of these things, though you know them already and are established in the truth that has come to you.

2Pe 1:13 I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to refresh your memory,

2Pe 1:14 since I know that my death will come soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

2Pe 1:15 And I will make every effort so that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things.

2Pe 1:16 For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty.

2Pe 1:17 For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

2Pe 1:18 We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

2Pe 1:19 So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

2Pe 1:20 First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation,

2Pe 1:21 because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2Pe 2:1 But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive opinions. They will even deny the Master who bought them-- bringing swift destruction on themselves.

2Pe 2:2 Even so, many will follow their licentious ways, and because of these teachers the way of truth will be maligned.

2Pe 2:3 And in their greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their condemnation, pronounced against them long ago, has not been idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

2Pe 2:4 For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of deepest darkness to be kept until the judgment;

2Pe 2:5 and if he did not spare the ancient world, even though he saved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood on a world of the ungodly;

2Pe 2:6 and if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction and made them an example of what is coming to the ungodly;

2Pe 2:7 and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man greatly distressed by the licentiousness of the lawless

2Pe 2:8 (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by their lawless deeds that he saw and heard),

2Pe 2:9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trial, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment

2Pe 2:10 -- especially those who indulge their flesh in depraved lust, and who despise authority. Bold and willful, they are not afraid to slander the glorious ones,

2Pe 2:11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not bring against them a slanderous judgment from the Lord.

2Pe 2:12 These people, however, are like irrational animals, mere creatures of instinct, born to be caught and killed. They slander what they do not understand, and when those creatures are destroyed, they also will be destroyed, 2Pe 2:13 suffering the penalty for doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their dissipation while they feast with you.

2Pe 2:14 They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children!

2Pe 2:15 They have left the straight road and have gone astray, following the road of Balaam son of Bosor, who loved the wages of doing wrong, 2Pe 2:16 but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

2Pe 2:17 These are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm; for them the deepest darkness has been reserved.

2Pe 2:18 For they speak bombastic nonsense, and with licentious desires of the flesh they entice people who have just escaped from those who live in error.

2Pe 2:19 They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption; for people are slaves to whatever masters them.

2Pe 2:20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overpowered, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

2Pe 2:21 For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment that was passed on to them.

2Pe 2:22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns back to its own vomit," and, "The sow is washed only to wallow in the mud."

2Pe 3:1 This is now, beloved, the second letter I am writing to you; in them I am trying to arouse your sincere intention by reminding you

2Pe 3:2 that you should remember the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken through your apostles.

2Pe 3:3 First of all you must understand this, that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and indulging their own lusts

2Pe 3:4 and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since our ancestors died, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation!"

2Pe 3:5 They deliberately ignore this fact, that by the word of God heavens existed long ago and an earth was formed out of water and by means of water, 2Pe 3:6 through which the world of that time was deluged with water and perished.

2Pe 3:7 But by the same word the present heavens and earth have been reserved for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the godless.

2Pe 3:8 But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.

2Pe 3:9 The Lord is not slow about his promise, as some think of slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance.

2Pe 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and everything that is done on it will be disclosed.

2Pe 3:11 Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness,

2Pe 3:12 waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire?

2Pe 3:13 But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home.

2Pe 3:14 Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish;

2Pe 3:15 and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation. So also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom given him,

2Pe 3:16 speaking of this as he does in all his letters. There are some things in them hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other scriptures.

2Pe 3:17 You therefore, beloved, since you are forewarned, beware that you are not carried away with the error of the lawless and lose your own stability.

2Pe 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1Jo 1:1 We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life--

1Jo 1:2 this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us--

1Jo 1:3 we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

1Jo 1:4 We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

1Jo 1:5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all.

1Jo 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true;

1Jo 1:7 but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

1Jo 1:8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

1Jo 1:9 If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1Jo 1:10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1Jo 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

1Jo 2:2 and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

1Jo 2:3 Now by this we may be sure that we know him, if we obey his commandments.

1Jo 2:4 Whoever says, "I have come to know him," but does not obey his commandments, is a liar, and in such a person the truth does not exist;

1Jo 2:5 but whoever obeys his word, truly in this person the love of God has reached perfection. By this we may be sure that we are in him:

1Jo 2:6 whoever says, "I abide in him," ought to walk just as he walked.

1Jo 2:7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment that you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word that you have heard.

1Jo 2:8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment that is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

1Jo 2:9 Whoever says, "I am in the light," while hating a brother or sister, is still in the darkness.

1Jo 2:10 Whoever loves a brother or sister lives in the light, and in such a person there is no cause for stumbling.

1Jo 2:11 But whoever hates another believer is in the darkness, walks in the darkness, and does not know the way to go, because the darkness has brought on blindness.

1Jo 2:12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven on account of his name.

1Jo 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young people, because you have conquered the evil one.

1Jo 2:14 I write to you, children, because you know the Father. I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young people, because you are strong and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

1Jo 2:15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world;

1Jo 2:16 for all that is in the world-- the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches-- comes not from the Father but from the world.

1Jo 2:17 And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live forever.

1Jo 2:18 Children, it is the last hour! As you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come. From this we know that it is the last hour.

