(The Sir Knights being seated, will always, at the command, ATTENTION, SIR KNIGHTS, rise to their feet and stand fast until other commands are given.) The Sword Bearer, Standard Bearer and Warden do not fall in with the rest, but remain standing in the West, facing the East. The grading or sizing being completed, the Captain-General will command,

C G. Front face.

When the Sir Knights will face to the left. The Junior Warden, who does not fall in with the rest, will take his post on the extreme left of the line. The Senior Warden having taken his post on the exact point where the right of the line is to rest, the Captain-General will command,

Attention, Sir Knights—Right—DRESS—

The positions of the officers and Sir Knights will then be as illustrated by the following diagram :

In the above and in the diagrams following, the officers will be numbered, for convenience, as follows: 1. Eminent Commander; 2. Generalissimo; 3. Captain-General; 4. Prelate; 5. Treasurer; 6. Recorder; 7. Senior Warden; 8. Junior Warden; 9. Sword Bearer; 10. Standard Bearer; 11. Warden; 12. Captain of the Guard.

The Sir Knights being formed in one rank, or line, as above explained, the Captain-General will draw his sword, and advance to the centre and front of the line and command,

The Senior and Junior Wardens do not count. The counting being completed, the Captain-General will command,

In Two Divisions—Right—FACE—MARCH.

At the command, FACE, the whole line will turn one quarter round to the right.

At the command, MARCH, those numbered One will stand fast, while those numbered Two will step briskly to the right side of numbers One.

The Sir Knights are now formed into files of two abreast. Those of the numbers One constitute the "First Division," and those of the numbers Two constitute the "Second Division."

Care should be taken that the space or interval made vacant by the numbers Two is preserved, and that at the command, MARCH, every number Two should make the step to the right at the same moment.

This movement being completed, the Captain-General will command,

*Officers—*POSTS.

At the command, POSTS, the Senior Warden will take command of the First Division. The Junior Warden will take his post on the right and command the Second Division.

The Captain-General will then command,
Attention, Sir Knights—Front—FACE.

The positions of the officers and divisions will then be as follows :

*Attention, Sir Knights — Carry — ARMS—
Officers—POSTS.*

At the command, POSTS, the Captain-General will place himself on the left, and the Generalissimo on the right of the Eminent Commander; the Senior Warden on the left of the first division; the Junior Warden on the left of the second division, and the Standard Guard at the opening at the foot of the lines facing the Eminent Commander. The officers having taken their respective posts, the EMINENT COMMANDER will command,

Attention, First Division—

MARCH—HALT—About—FACE.

Attention, Sir Knights—

TAKE DISTANCE BY THE POINT OF THE SWORD.

At this command, each Sir Knight in the two divisions will drop the point of his sword to his left, and extend the right arm across the body, so that the right hand will rest against the left breast, the back of the hand to the front, the blade of the sword extending horizontally across the breast of the Sir Knight next on his left.

The Senior Warden will immediately command,

First Division—Side Step to your Right.

The Junior Warden will, at the same time, command,

Second Division—Side Step to the Left.

The preparatory commands given, the EMINENT COMMANDER will add,

MARCH.

At this command, the Sir Knights will turn their heads toward the East, and by a side step to the West gain distance equal to the length of the sword blade from the Sir Knight next toward the East, and Halt. The Standard Guard will retreat with the extension of the lines toward the West.

The Sir Knights, as soon as they are in position and have halted, will carry arms. The Sir Knights of the second division will be careful to align upon the corresponding Sir Knights of the first division, so that they will be exactly opposite each other. The leading files on the right, or East, on the extension of the lines, stand fast.

The following illustrates the positions at the completion of the movements.

The— are communicated either through or across the lines, or alternately, at the discretion of the Eminent Commander.

To communicate through the lines, the Eminent Commander will face to the Generalissimo, and command,

When communicated across the lines, the command is,

Attention, Sir Knights—PREPARE TO GUARD.

At the command, PREPARE TO GUARD, each Sir Knight will bring his sword to the same position as present. The Eminent Commander will then command,

First Division Advance and Communicate to the Second Division—. GUARD.

At the command, GUARD, each Sir Knight of both divisions will promptly advance his right foot about eighteen inches, resting the weight of his body principally on his left, and at the same instant extend his right arm directly in front, the back of his hand to the rear, the flat of his blade to the front, and cross swords with the Sir Knight directly opposite to him ; the swords crossing each other at nearly a right angle, and about midway between the point and the hilt. To secure uniformity of motion, the Eminent Commander will do well to call off the cuts by their numbers ; at least, until his command are familiar with them. The communication having passed, he will command,

*Recover—*SWORDS.

The First and Second Divisions should advance and communicate alternately.

The exercises being completed, the Eminent Commander, should he desire it, will say,

E C. Attn Sr Kts Return Swords.

