SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

Decisions, with such other propositions of Masonic law as seem to be useful in the work of the lodge, are set forth in the Digest following the Constitution and Standing Regulations.

The Constitution is referred to by sections, the Regulations by numbers, and the Decisions by page of the year's Proceedings in which they are found.

When no reference is made, the proposition is one of general Masonic law.

The Digest of Decisions should be examined in conjunction with the Constitution and Standing Regulations in determining all the Maine Masonic law on a given subject.

In 1991, M.W. Robert V. Damon appointed the following committee to review and revise the Constitution and Digest of Decisions. A major consideration was to make the information and organization of the book more readable and easier to locate. The Digest of Decisions was the major consideration to be worked on. In as much as Decisions are made by Grand Masters and cannot be changed, there was wording that was rearranged for clarification and easier reading.

PART FIRST

THE GRAND LODGE

GRAND LODGE OF ANCIENT
FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS
STATE OF MAINE

PREAMBLE

We, the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Maine, in order to form perfect fraternal union, establish order, insure tranquility, provide for and promote the general welfare of the Craft, and secure to the Fraternity the blessings of Masonic privileges, do ordain and establish this Constitution.

Declaration

Freemasonry is a charitable, benevolent, educational, and religious secret society, adhering to its own peculiar ancient landmarks. Its methods of recognition and of symbolic instruction are secret and thereby a test of membership is provided, though a Brother is traveling in foreign countries and among those who would otherwise be strangers.

It is religious in that it teaches monotheism, the Volume of the Sacred Law is open upon altars whenever a Lodge is in session, worship of God is ever a part of its ceremonial, and to its neophytes and Brethren alike are constantly addressed lessons of morality; yet it is not theological.

It is educational in that it teaches a perfect system of morality; based upon the Sacred Law, by a prescribed ceremonial; and it also provides libraries and opportunities for study therein.

It is benevolent in that it teaches relief of the poor and distressed as a duty, and exemplifies the duty by relief of sick and distressed Brethren by caring for the widows and orphans of the Brethren, by maintaining homes for the aged and distressed Brethren and their dependents, and by providing for the education of orphans.

It is charitable in that none of its income inures to the benefit of any individual, but all is devoted to the improvement and promotion of the happiness of mankind.

It is a social organization only so far as it furnishes additional inducement that men may foregather in numbers, thereby providing more material for its primary work of training, of worship, and of charity.

In ancient times, the Brethren met in General Assembly for the ordering of the affairs of the Craft. With growth in numbers, however, it became necessary, in 1717, to adopt a representative form of government, since which time the Brethren have met in Lodges and each Lodge has sent its delegates to a legislative body known as the Grand Lodge.

The prayer of this petition being granted, we promise strict obedience to the commands of the Grand Master and the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge."

SEC. 71. Lodges under dispensations have all the rights and powers of chartered lodges, except the election and installation of officers and the rights growing out of election and installation; and the membership, in other lodges, of their members, is suspended during the continuance of the dispensation.

Chartering and Organization of New Lodges

SEC 72. No charter can be granted save by the Grand Lodge; and the name of no brother who is a member of another lodge shall be inserted in a charter but the Grand Secretary, under the direction of the Grand Master, shall omit from the charter the names of all who do not file their demits or proper evidence that they are not then affiliated. [See Sec. 89,106]

SEC 73. Every newly chartered lodge may work under dispensation until constituted under the charter, unless the Grand Lodge or Grand Master otherwise order.

SEC 74. Every new lodge member shall be solemnly constituted by the Grand Master and his officers, or by some competent brother especially appointed by him for the purpose; and no new lodge is recognized, or entitled to representation in this Grand Lodge, unless it be regularly constituted, solemnly dedicated and registered, and its officers installed.

Chartered lodges are organized to permit its members as a collective body to engage in works of benevolence and charity. It is the duty of the members of a lodge to pay such annual dues and assessments as will permit the lodge to meet its obligations respecting charity and its proper operating expenses.

Any two or more lodges having concurrent jurisdiction, or whose territorial jurisdictions are contiguous, may consolidate into one lodge in the manner following:

I. When a proposition to consolidate a lodge with another is made therein, the Worshipful Master shall cause the matter to be laid over to a future meeting, and special notice given to the members of the lodge that the matter will come before the lodge at that meeting for action.

