Someone may rightfully ask: "Why have you quoted all these verses?" The answer is that I have quoted these verses to explain the proper direction for spiritual life, which still remains unknown to most people. Some accept the nyāya philosophy and become dry logicians. Others become agnostics and doubt everything. Others follow the karma-mimāmsā view of Jaimini. Others follow the voidist path of Buddha. Others become devoted to various demigods. Others proclaim that each

is equal to the others, and none is superior. The followers of each of these paths loudly attest to the superiority of his own particular view. Therefore, in order to describe the actual truth, I say to these people:

pracīnani - ancient; api - also; tani tani - they; bahuśaḥ - many; śastraṇi - scriptures; vedyani - knowable; ca - also; prayaḥ - for the most part ; tatra - there; samasta - all; deva - of the demigods; samatam - wquality; vakṣyanti - will say; te - they; surataḥ - devotees; sarva-atma - the all- pervading Supersoul; parama-īśvaraḥ - the supreme controller; adhila - to everyone; paraḥ - superior; dṛṣṇaḥ - Śri Kṛṣṇa; nt - not; taiḥ - by them; jñayate - is understood; tat - that fact; tebhyaḥ - to them; ati-very; sudurlabham - difficult to comprehend; samanayam - I have brought; ksīra - of milk; abdhi - of the ocean; pīyuśa - nectar; vat - like.

Modern interpretors of the ancient Vedic literatures generally proclaim that, according to the Vedas, all the demigods are equal. Such comentators do not understand that Śri Kṛṣṇa is the all-pervaing Supersoul, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is superior to all the demigods. In this book I have brought such persons to that difficult-to-grasp fact, which is like nectar churned from the milk-ocean of the Vedas.

evam - in this way; teṣu teṣu - in the various; api - also; śastra-adiṣu - Vedic literatures; api - also; asti - is; tat - that; tasya - of Him; sarva-īśasya - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; śrī-kṛṣṇasya - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; tattva - truth; viśeṣaḥ - specific; kaiścit - by some; api - even; na - not; jñayate - is understood; katham - why is this so?; eva - certainly; tasya - of Him; eva - certainly; īśvarasya - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; mayaya - by the illusory potency; acchannaḥ - covered; te - they; nanatvam - variously; paśyanti - see; tat - that; iti - thus; nana - various; śastra - scriptures; anusareṇa - accordingly; yatha - just as.

Although the various Vedic literatures all explain that Śri Kṛṣṇa is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, many have been unable to understand this simple fact. Why is this so? The answer is that such interpretors of the Vedas are bewildered by the Supreme Lord's illusory potency māyā, and therefore they misread the clear statements of the Vedas.

śrutva - having heard; tat - that; śruti-śastra - the Śruti-śastras; tantra - the Tantras; nigaman - the Nigama- śastras; dṛṣṭva - having seen; purana-adikan - the Puraṇas and similar Vedic literatures; tat - of them; saṃśritya - taking shelter; satam - of the devotees; matam - the opinion; ca - aslo; sattam - constantly; khyatam - is proclaimed; niguḍham - condidential; param - transcendental; līlī - for pastimes; vigraha - a form; dhariṇaḥ - manifesting; api - although; parmam-anandasya - full of trannscendental; kṛṣṇasya - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; ca - and; brahma - ḍeḥ - of Brahma and the other demigods; api - even; durlabham - difficult to attain; kila - certainly; yaśaḥ - fame; saṅkīrtyate - is glorified; yatnataḥ - with great effort.

The devotees have carefully studied the Śruti, Tantras, Nigamas, Purāṇas, and other Vedic literatures, and have discovered there the eternal confidential truth about Śri Kṛṣṇa, the supremely blissful Personality of Godhead, who enjoys pastimes in His own transcendental form. It is difficult even for Brahmā and the other sages and demigods to properly understand Lord Kṛṣṇa. It is only with great endeavor that the glories of Lord Kṛṣṇa are properly described.

connection; aha - it is said; bṛhan-naradīye - in the Bṛhan- naradīya Puraṇa; prathama-adhyaye - in the first Chapter.

The dry logicians. however, generally have little respect for the statements of the Purāṇas. That the Purāṇas are indeed bona-fide Vedic literatures is confirmed by the following statement in Bṛhan-nāradiya Purāṇa (1.57- 59):

puraṇeṣu - in the Puraṇas; artha-vadatvam - explanation; ye - who; vadanti - say; nara-adhamaḥ - the lowest of human beings; taiḥ - by them; arjitani - earned; puṇyani - pious merits; tadvat - in that way; bhavanti - are; vai - certainly; samasta - all; karma - ofpious actions; nirmula-sadhanani - uprooted; nara-adhamaḥ - lowest of persons; puraṇeśu - in the Puraṇas; artha-vadena - by dispute; mṛtaḥ - dead; narakam - hell; aśnute - experiences; yadvat - as long; brahma - as Brahma; sṛjati - creates; etat - this; jagat - universe; sthavara- jaṅgamam - full of moving and non-moving cretures; tavat - for that period of time; saḥ - he; pacyate - burns; papī - sinner; naraka - of hell; agniṣu - in the fires; santatam - continually.

"If one disagrees with the statements of the Purāṇas, and thinks the Purāṇas to be in error, then he becomes the lowest of men. Such a blasphemer becomes bereft of all pious credits, and after his death enters the hellish world. Such a sinful person burns in the fires of hell for the same period of time that Brahmā takes to create the universe and populate it with the various species of moving and non-moving living entities."

this way; bhavati - is; eva - certainly; na - not; anyatha - otherwise; eva - certainly; yatha - just as; bhṛat-naradīye - in the Bṛhan-naradīya Puraṇa; veda-vyasaḥ - Vedavyasa; tu - indeed; dharam - of piety; atma - the personification; veda- śastra - the Vedas; vibhaga-kṛt - the divider; proktavan - spoke; sarva - all; dharmaṇi - all the principles of religion; puraṇeśu - in the Puraṇas; mahī-pate - O king.

All the Purāṇas are integral parts of the original Veda, and therefore by disrespecting the Purāṇas, one commits an offense to the Veda. This is described in the Bṛhan-nāradiya Purāṇa (9.105) in the following words:

"Vedavyāsa is the personification of all piety. O king, he divided the original Veda, and he spoke all the principles of religion in the Purāṇas."

The Śruti, Smṛti, and other Vedic literatures proclaim that everyone should worship the lotus feet of Lord Kṛṣṇa. The Vedic literatures state that everyone should abandon all other kinds of worship, and simply take shelter of Lord Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet, which are the proper object of everyone's worship. This is everyone's best course of action, as explained in the following statements of Vedic literature:

"The glories of Lord Govinda are filled with the most beautiful nectar of transcendental bliss. One who continually hears and chants Lord Govinda's glories becomes supremely successful in his mission of human life. Of this there is no doubt."

iti - thus; jñatva - understanding; vilambaḥ - delay; na - not; kartavyaḥ - should be done; yatha - just as; śrī- bhagavate - in Śrimad-Bhagavatam; ekadaśa-skandhe - in the Eleventh Canto; navama-adhyaye - in the Ninth Chapter; caturvimśati - twenty four; guru - spiritual masters; prasange - in connection; brahmaṇaḥ - the avadhuta brahmaṇa; uvaca - said; labdhva - having obtained; su-durlabham - that which is very difficult to obtain; idam - this; bahu - many; sambhava - births; ante - after; manuśyam - human form of life; artha-dam - whidh awards great value; anityam - not eternal; api - although; iha - in this material world; dhīraḥ - one who has sober intelligence;

turṇam - immediately; yeteta - should endeavor; na - not; patet - should fall; anumṛtyu - the cycle of repeated birth and death; yavat - as long as; niḥśreysasaya - for ultimate liberation; viśayaḥ - sense; gratification; khau - always; sarvataḥ - in all conditions; syat - is possible.

For all these reasons one should immediately begin the devotional service of Lord Kṛṣṇa, without any delay. This is also described in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.9.29, where, in connection with the description of his 24 spiritual masters, the avadhūta brāhmaṇa says:

"Attaining after many births the rare human form of life which, although temporary, brings the highest perfection, a sober man should try for perfection and not fall down into the cycle of repeated birth and death. Sense gratification is available in every species of life."

tatha daitya-balakan prati śrī-prahlada-vacanam kaumara acaret prajño kharman bhagavatan iha durlabham manuśam janma tad apy adhruvam arthadam tatha - in the same way; daitya - demon; balakan prati - to the boys; śrī-prahlada - of Prahlada; vacanam - the statement; śrī-prahradaḥ uvaca - Prahlada Maharaja said; kaumaraḥ - in the tender age of childhood; acaret - should practice; prajñaḥ - one who is intelligent; dharman - occupational duties; bhagavatan - which are devotional service to the Supreme Personality of Godhead; iha - in this life; durlabham - very rarely obtained; manuśam - human; janma - birth; tat - that; api - even; adhruvam - impermanent, temporary; artha-dam - full of meaning.

This is again described in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (7.6.1), where Prahlāda Mahārāja says to the sons of the demons:

"One who is sufficiently intelligent should use the human form of body from the very beginning of life, in other words, from the tender age of childhood, to practice the activities of devotional service, giving up all other engagements. The human body is most rarely achieved, and although temporary like other bodies, it is meaningful because in human life one can perform devotional service. Even a slight amount of sincere devotional service can give one complete perfection."*

martyo mṛtyu-vyala-bhītaḥ palayan lokan sarvan nirbhayam nadhyagacchat tvat-padabjam prapya yadṛcchayadya susthaḥ śete mṛtyur asmad apaiti yatha - just as; śrī-devakī - of Śrimati Devakī-devī; stutiḥ - the prayer; martyaḥ - the living entities who are sure to die; mṛtyu-vyala-bhītaḥ - afraid of the serpent of death;

palayan - running (as soon as a serpent is seen, everyone runs away, fearing immediate death); lokan - to the different planets; sarvan - all; nirbhayam - fearlessness; na adhyagacchat - do not obtain; tvat-pada-abjam - of Your lotus feet; prapya - obtaining the shelter; yadṛcchaya - by chance, by the mercy of Your Lordship and Your representative, the spiritual master (guru- kṛpa, kṛṣna-kṛpa); adya - presently; su-sthaḥ - being undisturbed and mentally composed; śete - are sleeping; mṛtyuḥ - death; asmat - from those persons; apaiti-flees.

This is also described in Śrimad-Bhagavatam (10.3.27), where Śrimati Devaki-devi offers the following prayer:

"No one in this material world has become free from the four principles birth, death, old age and disease, even by fleeing to various planets. But now that You have appeared, My Lord, death is fleeing in fear of You, and the living entities, having obtained shelter at Your lotus feet by Your mercy, are sleeping in full mental peace."*

mṛtyur iti sad-asat-karmana yama-vaśo bhutva tat-tat-karma- phalam bhuktva punar-jayata iti garbha-vasa-yatana prapyata iti mṛtyuḥ. etad eva śrī-kṛṣṇa-carana-parayaṇanam naivam. etad bhautikam śarīram ti tyakta nitya-siddha-deham prapya śrī-kṛṣṇa-dasa bhavantīty amutreti.

mṛtyuḥ iti - the passage beginning with the word "mṛtyuḥ"; sat - pious; asat - and impious; karmaṇa - by action; yama - of Yamaraja; v(?)śaḥ - under the control; bhutva - having become; tat-tat - various; karma - of actions; phalam - the fruit; bhuktva - tasting; punaḥ - jayate - takes birth again; iti - thus; garbha - in the womb; vasa - residence; yatana - distress; prapyate - is attained; iti - thus; mṛtyuḥ - death; etat - this; eva - indeed; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; caraṇa - to the lotus feet; prayaṇanam - of those who are devoted; na - not; evam - in this way; etat - this; bhautikam - made of matrial elements; śarīram - body; te - they; tyaktva - having abandoned; nitya - eternally; siddha - perfect; deham - body; prapya - attaining; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; dasaḥ - the derect servants; bhavanti - become; iti - thus; amutra - in the next life; iti - thus.

According to this verse an ordinary conditioned soul, subject to the judgment of Yamarāja, must experience the results of his pious and impious deeds. After his death he again enters the womb of a mother and suffers greatly. These sufferings, however, are not imposed on those who are devoted to Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet. When the devotees leave their material bodies, they attain eternally perfect spiritual bodies, and are reinstated as Śri Kṛṣṇa's servants in the spiritual world.

tasmat - therefore; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; caraṇa - of the lotus feet; bhajanam - the worship; kartavyam - should be performed; na - not; anyat - another; tatha - therfore;

yasya - whose; avatara - incarnations; guṇa - transcendental qualities; karma - activities; viḍambanani - all mysterious; namani - transcendental names; ye - those; asu-vigame - while quitting this life; vivaśaḥ - automatically; gṛṇanti - invoke; te - they; anaika - many; janma - births; śamalam - accumulated sins; sahasa - immediately; eva - certainly; hitva - giving; saṃyanti - obtain; apavṛta - open; amṛtam - immortality; tam - Him; ajam - the unborn; prapadye - I take shelter.

For this reason one should only worship Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet. One should not worship anyone save Lord Kṛṣṇa. This is also described in the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (3.9.15):

"Let me take shelter of the lotus feet of Him whose incarnations, qualities and activities are mysterious imitations of wordly affairs. One who invokes His transcendental names, even unconsciously, at the time he quits this life, is certainly washed immediately of the sins of many, many births and attains Him without fail."*

yatha - just as; śrī-viṣṇu-puraṇe - in the Viṣṇu Puraṇa; narasimhe - in the Narasimha Puraṇa; ca - also; yamaḥ - Yamaraja; uvaca - said; aham - I; amara-gaṇa - by the demigods; arcitena - worshipped; dhatra - by Brahma; yama - Yama; iti - thus; loka - of the loving entities; hitaya - for the benefit; sanniyuktaḥ - engaged; hari - to Lord Hari; guru - to the spiritual master; vimukhan - to those averse; praśasya - chastizing; martyan - conditioned souls; hari - of Lord Hari; caraṇa - to the lotus feet; praṇatan - who offer respectful obeisances; namaskaromi - I offer my respectful obeisances.

This is also described in the following verse, common to both the Viṣṇu Purāṇa and Narasimha Purāṇa, where Yamarāja says:

"Lord Brahmā, who is worshiped by all the demigods, has appointed me to this post of Yama for the benefit of the conditioned souls. After I punish the conditioned souls opposed to Lord Hari and the spiritual master, I offer my respectful obeisances to they who bow down before the lotus feet of Lord Hari."

tasmat - therefore; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; caraṇa - of the lotus feet; bhajanam - the worship; kartavyam - should be performed; iti - thus; na - not; anyat - anyone else; tatha - just as; samaśritaḥ - who have fully accepted; ye - those; pada-pallava - of the lotus feet; plavam - the boat; mahat- padam - the shelter of the cosmic manifestation; puṇya-yaśaḥ - famous; murareḥ - of Murari, the enemy of the Mura demon; bhava-ambudhiḥ - the ocean of the material world; vatsa-padam - a calf's hoofprint; param at every step; yat - which; vipadam - of dangers; na - not; teśam - for them.

For this reason one should worship Lord Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet. One should not worship anyone save for Lord Kṛṣṇa. This also described by the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.14.58):

"For one who has accepted the boat of the lotus feet of the Lord, who is the shelter of the cosmic manifestation and is famous as Murāri, the enemy of the demon Mura, the ocean of the material world is like the water contained in a calf's hoofprint. His goal is param padam, or Vaikuṇṭha, the place where there are no material miseries, not the place where there is danger at every step."*

kaunteya pratijanīhi na me bhaktaḥ pranasyati teśam - of them; param - the supreme; padam - abode; bhavati - is; tat - therefore; iti - thus; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; caraṇa - feet; aravinda - lotus flower; parama - transcendental; ananda - of bliss; rase - in the nectar; paripurṇaḥ - full; bhutva - having become; tiṣṭhati - stands; janma - birth; mṛṭyu - and death; varjitaḥ - without; yatha - just as; śrī- bhagavat-gītasu - in the Bhagavad-gīta; upaniṣatsu - in the Upaniṣad; arjunam prati - to Arjuna; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; uvaca - said; kaunteya - O son of Kuntī; pratijanīhi - justly declare; na - never; me - Mine; bhaktaḥ - devotee; praṇaśyati - perishes.

In this verse the pharase "teṣam param padam" means that the devotees become filled with nectarean bliss by worshiping Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet, and in this way they become free from the cycle of repeated birth and death. That the devotees become free from birth and death is also confirmed in the Śri Bhagavad-gitā Upaniṣad (9.31), where the Supreme Lord says to Arjuna:

"O son of Kunti, declare it boldly that My devotee never perishes."*

That the Lord's devotees never perish is confirmed by the following statement of Kāśi-khaṇḍa, Dhruva-carita:

"Even the devotees of the Personality of Godhead are not annihilated during the period of the entire annihilation of the material world, not to speak of the Lord Himself. The Lord is ever-existent in all three stages of material change."*

tatha - in the same way; daśame - in the Tenth Canto of Śrimad-Bhagavatam; brahma - of Lord Brahma; stutiḥ - the prayer; tatha - like them (the nondevotees); na - not; te - they (the devotees); madhava - O Lord, husband of the goddess of fortune; tavakaḥ - the followers of the devotional path, the devotees; kvacit - in any circumstances; bhraśyanti - fall down; margat - from the path of devotional service; tvayi - unto You; baddha-sauhṛdaḥ - because of being fully attached to Your lotus feet; tvaya - by You; abhiguptaḥ - always protected from all dangers; vicaranti - they move; nirbhayaḥ - without fear; vinayaka-anīkapa - the enemies who maintain paraphernalia to oppose the bhakti cult; murdhasu - on their heads; prabho - O Lord.

