ANONYMOUS, Text-Book of Advanced Freemasonry, Containing for the Instruction of the Candidates, the Complete Rituals of the Higher Degrees, viz., Royal Ark Mariners, Mark Master, Royal Arch, Red Cross of Rome and Constantine, and Perfect Prince Mason, Knights Templar and Rose Croix; and also Monitorial Instructions in the 30th to 33rd and Last Degree of Freemasonry. Commenting on the accuracy of this book in his recent history of the Ancient and Accepted (Scottish) Rite, ROSE CROIX (1987), Brigadier A.C.F. Jackson noted, "About 1870, or possibly earlier, the Supreme Council issued each Chapter with a hand-written ritual.... THE TEXT BOOK OF ADVANCED FREEMASONRY, 1873, may have been plagiarized from the official manuscripts referred to above." The Rose Croix ritual in this book convinced A.E. Waite that high-grade Freemasonry is related to Rosicrucianism. Read this important book and find out why! This is a reprint of the rare 1873 (first) edition. Essential. 278 pages, ISBN 1564593347, $19.00

ANONYMOUS, Rituals of the Swedenborgian Rite of Masonry, The Swedenborgian Rite was revived in the United States and Canada by Brother Samuel Beswick. It consists of three elaborate and beautiful ceremonies for which the Craft is required. A Supreme Grand Lodge and Temple for [Great] Britain & [Ireland] was chartered by Brother Colonel W.J.B. McLeod Moore, 33°, &c., of the Canadian body, on 1st October, 1875, with Bro. John Yarker as G.M. A Charter has recently been issued by this country for a body in Paris, and previously to Roumania and Egypt" John Yarker,—"The Arcane Schools: We learn from Liber LII, The Manifesto of the O.T.O. (Equinox III:1:197-198), that the Swedenborgian Rite was 16th in a list of 18 bodies which contributed its wisdom to this august order. Its rituals provide an esoteric reinterpretation of the Craft degrees. This book includes all three degrees. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593622, $13.00

ANONYMOUS, Rituals of the Fratres Lucis, The 'Brothers of Light'—also known as the Ritters des Licht, or 'Knights of Light'—was supposed to be a Masonic Rosicrucian splinter of the Order of the Rosy Cross, but authentic information concerning it is difficult to obtain. This book includes the rituals of Knight Novice of the Third year, Knight Novice of the Fifth Year, Knight Novice of the Seventh Year, Knight Levite and Knight Priest, as well as an introductory chapter on the order from A.E. Waite's Brotherhood of the Rosy Cross which comments on its many Hermetic characteristics. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593630, $13.00

ANONYMOUS, Secret Instructions of the Society of Jesus (Jesuit Priests) (1882), Herein is contained the most secret writings of the Jesuits! The text of the Secret Instructions of the Society of Jesus reproduced here was found beneath the pallet on an adobe bed in a cottage in the Andes Mountains of Peru about a century ago. A French archeologist had been sent into the Andes to probe the ruins. He had rented a room in a tiny village to use for the base of his operations. Once while he was away his room was rented to another overnight guest who happened to be a Jesuit official. On the Jesuit's departure he forgot a little book which he had hidden under the mattress. The archeologist accidentally found it. It was the Secret Instruction of the Society of Jesus, the top classified manual of procedure for the trusted leaders of the order. It was in Latin & bore the seal, signature & attestation of the General & Sec. of the Order in Rome. For the next few days the Frenchman labored furiously translating the work into French. He then replaced the book and left. The Jesuit returned a few days later inquiring nervously about his little black packet and also wanted to know if anyone had occupied the room since his departure. On learning of the archeologist he began a search so relentless that the Frenchman had to leave Peru. He finally reached San Francisco and entrusted his precious but dangerous burden to Edwin A. Sherman, Sec. of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in California. Mr. Sherman included the Secret Instructions in his book The Engineer Corps of Hell published in 1882. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599124, $13.00

ANONYMOUS, Ritual of Pennsylvania Ancient York Masonry, Concerning the Pennsylvania ritual, Albert G. Mackey wrote, "The method of Entering, Passing, and raising candidates in the Lodges of Pennsylvania differs so materially from that practiced in the other States of the Union, that it cannot be considered as a part of the American Rite as first taught by Webb, but rather as an independent, Pennsylvania modification of the York Rite of England. Indeed, the Pennsylvania system of work much more resembles the English than the American. Its ritual is simple and didactic, like the former, and is almost entirely without the impressive dramatization of the latter." This fascinating book contains the complete ritual of the degrees of Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason, deciphered from a work dated 1880. Although modern Masonic historians claim that the current Pennsylvania ritual is the "Antients' work," it differs significantly from the ritual used 100 years ago, as revealed herein. For the first time ever, this old ritual makes available the most unusual ritual ever used in American Masonry. If you have never seen the Pennsylvania ritual, this book will give you insight concerning the nature of the Pennsylvania workings, as the editor compares the old and new rituals. Pennsylvania Masons will be amazed at the changes which have been made in their ritual in the last 100 years. 112 pages, ISBN 156459985X, $13.00

ANONYMOUS, Women's Masonry or Masonry of Adoption, The complete text of the earliest Masonic rituals written for women, originally published in 1765. "Adoptive Masonry" was much more than just the forerunner of the Order of the Eastern Star (OES), its participants were actually considered Masons. These rituals are much different from those of the OES, and are the oldest form of these degrees known. John Yarker and Albert Pike later produced their own versions of these degrees, but here's a chance to see what they were like before being reworked. One of the degrees concerns a reenactment of the temptation in the Garden of Eden, and is believed by some to have influenced the Mormon temple ceremony, which includes a similar theme. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599906, $13.00

ANONYMOUS, Ordo ab Chao: The Original and Complete Rituals, 4°-33° of the first Supreme Council, 33° at Charleston, South Carolina, The manuscripts are a veritable goldmine of Masonic information, for they constitute, as far as we are aware, the most complete set of early Scottish Rite rituals in the United States. Each of the five books was copied from rituals belonging to Giles F. Yates, 33°, a member of both the Northern and Southern Supreme Councils, who had most, if not all, of the manuscript rituals of Mr. Frederick Dalcho, one of the founders of the first Supreme Council. At one point the original Dalcho manuscripts were lost or sold, and when the collection was rediscovered in 1938, it had several rituals missing. Our collection, however, is complete, from the 4°-33°. Most of the rituals are dated 1801 and 1802, which we believe indicates they are copies of the Dalcho versions, although we have not had the opportunity to compare them with the originals in the archives of the Northern Jurisdiction. For some unknown reason, however, each is designated as belonging to either the "first series" or "second series," while some rituals have apparently been switched around in numerical order. For example, one ritual is labeled the "30th, 31st and 32nd Degree of the First Series (1802)...now 32nd, called Sovereign, or Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret;" although it seems to have become the 32° only after a "31° Tribunal of Grand Inquiring Commander" ritual appeared (dated 1804). Another revision is the "29° Grand Master Ecosse...Knight of St. Andrew." Following the degree is the outline of an apparent 1806 revision which radically departs from the earlier form, yet is similar to that found in Albert Pike's Magnum Opus (1857). Did Pike have this 1806 ritual? Possibly, yet, we know from Pike's writings that he didn't have all these rituals. Pike's revisions were done without the benefit of reading the original rituals contained in this set. One of the most interesting rituals is the "33° Sovereign Grand Inspector General." Not only is it the earliest form of this degree, but it includes a copy of a "Letter of Credence" (our modern "Patent") and an early version of the Constitutions, Statutes and Regulations. For all who have wondered what the original Scottish Rite rituals were like, this set, and only this set may answer the question. The rituals in this set are not the same as the Francken MS. These is the only set of its kind. If you want authentic information on the Scottish Rite, this book will become your prime set of source documents. Volume 2 (the 19th - 33rd) starts after page 222. 446 pages, ISBN 156459999X, $25.00

AUDSLEY, GEORGE ASHDOWN, Color Harmony in Dress (1928), A practical manual on that most important of subjects: how to choose colors which harmonize at once with the wearer's complexion and with one another. In clear, non-technical language Mr. Audsley explains the basic reasons for the harmony and discord of various colors and their modifications; he lists the principal color harmonies and indicates which of these are most suitable for each type of women. Such matters as simultaneous and successive contrast are fully discussed: and a final chapter considers the interesting question of symbolism and expression in dress. 142 pages, ISBN 0766101991, $14.00

AUGUSTINE, SAINT, Confessions (1871), The object of the Saint was to illustrate the goodness and forbearance of Almighty God in bringing him, in spite of his loathsome manifold errors and infirmities, to this blessed haven of rest; that so others who were in the same state in which he had been, might not sleep in despair, and say, I cannot. St. Augustine speaks of his past sins in terms of strong condemnation, yet personally, of unconcern; as shocking in themselves, but as what he had no more to do with, in that he had condemned them, and they had been washed away by Baptism. 376 pages, ISBN 0766108139, $23.00

BABBITT, EDWIN D., Principles of Light and Color (1878), Including among other things: The Harmonic Laws of the Universe; the Etherio-Atomic Philosophy of Force; Chromo Chemistry; Chromo Therapeutics; and the General Philosophy of the fine Forces; Together with Numerous Discoveries and Practical Applications. BERNARD, DAVID, Light on Masonry, A Collection of all the Most Important Documents on the Subject of Speculative Free Masonry. This is the single most important exposé of Freemasonry ever published on American soil. Long out of print and difficult to obtain, this book was a product of the "Morgan episode" and has since become one of the most sought after items by all students of Masonic ritual. Once dubbed "the Bible of the anti-Masons," it includes hundreds of pages of verbatim degree work copied from rare manuscripts which are unobtainable elsewhere. Henry W. Coil wrote in his Masonic Encyclopedia that this book gives the Scottish Rite rituals as they were worked before Albert Pike revised them, and indeed, some of its rituals are extremely similar to those in the 1783 Francken Manuscript. Having studied both Pike's rituals and those included in this book, we believe that Pike used Light on Masonry to help in writing his "Magnum Opus" because the secret work in both books is too close to be mere coincidence. RITUALISTIC CONTENTS: Entered Apprentice; Fellow Craft; Master Mason; Mark Master; Past Master; Most Excellent Master; Royal Arch; Knight of the Red Cross; Knight Templar and Kt. of Malta; Knight of the Christian Mark and Guard of the Conclave; Knight of the Holy Sepulchre; The Holy and Thrice Illustrious Order of the Cross; Secret Master; Perfect Master; Intimate Secretary; Provost and Judge; Intendant of the Buildings, or Master in Israel; Elected Knight of Nine; Elected Grand Master, or Illustrious Elected of Fifteen;

BOEHME, JACOB, Confessions of Jacob Boehme, Introduction by Evelyn Underhill. "Jacob Boehme, who reveals to us in this book some of the secrets of his inner life, was among the most original of the great Christian mystics. With a natural genius for the things of the spirit, he also exhibited many of the characteristics of the psychic, the seer, and the metaphysician; and his influence on philosophy has been at least as great as his influence on religious mysticism. 180 pages, ISBN 1564592146, $16.00

BOEHME, JACOB, Dialogues on the Supersensual Life, Edited by William Law. "The Soul, in the doctrine of Boehme, is a Being which has a will or desire, and is aided by a mirror of understanding or imagination. Will or Desire is of the very essence of the Soul, inseparable from its existence. He says: 'Where Desire is, there is also Essence or Being.' The Soul is subject to the diverse attractions of the Centre of Divine Life and Light, and of the Spirit of the World. Enlightened by its understanding it has the free power to turn its will towards, and unite itself to, this or that. Choose well, thy choice is brief and yet endless. 180 pages, ISBN 1564592162, $16.00

What is the abyss of all things where no creature is, or the unfathomable nothing? What is God's love and anger? What was there before the angels and the world of creation were? What was the ground and the essential principle from which the angels were created? What is the office and the mode of activity of the angels? What moved Lucifer that he had a desire contrary to God, and turned himself away from the good? How can a devil have arisen from an angel? or, what is a devil? In what essence and being does he stand after the fall? Seeing that God is almighty, why did He not resist Lucifer, and prevent this? What was it the devil desired, with a view to which he turned aside from God's love? What was the combat between Michael and the dragon? How may the eternal counsel of God be contemplated in the Divine intuition? How was the expulsion of the dragon and the legions of Lucifer brought about? What is the office of the devil in hell? Had the foundation of hell a temporal beginning, or has it been from eternity? 396 pages, ISBN 1564591468, $24.00

BOEHME, JACOB, Forty Questions of the Soul, Sparrow, John. "The author wrote this answer to these questions, chiefly for his friend's sake that sent them to him, as also for the benefit of all such as love the knowledge of Mysteries: this friend who traveled for learning and hidden wisdom, and in his return home, happened to hear of this author in the city of Gortitz; and when he had obtained acquaintance with him, he rejoiced, that at last he had found at home, in a poor cottage, that which he had traveled for so far, and not received satisfaction: then he went to the several universities in Germany, and did there collect such questions concerning the soul, as were thought and accounted impossible to be resolved fundamentally and convincingly; which he made this catalog of, and sent to this author, from whom he received these answers according to his desire, wherein he and many others that saw them received full satisfaction. 364 pages, ISBN 1564592669, $22.00

BOEHME, JACOB, Clavis, or Key, Sparrow, John. An Exposition of Some Principal Matters and Words in the Writings of Jacob Boehme. "But since the lovers desire a Clavis, or key of my writings, I am ready and willing to pleasure them in it, and will set down a short description of the ground of those strange words; some of which are taken from nature and sense, and some are the words of strange masters, which I have tried according to sense, and found them good and fit. I will write but a short description of the divine manifestation, yet as much as I can comprehend in brief; and expound the strange words for the better understanding of our books for the consideration and help of beginners. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592677, $13.00

BUCK, J.D., Constructive Psychology or the Building of Character by Personal Effort, Constructive Psychology turns the thoughtful and intelligent individual back upon himself and undertakes to make exceeding plain those few simple principles by which he may adjust himself by personal effort and establish harmonious relations to God to Nature and to his fellowmen. He will find no necessity for consulting libraries, philosophies, authorities, or theologies, helpful as these may be at certain times or under certain circumstances. He will appeal solely to his own intelligence, his own conscience and his own experience. This is the only source for him of actual knowledge. He knows only that which he has learned by definite, personal experience. Contents: The Meaning of Life, The Road to Knowledge, Growth of the Soul; The Secret of Power; Constructive Psychology; Education; Egomania, and the Superman. 204 pages, ISBN 1564592065, $17.00

BUCK, J.D., Genius of Freemasonry and the Twentieth Century Crusade, Dedication: "for the Good of Masonry" in the interest of freedom and fraternity, Light, Liberty and Love, against—Ignorance, Superstition and fear, Clericalism, Despotism, and Jesuitism. "This little book has been written in answer to the oft-repeated question—'Has any brother anything to offer for the good of Masonry?' The following pages are the author's answer to that question. He can hardly hope that every brother Mason will agree with his views of either Freemasonry or clericalism. All he asks is that they read and consider the facts herein set forth and their logical bearing on the signs of the times and the living issues of the day." Contents: To Catholics; The Grand Architect of the Universe; The Genius of Freemasonry; Freemasonry as an Institution; Fraternity; Science of Ethics; Philosophy of Life; Great School; Origin of Freemasonry as a School of Progressive Moral Science; Freemasonry as a Great Work; Freemasonry as a World Power versus Clericalism; Facts and References; Pope's Politics; Real Issues, Balance of Power; Roman Clericalism—A Menace to Civilization—The Worst Enemy of Man; The Crusade. 340 pages, ISBN 1564592057, $22.00

BUCK, J.D., Holy Roman Empire, This article was published in the July, 1907 issue of "New Age" published by the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction Scottish Rite and is about the Holy Roman Church's aim and object to gain political power in America. Freemasonry is a bitter foe to all forms of tyranny and oppression: religious, political, and social. It's no surprise therefore, that the "Holy Roman Church" has issued many "Papal Bulls" against the Freemasons and has, through its army of Jesuits, endeavored to suppress Freemasonry around the world. Here's a 33° Mason who fights back. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592073, $13.00

BUCK, J.D., Lost Word Found, Freemasons have been searching centuries for the "Lost Word." In this small but essential work, J. D. Buck, a 33° Mason, clearly reveals what the word is and what it means. 112 pages, ISBN 0922802149, $13.00