II. If the lodge votes to consolidate, with not exceeding six votes in the negative, the measure shall be deemed to be carried.

III. Concurrent action must be taken in the other lodge, or lodges, at a meeting notified for the purpose, in the same manner and adopted by the same vote.

IV. If both lodges vote to consolidate, the proceedings shall be certified by each lodge to the Grand Master for examination.

V. If he finds the proceedings of the lodges in accordance with these provisions, the lodges may be consolidated under the name, which may be selected.

VI. The senior charter shall be endorsed under the attestation of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, under the seal of the Grand Lodge, as the warrant of the consolidated lodge; which shall take rank as of the date of the charter.

VII. The junior charter or charters shall be endorsed in like that they are no longer in force and delivered to the consolidation lodge, if desired, to be preserved in its archives.

VIII. The Grand Master by himself or such brother as he may specially depute therefore shall cause the members of said lodges to be assembled, after due notice of at least 30 days to the Constituent members of each of the lodges being consolidated, sent by each of those lodges' Secretary, in the usual manner of giving notice. This notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and further state that the Grand Master or his designee shall conduct the election of new officers and immediately thereafter install those newly elected Officers Immediately thereafter the Grand Master, or his designee, shall proceed to organize the new lodge by delivering the charter endorsed as above provided. He shall make due return of his proceedings to the Grand Secretary, to be entered upon the records of the Grand Lodge and reported at its next annual communication.

IX. The officers of each of these old lodges shall at once deliver and pay over to the corresponding officers of the consolidated lodge all the property, books and moneys of each of said lodges, to be the property of the new lodge.

Surrender, forfeiture and revocation of the charters.

SEC. 75. Every charter surrendered to the Grand Lodge whether or not with the intention of being resumed at a future period, shall be accompanied by the by-laws, records, seal, regalia, funds and other property of the lodge of every description; and all the property of a lodge, surrendering its charter with the intention of resuming it, shall be held by the Grand Lodge in trust until such time as the charter shall be restored or the intention of reclaiming it abandoned. The interest arising from said funds and other property shall be made a part of the Charity Fund of the Grand Lodge; and in case of forfeiture the principal shall be disposed of as the Grand Lodge shall direct. No charter thus deposited shall be restored, unless upon the petition of seven Master Masons, of whom four at least of the petitioners for its restoration were members of the lodge at the time of its surrender. In addition, it shall be the duty of the petitioners to notify the District Deputy grand Master of the District, and the lodge nearest their residence, of their intention to petition for the restoration.

SEC. 76. Every charter, when declared forfeited, shall be returned to the Grand Lodge, with the records, by-laws, seal, regalia, funds and other property of the lodge, of every description; and all members of a lodge who shall refuse to make such surrender, or who shall vote to divide the funds among themselves, or to appropriate them in any other way than is here designated, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of the rules and regulations of Masonry.

SEC. 77. If at any time it shall be found necessary to suspend or cancel the warrant or charter of any lodge under this jurisdiction for irregular or unmasonic conduct, the members of said lodge implicated in such irregular or unmasonic conduct, at the time of its having incurred such penalty, shall be disqualified to join or visit any other lodge, without special permission from the Grand Lodge obtained on memorial.

SEC 78. Any mason assisting at the work of a lodge, knowing its warrant or charter to have been suspended or cancelled, shall be liable to expulsion from the rights of Masonry. [See Sec. 14, 48]

Proxies of Lodges

SEC. 79. As the Grand Lodge, when congregated, is a representation of every individual member of the Fraternity, it necessarily possesses a supreme superintending authority and power, and in its acts should be assisted by all the light and intelligence of its own members and the whole craft.