This is also confirmed by the following verse of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.2.33), where Lord Brahmā prays:

"O Mādhava, Supreme Personality of Godhead, Lord of the goddess of fortune, if devotees completely in love with You sometimes fall from the path of devotion, they do not fall like nondevotees, for You still protect them. Thus they fearlessly traverse the heads of their opponents and continue to progress in devotional service."*

eteśam - ofthem; eka - one; upasanena - by worship; śreyaḥ - best;bhavati - is; kim anena - what is the need?; tatra - in this matter; śrī- kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; carana - to the lotus feet; parayanaḥ - those who are devoted; vadanti - say; svarga - in the heavenly planets; bhoginaḥ - enjoying; devaḥ - the devigods; yat - because; eva - certainly; tat - that; śruyatam - may be heard; te - they; sarve - all; naśvaraḥ - are subject todeath; kim - what is the use?; teṣam - of them; upasanena - of the worship; yatha - just as.

When some people hear these words they may say: "There are many demigods. There are many different pilgrimage places. There are many different kinds of religious activity. Of all kinds of worship the worship of the demigod Brahmā is the best. How is it that you glorify the service of Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet?"

They who are devoted to Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet may reply: "The Vedic literatures explain that the demigods who enjoy various kinds of sense-gratification in the upper planetary systems are not immortal. They are all subject to death. For this reason how can anyone derive lasting benefit from worshiping them?" This is discussed in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (11.10.26) in the following words:

tatha - in the same way; śrī-śrī-gītayam - in the Bhagavad-gīta; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; uvaca - sai; trai-vidyaḥ - the knowers of the three Vedas; mam - unto Me; soma-paḥ - drinkers of soma juice; puta - purified; papaḥ - sins; yajñaiḥ - with sacrifices; iṣṭva - after worshiping; svargatim - passage ti heaven; prarthayante - pray; te - they; punyam - virtue; asadya - enjoying;surendra - of Indra; lokam - world; aśnanti - enjoy; divyan - celestial; divi - in heaven; devabhogan - pleasures of the gods.

This is also explained in the Bhagavad-gitā (9.20-21), where the Supreme Personality of Godhead said:

"Those who study the Vedas and drink the soma juice, seeking the heavenly planets, worship Me indirectly. They take birth on the planet of Indra, where they enjoy godly delights.*

two parardhas, totalling 311,040,000,000,000 years; para - supreme; ayuṣaḥ - whose duration of life.

What is the use of worshiping Brahmā and the other demigods? This rhetorical question is posed in the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (11.10.30), where the Supreme Personality of Godhead says:

"Ordinary people, the planetary leaders that live for a kalpa, and even Lord Brahmā, who lives for two parārdhas, fear Me."

What is the use of going on pilgrimage? Śrila Śukadeva Gosvāmi says (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 12.3.48):

By aquiring transcendental knowledge, performing austerities, controlling the breath, becoming friendly to all, bathing in holy places, observing vows, giving charity, and chanting mantras, one does not become as purified as when the unlimited Supreme Personality of Godhead stays in his heart."

- various; ca - also; anyaiḥ - by others;kṛṣne - for Lord Kṛṣna; bhaktiḥ - devotion; hi - certainly; sadhyate – is perfected.

This is also confirmed by the following verse of Śrimad- Bhāgavatam (10.47.24), where Śrimān Uddhava says:

"Kṛṣṇa is the goal of all kinds of pious activities and ritualistic performances, such as giving in charity, rigidly following the austerity of vows, underging severe penances and igniting the fire of sacrifice. He is the purpose behind the chanting of different mantras, the reading of the Vedas, controlling the senses and concentration the mind in meditation. These are some of the many different processes for self- realization and attainment of perfection of life. But actually they are only meant for realizing Kṛṣṇa and dovetailing oneself in the transcendental loving service of the Supreme Personality of Godhead."*

dharmaḥ svanuṣṭhitaḥ puṁsaṁ viṣvaksena-kathasu yaḥ notpadayed yadi ratiṁ śrama eva hi kevalam

tatha - in the same way; dharmaḥ - occupation; svanuṣṭhitaḥ - executed in terms of one's own position; puṁsam - of humankind; viṣvaksena - the Personality of Godhead (plenary portion); kathasu - in the message of; yaḥ - what is; na - not; utpadayet - does produce; yadi - if;ratim - attraction; śramaḥ - useless labor; eva - only; hi - certainly; kevalam - entirely.

Śrimad-Bhāgavatam again confirms this in the following words (1.2.8):

"The occupational activities a man performs according to his own position are only so much useless labor if they do not provoke attraction for the message of the Personality of Godhead."*

ata eva śrī-kṛṣṇa-carana-sevanam vina na kim api. yatha brahmadayaḥ sarve naśvaraḥ. naśvaropasanena naśvaro bhavatīti tad-uddeśena tapasyaya va kim. svayam naśvara ye te kim śaśvatatvam dasyanti. nana-dharma- karmana va kim. karma-bandhaya kalpate yatha mucukunda- stutiḥ

ataḥ eva - therefore; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; carana - of the lotus feet; sevanam - the devotional service; vina - without; na - not; kim api - anything; yatha - just as; brahma-adayaḥ - Brahma and the other demigods; sarve - all; naśvaraḥ - are subject to death; naśvara - of those subject to death; upasanena - by the worship; naśvaraḥ

- subject to death; bhavati - one becomes; iti - thus; tat - of this; uddeśena - bythe indication; tapasyaya - of austerity; va - or; kim - what is thebenefit?; svayam - themselves; naśvaraḥ - subject to death;ye - those who are; te - they; kim - how; śaśvatatvam - immortality; dśyanti - will give; nana - various; dharma - pious activities; karmana - and fruitive works; va - or; kim - what is the benefit?; karma - of fruitive work; bandhaya - for the bondage;kalpate - qualify; yatha - just as; mucukunda - of Maharaja Mucukunda; stutiḥ - the prayer.

One cannot obtain anything actually good or auspicious without service the lotus feet of Śri Kṛṣṇa. Brahmā and the demigods are all subject to death, and by worshiping them one will remain subject to death. Themselves being mortal, how can they grant immortality to their worshipers? In the same way, simply by performing austerities, religious rituals, and pious works, one remains in the clutches of the laws of karma, without any hope of liberation. This is confirmed by Mahārāja Mucukunda who offers the following prayer to Lord Kṛṣṇa (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.51.55):

Text 11 (b)

na - not; kamaye - I desire; anyam - other; tava - Your;pada - of the lotus feet; sevanat - than the devotioal service; akiñcana - of one without any possessions; prarthyatamat - from the request; varam - benediction; vibho - O all-powerful Lord; aradhya - having worshipped; kaḥ - who?; tvam - YOu; hi - certainly; apavarga - liberation; dam - granting; hare - O Lord Hari; vṛnīte - would choose; aryaḥ - a spiritually advanced person; caram - a benediction; atma - for his own; bandhanam - bondage.

"My dear Lord, I therefore pray that I may simply be engaged in rendering transcendental loving service unto Your lotus feet, which is the ambition of the pure devotees who are freed from all kinds of material contamination. You are the Supreme Personality of Godhead, and You can offer me anything I want, including liberation. But who is such a foolish person that after pleasing You he would ask from You something which might be the cause of entanglement in this material world?"*

śunyopasanena kim. nityakṣara-parananada-sukha-svarupaśrī-kṛṣnacandra-caranaravinda-premamṛta-madhu-panena vañcitaḥ syat.

tatha - in the same way; eva - certainly; brahma - of Brahma; upasanena - of the worship; kim - what is the benefit?; brahma - Brahma; api - also; śunyam - the void; śunya - of the void; upasanena - by the worship; śunyatvam - the state of being merged in the void; prapnoti - one attains; yatha - just as; śrutiḥ - the Śruti-śastra; yadṛśī - like which; bhavana - meditation; yasya - of whom; siddhiḥ - perfection; bhavati - is; tadṛśī - like that; iti - thus; śunya - of the void; upasanena - of the worship; kim - what is the benefit?; nitya - eternal; akṣara - imperishable; para - transcendental; ananda-sukha - of bliss; svarupa - the form; śrī-kṛṣnacandra - of Śri Kṛṣnacandra; carana - feet; aravinda - of the lotus; preme - of pure love; amṛta - of the nectar; madhu - of the honey; panena - by drinking; vañcitaḥ - deprived; syat - is.

At this point someone may claim that worship of the impersonal Brahman or the void is the most exalted form of worship. This person may further claim that by worshiping the void one becomes one with the void. That one may become one with the void in this way he may claim is supported by the Śruti-śāstra, which states: "The spiritual aspirant attains various types of spiritual perfection according to the nature of his meditation." To this person I reply: The eternal, imperishable, transcendental and blissful nectar honey of pure love for Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's lotus feet completely robs the void of all its attractiveness. Who could be attracted to the void, if the nectar of Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet is available?

atha - now; mumukṣuna - by one desorious of liberation; uktam - said; na - not; etat - this; tada - then;kim - what?; yadi - if; dehaadeḥ - from the coverings of the material body, mind, intelligence, and ego; muktiḥ - liberation; bhavati - is;tada - then; kim-what?; na - not; bhutam - was; tat prati - tothis; uttaram - the answer; eva - certainly; yatha - just as;saḥ - He;

The liberationist may say: "I do not agree. When one becomes liberated he becomes free from encagement in the matrial body, mind, intelligence, and ego. This condition is supremely desirable."

To this fellow I reply: The liberation known as nirvānamukti, where one thinks "so 'ham (I am the Supreme)" is useless. The devotees never consider this false liberation at all desirable. For example, verse 110 from Śrila Rūpa Gosvāmi's Padyāvalī explains:

bhaktir bhagavataḥ seva muktis tat-pada-laṅghanam ko muḍho dasataṁ prapya prabhavaṁ padam icchati bhaktiḥ - devotional service; bhagavataḥ - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; seva - the service; muktiḥ - liberation; tat - of Him; pada - of the lotus feet; laṅghanam - jumping over; kaḥ - what?; muḍhaḥ - fool; dasatam - service; prapya - having attained; prabhavam padam - such liberation; icchati - desires.

"Bhakti is devoional service to the lotus feet of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, and mukti is the impersonalists' liberation, which neglects the Lord's lotus feet. Who would be so foolish that, having attained the service of the Lord's lotus feet, would give it up for the empty impersonal liberation?"

This is also described in Vālmiki Muni's Rāmāyana, where Hanumān says to Lord Rāmacandra:

"I do not desire liberation from the bonds of material existance if that liberation means our relationship, where You are the master and I the servant, will be broken."

tatha - in the same way; bhava-artha-dīpikayam - in Śridhara Svamī's Bhavartha-dīpika; tvat - of You; katha - of the topics; amṛta - of nectar; pathodhau - in the ocean; viharantaḥ - sporting; maha - with great; mudaḥ - delight; kurvanti - consider; dṛtinaḥ - the devotees; kecit - some;catuḥ-vargam - the four goals; of religion, economic development, sensegratification, and liberation; tṛna - to a blade of grass; upamam - equal.

This is also confirmed by the following statement of Śrila Śridhara Svāmi's Bhāvārtha-dipikā (10.87.21):

"O my Lord, because the devotees enjoy pastimes with great delight in the nectar ocean of the description of You, they consider impersonal liberation to be no more valuable than a blade of grass."

ataḥ eva - therefore; śrī-kṛṣne - for Śri Kṛṣna; bhaktiḥ - devotional service; sadhya - should be attained; yatha - just as; caturśu - among the four; puruśa-artheśu - goals of human endeavor; guḍhaḥ - confidential; ayam - this; bhakti - devotional service; samjñakaḥ - named; dvijaḥ - the brahmanas; eva - certainly; hi - indeed;jananti - understand; munayaḥ - the sages; narada-adayaḥ - headed by Narada.

That everyone should endeavor to attain Lord Kṛṣṇa's devotional service is explained in the following statement of Vedic literature:

"Lord Kṛṣṇa's devotional service is supremely valuable and confidential. Although it may be relatively easy to attain the four human goals of piety, economic development, sensegratification, and liberation, it is comparatively very difficult to attain Lord Kṛṣṇa's devotional service. Nārada, and the great brāhmana sages know this."

Devotional service is more valuable than liberation. This is confirmed by the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (3.25.33):

"Bhakti, devotional service, dissolves the subtle body of the living entity without separate effort, just as fire in the stomach digests all that we eat."* tatra - in this connection; mukteḥ - than liberation; bhaktiḥ - dvotional service; sudurlabha - is more difficult to attain; yatha - just as; rajan - O my dear King; patiḥ - maintainer; guruḥ - spiritual master; alam - certainly; bhavatam - of you; yadunam - the Yadu dynasty; daivam - the worshipable Deity; priyaḥ - very dear friend; kula-patiḥ - the master of the dynasty; kva ca - sometimes even; kiṅkaraḥ - servant; vaḥ - of you (the Panḍavas); astu - to be sure; evam - aṅga - O King; bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; bhajatam - of those devotees engaged in service; mukundaḥ - the Lord, the Supreme Personality of Godhead; muktim - liberation; dadati - delivers; karhicit - at any time; sma - inded;na - not; bhakti-yogam - loving devotional service.

Devotional service is more difficult to attain than liberation. This is confirmed by the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (5.6.18):

"My dear King, the Supreme Person, Mukunda, is actually the maintainer of all the members of the Pānḍava and Yadu dynasties. He is your spiritual master, worshipable Deity, friend, and the director of your activities. To say nothing of this, He sometimes serves your family as a messenger or servant. This means He worked just as ordinary servants do. Those engaged in getting the Lord's favor attain liberation from the Lord very easily, but He does not very easily give the opportunity to render direct service unto Him."*

The devotees fo not desire to attain impersonal liberation. This is confirmed by the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (11.20.34):

"Because My devotees possess saintly behavior and deep intelligence they completely dedicate themselves to Me and do not desire anything besides Me. Indeed, even if I offer them liberation from birth and death, they do not accept it."*

atha - now; atra - in this connection; kecit - some; adhyatmikah - the adhyatmika philosophers; vadanti - say; aho - Oh; kṛṣṇam - Kṛṣṇa; yat - which; vadasi - youdescribe; saḥ - He; eva - certainly; śarīrī - posessing a body; rupavan - possessing a body; parichinna - limited in terms of space; avayavaḥ - with limbs; cakṣuṣyaḥ - visible to the eyes; ataḥ - therefore; saḥ - He; eva - certainly; bhautikaḥ - made of material elements; bhatikatvat - because of being made of material elements; sthulah - gross matter; sthulatvat - because of being made of gross matter; naśvarah - subject to death; naśvara - of one subject to death; upasanena - of the worship; kim - what is the benefit?; iti - thus; ekah - only; krsnah -Kṛṣṇa; eva - certainly; upasanīyah - is worshippable; iti thus; yat - which; uktam - said; tat - that; atyanta - verymuch; asambhavanīya - impossible; upadeśah - instruction; eśah - He; vedanta - śastraih - by the Vedanta-sutra; anabhidheyah unnamed; yatha - just as; vasistha-ramayane - in the Vasistha Ramayana; śrī-ramacandram prati - to Lord Ramacandra; vasisthena - by Vasistha Muni; uktam - said.

At this point the ādhyātmika philosophers may protest: This Kṛṣṇa whom you describe possess a form limited in size, and visible to the material eyes. Such a limited, visible form must needs be composed of gross matter, and is therefore subject to decay and death. What is the use of worshiping someone who is subject to death? Your statement, therefore, that Śri Kṛṣṇa is the sole object of worship, is clearly untenable. Furthermore, Śri Kṛṣṇa is not even mentioned by name in the codes of the Vedānta-sūtra. That all forms within this material world (including that of your Kṛṣṇa) are subject to annihilation is confirmed in the Vasiṣṭha Ramayana in the following words spoken by Vasistha Muni to Śri Rāmacandra:

Text 19 (b)

"Whatever You see in this material world, which is filled with moving and non-moving living entities, is like the dream of a person fast asleep. At the end of the kalpa whatever is in this universe will be destroyed."

tatha - in the same way; uddhavam prati - to Uddhava; śrībhagavan - the Supreme Lord; vasudevah - Vasudeva; uvaca - said; yat - that which; idam - this world; manasa - by the mind; vaca - by speech; cakṣurbhyam - by the eyes; śravana-adibhiḥ - by the ears and other senses; naśvaram - temporary; gṛhyamanam - that which is being accepted or perceived; ca - and; viddhi - you should know; maya - manaḥ-mayam - it is only imagined to be real by the influence of maya.

This is also confirmed by the Supreme Lord Vāsudeva, who said to Uddhava (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.7.7):

"My dear Uddhava, the material universe that you perceive through your mind, speech, eyes, ears and other senses is an illusory creation that one imagines to be real due to the influence of māyā. In fact, you should know that all of the objects of the material senses are temporary."*

ataḥ eva - therefore; sarvam - everything; ma/ya - of the illusory potency; mayam - consisting; iti - thus; matva - considering; nityam - eternal; nirakaram - formless; nirañjanam - passionless; nirlepam - untouched by matter; ca - also; brahma - impersonal Brahman; upasyam - worshippable; iti - thus; tatha - in that way; eva - certainly; uktam - said; vasiṣṭhe - in the Vasiṣṭha Ramayana; vasiṣṭhena - by Vasiṣṭha Muni; aste - rests; anastam - not in His own abode; itaḥ - thus; bhasvan - effulgent; yaḥ - who; devaḥ - deity; hi - certainly; niramayaḥ - free from disease and all material defects; sarvada - always; sarva - of everything; kṛt - the creator; sarvaḥ - everything; parama-atma - the Supersoul; maha-īśvaraḥ - the Supreme Controller.

Everything in this material world is composed of the illusory potency (māyā). By the process of meditation one should worship the eternal, formless, emotionless, and non-material Supreme. This is confirmed in the Vasiṣṭha Rāmāyana by the following words of Vasiṣṭha Muni to Śri Rāmacandra:

"The Supreme Godhead is the all-pervading effulgent soul that is at once everything that exists, the creator of everything, the controller of everything, and never touched by the material world, which is its creation."

satyaḥ - transcendental truth; san - being so; kim - is it so?; sva-atmanam - your own self; prapadyase - you will surrender.

The impersonal Godhead is again described in the following statement of the Śruti-vākya-vṛtti:

"The supreme, eternal, blissful transcendental consciousness is the witness of everyone's thoughts. Will you surrender yourself to that eternal consciousnes?"