BUCK, J.D., Mystic Masonry or the Symbols of Freemasonry and the Greater Mysteries of Antiquity, This Great Secret, this Master's Word, was known to and preserved in the Mysteries of Antiquity, and is embodied and preserved in the traditions and symbols of Masonry today. This fact has been stated repeatedly in the body of this little book, the real purpose of which was to set students, and particularly masonic students, to searching for the real secret. It is the reward of study and devotion, and has never been obtained on any other terms. It has never been conferred in the ritualistic degrees of the lodge, and never will or can be. It is the establishment of understanding in the soul of man between that higher self in him, and the More, and the Beyond self from which he draws his life, and from which his intuitions spring. This is real Initiation: Becoming: At-one-ment." "There are thousands of Masons, who realize that Masonry contains and implies far more than appears in the ritual and ceremonies of the Lodge. There is a very widespread and growing interest in this direction, and it is this that Mystic Masonry, above all else, is designed to foster, encourage, and help." Contents: Principles of Education and Ethics; Genius of Freemasonry; The Secret Doctrine, Science and Religion, The Septenary Nature of Man, The Sign of the Master; The Great Lodge, An Outline of Symbolism. 286 pages, ISBN 1564592715, $20.00

BUCK, J.D., New Avatar and the Destiny of the Soul, The Findings of Natural Science Reduced to Practical Studies in Psychology. "To the Great Friends the Helpers—Visible and Invisible—Whose deepest motive and highest aim are to encourage, uplift, and inspire those who Need; That all, at last, may stand together in the midst of the Radiant Splendor of Eternal Truth." "At the age of seventy-two, my egotism is at least softened by the discovery of the many things I do not know; and my dogmatism, so far as it ever existed, is equally relaxed by the realization that it is a bar to light and knowledge, which rest so largely on demonstration. From first to last, my 'Study of Medicine' has been generically and specifically a 'Study of Man,' physical, mental, ethical, and psychical." Contents: Studies in Psychology: Classification of Faculties, Capacities, and Powers; Empirical and Scientific Evidence; Mediumship, Seership, and Hypnosis; Cross in Religion and the Crucifix in Science; The New Avatar of Natural Science: Indebtedness to Ancient India; Hero Worship and Folklore; Conceptions and Portents of an Avatar; Portents of the Present Time; From Confusion to Construction; Science of Psychology as a Knowledge of the Human Soul; The New Avatar. 248 pages, ISBN 1564591964, $18.00

BUCK, J.D., Thirty-third and Last Degree: Masonry or Politics?, Albert Pike was responsible for the tremendous expansion of the Scottish Rite because of his comprehension of occult law. After his death, Christian fundamentalist Masons, repudiated his "esoterism" and sought to discredit his teachings. This discourse also brings up the interesting question of whether the Sovereign Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite should hold the office for life and what his qualifications should be. Written 1907, it addresses the same crisis that is facing Freemasonry today. Are we progressing? And in which direction? We are facing a crisis. Increase of numbers in the Order; ambition for active, life office; the building of a great Temple that shall cost nearly a million of dollars, and involve the Order hopelessly in debt for generations to come, more likely means ruin. In the meantime the real spirit, aims and ideals of Masonry are being lost in the rubbish or dying for lack of support and appreciation. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592081, $13.00

BUCK, J.D., Study of Man and the Way to Health (1889), Contents: Forward; Preface; The Criterion of Truth; Matter and Force; The Phenomenal World; Philosophy and Science; Life; Polarity; Living Forms; Planes of Life; Human Life; The Nervous System; Consciousness; Health and Disease; Sanity and Insanity; Involution and Evolution of Man; The Higher Self; The Outposts of Science; The New Psychology. 260 pages, ISBN 1564594211, $19.00

BULWER, E.L. & BROUGHAM, LORD, Fallen Star or the History of a False Religion and a Dissertation on the Origin of Evil, The author has shown how easily religion's votaries were ensnared, deceived, and mentally bound in a labyrinth of falsehood and error. The history of the origin of one religion will, with slight alterations, serve to describe them all. Their claim to credence rests on the exhibition of miracles which are a violation of the laws of nature. If religions were founded on the demonstrated truths of science, there would be no mystery, no supernaturalism, no miracles, no skepticism, no false religion. We would have only verified truths and demonstrated facts for the basis of our belief. 150 pages, ISBN 1564596850, $15.00

BURT, CALVIN C., Egyptian Masonic History of the Original and Unabridged Ancient and Ninety-six (96°) Rite of Memphis, This book was written for the purpose of showing what the Egyptian Masonic Rite of Memphis really is; as some of the Craft have not had the advantages of Masonic libraries, and have been made to believe that it is an innovation on the other Rites or Systems.... The Masonic order of Memphis is... the sole depository of high masonic science, the true primitive rite, the supreme rite, that which has come down to us without any alteration.... In fine, the Rite of Memphis is the true masonic tree, and all other systems, whatever they may be, are only detached branches of this institution, rendered respectable by its vast antiquity. This book is THE ONLY HISTORICAL WORK IN PRINT COVERING THE EVOLUTION OF THE RITE OF MEMPHIS IN THE UNITED STATES by one of its original members and leaders. It includes the complete texts of documents not obtainable elsewhere and also fascinating extracts from numerous rituals of the Rite of Memphis (including the Rose Croix) before it was abbreviated by Harry J. Seymour and/or John Yarker. Also included are the complete texts of the 43° Adept Installer, 44° Grand Consecrator, and 45° Grand Eulogist rituals. 354 pages, ISBN 156459341X, $22.00

CARPENTER, EDWARD, Towards Democracy (1912), Having been asked questions about Towards Democracy, I will try to shape a few thoughts. I gave up my lecturing for open air life and manual work on a farm. In the garden, fields and woods that spring and summer and on through winter, by day and night, sunlight or rain, frost or snow and all sorts of dull weather, I wrote Towards Democracy. There is a region of consciousness removed beyond what we usually call mortality, into which we humans can yet pass, I practically do not doubt; but granting that this is a fact, its explanation still remains for investigation. Carpenter himself, loosely compares this work to Leaves of Grass. 528 pages, ISBN 0766107752, $28.00

CLAUDY, CARL H., Foreign Countries: An Aid in Looking to the East (1925), Masonry follows the ancient manner of teaching. Her symbols are the instructions she gives; and the lectures are but often partial and insufficient one-sided endeavors to interpret those symbols. He who would become an accomplished Mason must not be content merely to hear or even to understand the lectures, but must, aided by them, and they having as it were marked out the way for him, study, interpret, and develop the symbols for himself—Albert Pike. 156 pages, ISBN 0766107264, $15.00

COCKREN, A., Alchemy Rediscovered and Restored, The object of this book is to place before the reader in language as simple as possible the story of alchemy. Because the literature on this science has ever been an enigma to both the scientific and the lay mind, it is the earnest desire of the author to present it stripped of its symbolism, and to give some indication of its processes, its achievements, and its possibilities. He wishes to show that this science is the Law operating behind all Manifestation in Man; Man that is in his entirety, physical, mental, and spiritual, and to demonstrate how it is bound up in the further evolution and unfolding of the race, for without this understanding the vision of Man made perfect is impossible. This is an excellent primer for anyone interested in alchemy. 154 pages, ISBN 1564591484, $15.00

COHOUGHLIN-BURROUGHS, CHARLES E., Bristol Masonic Ritual: The Oldest and Most Unique Craft Ritual Used in England, Bristol Masonry is unlike anything seen elsewhere in England. In the first degree alone one witnesses unusual ceremonies and hears statements which will surprise even the well-read Mason. Have you ever heard "the Nile, the Ganges, the Euphrates, [and the] Mississippi" mentioned in an Entered Apprentice degree? How about "the immeasurable wilds of the scattered Indian tribes across the mighty Atlantic...the wandering Arabs, roaming tartars, or far distant Chinese"? Have you ever seen the "circle of swords," the "cup of affliction" or the "writing test" given to an Entered Apprentice? It is all here, and much more. As one of the most unusual rituals in the English language, Masons travel from all over the world to witness these fascinating ceremonies. Boasting what is probably the oldest Craft working in England, Bristol ritual retains aspects which are similar to the unpublished Irish workings, but also resembles Continental Masonry in some regards. Official or no, most English and Scottish rituals are available through booksellers, but copies of the Bristol ritual difficult to come by, as the ritual has previously only been circulated in manuscript and typescript, and are frequently sold by used book dealers for as high as £60 per section. By this is meant that the ritual manuscript is divided into sections containing the parts of individual officers, few Brethren having a complete copy of the text. This book collates, for the first time, the entire ritual. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599841, $13.00

COMENIUS, JOHN AMOS, Labyrinth of the World and the Paradise of the Heart, What you will read, dear reader, is no fable, even though it may have the appearance of one. It describes real life, as you will perceive when you have gained insight into it. "Fare you well, my dear Christian, and may the leader of light, the Holy Spirit, reveal to you, better than I am able to do, the vanity of the world, as well as the true glory, consolation, and the joy of the elect and God-united hearts." John Amos Comenius. "Comenius's delightful allegory Labyrinth of the World may fitly take its place among the great dramatizations of the ever vital message of mysticism, or with such allegories as the English religious classic, Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress." "Comenius shows himself, in this work, a genuine mystic in the succession of Plotinus, Augustine, Meister Eckhart, Garard Groote, and Thomas a Kempis. The message of his work is a dramatized presentation of the eternal theme of all mysticism. The Kingdom of God is within you. 176 pages, ISBN 1564592936, $16.00

COMENIUS, JOHN AMOS, Orbis Pictus (1887), This important work is not only an educational classic of prime importance but it was also the first picture book for children illustrating profound moral truths necessary for a proper education. 236 pages, ISBN 0766108252, $18.00

COOPER-OAKLEY, ISABEL, Masonry and Medieval Mysticism: Traces of a Hidden Tradition (1900), In this book first published in 1900, Isabel Cooper Oakley has gathered together extensive source material in presenting this history of mysticism in Medieval Europe. The survey covers some eighteen hundred years, and shows with documented evidence a definite link between the seemingly divergent occult schools and brotherhoods that flourished, and that the source of their knowledge lay in Ancient India, the home of Brahma Vidya or esoteric science. Gradually over the years visiting seers and teachers brought this wisdom to Egypt, Persia and Greece, which was given expression in the great mystery schools and temples. A vast tapestry of the spiritual life is unfolded before us, the Gnostic sects who founded Christianity, the famous occult schools of Averroes and the Arabian mystics in Toledo, the Alchemists and Rosicrucians, and the Grail Legend, preserved in times of religious persecution by the troubadours whose allegorical songs were a feature of the royal courts, and the Knights Templars who designed and built the Gothic cathedrals. 192 pages, ISBN 1564596435, $16.00

COOPER-OAKLEY, ISABEL, Count of Saint-Germain, The life and activities of an important mystic and philosopher who influenced the 18th century. Overshadowed all is the figure of Christian Rosenkreutz and the work of the Rosicrucians, Alchemists and Masons during this period. 254 pages, ISBN 0766101010, $19.00

CORELLI, MARIE, Love,—and the Philosopher, The following story is of the simplest character, purposely so designed. The personages who figure in the tale are drawn absolutely from life. I have hopes that the Philosopher though selfish, may be liked, when he is known, for his unselfishness, and the Sentimentalist may waken a sister-sympathy among those many charming women, who though wishing to be gentle and just to their admirers, do not always know their own minds in affairs of love. Whether my heroine chose the right partner for life is for my readers to determine. I myself am not more sure about it then she was. 286 pages, ISBN 156459727X, $20.00

CORELLI, MARIE, Strange Visitation, More Corelli Fiction! 186 pages, ISBN 1564597830, $16.00

DEHOYOS, ART, Rituals of the Masonic Grand Lodge of the Sun (Bayreuth, Germany), Translated by the author, this is the only English-language translation available of the three Craft degrees of the extinct Masonic Grand Lodge "zur Sonne" (Bayreuth, Germany) which was closed down by the Nazis. This beautiful Masonic Ritual, written by Grand Master Bluntschli in 1874, gives the most clear meaning and spiritual unfoldment of any "Blue Lodge Degrees" that we have ever read. The workings differ markedly from English and American varieties. Sublime. (formerly, THE BLUNTSCHLI RITUALS). 112 pages, ISBN 1564592693, $13.00

DEHOYOS, ART, Cloud of Prejudice: A Study in Anti-Masonry, Freemasonry has historically suffered from unfounded fanatical religious attacks. Why? Because Freemasonry transcends all religions by being universal in its approach to God. This ignites the pettiness of narrow-minded religious zealots who stoop to making outlandish accusations against Freemasonry based upon their own biased and often deliberate misinterpretations of Masonic rituals and publications. This study focuses on the anti-Masonic message of Pastor Ron Carlson, President of "Christian Ministries International" (Eden Prairie, Minnesota), who markets his anti-Masonic sermon on an audio cassette entitled "Freemasonry and the Masonic Lodge." The global distribution of Carlson's message has made him one of the most popular speaking "authorities" on the alleged dangers of Freemasonry, and his arguments are being accepted and repeated by unwitting ministers world-wide. Carlson boasts that his sermons have led 5,000 Masons out of the Craft. According to Pastor Carlson (who claims to have spent eighteen months engaged in "full time" investigation) Freemasonry is an amalgam of Luciferianism, Nature Worship, Occultism, Paganism, Pantheism, Phallic Worship, and Universalism. In his sermon

Carlson claims to expose the dark secrets of the Fraternity by exclusive reference to the writings of Masonic "authorities." Relying chiefly on Albert Pike's Morals and Dogma, Carlson repeatedly "quotes" passages which, in the Pastor's view, prove that Masonry "is not compatible with Christianity [but] rather, [that] it is anti-Christian...." In this study, Brother deHoyos, 32nd examines every allegation made in Carlson's sermon and reveals the weaknesses and fallacies of the Pastor's arguments. Carlson's misrepresentations and misquotations are discovered by verbatim comparisons of the authentic texts which he allegedly employed, while the discovery of his dependence on anti-Masonic literature and even forgeries exposes a prejudice void of intellectual integrity. Carlson's weak arguments are laid bare to reveal an ignorance of the truth while claiming to lead followers to salvation. There is no greater persecution than that of religious tyranny. Blind religious zeal attempts to discredit the truth to support its dark sectarian lies. This book is highly recommended for anyone interested in discovering the fallacies of anti-Masonry. 132 pages, ISBN 1564592871, $14.00

FARADAY, MICHAEL, Jesus Christ: A Fiction Founded Upon the Life of Apollonius of Tyana (1883), Because in this age, the so-called Christian religion claims to have the supreme jurisdiction over the minds of mortals in all things pertaining to spiritual truth, I have invited the spirits who lived prior to, and after the advent of the Christian religion, to unravel the mystery which surrounds its origin. Many of their statements were new to me and will be new to the world. That they are truthful I have no doubt although some of them may have been somewhat modified by translation. I have given them as they were given to me and hope they may aid minds in earth life to form a correct opinion as to the value of the religion which has supplanted ancient Greek & Roman paganism in the home of its nativity. 214 pages, ISBN 0766108333, $17.00

FARR, FLORENCE, Egyptian Magic, The study of Magic, which has now fallen into disrepute was, among the Egyptians, regarded with a veneration hardly accorded to the highest Philosophy in modern times. To the Ancient Egyptians the most eminent man was he who had by hard training gained supremacy over the Elements, from which his own body and the Manifested World were alike formed; one whose Will had risen Phoenix-like from the ashes of his desires; one whose Intuition, cleansed from the stains of material illusion, was a clear mirror in which he could perceive the Past, the Present and the Future." Contents: The Book of Songs Powerful Against the Inhabitants of the Waters; Legend of Ra and Isis; Gnostic Magic of Egypt; Extracts from the Gnostic Papyrus; The Book of the Grand Words of Each Mystery. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593223, $13.00

FIRTH, FLORENCE, The Golden Verses of Pythagoras, And Other Pythagorean Fragments. "In this small volume an attempt has been made to gather together the best and most reliable of the sets of Ethical Verses attributed to the Pythagoreans." "Sorely is needed in life the strong pure teaching of the elder days, when learning was held to be richer than wealth, and simplicity finer than lavishness. None will truly profit by the book who merely reads it through; a sentence should be taken as a thought to 'sleep on,' or as a note to which the day's work should be attuned, and, deeply meditated upon, should lead to the riches hidden beneath its words. Such use of the book will make it what it should be—a sign-post pointing the hidden way to wisdom, which is a treasure concealed." Contents: Golden Verses of Pythagoras, with Notes from the Commentaries of Hierocles; Golden Sentences of Democrates; Pythagorean Sentences of Demophilus; Similitudes of Demophilus, or the Remedy of Life; Pythagorean Ethical Sentences from Stobæus; Select Sentences of Sextus, the Pythagorean; Pythagorean Sentences from the Protreptics of Iamblichus; Symbols of Pythagoras, with the Explanations of Iamblichus. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592553, $13.00

