Revised Standard Version 1952 RSV

Gen 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Gen 1:2 The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.

Gen 1:3 And God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

Gen 1:4 And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

Gen 1:5 God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

Gen 1:6 And God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."

Gen 1:7 And God made the firmament and separated the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament. And it was so.

Gen 1:8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

Gen 1:9 And God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so.

Gen 1:10 God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:11 And God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, upon the earth." And it was so.

Gen 1:12 The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:13 And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

Gen 1:14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, Gen 1:15 and let them be lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth." And it was so.

Gen 1:16 And God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night; he made the stars also.

Gen 1:17 And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth,

Gen 1:18 to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:19 And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

Gen 1:20 And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the firmament of the heavens."

Gen 1:21 So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:22 And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."

Gen 1:23 And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

Gen 1:24 And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: cattle and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds." And it was so.

Gen 1:25 And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the cattle according to their kinds, and everything that creeps upon the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

Gen 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Gen 1:28 And God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."

Gen 1:29 And God said, "Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food.

Gen 1:30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so.

Gen 1:31 And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

Gen 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

Gen 2:2 And on the seventh day God finished his work which he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done.

Gen 2:3 So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all his work which he had done in creation.

Gen 2:4 These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created. In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

Gen 2:5 when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up -- for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no man to till the ground;

Gen 2:6 but a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground --

Gen 2:7 then the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

Gen 2:8 And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

Gen 2:9 And out of the ground the LORD God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Gen 2:10 A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and there it divided and became four rivers.

Gen 2:11 The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one which flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

Gen 2:12 and the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there.

Gen 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one which flows around the whole land of Cush.

Gen 2:14 And the name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

Gen 2:15 The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it.

Gen 2:16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden;

Gen 2:17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die."

Gen 2:18 Then the LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him."

Gen 2:19 So out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.

Gen 2:20 The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper fit for him.

Gen 2:21 So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh;

Gen 2:22 and the rib which the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man.

Gen 2:23 Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man."

Gen 2:24 Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Gen 2:25 And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

Gen 3:1 Now the serpent was more subtle than any other wild creature that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?'"

Gen 3:2 And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden;

Gen 3:3 but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.'"

Gen 3:4 But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die.

Gen 3:5 For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

Gen 3:6 So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, and he ate.

Gen 3:7 Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves aprons.

Gen 3:8 And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Gen 3:9 But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?"

Gen 3:10 And he said, "I heard the sound of thee in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself."

Gen 3:11 He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?"

Gen 3:12 The man said, "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate."

Gen 3:13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent beguiled me, and I ate."

Gen 3:14 The LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all cattle, and above all wild animals; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life.

Gen 3:15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."

Gen 3:16 To the woman he said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children, yet your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you."

Gen 3:17 And to Adam he said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, 'You shall not eat of it,' cursed is the ground because of you; in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life;

Gen 3:18 thorns and thistles it shall bring forth to you; and you shall eat the plants of the field.

Gen 3:19 In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

Gen 3:20 The man called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

Gen 3:21 And the LORD God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins, and clothed them.

Gen 3:22 Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil; and now, lest he put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever" --

Gen 3:23 therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken.

Gen 3:24 He drove out the man; and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Gen 4:1 Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, "I have gotten a man with the help of the LORD."

Gen 4:2 And again, she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a tiller of the ground.

Gen 4:3 In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground,

Gen 4:4 and Abel brought of the firstlings of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering,

Gen 4:5 but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

Gen 4:6 The LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen?"

Gen 4:7 If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is couching at the door; its desire is for you, but you must master it."

Gen 4:8 Cain said to Abel his brother, "Let us go out to the field." And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel, and killed him.

Gen 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?"

Gen 4:10 And the LORD said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying to me from the ground.

Gen 4:11 And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

Gen 4:12 When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield to you its strength; you shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."

Gen 4:13 Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is greater than I can bear.

Gen 4:14 Behold, thou hast driven me this day away from the ground; and from thy face I shall be hidden; and I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will slay me."

Gen 4:15 Then the LORD said to him, "Not so! If any one slays Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold." And the LORD put a mark on Cain, lest any who came upon him should kill him.

Gen 4:16 Then Cain went away from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Gen 4:17 Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch; and he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son, Enoch.

Gen 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael the father of Methushael, and Methushael the father of Lamech.

Gen 4:19 And Lamech took two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

Gen 4:20 Adah bore Jabal; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and have cattle.

Gen 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and pipe.

Gen 4:22 Zillah bore Tubalcain; he was the forger of all instruments of bronze and iron. The sister of Tubalcain was Naamah.

Gen 4:23 Lamech said to his wives: "Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; you wives of Lamech, hearken to what I say: I have slain a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me.

Gen 4:24 If Cain is avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

Gen 4:25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and called his name Seth, for she said, "God has appointed for me another child instead of Abel, for Cain slew him."

Gen 4:26 To Seth also a son was born, and he called his name Enosh. At that time men began to call upon the name of the LORD.

Gen 5:1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God.

Gen 5:2 Male and female he created them, and he blessed them and named them Man when they were created.

Gen 5:3 When Adam had lived a hundred and thirty years, he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

Gen 5:4 The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years; and he had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:5 Thus all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

Gen 5:6 When Seth had lived a hundred and five years, he became the father of Enosh.

Gen 5:7 Seth lived after the birth of Enosh eight hundred and seven years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:8 Thus all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

Gen 5:9 When Enosh had lived ninety years, he became the father of Kenan.

Gen 5:10 Enosh lived after the birth of Kenan eight hundred and fifteen years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:11 Thus all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

Gen 5:12 When Kenan had lived seventy years, he became the father of Mahalalel.

Gen 5:13 Kenan lived after the birth of Mahalalel eight hundred and forty years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:14 Thus all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

Gen 5:15 When Mahalalel had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Jared.

Gen 5:16 Mahalalel lived after the birth of Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:17 Thus all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.

Gen 5:18 When Jared had lived a hundred and sixty-two years he became the father of Enoch.

Gen 5:19 Jared lived after the birth of Enoch eight hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:20 Thus all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died.

Gen 5:21 When Enoch had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Methuselah.

Gen 5:22 Enoch walked with God after the birth of Methuselah three hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:23 Thus all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.

Gen 5:24 Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

Gen 5:25 When Methuselah had lived a hundred and eighty-seven years, he became the father of Lamech.

Gen 5:26 Methuselah lived after the birth of Lamech seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:27 Thus all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.

Gen 5:28 When Lamech had lived a hundred and eighty-two years, he became the father of a son,

Gen 5:29 and called his name Noah, saying, "Out of the ground which the LORD has cursed this one shall bring us relief from our work and from the toil of our hands."

Gen 5:30 Lamech lived after the birth of Noah five hundred and ninety-five years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 5:31 Thus all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.

Gen 5:32 After Noah was five hundred years old, Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Gen 6:1 When men began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born to them,

Gen 6:2 the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair; and they took to wife such of them as they chose.

Gen 6:3 Then the LORD said, "My spirit shall not abide in man for ever, for he is flesh, but his days shall be a hundred and twenty years."

Gen 6:4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them. These were the mighty men that were of old, the men of renown.

Gen 6:5 The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Gen 6:6 And the LORD was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart.

Gen 6:7 So the LORD said, "I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the ground, man and beast and creeping things and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them."

Gen 6:8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

Gen 6:9 These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation; Noah walked with God.

Gen 6:10 And Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Gen 6:11 Now the earth was corrupt in God's sight, and the earth was filled with violence.

Gen 6:12 And God saw the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth.

Gen 6:13 And God said to Noah, "I have determined to make an end of all flesh; for the earth is filled with violence through them; behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Gen 6:14 Make yourself an ark of gopher wood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch.

Gen 6:15 This is how you are to make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

Gen 6:16 Make a roof for the ark, and finish it to a cubit above; and set the door of the ark in its side; make it with lower, second, and third decks.

Gen 6:17 For behold, I will bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall die.

Gen 6:18 But I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.

Gen 6:19 And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

Gen 6:20 Of the birds according to their kinds, and of the animals according to their kinds, of every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every sort shall come in to you, to keep them alive.

Gen 6:21 Also take with you every sort of food that is eaten, and store it up; and it shall serve as food for you and for them."

Gen 6:22 Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.

Gen 7:1 Then the LORD said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you are righteous before me in this generation.

Gen 7:2 Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and his mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and his mate;

Gen 7:3 and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive upon the face of all the earth.

Gen 7:4 For in seven days I will send rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground."

Gen 7:5 And Noah did all that the LORD had commanded him.

Gen 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came upon the earth.

Gen 7:7 And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him went into the ark, to escape the waters of the flood.

Gen 7:8 Of clean animals, and of animals that are not clean, and of birds, and of everything that creeps on the ground,

Gen 7:9 two and two, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, as God had commanded Noah.

Gen 7:10 And after seven days the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

Gen 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened.

Gen 7:12 And rain fell upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

Gen 7:13 On the very same day Noah and his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them entered the ark,

Gen 7:14 they and every beast according to its kind, and all the cattle according to their kinds, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every bird of every sort.

Gen 7:15 They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life.

Gen 7:16 And they that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

Gen 7:17 The flood continued forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

Gen 7:18 The waters prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark floated on the face of the waters.

Gen 7:19 And the waters prevailed so mightily upon the earth that all the high mountains under the whole heaven were covered;

Gen 7:20 the waters prevailed above the mountains, covering them fifteen cubits deep.

Gen 7:21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, birds, cattle, beasts, all swarming creatures that swarm upon the earth, and every man;

Gen 7:22 everything on the dry land in whose nostrils was the breath of life died.

Gen 7:23 He blotted out every living thing that was upon the face of the ground, man and animals and creeping things and birds of the air; they were blotted out from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those that were with him in the ark.

Gen 7:24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

Gen 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind blow over the earth, and the waters subsided;

Gen 8:2 the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, the rain from the heavens was restrained,

Gen 8:3 and the waters receded from the earth continually. At the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters had abated;

Gen 8:4 and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark came to rest upon the mountains of Ararat.

Gen 8:5 And the waters continued to abate until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

Gen 8:6 At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made,

Gen 8:7 and sent forth a raven; and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth.

Gen 8:8 Then he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground;

Gen 8:9 but the dove found no place to set her foot, and she returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put forth his hand and took her and brought her into the ark with him.

Gen 8:10 He waited another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

Gen 8:11 and the dove came back to him in the evening, and lo, in her mouth a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth.

Gen 8:12 Then he waited another seven days, and sent forth the dove; and she did not return to him any more.

Gen 8:13 In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried from off the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.

Gen 8:14 In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

Gen 8:15 Then God said to Noah,

Gen 8:16 "Go forth from the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

Gen 8:17 Bring forth with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh -- birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth -- that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply upon the earth."

Gen 8:18 So Noah went forth, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.

Gen 8:19 And every beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves upon the earth, went forth by families out of the ark.

Gen 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

Gen 8:21 And when the LORD smelled the pleasing odor, the LORD said in his heart, "I will never again curse the ground because of man, for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I ever again destroy every living creature as I have done.

Gen 8:22 While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, shall not cease."

Gen 9:1 And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

Gen 9:2 The fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every bird of the air, upon everything that creeps on the ground and all the fish of the sea; into your hand they are delivered.

Gen 9:3 Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; and as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything.

Gen 9:4 Only you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.

Gen 9:5 For your lifeblood I will surely require a reckoning; of every beast I will require it and of man; of every man's brother I will require the life of man.

Gen 9:6 Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed; for God made man in his own image.

Gen 9:7 And you, be fruitful and multiply, bring forth abundantly on the earth and multiply in it."

Gen 9:8 Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him,

Gen 9:9 "Behold, I establish my covenant with you and your descendants after you,

Gen 9:10 and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark.

Gen 9:11 I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth."

Gen 9:12 And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations:

Gen 9:13 I set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Gen 9:14 When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds,

Gen 9:15 I will remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

Gen 9:16 When the bow is in the clouds, I will look upon it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth."

Gen 9:17 God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth."

Gen 9:18 The sons of Noah who went forth from the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan.

Gen 9:19 These three were the sons of Noah; and from these the whole earth was peopled.

Gen 9:20 Noah was the first tiller of the soil. He planted a vineyard;

Gen 9:21 and he drank of the wine, and became drunk, and lay uncovered in his tent.

Gen 9:22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

Gen 9:23 Then Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it upon both their shoulders, and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

Gen 9:24 When Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his youngest son had done to him,

Gen 9:25 he said, "Cursed be Canaan; a slave of slaves shall he be to his brothers."

Gen 9:26 He also said, "Blessed by the LORD my God be Shem; and let Canaan be his slave."

Gen 9:27 God enlarge Japheth, and let him dwell in the tents of Shem; and let Canaan be his slave."

Gen 9:28 After the flood Noah lived three hundred and fifty years.

Gen 9:29 All the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

Gen 10:1 These are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth; sons were born to them after the flood.

Gen 10:2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

Gen 10:3 The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

Gen 10:4 The sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

Gen 10:5 From these the coastland peoples spread. These are the sons of Japheth in their lands, each with his own language, by their families, in their nations.

Gen 10:6 The sons of Ham: Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan.

Gen 10:7 The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.

Gen 10:8 Cush became the father of Nimrod; he was the first on earth to be a mighty man.

Gen 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD."

Gen 10:10 The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, and Accad, all of them in the land of Shinar.

Gen 10:11 From that land he went into Assyria, and built Nineveh, Rehobothir, Calah, and Gen 10:12 Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

Gen 10:13 Egypt became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim,

Gen 10:14 Pathrusim, Casluhim (whence came the Philistines), and Caphtorim.

Gen 10:15 Canaan became the father of Sidon his first-born, and Heth,

Gen 10:16 and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,

Gen 10:17 the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,

Gen 10:18 the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. Afterward the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

Gen 10:19 And the territory of the Canaanites extended from Sidon, in the direction of Gerar, as far as Gaza, and in the direction of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

Gen 10:20 These are the sons of Ham, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

Gen 10:21 To Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the elder brother of Japheth, children were born.

Gen 10:22 The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.

Gen 10:23 The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

Gen 10:24 Arpachshad became the father of Shelah; and Shelah became the father of Eber.

Gen 10:25 To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan.

Gen 10:26 Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Gen 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Gen 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Gen 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.

Gen 10:30 The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar to the hill country of the east.

Gen 10:31 These are the sons of Shem, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

Gen 10:32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their genealogies, in their nations; and from these the nations spread abroad on the earth after the flood.

Gen 11:1 Now the whole earth had one language and few words.

Gen 11:2 And as men migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.

Gen 11:3 And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar.

Gen 11:4 Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

Gen 11:5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men had built.

Gen 11:6 And the LORD said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; and nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them.

Gen 11:7 Come, let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."

Gen 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city.

Gen 11:9 Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Gen 11:10 These are the descendants of Shem. When Shem was a hundred years old, he became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood;

Gen 11:11 and Shem lived after the birth of Arpachshad five hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:12 When Arpachshad had lived thirty-five years, he became the father of Shelah;

Gen 11:13 and Arpachshad lived after the birth of Shelah four hundred and three years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:14 When Shelah had lived thirty years, he became the father of Eber;

Gen 11:15 and Shelah lived after the birth of Eber four hundred and three years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:16 When Eber had lived thirty-four years, he became the father of Peleg;

Gen 11:17 and Eber lived after the birth of Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:18 When Peleg had lived thirty years, he became the father of Reu;

Gen 11:19 and Peleg lived after the birth of Reu two hundred and nine years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:20 When Reu had lived thirty-two years, he became the father of Serug;

Gen 11:21 and Reu lived after the birth of Serug two hundred and seven years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:22 When Serug had lived thirty years, he became the father of Nahor;

Gen 11:23 and Serug lived after the birth of Nahor two hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:24 When Nahor had lived twenty-nine years, he became the father of Terah;

Gen 11:25 and Nahor lived after the birth of Terah a hundred and nineteen years, and had other sons and daughters.

Gen 11:26 When Terah had lived seventy years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Gen 11:27 Now these are the descendants of Terah. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot.

Gen 11:28 Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

Gen 11:29 And Abram and Nahor took wives; the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and Iscah.

Gen 11:30 Now Sarai was barren; she had no child.

Gen 11:31 Terah took Abram his son and Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife, and they went forth together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan; but when they came to Haran, they settled there.

Gen 11:32 The days of Terah were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

Gen 12:1 Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you.

Gen 12:2 And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

Gen 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, and him who curses you I will curse; and by you all the families of the earth shall bless themselves."

Gen 12:4 So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Gen 12:5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions which they had gathered, and the persons that they had gotten in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan,

Gen 12:6 Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

Gen 12:7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Gen 12:8 Thence he removed to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD.

Gen 12:9 And Abram journeyed on, still going toward the Negeb.

Gen 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was severe in the land.

Gen 12:11 When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, "I know that you are a woman beautiful to behold;

Gen 12:12 and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife'; then they will kill me, but they will let you live.

Gen 12:13 Say you are my sister, that it may go well with me because of you, and that my life may be spared on your account."

Gen 12:14 When Abram entered Egypt the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.

Gen 12:15 And when the princes of Pharaoh saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

Gen 12:16 And for her sake he dealt well with Abram; and he had sheep, oxen, he-asses, menservants, maidservants, she-asses, and camels.

Gen 12:17 But the LORD afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

Gen 12:18 So Pharaoh called Abram, and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

Gen 12:19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her for my wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her, and be gone."

Gen 12:20 And Pharaoh gave men orders concerning him; and they set him on the way, with his wife and all that he had.

Gen 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the Negeb.

Gen 13:2 Now Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

Gen 13:3 And he journeyed on from the Negeb as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

Gen 13:4 to the place where he had made an altar at the first; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Gen 13:5 And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents,

Gen 13:6 so that the land could not support both of them dwelling together; for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together,

Gen 13:7 and there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelt in the land.

Gen 13:8 Then Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herdsmen and my herdsmen; for we are kinsmen.

Gen 13:9 Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left."

Gen 13:10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and saw that the Jordan valley was well watered everywhere like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar; this was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

Gen 13:11 So Lot chose for himself all the Jordan valley, and Lot journeyed east; thus they separated from each other.

Gen 13:12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, while Lot dwelt among the cities of the valley and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

Gen 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.

Gen 13:14 The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward;

Gen 13:15 for all the land which you see I will give to you and to your descendants for ever.

Gen 13:16 I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your descendants also can be counted.

Gen 13:17 Arise, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you."

Gen 13:18 So Abram moved his tent, and came and dwelt by the oaks of Mamre, which are at Hebron; and there he built an altar to the LORD.

Gen 14:1 In the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim,

Gen 14:2 these kings made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Gen 14:3 And all these joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea).

Gen 14:4 Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Gen 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and subdued the Rephaim in Ashterothkarnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shavehkiriathaim,

Gen 14:6 and the Horites in their Mount Seir as far as Elparan on the border of the wilderness;

Gen 14:7 then they turned back and came to Enmishpat (that is, Kadesh), and subdued all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in Hazazontamar.

Gen 14:8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out, and they joined battle in the Valley of Siddim

Gen 14:9 with Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar, four kings against five.

Gen 14:10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of bitumen pits; and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into them, and the rest fled to the mountain.

Gen 14:11 So the enemy took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way;

Gen 14:12 they also took Lot, the son of Abram's brother, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

Gen 14:13 Then one who had escaped came, and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and of Aner; these were allies of Abram.

Gen 14:14 When Abram heard that his kinsman had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and eighteen of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

Gen 14:15 And he divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and routed them and pursued them to Hobah, north of Damascus.

Gen 14:16 Then he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his kinsman Lot with his goods, and the women and the people.

Gen 14:17 After his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

Gen 14:18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High.

Gen 14:19 And he blessed him and said, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth;

Gen 14:20 and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!" And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Gen 14:21 And the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself."

Gen 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have sworn to the LORD God Most High, maker of heaven and earth,

Gen 14:23 that I would not take a thread or a sandal-thong or anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.'

Gen 14:24 I will take nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me;

let Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre take their share."

Gen 15:1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great."

Gen 15:2 But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"

Gen 15:3 And Abram said, "Behold, thou hast given me no offspring; and a slave born in my house will be my heir."

Gen 15:4 And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; your own son shall be your heir."

Gen 15:5 And he brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven, and number the stars, if you are able to number them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be."

Gen 15:6 And he believed the LORD; and he reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Gen 15:7 And he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess."

Gen 15:8 But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?"

Gen 15:9 He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a she-goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon."

Gen 15:10 And he brought him all these, cut them in two, and laid each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two.

Gen 15:11 And when birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

Gen 15:12 As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram; and lo, a dread and great darkness fell upon him.

Gen 15:13 Then the LORD said to Abram, "Know of a surety that your descendants will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and will be slaves there, and they will be oppressed for four hundred years;

Gen 15:14 but I will bring judgment on the nation which they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions.

Gen 15:15 As for yourself, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age.

Gen 15:16 And they shall come back here in the fourth generation; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete."

Gen 15:17 When the sun had gone down and it was dark, behold, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.

Gen 15:18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates,

Gen 15:19 the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,

Gen 15:20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,

Gen 15:21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites and the Jebusites."

Gen 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had an Egyptian maid whose name was Hagar;

Gen 16:2 and Sarai said to Abram, "Behold now, the LORD has prevented me from bearing children; go in to my maid; it may be that I shall obtain children by her." And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

Gen 16:3 So, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her maid, and gave her to Abram her husband as a wife.

Gen 16:4 And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress.

Gen 16:5 And Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my maid to your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked on me with contempt. May the LORD judge between you and me!"

Gen 16:6 But Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maid is in your power; do to her as you please." Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her.

Gen 16:7 The angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur.

Gen 16:8 And he said, "Hagar, maid of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from my mistress Sarai."

Gen 16:9 The angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit to her."

Gen 16:10 The angel of the LORD also said to her, "I will so greatly multiply your descendants that they cannot be numbered for multitude."

Gen 16:11 And the angel of the LORD said to her, "Behold, you are with child, and shall bear a son; you shall call his name Ishmael; because the LORD has given heed to your affliction.

Gen 16:12 He shall be a wild ass of a man, his hand against every man and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell over against all his kinsmen."

Gen 16:13 So she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, "Thou art a God of seeing"; for she said, "Have I really seen God and remained alive after seeing him?"

Gen 16:14 Therefore the well was called Beerlahairoi; it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

Gen 16:15 And Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

Gen 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Gen 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless.

Gen 17:2 And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly."

Gen 17:3 Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him,

Gen 17:4 "Behold, my covenant is with you, and you shall be the father of a multitude of nations.

Gen 17:5 No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations.

Gen 17:6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come forth from you.

Gen 17:7 And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you.

Gen 17:8 And I will give to you, and to your descendants after you, the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God."

Gen 17:9 And God said to Abraham, "As for you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

Gen 17:10 This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your descendants after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

Gen 17:11 You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.

Gen 17:12 He that is eight days old among you shall be circumcised; every male throughout your generations, whether born in your house, or bought with your money from any foreigner who is not of your offspring,

Gen 17:13 both he that is born in your house and he that is bought with your money, shall be circumcised. So shall my covenant be in your flesh an everlasting covenant.

Gen 17:14 Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

Gen 17:15 And God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

Gen 17:16 I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her; I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples shall come from her."

Gen 17:17 Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said to himself, "Shall a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?"

Gen 17:18 And Abraham said to God, "O that Ishmael might live in thy sight!"

Gen 17:19 God said, "No, but Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

Gen 17:20 As for Ishmael, I have heard you; behold, I will bless him and make him fruitful and multiply him exceedingly; he shall be the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

Gen 17:21 But I will establish my covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this season next year."

Gen 17:22 When he had finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham.

Gen 17:23 Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all the slaves born in his house or bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very day, as God had said to him.

Gen 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Gen 17:25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Gen 17:26 That very day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised;

Gen 17:27 and all the men of his house, those born in the house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Gen 18:1 And the LORD appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent in the heat of the day.

Gen 18:2 He lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, three men stood in front of him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the earth,

Gen 18:3 and said, "My lord, if I have found favor in your sight, do not pass by your servant.

Gen 18:4 Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree,

Gen 18:5 while I fetch a morsel of bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on -- since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said."

Gen 18:6 And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes."

Gen 18:7 And Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it.

Gen 18:8 Then he took curds, and milk, and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

Gen 18:9 They said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "She is in the tent."

Gen 18:10 The LORD said, "I will surely return to you in the spring, and Sarah your wife shall have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door behind him.

Gen 18:11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

Gen 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?"

Gen 18:13 The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?'"

Gen 18:14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, in the spring, and Sarah shall have a son."

Gen 18:15 But Sarah denied, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she was afraid. He said, "No, but you did laugh."

Gen 18:16 Then the men set out from there, and they looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to set them on their way.

Gen 18:17 The LORD said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do,

Gen 18:18 seeing that Abraham shall become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall bless themselves by him?"

Gen 18:19 No, for I have chosen him, that he may charge his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice; so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what he has promised him."

Gen 18:20 Then the LORD said, "Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great and their sin is very grave,

Gen 18:21 I will go down to see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry which has come to me; and if not, I will know."

Gen 18:22 So the men turned from there, and went toward Sodom; but Abraham still stood before the LORD.

Gen 18:23 Then Abraham drew near, and said, "Wilt thou indeed destroy the righteous with the wicked?"

Gen 18:24 Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; wilt thou then destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous who are in it?"

Gen 18:25 Far be it from thee to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from thee! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

Gen 18:26 And the LORD said, "If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Gen 18:27 Abraham answered, "Behold, I have taken upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes.

Gen 18:28 Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Wilt thou destroy the whole city for lack of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

Gen 18:29 Again he spoke to him, and said, "Suppose forty are found there." He answered, "For the sake of forty I will not do it."

Gen 18:30 Then he said, "Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak. Suppose thirty are found there." He answered, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there."

Gen 18:31 He said, "Behold, I have taken upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there." He answered, "For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it."

Gen 18:32 Then he said, "Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak again but this once. Suppose ten are found there." He answered, "For the sake of ten I will not destroy it."

Gen 18:33 And the LORD went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Gen 19:1 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening; and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and bowed himself with his face to the earth,

Gen 19:2 and said, "My lords, turn aside, I pray you, to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise up early and go on your way." They said, "No; we will spend the night in the street."

Gen 19:3 But he urged them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

Gen 19:4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house;

Gen 19:5 and they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them."

Gen 19:6 Lot went out of the door to the men, shut the door after him,

Gen 19:7 and said, "I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.

Gen 19:8 Behold, I have two daughters who have not known man; let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please; only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof."

Gen 19:9 But they said, "Stand back!" And they said, "This fellow came to sojourn, and he would play the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them." Then they pressed hard against the man Lot, and drew near to break the door.

Gen 19:10 But the men put forth their hands and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door.

Gen 19:11 And they struck with blindness the men who were at the door of the house, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves groping for the door.

Gen 19:12 Then the men said to Lot, "Have you any one else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or any one you have in the city, bring them out of the place;

Gen 19:13 for we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

Gen 19:14 So Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, "Up, get out of this place; for the LORD is about to destroy the city." But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be jesting.

Gen 19:15 When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city."

Gen 19:16 But he lingered; so the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him forth and set him outside the city.

Gen 19:17 And when they had brought them forth, they said, "Flee for your life; do not look back or stop anywhere in the valley; flee to the hills, lest you be consumed."

Gen 19:18 And Lot said to them, "Oh, no, my lords;

Gen 19:19 behold, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life; but I cannot flee to the hills, lest the disaster overtake me, and I die.

Gen 19:20 Behold, yonder city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me escape there -- is it not a little one? -- and my life will be saved!"

Gen 19:21 He said to him, "Behold, I grant you this favor also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.

Gen 19:22 Make haste, escape there; for I can do nothing till you arrive there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

Gen 19:23 The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

Gen 19:24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

Gen 19:25 and he overthrew those cities, and all the valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

Gen 19:26 But Lot's wife behind him looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Gen 19:27 And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD;

Gen 19:28 and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the valley, and beheld, and lo, the smoke of the land went up like the smoke of a furnace.

Gen 19:29 So it was that, when God destroyed the cities of the valley, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt.

Gen 19:30 Now Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the hills with his two daughters, for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar; so he dwelt in a cave with his two daughters.

Gen 19:31 And the first-born said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth.

Gen 19:32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve offspring through our father."

Gen 19:33 So they made their father drink wine that night; and the first-born went in, and lay with her father; he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

Gen 19:34 And on the next day, the first-born said to the younger, "Behold, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve offspring through our father."

Gen 19:35 So they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

Gen 19:36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

Gen 19:37 The first-born bore a son, and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

Gen 19:38 The younger also bore a son, and called his name Benammi; he is the father of the Ammonites to this day.

Gen 20:1 From there Abraham journeyed toward the territory of the Negeb, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur; and he sojourned in Gerar.

Gen 20:2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

Gen 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, "Behold, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken; for she is a man's wife."

Gen 20:4 Now Abimelech had not approached her; so he said, "Lord, wilt thou slay an innocent people?"

Gen 20:5 Did he not himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this."

Gen 20:6 Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that you have done this in the integrity of your heart, and it was I who kept you from sinning against me; therefore I did not let you touch her."

Gen 20:7 Now then restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you, and all that are yours."

Gen 20:8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told them all these things; and the men were very much afraid.

Gen 20:9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done."

Gen 20:10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you thinking of, that you did this thing?"

Gen 20:11 Abraham said, "I did it because I thought, There is no fear of God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife."

Gen 20:12 Besides she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife."

Gen 20:13 And when God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is the kindness you must do me: at every place to which we come, say of me, He is my brother.'"

Gen 20:14 Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and male and female slaves, and gave them to Abraham, and restored Sarah his wife to him.

Gen 20:15 And Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you; dwell where it pleases you."

Gen 20:16 To Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; it is your vindication in the eyes of all who are with you; and before every one you are righted."

Gen 20:17 Then Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, and also healed his wife and female slaves so that they bore children.

Gen 20:18 For the LORD had closed all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

Gen 21:1 The LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did to Sarah as he had promised.

Gen 21:2 And Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age at the time of which God had spoken to him.

Gen 21:3 Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore him, Isaac.

Gen 21:4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Gen 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Gen 21:6 And Sarah said, "God has made laughter for me; every one who hears will laugh over me."

Gen 21:7 And she said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would suckle children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

Gen 21:8 And the child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Gen 21:9 But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac.

Gen 21:10 So she said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not be heir with my son Isaac."

Gen 21:11 And the thing was very displeasing to Abraham on account of his son.

Gen 21:12 But God said to Abraham, "Be not displeased because of the lad and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for through Isaac shall your descendants be named."

Gen 21:13 And I will make a nation of the son of the slave woman also, because he is your offspring."

Gen 21:14 So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.

Gen 21:15 When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes.

Gen 21:16 Then she went, and sat down over against him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, "Let me not look upon the death of the child." And as she sat over against him, the child lifted up his voice and wept.

Gen 21:17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Fear not; for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is.

Gen 21:18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him fast with your hand; for I will make him a great nation."

Gen 21:19 Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink.

Gen 21:20 And God was with the lad, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow.

Gen 21:21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Gen 21:22 At that time Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his army said to Abraham, "God is with you in all that you do;

Gen 21:23 now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity, but as I have dealt loyally with you, you will deal with me and with the land where you have sojourned."

Gen 21:24 And Abraham said, "I will swear."

Gen 21:25 When Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water which Abimelech's servants had seized,

Gen 21:26 Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, and I have not heard of it until today."

Gen 21:27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant.

Gen 21:28 Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock apart.

Gen 21:29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set apart?"

Gen 21:30 He said, "These seven ewe lambs you will take from my hand, that you may be a witness for me that I dug this well."

Gen 21:31 Therefore that place was called Beersheba; because there both of them swore an oath.

Gen 21:32 So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his army rose up and returned to the land of the Philistines.

Gen 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.

Gen 21:34 And Abraham sojourned many days in the land of the Philistines.

Gen 22:1 After these things God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here am I."

Gen 22:2 He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering upon one of the mountains of which I shall tell you."

Gen 22:3 So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; and he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.

Gen 22:4 On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off.

Gen 22:5 Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the ass; I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you."

Gen 22:6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took in his hand the fire and the knife. So they went both of them together.

Gen 22:7 And Isaac said to his father Abraham, "My father!" And he said, "Here am I, my son." He said, "Behold, the fire and the wood; but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

Gen 22:8 Abraham said, "God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So they went both of them together.

Gen 22:9 When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

Gen 22:10 Then Abraham put forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

Gen 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here am I."

Gen 22:12 He said, "Do not lay your hand on the lad or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

Gen 22:13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him was a ram, caught in a thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son.

Gen 22:14 So Abraham called the name of that place The LORD will provide; as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided."

Gen 22:15 And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven,
Gen 22:16 and said, "By myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son,
Gen 22:17 I will indeed bless you, and I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore. And your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies,
Gen 22:18 and by your descendants shall all the nations of the earth bless themselves, because you have obeyed my voice."
Gen 22:19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.
Gen 22:20 Now after these things it was told Abraham, "Behold, Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor:
Gen 22:21 Uz the first-born, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,
Gen 22:22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel."
Gen 22:23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.
Gen 22:24 Moreover, his concubine, whose name was Reumah, bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.
Gen 23:1 Sarah lived a hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah.
Gen 23:2 And Sarah died at Kiriatharba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan; and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.
Gen 23:3 And Abraham rose up from before his dead, and said to the Hittites,
Gen 23:4 "I am a stranger and a sojourner among you; give me property among you for a burying place, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."
Gen 23:5 The Hittites answered Abraham,
Gen 23:6 "Hear us, my lord; you are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our sepulchres; none of us will withhold from you his sepulchre, or hinder you from burying your dead."
Gen 23:7 Abraham rose and bowed to the Hittites, the people of the land.
Gen 23:8 And he said to them, "If you are willing that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me Ephron the son of Zohar,
Gen 23:9 that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns; it is at the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in your presence as a possession for a burying place."
Gen 23:10 Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the Hittites, of all who went in at the gate of his city,
Gen 23:11 "No, my lord, hear me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it; in the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you; bury your dead."
Gen 23:12 Then Abraham bowed down before the people of the land.
Gen 23:13 And he said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, "But if you will, hear me; I will give the price of the field; accept it from me, that I may bury my dead there."
Gen 23:14 Ephron answered Abraham,
Gen 23:15 "My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver, what is that between you and me? Bury your dead."
Gen 23:16 Abraham agreed with Ephron; and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the Hittites, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants.
Gen 23:17 So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was to the east of Mamre, the field with the cave which was in it and all the trees that were in the field, throughout its whole area, was made over
Gen 23:18 to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the Hittites, before all who went in at the gate of his city.
Gen 23:19 After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah east of Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.
Gen 23:20 The field and the cave that is in it were made over to Abraham as a possession for a burying place by the Hittites.
Gen 24:1 Now Abraham was old, well advanced in years; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.
Gen 24:2 And Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his house, who had charge of all that he had, "Put your hand under my thigh,
Gen 24:3 and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell,
Gen 24:4 but will go to my country and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son Isaac."
Gen 24:5 The servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman may not be willing to follow me to this land; must I then take your son back to the land from which you came?"
Gen 24:6 Abraham said to him, "See to it that you do not take my son back there.

Gen 24:7 The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me and swore to me, 'To your descendants I will give this land,' he will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

Gen 24:8 But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this oath of mine; only you must not take my son back there."

Gen 24:9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

Gen 24:10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, taking all sorts of choice gifts from his master; and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

Gen 24:11 And he made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time when women go out to draw water.

Gen 24:12 And he said, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham, grant me success today, I pray thee, and show steadfast love to my master Abraham.

Gen 24:13 Behold, I am standing by the spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

Gen 24:14 Let the maiden to whom I shall say, 'Pray let down your jar that I may drink,' and who shall say, 'Drink, and I will water your camels' -- let her be the one whom thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac. By this I shall know that thou hast shown steadfast love to my master."

Gen 24:15 Before he had done speaking, behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her water jar upon her shoulder.

Gen 24:16 The maiden was very fair to look upon, a virgin, whom no man had known. She went down to the spring, and filled her jar, and came up.

Gen 24:17 Then the servant ran to meet her, and said, "Pray give me a little water to drink from your jar."

Gen 24:18 She said, "Drink, my lord"; and she quickly let down her jar upon her hand, and gave him a drink.

Gen 24:19 When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw for your camels also, until they have done drinking."

Gen 24:20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran again to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels.

Gen 24:21 The man gazed at her in silence to learn whether the LORD had prospered his journey or not.

Gen 24:22 When the camels had done drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing a half shekel, and two bracelets for her arms weighing ten gold shekels,

Gen 24:23 and said, "Tell me whose daughter you are. Is there room in your father's house for us to lodge in?"

Gen 24:24 She said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."

Gen 24:25 She added, "We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in."

Gen 24:26 The man bowed his head and worshiped the LORD,

Gen 24:27 and said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his steadfast love and his faithfulness toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me in the way to the house of my master's kinsmen."

Gen 24:28 Then the maiden ran and told her mother's household about these things.

Gen 24:29 Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.

Gen 24:30 When he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, "Thus the man spoke to me," he went to the man; and behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring.

Gen 24:31 He said, "Come in, O blessed of the LORD; why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

Gen 24:32 So the man came into the house; and Laban ungirded the camels, and gave him straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

Gen 24:33 Then food was set before him to eat; but he said, "I will not eat until I have told my errand." He said, "Speak on."

Gen 24:34 So he said, "I am Abraham's servant.

Gen 24:35 The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become great; he has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, menservants and maidservants, camels and asses.

Gen 24:36 And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and to him he has given all that he has.

Gen 24:37 My master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell;

Gen 24:38 but you shall go to my father's house and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son.'

Gen 24:39 I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me.'

Gen 24:40 But he said to me, 'The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my kindred and from my father's house;

Gen 24:41 then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my kindred; and if they will not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.'

Gen 24:42 "I came today to the spring, and said, 'O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now thou wilt prosper the way which I go,

Gen 24:43 behold, I am standing by the spring of water; let the young woman who comes out to draw, to whom I shall say, "Pray give me a little water from your jar to drink,"

Gen 24:44 and who will say to me, "Drink, and I will draw for your camels also," let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

Gen 24:45 "Before I had done speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her water jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, 'Pray let me drink.'

Gen 24:46 She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will give your camels drink also.' So I drank, and she gave the camels drink also.

Gen 24:47 Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' So I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her arms.

Gen 24:48 Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to take the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son.

Gen 24:49 Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."

Gen 24:50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, "The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you bad or good.

Gen 24:51 Behold, Rebekah is before you, take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has spoken."

Gen 24:52 When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the earth before the LORD.

Gen 24:53 And the servant brought forth jewelry of silver and of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave to her brother and to her mother costly ornaments.

Gen 24:54 And he and the men who were with him ate and drank, and they spent the night there. When they arose in the morning, he said, "Send me back to my master."

Gen 24:55 Her brother and her mother said, "Let the maiden remain with us a while, at least ten days; after that she may go."

Gen 24:56 But he said to them, "Do not delay me, since the LORD has prospered my way; let me go that I may go to my master."

Gen 24:57 They said, "We will call the maiden, and ask her."

Gen 24:58 And they called Rebekah, and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" She said, "I will go."

Gen 24:59 So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.

Gen 24:60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, "Our sister, be the mother of thousands of ten thousands; and may your descendants possess the gate of those who hate them!"

Gen 24:61 Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and rode upon the camels and followed the man; thus the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

Gen 24:62 Now Isaac had come from Beerlahairoi, and was dwelling in the Negeb.

Gen 24:63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there were camels coming.

Gen 24:64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she alighted from the camel,

Gen 24:65 and said to the servant, "Who is the man yonder, walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." So she took her veil and covered herself.

Gen 24:66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

Gen 24:67 Then Isaac brought her into the tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Gen 25:1 Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.

Gen 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

Gen 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.

Gen 25:4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

Gen 25:5 Abraham gave all he had to Isaac.

Gen 25:6 But to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts, and while he was still living he sent them away from his son Isaac, eastward to the east country.

Gen 25:7 These are the days of the years of Abraham's life, a hundred and seventy-five years.

Gen 25:8 Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people.

Gen 25:9 Isaac and Ishmael his sons buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, east of Mamre,

Gen 25:10 the field which Abraham purchased from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried, with Sarah his wife.

Gen 25:11 After the death of Abraham God blessed Isaac his son. And Isaac dwelt at Beerlahairoi.

Gen 25:12 These are the descendants of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maid, bore to Abraham.

Gen 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, named in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, the first-born of Ishmael; and Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Gen 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Gen 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Gen 25:16 These are the sons of Ishmael and these are their names, by their villages and by their encampments, twelve princes according to their tribes.

Gen 25:17 (These are the years of the life of Ishmael, a hundred and thirty-seven years; he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his kindred.)

Gen 25:18 They dwelt from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt in the direction of Assyria; he settled over against all his people.

Gen 25:19 These are the descendants of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham was the father of Isaac,

Gen 25:20 and Isaac was forty years old when he took to wife Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddanaram, the sister of Laban the Aramean.

Gen 25:21 And Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD granted his prayer, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

Gen 25:22 The children struggled together within her; and she said, "If it is thus, why do I live?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

Gen 25:23 And the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples, born of you, shall be divided; the one shall be stronger than the other, the elder shall serve the younger."

Gen 25:24 When her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

Gen 25:25 The first came forth red, all his body like a hairy mantle; so they called his name Esau.

Gen 25:26 Afterward his brother came forth, and his hand had taken hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

Gen 25:27 When the boys grew up, Esau was a skilful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, dwelling in tents.

Gen 25:28 Isaac loved Esau, because he ate of his game; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Gen 25:29 Once when Jacob was boiling pottage, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished.

Gen 25:30 And Esau said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red pottage, for I am famished!" (Therefore his name was called Edom.)

Gen 25:31 Jacob said, "First sell me your birthright."

Gen 25:32 Esau said, "I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?"

Gen 25:33 Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

Gen 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils, and he ate and drank, and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Gen 26:1 Now there was a famine in the land, besides the former famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Gerar, to Abimelech king of the Philistines.

Gen 26:2 And the LORD appeared to him, and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land of which I shall tell you.

Gen 26:3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you; for to you and to your descendants I will give all these lands, and I will fulfil the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.

Gen 26:4 I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven, and will give to your descendants all these lands; and by your descendants all the nations of the earth shall bless themselves:

Gen 26:5 because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

Gen 26:6 So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

Gen 26:7 When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he said, "She is my sister"; for he feared to say, "My wife," thinking, "lest the men of the place should kill me for the sake of Rebekah"; because she was fair to look upon.

Gen 26:8 When he had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw Isaac fondling Rebekah his wife.

Gen 26:9 So Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Behold, she is your wife; how then could you say, 'She is my sister?" Isaac said to him, "Because I thought, 'Lest I die because of her.'"

Gen 26:10 Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us."

Gen 26:11 So Abimelech warned all the people, saying, "Whoever touches this man or his wife shall be put to death."

Gen 26:12 And Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold. The LORD blessed him,

Gen 26:13 and the man became rich, and gained more and more until he became very wealthy.

Gen 26:14 He had possessions of flocks and herds, and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.

Gen 26:15 (Now the Philistines had stopped and filled with earth all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father.)

Gen 26:16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us; for you are much mightier than we."

Gen 26:17 So Isaac departed from there, and encamped in the valley of Gerar and dwelt there.

Gen 26:18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water which had been dug in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham; and he gave them the names which his father had given them.

Gen 26:19 But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found there a well of springing water,

Gen 26:20 the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." So he called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him.

Gen 26:21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that also; so he called its name Sitnah.

Gen 26:22 And he moved from there and dug another well, and over that they did not quarrel; so he called its name Rehoboth, saying, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land."

Gen 26:23 From there he went up to Beersheba.

Gen 26:24 And the LORD appeared to him the same night and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father; fear not, for I am with you and will bless you and multiply your descendants for my servant Abraham's sake."

Gen 26:25 So he built an altar there and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. And there Isaac's servants dug a well.

Gen 26:26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army.

Gen 26:27 Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, seeing that you hate me and have sent me away from you?"

Gen 26:28 They said, "We see plainly that the LORD is with you; so we say, let there be an oath between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you,

Gen 26:29 that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD."

Gen 26:30 So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

Gen 26:31 In the morning they rose early and took oath with one another; and Isaac set them on their way, and they departed from him in peace.

Gen 26:32 That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water."

Gen 26:33 He called it Shibah; therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

Gen 26:34 When Esau was forty years old, he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite;

Gen 26:35 and they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.

Gen 27:1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, he called Esau his older son, and said to him, "My son"; and he answered, "Here I am."

Gen 27:2 He said, "Behold, I am old; I do not know the day of my death.

Gen 27:3 Now then, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me,

Gen 27:4 and prepare for me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat; that I may bless you before I die."

Gen 27:5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game and bring it,

Gen 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "I heard your father speak to your brother Esau,

Gen 27:7 'Bring me game, and prepare for me savory food, that I may eat it, and bless you before the LORD before I die.'

Gen 27:8 Now therefore, my son, obey my word as I command you.

Gen 27:9 Go to the flock, and fetch me two good kids, that I may prepare from them savory food for your father, such as he loves;

Gen 27:10 and you shall bring it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies."

Gen 27:11 But Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Behold, my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.

Gen 27:12 Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be mocking him, and bring a curse upon myself and not a blessing."

Gen 27:13 His mother said to him, "Upon me be your curse, my son; only obey my word, and go, fetch them to me."

Gen 27:14 So he went and took them and brought them to his mother; and his mother prepared savory food, such as his father loved.

Gen 27:15 Then Rebekah took the best garments of Esau her older son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son;

Gen 27:16 and the skins of the kids she put upon his hands and upon the smooth part of his neck;

Gen 27:17 and she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

Gen 27:18 So he went in to his father, and said, "My father"; and he said, "Here I am; who are you, my son?"

Gen 27:19 Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your first-born. I have done as you told me; now sit up and eat of my game, that you may bless me."

Gen 27:20 But Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" He answered, "Because the LORD your God granted me success."

Gen 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not."

Gen 27:22 So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, who felt him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau."

Gen 27:23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him.

Gen 27:24 He said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He answered, "I am."

Gen 27:25 Then he said, "Bring it to me, that I may eat of my son's game and bless you." So he brought it to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

Gen 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come near and kiss me, my son."

Gen 27:27 So he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his garments, and blessed him, and said, "See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed!

Gen 27:28 May God give you of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.

Gen 27:29 Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be every one who curses you, and blessed be every one who blesses you!"

Gen 27:30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, when Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

Gen 27:31 He also prepared savory food, and brought it to his father. And he said to his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of his son's game, that you may bless me."

Gen 27:32 His father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?" He answered, "I am your son, your first-born, Esau."

Gen 27:33 Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who was it then that hunted game and brought it to me, and I ate it all before you came, and I have blessed him? -- yes, and he shall be blessed."

Gen 27:34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, O my father!"

Gen 27:35 But he said, "Your brother came with guile, and he has taken away your blessing."

Gen 27:36 Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright; and behold, now he has taken away my blessing." Then he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

Gen 27:37 Isaac answered Esau, "Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers I have given to him for servants, and with grain and wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?"

Gen 27:38 Esau said to his father, "Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father." And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

Gen 27:39 Then Isaac his father answered him: "Behold, away from the fatness of the earth shall your dwelling be, and away from the dew of heaven on high.

Gen 27:40 By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother; but when you break loose you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Gen 27:41 Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Gen 27:42 But the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah; so she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, "Behold, your brother Esau comforts himself by planning to kill you.

Gen 27:43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; arise, flee to Laban my brother in Haran,
Gen 27:44 and stay with him a while, until your brother's fury turns away;
Gen 27:45 until your brother's anger turns away, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send, and fetch you from there. Why should I be bereft of you both in one day?"
Gen 27:46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the Hittite women. If Jacob marries one of the Hittite women such as these, one of the women of the land, what good will my life be to me?"
Gen 28:1 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, "You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women.
Gen 28:2 Arise, go to Paddanaram to the house of Bethuel your mother's father; and take as wife from there one of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.
Gen 28:3 God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples.
Gen 28:4 May he give the blessing of Abraham to you and to your descendants with you, that you may take possession of the land of your sojournings which God gave to Abraham!"
Gen 28:5 Thus Isaac sent Jacob away; and he went to Paddanaram to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.
Gen 28:6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddanaram to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he charged him, "You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women,"
Gen 28:7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and gone to Paddanaram.
Gen 28:8 So when Esau saw that the Canaanite women did not please Isaac his father,
Gen 28:9 Esau went to Ishmael and took to wife, besides the wives he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth.
Gen 28:10 Jacob left Beersheba, and went toward Haran.
Gen 28:11 And he came to a certain place, and stayed there that night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place to sleep.
Gen 28:12 And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it!
Gen 28:13 And behold, the LORD stood above it and said, "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your descendants;
Gen 28:14 and your descendants shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and by you and your descendants shall all the families of the earth bless themselves.
Gen 28:15 Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done that of which I have spoken to you."
Gen 28:16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place; and I did not know it."
Gen 28:17 And he was afraid, and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."
Gen 28:18 So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone which he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it.
Gen 28:19 He called the name of that place Bethel; but the name of the city was Luz at the first.
Gen 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear,
Gen 28:21 so that I come again to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God,
Gen 28:22 and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God's house; and of all that thou givest me I will give the tenth to thee."
Gen 29:1 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east.
Gen 29:2 As he looked, he saw a well in the field, and lo, three flocks of sheep lying beside it; for out of that well the flocks were watered. The stone on the well's mouth was large,
Gen 29:3 and when all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place upon the mouth of the well.
Gen 29:4 Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where do you come from?" They said, "We are from Haran."
Gen 29:5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?" They said, "We know him."
Gen 29:6 He said to them, "Is it well with him?" They said, "It is well; and see, Rachel his daughter is coming with the sheep!"
Gen 29:7 He said, "Behold, it is still high day, it is not time for the animals to be gathered together; water the sheep, and go, pasture them."
Gen 29:8 But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and the stone is rolled from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep."

Gen 29:9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep; for she kept them.

Gen 29:10 Now when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, Jacob went up and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

Gen 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and wept aloud.

Gen 29:12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman, and that he was Rebekah's son; and she ran and told her father.

Gen 29:13 When Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things,

Gen 29:14 and Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh!" And he stayed with him a month.

Gen 29:15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?"

Gen 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Gen 29:17 Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful and lovely.

Gen 29:18 Jacob loved Rachel; and he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

Gen 29:19 Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me."

Gen 29:20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Gen 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed."

Gen 29:22 So Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

Gen 29:23 But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.

Gen 29:24 (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.)

Gen 29:25 And in the morning, behold, it was Leah; and Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?"

Gen 29:26 Laban said, "It is not so done in our country, to give the younger before the first-born.

Gen 29:27 Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years."

Gen 29:28 Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to wife.

Gen 29:29 (Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her maid.)

Gen 29:30 So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah, and served Laban for another seven years.

Gen 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

Gen 29:32 And Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben; for she said, "Because the LORD has looked upon my affliction; surely now my husband will love me."

Gen 29:33 She conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has given me this son also"; and she called his name Simeon.

Gen 29:34 Again she conceived and bore a son, and said, "Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons"; therefore his name was called Levi.

Gen 29:35 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "This time I will praise the LORD"; therefore she called his name Judah; then she ceased bearing.

Gen 30:1 When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, she envied her sister; and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I shall die!"

Gen 30:2 Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, "Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

Gen 30:3 Then she said, "Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees, and even I may have children through her."

Gen 30:4 So she gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife; and Jacob went in to her.

Gen 30:5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

Gen 30:6 Then Rachel said, "God has judged me, and has also heard my voice and given me a son"; therefore she called his name Dan.

Gen 30:7 Rachel's maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Gen 30:8 Then Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed"; so she called his name Naphtali.

Gen 30:9 When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing children, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

Gen 30:10 Then Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Gen 30:11 And Leah said, "Good fortune!" so she called his name Gad.

Gen 30:12 Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.
Gen 30:13 And Leah said, "Happy am I! For the women will call me happy"; so she called his name Asher.
Gen 30:14 In the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Give me, I pray, some of your son's mandrakes."
Gen 30:15 But she said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes also?" Rachel said, "Then he may lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."
Gen 30:16 When Jacob came from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him, and said, "You must come in to me; for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that night.
Gen 30:17 And God hearkened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.
Gen 30:18 Leah said, "God has given me my hire because I gave my maid to my husband"; so she called his name Issachar.
Gen 30:19 And Leah conceived again, and she bore Jacob a sixth son.
Gen 30:20 Then Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good dowry; now my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons"; so she called his name Zebulun.
Gen 30:21 Afterwards she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.
Gen 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her and opened her womb.
Gen 30:23 She conceived and bore a son, and said, "God has taken away my reproach";
Gen 30:24 and she called his name Joseph, saying, "May the LORD add to me another son!"
Gen 30:25 When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own home and country.
Gen 30:26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know the service which I have given you."
Gen 30:27 But Laban said to him, "If you will allow me to say so, I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you;
Gen 30:28 name your wages, and I will give it."
Gen 30:29 Jacob said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you, and how your cattle have fared with me.
Gen 30:30 For you had little before I came, and it has increased abundantly; and the LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. But now when shall I provide for my own household also?"
Gen 30:31 He said, "What shall I give you?" Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything; if you will do this for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it:
Gen 30:32 let me pass through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and such shall be my wages.
Gen 30:33 So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come to look into my wages with you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the lambs, if found with me, shall be counted stolen."
Gen 30:34 Laban said, "Good! Let it be as you have said."
Gen 30:35 But that day Laban removed the he-goats that were striped and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white on it, and every lamb that was black, and put them in charge of his sons;
Gen 30:36 and he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob; and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flock.
Gen 30:37 Then Jacob took fresh rods of poplar and almond and plane, and peeled white streaks in them, exposing the white of the rods.
Gen 30:38 He set the rods which he had peeled in front of the flocks in the runnels, that is, the watering troughs, where the flocks came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink,
Gen 30:39 the flocks bred in front of the rods and so the flocks brought forth striped, speckled, and spotted.
Gen 30:40 And Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped and all the black in the flock of Laban; and he put his own droves apart, and did not put them with Laban's flock.
Gen 30:41 Whenever the stronger of the flock were breeding Jacob laid the rods in the runnels before the eyes of the flock, that they might breed among the rods,
Gen 30:42 but for the feebler of the flock he did not lay them there; so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.
Gen 30:43 Thus the man grew exceedingly rich, and had large flocks, maidservants and menservants, and camels and asses.
Gen 31:1 Now Jacob heard that the sons of Laban were saying, "Jacob has taken all that was our father's; and from what was our father's he has gained all this wealth."
Gen 31:2 And Jacob saw that Laban did not regard him with favor as before.
Gen 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your kindred, and I will be with you."

Gen 31:4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah into the field where his flock was,

Gen 31:5 and said to them, "I see that your father does not regard me with favor as he did before. But the God of my father has been with me.

Gen 31:6 You know that I have served your father with all my strength;

Gen 31:7 yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not permit him to harm me.

Gen 31:8 If he said, 'The spotted shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore spotted; and if he said, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore striped.

Gen 31:9 Thus God has taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

Gen 31:10 In the mating season of the flock I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream that the he-goats which leaped upon the flock were striped, spotted, and mottled.

Gen 31:11 Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am!'

Gen 31:12 And he said, 'Lift up your eyes and see, all the goats that leap upon the flock are striped, spotted, and mottled; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.

Gen 31:13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and made a vow to me. Now arise, go forth from this land, and return to the land of your birth."

Gen 31:14 Then Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there any portion or inheritance left to us in our father's house?

Gen 31:15 Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and he has been using up the money given for us.

Gen 31:16 All the property which God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children; now then, whatever God has said to you, do."

Gen 31:17 So Jacob arose, and set his sons and his wives on camels;

Gen 31:18 and he drove away all his cattle, all his livestock which he had gained, the cattle in his possession which he had acquired in Paddanaram, to go to the land of Canaan to his father Isaac.

Gen 31:19 Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father's household gods.

Gen 31:20 And Jacob outwitted Laban the Aramean, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee.

Gen 31:21 He fled with all that he had, and arose and crossed the Euphrates, and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:22 When it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob had fled,

Gen 31:23 he took his kinsmen with him and pursued him for seven days and followed close after him into the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:24 But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream by night, and said to him, "Take heed that you say not a word to Jacob, either good or bad."

Gen 31:25 And Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his kinsmen encamped in the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:26 And Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you have cheated me, and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword?

Gen 31:27 Why did you flee secretly, and cheat me, and did not tell me, so that I might have sent you away with mirth and songs, with tambourine and lyre?

Gen 31:28 And why did you not permit me to kiss my sons and my daughters farewell? Now you have done foolishly.

Gen 31:29 It is in my power to do you harm; but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'

Gen 31:30 And now you have gone away because you longed greatly for your father's house, but why did you steal my gods?"

Gen 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force.

Gen 31:32 Any one with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our kinsmen point out what I have that is yours, and take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

Gen 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two maidservants, but he did not find them. And he went out of Leah's tent, and entered Rachel's.

Gen 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle, and sat upon them. Laban felt all about the tent, but did not find them.

Gen 31:35 And she said to her father, "Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me." So he searched, but did not find the household gods.

Gen 31:36 Then Jacob became angry, and upbraided Laban; Jacob said to Laban, "What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me?"

Gen 31:37 Although you have felt through all my goods, what have you found of all your household goods? Set it here before my kinsmen and your kinsmen, that they may decide between us two.

Gen 31:38 These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your she-goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams of your flocks.

Gen 31:39 That which was torn by wild beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself; of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

Gen 31:40 Thus I was; by day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.

Gen 31:41 These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

Gen 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been on my side, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God saw my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

Gen 31:43 Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne?"

Gen 31:44 Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be a witness between you and me."

Gen 31:45 So Jacob took a stone, and set it up as a pillar.

Gen 31:46 And Jacob said to his kinsmen, "Gather stones," and they took stones, and made a heap; and they ate there by the heap.

Gen 31:47 Laban called it Jegarsahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed.

Gen 31:48 Laban said, "This heap is a witness between you and me today." Therefore he named it Galeed,

Gen 31:49 and the pillar Mizpah, for he said, "The LORD watch between you and me, when we are absent one from the other.

Gen 31:50 If you ill-treat my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, although no man is with us, remember, God is witness between you and me."

Gen 31:51 Then Laban said to Jacob, "See this heap and the pillar, which I have set between you and me.

Gen 31:52 This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and you will not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

Gen 31:53 The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac,

Gen 31:54 and Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and called his kinsmen to eat bread; and they ate bread and tarried all night on the mountain.

Gen 31:55 Early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them; then he departed and returned home.

Gen 32:1 Jacob went on his way and the angels of God met him;

Gen 32:2 and when Jacob saw them he said, "This is God's army!" So he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

Gen 32:3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom,

Gen 32:4 instructing them, "Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob, 'I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed until now;

Gen 32:5 and I have oxen, asses, flocks, menservants, and maidservants; and I have sent to tell my lord, in order that I may find favor in your sight.'"

Gen 32:6 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau, and he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him."

Gen 32:7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies,

Gen 32:8 thinking, "If Esau comes to the one company and destroys it, then the company which is left will escape."

Gen 32:9 And Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD who didst say to me, 'Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will do you good,'

Gen 32:10 I am not worthy of the least of all the steadfast love and all the faithfulness which thou hast shown to thy servant, for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan; and now I have become two companies.

Gen 32:11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I fear him, lest he come and slay us all, the mothers with the children.

Gen 32:12 But thou didst say, 'I will do you good, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'"

Gen 32:13 So he lodged there that night, and took from what he had with him a present for his brother Esau,

Gen 32:14 two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Gen 32:15 thirty milch camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten he-asses.

Gen 32:16 These he delivered into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass on before me, and put a space between drove and drove."

Gen 32:17 He instructed the foremost, "When Esau my brother meets you, and asks you, 'To whom do you belong? Where are you going? And whose are these before you?'"

Gen 32:18 then you shall say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob; they are a present sent to my lord Esau; and moreover he is behind us.'"

Gen 32:19 He likewise instructed the second and the third and all who followed the droves, "You shall say the same thing to Esau when you meet him,

Gen 32:20 and you shall say, 'Moreover your servant Jacob is behind us.'" For he thought, "I may appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterwards I shall see his face; perhaps he will accept me."

Gen 32:21 So the present passed on before him; and he himself lodged that night in the camp.

Gen 32:22 The same night he arose and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

Gen 32:23 He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had.

Gen 32:24 And Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until the breaking of the day.

Gen 32:25 When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and Jacob's thigh was put out of joint as he wrestled with him.

Gen 32:26 Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me."

Gen 32:27 And he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob."

Gen 32:28 Then he said, "Your name shall no more be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with men, and have prevailed."

Gen 32:29 Then Jacob asked him, "Tell me, I pray, your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him.

Gen 32:30 So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved."

Gen 32:31 The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his thigh.

Gen 32:32 Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the sinew of the hip which is upon the hollow of the thigh, because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh on the sinew of the hip.

Gen 33:1 And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maids.

Gen 33:2 And he put the maids with their children in front, then Leah with her children, and Rachel and Joseph last of all.

Gen 33:3 He himself went on before them, bowing himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

Gen 33:4 But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

Gen 33:5 And when Esau raised his eyes and saw the women and children, he said, "Who are these with you?" Jacob said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."

Gen 33:6 Then the maids drew near, they and their children, and bowed down;

Gen 33:7 Leah likewise and her children drew near and bowed down; and last Joseph and Rachel drew near, and they bowed down.

Gen 33:8 Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" Jacob answered, "To find favor in the sight of my lord."

Gen 33:9 But Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself."

Gen 33:10 Jacob said, "No, I pray you, if I have found favor in your sight, then accept my present from my hand; for truly to see your face is like seeing the face of God, with such favor have you received me.

Gen 33:11 Accept, I pray you, my gift that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough." Thus he urged him, and he took it.

Gen 33:12 Then Esau said, "Let us journey on our way, and I will go before you."

Gen 33:13 But Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are frail, and that the flocks and herds giving suck are a care to me; and if they are overdriven for one day, all the flocks will die.

Gen 33:14 Let my lord pass on before his servant, and I will lead on slowly, according to the pace of the cattle which are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir."

Gen 33:15 So Esau said, "Let me leave with you some of the men who are with me." But he said, "What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord."

Gen 33:16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

Gen 33:17 But Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built himself a house, and made booths for his cattle; therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

Gen 33:18 And Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, on his way from Paddanaram; and he camped before the city.

Gen 33:19 And from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, he bought for a hundred pieces of money the piece of land on which he had pitched his tent.

Gen 33:20 There he erected an altar and called it Elelohe-israel.

Gen 34:1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the land;

Gen 34:2 and when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he seized her and lay with her and humbled her.

Gen 34:3 And his soul was drawn to Dinah the daughter of Jacob; he loved the maiden and spoke tenderly to her.

Gen 34:4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this maiden for my wife."

Gen 34:5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah; but his sons were with his cattle in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came.

Gen 34:6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.

Gen 34:7 The sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard of it; and the men were indignant and very angry, because he had wrought folly in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.

Gen 34:8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; I pray you, give her to him in marriage.

Gen 34:9 Make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.

Gen 34:10 You shall dwell with us; and the land shall be open to you; dwell and trade in it, and get property in it."

Gen 34:11 Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give.

Gen 34:12 Ask of me ever so much as marriage present and gift, and I will give according as you say to me; only give me the maiden to be my wife."

Gen 34:13 The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister Dinah.

Gen 34:14 They said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.

Gen 34:15 Only on this condition will we consent to you: that you will become as we are and every male of you be circumcised.

Gen 34:16 Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to ourselves, and we will dwell with you and become one people.

Gen 34:17 But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will be gone."

Gen 34:18 Their words pleased Hamor and Hamor's son Shechem.

Gen 34:19 And the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter. Now he was the most honored of all his family.

Gen 34:20 So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying,

Gen 34:21 "These men are friendly with us; let them dwell in the land and trade in it, for behold, the land is large enough for them; let us take their daughters in marriage, and let us give them our daughters.

Gen 34:22 Only on this condition will the men agree to dwell with us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

Gen 34:23 Will not their cattle, their property and all their beasts be ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will dwell with us."

Gen 34:24 And all who went out of the gate of his city hearkened to Hamor and his son Shechem; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

Gen 34:25 On the third day, when they were sore, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and came upon the city unawares, and killed all the males.

Gen 34:26 They slew Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away.

Gen 34:27 And the sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because their sister had been defiled;

Gen 34:28 they took their flocks and their herds, their asses, and whatever was in the city and in the field;

Gen 34:29 all their wealth, all their little ones and their wives, all that was in the houses, they captured and made their prey.

Gen 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me odious to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites; my numbers are few, and if they gather themselves against me and attack me, I shall be destroyed, both I and my household."

Gen 34:31 But they said, "Should he treat our sister as a harlot?"

Gen 35:1 God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there; and make there an altar to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

Gen 35:2 So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, and purify yourselves, and change your garments;

Gen 35:3 then let us arise and go up to Bethel, that I may make there an altar to the God who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone."

Gen 35:4 So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that they had, and the rings that were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was near Shechem.

Gen 35:5 And as they journeyed, a terror from God fell upon the cities that were round about them, so that they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

Gen 35:6 And Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him,

Gen 35:7 and there he built an altar, and called the place Elbethel, because there God had revealed himself to him when he fled from his brother.

Gen 35:8 And Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried under an oak below Bethel; so the name of it was called Allonbacuth.

Gen 35:9 God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Paddanaram, and blessed him.

Gen 35:10 And God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; no longer shall your name be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name." So his name was called Israel.

Gen 35:11 And God said to him, "I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall come from you, and kings shall spring from you.

Gen 35:12 The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you, and I will give the land to your descendants after you."

Gen 35:13 Then God went up from him in the place where he had spoken with him.

Gen 35:14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it.

Gen 35:15 So Jacob called the name of the place where God had spoken with him, Bethel.

Gen 35:16 Then they journeyed from Bethel; and when they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel travailed, and she had hard labor.

Gen 35:17 And when she was in her hard labor, the midwife said to her, "Fear not; for now you will have another son."

Gen 35:18 And as her soul was departing (for she died), she called his name Benoni; but his father called his name Benjamin.

Gen 35:19 So Rachel died, and she was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem),

Gen 35:20 and Jacob set up a pillar upon her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's tomb, which is there to this day.

Gen 35:21 Israel journeyed on, and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

Gen 35:22 While Israel dwelt in that land Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine; and Israel heard of it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve.

Gen 35:23 The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's first-born), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

Gen 35:24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 35:25 The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maid: Dan and Naphtali.

Gen 35:26 The sons of Zilpah, Leah's maid: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddanaram.

Gen 35:27 And Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kiriatharba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

Gen 35:28 Now the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years.

Gen 35:29 And Isaac breathed his last; and he died and was gathered to his people, old and full of days; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Gen 36:1 These are the descendants of Esau (that is, Edom).

Gen 36:2 Esau took his wives from the Canaanites: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah the daughter of Anah the son of Zibeon the Hivite,

Gen 36:3 and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, the sister of Nebaioth.

Gen 36:4 And Adah bore to Esau, Eliphaz; Basemath bore Reuel;

Gen 36:5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

Gen 36:6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, his cattle, all his beasts, and all his property which he had acquired in the land of Canaan; and he went into a land away from his brother Jacob.

Gen 36:7 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together; the land of their sojournings could not support them because of their cattle.

Gen 36:8 So Esau dwelt in the hill country of Seir; Esau is Edom.

Gen 36:9 These are the descendants of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

Gen 36:10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau.

Gen 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

Gen 36:12 (Timna was a concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son; she bore Amalek to Eliphaz.) These are the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

Gen 36:13 These are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These are the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

Gen 36:14 These are the sons of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah the son of Zibeon, Esau's wife: she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Gen 36:15 These are the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz the first-born of Esau: the chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Gen 36:16 Korah, Gatam, and Amalek; these are the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; they are the sons of Adah.

Gen 36:17 These are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: the chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah; these are the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom; they are the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

Gen 36:18 These are the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: the chiefs Jeush, Jalam, and Korah; these are the chiefs born of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

Gen 36:19 These are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their chiefs.

Gen 36:20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Gen 36:21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan; these are the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom.

Gen 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

Gen 36:23 These are the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

Gen 36:24 These are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah; he is the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness, as he pastured the asses of Zibeon his father.

Gen 36:25 These are the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah.

Gen 36:26 These are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

Gen 36:27 These are the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

Gen 36:28 These are the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Gen 36:29 These are the chiefs of the Horites: the chiefs Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Gen 36:30 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan; these are the chiefs of the Horites, according to their clans in the land of Seir.

Gen 36:31 These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the Israelites.

Gen 36:32 Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, the name of his city being Dinhabah.

Gen 36:33 Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

Gen 36:34 Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

Gen 36:35 Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, reigned in his stead, the name of his city being Avith.

Gen 36:36 Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

Gen 36:37 Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth on the Euphrates reigned in his stead.

Gen 36:38 Shaul died, and Baalhanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

Gen 36:39 Baalhanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead, the name of his city being Pau; his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, daughter of Mezahab.

Gen 36:40 These are the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families and their dwelling places, by their names: the chiefs Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Gen 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Gen 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Gen 36:43 Magdiel, and Iram; these are the chiefs of Edom (that is, Esau, the father of Edom), according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession.

Gen 37:1 Jacob dwelt in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Canaan.

Gen 37:2 This is the history of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a lad with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought an ill report of them to their father.

Gen 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a long robe with sleeves.

Gen 37:4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

Gen 37:5 Now Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers they only hated him the more.

Gen 37:6 He said to them, "Hear this dream which I have dreamed:

Gen 37:7 behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf arose and stood upright; and behold, your sheaves gathered round it, and bowed down to my sheaf."

Gen 37:8 His brothers said to him, "Are you indeed to reign over us? Or are you indeed to have dominion over us?" So they hated him yet more for his dreams and for his words.

Gen 37:9 Then he dreamed another dream, and told it to his brothers, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed another dream; and behold, the sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me."

Gen 37:10 But when he told it to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him, and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow ourselves to the ground before you?"

Gen 37:11 And his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the saying in mind.

Gen 37:12 Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem.

Gen 37:13 And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Here I am."

Gen 37:14 So he said to him, "Go now, see if it is well with your brothers, and with the flock; and bring me word again." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

Gen 37:15 And a man found him wandering in the fields; and the man asked him, "What are you seeking?"

Gen 37:16 "I am seeking my brothers," he said, "tell me, I pray you, where they are pasturing the flock."

Gen 37:17 And the man said, "They have gone away, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan.

Gen 37:18 They saw him afar off, and before he came near to them they conspired against him to kill him.

Gen 37:19 They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer.

Gen 37:20 Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild beast has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams."

Gen 37:21 But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life."

Gen 37:22 And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; cast him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand upon him" -- that he might rescue him out of their hand, to restore him to his father.

Gen 37:23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore;

Gen 37:24 and they took him and cast him into a pit. The pit was empty, there was no water in it.

Gen 37:25 Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing gum, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry it down to Egypt.

Gen 37:26 Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we slay our brother and conceal his blood?"

Gen 37:27 Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers heeded him.

Gen 37:28 Then Midianite traders passed by; and they drew Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver; and they took Joseph to Egypt.

Gen 37:29 When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he rent his clothes

Gen 37:30 and returned to his brothers, and said, "The lad is gone; and I, where shall I go?"

Gen 37:31 Then they took Joseph's robe, and killed a goat, and dipped the robe in the blood;

Gen 37:32 and they sent the long robe with sleeves and brought it to their father, and said, "This we have found; see now whether it is your son's robe or not."

Gen 37:33 And he recognized it, and said, "It is my son's robe; a wild beast has devoured him; Joseph is without doubt torn to pieces."

Gen 37:34 Then Jacob rent his garments, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

Gen 37:35 All his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and said, "No, I shall go down to Sheol to my son, mourning." Thus his father wept for him.

Gen 37:36 Meanwhile the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard.

Gen 38:1 It happened at that time that Judah went down from his brothers, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

Gen 38:2 There Judah saw the daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua; he married her and went in to her,

Gen 38:3 and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er.

Gen 38:4 Again she conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.

Gen 38:5 Yet again she bore a son, and she called his name Shelah. She was in Chezib when she bore him.

Gen 38:6 And Judah took a wife for Er his first-born, and her name was Tamar.

Gen 38:7 But Er, Judah's first-born, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

Gen 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up offspring for your brother."

Gen 38:9 But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so when he went in to his brother's wife he spilled the semen on the ground, lest he should give offspring to his brother.

Gen 38:10 And what he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD, and he slew him also.

Gen 38:11 Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house, till Shelah my son grows up" -- for he feared that he would die, like his brothers. So Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

Gen 38:12 In course of time the wife of Judah, Shua's daughter, died; and when Judah was comforted, he went up to Timnah to his sheepshearers, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

Gen 38:13 And when Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep,"

Gen 38:14 she put off her widow's garments, and put on a veil, wrapping herself up, and sat at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown up, and she had not been given to him in marriage.

Gen 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a harlot, for she had covered her face.

Gen 38:16 He went over to her at the road side, and said, "Come, let me come in to you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. She said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"

Gen 38:17 He answered, "I will send you a kid from the flock." And she said, "Will you give me a pledge, till you send it?"

Gen 38:18 He said, "What pledge shall I give you?" She replied, "Your signet and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand." So he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

Gen 38:19 Then she arose and went away, and taking off her veil she put on the garments of her widowhood.

Gen 38:20 When Judah sent the kid by his friend the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand, he could not find her.

Gen 38:21 And he asked the men of the place, "Where is the harlot who was at Enaim by the wayside?" And they said, "No harlot has been here."

Gen 38:22 So he returned to Judah, and said, "I have not found her; and also the men of the place said, 'No harlot has been here.'"

Gen 38:23 And Judah replied, "Let her keep the things as her own, lest we be laughed at; you see, I sent this kid, and you could not find her."

Gen 38:24 About three months later Judah was told, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot; and moreover she is with child by harlotry." And Judah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burned."

Gen 38:25 As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, "By the man to whom these belong, I am with child." And she said, "Mark, I pray you, whose these are, the signet and the cord and the staff."

Gen 38:26 Then Judah acknowledged them and said, "She is more righteous than I, inasmuch as I did not give her to my son Shelah." And he did not lie with her again.

Gen 38:27 When the time of her delivery came, there were twins in her womb.

Gen 38:28 And when she was in labor, one put out a hand; and the midwife took and bound on his hand a scarlet thread, saying, "This came out first."

Gen 38:29 But as he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out; and she said, "What a breach you have made for yourself!" Therefore his name was called Perez.

Gen 38:30 Afterward his brother came out with the scarlet thread upon his hand; and his name was called Zerah.

Gen 39:1 Now Joseph was taken down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there.

Gen 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian,

Gen 39:3 and his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD caused all that he did to prosper in his hands.

Gen 39:4 So Joseph found favor in his sight and attended him, and he made him overseer of his house and put him in charge of all that he had.

Gen 39:5 From the time that he made him overseer in his house and over all that he had the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had, in house and field.

Gen 39:6 So he left all that he had in Joseph's charge; and having him he had no concern for anything but the food which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome and good-looking.

Gen 39:7 And after a time his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and said, "Lie with me."
Gen 39:8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Lo, having me my master has no concern about anything in the house, and he has put everything that he has in my hand;
Gen 39:9 he is not greater in this house than I am; nor has he kept back anything from me except yourself, because you are his wife; how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?"
Gen 39:10 And although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not listen to her, to lie with her or to be with her.
Gen 39:11 But one day, when he went into the house to do his work and none of the men of the house was there in the house,
Gen 39:12 she caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me." But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and got out of the house.
Gen 39:13 And when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and had fled out of the house,
Gen 39:14 she called to the men of her household and said to them, "See, he has brought among us a Hebrew to insult us; he came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice;
Gen 39:15 and when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled and got out of the house."
Gen 39:16 Then she laid up his garment by her until his master came home,
Gen 39:17 and she told him the same story, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought among us, came in to me to insult me;
Gen 39:18 but as soon as I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out of the house."
Gen 39:19 When his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, "This is the way your servant treated me," his anger was kindled.
Gen 39:20 And Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined, and he was there in prison.
Gen 39:21 But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him steadfast love, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
Gen 39:22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's care all the prisoners who were in the prison; and whatever was done there, he was the doer of it;
Gen 39:23 the keeper of the prison paid no heed to anything that was in Joseph's care, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.
Gen 40:1 Some time after this, the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord the king of Egypt.
Gen 40:2 And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief butler and the chief baker,
Gen 40:3 and he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison where Joseph was confined.
Gen 40:4 The captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he waited on them; and they continued for some time in custody.
Gen 40:5 And one night they both dreamed -- the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison -- each his own dream, and each dream with its own meaning.
Gen 40:6 When Joseph came to them in the morning and saw them, they were troubled.
Gen 40:7 So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in custody in his master's house, "Why are your faces downcast today?"
Gen 40:8 They said to him, "We have had dreams, and there is no one to interpret them." And Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell them to me, I pray you."
Gen 40:9 So the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In my dream there was a vine before me,
Gen 40:10 and on the vine there were three branches; as soon as it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and the clusters ripened into grapes.
Gen 40:11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."
Gen 40:12 Then Joseph said to him, "This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days;
Gen 40:13 within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office; and you shall place Pharaoh's cup in his hand as formerly, when you were his butler.
Gen 40:14 But remember me, when it is well with you, and do me the kindness, I pray you, to make mention of me to Pharaoh, and so get me out of this house.
Gen 40:15 For I was indeed stolen out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also I have done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon."
Gen 40:16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I also had a dream: there were three cake baskets on my head,
Gen 40:17 and in the uppermost basket there were all sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating it out of the basket on my head."

Gen 40:18 And Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days;

Gen 40:19 within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head -- from you! -- and hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat the flesh from you."

Gen 40:20 On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he made a feast for all his servants, and lifted up the head of the chief butler and the head of the chief baker among his servants.

Gen 40:21 He restored the chief butler to his butlership, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand;

Gen 40:22 but he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.

Gen 40:23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Gen 41:1 After two whole years, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing by the Nile,

Gen 41:2 and behold, there came up out of the Nile seven cows sleek and fat, and they fed in the reed grass.

Gen 41:3 And behold, seven other cows, gaunt and thin, came up out of the Nile after them, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile.

Gen 41:4 And the gaunt and thin cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows. And Pharaoh awoke.

Gen 41:5 And he fell asleep and dreamed a second time; and behold, seven ears of grain, plump and good, were growing on one stalk.

Gen 41:6 And behold, after them sprouted seven ears, thin and blighted by the east wind.

Gen 41:7 And the thin ears swallowed up the seven plump and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.

Gen 41:8 So in the morning his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men; and Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was none who could interpret it to Pharaoh.

Gen 41:9 Then the chief butler said to Pharaoh, "I remember my faults today.

Gen 41:10 When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me and the chief baker in custody in the house of the captain of the guard,

Gen 41:11 we dreamed on the same night, he and I, each having a dream with its own meaning.

Gen 41:12 A young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard; and when we told him, he interpreted our dreams to us, giving an interpretation to each man according to his dream.

Gen 41:13 And as he interpreted to us, so it came to pass; I was restored to my office, and the baker was hanged."

Gen 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon; and when he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came in before Pharaoh.

Gen 41:15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it; and I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

Gen 41:16 Joseph answered Pharaoh, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer."

Gen 41:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Behold, in my dream I was standing on the banks of the Nile;

Gen 41:18 and seven cows, fat and sleek, came up out of the Nile and fed in the reed grass;

Gen 41:19 and seven other cows came up after them, poor and very gaunt and thin, such as I had never seen in all the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:20 And the thin and gaunt cows ate up the first seven fat cows,

Gen 41:21 but when they had eaten them no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were still as gaunt as at the beginning. Then I awoke.

Gen 41:22 I also saw in my dream seven ears growing on one stalk, full and good;

Gen 41:23 and seven ears, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprouted after them,

Gen 41:24 and the thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. And I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

Gen 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dream of Pharaoh is one; God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Gen 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the dream is one.

Gen 41:27 The seven lean and gaunt cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears blighted by the east wind are also seven years of famine.

Gen 41:28 It is as I told Pharaoh, God has shown to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Gen 41:29 There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt,

Gen 41:30 but after them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the land,

Gen 41:31 and the plenty will be unknown in the land by reason of that famine which will follow, for it will be very grievous.

Gen 41:32 And the doubling of Pharaoh's dream means that the thing is fixed by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

Gen 41:33 Now therefore let Pharaoh select a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:34 Let Pharaoh proceed to appoint overseers over the land, and take the fifth part of the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven plenteous years.

Gen 41:35 And let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and lay up grain under the authority of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them keep it.

Gen 41:36 That food shall be a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine which are to befall the land of Egypt, so that the land may not perish through the famine."

Gen 41:37 This proposal seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his servants.

Gen 41:38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a man as this, in whom is the Spirit of God?"

Gen 41:39 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown you all this, there is none so discreet and wise as you are;

Gen 41:40 you shall be over my house, and all my people shall order themselves as you command; only as regards the throne will I be greater than you."

Gen 41:41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."

Gen 41:42 Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in garments of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck;

Gen 41:43 and he made him to ride in his second chariot; and they cried before him, "Bow the knee!" Thus he set him over all the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:44 Moreover Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no man shall lift up hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."

Gen 41:45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenathpaneah; and he gave him in marriage Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On. So Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went through all the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:47 During the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth abundantly,

Gen 41:48 and he gathered up all the food of the seven years when there was plenty in the land of Egypt, and stored up food in the cities; he stored up in every city the food from the fields around it.

Gen 41:49 And Joseph stored up grain in great abundance, like the sand of the sea, until he ceased to measure it, for it could not be measured.

Gen 41:50 Before the year of famine came, Joseph had two sons, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him.

Gen 41:51 Joseph called the name of the first-born Manasseh, "For," he said, "God has made me forget all my hardship and all my father's house."

Gen 41:52 The name of the second he called Ephraim, "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

Gen 41:53 The seven years of plenty that prevailed in the land of Egypt came to an end;

Gen 41:54 and the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

Gen 41:55 When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do."

Gen 41:56 So when the famine had spread over all the land, Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:57 Moreover, all the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was severe over all the earth.

Gen 42:1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?"

Gen 42:2 And he said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live, and not die."

Gen 42:3 So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt.

Gen 42:4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he feared that harm might befall him.

Gen 42:5 Thus the sons of Israel came to buy among the others who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

Gen 42:6 Now Joseph was governor over the land; he it was who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came, and bowed themselves before him with their faces to the ground.

Gen 42:7 Joseph saw his brothers, and knew them, but he treated them like strangers and spoke roughly to them. "Where do you come from?" he said. They said, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food."

Gen 42:8 Thus Joseph knew his brothers, but they did not know him.

Gen 42:9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed of them; and he said to them, "You are spies, you have come to see the weakness of the land."

Gen 42:10 They said to him, "No, my lord, but to buy food have your servants come.
Gen 42:11 We are all sons of one man, we are honest men, your servants are not spies."
Gen 42:12 He said to them, "No, it is the weakness of the land that you have come to see."
Gen 42:13 And they said, "We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is no more."
Gen 42:14 But Joseph said to them, "It is as I said to you, you are spies.
Gen 42:15 By this you shall be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go from this place unless your youngest brother comes here.
Gen 42:16 Send one of you, and let him bring your brother, while you remain in prison, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies."
Gen 42:17 And he put them all together in prison for three days.
Gen 42:18 On the third day Joseph said to them, "Do this and you will live, for I fear God:
Gen 42:19 if you are honest men, let one of your brothers remain confined in your prison, and let the rest go and carry grain for the famine of your households,
Gen 42:20 and bring your youngest brother to me; so your words will be verified, and you shall not die." And they did so.
Gen 42:21 Then they said to one another, "In truth we are guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul, when he besought us and we would not listen; therefore is this distress come upon us."
Gen 42:22 And Reuben answered them, "Did I not tell you not to sin against the lad? But you would not listen. So now there comes a reckoning for his blood."
Gen 42:23 They did not know that Joseph understood them, for there was an interpreter between them.
Gen 42:24 Then he turned away from them and wept; and he returned to them and spoke to them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.
Gen 42:25 And Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, and to replace every man's money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. This was done for them.
Gen 42:26 Then they loaded their asses with their grain, and departed.
Gen 42:27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender at the lodging place, he saw his money in the mouth of his sack;
Gen 42:28 and he said to his brothers, "My money has been put back; here it is in the mouth of my sack!" At this their hearts failed them, and they turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"
Gen 42:29 When they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had befallen them, saying,
Gen 42:30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us, and took us to be spies of the land.
Gen 42:31 But we said to him, 'We are honest men, we are not spies;
Gen 42:32 we are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.'
Gen 42:33 Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I shall know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain for the famine of your households, and go your way.
Gen 42:34 Bring your youngest brother to me; then I shall know that you are not spies but honest men, and I will deliver to you your brother, and you shall trade in the land.'"
Gen 42:35 As they emptied their sacks, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were dismayed.
Gen 42:36 And Jacob their father said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and now you would take Benjamin; all this has come upon me."
Gen 42:37 Then Reuben said to his father, "Slay my two sons if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you."
Gen 42:38 But he said, "My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he only is left. If harm should befall him on the journey that you are to make, you would bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol."
Gen 43:1 Now the famine was severe in the land.
Gen 43:2 And when they had eaten the grain which they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again, buy us a little food."
Gen 43:3 But Judah said to him, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.'
Gen 43:4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food;
Gen 43:5 but if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.'"
Gen 43:6 Israel said, "Why did you treat me so ill as to tell the man that you had another brother?"

Gen 43:7 They replied, "The man questioned us carefully about ourselves and our kindred, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' What we told him was in answer to these questions; could we in any way know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?"

Gen 43:8 And Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones.

Gen 43:9 I will be surety for him; of my hand you shall require him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame for ever;

Gen 43:10 for if we had not delayed, we would now have returned twice."

Gen 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: take some of the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry down to the man a present, a little balm and a little honey, gum, myrrh, pistachio nuts, and almonds.

Gen 43:12 Take double the money with you; carry back with you the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight.

Gen 43:13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man;

Gen 43:14 may God Almighty grant you mercy before the man, that he may send back your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."

Gen 43:15 So the men took the present, and they took double the money with them, and Benjamin; and they arose and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

Gen 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make ready, for the men are to dine with me at noon."

Gen 43:17 The man did as Joseph bade him, and brought the men to Joseph's house.

Gen 43:18 And the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house, and they said, "It is because of the money, which was replaced in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may seek occasion against us and fall upon us, to make slaves of us and seize our asses."

Gen 43:19 So they went up to the steward of Joseph's house, and spoke with him at the door of the house,

Gen 43:20 and said, "Oh, my lord, we came down the first time to buy food;

Gen 43:21 and when we came to the lodging place we opened our sacks, and there was every man's money in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it again with us,

Gen 43:22 and we have brought other money down in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks."

Gen 43:23 He replied, "Rest assured, do not be afraid; your God and the God of your father must have put treasure in your sacks for you; I received your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Gen 43:24 And when the man had brought the men into Joseph's house, and given them water, and they had washed their feet, and when he had given their asses provender,

Gen 43:25 they made ready the present for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.

Gen 43:26 When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present which they had with them, and bowed down to him to the ground.

Gen 43:27 And he inquired about their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

Gen 43:28 They said, "Your servant our father is well, he is still alive." And they bowed their heads and made obeisance.

Gen 43:29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? God be gracious to you, my son!"

Gen 43:30 Then Joseph made haste, for his heart yearned for his brother, and he sought a place to weep. And he entered his chamber and wept there.

Gen 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out; and controlling himself he said, "Let food be served."

Gen 43:32 They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

Gen 43:33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked at one another in amazement.

Gen 43:34 Portions were taken to them from Joseph's table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Gen 44:1 Then he commanded the steward of his house, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack, Gen 44:2 and put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, with his money for the grain." And he did as Joseph told him.

Gen 44:3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away with their asses.

Gen 44:4 When they had gone but a short distance from the city, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, `Why have you returned evil for good? Why have you stolen my silver cup?"

Gen 44:5 Is it not from this that my lord drinks, and by this that he divines? You have done wrong in so doing."

Gen 44:6 When he overtook them, he spoke to them these words.

Gen 44:7 They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing!

Gen 44:8 Behold, the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan; how then should we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?"

Gen 44:9 With whomever of your servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's slaves."

Gen 44:10 He said, "Let it be as you say: he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and the rest of you shall be blameless."

Gen 44:11 Then every man quickly lowered his sack to the ground, and every man opened his sack.

Gen 44:12 And he searched, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Gen 44:13 Then they rent their clothes, and every man loaded his ass, and they returned to the city.

Gen 44:14 When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there; and they fell before him to the ground.

Gen 44:15 Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can indeed divine?"

Gen 44:16 And Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how can we clear ourselves? God has found out the guilt of your servants; behold, we are my lord's slaves, both we and he also in whose hand the cup has been found."

Gen 44:17 But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so! Only the man in whose hand the cup was found shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

Gen 44:18 Then Judah went up to him and said, "O my lord, let your servant, I pray you, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not your anger burn against your servant; for you are like Pharaoh himself.

Gen 44:19 My lord asked his servants, saying, `Have you a father, or a brother?'

Gen 44:20 And we said to my lord, `We have a father, an old man, and a young brother, the child of his old age; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's children; and his father loves him.'

Gen 44:21 Then you said to your servants, `Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes upon him.'

Gen 44:22 We said to my lord, `The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.'

Gen 44:23 Then you said to your servants, `Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.'

Gen 44:24 When we went back to your servant my father we told him the words of my lord.

Gen 44:25 And when our father said, `Go again, buy us a little food,'

Gen 44:26 we said, `We cannot go down. If our youngest brother goes with us, then we will go down; for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.'

Gen 44:27 Then your servant my father said to us, `You know that my wife bore me two sons;

Gen 44:28 one left me, and I said, Surely he has been torn to pieces; and I have never seen him since.

Gen 44:29 If you take this one also from me, and harm befalls him, you will bring down my gray hairs in sorrow to Sheol.'

Gen 44:30 Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, then, as his life is bound up in the lad's life,

Gen 44:31 when he sees that the lad is not with us, he will die; and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol.

Gen 44:32 For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, `If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall bear the blame in the sight of my father all my life.'

Gen 44:33 Now therefore, let your servant, I pray you, remain instead of the lad as a slave to my lord; and let the lad go back with his brothers.

Gen 44:34 For how can I go back to my father if the lad is not with me? I fear to see the evil that would come upon my father."

Gen 45:1 Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him; and he cried, "Make every one go out from me." So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

Gen 45:2 And he wept aloud, so that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it.

Gen 45:3 And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph; is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed at his presence.

Gen 45:4 So Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, I pray you." And they came near. And he said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.

Gen 45:5 And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life.

Gen 45:6 For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are yet five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

Gen 45:7 And God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors.

Gen 45:8 So it was not you who sent me here, but God; and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Gen 45:9 Make haste and go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry;

Gen 45:10 you shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, and your flocks, your herds, and all that you have;

Gen 45:11 and there I will provide for you, for there are yet five years of famine to come; lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty.'

Gen 45:12 And now your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see, that it is my mouth that speaks to you.

Gen 45:13 You must tell my father of all my splendor in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. Make haste and bring my father down here."

Gen 45:14 Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

Gen 45:15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Gen 45:16 When the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, "Joseph's brothers have come," it pleased Pharaoh and his servants well.

Gen 45:17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: load your beasts and go back to the land of Canaan;

Gen 45:18 and take your father and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat the fat of the land.'

Gen 45:19 Command them also, 'Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

Gen 45:20 Give no thought to your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours."

Gen 45:21 The sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.

Gen 45:22 To each and all of them he gave festal garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels of silver and five festal garments.

Gen 45:23 To his father he sent as follows: ten asses loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses loaded with grain, bread, and provision for his father on the journey.

Gen 45:24 Then he sent his brothers away, and as they departed, he said to them, "Do not quarrel on the way."

Gen 45:25 So they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to their father Jacob.

Gen 45:26 And they told him, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." And his heart fainted, for he did not believe them.

Gen 45:27 But when they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them, and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived;

Gen 45:28 and Israel said, "It is enough; Joseph my son is still alive; I will go and see him before I die."

Gen 46:1 So Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Gen 46:2 And God spoke to Israel in visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here am I."

Gen 46:3 Then he said, "I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt; for I will there make of you a great nation.

Gen 46:4 I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you up again; and Joseph's hand shall close your eyes."

Gen 46:5 Then Jacob set out from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

Gen 46:6 They also took their cattle and their goods, which they had gained in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him,

Gen 46:7 his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters; all his offspring he brought with him into Egypt.

Gen 46:8 Now these are the names of the descendants of Israel, who came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons. Reuben, Jacob's first-born,

Gen 46:9 and the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

Gen 46:10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanitish woman.

Gen 46:11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Gen 46:12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan); and the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

Gen 46:13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Iob, and Shimron.

Gen 46:14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel

Gen 46:15 (these are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddanaram, together with his daughter Dinah; altogether his sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three).

Gen 46:16 The sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

Gen 46:17 The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, with Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel

Gen 46:18 (these are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and these she bore to Jacob -- sixteen persons).

Gen 46:19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 46:20 And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphara the priest of On, bore to him.

Gen 46:21 And the sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard

Gen 46:22 (these are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob -- fourteen persons in all).

Gen 46:23 The sons of Dan: Hushim.

Gen 46:24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem

Gen 46:25 (these are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and these she bore to Jacob -- seven persons in all).

Gen 46:26 All the persons belonging to Jacob who came into Egypt, who were his own offspring, not including Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-six persons in all;

Gen 46:27 and the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two; all the persons of the house of Jacob, that came into Egypt, were seventy.

Gen 46:28 He sent Judah before him to Joseph, to appear before him in Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

Gen 46:29 Then Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen; and he presented himself to him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

Gen 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face and know that you are still alive."

Gen 46:31 Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me;

Gen 46:32 and the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.'

Gen 46:33 When Pharaoh calls you, and says, 'What is your occupation?'

Gen 46:34 you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of cattle from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers,' in order that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

Gen 47:1 So Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks and herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; they are now in the land of Goshen."

Gen 47:2 And from among his brothers he took five men and presented them to Pharaoh.

Gen 47:3 Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, as our fathers were."

Gen 47:4 They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land; for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan; and now, we pray you, let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

Gen 47:5 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.

Gen 47:6 The land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen; and if you know any able men among them, put them in charge of my cattle."

Gen 47:7 Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

Gen 47:8 And Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many are the days of the years of your life?"

Gen 47:9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my sojourning are a hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their sojourning."

Gen 47:10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.

Gen 47:11 Then Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

Gen 47:12 And Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with food, according to the number of their dependents.

Gen 47:13 Now there was no food in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished by reason of the famine.

Gen 47:14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

Gen 47:15 And when the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, "Give us food; why should we die before your eyes? For our money is gone."

Gen 47:16 And Joseph answered, "Give your cattle, and I will give you food in exchange for your cattle, if your money is gone."

Gen 47:17 So they brought their cattle to Joseph; and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the herds, and the asses: and he supplied them with food in exchange for all their cattle that year.

Gen 47:18 And when that year was ended, they came to him the following year, and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is all spent; and the herds of cattle are my lord's; there is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

Gen 47:19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we with our land will be slaves to Pharaoh; and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land may not be desolate."

Gen 47:20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for all the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine was severe upon them. The land became Pharaoh's;

Gen 47:21 and as for the people, he made slaves of them from one end of Egypt to the other.

Gen 47:22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had a fixed allowance from Pharaoh, and lived on the allowance which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their land.

Gen 47:23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Now here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

Gen 47:24 And at the harvests you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and as food for yourselves and your households, and as food for your little ones."

Gen 47:25 And they said, "You have saved our lives; may it please my lord, we will be slaves to Pharaoh."

Gen 47:26 So Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt, and it stands to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth; the land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh's.

Gen 47:27 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they gained possessions in it, and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.

Gen 47:28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; so the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were a hundred and forty-seven years.

Gen 47:29 And when the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, put your hand under my thigh, and promise to deal loyally and truly with me. Do not bury me in Egypt, Gen 47:30 but let me lie with my fathers; carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burying place." He answered, "I will do as you have said."

Gen 47:31 And he said, "Swear to me"; and he swore to him. Then Israel bowed himself upon the head of his bed.

Gen 48:1 After this Joseph was told, "Behold, your father is ill"; so he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

Gen 48:2 And it was told to Jacob, "Your son Joseph has come to you"; then Israel summoned his strength, and sat up in bed.

Gen 48:3 And Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me,

Gen 48:4 and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession.'

Gen 48:5 And now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are.

Gen 48:6 And the offspring born to you after them shall be yours; they shall be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.

Gen 48:7 For when I came from Paddan, Rachel to my sorrow died in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)."

Gen 48:8 When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, "Who are these?"

Gen 48:9 Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." And he said, "Bring them to me, I pray you, that I may bless them."

Gen 48:10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. So Joseph brought them near him; and he kissed them and embraced them.

Gen 48:11 And Israel said to Joseph, "I had not thought to see your face; and lo, God has let me see your children also."

Gen 48:12 Then Joseph removed them from his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

Gen 48:13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near him.

Gen 48:14 And Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it upon the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand upon the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands, for Manasseh was the first-born.

Gen 48:15 And he blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has led me all my life long to this day,

Gen 48:16 the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and in them let my name be perpetuated, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

Gen 48:17 When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; and he took his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.

Gen 48:18 And Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father; for this one is the first-born; put your right hand upon his head."

Gen 48:19 But his father refused, and said, "I know, my son, I know; he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; nevertheless his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations."

Gen 48:20 So he blessed them that day, saying, "By you Israel will pronounce blessings, saying, 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh'; and thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

Gen 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and will bring you again to the land of your fathers.

Gen 48:22 Moreover I have given to you rather than to your brothers one mountain slope which I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow."

Gen 49:1 Then Jacob called his sons, and said, "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in days to come.

Gen 49:2 Assemble and hear, O sons of Jacob, and hearken to Israel your father.

Gen 49:3 Reuben, you are my first-born, my might, and the first fruits of my strength, pre-eminent in pride and pre-eminent in power.

Gen 49:4 Unstable as water, you shall not have pre-eminence because you went up to your father's bed; then you defiled it -- you went up to my couch!

Gen 49:5 Simeon and Levi are brothers; weapons of violence are their swords.

Gen 49:6 O my soul, come not into their council; O my spirit, be not joined to their company; for in their anger they slay men, and in their wantonness they hamstring oxen.

Gen 49:7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce; and their wrath, for it is cruel! I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

Gen 49:8 Judah, your brothers shall praise you; your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons shall bow down before you.

Gen 49:9 Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as a lioness; who dares rouse him up?

Gen 49:10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs; and to him shall be the obedience of the peoples.

Gen 49:11 Binding his foal to the vine and his ass's colt to the choice vine, he washes his garments in wine and his vesture in the blood of grapes;

Gen 49:12 his eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

Gen 49:13 Zebulun shall dwell at the shore of the sea; he shall become a haven for ships, and his border shall be at Sidon.

Gen 49:14 Issachar is a strong ass, crouching between the sheepfolds;

Gen 49:15 he saw that a resting place was good, and that the land was pleasant; so he bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a slave at forced labor.

Gen 49:16 Dan shall judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

Gen 49:17 Dan shall be a serpent in the way, a viper by the path, that bites the horse's heels so that his rider falls backward.

Gen 49:18 I wait for thy salvation, O LORD.

Gen 49:19 Raiders shall raid Gad, but he shall raid at their heels.

Gen 49:20 Asher's food shall be rich, and he shall yield royal dainties.

Gen 49:21 Naphtali is a hind let loose, that bears comely fawns.
Gen 49:22 Joseph is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a spring; his branches run over the wall.
Gen 49:23 The archers fiercely attacked him, shot at him, and harassed him sorely;
Gen 49:24 yet his bow remained unmoved, his arms were made agile by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob (by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel),
Gen 49:25 by the God of your father who will help you, by God Almighty who will bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that couches beneath, blessings of the breasts and of the womb.
Gen 49:26 The blessings of your father are mighty beyond the blessings of the eternal mountains, the bounties of the everlasting hills; may they be on the head of Joseph, and on the brow of him who was separate from his brothers.
Gen 49:27 Benjamin is a ravenous wolf, in the morning devouring the prey, and at even dividing the spoil."
Gen 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel; and this is what their father said to them as he blessed them, blessing each with the blessing suitable to him.
Gen 49:29 Then he charged them, and said to them, "I am to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,
Gen 49:30 in the cave that is in the field at Machpelah, to the east of Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite to possess as a burying place.
Gen 49:31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah --
Gen 49:32 the field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the Hittites."
Gen 49:33 When Jacob finished charging his sons, he drew up his feet into the bed, and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.
Gen 50:1 Then Joseph fell on his father's face, and wept over him, and kissed him.
Gen 50:2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel;
Gen 50:3 forty days were required for it, for so many are required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.
Gen 50:4 And when the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,
Gen 50:5 My father made me swear, saying, 'I am about to die: in my tomb which I hewed out for myself in the land of Canaan, there shall you bury me.' Now therefore let me go up, I pray you, and bury my father; then I will return."
Gen 50:6 And Pharaoh answered, "Go up, and bury your father, as he made you swear."
Gen 50:7 So Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
Gen 50:8 as well as all the household of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's household; only their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen.
Gen 50:9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen; it was a very great company.
Gen 50:10 When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they lamented there with a very great and sorrowful lamentation; and he made a mourning for his father seven days.
Gen 50:11 When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning on the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians." Therefore the place was named Abelmizraim; it is beyond the Jordan.
Gen 50:12 Thus his sons did for him as he had commanded them;
Gen 50:13 for his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field at Machpelah, to the east of Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite, to possess as a burying place.
Gen 50:14 After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.
Gen 50:15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us and pay us back for all the evil which we did to him."
Gen 50:16 So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died,
Gen 50:17 'Say to Joseph, Forgive, I pray you, the transgression of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you.' And now, we pray you, forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him.
Gen 50:18 His brothers also came and fell down before him, and said, "Behold, we are your servants."
Gen 50:19 But Joseph said to them, "Fear not, for am I in the place of God?
Gen 50:20 As for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today.

Gen 50:21 So do not fear; I will provide for you and your little ones." Thus he reassured them and comforted them.

Gen 50:22 So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father's house; and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.

Gen 50:23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation; the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were born upon Joseph's knees.

Gen 50:24 And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die; but God will visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

Gen 50:25 Then Joseph took an oath of the sons of Israel, saying, "God will visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here."

Gen 50:26 So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exo 1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob, each with his household:

Exo 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

Exo 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

Exo 1:4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

Exo 1:5 All the offspring of Jacob were seventy persons; Joseph was already in Egypt.

Exo 1:6 Then Joseph died, and all his brothers, and all that generation.

Exo 1:7 But the descendants of Israel were fruitful and increased greatly; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong; so that the land was filled with them.

Exo 1:8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.

Exo 1:9 And he said to his people, "Behold, the people of Israel are too many and too mighty for us.

Exo 1:10 Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, lest they multiply, and, if war befall us, they join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land."

Exo 1:11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with heavy burdens; and they built for Pharaoh store-cities, Pithom and Raamses.

Exo 1:12 But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and the more they spread abroad. And the Egyptians were in dread of the people of Israel.

Exo 1:13 So they made the people of Israel serve with rigor,

Exo 1:14 and made their lives bitter with hard service, in mortar and brick, and in all kinds of work in the field; in all their work they made them serve with rigor.

Exo 1:15 Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah,

Exo 1:16 "When you serve as midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, she shall live."

Exo 1:17 But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live.

Exo 1:18 So the king of Egypt called the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this, and let the male children live?"

Exo 1:19 The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and are delivered before the midwife comes to them."

Exo 1:20 So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and grew very strong.

Exo 1:21 And because the midwives feared God he gave them families.

Exo 1:22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, "Every son that is born to the Hebrews you shall cast into the Nile, but you shall let every daughter live."

Exo 2:1 Now a man from the house of Levi went and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

Exo 2:2 The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

Exo 2:3 And when she could hide him no longer she took for him a basket made of bulrushes, and daubed it with bitumen and pitch; and she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds at the river's brink.

Exo 2:4 And his sister stood at a distance, to know what would be done to him.

Exo 2:5 Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, and her maidens walked beside the river; she saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to fetch it.

Exo 2:6 When she opened it she saw the child; and lo, the babe was crying. She took pity on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

Exo 2:7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?"

Exo 2:8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." So the girl went and called the child's mother.

Exo 2:9 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.

Exo 2:10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son; and she named him Moses, for she said, "Because I drew him out of the water."

Exo 2:11 One day, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and looked on their burdens; and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his people.

Exo 2:12 He looked this way and that, and seeing no one he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exo 2:13 When he went out the next day, behold, two Hebrews were struggling together; and he said to the man that did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?"

Exo 2:14 He answered, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid, and thought, "Surely the thing is known."

Exo 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh, and stayed in the land of Midian; and he sat down by a well.

Exo 2:16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters; and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

Exo 2:17 The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

Exo 2:18 When they came to their father Reuel, he said, "How is it that you have come so soon today?"

Exo 2:19 They said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and even drew water for us and watered the flock."

Exo 2:20 He said to his daughters, "And where is he? Why have you left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread."

Exo 2:21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah.

Exo 2:22 She bore a son, and he called his name Gershom; for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land."

Exo 2:23 In the course of those many days the king of Egypt died. And the people of Israel groaned under their bondage, and cried out for help, and their cry under bondage came up to God.

Exo 2:24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

Exo 2:25 And God saw the people of Israel, and God knew their condition.

Exo 3:1 Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian; and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exo 3:2 And the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and lo, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed.

Exo 3:3 And Moses said, "I will turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."

Exo 3:4 When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here am I."

Exo 3:5 Then he said, "Do not come near; put off your shoes from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground."

Exo 3:6 And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Exo 3:7 Then the LORD said, "I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters; I know their sufferings,

Exo 3:8 and I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exo 3:9 And now, behold, the cry of the people of Israel has come to me, and I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.

Exo 3:10 Come, I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring forth my people, the sons of Israel, out of Egypt."

Exo 3:11 But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?"

Exo 3:12 He said, "But I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you, that I have sent you: when you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God upon this mountain."

Exo 3:13 Then Moses said to God, "If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?"

Exo 3:14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And he said, "Say this to the people of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

Exo 3:15 God also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': this is my name for ever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations.

Exo 3:16 Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, "I have observed you and what has been done to you in Egypt;

Exo 3:17 and I promise that I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey."

Exo 3:18 And they will hearken to your voice; and you and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and say to him, `The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us; and now, we pray you, let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.'

Exo 3:19 I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless compelled by a mighty hand.

Exo 3:20 So I will stretch out my hand and smite Egypt with all the wonders which I will do in it; after that he will let you go.

Exo 3:21 And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and when you go, you shall not go empty,

Exo 3:22 but each woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her who sojourns in her house, jewelry of silver and of gold, and clothing, and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters; thus you shall despoil the Egyptians."

Exo 4:1 Then Moses answered, "But behold, they will not believe me or listen to my voice, for they will say, `The LORD did not appear to you.'"

Exo 4:2 The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A rod."

Exo 4:3 And he said, "Cast it on the ground." So he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.

Exo 4:4 But the LORD said to Moses, "Put out your hand, and take it by the tail" -- so he put out his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand --

Exo 4:5 "that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

Exo 4:6 Again, the LORD said to him, "Put your hand into your bosom." And he put his hand into his bosom; and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.

Exo 4:7 Then God said, "Put your hand back into your bosom." So he put his hand back into his bosom; and when he took it out, behold, it was restored like the rest of his flesh.

Exo 4:8 "If they will not believe you," God said, "or heed the first sign, they may believe the latter sign.

Exo 4:9 If they will not believe even these two signs or heed your voice, you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it upon the dry ground; and the water which you shall take from the Nile will become blood upon the dry ground."

Exo 4:10 But Moses said to the LORD, "Oh, my Lord, I am not eloquent, either heretofore or since thou hast spoken to thy servant; but I am slow of speech and of tongue."

Exo 4:11 Then the LORD said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Who makes him dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?"

Exo 4:12 Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall speak."

Exo 4:13 But he said, "Oh, my Lord, send, I pray, some other person."

Exo 4:14 Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses and he said, "Is there not Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well; and behold, he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you he will be glad in his heart.

Exo 4:15 And you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do.

Exo 4:16 He shall speak for you to the people; and he shall be a mouth for you, and you shall be to him as God.

Exo 4:17 And you shall take in your hand this rod, with which you shall do the signs."

Exo 4:18 Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, "Let me go back, I pray, to my kinsmen in Egypt and see whether they are still alive." And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

Exo 4:19 And the LORD said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt; for all the men who were seeking your life are dead."

Exo 4:20 So Moses took his wife and his sons and set them on an ass, and went back to the land of Egypt; and in his hand Moses took the rod of God.

Exo 4:21 And the LORD said to Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the miracles which I have put in your power; but I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.

Exo 4:22 And you shall say to Pharaoh, `Thus says the LORD, Israel is my first-born son,

Exo 4:23 and I say to you, "Let my son go that he may serve me"; if you refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay your first-born son."

Exo 4:24 At a lodging place on the way the LORD met him and sought to kill him.

Exo 4:25 Then Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin, and touched Moses' feet with it, and said, "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me!"

Exo 4:26 So he let him alone. Then it was that she said, "You are a bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.

Exo 4:27 The LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he went, and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exo 4:28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which he had sent him, and all the signs which he had charged him to do.

Exo 4:29 Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the people of Israel.

Exo 4:30 And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

Exo 4:31 And the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had visited the people of Israel and that he had seen their affliction, they bowed their heads and worshiped.

Exo 5:1 Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.'"

Exo 5:2 But Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should heed his voice and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and moreover I will not let Israel go."

Exo 5:3 Then they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us; let us go, we pray, a three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest he fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword."

Exo 5:4 But the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people away from their work? Get to your burdens."

Exo 5:5 And Pharaoh said, "Behold, the people of the land are now many and you make them rest from their burdens!"

Exo 5:6 The same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their foremen,

Exo 5:7 "You shall no longer give the people straw to make bricks, as heretofore; let them go and gather straw for themselves.

Exo 5:8 But the number of bricks which they made heretofore you shall lay upon them, you shall by no means lessen it; for they are idle; therefore they cry, 'Let us go and offer sacrifice to our God.'

Exo 5:9 Let heavier work be laid upon the men that they may labor at it and pay no regard to lying words."

Exo 5:10 So the taskmasters and the foremen of the people went out and said to the people, "Thus says Pharaoh, 'I will not give you straw.

Exo 5:11 Go yourselves, get your straw wherever you can find it; but your work will not be lessened in the least.'"

Exo 5:12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw.

Exo 5:13 The taskmasters were urgent, saying, "Complete your work, your daily task, as when there was straw."

Exo 5:14 And the foremen of the people of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and were asked, "Why have you not done all your task of making bricks today, as hitherto?"

Exo 5:15 Then the foremen of the people of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, "Why do you deal thus with your servants?"

Exo 5:16 No straw is given to your servants, yet they say to us, 'Make bricks!' And behold, your servants are beaten; but the fault is in your own people."

Exo 5:17 But he said, "You are idle, you are idle; therefore you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'

Exo 5:18 Go now, and work; for no straw shall be given you, yet you shall deliver the same number of bricks."

Exo 5:19 The foremen of the people of Israel saw that they were in evil plight, when they said, "You shall by no means lessen your daily number of bricks."

Exo 5:20 They met Moses and Aaron, who were waiting for them, as they came forth from Pharaoh;

Exo 5:21 and they said to them, "The LORD look upon you and judge, because you have made us offensive in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, and have put a sword in their hand to kill us."

Exo 5:22 Then Moses turned again to the LORD and said, "O LORD, why hast thou done evil to this people? Why didst thou ever send me?"

Exo 5:23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he has done evil to this people, and thou hast not delivered thy people at all."

Exo 6:1 But the LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for with a strong hand he will send them out, yea, with a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

Exo 6:2 And God said to Moses, "I am the LORD.

Exo 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD I did not make myself known to them.

Exo 6:4 I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they dwelt as sojourners.

Exo 6:5 Moreover I have heard the groaning of the people of Israel whom the Egyptians hold in bondage and I have remembered my covenant.

Exo 6:6 Say therefore to the people of Israel, 'I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great acts of judgment,

Exo 6:7 and I will take you for my people, and I will be your God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who has brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

Exo 6:8 And I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; I will give it to you for a possession. I am the LORD."

Exo 6:9 Moses spoke thus to the people of Israel; but they did not listen to Moses, because of their broken spirit and their cruel bondage.

Exo 6:10 And the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 6:11 "Go in, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the people of Israel go out of his land."

Exo 6:12 But Moses said to the LORD, "Behold, the people of Israel have not listened to me; how then shall Pharaoh listen to me, who am a man of uncircumcised lips?"

Exo 6:13 But the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them a charge to the people of Israel and to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Exo 6:14 These are the heads of their fathers' houses: the sons of Reuben, the first-born of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben.

Exo 6:15 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon.

Exo 6:16 These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari, the years of the life of Levi being a hundred and thirty-seven years.

Exo 6:17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their families.

Exo 6:18 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, the years of the life of Kohath being a hundred and thirty-three years.

Exo 6:19 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their generations.

Exo 6:20 Amram took to wife Jochebed his father's sister and she bore him Aaron and Moses, the years of the life of Amram being one hundred and thirty-seven years.

Exo 6:21 The sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

Exo 6:22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

Exo 6:25 Eleazar, Aaron's son, took to wife one of the daughters of Putiel; and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites by their families.

Exo 6:26 These are the Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said: "Bring out the people of Israel from the land of Egypt by their hosts."

Exo 6:27 It was they who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing out the people of Israel from Egypt, this Moses and this Aaron.

Exo 6:28 On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

Exo 6:29 the LORD said to Moses, "I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you."

Exo 6:30 But Moses said to the LORD, "Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips; how then shall Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exo 7:1 And the LORD said to Moses, "See, I make you as God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet.

Exo 7:2 You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother shall tell Pharaoh to let the people of Israel go out of his land.

Exo 7:3 But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and though I multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt,

Exo 7:4 Pharaoh will not listen to you; then I will lay my hand upon Egypt and bring forth my hosts, my people the sons of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment.

Exo 7:5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth my hand upon Egypt and bring out the people of Israel from among them."

Exo 7:6 And Moses and Aaron did so; they did as the LORD commanded them.

Exo 7:7 Now Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty- three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exo 7:8 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Exo 7:9 "When Pharaoh says to you, 'Prove yourselves by working a miracle,' then you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it may become a serpent.'"

Exo 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as the LORD commanded; Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a serpent.

Exo 7:11 Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers; and they also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same by their secret arts.

Exo 7:12 For every man cast down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

Exo 7:13 Still Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them; as the LORD had said.

Exo 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuses to let the people go.

Exo 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning, as he is going out to the water; wait for him by the river's brink, and take in your hand the rod which was turned into a serpent.

Exo 7:16 And you shall say to him, `The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you, saying, "Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness; and behold, you have not yet obeyed."

Exo 7:17 Thus says the LORD, "By this you shall know that I am the LORD: behold, I will strike the water that is in the Nile with the rod that is in my hand, and it shall be turned to blood, Exo 7:18 and the fish in the Nile shall die, and the Nile shall become foul, and the Egyptians will loathe to drink water from the Nile."""

Exo 7:19 And the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, `Take your rod and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, their canals, and their ponds, and all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone."

Exo 7:20 Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded; in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, he lifted up the rod and struck the water that was in the Nile, and all the water that was in the Nile turned to blood.

Exo 7:21 And the fish in the Nile died; and the Nile became foul, so that the Egyptians could not drink water from the Nile; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exo 7:22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts; so Pharaoh's heart remained hardened, and he would not listen to them; as the LORD had said.

Exo 7:23 Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not lay even this to heart.

Exo 7:24 And all the Egyptians dug round about the Nile for water to drink, for they could not drink the water of the Nile.

Exo 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD had struck the Nile.

Exo 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, `Thus says the LORD, "Let my people go, that they may serve me.

Exo 8:2 But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your country with frogs;

Exo 8:3 the Nile shall swarm with frogs which shall come up into your house, and into your bedchamber and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants and of your people, and into your ovens and your kneading bowls;

Exo 8:4 the frogs shall come up on you and on your people and on all your servants."""

Exo 8:5 And the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, `Stretch out your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the canals, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come upon the land of Egypt!""

Exo 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exo 8:7 But the magicians did the same by their secret arts, and brought frogs upon the land of Egypt.

Exo 8:8 Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat the LORD to take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

Exo 8:9 Moses said to Pharaoh, "Be pleased to command me when I am to entreat, for you and for your servants and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses and be left only in the Nile."

Exo 8:10 And he said, "Tomorrow." Moses said, "Be it as you say, that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

Exo 8:11 The frogs shall depart from you and your houses and your servants and your people; they shall be left only in the Nile."

Exo 8:12 So Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Moses cried to the LORD concerning the frogs, as he had agreed with Pharaoh.

Exo 8:13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; the frogs died out of the houses and courtyards and out of the fields.

Exo 8:14 And they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

Exo 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and would not listen to them; as the LORD had said.

Exo 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, `Stretch out your rod and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.""

Exo 8:17 And they did so; Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and struck the dust of the earth, and there came gnats on man and beast; all the dust of the earth became gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exo 8:18 The magicians tried by their secret arts to bring forth gnats, but they could not. So there were gnats on man and beast.

Exo 8:19 And the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them; as the LORD had said.

Exo 8:20 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and wait for Pharaoh, as he goes out to the water, and say to him, `Thus says the LORD, "Let my people go, that they may serve me.

Exo 8:21 Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you and your servants and your people, and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be filled with swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand.

Exo 8:22 But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people dwell, so that no swarms of flies shall be there; that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

Exo 8:23 Thus I will put a division between my people and your people. By tomorrow shall this sign be.""

Exo 8:24 And the LORD did so; there came great swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh and into his servants' houses, and in all the land of Egypt the land was ruined by reason of the flies.

Exo 8:25 Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God within the land."

Exo 8:26 But Moses said, "It would not be right to do so; for we shall sacrifice to the LORD our God offerings abominable to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice offerings abominable to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us?"

Exo 8:27 We must go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he will command us."

Exo 8:28 So Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Make entreaty for me."

Exo 8:29 Then Moses said, "Behold, I am going out from you and I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; only let not Pharaoh deal falsely again by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

Exo 8:30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exo 8:31 And the LORD did as Moses asked, and removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; not one remained.

Exo 8:32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and did not let the people go.

Exo 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and say to him, `Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, "Let my people go, that they may serve me.

Exo 9:2 For if you refuse to let them go and still hold them,

Exo 9:3 behold, the hand of the LORD will fall with a very severe plague upon your cattle which are in the field, the horses, the asses, the camels, the herds, and the flocks.

Exo 9:4 But the LORD will make a distinction between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt, so that nothing shall die of all that belongs to the people of Israel.""

Exo 9:5 And the LORD set a time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land."

Exo 9:6 And on the morrow the LORD did this thing; all the cattle of the Egyptians died, but of the cattle of the people of Israel not one died.

Exo 9:7 And Pharaoh sent, and behold, not one of the cattle of the Israelites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

Exo 9:8 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of ashes from the kiln, and let Moses throw them toward heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

Exo 9:9 And it shall become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and become boils breaking out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt."

Exo 9:10 So they took ashes from the kiln, and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses threw them toward heaven, and it became boils breaking out in sores on man and beast.

Exo 9:11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were upon the magicians and upon all the Egyptians.

Exo 9:12 But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not listen to them; as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

Exo 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, `Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, "Let my people go, that they may serve me.

Exo 9:14 For this time I will send all my plagues upon your heart, and upon your servants and your people, that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth.

Exo 9:15 For by now I could have put forth my hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth;

Exo 9:16 but for this purpose have I let you live, to show you my power, so that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

Exo 9:17 You are still exalting yourself against my people, and will not let them go.

Exo 9:18 Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause very heavy hail to fall, such as never has been in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.

