CONCLUSION

THE IMPORTANCE OF UNCROSSING

Uncrossing is one of the most important areas of magick you will ever study. Uncrossing can handle just about any situation you will come across in your magickal life. Many times it is the ONLY way to help yourself or another person. If they are crossed you will never get lasting or any possible and positive results from your rituals. If you do not remove the blockages in a persons life, they will keep repeating the same mistakes over and over, and while you may be able to help them in the short run, they will always go back to their old ways. Uncrossing unblocks and redirects them back to a positive path in life.

In magick, a crossed condition is seem as a spiritual problem. The difference between a HEX and a CROSSED CONDITION is that a Hex is a sudden or acute bombardment, while a Crossed condition is something that goes unnoticed for years as a simple, but permanent problem.

Whatever the cause of the crossed condition might be, the results are the same. Nothing in life seems to work out for the person that is crossed.

In this sense we are all crossed in one area of our life or another.

I am sure if you look at your life, you will find an area that is always a problem with you. It may be in relationships, money or success. You need to find that area in your life, and UNCROSS yourself.

A Crossed Condition occurs when you find yourself unable to choose the correct road in life. Unlike hexes, that are sent AT you by other people either directly or indirectly, a Crossed Condition is usually caused by YOU!!!

A Crossed Condition is like having a crossed wire in a an electric device. Sooner or later the circuit will overload and BLOW!!! The same in your life. If you don't handle the Crossed condition, you will sooner or later screw up the situation you are in.

Both Hexed and Crossed conditions involve the physical body, most often attacking the nervous system. This causes diseases of all types, most tension type diseases those. In a Crossed condition, you must not only uncross yourself from the problem, but the situation that caused the problem. If you are always poor, you probably got that idea from your childhood or parents. You need to uncross yourself from the poverty taught to you by your parents. Look for the DEEPER CAUSE of your crossed condition.

THE PRINCIPLE OF UNCROSSING

There are three steps to UNCROSSING: REMOVAL, HEALING, and last but not least REFOCUSING. You first need to find the TRUE CAUSE of the problem, and then remove it. The hardest step in Uncrossing is this stage. The person you are working on will probably fight the removal. People hate change, and generally love their problems. That is why they have problems.

Once you have removed the problem you need to start the healing process. The person will take time to heal and adjust to their new life. They are so used to being crossed, that they don't understand what being Uncrossed is like.

The final stage is to Refocus in a new positive direction. This will take time to. Like Healing, the person must start anew and move to a better life. The body and mind must have time to understand their new feelings and opportunities. The blockages are removed, but the mind is not totally sure of this.

UNCROSSING OILS

I have already discussed the oils in the first few lessons. The classic recipe consists of: Rose, Bay, Verbena, and Lavender. Each of the oils in the recipe relates to a specific phase of the uncrossing process in all of its stages. The rose is Spirituality and Love. The Bay is for Protection. Bay is strongly protective with commanding aspects to help the person come through the uncrossing. The Lavender is to calm and bring Peace to the person. This is greatly needed in any uncrossing ritual. The Lemon Verbena is one of the active of the oils. It cleanses the person.

In total, the Rose surrounds the person with love, the Bay protects and lends power, the Lavender serves to tranquilize the person's inner and outer world, and the Lemon verbena scrubs and cleans the psyche of its negative afflictions. These are the forces at work in an uncrossing ritual.

WHITE

Black is generally the color of Black Magick and Evil energies. Where as White is considered the Spiritual and pure color to use. White is the lack of color, and has no connection to the material plane. Making it pure in every way. White being a neutral color is very susceptible to any oil you put on it. Some Sorcerers use white candles in all their rituals, even commanding rituals. You may want to try this too. I prefer to use colors myself.

The nature of the oil used focuses the higher spiritual powers to cause effects more subtle than those achievable by using colored candles. By using a white candle in a love ritual instead of the usual Red or Pink, you are working more on the spiritual plane to achieve any effects. While the Red candle is much more powerful, the White colored candle tends to SCREEN OUT the negative energies much better than using Red. If you are looking for your soul mate, then using a White candle to draw this person to you is the best way to go. It will work much sooner and on the Higher Spiritual Plane to bring in better quality people. If you have the time, this is the best way to find a long term mate.

The other choice could be to use a Spiritual oil on a red candle. This would screen the energies coming in too. You would follow up with a Love oil after putting the Spirit oil on.

White is slower, but do not underestimate it's power. Because it works on the Higher Spiritual Plane the effects will be more potent and longer lasting.

CROSSED CONDITIONS

Crossed conditions are not all bad. They are put there many times by the Spirit Planes to trap you. To see if you are worthy to grow in power as a Sorcerer. The weak are taken down by all kinds of negative paths to self-destruction. That is part of the game here on the Earth Plane. It takes a special person to overcome the blockages in life and grow in power. If it was easy, it would not have any meaning. Only the elite in society will reach this goal.

By being confronted within ourselves by a crossed condition, we are symbolically confronted by our own "Dragon". By slaying this "Dragon", we become "HEROES". By becoming a Hero you free yourself from "Karma" by defeating the negative and disruptive patterns which cause us to constantly defeat ourselves, to be in effect out of the destiny loop, instead of in control of it. Most people are lead by their destiny, the Hero is free to choose his destiny.