1Jo 2:19 They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But by going out they made it plain that none of them belongs to us.

1Jo 2:20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and all of you have knowledge.

1Jo 2:21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and you know that no lie comes from the truth.

1Jo 2:22 Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

1Jo 2:23 No one who denies the Son has the Father; everyone who confesses the Son has the Father also.

1Jo 2:24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father.

1Jo 2:25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

1Jo 2:26 I write these things to you concerning those who would deceive you.

1Jo 2:27 As for you, the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and so you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, abide in him.

1Jo 2:28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he is revealed we may have confidence and not be put to shame before him at his coming.

1Jo 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who does right has been born of him.

1Jo 3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

1Jo 3:2 Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

1Jo 3:3 And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

1Jo 3:4 Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness.

1Jo 3:5 You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin.

1Jo 3:6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

1Jo 3:7 Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

1Jo 3:8 Everyone who commits sin is a child of the devil; for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The Son of God was revealed for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil.

1Jo 3:9 Those who have been born of God do not sin, because God's seed abides in them; they cannot sin, because they have been born of God.

1Jo 3:10 The children of God and the children of the devil are revealed in this way: all who do not do what is right are not from God, nor are those who do not love their brothers and sisters.

1Jo 3:11 For this is the message you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

1Jo 3:12 We must not be like Cain who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous.

1Jo 3:13 Do not be astonished, brothers and sisters, that the world hates you.

1Jo 3:14 We know that we have passed from death to life because we love one another. Whoever does not love abides in death.

1Jo 3:15 All who hate a brother or sister are murderers, and you know that murderers do not have eternal life abiding in them.

1Jo 3:16 We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us-- and we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

1Jo 3:17 How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

1Jo 3:18 Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action.

1Jo 3:19 And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him

1Jo 3:20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

1Jo 3:21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God;

1Jo 3:22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

1Jo 3:23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us.

1Jo 3:24 All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

1Jo 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1Jo 4:2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, 1Jo 4:3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming; and now it is already in the world.

1Jo 4:4 Little children, you are from God, and have conquered them; for the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

1Jo 4:5 They are from the world; therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them.

1Jo 4:6 We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

1Jo 4:7 Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

1Jo 4:8 Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

1Jo 4:9 God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him.

1Jo 4:10 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

1Jo 4:11 Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another.

1Jo 4:12 No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

1Jo 4:13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.

1Jo 4:14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world.

1Jo 4:15 God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God.

1Jo 4:16 So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them.

1Jo 4:17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world.

1Jo 4:18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love.

1Jo 4:19 We love because he first loved us.

1Jo 4:20 Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen.

1Jo 4:21 The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

1Jo 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child.

1Jo 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments.

1Jo 5:3 For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome,

1Jo 5:4 for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith.

1Jo 5:5 Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

1Jo 5:6 This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

1Jo 5:7 There are three that testify:

1Jo 5:8 the Spirit and the water and the blood, and these three agree.

1Jo 5:9 If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son.

1Jo 5:10 Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son.

1Jo 5:11 And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

1Jo 5:12 Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

1Jo 5:13 I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

1Jo 5:14 And this is the boldness we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

1Jo 5:15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him.

1Jo 5:16 If you see your brother or sister committing what is not a mortal sin, you will ask, and God will give life to such a one-- to those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin that is mortal; I do not say that you should pray about that.

1Jo 5:17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin that is not mortal.

1Jo 5:18 We know that those who are born of God do not sin, but the one who was born of God protects them, and the evil one does not touch them.

1Jo 5:19 We know that we are God's children, and that the whole world lies under the power of the evil one.

1Jo 5:20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

1Jo 5:21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2Jo 1:1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not only I but also all who know the truth,

2Jo 1:2 because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

2Jo 1:3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, in truth and love.

2Jo 1:4 I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father.

2Jo 1:5 But now, dear lady, I ask you, not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but one we have had from the beginning, let us love one another.

2Jo 1:6 And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment just as you have heard it from the beginning-- you must walk in it.

2Jo 1:7 Many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh; any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist!

2Jo 1:8 Be on your guard, so that you do not lose what we have worked for, but may receive a full reward.

2Jo 1:9 Everyone who does not abide in the teaching of Christ, but goes beyond it, does not have God; whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

2Jo 1:10 Do not receive into the house or welcome anyone who comes to you and does not bring this teaching;

2Jo 1:11 for to welcome is to participate in the evil deeds of such a person.

2Jo 1:12 Although I have much to write to you, I would rather not use paper and ink; instead I hope to come to you and talk with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

2Jo 1:13 The children of your elect sister send you their greetings.

3Jo 1:1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

3Jo 1:2 Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul.

3Jo 1:3 I was overjoyed when some of the friends arrived and testified to your faithfulness to the truth, namely how you walk in the truth.

3Jo 1:4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

3Jo 1:5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the friends, even though they are strangers to you;

3Jo 1:6 they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on in a manner worthy of God;

3Jo 1:7 for they began their journey for the sake of Christ, accepting no support from non-believers.

3Jo 1:8 Therefore we ought to support such people, so that we may become co-workers with the truth.