To these arguments the devotees of Lord Kṛṣṇa reply: When the Vedic literatures say the Supreme has neither qualities nor form, is unchanging, the non-doer, untouchable by the body, unknowable by the mind, and indescribable by words, these statements are, of course, all true, but nevertheless, the impersonalists' interpretation of them to support the concept of a formless, impersonal Deity are not. The proper interpretation of these descriptions may be seen in the following explanation of Śvetāśvatara Upanisad (3.19):

nimittam manaś-caskṣur-adi-pravṛttau nirastakhilopadhir akaśa-kalpaḥ ravir loka-ceṣṭa-nimittam yatha saḥ sa nityopalabdhi-svarupo 'ham atma tatha - in that way; hastamalake - in the Hastamalakaśastra; nimittam - the cause; manaḥ - mind;cakṣuḥ - eyes; adi - beginning with; pravṛttau - in the manifestation; nirasta rejeted; akhila - all; upalabdhiḥ - designations; akaśakalpah - like the sky; ravih - the sun; loka - of the living entities; ceṣṭa - the activities; nimittam - the cause;yatha - just as; saḥ - he; saḥ - he; nitya - eternally;upalabdhi-svarupaḥ - full of transcendental knowledge; aham - I am; atma - the self.

This is also confirmed by the following statement of the Hastāmalaka-śāstra:

"The transcendentalist should give up all identification with the material body, mind, and the eyes and other sense organs. He should be free from all designations, just as the featureless sky. In this condition the transcendentalist neither acts nor causes others to act, just as the sun does not cause the actions of the living entities. When the transcendentalist thus becomes full of transcendental knowledge, he then realizes 'I am the Self'."

tat-praptav upayo yatha śrutau cit-prakaśe agaman me mano 'nyatra sampratam ca sthirī-kṛtam evam yo vetti dhī-vṛttam so 'ham ity avadharayet tat - of that condition; praptau - in the matter of attainment; upayaḥ - method; yatha - just as; śrutau - in the Śruti-śastra; cit - of transcendental knowledge; prakaśe - in the menifestation; agamat - went; me - my; manaḥ - mind;anyatra - elsewhere; sampratam - at present; ca - and; sthirī-kṛtam - steadied; evam - in this way; yaḥ - one who; vettiunderstands; dhī - of the intelligence; vṛttam - the behavior; saḥ - he; aham - I am; iti - thus; avadharayet - one may understand.

The method of attaining this state of spiritual enlightenment is described in the following words of the Śruti-śāstra:

"One should think in the following way: My mind, which was formerly uncontrolled is now very carefully controlled. Now that I understand the actual nature of the intelligence I can see everything clearly, and I can understand the statement so 'ham (I am the Self)' ".

evam - in this way; atma - the self; jñana - of knowledge; dṛṣṭya - by the sight; prapyate - is obtained; ca - also; vasiṣṭhe - in the Vasiṣṭha Ramayana; mṛgaiḥ - by deer; yatha - just as; mṛganam - fo deer; ca - also; gajanam - ofelephants; ca - also; gajaiḥ - by elephants; yatha - just as; pakṣinam - of birds; pakṣibhiḥ - by birds; yadvat - just s; jñeyam - may be understood; jñanena - by knowledge;gṛhyate - is grasped; iti - thus.

The Supreme Self can be understood when one has the eyes of transcendental knowledge. This is described by the following statement of Vasistha Rāmāyana:

"Deer understand the inner workings of the deer community. Elephants understand what transpires among the elephants. The activities of the birds are easily understood by birds. In the same way the transcendent Self can be understood when one becomes like Him by the cultivation of transcendental knowledge."

The impersonalist will then conclude His explanation by saying: The Absolute, therefore, is understood only by cultivating transcendental knowledge, and they who are ordinary persons, and not great scriptural scholars, have no ability to understand the Absolute at all.

When they who are devoted to Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's lotus feet hear these words, they reply: What are you saying? Only they who are ignorant of the transcendental opulences of Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's lotus feet can speak in such a way. Such persons are neither important nor intelligent. They cannot see the subtle nature of the Supreme at all. In this connection it is said:

intelligence is covered by such illusory energy; tvam - unto You; paśyanti - observe; nana - many varieties; na - not; vipaścitaḥ - learned scholars or devotees; ye - who are.

In this connection also Brahmā prays to Lord Kṛṣṇa (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.2.28):

"The efficient cause of this material world, manifested with its many varieties as the original tree, is You, O Lord. You are also the maintainer of this material world, and after annihilation you are the one in whom everything is conserved. Those who are covered by Your external energy cannot see You behind this manifestation, but theirs is not the vision of learned devotees."*

Those who understand the actual truth know that Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is the Supreme. He is above everyone and everything. This is described in the following statement of the devotees:

"One who thinks that there is someone somewhere who is superior to, equal to, or independent of Lord Kṛṣṇa, is certainly covered by the illusory potency, māyā. Such a bewildered person cannot properly describe Lord Kṛṣṇa at any time."

atha - now; bhagavataḥ - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; śrī-kṛṣṇasya - Śri Kṛṣṇa; bhautikam - made of material elements; prakṛtam - material; sa - gunam - with the modes of material nature; sthulam - gross matter; deham - body;iti - thus; yat - which; ajñanat - out of ignorance; uktam - said;tat - that; iti - thus; śruyatam - may be heard in the Vedic literatures; yatha - just as; sammohana - tantre - in the Sammohana-tantra; prathama-paṭale - in the First Paṭala; naradam prati - to Narada; sanakaḥ - Sanaka-kumara; uvaca - said.

Out of ignorance some may say that the form of Śri Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, is made of gross matter and consists of the three modes of material nature and the material elements earth, water, fire, air, and ether. The Lord's body is not at all material, but is completely spiritual. This fact is described throughout the various Vedic literatures. For example, in the Sammohana-tantra Sanaka-kumāra says to Nārada Muni:

yatha - just as; vatsa - of the calves; harane - in the theft; brahma - of Lord Brahma; stutiḥ - the prayer; asyz - of this; api - indeed; deva - O my Lord; vapuśaḥ - this form which appears just like a little child; mat-anugrahasya - merciful to me; svaicchamayasya - which appears to fulfill the desires of the devotees; na - not; tu - but; bhutamayasya - composed of material elements; kaḥ - Brahma; api - although I am; na - not;iśe - I am able; mahi - the transcendental potencies; tu - indeed;avasitum - to ascertain; manasa - by my mind; antarena - within; sakṣat - directly; tava - Your; eva - certainly; kim uta - and what tospeak of; atma-sukha-anubhuteḥ - the happiness You experience in Your transcendental pastimes.

This is also described by Lord Brahmā, who, after stealing the Lord's calves, spoke the following prayer (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.14.2):

"My dear Lord, Your form is transcendenal to all material elements. I can understand that You have mercy upon me because you are revealing that form, standing before me like a small child. But although I am Lord Brahmā, the so-called creator of this universe, I am unable to ascertain the transcendental potencies of Your body. And if I am unable to understand the spiritual potency of Your child-like body, then what can I understand about Your transcendental pastimes?"*

kintu - however; śrī-kṛṣṇasya - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; vigraham - the form; bhautikam - made of the five matirial elements; yaḥ - one who; vadati - says; tatra - in thisconnection; aha - says; bṛhat-vaiṣṇave - the Bṛhad-Viṣnu Purana; yaḥ - one who; vetti - knows; bhautikam - made of material elements; deham - the body; kṛṣṇasya - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; parama - atmaṇaḥ - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; saḥ - he; sarvasmat - all; bahiśkaryaḥ - contradicting; śrauta - of the Śruti-śastra; smarta - and the smṛti-śastra; vidhaṇataḥ - the injunctions.

Some people may still say that Śri Kṛṣṇa's form is material. The Bṛhad-Viṣnu Purāna addresses them in the following words:

"One who thinks that the form of Śri Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, is made of material elements, directly contradicts the clear descriptions of the Śruti- and Smṛtiśāstra.

That Śri Kṛṣṇa's form is not material is also described in the Mahā-Kūrma Purana:

paramatma param brahma sac-cid-ananda-vigrahaḥ śabda-brahma-mayaḥ sakṣat svayam prakṛtir īśvaraḥ ady-anta-rahitaḥ suksmasthulatītaḥ parat paraḥ ataḥ - then; sthula - large; rupam - form; yat - which;tat - that; bhagavat - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; mayaya - by the illusory potency; sṛṣṭam - created; etayoḥ - of them both; param - above; śrī-kṛṣnacandraḥ - Śri Kṛṣnacandra; yatha - just as; govinda-vṛndavane - in the Govinda-Vṛndavana; bhagavati - to the Supreme Personality of Godhead; śrī-kṛṣne - Śri Kṛṣna; balarama - of Lord Balarama; praśne - in the question; parama-atma - the supersoul; param brahma - the Supreme Brahman; sat - eternal; cit - full of knowledge;ananda - and full of bliss; vigrahaḥ - whose form; śabda-brahma-mayaḥ - consisting of the Vedic hymns; sakṣat - directly; svayam - personally; prakṛtiḥ - the material potency; īśvaraḥ - the Supreme Controller; adi - beginning; anta - and end; rahitaḥ - without; sukṣma - the small; sthula - and the large; atītaḥ - beyond; parat - than the greatest; paraḥ - greater.

Large and small forms within the material world are all products of the Supreme Lord's illusory potency, māyā. Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's form, being completely spiritual and not at all a product of māyā, is different from all the large and small material forms. This is described in the Govinda-Vṛṇdāvaṇa-grantha, where Lord Balarāma, in the midst of posing a question to the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śri Kṛṣṇa, says:

"The Supreme Personality of Godhead is the Supreme Brahman effulgence and the all-pervading Supersoul. His form is eternal, full of knowledge, and full of bliss. He directly appears in the form of the sounds of the Vedic hymns. The material world is His potency. He is the Supreme Controller. He has neither beginning nor end. He is different from all large and small material forms. He is greater than the greatest."

Some may say the impersonal Brahman effulgence is the supreme object of worship. This view is refuted throughout the Vedic literatures. For example, in the Varāha-samhitā, the Personality of Godhead, Lord Varāha says:

"The palms of Lord Kṛṣṇa's hands and the soles of His feet are decorated with the markings of the flag, thunderbolt, lotus flower, and rod for controlling elephants. The effulgence of Lord Kṛṣṇa's fingernails and toenails is the sole origin of the Brahman effulgence.

This is also described in the Kṛṣṇa-yamala, Chapter 112, where Tripura says to Lord Vāsudeva:

The material universes, full of moving and non-moving living entities, rest within that effulgence. For this reason the Vedas state yasya bhāsā bhāti viśvam (The universe rests within the effulgence of the Supreme Personality of Godhead)."

This is confirmed by Mahārāja Dhruva in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 4.9.10):

"My Lord, the transcendental bliss derived from meditating upon Your lotus feet or hearing about Your glories from pure devotees is so unlimited that it is far beyond the stage of brahmānanda, wherein one thinks himself merged in the impersonal Brahman as one with the Supreme. Since brahmānanda is also defeated by the transcendental bliss derived from devotional service, then what to speak of the temporary blissfulness of elevating oneself to the heavenly planets, which is ended by the separating sword of time? Although one may be elevated to the heavenly planets, he falls down in due course of time."*

When one attains Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet, then he automatically obtains eveything desirable, and if one does not attain Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet, he cannot obtain anything that is actually desirable. This is described in the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (1.5.12):

"Knowledge of self-realization, even though free from all material affinity, does not look well if devoid of a conception of the Infallible [God]. What, then, is the use of fruitive activities, which are naturally painful from the very beginning and transient by nature, if they are not utilized for the devotional service of the Lord?"*

That Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet are the proper object of worship for everyone, including those elevated in transcendental knowledge, is confirmed by the following narration found in the Trailokya-sammohana-tantra:

ye 'nye 'ravindakṣa vimukta-maninas tvayy asta-bhavad aviśuddha-buddhayaḥ aruhya kṛcchrena param padam tataḥ patanty adho 'nadṛta-yusmad-anghrayah ataḥ eva - therefore; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; pada - feet; padma - of the lotus; sevanam - the service; vina without; brahma - of Brahman; upasam - the worship; kim - what is it?; iti - thus; tatha - in that way; brahma - Brahma;adi beginning with; stutiḥ - the prayer; ye anye - anyone, or all others; aravinda-akṣa - O lotus-eyed one; vimukta-maninaḥ - falsely considering themselves free from the bondage of material contamination; tvayi - unto You; asta-bhavat - speculating in various ways but not knowing or desiring more information of Your lotus feet; aviśuddha-buddhayaḥ - whose intelligence is still not purified and who do not know the goal of life; aruhya - even though achieving; kṛcchrena - by undergoing sefvere austerities, penances and hard labor; param padam - the highest position (according to their imagination and speculation); tataḥ - from that position; patanti - they fall; adhaḥ - down into material existence again; anadṛta - neglecting devotion to; yuśmat - Your; aṅghrayaḥ - lotus feet.

Of what use is the worship of Brahman without service to Śri Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet? This is described by Lord Brahmā in the following prayer (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.2.32):

"O lotus-eyed Lord, those who think they are liberated in this life but do not render devotional service to You must be of impure intelligence. Although they accept severe austerities and penances to rise to the spiritual position, to impersonal Brahman realization, they fall down again because they neglect to worship Your lotus feet."*

śreyaḥ-sṛtim bhaktim udasya te vibho kliśyanti ye kevala-bodha-labdhaye teṣam asau kleśala eva śiṣyate nanyad yatha sthula-tuṣavaghatinam ataḥ sarvam vihaya śrī-radhakanta-carana-sevanam kartavyam. nanyat śaśvatam iti śesaḥ.

tatha - in that way; śreyaḥ-sṛtim - the auspicious path of liberation; bhaktim - devotional service; dasya - giving up;te - of You; vibho - O my Lord; kliśyanti - accept increaseddifficulties; ye - all those persons who; kevala - only; bodha-labdhaye - for obtaining knowledge; teṣam - for them; asau - that;kleśalaḥ - trouble; eva - only; śiṣyate - remains; na - not;anyat - anything else; yatha - as much as; sthula - ulky; tuṣa - husks ofrice; avaghatinam - of those beating; ataḥ - then; sarvam - everything; vihaya - abandoning; śrī-radha-kanta - of Śri Kṛṣna, the lover of Śrimati Rādhāranī; carana - of the lotus feet; sevanam - the devotional service; kartavyam - should be performed; na - not; anyat - other things; śaśvatam - are eternal; iti - thus; śesah - the remainder of the verse is clear.

Lord Brahmā again confirms this fact in the following prayer (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.14.4)

"My dear Lord, devotional service unto You is the only auspicious path. If one gives it up simply for speculative knowledge or the understanding that these living beings are spirit souls and the material world is false, he undergoes a great deal of trouble. He only gains troublesome and inauspicious activities. His endeavors are like beating a husk that is already devoid of rice. One's labor becomes fruitless."*

The conclusion, therefore, is that one should abandon all other activities, and simply serve Lord Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet. No other thing is actually eternal.

At this point they who hanker after impersonal so-called liberation may protest: You have said that Śri Kṛṣṇa is the Supreme Brahman, that He is full of transcendental bliss, that He is eternally manifest, and that He enjoys pastimes in His own spiritual form. Does Brahman have a form? Is there any evidence to support that statement? Does Brahman have attributes? Does Brahman have opulences? Does Brahman have a home? Speak! They who are devoted to Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's lotus feet reply: How foolishly you speak! Who is able to completely describe the transcendental forms, qualities, and oher features of Lord Kṛṣṇa, whose glories are without end? Lord Brahmā prays (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.14.7):

param - furthermore; kṛṣṇaḥ - Śri Kṛṣṇa; yaḥ - who is; kathyate - described; vedaiḥ - by the Vedas; purṇaḥ - perfect and complete; sarva - of all; īśvaraḥ - the Supreme Controller; puman - a person;saḥ - He; eva - certainly; nidhila - of everything; adharaḥ - the resting place; nirguṇaḥ - free from the grasp of the three modes of material nature; prakṛteḥ - the material nature; paraḥ - beyond.

The Kṛṣṇa described by the Vedas is the perfect the Supreme Person, the controller of all and the resting place of all. He is beyond the touch of the material nature, He has no material qualities, and He is free from the grasp of the three modes of goodness, passion, and ignorance.

sattvadayo na santīśe yatra ca prakrta guṇaḥ sa śuddhaḥ sarva-sattvebhyaḥ puman adyaḥ prasīdatu nirguṇaḥ - beyond the three modes; yatha - just as; viṣṇu- puraṇe - in theViṣṇu Puraṇa; sattva - goodness; adayaḥ - beginning with; na - not; santi - are; īśe - in the Supreme Lord; yatra - where; ca - also; prakṛtaḥ - of material nature; guṇaḥ - the modes; saḥ - He; śuddhaḥ - pure; srva- sattvebhyaḥ - from the modes; puman - the person; adyaḥ - original; prasīdatu - may be merciful.

That Śri Kṛṣṇa is boyond the modes of material nature is described in the following statement of Viṣṇu Purāṇa (1.9.43):

"The modes of nature, beginning with material goodness, do not reside within the Supreme Lord. May the Original Personality of Godhead, who is pure and free from all material goodness, be merciful to us."

tatha - in the same way; padme - in the Padma Puraṇa; yaḥ asau - that person; nirguṇaḥ - by the word "nirguṇa"; iti - thus; uktaḥ - described; śastresu - in the Vedic literatures; jagat - of the universe; īśvaraḥ - the controller; prakṛtaiḥ - material; heya-saṃyuktaiḥ - abominable; guṇaiḥ - by qualities; heyatvam - abominable; ucyate - is said.

This is also confirmed by the following statement of the Padma Purāṇa (Uttara-khaṇda 91.38):

"When the Vedic literatures say the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the master of the universe, has no qualities (nirguṇa), they mean He has no material, abominable qualities."

atha - now; prakṛta - material; guṇaiḥ - qualities; varjitaḥ - without; līlaya - easily; sa-gunah - with qualities; śrī-bhagavate - in the Śrimad-Bhagavatam; rase - in the description of the rasa dance; avyasyasya - of the imperishable; aprameyasya - of the limitless; nirguṇasya - without qualities; guṇa-atmanaḥ - the personification of all qualities; iti - thus; adi - in the passage beginning; atha - therefore.