It is the duty, therefore, of every lodge to be represented at the communications of the Grand Lodge by its Master and Wardens, or by a proxy duly commissioned under the seal of the lodge and the attestation of the Master and Secretary. And that there may be no neglect of this duty each lodge is required, at the stated communication next before any communication of the Grand Lodge (unless it has been previously done), to appoint a Master Mason of regular standing, not holding office in Grand Lodge, or a Permanent Member thereof, and being a member of a subordinate lodge under this jurisdiction, as proxy to represent it in the Grand Lodge, and such proxy shall have a right to a seat in the Grand Lodge during the Masonic year in which he was appointed, and to cast the vote of the lodge he represents when neither the Master nor either of the Wardens shall be present.

The letter by which a lodge shall appoint a proxy is to be in form and substance as follows, viz:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Maine:

BE IT KNOWN, That Brother _____ of _____, having been chosen by the members of _____ Lodge, in _____, to represent said Lodge in Grand Lodge the ensuing year, I do in their behalf appoint him their representative for them to appear, and upon all Master subjects relating to the craft in general, and this of lodge in particular, to act and decide as fully as Lodge, though we were personally present.

Confirming the acts of our beloved brother in his capacity, we pray that he may enjoy all the protection and privileges to which we are entitled.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the seal of our lodge to be affixed, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 20

Attest: Secretary.

In case of vacancy not filled by the lodge before the annual communication of the Grand Lodge, or the inability of the proxy appointed by the lodge to attend the annual communication, the Master or acting Master may appoint a substitute and give him a certificate under the seal of the lodge; but such substitute can act as proxy only by special vote of the Grand Lodge. [Sec. 80, 81, and 85]

SEC. 80. Every lodge represented by proxy in Grand Lodge shall issue the commission annually. All commissions of proxies of the Grand Lodge shall expire with the closing of the Grand Lodge at its next annual communication after such appointment, and no brother shall represent more than one lodge at the same time, either as representative or proxy.

SEC. 81. No informality in the form of the commission shall preclude the Grand Lodge from admitting to a seat any brother who has been duly elected as the proxy of a lodge.

Powers and Duties of Lodges

SEC. 82. All lodges under this jurisdiction have a right to convene as Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, to receive and enter Apprentices, pass Fellow Crafts, raise Master Masons and establish fees therefore, to choose officers annually, establish funds for charitable purposes, and transact all matters appertaining to Masonry, agreeably to their charters, the laws of the Grand Lodge and the ancient uses of the craft.

SEC 83. The lodges under this jurisdiction shall be formed into districts by the Grand Master for each of which a District Deputy Grand Master shall be annually appointed. And it shall be the duty of every Master or presiding officer of a lodge, when notified of the intended official visit of the District Deputy Grand Master, to convene his lodge, receive him as the representative of the Grand Lodge, resign to him the chair, while making his official communication, and submit to his inspection the by-laws, records and mode of working.

SEC. 84. The lodges under this jurisdiction shall make returns annually of their officers and members and of all the work done during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, agreeably to the form established and on the blanks furnished by the Grand Lodge, and the Secretary of each lodge shall, on or before the first day of February, following, send one copy of the return to the Grand Secretary and one duplicate copy of the return and a copy of an abstract thereof, on blanks also to be furnished by the Grand Lodge, and the dues by check, post office order or bank draft, made payable to the Grand Lodge of Maine, A. F. & A. M., to the Grand Treasurer, who shall receipt for the dues upon the copy of the return and return the copy to the Secretary of the lodge to be preserved in the files of the lodge.

Any lodge which fails to so transmit its aforesaid returns and dues on or before the first day of February annually shall be penalized the sum of five dollars for the delinquency and one additional dollar for each day after the second day of February the said returns and dues are delayed.

Each constituent lodge shall submit once in every four years a complete list of its members to the Grand Secretary, on numbered sheets provided by Grand Lodge, before the first day of February 1984, and each four years thereafter. If such a list is not received by the above dates, a fine of $10.00 will be imposed upon that lodge and a fine of $1.00 for each day the list is not received following the date of February 1st. [1981, p. 40]

SEC. 84-A. Any lodge which fails to be represented at any Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge as required by paragraph 3 of Section 2 of the Constitution, shall be penalized the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) for each such failure, said penalty to be paid before July 1 following the date of the Annual Communication when said failure occurs.