There are many traps waiting for you. Whether they be religion, sex, money or egotism. Society in general is also waiting there, to take you off your magickal track. Society wants to dominate and control you. It tells you what you should buy, wear, and even how to act. Yes, there are many traps in life, at every turn you will offered another path to take. A path that will lead you away from your goal. It will be an easy path, seemly filled with all kinds of pleasures. One of these paths that get most students is, laziness. You will not put the time in that is needed to practice or learn this course. After all there are so many other "Important" things to do other than your magick. The other trap that catches a lot of people is Money. Students seem never to have enough money to purchase the lessons or supplies you need to do your rituals. Funny, because it seems that people always have money for what they really want to have. Never a shortage of money for cigarettes, beer, pizza, movies, etc. There is always money for those items. Again, this is a crossed condition that is not allowing you to take control of your life, or you fear taking control of your life. This is very common, I see it all the time. The investment is so small, for the great benefits you will receive from your practice. It is a shame that people keep screwing themselves up. Doing uncrossing rituals will change these patterns in life. If you do not change these patterns, you will become a slave to them, and never achieve the power of a Master Sorcerer.

Stop blaming the world for your problems, and get off your ass, and get going. Action overcomes all. Inaction is evil and leads you down the path to destruction. A path we willingly go down, more often than not.

UNEXPECTED INFORMATION

I am always amazed at the new insights people report when doing or having done on them, uncrossing rituals. All kinds of new information starts to flow to them. They have a greater understanding of their problems. Sudden insights into childhood, friends, family, are all typical events during an uncrossing.

To get these insights you must spend a good amount of time with your rituals. This is especially true in the beginning stages because this is the REMOVAL period. During this first stage, you accumulate the most information about what is at the root of your crossed condition. As your crossed condition is lifted you start to see all kinds of root problems come to surface. This is all part of the ritual process.

In general, all uncrossing rituals are performed for Seven Days. Seven is the number traditionally associated with Uncrossing. It symbolically represents the uncrossing of each of the body's seven Chakras, drawing upon the seven personal planets in sequence. The seven major planets are Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn. The other planets are seen as effecting your daily life.

For this purpose, one usually works with the glass Seven Day candles since they take less attention and provide a constant set of lights. You can also use the standard tapers, but they do Lessen the power of you rituals a little.

An excellent uncrossing candle is the White Skull candle. Used generally for extreme conditions or where "Karmic" factors may be in pay. This candle is available through the Society.

The best planetary hours for doing Uncrossing rituals are Venus, Jupiter and the Sun hours. The ritual should be started in one of those hours. You would use Venus for crossed love conditions, Jupiter for luck, money, etc., Sun for all health problems. If you use a Seven Day candle you would of course be using all planetary hours because of the burning hours, but you need to start the ritual in one of these hours. If you are having problems in all areas, then start in the hour of the Sun.

As your ritual begins, you need to pay close attention to your life. All kinds of information will start pouring in, but it is hard to tell how this will come to you. That is why you must carefully watch all areas of your life.

There are times when the information you get will be very painful to you. At times Uncrossing yourself can be as hard as the Crossed condition itself. This is the cleaning out process. Just like in a "HEALING PROBLEM" health wise, you go through a healing crisis, where all the negative energies flow out of you causing great pain. After this process, you are totally healed. The same with the removing of the Psychic Cancer, it is never easy, but the reward is great. A crossed condition is like a cancer in your life, slowly eating at you until it kills your SOUL!!!

Another strange effect of uncrossing rituals is that those who are close to you start getting sick or start to show the same symptoms you have been having. Notice these people VERY carefully, for they are part of your crossed condition. This is valuable information to have in your life. Many times other people are at the root of your problem. Negative, Evil people are a major part of this world. If you let one of these people get close to you, or influence your life, you will become crossed with them, or by them. They will drag you down into the pit with them. If this person is a person you care about, you MUST uncross them too. If it is a person you are not close to, you must stop seeing that person, or communicating with them.

LOVE

Love is a major factor in any uncrossing ritual. The closer you can come to understanding this feeling the better. Most people have no idea what Love is. Work with the meaning of Love while you are in the uncrossing process. The ritual itself will give you the insights you are looking for.

Uncrossing procedures to involve the element of power by using the oil BAY. It is very necessary in the healing process. A person has grown used to a crossed condition and thinks of his depression as "normal". You must use force to overcome this blockage. It is the "kick In the Butt" that most people need.

The other problem with a crossed condition is that it is a security blanket to the person carrying it. It may sound funny, but usually a crossed condition is a result of overly developed defensive structures which the person has falsely perceived to be helping them offset the agonies the world appears to throw at them. Often while doing an uncrossing ritual you will notice that the crossed become worse, this is the cleaning out I spoke of.

The following set up was used to uncross a person from drug addiction, but it can be used to uncross a person from any serious problem.

The candles marked number ONE are white, anointed with High Altar oil. The candle marked Number TWO are purple, anointed with both Fiery Wall of Protection and Uncrossing oils. The candle marked Number THREE is blue, anointed with Peace Oil. The candle marked Number FOUR is yellow, anointed with Joy oil.