The Lord has no material qualities, but only spiritual qualities that He displays in His transcendental pastimes. In its description of the rāsa dance, Śrimad-Bhāgavatam says (10.29.14): "The imperishable, limitless Supreme Personality of Godhead has no qualities, but then again He does have qualities." This is also described in these words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.14.29):

This is also confirmed in Viṣṇu Purāṇa (6.5.79):

"The word bhagavān indicates the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is full of all knowledge, ability, strength, opulence, heroism, and splendor. He has no bad qualities."

Where there is a body composed of material elements, the illusory potency, māyā, is present. Where there is the illusory potency, māyā, the three modes of material nature are present. Where there are the modes of material nature, eventual destruction is unavoidable. In a body composed of material elements there is a difference between the body and the owner of the body. The material body is not eternal. Śri Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is a moon shining in Vṛndāvana, does not have a body made of the material elements. This is confirmed in the Sammohana-tantra, where Sanaka-kumāra says:

For the Supreme Personality of Godhead there is no difference between the body and the owner of the body. This is described in the Kurma Purāṇa:

"The difference between the body and the owner of the body does not exist in the Supreme Lord. Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, has a body made of transcendental pastimes."

Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's body is eternal. It is not made of material elements. For Him there is no difference between the body and the owner of the body. This is described in the scriptures:

"The Supreme Person, who is bigger than the biggest and smaller than the smallest, who appears outside, and who is eternal and full of eternal bliss, playfully manifests His transcendental form."

If this is so, then how is it possible for Him to touch His potencies? This objection is not valid. Because the two of them are, in one sense, one, He is, in one sense, already one with them. For example, in the 119th Chapter of the Kṛṣṇa-yāmala, Lord Vāsudeva, assuming a female form, in the spiritual land of Vṛndāvana sees that Śri Krsna is not different from Rādhā.

In this way Rādhā is manifest from Kṛṣṇa's form. Why, then, are there two forms? The Nārada-pañcarātra explains:

"Becoming many to please Her, the sweet Lord enjoyed with His sweet beloved, who manifested one form only."

At this point some may ask: "Why is it that the form of the Personality of Godhead, which He manifests only by His own wish, and which is made of the sweetness of transcendental pastimes, is famous everywhere for its dark complexion?"

Part of the answer to this question may be found in the statement of the Śruti-śastra: "No one can understand even a drop of the Lord's transcendental form." Aside from this it is also said:

"He eternally manifests the color śyāma, within which all colors rest. His complexion is not the material color black."

At this point some may say: Why do you say that Kṛṣṇa is eternal? At the final cosmic anihilation everything perishes. This is confirmed by the Vedānta: "At the time of cosmic anihilation, no one, not even the leaders of the demigods, survives."

To this objection the following reply may be offered: 800,000 miles above the Bhūrloka planetary system the sun planet is situated, and 800,000 miles above the sun the moon planet is situated. Beyond the sun and moon is the transcendental planet

Goloka Vṛndāvana, where there is no sun and moon, and where, because of His influence, there is no influence of time, Because destruction comes from the influence of time, where there is no time how can there be destruction? The Goloka-samhitā says:

How is it possible for the Supreme Personality of Godhead to be subject to destruction? Everything that exists rests on the effulgence of His body. How can time influence Him? At this point some may say: If, because He controls the sun and moon Kṛṣṇa is not under the influence of time, then what is the use of the moments of time? It is by time that the final cosmic destruction is done. The moments of time are described in these words (Amara-kośa Dictionary 1.1.176):

Laughing at this, the devotees say: You do not understand what we have said! The Supreme Personality of Godhead does not have a material body. How can the moments of time affect Him? The moments of time are manifested from the air element. The moments of time influence material bodies. As the scriptures say: "Earth, water, fire, air, and ether are the material elements." The air element, is described in both the Gorakṣa-saṃhitā and Yoga-vaśiṣṭha:

"Prāṇa, apāna, samāna, udāna, vyāna, nāga, kūrma, kṛkara, devadatta, and dhanañjaya are the ten kinds of air."

From the kūrma air the nimeṣas, unmeṣas, and other units of time are manifested. It is said: "The nāga air grasps the life-force and the kūrma air closes the eyes." In the Yoga-vaśiṣṭha it is said "The kṛkara air controls hunger and thirst, and the kūrma air closes the eyes." For Śri Kṛṣṇacandra, however, there is no influence of time. This is described in the Govinda-vṛndāvana- śāstra, where the Supreme Personality of Godhead says to Lord Balarāma:

prema - of love; ananda-bliss; mayaḥ - consisting; śuddhaḥ - pure; sarvada - in all respects; nava-yauvanaḥ - always a fresh youth; kalah - time; kala - of time; svarupaḥ - the form; aham - I am; kala - of time; atma - the self; kala - of time; gocaraḥ - the field of perception; samasta - all; kala - of time; rahitaḥ - devoid; sarva-karana-karanam - the original cause of all causes; cit - transcendental; svarupaḥ - with a form; jñana - of knowledge; rupaḥ - with a form; advitīyaḥ - one without a second; sama - equal; dṛk - with vision; paraḥ - supreme; evam rupam - in this way; sada - always; eva - certainly; aham - I; tiṣṭhami - stand; atra - here; eva - certainly; sarvada - in all respects.

"Full of bliss and love, perfectly pure, and eternally youthful, I am time, time's form, time's self, and time's controller. Completely free of time, the original cause of all causes, my form spiritual, my form full of knowledge, one without a rival, My glance equal to all, and supreme, in this form I stay here eternally."

From all this we may understand that Śri Kṛṣṇacandra, whose form is full of the most sublime nectar, is eternal. The phrase "I stay here" refers to Vṛndāvana.

atha - now; yatha - just as; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; tatha - in the same way; vṛndavanam - V/vndavana; eva - certainly; yatha - just as; padma-puraṇe - in the Padma Puraṇa; nirvaṇa-khaṇde - in the Nirvaṇa-khaṇda; rahasya-adhyaye - in the Rahasya Chapter; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Persoality of Godhead; uvaca - said; nityam - eternal; me - My; mathuram - Mathura; viddhi - just know; vanam - the forest; vṛndavanam - of Vṛndāvana; tatha - in the same way; mama - My; avataraḥ - incarnation; nityaḥ - eternal; ayam - this; atra - in this matter; ma - do not; saṃśayam kṛthaḥ - doubt.

As the Supreme Personality of Godhead is eternal, so is Vṛṇdāvaṇa. This is described in the Padma Purāṇa, Nirvāṇakhaṇda, Rahasya-adhyaya, where the Supreme Personality of Godhead says:

"Know that My Mathurā is eternal, and so is Vṛndāvana Forest. It is My eternal incarnation. Do not doubt it."

vrndavanam - Vrndāvana; iti - thus; śrī-bhagavat - of the Supreme Personality of godhead; anga - form; viśesah - specific; atah - therefore; tat - that; eva - certainly; kala-adi - time, and other limiting factors prsent within the material energy; rahitam - without; atha - then; yatra - where; śrīkrśanacandrah - Śri Kṛṣṇacandra; tat - His; anga - of the body; jyotisa - with the effulgence; vrndavana-adi -Vrndāvana and other locations in the sprirtual world; samastam - all; pradīptam - illuminated; yatha - just as; holokasamhitayam - in the Goloka-samhita. balabhadram prati - to Balabhadra; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; aha - said; ekah - one; aneka - with many; svarupah - forms; aham - I am; sarva-śaktimayah - full of all potencies; prman the Supreme Person; mat - My; dehat - from the body; nirgatam emenated; jyotih - effulgence; sarva - bhutamayam - in which the cosmic manifestation rests; param - after.

Vṛndāvana is an expansion of the Supreme Lord's transcendental body. Therefore it is free from time. Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is present there. From the splendor of His limbs Vṛndāvana and everything else is splendidly manifest. This is described in the Goloka-saṃhitā, where the Supreme Personality of Godhead says to Balabhadra:

"I am the one Supreme Person, who expands into innumerable forms, and who is the master of all potencies. Everything that exists rests in My bodily splendor."

evam - in this way; śrī-kṛṣṇacandra - of Śri Kṛṣṇacandra; tanu - of the body; pada - of the feet; nakha - of the nails; jyotiśa - by the effulgence; samujjvalam - splendid; vṛndavana - Vṛndāvana; adi - beginning with; samasta - all; sthalam - places; iti - thus; mantavyam - should be understood; tatra - there; kala-adi - of time and other material limitations; praveśaḥ - entrance; na - not; eva - certainly; yatra - where; śrī-kṛṣṇacandrah - Śri Kṛṣṇacandra; sva-prakaśaḥ - self-manifest; nitya - eternally; kiśoraḥ - youthful; samasta - all; kala-adi - material limitations, beginning with time; rahitaḥ - without; tatha hi - furthermore; govinda-vṛndavane - in the Govinda-Vṛndāvana-śastra; śrī-kṛṣṇam prati - to Śri Kṛṣṇa; balaramah - Lord Balarama; uvaca - said.

From this we may understand that from the effulgence of Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's transcendental form, feet, and nails, Vṛndāvana and all other spiritual abodes are splendidly manifested. Time and other material restrictions cannot enter there. Where eternally youthful Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is personally present, there is no time or other material restrictions. In the Govinda-Vṛndāvana-śāstra Balarāma says to Śri Kṛṣṇa:

atha - now; sarva-īśvaratvam - the nature of being the Supreme Personality of Godhead; śrī-bhagavat - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; nirupaṇam - the description; yatha - just as; brahma-saṃhitayam - in the Brahma-saṃhita; śrī-bhagavantam - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; alokya - having seen; brahma - Brahma; aṣṭadaśa-akṣara-mantram - the eighteen syllable mantra; prapa - attained; tat - that; anu -

after; śrībhagavantam - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; stauti - he glorifies; yatha - just as; śrībhagavataḥ - from the Lord; udbhuya - manifesting; brahma - Brahma; sarvatra - everywhere; andhakaram - darkness; dṛṣṭva - having seen; bhagavantam - the Lord; stauti - glorifies; tataḥ - then; brahmaṇam prati - to Brahma; aṣṭadaśa-akṣaram - the 18 syllable mantra; adat - the Lord gave.

That Śri Kṛṣṇa is the Supreme Personality of Godhead we will now explain. The Supreme Personality of Godhead is described in the Brahma-samhitā, where Brahmā sees the Lord and obtains the eighteen-syllable mantra. Then he glorifies the Lord with prayers. When Brahmā was born from the Supreme Lord, and he saw only blinding darkness everywhere, he offered prayers. Then the Lord gave Brahmā the eighteen syllable Kṛṣṇa-mantra. This is described in the following verses (Brahma-samhitā 5.26-29):

atha - then; tepe - performed austerities; saḥ - he; suciram - quickly; prīnan - pleasing; govindam - Govinda; avyayam - unchanging; śvetadvīpa-patim - the Lord of Śvetadvipa; kṛṣṇam - Kṛṣna; goloka-stham - in Goloka; parat param - the Supreme; prakṛtya - by nature; guna-rupiṇya - full of virtues; rupiṇya - with a form; paryupasitam - worshiped; sahaṣra-dala-sampanne - with thousands of petals; koti-kiñjalka-bṛhmite - with millions of filaments; bhumiḥ - ground; cintamaṇiḥ-cintāmaṇi; tatra - there; karṇikare - in the whorl; mahasane - on a great throne; samasīnam - seated; cid-anandam - full of spiritual bliss; jyoti-rupam - splendid; sanatanam - eternal; śabdabrahma-mayam - filled with the sounds of the Vedas; veṇum - the flute; vadayantam - playing; mukhambuje - on the lotus mouth; vilasinī-guṇa-vṛtam - playful; svaiḥ svaiḥ - with His own; amśaih - portions; abhistitam - glorified.

"Brahmā, being desirous of satisfying Govinda, practiced the cultural acts for Kṛṣṇa in Goloka, Lord of Śvetadvipa, for a long time. His meditation ran thus, "There exists a divine lotus of a thousand petals, augmented by millions of filaments, in the transcendental Land of Goloka. On its whorl, there exists a great divine throne on which is seated Śri Kṛṣṇa, the form of eternal effulgence of transcendental bliss, playing on His divine flute resonant with the divine sound with His lotus mouth. He is worshiped by His amorous milkmaids with their respective subjective portions and extensions and also by His external energy (who stays outside) embodying all mundane qualities.**

The span of life is divided into three parts: bālya (childhood), yauvana (youth), and vārdhakya (maturity). Bālya extends up to kaiśora. It should be known that kaiśora is contained within bālya. What is the intention here? He says in this verse "He is surrounded by the gopis." This clearly indicates the kaiśora age because of the inappropriateness in the bālya age of the conjugal rasa, which is indicated by the phrase "surrounded by the gopis."

In Chapter 119 of the Śri Kṛṣṇa-yāmala, Lord Vāsudeva, the king of Dvārakā, accompanied by His servant Tripura, approached Śri Śri Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa in Divya-Vṛndāvana to gain Their audience. By Lord Kṛṣṇa's order, Vāsudeva bathed in Rādhā-kuṇda, assumed a female form, accepted the name Śyāmā, and then saw the perfectly affectionate couple, Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. The passage follows.

Śri Kṛṣṇa is eternal, eternally self-manifest, and the master of eternal potencies and opulences. He is full of perfect and complete transcendental bliss, and He is completely beyond the grip of material time. Therefore I say:

Now I shall explain that Nanda Mahārāja's son, Śri Kṛṣṇa, who enjoys pastimes in Vṛṇdāvana, and who is full of transcendental bliss, is the original Supreme Personality of Godhead, the controller of all.

Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is the eternal, blissful Supreme Personality of Godhead. Someone may doubt: "Then who is the Kṛṣṇa that is Nanda Mahārāja's son?" The Ādi-yāmala says:

"The Kṛṣṇa manifested among the members of the Yadu dynasty is not the original form of the Personality of Godhead. The original form is the Kṛṣṇa that never leaves Vṛṇdāvaṇa. His form has two arms eternally. He never manifests four arms."

At this point someone may ask: "If Kṛṣṇa in Vṛndāvana is the original Personality of Godhead, then who is the Kṛṣṇa that appeared in the Yadu dynasty?" To this question the devotees reply: "Śri Kṛṣṇacandra, the son of Nanda Mahārāja, is the celebrated, perfect and complete Original Personality of Godhead. Of this there is no doubt." This is confirmed by Lord Brahmā, who says (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.1.23):

"The Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śri Kṛṣṇa, who has full potency, will personally appear as the son of Vasudeva. Therefore all the wives of the demigods should also appear in order to satisfy Him."*

The original, perfect, and complete Personality of Godhead is Śri Kṛṣṇa, the son of Mahārāja Nanda. Of this there is no doubt. This is confirmed in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (1.3.28):

"All of the above-mentioned incarnations are either plenary portions or portions of the plenary portions of the Lord, but Lord Śri Kṛṣṇa is the original Personality of Godhead."*

Hearing this, some may say: "This is wonderful. Śri Kṛṣṇa, eternally stays in Vṛndāvana, is self-manifested, eternally blissful, and eternally perfect and complete. Then why has He taken birth?"

The devotees reply: "You have said that the self-manifested Personality of Godhead does not take birth. That is true. However, because His pastimes seem like the activities of ordinary persons, it is said that He takes birth. Because He appears by His own will His birth is not real. "O Lord, when we see Your transcendental form, which is more handsome than millions of Kāmadevas, we think of ourselves as Your beloved girl friends and our minds become agitated with desires for conjugal love.

evam - in this way; śrutīnam - of the Personified Vedas; abhimata - desired; siddhi - of the perfection; artham - for the purpose of obtaining; vrndavane - in Vrndavana; svaprakaśah - self-manifested; tat - that; atra - there; pramanam evidence; adhigamaytam - should be understood; tat - of Him; darśana - the sight; ahlada - joy; vidhuta - cleansed; hrt - of the heart; rujah - impurities; manoratha - of their desires; antam - the end; śrutayah - the Personified Vedas; gopyah gopīs; yatha - just as; angajaḥ - expansions of His potency; nityah - eternal associates; śruti-rupah - Personified Vedas; muni-rupah - great sages; deva-kanyah - daughters of the demigods; iti - thus; pañcadha - in five divisions; ataḥ therefore; sah - He; krsnacandram - ŚriKrsna candra; sva-prakaśah - self manifested; na - not; tu - but; garbha - in the womb of a mother; vasah - residing; tatra - in this connection; vadinah - our critics; vadanti - may say;yadi - if; garbha - from a womb; sambhavaḥ - birth; na - not;eva - certainly; tada - then; katham - why is it?

In order to fulfill this desire, these Personified Vedas appeared in Vṛndāvana. This is described in the following statement of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.32.13):

"During Kṛṣṇa's advent these Vedic scholars took birth in the shape of the gopis in Vṛṇdāvaṇa; as young gopis they got the association of Kṛṣṇa in fulfillment of their previous birth's desire. The ultimate goal of their perfect desire was attained and they were so joyous that they had nothing further to desire."*

In this way these Personified Vedas became gopis and attained Lord Kṛṣṇacandra's association.

The gopis are divided in five groups: 1. Expansions of the Lord's transcendental potency, 2. Eternal associates from the spiritual world, 3. Personified Vedas who became gopis, 4. Great sages who became gopis, and 5. Young girls from the heavenly planets who became gopis.

Lord Kṛṣnacandra appears in this world by His own will. He does not reside in a mother's womb.