SEC 85. Should any lodge neglect to make its returns and payments to the Grand Lodge for the space of two years, the Master and Wardens of such lodge shall not be permitted to attend, in their official capacity, any meeting of the Grand Lodge, until such returns and payments are made. And should the delinquency continue for three years, the charter, funds and regalia of such lodge may be declared forfeited to the Grand Lodge.

SEC 86. No petition for the removal of a lodge from the place in which it is located shall be sustained in Grand Lodge, unless said petition is sanctioned by the District Deputy Grand Master of the District where said lodge is situated and has the approbation of the lodge nearest the place where said lodge is intended to be held, unless such approbation be unreasonably withheld. Nor shall any lodge hold meetings, unless authorized by the Grand Master, in any town other than the one designated in its charter, under the penalty of a forfeiture thereof; nor move its hall more than one-half a mile from where it is located, or where it may be located when the lodge is constituted, without the consent of the Grand Lodge.

SEC. 87. Every warranted lodge is a constituent part of the Grand Lodge, in which body all the power of the Fraternity resides; and no other authority except that possessed by the Grand Lodge can annul, abrogate or destroy the power of a warrant. If, therefore, the majority of a lodge should determine to leave the institution of that lodge, the constitution or power of assembling remains with the rest of the members who adhere to their allegiance. If the number remaining, however, be reduced to less than seven, the charter shall be returned agreeably to the regulation in such cases provided.

SEC 88. If the Master and Wardens of any lodge be summoned to attend, or to produce the charter, books, papers or accounts of their lodge to the Grand Master, or the District Deputy Grand Master within whose jurisdiction it is located, or to any committee authorized by the Grand Lodge, and shall refuse to comply or to give satisfactory reasons for noncompliance, they may be suspended, and the proceedings shall be notified to the Grand Lodge, when, in case of contumacy, expulsion or revocation of charter shall be the penalty. [Sec. 47, 48]

SEC 89. Whenever any lodge under this jurisdiction shall have lost its charter by casualty or otherwise, it shall be the duty of said lodge to apply for a new charter, which application shall be signed by at least seven Master Masons who are members of said lodge, and sanctioned by the District Deputy grand Master of the District where said lodge is situated; and if, in the opinion of the Grand Lodge or the Grand Master, a new charter should be granted, the same may be issued by the Grand Master, the lodge applying therefore paying a fee of five dollars for engrossing the same, which shall be the only fee demanded for said charter. [See S.R. 17]

SEC 90 1. Each lodge shall pay annually towards the support of the Grand Lodge a per capita tax of Six Dollars and thirty-five cents ($6.75) each for all of its members, including honorary members and those absent from the state and two dollars ($2.00) for every candidate initiated, provided, however, said per capita tax shall be adjusted annually in accordance with the report of the Finance Committee as presented pursuant to Section 35, provided further, however, that said per capita tax shall not be increased in any one year by more than an amount equal to six per cent (6%) of the previous tax, rounded to the nearest five cents. Provided, that annual dues shall not be paid to the Grand Lodge for any honorary member who at the time such honorary membership was conferred was an active member of another lodge.

Rev. 2000

[1989, p. 866 1999, pp.653, 654, 655]

SEC 90.2. One dollar ($1.00) per year shall be levied on each member of the constituted lodges of this Grand Lodge for the purpose of preparing, printing, and mailing the Maine Mason to each member of the constituted lodges. These funds for The Maine Mason are to be considered as though they are dedicated funds. If The Maine Mason shall cease to be published, this levy shall likewise cease. These funds shall be subject to Section 35 of the Constitution as any other Grand Lodge Funds.

[1994, p. 1040]

SEC 90.3. Each lodge shall be entitled to receive as many diplomas from the Grand Lodge as it makes Master Masons. No duplicate of a diploma shall be issued. In the event that the original diploma is lost by fire or other unavoidable circumstance, a diploma certificate may be issued by the Grand Secretary.

SEC. 91. A lodge adopting or revising by-laws shall forward four copies of such by-laws or revisions, properly attested as to the date of proposal and date of adoption by the lodge, to the Grand Master for his approval before recording or printing same. On approval one copy shall be returned to the lodge, two copies forwarded to the Grand Secretary for the Grand Lodge Library and one to be retained by the Grand Master for his files. By-laws or amendments to by-laws are in effect on the date of approval by the Grand Master.