FLAMMEL, NICHOLAS, Hieroglyphical Figures: Concerning both the Theory and Practice of the Philosophers Stone (1624), Which He Caused to be Painted Upon an Arch in St. Innocents Church Yard in Paris. Only 100 copies of this elusive book were ever printed until now! Introduction by W.W. Westcott. Flammel was certainly one of the most captivating figures in alchemy. Because he mastered the art of alchemy, his vast wealth and charities surpassed anything known in his time. Contained in this very rare book is the symbolism and allusions to the inner meanings contained within the powerful symbols that yielded their ancient secrets to him. Many alchemists insist that this is one of the most important alchemical works ever written. Long out-of-print, it's reprinting will satisfy the yearning for those seeking the Philosopher's Stone. (Due to the age and scarcity of this rare book, some of the pages are light although the text is readable. 112 pages, ISBN 1564595129, $13.00

FRANCKEN, HENRY ANDREW, Francken Manuscript 1783, This is a complete typescript of the rituals of all twenty-five degrees of Etienne (Stephen) Morin's Masonic Rite which became the foundation of the Ancient and Accepted (Scottish) Rite. Soon after the development of 'Ecosais' Masonry in France, Morin was appointed 'Grand Inspector in all parts of the New World' by the Council of the Grand and Sovereign Lodge of St. Jean de Jerusalem in either Bordeaux or Paris. Morin, who had access to many high grade rituals, then apparently created a set of Masonic regulations called the 'Constitutions of 1762' to assist him in establishing High-Grade Masonry in the New World; he also organized these 'haut grades' into a Masonic rite. Armed with his patent, Morin traveled to Kingston, Jamaica, and between 1762 and 1767 conferred his rite upon H.A. Francken, whom he also appointed Deputy Inspector-General in 1769. Francken wrote out the rituals in at least three manuscripts—the most complete set being the 1783 manuscript. In 1767 Francken authorized a 'Lodge of Perfection' in Albany, New York, and the seeds of Scottish Rite Masonry were planted on the East Coast. By 1800 some fifty men had been appointed Deputy Inspectors, and several resolved to establish a governing body of the Rite. A document, known as the 'Constitutions of 1786' authorized an increase from Morin's 25-degree system to one of 33 degrees. On May 31, 1801, the first Supreme Council, 33°, of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite was organized in Charleston, South Carolina, which survives today as the Supreme Council, 33°, (Mother Council of the World) AIAIS/R, Southern Masonic Jurisdiction, USA. This is a complete copy of Francken's best manuscript, and is the single most important document relating to the Ancient and Accepted (Scottish) Rite, because it the lineal predecessor of the Rite. The rituals of this manuscript represent their authentic form at the birth of Scottish Rite, before they were modified by Carson, Gourgas, Yates, Pike, etc. To whatever extent the rituals may have changed in any jurisdiction, all owe their existence to the rituals of this magnificent document. CONTENTS: The 7 classes of antient and Modern Masonry; Laws and regulations for a Lodge of Perfection; Statutes and Regulations for a Lodge of Perfection; Further Instructions for a Lodge of Perfection; 4°, Secret Master; 5°, Perfect Master; 6°, Intimate Secretary by Curiosity; 7°, Provost and Judge; 8°, Intendant of the Buildings; 9°, Master Elected of Nine; 10°, Illustrious Elected of Fifteen; 11°, Sublime Knights Elected; 12°, Grand Master Architect; 13°, Knights of the Royal Secret; 14°, Perfection; 15°, Knights of the East; 16°, Princes of Jerusalem; 17°, Knights of East and West; 18°, Knights of White Eagle

THE GOLDEN WHEEL

or Pelican; 19°, Grand Pontif; 20°, Sovereign Prince of Masonry or Master ad Vitam; 21°, Prussian Knight or Noachite; 22°, Knights of the Royal Ax; 23°, Knights of the Sun; 24°, Knights of Kadoch & the Ne plus ultra of Masonry; 25°, The Royal Secret. Form of submission to be signed by all those who are initiated. This document is a reproduction of an invaluable Masonic manuscript—not an exposé—and is the single most important source of information on the early Scottish Rite rituals in existence. 288 pages, ISBN 1564593657, $20.00

HAMBLÉN, EMILY S., On the Minor Prophecies of William Blake, Those students who have found only frustration in this giant mystic, will here find set forth the structural plan conceived to underlie the poet's cosmic conceptions, and to tie them into an organic whole. For this psychological key, the author has gone back for her sources to the ancient Scriptures, including the Kabbala, to the occult writings of Nietzsche, Thoreau, Boehme and Whitman and early Oriental philosophers. The key to the mystery of Blake is this: that he was a true seer and spokesman because he had come to an understanding of the processes of his own soul. Partial Contents: Symbolism in the songs; Great Crisis; Return to Illumination; Psychology of Symbol; Structural Plan of the Ancient Wisdom; Tiriël; Song of Liberty; America; Europe; Books of Urizen, Los, Ahania; Everlasting Gospel. 408 pages, ISBN 1564595439, $24.00

HAMILTON-JONES, J. W., Bacstrom's Alchemical Anthology, The following extracts selected from numerous authors, contain a full elucidation of the hidden art on which so many thousand volumes have been written. "Certain it is their knowledge in some particulars went far beyond what the moderns, with all their advantages, can pretend to lay claim to. Their prime and grand arcanum was the Philosophers' stone—a secret which they concealed with much care, and which yet they were anxious should be discovered by a few, from their writings." A few of

HARTMANN, FRANZ, Life and the Doctrines of Philippus Theophrastus Bombast of Hohenheim Known as Paracelsus, Extracted from His Rare and Extensive Works and from some Unpublished Manuscripts; "Of those who have taught the secret doctrine's scientific aspect, there have been none more profound than Hermes Trismegistus, Pythagoras, and Paracelsus." "Paracelsus threw pearls before the swine, and was scoffed at by the ignorant, his reputation was torn by the dogs of envy and hate, and he was treacherously killed by his enemies. But although his physical body returned to the elements out of which it was formed, his genius still lives, and as the eyes of the world become better opened to an understanding of spiritual truths, he appears like a sun on the mental horizon, whose light is destined to illuminate the world of mind and to penetrate deep into the hearts of the coming generation, to warm the soil out of which the science of the coming century will grow." Contents: The Life of Paracelsus; Explanations of Terms Used by Paracelsus; Cosmology; Anthropology, The Generation of Man; Pneumatology; Magic and Sorcery; Medicine; Alchemy and Astrology; Philosophy and Theosophy. 382 pages, ISBN 1564591859, $23.00

"The only object of the following pages is to aid in dispelling the mists which for many centuries have been gathering around the person of the supposed founder of Christianity, and which have prevented mankind from obtaining a clear view of the true Redeemer, who is not to be found in history nor in external forms, but who can only be found within the interior temple of the soul by him in whom his presence becomes manifest." Contents: True History of Christ (An Allegory); Jehovah; Nazareth; Egypt; The Mysterious Brotherhood; The Higher Degrees; The Wisdom Religion; The Temptation; The Sermon Upon the Mount; Doctrines of the Christ Spirit; Herodias; Jerusalem; The Great Renunciation; The Temple; The Hero; the Final

Initiation; The Church. 206 pages, ISBN 1564591840, $17.00

HARTMANN, FRANZ, Magic, White and Black, The Science of Finite and Infinite Life Containing Practical Hints for Students of Occultism. "Magic means that divine art of exercise of spiritual power by which the awakened spirit in man may control the living elements." It was not my object, in composing this book to write merely a code of ethics,....but to assist the student in studying the elements of which his own soul is composed, and to learn to know his own psychical organism." "In this Spirit of God in man rest all of man's divine and magical powers. To call the attention of the readers to the divine powers existing within themselves, thus to lead them to a knowledge of their own higher nature, to aid them in entering a higher life and finally to state what the greatest mystics of the East and West have taught in regard to the nature and the development of these powers, has been the aim of the Author. 292 pages, ISBN 1564591328, $20.00

HARTMANN, FRANZ, Talking Image of Urur, The following tale has a certain historical aspect. The events described therein or their equivalents have actually taken place, and the characters of the story are, so to say, composite photographs of living people. This story was written with the sole object of showing to what absurdities a merely intellectual research after spiritual truths will lead; or to express it in other words, that it is foolish to attempt a scientific investigation of the nature of the Holy Ghost, if one has not the spirit of truth and holiness within one's own self. The story represents the vain struggles of a soul for light, and how at last the truth came to it without any struggle. Thus in attempting to show the difference between true spirituality and sophistry, or between true religion and what is most properly rejected as mysticism, spiritism and metaphysical speculation, I believe that I am rendering a service to the cause of the Truth. 316 pages, ISBN 1564591689, $21.00

HARTMANN, FRANZ, In the Pronaos of the Temple of Wisdom, Containing the history of the true and the false Rosicrucians with an introduction into the mysteries of the hermetic philosophy and an appendix containing the principles of the yoga-philosophy of the Rosicrucians and alchemists. "For those who earnestly wish to enter the path and to follow the Light, I have added some of the most precious gems, taken from the books of the sages; whose meaning will be incomprehensible to the would-be wise; while those who are unsophisticated will find therein a great deal of wisdom." Contents: Hermetic Philosophy; Medieval Philosophers, Magic; Among the Adepts; The Rosicrucian Orders, History; Pseudo Rosicrucians, Imposters and Fools; Principles of the Yoga-Philosophy; In the Pronaos of the Temple of the True Cross; Alchemy. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592197, $13.00

HARTMANN, FRANZ, Adventure Among the Rosicrucians, Alas! Has all I have seen been nothing else than a dream? HILLARD, KATHARINE, Abridgment of H.P. Blavatsky's Secret Doctrine, A Synthesis of Science, Religion & Philosophy. Dedicated to HPB, Teacher & Friend. "The Editor of this abridgement has long felt the need of a shorter, simpler version of the Secret Doctrine. The wealth of material gave rise to endless digressions wherein the thread of the subject is often lost for whole chapters. Fifteen years' study has enabled the Editor to trace the thread of the argument far more clearly than at first, and have cut out obsolete science. All Sanskrit terms have been put into English, and the triune constitution of man (body, soul & spirit) adopted wherever possible instead of the more complicated seven-fold division. There has been nothing added to the text, except a few notes & 1 or 2 diagrams, all marked "Ed." Part 1 Cosmogogenesis; Part 2 Anthropogenesis. 586 pages, ISBN 1564596540, $30.00

JOHNSTON, E.R., Masonry Defined (Vol. 1), Volume one of a two volume set. (This description is for all volumes.) A Liberal Masonic Education that Every Mason Should Have. Compiled from the Writings of Albert G. Mackey and Many Other Eminent Authorities. Revised and Enlarged. This is a rare book and highly sought after by the serious Masonic student. "The average Mason, after taking his degrees in Masonry, immediately asks himself what it all means. Few Masons have, or will take, the time to make an exhaustive study of Masonry. It is to this class of busy Masons this work will make an especial appeal. We have culled from the writings of many eminent Masonic scholars the 'meat' of the subject, and present it in such form that the busy Mason can get what he wants without the necessity of extensive reading or study. No Mason can acquire in a few days or months, or even years, all there is in Masonry. Everything in Masonry has a beautiful meaning if rightly understood, and everything done in the ritual work is meant to teach a distinct moral lesson. Masonry would die out in five years if it had to depend upon about 85% of the membership. It is the small minority—the really interested Masons—who have kept and are keeping the order alive today. 476 pages, ISBN 0766126234, $26.00

KINGSLAND, WILLIAM, Gnosis or Ancient Wisdom in the Christian Scriptures or the Wisdom in a Mystery, This book is the last work of William Kingsland and was completed shortly before his death. "In this work Kingsland shows how the fundamental teachings given to the world at the beginning of the Christian era were derived from the Gnosis or Ancient Wisdom, but in time have become so perverted that the modern interpretation of Christianity represents merely their debased survival." Contents: Religion and Religions; The Bible; The Ancient Wisdom or Gnosis; The Genesis Narrative; The New Testament Scriptures, The Gospels; The New Testament Scriptures, Paul's Epistles; Practical Religion; Bibliography. 224 pages, ISBN 1564591697, $17.00

KINGSLAND, WILLIAM, Physics of the Secret Doctrine, Occult Physics are so closely connected with Metaphysics that it is almost impossible to deal with the one without the other. While, therefore, we shall be compelled to present somewhat of the Metaphysical basis upon which the whole of the teachings rest, we shall at the same time endeavor to subordinate this as much as possible to what is more generally understood as Physics. All Physics, however, all physical inquiry when pushed far enough, must necessarily end in a metaphysical region. Matter can have no ultimate explanation in and by itself, or without its correlative, Mind or Consciousness. Contents: Fundamental Principles; Matter and Motion; Primordial Substance; The Substantial Nature of Force; The Dawn of Evolution; The Cosmic Elements; The Evolution of Humanity & Evolution of the Elements; Physical Plane Matter; The Sun and Solar System; Fohat, Electricity, and Correlated Forces. 162 pages, ISBN 1564592537, $15.00