E C. Sr Kt Cpt Gen yu wl frm th Sr Kts arnd th triangle preparatory t their devotus.

The Eminent Commander and Generalissimo having returned to their stations in the East, the Captain-General will command,

Attention, First Division—About—FACE—

Second Division—Close Order—MARCH.

When the second division has arrived at its proper distance behind the files of the first division, he will command,

Second Division—Into Line—MARCH.

At the command, MARCH, the second division will step to the left and front and take its position as in one rank, the Senior Warden taking his post on the right, the Junior Warden on the left of the line.

The Captain-General will command,

Right—DRESS—FRONT — Call off from the Right by Threes—IN THREE DIVISIONS—

Right—FACE—MARCH—Officers—

POSTS.

When the Officers take their posts as in forming into Three Divisions, each faced to the right. The Captain-General will command, Close Intervals—MARCH.

At the command, MARCH, the first file of three, composing the leading files of each division, stand fast, the others closing up on them, leaving a space or interval of about thirteen inches between each file, and halt.

The Captain-General will then command,

Attention, Sir Knights—FORM TRIANGLE.

The officers of divisions will then give promptly the following orders :

The Senior Warden—

First Division—COUNTERMARCH BY FILE LEFT.

The Sword Bearer—

Second Division—FILE LEFT.

The Junior Warden—

Third Division—MARK TIME.

The preparatory commands given, the Captain-General will command,

MARCH.

The first and second divisions will move off simultaneously,—the first countermarching to the West, the second filing to the North. The Sword Bearer should step one pace forward before filing to the left, so as to clear the first division. As soon as the last Sir Knight in the second division files to the left, the Junior Warden will command,

Third Division—File Left—MARCH.

When the Senior Warden arrives at the point upon which the base of the triangle is to rest, he will command,

First Division—HALT—Right—FACE—

When the Sword Bearer reaches the proper North, he will file to the left; and, on arriving opposite the Senior Warden, he will again file to the left, and march his division to the South, on a line at right angles to the first division, his right resting on the Senior Warden. He will then command,

Second Division—HALT—Front—FACE

When the Junior Warden arrives at the point opposite the Senior Warden, he will command,

Third Division—HALT—Front—FACE—
Right—DRESS—FRONT.

The movements executed, the Captain-General will command,

First and Third Divisions—Left and Right
Wheel—MARCH—HALT.

The Senior and Junior Warden will then align their divisions—the first by left, the latter by right, dress—when the Captain-General will command,

Return—SWORDS.

He will then announce to the Eminent Commander that the triangle is formed. The following diagram illustrates the positions of the officers and divisions. The dotted lines show the line of march of the several divisions from their place of starting :

Prayer at Opening a Council.

O Thou eternal, immortal, and invisible God : we would desire to come into Thy presence, at this time, with grateful hearts, to render thanks and praise for the wonderful display of Thy goodness and mercy. Be Thou pleased, O God, to be with Thy servants who are now assembled in Thy name ; lift upon each one of us the light of Thy countenance ; defend us from the evil intentions of our enemies, while traveling the journey of life ; and when we shall finally come into Thy presence, to be freed from the chains of sin, and the sack-cloth of repentance, be Thou merciful unto us, O God, not according to our deserts, but according to our necessities; and Thine shall be the praise, forever and ever. Amen.

Reading of Scripture.

Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren, the priests and Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem:
and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the Lord. Then stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel, and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henedad, with their sons and brethren, the Levites. And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the Lord, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the ordinance of David, king of Israel. And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord, because he is good, for his mercy endureth forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. Ezra iii. 8—11.

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel, then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you; for we seek your God as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him, since the days of Esarhaddon, king of Assur, which brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus, the king of Persia, hath commanded us. Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, and hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus, king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius, king of Persia. And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. And in the days of Artaxerzes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes, king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue: Rehum, the Chancellor, and Shimshai, the scribe, wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes, the king, in this sort: This is a copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes, the king:—Thy servants, the men on this side the river, and at such a time. Be it known unto the king, that the Jews, which came up from thee to us, are come into Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

Be it known now unto the king, that if this city be builded, and the walls set up again then will they not pay toll, tribute and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings. Now because we have maintainence from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and certified the king; that search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers; so that thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time; for which cause was this city destroyed. We certify the king, that if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river. Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum, the chancellor, and to Shimshai, the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time. The letter which ye sent us hath been plainly read before me. And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute and custom was paid unto them. Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment be given from me. Take heed how that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of kings? Now, when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai, the scribe, and the r companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem, unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. Then ceased the work of the house of God, which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius, king of Persia.—

THE STRENGTH OF WINE.