The key to this ritual was the doll which I created out of white cloth with purple thread. The herbal base for the stuffing consisted of: Blessed Thistle to which I added the following oils: Pine, Bay, Verbena, Lavender, Vetivert, Rose, Camellia, Storax, and Jupiter. The stuffing was used both in the doll and as incense for the ritual.

The other key to the success of the ritual was the love the person doing the ritual had for the person being uncrossed. This unknown factor is a major plus in all rituals. How involved are you with the situation. The love factor is important with a ritual you do for another person. This is even more of a factor when doing Uncrossing rituals.

The ritual was started in the hour of the Sun. It was very successful. The person is drug free to this day. The ritual was repeated on the New Moon for several months, to keep the positive energies going to the person. This is VERY IMPORTANT. The Single Burn at each New Moon every month based on the altar set up.

CAN YOU BEAT SO-CALLED KARMA?

I have already stated what I think of Karma, but I will go more into the forces of destiny that MAY rule SOME of you, or that you choose to let rule you. The Master Sorcerer totally controls his life. Only your personal God can change your path as a Master Sorcerer.

Basically there is no bad Karma. You can overcome all your problems and blockages in life with the rituals and practices in this course. You must take control of your life, and work on a daily basis towards changing it. The key word is PATIENCE!!! You must be patient. You cannot change a life full of problems, into a life of success overnight. It may take months or years to totally rid yourself of all the blockages and hangups in your life. If you are VERY screwed up now, one Uncrossing will not change your life, but by doing rituals frequently you WILL CHANGE YOUR LIFE. There are many blockages in all of our lives, spiritual and personal. Spiritual meaning, from the Astral Entities that pervert you, to personally meaning, the problems you are causing in your own life.

As I have said before, if you could just wave a magick wand, and rid your life of all your problems, you would be a God. I am afraid none of us are Gods, or can become Gods.

HANDLING CROSSED PERSONS

Dealing with a crossed person takes a delicate balance of toughness and warmth. You must be tough enough not to let the person continue in their negative ways, but you need to add the “love” factor to balance this.

As a person is being uncrossed, they will be very hard to handle at times. You may need to do other rituals to handle these aspects of the person. If they are getting very nervous, you need to light a candle with Peace oil on it. Generally people will fight you all the way throughout the healing process. You must understand and expect this as a reality. You must rise above it and pull the person through it. This of course, is a great strain on you, but if you are doing an Uncrossing this is all part of the process. Understanding and taking it at its face value. You must give the person SOME lead way, and understand that they are healing and it will take time.

Think carefully before taking the step of Uncrossing a person. It takes a lot of time and can cause you great stress psychically and emotionally. Think if the person is worth all the trouble. This may sound hard, but most people fight too damn hard to stay in their bad situation. If they are "Life Long Losers", they probably are not worth the trouble. Save your energy for those that need it. Everything in life is limited, and it must not be wasted on people that DO NOT WANT TO HELP THEMSELVES.

DEGREE OF CROSSED CONDITION

Largely depending upon how long a person has been suffering with a crossed condition is the degree of its severity. In general, the psychological concepts of "neurosis" and "psychosis" are helpful in understanding how bad a crossed condition is.

A neurosis is a set of clusters or painful problems within the psyche which are difficult to work with and which tend to be destructive to the person. In this stage you still function pretty well in general society, even though you are experiencing pain and tension in your life. A psychosis represents a very advanced and difficult series of behaviors which have forced a person out of touch with reality. This causes serious mental illness.

Once a crossed condition reaches psychotic levels, it is very difficult to deal with magickally because the paranoid or deluded person has his wires and circuits so messed up, that a great deal of work has to be done. You can still help this person, but it will take a GREAT DEAL of daily work to undo all the damage that has been done.

This is not the case with neurotic persons, they are easier to deal with, but they still are a major problem. It is far easier to help a neurotic case than it is to help a psychotic one.

Uncrossing is a healing art, and as a healer you must not overlook any possible techniques which might bring positive or alleviative results for yourself or your client. If a case is beyond your expertise to handle, they you need to seek help from another Master Sorcerer or a Professional Healer. Leave no stone unturned in your universe because answers to personal problems are very often quite simple, but due to the multi-layers of neurotic defenses, the answers may appear to be more elusive than they actually are.

THE STAGES OF CROSSED CONDITIONS

FIRST STAGE: Slight feelings of disease, nervousness, a desire to short-circuit oneself in particular areas; feelings of inferiority or insecurity; an all-pervasive sense of anxiety but still able to function in day to day activities. Strange or compulsive activities. Depressed, and having the feeling of entities being around or watching you. Odd people approaching you on the street. Trouble in minor areas of your life. For example, getting the wrong change at a store, getting the wrong order at a restaurant. Little things start not working in your life. Cannot concentrate on daily business matters.

SECOND STAGE: You receive very negative messages from people around you. Very often the nervousness and self-abnegation have turned now to actual physical symptoms resulting either in frequent illnesses or the contraction of a chronic, long term illness. Nothing works out well in your life, but you are still able to force yourself to function in daily life. You now have a general feeling of listlessness and withdrawal, a state of constant insecurity or fear of being hurt or failing in some way. One feels at odds with one's universe, like a stranger in your own life. You start to fall very fast, at this stage. You need to take control now, or risk serious damage to your mind and body. Your life is Hell, and it will not get better unless you take positive action now!!!