Our opponents may protest: "If He did not take birth from a mother's womb, then why does Śrimad-Bhāgavatam ((10.1.23) state:

Please hear our reply: During the reign of Svāyambhuva Manu, the couple Pṛśni and Sutapā performed austerities and worshiped the Supreme Personality of Godhead, begging Him to become their son. To fulfill their desire the Lord manifested His Viṣnu form. This is described in these words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.3.9):

"Vasudeva then saw the newborn child, who had very wonderful lotuslike eyes and who bore in His four hands the four weapons śańkha, cakra, gadā and padma."*

After showing this form to His parents, the Supreme Personality of Godhead said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.3.44):

The Lord's Viṣnu form was shown here. This is not the Lord's original form. This is confirmed by the Yāmala-tantra: "The original form of the Supreme Personality of Godhead has two arms. He never displays four-arms." This is also confirmed by the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.90.48): "Lord Śri Kṛṣna is He who is known as jana-nivāsa, the ultimate resort of all living entities, and He is also known as Devaki-nandana, the son of Devaki. May He be all glorious and happy."* The Bhāgavatam only says janma-vāda (who is said to have taken birth). Therefore it should be understood that the Original Supreme Personality of Godhead never actually takes birth.

Now our opponents may say: In the Viṣnu Purāna when Brahmā prayed to Him, the Personality of Godhead Kśirodakaśāyi Viṣnu gave to Brahma two hairs that became Balarama and Kṛṣna. The Viṣnu Purana (5.1.59-60) says:

"After hearing these prayers, the Supreme Personality of Godhead plucked from Himself a white and black hair and gave them to Brahmā."

This is the doubt. The devotees of Lord Kṛṣṇa reply: This statement of the Visnu Purāna is couched in general words and does not specifically name Lord Krsna as the incarnation of Vișnu's hairs. Śri Kṛṣṇa is the origin of everything. He appears only by His own will. Everything that exists has been expanded from Him. From whom was He expanded? He was not expanded from anyone else. In the statement "These two hairs will descend to the Earth and remove the Earth's burden of distress" the two incarnations are Lord Visnu and Lord Balarāma. It is Lord Visnu, who is in charge of maintaining the material creation, that killed the demons and removed the Earth's burden. Lord Krsna Himself does not kill the demons. Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.38.22) says: "No one is especially dear to Lord Krsna. No one is His special friend. No one is not dear to Him. No one is His enemy. No one is ignored by Him. He sees everyone with an equal eye." Furthermore, Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is beyond the grip of the material energy and its three modes. He is perfectly situated in Supreme transcendental bliss. Therefore the dual number in the word matkeśau (My two hairs) refers to Lord Visnu and Lord Balarāma.

Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.2.13) describes the meaning of Lord Balarāma's name in the following words: "Balarāma will be called Rāma because of His ability to please all the inhabitants of Gokula, and He will be known as Balabhadra because of His extensive physical strength."* Because it can be used for destruction, physical strength is connected to the mode of ignorance. In the Govinda-Vṛndāvana-śāstra Lord Balarāma says to the Supreme Personality of Godhead:

Because Lord Balarāma is the reservoir of all strength, the incarnation of Ananta Śeṣa is expanded from Him. Lord Balarāma descended to the earth planet to kill the demons. These two may be the two hairs referred to here. Lord Kṛṣnacandra, however, is the original form of the Personality of Godhead, and He appears whenever and wherever He likes. Therefore in the previously quoted passage of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.1.23): "The Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śri Kṛṣna, who has full potency, will personally appear as the son of Vasudeva" should be understood as a metaphor.

On the p text of giving two hairs to Brahmā, Lord irodakaśāyi Viṣnu actually intended to say: "Śri Kṛṣna, Supreme Personality of Godhead, the crest jewel of all forms of Godhead and the master of Divya-Vṛndāvana, appears by His own wish. He will now appear on the earth planet, accompanied by His two expansions Viṣnu and Balarāma." This is also confirmed by Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.33.26): "The Supreme Personality of Godhead, the master of the universes, has now appeared with His own expansion." Although the Supreme Personality of Godhead expands in many forms, He remains a single person, This is confirmed in the Govinda-Vṛndāvana-śāstra: "The Supreme Personality of Godhead is one. He is the self-effulgent Supreme Master. He is the creator and destroyer of all the universes."

At this point the question may be raised: Why does the Supreme Personality of Godhead bring His plenary expansions with Him when He appears in the material world? The answer is given in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.33.26): "The Supreme Lord appears to establish the principles of religion and silence those who are irreligious."

At this point someone may further ask: "You have said that the Supreme Personality of Godhead descended with two expansions: Viṣnu and Balarāma. You then proceed to substantiate that statement by quoting the phrase "avatirno hi bhagavān aṁśena" from Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.33.26). The word "aṁśena" in this verse is singular, but yet you say the Lord appeared with two expansions. Are you not, therefore, contradicting the statement of the Bhāgavatam, which mentions only one expansion?

The answer to this questions is that the word "amśena" is in the singular to indicate the expansions of the Lord taken together as a group, which is then treated in the singular. Actually the Lord appears with innumerable expansions and opulences. This is confirmed by the following statement of Śri Kṛṣṇa-yāmala: "The Supreme Personality of Godhead descends to this world accompanied by 64 expansions and opulences."

At this point someone may raise the following objection: "If the Supreme Personality of Godhead's birth is simply a metaphor, then why did He manifest the pastimes of being a child?"

The answer is He did it to please His devotees. He did it to show mercy to Devaki, Vasudeva, Nanda, Yaśodā, and many others and to give them the chance to drink the nectar of parental love for Him. This is described in the Sammohana-tantra:

From this we can understand that the Personality of Godhead performs pastimes in His bālya, kaumāra, pauganḍa, and yauvana ages in order to please His devotees and also to fulfil the desire of Nanda and Yaśodā to love Him as if He were their child. The Vedic literatures say: "Oh, how fortunate is Yaśodā-devi, the wife of Nanda." Nanda Mahārāja, is the leader of the vraja-vāsis and the best among them. Lord Kṛṣṇa became his son, protected his surabhi cows, and performed other duties also. Are they not His servants? Why, then, does He act in this way? It is said (Śrimad-Bhhagavatam 10.33.36): "Having heard Lord Kṛṣṇa's pastimes, one should engage in service to Him."

At this point someone may say: "If Śri Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who manifests His form by His own wish, who is the all-pervading Supersoul, who does not have to perform any action to accomplish any goal, is equal to everyone, as the Bhāgavatam (10.38.22) affirms in the words 'No one is especially dear to Śri Kṛṣṇa. No one is His special friend. No one is not dear to Him. No one is His enemy. No one is ignored by Him. He sees everyone with equal eye', then why did He kill Pūtanā, Śakaṭāsura, Tṛṇāvarta, Aghāsura, Bakāsura, and a host of other demons? Why is this?"

Please hear from me the reason. The Supreme Personality of Godhead, Lord Kṛṣṇacandra, sees everyone with an equal eye. He does not have to perform any action to accomplish anything He desires. He is full of nectar. He did not kill anyone. Śrila Śukadeva Gosvāmi says (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.29.15):

Someone may reply: "Ah, this is true. Still, why did Kṛṣṇa hastily jumpinto the poisonous water and severely chastise the Kāliya serpent?"

To this it may be said: Viṣnu is Kṛṣṇa's expansion. Viṣnu's servant is Garuḍa. Kāliya constantly meditated on Garuḍa out of fear, and in this way he saw Garuḍa everywhere. Garuḍa is a great devotee of Lord Viṣnu. The Vedic literatures say:

Because he is Lord Viṣnu's carrier, Garuḍa is a great Vaiṣnava. A Vaiṣnava is on the same transcendental platform as Viṣnu Himself. The Lord Himself says: "From a Vaiṣnava a man may obtain devotional service. By engaging in devotional service, a man obtains Me. For this reason a Vaiṣnava is equal to Lord Viṣnu." Viṣnu is an expansion of Lord Kṛṣna. Because Viṣnu and Vaiṣnava are equal, mercy was given to Kāliya. The Lord made him fearless. He did not kill him. Lord Kṛṣna's childhood pastimes are always for the benefit of others. It is said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.29.14): "O king, the Supreme Pewrsonality of Godhead has appeared for mankind's benefit." Furthermore, conquered by His devotees' love, Lord Kṛṣna is very kind to them. It is said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.9.13-14):

Note: The argument about Kāliya here is that because Visnu and Vaiṣṇava are equal, Kāliya's constant meditation on the Vaiṣṇava Garuḍa was equal to constant meditation on Viṣṇu. That meditation earned Kāliya Lord Kṛṣṇa's mercy.

Being absolute, beyond relativity, He is free from distinctions between cause and effect, although He is the cause and effect of everything. The Supreme Personality of Godhead manifests His childhood pastimes through the agency of His yogamāyā potency. The Lord's childhood form, and indeed all His other forms are manifested through the agency of this potency. They are not the Lord's original form. The Lord's original form is the form of Śri Kṛṣṇa in His kaiśora age (10-15). Except for Lord Kṛṣṇa's kaiśora age, all other forms of the Lord are manifested through the yogamāyā potency. This is the conclusion of all Vedic literatures. Some, considering Śri Kṛṣṇa's childhood form His original feature, glorify it, saying, "Everywhere the sages glorify Lord Kṛṣṇa's childhood form." The Sammohana-tantra says:

ambhojanma-janiḥ - lord Brhma, who was born from a lotus flower; tat-antar-gataḥ - now became entangled with the affairs of kṛṣṇa, who was enjoying luncheon pastimes with His cowherd boys; maya - arbhakasya - of the boys made by kṛṣṇa's maya; īśituḥ - of the supreme controller; draṣṭum - just to see; mañju - very pleasing; mahitvam anyat api - other glories of the Lord also; tat-vatsan - their calaves; itaḥ - than that plave where they were; vatsa-pan - and the cowherd boys taking care of the calves; nītva - bringing them; anya-tra - to a different place; kurudvaha - O Maharaja Parīkṣit; antara-dadhat - kept hidden and invisible for some time; khe avasthitaḥ yaḥ - this person Brahma, who was situated in the higher planetary system in the sky; pura - formerly; dṛṣṭva - was observing; aghasura-mokṣanam - the wonderful killing and deliverance of Aghasura from material tribulation; prabhavataḥ - of the all-potent Supreme Person; praptaḥ param /vismayam - has become extremely astonished.

"O Mahārāja Parikṣit, Brahmā, who resides in the higher planetary system in the sky, had observed the activities of the most powerful Kṛṣṇa in killing and delivering Aghāsura, and he was astonished. Now that same Brahmā wanted to show some of his own power and see the power of Kṛṣṇa, who was engaged in His childhood pastimes, playing as if with ordinary cowherd boys. Therefore, in Kṛṣṇa's absence, Brahmā took all the boys and calves to another place. Thus he became entangled, for in the very near future he would see how powerful Kṛṣṇa was."*

ato balya-vayo maya-mayam. sarvopari kaiśora-vayaḥ svabhavah.

ataḥ - therefore; bala - childhood; vayaḥ - age; maya-mayam - manifested by the Yogamaya potency; sarva - to all other forms; upari - superior; kaiśora - of kaiśora;vayaḥ - age; sva-bhavaḥ - original form.

From all this we may conclude that Lord Kṛṣṇa's childhood form is manifested through the agency of His yogamāyā potency. Lord Kṛṣṇa's kaiśora (10-15 years) form is better than all His other forms. This kaiśora form is His original feature.

Vṛndāvana is eternal. Lord Kṛṣna's kaiśora form is eternal. Everything in relation to them is eternal. Of this there is no doubt. What does it mean that Kṛṣna's kaiśora form is eternal? It means that supremely handsome Śri Kṛṣnacandra, who is full of the nectar of perfect bliss, enjoys transcendental amorous pastimes with His transcendental potency.

This is described in the Nārada-pañcarātra: "Lord Kṛṣṇa enjoys pastimes with His beloved pleasure pleasure potency." The rasa of amorous pastimes is called "ādi-rasa (the first rasa)" because it is the most important of rasas. It is not possible to enjoy amorous pastimes in the balya (childhood) age, and even in the yauvana age (after 16 years) the pleasures of amorous pastimes become diminished. For this reason reason the kaiśora age (10-15 years) is the best time for the Lord to completely expand His transcendental amorous pastimes.

At this point someone may say: If Śri Kṛṣṇa eternally remains in Vṛndāvana in His kaiśora form, then why is it that He goes to Mathurā and other places, remains in these places, and manifests various glories and opulences there? You have quoted the Yāmala-tantra's statement "Śri Kṛṣṇa does not take even one step out of Vṛndāvana." These things appear contradictory to me. The Lord simultaneously leaves Vṛndāvana and does not leave it. for this reason I have doubts in this matter of Śri Kṛṣṇa's not leaving Vṛndāvana.

To this doubt the devotees of the Lord reply: Lord Kṛṣṇa eternally remains in Vṛndāvana in His kaiśora form. This is certainly true. There is no doubt of this. This doubt is also presented in the Vedic literatures in the following words:

The actual fact is that Śri Kṛṣṇa, the lover of Śri Rādhā, always remains in Vṛndāvana, although His plenary expansions may leave Vṛndāvana and go to other places. At this point some may say: "How is it that the Supreme Lord does not even take the same garments and ornaments when He leaves Vṛndāvana? It is said in the Sammohana-tantra: `One may meditate on Lord Hari in any form. The form the Lord takes in meditation is at the discretion of the meditator.' For this reason it should be possible to meditate on Lord Hari in His non-vṛnḍāvana form, although decorated with vṛnḍāvana-ornaments and garments."

To this objection the following reply may be given: Perhaps this may be true for the Lord's forms outside of Vṛndāvana, but it is not true for His Vrndāvana-form. Śri Krsna remains in Vrndāvana in a specific garments and ornaments. This feature of the Lord never leaves Vṛndāvana. Of this there is no doubt. Those who meditate on Śri Krsna in His Vrndāvana feature attain Śri Krsna, and those who meditate on other forms of the Lord attain the association of these other forms of the Lord. This is described in Śrimad-Bhagavad-gitā Upaniṣad (4.11), where the Lord says: "All of them, as they surrender unto Me, I reward accordingly."* Therefore if one worships Śri Krsna in His Vṛndāvana-form, in which the Lord appears holding the flute, dressed in yellow garments, and decorated with peacock-feather, guñjā-necklace, and other ornaments, one will become able to directly see that Śri Krsna, who shines like a moon in Vṛndāvana-dhāma. The Lord will appear decorated with these specific garments and ornaments. This is described in the Nārada-pañcarātra, where Durgā says to Vijaya:

At this point someone may ask: "If Śri Kṛṣṇa eternally stays in Vṛndāvana as You say, then why is it that the residents of Vṛndāvana all see Him leave for Mathura, and why is it that after that they no longer see Him in Vṛndāvana? This is my doubt."

Please hear from me the reason for this. The Supreme Personality of Godhead eternally stays in Vṛndāvana. Sometimes His form is directly manifest and visible to all, and at other times, although He remains in Vṛndāvana, He is not visible to the people in general. This is described in the following statement of Brahmānda Purāna:

That Śri Kṛṣṇa's form eternally remains in Vṛṇdāvaṇa, although sometimes it is visible to the people in general, and sometimes not visible to them, is also confirmed by the following statement of Govinda-Vṛṇdāvaṇa-śāstra, Third Paṭala, where, in the course of answering a question of Nārada Muni, Śri Kṛṣṇa says:

"This is Vṛndāvana, My delightful, eternal, transcendental abode. Invisible to ordinary mens' eyes, the demigods and great saintly persons always stay here.

At this point someone may ask: "If Lord Kṛṣṇa is not seen by ordinary eyes, then why did He appear before the eyes of the entire world and before those eyes enjoy many nectar pastimes with the gopas and gopis?"

Please hear the answer. When Kṛṣṇa appeared before ordinary conditioned souls, He was obscured by His illusory potency.

Still, why is it that when in Vṛndāvana He enjoyed the rāsa dance andother pastimes, He was directly seen by the gopis, who are either direct expansions of the Lord's potency, His eternal associates, Personified Vedas who attained the status of gopis, great sages who become gopis, or young demigodddesses who became gopis, and, covered by His illusory potency, He was not seen by others?

The gopis nwho are direct expansions of the Lord's potency are eternally like the Lord's personal limbs. They are eternally like the Supreme Lord Himself. The gopis who had been Personified Vedas are also the limbs of the Supreme Lord. 70,000 sages performed severe austerities, sitting in the midst of blazing fires for 100 kalpas, and in this way conquered the Lord, who fulfilled their desire to become gopis. The Lord made them like Himself. Many young demigoddesses, ordered by Lord Brahmā, also became gopis. All these gopis eternally see Lord Kṛṣṇa face-to-face.

Śri Kṛṣṇacandra remains eternally in Vṛṇdāvaṇa. Of this there is no doubt. The evidence for this is found in Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's words to the gopis at the time of His departure for Mathurā (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.39.35):

This is also confirmed by the Brahma-vaivarta Purāna:

"'O beautiful gopis, don't worry. I will return. I will not be gone for long.' After comforting the grief-stricken gopis with these words, Kṛṣṇa quickly left with the cowherd men and boys."

In these verses Kṛṣṇa promises: "I will return." Why did He not keep His promise? It may be asked: Where did the Lord go? Where did He arrive? The Ādi-yāmala explains: "Kṛṣṇa never leaves Vṛndāvaṇa." Because Kṛṣṇa never leaves Vṛndāvaṇa, His promise "I will return" is only a figure of speech. He never left and He never returned. This is also confirmed by the statements of the messengers sent by Him. Kṛṣṇa, the lover of Śri Rādhā, eternally stays in Vṛndāvaṇa, and it is His plenary viṣnu-form of Lord Vāsudeva who travels to Mathurā. If it He never left Vṛndāvaṇa, then He will also never return. This should be understood.

atha kecid vadino vadanti etasam cen nitya-gocaraḥ śrī-kṛṣnacandras tada katham uddhavam prasthapya gopīnam viraha-nivaranam kṛtavan iti. yatha atha - now; kecit - some; vadinaḥ - speakers vadanti - may say; etasam - of them; cet - if; nitya - eternally;gocaraḥ - within the range of perception; śrī-kṛṣnacandraḥ - Śri Kṛṣnacandra; tada - then; katham - why?;uddhavam - Uddhava; prasthapya - deputing; gopīnam - of the gopīs; viraha - of feelings of separation; nivaranam - removal; kṛtavan - did; iti-thus; yatha - just as.

