

The VATICAN; World's Oldest Political Machine.

An Introduction.

As one reads the long and bloody political history of the Vatican, collected in the various scholarly studies presented on this CD-ROM, one is amazed that every government in the world has not established a police system to defend itself against infiltration, corruption and conspiracy by this International Political Machine. China seems to have established an effective system of defense by allowing the Catholic Church to function, but requiring the Chinese Government to appoint, or approve, only those Church officials -- Bishops, Cardinals, etc. -- that are loyal to the Nation and Government of China, and not to a powerful and hostile foreign political system. Cuba seems also to have established a system to prevent the Church from interfering with its internal affairs -- this may be the real root of the great hostility of the United States against this small island Nation.

Both China and Cuba have a Communist form of Government, but this political system is not necessary for a Nation to defend itself against the Vatican political system disguised as a religion. England, under the great Statesman, The Right Honorable William E. Gladstone, established full citizenship to Catholic citizens, but took care, (with the help and advice of the devout Roman Catholic Scholar and Historian, Lord Acton) to strengthen the established Church of England so the Vatican political system could not gain a foothold. Today the only Catholic (Vatican) influence in the British Isles is in Ireland where a bloody and senseless religious war has raged for hundreds of years -- a small example of what the United States of America will be like if we continue to allow our Secular Government to be debased and degenerated into a religious pawn, or, as the enemies of Freedom prefer it called; "A Christian Nation."

The fact is, when a nation is sufficiently infiltrated and controlled, by International Clericalism, as the United States has apparently been since the early 1920s, Patriots who attempt to expose the treason are themselves labeled "Un-American," "Subversive," "Communists," etc., and exposed to harassment and persecution by the corrupted legal and police powers of the State -- see the shameful History of "The McCarthy Era," "The Red Scare," "The Palmer Raids," etc., in U.S. History.

Christianity simply cannot survive in a free society where the people are informed, and uncensored Scientific and Historical facts are readily available to all. When facts are compared to the claims, dogma, arguments and assertions of Christianity the truth will be so powerfully be seen that false religion cannot survive. It was no accident that the United States Government used every force at its disposal to crush the advancing Freethought movement that was thriving until it was forcefully suppressed by the Government from the early 1920s on. Freethought was the only effective defense against the aggressions of Christianity, and the only hope of keeping the United States a Free and Secular Nation.

From the early 1920s onward the United States Government has included Freethought in its "hit list" of "subversive" and "un-American" organizations. This in spite of the fact that Freethought has always been the most Patriotic "religious" movement in American History. The reason for this suppression is that the Vatican and other "religious" organizations do not believe in Democracy, in Freedom of Conscience, in Religious Liberty, nor in any other of the grand and courageous ideals that the Government of the United States was originally Founded upon.

By maliciously including Freethought among the alleged "enemies of America" in the "Red Scare" that began even before the shameful Palmer Raids of 1919 and 1920, and continues to the present time (2001), Freethought defense against Fascist religion in America has been virtually eliminated. Of the many organizations included as "subversive," "Un-American," "dangerous," or "Communist," by the Federal Government, Freethought was the only one that operated entirely and exclusively in the field of Religion, and had no interest in, or connection with, the political, economic, labor, Civil Rights, and other movements that the American Government chose to persecute and destroy. Freethought, along with other movements, some of them entirely beneficial and badly needed, were harassed, persecuted, hounded, slandered and destroyed, or rendered ineffective, by the U.S. Government without consideration for Justice, for the Constitution, nor for the "Inalienable Rights" of American Citizens. This Government treason against Religious Liberty could only have been done to protect the power and profit of International Priestcraft. Today there is no Religious Liberty in America. The U.S. Government, through the Agency of the Internal Revenue Service, approves and establishes only certain religious belief systems that does not threaten International Clericalism.

As a religion Christianity has been dead for over 500 years, all that remains is the political power and the unconstitutional (tax exempt) establishment. The only real miracle of the Christian religion is that so few people ever question the absurd claims of this defunct system; a supernatural belief system so ludicrous that it makes all other fairy tales seem logical by comparison.

How can anyone say that Christianity is a dead religion when it so powerfully permeates, dominates and represses all of Western Civilization -- where is the proof of this statement?

A religion dies when it's claims and "mysteries" have been exposed; when a civilized and enlightened person looks down upon it with contempt for the sham and fraud that it has become. For centuries the church had the power to torture and burn alive all who dared to utter the obvious truth; that Christianity could not be true, that it was, in fact, the most bigoted, brutal, immoral and persecuting force ever conceived by the greedy and grasping mind of men.

Here are but a few of the scientific discoveries that have totally destroyed the claim that Christianity is a valid and reasonable religious belief system. For a more complete and documented History of scientific facts that conflict with Christian dogma read professor Andrew D. White's scholarly Work; "A History of the Warfare of Science With Theology in Christendom." (included on Bank of Wisdom CD-ROM #4) The scientific discoveries we present here are each so basic and powerful in their conflict with Biblical assertion and Christian dogma that every one is a death blow to the Christian religion.

Christianity died when it was discovered that the world was not flat and 'supported at its corners by four pillars.' This colossal error of the basic knowledge of the shape of the Earth was so devastating to the old superstition that its priests should have immediately admitted their defeat and sought honest employment. (see Rev. 7-1 of the Christian Bible)

Christianity died again when it was discovered that the Earth was not the center of the universe, but only an insignificant speck circling a rather small sun on the fringes of an ordinary galaxy. Again Christianity was dead and should never have been heard from again.

Christianity died again when space was discovered and it was proved that one could not reach heaven with a ladder -- Mr. Jacob's or anybody else's. This again proved the colossal ignorance of the basic structure and nature of the Universe by the primitive priests who wrote the Christian Bible. (see Gen. 28; 10-12 of the Christian Bible)

Christianity died yet again when the true age of the Earth and of the Universe became known. How can a believing Christian see the many layers of exposed sedimentary rock and not realize that every fraction of an inch proves his religion false in its estimate of the true age of this ancient Earth?

Christianity, dead as it already was, died again when the origin of man, and the evolution of life, was shown to be a fact completely inconsistent with the recorded guess of the ancient and ignorant priests who wrote the books of the Christian Bible.

Christianity can survive only if it can change or suppress facts, and control information and education. That is why the church must have its own schools where knowledge can be controlled, and why all churches use every means, political or otherwise, to keep the true facts of History and Science from being taught in Public Schools. All facts that prove Christianity a fable, and tell the truth about its evil past, must not be allowed to reach the general public. The facts of the bloody History of Christianity; facts about the ongoing and disastrous Political activity of the Vatican, facts of modern science and evolution must be suppressed, distorted and denied if Christianity is to be seen as a rational, moral and acceptable belief system in the modern world.

If one wishes to be educated that person must start educating him, or her, self as soon as formal schooling is finished -- and this is true whether the person is a drop-out from elementary school, or has several Degrees from prestigious Universities. Education is a lifetime endeavor, schooling is only an introduction to what your society (or church) wants you to believe. To be educated one must read widely and think deeply. One must be aware of the prejudices, and questionable basic assumptions that his nation, his society, his family, his schooling and his personal desires and expectations have placed upon his mind, and must carefully lay these prejudices aside and see his subject objectively and impartially.