THIRD STAGE: Total incapacitation whether through physical illness or psychological distress. YOU ARE IN BIG TROUBLE!!! Violent fits of temper followed by total lack of energy. Inability to hold a job or support oneself in any meaningful way. Delusions of grandeur, accompanied by deep rooted feelings of inadequacy. Paranoia arises, threats are viewed in all directions. Possible attempts at suicide, or strong thoughts about doing it. Depression which seems, will never end. Headaches, pains in the chest, stomach problems, etc. You are at the end of your rope. You feel like you are losing your mind. If you allow yourself to reach this point, you will have a great deal of work ahead of you to bring yourself back to normal.

Each of these stages represent a different challenge to the person working on the case. If you are lucky enough to work on the First Stage, you will be able to handle the case easily. The longer the person stays in these states, the harder your work will be to remove the crossed condition.

Not everyone goes through all these stages. Some people will remain in stage one for many years, or never move past it. Others will move VERY quickly to stage three. Some move only to stage two, and stay there until they are uncrossed. This is very typical of a crossed person. They generally stay in stage two for most of their lives, crossing into stage three and then back to stage two at different times in their life. Some do go to stage three and stay there. This is time to get an expert Practitioner to help you to perform the needed ritual. This takes the skill of a true Master sorcerer to handle. The information I will give you, is generally for the first two stages. At the third stage you may need to seek professional help, both magickally and through normal health professionals.

The problem with most Crossed and ill people, is that they let their illness get to the point of near death, before doing anything to help themselves. That means, you are in for a lot of trouble removing their crossed condition. Even after you remove it, they will think they are still crossed. The mind takes months, and some times years to totally repair itself. That is why it is so important to follow up your rituals with calming and peace rituals. For the person to repair and expect their cure, they need to be made to feel good in all areas of their life. If you do not take these steps, the person will tell you that your work had no effect. This has happened many times to me personally. People that are crossed for years, sometimes 4 - 7 years!!!, expect to feel great in a few months. It may take you 6 to 8 months for remove a person that has been crossed that long. There is no instant magick. You need to tell the people you are working on this too. They generally will fight you at every turn. You need to understand this, and work through it. By doing these kind of cases, you not only help the person that is crossed, but you learn a lot about yourself. You have to learn great patience to deal with crossed people. Their depression will try to absorb you.

As a practitioner working on the case, the negative energies from the person you are working on may even try to harm you. You always guard against this. Dealing with ill and negative people will effect your own life, if you do not guard against it. When working with these cases, always do protection work on yourself too.

SEVEN DAY UNCROSSING RITUAL

The following is an excellent simple ritual for uncrossing a person.

You need to burn the following, one per day, in the following sequence:

- White candle anointed with High Altar Oil
- Blue candle anointed with Peace Oil
- Yellow Candle anointed with Joy Oil
- White Candle anointed with Uncrossing Oil
- Blue Candle anointed with Uncrossing and Peace Oil
- Yellow Candle anointed with Uncrossing and Joy Oil
- White candle anointed with High Altar, Uncrossing and Peace oils.

These candles MUST BE lighted at the planetary hours of the Sun or of Jupiter, and you MUST burn them on seven consecutive days. NEVER MISS A DAY, OR THE RITUAL WILL NOT WORK!!! You also need to carve the name of the person being uncrossed on each candle you use.

This type of ritual can be used for any type of problem you have. For example, if you are having money problems, you can do the following

Seven Day ritual:

- White candle anointed with Uncrossing Oil
- Green candle anointed with Uncrossing Oil
- Purple candle anointed with Uncrossing Oil
- White candle anointed with Uncrossing &
Frankincense Oil
- Green candle anointed with Money Drawing Oil
- Purple candle anointed with Fast Luck Oil
- White candle anointed with Uncrossing,
Fast Luck and Money Oil

Personally I would form a powder circle around the candle each day. Use Bay leaves or Helping Hand or Goona Goona powder for this. You could also form an inverted powder triangle moving from the top corners of your altar down to an apex pointing towards you. These are both excellent procedures to do. You need not change the powder every day, merely replace the candles and leave the powder as is. You also need to sprinkle some of the powder into the candle flame of the various candles. Sprinkling powder in white candles is not near as powerful, as it is with colored candles.

You can also use talismans and charm bags with this ritual. This procedure is particularly useful in charging charm bags due to the varying magickal energies which you are invoking through the differently colored candles and your selection of oils.

Notice that both of the procedures we are using only three different colors. In the first ritual we used white, blue, and yellow candles. In the second ritual I used white, green, and purple. The combination of the three, is basic to the design of the ritual. You always need to have three colors. Obviously, this will take a little thought on your part, but basically the thing to keep in mind is: The Symbolization of the spiritual planes through the white candles. The symbolization of your specific goal through a color candle (such as red for love, green for money or success, blue for peace etc.). The symbolization of an important sub-factor (such as blue candle for peace, tranquillity, or communication, a red candle for energy, a purple candle for power or force).