SEC 92. No lodge shall "call off" from one day to another; but when the business cannot conveniently be completed at one session, a lodge may close to open on another day without further notice, and so on from time to time until the business is completed; and the subsequent communications shall be held to be a continuance of the first communication, but no business shall be transacted except such as was pending on the first day.

SEC. 93 1. No lodge under this jurisdiction shall hold more than one, stated meeting in each month, at which it can receive petitions and ballot for candidates, except by dispensation.

SEC 93.2. Provided further that no action shall be had in any lodge under this jurisdiction upon a petition for degrees or for an election of an officer or officers of a lodge under a dispensation from the Grand Master until the expiration of three days from the time the notices calling the communication for action have been issued and mailed.

SEC 94. No business, other than that appertaining to the work and lectures, shall be transacted in a lodge while open on the first or second degree. All general business, such as the election and installation of officers, the discussion of questions relating to the general interest of the Fraternity and the local affairs of the lodge, shall be transacted in a Master's lodge, and at least seven members must be present. Provided however, a lodge may elect to conduct all business or any portion thereof in the Entered Apprentice Degree. [See Sec. 132]

SEC 95. Immediately after the installation of the officers of a lodge, the Secretary shall return to the Grand Secretary the names and addresses of the Master, Wardens and Secretary.

SEC 96. Any officer below the rank of Junior Warden may resign. Whenever a vacancy occurs in any of said offices; it may be filled at the next or any succeeding stated communication of the lodge.

SEC. 97. Every lodge must preserve the copy of the printed proceedings in the hall, and when a volume is completed shall bind it for the use of the lodge.

SEC 98. The Master of any Lodge under this jurisdiction who has faithfully discharged his duties and complied with the laws of the Grand Lodge shall, at the end of his first term, be presented with a Past Master's diploma similar in style and fitness to the one adopted in 1824.

SEC 99. Lodges should take cognizance of Masonic offences committed within their territorial jurisdiction by any brother, except members of lodges having concurrent jurisdiction. [See Sec. 17, 48, 49]

[See Sec. 17]

SEC 102. No one below the degree of Master Mason shall be interred with Masonic honors and the formalities of the Order. It is the duty of a lodge of which a brother is a member, or the nearest lodge, to attend and perform the usual Masonic burial service over deceased Master Masons, when requested so to do by the deceased or his nearest relatives. Provided however, a Master may, at his discretion, afford such honors [that is funeral honors] to a Mason in good standing who has received the Entered Apprentice Degree.

SEC. 103. No lodge, or officer or member of a lodge, shall, under any circumstances, give a certificate or recommendation to enable a mason to go from lodge to

Work of Lodges

SEC. 112. No lodge, without the permission of the Grand Master, shall receive a petition of a candidate for the degrees until he has resided in this state one year, (excepting seafaring men absent only on a voyage to sea). Lodges shall have the right to receive such petitions from candidates in the military or naval service who are stationed and have their domicile in this state one year.

[See Sec. 119, 123, 129, 133 (4)]

Sec. 113. If any person, who wishes for initiation in any lodge, resides without the state, he shall first obtain the consent of the lodge within whose jurisdiction he resides, by unanimous vote at a stated communication, and the permission in writing of the Grand Master within whose jurisdiction he resides, which consent and permission shall be annexed to his application.

Sec. 114. The jurisdiction of each lodge in the state shall extend over all territory of Maine and all Lodges shall have concurrent jurisdiction therein.

Rev. 2001

Sec. 115. One lodge cannot confer a degree at the request of another lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction unless the requesting lodge waives jurisdiction, and the other lodge accepts the candidate in the usual manner, and for its usual fee.

Sec. 116. A petitioner for the degrees whose application has been rejected by a lodge shall not be initiated in any lodge under this jurisdiction other than the one which rejected him, within five years from the date of such rejection, unless the lodge having jurisdiction recommend him to another lodge by a unanimous secret ballot. A mason knowingly assisting or recommending for initiation, to any lodge whatever, any person rejected aforesaid, shall, if a member of a lodge under this jurisdiction, be suspended or expelled as may be determined after charges and due trial. [Sec. 14, 48, 49]

Sec. 117. No petition for the degrees shall be received by any lodge from any candidate who has been rejected in that lodge within less than six months after the rejection.