Exo 9:19 Now therefore send, get your cattle and all that you have in the field into safe shelter; for the hail shall come down upon every man and beast that is in the field and is not brought home, and they shall die.""

Exo 9:20 Then he who feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his slaves and his cattle flee into the houses;

Exo 9:21 but he who did not regard the word of the LORD left his slaves and his cattle in the field.

Exo 9:22 And the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch forth your hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man and beast and every plant of the field, throughout the land of Egypt."

Exo 9:23 Then Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. And the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt;

Exo 9:24 there was hail, and fire flashing continually in the midst of the hail, very heavy hail, such as had never been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

Exo 9:25 The hail struck down everything that was in the field throughout all the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and the hail struck down every plant of the field, and shattered every tree of the field.

Exo 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the people of Israel were, there was no hail.

Exo 9:27 Then Pharaoh sent, and called Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "I have sinned this time; the LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong.

Exo 9:28 Entreat the LORD; for there has been enough of this thunder and hail; I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."

Exo 9:29 Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will stretch out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the earth is the LORD's.

Exo 9:30 But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God."

Exo 9:31 (The flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud.

Exo 9:32 But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined, for they are late in coming up.)

Exo 9:33 So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and stretched out his hands to the LORD; and the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured upon the earth.

Exo 9:34 But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet again, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

Exo 9:35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Exo 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, that I may show these signs of mine among them,

Exo 10:2 and that you may tell in the hearing of your son and of your son's son how I have made sport of the Egyptians and what signs I have done among them; that you may know that I am the LORD."

Exo 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

Exo 10:4 For if you refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country,

Exo 10:5 and they shall cover the face of the land, so that no one can see the land; and they shall eat what is left to you after the hail, and they shall eat every tree of yours which grows in the field,

Exo 10:6 and they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants and of all the Egyptians; as neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from the day they came on earth to this day.'" Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

Exo 10:7 And Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God; do you not yet understand that Egypt is ruined?"

Exo 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh; and he said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God; but who are to go?"

Exo 10:9 And Moses said, "We will go with our young and our old; we will go with our sons and daughters and with our flocks and herds, for we must hold a feast to the LORD."

Exo 10:10 And he said to them, "The LORD be with you, if ever I let you and your little ones go! Look, you have some evil purpose in mind.

Exo 10:11 No! Go, the men among you, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desire." And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

Exo 10:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and eat every plant in the land, all that the hail has left."

Exo 10:13 So Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night; and when it was morning the east wind had brought the locusts.

Exo 10:14 And the locusts came up over all the land of Egypt, and settled on the whole country of Egypt, such a dense swarm of locusts as had never been before, nor ever shall be again.

Exo 10:15 For they covered the face of the whole land, so that the land was darkened, and they ate all the plants in the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left; not a green thing remained, neither tree nor plant of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

Exo 10:16 Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

Exo 10:17 Now therefore, forgive my sin, I pray you, only this once, and entreat the LORD your God only to remove this death from me."

Exo 10:18 So he went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD.

Exo 10:19 And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, which lifted the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not a single locust was left in all the country of Egypt.

Exo 10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

Exo 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness to be felt."

Exo 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days;

Exo 10:23 they did not see one another, nor did any rise from his place for three days; but all the people of Israel had light where they dwelt.

Exo 10:24 Then Pharaoh called Moses, and said, "Go, serve the LORD; your children also may go with you; only let your flocks and your herds remain behind."

Exo 10:25 But Moses said, "You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

Exo 10:26 Our cattle also must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we must take of them to serve the LORD our God, and we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there."

Exo 10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

Exo 10:28 Then Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me; take heed to yourself; never see my face again; for in the day you see my face you shall die."

Exo 10:29 Moses said, "As you say! I will not see your face again."

Exo 11:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Yet one plague more I will bring upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence; when he lets you go, he will drive you away completely.

Exo 11:2 Speak now in the hearing of the people, that they ask, every man of his neighbor and every woman of her neighbor, jewelry of silver and of gold."

Exo 11:3 And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants and in the sight of the people.

Exo 11:4 And Moses said, "Thus says the LORD: About midnight I will go forth in the midst of Egypt;

Exo 11:5 and all the first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sits upon his throne, even to the first-born of the maidservant who is behind the mill; and all the first-born of the cattle.

Exo 11:6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has never been, nor ever shall be again.

Exo 11:7 But against any of the people of Israel, either man or beast, not a dog shall growl; that you may know that the LORD makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel.

Exo 11:8 And all these your servants shall come down to me, and bow down to me, saying, 'Get you out, and all the people who follow you.' And after that I will go out." And he went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

Exo 11:9 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."

Exo 11:10 Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the people of Israel go out of his land.

Exo 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt,

Exo 12:2 "This month shall be for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you.

Exo 12:3 Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month they shall take every man a lamb according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household;

Exo 12:4 and if the household is too small for a lamb, then a man and his neighbor next to his house shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb.

Exo 12:5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old; you shall take it from the sheep or from the goats;

Exo 12:6 and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs in the evening.

Exo 12:7 Then they shall take some of the blood, and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat them.

Exo 12:8 They shall eat the flesh that night, roasted; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it.

Exo 12:9 Do not eat any of it raw or boiled with water, but roasted, its head with its legs and its inner parts.

Exo 12:10 And you shall let none of it remain until the morning, anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.

Exo 12:11 In this manner you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD's passover.

Exo 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD.

Exo 12:13 The blood shall be a sign for you, upon the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall fall upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

Exo 12:14 "This day shall be for you a memorial day, and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as an ordinance for ever.

Exo 12:15 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; on the first day you shall put away leaven out of your houses, for if any one eats what is leavened, from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

Exo 12:16 On the first day you shall hold a holy assembly, and on the seventh day a holy assembly; no work shall be done on those days; but what every one must eat, that only may be prepared by you.

Exo 12:17 And you shall observe the feast of unleavened bread, for on this very day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt: therefore you shall observe this day, throughout your generations, as an ordinance for ever.

Exo 12:18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, and so until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

Exo 12:19 For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses; for if any one eats what is leavened, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a sojourner or a native of the land.

Exo 12:20 You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread."

Exo 12:21 Then Moses called all the elders of Israel, and said to them, "Select lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the passover lamb.

Exo 12:22 Take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood which is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood which is in the basin; and none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning.

Exo 12:23 For the LORD will pass through to slay the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to slay you.

Exo 12:24 You shall observe this rite as an ordinance for you and for your sons for ever.

Exo 12:25 And when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this service.

Exo 12:26 And when your children say to you, `What do you mean by this service?'

Exo 12:27 you shall say, `It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, for he passed over the houses of the people of Israel in Egypt, when he slew the Egyptians but spared our houses.'" And the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

Exo 12:28 Then the people of Israel went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Exo 12:29 At midnight the LORD smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the first-born of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the first-born of the cattle.

Exo 12:30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where one was not dead.

Exo 12:31 And he summoned Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise up, go forth from among my people, both you and the people of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said.

Exo 12:32 Take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also!"

Exo 12:33 And the Egyptians were urgent with the people, to send them out of the land in haste; for they said, "We are all dead men."

Exo 12:34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading bowls being bound up in their mantles on their shoulders.

Exo 12:35 The people of Israel had also done as Moses told them, for they had asked of the Egyptians jewelry of silver and of gold, and clothing;

Exo 12:36 and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. Thus they despoiled the Egyptians.

Exo 12:37 And the people of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides women and children.

Exo 12:38 A mixed multitude also went up with them, and very many cattle, both flocks and herds.

Exo 12:39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any provisions.

Exo 12:40 The time that the people of Israel dwelt in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

Exo 12:41 And at the end of four hundred and thirty years, on that very day, all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

Exo 12:42 It was a night of watching by the LORD, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; so this same night is a night of watching kept to the LORD by all the people of Israel throughout their generations.

Exo 12:43 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the passover: no foreigner shall eat of it;

Exo 12:44 but every slave that is bought for money may eat of it after you have circumcised him.

Exo 12:45 No sojourner or hired servant may eat of it.

Exo 12:46 In one house shall it be eaten; you shall not carry forth any of the flesh outside the house; and you shall not break a bone of it.

Exo 12:47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

Exo 12:48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with you and would keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, then he may come near and keep it; he shall be as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.

Exo 12:49 There shall be one law for the native and for the stranger who sojourns among you."

Exo 12:50 Thus did all the people of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Exo 12:51 And on that very day the LORD brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their hosts.

Exo 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 13:2 "Consecrate to me all the first-born; whatever is the first to open the womb among the people of Israel, both of man and of beast, is mine."

Exo 13:3 And Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage, for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place; no leavened bread shall be eaten.

Exo 13:4 This day you are to go forth, in the month of Abib.

Exo 13:5 And when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall keep this service in this month.

Exo 13:6 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.

Exo 13:7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen with you, and no leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory.

Exo 13:8 And you shall tell your son on that day, 'It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'

Exo 13:9 And it shall be to you as a sign on your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt.

Exo 13:10 You shall therefore keep this ordinance at its appointed time from year to year.

Exo 13:11 "And when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and your fathers, and shall give it to you,

Exo 13:12 you shall set apart to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstlings of your cattle that are males shall be the LORD's.

Exo 13:13 Every firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. Every first-born of man among your sons you shall redeem.

Exo 13:14 And when in time to come your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' you shall say to him, 'By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

Exo 13:15 For when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man and the first-born of cattle. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all the males that first open the womb; but all the first-born of my sons I redeem.'

Exo 13:16 It shall be as a mark on your hand or frontlets between your eyes; for by a strong hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

Exo 13:17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest the people repent when they see war, and return to Egypt."

Exo 13:18 But God led the people round by the way of the wilderness toward the Red Sea. And the people of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt equipped for battle.

Exo 13:19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him; for Joseph had solemnly sworn the people of Israel, saying, "God will visit you; then you must carry my bones with you from here."

Exo 13:20 And they moved on from Succoth, and encamped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness.

Exo 13:21 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night;

Exo 13:22 the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night did not depart from before the people.

Exo 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 14:2 "Tell the people of Israel to turn back and encamp in front of Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baalzephon; you shall encamp over against it, by the sea.

Exo 14:3 For Pharaoh will say of the people of Israel, 'They are entangled in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.'

Exo 14:4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them and I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host; and the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD." And they did so.

Exo 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the mind of Pharaoh and his servants was changed toward the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?"

Exo 14:6 So he made ready his chariot and took his army with him,

Exo 14:7 and took six hundred picked chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.

Exo 14:8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt and he pursued the people of Israel as they went forth defiantly.

Exo 14:9 The Egyptians pursued them, all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and his horsemen and his army, and overtook them encamped at the sea, by Pihahiroth, in front of Baalzephon.

Exo 14:10 When Pharaoh drew near, the people of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and they were in great fear. And the people of Israel cried out to the LORD;

Exo 14:11 and they said to Moses, "Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us, in bringing us out of Egypt?"

Exo 14:12 Is not this what we said to you in Egypt, 'Let us alone and let us serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

Exo 14:13 And Moses said to the people, "Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again.

Exo 14:14 The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be still."

Exo 14:15 The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward.

Exo 14:16 Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the people of Israel may go on dry ground through the sea.

Exo 14:17 And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they shall go in after them, and I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host, his chariots, and his horsemen.

Exo 14:18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten glory over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."

Exo 14:19 Then the angel of God who went before the host of Israel moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them,

Exo 14:20 coming between the host of Egypt and the host of Israel. And there was the cloud and the darkness; and the night passed without one coming near the other all night.

Exo 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

Exo 14:22 And the people of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exo 14:23 The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

Exo 14:24 And in the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and of cloud looked down upon the host of the Egyptians, and discomfited the host of the Egyptians,

Exo 14:25 clogging their chariot wheels so that they drove heavily; and the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from before Israel; for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians."

Exo 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen."

Exo 14:27 So Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its wonted flow when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled into it, and the LORD routed the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

Exo 14:28 The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen and all the host of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not so much as one of them remained.

Exo 14:29 But the people of Israel walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exo 14:30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore.

Exo 14:31 And Israel saw the great work which the LORD did against the Egyptians, and the people feared the LORD; and they believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

Exo 15:1 Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to the LORD, saying, "I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.

Exo 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him.

Exo 15:3 The LORD is a man of war; the LORD is his name.

Exo 15:4 "Pharaoh's chariots and his host he cast into the sea; and his picked officers are sunk in the Red Sea.

Exo 15:5 The floods cover them; they went down into the depths like a stone.

Exo 15:6 Thy right hand, O LORD, glorious in power, thy right hand, O LORD, shatters the enemy.

Exo 15:7 In the greatness of thy majesty thou overthrowest thy adversaries; thou sendest forth thy fury, it consumes them like stubble.

Exo 15:8 At the blast of thy nostrils the waters piled up, the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exo 15:9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil, my desire shall have its fill of them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.'

Exo 15:10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

Exo 15:11 "Who is like thee, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like thee, majestic in holiness, terrible in glorious deeds, doing wonders?

Exo 15:12 Thou didst stretch out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

Exo 15:13 "Thou hast led in thy steadfast love the people whom thou hast redeemed, thou hast guided them by thy strength to thy holy abode.

Exo 15:14 The peoples have heard, they tremble; pangs have seized on the inhabitants of Philistia.

Exo 15:15 Now are the chiefs of Edom dismayed; the leaders of Moab, trembling seizes them; all the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away.

Exo 15:16 Terror and dread fall upon them; because of the greatness of thy arm, they are as still as a stone, till thy people, O LORD, pass by, till the people pass by whom thou hast purchased.

Exo 15:17 Thou wilt bring them in, and plant them on thy own mountain, the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thy abode, the sanctuary, LORD, which thy hands have established.

Exo 15:18 The LORD will reign for ever and ever."

Exo 15:19 For when the horses of Pharaoh with his chariots and his horsemen went into the sea, the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them; but the people of Israel walked on dry ground in the midst of the sea.

Exo 15:20 Then Miriam, the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and dancing.

Exo 15:21 And Miriam sang to them: "Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea."

Exo 15:22 Then Moses led Israel onward from the Red Sea, and they went into the wilderness of Shur; they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

Exo 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink the water of Marah because it was bitter; therefore it was named Marah.

Exo 15:24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?"

Exo 15:25 And he cried to the LORD; and the LORD showed him a tree, and he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made for them a statute and an ordinance and there he proved them,

Exo 15:26 saying, "If you will diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD your God, and do that which is right in his eyes, and give heed to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases upon you which I put upon the Egyptians; for I am the LORD, your healer."

Exo 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; and they encamped there by the water.

Exo 16:1 They set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the people of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt.

Exo 16:2 And the whole congregation of the people of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness,

Exo 16:3 and said to them, "Would that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate bread to the full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

Exo 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law or not.

Exo 16:5 On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily."
Exo 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the people of Israel, "At evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt,
Exo 16:7 and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your murmurings against the LORD. For what are we, that you murmur against us?"
Exo 16:8 And Moses said, "When the LORD gives you in the evening flesh to eat and in the morning bread to the full, because the LORD has heard your murmurings which you murmur against him -- what are we? Your murmurings are not against us but against the LORD."
Exo 16:9 And Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, `Come near before the LORD, for he has heard your murmurings.'"
Exo 16:10 And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.
Exo 16:11 And the LORD said to Moses,
Exo 16:12 "I have heard the murmurings of the people of Israel; say to them, `At twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.'"
Exo 16:13 In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning dew lay round about the camp.
Exo 16:14 And when the dew had gone up, there was on the face of the wilderness a fine, flake-like thing, fine as hoarfrost on the ground.
Exo 16:15 When the people of Israel saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, "It is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.
Exo 16:16 This is what the LORD has commanded: `Gather of it, every man of you, as much as he can eat; you shall take an omer apiece, according to the number of the persons whom each of you has in his tent.'"
Exo 16:17 And the people of Israel did so; they gathered, some more, some less.
Exo 16:18 But when they measured it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; each gathered according to what he could eat.
Exo 16:19 And Moses said to them, "Let no man leave any of it till the morning."
Exo 16:20 But they did not listen to Moses; some left part of it till the morning, and it bred worms and became foul; and Moses was angry with them.
Exo 16:21 Morning by morning they gathered it, each as much as he could eat; but when the sun grew hot, it melted.
Exo 16:22 On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers apiece; and when all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses,
Exo 16:23 he said to them, "This is what the LORD has commanded: `Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy sabbath to the LORD; bake what you will bake and boil what you will boil, and all that is left over lay by to be kept till the morning.'"
Exo 16:24 So they laid it by till the morning, as Moses bade them; and it did not become foul, and there were no worms in it.
Exo 16:25 Moses said, "Eat it today, for today is a sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.
Exo 16:26 Six days you shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is a sabbath, there will be none."
Exo 16:27 On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.
Exo 16:28 And the LORD said to Moses, "How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?
Exo 16:29 See! The LORD has given you the sabbath, therefore on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days; remain every man of you in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day."
Exo 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.
Exo 16:31 Now the house of Israel called its name manna; it was like coriander seed, white, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.
Exo 16:32 And Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: `Let an omer of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.'"
Exo 16:33 And Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar, and put an omer of manna in it, and place it before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations."
Exo 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the testimony, to be kept.
Exo 16:35 And the people of Israel ate the manna forty years, till they came to a habitable land; they ate the manna, till they came to the border of the land of Canaan.
Exo 16:36 (An omer is the tenth part of an ephah.)
Exo 17:1 All the congregation of the people of Israel moved on from the wilderness of Sin by stages, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink.
Exo 17:2 Therefore the people found fault with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink." And Moses said to them, "Why do you find fault with me? Why do you put the LORD to the proof?"

Exo 17:3 But the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?"

Exo 17:4 So Moses cried to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me."

Exo 17:5 And the LORD said to Moses, "Pass on before the people, taking with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand the rod with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Exo 17:6 Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drink." And Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exo 17:7 And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the faultfinding of the children of Israel, and because they put the LORD to the proof by saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Exo 17:8 Then came Amalek and fought with Israel at Rephidim.

Exo 17:9 And Moses said to Joshua, "Choose for us men, and go out, fight with Amalek; tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand."

Exo 17:10 So Joshua did as Moses told him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exo 17:11 Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed; and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed.

Exo 17:12 But Moses' hands grew weary; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat upon it, and Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; so his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

Exo 17:13 And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Exo 17:14 And the LORD said to Moses, "Write this as a memorial in a book and recite it in the ears of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven."

Exo 17:15 And Moses built an altar and called the name of it, The LORD is my banner,

Exo 17:16 saying, "A hand upon the banner of the LORD! The LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Exo 18:1 Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exo 18:2 Now Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her away,

Exo 18:3 and her two sons, of whom the name of the one was Gershom (for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land"),

Exo 18:4 and the name of the other, Eliezer (for he said, "The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh").

Exo 18:5 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness where he was encamped at the mountain of God.

Exo 18:6 And when one told Moses, "Lo, your father-in-law Jethro is coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her,"

Exo 18:7 Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare, and went into the tent.

Exo 18:8 Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them in the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

Exo 18:9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the good which the LORD had done to Israel, in that he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

Exo 18:10 And Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh.

Exo 18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because he delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians, when they dealt arrogantly with them."

Exo 18:12 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, offered a burnt offering and sacrifices to God; and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

Exo 18:13 On the morrow Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood about Moses from morning till evening.

Exo 18:14 When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand about you from morning till evening?"

Exo 18:15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God;

Exo 18:16 when they have a dispute, they come to me and I decide between a man and his neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God and his decisions."

Exo 18:17 Moses' father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good.

Exo 18:18 You and the people with you will wear yourselves out, for the thing is too heavy for you; you are not able to perform it alone.

Exo 18:19 Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God be with you! You shall represent the people before God, and bring their cases to God;

Exo 18:20 and you shall teach them the statutes and the decisions, and make them know the way in which they must walk and what they must do.

Exo 18:21 Moreover choose able men from all the people, such as fear God, men who are trustworthy and who hate a bribe; and place such men over the people as rulers of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

Exo 18:22 And let them judge the people at all times; every great matter they shall bring to you, but any small matter they shall decide themselves; so it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you.

Exo 18:23 If you do this, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people also will go to their place in peace."

Exo 18:24 So Moses gave heed to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.

Exo 18:25 Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

Exo 18:26 And they judged the people at all times; hard cases they brought to Moses, but any small matter they decided themselves.

Exo 18:27 Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way to his own country.

Exo 19:1 On the third new moon after the people of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on that day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.

Exo 19:2 And when they set out from Rephidim and came into the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mountain.

Exo 19:3 And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the people of Israel:

Exo 19:4 You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

Exo 19:5 Now therefore, if you will obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my own possession among all peoples; for all the earth is mine,

Exo 19:6 and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."

Exo 19:7 So Moses came and called the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which the LORD had commanded him.

Exo 19:8 And all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." And Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD.

Exo 19:9 And the LORD said to Moses, "Lo, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you for ever." Then Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

Exo 19:10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments,

Exo 19:11 and be ready by the third day; for on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Exo 19:12 And you shall set bounds for the people round about, saying, `Take heed that you do not go up into the mountain or touch the border of it; whoever touches the mountain shall be put to death;

Exo 19:13 no hand shall touch him, but he shall be stoned or shot; whether beast or man, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain."

Exo 19:14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and consecrated the people; and they washed their garments.

Exo 19:15 And he said to the people, "Be ready by the third day; do not go near a woman."

Exo 19:16 On the morning of the third day there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled.

Exo 19:17 Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God; and they took their stand at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 19:18 And Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and the smoke of it went up like the smoke of a kiln, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.

Exo 19:19 And as the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him in thunder.

Exo 19:20 And the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Exo 19:21 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to the LORD to gaze and many of them perish.

Exo 19:22 And also let the priests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out upon them."

Exo 19:23 And Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai; for thou thyself didst charge us, saying, 'Set bounds about the mountain, and consecrate it.'"

Exo 19:24 And the LORD said to him, "Go down, and come up bringing Aaron with you; but do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest he break out against them."

Exo 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exo 20:1 And God spoke all these words, saying,

Exo 20:2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Exo 20:3 "You shall have no other gods before me.

Exo 20:4 "You shall not make for yourself a graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;

Exo 20:5 you shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me,

Exo 20:6 but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Exo 20:7 "You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.

Exo 20:8 "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Exo 20:9 Six days you shall labor, and do all your work;

Exo 20:10 but the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; in it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your manservant, or your maidservant, or your cattle, or the sojourner who is within your gates;

Exo 20:11 for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.

Exo 20:12 "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Exo 20:13 "You shall not kill.

Exo 20:14 "You shall not commit adultery.

Exo 20:15 "You shall not steal.

Exo 20:16 "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Exo 20:17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant, or his maidservant, or his ox, or his ass, or anything that is your neighbor's."

Exo 20:18 Now when all the people perceived the thunderings and the lightnings and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking, the people were afraid and trembled; and they stood afar off,

Exo 20:19 and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will hear; but let not God speak to us, lest we die."

Exo 20:20 And Moses said to the people, "Do not fear; for God has come to prove you, and that the fear of him may be before your eyes, that you may not sin."

Exo 20:21 And the people stood afar off, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

Exo 20:22 And the LORD said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the people of Israel: 'You have seen for yourselves that I have talked with you from heaven.

Exo 20:23 You shall not make gods of silver to be with me, nor shall you make for yourselves gods of gold.

Exo 20:24 An altar of earth you shall make for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause my name to be remembered I will come to you and bless you.

Exo 20:25 And if you make me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stones; for if you wield your tool upon it you profane it.

Exo 20:26 And you shall not go up by steps to my altar, that your nakedness be not exposed on it.'

Exo 21:1 "Now these are the ordinances which you shall set before them.

Exo 21:2 When you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years, and in the seventh he shall go out free, for nothing.

Exo 21:3 If he comes in single, he shall go out single; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him.

Exo 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's and he shall go out alone.

Exo 21:5 But if the slave plainly says, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,'

Exo 21:6 then his master shall bring him to God, and he shall bring him to the door or the doorpost; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for life.

Exo 21:7 "When a man sells his daughter as a slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do.

Exo 21:8 If she does not please her master, who has designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed; he shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt faithfully with her.

Exo 21:9 If he designates her for his son, he shall deal with her as with a daughter.

Exo 21:10 If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, or her marital rights.

Exo 21:11 And if he does not do these three things for her, she shall go out for nothing, without payment of money.

Exo 21:12 "Whoever strikes a man so that he dies shall be put to death.

Exo 21:13 But if he did not lie in wait for him, but God let him fall into his hand, then I will appoint for you a place to which he may flee.

Exo 22:9 "For every breach of trust, whether it is for ox, for ass, for sheep, for clothing, or for any kind of lost thing, of which one says, 'This is it,' the case of both parties shall come before God; he whom God shall condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.

Exo 22:10 "If a man delivers to his neighbor an ass or an ox or a sheep or any beast to keep, and it dies or is hurt or is driven away, without any one seeing it,

Exo 22:23 If you do afflict them, and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry;

Exo 22:24 and my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless.

Exo 22:25 "If you lend money to any of my people with you who is poor, you shall not be to him as a creditor, and you shall not exact interest from him.

Exo 22:28 "You shall not revile God, nor curse a ruler of your people.

Exo 22:29 "You shall not delay to offer from the fulness of your harvest and from the outflow of your presses. "The first-born of your sons you shall give to me.

Exo 23:2 You shall not follow a multitude to do evil; nor shall you bear witness in a suit, turning aside after a multitude, so as to pervert justice;

Exo 23:3 nor shall you be partial to a poor man in his suit.

Exo 23:4 "If you meet your enemy's ox or his ass going astray, you shall bring it back to him.

Exo 23:5 If you see the ass of one who hates you lying under its burden, you shall refrain from leaving him with it, you shall help him to lift it up.

Exo 23:6 "You shall not pervert the justice due to your poor in his suit.

Exo 23:7 Keep far from a false charge, and do not slay the innocent and righteous, for I will not acquit the wicked.

Exo 23:8 And you shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the officials, and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.

Exo 23:9 "You shall not oppress a stranger; you know the heart of a stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Exo 23:10 "For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield;

Exo 23:11 but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the wild beasts may eat. You shall do likewise with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard.

Exo 23:12 "Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; that your ox and your ass may have rest, and the son of your bondmaid, and the alien, may be refreshed.

Exo 23:13 Take heed to all that I have said to you; and make no mention of the names of other gods, nor let such be heard out of your mouth.

Exo 23:14 "Three times in the year you shall keep a feast to me.

Exo 23:15 You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread; as I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. None shall appear before me empty-handed.

Exo 23:16 You shall keep the feast of harvest, of the first fruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall keep the feast of ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor.

Exo 23:17 Three times in the year shall all your males appear before the Lord GOD.

Exo 23:18 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, or let the fat of my feast remain until the morning.

Exo 23:19 "The first of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. "You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

Exo 23:20 "Behold, I send an angel before you, to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place which I have prepared.

Exo 23:21 Give heed to him and hearken to his voice, do not rebel against him, for he will not pardon your transgression; for my name is in him.

Exo 23:22 "But if you hearken attentively to his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

Exo 23:23 "When my angel goes before you, and brings you in to the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I blot them out,

Exo 23:24 you shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works, but you shall utterly overthrow them and break their pillars in pieces.

Exo 23:25 You shall serve the LORD your God, and I will bless your bread and your water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of you.

Exo 23:26 None shall cast her young or be barren in your land; I will fulfil the number of your days.

Exo 23:27 I will send my terror before you, and will throw into confusion all the people against whom you shall come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

Exo 23:28 And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out Hivite, Canaanite, and Hittite from before you.

Exo 23:29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the wild beasts multiply against you.

Exo 23:30 Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you are increased and possess the land.

Exo 23:31 And I will set your bounds from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.

Exo 23:32 You shall make no covenant with them or with their gods.

Exo 23:33 They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against me; for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you."

Exo 24:1 And he said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship afar off.

Exo 24:2 Moses alone shall come near to the LORD; but the others shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him."

Exo 24:3 Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which the LORD has spoken we will do."

Exo 24:4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exo 24:5 And he sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD.

Exo 24:6 And Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he threw against the altar.

Exo 24:7 Then he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."

Exo 24:8 And Moses took the blood and threw it upon the people, and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Exo 24:9 Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up,

Exo 24:10 and they saw the God of Israel; and there was under his feet as it were a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness.

Exo 24:11 And he did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; they beheld God, and ate and drank.

Exo 24:12 The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tables of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction."

Exo 24:13 So Moses rose with his servant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God.

Exo 24:14 And he said to the elders, "Tarry here for us, until we come to you again; and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a cause, let him go to them."

Exo 24:15 Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

Exo 24:16 The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days; and on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

Exo 24:17 Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel.

Exo 24:18 And Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exo 25:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 25:2 "Speak to the people of Israel, that they take for me an offering; from every man whose heart makes him willing you shall receive the offering for me.

Exo 25:3 And this is the offering which you shall receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze,

Exo 25:4 blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen, goats' hair,

Exo 25:5 tanned rams' skins, goatskins, acacia wood,

Exo 25:6 oil for the lamps, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,

Exo 25:7 onyx stones, and stones for setting, for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Exo 25:8 And let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell in their midst.

Exo 25:9 According to all that I show you concerning the pattern of the tabernacle, and of all its furniture, so you shall make it.

Exo 25:10 "They shall make an ark of acacia wood; two cubits and a half shall be its length, a cubit and a half its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exo 25:11 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, within and without shall you overlay it, and you shall make upon it a molding of gold round about.

Exo 25:12 And you shall cast four rings of gold for it and put them on its four feet, two rings on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

Exo 25:13 You shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exo 25:14 And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark by them.

Exo 25:15 The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

Exo 25:16 And you shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you.

Exo 25:17 Then you shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth.

Exo 25:18 And you shall make two cherubim of gold; of hammered work shall you make them, on the two ends of the mercy seat.

Exo 25:19 Make one cherub on the one end, and one cherub on the other end; of one piece with the mercy seat shall you make the cherubim on its two ends.

Exo 25:20 The cherubim shall spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings, their faces one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubim be.

Exo 25:21 And you shall put the mercy seat on the top of the ark; and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I shall give you.

Exo 25:22 There I will meet with you, and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim that are upon the ark of the testimony, I will speak with you of all that I will give you in commandment for the people of Israel.

Exo 25:23 "And you shall make a table of acacia wood; two cubits shall be its length, a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exo 25:24 You shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold around it.

Exo 25:25 And you shall make around it a frame a handbreadth wide, and a molding of gold around the frame.

Exo 25:26 And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and fasten the rings to the four corners at its four legs.

Exo 25:27 Close to the frame the rings shall lie, as holders for the poles to carry the table.

Exo 25:28 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, and the table shall be carried with these.

Exo 25:29 And you shall make its plates and dishes for incense, and its flagons and bowls with which to pour libations; of pure gold you shall make them.

Exo 25:30 And you shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before me always.

Exo 25:31 "And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand shall be made of hammered work; its cups, its capitals, and its flowers shall be of one piece with it;

Exo 25:32 and there shall be six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;

Exo 25:33 three cups made like almonds, each with capital and flower, on one branch, and three cups made like almonds, each with capital and flower, on the other branch -- so for the six branches going out of the lampstand;

Exo 25:34 and on the lampstand itself four cups made like almonds, with their capitals and flowers,
Exo 25:35 and a capital of one piece with it under each pair of the six branches going out from the lampstand.
Exo 25:36 Their capitals and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it one piece of hammered work of pure gold.
Exo 25:37 And you shall make the seven lamps for it; and the lamps shall be set up so as to give light upon the space in front of it.
Exo 25:38 Its snuffers and their trays shall be of pure gold.
Exo 25:39 Of a talent of pure gold shall it be made, with all these utensils.
Exo 25:40 And see that you make them after the pattern for them, which is being shown you on the mountain.
Exo 26:1 "Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet stuff; with cherubim skilfully worked shall you make them.
Exo 26:2 The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall have one measure.
Exo 26:3 Five curtains shall be coupled to one another; and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another.
Exo 26:4 And you shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outmost curtain in the first set; and likewise you shall make loops on the edge of the outmost curtain in the second set.
Exo 26:5 Fifty loops you shall make on the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another.
Exo 26:6 And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to the other with the clasps, that the tabernacle may be one whole.
Exo 26:7 "You shall also make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; eleven curtains shall you make.
Exo 26:8 The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall have the same measure.
Exo 26:9 And you shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and the sixth curtain you shall double over at the front of the tent.
Exo 26:10 And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outmost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which is outmost in the second set.
Exo 26:11 "And you shall make fifty clasps of bronze, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together that it may be one whole.
Exo 26:12 And the part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.
Exo 26:13 And the cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of what remains in the length of the curtains of the tent shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and that side, to cover it.
Exo 26:14 And you shall make for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and goatskins.
Exo 26:15 "And you shall make upright frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood.
Exo 26:16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each frame.
Exo 26:17 There shall be two tenons in each frame, for fitting together; so shall you do for all the frames of the tabernacle.
Exo 26:18 You shall make the frames for the tabernacle: twenty frames for the south side;
Exo 26:19 and forty bases of silver you shall make under the twenty frames, two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under another frame for its two tenons;
Exo 26:20 and for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side twenty frames,
Exo 26:21 and their forty bases of silver, two bases under one frame, and two bases under another frame;
Exo 26:22 and for the rear of the tabernacle westward you shall make six frames.
Exo 26:23 And you shall make two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear;
Exo 26:24 they shall be separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring; thus shall it be with both of them; they shall form the two corners.
Exo 26:25 And there shall be eight frames, with their bases of silver, sixteen bases; two bases under one frame, and two bases under another frame.
Exo 26:26 "And you shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,
Exo 26:27 and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the side of the tabernacle at the rear westward.
Exo 26:28 The middle bar, halfway up the frames, shall pass through from end to end.
Exo 26:29 You shall overlay the frames with gold, and shall make their rings of gold for holders for the bars; and you shall overlay the bars with gold.
Exo 26:30 And you shall erect the tabernacle according to the plan for it which has been shown you on the mountain.

Exo 26:31 "And you shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen; in skilled work shall it be made, with cherubim;

Exo 26:32 and you shall hang it upon four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, with hooks of gold, upon four bases of silver.

Exo 26:33 And you shall hang the veil from the clasps, and bring the ark of the testimony in thither within the veil; and the veil shall separate for you the holy place from the most holy.

Exo 26:34 You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

Exo 26:35 And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand on the south side of the tabernacle opposite the table; and you shall put the table on the north side.

Exo 26:36 "And you shall make a screen for the door of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen, embroidered with needlework.

Exo 26:37 And you shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five bases of bronze for them.

Exo 27:1 "You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad; the altar shall be square, and its height shall be three cubits.

Exo 27:2 And you shall make horns for it on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze.

Exo 27:3 You shall make pots for it to receive its ashes, and shovels and basins and forks and firepans; all its utensils you shall make of bronze.

Exo 27:4 You shall also make for it a grating, a network of bronze; and upon the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.

Exo 27:5 And you shall set it under the ledge of the altar so that the net shall extend halfway down the altar.

Exo 27:6 And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze;

Exo 27:7 and the poles shall be put through the rings, so that the poles shall be upon the two sides of the altar, when it is carried.

Exo 27:8 You shall make it hollow, with boards; as it has been shown you on the mountain, so shall it be made.

Exo 27:9 "You shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side the court shall have hangings of fine twined linen a hundred cubits long for one side;

Exo 27:10 their pillars shall be twenty and their bases twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

Exo 27:11 And likewise for its length on the north side there shall be hangings a hundred cubits long, their pillars twenty and their bases twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

Exo 27:20 "And you shall command the people of Israel that they bring to you pure beaten olive oil for the light, that a lamp may be set up to burn continually.

Exo 27:21 In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a statute for ever to be observed throughout their generations by the people of Israel.

Exo 28:1 "Then bring near to you Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the people of Israel, to serve me as priests -- Aaron and Aaron's sons, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exo 28:2 And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.

Exo 28:3 And you shall speak to all who have ability, whom I have endowed with an able mind, that they make Aaron's garments to consecrate him for my priesthood.

Exo 28:4 These are the garments which they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a coat of checker work, a turban, and a girdle; they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons to serve me as priests.

Exo 28:5 "They shall receive gold, blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and fine twined linen.

Exo 28:6 And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and of fine twined linen, skilfully worked.

Exo 28:7 It shall have two shoulder-pieces attached to its two edges, that it may be joined together.

Exo 28:8 And the skilfully woven band upon it, to gird it on, shall be of the same workmanship and materials, of gold, blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and fine twined linen.

Exo 28:9 And you shall take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel,

Exo 28:10 six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order of their birth.

Exo 28:11 As a jeweler engraves signets, so shall you engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel; you shall enclose them in settings of gold filigree.

Exo 28:12 And you shall set the two stones upon the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel; and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for remembrance.

Exo 28:13 And you shall make settings of gold filigree,

Exo 28:14 and two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords; and you shall attach the corded chains to the settings.

Exo 28:15 "And you shall make a breastpiece of judgment, in skilled work; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and fine twined linen shall you make it.

Exo 28:16 It shall be square and double, a span its length and a span its breadth.

Exo 28:17 And you shall set in it four rows of stones. A row of sardius, topaz, and carbuncle shall be the first row;

Exo 28:18 and the second row an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;

Exo 28:19 and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exo 28:20 and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they shall be set in gold filigree.

Exo 28:21 There shall be twelve stones with their names according to the names of the sons of Israel; they shall be like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes.

Exo 28:22 And you shall make for the breastpiece twisted chains like cords, of pure gold;

Exo 28:23 and you shall make for the breastpiece two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece.

Exo 28:24 And you shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece;

Exo 28:25 the two ends of the two cords you shall attach to the two settings of filigree, and so attach it in front to the shoulder-pieces of the ephod.

Exo 28:26 And you shall make two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.

Exo 28:27 And you shall make two rings of gold, and attach them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the skilfully woven band of the ephod.

Exo 28:28 And they shall bind the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may lie upon the skilfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece shall not come loose from the ephod.

Exo 28:29 So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment upon his heart, when he goes into the holy place, to bring them to continual remembrance before the LORD.

Exo 28:30 And in the breastpiece of judgment you shall put the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD; thus Aaron shall bear the judgment of the people of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

Exo 28:31 "And you shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

Exo 28:32 It shall have in it an opening for the head, with a woven binding around the opening, like the opening in a garment, that it may not be torn.

Exo 28:33 On its skirts you shall make pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet stuff, around its skirts, with bells of gold between them,

Exo 28:34 a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, round about on the skirts of the robe.

Exo 28:35 And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, lest he die.

Exo 28:36 "And you shall make a plate of pure gold, and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet, 'Holy to the LORD.'

Exo 28:37 And you shall fasten it on the turban by a lace of blue; it shall be on the front of the turban.

Exo 28:38 It shall be upon Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall take upon himself any guilt incurred in the holy offering which the people of Israel hallow as their holy gifts; it shall always be upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

Exo 28:39 "And you shall weave the coat in checker work of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a girdle embroidered with needlework.

Exo 28:40 "And for Aaron's sons you shall make coats and girdles and caps; you shall make them for glory and beauty.

Exo 28:41 And you shall put them upon Aaron your brother, and upon his sons with him, and shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests.

Exo 28:42 And you shall make for them linen breeches to cover their naked flesh; from the loins to the thighs they shall reach;

Exo 28:43 and they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place; lest they bring guilt upon themselves and die. This shall be a perpetual statute for him and for his descendants after him.

Exo 29:1 "Now this is what you shall do to them to consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, Exo 29:2 and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil. You shall make them of fine wheat flour.

Exo 29:3 And you shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, and bring the bull and the two rams.

Exo 29:4 You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tent of meeting, and wash them with water.

Exo 29:5 And you shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastpiece, and gird him with the skilfully woven band of the ephod;

Exo 29:6 and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown upon the turban.

Exo 29:7 And you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head and anoint him.

Exo 29:8 Then you shall bring his sons, and put coats on them,

Exo 29:9 and you shall gird them with girdles and bind caps on them; and the priesthood shall be theirs by a perpetual statute. Thus you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.

Exo 29:10 "Then you shall bring the bull before the tent of meeting. Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of the bull,

Exo 29:11 and you shall kill the bull before the LORD, at the door of the tent of meeting,

Exo 29:12 and shall take part of the blood of the bull and put it upon the horns of the altar with your finger, and the rest of the blood you shall pour out at the base of the altar.

Exo 29:13 And you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and burn them upon the altar.

Exo 29:14 But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

Exo 29:15 "Then you shall take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of the ram,

Exo 29:16 and you shall slaughter the ram, and shall take its blood and throw it against the altar round about.

Exo 29:17 Then you shall cut the ram into pieces, and wash its entrails and its legs, and put them with its pieces and its head,

Exo 29:18 and burn the whole ram upon the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD; it is a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exo 29:19 "You shall take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of the ram,

Exo 29:20 and you shall kill the ram, and take part of its blood and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron and upon the tips of the right ears of his sons, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet, and throw the rest of the blood against the altar round about.

Exo 29:21 Then you shall take part of the blood that is on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron and his garments, and upon his sons and his sons' garments with him; and he and his garments shall be holy, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

Exo 29:22 "You shall also take the fat of the ram, and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination),

Exo 29:23 and one loaf of bread, and one cake of bread with oil, and one wafer, out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD;

Exo 29:24 and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.

Exo 29:25 Then you shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar in addition to the burnt offering, as a pleasing odor before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exo 29:26 "And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.

Exo 29:27 And you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering, and the thigh of the priests' portion, which is waved, and which is offered from the ram of ordination, since it is for Aaron and for his sons.

Exo 29:28 It shall be for Aaron and his sons as a perpetual due from the people of Israel, for it is the priests' portion to be offered by the people of Israel from their peace offerings; it is their offering to the LORD.

Exo 29:29 "The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them and ordained in them.

Exo 29:30 The son who is priest in his place shall wear them seven days, when he comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.

Exo 29:31 "You shall take the ram of ordination, and boil its flesh in a holy place;

Exo 29:32 and Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the tent of meeting.

Exo 29:33 They shall eat those things with which atonement was made, to ordain and consecrate them, but an outsider shall not eat of them, because they are holy.

Exo 29:34 And if any of the flesh for the ordination, or of the bread, remain until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

Exo 29:35 "Thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you; through seven days shall you ordain them,

Exo 29:36 and every day you shall offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement. Also you shall offer a sin offering for the altar, when you make atonement for it, and shall anoint it, to consecrate it.

Exo 29:37 Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and consecrate it, and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall become holy.

Exo 29:38 "Now this is what you shall offer upon the altar: two lambs a year old day by day continually.

Exo 29:39 One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening;

Exo 29:40 and with the first lamb a tenth measure of fine flour mingled with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and a fourth of a hin of wine for a libation.

Exo 29:41 And the other lamb you shall offer in the evening, and shall offer with it a cereal offering and its libation, as in the morning, for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exo 29:42 It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak there to you.

Exo 29:43 There I will meet with the people of Israel, and it shall be sanctified by my glory;

Exo 29:44 I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; Aaron also and his sons I will consecrate, to serve me as priests.

Exo 29:45 And I will dwell among the people of Israel, and will be their God.

Exo 29:46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.

Exo 30:1 "You shall make an altar to burn incense upon; of acacia wood shall you make it.

Exo 30:2 A cubit shall be its length, and a cubit its breadth; it shall be square, and two cubits shall be its height; its horns shall be of one piece with it.

Exo 30:3 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, its top and its sides round about and its horns; and you shall make for it a molding of gold round about.

Exo 30:4 And two golden rings shall you make for it; under its molding on two opposite sides of it shall you make them, and they shall be holders for poles with which to carry it.

Exo 30:5 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exo 30:6 And you shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.

Exo 30:7 And Aaron shall burn fragrant incense on it; every morning when he dresses the lamps he shall burn it,

Exo 30:8 and when Aaron sets up the lamps in the evening, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

Exo 30:9 You shall offer no unholy incense thereon, nor burnt offering, nor cereal offering; and you shall pour no libation thereon.

Exo 30:10 Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once a year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement he shall make atonement for it once in the year throughout your generations; it is most holy to the LORD."

Exo 30:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:12 "When you take the census of the people of Israel, then each shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD when you number them, that there be no plague among them when you number them.

Exo 30:13 Each who is numbered in the census shall give this: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as an offering to the LORD.

Exo 30:14 Every one who is numbered in the census, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the LORD's offering.

Exo 30:15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when you give the LORD's offering to make atonement for yourselves.

Exo 30:16 And you shall take the atonement money from the people of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tent of meeting; that it may bring the people of Israel to remembrance before the LORD, so as to make atonement for yourselves."

Exo 30:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:18 "You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base of bronze, for washing. And you shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it,

Exo 30:19 with which Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet.

Exo 30:20 When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn an offering by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, lest they die.

Exo 30:21 They shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die: it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his descendants throughout their generations."

Exo 30:22 Moreover, the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:23 "Take the finest spices: of liquid myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet-smelling cinnamon half as much, that is, two hundred and fifty, and of aromatic cane two hundred and fifty,

Exo 30:24 and of cassia five hundred, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil a hin;

Exo 30:25 and you shall make of these a sacred anointing oil blended as by the perfumer; a holy anointing oil it shall be.

Exo 30:26 And you shall anoint with it the tent of meeting and the ark of the testimony,

Exo 30:27 and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,

Exo 30:28 and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils and the laver and its base;

Exo 30:29 you shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them will become holy.

Exo 30:30 And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests.

Exo 30:31 And you shall say to the people of Israel, "This shall be my holy anointing oil throughout your generations.

Exo 30:32 It shall not be poured upon the bodies of ordinary men, and you shall make no other like it in composition; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you.

Exo 30:33 Whoever compounds any like it or whoever puts any of it on an outsider shall be cut off from his people."

Exo 30:34 And the LORD said to Moses, "Take sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum, sweet spices with pure frankincense (of each shall there be an equal part),

Exo 30:35 and make an incense blended as by the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy;

Exo 30:36 and you shall beat some of it very small, and put part of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting where I shall meet with you; it shall be for you most holy.

Exo 30:37 And the incense which you shall make according to its composition, you shall not make for yourselves; it shall be for you holy to the LORD.

Exo 30:38 Whoever makes any like it to use as perfume shall be cut off from his people."

Exo 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 31:2 "See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

Exo 31:3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with ability and intelligence, with knowledge and all craftsmanship,

Exo 31:4 to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze,

Exo 31:5 in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, for work in every craft.

Exo 31:6 And behold, I have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have given to all able men ability, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

Exo 31:7 the tent of meeting, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that is thereon, and all the furnishings of the tent,

Exo 31:8 the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,

Exo 31:9 and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base,

Exo 31:10 and the finely worked garments, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, for their service as priests,

Exo 31:11 and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the holy place. According to all that I have commanded you they shall do."

Exo 31:12 And the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 31:13 "Say to the people of Israel, "You shall keep my sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I, the LORD, sanctify you.

Exo 31:14 You shall keep the sabbath, because it is holy for you; every one who profanes it shall be put to death; whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

Exo 31:15 Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD; whoever does any work on the sabbath day shall be put to death.

Exo 31:16 Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the sabbath, observing the sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant.

Exo 31:17 It is a sign for ever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed."

Exo 31:18 And he gave to Moses, when he had made an end of speaking with him upon Mount Sinai, the two tables of the testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

Exo 32:1 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, "Up, make us gods, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

Exo 32:2 And Aaron said to them, "Take off the rings of gold which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me."

Exo 32:3 So all the people took off the rings of gold which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron.

Exo 32:4 And he received the gold at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, and made a molten calf; and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"

Exo 32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD."

Exo 32:6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

Exo 32:7 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go down; for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves;

Exo 32:8 they have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them; they have made for themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'"

Exo 32:9 And the LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people;

Exo 32:10 now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; but of you I will make a great nation."

Exo 32:11 But Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, "O LORD, why does thy wrath burn hot against thy people, whom thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

Exo 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say, 'With evil intent did he bring them forth, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

Exo 32:13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou didst swear by thine own self, and didst say to them, 'I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever.'"

Exo 32:14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do to his people.

Exo 32:15 And Moses turned, and went down from the mountain with the two tables of the testimony in his hands, tables that were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

Exo 32:16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

Exo 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is a noise of war in the camp."

Exo 32:18 But he said, "It is not the sound of shouting for victory, or the sound of the cry of defeat, but the sound of singing that I hear."

Exo 32:19 And as soon as he came near the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger burned hot, and he threw the tables out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 32:20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it upon the water, and made the people of Israel drink it.

Exo 32:21 And Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you that you have brought a great sin upon them?"

Exo 32:22 And Aaron said, "Let not the anger of my lord burn hot; you know the people, that they are set on evil.

Exo 32:23 For they said to me, 'Make us gods, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

Exo 32:24 And I said to them, 'Let any who have gold take it off'; so they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and there came out this calf."

Exo 32:25 And when Moses saw that the people had broken loose (for Aaron had let them break loose, to their shame among their enemies),

Exo 32:26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Who is on the LORD's side? Come to me." And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

Exo 32:27 And he said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Put every man his sword on his side, and go to and fro from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.'"

Exo 32:28 And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses; and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

Exo 32:29 And Moses said, "Today you have ordained yourselves for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of his son and of his brother, that he may bestow a blessing upon you this day."

Exo 32:30 On the morrow Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

Exo 32:31 So Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Alas, this people have sinned a great sin; they have made for themselves gods of gold.

Exo 32:32 But now, if thou wilt forgive their sin -- and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written."

Exo 32:33 But the LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

Exo 32:34 But now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you; behold, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, in the day when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them."

Exo 32:35 And the LORD sent a plague upon the people, because they made the calf which Aaron made.

Exo 33:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Depart, go up hence, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'To your descendants I will give it.'

Exo 33:2 And I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exo 33:3 Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I will not go up among you, lest I consume you in the way, for you are a stiff-necked people."

Exo 33:4 When the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned; and no man put on his ornaments.

Exo 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the people of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people; if for a single moment I should go up among you, I would consume you. So now put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what to do with you.'"

Exo 33:6 Therefore the people of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, from Mount Horeb onward.

Exo 33:7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp; and he called it the tent of meeting. And every one who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.

Exo 33:8 Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose up, and every man stood at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he had gone into the tent.

Exo 33:9 When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the door of the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses.

Exo 33:10 And when all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the door of the tent, all the people would rise up and worship, every man at his tent door.

Exo 33:11 Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses turned again into the camp, his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tent.

Exo 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, "See, thou sayest to me, 'Bring up this people'; but thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.'

Exo 33:13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, show me now thy ways, that I may know thee and find favor in thy sight. Consider too that this nation is thy people."

Exo 33:14 And he said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

Exo 33:15 And he said to him, "If thy presence will not go with me, do not carry us up from here.

Exo 33:16 For how shall it be known that I have found favor in thy sight, I and thy people? Is it not in thy going with us, so that we are distinct, I and thy people, from all other people that are upon the face of the earth?"

Exo 33:17 And the LORD said to Moses, "This very thing that you have spoken I will do; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."

Exo 33:18 Moses said, "I pray thee, show me thy glory."

Exo 33:19 And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you my name 'The LORD'; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

Exo 33:20 But," he said, "you cannot see my face; for man shall not see me and live."

Exo 33:21 And the LORD said, "Behold, there is a place by me where you shall stand upon the rock;

Exo 33:22 and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by;

Exo 33:23 then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

Exo 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Cut two tables of stone like the first; and I will write upon the tables the words that were on the first tables, which you broke.

Exo 34:2 Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain.

Exo 34:3 No man shall come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain; let no flocks or herds feed before that mountain."

Exo 34:4 So Moses cut two tables of stone like the first; and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand two tables of stone.

Exo 34:5 And the LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

Exo 34:6 The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness,

Exo 34:7 keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation."

Exo 34:8 And Moses made haste to bow his head toward the earth, and worshiped.

Exo 34:9 And he said, "If now I have found favor in thy sight, O Lord, let the Lord, I pray thee, go in the midst of us, although it is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thy inheritance."

Exo 34:10 And he said, "Behold, I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been wrought in all the earth or in any nation; and all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD; for it is a terrible thing that I will do with you.

Exo 34:11 "Observe what I command you this day. Behold, I will drive out before you the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exo 34:12 Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither you go, lest it become a snare in the midst of you.

Exo 34:13 You shall tear down their altars, and break their pillars, and cut down their Asherim

Exo 34:14 (for you shall worship no other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God),

Exo 34:15 lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and when they play the harlot after their gods and sacrifice to their gods and one invites you, you eat of his sacrifice,

Exo 34:16 and you take of their daughters for your sons, and their daughters play the harlot after their gods and make your sons play the harlot after their gods.

Exo 34:17 "You shall make for yourself no molten gods.

Exo 34:18 "The feast of unleavened bread you shall keep. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt.

Exo 34:19 All that opens the womb is mine, all your male cattle, the firstlings of cow and sheep.

Exo 34:20 The firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. All the first-born of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.

Exo 34:21 "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.

Exo 34:22 And you shall observe the feast of weeks, the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end.

Exo 34:23 Three times in the year shall all your males appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.

Exo 34:24 For I will cast out nations before you, and enlarge your borders; neither shall any man desire your land, when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

Exo 34:25 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left until the morning.

Exo 34:26 The first of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."

Exo 34:27 And the LORD said to Moses, "Write these words; in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."

Exo 34:28 And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

Exo 34:29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tables of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God.

Exo 34:30 And when Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

Exo 34:31 But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them.

Exo 34:32 And afterward all the people of Israel came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai.

Exo 34:33 And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face;

Exo 34:34 but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the people of Israel what he was commanded,

Exo 34:35 the people of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone; and Moses would put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Exo 35:1 Moses assembled all the congregation of the people of Israel, and said to them, "These are the things which the LORD has commanded you to do.

Exo 35:2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death;

Exo 35:3 you shall kindle no fire in all your habitations on the sabbath day."

Exo 35:4 Moses said to all the congregation of the people of Israel, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded.

Exo 35:5 Take from among you an offering to the LORD; whoever is of a generous heart, let him bring the LORD's offering: gold, silver, and bronze;

Exo 35:6 blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen; goats' hair,

Exo 35:7 tanned rams' skins, and goatskins; acacia wood,

Exo 35:8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,

Exo 35:9 and onyx stones and stones for setting, for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Exo 35:10 "And let every able man among you come and make all that the LORD has commanded: the tabernacle,

Exo 35:11 its tent and its covering, its hooks and its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;

Exo 35:12 the ark with its poles, the mercy seat, and the veil of the screen;

Exo 35:13 the table with its poles and all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

Exo 35:14 the lampstand also for the light, with its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light;

Exo 35:15 and the altar of incense, with its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the door, at the door of the tabernacle;

Exo 35:16 the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils, the laver and its base;

Exo 35:17 the hangings of the court, its pillars and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court;

Exo 35:18 the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court, and their cords;

Exo 35:19 the finely wrought garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, for their service as priests."

Exo 35:20 Then all the congregation of the people of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

Exo 35:21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him, and every one whose spirit moved him, and brought the LORD's offering to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments.

Exo 35:22 So they came, both men and women; all who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and armlets, all sorts of gold objects, every man dedicating an offering of gold to the LORD.

Exo 35:23 And every man with whom was found blue or purple or scarlet stuff or fine linen or goats' hair or tanned rams' skins or goatskins, brought them.

Exo 35:24 Every one who could make an offering of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's offering; and every man with whom was found acacia wood of any use in the work, brought it.

Exo 35:25 And all women who had ability spun with their hands, and brought what they had spun in blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen;

Exo 35:26 all the women whose hearts were moved with ability spun the goats' hair.

Exo 35:27 And the leaders brought onyx stones and stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastpiece,

Exo 35:28 and spices and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

Exo 35:29 All the men and women, the people of Israel, whose heart moved them to bring anything for the work which the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done, brought it as their freewill offering to the LORD.

Exo 35:30 And Moses said to the people of Israel, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

Exo 35:31 and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with ability, with intelligence, with knowledge, and with all craftsmanship,

Exo 35:32 to devise artistic designs, to work in gold and silver and bronze,

Exo 35:33 in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, for work in every skilled craft.

Exo 35:34 And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan.

Exo 35:35 He has filled them with ability to do every sort of work done by a craftsman or by a designer or by an embroiderer in blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen, or by a weaver -- by any sort of workman or skilled designer.

Exo 36:1 Bezalel and Oholiab and every able man in whom the LORD has put ability and intelligence to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded."

Exo 36:2 And Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every able man in whose mind the LORD had put ability, every one whose heart stirred him up to come to do the work;

Exo 36:3 and they received from Moses all the freewill offering which the people of Israel had brought for doing the work on the sanctuary. They still kept bringing him freewill offerings every morning,

Exo 36:4 so that all the able men who were doing every sort of task on the sanctuary came, each from the task that he was doing,

Exo 36:5 and said to Moses, "The people bring much more than enough for doing the work which the LORD has commanded us to do."

Exo 36:6 So Moses gave command, and word was proclaimed throughout the camp, "Let neither man nor woman do anything more for the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing;

Exo 36:7 for the stuff they had was sufficient to do all the work, and more.

Exo 36:8 And all the able men among the workmen made the tabernacle with ten curtains; they were made of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet stuff, with cherubim skilfully worked.

Exo 36:9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains had the same measure.

Exo 36:10 And he coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled to one another.

Exo 36:11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of the outmost curtain of the first set; likewise he made them on the edge of the outmost curtain of the second set;

Exo 36:12 he made fifty loops on the one curtain, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite one another.

Exo 36:13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains one to the other with clasps; so the tabernacle was one whole.

Exo 36:14 He also made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

Exo 36:15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains had the same measure.

Exo 36:16 He coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

Exo 36:17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the outmost curtain of the one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the other connecting curtain.

Exo 36:18 And he made fifty clasps of bronze to couple the tent together that it might be one whole.

Exo 36:19 And he made for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and goatskins.

Exo 36:20 Then he made the upright frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood.

Exo 36:21 Ten cubits was the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each frame.

Exo 36:22 Each frame had two tenons, for fitting together; he did this for all the frames of the tabernacle.

Exo 36:23 The frames for the tabernacle he made thus: twenty frames for the south side;

Exo 36:24 and he made forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under another frame for its two tenons.

Exo 36:25 And for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty frames

Exo 36:26 and their forty bases of silver, two bases under one frame and two bases under another frame.

Exo 36:27 And for the rear of the tabernacle westward he made six frames.

Exo 36:28 And he made two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear.

Exo 36:29 And they were separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring; he made two of them thus, for the two corners.

Exo 36:30 There were eight frames with their bases of silver: sixteen bases, under every frame two bases.

Exo 36:31 And he made bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,

Exo 36:32 and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

Exo 36:33 And he made the middle bar to pass through from end to end halfway up the frames.

Exo 36:34 And he overlaid the frames with gold, and made their rings of gold for holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

Exo 36:35 And he made the veil of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen; with cherubim skilfully worked he made it.

Exo 36:36 And for it he made four pillars of acacia, and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four bases of silver.

Exo 36:37 He also made a screen for the door of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen, embroidered with needlework;

Exo 36:38 and its five pillars with their hooks. He overlaid their capitals, and their fillets were of gold, but their five bases were of bronze.

Exo 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; two cubits and a half was its length, a cubit and a half its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height.

Exo 37:2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a molding of gold around it.

Exo 37:3 And he cast for it four rings of gold for its four corners, two rings on its one side and two rings on its other side.

Exo 37:4 And he made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold,

Exo 37:5 and put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark.

Exo 37:6 And he made a mercy seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half was its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth.

Exo 37:7 And he made two cherubim of hammered gold; on the two ends of the mercy seat he made them,

Exo 37:8 one cherub on the one end, and one cherub on the other end; of one piece with the mercy seat he made the cherubim on its two ends.

Exo 37:9 The cherubim spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces one to another; toward the mercy seat were the faces of the cherubim.

Exo 37:10 He also made the table of acacia wood; two cubits was its length, a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height;

Exo 37:11 and he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold around it.

Exo 37:12 And he made around it a frame a handbreadth wide, and made a molding of gold around the frame.

Exo 37:13 He cast for it four rings of gold, and fastened the rings to the four corners at its four legs.

Exo 37:14 Close to the frame were the rings, as holders for the poles to carry the table.

Exo 37:15 He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table, and overlaid them with gold.

Exo 37:16 And he made the vessels of pure gold which were to be upon the table, its plates and dishes for incense, and its bowls and flagons with which to pour libations.

Exo 37:17 He also made the lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand were made of hammered work; its cups, its capitals, and its flowers were of one piece with it.

Exo 37:18 And there were six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;

Exo 37:19 three cups made like almonds, each with capital and flower, on one branch, and three cups made like almonds, each with capital and flower, on the other branch -- so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

Exo 37:20 And on the lampstand itself were four cups made like almonds, with their capitals and flowers,

Exo 37:21 and a capital of one piece with it under each pair of the six branches going out of it.

Exo 37:22 Their capitals and their branches were of one piece with it; the whole of it was one piece of hammered work of pure gold.

Exo 37:23 And he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its trays of pure gold.

Exo 37:24 He made it and all its utensils of a talent of pure gold.

Exo 37:25 He made the altar of incense of acacia wood; its length was a cubit, and its breadth was a cubit; it was square, and two cubits was its height; its horns were of one piece with it.

Exo 37:26 He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, and its sides round about, and its horns; and he made a molding of gold round about it,

Exo 37:27 and made two rings of gold on it under its molding, on two opposite sides of it, as holders for the poles with which to carry it.

Exo 37:28 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Exo 37:29 He made the holy anointing oil also, and the pure fragrant incense, blended as by the perfumer.

Exo 38:1 He made the altar of burnt offering also of acacia wood; five cubits was its length, and five cubits its breadth; it was square, and three cubits was its height.

Exo 38:2 He made horns for it on its four corners; its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

Exo 38:3 And he made all the utensils of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans: all its utensils he made of bronze.

Exo 38:4 And he made for the altar a grating, a network of bronze, under its ledge, extending halfway down.

Exo 38:5 He cast four rings on the four corners of the bronze grating as holders for the poles;

Exo 38:6 he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze.

Exo 38:7 And he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them; he made it hollow, with boards.

Exo 38:8 And he made the laver of bronze and its base of bronze, from the mirrors of the ministering women who ministered at the door of the tent of meeting.

Exo 38:9 And he made the court; for the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits;

Exo 38:10 their pillars were twenty and their bases twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

Exo 38:11 And for the north side a hundred cubits, their pillars twenty, their bases twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

Exo 38:12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

Exo 38:13 And for the front to the east, fifty cubits.

Exo 38:14 The hangings for one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases.

Exo 38:15 And so for the other side; on this hand and that hand by the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases.

Exo 38:16 All the hangings round about the court were of fine twined linen.

Exo 38:17 And the bases for the pillars were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver; the overlaying of their capitals was also of silver, and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

Exo 38:18 And the screen for the gate of the court was embroidered with needlework in blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen; it was twenty cubits long and five cubits high in its breadth, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

Exo 38:19 And their pillars were four; their four bases were of bronze, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their fillets of silver.

Exo 38:20 And all the pegs for the tabernacle and for the court round about were of bronze.

Exo 38:21 This is the sum of the things for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, as they were counted at the commandment of Moses, for the work of the Levites under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Exo 38:22 Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses;

Exo 38:23 and with him was Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, a craftsman and designer and embroiderer in blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen.

Exo 38:24 All the gold that was used for the work, in all the construction of the sanctuary, the gold from the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary.

Exo 38:25 And the silver from those of the congregation who were numbered was a hundred talents and a thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary:

Exo 38:26 a beka a head (that is, half a shekel, by the shekel of the sanctuary), for every one who was numbered in the census, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men.

Exo 38:27 The hundred talents of silver were for casting the bases of the sanctuary, and the bases of the veil; a hundred bases for the hundred talents, a talent for a base.

Exo 38:28 And of the thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals and made fillets for them.

Exo 38:29 And the bronze that was contributed was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels;

Exo 38:30 with it he made the bases for the door of the tent of meeting, the bronze altar and the bronze grating for it and all the utensils of the altar,

Exo 38:31 the bases round about the court, and the bases of the gate of the court, all the pegs of the tabernacle, and all the pegs round about the court.

Exo 39:1 And of the blue and purple and scarlet stuff they made finely wrought garments, for ministering in the holy place; they made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:2 And he made the ephod of gold, blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and fine twined linen.

Exo 39:3 And gold leaf was hammered out and cut into threads to work into the blue and purple and the scarlet stuff, and into the fine twined linen, in skilled design.

Exo 39:4 They made for the ephod shoulder-pieces, joined to it at its two edges.

Exo 39:5 And the skilfully woven band upon it, to gird it on, was of the same materials and workmanship, of gold, blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and fine twined linen; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:6 The onyx stones were prepared, enclosed in settings of gold filigree and engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.

Exo 39:7 And he set them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, to be stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:8 He made the breastpiece, in skilled work, like the work of the ephod, of gold, blue and purple and scarlet stuff, and fine twined linen.

Exo 39:9 It was square; the breastpiece was made double, a span its length and a span its breadth when doubled.

Exo 39:10 And they set in it four rows of stones. A row of sardius, topaz, and carbuncle was the first row;
Exo 39:11 and the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;
Exo 39:12 and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
Exo 39:13 and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they were enclosed in settings of gold filigree.
Exo 39:14 There were twelve stones with their names according to the names of the sons of Israel; they were like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes.
Exo 39:15 And they made on the breastpiece twisted chains like cords, of pure gold;
Exo 39:16 and they made two settings of gold filigree and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece;
Exo 39:17 and they put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece.
Exo 39:18 Two ends of the two cords they had attached to the two settings of filigree; thus they attached it in front to the shoulder-pieces of the ephod.
Exo 39:19 Then they made two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.
Exo 39:20 And they made two rings of gold, and attached them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the skilfully woven band of the ephod.
Exo 39:21 And they bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, so that it should lie upon the skilfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece should not come loose from the ephod; as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:22 He also made the robe of the ephod woven all of blue;
Exo 39:23 and the opening of the robe in it was like the opening in a garment, with a binding around the opening, that it might not be torn.
Exo 39:24 On the skirts of the robe they made pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen.
Exo 39:25 They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the skirts of the robe round about, between the pomegranates;
Exo 39:26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about upon the skirts of the robe for ministering; as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:27 They also made the coats, woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,
Exo 39:28 and the turban of fine linen, and the caps of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twined linen,
Exo 39:29 and the girdle of fine twined linen and of blue and purple and scarlet stuff, embroidered with needlework; as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it an inscription, like the engraving of a signet, "Holy to the LORD."
Exo 39:31 And they tied to it a lace of blue, to fasten it on the turban above; as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:32 Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished; and the people of Israel had done according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so had they done.
Exo 39:33 And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its utensils, its hooks, its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;
Exo 39:34 the covering of tanned rams' skins and goatskins, and the veil of the screen;
Exo 39:35 the ark of the testimony with its poles and the mercy seat;
Exo 39:36 the table with all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;
Exo 39:37 the lampstand of pure gold and its lamps with the lamps set and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;
Exo 39:38 the golden altar, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the door of the tent;
Exo 39:39 the bronze altar, and its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver and its base;
Exo 39:40 the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs; and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;
Exo 39:41 the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons to serve as priests.
Exo 39:42 According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the people of Israel had done all the work.
Exo 39:43 And Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, so had they done it. And Moses blessed them.
Exo 40:1 The LORD said to Moses,
Exo 40:2 "On the first day of the first month you shall erect the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.
Exo 40:3 And you shall put in it the ark of the testimony, and you shall screen the ark with the veil.
Exo 40:4 And you shall bring in the table, and set its arrangements in order; and you shall bring in the lampstand, and set up its lamps.

Exo 40:5 And you shall put the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and set up the screen for the door of the tabernacle.

Exo 40:6 You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting,

Exo 40:7 and place the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exo 40:8 And you shall set up the court round about, and hang up the screen for the gate of the court.

Exo 40:9 Then you shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and consecrate it and all its furniture; and it shall become holy.

Exo 40:10 You shall also anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar; and the altar shall be most holy.

Exo 40:11 You shall also anoint the laver and its base, and consecrate it.

Exo 40:12 Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water,

Exo 40:13 and put upon Aaron the holy garments, and you shall anoint him and consecrate him, that he may serve me as priest.

Exo 40:14 You shall bring his sons also and put coats on them,

Exo 40:15 and anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may serve me as priests: and their anointing shall admit them to a perpetual priesthood throughout their generations."

Exo 40:16 Thus did Moses; according to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did.

Exo 40:17 And in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was erected.

Exo 40:18 Moses erected the tabernacle; he laid its bases, and set up its frames, and put in its poles, and raised up its pillars;

Exo 40:19 and he spread the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent over it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 40:20 And he took the testimony and put it into the ark, and put the poles on the ark, and set the mercy seat above on the ark;

Exo 40:21 and he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the testimony; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 40:22 And he put the table in the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil,

Exo 40:23 and set the bread in order on it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 40:24 And he put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle,

Exo 40:25 and set up the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 40:26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the veil,

Exo 40:27 and burnt fragrant incense upon it; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 40:28 And he put in place the screen for the door of the tabernacle.

Exo 40:29 And he set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the cereal offering; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 40:30 And he set the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it for washing,

Exo 40:31 with which Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet;

Exo 40:32 when they went into the tent of meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exo 40:33 And he erected the court round the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

Exo 40:34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exo 40:35 And Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting, because the cloud abode upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exo 40:36 Throughout all their journeys, whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Israel would go onward;

Exo 40:37 but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not go onward till the day that it was taken up.

Exo 40:38 For throughout all their journeys the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel.

Lev 1:1 The LORD called Moses, and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying,

Lev 1:2 "Speak to the people of Israel, and say to them, When any man of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of cattle from the herd or from the flock.

Lev 1:3 "If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish; he shall offer it at the door of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD;

Lev 1:4 he shall lay his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.

Lev 1:5 Then he shall kill the bull before the LORD; and Aaron's sons the priests shall present the blood, and throw the blood round about against the altar that is at the door of the tent of meeting.

Lev 1:6 And he shall flay the burnt offering and cut it into pieces;

Lev 1:7 and the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order upon the fire;

Lev 1:8 and Aaron's sons the priests shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;

Lev 1:9 but its entrails and its legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall burn the whole on the altar, as a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 1:10 "If his gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from the sheep or goats, he shall offer a male without blemish;

Lev 1:11 and he shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw its blood against the altar round about.

Lev 1:12 And he shall cut it into pieces, with its head and its fat, and the priest shall lay them in order upon the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;

Lev 1:13 but the entrails and the legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 1:14 "If his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves or of young pigeons.

Lev 1:15 And the priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar;

Lev 1:16 and he shall take away its crop with the feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east side, in the place for ashes;

Lev 1:17 he shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it asunder. And the priest shall burn it on the altar, upon the wood that is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 2:1 "When any one brings a cereal offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense on it,

Lev 2:2 and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. And he shall take from it a handful of the fine flour and oil, with all of its frankincense; and the priest shall burn this as its memorial portion upon the altar, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 2:3 And what is left of the cereal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.

Lev 2:4 "When you bring a cereal offering baked in the oven as an offering, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers spread with oil.

Lev 2:5 And if your offering is a cereal offering baked on a griddle, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mixed with oil;

Lev 2:6 you shall break it in pieces, and pour oil on it; it is a cereal offering.

Lev 2:7 And if your offering is a cereal offering cooked in a pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

Lev 2:8 And you shall bring the cereal offering that is made of these things to the LORD; and when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar.

Lev 2:9 And the priest shall take from the cereal offering its memorial portion and burn this on the altar, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 2:10 And what is left of the cereal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.

Lev 2:11 "No cereal offering which you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven; for you shall burn no leaven nor any honey as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Lev 2:12 As an offering of first fruits you may bring them to the LORD, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing odor.

Lev 2:13 You shall season all your cereal offerings with salt; you shall not let the salt of the covenant with your God be lacking from your cereal offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.

Lev 2:14 "If you offer a cereal offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the cereal offering of your first fruits crushed new grain from fresh ears, parched with fire.

Lev 2:15 And you shall put oil upon it, and lay frankincense on it; it is a cereal offering.

Lev 2:16 And the priest shall burn as its memorial portion part of the crushed grain and of the oil with all of its frankincense; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Lev 3:1 "If a man's offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offers an animal from the herd, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.

Lev 3:2 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering and kill it at the door of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw the blood against the altar round about.

Lev 3:3 And from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering by fire to the LORD, he shall offer the fat covering the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Lev 3:4 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys.

Lev 3:5 Then Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt offering, which is upon the wood on the fire; it is an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 3:6 "If his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD is an animal from the flock, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

Lev 3:7 If he offers a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

Lev 3:8 laying his hand upon the head of his offering and killing it before the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons shall throw its blood against the altar round about.

Lev 3:9 Then from the sacrifice of the peace offering as an offering by fire to the LORD he shall offer its fat, the fat tail entire, taking it away close by the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Lev 3:10 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys.

Lev 3:11 And the priest shall burn it on the altar as food offered by fire to the LORD.

Lev 3:12 "If his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

Lev 3:13 and lay his hand upon its head, and kill it before the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall throw its blood against the altar round about.

Lev 3:14 Then he shall offer from it, as his offering for an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat covering the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Lev 3:15 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys.

Lev 3:16 And the priest shall burn them on the altar as food offered by fire for a pleasing odor. All fat is the LORD's.

Lev 3:17 It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, in all your dwelling places, that you eat neither fat nor blood."

Lev 4:1 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 4:2 "Say to the people of Israel, If any one sins unwittingly in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them,

Lev 4:3 if it is the anointed priest who sins, thus bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer for the sin which he has committed a young bull without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering.

Lev 4:4 He shall bring the bull to the door of the tent of meeting before the LORD, and lay his hand on the head of the bull, and kill the bull before the LORD.

Lev 4:5 And the anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the tent of meeting;

Lev 4:6 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle part of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

Lev 4:7 And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before the LORD which is in the tent of meeting, and the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the door of the tent of meeting.

Lev 4:8 And all the fat of the bull of the sin offering he shall take from it, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Lev 4:9 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys

Lev 4:10 (just as these are taken from the ox of the sacrifice of the peace offerings), and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of burnt offering.

Lev 4:11 But the skin of the bull and all its flesh, with its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung,

Lev 4:12 the whole bull he shall carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and shall burn it on a fire of wood; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

Lev 4:13 "If the whole congregation of Israel commits a sin unwittingly and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they do any one of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done and are guilty;

Lev 4:14 when the sin which they have committed becomes known, the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting;

Lev 4:15 and the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be killed before the LORD.

Lev 4:16 Then the anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull to the tent of meeting,

Lev 4:17 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil.

Lev 4:18 And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is in the tent of meeting before the LORD; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the door of the tent of meeting.

Lev 4:19 And all its fat he shall take from it and burn upon the altar.

Lev 4:20 Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.

Lev 4:21 And he shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

Lev 4:22 "When a ruler sins, doing unwittingly any one of all the things which the LORD his God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty,

Lev 4:23 if the sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish,

Lev 4:24 and shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD; it is a sin offering.

Lev 4:25 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

Lev 4:26 And all its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; so the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin, and he shall be forgiven.

Lev 4:27 "If any one of the common people sins unwittingly in doing any one of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and is guilty,

Lev 4:28 when the sin which he has committed is made known to him he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has committed.

Lev 4:29 And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering.

Lev 4:30 And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:31 And all its fat he shall remove, as the fat is removed from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a pleasing odor to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be forgiven.

Lev 4:32 "If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish,

Lev 4:33 and lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

Lev 4:34 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:35 And all its fat he shall remove as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar, upon the offerings by fire to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed, and he shall be forgiven.

Lev 5:1 "If any one sins in that he hears a public adjuration to testify and though he is a witness, whether he has seen or come to know the matter, yet does not speak, he shall bear his iniquity.

Lev 5:2 Or if any one touches an unclean thing, whether the carcass of an unclean beast or a carcass of unclean cattle or a carcass of unclean swarming things, and it is hidden from him, and he has become unclean, he shall be guilty.

Lev 5:3 Or if he touches human uncleanness, of whatever sort the uncleanness may be with which one becomes unclean, and it is hidden from him, when he comes to know it he shall be guilty.

Lev 5:4 Or if any one utters with his lips a rash oath to do evil or to do good, any sort of rash oath that men swear, and it is hidden from him, when he comes to know it he shall in any of these be guilty.

Lev 5:5 When a man is guilty in any of these, he shall confess the sin he has committed,

Lev 5:6 and he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.

Lev 5:7 "But if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall bring, as his guilt offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Lev 5:8 He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering; he shall wring its head from its neck, but shall not sever it,

Lev 5:9 and he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.

Lev 5:10 Then he shall offer the second for a burnt offering according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed, and he shall be forgiven.

Lev 5:11 "But if he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he shall bring, as his offering for the sin which he has committed, a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, and shall put no frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.

Lev 5:12 And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take a handful of it as its memorial portion and burn this on the altar, upon the offerings by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering.

Lev 5:13 Thus the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed in any one of these things, and he shall be forgiven. And the remainder shall be for the priest, as in the cereal offering."

Lev 5:14 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 5:15 "If any one commits a breach of faith and sins unwittingly in any of the holy things of the LORD, he shall bring, as his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued by you in shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; it is a guilt offering.

Lev 5:16 He shall also make restitution for what he has done amiss in the holy thing, and shall add a fifth to it and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and he shall be forgiven.

Lev 5:17 "If any one sins, doing any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, though he does not know it, yet he is guilty and shall bear his iniquity.

Lev 5:18 He shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued by you at the price for a guilt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him for the error which he committed unwittingly, and he shall be forgiven.

Lev 5:19 It is a guilt offering; he is guilty before the LORD."

Lev 6:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 6:2 "If any one sins and commits a breach of faith against the LORD by deceiving his neighbor in a matter of deposit or security, or through robbery, or if he has oppressed his neighbor

Lev 6:3 or has found what was lost and lied about it, swearing falsely -- in any of all the things which men do and sin therein,

Lev 6:4 when one has sinned and become guilty, he shall restore what he took by robbery, or what he got by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost thing which he found,

Lev 6:5 or anything about which he has sworn falsely; he shall restore it in full, and shall add a fifth to it, and give it to him to whom it belongs, on the day of his guilt offering.

Lev 6:6 And he shall bring to the priest his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued by you at the price for a guilt offering;

Lev 6:7 and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any of the things which one may do and thereby become guilty."

Lev 6:8 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 6:9 "Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering. The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.

Lev 6:10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and put his linen breeches upon his body, and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and put them beside the altar.

Lev 6:11 Then he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

Lev 6:12 The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it, it shall not go out; the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.

Lev 6:13 Fire shall be kept burning upon the altar continually; it shall not go out.

Lev 6:14 "And this is the law of the cereal offering. The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

Lev 6:15 And one shall take from it a handful of the fine flour of the cereal offering with its oil and all the frankincense which is on the cereal offering, and burn this as its memorial portion on the altar, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 6:16 And the rest of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; it shall be eaten unleavened in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it.

Lev 6:17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings by fire; it is a thing most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

Lev 6:18 Every male among the children of Aaron may eat of it, as decreed for ever throughout your generations, from the LORD's offerings by fire; whoever touches them shall become holy."

Lev 6:19 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 6:20 "This is the offering which Aaron and his sons shall offer to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular cereal offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

Lev 6:21 It shall be made with oil on a griddle; you shall bring it well mixed, in baked pieces like a cereal offering, and offer it for a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 6:22 The priest from among Aaron's sons, who is anointed to succeed him, shall offer it to the LORD as decreed for ever; the whole of it shall be burned.

Lev 6:23 Every cereal offering of a priest shall be wholly burned; it shall not be eaten."

Lev 6:24 The LORD said to Moses,
Lev 6:25 "Say to Aaron and his sons, This is the law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD; it is most holy.
Lev 6:26 The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it; in a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tent of meeting.
Lev 6:27 Whatever touches its flesh shall be holy; and when any of its blood is sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place.
Lev 6:28 And the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; but if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be scoured, and rinsed in water.
Lev 6:29 Every male among the priests may eat of it; it is most holy.
Lev 6:30 But no sin offering shall be eaten from which any blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place; it shall be burned with fire.
Lev 7:1 "This is the law of the guilt offering. It is most holy;
Lev 7:2 in the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the guilt offering, and its blood shall be thrown on the altar round about.
Lev 7:3 And all its fat shall be offered, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails,
Lev 7:4 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys;
Lev 7:5 the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.
Lev 7:6 Every male among the priests may eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.
Lev 7:7 The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is one law for them; the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.
Lev 7:8 And the priest who offers any man's burnt offering shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered.
Lev 7:9 And every cereal offering baked in the oven and all that is prepared on a pan or a griddle shall belong to the priest who offers it.
Lev 7:10 And every cereal offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall be for all the sons of Aaron, one as well as another.
Lev 7:11 "And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which one may offer to the LORD.
Lev 7:12 If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the thank offering unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour well mixed with oil.
Lev 7:13 With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving he shall bring his offering with cakes of leavened bread.
Lev 7:14 And of such he shall offer one cake from each offering, as an offering to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who throws the blood of the peace offerings.
Lev 7:15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.
Lev 7:16 But if the sacrifice of his offering is a votive offering or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the morrow what remains of it shall be eaten,
Lev 7:17 but what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.
Lev 7:18 If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten on the third day, he who offers it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be credited to him; it shall be an abomination, and he who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.
Lev 7:19 "Flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. All who are clean may eat flesh,
Lev 7:20 but the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the LORD's peace offerings while an uncleanness is on him, that person shall be cut off from his people.
Lev 7:21 And if any one touches an unclean thing, whether the uncleanness of man or an unclean beast or any unclean abomination, and then eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the LORD's peace offerings, that person shall be cut off from his people."
Lev 7:22 The LORD said to Moses,
Lev 7:23 "Say to the people of Israel, You shall eat no fat, of ox, or sheep, or goat.
Lev 7:24 The fat of an animal that dies of itself, and the fat of one that is torn by beasts, may be put to any other use, but on no account shall you eat it.
Lev 7:25 For every person who eats of the fat of an animal of which an offering by fire is made to the LORD shall be cut off from his people.
Lev 7:26 Moreover you shall eat no blood whatever, whether of fowl or of animal, in any of your dwellings.
Lev 7:27 Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people."
Lev 7:28 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 7:29 "Say to the people of Israel, He that offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD; from the sacrifice of his peace offerings

Lev 7:30 he shall bring with his own hands the offerings by fire to the LORD; he shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD.

Lev 7:31 The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be for Aaron and his sons.

Lev 7:32 And the right thigh you shall give to the priest as an offering from the sacrifice of your peace offerings;

Lev 7:33 he among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh for a portion.

Lev 7:34 For the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered I have taken from the people of Israel, out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel.

Lev 7:35 This is the portion of Aaron and of his sons from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, consecrated to them on the day they were presented to serve as priests of the LORD;

Lev 7:36 the LORD commanded this to be given them by the people of Israel, on the day that they were anointed; it is a perpetual due throughout their generations."

Lev 7:37 This is the law of the burnt offering, of the cereal offering, of the sin offering, of the guilt offering, of the consecration, and of the peace offerings,

Lev 7:38 which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day that he commanded the people of Israel to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

Lev 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 8:2 "Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread;

Lev 8:3 and assemble all the congregation at the door of the tent of meeting."

Lev 8:4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the tent of meeting.

Lev 8:5 And Moses said to the congregation, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded to be done."

Lev 8:6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.

Lev 8:7 And he put on him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and girded him with the skilfully woven band of the ephod, binding it to him therewith.

Lev 8:8 And he placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.

Lev 8:9 And he set the turban upon his head, and on the turban, in front, he set the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:10 Then Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.

Lev 8:11 And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them.

Lev 8:12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed him, to consecrate him.

Lev 8:13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and clothed them with coats, and girded them with girdles, and bound caps on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:14 Then he brought the bull of the sin offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull of the sin offering.

Lev 8:15 And Moses killed it, and took the blood, and with his finger put it on the horns of the altar round about, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.

Lev 8:16 And he took all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.

Lev 8:17 But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:18 Then he presented the ram of the burnt offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

Lev 8:19 And Moses killed it, and threw the blood upon the altar round about.

Lev 8:20 And when the ram was cut into pieces, Moses burned the head and the pieces and the fat.

Lev 8:21 And when the entrails and the legs were washed with water, Moses burned the whole ram on the altar, as a burnt offering, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:22 Then he presented the other ram, the ram of ordination; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

Lev 8:23 And Moses killed it, and took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot.

Lev 8:24 And Aaron's sons were brought, and Moses put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toes of their right feet; and Moses threw the blood upon the altar round about.

Lev 8:25 Then he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh;

Lev 8:26 and out of the basket of unleavened bread which was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of bread with oil, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh;

Lev 8:27 and he put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.

Lev 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar with the burnt offering, as an ordination offering, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Lev 8:29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD; it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 8:30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron and his garments, and also upon his sons and his sons' garments; so he consecrated Aaron and his garments, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

Lev 8:31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the tent of meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it';

Lev 8:32 and what remains of the flesh and the bread you shall burn with fire.

Lev 8:33 And you shall not go out from the door of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed, for it will take seven days to ordain you.

Lev 8:34 As has been done today, the LORD has commanded to be done to make atonement for you.

Lev 8:35 At the door of the tent of meeting you shall remain day and night for seven days, performing what the LORD has charged, lest you die; for so I am commanded."

Lev 8:36 And Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by Moses.

Lev 9:1 On the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

Lev 9:2 and he said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

Lev 9:3 And say to the people of Israel, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering,

Lev 9:4 and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a cereal offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.'"

Lev 9:5 And they brought what Moses commanded before the tent of meeting; and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

Lev 9:6 And Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do; and the glory of the LORD will appear to you."

Lev 9:7 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people; and bring the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD has commanded."

Lev 9:8 So Aaron drew near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

Lev 9:9 And the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar;

Lev 9:10 but the fat and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering he burned upon the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 9:11 The flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.

Lev 9:12 And he killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, and he threw it on the altar round about.

Lev 9:13 And they delivered the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head; and he burned them upon the altar.

Lev 9:14 And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

Lev 9:15 Then he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first sin offering.

Lev 9:16 And he presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance.

Lev 9:17 And he presented the cereal offering, and filled his hand from it, and burned it upon the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

Lev 9:18 He killed the ox also and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings for the people; and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he threw upon the altar round about,

Lev 9:19 and the fat of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the entrails, and the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver;

Lev 9:20 and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned the fat upon the altar,
Lev 9:21 but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.
Lev 9:22 Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.
Lev 9:23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting; and when they came out they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.
Lev 9:24 And fire came forth from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.
Lev 10:1 Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer, and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and offered unholy fire before the LORD, such as he had not commanded them.
Lev 10:2 And fire came forth from the presence of the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.
Lev 10:3 Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD has said, 'I will show myself holy among those who are near me, and before all the people I will be glorified.'" And Aaron held his peace.
Lev 10:4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp."
Lev 10:5 So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.
Lev 10:6 And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, "Do not let the hair of your heads hang loose, and do not rend your clothes, lest you die, and lest wrath come upon all the congregation; but your brethren, the whole house of Israel, may bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled.
Lev 10:7 And do not go out from the door of the tent of meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.
Lev 10:8 And the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying,
Lev 10:9 "Drink no wine nor strong drink, you nor your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting, lest you die; it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations.
Lev 10:10 You are to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;
Lev 10:11 and you are to teach the people of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by Moses."
Lev 10:12 And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were left, "Take the cereal offering that remains of the offerings by fire to the LORD, and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy;
Lev 10:13 you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due, from the offerings by fire to the LORD; for so I am commanded.
Lev 10:14 But the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered you shall eat in any clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they are given as your due and your sons' due, from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the people of Israel.
Lev 10:15 The thigh that is offered and the breast that is waved they shall bring with the offerings by fire of the fat, to wave for a wave offering before the LORD, and it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, as a due for ever; as the LORD has commanded."
Lev 10:16 Now Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it was burned! And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying,
Lev 10:17 "Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, since it is a thing most holy and has been given to you that you may bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?
Lev 10:18 Behold, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You certainly ought to have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded."
Lev 10:19 And Aaron said to Moses, "Behold, today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and yet such things as these have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been acceptable in the sight of the LORD?"
Lev 10:20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.
Lev 11:1 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
Lev 11:2 "Say to the people of Israel, These are the living things which you may eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.
Lev 11:3 Whatever parts the hoof and is cloven-footed and chews the cud, among the animals, you may eat.
Lev 11:4 Nevertheless among those that chew the cud or part the hoof, you shall not eat these: The camel, because it chews the cud but does not part the hoof, is unclean to you.
Lev 11:5 And the rock badger, because it chews the cud but does not part the hoof, is unclean to you.
Lev 11:6 And the hare, because it chews the cud but does not part the hoof, is unclean to you.

Lev 11:7 And the swine, because it parts the hoof and is cloven-footed but does not chew the cud, is unclean to you.

Lev 11:8 Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.

Lev 11:9 "These you may eat, of all that are in the waters. Everything in the waters that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers, you may eat.

Lev 11:10 But anything in the seas or the rivers that has not fins and scales, of the swarming creatures in the waters and of the living creatures that are in the waters, is an abomination to you.

Lev 11:11 They shall remain an abomination to you; of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall have in abomination.

Lev 11:12 Everything in the waters that has not fins and scales is an abomination to you.

Lev 11:13 "And these you shall have in abomination among the birds, they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,

Lev 11:14 the kite, the falcon according to its kind,

Lev 11:15 every raven according to its kind,

Lev 11:16 the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk according to its kind,

Lev 11:17 the owl, the cormorant, the ibis,

Lev 11:18 the water hen, the pelican, the carrion vulture,

Lev 11:19 the stork, the heron according to its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

Lev 11:20 "All winged insects that go upon all fours are an abomination to you.

Lev 11:21 Yet among the winged insects that go on all fours you may eat those which have legs above their feet, with which to leap on the earth.

Lev 11:22 Of them you may eat: the locust according to its kind, the bald locust according to its kind, the cricket according to its kind, and the grasshopper according to its kind.

Lev 11:23 But all other winged insects which have four feet are an abomination to you.

Lev 11:24 "And by these you shall become unclean; whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening,

Lev 11:25 and whoever carries any part of their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

Lev 11:26 Every animal which parts the hoof but is not cloven-footed or does not chew the cud is unclean to you; every one who touches them shall be unclean.

Lev 11:27 And all that go on their paws, among the animals that go on all fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening,

Lev 11:28 and he who carries their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.

Lev 11:29 "And these are unclean to you among the swarming things that swarm upon the earth: the weasel, the mouse, the great lizard according to its kind,

Lev 11:30 the gecko, the land crocodile, the lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

Lev 11:31 These are unclean to you among all that swarm; whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

Lev 11:32 And anything upon which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is an article of wood or a garment or a skin or a sack, any vessel that is used for any purpose; it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be clean.

Lev 11:33 And if any of them falls into any earthen vessel, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it.

Lev 11:34 Any food in it which may be eaten, upon which water may come, shall be unclean; and all drink which may be drunk from every such vessel shall be unclean.

Lev 11:35 And everything upon which any part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether oven or stove, it shall be broken in pieces; they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.

Lev 11:36 Nevertheless a spring or a cistern holding water shall be clean; but whatever touches their carcass shall be unclean.

Lev 11:37 And if any part of their carcass falls upon any seed for sowing that is to be sown, it is clean;

Lev 11:38 but if water is put on the seed and any part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

Lev 11:39 "And if any animal of which you may eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening,

Lev 11:40 and he who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; he also who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

Lev 11:41 "Every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth is an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

Lev 11:42 Whatever goes on its belly, and whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, all the swarming things that swarm upon the earth, you shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

Lev 11:43 You shall not make yourselves abominable with any swarming thing that swarms; and you shall not defile yourselves with them, lest you become unclean.

Lev 11:44 For I am the LORD your God; consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming thing that crawls upon the earth.

Lev 11:45 For I am the LORD who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; you shall therefore be holy, for I am holy."

Lev 11:46 This is the law pertaining to beast and bird and every living creature that moves through the waters and every creature that swarms upon the earth,

Lev 11:47 to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean and between the living creature that may be eaten and the living creature that may not be eaten.

Lev 12:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 12:2 "Say to the people of Israel, If a woman conceives, and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as at the time of her menstruation, she shall be unclean.

Lev 12:3 And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

Lev 12:4 Then she shall continue for thirty-three days in the blood of her purifying; she shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed.

Lev 12:5 But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying for sixty-six days.

Lev 12:6 "And when the days of her purifying are completed, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the door of the tent of meeting a lamb a year old for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering,

Lev 12:7 and he shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement for her; then she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who bears a child, either male or female.

Lev 12:8 And if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean."

Lev 13:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 13:2 "When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling or an eruption or a spot, and it turns into a leprous disease on the skin of his body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests,

Lev 13:3 and the priest shall examine the diseased spot on the skin of his body; and if the hair in the diseased spot has turned white and the disease appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous disease; when the priest has examined him he shall pronounce him unclean.

Lev 13:4 But if the spot is white in the skin of his body, and appears no deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall shut up the diseased person for seven days;

Lev 13:5 and the priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the disease is checked and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more;

Lev 13:6 and the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the diseased spot is dim and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

Lev 13:7 But if the eruption spreads in the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again before the priest;

Lev 13:8 and the priest shall make an examination, and if the eruption has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

Lev 13:9 "When a man is afflicted with leprosy, he shall be brought to the priest;

Lev 13:10 and the priest shall make an examination, and if there is a white swelling in the skin, which has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling,

Lev 13:11 it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.

Lev 13:12 And if the leprosy breaks out in the skin, so that the leprosy covers all the skin of the diseased person from head to foot, so far as the priest can see,

Lev 13:13 then the priest shall make an examination, and if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; it has all turned white, and he is clean.

Lev 13:14 But when raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

Lev 13:15 And the priest shall examine the raw flesh, and pronounce him unclean; raw flesh is unclean, for it is leprosy.

Lev 13:16 But if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest,

Lev 13:17 and the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce the diseased person clean; he is clean.

Lev 13:18 "And when there is in the skin of one's body a boil that has healed,

Lev 13:19 and in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a reddish-white spot, then it shall be shown to the priest;

Lev 13:20 and the priest shall make an examination, and if it appears deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the disease of leprosy, it has broken out in the boil.

Lev 13:21 But if the priest examines it, and the hair on it is not white and it is not deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall shut him up seven days;

Lev 13:22 and if it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is diseased.

Lev 13:23 But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Lev 13:24 "Or, when the body has a burn on its skin and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a spot, reddish-white or white,

Lev 13:25 the priest shall examine it, and if the hair in the spot has turned white and it appears deeper than the skin, then it is leprosy; it has broken out in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.

Lev 13:26 But if the priest examines it, and the hair in the spot is not white and it is no deeper than the skin, but is dim, the priest shall shut him up seven days,

Lev 13:27 and the priest shall examine him the seventh day; if it is spreading in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.

Lev 13:28 But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread in the skin, but is dim, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of the burn.

Lev 13:29 "When a man or woman has a disease on the head or the beard,

Lev 13:30 the priest shall examine the disease; and if it appears deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an itch, a leprosy of the head or the beard.

Lev 13:31 And if the priest examines the itching disease, and it appears no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up the person with the itching disease for seven days,

Lev 13:32 and on the seventh day the priest shall examine the disease; and if the itch has not spread, and there is in it no yellow hair, and the itch appears to be no deeper than the skin,

Lev 13:33 then he shall shave himself, but the itch he shall not shave; and the priest shall shut up the person with the itching disease for seven days more;

Lev 13:34 and on the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch, and if the itch has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

Lev 13:35 But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing, Lev 13:36 then the priest shall examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.

Lev 13:37 But if in his eyes the itch is checked, and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Lev 13:38 "When a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots,

Lev 13:39 the priest shall make an examination, and if the spots on the skin of the body are of a dull white, it is tetter that has broken out in the skin; he is clean.

Lev 13:40 "If a man's hair has fallen from his head, he is bald but he is clean.

Lev 13:41 And if a man's hair has fallen from his forehead and temples, he has baldness of the forehead but he is clean.

Lev 13:42 But if there is on the bald head or the bald forehead a reddish-white diseased spot, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.

Lev 13:43 Then the priest shall examine him, and if the diseased swelling is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the body,

Lev 13:44 he is a leprous man, he is unclean; the priest must pronounce him unclean; his disease is on his head.

Lev 13:45 "The leper who has the disease shall wear torn clothes and let the hair of his head hang loose, and he shall cover his upper lip and cry, 'Unclean, unclean.'

Lev 13:46 He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone in a habitation outside the camp.

Lev 13:47 "When there is a leprous disease in a garment, whether a woolen or a linen garment,

Lev 13:48 in warp or woof of linen or wool, or in a skin or in anything made of skin,

Lev 13:49 if the disease shows greenish or reddish in the garment, whether in warp or woof or in skin or in anything made of skin, it is a leprous disease and shall be shown to the priest.

Lev 13:50 And the priest shall examine the disease, and shut up that which has the disease for seven days;

Lev 13:51 then he shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the garment, in warp or woof, or in the skin, whatever be the use of the skin, the disease is a malignant leprosy; it is unclean.

Lev 13:52 And he shall burn the garment, whether diseased in warp or woof, woolen or linen, or anything of skin, for it is a malignant leprosy; it shall be burned in the fire.

Lev 13:53 "And if the priest examines, and the disease has not spread in the garment in warp or woof or in anything of skin,

Lev 13:54 then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the disease, and he shall shut it up seven days more;

Lev 13:55 and the priest shall examine the diseased thing after it has been washed. And if the diseased spot has not changed color, though the disease has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire, whether the leprous spot is on the back or on the front.

Lev 13:56 "But if the priest examines, and the disease is dim after it is washed, he shall tear the spot out of the garment or the skin or the warp or woof;

Lev 13:57 then if it appears again in the garment, in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading; you shall burn with fire that in which is the disease.

Lev 13:58 But the garment, warp or woof, or anything of skin from which the disease departs when you have washed it, shall then be washed a second time, and be clean."

Lev 13:59 This is the law for a leprous disease in a garment of wool or linen, either in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, to decide whether it is clean or unclean.

Lev 14:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 14:2 "This shall be the law of the leper for the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest;

Lev 14:3 and the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall make an examination. Then, if the leprous disease is healed in the leper,

Lev 14:4 the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds and cedarwood and scarlet stuff and hyssop;

Lev 14:5 and the priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.

Lev 14:6 He shall take the living bird with the cedarwood and the scarlet stuff and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water;

Lev 14:7 and he shall sprinkle it seven times upon him who is to be cleansed of leprosy; then he shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird go into the open field.

Lev 14:8 And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water, and he shall be clean; and after that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days.

Lev 14:9 And on the seventh day he shall shave all his hair off his head; he shall shave off his beard and his eyebrows, all his hair. Then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and he shall be clean.

Lev 14:10 "And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish, and a cereal offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, and one log of oil.

Lev 14:11 And the priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed and these things before the LORD, at the door of the tent of meeting.

Lev 14:12 And the priest shall take one of the male lambs, and offer it for a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD;

Lev 14:13 and he shall kill the lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place; for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

Lev 14:14 The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.

Lev 14:15 Then the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand,

Lev 14:16 and dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and sprinkle some oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

Lev 14:17 And some of the oil that remains in his hand the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the guilt offering;

Lev 14:18 and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

Lev 14:19 The priest shall offer the sin offering, to make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterward he shall kill the burnt offering;

Lev 14:20 and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the cereal offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

Lev 14:21 "But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering, and a log of oil;

Lev 14:22 also two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he can afford; the one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

Lev 14:23 And on the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting, before the LORD;

Lev 14:24 and the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.

Lev 14:25 And he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.

Lev 14:26 And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand;

Lev 14:27 and shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD;

Lev 14:28 and the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and the great toe of his right foot, in the place where the blood of the guilt offering was put;

Lev 14:29 and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

Lev 14:30 And he shall offer, of the turtledoves or young pigeons such as he can afford,

Lev 14:31 one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, along with a cereal offering; and the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for him who is being cleansed.

Lev 14:32 This is the law for him in whom is a leprous disease, who cannot afford the offerings for his cleansing."

Lev 14:33 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 14:34 "When you come into the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a leprous disease in a house in the land of your possession,

Lev 14:35 then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, 'There seems to me to be some sort of disease in my house.'

Lev 14:36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to examine the disease, lest all that is in the house be declared unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house.

Lev 14:37 And he shall examine the disease; and if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface,

Lev 14:38 then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

Lev 14:39 And the priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look; and if the disease has spread in the walls of the house,

Lev 14:40 then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the disease and throw them into an unclean place outside the city;

Lev 14:41 and he shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped round about, and the plaster that they scrape off they shall pour into an unclean place outside the city;

Lev 14:42 then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other plaster and plaster the house.

Lev 14:43 "If the disease breaks out again in the house, after he has taken out the stones and scraped the house and plastered it,

Lev 14:44 then the priest shall go and look; and if the disease has spread in the house, it is a malignant leprosy in the house; it is unclean.

Lev 14:45 And he shall break down the house, its stones and timber and all the plaster of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city to an unclean place.

Lev 14:46 Moreover he who enters the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening;

Lev 14:47 and he who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

Lev 14:48 "But if the priest comes and makes an examination, and the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, for the disease is healed.

Lev 14:49 And for the cleansing of the house he shall take two small birds, with cedarwood and scarlet stuff and hyssop,

Lev 14:50 and shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water,

Lev 14:51 and shall take the cedarwood and the hyssop and the scarlet stuff, along with the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the bird that was killed and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Lev 14:52 Thus he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedarwood and hyssop and scarlet stuff;

Lev 14:53 and he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field; so he shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean."

Lev 14:54 This is the law for any leprous disease: for an itch,
Lev 14:55 for leprosy in a garment or in a house,
Lev 14:56 and for a swelling or an eruption or a spot,
Lev 14:57 to show when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law for leprosy.
Lev 15:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
Lev 15:2 "Say to the people of Israel, When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.
Lev 15:3 And this is the law of his uncleanness for a discharge: whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped from discharge, it is uncleanness in him.
Lev 15:4 Every bed on which he who has the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.
Lev 15:5 And any one who touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:6 And whoever sits on anything on which he who has the discharge has sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:7 And whoever touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:8 And if he who has the discharge spits on one who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:9 And any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.
Lev 15:10 And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening; and he who carries such a thing shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:11 Any one whom he that has the discharge touches without having rinsed his hands in water shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:12 And the earthen vessel which he who has the discharge touches shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
Lev 15:13 "And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his body in running water, and shall be clean.
Lev 15:14 And on the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the tent of meeting, and give them to the priest;
Lev 15:15 and the priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD for his discharge.
Lev 15:16 "And if a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:17 And every garment and every skin on which the semen comes shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:18 If a man lies with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them shall bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:19 "When a woman has a discharge of blood which is her regular discharge from her body, she shall be in her impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:20 And everything upon which she lies during her impurity shall be unclean; everything also upon which she sits shall be unclean.
Lev 15:21 And whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:22 And whoever touches anything upon which she sits shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening;
Lev 15:23 whether it is the bed or anything upon which she sits, when he touches it he shall be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:24 And if any man lies with her, and her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.
Lev 15:25 "If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall continue in uncleanness; as in the days of her impurity, she shall be unclean.
Lev 15:26 Every bed on which she lies, all the days of her discharge, shall be to her as the bed of her impurity; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her impurity.
Lev 15:27 And whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
Lev 15:28 But if she is cleansed of her discharge, she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

Lev 15:29 And on the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting.

Lev 15:30 And the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for her unclean discharge.

Lev 15:31 "Thus you shall keep the people of Israel separate from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness by defiling my tabernacle that is in their midst."

Lev 15:32 This is the law for him who has a discharge and for him who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean thereby;

Lev 15:33 also for her who is sick with her impurity; that is, for any one, male or female, who has a discharge, and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

Lev 16:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD and died;

Lev 16:2 and the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your brother not to come at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is upon the ark, lest he die; for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.

Lev 16:3 But thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and shall have the linen breeches on his body, be girded with the linen girdle, and wear the linen turban; these are the holy garments. He shall bathe his body in water, and then put them on.

Lev 16:5 And he shall take from the congregation of the people of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:6 "And Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house.

Lev 16:7 Then he shall take the two goats, and set them before the LORD at the door of the tent of meeting;

Lev 16:8 and Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for Azazel.

Lev 16:9 And Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD, and offer it as a sin offering;

Lev 16:10 but the goat on which the lot fell for Azazel shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over it, that it may be sent away into the wilderness to Azazel.

Lev 16:11 "Aaron shall present the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house; he shall kill the bull as a sin offering for himself.

Lev 16:12 And he shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, and two handfuls of sweet incense beaten small; and he shall bring it within the veil

Lev 16:13 and put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat which is upon the testimony, lest he die;

Lev 16:14 and he shall take some of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times.

Lev 16:15 "Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, and bring its blood within the veil, and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it upon the mercy seat and before the mercy seat;

Lev 16:16 thus he shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleannesses of the people of Israel, and because of their transgressions, all their sins; and so he shall do for the tent of meeting, which abides with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.

Lev 16:17 There shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he enters to make atonement in the holy place until he comes out and has made atonement for himself and for his house and for all the assembly of Israel.

Lev 16:18 Then he shall go out to the altar which is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar round about.

Lev 16:19 And he shall sprinkle some of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it and hallow it from the uncleannesses of the people of Israel.

Lev 16:20 "And when he has made an end of atoning for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat;

Lev 16:21 and Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the people of Israel, and all their transgressions, all their sins; and he shall put them upon the head of the goat, and send him away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness.

Lev 16:22 The goat shall bear all their iniquities upon him to a solitary land; and he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

Lev 16:23 "Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there;

Lev 16:24 and he shall bathe his body in water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.

Lev 16:25 And the fat of the sin offering he shall burn upon the altar.
Lev 16:26 And he who lets the goat go to Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
Lev 16:27 And the bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be carried forth outside the camp; their skin and their flesh and their dung shall be burned with fire.
Lev 16:28 And he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
Lev 16:29 "And it shall be a statute to you for ever that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict yourselves, and shall do no work, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you;
Lev 16:30 for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the LORD.
Lev 16:31 It is a sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; it is a statute for ever.
Lev 16:32 And the priest who is anointed and consecrated as priest in his father's place shall make atonement, wearing the holy linen garments;
Lev 16:33 he shall make atonement for the sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.
Lev 16:34 And this shall be an everlasting statute for you, that atonement may be made for the people of Israel once in the year because of all their sins." And Moses did as the LORD commanded him.
Lev 17:1 And the LORD said to Moses,
Lev 17:2 "Say to Aaron and his sons, and to all the people of Israel, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded.
Lev 17:3 If any man of the house of Israel kills an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or kills it outside the camp,
Lev 17:4 and does not bring it to the door of the tent of meeting, to offer it as a gift to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, bloodguilt shall be imputed to that man; he has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people.
Lev 17:5 This is to the end that the people of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they slay in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the priest at the door of the tent of meeting, and slay them as sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD;
Lev 17:6 and the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tent of meeting, and burn the fat for a pleasing odor to the LORD.
Lev 17:7 So they shall no more slay their sacrifices for satyrs, after whom they play the harlot. This shall be a statute for ever to them throughout their generations.
Lev 17:8 "And you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,
Lev 17:9 and does not bring it to the door of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it to the LORD; that man shall be cut off from his people.
Lev 17:10 "If any man of the house of Israel or of the strangers that sojourn among them eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people.
Lev 17:11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it for you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement, by reason of the life.
Lev 17:12 Therefore I have said to the people of Israel, No person among you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.
Lev 17:13 Any man also of the people of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, who takes in hunting any beast or bird that may be eaten shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust.
Lev 17:14 "For the life of every creature is the blood of it; therefore I have said to the people of Israel, You shall not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.
Lev 17:15 And every person that eats what dies of itself or what is torn by beasts, whether he is a native or a sojourner, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening; then he shall be clean.
Lev 17:16 But if he does not wash them or bathe his flesh, he shall bear his iniquity."
Lev 18:1 And the LORD said to Moses,
Lev 18:2 "Say to the people of Israel, I am the LORD your God.
Lev 18:3 You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you dwelt, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not walk in their statutes.
Lev 18:4 You shall do my ordinances and keep my statutes and walk in them. I am the LORD your God.
Lev 18:5 You shall therefore keep my statutes and my ordinances, by doing which a man shall live: I am the LORD.

Lev 18:6 "None of you shall approach any one near of kin to him to uncover nakedness. I am the LORD.
Lev 18:7 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother; she is your mother, you shall not uncover her nakedness.
Lev 18:8 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is your father's nakedness.
Lev 18:9 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or born abroad.
Lev 18:10 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter, for their nakedness is your own nakedness.
Lev 18:11 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten by your father, since she is your sister.
Lev 18:12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's near kinswoman.
Lev 18:13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's near kinswoman.
Lev 18:14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, that is, you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.
Lev 18:15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife, you shall not uncover her nakedness.
Lev 18:16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; she is your brother's nakedness.
Lev 18:17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and of her daughter, and you shall not take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are your near kinswomen; it is wickedness.
Lev 18:18 And you shall not take a woman as a rival wife to her sister, uncovering her nakedness while her sister is yet alive.
Lev 18:19 "You shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness while she is in her menstrual uncleanness.
Lev 18:20 And you shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife, and defile yourself with her.
Lev 18:21 You shall not give any of your children to devote them by fire to Molech, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.
Lev 18:22 You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.
Lev 18:23 And you shall not lie with any beast and defile yourself with it, neither shall any woman give herself to a beast to lie with it: it is perversion.
Lev 18:24 "Do not defile yourselves by any of these things, for by all these the nations I am casting out before you defiled themselves;
Lev 18:25 and the land became defiled, so that I punished its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.
Lev 18:26 But you shall keep my statutes and my ordinances and do none of these abominations, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you
Lev 18:27 (for all of these abominations the men of the land did, who were before you, so that the land became defiled);
Lev 18:28 lest the land vomit you out, when you defile it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.
Lev 18:29 For whoever shall do any of these abominations, the persons that do them shall be cut off from among their people.
Lev 18:30 So keep my charge never to practice any of these abominable customs which were practiced before you, and never to defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God."
Lev 19:1 And the LORD said to Moses,
Lev 19:2 "Say to all the congregation of the people of Israel, You shall be holy; for I the LORD your God am holy.
Lev 19:3 Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and you shall keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.
Lev 19:4 Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.
Lev 19:5 "When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted.
Lev 19:6 It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, or on the morrow; and anything left over until the third day shall be burned with fire.
Lev 19:7 If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination; it will not be accepted,
Lev 19:8 and every one who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned a holy thing of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.
Lev 19:9 "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field to its very border, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest.
Lev 19:10 And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard;

you shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:11 "You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another.

Lev 19:12 And you shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:13 "You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning.

Lev 19:14 You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:15 "You shall do no injustice in judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor.

Lev 19:16 You shall not go up and down as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand forth against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:17 "You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason with your neighbor, lest you bear sin because of him.

Lev 19:18 You shall not take vengeance or bear any grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:19 "You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your cattle breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall there come upon you a garment of cloth made of two kinds of stuff.

Lev 19:20 "If a man lies carnally with a woman who is a slave, betrothed to another man and not yet ransomed or given her freedom, an inquiry shall be held. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free;

Lev 19:21 but he shall bring a guilt offering for himself to the LORD, to the door of the tent of meeting, a ram for a guilt offering.

Lev 19:22 And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed; and the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

Lev 19:23 "When you come into the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden; three years it shall be forbidden to you, it must not be eaten.

Lev 19:24 And in the fourth year all their fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

Lev 19:25 But in the fifth year you may eat of their fruit, that they may yield more richly for you: I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:26 "You shall not eat any flesh with the blood in it. You shall not practice augury or witchcraft.

Lev 19:27 You shall not round off the hair on your temples or mar the edges of your beard.

Lev 19:28 You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh on account of the dead or tattoo any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:29 "Do not profane your daughter by making her a harlot, lest the land fall into harlotry and the land become full of wickedness.

Lev 19:30 You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:31 "Do not turn to mediums or wizards; do not seek them out, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:32 "You shall rise up before the hoary head, and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

Lev 19:33 "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.

Lev 19:34 The stranger who sojourns with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:35 "You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measures of length or weight or quantity.

Lev 19:36 You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Lev 19:37 And you shall observe all my statutes and all my ordinances, and do them: I am the LORD."

Lev 20:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 20:2 "Say to the people of Israel, Any man of the people of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, who gives any of his children to Molech shall be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

Lev 20:3 I myself will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given one of his children to Molech, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name.

Lev 20:4 And if the people of the land do at all hide their eyes from that man, when he gives one of his children to Molech, and do not put him to death,

Lev 20:5 then I will set my face against that man and against his family, and will cut them off from among their people, him and all who follow him in playing the harlot after Molech.

Lev 20:6 "If a person turns to mediums and wizards, playing the harlot after them, I will set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people.

Lev 20:7 Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God.

Lev 20:8 Keep my statutes, and do them; I am the LORD who sanctify you.

Lev 20:9 For every one who curses his father or his mother shall be put to death; he has cursed his father or his mother, his blood is upon him.

Lev 20:10 "If a man commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death.

Lev 20:11 The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

Lev 20:12 If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall be put to death; they have committed incest, their blood is upon them.

Lev 20:13 If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

Lev 20:14 If a man takes a wife and her mother also, it is wickedness; they shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.

Lev 20:15 If a man lies with a beast, he shall be put to death; and you shall kill the beast.

Lev 20:16 If a woman approaches any beast and lies with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

Lev 20:17 "If a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shameful thing, and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness, he shall bear his iniquity.

Lev 20:18 If a man lies with a woman having her sickness, and uncovers her nakedness, he has made naked her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood; both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

Lev 20:19 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that is to make naked one's near kin; they shall bear their iniquity.

Lev 20:20 If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall bear their sin, they shall die childless.

Lev 20:21 If a man takes his brother's wife, it is impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness, they shall be childless.

Lev 20:22 "You shall therefore keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land where I am bringing you to dwell may not vomit you out.

Lev 20:23 And you shall not walk in the customs of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

Lev 20:24 But I have said to you, 'You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey.' I am the LORD your God, who have separated you from the peoples.

Lev 20:25 You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean beast and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; you shall not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have set apart for you to hold unclean.

Lev 20:26 You shall be holy to me; for I the LORD am holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be mine.

Lev 20:27 "A man or a woman who is a medium or a wizard shall be put to death; they shall be stoned with stones, their blood shall be upon them."

Lev 21:1 And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them that none of them shall defile himself for the dead among his people,

Lev 21:2 except for his nearest of kin, his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother,

Lev 21:3 or his virgin sister (who is near to him because she has had no husband; for her he may defile himself).

Lev 21:4 He shall not defile himself as a husband among his people and so profane himself.

Lev 21:5 They shall not make tonsures upon their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

Lev 21:6 They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings by fire to the LORD, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

Lev 21:7 They shall not marry a harlot or a woman who has been defiled; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband; for the priest is holy to his God.

Lev 21:8 You shall consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God; he shall be holy to you; for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.

Lev 21:9 And the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the harlot, profanes her father; she shall be burned with fire.

Lev 21:10 "The priest who is chief among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose, nor rend his clothes;

Lev 21:11 he shall not go in to any dead body, nor defile himself, even for his father or for his mother;

Lev 21:12 neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

Lev 21:13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

Lev 21:14 A widow, or one divorced, or a woman who has been defiled, or a harlot, these he shall not marry; but he shall take to wife a virgin of his own people,

Lev 21:15 that he may not profane his children among his people; for I am the LORD who sanctify him."

Lev 21:16 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 21:17 "Say to Aaron, None of your descendants throughout their generations who has a blemish may approach to offer the bread of his God.

Lev 21:18 For no one who has a blemish shall draw near, a man blind or lame, or one who has a mutilated face or a limb too long,

Lev 21:19 or a man who has an injured foot or an injured hand,

Lev 21:20 or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or a man with a defect in his sight or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles;

Lev 21:21 no man of the descendants of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings by fire; since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.

Lev 21:22 He may eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy things,

Lev 21:23 but he shall not come near the veil or approach the altar, because he has a blemish, that he may not profane my sanctuaries; for I am the LORD who sanctify them."

Lev 21:24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the people of Israel.

Lev 22:1 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 22:2 "Tell Aaron and his sons to keep away from the holy things of the people of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they may not profane my holy name; I am the LORD.

Lev 22:3 Say to them, `If any one of all your descendants throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the people of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

Lev 22:4 None of the line of Aaron who is a leper or suffers a discharge may eat of the holy things until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean through contact with the dead or a man who has had an emission of semen,

Lev 22:5 and whoever touches a creeping thing by which he may be made unclean or a man from whom he may take uncleanness, whatever his uncleanness may be --

Lev 22:6 the person who touches any such shall be unclean until the evening and shall not eat of the holy things unless he has bathed his body in water.

Lev 22:7 When the sun is down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat of the holy things, because such are his food.

Lev 22:8 That which dies of itself or is torn by beasts he shall not eat, defiling himself by it: I am the LORD.'

Lev 22:9 They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby when they profane it: I am the LORD who sanctify them.

Lev 22:10 "An outsider shall not eat of a holy thing. A sojourner of the priest's or a hired servant shall not eat of a holy thing;

Lev 22:11 but if a priest buys a slave as his property for money, the slave may eat of it; and those that are born in his house may eat of his food.

Lev 22:12 If a priest's daughter is married to an outsider she shall not eat of the offering of the holy things.

Lev 22:13 But if a priest's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; yet no outsider shall eat of it.

Lev 22:14 And if a man eats of a holy thing unwittingly, he shall add the fifth of its value to it, and give the holy thing to the priest.

Lev 22:15 The priests shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,

Lev 22:16 and so cause them to bear iniquity and guilt, by eating their holy things: for I am the LORD who sanctify them."

Lev 22:17 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 22:18 "Say to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel, When any one of the house of Israel or of the sojourners in Israel presents his offering, whether in payment of a vow or as a freewill offering which is offered to the LORD as a burnt offering,

Lev 22:19 to be accepted you shall offer a male without blemish, of the bulls or the sheep or the goats.

Lev 22:20 You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable for you.

Lev 22:21 And when any one offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, to fulfil a vow or as a freewill offering, from the herd or from the flock, to be accepted it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it.

Lev 22:22 Animals blind or disabled or mutilated or having a discharge or an itch or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD or make of them an offering by fire upon the altar to the LORD.

Lev 22:23 A bull or a lamb which has a part too long or too short you may present for a freewill offering; but for a votive offering it cannot be accepted.

Lev 22:24 Any animal which has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD or sacrifice within your land;

Lev 22:25 neither shall you offer as the bread of your God any such animals gotten from a foreigner. Since there is a blemish in them, because of their mutilation, they will not be accepted for you."

Lev 22:26 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 22:27 "When a bull or sheep or goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Lev 22:28 And whether the mother is a cow or a ewe, you shall not kill both her and her young in one day.

Lev 22:29 And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.

Lev 22:30 It shall be eaten on the same day, you shall leave none of it until morning: I am the LORD.

Lev 22:31 "So you shall keep my commandments and do them: I am the LORD.

Lev 22:32 And you shall not profane my holy name, but I will be hallowed among the people of Israel; I am the LORD who sanctify you,

Lev 22:33 who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD."

Lev 23:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:2 "Say to the people of Israel, The appointed feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, my appointed feasts, are these.

Lev 23:3 Six days shall work be done; but on the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no work; it is a sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

Lev 23:4 "These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, the holy convocations, which you shall proclaim at the time appointed for them.

Lev 23:5 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is the LORD's passover.

Lev 23:6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

Lev 23:7 On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

Lev 23:8 But you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD seven days; on the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work."