3Jo 1:9 I have written something to the church; but Diotrephes, who likes to put himself first, does not acknowledge our authority.

3Jo 1:10 So if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing in spreading false charges against us. And not content with those charges, he refuses to welcome the friends, and even prevents those who want to do so and expels them from the church.

3Jo 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil but imitate what is good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God.

3Jo 1:12 Everyone has testified favorably about Demetrius, and so has the truth itself. We also testify for him, and you know that our testimony is true.

3Jo 1:13 I have much to write to you, but I would rather not write with pen and ink;

3Jo 1:14 instead I hope to see you soon, and we will talk together face to face.

3Jo 1:15 Peace to you. The friends send you their greetings. Greet the friends there, each by name.

Jud 1:1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, To those who are called, who are beloved in God the Father and kept safe for Jesus Christ:

Jud 1:2 May mercy, peace, and love be yours in abundance.

Jud 1:3 Beloved, while eagerly preparing to write to you about the salvation we share, I find it necessary to write and appeal to you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints.

Jud 1:4 For certain intruders have stolen in among you, people who long ago were designated for this condemnation as ungodly, who pervert the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Jud 1:5 Now I desire to remind you, though you are fully informed, that the Lord, who once for all saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

Jud 1:6 And the angels who did not keep their own position, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains in deepest darkness for the judgment of the great Day.

Jud 1:7 Likewise, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which, in the same manner as they, indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

Jud 1:8 Yet in the same way these dreamers also defile the flesh, reject authority, and slander the glorious ones.

Jud 1:9 But when the archangel Michael contended with the devil and disputed about the body of Moses, he did not dare to bring a condemnation of slander against him, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!"

Jud 1:10 But these people slander whatever they do not understand, and they are destroyed by those things that, like irrational animals, they know by instinct.

Jud 1:11 Woe to them! For they go the way of Cain, and abandon themselves to Balaam's error for the sake of gain, and perish in Korah's rebellion.

Jud 1:12 These are blemishes on your love-feasts, while they feast with you without fear, feeding themselves. They are waterless clouds carried along by the winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted;

Jud 1:13 wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the deepest darkness has been reserved forever.

Jud 1:14 It was also about these that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, "See, the Lord is coming with ten thousands of his holy ones,

Jud 1:15 to execute judgment on all, and to convict everyone of all the deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

Jud 1:16 These are grumblers and malcontents; they indulge their own lusts; they are bombastic in speech, flattering people to their own advantage.

Jud 1:17 But you, beloved, must remember the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Jud 1:18 for they said to you, "In the last time there will be scoffers, indulging their own ungodly lusts."

Jud 1:19 It is these worldly people, devoid of the Spirit, who are causing divisions.

Jud 1:20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit;

Jud 1:21 keep yourselves in the love of God; look forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life.

Jud 1:22 And have mercy on some who are wavering;

Jud 1:23 save others by snatching them out of the fire; and have mercy on still others with fear, hating even the tunic defiled by their bodies.

Jud 1:24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to make you stand without blemish in the presence of his glory with rejoicing,

Jud 1:25 to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Rev 1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place; he made it known by sending his angel to his servant John,
Rev 1:2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw.
Rev 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and who keep what is written in it; for the time is near.
Rev 1:4 John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne,
Rev 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood,
Rev 1:6 and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
Rev 1:7 Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen.
Rev 1:8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.
Rev 1:9 I, John, your brother who share with you in Jesus the persecution and the kingdom and the patient endurance, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.
Rev 1:10 I was in the spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet
Rev 1:11 saying, "Write in a book what you see and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamum, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."
Rev 1:12 Then I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands,
Rev 1:13 and in the midst of the lampstands I saw one like the Son of Man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden sash across his chest.
Rev 1:14 His head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; his eyes were like a flame of fire,
Rev 1:15 his feet were like burnished bronze, refined as in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters.
Rev 1:16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and from his mouth came a sharp, two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining with full force.
Rev 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he placed his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last,
Rev 1:18 and the living one. I was dead, and see, I am alive forever and ever; and I have the keys of Death and of Hades.
Rev 1:19 Now write what you have seen, what is, and what is to take place after this.
Rev 1:20 As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.
Rev 2:1 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks among the seven golden lampstands:
Rev 2:2 "I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance. I know that you cannot tolerate evildoers; you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them to be false.
Rev 2:3 I also know that you are enduring patiently and bearing up for the sake of my name, and that you have not grown weary.
Rev 2:4 But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first.
Rev 2:5 Remember then from what you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.
Rev 2:6 Yet this is to your credit: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
Rev 2:7 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To everyone who conquers, I will give permission to eat from the tree of life that is in the paradise of God.
Rev 2:8 "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These are the words of the first and the last, who was dead and came to life:
Rev 2:9 "I know your affliction and your poverty, even though you are rich. I know the slander on the part of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.
Rev 2:10 Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Beware, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison so that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have affliction. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.
Rev 2:11 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. Whoever conquers will not be harmed by the second death.
Rev 2:12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: These are the words of him who has the sharp two-edged sword:

Rev 2:13 "I know where you are living, where Satan's throne is. Yet you are holding fast to my name, and you did not deny your faith in me even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.