At this point some may object: If Śri Kṛṣṇacandra remains eternally in the range of the vrajavāsis' perception, then why did He send Uddhava to Vṛṇdāvana to console the gopis in their grief of separation from Him? This is described in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.46.3), where Lord Kṛṣṇa says to Uddhava:

Text 78 (b)

"My dear gentle friend Uddhava, please go immediately to Vṛndāvana and try to pacify my father and mother, Nanda Mahārāja and Yaśodā-devi, and the gopis. They are very much grief-stricken, as if suffering from great ailments. Go and give them a message. I hope their ailments will be partially relieved."*

To this objection I reply: This description of the gopis being separated from Kṛṣṇa does not apply to the gopis who are potencies expanded from the Lord's transcendental body, or to those who are the Lord's eternal associates, or to those who had been Personified Vedas or great sages. This description of the gopis feeling separation from Lord Kṛṣṇa applies only to those gopis who had been daughters of the demigods, and who, on Lord Brahmā's order, assembled on the earth, accepted the forms of gopis, and performed various services for the Lord's pleasure. These gopis had not worshiped the Lord with pure devotion, nor had they performed severe austerities to become gopis. They became gopis only because of Lord Brahmā's order. Brahmā said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.1.23):

It is only the gopis who had been young demigoddesses who saw Lord Kṛṣṇacandra depart for Mathura, and they were the only gopis who felt separation from Him. The other gopis were never separated from Lord Kṛṣṇa. This is described in the Ādiyāmala:

"In this way I have described the feelings of separation experienced by various devotees during Lord Kṛṣṇa's manifest pastimes. However, the residents of Vraja were never separated from Lord Kṛṣṇa."

In this way it should be undertood that Lord Kṛṣṇacandra stays eternally in Vṛṇdāvana, He may be directly seen only by those devotees who worship Him with pure devotional love or who perform severe austerities for millions of kalpas. Otherwise, who is able to see Him? It should be understood that He eternally stays in Vṛṇdāvana. This is described in the Hastāmalaka-śāstra Text 10): "A foolish person, whose field of vision is covered by cloud in the sky thinks: 'A cloud has covered the sun.'" In the same way Kṛṣṇa eternally stays in Vṛṇdavana. How is it possible to see the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the lover of Śri Rādhā, without engaging in devotional service? It is for this reason fools say: "The Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śri Kṛṣṇacandra, left Vṛṇdāvaṇa."

iti - thus; evam - in this way; vṛnḍavane - in Vṛndāvana; purnatamah - most perfect; śrī-bhagavan - Supreme Personality of Godhead; krsnacandrah - Lord Krsnacandra; svaprakaśah - self-manifest; anyatra - in other forms; alpa slightly; prakaśah - manifest; tat - this; eva - certainly; purnataratvena - as more-perfect; dvaraka-nathah - the master of Dvaraka; vasudevah - Lord Vasudeva; balaramah -Balarama; ca - and; purnah - perfect; api - also; saha - with; pradyumna - Pradyumna; aniruddha-/ adih - Aniruddha and other forms of the Lord; tat - therefore; anyat - other; ca - also; purna - kalpatvena - considered as perfect; brahma - Brahma viṣṇu - Viṣṇu; śiva - Śiva; maha-viṣṇu - Maha-Viṣṇu; vasudevah - Vasudeva; yatha - just as; mathuram - to Mathura; gacchantam - going; bhagavantam - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; sahasra-śīrasah - who had thousands of hoods; anantasya - of Lord Ananta; krode - on the lap; akrurah - akrura; apaśyat - saw; yatha - just as.

The most perfect form is Bhagavān Kṛṣṇacandra who remains in Vṛndāvana. All other forms of the Lord are not as perfect. The more perfect forms are Lord Balarāma and Lord Vāsudeva, who reigns as the king of Dvārakā. The perfect forms include Lord Pradyumna, Lord Aniruddha, and other forms of the Lord. Lord Brahmā, Lord Viṣnu, Lord Śiva, Lord Mahā-Viṣnu, and others, are also counted in the perfect category. Akrūra travelled to Mathurā with the Vāsudeva feature of Lord Viṣnu. When the Lord was going to Mathurā, Akrūra saw him as Lord Vāsudeva reclining on the lap of thousand-headed Lord Ananta (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.39.46):

tasyotsange ghana-śyamam
pīta-kauṣeya-vasasam puruśam catur-bhujam śantam padma-patrarunekṣanam tasya - of Him; utsange - on the lap; ghana - like a could; śyamam - dark; pīta - with yellow; kauṣeya - silk; vasasam garments; puruṣam - the Personality of Godhead; catuḥ - with four; bhujam - arms; śantam - peaceful; padma - of a lotus; patra - petal aruṇa reddish; ksanam - with eyes.

"On the curved lap of Śeṣa Nāga, Akrūra saw Kṛṣṇa sitting very soberly, with four hands. His eyes were like the reddish petals of the lotus flower. His complexion was the dark color of a rain-cloud, and He was dressed in yellow silken garments."*

tatha - in the same way; atra - here; eva - certainly; rukmiṇī - of Rukmiṇī; rabhase - in the passion; śrībhagavantam - to the Supreme Personality of Godhead; vasudevam prati - to Lord Vasudeva; rukmiṇī - Rukmiṇī; uvaca - said; yat - of whom; karṇa - of the ear; mulam - the surface; ari - of enemies; karśaṇa - O destroyer; na - not; upapayat - attains; yuśmat - of You; katha - the topics; mṛda - of Śiva;viriñci - of Brahma; sabhasu - in the assemblies; gīta - glorified; iti thus; atra - here; viṣṇoḥ - of Lord Viṣṇu; ullekhaḥ - mention; na - not; kṛtaḥ - is done; yat - which;eva - certainly; tat - that;svasudevaḥ - Śri Vasudeva; viṣṇuh - Viṣṇu; iti-thus; sucitam - is indicated; tat - of Him; guṇaḥ - the qualities; yatha - just as; bṛhat-naradīye - in the Bṛhan-naradīya Puraṇa.

In the same way the Lord appeared in Dvārakā in His Vāsudeva form. This may be known from the following passage of Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.60.44), where Rukmiṇi-devi says to Lord Vāsudeva: "O my Lord, O subduer of enemies, an unfortunate woman who has never heard of Your glories may accept an ordinary man as her husband, but a woman who has learned about You - that You are praised not only in this world but in the halls of the great demigods like Lord Brahmā and Lord Śiva - will not accept anyone besides Yourself as her husband."

We may note that although Śrimati Rukmini-devi does not mentions Lord Vāsudeva by name, it is clear from her description of the Lord that she refers to the Vāsudeva expansion of Lord Viṣnu. The qualities of Lord Viṣnu are described in the following statement of Bṛhan-nāradiya Purāna:

After He had gone to Mathurā in order to kill Kamsa, the Lord manifested the power and opulence of the Viṣṇu-Vāsudeva form. This is described in the Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.43.17) in following words, which describe Lord Vāsudeva's opulence of appearing differently to different living entities: "Within Kamsa's wrestling arena the Lord appeared to the wrestlers exactly like a thunderbolt. To the people in general He appeared as the most beautiful personality. To the females He appeared to be the most attractive male, Cupid personified."

The Lord also exhibited the character of Lord Vāsudeva in other situations. One example is how He expanded into 16,000 forms to enjoy transcendental pastimes in the different homes of His 16,000 wives in Dvārakā, as was observed by Mahāmuni Nārada. Another example is the Lord's revelation of His Universal Form to Arjuna. The Lord also exhibited a four-armed form during the great battles fought after His kidnapping Rukmini and after His taking the pārijāta tree of Indra. At various other times also, the Lord of Dvārakā rode on Garuḍa, and also exhibited a four-armed from holding the conch, disc, club, and lotus. This feature of Lord Vāsudeva is also described by Lord Śiva in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 4.24.28):

yaḥ param ramhasaḥ sakṣat
tri-gunaj jīva-samjñitat bhagavantam vasudevam prapannaḥ sa priyo hi me yaḥ - anyone; param - transcendental; ramhasaḥ - of the controller; sakṣat - directly; tri-guṇat - from the three modes of material nature; jīva-samjñitat - living entities called by the name jīvas; bhagavantam - unto the Supreme Personality of Godhead; vasudevam - unot Kṛṣṇa; prapannaḥ - surrendered; saḥ - he; priyaḥ - very dear; hi - undoubtedly; me - of me.

"Lord Śiva continued: Any person who is surrendered to the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa, the controller of everything - material nature as well as the living entity - is actually very dear to me."

This evidence clearly demonstrates that the Lord's form in Mathurā and Dvārakā is the expansion of Lord Vāsudeva. The form of Śri Krsnacandra is the ultimate form of the Lord, and is superior to His form as Visnu Vāsudeva. Visnu Vāsudeva is the master of Vaikunthaloka. From Him Lord Mahā-Visnu is expanded. To prove that the Lord 's form at Dvārakā is Visnu Vāsudeva the following evidence is quoted: When Jaya and Vijaya were cursed by the brāhmanas at the gateway of Vaikunthaloka, the Supreme Personality of Godhead spoke to them the following words: "If you both agree to become My enemies, I shall liberate you after three births." For this reason Jaya and Vijaya were born as Hiranyaksa and Hiranyakasipu, whom Lord Visnu killed in His forms of Varāha and Nṛsimha. In the next yuga Jaya and Vijaya were born as Rāvaṇa and Kumbhakarna, and were killed by Lord Visnu in His forms as Rāmacandra and Laksmana. After that Jaya and Vijaya were born as Śiśupāla and Dantavakra, and Lord Visnu appeared as Lord Vasudeva and Lord Balarāma and again killed them. In this way Jaya and Vijaya attained liberation after three briths. Śri Kṛṣṇacandra's power and opulence is superior to that of Lord Visnu, and that of any other person. This is confirmed by the following statement of Nārada-pañcarātra: "The forms of Lord Rāmacandra and the other incarnations of Godhead all spring from Śri Krsna, the original Supreme Personality of Godhead." From this we may understand that all Visnu-forms and other froms of the Personality of Godhead are expanded from Śri Kṛṣṇacandra. Śri Krsnacandra, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, stays in Divya-Vrndāvana. He is described in the Goloka-samhitā:

Lord Mahā-Viṣṇu is an expansion of Lord Kṛṣṇa. Some may now say: "Everything is the potency of Lord Kṛṣṇa, the moon of Vṛndāvana. Is He not the all-powerful Lord?" Ah, well said. Lord Viṣṇu-Vāsudeva and all other incarnations of Godhead are expanded from Kṛṣṇa. If this were not so (and the master of Dvārakā were not Lord Vāsudeva), then why would Brahmā and the other demigods pray (at the conclusion of the Lord's pastimes as described in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam Canto 11) that Lord Dvārakānātha return to Vaikuṇṭha? (If the master of Dvārakā were directly Lord Kṛṣṇacandra, then Brahmā and the demigods would have requested Him to return to the Goloka planet.) In these prayers Lord Brahmā said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 1.6.21, 25, 26):

He is described in the following statement of Brahma-samhitā (5.43):

"Below the planet named Goloka Vṛndāvana are the planets known as Devi-dhāma, Maheśa-dhāma and Hari-dhāma. These are opulent in different ways. They are managed by the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Govinda, the original Lord. I offer my obeisances unto Him."*

That Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is the Original Supreme Personality of Godhead, superior to Viṣṇu, Śiva, Brahmā, and everyone else is also confirmed by the following verse of Brahmasaṃhitā (5.41), where Lord Brahmā prays:

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who is the absolute substantive principle being the ultimate entity in the form of the support of all existence, whose external potency embodies the three-fold mundane qualities, viz., sattva, rajas, and tamas and diffuses the Vedic knowledge regarding the mundane world."**

In this verse the word "sattvāvalambi (goodness)" refers to Lord Mahā-Viṣṇu. "Para-sattva (superior goodness)" refers to Lord Vāsudeva, and "viśuddha-sattva (pure goodness)" refers to Lord Govinda, who is known as Śri Krsnacandra. The word "sattvāvalambi" refers to goodness when it touches the modes of passion and ignorance. This variety of goodness is manifested from Lord Mahā-Visnu and Lord Vāsudeva. Lord Mahā-Visnu expands His illusory potency māyā to manifest the creation. The creation is therfeore done by Lord Visnu's māyā. Laksmi, Sarasvati, and other goddesses are manifested from the mode of passion. The demons are manifested from the mode of ignorance. The Lord has many names, such as Janārdana and Madhusūdana, that celebrate His enmity to the demons. By the mode of passion Lord Vāsudeva begot 560 million descendents in His 16,000 queens at Dvārakā. By the mode of ignorance He killed Kamsa, Narakāsura and other demons. By the mode of goodness He protects the Earth. Lord Viṣṇu is situated in the mode of goodness. Sattvāvalambi Mahāvisnu is described in the Brahma-samhitā (5.13-16):

viśuddha - pure; sattvah - goodness; givindah - Lord Govinda; yatha - just as; śakra - of Indra; stutiḥ - the prayer;sattvam - goodness; viśuddham - pure; tava - Your; dhama - abode;śantam - peaceful; tapah-mayam - consisting of austerities; dhvasta - destroyed; rajah - passion; tamaskam - and ignorance; maya - of maya; mayah - consisting; ayam - this; guṇa - of the modes of nature; sampravahah - stream; na - not; vidyate - is;te - of You; anugrahana - mercy; anubandhaḥ - in relation to.

Lord Govinda, who manifests the mode of viśuddha-sattva (pure goodness), is described in Indra's prayers (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.17.4):

"Now by Your grace I can understand that You are the Supreme Lord, personality of Godhead, and that You are transcendental to all the material qualities. Your transcendental position is viśuddha-sattva, which is above the platform of the material mode of goodness, and Your transcendental abode is beyond the disturbance of the material qualities. Your name, fame, form, quality and pastimes are all beyond this magerial nature, and they are never disturbed by the three material modes. Your abode is accessible only for one who undergoes severe austerities and penances and who is completely freed from the onslaught of material qualities like passion and ignorance. If someone thinks that when You come within this material world You accept the modes of material nature, he is mistaken. The webs of the material qualities are never able to touch You, and You certainly do not accept them when You are present within this world. Your Lordship is never conditioned by the laws of material nature."*

In the Krama-dipikā it is said: "The Supreme Lord's delightful reddish lotus soles are marked with the signs of the fish, elephant-rod, disc, conchshell, flag, barelycorn, lotus flower, and thunderbolt." The word "aridara" in this passage refers to both the disc and the conchshell. In this way the Lord's two feet are marked with the fish, flag, and parasol. All told, there are 21 markings on the lotus feet of the Supreme Personality of Godhead.

After stealing the Lord's surabhi calves, Brahmā saw a great wonder and said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.14.18):

"My dear Lord, leaving aside all other things and just considering today's happenings - what I have seen - are they not all due to Your inconceivable energies? First of all i saw You alone; thereafter You expanded Yourself as Your friends, the calves and all the existence of Vṛndāvana; then I saw You and all the boys as four-handed Viṣṇus, and They were being worshiped by all elements and all demigods, including myself. Again They were all wound up, and You remained alone as you were before. Does this not mean that You are the Supreme Lord Nārāyaṇa, the origin of everthing, and from You everything emanates, and again everything enters unto You, and You remain the same as before?"

The Lord may be understood by hearing about Him, seeing Him directly, or seeing Him in a meditative trance.

atha - then; vasudeva - with Vasudeva; adayah - beginning; brahma - with Lord Brahma; adayah - beginning; maysya - with Lord Matsya; kurma - and Lord Kurma; adayaḥa - beginning;kah - who?; iti - thus; ucyatam - may be said; tat - that; eva - certainly; bhaga - of His opulence; amśa - part; kala - fraction; śakti - by His potency; aveśatvena - as entered; nirupitaḥ - are described; yatha - just as; śrī-kṛṣṇa-yamale - in the Sri Krsna-yamala; bhagah - opulence; tu - indeed; ardham - half; tat - of that; ardham - half; ca - alsop amsah - amsa-avatara;iti - thus; abhidhiyate - is denoted; tat - of that; ardham - half;kuma - kula-avatara; akhyatam - is denoted; kala - kala-avatara; tasya - of that; ardham - half; ucyate - is said.

Someone may ask: "What is the nature of the Supreme Lord's incarnations: the group of incarnations headed by Lord Vāsudeva, the group of incarnations headed by Lord Brahmā, and the group of incarnations headed by Lord Matsya and Lord Kūrma?"

The answer is given: The Supreme Lord's incarnations may be divided into the following categories: Bhāga-avatāra, amśa-avatāra, kalā-avatāra, and śakty-āveśa-avatāra. These incarnations are described in the Śri Kṛṣṇa- yāmala:

"When the Lord expands half of His personality, the expansion is known as bhāga-avatāra. When the bhāga-avatāra expands by half, the expansion is known as amśa-avatāra. The expansion of half of the amśa-avatāra is known as kula-avatāra, and the expansion of half of the kula-avatāra is known as kalā-avatāra.

That Śri Rādhā is manifested from half of Lord Kṛṣṇa's body is also described in the Govinda-Vṛṇdavana-śāstra, where Śri Kṛṣṇa says to Balarāma:

"O Balarāma, please listen and I will tell You something. One day, taking My flute, My heart full of bliss and My form bending in three places, I went under a kadamba tree and, seeing My own form reflected in a splendid golden platform studded with jewels, I became enchanted. At that moment My heart became filled with the sweet happiness known as conjugal love, which charms the entire world. My heart now desires to become a woman. I yearn to enjoy Myself as a woman.

Because Śri Śri Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa are not different and because Śri Kṛṣṇa is the master of all potencies, therefore Śri Rādhā is also the master and source of all potencies. He is by nature full of sweetness and bliss, free from the three modes, and eternally manifest beyond the material nature. Because Rādhā is not different from Him, so is She also. It is said that within the Lord are all potencies, the modes, and the material nature.