Sec. 118. A petitioner for the degrees, rejected in any lodge and subsequently residing in the jurisdiction of another lodge, may apply to either with the consent of the other, obtained in the manner and under the conditions herein before provided.

Sec. 119. An applicant whose petition for the degrees has been rejected in any lodge, who shall within five years after such rejection, be initiated in any lodge under this jurisdiction, other than the one to which he first applied, without consent of said lodge, shall be declared an irregularly made Mason and all Masonic intercourse with him is forbidden.

Sec. 120. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Grand Master that any irregularly made mason is irregular for a reason not attributable to his own fault, the Grand Master, in his discretion, may cause such irregular mason to be healed by appearing before the Master of a lodge at a stated communication and be re-obligated in all the degrees, and the secretary of the lodge shall issue a certificate or re-obligation of the candidate which certificate shall be presented with his application for membership.

A mason healed by edict of the Grand Master may petition for membership in the same manner as with an ordinary petition, provided he is not ineligible under any other section of this Constitution or the Common Law of Masonry. The status of a mason healed by edict of the Grand Master shall remain that of an "unaffiliated mason" until such time as he may be regularly admitted a member of a lodge under this jurisdiction.

Sec. 121. The general rule which governs the Order in the admission of members and candidates is, that such admission is to be sanctioned by entire unanimity; and so sacred and fundamental does the Grand Lodge conceive this rule to be, that no petitioner shall be initiated or affiliated in any lodge under this jurisdiction without a clear and unanimous ballot in his favor. Every member present shall ballot on the application, unless excused by the lodge. [See Sec. 119]

Sec. 122. a. By the Ancient regulations, the physical deformity of an individual operates as a bar to his admission into the fraternity, but as this regulation was adopted for the government of the craft at a period when they united the character of operative with that of speculative Masons, this Grand Lodge authorizes such a construction of the regulations as that, when the petitioner is able to understand and exemplify or explain the arts or mysteries of Freemasonry and his deformity does not amount to an inability honestly to acquire the means of subsistence, the admission will not be an infringement upon the ancient landmarks but will be perfectly consistent with the spirit of our institution.

b. Blindness alone shall not render a candidate ineligible under the provisions of this section provided he is capable of meeting his Masonic obligations and is otherwise a desirable candidate.

Sec. 123. All applications for initiation must be made and the ballot thereon taken at stated communications, except by dispensation.

Each application must be made in writing over the signature of the applicant, stating his age, residence, that he has resided in the state one year next preceding the date of his application (except in the cases above provided), and whether he has made application and been rejected by any other lodge. [See Reg. 20]

No petitioner for the degrees shall be balloted for, in any case, until his application has been referred to a committee and strict inquiry made into his moral character and fitness to be made a mason.

And no petitioner for the degrees shall be balloted for in less than four weeks from the presentation of his application without first obtaining a dispensation therefore a petition for initiation, or application for membership, shall not be withdrawn after it has been referred to the committee of inquiry, without the consent of the lodge, nor until after a report of the committee and ballot had thereon, nor unless the ballot be clear. But if it shall be determined, at any time before rejection, that the lodge has not jurisdiction over the petitioner, or that he is not eligible under section 123, the conditions shall be entered of record, and the petition and fee returned to the petitioner, in which case the status of the petitioner is the same as before the application was presented.

SEC 124. 1. There shall be but one ballot for all the degrees, which must be free and secret; and in balloting for the degrees for membership, if more than one negative vote appear, the balloting shall cease and the candidate be declared rejected. However, if on the first ballot one negative only appears a second balloting shall immediately take place, and if a negative shall appear, the candidate shall be declared rejected. In balloting upon application for degrees or membership, the ballot shall be taken upon each applicant separately.

