

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION SITUATIONAL INFORMATION REPORT

Possible Criminal Activity Alert

Pittsburgh Division

08 June 2011

(U//LES) Burning of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Sin City Deciples Clubhouse

(U//LES) FBI Pittsburgh is releasing this report to raise law enforcement awareness concerning a possible arson in the Homewood section of Pittsburgh.

(U//LES) On 07 June 2011, at 5:45 a.m., Pittsburgh Bureau of Police (PBP) Zone 5 officers were dispatched to a fire located at 8004 Frankstown Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15208. This address is the clubhouse for the Pittsburgh chapter of the Sin City Deciples Motorcycle Club.

(U//LES) According to witnesses, an African American male exited the building, closed the security gate, and threw several rocks at the windows of the building. After breaking the glass, the individual ignited an object (NFI) and threw it into the building. The unidentified male then rode off on a newer model Harley Davidson motorcycle, possibly a Road King, described as red in color, saddle bags on the rear, very clean in appearance, and a large amount of chrome.

History

(U//LES) The Sin City Deciples are described as the largest African American Outlaw Motorcycle Group (OMG) in the country, with chapters spanning 16 or more states. The national president of the club reportedly resides in the Pittsburgh area.