Lev 23:9 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:10 "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land which I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest;

Lev 23:11 and he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, that you may find acceptance; on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Lev 23:12 And on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Lev 23:13 And the cereal offering with it shall be two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, to be offered by fire to the LORD, a pleasing odor; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, a fourth of a hin.

Lev 23:14 And you shall eat neither bread nor grain parched or fresh until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God: it is a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Lev 23:15 "And you shall count from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven full weeks shall they be,

Lev 23:16 counting fifty days to the morrow after the seventh sabbath; then you shall present a cereal offering of new grain to the LORD.

Lev 23:17 You shall bring from your dwellings two loaves of bread to be waved, made of two tenths of an ephah; they shall be of fine flour, they shall be baked with leaven, as first fruits to the LORD.

Lev 23:18 And you shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, and one young bull, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their cereal offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Lev 23:19 And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings.

Lev 23:20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

Lev 23:21 And you shall make proclamation on the same day; you shall hold a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work: it is a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

Lev 23:22 "And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field to its very border, nor shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God."

Lev 23:23 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:24 "Say to the people of Israel, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with blast of trumpets, a holy convocation.

Lev 23:25 You shall do no laborious work; and you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD."

Lev 23:26 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:27 "On the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be for you a time of holy convocation, and you shall afflict yourselves and present an offering by fire to the LORD.

Lev 23:28 And you shall do no work on this same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God.

Lev 23:29 For whoever is not afflicted on this same day shall be cut off from his people.

Lev 23:30 And whoever does any work on this same day, that person I will destroy from among his people.

Lev 23:31 You shall do no work: it is a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Lev 23:32 It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict yourselves; on the ninth day of the month beginning at evening, from evening to evening shall you keep your sabbath."

Lev 23:33 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 23:34 "Say to the people of Israel, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month and for seven days is the feast of booths to the LORD.

Lev 23:35 On the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

Lev 23:36 Seven days you shall present offerings by fire to the LORD; on the eighth day you shall hold a holy convocation and present an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a solemn assembly; you shall do no laborious work.

Lev 23:37 "These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim as times of holy convocation, for presenting to the LORD offerings by fire, burnt offerings and cereal offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its proper day;

Lev 23:38 besides the sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your votive offerings, and besides all your freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD.

Lev 23:39 "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days; on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest.

Lev 23:40 And you shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

Lev 23:41 You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD seven days in the year; it is a statute for ever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month.

Lev 23:42 You shall dwell in booths for seven days; all that are native in Israel shall dwell in booths,

Lev 23:43 that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."

Lev 23:44 Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Lev 24:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 24:2 "Command the people of Israel to bring you pure oil from beaten olives for the lamp, that a light may be kept burning continually.

Lev 24:3 Outside the veil of the testimony, in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations.

Lev 24:4 He shall keep the lamps in order upon the lampstand of pure gold before the LORD continually.

Lev 24:5 "And you shall take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes of it; two tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.

Lev 24:6 And you shall set them in two rows, six in a row, upon the table of pure gold.

Lev 24:7 And you shall put pure frankincense with each row, that it may go with the bread as a memorial portion to be offered by fire to the LORD.

Lev 24:8 Every sabbath day Aaron shall set it in order before the LORD continually on behalf of the people of Israel as a covenant for ever.

Lev 24:9 And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place, since it is for him a most holy portion out of the offerings by fire to the LORD, a perpetual due."

Lev 24:10 Now an Israelite woman's son, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the people of Israel; and the Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel quarreled in the camp,

Lev 24:11 and the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the Name, and cursed. And they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

Lev 24:12 And they put him in custody, till the will of the LORD should be declared to them.

Lev 24:13 And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 24:14 "Bring out of the camp him who cursed; and let all who heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

Lev 24:15 And say to the people of Israel, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin.

Lev 24:16 He who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him; the sojourner as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

Lev 24:17 He who kills a man shall be put to death.

Lev 24:18 He who kills a beast shall make it good, life for life.

Lev 24:19 When a man causes a disfigurement in his neighbor, as he has done it shall be done to him,

Lev 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has disfigured a man, he shall be disfigured.

Lev 24:21 He who kills a beast shall make it good; and he who kills a man shall be put to death.

Lev 24:22 You shall have one law for the sojourner and for the native; for I am the LORD your God."

Lev 24:23 So Moses spoke to the people of Israel; and they brought him who had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. Thus the people of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Lev 25:1 The LORD said to Moses on Mount Sinai,

Lev 25:2 "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land which I give you, the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD.

Lev 25:3 Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits;

Lev 25:4 but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD; you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard.

Lev 25:5 What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather; it shall be a year of solemn rest for the land.

Lev 25:6 The sabbath of the land shall provide food for you, for yourself and for your male and female slaves and for your hired servant and the sojourner who lives with you;

Lev 25:7 for your cattle also and for the beasts that are in your land all its yield shall be for food.

Lev 25:8 "And you shall count seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, so that the time of the seven weeks of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

Lev 25:9 Then you shall send abroad the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement you shall send abroad the trumpet throughout all your land.

Lev 25:10 And you shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants; it shall be a jubilee for you, when each of you shall return to his property and each of you shall return to his family.

Lev 25:11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be to you; in it you shall neither sow, nor reap what grows of itself, nor gather the grapes from the undressed vines.

Lev 25:12 For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat what it yields out of the field.

Lev 25:13 "In this year of jubilee each of you shall return to his property.

Lev 25:14 And if you sell to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another.

Lev 25:15 According to the number of years after the jubilee, you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years for crops he shall sell to you.

Lev 25:16 If the years are many you shall increase the price, and if the years are few you shall diminish the price, for it is the number of the crops that he is selling to you.

Lev 25:17 You shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Lev 25:18 "Therefore you shall do my statutes, and keep my ordinances and perform them; so you will dwell in the land securely.

Lev 25:19 The land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill, and dwell in it securely.

Lev 25:20 And if you say, "What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?"

Lev 25:21 I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, so that it will bring forth fruit for three years.

Lev 25:22 When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating old produce; until the ninth year, when its produce comes in, you shall eat the old.

Lev 25:23 The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with me.

Lev 25:24 And in all the country you possess, you shall grant a redemption of the land.

Lev 25:25 "If your brother becomes poor, and sells part of his property, then his next of kin shall come and redeem what his brother has sold.

Lev 25:26 If a man has no one to redeem it, and then himself becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it,

Lev 25:27 let him reckon the years since he sold it and pay back the overpayment to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his property.

Lev 25:28 But if he has not sufficient means to get it back for himself, then what he sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the year of jubilee; in the jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.

Lev 25:29 "If a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, he may redeem it within a whole year after its sale; for a full year he shall have the right of redemption.

Lev 25:30 If it is not redeemed within a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations; it shall not be released in the jubilee.

Lev 25:31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall around them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country; they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the jubilee.

Lev 25:32 Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time.

Lev 25:33 And if one of the Levites does not exercise his right of redemption, then the house that was sold in a city of their possession shall be released in the jubilee; for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the people of Israel.

Lev 25:34 But the fields of common land belonging to their cities may not be sold; for that is their perpetual possession.

Lev 25:35 "And if your brother becomes poor, and cannot maintain himself with you, you shall maintain him; as a stranger and a sojourner he shall live with you.

Lev 25:36 Take no interest from him or increase, but fear your God; that your brother may live beside you.

Lev 25:37 You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit.

Lev 25:38 I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

Lev 25:39 "And if your brother becomes poor beside you, and sells himself to you, you shall not make him serve as a slave:

Lev 25:40 he shall be with you as a hired servant and as a sojourner. He shall serve with you until the year of the jubilee;

Lev 25:41 then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and go back to his own family, and return to the possession of his fathers.

Lev 25:42 For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.

Lev 25:43 You shall not rule over him with harshness, but shall fear your God.

Lev 25:44 As for your male and female slaves whom you may have: you may buy male and female slaves from among the nations that are round about you.

Lev 25:45 You may also buy from among the strangers who sojourn with you and their families that are with you, who have been born in your land; and they may be your property.

Lev 25:46 You may bequeath them to your sons after you, to inherit as a possession for ever; you may make slaves of them, but over your brethren the people of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

Lev 25:47 "If a stranger or sojourner with you becomes rich, and your brother beside him becomes poor and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner with you, or to a member of the stranger's family,

Lev 25:48 then after he is sold he may be redeemed; one of his brothers may redeem him,

Lev 25:49 or his uncle, or his cousin may redeem him, or a near kinsman belonging to his family may redeem him; or if he grows rich he may redeem himself.

Lev 25:50 He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year when he sold himself to him until the year of jubilee, and the price of his release shall be according to the number of years; the time he was with his owner shall be rated as the time of a hired servant.

Lev 25:51 If there are still many years, according to them he shall refund out of the price paid for him the price for his redemption.

Lev 25:52 If there remain but a few years until the year of jubilee, he shall make a reckoning with him; according to the years of service due from him he shall refund the money for his redemption.

Lev 25:53 As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him; he shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight.

Lev 25:54 And if he is not redeemed by these means, then he shall be released in the year of jubilee, he and his children with him.

Lev 25:55 For to me the people of Israel are servants, they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Lev 26:1 "You shall make for yourselves no idols and erect no graven image or pillar, and you shall not set up a figured stone in your land, to bow down to them; for I am the LORD your God.

Lev 26:2 You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

Lev 26:3 "If you walk in my statutes and observe my commandments and do them,

Lev 26:4 then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

Lev 26:5 And your threshing shall last to the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last to the time for sowing; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land securely.

Lev 26:6 And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will remove evil beasts from the land, and the sword shall not go through your land.

Lev 26:7 And you shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

Lev 26:8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

Lev 26:9 And I will have regard for you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and will confirm my covenant with you.

Lev 26:10 And you shall eat old store long kept, and you shall clear out the old to make way for the new.

Lev 26:11 And I will make my abode among you, and my soul shall not abhor you.

Lev 26:12 And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people.

Lev 26:13 I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

Lev 26:14 "But if you will not hearken to me, and will not do all these commandments,

Lev 26:15 if you spurn my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant,

Lev 26:16 I will do this to you: I will appoint over you sudden terror, consumption, and fever that waste the eyes and cause life to pine away. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it;

Lev 26:17 I will set my face against you, and you shall be smitten before your enemies; those who hate you shall rule over you, and you shall flee when none pursues you.

Lev 26:18 And if in spite of this you will not hearken to me, then I will chastise you again sevenfold for your sins,

Lev 26:19 and I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like brass;

Lev 26:20 and your strength shall be spent in vain, for your land shall not yield its increase, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.

Lev 26:21 "Then if you walk contrary to me, and will not hearken to me, I will bring more plagues upon you, sevenfold as many as your sins.

Lev 26:22 And I will let loose the wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number, so that your ways shall become desolate.

Lev 26:23 "And if by this discipline you are not turned to me, but walk contrary to me,

Lev 26:24 then I also will walk contrary to you, and I myself will smite you sevenfold for your sins.

Lev 26:25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall execute vengeance for the covenant; and if you gather within your cities I will send pestilence among you, and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

Lev 26:26 When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and shall deliver your bread again by weight; and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.

Lev 26:27 "And if in spite of this you will not hearken to me, but walk contrary to me,

Lev 26:28 then I will walk contrary to you in fury, and chastise you myself sevenfold for your sins.

Lev 26:29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

Lev 26:30 And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the dead bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you.

Lev 26:31 And I will lay your cities waste, and will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your pleasing odors.

Lev 26:32 And I will devastate the land, so that your enemies who settle in it shall be astonished at it.

Lev 26:33 And I will scatter you among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword after you; and your land shall be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste.

Lev 26:34 "Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate, while you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest, and enjoy its sabbaths.

Lev 26:35 As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, the rest which it had not in your sabbaths when you dwelt upon it.

Lev 26:36 And as for those of you that are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a driven leaf shall put them to flight, and they shall flee as one flees from the sword, and they shall fall when none pursues.

Lev 26:37 They shall stumble over one another, as if to escape a sword, though none pursues; and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

Lev 26:38 And you shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

Lev 26:39 And those of you that are left shall pine away in your enemies' lands because of their iniquity; and also because of the iniquities of their fathers they shall pine away like them.

Lev 26:40 "But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers in their treachery which they committed against me, and also in walking contrary to me,

Lev 26:41 so that I walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled and they make amends for their iniquity;

Lev 26:42 then I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and I will remember my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

Lev 26:43 But the land shall be left by them, and enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; and they shall make amends for their iniquity, because they spurned my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes.

Lev 26:44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not spurn them, neither will I abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God;

Lev 26:45 but I will for their sake remember the covenant with their forefathers, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD."

Lev 26:46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws which the LORD made between him and the people of Israel on Mount Sinai by Moses.

Lev 27:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 27:2 "Say to the people of Israel, When a man makes a special vow of persons to the LORD at your valuation,

Lev 27:3 then your valuation of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

Lev 27:4 If the person is a female, your valuation shall be thirty shekels.

Lev 27:5 If the person is from five years old up to twenty years old, your valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

Lev 27:6 If the person is from a month old up to five years old, your valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver.

Lev 27:7 And if the person is sixty years old and upward, then your valuation for a male shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

Lev 27:8 And if a man is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall bring the person before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him who vowed the priest shall value him.

Lev 27:9 "If it is an animal such as men offer as an offering to the LORD, all of such that any man gives to the LORD is holy.

Lev 27:10 He shall not substitute anything for it or exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; and if he makes any exchange of beast for beast, then both it and that for which it is exchanged shall be holy.

Lev 27:11 And if it is an unclean animal such as is not offered as an offering to the LORD, then the man shall bring the animal before the priest,

Lev 27:12 and the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.

Lev 27:13 But if he wishes to redeem it, he shall add a fifth to the valuation.

Lev 27:14 "When a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

Lev 27:15 And if he who dedicates it wishes to redeem his house, he shall add a fifth of the valuation in money to it, and it shall be his.

Lev 27:16 "If a man dedicates to the LORD part of the land which is his by inheritance, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it; a sowing of a homer of barley shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

Lev 27:17 If he dedicates his field from the year of jubilee, it shall stand at your full valuation;

Lev 27:18 but if he dedicates his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall compute the money-value for it according to the years that remain until the year of jubilee, and a deduction shall be made from your valuation.

Lev 27:19 And if he who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, then he shall add a fifth of the valuation in money to it, and it shall remain his.

Lev 27:20 But if he does not wish to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more;

Lev 27:21 but the field, when it is released in the jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a field that has been devoted; the priest shall be in possession of it.

Lev 27:22 If he dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not a part of his possession by inheritance,

Lev 27:23 then the priest shall compute the valuation for it up to the year of jubilee, and the man shall give the amount of the valuation on that day as a holy thing to the LORD.

Lev 27:24 In the year of jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to whom the land belongs as a possession by inheritance.

Lev 27:25 Every valuation shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall make a shekel.

Lev 27:26 "But a firstling of animals, which as a firstling belongs to the LORD, no man may dedicate; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.

Lev 27:27 And if it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back at your valuation, and add a fifth to it; or, if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at your valuation.

Lev 27:28 "But no devoted thing that a man devotes to the LORD, of anything that he has, whether of man or beast, or of his inherited field, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:29 No one devoted, who is to be utterly destroyed from among men, shall be ransomed; he shall be put to death.

Lev 27:30 "All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is the LORD's; it is holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:31 If a man wishes to redeem any of his tithe, he shall add a fifth to it.

Lev 27:32 And all the tithe of herds and flocks, every tenth animal of all that pass under the herdsman's staff, shall be holy to the LORD.

Lev 27:33 A man shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, neither shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it, then both it and that for which it is exchanged shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed."

Lev 27:34 These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the people of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Num 1:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

Num 1:2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the people of Israel, by families, by fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male, head by head;

Num 1:3 from twenty years old and upward, all in Israel who are able to go forth to war, you and Aaron shall number them, company by company.

Num 1:4 And there shall be with you a man from each tribe, each man being the head of the house of his fathers.

Num 1:5 And these are the names of the men who shall attend you. From Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

Num 1:6 from Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

Num 1:7 from Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

Num 1:8 from Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

Num 1:9 from Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

Num 1:10 from the sons of Joseph, from Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud, and from Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

Num 1:11 from Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

Num 1:12 from Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

Num 1:13 from Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochran;

Num 1:14 from Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

Num 1:15 from Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan."

Num 1:16 These were the ones chosen from the congregation, the leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of the clans of Israel.

Num 1:17 Moses and Aaron took these men who have been named,

Num 1:18 and on the first day of the second month, they assembled the whole congregation together, who registered themselves by families, by fathers' houses, according to the number of names from twenty years old and upward, head by head,

Num 1:19 as the LORD commanded Moses. So he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

Num 1:20 The people of Reuben, Israel's first-born, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war:

Num 1:21 the number of the tribe of Reuben was forty-six thousand five hundred.

Num 1:22 Of the people of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, those of them that were numbered, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war:

Num 1:23 the number of the tribe of Simeon was fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Num 1:24 Of the people of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war:

Num 1:25 the number of the tribe of Gad was forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Num 1:26 Of the people of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:27 the number of the tribe of Judah was seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Num 1:28 Of the people of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:29 the number of the tribe of Issachar was fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Num 1:30 Of the people of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:31 the number of the tribe of Zebulun was fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Num 1:32 Of the people of Joseph, namely, of the people of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:33 the number of the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand five hundred.

Num 1:34 Of the people of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:35 the number of the tribe of Manasseh was thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Num 1:36 Of the people of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:37 the number of the tribe of Benjamin was thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Num 1:38 Of the people of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:39 the number of the tribe of Dan was sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Num 1:40 Of the people of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:41 the number of the tribe of Asher was forty-one thousand five hundred.

Num 1:42 Of the people of Naphtali, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

Num 1:43 the number of the tribe of Naphtali was fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Num 1:44 These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered with the help of the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his fathers' house.

Num 1:45 So the whole number of the people of Israel, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war in Israel --

Num 1:46 their whole number was six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

Num 1:47 But the Levites were not numbered by their ancestral tribe along with them.

Num 1:48 For the LORD said to Moses,

Num 1:49 "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, and you shall not take a census of them among the people of Israel;

Num 1:50 but appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it; they are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they shall tend it, and shall encamp around the tabernacle.

Num 1:51 When the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And if any one else comes near, he shall be put to death.

Num 1:52 The people of Israel shall pitch their tents by their companies, every man by his own camp and every man by his own standard;

Num 1:53 but the Levites shall encamp around the tabernacle of the testimony, that there may be no wrath upon the congregation of the people of Israel; and the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the testimony."

Num 1:54 Thus did the people of Israel; they did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 2:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 2:2 "The people of Israel shall encamp each by his own standard, with the ensigns of their fathers' houses; they shall encamp facing the tent of meeting on every side.

Num 2:3 Those to encamp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah by their companies, the leader of the people of Judah being Nahshon the son of Amminadab,

Num 2:4 his host as numbered being seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Num 2:5 Those to encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar, the leader of the people of Issachar being Nethanel the son of Zuar,

Num 2:6 his host as numbered being fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Num 2:7 Then the tribe of Zebulun, the leader of the people of Zebulun being Eliab the son of Helon,

Num 2:8 his host as numbered being fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Num 2:9 The whole number of the camp of Judah, by their companies, is a hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred. They shall set out first on the march.

Num 2:10 "On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben by their companies, the leader of the people of Reuben being Elizur the son of Shedeur,

Num 2:11 his host as numbered being forty-six thousand five hundred.

Num 2:12 And those to encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon, the leader of the people of Simeon being Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai,

Num 2:13 his host as numbered being fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Num 2:14 Then the tribe of Gad, the leader of the people of Gad being Eliasaph the son of Reuel,

Num 2:15 his host as numbered being forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Num 2:16 The whole number of the camp of Reuben, by their companies, is a hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty. They shall set out second.

Num 2:17 "Then the tent of meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; as they encamp, so shall they set out, each in position, standard by standard.

Num 2:18 "On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim by their companies, the leader of the people of Ephraim being Elishama the son of Ammihud,

Num 2:19 his host as numbered being forty thousand five hundred.

Num 2:20 And next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh, the leader of the people of Manasseh being Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur,

Num 2:21 his host as numbered being thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Num 2:22 Then the tribe of Benjamin, the leader of the people of Benjamin being Abidan the son of Gideoni,

Num 2:23 his host as numbered being thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Num 2:24 The whole number of the camp of Ephraim, by their companies, is a hundred and eight thousand one hundred. They shall set out third on the march.

Num 2:25 "On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan by their companies, the leader of the people of Dan being Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai,

Num 2:26 his host as numbered being sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Num 2:27 And those to encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher, the leader of the people of Asher being Pagiel the son of Ochran,

Num 2:28 his host as numbered being forty-one thousand five hundred.

Num 2:29 Then the tribe of Naphtali, the leader of the people of Naphtali being Ahira the son of Enan,

Num 2:30 his host as numbered being fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Num 2:31 The whole number of the camp of Dan is a hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last, standard by standard."

Num 2:32 These are the people of Israel as numbered by their fathers' houses; all in the camps who were numbered by their companies were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

Num 2:33 But the Levites were not numbered among the people of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 2:34 Thus did the people of Israel. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they set out, every one in his family, according to his fathers' house.

Num 3:1 These are the generations of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

Num 3:2 These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the first-born, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;

Num 3:3 these are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he ordained to minister in the priest's office.

Num 3:4 But Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered unholy fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the lifetime of Aaron their father.

Num 3:5 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:6 "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him.

Num 3:7 They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, as they minister at the tabernacle;

Num 3:8 they shall have charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, and attend to the duties for the people of Israel as they minister at the tabernacle.

Num 3:9 And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are wholly given to him from among the people of Israel.

Num 3:10 And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall attend to their priesthood; but if any one else comes near, he shall be put to death."

Num 3:11 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:12 "Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the people of Israel instead of every first-born that opens the womb among the people of Israel. The Levites shall be mine,

Num 3:13 for all the first-born are mine; on the day that I slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I consecrated for my own all the first-born in Israel, both of man and of beast; they shall be mine: I am the LORD."

Num 3:14 And the LORD said to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai,

Num 3:15 "Number the sons of Levi, by fathers' houses and by families; every male from a month old and upward you shall number."

Num 3:16 So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

Num 3:17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon and Kohath and Merari.

Num 3:18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

Num 3:19 And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

Num 3:20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites, by their fathers' houses.

Num 3:21 Of Gershon were the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these were the families of the Gershonites.

Num 3:22 Their number according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward was seven thousand five hundred.

Num 3:23 The families of the Gershonites were to encamp behind the tabernacle on the west,

Num 3:24 with Eliasaph, the son of Lael as head of the fathers' house of the Gershonites.

Num 3:25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting was to be the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the door of the tent of meeting,

Num 3:26 the hangings of the court, the screen for the door of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords; all the service pertaining to these.

Num 3:27 Of Kohath were the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these are the families of the Kohathites.

Num 3:28 According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, attending to the duties of the sanctuary.

Num 3:29 The families of the sons of Kohath were to encamp on the south side of the tabernacle,

Num 3:30 with Elizaphan the son of Uzziel as head of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites.

Num 3:31 And their charge was to be the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which the priests minister, and the screen; all the service pertaining to these.

Num 3:32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, and to have oversight of those who had charge of the sanctuary.

Num 3:33 Of Merari were the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

Num 3:34 Their number according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward was six thousand two hundred.

Num 3:35 And the head of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail; they were to encamp on the north side of the tabernacle.

Num 3:36 And the appointed charge of the sons of Merari was to be the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the bases, and all their accessories; all the service pertaining to these;

Num 3:37 also the pillars of the court round about, with their bases and pegs and cords.

Num 3:38 And those to encamp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, having charge of the rites within the sanctuary, whatever had to be done for the people of Israel; and any one else who came near was to be put to death.

Num 3:39 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.

Num 3:40 And the LORD said to Moses, "Number all the first-born males of the people of Israel, from a month old and upward, taking their number by names.

Num 3:41 And you shall take the Levites for me -- I am the LORD -- instead of all the first-born among the people of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the people of Israel."

Num 3:42 So Moses numbered all the first-born among the people of Israel, as the LORD commanded him.

Num 3:43 And all the first-born males, according to the number of names, from a month old and upward as numbered were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

Num 3:44 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:45 "Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the people of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

Num 3:46 And for the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the first-born of the people of Israel, over and above the number of the male Levites,

Num 3:47 you shall take five shekels apiece; reckoning by the shekel of the sanctuary, the shekel of twenty gerahs, you shall take them,

Num 3:48 and give the money by which the excess number of them is redeemed to Aaron and his sons."

Num 3:49 So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the Levites;

Num 3:50 from the first-born of the people of Israel he took the money, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, reckoned by the shekel of the sanctuary;

Num 3:51 and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 4:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 4:2 "Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families and their fathers' houses,
Num 4:3 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, all who can enter the service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.
Num 4:4 This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting: the most holy things.
Num 4:5 When the camp is to set out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of the testimony with it;
Num 4:6 then they shall put on it a covering of goatskin, and spread over that a cloth all of blue, and shall put in its poles.
Num 4:7 And over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put upon it the plates, the dishes for incense, the bowls, and the flagons for the drink offering; the continual bread also shall be on it;
Num 4:8 then they shall spread over them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of goatskin, and shall put in its poles.
Num 4:9 And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the lampstand for the light, with its lamps, its snuffers, its trays, and all the vessels for oil with which it is supplied:
Num 4:10 and they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of goatskin and put it upon the carrying frame.
Num 4:11 And over the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of goatskin, and shall put in its poles;
Num 4:12 and they shall take all the vessels of the service which are used in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of goatskin, and put them on the carrying frame.
Num 4:13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it;
Num 4:14 and they shall put on it all the utensils of the altar, which are used for the service there, the firepans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of goatskin, and shall put in its poles.
Num 4:15 And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry these, but they must not touch the holy things, lest they die. These are the things of the tent of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.
Num 4:16 "And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continual cereal offering, and the anointing oil, with the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, of the sanctuary and its vessels."
Num 4:17 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
Num 4:18 "Let not the tribe of the families of the Kohathites be destroyed from among the Levites;
Num 4:19 but deal thus with them, that they may live and not die when they come near to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint them each to his task and to his burden,
Num 4:20 but they shall not go in to look upon the holy things even for a moment, lest they die."
Num 4:21 The LORD said to Moses,
Num 4:22 "Take a census of the sons of Gershon also, by their families and their fathers' houses;
Num 4:23 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who can enter for service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.
Num 4:24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and bearing burdens:
Num 4:25 they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tent of meeting with its covering, and the covering of goatskin that is on top of it, and the screen for the door of the tent of meeting,
Num 4:26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the entrance of the gate of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, and all the equipment for their service; and they shall do all that needs to be done with regard to them.
Num 4:27 All the service of the sons of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all that they are to carry, and in all that they have to do; and you shall assign to their charge all that they are to carry.
Num 4:28 This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting, and their work is to be under the oversight of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
Num 4:29 "As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families and their fathers' houses;
Num 4:30 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, you shall number them, every one that can enter the service, to do the work of the tent of meeting.
Num 4:31 And this is what they are charged to carry, as the whole of their service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, with its bars, pillars, and bases,
Num 4:32 and the pillars of the court round about with their bases, pegs, and cords, with all their equipment and all their accessories; and you shall assign by name the objects which they are required to carry.
Num 4:33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, the whole of their service in the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest."

Num 4:34 And Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites, by their families and their fathers' houses,

Num 4:35 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter the service, for work in the tent of meeting;

Num 4:36 and their number by families was two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

Num 4:37 This was the number of the families of the Kohathites, all who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

Num 4:38 The number of the sons of Gershon, by their families and their fathers' houses,

Num 4:39 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter the service for work in the tent of meeting --

Num 4:40 their number by their families and their fathers' houses was two thousand six hundred and thirty.

Num 4:41 This was the number of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

Num 4:42 The number of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families and their fathers' houses,

Num 4:43 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter the service, for work in the tent of meeting --

Num 4:44 their number by families was three thousand two hundred.

Num 4:45 These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

Num 4:46 All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and their fathers' houses,

Num 4:47 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the tent of meeting,

Num 4:48 those who were numbered of them were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.

Num 4:49 According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses they were appointed, each to his task of serving or carrying; thus they were numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 5:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:2 "Command the people of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one having a discharge, and every one that is unclean through contact with the dead;

Num 5:3 you shall put out both male and female, putting them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camp, in the midst of which I dwell."

Num 5:4 And the people of Israel did so, and drove them outside the camp; as the LORD said to Moses, so the people of Israel did.

Num 5:5 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:6 "Say to the people of Israel, When a man or woman commits any of the sins that men commit by breaking faith with the LORD, and that person is guilty,

Num 5:7 he shall confess his sin which he has committed; and he shall make full restitution for his wrong, adding a fifth to it, and giving it to him to whom he did the wrong.

Num 5:8 But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for wrong shall go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for him.

Num 5:9 And every offering, all the holy things of the people of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his;

Num 5:10 and every man's holy things shall be his; whatever any man gives to the priest shall be his."

Num 5:11 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:12 "Say to the people of Israel, If any man's wife goes astray and acts unfaithfully against him,

Num 5:13 if a man lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and she is undetected though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her, since she was not taken in the act;

Num 5:14 and if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself; or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself;

Num 5:15 then the man shall bring his wife to the priest, and bring the offering required of her, a tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it and put no frankincense on it, for it is a cereal offering of jealousy, a cereal offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

Num 5:16 "And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD;

Num 5:17 and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.

Num 5:18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and unbind the hair of the woman's head, and place in her hands the cereal offering of remembrance, which is the cereal offering of jealousy. And in his hand the priest shall have the water of bitterness that brings the curse.

Num 5:19 Then the priest shall make her take an oath, saying, 'If no man has lain with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness, while you were under your husband's authority, be free from this water of bitterness that brings the curse.

Num 5:20 But if you have gone astray, though you are under your husband's authority, and if you have defiled yourself, and some man other than your husband has lain with you,

Num 5:21 then' (let the priest make the woman take the oath of the curse, and say to the woman) 'the LORD make you an execration and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh fall away and your body swell;

Num 5:22 may this water that brings the curse pass into your bowels and make your body swell and your thigh fall away.' And the woman shall say, 'Amen, Amen.'

Num 5:23 "Then the priest shall write these curses in a book, and wash them off into the water of bitterness;

Num 5:24 and he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings the curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain.

Num 5:25 And the priest shall take the cereal offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the cereal offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar;

Num 5:26 and the priest shall take a handful of the cereal offering, as its memorial portion, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water.

Num 5:27 And when he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and has acted unfaithfully against her husband, the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain, and her body shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away, and the woman shall become an execration among her people.

Num 5:28 But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she shall be free and shall conceive children.

Num 5:29 "This is the law in cases of jealousy, when a wife, though under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself,

Num 5:30 or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

Num 5:31 The man shall be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity."

Num 6:1 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 6:2 "Say to the people of Israel, When either a man or a woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD,

Num 6:3 he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar made from wine or strong drink, and shall not drink any juice of grapes or eat grapes, fresh or dried.

Num 6:4 All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins.

Num 6:5 "All the days of his vow of separation no razor shall come upon his head; until the time is completed for which he separates himself to the LORD, he shall be holy; he shall let the locks of hair of his head grow long.

Num 6:6 "All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body.

Num 6:7 Neither for his father nor for his mother, nor for brother or sister, if they die, shall he make himself unclean; because his separation to God is upon his head.

Num 6:8 All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD.

Num 6:9 "And if any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shall shave it.

Num 6:10 On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest to the door of the tent of meeting,

Num 6:11 and the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead body. And he shall consecrate his head that same day,

Num 6:12 and separate himself to the LORD for the days of his separation, and bring a male lamb a year old for a guilt offering; but the former time shall be void, because his separation was defiled.

Num 6:13 "And this is the law for the Nazirite, when the time of his separation has been completed: he shall be brought to the door of the tent of meeting,

Num 6:14 and he shall offer his gift to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a sin offering, and one ram without blemish as a peace offering,

Num 6:15 and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, and their cereal offering and their drink offerings.

Num 6:16 And the priest shall present them before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering,

Num 6:17 and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall offer also its cereal offering and its drink offering.

Num 6:18 And the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the door of the tent of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.

Num 6:19 And the priest shall take the shoulder of the ram, when it is boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaven the hair of his consecration,

Num 6:20 and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD; they are a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered; and after that the Nazirite may drink wine.

Num 6:21 "This is the law for the Nazirite who takes a vow. His offering to the LORD shall be according to his vow as a Nazirite, apart from what else he can afford; in accordance with the vow which he takes, so shall he do according to the law for his separation as a Nazirite."

Num 6:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 6:23 "Say to Aaron and his sons, Thus you shall bless the people of Israel: you shall say to them,

Num 6:24 The LORD bless you and keep you:

Num 6:25 The LORD make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you:

Num 6:26 The LORD lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Num 6:27 "So shall they put my name upon the people of Israel, and I will bless them."

Num 7:1 On the day when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed and consecrated it with all its furnishings, and had anointed and consecrated the altar with all its utensils,

Num 7:2 the leaders of Israel, heads of their fathers' houses, the leaders of the tribes, who were over those who were numbered,

Num 7:3 offered and brought their offerings before the LORD, six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; they offered them before the tabernacle.

Num 7:4 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Num 7:5 "Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the tent of meeting, and give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service."

Num 7:6 So Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

Num 7:7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service;

Num 7:8 and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Num 7:89 And when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was upon the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim; and it spoke to him.

Num 8:1 Now the LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:2 "Say to Aaron, When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand."

Num 8:3 And Aaron did so; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 8:4 And this was the workmanship of the lampstand, hammered work of gold; from its base to its flowers, it was hammered work; according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Num 8:5 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:6 "Take the Levites from among the people of Israel, and cleanse them.

Num 8:7 And thus you shall do to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of expiation upon them, and let them go with a razor over all their body, and wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.

Num 8:8 Then let them take a young bull and its cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull for a sin offering.

Num 8:9 And you shall present the Levites before the tent of meeting, and assemble the whole congregation of the people of Israel.

Num 8:10 When you present the Levites before the LORD, the people of Israel shall lay their hands upon the Levites,

Num 8:11 and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the people of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of the LORD.

Num 8:12 Then the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bulls; and you shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

Num 8:13 And you shall cause the Levites to attend Aaron and his sons, and shall offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.

Num 8:14 "Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the people of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.

Num 8:15 And after that the Levites shall go in to do service at the tent of meeting, when you have cleansed them and offered them as a wave offering.

Num 8:16 For they are wholly given to me from among the people of Israel; instead of all that open the womb, the first-born of all the people of Israel, I have taken them for myself.

Num 8:17 For all the first-born among the people of Israel are mine, both of man and of beast; on the day that I slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself,

Num 8:18 and I have taken the Levites instead of all the first-born among the people of Israel.

Num 8:19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the people of Israel, to do the service for the people of Israel at the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the people of Israel, that there may be no plague among the people of Israel in case the people of Israel should come near the sanctuary."

Num 8:20 Thus did Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the people of Israel to the Levites; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, the people of Israel did to them.

Num 8:21 And the Levites purified themselves from sin, and washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.

Num 8:22 And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting in attendance upon Aaron and his sons; as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

Num 8:23 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:24 "This is what pertains to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to perform the work in the service of the tent of meeting;

Num 8:25 and from the age of fifty years they shall withdraw from the work of the service and serve no more,

Num 8:26 but minister to their brethren in the tent of meeting, to keep the charge, and they shall do no service.

Thus shall you do to the Levites in assigning their duties."

Num 9:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

Num 9:2 "Let the people of Israel keep the passover at its appointed time.

Num 9:3 On the fourteenth day of this month, in the evening, you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and all its ordinances you shall keep it."

Num 9:4 So Moses told the people of Israel that they should keep the passover.

Num 9:5 And they kept the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the people of Israel did.

Num 9:6 And there were certain men who were unclean through touching the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the passover on that day; and they came before Moses and Aaron on that day;

Num 9:7 and those men said to him, "We are unclean through touching the dead body of a man; why are we kept from offering the LORD's offering at its appointed time among the people of Israel?"

Num 9:8 And Moses said to them, "Wait, that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you."

Num 9:9 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 9:10 "Say to the people of Israel, If any man of you or of your descendants is unclean through touching a dead body, or is afar off on a journey, he shall still keep the passover to the LORD.

Num 9:11 In the second month on the fourteenth day in the evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Num 9:12 They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute for the passover they shall keep it.

Num 9:13 But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, yet refrains from keeping the passover, that person shall be cut off from his people, because he did not offer the LORD's offering at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

Num 9:14 And if a stranger sojourns among you, and will keep the passover to the LORD, according to the statute of the passover and according to its ordinance, so shall he do; you shall have one statute, both for the sojourner and for the native."

Num 9:15 On the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony; and at evening it was over the tabernacle like the appearance of fire until morning.

Num 9:16 So it was continually; the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

Num 9:17 And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tent, after that the people of Israel set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the people of Israel encamped.

Num 9:18 At the command of the LORD the people of Israel set out, and at the command of the LORD they encamped; as long as the cloud rested over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

Num 9:19 Even when the cloud continued over the tabernacle many days, the people of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and did not set out.

Num 9:20 Sometimes the cloud was a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the LORD they remained in camp; then according to the command of the LORD they set out.

Num 9:21 And sometimes the cloud remained from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they set out, or if it continued for a day and a night, when the cloud was taken up they set out.

Num 9:22 Whether it was two days, or a month, or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, abiding there, the people of Israel remained in camp and did not set out; but when it was taken up they set out.

Num 9:23 At the command of the LORD they encamped, and at the command of the LORD they set out; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

Num 10:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 10:2 "Make two silver trumpets; of hammered work you shall make them; and you shall use them for summoning the congregation, and for breaking camp.

Num 10:3 And when both are blown, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Num 10:4 But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall gather themselves to you.

Num 10:5 When you blow an alarm, the camps that are on the east side shall set out.

Num 10:6 And when you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be blown whenever they are to set out.

Num 10:7 But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

Num 10:8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. The trumpets shall be to you for a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

Num 10:9 And when you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, that you may be remembered before the LORD your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies.

Num 10:10 On the day of your gladness also, and at your appointed feasts, and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; they shall serve you for remembrance before your God: I am the LORD your God."

Num 10:11 In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony,

Num 10:12 and the people of Israel set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran.

Num 10:13 They set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by Moses.

Num 10:14 The standard of the camp of the men of Judah set out first by their companies; and over their host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

Num 10:15 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.

Num 10:16 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

Num 10:17 And when the tabernacle was taken down, the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who carried the tabernacle, set out.

Num 10:18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set out by their companies; and over their host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

Num 10:19 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

Num 10:20 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

Num 10:21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things, and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

Num 10:22 And the standard of the camp of the men of Ephraim set out by their companies; and over their host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

Num 10:23 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

Num 10:24 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

Num 10:25 Then the standard of the camp of the men of Dan, acting as the rear guard of all the camps, set out by their companies; and over their host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

Num 10:26 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

Num 10:27 And over the host of the tribe of the men of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

Num 10:28 This was the order of march of the people of Israel according to their hosts, when they set out.

Num 10:29 And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us, and we will do you good; for the LORD has promised good to Israel."

Num 10:30 But he said to him, "I will not go; I will depart to my own land and to my kindred."

Num 10:31 And he said, "Do not leave us, I pray you, for you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us."

Num 10:32 And if you go with us, whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same will we do to you."

Num 10:33 So they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.

Num 10:34 And the cloud of the LORD was over them by day, whenever they set out from the camp.

Num 10:35 And whenever the ark set out, Moses said, "Arise, O LORD, and let thy enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee."

Num 10:36 And when it rested, he said, "Return, O LORD, to the ten thousand thousands of Israel."

Num 11:1 And the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes; and when the LORD heard it, his anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed some outlying parts of the camp.

Num 11:2 Then the people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated.

Num 11:3 So the name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

Num 11:4 Now the rabble that was among them had a strong craving; and the people of Israel also wept again, and said, "O that we had meat to eat!

Num 11:5 We remember the fish we ate in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;

Num 11:6 but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at."

Num 11:7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium.

Num 11:8 The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in mills or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked with oil.

Num 11:9 When the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell with it.

Num 11:10 Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man at the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD blazed hotly, and Moses was displeased.

Num 11:11 Moses said to the LORD, "Why hast thou dealt ill with thy servant? And why have I not found favor in thy sight, that thou dost lay the burden of all this people upon me?"

Num 11:12 Did I conceive all this people? Did I bring them forth, that thou shouldst say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries the sucking child, to the land which thou didst swear to give their fathers?'

Num 11:13 Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me and say, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.'

Num 11:14 I am not able to carry all this people alone, the burden is too heavy for me.

Num 11:15 If thou wilt deal thus with me, kill me at once, if I find favor in thy sight, that I may not see my wretchedness."

Num 11:16 And the LORD said to Moses, "Gather for me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you.

Num 11:17 And I will come down and talk with you there; and I will take some of the spirit which is upon you and put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone.

Num 11:18 And say to the people, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, "Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt." Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.

Num 11:19 You shall not eat one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days,

Num 11:20 but a whole month, until it comes out at your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, "Why did we come forth out of Egypt?""

Num 11:21 But Moses said, "The people among whom I am number six hundred thousand on foot; and thou hast said, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat a whole month!'

Num 11:22 Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to suffice them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?"

Num 11:23 And the LORD said to Moses, "Is the LORD's hand shortened? Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not."

Num 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and placed them round about the tent.

Num 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was upon him and put it upon the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did so no more.

Num 11:26 Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested upon them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp.

Num 11:27 And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

Num 11:28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the minister of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, forbid them."

Num 11:29 But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!"

Num 11:30 And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Num 11:31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and it brought quails from the sea, and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits above the face of the earth.

Num 11:32 And the people rose all that day, and all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails; he who gathered least gathered ten homers; and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

Num 11:33 While the meat was yet between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

Num 11:34 Therefore the name of that place was called Kibrothhattaavah, because there they buried the people who had the craving.

Num 11:35 From Kibrothhattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth; and they remained at Hazeroth.

Num 12:1 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married, for he had married a Cushite woman;

Num 12:2 and they said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?" And the LORD heard it.

Num 12:3 Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all men that were on the face of the earth.

Num 12:4 And suddenly the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting." And the three of them came out.

Num 12:5 And the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward.

Num 12:6 And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD make myself known to him in a vision, I speak with him in a dream.

Num 12:7 Not so with my servant Moses; he is entrusted with all my house.

Num 12:8 With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in dark speech; and he beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

Num 12:9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and he departed;

Num 12:10 and when the cloud removed from over the tent, behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. And Aaron turned towards Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

Num 12:11 And Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, do not punish us because we have done foolishly and have sinned.

Num 12:12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb."

Num 12:13 And Moses cried to the LORD, "Heal her, O God, I beseech thee."

Num 12:14 But the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut up outside the camp seven days, and after that she may be brought in again."

Num 12:15 So Miriam was shut up outside the camp seven days; and the people did not set out on the march till Miriam was brought in again.

Num 12:16 After that the people set out from Hazeroth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

Num 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 13:2 "Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the people of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers shall you send a man, every one a leader among them."

Num 13:3 So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, according to the command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the people of Israel.

Num 13:4 And these were their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

Num 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

Num 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

Num 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

Num 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

Num 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

Num 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

Num 13:11 from the tribe of Joseph (that is from the tribe of Manasseh), Gaddi the son of Susi;

Num 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

Num 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

Num 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

Num 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

Num 13:16 These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun Joshua.

Num 13:17 Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up into the Negeb yonder, and go up into the hill country,

Num 13:18 and see what the land is, and whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many,

Num 13:19 and whether the land that they dwell in is good or bad, and whether the cities that they dwell in are camps or strongholds,

Num 13:20 and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there is wood in it or not. Be of good courage, and bring some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

Num 13:21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath.

Num 13:22 They went up into the Negeb, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, were there. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Num 13:23 And they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with a single cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a pole between two of them; they brought also some pomegranates and figs.

Num 13:24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down from there.

Num 13:25 At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land.

Num 13:26 And they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the people of Israel in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

Num 13:27 And they told him, "We came to the land to which you sent us; it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

Num 13:28 Yet the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large; and besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there.

Num 13:29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the Negeb; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and along the Jordan."

Num 13:30 But Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once, and occupy it; for we are well able to overcome it."

Num 13:31 Then the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we."

Num 13:32 So they brought to the people of Israel an evil report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land, through which we have gone, to spy it out, is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are men of great stature.

Num 13:33 And there we saw the Nephilim (the sons of Anak, who come from the Nephilim); and we seemed to ourselves like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them."

Num 14:1 Then all the congregation raised a loud cry; and the people wept that night.

Num 14:2 And all the people of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron; the whole congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness!

Num 14:3 Why does the LORD bring us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become a prey; would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?"

Num 14:4 And they said to one another, "Let us choose a captain, and go back to Egypt."

Num 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the people of Israel.

Num 14:6 And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, rent their clothes,

Num 14:7 and said to all the congregation of the people of Israel, "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceedingly good land.

Num 14:8 If the LORD delights in us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land which flows with milk and honey.

Num 14:9 Only, do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they are bread for us; their protection is removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them."

Num 14:10 But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting to all the people of Israel.

Num 14:11 And the LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, in spite of all the signs which I have wrought among them?"

Num 14:12 I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

Num 14:13 But Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for thou didst bring up this people in thy might from among them,

Num 14:14 and they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that thou, O LORD, art in the midst of this people; for thou, O LORD, art seen face to face, and thy cloud stands over them and thou goest before them, in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

Num 14:15 Now if thou dost kill this people as one man, then the nations who have heard thy fame will say,

Num 14:16 'Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to give to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.'

Num 14:17 And now, I pray thee, let the power of the LORD be great as thou hast promised, saying,

Num 14:18 'The LORD is slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but he will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of fathers upon children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation.'

Num 14:19 Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray thee, according to the greatness of thy steadfast love, and according as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now."

Num 14:20 Then the LORD said, "I have pardoned, according to your word;

Num 14:21 but truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD,

Num 14:22 none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs which I wrought in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the proof these ten times and have not hearkened to my voice,

Num 14:23 shall see the land which I swore to give to their fathers; and none of those who despised me shall see it.

Num 14:24 But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it.

Num 14:25 Now, since the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valleys, turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea."

Num 14:26 And the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron,

Num 14:27 "How long shall this wicked congregation murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the people of Israel, which they murmur against me.

Num 14:28 Say to them, 'As I live,' says the LORD, 'what you have said in my hearing I will do to you:

Num 14:29 your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and of all your number, numbered from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me,

Num 14:30 not one shall come into the land where I swore that I would make you dwell, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Num 14:31 But your little ones, who you said would become a prey, I will bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised.

Num 14:32 But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.

Num 14:33 And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and shall suffer for your faithlessness, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness.

Num 14:34 According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day a year, you shall bear your iniquity, forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.'

Num 14:35 I, the LORD, have spoken; surely this will I do to all this wicked congregation that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die."

Num 14:36 And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, and who returned and made all the congregation to murmur against him by bringing up an evil report against the land,

Num 14:37 the men who brought up an evil report of the land, died by plague before the LORD.

Num 14:38 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of those men who went to spy out the land.

Num 14:39 And Moses told these words to all the people of Israel, and the people mourned greatly.

Num 14:40 And they rose early in the morning, and went up to the heights of the hill country, saying, "See, we are here, we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised; for we have sinned."

Num 14:41 But Moses said, "Why now are you transgressing the command of the LORD, for that will not succeed?

Num 14:42 Do not go up lest you be struck down before your enemies, for the LORD is not among you.

Num 14:43 For there the Amalekites and the Canaanites are before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned back from following the LORD, the LORD will not be with you."

Num 14:44 But they presumed to go up to the heights of the hill country, although neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD, nor Moses, departed out of the camp.

Num 14:45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that hill country came down, and defeated them and pursued them, even to Hormah.

Num 15:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 15:2 "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land you are to inhabit, which I give you,
Num 15:3 and you offer to the LORD from the herd or from the flock an offering by fire or a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfil a vow or as a freewill offering or at your appointed feasts, to make a pleasing odor to the LORD,
Num 15:4 then he who brings his offering shall offer to the LORD a cereal offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil;
Num 15:5 and wine for the drink offering, a fourth of a hin, you shall prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.
Num 15:6 Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a cereal offering two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil;
Num 15:7 and for the drink offering you shall offer a third of a hin of wine, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
Num 15:8 And when you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to fulfil a vow, or for peace offerings to the LORD,
Num 15:9 then one shall offer with the bull a cereal offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with half a hin of oil,
Num 15:10 and you shall offer for the drink offering half a hin of wine, as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
Num 15:11 "Thus it shall be done for each bull or ram, or for each of the male lambs or the kids.
Num 15:12 According to the number that you prepare, so shall you do with every one according to their number.
Num 15:13 All who are native shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
Num 15:14 And if a stranger is sojourning with you, or any one is among you throughout your generations, and he wishes to offer an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD, he shall do as you do.
Num 15:15 For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the sojourner be before the LORD.
Num 15:16 One law and one ordinance shall be for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you."
Num 15:17 The LORD said to Moses,
Num 15:18 "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land to which I bring you
Num 15:19 and when you eat of the food of the land, you shall present an offering to the LORD.
Num 15:20 Of the first of your coarse meal you shall present a cake as an offering; as an offering from the threshing floor, so shall you present it.
Num 15:21 Of the first of your coarse meal you shall give to the LORD an offering throughout your generations.
Num 15:22 "But if you err, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses,
Num 15:23 all that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day that the LORD gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations,
Num 15:24 then if it was done unwittingly without the knowledge of the congregation, all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD, with its cereal offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering.
Num 15:25 And the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the people of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; because it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error.
Num 15:26 And all the congregation of the people of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who sojourns among them, because the whole population was involved in the error.
Num 15:27 "If one person sins unwittingly, he shall offer a female goat a year old for a sin offering.
Num 15:28 And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who commits an error, when he sins unwittingly, to make atonement for him; and he shall be forgiven.
Num 15:29 You shall have one law for him who does anything unwittingly, for him who is native among the people of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them.
Num 15:30 But the person who does anything with a high hand, whether he is native or a sojourner, reviles the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from among his people.
Num 15:31 Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has broken his commandment, that person shall be utterly cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him."
Num 15:32 While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day.
Num 15:33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.
Num 15:34 They put him in custody, because it had not been made plain what should be done to him.
Num 15:35 And the LORD said to Moses, "The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp."
Num 15:36 And all the congregation brought him outside the camp, and stoned him to death with stones, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 15:37 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 15:38 "Speak to the people of Israel, and bid them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put upon the tassel of each corner a cord of blue;

Num 15:39 and it shall be to you a tassel to look upon and remember all the commandments of the LORD, to do them, not to follow after your own heart and your own eyes, which you are inclined to go after wantonly.

Num 15:40 So you shall remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God.

Num 15:41 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

Num 16:1 Now Korah the son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben,

Num 16:2 took men; and they rose up before Moses, with a number of the people of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, chosen from the assembly, well-known men;

Num 16:3 and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, "You have gone too far! For all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them; why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

Num 16:4 When Moses heard it, he fell on his face;

Num 16:5 and he said to Korah and all his company, "In the morning the LORD will show who is his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him; him whom he will choose he will cause to come near to him.

Num 16:6 Do this: take censers, Korah and all his company;

Num 16:7 put fire in them and put incense upon them before the LORD tomorrow, and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You have gone too far, sons of Levi!"

Num 16:8 And Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi:

Num 16:9 is it too small a thing for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do service in the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;

Num 16:10 and that he has brought you near him, and all your brethren the sons of Levi with you? And would you seek the priesthood also?

Num 16:11 Therefore it is against the LORD that you and all your company have gathered together; what is Aaron that you murmur against him?"

Num 16:12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab; and they said, "We will not come up.

Num 16:13 Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also make yourself a prince over us?

Num 16:14 Moreover you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up."

Num 16:15 And Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, "Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one ass from them, and I have not harmed one of them."

Num 16:16 And Moses said to Korah, "Be present, you and all your company, before the LORD, you and they, and Aaron, tomorrow;

Num 16:17 and let every one of you take his censer, and put incense upon it, and every one of you bring before the LORD his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer."

Num 16:18 So every man took his censer, and they put fire in them and laid incense upon them, and they stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.

Num 16:19 Then Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

Num 16:20 And the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron,

Num 16:21 "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment."

Num 16:22 And they fell on their faces, and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be angry with all the congregation?"

Num 16:23 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:24 "Say to the congregation, Get away from about the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."

Num 16:25 Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

Num 16:26 And he said to the congregation, "Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be swept away with all their sins."

Num 16:27 So they got away from about the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, together with their wives, their sons, and their little ones.

Num 16:28 And Moses said, "Hereby you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, and that it has not been of my own accord.

Num 16:29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they are visited by the fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me.

Num 16:30 But if the LORD creates something new, and the ground opens its mouth, and swallows them up, with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised the LORD."

Num 16:31 And as he finished speaking all these words, the ground under them split asunder;

Num 16:32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men that belonged to Korah and all their goods.

Num 16:33 So they and all that belonged to them went down alive into Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

Num 16:34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at their cry; for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up!"

Num 16:35 And fire came forth from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men offering the incense.

Num 16:36 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:37 "Tell Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest to take up the censers out of the blaze; then scatter the fire far and wide. For they are holy,

Num 16:38 the censers of these men who have sinned at the cost of their lives; so let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar, for they offered them before the LORD; therefore they are holy. Thus they shall be a sign to the people of Israel."

Num 16:39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned had offered; and they were hammered out as a covering for the altar,

Num 16:40 to be a reminder to the people of Israel, so that no one who is not a priest, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, should draw near to burn incense before the LORD, lest he become as Korah and as his company -- as the LORD said to Eleazar through Moses.

Num 16:41 But on the morrow all the congregation of the people of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD."

Num 16:42 And when the congregation had assembled against Moses and against Aaron, they turned toward the tent of meeting; and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Num 16:43 And Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting,

Num 16:44 and the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:45 "Get away from the midst of this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." And they fell on their faces.

Num 16:46 And Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone forth from the LORD, the plague has begun."

Num 16:47 So Aaron took it as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and behold, the plague had already begun among the people; and he put on the incense, and made atonement for the people.

Num 16:48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stopped.

Num 16:49 Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the affair of Korah.

Num 16:50 And Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, when the plague was stopped.

Num 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 17:2 "Speak to the people of Israel, and get from them rods, one for each fathers' house, from all their leaders according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods. Write each man's name upon his rod,

Num 17:3 and write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi. For there shall be one rod for the head of each fathers' house.

Num 17:4 Then you shall deposit them in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you.

Num 17:5 And the rod of the man whom I choose shall sprout; thus I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the people of Israel, which they murmur against you."

Num 17:6 Moses spoke to the people of Israel; and all their leaders gave him rods, one for each leader, according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

Num 17:7 And Moses deposited the rods before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

Num 17:8 And on the morrow Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds.

Num 17:9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the people of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

Num 17:10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept as a sign for the rebels, that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, lest they die."

Num 17:11 Thus did Moses; as the LORD commanded him, so he did.

Num 17:12 And the people of Israel said to Moses, "Behold, we perish, we are undone, we are all undone.
Num 17:13 Every one who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, shall die. Are we all to perish?"

Num 18:1 So the LORD said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your fathers' house with you shall bear iniquity in connection with the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear iniquity in connection with your priesthood.

Num 18:2 And with you bring your brethren also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may join you, and minister to you while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony.

Num 18:3 They shall attend you and attend to all duties of the tent; but shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary or to the altar, lest they, and you, die.

Num 18:4 They shall join you, and attend to the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; and no one else shall come near you.

Num 18:5 And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, that there be wrath no more upon the people of Israel.

Num 18:6 And behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the people of Israel; they are a gift to you, given to the LORD, to do the service of the tent of meeting.

Num 18:7 And you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for all that concerns the altar and that is within the veil; and you shall serve. I give your priesthood as a gift, and any one else who comes near shall be put to death."

Num 18:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron, "And behold, I have given you whatever is kept of the offerings made to me, all the consecrated things of the people of Israel; I have given them to you as a portion, and to your sons as a perpetual due.

Num 18:9 This shall be yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire; every offering of theirs, every cereal offering of theirs and every sin offering of theirs and every guilt offering of theirs, which they render to me, shall be most holy to you and to your sons.

Num 18:10 In a most holy place shall you eat of it; every male may eat of it; it is holy to you.

Num 18:11 This also is yours, the offering of their gift, all the wave offerings of the people of Israel; I have given them to you, and to your sons and daughters with you, as a perpetual due; every one who is clean in your house may eat of it.

Num 18:12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine and of the grain, the first fruits of what they give to the LORD, I give to you.

Num 18:13 The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; every one who is clean in your house may eat of it.

Num 18:14 Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.

Num 18:15 Everything that opens the womb of all flesh, whether man or beast, which they offer to the LORD, shall be yours; nevertheless the first-born of man you shall redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts you shall redeem.

Num 18:16 And their redemption price (at a month old you shall redeem them) you shall fix at five shekels in silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

Num 18:17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shall burn their fat as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD;

Num 18:18 but their flesh shall be yours, as the breast that is waved and as the right thigh are yours.

Num 18:19 All the holy offerings which the people of Israel present to the LORD I give to you, and to your sons and daughters with you, as a perpetual due; it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD for you and for your offspring with you."

Num 18:20 And the LORD said to Aaron, "You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the people of Israel.

Num 18:21 "To the Levites I have given every tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, their service in the tent of meeting.

Num 18:22 And henceforth the people of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting, lest they bear sin and die.

Num 18:23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations; and among the people of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

Num 18:24 For the tithe of the people of Israel, which they present as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance; therefore I have said of them that they shall have no inheritance among the people of Israel."

Num 18:25 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 18:26 "Moreover you shall say to the Levites, 'When you take from the people of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall present an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.

Num 18:27 And your offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fulness of the wine press.

Num 18:28 So shall you also present an offering to the LORD from all your tithes, which you receive from the people of Israel; and from it you shall give the LORD's offering to Aaron the priest.

Num 18:29 Out of all the gifts to you, you shall present every offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, giving the hallowed part from them.'

Num 18:30 Therefore you shall say to them, 'When you have offered from it the best of it, then the rest shall be reckoned to the Levites as produce of the threshing floor, and as produce of the wine press;

Num 18:31 and you may eat it in any place, you and your households; for it is your reward in return for your service in the tent of meeting.

Num 18:32 And you shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have offered the best of it. And you shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, lest you die.'"

Num 19:1 Now the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron,

Num 19:2 "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded: Tell the people of Israel to bring you a red heifer without defect, in which there is no blemish, and upon which a yoke has never come.

Num 19:3 And you shall give her to Eleazar the priest, and she shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered before him;

Num 19:4 and Eleazar the priest shall take some of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of her blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.

Num 19:5 And the heifer shall be burned in his sight; her skin, her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall be burned;

Num 19:6 and the priest shall take cedarwood and hyssop and scarlet stuff, and cast them into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

Num 19:7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp; and the priest shall be unclean until evening.

Num 19:8 He who burns the heifer shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

Num 19:9 And a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the people of Israel for the water for impurity, for the removal of sin.

Num 19:10 And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. And this shall be to the people of Israel, and to the stranger who sojourns among them, a perpetual statute.

Num 19:11 "He who touches the dead body of any person shall be unclean seven days;

Num 19:12 he shall cleanse himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, and so be clean; but if he does not cleanse himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not become clean.

Num 19:13 Whoever touches a dead person, the body of any man who has died, and does not cleanse himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from Israel; because the water for impurity was not thrown upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

Num 19:14 "This is the law when a man dies in a tent: every one who comes into the tent, and every one who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

Num 19:15 And every open vessel, which has no cover fastened upon it, is unclean.

Num 19:16 Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

Num 19:17 For the unclean they shall take some ashes of the burnt sin offering, and running water shall be added in a vessel;

Num 19:18 then a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the furnishings, and upon the persons who were there, and upon him who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave;

Num 19:19 and the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; thus on the seventh day he shall cleanse him, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and at evening he shall be clean.

Num 19:20 "But the man who is unclean and does not cleanse himself, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, since he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD; because the water for impurity has not been thrown upon him, he is unclean.

Num 19:21 And it shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

Num 19:22 And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and any one who touches it shall be unclean until evening."

Num 20:1 And the people of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

Num 20:2 Now there was no water for the congregation; and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

Num 20:3 And the people contended with Moses, and said, "Would that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

Num 20:4 Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we should die here, both we and our cattle?

Num 20:5 And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It is no place for grain, or figs, or vines, or pomegranates; and there is no water to drink."

Num 20:6 Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tent of meeting, and fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them,

Num 20:7 and the LORD said to Moses,

Num 20:8 "Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you and Aaron your brother, and tell the rock before their eyes to yield its water; so you shall bring water out of the rock for them; so you shall give drink to the congregation and their cattle."

Num 20:9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

Num 20:10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels; shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?"

Num 20:11 And Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock with his rod twice; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their cattle.

Num 20:12 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

Num 20:13 These are the waters of Meribah, where the people of Israel contended with the LORD, and he showed himself holy among them.

Num 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the adversity that has befallen us:

Num 20:15 how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt harshly with us and our fathers;

Num 20:16 and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel and brought us forth out of Egypt; and here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory.

Num 20:17 Now let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, neither will we drink water from a well; we will go along the King's Highway, we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed through your territory."

Num 20:18 But Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through, lest I come out with the sword against you."

Num 20:19 And the people of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my cattle, then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more."

Num 20:20 But he said, "You shall not pass through." And Edom came out against them with many men, and with a strong force.

Num 20:21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.

Num 20:22 And they journeyed from Kadesh, and the people of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.

Num 20:23 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom,

Num 20:24 "Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the people of Israel, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.

Num 20:25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor;

Num 20:26 and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron shall be gathered to his people, and shall die there."

Num 20:27 Moses did as the LORD commanded; and they went up Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

Num 20:28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

Num 20:29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

Num 21:1 When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the Negeb, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive.

Num 21:2 And Israel vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, "If thou wilt indeed give this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities."

Num 21:3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and gave over the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities; so the name of the place was called Hormah.

Num 21:4 From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the people became impatient on the way.

Num 21:5 And the people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this worthless food."

Num 21:6 Then the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

Num 21:7 And the people came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

Num 21:8 And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and every one who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live."

Num 21:9 So Moses made a bronze serpent, and set it on a pole; and if a serpent bit any man, he would look at the bronze serpent and live.

Num 21:10 And the people of Israel set out, and encamped in Oboth.

Num 21:11 And they set out from Oboth, and encamped at Iyēabarim, in the wilderness which is opposite Moab, toward the sunrise.

Num 21:12 From there they set out, and encamped in the Valley of Zered.

Num 21:13 From there they set out, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that extends from the boundary of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

Num 21:14 Wherefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, "Waheb in Suphah, and the valleys of the Arnon, Num 21:15 and the slope of the valleys that extends to the seat of Ar, and leans to the border of Moab."

Num 21:16 And from there they continued to Beer; that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."

Num 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, O well! -- Sing to it! --

Num 21:18 the well which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people delved with the scepter and with their staves." And from the wilderness they went on to Mattanah,

Num 21:19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Num 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah which looks down upon the desert.

Num 21:21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

Num 21:22 "Let me pass through your land; we will not turn aside into field or vineyard; we will not drink the water of a well; we will go by the King's Highway, until we have passed through your territory."

Num 21:23 But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. He gathered all his men together, and went out against Israel to the wilderness, and came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

Num 21:24 And Israel slew him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as to the Ammonites; for Jazer was the boundary of the Ammonites.

Num 21:25 And Israel took all these cities, and Israel settled in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.

Num 21:26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

Num 21:27 Therefore the ballad singers say, "Come to Heshbon, let it be built, let the city of Sihon be established.

Num 21:28 For fire went forth from Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon. It devoured Ar of Moab, the lords of the heights of the Arnon.

Num 21:29 Woe to you, O Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has made his sons fugitives, and his daughters captives, to an Amorite king, Sihon.

Num 21:30 So their posterity perished from Heshbon, as far as Dibon, and we laid waste until fire spread to Medeba."

Num 21:31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

Num 21:32 And Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its villages, and dispossessed the Amorites that were there.

Num 21:33 Then they turned and went up by the way to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

Num 21:34 But the LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him; for I have given him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon."

Num 21:35 So they slew him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was not one survivor left to him; and they possessed his land.

Num 22:1 Then the people of Israel set out, and encamped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho.

Num 22:2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

Num 22:3 And Moab was in great dread of the people, because they were many; Moab was overcome with fear of the people of Israel.

Num 22:4 And Moab said to the elders of Midian, "This horde will now lick up all that is round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field." So Balak the son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time,

Num 22:5 sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is near the River, in the land of Amaw to call him, saying, "Behold, a people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the earth, and they are dwelling opposite me.

Num 22:6 Come now, curse this people for me, since they are too mighty for me; perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them from the land; for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."

Num 22:7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and gave him Balak's message.

Num 22:8 And he said to them, "Lodge here this night, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me"; so the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

Num 22:9 And God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"

Num 22:10 And Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying,

Num 22:11 'Behold, a people has come out of Egypt, and it covers the face of the earth; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them and drive them out.'"

Num 22:12 God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed."

Num 22:13 So Balaam rose in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to your own land; for the LORD has refused to let me go with you."

Num 22:14 So the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

Num 22:15 Once again Balak sent princes, more in number and more honorable than they.

Num 22:16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: 'Let nothing hinder you from coming to me;

Num 22:17 for I will surely do you great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do; come, curse this people for me.'"

Num 22:18 But Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, "Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

Num 22:19 Pray, now, tarry here this night also, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me."

Num 22:20 And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men have come to call you, rise, go with them; but only what I bid you, that shall you do."

Num 22:21 So Balaam rose in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

Num 22:22 But God's anger was kindled because he went; and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the way as his adversary. Now he was riding on the ass, and his two servants were with him.

Num 22:23 And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in his hand; and the ass turned aside out of the road, and went into the field; and Balaam struck the ass, to turn her into the road.

Num 22:24 Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on either side.

Num 22:25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she pushed against the wall, and pressed Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck her again.

Num 22:26 Then the angel of the LORD went ahead, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left.

Num 22:27 When the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the ass with his staff.

Num 22:28 Then the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

Num 22:29 And Balaam said to the ass, "Because you have made sport of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill you."

Num 22:30 And the ass said to Balaam, "Am I not your ass, upon which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever accustomed to do so to you?" And he said, "No."

Num 22:31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face.

Num 22:32 And the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your ass these three times? Behold, I have come forth to withstand you, because your way is perverse before me;

Num 22:33 and the ass saw me, and turned aside before me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely just now I would have slain you and let her live."
Num 22:34 Then Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know that thou didst stand in the road against me. Now therefore, if it is evil in thy sight, I will go back again."
Num 22:35 And the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but only the word which I bid you, that shall you speak." So Balaam went on with the princes of Balak.
Num 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, on the boundary formed by the Arnon, at the extremity of the boundary.
Num 22:37 And Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not send to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?"
Num 22:38 Balaam said to Balak, "Lo, I have come to you! Have I now any power at all to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that must I speak."
Num 22:39 Then Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriathhuzoth.
Num 22:40 And Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.
Num 22:41 And on the morrow Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamothbaal; and from there he saw the nearest of the people.
Num 23:1 And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me here seven altars, and provide for me here seven bulls and seven rams."
Num 23:2 Balak did as Balaam had said; and Balak and Balaam offered on each altar a bull and a ram.
Num 23:3 And Balaam said to Balak, "Stand beside your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell you." And he went to a bare height.
Num 23:4 And God met Balaam; and Balaam said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered upon each altar a bull and a ram."
Num 23:5 And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak."
Num 23:6 And he returned to him, and lo, he and all the princes of Moab were standing beside his burnt offering.
Num 23:7 And Balaam took up his discourse, and said, "From Aram Balak has brought me, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains: `Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, denounce Israel!'
Num 23:8 How can I curse whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?
Num 23:9 For from the top of the mountains I see him, from the hills I behold him; lo, a people dwelling alone, and not reckoning itself among the nations!
Num 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like his!"
Num 23:11 And Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have done nothing but bless them."
Num 23:12 And he answered, "Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?"
Num 23:13 And Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place, from which you may see them; you shall see only the nearest of them, and shall not see them all; then curse them for me from there."
Num 23:14 And he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
Num 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, "Stand here beside your burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder."
Num 23:16 And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus shall you speak."
Num 23:17 And he came to him, and, lo, he was standing beside his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"
Num 23:18 And Balaam took up his discourse, and said, "Rise, Balak, and hear; hearken to me, O son of Zippor:
Num 23:19 God is not man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should repent. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfil it?
Num 23:20 Behold, I received a command to bless: he has blessed, and I cannot revoke it.
Num 23:21 He has not beheld misfortune in Jacob; nor has he seen trouble in Israel. The LORD their God is with them, and the shout of a king is among them.
Num 23:22 God brings them out of Egypt; they have as it were the horns of the wild ox.
Num 23:23 For there is no enchantment against Jacob, no divination against Israel; now it shall be said of Jacob and Israel, `What has God wrought!'
Num 23:24 Behold, a people! As a lioness it rises up and as a lion it lifts itself; it does not lie down till it devours the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain."

Num 23:25 And Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all."
Num 23:26 But Balaam answered Balak, "Did I not tell you, 'All that the LORD says, that I must do?'"
Num 23:27 And Balak said to Balaam, "Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there."
Num 23:28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that overlooks the desert.
Num 23:29 And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me here seven altars, and provide for me here seven bulls and seven rams."
Num 23:30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
Num 24:1 When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go, as at other times, to look for omens, but set his face toward the wilderness.
Num 24:2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and saw Israel encamping tribe by tribe. And the Spirit of God came upon him,
Num 24:3 and he took up his discourse, and said, "The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
Num 24:4 the oracle of him who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, but having his eyes uncovered:
Num 24:5 how fair are your tents, O Jacob, your encampments, O Israel!
Num 24:6 Like valleys that stretch afar, like gardens beside a river, like aloes that the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters.
Num 24:7 Water shall flow from his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.
Num 24:8 God brings him out of Egypt; he has as it were the horns of the wild ox, he shall eat up the nations his adversaries, and shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them through with his arrows.
Num 24:9 He couched, he lay down like a lion, and like a lioness; who will rouse him up? Blessed be every one who blesses you, and cursed be every one who curses you."
Num 24:10 And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have blessed them these three times.
Num 24:11 Therefore now flee to your place; I said, 'I will certainly honor you,' but the LORD has held you back from honor."
Num 24:12 And Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not tell your messengers whom you sent to me,
Num 24:13 'If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I would not be able to go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own will; what the LORD speaks, that will I speak?'
Num 24:14 And now, behold, I am going to my people; come, I will let you know what this people will do to your people in the latter days."
Num 24:15 And he took up his discourse, and said, "The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
Num 24:16 the oracle of him who hears the words of God, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, but having his eyes uncovered:
Num 24:17 I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not nigh: a star shall come forth out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel; it shall crush the forehead of Moab, and break down all the sons of Sheth.
Num 24:18 Edom shall be dispossessed, Seir also, his enemies, shall be dispossessed, while Israel does valiantly.
Num 24:19 By Jacob shall dominion be exercised, and the survivors of cities be destroyed!"
Num 24:20 Then he looked on Amalek, and took up his discourse, and said, "Amalek was the first of the nations, but in the end he shall come to destruction."
Num 24:21 And he looked on the Kenite, and took up his discourse, and said, "Enduring is your dwelling place, and your nest is set in the rock;
Num 24:22 nevertheless Kain shall be wasted. How long shall Asshur take you away captive?"
Num 24:23 And he took up his discourse, and said, "Alas, who shall live when God does this?
Num 24:24 But ships shall come from Kittim and shall afflict Asshur and Eber; and he also shall come to destruction."
Num 24:25 Then Balaam rose, and went back to his place; and Balak also went his way.
Num 25:1 While Israel dwelt in Shittim the people began to play the harlot with the daughters of Moab.
Num 25:2 These invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.
Num 25:3 So Israel yoked himself to Baal of Peor. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel;
Num 25:4 and the LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them in the sun before the LORD, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."
Num 25:5 And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Every one of you slay his men who have yoked themselves to Baal of Peor."

Num 25:6 And behold, one of the people of Israel came and brought a Midianite woman to his family, in the sight of Moses and in the sight of the whole congregation of the people of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the tent of meeting.

Num 25:7 When Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose and left the congregation, and took a spear in his hand

Num 25:8 and went after the man of Israel into the inner room, and pierced both of them, the man of Israel and the woman, through her body. Thus the plague was stayed from the people of Israel.

Num 25:9 Nevertheless those that died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.

Num 25:10 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 25:11 "Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the people of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the people of Israel in my jealousy.

Num 25:12 Therefore say, 'Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace;

Num 25:13 and it shall be to him, and to his descendants after him, the covenant of a perpetual priesthood, because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the people of Israel.'"

Num 25:14 The name of the slain man of Israel, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, head of a fathers' house belonging to the Simeonites.

Num 25:15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was the head of the people of a fathers' house in Midian.

Num 25:16 And the LORD said to Moses,

Num 25:17 "Harass the Midianites, and smite them;

Num 25:18 for they have harassed you with their wives, with which they beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague on account of Peor."

Num 26:1 After the plague the LORD said to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron, the priest,

Num 26:2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the people of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' houses, all in Israel who are able to go forth to war."

Num 26:3 And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

Num 26:4 "Take a census of the people, from twenty years old and upward," as the LORD commanded Moses. The people of Israel, who came forth out of the land of Egypt, were:

Num 26:53 "To these the land shall be divided for inheritance according to the number of names.

Num 26:54 To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; every tribe shall be given its inheritance according to its numbers.

Num 26:55 But the land shall be divided by lot; according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

Num 26:56 Their inheritance shall be divided according to lot between the larger and the smaller."

Num 26:57 These are the Levites as numbered according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

Num 26:58 These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Muhlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. And Kohath was the father of Amram.

Num 26:60 And to Aaron were born Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
Num 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unholy fire before the LORD.
Num 26:62 And those numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward; for they were not numbered among the people of Israel, because there was no inheritance given to them among the people of Israel.
Num 26:63 These were those numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the people of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
Num 26:64 But among these there was not a man of those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who had numbered the people of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.
Num 26:65 For the LORD had said of them, "They shall die in the wilderness." There was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.
Num 27:1 Then drew near the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hephher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph. The names of his daughters were: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
Num 27:2 And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, at the door of the tent of meeting, saying,
Num 27:3 "Our father died in the wilderness; he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah, but died for his own sin; and he had no sons.
Num 27:4 Why should the name of our father be taken away from his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among our father's brethren."
Num 27:5 Moses brought their case before the LORD.
Num 27:6 And the LORD said to Moses,
Num 27:7 "The daughters of Zelophehad are right; you shall give them possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.
Num 27:8 And you shall say to the people of Israel, 'If a man dies, and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.
Num 27:9 And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.
Num 27:10 And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.
Num 27:11 And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it. And it shall be to the people of Israel a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses.'"
Num 27:12 The LORD said to Moses, "Go up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the people of Israel.
Num 27:13 And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was gathered,
Num 27:14 because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin during the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the waters before their eyes." (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)
Num 27:15 Moses said to the LORD,
Num 27:16 "Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation,
Num 27:17 who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD may not be as sheep which have no shepherd."
Num 27:18 And the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand upon him;
Num 27:19 cause him to stand before Eleazar the priest and all the congregation, and you shall commission him in their sight.
Num 27:20 You shall invest him with some of your authority, that all the congregation of the people of Israel may obey.
Num 27:21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD; at his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the people of Israel with him, the whole congregation."
Num 27:22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; he took Joshua and caused him to stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation,
Num 27:23 and he laid his hands upon him, and commissioned him as the LORD directed through Moses.
Num 28:1 The LORD said to Moses,
Num 28:2 "Command the people of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering, my food for my offerings by fire, my pleasing odor, you shall take heed to offer to me in its due season.'
Num 28:3 And you shall say to them, This is the offering by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish, day by day, as a continual offering.

Num 28:4 The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening;
Num 28:5 also a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil.
Num 28:6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.
Num 28:7 Its drink offering shall be a fourth of a hin for each lamb; in the holy place you shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.
Num 28:8 The other lamb you shall offer in the evening; like the cereal offering of the morning, and like its drink offering, you shall offer it as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
Num 28:9 "On the sabbath day two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering:
Num 28:10 this is the burnt offering of every sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.
Num 28:11 "At the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;
Num 28:12 also three tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; and two tenths of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;
Num 28:13 and a tenth of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering for every lamb; for a burnt offering of pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.
Num 28:14 Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, a third of a hin for a ram, and a fourth of a hin for a lamb; this is the burnt offering of each month throughout the months of the year.
Num 28:15 Also one male goat for a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.
Num 28:16 "On the fourteenth day of the first month is the LORD's passover.
Num 28:17 And on the fifteenth day of this month is a feast; seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.
Num 28:18 On the first day there shall be a holy convocation: you shall do no laborious work,
Num 28:19 but offer an offering by fire, a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; see that they are without blemish;
Num 28:20 also their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil; three tenths of an ephah shall you offer for a bull, and two tenths for a ram;
Num 28:21 a tenth shall you offer for each of the seven lambs;
Num 28:22 also one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you.
Num 28:23 You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.
Num 28:24 In the same way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.
Num 28:25 And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.
Num 28:26 "On the day of the first fruits, when you offer a cereal offering of new grain to the LORD at your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work,
Num 28:27 but offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD; two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old;
Num 28:28 also their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for each bull, two tenths for one ram,
Num 28:29 a tenth for each of the seven lambs;
Num 28:30 with one male goat, to make atonement for you.
Num 28:31 Besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, you shall offer them and their drink offering. See that they are without blemish.
Num 29:1 "On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work. It is a day for you to blow the trumpets,
Num 29:2 and you shall offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;
Num 29:3 also their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for the bull, two tenths for the ram,
Num 29:4 and one tenth for each of the seven lambs;
Num 29:5 with one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you;
Num 29:6 besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and its cereal offering, and the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their drink offering, according to the ordinance for them, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.
Num 29:7 "On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation, and afflict yourselves; you shall do no work,
Num 29:8 but you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing odor: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish;

Num 29:9 and their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for the bull, two tenths for the one ram,
Num 29:10 a tenth for each of the seven lambs:
Num 29:11 also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:12 "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days;
Num 29:13 and you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD, thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish;
Num 29:14 and their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two tenths for each of the two rams,
Num 29:15 and a tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;
Num 29:16 also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering and its drink offering.
Num 29:17 "On the second day twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:18 with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:19 also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:20 "On the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:21 with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:22 also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering and its drink offering.
Num 29:23 "On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:24 with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:25 also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering and its drink offering.
Num 29:26 "On the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:27 with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:28 also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering and its drink offering.
Num 29:29 "On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:30 with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:31 also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering, and its drink offerings.
Num 29:32 "On the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:33 with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:34 also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering, and its drink offering.
Num 29:35 "On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly: you shall do no laborious work,
Num 29:36 but you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish,
Num 29:37 and the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
Num 29:38 also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering and its drink offering.
Num 29:39 "These you shall offer to the LORD at your appointed feasts, in addition to your votive offerings and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your cereal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings."
Num 29:40 And Moses told the people of Israel everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Num 30:1 Moses said to the heads of the tribes of the people of Israel, "This is what the LORD has commanded.
Num 30:2 When a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

Num 30:3 Or when a woman vows a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by a pledge, while within her father's house, in her youth,

Num 30:4 and her father hears of her vow and of her pledge by which she has bound herself, and says nothing to her; then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand.

Num 30:5 But if her father expresses disapproval to her on the day that he hears of it, no vow of hers, no pledge by which she has bound herself, shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her, because her father opposed her.

Num 30:6 And if she is married to a husband, while under her vows or any thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself,

Num 30:7 and her husband hears of it, and says nothing to her on the day that he hears; then her vows shall stand, and her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand.

Num 30:8 But if, on the day that her husband comes to hear of it, he expresses disapproval, then he shall make void her vow which was on her, and the thoughtless utterance of her lips, by which she bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her.

Num 30:9 But any vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, anything by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

Num 30:10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by a pledge with an oath,

Num 30:11 and her husband heard of it, and said nothing to her, and did not oppose her; then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge by which she bound herself shall stand.

Num 30:12 But if her husband makes them null and void on the day that he hears them, then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning her pledge of herself, shall not stand: her husband has made them void, and the LORD will forgive her.

Num 30:13 Any vow and any binding oath to afflict herself, her husband may establish, or her husband may make void.

Num 30:14 But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows, or all her pledges, that are upon her; he has established them, because he said nothing to her on the day that he heard of them.

Num 30:15 But if he makes them null and void after he has heard of them, then he shall bear her iniquity."

Num 30:16 These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, as between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter, while in her youth, within her father's house.

Num 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 31:2 "Avenge the people of Israel on the Midianites; afterward you shall be gathered to your people."

Num 31:3 And Moses said to the people, "Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD's vengeance on Midian.

Num 31:4 You shall send a thousand from each of the tribes of Israel to the war."

Num 31:5 So there were provided, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

Num 31:6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, together with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.

Num 31:7 They warred against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and slew every male.

Num 31:8 They slew the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian; and they also slew Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.

Num 31:9 And the people of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones; and they took as booty all their cattle, their flocks, and all their goods.

Num 31:10 All their cities in the places where they dwelt, and all their encampments, they burned with fire,

Num 31:11 and took all the spoil and all the booty, both of man and of beast.

Num 31:12 Then they brought the captives and the booty and the spoil to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the people of Israel, at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Num 31:13 Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside the camp.

Num 31:14 And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

Num 31:15 Moses said to them, "Have you let all the women live?"

Num 31:16 Behold, these caused the people of Israel, by the counsel of Balaam, to act treacherously against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and so the plague came among the congregation of the LORD.

Num 31:17 Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him.

Num 31:18 But all the young girls who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

Num 31:19 Encamp outside the camp seven days; whoever of you has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.

Num 31:20 You shall purify every garment, every article of skin, all work of goats' hair, and every article of wood."

Num 31:21 And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle: "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses:

Num 31:22 only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

Num 31:23 everything that can stand the fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless it shall also be purified with the water of impurity; and whatever cannot stand the fire, you shall pass through the water.

Num 31:24 You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; and afterward you shall come into the camp."

Num 31:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 31:26 "Take the count of the booty that was taken, both of man and of beast, you and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers' houses of the congregation;

Num 31:27 and divide the booty into two parts, between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation.

Num 31:28 And levy for the LORD a tribute from the men of war who went out to battle, one out of five hundred, of the persons and of the oxen and of the asses and of the flocks;

Num 31:29 take it from their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD.

Num 31:30 And from the people of Israel's half you shall take one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the oxen, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all the cattle, and give them to the Levites who have charge of the tabernacle of the LORD."

Num 31:31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 31:32 Now the booty remaining of the spoil that the men of war took was: six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,

Num 31:33 seventy-two thousand cattle,

Num 31:34 sixty-one thousand asses,

Num 31:35 and thirty-two thousand persons in all, women who had not known man by lying with him.

Num 31:36 And the half, the portion of those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

Num 31:37 and the LORD's tribute of sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.

Num 31:38 The cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two.

Num 31:39 The asses were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one.

Num 31:40 The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons.

Num 31:41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the offering for the LORD, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 31:42 From the people of Israel's half, which Moses separated from that of the men who had gone to war

--

Num 31:43 now the congregation's half was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

Num 31:44 thirty-six thousand cattle,

Num 31:45 and thirty thousand five hundred asses,

Num 31:46 and sixteen thousand persons --

Num 31:47 from the people of Israel's half Moses took one of every fifty, both of persons and of beasts, and gave them to the Levites who had charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 31:48 Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses,

Num 31:49 and said to Moses, "Your servants have counted the men of war who are under our command, and there is not a man missing from us.

Num 31:50 And we have brought the LORD's offering, what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and beads, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."

Num 31:51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest received from them the gold, all wrought articles.

Num 31:52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

Num 31:53 (The men of war had taken booty, every man for himself.)

Num 31:54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting, as a memorial for the people of Israel before the LORD.

Num 32:1 Now the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle; and they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, and behold, the place was a place for cattle.

Num 32:2 So the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and said to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the congregation,

Num 32:3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, Num 32:4 the land which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle; and your servants have cattle."

Num 32:5 And they said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not take us across the Jordan."

Num 32:6 But Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, "Shall your brethren go to the war while you sit here?"

Num 32:7 Why will you discourage the heart of the people of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them?

Num 32:8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadeshbarnea to see the land.

Num 32:9 For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the people of Israel from going into the land which the LORD had given them.

Num 32:10 And the LORD's anger was kindled on that day, and he swore, saying,

Num 32:11 'Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not wholly followed me;

Num 32:12 none except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the LORD.'

Num 32:13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was consumed.

Num 32:14 And behold, you have risen in your fathers' stead, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel!

Num 32:15 For if you turn away from following him, he will again abandon them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people."

Num 32:16 Then they came near to him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our flocks, and cities for our little ones,

Num 32:17 but we will take up arms, ready to go before the people of Israel, until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones shall live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

Num 32:18 We will not return to our homes until the people of Israel have inherited each his inheritance.

Num 32:19 For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond; because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan to the east."

Num 32:20 So Moses said to them, "If you will do this, if you will take up arms to go before the LORD for the war,

Num 32:21 and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him

Num 32:22 and the land is subdued before the LORD; then after that you shall return and be free of obligation to the LORD and to Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

Num 32:23 But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out.

Num 32:24 Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do what you have promised."

Num 32:25 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben said to Moses, "Your servants will do as my lord commands.

Num 32:26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall remain there in the cities of Gilead;

Num 32:27 but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord orders."

Num 32:28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel.

Num 32:29 And Moses said to them, "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, every man who is armed to battle before the LORD, will pass with you over the Jordan and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession;

Num 32:30 but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."

Num 32:31 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, "As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

Num 32:32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan."

Num 32:33 And Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land and its cities with their territories, the cities of the land throughout the country.

Num 32:34 And the sons of Gad built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,
Num 32:35 Atrothshophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,
Num 32:36 Bethnimrah and Bethharan, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.
Num 32:37 And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim,
Num 32:38 Nebo, and Baalmeon (their names to be changed), and Sibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built.
Num 32:39 And the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.
Num 32:40 And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he settled in it.
Num 32:41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took their villages, and called them Havvothjair.
Num 32:42 And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.
Num 33:1 These are the stages of the people of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their hosts under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.
Num 33:2 Moses wrote down their starting places, stage by stage, by command of the LORD; and these are their stages according to their starting places.
Num 33:3 They set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the passover the people of Israel went out triumphantly in the sight of all the Egyptians,
Num 33:4 while the Egyptians were burying all their first-born, whom the LORD had struck down among them; upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments.
Num 33:5 So the people of Israel set out from Rameses, and encamped at Succoth.
Num 33:6 And they set out from Succoth, and encamped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.
Num 33:7 And they set out from Etham, and turned back to Pihahiroth, which is east of Baalzephon; and they encamped before Migdol.
Num 33:8 And they set out from before Hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and they went a three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and encamped at Marah.
Num 33:9 And they set out from Marah, and came to Elim; at Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they encamped there.
Num 33:10 And they set out from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea.
Num 33:11 And they set out from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.
Num 33:12 And they set out from the wilderness of Sin, and encamped at Dophkah.
Num 33:13 And they set out from Dophkah, and encamped at Alush.
Num 33:14 And they set out from Alush, and encamped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.
Num 33:15 And they set out from Rephidim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai.
Num 33:16 And they set out from the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped at Kibrothhattaavah.
Num 33:17 And they set out from Kibrothhattaavah, and encamped at Hazeroth.
Num 33:18 And they set out from Hazeroth, and encamped at Rithmah.
Num 33:19 And they set out from Rithmah, and encamped at Rimmonperez.
Num 33:20 And they set out from Rimmonperez, and encamped at Libnah.
Num 33:21 And they set out from Libnah, and encamped at Rissah.
Num 33:22 And they set out from Rissah, and encamped at Kehelathah.
Num 33:23 And they set out from Kehelathah, and encamped at Mount Shepher.
Num 33:24 And they set out from Mount Shepher, and encamped at Haradah.
Num 33:25 And they set out from Haradah, and encamped at Makheloth.
Num 33:26 And they set out from Makheloth, and encamped at Tahath.
Num 33:27 And they set out from Tahath, and encamped at Terah.
Num 33:28 And they set out from Terah, and encamped at Mithkah.
Num 33:29 And they set out from Mithkah, and encamped at Hashmonah.
Num 33:30 And they set out from Hashmonah, and encamped at Moseroth.
Num 33:31 And they set out from Moseroth, and encamped at Benejaakan.
Num 33:32 And they set out from Benejaakan, and encamped at Horhaggidgad.
Num 33:33 And they set out from Horhaggidgad, and encamped at Jotbathah.
Num 33:34 And they set out from Jotbathah, and encamped at Abronah.
Num 33:35 And they set out from Abronah, and encamped at Eziongeber.
Num 33:36 And they set out from Eziongeber, and encamped in the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh).
Num 33:37 And they set out from Kadesh, and encamped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom.
Num 33:38 And Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there, in the fortieth year after the people of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.
Num 33:39 And Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Num 33:40 And the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the Negeb in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the people of Israel.

Num 33:41 And they set out from Mount Hor, and encamped at Zalmonah.

Num 33:42 And they set out from Zalmonah, and encamped at Punon.

Num 33:43 And they set out from Punon, and encamped at Oboth.

Num 33:44 And they set out from Oboth, and encamped at Iyeabarim, in the territory of Moab.

Num 33:45 And they set out from Iyim, and encamped at Dibongad.

Num 33:46 And they set out from Dibongad, and encamped at Almondiblathaim.

Num 33:47 And they set out from Almondiblathaim, and encamped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

Num 33:48 And they set out from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho;

Num 33:49 they encamped by the Jordan from Bethjeshimoth as far as Abelshittim in the plains of Moab.

Num 33:50 And the LORD said to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho,

Num 33:51 "Say to the people of Israel, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Num 33:52 then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their figured stones, and destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places;

Num 33:53 and you shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.

Num 33:54 You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be his; according to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit.

Num 33:55 But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those of them whom you let remain shall be as pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land where you dwell.

Num 33:56 And I will do to you as I thought to do to them."

Num 34:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 34:2 "Command the people of Israel, and say to them, When you enter the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan in its full extent),

Num 34:3 your south side shall be from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern boundary shall be from the end of the Salt Sea on the east;

Num 34:4 and your boundary shall turn south of the ascent of Akrabbim, and cross to Zin, and its end shall be south of Kadeshbarnea; then it shall go on to Hazaraddar, and pass along to Azmon;

Num 34:5 and the boundary shall turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the sea.

Num 34:6 "For the western boundary, you shall have the Great Sea and its coast; this shall be your western boundary.

Num 34:7 "This shall be your northern boundary: from the Great Sea you shall mark out your line to Mount Hor;

Num 34:8 from Mount Hor you shall mark it out to the entrance of Hamath, and the end of the boundary shall be at Zedad;

Num 34:9 then the boundary shall extend to Ziphron, and its end shall be at Hazarenan; this shall be your northern boundary.

Num 34:10 "You shall mark out your eastern boundary from Hazarenan to Shepham;

Num 34:11 and the boundary shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the boundary shall go down, and reach to the shoulder of the sea of Chinnereth on the east;

Num 34:12 and the boundary shall go down to the Jordan, and its end shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with its boundaries all round."

Num 34:13 Moses commanded the people of Israel, saying, "This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe;

Num 34:14 for the tribe of the sons of Reuben by fathers' houses and the tribe of the sons of Gad by their fathers' houses have received their inheritance, and also the half-tribe of Manasseh;

Num 34:15 the two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise."

Num 34:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 34:17 "These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.

Num 34:18 You shall take one leader of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance.

Num 34:19 These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

Num 34:20 Of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.

Num 34:21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

Num 34:22 Of the tribe of the sons of Dan a leader, Bukki the son of Jogli.

Num 34:23 Of the sons of Joseph: of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh a leader, Hanniel the son of Ephod.
Num 34:24 And of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim a leader, Kemuel the son of Shiptan.
Num 34:25 Of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun a leader, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.
Num 34:26 Of the tribe of the sons of Issachar a leader, Paltiel the son of Azzan.
Num 34:27 And of the tribe of the sons of Asher a leader, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.
Num 34:28 Of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali a leader, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.
Num 34:29 These are the men whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance for the people of Israel in the land of Canaan."

Num 35:1 The LORD said to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho,
Num 35:2 "Command the people of Israel, that they give to the Levites, from the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and you shall give to the Levites pasture lands round about the cities.
Num 35:3 The cities shall be theirs to dwell in, and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their livestock and for all their beasts.
Num 35:4 The pasture lands of the cities, which you shall give to the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits all round.
Num 35:5 And you shall measure, outside the city, for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, the city being in the middle; this shall belong to them as pasture land for their cities.
Num 35:6 The cities which you give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge, where you shall permit the manslayer to flee, and in addition to them you shall give forty-two cities.
Num 35:7 All the cities which you give to the Levites shall be forty-eight, with their pasture lands.
Num 35:8 And as for the cities which you shall give from the possession of the people of Israel, from the larger tribes you shall take many, and from the smaller tribes you shall take few; each, in proportion to the inheritance which it inherits, shall give of its cities to the Levites."
Num 35:9 And the LORD said to Moses,
Num 35:10 "Say to the people of Israel, When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
Num 35:11 then you shall select cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person without intent may flee there.
Num 35:12 The cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment.
Num 35:13 And the cities which you give shall be your six cities of refuge.
Num 35:14 You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan, to be cities of refuge.
Num 35:15 These six cities shall be for refuge for the people of Israel, and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them, that any one who kills any person without intent may flee there.
Num 35:16 "But if he struck him down with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
Num 35:17 And if he struck him down with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
Num 35:18 Or if he struck him down with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
Num 35:19 The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.
Num 35:20 And if he stabbed him from hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died,
Num 35:21 or in enmity struck him down with his hand, so that he died, then he who struck the blow shall be put to death; he is a murderer; the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meets him.
Num 35:22 "But if he stabbed him suddenly without enmity, or hurled anything on him without lying in wait,
Num 35:23 or used a stone, by which a man may die, and without seeing him cast it upon him, so that he died, though he was not his enemy, and did not seek his harm;
Num 35:24 then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood, in accordance with these ordinances;
Num 35:25 and the congregation shall rescue the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, to which he had fled, and he shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.
Num 35:26 But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the bounds of his city of refuge to which he fled,
Num 35:27 and the avenger of blood finds him outside the bounds of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood slays the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of blood.
Num 35:28 For the man must remain in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; but after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.

Num 35:29 "And these things shall be for a statute and ordinance to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Num 35:30 If any one kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses; but no person shall be put to death on the testimony of one witness.

Num 35:31 Moreover you shall accept no ransom for the life of a murderer, who is guilty of death; but he shall be put to death.

Num 35:32 And you shall accept no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the high priest.

Num 35:33 You shall not thus pollute the land in which you live; for blood pollutes the land, and no expiation can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of him who shed it.

Num 35:34 You shall not defile the land in which you live, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD dwell in the midst of the people of Israel."

Num 36:1 The heads of the fathers' houses of the families of the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, son of Manasseh, of the fathers' houses of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers' houses of the people of Israel;

Num 36:2 they said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the people of Israel; and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.

Num 36:3 But if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the people of Israel then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so it will be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

Num 36:4 And when the jubilee of the people of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; and their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

Num 36:5 And Moses commanded the people of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph is right.

Num 36:6 This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, `Let them marry whom they think best; only, they shall marry within the family of the tribe of their father.

Num 36:7 The inheritance of the people of Israel shall not be transferred from one tribe to another; for every one of the people of Israel shall cleave to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

Num 36:8 And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the people of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that every one of the people of Israel may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

Num 36:9 So no inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another; for each of the tribes of the people of Israel shall cleave to its own inheritance."

Num 36:10 The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD commanded Moses;

Num 36:11 for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to sons of their father's brothers.

Num 36:12 They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

Num 36:13 These are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded by Moses to the people of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deu 1:1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah over against Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di'-zahab.

Deu 1:2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadeshbarnea.

Deu 1:3 And in the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the people of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment to them,

Deu 1:4 after he had defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.

Deu 1:5 Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to explain this law, saying,

Deu 1:6 "The LORD our God said to us in Horeb, `You have stayed long enough at this mountain;

Deu 1:7 turn and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland, and in the Negeb, and by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

Deu 1:8 Behold, I have set the land before you; go in and take possession of the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.'

Deu 1:9 "At that time I said to you, `I am not able alone to bear you;

Deu 1:10 the LORD your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

Deu 1:11 May the LORD, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you!

Deu 1:12 How can I bear alone the weight and burden of you and your strife?

Deu 1:13 Choose wise, understanding, and experienced men, according to your tribes, and I will appoint them as your heads.'

Deu 1:14 And you answered me, 'The thing that you have spoken is good for us to do.'

Deu 1:15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and set them as heads over you, commanders of thousands, commanders of hundreds, commanders of fifties, commanders of tens, and officers, throughout your tribes.

Deu 1:16 And I charged your judges at that time, 'Hear the cases between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother or the alien that is with him.

Deu 1:17 You shall not be partial in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike; you shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's; and the case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.'

Deu 1:18 And I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.

Deu 1:19 "And we set out from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadeshbarnea.

Deu 1:20 And I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God gives us.

Deu 1:21 Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has told you; do not fear or be dismayed.'

Deu 1:22 Then all of you came near me, and said, 'Let us send men before us, that they may explore the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up and the cities into which we shall come.'

Deu 1:23 The thing seemed good to me, and I took twelve men of you, one man for each tribe;

Deu 1:24 and they turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and spied it out.

Deu 1:25 And they took in their hands some of the fruit of the land and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, 'It is a good land which the LORD our God gives us.'

Deu 1:26 "Yet you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;

Deu 1:27 and you murmured in your tents, and said, 'Because the LORD hated us he has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

Deu 1:28 Whither are we going up? Our brethren have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there."

Deu 1:29 Then I said to you, 'Do not be in dread or afraid of them.

Deu 1:30 The LORD your God who goes before you will himself fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your eyes,

Deu 1:31 and in the wilderness, where you have seen how the LORD your God bore you, as a man bears his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.'

Deu 1:32 Yet in spite of this word you did not believe the LORD your God,

Deu 1:33 who went before you in the way to seek you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in the cloud by day.

Deu 1:34 "And the LORD heard your words, and was angered, and he swore,

Deu 1:35 'Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land which I swore to give to your fathers,

Deu 1:36 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his children I will give the land upon which he has trodden, because he has wholly followed the LORD!'

Deu 1:37 The LORD was angry with me also on your account, and said, 'You also shall not go in there;

Deu 1:38 Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall enter; encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

Deu 1:39 Moreover your little ones, who you said would become a prey, and your children, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, shall go in there, and to them I will give it, and they shall possess it.

Deu 1:40 But as for you, turn, and journey into the wilderness in the direction of the Red Sea.'

Deu 1:41 "Then you answered me, 'We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' And every man of you girded on his weapons of war, and thought it easy to go up into the hill country.

Deu 1:42 And the LORD said to me, 'Say to them, Do not go up or fight, for I am not in the midst of you; lest you be defeated before your enemies.'

Deu 1:43 So I spoke to you, and you would not hearken; but you rebelled against the command of the LORD, and were presumptuous and went up into the hill country.

Deu 1:44 Then the Amorites who lived in that hill country came out against you and chased you as bees do and beat you down in Seir as far as Hormah.

Deu 1:45 And you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD did not hearken to your voice or give ear to you.

Deu 1:46 So you remained at Kadesh many days, the days that you remained there.

Deu 2:1 "Then we turned, and journeyed into the wilderness in the direction of the Red Sea, as the LORD told me; and for many days we went about Mount Seir.

Deu 2:2 Then the LORD said to me,

Deu 2:3 "You have been going about this mountain country long enough; turn northward.

Deu 2:4 And command the people, You are about to pass through the territory of your brethren the sons of Esau, who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. So take good heed;

Deu 2:5 do not contend with them; for I will not give you any of their land, no, not so much as for the sole of the foot to tread on, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

Deu 2:6 You shall purchase food from them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink.

Deu 2:7 For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands; he knows your going through this great wilderness; these forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.'

Deu 2:8 So we went on, away from our brethren the sons of Esau who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road from Elath and Eziongeber. "And we turned and went in the direction of the wilderness of Moab.

Deu 2:9 And the LORD said to me, "Do not harass Moab or contend with them in battle, for I will not give you any of their land for a possession, because I have given Ar to the sons of Lot for a possession.'

Deu 2:10 (The Emim formerly lived there, a people great and many, and tall as the Anakim;

Deu 2:11 like the Anakim they are also known as Rephaim, but the Moabites call them Emim.

Deu 2:12 The Horites also lived in Seir formerly, but the sons of Esau dispossessed them, and destroyed them from before them, and settled in their stead; as Israel did to the land of their possession, which the LORD gave to them.)

Deu 2:13 "Now rise up, and go over the brook Zered.'" So we went over the brook Zered.

Deu 2:14 And the time from our leaving Kadeshbarnea until we crossed the brook Zered was thirty-eight years, until the entire generation, that is, the men of war, had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.

Deu 2:15 For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the camp, until they had perished.

Deu 2:16 "So when all the men of war had perished and were dead from among the people,

Deu 2:17 the LORD said to me,

Deu 2:18 "This day you are to pass over the boundary of Moab at Ar;

Deu 2:19 and when you approach the frontier of the sons of Ammon, do not harass them or contend with them, for I will not give you any of the land of the sons of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the sons of Lot for a possession.'

Deu 2:20 (That also is known as a land of Rephaim; Rephaim formerly lived there, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,

Deu 2:21 a people great and many, and tall as the Anakim; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they dispossessed them, and settled in their stead;

Deu 2:22 as he did for the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them, and they dispossessed them, and settled in their stead even to this day.

Deu 2:23 As for the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and settled in their stead.)

Deu 2:24 "Rise up, take your journey, and go over the valley of the Arnon; behold, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land; begin to take possession, and contend with him in battle.

Deu 2:25 This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of you and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.'

Deu 2:26 "So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon the king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying, Deu 2:27 "Let me pass through your land; I will go only by the road, I will turn aside neither to the right nor to the left.

Deu 2:28 You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat, and give me water for money, that I may drink; only let me pass through on foot,

Deu 2:29 as the sons of Esau who live in Seir and the Moabites who live in Ar did for me, until I go over the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gives to us.'

Deu 2:30 But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that he might give him into your hand, as at this day.

Deu 2:31 And the LORD said to me, 'Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you; begin to take possession, that you may occupy his land.'

Deu 2:32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz.

Deu 2:33 And the LORD our God gave him over to us; and we defeated him and his sons and all his people.

Deu 2:34 And we captured all his cities at that time and utterly destroyed every city, men, women, and children; we left none remaining;

Deu 2:35 only the cattle we took as spoil for ourselves, with the booty of the cities which we captured.

Deu 2:36 From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and from the city that is in the valley, as far as Gilead, there was not a city too high for us; the LORD our God gave all into our hands.

Deu 2:37 Only to the land of the sons of Ammon you did not draw near, that is, to all the banks of the river Jabbok and the cities of the hill country, and wherever the LORD our God forbade us.

Deu 3:1 "Then we turned and went up the way to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

Deu 3:2 But the LORD said to me, 'Do not fear him; for I have given him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.'

Deu 3:3 So the LORD our God gave into our hand Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people; and we smote him until no survivor was left to him.

Deu 3:4 And we took all his cities at that time -- there was not a city which we did not take from them -- sixty cities, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deu 3:5 All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides very many unwalled villages.

Deu 3:6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon the king of Heshbon, destroying every city, men, women, and children.

Deu 3:7 But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities we took as our booty.

Deu 3:8 So we took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon

Deu 3:9 (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, while the Amorites call it Senir),

Deu 3:10 all the cities of the tableland and all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deu 3:11 (For only Og the king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaim; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbah of the Ammonites? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its breadth, according to the common cubit.)

Deu 3:12 "When we took possession of this land at that time, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory beginning at Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead with its cities;

Deu 3:13 the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, that is, all the region of Argob, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (The whole of that Bashan is called the land of Rephaim.

Deu 3:14 Jair the Manassite took all the region of Argob, that is, Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called the villages after his own name, Havvothjair, as it is to this day.)

Deu 3:15 To Machir I gave Gilead,

Deu 3:16 and to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead as far as the valley of the Arnon, with the middle of the valley as a boundary, as far over as the river Jabbok, the boundary of the Ammonites;

Deu 3:17 the Arabah also, with the Jordan as the boundary, from Chinnereth as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

Deu 3:18 "And I commanded you at that time, saying, 'The LORD your God has given you this land to possess; all your men of valor shall pass over armed before your brethren the people of Israel.

Deu 3:19 But your wives, your little ones, and your cattle (I know that you have many cattle) shall remain in the cities which I have given you,

Deu 3:20 until the LORD gives rest to your brethren, as to you, and they also occupy the land which the LORD your God gives them beyond the Jordan; then you shall return every man to his possession which I have given you.'

Deu 3:21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, 'Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so will the LORD do to all the kingdoms into which you are going over.

Deu 3:22 You shall not fear them; for it is the LORD your God who fights for you.'

Deu 3:23 "And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

Deu 3:24 'O Lord GOD, thou hast only begun to show thy servant thy greatness and thy mighty hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as thine?

Deu 3:25 Let me go over, I pray, and see the good land beyond the Jordan, that goodly hill country, and Lebanon.'

Deu 3:26 But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not hearken to me; and the LORD said to me, 'Let it suffice you; speak no more to me of this matter.

Deu 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and behold it with your eyes; for you shall not go over this Jordan.

Deu 3:28 But charge Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him; for he shall go over at the head of this people, and he shall put them in possession of the land which you shall see.'

Deu 3:29 So we remained in the valley opposite Bethpeor.

Deu 4:1 "And now, O Israel, give heed to the statutes and the ordinances which I teach you, and do them; that you may live, and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, gives you.

Deu 4:2 You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it; that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

Deu 4:3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baalpeor; for the LORD your God destroyed from among you all the men who followed the Baal of Peor;

Deu 4:4 but you who held fast to the LORD your God are all alive this day.

Deu 4:5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do them in the land which you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 4:6 Keep them and do them; for that will be your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'

Deu 4:7 For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is to us, whenever we call upon him?

Deu 4:8 And what great nation is there, that has statutes and ordinances so righteous as all this law which I set before you this day?

Deu 4:9 "Only take heed, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; make them known to your children and your children's children --

Deu 4:10 how on the day that you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, the LORD said to me, 'Gather the people to me, that I may let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children so.'

Deu 4:11 And you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, while the mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven, wrapped in darkness, cloud, and gloom.

Deu 4:12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of words, but saw no form; there was only a voice.

Deu 4:13 And he declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, that is, the ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

Deu 4:14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land which you are going over to possess.

Deu 4:15 "Therefore take good heed to yourselves. Since you saw no form on the day that the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the midst of the fire,

Deu 4:16 beware lest you act corruptly by making a graven image for yourselves, in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

Deu 4:17 the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air,

Deu 4:18 the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth.

Deu 4:19 And beware lest you lift up your eyes to heaven, and when you see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the host of heaven, you be drawn away and worship them and serve them, things which the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole heaven.

Deu 4:20 But the LORD has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people of his own possession, as at this day.

Deu 4:21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me on your account, and he swore that I should not cross the Jordan, and that I should not enter the good land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

Deu 4:22 For I must die in this land, I must not go over the Jordan; but you shall go over and take possession of that good land.

Deu 4:23 Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make a graven image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you.

Deu 4:24 For the LORD your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

Deu 4:25 "When you beget children and children's children, and have grown old in the land, if you act corruptly by making a graven image in the form of anything, and by doing what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, so as to provoke him to anger,

Deu 4:26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you are going over the Jordan to possess; you will not live long upon it, but will be utterly destroyed.

Deu 4:27 And the LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you.

Deu 4:28 And there you will serve gods of wood and stone, the work of men's hands, that neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

Deu 4:29 But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find him, if you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 4:30 When you are in tribulation, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, you will return to the LORD your God and obey his voice,

Deu 4:31 for the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not fail you or destroy you or forget the covenant with your fathers which he swore to them.

Deu 4:32 "For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from one end of heaven to the other, whether such a great thing as this has ever happened or was ever heard of.

Deu 4:33 Did any people ever hear the voice of a god speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and still live?

Deu 4:34 Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, and by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

Deu 4:35 To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD is God; there is no other besides him.

Deu 4:36 Out of heaven he let you hear his voice, that he might discipline you; and on earth he let you see his great fire, and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire.

Deu 4:37 And because he loved your fathers and chose their descendants after them, and brought you out of Egypt with his own presence, by his great power,

Deu 4:38 driving out before you nations greater and mightier than yourselves, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as at this day;

Deu 4:39 know therefore this day, and lay it to your heart, that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.

Deu 4:40 Therefore you shall keep his statutes and his commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD your God gives you for ever."

Deu 4:41 Then Moses set apart three cities in the east beyond the Jordan,

Deu 4:42 that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without being at enmity with him in time past, and that by fleeing to one of these cities he might save his life:

Deu 4:43 Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland for the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

Deu 4:44 This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel;

Deu 4:45 these are the testimonies, the statutes, and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt,

Deu 4:46 beyond the Jordan in the valley opposite Bethpeor, in the land of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel defeated when they came out of Egypt.

Deu 4:47 And they took possession of his land and the land of Og the king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who lived to the east beyond the Jordan;

Deu 4:48 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, as far as Mount Sirion (that is, Hermon),

Deu 4:49 together with all the Arabah on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

Deu 5:1 And Moses summoned all Israel, and said to them, "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your hearing this day, and you shall learn them and be careful to do them.

Deu 5:2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

Deu 5:3 Not with our fathers did the LORD make this covenant, but with us, who are all of us here alive this day.

Deu 5:4 The LORD spoke with you face to face at the mountain, out of the midst of the fire,

Deu 5:5 while I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up into the mountain. He said:

Deu 5:6 "'I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Deu 5:7 "'You shall have no other gods before me.

Deu 5:8 "'You shall not make for yourself a graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;

Deu 5:9 you shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,
Deu 5:10 but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.
Deu 5:11 "You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.
Deu 5:12 "Observe the sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.
Deu 5:13 Six days you shall labor, and do all your work;
Deu 5:14 but the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; in it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, or your manservant, or your maidservant, or your ox, or your ass, or any of your cattle, or the sojourner who is within your gates, that your manservant and your maidservant may rest as well as you.
Deu 5:15 You shall remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out thence with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.
Deu 5:16 "Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God commanded you; that your days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with you, in the land which the LORD your God gives you.
Deu 5:17 "You shall not kill.
Deu 5:18 "Neither shall you commit adultery.
Deu 5:19 "Neither shall you steal.
Deu 5:20 "Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbor.
Deu 5:21 "Neither shall you covet your neighbor's wife; and you shall not desire your neighbor's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or anything that is your neighbor's.'
Deu 5:22 "These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly at the mountain out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and he added no more. And he wrote them upon two tables of stone, and gave them to me.
Deu 5:23 And when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;
Deu 5:24 and you said, 'Behold, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire; we have this day seen God speak with man and man still live.
Deu 5:25 Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, we shall die.
Deu 5:26 For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of fire, as we have, and has still lived?
Deu 5:27 Go near, and hear all that the LORD our God will say; and speak to us all that the LORD our God will speak to you; and we will hear and do it.'
Deu 5:28 "And the LORD heard your words, when you spoke to me; and the LORD said to me, 'I have heard the words of this people, which they have spoken to you; they have rightly said all that they have spoken.
Deu 5:29 Oh that they had such a mind as this always, to fear me and to keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and with their children for ever!
Deu 5:30 Go and say to them, "Return to your tents."
Deu 5:31 But you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandment and the statutes and the ordinances which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess.'
Deu 5:32 You shall be careful to do therefore as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
Deu 5:33 You shall walk in all the way which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may go well with you, and that you may live long in the land which you shall possess.
Deu 6:1 "Now this is the commandment, the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD your God commanded me to teach you, that you may do them in the land to which you are going over, to possess it;
Deu 6:2 that you may fear the LORD your God, you and your son and your son's son, by keeping all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged.
Deu 6:3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and be careful to do them; that it may go well with you, and that you may multiply greatly, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you, in a land flowing with milk and honey.
Deu 6:4 "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD;
Deu 6:5 and you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.
Deu 6:6 And these words which I command you this day shall be upon your heart;
Deu 6:7 and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.
Deu 6:8 And you shall bind them as a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.
Deu 6:9 And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deu 6:10 "And when the LORD your God brings you into the land which he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you, with great and goodly cities, which you did not build,
Deu 6:11 and houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, and cisterns hewn out, which you did not hew, and vineyards and olive trees, which you did not plant, and when you eat and are full,
Deu 6:12 then take heed lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
Deu 6:13 You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve him, and swear by his name.
Deu 6:14 You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are round about you;
Deu 6:15 for the LORD your God in the midst of you is a jealous God; lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth.
Deu 6:16 "You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah.
Deu 6:17 You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded you.
Deu 6:18 And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may go well with you, and that you may go in and take possession of the good land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers
Deu 6:19 by thrusting out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has promised.
Deu 6:20 "When your son asks you in time to come, 'What is the meaning of the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD our God has commanded you?'
Deu 6:21 then you shall say to your son, 'We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand;
Deu 6:22 and the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and grievous, against Egypt and against Pharaoh and all his household, before our eyes;
Deu 6:23 and he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in and give us the land which he swore to give to our fathers.
Deu 6:24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as at this day.
Deu 6:25 And it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to do all this commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us.'
Deu 7:1 "When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you are entering to take possession of it, and clears away many nations before you, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than yourselves,
Deu 7:2 and when the LORD your God gives them over to you, and you defeat them; then you must utterly destroy them; you shall make no covenant with them, and show no mercy to them.
Deu 7:3 You shall not make marriages with them, giving your daughters to their sons or taking their daughters for your sons.
Deu 7:4 For they would turn away your sons from following me, to serve other gods; then the anger of the LORD would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly.
Deu 7:5 But thus shall you deal with them: you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and hew down their Asherim, and burn their graven images with fire.
Deu 7:6 "For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, out of all the peoples that are on the face of the earth.
Deu 7:7 It was not because you were more in number than any other people that the LORD set his love upon you and chose you, for you were the fewest of all peoples;
Deu 7:8 but it is because the LORD loves you, and is keeping the oath which he swore to your fathers, that the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.
Deu 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations,
Deu 7:10 and requites to their face those who hate him, by destroying them; he will not be slack with him who hates him, he will requite him to his face.
Deu 7:11 You shall therefore be careful to do the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command you this day.
Deu 7:12 "And because you hearken to these ordinances, and keep and do them, the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the steadfast love which he swore to your fathers to keep;
Deu 7:13 he will love you, bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the young of your flock, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you.
Deu 7:14 You shall be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

Deu 7:15 And the LORD will take away from you all sickness; and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you knew, will he inflict upon you, but he will lay them upon all who hate you.

Deu 7:16 And you shall destroy all the peoples that the LORD your God will give over to you, your eye shall not pity them; neither shall you serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

Deu 7:17 "If you say in your heart, 'These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?'

Deu 7:18 you shall not be afraid of them, but you shall remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt,

Deu 7:19 the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out; so will the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

Deu 7:20 Moreover the LORD your God will send hornets among them, until those who are left and hide themselves from you are destroyed.

Deu 7:21 You shall not be in dread of them; for the LORD your God is in the midst of you, a great and terrible God.

Deu 7:22 The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you may not make an end of them at once, lest the wild beasts grow too numerous for you.

Deu 7:23 But the LORD your God will give them over to you, and throw them into great confusion, until they are destroyed.

Deu 7:24 And he will give their kings into your hand, and you shall make their name perish from under heaven; not a man shall be able to stand against you, until you have destroyed them.

Deu 7:25 The graven images of their gods you shall burn with fire; you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, or take it for yourselves, lest you be ensnared by it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deu 7:26 And you shall not bring an abominable thing into your house, and become accursed like it; you shall utterly detest and abhor it; for it is an accursed thing.

Deu 8:1 "All the commandment which I command you this day you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers.

Deu 8:2 And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not.

Deu 8:3 And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but that man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD.

Deu 8:4 Your clothing did not wear out upon you, and your foot did not swell, these forty years.

Deu 8:5 Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you.

Deu 8:6 So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, by walking in his ways and by fearing him.

Deu 8:7 For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing forth in valleys and hills,

Deu 8:8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey,

Deu 8:9 a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper.

Deu 8:10 And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

Deu 8:11 "Take heed lest you forget the LORD your God, by not keeping his commandments and his ordinances and his statutes, which I command you this day:

Deu 8:12 lest, when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses and live in them,

Deu 8:13 and when your herds and flocks multiply, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied,

Deu 8:14 then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage,

Deu 8:15 who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water, who brought you water out of the flinty rock,

Deu 8:16 who fed you in the wilderness with manna which your fathers did not know, that he might humble you and test you, to do you good in the end.

Deu 8:17 Beware lest you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.'

Deu 8:18 You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth; that he may confirm his covenant which he swore to your fathers, as at this day.

Deu 8:19 And if you forget the LORD your God and go after other gods and serve them and worship them, I solemnly warn you this day that you shall surely perish.

Deu 8:20 Like the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Deu 9:1 "Hear, O Israel; you are to pass over the Jordan this day, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves, cities great and fortified up to heaven,

Deu 9:2 a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard it said, 'Who can stand before the sons of Anak?'

Deu 9:3 Know therefore this day that he who goes over before you as a devouring fire is the LORD your God; he will destroy them and subdue them before you; so you shall drive them out, and make them perish quickly, as the LORD has promised you.

Deu 9:4 "Do not say in your heart, after the LORD your God has thrust them out before you, 'It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me in to possess this land'; whereas it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is driving them out before you.

Deu 9:5 Not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart are you going in to possess their land; but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God is driving them out from before you, and that he may confirm the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Deu 9:6 "Know therefore, that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness; for you are a stubborn people.

Deu 9:7 Remember and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; from the day you came out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

Deu 9:8 Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that he was ready to destroy you.

Deu 9:9 When I went up the mountain to receive the tables of stone, the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.

Deu 9:10 And the LORD gave me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.

Deu 9:11 And at the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, the tables of the covenant.

Deu 9:12 Then the LORD said to me, 'Arise, go down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought from Egypt have acted corruptly; they have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molten image.'

Deu 9:13 "Furthermore the LORD said to me, 'I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stubborn people;

Deu 9:14 let me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.'

Deu 9:15 So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire; and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

Deu 9:16 And I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made yourselves a molten calf; you had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.

Deu 9:17 So I took hold of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.

Deu 9:18 Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin which you had committed, in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

Deu 9:19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure which the LORD bore against you, so that he was ready to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened to me that time also.

Deu 9:20 And the LORD was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him; and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.

Deu 9:21 Then I took the sinful thing, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust; and I threw the dust of it into the brook that descended out of the mountain.

Deu 9:22 "At Taberah also, and at Massah, and at Kibrothhattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath.

Deu 9:23 And when the LORD sent you from Kadeshbarnea, saying, 'Go up and take possession of the land which I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and did not believe him or obey his voice.

Deu 9:24 You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

Deu 9:25 "So I lay prostrate before the LORD for these forty days and forty nights, because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

Deu 9:26 And I prayed to the LORD, 'O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and thy heritage, whom thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deu 9:27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not regard the stubbornness of this people, or their wickedness, or their sin,

Deu 9:28 lest the land from which thou didst bring us say, "Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness."

Deu 9:29 For they are thy people and thy heritage, whom thou didst bring out by thy great power and by thy outstretched arm.'

Deu 10:1 "At that time the LORD said to me, 'Hew two tables of stone like the first, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood.

Deu 10:2 And I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.'

Deu 10:3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, and hewed two tables of stone like the first, and went up the mountain with the two tables in my hand.

Deu 10:4 And he wrote on the tables, as at the first writing, the ten commandments which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

Deu 10:5 Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

Deu 10:6 (The people of Israel journeyed from Beeroth Benejaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and his son Eleazar ministered as priest in his stead.

