Hackney MP Diane Abbott slams #Dow's sponsorship of Olympic stadium

Hackney MP Diane Abbott slams Dow's sponsorship of Olympic stadium - Olympics News - London 24
www.london24.com

The Olympic stadium is sitting under an embarrassing PR cloud after Dow Chemicals were awarded its exclusive marketing rights - a decision which MP Diane Abbott has branded "scandalous" and which could see Indian athletes drop out of the London 2012 Games.

Why keep reiterating Dow's PR Lord Coe? We know that Dow did not own the Bhopal plant at the time of the disaster and we know they did not own Union Carbide at the time of the settlement. We also know that Dow now own Union Carbide outright and will not present them to the Indian courts to face the CRIMINAL charges of 'culpable homicide not amounting to murder'- despite Union Carbide themselves choosing India as the correct forum to hear the Bhopal case. Unfortunately for Dow, and Lord Coe, everybody knows that Dow purchased Union Carbide's assets AND its liabilities at the point of takeover.

Hello! I'm Preethi, a trainee journalist at Westminster News. I'm working on a radio news story about the Bhopal issue and the recent developments. I think that everyone, most importantly students, ought to know what's happening. I was hoping I could talk to someone from the Bhopal Medical Appeal. I did try the office number but it's out of hours and this is sort of urgent. Can anyone help me and put me through to someone who I can talk to? Any volunteer.. It would hardly take 10 minutes of their time. Thanks in advance. =)