BATHS

Nothing is more important to an uncrossing procedure than baths. This is the SINGLE MOST IMPORTANT force in an uncrossing ritual. You or the person being worked on, MUST TAKE BATHS with the proper Uncrossing mixtures in them.

Uncrossing is a psychic cleansing, and part of this cleansing is the actual cleaning of the external body. The protective mixtures in these baths, cleanse your aura and etheric body of all negative energies.

Generally a crossed person should take at least one bath per day, preferably in the morning. The best procedure is to take a bath in the morning and the night, if you are doing an uncrossing.

The best baths to use are: Dragon's Blood Crystal and Seven Day Uncrossing. These are proven, powerful mixtures.

As I have stated before, if you work with these type of people, you need also to take these baths at the end of the day. The psychic trash, and Demonic influences around people being uncrossed will effect YOU, if you do not cleanse yourself. You also MUST use a floorwash or spray in your home, to keep it clean of negative or Demonic energies. NEVER OVERLOOK THIS!!! At the very least, burn Banishing incense daily. I do this daily whether I am working on a crossed person or not. You can never have a TOO CLEANSED home and altar.

If you are doing this ritual for another person, it is a very good idea to charge a charm bag for the person to carry at all times. You should stuff the bag with the same herbs that are used in the uncrossing oil. If it is a serious case add Dragon's Blood Reed and a pinch of Vetivert, or any strong herb associated with uncrossing and power of your choosing. No matter the seriousness of the case, have the person wear on their forehead, sides of neck, area over the heart, area above the pubic hair, and the bottoms of their feet, Uncrossing oil daily. This will help protect and cleanse the body.

While the person being uncrossed is taking the bath, they should be visualizing their aura being cleansed and purified by white light. Only think positive and healing thoughts. The bath should last at least 15 - 25 minutes, and should be as hot as you can stand.

For those that have crossed conditions that are effecting their physical health, the bath is a great time to meditatively channel healing energy to those parts of the body which are effected the most. The bath relaxes you and allows the healing energies to flow better. By adding the proper mixture to the baths, people have totally changed their life around!! You can too, if you are having serious troubles in your life.

LEGAL PROBLEMS

One of the most difficult situations you will have to deal with are legal cases. The entire court system is controlled by Demonic forces. The few good Lawyers are soon caught in the Demon's claws, and are taken down the path to evil. The same is true with the so-called medical professionals. It is a totally evil system that must be stopped from ruining Lives. The average population has given over control of their lives to a bunch of evil forces that will kill them physically or spiritually, or BOTH!!!

If properly used, you can greatly increase your chances of success in all legal matters. You are up against GREAT ODDS, but with Sorcery, you can win!!! Without it, good luck to you.

In the rare cases that you try to keep a guilty person out of prison, it is risky to the person performing the ritual because, it can cause you great legal problems for yourself in the future. You will take on all of that persons negative legal energies. I really do not know why you would do this anyway. Keep this in mind, if you help a person with their legal problems. Are they really in the right?

I will cover THREE different legal situations, and what set-up to use, to get results in your favor. The first is how to assure yourself that the legal case you are involved in will end in your favor. The second is how to get favorable results, even if the person is guilty, (More on this later). The third, how to help a person already in prison to obtain release, whether they are guilty or not, (More on this later also).

The following set-up is for a legal case that you are innocent of, or wrongly accused of:

As usual, the candles marked number ONE, are white anointed with BOTH High Altar and Uncrossing oil. The candle marked number TWO is a purple figure candle representing you, and is anointed with Fiery Wall of Protection oil, Uncrossing oil, and a 50/50 blend of High John and Low John oils. The candle marked number THREE is brown, and is anointed with High/Low John combination oil. You need to burn the Black Candle Tobacco incense. The letters A and B in the set up are small white glass dishes of salt and water. A is the salt, and B is the water. When performing this ritual, it is an excellent time to consecrate a protective charm bag with protection and legal herbs. Always put in a bit of Cascara Sagrada and Blackthorn in addition to the other herbs you might use. You also need to place a bit of Tobacco incense in the bag.

The ritual is performed in the hour of Jupiter, and the ritual should be of the seven day kind. You can do a shorter ritual if time is short. If it is a serious case, you will need a Seven Day ritual. You should also sprinkle all over your altar powdered Jalap, Winning powder, or Helping Hand powder.

You can also use this ritual to handle a collection agency, unreasonable landlord, or government agency. To do this, take an appropriate document, such as collection notice, eviction notice, notice of lien, subpoena, etc., and place it directly under candle THREE. Otherwise the ritual is conducted as described above. Using an actual document involved in any sort of litigation is definitely to be recommended in all of the rituals we will be discussing in this section, since anything you can do to make your request or petition specific will definitely speed results according to all that you use in the rituals.

The ritual above is designed to stop baneful energies from effecting your legal matters. The ritual is aimed at defusing the situation before it has a chance to go too far.

If you are guilty for some reason, you will have to slightly change the ritual. There are many times when you may need to break the law to keep it, or when the law is silly, or that the punishment is much worse than the crime. The Law and so-called Justice, are not even close to each other. They have taken Justice, and hidden it between the pages of the law. That is why I am giving you this ritual for a so-called guilty person.