Deu 10:7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with brooks of water.

Deu 10:8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him and to bless in his name, to this day.

Deu 10:9 Therefore Levi has no portion or inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD your God said to him.)

Deu 10:10 "I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights, and the LORD hearkened to me that time also; the LORD was unwilling to destroy you.

Deu 10:11 And the LORD said to me, 'Arise, go on your journey at the head of the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give them.'

Deu 10:12 "And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deu 10:13 and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I command you this day for your good?

Deu 10:14 Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it;

Deu 10:15 yet the LORD set his heart in love upon your fathers and chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as at this day.

Deu 10:16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn.

Deu 10:17 For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who is not partial and takes no bribe.

Deu 10:18 He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the sojourner, giving him food and clothing.

Deu 10:19 Love the sojourner therefore; for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

Deu 10:20 You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve him and cleave to him, and by his name you shall swear.

Deu 10:21 He is your praise; he is your God, who has done for you these great and terrible things which your eyes have seen.

Deu 10:22 Your fathers went down to Egypt seventy persons; and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven for multitude.

Deu 11:1 "You shall therefore love the LORD your God, and keep his charge, his statutes, his ordinances, and his commandments always.

Deu 11:2 And consider this day (since I am not speaking to your children who have not known or seen it), consider the discipline of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand and his outstretched arm,

Deu 11:3 his signs and his deeds which he did in Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to all his land;

Deu 11:4 and what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red Sea overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD has destroyed them to this day;

Deu 11:5 and what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place;

Deu 11:6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, son of Reuben; how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel;

Deu 11:7 for your eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD which he did.

Deu 11:8 "You shall therefore keep all the commandment which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and take possession of the land which you are going over to possess,

Deu 11:9 and that you may live long in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 11:10 For the land which you are entering to take possession of it is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your feet, like a garden of vegetables;

Deu 11:11 but the land which you are going over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water by the rain from heaven,

Deu 11:12 a land which the LORD your God cares for; the eyes of the LORD your God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

Deu 11:13 "And if you will obey my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deu 11:14 he will give the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the later rain, that you may gather in your grain and your wine and your oil.

Deu 11:15 And he will give grass in your fields for your cattle, and you shall eat and be full.

Deu 11:16 Take heed lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them,

Deu 11:17 and the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and he shut up the heavens, so that there be no rain, and the land yield no fruit, and you perish quickly off the good land which the LORD gives you.

Deu 11:18 "You shall therefore lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul; and you shall bind them as a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deu 11:19 And you shall teach them to your children, talking of them when you are sitting in your house, and when you are walking by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

Deu 11:20 And you shall write them upon the doorposts of your house and upon your gates,

Deu 11:21 that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth.

Deu 11:22 For if you will be careful to do all this commandment which I command you to do, loving the LORD your God, walking in all his ways, and cleaving to him,

Deu 11:23 then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves.

Deu 11:24 Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours; your territory shall be from the wilderness and Lebanon and from the River, the river Euphrates, to the western sea.

Deu 11:25 No man shall be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread, as he promised you.

Deu 11:26 "Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

Deu 11:27 the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day,

Deu 11:28 and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods which you have not known.

Deu 11:29 And when the LORD your God brings you into the land which you are entering to take possession of it, you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

Deu 11:30 Are they not beyond the Jordan, west of the road, toward the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oak of Moreh?

Deu 11:31 For you are to pass over the Jordan to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God gives you; and when you possess it and live in it,

Deu 11:32 you shall be careful to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I set before you this day.

Deu 12:1 "These are the statutes and ordinances which you shall be careful to do in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess, all the days that you live upon the earth.

Deu 12:2 You shall surely destroy all the places where the nations whom you shall dispossess served their gods, upon the high mountains and upon the hills and under every green tree;

Deu 12:3 you shall tear down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and burn their Asherim with fire; you shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy their name out of that place.

Deu 12:4 You shall not do so to the LORD your God.

Deu 12:5 But you shall seek the place which the LORD your God will choose out of all your tribes to put his name and make his habitation there; thither you shall go,

Deu 12:6 and thither you shall bring your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the offering that you present, your votive offerings, your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock;

Deu 12:7 and there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your households, in all that you undertake, in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deu 12:8 You shall not do according to all that we are doing here this day, every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes;

Deu 12:9 for you have not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which the LORD your God gives you.

Deu 12:10 But when you go over the Jordan, and live in the land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, and when he gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you live in safety,

Deu 12:11 then to the place which the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell there, thither you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the offering that you present, and all your votive offerings which you vow to the LORD.

Deu 12:12 And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and your daughters, your menservants and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your towns, since he has no portion or inheritance with you.

Deu 12:13 Take heed that you do not offer your burnt offerings at every place that you see;

Deu 12:14 but at the place which the LORD will choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I am commanding you.

Deu 12:15 "However, you may slaughter and eat flesh within any of your towns, as much as you desire, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which he has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle and as of the hart.

Deu 12:16 Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out upon the earth like water.

Deu 12:17 You may not eat within your towns the tithe of your grain or of your wine or of your oil, or the firstlings of your herd or of your flock, or any of your votive offerings which you vow, or your freewill offerings, or the offering that you present;

Deu 12:18 but you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God will choose, you and your son and your daughter, your manservant and your maidservant, and the Levite who is within your towns; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you undertake.

Deu 12:19 Take heed that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

Deu 12:20 "When the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he has promised you, and you say, 'I will eat flesh,' because you crave flesh, you may eat as much flesh as you desire.

Deu 12:21 If the place which the LORD your God will choose to put his name there is too far from you, then you may kill any of your herd or your flock, which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your towns as much as you desire.

Deu 12:22 Just as the gazelle or the hart is eaten, so you may eat of it; the unclean and the clean alike may eat of it.

Deu 12:23 Only be sure that you do not eat the blood; for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.

Deu 12:24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out upon the earth like water.

Deu 12:25 You shall not eat it; that all may go well with you and with your children after you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Deu 12:26 But the holy things which are due from you, and your votive offerings, you shall take, and you shall go to the place which the LORD will choose,

Deu 12:27 and offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, but the flesh you may eat.

Deu 12:28 Be careful to heed all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you for ever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deu 12:29 "When the LORD your God cuts off before you the nations whom you go in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land,

Deu 12:30 take heed that you be not ensnared to follow them, after they have been destroyed before you, and that you do not inquire about their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods? -- that I also may do likewise.'

Deu 12:31 You shall not do so to the LORD your God; for every abominable thing which the LORD hates they have done for their gods; for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.

Deu 12:32 "Everything that I command you you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to it or take from it.

Deu 13:1 "If a prophet arises among you, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder,

Deu 13:2 and the sign or wonder which he tells you comes to pass, and if he says, 'Let us go after other gods,' which you have not known, 'and let us serve them,'

Deu 13:3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or to that dreamer of dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 13:4 You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear him, and keep his commandments and obey his voice, and you shall serve him and cleave to him.

Deu 13:5 But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to make you leave the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall purge the evil from the midst of you.

Deu 13:6 "If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' which neither you nor your fathers have known,

Deu 13:7 some of the gods of the peoples that are round about you, whether near you or far off from you, from the one end of the earth to the other,

Deu 13:8 you shall not yield to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him, nor shall you conceal him;

Deu 13:9 but you shall kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

Deu 13:10 You shall stone him to death with stones, because he sought to draw you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Deu 13:11 And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and never again do any such wickedness as this among you.

Deu 13:12 "If you hear in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell there,

Deu 13:13 that certain base fellows have gone out among you and have drawn away the inhabitants of the city, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' which you have not known,

Deu 13:14 then you shall inquire and make search and ask diligently; and behold, if it be true and certain that such an abominable thing has been done among you,

Deu 13:15 you shall surely put the inhabitants of that city to the sword, destroying it utterly, all who are in it and its cattle, with the edge of the sword.

Deu 13:16 You shall gather all its spoil into the midst of its open square, and burn the city and all its spoil with fire, as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God; it shall be a heap for ever, it shall not be built again.

Deu 13:17 None of the devoted things shall cleave to your hand; that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as he swore to your fathers,

Deu 13:18 if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all his commandments which I command you this day, and doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deu 14:1 "You are the sons of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves or make any baldness on your foreheads for the dead.

Deu 14:2 For you are a people holy to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, out of all the peoples that are on the face of the earth.

Deu 14:3 "You shall not eat any abominable thing.

Deu 14:4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

Deu 14:5 the hart, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain-sheep.

Deu 14:6 Every animal that parts the hoof and has the hoof cloven in two, and chews the cud, among the animals, you may eat.

Deu 14:7 Yet of those that chew the cud or have the hoof cloven you shall not eat these: the camel, the hare, and the rock badger, because they chew the cud but do not part the hoof, are unclean for you.

Deu 14:8 And the swine, because it parts the hoof but does not chew the cud, is unclean for you. Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch.

Deu 14:9 "Of all that are in the waters you may eat these: whatever has fins and scales you may eat.

Deu 14:10 And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

Deu 14:11 "You may eat all clean birds.

Deu 14:12 But these are the ones which you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,

Deu 14:13 the buzzard, the kite, after their kinds;

Deu 14:14 every raven after its kind;

Deu 14:15 the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk, after their kinds;

Deu 14:16 the little owl and the great owl, the water hen

Deu 14:17 and the pelican, the carrion vulture and the cormorant,

Deu 14:18 the stork, the heron, after their kinds; the hoopoe and the bat.

Deu 14:19 And all winged insects are unclean for you; they shall not be eaten.

Deu 14:20 All clean winged things you may eat.

Deu 14:21 "You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to the alien who is within your towns, that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you are a people holy to the LORD your God. "You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

Deu 14:22 "You shall tithe all the yield of your seed, which comes forth from the field year by year.

Deu 14:23 And before the LORD your God, in the place which he will choose, to make his name dwell there, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstlings of your herd and flock; that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

Deu 14:24 And if the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to bring the tithe, when the LORD your God blesses you, because the place is too far from you, which the LORD your God chooses, to set his name there,

Deu 14:25 then you shall turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses,

Deu 14:26 and spend the money for whatever you desire, oxen, or sheep, or wine or strong drink, whatever your appetite craves; and you shall eat there before the LORD your God and rejoice, you and your household.

Deu 14:27 And you shall not forsake the Levite who is within your towns, for he has no portion or inheritance with you.

Deu 14:28 "At the end of every three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your produce in the same year, and lay it up within your towns;

Deu 14:29 and the Levite, because he has no portion or inheritance with you, and the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your towns, shall come and eat and be filled; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands that you do.

Deu 15:1 "At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release.

Deu 15:2 And this is the manner of the release: every creditor shall release what he has lent to his neighbor; he shall not exact it of his neighbor, his brother, because the LORD's release has been proclaimed.

Deu 15:3 Of a foreigner you may exact it; but whatever of yours is with your brother your hand shall release.

Deu 15:4 But there will be no poor among you (for the LORD will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess),

Deu 15:5 if only you will obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all this commandment which I command you this day.

Deu 15:6 For the LORD your God will bless you, as he promised you, and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

Deu 15:7 "If there is among you a poor man, one of your brethren, in any of your towns within your land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart or shut your hand against your poor brother,

Deu 15:8 but you shall open your hand to him, and lend him sufficient for his need, whatever it may be.

Deu 15:9 Take heed lest there be a base thought in your heart, and you say, 'The seventh year, the year of release is near,' and your eye be hostile to your poor brother, and you give him nothing, and he cry to the LORD against you, and it be sin in you.

Deu 15:10 You shall give to him freely, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him; because for this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake.

Deu 15:11 For the poor will never cease out of the land; therefore I command you, You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in the land.

Deu 15:12 "If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, he shall serve you six years, and in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.

Deu 15:13 And when you let him go free from you, you shall not let him go empty-handed;

Deu 15:14 you shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, out of your threshing floor, and out of your wine press; as the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give to him.

Deu 15:15 You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this today.

Deu 15:16 But if he says to you, 'I will not go out from you,' because he loves you and your household, since he fares well with you,

Deu 15:17 then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through his ear into the door, and he shall be your bondman for ever. And to your bondwoman you shall do likewise.

Deu 15:18 It shall not seem hard to you, when you let him go free from you; for at half the cost of a hired servant he has served you six years. So the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

Deu 15:19 "All the firstling males that are born of your herd and flock you shall consecrate to the LORD your God; you shall do no work with the firstling of your herd, nor shear the firstling of your flock.

Deu 15:20 You shall eat it, you and your household, before the LORD your God year by year at the place which the LORD will choose.

Deu 15:21 But if it has any blemish, if it is lame or blind, or has any serious blemish whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Deu 15:22 You shall eat it within your towns; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it, as though it were a gazelle or a hart.

Deu 15:23 Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

Deu 16:1 "Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover to the LORD your God; for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deu 16:2 And you shall offer the passover sacrifice to the LORD your God, from the flock or the herd, at the place which the LORD will choose, to make his name dwell there.

Deu 16:3 You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days you shall eat it with unleavened bread, the bread of affliction -- for you came out of the land of Egypt in hurried flight -- that all the days of your life you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt.

Deu 16:4 No leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory for seven days; nor shall any of the flesh which you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain all night until morning.

Deu 16:5 You may not offer the passover sacrifice within any of your towns which the LORD your God gives you;

Deu 16:6 but at the place which the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell in it, there you shall offer the passover sacrifice, in the evening at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt.

Deu 16:7 And you shall boil it and eat it at the place which the LORD your God will choose; and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents.

Deu 16:8 For six days you shall eat unleavened bread; and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God; you shall do no work on it.

Deu 16:9 "You shall count seven weeks; begin to count the seven weeks from the time you first put the sickle to the standing grain.

Deu 16:10 Then you shall keep the feast of weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you;

Deu 16:11 and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your manservant and your maidservant, the Levite who is within your towns, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are among you, at the place which the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell there.

Deu 16:12 You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt; and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.

Deu 16:13 "You shall keep the feast of booths seven days, when you make your ingathering from your threshing floor and your wine press;

Deu 16:14 you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your manservant and your maidservant, the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your towns.

Deu 16:15 For seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God at the place which the LORD will choose; because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful.

Deu 16:16 "Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place which he will choose: at the feast of unleavened bread, at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of booths. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed;

Deu 16:17 every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which he has given you.

Deu 16:18 "You shall appoint judges and officers in all your towns which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.

Deu 16:19 You shall not pervert justice; you shall not show partiality; and you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of the righteous.

Deu 16:20 Justice, and only justice, you shall follow, that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Deu 16:21 "You shall not plant any tree as an Asherah beside the altar of the LORD your God which you shall make.

Deu 16:22 And you shall not set up a pillar, which the LORD your God hates.

Deu 17:1 "You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep in which is a blemish, any defect whatever; for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deu 17:2 "If there is found among you, within any of your towns which the LORD your God gives you, a man or woman who does what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, in transgressing his covenant,

Deu 17:3 and has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, or the sun or the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have forbidden,

Deu 17:4 and it is told you and you hear of it; then you shall inquire diligently, and if it is true and certain that such an abominable thing has been done in Israel,

Deu 17:5 then you shall bring forth to your gates that man or woman who has done this evil thing, and you shall stone that man or woman to death with stones.

Deu 17:6 On the evidence of two witnesses or of three witnesses he that is to die shall be put to death; a person shall not be put to death on the evidence of one witness.

Deu 17:7 The hand of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from the midst of you.

Deu 17:8 "If any case arises requiring decision between one kind of homicide and another, one kind of legal right and another, or one kind of assault and another, any case within your towns which is too difficult for you, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God will choose,

Deu 17:9 and coming to the Levitical priests, and to the judge who is in office in those days, you shall consult them, and they shall declare to you the decision.

Deu 17:10 Then you shall do according to what they declare to you from that place which the LORD will choose; and you shall be careful to do according to all that they direct you;

Deu 17:11 according to the instructions which they give you, and according to the decision which they pronounce to you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the verdict which they declare to you, either to the right hand or to the left.

Deu 17:12 The man who acts presumptuously, by not obeying the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or the judge, that man shall die; so you shall purge the evil from Israel.

Deu 17:13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and not act presumptuously again.

Deu 17:14 "When you come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you possess it and dwell in it, and then say, 'I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are round about me';

Deu 17:15 you may indeed set as king over you him whom the LORD your God will choose. One from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother.

Deu 17:16 Only he must not multiply horses for himself, or cause the people to return to Egypt in order to multiply horses, since the LORD has said to you, 'You shall never return that way again.'

Deu 17:17 And he shall not multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply for himself silver and gold.

Deu 17:18 "And when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself in a book a copy of this law, from that which is in the charge of the Levitical priests;

Deu 17:19 and it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, by keeping all the words of this law and these statutes, and doing them;

Deu 17:20 that his heart may not be lifted up above his brethren, and that he may not turn aside from the commandment, either to the right hand or to the left; so that he may continue long in his kingdom, he and his children, in Israel.

Deu 18:1 "The Levitical priests, that is, all the tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings by fire to the LORD, and his rightful dues.

Deu 18:2 They shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

Deu 18:3 And this shall be the priests' due from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder and the two cheeks and the stomach.

Deu 18:4 The first fruits of your grain, of your wine and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.

Deu 18:5 For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand and minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

Deu 18:6 "And if a Levite comes from any of your towns out of all Israel, where he lives -- and he may come when he desires -- to the place which the LORD will choose,

Deu 18:7 then he may minister in the name of the LORD his God, like all his fellow-Levites who stand to minister there before the LORD.

Deu 18:8 They shall have equal portions to eat, besides what he receives from the sale of his patrimony.

Deu 18:9 "When you come into the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to follow the abominable practices of those nations.

Deu 18:10 There shall not be found among you any one who burns his son or his daughter as an offering, any one who practices divination, a soothsayer, or an augur, or a sorcerer,

Deu 18:11 or a charmer, or a medium, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

Deu 18:12 For whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD; and because of these abominable practices the LORD your God is driving them out before you.

Deu 18:13 You shall be blameless before the LORD your God.

Deu 18:14 For these nations, which you are about to dispossess, give heed to soothsayers and to diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you so to do.

Deu 18:15 "The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brethren -- him you shall heed --

Deu 18:16 just as you desired of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, or see this great fire any more, lest I die.'

Deu 18:17 And the LORD said to me, 'They have rightly said all that they have spoken.'

Deu 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brethren; and I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him.

Deu 18:19 And whoever will not give heed to my words which he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him.

Deu 18:20 But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die.'

Deu 18:21 And if you say in your heart, 'How may we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?' --

Deu 18:22 when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the word does not come to pass or come true, that is a word which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously, you need not be afraid of him.

Deu 19:1 "When the LORD your God cuts off the nations whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses,

Deu 19:2 you shall set apart three cities for you in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess.

Deu 19:3 You shall prepare the roads, and divide into three parts the area of the land which the LORD your God gives you as a possession, so that any manslayer can flee to them.

Deu 19:4 "This is the provision for the manslayer, who by fleeing there may save his life. If any one kills his neighbor unintentionally without having been at enmity with him in time past --

Deu 19:5 as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand swings the axe to cut down a tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies -- he may flee to one of these cities and save his life;

Deu 19:6 lest the avenger of blood in hot anger pursue the manslayer and overtake him, because the way is long, and wound him mortally, though the man did not deserve to die, since he was not at enmity with his neighbor in time past.

Deu 19:7 Therefore I command you, You shall set apart three cities.

Deu 19:8 And if the LORD your God enlarges your border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which he promised to give to your fathers --

Deu 19:9 provided you are careful to keep all this commandment, which I command you this day, by loving the LORD your God and by walking ever in his ways -- then you shall add three other cities to these three,

Deu 19:10 lest innocent blood be shed in your land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and so the guilt of bloodshed be upon you.

Deu 19:11 "But if any man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and attacks him, and wounds him mortally so that he dies, and the man flees into one of these cities,

Deu 19:12 then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him from there, and hand him over to the avenger of blood, so that he may die.

Deu 19:13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, so that it may be well with you.

Deu 19:14 "In the inheritance which you will hold in the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess, you shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which the men of old have set.

Deu 19:15 "A single witness shall not prevail against a man for any crime or for any wrong in connection with any offense that he has committed; only on the evidence of two witnesses, or of three witnesses, shall a charge be sustained.

Deu 19:16 If a malicious witness rises against any man to accuse him of wrongdoing,

Deu 19:17 then both parties to the dispute shall appear before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who are in office in those days;

Deu 19:18 the judges shall inquire diligently, and if the witness is a false witness and has accused his brother falsely,

Deu 19:19 then you shall do to him as he had meant to do to his brother; so you shall purge the evil from the midst of you.

Deu 19:20 And the rest shall hear, and fear, and shall never again commit any such evil among you.

Deu 19:21 Your eye shall not pity; it shall be life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deu 20:1 "When you go forth to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and an army larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

Deu 20:2 And when you draw near to the battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the people,

Deu 20:3 and shall say to them, 'Hear, O Israel, you draw near this day to battle against your enemies: let not your heart faint; do not fear, or tremble, or be in dread of them;

Deu 20:4 for the LORD your God is he that goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory.'

Deu 20:5 Then the officers shall speak to the people, saying, 'What man is there that has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go back to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.

Deu 20:6 And what man is there that has planted a vineyard and has not enjoyed its fruit? Let him go back to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man enjoy its fruit.

Deu 20:7 And what man is there that has betrothed a wife and has not taken her? Let him go back to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man take her.'

Deu 20:8 And the officers shall speak further to the people, and say, 'What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go back to his house, lest the heart of his fellows melt as his heart.'

Deu 20:9 And when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, then commanders shall be appointed at the head of the people.

Deu 20:10 "When you draw near to a city to fight against it, offer terms of peace to it.

Deu 20:11 And if its answer to you is peace and it opens to you, then all the people who are found in it shall do forced labor for you and shall serve you.

Deu 20:12 But if it makes no peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it;

Deu 20:13 and when the LORD your God gives it into your hand you shall put all its males to the sword,

Deu 20:14 but the women and the little ones, the cattle, and everything else in the city, all its spoil, you shall take as booty for yourselves; and you shall enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you.

Deu 20:15 Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far from you, which are not cities of the nations here.

Deu 20:16 But in the cities of these peoples that the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes,

Deu 20:17 but you shall utterly destroy them, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, as the LORD your God has commanded;

Deu 20:18 that they may not teach you to do according to all their abominable practices which they have done in the service of their gods, and so to sin against the LORD your God.

Deu 20:19 "When you besiege a city for a long time, making war against it in order to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them; for you may eat of them, but you shall not cut them down. Are the trees in the field men that they should be besieged by you?

Deu 20:20 Only the trees which you know are not trees for food you may destroy and cut down that you may build siegeworks against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.

Deu 21:1 "If in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess, any one is found slain, lying in the open country, and it is not known who killed him,

Deu 21:2 then your elders and your judges shall come forth, and they shall measure the distance to the cities which are around him that is slain;

Deu 21:3 and the elders of the city which is nearest to the slain man shall take a heifer which has never been worked and which has not pulled in the yoke.

Deu 21:4 And the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley.

Deu 21:5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to him and to bless in the name of the LORD, and by their word every dispute and every assault shall be settled.

Deu 21:6 And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;

Deu 21:7 and they shall testify, 'Our hands did not shed this blood, neither did our eyes see it shed.

Deu 21:8 Forgive, O LORD, thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and set not the guilt of innocent blood in the midst of thy people Israel; but let the guilt of blood be forgiven them.'

Deu 21:9 So you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Deu 21:10 "When you go forth to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God gives them into your hands, and you take them captive,

Deu 21:11 and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you have desire for her and would take her for yourself as wife,

Deu 21:12 then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and pare her nails.

Deu 21:13 And she shall put off her captive's garb, and shall remain in your house and bewail her father and her mother a full month; after that you may go in to her, and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.

Deu 21:14 Then, if you have no delight in her, you shall let her go where she will; but you shall not sell her for money, you shall not treat her as a slave, since you have humiliated her.

Deu 21:15 "If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other disliked, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the disliked, and if the first-born son is hers that is disliked,

Deu 21:16 then on the day when he assigns his possessions as an inheritance to his sons, he may not treat the son of the loved as the first-born in preference to the son of the disliked, who is the first-born,

Deu 21:17 but he shall acknowledge the first-born, the son of the disliked, by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the first issue of his strength; the right of the first-born is his.
Deu 21:18 "If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and, though they chastise him, will not give heed to them,
Deu 21:19 then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city at the gate of the place where he lives,
Deu 21:20 and they shall say to the elders of his city, 'This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.'
Deu 21:21 Then all the men of the city shall stone him to death with stones; so you shall purge the evil from your midst; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.
Deu 21:22 "And if a man has committed a crime punishable by death and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree,
Deu 21:23 his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but you shall bury him the same day, for a hanged man is accursed by God; you shall not defile your land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.
Deu 22:1 "You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and withhold your help from them; you shall take them back to your brother.
Deu 22:2 And if he is not near you, or if you do not know him, you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him.
Deu 22:3 And so you shall do with his ass; so you shall do with his garment; so you shall do with any lost thing of your brother's, which he loses and you find; you may not withhold your help.
Deu 22:4 You shall not see your brother's ass or his ox fallen down by the way, and withhold your help from them; you shall help him to lift them up again.
Deu 22:5 "A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God.
Deu 22:6 "If you chance to come upon a bird's nest, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs and the mother sitting upon the young or upon the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young;
Deu 22:7 you shall let the mother go, but the young you may take to yourself; that it may go well with you, and that you may live long.
Deu 22:8 "When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring the guilt of blood upon your house, if any one fall from it.
Deu 22:9 "You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole yield be forfeited to the sanctuary, the crop which you have sown and the yield of the vineyard.
Deu 22:10 You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together.
Deu 22:11 You shall not wear a mingled stuff, wool and linen together.
Deu 22:12 "You shall make yourself tassels on the four corners of your cloak with which you cover yourself.
Deu 22:13 "If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and then spurns her,
Deu 22:14 and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings an evil name upon her, saying, 'I took this woman, and when I came near her, I did not find in her the tokens of virginity,'
Deu 22:15 then the father of the young woman and her mother shall take and bring out the tokens of her virginity to the elders of the city in the gate;
Deu 22:16 and the father of the young woman shall say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he spurns her;
Deu 22:17 and lo, he has made shameful charges against her, saying, "I did not find in your daughter the tokens of virginity." And yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity.' And they shall spread the garment before the elders of the city.
Deu 22:18 Then the elders of that city shall take the man and whip him;
Deu 22:19 and they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought an evil name upon a virgin of Israel; and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.
Deu 22:20 But if the thing is true, that the tokens of virginity were not found in the young woman,
Deu 22:21 then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has wrought folly in Israel by playing the harlot in her father's house; so you shall purge the evil from the midst of you.
Deu 22:22 "If a man is found lying with the wife of another man, both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman; so you shall purge the evil from Israel.
Deu 22:23 "If there is a betrothed virgin, and a man meets her in the city and lies with her,
Deu 22:24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry for help though she was in the city, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife; so you shall purge the evil from the midst of you.

Deu 22:25 "But if in the open country a man meets a young woman who is betrothed, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.

Deu 22:26 But to the young woman you shall do nothing; in the young woman there is no offense punishable by death, for this case is like that of a man attacking and murdering his neighbor;

Deu 22:27 because he came upon her in the open country, and though the betrothed young woman cried for help there was no one to rescue her.

Deu 22:28 "If a man meets a virgin who is not betrothed, and seizes her and lies with her, and they are found,

Deu 22:29 then the man who lay with her shall give to the father of the young woman fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has violated her; he may not put her away all his days.

Deu 22:30 "A man shall not take his father's wife, nor shall he uncover her who is his father's.

Deu 23:1 "He whose testicles are crushed or whose male member is cut off shall not enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deu 23:2 "No bastard shall enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deu 23:3 "No Ammonite or Moabite shall enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none belonging to them shall enter the assembly of the LORD for ever;

Deu 23:4 because they did not meet you with bread and with water on the way, when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.

Deu 23:5 Nevertheless the LORD your God would not hearken to Balaam; but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loved you.

Deu 23:6 You shall not seek their peace or their prosperity all your days for ever.

Deu 23:7 "You shall not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother; you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a sojourner in his land.

Deu 23:8 The children of the third generation that are born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deu 23:9 "When you go forth against your enemies and are in camp, then you shall keep yourself from every evil thing.

Deu 23:10 "If there is among you any man who is not clean by reason of what chances to him by night, then he shall go outside the camp, he shall not come within the camp;

Deu 23:11 but when evening comes on, he shall bathe himself in water, and when the sun is down, he may come within the camp.

Deu 23:12 "You shall have a place outside the camp and you shall go out to it;

Deu 23:13 and you shall have a stick with your weapons; and when you sit down outside, you shall dig a hole with it, and turn back and cover up your excrement.

Deu 23:14 Because the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to save you and to give up your enemies before you, therefore your camp must be holy, that he may not see anything indecent among you, and turn away from you.

Deu 23:15 "You shall not give up to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you;

Deu 23:16 he shall dwell with you, in your midst, in the place which he shall choose within one of your towns, where it pleases him best; you shall not oppress him.

Deu 23:17 "There shall be no cult prostitute of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a cult prostitute of the sons of Israel.

Deu 23:18 You shall not bring the hire of a harlot, or the wages of a dog, into the house of the LORD your God in payment for any vow; for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deu 23:19 "You shall not lend upon interest to your brother, interest on money, interest on victuals, interest on anything that is lent for interest.

Deu 23:20 To a foreigner you may lend upon interest, but to your brother you shall not lend upon interest; that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you undertake in the land which you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 23:21 "When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not be slack to pay it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin in you.

Deu 23:22 But if you refrain from vowing, it shall be no sin in you.

Deu 23:23 You shall be careful to perform what has passed your lips, for you have voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God what you have promised with your mouth.

Deu 23:24 "When you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you wish, but you shall not put any in your vessel.

Deu 23:25 When you go into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you shall not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

Deu 24:1 "When a man takes a wife and marries her, if then she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, and he writes her a bill of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, and she departs out of his house,

Deu 24:2 and if she goes and becomes another man's wife,

Deu 24:3 and the latter husband dislikes her and writes her a bill of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies, who took her to be his wife,

Deu 24:4 then her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring guilt upon the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

Deu 24:5 "When a man is newly married, he shall not go out with the army or be charged with any business; he shall be free at home one year, to be happy with his wife whom he has taken.

Deu 24:6 "No man shall take a mill or an upper millstone in pledge; for he would be taking a life in pledge.

Deu 24:7 "If a man is found stealing one of his brethren, the people of Israel, and if he treats him as a slave or sells him, then that thief shall die; so you shall purge the evil from the midst of you.

Deu 24:8 "Take heed, in an attack of leprosy, to be very careful to do according to all that the Levitical priests shall direct you; as I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do.

Deu 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way as you came forth out of Egypt.

Deu 24:10 "When you make your neighbor a loan of any sort, you shall not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

Deu 24:11 You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you make the loan shall bring the pledge out to you.

Deu 24:12 And if he is a poor man, you shall not sleep in his pledge;

Deu 24:13 when the sun goes down, you shall restore to him the pledge that he may sleep in his cloak and bless you; and it shall be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

Deu 24:14 "You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he is one of your brethren or one of the sojourners who are in your land within your towns;

Deu 24:15 you shall give him his hire on the day he earns it, before the sun goes down (for he is poor, and sets his heart upon it); lest he cry against you to the LORD, and it be sin in you.

Deu 24:16 "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor shall the children be put to death for the fathers; every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

Deu 24:17 "You shall not pervert the justice due to the sojourner or to the fatherless, or take a widow's garment in pledge;

Deu 24:18 but you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command you to do this.

Deu 24:19 "When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deu 24:20 When you beat your olive trees, you shall not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

Deu 24:21 When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward; it shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

Deu 24:22 You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this.

Deu 25:1 "If there is a dispute between men, and they come into court, and the judges decide between them, acquitting the innocent and condemning the guilty,

Deu 25:2 then if the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall cause him to lie down and be beaten in his presence with a number of stripes in proportion to his offense.

Deu 25:3 Forty stripes may be given him, but not more; lest, if one should go on to beat him with more stripes than these, your brother be degraded in your sight.

Deu 25:4 "You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain.

Deu 25:5 "If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the dead shall not be married outside the family to a stranger; her husband's brother shall go in to her, and take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.

Deu 25:6 And the first son whom she bears shall succeed to the name of his brother who is dead, that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.

Deu 25:7 And if the man does not wish to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, 'My husband's brother refuses to perpetuate his brother's name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me.'

Deu 25:8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him: and if he persists, saying, 'I do not wish to take her,'

Deu 25:9 then his brother's wife shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, and pull his sandal off his foot, and spit in his face; and she shall answer and say, 'So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house.'

Deu 25:10 And the name of his house shall be called in Israel, The house of him that had his sandal pulled off.

Deu 25:11 "When men fight with one another, and the wife of the one draws near to rescue her husband from the hand of him who is beating him, and puts out her hand and seizes him by the private parts,

Deu 25:12 then you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall have no pity.

Deu 25:13 "You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, a large and a small.

Deu 25:14 You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, a large and a small.

Deu 25:15 A full and just weight you shall have, a full and just measure you shall have; that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Deu 25:16 For all who do such things, all who act dishonestly, are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deu 25:17 "Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you came out of Egypt,

Deu 25:18 how he attacked you on the way, when you were faint and weary, and cut off at your rear all who lagged behind you; and he did not fear God.

Deu 25:19 Therefore when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about, in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; you shall not forget.

Deu 26:1 "When you come into the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and have taken possession of it, and live in it,

Deu 26:2 you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket, and you shall go to the place which the LORD your God will choose, to make his name to dwell there.

Deu 26:3 And you shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'I declare this day to the LORD your God that I have come into the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.'

Deu 26:4 Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God.

Deu 26:5 "And you shall make response before the LORD your God, 'A wandering Aramean was my father; and he went down into Egypt and sojourned there, few in number; and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and populous.

Deu 26:6 And the Egyptians treated us harshly, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage.

Deu 26:7 Then we cried to the LORD the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice, and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression;

Deu 26:8 and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror, with signs and wonders;

Deu 26:9 and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 26:10 And behold, now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground, which thou, O LORD, hast given me.' And you shall set it down before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God;

Deu 26:11 and you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given to you and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the sojourner who is among you.

Deu 26:12 "When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce in the third year, which is the year of tithing, giving it to the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within your towns and be filled,

Deu 26:13 then you shall say before the LORD your God, 'I have removed the sacred portion out of my house, and moreover I have given it to the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all thy commandment which thou hast commanded me; I have not transgressed any of thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them;

Deu 26:14 I have not eaten of the tithe while I was mourning, or removed any of it while I was unclean, or offered any of it to the dead; I have obeyed the voice of the LORD my God, I have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

Deu 26:15 Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel and the ground which thou hast given us, as thou didst swear to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.'

Deu 26:16 "This day the LORD your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances; you shall therefore be careful to do them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 26:17 You have declared this day concerning the LORD that he is your God, and that you will walk in his ways, and keep his statutes and his commandments and his ordinances, and will obey his voice;

Deu 26:18 and the LORD has declared this day concerning you that you are a people for his own possession, as he has promised you, and that you are to keep all his commandments,

Deu 26:19 that he will set you high above all nations that he has made, in praise and in fame and in honor, and that you shall be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he has spoken."

Deu 27:1 Now Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, "Keep all the commandment which I command you this day.

Deu 27:2 And on the day you pass over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall set up large stones, and plaster them with plaster;

Deu 27:3 and you shall write upon them all the words of this law, when you pass over to enter the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you.

Deu 27:4 And when you have passed over the Jordan, you shall set up these stones, concerning which I command you this day, on Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster.

Deu 27:5 And there you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall lift up no iron tool upon them.

Deu 27:6 You shall build an altar to the LORD your God of unhewn stones; and you shall offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God;

Deu 27:7 and you shall sacrifice peace offerings, and shall eat there; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God.

Deu 27:8 And you shall write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly."

Deu 27:9 And Moses and the Levitical priests said to all Israel, "Keep silence and hear, O Israel: this day you have become the people of the LORD your God.

Deu 27:10 You shall therefore obey the voice of the LORD your God, keeping his commandments and his statutes, which I command you this day."

Deu 27:11 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

Deu 27:12 "When you have passed over the Jordan, these shall stand upon Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

Deu 27:13 And these shall stand upon Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

Deu 27:14 And the Levites shall declare to all the men of Israel with a loud voice:

Deu 27:15 "'Cursed be the man who makes a graven or molten image, an abomination to the LORD, a thing made by the hands of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret.' And all the people shall answer and say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:16 "'Cursed be he who dishonors his father or his mother.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:17 "'Cursed be he who removes his neighbor's landmark.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:18 "'Cursed be he who misleads a blind man on the road.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:19 "'Cursed be he who perverts the justice due to the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:20 "'Cursed be he who lies with his father's wife, because he has uncovered her who is his father's.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:21 "'Cursed be he who lies with any kind of beast.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:22 "'Cursed be he who lies with his sister, whether the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:23 "'Cursed be he who lies with his mother-in-law.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:24 "'Cursed be he who slays his neighbor in secret.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:25 "'Cursed be he who takes a bribe to slay an innocent person.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 27:26 "'Cursed be he who does not confirm the words of this law by doing them.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Deu 28:1 "And if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all his commandments which I command you this day, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth.

Deu 28:2 And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Deu 28:3 Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.

Deu 28:4 Blessed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your beasts, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.

Deu 28:5 Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading-trough.

Deu 28:6 Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

Deu 28:7 "The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before you; they shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways.

Deu 28:8 The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your barns, and in all that you undertake; and he will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Deu 28:9 The LORD will establish you as a people holy to himself, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and walk in his ways.

Deu 28:10 And all the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of you.

Deu 28:11 And the LORD will make you abound in prosperity, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, within the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you.

Deu 28:12 The LORD will open to you his good treasury the heavens, to give the rain of your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hands; and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow.

Deu 28:13 And the LORD will make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall tend upward only, and not downward; if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day, being careful to do them,

Deu 28:14 and if you do not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Deu 28:15 "But if you will not obey the voice of the LORD your God or be careful to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you this day, then all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you.

Deu 28:16 Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.

Deu 28:17 Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading-trough.

Deu 28:18 Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.

Deu 28:19 Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

Deu 28:20 "The LORD will send upon you curses, confusion, and frustration, in all that you undertake to do, until you are destroyed and perish quickly, on account of the evil of your doings, because you have forsaken me.

Deu 28:21 The LORD will make the pestilence cleave to you until he has consumed you off the land which you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 28:22 The LORD will smite you with consumption, and with fever, inflammation, and fiery heat, and with drought, and with blasting, and with mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish.

Deu 28:23 And the heavens over your head shall be brass, and the earth under you shall be iron.

Deu 28:24 The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it shall come down upon you until you are destroyed.

Deu 28:25 "The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and you shall be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Deu 28:26 And your dead body shall be food for all birds of the air, and for the beasts of the earth; and there shall be no one to frighten them away.

Deu 28:27 The LORD will smite you with the boils of Egypt, and with the ulcers and the scurvy and the itch, of which you cannot be healed.

Deu 28:28 The LORD will smite you with madness and blindness and confusion of mind;

Deu 28:29 and you shall grope at noonday, as the blind grope in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways; and you shall be only oppressed and robbed continually, and there shall be no one to help you.

Deu 28:30 You shall betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house, and you shall not dwell in it; you shall plant a vineyard, and you shall not use the fruit of it.

Deu 28:31 Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it; your ass shall be violently taken away before your face, and shall not be restored to you; your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and there shall be no one to help you.

Deu 28:32 Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, while your eyes look on and fail with longing for them all the day; and it shall not be in the power of your hand to prevent it.

Deu 28:33 A nation which you have not known shall eat up the fruit of your ground and of all your labors; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed continually;

Deu 28:34 so that you shall be driven mad by the sight which your eyes shall see.

Deu 28:35 The LORD will smite you on the knees and on the legs with grievous boils of which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.

Deu 28:36 "The LORD will bring you, and your king whom you set over you, to a nation that neither you nor your fathers have known; and there you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone.

Deu 28:37 And you shall become a horror, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where the LORD will lead you away.

Deu 28:38 You shall carry much seed into the field, and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it.

Deu 28:39 You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes; for the worm shall eat them.

Deu 28:40 You shall have olive trees throughout all your territory, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives shall drop off.

Deu 28:41 You shall beget sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity.

Deu 28:42 All your trees and the fruit of your ground the locust shall possess.

Deu 28:43 The sojourner who is among you shall mount above you higher and higher; and you shall come down lower and lower.

Deu 28:44 He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

Deu 28:45 All these curses shall come upon you and pursue you and overtake you, till you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded you.

Deu 28:46 They shall be upon you as a sign and a wonder, and upon your descendants for ever.

Deu 28:47 "Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things,

Deu 28:48 therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness, and in want of all things; and he will put a yoke of iron upon your neck, until he has destroyed you.

Deu 28:49 The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you do not understand,

Deu 28:50 a nation of stern countenance, who shall not regard the person of the old or show favor to the young,

Deu 28:51 and shall eat the offspring of your cattle and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed; who also shall not leave you grain, wine, or oil, the increase of your cattle or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish.

Deu 28:52 They shall besiege you in all your towns, until your high and fortified walls, in which you trusted, come down throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you in all your towns throughout all your land, which the LORD your God has given you.

Deu 28:53 And you shall eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of your sons and daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you.

Deu 28:54 The man who is the most tender and delicately bred among you will grudge food to his brother, to the wife of his bosom, and to the last of the children who remain to him;

Deu 28:55 so that he will not give to any of them any of the flesh of his children whom he is eating, because he has nothing left him, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your towns.

Deu 28:56 The most tender and delicately bred woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground because she is so delicate and tender, will grudge to the husband of her bosom, to her son and to her daughter,

Deu 28:57 her afterbirth that comes out from between her feet and her children whom she bears, because she will eat them secretly, for want of all things, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your towns.

Deu 28:58 "If you are not careful to do all the words of this law which are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awful name, the LORD your God,

Deu 28:59 then the LORD will bring on you and your offspring extraordinary afflictions, afflictions severe and lasting, and sicknesses grievous and lasting.

Deu 28:60 And he will bring upon you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cleave to you.

Deu 28:61 Every sickness also, and every affliction which is not recorded in the book of this law, the LORD will bring upon you, until you are destroyed.

Deu 28:62 Whereas you were as the stars of heaven for multitude, you shall be left few in number; because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Deu 28:63 And as the LORD took delight in doing you good and multiplying you, so the LORD will take delight in bringing ruin upon you and destroying you; and you shall be plucked off the land which you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 28:64 And the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.

Deu 28:65 And among these nations you shall find no ease, and there shall be no rest for the sole of your foot; but the LORD will give you there a trembling heart, and failing eyes, and a languishing soul;

Deu 28:66 your life shall hang in doubt before you; night and day you shall be in dread, and have no assurance of your life.

Deu 28:67 In the morning you shall say, 'Would it were evening!' and at evening you shall say, 'Would it were morning!' because of the dread which your heart shall fear, and the sights which your eyes shall see.

Deu 28:68 And the LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, a journey which I promised that you should never make again; and there you shall offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no man will buy you."

Deu 29:1 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the people of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he had made with them at Horeb.

Deu 29:2 And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: "You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land,

Deu 29:3 the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders;

Deu 29:4 but to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, or eyes to see, or ears to hear.

Deu 29:5 I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothes have not worn out upon you, and your sandals have not worn off your feet;

Deu 29:6 you have not eaten bread, and you have not drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

Deu 29:7 And when you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out against us to battle, but we defeated them;

Deu 29:8 we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites.

Deu 29:9 Therefore be careful to do the words of this covenant, that you may prosper in all that you do.

Deu 29:10 "You stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; the heads of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, all the men of Israel,

Deu 29:11 your little ones, your wives, and the sojourner who is in your camp, both he who hews your wood and he who draws your water,

Deu 29:12 that you may enter into the sworn covenant of the LORD your God, which the LORD your God makes with you this day;

Deu 29:13 that he may establish you this day as his people, and that he may be your God, as he promised you, and as he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Deu 29:14 Nor is it with you only that I make this sworn covenant,

Deu 29:15 but with him who is not here with us this day as well as with him who stands here with us this day before the LORD our God.

Deu 29:16 "You know how we dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed;

Deu 29:17 and you have seen their detestable things, their idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold, which were among them.

Deu 29:18 Beware lest there be among you a man or woman or family or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from the LORD our God to go and serve the gods of those nations; lest there be among you a root bearing poisonous and bitter fruit,

Deu 29:19 one who, when he hears the words of this sworn covenant, blesses himself in his heart, saying, 'I shall be safe, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart.' This would lead to the sweeping away of moist and dry alike.

Deu 29:20 The LORD would not pardon him, but rather the anger of the LORD and his jealousy would smoke against that man, and the curses written in this book would settle upon him, and the LORD would blot out his name from under heaven.

Deu 29:21 And the LORD would single him out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.

Deu 29:22 And the generation to come, your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a far land, would say, when they see the afflictions of that land and the sicknesses with which the LORD has made it sick --

Deu 29:23 the whole land brimstone and salt, and a burnt-out waste, unsown, and growing nothing, where no grass can sprout, an overthrow like that of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger and wrath --

Deu 29:24 yea, all the nations would say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What means the heat of this great anger?'

Deu 29:25 Then men would say, 'It is because they forsook the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt,

Deu 29:26 and went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods whom they had not known and whom he had not allotted to them;

Deu 29:27 therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, bringing upon it all the curses written in this book;

Deu 29:28 and the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger and fury and great wrath, and cast them into another land, as at this day.'

Deu 29:29 "The secret things belong to the LORD our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

Deu 30:1 "And when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you,

Deu 30:2 and return to the LORD your God, you and your children, and obey his voice in all that I command you this day, with all your heart and with all your soul;

Deu 30:3 then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes, and have compassion upon you, and he will gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you.

Deu 30:4 If your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of heaven, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there he will fetch you;

Deu 30:5 and the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, that you may possess it; and he will make you more prosperous and numerous than your fathers.

Deu 30:6 And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

Deu 30:7 And the LORD your God will put all these curses upon your foes and enemies who persecuted you.

Deu 30:8 And you shall again obey the voice of the LORD, and keep all his commandments which I command you this day.

Deu 30:9 The LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground; for the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, as he took delight in your fathers,

Deu 30:10 if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 30:11 "For this commandment which I command you this day is not too hard for you, neither is it far off.

Deu 30:12 It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?'

Deu 30:13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?'

Deu 30:14 But the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it.

Deu 30:15 "See, I have set before you this day life and good, death and evil.

Deu 30:16 If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you this day, by loving the LORD your God, by walking in his ways, and by keeping his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, then you shall live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 30:17 But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them,

Deu 30:18 I declare to you this day, that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land which you are going over the Jordan to enter and possess.

Deu 30:19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse; therefore choose life, that you and your descendants may live,

Deu 30:20 loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice, and cleaving to him; for that means life to you and length of days, that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them."

Deu 31:1 So Moses continued to speak these words to all Israel.

Deu 31:2 And he said to them, "I am a hundred and twenty years old this day; I am no longer able to go out and come in. The LORD has said to me, 'You shall not go over this Jordan.'

Deu 31:3 The LORD your God himself will go over before you; he will destroy these nations before you, so that you shall dispossess them; and Joshua will go over at your head, as the LORD has spoken.

Deu 31:4 And the LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when he destroyed them.

Deu 31:5 And the LORD will give them over to you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you.

Deu 31:6 Be strong and of good courage, do not fear or be in dread of them: for it is the LORD your God who goes with you; he will not fail you or forsake you."

Deu 31:7 Then Moses summoned Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and of good courage; for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall put them in possession of it.

Deu 31:8 It is the LORD who goes before you; he will be with you, he will not fail you or forsake you; do not fear or be dismayed."

Deu 31:9 And Moses wrote this law, and gave it to the priests the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deu 31:10 And Moses commanded them, "At the end of every seven years, at the set time of the year of release, at the feast of booths,

Deu 31:11 when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place which he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

Deu 31:12 Assemble the people, men, women, and little ones, and the sojourner within your towns, that they may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law,

Deu 31:13 and that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land which you are going over the Jordan to possess."

Deu 31:14 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, the days approach when you must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, that I may commission him." And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting.

Deu 31:15 And the LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood by the door of the tent.

Deu 31:16 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, you are about to sleep with your fathers; then this people will rise and play the harlot after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and they will forsake me and break my covenant which I have made with them.

Deu 31:17 Then my anger will be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them and hide my face from them, and they will be devoured; and many evils and troubles will come upon them, so that they will say in that day, 'Have not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?'

Deu 31:18 And I will surely hide my face in that day on account of all the evil which they have done, because they have turned to other gods.

Deu 31:19 Now therefore write this song, and teach it to the people of Israel; put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the people of Israel.

Deu 31:20 For when I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to give to their fathers, and they have eaten and are full and grown fat, they will turn to other gods and serve them, and despise me and break my covenant.

Deu 31:21 And when many evils and troubles have come upon them, this song shall confront them as a witness (for it will live unforgotten in the mouths of their descendants); for I know the purposes which they are already forming, before I have brought them into the land that I swore to give."

Deu 31:22 So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the people of Israel.

Deu 31:23 And the LORD commissioned Joshua the son of Nun and said, "Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to give them: I will be with you."

Deu 31:24 When Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book, to the very end,

Deu 31:25 Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD,

Deu 31:26 "Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against you.

Deu 31:27 For I know how rebellious and stubborn you are; behold, while I am yet alive with you, today you have been rebellious against the LORD; how much more after my death!

Deu 31:28 Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears and call heaven and earth to witness against them.

Deu 31:29 For I know that after my death you will surely act corruptly, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and in the days to come evil will befall you, because you will do what is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger through the work of your hands."

Deu 31:30 Then Moses spoke the words of this song until they were finished, in the ears of all the assembly of Israel:

Deu 32:1 "Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; and let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

Deu 32:2 May my teaching drop as the rain, my speech distil as the dew, as the gentle rain upon the tender grass, and as the showers upon the herb.

Deu 32:3 For I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Ascribe greatness to our God!

Deu 32:4 "The Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are justice. A God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Deu 32:5 They have dealt corruptly with him, they are no longer his children because of their blemish; they are a perverse and crooked generation.

Deu 32:6 Do you thus requite the LORD, you foolish and senseless people? Is not he your father, who created you, who made you and established you?

Deu 32:7 Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations; ask your father, and he will show you; your elders, and they will tell you.

Deu 32:8 When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of men, he fixed the bounds of the peoples according to the number of the sons of God.

Deu 32:9 For the LORD's portion is his people, Jacob his allotted heritage.

Deu 32:10 "He found him in a desert land, and in the howling waste of the wilderness; he encircled him, he cared for him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

Deu 32:11 Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, that flutters over its young, spreading out its wings, catching them, bearing them on its pinions,

Deu 32:12 the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no foreign god with him.

Deu 32:13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, and he ate the produce of the field; and he made him suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock.

Deu 32:14 Curds from the herd, and milk from the flock, with fat of lambs and rams, herds of Bashan and goats, with the finest of the wheat -- and of the blood of the grape you drank wine.

Deu 32:15 "But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked; you waxed fat, you grew thick, you became sleek; then he forsook God who made him, and scoffed at the Rock of his salvation.

Deu 32:16 They stirred him to jealousy with strange gods; with abominable practices they provoked him to anger.

Deu 32:17 They sacrificed to demons which were no gods, to gods they had never known, to new gods that had come in of late, whom your fathers had never dreaded.

Deu 32:18 You were unmindful of the Rock that begot you, and you forgot the God who gave you birth.

Deu 32:19 "The LORD saw it, and spurned them, because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters.

Deu 32:20 And he said, "I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end will be, for they are a perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness.

Deu 32:21 They have stirred me to jealousy with what is no god; they have provoked me with their idols. So I will stir them to jealousy with those who are no people; I will provoke them with a foolish nation.

Deu 32:22 For a fire is kindled by my anger, and it burns to the depths of Sheol, devours the earth and its increase, and sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Deu 32:23 "And I will heap evils upon them; I will spend my arrows upon them;

Deu 32:24 they shall be wasted with hunger, and devoured with burning heat and poisonous pestilence; and I will send the teeth of beasts against them, with venom of crawling things of the dust.

Deu 32:25 In the open the sword shall bereave, and in the chambers shall be terror, destroying both young man and virgin, the sucking child with the man of gray hairs.

Deu 32:26 I would have said, "I will scatter them afar, I will make the remembrance of them cease from among men,"

Deu 32:27 had I not feared provocation by the enemy, lest their adversaries should judge amiss, lest they should say, "Our hand is triumphant, the LORD has not wrought all this."

Deu 32:28 "For they are a nation void of counsel, and there is no understanding in them.

Deu 32:29 If they were wise, they would understand this, they would discern their latter end!

Deu 32:30 How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had given them up?

Deu 32:31 For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges.

Deu 32:32 For their vine comes from the vine of Sodom, and from the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of poison, their clusters are bitter;

Deu 32:33 their wine is the poison of serpents, and the cruel venom of asps.

Deu 32:34 "Is not this laid up in store with me, sealed up in my treasuries?

Deu 32:35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense, for the time when their foot shall slip; for the day of their calamity is at hand, and their doom comes swiftly.

Deu 32:36 For the LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants, when he sees that their power is gone, and there is none remaining, bond or free.

Deu 32:37 Then he will say, "Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge,

Deu 32:38 who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise up and help you, let them be your protection!

Deu 32:39 "See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god beside me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand.

Deu 32:40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and swear, As I live for ever,

Deu 32:41 if I whet my glittering sword, and my hand takes hold on judgment, I will take vengeance on my adversaries, and will requite those who hate me.

Deu 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh -- with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the long-haired heads of the enemy.'

Deu 32:43 "Praise his people, O you nations; for he avenges the blood of his servants, and takes vengeance on his adversaries, and makes expiation for the land of his people."

Deu 32:44 Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun.

Deu 32:45 And when Moses had finished speaking all these words to all Israel,

Deu 32:46 he said to them, "Lay to heart all the words which I enjoin upon you this day, that you may command them to your children, that they may be careful to do all the words of this law.

Deu 32:47 For it is no trifle for you, but it is your life, and thereby you shall live long in the land which you are going over the Jordan to possess."

Deu 32:48 And the LORD said to Moses that very day,

Deu 32:49 "Ascend this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho; and view the land of Canaan, which I give to the people of Israel for a possession;

Deu 32:50 and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died in Mount Hor and was gathered to his people;

Deu 32:51 because you broke faith with me in the midst of the people of Israel at the waters of Meribath-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you did not revere me as holy in the midst of the people of Israel.

Deu 32:52 For you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go there, into the land which I give to the people of Israel."

Deu 33:1 This is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

Deu 33:2 He said, "The LORD came from Sinai, and dawned from Seir upon us; he shone forth from Mount Paran, he came from the ten thousands of holy ones, with flaming fire at his right hand.

Deu 33:3 Yea, he loved his people; all those consecrated to him were in his hand; so they followed in thy steps, receiving direction from thee,

Deu 33:4 when Moses commanded us a law, as a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

Deu 33:5 Thus the LORD became king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, all the tribes of Israel together.

Deu 33:6 "Let Reuben live, and not die, nor let his men be few."

Deu 33:7 And this he said of Judah: "Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him in to his people. With thy hands contend for him, and be a help against his adversaries."

Deu 33:8 And of Levi he said, "Give to Levi thy Thummim, and thy Urim to thy godly one, whom thou didst test at Massah, with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah;

Deu 33:9 who said of his father and mother, 'I regard them not'; he disowned his brothers, and ignored his children. For they observed thy word, and kept thy covenant.

Deu 33:10 They shall teach Jacob thy ordinances, and Israel thy law; they shall put incense before thee, and whole burnt offering upon thy altar.

Deu 33:11 Bless, O LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands; crush the loins of his adversaries, of those that hate him, that they rise not again."

Deu 33:12 Of Benjamin he said, "The beloved of the LORD, he dwells in safety by him; he encompasses him all the day long, and makes his dwelling between his shoulders."

Deu 33:13 And of Joseph he said, "Blessed by the LORD be his land, with the choicest gifts of heaven above, and of the deep that couches beneath,

Deu 33:14 with the choicest fruits of the sun, and the rich yield of the months,

Deu 33:15 with the finest produce of the ancient mountains, and the abundance of the everlasting hills,

Deu 33:16 with the best gifts of the earth and its fulness, and the favor of him that dwelt in the bush. Let these come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the crown of the head of him that is prince among his brothers.

Deu 33:17 His firstling bull has majesty, and his horns are the horns of a wild ox; with them he shall push the peoples, all of them, to the ends of the earth; such are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and such are the thousands of Manasseh."

Deu 33:18 And of Zebulun he said, "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out; and Issachar, in your tents.

Deu 33:19 They shall call peoples to their mountain; there they offer right sacrifices; for they suck the affluence of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand."

Deu 33:20 And of Gad he said, "Blessed be he who enlarges Gad! Gad couches like a lion, he tears the arm, and the crown of the head.

Deu 33:21 He chose the best of the land for himself, for there a commander's portion was reserved; and he came to the heads of the people, with Israel he executed the commands and just decrees of the LORD."

Deu 33:22 And of Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's whelp, that leaps forth from Bashan."

Deu 33:23 And of Naphtali he said, "O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and full of the blessing of the LORD, possess the lake and the south."

Deu 33:24 And of Asher he said, "Blessed above sons be Asher; let him be the favorite of his brothers, and let him dip his foot in oil.

Deu 33:25 Your bars shall be iron and bronze; and as your days, so shall your strength be.

Deu 33:26 "There is none like God, O Jeshurun, who rides through the heavens to your help, and in his majesty through the skies.

Deu 33:27 The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. And he thrust out the enemy before you, and said, Destroy.

Deu 33:28 So Israel dwelt in safety, the fountain of Jacob alone, in a land of grain and wine; yea, his heavens drop down dew.

Deu 33:29 Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help, and the sword of your triumph! Your enemies shall come fawning to you; and you shall tread upon their high places."

Deu 34:1 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land, Gilead as far as Dan,
Deu 34:2 all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea,
Deu 34:3 the Negeb, and the Plain, that is, the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.
Deu 34:4 And the LORD said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there."
Deu 34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD,
Deu 34:6 and he buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Bethpeor; but no man knows the place of his burial to this day.
Deu 34:7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died; his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.
Deu 34:8 And the people of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.
Deu 34:9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands upon him; so the people of Israel obeyed him, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.
Deu 34:10 And there has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,
Deu 34:11 none like him for all the signs and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land,
Deu 34:12 and for all the mighty power and all the great and terrible deeds which Moses wrought in the sight of all Israel.

Jos 1:1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister,
Jos 1:2 "Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, into the land which I am giving to them, to the people of Israel.
Jos 1:3 Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, as I promised to Moses.
Jos 1:4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun shall be your territory.
Jos 1:5 No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you.
Jos 1:6 Be strong and of good courage; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.
Jos 1:7 Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go.
Jos 1:8 This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success.
Jos 1:9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; be not frightened, neither be dismayed; for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."
Jos 1:10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people,
Jos 1:11 "Pass through the camp, and command the people, 'Prepare your provisions; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess.'"
Jos 1:12 And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua said,
Jos 1:13 "Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God is providing you a place of rest, and will give you this land.'
Jos 1:14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but all the men of valor among you shall pass over armed before your brethren and shall help them,
Jos 1:15 until the LORD gives rest to your brethren as well as to you, and they also take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them; then you shall return to the land of your possession, and shall possess it, the land which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."
Jos 1:16 And they answered Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
Jos 1:17 Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you; only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses!
Jos 1:18 Whoever rebels against your commandment and disobeys your words, whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."
Jos 2:1 And Joshua the son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." And they went, and came into the house of a harlot whose name was Rahab, and lodged there.

Jos 2:2 And it was told the king of Jericho, "Behold, certain men of Israel have come here tonight to search out the land."

Jos 2:3 Then the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring forth the men that have come to you, who entered your house; for they have come to search out all the land."

Jos 2:4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them; and she said, "True, men came to me, but I did not know where they came from;

Jos 2:5 and when the gate was to be closed, at dark, the men went out; where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them."

Jos 2:6 But she had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof.

Jos 2:7 So the men pursued after them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords; and as soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

Jos 2:8 Before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,

Jos 2:9 and said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you.

Jos 2:10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

Jos 2:11 And as soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in any man, because of you; for the LORD your God is he who is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.

Jos 2:12 Now then, swear to me by the LORD that as I have dealt kindly with you, you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a sure sign,

Jos 2:13 and save alive my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death."

Jos 2:14 And the men said to her, "Our life for yours! If you do not tell this business of ours, then we will deal kindly and faithfully with you when the LORD gives us the land."

Jos 2:15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was built into the city wall, so that she dwelt in the wall.

Jos 2:16 And she said to them, "Go into the hills, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; then afterward you may go your way."

Jos 2:17 The men said to her, "We will be guiltless with respect to this oath of yours which you have made us swear.

Jos 2:18 Behold, when we come into the land, you shall bind this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down; and you shall gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your father's household.

Jos 2:19 If any one goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we shall be guiltless; but if a hand is laid upon any one who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head.

Jos 2:20 But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless with respect to your oath which you have made us swear."

Jos 2:21 And she said, "According to your words, so be it." Then she sent them away, and they departed; and she bound the scarlet cord in the window.

Jos 2:22 They departed, and went into the hills, and remained there three days, until the pursuers returned; for the pursuers had made search all along the way and found nothing.

Jos 2:23 Then the two men came down again from the hills, and passed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun; and they told him all that had befallen them.

Jos 2:24 And they said to Joshua, "Truly the LORD has given all the land into our hands; and moreover all the inhabitants of the land are fainthearted because of us."

Jos 3:1 Early in the morning Joshua rose and set out from Shittim, with all the people of Israel; and they came to the Jordan, and lodged there before they passed over.

Jos 3:2 At the end of three days the officers went through the camp

Jos 3:3 and commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the Levitical priests, then you shall set out from your place and follow it,

Jos 3:4 that you may know the way you shall go, for you have not passed this way before. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, a distance of about two thousand cubits; do not come near it."

Jos 3:5 And Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."

Jos 3:6 And Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass on before the people." And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

Jos 3:7 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.

Jos 3:8 And you shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, "When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan."

Jos 3:9 And Joshua said to the people of Israel, "Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God."

Jos 3:10 And Joshua said, "Hereby you shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

Jos 3:11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is to pass over before you into the Jordan.

Jos 3:12 Now therefore take twelve men from the tribes of Israel, from each tribe a man.

Jos 3:13 And when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be stopped from flowing, and the waters coming down from above shall stand in one heap."

Jos 3:14 So, when the people set out from their tents, to pass over the Jordan with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people,

Jos 3:15 and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the brink of the water (the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest),

Jos 3:16 the waters coming down from above stood and rose up in a heap far off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, and those flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off; and the people passed over opposite Jericho.

Jos 3:17 And while all Israel were passing over on dry ground, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan, until all the nation finished passing over the Jordan.

Jos 4:1 When all the nation had finished passing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,

Jos 4:2 "Take twelve men from the people, from each tribe a man,

Jos 4:3 and command them, "Take twelve stones from here out of the midst of the Jordan, from the very place where the priests' feet stood, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you lodge tonight."

Jos 4:4 Then Joshua called the twelve men from the people of Israel, whom he had appointed, a man from each tribe;

Jos 4:5 and Joshua said to them, "Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take up each of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel,

Jos 4:6 that this may be a sign among you, when your children ask in time to come, "What do those stones mean to you?"

Jos 4:7 Then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial for ever."

Jos 4:8 And the men of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel, as the LORD told Joshua; and they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

Jos 4:9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.

Jos 4:10 For the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people passed over in haste;

Jos 4:11 and when all the people had finished passing over, the ark of the LORD and the priests passed over before the people.

Jos 4:12 The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh passed over armed before the people of Israel, as Moses had bidden them;

Jos 4:13 about forty thousand ready armed for war passed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho.

Jos 4:14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they stood in awe of him, as they had stood in awe of Moses, all the days of his life.

Jos 4:15 And the LORD said to Joshua,

Jos 4:16 "Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony to come up out of the Jordan."

Jos 4:17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan."

Jos 4:18 And when the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up on dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks, as before.

Jos 4:19 The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they encamped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

Jos 4:20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.

Jos 4:21 And he said to the people of Israel, "When your children ask their fathers in time to come, 'What do these stones mean?'

Jos 4:22 then you shall let your children know, 'Israel passed over this Jordan on dry ground.'

Jos 4:23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we passed over,

Jos 4:24 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty; that you may fear the LORD your God for ever."

Jos 5:1 When all the kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites that were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan for the people of Israel until they had crossed over, their heart melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them, because of the people of Israel.

Jos 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the people of Israel again the second time."

Jos 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives, and circumcised the people of Israel at Gibeathhaaraloth.

Jos 5:4 And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the men of war, had died on the way in the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt.

Jos 5:5 Though all the people who came out had been circumcised, yet all the people that were born on the way in the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt had not been circumcised.

Jos 5:6 For the people of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the nation, the men of war that came forth out of Egypt, perished, because they did not hearken to the voice of the LORD; to them the LORD swore that he would not let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Jos 5:7 So it was their children, whom he raised up in their stead, that Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

Jos 5:8 When the circumcising of all the nation was done, they remained in their places in the camp till they were healed.

Jos 5:9 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." And so the name of that place is called Gilgal to this day.

Jos 5:10 While the people of Israel were encamped in Gilgal they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho.

Jos 5:11 And on the morrow after the passover, on that very day, they ate of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain.

Jos 5:12 And the manna ceased on the morrow, when they ate of the produce of the land; and the people of Israel had manna no more, but ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

Jos 5:13 When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man stood before him with his drawn sword in his hand; and Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?"

Jos 5:14 And he said, "No; but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and worshiped, and said to him, "What does my lord bid his servant?"

Jos 5:15 And the commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, "Put off your shoes from your feet; for the place where you stand is holy." And Joshua did so.

Jos 6:1 Now Jericho was shut up from within and from without because of the people of Israel; none went out, and none came in.

Jos 6:2 And the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have given into your hand Jericho, with its king and mighty men of valor.

Jos 6:3 You shall march around the city, all the men of war going around the city once. Thus shall you do for six days.

Jos 6:4 And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark; and on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, the priests blowing the trumpets.

Jos 6:5 And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him."

Jos 6:6 So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD."

Jos 6:7 And he said to the people, "Go forward; march around the city, and let the armed men pass on before the ark of the LORD."

Jos 6:8 And as Joshua had commanded the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD went forward, blowing the trumpets, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD following them.

Jos 6:9 And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the trumpets blew continually.

Jos 6:10 But Joshua commanded the people, "You shall not shout or let your voice be heard, neither shall any word go out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then you shall shout."

Jos 6:11 So he caused the ark of the LORD to compass the city, going about it once; and they came into the camp, and spent the night in the camp.

Jos 6:12 Then Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Jos 6:13 And the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD passed on, blowing the trumpets continually; and the armed men went before them, and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets blew continually.

Jos 6:14 And the second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did for six days.

Jos 6:15 On the seventh day they rose early at the dawn of day, and marched around the city in the same manner seven times: it was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times.

Jos 6:16 And at the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout; for the LORD has given you the city.

Jos 6:17 And the city and all that is within it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction; only Rahab the harlot and all who are with her in her house shall live, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

Jos 6:18 But you, keep yourselves from the things devoted to destruction, lest when you have devoted them you take any of the devoted things and make the camp of Israel a thing for destruction, and bring trouble upon it.

Jos 6:19 But all silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are sacred to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD."

Jos 6:20 So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people raised a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

Jos 6:21 Then they utterly destroyed all in the city, both men and women, young and old, oxen, sheep, and asses, with the edge of the sword.

Jos 6:22 And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the harlot's house, and bring out from it the woman, and all who belong to her, as you swore to her."

Jos 6:23 So the young men who had been spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her; and they brought all her kindred, and set them outside the camp of Israel.

Jos 6:24 And they burned the city with fire, and all within it; only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

Jos 6:25 But Rahab the harlot, and her father's household, and all who belonged to her, Joshua saved alive; and she dwelt in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

Jos 6:26 Joshua laid an oath upon them at that time, saying, "Cursed before the LORD be the man that rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho. At the cost of his first-born shall he lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest son shall he set up its gates."

Jos 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

Jos 7:1 But the people of Israel broke faith in regard to the devoted things; for Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things; and the anger of the LORD burned against the people of Israel.

Jos 7:2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Bethaven, east of Bethel, and said to them, "Go up and spy out the land." And the men went up and spied out Ai.

Jos 7:3 And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Let not all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai; do not make the whole people toil up there, for they are but few."

Jos 7:4 So about three thousand went up there from the people; and they fled before the men of Ai,

Jos 7:5 and the men of Ai killed about thirty-six men of them, and chased them before the gate as far as Shebarim, and slew them at the descent. And the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

Jos 7:6 Then Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust upon their heads.

Jos 7:7 And Joshua said, "Alas, O Lord GOD, why hast thou brought this people over the Jordan at all, to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would that we had been content to dwell beyond the Jordan!

Jos 7:8 O Lord, what can I say, when Israel has turned their backs before their enemies!

Jos 7:9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth; and what wilt thou do for thy great name?"

Jos 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Arise, why have you thus fallen upon your face?"

Jos 7:11 Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant which I commanded them; they have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, and lied, and put them among their own stuff.

Jos 7:12 Therefore the people of Israel cannot stand before their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become a thing for destruction. I will be with you no more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.

Jos 7:13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, `Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow; for thus says the LORD, God of Israel, "There are devoted things in the midst of you, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies, until you take away the devoted things from among you."

Jos 7:14 In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes; and the tribe which the LORD takes shall come near by families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come near by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come near man by man.

Jos 7:15 And he who is taken with the devoted things shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a shameful thing in Israel."

Jos 7:16 So Joshua rose early in the morning, and brought Israel near tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was taken;

Jos 7:17 and he brought near the families of Judah, and the family of the Zerahites was taken; and he brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was taken;

Jos 7:18 and he brought near his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Jos 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and render praise to him; and tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."

Jos 7:20 And Achan answered Joshua, "Of a truth I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I did:

Jos 7:21 when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them, and took them; and behold, they are hidden in the earth inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

Jos 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was hidden in his tent with the silver underneath.

Jos 7:23 And they took them out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the people of Israel; and they laid them down before the LORD.

Jos 7:24 And Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver and the mantle and the bar of gold, and his sons and daughters, and his oxen and asses and sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.

Jos 7:25 And Joshua said, "Why did you bring trouble on us? The LORD brings trouble on you today." And all Israel stoned him with stones; they burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.

Jos 7:26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day; then the LORD turned from his burning anger. Therefore to this day the name of that place is called the Valley of Achor.

Jos 8:1 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear or be dismayed; take all the fighting men with you, and arise, go up to Ai; see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, his city, and his land;

Jos 8:2 and you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king; only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves; lay an ambush against the city, behind it."

Jos 8:3 So Joshua arose, and all the fighting men, to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor, and sent them forth by night.

Jos 8:4 And he commanded them, "Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind it; do not go very far from the city, but hold yourselves all in readiness;

Jos 8:5 and I, and all the people who are with me, will approach the city. And when they come out against us, as before, we shall flee before them;

Jos 8:6 and they will come out after us, till we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They are fleeing from us, as before.' So we will flee from them;

Jos 8:7 then you shall rise up from the ambush, and seize the city; for the LORD your God will give it into your hand.

Jos 8:8 And when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire, doing as the LORD has bidden; see, I have commanded you."

Jos 8:9 So Joshua sent them forth; and they went to the place of ambush, and lay between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people.

Jos 8:10 And Joshua arose early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, with the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

Jos 8:11 And all the fighting men who were with him went up, and drew near before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai, with a ravine between them and Ai.

Jos 8:12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

Jos 8:13 So they stationed the forces, the main encampment which was north of the city and its rear guard west of the city. But Joshua spent that night in the valley.

Jos 8:14 And when the king of Ai saw this he and all his people, the men of the city, made haste and went out early to the descent toward the Arabah to meet Israel in battle; but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

Jos 8:15 And Joshua and all Israel made a pretense of being beaten before them, and fled in the direction of the wilderness.

Jos 8:16 So all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city.

Jos 8:17 There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, who did not go out after Israel; they left the city open, and pursued Israel.

Jos 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.

Jos 8:19 And the ambush rose quickly out of their place, and as soon as he had stretched out his hand, they ran and entered the city and took it; and they made haste to set the city on fire.

Jos 8:20 So when the men of Ai looked back, behold, the smoke of the city went up to heaven; and they had no power to flee this way or that, for the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

Jos 8:21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city went up, then they turned back and smote the men of Ai.

Jos 8:22 And the others came forth from the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side; and Israel smote them, until there was left none that survived or escaped.

Jos 8:23 But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

Jos 8:24 When Israel had finished slaughtering all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they pursued them and all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

Jos 8:25 And all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.

Jos 8:26 For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

Jos 8:27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took as their booty, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

Jos 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai, and made it for ever a heap of ruins, as it is to this day.

Jos 8:29 And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at the going down of the sun Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised over it a great heap of stones, which stands there to this day.

Jos 8:30 Then Joshua built an altar in Mount Ebal to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Jos 8:31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the people of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, "an altar of unhewn stones, upon which no man has lifted an iron tool"; and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

Jos 8:32 And there, in the presence of the people of Israel, he wrote upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.

Jos 8:33 And all Israel, sojourner as well as homeborn, with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on opposite sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel.

Jos 8:34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

Jos 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the sojourners who lived among them.

Jos 9:1 When all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, heard of this,

Jos 9:2 they gathered together with one accord to fight Joshua and Israel.

Jos 9:3 But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

Jos 9:4 they on their part acted with cunning, and went and made ready provisions, and took worn-out sacks upon their asses, and wineskins, worn-out and torn and mended,

Jos 9:5 with worn-out, patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes; and all their provisions were dry and moldy.

Jos 9:6 And they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country; so now make a covenant with us."

Jos 9:7 But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live among us; then how can we make a covenant with you?"

Jos 9:8 They said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you? And where do you come from?"

Jos 9:9 They said to him, "From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard a report of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

Jos 9:10 and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt in Ashtaroth.

Jos 9:11 And our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, 'Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; come now, make a covenant with us."

Jos 9:12 Here is our bread; it was still warm when we took it from our houses as our food for the journey, on the day we set forth to come to you, but now, behold, it is dry and moldy;

Jos 9:13 these wineskins were new when we filled them, and behold, they are burst; and these garments and shoes of ours are worn out from the very long journey."

Jos 9:14 So the men partook of their provisions, and did not ask direction from the LORD.

Jos 9:15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore to them.

Jos 9:16 At the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they dwelt among them.

Jos 9:17 And the people of Israel set out and reached their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriathjearim.

Jos 9:18 But the people of Israel did not kill them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then all the congregation murmured against the leaders.

Jos 9:19 But all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we may not touch them.

Jos 9:20 This we will do to them, and let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swore to them."

Jos 9:21 And the leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders had said of them.

Jos 9:22 Joshua summoned them, and he said to them, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' when you dwell among us?"

Jos 9:23 Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you shall always be slaves, hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God."

Jos 9:24 They answered Joshua, "Because it was told to your servants for a certainty that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; so we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and did this thing.

Jos 9:25 And now, behold, we are in your hand: do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us."

Jos 9:26 So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the people of Israel; and they did not kill them.

Jos 9:27 But Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to continue to this day, in the place which he should choose.

Jos 10:1 When Adonizedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,

Jos 10:2 he feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

Jos 10:3 So Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

Jos 10:4 "Come up to me, and help me, and let us smite Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the people of Israel."

Jos 10:5 Then the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered their forces, and went up with all their armies and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it.

Jos 10:6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, "Do not relax your hand from your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country are gathered against us."

Jos 10:7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.

Jos 10:8 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands; there shall not a man of them stand before you."

Jos 10:9 So Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched up all night from Gilgal.

Jos 10:10 And the LORD threw them into a panic before Israel, who slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Bethhoron, and smote them as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

Jos 10:11 And as they fled before Israel, while they were going down the ascent of Bethhoron, the LORD threw down great stones from heaven upon them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died because of the hailstones than the men of Israel killed with the sword.

Jos 10:12 Then spoke Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD gave the Amorites over to the men of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand thou still at Gibeon, and thou Moon in the valley of Aijalon."

Jos 10:13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation took vengeance on their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.

Jos 10:14 There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD hearkened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

Jos 10:15 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Jos 10:16 These five kings fled, and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.

Jos 10:17 And it was told Joshua, "The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah."

Jos 10:18 And Joshua said, "Roll great stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them;

Jos 10:19 but do not stay there yourselves, pursue your enemies, fall upon their rear, do not let them enter their cities; for the LORD your God has given them into your hand."

Jos 10:20 When Joshua and the men of Israel had finished slaying them with a very great slaughter, until they were wiped out, and when the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities,

Jos 10:21 all the people returned safe to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah; not a man moved his tongue against any of the people of Israel.

Jos 10:22 Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out to me from the cave."

Jos 10:23 And they did so, and brought those five kings out to him from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

Jos 10:24 And when they brought those kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, "Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings." Then they came near, and put their feet on their necks.

Jos 10:25 And Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and of good courage; for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight."

Jos 10:26 And afterward Joshua smote them and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees. And they hung upon the trees until evening;

Jos 10:27 but at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and they set great stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

Jos 10:28 And Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and smote it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed every person in it, he left none remaining; and he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:29 Then Joshua passed on from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah;

Jos 10:30 and the LORD gave it also and its king into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it; he left none remaining in it; and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:31 And Joshua passed on from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and laid siege to it, and assaulted it:

Jos 10:32 and the LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it, as he had done to Libnah.

Jos 10:33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he left none remaining.

Jos 10:34 And Joshua passed on with all Israel from Lachish to Eglon; and they laid siege to it, and assaulted it;

Jos 10:35 and they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword; and every person in it he utterly destroyed that day, as he had done to Lachish.

Jos 10:36 Then Joshua went up with all Israel from Eglon to Hebron; and they assaulted it,

Jos 10:37 and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and its king and its towns, and every person in it; he left none remaining, as he had done to Eglon, and utterly destroyed it with every person in it.

Jos 10:38 Then Joshua, with all Israel, turned back to Debir and assaulted it,
Jos 10:39 and he took it with its king and all its towns; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person in it; he left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron and to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and to its king.
Jos 10:40 So Joshua defeated the whole land, the hill country and the Negeb and the lowland and the slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.
Jos 10:41 And Joshua defeated them from Kadeshbarnea to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, as far as Gibeon.
Jos 10:42 And Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.
Jos 10:43 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.
Jos 11:1 When Jabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,
Jos 11:2 and to the kings who were in the northern hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in Naphothdor on the west,
Jos 11:3 to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
Jos 11:4 And they came out, with all their troops, a great host, in number like the sand that is upon the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.
Jos 11:5 And all these kings joined their forces, and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.
Jos 11:6 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will give over all of them, slain, to Israel; you shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire."
Jos 11:7 So Joshua came suddenly upon them with all his people of war, by the waters of Merom, and fell upon them.
Jos 11:8 And the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel, who smote them and chased them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephothmaim, and eastward as far as the valley of Mizpeh; and they smote them, until they left none remaining.
Jos 11:9 And Joshua did to them as the LORD bade him; he hamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.
Jos 11:10 And Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and smote its king with the sword; for Hazor formerly was the head of all those kingdoms.
Jos 11:11 And they put to the sword all who were in it, utterly destroying them; there was none left that breathed, and he burned Hazor with fire.
Jos 11:12 And all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took, and smote them with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.
Jos 11:13 But none of the cities that stood on mounds did Israel burn, except Hazor only; that Joshua burned.
Jos 11:14 And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the people of Israel took for their booty; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, and they did not leave any that breathed.
Jos 11:15 As the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.
Jos 11:16 So Joshua took all that land, the hill country and all the Negeb and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland
Jos 11:17 from Mount Halak, that rises toward Seir, as far as Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings, and smote them, and put them to death.
Jos 11:18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.
Jos 11:19 There was not a city that made peace with the people of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; they took all in battle.
Jos 11:20 For it was the LORD's doing to harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, in order that they should be utterly destroyed, and should receive no mercy but be exterminated, as the LORD commanded Moses.
Jos 11:21 And Joshua came at that time, and wiped out the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.
Jos 11:22 There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the people of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain.
Jos 11:23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal allotments. And the land had rest from war.

Jos 12:1 Now these are the kings of the land, whom the people of Israel defeated, and took possession of their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrising, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, with all the Arabah eastward:

Jos 12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites who dwelt at Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and from the middle of the valley as far as the river Jabbok, the boundary of the Ammonites, that is, half of Gilead,

Jos 12:3 and the Arabah to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward, and in the direction of Bethjeshimoth, to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, southward to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;

Jos 12:4 and Og king of Bashan, one of the remnant of the Rephaim, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei

Jos 12:5 and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all Bashan to the boundary of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and over half of Gilead to the boundary of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Jos 12:6 Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the people of Israel defeated them; and Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land for a possession to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Jos 12:7 And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the people of Israel defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, that rises toward Seir (and Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their allotments, Jos 12:8 in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negeb, the land of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites):

Jos 12:9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

Jos 12:10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

Jos 12:11 the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

Jos 12:12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

Jos 12:13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

Jos 12:14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

Jos 12:15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

Jos 12:16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

Jos 12:17 the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;

Jos 12:18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

Jos 12:19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

Jos 12:20 the king of Shimronmeron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

Jos 12:21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

Jos 12:22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

Jos 12:23 the king of Dor in Naphathdor, one; the king of Goyim in Galilee, one;

Jos 12:24 the king of Tirzah, one: in all, thirty-one kings.

Jos 13:1 Now Joshua was old and advanced in years; and the LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed.

Jos 13:2 This is the land that yet remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Geshurites

Jos 13:3 (from the Shihor, which is east of Egypt, northward to the boundary of Ekron, it is reckoned as Canaanite; there are five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron), and those of the Avvim,

Jos 13:4 in the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah which belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites,

Jos 13:5 and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Baalgad below Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath,

Jos 13:6 all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephothmaim, even all the Sidonians. I will myself drive them out from before the people of Israel; only allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

Jos 13:7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh."

Jos 13:8 With the other half of the tribe of Manasseh the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:

Jos 13:9 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland of Medeba as far as Dibon;

Jos 13:10 and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the boundary of the Ammonites;

Jos 13:11 and Gilead, and the region of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah;

Jos 13:12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); these Moses had defeated and driven out.

Jos 13:13 Yet the people of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites; but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.

Jos 13:14 To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as he said to him.

Jos 13:15 And Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the Reubenites according to their families.

Jos 13:16 So their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland by Medeba;

Jos 13:17 with Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the tableland; Dibon, and Bamothbaal, and Bethbaalmeon,

Jos 13:18 and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

Jos 13:19 and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zerethshahar on the hill of the valley,

Jos 13:20 and Bethpeor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Bethjeshimoth,

Jos 13:21 that is, all the cities of the tableland, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated with the leaders of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who dwelt in the land.

Jos 13:22 Balaam also, the son of Beor, the soothsayer, the people of Israel killed with the sword among the rest of their slain.

Jos 13:23 And the border of the people of Reuben was the Jordan as a boundary. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites, according to their families with their cities and villages.

Jos 13:24 And Moses gave an inheritance also to the tribe of the Gadites, according to their families.

Jos 13:25 Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is east of Rabbah,

Jos 13:26 and from Heshbon to Ramathmizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir,

Jos 13:27 and in the valley Bethharam, Bethnimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, having the Jordan as a boundary, to the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth, eastward beyond the Jordan.

Jos 13:28 This is the inheritance of the Gadites according to their families, with their cities and villages.

Jos 13:29 And Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; it was allotted to the half-tribe of the Manassites according to their families.

Jos 13:30 Their region extended from Mahanaim, through all Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities,

Jos 13:31 and half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan; these were allotted to the people of Machir the son of Manasseh for the half of the Machirites according to their families.

Jos 13:32 These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho.

Jos 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said to them.

Jos 14:1 And these are the inheritances which the people of Israel received in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel distributed to them.

Jos 14:2 Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded Moses for the nine and one-half tribes.

Jos 14:3 For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and one-half tribes beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.

Jos 14:4 For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and no portion was given to the Levites in the land, but only cities to dwell in, with their pasture lands for their cattle and their substance.

Jos 14:5 The people of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses; they allotted the land.

Jos 14:6 Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kadeshbarnea concerning you and me.

Jos 14:7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadeshbarnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart.

Jos 14:8 But my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the LORD my God.

Jos 14:9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and your children for ever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.'

Jos 14:10 And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as he said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness; and now, lo, I am this day eighty-five years old.

Jos 14:11 I am still as strong to this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war, and for going and coming.

Jos 14:12 So now give me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day; for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities: it may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out as the LORD said."

Jos 14:13 Then Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

Jos 14:14 So Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jos 14:15 Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriatharba; this Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

Jos 15:1 The lot for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families reached southward to the boundary of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the farthest south.

Jos 15:2 And their south boundary ran from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward;

Jos 15:3 it goes out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, passes along to Zin, and goes up south of Kadeshbarnea, along by Hezron, up to Addar, turns about to Karka,

Jos 15:4 passes along to Azmon, goes out by the Brook of Egypt, and comes to its end at the sea. This shall be your south boundary.

Jos 15:5 And the east boundary is the Salt Sea, to the mouth of the Jordan. And the boundary on the north side runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan;

Jos 15:6 and the boundary goes up to Bethhoglah, and passes along north of Betharabah; and the boundary goes up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;

Jos 15:7 and the boundary goes up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley; and the boundary passes along to the waters of Enshemesh, and ends at Enrogel;

Jos 15:8 then the boundary goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom at the southern shoulder of the Jebusite (that is, Jerusalem); and the boundary goes up to the top of the mountain that lies over against the valley of Hinnom, on the west, at the northern end of the valley of Rephaim;

Jos 15:9 then the boundary extends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, and from there to the cities of Mount Ephron; then the boundary bends round to Baalah (that is, Kiriathjearim);

Jos 15:10 and the boundary circles west of Baalah to Mount Seir, passes along to the northern shoulder of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), and goes down to Bethshemesh, and passes along by Timnah;

Jos 15:11 the boundary goes out to the shoulder of the hill north of Ekron, then the boundary bends round to Shikkeron, and passes along to Mount Baalah, and goes out to Jabneel; then the boundary comes to an end at the sea.

Jos 15:12 And the west boundary was the Great Sea with its coast-line. This is the boundary round about the people of Judah according to their families.

Jos 15:13 According to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, he gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion among the people of Judah, Kiriatharba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).

Jos 15:14 And Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmi, the descendants of Anak.

Jos 15:15 And he went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriathsepher.

Jos 15:16 And Caleb said, "Whoever smites Kiriathsepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife."

Jos 15:17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

Jos 15:18 When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field; and she alighted from her ass, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"

Jos 15:19 She said to him, "Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also springs of water." And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Jos 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families.

Jos 15:21 The cities belonging to the tribe of the people of Judah in the extreme South, toward the boundary of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Jos 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Jos 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Jos 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Jos 15:25 Hazorhadattah, Keriothhezron (that is, Hazor),

Jos 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Jos 15:27 Hazargaddah, Heshmon, Bethpelet,

Jos 15:28 Hazarshual, Beersheba, Biziothiah,

Jos 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Jos 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,

Jos 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Jos 15:32 Lebaath, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: in all, twenty-nine cities, with their villages.
Jos 15:33 And in the lowland, Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
Jos 15:34 Zanoah, Engannim, Tappuah, Enam,
Jos 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,
Jos 15:36 Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages.
Jos 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdalgad,
Jos 15:38 Dilean, Mizpeh, Joktheel,
Jos 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,
Jos 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish,
Jos 15:41 Gederoth, Bethdagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages.
Jos 15:42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,
Jos 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
Jos 15:44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages.
Jos 15:45 Ekron, with its towns and its villages;
Jos 15:46 from Ekron to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod, with their villages.
Jos 15:47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the Brook of Egypt, and the Great Sea with its coast-line.
Jos 15:48 And in the hill country, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,
Jos 15:49 Dannah, Kiriathsannah (that is, Debir),
Jos 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
Jos 15:51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.
Jos 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,
Jos 15:53 Janim, Bethtappuah, Aphekah,
Jos 15:54 Humtah, Kiriatharba (that is, Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages.
Jos 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
Jos 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
Jos 15:57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.
Jos 15:58 Halhul, Bethzur, Gedor,
Jos 15:59 Maarath, Bethanath, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages.
Jos 15:60 Kiriathbaal (that is, Kiriathjearim), and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.
Jos 15:61 In the wilderness, Betharabah, Middin, Secacah,
Jos 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and Engedi: six cities with their villages.
Jos 15:63 But the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the people of Judah could not drive out; so the Jebusites dwell with the people of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.
Jos 16:1 The allotment of the descendants of Joseph went from the Jordan by Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, into the wilderness, going up from Jericho into the hill country to Bethel;
Jos 16:2 then going from Bethel to Luz, it passes along to Ataroth, the territory of the Archites;
Jos 16:3 then it goes down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of Lower Bethhoron, then to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.
Jos 16:4 The people of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance.
Jos 16:5 The territory of the Ephraimites by their families was as follows: the boundary of their inheritance on the east was Atarothaddar as far as Upper Bethhoron,
Jos 16:6 and the boundary goes thence to the sea; on the north is Michmethath; then on the east the boundary turns round toward Taanathshiloh, and passes along beyond it on the east to Janoah,
Jos 16:7 then it goes down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, and touches Jericho, ending at the Jordan.
Jos 16:8 From Tappuah the boundary goes westward to the brook Kanah, and ends at the sea. Such is the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites by their families,
Jos 16:9 together with the towns which were set apart for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites, all those towns with their villages.
Jos 16:10 However they did not drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: so the Canaanites have dwelt in the midst of Ephraim to this day but have become slaves to do forced labor.
Jos 17:1 Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the first-born of Joseph. To Machir the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war.
Jos 17:2 And allotments were made to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh, by their families, Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph, by their families.
Jos 17:3 Now Zelophehad the son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
Jos 17:4 They came before Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the leaders, and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance along with our brethren." So according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

Jos 17:5 Thus there fell to Manasseh ten portions, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan;

Jos 17:6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was allotted to the rest of the Manassites.

Jos 17:7 The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Michmethath, which is east of Shechem; then the boundary goes along southward to the inhabitants of Entappuah.

Jos 17:8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah on the boundary of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim.

Jos 17:9 Then the boundary went down to the brook Kanah. The cities here, to the south of the brook, among the cities of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the boundary of Manasseh goes on the north side of the brook and ends at the sea;

Jos 17:10 the land to the south being Ephraim's and that to the north being Manasseh's, with the sea forming its boundary; on the north Asher is reached, and on the east Issachar.

Jos 17:11 Also in Issachar and in Asher Manasseh had Bethshean and its villages, and Ibleam and its villages, and the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, and the inhabitants of Endor and its villages, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; the third is Naphath.

Jos 17:12 Yet the sons of Manasseh could not take possession of those cities; but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land.

Jos 17:13 But when the people of Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out.

Jos 17:14 And the tribe of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, although I am a numerous people, since hitherto the LORD has blessed me?"

Jos 17:15 And Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and there clear ground for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you."

Jos 17:16 The tribe of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us; yet all the Canaanites who dwell in the plain have chariots of iron, both those in Bethshean and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel."

Jos 17:17 Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, "You are a numerous people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot only,

Jos 17:18 but the hill country shall be yours, for though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong."

Jos 18:1 Then the whole congregation of the people of Israel assembled at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; the land lay subdued before them.

Jos 18:2 There remained among the people of Israel seven tribes whose inheritance had not yet been apportioned.

Jos 18:3 So Joshua said to the people of Israel, "How long will you be slack to go in and take possession of the land, which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?"

Jos 18:4 Provide three men from each tribe, and I will send them out that they may set out and go up and down the land, writing a description of it with a view to their inheritances, and then come to me.

Jos 18:5 They shall divide it into seven portions, Judah continuing in his territory on the south, and the house of Joseph in their territory on the north.

Jos 18:6 And you shall describe the land in seven divisions and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

Jos 18:7 The Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their heritage; and Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."

Jos 18:8 So the men started on their way; and Joshua charged those who went to write the description of the land, saying, "Go up and down and write a description of the land, and come again to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh."

Jos 18:9 So the men went and passed up and down in the land and set down in a book a description of it by towns in seven divisions; then they came to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh,

Jos 18:10 and Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD; and there Joshua apportioned the land to the people of Israel, to each his portion.

Jos 18:11 The lot of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families came up, and the territory allotted to it fell between the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Joseph.

Jos 18:12 On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan; then the boundary goes up to the shoulder north of Jericho, then up through the hill country westward; and it ends at the wilderness of Bethaven.

Jos 18:13 From there the boundary passes along southward in the direction of Luz, to the shoulder of Luz (the same is Bethel), then the boundary goes down to Atarothaddar, upon the mountain that lies south of Lower Bethhoron.

Jos 18:14 Then the boundary goes in another direction, turning on the western side southward from the mountain that lies to the south, opposite Bethhoron, and it ends at Kiriathbaal (that is, Kiriathjearim), a city belonging to the tribe of Judah. This forms the western side.

Jos 18:15 And the southern side begins at the outskirts of Kiriathjearim; and the boundary goes from there to Ephron, to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah;

Jos 18:16 then the boundary goes down to the border of the mountain that overlooks the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is at the north end of the valley of Rephaim; and it then goes down the valley of Hinnom, south of the shoulder of the Jebusites, and downward to Enrogel;

Jos 18:17 then it bends in a northerly direction going on to Enshemesh, and thence goes to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim; then it goes down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;

Jos 18:18 and passing on to the north of the shoulder of Betharabah it goes down to the Arabah;

Jos 18:19 then the boundary passes on to the north of the shoulder of Bethhoglah; and the boundary ends at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan: this is the southern border.

Jos 18:20 The Jordan forms its boundary on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to its families, boundary by boundary round about.

Jos 18:21 Now the cities of the tribe of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Bethhoglah, Emekkeziz,

Jos 18:22 Betharabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Jos 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Jos 18:24 Chepharammoni, Ophni, Geba -- twelve cities with their villages:

Jos 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Jos 18:26 Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah,

Jos 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

Jos 18:28 Zela, Haeleph, Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah and Kiriathjearim -- fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families.

Jos 19:1 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of Simeon, according to its families; and its inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the tribe of Judah.

Jos 19:2 And it had for its inheritance Beersheba, Sheba, Moladah,

Jos 19:3 Hazarshual, Balah, Ezem,

Jos 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Jos 19:5 Ziklag, Bethmarcaboth, Hazarsusah,

Jos 19:6 Bethlebaoth, and Sharuhem -- thirteen cities with their villages;

Jos 19:7 Enrimmon, Ether, and Ashan -- four cities with their villages;

Jos 19:8 together with all the villages round about these cities as far as Baalathbeer, Ramah of the Negeb. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to its families.

Jos 19:9 The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon formed part of the territory of Judah; because the portion of the tribe of Judah was too large for them, the tribe of Simeon obtained an inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.

Jos 19:10 The third lot came up for the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families. And the territory of its inheritance reached as far as Sarid;

Jos 19:11 then its boundary goes up westward, and on to Mareal, and touches Dabbesheth, then the brook which is east of Jokneam;

Jos 19:12 from Sarid it goes in the other direction eastward toward the sunrise to the boundary of Chislothtabor; thence it goes to Daberath, then up to Japhia;

Jos 19:13 from there it passes along on the east toward the sunrise to Gathhepher, to Ethkazin, and going on to Rimmon it bends toward Neah;

Jos 19:14 then on the north the boundary turns about to Hannathon, and it ends at the valley of Iphtahel;

Jos 19:15 and Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem -- twelve cities with their villages.

Jos 19:16 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families -- these cities with their villages.

Jos 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, for the tribe of Issachar, according to its families.

Jos 19:18 Its territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem,

Jos 19:19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

Jos 19:20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,

Jos 19:21 Remeth, Engannim, Enhaddah, Bethpazzez;

Jos 19:22 the boundary also touches Tabor, Shahazumah, and Bethshemesh, and its boundary ends at the Jordan -- sixteen cities with their villages.

Jos 19:23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, according to its families -- the cities with their villages.

Jos 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to its families.

Jos 19:25 Its territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,

Jos 19:26 Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal; on the west it touches Carmel and Shihorlibnath,

Jos 19:27 then it turns eastward, it goes to Bethdagon, and touches Zebulun and the valley of Iphtahel northward to Bethemek and Neiel; then it continues in the north to Cabul,

Jos 19:28 Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, as far as Sidon the Great;

Jos 19:29 then the boundary turns to Ramah, reaching to the fortified city of Tyre; then the boundary turns to Hosah, and it ends at the sea; Mahalab, Achzib, Jos 19:30 Ummah, Aphek and Rehob -- twenty-two cities with their villages.

Jos 19:31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to its families -- these cities with their villages.

Jos 19:32 The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naphtali, for the tribe of Naphtali, according to its families.

Jos 19:33 And its boundary ran from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adaminekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; and it ended at the Jordan;

Jos 19:34 then the boundary turns westward to Aznohtabor, and goes from there to Hukkok, touching Zebulun at the south, and Asher on the west, and Judah on the east at the Jordan.

Jos 19:35 The fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,

Jos 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Jos 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, Enhazor,

Jos 19:38 Yiron, Migdalel, Horem, Bethanath, and Bethshemesh -- nineteen cities with their villages.

Jos 19:39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali according to its families -- the cities with their villages.

Jos 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, according to its families.

Jos 19:41 And the territory of its inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Irshemesh,

Jos 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,

Jos 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Jos 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Jos 19:45 Jehud, Beneberak, Gathrimmon,

Jos 19:46 and Mejarkon and Rakkon with the territory over against Joppa.

Jos 19:47 When the territory of the Danites was lost to them, the Danites went up and fought against Leshem, and after capturing it and putting it to the sword they took possession of it and settled in it, calling Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor.

Jos 19:48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to their families -- these cities with their villages.

Jos 19:49 When they had finished distributing the several territories of the land as inheritances, the people of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

Jos 19:50 By command of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, Timnathserah in the hill country of Ephraim; and he rebuilt the city, and settled in it.

Jos 19:51 These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel distributed by lot at Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Jos 20:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua,

Jos 20:2 "Say to the people of Israel, `Appoint the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

Jos 20:3 that the manslayer who kills any person without intent or unwittingly may flee there; they shall be for you a refuge from the avenger of blood.

Jos 20:4 He shall flee to one of these cities and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and explain his case to the elders of that city; then they shall take him into the city, and give him a place, and he shall remain with them.

Jos 20:5 And if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not give up the slayer into his hand; because he killed his neighbor unwittingly, having had no enmity against him in times past.

Jos 20:6 And he shall remain in that city until he has stood before the congregation for judgment, until the death of him who is high priest at the time: then the slayer may go again to his own town and his own home, to the town from which he fled."

Jos 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriatharba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Jos 20:8 And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they appointed Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland, from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

Jos 20:9 These were the cities designated for all the people of Israel, and for the stranger sojourning among them, that any one who killed a person without intent could flee there, so that he might not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, till he stood before the congregation.

Jos 21:1 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites came to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel;

Jos 21:2 and they said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, "The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given cities to dwell in, along with their pasture lands for our cattle."

Jos 21:3 So by command of the LORD the people of Israel gave to the Levites the following cities and pasture lands out of their inheritance.

Jos 21:4 The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. So those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, thirteen cities.

Jos 21:5 And the rest of the Kohathites received by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan and the half-tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

Jos 21:6 The Gersonites received by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

Jos 21:7 The Merarites according to their families received from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

Jos 21:8 These cities and their pasture lands the people of Israel gave by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Jos 21:9 Out of the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Simeon they gave the following cities mentioned by name,

Jos 21:10 which went to the descendants of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites who belonged to the Levites; since the lot fell to them first.

Jos 21:11 They gave them Kiriatharba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with the pasture lands round about it.

Jos 21:12 But the fields of the city and its villages had been given to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

Jos 21:13 And to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands, Libnah with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:14 Jattir with its pasture lands, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:15 Holon with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:16 Ain with its pasture lands, Juttah with its pasture lands, Bethshemesh with its pasture lands -- nine cities out of these two tribes;

Jos 21:17 then out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:18 Anathoth with its pasture lands, and Almon with its pasture lands -- four cities.

Jos 21:19 The cities of the descendants of Aaron, the priests, were in all thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:20 As to the rest of the Kohathites belonging to the Kohathite families of the Levites, the cities allotted to them were out of the tribe of Ephraim.

Jos 21:21 To them were given Shechem, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:22 Kibzaim with its pasture lands, Bethhoron with its pasture lands -- four cities;

Jos 21:23 and out of the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its pasture lands, Gibbethon with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:24 Aijalon with its pasture lands, Gathrimmon with its pasture lands -- four cities;

Jos 21:25 and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its pasture lands, and Gathrimmon with its pasture lands -- two cities.

Jos 21:26 The cities of the families of the rest of the Kohathites were ten in all with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:27 And to the Gershonites, one of the families of the Levites, were given out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with its pasture lands -- two cities;

Jos 21:28 and out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:29 Jarmuth with its pasture lands, Engannim with its pasture lands -- four cities;

Jos 21:30 and out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:31 Helkath with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands -- four cities;

Jos 21:32 and out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Hammothdor with its pasture lands, and Kartan with its pasture lands -- three cities.

Jos 21:33 The cities of the several families of the Gershonites were in all thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:34 And to the rest of the Levites, the Merarite families, were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands, Kartah with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:35 Dimnah with its pasture lands, Nahalal with its pasture lands -- four cities;

Jos 21:36 and out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its pasture lands, Jahaz with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:37 Kedemoth with its pasture lands, and Mephaath with its pasture lands -- four cities;

Jos 21:38 and out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Mahanaim with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:39 Heshbon with its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands -- four cities in all.

Jos 21:40 As for the cities of the several Merarite families, that is, the remainder of the families of the Levites, those allotted to them were in all twelve cities.

Jos 21:41 The cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the people of Israel were in all forty-eight cities with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:42 These cities had each its pasture lands round about it; so it was with all these cities.

Jos 21:43 Thus the LORD gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers; and having taken possession of it, they settled there.

Jos 21:44 And the LORD gave them rest on every side just as he had sworn to their fathers; not one of all their enemies had withstood them, for the LORD had given all their enemies into their hands.

Jos 21:45 Not one of all the good promises which the LORD had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.

Jos 22:1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

Jos 22:2 and said to them, "You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I have commanded you;

Jos 22:3 you have not forsaken your brethren these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD your God.

Jos 22:4 And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brethren, as he promised them; therefore turn and go to your home in the land where your possession lies, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Jos 22:5 Take good care to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."

Jos 22:6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their homes.

Jos 22:7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan; but to the other half Joshua had given a possession beside their brethren in the land west of the Jordan. And when Joshua sent them away to their homes and blessed them,

Jos 22:8 he said to them, "Go back to your homes with much wealth, and with very many cattle, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and with much clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren."

Jos 22:9 So the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, parting from the people of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land of which they had possessed themselves by command of the LORD through Moses.

Jos 22:10 And when they came to the region about the Jordan, that lies in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar of great size.

Jos 22:11 And the people of Israel heard say, "Behold, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the people of Israel."

Jos 22:12 And when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the people of Israel gathered at Shiloh, to make war against them.

Jos 22:13 Then the people of Israel sent to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

Jos 22:14 and with him ten chiefs, one from each of the tribal families of Israel, every one of them the head of a family among the clans of Israel.

Jos 22:15 And they came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they said to them,

Jos 22:16 "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, 'What is this treachery which you have committed against the God of Israel in turning away this day from following the LORD, by building yourselves an altar this day in rebellion against the LORD?

Jos 22:17 Have we not had enough of the sin at Peor from which even yet we have not cleansed ourselves, and for which there came a plague upon the congregation of the LORD,

Jos 22:18 that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And if you rebel against the LORD today he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow.

Jos 22:19 But now, if your land is unclean, pass over into the LORD's land where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take for yourselves a possession among us; only do not rebel against the LORD, or make us as rebels by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.

Jos 22:20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish alone for his iniquity."

Jos 22:21 Then the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel,

Jos 22:22 "The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows; and let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith toward the LORD, spare us not today

Jos 22:23 for building an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if we did so to offer burnt offerings or cereal offerings or peace offerings on it, may the LORD himself take vengeance.

Jos 22:24 Nay, but we did it from fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, 'What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

Jos 22:25 For the LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites; you have no portion in the LORD.' So your children might make our children cease to worship the LORD.

Jos 22:26 Therefore we said, 'Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,

Jos 22:27 but to be a witness between us and you, and between the generations after us, that we do perform the service of the LORD in his presence with our burnt offerings and sacrifices and peace offerings; lest your children say to our children in time to come, "You have no portion in the LORD."

Jos 22:28 And we thought, If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we should say, 'Behold the copy of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and you.'

Jos 22:29 Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away this day from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offering, cereal offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle!"

Jos 22:30 When Phinehas the priest and the chiefs of the congregation, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites spoke, it pleased them well.

Jos 22:31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites, "Today we know that the LORD is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD; now you have saved the people of Israel from the hand of the LORD."

Jos 22:32 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the chiefs, returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the people of Israel, and brought back word to them.

Jos 22:33 And the report pleased the people of Israel; and the people of Israel blessed God and spoke no more of making war against them, to destroy the land where the Reubenites and the Gadites were settled.

Jos 22:34 The Reubenites and the Gadites called the altar Witness; "For," said they, "it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Jos 23:1 A long time afterward, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years,

Jos 23:2 Joshua summoned all Israel, their elders and heads, their judges and officers, and said to them, "I am now old and well advanced in years;

Jos 23:3 and you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake, for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you.

Jos 23:4 Behold, I have allotted to you as an inheritance for your tribes those nations that remain, along with all the nations that I have already cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west.

Jos 23:5 The LORD your God will push them back before you, and drive them out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

Jos 23:6 Therefore be very steadfast to keep and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right hand nor to the left,

Jos 23:7 that you may not be mixed with these nations left here among you, or make mention of the names of their gods, or swear by them, or serve them, or bow down yourselves to them,

Jos 23:8 but cleave to the LORD your God as you have done to this day.

Jos 23:9 For the LORD has driven out before you great and strong nations; and as for you, no man has been able to withstand you to this day.

Jos 23:10 One man of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he promised you.

Jos 23:11 Take good heed to yourselves, therefore, to love the LORD your God.

Jos 23:12 For if you turn back, and join the remnant of these nations left here among you, and make marriages with them, so that you marry their women and they yours,

Jos 23:13 know assuredly that the LORD your God will not continue to drive out these nations before you; but they shall be a snare and a trap for you, a scourge on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, till you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

Jos 23:14 "And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God promised concerning you; all have come to pass for you, not one of them has failed.

Jos 23:15 But just as all the good things which the LORD your God promised concerning you have been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you,

Jos 23:16 if you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them. Then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you."

Jos 24:1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God.

Jos 24:2 And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, `Your fathers lived of old beyond the Euphrates, Terah, the father of Abraham and of Nahor; and they served other gods.

Jos 24:3 Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan, and made his offspring many. I gave him Isaac;

Jos 24:4 and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. And I gave Esau the hill country of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

Jos 24:5 And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt with what I did in the midst of it; and afterwards I brought you out.

Jos 24:6 Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

Jos 24:7 And when they cried to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and made the sea come upon them and cover them; and your eyes saw what I did to Egypt; and you lived in the wilderness a long time.

Jos 24:8 Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Jordan; they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land, and I destroyed them before you.

Jos 24:9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel; and he sent and invited Balaam the son of Beor to curse you,

Jos 24:10 but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you; so I delivered you out of his hand.

Jos 24:11 And you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the men of Jericho fought against you, and also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I gave them into your hand.

Jos 24:12 And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out before you, the two kings of the Amorites; it was not by your sword or by your bow.

Jos 24:13 I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you dwell therein; you eat the fruit of vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant.'

Jos 24:14 "Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

Jos 24:15 And if you be unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

Jos 24:16 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

Jos 24:17 for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our fathers up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed;

Jos 24:18 and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land; therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

Jos 24:19 But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD; for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins.

Jos 24:20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good."

Jos 24:21 And the people said to Joshua, "Nay; but we will serve the LORD."

Jos 24:22 Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses."

Jos 24:23 He said, "Then put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel."

Jos 24:24 And the people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and his voice we will obey."

Jos 24:25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.

Jos 24:26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak in the sanctuary of the LORD.

Jos 24:27 And Joshua said to all the people, "Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD which he spoke to us; therefore it shall be a witness against you, lest you deal falsely with your God."

Jos 24:28 So Joshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.

Jos 24:29 After these things Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old.

Jos 24:30 And they buried him in his own inheritance at Timnathserah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of the mountain of Gaash.

Jos 24:31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work which the LORD did for Israel.

Jos 24:32 The bones of Joseph which the people of Israel brought up from Egypt were buried at Shechem, in the portion of ground which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money; it became an inheritance of the descendants of Joseph.

Jos 24:33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gibeah, the town of Phinehas his son, which had been given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 1:1 After the death of Joshua the people of Israel inquired of the LORD, of "Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?"

Jdg 1:2 The LORD said, "Judah shall go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand."

Jdg 1:3 And Judah said to Simeon his brother, "Come up with me into the territory allotted to me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into the territory allotted to you." So Simeon went with him.

Jdg 1:4 Then Judah went up and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they defeated ten thousand of them at Bezek.

Jdg 1:5 They came upon Adonibezek at Bezek, and fought against him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

Jdg 1:6 Adonibezek fled; but they pursued him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

Jdg 1:7 And Adonibezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and their great toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has requited me." And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

Jdg 1:8 And the men of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

Jdg 1:9 And afterward the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the hill country, in the Negeb, and in the lowland.

Jdg 1:10 And Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron (now the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriatharba); and they defeated Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmi.

Jdg 1:11 From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir. The name of Debir was formerly Kiriathsepher.

Jdg 1:12 And Caleb said, "He who attacks Kiriathsepher and takes it, I will give him Achsah my daughter as wife."

Jdg 1:13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

Jdg 1:14 When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field; and she alighted from her ass, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"

Jdg 1:15 She said to him, "Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also springs of water." And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Jdg 1:16 And the descendants of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up with the people of Judah from the city of palms into the wilderness of Judah, which lies in the Negeb near Arad; and they went and settled with the people.

Jdg 1:17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they defeated the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.

Jdg 1:18 Judah also took Gaza with its territory, and Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.

Jdg 1:19 And the LORD was with Judah, and he took possession of the hill country, but he could not drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had chariots of iron.

Jdg 1:20 And Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had said; and he drove out from it the three sons of Anak.

Jdg 1:21 But the people of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who dwelt in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have dwelt with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

Jdg 1:22 The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel; and the LORD was with them.

Jdg 1:23 And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. (Now the name of the city was formerly Luz.)

Jdg 1:24 And the spies saw a man coming out of the city, and they said to him, "Pray, show us the way into the city, and we will deal kindly with you."

Jdg 1:25 And he showed them the way into the city; and they smote the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go.

Jdg 1:26 And the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called its name Luz; that is its name to this day.

Jdg 1:27 Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land.

Jdg 1:28 When Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

Jdg 1:29 And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

Jdg 1:30 Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became subject to forced labor.

Jdg 1:31 Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob;

Jdg 1:32 but the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

Jdg 1:33 Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Bethshemesh, or the inhabitants of Bethanath, but dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; nevertheless the inhabitants of Bethshemesh and of Bethanath became subject to forced labor for them.

Jdg 1:34 The Amorites pressed the Danites back into the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down to the plain;

Jdg 1:35 the Amorites persisted in dwelling in Harheres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the hand of the house of Joseph rested heavily upon them, and they became subject to forced labor.

Jdg 1:36 And the border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Akkrabbim, from Sela and upward.

Jdg 2:1 Now the angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, "I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you into the land which I swore to give to your fathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you,

Jdg 2:2 and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars.' But you have not obeyed my command. What is this you have done?

Jdg 2:3 So now I say, I will not drive them out before you; but they shall become adversaries to you, and their gods shall be a snare to you."

Jdg 2:4 When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the people of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept.

Jdg 2:5 And they called the name of that place Bochim; and they sacrificed there to the LORD.

Jdg 2:6 When Joshua dismissed the people, the people of Israel went each to his inheritance to take possession of the land.

Jdg 2:7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work which the LORD had done for Israel.

Jdg 2:8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten years.

Jdg 2:9 And they buried him within the bounds of his inheritance in Timnathheres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of the mountain of Gaash.

Jdg 2:10 And all that generation also were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them, who did not know the LORD or the work which he had done for Israel.

Jdg 2:11 And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Baals;

Jdg 2:12 and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; they went after other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were round about them, and bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.

Jdg 2:13 They forsook the LORD, and served the Baals and the Ashtaroth.

Jdg 2:14 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers, who plundered them; and he sold them into the power of their enemies round about, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.

Jdg 2:15 Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had warned, and as the LORD had sworn to them; and they were in sore straits.

Jdg 2:16 Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the power of those who plundered them.

Jdg 2:17 And yet they did not listen to their judges; for they played the harlot after other gods and bowed down to them; they soon turned aside from the way in which their fathers had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the LORD, and they did not do so.

Jdg 2:18 Whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge, and he saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who afflicted and oppressed them.

Jdg 2:19 But whenever the judge died, they turned back and behaved worse than their fathers, going after other gods, serving them and bowing down to them; they did not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways.

Jdg 2:20 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he said, "Because this people have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not obeyed my voice,

Jdg 2:21 I will not henceforth drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died,

Jdg 2:22 that by them I may test Israel, whether they will take care to walk in the way of the LORD as their fathers did, or not."

Jdg 2:23 So the LORD left those nations, not driving them out at once, and he did not give them into the power of Joshua.

Jdg 3:1 Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel by them, that is, all in Israel who had no experience of any war in Canaan;

Jdg 3:2 it was only that the generations of the people of Israel might know war, that he might teach war to such at least as had not known it before.

Jdg 3:3 These are the nations: the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baalhermon as far as the entrance of Hamath.

Jdg 3:4 They were for the testing of Israel, to know whether Israel would obey the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by Moses.

Jdg 3:5 So the people of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites;

Jdg 3:6 and they took their daughters to themselves for wives, and their own daughters they gave to their sons; and they served their gods.

Jdg 3:7 And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, forgetting the LORD their God, and serving the Baals and the Asheroth.

Jdg 3:8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushanrishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the people of Israel served Cushanrishathaim eight years.

Jdg 3:9 But when the people of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the people of Israel, who delivered them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

Jdg 3:10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel; he went out to war, and the LORD gave Cushanrishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushanrishathaim.

Jdg 3:11 So the land had rest forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Jdg 3:12 And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

Jdg 3:13 He gathered to himself the Ammonites and the Amalekites, and went and defeated Israel; and they took possession of the city of palms.

Jdg 3:14 And the people of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

Jdg 3:15 But when the people of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The people of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.

Jdg 3:16 And Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length; and he girded it on his right thigh under his clothes.

Jdg 3:17 And he presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

Jdg 3:18 And when Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people that carried the tribute.

Jdg 3:19 But he himself turned back at the sculptured stones near Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." And he commanded, "Silence." And all his attendants went out from his presence.

Jdg 3:20 And Ehud came to him, as he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber. And Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." And he arose from his seat.

Jdg 3:21 And Ehud reached with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly;

Jdg 3:22 and the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the dirt came out.

Jdg 3:23 Then Ehud went out into the vestibule, and closed the doors of the roof chamber upon him, and locked them.

Jdg 3:24 When he had gone, the servants came; and when they saw that the doors of the roof chamber were locked, they thought, "He is only relieving himself in the closet of the cool chamber."

Jdg 3:25 And they waited till they were utterly at a loss; but when he still did not open the doors of the roof chamber, they took the key and opened them; and there lay their lord dead on the floor.

Jdg 3:26 Ehud escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the sculptured stones, and escaped to Seirah.

Jdg 3:27 When he arrived, he sounded the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the people of Israel went down with him from the hill country, having him at their head.

Jdg 3:28 And he said to them, "Follow after me; for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him, and seized the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and allowed not a man to pass over.

Jdg 3:29 And they killed at that time about ten thousand of the Moabites, all strong, able-bodied men; not a man escaped.

Jdg 3:30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

Jdg 3:31 After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred of the Philistines with an oxgoad; and he too delivered Israel.

Jdg 4:1 And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.

Jdg 4:2 And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in Haroshethgoyim.

Jdg 4:3 Then the people of Israel cried to the LORD for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and oppressed the people of Israel cruelly for twenty years.

Jdg 4:4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time.

Jdg 4:5 She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the people of Israel came up to her for judgment.

Jdg 4:6 She sent and summoned Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, gather your men at Mount Tabor, taking ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun.

Jdg 4:7 And I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the river Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'"

Jdg 4:8 Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."

Jdg 4:9 And she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the road on which you are going will not lead to your glory, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

Jdg 4:10 And Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and ten thousand men went up at his heels; and Deborah went up with him.

Jdg 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated from the Kenites, the descendants of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the oak in Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh.

Jdg 4:12 When Sisera was told that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor,

Jdg 4:13 Sisera called out all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the men who were with him, from Haroshethgoyim to the river Kishon.

Jdg 4:14 And Deborah said to Barak, "Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. Does not the LORD go out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

Jdg 4:15 And the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army before Barak at the edge of the sword; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot.

Jdg 4:16 And Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Haroshethgoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

Jdg 4:17 But Sisera fled away on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

Jdg 4:18 And Jael came out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; have no fear." So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

Jdg 4:19 And he said to her, "Pray, give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty." So she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink and covered him.

Jdg 4:20 And he said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and asks you, 'Is any one here?' say, No."

Jdg 4:21 But Jael the wife of Heber took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, till it went down into the ground, as he was lying fast asleep from weariness. So he died.

Jdg 4:22 And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael went out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking." So he went in to her tent; and there lay Sisera dead, with the tent peg in his temple.

Jdg 4:23 So on that day God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan before the people of Israel.

Jdg 4:24 And the hand of the people of Israel bore harder and harder on Jabin the king of Canaan, until they destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Jdg 5:1 Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day:

Jdg 5:2 "That the leaders took the lead in Israel, that the people offered themselves willingly, bless the LORD!

Jdg 5:3 "Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes; to the LORD I will sing, I will make melody to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jdg 5:4 "LORD, when thou didst go forth from Seir, when thou didst march from the region of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, yea, the clouds dropped water.

Jdg 5:5 The mountains quaked before the LORD, yon Sinai before the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jdg 5:6 "In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath, in the days of Jael, caravans ceased and travelers kept to the byways.

Jdg 5:7 The peasantry ceased in Israel, they ceased until you arose, Deborah, arose as a mother in Israel.

Jdg 5:8 When new gods were chosen, then war was in the gates. Was shield or spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel?

Jdg 5:9 My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the LORD.

Jdg 5:10 "Tell of it, you who ride on tawny asses, you who sit on rich carpets and you who walk by the way.

Jdg 5:11 To the sound of musicians at the watering places, there they repeat the triumphs of the LORD, the triumphs of his peasantry in Israel. "Then down to the gates marched the people of the LORD.

Jdg 5:12 "Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Arise, Barak, lead away your captives, O son of Abinoam.

Jdg 5:13 Then down marched the remnant of the noble; the people of the LORD marched down for him against the mighty.

Jdg 5:14 From Ephraim they set out thither into the valley, following you, Benjamin, with your kinsmen; from Machir marched down the commanders, and from Zebulun those who bear the marshal's staff;

Jdg 5:15 the princes of Issachar came with Deborah, and Issachar faithful to Barak; into the valley they rushed forth at his heels. Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

Jdg 5:16 Why did you tarry among the sheepfolds, to hear the piping for the flocks? Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

Jdg 5:17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan; and Dan, why did he abide with the ships? Asher sat still at the coast of the sea, settling down by his landings.

Jdg 5:18 Zebulun is a people that jeopardized their lives to the death; Naphtali too, on the heights of the field.