Rev 2:14 But I have a few things against you: you have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the people of Israel, so that they would eat food sacrificed to idols and practice fornication.

Rev 2:15 So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

Rev 2:16 Repent then. If not, I will come to you soon and make war against them with the sword of my mouth.

Rev 2:17 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To everyone who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give a white stone, and on the white stone is written a new name that no one knows except the one who receives it.

Rev 2:18 "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These are the words of the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like burnished bronze:

Rev 2:19 "I know your works-- your love, faith, service, and patient endurance. I know that your last works are greater than the first.

Rev 2:20 But I have this against you: you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophet and is teaching and beguiling my servants to practice fornication and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

Rev 2:21 I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her fornication.

Rev 2:22 Beware, I am throwing her on a bed, and those who commit adultery with her I am throwing into great distress, unless they repent of her doings;

Rev 2:23 and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am the one who searches minds and hearts, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve.

Rev 2:24 But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I do not lay on you any other burden;

Rev 2:25 only hold fast to what you have until I come.

Rev 2:26 To everyone who conquers and continues to do my works to the end, I will give authority over the nations;

Rev 2:27 to rule them with an iron rod, as when clay pots are shattered--

Rev 2:28 even as I also received authority from my Father. To the one who conquers I will also give the morning star.

Rev 2:29 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Rev 3:1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: These are the words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works; you have a name of being alive, but you are dead.

Rev 3:2 Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is on the point of death, for I have not found your works perfect in the sight of my God.

Rev 3:3 Remember then what you received and heard; obey it, and repent. If you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you.

Rev 3:4 Yet you have still a few persons in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes; they will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy.

Rev 3:5 If you conquer, you will be clothed like them in white robes, and I will not blot your name out of the book of life; I will confess your name before my Father and before his angels.

Rev 3:6 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Rev 3:7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of the holy one, the true one, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, who shuts and no one opens:

Rev 3:8 "I know your works. Look, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

Rev 3:9 I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say that they are Jews and are not, but are lying-- I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and they will learn that I have loved you.

Rev 3:10 Because you have kept my word of patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial that is coming on the whole world to test the inhabitants of the earth.

Rev 3:11 I am coming soon; hold fast to what you have, so that no one may seize your crown.

Rev 3:12 If you conquer, I will make you a pillar in the temple of my God; you will never go out of it. I will write on you the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem that comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name.

Rev 3:13 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Rev 3:14 "And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: The words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the origin of God's creation:

Rev 3:15 "I know your works; you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot.

Rev 3:16 So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spit you out of my mouth.

Rev 3:17 For you say, 'I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing.' You do not realize that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.

Rev 3:18 Therefore I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you may be rich; and white robes to clothe you and to keep the shame of your nakedness from being seen; and salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see.

Rev 3:19 I reprove and discipline those whom I love. Be earnest, therefore, and repent.

Rev 3:20 Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me.

Rev 3:21 To the one who conquers I will give a place with me on my throne, just as I myself conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.

Rev 3:22 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Rev 4:1 After this I looked, and there in heaven a door stood open! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this."

Rev 4:2 At once I was in the spirit, and there in heaven stood a throne, with one seated on the throne!

Rev 4:3 And the one seated there looks like jasper and carnelian, and around the throne is a rainbow that looks like an emerald.

Rev 4:4 Around the throne are twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones are twenty-four elders, dressed in white robes, with golden crowns on their heads.

Rev 4:5 Coming from the throne are flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and in front of the throne burn seven flaming torches, which are the seven spirits of God;

Rev 4:6 and in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Around the throne, and on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind:

Rev 4:7 the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with a face like a human face, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle.

Rev 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside. Day and night without ceasing they sing, "Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come."

Rev 4:9 And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever,

Rev 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing,

Rev 4:11 "You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created."

Rev 5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals;

Rev 5:2 and I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?"

Rev 5:3 And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it.

Rev 5:4 And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

Rev 5:5 Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals."

Rev 5:6 Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Rev 5:7 He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne.

Rev 5:8 When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

Rev 5:9 They sing a new song: "You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation;

Rev 5:10 you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth."

Rev 5:11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands,

Rev 5:12 singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

Rev 5:13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

Rev 5:14 And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Rev 6:1 Then I saw the Lamb open one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures call out, as with a voice of thunder, "Come!"

Rev 6:2 I looked, and there was a white horse! Its rider had a bow; a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering and to conquer.

Rev 6:3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature call out, "Come!"

Rev 6:4 And out came another horse, bright red; its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another; and he was given a great sword.

Rev 6:5 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature call out, "Come!" I looked, and there was a black horse! Its rider held a pair of scales in his hand,

Rev 6:6 and I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a day's pay, and three quarts of barley for a day's pay, but do not damage the olive oil and the wine!"

Rev 6:7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature call out, "Come!"

Rev 6:8 I looked and there was a pale green horse! Its rider's name was Death, and Hades followed with him; they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, famine, and pestilence, and by the wild animals of the earth.

Rev 6:9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered for the word of God and for the testimony they had given;

Rev 6:10 they cried out with a loud voice, "Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long will it be before you judge and avenge our blood on the inhabitants of the earth?"