KINGSLAND, WILLIAM, Christos: The Religion of the Future, What I have here endeavored to do, merely in outline, is to show that certain modern beliefs, dogmas, and creeds, which have been carried over and have survived from a far less enlightened age or period, can no longer be valid in the light of our modern knowledge. But, further than that, I shall hope to indicate that even in the remotest past there was already a deeper knowledge, a real Gnosis which we are in fact only now beginning to recover. It is that ancient Gnosis which must be the Religion of the Future; for, as I shall hope to show to some extent, all our scientific discoveries and our modern philosophical thinking tends to confirmation and restatement of it." Contents: Religions and Religion; The Concept of a Personal God; Superstition and Supernaturalism; A Survey of the Past; God of Christendom; Astronomy; Constitution of Matter; Age of the Earth; Evolution of Man; Spiritual Man; Fall of Man; The Ancient Gnosis. 134 pages, ISBN 1564592979, $14.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Lost Light: An Interpretation of Ancient Scriptures, With keys drawn from ancient Egypt's wisdom it (The Lost Light) pierces through the outer veil of Bible literalism and alleged history and reconstructs the long-lost structure of sublime arcane meaning. He establishes the epochal fact that the Christian religion can no longer be considered a product of Judea in the first century A.D., but is of remote Egyptian origin. "The evidence amassed demonstrates beyond cavil that the Bible is a reprint of old Egyptian texts." Partial Contents: Wisdom Hidden in a Mystery; Loosing the Seven Seals; The Descent to Avernus; Colonists from Heaven; The Mummy in Amenta; Dismemberment and Disfigurement; Earth, Water, Air, Fire; Baptism at the Crossing; The Ark and the Deluge; The Lake of Equipoise; Suns of Intellect; At the East of Heaven. 620 pages, ISBN 1564591778, $32.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Sex As Symbol: The Ancient Light in Modern Psychology, The prominence of phallic symbols in high ancient religious systems has never before been understood, much less sanely expounded and vindicated as something transcending gross sensualism. It is not too much to assert that in this work sex is given its truly lofty place and rated at its exalted character for the first time in religious literature. For not only is sex revealed as the truest key-symbol of the supreme significance of human life itself, but it is brilliantly analyzed as to its place and function in the individual human's program of evolution, his sanity, balance, mental health and happiness. If it is possible for one book to lift sex from low and base regard to a veritable pinnacle of purity and nobility in the light of its true character, this book will do it. Partial Contents: Bright Lexicon of Deity; Drama Bears Misshapen Offspring; And God Spake Unto Moses; The God's Distribute Divinity; Lost Data of Anthropology; Two Subterranean Grottoes; In Pluto's Dark Realm; The Two Mothers of the Christ; Immanuel's Lamp; Child is Father of the Man; Language of Lingham and Yoni; Phallicism Transfigured: Love and Hate; Love Looks Beyond Death; Romance in the Trysting-Tent; Phoenix Lives Again; Oil of Gladness; My Cup Runneth Over. 346 pages, ISBN 1564591794, $22.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Shadow of the Third Century: A Revaluation of Christianity, To all those who know that truth alone will free us from the tyranny of indoctrinated pious obsessions this volume is sincerely dedicated. "This book has been written to tell the truth about a religion that has produced such obviously irrational behavior. The story needs telling all the more for the reason that it has never been told in its bald straight factual truth, and because heaven and earth have been called upon to prevent its being known ever since the third century. It is in the main truth that has been suppressed, buried, its evidences destroyed, its documents changed, with a story far other than the true one substituted in its place. The position taken is in no sense opposed to religion per se; it only holds that religion divorced from philosophy is inadequate to man's highest needs and will prove a treacherous and eventually dangerous guide in life." Partial Contents: Primeval Christianity; The Shadow of the Sphinx; When Vision Failed; The Veiled Light; Wisdom in a Mystery; Milk for Babes; Hatred of Philosophy; From Religion to Theosophy; To Faith and Knowledge; The Great Ebb-Tide; Crumbs From the Table of the Gods; Wisdom is Mute; The Myth-Ghosts Walk Abroad; Paul Knows Not Jesus; Great Pan is Dead; The Real Ghost of History; Dementia in Excelsis; Prayer and Healing. 536 pages, ISBN 1564591786, $29.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Theosophy: A Modern Revival of Ancient Wisdom, This work deals with the great renaissance of ancient Oriental Esotericism in the Western world in modern times. This book is an attempt to present a unified picture of the Theosophic movement in its larger aspects. Contents: Theosophy, An Ancient Tradition; The American Background of Theosophy; Helena P. Blavatsky: Her Life and Psychic Career; From Spiritualism to Theosophy; Isis Unveiled; The Mahatmas and Their Letters; Storm, Wreck, and Rebuilding; The Secret Doctrine; Evolution, Rebirth, and Karma; Esoteric Wisdom and Physical Science; Theosophy in Ethical Practice; Later Theosophical History; Some Facts and Figures; Bibliography. 390 pages, ISBN 1564591751, $23.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Who is this King of Glory?, A Critical Study of the Christos-Messiah Tradition. "This book is the narrative of what happened back in the third century of Christian history, when the Christian movement passed over from the hands of the Philosophers of the Greek world into those of the unphilosophical and worldly minded Romans and suffered the total extinction of its original light of esoteric spiritual meaning, the historical result of which was the sixteen centuries of the Dark Ages. This book is the natural companion and complement of The Lost Light." Contents: Faith Weds Folly; Myth Truer than History; Truth Wears A Mask; Wisdom Haunts the Countryside; Fancy's Fabric Turns into History; Canonized Romanticism; Throes of a Bad Conscience; Sublime Myth Makes Grotesque History; Faith's Odd Wonderland; Cosmic Majesty with Local Items; Staggering Truth on Egypt's Walls; The Shout of Paul's Silence; Robbing Paul to Pay Peter; A Queen Dethroned; A Star—And Luna; An Epochal Discovery; Truth Exorcises Demonic Obsessions; The Anointing of Man; Lost Cycles of the Sun; Twelve Lamps of deity; Orion and His Dog; Our Day-Star Rises. 508 pages, ISBN 156459176X, $28.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, India's True Voice, A Critique of Oriental Philosophy. "The world is dangerously divided between the two great sectors of East and West. At the moment of writing the schism is marked by a differentiation in the philosophies of economics, government, politics and other elements. It therefore becomes an enterprise charged with the mightiest import for world life for ages in the future, that the West should acquaint itself familiarly with the message of India's True Voice." Contents: This Evil World; The Imprisoned Splendor; Heaven Woos Earth; Wedding in the Temple; The Garden of the World; The Pattern in the Mount; Maya and Lila; Veil of the Absolute; Mother of Reality; Lens of the Mind; Real and the Actual; Intellectual Love of God; Epiphany of Nature; Eternal in the Flux; First That Which is Natural; On the Brink of the Void; Truancy From Life's School; Panorama of Reality; Flower of the Intellect; Pilgrim in the Infinite; Image of Supermind; Epithalamium. 318 pages, ISBN 1564592391, $21.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Red Sea is Your Blood, A lifetime devoted unremittently to the study of the ancient backgrounds of our modern Western religion has established beyond all possibility of error the conviction that the great Scriptures of antiquity on which our Occidental faiths have been built up have had a remote Egyptian origin. The present treatise is an attempt to justify the truth of this statement by the revelation of the recondite significance covertly adumbrated in one of the most prominent of such archaic symbols found in the Bibles of both Judaism and Christianity.—the Red Sea. Studied through the lens of a larger vision and a deeper understanding, it should, and eventually will be seen, to release the power of a new and far more vital message for the two religions that have harbored, all unsuspectingly, the hidden dynamic of this archaic construction of semantic genius. This revelation of the cryptic significance of the Red Sea in its Bible usage could inaugurate another, and the most thoroughgoing, reformation in Judaism and Christianity since the ancient days of their origin. It could engender a New Enlightenment in the life of religion and spiritual culture not only in the West, but in the world at large. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593282, $13.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Prayer and Healing, Behind the universe with its multitude of suns and worlds and underlying all the cosmic activities, guiding the evolution of life itself, is a Power, Force or Mind which is recognized as First Cause. This Supreme Being is spoken of as God. Yet theology teaches that if one will pray, entreat, solicit or beg to this God vigorously enough and with sufficient faith, He may be persuaded to grant one's requests, irrespective of their merits. Dr. Kuhn makes it clear that the assumption that prayers are heard and answered by a Cosmic Divine Power is entirely groundless and should be abandoned for a saner hypothesis. He provides us a clue to such hypothesis. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593274, $13.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Easter: The Birthday of the Gods, For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. Easter celebrates an event that is yet to be, not an event of the past. This is the best book we have discovered that reveals the mystical significance of Easter and how this process holds special meaning for you. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593673, $13.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Root of all Religion, This is an important work by one of the most gifted minds ever to put mystical precepts to the pen. Here, Kuhn explores the true nature of the one religion and why it is important to understand its natural and intended effects on humanity and why the institutions that endeavor to corrupt its message will inevitably fail. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593762, $13.00

KUHN, ALVIN BOYD, Esoteric Structure of the Alphabet, God built the universe on number—Pythagoras. God built the universe on the letters of the alphabet.—The Zohar. This book shows how the alphabet contains a hidden mystical language. Some underlining in text. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593991, $13.00

LAW, WILLIAM, Extracts From the Writings of William Law, William Law was a kind and gentle soul who clearly perceived the mystic oneness of all existences. His writings should be read by any mystic. "What is a good Book? A good Religious Book is one full of such truths and Spiritual information will lead us to see and know who, and what and where we are; that God is our All, and that all is misery but a heart and life devoted to him. The best Book is undeniably that which will turn to us that inward one, which, with noon day clearness, shows us the strength of sin, the power of every evil temper, the secret workings of our hearts, the weakness of all our virtues; and to the Teacher, whose instructions consist in an inward birth of Divine Light and Goodness. 112 pages, ISBN 1564591212, $13.00

LEADBEATER, C.W., Christian Creed, Its Origin and Signification. "There are many students who have been, and indeed still are, earnest Christians; and though their faith has gradually broadened out into unorthodoxy, they have retained a strong affection for the forms and ceremonies of the religion into which they were born. It is a pleasure to them to hear the recitation of the ancient prayers and creeds. I have thought that it might be of interest to such students to have some slight account of the real meaning and origin of those very remarkable basic formulæ of the Church which are called the Creeds, so that when they hear them or join in their recital the ideas brought into their minds thereby may be the grander and nobler ones originally connected with them, rather than the misleading materialism of modern misapprehension."

Contents: Earlier Creeds; Their Origin; Descent into Matter; Exposition of the Creeds; Athanasian Creed. 182 pages, ISBN 1564592383, $16.00

LEADBEATER, C.W., Starlight: Seven Addresses Given for Love of the Star., It is that change in the hearts and souls of men which we who follow the Star are seeking to effect, first within ourselves, and then, so far as may be, in others also. A change is sorely needed; a change from self-seeking. This transformation means for the average man a prodigious effort, and naturally before he undertakes it he wants to know why he should make it, what will be gained by it, and what are his chances of success." Contents: The Wisdom of the Star; The Strength of the Star; The Freedom of the Star; The Peace of the Star; The Joy of the Star; The Lovingkindness of the Star; The Symbolism of the Star. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592448, $13.00

LYNNE, MARY, Galaxy of Scents: The Ancient Art of Perfume Making, Make your own mystical perfumes! The author, a cosmically illumined physician, made perfumes based upon the biblical formula mentioned in Exodus 30:34. There it tells exactly what plants to use and how much to use from each plant. This manuscript, originally published in the late 1960's, has been eagerly sought after in vain by alchemical students because it has never been published until now. The many perfumes this book describes, can be used for all kinds of medicinal, psychic, and every-day uses. The story of the author and her successes in bringing these ancient formulas to light is as fascinating as the ingredients to her perfumes. The author sold her perfumes only at cost even though she refused a substantial fortune to commercialize them through a prominent company. She was interviewed in magazines, on television, radio, and gave lectures. In 1969 she was selected as one of the "Two Thousand Women of Achievement." Also included in the book is the name and address of where you can purchase Dr. Lynne's perfumes! These perfumes work! Be one of the first to make your own perfumes and see what they can do for you! 308 pages, ISBN 1564594580, $20.00

LYTTON, SIR EDWARD BULWER, Disowned (1852), At the time this work was written I was deeply engaged in the study of metaphysics and ethics and out of that study grew the character of Algernon Mordaunt. He is represented as a type of the Heroism of Christian Philosophy - a union of love and knowledge placed in the midst of sorrow, and laboring on through the pilgrimage of life, strong in the fortitude that comes from belief in heaven. 226 pages, ISBN 0766107833, $18.00

LYTTON, SIR EDWARD BULWER, Caxtons: A Family Picture (1849), In this work, a greater part of the canvas has been devoted to the completion of a simple family picture. It has been my intention to imply the influences of home upon the conduct and career of youth. Whatever our wanderings, our happiness will always be found within a narrow compass, and amidst the objects more immediately within our reach. 270 pages, ISBN 0766107809, $19.00

LYTTON, SIR EDWARD BULWER, Last of the Barons (1843), In The Last of the Barons the aim has been to illustrate the actual history of the period; and to bring into fuller display than general history itself has done, the characters of the principal personages of the time - the motives by which they were probably actuated, the state of parties, the condition of the people, and the great social interests which were involved in what, regarded imperfectly, appear but the feuds of rival factions. 350 pages, ISBN 0766107973, $22.00

LYTTON, SIR EDWARD BULWER, Rienzi, The Last of the Tribunes (1848), I began this tale in Rome. Having had occasion to read the original authorities from which modern historians have drawn their accounts of the life of Rienzi, I was led to believe that a very remarkable man had been superficially judged, and a very important period crudely examined. I have adhered to to all the leading events of the public life of the Roman Tribune; and the reader will find in these pages a more full and detailed account of the rise and fall of Rienzi, than in any English work of which I am aware. 246 pages, ISBN 0766107981, $18.00

Containing an attempt to recover and reconstitute the lost origins of the myths and mysteries, types and symbols, religion and language, with Egypt for the mouthpiece and Africa as the birthplace. Vol. I, Egyptian origins in the British Isles; Egypt; Comparative vocabulary of English and Egyptian words; Hieroglyphics in Britain; Egyptian origins in words; Egyptian water-names; Egyptian names of personages; British symbolical customs and Egyptian naming; Egyptian deities in the British Isles; Egyptian place-names and the record of the stones; Type-names of the people. Vol. II; Comparative vocabulary of Hebrew and Egyptian words; Hebrew cruxes with Egyptian illustrations; Egyptian origins in the Hebrew scriptures, religion, language, and letters; The phenomenal origin of Jehovah-Elohim; Egyptian origin of the Exodus; Moses and Joshua, or the two Lion-Gods of Egypt; An Egyptian dynasty of Hebrew deities identified from the monuments; The Egyptian origin of the Jews traced from the monuments; Comparative vocabulary of Akkado-Assyrian and Egyptian words; Egyptian origins in the Akkado-Assyrian language and mythology; Comparative vocabulary of Maori and Egyptian words; African origins of the Maori; Roots in Africa beyond Egypt. Mr. Massey has collected together all the principal facts known about Egypt, with a view to trace the origin of mankind. Some portions of his theories are undoubtedly correct, especially those which go to prove that the Egyptians are the oldest known historical race, that they are an African people of a peculiar type, and by no means an Asiatic tribe filtered through the Isthmus of Suez. Evidence of their primitive development is to be found in their physical type. The significance of this work was not recognized in its own time over 100 years ago. This book emphasizes the African origins of mankind in Africa. This work could give new pride and awareness in the staggering perspective of the history of Black people. MAYER, FRANCIS, 47th Proposition of Euclid, Originally printed serially in the early 1920's by an Esoteric order, this magnificent work is the product of the Masonic Rosicrucian movement that permeated the early 20th century. Dr. Mayer 32°, IX°, was a Masonic historian and Rosicrucian adept who devoted many years in accumulating the material needed to write this in-depth analysis of the 47th Proposition of Euclid. This work includes an examination of Pythagorean numerology and that of the Platonist which ties the whole Proposition into the Tracing Board of the Grand Architect. The basic formula of the 3, 4, 5 is illustrated in the Heavens as well as being a simple formula of construction. This book is written for the Masonic and Rosicrucian student who desires to discover the Divine Truths inherent in this Great Problem. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599876, $13.00

MAYO, MARGARET, Our Fate: The Zodiac (1900), Geographical location gives us the different races of earth. A man is a white man, a black man, an Indian, a Mongolian, and so on, according as his forefathers found a dwelling place in this or that portion of the plant on which we live. Each and every human being in God's universe is constructed upon the same general plan. 154 pages, ISBN 0766106381, $15.00