Jdg 5:19 "The kings came, they fought; then fought the kings of Canaan, at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; they got no spoils of silver.

Jdg 5:20 From heaven fought the stars, from their courses they fought against Sisera.

Jdg 5:21 The torrent Kishon swept them away, the onrushing torrent, the torrent Kishon. March on, my soul, with might!

Jdg 5:22 "Then loud beat the horses' hoofs with the galloping, galloping of his steeds.

Jdg 5:23 "Curse Meroz, says the angel of the LORD, curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

Jdg 5:24 "Most blessed of women be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, of tent-dwelling women most blessed.

Jdg 5:25 He asked water and she gave him milk, she brought him curds in a lordly bowl.

Jdg 5:26 She put her hand to the tent peg and her right hand to the workmen's mallet; she struck Sisera a blow, she crushed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple.

Jdg 5:27 He sank, he fell, he lay still at her feet; at her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell dead.

Jdg 5:28 "Out of the window she peered, the mother of Sisera gazed through the lattice: 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why tarry the hoofbeats of his chariots?'

Jdg 5:29 Her wisest ladies make answer, nay, she gives answer to herself,

Jdg 5:30 'Are they not finding and dividing the spoil? -- A maiden or two for every man; spoil of dyed stuffs for Sisera, spoil of dyed stuffs embroidered, two pieces of dyed work embroidered for my neck as spoil?'

Jdg 5:31 "So perish all thine enemies, O LORD! But thy friends be like the sun as he rises in his might." And the land had rest for forty years.

Jdg 6:1 The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian seven years.

Jdg 6:2 And the hand of Midian prevailed over Israel; and because of Midian the people of Israel made for themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves and the strongholds.

Jdg 6:3 For whenever the Israelites put in seed the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the East would come up and attack them;

Jdg 6:4 they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the land, as far as the neighborhood of Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel, and no sheep or ox or ass.

Jdg 6:5 For they would come up with their cattle and their tents, coming like locusts for number; both they and their camels could not be counted; so that they wasted the land as they came in.

Jdg 6:6 And Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the people of Israel cried for help to the LORD.

Jdg 6:7 When the people of Israel cried to the LORD on account of the Midianites,
Jdg 6:8 the LORD sent a prophet to the people of Israel; and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I led you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage;
Jdg 6:9 and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you, and gave you their land;
Jdg 6:10 and I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God; you shall not pay reverence to the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.' But you have not given heed to my voice."
Jdg 6:11 Now the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press, to hide it from the Midianites.
Jdg 6:12 And the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor."
Jdg 6:13 And Gideon said to him, "Pray, sir, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this befallen us? And where are all his wonderful deeds which our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has cast us off, and given us into the hand of Midian."
Jdg 6:14 And the LORD turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian; do not I send you?"
Jdg 6:15 And he said to him, "Pray, Lord, how can I deliver Israel? Behold, my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family."
Jdg 6:16 And the LORD said to him, "But I will be with you, and you shall smite the Midianites as one man."
Jdg 6:17 And he said to him, "If now I have found favor with thee, then show me a sign that it is thou who speakest with me.
Jdg 6:18 Do not depart from here, I pray thee, until I come to thee, and bring out my present, and set it before thee." And he said, "I will stay till you return."
Jdg 6:19 So Gideon went into his house and prepared a kid, and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour; the meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot, and brought them to him under the oak and presented them.
Jdg 6:20 And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock, and pour the broth over them." And he did so.
Jdg 6:21 Then the angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and there sprang up fire from the rock and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.
Jdg 6:22 Then Gideon perceived that he was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! For now I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."
Jdg 6:23 But the LORD said to him, "Peace be to you; do not fear, you shall not die."
Jdg 6:24 Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it, The LORD is peace. To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiezrites.
Jdg 6:25 That night the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull, the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal which your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it;
Jdg 6:26 and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of the stronghold here, with stones laid in due order; then take the second bull, and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down."
Jdg 6:27 So Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had told him; but because he was too afraid of his family and the men of the town to do it by day, he did it by night.
Jdg 6:28 When the men of the town rose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered upon the altar which had been built.
Jdg 6:29 And they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And after they had made search and inquired, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing."
Jdg 6:30 Then the men of the town said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has pulled down the altar of Baal and cut down the Asherah beside it."
Jdg 6:31 But Joash said to all who were arrayed against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you defend his cause? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because his altar has been pulled down."
Jdg 6:32 Therefore on that day he was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he pulled down his altar.
Jdg 6:33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the East came together, and crossing the Jordan they encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.
Jdg 6:34 But the Spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon; and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called out to follow him.
Jdg 6:35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; and they too were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali; and they went up to meet them.

Jdg 6:36 Then Gideon said to God, "If thou wilt deliver Israel by my hand, as thou hast said,

Jdg 6:37 behold, I am laying a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that thou wilt deliver Israel by my hand, as thou hast said."

Jdg 6:38 And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water.

Jdg 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, "Let not thy anger burn against me, let me speak but this once; pray, let me make trial only this once with the fleece; pray, let it be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew."

Jdg 6:40 And God did so that night; for it was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Jdg 7:1 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was north of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

Jdg 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, "The people with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, 'My own hand has delivered me.'

Jdg 7:3 Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return home.'" And Gideon tested them; twenty-two thousand returned, and ten thousand remained.

Jdg 7:4 And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; take them down to the water and I will test them for you there; and he of whom I say to you, 'This man shall go with you,' shall go with you; and any of whom I say to you, 'This man shall not go with you,' shall not go."

Jdg 7:5 So he brought the people down to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, "Every one that laps the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set by himself; likewise every one that kneels down to drink."

Jdg 7:6 And the number of those that lapped, putting their hands to their mouths, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people knelt down to drink water.

Jdg 7:7 And the LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men that lapped I will deliver you, and give the Midianites into your hand; and let all the others go every man to his home."

Jdg 7:8 So he took the jars of the people from their hands, and their trumpets; and he sent all the rest of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Jdg 7:9 That same night the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp; for I have given it into your hand.

Jdg 7:10 But if you fear to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant;

Jdg 7:11 and you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outposts of the armed men that were in the camp.

Jdg 7:12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the East lay along the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is upon the seashore for multitude.

Jdg 7:13 When Gideon came, behold, a man was telling a dream to his comrade; and he said, "Behold, I dreamed a dream; and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat."

Jdg 7:14 And his comrade answered, "This is no other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; into his hand God has given Midian and all the host."

Jdg 7:15 When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped; and he returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Arise; for the LORD has given the host of Midian into your hand."

Jdg 7:16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and put trumpets into the hands of all of them and empty jars, with torches inside the jars.

Jdg 7:17 And he said to them, "Look at me, and do likewise; when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do.

Jdg 7:18 When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

Jdg 7:19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands.

Jdg 7:20 And the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars, holding in their left hands the torches, and in their right hands the trumpets to blow; and they cried, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"

Jdg 7:21 They stood every man in his place round about the camp, and all the army ran; they cried out and fled.

Jdg 7:22 When they blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Bethshittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abelmeholah, by Tabbath.

Jdg 7:23 And the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali and from Asher and from all Manasseh, and they pursued after Midian.

Jdg 7:24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters against them, as far as Bethbarah, and also the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Bethbarah, and also the Jordan.

Jdg 7:25 And they took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the wine press of Zeeb, as they pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

Jdg 8:1 And the men of Ephraim said to him, "What is this that you have done to us, not to call us when you went to fight with Midian?" And they upbraided him violently.

Jdg 8:2 And he said to them, "What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?"

Jdg 8:3 God has given into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; what have I been able to do in comparison with you?" Then their anger against him was abated, when he had said this.

Jdg 8:4 And Gideon came to the Jordan and passed over, he and the three hundred men who were with him, faint yet pursuing.

Jdg 8:5 So he said to the men of Succoth, "Pray, give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

Jdg 8:6 And the officials of Succoth said, "Are Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?"

Jdg 8:7 And Gideon said, "Well then, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will flail your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."

Jdg 8:8 And from there he went up to Penuel, and spoke to them in the same way; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.

Jdg 8:9 And he said to the men of Penuel, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower."

Jdg 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East; for there had fallen a hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword.

Jdg 8:11 And Gideon went up by the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the army; for the army was off its guard.

Jdg 8:12 And Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued them and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and he threw all the army into a panic.

Jdg 8:13 Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.

Jdg 8:14 And he caught a young man of Succoth, and questioned him; and he wrote down for him the officials and elders of Succoth, seventy-seven men.

Jdg 8:15 And he came to the men of Succoth, and said, "Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are faint?'"

Jdg 8:16 And he took the elders of the city and he took thorns of the wilderness and briers and with them taunted the men of Succoth.

Jdg 8:17 And he broke down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

Jdg 8:18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "Where are the men whom you slew at Tabor?" They answered, "As you are, so were they, every one of them; they resembled the sons of a king."

Jdg 8:19 And he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother; as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not slay you."

Jdg 8:20 And he said to Jether his first-born, "Rise, and slay them." But the youth did not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

Jdg 8:21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise yourself, and fall upon us; for as the man is, so is his strength." And Gideon arose and slew Zebah and Zalmunna; and he took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.

Jdg 8:22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson also; for you have delivered us out of the hand of Midian."

Jdg 8:23 Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you."

Jdg 8:24 And Gideon said to them, "Let me make a request of you; give me every man of you the earrings of his spoil." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

Jdg 8:25 And they answered, "We will willingly give them." And they spread a garment, and every man cast in it the earrings of his spoil.

Jdg 8:26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold; besides the crescents and the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian, and besides the collars that were about the necks of their camels.

Jdg 8:27 And Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in his city, in Ophrah; and all Israel played the harlot after it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his family.

Jdg 8:28 So Midian was subdued before the people of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

Jdg 8:29 Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

Jdg 8:30 Now Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, for he had many wives.

Jdg 8:31 And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he called his name Abimelech.

Jdg 8:32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, at Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Jdg 8:33 As soon as Gideon died, the people of Israel turned again and played the harlot after the Baals, and made Baalberith their god.

Jdg 8:34 And the people of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side;

Jdg 8:35 and they did not show kindness to the family of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in return for all the good that he had done to Israel.

Jdg 9:1 Now Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's kinsmen and said to them and to the whole clan of his mother's family,

Jdg 9:2 "Say in the ears of all the citizens of Shechem, 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh."

Jdg 9:3 And his mother's kinsmen spoke all these words on his behalf in the ears of all the men of Shechem; and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

Jdg 9:4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baalberith with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows, who followed him.

Jdg 9:5 And he went to his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, upon one stone; but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself.

Jdg 9:6 And all the citizens of Shechem came together, and all Bethmillo, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar at Shechem.

Jdg 9:7 When it was told to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and cried aloud and said to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, that God may listen to you.

Jdg 9:8 The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.'

Jdg 9:9 But the olive tree said to them, 'Shall I leave my fatness, by which gods and men are honored, and go to sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:10 And the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come you, and reign over us.'

Jdg 9:11 But the fig tree said to them, 'Shall I leave my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:12 And the trees said to the vine, 'Come you, and reign over us.'

Jdg 9:13 But the vine said to them, 'Shall I leave my wine which cheers gods and men, and go to sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:14 Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'Come you, and reign over us.'

Jdg 9:15 And the bramble said to the trees, 'If in good faith you are anointing me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'

Jdg 9:16 "Now therefore, if you acted in good faith and honor when you made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as his deeds deserved --

Jdg 9:17 for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and rescued you from the hand of Midian;

Jdg 9:18 and you have risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the citizens of Shechem, because he is your kinsman --

Jdg 9:19 if you then have acted in good faith and honor with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you;

Jdg 9:20 but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the citizens of Shechem, and Bethmillo; and let fire come out from the citizens of Shechem, and from Bethmillo, and devour Abimelech."

Jdg 9:21 And Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

Jdg 9:22 Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

Jdg 9:23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech;

Jdg 9:24 that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, who slew them, and upon the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to slay his brothers.

Jdg 9:25 And the men of Shechem put men in ambush against him on the mountain tops, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abimelech.

Jdg 9:26 And Gaal the son of Ebed moved into Shechem with his kinsmen; and the men of Shechem put confidence in him.

Jdg 9:27 And they went out into the field, and gathered the grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank and reviled Abimelech.

Jdg 9:28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Did not the son of Jerubbaal and Zebul his officer serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem? Why then should we serve him?"

Jdg 9:29 Would that this people were under my hand! then I would remove Abimelech. I would say to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out."

Jdg 9:30 When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

Jdg 9:31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech at Arumah, saying, "Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his kinsmen have come to Shechem, and they are stirring up the city against you.

Jdg 9:32 Now therefore, go by night, you and the men that are with you, and lie in wait in the fields.

Jdg 9:33 Then in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the men that are with him come out against you, you may do to them as occasion offers."

Jdg 9:34 And Abimelech and all the men that were with him rose up by night, and laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

Jdg 9:35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city; and Abimelech and the men that were with him rose from the ambush.

Jdg 9:36 And when Gaal saw the men, he said to Zebul, "Look, men are coming down from the mountain tops!" And Zebul said to him, "You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

Jdg 9:37 Gaal spoke again and said, "Look, men are coming down from the center of the land, and one company is coming from the direction of the Diviners' Oak."

Jdg 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your mouth now, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Are not these the men whom you despised? Go out now and fight with them."

Jdg 9:39 And Gaal went out at the head of the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

Jdg 9:40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many fell wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.

Jdg 9:41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah; and Zebul drove out Gaal and his kinsmen, so that they could not live on at Shechem.

Jdg 9:42 On the following day the men went out into the fields. And Abimelech was told.

Jdg 9:43 He took his men and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the fields; and he looked and saw the men coming out of the city, and he rose against them and slew them.

Jdg 9:44 Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, while the two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and slew them.

Jdg 9:45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city, and killed the people that were in it; and he razed the city and sowed it with salt.

Jdg 9:46 When all the people of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the stronghold of the house of Elberith.

Jdg 9:47 Abimelech was told that all the people of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together.

Jdg 9:48 And Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the men that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bundle of brushwood, and took it up and laid it on his shoulder. And he said to the men that were with him, "What you have seen me do, make haste to do, as I have done."

Jdg 9:49 So every one of the people cut down his bundle and following Abimelech put it against the stronghold, and they set the stronghold on fire over them, so that all the people of the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

Jdg 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

Jdg 9:51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the people of the city fled to it, all the men and women, and shut themselves in; and they went to the roof of the tower.

Jdg 9:52 And Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

Jdg 9:53 And a certain woman threw an upper millstone upon Abimelech's head, and crushed his skull.

Jdg 9:54 Then he called hastily to the young man his armor-bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

Jdg 9:55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his home.

Jdg 9:56 Thus God requited the crime of Abimelech, which he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers;

Jdg 9:57 and God also made all the wickedness of the men of Shechem fall back upon their heads, and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

Jdg 10:1 After Abimelech there arose to deliver Israel Tola the son of Puah, son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he lived at Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 10:2 And he judged Israel twenty-three years. Then he died, and was buried at Shamir.

Jdg 10:3 After him arose Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years.

Jdg 10:4 And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty asses; and they had thirty cities, called Havvothjair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

Jdg 10:5 And Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.

Jdg 10:6 And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals and the Ashtaroth, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD, and did not serve him.

Jdg 10:7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites, Jdg 10:8 and they crushed and oppressed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the people of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

Jdg 10:9 And the Ammonites crossed the Jordan to fight also against Judah and against Benjamin and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sorely distressed.

Jdg 10:10 And the people of Israel cried to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against thee, because we have forsaken our God and have served the Baals."

Jdg 10:11 And the LORD said to the people of Israel, "Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the Ammonites and from the Philistines?"

Jdg 10:12 The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

Jdg 10:13 Yet you have forsaken me and served other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more.

Jdg 10:14 Go and cry to the gods whom you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress."

Jdg 10:15 And the people of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned; do to us whatever seems good to thee; only deliver us, we pray thee, this day."

Jdg 10:16 So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD; and he became indignant over the misery of Israel.

Jdg 10:17 Then the Ammonites were called to arms, and they encamped in Gilead; and the people of Israel came together, and they encamped at Mizpah.

Jdg 10:18 And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said one to another, "Who is the man that will begin to fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Jdg 11:1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior, but he was the son of a harlot. Gilead was the father of Jephthah.

Jdg 11:2 And Gilead's wife also bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they thrust Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall not inherit in our father's house; for you are the son of another woman."

Jdg 11:3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless fellows collected round Jephthah, and went raiding with him.

Jdg 11:4 After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel.

Jdg 11:5 And when the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob;

Jdg 11:6 and they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our leader, that we may fight with the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:7 But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and drive me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?"

Jdg 11:8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have turned to you now, that you may go with us and fight with the Ammonites, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Jdg 11:9 Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the Ammonites, and the LORD gives them over to me, I will be your head."

Jdg 11:10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be witness between us; we will surely do as you say."

Jdg 11:11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and leader over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.

Jdg 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites and said, "What have you against me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"

Jdg 11:13 And the king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel on coming from Egypt took away my land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; now therefore restore it peaceably."

Jdg 11:14 And Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the Ammonites

Jdg 11:15 and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the

Ammonites,

Jdg 11:16 but when they came up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.

Jdg 11:17 Israel then sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Let us pass, we pray, through your land'; but the king of Edom would not listen. And they sent also to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh.

Jdg 11:18 Then they journeyed through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and arrived on the east side of the land of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon; but they did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab.

Jdg 11:19 Israel then sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, 'Let us pass, we pray, through your land to our country.'

Jdg 11:20 But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

Jdg 11:21 And the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.

Jdg 11:22 And they took possession of all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

Jdg 11:23 So then the LORD, the God of Israel, dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel; and are you to take possession of them?

Jdg 11:24 Will you not possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? And all that the LORD our God has dispossessed before us, we will possess.

Jdg 11:25 Now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever go to war with them?

Jdg 11:26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

Jdg 11:27 I therefore have not sinned against you, and you do me wrong by making war on me; the LORD, the Judge, decide this day between the people of Israel and the people of Ammon."

Jdg 11:28 But the king of the Ammonites did not heed the message of Jephthah which he sent to him.

Jdg 11:29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites.

Jdg 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If thou wilt give the Ammonites into my hand, Jdg 11:31 then whoever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return victorious from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD's, and I will offer him up for a burnt offering."

Jdg 11:32 So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand.

Jdg 11:33 And he smote them from Aroer to the neighborhood of Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abelkeramim, with a very great slaughter. So the Ammonites were subdued before the people of Israel.

Jdg 11:34 Then Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah; and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances; she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

Jdg 11:35 And when he saw her, he rent his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! you have brought me very low, and you have become the cause of great trouble to me; for I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot take back my vow."

Jdg 11:36 And she said to him, "My father, if you have opened your mouth to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone forth from your mouth, now that the LORD has avenged you on your enemies, on the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:37 And she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me; let me alone two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions."

Jdg 11:38 And he said, "Go." And he sent her away for two months; and she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

Jdg 11:39 And at the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had made. She had never known a man. And it became a custom in Israel

Jdg 11:40 that the daughters of Israel went year by year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

Jdg 12:1 The men of Ephraim were called to arms, and they crossed to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire."

Jdg 12:2 And Jephthah said to them, "I and my people had a great feud with the Ammonites; and when I called you, you did not deliver me from their hand.

Jdg 12:3 And when I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hand, and crossed over against the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into my hand; why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?"

Jdg 12:4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, "You are fugitives of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim and Manasseh."

Jdg 12:5 And the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. And when any of the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me go over," the men of Gilead said to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" When he said, "No,"

Jdg 12:6 they said to him, "Then say Shibboleth," and he said, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right; then they seized him and slew him at the fords of the Jordan. And there fell at that time forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites.

Jdg 12:7 Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his city in Gilead.

Jdg 12:8 After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

Jdg 12:9 He had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he gave in marriage outside his clan, and thirty daughters he brought in from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

Jdg 12:10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

Jdg 12:11 After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years.

Jdg 12:12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

Jdg 12:13 After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

Jdg 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy asses; and he judged Israel eight years.

Jdg 12:15 Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Jdg 13:1 And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

Jdg 13:2 And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had no children.

Jdg 13:3 And the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Behold, you are barren and have no children; but you shall conceive and bear a son.

Jdg 13:4 Therefore beware, and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean,

Jdg 13:5 for lo, you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from birth; and he shall begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines."

Jdg 13:6 Then the woman came and told her husband, "A man of God came to me, and his countenance was like the countenance of the angel of God, very terrible; I did not ask him whence he was, and he did not tell me his name;

Jdg 13:7 but he said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son; so then drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from birth to the day of his death.'"

Jdg 13:8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, "O, LORD, I pray thee, let the man of God whom thou didst send come again to us, and teach us what we are to do with the boy that will be born."

Jdg 13:9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her.

Jdg 13:10 And the woman ran in haste and told her husband, "Behold, the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."

Jdg 13:11 And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to this woman?" And he said, "I am."

Jdg 13:12 And Manoah said, "Now when your words come true, what is to be the boy's manner of life, and what is he to do?"

Jdg 13:13 And the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her beware.

Jdg 13:14 She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing; all that I commanded her let her observe."

Jdg 13:15 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Pray, let us detain you, and prepare a kid for you."

Jdg 13:16 And the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "If you detain me, I will not eat of your food; but if you make ready a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD." (For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.)

Jdg 13:17 And Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, so that, when your words come true, we may honor you?"

Jdg 13:18 And the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask my name, seeing it is wonderful?"

Jdg 13:19 So Manoah took the kid with the cereal offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD, to him who works wonders.

Jdg 13:20 And when the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar while Manoah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.

Jdg 13:21 The angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD.

Jdg 13:22 And Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God."

Jdg 13:23 But his wife said to him, "If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and a cereal offering at our hands, or shown us all these things, or now announced to us such things as these."

Jdg 13:24 And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson; and the boy grew, and the LORD blessed him.

Jdg 13:25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahanehdan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Jdg 14:1 Samson went down to Timnah, and at Timnah he saw one of the daughters of the Philistines.

Jdg 14:2 Then he came up, and told his father and mother, "I saw one of the daughters of the Philistines at Timnah; now get her for me as my wife."

Jdg 14:3 But his father and mother said to him, "Is there not a woman among the daughters of your kinsmen, or among all our people, that you must go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me; for she pleases me well."

Jdg 14:4 His father and mother did not know that it was from the LORD; for he was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. At that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

Jdg 14:5 Then Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah, and he came to the vineyards of Timnah. And behold, a young lion roared against him;

Jdg 14:6 and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion asunder as one tears a kid; and he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

Jdg 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

Jdg 14:8 And after a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey.

Jdg 14:9 He scraped it out into his hands, and went on, eating as he went; and he came to his father and mother, and gave some to them, and they ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the carcass of the lion.

Jdg 14:10 And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there; for so the young men used to do.

Jdg 14:11 And when the people saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

Jdg 14:12 And Samson said to them, "Let me now put a riddle to you; if you can tell me what it is, within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments;

Jdg 14:13 but if you cannot tell me what it is, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments." And they said to him, "Put your riddle, that we may hear it."

Jdg 14:14 And he said to them, "Out of the eater came something to eat. Out of the strong came something sweet." And they could not in three days tell what the riddle was.

Jdg 14:15 On the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband to tell us what the riddle is, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us here to impoverish us?"

Jdg 14:16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, "You only hate me, you do not love me; you have put a riddle to my countrymen, and you have not told me what it is." And he said to her, "Behold, I have not told my father nor my mother, and shall I tell you?"

Jdg 14:17 She wept before him the seven days that their feast lasted; and on the seventh day he told her, because she pressed him hard. Then she told the riddle to her countrymen.

Jdg 14:18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?" And he said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle."

Jdg 14:19 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty men of the town, and took their spoil and gave the festal garments to those who had told the riddle. In hot anger he went back to his father's house.

Jdg 14:20 And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Jdg 15:1 After a while, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife with a kid; and he said, "I will go in to my wife in the chamber." But her father would not allow him to go in.

Jdg 15:2 And her father said, "I really thought that you utterly hated her; so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? Pray take her instead."

Jdg 15:3 And Samson said to them, "This time I shall be blameless in regard to the Philistines, when I do them mischief."

Jdg 15:4 So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches; and he turned them tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.

Jdg 15:5 And when he had set fire to the torches, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the olive orchards.

Jdg 15:6 Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion." And the Philistines came up, and burned her and her father with fire.

Jdg 15:7 And Samson said to them, "If this is what you do, I swear I will be avenged upon you, and after that I will quit."

Jdg 15:8 And he smote them hip and thigh with great slaughter; and he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

Jdg 15:9 Then the Philistines came up and encamped in Judah, and made a raid on Lehi.

Jdg 15:10 And the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he did to us."

Jdg 15:11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?" And he said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

Jdg 15:12 And they said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines." And Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not fall upon me yourselves."

Jdg 15:13 They said to him, "No; we will only bind you and give you into their hands; we will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

Jdg 15:14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the ropes which were on his arms became as flax that has caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.

Jdg 15:15 And he found a fresh jawbone of an ass, and put out his hand and seized it, and with it he slew a thousand men.

Jdg 15:16 And Samson said, "With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jawbone of an ass have I slain a thousand men."

Jdg 15:17 When he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ramathlehi.

Jdg 15:18 And he was very thirsty, and he called on the LORD and said, "Thou hast granted this great deliverance by the hand of thy servant; and shall I now die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"

Jdg 15:19 And God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and there came water from it; and when he drank, his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore the name of it was called Enhakkore; it is at Lehi to this day.

Jdg 15:20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Jdg 16:1 Samson went to Gaza, and there he saw a harlot, and he went in to her.

Jdg 16:2 The Gazites were told, "Samson has come here," and they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They kept quiet all night, saying, "Let us wait till the light of the morning; then we will kill him."

Jdg 16:3 But Samson lay till midnight, and at midnight he arose and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two posts, and pulled them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that is before Hebron.

Jdg 16:4 After this he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

Jdg 16:5 And the lords of the Philistines came to her and said to her, "Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to subdue him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

Jdg 16:6 And Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me wherein your great strength lies, and how you might be bound, that one could subdue you."

Jdg 16:7 And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings which have not been dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

Jdg 16:8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

Jdg 16:9 Now she had men lying in wait in an inner chamber. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he snapped the bowstrings, as a string of tow snaps when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

Jdg 16:10 And Delilah said to Samson, "Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies; please tell me how you might be bound."

Jdg 16:11 And he said to her, "If they bind me with new ropes that have not been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

Jdg 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And the men lying in wait were in an inner chamber. But he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

Jdg 16:13 And Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me, and told me lies; tell me how you might be bound." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and make it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

Jdg 16:14 So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web. And she made them tight with the pin, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.

Jdg 16:15 And she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and you have not told me wherein your great strength lies."

Jdg 16:16 And when she pressed him hard with her words day after day, and urged him, his soul was vexed to death.

Jdg 16:17 And he told her all his mind, and said to her, "A razor has never come upon my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I be shaved, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

Jdg 16:18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all his mind, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this once, for he has told me all his mind." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hands.

Jdg 16:19 She made him sleep upon her knees; and she called a man, and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him, and his strength left him.

Jdg 16:20 And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And he awoke from his sleep, and said, "I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free." And he did not know that the LORD had left him.

Jdg 16:21 And the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with bronze fetters; and he ground at the mill in the prison.

Jdg 16:22 But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

Jdg 16:23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand."

Jdg 16:24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our country, who has slain many of us."

Jdg 16:25 And when their hearts were merry, they said, "Call Samson, that he may make sport for us." So they called Samson out of the prison, and he made sport before them. They made him stand between the pillars;

Jdg 16:26 and Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them."

Jdg 16:27 Now the house was full of men and women; all the lords of the Philistines were there, and on the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who looked on while Samson made sport.

Jdg 16:28 Then Samson called to the LORD and said, "O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be avenged upon the Philistines for one of my two eyes."

Jdg 16:29 And Samson grasped the two middle pillars upon which the house rested, and he leaned his weight upon them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other.

Jdg 16:30 And Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines." Then he bowed with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords and upon all the people that were in it. So the dead whom he slew at his death were more than those whom he had slain during his life.

Jdg 16:31 Then his brothers and all his family came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Jdg 17:1 There was a man of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

Jdg 17:2 And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver which were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and also spoke it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it." And his mother said, "Blessed be my son by the LORD."

Jdg 17:3 And he restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, "I consecrate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image; now therefore I will restore it to you."

Jdg 17:4 So when he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into a graven image and a molten image; and it was in the house of Micah.

Jdg 17:5 And the man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and teraphim, and installed one of his sons, who became his priest.

Jdg 17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

Jdg 17:7 Now there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he journeyed there.

Jdg 17:8 And the man departed from the town of Bethlehem in Judah, to live where he could find a place; and as he journeyed, he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah.

Jdg 17:9 And Micah said to him, "From where do you come?" And he said to him, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to sojourn where I may find a place."

Jdg 17:10 And Micah said to him, "Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, and a suit of apparel, and your living."

Jdg 17:11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

Jdg 17:12 And Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

Jdg 17:13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, because I have a Levite as priest."

Jdg 18:1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself an inheritance to dwell in; for until then no inheritance among the tribes of Israel had fallen to them.

Jdg 18:2 So the Danites sent five able men from the whole number of their tribe, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it; and they said to them, "Go and explore the land." And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

Jdg 18:3 When they were by the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite; and they turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?"

Jdg 18:4 And he said to them, "Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me: he has hired me, and I have become his priest."

Jdg 18:5 And they said to him, "Inquire of God, we pray thee, that we may know whether the journey on which we are setting out will succeed."

Jdg 18:6 And the priest said to them, "Go in peace. The journey on which you go is under the eye of the LORD."

Jdg 18:7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were there, how they dwelt in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting, lacking nothing that is in the earth, and possessing wealth, and how they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with any one.

Jdg 18:8 And when they came to their brethren at Zorah and Eshtaol, their brethren said to them, "What do you report?"

Jdg 18:9 They said, "Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very fertile. And will you do nothing? Do not be slow to go, and enter in and possess the land.

Jdg 18:10 When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people. The land is broad; yea, God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is in the earth."

Jdg 18:11 And six hundred men of the tribe of Dan, armed with weapons of war, set forth from Zorah and Eshtaol,

Jdg 18:12 and went up and encamped at Kiriathjearim in Judah. On this account that place is called Mahanehdan to this day; behold, it is west of Kiriathjearim.

Jdg 18:13 And they passed on from there to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

Jdg 18:14 Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish said to their brethren, "Do you know that in these houses there are an ephod, teraphim, a graven image, and a molten image? Now therefore consider what you will do."

Jdg 18:15 And they turned aside thither, and came to the house of the young Levite, at the home of Micah, and asked him of his welfare.

Jdg 18:16 Now the six hundred men of the Danites, armed with their weapons of war, stood by the entrance of the gate;

Jdg 18:17 and the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up, and entered and took the graven image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image, while the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

Jdg 18:18 And when these went into Micah's house and took the graven image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

Jdg 18:19 And they said to him, "Keep quiet, put your hand upon your mouth, and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and family in Israel?"

Jdg 18:20 And the priest's heart was glad; he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

Jdg 18:21 So they turned and departed, putting the little ones and the cattle and the goods in front of them.

Jdg 18:22 When they were a good way from the home of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house were called out, and they overtook the Danites.

Jdg 18:23 And they shouted to the Danites, who turned round and said to Micah, "What ails you that you come with such a company?"

Jdg 18:24 And he said, "You take my gods which I made, and the priest, and go away, and what have I left? How then do you ask me, 'What ails you?'"

Jdg 18:25 And the Danites said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall upon you, and you lose your life with the lives of your household."

Jdg 18:26 Then the Danites went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his home.

Jdg 18:27 And taking what Micah had made, and the priest who belonged to him, the Danites came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and burned the city with fire.

Jdg 18:28 And there was no deliverer because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any one. It was in the valley which belongs to Bethrehob. And they rebuilt the city, and dwelt in it.

Jdg 18:29 And they named the city Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor, who was born to Israel; but the name of the city was Laish at the first.

Jdg 18:30 And the Danites set up the graven image for themselves; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.

Jdg 18:31 So they set up Micah's graven image which he made, as long as the house of God was at Shiloh.

Jdg 19:1 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite was sojourning in the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, who took to himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Jdg 19:2 And his concubine became angry with him, and she went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there some four months.

Jdg 19:3 Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a couple of asses. And he came to her father's house; and when the girl's father saw him, he came with joy to meet him.

Jdg 19:4 And his father-in-law, the girl's father, made him stay, and he remained with him three days; so they ate and drank, and lodged there.

Jdg 19:5 And on the fourth day they arose early in the morning, and he prepared to go; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and after that you may go."

Jdg 19:6 So the two men sat and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Be pleased to spend the night, and let your heart be merry."

Jdg 19:7 And when the man rose up to go, his father-in-law urged him, till he lodged there again.

Jdg 19:8 And on the fifth day he arose early in the morning to depart; and the girl's father said, "Strengthen your heart, and tarry until the day declines." So they ate, both of them.

Jdg 19:9 And when the man and his concubine and his servant rose up to depart, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold, now the day has waned toward evening; pray tarry all night. Behold, the day draws to its close; lodge here and let your heart be merry; and tomorrow you shall arise early in the morning for your journey, and go home."

Jdg 19:10 But the man would not spend the night; he rose up and departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him a couple of saddled asses, and his concubine was with him.

Jdg 19:11 When they were near Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said to his master, "Come now, let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites, and spend the night in it."

Jdg 19:12 And his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel; but we will pass on to Gibeah."

Jdg 19:13 And he said to his servant, "Come and let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night at Gibeah or at Ramah."

Jdg 19:14 So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin,

Jdg 19:15 and they turned aside there, to go in and spend the night at Gibeah. And he went in and sat down in the open square of the city; for no man took them into his house to spend the night.

Jdg 19:16 And behold, an old man was coming from his work in the field at evening; the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was sojourning in Gibeah; the men of the place were Benjaminites.

Jdg 19:17 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the wayfarer in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going? and whence do you come?"

Jdg 19:18 And he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, from which I come. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; and I am going to my home; and nobody takes me into his house.

Jdg 19:19 We have straw and provender for our asses, with bread and wine for me and your maidservant and the young man with your servants; there is no lack of anything."

Jdg 19:20 And the old man said, "Peace be to you; I will care for all your wants; only, do not spend the night in the square."

Jdg 19:21 So he brought him into his house, and gave the asses provender; and they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Jdg 19:22 As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, base fellows, beset the house round about, beating on the door; and they said to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may know him."

Jdg 19:23 And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brethren, do not act so wickedly; seeing that this man has come into my house, do not do this vile thing.

Jdg 19:24 Behold, here are my virgin daughter and his concubine; let me bring them out now. Ravish them and do with them what seems good to you; but against this man do not do so vile a thing."

Jdg 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine, and put her out to them; and they knew her, and abused her all night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go.

Jdg 19:26 And as morning appeared, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

Jdg 19:27 And her master rose up in the morning, and when he opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, behold, there was his concubine lying at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

Jdg 19:28 He said to her, "Get up, let us be going." But there was no answer. Then he put her upon the ass; and the man rose up and went away to his home.

Jdg 19:29 And when he entered his house, he took a knife, and laying hold of his concubine he divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

Jdg 19:30 And all who saw it said, "Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day that the people of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day; consider it, take counsel, and speak."

Jdg 20:1 Then all the people of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, and the congregation assembled as one man to the LORD at Mizpah.

Jdg 20:2 And the chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand men on foot that drew the sword.

Jdg 20:3 (Now the Benjaminites heard that the people of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the people of Israel said, "Tell us, how was this wickedness brought to pass?"

Jdg 20:4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "I came to Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night.

Jdg 20:5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about me by night; they meant to kill me, and they ravished my concubine, and she is dead.

Jdg 20:6 And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed abomination and wantonness in Israel.

Jdg 20:7 Behold, you people of Israel, all of you, give your advice and counsel here."

Jdg 20:8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, "We will not any of us go to his tent, and none of us will return to his house.

Jdg 20:9 But now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot,

Jdg 20:10 and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to bring provisions for the people, that when they come they may requite Gibeah of Benjamin, for all the wanton crime which they have committed in Israel."

Jdg 20:11 So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one man.

Jdg 20:12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What wickedness is this that has taken place among you?

Jdg 20:13 Now therefore give up the men, the base fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the people of Israel.

Jdg 20:14 And the Benjaminites came together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the people of Israel.

Jdg 20:15 And the Benjaminites mustered out of their cities on that day twenty-six thousand men that drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who mustered seven hundred picked men.

Jdg 20:16 Among all these were seven hundred picked men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair, and not miss.

Jdg 20:17 And the men of Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand men that drew sword; all these were men of war.

Jdg 20:18 The people of Israel arose and went up to Bethel, and inquired of God, "Which of us shall go up first to battle against the Benjaminites?" And the LORD said, "Judah shall go up first."

Jdg 20:19 Then the people of Israel rose in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

Jdg 20:20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel drew up the battle line against them at Gibeah.

Jdg 20:21 The Benjaminites came out of Gibeah, and felled to the ground on that day twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites.

Jdg 20:22 But the people, the men of Israel, took courage, and again formed the battle line in the same place where they had formed it on the first day.

Jdg 20:23 And the people of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until the evening; and they inquired of the LORD, "Shall we again draw near to battle against our brethren the Benjaminites?" And the LORD said, "Go up against them."

Jdg 20:24 So the people of Israel came near against the Benjaminites the second day.

Jdg 20:25 And Benjamin went against them out of Gibeah the second day, and felled to the ground eighteen thousand men of the people of Israel; all these were men who drew the sword.

Jdg 20:26 Then all the people of Israel, the whole army, went up and came to Bethel and wept; they sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

Jdg 20:27 And the people of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, Jdg 20:28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, "Shall we yet again go out to battle against our brethren the Benjaminites, or shall we cease?" And the LORD said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will give them into your hand."

Jdg 20:29 So Israel set men in ambush round about Gibeah.

Jdg 20:30 And the people of Israel went up against the Benjaminites on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

Jdg 20:31 And the Benjaminites went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and as at other times they began to smite and kill some of the people, in the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, and in the open country, about thirty men of Israel.

Jdg 20:32 And the Benjaminites said, "They are routed before us, as at the first." But the men of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways."

Jdg 20:33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baaltamar; and the men of Israel who were in ambush rushed out of their place west of Geba.

Jdg 20:34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand picked men out of all Israel, and the battle was hard; but the Benjaminites did not know that disaster was close upon them.

Jdg 20:35 And the LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel; and the men of Israel destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day; all these were men who drew the sword.

Jdg 20:36 So the Benjaminites saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted to the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.

Jdg 20:37 And the men in ambush made haste and rushed upon Gibeah; the men in ambush moved out and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

Jdg 20:38 Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that when they made a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city

Jdg 20:39 the men of Israel should turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to smite and kill about thirty men of Israel; they said, "Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle."

Jdg 20:40 But when the signal began to rise out of the city in a column of smoke, the Benjaminites looked behind them; and behold, the whole of the city went up in smoke to heaven.

Jdg 20:41 Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed, for they saw that disaster was close upon them.

Jdg 20:42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them.

Jdg 20:43 Cutting down the Benjaminites, they pursued them and trod them down from Nohah as far as opposite Gibeah on the east.

Jdg 20:44 Eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell, all of them men of valor.

Jdg 20:45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; five thousand men of them were cut down in the highways, and they were pursued hard to Gidom, and two thousand men of them were slain.

Jdg 20:46 So all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men that drew the sword, all of them men of valor.

Jdg 20:47 But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and abode at the rock of Rimmon four months.

Jdg 20:48 And the men of Israel turned back against the Benjaminites, and smote them with the edge of the sword, men and beasts and all that they found. And all the towns which they found they set on fire.

Jdg 21:1 Now the men of Israel had sworn at Mizpah, "No one of us shall give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin."

Jdg 21:2 And the people came to Bethel, and sat there till evening before God, and they lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.

Jdg 21:3 And they said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel?"

Jdg 21:4 And on the morrow the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

Jdg 21:5 And the people of Israel said, "Which of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For they had taken a great oath concerning him who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "He shall be put to death."

Jdg 21:6 And the people of Israel had compassion for Benjamin their brother, and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel this day.

Jdg 21:7 What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters for wives?"

Jdg 21:8 And they said, "What one is there of the tribes of Israel that did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah?" And behold, no one had come to the camp from Jabeshgilead, to the assembly.

Jdg 21:9 For when the people were mustered, behold, not one of the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead was there.

Jdg 21:10 So the congregation sent thither twelve thousand of their bravest men, and commanded them, "Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead with the edge of the sword; also the women and the little ones.

Jdg 21:11 This is what you shall do; every male and every woman that has lain with a male you shall utterly destroy."

Jdg 21:12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead four hundred young virgins who had not known man by lying with him; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

Jdg 21:13 Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjaminites who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

Jdg 21:14 And Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabeshgilead; but they did not suffice for them.

Jdg 21:15 And the people had compassion on Benjamin because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 21:16 Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?"

Jdg 21:17 And they said, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe be not blotted out from Israel.

Jdg 21:18 Yet we cannot give them wives of our daughters." For the people of Israel had sworn, "Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin."

Jdg 21:19 So they said, "Behold, there is the yearly feast of the LORD at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."

Jdg 21:20 And they commanded the Benjaminites, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,

Jdg 21:21 and watch; if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards and seize each man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

Jdg 21:22 And when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, 'Grant them graciously to us; because we did not take for each man of them his wife in battle, neither did you give them to them, else you would now be guilty.'"

Jdg 21:23 And the Benjaminites did so, and took their wives, according to their number, from the dancers whom they carried off; then they went and returned to their inheritance, and rebuilt the towns, and dwelt in them.

Jdg 21:24 And the people of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.

Jdg 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

Rut 1:1 In the days when the judges ruled there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

Rut 1:2 The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.

Rut 1:3 But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons.

Rut 1:4 These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. They lived there about ten years;

Rut 1:5 and both Mahlon and Chilion died, so that the woman was bereft of her two sons and her husband.

Rut 1:6 Then she started with her daughters-in-law to return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had visited his people and given them food.

Rut 1:7 So she set out from the place where she was, with her two daughters-in-law, and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

Rut 1:8 But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

Rut 1:9 The LORD grant that you may find a home, each of you in the house of her husband!" Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

Rut 1:10 And they said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people."

Rut 1:11 But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Have I yet sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?"

Rut 1:12 Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, even if I should have a husband this night and should bear sons,

Rut 1:13 would you therefore wait till they were grown? Would you therefore refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, for it is exceedingly bitter to me for your sake that the hand of the LORD has gone forth against me."

Rut 1:14 Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

Rut 1:15 And she said, "See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."

Rut 1:16 But Ruth said, "Entreat me not to leave you or to return from following you; for where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God;

Rut 1:17 where you die I will die, and there will I be buried. May the LORD do so to me and more also if even death parts me from you."

Rut 1:18 And when Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more.

Rut 1:19 So the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. And when they came to Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them; and the women said, "Is this Naomi?"

Rut 1:20 She said to them, "Do not call me Naomi, call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

Rut 1:21 I went away full, and the LORD has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi, when the LORD has afflicted me and the Almighty has brought calamity upon me?"

Rut 1:22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the country of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

Rut 2:1 Now Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz.

Rut 2:2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Let me go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

Rut 2:3 So she set forth and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

Rut 2:4 And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem; and he said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you!" And they answered, "The LORD bless you."

Rut 2:5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose maiden is this?"

Rut 2:6 And the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered, "It is the Moabite maiden, who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.

Rut 2:7 She said, 'Pray, let me glean and gather among the sheaves after the reapers.' So she came, and she has continued from early morning until now, without resting even for a moment."

Rut 2:8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now, listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my maidens.

Rut 2:9 Let your eyes be upon the field which they are reaping, and go after them. Have I not charged the young men not to molest you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink what the young men have drawn."

Rut 2:10 Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?"

Rut 2:11 But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before.

Rut 2:12 The LORD recompense you for what you have done, and a full reward be given you by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge!"

Rut 2:13 Then she said, "You are most gracious to me, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not one of your maidservants."

Rut 2:14 And at mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come here, and eat some bread, and dip your morsel in the wine." So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed to her parched grain; and she ate until she was satisfied, and she had some left over.

Rut 2:15 When she rose to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.

Rut 2:16 And also pull out some from the bundles for her, and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her."

Rut 2:17 So she gleaned in the field until evening; then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

Rut 2:18 And she took it up and went into the city; she showed her mother-in-law what she had gleaned, and she also brought out and gave her what food she had left over after being satisfied.

Rut 2:19 And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."

Rut 2:20 And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he by the LORD, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!" Naomi also said to her, "The man is a relative of ours, one of our nearest kin."

Rut 2:21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, "Besides, he said to me, `You shall keep close by my servants, till they have finished all my harvest."

Rut 2:22 And Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, "It is well, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, lest in another field you be molested."

Rut 2:23 So she kept close to the maidens of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Rut 3:1 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, should I not seek a home for you, that it may be well with you?"

Rut 3:2 Now is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.

Rut 3:3 Wash therefore and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

Rut 3:4 But when he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do."

Rut 3:5 And she replied, "All that you say I will do."

Rut 3:6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother-in-law had told her.

Rut 3:7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and lay down.

Rut 3:8 At midnight the man was startled, and turned over, and behold, a woman lay at his feet!

Rut 3:9 He said, "Who are you?" And she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant; spread your skirt over your maidservant, for you are next of kin."

Rut 3:10 And he said, "May you be blessed by the LORD, my daughter; you have made this last kindness greater than the first, in that you have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich.

Rut 3:11 And now, my daughter, do not fear, I will do for you all that you ask, for all my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of worth.

Rut 3:12 And now it is true that I am a near kinsman, yet there is a kinsman nearer than I.

Rut 3:13 Remain this night, and in the morning, if he will do the part of the next of kin for you, well; let him do it; but if he is not willing to do the part of the next of kin for you, then, as the LORD lives, I will do the part of the next of kin for you. Lie down until the morning."

Rut 3:14 So she lay at his feet until the morning, but arose before one could recognize another; and he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

Rut 3:15 And he said, "Bring the mantle you are wearing and hold it out." So she held it, and he measured out six measures of barley, and laid it upon her; then she went into the city.

Rut 3:16 And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How did you fare, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her,

Rut 3:17 saying, "These six measures of barley he gave to me, for he said, `You must not go back empty-handed to your mother-in-law."

Rut 3:18 She replied, "Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest, but will settle the matter today."

Rut 4:1 And Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, the next of kin, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by. So Boaz said, "Turn aside, friend; sit down here"; and he turned aside and sat down.

Rut 4:2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here"; so they sat down.

Rut 4:3 Then he said to the next of kin, "Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land which belonged to our kinsman Elimelech.

Rut 4:4 So I thought I would tell you of it, and say, Buy it in the presence of those sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not, tell me, that I may know, for there is no one besides you to redeem it, and I come after you." And he said, "I will redeem it."

Rut 4:5 Then Boaz said, "The day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you are also buying Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the dead, in order to restore the name of the dead to his inheritance."

Rut 4:6 Then the next of kin said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I impair my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption yourself, for I cannot redeem it."

Rut 4:7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging: to confirm a transaction, the one drew off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was the manner of attesting in Israel.

Rut 4:8 So when the next of kin said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself," he drew off his sandal.

Rut 4:9 Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses this day that I have bought from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and to Mahlon.

Rut 4:10 Also Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have bought to be my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from the gate of his native place; you are witnesses this day."

Rut 4:11 Then all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman, who is coming into your house, like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you prosper in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem;

Rut 4:12 and may your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the children that the LORD will give you by this young woman."

Rut 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son.

Rut 4:14 Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next of kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel!

Rut 4:15 He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him."

Rut 4:16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse.

Rut 4:17 And the women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." They named him Obed; he was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Rut 4:18 Now these are the descendants of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron,

Rut 4:19 Hezron of Ram, Ram of Amminadab,

Rut 4:20 Amminadab of Nahshon, Nahshon of Salmon,

Rut 4:21 Salmon of Boaz, Boaz of Obed,

Rut 4:22 Obed of Jesse, and Jesse of David.

1Sa 1:1 There was a certain man of Ramathaimzophim of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1Sa 1:2 He had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

1Sa 1:3 Now this man used to go up year by year from his city to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the LORD.

1Sa 1:4 On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters;

1Sa 1:5 and, although he loved Hannah, he would give Hannah only one portion, because the LORD had closed her womb.

1Sa 1:6 And her rival used to provoke her sorely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.

1Sa 1:7 So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat.

1Sa 1:8 And Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?"

1Sa 1:9 After they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh, Hannah rose. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD.

1Sa 1:10 She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly.

1Sa 1:11 And she vowed a vow and said, "O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy maidservant, and remember me, and not forget thy maidservant, but wilt give to thy maidservant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head."

1Sa 1:12 As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.

1Sa 1:13 Hannah was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved, and her voice was not heard; therefore Eli took her to be a drunken woman.

1Sa 1:14 And Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunken? Put away your wine from you."

1Sa 1:15 But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman sorely troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD.

1Sa 1:16 Do not regard your maidservant as a base woman, for all along I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation."

1Sa 1:17 Then Eli answered, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition which you have made to him."

1Sa 1:18 And she said, "Let your maidservant find favor in your eyes." Then the woman went her way and ate, and her countenance was no longer sad.

1Sa 1:19 They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her;

1Sa 1:20 and in due time Hannah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD."

1Sa 1:21 And the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and to pay his vow.

1Sa 1:22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, that he may appear in the presence of the LORD, and abide there for ever."

1Sa 1:23 Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you, wait until you have weaned him; only, may the LORD establish his word." So the woman remained and nursed her son, until she weaned him.

1Sa 1:24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine; and she brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh; and the child was young.

1Sa 1:25 Then they slew the bull, and they brought the child to Eli.

1Sa 1:26 And she said, "Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence, praying to the LORD.

1Sa 1:27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD has granted me my petition which I made to him.

1Sa 1:28 Therefore I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD." And they worshiped the LORD there.

1Sa 2:1 Hannah also prayed and said, "My heart exults in the LORD; my strength is exalted in the LORD. My mouth derides my enemies, because I rejoice in thy salvation.

1Sa 2:2 "There is none holy like the LORD, there is none besides thee; there is no rock like our God.

1Sa 2:3 Talk no more so very proudly, let not arrogance come from your mouth; for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

1Sa 2:4 The bows of the mighty are broken, but the feeble gird on strength.

1Sa 2:5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry have ceased to hunger. The barren has borne seven, but she who has many children is forlorn.

1Sa 2:6 The LORD kills and brings to life; he brings down to Sheol and raises up.

1Sa 2:7 The LORD makes poor and makes rich; he brings low, he also exalts.

1Sa 2:8 He raises up the poor from the dust; he lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor. For the pillars of the earth are the LORDS, and on them he has set the world.

1Sa 2:9 "He will guard the feet of his faithful ones; but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness; for not by might shall a man prevail.

1Sa 2:10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; against them he will thunder in heaven. The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; he will give strength to his king, and exalt the power of his anointed."

1Sa 2:11 Then Elkanah went home to Ramah. And the boy ministered to the LORD, in the presence of Eli the priest.

1Sa 2:12 Now the sons of Eli were worthless men; they had no regard for the LORD.

1Sa 2:13 The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand,

1Sa 2:14 and he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. So they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

1Sa 2:15 Moreover, before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give meat for the priest to roast; for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but raw."

1Sa 2:16 And if the man said to him, "Let them burn the fat first, and then take as much as you wish," he would say, "No, you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force."

1Sa 2:17 Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD; for the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt.

1Sa 2:18 Samuel was ministering before the LORD, a boy girded with a linen ephod.

1Sa 2:19 And his mother used to make for him a little robe and take it to him each year, when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

1Sa 2:20 Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, "The LORD give you children by this woman for the loan which she lent to the LORD"; so then they would return to their home.

1Sa 2:21 And the LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew in the presence of the LORD.

1Sa 2:22 Now Eli was very old, and he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

1Sa 2:23 And he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people.

1Sa 2:24 No, my sons; it is no good report that I hear the people of the LORD spreading abroad.

1Sa 2:25 If a man sins against a man, God will mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father; for it was the will of the LORD to slay them.

1Sa 2:26 Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.

1Sa 2:27 And there came a man of God to Eli, and said to him, "Thus the LORD has said, 'I revealed myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt subject to the house of Pharaoh.

1Sa 2:28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me; and I gave to the house of your father all my offerings by fire from the people of Israel.

1Sa 2:29 Why then look with greedy eye at my sacrifices and my offerings which I commanded, and honor your sons above me by fattening yourselves upon the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?"

1Sa 2:30 Therefore the LORD the God of Israel declares: 'I promised that your house and the house of your father should go in and out before me for ever'; but now the LORD declares: 'Far be it from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

1Sa 2:31 Behold, the days are coming, when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.

1Sa 2:32 Then in distress you will look with envious eye on all the prosperity which shall be bestowed upon Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house for ever.

1Sa 2:33 The man of you whom I shall not cut off from my altar shall be spared to weep out his eyes and grieve his heart; and all the increase of your house shall die by the sword of men.

1Sa 2:34 And this which shall befall your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, shall be the sign to you: both of them shall die on the same day.

1Sa 2:35 And I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind; and I will build him a sure house, and he shall go in and out before my anointed for ever.

1Sa 2:36 And every one who is left in your house shall come to implore him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread, and shall say, "Put me, I pray you, in one of the priest's places, that I may eat a morsel of bread.""

1Sa 3:1 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision.

1Sa 3:2 At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see, was lying down in his own place;

1Sa 3:3 the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down within the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was.

1Sa 3:4 Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!"

1Sa 3:5 and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down.

1Sa 3:6 And the LORD called again, "Samuel!" And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again."

1Sa 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

1Sa 3:8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy.

1Sa 3:9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for thy servant hears.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

1Sa 3:10 And the LORD came and stood forth, calling as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for thy servant hears."

1Sa 3:11 Then the LORD said to Samuel, "Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel, at which the two ears of every one that hears it will tingle.

1Sa 3:12 On that day I will fulfil against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

1Sa 3:13 And I tell him that I am about to punish his house for ever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them.

1Sa 3:14 Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering for ever."

1Sa 3:15 Samuel lay until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

1Sa 3:16 But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." And he said, "Here I am."

1Sa 3:17 And Eli said, "What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you."

1Sa 3:18 So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."

1Sa 3:19 And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.

1Sa 3:20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established as a prophet of the LORD.

1Sa 3:21 And the LORD appeared again at Shiloh, for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

1Sa 4:1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines; they encamped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines encamped at Aphek.

1Sa 4:2 The Philistines drew up in line against Israel, and when the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who slew about four thousand men on the field of battle.

1Sa 4:3 And when the troops came to the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD put us to rout today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD here from Shiloh, that he may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies."

1Sa 4:4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned on the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

1Sa 4:5 When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel gave a mighty shout, so that the earth resounded.

1Sa 4:6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they said, "What does this great shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" And when they learned that the ark of the LORD had come to the camp, 1Sa 4:7 the Philistines were afraid; for they said, "A god has come into the camp." And they said, "Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before.

1Sa 4:8 Woe to us! Who can deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote the Egyptians with every sort of plague in the wilderness.

1Sa 4:9 Take courage, and acquit yourselves like men, O Philistines, lest you become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been to you; acquit yourselves like men and fight."

1Sa 4:10 So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and they fled, every man to his home; and there was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.

1Sa 4:11 And the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

1Sa 4:12 A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent and with earth upon his head.

1Sa 4:13 When he arrived, Eli was sitting upon his seat by the road watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told the news, all the city cried out.

1Sa 4:14 When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he said, "What is this uproar?" Then the man hastened and came and told Eli.

1Sa 4:15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.

1Sa 4:16 And the man said to Eli, "I am he who has come from the battle; I fled from the battle today." And he said, "How did it go, my son?"

1Sa 4:17 He who brought the tidings answered and said, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has also been a great slaughter among the people; your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured."

1Sa 4:18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.

1Sa 4:19 Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was with child, about to give birth. And when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed and gave birth; for her pains came upon her.

1Sa 4:20 And about the time of her death the women attending her said to her, "Fear not, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer or give heed.

1Sa 4:21 And she named the child Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

1Sa 4:22 And she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."

1Sa 5:1 When the Philistines captured the ark of God, they carried it from Ebenezer to Ashdod;

1Sa 5:2 then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon and set it up beside Dagon.

1Sa 5:3 And when the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen face downward on the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and put him back in his place.

1Sa 5:4 But when they rose early on the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen face downward on the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and both his hands were lying cut off upon the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him.

1Sa 5:5 This is why the priests of Dagon and all who enter the house of Dagon do not tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

1Sa 5:6 The hand of the LORD was heavy upon the people of Ashdod, and he terrified and afflicted them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territory.

1Sa 5:7 And when the men of Ashdod saw how things were, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us; for his hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god."

1Sa 5:8 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." So they brought the ark of the God of Israel there.

1Sa 5:9 But after they had brought it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing a very great panic, and he afflicted the men of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out upon them.

1Sa 5:10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. But when the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "They have brought around to us the ark of the God of Israel to slay us and our people."

1Sa 5:11 They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not slay us and our people." For there was a deathly panic throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there;

1Sa 5:12 the men who did not die were stricken with tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1Sa 6:1 The ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

1Sa 6:2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us with what we shall send it to its place."

1Sa 6:3 They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty, but by all means return him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why his hand does not turn away from you."

1Sa 6:4 And they said, "What is the guilt offering that we shall return to him?" They answered, "Five golden tumors and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines; for the same plague was upon all of you and upon your lords.

1Sa 6:5 So you must make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ravage the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you and your gods and your land.

1Sa 6:6 Why should you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? After he had made sport of them, did not they let the people go, and they departed?

1Sa 6:7 Now then, take and prepare a new cart and two milch cows upon which there has never come a yoke, and yoke the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.

1Sa 6:8 And take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart, and put in a box at its side the figures of gold, which you are returning to him as a guilt offering. Then send it off, and let it go its way.

1Sa 6:9 And watch; if it goes up on the way to its own land, to Bethshemesh, then it is he who has done us this great harm; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us, it happened to us by chance."

1Sa 6:10 The men did so, and took two milch cows and yoked them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

1Sa 6:11 And they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the golden mice and the images of their tumors.

1Sa 6:12 And the cows went straight in the direction of Bethshemesh along one highway, lowing as they went; they turned neither to the right nor to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the border of Bethshemesh.

1Sa 6:13 Now the people of Bethshemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and when they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, they rejoiced to see it.

1Sa 6:14 The cart came into the field of Joshua of Bethshemesh, and stopped there. A great stone was there; and they split up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

1Sa 6:15 And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was beside it, in which were the golden figures, and set them upon the great stone; and the men of Bethshemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices on that day to the LORD.

1Sa 6:16 And when the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned that day to Ekron.

1Sa 6:17 These are the golden tumors, which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

1Sa 6:18 also the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and unwalled villages. The great stone, beside which they set down the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Bethshemesh.

1Sa 6:19 And he slew some of the men of Bethshemesh, because they looked into the ark of the LORD; he slew seventy men of them, and the people mourned because the LORD had made a great slaughter among the people.

1Sa 6:20 Then the men of Bethshemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall he go up away from us?"

1Sa 6:21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriathjearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to you."

1Sa 7:1 And the men of Kiriathjearim came and took up the ark of the LORD, and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill; and they consecrated his son, Eleazar, to have charge of the ark of the LORD.

1Sa 7:2 From the day that the ark was lodged at Kiriathjearim, a long time passed, some twenty years, and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

1Sa 7:3 Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your heart to the LORD, and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."

1Sa 7:4 So Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and they served the LORD only.

1Sa 7:5 Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you."

1Sa 7:6 So they gathered at Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the people of Israel at Mizpah.

1Sa 7:7 Now when the Philistines heard that the people of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the people of Israel heard of it they were afraid of the Philistines.

1Sa 7:8 And the people of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not cease to cry to the LORD our God for us, that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines."

1Sa 7:9 So Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

1Sa 7:10 As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to attack Israel; but the LORD thundered with a mighty voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion; and they were routed before Israel.

1Sa 7:11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, as far as below Bethcar.

1Sa 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Jeshanah, and called its name Ebenezer; for he said, "Hitherto the LORD has helped us."

1Sa 7:13 So the Philistines were subdued and did not again enter the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

1Sa 7:14 The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel rescued their territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

1Sa 7:15 Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

1Sa 7:16 And he went on a circuit year by year to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all these places.

1Sa 7:17 Then he would come back to Ramah, for his home was there, and there also he administered justice to Israel. And he built there an altar to the LORD.

1Sa 8:1 When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges over Israel.

1Sa 8:2 The name of his first-born son was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba.

1Sa 8:3 Yet his sons did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after gain; they took bribes and perverted justice.

1Sa 8:4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah,

1Sa 8:5 and said to him, "Behold, you are old and your sons do not walk in your ways; now appoint for us a king to govern us like all the nations."

1Sa 8:6 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to govern us." And Samuel prayed to the LORD.

1Sa 8:7 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Hearken to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them.

1Sa 8:8 According to all the deeds which they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are also doing to you.

1Sa 8:9 Now then, hearken to their voice; only, you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them."

1Sa 8:10 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking a king from him.

1Sa 8:11 He said, "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots;

1Sa 8:12 and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots.

1Sa 8:13 He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

1Sa 8:14 He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his servants.

1Sa 8:15 He will take the tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants.

1Sa 8:16 He will take your menservants and maidservants, and the best of your cattle and your asses, and put them to his work.

1Sa 8:17 He will take the tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves.

1Sa 8:18 And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the LORD will not answer you in that day."

1Sa 8:19 But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No! but we will have a king over us,

1Sa 8:20 that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles."

1Sa 8:21 And when Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the ears of the LORD.

1Sa 8:22 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Hearken to their voice, and make them a king." Samuel then said to the men of Israel, "Go every man to his city."

1Sa 9:1 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, a Benjaminite, a man of wealth;

1Sa 9:2 and he had a son whose name was Saul, a handsome young man. There was not a man among the people of Israel more handsome than he; from his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.

1Sa 9:3 Now the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish said to Saul his son, "Take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the asses."

1Sa 9:4 And they passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then they passed through the land of Benjamin, but did not find them.

1Sa 9:5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us go back, lest my father cease to care about the asses and become anxious about us."

1Sa 9:6 But he said to him, "Behold, there is a man of God in this city, and he is a man that is held in honor; all that he says comes true. Let us go there; perhaps he can tell us about the journey on which we have set out."

1Sa 9:7 Then Saul said to his servant, "But if we go, what can we bring the man? For the bread in our sacks is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What have we?"

1Sa 9:8 The servant answered Saul again, "Here, I have with me the fourth part of a shekel of silver, and I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way."

1Sa 9:9 (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he said, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

1Sa 9:10 And Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

1Sa 9:11 As they went up the hill to the city, they met young maidens coming out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

1Sa 9:12 They answered, "He is; behold, he is just ahead of you. Make haste; he has come just now to the city, because the people have a sacrifice today on the high place.

1Sa 9:13 As soon as you enter the city, you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat till he comes, since he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those eat who are invited. Now go up, for you will meet him immediately."

1Sa 9:14 So they went up to the city. As they were entering the city, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.

1Sa 9:15 Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed to Samuel:

1Sa 9:16 "Tomorrow about this time I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel. He shall save my people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen the affliction of my people, because their cry has come to me."

1Sa 9:17 When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, "Here is the man of whom I spoke to you! He it is who shall rule over my people."

1Sa 9:18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the gate, and said, "Tell me where is the house of the seer?"

1Sa 9:19 Samuel answered Saul, "I am the seer; go up before me to the high place, for today you shall eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is on your mind.

1Sa 9:20 As for your asses that were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them, for they have been found. And for whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's house?"

1Sa 9:21 Saul answered, "Am I not a Benjaminite, from the least of the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the humblest of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken to me in this way?"

1Sa 9:22 Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited, who were about thirty persons.

1Sa 9:23 And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion I gave you, of which I said to you, 'Put it aside.'"

1Sa 9:24 So the cook took up the leg and the upper portion and set them before Saul; and Samuel said, "See, what was kept is set before you. Eat; because it was kept for you until the hour appointed, that you might eat with the guests." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

1Sa 9:25 And when they came down from the high place into the city, a bed was spread for Saul upon the roof, and he lay down to sleep.

1Sa 9:26 Then at the break of dawn Samuel called to Saul upon the roof, "Up, that I may send you on your way." So Saul arose, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

1Sa 9:27 As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to pass on before us, and when he has passed on stop here yourself for a while, that I may make known to you the word of God."

1Sa 10:1 Then Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him and said, "Has not the LORD anointed you to be prince over his people Israel? And you shall reign over the people of the LORD and you will save them from the hand of their enemies round about. And this shall be the sign to you that the LORD has anointed you to be prince over his heritage.

1Sa 10:2 When you depart from me today you will meet two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah, and they will say to you, 'The asses which you went to seek are found, and now your father has ceased to care about the asses and is anxious about you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?"'

1Sa 10:3 Then you shall go on from there further and come to the oak of Tabor; three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.

1Sa 10:4 And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall accept from their hand.

1Sa 10:5 After that you shall come to Gibeathelohim, where there is a garrison of the Philistines; and there, as you come to the city, you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre before them, prophesying.

1Sa 10:6 Then the spirit of the LORD will come mightily upon you, and you shall prophesy with them and be turned into another man.

1Sa 10:7 Now when these signs meet you, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God is with you.

1Sa 10:8 And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I am coming to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you and show you what you shall do."

1Sa 10:9 When he turned his back to leave Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all these signs came to pass that day.

1Sa 10:10 When they came to Gibeah, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the spirit of God came mightily upon him, and he prophesied among them.

1Sa 10:11 And when all who knew him before saw how he prophesied with the prophets, the people said to one another, "What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Sa 10:12 And a man of the place answered, "And who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Sa 10:13 When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

1Sa 10:14 Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To seek the asses; and when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel."

1Sa 10:15 And Saul's uncle said, "Pray, tell me what Samuel said to you."

1Sa 10:16 And Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the asses had been found." But about the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him anything.

1Sa 10:17 Now Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah;

1Sa 10:18 and he said to the people of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.'

1Sa 10:19 But you have this day rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said, 'No! but set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your thousands."

1Sa 10:20 Then Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot.

1Sa 10:21 He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of the Matrites was taken by lot; finally he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man, and Saul the son of Kish was taken by lot. But when they sought him, he could not be found.

1Sa 10:22 So they inquired again of the LORD, "Did the man come hither?" and the LORD said, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

1Sa 10:23 Then they ran and fetched him from there; and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.

1Sa 10:24 And Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? There is none like him among all the people." And all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

1Sa 10:25 Then Samuel told the people the rights and duties of the kingship; and he wrote them in a book and laid it up before the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his home.

1Sa 10:26 Saul also went to his home at Gibeah, and with him went men of valor whose hearts God had touched.

1Sa 10:27 But some worthless fellows said, "How can this man save us?" And they despised him, and brought him no present. But he held his peace.

1Sa 11:1 Then Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabeshgilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you."

1Sa 11:2 But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make a treaty with you, that I gouge out all your right eyes, and thus put disgrace upon all Israel."

1Sa 11:3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days respite that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will give ourselves up to you."

1Sa 11:4 When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, they reported the matter in the ears of the people; and all the people wept aloud.

1Sa 11:5 Now Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen; and Saul said, "What ails the people, that they are weeping?" So they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

1Sa 11:6 And the spirit of God came mightily upon Saul when he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled.

1Sa 11:7 He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen!" Then the dread of the LORD fell upon the people, and they came out as one man.

1Sa 11:8 When he mustered them at Bezek, the men of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

1Sa 11:9 And they said to the messengers who had come, "Thus shall you say to the men of Jabeshgilead: 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.'" When the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, they were glad.

1Sa 11:10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will give ourselves up to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you."

1Sa 11:11 And on the morrow Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and cut down the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

1Sa 11:12 Then the people said to Samuel, "Who is it that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death."

1Sa 11:13 But Saul said, "Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has wrought deliverance in Israel."

1Sa 11:14 Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingdom."

1Sa 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they sacrificed peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

1Sa 12:1 And Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I have hearkened to your voice in all that you have said to me, and have made a king over you.

1Sa 12:2 And now, behold, the king walks before you; and I am old and gray, and behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my youth until this day.

1Sa 12:3 Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose ass have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me and I will restore it to you."

1Sa 12:4 They said, "You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from any man's hand."

1Sa 12:5 And he said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And they said, "He is witness."

1Sa 12:6 And Samuel said to the people, "The LORD is witness, who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

1Sa 12:7 Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the saving deeds of the LORD which he performed for you and for your fathers.

1Sa 12:8 When Jacob went into Egypt and the Egyptians oppressed them, then your fathers cried to the LORD and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

1Sa 12:9 But they forgot the LORD their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Jabin king of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.

1Sa 12:10 And they cried to the LORD, and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.'

1Sa 12:11 And the LORD sent Jerubbaal and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety.

1Sa 12:12 And when you saw that Nahash the king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us,' when the LORD your God was your king.

1Sa 12:13 And now behold the king whom you have chosen, for whom you have asked; behold, the LORD has set a king over you.

1Sa 12:14 If you will fear the LORD and serve him and hearken to his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well;

1Sa 12:15 but if you will not hearken to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you and your king.

1Sa 12:16 Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

1Sa 12:17 Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call upon the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking for yourselves a king."

1Sa 12:18 So Samuel called upon the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

1Sa 12:19 And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for ourselves a king."

1Sa 12:20 And Samuel said to the people, "Fear not; you have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;

1Sa 12:21 and do not turn aside after vain things which cannot profit or save, for they are vain.

1Sa 12:22 For the LORD will not cast away his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself.

1Sa 12:23 Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; and I will instruct you in the good and the right way.

1Sa 12:24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him faithfully with all your heart; for consider what great things he has done for you.

1Sa 12:25 But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king."

1Sa 13:1 Saul was . . . years old when he began to reign; and he reigned . . . and two years over Israel.

1Sa 13:2 Saul chose three thousand men of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeath of Benjamin; the rest of the people he sent home, every man to his tent.

1Sa 13:3 Jonathan defeated the garrison of the Philistines which was at Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear."

1Sa 13:4 And all Israel heard it said that Saul had defeated the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines. And the people were called out to join Saul at Gilgal.

1Sa 13:5 And the Philistines mustered to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and troops like the sand on the seashore in multitude; they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Bethaven.

1Sa 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in straits (for the people were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves and in holes and in rocks and in tombs and in cisterns, 1Sa 13:7 or crossed the fords of the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

1Sa 13:8 He waited seven days, the time appointed by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people were scattering from him.

1Sa 13:9 So Saul said, "Bring the burnt offering here to me, and the peace offerings." And he offered the burnt offering.

1Sa 13:10 As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him and salute him.

1Sa 13:11 Samuel said, "What have you done?" And Saul said, "When I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines had mustered at Michmash, 1Sa 13:12 I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down upon me at Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of the LORD'; so I forced myself, and offered the burnt offering."

1Sa 13:13 And Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which he commanded you; for now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel for ever.

1Sa 13:14 But now your kingdom shall not continue; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart; and the LORD has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you."

1Sa 13:15 And Samuel arose, and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

1Sa 13:16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

1Sa 13:17 And raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies; one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual, 1Sa 13:18 another company turned toward Bethhoron, and another company turned toward the border that looks down upon the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

1Sa 13:19 Now there was no smith to be found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make themselves swords or spears";

1Sa 13:20 but every one of the Israelites went down to the Philistines to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe, or his sickle;

1Sa 13:21 and the charge was a pim for the plowshares and for the mattocks, and a third of a shekel for sharpening the axes and for setting the goads.

1Sa 13:22 So on the day of the battle there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and Jonathan his son had them.

1Sa 13:23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1Sa 14:1 One day Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the Philistine garrison on yonder side." But he did not tell his father.

1Sa 14:2 Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is at Migron; the people who were with him were about six hundred men, 1Sa 14:3 and Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, son of Phinehas, son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

1Sa 14:4 In the pass, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistine garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side and a rocky crag on the other side; the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

1Sa 14:5 The one crag rose on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba.

1Sa 14:6 And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us; for nothing can hinder the LORD from saving by many or by few."

1Sa 14:7 And his armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that your mind inclines to; behold, I am with you, as is your mind so is mine."

1Sa 14:8 Then said Jonathan, "Behold, we will cross over to the men, and we will show ourselves to them.

1Sa 14:9 If they say to us, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place, and we will not go up to them.

1Sa 14:10 But if they say, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up; for the LORD has given them into our hand. And this shall be the sign to us."

1Sa 14:11 So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, "Look, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hid themselves."

1Sa 14:12 And the men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you a thing." And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Come up after me; for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel."

1Sa 14:13 Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed them after him;

1Sa 14:14 and that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, was of about twenty men within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land.

1Sa 14:15 And there was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison and even the raiders trembled; the earth quaked; and it became a very great panic.

1Sa 14:16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude was surging hither and thither.

1Sa 14:17 Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Number and see who has gone from us." And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

1Sa 14:18 And Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring hither the ark of God." For the ark of God went at that time with the people of Israel.

1Sa 14:19 And while Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines increased more and more; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

1Sa 14:20 Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into the battle; and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was very great confusion.

1Sa 14:21 Now the Hebrews who had been with the Philistines before that time and who had gone up with them into the camp, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

1Sa 14:22 Likewise, when all the men of Israel who had hid themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they too followed hard after them in the battle.

1Sa 14:23 So the LORD delivered Israel that day; and the battle passed beyond Bethaven.

1Sa 14:24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul laid an oath on the people, saying, "Cursed be the man who eats food until it is evening and I am avenged on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

1Sa 14:25 And all the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground.

1Sa 14:26 And when the people entered the forest, behold, the honey was dropping, but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath.

1Sa 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; so he put forth the tip of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes became bright.

1Sa 14:28 Then one of the people said, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the man who eats food this day.'" And the people were faint.

1Sa 14:29 Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land; see how my eyes have become bright, because I tasted a little of this honey.

1Sa 14:30 How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found; for now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great."

1Sa 14:31 They struck down the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. And the people were very faint;

1Sa 14:32 the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

1Sa 14:33 Then they told Saul, "Behold, the people are sinning against the LORD, by eating with the blood."

And he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a great stone to me here."

1Sa 14:34 And Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, 'Let every man bring his ox or his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'" So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

1Sa 14:35 And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

1Sa 14:36 Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and despoil them until the morning light; let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the priest said, "Let us draw near hither to God."

1Sa 14:37 And Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt thou give them into the hand of Israel?" But he did not answer him that day.

1Sa 14:38 And Saul said, "Come hither, all you leaders of the people; and know and see how this sin has arisen today.

1Sa 14:39 For as the LORD lives who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

1Sa 14:40 Then he said to all Israel, "You shall be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."

1Sa 14:41 Therefore Saul said, "O LORD God of Israel, why hast thou not answered thy servant this day? If this guilt is in me or in Jonathan my son, O LORD, God of Israel, give Urim; but if this guilt is in thy people Israel, give Thummim." And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

1Sa 14:42 Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan." And Jonathan was taken.

1Sa 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him, "I tasted a little honey with the tip of the staff that was in my hand; here I am, I will die."

1Sa 14:44 And Saul said, "God do so to me and more also; you shall surely die, Jonathan."

1Sa 14:45 Then the people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has wrought this great victory in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has wrought with God this day." So the people ransomed Jonathan, that he did not die.

1Sa 14:46 Then Saul went up from pursuing the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

1Sa 14:47 When Saul had taken the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the Ammonites, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; wherever he turned he put them to the worse.

1Sa 14:48 And he did valiantly, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them.

1Sa 14:49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the first-born was Merab, and the name of the younger Michal;

1Sa 14:50 and the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle;

1Sa 14:51 Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

1Sa 14:52 There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he attached him to himself.

1Sa 15:1 And Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel; now therefore hearken to the words of the LORD.

1Sa 15:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts, `I will punish what Amalek did to Israel in opposing them on the way, when they came up out of Egypt.

1Sa 15:3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass."

1Sa 15:4 So Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand men on foot, and ten thousand men of Judah.

1Sa 15:5 And Saul came to the city of Amalek, and lay in wait in the valley.

1Sa 15:6 And Saul said to the Kenites, "Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the people of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

1Sa 15:7 And Saul defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt.

1Sa 15:8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

1Sa 15:9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and of the oxen and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them; all that was despised and worthless they utterly destroyed.

1Sa 15:10 The word of the LORD came to Samuel:

1Sa 15:11 "I repent that I have made Saul king; for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments." And Samuel was angry; and he cried to the LORD all night.

1Sa 15:12 And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, "Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal."

1Sa 15:13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed be you to the LORD; I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

1Sa 15:14 And Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

1Sa 15:15 Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

1Sa 15:16 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stop! I will tell you what the LORD said to me this night." And he said to him, "Say on."

1Sa 15:17 And Samuel said, "Though you are little in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

1Sa 15:18 And the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, `Go, utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'

1Sa 15:19 Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop on the spoil, and do what was evil in the sight of the LORD?"

1Sa 15:20 And Saul said to Samuel, "I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, I have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, I have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

1Sa 15:21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

1Sa 15:22 And Samuel said, "Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

1Sa 15:23 For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king."

1Sa 15:24 And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

1Sa 15:25 Now therefore, I pray, pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

1Sa 15:26 And Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

1Sa 15:27 As Samuel turned to go away, Saul laid hold upon the skirt of his robe, and it tore.

1Sa 15:28 And Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you.

1Sa 15:29 And also the Glory of Israel will not lie or repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent."

1Sa 15:30 Then he said, "I have sinned; yet honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God."

1Sa 15:31 So Samuel turned back after Saul; and Saul worshiped the LORD.

1Sa 15:32 Then Samuel said, "Bring here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites." And Agag came to him cheerfully. Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

1Sa 15:33 And Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

1Sa 15:34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul.

1Sa 15:35 And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

1Sa 16:1 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul, seeing I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons."

1Sa 16:2 And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me." And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'"

1Sa 16:3 And invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me him whom I name to you."

1Sa 16:4 Samuel did what the LORD commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?"

1Sa 16:5 And he said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." And he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

1Sa 16:6 When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, "Surely the LORDS anointed is before him."

1Sa 16:7 But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the LORD sees not as man sees; man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."

1Sa 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

1Sa 16:9 Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

1Sa 16:10 And Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these."

1Sa 16:11 And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your sons here?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, but behold, he is keeping the sheep." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and fetch him; for we will not sit down till he comes here."

1Sa 16:12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he."

1Sa 16:13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

1Sa 16:14 Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

1Sa 16:15 And Saul's servants said to him, "Behold now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you."

1Sa 16:16 Let our lord now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is skilful in playing the lyre; and when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he will play it, and you will be well."

1Sa 16:17 So Saul said to his servants, "Provide for me a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

1Sa 16:18 One of the young men answered, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skilful in playing, a man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence; and the LORD is with him."

1Sa 16:19 Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me David your son, who is with the sheep."

1Sa 16:20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a skin of wine and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Saul.

1Sa 16:21 And David came to Saul, and entered his service. And Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer.

1Sa 16:22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David remain in my service, for he has found favor in my sight."

1Sa 16:23 And whenever the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, David took the lyre and played it with his hand; so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

1Sa 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; and they were gathered at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim.

1Sa 17:2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered, and encamped in the valley of Elah, and drew up in line of battle against the Philistines.

1Sa 17:3 And the Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.

1Sa 17:4 And there came out from the camp of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

1Sa 17:5 He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.

1Sa 17:6 And he had greaves of bronze upon his legs, and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders.

1Sa 17:7 And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and his shield-bearer went before him.

1Sa 17:8 He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

1Sa 17:9 If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us."

1Sa 17:10 And the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together."

1Sa 17:11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

1Sa 17:12 Now David was the son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, named Jesse, who had eight sons. In the days of Saul the man was already old and advanced in years.

1Sa 17:13 The three eldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle; and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

1Sa 17:14 David was the youngest; the three eldest followed Saul,

1Sa 17:15 but David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

1Sa 17:16 For forty days the Philistine came forward and took his stand, morning and evening.

1Sa 17:17 And Jesse said to David his son, "Take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers;

1Sa 17:18 also take these ten cheeses to the commander of their thousand. See how your brothers fare, and bring some token from them."

1Sa 17:19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

1Sa 17:20 And David rose early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took the provisions, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the encampment as the host was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry.

1Sa 17:21 And Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army.

1Sa 17:22 And David left the things in charge of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers.

1Sa 17:23 As he talked with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard him.

1Sa 17:24 All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were much afraid.

1Sa 17:25 And the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and the man who kills him, the king will enrich with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

1Sa 17:26 And David said to the men who stood by him, "What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

1Sa 17:27 And the people answered him in the same way, "So shall it be done to the man who kills him."

1Sa 17:28 Now Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption, and the evil of your heart; for you have come down to see the battle."

1Sa 17:29 And David said, "What have I done now? Was it not but a word?"

1Sa 17:30 And he turned away from him toward another, and spoke in the same way; and the people answered him again as before.

1Sa 17:31 When the words which David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul; and he sent for him.

1Sa 17:32 And David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

1Sa 17:33 And Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth, and he has been a man of war from his youth."

1Sa 17:34 But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb from the flock,

1Sa 17:35 I went after him and smote him and delivered it out of his mouth; and if he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him and killed him.

1Sa 17:36 Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God."

1Sa 17:37 And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!"

1Sa 17:38 Then Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a helmet of bronze on his head, and clothed him with a coat of mail.

1Sa 17:39 And David girded his sword over his armor, and he tried in vain to go, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these; for I am not used to them." And David put them off.

1Sa 17:40 Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in his shepherd's bag or wallet; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

1Sa 17:41 And the Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him.

1Sa 17:42 And when the Philistine looked, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, ruddy and comely in appearance.

1Sa 17:43 And the Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1Sa 17:44 The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field."

1Sa 17:45 Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

1Sa 17:46 This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down, and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,

1Sa 17:47 and that all this assembly may know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORDS and he will give you into our hand."

1Sa 17:48 When the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

1Sa 17:49 And David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone, and slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground.

1Sa 17:50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; there was no sword in the hand of David.

1Sa 17:51 Then David ran and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

1Sa 17:52 And the men of Israel and Judah rose with a shout and pursued the Philistines as far as Gath and the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.

1Sa 17:53 And the Israelites came back from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.

1Sa 17:54 And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.

1Sa 17:55 When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I cannot tell."

1Sa 17:56 And the king said, "Inquire whose son the stripling is."

1Sa 17:57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

1Sa 17:58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

1Sa 18:1 When he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

1Sa 18:2 And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father's house.

1Sa 18:3 Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul.

1Sa 18:4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his girdle.

1Sa 18:5 And David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; so that Saul set him over the men of war. And this was good in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

1Sa 18:6 As they were coming home, when David returned from slaying the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with timbrels, with songs of joy, and with instruments of music.

1Sa 18:7 And the women sang to one another as they made merry, "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands."

1Sa 18:8 And Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him; he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; and what more can he have but the kingdom?"

1Sa 18:9 And Saul eyed David from that day on.

1Sa 18:10 And on the morrow an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand;

1Sa 18:11 and Saul cast the spear, for he thought, "I will pin David to the wall." But David evaded him twice.

1Sa 18:12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.

1Sa 18:13 So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

1Sa 18:14 And David had success in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him.

1Sa 18:15 And when Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him.

1Sa 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them.

1Sa 18:17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my elder daughter Merab; I will give her to you for a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the LORDS battles." For Saul thought, "Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him."

1Sa 18:18 And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and who are my kinsfolk, my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

1Sa 18:19 But at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.

1Sa 18:20 Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

1Sa 18:21 Saul thought, "Let me give her to him, that she may be a snare for him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall now be my son-in-law."

1Sa 18:22 And Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David in private and say, 'Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you; now then become the king's son-in-law.'"

1Sa 18:23 And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of no repute?"

1Sa 18:24 And the servants of Saul told him, "Thus and so did David speak."

1Sa 18:25 Then Saul said, "Thus shall you say to David, 'The king desires no marriage present except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

1Sa 18:26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. Before the time had expired, 1Sa 18:27 David arose and went, along with his men, and killed two hundred of the Philistines; and David brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for a wife.

1Sa 18:28 But when Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that all Israel loved him, 1Sa 18:29 Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul was David's enemy continually.

1Sa 18:30 Then the princes of the Philistines came out to battle, and as often as they came out David had more success than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was highly esteemed.

1Sa 19:1 And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David.

1Sa 19:2 And Jonathan told David, "Saul my father seeks to kill you; therefore take heed to yourself in the morning, stay in a secret place and hide yourself;

1Sa 19:3 and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; and if I learn anything I will tell you."

1Sa 19:4 And Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king sin against his servant David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been of good service to you;

1Sa 19:5 for he took his life in his hand and he slew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced; why then will you sin against innocent blood by killing David without cause?"

1Sa 19:6 And Saul hearkened to the voice of Jonathan; Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."

1Sa 19:7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all these things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

1Sa 19:8 And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and made a great slaughter among them, so that they fled before him.

1Sa 19:9 Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing the lyre.

1Sa 19:10 And Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear; but he eluded Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. And David fled, and escaped.

1Sa 19:11 That night Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, that he might kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed."

1Sa 19:12 So Michal let David down through the window; and he fled away and escaped.

1Sa 19:13 Michal took an image and laid it on the bed and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with the clothes.

1Sa 19:14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

1Sa 19:15 Then Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him."

1Sa 19:16 And when the messengers came in, behold, the image was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.

1Sa 19:17 Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" And Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go; why should I kill you?'"

1Sa 19:18 Now David fled and escaped, and he came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt at Naioth.

1Sa 19:19 And it was told Saul, "Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah."

1Sa 19:20 Then Saul sent messengers to take David; and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

1Sa 19:21 When it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.

1Sa 19:22 Then he himself went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu; and he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah."

1Sa 19:23 And he went from there to Naioth in Ramah; and the Spirit of God came upon him also, and as he went he prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

1Sa 19:24 And he too stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel, and lay naked all that day and all that night. Hence it is said, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Sa 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

1Sa 20:2 And he said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me; and why should my father hide this from me? It is not so."

1Sa 20:3 But David replied, "Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes; and he thinks, 'Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

1Sa 20:4 Then said Jonathan to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

1Sa 20:5 David said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field till the third day at evening."

1Sa 20:6 If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'

1Sa 20:7 If he says, 'Good!' it will be well with your servant; but if he is angry, then know that evil is determined by him.

1Sa 20:8 Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a sacred covenant with you. But if there is guilt in me, slay me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?"

1Sa 20:9 And Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! If I knew that it was determined by my father that evil should come upon you, would I not tell you?"

1Sa 20:10 Then said David to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you roughly?"

1Sa 20:11 And Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So they both went out into the field.

1Sa 20:12 And Jonathan said to David, "The LORD, the God of Israel, be witness! When I have sounded my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if he is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you?"

1Sa 20:13 But should it please my father to do you harm, the LORD do so to Jonathan, and more also, if I do not disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in safety. May the LORD be with you, as he has been with my father.

1Sa 20:14 If I am still alive, show me the loyal love of the LORD, that I may not die;

1Sa 20:15 and do not cut off your loyalty from my house for ever. When the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth,

1Sa 20:16 let not the name of Jonathan be cut off from the house of David. And may the LORD take vengeance on David's enemies."

1Sa 20:17 And Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

1Sa 20:18 Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty."

1Sa 20:19 And on the third day you will be greatly missed; then go to the place where you hid yourself when the matter was in hand, and remain beside yonder stone heap.

1Sa 20:20 And I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a mark.

1Sa 20:21 And behold, I will send the lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to the lad, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you, take them,' then you are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger.

1Sa 20:22 But if I say to the youth, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go; for the LORD has sent you away.

1Sa 20:23 And as for the matter of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me for ever."

1Sa 20:24 So David hid himself in the field; and when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food.

1Sa 20:25 The king sat upon his seat, as at other times, upon the seat by the wall; Jonathan sat opposite, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.

1Sa 20:26 Yet Saul did not say anything that day; for he thought, "Something has befallen him; he is not clean, surely he is not clean."

1Sa 20:27 But on the second day, the morrow after the new moon, David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has not the son of Jesse come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"

1Sa 20:28 Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem;

1Sa 20:29 he said, 'Let me go; for our family holds a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away, and see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

1Sa 20:30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman, do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"

1Sa 20:31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Therefore send and fetch him to me, for he shall surely die."

1Sa 20:32 Then Jonathan answered Saul his father, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

1Sa 20:33 But Saul cast his spear at him to smite him; so Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death.

1Sa 20:34 And Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had disgraced him.

1Sa 20:35 In the morning Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and with him a little lad.

1Sa 20:36 And he said to his lad, "Run and find the arrows which I shoot." As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

1Sa 20:37 And when the lad came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the lad and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"

1Sa 20:38 And Jonathan called after the lad, "Hurry, make haste, stay not." So Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

1Sa 20:39 But the lad knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

1Sa 20:40 And Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, "Go and carry them to the city."

1Sa 20:41 And as soon as the lad had gone, David rose from beside the stone heap and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times; and they kissed one another, and wept with one another, until David recovered himself.

1Sa 20:42 Then Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD shall be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants, for ever.'" And he rose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.

1Sa 21:1 Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech came to meet David trembling, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no one with you?"

1Sa 21:2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has charged me with a matter, and said to me, 'Let no one know anything of the matter about which I send you, and with which I have charged you.' I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place.

1Sa 21:3 Now then, what have you at hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is here."

1Sa 21:4 And the priest answered David, "I have no common bread at hand, but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women."

1Sa 21:5 And David answered the priest, "Of a truth women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy, even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy?"

1Sa 21:6 So the priest gave him the holy bread; for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.

1Sa 21:7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul's herdsmen.

1Sa 21:8 And David said to Ahimelech, "And have you not here a spear or a sword at hand? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

1Sa 21:9 And the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it, for there is none but that here." And David said, "There is none like that; give it to me."

1Sa 21:10 And David rose and fled that day from Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

1Sa 21:11 And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?"

1Sa 21:12 And David took these words to heart, and was much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

1Sa 21:13 So he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and made marks on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle run down his beard.

1Sa 21:14 Then said Achish to his servants, "Lo, you see the man is mad; why then have you brought him to me?"

1Sa 21:15 Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

1Sa 22:1 David departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.

1Sa 22:2 And every one who was in distress, and every one who was in debt, and every one who was discontented, gathered to him; and he became captain over them. And there were with him about four hundred men.

1Sa 22:3 And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Pray let my father and my mother stay with you, till I know what God will do for me."

1Sa 22:4 And he left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

1Sa 22:5 Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah." So David departed, and went into the forest of Hereth.

1Sa 22:6 Now Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him. Saul was sitting at Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him.

1Sa 22:7 And Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds,

1Sa 22:8 that all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse, none of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day."

1Sa 22:9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, 1Sa 22:10 and he inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

1Sa 22:11 Then the king sent to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were at Nob; and all of them came to the king.

1Sa 22:12 And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub." And he answered, "Here I am, my lord."

1Sa 22:13 And Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, so that he has risen against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

1Sa 22:14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, "And who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and captain over your bodyguard, and honored in your house?"

1Sa 22:15 Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for him? No! Let not the king impute anything to his servant or to all the house of my father; for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little."

1Sa 22:16 And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house."

1Sa 22:17 And the king said to the guard who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

1Sa 22:18 Then the king said to Doeg, "You turn and fall upon the priests." And Doeg the Edomite turned and fell upon the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five persons who wore the linen ephod.

1Sa 22:19 And Nob, the city of the priests, he put to the sword; both men and women, children and sucklings, oxen, asses and sheep, he put to the sword.

1Sa 22:20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.

1Sa 22:21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

1Sa 22:22 And David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have occasioned the death of all the persons of your father's house.

1Sa 22:23 Stay with me, fear not; for he that seeks my life seeks your life; with me you shall be in safekeeping."
1Sa 23:1 Now they told David, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and are robbing the threshing floors."

1Sa 23:2 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah."

1Sa 23:3 But David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

1Sa 23:4 Then David inquired of the LORD again. And the LORD answered him, "Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will give the Philistines into your hand."

1Sa 23:5 And David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and made a great slaughter among them. So David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah.

1Sa 23:6 When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

1Sa 23:7 Now it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, "God has given him into my hand; for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars."

1Sa 23:8 And Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

1Sa 23:9 David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here."

1Sa 23:10 Then said David, "O LORD, the God of Israel, thy servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account.

1Sa 23:11 Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as thy servant has heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant." And the LORD said, "He will come down."

1Sa 23:12 Then said David, "Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD said, "They will surrender you."

1Sa 23:13 Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah, and they went wherever they could go. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the expedition.

1Sa 23:14 And David remained in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill country of the Wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God did not give him into his hand.

1Sa 23:15 And David was afraid because Saul had come out to seek his life. David was in the Wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

1Sa 23:16 And Jonathan, Saul's son, rose, and went to David at Horesh, and strengthened his hand in God.

1Sa 23:17 And he said to him, "Fear not; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you; Saul my father also knows this."

1Sa 23:18 And the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.

1Sa 23:19 Then the Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Does not David hide among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon?"

1Sa 23:20 Now come down, O king, according to all your heart's desire to come down; and our part shall be to surrender him into the king's hand."

1Sa 23:21 And Saul said, "May you be blessed by the LORD; for you have had compassion on me.

1Sa 23:22 Go, make yet more sure; know and see the place where his haunt is, and who has seen him there; for it is told me that he is very cunning.

1Sa 23:23 See therefore, and take note of all the lurking places where he hides, and come back to me with sure information. Then I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah."

1Sa 23:24 And they arose, and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.

1Sa 23:25 And Saul and his men went to seek him. And David was told; therefore he went down to the rock which is in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

1Sa 23:26 Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain; and David was making haste to get away from Saul, as Saul and his men were closing in upon David and his men to capture them,

1Sa 23:27 when a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Make haste and come; for the Philistines have made a raid upon the land."

1Sa 23:28 So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines; therefore that place was called the Rock of Escape.

1Sa 23:29 And David went up from there, and dwelt in the strongholds of Engedi.

1Sa 24:1 When Saul returned from following the Philistines, he was told, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi."

1Sa 24:2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men in front of the Wildgoats' Rocks.

1Sa 24:3 And he came to the sheepfolds by the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost parts of the cave.

1Sa 24:4 And the men of David said to him, "Here is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold, I will give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.'" Then David arose and stealthily cut off the skirt of Saul's robe.

1Sa 24:5 And afterward David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

1Sa 24:6 He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORDS anointed, to put forth my hand against him, seeing he is the LORDS anointed."

1Sa 24:7 So David persuaded his men with these words, and did not permit them to attack Saul. And Saul rose up and left the cave, and went upon his way.

1Sa 24:8 Afterward David also arose, and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeisance.

1Sa 24:9 And David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'Behold, David seeks your hurt'?"

1Sa 24:10 Lo, this day your eyes have seen how the LORD gave you today into my hand in the cave; and some bade me kill you, but I spared you. I said, 'I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORDS anointed.'

1Sa 24:11 See, my father, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for by the fact that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and did not kill you, you may know and see that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you hunt my life to take it.

1Sa 24:12 May the LORD judge between me and you, may the LORD avenge me upon you; but my hand shall not be against you.

1Sa 24:13 As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness'; but my hand shall not be against you.

1Sa 24:14 After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog! After a flea!

1Sa 24:15 May the LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you, and see to it, and plead my cause, and deliver me from your hand."

1Sa 24:16 When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

1Sa 24:17 He said to David, "You are more righteous than I; for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil.

1Sa 24:18 And you have declared this day how you have dealt well with me, in that you did not kill me when the LORD put me into your hands.

1Sa 24:19 For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away safe? So may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

1Sa 24:20 And now, behold, I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

1Sa 24:21 Swear to me therefore by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house."

1Sa 24:22 And David swore this to Saul. Then Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1Sa 25:1 Now Samuel died; and all Israel assembled and mourned for him, and they buried him in his house at Ramah. Then David rose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

1Sa 25:2 And there was a man in Maon, whose business was in Carmel. The man was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

1Sa 25:3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. The woman was of good understanding and beautiful, but the man was churlish and ill-behaved; he was a Calebite.

1Sa 25:4 David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

1Sa 25:5 So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

1Sa 25:6 And thus you shall salute him: 'Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.

1Sa 25:7 I hear that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing, all the time they were in Carmel.

1Sa 25:8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes; for we come on a feast day. Pray, give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David."

1Sa 25:9 When David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal in the name of David; and then they waited.

1Sa 25:10 And Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who are breaking away from their masters.

1Sa 25:11 Shall I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?"

1Sa 25:12 So David's young men turned away, and came back and told him all this.

1Sa 25:13 And David said to his men, "Every man gird on his sword!" And every man of them girded on his sword; David also girded on his sword; and about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage.

1Sa 25:14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed at them.

1Sa 25:15 Yet the men were very good to us, and we suffered no harm, and we did not miss anything when we were in the fields, as long as we went with them;

1Sa 25:16 they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

1Sa 25:17 Now therefore know this and consider what you should do; for evil is determined against our master and against all his house, and he is so ill-natured that one cannot speak to him."

1Sa 25:18 Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched grain, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

1Sa 25:19 And she said to her young men, "Go on before me; behold, I come after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

1Sa 25:20 And as she rode on the ass, and came down under cover of the mountain, behold, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.

1Sa 25:21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned me evil for good.

1Sa 25:22 God do so to David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him."

1Sa 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she made haste, and alighted from the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed to the ground.

1Sa 25:24 She fell at his feet and said, "Upon me alone, my lord, be the guilt; pray let your handmaid speak in your ears, and hear the words of your handmaid.

1Sa 25:25 Let not my lord regard this ill-natured fellow, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I your handmaid did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.

1Sa 25:26 Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, seeing the LORD has restrained you from bloodguilt, and from taking vengeance with your own hand, now then let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be as Nabal.

1Sa 25:27 And now let this present which your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord.

1Sa 25:28 Pray forgive the trespass of your handmaid; for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD; and evil shall not be found in you so long as you live.

1Sa 25:29 If men rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living in the care of the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies he shall sling out as from the hollow of a sling.

1Sa 25:30 And when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you prince over Israel,

1Sa 25:31 my lord shall have no cause of grief, or pangs of conscience, for having shed blood without cause or for my lord taking vengeance himself. And when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid."

1Sa 25:32 And David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!

1Sa 25:33 Blessed be your discretion, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodguilt and from avenging myself with my own hand!

1Sa 25:34 For as surely as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from hurting you, unless you had made haste and come to meet me, truly by morning there had not been left to Nabal so much as one male."

1Sa 25:35 Then David received from her hand what she had brought him; and he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house; see, I have hearkened to your voice, and I have granted your petition."

1Sa 25:36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, lo, he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she told him nothing at all until the morning light.

1Sa 25:37 And in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

1Sa 25:38 And about ten days later the LORD smote Nabal; and he died.

1Sa 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD who has avenged the insult I received at the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil; the LORD has returned the evil-doing of Nabal upon his own head." Then David sent and wooed Abigail, to make her his wife.

1Sa 25:40 And when the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife."

1Sa 25:41 And she rose and bowed with her face to the ground, and said, "Behold, your handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord."

1Sa 25:42 And Abigail made haste and rose and mounted on an ass, and her five maidens attended her; she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

1Sa 25:43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and both of them became his wives.

1Sa 25:44 Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

1Sa 26:1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself on the hill of Hachilah, which is on the east of Jeshimon?"

1Sa 26:2 So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, with three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

1Sa 26:3 And Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is beside the road on the east of Jeshimon. But David remained in the wilderness; and when he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness, 1Sa 26:4 David sent out spies, and learned of a certainty that Saul had come.

1Sa 26:5 Then David rose and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; Saul was lying within the encampment, while the army was encamped around him.

1Sa 26:6 Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Joab's brother Abishai the son of Zeruah, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with you."

1Sa 26:7 So David and Abishai went to the army by night; and there lay Saul sleeping within the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the army lay around him.

1Sa 26:8 Then said Abishai to David, "God has given your enemy into your hand this day; now therefore let me pin him to the earth with one stroke of the spear, and I will not strike him twice."

1Sa 26:9 But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can put forth his hand against the LORDS anointed, and be guiltless?"

1Sa 26:10 And David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish.

1Sa 26:11 The LORD forbid that I should put forth my hand against the LORDS anointed; but take now the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go."

1Sa 26:12 So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they went away. No man saw it, or knew it, nor did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

1Sa 26:13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood afar off on the top of the mountain, with a great space between them;

1Sa 26:14 and David called to the army, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered, "Who are you that calls to the king?"

1Sa 26:15 And David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord.

1Sa 26:16 This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORDS anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was at his head."

1Sa 26:17 Saul recognized David's voice, and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

1Sa 26:18 And he said, "Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? What guilt is on my hands?"

1Sa 26:19 Now therefore let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is the LORD who has stirred you up against me, may he accept an offering; but if it is men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day that I should have no share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'

1Sa 26:20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek my life, like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains."

1Sa 26:21 Then Saul said, "I have done wrong; return, my son David, for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day; behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

1Sa 26:22 And David made answer, "Here is the spear, O king! Let one of the young men come over and fetch it."

1Sa 26:23 The LORD rewards every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD gave you into my hand today, and I would not put forth my hand against the LORDS anointed.

1Sa 26:24 Behold, as your life was precious this day in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may he deliver me out of all tribulation."

1Sa 26:25 Then Saul said to David, "Blessed be you, my son David! You will do many things and will succeed in them." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1Sa 27:1 And David said in his heart, "I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul; there is nothing better for me than that I should escape to the land of the Philistines; then Saul will despair of seeking me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand."

1Sa 27:2 So David arose and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath.

1Sa 27:3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow.

1Sa 27:4 And when it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, he sought for him no more.

1Sa 27:5 Then David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your eyes, let a place be given me in one of the country towns, that I may dwell there; for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"

1Sa 27:6 So that day Achish gave him Ziklag; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

1Sa 27:7 And the number of the days that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

1Sa 27:8 Now David and his men went up, and made raids upon the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for these were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as far as Shur, to the land of Egypt.

1Sa 27:9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the asses, the camels, and the garments, and came back to Achish.

1Sa 27:10 When Achish asked, "Against whom have you made a raid today?" David would say, "Against the Negeb of Judah," or "Against the Negeb of the Jerahmeelites," or, "Against the Negeb of the Kenites."

1Sa 27:11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, thinking, "Lest they should tell about us, and say, 'So David has done.'" Such was his custom all the while he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

1Sa 27:12 And Achish trusted David, thinking, "He has made himself utterly abhorred by his people Israel; therefore he shall be my servant always."

1Sa 28:1 In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, "Understand that you and your men are to go out with me in the army."

1Sa 28:2 David said to Achish, "Very well, you shall know what your servant can do." And Achish said to David, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life."

1Sa 28:3 Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the wizards out of the land.

1Sa 28:4 The Philistines assembled, and came and encamped at Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa.

1Sa 28:5 When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

1Sa 28:6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets.

1Sa 28:7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, there is a medium at Endor."

1Sa 28:8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments, and went, he and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine for me by a spirit, and bring up for me whomever I shall name to you."

1Sa 28:9 The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the wizards from the land. Why then are you laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?"

1Sa 28:10 But Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."

1Sa 28:11 Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

1Sa 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul."

1Sa 28:13 The king said to her, "Have no fear; what do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I see a god coming up out of the earth."

1Sa 28:14 He said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up; and he is wrapped in a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.

1Sa 28:15 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress; for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams; therefore I have summoned you to tell me what I shall do."

1Sa 28:16 And Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and become your enemy?"

1Sa 28:17 The LORD has done to you as he spoke by me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, David.

1Sa 28:18 Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, and did not carry out his fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

1Sa 28:19 Moreover the LORD will give Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; the LORD will give the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines."

1Sa 28:20 Then Saul fell at once full length upon the ground, filled with fear because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.

1Sa 28:21 And the woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, "Behold, your handmaid has hearkened to you; I have taken my life in my hand, and have hearkened to what you have said to me.

1Sa 28:22 Now therefore, you also hearken to your handmaid; let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."

1Sa 28:23 He refused, and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he hearkened to their words. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

1Sa 28:24 Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she quickly killed it, and she took flour, and kneaded it and baked unleavened bread of it,

1Sa 28:25 and she put it before Saul and his servants; and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

1Sa 29:1 Now the Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek; and the Israelites were encamped by the fountain which is in Jezreel.

1Sa 29:2 As the lords of the Philistines were passing on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were passing on in the rear with Achish,

1Sa 29:3 the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is not this David, the servant of Saul, king of Israel, who has been with me now for days and years, and since he deserted to me I have found no fault in him to this day."

1Sa 29:4 But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him; and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, that he may return to the place to which you have assigned him; he shall not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For how could this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of the men here?"

1Sa 29:5 Is not this David, of whom they sing to one another in dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?"

1Sa 29:6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been honest, and to me it seems right that you should march out and in with me in the campaign; for I have found nothing wrong in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless the lords do not approve of you.

1Sa 29:7 So go back now; and go peaceably, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."

1Sa 29:8 And David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day I entered your service until now, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

1Sa 29:9 And Achish made answer to David, "I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

1Sa 29:10 Now then rise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who came with you; and start early in the morning, and depart as soon as you have light."

1Sa 29:11 So David set out with his men early in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1Sa 30:1 Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid upon the Negeb and upon Ziklag. They had overcome Ziklag, and burned it with fire, 1Sa 30:2 and taken captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great; they killed no one, but carried them off, and went their way.

1Sa 30:3 And when David and his men came to the city, they found it burned with fire, and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

1Sa 30:4 Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept, until they had no more strength to weep.

1Sa 30:5 David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

1Sa 30:6 And David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because all the people were bitter in soul, each for his sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

1Sa 30:7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

1Sa 30:8 And David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue after this band? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue; for you shall surely overtake and shall surely rescue."

1Sa 30:9 So David set out, and the six hundred men who were with him, and they came to the brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

1Sa 30:10 But David went on with the pursuit, he and four hundred men; two hundred stayed behind, who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor.

1Sa 30:11 They found an Egyptian in the open country, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, they gave him water to drink, 1Sa 30:12 and they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. And when he had eaten, his spirit revived; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

1Sa 30:13 And David said to him, "To whom do you belong? And where are you from?" He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me behind because I fell sick three days ago.

1Sa 30:14 We had made a raid upon the Negeb of the Cherethites and upon that which belongs to Judah and upon the Negeb of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

1Sa 30:15 And David said to him, "Will you take me down to this band?" And he said, "Swear to me by God, that you will not kill me, or deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will take you down to this band."

1Sa 30:16 And when he had taken him down, behold, they were spread abroad over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

1Sa 30:17 And David smote them from twilight until the evening of the next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who mounted camels and fled.

1Sa 30:18 David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives.

1Sa 30:19 Nothing was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that had been taken; David brought back all.

1Sa 30:20 David also captured all the flocks and herds; and the people drove those cattle before him, and said, "This is David's spoil."

1Sa 30:21 Then David came to the two hundred men, who had been too exhausted to follow David, and who had been left at the brook Besor; and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him; and when David drew near to the people he saluted them.

1Sa 30:22 Then all the wicked and base fellows among the men who had gone with David said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil which we have recovered, except that each man may lead away his wife and children, and depart."

1Sa 30:23 But David said, "You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us; he has preserved us and given into our hand the band that came against us.

1Sa 30:24 Who would listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down into the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike."

1Sa 30:25 And from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

1Sa 30:26 When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the spoil to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD";

1Sa 30:27 it was for those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negeb, in Jattir,

1Sa 30:28 in Aroer, in Siphmoth, in Eshtemoa,

1Sa 30:29 in Racal, in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, in the cities of the Kenites,

1Sa 30:30 in Hormah, in Borashan, in Athach,

1Sa 30:31 in Hebron, for all the places where David and his men had roamed.

1Sa 31:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:2 And the Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

1Sa 31:3 The battle pressed hard upon Saul, and the archers found him; and he was badly wounded by the archers.

1Sa 31:4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer would not; for he feared greatly. Therefore Saul took his own sword, and fell upon it.

1Sa 31:5 And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword, and died with him.

1Sa 31:6 Thus Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men, on the same day together.

1Sa 31:7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those beyond the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

1Sa 31:8 On the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines, to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

1Sa 31:10 They put his armor in the temple of Ashtaroah; and they fastened his body to the wall of Bethshan.

1Sa 31:11 But when the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Sa 31:12 all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Bethshan; and they came to Jabesh and burnt them there.

1Sa 31:13 And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

2Sa 1:1 After the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag;

2Sa 1:2 and on the third day, behold, a man came from Saul's camp, with his clothes rent and earth upon his head. And when he came to David, he fell to the ground and did obeisance.

2Sa 1:3 David said to him, "Where do you come from?" And he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

2Sa 1:4 And David said to him, "How did it go? Tell me." And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead; and Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

2Sa 1:5 Then David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

2Sa 1:6 And the young man who told him said, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa; and there was Saul leaning upon his spear; and lo, the chariots and the horsemen were close upon him.

2Sa 1:7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'

2Sa 1:8 And he said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

2Sa 1:9 And he said to me, 'Stand beside me and slay me; for anguish has seized me, and yet my life still lingers.'

2Sa 1:10 So I stood beside him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen; and I took the crown which was on his head and the armlet which was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

2Sa 1:11 Then David took hold of his clothes, and rent them; and so did all the men who were with him;

2Sa 1:12 and they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son and for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2Sa 1:13 And David said to the young man who told him, "Where do you come from?" And he answered, "I am the son of a sojourner, an Amalekite."

2Sa 1:14 David said to him, "How is it you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the LORDS anointed?"

2Sa 1:15 Then David called one of the young men and said, "Go, fall upon him." And he smote him so that he died.

2Sa 1:16 And David said to him, "Your blood be upon your head; for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have slain the LORDS anointed.'"

2Sa 1:17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and Jonathan his son,

2Sa 1:18 and he said it should be taught to the people of Judah; behold, it is written in the Book of Jashar. He said:

2Sa 1:19 "Thy glory, O Israel, is slain upon thy high places! How are the mighty fallen!

2Sa 1:20 Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Ashkelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

2Sa 1:21 "Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor upsurging of the deep! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.

2Sa 1:22 "From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

2Sa 1:23 "Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely! In life and in death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

2Sa 1:24 "Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you daintily in scarlet, who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

2Sa 1:25 "How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! "Jonathan lies slain upon thy high places.

2Sa 1:26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; very pleasant have you been to me; your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

2Sa 1:27 "How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!"

2Sa 2:1 After this David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "To which shall I go up?" And he said, "To Hebron."

2Sa 2:2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

2Sa 2:3 And David brought up his men who were with him, every one with his household; and they dwelt in the towns of Hebron.

2Sa 2:4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. When they told David, "It was the men of Jabeshgilead who buried Saul,"

2Sa 2:5 David sent messengers to the men of Jabeshgilead, and said to them, "May you be blessed by the LORD, because you showed this loyalty to Saul your lord, and buried him!"

2Sa 2:6 Now may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you! And I will do good to you because you have done this thing.

2Sa 2:7 Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

2Sa 2:8 Now Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, had taken Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim;

2Sa 2:9 and he made him king over Gilead and the Ashurites and Jezreel and Ephraim and Benjamin and all Israel.

2Sa 2:10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

2Sa 2:11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

2Sa 2:12 Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

2Sa 2:13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

2Sa 2:14 And Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men arise and play before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."

2Sa 2:15 Then they arose and passed over by number, twelve for Benjamin and Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

2Sa 2:16 And each caught his opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkathhazzurim, which is at Gibeon.

2Sa 2:17 And the battle was very fierce that day; and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

2Sa 2:18 And the three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel was as swift of foot as a wild gazelle;

2Sa 2:19 and Asahel pursued Abner, and as he went he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.

2Sa 2:20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Is it you, Asahel?" And he answered, "It is I."

2Sa 2:21 Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and seize one of the young men, and take his spoil." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.

2Sa 2:22 And Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me; why should I smite you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to your brother Joab?"

2Sa 2:23 But he refused to turn aside; therefore Abner smote him in the belly with the butt of his spear, so that the spear came out at his back; and he fell there, and died where he was. And all who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, stood still.

2Sa 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner; and as the sun was going down they came to the hill of Ammah, which lies before Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

2Sa 2:25 And the Benjaminites gathered themselves together behind Abner, and became one band, and took their stand on the top of a hill.

2Sa 2:26 Then Abner called to Joab, "Shall the sword devour for ever? Do you not know that the end will be bitter? How long will it be before you bid your people turn from the pursuit of their brethren?"

2Sa 2:27 And Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely the men would have given up the pursuit of their brethren in the morning."

2Sa 2:28 So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the men stopped, and pursued Israel no more, nor did they fight any more.

2Sa 2:29 And Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; they crossed the Jordan, and marching the whole forenoon they came to Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:30 Joab returned from the pursuit of Abner; and when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David's servants nineteen men besides Asahel.

2Sa 2:31 But the servants of David had slain of Benjamin three hundred and sixty of Abner's men.

2Sa 2:32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was at Bethlehem. And Joab and his men marched all night, and the day broke upon them at Hebron.

2Sa 3:1 There was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul became weaker and weaker.

2Sa 3:2 And sons were born to David at Hebron: his first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel;

2Sa 3:3 and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

2Sa 3:4 and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

2Sa 3:5 and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

2Sa 3:6 While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

2Sa 3:7 Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

2Sa 3:8 Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head of Judah? This day I keep showing loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not given you into the hand of David; and yet you charge me today with a fault concerning a woman.

2Sa 3:9 God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not accomplish for David what the LORD has sworn to him,

2Sa 3:10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba."

2Sa 3:11 And Ishbosheth could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

2Sa 3:12 And Abner sent messengers to David at Hebron, saying, "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring over all Israel to you."

2Sa 3:13 And he said, "Good; I will make a covenant with you; but one thing I require of you; that is, you shall not see my face, unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

2Sa 3:14 Then David sent messengers to Ishbosheth Saul's son, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed at the price of a hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

2Sa 3:15 And Ishbosheth sent, and took her from her husband Paltiel the son of Laish.

2Sa 3:16 But her husband went with her, weeping after her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go, return"; and he returned.

2Sa 3:17 And Abner conferred with the elders of Israel, saying, "For some time past you have been seeking David as king over you.

2Sa 3:18 Now then bring it about; for the LORD has promised David, saying, `By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines, and from the hand of all their enemies.'"

2Sa 3:19 Abner also spoke to Benjamin; and then Abner went to tell David at Hebron all that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin thought good to do.

2Sa 3:20 When Abner came with twenty men to David at Hebron, David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

2Sa 3:21 And Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires." So David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

2Sa 3:22 Just then the servants of David arrived with Joab from a raid, bringing much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David at Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

2Sa 3:23 When Joab and all the army that was with him came, it was told Joab, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has let him go, and he has gone in peace."

2Sa 3:24 Then Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why is it that you have sent him away, so that he is gone?"

2Sa 3:25 You know that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing."

2Sa 3:26 When Joab came out from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah; but David did not know about it.

2Sa 3:27 And when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he smote him in the belly, so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

2Sa 3:28 Afterward, when David heard of it, he said, "I and my kingdom are for ever guiltless before the LORD for the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

2Sa 3:29 May it fall upon the head of Joab, and upon all his father's house; and may the house of Joab never be without one who has a discharge, or who is leprous, or who holds a spindle, or who is slain by the sword, or who lacks bread!"

2Sa 3:30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.

2Sa 3:31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Rend your clothes, and gird on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And King David followed the bier.

2Sa 3:32 They buried Abner at Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

2Sa 3:33 And the king lamented for Abner, saying, "Should Abner die as a fool dies?"

2Sa 3:34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered; as one falls before the wicked you have fallen." And all the people wept again over him.

2Sa 3:35 Then all the people came to persuade David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!"

2Sa 3:36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as everything that the king did pleased all the people.

2Sa 3:37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king's will to slay Abner the son of Ner.

2Sa 3:38 And the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?"

2Sa 3:39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; these men the sons of Zeruiah are too hard for me. The LORD requite the evildoer according to his wickedness!"

2Sa 4:1 When Ishbosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner had died at Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was dismayed.

2Sa 4:2 Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of raiding bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon a man of Benjamin from Beeroth (for Beeroth also is reckoned to Benjamin; 2Sa 4:3 the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have been sojourners there to this day).

2Sa 4:4 Jonathan, the son of Saul, had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up, and fled; and, as she fled in her haste, he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

2Sa 4:5 Now the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out, and about the heat of the day they came to the house of Ishbosheth, as he was taking his noonday rest.

2Sa 4:6 And behold, the doorkeeper of the house had been cleaning wheat, but she grew drowsy and slept; so Rechab and Baanah his brother slipped in.

2Sa 4:7 When they came into the house, as he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him. They took his head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night,

2Sa 4:8 and brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron. And they said to the king, "Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day on Saul and on his offspring."

2Sa 4:9 But David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life out of every adversity,

2Sa 4:10 when one told me, 'Behold, Saul is dead,' and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and slew him at Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news.

2Sa 4:11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous man in his own house upon his bed, shall I not now require his blood at your hand, and destroy you from the earth?"

2Sa 4:12 And David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them beside the pool at Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the tomb of Abner at Hebron.

2Sa 5:1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, "Behold, we are your bone and flesh.

2Sa 5:2 In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you that led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over Israel.'"

2Sa 5:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.

2Sa 5:4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

2Sa 5:5 At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all

Israel and Judah thirty-three years.

2Sa 5:6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who said to David, "You will not come in here, but the blind and the lame will ward you off" -- thinking, "David cannot come in here."

2Sa 5:7 Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, that is, the city of David.

2Sa 5:8 And David said on that day, "Whoever would smite the Jebusites, let him get up the water shaft to attack the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul." Therefore it is said, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

2Sa 5:9 And David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the city of David. And David built the city round about from the Millo inward.

2Sa 5:10 And David became greater and greater, for the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him.

2Sa 5:11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, also carpenters and masons who built David a house.

2Sa 5:12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

2Sa 5:13 And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron; and more sons and daughters were born to David.

2Sa 5:14 And these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2Sa 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2Sa 5:16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

2Sa 5:17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; but David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

2Sa 5:18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

2Sa 5:19 And David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt thou give them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand."

2Sa 5:20 And David came to Baalperazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a bursting flood." Therefore the name of that place is called Baalperazim.

2Sa 5:21 And the Philistines left their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.

2Sa 5:22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

2Sa 5:23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up; go around to their rear, and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.

2Sa 5:24 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then bestir yourself; for then the LORD has gone out before you to smite the army of the Philistines."

2Sa 5:25 And David did as the LORD commanded him, and smote the Philistines from Geba to Gezer.

2Sa 6:1 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2Sa 6:2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baalejudah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who sits enthroned on the cherubim.

2Sa 6:3 And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart

2Sa 6:4 with the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark.

2Sa 6:5 And David and all the house of Israel were making merry before the LORD with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

2Sa 6:6 And when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

2Sa 6:7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there because he put forth his hand to the ark; and he died there beside the ark of God.

2Sa 6:8 And David was angry because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzzah; and that place is called Perezuzzah, to this day.

2Sa 6:9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

2Sa 6:10 So David was not willing to take the ark of the LORD into the city of David; but David took it aside to the house of Obededom the Gittite.

2Sa 6:11 And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obededom the Gittite three months; and the LORD blessed Obededom and all his household.

2Sa 6:12 And it was told King David, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obededom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obededom to the city of David with rejoicing;

2Sa 6:13 and when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

2Sa 6:14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

2Sa 6:15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the horn.

2Sa 6:16 As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

2Sa 6:17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

2Sa 6:18 And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts, 2Sa 6:19 and distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people departed, each to his house.

2Sa 6:20 And David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants' maids, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

2Sa 6:21 And David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD -- and I will make merry before the LORD.

2Sa 6:22 I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in your eyes; but by the maids of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor."

2Sa 6:23 And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

2Sa 7:1 Now when the king dwelt in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies round about,

2Sa 7:2 the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells in a tent."

2Sa 7:3 And Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart; for the LORD is with you."

2Sa 7:4 But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan,

2Sa 7:5 "Go and tell my servant David, `Thus says the LORD: Would you build me a house to dwell in?

2Sa 7:6 I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent for my dwelling.