Rev 6:11 They were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number would be complete both of their fellow servants and of their brothers and sisters, who were soon to be killed as they themselves had been killed.

Rev 6:12 When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and there came a great earthquake; the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood,

Rev 6:13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree drops its winter fruit when shaken by a gale.

Rev 6:14 The sky vanished like a scroll rolling itself up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

Rev 6:15 Then the kings of the earth and the magnates and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

Rev 6:16 calling to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb;

Rev 6:17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

Rev 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind could blow on earth or sea or against any tree.

Rev 7:2 I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to damage earth and sea,

Rev 7:3 saying, "Do not damage the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have marked the servants of our God with a seal on their foreheads."

Rev 7:4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the people of Israel:

Rev 7:5 From the tribe of Judah twelve thousand sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

Rev 7:6 from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

Rev 7:7 from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

Rev 7:8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand sealed.

Rev 7:9 After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands.

Rev 7:10 They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

Rev 7:11 And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

Rev 7:12 singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Rev 7:13 Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?"

Rev 7:14 I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Rev 7:15 For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

Rev 7:16 They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;

Rev 7:17 for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Rev 8:1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Rev 8:2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Rev 8:3 Another angel with a golden censer came and stood at the altar; he was given a great quantity of incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that is before the throne.

Rev 8:4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose before God from the hand of the angel.

Rev 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth; and there were peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

Rev 8:6 Now the seven angels who had the seven trumpets made ready to blow them.

Rev 8:7 The first angel blew his trumpet, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were hurled to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Rev 8:8 The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea.

Rev 8:9 A third of the sea became blood, a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Rev 8:10 The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, blazing like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

Rev 8:11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many died from the water, because it was made bitter.

Rev 8:12 The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of their light was darkened; a third of the day was kept from shining, and likewise the night.

Rev 8:13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying with a loud voice as it flew in midheaven, "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, at the blasts of the other trumpets that the three angels are about to blow!"

Rev 9:1 And the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth, and he was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit;

Rev 9:2 he opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and from the shaft rose smoke like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke from the shaft.

Rev 9:3 Then from the smoke came locusts on the earth, and they were given authority like the authority of scorpions of the earth.

Rev 9:4 They were told not to damage the grass of the earth or any green growth or any tree, but only those people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

Rev 9:5 They were allowed to torture them for five months, but not to kill them, and their torture was like the torture of a scorpion when it stings someone.

Rev 9:6 And in those days people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them.

Rev 9:7 In appearance the locusts were like horses equipped for battle. On their heads were what looked like crowns of gold; their faces were like human faces,

Rev 9:8 their hair like women's hair, and their teeth like lions' teeth;

Rev 9:9 they had scales like iron breastplates, and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many chariots with horses rushing into battle.

Rev 9:10 They have tails like scorpions, with stingers, and in their tails is their power to harm people for five months.

Rev 9:11 They have as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

Rev 9:12 The first woe has passed. There are still two woes to come.

Rev 9:13 Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God,

Rev 9:14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

Rev 9:15 So the four angels were released, who had been held ready for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, to kill a third of humankind.

Rev 9:16 The number of the troops of cavalry was two hundred million; I heard their number.

Rev 9:17 And this was how I saw the horses in my vision: the riders wore breastplates the color of fire and of sapphire and of sulfur; the heads of the horses were like lions' heads, and fire and smoke and sulfur came out of their mouths.

Rev 9:18 By these three plagues a third of humankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulfur coming out of their mouths.

Rev 9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they inflict harm.

Rev 9:20 The rest of humankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands or give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk.

Rev 9:21 And they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries or their fornication or their thefts.

Rev 10:1 And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire.

Rev 10:2 He held a little scroll open in his hand. Setting his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,

Rev 10:3 he gave a great shout, like a lion roaring. And when he shouted, the seven thunders sounded.

Rev 10:4 And when the seven thunders had sounded, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down."

Rev 10:5 Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and the land raised his right hand to heaven

Rev 10:6 and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it: "There will be no more delay,

Rev 10:7 but in the days when the seventh angel is to blow his trumpet, the mystery of God will be fulfilled, as he announced to his servants the prophets."

Rev 10:8 Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, "Go, take the scroll that is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

Rev 10:9 So I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll; and he said to me, "Take it, and eat; it will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth."

Rev 10:10 So I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it; it was sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

Rev 10:11 Then they said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and languages and kings."

Rev 11:1 Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told, "Come and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there,

Rev 11:2 but do not measure the court outside the temple; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample over the holy city for forty-two months.

Rev 11:3 And I will grant my two witnesses authority to prophesy for one thousand two hundred sixty days, wearing sackcloth."

Rev 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

Rev 11:5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire pours from their mouth and consumes their foes; anyone who wants to harm them must be killed in this manner.

Rev 11:6 They have authority to shut the sky, so that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague, as often as they desire.

Rev 11:7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit will make war on them and conquer them and kill them,

Rev 11:8 and their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city that is prophetically called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

Rev 11:9 For three and a half days members of the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will gaze at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in a tomb;

Rev 11:10 and the inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and celebrate and exchange presents, because these two prophets had been a torment to the inhabitants of the earth.