You will do the following set up:

The candles marked ONE, are anointed with Uncrossing and Fiery Command Oils, and the candles are purple. The candle marked TWO, represents you and is a white candle anointed with Fiery Wall of Protection oil. The powder around this candle is Voodoo powder. The candle marked THREE is brown and is anointed with POWER oil. Place any appropriate documents under this candle. Sprinkle Bend-Over powder into the flame of the brown candle each day. The "V" of the powder with its apex at the top of your altar would be done with Obeah or Zonka powder.

The ritual will be performed during the hours of Jupiter, and should be a Seven Day ritual. On the seventh day, let the candles burn totally out. The ritual should also only be done during the WANING MOON. Use the ritual to consecrate a charm bag that you will carry into court with you. The contents of the bag should consist of the following: Rose, Lavender, Bay, Galangal, Cinnamon, Tobacco, Hyssop, and Lemon Verbena.

If the ritual is successful, you must devote a major portion of your energies towards repaying the Spirit planes for granting you victory. In most kinds of rituals such as love or luck, the spirit planes are placated by a mere gesture of thanks. But in legal matters, where real stakes are on the line, you must be METICULOUS in selecting some sort of helping activity which will contribute to the community in some meaningful way. Furthermore, if you persist in the behaviors which invoked the problem in the first place, then you will get into very hot water.

Magick, when used this way, merely buys you a reprieve and permits you to be judged and sentenced by the spiritual rather than the material planes. Normally, however, one is quickly granted some sort of opportunity to make amends.

The most difficult of all the legal situations is getting a person released from prison. Obviously, if a person is serving a sentence in prison, it will be very difficult to get them out, but by no means is this impossible.

If the person in prison has truly learned their lesson, then you have a chance of getting them out. If they have not, the spirit planes will not let the magick work. MAGICK CANNOT BE CONNED!!! Unless the person has truly reformed, they will not be freed by the use of magick. I have seen this time after time. The person in prison still states they are innocent, when everyone knows they are guilty. Rarely does magick work for these people.

The following set up will be used for a person already in prison. The candles marked ONE, are white and anointed with both High Altar and Uncrossing oils. The candle marked TWO, represents the person in prison and should be purple, and anointed with Crown of Success, Uncrossing, Fiery Wall of Protection, and Fast Luck oils. the candle marked THREE, is brown and is anointed with a 50/50 mixture of High John & Low John oils. The candle marked FOUR, is yellow and anointed with Sun or Jupiter oils, or both. You also need to buy a pouch of pipe or cigarette tobacco to which you add a few drops of Galangal. Take this mixture and sprinkle it all around the candles on your altar.

The letters A and B indicate dishes of salt and water. A being salt, and B being water. These are kept on the altar during the enter ritual.

You should use the following incense mixture.

- High John 10%
- Low John 10%
- Tobacco 10%
- Rose Buds 25%

Lavender 10%
Buckthorn Bark 10%
Sulfur/Brimstone 5%
Asafetida 5%
Vetivert 15%

As you can see by this mixture, it is basically a commanding recipe, with uncrossing herbs used for legal matters by adding Tobacco, High and Low John to the mixture. The banishing properties are handled by the Sulfur and Asafetida, while the Vetivert lends a forceful push to the incense.

This ritual is conducted between the eves of the New and the Full Moon, while the Moon is waxing. Jupiter is the correct time to start the ritual, and it is a Seven Day ritual. You need a lot of energy and power to be successful in this ritual.

The main problem with this ritual is, that the person in prison can help themselves by taking baths, and doing candle burning rituals. You will have to be very focused in this ritual.

If you are successful in getting the person out of prison, that person must go on the straight and narrow from this point on. If they do not, the magick will put them back in prison or worse.

REORIENTING THE CROSSED PERSON

I have stated that often a person is so used to being crossed that they begin to think of their illness as part of them. These conditions can even start in childhood and go into adulthood. The true person never had a chance to come out in this prison.

I have also stated that a lot of defensive behavior is created to form a protective screen around them is acted out. This can take many, many forms.

By uncrossing a person we are doing two things:

- First, we are lifting the symptoms of the illness
- Second, we are defusing negative behaviors and strategies which serve both to create and sustain the crossed condition.

One further step is needed to bring the person out of their crossed condition, or the newly uncrossed person. That is, that the person must be now pushed in the right direction. The crossed person has been so crossed for so long, that they forget how to change their life for the better, or where to start their new uncrossed life from.

You need to perform a reorienting and protection ritual on this person. Lesson 10 is filled with excellent rituals for a newly uncrossed person, but I will give you one now.

The following set up is for a newly uncrossed person. It is a general success ritual, like the ones you will find in lesson 10. By doing this type of ritual after an uncrossing, you will keep the person on the right track, and avoid them from falling into their old ways.

The candle marked ONE are white and anointed with Holy, High Altar, Trinity, or another of the sacred oils in addition to Obeah oil. The candle marked TWO, is green and represents the newly uncrossed person. Here the sense of fertility, new beginnings, luck, and other positive qualities inherent in green are used symbolically. The oil used on the candle reflect the nature of the person's specific goals. If the person is interested in love, then use a love oil, if success is needed, than use Crown of Success, etc. You should even add a little uncrossing oil to this candle. This will help keep the person away from being crossed again.