2Sa 7:7 In all places where I have moved with all the people of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"

2Sa 7:8 Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel;

2Sa 7:9 and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

2Sa 7:10 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and violent men shall afflict them no more, as formerly,

2Sa 7:11 from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the LORD declares to you that the LORD will make you a house.

2Sa 7:12 When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

2Sa 7:13 He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

2Sa 7:14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son. When he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men;

2Sa 7:15 but I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you.

2Sa 7:16 And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before me; your throne shall be established for ever."

2Sa 7:17 In accordance with all these words, and in accordance with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

2Sa 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and said, "Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me thus far?

2Sa 7:19 And yet this was a small thing in thy eyes, O Lord GOD; thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast shown me future generations, O Lord GOD!

2Sa 7:20 And what more can David say to thee? For thou knowest thy servant, O Lord GOD!

2Sa 7:21 Because of thy promise, and according to thy own heart, thou hast wrought all this greatness, to make thy servant know it.

2Sa 7:22 Therefore thou art great, O LORD God; for there is none like thee, and there is no God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

2Sa 7:23 What other nation on earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his people, making himself a name, and doing for them great and terrible things, by driving out before his people a nation and its gods?

2Sa 7:24 And thou didst establish for thyself thy people Israel to be thy people for ever; and thou, O LORD, didst become their God.

2Sa 7:25 And now, O LORD God, confirm for ever the word which thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house, and do as thou hast spoken;

2Sa 7:26 and thy name will be magnified for ever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts is God over Israel,' and the house of thy servant David will be established before thee.

2Sa 7:27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, hast made this revelation to thy servant, saying, 'I will build you a house'; therefore thy servant has found courage to pray this prayer to thee.

2Sa 7:28 And now, O Lord GOD, thou art God, and thy words are true, and thou hast promised this good thing to thy servant;

2Sa 7:29 now therefore may it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee; for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken, and with thy blessing shall the house of thy servant be blessed for ever."

2Sa 8:1 After this David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and David took Methegammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2Sa 8:2 And he defeated Moab, and measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground; two lines he measured to be put to death, and one full line to be spared. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

2Sa 8:3 David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the river Euphrates.

2Sa 8:4 And David took from him a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but left enough for a hundred chariots.

2Sa 8:5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians.

2Sa 8:6 Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

2Sa 8:7 And David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

2Sa 8:8 And from Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took very much bronze.

2Sa 8:9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer,

2Sa 8:10 Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to greet him, and to congratulate him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him; for Hadadezer had often been at war with Toi. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, of gold, and of bronze;

2Sa 8:11 these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold which he dedicated from all the nations he subdued, 2Sa 8:12 from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

2Sa 8:13 And David won a name for himself. When he returned, he slew eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

2Sa 8:14 And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

2Sa 8:15 So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered justice and equity to all his people.

2Sa 8:16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

2Sa 8:17 and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; and Seraiah was secretary;

2Sa 8:18 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were priests.

2Sa 9:1 And David said, "Is there still any one left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2Sa 9:2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "Your servant is he."

2Sa 9:3 And the king said, "Is there not still some one of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God to him?" Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in his feet."

2Sa 9:4 The king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "He is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, at Lodebar."

2Sa 9:5 Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, at Lodebar.

2Sa 9:6 And Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face and did obeisance. And David said, "Mephibosheth!" And he answered, "Behold, your servant."

2Sa 9:7 And David said to him, "Do not fear; for I will show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your father; and you shall eat at my table always."

2Sa 9:8 And he did obeisance, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon a dead dog such as I?"

2Sa 9:9 Then the king called Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master's son.

2Sa 9:10 And you and your sons and your servants shall till the land for him, and shall bring in the produce, that your master's son may have bread to eat; but Mephibosheth your master's son shall always eat at my table."

Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

2Sa 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so will your servant do." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table, like one of the king's sons.

2Sa 9:12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. And all who dwelt in Ziba's house became Mephibosheth's servants.

2Sa 9:13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem; for he ate always at the king's table. Now he was lame in both his feet.

2Sa 10:1 After this the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2Sa 10:2 And David said, "I will deal loyally with Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father dealt loyally with me." So David sent by his servants to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the Ammonites.

2Sa 10:3 But the princes of the Ammonites said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think, because David has sent comforters to you, that he is honoring your father? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

2Sa 10:4 So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off half the beard of each, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their hips, and sent them away.

2Sa 10:5 When it was told David, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

2Sa 10:6 When the Ammonites saw that they had become odious to David, the Ammonites sent and hired the Syrians of Bethrehab, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and the men of Tob, twelve thousand men.

2Sa 10:7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the host of the mighty men.

2Sa 10:8 And the Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the gate; and the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the open country.

2Sa 10:9 When Joab saw that the battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel, and arrayed them against the Syrians;

2Sa 10:10 the rest of his men he put in the charge of Abishai his brother, and he arrayed them against the Ammonites.

2Sa 10:11 And he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

2Sa 10:12 Be of good courage, and let us play the man for our people, and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what seems good to him."

2Sa 10:13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to battle against the Syrians; and they fled before him.

2Sa 10:14 And when the Ammonites saw that the Syrians fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the Ammonites, and came to Jerusalem.

2Sa 10:15 But when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together.

2Sa 10:16 And Hadadezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the Euphrates; and they came to Helam, with Shobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer at their head.

2Sa 10:17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians arrayed themselves against David, and fought with him.

2Sa 10:18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians the men of seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen, and wounded Shobach the commander of their army, so that he died there.

2Sa 10:19 And when all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel, and became subject to them. So the Syrians feared to help the Ammonites any more.

2Sa 11:1 In the spring of the year, the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

2Sa 11:2 It happened, late one afternoon, when David arose from his couch and was walking upon the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful.

2Sa 11:3 And David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

2Sa 11:4 So David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself from her uncleanness.) Then she returned to her house.

2Sa 11:5 And the woman conceived; and she sent and told David, "I am with child."

2Sa 11:6 So David sent word to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

2Sa 11:7 When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab was doing, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered.

2Sa 11:8 Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." And Uriah went out of the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king.

2Sa 11:9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

2Sa 11:10 When they told David, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

2Sa 11:11 Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah dwell in booths; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

2Sa 11:12 Then David said to Uriah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day, and the next.

2Sa 11:13 And David invited him, and he ate in his presence and drank, so that he made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

2Sa 11:14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

2Sa 11:15 In the letter he wrote, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, that he may be struck down, and die."

2Sa 11:16 And as Joab was besieging the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew there were valiant men.

2Sa 11:17 And the men of the city came out and fought with Joab; and some of the servants of David among the people fell. Uriah the Hittite was slain also.

2Sa 11:18 Then Joab sent and told David all the news about the fighting;

2Sa 11:19 and he instructed the messenger, "When you have finished telling all the news about the fighting to the king,

2Sa 11:20 then, if the king's anger rises, and if he says to you, 'Why did you go so near the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

2Sa 11:21 Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman cast an upper millstone upon him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'"

2Sa 11:22 So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent him to tell.

2Sa 11:23 The messenger said to David, "The men gained an advantage over us, and came out against us in the field; but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate.

2Sa 11:24 Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king's servants are dead; and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also."

2Sa 11:25 David said to the messenger, "Thus shall you say to Joab, 'Do not let this matter trouble you, for the sword devours now one and now another; strengthen your attack upon the city, and overthrow it.' And encourage him."

2Sa 11:26 When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband.

2Sa 11:27 And when the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

2Sa 12:1 And the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor.

2Sa 12:2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds;

2Sa 12:3 but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his morsel, and drink from his cup, and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him.

2Sa 12:4 Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was unwilling to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb, and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

2Sa 12:5 Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die;

2Sa 12:6 and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity."

2Sa 12:7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man. Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul;

2Sa 12:8 and I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if this were too little, I would add to you as much more.

2Sa 12:9 Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have smitten Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the Ammonites.

2Sa 12:10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

2Sa 12:11 Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

2Sa 12:12 For you did it secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.'"

2Sa 12:13 David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die.

2Sa 12:14 Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD, the child that is born to you shall die."

2Sa 12:15 Then Nathan went to his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became sick.

2Sa 12:16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in and lay all night upon the ground.

2Sa 12:17 And the elders of his house stood beside him, to raise him from the ground; but he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

2Sa 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us; how then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm."

2Sa 12:19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead."

2Sa 12:20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD, and worshiped; he then went to his own house; and when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate.

2Sa 12:21 Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive; but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

2Sa 12:22 He said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows whether the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'

2Sa 12:23 But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me."

2Sa 12:24 Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her, and lay with her; and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him, 2Sa 12:25 and sent a message by Nathan the prophet; so he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

2Sa 12:26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and took the royal city.

2Sa 12:27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the city of waters.

2Sa 12:28 Now, then, gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called by my name."

2Sa 12:29 So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, and fought against it and took it.

2Sa 12:30 And he took the crown of their king from his head; the weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

2Sa 12:31 And he brought forth the people who were in it, and set them to labor with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them toil at the brickkilns; and thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 13:1 Now Absalom, David's son, had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and after a time Amnon, David's son, loved her.

2Sa 13:2 And Amnon was so tormented that he made himself ill because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.

2Sa 13:3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very crafty man.

2Sa 13:4 And he said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so haggard morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

2Sa 13:5 Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be ill; and when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.'"

2Sa 13:6 So Amnon lay down, and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Pray let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

2Sa 13:7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

2Sa 13:8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

2Sa 13:9 And she took the pan and emptied it out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Send out every one from me." So every one went out from him.

2Sa 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

2Sa 13:11 But when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

2Sa 13:12 She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me; for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this wanton folly.

2Sa 13:13 As for me, where could I carry my shame? And as for you, you would be as one of the wanton fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray you, speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

2Sa 13:14 But he would not listen to her; and being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her.

2Sa 13:15 Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred; so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone."

2Sa 13:16 But she said to him, "No, my brother; for this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other which you did to me." But he would not listen to her.

2Sa 13:17 He called the young man who served him and said, "Put this woman out of my presence, and bolt the door after her."

2Sa 13:18 Now she was wearing a long robe with sleeves; for thus were the virgin daughters of the king clad of old. So his servant put her out, and bolted the door after her.

2Sa 13:19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the long robe which she wore; and she laid her hand on her head, and went away, crying aloud as she went.

2Sa 13:20 And her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Now hold your peace, my sister; he is your brother; do not take this to heart." So Tamar dwelt, a desolate woman, in her brother Absalom's house.

2Sa 13:21 When King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.

2Sa 13:22 But Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

2Sa 13:23 After two full years Absalom had sheepshearers at Baalhazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

2Sa 13:24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, "Behold, your servant has sheepshearers; pray let the king and his servants go with your servant."

2Sa 13:25 But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you." He pressed him, but he would not go but gave him his blessing.

2Sa 13:26 Then Absalom said, "If not, pray let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

2Sa 13:27 But Absalom pressed him until he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

2Sa 13:28 Then Absalom commanded his servants, "Mark when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Fear not; have I not commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant."

2Sa 13:29 So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each mounted his mule and fled.

2Sa 13:30 While they were on the way, tidings came to David, "Absalom has slain all the king's sons, and not one of them is left."

2Sa 13:31 Then the king arose, and rent his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants who were standing by rent their garments.

2Sa 13:32 But Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead, for by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day he forced his sister Tamar.

2Sa 13:33 Now therefore let not my lord the king so take it to heart as to suppose that all the king's sons are dead; for Amnon alone is dead."

2Sa 13:34 But Absalom fled. And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the Horonaim road by the side of the mountain.

2Sa 13:35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons have come; as your servant said, so it has come about."

2Sa 13:36 And as soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept; and the king also and all his servants wept very bitterly.

2Sa 13:37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son day after day.

2Sa 13:38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

2Sa 13:39 And the spirit of the king longed to go forth to Absalom; for he was comforted about Amnon, seeing he was dead.

2Sa 14:1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart went out to Absalom.

2Sa 14:2 And Joab sent to Tekoa, and fetched from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments; do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead;

2Sa 14:3 and go to the king, and speak thus to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

2Sa 14:4 When the woman of Tekoa came to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, "Help, O king."

2Sa 14:5 And the king said to her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "Alas, I am a widow; my husband is dead.

2Sa 14:6 And your handmaid had two sons, and they quarreled with one another in the field; there was no one to part them, and one struck the other and killed him.

2Sa 14:7 And now the whole family has risen against your handmaid, and they say, 'Give up the man who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he slew'; and so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant upon the face of the earth."

2Sa 14:8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

2Sa 14:9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father's house; let the king and his throne be guiltless."

2Sa 14:10 The king said, "If any one says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall never touch you again."

2Sa 14:11 Then she said, "Pray let the king invoke the LORD your God, that the avenger of blood slay no more, and my son be not destroyed." He said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

2Sa 14:12 Then the woman said, "Pray let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."

2Sa 14:13 And the woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.

2Sa 14:14 We must all die, we are like water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; but God will not take away the life of him who devises means not to keep his banished one an outcast.

2Sa 14:15 Now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid; and your handmaid thought, 'I will speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.

2Sa 14:16 For the king will hear, and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the heritage of God.'

2Sa 14:17 And your handmaid thought, 'The word of my lord the king will set me at rest'; for my lord the king is like the angel of God to discern good and evil. The LORD your God be with you!"

2Sa 14:18 Then the king answered the woman, "Do not hide from me anything I ask you." And the woman said, "Let my lord the king speak."

2Sa 14:19 The king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" The woman answered and said, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, one cannot turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has said. It was your servant Joab who bade me; it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid.

2Sa 14:20 In order to change the course of affairs your servant Joab did this. But my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God to know all things that are on the earth."

2Sa 14:21 Then the king said to Joab, "Behold now, I grant this; go, bring back the young man Absalom."

2Sa 14:22 And Joab fell on his face to the ground, and did obeisance, and blessed the king; and Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, in that the king has granted the request of his servant."

2Sa 14:23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

2Sa 14:24 And the king said, "Let him dwell apart in his own house; he is not to come into my presence." So Absalom dwelt apart in his own house, and did not come into the king's presence.

2Sa 14:25 Now in all Israel there was no one so much to be praised for his beauty as Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

2Sa 14:26 And when he cut the hair of his head (for at the end of every year he used to cut it; when it was heavy on him, he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the king's weight.

2Sa 14:27 There were born to Absalom three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.

2Sa 14:28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, without coming into the king's presence.

2Sa 14:29 Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but Joab would not come to him. And he sent a second time, but Joab would not come.

2Sa 14:30 Then he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

2Sa 14:31 Then Joab arose and went to Absalom at his house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

2Sa 14:32 Absalom answered Joab, "Behold, I sent word to you, 'Come here, that I may send you to the king, to ask, 'Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.' Now therefore let me go into the presence of the king; and if there is guilt in me, let him kill me.'"

2Sa 14:33 Then Joab went to the king, and told him; and he summoned Absalom. So he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

2Sa 15:1 After this Absalom got himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2Sa 15:2 And Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the way of the gate; and when any man had a suit to come before the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him, and say, "From what city are you?" And when he said, "Your servant is of such and such a tribe in Israel,"

2Sa 15:3 Absalom would say to him, "See, your claims are good and right; but there is no man deputed by the king to hear you."

2Sa 15:4 Absalom said moreover, "Oh that I were judge in the land! Then every man with a suit or cause might come to me, and I would give him justice."

2Sa 15:5 And whenever a man came near to do obeisance to him, he would put out his hand, and take hold of him, and kiss him.

2Sa 15:6 Thus Absalom did to all of Israel who came to the king for judgment; so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

2Sa 15:7 And at the end of four years Absalom said to the king, "Pray let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron.

2Sa 15:8 For your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If the LORD will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will offer worship to the LORD.'"

2Sa 15:9 The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose, and went to Hebron.

2Sa 15:10 But Absalom sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then say, 'Absalom is king at Hebron!'"

2Sa 15:11 With Absalom went two hundred men from Jerusalem who were invited guests, and they went in their simplicity, and knew nothing.

2Sa 15:12 And while Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city Giloh. And the conspiracy grew strong, and the people with Absalom kept increasing.

2Sa 15:13 And a messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel have gone after Absalom."

2Sa 15:14 Then David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; or else there will be no escape for us from Absalom; go in haste, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword."

2Sa 15:15 And the king's servants said to the king, "Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king decides."

2Sa 15:16 So the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten concubines to keep the house.

2Sa 15:17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him; and they halted at the last house.

2Sa 15:18 And all his servants passed by him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath, passed on before the king.

2Sa 15:19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why do you also go with us? Go back, and stay with the king; for you are a foreigner, and also an exile from your home.

2Sa 15:20 You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander about with us, seeing I go I know not where? Go back, and take your brethren with you; and may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you."

2Sa 15:21 But Ittai answered the king, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, there also will your servant be."

2Sa 15:22 And David said to Ittai, "Go then, pass on." So Ittai the Gittite passed on, with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

2Sa 15:23 And all the country wept aloud as all the people passed by, and the king crossed the brook Kidron, and all the people passed on toward the wilderness.

2Sa 15:24 And Abiathar came up, and lo, Zadok came also, with all the Levites, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God, until the people had all passed out of the city.

2Sa 15:25 Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me back and let me see both it and his habitation;

2Sa 15:26 but if he says, 'I have no pleasure in you,' behold, here I am, let him do to me what seems good to him."

2Sa 15:27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Look, go back to the city in peace, you and Abiathar, with your two sons, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

2Sa 15:28 See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me."

2Sa 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem; and they remained there.

2Sa 15:30 But David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went, barefoot and with his head covered; and all the people who were with him covered their heads, and they went up, weeping as they went.

2Sa 15:31 And it was told David, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."

2Sa 15:32 When David came to the summit, where God was worshiped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent and earth upon his head.

2Sa 15:33 David said to him, "If you go on with me, you will be a burden to me.

2Sa 15:34 But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,' then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.

2Sa 15:35 Are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? So whatever you hear from the king's house, tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

2Sa 15:36 Behold, their two sons are with them there, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send to me everything you hear."

2Sa 15:37 So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city, just as Absalom was entering Jerusalem.

2Sa 16:1 When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, bearing two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred of summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

2Sa 16:2 And the king said to Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The asses are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who faint in the wilderness to drink."

2Sa 16:3 And the king said, "And where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he remains in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back the kingdom of my father.'"

2Sa 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours." And Ziba said, "I do obeisance; let me ever find favor in your sight, my lord the king."

2Sa 16:5 When King David came to Bahurim, there came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; and as he came he cursed continually.

2Sa 16:6 And he threw stones at David, and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

2Sa 16:7 And Shimei said as he cursed, "Begone, begone, you man of blood, you worthless fellow!

2Sa 16:8 The LORD has avenged upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. See, your ruin is on you; for you are a man of blood."

2Sa 16:9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head."

2Sa 16:10 But the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? If he is cursing because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David,' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

2Sa 16:11 And David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Behold, my own son seeks my life; how much more now may this Benjaminite! Let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has bidden him.

2Sa 16:12 It may be that the LORD will look upon my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for this cursing of me today."

2Sa 16:13 So David and his men went on the road, while Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him and flung dust.

2Sa 16:14 And the king, and all the people who were with him, arrived weary at the Jordan; and there he refreshed himself.

2Sa 16:15 Now Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

2Sa 16:16 And when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

2Sa 16:17 And Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

2Sa 16:18 And Hushai said to Absalom, "No; for whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

2Sa 16:19 And again, whom should I serve? Should it not be his son? As I have served your father, so I will serve you."

2Sa 16:20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your counsel; what shall we do?"

2Sa 16:21 Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened."

2Sa 16:22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom upon the roof; and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

2Sa 16:23 Now in those days the counsel which Ahithophel gave was as if one consulted the oracle of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel esteemed, both by David and by Absalom.

2Sa 17:1 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will set out and pursue David tonight.

2Sa 17:2 I will come upon him while he is weary and discouraged, and throw him into a panic; and all the people who are with him will flee. I will strike down the king only,

2Sa 17:3 and I will bring all the people back to you as a bride comes home to her husband. You seek the life of only one man, and all the people will be at peace."

2Sa 17:4 And the advice pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

2Sa 17:5 Then Absalom said, "Call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he has to say."

2Sa 17:6 And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "Thus has Ahithophel spoken; shall we do as he advises? If not, you speak."

2Sa 17:7 Then Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the counsel which Ahithophel has given is not good."

2Sa 17:8 Hushai said moreover, "You know that your father and his men are mighty men, and that they are enraged, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Besides, your father is expert in war; he will not spend the night with the people.

2Sa 17:9 Behold, even now he has hidden himself in one of the pits, or in some other place. And when some of the people fall at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'

2Sa 17:10 Then even the valiant man, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt with fear; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that those who are with him are valiant men.

2Sa 17:11 But my counsel is that all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, as the sand by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

2Sa 17:12 So we shall come upon him in some place where he is to be found, and we shall light upon him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and all the men with him not one will be left.

2Sa 17:13 If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we shall drag it into the valley, until not even a pebble is to be found there."

2Sa 17:14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

2Sa 17:15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Thus and so did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and so have I counseled.

2Sa 17:16 Now therefore send quickly and tell David, 'Do not lodge tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.'"

2Sa 17:17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at Enrogel; a maidservant used to go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David; for they must not be seen entering the city.

2Sa 17:18 But a lad saw them, and told Absalom; so both of them went away quickly, and came to the house of a man at Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it.

2Sa 17:19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and scattered grain upon it; and nothing was known of it.

2Sa 17:20 When Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman said to them, "They have gone over the brook of water." And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 17:21 After they had gone, the men came up out of the well, and went and told King David. They said to David, "Arise, and go quickly over the water; for thus and so has Ahithophel counseled against you."

2Sa 17:22 Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they crossed the Jordan; by daybreak not one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

2Sa 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and went off home to his own city. And he set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father.

2Sa 17:24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

2Sa 17:25 Now Absalom had set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite, who had married Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

2Sa 17:26 And Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

2Sa 17:27 When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Machir the son of Ammiel from Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

2Sa 17:28 brought beds, basins, and earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched grain, beans and lentils,

2Sa 17:29 honey and curds and sheep and cheese from the herd, for David and the people with him to eat; for they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

2Sa 18:1 Then David mustered the men who were with him, and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

2Sa 18:2 And David sent forth the army, one third under the command of Joab, one third under the command of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the men, "I myself will also go out with you."

2Sa 18:3 But the men said, "You shall not go out. For if we flee, they will not care about us. If half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore it is better that you send us help from the city."

2Sa 18:4 The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

2Sa 18:5 And the king ordered Joab and Abishai and Ittai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave orders to all the commanders about Absalom.

2Sa 18:6 So the army went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim.

2Sa 18:7 And the men of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand men.

2Sa 18:8 The battle spread over the face of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword.

2Sa 18:9 And Absalom chanced to meet the servants of David. Absalom was riding upon his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak, and his head caught fast in the oak, and he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him went on.

2Sa 18:10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak."

2Sa 18:11 Joab said to the man who told him, "What, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have been glad to give you ten pieces of silver and a girdle."

2Sa 18:12 But the man said to Joab, "Even if I felt in my hand the weight of a thousand pieces of silver, I would not put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, 'For my sake protect the young man Absalom.'"

2Sa 18:13 On the other hand, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof."

2Sa 18:14 Joab said, "I will not waste time like this with you." And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them into the heart of Absalom, while he was still alive in the oak.

2Sa 18:15 And ten young men, Joab's armor-bearers, surrounded Absalom and struck him, and killed him.

2Sa 18:16 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the troops came back from pursuing Israel; for Joab restrained them.

2Sa 18:17 And they took Absalom, and threw him into a great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones; and all Israel fled every one to his own home.

2Sa 18:18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself the pillar which is in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance"; he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called Absalom's monument to this day.

2Sa 18:19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, "Let me run, and carry tidings to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the power of his enemies."

2Sa 18:20 And Joab said to him, "You are not to carry tidings today; you may carry tidings another day, but today you shall carry no tidings, because the king's son is dead."

2Sa 18:21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed before Joab, and ran.

2Sa 18:22 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, "Come what may, let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, seeing that you will have no reward for the tidings?"

2Sa 18:23 "Come what may," he said, "I will run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.
2Sa 18:24 Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and when he lifted up his eyes and looked, he saw a man running alone.
2Sa 18:25 And the watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there are tidings in his mouth." And he came apace, and drew near.
2Sa 18:26 And the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gate and said, "See, another man running alone!" The king said, "He also brings tidings."
2Sa 18:27 And the watchman said, "I think the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good tidings."
2Sa 18:28 Then Ahimaaz cried out to the king, "All is well." And he bowed before the king with his face to the earth, and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king."
2Sa 18:29 And the king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I do not know what it was."
2Sa 18:30 And the king said, "Turn aside, and stand here." So he turned aside, and stood still.
2Sa 18:31 And behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, "Good tidings for my lord the king! For the LORD has delivered you this day from the power of all who rose up against you."
2Sa 18:32 The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be like that young man."
2Sa 18:33 And the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, he said, "O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!"
2Sa 19:1 It was told Joab, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."
2Sa 19:2 So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people; for the people heard that day, "The king is grieving for his son."
2Sa 19:3 And the people stole into the city that day as people steal in who are ashamed when they flee in battle.
2Sa 19:4 The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, "O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!"
2Sa 19:5 Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "You have today covered with shame the faces of all your servants, who have this day saved your life, and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and your concubines,
2Sa 19:6 because you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. For you have made it clear today that commanders and servants are nothing to you; for today I perceive that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then you would be pleased.
2Sa 19:7 Now therefore arise, go out and speak kindly to your servants; for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go, not a man will stay with you this night; and this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now."
2Sa 19:8 Then the king arose, and took his seat in the gate. And the people were all told, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate"; and all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his own home.
2Sa 19:9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies, and saved us from the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land from Absalom.
2Sa 19:10 But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?"
2Sa 19:11 And King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Say to the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel has come to the king?'
2Sa 19:12 You are my kinsmen, you are my bone and my flesh; why then should you be the last to bring back the king?'
2Sa 19:13 And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of my army henceforth in place of Joab.'"
2Sa 19:14 And he swayed the heart of all the men of Judah as one man; so that they sent word to the king, "Return, both you and all your servants."
2Sa 19:15 So the king came back to the Jordan; and Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and to bring the king over the Jordan.
2Sa 19:16 And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, from Bahurim, made haste to come down with the men of Judah to meet King David;

2Sa 19:17 and with him were a thousand men from Benjamin. And Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants, rushed down to the Jordan before the king,

2Sa 19:18 and they crossed the ford to bring over the king's household, and to do his pleasure. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was about to cross the Jordan, 2Sa 19:19 and said to the king, "Let not my lord hold me guilty or remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem; let not the king bear it in mind.

2Sa 19:20 For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore, behold, I have come this day, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."

2Sa 19:21 Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORDS anointed?"

2Sa 19:22 But David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be as an adversary to me? Shall any one be put to death in Israel this day? For do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?"

2Sa 19:23 And the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king gave him his oath.

2Sa 19:24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came back in safety.

2Sa 19:25 And when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

2Sa 19:26 He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said to him, 'Saddle an ass for me, that I may ride upon it and go with the king.' For your servant is lame.

2Sa 19:27 He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; do therefore what seems good to you.

2Sa 19:28 For all my father's house were but men doomed to death before my lord the king; but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right have I, then, to cry to the king?"

2Sa 19:29 And the king said to him, "Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land."

2Sa 19:30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, "Oh, let him take it all, since my lord the king has come safely home."

2Sa 19:31 Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim; and he went on with the king to the Jordan, to escort him over the Jordan.

2Sa 19:32 Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old; and he had provided the king with food while he stayed at Mahanaim; for he was a very wealthy man.

2Sa 19:33 And the king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and I will provide for you with me in Jerusalem."

2Sa 19:34 But Barzillai said to the king, "How many years have I still to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

2Sa 19:35 I am this day eighty years old; can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or what he drinks? Can I still listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

2Sa 19:36 Your servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king recompense me with such a reward?

2Sa 19:37 Pray let your servant return, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do for him whatever seems good to you."

2Sa 19:38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you; and all that you desire of me I will do for you."

2Sa 19:39 Then all the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over; and the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own home.

2Sa 19:40 The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, brought the king on his way.

2Sa 19:41 Then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all David's men with him?"

2Sa 19:42 All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"

2Sa 19:43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, "We have ten shares in the king, and in David also we have more than you. Why then did you despise us? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?" But the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

2Sa 20:1 Now there happened to be there a worthless fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite; and he blew the trumpet, and said, "We have no portion in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to his tents, O Israel!"

2Sa 20:2 So all the men of Israel withdrew from David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah followed their king steadfastly from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

2Sa 20:3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten concubines whom he had left to care for the house, and put them in a house under guard, and provided for them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as if in widowhood.

2Sa 20:4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and be here yourself."

2Sa 20:5 So Amasa went to summon Judah; but he delayed beyond the set time which had been appointed him.

2Sa 20:6 And David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and cause us trouble."

2Sa 20:7 And there went out after Abishai, Joab and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

2Sa 20:8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was wearing a soldier's garment, and over it was a girdle with a sword in its sheath fastened upon his loins, and as he went forward it fell out.

2Sa 20:9 And Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

2Sa 20:10 But Amasa did not observe the sword which was in Joab's hand; so Joab struck him with it in the body, and shed his bowels to the ground, without striking a second blow; and he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

2Sa 20:11 And one of Joab's men took his stand by Amasa, and said, "Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab."

2Sa 20:12 And Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the highway. And any one who came by, seeing him, stopped; and when the man saw that all the people stopped, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and threw a garment over him.

2Sa 20:13 When he was taken out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

2Sa 20:14 And Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Bethmaacah; and all the Bichrites assembled, and followed him in.

2Sa 20:15 And all the men who were with Joab came and besieged him in Abel of Bethmaacah; they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and they were battering the wall, to throw it down.

2Sa 20:16 Then a wise woman called from the city, "Hear! Hear! Tell Joab, 'Come here, that I may speak to you.'"

2Sa 20:17 And he came near her; and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."

2Sa 20:18 Then she said, "They were wont to say in old time, 'Let them but ask counsel at Abel'; and so they settled a matter.

2Sa 20:19 I am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel; you seek to destroy a city which is a mother in Israel; why will you swallow up the heritage of the LORD?"

2Sa 20:20 Joab answered, "Far be it from me, far be it, that I should swallow up or destroy!

2Sa 20:21 That is not true. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, called Sheba the son of Bichri, has lifted up his hand against King David; give up him alone, and I will withdraw from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall."

2Sa 20:22 Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they dispersed from the city, every man to his home. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

2Sa 20:23 Now Joab was in command of all the army of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was in command of the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

2Sa 20:24 and Adoram was in charge of the forced labor; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder;

2Sa 20:25 and Sheva was secretary; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

2Sa 20:26 and Ira the Jairite was also David's priest.

2Sa 21:1 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the face of the LORD. And the LORD said, "There is bloodguilt on Saul and on his house, because he put the Gibeonites to death."

2Sa 21:2 So the king called the Gibeonites. Now the Gibeonites were not of the people of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; although the people of Israel had sworn to spare them, Saul had sought to slay them in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.

2Sa 21:3 And David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And how shall I make expiation, that you may bless the heritage of the LORD?"

2Sa 21:4 The Gibeonites said to him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel." And he said, "What do you say that I shall do for you?"

2Sa 21:5 They said to the king, "The man who consumed us and planned to destroy us, so that we should have no place in all the territory of Israel,

2Sa 21:6 let seven of his sons be given to us, so that we may hang them up before the LORD at Gibeon on the mountain of the LORD." And the king said, "I will give them."

2Sa 21:7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

2Sa 21:8 The king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite;

2Sa 21:9 and he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before the LORD, and the seven of them perished together. They were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest.

2Sa 21:10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell upon them from the heavens; and she did not allow the birds of the air to come upon them by day, or the beasts of the field by night.

2Sa 21:11 When David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

2Sa 21:12 David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the men of Jabeshgilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Bethshan, where the Philistines had hanged them, on the day the Philistines killed Saul on Gilboa;

2Sa 21:13 and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan; and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged.

2Sa 21:14 And they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father; and they did all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded supplications for the land.

2Sa 21:15 The Philistines had war again with Israel, and David went down together with his servants, and they fought against the Philistines; and David grew weary.

2Sa 21:16 And Ishbibenob, one of the descendants of the giants, whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze, and who was girded with a new sword, thought to kill David.

2Sa 21:17 But Abishai the son of Zeruah came to his aid, and attacked the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men adjured him, "You shall no more go out with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel."

2Sa 21:18 After this there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Saph, who was one of the descendants of the giants.

2Sa 21:19 And there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim, the Bethlehemite, slew Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

2Sa 21:20 And there was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was descended from the giants.

2Sa 21:21 And when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, slew him.

2Sa 21:22 These four were descended from the giants in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

2Sa 22:1 And David spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

2Sa 22:2 He said, "The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, 2Sa 22:3 my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge, my savior; thou savest me from violence.

2Sa 22:4 I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

2Sa 22:5 "For the waves of death encompassed me, the torrents of perdition assailed me;

2Sa 22:6 the cords of Sheol entangled me, the snares of death confronted me.

2Sa 22:7 "In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I called. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry came to his ears.

2Sa 22:8 "Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations of the heavens trembled and quaked, because he was angry.

2Sa 22:9 Smoke went up from his nostrils, and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him.

2Sa 22:10 He bowed the heavens, and came down; thick darkness was under his feet.

2Sa 22:11 He rode on a cherub, and flew; he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

2Sa 22:12 He made darkness around him his canopy, thick clouds, a gathering of water.
2Sa 22:13 Out of the brightness before him coals of fire flamed forth.
2Sa 22:14 The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered his voice.
2Sa 22:15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and routed them.
2Sa 22:16 Then the channels of the sea were seen, the foundations of the world were laid bare, at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
2Sa 22:17 "He reached from on high, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.
2Sa 22:18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
2Sa 22:19 They came upon me in the day of my calamity; but the LORD was my stay.
2Sa 22:20 He brought me forth into a broad place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.
2Sa 22:21 "The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.
2Sa 22:22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
2Sa 22:23 For all his ordinances were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside.
2Sa 22:24 I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.
2Sa 22:25 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.
2Sa 22:26 "With the loyal thou dost show thyself loyal; with the blameless man thou dost show thyself blameless;
2Sa 22:27 with the pure thou dost show thyself pure, and with the crooked thou dost show thyself perverse.
2Sa 22:28 Thou dost deliver a humble people, but thy eyes are upon the haughty to bring them down.
2Sa 22:29 Yea, thou art my lamp, O LORD, and my God lightens my darkness.
2Sa 22:30 Yea, by thee I can crush a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall.
2Sa 22:31 This God -- his way is perfect; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.
2Sa 22:32 "For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?
2Sa 22:33 This God is my strong refuge, and has made my way safe.
2Sa 22:34 He made my feet like hinds' feet, and set me secure on the heights.
2Sa 22:35 He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
2Sa 22:36 Thou hast given me the shield of thy salvation, and thy help made me great.
2Sa 22:37 Thou didst give a wide place for my steps under me, and my feet did not slip;
2Sa 22:38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and did not turn back until they were consumed.
2Sa 22:39 I consumed them; I thrust them through, so that they did not rise; they fell under my feet.
2Sa 22:40 For thou didst gird me with strength for the battle; thou didst make my assailants sink under me.
2Sa 22:41 Thou didst make my enemies turn their backs to me, those who hated me, and I destroyed them.
2Sa 22:42 They looked, but there was none to save; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.
2Sa 22:43 I beat them fine as the dust of the earth, I crushed them and stamped them down like the mire of the streets.
2Sa 22:44 "Thou didst deliver me from strife with the peoples; thou didst keep me as the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.
2Sa 22:45 Foreigners came cringing to me; as soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me.
2Sa 22:46 Foreigners lost heart, and came trembling out of their fastnesses.
2Sa 22:47 "The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock, and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation,
2Sa 22:48 the God who gave me vengeance and brought down peoples under me,
2Sa 22:49 who brought me out from my enemies; thou didst exalt me above my adversaries, thou didst deliver me from men of violence.
2Sa 22:50 "For this I will extol thee, O LORD, among the nations, and sing praises to thy name.
2Sa 22:51 Great triumphs he gives to his king, and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David, and his descendants for ever."
2Sa 23:1 Now these are the last words of David: The oracle of David, the son of Jesse, the oracle of the man who was raised on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the sweet psalmist of Israel:
2Sa 23:2 "The Spirit of the LORD speaks by me, his word is upon my tongue.
2Sa 23:3 The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: When one rules justly over men, ruling in the fear of God,
2Sa 23:4 he dawns on them like the morning light, like the sun shining forth upon a cloudless morning, like rain that makes grass to sprout from the earth.
2Sa 23:5 Yea, does not my house stand so with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. For will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire?
2Sa 23:6 But godless men are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be taken with the hand;

2Sa 23:7 but the man who touches them arms himself with iron and the shaft of a spear, and they are utterly consumed with fire."

2Sa 23:8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Joshebbasshebeth a Tahchemonite; he was chief of the three; he wielded his spear against eight hundred whom he slew at one time.

2Sa 23:9 And next to him among the three mighty men was Eleazar the son of Dodo, son of Ahohi. He was with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel withdrew.

2Sa 23:10 He rose and struck down the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand cleaved to the sword; and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the men returned after him only to strip the slain.

2Sa 23:11 And next to him was Shammah, the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the men fled from the Philistines.

2Sa 23:12 But he took his stand in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD wrought a great victory.

2Sa 23:13 And three of the thirty chief men went down, and came about harvest time to David at the cave of Adullam, when a band of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

2Sa 23:14 David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.

2Sa 23:15 And David said longingly, "O that some one would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!"

2Sa 23:16 Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD,

2Sa 23:17 and said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

2Sa 23:18 Now Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruah, was chief of the thirty. And he wielded his spear against three hundred men and slew them, and won a name beside the three.

2Sa 23:19 He was the most renowned of the thirty, and became their commander; but he did not attain to the three.

2Sa 23:20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he smote two ariels of Moab. He also went down and slew a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

2Sa 23:21 And he slew an Egyptian, a handsome man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but Benaiah went down to him with a staff, and snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

2Sa 23:22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and won a name beside the three mighty men.

2Sa 23:23 He was renowned among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard.

2Sa 23:24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

2Sa 23:25 Shammah of Harod, Elikah of Harod,

2Sa 23:26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkeiah of Tekoa,

2Sa 23:27 Abiezer, of Anathoth, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

2Sa 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai of Netophah,

2Sa 23:29 Heleb the son of Baanah of Netophah, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the Benjaminites,

2Sa 23:30 Benaiah of Pirathon, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash,

2Sa 23:31 Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth of Bahurim,

2Sa 23:32 Eliahba of Shaalbon, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

2Sa 23:33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

2Sa 23:34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai of Maacah, Eliam the son of Ahithophel of Gilo,

2Sa 23:35 Hezro of Carmel, Paarai the Arbite,

2Sa 23:36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

2Sa 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai of Beeroth, the armor-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruah,

2Sa 23:38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

2Sa 23:39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

2Sa 24:1 Again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

2Sa 24:2 So the king said to Joab and the commanders of the army, who were with him, "Go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and number the people, that I may know the number of the people."

2Sa 24:3 But Joab said to the king, "May the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king still see it; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"

2Sa 24:4 But the king's word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.

2Sa 24:5 They crossed the Jordan, and began from Aroer, and from the city that is in the middle of the valley, toward Gad and on to Jazer.

2Sa 24:6 Then they came to Gilead, and to Kadesh in the land of the Hittites; and they came to Dan, and from Dan they went around to Sidon,
2Sa 24:7 and came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites; and they went out to the Negeb of Judah at Beersheba.
2Sa 24:8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
2Sa 24:9 And Joab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: in Israel there were eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.
2Sa 24:10 But David's heart smote him after he had numbered the people. And David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, I pray thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly."
2Sa 24:11 And when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,
2Sa 24:12 "Go and say to David, `Thus says the LORD, Three things I offer you; choose one of them, that I may do it to you."
2Sa 24:13 So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, "Shall three years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now consider, and decide what answer I shall return to him who sent me."
2Sa 24:14 Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but let me not fall into the hand of man."
2Sa 24:15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time; and there died of the people from Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand men.
2Sa 24:16 And when the angel stretched forth his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented of the evil, and said to the angel who was working destruction among the people, "It is enough; now stay your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
2Sa 24:17 Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was smiting the people, and said, "Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, be against me and against my father's house."
2Sa 24:18 And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, "Go up, rear an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."
2Sa 24:19 So David went up at Gad's word, as the LORD commanded.
2Sa 24:20 And when Araunah looked down, he saw the king and his servants coming on toward him; and Araunah went forth, and did obeisance to the king with his face to the ground.
2Sa 24:21 And Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy the threshing floor of you, in order to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be averted from the people."
2Sa 24:22 Then Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him; here are the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood.
2Sa 24:23 All this, O king, Araunah gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "The LORD your God accept you."
2Sa 24:24 But the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will buy it of you for a price; I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
2Sa 24:25 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD heeded supplications for the land, and the plague was averted from Israel.
1Ki 1:1 Now King David was old and advanced in years; and although they covered him with clothes, he could not get warm.
1Ki 1:2 Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young maiden be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait upon the king, and be his nurse; let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may be warm."
1Ki 1:3 So they sought for a beautiful maiden throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.
1Ki 1:4 The maiden was very beautiful; and she became the king's nurse and ministered to him; but the king knew her not.
1Ki 1:5 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.
1Ki 1:6 His father had never at any time displeased him by asking, "Why have you done thus and so?" He was also a very handsome man; and he was born next after Absalom.
1Ki 1:7 He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest; and they followed Adonijah and helped him.
1Ki 1:8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and David's mighty men were not with Adonijah.

1Ki 1:9 Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fatlings by the Serpent's Stone, which is beside Enrogel, and he invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the royal officials of Judah, 1Ki 1:10 but he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the mighty men or Solomon his brother.

1Ki 1:11 Then Nathan said to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king and David our lord does not know it?"

1Ki 1:12 Now therefore come, let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

1Ki 1:13 Go in at once to King David, and say to him, "Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your maidservant, saying, 'Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne'? Why then is Adonijah king?"

1Ki 1:14 Then while you are still speaking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

1Ki 1:15 So Bathsheba went to the king into his chamber (now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king).

1Ki 1:16 Bathsheba bowed and did obeisance to the king, and the king said, "What do you desire?"

1Ki 1:17 She said to him, "My lord, you swore to your maidservant by the LORD your God, saying, 'Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.'

1Ki 1:18 And now, behold, Adonijah is king, although you, my lord the king, do not know it.

1Ki 1:19 He has sacrificed oxen, fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.

1Ki 1:20 And now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

1Ki 1:21 Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted offenders."

1Ki 1:22 While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.

1Ki 1:23 And they told the king, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he bowed before the king, with his face to the ground.

1Ki 1:24 And Nathan said, "My lord the king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne'?"

1Ki 1:25 For he has gone down this day, and has sacrificed oxen, fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, Joab the commander of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!'

1Ki 1:26 But me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, he has not invited.

1Ki 1:27 Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king and you have not told your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

1Ki 1:28 Then King David answered, "Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

1Ki 1:29 And the king swore, saying, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of every adversity,

1Ki 1:30 as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, 'Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead'; even so will I do this day."

1Ki 1:31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and did obeisance to the king, and said, "May my lord King David live for ever!"

1Ki 1:32 King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king.

1Ki 1:33 And the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon;

1Ki 1:34 and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet there anoint him king over Israel; then blow the trumpet, and say, 'Long live King Solomon!'

1Ki 1:35 You shall then come up after him, and he shall come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead; and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah."

1Ki 1:36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, "Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so.

1Ki 1:37 As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

1Ki 1:38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down and caused Solomon to ride on King David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

1Ki 1:39 There Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent, and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"

1Ki 1:40 And all the people went up after him, playing on pipes, and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth was split by their noise.

1Ki 1:41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished feasting. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "What does this uproar in the city mean?"

1Ki 1:42 While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came; and Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and bring good news."

1Ki 1:43 Jonathan answered Adonijah, "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king;

1Ki 1:44 and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king's mule;

1Ki 1:45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.

1Ki 1:46 Solomon sits upon the royal throne.

1Ki 1:47 Moreover the king's servants came to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'Your God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours, and make his throne greater than your throne.' And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

1Ki 1:48 And the king also said, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted one of my offspring to sit on my throne this day, my own eyes seeing it.'

1Ki 1:49 Then all the guests of Adonijah trembled, and rose, and each went his own way.

1Ki 1:50 And Adonijah feared Solomon; and he arose, and went, and caught hold of the horns of the altar.

1Ki 1:51 And it was told Solomon, "Behold, Adonijah fears King Solomon; for, lo, he has laid hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me first that he will not slay his servant with the sword.'"

1Ki 1:52 And Solomon said, "If he prove to be a worthy man, not one of his hairs shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."

1Ki 1:53 So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and did obeisance to King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

1Ki 2:1 When David's time to die drew near, he charged Solomon his son, saying,

1Ki 2:2 "I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man,

1Ki 2:3 and keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;

1Ki 2:4 that the LORD may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel.'

1Ki 2:5 "Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner the son of Ner, and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he murdered, avenging in time of peace blood which had been shed in war, and putting innocent blood upon the girdle about my loins, and upon the sandals on my feet.

1Ki 2:6 Act therefore according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.

1Ki 2:7 But deal loyally with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for with such loyalty they met me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

1Ki 2:8 And there is also with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim; but when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'

1Ki 2:9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless, for you are a wise man; you will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down with blood to Sheol."

1Ki 2:10 Then David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

1Ki 2:11 And the time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

1Ki 2:12 So Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was firmly established.

1Ki 2:13 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Do you come peaceably?" He said, "Peaceably."

1Ki 2:14 Then he said, "I have something to say to you." She said, "Say on."

1Ki 2:15 He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel fully expected me to reign; however the kingdom has turned about and become my brother's, for it was his from the LORD.

1Ki 2:16 And now I have one request to make of you; do not refuse me." She said to him, "Say on."

1Ki 2:17 And he said, "Pray ask King Solomon -- he will not refuse you -- to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife."

1Ki 2:18 Bathsheba said, "Very well; I will speak for you to the king."

1Ki 2:19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her, and bowed down to her; then he sat on his throne, and had a seat brought for the king's mother; and she sat

1Ki 2:20 Then she said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Make your request, my mother; for I will not refuse you."

1Ki 2:21 She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as his wife."

1Ki 2:22 King Solomon answered his mother, "And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother, and on his side are Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah."

1Ki 2:23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "God do so to me and more also if this word does not cost Adonijah his life!

1Ki 2:24 Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me, and placed me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day."

1Ki 2:25 So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him down, and he died.

1Ki 2:26 And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your estate; for you deserve death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you shared in all the affliction of my father."

1Ki 2:27 So Solomon expelled Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD which he had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

1Ki 2:28 When the news came to Joab -- for Joab had supported Adonijah although he had not supported Absalom -- Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and caught hold of the horns of the altar.

1Ki 2:29 And when it was told King Solomon, "Joab has fled to the tent of the LORD, and behold, he is beside the altar," Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down."

1Ki 2:30 So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD, and said to him, "The king commands, 'Come forth.'" But he said, "No, I will die here." Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

1Ki 2:31 The king replied to him, "Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him; and thus take away from me and from my father's house the guilt for the blood which Joab shed without cause.

1Ki 2:32 The LORD will bring back his bloody deeds upon his own head, because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and slew with the sword two men more righteous and better than himself, Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

1Ki 2:33 So shall their blood come back upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his descendants for ever; but to David, and to his descendants, and to his house, and to his throne, there shall be peace from the LORD for evermore."

1Ki 2:34 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and struck him down and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

1Ki 2:35 The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in place of Joab, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

1Ki 2:36 Then the king sent and summoned Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and do not go forth from there to any place whatever.

1Ki 2:37 For on the day you go forth, and cross the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall die; your blood shall be upon your own head."

1Ki 2:38 And Shimei said to the king, "What you say is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

1Ki 2:39 But it happened at the end of three years that two of Shimei's slaves ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And when it was told Shimei, "Behold, your slaves are in Gath," 1Ki 2:40 Shimei arose and saddled an ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his slaves; Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath.

1Ki 2:41 And when Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned,

1Ki 2:42 the king sent and summoned Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and solemnly admonish you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you go forth and go to any place whatever, you shall die'? And you said to me, 'What you say is good; I obey.'

1Ki 2:43 Why then have you not kept your oath to the LORD and the commandment with which I charged you?"

1Ki 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, "You know in your own heart all the evil that you did to David my father; so the LORD will bring back your evil upon your own head.

1Ki 2:45 But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever."

1Ki 2:46 Then the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. So the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

1Ki 3:1 Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt; he took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem.

1Ki 3:2 The people were sacrificing at the high places, however, because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD.

1Ki 3:3 Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father; only, he sacrificed and burnt incense at the high places.

1Ki 3:4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings upon that altar.

1Ki 3:5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you."

1Ki 3:6 And Solomon said, "Thou hast shown great and steadfast love to thy servant David my father, because he walked before thee in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward thee; and thou hast kept for him this great and steadfast love, and hast given him a son to sit on his throne this day.

1Ki 3:7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

1Ki 3:8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people whom thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude.

1Ki 3:9 Give thy servant therefore an understanding mind to govern thy people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to govern this thy great people?"

1Ki 3:10 It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this.

1Ki 3:11 And God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right,

1Ki 3:12 behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you.

1Ki 3:13 I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no other king shall compare with you, all your days.

1Ki 3:14 And if you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

1Ki 3:15 And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

1Ki 3:16 Then two harlots came to the king, and stood before him.

1Ki 3:17 The one woman said, "Oh, my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she was in the house.

1Ki 3:18 Then on the third day after I was delivered, this woman also gave birth; and we were alone; there was no one else with us in the house, only we two were in the house.

1Ki 3:19 And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on it.

1Ki 3:20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your maidservant slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom.

1Ki 3:21 When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, behold, it was dead; but when I looked at it closely in the morning, behold, it was not the child that I had borne."

1Ki 3:22 But the other woman said, "No, the living child is mine, and the dead child is yours." The first said, "No, the dead child is yours, and the living child is mine." Thus they spoke before the king.

1Ki 3:23 Then the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son that is alive, and your son is dead'; and the other says, 'No; but your son is dead, and my son is the living one.'"

1Ki 3:24 And the king said, "Bring me a sword." So a sword was brought before the king.

1Ki 3:25 And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other."

1Ki 3:26 Then the woman whose son was alive said to the king, because her heart yearned for her son, "Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and by no means slay it." But the other said, "It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it."

1Ki 3:27 Then the king answered and said, "Give the living child to the first woman, and by no means slay it; she is its mother."

1Ki 3:28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they stood in awe of the king, because they perceived that the wisdom of God was in him, to render justice.

1Ki 4:1 King Solomon was king over all Israel,

1Ki 4:2 and these were his high officials: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest;

1Ki 4:3 Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Shisha were secretaries; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

1Ki 4:4 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was in command of the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

1Ki 4:5 Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan was priest and king's friend;

1Ki 4:6 Ahishar was in charge of the palace; and Adoniram the son of Abda was in charge of the forced labor.

1Ki 4:7 Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each man had to make provision for one month in the year.

1Ki 4:8 These were their names: Benhur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

1Ki 4:9 Bendeker, in Makaz, Shaalbim, Bethshemesh, and Elonbethhanan;

1Ki 4:10 Benhesed, in Arubboth (to him belonged Socoh and all the land of Hepher);

1Ki 4:11 Benabinadab, in all Naphathdor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);

1Ki 4:12 Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Bethshean which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, and from Bethshean to Abelmeholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

1Ki 4:13 Bengeber, in Ramothgilead (he had the villages of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);

1Ki 4:14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

1Ki 4:15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he had taken Basemath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);

1Ki 4:16 Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;

1Ki 4:17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

1Ki 4:18 Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin;

1Ki 4:19 Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan. And there was one officer in the land of Judah.

1Ki 4:20 Judah and Israel were as many as the sand by the sea; they ate and drank and were happy.

1Ki 4:21 Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

1Ki 4:22 Solomon's provision for one day was thirty cors of fine flour, and sixty cors of meal,

1Ki 4:23 ten fat oxen, and twenty pasture-fed cattle, a hundred sheep, besides harts, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.

1Ki 4:24 For he had dominion over all the region west of the Euphrates from Tiphseh to Gaza, over all the kings west of the Euphrates; and he had peace on all sides round about him.

1Ki 4:25 And Judah and Israel dwelt in safety, from Dan even to Beersheba, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, all the days of Solomon.

1Ki 4:26 Solomon also had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

1Ki 4:27 And those officers supplied provisions for King Solomon, and for all who came to King Solomon's table, each one in his month; they let nothing be lacking.

1Ki 4:28 Barley also and straw for the horses and swift steeds they brought to the place where it was required, each according to his charge.

1Ki 4:29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding beyond measure, and largeness of mind like the sand on the seashore, 1Ki 4:30 so that Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the people of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

1Ki 4:31 For he was wiser than all other men, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the nations round about.

1Ki 4:32 He also uttered three thousand proverbs; and his songs were a thousand and five.

1Ki 4:33 He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the wall; he spoke also of beasts, and of birds, and of reptiles, and of fish.

1Ki 4:34 And men came from all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and from all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

1Ki 5:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram always loved David.

1Ki 5:2 And Solomon sent word to Hiram,

1Ki 5:3 "You know that David my father could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the warfare with which his enemies surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

1Ki 5:4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune.

1Ki 5:5 And so I purpose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD said to David my father, 'Your son, whom I will set upon your throne in your place, shall build the house for my name.'

1Ki 5:6 Now therefore command that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me; and my servants will join your servants, and I will pay you for your servants such wages as you set; for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

1Ki 5:7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given to David a wise son to be over this great people."

1Ki 5:8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent to me; I am ready to do all you desire in the matter of cedar and cypress timber.

1Ki 5:9 My servants shall bring it down to the sea from Lebanon; and I will make it into rafts to go by sea to the place you direct, and I will have them broken up there, and you shall receive it; and you shall meet my wishes by providing food for my household."

1Ki 5:10 So Hiram supplied Solomon with all the timber of cedar and cypress that he desired,

1Ki 5:11 while Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty thousand cors of beaten oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year.

1Ki 5:12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and the two of them made a treaty.

1Ki 5:13 King Solomon raised a levy of forced labor out of all Israel; and the levy numbered thirty thousand men.

1Ki 5:14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in relays; they would be a month in Lebanon and two months at home; Adoniram was in charge of the levy.

1Ki 5:15 Solomon also had seventy thousand burden-bearers and eighty thousand hewers of stone in the hill country,

1Ki 5:16 besides Solomon's three thousand three hundred chief officers who were over the work, who had charge of the people who carried on the work.

1Ki 5:17 At the king's command, they quarried out great, costly stones in order to lay the foundation of the house with dressed stones.

1Ki 5:18 So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the men of Gebal did the hewing and prepared the timber and the stone to build the house.

1Ki 6:1 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the people of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD.

1Ki 6:2 The house which King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high.

1Ki 6:3 The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits long, equal to the width of the house, and ten cubits deep in front of the house.

1Ki 6:4 And he made for the house windows with recessed frames.

1Ki 6:5 He also built a structure against the wall of the house, running round the walls of the house, both the nave and the inner sanctuary; and he made side chambers all around.

1Ki 6:6 The lowest story was five cubits broad, the middle one was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for around the outside of the house he made offsets on the wall in order that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house.

1Ki 6:7 When the house was built, it was with stone prepared at the quarry; so that neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron was heard in the temple, while it was being built.

1Ki 6:8 The entrance for the lowest story was on the south side of the house; and one went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle story to the third.

1Ki 6:9 So he built the house, and finished it; and he made the ceiling of the house of beams and planks of cedar.

1Ki 6:10 He built the structure against the whole house, each story five cubits high, and it was joined to the house with timbers of cedar.

1Ki 6:11 Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon,

1Ki 6:12 "Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes and obey my ordinances and keep all my commandments and walk in them, then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father.

1Ki 6:13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel."

1Ki 6:14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

1Ki 6:15 He lined the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the rafters of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

1Ki 6:16 He built twenty cubits of the rear of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the rafters, and he built this within as an inner sanctuary, as the most holy place.

1Ki 6:17 The house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long.

1Ki 6:18 The cedar within the house was carved in the form of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar, no stone was seen.

1Ki 6:19 The inner sanctuary he prepared in the innermost part of the house, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1Ki 6:20 The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high; and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also made an altar of cedar.

1Ki 6:21 And Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold, and he drew chains of gold across, in front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.

1Ki 6:22 And he overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.

1Ki 6:23 In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olivewood, each ten cubits high.

1Ki 6:24 Five cubits was the length of one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the length of the other wing of the cherub; it was ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

1Ki 6:25 The other cherub also measured ten cubits; both cherubim had the same measure and the same form.

1Ki 6:26 The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the other cherub.

1Ki 6:27 He put the cherubim in the innermost part of the house; and the wings of the cherubim were spread out so that a wing of one touched the one wall, and a wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; their other wings touched each other in the middle of the house.

1Ki 6:28 And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

1Ki 6:29 He carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, in the inner and outer rooms.

1Ki 6:30 The floor of the house he overlaid with gold in the inner and outer rooms.

1Ki 6:31 For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors of olivewood; the lintel and the doorposts formed a pentagon.

1Ki 6:32 He covered the two doors of olivewood with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; he overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubim and upon the palm trees.

1Ki 6:33 So also he made for the entrance to the nave doorposts of olivewood, in the form of a square,

1Ki 6:34 and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

1Ki 6:35 On them he carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold evenly applied upon the carved work.

1Ki 6:36 He built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone and one course of cedar beams.

1Ki 6:37 In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

1Ki 6:38 And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its parts, and according to all its specifications. He was seven years in building it.

1Ki 7:1 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished his entire house.

1Ki 7:2 He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, and it was built upon three rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

1Ki 7:3 And it was covered with cedar above the chambers that were upon the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row.

1Ki 7:4 There were window frames in three rows, and window opposite window in three tiers.

1Ki 7:5 All the doorways and windows had square frames, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

1Ki 7:6 And he made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; there was a porch in front with pillars, and a canopy before them.

1Ki 7:7 And he made the Hall of the Throne where he was to pronounce judgment, even the Hall of Judgment; it was finished with cedar from floor to rafters.

1Ki 7:8 His own house where he was to dwell, in the other court back of the hall, was of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken in marriage.

1Ki 7:9 All these were made of costly stones, hewn according to measure, sawed with saws, back and front, even from the foundation to the coping, and from the court of the house of the LORD to the great court.

1Ki 7:10 The foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of eight and ten cubits.

1Ki 7:11 And above were costly stones, hewn according to measurement, and cedar.

1Ki 7:12 The great court had three courses of hewn stone round about, and a course of cedar beams; so had the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the vestibule of the house.

1Ki 7:13 And King Solomon sent and brought Hiram from Tyre.

1Ki 7:14 He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was full of wisdom, understanding, and skill, for making any work in bronze. He came to King Solomon, and did all his work.

1Ki 7:15 He cast two pillars of bronze. Eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits measured its circumference; it was hollow, and its thickness was four fingers; the second pillar was the same.

1Ki 7:16 He also made two capitals of molten bronze, to set upon the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

1Ki 7:17 Then he made two nets of checker work with wreaths of chain work for the capitals upon the tops of the pillars; a net for the one capital, and a net for the other capital.

1Ki 7:18 Likewise he made pomegranates; in two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the capital that was upon the top of the pillar; and he did the same with the other capital.

1Ki 7:19 Now the capitals that were upon the tops of the pillars in the vestibule were of lily-work, four cubits.

1Ki 7:20 The capitals were upon the two pillars and also above the rounded projection which was beside the network; there were two hundred pomegranates, in two rows round about; and so with the other capital.

1Ki 7:21 He set up the pillars at the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the south and called its name Jachin; and he set up the pillar on the north and called its name Boaz.

1Ki 7:22 And upon the tops of the pillars was lily-work. Thus the work of the pillars was finished.

1Ki 7:23 Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from brim to brim, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

1Ki 7:24 Under its brim were gourds, for thirty cubits, compassing the sea round about; the gourds were in two rows, cast with it when it was cast.

1Ki 7:25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

1Ki 7:26 Its thickness was a handbreadth; and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held two thousand baths.

1Ki 7:27 He also made the ten stands of bronze; each stand was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high.

1Ki 7:28 This was the construction of the stands: they had panels, and the panels were set in the frames

1Ki 7:29 and on the panels that were set in the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. Upon the frames, both above and below the lions and oxen, there were wreaths of beveled work.

1Ki 7:30 Moreover each stand had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze; and at the four corners were supports for a laver. The supports were cast, with wreaths at the side of each.

1Ki 7:31 Its opening was within a crown which projected upward one cubit; its opening was round, as a pedestal is made, a cubit and a half deep. At its opening there were carvings; and its panels were square, not round.

1Ki 7:32 And the four wheels were underneath the panels; the axles of the wheels were of one piece with the stands; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.

1Ki 7:33 The wheels were made like a chariot wheel; their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs, were all cast.

1Ki 7:34 There were four supports at the four corners of each stand; the supports were of one piece with the stands.

1Ki 7:35 And on the top of the stand there was a round band half a cubit high; and on the top of the stand its stays and its panels were of one piece with it.

1Ki 7:36 And on the surfaces of its stays and on its panels, he carved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths round about.

1Ki 7:37 After this manner he made the ten stands; all of them were cast alike, of the same measure and the same form.

1Ki 7:38 And he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver held forty baths, each laver measured four cubits, and there was a laver for each of the ten stands.

1Ki 7:39 And he set the stands, five on the south side of the house, and five on the north side of the house; and he set the sea on the southeast corner of the house.

1Ki 7:40 Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished all the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of the LORD:

1Ki 7:41 the two pillars, the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars;

1Ki 7:42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars;

1Ki 7:43 the ten stands, and the ten lavers upon the stands;

1Ki 7:44 and the one sea, and the twelve oxen underneath the sea.

1Ki 7:45 Now the pots, the shovels, and the basins, all these vessels in the house of the LORD, which Hiram made for King Solomon, were of burnished bronze.

1Ki 7:46 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

1Ki 7:47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because there were so many of them; the weight of the bronze was not found out.

1Ki 7:48 So Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, the golden table for the bread of the Presence,

1Ki 7:49 the lampstands of pure gold, five on the south side and five on the north, before the inner sanctuary; the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;

1Ki 7:50 the cups, snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, and firepans, of pure gold; and the sockets of gold, for the doors of the innermost part of the house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the nave of the temple.

1Ki 7:51 Thus all the work that King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and the vessels, and stored them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

1Ki 8:1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' houses of the people of Israel, before King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

1Ki 8:2 And all the men of Israel assembled to King Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

1Ki 8:3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

1Ki 8:4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

1Ki 8:5 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

1Ki 8:6 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, in the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.

1Ki 8:7 For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles.

1Ki 8:8 And the poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside; and they are there to this day.

1Ki 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

1Ki 8:10 And when the priests came out of the holy place, a cloud filled the house of the LORD, 1Ki 8:11 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

1Ki 8:12 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has set the sun in the heavens, but has said that he would dwell in thick darkness.

1Ki 8:13 I have built thee an exalted house, a place for thee to dwell in for ever."

1Ki 8:14 Then the king faced about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

1Ki 8:15 And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to David my father, saying,

1Ki 8:16 'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city in all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.'

1Ki 8:17 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ki 8:18 But the LORD said to David my father, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart;

1Ki 8:19 nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.'

1Ki 8:20 Now the LORD has fulfilled his promise which he made; for I have risen in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ki 8:21 And there I have provided a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."

1Ki 8:22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;

1Ki 8:23 and said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing steadfast love to thy servants who walk before thee with all their heart;

1Ki 8:24 who hast kept with thy servant David my father what thou didst declare to him; yea, thou didst speak with thy mouth, and with thy hand hast fulfilled it this day.

1Ki 8:25 Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what thou hast promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a man before me to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.'

1Ki 8:26 Now therefore, O God of Israel, let thy word be confirmed, which thou hast spoken to thy servant David my father.

1Ki 8:27 "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

1Ki 8:28 Yet have regard to the prayer of thy servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, hearkening to the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prays before thee this day;

1Ki 8:29 that thy eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which thou hast said, 'My name shall be there,' that thou mayest hearken to the prayer which thy servant offers toward this place.

1Ki 8:30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant and of thy people Israel, when they pray toward this place; yea, hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place; and when thou hearest, forgive.

1Ki 8:31 "If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, and comes and swears his oath before thine altar in this house,

1Ki 8:32 then hear thou in heaven, and act, and judge thy servants, condemning the guilty by bringing his conduct upon his own head, and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

1Ki 8:33 "When thy people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against thee, if they turn again to thee, and acknowledge thy name, and pray and make supplication to thee in this house;

1Ki 8:34 then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again to the land which thou gavest to their fathers.

1Ki 8:35 "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against thee, if they pray toward this place, and acknowledge thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them,

1Ki 8:36 then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, thy people Israel, when thou dost teach them the good way in which they should walk; and grant rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people as an inheritance.

1Ki 8:37 "If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence or blight or mildew or locust or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in any of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is;

1Ki 8:38 whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by any man or by all thy people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart and stretching out his hands toward this house;

1Ki 8:39 then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and render to each whose heart thou knowest, according to all his ways (for thou, thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men);

1Ki 8:40 that they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest to our fathers.

1Ki 8:41 "Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of thy people Israel, comes from a far country for thy name's sake

1Ki 8:42 (for they shall hear of thy great name, and thy mighty hand, and of thy outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house,

1Ki 8:43 hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to thee; in order that all the peoples of the earth may know thy name and fear thee, as do thy people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

1Ki 8:44 "If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way thou shalt send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen and the house which I have built for thy name, 1Ki 8:45 then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

1Ki 8:46 "If they sin against thee -- for there is no man who does not sin -- and thou art angry with them, and dost give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near;

1Ki 8:47 yet if they lay it to heart in the land to which they have been carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to thee in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned, and have acted perversely and wickedly';

1Ki 8:48 if they repent with all their mind and with all their heart in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to thee toward their land, which thou gavest to their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

1Ki 8:49 then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause

1Ki 8:50 and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions which they have committed against thee; and grant them compassion in the sight of those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them

1Ki 8:51 (for they are thy people, and thy heritage, which thou didst bring out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace).

1Ki 8:52 Let thy eyes be open to the supplication of thy servant, and to the supplication of thy people Israel, giving ear to them whenever they call to thee.

1Ki 8:53 For thou didst separate them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be thy heritage, as thou didst declare through Moses, thy servant, when thou didst bring our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."

1Ki 8:54 Now as Solomon finished offering all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had knelt with hands outstretched toward heaven;

1Ki 8:55 and he stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

1Ki 8:56 "Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised; not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he uttered by Moses his servant.

1Ki 8:57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers; may he not leave us or forsake us;

1Ki 8:58 that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers.

1Ki 8:59 Let these words of mine, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires;

1Ki 8:60 that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

1Ki 8:61 Let your heart therefore be wholly true to the LORD our God, walking in his statutes and keeping his commandments, as at this day."

1Ki 8:62 Then the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

1Ki 8:63 Solomon offered as peace offerings to the LORD twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

1Ki 8:64 The same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offering and the cereal offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offering and the cereal offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings.

1Ki 8:65 So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days.

1Ki 8:66 On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their homes joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David his servant and to Israel his people.

1Ki 9:1 When Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king's house and all that Solomon desired to build,

1Ki 9:2 the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

1Ki 9:3 And the LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before me; I have consecrated this house which you have built, and put my name there for ever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.

1Ki 9:4 And as for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, with integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you, and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,

1Ki 9:5 then I will establish your royal throne over Israel for ever, as I promised David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man upon the throne of Israel.'

1Ki 9:6 But if you turn aside from following me, you or your children, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,

1Ki 9:7 then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and the house which I have consecrated for my name I will cast out of my sight; and Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

1Ki 9:8 And this house will become a heap of ruins; everyone passing by it will be astonished, and will hiss; and they will say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'

1Ki 9:9 Then they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought all this evil upon them.'"

1Ki 9:10 At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house,

1Ki 9:11 and Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold, as much as he desired, King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

1Ki 9:12 But when Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, they did not please him.

1Ki 9:13 Therefore he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" So they are called the land of Cabul to this day.

1Ki 9:14 Hiram had sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

1Ki 9:15 And this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon levied to build the house of the LORD and his own house and the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem and Hazor and Megiddo and Gezer

1Ki 9:16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burnt it with fire, and had slain the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife;

1Ki 9:17 so Solomon rebuilt Gezer) and Lower Bethoron

1Ki 9:18 and Baalath and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,

1Ki 9:19 and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

1Ki 9:20 All the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the people of Israel --

1Ki 9:21 their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the people of Israel were unable to destroy utterly -- these Solomon made a forced levy of slaves, and so they are to this day.

1Ki 9:22 But of the people of Israel Solomon made no slaves; they were the soldiers, they were his officials, his commanders, his captains, his chariot commanders and his horsemen.

1Ki 9:23 These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work: five hundred and fifty, who had charge of the people who carried on the work.

1Ki 9:24 But Pharaoh's daughter went up from the city of David to her own house which Solomon had built for her; then he built the Millo.

1Ki 9:25 Three times a year Solomon used to offer up burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built to the LORD, burning incense before the LORD. So he finished the house.

1Ki 9:26 King Solomon built a fleet of ships at Eziongeber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

1Ki 9:27 And Hiram sent with the fleet his servants, seamen who were familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon;

1Ki 9:28 and they went to Ophir, and brought from there gold, to the amount of four hundred and twenty talents; and they brought it to King Solomon.

1Ki 10:1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

1Ki 10:2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind.

1Ki 10:3 And Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king which he could not explain to her.

1Ki 10:4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

1Ki 10:5 the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings which he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

1Ki 10:6 And she said to the king, "The report was true which I heard in my own land of your affairs and of your wisdom,

1Ki 10:7 but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me; your wisdom and prosperity surpass the report which I heard.

1Ki 10:8 Happy are your wives! Happy are these your servants, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

1Ki 10:9 Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD loved Israel for ever, he has made you king, that you may execute justice and righteousness."

1Ki 10:10 Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great quantity of spices, and precious stones; never again came such an abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

1Ki 10:11 Moreover the fleet of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a very great amount of almug wood and precious stones.

1Ki 10:12 And the king made of the almug wood supports for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; no such almug wood has come or been seen, to this day.

1Ki 10:13 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked besides what was given her by the bounty of King Solomon. So she turned and went back to her own land, with her servants.

1Ki 10:14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 1Ki 10:15 besides that which came from the traders and from the traffic of the merchants, and from all the kings of Arabia and from the governors of the land.

1Ki 10:16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.

1Ki 10:17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went into each shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

1Ki 10:18 The king also made a great ivory throne, and overlaid it with the finest gold.

1Ki 10:19 The throne had six steps, and at the back of the throne was a calf's head, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests,

1Ki 10:20 while twelve lions stood there, one on each end of a step on the six steps. The like of it was never made in any kingdom.

1Ki 10:21 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver, it was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.

1Ki 10:22 For the king had a fleet of ships of Tarshish at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the fleet of ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

1Ki 10:23 Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.

1Ki 10:24 And the whole earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind.

1Ki 10:25 Every one of them brought his present, articles of silver and gold, garments, myrrh, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

1Ki 10:26 And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

1Ki 10:27 And the king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stone, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephelah.

1Ki 10:28 And Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, and the king's traders received them from Kue at a price.

1Ki 10:29 A chariot could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so through the king's traders they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

1Ki 11:1 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women: the daughter of Pharaoh, and Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, 1Ki 11:2 from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the people of Israel, "You shall not enter into marriage with them, neither shall they with you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods"; Solomon clung to these in love.

1Ki 11:3 He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

1Ki 11:4 For when Solomon was old his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not wholly true to the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

1Ki 11:5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

1Ki 11:6 So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not wholly follow the LORD, as David his father had done.

1Ki 11:7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain east of Jerusalem.

1Ki 11:8 And so he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

1Ki 11:9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, 1Ki 11:10 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD commanded.

1Ki 11:11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this has been your mind and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and will give it to your servant.

1Ki 11:12 Yet for the sake of David your father I will not do it in your days, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

1Ki 11:13 However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

1Ki 11:14 And the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal house in Edom.

1Ki 11:15 For when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army went up to bury the slain, he slew every male in Edom

1Ki 11:16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom);

1Ki 11:17 but Hadad fled to Egypt, together with certain Edomites of his father's servants, Hadad being yet a little child.

1Ki 11:18 They set out from Midian and came to Paran, and took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and assigned him an allowance of food, and gave him land.

1Ki 11:19 And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

1Ki 11:20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

1Ki 11:21 But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

1Ki 11:22 But Pharaoh said to him, "What have you lacked with me that you are now seeking to go to your own country?" And he said to him, "Only let me go."

1Ki 11:23 God also raised up as an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his master Hadadezer king of Zobah.

1Ki 11:24 And he gathered men about him and became leader of a marauding band, after the slaughter by David; and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and made him king in Damascus.

1Ki 11:25 He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon, doing mischief as Hadad did; and he abhorred

Israel, and reigned over Syria.

1Ki 11:26 Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also lifted up his hand against the king.

1Ki 11:27 And this was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king. Solomon built the Millo, and closed up the breach of the city of David his father.

1Ki 11:28 The man Jeroboam was very able, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious he gave him charge over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

1Ki 11:29 And at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and the two of them were alone in the open country.

1Ki 11:30 Then Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.

1Ki 11:31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I am about to tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon, and will give you ten tribes

1Ki 11:32 (but he shall have one tribe, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),

1Ki 11:33 because he has forsaken me, and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and has not walked in my ways, doing what is right in my sight and keeping my statutes and my ordinances, as David his father did.

1Ki 11:34 Nevertheless I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes;

1Ki 11:35 but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, ten tribes.

1Ki 11:36 Yet to his son I will give one tribe, that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put my name.

1Ki 11:37 And I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires, and you shall be king over Israel.

1Ki 11:38 And if you will hearken to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.

1Ki 11:39 And I will for this afflict the descendants of David, but not for ever."

1Ki 11:40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

1Ki 11:41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

1Ki 11:42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

1Ki 11:43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

1Ki 12:2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, whither he had fled from King Solomon), then Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

1Ki 12:3 And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and said to Rehoboam,

1Ki 12:4 "Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke upon us, and we will serve you."

1Ki 12:5 He said to them, "Depart for three days, then come again to me." So the people went away.

1Ki 12:6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he was yet alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"

1Ki 12:7 And they said to him, "If you will be a servant to this people today and serve them, and speak good words to them when you answer them, then they will be your servants for ever."

1Ki 12:8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.

1Ki 12:9 And he said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put upon us'?"

1Ki 12:10 And the young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus shall you speak to this people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but do you lighten it for us'; thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.

1Ki 12:11 And now, whereas my father laid upon you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

1Ki 12:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king said, "Come to me again the third day."

1Ki 12:13 And the king answered the people harshly, and forsaking the counsel which the old men had given him,

1Ki 12:14 he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

1Ki 12:15 So the king did not hearken to the people; for it was a turn of affairs brought about by the LORD that he might fulfil his word, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

1Ki 12:16 And when all Israel saw that the king did not hearken to them, the people answered the king, "What portion have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, David." So Israel departed to their tents.

1Ki 12:17 But Rehoboam reigned over the people of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

1Ki 12:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

1Ki 12:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

1Ki 12:20 And when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. There was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

1Ki 12:21 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

1Ki 12:22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God:

1Ki 12:23 "Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, 1Ki 12:24 `Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against your kinsmen the people of Israel. Return every man to his home, for this thing is from me.'" So they hearkened to the word of the LORD, and went home again, according to the word of the LORD.

1Ki 12:25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and dwelt there; and he went out from there and built Penuel.

1Ki 12:26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will turn back to the house of David;

1Ki 12:27 if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah."

1Ki 12:28 So the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold. And he said to the people, "You have gone up to Jerusalem long enough. Behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt."

1Ki 12:29 And he set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

1Ki 12:30 And this thing became a sin, for the people went to the one at Bethel and to the other as far as Dan.

1Ki 12:31 He also made houses on high places, and appointed priests from among all the people, who were not of the Levites.

1Ki 12:32 And Jeroboam appointed a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the feast that was in Judah, and he offered sacrifices upon the altar; so he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made.

And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.

1Ki 12:33 He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and he ordained a feast for the people of Israel, and went up to the altar to burn incense.

1Ki 13:1 And behold, a man of God came out of Judah by the word of the LORD to Bethel. Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.

1Ki 13:2 And the man cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: `Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and he shall sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and men's bones shall be burned upon you.'"

1Ki 13:3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: `Behold, the altar shall be torn down, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.'"

1Ki 13:4 And when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Lay hold of him." And his hand, which he stretched out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself.

1Ki 13:5 The altar also was torn down, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

1Ki 13:6 And the king said to the man of God, "Entreat now the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." And the man of God entreated the LORD; and the king's hand was restored to him, and became as it was before.

1Ki 13:7 And the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

1Ki 13:8 And the man of God said to the king, "If you give me half your house, I will not go in with you. And I will not eat bread or drink water in this place;

1Ki 13:9 for so was it commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, `You shall neither eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way that you came.'"

1Ki 13:10 So he went another way, and did not return by the way that he came to Bethel.

1Ki 13:11 Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel. And his sons came and told him all that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words also which he had spoken to the king, they told to their father.

1Ki 13:12 And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him the way which the man of God who came from Judah had gone.

1Ki 13:13 And he said to his sons, "Saddle the ass for me." So they saddled the ass for him and he mounted it.

1Ki 13:14 And he went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak; and he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."

1Ki 13:15 Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

1Ki 13:16 And he said, "I may not return with you, or go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place;

1Ki 13:17 for it was said to me by the word of the LORD, `You shall neither eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by the way that you came.'"

1Ki 13:18 And he said to him, "I also am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, `Bring him back with you into your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'" But he lied to him.

1Ki 13:19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

1Ki 13:20 And as they sat at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

1Ki 13:21 and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, "Thus says the LORD, `Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

1Ki 13:22 but have come back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, "Eat no bread, and drink no water"; your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.'"

1Ki 13:23 And after he had eaten bread and drunk, he saddled the ass for the prophet whom he had brought back.

1Ki 13:24 And as he went away a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his body was thrown in the road, and the ass stood beside it; the lion also stood beside the body.

1Ki 13:25 And behold, men passed by, and saw the body thrown in the road, and the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

1Ki 13:26 And when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God, who disobeyed the word of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and slain him, according to the word which the LORD spoke to him."

1Ki 13:27 And he said to his sons, "Saddle the ass for me." And they saddled it.

1Ki 13:28 And he went and found his body thrown in the road, and the ass and the lion standing beside the body. The lion had not eaten the body or torn the ass.

1Ki 13:29 And the prophet took up the body of the man of God and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

1Ki 13:30 And he laid the body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

1Ki 13:31 And after he had buried him, he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

1Ki 13:32 For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass."

1Ki 13:33 After this thing Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but made priests for the high places again from among all the people; any who would, he consecrated to be priests of the high places.

1Ki 13:34 And this thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, so as to cut it off and to destroy it from the face of the earth.

1Ki 14:1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

1Ki 14:2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Arise, and disguise yourself, that it be not known that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh; behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who said of me that I should be king over this people.

1Ki 14:3 Take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what shall happen to the child."

1Ki 14:4 Jeroboam's wife did so; she arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age.

1Ki 14:5 And the LORD said to Ahijah, "Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. Thus and thus shall you say to her." When she came, she pretended to be another woman.

1Ki 14:6 But when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam; why do you pretend to be another? For I am charged with heavy tidings for you.

1Ki 14:7 Go, tell Jeroboam, `Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you leader over my people Israel,

1Ki 14:8 and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you; and yet you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commandments, and followed me with all his heart, doing only that which was right in my eyes,

1Ki 14:9 but you have done evil above all that were before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods, and molten images, provoking me to anger, and have cast me behind your back;

1Ki 14:10 therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male, both bond and free in Israel, and will utterly consume the house of Jeroboam, as a man burns up dung until it is all gone.

1Ki 14:11 Any one belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat; for the LORD has spoken it."

1Ki 14:12 Arise therefore, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

1Ki 14:13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something pleasing to the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.

1Ki 14:14 Moreover the LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam today. And henceforth 1Ki 14:15 the LORD will smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and scatter them beyond the Euphrates, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger.

1Ki 14:16 And he will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he sinned and which he made Israel to sin."

1Ki 14:17 Then Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah. And as she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.

1Ki 14:18 And all Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet.

1Ki 14:19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 14:20 And the time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 14:21 Now Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

1Ki 14:22 And Judah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

1Ki 14:23 For they also built for themselves high places, and pillars, and Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree;

1Ki 14:24 and there were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

1Ki 14:25 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;

1Ki 14:26 he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made;

1Ki 14:27 and King Rehoboam made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

1Ki 14:28 And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard bore them and brought them back to the guardroom.

1Ki 14:29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

1Ki 14:30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

1Ki 14:31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 15:1 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah.

1Ki 15:2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

1Ki 15:3 And he walked in all the sins which his father did before him; and his heart was not wholly true to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

1Ki 15:4 Nevertheless for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, setting up his son after him, and establishing Jerusalem;

1Ki 15:5 because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

1Ki 15:6 Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

1Ki 15:7 The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

1Ki 15:8 And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 15:9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel Asa began to reign over Judah, 1Ki 15:10 and he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

1Ki 15:11 And Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as David his father had done.

1Ki 15:12 He put away the male cult prostitutes out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

1Ki 15:13 He also removed Maacah his mother from being queen mother because she had an abominable image made for Asherah; and Asa cut down her image and burned it at the brook Kidron.

1Ki 15:14 But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was wholly true to the LORD all his days.

1Ki 15:15 And he brought into the house of the LORD the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts, silver, and gold, and vessels.

1Ki 15:16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

1Ki 15:17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might permit no one to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

1Ki 15:18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into the hands of his servants; and King Asa sent them to

Benhadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

1Ki 15:19 "Let there be a league between me and you, as between my father and your father: behold, I am sending to you a present of silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."

1Ki 15:20 And Benhadad hearkened to King Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and conquered Ijon, Dan, Abelbethmaacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

1Ki 15:21 And when Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and he dwelt in Tirzah.

1Ki 15:22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah, none was exempt, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been building; and with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

1Ki 15:23 Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in his old age he was diseased in his feet.

1Ki 15:24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 15:25 Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years.

1Ki 15:26 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin which he made Israel to sin.

1Ki 15:27 Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

1Ki 15:28 So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

1Ki 15:29 And as soon as he was king, he killed all the house of Jeroboam; he left to the house of Jeroboam not one that breathed, until he had destroyed it, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite;

1Ki 15:30 it was for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned and which he made Israel to sin, and because of the anger to which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ki 15:31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 15:32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

1Ki 15:33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel at Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

1Ki 15:34 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he made Israel to sin.

1Ki 16:1 And the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
1Ki 16:2 "Since I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with their sins,
1Ki 16:3 behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
1Ki 16:4 Any one belonging to Baasha who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one of his who dies in the field the birds of the air shall eat."
1Ki 16:5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:6 And Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried at Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
1Ki 16:7 Moreover the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and also because he destroyed it.
1Ki 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years.
1Ki 16:9 But his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. When he was at Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah, 1Ki 16:10 Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.
1Ki 16:11 When he began to reign, as soon as he had seated himself on his throne, he killed all the house of Baasha; he did not leave him a single male of his kinsmen or his friends.
1Ki 16:12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,
1Ki 16:13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son which they sinned, and which they made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.
1Ki 16:14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines,
1Ki 16:16 and the troops who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired, and he has killed the king"; therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.
1Ki 16:17 So Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
1Ki 16:18 And when Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burned the king's house over him with fire, and died,
1Ki 16:19 because of his sins which he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and for his sin which he committed, making Israel to sin.
1Ki 16:20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the conspiracy which he made, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts; half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.
1Ki 16:22 But the people who followed Omri overcame the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath; so Tibni died, and Omri became king.
1Ki 16:23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, and reigned for twelve years; six years he reigned in Tirzah.
1Ki 16:24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he fortified the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.
1Ki 16:25 Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did more evil than all who were before him.
1Ki 16:26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in the sins which he made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their idols.
1Ki 16:27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.
1Ki 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.
1Ki 16:30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all that were before him.
1Ki 16:31 And as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he took for wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him.
1Ki 16:32 He erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he built in Samaria.
1Ki 16:33 And Ahab made an Asherah. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

1Ki 16:34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram his first-born, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

1Ki 17:1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word."

1Ki 17:2 And the word of the LORD came to him,

1Ki 17:3 "Depart from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is east of the Jordan.

1Ki 17:4 You shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

1Ki 17:5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith that is east of the Jordan.

1Ki 17:6 And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

1Ki 17:7 And after a while the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

1Ki 17:8 Then the word of the LORD came to him,

1Ki 17:9 "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you."

1Ki 17:10 So he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink."

1Ki 17:11 And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

1Ki 17:12 And she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a cruse; and now, I am gathering a couple of sticks, that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

1Ki 17:13 And Elijah said to her, "Fear not; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make for yourself and your son.

1Ki 17:14 For thus says the LORD the God of Israel, 'The jar of meal shall not be spent, and the cruse of oil shall not fail, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'"

1Ki 17:15 And she went and did as Elijah said; and she, and he, and her household ate for many days.

1Ki 17:16 The jar of meal was not spent, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by Elijah.

1Ki 17:17 After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; and his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.

1Ki 17:18 And she said to Elijah, "What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to cause the death of my son!"

1Ki 17:19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him from her bosom, and carried him up into the upper chamber, where he lodged, and laid him upon his own bed.

1Ki 17:20 And he cried to the LORD, "O LORD my God, hast thou brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?"

1Ki 17:21 Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried to the LORD, "O LORD my God, let this child's soul come into him again."

1Ki 17:22 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

1Ki 17:23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, "See, your son lives."

1Ki 17:24 And the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."

1Ki 18:1 After many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth."

1Ki 18:2 So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria.

1Ki 18:3 And Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah revered the LORD greatly;

1Ki 18:4 and when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

1Ki 18:5 And Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys; perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, and not lose some of the animals."

1Ki 18:6 So they divided the land between them to pass through it; Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadiah went in another direction by himself.

1Ki 18:7 And as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him; and Obadiah recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"

1Ki 18:8 And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Behold, Elijah is here.'"

1Ki 18:9 And he said, "Wherein have I sinned, that you would give your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?"

1Ki 18:10 As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom whither my lord has not sent to seek you; and when they would say, 'He is not here,' he would take an oath of the kingdom or nation, that they had not found you.

1Ki 18:11 And now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Elijah is here."'

1Ki 18:12 And as soon as I have gone from you, the Spirit of the LORD will carry you whither I know not; and so, when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I your servant have revered the LORD from my youth.

1Ki 18:13 Has it not been told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORDS prophets by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

1Ki 18:14 And now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Elijah is here"; and he will kill me.'

1Ki 18:15 And Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today."

1Ki 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

1Ki 18:17 When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, you troubler of Israel?"

1Ki 18:18 And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel; but you have, and your father's house, because you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and followed the Baals.

1Ki 18:19 Now therefore send and gather all Israel to me at Mount Carmel, and the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

1Ki 18:20 So Ahab sent to all the people of Israel, and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

1Ki 18:21 And Elijah came near to all the people, and said, "How long will you go limping with two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him." And the people did not answer him a word.

1Ki 18:22 Then Elijah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

1Ki 18:23 Let two bulls be given to us; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it; and I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood, and put no fire to it.

1Ki 18:24 And you call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answers by fire, he is God." And all the people answered, "It is well spoken."

1Ki 18:25 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire to it."

1Ki 18:26 And they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, answer us!" But there was no voice, and no one answered. And they limped about the altar which they had made.

1Ki 18:27 And at noon Elijah mocked them, saying, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is musing, or he has gone aside, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened."

1Ki 18:28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their custom with swords and lances, until the blood gushed out upon them.

1Ki 18:29 And as midday passed, they raved on until the time of the offering of the oblation, but there was no voice; no one answered, no one heeded.

1Ki 18:30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me"; and all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that had been thrown down;

1Ki 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, "Israel shall be your name";

1Ki 18:32 and with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

1Ki 18:33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. And he said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood."

1Ki 18:34 And he said, "Do it a second time"; and they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time"; and they did it a third time.

1Ki 18:35 And the water ran round about the altar, and filled the trench also with water.

1Ki 18:36 And at the time of the offering of the oblation, Elijah the prophet came near and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

1Ki 18:37 Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that thou, O LORD, art God, and that thou hast turned their hearts back."

1Ki 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

1Ki 18:39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The LORD, he is God; the LORD, he is God."

1Ki 18:40 And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape." And they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there.

1Ki 18:41 And Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of the rushing of rain."

1Ki 18:42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees.

1Ki 18:43 And he said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." And he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And he said, "Go again seven times."

1Ki 18:44 And at the seventh time he said, "Behold, a little cloud like a man's hand is rising out of the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down, lest the rain stop you.'"

1Ki 18:45 And in a little while the heavens grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel.

1Ki 18:46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

1Ki 19:1 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

1Ki 19:2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by this time tomorrow."

1Ki 19:3 Then he was afraid, and he arose and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

1Ki 19:4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree; and he asked that he might die, saying, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am no better than my fathers."

1Ki 19:5 And he lay down and slept under a broom tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat."

1Ki 19:6 And he looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on hot stones and a jar of water. And he ate and drank, and lay down again.

1Ki 19:7 And the angel of the LORD came again a second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, else the journey will be too great for you."

1Ki 19:8 And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

1Ki 19:9 And there he came to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

1Ki 19:10 He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the people of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thy altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

1Ki 19:11 And he said, "Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

1Ki 19:12 and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

1Ki 19:13 And when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And behold, there came a voice to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

1Ki 19:14 He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the people of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thy altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

1Ki 19:15 And the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; and when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria;

1Ki 19:16 and Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint to be king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah you shall anoint to be prophet in your place.

1Ki 19:17 And him who escapes from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay; and him who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

1Ki 19:18 Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

1Ki 19:19 So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and cast his mantle upon him.

1Ki 19:20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?"

1Ki 19:21 And he returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the yokes of the oxen, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.

1Ki 20:1 Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; thirty-two kings were with him, and horses and chariots; and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.

1Ki 20:2 And he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Benhadad:

1Ki 20:3 `Your silver and your gold are mine; your fairest wives and children also are mine."

1Ki 20:4 And the king of Israel answered, "As you say, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have."

1Ki 20:5 The messengers came again, and said, "Thus says Benhadad: `I sent to you, saying, "Deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children";

1Ki 20:6 nevertheless I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants, and lay hands on whatever pleases them, and take it away."

1Ki 20:7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Mark, now, and see how this man is seeking trouble; for he sent to me for my wives and my children, and for my silver and my gold, and I did not refuse him."

1Ki 20:8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not heed or consent."

1Ki 20:9 So he said to the messengers of Benhadad, "Tell my lord the king, `All that you first demanded of your servant I will do; but this thing I cannot do.'" And the messengers departed and brought him word again.

1Ki 20:10 Benhadad sent to him and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

1Ki 20:11 And the king of Israel answered, "Tell him, `Let not him that girds on his armor boast himself as he that puts it off."

1Ki 20:12 When Benhadad heard this message as he was drinking with the kings in the booths, he said to his men, "Take your positions." And they took their positions against the city.

1Ki 20:13 And behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD, Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will give it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

1Ki 20:14 And Ahab said, "By whom?" He said, "Thus says the LORD, By the servants of the governors of the districts." Then he said, "Who shall begin the battle?" He answered, "You."

1Ki 20:15 Then he mustered the servants of the governors of the districts, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people of Israel, seven thousand.

1Ki 20:16 And they went out at noon, while Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the thirty-two kings who helped him.

1Ki 20:17 The servants of the governors of the districts went out first. And Benhadad sent out scouts, and they reported to him, "Men are coming out from Samaria."

1Ki 20:18 He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

1Ki 20:19 So these went out of the city, the servants of the governors of the districts, and the army which followed them.

1Ki 20:20 And each killed his man; the Syrians fled and Israel pursued them, but Benhadad king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen.

1Ki 20:21 And the king of Israel went out, and captured the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

1Ki 20:22 Then the prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, "Come, strengthen yourself, and consider well what you have to do; for in the spring the king of Syria will come up against you."

1Ki 20:23 And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills, and so they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they."

1Ki 20:24 And do this: remove the kings, each from his post, and put commanders in their places;

1Ki 20:25 and muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." And he hearkened to their voice, and did so.

1Ki 20:26 In the spring Benhadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

1Ki 20:27 And the people of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them; the people of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Syrians filled the country.

1Ki 20:28 And a man of God came near and said to the king of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, `Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is a god of the hills but he is not a god of the valleys," therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

1Ki 20:29 And they encamped opposite one another seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the people of Israel smote of the Syrians a hundred thousand foot soldiers in one day.

1Ki 20:30 And the rest fled into the city of Aphek; and the wall fell upon twenty-seven thousand men that were left. Benhadad also fled, and entered an inner chamber in the city.

1Ki 20:31 And his servants said to him, "Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings; let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life."

1Ki 20:32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and went to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Benhadad says, 'Pray, let me live.'" And he said, "Does he still live? He is my brother."

1Ki 20:33 Now the men were watching for an omen, and they quickly took it up from him and said, "Yes, your brother Benhadad." Then he said, "Go and bring him." Then Benhadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

1Ki 20:34 And Benhadad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may establish bazaars for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." And Ahab said, "I will let you go on these terms." So he made a covenant with him and let him go.

1Ki 20:35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow at the command of the LORD, "Strike me, I pray." But the man refused to strike him.

1Ki 20:36 Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have gone from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he had departed from him, a lion met him and killed him.

1Ki 20:37 Then he found another man, and said, "Strike me, I pray." And the man struck him, smiting and wounding him.

1Ki 20:38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.

1Ki 20:39 And as the king passed, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a soldier turned and brought a man to me, and said, 'Keep this man; if by any means he be missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'

1Ki 20:40 And as your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." The king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."

1Ki 20:41 Then he made haste to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

1Ki 20:42 And he said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

1Ki 20:43 And the king of Israel went to his house resentful and sullen, and came to Samaria.

1Ki 21:1 Now Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, beside the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

1Ki 21:2 And after this Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near my house; and I will give you a better vineyard for it; or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money."

1Ki 21:3 But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

1Ki 21:4 And Ahab went into his house vexed and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food.

1Ki 21:5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so vexed that you eat no food?"

1Ki 21:6 And he said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it please you, I will give you another vineyard for it'; and he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

1Ki 21:7 And Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

1Ki 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and she sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who dwelt with Naboth in his city.

1Ki 21:9 And she wrote in the letters, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people;

1Ki 21:10 and set two base fellows opposite him, and let them bring a charge against him, saying, 'You have cursed God and the king.' Then take him out, and stone him to death."

1Ki 21:11 And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them. As it was written in the letters which she had sent to them,

1Ki 21:12 they proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

1Ki 21:13 And the two base fellows came in and sat opposite him; and the base fellows brought a charge against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him outside the city, and stoned him to death with stones.

1Ki 21:14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned; he is dead."

1Ki 21:15 As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

1Ki 21:16 And as soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

1Ki 21:17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 1Ki 21:18 "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession.

1Ki 21:19 And you shall say to him, `Thus says the LORD, "Have you killed, and also taken possession?" And you shall say to him, `Thus says the LORD: "In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your own blood.'"

1Ki 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" He answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the LORD.

1Ki 21:21 Behold, I will bring evil upon you; I will utterly sweep you away, and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel;

1Ki 21:22 and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the anger to which you have provoked me, and because you have made Israel to sin.

1Ki 21:23 And of Jezebel the LORD also said, `The dogs shall eat Jezebel within the bounds of Jezreel.'

1Ki 21:24 Any one belonging to Ahab who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one of his who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat."

1Ki 21:25 (There was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the LORD like Ahab, whom Jezebel his wife incited.

1Ki 21:26 He did very abominably in going after idols, as the Amorites had done, whom the LORD cast out before the people of Israel.)

1Ki 21:27 And when Ahab heard those words, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about dejectedly.

1Ki 21:28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

1Ki 21:29 "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days I will bring the evil upon his house."

1Ki 22:1 For three years Syria and Israel continued without war.

1Ki 22:2 But in the third year Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramothgilead belongs to us, and we keep quiet and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"

1Ki 22:4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramothgilead?" And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

1Ki 22:5 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first for the word of the LORD."

1Ki 22:6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go to battle against Ramothgilead, or shall I forbear?" And they said, "Go up; for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king."

1Ki 22:7 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here another prophet of the LORD of whom we may inquire?"

1Ki 22:8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but evil." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

1Ki 22:9 Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah."

1Ki 22:10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

1Ki 22:11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and said, "Thus says the LORD, `With these you shall push the Syrians until they are destroyed.'"

1Ki 22:12 And all the prophets prophesied so, and said, "Go up to Ramothgilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

1Ki 22:13 And the messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Behold, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably."

1Ki 22:14 But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I will speak."

1Ki 22:15 And when he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramothgilead to battle, or shall we forbear?" And he answered him, "Go up and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

1Ki 22:16 But the king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

1Ki 22:17 And he said, "I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd; and the LORD said, `These have no master; let each return to his home in peace.'"

1Ki 22:18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

1Ki 22:19 And Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing beside him on his right hand and on his left;

1Ki 22:20 and the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead?' And one said one thing, and another said another.

1Ki 22:21 Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, 'I will entice him.'

1Ki 22:22 And the LORD said to him, 'By what means?' And he said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And he said, 'You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go forth and do so.'

1Ki 22:23 Now therefore behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; the LORD has spoken evil concerning you."

1Ki 22:24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "How did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

1Ki 22:25 And Micaiah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide yourself."

1Ki 22:26 And the king of Israel said, "Seize Micaiah, and take him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

1Ki 22:27 and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with scant fare of bread and water, until I come in peace.'""

1Ki 22:28 And Micaiah said, "If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Hear, all you peoples!"

1Ki 22:29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramothgilead.

1Ki 22:30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes." And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

1Ki 22:31 Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, "Fight with neither small nor great, but only with the king of Israel."

1Ki 22:32 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is surely the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Jehoshaphat cried out.

1Ki 22:33 And when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

1Ki 22:34 But a certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate; therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn about, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

1Ki 22:35 And the battle grew hot that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, until at evening he died; and the blood of the wound flowed into the bottom of the chariot.

1Ki 22:36 And about sunset a cry went through the army, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country!"

1Ki 22:37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.

1Ki 22:38 And they washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and the harlots washed themselves in it, according to the word of the LORD which he had spoken.

1Ki 22:39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 22:40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 22:41 Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

1Ki 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

1Ki 22:43 He walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD; yet the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

1Ki 22:44 Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

1Ki 22:46 And the remnant of the male cult prostitutes who remained in the days of his father Asa, he exterminated from the land.

1Ki 22:47 There was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.

1Ki 22:48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold; but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Eziongeber.

1Ki 22:49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Jehoshaphat was not willing.

1Ki 22:50 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

1Ki 22:51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.

1Ki 22:52 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

1Ki 22:53 He served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger in every way that his father had done.

2Ki 1:1 After the death of Ahab, Moab rebelled against Israel.

2Ki 1:2 Now Ahaziah fell through the lattice in his upper chamber in Samaria, and lay sick; so he sent messengers, telling them, "Go, inquire of Baalzebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this sickness."

2Ki 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baalzebub, the god of Ekron?'

2Ki 1:4 Now therefore thus says the LORD, 'You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die.'" So Elijah went.

2Ki 1:5 The messengers returned to the king, and he said to them, "Why have you returned?"

2Ki 1:6 And they said to him, "There came a man to meet us, and said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus says the LORD, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baalzebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone, but shall surely die.'"

2Ki 1:7 He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came to meet you and told you these things?"

2Ki 1:8 They answered him, "He wore a garment of haircloth, with a girdle of leather about his loins." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

2Ki 1:9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty men with his fifty. He went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, "O man of God, the king says, 'Come down.'"

2Ki 1:10 But Elijah answered the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then fire came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

2Ki 1:11 Again the king sent to him another captain of fifty men with his fifty. And he went up and said to him, "O man of God, this is the king's order, 'Come down quickly!'"

2Ki 1:12 But Elijah answered them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

2Ki 1:13 Again the king sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and entreated him, "O man of God, I pray you, let my life, and the life of these fifty servants of yours, be precious in your sight.

2Ki 1:14 Lo, fire came down from heaven, and consumed the two former captains of fifty men with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight."

2Ki 1:15 Then the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king,

2Ki 1:16 and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baalzebub, the god of Ekron, -- is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? -- therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die.'"

2Ki 1:17 So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram, his brother, became king in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, because Ahaziah had no son.

2Ki 1:18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 2:1 Now when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal.

2Ki 2:2 And Elijah said to Elisha, "Tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

2Ki 2:3 And the sons of the prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take away your master from over you?" And he said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."

2Ki 2:4 Elijah said to him, "Elisha, tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.

2Ki 2:5 The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take away your master from over you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."

2Ki 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, "Tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on.

2Ki 2:7 Fifty men of the sons of the prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan.

2Ki 2:8 Then Elijah took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the water, and the water was parted to the one side and to the other, till the two of them could go over on dry ground.

2Ki 2:9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you." And Elisha said, "I pray you, let me inherit a double share of your spirit."

2Ki 2:10 And he said, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if you do not see me, it shall not be so."

2Ki 2:11 And as they still went on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them. And Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

2Ki 2:12 And Elisha saw it and he cried, "My father, my father! the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" And he saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and rent them in two pieces.

2Ki 2:13 And he took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2Ki 2:14 Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" And when he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other; and Elisha went over.

2Ki 2:15 Now when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho saw him over against them, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.

2Ki 2:16 And they said to him, "Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men; pray, let them go, and seek your master; it may be that the Spirit of the LORD has caught him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send."

2Ki 2:17 But when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, "Send." They sent therefore fifty men; and for three days they sought him but did not find him.

2Ki 2:18 And they came back to him, while he tarried at Jericho, and he said to them, "Did I not say to you, Do not go?"

2Ki 2:19 Now the men of the city said to Elisha, "Behold, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land is unfruitful."

2Ki 2:20 He said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

2Ki 2:21 Then he went to the spring of water and threw salt in it, and said, "Thus says the LORD, I have made this water wholesome; henceforth neither death nor miscarriage shall come from it."

2Ki 2:22 So the water has been wholesome to this day, according to the word which Elisha spoke.

2Ki 2:23 He went up from there to Bethel; and while he was going up on the way, some small boys came out of the city and jeered at him, saying, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"

2Ki 2:24 And he turned around, and when he saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. And two she-bears came out of the woods and tore forty-two of the boys.

2Ki 2:25 From there he went on to Mount Carmel, and thence he returned to Samaria.

2Ki 3:1 In the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned twelve years.

2Ki 3:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and mother, for he put away the pillar of Baal which his father had made.

2Ki 3:3 Nevertheless he clung to the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.

2Ki 3:4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he had to deliver annually to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and the wool of a hundred thousand rams.

2Ki 3:5 But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

2Ki 3:6 So King Jehoram marched out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

2Ki 3:7 And he went and sent word to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you go with me to battle against Moab?" And he said, "I will go; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

2Ki 3:8 Then he said, "By which way shall we march?" Jehoram answered, "By the way of the wilderness of Edom."

2Ki 3:9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. And when they had made a circuitous march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the beasts which followed them.

2Ki 3:10 Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! The LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

2Ki 3:11 And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?" Then one of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

2Ki 3:12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

2Ki 3:13 And Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." But the king of Israel said to him, "No; it is the LORD who has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

2Ki 3:14 And Elisha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, whom I serve, were it not that I have regard for Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would neither look at you, nor see you.

2Ki 3:15 But now bring me a minstrel." And when the minstrel played, the power of the LORD came upon him.

2Ki 3:16 And he said, "Thus says the LORD, 'I will make this dry stream-bed full of pools.'

2Ki 3:17 For thus says the LORD, 'You shall not see wind or rain, but that stream-bed shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, you, your cattle, and your beasts.'

2Ki 3:18 This is a light thing in the sight of the LORD; he will also give the Moabites into your hand,

2Ki 3:19 and you shall conquer every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop up all springs of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

2Ki 3:20 The next morning, about the time of offering the sacrifice, behold, water came from the direction of Edom, till the country was filled with water.

2Ki 3:21 When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to put on armor, from the youngest to the oldest, were called out, and were drawn up at the frontier.

2Ki 3:22 And when they rose early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood.

2Ki 3:23 And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely fought together, and slain one another. Now then, Moab, to the spoil!"

2Ki 3:24 But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose and attacked the Moabites, till they fled before them; and they went forward, slaughtering the Moabites as they went.

2Ki 3:25 And they overthrew the cities, and on every good piece of land every man threw a stone, until it was covered; they stopped every spring of water, and felled all the good trees; till only its stones were left in Kirhareseth, and the slingers surrounded and conquered it.

2Ki 3:26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through, opposite the king of Edom; but they could not.

2Ki 3:27 Then he took his eldest son who was to reign in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there came great wrath upon Israel; and they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.

2Ki 4:1 Now the wife of one of the sons of the prophets cried to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead; and you know that your servant feared the LORD, but the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves."

2Ki 4:2 And Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me; what have you in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house, except a jar of oil."

2Ki 4:3 Then he said, "Go outside, borrow vessels of all your neighbors, empty vessels and not too few.

2Ki 4:4 Then go in, and shut the door upon yourself and your sons, and pour into all these vessels; and when one is full, set it aside."

2Ki 4:5 So she went from him and shut the door upon herself and her sons; and as she poured they brought the vessels to her.

2Ki 4:6 When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another." Then the oil stopped flowing.

2Ki 4:7 She came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your sons can live on the rest."

2Ki 4:8 One day Elisha went on to Shunem, where a wealthy woman lived, who urged him to eat some food. So whenever he passed that way, he would turn in there to eat food.

2Ki 4:9 And she said to her husband, "Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who is continually passing our way.

2Ki 4:10 Let us make a small roof chamber with walls, and put there for him a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that whenever he comes to us, he can go in there."

2Ki 4:11 One day he came there, and he turned into the chamber and rested there.

2Ki 4:12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her, she stood before him.

2Ki 4:13 And he said to him, "Say now to her, See, you have taken all this trouble for us; what is to be done for you? Would you have a word spoken on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?" She answered, "I dwell among my own people."

2Ki 4:14 And he said, "What then is to be done for her?" Gehazi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old."

2Ki 4:15 He said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

2Ki 4:16 And he said, "At this season, when the time comes round, you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord, O man of God; do not lie to your maidservant."

2Ki 4:17 But the woman conceived, and she bore a son about that time the following spring, as Elisha had said to her.

2Ki 4:18 When the child had grown, he went out one day to his father among the reapers.

2Ki 4:19 And he said to his father, "Oh, my head, my head!" The father said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

2Ki 4:20 And when he had lifted him, and brought him to his mother, the child sat on her lap till noon, and then he died.

2Ki 4:21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

2Ki 4:22 Then she called to her husband, and said, "Send me one of the servants and one of the asses, that I may quickly go to the man of God, and come back again."

2Ki 4:23 And he said, "Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath." She said, "It will be well."

2Ki 4:24 Then she saddled the ass, and she said to her servant, "Urge the beast on; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you."

2Ki 4:25 So she set out, and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her coming, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Look, yonder is the Shunammite;

2Ki 4:26 run at once to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?" And she answered, "It is well."

2Ki 4:27 And when she came to the mountain to the man of God, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came to thrust her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone, for she is in bitter distress; and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me."

2Ki 4:28 Then she said, "Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?"

2Ki 4:29 He said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet any one, do not salute him; and if any one salutes you, do not reply; and lay my staff upon the face of the child."

2Ki 4:30 Then the mother of the child said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So he arose and followed her.

2Ki 4:31 Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff upon the face of the child, but there was no sound or sign of life. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, "The child has not awaked."

2Ki 4:32 When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed.

2Ki 4:33 So he went in and shut the door upon the two of them, and prayed to the LORD.

2Ki 4:34 Then he went up and lay upon the child, putting his mouth upon his mouth, his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and as he stretched himself upon him, the flesh of the child became warm.

2Ki 4:35 Then he got up again, and walked once to and fro in the house, and went up, and stretched himself upon him; the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

2Ki 4:36 Then he summoned Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. And when she came to him, he said, "Take up your son."

2Ki 4:37 She came and fell at his feet, bowing to the ground; then she took up her son and went out.

2Ki 4:38 And Elisha came again to Gilgal when there was a famine in the land. And as the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets."

2Ki 4:39 One of them went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and cut them up into the pot of pottage, not knowing what they were.

2Ki 4:40 And they poured out for the men to eat. But while they were eating of the pottage, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.

2Ki 4:41 He said, "Then bring meal." And he threw it into the pot, and said, "Pour out for the men, that they may eat." And there was no harm in the pot.

2Ki 4:42 A man came from Baalshalishah, bringing the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And Elisha said, "Give to the men, that they may eat."

2Ki 4:43 But his servant said, "How am I to set this before a hundred men?" So he repeated, "Give them to the men, that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, `They shall eat and have some left.'"

2Ki 4:44 So he set it before them. And they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

2Ki 5:1 Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master and in high favor, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper.

2Ki 5:2 Now the Syrians on one of their raids had carried off a little maid from the land of Israel, and she waited on Naaman's wife.

2Ki 5:3 She said to her mistress, "Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

2Ki 5:4 So Naaman went in and told his lord, "Thus and so spoke the maiden from the land of Israel."

2Ki 5:5 And the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten festal garments.

2Ki 5:6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you Naaman my servant, that you may cure him of his leprosy."

2Ki 5:7 And when the king of Israel read the letter, he rent his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Only consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."

2Ki 5:8 But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you rent your clothes? Let him come now to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel."

2Ki 5:9 So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the door of Elisha's house.

2Ki 5:10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean."

2Ki 5:11 But Naaman was angry, and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and cure the leper."

2Ki 5:12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

2Ki 5:13 But his servants came near and said to him, "My father, if the prophet had commanded you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather, then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

2Ki 5:14 So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

2Ki 5:15 Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and he came and stood before him; and he said, "Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; so accept now a present from your servant."

2Ki 5:16 But he said, "As the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will receive none." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

2Ki 5:17 Then Naaman said, "If not, I pray you, let there be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth; for henceforth your servant will not offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god but the LORD.

2Ki 5:18 In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this matter."

2Ki 5:19 He said to him, "Go in peace." But when Naaman had gone from him a short distance,

2Ki 5:20 Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "See, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not accepting from his hand what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him, and get something from him."

2Ki 5:21 So Gehazi followed Naaman. And when Naaman saw some one running after him, he alighted from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

2Ki 5:22 And he said, "All is well. My master has sent me to say, 'There have just now come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; pray, give them a talent of silver and two festal garments.'"

2Ki 5:23 And Naaman said, "Be pleased to accept two talents." And he urged him, and tied up two talents of silver in two bags, with two festal garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they carried them before Gehazi.

2Ki 5:24 And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and put them in the house; and he sent the men away, and they departed.

2Ki 5:25 He went in, and stood before his master, and Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant went nowhere."

2Ki 5:26 But he said to him, "Did I not go with you in spirit when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Was it a time to accept money and garments, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, menservants and maidservants?"

2Ki 5:27 Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cleave to you, and to your descendants for ever." So he went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

2Ki 6:1 Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See, the place where we dwell under your charge is too small for us.

2Ki 6:2 Let us go to the Jordan and each of us get there a log, and let us make a place for us to dwell there."

And he answered, "Go."

2Ki 6:3 Then one of them said, "Be pleased to go with your servants." And he answered, "I will go."

2Ki 6:4 So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

2Ki 6:5 But as one was felling a log, his axe head fell into the water; and he cried out, "Alas, my master! It was borrowed."

2Ki 6:6 Then the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick, and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

2Ki 6:7 And he said, "Take it up." So he reached out his hand and took it.

2Ki 6:8 Once when the king of Syria was warring against Israel, he took counsel with his servants, saying, "At such and such a place shall be my camp."

2Ki 6:9 But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are going down there."

2Ki 6:10 And the king of Israel sent to the place of which the man of God told him. Thus he used to warn him, so that he saved himself there more than once or twice.

2Ki 6:11 And the mind of the king of Syria was greatly troubled because of this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me who of us is for the king of Israel?"

2Ki 6:12 And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber."

2Ki 6:13 And he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and seize him." It was told him, "Behold, he is in Dothan."

2Ki 6:14 So he sent there horses and chariots and a great army; and they came by night, and surrounded the city.

2Ki 6:15 When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was round about the city. And the servant said, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

2Ki 6:16 He said, "Fear not, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

2Ki 6:17 Then Elisha prayed, and said, "O LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes that he may see." So the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

2Ki 6:18 And when the Syrians came down against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray thee, with blindness." So he struck them with blindness in accordance with the prayer of Elisha.

2Ki 6:19 And Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, and this is not the city; follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." And he led them to Samaria.

2Ki 6:20 As soon as they entered Samaria, Elisha said, "O LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." So the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and lo, they were in the midst of Samaria.

2Ki 6:21 When the king of Israel saw them he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I slay them? Shall I slay them?"

2Ki 6:22 He answered, "You shall not slay them. Would you slay those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

2Ki 6:23 So he prepared for them a great feast; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the Syrians came no more on raids into the land of Israel.

2Ki 6:24 Afterward Benhadad king of Syria mustered his entire army, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

2Ki 6:25 And there was a great famine in Samaria, as they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver.

2Ki 6:26 Now as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

2Ki 6:27 And he said, "If the LORD will not help you, whence shall I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?"

2Ki 6:28 And the king asked her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'

2Ki 6:29 So we boiled my son, and ate him. And on the next day I said to her, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

2Ki 6:30 When the king heard the words of the woman he rent his clothes -- now he was passing by upon the wall -- and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth beneath upon his body --

2Ki 6:31 and he said, "May God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today."

2Ki 6:32 Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Now the king had dispatched a man from his presence; but before the messenger arrived Elisha said to the elders, "Do you see how this murderer has sent to take off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door fast against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

2Ki 6:33 And while he was still speaking with them, the king came down to him and said, "This trouble is from the LORD! Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

2Ki 7:1 But Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD: thus says the LORD, Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine meal shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria."

2Ki 7:2 Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned said to the man of God, "If the LORD himself should make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" But he said, "You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

2Ki 7:3 Now there were four men who were lepers at the entrance to the gate; and they said to one another, "Why do we sit here till we die?"

2Ki 7:4 If we say, 'Let us enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit here, we die also. So now come, let us go over to the camp of the Syrians; if they spare our lives we shall live, and if they kill us we shall but die."

2Ki 7:5 So they arose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; but when they came to the edge of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no one there.

2Ki 7:6 For the Lord had made the army of the Syrians hear the sound of chariots, and of horses, the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, "Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to come upon us."

2Ki 7:7 So they fled away in the twilight and forsook their tents, their horses, and their asses, leaving the camp as it was, and fled for their lives.

2Ki 7:8 And when these lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent, and ate and drank, and they carried off silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back, and entered another tent, and carried off things from it, and went and hid them.

2Ki 7:9 Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news; if we are silent and wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us; now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household."

2Ki 7:10 So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no one to be seen or heard there, nothing but the horses tied, and the asses tied, and the tents as they were."

2Ki 7:11 Then the gatekeepers called out, and it was told within the king's household.

2Ki 7:12 And the king rose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will tell you what the Syrians have prepared against us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the open country, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive and get into the city.'"

2Ki 7:13 And one of his servants said, "Let some men take five of the remaining horses, seeing that those who are left here will fare like the whole multitude of Israel that have already perished; let us send and see."

2Ki 7:14 So they took two mounted men, and the king sent them after the army of the Syrians, saying, "Go and see."

2Ki 7:15 So they went after them as far as the Jordan; and, lo, all the way was littered with garments and equipment which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

2Ki 7:16 Then the people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine meal was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

2Ki 7:17 Now the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate; and the people trod upon him in the gate, so that he died, as the man of God had said when the king came down to him.

2Ki 7:18 For when the man of God had said to the king, "Two measures of barley shall be sold for a shekel, and a measure of fine meal for a shekel, about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria,"

2Ki 7:19 the captain had answered the man of God, "If the LORD himself should make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And he had said, "You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

2Ki 7:20 And so it happened to him, for the people trod upon him in the gate and he died.

2Ki 8:1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Arise, and depart with your household, and sojourn wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will come upon the land for seven years."

2Ki 8:2 So the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God; she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

2Ki 8:3 And at the end of the seven years, when the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she went forth to appeal to the king for her house and her land.

2Ki 8:4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me all the great things that Elisha has done."

2Ki 8:5 And while he was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, here is the woman, and here is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

2Ki 8:6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed an official for her, saying,

"Restore all that was hers, together with all the produce of the fields from the day that she left the land until now."
2Ki 8:7 Now Elisha came to Damascus. Benhadad the king of Syria was sick; and when it was told him, "The man of God has come here,"
2Ki 8:8 the king said to Hazael, "Take a present with you and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD through him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"
2Ki 8:9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, all kinds of goods of Damascus, forty camel loads. When he came and stood before him, he said, "Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"
2Ki 8:10 And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover'; but the LORD has shown me that he shall certainly die."
2Ki 8:11 And he fixed his gaze and stared at him, until he was ashamed. And the man of God wept.
2Ki 8:12 And Hazael said, "Why does my lord weep?" He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel; you will set on fire their fortresses, and you will slay their young men with the sword, and dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child."
2Ki 8:13 And Hazael said, "What is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing?" Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you are to be king over Syria."
2Ki 8:14 Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me that you would certainly recover."
2Ki 8:15 But on the morrow he took the coverlet and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, till he died. And Hazael became king in his stead.
2Ki 8:16 In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, began to reign.
2Ki 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
2Ki 8:18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.
2Ki 8:19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of David his servant, since he promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons for ever.
2Ki 8:20 In his days Edom revolted from the rule of Judah, and set up a king of their own.
2Ki 8:21 Then Joram passed over to Zair with all his chariots, and rose by night, and he and his chariot commanders smote the Edomites who had surrounded him; but his army fled home.
2Ki 8:22 So Edom revolted from the rule of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.
2Ki 8:23 Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 8:24 So Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.
2Ki 8:25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign.
2Ki 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah; she was a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.
2Ki 8:27 He also walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was son-in-law to the house of Ahab.
2Ki 8:28 He went with Joram the son of Ahab to make war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramothgilead, where the Syrians wounded Joram.
2Ki 8:29 And King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.
2Ki 9:1 Then Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Gird up your loins, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramothgilead.
2Ki 9:2 And when you arrive, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi; and go in and bid him rise from among his fellows, and lead him to an inner chamber.
2Ki 9:3 Then take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee; do not tarry."
2Ki 9:4 So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramothgilead.
2Ki 9:5 And when he came, behold, the commanders of the army were in council; and he said, "I have an errand to you, O commander." And Jehu said, "To which of us all?" And he said, "To you, O commander."
2Ki 9:6 So he arose, and went into the house; and the young man poured the oil on his head, saying to him, "Thus says the LORD the God of Israel, I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.
2Ki 9:7 And you shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge on Jezebel the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD.

2Ki 9:8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel.
2Ki 9:9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

2Ki 9:10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and none shall bury her." Then he opened the door, and fled.

2Ki 9:11 When Jehu came out to the servants of his master, they said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the fellow and his talk."

2Ki 9:12 And they said, "That is not true; tell us now." And he said, "Thus and so he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.'"

2Ki 9:13 Then in haste every man of them took his garment, and put it under him on the bare steps, and they blew the trumpet, and proclaimed, "Jehu is king."

2Ki 9:14 Thus Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram with all Israel had been on guard at Ramothgilead against Hazael king of Syria; 2Ki 9:15 but King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) So Jehu said, "If this is your mind, then let no one slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel."

2Ki 9:16 Then Jehu mounted his chariot, and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to visit Joram.

2Ki 9:17 Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company." And Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

2Ki 9:18 So a man on horseback went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn round and ride behind me." And the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger reached them, but he is not coming back."

2Ki 9:19 Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them, and said, "Thus the king has said, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn round and ride behind me."

2Ki 9:20 Again the watchman reported, "He reached them, but he is not coming back. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously."

