SITUATIONAL INFORMATION REPORT
Criminal Activity Alert

Knoxville Field Office

17 June 2011

(U//FOUO) Hells Angels Motorcycle Club Members to Travel to Johnson City, Tennessee for the 2011 4th of July Weekend

(U//FOUO) According to single source reporting, Hells Angels Motorcycle Club (HAMC) members from New York will attend an event at one of two identified bars in the Johnson City, Tennessee, area during the 2011 4th of July weekend. The HAMC members will not wear their club colors. The mode of transportation, whether car or motorcycle, is unknown.

(U//FOUO) Allegedly, The HAMC members are seeking to establish a presence in Northeast Tennessee in a non-alerting, low-key manner. This presence could result in territorial conflict between the HAMC and the Outlaws Motorcycle Club (OMC) which is established within this territory.

(U//FOUO) The information herein is to assist receiving law enforcement agencies in the review of investigations with similar modus operandi. Recipients are requested to forward additional information regarding this tradecraft to the FBI Knoxville, 865-544-0751.

(U) The Knoxville Division of the FBI prepared this report. Address comments and queries to the Knoxville Field Intelligence Group at 865-544-0751.
