INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Trustees
Friends of Falun Gong, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of the Friends of Falun Gong, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of October 31, 2006, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principals used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Friends of Falun Gong, Inc. as of October 31, 2006 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FRIENDS OF FALUN GONG, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
OCTOBER 31, 2006

1. Organization

Friends of Falun Gong, Inc. was established for the purpose of enhancing the awareness to the public and international community of the human rights violations and religious persecution of the practitioners of Falun Gong in China. The Foundation will use its income to create a public awareness through media, conferences and educational materials.

The foundation is a not-for-profit corporation generally exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as applicable to not-for-profit organizations.

Contributions are recorded as revenue upon receipt of cash. Contributions are considered available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Foundation considers all cash in bank checking accounts and investments in highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

3. Concentration of Credit Risk for Cash Held in Bank

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Foundation to concentration of credit risk, consist principally of temporary cash investments and certificates of deposit. The Foundation places its temporary cash and other investments with high-credit, quality financial institutions, which may exceed federally and privately insured amounts of time. The Foundation does not believe that it is exposed to any significant credit risk on uninsured amounts.