2Ki 9:21 Joram said, "Make ready." And they made ready his chariot. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah set out, each in his chariot, and went to meet Jehu, and met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

2Ki 9:22 And when Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace can there be, so long as the harlotries and the sorceries of your mother Jezebel are so many?"

2Ki 9:23 Then Joram reined about and fled, saying to Ahaziah, "Treachery, O Ahaziah!"

2Ki 9:24 And Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and shot Joram between the shoulders, so that the arrow pierced his heart, and he sank in his chariot.

2Ki 9:25 Jehu said to Bidkar his aide, "Take him up, and cast him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I rode side by side behind Ahab his father, how the LORD uttered this oracle against him:

2Ki 9:26 'As surely as I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons -- says the LORD -- I will requite you on this plot of ground.' Now therefore take him up and cast him on the plot of ground, in accordance with the word of the LORD."

2Ki 9:27 When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled in the direction of Bethhaggan. And Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him also"; and they shot him in the chariot at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

2Ki 9:28 His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.

2Ki 9:29 In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah.

2Ki 9:30 When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and adorned her head, and looked out of the window.

2Ki 9:31 And as Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it peace, you Zimri, murderer of your master?"

2Ki 9:32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

2Ki 9:33 He said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down; and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and they trampled on her.

2Ki 9:34 Then he went in and ate and drank; and he said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter."

2Ki 9:35 But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

2Ki 9:36 When they came back and told him, he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, 'In the territory of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;
2Ki 9:37 and the corpse of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the territory of Jezreel, so that no one can say, This is Jezebel.'"

2Ki 10:1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters, and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of the city, to the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying,
2Ki 10:2 "Now then, as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, fortified cities also, and weapons,
2Ki 10:3 select the best and fittest of your master's sons and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."
2Ki 10:4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Behold, the two kings could not stand before him; how then can we stand?"
2Ki 10:5 So he who was over the palace, and he who was over the city, together with the elders and the guardians, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and we will do all that you bid us. We will not make any one king; do whatever is good in your eyes."
2Ki 10:6 Then he wrote to them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you are ready to obey me, take the heads of your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were bringing them up.
2Ki 10:7 And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons, and slew them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him at Jezreel.
2Ki 10:8 When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning."
2Ki 10:9 Then in the morning, when he went out, he stood, and said to all the people, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master, and slew him; but who struck down all these?
2Ki 10:10 Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what he said by his servant Elijah."
2Ki 10:11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
2Ki 10:12 Then he set out and went to Samaria. On the way, when he was at Bethkeded of the Shepherds,
2Ki 10:13 Jehu met the kinsmen of Ahaziah king of Judah, and he said, "Who are you?" And they answered, "We are the kinsmen of Ahaziah, and we came down to visit the royal princes and the sons of the queen mother."
2Ki 10:14 He said, "Take them alive." And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of Bethkeded, forty-two persons, and he spared none of them.
2Ki 10:15 And when he departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him, and said to him, "Is your heart true to my heart as mine is to yours?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand. And Jehu took him up with him into the chariot.
2Ki 10:16 And he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So he had him ride in his chariot.
2Ki 10:17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had wiped them out, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke to Elijah.
2Ki 10:18 Then Jehu assembled all the people, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much.
2Ki 10:19 Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers and all his priests; let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal; whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu did it with cunning in order to destroy the worshipers of Baal.
2Ki 10:20 And Jehu ordered, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.
2Ki 10:21 And Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And they entered the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.
2Ki 10:22 He said to him who was in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out the vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out the vestments for them.
2Ki 10:23 Then Jehu went into the house of Baal with Jehonadab the son of Rechab; and he said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search, and see that there is no servant of the LORD here among you, but only the worshipers of Baal."
2Ki 10:24 Then he went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside, and said, "The man who allows any of those whom I give into your hands to escape shall forfeit his life."
2Ki 10:25 So as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the officers, "Go in and slay them; let not a man escape." So when they put them to the sword, the guard and the officers cast them out and went into the inner room of the house of Baal

2Ki 10:26 and they brought out the pillar that was in the house of Baal, and burned it.

2Ki 10:27 And they demolished the pillar of Baal, and demolished the house of Baal, and made it a latrine to this day.

2Ki 10:28 Thus Jehu wiped out Baal from Israel.

2Ki 10:29 But Jehu did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and in Dan.

2Ki 10:30 And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

2Ki 10:31 But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD the God of Israel with all his heart; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel to sin.

2Ki 10:32 In those days the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel. Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:

2Ki 10:33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, that is, Gilead and Bashan.

2Ki 10:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 10:35 So Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 10:36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2Ki 11:1 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family.

2Ki 11:2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were about to be slain, and she put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. Thus she hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain;

2Ki 11:3 and he remained with her six years, hid in the house of the LORD, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2Ki 11:4 But in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of the Carites and of the guards, and had them come to him in the house of the LORD; and he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and he showed them the king's son.

2Ki 11:5 And he commanded them, "This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, those who come off duty on the sabbath and guard the king's house

2Ki 11:6 (another third being at the gate Sur and a third at the gate behind the guards), shall guard the palace;

2Ki 11:7 and the two divisions of you, which come on duty in force on the sabbath and guard the house of the LORD,

2Ki 11:8 shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever approaches the ranks is to be slain. Be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

2Ki 11:9 The captains did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded, and each brought his men who were to go off duty on the sabbath, with those who were to come on duty on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

2Ki 11:10 And the priest delivered to the captains the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD;

2Ki 11:11 and the guards stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house.

2Ki 11:12 Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they proclaimed him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "Long live the king!"

2Ki 11:13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;

2Ki 11:14 and when she looked, there was the king standing by the pillar, according to the custom, and the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ki 11:15 Then Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains who were set over the army, "Bring her out between the ranks; and slay with the sword any one who follows her." For the priest said, "Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD."

2Ki 11:16 So they laid hands on her; and she went through the horses' entrance to the king's house, and there she was slain.

2Ki 11:17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people, that they should be the LORD's people; and also between the king and the people.

2Ki 11:18 Then all the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest posted watchmen over the house of the LORD.

2Ki 11:19 And he took the captains, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the gate of the guards to the king's house. And he took his seat on the throne of the kings.

2Ki 11:20 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been slain with the sword at the king's house.

2Ki 11:21 Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

2Ki 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2Ki 12:2 And Jehoash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all his days, because Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

2Ki 12:3 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people continued to sacrifice and burn incense on the high places.

2Ki 12:4 Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things which is brought into the house of the LORD, the money for which each man is assessed -- the money from the assessment of persons -- and the money which a man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD,

2Ki 12:5 let the priests take, each from his acquaintance; and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered."

2Ki 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had made no repairs on the house.

2Ki 12:7 Therefore King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and said to them, "Why are you not repairing the house? Now therefore take no more money from your acquaintances, but hand it over for the repair of the house."

2Ki 12:8 So the priests agreed that they should take no more money from the people, and that they should not repair the house.

2Ki 12:9 Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one entered the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

2Ki 12:10 And whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's secretary and the high priest came up and they counted and tied up in bags the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

2Ki 12:11 Then they would give the money that was weighed out into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked upon the house of the LORD,

2Ki 12:12 and to the masons and the stonecutters, as well as to buy timber and quarried stone for making repairs on the house of the LORD, and for any outlay upon the repairs of the house.

2Ki 12:13 But there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, or any vessels of gold, or of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, 2Ki 12:14 for that was given to the workmen who were repairing the house of the LORD with it.

2Ki 12:15 And they did not ask an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to pay out to the workmen, for they dealt honestly.

2Ki 12:16 The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

2Ki 12:17 At that time Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it. But when Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem, 2Ki 12:18 Jehoash king of Judah took all the votive gifts that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own votive gifts, and all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent these to Hazael king of Syria. Then Hazael went away from Jerusalem.

2Ki 12:19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 12:20 His servants arose and made a conspiracy, and slew Joash in the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla.

2Ki 12:21 It was Jozacar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, who struck him down, so that he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 13:1 In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years.

2Ki 13:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from them.

2Ki 13:3 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them continually into the hand of Hazael king of Syria and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael.

2Ki 13:4 Then Jehoahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Syria oppressed them.

2Ki 13:5 (Therefore the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they escaped from the hand of the Syrians; and the people of Israel dwelt in their homes as formerly.)

2Ki 13:6 Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he made Israel to sin, but walked in them; and the Asherah also remained in Samaria.)

2Ki 13:7 For there was not left to Jehoahaz an army of more than fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

2Ki 13:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 13:9 So Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years.

2Ki 13:11 He also did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin, but he walked in them.

2Ki 13:12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and the might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 13:13 So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2Ki 13:14 Now when Elisha had fallen sick with the illness of which he was to die, Joash king of Israel went down to him, and wept before him, crying, "My father, my father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"

2Ki 13:15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows"; so he took a bow and arrows.

2Ki 13:16 Then he said to the king of Israel, "Draw the bow"; and he drew it. And Elisha laid his hands upon the king's hands.

2Ki 13:17 And he said, "Open the window eastward"; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. And he said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Syria! For you shall fight the Syrians in Aphek until you have made an end of them."

2Ki 13:18 And he said, "Take the arrows"; and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground with them"; and he struck three times, and stopped.

2Ki 13:19 Then the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had made an end of it, but now you will strike down Syria only three times."

2Ki 13:20 So Elisha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabites used to invade the land in the spring of the year.

2Ki 13:21 And as a man was being buried, lo, a marauding band was seen and the man was cast into the grave of Elisha; and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood on his feet.

2Ki 13:22 Now Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

2Ki 13:23 But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them, and he turned toward them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them; nor has he cast them from his presence until now.

2Ki 13:24 When Hazael king of Syria died, Benhadad his son became king in his stead.

2Ki 13:25 Then Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again from Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken from Jehoahaz his father in war. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

2Ki 14:1 In the second year of Joash the son of Joahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, began to reign.

2Ki 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

2Ki 14:3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his father; he did in all things as Joash his father had done.

2Ki 14:4 But the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

2Ki 14:5 And as soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand he killed his servants who had slain the king his father.

2Ki 14:6 But he did not put to death the children of the murderers; according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, or the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin."

2Ki 14:7 He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and took Sela by storm, and called it Joktheel, which is its name to this day.

2Ki 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

2Ki 14:9 And Jehoash king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, "A thistle on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife'; and a wild beast of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thistle.

2Ki 14:10 You have indeed smitten Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Be content with your glory, and stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"

2Ki 14:11 But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another in battle at Bethshemesh, which belongs to Judah.

2Ki 14:12 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2Ki 14:13 And Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem for four hundred cubits, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.

2Ki 14:14 And he seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, also hostages, and he returned to Samaria.

2Ki 14:15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 14:16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 14:17 Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2Ki 14:18 Now the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 14:19 And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

2Ki 14:20 And they brought him upon horses; and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

2Ki 14:21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

2Ki 14:22 He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

2Ki 14:23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, began to reign in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years.

2Ki 14:24 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

2Ki 14:25 He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gathhepher.

2Ki 14:26 For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter, for there was none left, bond or free, and there was none to help Israel.

2Ki 14:27 But the LORD had not said that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, so he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

2Ki 14:28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 14:29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, the kings of Israel, and Zechariah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel Azariah the son of Amaziah, king of Judah, began to reign.

2Ki 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2Ki 15:3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

2Ki 15:4 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

2Ki 15:5 And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and he dwelt in a separate house. And Jotham the king's son was over the household, governing the people of the land.

2Ki 15:6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 15:7 And Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months.

2Ki 15:9 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

2Ki 15:10 Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him down at Ibleam, and killed him, and reigned in his stead.

2Ki 15:11 Now the rest of the deeds of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:12 (This was the promise of the LORD which he gave to Jehu, "Your sons shall sit upon the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And so it came to pass.)

2Ki 15:13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned one month in Samaria.

2Ki 15:14 Then Menahem the son of Gadi came up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and he struck down Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

2Ki 15:15 Now the rest of the deeds of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:16 At that time Menahem sacked Tappuah and all who were in it and its territory from Tirzah on; because they did not open it to him, therefore he sacked it, and he ripped up all the women in it who were with child.

2Ki 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, and he reigned ten years in Samaria.

2Ki 15:18 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

2Ki 15:19 Pul the king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that he might help him to confirm his hold of the royal power.

2Ki 15:20 Menahem exacted the money from Israel, that is, from all the wealthy men, fifty shekels of silver from every man, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

2Ki 15:21 Now the rest of the deeds of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 15:22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 15:23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned two years.

2Ki 15:24 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

2Ki 15:25 And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him with fifty men of the Gileadites, and slew him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house; he slew him, and reigned in his stead.

2Ki 15:26 Now the rest of the deeds of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

2Ki 15:28 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

2Ki 15:29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel Tiglathpileser king of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abelbethmaacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried the people captive to Assyria.

2Ki 15:30 Then Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him down, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

2Ki 15:31 Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign.

2Ki 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

2Ki 15:34 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

2Ki 15:35 Nevertheless the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.

2Ki 15:36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 15:37 In those days the LORD began to send Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

2Ki 15:38 Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

2Ki 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, as his father David had done, 2Ki 16:3 but he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even burned his son as an offering, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2Ki 16:4 And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

2Ki 16:5 Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to wage war on Jerusalem, and they besieged Ahaz but could not conquer him.

2Ki 16:6 At that time the king of Edom recovered Elath for Edom, and drove the men of Judah from Elath; and the Edomites came to Elath, where they dwell to this day.

2Ki 16:7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and rescue me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me."

2Ki 16:8 Ahaz also took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent a present to the king of Assyria.

2Ki 16:9 And the king of Assyria hearkened to him; the king of Assyria marched up against Damascus, and took it, carrying its people captive to Kir, and he killed Rezin.

2Ki 16:10 When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a model of the altar, and its pattern, exact in all its details.

2Ki 16:11 And Uriah the priest built the altar; in accordance with all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Uriah the priest made it, before King Ahaz arrived from Damascus.

2Ki 16:12 And when the king came from Damascus, the king viewed the altar. Then the king drew near to the altar, and went up on it, 2Ki 16:13 and burned his burnt offering and his cereal offering, and poured his drink offering, and threw the blood of his peace offerings upon the altar.

2Ki 16:14 And the bronze altar which was before the LORD he removed from the front of the house, from the place between his altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of his altar.

2Ki 16:15 And King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, "Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening cereal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his cereal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their cereal offering, and their drink offering; and throw upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."

2Ki 16:16 Uriah the priest did all this, as King Ahaz commanded.

2Ki 16:17 And King Ahaz cut off the frames of the stands, and removed the laver from them, and he took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pediment of stone.

2Ki 16:18 And the covered way for the sabbath which had been built inside the palace, and the outer entrance for the king he removed from the house of the LORD, because of the king of Assyria.

2Ki 16:19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 16:20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel, and he reigned nine years.

2Ki 17:2 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

2Ki 17:3 Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his vassal, and paid him tribute.

2Ki 17:4 But the king of Assyria found treachery in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

2Ki 17:5 Then the king of Assyria invaded all the land and came to Samaria, and for three years he besieged it.

2Ki 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria, and he carried the Israelites away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

2Ki 17:7 And this was so, because the people of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods

2Ki 17:8 and walked in the customs of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel, and in the customs which the kings of Israel had introduced.

2Ki 17:9 And the people of Israel did secretly against the LORD their God things that were not right. They built for themselves high places at all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city;

2Ki 17:10 they set up for themselves pillars and Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree;

2Ki 17:11 and there they burned incense on all the high places, as the nations did whom the LORD carried away before them. And they did wicked things, provoking the LORD to anger,

2Ki 17:12 and they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this."

2Ki 17:13 Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, in accordance with all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets."

2Ki 17:14 But they would not listen, but were stubborn, as their fathers had been, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

2Ki 17:15 They despised his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and the warnings which he gave them. They went after false idols, and became false, and they followed the nations that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do like them.

2Ki 17:16 And they forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made for themselves molten images of two calves; and they made an Asherah, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

2Ki 17:17 And they burned their sons and their daughters as offerings, and used divination and sorcery, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ki 17:18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight; none was left but the tribe of Judah only.

2Ki 17:19 Judah also did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the customs which Israel had introduced.

2Ki 17:20 And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, and afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

2Ki 17:21 When he had torn Israel from the house of David they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD and made them commit great sin.

2Ki 17:22 The people of Israel walked in all the sins which Jeroboam did; they did not depart from them, 2Ki 17:23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had spoken by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their own land to Assyria until this day.

2Ki 17:24 And the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the people of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria, and dwelt in its cities.

2Ki 17:25 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

2Ki 17:26 So the king of Assyria was told, "The nations which you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land; therefore he has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land."

2Ki 17:27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, "Send there one of the priests whom you carried away thence; and let him go and dwell there, and teach them the law of the god of the land."

2Ki 17:28 So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

2Ki 17:29 But every nation still made gods of its own, and put them in the shrines of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities in which they dwelt;

2Ki 17:30 the men of Babylon made Succothbenoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, 2Ki 17:31 and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

2Ki 17:32 They also feared the LORD, and appointed from among themselves all sorts of people as priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.

2Ki 17:33 So they feared the LORD but also served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

2Ki 17:34 To this day they do according to the former manner. They do not fear the LORD, and they do not follow the statutes or the ordinances or the law or the commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

2Ki 17:35 The LORD made a covenant with them, and commanded them, "You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them;

2Ki 17:36 but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm; you shall bow yourselves to him, and to him you shall sacrifice.

2Ki 17:37 And the statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment which he wrote for you, you shall always be careful to do. You shall not fear other gods,
2Ki 17:38 and you shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you. You shall not fear other gods,
2Ki 17:39 but you shall fear the LORD your God, and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies."
2Ki 17:40 However they would not listen, but they did according to their former manner.
2Ki 17:41 So these nations feared the LORD, and also served their graven images; their children likewise, and their children's children -- as their fathers did, so they do to this day.
2Ki 18:1 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.
2Ki 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.
2Ki 18:3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.
2Ki 18:4 He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah. And he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the people of Israel had burned incense to it; it was called Nehushtan.
2Ki 18:5 He trusted in the LORD the God of Israel; so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him.
2Ki 18:6 For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following him, but kept the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses.
2Ki 18:7 And the LORD was with him; wherever he went forth, he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria, and would not serve him.
2Ki 18:8 He smote the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.
2Ki 18:9 In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it 2Ki 18:10 and at the end of three years he took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.
2Ki 18:11 The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 2Ki 18:12 because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded; they neither listened nor obeyed.
2Ki 18:13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.
2Ki 18:14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will bear." And the king of Assyria required of Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.
2Ki 18:15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house.
2Ki 18:16 At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.
2Ki 18:17 And the king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rabsaris, and the Rabshakeh with a great army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they arrived, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway to the Fuller's Field.
2Ki 18:18 And when they called for the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder.
2Ki 18:19 And the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah, `Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this confidence of yours?
2Ki 18:20 Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?
2Ki 18:21 Behold, you are relying now on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.
2Ki 18:22 But if you say to me, "We rely on the LORD our God," is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem"?
2Ki 18:23 Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders upon them.
2Ki 18:24 How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
2Ki 18:25 Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."
2Ki 18:26 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah, said to the Rabshakeh, "Pray, speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

2Ki 18:27 But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and to drink their own urine?"

2Ki 18:28 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

2Ki 18:29 Thus says the king: `Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you out of my hand.

2Ki 18:30 Do not let Hezekiah make you to rely on the LORD by saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

2Ki 18:31 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: `Make your peace with me and come out to me; then every one of you will eat of his own vine, and every one of his own fig tree, and every one of you will drink the water of his own cistern;

2Ki 18:32 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live, and not die. And do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you by saying, The LORD will deliver us.

2Ki 18:33 Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

2Ki 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

2Ki 18:35 Who among all the gods of the countries have delivered their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

2Ki 18:36 But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."

2Ki 18:37 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

2Ki 19:1 When King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2Ki 19:2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz.

2Ki 19:3 They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

2Ki 19:4 It may be that the LORD your God heard all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."

2Ki 19:5 When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,

2Ki 19:6 Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master, `Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.

2Ki 19:7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."

2Ki 19:8 The Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he heard that the king had left Lachish.

2Ki 19:9 And when the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Behold, he has set out to fight against you," he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, 2Ki 19:10 "Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah: `Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

2Ki 19:11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered?

2Ki 19:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations which my fathers destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

2Ki 19:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?"

2Ki 19:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

2Ki 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: "O LORD the God of Israel, who art enthroned above the cherubim, thou art the God, thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

2Ki 19:16 Incline thy ear, O LORD, and hear; open thy eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

2Ki 19:17 Of a truth, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands,

2Ki 19:18 and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they were destroyed.

2Ki 19:19 So now, O LORD our God, save us, I beseech thee, from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou, O LORD, art God alone."

2Ki 19:20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Your prayer to me about Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.

2Ki 19:21 This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: "She despises you, she scorns you -- the virgin daughter of Zion; she wags her head behind you -- the daughter of Jerusalem.

2Ki 19:22 "Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2Ki 19:23 By your messengers you have mocked the LORD, and you have said, 'With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I entered its farthest retreat, its densest forest.

2Ki 19:24 I dug wells and drank foreign waters, and I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.'

2Ki 19:25 "Have you not heard that I determined it long ago? I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should turn fortified cities into heaps of ruins, 2Ki 19:26 while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded, and have become like plants of the field, and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops; blighted before it is grown?

2Ki 19:27 "But I know your sitting down and your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.

2Ki 19:28 Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come into my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

2Ki 19:29 "And this shall be the sign for you: this year you shall eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs of the same; then in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

2Ki 19:30 And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward;

2Ki 19:31 for out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD will do this.

2Ki 19:32 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city or shoot an arrow there, or come before it with a shield or cast up a siege mound against it.

2Ki 19:33 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.

2Ki 19:34 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."

2Ki 19:35 And that night the angel of the LORD went forth, and slew a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.

2Ki 19:36 Then Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went home, and dwelt at Nineveh.

2Ki 19:37 And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer, his sons, slew him with the sword, and escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 20:1 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Set your house in order; for you shall die, you shall not recover.'"

2Ki 20:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying,

2Ki 20:3 "Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in thy sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

2Ki 20:4 And before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him:

2Ki 20:5 "Turn back, and say to Hezekiah the prince of my people, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

2Ki 20:6 And I will add fifteen years to your life. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake."

2Ki 20:7 And Isaiah said, "Bring a cake of figs. And let them take and lay it on the boil, that he may recover."

2Ki 20:8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?"

2Ki 20:9 And Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has promised: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?"

2Ki 20:10 And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to lengthen ten steps; rather let the shadow go back ten steps."

2Ki 20:11 And Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD; and he brought the shadow back ten steps, by which the sun had declined on the dial of Ahaz.

2Ki 20:12 At that time Merodachbaladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

2Ki 20:13 And Hezekiah welcomed them, and he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory, all that was found in his storehouses; there was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

2Ki 20:14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say? And whence did they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They have come from a far country, from Babylon."

2Ki 20:15 He said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

2Ki 20:16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

2Ki 20:17 Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

2Ki 20:18 And some of your own sons, who are born to you, shall be taken away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

2Ki 20:19 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good." For he thought, "Why not, if there will be peace and security in my days?"

2Ki 20:20 The rest of the deeds of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 20:21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

2Ki 21:2 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2Ki 21:3 For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he erected altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them.

2Ki 21:4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem will I put my name."

2Ki 21:5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2Ki 21:6 And he burned his son as an offering, and practiced soothsaying and augury, and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ki 21:7 And the graven image of Asherah that he had made he set in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever;

2Ki 21:8 and I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave to their fathers, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them."

2Ki 21:9 But they did not listen, and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations had done whom the LORD destroyed before the people of Israel.

2Ki 21:10 And the LORD said by his servants the prophets,

2Ki 21:11 "Because Manasseh king of Judah has committed these abominations, and has done things more wicked than all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols;

2Ki 21:12 therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing upon Jerusalem and Judah such evil that the ears of every one who hears of it will tingle.

2Ki 21:13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

2Ki 21:14 And I will cast off the remnant of my heritage, and give them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies,

2Ki 21:15 because they have done what is evil in my sight and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day."

2Ki 21:16 Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides the sin which he made Judah to sin so that they did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2Ki 21:17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 21:18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

2Ki 21:20 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done.

2Ki 21:21 He walked in all the way in which his father walked, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them;

2Ki 21:22 he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

2Ki 21:23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his house.

2Ki 21:24 But the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

2Ki 21:25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 21:26 And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

2Ki 22:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

2Ki 22:3 In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the house of the LORD, saying,

2Ki 22:4 "Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest, that he may reckon the amount of the money which has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have collected from the people;

2Ki 22:5 and let it be given into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD; and let them give it to the workmen who are at the house of the LORD, repairing the house,

2Ki 22:6 that is, to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, as well as for buying timber and quarried stone to repair the house.

2Ki 22:7 But no accounting shall be asked from them for the money which is delivered into their hand, for they deal honestly."

2Ki 22:8 And Hilkiyah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

2Ki 22:9 And Shaphan the secretary came to the king, and reported to the king, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD."

2Ki 22:10 Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, "Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

2Ki 22:11 And when the king heard the words of the book of the law, he rent his clothes.

2Ki 22:12 And the king commanded Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

2Ki 22:13 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

2Ki 22:14 So Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they talked with her.

2Ki 22:15 And she said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: `Tell the man who sent you to me,

2Ki 22:16 Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon its inhabitants, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read.

2Ki 22:17 Because they have forsaken me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched.

2Ki 22:18 But as to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words which you have heard,

2Ki 22:19 because your heart was penitent, and you humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard how I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and you have rent your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.

2Ki 22:20 Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place.'" And they brought back word to the king.

2Ki 23:1 Then the king sent, and all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem were gathered to him.

2Ki 23:2 And the king went up to the house of the LORD, and with him all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests and the prophets, all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

2Ki 23:3 And the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book; and all the people joined in the covenant.

2Ki 23:4 And the king commanded Hilkiah, the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

2Ki 23:5 And he deposed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places at the cities of Judah and round about Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and the moon, and the constellations, and all the host of the heavens.

2Ki 23:6 And he brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD, outside Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust and cast the dust of it upon the graves of the common people.

2Ki 23:7 And he broke down the houses of the male cult prostitutes which were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah.

2Ki 23:9 However, the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.

2Ki 23:10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, that no one might burn his son or his daughter as an offering to Molech.

2Ki 23:11 And he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathanmelech the chamberlain, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

2Ki 23:12 And the altars on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, he pulled down and broke in pieces, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

2Ki 23:13 And the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, to the south of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

2Ki 23:14 And he broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men.

2Ki 23:15 Moreover the altar at Bethel, the high place erected by Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, that altar with the high place he pulled down and he broke in pieces its stones, crushing them to dust; also he burned the Asherah.

2Ki 23:16 And as Josiah turned, he saw the tombs there on the mount; and he sent and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them upon the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who had predicted these things.

2Ki 23:17 Then he said, "What is yonder monument that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and predicted these things which you have done against the altar at Bethel."

2Ki 23:18 And he said, "Let him be; let no man move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.

2Ki 23:19 And all the shrines also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which kings of Israel had made, provoking the LORD to anger, Josiah removed; he did to them according to all that he had done at Bethel.

2Ki 23:20 And he slew all the priests of the high places who were there, upon the altars, and burned the bones of men upon them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:21 And the king commanded all the people, "Keep the passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant."

2Ki 23:22 For no such passover had been kept since the days of the judges who judged Israel, or during all the days of the kings of Israel or of the kings of Judah;

2Ki 23:23 but in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:24 Moreover Josiah put away the mediums and the wizards and the teraphim and the idols and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might establish the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

2Ki 23:25 Before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him.

2Ki 23:26 Still the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, by which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked him.

2Ki 23:27 And the LORD said, "I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there."

2Ki 23:28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 23:29 In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. King Josiah went to meet him; and Pharaoh Neco slew him at Megiddo, when he saw him.

2Ki 23:30 And his servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

2Ki 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2Ki 23:32 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

2Ki 23:33 And Pharaoh Neco put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and laid upon the land a tribute of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2Ki 23:34 And Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there.

2Ki 23:35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money according to the command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

2Ki 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

2Ki 23:37 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

2Ki 24:1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2Ki 24:2 And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by his servants the prophets.

2Ki 24:3 Surely this came upon Judah at the command of the LORD, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done, 2Ki 24:4 and also for the innocent blood that he had shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD would not pardon.

2Ki 24:5 Now the rest of the deeds of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 24:6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

2Ki 24:7 And the king of Egypt did not come again out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

2Ki 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

2Ki 24:9 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

2Ki 24:10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

2Ki 24:11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it;

2Ki 24:12 and Jehoiachin the king of Judah gave himself up to the king of Babylon, himself, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his palace officials. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign, 2Ki 24:13 and carried off all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold in the temple of the LORD, which Solomon king of Israel had made, as the LORD had foretold.

2Ki 24:14 He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, except the poorest people of the land.

2Ki 24:15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials, and the chief men of the land, he took into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2Ki 24:16 And the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of valor, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all of them strong and fit for war.

2Ki 24:17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

2Ki 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2Ki 24:19 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

2Ki 24:20 For because of the anger of the LORD it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that he cast them out from his presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2Ki 25:1 And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and laid siege to it; and they built siegeworks against it round about.

2Ki 25:2 So the city was besieged till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2Ki 25:3 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

2Ki 25:4 Then a breach was made in the city; the king with all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were around the city. And they went in the direction of the Arabah.

2Ki 25:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

2Ki 25:6 Then they captured the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who passed sentence upon him.

2Ki 25:7 They slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and took him to Babylon.

2Ki 25:8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month -- which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon -- Nebuzaradan, the captain of the bodyguard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:9 And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.

2Ki 25:10 And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:11 And the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the multitude, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile.

2Ki 25:12 But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

2Ki 25:13 And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried the bronze to Babylon.

2Ki 25:14 And they took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the dishes for incense and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service,

2Ki 25:15 the firepans also, and the bowls. What was of gold the captain of the guard took away as gold, and what was of silver, as silver.

2Ki 25:16 As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the stands, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight.

2Ki 25:17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and upon it was a capital of bronze; the height of the capital was three cubits; a network and pomegranates, all of bronze, were upon the capital round about. And the second pillar had the like, with the network.

2Ki 25:18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold;

2Ki 25:19 and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the men of war, and five men of the king's council who were found in the city; and the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

2Ki 25:20 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

2Ki 25:21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken into exile out of its land.

2Ki 25:22 And over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, governor.

2Ki 25:23 Now when all the captains of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, they came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite.

2Ki 25:24 And Gedaliah swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid because of the Chaldean officials; dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

2Ki 25:25 But in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men, and attacked and killed Gedaliah and the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

2Ki 25:26 Then all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces arose, and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

2Ki 25:27 And in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, graciously freed Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison;

2Ki 25:28 and he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

2Ki 25:29 So Jehoiachin put off his prison garments. And every day of his life he dined regularly at the king's table;

2Ki 25:30 and for his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king, every day a portion, as long as he lived.

1Ch 9:19 Shallum the son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his kinsmen of his fathers' house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent, as their fathers had been in charge of the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance.

1Ch 9:21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
1Ch 9:22 All these, who were chosen as gatekeepers at the thresholds, were two hundred and twelve. They were enrolled by genealogies in their villages. David and Samuel the seer established them in their office of trust.
1Ch 9:23 So they and their sons were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, that is, the house of the tent, as guards.
1Ch 9:24 The gatekeepers were on the four sides, east, west, north, and south;
1Ch 9:25 and their kinsmen who were in their villages were obliged to come in every seven days, from time to time, to be with these;
1Ch 9:26 for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were in charge of the chambers and the treasures of the house of God.

1Ch 9:27 And they lodged round about the house of God; for upon them lay the duty of watching, and they had charge of opening it every morning.

1Ch 9:28 Some of them had charge of the utensils of service, for they were required to count them when they were brought in and taken out.

1Ch 9:29 Others of them were appointed over the furniture, and over all the holy utensils, also over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the incense, and the spices.

1Ch 9:30 Others, of the sons of the priests, prepared the mixing of the spices,

1Ch 9:31 and Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of making the flat cakes.

1Ch 9:32 Also some of their kinsmen of the Kohathites had charge of the showbread, to prepare it every sabbath.

1Ch 9:33 Now these are the singers, the heads of fathers' houses of the Levites, dwelling in the chambers of the temple free from other service, for they were on duty day and night.

1Ch 9:34 These were heads of fathers' houses of the Levites, according to their generations, leaders, who lived in Jerusalem.

1Ch 9:35 In Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, and the name of his wife was Maacah,

1Ch 9:36 and his first-born son Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,

1Ch 9:37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth;

1Ch 9:38 and Mikloth was the father of Shimeam; and these also dwelt opposite their kinsmen in Jerusalem, with their kinsmen.

1Ch 9:39 Ner was the father of Kish, Kish of Saul, Saul of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal; 1Ch 9:40 and the son of Jonathan was Meribbaal; and Meribbaal was the father of Micah.

1Ch 9:41 The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz;

1Ch 9:42 and Ahaz was the father of Jarah, and Jarah of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri was the father of Moza.

1Ch 9:43 Moza was the father of Binea; and Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

1Ch 9:44 Azel had six sons and these are their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1Ch 10:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:2 And the Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

1Ch 10:3 The battle pressed hard upon Saul, and the archers found him; and he was wounded by the archers.

1Ch 10:4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer would not; for he feared greatly. Therefore Saul took his own sword, and fell upon it.

1Ch 10:5 And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword, and died.

1Ch 10:6 Thus Saul died; he and his three sons and all his house died together.

1Ch 10:7 And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

1Ch 10:8 On the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:9 And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines, to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

1Ch 10:10 And they put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

1Ch 10:11 But when all Jabeshgilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Ch 10:12 all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh. And they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

1Ch 10:13 So Saul died for his unfaithfulness; he was unfaithful to the LORD in that he did not keep the command of the LORD, and also consulted a medium, seeking guidance, 1Ch 10:14 and did not seek guidance from the LORD. Therefore the LORD slew him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

1Ch 11:1 Then all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron, and said, "Behold, we are your bone and flesh.

1Ch 11:2 In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you that led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over my people Israel.'"

1Ch 11:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

1Ch 11:4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, that is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

1Ch 11:5 The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You will not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, that is, the city of David.

1Ch 11:6 David said, "Whoever shall smite the Jebusites first shall be chief and commander." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

1Ch 11:7 And David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David.

1Ch 11:8 And he built the city round about from the Millo in complete circuit; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

1Ch 11:9 And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.

1Ch 11:10 Now these are the chiefs of David's mighty men, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

1Ch 11:11 This is an account of David's mighty men: Jashobeam, a Hachmonite, was chief of the three; he wielded his spear against three hundred whom he slew at one time.

1Ch 11:12 And next to him among the three mighty men was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite.

1Ch 11:13 He was with David at Pasdammim when the Philistines were gathered there for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley, and the men fled from the Philistines.

1Ch 11:14 But he took his stand in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory.

1Ch 11:15 Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David at the cave of Adullam, when the army of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

1Ch 11:16 David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.

1Ch 11:17 And David said longingly, "O that some one would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!"

1Ch 11:18 Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took and brought it to David. But David would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD,

1Ch 11:19 and said, "Far be it from me before my God that I should do this. Shall I drink the lifeblood of these men? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:20 Now Abishai, the brother of Joab, was chief of the thirty. And he wielded his spear against three hundred men and slew them, and won a name beside the three.

1Ch 11:21 He was the most renowned of the thirty, and became their commander; but he did not attain to the three.

1Ch 11:22 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he smote two ariels of Moab. He also went down and slew a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

1Ch 11:23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits tall. The Egyptian had in his hand a spear like a weaver's beam; but Benaiah went down to him with a staff, and snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

1Ch 11:24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and won a name beside the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:25 He was renowned among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard.

1Ch 11:26 The mighty men of the armies were Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

1Ch 11:27 Shammoth of Harod, Helez the Pelonite,

1Ch 11:28 Ira the son of Ikkes of Tekoa, Abiezer of Anathoth,

1Ch 11:29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

1Ch 11:30 Maharai of Netophah, Heled the son of Baanah of Netophah,

1Ch 11:31 Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeath of the Benjaminites, Benaiah of Pirathon,

1Ch 11:32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

1Ch 11:33 Azmaveth of Baharum, Eliahba of Shaalbon,

1Ch 11:34 Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite,

1Ch 11:35 Ahiam the son of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,

1Ch 11:36 Hopher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

1Ch 11:37 Hezro of Carmel, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

1Ch 11:38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri,

1Ch 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai of Beeroth, the armor-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

1Ch 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

1Ch 11:41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabab the son of Ahlai,
1Ch 11:42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a leader of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,
1Ch 11:43 Hanan the son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,
1Ch 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,
1Ch 11:45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,
1Ch 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite,
1Ch 11:47 Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.
1Ch 12:1 Now these are the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he could not move about freely because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped him in war.
1Ch 12:2 They were bowmen, and could shoot arrows and sling stones with either the right or the left hand; they were Benjaminites, Saul's kinsmen.
1Ch 12:3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, both sons of Shemaah of Gibeah; also Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu of Anathoth,
1Ch 12:4 Ishmaiah of Gibeon, a mighty man among the thirty and a leader over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad of Gederah, 1Ch 12:7 and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

1Ch 12:8 From the Gadites there went over to David at the stronghold in the wilderness mighty and experienced warriors, expert with shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and who were swift as gazelles upon the mountains:
1Ch 12:9 Ezer the chief, Obadiah second, Eliab third,
1Ch 12:10 Mishmannah fourth, Jeremiah fifth,
1Ch 12:11 Attai sixth, Eliel seventh,
1Ch 12:12 Johanan eighth, Elzabad ninth,
1Ch 12:13 Jeremiah tenth, Machbannai eleventh.
1Ch 12:14 These Gadites were officers of the army, the lesser over a hundred and the greater over a thousand.
1Ch 12:15 These are the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing all its banks, and put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.
1Ch 12:16 And some of the men of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.
1Ch 12:17 David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in friendship to help me, my heart will be knit to you; but if to betray me to my adversaries, although there is no wrong in my hands, then may the God of our fathers see and rebuke you."
1Ch 12:18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the thirty, and he said, "We are yours, O David; and with you, O son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helpers! For your God helps you." Then David received them, and made them officers of his troops.
1Ch 12:19 Some of the men of Manasseh deserted to David when he came with the Philistines for the battle against Saul. (Yet he did not help them, for the rulers of the Philistines took counsel and sent him away, saying, "At peril to our heads he will desert to his master Saul.")
1Ch 12:20 As he went to Ziklag these men of Manasseh deserted to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, chiefs of thousands in Manasseh.
1Ch 12:21 They helped David against the band of raiders; for they were all mighty men of valor, and were commanders in the army.
1Ch 12:22 For from day to day men kept coming to David to help him, until there was a great army, like an army of God.
1Ch 12:23 These are the numbers of the divisions of the armed troops, who came to David in Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul over to him, according to the word of the LORD.
1Ch 12:24 The men of Judah bearing shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred armed troops.
1Ch 12:25 Of the Simeonites, mighty men of valor for war, seven thousand one hundred.

1Ch 12:29 Of the Benjaminites, the kinsmen of Saul, three thousand, of whom the majority had hitherto kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.
1Ch 12:30 Of the Ephraimites twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses.
1Ch 12:31 Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were expressly named to come and make David king.
1Ch 12:32 Of Issachar men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, two hundred chiefs, and all their kinsmen under their command.

1Ch 12:33 Of Zebulun fifty thousand seasoned troops, equipped for battle with all the weapons of war, to help David with singleness of purpose.

1Ch 12:34 Of Naphtali a thousand commanders with whom were thirty-seven thousand men armed with shield and spear.

1Ch 12:35 Of the Danites twenty-eight thousand six hundred men equipped for battle.

1Ch 12:36 Of Asher forty thousand seasoned troops ready for battle.

1Ch 12:37 Of the Reubenites and Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh from beyond the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand men armed with all the weapons of war.

1Ch 12:38 All these, men of war, arrayed in battle order, came to Hebron with full intent to make David king over all Israel; likewise all the rest of Israel were of a single mind to make David king.

1Ch 12:39 And they were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had made preparation for them.

1Ch 12:40 And also their neighbors, from as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, came bringing food on asses and on camels and on mules and on oxen, abundant provisions of meal, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, and wine and oil, oxen and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1Ch 13:1 David consulted with the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with every leader.

1Ch 13:2 And David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our brethren who remain in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites in the cities that have pasture lands, that they may come together to us.

1Ch 13:3 Then let us bring again the ark of our God to us; for we neglected it in the days of Saul."

1Ch 13:4 All the assembly agreed to do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

1Ch 13:5 So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriathjearim.

1Ch 13:6 And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriathjearim which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD who sits enthroned above the cherubim.

1Ch 13:7 And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, from the house of Abinadab, and Uzzah and Ahio were driving the cart.

1Ch 13:8 And David and all Israel were making merry before God with all their might, with song and lyres and harps and tambourines and cymbals and trumpets.

1Ch 13:9 And when they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzzah put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

1Ch 13:10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and he smote him because he put forth his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

1Ch 13:11 And David was angry because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzzah; and that place is called Perezuzza to this day.

1Ch 13:12 And David was afraid of God that day; and he said, "How can I bring the ark of God home to me?"

1Ch 13:13 So David did not take the ark home into the city of David, but took it aside to the house of Obededom the Gittite.

1Ch 13:14 And the ark of God remained with the household of Obededom in his house three months; and the LORD blessed the household of Obededom and all that he had.

1Ch 14:1 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, also masons and carpenters to build a house for him.

1Ch 14:2 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

1Ch 14:3 And David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.

1Ch 14:4 These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1Ch 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1Ch 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

1Ch 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went out against them.

1Ch 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

1Ch 14:10 And David inquired of God, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt thou give them into my hand?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up, and I will give them into your hand."

1Ch 14:11 And he went up to Baalperazim, and David defeated them there; and David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like a bursting flood." Therefore the name of that place is called Baalperazim.

1Ch 14:12 And they left their gods there, and David gave command, and they were burned.

1Ch 14:13 And the Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley.
1Ch 14:14 And when David again inquired of God, God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; go around and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.
1Ch 14:15 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to smite the army of the Philistines."
1Ch 14:16 And David did as God commanded him, and they smote the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.
1Ch 14:17 And the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.
1Ch 15:1 David built houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it.
1Ch 15:2 Then David said, "No one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister to him for ever."
1Ch 15:3 And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it.
1Ch 15:4 And David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites:
1Ch 15:5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, with a hundred and twenty of his brethren;
1Ch 15:6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, with two hundred and twenty of his brethren;
1Ch 15:7 of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, with a hundred and thirty of his brethren;
1Ch 15:8 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, with two hundred of his brethren;
1Ch 15:9 of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, with eighty of his brethren;
1Ch 15:10 of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, with a hundred and twelve of his brethren.
1Ch 15:11 Then David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar, and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab,
1Ch 15:12 and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it.
1Ch 15:13 Because you did not carry it the first time, the LORD our God broke forth upon us, because we did not care for it in the way that is ordained."
1Ch 15:14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.
1Ch 15:15 And the Levites carried the ark of God upon their shoulders with the poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.
1Ch 15:16 David also commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their brethren as the singers who should play loudly on musical instruments, on harps and lyres and cymbals, to raise sounds of joy.
1Ch 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari, their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;
1Ch 15:18 and with them their brethren of the second order, Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obedom and Jeiel.
1Ch 15:19 The singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound bronze cymbals;
1Ch 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play harps according to Alamoth;
1Ch 15:21 but Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obedom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to lead with lyres according to the Sheminiith.
1Ch 15:22 Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, should direct the music, for he understood it.
1Ch 15:23 Berechiah and Elkanah were to be gatekeepers for the ark.
1Ch 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, should blow the trumpets before the ark of God. Obedom and Jehiah also were to be gatekeepers for the ark.
1Ch 15:25 So David and the elders of Israel, and the commanders of thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obedom with rejoicing.
1Ch 15:26 And because God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.
1Ch 15:27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as also were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the leader of the music of the singers; and David wore a linen ephod.
1Ch 15:28 So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, to the sound of the horn, trumpets, and cymbals, and made loud music on harps and lyres.
1Ch 15:29 And as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David dancing and making merry; and she despised him in her heart.
1Ch 16:1 And they brought the ark of God, and set it inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.
1Ch 16:2 And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD,

1Ch 16:3 and distributed to all Israel, both men and women, to each a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins.

1Ch 16:4 Moreover he appointed certain of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, to invoke, to thank, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch 16:5 Asaph was the chief, and second to him were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obedom, and Jeiel, who were to play harps and lyres; Asaph was to sound the cymbals, 1Ch 16:6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

1Ch 16:7 Then on that day David first appointed that thanksgiving be sung to the LORD by Asaph and his brethren.

1Ch 16:8 O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples!

1Ch 16:9 Sing to him, sing praises to him, tell of all his wonderful works!

1Ch 16:10 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!

1Ch 16:11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his presence continually!

1Ch 16:12 Remember the wonderful works that he has done, the wonders he wrought, the judgments he uttered, 1Ch 16:13 O offspring of Abraham his servant, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones!

1Ch 16:14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

1Ch 16:15 He is mindful of his covenant for ever, of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,

1Ch 16:16 the covenant which he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac,

1Ch 16:17 which he confirmed as a statute to Jacob, as an everlasting covenant to Israel,

1Ch 16:18 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, as your portion for an inheritance."

1Ch 16:19 When they were few in number, and of little account, and sojourners in it,

1Ch 16:20 wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people,

1Ch 16:21 he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account,

1Ch 16:22 saying, "Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!"

1Ch 16:23 Sing to the Lord, all the earth! Tell of his salvation from day to day.

1Ch 16:24 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!

1Ch 16:25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and he is to be held in awe above all gods.

1Ch 16:26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols; but the LORD made the heavens.

1Ch 16:27 Honor and majesty are before him; strength and joy are in his place.

1Ch 16:28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!

1Ch 16:29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come before him! Worship the LORD in holy array;

1Ch 16:30 tremble before him, all the earth; yea, the world stands firm, never to be moved.

1Ch 16:31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

1Ch 16:32 Let the sea roar, and all that fills it, let the field exult, and everything in it!

1Ch 16:33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

1Ch 16:34 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever!

1Ch 16:35 Say also: "Deliver us, O God of our salvation, and gather and save us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

1Ch 16:36 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting!" Then all the people said "Amen!" and praised the LORD.

1Ch 16:37 So David left Asaph and his brethren there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister continually before the ark as each day required, 1Ch 16:38 and also Obedom and his sixty-eight brethren; while Obedom, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah were to be gatekeepers.

1Ch 16:39 And he left Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon, 1Ch 16:40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD upon the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, according to all that is written in the law of the LORD which he commanded Israel.

1Ch 16:41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest of those chosen and expressly named to give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures for ever.

1Ch 16:42 Heman and Jeduthun had trumpets and cymbals for the music and instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were appointed to the gate.

1Ch 16:43 Then all the people departed each to his house, and David went home to bless his household.

1Ch 17:1 Now when David dwelt in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent."

1Ch 17:2 And Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

1Ch 17:3 But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan,

1Ch 17:4 "Go and tell my servant David, `Thus says the LORD: You shall not build me a house to dwell in.

1Ch 17:5 For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I led up Israel to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from dwelling to dwelling.

1Ch 17:6 In all places where I have moved with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"

1Ch 17:7 Now therefore thus shall you say to my servant David, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel;

1Ch 17:8 and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

1Ch 17:9 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and violent men shall waste them no more, as formerly,

1Ch 17:10 from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies.

Moreover I declare to you that the LORD will build you a house.

1Ch 17:11 When your days are fulfilled to go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

1Ch 17:12 He shall build a house for me, and I will establish his throne for ever.

1Ch 17:13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son; I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from him who was before you,

1Ch 17:14 but I will confirm him in my house and in my kingdom for ever and his throne shall be established for ever."

1Ch 17:15 In accordance with all these words, and in accordance with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

1Ch 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and said, "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me thus far?

1Ch 17:17 And this was a small thing in thy eyes, O God; thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast shown me future generations, O LORD God!

1Ch 17:18 And what more can David say to thee for honoring thy servant? For thou knowest thy servant.

1Ch 17:19 For thy servant's sake, O LORD, and according to thy own heart, thou hast wrought all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

1Ch 17:20 There is none like thee, O LORD, and there is no God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

1Ch 17:21 What other nation on earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his people, making for thyself a name for great and terrible things, in driving out nations before thy people whom thou didst redeem from Egypt?

1Ch 17:22 And thou didst make thy people Israel to be thy people for ever; and thou, O LORD, didst become their God.

1Ch 17:23 And now, O LORD, let the word which thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast spoken;

1Ch 17:24 and thy name will be established and magnified for ever, saying, `The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God,' and the house of thy servant David will be established before thee.

1Ch 17:25 For thou, my God, hast revealed to thy servant that thou wilt build a house for him; therefore thy servant has found courage to pray before thee.

1Ch 17:26 And now, O LORD, thou art God, and thou hast promised this good thing to thy servant;

1Ch 17:27 now therefore may it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee; for what thou, O LORD, hast blessed is blessed for ever."

1Ch 18:1 After this David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its villages out of the hand of the Philistines.

1Ch 18:2 And he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

1Ch 18:3 David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah, toward Hamath, as he went to set up his monument at the river Euphrates.

1Ch 18:4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but left enough for a hundred chariots.

1Ch 18:5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians.

1Ch 18:6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

1Ch 18:7 And David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

1Ch 18:8 And from Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze; with it Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the vessels of bronze.

1Ch 18:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer, king of Zobah,

1Ch 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David, to greet him, and to congratulate him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him; for Hadadezer had often been at war with Tou. And he sent all sorts of articles of gold, of silver, and of bronze;

1Ch 18:11 these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold which he had carried off from all the nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

1Ch 18:12 And Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, slew eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1Ch 18:13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

1Ch 18:14 So David reigned over all Israel; and he administered justice and equity to all his people.

1Ch 18:15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

1Ch 18:16 and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; and Shavsha was secretary;

1Ch 18:17 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were the chief officials in the service of the king.

1Ch 19:1 Now after this Nahash the king of the Ammonites died, and his son reigned in his stead.

1Ch 19:2 And David said, "I will deal loyally with Hanun the son of Nahash, for his father dealt loyally with me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites, to console him.

1Ch 19:3 But the princes of the Ammonites said to Hanun, "Do you think, because David has sent comforters to you, that he is honoring your father? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

1Ch 19:4 So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their hips, and sent them away;

1Ch 19:5 and they departed. When David was told concerning the men, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

1Ch 19:6 When the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Arammaacah, and from Zobah.

1Ch 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Maacah with his army, who came and encamped before Medeba. And the Ammonites were mustered from their cities and came to battle.

1Ch 19:8 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

1Ch 19:9 And the Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

1Ch 19:10 When Joab saw that the battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel, and arrayed them against the Syrians;

1Ch 19:11 the rest of his men he put in the charge of Abishai his brother, and they were arrayed against the Ammonites.

1Ch 19:12 And he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you.

1Ch 19:13 Be of good courage, and let us play the man for our people, and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what seems good to him."

1Ch 19:14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Syrians for battle; and they fled before him.

1Ch 19:15 And when the Ammonites saw that the Syrians fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, Joab's brother, and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

1Ch 19:16 But when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the Euphrates, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer at their head.

1Ch 19:17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and crossed the Jordan, and came to them, and drew up his forces against them. And when David set the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

1Ch 19:18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians the men of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand foot soldiers, and killed also Shophach the commander of their army.

1Ch 19:19 And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and became subject to him. So the Syrians were not willing to help the Ammonites any more.

1Ch 20:1 In the spring of the year, the time when kings go forth to battle, Joab led out the army, and ravaged the country of the Ammonites, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and overthrew it.

1Ch 20:2 And David took the crown of their king from his head; he found that it weighed a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

1Ch 20:3 And he brought forth the people who were in it, and set them to labor with saws and iron picks and axes; and thus David did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 20:4 And after this there arose war with the Philistines at Gezer; then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, who was one of the descendants of the giants; and the Philistines were subdued.

1Ch 20:5 And there was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

1Ch 20:6 And there was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was descended from the giants.

1Ch 20:7 And when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, slew him.

1Ch 20:8 These were descended from the giants in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1Ch 21:1 Satan stood up against Israel, and incited David to number Israel.

1Ch 21:2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the army, "Go, number Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, and bring me a report, that I may know their number."

1Ch 21:3 But Joab said, "May the LORD add to his people a hundred times as many as they are! Are they not, my lord the king, all of them my lord's servants? Why then should my lord require this? Why should he bring guilt upon Israel?"

1Ch 21:4 But the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came back to Jerusalem.

1Ch 21:5 And Joab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to David. In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and in Judah four hundred and seventy thousand who drew the sword.

1Ch 21:6 But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.

1Ch 21:7 But God was displeased with this thing, and he smote Israel.

1Ch 21:8 And David said to God, "I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing. But now, I pray thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly."

1Ch 21:9 And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

1Ch 21:10 "Go and say to David, 'Thus says the LORD, Three things I offer you; choose one of them, that I may do it to you.'"

1Ch 21:11 So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Take which you will:

1Ch 21:12 either three years of famine; or three months of devastation by your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days of the sword of the LORD, pestilence upon the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now decide what answer I shall return to him who sent me."

1Ch 21:13 Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but let me not fall into the hand of man."

1Ch 21:14 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel; and there fell seventy thousand men of Israel.

1Ch 21:15 And God sent the angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but when he was about to destroy it, the LORD saw, and he repented of the evil; and he said to the destroying angel, "It is enough; now stay your hand." And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:16 And David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, and in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

1Ch 21:17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who gave command to number the people? It is I who have sinned and done very wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be against me and against my father's house; but let not the plague be upon thy people."

1Ch 21:18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go up and rear an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:19 So David went up at Gad's word, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

1Ch 21:20 Now Ornan was threshing wheat; he turned and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves.

1Ch 21:21 As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David and went forth from the threshing floor, and did obeisance to David with his face to the ground.

1Ch 21:22 And David said to Ornan, "Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build on it an altar to the LORD -- give it to me at its full price -- that the plague may be averted from the people."

1Ch 21:23 Then Ornan said to David, "Take it; and let my lord the king do what seems good to him; see, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for a cereal offering. I give it all."

1Ch 21:24 But King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will buy it for the full price; I will not take for the LORD what is yours, nor offer burnt offerings which cost me nothing."

1Ch 21:25 So David paid Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the site.

1Ch 21:26 And David built there an altar to the LORD and presented burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD, and he answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

1Ch 21:27 Then the LORD commanded the angel; and he put his sword back into its sheath.

1Ch 21:28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he made his sacrifices there.

1Ch 21:29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon;

1Ch 21:30 but David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1Ch 22:1 Then David said, "Here shall be the house of the LORD God and here the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

1Ch 22:2 David commanded to gather together the aliens who were in the land of Israel, and he set stonecutters to prepare dressed stones for building the house of God.

1Ch 22:3 David also provided great stores of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps, as well as bronze in quantities beyond weighing,

1Ch 22:4 and cedar timbers without number; for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought great quantities of cedar to David.

1Ch 22:5 For David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and glory throughout all lands; I will therefore make preparation for it." So David provided materials in great quantity before his death.

1Ch 22:6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch 22:7 David said to Solomon, "My son, I had it in my heart to build a house to the name of the LORD my God.

1Ch 22:8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed so much blood before me upon the earth.

1Ch 22:9 Behold, a son shall be born to you; he shall be a man of peace. I will give him peace from all his enemies round about; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

1Ch 22:10 He shall build a house for my name. He shall be my son, and I will be his father, and I will establish his royal throne in Israel for ever.'

1Ch 22:11 Now, my son, the LORD be with you, so that you may succeed in building the house of the LORD your God, as he has spoken concerning you.

1Ch 22:12 Only, may the LORD grant you discretion and understanding, that when he gives you charge over Israel you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

1Ch 22:13 Then you will prosper if you are careful to observe the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong, and of good courage. Fear not; be not dismayed.

1Ch 22:14 With great pains I have provided for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for there is so much of it; timber and stone too I have provided. To these you must add.

1Ch 22:15 You have an abundance of workmen: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and all kinds of craftsmen without number, skilled in working

1Ch 22:16 gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Arise and be doing! The LORD be with you!"

1Ch 22:17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

1Ch 22:18 "Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not given you peace on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD and his people.

1Ch 22:19 Now set your mind and heart to seek the LORD your God. Arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy vessels of God may be brought into a house built for the name of the LORD."

1Ch 23:1 When David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

1Ch 23:2 David assembled all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites.
1Ch 23:3 The Levites, thirty years old and upward, were numbered, and the total was thirty-eight thousand men.
1Ch 23:4 "Twenty-four thousand of these," David said, "shall have charge of the work in the house of the LORD, six thousand shall be officers and judges,
1Ch 23:5 four thousand gatekeepers, and four thousand shall offer praises to the LORD with the instruments which I have made for praise."
1Ch 23:6 And David organized them in divisions corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.
1Ch 23:7 The sons of Gershom were Ladan and Shimei.
1Ch 23:8 The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, and Zetham, and Joel, three.
1Ch 23:9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Ladan.
1Ch 23:10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.
1Ch 23:11 Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons, therefore they became a father's house in one reckoning.
1Ch 23:12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.
1Ch 23:13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart to consecrate the most holy things, that he and his sons for ever should burn incense before the LORD, and minister to him and pronounce blessings in his name for ever.
1Ch 23:14 But the sons of Moses the man of God were named among the tribe of Levi.
1Ch 23:15 The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.
1Ch 23:16 The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief.
1Ch 23:17 The sons of Eliezer: Rehabiah the chief; Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.
1Ch 23:18 The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief.
1Ch 23:19 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
1Ch 23:20 The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief and Isshiah the second.
1Ch 23:21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.
1Ch 23:22 Eleazar died having no sons, but only daughters; their kinsmen, the sons of Kish, married them.
1Ch 23:23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth, three.
1Ch 23:24 These were the sons of Levi by their fathers' houses, the heads of fathers' houses as they were registered according to the number of the names of the individuals from twenty years old and upward who were to do the work for the service of the house of the LORD.
1Ch 23:25 For David said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has given peace to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem for ever.
1Ch 23:26 And so the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the things for its service" --
1Ch 23:27 for by the last words of David these were the number of the Levites from twenty years old and upward --
1Ch 23:28 "but their duty shall be to assist the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, having the care of the courts and the chambers, the cleansing of all that is holy, and any work for the service of the house of God;
1Ch 23:29 to assist also with the showbread, the flour for the cereal offering, the wafers of unleavened bread, the baked offering, the offering mixed with oil, and all measures of quantity or size.
1Ch 23:30 And they shall stand every morning, thanking and praising the LORD, and likewise at evening,
1Ch 23:31 and whenever burnt offerings are offered to the LORD on sabbaths, new moons, and feast days, according to the number required of them, continually before the LORD.
1Ch 23:32 Thus they shall keep charge of the tent of meeting and the sanctuary, and shall attend the sons of Aaron, their brethren, for the service of the house of the LORD."
1Ch 24:1 The divisions of the sons of Aaron were these. The sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
1Ch 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar became the priests.
1Ch 24:3 With the help of Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, David organized them according to the appointed duties in their service.
1Ch 24:4 Since more chief men were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, they organized them under sixteen heads of fathers' houses of the sons of Eleazar, and eight of the sons of Ithamar.
1Ch 24:5 They organized them by lot, all alike, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.

1Ch 24:6 And the scribe Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites; one father's house being chosen for Eleazar and one chosen for Ithamar.

1Ch 24:7 The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

1Ch 24:8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

1Ch 24:9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

1Ch 24:10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

1Ch 24:11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

1Ch 24:12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

1Ch 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

1Ch 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

1Ch 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizez,

1Ch 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

1Ch 24:17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

1Ch 24:18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

1Ch 24:19 These had as their appointed duty in their service to come into the house of the LORD according to the procedure established for them by Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

1Ch 24:20 And of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

1Ch 24:21 Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief.

1Ch 24:22 Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

1Ch 24:23 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

1Ch 24:24 The sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir.

1Ch 24:25 The brother of Micah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

1Ch 24:26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah: Beno.

1Ch 24:27 The sons of Merari: of Jaaziah, Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

1Ch 24:28 Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

1Ch 24:29 Of Kish, the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.

1Ch 24:30 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

1Ch 24:31 These also, the head of each father's house and his younger brother alike, cast lots, just as their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites.

1Ch 25:1 David and the chiefs of the service also set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with lyres, with harps, and with cymbals. The list of those who did the work and of their duties was:

1Ch 25:2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah, sons of Asaph, under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the direction of the king.

1Ch 25:3 Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiyah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with the lyre in thanksgiving and praise to the LORD.

1Ch 25:4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamtiezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.

1Ch 25:5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer, according to the promise of God to exalt him; for God had given Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

1Ch 25:6 They were all under the direction of their father in the music in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the order of the king.

1Ch 25:7 The number of them along with their brethren, who were trained in singing to the LORD, all who were skilful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

1Ch 25:8 And they cast lots for their duties, small and great, teacher and pupil alike.

1Ch 25:9 The first lot fell for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, to him and his brethren and his sons, twelve;

1Ch 25:10 the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:25 to the eighteenth, to Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
1Ch 25:26 to the nineteenth, to Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
1Ch 25:27 to the twentieth, to Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
1Ch 25:28 to the twenty-first, to Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:31 to the twenty-fourth, to Romantiezzer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.
1Ch 26:1 As for the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.
1Ch 26:2 And Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the first-born, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 1Ch 26:5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him.

1Ch 26:6 Also to his son Shemaiah were sons born who were rulers in their fathers' houses, for they were men of great ability.
1Ch 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brethren were able men, Elihu and Semachiah.
1Ch 26:8 All these were of the sons of Obededom with their sons and brethren, able men qualified for the service; sixty-two of Obededom.
1Ch 26:9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, able men, eighteen.
1Ch 26:10 And Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for though he was not the first-born, his father made him chief),
1Ch 26:11 Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.
1Ch 26:12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, corresponding to their chief men, had duties, just as their brethren did, ministering in the house of the LORD;
1Ch 26:13 and they cast lots by fathers' houses, small and great alike, for their gates.
1Ch 26:14 The lot for the east fell to Shelemiah. They cast lots also for his son Zechariah, a shrewd counselor, and his lot came out for the north.
1Ch 26:15 Obededom's came out for the south, and to his sons was allotted the storehouse.
1Ch 26:16 For Shuppim and Hosah it came out for the west, at the gate of Shallecheth on the road that goes up. Watch corresponded to watch.
1Ch 26:17 On the east there were six each day, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, as well as two and two at the storehouse;
1Ch 26:18 and for the parbar on the west there were four at the road and two at the parbar.
1Ch 26:19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the Korahites and the sons of Merari.

1Ch 26:22 The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were in charge of the treasuries of the house of the LORD.
1Ch 26:23 Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites --
1Ch 26:24 and Shebuel the son of Gershom, son of Moses, was chief officer in charge of the treasuries.
1Ch 26:25 His brethren: from Eliezer were his son Rehabiah, and his son Jeshaiyah, and his son Joram, and his son Zichri, and his son Shelomoth.
1Ch 26:26 This Shelomoth and his brethren were in charge of all the treasuries of the dedicated gifts which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' houses, and the officers of the thousands and the hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had dedicated.

1Ch 26:27 From spoil won in battles they dedicated gifts for the maintenance of the house of the LORD.

1Ch 26:32 King David appointed him and his brethren, two thousand seven hundred men of ability, heads of fathers' houses, to have the oversight of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites for everything pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

1Ch 27:1 This is the list of the people of Israel, the heads of fathers' houses, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters concerning the divisions that came and went, month after month throughout the year, each division numbering twenty-four thousand:

1Ch 27:2 Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division in the first month; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:23 David did not number those below twenty years of age, for the LORD had promised to make Israel as many as the stars of heaven.

1Ch 27:24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but did not finish; yet wrath came upon Israel for this, and the number was not entered in the chronicles of King David.

1Ch 28:1 David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the officials of the tribes, the officers of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands, the commanders of hundreds, the stewards of all the property and cattle of the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men, and all the seasoned warriors.

1Ch 28:2 Then King David rose to his feet and said: "Hear me, my brethren and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God; and I made preparations for building.

1Ch 28:3 But God said to me, 'You may not build a house for my name, for you are a warrior and have shed blood.'

1Ch 28:4 Yet the LORD God of Israel chose me from all my father's house to be king over Israel for ever; for he chose Judah as leader, and in the house of Judah my father's house, and among my father's sons he took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel.

1Ch 28:5 And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) he has chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

1Ch 28:6 He said to me, 'It is Solomon your son who shall build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

1Ch 28:7 I will establish his kingdom for ever if he continues resolute in keeping my commandments and my ordinances, as he is today.'

1Ch 28:8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you for ever.

1Ch 28:9 "And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off for ever.

1Ch 28:10 Take heed now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."

1Ch 28:11 Then David gave Solomon his son the plan of the vestibule of the temple, and of its houses, its treasuries, its upper rooms, and its inner chambers, and of the room for the mercy seat;

1Ch 28:12 and the plan of all that he had in mind for the courts of the house of the LORD, all the surrounding chambers, the treasuries of the house of God, and the treasuries for dedicated gifts;

1Ch 28:13 for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, and all the work of the service in the house of the LORD; for all the vessels for the service in the house of the LORD,

1Ch 28:14 the weight of gold for all golden vessels for each service, the weight of silver vessels for each service,

1Ch 28:15 the weight of the golden lampstands and their lamps, the weight of gold for each lampstand and its lamps, the weight of silver for a lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand in the service,

1Ch 28:16 the weight of gold for each table for the showbread, the silver for the silver tables,

1Ch 28:17 and pure gold for the forks, the basins, and the cups; for the golden bowls and the weight of each; for the silver bowls and the weight of each;

1Ch 28:18 for the altar of incense made of refined gold, and its weight; also his plan for the golden chariot of the cherubim that spread their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1Ch 28:19 All this he made clear by the writing from the hand of the LORD concerning it, all the work to be done according to the plan.

1Ch 28:20 Then David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it. Fear not, be not dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

1Ch 28:21 And behold the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and with you in all the work will be every willing man who has skill for any kind of service; also the officers and all the people will be wholly at your command."

1Ch 29:1 And David the king said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great; for the palace will not be for man but for the LORD God.

1Ch 29:2 So I have provided for the house of my God, so far as I was able, the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, besides great quantities of onyx and stones for setting, antimony, colored stones, all sorts of precious stones, and marble.

1Ch 29:3 Moreover, in addition to all that I have provided for the holy house, I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, and because of my devotion to the house of my God I give it to the house of my God:

1Ch 29:4 three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for overlaying the walls of the house,

1Ch 29:5 and for all the work to be done by craftsmen, gold for the things of gold and silver for the things of silver. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating himself today to the LORD?"

1Ch 29:6 Then the heads of fathers' houses made their freewill offerings, as did also the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the officers over the king's work.

1Ch 29:7 They gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and a hundred thousand talents of iron.

1Ch 29:8 And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1Ch 29:9 Then the people rejoiced because these had given willingly, for with a whole heart they had offered freely to the LORD; David the king also rejoiced greatly.

1Ch 29:10 Therefore David blessed the LORD in the presence of all the assembly; and David said: "Blessed art thou, O LORD, the God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

1Ch 29:11 Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

1Ch 29:12 Both riches and honor come from thee, and thou rulest over all. In thy hand are power and might; and in thy hand it is to make great and to give strength to all.

1Ch 29:13 And now we thank thee, our God, and praise thy glorious name.

1Ch 29:14 "But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able thus to offer willingly? For all things come from thee, and of thy own have we given thee.

1Ch 29:15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as all our fathers were; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no abiding.

1Ch 29:16 O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building thee a house for thy holy name comes from thy hand and is all thy own.

1Ch 29:17 I know, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness; in the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen thy people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to thee.

1Ch 29:18 O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep for ever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of thy people, and direct their hearts toward thee.

1Ch 29:19 Grant to Solomon my son that with a whole heart he may keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, performing all, and that he may build the palace for which I have made provision."

1Ch 29:20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Bless the LORD your God." And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed their heads, and worshiped the LORD, and did obeisance to the king.

1Ch 29:21 And they performed sacrifices to the LORD, and on the next day offered burnt offerings to the LORD, a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel;

1Ch 29:22 and they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and they anointed him as prince for the LORD, and Zadok as priest.

1Ch 29:23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

1Ch 29:24 All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, pledged their allegiance to King Solomon.

1Ch 29:25 And the LORD gave Solomon great repute in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

1Ch 29:26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

1Ch 29:27 The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

1Ch 29:28 Then he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

1Ch 29:29 Now the acts of King David, from first to last, are written in the Chronicles of Samuel the seer, and in the Chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the Chronicles of Gad the seer, 1Ch 29:30 with accounts of all his rule and his might and of the circumstances that came upon him and upon Israel, and upon all the kingdoms of the countries.

2Ch 1:1 Solomon the son of David established himself in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

2Ch 1:2 Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to all the leaders in all Israel, the heads of fathers' houses.

2Ch 1:3 And Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for the tent of meeting of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness, was there.

2Ch 1:4 (But David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriathjearim to the place that David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.)

2Ch 1:5 Moreover the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the LORD. And Solomon and the assembly sought the LORD.

2Ch 1:6 And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

2Ch 1:7 In that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you."

2Ch 1:8 And Solomon said to God, "Thou hast shown great and steadfast love to David my father, and hast made me king in his stead.

2Ch 1:9 O LORD God, let thy promise to David my father be now fulfilled, for thou hast made me king over a people as many as the dust of the earth.

2Ch 1:10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge to go out and come in before this people, for who can rule this thy people, that is so great?"

2Ch 1:11 God answered Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked possessions, wealth, honor, or the life of those who hate you, and have not even asked long life, but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may rule my people over whom I have made you king,

2Ch 1:12 wisdom and knowledge are granted to you. I will also give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings had who were before you, and none after you shall have the like."

2Ch 1:13 So Solomon came from the high place at Gibeon, from before the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem. And he reigned over Israel.

2Ch 1:14 Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:15 And the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stone, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephelah.

2Ch 1:16 And Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, and the king's traders received them from Kue for a price.

2Ch 1:17 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; likewise through them these were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

2Ch 2:1 Now Solomon purposed to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal palace for himself.

2Ch 2:2 And Solomon assigned seventy thousand men to bear burdens and eighty thousand to quarry in the hill country, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

2Ch 2:3 And Solomon sent word to Hiram the king of Tyre: "As you dealt with David my father and sent him cedar to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me.

2Ch 2:4 Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God and dedicate it to him for the burning of incense of sweet spices before him, and for the continual offering of the showbread, and for burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths and the new moons and the appointed feasts of the LORD our God, as ordained for ever for Israel.

2Ch 2:5 The house which I am to build will be great, for our God is greater than all gods.

2Ch 2:6 But who is able to build him a house, since heaven, even highest heaven, cannot contain him? Who am I to build a house for him, except as a place to burn incense before him?

2Ch 2:7 So now send me a man skilled to work in gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue fabrics, trained also in engraving, to be with the skilled workers who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

2Ch 2:8 Send me also cedar, cypress, and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon. And my servants will be with your servants, 2Ch 2:9 to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the house I am to build will be great and wonderful.

2Ch 2:10 I will give for your servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand cors of crushed wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."
2Ch 2:11 Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in a letter which he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loves his people he has made you king over them."
2Ch 2:12 Hiram also said, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endued with discretion and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD, and a royal palace for himself.
2Ch 2:13 "Now I have sent a skilled man, endued with understanding, Hiramabi,
2Ch 2:14 the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre. He is trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, and in purple, blue, and crimson fabrics and fine linen, and to do all sorts of engraving and execute any design that may be assigned him, with your craftsmen, the craftsmen of my lord, David your father.
2Ch 2:15 Now therefore the wheat and barley, oil and wine, of which my lord has spoken, let him send to his servants;
2Ch 2:16 and we will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon, and bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may take it up to Jerusalem."
2Ch 2:17 Then Solomon took a census of all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census of them which David his father had taken; and there were found a hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.
2Ch 2:18 Seventy thousand of them he assigned to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry in the hill country, and three thousand six hundred as overseers to make the people work.
2Ch 3:1 Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to David his father, at the place that David had appointed, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
2Ch 3:2 He began to build in the second month of the fourth year of his reign.
2Ch 3:3 These are Solomon's measurements for building the house of God: the length, in cubits of the old standard, was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.
2Ch 3:4 The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits long, equal to the width of the house; and its height was a hundred and twenty cubits. He overlaid it on the inside with pure gold.
2Ch 3:5 The nave he lined with cypress, and covered it with fine gold, and made palms and chains on it.
2Ch 3:6 He adorned the house with settings of precious stones. The gold was gold of Parvaim.
2Ch 3:7 So he lined the house with gold -- its beams, its thresholds, its walls, and its doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.
2Ch 3:8 And he made the most holy place; its length, corresponding to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and its breadth was twenty cubits; he overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.
2Ch 3:9 The weight of the nails was one shekel to fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.
2Ch 3:10 In the most holy place he made two cherubim of wood and overlaid them with gold.
2Ch 3:11 The wings of the cherubim together extended twenty cubits: one wing of the one, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub;
2Ch 3:12 and of this cherub, one wing, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and the other wing, also of five cubits, was joined to the wing of the first cherub.
2Ch 3:13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits; the cherubim stood on their feet, facing the nave.
2Ch 3:14 And he made the veil of blue and purple and crimson fabrics and fine linen, and worked cherubim on it.
2Ch 3:15 In front of the house he made two pillars thirty-five cubits high, with a capital of five cubits on the top of each.
2Ch 3:16 He made chains like a necklace and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.
2Ch 3:17 He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the south, the other on the north; that on the south he called Jachin, and that on the north Boaz.
2Ch 4:1 He made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high.
2Ch 4:2 Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from brim to brim, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.
2Ch 4:3 Under it were figures of gourds, for thirty cubits, compassing the sea round about; the gourds were in two rows, cast with it when it was cast.
2Ch 4:4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

2Ch 4:5 Its thickness was a handbreadth; and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held over three thousand baths.

2Ch 4:6 He also made ten lavers in which to wash, and set five on the south side, and five on the north side. In these they were to rinse off what was used for the burnt offering, and the sea was for the priests to wash in.

2Ch 4:7 And he made ten golden lampstands as prescribed, and set them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north.

2Ch 4:8 He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north. And he made a hundred basins of gold.

2Ch 4:9 He made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze;

2Ch 4:10 and he set the sea at the southeast corner of the house.

2Ch 4:11 Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of God:

2Ch 4:12 the two pillars, the bowls, and the two capitals on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;

2Ch 4:13 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars.

2Ch 4:14 He made the stands also, and the lavers upon the stands,

2Ch 4:15 and the one sea, and the twelve oxen underneath it.

2Ch 4:16 The pots, the shovels, the forks, and all the equipment for these Hiramabi made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

2Ch 4:17 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

2Ch 4:18 Solomon made all these things in great quantities, so that the weight of the bronze was not ascertained.

2Ch 4:19 So Solomon made all the things that were in the house of God: the golden altar, the tables for the bread of the Presence,

2Ch 4:20 the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold to burn before the inner sanctuary, as prescribed;

2Ch 4:21 the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of purest gold;

2Ch 4:22 the snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, and firepans, of pure gold; and the sockets of the temple, for the inner doors to the most holy place and for the doors of the nave of the temple were of gold.

2Ch 5:1 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, and stored the silver, the gold, and all the vessels in the treasuries of the house of God.

2Ch 5:2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' houses of the people of Israel, in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2Ch 5:3 And all the men of Israel assembled before the king at the feast which is in the seventh month.

2Ch 5:4 And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

2Ch 5:5 And they brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

2Ch 5:6 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

2Ch 5:7 So the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, in the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.

2Ch 5:8 For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles.

2Ch 5:9 And the poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside; and they are there to this day.

2Ch 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tables which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

2Ch 5:11 Now when the priests came out of the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to their divisions;

2Ch 5:12 and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, their sons and kinsmen, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, stood east of the altar with a hundred and twenty priests who were trumpeters;

2Ch 5:13 and it was the duty of the trumpeters and singers to make themselves heard in unison in praise and thanksgiving to the LORD), and when the song was raised, with trumpets and cymbals and other musical instruments, in praise to the LORD, "For he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever," the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud,

2Ch 5:14 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

2Ch 6:1 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in thick darkness.

2Ch 6:2 I have built thee an exalted house, a place for thee to dwell in for ever."

2Ch 6:3 Then the king faced about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

2Ch 6:4 And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to David my father, saying,

2Ch 6:5 `Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city in all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there, and I chose no man as prince over my people Israel;

2Ch 6:6 but I have chosen Jerusalem that my name may be there and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.'

2Ch 6:7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 6:8 But the LORD said to David my father, `Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart;

2Ch 6:9 nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.'

2Ch 6:10 Now the LORD has fulfilled his promise which he made; for I have risen in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 6:11 And there I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which he made with the people of Israel."

2Ch 6:12 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands.

2Ch 6:13 Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the court; and he stood upon it. Then he knelt upon his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;

2Ch 6:14 and said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven or on earth, keeping covenant and showing steadfast love to thy servants who walk before thee with all their heart;

2Ch 6:15 who hast kept with thy servant David my father what thou didst declare to him; yea, thou didst speak with thy mouth, and with thy hand hast fulfilled it this day.

2Ch 6:16 Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what thou hast promised him, saying, `There shall never fail you a man before me to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.'

2Ch 6:17 Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, let thy word be confirmed, which thou hast spoken to thy servant David.

2Ch 6:18 "But will God dwell indeed with man on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

2Ch 6:19 Yet have regard to the prayer of thy servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, hearkening to the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prays before thee;

2Ch 6:20 that thy eyes may be open day and night toward this house, the place where thou hast promised to set thy name, that thou mayest hearken to the prayer which thy servant offers toward this place.

2Ch 6:21 And hearken thou to the supplications of thy servant and of thy people Israel, when they pray toward this place; yea, hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place; and when thou hearest, forgive.

2Ch 6:22 "If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, and comes and swears his oath before thy altar in this house,

2Ch 6:23 then hear thou from heaven, and act, and judge thy servants, requiting the guilty by bringing his conduct upon his own head, and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

2Ch 6:24 "If thy people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against thee, when they turn again and acknowledge thy name, and pray and make supplication to thee in this house,

2Ch 6:25 then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again to the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

2Ch 6:26 "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against thee, if they pray toward this place, and acknowledge thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them,

2Ch 6:27 then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, thy people Israel, when thou dost teach them the good way in which they should walk; and grant rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people as an inheritance.

2Ch 6:28 "If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence or blight or mildew or locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in any of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is;

2Ch 6:29 whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by any man or by all thy people Israel, each knowing his own affliction, and his own sorrow and stretching out his hands toward this house;

2Ch 6:30 then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each whose heart thou knowest, according to all his ways (for thou, thou only, knowest the hearts of the children of men);

2Ch 6:31 that they may fear thee and walk in thy ways all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest to our fathers.

2Ch 6:32 "Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of thy people Israel, comes from a far country for the sake of thy great name, and thy mighty hand, and thy outstretched arm, when he comes and prays toward this house,

2Ch 6:33 hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to thee; in order that all the peoples of the earth may know thy name and fear thee, as do thy people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

2Ch 6:34 "If thy people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee toward this city which thou hast chosen and the house which I have built for thy name,

2Ch 6:35 then hear thou from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

2Ch 6:36 "If they sin against thee -- for there is no man who does not sin -- and thou art angry with them, and dost give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to a land far or near;

2Ch 6:37 yet if they lay it to heart in the land to which they have been carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to thee in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned, and have acted perversely and wickedly';

2Ch 6:38 if they repent with all their mind and with all their heart in the land of their captivity, to which they were carried captive, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest to their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name,

2Ch 6:39 then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee.

2Ch 6:40 Now, O my God, let thy eyes be open and thy ears attentive to a prayer of this place.

2Ch 6:41 "And now arise, O LORD God, and go to thy resting place, thou and the ark of thy might. Let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in thy goodness.

2Ch 6:42 O LORD God, do not turn away the face of thy anointed one! Remember thy steadfast love for David thy servant."

2Ch 7:1 When Solomon had ended his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

2Ch 7:2 And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house.

2Ch 7:3 When all the children of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the LORD upon the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the earth on the pavement, and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, "For he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever."

2Ch 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

2Ch 7:5 King Solomon offered as a sacrifice twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

2Ch 7:6 The priests stood at their posts; the Levites also, with the instruments for music to the LORD which King David had made for giving thanks to the LORD -- for his steadfast love endures for ever -- whenever David offered praises by their ministry; opposite them the priests sounded trumpets; and all Israel stood.

2Ch 7:7 And Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offering and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar Solomon had made could not hold the burnt offering and the cereal offering and the fat.

2Ch 7:8 At that time Solomon held the feast for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

2Ch 7:9 And on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly; for they had kept the dedication of the altar seven days and the feast seven days.

2Ch 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their homes, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to Israel his people.

2Ch 7:11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; all that Solomon had planned to do in the house of the LORD and in his own house he successfully accomplished.

2Ch 7:12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon in the night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.

2Ch 7:13 When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command the locust to devour the land, or send pestilence among my people,

2Ch 7:14 if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

2Ch 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.

2Ch 7:16 For now I have chosen and consecrated this house that my name may be there for ever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.

2Ch 7:17 And as for you, if you walk before me, as David your father walked, doing according to all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,

2Ch 7:18 then I will establish your royal throne, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man to rule Israel.'

2Ch 7:19 "But if you turn aside and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

2Ch 7:20 then I will pluck you up from the land which I have given you; and this house, which I have consecrated for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

2Ch 7:21 And at this house, which is exalted, every one passing by will be astonished, and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'"

2Ch 7:22 Then they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore he has brought all this evil upon them'"

2Ch 8:1 At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house,

2Ch 8:2 Solomon rebuilt the cities which Hiram had given to him, and settled the people of Israel in them.

2Ch 8:3 And Solomon went to Hamathzobah, and took it.

2Ch 8:4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the store-cities which he built in Hamath.

2Ch 8:5 He also built Upper Bethhoron and Lower Bethhoron, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars,

2Ch 8:6 and Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

2Ch 8:7 All the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel, 2Ch 8:8 from their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the people of Israel had not destroyed -- these Solomon made a forced levy and so they are to this day.

2Ch 8:9 But of the people of Israel Solomon made no slaves for his work; they were soldiers, and his officers, the commanders of his chariots, and his horsemen.

2Ch 8:10 And these were the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred and fifty, who exercised authority over the people.

2Ch 8:11 Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house which he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not live in the house of David king of Israel, for the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

2Ch 8:12 Then Solomon offered up burnt offerings to the LORD upon the altar of the LORD which he had built before the vestibule, 2Ch 8:13 as the duty of each day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses for the sabbaths, the new moons, and the three annual feasts -- the feast of unleavened bread, the feast of weeks, and the feast of tabernacles.

2Ch 8:14 According to the ordinance of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their offices of praise and ministry before the priests as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the several gates; for so David the man of God had commanded.

2Ch 8:15 And they did not turn aside from what the king had commanded the priests and Levites concerning any matter and concerning the treasuries.

2Ch 8:16 Thus was accomplished all the work of Solomon from the day the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

2Ch 8:17 Then Solomon went to Eziongeber and Elath on the shore of the sea, in the land of Edom.

2Ch 8:18 And Hiram sent him by his servants ships and servants familiar with the sea, and they went to Ophir together with the servants of Solomon, and fetched from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold and brought it to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions, having a very great retinue and camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind.

2Ch 9:2 And Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from Solomon which he could not explain to her.

2Ch 9:3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, 2Ch 9:4 the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, and their clothing, his cupbearers, and their clothing, and his burnt offerings which he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

2Ch 9:5 And she said to the king, "The report was true which I heard in my own land of your affairs and of your wisdom,

2Ch 9:6 but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it; and behold, half the greatness of your wisdom was not told me; you surpass the report which I heard.

2Ch 9:7 Happy are your wives! Happy are these your servants, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

2Ch 9:8 Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on his throne as king for the LORD your God! Because your God loved Israel and would establish them for ever, he has made you king over them, that you may execute justice and righteousness."

2Ch 9:9 Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great quantity of spices, and precious stones: there were no spices such as those which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:10 Moreover the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum wood and precious stones.

2Ch 9:11 And the king made of the algum wood steps for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; there never was seen the like of them before in the land of Judah.

2Ch 9:12 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked besides what she had brought to the king. So she turned and went back to her own land, with her servants.

2Ch 9:13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 2Ch 9:14 besides that which the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2Ch 9:15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went into each shield.

2Ch 9:16 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went into each shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

2Ch 9:17 The king also made a great ivory throne, and overlaid it with pure gold.

2Ch 9:18 The throne had six steps and a footstool of gold, which were attached to the throne, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests,

2Ch 9:19 while twelve lions stood there, one on each end of a step on the six steps. The like of it was never made in any kingdom.

2Ch 9:20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.

2Ch 9:21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

2Ch 9:22 Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.

2Ch 9:23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind.

2Ch 9:24 Every one of them brought his present, articles of silver and of gold, garments, myrrh, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

2Ch 9:25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

2Ch 9:26 And he ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

2Ch 9:27 And the king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stone, and cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephelah.

2Ch 9:28 And horses were imported for Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

2Ch 9:29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from first to last, are they not written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

2Ch 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

2Ch 9:31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 10:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2Ch 10:2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, whither he had fled from King Solomon), then Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

2Ch 10:3 And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came and said to Rehoboam,

2Ch 10:4 "Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke upon us, and we will serve you."

2Ch 10:5 He said to them, "Come to me again in three days." So the people went away.

2Ch 10:6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he was yet alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"

2Ch 10:7 And they said to him, "If you will be kind to this people and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants for ever."

2Ch 10:8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.

2Ch 10:9 And he said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put upon us'?"

2Ch 10:10 And the young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus shall you speak to the people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but do you lighten it for us'; thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.

2Ch 10:11 And now, whereas my father laid upon you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

2Ch 10:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king said, "Come to me again the third day."

2Ch 10:13 And the king answered them harshly, and forsaking the counsel of the old men,

2Ch 10:14 King Rehoboam spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

2Ch 10:15 So the king did not hearken to the people; for it was a turn of affairs brought about by God that the LORD might fulfil his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

2Ch 10:16 And when all Israel saw that the king did not hearken to them, the people answered the king, "What portion have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each of you to your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, David." So all Israel departed to their tents.

2Ch 10:17 But Rehoboam reigned over the people of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

2Ch 10:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, and the people of Israel stoned him to death with stones. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

2Ch 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2Ch 11:1 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah, and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors, to fight against Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2Ch 11:2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God:

2Ch 11:3 "Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, 2Ch 11:4 'Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against your brethren. Return every man to his home, for this thing is from me.'" So they hearkened to the word of the LORD, and returned and did not go against Jeroboam.

2Ch 11:5 Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and he built cities for defense in Judah.

2Ch 11:6 He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2Ch 11:7 Bethzur, Soco, Adullam,

2Ch 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2Ch 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2Ch 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, fortified cities which are in Judah and in Benjamin.

2Ch 11:11 He made the fortresses strong, and put commanders in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.

2Ch 11:12 And he put shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

2Ch 11:13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him from all places where they lived.

2Ch 11:14 For the Levites left their common lands and their holdings and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons cast them out from serving as priests of the LORD, 2Ch 11:15 and he appointed his own priests for the high places, and for the satyrs, and for the calves which he had made.

2Ch 11:16 And those who had set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came after them from all the tribes of Israel to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 11:17 They strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and for three years they made Rehoboam the son of Solomon secure, for they walked for three years in the way of David and Solomon.

2Ch 11:18 Rehoboam took as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

2Ch 11:19 and she bore him sons, Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

2Ch 11:20 After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

2Ch 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and concubines (he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and had twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters);

2Ch 11:22 and Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as chief prince among his brothers, for he intended to make him king.

2Ch 11:23 And he dealt wisely, and distributed some of his sons through all the districts of Judah and Benjamin, in all the fortified cities; and he gave them abundant provisions, and procured wives for them.

2Ch 12:1 When the rule of Rehoboam was established and was strong, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2Ch 12:2 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

2Ch 12:3 with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. And the people were without number who came with him from Egypt -- Libyans, Sukkiim, and Ethiopians.

2Ch 12:4 And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

2Ch 12:5 Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and to the princes of Judah, who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, 'You abandoned me, so I have abandoned you to the hand of Shishak.'"

2Ch 12:6 Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is righteous."

2Ch 12:7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: "They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

2Ch 12:8 Nevertheless they shall be servants to him, that they may know my service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

2Ch 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made;

2Ch 12:10 and King Rehoboam made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

2Ch 12:11 And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back to the guardroom.

2Ch 12:12 And when he humbled himself the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to make a complete destruction; moreover, conditions were good in Judah.

2Ch 12:13 So King Rehoboam established himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

2Ch 12:14 And he did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.

2Ch 12:15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, from first to last, are they not written in the chronicles of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer? There were continual wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

2Ch 12:16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 13:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam Abijah began to reign over Judah.

2Ch 13:2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. Now there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2Ch 13:3 Abijah went out to battle having an army of valiant men of war, four hundred thousand picked men; and Jeroboam drew up his line of battle against him with eight hundred thousand picked mighty warriors.

2Ch 13:4 Then Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, O Jeroboam and all Israel!

2Ch 13:5 Ought you not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingship over Israel for ever to David and his sons by a covenant of salt?

2Ch 13:6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord;

2Ch 13:7 and certain worthless scoundrels gathered about him and defied Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and irresolute and could not withstand them.

2Ch 13:8 "And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David, because you are a great multitude and have with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods.

2Ch 13:9 Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull or seven rams becomes a priest of what are no gods.

2Ch 13:10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him. We have priests ministering to the LORD who are sons of Aaron, and Levites for their service.

2Ch 13:11 They offer to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt offerings and incense of sweet spices, set out the showbread on the table of pure gold, and care for the golden lampstand that its lamps may burn every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken him.

2Ch 13:12 Behold, God is with us at our head, and his priests with their battle trumpets to sound the call to battle against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers; for you cannot succeed."

2Ch 13:13 Jeroboam had sent an ambush around to come on them from behind; thus his troops were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

2Ch 13:14 And when Judah looked, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.

2Ch 13:15 Then the men of Judah raised the battle shout. And when the men of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2Ch 13:16 The men of Israel fled before Judah, and God gave them into their hand.

2Ch 13:17 Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter; so there fell slain of Israel five hundred thousand picked men.

2Ch 13:18 Thus the men of Israel were subdued at that time, and the men of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 13:19 And Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with its villages and Jeshanah with its villages and Ephron with its villages.

2Ch 13:20 Jeroboam did not recover his power in the days of Abijah; and the LORD smote him, and he died.

2Ch 13:21 But Abijah grew mighty. And he took fourteen wives, and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2Ch 13:22 The rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

2Ch 14:1 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land had rest for ten years.

2Ch 14:2 And Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2Ch 14:3 He took away the foreign altars and the high places, and broke down the pillars and hewed down the Asherim, 2Ch 14:4 and commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to keep the law and the commandment.

2Ch 14:5 He also took out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense altars. And the kingdom had rest under him.

2Ch 14:6 He built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest. He had no war in those years, for the LORD gave him peace.

2Ch 14:7 And he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities, and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars; the land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he has given us peace on every side." So they built and prospered.

2Ch 14:8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah, armed with bucklers and spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand men from Benjamin, that carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valor.

2Ch 14:9 Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.

2Ch 14:10 And Asa went out to meet him, and they drew up their lines of battle in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

2Ch 14:11 And Asa cried to the LORD his God, "O LORD, there is none like thee to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on thee, and in thy name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee."

2Ch 14:12 So the LORD defeated the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

2Ch 14:13 Asa and the people that were with him pursued them as far as Gerar, and the Ethiopians fell until none remained alive; for they were broken before the LORD and his army. The men of Judah carried away very much booty.

2Ch 14:14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar, for the fear of the LORD was upon them. They plundered all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.

2Ch 14:15 And they smote the tents of those who had cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 15:1 The Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded,

2Ch 15:2 and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD is with you, while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.

2Ch 15:3 For a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law;

2Ch 15:4 but when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.

2Ch 15:5 In those times there was no peace to him who went out or to him who came in, for great disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.

2Ch 15:6 They were broken in pieces, nation against nation and city against city, for God troubled them with every sort of distress.

2Ch 15:7 But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded."

2Ch 15:8 When Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken in the hill country of Ephraim, and he repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the vestibule of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 15:9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who were sojourning with them, for great numbers had deserted to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

2Ch 15:10 They were gathered at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

2Ch 15:11 They sacrificed to the LORD on that day, from the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

2Ch 15:12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul;

2Ch 15:13 and that whoever would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman.

2Ch 15:14 They took oath to the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with horns.

2Ch 15:15 And all Judah rejoiced over the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and had sought him with their whole desire, and he was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest round about.

2Ch 15:16 Even Maacah, his mother, King Asa removed from being queen mother because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her image, crushed it, and burned it at the brook Kidron.

2Ch 15:17 But the high places were not taken out of Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was blameless all his days.

2Ch 15:18 And he brought into the house of God the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts, silver, and gold, and vessels.

2Ch 15:19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

2Ch 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might permit no one to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2Ch 16:2 Then Asa took silver and gold from the treasures of the house of the LORD and the king's house, and sent them to Benhadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

2Ch 16:3 "Let there be a league between me and you, as between my father and your father; behold, I am sending to you silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."

2Ch 16:4 And Benhadad hearkened to King Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they conquered Ijon, Dan, Abelmaim, and all the store-cities of Naphtali.

2Ch 16:5 And when Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and let his work cease.

2Ch 16:6 Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been building, and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

2Ch 16:7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him, "Because you relied on the king of Syria, and did not rely on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Syria has escaped you.

2Ch 16:8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Libyans a huge army with exceedingly many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, he gave them into your hand.

2Ch 16:9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show his might in behalf of those whose heart is blameless toward him. You have done foolishly in this; for from now on you will have wars."

2Ch 16:10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the stocks, in prison, for he was in a rage with him because of this. And Asa inflicted cruelties upon some of the people at the same time.

2Ch 16:11 The acts of Asa, from first to last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet, and his disease became severe; yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but sought help from physicians.

2Ch 16:13 And Asa slept with his fathers, dying in the forty-first year of his reign.

2Ch 16:14 They buried him in the tomb which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David. They laid him on a bier which had been filled with various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumer's art; and they made a very great fire in his honor.

2Ch 17:1 Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2Ch 17:2 He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken.

2Ch 17:3 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the earlier ways of his father; he did not seek the Baals, 2Ch 17:4 but sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments, and not according to the ways of Israel.

2Ch 17:5 Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat; and he had great riches and honor.

2Ch 17:6 His heart was courageous in the ways of the LORD; and furthermore he took the high places and the Asherim out of Judah.

2Ch 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent his princes, Benhail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;

2Ch 17:8 and with them the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah; and with these Levites, the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

2Ch 17:9 And they taught in Judah, having the book of the law of the LORD with them; they went about through all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

2Ch 17:10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, and they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 17:11 Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; and the Arabs also brought him seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.

2Ch 17:12 And Jehoshaphat grew steadily greater. He built in Judah fortresses and store-cities, 2Ch 17:13 and he had great stores in the cities of Judah. He had soldiers, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem.

2Ch 17:14 This was the muster of them by fathers' houses: Of Judah, the commanders of thousands: Adnah the commander, with three hundred thousand mighty men of valor,

2Ch 17:15 and next to him Jehohanan the commander, with two hundred and eighty thousand,

2Ch 17:16 and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, a volunteer for the service of the LORD, with two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

2Ch 17:17 Of Benjamin: Eliada, a mighty man of valor, with two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield, 2Ch 17:18 and next to him Jehozabad with a hundred and eighty thousand armed for war.

2Ch 17:19 These were in the service of the king, besides those whom the king had placed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2Ch 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor; and he made a marriage alliance with Ahab.

2Ch 18:2 After some years he went down to Ahab in Samaria. And Ahab killed an abundance of sheep and oxen for him and for the people who were with him, and induced him to go up against Ramothgilead.

2Ch 18:3 Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramothgilead?" He answered him, "I am as you are, my people as your people. We will be with you in the war."

2Ch 18:4 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first for the word of the LORD."

2Ch 18:5 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to battle against Ramothgilead, or shall I forbear?" And they said, "Go up; for God will give it into the hand of the king."

2Ch 18:6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here another prophet of the LORD of whom we may inquire?"

2Ch 18:7 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

2Ch 18:8 Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah."

2Ch 18:9 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes; and they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

2Ch 18:10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall push the Syrians until they are destroyed.'"

2Ch 18:11 And all the prophets prophesied so, and said, "Go up to Ramothgilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

2Ch 18:12 And the messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Behold, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably."

2Ch 18:13 But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, what my God says, that I will speak."

2Ch 18:14 And when he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramothgilead to battle, or shall I forbear?" And he answered, "Go up and triumph; they will be given into your hand."

2Ch 18:15 But the king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

2Ch 18:16 And he said, "I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd; and the LORD said, 'These have no master; let each return to his home in peace.'"

2Ch 18:17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

2Ch 18:18 And Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left;

2Ch 18:19 and the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab the king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead?' And one said one thing, and another said another.

2Ch 18:20 Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, 'I will entice him.' And the LORD said to him, 'By what means?'

2Ch 18:21 And he said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And he said, 'You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go forth and do so.'

2Ch 18:22 Now therefore behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; the LORD has spoken evil concerning you."

2Ch 18:23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

2Ch 18:24 And Micaiah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide yourself."

2Ch 18:25 And the king of Israel said, "Seize Micaiah, and take him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

2Ch 18:26 and say, 'Thus says the king, Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with scant fare of bread and water, until I return in peace.'"

2Ch 18:27 And Micaiah said, "If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Hear, all you peoples!"

2Ch 18:28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramothgilead.

2Ch 18:29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes." And the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into battle.

2Ch 18:30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, "Fight with neither small nor great, but only with the king of Israel."

2Ch 18:31 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him, 2Ch 18:32 for when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

2Ch 18:33 But a certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate; therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn about, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

2Ch 18:34 And the battle grew hot that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; then at sunset he died.

2Ch 19:1 Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned in safety to his house in Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:2 But Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the LORD.

2Ch 19:3 Nevertheless some good is found in you, for you destroyed the Asherahs out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God."

2Ch 19:4 Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people, from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 19:5 He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, 2Ch 19:6 and said to the judges, "Consider what you do, for you judge not for man but for the LORD; he is with you in giving judgment.

2Ch 19:7 Now then, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed what you do, for there is no perversion of justice with the LORD our God, or partiality, or taking bribes."

2Ch 19:8 Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed certain Levites and priests and heads of families of Israel, to give judgment for the LORD and to decide disputed cases. They had their seat at Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:9 And he charged them: "Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, in faithfulness, and with your whole heart:

2Ch 19:10 whenever a case comes to you from your brethren who live in their cities, concerning bloodshed, law or commandment, statutes or ordinances, then you shall instruct them, that they may not incur guilt before the LORD and wrath may not come upon you and your brethren. Thus you shall do, and you will not incur guilt.

2Ch 19:11 And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the governor of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters; and the Levites will serve you as officers. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the upright!"

2Ch 20:1 After this the Moabites and Ammonites, and with them some of the Meunites, came against Jehoshaphat for battle.

2Ch 20:2 Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "A great multitude is coming against you from Edom, from beyond the sea; and, behold, they are in Hazazontamar" (that is, Engedi).

2Ch 20:3 Then Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

2Ch 20:4 And Judah assembled to seek help from the LORD; from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

2Ch 20:5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, 2Ch 20:6 and said, "O LORD, God of our fathers, art thou not God in heaven? Dost thou not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? In thy hand are power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee.

2Ch 20:7 Didst thou not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and give it for ever to the descendants of Abraham thy friend?

2Ch 20:8 And they have dwelt in it, and have built thee in it a sanctuary for thy name, saying,

2Ch 20:9 'If evil comes upon us, the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before thee, for thy name is in this house, and cry to thee in our affliction, and thou wilt hear and save.'

2Ch 20:10 And now behold, the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade when they came from the land of Egypt, and whom they avoided and did not destroy --

2Ch 20:11 behold, they reward us by coming to drive us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

2Ch 20:12 O our God, wilt thou not execute judgment upon them? For we are powerless against this great multitude that is coming against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon thee."

2Ch 20:13 Meanwhile all the men of Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

2Ch 20:14 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly.

2Ch 20:15 And he said, "Hearken, all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat: Thus says the LORD to you, 'Fear not, and be not dismayed at this great multitude; for the battle is not yours but God's.

2Ch 20:16 Tomorrow go down against them; behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz; you will find them at the end of the valley, east of the wilderness of Jeruel.

2Ch 20:17 You will not need to fight in this battle; take your position, stand still, and see the victory of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem.' Fear not, and be not dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, and the LORD will be with you."

2Ch 20:18 Then Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

2Ch 20:19 And the Levites, of the Kohathites and the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

2Ch 20:20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe his prophets, and you will succeed."

2Ch 20:21 And when he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy array, as they went before the army, and say, "Give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures for ever."

2Ch 20:22 And when they began to sing and praise, the LORD set an ambush against the men of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah, so that they were routed.

2Ch 20:23 For the men of Ammon and Moab rose against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, destroying them utterly, and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they all helped to destroy one another.

2Ch 20:24 When Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and behold, they were dead bodies lying on the ground; none had escaped.

2Ch 20:25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the spoil from them, they found cattle in great numbers, goods, clothing, and precious things, which they took for themselves until they could carry no more. They were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much.

2Ch 20:26 On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the LORD;

therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Beracah to this day.

2Ch 20:27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat at their head, returning to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies.

2Ch 20:28 They came to Jerusalem, with harps and lyres and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.

2Ch 20:29 And the fear of God came on all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2Ch 20:30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest round about.

2Ch 20:31 Thus Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

2Ch 20:32 He walked in the way of Asa his father and did not turn aside from it; he did what was right in the sight of the LORD.

2Ch 20:33 The high places, however, were not taken away; the people had not yet set their hearts upon the God of their fathers.

2Ch 20:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from first to last, are written in the chronicles of Jehu the son of Hanani, which are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

2Ch 20:35 After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did wickedly.

2Ch 20:36 He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish, and they built the ships in Eziongeber.

2Ch 20:37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have joined with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made." And the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

2Ch 21:1 Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 21:2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

2Ch 21:3 Their father gave them great gifts, of silver, gold, and valuable possessions, together with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the first-born.

2Ch 21:4 When Jehoram had ascended the throne of his father and was established, he slew all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the princes of Israel.

2Ch 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 21:6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done; for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2Ch 21:7 Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant which he had made with David, and since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons for ever.

2Ch 21:8 In his days Edom revolted from the rule of Judah, and set up a king of their own.

2Ch 21:9 Then Jehoram passed over with his commanders and all his chariots, and he rose by night and smote the Edomites who had surrounded him and his chariot commanders.

2Ch 21:10 So Edom revolted from the rule of Judah to this day. At that time Libnah also revolted from his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.

2Ch 21:11 Moreover he made high places in the hill country of Judah, and led the inhabitants of Jerusalem into unfaithfulness, and made Judah go astray.

2Ch 21:12 And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

2Ch 21:13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into unfaithfulness, as the house of Ahab led Israel into unfaithfulness, and also you have killed your brothers, of your father's house, who were better than yourself;

2Ch 21:14 behold, the LORD will bring a great plague on your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions,

2Ch 21:15 and you yourself will have a severe sickness with a disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out because of the disease, day by day."

2Ch 21:16 And the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the anger of the Philistines and of the Arabs who are near the Ethiopians;

2Ch 21:17 and they came up against Judah, and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions they found that belonged to the king's house, and also his sons and his wives, so that no son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest son.

2Ch 21:18 And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

2Ch 21:19 In course of time, at the end of two years, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great agony. His people made no fire in his honor, like the fires made for his fathers.

2Ch 21:20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem; and he departed with no one's regret. They buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 22:1 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead; for the band of men that came with the Arabs to the camp had slain all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2Ch 22:2 Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri.

2Ch 22:3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in doing wickedly.

2Ch 22:4 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done; for after the death of his father they were his counselors, to his undoing.

2Ch 22:5 He even followed their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to make war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramothgilead. And the Syrians wounded Joram, 2Ch 22:6 and he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

2Ch 22:7 But it was ordained by God that the downfall of Ahaziah should come about through his going to visit Joram. For when he came there he went out with Jehoram to meet Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

2Ch 22:8 And when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, he met the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers, who attended Ahaziah, and he killed them.

2Ch 22:9 He searched for Ahaziah, and he was captured while hiding in Samaria, and he was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." And the house of Ahaziah had no one able to rule the kingdom.

2Ch 22:10 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family of the house of Judah.

2Ch 22:12 and he remained with them six years, hid in the house of God, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2Ch 23:1 But in the seventh year Jehoiada took courage, and entered into a compact with the commanders of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

2Ch 23:2 They went about through Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' houses of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

2Ch 23:3 And all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Jehoiada said to them, "Behold, the king's son! Let him reign, as the LORD spoke concerning the sons of David.

2Ch 23:4 This is the thing that you shall do: of you priests and Levites who come off duty on the sabbath, one third shall be gatekeepers, 2Ch 23:5 and one third shall be at the king's house and one third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 23:6 Let no one enter the house of the LORD except the priests and ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy, but all the people shall keep the charge of the LORD.

2Ch 23:7 The Levites shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house shall be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out."

2Ch 23:8 The Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. They each brought his men, who were to go off duty on the sabbath, with those who were to come on duty on the sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the divisions.

2Ch 23:9 And Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains the spears and the large and small shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of God;

2Ch 23:10 and he set all the people as a guard for the king, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house.

2Ch 23:11 Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they proclaimed him king, and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and they said, "Long live the king."

2Ch 23:12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;

2Ch 23:13 and when she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments leading in the celebration. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ch 23:14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains who were set over the army, saying to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; any one who follows her is to be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not slay her in the house of the LORD."

2Ch 23:15 So they laid hands on her; and she went into the entrance of the horse gate of the king's house, and they slew her there.

2Ch 23:16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they should be the LORD's people.

2Ch 23:17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

2Ch 23:18 And Jehoiada posted watchmen for the house of the LORD under the direction of the Levitical priests and the Levites whom David had organized to be in charge of the house of the LORD, to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David.

2Ch 23:19 He stationed the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD so that no one should enter who was in any way unclean.

2Ch 23:20 And he took the captains, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the upper gate to the king's house. And they set the king upon the royal throne.

2Ch 23:21 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, after Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

2Ch 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2Ch 24:2 And Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

2Ch 24:3 Jehoiada got for him two wives, and he had sons and daughters.

2Ch 24:4 After this Joash decided to restore the house of the LORD.

2Ch 24:5 And he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year; and see that you hasten the matter." But the Levites did not hasten it.

2Ch 24:6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax levied by Moses, the servant of the LORD, on the congregation of Israel for the tent of testimony?"

2Ch 24:7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God; and had also used all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

2Ch 24:8 So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside the gate of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 24:9 And proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

2Ch 24:10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced and brought their tax and dropped it into the chest until they had finished.

2Ch 24:11 And whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the Levites, when they saw that there was much money in it, the king's secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and take it and return it to its place. Thus they did day after day, and collected money in abundance.

2Ch 24:12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who had charge of the work of the house of the LORD, and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD.

2Ch 24:13 So those who were engaged in the work labored, and the repairing went forward in their hands, and they restored the house of God to its proper condition and strengthened it.

2Ch 24:14 And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made utensils for the house of the LORD, both for the service and for the burnt offerings, and dishes for incense, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

2Ch 24:15 But Jehoiada grew old and full of days, and died; he was a hundred and thirty years old at his death.

2Ch 24:16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.

2Ch 24:17 Now after the death of Jehoiada the princes of Judah came and did obeisance to the king; then the king hearkened to them.

2Ch 24:18 And they forsook the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt.

2Ch 24:19 Yet he sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD; these testified against them, but they would not give heed.

2Ch 24:20 Then the Spirit of God took possession of Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has forsaken you.'"

2Ch 24:21 But they conspired against him, and by command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 24:22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had shown him, but killed his son. And when he was dying, he said, "May the LORD see and avenge!"

2Ch 24:23 At the end of the year the army of the Syrians came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

2Ch 24:24 Though the army of the Syrians had come with few men, the LORD delivered into their hand a very great army, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

2Ch 24:25 When they had departed from him, leaving him severely wounded, his servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed. So he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 24:26 Those who conspired against him were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

2Ch 24:27 Accounts of his sons, and of the many oracles against him, and of the rebuilding of the house of God are written in the Commentary on the Book of the Kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2Ch 25:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not with a blameless heart.

2Ch 25:3 And as soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand he killed his servants who had slain the king his father.

2Ch 25:4 But he did not put their children to death, according to what is written in the law, in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, or the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin."

2Ch 25:5 Then Amaziah assembled the men of Judah, and set them by fathers' houses under commanders of thousands and of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those twenty years old and upward, and found that they were three hundred thousand picked men, fit for war, able to handle spear and shield.

2Ch 25:6 He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valor from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

2Ch 25:7 But a man of God came to him and said, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel, with all these Ephraimites.

2Ch 25:8 But if you suppose that in this way you will be strong for war, God will cast you down before the enemy; for God has power to help or to cast down."

2Ch 25:9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

2Ch 25:10 Then Amaziah discharged the army that had come to him from Ephraim, to go home again. And they became very angry with Judah, and returned home in fierce anger.

2Ch 25:11 But Amaziah took courage, and led out his people, and went to the Valley of Salt and smote ten thousand men of Seir.

2Ch 25:12 The men of Judah captured another ten thousand alive, and took them to the top of a rock and threw them down from the top of the rock; and they were all dashed to pieces.

2Ch 25:13 But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, not letting them go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Bethhoron, and killed three thousand people in them, and took much spoil.

2Ch 25:14 After Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the men of Seir, and set them up as his gods, and worshiped them, making offerings to them.

2Ch 25:15 Therefore the LORD was angry with Amaziah and sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you resorted to the gods of a people, which did not deliver their own people from your hand?"

2Ch 25:16 But as he was speaking the king said to him, "Have we made you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be put to death?" So the prophet stopped, but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel."

2Ch 25:17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

2Ch 25:18 And Joash the king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, "A thistle on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife'; and a wild beast of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thistle.

2Ch 25:19 You say, 'See, I have smitten Edom,' and your heart has lifted you up in boastfulness. But now stay at home; why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"

2Ch 25:20 But Amaziah would not listen; for it was of God, in order that he might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

2Ch 25:21 So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another in battle at Bethshemesh, which belongs to Judah.

2Ch 25:22 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2Ch 25:23 And Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, son of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem for four hundred cubits, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.

2Ch 25:24 And he seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God, and Obbedom with them; he seized also the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and he returned to Samaria.

2Ch 25:25 Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2Ch 25:26 Now the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, from first to last, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

2Ch 25:27 From the time when he turned away from the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

2Ch 25:28 And they brought him upon horses; and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

2Ch 26:1 And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

2Ch 26:2 He built Eloth and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

2Ch 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2Ch 26:4 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

2Ch 26:5 He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

2Ch 26:6 He went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the territory of Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines.

2Ch 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabs that dwelt in Gurbaal, and against the Meunites.

2Ch 26:8 The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread even to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

2Ch 26:9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate and at the Valley Gate and at the Angle, and fortified them.

2Ch 26:10 And he built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns, for he had large herds, both in the Shephelah and in the plain, and he had farmers and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

2Ch 26:11 Moreover Uzziah had an army of soldiers, fit for war, in divisions according to the numbers in the muster made by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.

2Ch 26:12 The whole number of the heads of fathers' houses of mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred.

2Ch 26:13 Under their command was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, who could make war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

2Ch 26:14 And Uzziah prepared for all the army shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging.

2Ch 26:15 In Jerusalem he made engines, invented by skilful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped, till he was strong.

2Ch 26:16 But when he was strong he grew proud, to his destruction. For he was false to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:17 But Azariah the priest went in after him, with eighty priests of the LORD who were men of valor;

2Ch 26:18 and they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for you have done wrong, and it will bring you no honor from the LORD God."

2Ch 26:19 Then Uzziah was angry. Now he had a censer in his hand to burn incense, and when he became angry with the priests leprosy broke out on his forehead, in the presence of the priests in the house of the LORD, by the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked at him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead! And they thrust him out quickly, and he himself hastened to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

2Ch 26:21 And King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death, and being a leper dwelt in a separate house, for he was excluded from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son was over the king's household, governing the people of the land.

2Ch 26:22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz wrote.

2Ch 26:23 And Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the burial field which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

2Ch 27:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD according to all that his father Uzziah had done -- only he did not invade the temple of the LORD. But the people still followed corrupt practices.

2Ch 27:3 He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and did much building on the wall of Ophel.

2Ch 27:4 Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and forts and towers on the wooded hills.

2Ch 27:5 He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. And the Ammonites gave him that year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand cors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites paid him the same amount in the second and the third years.

2Ch 27:6 So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.

2Ch 27:7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 27:9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD, like his father David,

2Ch 28:2 but walked in the ways of the kings of Israel. He even made molten images for the Baals;

2Ch 28:3 and he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his sons as an offering, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2Ch 28:4 And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

2Ch 28:5 Therefore the LORD his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria, who defeated him and took captive a great number of his people and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with great slaughter.

2Ch 28:6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew a hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all of them men of valor, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 28:7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son and Azrikam the commander of the palace and Elkanah the next in authority to the king.

2Ch 28:8 The men of Israel took captive two hundred thousand of their kinsfolk, women, sons, and daughters; they also took much spoil from them and brought the spoil to Samaria.

2Ch 28:9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand, but you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven.

2Ch 28:10 And now you intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem, male and female, as your slaves. Have you not sins of your own against the LORD your God?

2Ch 28:11 Now hear me, and send back the captives from your kinsfolk whom you have taken, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."

2Ch 28:12 Certain chiefs also of the men of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who were coming from the war,

2Ch 28:13 and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives in here, for you propose to bring upon us guilt against the LORD in addition to our present sins and guilt. For our guilt is already great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

2Ch 28:14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly.

2Ch 28:15 And the men who have been mentioned by name rose and took the captives, and with the spoil they clothed all that were naked among them; they clothed them, gave them sandals, provided them with food and drink, and anointed them; and carrying all the feeble among them on asses, they brought them to their kinsfolk at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

2Ch 28:16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria for help.

2Ch 28:17 For the Edomites had again invaded and defeated Judah, and carried away captives.

2Ch 28:18 And the Philistines had made raids on the cities in the Shephelah and the Negeb of Judah, and had taken Bethshemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they settled there.

2Ch 28:19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had dealt wantonly in Judah and had been faithless to the LORD.

2Ch 28:20 So Tilgathpiñeser king of Assyria came against him, and afflicted him instead of strengthening him.

2Ch 28:21 For Ahaz took from the house of the LORD and the house of the king and of the princes, and gave tribute to the king of Assyria; but it did not help him.

2Ch 28:22 In the time of his distress he became yet more faithless to the LORD -- this same King Ahaz.

2Ch 28:23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, and said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

2Ch 28:24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and he shut up the doors of the house of the LORD; and he made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

2Ch 28:25 In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, provoking to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers.

2Ch 28:26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 28:27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 29:1 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2Ch 29:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

2Ch 29:3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

2Ch 29:4 He brought in the priests and the Levites, and assembled them in the square on the east, 2Ch 29:5 and said to them, "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry out the filth from the holy place.

2Ch 29:6 For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done what was evil in the sight of the LORD our God; they have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

2Ch 29:7 They also shut the doors of the vestibule and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

2Ch 29:8 Therefore the wrath of the LORD came on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has made them an object of horror, of astonishment, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes.

2Ch 29:9 For lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

2Ch 29:10 Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us.

2Ch 29:11 My sons, do not now be negligent, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in his presence, to minister to him, and to be his ministers and burn incense to him."

2Ch 29:12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah;

2Ch 29:13 and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2Ch 29:14 and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2Ch 29:15 They gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and went in as the king had commanded, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

2Ch 29:16 The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and they brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD; and the Levites took it and carried it out to the brook Kidron.

2Ch 29:17 They began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD; then for eight days they sanctified the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

2Ch 29:18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the showbread and all its utensils.

2Ch 29:19 All the utensils which King Ahaz discarded in his reign when he was faithless, we have made ready and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD."

2Ch 29:20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered the officials of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

2Ch 29:21 And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven he-goats for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

2Ch 29:22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and threw it against the altar; and they killed the rams and their blood was thrown against the altar; and they killed the lambs and their blood was thrown against the altar.

2Ch 29:23 Then the he-goats for the sin offering were brought to the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands upon them,

2Ch 29:24 and the priests killed them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

2Ch 29:25 And he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the commandment of David and of Gad the king's seer and of Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was from the LORD through his prophets.

2Ch 29:26 The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

2Ch 29:27 Then Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD began also, and the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of David king of Israel.

2Ch 29:28 The whole assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

2Ch 29:29 When the offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped.

2Ch 29:30 And Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed down and worshiped.

2Ch 29:31 Then Hezekiah said, "You have now consecrated yourselves to the LORD; come near, bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings; and all who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

2Ch 29:32 The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

2Ch 29:33 And the consecrated offerings were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

2Ch 29:34 But the priests were too few and could not flay all the burnt offerings, so until other priests had sanctified themselves their brethren the Levites helped them, until the work was finished -- for the Levites were more upright in heart than the priests in sanctifying themselves.

2Ch 29:35 Besides the great number of burnt offerings there was the fat of the peace offerings, and there were the libations for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was restored.

2Ch 29:36 And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had done for the people; for the thing came about suddenly.

2Ch 30:1 Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover to the LORD the God of Israel.

2Ch 30:2 For the king and his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem had taken counsel to keep the passover in the second month --

2Ch 30:3 for they could not keep it in its time because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, nor had the people assembled in Jerusalem --

2Ch 30:4 and the plan seemed right to the king and all the assembly.

2Ch 30:5 So they decreed to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that the people should come and keep the passover to the LORD the God of Israel, at Jerusalem; for they had not kept it in great numbers as prescribed.

2Ch 30:6 So couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his princes, as the king had commanded, saying, "O people of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may turn again to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

2Ch 30:7 Do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who were faithless to the LORD God of their fathers, so that he made them a desolation, as you see.

2Ch 30:8 Do not now be stiff-necked as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD, and come to his sanctuary, which he has sanctified for ever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you.

2Ch 30:9 For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will find compassion with their captors, and return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him."

2Ch 30:10 So the couriers went from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun; but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

2Ch 30:11 Only a few men of Asher, of Manasseh, and of Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:12 The hand of God was also upon Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the LORD.

2Ch 30:13 And many people came together in Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly.

2Ch 30:14 They set to work and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for burning incense they took away and threw into the Kidron valley.

2Ch 30:15 And they killed the passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were put to shame, so that they sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

2Ch 30:16 They took their accustomed posts according to the law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from the hand of the Levites.

2Ch 30:17 For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had to kill the passover lamb for every one who was not clean, to make it holy to the LORD.

2Ch 30:18 For a multitude of the people, many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the passover otherwise than as prescribed. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "The good LORD pardon every one

2Ch 30:19 who sets his heart to seek God, the LORD the God of his fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary's rules of cleanness."

2Ch 30:20 And the LORD heard Hezekiah, and healed the people.

2Ch 30:21 And the people of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with all their might to the LORD.

2Ch 30:22 And Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good skill in the service of the LORD. So the people ate the food of the festival for seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD the God of their fathers.

2Ch 30:23 Then the whole assembly agreed together to keep the feast for another seven days; so they kept it for another seven days with gladness.

2Ch 30:24 For Hezekiah king of Judah gave the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep for offerings, and the princes gave the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And the priests sanctified themselves in great numbers.

2Ch 30:25 The whole assembly of Judah, and the priests and the Levites, and the whole assembly that came out of Israel, and the sojourners who came out of the land of Israel, and the sojourners who dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

2Ch 30:26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:27 Then the priests and the Levites arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, and their prayer came to his holy habitation in heaven.