Rev 11:11 But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and those who saw them were terrified.

Rev 11:12 Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up to heaven in a cloud while their enemies watched them.

Rev 11:13 At that moment there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Rev 11:14 The second woe has passed. The third woe is coming very soon.

Rev 11:15 Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah, and he will reign forever and ever."

Rev 11:16 Then the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God,

Rev 11:17 singing, "We give you thanks, Lord God Almighty, who are and who were, for you have taken your great power and begun to reign.

Rev 11:18 The nations raged, but your wrath has come, and the time for judging the dead, for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints and all who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying those who destroy the earth."

Rev 11:19 Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

Rev 12:1 A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

Rev 12:2 She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pangs, in the agony of giving birth.

Rev 12:3 Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads.

Rev 12:4 His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born.

Rev 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne;

Rev 12:6 and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, so that there she can be nourished for one thousand two hundred sixty days.

Rev 12:7 And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back,

Rev 12:8 but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

Rev 12:9 The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world-- he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Rev 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah, for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God.

Rev 12:11 But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death.

Rev 12:12 Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"

Rev 12:13 So when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.

Rev 12:14 But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle, so that she could fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to her place where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.

Rev 12:15 Then from his mouth the serpent poured water like a river after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood.

Rev 12:16 But the earth came to the help of the woman; it opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth.

Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of her children, those who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus.

Rev 12:18 Then the dragon took his stand on the sand of the seashore.

Rev 13:1 And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads; and on its horns were ten diadems, and on its heads were blasphemous names.

Rev 13:2 And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. And the dragon gave it his power and his throne and great authority.

Rev 13:3 One of its heads seemed to have received a death-blow, but its mortal wound had been healed. In amazement the whole earth followed the beast.

Rev 13:4 They worshiped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can fight against it?"

Rev 13:5 The beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months.

Rev 13:6 It opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

Rev 13:7 Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. It was given authority over every tribe and people and language and nation,

Rev 13:8 and all the inhabitants of the earth will worship it, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that was slaughtered.

Rev 13:9 Let anyone who has an ear listen:

Rev 13:10 If you are to be taken captive, into captivity you go; if you kill with the sword, with the sword you must be killed. Here is a call for the endurance and faith of the saints.

Rev 13:11 Then I saw another beast that rose out of the earth; it had two horns like a lamb and it spoke like a dragon.

Rev 13:12 It exercises all the authority of the first beast on its behalf, and it makes the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose mortal wound had been healed.

Rev 13:13 It performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in the sight of all;

Rev 13:14 and by the signs that it is allowed to perform on behalf of the beast, it deceives the inhabitants of earth, telling them to make an image for the beast that had been wounded by the sword and yet lived;

Rev 13:15 and it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast could even speak and cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

Rev 13:16 Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead,

Rev 13:17 so that no one can buy or sell who does not have the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name.

Rev 13:18 This calls for wisdom: let anyone with understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a person. Its number is six hundred sixty-six.

Rev 14:1 Then I looked, and there was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion! And with him were one hundred forty-four thousand who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

Rev 14:2 And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; the voice I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps,

Rev 14:3 and they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the one hundred forty-four thousand who have been redeemed from the earth.

Rev 14:4 It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins; these follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been redeemed from humankind as first fruits for God and the Lamb,

Rev 14:5 and in their mouth no lie was found; they are blameless.

Rev 14:6 Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth-- to every nation and tribe and language and people.

Rev 14:7 He said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come; and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

Rev 14:8 Then another angel, a second, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication."

Rev 14:9 Then another angel, a third, followed them, crying with a loud voice, "Those who worship the beast and its image, and receive a mark on their foreheads or on their hands,

Rev 14:10 they will also drink the wine of God's wrath, poured unmixed into the cup of his anger, and they will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

Rev 14:11 And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image and for anyone who receives the mark of its name."

Rev 14:12 Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and hold fast to the faith of Jesus.

Rev 14:13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who from now on die in the Lord." "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them."

Rev 14:14 Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one like the Son of Man, with a golden crown on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand!

Rev 14:15 Another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to the one who sat on the cloud, "Use your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is fully ripe."

Rev 14:16 So the one who sat on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Rev 14:17 Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.

Rev 14:18 Then another angel came out from the altar, the angel who has authority over fire, and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, "Use your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes are ripe."

Rev 14:19 So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the vintage of the earth, and he threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God.

Rev 14:20 And the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed from the wine press, as high as a horse's bridle, for a distance of about two hundred miles.

Rev 15:1 Then I saw another portent in heaven, great and amazing: seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is ended.

Rev 15:2 And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands.

Rev 15:3 And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb: "Great and amazing are your deeds, Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, King of the nations!

Rev 15:4 Lord, who will not fear and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your judgments have been revealed."

Rev 15:5 After this I looked, and the temple of the tent of witness in heaven was opened,

Rev 15:6 and out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, robed in pure bright linen, with golden sashes across their chests.

Rev 15:7 Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever;

Rev 15:8 and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were ended.

Rev 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God."

Rev 16:2 So the first angel went and poured his bowl on the earth, and a foul and painful sore came on those who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its image.

