Banishing Ritual for Advanced Protection

One of the most basic and useful ceremonial rituals of magick is the banishing ritual. This is also referred to as the lesser ritual of the pentagram or LRP. The pentagram or pentacle is a five-pointed star with the point up.

The banishing ritual is considered by many to be a basic preliminary to any other magickal work. This is because it creates a protective psychic barrier against malevolent forces. Not only does this ritual permit the entry of desired constructive forces...it powerfully prevents the various negative influences from entering.

When you perform a banishing ritual, you will use a magical implement or "weapon," such as a ceremonial knife, wand, dagger, or sword in order to draw the pentagrams in the air at each of the cardinal points or directions. As you perform this ritual, you will be chanting or vibrating Hebrew names of God such as Yhvh, El, Elah, Eloah, or Hakadosh.

Step-by-Step Instructions

First you need to know the exact positions for the implementation of this ritual. The easiest method is to use these approximate points on a round clock face...

1. Begin at the 7:30 position
2. Point to the 12 o'clock position
3. Point to the 4:30 position
4. Point to the 10:30 position
5. Point to the 2:30 position
6. Return to the 7:30 position

Holding your magical weapon, face east and extend your arm straight out in front of you. You will use the full sweep of your arm to draw the pentagram in the air.

Follow the description above by beginning at the lower left and sweeping your magical weapon up toward the right. Remember to keep your arm straight...do not bend your arm at the wrist or elbow.

As you continue, visualize the lines and then eventually the star as vibrant white, floating in the space before you. You are projecting energy when you do this, and the result will be a gleaming five-pointed star floating in the east.

You must visualize the star as vividly as you can. Then you will energize it further by piercing the center of it with your magical weapon and vibrating...speaking slowly in a slightly lower than normal pitch..."Yod-He-Vau-He," one of the Hebrew names for God.

Next, turn slowly to the next cardinal point in sequence. Keeping your arm continuously extended in front of you, visualize a white line connecting around to the cardinal point. Trace a similar pentagram for each directional point and chant or vibrate the following...

South – Adonai
West – Eh-Ei-He
North -- Agla

Now complete the white line drawn back to the center of the eastern pentagram. The cardinal points must be followed in clockwise order, and the pentagram must be drawn in the manner illustrated. This is crucial because to do otherwise would change the function of the ritual.

The result of this ritual will be a large, bright white pentagram you will visualize hanging in mid-air at each of the four directions, all tied together by a bright white line.

This ritual can be used for protecting whatever or whomever you choose. For example, you could visualize the pentagrams moving out to the circumference of your home, which would protect your home and all within.

A Simplified Version

A shortened procedure can also be extremely effective. This is done by tracing the pentagram only once overhead and then energizing it by vibrating one of the four Hebrew names for God, as previously mentioned...such as Eh-Ei-He. Naturally, the effects derived from the full version of the ritual are more complete, but this shortened, "time-saving" method will help.

Benefits of the Banishing Ritual

One of the primary uses of this ritual is to ward off psychic attack. A psychic attack is when another is consciously or unconsciously attempting to harm you by causing you to experience sickness, accidents, bad dreams, or emotional distress, or to force you to do something against your will.

Fortunately, this doesn't happen very often, largely because those who possess this power are well aware of the effects of karma. So, the world of the magician is fairly safe for the pure of heart.

Psychic attack usually depends upon vulnerabilities. Simply stated...if you are not vulnerable, you are safe. Therefore, unification with the true will is your greatest protection.

Remember that the use of the banishing ritual is never hurtful. You can even use this ritual to drive out your negative aspects.

Using Magick for Advanced Protection

You can use these techniques to keep you, your loved ones, and your home safe and secure. The simple magickal technique consists of three steps, and must be done together.

To begin this process, relax completely and empty your mind of all thoughts. Avoid any distractions by closing your door and turning off any televisions within earshot.

Slow down your breathing and allow your body to become limp, actually seeing your body dropping with each breath you take. When you are in the alpha state, you will then focus on your intentions.

This is where you will begin to use creative visualization to picture in your mind exactly what you are striving for...such as keeping yourself safe. Imagine a white light entering your head and traveling through your body...then coming out and completely surrounding you with a warm, comforting glow.

It's important that you actually feel the warmth emitting from your white light. You must focus on being calm and serene as the white light begins to protect you from harm or negative energy that someone might be sending you.

You can do this same exercise to protect your home, keeping it safe from the malevolence and evil that exists in the world today. The white light you use has no limit as to what it is capable of surrounding.

Naturally, you can use this magickal spell to protect your loved ones, such as your wife or husband and your children. See them going through a normal day and watch them being kept from any harm that might come to them. It's extremely important you feel the power you have and to experience the wonderful feeling of knowing that you are keeping your family and friends safe and sound.

You can also use these techniques on your pets by visualizing them happy and safe, avoiding any accidents that might come their way, such as being hit by an automobile or even being stolen from your yard! I use these methods on my own dogs.

While you are focusing and visualizing the positive energy protecting you, your loved ones, your pets, and any of your possessions, remember to state constructive and beneficial affirmations that coincide with who or what you are wrapping your magickal techniques around.

Keep your statements in the present tense, such as, "I now create the magic to protect my children constantly," or, "I place the white light around my home to keep it safe and secure." These are only suggestions...you can come up with your own customized statements.