2Ch 31:1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke in pieces the pillars and hewed down the Asherim and broke down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the people of Israel returned to their cities, every man to his possession.

2Ch 31:2 And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, division by division, each according to his service, the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to minister in the gates of the camp of the LORD and to give thanks and praise.

2Ch 31:3 The contribution of the king from his own possessions was for the burnt offerings: the burnt offerings of morning and evening, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

2Ch 31:4 And he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of the LORD.

2Ch 31:5 As soon as the command was spread abroad, the people of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

2Ch 31:6 And the people of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the dedicated things which had been consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid them in heaps.

2Ch 31:7 In the third month they began to pile up the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

2Ch 31:8 When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

2Ch 31:9 And Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps.

2Ch 31:10 Azariah the chief priest, who was of the house of Zadok, answered him, "Since they began to bring the contributions into the house of the LORD we have eaten and had enough and have plenty left; for the LORD has blessed his people, so that we have this great store left."

2Ch 31:11 Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.

2Ch 31:12 And they faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes and the dedicated things. The chief officer in charge of them was Conaniah the Levite, with Shimei his brother as second;

2Ch 31:13 while Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers assisting Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the chief officer of the house of God.

2Ch 31:14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the east gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to apportion the contribution reserved for the LORD and the most holy offerings.

2Ch 31:15 Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah were faithfully assisting him in the cities of the priests, to distribute the portions to their brethren, old and young alike, by divisions, 2Ch 31:16 except those enrolled by genealogy, males from three years old and upwards, all who entered the house of the LORD as the duty of each day required, for their service according to their offices, by their divisions.

2Ch 31:17 The enrollment of the priests was according to their fathers' houses; that of the Levites from twenty years old and upwards was according to their offices, by their divisions.

2Ch 31:18 The priests were enrolled with all their little children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, the whole multitude; for they were faithful in keeping themselves holy.

2Ch 31:19 And for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields of common land belonging to their cities, there were men in the several cities who were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to every one among the Levites who was enrolled.

2Ch 31:20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah; and he did what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.

2Ch 31:21 And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking his God, he did with all his heart, and prospered.

2Ch 32:1 After these things and these acts of faithfulness Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them for himself.

2Ch 32:2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to fight against Jerusalem, 2Ch 32:3 he planned with his officers and his mighty men to stop the water of the springs that were outside the city; and they helped him.

2Ch 32:4 A great many people were gathered, and they stopped all the springs and the brook that flowed through the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?"

2Ch 32:5 He set to work resolutely and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised towers upon it, and outside it he built another wall; and he strengthened the Millo in the city of David. He also made weapons and shields in abundance.

2Ch 32:6 And he set combat commanders over the people, and gathered them together to him in the square at the gate of the city and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

2Ch 32:7 "Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or dismayed before the king of Assyria and all the horde that is with him; for there is one greater with us than with him.

2Ch 32:8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people took confidence from the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

2Ch 32:9 After this Sennacherib king of Assyria, who was besieging Lachish with all his forces, sent his servants to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all the people of Judah that were in Jerusalem, saying,

2Ch 32:10 "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, 'On what are you relying, that you stand siege in Jerusalem?"

2Ch 32:11 Is not Hezekiah misleading you, that he may give you over to die by famine and by thirst, when he tells you, "The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?"

2Ch 32:12 Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, "Before one altar you shall worship, and upon it you shall burn your sacrifices"?"

2Ch 32:13 Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to deliver their lands out of my hand?"

2Ch 32:14 Who among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed was able to deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?

2Ch 32:15 Now therefore do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this fashion, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand!"

2Ch 32:16 And his servants said still more against the Lord GOD and against his servant Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:17 And he wrote letters to cast contempt on the LORD the God of Israel and to speak against him, saying, "Like the gods of the nations of the lands who have not delivered their people from my hands, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver his people from my hand."

2Ch 32:18 And they shouted it with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were upon the wall, to frighten and terrify them, in order that they might take the city.

2Ch 32:19 And they spoke of the God of Jerusalem as they spoke of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.

2Ch 32:20 Then Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed because of this and cried to heaven.

2Ch 32:21 And the LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty warriors and commanders and officers in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he came into the house of his god, some of his own sons struck him down there with the sword.

2Ch 32:22 So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all his enemies; and he gave them rest on every side.

2Ch 32:23 And many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from that time onward.

2Ch 32:24 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death, and he prayed to the LORD; and he answered him and gave him a sign.

2Ch 32:25 But Hezekiah did not make return according to the benefit done to him, for his heart was proud. Therefore wrath came upon him and Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 32:26 But Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:27 And Hezekiah had very great riches and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of costly vessels;

2Ch 32:28 storehouses also for the yield of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds.

2Ch 32:29 He likewise provided cities for himself, and flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very great possessions.

2Ch 32:30 This same Hezekiah closed the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

2Ch 32:31 And so in the matter of the envoys of the princes of Babylon, who had been sent to him to inquire about the sign that had been done in the land, God left him to himself, in order to try him and to know all that was in his heart.

2Ch 32:32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 32:33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 33:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2Ch 33:3 For he rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had broken down, and erected altars to the Baals, and made Asherahs, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them.

2Ch 33:4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever."

2Ch 33:5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 33:6 And he burned his sons as an offering in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and practiced soothsaying and augury and sorcery, and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2Ch 33:7 And the image of the idol which he had made he set in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever;

2Ch 33:8 and I will no more remove the foot of Israel from the land which I appointed for your fathers, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them, all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses."

2Ch 33:9 Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the people of Israel.

2Ch 33:10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they gave no heed.

2Ch 33:11 Therefore the LORD brought upon them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks and bound him with fetters of bronze and brought him to Babylon.

2Ch 33:12 And when he was in distress he entreated the favor of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

2Ch 33:13 He prayed to him, and God received his entreaty and heard his supplication and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

2Ch 33:14 Afterwards he built an outer wall for the city of David west of Gihon, in the valley, and for the entrance into the Fish Gate, and carried it round Ophel, and raised it to a very great height; he also put commanders of the army in all the fortified cities in Judah.

2Ch 33:15 And he took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside of the city.

2Ch 33:16 He also restored the altar of the LORD and offered upon it sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving; and he commanded Judah to serve the LORD the God of Israel.

2Ch 33:17 Nevertheless the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

2Ch 33:18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD the God of Israel, behold, they are in the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

2Ch 33:19 And his prayer, and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and his faithlessness, and the sites on which he built high places and set up the Asherim and the images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the Chronicles of the Seers.

2Ch 33:20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his house; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 33:22 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done. Amon sacrificed to all the images that Manasseh his father had made, and served them.

2Ch 33:23 And he did not humble himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself, but this Amon incurred guilt more and more.

2Ch 33:24 And his servants conspired against him and killed him in his house.

2Ch 33:25 But the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against King Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

2Ch 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father; and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

2Ch 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, and the graven and the molten images.

2Ch 34:4 And they broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; and he hewed down the incense altars which stood above them; and he broke in pieces the Asherim and the graven and the molten images, and he made dust of them and strewed it over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2Ch 34:5 He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:6 And in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their ruins round about,

2Ch 34:7 he broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the images into powder, and hewed down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

2Ch 34:9 They came to Hilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remnant of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:10 They delivered it to the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD gave it for repairing and restoring the house.

2Ch 34:11 They gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone, and timber for binders and beams for the buildings which the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

2Ch 34:12 And the men did the work faithfully. Over them were set Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to have oversight. The Levites, all who were skilful with instruments of music, 2Ch 34:13 were over the burden bearers and directed all who did work in every kind of service; and some of the Levites were scribes, and officials, and gatekeepers.

2Ch 34:14 While they were bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given through Moses.

2Ch 34:15 Then Hilkiyah said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD"; and Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan.

2Ch 34:16 Shaphan brought the book to the king, and further reported to the king, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

2Ch 34:17 They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."

2Ch 34:18 Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, "Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

2Ch 34:19 When the king heard the words of the law he rent his clothes.

2Ch 34:20 And the king commanded Hilkiyah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

2Ch 34:21 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."

2Ch 34:22 So Hilkiyah and those whom the king had sent went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter) and spoke to her to that effect.

2Ch 34:23 And she said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: `Tell the man who sent you to me,

2Ch 34:24 Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which was read before the king of Judah.

2Ch 34:25 Because they have forsaken me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath will be poured out upon this place and will not be quenched.

2Ch 34:26 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words which you have heard, 2Ch 34:27 because your heart was penitent and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and its inhabitants, and you have humbled yourself before me, and have rent your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.

2Ch 34:28 Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place and its inhabitants.'" And they brought back word to the king.

2Ch 34:29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:30 And the king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests and the Levites, all the people both great and small; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

2Ch 34:31 And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

2Ch 34:32 Then he made all who were present in Jerusalem and in Benjamin stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 34:33 And Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel, and made all who were in Israel serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not turn away from following the LORD the God of their fathers.

2Ch 35:1 Josiah kept a passover to the LORD in Jerusalem; and they killed the passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2Ch 35:2 He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 35:3 And he said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built; you need no longer carry it upon your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

2Ch 35:4 Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses by your divisions, following the directions of David king of Israel and the directions of Solomon his son.

2Ch 35:5 And stand in the holy place according to the groupings of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and let there be for each a part of a father's house of the Levites.

2Ch 35:6 And kill the passover lamb, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brethren, to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses."

2Ch 35:7 Then Josiah contributed to the lay people, as passover offerings for all that were present, lambs and kids from the flock to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls; these were from the king's possessions.

2Ch 35:8 And his princes contributed willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the chief officers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the passover offerings two thousand six hundred lambs and kids and three hundred bulls.

2Ch 35:9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the passover offerings five thousand lambs and kids and five hundred bulls.

2Ch 35:10 When the service had been prepared for, the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions according to the king's command.

2Ch 35:11 And they killed the passover lamb, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from them while the Levites flayed the victims.

2Ch 35:12 And they set aside the burnt offerings that they might distribute them according to the groupings of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so they did with the bulls.

2Ch 35:13 And they roasted the passover lamb with fire according to the ordinance; and they boiled the holy offerings in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the lay people.

2Ch 35:14 And afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat parts until night; so the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

2Ch 35:15 The singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not need to depart from their service, for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

2Ch 35:16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared that day, to keep the passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

2Ch 35:17 And the people of Israel who were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

2Ch 35:18 No passover like it had been kept in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; none of the kings of Israel had kept such a passover as was kept by Josiah, and the priests and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2Ch 35:19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this passover was kept.

2Ch 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates and Josiah went out against him.

2Ch 35:21 But he sent envoys to him, saying, "What have we to do with each other, king of Judah? I am not coming against you this day, but against the house with which I am at war; and God has commanded me to make haste. Cease opposing God, who is with me, lest he destroy you."

2Ch 35:22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight with him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but joined battle in the plain of Megiddo.

2Ch 35:23 And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded."

2Ch 35:24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in his second chariot and brought him to Jerusalem. And he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

2Ch 35:25 Jeremiah also uttered a lament for Josiah; and all the singing men and singing women have spoken of Josiah in their laments to this day. They made these an ordinance in Israel; behold, they are written in the Laments.

2Ch 35:26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds according to what is written in the law of the LORD, 2Ch 35:27 and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 36:1 The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:3 Then the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and laid upon the land a tribute of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2Ch 36:4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim; but Neco took Jehoahaz his brother and carried him to Egypt.

2Ch 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

2Ch 36:6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters to take him to Babylon.

2Ch 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried part of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his palace in Babylon.

2Ch 36:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

2Ch 36:9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2Ch 36:10 In the spring of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the precious vessels of the house of the LORD, and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:12 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.

2Ch 36:13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 36:14 All the leading priests and the people likewise were exceedingly unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:15 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent persistently to them by his messengers, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling place;

2Ch 36:16 but they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising his words, and scoffing at his prophets, till the wrath of the LORD rose against his people, till there was no remedy.

2Ch 36:17 Therefore he brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or aged; he gave them all into his hand.

2Ch 36:18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon.

2Ch 36:19 And they burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious vessels.

2Ch 36:20 He took into exile in Babylon those who had escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and to his sons until the establishment of the kingdom of Persia, 2Ch 36:21 to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. All the days that it lay desolate it kept sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.

2Ch 36:22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and also put it in writing:

2Ch 36:23 "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all his people, may the LORD his God be with him. Let him go up.'"

Ezr 1:1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and also put it in writing:

Ezr 1:2 "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

Ezr 1:3 Whoever is among you of all his people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel -- he is the God who is in Jerusalem;

Ezr 1:4 and let each survivor, in whatever place he sojourns, be assisted by the men of his place with silver and gold, with goods and with beasts, besides freewill offerings for the house of God which is in Jerusalem."

Ezr 1:5 Then rose up the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, every one whose spirit God had stirred to go up to rebuild the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem;

Ezr 1:6 and all who were about them aided them with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, with beasts, and with costly wares, besides all that was freely offered.

Ezr 1:7 Cyrus the king also brought out the vessels of the house of the LORD which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods.

Ezr 1:8 Cyrus king of Persia brought these out in charge of Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezr 1:9 And this was the number of them: a thousand basins of gold, a thousand basins of silver, twenty-nine censers,
Ezr 1:10 thirty bowls of gold, two thousand four hundred and ten bowls of silver, and a thousand other vessels;
Ezr 1:11 all the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred and sixty-nine. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up, when the exiles were brought up from Babylonia to Jerusalem.
Ezr 2:1 Now these were the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of those exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried captive to Babylonia; they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town.

Ezr 2:47 the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah,
Ezr 2:48 the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam,
Ezr 2:49 the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai,

Ezr 2:50 the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephisim,
Ezr 2:51 the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,
Ezr 2:52 the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,
Ezr 2:53 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,
Ezr 2:54 the sons of Neziah, and the sons of Hatipha.
Ezr 2:55 The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda,
Ezr 2:56 the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,
Ezr 2:57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pocherethhazzebaim, and the sons of Ami.
Ezr 2:58 All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.
Ezr 2:59 The following were those who came up from Telmelah, Telharsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, though they could not prove their fathers' houses or their descent, whether they belonged to Israel:
Ezr 2:60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two.
Ezr 2:61 Also, of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai (who had taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name).
Ezr 2:62 These sought their registration among those enrolled in the genealogies, but they were not found there, and so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean;
Ezr 2:63 the governor told them that they were not to partake of the most holy food, until there should be a priest to consult Urim and Thummim.
Ezr 2:64 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
Ezr 2:65 besides their menservants and maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred male and female singers.
Ezr 2:66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules were two hundred and forty-five,
Ezr 2:67 their camels were four hundred and thirty-five, and their asses were six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
Ezr 2:68 Some of the heads of families, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, made freewill offerings for the house of God, to erect it on its site;
Ezr 2:69 according to their ability they gave to the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.
Ezr 2:70 The priests, the Levites, and some of the people lived in Jerusalem and its vicinity; and the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants lived in their towns, and all Israel in their towns.
Ezr 3:1 When the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel were in the towns, the people gathered as one man to Jerusalem.
Ezr 3:2 Then arose Jeshua the son of Jozadak, with his fellow priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel with his kinsmen, and they built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings upon it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.
Ezr 3:3 They set the altar in its place, for fear was upon them because of the peoples of the lands, and they offered burnt offerings upon it to the LORD, burnt offerings morning and evening.
Ezr 3:4 And they kept the feast of booths, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number according to the ordinance, as each day required,
Ezr 3:5 and after that the continual burnt offerings, the offerings at the new moon and at all the appointed feasts of the LORD, and the offerings of every one who made a freewill offering to the LORD.
Ezr 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.
Ezr 3:7 So they gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and the Tyrians to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.
Ezr 3:8 Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak made a beginning, together with the rest of their brethren, the priests and the Levites and all who had come to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of the LORD.
Ezr 3:9 And Jeshua with his sons and his kinsmen, and Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together took the oversight of the workmen in the house of God, along with the sons of Henadad and the Levites, their sons and kinsmen.
Ezr 3:10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments came forward with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the directions of David king of Israel;
Ezr 3:11 and they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, "For he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever toward Israel." And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Ezr 3:12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, old men who had seen the first house, wept with a loud voice when they saw the foundation of this house being laid, though many shouted aloud for joy;

Ezr 3:13 so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shout from the sound of the people's weeping, for the people shouted with a great shout, and the sound was heard afar.

Ezr 4:1 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Ezr 4:2 they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' houses and said to them, "Let us build with you; for we worship your God as you do, and we have been sacrificing to him ever since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria who brought us here."

Ezr 4:3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses in Israel said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we alone will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

Ezr 4:4 Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and made them afraid to build,

Ezr 4:5 and hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 4:6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam and Mithredath and Tabeel and the rest of their associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; the letter was written in Aramaic and translated.

Ezr 4:8 Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows --

Ezr 4:9 then wrote Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates, the judges, the governors, the officials, the Persians, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites, Ezr 4:10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River, and now

Ezr 4:11 this is a copy of the letter that they sent -- "To Artaxerxes the king: Your servants, the men of the province Beyond the River, send greeting. And now

Ezr 4:12 be it known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have gone to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city; they are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

Ezr 4:13 Now be it known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and the royal revenue will be impaired.

Ezr 4:14 Now because we eat the salt of the palace and it is not fitting for us to witness the king's dishonor, therefore we send and inform the king,

Ezr 4:15 in order that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. You will find in the book of the records and learn that this city is a rebellious city, hurtful to kings and provinces, and that sedition was stirred up in it from of old. That was why this city was laid waste.

Ezr 4:16 We make known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and its walls finished, you will then have no possession in the province Beyond the River."

Ezr 4:17 The king sent an answer: "To Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their associates who live in Samaria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River, greeting. And now

Ezr 4:18 the letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me.

Ezr 4:19 And I made a decree, and search has been made, and it has been found that this city from of old has risen against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it.

Ezr 4:20 And mighty kings have been over Jerusalem, who ruled over the whole province Beyond the River, to whom tribute, custom, and toll were paid.

Ezr 4:21 Therefore make a decree that these men be made to cease, and that this city be not rebuilt, until a decree is made by me.

Ezr 4:22 And take care not to be slack in this matter; why should damage grow to the hurt of the king?"

Ezr 4:23 Then, when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their associates, they went in haste to the Jews at Jerusalem and by force and power made them cease.

Ezr 4:24 Then the work on the house of God which is in Jerusalem stopped; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 5:1 Now the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.

Ezr 5:2 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

Ezr 5:3 At the same time Tattenai the governor of the province Beyond the River and Shetharbozenai and their associates came to them and spoke to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this structure?"

Ezr 5:4 They also asked them this, "What are the names of the men who are building this building?"

Ezr 5:5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them till a report should reach Darius and then answer be returned by letter concerning it.

Ezr 5:6 The copy of the letter which Tattenai the governor of the province Beyond the River and Shetharbozenai and his associates the governors who were in the province Beyond the River sent to Darius the king;

Ezr 5:7 they sent him a report, in which was written as follows: "To Darius the king, all peace.

Ezr 5:8 Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God. It is being built with huge stones, and timber is laid in the walls; this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.

Ezr 5:9 Then we asked those elders and spoke to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this structure?"

Ezr 5:10 We also asked them their names, for your information, that we might write down the names of the men at their head.

Ezr 5:11 And this was their reply to us: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

Ezr 5:12 But because our fathers had angered the God of heaven, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried away the people to Babylonia.

Ezr 5:13 However in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree that this house of God should be rebuilt.

Ezr 5:14 And the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought into the temple of Babylon, these Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

Ezr 5:15 and he said to him, "Take these vessels, go and put them in the temple which is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site."

Ezr 5:16 Then this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and from that time until now it has been in building, and it is not yet finished.'

Ezr 5:17 Therefore, if it seem good to the king, let search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see whether a decree was issued by Cyrus the king for the rebuilding of this house of God in Jerusalem. And let the king send us his pleasure in this matter."

Ezr 6:1 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in Babylonia, in the house of the archives where the documents were stored.

Ezr 6:2 And in Ecbatana, the capital which is in the province of Media, a scroll was found on which this was written: "A record.

Ezr 6:3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king issued a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be rebuilt, the place where sacrifices are offered and burnt offerings are brought; its height shall be sixty cubits and its breadth sixty cubits, Ezr 6:4 with three courses of great stones and one course of timber; let the cost be paid from the royal treasury.

Ezr 6:5 And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought back to the temple which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; you shall put them in the house of God."

Ezr 6:6 "Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your associates the governors who are in the province Beyond the River, keep away;

Ezr 6:7 let the work on this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezr 6:8 Moreover I make a decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God; the cost is to be paid to these men in full and without delay from the royal revenue, the tribute of the province from Beyond the River.

Ezr 6:9 And whatever is needed -- young bulls, rams, or sheep for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, as the priests at Jerusalem require -- let that be given to them day by day without fail,

Ezr 6:10 that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Ezr 6:11 Also I make a decree that if any one alters this edict, a beam shall be pulled out of his house, and he shall be impaled upon it, and his house shall be made a dunghill.

Ezr 6:12 May the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people that shall put forth a hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius make a decree; let it be done with all diligence."

Ezr 6:13 Then, according to the word sent by Darius the king, Tattenai, the governor of the province Beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their associates did with all diligence what Darius the king had ordered.

Ezr 6:14 And the elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished their building by command of the God of Israel and by decree of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes king of Persia;

Ezr 6:15 and this house was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

Ezr 6:16 And the people of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the returned exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

Ezr 6:17 They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Ezr 6:18 And they set the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

Ezr 6:19 On the fourteenth day of the first month the returned exiles kept the passover.

Ezr 6:20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were clean. So they killed the passover lamb for all the returned exiles, for their fellow priests, and for themselves;

Ezr 6:21 it was eaten by the people of Israel who had returned from exile, and also by every one who had joined them and separated himself from the pollutions of the peoples of the land to worship the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ezr 6:22 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy; for the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, so that he aided them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezr 7:1 Now after this, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

Ezr 7:2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

Ezr 7:3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

Ezr 7:4 son of Zerariah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

Ezr 7:5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the chief priest --

Ezr 7:6 this Ezra went up from Babylonia. He was a scribe skilled in the law of Moses which the LORD the God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all that he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was upon him.

Ezr 7:7 And there went up also to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king, some of the people of Israel, and some of the priests and Levites, the singers and gatekeepers, and the temple servants.

Ezr 7:8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king;

Ezr 7:9 for on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylonia, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was upon him.

Ezr 7:10 For Ezra had set his heart to study the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach his statutes and ordinances in Israel.

Ezr 7:11 This is a copy of the letter which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, learned in matters of the commandments of the LORD and his statutes for Israel:

Ezr 7:12 "Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven. And now

Ezr 7:13 I make a decree that any one of the people of Israel or their priests or Levites in my kingdom, who freely offers to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

Ezr 7:14 For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to make inquiries about Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God, which is in your hand,

Ezr 7:15 and also to convey the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:16 with all the silver and gold which you shall find in the whole province of Babylonia, and with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, vowed willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:17 With this money, then, you shall with all diligence buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their cereal offerings and their drink offerings, and you shall offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:18 Whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do, according to the will of your God.

Ezr 7:19 The vessels that have been given you for the service of the house of your God, you shall deliver before the God of Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:20 And whatever else is required for the house of your God, which you have occasion to provide, you may provide it out of the king's treasury.

Ezr 7:21 "And I, Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers in the province Beyond the River: Whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you, be it done with all diligence,

Ezr 7:22 up to a hundred talents of silver, a hundred cors of wheat, a hundred baths of wine, a hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

Ezr 7:23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done in full for the house of the God of heaven, lest his wrath be against the realm of the king and his sons.

Ezr 7:24 We also notify you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll upon any one of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the doorkeepers, the temple servants, or other servants of this house of God.

Ezr 7:25 "And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people in the province Beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and those who do not know them, you shall teach.

Ezr 7:26 Whoever will not obey the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be strictly executed upon him, whether for death or for banishment or for confiscation of his goods or for imprisonment."

Ezr 7:27 Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:28 and who extended to me his steadfast love before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty officers. I took courage, for the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Ezr 8:1 These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylonia, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king:

Ezr 8:2 Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush, Ezr 8:3 of the sons of Shecaniah. Of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah, with whom were registered one hundred and fifty men.

Ezr 8:4 Of the sons of Pahathmoab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah, and with him two hundred men.

Ezr 8:5 Of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred men.

Ezr 8:6 Of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty men.

Ezr 8:7 Of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy men.

Ezr 8:8 Of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty men.

Ezr 8:9 Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen men.

Ezr 8:10 Of the sons of Bani, Shelomith the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and sixty men.

Ezr 8:11 Of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah, the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight men.

Ezr 8:12 Of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten men.

Ezr 8:13 Of the sons of Adonikam, those who came later, their names being Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty men.

Ezr 8:14 Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur, and with them seventy men.

Ezr 8:15 I gathered them to the river that runs to Ahava, and there we encamped three days. As I reviewed the people and the priests, I found there none of the sons of Levi.

Ezr 8:16 Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of insight,

Ezr 8:17 and sent them to Iddo, the leading man at the place Casiphia, telling them what to say to Iddo and his brethren the temple servants at the place Casiphia, namely, to send us ministers for the house of our God.

Ezr 8:18 And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, son of Israel, namely Sherebiah with his sons and kinsmen, eighteen;

Ezr 8:19 also Hashabiah and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, with his kinsmen and their sons, twenty;

Ezr 8:20 besides two hundred and twenty of the temple servants, whom David and his officials had set apart to attend the Levites. These were all mentioned by name.

Ezr 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a straight way for ourselves, our children, and all our goods.

Ezr 8:22 For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way; since we had told the king, "The hand of our God is for good upon all that seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all that forsake him."

Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and besought our God for this, and he listened to our entreaty.

Ezr 8:24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their kinsmen with them.

Ezr 8:25 And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his lords and all Israel there present had offered;

Ezr 8:26 I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels worth a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold,

Ezr 8:27 twenty bowls of gold worth a thousand darics, and two vessels of fine bright bronze as precious as gold.

Ezr 8:28 And I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers.

Ezr 8:29 Guard them and keep them until you weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites and the heads of fathers' houses in Israel at Jerusalem, within the chambers of the house of the LORD."

Ezr 8:30 So the priests and the Levites took over the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

Ezr 8:31 Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem; the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambushes by the way.

Ezr 8:32 We came to Jerusalem, and there we remained three days.

Ezr 8:33 On the fourth day, within the house of our God, the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed into the hands of Meremoth the priest, son of Uriah, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

Ezr 8:34 The whole was counted and weighed, and the weight of everything was recorded.

Ezr 8:35 At that time those who had come from captivity, the returned exiles, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and as a sin offering twelve he-goats; all this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezr 8:36 They also delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps and to the governors of the province Beyond the River; and they aided the people and the house of God.

Ezr 9:1 After these things had been done, the officials approached me and said, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands with their abominations, from the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Ezr 9:2 For they have taken some of their daughters to be wives for themselves and for their sons; so that the holy race has mixed itself with the peoples of the lands. And in this faithlessness the hand of the officials and chief men has been foremost."

Ezr 9:3 When I heard this, I rent my garments and my mantle, and pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat appalled.

Ezr 9:4 Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the faithlessness of the returned exiles, gathered round me while I sat appalled until the evening sacrifice.

Ezr 9:5 And at the evening sacrifice I rose from my fasting, with my garments and my mantle rent, and fell upon my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God,

Ezr 9:6 saying: "O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift my face to thee, my God, for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.

Ezr 9:7 From the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as at this day.

Ezr 9:8 But now for a brief moment favor has been shown by the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant, and to give us a secure hold within his holy place, that our God may brighten our eyes and grant us a little reviving in our bondage.

Ezr 9:9 For we are bondmen; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended to us his steadfast love before the kings of Persia, to grant us some reviving to set up the house of our God, to repair its ruins, and to give us protection in Judea and Jerusalem.

Ezr 9:10 "And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken thy commandments,

Ezr 9:11 which thou didst command by thy servants the prophets, saying, 'The land which you are entering, to take possession of it, is a land unclean with the pollutions of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness.

Ezr 9:12 Therefore give not your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters for your sons, and never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.'

Ezr 9:13 And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that thou, our God, hast punished us less than our iniquities deserved and hast given us such a remnant as this,

Ezr 9:14 shall we break thy commandments again and intermarry with the peoples who practice these abominations? Wouldst thou not be angry with us till thou wouldst consume us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape?

Ezr 9:15 O LORD the God of Israel, thou art just, for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as at this day. Behold, we are before thee in our guilt, for none can stand before thee because of this."

Ezr 10:1 While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children, gathered to him out of Israel; for the people wept bitterly.

Ezr 10:2 And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, addressed Ezra: "We have broken faith with our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.

Ezr 10:3 Therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Ezr 10:4 Arise, for it is your task, and we are with you; be strong and do it."

Ezr 10:5 Then Ezra arose and made the leading priests and Levites and all Israel take oath that they would do as had been said. So they took the oath.

Ezr 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God, and went to the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib, where he spent the night, neither eating bread nor drinking water; for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiles.

Ezr 10:7 And a proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the returned exiles that they should assemble at Jerusalem,

Ezr 10:8 and that if any one did not come within three days, by order of the officials and the elders all his property should be forfeited, and he himself banned from the congregation of the exiles.

Ezr 10:9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. And all the people sat in the open square before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain.

Ezr 10:10 And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have trespassed and married foreign women, and so increased the guilt of Israel.

Ezr 10:11 Now then make confession to the LORD the God of your fathers, and do his will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."

Ezr 10:12 Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "It is so; we must do as you have said.

Ezr 10:13 But the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain; we cannot stand in the open. Nor is this a work for one day or for two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.

Ezr 10:14 Let our officials stand for the whole assembly; let all in our cities who have taken foreign wives come at appointed times, and with them the elders and judges of every city, till the fierce wrath of our God over this matter be averted from us."

Ezr 10:15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullum and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

Ezr 10:16 Then the returned exiles did so. Ezra the priest selected men, heads of fathers' houses, according to their fathers' houses, each of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to examine the matter;

Ezr 10:17 and by the first day of the first month they had come to the end of all the men who had married foreign women.

Ezr 10:18 Of the sons of the priests who had married foreign women were found Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brethren.

Ezr 10:19 They pledged themselves to put away their wives, and their guilt offering was a ram of the flock for their guilt.

Ezr 10:20 Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

Ezr 10:21 Of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.

Ezr 10:22 Of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

Ezr 10:23 Of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

Ezr 10:24 Of the singers: Eliashib. Of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

Ezr 10:25 And of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Hashabiah, and Benaiah.

Ezr 10:26 Of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.

Ezr 10:27 Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

Ezr 10:28 Of the sons of Bebai were Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

Ezr 10:29 Of the sons of Bani were Meshullum, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth.

Ezr 10:30 Of the sons of Pahathmoab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.

Ezr 10:31 Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezr 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

Ezr 10:33 Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

Ezr 10:34 Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezr 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,

Ezr 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezr 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu.

Ezr 10:38 Of the sons of Binnui: Shimei,

Ezr 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezr 10:40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezr 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezr 10:42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

Ezr 10:43 Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

Ezr 10:44 All these had married foreign women, and they put them away with their children.

Neh 1:1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Susa the capital,

Neh 1:2 that Hanani, one of my brethren, came with certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that survived, who had escaped exile, and concerning Jerusalem.

Neh 1:3 And they said to me, "The survivors there in the province who escaped exile are in great trouble and shame; the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are destroyed by fire."

Neh 1:4 When I heard these words I sat down and wept, and mourned for days; and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Neh 1:5 And I said, "O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments;

Neh 1:6 let thy ear be attentive, and thy eyes open, to hear the prayer of thy servant which I now pray before thee day and night for the people of Israel thy servants, confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against thee. Yea, I and my father's house have sinned.

Neh 1:7 We have acted very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances which thou didst command thy servant Moses.

Neh 1:8 Remember the word which thou didst command thy servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;

Neh 1:9 but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, though your dispersed be under the farthest skies, I will gather them thence and bring them to the place which I have chosen, to make my name dwell there.'

Neh 1:10 They are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power and by thy strong hand.

Neh 1:11 O Lord, let thy ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants who delight to fear thy name; and give success to thy servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man."

Now I was cupbearer to the king.

Neh 2:1 In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence.

Neh 2:2 And the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? This is nothing else but sadness of the heart." Then I was very much afraid.

Neh 2:3 I said to the king, "Let the king live for ever! Why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lies waste, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

Neh 2:4 Then the king said to me, "For what do you make request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven.

Neh 2:5 And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may rebuild it."

Neh 2:6 And the king said to me (the queen sitting beside him), "How long will you be gone, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

Neh 2:7 And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors of the province Beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah;

Neh 2:8 and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, and for the wall of the city, and for the house which I shall occupy." And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me.

Neh 2:9 Then I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

Neh 2:10 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard this, it displeased them greatly that some one had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

Neh 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

Neh 2:12 Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; and I told no one what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no beast with me but the beast on which I rode.

Neh 2:13 I went out by night by the Valley Gate to the Jackal's Well and to the Dung Gate, and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which had been destroyed by fire.

Neh 2:14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool; but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

Neh 2:15 Then I went up in the night by the valley and inspected the wall; and I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.

Neh 2:16 And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing; and I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, and the rest that were to do the work.

Neh 2:17 Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins with its gates burned. Come, let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer suffer disgrace."

Neh 2:18 And I told them of the hand of my God which had been upon me for good, and also of the words which the king had spoken to me. And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

Neh 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they derided us and despised us and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

Neh 2:20 Then I replied to them, "The God of heaven will make us prosper, and we his servants will arise and build; but you have no portion or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Neh 3:1 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests and they built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set its doors; they consecrated it as far as the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Tower of Hananel.

Neh 3:2 And next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

Neh 3:3 And the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Neh 3:4 And next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz repaired. And next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel repaired. And next to them Zadok the son of Baana repaired.

Neh 3:5 And next to them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their Lord.

Neh 3:6 And Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Neh 3:7 And next to them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, who were under the jurisdiction of the governor of the province Beyond the River.

Neh 3:8 Next to them Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths, repaired. Next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, repaired; and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Neh 3:9 Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired.

Neh 3:10 Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph repaired opposite his house; and next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah repaired.

Neh 3:11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahathmoab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.

Neh 3:12 Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired, he and his daughters.

Neh 3:13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate; they rebuilt it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall, as far as the Dung Gate.

Neh 3:14 Malchijah the son of Rechab, ruler of the district of Bethhaccherem, repaired the Dung Gate; he rebuilt it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Neh 3:15 And Shallum the son of Colhozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he rebuilt it and covered it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars; and he built the wall of the Pool of Shelah of the king's garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

Neh 3:16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Bethzur, repaired to a point opposite the sepulchres of David, to the artificial pool, and to the house of the mighty men.

Neh 3:17 After him the Levites repaired: Rehum the son of Bani; next to him Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, repaired for his district.

Neh 3:18 After him their brethren repaired: Bavvai the son of Henadad, ruler of half the district of Keilah;

Neh 3:19 next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the Angle.

Neh 3:20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai repaired another section from the Angle to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Neh 3:21 After him Meremoth the son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz repaired another section from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

Neh 3:22 After him the priests, the men of the Plain, repaired.

Neh 3:23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub repaired opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, son of Ananiah repaired beside his own house.

Neh 3:24 After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the Angle

Neh 3:25 and to the corner. Palal the son of Uzai repaired opposite the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king at the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh

Neh 3:26 and the temple servants living on Ophel repaired to a point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.

Neh 3:27 After him the Tekoites repaired another section opposite the great projecting tower as far as the wall of Ophel.

Neh 3:28 Above the Horse Gate the priests repaired, each one opposite his own house.

Neh 3:29 After them Zadok the son of Immer repaired opposite his own house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, repaired.

Neh 3:30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah repaired opposite his chamber.

Neh 3:31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, opposite the Muster Gate, and to the upper chamber of the corner.

Neh 3:32 And between the upper chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired.

Neh 4:1 Now when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry and greatly enraged, and he ridiculed the Jews.

Neh 4:2 And he said in the presence of his brethren and of the army of Samaria, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore things? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish up in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, and burned ones at that?"

Neh 4:3 Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "Yes, what they are building -- if a fox goes up on it he will break down their stone wall!

Neh 4:4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn back their taunt upon their own heads, and give them up to be plundered in a land where they are captives.

Neh 4:5 Do not cover their guilt, and let not their sin be blotted out from thy sight; for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

Neh 4:6 So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height. For the people had a mind to work.

Neh 4:7 But when Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabs and the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was going forward and that the breaches were beginning to be closed, they were very angry;

Neh 4:8 and they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.

Neh 4:9 And we prayed to our God, and set a guard as a protection against them day and night.

Neh 4:10 But Judah said, "The strength of the burden-bearers is failing, and there is much rubbish; we are not able to work on the wall."

Neh 4:11 And our enemies said, "They will not know or see till we come into the midst of them and kill them and stop the work."

Neh 4:12 When the Jews who lived by them came they said to us ten times, "From all the places where they live they will come up against us."

Neh 4:13 So in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in open places, I stationed the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

Neh 4:14 And I looked, and arose, and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes."

Neh 4:15 When our enemies heard that it was known to us and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each to his work.

Neh 4:16 From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half held the spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail; and the leaders stood behind all the house of Judah,

Neh 4:17 who were building on the wall. Those who carried burdens were laden in such a way that each with one hand labored on the work and with the other held his weapon.

Neh 4:18 And each of the builders had his sword girded at his side while he built. The man who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

Neh 4:19 And I said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and widely spread, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another.

Neh 4:20 In the place where you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us."

Neh 4:21 So we labored at the work, and half of them held the spears from the break of dawn till the stars came out.

Neh 4:22 I also said to the people at that time, "Let every man and his servant pass the night within Jerusalem, that they may be a guard for us by night and may labor by day."

Neh 4:23 So neither I nor my brethren nor my servants nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes; each kept his weapon in his hand.

Neh 5:1 Now there arose a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their Jewish brethren.

Neh 5:2 For there were those who said, "With our sons and our daughters, we are many; let us get grain, that we may eat and keep alive."

Neh 5:3 There were also those who said, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses to get grain because of the famine."

Neh 5:4 And there were those who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tax upon our fields and our vineyards."

Neh 5:5 Now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children are as their children; yet we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have already been enslaved; but it is not in our power to help it, for other men have our fields and our vineyards."

Neh 5:6 I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.

Neh 5:7 I took counsel with myself, and I brought charges against the nobles and the officials. I said to them, "You are exacting interest, each from his brother." And I held a great assembly against them,

Neh 5:8 and said to them, "We, as far as we are able, have bought back our Jewish brethren who have been sold to the nations; but you even sell your brethren that they may be sold to us!" They were silent, and could not find a word to say.

Neh 5:9 So I said, "The thing that you are doing is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies?"

Neh 5:10 Moreover I and my brethren and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let us leave off this interest.

Neh 5:11 Return to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and the hundredth of money, grain, wine, and oil which you have been exacting of them."

Neh 5:12 Then they said, "We will restore these and require nothing from them. We will do as you say." And I called the priests, and took an oath of them to do as they had promised.

Neh 5:13 I also shook out my lap and said, "So may God shake out every man from his house and from his labor who does not perform this promise. So may he be shaken out and emptied." And all the assembly said "Amen" and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Neh 5:14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, neither I nor my brethren ate the food allowance of the governor.

Neh 5:15 The former governors who were before me laid heavy burdens upon the people, and took from them food and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Even their servants lorded it over the people. But I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

Neh 5:16 I also held to the work on this wall, and acquired no land; and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

Neh 5:17 Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty men, Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations which were about us.

Neh 5:18 Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; fowls likewise were prepared for me, and every ten days skins of wine in abundance; yet with all this I did not demand the food allowance of the governor, because the servitude was heavy upon this people.

Neh 5:19 Remember for my good, O my God, all that I have done for this people.

Neh 6:1 Now when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah and to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had built the wall and that there was no breach left in it (although up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),

Neh 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come and let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to do me harm.

Neh 6:3 And I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"

Neh 6:4 And they sent to me four times in this way and I answered them in the same manner.

Neh 6:5 In the same way Sanballat for the fifth time sent his servant to me with an open letter in his hand.

Neh 6:6 In it was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Geshem also says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel; that is why you are building the wall; and you wish to become their king, according to this report.

Neh 6:7 And you have also set up prophets to proclaim concerning you in Jerusalem, 'There is a king in Judah.' And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. So now come, and let us take counsel together."

Neh 6:8 Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say have been done, for you are inventing them out of your own mind."

Neh 6:9 For they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done." But now, O God, strengthen thou my hands.

Neh 6:10 Now when I went into the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was shut up, he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming to kill you, at night they are coming to kill you."

Neh 6:11 But I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And what man such as I could go into the temple and live? I will not go in."

Neh 6:12 And I understood, and saw that God had not sent him, but he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Neh 6:13 For this purpose he was hired, that I should be afraid and act in this way and sin, and so they could give me an evil name, in order to taunt me.

Neh 6:14 Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, O my God, according to these things that they did, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who wanted to make me afraid.

Neh 6:15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

Neh 6:16 And when all our enemies heard of it, all the nations round about us were afraid and fell greatly in their own esteem; for they perceived that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

Neh 6:17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.

Neh 6:18 For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah: and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as his wife.

Neh 6:19 Also they spoke of his good deeds in my presence, and reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to make me afraid.

Neh 7:1 Now when the wall had been built and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,

Neh 7:2 I gave my brother Hanani and Hananiah the governor of the castle charge over Jerusalem, for he was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many.

Neh 7:3 And I said to them, "Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they are still standing guard let them shut and bar the doors. Appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each to his station and each opposite his own house."

Neh 7:4 The city was wide and large, but the people within it were few and no houses had been built.

Neh 7:5 Then God put it into my mind to assemble the nobles and the officials and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it:

Neh 7:6 These were the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of those exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried into exile; they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his town.

Neh 7:7 They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

Neh 7:9 The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two.

Neh 7:10 The sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two.

Neh 7:11 The sons of Pahathmoab, namely the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

Neh 7:12 The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four.

Neh 7:13 The sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five.

Neh 7:14 The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty.

Neh 7:15 The sons of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight.

Neh 7:16 The sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight.

Neh 7:23 The sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four.

Neh 7:24 The sons of Hariph, a hundred and twelve.

Neh 7:25 The sons of Gibeon, ninety-five.

Neh 7:26 The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, a hundred and eighty-eight.

Neh 7:27 The men of Anathoth, a hundred and twenty-eight.

Neh 7:28 The men of Bethazmaveth, forty-two.

Neh 7:29 The men of Kiriathjearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three.

Neh 7:30 The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one.

Neh 7:31 The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty-two.

Neh 7:32 The men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred and twenty-three.
Neh 7:33 The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two.
Neh 7:34 The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four.
Neh 7:35 The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty.
Neh 7:36 The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five.
Neh 7:37 The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one.
Neh 7:38 The sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
Neh 7:39 The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, namely the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three.
Neh 7:40 The sons of Immer, a thousand and fifty-two.
Neh 7:41 The sons of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred and forty-seven.
Neh 7:42 The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
Neh 7:43 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, namely of Kadmiel of the sons of Hodevah, seventy-four.
Neh 7:44 The singers: the sons of Asaph, a hundred and forty-eight.
Neh 7:45 The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, a hundred and thirty-eight.
Neh 7:46 The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,
Neh 7:47 the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,
Neh 7:48 the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmai,
Neh 7:49 the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,
Neh 7:50 the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda,
Neh 7:51 the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah,
Neh 7:52 the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephushesim,
Neh 7:53 the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,
Neh 7:54 the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,
Neh 7:55 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,
Neh 7:56 the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha.
Neh 7:57 The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,
Neh 7:58 the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,
Neh 7:59 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pocherethhazzebaim, the sons of Amon.
Neh 7:60 All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.
Neh 7:61 The following were those who came up from Telmelah, Telharsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not prove their fathers' houses nor their descent, whether they belonged to Israel:
Neh 7:62 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two.
Neh 7:63 Also, of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai (who had taken a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name).
Neh 7:64 These sought their registration among those enrolled in the genealogies, but it was not found there, so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean;
Neh 7:65 the governor told them that they were not to partake of the most holy food, until a priest with Urim and Thummim should arise.
Neh 7:66 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
Neh 7:67 besides their menservants and maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five singers, male and female.
Neh 7:68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,
Neh 7:69 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and their asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
Neh 7:70 Now some of the heads of fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury a thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.
Neh 7:71 And some of the heads of fathers' houses gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold and two thousand two hundred minas of silver.
Neh 7:72 And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments.
Neh 7:73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel, lived in their towns. And when the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their towns.
Neh 8:1 And all the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel.
Neh 8:2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.
Neh 8:3 And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

Neh 8:4 And Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden pulpit which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam on his left hand.

Neh 8:5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people; and when he opened it all the people stood.

Neh 8:6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God; and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Neh 8:7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, the Levites, helped the people to understand the law, while the people remained in their places.

Neh 8:8 And they read from the book, from the law of God, clearly; and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

Neh 8:9 And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

Neh 8:10 Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

Neh 8:11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, "Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved."

Neh 8:12 And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

Neh 8:13 On the second day the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to Ezra the scribe in order to study the words of the law.

Neh 8:14 And they found it written in the law that the LORD had commanded by Moses that the people of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh month,

Neh 8:15 and that they should publish and proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem, "Go out to the hills and bring branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, as it is written."

Neh 8:16 So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

Neh 8:17 And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and dwelt in the booths; for from the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing.

Neh 8:18 And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

Neh 9:1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Israel were assembled with fasting and in sackcloth, and with earth upon their heads.

Neh 9:2 And the Israelites separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

Neh 9:3 And they stood up in their place and read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day; for another fourth of it they made confession and worshiped the LORD their God.

Neh 9:4 Upon the stairs of the Levites stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani; and they cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

Neh 9:5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be thy glorious name which is exalted above all blessing and praise."

Neh 9:6 And Ezra said: "Thou art the LORD, thou alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and thou preservest all of them; and the host of heaven worships thee.

Neh 9:7 Thou art the LORD, the God who didst choose Abram and bring him forth out of Ur of the Chaldeans and give him the name Abraham;

Neh 9:8 and thou didst find his heart faithful before thee, and didst make with him the covenant to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Girgashite; and thou hast fulfilled thy promise, for thou art righteous.

Neh 9:9 "And thou didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt and hear their cry at the Red Sea,

Neh 9:10 and didst perform signs and wonders against Pharaoh and all his servants and all the people of his land, for thou knewest that they acted insolently against our fathers; and thou didst get thee a name, as it is to this day.

Neh 9:11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on dry land; and thou didst cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into mighty waters.

Neh 9:12 By a pillar of cloud thou didst lead them in the day, and by a pillar of fire in the night to light for them the way in which they should go.

Neh 9:13 Thou didst come down upon Mount Sinai, and speak with them from heaven and give them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments,

Neh 9:14 and thou didst make known to them thy holy sabbath and command them commandments and statutes and a law by Moses thy servant.

Neh 9:15 Thou didst give them bread from heaven for their hunger and bring forth water for them from the rock for their thirst, and thou didst tell them to go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

Neh 9:16 "But they and our fathers acted presumptuously and stiffened their neck and did not obey thy commandments;

Neh 9:17 they refused to obey, and were not mindful of the wonders which thou didst perform among them; but they stiffened their neck and appointed a leader to return to their bondage in Egypt. But thou art a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and didst not forsake them.

Neh 9:18 Even when they had made for themselves a molten calf and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed great blasphemies,

Neh 9:19 thou in thy great mercies didst not forsake them in the wilderness; the pillar of cloud which led them in the way did not depart from them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night which lighted for them the way by which they should go.

Neh 9:20 Thou gavest thy good Spirit to instruct them, and didst not withhold thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

Neh 9:21 Forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

Neh 9:22 And thou didst give them kingdoms and peoples, and didst allot to them every corner; so they took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan.

Neh 9:23 Thou didst multiply their descendants as the stars of heaven, and thou didst bring them into the land which thou hadst told their fathers to enter and possess.

Neh 9:24 So the descendants went in and possessed the land, and thou didst subdue before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and didst give them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

Neh 9:25 And they captured fortified cities and a rich land, and took possession of houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, olive orchards and fruit trees in abundance; so they ate, and were filled and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

Neh 9:26 "Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against thee and cast thy law behind their back and killed thy prophets, who had warned them in order to turn them back to thee, and they committed great blasphemies.

Neh 9:27 Therefore thou didst give them into the hand of their enemies, who made them suffer; and in the time of their suffering they cried to thee and thou didst hear them from heaven; and according to thy great mercies thou didst give them saviors who saved them from the hand of their enemies.

Neh 9:28 But after they had rest they did evil again before thee, and thou didst abandon them to the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them; yet when they turned and cried to thee thou didst hear from heaven, and many times thou didst deliver them according to thy mercies.

Neh 9:29 And thou didst warn them in order to turn them back to thy law. Yet they acted presumptuously and did not obey thy commandments, but sinned against thy ordinances, by the observance of which a man shall live, and turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck and would not obey.

Neh 9:30 Many years thou didst bear with them, and didst warn them by thy Spirit through thy prophets; yet they would not give ear. Therefore thou didst give them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

Neh 9:31 Nevertheless in thy great mercies thou didst not make an end of them or forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

Neh 9:32 "Now therefore, our God, the great and mighty and terrible God, who keepest covenant and steadfast love, let not all the hardship seem little to thee that has come upon us, upon our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers, and all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria until this day.

Neh 9:33 Yet thou hast been just in all that has come upon us, for thou hast dealt faithfully and we have acted wickedly;

Neh 9:34 our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept thy law or heeded thy commandments and thy warnings which thou didst give them.

Neh 9:35 They did not serve thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness which thou gavest them, and in the large and rich land which thou didst set before them; and they did not turn from their wicked works.

Neh 9:36 Behold, we are slaves this day; in the land that thou gavest to our fathers to enjoy its fruit and its good gifts, behold, we are slaves.

Neh 9:37 And its rich yield goes to the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins; they have power also over our bodies and over our cattle at their pleasure, and we are in great distress."

Neh 9:38 Because of all this we make a firm covenant and write it, and our princes, our Levites, and our priests set their seal to it.

Neh 10:1 Those who set their seal are Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, Zedekiah,

Neh 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Neh 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,

Neh 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Neh 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Neh 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Neh 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Neh 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah; these are the priests.

Neh 10:9 And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

Neh 10:10 and their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

Neh 10:11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Neh 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Neh 10:13 Hodiah, Bani, Beninu.

Neh 10:14 The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahathmoab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

Neh 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Neh 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

Neh 10:17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

Neh 10:18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

Neh 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

Neh 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

Neh 10:21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,

Neh 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

Neh 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,

Neh 10:24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

Neh 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

Neh 10:26 Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

Neh 10:27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

Neh 10:28 The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all who have separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all who have knowledge and understanding,

Neh 10:29 join with their brethren, their nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in God's law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord and his ordinances and his statutes.

Neh 10:30 We will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons;

Neh 10:31 and if the peoples of the land bring in wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the sabbath or on a holy day; and we will forego the crops of the seventh year and the exaction of every debt.

Neh 10:32 We also lay upon ourselves the obligation to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

Neh 10:33 for the showbread, the continual cereal offering, the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, the appointed feasts, the holy things, and the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

Neh 10:34 We have likewise cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law.

Neh 10:35 We obligate ourselves to bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of the LORD;

Neh 10:36 also to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God, the first-born of our sons and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks;

Neh 10:37 and to bring the first of our coarse meal, and our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and to bring to the Levites the tithes from our ground, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our rural towns.

Neh 10:38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithes; and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, to the storehouse.

Neh 10:39 For the people of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of grain, wine, and oil to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the gatekeepers and the singers. We will not neglect the house of our God.

Neh 11:1 Now the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem; and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem the holy city, while nine tenths remained in the other towns.

Neh 11:2 And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered to live in Jerusalem.

Neh 11:3 These are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem; but in the towns of Judah every one lived on his property in their towns: Israel, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants.

Neh 11:4 And in Jerusalem lived certain of the sons of Judah and of the sons of Benjamin. Of the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez;

Neh 11:5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, son of Colhozeh, son of Hazai, son of Adai, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, son of the Shilonite.

Neh 11:6 All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

Neh 11:7 And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedai, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshai.

Neh 11:8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.

Neh 11:9 Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city.

Neh 11:10 Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,

Neh 11:11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Merai, son of Ahitub, ruler of the house of God,

Neh 11:12 and their brethren who did the work of the house, eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adai the son of Jeroham, son of Pelai, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah,

Neh 11:13 and his brethren, heads of fathers' houses, two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai, the son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer,

Neh 11:14 and their brethren, mighty men of valor, a hundred and twenty-eight; their overseer was Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim.

Neh 11:15 And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni;

Neh 11:16 and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who were over the outside work of the house of God;

Neh 11:17 and Mattaniah the son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, who was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.

Neh 11:18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

Neh 11:19 The gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon and their brethren, who kept watch at the gates, were a hundred and seventy-two.

Neh 11:20 And the rest of Israel, and of the priests and the Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

Neh 11:21 But the temple servants lived on Ophel; and Ziha and Gishpa were over the temple servants.

Neh 11:22 The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the work of the house of God.

Neh 11:23 For there was a command from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required.

Neh 11:24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerach the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

Neh 11:25 And as for the villages, with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriatharba and its villages, and in Dibon and its villages, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,

Neh 11:26 and in Jeshua and in Moladah and Bethpelet,

Neh 11:27 in Hazarshual, in Beersheba and its villages,

Neh 11:28 in Ziklag, in Meconah and its villages,

Neh 11:29 in Enrimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,

Neh 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah and its villages. So they encamped from Beersheba to the valley of Hinnom.

Neh 11:31 The people of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its villages,

Neh 11:32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

Neh 11:33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

Neh 11:34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

Neh 11:35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

Neh 11:36 And certain divisions of the Levites in Judah were joined to Benjamin.

Neh 12:1 These are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
Neh 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
Neh 12:3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
Neh 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,
Neh 12:5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,
Neh 12:6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,
Neh 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua.
Neh 12:8 And the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who with his brethren was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.
Neh 12:9 And Bakbukiah and Unno their brethren stood opposite them in the service.
Neh 12:10 And Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada,
Neh 12:11 Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.
Neh 12:12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, heads of fathers' houses: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;
Neh 12:13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;
Neh 12:14 of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;
Neh 12:15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;
Neh 12:16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
Neh 12:17 of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;
Neh 12:18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;
Neh 12:19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;
Neh 12:20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;
Neh 12:21 of Hilkiyah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.
Neh 12:22 As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of fathers' houses; also the priests until the reign of Darius the Persian.
Neh 12:23 The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' houses, were written in the Book of the Chronicles until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.
Neh 12:24 And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, watch corresponding to watch.
Neh 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers standing guard at the storehouses of the gates.
Neh 12:26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest the scribe.
Neh 12:27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, with thanksgivings and with singing, with cymbals, harps, and lyres.
Neh 12:28 And the sons of the singers gathered together from the circuit round Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophathites;
Neh 12:29 also from Bethgilgal and from the region of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built for themselves villages around Jerusalem.
Neh 12:30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people and the gates and the wall.
Neh 12:31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies which gave thanks and went in procession. One went to the right upon the wall to the Dung Gate;
Neh 12:32 and after them went Hoshai and half of the princes of Judah,
Neh 12:33 and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,
Neh 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,
Neh 12:35 and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph;
Neh 12:36 and his kinsmen, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe went before them.
Neh 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they went up straight before them by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, to the Water Gate on the east.
Neh 12:38 The other company of those who gave thanks went to the left, and I followed them with half of the people, upon the wall, above the Tower of the Ovens, to the Broad Wall,
Neh 12:39 and above the Gate of Ephraim, and by the Old Gate, and by the Fish Gate and the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate; and they came to a halt at the Gate of the Guard.

Neh 12:40 So both companies of those who gave thanks stood in the house of God, and I and half of the officials with me;
Neh 12:41 and the priests Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;
Neh 12:42 and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang with Jezrahiah as their leader.
Neh 12:43 And they offered great sacrifices that day and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and children also rejoiced. And the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.
Neh 12:44 On that day men were appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions required by the law for the priests and for the Levites according to the fields of the towns; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who ministered.
Neh 12:45 And they performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.
Neh 12:46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and there were songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.
Neh 12:47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers; and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.
Neh 13:1 On that day they read from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God;
Neh 13:2 for they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them -- yet our God turned the curse into a blessing.
Neh 13:3 When the people heard the law, they separated from Israel all those of foreign descent.
Neh 13:4 Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, and who was connected with Tobiah,
Neh 13:5 prepared for Tobiah a large chamber where they had previously put the cereal offering, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of grain, wine, and oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.
Neh 13:6 While this was taking place I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king. And after some time I asked leave of the king
Neh 13:7 and came to Jerusalem, and I then discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, preparing for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.
Neh 13:8 And I was very angry, and I threw all the household furniture of Tobiah out of the chamber.
Neh 13:9 Then I gave orders and they cleansed the chambers; and I brought back thither the vessels of the house of God, with the cereal offering and the frankincense.
Neh 13:10 I also found out that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled each to his field.
Neh 13:11 So I remonstrated with the officials and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their stations.
Neh 13:12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, wine, and oil into the storehouses.
Neh 13:13 And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and as their assistant Hanan the son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, for they were counted faithful; and their duty was to distribute to their brethren.
Neh 13:14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service.
Neh 13:15 In those days I saw in Judah men treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on asses; and also wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I warned them on the day when they sold food.
Neh 13:16 Men of Tyre also, who lived in the city, brought in fish and all kinds of wares and sold them on the sabbath to the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem.
Neh 13:17 Then I remonstrated with the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this evil thing which you are doing, profaning the sabbath day?
Neh 13:18 Did not your fathers act in this way, and did not our God bring all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."
Neh 13:19 When it began to be dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and gave orders that they should not be opened until after the sabbath. And I set some of my servants over the gates, that no burden might be brought in on the sabbath day.
Neh 13:20 Then the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

Neh 13:21 But I warned them and said to them, "Why do you lodge before the wall? If you do so again I will lay hands on you." From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

Neh 13:22 And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of thy steadfast love.

Neh 13:23 In those days also I saw the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab;

Neh 13:24 and half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and they could not speak the language of Judah, but the language of each people.

Neh 13:25 And I contended with them and cursed them and beat some of them and pulled out their hair; and I made them take oath in the name of God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

Neh 13:26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin on account of such women? Among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless foreign women made even him to sin.

Neh 13:27 Shall we then listen to you and do all this great evil and act treacherously against our God by marrying foreign women?"

Neh 13:28 And one of the sons of Jehoiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was the son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I chased him from me.

Neh 13:29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

Neh 13:30 Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and I established the duties of the priests and Levites, each in his work;

Neh 13:31 and I provided for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Est 1:1 In the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned from India to Ethiopia over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces,

Est 1:2 in those days when King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in Susa the capital,

Est 1:3 in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his princes and servants, the army chiefs of Persia and Media and the nobles and governors of the provinces being before him,

Est 1:4 while he showed the riches of his royal glory and the splendor and pomp of his majesty for many days, a hundred and eighty days.

Est 1:5 And when these days were completed, the king gave for all the people present in Susa the capital, both great and small, a banquet lasting for seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.

Est 1:6 There were white cotton curtains and blue hangings caught up with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars, and also couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and precious stones.

Est 1:7 Drinks were served in golden goblets, goblets of different kinds, and the royal wine was lavished according to the bounty of the king.

Est 1:8 And drinking was according to the law, no one was compelled; for the king had given orders to all the officials of his palace to do as every man desired.

Est 1:9 Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

Est 1:10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served King Ahasuerus as chamberlains,

Est 1:11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king with her royal crown, in order to show the peoples and the princes her beauty; for she was fair to behold.

Est 1:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command conveyed by the eunuchs. At this the king was enraged, and his anger burned within him.

Est 1:13 Then the king said to the wise men who knew the times -- for this was the king's procedure toward all who were versed in law and judgment,

Est 1:14 the men next to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom -- :

Est 1:15 "According to the law, what is to be done to Queen Vashti, because she has not performed the command of King Ahasuerus conveyed by the eunuchs?"

Est 1:16 Then Memucan said in presence of the king and the princes, "Not only to the king has Queen Vashti done wrong, but also to all the princes and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

Est 1:17 For this deed of the queen will be made known to all women, causing them to look with contempt upon their husbands, since they will say, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, and she did not come.'

Est 1:18 This very day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's behavior will be telling it to all the king's princes, and there will be contempt and wrath in plenty.

Est 1:19 If it please the king, let a royal order go forth from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes so that it may not be altered, that Vashti is to come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she.

Est 1:20 So when the decree made by the king is proclaimed throughout all his kingdom, vast as it is, all women will give honor to their husbands, high and low."

Est 1:21 This advice pleased the king and the princes, and the king did as Memucan proposed;

Est 1:22 he sent letters to all the royal provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, that every man be lord in his own house and speak according to the language of his people.

Est 2:1 After these things, when the anger of King Ahasuerus had abated, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her.

Est 2:2 Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought out for the king.

Est 2:3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather all the beautiful young virgins to the harem in Susa the capital, under custody of Hegai the king's eunuch who is in charge of the women; let their ointments be given them.

Est 2:4 And let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This pleased the king, and he did so.

Est 2:5 Now there was a Jew in Susa the capital whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjaminite,

Est 2:6 who had been carried away from Jerusalem among the captives carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away.

Est 2:7 He had brought up Hadassah, that is Esther, the daughter of his uncle, for she had neither father nor mother; the maiden was beautiful and lovely, and when her father and her mother died, Mordecai adopted her as his own daughter.

Est 2:8 So when the king's order and his edict were proclaimed, and when many maidens were gathered in Susa the capital in custody of Hegai, Esther also was taken into the king's palace and put in custody of Hegai who had charge of the women.

Est 2:9 And the maiden pleased him and won his favor; and he quickly provided her with her ointments and her portion of food, and with seven chosen maids from the king's palace, and advanced her and her maids to the best place in the harem.

Est 2:10 Esther had not made known her people or kindred, for Mordecai had charged her not to make it known.

Est 2:11 And every day Mordecai walked in front of the court of the harem, to learn how Esther was and how she fared.

Est 2:12 Now when the turn came for each maiden to go in to King Ahasuerus, after being twelve months under the regulations for the women, since this was the regular period of their beautifying, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and ointments for women --

Est 2:13 when the maiden went in to the king in this way she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

Est 2:14 In the evening she went, and in the morning she came back to the second harem in custody of Shaashgaz the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines; she did not go in to the king again, unless the king delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

Est 2:15 When the turn came for Esther the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his own daughter, to go in to the king, she asked for nothing except what Hegai the king's eunuch, who had charge of the women, advised. Now Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.

Est 2:16 And when Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus into his royal palace in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign,

Est 2:17 the king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Est 2:18 Then the king gave a great banquet to all his princes and servants; it was Esther's banquet. He also granted a remission of taxes to the provinces, and gave gifts with royal liberality.

Est 2:19 When the virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

Est 2:20 Now Esther had not made known her kindred or her people, as Mordecai had charged her; for Esther obeyed Mordecai just as when she was brought up by him.

Est 2:21 And in those days, as Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who guarded the threshold, became angry and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

Est 2:22 And this came to the knowledge of Mordecai, and he told it to Queen Esther, and Esther told the king in the name of Mordecai.

Est 2:23 When the affair was investigated and found to be so, the men were both hanged on the gallows. And it was recorded in the Book of the Chronicles in the presence of the king.

Est 3:1 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the Agagite, the son of Hammedatha, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.

Est 3:2 And all the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and did obeisance to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow down or do obeisance.

Est 3:3 Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the king's command?"

Est 3:4 And when they spoke to him day after day and he would not listen to them, they told Haman, in order to see whether Mordecai's words would avail; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

Est 3:5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow down or do obeisance to him, Haman was filled with fury.

Est 3:6 But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone. So, as they had made known to him the people of Mordecai, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

Est 3:7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is the lot, before Haman day after day; and they cast it month after month till the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

Est 3:8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of every other people, and they do not keep the king's laws, so that it is not for the king's profit to tolerate them.

Est 3:9 If it please the king, let it be decreed that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who have charge of the king's business, that they may put it into the king's treasuries."

Est 3:10 So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the Agagite, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews.

Est 3:11 And the king said to Haman, "The money is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you."

Est 3:12 Then the king's secretaries were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and an edict, according to all that Haman commanded, was written to the king's satraps and to the governors over all the provinces and to the princes of all the peoples, to every province in its own script and every people in its own language; it was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's ring.

Est 3:13 Letters were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to annihilate all Jews, young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.

Est 3:14 A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province by proclamation to all the peoples to be ready for that day.

Est 3:15 The couriers went in haste by order of the king, and the decree was issued in Susa the capital. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Susa was perplexed.

Est 4:1 When Mordecai learned all that had been done, Mordecai rent his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, wailing with a loud and bitter cry;

Est 4:2 he went up to the entrance of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

Est 4:3 And in every province, wherever the king's command and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting and weeping and lamenting, and most of them lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Est 4:4 When Esther's maids and her eunuchs came and told her, the queen was deeply distressed; she sent garments to clothe Mordecai, so that he might take off his sackcloth, but he would not accept them.

Est 4:5 Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, who had been appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what this was and why it was.

Est 4:6 Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king's gate,

Est 4:7 and Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.

Est 4:8 Mordecai also gave him a copy of the written decree issued in Susa for their destruction, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her and charge her to go to the king to make supplication to him and entreat him for her people.

Est 4:9 And Hathach went and told Esther what Mordecai had said.

Est 4:10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach and gave him a message for Mordecai, saying,

Est 4:11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that if any man or woman goes to the king inside the inner court without being called, there is but one law; all alike are to be put to death, except the one to whom the king holds out the golden scepter that he may live. And I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days."

Est 4:12 And they told Mordecai what Esther had said.

Est 4:13 Then Mordecai told them to return answer to Esther, "Think not that in the king's palace you will escape any more than all the other Jews.

Est 4:14 For if you keep silence at such a time as this, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another quarter, but you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

Est 4:15 Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai,

Est 4:16 "Go, gather all the Jews to be found in Susa, and hold a fast on my behalf, and neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids will also fast as you do. Then I will go to the king, though it is against the law; and if I perish, I perish."

Est 4:17 Mordecai then went away and did everything as Esther had ordered him.

Est 5:1 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, opposite the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne inside the palace opposite the entrance to the palace;

Est 5:2 and when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she found favor in his sight and he held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

Est 5:3 And the king said to her, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you, even to the half of my kingdom."

Est 5:4 And Esther said, "If it please the king, let the king and Haman come this day to a dinner that I have prepared for the king."

Est 5:5 Then said the king, "Bring Haman quickly, that we may do as Esther desires." So the king and Haman came to the dinner that Esther had prepared.

Est 5:6 And as they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled."

Est 5:7 But Esther said, "My petition and my request is:

Est 5:8 If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the dinner which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

Est 5:9 And Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart. But when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he neither rose nor trembled before him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai.

Est 5:10 Nevertheless Haman restrained himself, and went home; and he sent and fetched his friends and his wife Zeresh.

Est 5:11 And Haman recounted to them the splendor of his riches, the number of his sons, all the promotions with which the king had honored him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and the servants of the king.

Est 5:12 And Haman added, "Even Queen Esther let no one come with the king to the banquet she prepared but myself. And tomorrow also I am invited by her together with the king."

Est 5:13 Yet all this does me no good, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

Est 5:14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows fifty cubits high be made, and in the morning tell the king to have Mordecai hanged upon it; then go merrily with the king to the dinner." This counsel pleased Haman, and he had the gallows made.

Est 6:1 On that night the king could not sleep; and he gave orders to bring the book of memorable deeds, the chronicles, and they were read before the king.

Est 6:2 And it was found written how Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who guarded the threshold, and who had sought to lay hands upon King Ahasuerus.

Est 6:3 And the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" The king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

Est 6:4 And the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to speak to the king about having Mordecai hanged on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

Est 6:5 So the king's servants told him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

Est 6:6 So Haman came in, and the king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?" And Haman said to himself, "Whom would the king delight to honor more than me?"

Est 6:7 and Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor,

Est 6:8 let royal robes be brought, which the king has worn, and the horse which the king has ridden, and on whose head a royal crown is set;

Est 6:9 and let the robes and the horse be handed over to one of the king's most noble princes; let him array the man whom the king delights to honor, and let him conduct the man on horseback through the open square of the city, proclaiming before him: `Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.'"

Est 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, "Make haste, take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do so to Mordecai the Jew who sits at the king's gate. Leave out nothing that you have mentioned."

Est 6:11 So Haman took the robes and the horse, and he arrayed Mordecai and made him ride through the open square of the city, proclaiming, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor."

Est 6:12 Then Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered.

Est 6:13 And Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of the Jewish people, you will not prevail against him but will surely fall before him."

Est 6:14 While they were yet talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and brought Haman in haste to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Est 7:1 So the king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther.

Est 7:2 And on the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled."

Est 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.

Est 7:4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; for our affliction is not to be compared with the loss to the king."

Est 7:5 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, that would presume to do this?"

Est 7:6 And Esther said, "A foe and enemy! This wicked Haman!" Then Haman was in terror before the king and the queen.

Est 7:7 And the king rose from the feast in wrath and went into the palace garden; but Haman stayed to beg his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.

Est 7:8 And the king returned from the palace garden to the place where they were drinking wine, as Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was; and the king said, "Will he even assault the queen in my presence, in my own house?" As the words left the mouth of the king, they covered Haman's face.

Est 7:9 Then said Harbona, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, "Moreover, the gallows which Haman has prepared for Mordecai, whose word saved the king, is standing in Haman's house, fifty cubits high."

Est 7:10 And the king said, "Hang him on that." So they hanged Haman on the gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the anger of the king abated.

Est 8:1 On that day King Ahasuerus gave to Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told what he was to her;

Est 8:2 and the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Est 8:3 Then Esther spoke again to the king; she fell at his feet and besought him with tears to avert the evil design of Haman the Agagite and the plot which he had devised against the Jews.

Est 8:4 And the king held out the golden scepter to Esther,

Est 8:5 and Esther rose and stood before the king. And she said, "If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and if the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let an order be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman the Agagite, the son of Hammedatha, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the provinces of the king.

Est 8:6 For how can I endure to see the calamity that is coming to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

Est 8:7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows, because he would lay hands on the Jews.

Est 8:8 And you may write as you please with regard to the Jews, in the name of the king, and seal it with the king's ring; for an edict written in the name of the king and sealed with the king's ring cannot be revoked."

Est 8:9 The king's secretaries were summoned at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and an edict was written according to all that Mordecai commanded concerning the Jews to the satraps and the governors and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, and also to the Jews in their script and their language.

Est 8:10 The writing was in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's ring, and letters were sent by mounted couriers riding on swift horses that were used in the king's service, bred from the royal stud.

Est 8:11 By these the king allowed the Jews who were in every city to gather and defend their lives, to destroy, to slay, and to annihilate any armed force of any people or province that might attack them, with their children and women, and to plunder their goods,

Est 8:12 upon one day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

Est 8:13 A copy of what was written was to be issued as a decree in every province, and by proclamation to all peoples, and the Jews were to be ready on that day to avenge themselves upon their enemies.

Est 8:14 So the couriers, mounted on their swift horses that were used in the king's service, rode out in haste, urged by the king's command; and the decree was issued in Susa the capital.

Est 8:15 Then Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal robes of blue and white, with a great golden crown and a mantle of fine linen and purple, while the city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.

Est 8:16 The Jews had light and gladness and joy and honor.

Est 8:17 And in every province and in every city, wherever the king's command and his edict came, there was gladness and joy among the Jews, a feast and a holiday. And many from the peoples of the country declared themselves Jews, for the fear of the Jews had fallen upon them.

Est 9:1 Now in the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's command and edict were about to be executed, on the very day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to get the mastery over them, but which had been changed to a day when the Jews should get the mastery over their foes,

Est 9:2 the Jews gathered in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on such as sought their hurt. And no one could make a stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen upon all peoples.

Est 9:3 All the princes of the provinces and the satraps and the governors and the royal officials also helped the Jews, for the fear of Mordecai had fallen upon them.

Est 9:4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew more and more powerful.

Est 9:5 So the Jews smote all their enemies with the sword, slaughtering, and destroying them, and did as they pleased to those who hated them.

Est 9:6 In Susa the capital itself the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men,

Est 9:7 and also slew Parshandatha and Dalphon and Aspatha

Est 9:8 and Poratha and Adalia and Aridatha

Est 9:9 and Parmashta and Arisai and Aridai and Vaizatha,

Est 9:10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews; but they laid no hand on the plunder.

Est 9:11 That very day the number of those slain in Susa the capital was reported to the king.

Est 9:12 And the king said to Queen Esther, "In Susa the capital the Jews have slain five hundred men and also the ten sons of Haman. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what further is your request? It shall be fulfilled."

Est 9:13 And Esther said, "If it please the king, let the Jews who are in Susa be allowed tomorrow also to do according to this day's edict. And let the ten sons of Haman be hanged on the gallows."

Est 9:14 So the king commanded this to be done; a decree was issued in Susa, and the ten sons of Haman were hanged.

Est 9:15 The Jews who were in Susa gathered also on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and they slew three hundred men in Susa; but they laid no hands on the plunder.

Est 9:16 Now the other Jews who were in the king's provinces also gathered to defend their lives, and got relief from their enemies, and slew seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they laid no hands on the plunder.

Est 9:17 This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made that a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:18 But the Jews who were in Susa gathered on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth, and rested on the fifteenth day, making that a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the open towns, hold the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day for gladness and feasting and holiday-making, and a day on which they send choice portions to one another.

Est 9:20 And Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

Est 9:21 enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same, year by year,

Est 9:22 as the days on which the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending choice portions to one another and gifts to the poor.

Est 9:23 So the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them.

Est 9:24 For Haman the Agagite, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to crush and destroy them;

Est 9:25 but when Esther came before the king, he gave orders in writing that his wicked plot which he had devised against the Jews should come upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Est 9:26 Therefore they called these days Purim, after the term Pur. And therefore, because of all that was written in this letter, and of what they had faced in this matter, and of what had befallen them,

Est 9:27 the Jews ordained and took it upon themselves and their descendants and all who joined them, that without fail they would keep these two days according to what was written and at the time appointed every year,

Est 9:28 that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, in every family, province, and city, and that these days of Purim should never fall into disuse among the Jews, nor should the commemoration of these days cease among their descendants.

Est 9:29 Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew gave full written authority, confirming this second letter about Purim.

Est 9:30 Letters were sent to all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, in words of peace and truth,

Est 9:31 that these days of Purim should be observed at their appointed seasons, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther enjoined upon the Jews, and as they had laid down for themselves and for their descendants, with regard to their fasts and their lamenting.

Est 9:32 The command of Queen Esther fixed these practices of Purim, and it was recorded in writing.

Est 10:1 King Ahasuerus laid tribute on the land and on the coastlands of the sea.

Est 10:2 And all the acts of his power and might, and the full account of the high honor of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

Est 10:3 For Mordecai the Jew was next in rank to King Ahasuerus, and he was great among the Jews and popular with the multitude of his brethren, for he sought the welfare of his people and spoke peace to all his people.

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God, and turned away from evil.

Job 1:2 There were born to him seven sons and three daughters.

Job 1:3 He had seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and very many servants; so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the east.

Job 1:4 His sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each on his day; and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 And when the days of the feast had run their course, Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts." Thus Job did continually.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them.

Job 1:7 The LORD said to Satan, "Whence have you come?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

Job 1:8 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil?"

Job 1:9 Then Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nought?"

Job 1:10 Hast thou not put a hedge about him and his house and all that he has, on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

Job 1:11 But put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse thee to thy face."

Job 1:12 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power; only upon himself do not put forth your hand." So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

Job 1:13 Now there was a day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house;

Job 1:14 and there came a messenger to Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing and the asses feeding beside them;

Job 1:15 and the Sabeans fell upon them and took them, and slew the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:16 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:17 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, "The Chaldeans formed three companies, and made a raid upon the camels and took them, and slew the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:18 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house;

Job 1:19 and behold, a great wind came across the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:20 Then Job arose, and rent his robe, and shaved his head, and fell upon the ground, and worshiped.

Job 1:21 And he said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return; the LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD."

Job 1:22 In all this Job did not sin or charge God with wrong.

Job 2:1 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD.

Job 2:2 And the LORD said to Satan, "Whence have you come?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

Job 2:3 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil? He still holds fast his integrity, although you moved me against him, to destroy him without cause."

Job 2:4 Then Satan answered the LORD, "Skin for skin! All that a man has he will give for his life.

Job 2:5 But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face."

Job 2:6 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your power; only spare his life."

Job 2:7 So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and afflicted Job with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

Job 2:8 And he took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes.

Job 2:9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God, and die."

Job 2:10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job 2:11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they came each from his own place, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They made an appointment together to come to condole with him and comfort him.

Job 2:12 And when they saw him from afar, they did not recognize him; and they raised their voices and wept; and they rent their robes and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

Job 2:13 And they sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great.

Job 3:1 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

Job 3:2 And Job said:

Job 3:3 "Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night which said, 'A man-child is conceived.'

Job 3:4 Let that day be darkness! May God above not seek it, nor light shine upon it.

Job 3:5 Let gloom and deep darkness claim it. Let clouds dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

Job 3:6 That night -- let thick darkness seize it! let it not rejoice among the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

Job 3:7 Yea, let that night be barren; let no joyful cry be heard in it.

Job 3:8 Let those curse it who curse the day, who are skilled to rouse up Leviathan.

Job 3:9 Let the stars of its dawn be dark; let it hope for light, but have none, nor see the eyelids of the morning;

Job 3:10 because it did not shut the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide trouble from my eyes.

Job 3:11 "Why did I not die at birth, come forth from the womb and expire?

Job 3:12 Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breasts, that I should suck?

Job 3:13 For then I should have lain down and been quiet; I should have slept; then I should have been at rest,

Job 3:14 with kings and counselors of the earth who rebuilt ruins for themselves,

Job 3:15 or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Job 3:16 Or why was I not as a hidden untimely birth, as infants that never see the light?

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest.

Job 3:18 There the prisoners are at ease together; they hear not the voice of the taskmaster.

Job 3:19 The small and the great are there, and the slave is free from his master.

Job 3:20 "Why is light given to him that is in misery, and life to the bitter in soul,

Job 3:21 who long for death, but it comes not, and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

Job 3:22 who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they find the grave?

Job 3:23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, whom God has hedged in?

Job 3:24 For my sighing comes as my bread, and my groanings are poured out like water.

Job 3:25 For the thing that I fear comes upon me, and what I dread befalls me.

Job 3:26 I am not at ease, nor am I quiet; I have no rest; but trouble comes."

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:

Job 4:2 "If one ventures a word with you, will you be offended? Yet who can keep from speaking?

Job 4:3 Behold, you have instructed many, and you have strengthened the weak hands.

Job 4:4 Your words have upheld him who was stumbling, and you have made firm the feeble knees.
Job 4:5 But now it has come to you, and you are impatient; it touches you, and you are dismayed.
Job 4:6 Is not your fear of God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?
Job 4:7 "Think now, who that was innocent ever perished? Or where were the upright cut off?
Job 4:8 As I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap the same.
Job 4:9 By the breath of God they perish, and by the blast of his anger they are consumed.
Job 4:10 The roar of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
Job 4:11 The strong lion perishes for lack of prey, and the whelps of the lioness are scattered.
Job 4:12 "Now a word was brought to me stealthily, my ear received the whisper of it.
Job 4:13 Amid thoughts from visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men,
Job 4:14 dread came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.
Job 4:15 A spirit glided past my face; the hair of my flesh stood up.
Job 4:16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes; there was silence, then I heard a voice:
Job 4:17 `Can mortal man be righteous before God? Can a man be pure before his Maker?
Job 4:18 Even in his servants he puts no trust, and his angels he charges with error;
Job 4:19 how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth.
Job 4:20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed; they perish for ever without any regarding it.
Job 4:21 If their tent-cord is plucked up within them, do they not die, and that without wisdom?"
Job 5:1 "Call now; is there any one who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?
Job 5:2 Surely vexation kills the fool, and jealousy slays the simple.
Job 5:3 I have seen the fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling.
Job 5:4 His sons are far from safety, they are crushed in the gate, and there is no one to deliver them.
Job 5:5 His harvest the hungry eat, and he takes it even out of thorns; and the thirsty pant after his wealth.
Job 5:6 For affliction does not come from the dust, nor does trouble sprout from the ground;
Job 5:7 but man is born to trouble as the sparks fly upward.
Job 5:8 "As for me, I would seek God, and to God would I commit my cause;
Job 5:9 who does great things and unsearchable, marvelous things without number:
Job 5:10 he gives rain upon the earth and sends waters upon the fields;
Job 5:11 he sets on high those who are lowly, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.
Job 5:12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.
Job 5:13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness; and the schemes of the wily are brought to a quick end.
Job 5:14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope at noonday as in the night.
Job 5:15 But he saves the fatherless from their mouth, the needy from the hand of the mighty.
Job 5:16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts her mouth.
Job 5:17 "Behold, happy is the man whom God reproves; therefore despise not the chastening of the Almighty.
Job 5:18 For he wounds, but he binds up; he smites, but his hands heal.
Job 5:19 He will deliver you from six troubles; in seven there shall no evil touch you.
Job 5:20 In famine he will redeem you from death, and in war from the power of the sword.
Job 5:21 You shall be hid from the scourge of the tongue, and shall not fear destruction when it comes.
Job 5:22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, and shall not fear the beasts of the earth.
Job 5:23 For you shall be in league with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.
Job 5:24 You shall know that your tent is safe, and you shall inspect your fold and miss nothing.
Job 5:25 You shall know also that your descendants shall be many, and your offspring as the grass of the earth.
Job 5:26 You shall come to your grave in ripe old age, as a shock of grain comes up to the threshing floor in its season.
Job 5:27 Lo, this we have searched out; it is true. Hear, and know it for your good."
Job 6:1 Then Job answered:
Job 6:2 "O that my vexation were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances!
Job 6:3 For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea; therefore my words have been rash.
Job 6:4 For the arrows of the Almighty are in me; my spirit drinks their poison; the terrors of God are arrayed against me.
Job 6:5 Does the wild ass bray when he has grass, or the ox low over his fodder?
Job 6:6 Can that which is tasteless be eaten without salt, or is there any taste in the slime of the purslane?
Job 6:7 My appetite refuses to touch them; they are as food that is loathsome to me.
Job 6:8 "O that I might have my request, and that God would grant my desire;
Job 6:9 that it would please God to crush me, that he would let loose his hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 This would be my consolation; I would even exult in pain unsparing; for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 What is my strength, that I should wait? And what is my end, that I should be patient?

Job 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones, or is my flesh bronze?

Job 6:13 In truth I have no help in me, and any resource is driven from me.

Job 6:14 "He who withholds kindness from a friend forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

Job 6:15 My brethren are treacherous as a torrent-bed, as freshets that pass away,

Job 6:16 which are dark with ice, and where the snow hides itself.

Job 6:17 In time of heat they disappear; when it is hot, they vanish from their place.

Job 6:18 The caravans turn aside from their course; they go up into the waste, and perish.

Job 6:19 The caravans of Tema look, the travelers of Sheba hope.

Job 6:20 They are disappointed because they were confident; they come thither and are confounded.

Job 6:21 Such you have now become to me; you see my calamity, and are afraid.

Job 6:22 Have I said, 'Make me a gift'? Or, 'From your wealth offer a bribe for me'?

Job 6:23 Or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand'? Or, 'Ransom me from the hand of oppressors'?

Job 6:24 "Teach me, and I will be silent; make me understand how I have erred.

Job 6:25 How forceful are honest words! But what does reproof from you reprove?

Job 6:26 Do you think that you can reprove words, when the speech of a despairing man is wind?

Job 6:27 You would even cast lots over the fatherless, and bargain over your friend.

Job 6:28 "But now, be pleased to look at me; for I will not lie to your face.

Job 6:29 Turn, I pray, let no wrong be done. Turn now, my vindication is at stake.

Job 6:30 Is there any wrong on my tongue? Cannot my taste discern calamity?

Job 7:1 "Has not man a hard service upon earth, and are not his days like the days of a hireling?

Job 7:2 Like a slave who longs for the shadow, and like a hireling who looks for his wages,

Job 7:3 so I am allotted months of emptiness, and nights of misery are apportioned to me.

Job 7:4 When I lie down I say, 'When shall I arise?' But the night is long, and I am full of tossing till the dawn.

Job 7:5 My flesh is clothed with worms and dirt; my skin hardens, then breaks out afresh.

Job 7:6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and come to their end without hope.

Job 7:7 "Remember that my life is a breath; my eye will never again see good.

Job 7:8 The eye of him who sees me will behold me no more; while thy eyes are upon me, I shall be gone.

Job 7:9 As the cloud fades and vanishes, so he who goes down to Sheol does not come up;

Job 7:10 he returns no more to his house, nor does his place know him any more.

Job 7:11 "Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 7:12 Am I the sea, or a sea monster, that thou settest a guard over me?

Job 7:13 When I say, 'My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,'

Job 7:14 then thou dost scare me with dreams and terrify me with visions,

Job 7:15 so that I would choose strangling and death rather than my bones.

Job 7:16 I loathe my life; I would not live for ever. Let me alone, for my days are a breath.

Job 7:17 What is man, that thou dost make so much of him, and that thou dost set thy mind upon him,

Job 7:18 dost visit him every morning, and test him every moment?

Job 7:19 How long wilt thou not look away from me, nor let me alone till I swallow my spittle?

Job 7:20 If I sin, what do I do to thee, thou watcher of men? Why hast thou made me thy mark? Why have I become a burden to thee?

Job 7:21 Why dost thou not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity? For now I shall lie in the earth; thou wilt seek me, but I shall not be."

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

Job 8:2 "How long will you say these things, and the words of your mouth be a great wind?

Job 8:3 Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert the right?

Job 8:4 If your children have sinned against him, he has delivered them into the power of their transgression.

Job 8:5 If you will seek God and make supplication to the Almighty,

Job 8:6 if you are pure and upright, surely then he will rouse himself for you and reward you with a rightful habitation.

Job 8:7 And though your beginning was small, your latter days will be very great.

Job 8:8 "For inquire, I pray you, of bygone ages, and consider what the fathers have found;

Job 8:9 for we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, for our days on earth are a shadow.

Job 8:10 Will they not teach you, and tell you, and utter words out of their understanding?

Job 8:11 "Can papyrus grow where there is no marsh? Can reeds flourish where there is no water?

Job 8:12 While yet in flower and not cut down, they wither before any other plant.

Job 8:13 Such are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of the godless man shall perish.
Job 8:14 His confidence breaks in sunder, and his trust is a spider's web.
Job 8:15 He leans against his house, but it does not stand; he lays hold of it, but it does not endure.
Job 8:16 He thrives before the sun, and his shoots spread over his garden.
Job 8:17 His roots twine about the stoneheap; he lives among the rocks.
Job 8:18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it will deny him, saying, 'I have never seen you.'
Job 8:19 Behold, this is the joy of his way; and out of the earth others will spring.
Job 8:20 "Behold, God will not reject a blameless man, nor take the hand of evildoers.
Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with shouting.
Job 8:22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will be no more."
Job 9:1 Then Job answered:
Job 9:2 "Truly I know that it is so: But how can a man be just before God?
Job 9:3 If one wished to contend with him, one could not answer him once in a thousand times.
Job 9:4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength -- who has hardened himself against him, and succeeded? --
Job 9:5 he who removes mountains, and they know it not, when he overturns them in his anger;
Job 9:6 who shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble;
Job 9:7 who commands the sun, and it does not rise; who seals up the stars;
Job 9:8 who alone stretched out the heavens, and trampled the waves of the sea;
Job 9:9 who made the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the chambers of the south;
Job 9:10 who does great things beyond understanding, and marvelous things without number.
Job 9:11 Lo, he passes by me, and I see him not; he moves on, but I do not perceive him.
Job 9:12 Behold, he snatches away; who can hinder him? Who will say to him, 'What doest thou?'
Job 9:13 "God will not turn back his anger; beneath him bowed the helpers of Rahab.
Job 9:14 How then can I answer him, choosing my words with him?
Job 9:15 Though I am innocent, I cannot answer him; I must appeal for mercy to my accuser.
Job 9:16 If I summoned him and he answered me, I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.
Job 9:17 For he crushes me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause;
Job 9:18 he will not let me get my breath, but fills me with bitterness.
Job 9:19 If it is a contest of strength, behold him! If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?
Job 9:20 Though I am innocent, my own mouth would condemn me; though I am blameless, he would prove me perverse.
Job 9:21 I am blameless; I regard not myself; I loathe my life.
Job 9:22 It is all one; therefore I say, he destroys both the blameless and the wicked.
Job 9:23 When disaster brings sudden death, he mocks at the calamity of the innocent.
Job 9:24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked; he covers the faces of its judges -- if it is not he, who then is it?
Job 9:25 "My days are swifter than a runner; they flee away, they see no good.
Job 9:26 They go by like skiffs of reed, like an eagle swooping on the prey.
Job 9:27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad countenance, and be of good cheer,'
Job 9:28 I become afraid of all my suffering, for I know thou wilt not hold me innocent.
Job 9:29 I shall be condemned; why then do I labor in vain?
Job 9:30 If I wash myself with snow, and cleanse my hands with lye,
Job 9:31 yet thou wilt plunge me into a pit, and my own clothes will abhor me.
Job 9:32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I might answer him, that we should come to trial together.
Job 9:33 There is no umpire between us, who might lay his hand upon us both.
Job 9:34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not dread of him terrify me.
Job 9:35 Then I would speak without fear of him, for I am not so in myself.
Job 10:1 "I loathe my life; I will give free utterance to my complaint; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
Job 10:2 I will say to God, Do not condemn me; let me know why thou dost contend against me.
Job 10:3 Does it seem good to thee to oppress, to despise the work of thy hands and favor the designs of the wicked?
Job 10:4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? Dost thou see as man sees?
Job 10:5 Are thy days as the days of man, or thy years as man's years,
Job 10:6 that thou dost seek out my iniquity and search for my sin,
Job 10:7 although thou knowest that I am not guilty, and there is none to deliver out of thy hand?
Job 10:8 Thy hands fashioned and made me; and now thou dost turn about and destroy me.
Job 10:9 Remember that thou hast made me of clay; and wilt thou turn me to dust again?
Job 10:10 Didst thou not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese?
Job 10:11 Thou didst clothe me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews.

Job 10:12 Thou hast granted me life and steadfast love; and thy care has preserved my spirit.
Job 10:13 Yet these things thou didst hide in thy heart; I know that this was thy purpose.
Job 10:14 If I sin, thou dost mark me, and dost not acquit me of my iniquity.
Job 10:15 If I am wicked, woe to me! If I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head, for I am filled with disgrace and look upon my affliction.
Job 10:16 And if I lift myself up, thou dost hunt me like a lion, and again work wonders against me;
Job 10:17 thou dost renew thy witnesses against me, and increase thy vexation toward me; thou dost bring fresh hosts against me.
Job 10:18 "Why didst thou bring me forth from the womb? Would that I had died before any eye had seen me,
Job 10:19 and were as though I had not been, carried from the womb to the grave.
Job 10:20 Are not the days of my life few? Let me alone, that I may find a little comfort
Job 10:21 before I go whence I shall not return, to the land of gloom and deep darkness,
Job 10:22 the land of gloom and chaos, where light is as darkness."
Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:
Job 11:2 "Should a multitude of words go unanswered, and a man full of talk be vindicated?
Job 11:3 Should your babble silence men, and when you mock, shall no one shame you?
Job 11:4 For you say, 'My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in God's eyes.'
Job 11:5 But oh, that God would speak, and open his lips to you,
Job 11:6 and that he would tell you the secrets of wisdom! For he is manifold in understanding. Know then that God exacts of you less than your guilt deserves.
Job 11:7 "Can you find out the deep things of God? Can you find out the limit of the Almighty?
Job 11:8 It is higher than heaven -- what can you do? Deeper than Sheol -- what can you know?
Job 11:9 Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.
Job 11:10 If he passes through, and imprisons, and calls to judgment, who can hinder him?
Job 11:11 For he knows worthless men; when he sees iniquity, will he not consider it?
Job 11:12 But a stupid man will get understanding, when a wild ass's colt is born a man.
Job 11:13 "If you set your heart aright, you will stretch out your hands toward him.
Job 11:14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in your tents.
Job 11:15 Surely then you will lift up your face without blemish; you will be secure, and will not fear.
Job 11:16 You will forget your misery; you will remember it as waters that have passed away.
Job 11:17 And your life will be brighter than the noonday; its darkness will be like the morning.
Job 11:18 And you will have confidence, because there is hope; you will be protected and take your rest in safety.
Job 11:19 You will lie down, and none will make you afraid; many will entreat your favor.
Job 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail; all way of escape will be lost to them, and their hope is to breathe their last."
Job 12:1 Then Job answered:
Job 12:2 "No doubt you are the people, and wisdom will die with you.
Job 12:3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Who does not know such things as these?
Job 12:4 I am a laughingstock to my friends; I, who called upon God and he answered me, a just and blameless man, am a laughingstock.
Job 12:5 In the thought of one who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune; it is ready for those whose feet slip.
Job 12:6 The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke God are secure, who bring their god in their hand.
Job 12:7 "But ask the beasts, and they will teach you; the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
Job 12:8 or the plants of the earth, and they will teach you; and the fish of the sea will declare to you.
Job 12:9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
Job 12:10 In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind.
Job 12:11 Does not the ear try words as the palate tastes food?
Job 12:12 Wisdom is with the aged, and understanding in length of days.
Job 12:13 "With God are wisdom and might; he has counsel and understanding.
Job 12:14 If he tears down, none can rebuild; if he shuts a man in, none can open.
Job 12:15 If he withholds the waters, they dry up; if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.
Job 12:16 With him are strength and wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are his.
Job 12:17 He leads counselors away stripped, and judges he makes fools.
Job 12:18 He looses the bonds of kings, and binds a waistcloth on their loins.
Job 12:19 He leads priests away stripped, and overthrows the mighty.

Job 12:20 He deprives of speech those who are trusted, and takes away the discernment of the elders.
Job 12:21 He pours contempt on princes, and looses the belt of the strong.
Job 12:22 He uncovers the deeps out of darkness, and brings deep darkness to light.
Job 12:23 He makes nations great, and he destroys them: he enlarges nations, and leads them away.
Job 12:24 He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, and makes them wander in a pathless waste.
Job 12:25 They grope in the dark without light; and he makes them stagger like a drunken man.
Job 13:1 "Lo, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it.
Job 13:2 What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.
Job 13:3 But I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to argue my case with God.
Job 13:4 As for you, you whitewash with lies; worthless physicians are you all.
Job 13:5 Oh that you would keep silent, and it would be your wisdom!
Job 13:6 Hear now my reasoning, and listen to the pleadings of my lips.
Job 13:7 Will you speak falsely for God, and speak deceitfully for him?
Job 13:8 Will you show partiality toward him, will you plead the case for God?
Job 13:9 Will it be well with you when he searches you out? Or can you deceive him, as one deceives a man?
Job 13:10 He will surely rebuke you if in secret you show partiality.
Job 13:11 Will not his majesty terrify you, and the dread of him fall upon you?
Job 13:12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes, your defenses are defenses of clay.
Job 13:13 "Let me have silence, and I will speak, and let come on me what may.
Job 13:14 I will take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand.
Job 13:15 Behold, he will slay me; I have no hope; yet I will defend my ways to his face.
Job 13:16 This will be my salvation, that a godless man shall not come before him.
Job 13:17 Listen carefully to my words, and let my declaration be in your ears.
Job 13:18 Behold, I have prepared my case; I know that I shall be vindicated.
Job 13:19 Who is there that will contend with me? For then I would be silent and die.
Job 13:20 Only grant two things to me, then I will not hide myself from thy face:
Job 13:21 withdraw thy hand far from me, and let not dread of thee terrify me.
Job 13:22 Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and do thou reply to me.
Job 13:23 How many are my iniquities and my sins? Make me know my transgression and my sin.
Job 13:24 Why dost thou hide thy face, and count me as thy enemy?
Job 13:25 Wilt thou frighten a driven leaf and pursue dry chaff?
Job 13:26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
Job 13:27 Thou puttest my feet in the stocks, and watchest all my paths; thou settest a bound to the soles of my feet.
Job 13:28 Man wastes away like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.
Job 14:1 "Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.
Job 14:2 He comes forth like a flower, and withers; he flees like a shadow, and continues not.
Job 14:3 And dost thou open thy eyes upon such a one and bring him into judgment with thee?
Job 14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? There is not one.
Job 14:5 Since his days are determined, and the number of his months is with thee, and thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass,
Job 14:6 look away from him, and desist, that he may enjoy, like a hireling, his day.
Job 14:7 "For there is hope for a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its shoots will not cease.
Job 14:8 Though its root grow old in the earth, and its stump die in the ground,
Job 14:9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth branches like a young plant.
Job 14:10 But man dies, and is laid low; man breathes his last, and where is he?
Job 14:11 As waters fail from a lake, and a river wastes away and dries up,
Job 14:12 so man lies down and rises not again; till the heavens are no more he will not awake, or be roused out of his sleep.
Job 14:13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in Sheol, that thou wouldest conceal me until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
Job 14:14 If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my service I would wait, till my release should come.
Job 14:15 Thou wouldest call, and I would answer thee; thou wouldest long for the work of thy hands.
Job 14:16 For then thou wouldest number my steps, thou wouldest not keep watch over my sin;
Job 14:17 my transgression would be sealed up in a bag, and thou wouldest cover over my iniquity.
Job 14:18 "But the mountain falls and crumbles away, and the rock is removed from its place;
Job 14:19 the waters wear away the stones; the torrents wash away the soil of the earth; so thou destroyest the hope of man.

Job 14:20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passes; thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

Job 14:21 His sons come to honor, and he does not know it; they are brought low, and he perceives it not.

Job 14:22 He feels only the pain of his own body, and he mourns only for himself."

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:

Job 15:2 "Should a wise man answer with windy knowledge, and fill himself with the east wind?

Job 15:3 Should he argue in unprofitable talk, or in words with which he can do no good?

Job 15:4 But you are doing away with the fear of God, and hindering meditation before God.

Job 15:5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 "Are you the first man that was born? Or were you brought forth before the hills?

Job 15:8 Have you listened in the council of God? And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that is not clear to us?

Job 15:10 Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us, older than your father.

Job 15:11 Are the consolations of God too small for you, or the word that deals gently with you?

Job 15:12 Why does your heart carry you away, and why do your eyes flash,

Job 15:13 that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth?

Job 15:14 What is man, that he can be clean? Or he that is born of a woman, that he can be righteous?

Job 15:15 Behold, God puts no trust in his holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in his sight;

Job 15:16 how much less one who is abominable and corrupt, a man who drinks iniquity like water!

Job 15:17 "I will show you, hear me; and what I have seen I will declare Job 15:18 (what wise men have told, and their fathers have not hidden, Job 15:19 to whom alone the land was given, and no stranger passed among them).

Job 15:20 The wicked man writhes in pain all his days, through all the years that are laid up for the ruthless.

Job 15:21 Terrifying sounds are in his ears; in prosperity the destroyer will come upon him.

Job 15:22 He does not believe that he will return out of darkness, and he is destined for the sword.

Job 15:23 He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows that a day of darkness is ready at his hand;

Job 15:24 distress and anguish terrify him; they prevail against him, like a king prepared for battle.

Job 15:25 Because he has stretched forth his hand against God, and bids defiance to the Almighty,

Job 15:26 running stubbornly against him with a thick-bossed shield;

Job 15:27 because he has covered his face with his fat, and gathered fat upon his loins,

Job 15:28 and has lived in desolate cities, in houses which no man should inhabit, which were destined to become heaps of ruins;

Job 15:29 he will not be rich, and his wealth will not endure, nor will he strike root in the earth;

Job 15:30 he will not escape from darkness; the flame will dry up his shoots, and his blossom will be swept away by the wind.

Job 15:31 Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; for emptiness will be his recompense.

Job 15:32 It will be paid in full before his time, and his branch will not be green.

Job 15:33 He will shake off his unripe grape, like the vine, and cast off his blossom, like the olive tree.

Job 15:34 For the company of the godless is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.

Job 15:35 They conceive mischief and bring forth evil and their heart prepares deceit."

Job 16:1 Then Job answered:

Job 16:2 "I have heard many such things; miserable comforters are you all.

Job 16:3 Shall windy words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer?

Job 16:4 I also could speak as you do, if you were in my place; I could join words together against you, and shake my head at you.

Job 16:5 I could strengthen you with my mouth, and the solace of my lips would assuage your pain.

Job 16:6 "If I speak, my pain is not assuaged, and if I forbear, how much of it leaves me?

Job 16:7 Surely now God has worn me out; he has made desolate all my company.

Job 16:8 And he has shriveled me up, which is a witness against me; and my leanness has risen up against me, it testifies to my face.

Job 16:9 He has torn me in his wrath, and hated me; he has gnashed his teeth at me; my adversary sharpens his eyes against me.

Job 16:10 Men have gaped at me with their mouth, they have struck me insolently upon the cheek, they mass themselves together against me.

Job 16:11 God gives me up to the ungodly, and casts me into the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 I was at ease, and he broke me asunder; he seized me by the neck and dashed me to pieces; he set me up as his target,

Job 16:13 his archers surround me. He slashes open my kidneys, and does not spare; he pours out my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 He breaks me with breach upon breach; he runs upon me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and have laid my strength in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is red with weeping, and on my eyelids is deep darkness;

Job 16:17 although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 "O earth, cover not my blood, and let my cry find no resting place.

Job 16:19 Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and he that vouches for me is on high.

Job 16:20 My friends scorn me; my eye pours out tears to God,

Job 16:21 that he would maintain the right of a man with God, like that of a man with his neighbor.

Job 16:22 For when a few years have come I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

Job 17:1 My spirit is broken, my days are extinct, the grave is ready for me.

Job 17:2 Surely there are mockers about me, and my eye dwells on their provocation.

Job 17:3 "Lay down a pledge for me with thyself; who is there that will give surety for me?

Job 17:4 Since thou hast closed their minds to understanding, therefore thou wilt not let them triumph.

Job 17:5 He who informs against his friends to get a share of their property, the eyes of his children will fail.

Job 17:6 "He has made me a byword of the peoples, and I am one before whom men spit.

Job 17:7 My eye has grown dim from grief, and all my members are like a shadow.

Job 17:8 Upright men are appalled at this, and the innocent stirs himself up against the godless.

Job 17:9 Yet the righteous holds to his way, and he that has clean hands grows stronger and stronger.

Job 17:10 But you, come on again, all of you, and I shall not find a wise man among you.

Job 17:11 My days are past, my plans are broken off, the desires of my heart.

Job 17:12 They make night into day; `The light,' they say, `is near to the darkness.'

Job 17:13 If I look for Sheol as my house, if I spread my couch in darkness,

Job 17:14 if I say to the pit, `You are my father,' and to the worm, `My mother,' or `My sister,'

Job 17:15 where then is my hope? Who will see my hope?

Job 17:16 Will it go down to the bars of Sheol? Shall we descend together into the dust?"

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

Job 18:2 "How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and then we will speak.

Job 18:3 Why are we counted as cattle? Why are we stupid in your sight?

Job 18:4 You who tear yourself in your anger, shall the earth be forsaken for you, or the rock be removed out of its place?

Job 18:5 "Yea, the light of the wicked is put out, and the flame of his fire does not shine.

Job 18:6 The light is dark in his tent, and his lamp above him is put out.

Job 18:7 His strong steps are shortened and his own schemes throw him down.

Job 18:8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walks on a pitfall.

Job 18:9 A trap seizes him by the heel, a snare lays hold of him.

Job 18:10 A rope is hid for him in the ground, a trap for him in the path.

Job 18:11 Terrors frighten him on every side, and chase him at his heels.

Job 18:12 His strength is hunger-bitten, and calamity is ready for his stumbling.

Job 18:13 By disease his skin is consumed, the first-born of death consumes his limbs.

Job 18:14 He is torn from the tent in which he trusted, and is brought to the king of terrors.

Job 18:15 In his tent dwells that which is none of his; brimstone is scattered upon his habitation.

Job 18:16 His roots dry up beneath, and his branches wither above.

Job 18:17 His memory perishes from the earth, and he has no name in the street.

Job 18:18 He is thrust from light into darkness, and driven out of the world.

Job 18:19 He has no offspring or descendant among his people, and no survivor where he used to live.

Job 18:20 They of the west are appalled at his day, and horror seizes them of the east.

Job 18:21 Surely such are the dwellings of the ungodly, such is the place of him who knows not God."

Job 19:1 Then Job answered:

Job 19:2 "How long will you torment me, and break me in pieces with words?

Job 19:3 These ten times you have cast reproach upon me; are you not ashamed to wrong me?

Job 19:4 And even if it be true that I have erred, my error remains with myself.

Job 19:5 If indeed you magnify yourselves against me, and make my humiliation an argument against me,

Job 19:6 know then that God has put me in the wrong, and closed his net about me.

Job 19:7 Behold, I cry out, `Violence!' but I am not answered; I call aloud, but there is no justice.

Job 19:8 He has walled up my way, so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness upon my paths.

Job 19:9 He has stripped from me my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone, and my hope has he pulled up like a tree.

Job 19:11 He has kindled his wrath against me, and counts me as his adversary.
Job 19:12 His troops come on together; they have cast up siegeworks against me, and encamp round about my tent.
Job 19:13 "He has put my brethren far from me, and my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.
Job 19:14 My kinsfolk and my close friends have failed me;
Job 19:15 the guests in my house have forgotten me; my maidservants count me as a stranger; I have become an alien in their eyes.
Job 19:16 I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer; I must beseech him with my mouth.
Job 19:17 I am repulsive to my wife, loathsome to the sons of my own mother.
Job 19:18 Even young children despise me; when I rise they talk against me.
Job 19:19 All my intimate friends abhor me, and those whom I loved have turned against me.
Job 19:20 My bones cleave to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
Job 19:21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends, for the hand of God has touched me!
Job 19:22 Why do you, like God, pursue me? Why are you not satisfied with my flesh?
Job 19:23 "Oh that my words were written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
Job 19:24 Oh that with an iron pen and lead they were graven in the rock for ever!
Job 19:25 For I know that my Redeemer lives, and at last he will stand upon the earth;
Job 19:26 and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then from my flesh I shall see God,
Job 19:27 whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!
Job 19:28 If you say, 'How we will pursue him!' and, 'The root of the matter is found in him';
Job 19:29 be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishment of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment."
Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:
Job 20:2 "Therefore my thoughts answer me, because of my haste within me.
Job 20:3 I hear censure which insults me, and out of my understanding a spirit answers me.
Job 20:4 Do you not know this from of old, since man was placed upon earth,
Job 20:5 that the exulting of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless but for a moment?
Job 20:6 Though his height mount up to the heavens, and his head reach to the clouds,
Job 20:7 he will perish for ever like his own dung; those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
Job 20:8 He will fly away like a dream, and not be found; he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
Job 20:9 The eye which saw him will see him no more, nor will his place any more behold him.
Job 20:10 His children will seek the favor of the poor, and his hands will give back his wealth.
Job 20:11 His bones are full of youthful vigor, but it will lie down with him in the dust.
Job 20:12 "Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, though he hides it under his tongue,
Job 20:13 though he is loath to let it go, and holds it in his mouth,
Job 20:14 yet his food is turned in his stomach; it is the gall of asps within him.
Job 20:15 He swallows down riches and vomits them up again; God casts them out of his belly.
Job 20:16 He will suck the poison of asps; the tongue of a viper will kill him.
Job 20:17 He will not look upon the rivers, the streams flowing with honey and curds.
Job 20:18 He will give back the fruit of his toil, and will not swallow it down; from the profit of his trading he will get no enjoyment.
Job 20:19 For he has crushed and abandoned the poor, he has seized a house which he did not build.
Job 20:20 "Because his greed knew no rest, he will not save anything in which he delights.
Job 20:21 There was nothing left after he had eaten; therefore his prosperity will not endure.
Job 20:22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he will be in straits; all the force of misery will come upon him.
Job 20:23 To fill his belly to the full God will send his fierce anger into him, and rain it upon him as his food.
Job 20:24 He will flee from an iron weapon; a bronze arrow will strike him through.
Job 20:25 It is drawn forth and comes out of his body, the glittering point comes out of his gall; terrors come upon him.
Job 20:26 Utter darkness is laid up for his treasures; a fire not blown upon will devour him; what is left in his tent will be consumed.
Job 20:27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.
Job 20:28 The possessions of his house will be carried away, dragged off in the day of God's wrath.
Job 20:29 This is the wicked man's portion from God, the heritage decreed for him by God."
Job 21:1 Then Job answered:
Job 21:2 "Listen carefully to my words, and let this be your consolation.
Job 21:3 Bear with me, and I will speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.
Job 21:4 As for me, is my complaint against man? Why should I not be impatient?
Job 21:5 Look at me, and be appalled, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

Job 21:6 When I think of it I am dismayed, and shuddering seizes my flesh.
Job 21:7 Why do the wicked live, reach old age, and grow mighty in power?
Job 21:8 Their children are established in their presence, and their offspring before their eyes.
Job 21:9 Their houses are safe from fear, and no rod of God is upon them.
Job 21:10 Their bull breeds without fail; their cow calves, and does not cast her calf.
Job 21:11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
Job 21:12 They sing to the tambourine and the lyre, and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.
Job 21:13 They spend their days in prosperity, and in peace they go down to Sheol.
Job 21:14 They say to God, 'Depart from us! We do not desire the knowledge of thy ways.
Job 21:15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? And what profit do we get if we pray to him?'
Job 21:16 Behold, is not their prosperity in their hand? The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
Job 21:17 "How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out? That their calamity comes upon them? That God distributes pains in his anger?
Job 21:18 That they are like straw before the wind, and like chaff that the storm carries away?
Job 21:19 You say, 'God stores up their iniquity for their sons.' Let him recompense it to themselves, that they may know it.
Job 21:20 Let their own eyes see their destruction, and let them drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
Job 21:21 For what do they care for their houses after them, when the number of their months is cut off?
Job 21:22 Will any teach God knowledge, seeing that he judges those that are on high?
Job 21:23 One dies in full prosperity, being wholly at ease and secure,
Job 21:24 his body full of fat and the marrow of his bones moist.
Job 21:25 Another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted of good.
Job 21:26 They lie down alike in the dust, and the worms cover them.
Job 21:27 "Behold, I know your thoughts, and your schemes to wrong me.
Job 21:28 For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked dwelt?'
Job 21:29 Have you not asked those who travel the roads, and do you not accept their testimony
Job 21:30 that the wicked man is spared in the day of calamity, that he is rescued in the day of wrath?
Job 21:31 Who declares his way to his face, and who requites him for what he has done?
Job 21:32 When he is borne to the grave, watch is kept over his tomb.
Job 21:33 The clods of the valley are sweet to him; all men follow after him, and those who go before him are innumerable.
Job 21:34 How then will you comfort me with empty nothings? There is nothing left of your answers but falsehood."
Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
Job 22:2 "Can a man be profitable to God? Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.
Job 22:3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous, or is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?
Job 22:4 Is it for your fear of him that he reproves you, and enters into judgment with you?
Job 22:5 Is not your wickedness great? There is no end to your iniquities.
Job 22:6 For you have exacted pledges of your brothers for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing.
Job 22:7 You have given no water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.
Job 22:8 The man with power possessed the land, and the favored man dwelt in it.
Job 22:9 You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless were crushed.
Job 22:10 Therefore snares are round about you, and sudden terror overwhelms you;
Job 22:11 your light is darkened, so that you cannot see, and a flood of water covers you.
Job 22:12 "Is not God high in the heavens? See the highest stars, how lofty they are!
Job 22:13 Therefore you say, 'What does God know? Can he judge through the deep darkness?
Job 22:14 Thick clouds enwrap him, so that he does not see, and he walks on the vault of heaven.'
Job 22:15 Will you keep to the old way which wicked men have trod?
Job 22:16 They were snatched away before their time; their foundation was washed away.
Job 22:17 They said to God, 'Depart from us,' and 'What can the Almighty do to us?'
Job 22:18 Yet he filled their houses with good things -- but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
Job 22:19 The righteous see it and are glad; the innocent laugh them to scorn,
Job 22:20 saying, 'Surely our adversaries are cut off, and what they left the fire has consumed.'
Job 22:21 "Agree with God, and be at peace; thereby good will come to you.
Job 22:22 Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart.
Job 22:23 If you return to the Almighty and humble yourself, if you remove unrighteousness far from your tents,
Job 22:24 if you lay gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent bed,
Job 22:25 and if the Almighty is your gold, and your precious silver;

Job 22:26 then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and lift up your face to God.
Job 22:27 You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you; and you will pay your vows.
Job 22:28 You will decide on a matter, and it will be established for you, and light will shine on your ways.
Job 22:29 For God abases the proud, but he saves the lowly.
Job 22:30 He delivers the innocent man; you will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."
Job 23:1 Then Job answered:
Job 23:2 "Today also my complaint is bitter, his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.
Job 23:3 Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his seat!
Job 23:4 I would lay my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.
Job 23:5 I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.
Job 23:6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; he would give heed to me.
Job 23:7 There an upright man could reason with him, and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.
Job 23:8 "Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him;
Job 23:9 on the left hand I seek him, but I cannot behold him; I turn to the right hand, but I cannot see him.
Job 23:10 But he knows the way that I take; when he has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
Job 23:11 My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept his way and have not turned aside.
Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured in my bosom the words of his mouth.
Job 23:13 But he is unchangeable and who can turn him? What he desires, that he does.
Job 23:14 For he will complete what he appoints for me; and many such things are in his mind.
Job 23:15 Therefore I am terrified at his presence; when I consider, I am in dread of him.
Job 23:16 God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me;
Job 23:17 for I am hemmed in by darkness, and thick darkness covers my face.
Job 24:1 "Why are not times of judgment kept by the Almighty, and why do those who know him never see his days?
Job 24:2 Men remove landmarks; they seize flocks and pasture them.
Job 24:3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
Job 24:4 They thrust the poor off the road; the poor of the earth all hide themselves.
Job 24:5 Behold, like wild asses in the desert they go forth to their toil, seeking prey in the wilderness as food for their children.
Job 24:6 They gather their fodder in the field and they glean the vineyard of the wicked man.
Job 24:7 They lie all night naked, without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.
Job 24:8 They are wet with the rain of the mountains, and cling to the rock for want of shelter.
Job 24:9 (There are those who snatch the fatherless child from the breast, and take in pledge the infant of the poor.)
Job 24:10 They go about naked, without clothing; hungry, they carry the sheaves;
Job 24:11 among the olive rows of the wicked they make oil; they tread the wine presses, but suffer thirst.
Job 24:12 From out of the city the dying groan, and the soul of the wounded cries for help; yet God pays no attention to their prayer.
Job 24:13 "There are those who rebel against the light, who are not acquainted with its ways, and do not stay in its paths.
Job 24:14 The murderer rises in the dark, that he may kill the poor and needy; and in the night he is as a thief.
Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer also waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye will see me'; and he disguises his face.
Job 24:16 In the dark they dig through houses; by day they shut themselves up; they do not know the light.
Job 24:17 For deep darkness is morning to all of them; for they are friends with the terrors of deep darkness.
Job 24:18 "You say, "They are swiftly carried away upon the face of the waters; their portion is cursed in the land; no treader turns toward their vineyards.
Job 24:19 Drought and heat snatch away the snow waters; so does Sheol those who have sinned.
Job 24:20 The squares of the town forget them; their name is no longer remembered; so wickedness is broken like a tree.'
Job 24:21 "They feed on the barren childless woman, and do no good to the widow.
Job 24:22 Yet God prolongs the life of the mighty by his power; they rise up when they despair of life.
Job 24:23 He gives them security, and they are supported; and his eyes are upon their ways.
Job 24:24 They are exalted a little while, and then are gone; they wither and fade like the mallow; they are cut off like the heads of grain.
Job 24:25 If it is not so, who will prove me a liar, and show that there is nothing in what I say?"
Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
Job 25:2 "Dominion and fear are with God; he makes peace in his high heaven.

Job 25:3 Is there any number to his armies? Upon whom does his light not arise?
Job 25:4 How then can man be righteous before God? How can he who is born of woman be clean?
Job 25:5 Behold, even the moon is not bright and the stars are not clean in his sight;
Job 25:6 how much less man, who is a maggot, and the son of man, who is a worm!"
Job 26:1 Then Job answered:
Job 26:2 "How you have helped him who has no power! How you have saved the arm that has no strength!
Job 26:3 How you have counseled him who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge!
Job 26:4 With whose help have you uttered words, and whose spirit has come forth from you?
Job 26:5 The shades below tremble, the waters and their inhabitants.
Job 26:6 Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering.
Job 26:7 He stretches out the north over the void, and hangs the earth upon nothing.
Job 26:8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, and the cloud is not rent under them.
Job 26:9 He covers the face of the moon, and spreads over it his cloud.
Job 26:10 He has described a circle upon the face of the waters at the boundary between light and darkness.
Job 26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astounded at his rebuke.
Job 26:12 By his power he stilled the sea; by his understanding he smote Rahab.
Job 26:13 By his wind the heavens were made fair; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
Job 26:14 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways; and how small a whisper do we hear of him! But the thunder of his power who can understand?"
Job 27:1 And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
Job 27:2 "As God lives, who has taken away my right, and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter;
Job 27:3 as long as my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;
Job 27:4 my lips will not speak falsehood, and my tongue will not utter deceit.
Job 27:5 Far be it from me to say that you are right; till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
Job 27:6 I hold fast my righteousness, and will not let it go; my heart does not reproach me for any of my days.
Job 27:7 "Let my enemy be as the wicked, and let him that rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
Job 27:8 For what is the hope of the godless when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life?
Job 27:9 Will God hear his cry, when trouble comes upon him?
Job 27:10 Will he take delight in the Almighty? Will he call upon God at all times?
Job 27:11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God; what is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
Job 27:12 Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; why then have you become altogether vain?
Job 27:13 "This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage which oppressors receive from the Almighty:
Job 27:14 If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring have not enough to eat.
Job 27:15 Those who survive him the pestilence buries, and their widows make no lamentation.
Job 27:16 Though he heap up silver like dust, and pile up clothing like clay;
Job 27:17 he may pile it up, but the just will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver.
Job 27:18 The house which he builds is like a spider's web, like a booth which a watchman makes.
Job 27:19 He goes to bed rich, but will do so no more; he opens his eyes, and his wealth is gone.
Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; in the night a whirlwind carries him off.
Job 27:21 The east wind lifts him up and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.
Job 27:22 It hurls at him without pity; he flees from its power in headlong flight.
Job 27:23 It claps its hands at him, and hisses at him from its place.
Job 28:1 "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold which they refine.
Job 28:2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from the ore.
Job 28:3 Men put an end to darkness, and search out to the farthest bound the ore in gloom and deep darkness.
Job 28:4 They open shafts in a valley away from where men live; they are forgotten by travelers, they hang afar from men, they swing to and fro.
Job 28:5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread; but underneath it is turned up as by fire.
Job 28:6 Its stones are the place of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.
Job 28:7 "That path no bird of prey knows, and the falcon's eye has not seen it.
Job 28:8 The proud beasts have not trodden it; the lion has not passed over it.
Job 28:9 "Man puts his hand to the flinty rock, and overturns mountains by the roots.
Job 28:10 He cuts out channels in the rocks, and his eye sees every precious thing.
Job 28:11 He binds up the streams so that they do not trickle, and the thing that is hid he brings forth to light.
Job 28:12 "But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?
Job 28:13 Man does not know the way to it, and it is not found in the land of the living.
Job 28:14 The deep says, 'It is not in me,' and the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

Job 28:15 It cannot be gotten for gold, and silver cannot be weighed as its price.
Job 28:16 It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, in precious onyx or sapphire.
Job 28:17 Gold and glass cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