Rev 16:3 The second angel poured his bowl into the sea, and it became like the blood of a corpse, and every living thing in the sea died.

Rev 16:4 The third angel poured his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.

Rev 16:5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, "You are just, O Holy One, who are and were, for you have judged these things;

Rev 16:6 because they shed the blood of saints and prophets, you have given them blood to drink. It is what they deserve!"

Rev 16:7 And I heard the altar respond, "Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, your judgments are true and just!"

Rev 16:8 The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch them with fire;

Rev 16:9 they were scorched by the fierce heat, but they cursed the name of God, who had authority over these plagues, and they did not repent and give him glory.

Rev 16:10 The fifth angel poured his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness; people gnawed their tongues in agony,

Rev 16:11 and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and sores, and they did not repent of their deeds.

Rev 16:12 The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up in order to prepare the way for the kings from the east.

Rev 16:13 And I saw three foul spirits like frogs coming from the mouth of the dragon, from the mouth of the beast, and from the mouth of the false prophet.

Rev 16:14 These are demonic spirits, performing signs, who go abroad to the kings of the whole world, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty.

Rev 16:15 ("See, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is the one who stays awake and is clothed, not going about naked and exposed to shame.")

Rev 16:16 And they assembled them at the place that in Hebrew is called Harmagedon.

Rev 16:17 The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

Rev 16:18 And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, and a violent earthquake, such as had not occurred since people were upon the earth, so violent was that earthquake.

Rev 16:19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. God remembered great Babylon and gave her the wine-cup of the fury of his wrath.

Rev 16:20 And every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found;

Rev 16:21 and huge hailstones, each weighing about a hundred pounds, dropped from heaven on people, until they cursed God for the plague of the hail, so fearful was that plague.

Rev 17:1 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great whore who is seated on many waters,

Rev 17:2 with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and with the wine of whose fornication the inhabitants of the earth have become drunk."

Rev 17:3 So he carried me away in the spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns.

Rev 17:4 The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her fornication;

Rev 17:5 and on her forehead was written a name, a mystery: "Babylon the great, mother of whores and of earth's abominations."

Rev 17:6 And I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the witnesses to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly amazed.

Rev 17:7 But the angel said to me, "Why are you so amazed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her.

Rev 17:8 The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to ascend from the bottomless pit and go to destruction. And the inhabitants of the earth, whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will be amazed when they see the beast, because it was and is not and is to come.

Rev 17:9 "This calls for a mind that has wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated; also, they are seven kings,

Rev 17:10 of whom five have fallen, one is living, and the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain only a little while.

Rev 17:11 As for the beast that was and is not, it is an eighth but it belongs to the seven, and it goes to destruction.

Rev 17:12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they are to receive authority as kings for one hour, together with the beast.

Rev 17:13 These are united in yielding their power and authority to the beast;

Rev 17:14 they will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful."

Rev 17:15 And he said to me, "The waters that you saw, where the whore is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages.

Rev 17:16 And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the whore; they will make her desolate and naked; they will devour her flesh and burn her up with fire.

Rev 17:17 For God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by agreeing to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

Rev 17:18 The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth."

Rev 18:1 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was made bright with his splendor.

Rev 18:2 He called out with a mighty voice, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! It has become a dwelling place of demons, a haunt of every foul spirit, a haunt of every foul bird, a haunt of every foul and hateful beast.

Rev 18:3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich from the power of her luxury."

Rev 18:4 Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you do not take part in her sins, and so that you do not share in her plagues;

Rev 18:5 for her sins are heaped high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.

Rev 18:6 Render to her as she herself has rendered, and repay her double for her deeds; mix a double draught for her in the cup she mixed.

Rev 18:7 As she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, so give her a like measure of torment and grief. Since in her heart she says, 'I rule as a queen; I am no widow, and I will never see grief,'

Rev 18:8 therefore her plagues will come in a single day-- pestilence and mourning and famine-- and she will be burned with fire; for mighty is the Lord God who judges her."

Rev 18:9 And the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and lived in luxury with her, will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning;

Rev 18:10 they will stand far off, in fear of her torment, and say, "Alas, alas, the great city, Babylon, the mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come."

Rev 18:11 And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, since no one buys their cargo anymore,

Rev 18:12 cargo of gold, silver, jewels and pearls, fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet, all kinds of scented wood, all articles of ivory, all articles of costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble,

Rev 18:13 cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, choice flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, slaves-- and human lives.

Rev 18:14 "The fruit for which your soul longed has gone from you, and all your dainties and your splendor are lost to you, never to be found again!"

Rev 18:15 The merchants of these wares, who gained wealth from her, will stand far off, in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning aloud,

Rev 18:16 "Alas, alas, the great city, clothed in fine linen, in purple and scarlet, adorned with gold, with jewels, and with pearls!

Rev 18:17 For in one hour all this wealth has been laid waste!" And all shipmasters and seafarers, sailors and all whose trade is on the sea, stood far off

Rev 18:18 and cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning, "What city was like the great city?"