SEC 124. 2. An objection by any member before the initiation is equivalent to rejection by ballot, and must be so recorded; such objection may be made privately to the Master, or to the lodge, and the reasons therefore cannot be required; and if any mason shall declare the name of the objector, or assist in the initiation of any one against whom he has knowledge or information that objection has been made after the acceptance, he shall be liable to be expelled from the Institution; but if objections are made after initiation, to the advancement of the candidate, they must be made known to the lodge and their sufficiency determined by a two thirds vote.

SEC. 125. An applicant whose petition for the degrees is rejected shall be notified by the secretary of the lodge and all fees he has paid shall be returned to him. The notice shall specify the date of rejection, the constitutional period which must elapse before he may present a petition again to the lodge and also the period which must elapse before he may present a petition to any other lodge without consent of the lodge which has rejected his petition.

SEC. 126. No candidate should be permitted to receive the degree of Fellow Craft or Master Mason without a sufficient knowledge of the preceding degree to prove himself as a mason of such degree in the usual manner, unless in a case of absolute emergency.

[See Sec. 130]

SEC. 127. No lodge shall permit more than one candidate to be present at a time in the first section of the first, or the second section of the third degree. In addition, no lodge shall confer more than five degrees at the same communication of the lodge, or hold more than one communication upon the same day for the conferring of degrees.

[See Sec. 92, 130]

SEC. 128. A candidate for the degrees, whose petition has been accepted, who does not present himself for initiation within one year from such acceptance, shall forfeit all right by reason of such acceptance, and shall not be initiated except on a new petition; but any time, if more than three months, such person is temporarily absent from the state shall be deducted.

Sec. 129. No Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft shall be passed or raised in any lodge, without the recommendation of the lodge in which he was first admitted.

Sec. 130. No candidate shall receive the Entered Apprentice degree unless at least fourteen days have elapsed since he was accepted. No candidate shall receive the Fellow Craft degree in any lodge in this State unless at least fourteen days have elapsed since his receiving the Entered Apprentice degree; nor shall any Fellow Craft be permitted to receive the Master Mason degree until after fourteen days shall have elapsed from the date of his having received the Fellow Craft degree, except that the Grand Master on being satisfied of the necessity therefore, may issue a dispensation to permit degrees to be conferred in less than the above required time.

Provided further, That the discretion vested in the Grand Master to grant dispensation for the conferring of degrees in less than the required time shall be governed strictly by conditions of extreme necessity or extraordinary emergency, and never to permit a candidate to be raised to the degree of a Master Mason upon the same day on which he has been passed as a Fellow Craft.

Sec. 131. The fee demanded by a lodge for conferring the first three degrees in Masonry, shall not be less than thirty dollars, including the fee to the Grand Lodge; and no lodge under this jurisdiction shall take notes of hand for fees, or grant any time of credit therefore, or permit the fees or any part thereof to be remitted directly or indirectly.

No fee shall be charged in any subordinate lodge under this jurisdiction for membership through affiliation.

Sec. 132. No lodge, in the absence of the Master and Wardens, shall initiate, craft or raise a candidate, unless a Past Master is present to preside; and no ballot shall be taken for initiation or membership, unless there are at least seven members of the lodge present.

Membership of Lodges

SEC. 133. 1. Every candidate who shall receive the third degree in any lodge in this jurisdiction and sign the by-laws shall become a member of said lodge and the

Secretary shall record his name upon the roll of membership; provided that this section shall not be construed to prohibit any lodge in this jurisdiction from conferring any degree upon a candidate lawfully elected thereto by a lodge in any other jurisdiction with which this Grand Lodge holds fraternal relations, on the request under seal from the electing lodge, the identity and standing of the candidate being fully established, in which case the membership of the brother shall remain in the electing lodge and the fees shall belong thereto.

2. A candidate lawfully elected to receive the degrees in a lodge under this jurisdiction, who shall by request of the electing lodge receive the degree of Master Mason in a lodge in a Grand Jurisdiction in fraternal relations with this lodge, shall become a member of the electing lodge on receipt of his signature to be attached to the lodge by-laws.

3. A lodge in this jurisdiction shall not be permitted to have degrees conferred upon an elected candidate by a lodge in any Grand Jurisdiction with which this Grand Lodge is in fraternal relations, unless at least one degree shall have been conferred by said lodge and the fees for all the degrees paid in full.