Chn. O ye princes and rulers, how exceeding strong is wine ! It causeth all men to err that drink it ; it maketh the mind of the king and the beggar to be all one ; of the bondman and freeman ; of the poor man and of the rich ; it turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow or debt ; it changeth and elevateth the spirits, and enliveneth the heavy hearts of the miserable.
It maketh a man forget his brethren, and draw his sword against his best friends. O ye princes and rulers, is not wine the strongest, that forceth us to do these things ?

THE POWER OF KINGS.

S M. M o t h P w h t d o y u s a : It is beyond dispute, O princes and rulers, that God has made man master of all things under the sun ; to command them, to make use of them, and to apply them to his service as he pleases ; but whereas men have only dominion over other sublunary creatures, kings have an authority even over men themselves, and a right of ruling them by will and pleasure. Now, he that is master of those who are masters of all things else, has no earthly thing above him.

THE POWER OF WOMEN, AND OF TRUTH.

S M. Zerbl w h t i s y r a r g m t : O princes and rulers, the force of wine is not to be denied, neither is that of kings, that unites so many men in one common bond of allegiance, but the supereminency of women is yet above all this ; for kings are but the gifts of women, and they are also the mothers of those that cultivate our vineyards. Women have the power to make us abandon our very country and relations, and many times to forget the best friends we have in the world, and forsaking all other comforts, to live and die with them. But when all is said, neither they, nor wine, nor kings, are comparable to the almighty force of truth. As for all other things, they are mortal and transient, but truth alone is unchangeable and everlasting; the benefits we receive from it are subject to no variations or vicissitudes of time and fortune. In her judgment is no unrighteousness, and she is the strength, wisdom, power and majesty of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth.

Response.—Blessed, thrice blessed, be the God of truth.

THE KING'S VOW.

O king, remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed, to build Jerusalem in the day when thou shouldst come to thy kingdom, and to restore the holy vessels which were taken away out of Jerusalem. Thou hast also vowed to build up the temple, which was burned when Judah was made desolate by the Chaldees. And now, O king, this is that I desire of thee, that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the King of Heaven.

And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water and gave it unto Hagar (putting it on her shoulder) and the child, and sent her away, and she departed and wandered in the wilderness, and the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of Heaven, saying, Arise, lift up the lad and hold him in thine hand for I will make him a great nation; and God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. By faith Abraham sojourned in the land of promise as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles; for he looked for a city which had foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children, rejoicing in the Lord always; and again say, rejoice.

To do good and communicate, forget not,

Prlt. Then one of the twelve called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, and said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him. Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him,
The master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover. Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord is it I? And he answered and said. He that dip-peth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. The Son of man goeth, as it is written of him; but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not been born. Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.—Matt. xxvi. 14 25.

Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and said unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death; tarry ye here, and watch with me. And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came and found them asleep again; for their eyes were heavy. And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest ; behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going : behold he is at hand that doth betray me. And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude, with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master ; and kissed him.—Matt. xxvi. 36-49.

Prlt. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person ; see ye to it. Then answered all the people and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then released he Barabbas unto them ; and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand : and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail king of the Jews ! And they spit upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. And as they came out they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name : him they compelled to bear his cross. [And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, they gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots. And sitting down, they watched him there; and set up over his head his accusation written, This is Jesus the King of the Jews.]—Matt. xxvii. 24-38.

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulcher. And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from Heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: And for fear of him the keepers did shake and become as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus which is crucified. He is not here, for he has risen as he said. Come see the place where the Lord lay: and go quickly and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the sepulcher with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word. And as they went to tell his disciples, behold Jesus met them, saying, All Hail. And they came and held him by the feet and worshipped him. Then Jesus said unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.—Matt. xxviii. 1-10.

The rising God forsakes the tomb,
Up to His Father's court he flies,

Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.

Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell How high our great Deliverer reigns—Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell
And led the monster death in chains.

Say "Live for ever, wondrous King, Born to redeem, and strong to save?"
Then ask the tyrant, where's thy sting?
And where's thy victory, boasting grave?

Prlt. And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said (the number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty), Men and breihren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of David, spake before, concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

For he was numbered with us, and had obtained a part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of his iniquity ; and, falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem : insomuch as that field is called, in their proper tongue, Acedama, that is to say, the field of blood. For it is written in the Book of Psalms. Let his habitation be desolate, and no man dwell therein ; and his bishopric let another take. Wherefore, of those men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must be one ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph, called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they gave forth their lots : and the lot fell upon Matthias ; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.—Acts i. 15-26.

Prt. And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita. And the barbarous people showed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire and received us every one; because of the present rain, and because of the cold. And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat and fastened on his hand. And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live. And he shook off the least into the fire and felt no harm. Acts xxviii. 1-5.

Prlt. But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples, therefore said unto him. We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them. Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said Peace be with you. Then said he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands ; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side ; and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.—John xx. 24-28.