Text 59 (a)

sarva-śaktir yatha kriya-śaktir iccha-śaktir jñanaśaktir iti tridha. tatra kriya-śaktir yatha brahma-viṣnu-maheśamahaviṣnu-narayanadayaḥ. yatha sarva - all; śaktih - potencies; yatha - just as; kriya - of action; śaktih - the potency; iccha - of desire; śaktih - the potency; jñana - of knowledge; śaktih - the potency;tii - thus; tridha - three kinds; tatra - in this connection; kriya-śaktih - kriya-sakti; yatha - just as; brahma - Brham;viṣnu - Visnu; maheśa - Siva; mahaviṣnu - Maha-Visnu; narayaṇa - and Narayaṇa; adayaḥ - beginning; yatha - just as.

All the Lord's potencies are divided into three broad categories: kriyā-śakti (the potency of action), iccha-sakti (the potency of desire), and jñāna-śakti (the potency of knowledge). Brahmā, Viṣṇu, Śiva, Mahā-Viṣnu, Nārāyana, and others manifest the kriyā-śakti. This is described in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 2.5.18):

sattvam rajas tama iti nirguṇasya guṇas trayaḥ sthiti-sarga-nirodheṣu gṛhīta mayaya vibhoḥ sattvam - the mode of goodness; rajaḥ - the mode of passion; tamaḥ - the mode of ignorance; iti - all these; nirguṇasya - of the Transcendence; guṇaḥ trayaḥ - are three qualities; sthiti - maintenance; sarga - creation; nirodheśu - in destruction; gṛhītaḥ - accepted; mayaya - by the external energy; vibhoḥ - of the Supreme.

"The Supreme Lord is pure spiritual form, transcendental to all material qualities, yet for the sake of the creation of the material world and its maintenance and annihilation, He accepts through His external energy the material modes of nature called goodness, passion and ignorance."*

maha-visnur yatha brahma-samhitayam

sahasra-murdha viśvatma maha-viṣnuh sanatanaḥ vamaṅgad aśrjad viṣnuṁ dakṣinaṅgat praja-patim maha-viṣṇuh - Lord Maha-Visnu; yatha - just as; brahma-samhitayam - in the Brahma-samhita; sahasra-murdha - possessing thousands of heads; viśva-atma - the universal soul; maha-viṣṇuh - known as Maha-Viṣṇu; sanatanaḥ - eternal; vama-aṅgat - from His left limb; asṛjat - created; viṣṇum - Viṣṇu; dakṣiṇa-aṅgat - from His right limb; praja-patim - the progenitor of beings, Brahma.

Lord Mahā-Viṣṇu's manifestation of kriyā-śakti is described in the Brahma-samhitā (5.15 and 16):

"The same Mahā-Viṣṇu entered into each universe as His own separate subjective portions. The divine portions that entered into each universe are possessed of His majestic extension, i.e. they are the eternal universal soul, Mahā-Viṣṇu, possessing thousands of thousands of heads. The same Mahā-Viṣṇu created Viṣṇu from His left limb, and Brahmā, the first progenitor of beings, from His right limb.**

narayano yatha drumila uvac bhutair yada pañcabhir atma-sṛṣṭai\ puram virajam viracayya tasmin svamśena viṣṭaḥ puruṣabhidhanam avapa narayana adi-devaḥ narayanaḥ - Lord Narayana; yatha - just as; drumilaḥ - Drumila; uvaca - said; bhutaiḥ - by the material elements; yada - when; pañcabhiḥ - five (earth, water, fire, air and ether); atma-sṛṣṭaiḥ - created by Himself; puram - the body; virajam - of the universe in its subtle form; viracayya - having constructed; tasmin - within that; sva-aṁśena - in the manifestation of His own plenary expansion; viṣṭaḥ - entering; puruśa-abhidhanam-the name Puruśa; avapa - assumed; narayanaḥ - Lord Narayana; adi-devaḥ - the original Personality of Godhead.

Lord Nārāyana's manifestation of kriyā-śakti is described by Drumila (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.4.3):

"When the primeval Lord Nārāyaṇa created His universal body out of the five elements produced from Himself and then entered within that universal body by His own plenary portion, He thus became known as the Purusa."*** ayam eva maha-viṣṇuḥ śrī-kṛṣnasya kala. yatha viṣnur mahan sa iha yasya kala-viśeṣo govindam adi-puruṣam tam aham bhajami iti.

ayam - He; eva - certainly; maha-viṣnuḥ - Maha-Visnu;śrī-krsnasya - of Sri Kṛṣṇa; kala - an expansion; yatha - just as; viṣṇuḥ mahan - the Supreme Lord Maha-Viṣṇu; saḥ - that; iha - here; yasya - whose; kala-viśeśaḥ - particular plenary portion or expansion; govindam - Lord Govinda; adi-puruśam - the original person; tam - Him; aham - I; bhajami - worship;iti - thus.

Lord Maha-Viṣṇu is a kalā-expansion of Śri Kṛṣna. This is confirmed in these words (Brahma-samhitā (5.48):

"I adore the primeval Lord, Govinda, for Mahā-Viṣṇu is a portion of His plenary portion (kalā)."*

Thus Lord Govinda is the Original Supreme Personality of Godhead, the original master of the kriyā-śakti. The Lord's icchā-śakti (desire-potency) is described in Brahma-samhitā (5.44):

"The external potency, māyā, who is of the nature of the shadow of the cit potency, is worshiped by all people as Durgā, the creating, preserving and destroying agency of this mundane world. I adore the Primeval Lord Govinda, in accordance with whose will Durgā conducts herself."**

atha - now; śrī-bhagavat-gītasu upaniśatsu - in Srimad-Bhagavad-gita Upanisad; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; uvaca - said; maya - by Me; adhyakṣeṇa - by superintendence; prakṛtiḥ - material nature; suyate - manifest; sa - with; caracaram - moving and nonmoving; iti - thus; icchasaktih - iccha-śakti; śrī-bhagavatī - the goddess; durga -

Durga; atha - now; jñana - of knowledge; śaktih - thepotency; yatha - just as; śrī-bhagavat - of the Personality of Godhead; avadhana-matrena - simply by glancing; srsteh - of the creation; udbhavah - birth; prabhavah - manifestation; pralayah destruction; ca - and; bhavati - is; yatha - just as; śruteh - of the Sruti-sastra; vakya - of the statement; vrttau - in the commentary; an - without; apanna-a-birth; vikarah - orchange; san - being so; ayaskanta - a magnet; vat - like; eva - certainly; yah - who; buddhi-adīn - beginning with the intelligence; calayan - causes to move; pratyak - completely; iti - thus; adi - the passage beginning; ayaskanta - a magnet; sannidhane - near; lauham - iron; ca - also; calati - moves; yatha - just as; ayaskantah - the magnet; na - not; kiñcit - anything; karoti - does; na - not; kiñcit anything; alayati - protects; na - not; kiñcit - anything; samharati - destroys; ca - also; iti - thus; evam - in this way; jñanaśaktiḥ - jñana-śakti.

In the Bhagavad-gitā Upaniṣad (9.10) the Lord says:

"This material nature is working under My direction, O son of Kunti, and it is producing all moving and unmoving beings. By its rule this manifestation is created and annihilated again and again."*

The icchā-śakti, described here, is goddess Durgā. The Lord's jñana-śakti is manifest when, simply by glancing at the material universes, He creates, maintains, and destroys them. This is described in the Śruti-vākya-vṛtti:

"The Supreme Lord is beginningless and changeless. He is like a magnet that moves the intelligences of the residents of this world."

Iron moves towards a magnet. The magnet itself does not move at all. In the same way the Lord does not maintain the world at all, and neither does He destroy the world at all. These actions are done by His jñāna-śakti.

Lord Viṣṇu, Mahā-Viṣṇu, Brahmā, Śiva, Matsya, Kūrma, and all other Deities are all either amśa, kula, kalā, or śaktyāveśa expansions of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. Śri Kṛṣṇa, the lover of Śri Rādhā. The conclusion is that the original Personality of Godhead is the creator of these expansions. No one else is. The evidence for this, which may be seen in the Purānas, has been written here. For example, in the Brahma-samhitā (5.48) it is said:

ataḥ - therefore; yavat - to what extent; eva - certainly; avatara - of incarnations of Godhead; svarupah - forms; te - they; sarve - all; śrī-kṛṣnacandrasya - of Śri Kṛṣnacandra; amśa - amśas; kala - kala-expansions; adayaḥ - beginning with; yatha - just as; rama-adi - the incarnation of Lord Rama, etc.; murtiśu - in different forms; kala-niyamena - by the order of plenary portions; tiṣṭhan - existing; nana - various; avataram - incarnations; akarot - executed; bhuvaneśu - within the worlds; kintu - but;kṛṣnaḥ - Lord Kṛṣna; svayam - personally; samabhavat - appeared; paramaḥ - the supreme; puman - person; yaḥ - who; govindam - unto Lord govinda; adi-puruśam - the original person; tam - unto Him; aham - I; bhajami - offer obeisances.

All incarnations of Godhead are amśa-expansions, kala-expansions, or some other kind of expansion of Śri Kṛṣṇacandra. This is confirmed by the following statement of Brahma-samhitā (5.39):

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who by His various plenary portions appeared in the world in different forms and incarnations such as Lord Rāma, but who personally appears in His supreme original form as Lord Kṛṣṇa."

"If Śri Kṛṣṇa is the Original Supreme Personality of Godhead and has no duty He must perform, then why does He incarnate in various forms on the earth?

This question is answered in the Nārada-pañcarātra, Gṛḥya Upaniṣad:

"Lord Rāma and other incarnations all have specific missions when They descend to the Earth. They remove the Earth's burden. They destroy that great burden."

Lord Vāsudeva and other incarnations descend to remove the burden of the earth. Lords Brahmā, Viṣṇu, and Śiva descend to create, maintain, and destroy the material universes. Lord Matsya descends to rescue the Vedas, Lord Kūrma descends to hold Mandara Mountain. Lord Varāha descends to kill Hiraņyākşa and rescue the earth. Lord Nṛsimha descends to kill Hiranyakaśipu. Lord Vāmana descends to cheat Bali Mahārāja. Lord Paraśurāma descends to rid the earth of kṣatriyas. Lord Rāmacandra descends to kill Rāvana and His rāksasa followers. Lord Balarāma descends to kill Pralambāsura and other great demons. Lord Buddha descends to show mercy to the animals. Lord Kalki descends to kill the mlecchas. In the Viṣṇudharma Purāna it may be seen that Lord Kalki is an incarnation of the Lord. Lord Vyāsa descends to reveal the religion of the Vedas. In this way there are countless incarnations of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. In the Bhagavad-gitā (4.7) the Supreme Lord says:

iti - thus; tat anu - afterwards; sa-aparadha - the offender;eva - certainly; sarasvatī - Sarasvati; stutim - prayers; cakara - offered.

The following pastime is narrated in the Goloka-samhitā: The goddess Sarasvati was born from the root of Lord Kṛṣṇa's tongue. Immediately after birth she cast an amorous sidelong glance at Lord Kṛṣṇa. Observing her glance, Lord Kṛṣṇa became angry and cursed her in the following words: "I curse you to become a tree, and then I again curse you to become the wife of the demigod Brahmā." When Sarasvati heard these two curses from the Lord she became angry, and retaliated with the following curse: "O Lord, although I committed only one offense, You have twice cursed me. For cursing me more than I deserved I curse You that You will enjoy conjugal pastimes with a limb of Your own body." (This "limb" is, of course, Śri Rādhā.) After this the offender Sarasvati offered the following prayer:

atha - now; śrī-kṛṣṇasya - of Śrī Kṛṣṇa; avataranam - of incarnations; svarupa - form; aha - he describes; padmapurana - in the Padma Purana; nirvana-khanḍe - in the Nirvana-khanda; rahasyaadhyaye - in the Rahasya Chapter; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; uvaca - said; vyasam prati - to V/yasadeva; yat - which;idam - this; me - to Me; tvaya - by you; pṛṣṭam - asked; rupam - form;divyam - transcendental; sanatanam - eternal; niṣkalam - non-dual; niskriyam - without material activites; santam - peaceful; sat - eternal; cit - full ofknowledge; ananda - and bliss; vigraham - whose form; purnam - complete;pada - lotus; palaśa - petal; akṣam - eyes; na - not; ataḥ - than thisform; paratamam - superior; mama - My; satyam - real; vyapi - allpervading; para-anandam - full of transcendental bliss; cit-ghanam - spiritual; śaśvatam - eternal; param - supreme; mama - My;avatarah - incarnation; nityah - eternal; ayam - this; atra - here; ma-samśayamkrthah - do not doubt.

That Śri Kṛṣṇa is the form in which all incarnations of Godhead rest is confirmed in the Padma Purāṇa, Nirvāṇa-khaṇḍa, in the Rahasya Chapter, where the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Lord Kṛṣṇa, says to Vyasa:

"This form of Mine, the object of your inquiry, is transcendental, eternal, non-dual, materially inactive, peaceful, full of knowledge and bliss, and perfect and complete. There is no other form superior to this lotus-eyed form. This form is the actual spiritual reality. It is eternal, all-pervading, and full of bliss. It is the eternal resting place of My incarnations. Please do not doubt this."

ataḥ sarvopari-vaibhavaḥ sarveṣam adhara-svarupaḥ śrī-kṛṣnacandraḥ sarveṣam atma-svarupaḥ. athaitasya samam tan-mayayacchannaḥ kecid anyam kurvantīti tatraha ataḥ - therefore; sarva - all; upari - above;vaibhavaḥ - opulence; sarveśam - of all; adhara-svarupaḥ - the resting place; śrī-kṛṣṇacandraḥ - Śrī Kṛṣṇacandra; sarveśam - of all; atma-svarupaḥ - the original form; atha - therefore; etasya - ofHim; samam - equal; tat-mayaya - by His illusory potency;acchannaḥ - covered; kecit - some; anyam - someone else; kurvantī - do; iti - thus; tatra - in this connection; aha - he says.

Therefore it may be concluded that Śrī Kṛṣṇacandra is the supremely powerful resting place of all incarnations of Godhead. Śrī Kṛṣṇacandra is the original self of all incarnations of Godhead. Only those illusioned by His māyā-potency will say someone else is His equal. For this reason it is said:

yasyaivanghri-kalamśa-sambhava-maha-viṣṇus tv anekas tatas tasyaikasya ca roma-kupa-jaṭhare brahmanḍko 'nekaśaḥ tasyaikanḍaka-madhyato bhagavato 'nekavataraḥ sthitaḥ śrī-kṛṣnasya ca tasya samyam akarod anyam tv aho 'syajñata yasya - of whom; eva - certainly; anghri - of the lotus feet; kala - of a part; amśa - of a part; sambhava - manifest;mahaviṣṇu - Maha-Viṣṇu; tu - indeed; anekah - many; tatah - from Him; tasya - of Him; ekasya - of one; ca - also; roma-kupa-jaṭhare - pore of the body;brahmaṇḍakah - universe; anekaśaḥ - many; tasya - of Him; eka - one;aṇḍaka - universe; madhyatah - in the middle; bhagavatah - of the Supreme Lord; aneka - many; avataraḥ - incarnations of Godhead; sthitaḥ - are situated; śrī-kṛṣṇasya - of Śrī Kṛṣṇa; ca - also; tasya - of Him; samyam - equality; akarot - does; anyam - another; tu - indeed; aho - Oh; asya - of Him; ajñata - ignorance.

Numberless Mahā-Viṣṇu are manifest from a tiny fraction of an insignificant atom of Lord Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet. From each bodily pore of each Mahā-Viṣṇu a host of material universes are manifest. Within each universe numberless incarnations of Godhead appear. Śri Kṛṣṇa is the origin of all this. He is the Original Supreme Personality of Godhead. It is only ignorance of His real nature that prompts men to think there is someone equal to Him.

yatha koṭīśvaro raja tat-tulyaḥ kim śatadhipaḥ palaṁ palardhaṁ karṣaṁ va tulyaṁ mulyaṁ kim iśyate tat - therefore; ca - also; yatha - just as; koṭī - ofmillions; īśvarah - the controller; raja - a king; tat - to him;tulyaḥ - equal; kim - how?; śata - of a hundred; adhipaḥ - the leader; palam - apala; pala-ardham - half a pala; karśam - a karśa (one fourth of a pala); va - or; tulyam-mulyam - equal in value; kim - iśyate - how is it?

Just as a village chief who rules of a hundred peasants is not equal to a great king who reigns over millions, and just as the different weights of a pāla, pālārdha, and kārṣa are not equal, in the same way, no one is equal to the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śri Kṛṣṇa.

suvarṇasya ca ratnasya vastu caikam na canyatha gaṅgayaḥ kumbha-samsthapyam jalam gaṅga-jalam smṛtam gaṅgayam ca vinikṣiptam punar gaṅgeva tad yatha suvarnasya - of gold; ca - also; ratnasya - of jewels;vastu - substance; ca - also; ekam - one; na - not; ca - also;anyatha - otherwise; gaṅgayaḥ - of the Ganges River; kumbha - in a pot; samsthapyam - placed;jalam - water; gaṅga - of the Ganges; jalam - water; smṛtam - is considered;gaṅgayam - in the Ganges; ca - also; vinikṣiptam - thrown; punah - again; gaṅga - the Ganges; iva - like; tat - that; yatha - just as.

Śrī Kṛṣṇa is the Original Personality of Godhead, the origin of all incarnations of Godhead. All incarnations of Godhead are actually Śrī Kṛṣṇa in different form. They are not different from Him just as gold and gems are equally valuable or just as the water of the Ganges is always the same whether flowing in the river, or held in a jug.

tad eva sampurṇananda-vigrahaḥ śrī-kṛṣnacandraḥ. tasyamśa-kalatvenanye nirupitaḥ. ity adi sarvam purvam uktam tasmimś ca jñatavyam eva. ity adi śrī-bhagavato 'nanta-mahimno guṇa-prakaśadi yat kiñcit puraṇadiṣu dṛṣṭam tad uktam. samyag brahmadayo vaktum na samarthaḥ. yatha śrī-bhagavate tat - therefore; eva - certainly; sampurna- perfect andcomplete; ananda - of bliss; vigrahaḥ - whose form; śrīkṛṣnacandraḥ - Śrī Kṛṣnacandra; tasya - of Him; amśa - of a part;kalatvena - as a part; anye - others; nirupitah - are described; iti - thus;adi - beginning; sarvam - all; purvam - previously; uktam - said; tasmin - inthat; ca - also; jñatavyam - should be understood; eva - certainly; iti - thus;adi - beginning; śrī-bhagavatah - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead;ananta - limitless; mahimnah - with glory; guna - of transcendental qualities; prakaśa - manifestation; adi - beginning; yat kiñcit - what; purana-adiśu - in the Puranasand other Vedic literatures;dṛṣṭam - seen; tat - that; uktam - said; samyak - completely; brahma-adayah - LordBrahma and others; vaktum - to describe; na - not; samarthaḥ - areable; yatha - just as; śrī-bhagavate - in Śrīmad-Bhagavatam.