MCINTYRE, J. LEWIS, Giordano Bruno, This volume attempts to do justice to a philosopher who has hardly received the consideration he deserves. He is recognized by the more liberal-minded among Italians as the greatest and most daring thinker their country has produced. He has been recognized as the prophet, if not as the actual founder, of modern philosophy, and as one of the earliest apostles of freedom of thought and of speech in modern times. Part I of the book covers the life of Bruno; Part II his philosophy. Sources of the Philosophy; Foundations of Knowledge; Infinite Universe—The Mirror of God; Nature and the Living Worlds; The Last and the Least Things: Atoms and Soul-Monads; Practical Philosophy of Bruno; Higher Life; Positive Religions and the Religion of Philosophy; Bruno in the History of Philosophy. 380 pages, ISBN 1564591417, $23.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Fragments of a Faith Forgotten, Some short sketches among the Gnostics, mainly of the first two centuries—a contribution to the study of Christian Origins based on the most recently discovered materials. "I have written so that the man of one language only may read from the first to the last page, without being forced to regret his ignorance of other tongues; for I believe that the subject is of profoundly human interest, and not one of merely academical importance...my main object has been to hand on what the earliest Christian philosophers and teachers wrote and thought. They seem to me to have written many beautiful things, and I, for my part, have learned through them to sense the work of the Great Master in a totally new light." Contents: Prolegomena; Some Rough Outlines of the Background of the Gnosis; General And Gnostic Christianity; The Gnosis According to Its Foes; Some Gnostic Fragments Recovered from the Polemical Writings of the Church Fathers; Some Traces of the Gnosis in the Uncanonical Acts; The Gnosis According to Its Friends; Bibliographies. 688 pages, ISBN 092280222X, $34.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Gnostic Crucifixion, The Vision of the Cross; Comments. 112 pages, ISBN 1564591298, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Gospels and the Gospel, This small volume is put forward with the very modest purpose of roughly chronicling a moment in the ever-changing fortunes of opinion occasioned by the persistent inroads of scientific research into the domain of theological traditions. The chronicling is neither that of a scientist, nor of a theologian, but of a friendly spectator, who, as a devoted lover of both Science and Religion, has no partisan interest to serve, and, as a believer in the blessings of that true tolerance which permits perfect liberty in all matters of opinion and belief, has no desire to dictate to others what their decision should be on any one of the many controversial points touched upon. Contents: A Glimpse at the History of the Evolution of Biblical Criticism; The "Word of God" and the "Lower Criticism"; The Nature of the Tradition of the Gospel Autographs; Autobiographical Traces in the Existing Documents; An Examination of the Earliest Outer Evidence; The Present Position of the Synoptical Problem; The Credibility of the Synoptists; The Johannine Problem; Summary of the Evidence from all Sources; The Life-Side of Christianity; The Gospel of the Living Christ. 220 pages, ISBN 0922802785, $17.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Hymn of Jesus, The marvellous and beautiful Hymn, which is the subject of this small volume, is found in what are without doubt the Leucian Acts of John. "This Hymn is no hymn, but a mystery-ritual, and perhaps the earliest Christian ritual of which we have any trace." This beautiful Hymn was supposed to have been sung by Jesus and His apostles before he was delivered to the Jews. 112 pages, ISBN 1564591581, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Mithriac Ritual, Preamble; The Ritual; Comments. 112 pages, ISBN 1564591174, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Pistis Sophia, A Gnostic Miscellany: Being for the most part extracts from the books of the Saviours, to which are added excerpts from a cognate literature. This is one of our most popular titles. It deserves a special place in your library. 394 pages, ISBN 0922802874, $24.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Quests Old and New, All the studies or sketches in this volume are illustrative of the quest of reality, the search for truth, or the restless striving of the human soul for the satisfaction of its needs, spiritual or philosophical, mystical or psychical. The subjects are gleaned from the past and present, from east and west; and all of them, each in their different ways, seem to the writer to be of deep interest and great importance, even though some are little known and may appear on first acquaintance somewhat strange. Contents: The Way of the Spirit in Ancient China; The Doctrine of the True Man in Ancient Chinese Mystical Philosophy; Spiritual Reality in Progressive Buddhism; The Ideal Life in Progressive Buddhism; Some Features of Buddhist Psychology; The Doctrine of Reincarnation Ethically Considered; Some Mystical Experiments on the Frontiers of Early Christendom; The Meaning of Gnosis in the Higher Forms of Hellenistic Religion; 'The Book of the Hidden Mysteries' by Hierotheos; The Rising Psychic Tide; Vaihinger's Philosophy of the 'As If'; Bergson's Intuitionism; Eucken's Activism. 346 pages, ISBN 0922802793, $22.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Upanishads (Volumes 1 & 2), To those who love the truth. "The Upanishads are ancient treatises, written in Sanskrit, containing the theosophy of the Vedas. They are often referred to as rahasya, the 'mystery' or 'secret,' as being formerly taught only to those who had gone through a special preliminary training and given proof of their fitness; they are also called shruti-shirah, or the 'head of revelation,' as being the most precious revelation handed down to the Aryan inhabitants of India. 112 pages, ISBN 0922802777, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Wedding Song of Wisdom, Contents: Translations from the Greek, Catholicized Syriac and the Later Armenian Version texts; Syrian Wedding Festivities, Song of Songs; Sacred Marriage in the Kabbalah; In the Writings of Philo Judæus; In the New Testament; Wisdom; Sacred Marriage in Christian Gnosticism; In the Trismegistic Gnosis; In the Chaldaean Oracles; In the Mithriac Mysteries; The Seven; The Choir of the Æons. 112 pages, ISBN 1564591557, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., World Mystery, And in this sacred inquiry let us start with ourselves, where we find a soul veiled or involved in a body, the home of innumerable 'lives,' veiled again in infinitesimal cells, each the body of a soul. And yet the soul of man is not composed of these 'lives'; the consciousness of man is not simply the product or sum of their consciousness, nor is his intelligence a compound of their intelligence. The Soul of man is one, a self-centered unit, indestructible, imperishable, self-motive; it dies not nor comes into being. Contents: The World-Soul; The Soul-Vestures; The Web of Destiny; True Self-Reliance. 206 pages, ISBN 0922802912, $17.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Mysteries of Mithra, Contents: Preamble; Origins and Development; diffusion in the Roman Empire; From the Texts; From the Monuments. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592499, $13.00

Vol. II The Starters; The Maintainers; The Enders; The Daimones; The Dogs; The Human Soul; The Vehicles of Man; Soul-Slavery; The Body; Nature; The Divine Spark; The Way of Return; The Armour of Sounding Light; The Way Above; Purification by Fire; The Angelic Powers of Purification; The Sacred Fires; The Fruit of the Fire Tree; The Pæan of the Soul; The Mystery-Cultus; The Mystic Marriage; Purifying Mysteries; Fire-Gnosis; Manifestations of the Gods; Theurgic Art; Royal Souls; Light-Spark; Unregenerate; Perfecting of the Body; Reincarnation; Darkness; Infernal Stairs; On Conduct; Gnosis of Piety. 180 pages, ISBN 1564592525, $16.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Concerning H.P. Blavatsky, Stray Thoughts on Theosophy. G.R.S. Mead's thoughts on H.P. Blavatsky. Mead was Blavatsky's personal secretary. Who else could be as qualified to give candid insights into the character of H.P.B. 112 pages, ISBN 1564592529, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Doctrine of the Subtle Body in Western Tradition, The notion that the physical body of man is as it were the exteriorization of an invisible subtle embodiment of the life of the mind is a very ancient belief. It is however, the prevailing habit of skeptical rationalism of the present day to dismiss summarily all such beliefs of antiquity as the baseless dreams of a prescientific age, and to dump them all indiscriminately into the midden of exploded superstitions. Not only do the acute intellects who upheld it in the past, dispose one to a favorable consideration of their plea; but I am persuaded that, the more deeply modern research penetrates into the more recondite regions of biology, psycho-physiology and psychology, the more readily will reason be inclined to welcome the notion as a fertile working hypothesis to co-ordinate a considerable number of the mental, vital and physical phenomena of human personality which otherwise remain on our hands as a confused and inexplicable conglomerate." Contents: The Spirit-Body; The Radiant Body; The Resurrection-Body; Epilogue. 114 pages, ISBN 1564593126, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Some Mystical Adventures, Contents: As Above, So Below; Heresy; The Elasticity of a Permanent Body; The Immensities; Heirs of the Ages; The Master; Initiation; A measure of What Wisdom Means to Me; Adumbrations; The Heroic Life; On the Track of Spirituality; Guesses at What to Expect; On the Art of Symbolism; The Self Taught; On the Way of the Path; Mystic Reality; The Deathless Race; Mystic Cosmogony; Some Elementary Speculations; On the Nature of the Quest. 308 pages, ISBN 1564593592, $20.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Hymn of the Robe of Glory, The original text of this beautiful Gnostic poem is in Syriac. The Hymn is poetic inspiration and deals with high mysteries and experiences. Contents: Preamble; The Hymn; Comments; The Pearl; Egypt; The Parable of the Prodigal; The Dual Sonship; The Robe of Glory; A Story of the Infancy; The Two Couriers; The Allegorical Geography; Notes. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593606, $13.00

Contents: Foreword; John the Baptizer and Christian Origins; From the John-Book of the Mandæans; The Story of the Breach with Judaism; Some Typical Extracts; The Slavonic Josephus' Account of the Baptists and Jesus; The Fourth Gospel Proem. This rare book gives the Gnostic's perspective of John from the inner or psychic story, the prophetic, and the imaginative history of ideas. 148 pages, ISBN 1564593754, $14.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Simon Magus: An Essay on the Founder of Simonianism Based on the Ancient Sources with a Re-evaluation of his Philosophy and Teachings, Scholars in Christendom have heard of Simon, the magician and how at Rome this sorcerer endeavored to fly by the aid of occult powers. Simon was an alias for Paul. Of all John's disciples, Simon was the favorite and after the death of his master, became the head of his school. Like other Gnostic teachers, his teachings begin with the Word, the Logos, which springs up from the Depths of the Unknown. Contents: Sources of Information; A Review of Authorities; The Theosophy of Simon. 112 pages, ISBN 1564594394, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Orpheus, Contents: Orphic Origins, Works, Theology, Theogony; Some Cosmogonical Details; Orphic Pantheon; On the Mysteries and Symbolism; Orphic Discipline and Psychology; The Doctrine of Rebirth; Bibliography. 204 pages, ISBN 1564596117, $17.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Vision of Aridaeus, The story of Aridaeus is the most detailed and graphic Vision of Hades preserved to us from classical antiquity. When a man dies he goes through the same experiences as those who have their consciousness increased in the Mysteries. Contents: Preamble; The Vision; Comments. 112 pages, ISBN 1564596141, $13.00

MEAD, G.R.S., Plotinus: The Theosophy of the Greeks (1895), Foreword; Then and Now; The System of Plotinus; Bibliography. 112 pages, ISBN 1564597431, $13.00

OWEN, ORVILLE W., Sir Francis Bacon's Cipher Story, Bacon, the mystery man of his time, wrote secret ciphers in all of the "Shakespeare" plays that acknowledge himself as the true author. If you ever doubted his authorship of the plays, read this book! 220 pages, ISBN 1564595919, $17.00

PAGE, GREGORY A., Diary of Judas Iscariot of the Gospel According to Judas (1912), This little book is not an apology for Judas Iscariot, but rather a restatement of the facts of his case from the point of view of the man Judas himself. He looked for a King, and behold a carpenter! He had dreamt of a Conqueror, and lo! a Man meek and lowly, who carefully avoided conflict with the Roman authorities. He expected one who would fulfill and amplify the Law, and behold a Man who openly disregarded its most stringent enactments. What wonder that many were outraged, others disappointed, and all men puzzled. I invite a thoughtful perusal of our Saviour's career, as viewed by an average Jew, to whom the spiritual side of His mission remained a sealed book, and who only sought in Him a temporal national deliverer. 246 pages, ISBN 0766100502, $18.00

PAINE, ALBERT W., New Philosophy (1884), The general sentiment of mankind, respecting the nature of spirit and their possibilities is a constant barrier against all investigations into the subject. Regarded as a mere myth, or vivifying principle alone, without form or essence and entirely unsubstantial, the soul is necessarily treated as something of which no positive action can be predicted. 174 pages, ISBN 0766105709, $16.00

PAINE, THOMAS, Rights of Man (1906), Being an entirely new and unabridged edition. Spiritual, religious and political freedoms are identical. Lose one and the others fall. "So long as men love liberty and earnest, straight-forward speech, so long will the words of Thomas Paine be read. 158 pages, ISBN 0766104419, $15.00

PERCIVAL, MILTON O., William Blake's Circle of Destiny, The Circle of Destiny is not a study in sources, but a work of interpretation. Its conclusions have been derived almost exclusively from the text of Blake's prophetic writings and from his paintings and drawings. Sources and analogues have been introduced only to support the interpretation and to show that Blake's myth is not the fantasy of a solitary dreamer, but the culmination of a long tradition. As comprehension grew it became increasingly apparent that Blake had pondered the basic philosophical problems more deeply than had been supposed. One might hope, therefore, that the myth was not, as it had seemed, chaotic and arbitrary, but a visionary presentation of a systematic body of thought." Contents: The Characters; The Setting; Definite and Bound; Contraries; Spectre and Emanation; Sex Symbolism; God and Man; Astrological Symbolism; The Fall; Alchemical Symbolism; The Return (Regeneration); Seven Eyes; Nature (the Vegetable Glass); Conclusion. 364 pages, ISBN 1564593150, $22.00

PHYLOTUS, Esoteric Masonry or the Storehouse Unlocked, The mention of the word Masonry, to the ordinary mind, suggests a body of men possessing certain secrets, which, to the uninitiated, are full of wonder. Should I here announce to the Masonic world that they, as an organization, have not in their possession THE secret for which all their rite and symbolism stands, they would be justly startled. But such is the fact. It is not the purpose of this work to review Masonry as to its origin, etc., but to interpret its hidden mystic meaning to those 'Who have made proficiency and been duly passed.' By some I shall perhaps be thought a madman, by some as too vague for clear understanding, and by some as undertaking the impossible. To all, I humbly ask a close and sincere study of these pages; and, I have reason to believe, that if you will pursue this course, you will discover the "LIGHT" which you have so fondly dreamed in your possession. 112 pages, ISBN 1564591905, $13.00