The candle marked THREE, is pink and anointed with Peace or Kindly Spirit. The candle marked FOUR, is yellow and anointed with Trinity and Joy oils. The incense you will burn is, Crown of Success and Kindly Spirit. Use Crown of Success to open the ritual, and Kindly Spirit to close the ritual.

This will be a Seven Day ritual. Generally all Seven Day rituals use the glass encased candles that burn continuously for seven days. The ritual should be started in the hour of the Sun. You need to spend a condition, or the newly uncrossed person. That is, that the person must minimum of an hour a day with the candles when refocusing yourself or spend a minimum of two hours a day with candles when uncrossing another.

The crossed person should take an active role in their healing. There will be times when you uncross a person without them knowing it. If you are working with a person you do not know, then you will have to work much harder to get results. As is the case with all magick for other people.

THE SPECIFIC CROSSED CONDITION

There are crossed conditions that affect only one area of a person's life. One may only be crossed in Love, Business, Luck etc. The crossed condition is pretty easy to handle. If it has been going on for some time, than you may have to do several procedures. If the crossed condition is only a few weeks or months old, then a couple of rituals will do. If longer than that period, it will take many rituals to remove.

Removing any sort of crossed condition, whether it be a general state or a specific tension knot, requires careful analysis of precisely what the problem is, and where it exists in your mind. This involves taking full responsibility for your present situation. Even if the crossed condition was inflicted by another, you are still the person that got yourself into this situation, and caused it to happen in one way or another. Therefore, you must seek to isolate and strengthen that part of yourself which set you up for the hexing in the first place. What I have just told you is VERY IMPORTANT. If you do not approach it in this manner, most likely you will be hexed again, or cause yourself to be hexed again.

Candle rituals work very well for crossed conditions of the short term type. They generally never fail. The function of a single burn uncrossing ritual is to, focus your attention on both the problem and to suggest new and positive behaviors which will help you to overcome self-imitations which have plagued you in specific areas. Most of the time in single burn rituals, you will find entirely new ways of dealing with your situation. Pay attention to these messages, no matter how odd they may seem. Sometimes it take odd things, to change a persons situation. If it was simple, you probably would have already thought of it.

Once you have a full grasp of the problem, and have successfully tested your new ideas out in the world, you are then ready to start doing success rituals instead of uncrossing rituals.

CONTAGION

There is a strange thing that happens to a person that deals with too many crossed people, it is call CONTAGION. What happens is that you may get the same crossed condition!!! Crossed conditions are like the flue, they are VERY CONTAGIOUS!!!

Before you get worried about this, this situation is true with most things in life. If you are around negative losers, you will become a negative looser!! If you are a rich successful person, you will be around rich successful people. That is just the way it is in life. Crossed conditions are like anything else, they have energy, and this energy can influence you.

Many Sorcerers take this so seriously that they TOTALLY uncross and banish their entire home, after speaking with a mildly crossed person. While this is extreme, it is always a good idea to Uncross and Banish yourself, family and home weekly, and even daily if you dealing with crossed people. There is always a negative or evil person wishing you the worst of things in life. These thoughts do have effects on you. That is why you should also do uncrossing and banishing rituals. I always burn daily, Protection or Banishing incense. This is the easiest way to keep negative energies away from your home.

If a close friend, lover or spouse has a crossed condition, you are probably effected by the condition, and may even have the same condition. You could also not be crossed, but just effected a person that has a crossed condition that you associate with. This can be checked by watching what happens to you when you are around certain people. Do things start to happen? Do you always get into trouble, when you are around a certain person? Take note of these things. Also note if things happen even after being with a person for a period of time after seeing them. This can happen too. That you carry the crossed condition with you for a few days or hours. The more psychic you are, the greater the chances are that you will keep up another persons crossed condition. I see this ALL THE TIME with psychics I know. They are constantly picking up the negative energies of the person they read. This can cause, and has caused a great deal of trouble in their lives. Most psychic seems to contract some kind of cancer in their body during their life. This along with several other illnesses are common to psychics. Since most psychics are not magickally trained, they do not release this negative energy, and their health pays the price for it. I have instructed a great number of psychics on how to banish and uncross themselves. Most feel like a ton of bricks have been lifted from their shoulders. Their readings are better, they feel better, and their auras are cleansed. If you do rituals for others, always keep this in mind, even if they are family members.

Anytime you do uncrossing rituals for another person make sure you use floor washes, sprays and burn Banishing incense. One important thing to remember with uncrossing rituals is, that when the condition is uncrossed, the energies from the crossed condition detaches from person and is released into the atmosphere. If they are not dispersed, those energies can attach themselves to the practitioner doing the uncrossing!!! By cleansing your altar and home, you stop this from happening. We all have enough problems without getting the psychic trash from others. It is a hell of a way to be paid back for helping a person. Magick, like a lot of things in life must be done correctly, without leaving out the details. If you do not, many rituals will backfire on you. Causing more problems than you had before. If you are sloppy, you will pay for it. If you are going to do it, DO IT RIGHT!!! Magick is a serious business, treat it like it is, or do not do the rituals. Laziness and Sloppiness are the cause for a lot of rituals going wrong. Every part of a ritual is important, from the meditation to the bath, and the final banishing is important. While it takes a little investment to get all these to start with, it will pay off sooner than you think. It pays off with your first ritual.