Rev 18:19 And they threw dust on their heads, as they wept and mourned, crying out, "Alas, alas, the great city, where all who had ships at sea grew rich by her wealth! For in one hour she has been laid waste."

Rev 18:20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints and apostles and prophets! For God has given judgment for you against her.

Rev 18:21 Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "With such violence Babylon the great city will be thrown down, and will be found no more;

Rev 18:22 and the sound of harpists and minstrels and of flutists and trumpeters will be heard in you no more; and an artisan of any trade will be found in you no more; and the sound of the millstone will be heard in you no more;

Rev 18:23 and the light of a lamp will shine in you no more; and the voice of bridegroom and bride will be heard in you no more; for your merchants were the magnates of the earth, and all nations were deceived by your sorcery.

Rev 18:24 And in you was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slaughtered on earth."

Rev 19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power to our God, Rev 19:2 for his judgments are true and just; he has judged the great whore who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he has avenged on her the blood of his servants."

Rev 19:3 Once more they said, "Hallelujah! The smoke goes up from her forever and ever."

Rev 19:4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!"

Rev 19:5 And from the throne came a voice saying, "Praise our God, all you his servants, and all who fear him, small and great."

Rev 19:6 Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunderpeals, crying out, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.

Rev 19:7 Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready;

Rev 19:8 to her it has been granted to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure"-- for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

Rev 19:9 And the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are true words of God."

Rev 19:10 Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your comrades who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Rev 19:11 Then I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse! Its rider is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war.

Rev 19:12 His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems; and he has a name inscribed that no one knows but himself.

Rev 19:13 He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is called The Word of God.

Rev 19:14 And the armies of heaven, wearing fine linen, white and pure, were following him on white horses.

Rev 19:15 From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron; he will tread the wine press of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty.

Rev 19:16 On his robe and on his thigh he has a name inscribed, "King of kings and Lord of lords."

Rev 19:17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly in midheaven, "Come, gather for the great supper of God,

Rev 19:18 to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of the mighty, the flesh of horses and their riders-- flesh of all, both free and slave, both small and great."

Rev 19:19 Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against the rider on the horse and against his army.

Rev 19:20 And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who had performed in its presence the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.

Rev 19:21 And the rest were killed by the sword of the rider on the horse, the sword that came from his mouth; and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

Rev 20:1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain.

Rev 20:2 He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years,

Rev 20:3 and threw him into the pit, and locked and sealed it over him, so that he would deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were ended. After that he must be let out for a little while.

Rev 20:4 Then I saw thrones, and those seated on them were given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony to Jesus and for the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

Rev 20:5 (The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him a thousand years.

Rev 20:7 When the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison

Rev 20:8 and will come out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, in order to gather them for battle; they are as numerous as the sands of the sea.

Rev 20:9 They marched up over the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from heaven and consumed them.

Rev 20:10 And the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Rev 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and the one who sat on it; the earth and the heaven fled from his presence, and no place was found for them.

Rev 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Also another book was opened, the book of life. And the dead were judged according to their works, as recorded in the books.

Rev 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and all were judged according to what they had done.

Rev 20:14 Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire;

Rev 20:15 and anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Rev 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

Rev 21:2 And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Rev 21:3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them;

Rev 21:4 he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

Rev 21:5 And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true."

Rev 21:6 Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Rev 21:7 Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.

Rev 21:8 But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, the murderers, the fornicators, the sorcerers, the idolaters, and all liars, their place will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

Rev 21:9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

Rev 21:10 And in the spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

Rev 21:11 It has the glory of God and a radiance like a very rare jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal.

Rev 21:12 It has a great, high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates are inscribed the names of the twelve tribes of the Israelites;

Rev 21:13 on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

Rev 21:14 And the wall of the city has twelve foundations, and on them are the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Rev 21:15 The angel who talked to me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city and its gates and walls.

Rev 21:16 The city lies foursquare, its length the same as its width; and he measured the city with his rod, fifteen hundred miles; its length and width and height are equal.

Rev 21:17 He also measured its wall, one hundred forty-four cubits by human measurement, which the angel was using.

Rev 21:18 The wall is built of jasper, while the city is pure gold, clear as glass.

Rev 21:19 The foundations of the wall of the city are adorned with every jewel; the first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald,

Rev 21:20 the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

Rev 21:21 And the twelve gates are twelve pearls, each of the gates is a single pearl, and the street of the city is pure gold, transparent as glass.

Rev 21:22 I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

Rev 21:23 And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Rev 21:24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

Rev 21:25 Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there.

Rev 21:26 People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations.

Rev 21:27 But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Rev 22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb

Rev 22:2 through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

Rev 22:3 Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him;

Rev 22:4 they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

Rev 22:5 And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Rev 22:6 And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true, for the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place."

Rev 22:7 "See, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

Rev 22:8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me;

Rev 22:9 but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your comrades the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

Rev 22:10 And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

Rev 22:11 Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy."

Rev 22:12 "See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone's work.

Rev 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Rev 22:14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates.

Rev 22:15 Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and fornicators and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

Rev 22:16 "It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let everyone who hears say, "Come." And let everyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

Rev 22:18 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book;

Rev 22:19 if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away that person's share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Rev 22:20 The one who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Rev 22:21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.