PHYLOTUS, Private Lessons: Interpreting the Inner Meaning of Masonry, Written by the Author of "That Man up North" and "The Seed of Abraham" this highly esoteric Masonic book is recommended reading for all Masons and occult students of the western mystery traditions. 112 pages, ISBN 1564598454, $13.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Book of the Words, Here's Pike at his best! Masonry is permeated with powerful symbolism—both verbal and pictorial—that arouses the mental, spiritual, and intellectual life of those who use them. This extremely interesting study, once limited to 150 copies, gives the correct spelling of, and analyzes all the "significant words" (pass words, etc.) in, the Scottish Rite from the 1st through 30th degrees inclusive. In addition to being an etymological dictionary Pike explains WHY any given word was chosen for a given degree thereby revealing THE HIDDEN SYMBOLISM OF EACH WORD. Illustrated and highly recommended! 178 pages, ISBN 1564591611, $16.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Indo-Aryan Deities and Worship as Contained in the Rig-Veda, Nothing has ever so much interested me, as this endeavour to penetrate into the adyta of the ancient Aryan thought, to discover what things, principles or phenomena our remote ancestors worshipped as Gods, what Indra, Varuna, Mitra, Aryaman, the Acvins, Vayu, Vishnu, Savitri and the others really were, in the conception of the composers of the Vedic hymns: "I found the most profound philosophic or metaphysical ideas, which those of every philosophy and religion have merely developed; and that, so far from being Barbarians or Savages, the old Aryan herdsmen and husbandmen, in the Indus country under the Himalayan Mountains, on the rivers of Bactria, and long before, on the Scythic Steppes where they originated, were men of singularly clear and acute intellects, profound thought and an infinite reverence of the beings whom they worshipped. 660 pages, ISBN 1564591832, $33.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Irano-Aryan Faith and Doctrine as Contained in the Zend-Avesta, He (Pike) knew that the Proto-Aryans and the Indo-Aryans were our physical, linguistic and philosophical ancestors; and he knew that the monotheistic Irano-Aryans were our religious, religio-philosophical and spiritual ancestors; and with his transcendent genius he places before our mental vision the habitat, migrations and early pre-historic history of these our ancestors. 712 pages, ISBN 1564591816, $35.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Lectures of the Arya, Pike knew that our language, philosophy, religions, are traceable to the Aryans, Indo and Irano, and he has presented to our view, through the Lectures, the emigration and last division of the race, their country, character and manners, their language, their deities, and legends. "Of the work, Pike himself said: 'Oldest literary monuments and records of human thought in the world and as the source and origin of the great philosophical doctrines of the world, but also, and far more, because they make known to us a sublime theosophy and purely philosophic faith believed in and understood by men of our own blood and lineage at a very remote period when they dwelt near the cradle of the race. 344 pages, ISBN 1564591824, $22.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Lectures on Masonic Symbolism and A Second Lecture on Symbolism or the Omkara and other Ineffable Words, This Lecture is intended to be...I think, my last labor of the kind in Masonry. I hope that I have succeeded in rescuing part of the Symbols of Freemasonry, in some degree, from the condition of insignificance into which they had fallen and in proving that there is something in the Royal Art to make it worthy of the attention, and study of men of intellect and learning; which they have not heretofore believed. The mass of Masons are little inclined to read works on Masonry. And I think it wiser, also, to place these works in a few hands, and let what truths they may contain be communicated orally to others by the few who read them. I have endeavoured to do that for our symbols, and am amply rewarded by what I have learned. This book is extremely scarce as there were only 100 copies ever printed. This is the first reprint ever of this essential, illuminating work, on Freemasonry. Highly recommended. 448 pages, ISBN 156459162X, $25.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Meaning of Masonry, Albert Pike found Freemasonry in a log cabin and left in a Temple. He was the master genius of Masonry in America, both as scholar and artist. No other mind of equal power ever toiled so long in the service of the Craft in the New World. To understand Freemasonry, read Pike. 112 pages, ISBN 156459050X, $13.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Magnum Opus or the Great Work, Now available after 135 years! One of the rarest and most important books ever published on the Ancient and Accepted (Scottish) Rite of Freemasonry—Albert Pike's Magnum Opus or "Great Work," being his first revision of the complete rituals of the Scottish Rite. Only 100 copies were printed—less than thirty are said to survive. Pike's ritualistic revisions were so impressive he was made an active member of the Supreme Council and became the most revered Sovereign Grand Commander in the history of the Rite. Thanks to the generous loan of a copy from a European antiquarian, this special reprint makes available to the serious student the complete authentic rituals which served as the foundation of the Scottish Rite's philosophy. This invaluable work is not to be confused with either the various ritualistic "exposures" of anti-Masons, or the rituals currently used by either American Scottish Rite. The Magnum Opus contains Albert Pike's complete, original text of the Scottish Rite degrees. Some of Pike's rituals were used by other Supreme Councils as a foundation for their own practices; while more recently the Supreme Council 33rd, Southern Masonic Jurisdiction, U.S.A. has appointed a committee to revise the current Pike rituals. The Magnum Opus allows researchers to trace the divergence to discover shifts in Masonic symbolism. An invaluable reference aid and research tool, the scarcity and cost of an original copy placed it beyond the reach of almost all Masonic bibliophiles. This affordable facsimile reprint places Masonic knowledge where it belongs—in the hands of those seeking Light. Although similar to the current rituals used by the Scottish Rite, it is slightly different and more esoteric. We have also included for the first time ever, the grips and signs, and the key to the "Secret Work." Very essential and rare! Contents: Fourth Degree, Secret Master; Fifth Degree, Perfect Master; Sixth Degree, Confidential Secretary; Seventh Degree, Provost and Judge; Eighth Degree, Intendant of the Buildings; Ninth Degree; Knight Elu of Nine; Tenth Degree, Illustrious Elu of Fifteenth; Eleventh Degree, Prince Ameth, or Sublime Elu of Twelve; Twelfth Degree, Grand Master Architect; Thirteenth Degree, Royal Arch; Fourteenth Degree, Grand, Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason; Fifteenth Degree, Knights of the Sword, of the East, or of the Eagle; Sixteenth Degree, Princes of Jerusalem; Seventeenth Degree, Knight of the East and West; Eighteenth Degree, Knight, or Sovereign Prince of Rose Croix, of Heredon; Nineteenth Degree, Grand Pontiff, or Sublime Scotch Mason; Twentieth Degree, Venerable Master of All Symbolic Lodges; or Master ad Vitam; Twenty-First Degree, Noachite; or Prussian Knight; Twenty-Second Degree, Knight of the Royal Axe, or Prince of Liabanus; Twenty-Third Degree, Chief of the Tabernacle; Twenty-Fourth Degree, Prince of the Tabernacle; Twenty-fifth Degree, Knight of the Brazen Serpent; Twenty-Sixth Degree, Prince of Mercy or Scottish Trinitarian; Twenty-Seventh Degree, Knight Commander of the Temple, or Teutonic Knight of the House of St. Mary of Jerusalem; Twenty-Eighth Degree, Knight of the Sun; or Knight Adept; Twenty-Ninth Degree, Grand Ecossais of St. Andrew, or Patriarch of the Crusades; Thirtieth Degree, Knight Kadosh; Twenty-First Degree, Grand Enquiring Commander; Thirty-Second Degree, Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret. 656 pages, ISBN 1564592456, $33.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Masonry of Adoption: (Masonic Rituals for Women), This wonderful book includes both the complete, verbatim, rituals and secret work of a little-known Masonic work written by Albert Pike and anonymously published by him especially for women. Degrees: Adoptive Apprentice; Companion, and Mistress. This books fills an essential void of real Masonic Initiation and Rituals for women. 244 pages, ISBN 1564592863, $18.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Porch and the Middle Chamber: BOOK OF THE LODGE, If you're a 32nd Degree Mason you may THINK that you've received all the Scottish Rite degrees, but chances are you haven't. Why? Unknown to most people, Albert Pike also wrote Scottish Rite rituals for the three Blue Lodge Degrees. In Pike's words, these Scottish Rite Blue Lodge rituals were "to be studied and understood before investiture with the fourth degree. For, without it, the system of that Rite is incomplete, and even like a fabric without foundation." This rare reprint includes the, openings, closings and rituals of the Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft and Master Mason degrees according to the Pike workings of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. More importantly it contains the complete SECRET WORK. These rituals are MUCH MORE ESOTERIC and differ significantly from the Webb-form (York Rite) Blue Lodge rituals commonly used in the United States, and the book has several interesting illustrations (including Hiram's jewel—a talisman!). Also included is the "Table Lodge" ceremony. Highly recommended. Very scarce! 404 pages, ISBN 1564593088, $24.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Legenda and Readings of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, There are other things that you should hear said now, and without which you will not be fully in possession of this degree... You will find them in the Legenda... (quote from the 26th degree, AASR, SMJ). This book contains ALL of the "Legenda" and "Readings" written for members of the Scottish Rite to supplement the ritualistic instruction. This anthology is similar, in some respects, to Pike's Lectures on Masonic Symbolism, but was considered REQUIRED READING by Pike himself. No Mason can truly understand the Scottish Rite degrees without reading this essential work. 436 pages, ISBN 1564593096, $25.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Liturgies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Parts 2-4 (4th° - 30°), This massive work includes ALL the Scottish Rite "Liturgies" (monitors) prepared for the current rituals of the Supreme Council 33°, SMJ. Lavishly illustrated with diagrams of the aprons, jewels and symbols of the degrees, the texts of these works contain verbatim extracts from the current rituals of the Scottish Rite. Some portions of these books (such as the "Lecture and History" of the thirteenth°) are not even included in the official rituals. Extremely interesting and informative, students of the rituals may compare this work with the Magnum Opus to trace the evolution of the degrees. Highly recommended. 680 pages, ISBN 156459310X, $34.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Liturgy of the Blue Degrees, For the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction. This rare work includes all the monitorial instructions for the three Craft Degrees according to the Scottish Rite, and is intended to supplement Pike's Book of the Lodge. Much more complete than the common Webb-form (York Rite) monitors, this work contains large ritualistic extracts and symbolic diagrams which, with the aforementioned work, assist the student to reconstruct the rituals. 220 pages, ISBN 1564593231, $17.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Masonic Baptism: Reception of a Louveteau and Adoption, The ceremony of Masonic Baptism has always been used in the Scottish Order. The ceremony secures to a child of either sex the protection and assistance of the Lodge or other body performing the ceremony. Includes an overview of initiatic baptism, duties and qualifications, and the actual ritual. Although the ritual is intended for children, adults will be inspired by the sublime ritual and unique Scottish Rite philosophy. 210 pages, ISBN 1564593487, $17.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Ex Corde Locutiones: Words from the Heart Spoken of his Dead Brethren, This unique book is extremely important for two reasons. First, for its biographical history of all the luminaries who have worked and died in the Scottish Rite and secondly, Pike's eloquent prose on the philosophy of life and death is presented here with the clarity and understanding of a prophet. There has never been a Mason like Pike. If you are or have been faced with losing a loved one, read this beautiful book—it will help you. 366 pages, ISBN 1564593509, $23.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Reprints of Old Rituals, In 1879 Albert Pike, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, USA, prepared and authorized for sale a collection of books "for general distribution." Among these was also a collection of rituals, virtually unknown today. These included: 1) Degree of Master Mark Mason, being the work of the Grand Council of Princes of Jerusalem of South Carolina, and the oldest work extant anywhere; 2) The Wigan Ritual, of the Early Grand Encampment; 3) Grade, Mark Mason, Passed Master, and Royal Arch, Rite Ancient Maçonnerie D'York. [Were originally translated from English into French, and used in the French West Indies in 1795.]; 4) Knights Templar, former English Ritual; 5) Grand Maitre Ecossais or Scottish Elder Master and Knight of St. Andrew, being the Fourth Degree of Ramsey; 6) Old Ceremony of Royal Arch Exaltation. This new book includes ALL of the above rituals in one volume. These rituals have become some of the scarcest items ever printed by the Supreme Council. Original copies now sell for between US $60 and US $100 each. All of these rituals are extremely important, each for unique reasons. The Master Mark Mason and Wigan Rituals are, for example, early, little-known versions of these degrees; the former lacking much of the Christian symbolism present today, and the latter (supplied by John Yarker), differing significantly from the current ritual. The Maçonnerie D'York rituals were obtained in New Orleans, and contain a wealth of historical information relative to their use, including references to Joseph Cerneau, who had long troubled the Southern Jurisdiction by his irregular branch the Scottish Rite. The "former" English Knights Templar ritual appears to be the authorized revision of 1851, upon which the current ritual is based. The Grand Maitre Ecossais degree is an Hermetic degree which contends that the essential "secret" of Freemasonry is the Alchemical transmutation of the initiate. It is rumored to be used by the American C. B. C. S. (Knights Beneficent of the Holy City), an elite Masonic body. The Old Ceremony of Royal Arch Exaltation is the ritual upon which the current English ritual is based. It includes references to the mysterious word "J.B.O.", which has since been expunged from English Masonry. 170 pages, ISBN 1564599833, $16.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Esoteric Work of the 1°-3°, According to the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, The missing secret sections of Pike's 1872 Craft ritual, "The Porch and the Middle Chamber. The Book of the Lodge." For the first time the authentic Secret Work is now available for the Scottish Rite version of the Blue degrees. This book merges both missing books into one and deciphers them for the first time. If you own our "Porch and the Middle Chamber: The Book of the Lodge," this book is a must. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599922, $13.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Old Cahier of the 33d Degree, In 1872 Albert Pike published his book Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. The Constitutions and Regulations of 1762. Statutes and Regulations of Perfection and Other Degrees. Vera Instituta Secreta et Fundamenta Ordinis of 1786. The Secret Constitutions of the 33d Degree, with the Statutes of 1859, 1866, 1868, 1870 and 1872 of the Supreme Council for the Southern Jurisdiction. This book is still available under the title 'Grand Constitutions.' In this work Pike tells how he discovered, in the archives of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana in 1860, 'in a little, old badly-written MS. book, of poor paper, a ritual of the 33d Degree, followed by what purported to be the Secret Constitutions of that degree.' Pike printed the full text of the Secret Constitutions (in both French and English) but only printed a partial translation of the 33d degree ritual. We have obtained a copy of the missing text from pages inserted into Charles T. McClenachan's copy of Pike's book. A note inside the McClenachan book indicates they were obtained directly from Pike, and were copied from his "Register." We have reset the entire text and inserted the missing sections into their proper places, thus providing for the first time the complete text of this early 33d Degree ritual. We have also deciphered the coded secret words, signs and tokens, making this the only complete edition available. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599957, $13.00

PIKE, ALBERT, Evil Consequences of Schisms and Disputes for Power in Masonry and of Jealousies and Dissensions Between Masonic Rites (1858), This message is for today's Mason. PIKE, ALBERT, Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Freemasonry (Vol. 1), Volume one of a two volume set. (This description is for all volumes.) The teachings of these Readings are not sacramental, so far as they go beyond the realm of Morality into those of other domains of Thought and Truth. The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite uses the word 'Dogma' in its true sense, of doctrine, or teaching; and is not dogmatic in the odious sense of that term. Everyone is entirely free to reject and dissent from whatsoever herein may seem to him to be untrue or unsound. It is only required of him that he shall weigh what is taught, and give it fair hearing and unprejudiced judgment. Of course, the ancient theosophic and philosophic speculations are not embodied as part of the doctrines of the Rite; but because it is of interest and profit to know what the Ancient Intellect thought upon these subjects, and because nothing so conclusively proves the radical difference between our human and the animal nature, as the capacity of the human mind to entertain such speculations in regard to itself and the Deity." Contents: Apprentice; Fellow-craft; Master; Secret Master; Perfect Master; Intimate Secretary; Provost and Judge; Intendant of the Building; Elu of the Nine; Elu of the Fifteen; Elu of the Twelve; Master Architect; Royal Arch of Solomon; Perfect Elu; Knight of the East; Prince of Jerusalem; Knight of the East and West; Knight Rose Croix; pontiff; Master of the Symbolic Lodge; Noachite or Prussian Knight; Knight of the Royal Axe or Prince of Liabanus; Chief of the Tabernacle; Prince of the Tabernacle;

Knight of the Brazen Serpent; Prince of Mercy; Knight Commander of the Temple; Knight of the Sun or Prince Adept; Scottish Knight of St. Andrew; Knight Kadosh; Inspector Inquisitor; Master of the Royal Secret. PRIESTLEY, JOSEPH, Disquisitions Relating to Matter and Spirit (1777), Partial Contents: Of the Nature and Essential Properties of Matter; Of Impenetrability; Of the Seat of the Sentient Principle in Man; Advantages attending the System of Materialism; Considerations more immediately relating to Immaterial Substances, and especially to the Connection of the Soul and Body; Of the Presence of the Soul with the Body; Of the Vehicle of the Soul; Objections to the System of Materialism considered; Of the Principles of Human Nature according to the Scriptures; Of the Divine Essence according to the Scriptures; Of the Arguments of the Being and Perfections of God; Observations on Personal Identity; A View of the different Opinions that have been held concerning the Divine Essence; Opinions of the Heathens and Jews; Opinions of the Christian Fathers to the sixth Century; State of Opinions from the Sixth Century to the Time of Descartes; Opinions from the Time of Descartes to present; Brief History of Opinions concerning the State of the Dead; Of the Indian or the proper Oriental Philosophy; Religion of the ancient Persians and Chaldeans; Introduction of the Oriental Philosophy into Greece; Mixture of the Oriental and Greek Philosophy with Christianity; Influence of the Philosophical system on the Christian doctrine concerning the Person of Christ; General Arguments against the Preexistence of Christ; Opinions that have been held concerning Matter, and their influence with respect to Christianity. 392 pages, ISBN 1564593142, $23.00