From all this we may understand that Śri Kṛṣṇacandra is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, whose transcendental form is full of perfect and complete bliss, and who is the origin of all incarnations of Godhead who are all parts of His partial expansions. Although the various glories and transcendental attributes of Lord Kṛṣṇa are described to a certain extent in the Purāna and other Vedic literatures, even the greatest devotees and demigods, such as Lord Brahmā and others cannot begin to describe Lord Kṛṣṇa's glories with anything like completeness. This is confirmed by the following statements in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.14.21 and 10.14.14):

The question may be raised: "How does one obtain the lotus feet of the Supreme Personality of Godhead?" The answer is that one obtains the Lord's lotus feet by serving them with pure devotion. This is confirmed by the Supreme Personality of Godhead Himself in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.14.21):

"Only by practicing unalloyed devotional service with full faith in Me can one obtain Me, the Supreme Personality of Godhead. I am naturally dear to My devotees, who take Me as the only goal of their loving service. By engaging in such pure devotional service, even the dog-eaters can purify themselves from the contamination of their low birth."*

What is devotional service? In the Nārada-pañcarātra it is said:

"Bhakti, or devotional service, means engaging all our senses in the service of the Lord, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the master of all the senses. When the spirit soul renders service unto the Supreme, there are two side effects. One is freed form all material designations, and, simply by being employed in the service of the Lord, one's senses are purified."*

tasyam - in this; bhaktau - devotionalservice; tri-vidham - in three features; lakṣanam - is characterized; sadhani - the neophyte stage of devotional service in practice; jñana-anvita - the intermediate stage where there is awakening of transcendental knowledge; prema-lakṣana - and the advanced stage where there is awakening of transcendental knowledge; prema-lakṣaṇa - and the advanced stage where the devotee is situated in pure love of kṛṣṇa; ca - also; sadhanī - the beginners stage; yatha - just as; śravaṇam - hearing; kīrtanam - glorifying; ca - also; eva - certainly; smaraṇam - remembering; pada - the lotus feet; sevanam - service; arcanam - worship; vandanam - offering obeeisances; ca - also; iti - thus; sadhanī - devotional service in practice; sat-vidha - in six features; mata - is considered.

Devotional service is divided into three stages: sādhana-bhakti, or the beginning stage of devotional service in practice, jñānānvita-bhakti, the intermedite stage where there is the awakening of transcendental knowledge, and prema-bhakti, or the advanced stage, where the devotee is situated in pure love for Lord Kṛṣṇa. Of these stages the beginning stage, sādhana-bhakti is described in the following words:

"Hearing about Lord Kṛṣṇa, chanting His glories, remembering Him, serving His lotus feet, worshiping HIm, and offering obeisances to Him, are the six activities of sādhana-bhakti."

ca - also; ganam - song; kīrtanam - glorification; ucyate - is said; yatha - just as; etavata - with this much; alam - sufficient; agha-nirharaṇaya - for taking away the reactions of sinful activites; puṁsam - of human beings; saṅkīrtanam - the congregatioanl chanting; bhagavataḥ - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; guṇa - of transcendental qualities; karma-namnam - and of His names according to His activities and pastimes;iti - thus;
adi - in the passage beginning.

Singing the Lord's holy names and glorifying His transcendental qualities is called kirtanam. This is described in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 6.3.24):

"Therefore it should be understood that one is easily relieved from all sinful reactions by chanting the holy name of the Lord and chanting of His qualities and activities. This is the only process recommended for relief from sinful reactions."*

praviṣṭaḥ karna-randhrena svanam bhava-saroruham dhunoti śamalam kṛṣṇaḥ salilasya yatha śarat evam - in this way; śrī-kṛṣṇa - of Śri Kṛṣṇa; pada-ambuja - of the lotus feet; smaraṇena - by remembering; pada - of the lotus feet; sevana - serving; adau - in the beginning; matih - the mind; jayate - is manifested; antah-nirmalatvena - as internally purified; yatha - just as; praviṣṭaḥ - thus being entered; karṇa-randhreṇa - through the holes of the ears; svanam - according to one's liberated position; bhava - constitutional relationship; saraḥ-ruham - the lotus flower; dhunoti - cleanses; śamalam - material qualities like lust, anger, avarice and hankering; kṛṣṇaḥ - Lord Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead; salilasya - of the reservoir of waters; yatha - as it were; śarat - the autumn season.

By remembering Lord Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet the heart becomes purified and then attracted to the service of the Lord's lotus feet. This is described in these words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 2.8.5):

"The sound incarnation of Lord Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Soul (i.e. Śrimad-Bhāgavatam), enters into the heart of a self-realized devotee, sits on the lotus flower of his loving relationship, and thus cleanses the dust of material association, such as lust, anger and hankering. Thus it acts like autumnal rains upon pools of muddy water."*

This is also described in the following words of Vedic literature:

"If a person overcome with hunger stumbles and falls, and then calls out: 'Obeisances to Lord Hari!' he will be at once freed of all his sins."

Fourth Part

Text 29 (a)

atha jñananvita yatha dasyam sakhyam tatha catmanivedanam iti trayam. tatra dasyam yatha atha - now; jñana - with knowledge; anvita - accompanied; yatha - just as; dasyam - service; sakhyam - friendship; tatha - and; ca - also; atma - nivedanam - surrendering everything; iti - thus; trayam - group of three; tatra - in this connection; dasyam - service; yatha - just as.

Now we shall discuss jñānānvita-bhakti, or devotional service aided by transcendental knowledge. Dāsyam (rendering service to the Lord), sakhyam (thinking of the Lord as one's friend), and ātma-nivedanam (surrendering everything to the Lord) are the three activites of jñānānvita-bhakti. Among them dāsyam is described in these words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 9.5.16):

śrī-kṛṣṇa eva sarveṣam param sarvopasanīya iti niścaya-jñanena sadbhiḥ śrī-bhagavad-dasatvam svīkṛtam. tatas tad anusandhīyate. tad eva śrī-kṛṣṇah - Śri Kṛṣṇa; eva - certainly; sarveṣam - of all; param - supreme; sarva - by all; upasanīyah - worshipable; iti - thus; niścaya - with conclusive; jñanena - knowledge; adbhiḥ - by the saintly devotees; śrī-bhagavatam - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; dasatvam - condition of being a servant; svī-kṛtam - is accepted; tatah - therefore; tat - that; anusandhīyate - is described; tat - that; eva-certainly.

Śri Kṛṣṇa is the Supreme Personality of Godhead. He is superior to everyone and He is the proper object of everyone's worship. Fixed in this knowledge, the great devotees accept the role of His devoted servants. This is described in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.41.58):

Text 30 (b)

samaśrita ye pada-pallava-plavam mahat-padam punya-yaśo murareḥ bhavambudhir vatsa-padam param padam padam padam yad vipadam na teṣam samaśritah - who have fully accepted; ye - those; padapallava - of the lotus feet; plavam - the boat; mahat-padam - the shelter of the cosmic manifestation; punya-yaśaḥ - famous; murareḥ - of Murari, the enemy of the Mura demon; bhava-ambudiḥ - the ocean of the material world; vatsa-padam - a calf's hoofprint; param padam - Vaikuṇṭha, the place without material miseries; padam padam - at every step; yat - which; vipadam - of dangers; na - not; teṣam - for them.

"For one who has accepted the boat of the lotus feet of the Lord, who is the shelter of the cosmic manifestation and is famous as Murāri, or the enemy of the Mura demon, the ocean of the material world is like the water contained in a calf's hoofprint. His goal is param padam, or Vaikuṇṭha, the place where there are no material miseries, not the place where there is danger at every step."*

athatma-nivedanam yatha

sarva-bhuteşu yah pasyed bhagavad-bhavam atmanah bhutani bhagavaty atmany esa bhagavatottamah atha - now; atma-nivedanam - surrendering everything; yatha - just as; sarva-bhuteṣu - in all objects (in matter, spirit, and combinations of matter and spirit); yaḥ - anyone who; paśyet - sees; bhagavat-bhavam - the ability to be engaged in teh service of the Lord; atmanaḥ - of the supreme spirit soul, or the transcendence beyond the material concept of life; bhutani - all beings; bhagavati - in the Supreme Personality of Godhead; atmani - the basic principle of all existence; eṣaḥ - this; bhagavata-uttamaḥ - a person advanced in devotional service.

Ātma-nivedanam (surrendering everything) is described in the following words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.2.45):

"He who sees the Supreme Personality of Godhead in everything and everything in the Supreme Personality of Godhead, is the greatest devotee."

Text 38

iti jñatva atma-samarpanam kurvanti santaḥ

atmanam arpayet kṛṣne bhaved atma-nivedanam ananya-bhavam aśritya tavahaṁ ca balir yatha

By what means is devotion to the Lord obtained? The Lord Himself says (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 3.25.25):

"In the association of pure devotees, discussion of the pastimes and activities of the Supreme Personality of Godhead is very pleasing and satisfying to the ear and the heart. By cultivating such knowledge one gradually becomes advanced on the path of liberation, and thereafter he is freed, and his attraction becomes fixed. Then real devotion and devotional service begin."

sadhavaḥ - qualified devotees, without abominable behavior; ye - they who.

What is the nature of the Lord's devotees? It is said (by the Lord Himself in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 5.5.2):

"One can attain the path of liberation from material bondage only by rendering service to highly advanced spiritual personalities. These personalities are impersonalists and devotees. Whether one wants to merge into the Lord's existence or wants to associate with the Personality of Godhead, one should render service to the mahātmās. For those who are not interested in such activities, who associate with people fond of women and sex, the path to hell is wide open. The mahātmās are equipoised. They do not see any difference between one living entity and another. They are very peaceful and are fully engaged in devotional service. They are devoid of anger, and they work for the benefit of everyone. They do not behave in any abominable way. Such people are known as mahātmās."*

sat-saṅgena hi daiteya yatudhana mṛgaḥ khagaḥ gandharvapsaraso nagaḥ siddhaś carana-guhyakaḥ ity adi evam - in this way; bhagavatam - the devotee; aradhya - having worshipped; śrī-kṛṣṇe - for Lord Kṛṣṇa; bhaktiḥ - devotion; prajayate - becomes manifested; iti - thus; asandehaḥ - without doubt; yatha - just as; śrī-bhagavat - of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; nigamaḥ - the instruction; sat-saṅgena - by association with My devotees; hi - certainly; daiteyaḥ - the sons of Diti; yatudhanaḥ - demons; mṛgaḥ - animals; khagaḥ - birds; gandharva - Gandharvas; apsarasaḥ - the society girls of heaven; nagaḥ - snakes; siddhaḥ - residents of Siddhaloka; caraṇa - the Caraṇas; guhyakaḥ - the Guhyakas; ity - thus; adi - in the passage beginning.

By worshiping a devotee devotion for Kṛṣṇa is born. Of this there is no doubt. The Lord Himself teaches (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam

11.12.3):

"In every yuga many living entities entangled in the modes of passion and ignorance gained the association of My devotees. Thus, such living entities as the Daityas, rākṣasas, birds, beasts, Gandharvas, Apsarās, Nāgas, Siddhas, Cāraṇas, Guhyakas and Vidyādharas, as well as such lower-class human beings as the vaiśyas, śūdras, women and others, were able to achieve My supreme abode. Vṛtrāsura, Prahlāda Mahārāja and others like them also achieved My abode by association with My devotees, as did personalities such as Vṛṣaparvā, Bali Mahārāja, Bāṇāsura, Maya, Vibhiṣana, Sugriva, Hanumān, Jāmbavān, Gajendra, Jaṭāyu, Tulādhāra, Dharma-vyādha, Kubjā, the gopis in Vṛndāvana, and the wives of the brāhmanas performing sacrifice."***

ataḥ santam aradhya śrī-harau bhaktiḥ karanīya ananya-bhavena. yatha śrī-bhagavad-gītayam arjunam prati śrī-bhagavan uvaca

sarva-dharman parityajya mam ekam śaranam vraja aham tvam sarva-papebhyo mokṣayiṣyami ma śucaḥ

atah - therefore; santam - the devotee; aradhya-having worshipped; śrī-harau - for Lord Hari; bhaktiḥ - devotional service; karanīya - may be performed; ananya - bhavena - with full concentration; yatha - just as; śrī-bhagavat-gītayam - in Bhagavad-gita; arjunam prati - to Arjuna; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; uvaca - said; sarva-dharman - all varieties of religion; parityajya - abandoning; mam - unto Me; ekam - only; śaranam - surrender; vraja - go; aham - I; tvam - you; sarva - all; papebhyaḥ - from sinful reactions; mokṣayiśyami - deliver; ma - not; śucaḥ - worry.

By worshiping a devotee one becomes able to engage in unalloyed devotional service to Lord Hari. This pure devotional service is described in the Bhagavad-gitā (18.66), where the Supreme Personality of Godhead says to Arjuna:

"Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reaction. Do not fear." Text 63 (a) tatha - in that way; brahma-samhitayam - in Brahma-samhita; brahmaṇam prati - to Brahma; śrī-bhagavan - the Supreme Personality of Godhead; uvaca - said; dharman - meritorious performance; anyan - all other; parityajya - having abandoned; mam - me; ekam - only; bhaja - serve; viśvasan - faithfully; yadṛśī yadṛśī - of whatever nature is; śraddha - faith; siddhiḥ - desired result; bhavati - becomes; tadṛśī - such;

In Brahma-samhitā (5.61), the Supreme Personality of Godhead said to Brahmā:

"Abandoning all meritorious performances serve Me with faith. The realization will correspond to the nature of one's faith."**

tatha - in the same way; tasmat - therefore; tvam - you; uddhava - O Uddhava; utsṛjya - fiving upl codanam - the regulations of the Vedas; praticodanam - the injunctions of supplementary Vedic literatures: iti - thus.

The Supreme Lord also said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.12.14):

"O Uddhava, abandoning the orders and prohibitions of the Vedas, take shelter of Me alone."

devarṣi-bhutapta-nṛnam pitṛnam na kiṅkaro nayam ṛnī ca rajan sarvatmana yaḥ śaranam śaranyam gato mukundam parihṛtya kartam bhaktanam - of the devotees; dharma - of pious actions; karma - and acitivities for material advancement; adi - beginning with; badhena - by ceasing; duśanam - defect; asti - is; na - not; evam - in this way; tatha - in that way; deva - of the demigods; ṛśi - of the sages; bhuta - of ordinary living entities; apta - of friends and relatives; nṛnam - of ordinary men; pitṛṇam - of the forefathers; na - not; kiṅkaraḥ - the servant; na - nor; ayam - this one; ṛṇī - debtor; ca - also; rajan - O King; sarva-atmana - with his whole being; yaḥ-a person who; śaraṇam - shelter; śaraṇyam - the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who affords shelter to all; gataḥ - approached; mukundam - Mukunda; parihṛtya - giving up; kartam - duties.

At this point someone may say: "Still, by not performing pious activities and religious rituals, the devotees are at fault." To this I reply: It is not so. It is said (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 11.5.41):

"One who has given up all material duties and taken full shelter at the lotus feet of Mukunda, who gives shelter to all, is not indebted to the demigods, great sages, ordinary living beings, relatives, mankind, or even one's forefathers who have passed away."*

This also described in these words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 4.29.46):

"When a person is fully engaged in devotional service, he is favored by the Lord, who bestows His causeless mercy. At such a time, the awakened devotee gives up all material activities and ritualistic performances mentioned in the Vedas."*

At this point someone may say: "Still, by not performing ordinary pious rituals the devotees are placed in a fearful condition." To this I reply: It is not so. This is described in Śrimad-Bhāgavatam (10.14.58):

"For one who has accepted the boat of the lotus feet of the Lord, who is the shelter of the cosmic manifestation and is famous as Murāri, or the enemy of the Mura demon, the ocean of the material world is like the water contained in a calf's hoofprint. His goal is param padam, or Vaikunṭha, the place where there are no material miseries, not the place where there is danger at every step."*

This is also confirmed in the words (Śrimad-Bhāgavatam 10.2.33):

"O Mādhava, Supreme Personality of Godhead, Lord of the goddess of fortune, if devotees completely in love with You sometimes fall from the path of devotion, they do not fall like nondevotees, for Your still protect them. devotion; yoga-kṣemam - requirements; vahami - carry; aham - I.

This is also confirmed in Śrimad-Bhagavad-gīta (9.22, where Lord Kṛṣṇa says):

"But those who worship Me with devotion, meditating on My transcendental form - 3}to them I carry what they lack and preserve what they have."*

martyaḥ - the living entities who are sure to die; mṛtyu-vyala-bhītaḥ - afraid of the serpent of death; palayan - running (as soon as a serpent is seen, everyone runs away, fearing immediate death); lokan - to the different planets; sarvan - all; nirbhayam - fearlessness; na adhyagacchat - do not obtain; tvat-pada-abjam - of Your lotus feet; prapya - obtaining the shelter; yadrcchaya - by chance, by the mercy of Your Lordship and Your representative, the spiritual master (guru-kṛpa, kṛṣna-kṛpa); adya - presently; su-sthaḥ - being undisturbed and mentally composed; śete - are sleeping; mṛtyuḥ - death; asmat - from those persons; apaiti - flees.

"No one in this material world has become free from the four principles birth, death, old age and disease, even by fleeing to various planets. But now that You have appeared, My Lord, death is fleeing in fear of You, and the living entities, having obtained shelter at Your lotus feet by Your mercy, are sleeping in full mental peace."*