Another important thing to consider in an uncrossing ritual is, that a cure seldom goes in a straight line. You will find a person will slip back into their crossed condition from time to time, or they will get better for a few weeks and seem crossed again, only to get better again. As the ritual continues the slips will become fewer and fewer. This is just the nature of an uncrossing ritual. Expect these things to happen, it is human nature in a crossed person to try and screw themselves up again. Oh, how stupid people can be!!! If you do not get any success at all, try changing to stronger oils, or try a different ritual. Meaning, if a white candle does not seem to be lifting the problem, try a white skull candle. If this fails, try a reversed black candle in order to radically lift the problem. You also need to speak with the person for a good period of time. Try to tell if the person is of sound mind. A lot of people may need psychological help along with ritual work. A lot of people are so far down, that they cannot be pulled back up only with candle magick. With crossed people, this is the case a lot of the time. Especially with LONG TERM crossed people. They need a total "Make Over", from the head down. No matter what you do, you will bring relief from the crossed condition for the person. You will be amazed how effected most people are. Some are so far gone, that they need to keep doing rituals for themselves for many months to see relief from the crossed condition. Do not hesitate to tell a person that they must take responsibility for their own life, and work through this problem by performing their own rituals. I have done this a great many of times. They are told to purchase this course, and WORK WITH IT DAILY!!! Again, a lot do not. They are looking for a "quick fix" that does not involve themselves personally. They want someone else to do it for them. This is one of the reasons they are in trouble now, and why society in general is in trouble. People want someone else to handle it, and when they do, we loose more freedom each day. If they do have the guts to purchase the course and change their life, then it is their choice to stay crossed. Some people even fight to stay in their situation. It is too scary for them to take control of their own life. How sad this is.

CONFRONTATION

In all successful uncrossing there will come a time when the person being uncrossed will want to confront those that caused them to be crossed. These people/forces may be friends, parents, a lover, and institutions etc.

As the person doing the uncrossing, you must try to make these situations as painless and as positive as possible. For example, if the person is involved in an unhappy love relationship, then two things are possible. The person can leave the lover, or change the relationship into a positive one. When a person is uncrossed they start to realize how abused they were in a relationship, and this brings on a great deal of anger. This is understandable, but they must also understand that they helped to cross themselves too, or they would not have been crossed in the first place.

There is a danger for a person being uncrossed to deal with this kind of confrontation. They are still WIDE OPEN, and could bring on other crossed conditions if it is not handled correctly. This is not the time just to vent anger. Now is the time to finally solve the situation for the better. If the relationship is important then you should try to get your partner to change with you. In this situation, you must uncross BOTH the partners. If they both are not willing, then the relationship is sick. It probably will not get better, and must be come to an end.

As a person is being uncrossed they must be lead into positive solutions for their old problems. In the beginning stages of the ritual especially, as the person is being uncrossed they will become confused on the right action to take. That is why in uncrossing in particular you must be a Sorcerer and a counselor all in one. This is the case in most ritual situations. People need more than just magickal help, they need a person with good common sense to direct them on the correct path. You must be very blunt with people, tell them that they are screwing up and need to change their life. This is the time in the person's life that they need TRUTH!!! If you do not tell them the truth, nobody else will. Think about that. This is why the successful Sorcerers are also the wisest Sorcerers. It takes more then power to be successful. It takes a person with great wisdom and insight into the condition to be successful. You will need to understand people and how they work. It is a good idea to recommend the person see a psychologist for a period of time. It is also a good idea for you to study psychology yourself. Generally you can do the same that a psychologist does in a much shorter period of time. If the person is in advanced stages of a crossed condition you must send them to a psychologist as well you working with them. You must get it through to the person, that it took them several years to get this crossed up, it will take the several months to change it. *THERE ARE NO QUICK FIXES HERE!!! YOU GET WHAT YOU WORK HARD FOR!!!**

CONCLUSION

You can now see how important uncrossing rituals are, and how everyone needs to be uncrossed. You can also see that uncrossing works on a number of levels, and that they require a great deal of energy psychically, psychologically, and even physically.

Many physical diseases are caused or helped by crossed conditions. A person in a crossed condition is wide open to emotional and physical illnesses, along with DEMONIC POSSESSION!!! For Demonic forces to effect you, you generally need to be crossed in some manner.

Candle burning provides those suffering from any kind of crossed or hexed situation the means for simply and effectively getting rid of problems both of chronic long term nature and of a recent short term nature. It is advised that anyone practicing magick of any kind, even if they are totally White Magick in nature, to pay close attention to uncrossing rituals and the use of sprays, floor washes, baths and incenses.

Uncrossing rituals provide a sort of spiritual rebirth, very often bringing along newfound physical and mental energy. It is amazing the change that can take place during and after an uncrossing ritual. As you do these rituals you will find this out for yourself. I have seen lives