PRIESTLY, JOSEPH, Jesus and Socrates Compared, Contents: Introduction; Of the Polytheism and Idolatry of Socrates; The Sentiments of Socrates concerning the Gods and their Providence; Of the excellent moral character of Socrates; The Imperfection of Socrates's Ideas concerning Piety and Virtue in general; Socrates's Belief in a future State; The Daemon of Socrates; The Character and teaching of Socrates compared with those of Jesus; The Different Objects of the Instructions of Socrates and of Jesus; Inferences to be drawn from the Comparison of Socrates and Jesus. 112 pages, ISBN 1564594548, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Story of Les Elus Parfaits, the Mother-Ecossais Lodge of Bordeaux, This volume begins with the Constitutions and original Statutes of the Ordre des Chevaliers Hospitaliers et Militaires de Saint-Jean de Jerusalem, written about 1743. After these come the letters addressed to the Elus Parfaits by Bro. Lamolere de Feuillas, in 1746; the famous 1750 letter of Petit du Boulard; copies of letters sent by Dupin Deslezes to Rousillon; and a report dated 1754 on the installation of an Architecture lodge at Bordeaux, which showed that the Elus Parfaits knew of the Architect degrees only at a late date. In addition there is a very curious document written partly in Hebrew, and the very moving draft of an address given by a Grand Master on leaving the Chair. 112 pages, ISBN 076610687X, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Story of the Lodge La Parfaite Union in the Island of Martinique, This comprises correspondence addressed to the Elus parfaits at Bordeaux by the brethren of Saint-Pierre de la Martinique. A large part is concerned with the events linked with the creation of the Parfaite Loge d'Ecosse of Saint-Pierre, and to the enmity that arose between two rival factions. It has been possible to recreate the original of the Sharp document 30, lost in America but of which the Bibliotheque Nationale in Paris has a very poor copy. 112 pages, ISBN 0766106888, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Story of the Ecossais Lodges in the Isle San Domingo, This volume contains letters sent from Santo Domingo to the Elus parfaits at Bordeaux and copies of some of their replies. There is also the Patent granted to Lamolere de Feuillas on December 24, 1752 which made him a true Masonic consul; and letters from the lodge Saint-Jean de Jerusalem Ecossaise at Cap-Francais, the Parfaite Loge d'Ecosse in Saint-M arc, and the superior bodies founded by Morin in Les Cayes. The rivalry between Morin and Lamolere de Feuillas shows up quite clearly. 112 pages, ISBN 0766106896, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Story of the Ecossais Lodge of New Orleans, The documents in this volume cover some fifteen years and provide an understanding of Freemasonry in French Louisiana. First come the Regulations, followed by the Special Rules imposed by the lodge Parfaite Union at Saint-Pierre de la Martinique on its daughter-lodge. The New Orleans brethren, desirous of obtaining Constitutions for a Parfaite Loge d'Ecosse, prepared a Projet de Reglement particulier that illuminated their Masonic ideals and in 1756 they sent their Bro. Roussillon to present it to Bordeaux; but Roussillon did not return until 1764, not long before the transfer of New Orleans to Spain, which of course rang the death knell of Freemasonry in Louisiana. 112 pages, ISBN 076610690X, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Story of the Ecossais Lodge of Toulouse, The correspondence between the Ecossais lodge at Toulouse covers only two years, but provides very interesting insights regarding Masonry in the 18th century, revealing that in 1750 there was a High Degree body at Toulouse practicing either a Trinitarian Ecossais system of the Parisian Ecossais des Trois I.I.I. and we see how these were replaced by the 'Ancienne Maitrise' of Bordeaux. There followed a clearly non-masonic quarrel that originated in rivalry between actors of the Toulouse Opera! The return of the Grand Master, who had been absent, enabled the crisis to be resolved and the lodge's unity restored. There is also a letter revealing recruitment difficulties facing the lodge and requesting some statutory modifications; a fresh proof of the regard for regularity that determined the attitude of the Elus parfaits and their daughter lodges. 112 pages, ISBN 0766106918, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Miscellaneous Masonic Documents, Documents spreading over the years from 1770 to 1809 have been grouped together; among them are letters concerning an incident that took place at Figeac; and address by the brethren of Montauban to the Duc the Chartres denouncing the activities of Brest de la Chaussée, Daubertin and Peny; several documents linked to the 'affair of the ball' in 1784; an account of the reception given to Cambaceres in 1807; and a letter from Borel exposing the rivalry between the Philosophical Ecossais Rite and the newly born Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. These documents provide the names of Masons of many Toulouse Masons towards the end of the 18th century; they have no connection with the Elus parfaits, long since expired. 112 pages, ISBN 0766106926, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Ecossais or Perfect Elect of the Lodge, This ritual is presented in the form of a restored facsimile, a corrected French transcription and an English translation of that used by the 'Parfaite Loge d'Ecosse' of the Elus Parfaits of Bordeaux. It was dated 1750 according to documents in the Sharp collection, and concerns a variation in ten degrees of the 'Ancienne Maitrise.' It is therefore a Solomonic ritual, comprising a long account in the course of which the candidate is informed of the degrees of Apprentice, Fellow-Craft, Master, Secret Master, Perfect Master, Secretary or Master by Curiosity, Provost and Judge, Intendant of the Buildings and master elect of Nine. Its historical importance is of the essence as the Elus parfaits were chronologically the first Ecossais authority of the High Degrees. 112 pages, ISBN 0766106934, $13.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Documents of Mirecourt, Mirecourt's collection consists of hand written rituals, mainly containing material prior to 1760. Due to its importance, several publications have been devoted to it. Latomia 70 regroupes, in French transcription with a Dutch translation, the booklets containing the rituals of Fendeur du Devoir; Perfect Master; Small Elect; Apprentice, Fellow, Ecossais Master, and Grand Ecossais de Montpellier; English Master; and Knight of the East. Latomia 80 similarly brings together Knight of the West; Sublime Ecossais; Worshipful Master of Lodges; Apprentice, Fellow and Master Architect; Knight of Rose-Croix; Grand Inspector Grand Elect C K S; and Sublime Philosopher. These represent some sort of system but some of the rituals, for instance Grand Inspector Grand Elect, have only the Lecture. It should be noted that this last document has been "updated" in a different hand by the insertion of the word Kadosh in various places. The antiquity of the originals can be judged by the document comprising Apprentice, Fellow and Master Ecossais; these rituals are practically identical to those used in Lille in 1749. 130 pages, ISBN 0766106942, $14.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Cayers Maconniques Rituals of the Lodge of Perfection, In an unexpected way the first volume of the well known collection 'Maconnerie des Hommes' came to light. As the first degrees of the subsequent Rite of Perfection are comprised in this volume, it is important to take note of these rituals and compare them with others. This part also contains 34 water color paintings of the same quality as the others. They are presented here as line drawings. As will be observed the title of this first volume differs from that on the back of the other volumes, which points to the fact that this part was edited a long time before the other volumes. 186 pages, ISBN 0766106950, $16.00

PRINSEN, GERRY L., EDITOR, Bonseigneur Rituals a Collection of 18th Century Ecossais Rituals (Volumes 1 & 2), These rituals have most probably been in use in an irregular lodge of colored people at Port de Paix, San Domingo. The lodge being situated in an isolated area of the island, there has been no updating of the rituals, a usual procedure during the 18th century. The collection therefore represents a very old version of the ritual, copied around 1785 to serve for the newly erected lodge at New Orleans in 1794. An introduction gives the results of the historical research. 234 pages, ISBN 0766106969, $18.00

PRITCHARD, SAMUEL, Three Distinct Knocks, On the Door of the Most Ancient Freemasonry; Being A Universal Description of all its Branches from its first Rite to this Present Time. PRYSE, JAMES MORGAN, New Presentation of the Prometheus Bound of Aischylos Wherein is Set Forth the Hidden Meaning of the Myth (1925), Absorbed only in its literary beauty, I had read repeatedly the masterpiece of the first and greatest of the Greek dramatists before I was impelled to fathom the interior sense which it holds. Having discovered a wealth of hidden meaning in the sublime drama of Aischylos, I decided to share it with those pursuing the same line of study. Each of the persons in the drama is a mystical personification. 210 pages, ISBN 1564598233, $17.00

PRYSE, JAMES MORGAN, Restored New Testament: The Hellenic Fragments, Freed from the Pseudo-Jewish Interpolations, Harmonized, and Done into English Verse and Prose 1925 (Vol. 1), Volume one of a two volume set. (This description is for all volumes.) With introductory analyses, and commentaries, giving an interpretation according to ancient philosophy and psychology and a new literal translation of the synoptic gospels, with commentaries and illustrations. "In the work here presented the portions of the New Testament which the author holds to be genuine are construed in verse, and are interpreted along the lines of ancient philosophy and psychology. The work is, therefore, not concerned with theological views or any of the creeds, dogmas and doctrines of the many Christian sects. For the author, while cherishing the greatest respect for all that is pure and noble in the Christian religion and all other religions, is not, and never has been a Christian. In interpreting the New Testament from a non-sectarian, and therefore possibly non-Christian, point of view, he has tried to avoid offending needlessly those who cling to one or another form of Christian faith; but this interpretation differs radically from that offered by the so-called orthodox commentators, and in the attempt to restore the admittedly corrupt text of the New Testament, more especially that of the Gospels, the author has found it necessary to undermine the foundation upon which the structure of dogmatic theology has been reared." Contents: The Genuine Portions of the New Testament, Analyses and Commentaries; Anointing of Iesusus; Crowning of Jesus; Selections from the Fourth Gospel with Commentary; Initiation of Ioannes; Initiation; Letters of Paulos; Synoptic Gospels, Translated into Modern English, with Comments; Gospels according to, Mark, Matthew and Luke. 484 pages, ISBN 076612617X, $27.00

SPETH, G.W., Builders' Rites and Ceremonies: The Folk Lore of Masonry, This fascinating book surveys the unusual practices of various cultures relative to erecting structures, and may hint at some of the esoteric practices of Freemasonry. Did you know that in both ancient and modern cultures it was common to sacrifice animals, and even people, to "establish a building in strength"? Such sacrifices sometimes required the death of the builder. Did you know that the practice of laying coins under a foundation stone was a sinister practice intended to catch the King's soul by burying his visage? Or that unwitting strangers secretly had their shadows measured for the same purpose? This book is sure to enlighten and surprise the reader, and may hint at the reason for Hiram's untimely death. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599892, $13.00

ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS, Dark Night of the Soul, There comes to all souls, at least once in life, a severe test. It is known as the Dark Night of the Soul. It is when we are beleaguered by darkness: spiritual and mental and where no hope seems to be near and everything we try to do is thwarted. It is where the soul is forced to persist and enter into the glorious Golden Dawn of Illumination and kinship with God, or relax into the dull slumber of a mediocre physical existence. You cannot avoid it. If this test hasn't already come in your life—it will. How you deal with it is as important as life itself. This book, written by a high initiate, St. John, will be your counsel and guide. 270 pages, ISBN 1564595803, $19.00

ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS, Spiritual Canticle of the Soul and the Bridegroom of Christ, By the same author of the "Dark Night of the Soul" this scarce and little-known book was written while St. John was imprisoned. These stanzas reflect the importuning of soul blessed with the light and love of God. Reading this remarkable book will give comfort and calm joy. 340 pages, ISBN 1564595501, $22.00

TAYLOR, REV. ROBERT, Syntagma of the Evidences of the Christian Religion, Being a Vindication of the Manifesto of the Christian Evidence Society, Against the Assaults of the Christian Instruction Society; "Prisoner in Oakham Jail for the conscientious maintenance of the truths contained in that Manifesto." "Thou hast in this Pamphlet all the sufficient evidence, that can be adduced for any piece of history a thousand years old, or to prove an error of a thousand years standing, that such a person as Jesus Christ never existed; but that the earliest Christians meant the words to be nothing more than a personification of the principle of reason, of goodness, or that principle, be it what it may, which may most benefit mankind in the passage through life. 192 pages, ISBN 1564591727, $16.00

TAYLOR, REV. ROBERT, Devil's Pulpit: Or Astro-Theological Sermons, With a sketch of his life and an astronomical introduction. This book is a collection of sermons delivered by the Rev. Robert Taylor. Everywhere he lectured he challenged the clergy to debate him. He was arrested for blasphemy and a persecution began. A Quaker banker took this opportunity to press a debt, and threw the orator into prison. It was there that he wrote the Diegesis and Syntagma. Contents: Star of Bethlehem; John the Baptist; Raising the Devil!; The Temple; Unjust Judge; Virgo Partura; St. Peter; Judas Iscariot Vindicated; St. Thomas; St. James and John the Sons of Thunder; The Crucifixion of Christ; Cup of Salvation; Lecture on Free Masonry; The Holy Ghost; St. Philip; St. Matthew; The Redeemer. 356 pages, ISBN 1564591735, $22.00

TAYLOR, THOMAS, Arguments of the Emperor Julian Against the Christians, Translated from the Greek Fragments preserved by Cyril, Bishop of Alexandria, to which are added Extracts from the Other Works of Julian Relative to the Christians by Thomas Taylor. "The knowledge of the Gods is Virtue, Wisdom, and Perfect Felicity, and Makes Us Resemble the Gods." "I rejoice in the opportunity which is now afforded me of printing this translation of the extracts from a lost work of Julian against the Christians; conceiving that it may be the means of benefitting a certain few, who though they have been educated in stupid opinions, have abandoned them, and who, if properly instructed in, would immediately embrace the genuine religion of mankind. 116 pages, ISBN 156459128X, $13.00

TAYLOR, THOMAS, Metamorphosis or Golden Ass of Apuleius, Thomas Taylor's books are highly sought after because of his remarkable ability to translate seeming obscure texts into understandable gems of light. "Apuleius, the celebrated author of the following works, is undoubtedly the greatest of the ancient Latin Platonists. He is not to be classed among the chief of the disciples of Plato, yet he will always maintain a very distinguished rank among those who have delivered to us the more accessible parts of that philosophy with consummate eloquence. The most important parts of the Metamorphosis, I feel, are the fable of Cupid and Psyche, and the eleventh book, in which Apuleius gives an account of his being initiated in the mysteries of Isis and Osiris. I call these the most important parts, because in the former, it appears to me, the very ancient dogma of the pre-existence of the human soul, its lapse from the intelligible world to the earth, and its return from thence to its pristine state of felicity, are most accurately and beautifully adumbrated. 428 pages, ISBN 1564590232, $25.00

TAYLOR, THOMAS, Proclus the Neoplatonic Philosopher, The Former Consisting of Ten Doubts Concerning Providence, and a Solution of those Doubts; and the Latter Containing a Development of the Nature of Evil. 184 pages, ISBN 1564591239, $16.00

TAYLOR, THOMAS, Republic of Plato, This is Thomas Taylor's adept translation of Plato's Republic. Plato's "crowning achievement of art and philosophy." "The idea that runs through the Republic is that the individual presents almost the same features and qualities as society, on a smaller scale, and in his argument Plato first considers the state and thence makes his deductions as to the individual." "Besides the enduring value of the Republic as a work of art, its philosophical and ethical teaching is of particular interest in the present disordered condition of social and speculative ideas. 320 pages, ISBN 1564590240, $21.00

TAYLOR, THOMAS, Two Orations of the Emperor Julian, The Emperor Julian's Oration to the Sovereign Sun and The Emperor Julian's Oration to the Mother of the Gods. With a copious introduction, in which some of the greatest arcana of the Grecian theology are unfolded. "The Emperor Julian, the author of the two following Orations, is well known in the character of a Sovereign and an Apostate which he once sustained, but very few are acquainted with him in the characters of a Theologist and Philosopher, which he displays through the whole of his works, in a manner by no means contemptible or weak." "Julian, however, appears to have possessed as much of the philosophical genius as could possibly be the portion of an Emperor of Rome, and was doubtless as much superior to any other Emperor, either prior or posterior to him, as the philosophy and theology which he zealously professed transcend all others in dignity and worth. 144 pages, ISBN 1564591271, $14.00

TAYLOR, THOMAS, Eleusinian and Bacchic Mysteries, These mysteries once represented the spiritual life of Greece, and were considered for 2,000 years the appointed means for regeneration through an interior union with the Divine Essence. Details on the secret mysteries of the Adytums of ancient Greece. Annotated by Dr. Alex Wilder. Appendix, glossary. 192 pages, ISBN 1564599760, $16.00

THOMSON, ARTHUR DYOTT, On Mankind their Origin and Destiny 1872 (Vol. 1), Volume one of a two volume set. (This description is for all volumes.) This book is mentioned in several of Manly P. Hall's works, most notably Secret Teachings of All Ages. "The origin and destiny of man are subjects which, though inseparably connected with each other, are usually treated of as distinct. In ancient times this was not the case. Theology was based upon such science as existed at that time, and Science and Theology were consequently in harmony with each other. This harmony has long ceased to exist." Partial Contents: State of Judaea; Masoretic Points; Explanation of the secret meaning of: the first chapter of Genesis, the second chapter, the third chapter; New Testament; Critical examination of the Gospel according to Matthew; Mythical elements in the first copies of Mark's gospel; Original disciples of John the Baptist; Gospels which are no longer in existence; Worship of nature; Sun the king of heaven; Tuscan cosmogony; Life of Osiris and Typhon; End of the World; Active and Passive forces of nature; Nature the first deity; Origin of man according to the ancients; Hindu & Hebrew Deluge; Esoteric teaching of Egyptian priests; Origin of man according to modern scientific views. 394 pages, ISBN 0766126196, $24.00

TILDEN, DR. JOHN H., Cursed Before Birth: A Few Straight Tips Regarding Our Social Condition, It is an attribute of human nature to become accustomed to danger, especially when it appears not to threaten a personal attack. So long as contagious disease is in some other neighborhood it excites no special concern. It is time for someone who is intrepid enough to oppose popular sentiment, and who ignores the conventional lines of propriety drawn by ignorant pruders, to come forward and tear away the mask which conceals the incubator of moral disease, and let humanity come face to face with facts, no matter how repulsive they are. If it is immoral to write a warning to the ignorant and innocent, and to write facts so plain that innocent boys and girls who read them will be saved from making the mistakes others have made, then this book is immoral. If there are people who cry out after reading this book, Sensation! let them go to the victims and get the truths of this book verified. 342 pages, ISBN 1564597725, $22.00

TILDEN, DR. JOHN H., Appendicitis: The Etiology, Hygienic & Dietetic Treatment (1909), With a Chapter on Diabetes. VALENTINUS, BASILUS, Triumphal Chariot of Antimony, Biographical preface by A. E. Waite. "To the illustrious, venerable, saintly, and blessed men, adepts of the true philosophy, lovers of virtue, lords of fortune, despisers of the world, whose life is holiness in holiness, knowledge in knowledge, and whose work consists in the relieving of the sick and poor." This illuminating work reveals the secrets of the Spagyric Art; the Grand Magisterium, the true and Universal Medicine, the Tinctures which transmute metals, and other deep mysteries that make part of the Sacramentum Regis. 232 pages, ISBN 1564590216, $18.00

VAN DYKE, JOHN, Columns of Jachin & Boaz in Relation to the Bible, This is considered among the most important symbols in a Masonic Lodge. The author investigates the origin of these two names and gives the reader an in-depth analysis of the history and profound symbolism of the Words and Pillars themselves. Drawing on both Masonic and Hebraic sources, the author elucidates on the Fellow Craft's "Middle Chamber lecture." Initially prepared for the public, this work unfolds the arcanæ and is of especial significance and interest to the true Mason. Several passages are now deciphered for the first time, making this edition the most complete ever offered. 112 pages, ISBN 1564599884, $13.00

VANRUYSBROECK, JAN, Adornment of the Spiritual Marriage; The Sparkling Stone; The Book of Supreme Truth, Jan Van Ruysbroeck—three of whose most important works are here for the first time presented to English readers—is the greatest of the Flemish mystics, and must take high rank in any list of Christian contemplatives and saints. A truly beautiful example of what Christianity was and should be. Highly recommended. 290 pages, ISBN 0922802947, $20.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Doctrine and Literature of the Kabbalah, From whatever point of view it may be approached, the Kabbalah is of importance: it connects with literatures which are greater than itself and with pregnant issues of history. It is part of the history of philosophy, and as such it once entered into the thought of Europe. It is responsible, broadly speaking, for all that strange tissue of symbolism and ceremonial which made up the magic of the Middle Ages; at a later period it sought to transform alchemy; it tintured many of those conventional practices and beliefs which we term superstition generically, and the guise in which we know them is therefore chiefly a Kabbalistic guise." Contents: Post-Christian Literature of the Jews; Doctrinal Content of the Kabbalah; Source and Authority of the Kabbalah; Written Word of Kabbalism First, Second and Third Period; Some Christian Students of the Kabbalah, Raymond Lully, Cornelius Agrippa, Paracelsus, William Postel, The Rosicrucians, Robert Fludd, Thomas Vaughan, Ralph Cudworth, Saint-Martin, Eliphas Levi, Papus; Kabbalah and Other Channels of Esoteric Tradition, The Kabbalah and: Magic, Alchemy, Astrology, Freemasonry, Tarot and Mysticism. 528 pages, ISBN 1564592790, $28.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Secret Tradition in Freemasonry (1937), This was Waite's last book and is THE MOST IMPORTANT BOOK EVER WRITTEN ON THE ESOTERIC ASPECTS OF FREEMASONRY. "I am not offering in this book a revised edition of two volumes which appeared under the same title so far back as 1911. It is so altered, extended and transformed that it may claim to be a new undertaking and to supersede in fact that which it preserves in name." Waite not only reedited and radically restructured the two volume edition, but he incorporated much of his Emblematic Freemasonry (1925) that it might, as he said, supersede the previous work. This was Waite's last and (in his opinion) most important work on Freemasonry. Contents: Creative and Emblematic Freemasonry; Craft Degrees and Their Connections; Second Holy House; New Alliance in Freemasonry; Quest in Christian Ritual; Masonic Orders of Chivalry Apart from Templar Grades; Templar Grades of Freemasonry; Of Alchemy in Masonry; Of Magical and Kabbalistical Degrees; The Growth of Masonic Tradition; Freemasonry and the French Revolution; Mysteries on their Mystical Side. Extremely important. A masonic classic. 722 pages, ISBN 1564593053, $35.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Unknown Philosopher: The Life of Louis Claude de St. Martin and the Substance of His Transcendental Doctrine, St. Martin (1743-1803) believed that the most important problem of all human thinking is to understand man as a free personality, whose very foundation is himself. Contents: The Life of St. Martin; Sources of Martinistic Doctrines; The Nature and State of Man; The Doctrine of the Repairer; The Way of Integration; Minor Sources of St. Martin; The Mystical Philosophy of Numbers; Prayers of St. Martin; Bibliography; Martinism and the Masonic Rites of Swedenborg. St. Martin was the successor to Jacob Boehme—an important mystic in the history light. 448 pages, ISBN 1564594858, $25.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Holy Grail: The Galahad Quest in the Arthurian Literature, The Holy Grail is central to the Arthurian literature. The lighthearted journeys for women and adventure build up to the journeys of the soul. It becomes clear that these earlier journeys were also not really what they seemed to be, not really journeys on horseback and clothed in armor, but journeys of the spirit. Contents: The Holy Vessel and its Literature; Holy Grail in its Manifestation and Removal; The Conte Del Graal; Cycle of Robert De Borron; Vulgate Cycle of the Holy Grail; Other and Later Texts of the Grail Legend; German Cycle of the Holy Grail; Welsh and English Texts; Critical Apparatus in Respect of the Grail Cycles; Celtic Hypothesis; Further Critical Apparatus: The Schools, the Churches, and the Sects; Further Critical Apparatus: The Ritual Hypothesis; Secret of the Holy Grail; Bibliography of the Holy Grail. 612 pages, ISBN 1564593452, $31.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Alchemists through the Ages, Lives of the Famous Alchemical Philosophers from the year 850 to the close of the 18th century, together with a Study of the Principles and Practice of Alchemy, including a Bibliography of Alchemical and Hermetic Philosophy. Illustrated by a series of rare and unusual Portraits. This compact, well-researched book describes the theory and practice of Alchemy by letting the famous alchemists (over 50 of them) speak for themselves. Essays on the True Principles and Nature of the Magnum Opus, and on its Relation to Spiritual Chemistry and The Physical Theory and Practice of the Magnum Opus. Includes an Appendix, Index, and an Alphabetical Catalog of Works on Hermetic Philosophy and Alchemy. The real quest of the alchemists was self-transformation, the unfolding of their own higher-self, and in the process they created the modern Scientific Method. 316 pages, ISBN 1564594572, $21.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Occult Sciences: A Compendium of Transcendental Doctrine and Experiment, Embracing an Account of Magical Practices; or Secret Sciences in Connection with Magic; of the Professors of Magical Arts; and of Modern Spiritualism, Mesmerism and Theosophy. "The subject of occultism has been very fully dealt with during recent years by various students of eminence. It has remained for the results of their studies to be condensed into a portable volume, which shall conduct the inquirer into the vestibule of each branch of 'the occult sciences,' and place within his reach the proper means of prosecuting his researches further in any desired direction." Contents: Magical Practices; White Magic: The Evocation of Angels; White Magic Evocation of Spirits; Black Magic; Necromancy; Secret Sciences in Connection with Magic; Alchemy; Elixir of Life; Crystallomancy; Composition of Talismans; Divination; Divining Rod; Astrology; Kabbalism; Professors of Magical Art; Mystics; Rosicrucians; Freemasons; Modern Phenomena; Mesmerism; Modern Spiritualism; Theosophy. 298 pages, ISBN 156459369X, $20.00

WAITE, ARTHUR EDWARD, Way of Divine Union (1905), Being a Doctrine of Experience in the Life of Sanctity, Considered on the Faith of its Testimonies and Interpreted after a New Manner. "The design of this study, which takes all Christian Mysticism as its province, is to restate the philosophy of life and mind from a mystical point of departure in the light of existing needs, and to indicate that the Way of Divine Life and Union is a way which can be followed and its end attained in this present age of the world. This volume may be regarded as the crown and summary of the author's life-long studies and personal experience in the paths of mysticism." Contents: Title of the Quest; Concerning Ineffable Experience; Extent and Limits of Attainment in Christian Mysticism of the Latin Schools; Derivations and Reflections of the Mystical Term in Post-Reformation Schools; Concerning Union and identity; Analogies and Distinctions of Attainment in Records of Eastern Mysticism; Path in Christian Mysticism; Symbolism of the Christ-Life in the Soul; Symbolism of the Mystical Marriage; Of Soul and Spirit in Man; Mystical Experiment Considered in the Light of Consciousness; Reordination of Life and Mind; Mystical State in the World; Sacramentalism of our Inward Nature; Of Saving Grace in the Churches; Way of Attainment. 360 pages, ISBN 1564593894, $22.00

WARD, J.S.M., Interpretation of our Masonic Symbols, This book is an attempt to interpret the meaning of those dumb, silent emblems that lie around us in the Lodge. I shall concentrate my attention of such objects as the Ashlars, the officers' jewels, and so forth. The purpose of this work is to give a scientific explanation of the meaning of these symbols, based on the recognized laws of symbology and on the age-old interpretation of them. Contents: The Square Master's Squares or Levels; Level and Plum-rule; The Collar; Other Officers' Emblems; Square & Compasses; Point Within a Circle; Pentacle and the Letter "G"; Apron; Altar; Tau & Latin Cross; Three Ashlars: Rough, Perfect, and Perpend; Columns of Master, S.W., and J.W.; Carpet and its Tassels; Emblems of Mortality; Lodge; Consecration of a Lodge. 164 pages, ISBN 1564593851, $15.00

WARD, J.S.M., Told through the Ages: A Series of Masonic Stories, Several of my readers may be surprised at finding my name on a book which avowedly contains fiction, but I would suggest that valuable as is the mystical teaching of Freemasonry, its moral teachings are equally essential for the work it has to do in the world. Freemasonry is acknowledged to be a 'System of Morality, veiled in allegory,' and in this volume I have endeavored to convey the old moral teachings under a new guise. Contents: At High Noon; O Wonderful Masons; A Curiously Wrought Stone; The Criminal King; A Discovery They Deemed of Importance; The Passing of Socrates; College of Architects at Pompeii; Departure of the Eagles; The True Word; Tools of a Master Mason; The Light; Master's Mark of Approval; Geoffrey of Conway; To Do Justly; Father Matthew's Dream; Only an Accident; How they Saved Tewkesbury Abbey; From Darkness to Light; John Custos and the Spanish Inquisition; The Cat and Her Kittens. 258 pages, ISBN 156459386X, $19.00 which, because it is less dramatic and spectacular than that of the First Degree, is often regarded as a somewhat colourless interlude between the impressive surprises of the one which precedes and the awesome grandeur of the one which follows it. Being a 'veil of allegory' the Ceremony must not only be looked at but looked through, if its significance is to be realized. The Ceremony is called one of 'passing', since it relates to a midway, transitional phase of personal experience through which every aspirant to perfection must inevitably pass before he can think of attaining the ultimate degree of soul-development and mastery to which our system leads. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593177, $13.00

WILMSHURST, W.L., The Meaning of Masonry, The papers here collected have been written with a view to promoting the deeper understanding of the meaning of Masonry; to providing the explanation of it that one constantly hears called for. The meaning of Masonry, however, is a subject usually left entirely unexpounded and that accordingly remains largely unrealized by its members save such few as make it their private study. It seems taken for granted that reception into the Order will automatically be accompanied by an ability to appreciate forthwith and at its full value all that one there finds. The contrary is the case, for Masonry is a veiled and cryptic expression of the difficult science of spiritual life, and the understanding of it calls for special and informed guidance on the one hand, and on the other a genuine and earnest desire for knowledge on the part of those seeking to be instructed. Contents: The Position and Possibilities of the Masonic Order; Deeper Symbolism of Freemasonry; Masonry as a Philosophy; Further Notes on Craft Symbolism; The Form of the Lodge; Holy Royal Arch of Jerusalem; Freemasonry in Relation to the Ancient Mysteries. 216 pages, ISBN 1564593738, $17.00

WILMSHURST, W.L., Contemplations: Being Studies in Christian Mysticism, The contents are largely interpretations, from a Christian mystical standpoint, both of religious subjects and of the period of crisis and transition through which we are still passing. YARKER, JOHN, Masonic Charges and Lectures, The present work is a rare anthology of charges and lectures collated from unspecified Masonic rituals by John Yarker (1833-1913), one of the most enigmatic yet best-informed Freemasons that "graced" the rolls of the United Grand Lodge of England. Contents: Masonry and the Crusades; Masonry and the Eastern Philosophy; Extension of Masonic Principles; Egyptian Mysteries; Osirian Legend; History of the Rite of Memphis; Esoteric and Exoteric Masonry; Masonic Science as Related to the Temple of Jerusalem; The Mason, a Son of God; History of the Sacred Vault of Enoch; Ineffable Name; Mission of Knights of the Sword; Captivity of the Israelites; Temple of Jerusalem as a Masonic Type; Instruction of the Degree of Rose Croix; History of the Degree of Rose Croix; On Symbols; On Atheism; Spiritual Faith of Ancient Egypt; Sapeath Pencah; Pyramid of Cheops; Astronomical Symbolism; Symbolical Numbers; Cabirian Mysteries; Moral Geometry; Tabernacle and the Temple; Serpent Worship; Magian Mysteries; Hermetic Cross; Allegorical Discourse; Discourse on Justice; Discourse on the Nature of Mysteries, and Their Masonic Perpetuation; Discourse on the Duties and Instruction of the Various Grades of Ancient and Primitive Masonry. 196 pages, ISBN 156459307X, $16.00

YARKER, JOHN, Arcane Schools, A rare reprint of a masterpiece which demonstrates the antiquity of the Masonic mysteries and their relation to other schools of antiquity by attempting to trace the development of Masonic Ritual back to the medieval stonemasons, and from there to other schools. In his review of this book in the EQUINOX, Aleister Crowley commented that Brother Yarker seems to have read every old Masonic manuscript ever written. This book is the sole source for some obscure bits of Masonic history. Yarker was the head of the Ancient & Primitive Rite of Freemasonry in England, and may have possessed more first-hand knowledge of Masonic rituals than anyone else of his time, including A.E. Waite. A Review of their Origin and Antiquity with a General History of Freemasonry and its relation to the Theosophic, Scientific, and Philosophic Mysteries. Contents: Archaic Legends; Proto-Aryan & Aryan Civilization & Mysteries; Mysteries in Relation to Philosophy; Philosophy in Relation to Masonic Rites; Mystic & Hermetic Schools in Christian Times; Recapitulated Proofs of Ancient Masonry; Masonry in

Britain & Saxon England; Masonry in Norman Times & Modern Times; Origin of the system Termed High-Grade; Freemasonry in the Grand Lodge Era; Series of Constitutional Charges. 580 pages, ISBN 1564593061, $30.00

YARKER, JOHN, Secret High Degree Rituals of the Masonic Rite of Memphis, The Rite of Memphis aggravated members of "conventional" Freemasonry because it claimed not only to be the true source of Masonic wisdom but to be the ONLY legitimate Masonic system! Its rituals were much more esoteric than those commonly encountered in "regular" Freemasonry. Many colorful personalities allied themselves with this system, including Karl Kellner, Theodore Reuss and Aleister Crowley. In England, the Rite was under the direction of John Yarker, while in the United States, Harvey Spencer Lewis, of AMORC fame, also made use of these degrees. This fascinating book is a reprint of John Yarker's manuscript—"The Ancient and Primitive Rite of Memphis in 95°—Book Third—Series III Consistory and Grand Council." It includes Yarker's last revision of the 34°-96° rituals inclusive, plus the "secret work. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593312, $13.00

YARKER, JOHN, Secret Rituals of the Adoptive Rite of Freemasonry, You may have purchased a copy of Albert Pike's book THE MASONRY OF ADOPTION from us, and if so, you'll certainly want to read this book too. These are the original French rituals which inspired Albert Pike to write his book, but he only included the first three degrees. This English translation, done by John Yarker, includes the complete degrees of the Rite—1° Adoptive Apprentice, 2° Companion, 3° Mistress, 4° Perfect Mistress, 5° Sublime Elect, 6° Dame Ecossais, 7° Grand Elect, or French Dame, 8° Lady of the Dove, 9° Lady of the Rosy Cross, 10° Adonaite Mistress, 11° Perfect Venerable Adonaite Mistress, 12° Crowned Princess, or Sovereign Mistress. The Adoptive Rite of Freemasonry is an ANDROGYNOUS system, admitting males and females on equal terms. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593339, $13.00

YARKER, JOHN, Lectures of a Chapter, Senate & Council: According to the Forms of the Antient and Primitive Rite, But Embracing All Systems of High Grade Masonry, Embodying the preliminary examinations required for advancement; the symbolical explanations of the various degrees from the 1° to the 30°; together with the Grand Book of Maxims. This extremely scarce work includes ALL the "lectures" (catechisms, or questions and answers) of Yarker's Antient and Primitive Rite of Memphis and is an ESSENTIAL work for understanding this curious Masonic rite. Portions of these lectures were borrowed from the old Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Rituals used in the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, USA, before they were influenced by Albert Pike's works. Contents: (1) Chapter. Lectures of a College—4° to 8-11°; of a Chapter—9° to 11-18°; (2) Senate. Lectures of a Senate—12° to 17-29°; of an Areopagus—18° to 20-33°; (3) Council. Lectures of a Consistory—21° to 26-68°; of a Council—27° to 30-90°; Grand Book of Maxims. 112 pages, ISBN 1564593436, $13.00
